Art. 3813. [3762] [2372] [2313] Shall exhibit personal property.—Personal property shall not be sold, unless the same be present and subject to the view of those attending the sale, when it is susceptible of being thus exhibited, except shares of stock in joint stock or incorporated companies, and in cases where the defendant in execution has merely an interest without right to the exclusive possession in which case the interest of the defendant may be sold and conveyed without the presence or delivery of the property.

Art. 3814. [3763] [2373] [2314] Sale of stock running in range.—When a levy is made upon livestock running at large in the range, it is not necessary that such stock, or any part thereof, should be present at the place of sale, and the purchaser at such sale is authorized to gather and pen such stock and select therefrom the number purchased by him.

Art. 3815. [3764] [2374] [2315] When execution not satisfied.—When the property levied upon does not sell for enough to satisfy the execution, the officer shall proceed anew, as in the first instance, to make the residue.

Art. 3816. [3765] [2375] [2316] Conveyance to purchaser.—When a sale has been made and the terms thereof complied with, the officer shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a conveyance of all the right, title, interest and claim which the defendant in execution had in and to the property sold. [Id. P. D. 3795.]

Art. 3817. [3767] [2377] [2317] Conveyance after death of purchaser.—If the purchaser, having complied with the terms of the sale, shall die before a conveyance was executed to him, the officer shall nevertheless convey the property to the purchaser, and the conveyance shall have the same effect as if it had been executed in the lifetime of the purchaser.

Art. 3818. [3768] [2378] [2318] Purchaser deemed innocent.—A purchaser at a sale under execution shall be deemed to be an innocent purchaser without notice in all cases where he would be deemed to be such had the sale been made voluntarily by the defendant in person.

Art. 3819. [3769] [2379] [2319] Penalty for unlawful sale.—Any officer who shall sell any property without giving the previous notice herein directed, or who shall sell the same otherwise than in the manner prescribed herein, shall forfeit and pay to the party injured not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars in addition to such other damages as the party may have sustained, to be recovered on motion, five days notice thereof being given such officer and his sureties.

Art. 3820. [3770] [2380] [2320] Officer shall not purchase.—If any officer or his deputy making sale of property on execution, shall, directly or indirectly, purchase the same, the sale shall be void.

Art. 3821. [3771] [2381] [2321] Purchaser failing to comply.—If any person shall bid off property at any sale made by virtue of an execution, and shall fail to comply with the terms of the sale, he shall be liable to pay the plaintiff in execution twenty per cent on the value of the property thus bid off, besides costs, to be recovered on motion, five days notice of such motion being given to such purchaser; and should the property on a second sale bring less than on the former, he shall be liable to pay to the defendant in execution all loss which he sustains thereby, to be recovered on motion as above provided. [Acts 1842, p. 66; G. L. vol. 2, p. 741; P. D. 3786.]

Art. 3822. [3772] [2382] [2322] Resale of property.—When the terms of the sale shall not be complied with by the bidder, the sheriff shall proceed to sell the property again on the same day, if there be sufficient time; but if not, he shall readvertise and sell the same as in the first instance. [Id. P. D. 3787.]

Art. 3823. [3773] [2383] [2323] Return of execution by mail.—When an execution is issued to any county other than the one in which the judgment is rendered, return may be made by mail; but money cannot be thus sent except by direction of the party entitled to receive the same or his attorney of record.

Art. 3824. [3774-75] Money to be paid over.—When an officer has collected money on execution, he shall pay the same to the party entitled thereto at the earliest opportunity. If an officer fails or refuses to pay money collected under an execution when demanded by the person entitled to receive the same, he shall be liable to pay to such person the amount so collected, with damages at the rate of five per cent per month thereon, besides interest and costs, which may be recovered of him and his sureties by the party entitled to receive the same on motion before the court from which said execution issued, five days previous notice thereof being given to said officer and his sureties.

Art. 3825. [3776] [2386] [2326] Failure to levy or sell.—Should an officer fail or refuse to levy upon or sell any property subject to execution, when the same might have been done, he and his sureties shall be liable to the party entitled to receive the money collected on such execution for the full amount of the debt, interest and costs, to be recovered on motion before the court from which said execution issued, five days previous notice thereof being given to said officer and his sureties.

Art. 3826. [3777] [2387] [2327] Failure to return execution.—Should an officer neglect or refuse to return any execution as required by law, or should he make a false return thereon, he and his sureties shall be liable to the party entitled to receive the money collected on such execution for the full amount of the debt, interest and costs to be recovered as provided in the preceding article. [Id. P. D. 3769.]

Art. 3827. [3778] [2388] [2328] Surplus to be paid to defendant.—If, on the sale of property, more money is received than is sufficient to pay the amount of the execution or executions in the hands of the officer, the surplus shall be immediately paid over to the defendant, his agent or attorney.

Art. 3828. [3779] [2389] [2329] Return of execution.—Every execution shall be returned forthwith if satisfied by the collection of the money, or upon order of the plaintiff or his attorney indorsed thereon.

Art. 3829. [3780] [2390] [2330] Death of defendant.—The death of the defendant after the execution is issued shall operate as a supersedeas thereof; but the lien, when one has been acquired by a levy, shall be recognized and enforced by the county court in the payment of the debts of the deceased.

Art. 3830. [3781] [2391] [2331] Death of the plaintiff.—An execution shall not be abated by the death of the plaintiff therein after the execution has been issued, but shall be executed and returned in the same manner as if the plaintiff was still living.

Art. 3831. [3782 to 3784] Execution docket.—The clerk of each court shall keep an execution docket in which he shall enter a statement of all executions as they are issued by him, specifying the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment, the amount due thereon, the rate of interest when it exceeds eight per cent, the costs, the date of issuing the execution, to whom delivered, and the return of the officer thereon, with the date of such return. Such docket entries shall be taken and deemed to be a record. The clerk shall keep an index and cross-index to the execution docket. When execution is in favor or against several persons, it shall be indexed in the name of each person. Any clerk who shall fail to keep said execution docket and index thereto, or shall neglect to make the entries therein, shall be liable upon his official bond to any person injured for the amount of damages sustained by such neglect. [Id.]

16. All current wages for personal services. [Const. art. 16, secs. 28, 50; Acts 1870, p. 127; Acts 1874, p. 137; P. D. 6834, 6003; G. L. vol. 6, p. 301; G. L. vol. 8, p. 138.]

Art. 3833. [3786] [2396] [2336] "Homestead."—The homestead of a family, not in a town or city, shall consist of not more than two hundred acres, which may be in one or more parcels, with the improvements thereon; the homestead in a city, town or village shall consist of a lot or lots, not to exceed in value five thousand dollars at the time of their designation as a homestead, without reference to the value of any improvements thereon; provided, that the same shall be used for the purposes of a home, or as a place to exercise the calling or business of the head of a family. Any temporary renting of the homestead shall not change the character of the same when no other homestead has been acquired. [Acts 1897, p. 131; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1185.]

Art. 3834. [3787] [2396] [2336] Proceeds exempt.—The proceeds of the voluntary sale of the homestead shall not be subject to garnishment or forced sale within six months after such sale. [Id.]

Art. 3835. [3788] [2397] [2337] Exempt to others than family.—The following property shall be reserved to persons who are not constituents: [constituents] of a family, exempt from attachment, execution and every other species of forced sale:

1. A lot or lots in a cemetery, held for the purpose of sepulture.
2. All wearing apparel.

3. All tools, apparatus and books belonging to any trade or profession.

4. One horse, saddle and bridle.

5. Current wages for personal services. [Acts 1870, p. 127; Const., art. 16, sec. 28; P. D. 6834; G. L. vol. 6, p. 301.]

Art. 3836. [3789] [2398] [2338] Ferryman.—There shall be reserved to every ferryman exempt from attachment, execution and every other species of forced sale, except as hereinafter provided, one ferryboat, keel, or flat-boat used as a ferryboat, with the necessary tackle for operating the same, not exceeding in value five hundred dollars. Such exemption shall not apply to any recovery for damages sustained by the negligence or other improper conduct on the part of such ferryman. [Acts 1858, p. 210; P. D. 3802; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1082.]

Art. 3837. [3790] [2399] [2339] Public property.—The property of counties, cities and towns, owned and held only for public purposes, such as public buildings and the sites therefor, fire engines and the furniture thereof, and all property used and intended for extinguishing fires, public grounds and other property devoted exclusively to the use and benefit of the public, shall be exempt from forced sale. [Const. art. 11, sec. 9.]

Art. 3838. [3791] [2400] [2340] Public libraries.—All public libraries shall be exempt from attachment, execution and every other specie of forced sale.

Art. 3839. [3792] [2401] [2341] Exemption does not apply.—The exemption of the homestead provided for in this title shall not apply where the debt is due:

1. For the purchase money of such homestead or a part of such purchase money.

2. For taxes due thereon.

3. For work and material used in constructing improvements thereon; but in this last case such work and material must have been contracted for in writing, and the consent of the wife, if there be one, must have been given in the same manner as is by law required in making a sale and conveyance of the homestead. [Const. art. 16, sec. 50.]

Art. 3840. [3793] [2402] [2342] Claim for rent, etc.—The exemption of personal property above provided for shall not apply when the debt is due for rents or advances made by a landlord to his tenant, or to other debts which are secured by a lien on such property. [Acts 1874, p. 55; G. L. vol. 8, p. 57.]

2. EXCESS OVER HOMESTEAD SET APART

Art. 3841. [3794] [2403] [2343] Voluntary designation.—When the homestead of a family, not being in a town or city, is a part of a larger tract or tracts of land than is exempt from forced sale as such homestead, it shall be lawful for the head of the family to designate and set apart the homestead, not exceeding two hundred acres, to which the family is entitled under the constitution and laws of this State. [Acts 1873, p. 64; P. D. 6994a; G. L. vol. 7, p. 516.]

Art. 3842. [3795] [2404] [2344] Mode of setting it apart.—The party desiring so to designate and set apart the homestead shall file for record with the county clerk of the county in which the land, or a part thereof, may be, an instrument of writing containing a description by metes and bounds, or other sufficient description to identify it, of the homestead so claimed by him, stating the name of the original grantee and the number of acres, and if more than one survey, the number of acres in each.

Art. 3843. [3796] [2405] [2345] Recorded, etc.—Such instrument shall be signed by the party and acknowledged or proved as other instruments for record, and shall state that the party has designated and set apart as his homestead the tract or tracts of land so claimed by him; and such instrument shall be recorded in the record of deeds of said county.

Art. 3844. [3797] [2406] [2346] Subject to execution.—Where the owner of a homestead, a part of a larger tract, has failed to so designate and set apart his homestead, the excess of such tract or tracts of land over and above the homestead exemption may be partitioned and separated from such homestead and subjected to levy and sale under execution, if otherwise subject, as hereinafter directed. [Id.]

Art. 3845. [3798-3799] Notice to set apart.—The sheriff or constable holding an execution against the owner of such excess of land, over and above his exempted homestead, and not separated and partitioned therefrom, may on his own motion, and shall, if required by the plaintiff in execution, his agent or attorney, notify the defendant in execution to designate and set apart his homestead from the remainder of the land so owned and occupied by him, and that on failure to do so within ten days the sheriff or constable will proceed to have such partition made as provided by law. Such notice shall be written or printed, and shall be signed by the sheriff or constable. [Id.]

Art. 3846. [3800-1-2] Service and return.—Such notice may be served on the defendant by such officer by reading it to him, or by leaving a copy of it at his place of residence with some person over fourteen years of age. The officer shall return said notice to the court from which the execution issued, with his return indorsed thereon, showing how he executed the same. Such notice and return shall be filed by the proper officer of the court, and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated. [Id.]

Art. 3847. [3803] [2412] [2352] Defendant may designate.—On the service of such notice, the defendant in execution shall have the right within ten days thereafter, to designate and set apart his homestead, and deliver such designation to the sheriff or constable. [Id.]

Art. 3848. [3805] [2414] [2354] Designation recorded.—The sheriff or constable shall deliver the designation or setting apart of the homestead so made to the county clerk of the county in which such homestead, or a part thereof, is, and such clerk shall forthwith record the same in the record of deeds of his said county. [Id.]

Art. 3849. [3806] [2415] [2355] Effect of.—Such designation and setting apart of the homestead made by the defendant under any preceding article shall operate as a relinquishment of all right of homestead in the excess of land so partitioned from the homestead, and shall be binding on the defendant, and all others in privity with him, and the same, or a certified copy of the record thereof, shall be admitted in evidence of the facts stated therein. [Id.]

Art. 3850. [3807] [2416] [2356] May appoint commissioners.—If the defendant in execution shall fail or refuse, within ten days after such notice, to so designate and set apart his homestead, the officer holding such execution shall forthwith summon either verbally or in writing three disinterested freeholders of the county as commissioners to designate a homestead for the defendant. [Id.]

Art. 3851. [3808] [2417] [2357] Commissioners to designate.—The commissioners shall forthwith proceed to partition the homestead of the defendant from the remainder of the tract or tracts, and may, if they deem it necessary, call in a surveyor to assist them. The action of such commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by them, or a majority of them and shall be duly sworn to, which shall be sufficient to admit the same of record. [Id.]

Art. 3852. [3809] [2418] [2358] Requisites of designation.—The designation of the homestead by such commissioners shall contain each requisite prescribed for a designation and setting apart by the defendant, and, shall also state that the commissioners making the same were summoned by the sheriff or constable holding said execution to perform such duty and that the designation of the homestead made by them is fair and just to the best of their judgment and belief. [Id.]

Art. 3853. [3810] [2419] [2359] Returned and recorded.—The commissioners shall return such designation to the sheriff or constable, who shall deliver the same to the county clerk to be recorded; and such designation, or a certified copy thereof, shall have the same effect as if the defendant had made the same under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 3854. [3811] [2420] [2360] Sheriff's return.—Whenever a homestead is designated under the provisions of this title, the sheriff or constable holding said execution shall make due return thereon, showing:

1. That notice to designate his homestead was given to the defendant in execution, referring to said notice and return thereon, which shall be returned with said execution.

2. That the designation of his homestead was delivered to him by the defendant, and has been filed with the county clerk, stating the dates of such delivery and filing.

3. If the defendant has failed or refused to deliver to him the designation of his homestead within the time prescribed by law, the return shall show that fact, and also that the commissioners were duly appointed by him, and that the designation made by such commissioners was filed by him with the county clerk, stating the times when said acts were done. Such return shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. [Id.]

Art. 3855. [3812-13-14] Fees and expenses.—The commissioners shall be entitled to receive two dollars a day for their services, and the surveyor five dollars per day, to include pay for chain carriers. The sheriff or constable and clerk should be entitled to such fees as are allowed by law. Such fees and expenses shall be taxed as part of the costs of the execution against the defendant and collected as other costs. [Id.]

Art. 3856. [3815] [2424] [2364] Excess to be sold.—Whenever the homestead of the defendant in execution has been designated in either of the modes prescribed in this title, the officer holding said execution may proceed to sell the excess over and above the homestead, in accordance with the law governing sales under execution. [Id.]

Art. 3857. [3816] [2425] [2365] Defendant may change, etc.—The defendant may, at any time after his homestead has been designated and set apart in either of the modes pointed out in this title, change the boundaries of his said homestead by an instrument executed and recorded as in cases of setting apart the homestead, but such change shall not impair the rights of parties acquired prior to such change.

Art. 3858. [3817] [2426] [2366] Law cumulative.—The provisions of this title in regard to the designation of the homestead are cumulative, and shall not be construed so as to interfere with, or abrogate any other mode or remedy now known to the law for subjecting the excess of the homestead tract of land over and above the exemption to forced sale, or any mode known to the law for producing partition by the purchaser at such execution sale, between himself and the owner of the homestead. [Id.]

Art. 3859. [3818] [2427] [2367] Personal property designated.—Where there is more personal property of the same kind than is exempt from execution, the head of the family, or other person entitled to such exemption, may point out the portions to be levied on. If he fails to do so within a reasonable time after being requested by the officer holding the execution, such officer may make the selection for himself; but such notice shall only be necessary when the defendant is at the time to be found within the county.

EXPRESS COMPANIES

Art.

3860.	Declared common carriers.
3861.	Regulation.
3862.	Penalty for overcharge.
3863.	Powers of commission.
3864.	General office.
3865.	To give notice, etc.
3866.	Penalty.

Article 3860. [3819] [2428] Declared common carriers.—Each person, firm or corporation which shall do the business of an express company, upon railroads or otherwise, in this State, by the carrying of any kind of property, money, papers, packages or other things, are hereby declared to be common carriers, and shall receive, safely carry and promptly deliver at the express office nearest destination every such article as may be tendered to them, and in the carriage of which they are engaged. No such company shall be compelled to carry any gunpowder, dynamite, kerosene, naphtha, gasoline, matches or other dangerous or inflammable oils, acids or materials, except under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Railroad Commission. No person, firm or corporation so engaged shall demand or receive for such services other than reasonable compensation. [Acts 1891, p. 48; G. L. vol. 10, p. 50.]

Art. 3861. [3820] [2429] Regulation.—The Railroad Commission of Texas shall have power, and it shall be its duty, to fix and establish reasonable and just rates of charges for each class or kind of property, money, papers, packages and other things, to be received and charged for by each express company, and, which, by the contract of carriage, are to be transported by such express company between points wholly within this State. Such rates shall be made to apply to all such companies, and may be changed or modified by said Commission from time to time in such manner as may become necessary. Said Commission shall have the same power to make and prescribe such rules and regulations for the government and control of such express companies as is, or may be, conferred upon said Commission for the regulation of railroads.

Art. 3862. [3821] [2430] Penalty for overcharge.—Every express company doing business in this State which shall demand or receive a greater compensation than that which may be prescribed and fixed by said Commission for the transportation within this State of any class or kind of property, money, papers, packages or things, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a sum not to exceed five hundred dollars for each offense. If it shall appear that such violation was not wilful, said company shall have ten days to refund such overcharges or damages, in which case the penalty shall not be incurred. The said Commission shall have authority and it shall be its duty to sue for the same in such manner as may be prescribed by law for like suits against railroad companies.

Art. 3863. [3822] [2431] Powers of Commission.—The said Commission shall have authority, and it shall be its duty to call upon such express companies for reports, and investigate their books in the same manner as may be prescribed by law for the regulation of railroad companies, and the said Commission shall have power and authority to institute suits, sue out such writs and process as may be applicable and authorized for the regulation of railroad companies. All laws, rules and regulations made and prescribed for the government and control of railroads, when applicable, shall be of equal force and effect as to express companies.

Art. 3864. [3823-3824] General office.—Every incorporated express company doing business in this State shall keep a general office in this State at some place on the line of its transportation, in which it shall keep its charter, books, papers, accounts and contracts, or copies thereof, showing the value of its property of all kinds, its receipts and disbursements on account of business done in this State, and its indebtedness. It shall make a full annual statement of all such matters as shown by its books to the Railroad Commission of Texas, and such additional statements as may be required by such Commission, which statements shall be certified to be correct and sworn to by the president and secretary, or general manager in Texas of such company. Such company shall permit any member of the Railroad Commission of Texas or its authorized agent to examine at any time, any and all books, papers and contracts in its said office. [Acts 1897, p. 14; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1068.]

Art. 3865. [3825] To give notice, etc.—Every express company doing business in this State shall give notice in writing to the Railroad Commission of the name, and official designation, of the person or persons, officer or officers charged with the management of its general office in this State, the location of its general office in this State, and shall from time to time give like notice in writing of any change in location of such general office, and of the person or persons, officer or officers in charge thereof. [Id.]

Art. 3866. [3823-3824-3825] Penalty.—Failure to comply with any provision of this title shall subject the offending company and any officer, agent, or employé thereof, so offending, to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit therefor. The Railroad Commission shall notify the Attorney General of any violation of any provision of this title which shall come to its knowledge. In addition to said penalty, a failure to comply with any provision of this title shall be sufficient cause to cancel the permit of any express company so offending. [Id.]

FEEBLE MINDED PERSONS—PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF

Art.

- 3867. Jurisdiction.
- 3868. Petition and affidavit.
- 3869. Citation.
- 3870. Hearing.
- 3871. Commitment.

Article 3867. Jurisdiction.—The county courts shall have original jurisdiction in all cases coming within the terms of this title, and shall at all times be deemed in session for the disposition of the same. In all trials under this title any person interested therein may demand a jury, or the judge of the court, of his own motion, may order a jury. Any person interested in any such case shall have the right to appear therein and be represented by counsel. [Acts 1923, p. 172.]

Art. 3868. Petition and affidavit.—Any resident citizen having knowledge of a person in his county who appears to be feeble minded may file with the county clerk a sworn complaint, which may be made upon information and belief, setting forth that such person is feeble minded. If such alleged feeble minded person be a minor, such complaint shall set forth the names of the parents, if known, and their residence, or if such person has no parent living, then the name and residence of his guardian, if any. Upon the filing of such complaint, the county judge shall fix the day and time for the hearing. [Id.]

Art. 3869. Citation.—If the alleged feeble minded person be a minor and it shall appear that one or both of such parents, or guardian if there be no parents, reside in said county, the clerk of said court shall immediately issue citation. Such citation shall include a brief statement of the complaint which shall be served on such parent, parents or guardian, if either can be found in said county, not less than two days before the time fixed for such hearing, requiring them to appear before the court on said day and time to show cause, if any, why such person should not be declared to be feeble minded. Such citation shall be served by the sheriff or any constable of the county. If it appears that neither of said parents is living or that they do not reside in said county, and that said person has no guardian residing in said county, or in case one or both of such parents or the guardian, in case there be no parent, shall endorse on said complaint a request that such person be declared feeble minded, then such citation need not be issued, and the court may thereupon proceed to hear the case. If such alleged feeble minded person is above the age of twenty-one years, citation shall be served upon him in the manner provided above. [Id.]

Art. 3870. Hearing.—Upon the hearing of such case, the alleged feeble minded person shall be brought before the court. The court shall appoint an attorney to represent such person, unless he be otherwise suitably represented by parent, guardian or attorney. The procedure, duties and powers of the court and officers in such case shall be the same as provided by law in other civil cases. It shall be the duty of the county attorney when requested by the court or petitioner to appear in any such hearing in behalf of the petitioner. [Id.]

Art. 3871. Commitment.—If such person be found to be feeble minded, the court shall enter its order so adjudging him, and that he be committed to the custody of the Austin State School. Upon the entry of such order, the judge shall cause to be prepared a transcript of the proceedings and evidence, which shall show the age, sex, race, status and mental condition of the patient, all of which he shall certify to be correct, and transmit the same to the superintendent of such school. If the patient is entitled to be received into the school, and there is sufficient room therein, the superintendent shall notify said judge thereof, whereupon the judge shall arrange to send such person to said school in like manner in all respects as is provided for the sending of insane patients to an asylum. [Id. Acts 1925, p. 407.] [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 2.]

FEEDING STUFF

Art.

- 3872. Tag and certificate.
- 3873. "Feeding stuff."
- 3874. To file statement and deposit samples.
- 3875. Inspection tax tag.
- 3876. To furnish list of names or trade marks.
- 3877. Analysis.
- 3878. "Importer."
- 3879. Adulterated feeding stuff.
- 3880. Director of experiment station.
- 3881. Weights.

Article 3872. [5894] Tag and certificate.—Every lot or parcel of feeding stuff, used for feeding farm live stock, sold, offered or exposed for sale in this State, for use within the State, shall have attached a tag, described in Article 3875, carrying a plainly printed statement clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds of feeding stuff in the package, stating the name or names of materials of which such weight is composed where the contents are of mixed nature, the name, brand or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer or importer, the place of manufacture, such information as is required by Article 3879, if any, and a chemical analysis stating the minimum percentage it contains of crude protein, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal six and one-quarter per cent of protein, of crude fat, of nitrogen-free extract, and the maximum percentage it contains of crude fiber; these constituents to be determined by the methods adopted at the time by the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists of North America. [Acts 1905, p. 207; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 20, ch. 14, § 1.]

Art. 3873. [5895] [5896] "Feeding stuff."—The term "feeding stuff," as used in this title, is defined to mean and include wheat bran, wheat shorts, linseed meal, cotton seed meals, pea meals, cocoanut meals, gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feeds, sugar feeds, dried brewer's grains, malt sprouts,

hominy feeds, cerealine feeds, rice meals, rice bran, rice polish, oat feeds, corn and oat chops, corn chops, ground beef or mixed fish feeds, and all other materials of similar nature, but shall not include hay or straw, the whole seed or grains of wheat, barley, oats, Indian corn, rice, buckwheat or broomcorn, or any other whole or unground grains or seed. [Acts 1905, p. 208.]

Art. 3874. [5897] To file statement and deposit samples.—Before any feeding stuff is so offered or exposed for sale, the importer, manufacturer or party who causes it to be sold, or offered for sale within this State for use within the State, shall, for each feeding stuff bearing a distinguishing name or trade mark, file with the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station a certified copy of the statement named in Article 3872, and shall also deposit with said director a sealed glass jar or bottle containing not less than one pound of the feeding stuff to be sold or offered for sale, accompanied by an affidavit that it is a fair average sample thereof, and corresponds within reasonable limits to the feeding stuff which it represents in the percentage of protein, fat and crude fiber, and nitrogen-free extract which it contains. This does not apply to farmers who grind their own feeding stuff and who do not adulterate same. [Acts 1907, p. 243, sec. 4.]

Art. 3875. [5898] Inspection tax tag.—The manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of each feeding stuff shall, before the article is offered for sale, pay to the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station an inspection tax of ten cents for each ton of such feeding stuff sold, or offered for sale, in this State for use within the State, and shall affix to each lot shipped in bulk, and to each bag, barrel or other package of such feeding stuff, a tag to be furnished by said director, stating that all charges specified in this article have been paid. The director of said experiment station is hereby empowered to prescribe the form of such tags, and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this law. Whenever the manufacturer or importer or shipper of a feeding stuff shall have filed a statement made as provided for in Article 3872, and paid the inspection tax, no agent or seller of said manufacturer, importer or shipper shall be required to file such statement or pay such tax. The amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by said director shall be paid into the State Treasury. So much of the inspection tax and penalties collected under this title shall be paid by the State Treasurer to the treasurer of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College as the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station may show by his bills has been expended in performing the duties required by this title, but in no case to exceed the amount of the inspection tax and penalties received by the State Treasurer under this title. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 3876. [5899] To furnish list of names or trade-marks.—All manufacturers and importers of feeding stuff, or dealers in same, shall, on request, furnish the director of the Texas Experiment Station with a complete list of names or trade-marks of such feeding stuff. [Acts 1905, p. 207, sec. 8.]

Art. 3877. [5900] Analysis.—The director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station shall cause one analysis or more to be made annually of each feeding stuff sold or offered for sale under any provision of this title. Said director is hereby authorized in person or by deputy to take a sample not exceeding two pounds in weight for analysis from any lot or package of feeding stuff which may be in the possession of any manufacturer, importer, agent, dealer or buyer in this State; but said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of said party or parties in interest, or their representatives, and shall be taken from a parcel, lot or number of parcels which shall not be less than five per cent of the whole lot inspected, and shall be thoroughly mixed and, if requested, divided into two samples, and placed in glass or metal vessels carefully sealed, and a label placed on each, stating the name or brand of the feeding stuff, or material sampled, the name of the party from whose stock the sample was drawn, and the date and place of taking such sample. Said label shall be signed by the director or his deputy and the party or parties at interest, or their representative present at the taking and sealing of said sample. Where the party or parties at interest refuse to be present and take part in the sampling of the said feeding stuff, the director or his deputy may take said samples in the presence of two disinterested witnesses, one of said duplicate samples shall be retained by the director, and the other shall be left with the party whose stock was sampled. The sample or samples retained by the director shall be for comparison with the certified statements made as provided for in this title. The result of the analysis of the sample or samples so prescribed, together with such additional information as circumstances advise shall be published in reports or bulletins by the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College from time to time. [Acts 1905, p. 207, sec. 9.]

Art. 3878. [5901] "Importer."—The term "importer" means all persons who shall bring into or offer for sale within this State feeding stuff manufactured without this State. [Acts 1905, p. 207.]

Art. 3879. [5902] Adulterated feeding stuff.—A feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if it contains any sawdust, dirt, damaged feed, or any foreign matter whatever, or if it is in any respect not what it is represented to be, or if any rice hulls or chaff, peanut shells, corncobs, oat hulls, or other similar substances of little or no feeding value are admixed therewith. No wholesome mixture of feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if the true percentage of constituents thereof is plainly and clearly stated on the package and made known to the buyer at the time of the sale. It shall be the duty of the director of the experiment station to examine, or have examined for adulteration all suspicious samples of feeding stuff, and such other samples as may be desirable. [Acts 1905, p. 207; Acts 1907, p. 243, sec. 11.]

Art. 3880. [5903] Director of experiment station.—The director of said experiment station is empowered to adopt standards or definitions for feeding stuff, and such other regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of any provision of this title. Said director shall have the power to refuse the registration of any feeding stuff, under a name which would be misleading as to materials of which it is made up, or which does not conform to the standards or definitions aforesaid. Should any said feeding stuffs be registered and it is afterwards discovered that they are in violation of the above provisions, said director shall have the power to cancel the registration ten days after notice. [Acts 1907, p. 243.]

Art. 3881. Weights.—Feeding stuff shall have the following standard net weights per sack or container; one hundred pounds, or the following fractions thereof, three-fourths, one-half, one-fourth, one-sixth, one-eighth, one-tenth, one-twelfth, one-sixteenth, and one-twentieth; and rice bran may also be sold in sacks of one hundred and forty-three pounds. No tax tags shall be issued for any feeding stuff which does not conform to the weights herein prescribed.

Compensation herein fixed for sheriffs of any county shall be exclusive of any reward received for the apprehension of criminals or fugitives from justice. The maximum fixed for the compensation of each district attorney shall be inclusive of the salary allowed him by the Constitution. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 333; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 68.]

Art. 3883a. [3883] Fees in certain counties.—Maximum fees in counties of 37,000 inhabitants or containing cities of 25,000; in counties containing a city of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, or in such counties as shown by the United States census of 1910, shall contain as many as thirty-seven thousand inhabitants, the following amount of fees shall be allowed, viz: County judge, an amount not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars per annum; sheriff an amount not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars per annum; clerk of the county court, an amount not exceeding twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; county attorney, an amount not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars per annum; district attorney an amount not exceeding twenty-five hundred, inclusive of the five hundred dollars allowed by the Constitution and paid by the State; clerk of the district court an amount not exceeding twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; collector of taxes an amount not exceeding the sum of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; assessor of taxes an amount not exceeding the sum of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; justice of the peace an amount not exceeding twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum, exclusive of the amount allowed for holding inquests, which shall be paid as ex-officio fees; constables an amount not exceeding the sum of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars per annum; provided, the compensation fixed herein for sheriffs, constables and their deputies, shall be exclusive of any rewards received for the apprehension of criminals or fugitives from justice. [Acts 1925, p. 152.] [39th Leg., ch. 32, § 1.]

Art. 3884. [3903] Maximum for deputies.—The maximum annual compensation allowed each Deputy or assistant to any officer named in art. 3883a of the Revised Statutes of 1925 shall be as follows:

1. In Counties having a population less than thirty-seven thousand five hundred, and not containing a city of over twenty-five thousand:

First Assistant or Chief Deputy.....	$1800
Other Assistants or Deputies.....	1500

2. In Counties having a population of over thirty-seven thousand five hundred to one hundred thousand and containing no city with a population of twenty-five thousand inhabitants:

First Assistant or Chief Deputy.....	$2100
Heads of Departments.....	1800
Other Assistants or Deputies.....	1500

3. In Counties containing a population of over thirty-seven thousand five hundred to one hundred thousand and containing a city of over twenty-five thousand inhabitants, or counties containing a population of more than one hundred thousand:

First Assistant or Chief Deputy.....	$2700
Heads of Departments.....	2400

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 153, ch. 102, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 3885. District attorneys of districts of two or more counties.—(See Code of Criminal Procedure.) Art. 2010.

Reference is evidently intended to Code of Criminal Procedure, art. 1021.

Art. 3886. District attorneys of large counties.—In any county having a population in excess of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, the district attorney or criminal district attorney thereof shall receive all fees, commissions and perquisites earned by such office; provided that the amount of said salary, fees, commissions and perquisites to be so received and retained by him including the five hundred dollars provided by the Constitution shall not exceed the sum of six thousand dollars in any one year. All salaries, fees, commissions and perquisites so earned and received by such office in excess of six thousand dollars during each and every fiscal year shall be paid into the county treasury of said county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Maximum Fee Bill, except as to such portion of such excess as shall be used and expended in the payment of salaries to deputies, stenographers, investigators or other employes as herein provided. Each such district attorney may appoint seven assistant district attorneys, one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed thirty-six hundred dollars per annum; two of whom shall receive a salary of not to exceed three thousand dollars per annum each; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, each; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum each. He may employ one stenographer who shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand four hundred dollars per annum, and one stenographer who shall receive a salary not to exceed one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. He may employ two investigators, one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed two thousand four hundred dollars per annum; and the other shall receive a salary of not to exceed one thousand eight hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of assistants, deputies, stenographers and investigators and other employes above provided for shall be paid monthly by said county, by warrants drawn from the general funds thereof. Should such district attorney be of the opinion that the number of deputies, assistants, stenographers, investigators or other employes above provided for are inadequate for the proper investigation of crime and the efficient performance of the duties of said office, he may appoint such additional assistants and employes and fix their salaries, provided such salaries shall in no event exceed the maximum provided herein to be paid to such assistants or other employes, but such additional assistants and employes so appointed, before qualifying and entering upon the duties of such office and employment, shall be confirmed by the commissioners court of the county in which such appointments are made. The salaries for such additional assistants and employes shall be paid monthly out of the excess fees collected by such district attorney and his office which would otherwise go to said county, a detailed sworn itemized statement of which he shall include in his annual report, as provided to be made in the Maximum Fee Bill. In no event shall said county be liable for the salaries of such additional assistants or employes. Any such assistant, deputy, stenographer, investigator or employe, whether regular or additional shall be subject to removal at the will of said district or criminal district attorney. [Acts 1911, p. 116; Acts 1917, pp. 69, 94, 123; Acts 1919, p. 83; Acts 1923, p. 373.]

Acts 1917, 35th Leg., p. 123, ch. 64, in so far as applicable to the 34th Judicial District, consisting of El Paso, Huds-peth, and Culberson counties, was amended by Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 14, ch. 9, arts. 326a-326e, which see.

Art. 3887. County attorney.—In any county having a population in excess of one hundred thousand inhabitants, where there is no district attorney, the county attorney of such county shall be allowed to retain out of the fees earned and collected by him four thousand dollars per annum, and in addition thereto one-fourth of the excess of such fees collected by him, provided that such additional amount retained by him out of the excess fees shall not exceed two thousand dollars per year, the remainder to be paid into the county treasury. In arriving at the amount collected by him he shall include the fees arising from all classes of criminal cases whether felony or misdemeanor arising in any court in such county including habeas corpus hearing and fines and forfeitures; provided that said county attorney shall not receive any moneys from any source whatsoever in excess of the six thousand dollars above provided for. Such fees, however, to be included in the reports provided for by law, and to be taken into consideration in arriving at the total maximum compensation provided in this article, and except as herein specifically provided otherwise, all provisions of this chapter shall apply. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 55.]

Art. 3888. [2765-3886] County judge.—In a county where the county judge acts as superintendent of public instruction, he shall receive for such services such salary not to exceed nine hundred dollars a year as the commissioners court may provide. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 44; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 101.]

Art. 3889. Census to govern.—The preceding Federal census shall govern as to population in all cases under any provision of this chapter.

Art. 3890. [3888] State or county not liable.—The amounts allowed to each officer mentioned in Article 3883 may be retained out of the fees collected by him under existing laws; but in no case shall the State or county be responsible for the payment of any sum when the fees collected by any officer are less than the maximum compensation allowed by this chapter, nor be responsible for the pay of any deputy or assistant. [Acts 1907, p. 50.]

Art. 3891. [3889] Disposition of fees.—Each officer named in this chapter shall first, out of the fees of his office, pay or be paid, the amount allowed him, under the provisions of this chapter, together with the salaries of his assistants or deputies. If the fees of such office collected in any year be more than the amount needed to pay the amount allowed such officer and his assistants and deputies, same shall be deemed excess fees, and of such excess fees such officer shall retain one-fourth in counties having between twenty-five thousand and thirty-eight thousand inhabitants until such one-fourth amounts to the sum of twelve hundred and fifty dollars; and counties in which the population exceeds thirty-eight thousand until such one-fourth amounts to the sum of fifteen hundred dollars. All fees collected by officers named in Article 3883 during any fiscal year in excess of the maximum amount allowed by law, and of the one-fourth of the excess of the maximum amount allowed for their services, and for the services of their deputies or their assistants as herein provided for shall be paid into the county treasury of the county where the excess accrued, provided that in counties of less than twenty-five thousand inhabitants and which counties constitute a separate judicial district, the chief deputy or first assistant of the officers named in this chapter shall receive a sum not to exceed a rate of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, and the other deputies or assistants a sum not to exceed a rate of fifteen hundred dollars per annum, and the limitations as to the pay of deputies and assistants elsewhere provided in this chapter shall not apply in such counties. [Acts 1923, p. 398.]

Art. 3892. [3890] Failure to collect maximum.—Any officer mentioned in Article 3883 who does not collect the maximum amount of his fees for any fiscal year and who reports delinquent fees for that year, shall be entitled to retain, when collected, such part of such delinquent fees as is sufficient to complete the maximum compensation for the year in which delinquent fees were charged, and also retain one-fourth of the excess belonging to him, and the remainder of the delinquent fees for that fiscal year shall be paid as herein provided for when collected. [Acts 1907, p. 50.]

Art. 3893. [3891] District clerks.—In counties having more than one judicial district, the district clerks thereof shall in no case be allowed fees in excess of the maximum fees allowed clerks in counties having only one district court. [Id.]

Art. 3894. [3892] Delinquent fees.—All fees due and not collected as shown in the report required by Article 3897 shall be collected by the officer to whose office the fees accrued; and, out of such part of delinquent fees as may be due the county, the officer making such collection shall be entitled to ten per cent of the amount collected by him, and the remainder shall be paid into the county treasury as provided in Article 3891. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 10.]

Art. 3895. [3893] Ex-officio services.—The commissioners court is hereby debarred from allowing compensation for ex-officio services to county officials when the compensation and excess fees which they are allowed to retain shall reach the maximum provided for in this chapter. In cases where the compensation and excess fees which the officers are allowed to retain shall not reach the maximum provided for in this chapter, the commissioners court shall allow compensation for ex-officio services when, in their judgment, such compensation is necessary, provided, such compensation for ex-officio services allowed shall not increase the compensation of the official beyond the maximum of compensation and excess fees allowed to be retained by him under this chapter. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 10; Acts 1913, p. 248.]

Art. 3896. [3894] To keep accounts.—Those officials named in the first six articles of this chapter shall keep a correct statement of the sums coming into their hands as fees and commissions, in a book to be provided for them for that purpose, in which the officer at any time when any fees or moneys shall come into his hands shall enter the same; and it shall be the duty of the grand jury (and the district judge shall so charge the grand jury) to examine these accounts at the session of the district court next succeeding the last day of December of each year, and make a report on same to the district court at the conclusion of the session of the grand jury. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 10.]

Art. 3897. [3895] Sworn statement.—Each officer mentioned in Article 3883 shall, at the close of each fiscal year, make to the district court of the county in which he resides a sworn statement showing the amount of fees collected by him during the fiscal year, and the amount of fees charged and not collected, and by whom due, and the number of deputies and assistants employed by him during the year, and the amount paid, or to be paid each. [Id. Acts 1907, p. 50.]

Art. 3898. [3896] Fiscal year.—A fiscal year, within the meaning of this chapter, shall begin on January first of each year; and each officer named in Article 3883 shall file the reports and make the settlement required in this chapter on January first of each year. Whenever such officer serves for a fractional part of a fiscal year, he shall nevertheless file his report and make settlement for such part of a year as he serves, and shall be entitled to such proportional part of the maximum allowed as the time of his services bears to the entire year. However, an incoming officer elected at the general election, who qualifies prior to January first next following, shall not be required to file any report or make any settlement before January first of the following year; but his report and settlement shall embrace the entire period dated from his qualification. [Acts 1923, p. 223.]

Art. 3899. [3897] Expense account.—At the close of each month of his tenure of such office each officer whose fees are affected by the provisions of this law shall make as a part of the report now required by law, an itemized and sworn statement of all the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his office, such as stationery, stamps, telephone, traveling expenses and other necessary expense. If such expense be incurred in connection with any particular case, such statement shall name such case. Such expense account shall be subject to the audit of the county auditor, if any, and if it appear that any item of such expense was not incurred by such officer, or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by such auditor or court rejected. In which case the correctness of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction. The amount of such expense referred to in this paragraph, shall not be taken to include the salaries of assistants or deputies which are elsewhere herein provided for. The amount of such expense shall be deducted by the officer in making each such report, from the amount, if any, due by him to the county under the provisions of this law. The commissioners court of the county of the sheriff's residence may upon the written sworn application of the sheriff stating the necessity therefor, allow one or more automobiles to be used by the sheriff in the discharge of his official duties, which if purchased shall be bought by the county in the manner prescribed by law for the purchase of supplies, and paid for out of the general fund, and they shall be and remain the property of the county. The expense of the maintenance and operation of such automobile or automobiles as may be allowed shall be paid for by the sheriff, and the amount thereof shall be reported by the sheriff on the report above provided for, and shall be deducted by him from the amount, if any, due by him to the county in the same manner as the other expenses are deducted which are provided for in this law. [Acts 1923, p. 405.]

Art. 3900. Not to report.—The officers named in Article 3883 in those counties having a population of twenty-five thousand or less inhabitants shall not be required to make a report of fees as provided in Article 3879, or to keep the statement provided for in Article 3896; provided that all district attorneys shall be required to make the reports and keep the statements required in this chapter. [Acts 1923, p. 399.]

Art. 3901. [3899] Collector and assessor.—Each tax collector and tax assessor at the time of his settlement with the Comptroller, shall file with him a copy of the sworn statement required under Article 3897. [Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 11.]

Art. 3902. [3903] Deputies—appointment of.—Whenever any officer named in Article 3883 shall require the services of deputies or assistants in the performance of his duties, he may apply to the county commissioners' court of his county for authority to appoint such deputies or assistants, setting out by sworn application the number needed, the positions sought to be filled, and the amount to be paid. Said application shall be accompanied by a statement showing the probable receipts and disbursements of the office; and said court may make its order authorizing the appointment of such deputies and fix the compensation to be paid them and determine the number to be appointed, provided that in no case shall said commissioners' court or any member thereof attempt to influence the appointment of any person as deputy or assistant in any office. Upon the entry of such order, the officers applying for such deputies shall be authorized to appoint them as now provided by law, provided that said compensation shall not exceed the maximum amounts hereinafter set out. In counties having a population in excess of one hundred thousand inhabitants, the district attorney in the county of his residence or the county attorney, where there is not a district attorney, shall be allowed by order of the commissioners' court of the county where such official resides such amount as said court may deem necessary to pay for the proper administration of the duties of such office, not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month; such amount to be allowed upon affidavit of said district or county attorney showing a necessity for such expenses and for all the amounts so incurred. Said commissioners' court may also require any other evidence as it may deem necessary to show the necessity of such expenditure, and its judgment in allowing same shall be final.

The maximum compensation which may be allowed for deputies or assistants to the officers named in said Article 3883 for their services, shall be as follows, to-wit:

First assistant or chief deputy not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum; other assistants or deputies not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum each.

Provided, that in counties having a population of from thirty-seven thousand five hundred to one hundred thousand inhabitants, the maximum compensation which may be allowed such deputies or assistants for their services shall be as follows, to-wit:

First assistant or chief deputy not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum; heads of such department not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum each; other deputies or assistants not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum each.

Provided, that in counties having a population of from thirty-seven thousand five hundred to one hundred thousand, and containing a city of over twenty-five thousand, the maximum compensation that may be allowed such deputies or assistants for their services shall be as follows, to-wit:

First assistant or chief deputy not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum; heads of each department not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum each, other deputies or assistants not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum each.

Provided, that in counties having a population in excess of one hundred thousand inhabitants the maximum compensation that may be allowed such deputies or assistants for their services shall be as follows, to-wit:

First assistant or chief deputy not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, provided the commissioners' court may increase said amount to not exceed a rate of three thousand dollars per annum, where a necessity therefor is shown, and where the person to be appointed has been previously the head of a department for not less than one year, or has been in the continuous service of the county for a period of not less than two years.

Heads of departments may be allowed by the court, when in their judgment such are necessary, not to exceed a rate of twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, when such heads of departments sought to be appointed shall have previously served the county for not less than two continuous years. Other heads of departments shall receive not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum; provided, that no head of a department shall be created except where the person sought to be appointed is to be in actual charge thereof, with deputies or assistants under his supervision, or a department approved by the court and only in offices capable of a bona fide subdivision into departments.

Deputies or assistants other than those above provided for may be allowed, the number to be determined by the commissioners' court, and their salaries based as far as possible on a graduated scale according to service, ability and qualifications. Fifty per cent of the number so appointed may be authorized at a rate not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum, provided such rate shall be allowed only to deputies in service for two years or more, and all others so appointed at a rate not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum.

Provided further, that in determining the number of inhabitants in each of the instances heretofore mentioned, the number of inhabitants as shown by the last United States census shall control.

The county commissioners court in each order granting authority to appoint deputies or assistants shall state the number of deputies or assistants authorized and the amount of compensation to be allowed each deputy or assistant, which compensation shall be paid out of the fees of the office to which such deputies or assistants may be appointed and assigned, and shall not be included in estimating the maximum fees of the officers prescribed in said Article 3883. The salaries referred to shall not be paid by the county, but are to be paid out of the fees of the office in the following manner:

First, out of any current fees collected, and second, if such fees are not sufficient, then out of any delinquent fees collected which are due the county after all legal deductions are made and if there be any balance remaining after payment of the maximum fee, compensation and excess fees due such officer or officers and the compensation of such deputy or deputies, such balance shall be paid to the county treasurer.

Provided, however, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal H. B. No. 196, passed by the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, same being known as Chapter 47, of the Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature, page 83, and any Acts amendatory thereof, relating to fixing salaries of district attorneys, their deputies, assistants and stenographers in counties having a population of more than one hundred thousand.

Provided, that in counties of two hundred thousand inhabitants and over and containing a city with a population of over one hundred and sixty thousand inhabitants according to the last United States census, and in which counties there are more than one district court, including criminal district courts, the clerk of the district court shall appoint a special deputy for each such court when directed so to do by the judge of any such court, except in instances where there is one now provided for by law; provided further that any such special deputy shall be paid out of the general fund of the county, a salary not in excess of the maximum salary per annum provided for deputies now by law, payable monthly, and such compensation shall not be paid out of the fees of [or] compensation of the district clerk, and shall not be taken into consideration in arriving at the maximum compensation and excess fees allowed the clerk of the district courts. [Acts 1925, p. 189.] [39th Leg., ch. 52, § 1.]

Art. 3902B. Compensation of assistant county attorneys.—Provided, that in Counties having a population of more than 70,000 and less than 100,000, as shown by the latest United States Census, and containing two or more cities of more than 20,000 population each, as shown by said United States Census, and composing two or more Judicial Districts with courts of general jurisdiction and having no District Attorney, the maximum compensation that may be allowed the assistants, heads of departments and other assistants to the County Attorney in such counties, shall be as follows: First Assistant, not to exceed the sum of Thirty-six Hundred Dollars per annum; Heads of Departments or Second Assistants, not to exceed the sum of Three Thousand Dollars per annum; and other assistants, not to exceed the sum of Twenty-four Hundred Dollars per annum. The Compensation herein provided for and the amounts thereof, shall be fixed by the Commissioners' Courts of such Counties, not in any event to exceed said maximum amounts, upon application of the County Attorney of such Counties, which said application shall show the necessity therefor, and said assistants or heads of departments shall not be required to have rendered official service in such Counties or to have been the head of a department therein. Said compensation, when fixed and allowed, by the order of the Commissioners' Court of such Counties, shall be paid in monthly installments out of the fees of the office of the County Attorney, and the Counties shall in no case be liable for the payment of such compensation. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 410, ch. 272, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 410, ch. 272, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 3903. [3903] Special deputy district clerk.—In counties of two hundred thousand inhabitants and over containing a city of over one hundred and sixty thousand inhabitants, and in which counties there are more than one district court, including criminal district courts, the clerk of the district courts shall appoint a special deputy for each court when directed so to do by the judge of any such court. Any such special deputy shall be paid out of the general fund of the county, a salary not in excess of the maximum salary per annum provided herein for deputies, payable monthly and such compensation shall not be paid out of the fees or compensation of the district clerk, and shall not be taken into consideration in arriving at the maximum compensation and excess fees allowed the clerk of the district courts. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 189, ch. 52, § 1.]

Art. 3904. [3906-7-12-23] No fee allowed.—No clerk or justice of the peace shall be entitled to any fee for the examination of any paper or record in his office, nor for filing any process or paper issued by him and returned into court, nor for motions or judgments upon motions for security for costs, nor for taking and approving a bond for costs. A judgment containing several orders shall be considered as one judgment, and only one fee shall be charged by said clerk or justice for entering or rendering the same. [Acts 1876, p. 285; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1120.]

Art. 3905. [3908] [2478] [2414] Fee for acknowledgment.—Officers authorized by law to take acknowledgment or proof of deeds or other instruments of writing shall receive the same fees for taking such acknowledgment or proof as are allowed notaries public for the same services. [Id.]

Art. 3906. [3911] [2481] [2417] No fee for copy.—No copy of a paper not required by law to be copied shall be taxed in the bill of costs. [Id.]

Art. 3907. [3913] [2483] [2419] Fee book.—Every officer entitled by law to charge fees for services shall keep a fee book, and shall enter therein all fees charged for services rendered, which fee book shall, at all times be subject to the inspection of any person wishing to see the amount of fees therein charged. [Id.]

Art. 3908. [3914] [2484] [2420] To itemize costs.—None of the fees mentioned in this title shall be payable to any person whomsoever until there be produced, or ready to be produced, unto the person owing or chargeable with the same, a bill or account in writing containing the particulars of such fees, signed by the clerk or officer to whom such fees are due, or by whom the same are charged, or by the successor in office, or legal representative of such clerk or officer. [Id.]

Art. 3909. [3915] [2485] [2421] Extortion.—If any officer named in this title shall demand and receive any higher fees than are prescribed to them in this title, or any fees that are not allowed by this title, such officer shall be liable to the party aggrieved for fourfold the fees so unlawfully demanded and received by him. [Id.]

Art. 3910. [3916] [2486] [2422] Fees posted.—County judges, clerks of the district and county courts, sheriffs, justices of the peace, constables and notaries public of the several counties shall keep posted up, at all times, in a conspicuous place in the [their] respective offices a complete list of fees allowed by law to be charged by them respectively. [Id.]

Art. 3911. [3917] [2487] [2423] Officer to execute process.—Officers receiving any process to be executed shall not be entitled in any case to demand their fees for executing the same in advance of such execution, but their fees shall be taxed and collected as other costs in the case. [Id.]

Art. 3912. Other fees of office.—Any other fees of office which any article or statute expressly provides are not to be accounted for as fees of office shall not be affected by the provisions of this title.

Art. 3914. [3837] [2439] Secretary of State.—The Secretary of State is authorized and required to charge for the use of the State the following other fees:

For each charter, amendment or supplement thereto of a private corporation created for the purpose of operating or constructing a railroad, magnetic telegraph line or street railway or express company, authorized or required by law to be recorded in said department, a fee of two hundred dollars to be paid when said charter is filed, provided, that if the authorized capital stock of said corporation shall exceed one hundred thousand dollars, it shall be required to pay an additional fee of fifty cents for each one thousand dollars authorized capital stock, or fractional part thereof, after the first one hundred thousand; and provided further that such fee shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.

For each charter, amendment or supplement thereto, of a private corporation intended for the support of public worship, any benevolent, charitable, educational, missionary, literary or scientific undertaking, the maintenance of a library, the promotion of painting, music or other fine arts, the encouragement of agriculture or horticulture, the maintenance of public parks, the maintenance of a public cemetery not for profit, a fee of ten dollars to be paid when the charter is filed.

For filing the charter of a corporation organized to aid its member stockholders in producing and marketing agricultural products, or for acquiring, raising, breeding, fattening or marketing livestock, ten dollars; and for filing the semi-annual financial statement of such corporation, ten dollars which shall include the annual license fee.

For each charter, amendment or supplement thereto of a channel and dock corporation, a fee of two hundred dollars shall be paid to the Secretary of State when the charter, amendment or supplement thereto is filed for record; provided, that if the authorized capital stock of said corporation shall exceed one hundred thousand dollars it shall be required to pay an additional fee of fifty cents for each one thousand dollars of its authorized capital stock or fractional part thereof in excess of one hundred thousand dollars; and provided further that such fee shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.

Each building and loan association shall pay to the Secretary of State the following fees: for filing articles of association, by-laws, amendments or any other paper, one dollar; for making and certifying to articles of association, by-laws or any other paper required to be filed with the Secretary of State, twenty cents per one hundred words; for making the annual examination required by law, one seventy-fifth part of one per cent of the gross amount of assets of such association, which fee shall not be less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars in any one year, to be paid at the time of filing its annual statement; and shall at the same time pay said officer an annual franchise tax of ten dollars.

For each charter, amendment or supplement thereto, of a private corporation created for any other purpose intended for mutual profit or benefit, a fee of fifty dollars shall be paid when said charter is filed, provided that if the authorized capital stock of said corporation shall exceed ten thousand dollars it shall be required to pay an additional fee of ten dollars for each additional ten thousand dollars of its authorized capital stock or fractional part thereof after the first, provided that such fee shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.

Each foreign corporation that files with the Secretary of State a certified copy of its articles of incorporation and any amendments thereto and obtains a permit to do business in this State, or which shall hereafter obtain a permit to do business in this State, that shall subsequently file with the Secretary of State a certified copy of any amendment or supplement to its articles of incorporation, shall pay to the Secretary of State as filing fees the following: fifty dollars for the first ten thousand dollars of its capital stock actually subscribed, and ten dollars for each additional ten thousand dollars or fractional part thereof; provided that in no event shall such fee exceed twenty-five hundred dollars; provided, that the fee required to be paid by any foreign corporation for a permit to engage in the manufacture, sale, rental, lease or operation of all kinds of cars, or to engage in conducting, operating or managing any telegraph line in this State, shall in no event exceed twenty-five hundred dollars.

For each commission to every officer elected or appointed in this State, one dollar.

For each official certificate, one dollar.

For each warrant of requisition, two dollars.

For every remission of fine or forfeiture, one dollar.

For copies of any paper, document or record in his office, for each one hundred words, fifteen cents.

For recording each contract for the conditional sale, lease or hire of railroad equipment and rolling stock, and for recording each declaration of performance of such contract, five dollars; and for entering such declaration on the margin of the record of such contract, one dollar.

For recording each certificate of consolidation of cities, and for recording each certificate of adoption of a city charter or amendment under the "Home Rule Act," fifteen cents per one hundred words, provided such fee shall not be less than two dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 79.]

Art. 3915. [3838] Certain foreign corporations.—All foreign building and loan associations shall pay to the Secretary of State the following fees: for filing each application for admission to do business in this State, fifty dollars; for each certificate of authority and annual renewal of the same, twenty-five dollars; and an annual franchise tax of two hundred and fifty dollars. The fee required to be paid by any foreign corporation for a permit to do the business of loaning money in this State shall in no event exceed one thousand dollars. [Acts S. S. 1909, p. 267; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 72.]

Art. 3916. [3840] Disposition of fees.—All fees mentioned in the two preceding articles shall be paid in advance into the office of the Secretary of State, and shall be by him paid into the State Treasury monthly. [Id.]

Art. 3917. [3841] [2440] [2375] Attorney General.—The Attorney General shall be entitled to the following fees:

For each affirmation of judgment in cases to which the State may be a party involving pecuniary liabilities to the State, ten per cent on the amount collected if under one thousand dollars, and five per cent for all above that sum, to be paid out of the money when collected.

For all cases involving the forfeiture of charters, heard on appeal before the Supreme Court or Courts of Civil Appeals, twenty-five dollars.

But the whole amount of fees allowed the Attorney General shall not exceed the sum of two thousand dollars per annum, and the excess of such fees over two thousand dollars per annum shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Acts 1876, p. 284; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1120.]

Art. 3948. [3928] [2497] [2432] Complaint of trespass.—When any trespass shall have been done by any cattle, horses, hogs or other stock, on the cleared and cultivated ground of any person, such person may complain thereof to any justice of the peace of the county where such trespass shall have been done, and such justice upon such complaint being filed shall cause two disinterested and impartial freeholders to be summoned, who, with such justice, shall view and examine on oath whether complainant's fence be sufficient or not, and what damages he has sustained by such trespass, and certify the same in writing; and if it shall so appear that said fence be sufficient, then the owner of such cattle, horses, hogs or other stock shall make full satisfaction for the trespass to the party injured to be recovered by suit therefor.

Art. 3949. [3929] [2498] [2433] Stock impounded.—In case of a second trespass by the same cattle, horses, hogs or other stock, the owner, lessee or proprietor of the premises upon which the trespass is committed may, if he deem it necessary for the protection and preservation of his premises, or the crops growing thereon, cause such stock to be penned and turned over to the sheriff or constable and held responsible to the person damaged for all damages caused by said stock and all costs thereon.

Art. 3950. [3930] [2499] [2434] Owner not liable.—If it appears that the said fence is insufficient, then the owner of such cattle, horses, hogs or other stock, shall not be liable to make satisfaction for such damages.

Art. 3951. [3931] [2500] [2435] Persons injuring stock.—If any person whose fence shall be adjudged insufficient shall, with guns, dogs or otherwise maim, wound or kill any horses, cattle, hogs or other stock, or cause or procure the same to be done, such person so offending shall be liable to the person injured for all damages by such person sustained.

Art. 3952. [3932] [2501] Removing adjoining fence.—It shall be unlawful for any person who is a joint owner of any separating or dividing fence, or who is in any manner interested in any fence attached to, or connected with any fence owned or controlled by any other person to remove the same, except by mutual consent or as hereinafter provided. [Act March 17, 1887; Act April 6, 1889, p. 45; G. L. vol. 9, p. 30 and 1073.]

Art. 3953. [3933] [2502] How to separate fence.—Any person who is the owner or part owner of any fence connected with or adjoined to any fence owned in part or in whole by any other person, shall have the right to withdraw or separate his fence or part of fence from the fence of any other person, upon giving notice in writing to such person, his agent, attorney, or lessee, of his intention to separate or withdraw his fence, or part thereof, for at least six months prior to the time of such intended withdrawal or separation. [Id.]

Art. 3954. [3934] [2503] Adjacent owner to remove fence.—Whoever is the owner of any fence wholly upon his land to which the fence of another is adjoined or connected in any manner, may require the owner of such fence to disconnect and withdraw the same back on his own land by giving notice in writing, for at least six months, to such person, his agent, attorney, or lessee, to disconnect and withdraw his fence back on his own land. [Id.]

Article 3955. Owner to provide.—The owner of each building, which is or may be constructed within this State; three or more stories in height, constructed, used or intended to be used in whole or in part as any of the following buildings, shall provide and equip such building with at least one adequate fire escape, and such additional fire escapes, as provided in the three succeeding articles. [Acts 1923, p. 361.]

Art. 3956. Hotels, theaters, etc.—For each hospital, seminary, college, academy, school house, dormitory, hotel, lodging house, apartment house, rooming house, boarding house, house for the accommodation of transient guests, lodge hall, theater, public place of amusement, or hall or place used for public gatherings, having a lot area in excess of five thousand square feet, there shall be provided one additional adequate fire escape for each five thousand square feet of such excess or fraction thereof if such fraction exceeds two thousand square feet. [Id.]

Art. 3957. Offices and plants.—For each office building, wholesale or retail mercantile establishment or store, work shop, or manufacturing establishment or industrial plant, having a lot area in excess of six thousand square feet, there shall be provided one additional adequate fire escape for each six thousand square feet of such excess or fraction thereof if such fraction exceeds twenty-five hundred square feet. [Id.]

Art. 3958. Warehouses and mills.—For each warehouse, storage house or mill building, having a lot area in excess of eight thousand square feet, there shall be provided one additional adequate fire escape for each eight thousand square feet of such excess, or fraction thereof if such fraction exceeds thirty-five hundred square feet. The provisions of this title requiring the construction of standard fire escapes, shall not apply to grain elevators of steel, or steel and concrete construction, nor to wooden elevators where less than five persons are employed. [Id.]

Art. 3959. State, county and city buildings.—Each building which is or may be constructed within this State three or more stories in height, which is owned by this State, or by any city, county or school district, and in which building public assemblies are permitted or intended to be permitted, or in which schools of any kind are conducted, or in which sleeping apartments are permitted or intended to be permitted on any floor above the first, shall be provided and equipped with at least one adequate fire escape if the lot area of such building shall not exceed five thousand square feet, and one additional adequate fire escape for each five thousand square feet, or fraction thereof if such fraction exceeds two thousand square feet in excess of the first five thousand square feet of lot area. [Id.]

Art. 3960. Officials to provide.—Each board, commission, official or person having charge or supervision of any building included in the preceding article, or having charge or supervision of the letting of contracts for the construction of such buildings, shall fully comply with the provisions of this title relating to providing and equipping such buildings with adequate fire escapes. [Id.]

Art. 3961. "Owner" defined.—The term "owner" within the meaning of this title shall include persons, firms, associations, and private corporations. [Id.]

Art. 3962. "Story" defined.—The word "story" as used in this title, shall be construed to have its usual and ordinary meaning as applied to architecture, and in addition thereto shall be construed to include a basement of any building that extends five feet or more above grade line on one or more sides of such building, a balcony or mezzanine floor of any building, a roof of any building used as a roof garden, and an attic of any building used for any purpose. [Id.]

Art. 3963. "Adequate fire escape."—An "adequate fire escape" within the meaning of this title, is defined to be an exterior iron, steel or concrete stairway type fire escape, or an exterior iron or steel straight chute type fire escape, or an exterior iron or steel spiral chute type fire escape; or a combination of said three types, or an interior type fire escape enclosed with non combustible material and having self-closing fireproof shutters on all door and window openings thereof. Each type of such fire escape shall be so constructed and arranged as to permit exit upon such fire escape from each floor of the building above the first floor and shall provide a continual egress upon it from such building to grade, and the material, construction, erection and test of such fire escapes shall comply at least with the minimum specifications for each respective type thereof, as hereinafter set forth. [Id.]

Art. 3964. Location.—All such fire escapes shall, consistent with accessibility, be located as far as possible from stairways, elevator hatchways and other openings in the floors, and where possible, they shall be located at the ends of hallways or corridors or unobstructed passageways, and as far as is consistent with the construction and location of the building. [Id.]

Art. 3965. Guide signs and exit lights.—In all such buildings there shall be installed and maintained therein in good condition at all times, at least one red light at each exit to each fire escape, and one guide sign at each hall or corridor intersection, and one additional guide sign for every twenty-five lineal feet of hallway or corridor leading to such fire escape. All exit lights shall have painted thereon the words "Fire Escape Exit," and all guide signs shall have painted thereon the words "Fire Escape," and an arrow or hand pointing to the nearest fire escape exit. It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct any fire escape in any manner that would prevent free access thereto or free use thereof, or to obstruct any hallway, corridor or entrance leading to such fire escape by means of any door provided with locks requiring a key to operate, or by partitions or by any objects of any kind whatsoever. [Id.]

Art. 3966. Minimum specifications.—The minimum specifications for the several types of adequate fire escapes required by this law are as follows:

Exterior Stairway Type:

(1) Shall consist of balconies and stairways on the exterior of the building and be constructed of iron, steel or reinforced concrete, and shall be in superimposed form, or straight run form, or superimposed form with intermediate balconies, or a combination of any such form and type.

(2) Balconies: Balconies for stairs in superimposed form attached to the building at two or more floors, shall equal in length the horizontal length of the stair runs, plus an amount at each end equal to the width of the stairs, and shall be as long as the width of the opening for exit in the building wall and shall be at least fifty inches wide inside of railings. Balconies for stairs in superimposed form with intermediate balconies attached to the building at two or more floors shall be not less in width than the combined width of the stairways connected therewith leading both up and down, and the landings at the head and the foot of the stairs shall be as deep as the width of the stairs, and shall be as long as the width of the opening for exit in the building wall. Balconies for stairs in straight run form shall be not less in width than the width of the stairs and as long as the width of the opening for exit in the building wall. The minimum unobstructed width of any exterior passageway in the entire fire escape, whether parallel to the building or at right angles to it, shall be twenty-four inches. The floors of iron or steel balconies shall be solid or of slats and if solid, shall have scoriated surface to prevent slipping and pitched not less than one-half inch in ten feet to secure drainage, or if of slats, shall be placed not more than three-quarters of an inch apart and secured in place with rivets or bolts. Material in floors shall be not less than three-sixteenths of an inch thick. Railing enclosures of all balconies shall be not less than two feet nine inches high, and if of vertical and horizontal slat or grill construction, no space shall have the horizontal width of more than eight inches, and if of truss construction the span of each panel shall not exceed three feet. No opening in railing enclosures on any construction shall exceed two square feet in area. All railing enclosures throughout their lengths shall be free from obstructions tending to break handholds and the passage space shall be smooth and free from obstructions or projections. All railing enclosures shall be designed to withstand a horizontal pressure of two hundred pounds per running foot of railing without serious deflection. Balconies shall be anchored to building with bolts not less than one inch in diameter, extending through the wall and provided with wall bearing plate on the inside not less than five inches square and three-eighths inch thick or anchored by such bolts set in concrete or masonry or made integral in new buildings. Balconies shall never be placed above and not more than one foot below the top of the sill of the opening for exit in building wall, preferably level with sill. Concrete balconies shall comply with all requirements herein set forth and be made of reinforced concrete, the concrete to be one part cement, two parts sand and four parts stone or gravel. Railing enclosures of concrete balconies shall be as herein specified, or of reinforced concrete, with balusters spaced not over one foot apart.

(3) Stairs: The pitch of stairways shall not exceed forty-five degrees. Treads shall be not less than eight inches wide, exclusive of nosings, and not less than twenty-four inches long and placed so that the rise, either open or closed, shall not exceed eight inches and if solid shall have scoriated surface, and if made of slats they shall be placed not more than three-quarters of an inch apart and be well secured in place by bolts or rivets. Material in treads shall be not less than three-sixteenths of an inch thick. Railings shall be provided on both sides of stair, not less than two feet nine inches high as measured vertically from the center of the stair treads, and supported by balusters spaced not exceeding five feet apart. Intermediate rail shall be provided midway between top rail and stair stringers, or if intermediate rail is omitted, balusters shall be placed not over one foot apart. Railings on stairs shall permit not less than twenty-four inches unobstructed passageway, and shall be designed to withstand a horizontal pressure of two hundred pounds per running foot of railing without serious deflection. Concrete stairs shall comply with all requirements herein set forth and be made of reinforced concrete, concrete mixture to be as herein specified for concrete balconies. Railing enclosures of concrete stairs shall be as herein specified, or of reinforced concrete balustrade with balusters spaced not over one foot apart. Stairways shall be built stationary to grade where possible, and this shall be required in such buildings as schools and hospitals. Where fire escapes terminate over streets, alleys or private driveways, or like condition, and shall terminate in a hinged and counter-balanced section of stairway, the construction of such section of stair shall conform with the stationary parts of stairways and shall be so balanced that the weight of one person on third or fourth tread will lower same to landing. Bearings for such counter-balanced stairs shall be either bronze bushings or have sufficient clearance provided to prevent sticking on account of corrosion. No latch or lock shall be attached to the counter-balanced stair in up position but latch shall be provided to hold stair in down position when same has once been swung to ground. The connection between stair railings on the stationary part and the counter-balanced part of stairways shall be designed to prevent probability of injury to persons using said fire escape. Where necessary a suitable opening shall be provided in any awning, roof or other intervening obstruction, to admit counter-balanced stair and permit passage of persons thereon.

(4) Roof Connection: Exterior stairway type fire escapes shall be connected with the roof of building to which attached. If the roof of the building is such that escape by way of the roof might be necessary the fire escape shall extend to the roof. If the connection is only for fire department use, it shall be made with a ladder of the goose neck type, the stringers of which shall be of material at least three-eighths of an inch thick and the rungs shall be at least three quarters of an inch in diameter sixteen inches long and not exceeding fourteen inches apart. Said ladder shall be anchored to the wall.

(5) Clearance: The minimum clearance at all points on balconies and stairs as measured vertically shall be six feet six inches.

Exterior Chute Type:

(1) Shall consist of balconies and straight gravity chutes on the exterior of the building and constructed of iron or steel and placed at an angle not to exceed forty-five degrees and shall be in superimposed form, parallel to or at right angles to the building, or straight run form, parallel to or at right angles to the building, or a combination of these two forms.

(2) Balconies: Shall be the same as herein specified in subdivision two of specifications for exterior iron, steel or concrete stairway type fire escape.

(3) Chute: Shall be made of material of not less than number fourteen gauge iron or steel, blue annealed or equal, and shall be such as will take a smooth or polished surface. The chute shall be twenty inches wide and eighteen inches deep, inside dimensions, and free of obstructions or sharp edges throughout its length, and in cross section shall have concave bottom and straight sides. The top edges of the chute shall be stiffened and protected throughout its length with iron or steel angles, free from any sharp edges, and the angles of size necessary to carry the maximum loading possible and the chute shall be reinforced crosswise underneath with iron or steel angles. A landing of same material as the chute shall be provided at the lower end of the chute, and shall be of sufficient length, in proportion to the length of the chute and the concavity of its surface, to check the momentum attained through gravity and afford a safe stop. Such landing shall be six inches wider on each side than the chute, where wall construction will not interfere, and there shall be no sharp edges or ragged projections exposed, and said landing shall rest upon and be anchored to concrete base not less than six inches thick. All rivets exposed inside of chute and on top side of landing to be countersunk and ground down smooth. Intervening balconies, and the chute also, shall be so constructed that a continuous gravity slide will be afforded from the top floor to the grade, and the chute shall be accessible at all floors.

Exterior Spiral Chute Type:

(1) Shall consist of balconies in superimposed form and spiral gravity chute on the exterior of the building and constructed of iron or steel.

(2) Balconies: To be the same as herein specified in subdivision two of specifications for exterior iron, steel or concrete stairway type fire escape.

(3) Chute: Slideway shall be made of material of not less than number sixteen gauge iron or steel, blue annealed or equal, and shall be such as will take a smooth or polished surface. The chute shall be not less than thirty inches wide inside, with the slideway banked at the outer edge to prevent a passenger being thrown against guard rail or enclosure, and enclosed by either a continuous wall or a guard rail, the material of which shall not be less than number eighteen gauge iron or steel and said guard rail shall be not less than thirty inches high. The entire slideway shall be free from obstructions or sharp edges and all rivets exposed inside to be countersunk and ground down smooth. The chute shall be constructed in helical or spiral form around a central column, resting on and anchored to concrete base not less than eighteen inches thick. The chute shall terminate not more than two feet above the grade and be so constructed and arranged that normal landing will be in a standing position. Intervening balconies, and the chute also, shall be so constructed that a continuous gravity slide will be afforded from the top floor to the grade, and the chute shall be accessible at all floors.

Interior Type:

(1) Shall be a stairway type constructed of iron, steel or concrete or straight chute type constructed of iron or steel or spiral chute type constructed of iron or steel, either of which types erected on the interior of the building to be enclosed with non-combustible material and all door and window openings in such enclosure protected with self-closing fireproof shutters.

(2) Balconies or Landings: Balconies or landings to be the same construction as specified for balconies in subdivision two of specifications for exterior iron, steel or concrete stairway type fire escapes, except that such balconies shall permit not less than forty inches unobstructed passageway, and such balconies or landings shall be provided and erected on the interior of the enclosing walls on a level with the floors of the building to be served.

(3) Stairway Type: Stairs to be same construction as specified for stairs in subdivision three of specifications for exterior iron, steel or concrete stairway type fire escapes, except that such stairs shall permit not less than forty inches unobstructed passageway in all its parts. Stairs known as "spirals" or "winders" shall not be permitted.

(4) Straight chute type: The chute to be same as herein specified in subdivision three of specifications for exterior iron or steel straight chute type fire escape.

(5) Spiral chutes: The chute to be same as herein specified in subdivision three of specifications for exterior iron or steel spiral chute type fire escape.

(6) Access: They shall be accessible from all parts of the building which they are designed to serve, and all lobbies, halls and passageways on each floor leading to fire escapes and in connection therewith, shall be not less than thirty-six inches wide, and not less than six feet six inches high, and shall be level with the floor upon which it opens and serves. They shall be so constructed at lower end as to permit direct egress to the outside of the building at grade. All interior stairway type fire escapes shall be continuous starting at ground floor and shall never descend to any basement, and shall extend through roof of the building and terminate in a pent house constructed of non-combustible material with self-closing fire door as herein specified.

(7) Enclosing walls: The following materials may be used for enclosing walls of interior escapes:

(a) Brick or plain solid concrete not less than eight inches in thickness for the uppermost thirty feet, increasing four inches in thickness for each lower section of thirty feet or part thereof, or eight inches in thickness for the entire height when wholly supported at intervals not exceeding thirty feet.

(b) Reinforced stone or gravel concrete not less than five inches in thickness for the uppermost thirty feet, increasing two inches in thickness for each lower section of thirty feet or part thereof, or three inches in thickness for entire height when supported at vertical intervals not exceeding twenty feet, and braced where necessary with lateral supports or suitable steel uprights.

(c) Reinforced cinder concrete not less than five inches in thickness for the entire height when supported at vertical intervals not exceeding fifteen feet, and braced where necessary with lateral supports or suitable steel uprights.

(d) Hollow terra cotta blocks laid in cement mortar not less than five inches thick over all, or hollow concrete blocks of either stone or cinder concrete mortar, not less than five inches thick over all, or solid or hollow blocks consisting of gypsum containing not more than twenty-five per cent by weight of cinders, asbestos fibre, wood chips or vegetable fibre, laid in gypsum plaster or cement mortar tempered with lime, not less than five inches thick over all, or metal lath on steel studding covered with Portland cement mortar or gypsum plaster of a finished thickness of not less than two inches in the case of solid partitions, nor less than three inches in the case of hollow partitions. All openings in such walls or partitions shall have substantial steel framing, the vertical members of which shall be securely attached to the floor construction above and below.

(8) Door and window openings: All door openings shall be protected by the use of an automatic or self-closing fire doors of standard manufacture, bearing Underwriters label, and where automatic fire doors are used the same shall be enclosed in recess partitions. All doors shall be so arranged and equipped to remain in closed positions at all times and under all conditions except during actual use. All window openings shall have metal sash, bearing Underwriters label, and wire glass.

(9) Lighting: All interior fire escapes shall be provided with not less than one light at each landing equal to a ten watt electric globe, in a separate circuit from that of the building, arranged to operate should the regular lighting system of the building be disabled. [Id.]

Art. 3967. Painting.—All fire escapes of any type constructed of iron or steel shall have at least two coats of good metallic [metallic] paint when erected and shall be painted as frequently thereafter as may be necessary to preserve from rust or climatic influences and at least once every two years. The sliding surface of either the straight chute or spiral chute type fire escape shall be thoroughly cleaned and painted at least once each year.

Art. 3968. Tests.—Upon completion and before final approval of any fire escape of any of the types specified herein, both exterior and interior, such fire escape shall be tested by the erector by the application of a live load of one hundred and sixty pounds per square foot of area of balcony floor and stair treads, or a dead load of two hundred and forty pounds per square foot of area of balcony floor and stair treads, in either case simultaneously imposed upon each balcony and the stairways connected therewith leading both up and down. Sand, gravel, concrete blocks or any other suitable commodity may be used in applying these tests, but the load must be accurately weighed and applied as specified herein. By the dead load is meant a load placed in position in whole or in part by any mechanical means and without any person being on the fire escape at the time the test is made, and by live load is meant a load placed in position by mechanical means or by persons and with persons on the fire escape as part of the load at the time the test is made. [Id.]

Art. 3969. Affidavit.—Such tests shall be conducted in the presence of the State Fire Marshal or a representative duly appointed by him, or the chief of any fire department, or the city fire marshal of an [any] city or town. If the State Fire Marshal or his representative or a chief of a fire department, or a city fire marshal cannot be present to witness such test, such officials may permit the erector to furnish an affidavit setting forth that the minimum test herein specified has been made and that the fire escape has fully withstood said test and may accept such affidavit in lieu of the personal presence of such officials. [Id.]

Art. 3970. Completion before occupancy.—All buildings constructed hereafter and within the provisions of this title providing for the equipment of buildings with fire escapes, shall be so provided and equipped, and otherwise meet all requirements of this law, before such buildings are occupied or used in whole or in part. [Id.]

Art. 3971. Inspection.—All fire escapes, extensions and additions to fire escapes constructed and erected under the provisions of this law, shall be inspected by the State Fire Marshal, or any inspector of the State Insurance Commission, or the chief of the fire department of any city or town, or any city fire marshal, before being approved, and no fire escape, extension or addition shall be approved, unless the same conforms to and meets all the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 3972. Injunction.—The Attorney General, or the county attorney of any county in which any building is maintained in violation of any provision of this title, or the district attorney of any district in which such building is located, may proceed by suit or injunction against the owner, or person, board, commission or official having charge of such buildings, to enforce the provisions of this title. Such suit or injunction shall be brought in the name of this State in the district court of the county in which such building is located. Such suit or injunction may be prosecuted by the Attorney General, county or district attorney upon their own motion or upon the relation of any individual, or of any person mentioned in the preceding article. District courts and the judges thereof may issue mandatory injunctions and other writs against any such owner, person, board, commission or official, to enforce the provisions of this title. A disobedience of such injunction shall constitute a contempt of court and be punishable as now provided by law for contempts. Injunctions in such cases may be heard and granted either in term time or vacation, after the defendant has been given ten days notice of the time and place set for the hearing of same. [Id.]

Article 3973. [3940-43] When action lies.

—If any person (1) shall make an entry into any lands, tenements or other real property, except in cases where entry is given by law, or (2) shall make any such entry by force or (3) shall wilfully and without force hold over any lands, tenements or other real property after the termination of the time for which such lands, tenements or other real property were let to him, or to the person under whom he claims, after demand made in writing for the possession thereof by the person or persons entitled to such possession, such person shall be adjudged guilty of forcible entry and detainer, or of forcible detainer, as the case may be. Any justice of the peace of the precinct where the property is situated shall have jurisdiction of any case arising under this title. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3974. [3941] [2520] [2441] "Forcible entry."—A "forcible entry," or an entry where entry is not given by law, is:

1. An entry without the consent of the person having the actual possession.

2. As to a landlord, an entry upon the possession of his tenant at will or by sufferance, whether with or without the tenant's consent. [Id.]

Art. 3975. [3942] [2521] [2442] Other cases.—A person shall be adjudged guilty of forcible detainer also in the following cases:

1. Where a tenant at will or by sufferance refuses, after demand made in writing as aforesaid, to give possession to the landlord after the termination of his will.

2. Where the tenant of a person who has made a forcible entry refuses to give possession, after demand as aforesaid, to the person upon whose possession the forcible entry was made.

3. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of one who acquired it by forcible entry refuses to give possession on demand, as aforesaid, to him upon whose possession the first entry was made.

4. Where a person who has made a forcible entry upon the possession of a tenant for a term refuses to deliver possession to the landlord upon demand as aforesaid, after the term expires; and, if the term expire whilst a writ of forcible entry sued out by the tenant is pending, the landlord may, at his own cost and for his own benefit, prosecute it in the name of the tenant. It is not material whether the tenant shall have received possession from his landlord or have become his tenant after obtaining possession. [Id.]

Art. 3976. May sue for rent.—A suit for rent may be joined with an action of forcible entry and detainer, wherever the suit for rent is within the jurisdiction of the justice court. In such case the court in rendering judgment in the action of forcible entry and detainer, may at the same time render judgment for any rent due the landlord by the renter; provided the amount thereof is within the jurisdiction of the justice court. [Acts 1911, p. 28.]

Art. 3977. [3944] [2523] [2444] Citation.—When the party aggrieved, or his authorized agent, shall file his written sworn complaint with such justice he shall immediately issue citation to the sheriff or any constable of the county, commanding him to summon the person against whom complaint is made to appear before such justice at a time and place named in such citation, such time being not more than ten days nor less than six days from the date of service of such citation. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991; Acts 1917, p. 363; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 176.]

Art. 3978. [3944] [2523] [2444] Complainant may have possession.—If the party aggrieved shall, at the time of filing his complaint, execute a bond, to be approved by the justice, in such an amount as the justice may fix as the probable amount of the costs of suit and of the damages which may result to defendant in the event the suit has been improperly instituted, and conditioned that the plaintiff will pay defendant all such costs and damages as shall be adjudged against him, the officer serving such citation shall place the aggrieved party in possession of the property sued for, unless the defendant shall, within six days from the service of the citation, execute and deliver to such officer a bond in an amount double the amount of the bond given by the plaintiff, to be approved by the officer serving such citation, and conditioned that the defendant in case judgment is rendered against him will pay all the costs of suit and the reasonable rental or value of the use of the property during the time he has withheld possession of the same from plaintiff to the time of making such bond and in addition will also pay the reasonable value or rental of such property while such suit is pending and until it is finally disposed of. [Id.]

Art. 3979. [3945] [2524] [2445] Requisites of complaint.—The complaint shall describe the lands, tenements or premises, the possession of which is claimed, with certainty sufficient to identify the same, and it shall also state the facts which entitle the complainant to the possession and authorize the action under the first three articles of this title. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3980. [3946] [2525] [2446] Service of citation.—The officer receiving such citation shall execute the same by reading it to the defendant, or by leaving a copy thereof with some person over the age of sixteen years, at his usual place of abode, at least five days before the return day thereof; and, on the day assigned for trial he shall return such citation, with his action written thereon, to the justice who issued the same. [Id.]

Art. 3981. [3949-52] Docketed.—The cause shall be docketed and tried as other cases; and the justice shall have authority to issue subpoenas for witnesses, to enforce their attendance, and to punish for contempt. [Id. Acts 1897, p. 16; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1070.]

Art. 3982. [3947-48] Demanding jury.—Either party shall have the right of trial by jury, by making demand to the justice on or before the day for which the case is set for trial, and paying the jury fee of three dollars. When a jury is demanded they shall be summoned as in other cases in justice court. [Id.]

Art. 3983. [3951] [2530] [2451] Trial postponed.—For good cause shown, supported by affidavit of either party, the trial may be postponed not exceeding six days. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3984. [3950] [2529] [2450] Only issue.—In cases of forcible entry or of forcible detainer under this title, the only issue shall be as to the right to actual possession; and the merits of the title shall not be inquired into. [Acts 1897, p. 16; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1070.]

Art. 3985. [3952-53] Trial.—If no jury is demanded, the justice shall try the case. If a jury is demanded by either party, the jury shall be impaneled and sworn as in other cases; and, after hearing the evidence, they shall return their verdict of guilty or not guilty of the charge as stated in the complaint. [Id. Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3986. [3954-55] Judgment and writ.—If the defendant be found guilty, the justice shall give judgment for the plaintiff for restitution of the premises and costs; and he shall award his writ of restitution. If the defendant be found not guilty, judgment shall be given in favor of the defendant and against the plaintiff for all costs. No writ of restitution shall issue until the expiration of two days from the rendition of the judgment. Execution may issue for costs. [Id.]

Art. 3987. [3956] [2534] [2455] May appeal.—Either party may appeal from a final judgment in such case, to the county court of the county in which the judgment is rendered, by giving notice thereof in open court and by filing with the justice within five days after the rendition of said judgment, a bond to be approved by said justice, and payable to the adverse party, conditioned that he will prosecute his appeal with effect, or pay all costs and damages which may be adjudged against him; and no motion for a new trial shall be necessary to authorize such appeal. [Acts 1876, p. 155; G. L. vol. 8, p. 991.]

Art. 3988. [3957] [2535] Form of appeal bond.—The appeal bond made in the preceding article may be substantially as follows:

"The State of Texas,

"County of _____.

"Whereas, upon a writ of forcible entry (or forcible detainer) in favor of A B, and against C D, tried before _____, a justice of the peace of _____ county, a judgment was rendered in favor of the said A B on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, and against the said C D, from which the said C D has appealed to the county court; now, therefore, the said C D and _____ his sureties, covenant that he will prosecute his said appeal with effect and pay all costs and damages which may be adjudged against him.

"Given under our hands this _____ day of _____ A. D. _____." [Id.]

Art. 3989. [3958-59] Transcript.—When such appeal bond is filed, the justice shall stay all further proceedings on the judgment, and immediately make out a transcript of all the entries made on his docket of the proceedings had in the case; and he shall file the same, together with the original papers, with the clerk of the county court of the county in which the trial was had, on or before the first day of the first term of said court, or, if there be insufficient time, on or before the first day of the next succeeding term thereof. The county clerk shall docket the cause, and the trial shall be de novo. [Id.]

Art. 3990. [3960] [2538] [2459] Damages.—On the trial of the cause in the county court the appellee shall be permitted to prove the damages for withholding the possession of the premises from the appellee during the pendency of the appeal and the reasonable expenses of the appellee in prosecuting or defending the cause in the county court; and, if the possession of the premises be not adjudged to the appellant said court shall render judgment also in favor of the appellee and against said appellant and the sureties on his bond for the damages proven and all costs. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 74, ch. 51, § 1.]

Art. 3991. [3961] [2539] [2460] Judgment by default.—If the defendant fails to enter an appearance upon the docket of the county court on appearance day, and before the case is called regularly for trial, the facts alleged in the complaint may be taken as admitted and judgment by default may be entered accordingly. [Id.]

Art. 3992. [3962] [2540] [2461] Judgment on appeal.—The judgment of the county court finally disposing of the cause shall be conclusive of the litigation, and no further appeal shall be allowed, except where the judgment shall be for damages in an amount exceeding one hundred dollars.

Art. 3993. [3963] [2541] [2462] Writ of restitution.—The writ of restitution, or execution, or both, shall be issued by the clerk of the county court according to the judgment rendered, and the same shall be executed by the sheriff or constable, as in other cases; and such writ of restitution shall not be suspended or superseded in any case by appeal from such final judgment in the county court.

Art. 3994. [3964] [2542] [2463] No bar.—The proceedings under a forcible entry, or forcible detainer, shall not bar an action for trespass, damages, waste, rent or mesne profits.

FRAUDS AND FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES

- Art.
3995. Writing required.
3996. Conveyance to defraud.
3997. Voluntary conveyance.
3998. Gift.
3999. Loan of chattels.
4000. Chattel mortgage.
4001. Sales in bulk.
4002. Liability of purchaser.
4003. Exceptions.
4004. Actionable fraud.

Art. 3995. [3965] [2543] [2464] Writing required.—No action shall be brought in any court in any of the following cases, unless the promise or agreement upon which such action shall be brought, or some memorandum thereof, shall be in writing and signed by the party to be charged therewith or by some person by him thereunto lawfully authorized:

1. To charge any executor or administrator upon any promise to answer any debt or damage due from his testator or intestate, out of his own estate; or,
2. To charge any person upon a promise to answer for the debt, default or miscarriage of another; or,

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

3. To charge any person upon any agreement made upon consideration of marriage; or,

4. Upon any contract for the sale of real estate or the lease thereof for a longer term than one year; or,

5. Upon any agreement which is not to be performed within the space of one year from the making thereof. [Acts 1840, p. 28; P. D. 3875; G. L. vol. 2, p. 202.]

Art. 3996. [3966] [2544] [2465] Conveyance to defraud.—Every gift, conveyance, assignment, or transfer of, or charge upon, any estate real or personal, every suit commenced, or decree, judgment or execution suffered or obtained and every bond or other writing given with intent to delay, hinder or defraud creditors, purchasers, or other persons of or from what they are, or may be, lawfully entitled to, shall, as to such creditors, purchasers or other persons, their representatives or assigns, be void. This article shall not affect the title of a purchaser, for valuable consideration, unless it appear that he had notice of the fraudulent intent of his immediate grantor, or of the fraud rendering void the title of such grantor. [Id. P. D. 3876; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 42, ch. 30, § 1.]

Art. 3997. [3967] [2545] [2466] Voluntary conveyance.—Every gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge made by a debtor, which is not upon consideration deemed valuable in law, shall be void as to prior creditors, unless it appears that such debtor was then possessed of property within this State subject to execution sufficient to pay his existing debts; but such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or charge shall not on that account merely be void as to subsequent creditors, and though it be decreed to be void as to a prior creditor, because voluntary, it shall not for that cause be void as to subsequent creditors or purchasers. [Id. P. D. 3876-77.]

Art. 3998. [3968] [2546] [2467] Gift.—No gift of any goods or chattels shall be valid unless by deed or will, duly acknowledged or proven up and recorded, or unless actual possession shall have come to, and remained with, the donee or some one claiming under him. [Id. P. D. 3876.]

Art. 3999. [3969] [2547] [2468] Loan of chattels.—Where any loan of goods or chattels [chattels] shall be pretended to have been made to any person with whom, or those claiming under him, possession shall have remained for the space of two years without demand made and pursued by due process of law on the part of the pretended lender; or when any reservation or limitation shall be pretended to have been made of a use of property, by way of condition, reversion, remainder or otherwise in goods and chattels, the possession whereof shall have remained in another as aforesaid, the same shall be taken as to the creditors and purchasers, of the persons aforesaid so remaining in possession, to be fraudulent, within this title, and that the absolute property is with the possession, unless such loan, reservation or limitation of use of property were declared by will, or by deed or other instrument in writing, duly acknowledged or proved and recorded. [Id.]

Art. 4000. [3970] [2548] Chattel mortgage.—Every mortgage, deed of trust or other form of lien attempted to be given by the owner of any stock of goods, wares or merchandise daily exposed to sale, in parcels, in the regular course of business of such merchandise, and contemplating a continuance of the possession of said goods and control of said business, by sale of said goods by said owner, shall be deemed fraudulent and void. [Acts 1879, p. 60; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1360.]

Art. 4001. [3971] Sales in bulk.—The sale or transfer in bulk of any part or the whole of a stock of merchandise, or merchandise and fixtures pertaining to the conducting of said business otherwise than in the ordinary course of trade, and in the regular prosecution of the business of the seller or transferor, shall be void as against the creditors of the seller or transferor, unless the purchaser or transferee demand and receive from the transferor a written list of names and addresses of the creditors of the seller or transferor with the amount of the indebtedness due or owing to each and certified by the seller or transferor under oath to be a full, accurate and complete list of his creditors, and of his indebtedness; and unless the purchaser or transferee shall at least ten days before taking possession of such merchandise or merchandise and fixtures, or paying therefor, notify personally or by registered mail each creditor whose name and address is stated in said list, or of which he has knowledge, of the proposed sale and of the price, terms and conditions thereof. Any purchaser or transferee who shall not conform to the provisions of this law shall, upon application of any of the creditors of the seller or transferor become a receiver, and be held accountable to such creditors for all goods, wares, merchandise and fixtures that have come into his possession by virtue of such sale or transfer. [Acts 1909, p. 66; Acts 1915, p. 171.]

Art. 4002. [3972] Liability of purchaser.—Any purchaser or transferee who shall conform to the provisions of the preceding article, shall not in any way be held accountable to any creditor of the seller or transferor for any of the goods, wares, merchandise or fixtures that have come into possession of said purchaser or transferee by virtue of such sale or transfer. [Id.]

Art. 4003. [3973] Exceptions.—The two preceding articles shall not apply to sales by executors, administrators, receivers or any public officer conducting a sale in his official capacity, nor to a sale or transfer of stocks of merchandise and fixtures for the payment of bona fide debts, where all creditors share in proportion to their respective claims, and without preference in the sale or transfer or the proceeds thereof. [Id.]

Art. 4004. Actionable fraud.—Actionable fraud in this State with regard to transactions in real estate or in stock in corporations or joint stock companies shall consist of either a false representation of a past or existing material fact, or false promise to do some act in the future which is made as a material inducement to another party to enter into a contract and but for which promise said party would not have entered into said contract. Whenever a promise thus made has not been complied with by the party making it within a reasonable time, it shall be presumed that it was falsely and fraudulently made, and the burden shall be on the party making it to show that it was made in good faith but was prevented from complying therewith by the act of God, the public enemy or by some equitable reason. All persons guilty of such fraud shall be liable to the person defrauded for all actual damages suffered, the rule of damages being the difference between the value of the property as represented or as it would have been worth had the promise been fulfilled, and the actual value of the property in the condition it is delivered at the time of the contract. All persons making the false representations or promises and all persons deriving the benefit of said fraud, shall be jointly and severally liable in actual damages, and in addition thereto, all persons willfully making such false representations or promises or knowingly taking the advantage of said fraud shall be liable in exemplary damages to the person defrauded in such amount as shall be assessed by the jury, not to exceed double the amount of the actual damages suffered. [Acts 1919, p. 77.]

FREE PASSES, FRANKS AND TRANSPORTATION

Art.
4005.	Free passes prohibited.
4006.	Exceptions.
4007.	Definitions.

Article 4005. Free passes prohibited.—No steam or electric railway company, street railway company, interurban railway company or other chartered transportation company, express company, sleeping car company, telegraph company, telephone company or person or association of persons operating the same, nor any receiver or lessee thereof, nor any officer, agent or employee or receiver of any such company in this State shall knowingly haul or carry any property free of charge, or give or grant to any person, firm or association of persons a free pass, frank, privilege or substitute for pay or a subterfuge which is used or which is given to be used instead of the regular fare or rate of transportation or any authority or permit whatsoever to travel or to pass or convey or transport any person or property free, nor sell any transportation for anything except money, or for any greater or less rate than is charged all persons under the same conditions, over any railway or transportation lines or part of line in this State; or shall knowingly permit any person to transmit any message free in this State; or shall give any frank or right or privilege to transmit any message free in this State or property free of charge or for greater or less fare or rate than is charged other persons in this State for similar service, except as hereinafter provided in this title.

Art. 4006. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not be held to prevent any steam or electric interurban railway, telegraph company or chartered transportation company or sleeping car company or the receivers or lessees thereof or persons operating same or the officers, agents or employees thereof from granting or exchanging free passes or free transportation, franks, privileges, substitutes for pay, or other thing prohibited by the provisions of the preceding article to any of the following named persons: The actual bona fide employees of any such person or corporation, company, association, or the members of their families; persons actually employed on sleeping cars and express cars; newsboys employed on trains; railway mail service employees and their families; furloughed, pensioned; and superannuated [superannuated] employees; persons who have been disabled or who have become infirm in the service of an [any] such corporation, company, association or person; the remains of any person killed in the employment of a common carrier; members of the family of persons killed while in the service of any such common carrier; the family or any person who was, for a period of ten years or more, an employee of such common carrier and who died while in the service of the same; ex-employees traveling for the purpose of entering the service of any such common carrier; post office inspectors; the chairman of bona fide members of grievance committees of employees; bona fide custom and immigration inspectors employed by the government; State Health Officer and one assistant; Federal Health Officers; county health officers; members of the Industrial Accident Board or any employee thereof; State Railroad Commissioners; Secretary of the Railroad Commission; Engineer of the Railroad Commission; Inspector of the Railroad Commission; Auditor of the Railroad Commission; State Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his two chief deputies; government representatives from the Texas fish hatcheries; shipments of fish for free distribution in the waters of this State; the necessary caretakers while en route and return of any shipments of live stock, poultry, fruit, melons or other perishable produce; trip passes to indigent poor when application therefor is made by any religious or charitable organization; sisters of charity, or members of any religious society of like character; any minister of religion on intrastate trips in this State; any citizen of the State who served in the war between the States of the Union either on the Confederate side or on the Union side of said war, veterans of the Spanish-American war, and the wife or widow of any such citizen or veteran; veterans of the Texas ranger force who served the State prior to the year 1900, and their wives or widows; delegates to different farmers' institutes, farmers' congresses and farmers' unions; delegates to State and district firemen's conventions from volunteer fire companies; managers of Young Men's Christian Associations, or other eleemosynary institutions while engaged in charitable work; the officers or employees of industrial fairs during the continuance of any said fair and six months prior thereto, provided that no more than four officers or employees of any one fair or fair association shall receive free passage in any one year; persons injured in wrecks upon the road of any such company immediately after such injury, and the physicians and nurses attending such persons at the time thereof; persons and property carried in cases of general epidemic, pestilence, or other calamitous visitation at the time thereof or immediately thereafter; United States Marshals and no more than two of the deputies of each such marshal; State rangers; the Adjutant General and Assistant Adjutant General of this State; members of the State militia in uniform and when called into the service of the State; sheriffs and no more than two of their deputies; constables and no more than two of their deputies; chiefs of police or city marshals, whether elected or appointed; members of the Livestock Sanitary Commission of Texas and their inspectors not to exceed twenty-five in number for any one year; and any other bona fide peace officer when his duty is to execute criminal process; bona fide policemen or firemen in the service of any city or town in Texas when such policemen or firemen are in the discharge of their public duty, but this provision shall not be construed so as to apply to persons holding commissions as special policemen or firemen.

Art. 4007. Definitions.—The word "employee" as used in this title shall be held to include all officers, agents or employees, actually employed and engaged in the service of such corporation, company, association of persons, including its officers, bona fide ticket and freight agents, physicians, surgeons and general attorneys, and attorneys who appear in court to try cases and receive a reasonable annual salary therefor. The word "family" as used in this title shall include the wife, minor children and dependents of any such employe or person. The words "minister of religion" shall be construed to mean only those whose principal occupation is that of a minister of religion, priest or rabbi.

Art. 4008. Special rates.—Nothing in this title shall be held to prevent any corporation, association or person mentioned in the first article of this title from granting transportation at the rate of one cent per mile to veterans mentioned in the preceding article, or their wives or widows; honorably discharged soldiers, sailors, marines and Red Cross nurses of the late world war to or from the annual convention, Department of Texas American Legion; any minister of religion for intrastate trips, or from granting to ministers of religion reduced rates of one-half the regular fare, or to prohibit the making of special rates for special occasions or under special conditions, provided authority therefor shall first be obtained from the Railroad Commission of Texas; or to prohibit transportation between points wholly within this State at the reduced rate of one cent per mile while traveling on official business connected with their respective offices, the following named peace officers, to wit: Adjutant General of this State; State rangers; the sheriff of any county, his deputies to be designated by him; constables; chiefs of police and assistant chiefs and captains; city marshals, chief of the detectives of any county or city, and assistant detectives. [Acts 1907, p. 94; Acts 1911, p. 151; Acts 1921, pp. 171, 191, 214; Acts 1923, p. 175; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 100.]

Art. 4009. Free transportation.—Nothing in this title shall be construed to prohibit any express company from hauling or carrying free of charge any package or property of its actual bona fide officers, attorneys, agents and employees while in the service of such express company, nor to prevent any article being sent free to any orphan home or other charitable institution, nor to prohibit any telegraph or telephone company from transmitting free of charge any message of its bona fide officers, attorneys, agents or employees and their families while in the actual employment of such company or its receiver or lessee; provided the actual bona fide officers and employees upon annual salaries of railway telephone companies and telegraph companies are hereby permitted to exchange frank privileges and free transportation over their respective lines of railway and telegraph or telephone.

Art. 4010. Advertising.—Nothing in this title shall be construed to prevent any of the parties named in the first article hereof, publishers, editors or proprietors of newspapers or magazines, from making an exchange of mileage for advertising space in such newspaper or magazine, provided the contract between the railway companies and publishers, editors or proprietors of such newspapers or magazines shall be at the same rate as is charged the public generally for like service, providing that such contract shall be in writing and shall not be operative until approved by the Railroad Commission of this State, and filed in the office of such Commission, subject at all times to a reasonable public inspection.

Art. 4011. Discrimination as to persons.—If any corporation, company, association, or person mentioned in Article 4005 shall grant to any sheriff, constable, or marshal a free pass over its lines of railroad, it shall issue like free transportation to each and every sheriff, constable, or marshal who may make application therefor. [As amended Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 239, ch. 87, § 1.]

Art. 4012. Evidence of authority.—Any veteran of any of the wars mentioned in this title, their wives, widows or members of their families, and any minister of religion, or any fireman, sister of charity or member of any religious society of like character, who desires to receive the benefits of free or reduced transportation as mentioned in this title shall present to the president, manager, officer, or person authorized to issue such transportation satisfactory evidence that he or she is entitled thereto, as herein provided. The officers entitled to the benefits of this law shall, when presenting themselves to the agent of any such railway or interurban railway company for the purchase of a ticket or to pay his fare, exhibit to such agent in case of the Adjutant General and State Rangers a certificate of the Secretary of State under seal, in case of sheriffs and constables and their deputies a certificate under seal of the county judge of the county where they hold office and in case of officers of a city or town a certificate under seal of the mayor of such city or town stating that such person is entitled to the reduced fare herein provided for. Sheriffs and constables shall designate in writing the two deputies entitled to the reduced rates herein provided for. If the sheriff or constable has designated two deputies who are entitled to such reduced rates, then no deputy of such sheriff or constable shall be entitled to free transportation under the provisions of the pass laws of this State. [Acts 1921, p. 171.]

Art. 4013. Discrimination by device.—No corporation, company or person mentioned in the first article of this title shall directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device, demand, exchange, collect or receive from any person, firm, association or corporation a greater or less or different compensation for any service rendered or to be rendered, in the transportation of passengers, properties or messages, than it or he charges, demands, collects or receives from any other corporation, person, firm or association of persons doing business in this State for a like service under substantially similar circumstances and conditions except as is provided in this title, nor shall grant any free transportation or franking privilege to any corporation or person except as provided in this title. [Acts 1907, p. 96.]

Art. 4014. Reports, etc.—Each corporation, company or person subject to the provisions of this title shall report annually, on such dates as may be fixed by the Railroad Commission of Texas, the name and residence of each person to whom free transportation or right thereto was given to travel or to have his property or messages transported or transmitted free over the transportation, express, sleeping car, railway or telegraph or telephone line, and the name and address of each person to whom has been granted the right to travel over any such railway lines at a reduced rate; any company violating this provision shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and for each offense on conviction shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of one thousand dollars. (Note: See Art. 165, Penal Code.)

Art. 4015. Penalty.—Any corporation, company, association of persons or any person named in the first article of this title violating any provision of this title, except Article 4014, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas a penalty of five thousand dollars for each violation, to be recovered in suit by the State, brought by the Attorney General or by any county or district attorney under the direction of the Attorney General.

FISH, OYSTER, SHELL, ETC.

Chap.

1. Commissioner and deputies.
2. Fish and other marine life.
3. Marl, sand and shell.

CHAPTER ONE

COMMISSIONER AND DEPUTIES

Art.

4016. The Commissioner.
4017. Oath and bond.
4018. Duties and powers.
4019. To report to Governor.
4020. To keep record.
4021. Fish and Oyster Deputies.
4022. Oath and bond of deputies.
4023. Salaries and expenses.
4024. Fees of Commissioner.
4025. Disposition of money.

Article 4016. The Commissioner.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall have his office in the State Capitol in the city of Austin, Texas, during his term of office which shall be two years, the first term to begin September 1, 1925.

From Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 178, p. 438, § 1.

Art. 4017. Oath and bond.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall file with the Secretary of State a good and sufficient bond to be approved by that official in the sum of ten thousand ($10,000.00) dollars, with a surety company, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office; the premium on such bond to be paid from any available funds appropriated to the use of the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commission. He shall take the oath prescribed for sheriffs, and when he shall file said bond and take said oath, he shall enter on the duties of his office. Said bond shall not be void on the first recovery, but may be sued on from time to time in the name of the State or any person injured, until the whole amount has been recovered. [Acts 1925, p. 438.] [39th Leg., ch. 178, § 1.]

Art. 4018. [3879] Duties and powers.—The duties of the Commissioner shall be in the execution of the laws relating to game, fish, oysters and marine life, and such further duties as are imposed upon him by legislation. In the execution of these laws he shall exercise the power and authority given to sheriffs. The Commissioner is authorized to collect and enforce the payment of all taxes, licenses, fines and forfeitures, and all money due his department, by deputies or persons employed for that purpose, and to inspect all products so taxed, and to verify the weights and measures thereof; to examine, or have examined, all streams, lakes or ponds when requested to do so, for the purpose of stocking such waters with fish best suited to such locations and he shall superintend and have control in the propagation of fish in the State fish hatchery and the distribution of such fish, and he shall have superintendence and control of the propagation and distribution of birds and game in the State reservation over which he may have control, or which may be established for such propagation. The Commissioner, or any of his deputies, may arrest without warrant anyone found violating any of the fish, game or oyster laws of Texas, and shall have the same right to execute original process as sheriffs. [Id. p. 192; Acts 1907, p. 255.]

Art. 4019. [4003] To report to Governor.—The Commissioner shall make on the 31st day of August of each year, or as soon as practicable, not later than October 1st, a report to the Governor, showing the condition of the fish and oyster industry, which shall show the special taxes collected, the number and class of all boats engaged in the fish and oyster trade, the number of licenses issued and license fees collected, the number, place and acreage of private oyster beds and rents received therefor, and all other amounts collected from whatever source and the disbursements therefor, with such observations as pertain to the industry. The report shall contain a statement of all stock furnished, to whom furnished, the cost of same, the streams, lakes or ponds stocked, the number and kind of fish used in each, and the condition of such plants, with any other data he may obtain on the subjects. The Governor shall order a sufficient number of copies of such report to be printed and filed in the Secretary of State's office for the purpose of free distribution to parties interested therein. For failure to make such report within the time specified, the Commissioner may, in the discretion of the Governor, be dismissed from his office. [Id. p. 212.]

Art. 4020. [4001] To keep record.—The Commissioner shall keep a well bound record book in which shall be recorded all special taxes collected, all licenses issued and license fees collected, all certificates issued for location of private oyster beds, showing the date of certificate and application, when and how the applications were executed and the manner in which the bottoms were examined and rents collected for such locations, showing also all stock fish furnished, to whom furnished, and the cost of same, the streams, lakes or ponds stocked and the number and kinds of fish used in each; and showing all collections and disbursements in and from his office. The Commissioner shall keep an account with each person, firm or corporation holding certificates for the location of private oyster beds in this State, showing the amounts received as rents, etc. [Id. p. 213.]

Art. 4021. Fish and Oyster Deputies.—The Commissioner is authorized to appoint deputies for each of the vessels owned by the State and employed in the Fish and Oyster Department, and such other shore and interior deputies as he may deem necessary for the enforcement of the law. All such deputies shall have and exercise the same powers and duties as the Commissioner, and be at all times subject to his orders, and shall hold their office at his pleasure. Each Deputy Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall be ex-officio game commissioner. No person shall hold such office of Deputy Commissioner who is not a citizen of the United States and of this State. All such Deputy Commissioners shall make a monthly report to the Commissioner of all funds collected by them, remitting along with said report all moneys collected by them during the said month. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 213.]

Art. 4022. Oath and bond of deputies.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, each deputy shall file with the Commissioner a good and sufficient bond, with two or more sureties, in the sum of one thousand dollars, and take the same oath of office as the Commissioner, and said bond and oath shall be governed by the provisions of Article 4017. [Id.]

Art. 4023. Salaries and expenses.—Out of any available funds, the Commissioner and all Fish and Oyster Deputies and employees of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission shall be paid their salaries and expenses monthly, upon approval of the Commission, the Comptroller drawing his warrant in favor of each of said persons on the special funds appropriated for said purposes as follows: The Commissioner, thirty-six thousand dollars per annum, and not more than fifteen hundred dollars per annum for traveling and other expenses, to be paid on vouchers approved by the Governor, showing that such amounts have been actually expended in the performance of his duties of said office, and he shall be allowed all stationery, books, blanks, tags, State Laws and charts necessary to the execution of the duties of his office; the chief deputy game, fish and oyster commissioner and all other deputy fish and oyster commissioners and employees of the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commission, except special game deputies, deputies employed at fresh water fish hatcheries and sand, shell and gravel deputies, shall be paid their salaries and expenses monthly upon approval of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner out of the fish and oyster fund, the Comptroller drawing his warrant in favor of each of said persons on the fish and oyster fund, appropriated for said purposes, as follows: chief deputy game, fish and oyster commissioner, twenty-five hundred dollars per annum; deputies on boats, not to exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars per month; mates on boats, eighty dollars per month; shore deputies, not to exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars per month; lake deputies, not to exceed one hundred twenty-five dollars per month; assistant lake deputies, not to exceed seventy-five dollars per month; supervisor of coastal fisheries not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars per month. It shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to collect all taxes, licenses and fines as imposed by law, and enforce their payment, to inspect all products so taxed, and to verify the weights and measures thereof, to collect license fees, to collect all rents on locations for planting oysters, to examine or have examined, all streams, lakes or ponds, when requested to do so, for the purpose of stocking such waters with fish best suited to such locations, and he shall superintend and have control in the propagation of fish in the State fish hatcheries, and the distribution of such fish, and he shall have superintendence and control of the propagation and distribution of birds and game in the State reservations over which he may have control, or which may be established for such propagation. He shall also be allowed a sum not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum for traveling and other expenses to be paid on vouchers showing that such amounts have actually been expended in the performance of his duties of said office, and he shall be allowed all stationery, books, blanks, tags, State laws and charts necessary to the execution of the duties of his office. [Id. p. 446.]

Art. 4024. [4017] Fees of Commissioner.—In making arrests, summoning witnesses and serving process, the Commissioner or his deputies shall be allowed the same fees and mileage as sheriffs, the same to be charged and collected as are sheriff's fees. [Acts 1895, p. 70.]

Art. 4025. [4013] Disposition of money.—Of all fines collected for infraction of the fish and oyster laws, ten per cent shall go to the prosecuting attorney, and the residue thereof shall go to the general fund of this State. All funds collected by deputy commissioners along the coast for register certificates, licenses, and rents for locating private oyster beds, and such other charges relating to the fish and oyster laws as may be prescribed, shall be by such deputies paid over weekly to the Commissioner, who in turn shall deposit the same monthly in the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. [Acts 1913, p. 297; Acts 1923, 2nd C. S. p. 61.]

Article 4026. Property of State.—All fish and other aquatic animal life contained in the fresh water rivers, creeks and streams and in lakes or sloughs subject to overflow from rivers or other streams within the borders of this State are hereby declared to be the property of the people of this State. All of the public rivers, bayous, lagoons, creeks, lakes, bays and inlets in this State, and all that part of the Gulf of Mexico within the jurisdiction of this State, together with their beds and bottoms, and all of the products thereof, shall continue and remain the property of the State of Texas, except in so far as the State shall permit the use of said waters and bottoms, or permit the taking of the products of such bottoms and waters, and in so far as this use shall relate to or affect the taking and conservation of fish, oysters, shrimp, crabs, clams, turtle, terrapin, mussels, lobsters, and all other kinds and forms of marine life, or relate to sand, gravel, marl, mud shell and all other kinds of shell, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall have jurisdiction over and control of, in accordance with and by the authority vested in him by the laws of this State. [Acts 1925, p. 438.] [39th Leg., ch. 178, § 1 (art. 7).]

Art. 4027. Oyster beds.—All oyster beds not designated private shall be public. All natural oyster beds and reefs of this State shall be public. A natural oyster bed shall be declared to exist when as many as five barrels of oysters may be found therein within twenty-five hundred square feet of any position of said reef or bed; and any lands covered by water containing less oysters than the above amount shall be subject to location at the discretion of the Commissioner, but this shall not apply to a reef or bed that has been exhausted within a period of eight years. [Acts 1919, p. 289.]

Art. 4028. Riparian rights prescribed.—Whenever any creek, bayou, lake or cove shall be included within the metes and bounds of any original grant or location of land in this State, the lawful occupant of such grant or location shall have the exclusive right to use said creek, lake, bayou or cove for gathering, planting or sowing oysters. The Commissioner may require the owner of oysters claimed to be produced on such lands, when such oysters are offered for sale, to make an affidavit that such oysters were produced on such lands. If said creek, bayou, lake or cove is not so included, then the exclusive right of the riparian owner shall, wherever the width of such creek, bayou, lake or cove is two hundred yards or less, extend to the middle thereof, and wherever the width of such waters is more than two hundred yards, extend one hundred yards from shore. The right of the riparian owner for planting oysters along any bay shore in this State shall extend one hundred yards into the bay from high water mark or where the land survey ceases. The riparian owner's right to any natural oyster bed located on such one hundred yard reservation shall not be exclusive. [Acts 1895, p. 70.]

Art. 4029. Private fresh waters.—Such of the fresh water lakes, rivers, creeks and bayous within this State as may be embraced in any survey of private land shall not be sold, but shall remain open to the public. If the Commissioner stocks them with fish, he is authorized to protect same for such time and under such rules as he may prescribe. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4030. Fish and oyster fund.—All funds collected by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission from the sale of commercial fishermen's licenses, fish dealers licenses, taxes on fish, crabs, oysters and shrimp, and all other taxed marine life, and all fines and penalties collected for any infraction of any laws relating to commercial fishermen, shall be placed in the State Treasury to the credit of a fund to be known as "Fish and Oyster Fund" and, together with the money now to the credit of this fund, is hereby appropriated and shall be used by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in the enforcement of the fish and oyster laws of this State, and in the dissemination of useful information pertaining to the economic value of fish and oyster marine life; the making of scientific investigations and surveys of the principal sea food fishes and marine life for purpose of the better protection and conservation of same, the propagation and distribution of sea food fishes, oysters, and other marine life; the purchase, repair and operation of boats and the employment of deputies to carry out and enforce the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 446.] [39th Leg., ch. 178, § 2.]

Art. 4031. Tax deposit.—The applicant for any license under this chapter based upon fish and oysters handled shall, upon the issuance of such license, deposit with the Commissioner, if required to do so by such officer, an amount of money to be fixed by the Commissioner, in addition to the ten dollars required of him as a wholesale dealer as defined in the preceding article, sufficient to cover the estimated amount of tax that would be due by applicant upon monthly business of applicant, and against which deposit the tax due may be charged by the Commissioner, and said applicant shall make additional deposits in sufficient amounts to at all times maintain a deposit sufficient to cover the estimated tax that may be due by applicant, which additional deposit shall be made upon request of the Commissioner. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 197.]

In this article, "wholesale dealer as defined in the preceding article" refers to Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 438, ch. 178, § 1, art. 16 (Penal Code, art. 936).

Art. 4032. License to fish.—Any person who is an American citizen, or an alien who has filed his intention papers and shows his desire to become an American citizen, desiring to fish in the public waters of this State, or fish for oysters, fish, shrimp, turtle, terrapin, clams, crabs or other marine animal life, for the purpose of selling them, shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so, and such person shall pay the fee of one dollar for such license, which shall be for one year from the date thereof and obligate the holder to observe all the laws of the State enacted to conserve the marine life of such public waters. [Id. p. 200.]

Art. 4032a. License to fish and fees.—Sec. 1. No person shall fish with artificial lures of any kind in the waters of this State without first having procured from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner of Texas, or his deputy, or from a county clerk in Texas, or other legally authorized agent, a license to fish.

Sec. 2. Any officer, deputy of [or] legally authorized agent, issuing any license to fish under the provisions of this Act, shall collect from the person to whom the license is issued the following fees:

(1) If issued to a resident, the sum of One Dollar and Ten Cents ($1.10), of which amount he shall retain as his fee Ten (10c) Cents, the balance of which amount he shall remit to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner on or before the 10th day of the month next succeeding that during which said license was issued.

(2) If issued to a non-resident or an alien, the sum of Five Dollars ($5.00), of which amount he shall retain as his fee Twenty Five (25c) cents, the balance of which amount he shall remit to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner as required under subdivision One (1) of this section; provided that he may issue to such nonresident a license good for only five (5) days, including the day of issuance, upon payment by the licensee of One Dollar and Ten Cents ($1.10), of which amount the officer so issuing said license shall retain as his fee Ten (10c) Cents, and the balance of which amount he shall remit to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner as provided for in subdivision One (1) of this section.

The officer issuing such license shall keep a complete and correct record of each fishing license issued, showing the name and place of residence of each licensee and the serial number and date of issuance of said license, on such form as the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner may prescribe; and the stubs of such licenses and the record thereof shall belong to the State of Texas and shall be filed with said Commissioner as and when he may direct.

The licenses provided for herein shall entitle the holder thereof to fish in the waters described in this Act until and including August 31st next succeeding the date of issuance thereof, except that the five (5) days license shall be good only for the five days from and including the day of the issuance thereof; and every license issued under the provisions of this Act shall contain; the true date of issuance thereof, the name of licensee, his age, hight [height], weight, color of hair, color of eyes, county of residence, if a resident of Texas, State or County of residence, if a non-resident of Texas or an alien, and such other information as the Commissioner may deem advisable to require, and the licensee shall sign upon said license a pledge to obey the laws of Texas as to fishing.

Sec. 3. Any person required under the provision of this Act to procure a license to fish who shall fish in, or who shall take by any means fish, oysters, shrimp or other marine life in any of the waters of this State in violation of the provisions of this Act without first procuring such license, or who shall fail, or refuse on demand by any officer, to show such officer his fishing license required of him by this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than One ($1.00) Dollar nor more than Ten ($10.00) Dollars; provided the provisions of this Act shall not apply to a resident citizen of Texas who holds a license for commercial fishing under Article 4032 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, so long as he does only commercial fishing.

Sec. 4. By the term non-resident, as used in this Act, shall be meant any citizen of the United States of America who is not a citizen of the State of Texas, who has continuously for four months next preceding the issuance of the fishing license to him been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Texas.

Sec. 5. All funds obtained from the sale of the licenses provided herein, after the payment of the fees allowed under this Act, shall be deposited by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in a special fund to be known as the Special Fish Propagation and Protection Fund; and this fund shall be used for the purpose of building and maintaining fish hatcheries, fairly distributed over the State of Texas and for the propagation, distribution and protection of fish in the State of Texas. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 396, ch. 268.]

Art. 4033. Registering boat.—Any person who is a citizen of the United States wishing to use a boat in catching or taking fish, green turtle, terrapin or shrimp, or gathering oysters or other marine life for market in public waters of this State, shall apply to the Commissioner for permission to do so. Such applicant shall furnish said officer under oath his name, place of residence, the name and kind of boat to be used by him, together with the number of men to be employed by him. Thereupon the officer shall register such boat which register number shall be distinctly painted, as the Commissioner may designate, on such boat, for which registration he shall pay said officer one dollar and fifty cents and said officer shall furnish the applicant with a certificate of such registration, valid for twelve months from date of issuance. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 194.]

Art. 4034. License for boat.—Any captain or master of any boat wishing to engage in the business of catching or taking any fish, turtle, terrapin, shrimp or oysters or other marine life from the waters of the State for market shall, before engaging in such business, secure from the Commissioner a license for such business by making written application to the commissioner. Such applicant shall set forth under oath that he is a citizen of the United States and the name, class and register number of his boat. If the application be for a license to use seines and nets, the applicant shall state the number, class and length of the seines and nets to be used by him, and if the application be for a license to gather oysters, he must state the number of tongs to be used by him, and the applicant shall agree that all such products shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Commissioner and that said application shall authorize said Commissioner to enter at any time the boat or any house or place where he may have such products, and shall further agree to pay to the State a special tax provided for in Article 4030. Upon receipt of such duly executed application, accompanied by the applicant's registration certificate and one dollar, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business set forth in his application, and the license shall be subject to such limitations and control as prescribed by the law. Said license must state the name of the licensee, name and class of his boat, and the date of issuance. Such license shall be for twelve months, if for fishing for fish, turtle, or shrimp; and from September first to April first following the date of license, if for gathering oysters; and from November first to February first inclusive, if for the purpose of catching terrapin. The license so issued shall be kept on the boat subject to the inspection of the Commissioner, and it shall not be transferable without the consent of the Commissioner having been first had, which consent or assignment shall be written across the face of said license. If such licensed captain or master shall violate any fish and oyster law of this State, or shall refuse to comply with any provision made in his application for license, the Commissioner is authorized to cancel said license and the boat registration certificate, notice of which shall be given by the Commissioner in writing and delivered to the licensee, and such license to such captain and the registration of such boat shall not be renewed for three years. Any person wishing to engage in the taking or catching of any fish, turtle, terrapin, shrimp, oysters or other marine life, for market, as employé of the owner or as a part of the crew of any registered boat, shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so; such person, to obtain such license, must make written application to said Commissioner, setting forth under oath that he is a citizen of the United States or must offer proof that he has already filed his proper intention papers as required by the Federal Government, and shall thereafter be vigilant in the securing of his final citizenship papers. One license issued to a captain or master of a boat under this article shall authorize such licensee to engage in the taking or catching of the products named herein. [Acts 1923, p. 294.]

Art. 4035. Application for oyster bed.—Any person who is a citizen of the United States or any domestic corporation shall have the right of obtaining a location for planting oysters and making private oyster beds within the public waters of this State, by making written application to the Commissioner describing the location desired. A fee of twenty dollars cash must accompany such application. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 197.]

Art. 4036. Examining location.—When the application and fee provided for in the preceding article have been received by the Commissioner he shall examine thoroughly the location desired, as soon as practicable, with tongs, dredge or any other efficient means. If the same be not a natural oyster bed or reef, and exempt from location by any article of this chapter, he shall have the location surveyed by a competent surveyor. In making said location, said surveyor shall plant two iron stakes or pipes on the shore line nearest to the proposed location, one at each end of the proposed location, which said stakes or pipes shall be not less than two inches in diameter, and be set at least three feet in the ground. Said stakes or pipes shall be placed with reference to bearings of not less than three natural or permanent objects or land marks. And the locator shall place and maintain under the direction of the Commissioner a buoy at each corner of his oyster claim farthest from the land. No person shall locate water or ground covered with water for planting oysters along any bay shore in this State, nearer than one hundred yards from shore. [Id. p. 197.]

Art. 4037. Locator's certificate.—The Commissioner shall give the locator a certificate signed and sealed by the Commissioner. Such certificate shall show the date of application, date of survey, number, description of metes and bounds with reference to the points of the compass and natural and artificial objects by which said location can be found and verified. The locator shall, before such certificate is delivered to him, pay the Commissioner surveyor's fees and all other expenses connected with establishing such location. If such sums, as costs of the location and establishment of the claim, are less than the twenty dollar paid to the Commissioner, the difference in amount shall be returned to such locator by the Commissioner. If such expenses amount to more than twenty dollars, the deficit shall be paid to the Commissioner by the locator.

At any time not exceeding sixty days after the date of such certificate of location, the locator must file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the location is situated, who shall record the same in a well bound book kept for that purpose, and the original with a certificate of registration shall be returned to the owner or locator; the clerk shall receive for the recording of such certificate the same fee as for recording deeds; the original or certified copies of such certificate shall be admissible in evidence under the same rule governing the admission of deeds or certified copies thereof. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4038. Rights of locator.—Any person who shall be granted a certificate of location as provided for in the preceding article shall be protected in his possession thereof against trespass thereon in like manner as freeholders are protected in their possessions, as long as he maintains all stakes and buoys in their original and correct position, and complies with all laws, rules and regulations governing the fish and oyster industries. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4039. Limiting location.—No person, firm or corporation shall ever own, lease or otherwise control more than one hundred acres of land covered by water, the same being oyster locations under this chapter, and within the public waters of this State; and any person, firm or corporation that now holds more than one hundred acres of oyster locations, shall not be permitted hereafter to acquire, lease or otherwise control more; provided that no corporation shall lease or control any such lands covered by water unless such corporation shall be duly incorporated under the laws of this State. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4040. To maintain markings.—Any person, firm or corporation who has secured, or may hereafter secure a location for a private oyster bed in this State, shall keep the two iron stakes or pipes and buoys as provided for by law, in place, and shall preserve the marks so long as he is the lessee of said location, and this shall apply also to any person, firm or corporation acquiring any location by purchase or transfer of any nature, and said locator or the assignee of any locator shall have the right to fence said location or any part thereof; provided that said fence does not obstruct navigation through or into a regular channel or cut leading to other public waters. [Id. p. 198.]

Art. 4041. Rental on location.—The owner or locator of private oyster beds under the foregoing provisions shall not be required to pay any rentals on such locations for a period of five years, or till such time as he shall begin to market or sell oysters from such location or bed. When such locator shall begin to sell or market oysters from such location, he shall pay the State one dollar and fifty cents per acre per annum and two cents a barrel on oyster sales. Failure to pay such rental by the first day of March of each year shall annul and be a forfeiture of his lease. And if oysters are not marketed or sold from such location within five years from the date of location, such location shall become void. [Id. p. 199.]

Art. 4042. Oyster permit.—Any person who is a citizen of the State of Texas, or any corporation chartered by the State to engage in the culture of oysters or transact business in the purchase and sale of oysters and fish, and composed of American citizens, wishing to plant oysters on their own oyster locations or to take oysters from oyster reefs and public waters of the State for the purpose of preparing them for market, shall make application to the Commissioner for permission to do the same. In such application the applicant shall set out distinctly the purpose for which he desires such oysters and also the number or amount that he desires to take from the beds and waters mentioned. The Commissioner may grant such permit or he may refuse to do so. If he should grant such permit, he shall require the applicant to take the oysters he is authorized to take from beds or reefs designated by such Commissioner and name them in the permit, and it shall be unlawful for any person to take oysters of less size than three and one-half inches from hinge to mouth from any such designated beds or reefs unless authorized to do so by the Commissioner; he shall mark off the exact area of such beds or reefs from which such oysters shall be taken; he shall designate the bottoms on which such oysters shall be deposited, if they are taken to be prepared for market; he shall require the applicant to cull the oysters on the grounds where they are to be located; he shall state what implements such as tongs and dredges shall be used in taking such oysters, and he shall make and enforce all other regulations he may think necessary to protect and conserve the oysters on such public reefs or beds. All oysters taken from or deposited in the public waters of this State as herein provided shall become the personal property of the person or corporation so taking or depositing them. Such person or corporation shall, by buoys or stakes or by fences, clearly and distinctly mark the boundaries of the private bed planted, or the boundaries of the deposit of oysters made for preparation for market; and no prosecution of any one shall be permitted for taking such oysters unless the boundaries of such beds and deposits are established and maintained. [Id. p. 199.]

Art. 4043. Shipment of oysters.—It shall be unlawful for any transportation company operating within this State, its officers, agent or employees, to receive for shipment, or to ship, within the boundaries of this State from the first day of May to the first day of September of any year, any oysters from any public bed or reef for depositing or for marketing. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as to prohibit any such transportation company, its officers, agents or employees, from shipping or receiving for shipment, any oysters taken from a private bed located under the laws of this State, offered for shipment by the owner or owners, locator or locators, of such bed; such fact to be established by the affidavit of the person or persons offering such oysters for shipment. [Id. p. 203.]

Art. 4044. Permit to use seine.—All seines and nets used in the salt waters of this State shall be examined by the Commissioner to see that they conform to the requirements of Title 13, Chap. 6, of the Penal Code as to length and size of mesh. If they are found to conform to such requirements, the Commissioner shall tag such seines or nets with a metal tag on which shall be indented the number of such seine and net, and it shall be the duty of the owner of such seine or net to keep the tag attached thereto; the cost of such tag, twenty-five cents, to be paid by the owner of such seine or net. The Commissioner shall then issue to the owner a permit to use such seine or net for one year from the date of such permit. And such permit shall state the name of the owner of such net, the date on which it was issued, the size of the mesh and the length and kind of such net. The Commissioner shall keep a record book in which the date of issuance of such permit, the name of the owner, the number of the tag, the size of the mesh and the length of such seine or net shall be kept. The Commissioner shall have power to seize and keep in his possession all seines which do not conform to the requirements of such article as evidence until trial of defendant, and no suit shall be maintained against him therefor. [Acts 1923, p. 296.]

Art. 4045. Seining, etc., in closed waters.—It shall be unlawful for any person at any time to place, to set or drag any seine or net, or to carry on, over or into the waters hereinafter referred to, or to have in his possession or to carry such seine or net by vehicle or in any other way to any point or place within one mile of such waters, or to use any other device or method for taking fish, other than the ordinary pole and line or cast-net or minnow-seine of not more than twenty feet in length for catching bait, within the waters described in Article 941 of the Penal Code. Nothing in this article shall prevent the use of spear or gig and light for the purpose of securing flounders from such passes as are therein enumerated at any time of the year except during the months of November and December, which months shall constitute a closed season on flounders in all coastal waters of the State. The Commissioner, when he has reason to believe it is best for the protection and increase of fish life, or to prevent their destruction in the bays or parts thereof, or such tidal water, is hereby authorized to close such waters against fishing with any seine, net, spear, gig, light or other devices, except with a hook and line or cast-net or minnow-seine of not more than twenty feet in length. Before so closing any such waters, the Commissioner shall give notice of his intention to do so at least two weeks prior to such closing, giving the reason why action is deemed necessary, and which notice shall contain a designation of the area which it is proposed to close, a statement that after the date indicated in such notice it shall be unlawful to drag a seine or set a net or use a gig or spear and light in taking fish from such waters for the period which the Commissioner in said notice shall declare same to be closed. The Commissioner shall have the authority, when proper hearing has been had and investigation been made, and he has determined that any such closed area in the tidal waters of this State does not promote conservation of fish, to open such area to seining, netting, gigging and fishing of all sorts. The Commissioner shall have power to seize and keep such seines as are used in violation of any provision of this article, in his possession as evidence until trial of defendant, and no suit shall be maintained against him therefor. [Acts 1923, p. 297.]

Art. 4046. Seining for drum.—Any person leasing an oyster claim or oyster reef in waters where seining is prohibited may apply to the Commissioner for permission to seine for drum fish in such waters. In his application for permission to seine for drum he shall make oath that such fish are seriously damaging his oysters, and that if he is permitted to seine for such fish in such waters, he will not take or destroy any other food fish, but will throw them back into the water. If the Commissioner is satisfied that such damage is being done, he may grant such permission, specifying in such permit the length of time in which it is to be used, and the claim or reef on which it is to be used. Such Commissioner shall assign a deputy fish and oyster commissioner to superintend such seining, and no seine shall be dragged except in his presence, and for which a person obtaining the permission to seine as set forth above, shall pay to the Commissioner two dollars and fifty cents per day. [Id., p. 202.]

Art. 4047. Permit to use shrimp seine.—The Commissioner may permit the use of any shrimp seine or other device for catching shrimp in the tidal waters of this State. Any person desiring to use such seine shall apply to the Commissioner for a permit to use such seine, net or other device for catching shrimp, and the Commissioner shall fix and establish the mesh, construction, depth and length of such seine or net or other device so that it shall not be used for other purposes than in taking shrimp, and he shall tag such seine or other device officially and issue such permit, and shall designate in what waters and localities such seines or nets shall be used. Any such nets or seines or devices used in violation of this article shall be declared a nuisance and the Commissioner shall abate and destroy the same, and no suit shall be maintained in the courts for such abatement and destruction. [Id. p. 205.]

Art. 4048. Dredging reefs or beds.—Any person who is an American citizen or any firm or corporation composed of American citizens desiring to use scrapers or dredges in removing oysters from the natural oyster reefs of this State shall procure from the Commissioner a license to do so, and such applicant shall pay to the Commissioner a license fee of five dollars when using scrapers or hand dredges, and fifteen dollars when using power-dredges, which license shall be for one year from the date of issuance thereof, and shall obligate the holder to observe all the laws of the State enacted to conserve the marine life of such public waters. Whenever the Commissioner believes that a natural oyster reef or bed is too open and exposed to be fished with hand-tongs, and that such reef or bed can be improved by the use of dredges, he may grant the use of dredges on such reef or bed regardless of the depth of the body of water or exposure thereof, but only under the supervision and direction of a deputy fish and oyster commissioner; and the Commissioner is authorized to purchase boats and implements and employ labor to work such public oyster reefs and beds as he may think can be improved thereby, the expense of which shall be paid on warrants issued by the Comptroller on the sworn statement as to the correctness of such expense by the Commissioner. [Acts 1923, p. 298.]

Art. 4049. Protection of reservation.—It shall be unlawful to bring into or keep on any fish hatchery or reservation for the propagation or exhibition of any birds, fowls or animals, any cat, dog or other predacious animal, and any such animal found on the grounds of such hatcheries or reservation is held to be a nuisance, and the deputy in charge shall abate and destroy it as a nuisance, and no suit for damages shall be maintained therefor. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 209.]

Art. 4049a. Hatcheries and propagation.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner of this State is hereby authorized to construct and maintain salt water hatcheries, and propagation farms for fish, oysters and game, or either of same, on islands owned by the State of Texas in the costal waters of the Gulf of Mexico touching this State; and the cost and expenses thereof shall be borne out of the money available to said Commissioner for the enforcement of the game, fish and oyster laws of this state. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 258, ch. 180, § 1.]

Art. 4050. May take brood fish.—It shall be lawful for the Commissioner or the United States Commissioner of Fisheries and his duly authorized agents to take at any time and in any manner from the public fresh waters of this State all brood fish required by them in operation of the State and Federal Hatcheries. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 214.]

 4056. License for mussels, etc.

Article 4051. Property of the State.—All the islands, reefs, bars, lakes, and bays within the tide-water limits from the most interior point seaward co-extensive with the jurisdiction of this State, and such of the fresh water islands, lakes, rivers, creeks and bayous within the interior of this State as may not be embraced in any survey of private land, together with all the marl and sand of commercial value, and all the shells, mudshell or gravel of whatsoever kind that may be in or upon any island, reef or bar, and in or upon the bottoms of any lake, bay, shallow water, rivers, creeks and bayous and fish hatcheries and oyster beds within the jurisdiction and territory herein defined, are included within the provisions of this chapter, and are hereby placed under the management, control and protection of the Commissioner. None of the marl, gravel, shells, mudshells or sand included herein shall be purchased, taken away or disturbed, except as provided herein, nor shall any oyster beds or fish hatcheries within the territory included herein be disturbed except as herein provided. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4052. Powers of Commissioner.—The Commissioner is hereby invested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion over all matters pertaining to the sale, the taking, carrying away or disturbing of all marl, sand or gravel of commercial value, and all gravel and shells or mudshell and oyster beds and their protection from free use and unlawful disturbing or appropriation of same, with such exceptions as may be provided herein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4053. Permit to use marl, etc.—Anyone desiring to purchase any of the marl and sand of commercial value and any of the gravel, shells or mudshell included within the provisions of this chapter, or otherwise operate in any of the waters or upon any island, reef, bar, lake, bay, river, creek or bayou included in this chapter, shall first make written application therefor to the Commissioner designating the limits of the territory in which such person desires to operate. If the Commissioner is satisfied that the taking, carrying away or disturbing of the marl, gravel, sand, shells or mudshell in the designated territory would not damage or injuriously affect any oysters, oyster beds, fish inhabiting waters thereof or adjacent thereto and that such operation would not damage or injuriously affect any island, reef, bar, channel, river, creek or bayou used for frequent or occasional navigation, nor change or otherwise injuriously affect any current that would affect navigation, he may issue a permit to such person after such applicant shall have complied with all requirements prescribed by said Commissioner. The permit shall authorize the applicant to take, carry away or otherwise operate within the limits of such territory as may be designated therein, and for such substance or purpose only as may be named in the permit and upon the terms and conditions of the permit. No permit shall be assignable, and a failure or refusal of the holder to comply with the terms and conditions of such permit shall operate as an immediate termination and revocation of all rights conferred therein or claimed thereunder. No special privilege or exclusive right shall be granted to any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise, to take or carry away any of such products from any territory or to otherwise operate in or upon any island, reef, bay, lake, river, creek, or bayou included in this chapter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 216.]

Art. 4053a. Condemnation for access to marl, mudshell, etc.—That where the State of Texas, through the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, has issued a permit to excavate and take from any island, reef, bar, lake, river, creek, bayou or bay of this State[,] marl, mudshell, oyster shell, sand and gravel, the State, at the request of the permit holder, shall have the right and power to enter upon and condemn and appropriate the lands, right of ways, easements and property of any person or corporation for the purpose of erecting dredges and necessary equipment and for the purpose of laying and maintaining the railway spurs to the nearest railroad, and for the purpose of operating and maintaining necessary roads and passageways to said place of operations, including all such lands, right of ways, easements and property aforesaid for the purpose of establishing and maintaining landing places and providing moorings for barges and dredges and all equipments as may be determined by said permit holder necessary in carrying on said business, provided that such right of way should not invade improvements such as buildings or orchards; and provided, further, the manner and method of such condemnation and assessment and payment of damages therefor shall be the same as provided for by law in the case of railroads. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 74, p. 231, § 1.]

Art. 4053b. Condemnation proceedings.—Condemnation suits brought under this Chapter shall be brought in the name of the State by the county attorney of the county in which the property or a part thereof affected is situated and the county attorney shall receive a fee of $10.00 for his services upon the institution of such proceedings, the same to be taxed and collected as a part of the cost in such suit. All costs in such proceedings shall be paid either by the permit holder, at whose instance such proceedings are had, or by the person against whom such proceedings are had, to be determined as in case of railroad condemnation proceedings, and all damages and pay for property awarded in such proceedings shall be paid by the permit holder and in no event shall the State be liable for any cost, damages or any sum whatsoever with respect to such proceedings. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 74, p. 232, § 2.]

Art. 4053c. Partial invalidity.—The importance of this legislation to the people of this State on account of scarcity of available sand, gravel and shell to be used in building and highway construction in Texas, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and that this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and said rule is hereby suspended, and it is so enacted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 74, p. 232, § 3.]

Art. 4053d. Sale of marl, gravel, sand, etc.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner by and with the approval of the Governor, may sell the marl, gravel, sand, shell or mudshell included within this Act, upon such terms and conditions as he may deem proper, but for not less than four (4c) cents per ton, and payment therefor shall be made to said Commissioner. The proceeds arising from such sale shall be transmitted to the State Treasurer and be credited to a special fund hereby created to be known as the sand, gravel and shell fund of the State, and may be expended by the said Commissioner in the enforcement of the provisions of the sand, shell and gravel laws and in the establishment and maintenance of fish hatcheries, when provided by legislative appropriation, and in the payment of refunds provided for in Section 7, Chapter 161, of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-eight Legislature, to counties, cities or towns or any political subdivision of a county, city or town, as provided for in Section 7, Chapter 161, of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature. And also providing that the authorization of refunds on sand, gravel and shell shall be extended to include refunds to the State Highway Commission of money paid the State through the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission for sand, gravel and shell used by the State Highway Commission on public roads upon application for such refunds in the manner prescribed for cities and counties. Provided further that not less than seventy-five per cent of the proceeds derived therefrom, after refunds above referred to have been cared for, shall go for the establishment and maintenance of fish hatcheries; and the sand, gravel, and shell fund is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act. Said hatch-eries to be established from time to time in the State of Texas by the Fish, Game and Oyster Commission, when in their judgment a suitable location is secured and arrangements therefor have been completed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 183, p. 452, § 1.]

Art. 4053e. Partial invalidity.—If any section of this bill shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other section of this bill, and all sections, save the one that may be declared unconstitutional, shall continue to be in full force and effect, and all laws in conflict are hereby repealed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 183, p. 453, § 2.]

Art. 4054. Use in municipal road work.—If any county, or subdivision of a county, city or town should desire any marl, gravel, sand, shell or mudshell included in this chapter for use in the building of any road or street, which work is done by said county, or any subdivision of a county, city or town, such municipality may be granted a permit without charge and shall have the right to take, carry away or operate in any waters or upon any islands, reefs or bars included herein; such municipality to do the work under its own supervision, but shall first obtain from the Commissioner a permit to do so, and the granting of same for the operation in the territory designated by such municipality shall be subject to the same rules, regulations and limitations and discretion of the Commissioner as are other applicants and permits. When such building of roads or taking of such products is to be done by contract, then the said municipality may obtain a refund from the Commissioner of the tax levied and collected on said products as fixed by the Commissioner at the time of the taking thereof, by warrant drawn by the Comptroller upon itemized account sworn to by the proper officer representing such municipality and approved by the Commissioner, and under such other rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. [Acts 1923, p. 342.]

Art. 4054a. Material for protective work along coast.—If any county, city or town authorized by Title 118 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 to construct, extend, protect, strengthen, maintain, keep in repair and otherwise improve any seawall or breakwater, levee, dike, floodway and drainway, shall desire any marl, gravel, sand, shell or mudshell, included in this Chapter, for use in the building, constructing, extending, protecting, strengthening, maintaining keeping in repair and otherwise improving any such seawall, or breakwater, levee, dike, floodway and drainway, such municipality shall be granted a permit without charge, and shall have the right, without payment therefor by such county, city or town to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or to the State of Texas, to appropriate, dredge, take and carry away any such marl, gravel, sand, shell or mudshell from any of the waters, reefs, or bars included herein; provided that such permit shall be granted and such marl, gravel, sand, shell or mudshell shall be taken under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner may make and establish. Provided, further, that none of the benefits accruing under and by virtue of this Act shall inure to any person, firm or corporation holding a contract at the present time where marl, gravel, shell or mudshell shall be used as herein provided. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 265, ch. 186, § 1.]

Art. 4055. Condemnation of land.—Where the State, through the Commissioner, has issued a permit to excavate and take from any island, reef, bar, lake, river, creek bayou or bay of this State, marl, mudshell, oyster shell, sand and gravel, the State, at the request of the permit holder, shall have the power to enter upon and condemn and appropriate the lands, right of way, easements and property of any person or corporation, for the purpose of erecting dredges and necessary equipment, and for the purpose of laying and maintaining railway spurs to the nearest railroad, and for the purpose of opening and maintaining necessary roads and passageways, to said place of operations; provided, that such right of way shall not invade improvements such as buildings or orchards.

name of the State by the Attorney General in the county where the area included in said permit, or some part of such area, is situated. All costs in such proceedings shall be paid either by the permit holder at whose instance such proceedings are had or by the person against whom such proceedings are had, to be determined as in the case of condemnation proceedings, and all damages and pay for property awarded in such proceedings shall be paid by the permit holder. In no event shall the State be liable for any costs, damages or any sum whatsoever with respect to such proceedings. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 11.]

Art. 4056. License for mussels, etc.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to take from the public waters of the State for sale any mussels, clams, or naiad or shells thereof without first obtaining a license from the Commissioner to do so. Said license shall expire one year from the date of issuance, and shall be in such form as prescribed by the Commissioner, but shall state the water in which the licensee may operate. The applicant shall pay to the Commissioner, as a license fee, the sum of ten dollars and in addition thereto the sum of twenty-five dollars for permission to use a dredge. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 214.]

[Note.—Articles 4057 to 4075, inclusive, have been omitted in the Acts of 1925. For additional legislation on subject "Game, Fish and Oysters," see Penal Code, pp. 195 to 234, inclusive.]

TITLE 68

GARNISHMENT

- Art.
 4076. Who may issue and when.
 4077. Bond.
 4078. Application for the writ.
 4079. Case docketed, etc.
 4080. When writ is to subject shares, etc.
 4081. Form of writ.
 4082. Delivery of writ.
 4083. Execution and return of writ.
 4084. Effect of service of writ.
 4085. Answer to the writ.
 4086. Garnishee discharged.
 4087. Judgment by default.
 4088. Judgment when garnishee is indebted.
 4089. Judgment for effects.
 4090. Refusal to deliver effects.
 4091. Judgment against company.
 4092. Sales of shares of stock.
 4093. Effect of such sale.
 4094. May traverse answer.
 4095. Trial of issue.
 4096. Trial when garnishee is nonresident.
 4097. Docketed and notice.
 4098. Issue tried as other cases.
 4099. Current wages.
 4101. Garnishee discharged on proof.

Article 4076. [271] [217] [183] Who may issue and when.—The clerks of the district and county courts and justices of the peace may issue writs of garnishment, returnable to their respective courts, in the following cases:

1. Where an original attachment has been issued.
2. Where the plaintiff sues for a debt and makes affidavit that such debt is just, due and unpaid, and that the defendant has not within his knowledge property in his possession within this State, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such debt; and that the garnishment applied for is not sued out to injure either the defendant or the garnishee.
3. Where the plaintiff has a valid, subsisting judgment and makes affidavit that the defendant has not, within his knowledge, property in his possession within this State, subject to execution, sufficient to satisfy such judgment. [Acts 1874, p. 113; P. D. 157-3785; G. L. vol. 8, p. 115.]

Art. 4077. [272] [218] [184] Bond.—In the case mentioned in subdivision two of the preceding article, the plaintiff shall execute a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the officer issuing the writ, payable to the defendant in the suit, in double the amount of the debt claimed therein, conditioned that he will prosecute his suit to effect and pay all damages and costs that may be adjudged against him for wrongfully suing out such garnishment. [Id.]

Art. 4078. [273] [219] [185] Application for the writ.—Before the issuance of the writ of garnishment, the plaintiff shall make application therefor, signed by him, stating the facts authorizing the issuance of the writ, and that the plaintiff has reason to believe, and does believe, that the garnishee, stating his name and residence, is indebted to the defendant, or that he has in his hands effects belonging to the defendant, or that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and that the defendant is the owner of shares in such company or has an interest therein. [Id.]

Art. 4079. [274] [220] [186] Case docketed, etc.—When the foregoing requisites have been complied with, the judge, or clerk, or justice of the peace, as the case may be, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant; and shall immediately issue a writ of garnishment, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the garnishee is alleged to reside or be, commanding him forthwith to summon the garnishee to appear before the court out of which the same is issued, on the first day of the ensuing term thereof, to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the defendant, and was when such writ was served, and what effects, if any, of the defendant he has in his possession, and had when such writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the defendant or have effects belonging to him in their possession. [Acts 1875, p. 102; P. D. 157; G. L. vol. 8, p. 474.]

Art. 4080. [275] [221] [187] When writ is to subject shares, etc.—Where it appears from the plaintiff's affidavit that the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, in which the defendant is the owner of shares, or is interested therein, the writ of garnishment shall further require the garnishee to answer upon oath what number of shares, if any, the defendant owns in such company, or owned when such writ was served, and what interest, if any, he has in such company, or had when such writ was served. [Id.]

Art. 4081. [276] [222] [188] Form of writ.—The following form of writ may be used:

"The State of Texas:

To the sheriff or any constable of _____ county, greeting:

Whereas, in the _____ court of _____ county (if a justice's court, state also the number of the precinct), in a certain cause wherein A B is plaintiff and C D is defendant, the plaintiff, claiming an indebtedness against the said C D of _____ dollars, besides interest and costs of suit, has applied for a writ of garnishment against E F, who is alleged to be a resident of your county (or to be within your county, as the case may be); therefore you are hereby commanded forthwith to summon the said E F, if to be found within your county, to be and appear before the said court at the next term thereof; to be held at _____, in said county, on the _____ day of _____, 19____, then and there to answer upon oath what, if anything, he is indebted to the said C D, and was when this writ was served upon him, and what effects, if any, of the said C D he has in his possession, and had when this writ was served, and what other persons, if any, within his knowledge, are indebted to the said C D, or have effects belonging to him in their possession; (and if the garnishee be an incorporated, or joint stock company, in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or interested therein, then the writ shall proceed) and further to answer what number of shares, if any, the said C D owns in such company, and owned when such writ was served. Herein fail not, but of this writ make due return as the law directs."

Art. 4082. [277] [223] [189] Delivery of writ.—The writ of garnishment shall be dated and tested as other writs, and may be delivered to the sheriff or constable by the officer who issued it, or he may deliver it to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, for that purpose.

Art. 4083. [278] [224] [190] Execution and return of writ.—The sheriff or constable receiving the writ of garnishment shall immediately proceed to execute the same by delivering a copy thereof to the garnishee, and shall make return thereof as of other citations.

Art. 4084. [279] [225] [191] Effect of service of writ.—From and after the service of such writ of garnishment, it shall not be lawful for the garnishee to pay to the defendant any debt or to deliver to him any effects; nor shall the garnishee, if an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of shares or to have an interest, permit or recognize any sale or transfer of such shares or interest; and any such payment or delivery, sale or transfer, shall be void and of no effect as to so much of said debt, effect, shares, or interest as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's demand. The defendant may, at any time before judgment, replevy any effects, debts, shares, or claims of any kind seized or garnisheed, by giving bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the officer who issued the writ of garnishment, payable to the plaintiff, in double the amount of the plaintiff's debt, and conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be rendered against the said garnishee in such suit, which when properly approved shall be filed among the papers in the cause in the court in which the suit is pending. In all proceedings in garnishment where the defendant gives bond as herein provided for, such defendant may make any defense which the defendant in garnishment could make in such suit. [Acts 1889, p. 1; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1029.]

Art. 4085. [280] [226] [192] Answer to the writ.—The answer of the garnishee shall be under oath, in writing, and signed by him, and shall make true answers to the several matters inquired of in the writ of garnishment.

Art. 4086. [281] [227] [193] Garnishee discharged.—If it appears from the answer of the garnishee that he is not indebted to the defendant, and was not so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served on him, and that he has not in his possession any effects of the defendant and had not when the writ was served, and when the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant is alleged to be the owner of any shares of stock or interested therein, if it further appears from such answer that the defendant is not and was not, when the writ was served, the owner of any such shares, or interested in such company, should the answer of the garnishee not be controverted as herein-after provided, the court shall enter judgment discharging the garnishee.

Art. 4087. [282] [228] [194] Judgment by default.—The garnishee shall in all cases after lawful service file an answer to the writ of garnishment on or before appearance day of the term of the court to which such writ is returnable, and should the garnishee fail to file such answer to said writ as herein required, it shall be lawful for the court, at any time after judgment shall have been rendered against defendant, and on or after appearance day, to render judgment by default, as in other civil cases against such garnishee for the full amount of such judgment against the defendant, together with all interest and costs that may have accrued in the main case and also in the garnishment proceedings. The answer of such garnishee may be filed as in any other civil case at any time before such default judgment is rendered. [Acts 1921, p. 207.]

Art. 4088. [293] [239] [205] Judgment when garnishee is indebted.—Should it appear from the answer of the garnishee or should it be otherwise made to appear and be found by the court that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant in any amount, or was so indebted when the writ of garnishment was served, the court shall render judgment for the plaintiff against the garnishee for the amount so admitted or found to be due to the defendant from the garnishee, unless such amount is in excess of the amount of the plaintiff's judgment against the defendant with interest and costs, in which case, judgment shall be rendered against the garnishee for the full amount of the judgment already rendered against the defendant, together with interest and costs of the suit in the original case and also in the garnishment proceedings. If the garnishee fail or refuse to pay such judgment rendered against him, execution shall issue thereon in the same manner and under the same conditions as is or may be provided by law for the issuance of execution in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 4089. [294] [240] [206] Judgment for effects.—Should it appear from the garnishee's answer, or otherwise, that the garnishee has in his possession, or had when the writ was served, any effects of the defendant liable to execution, the court shall render a decree requiring the garnishee to deliver up to the sheriff or any constable presenting an execution in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, such effects or so much of them as may be necessary to satisfy such execution.

Art. 4090. [295] [241] [207] Refusal to deliver effects.—Should the garnishee adjudged to have effects of the defendant in his possession, as provided in the preceding article, fail or refuse to deliver them to the sheriff or constable on such demand, the officer shall immediately make return of such failure or refusal, whereupon on motion of the plaintiff, the garnishee shall be cited to show cause at the next term of the court why he should not be attached for contempt of court for such failure or refusal. If the garnishee fails to show some good and sufficient excuse for such failure or refusal, he shall be fined for such contempt and imprisoned until he shall deliver such effects.

Art. 4091. [296] [242] [208] Judgment against company.—Where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company, and it appears from the answer, or otherwise, that the defendant is, or was when the writ of garnishment was served, the owner of any shares of stock in such company, or any interest therein, the court shall render a decree, ordering the sale under execution, in favor of the plaintiff against the defendant, of such shares or interest of the defendant in such company, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy such execution. [Acts 1875, p. 103; G. L. vol. 8, p. 475.]

Art. 4092. [297] [243] [209] Sales of shares of stock.—The sale so ordered shall be conducted in all respects as other sales of personal property under execution; and the officer making such sale shall execute a transfer of such shares or interest to the purchaser, with a brief recital of the judgment of the court under which the same was sold. [Id.]

Art. 4093. [298] [244] [210] Effect of such sale.—Such sale shall be valid and effectual to pass to the purchaser all right, title and interest which the defendant had in such shares of stock, or in such company; and the proper officers of such company shall enter such sale and transfer on the books of the company in the same manner as if the same had been made by the defendant himself. [Id. p. 104.]

Art. 4094. [299-300] [245-246] [211-212] May traverse answer.—If the plaintiff should not be satisfied with the answer of any garnishee, he may controvert the same by his affidavit stating that he has good reason to believe, and does believe, that the answer of the garnishee is incorrect, stating in what particular he believes the same is incorrect. The defendant may also, in like manner, controvert the answer of the garnishee.

Art. 4095. [301] [247] [213] Trial of issue.—If the garnishee whose answer is controverted, is a resident of the county in which the proceeding is pending, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Art. 4096. [302] [248] [214] Trial when garnishee is nonresident.—Should the garnishee be a foreign corporation, not incorporated under the laws of this State, and should its answer be controverted, the issues thus formed shall be tried in the court where the main suit is pending, or was tried; but if the garnishee whose answer is controverted, resided in some county other than the one in which the main case is pending or was tried, and is not a foreign corporation, then upon the filing of a controverting affidavit by any party to the suit, the plaintiff may file in any court in the county of residence of the garnishee having jurisdiction of the amount of the judgment in the original suit, a duly certified copy of the judgment in such original suit and of the proceedings in garnishment, including a certified copy of the plaintiff's application for the writ, the answer of the garnishee, and the affidavit controverting such answer. The court wherein such certified copies are filed shall try the issues made as provided by law. [Acts 1921, p. 207.]

Art. 4097. [303-4] Docketed and notice.—The clerk of such court or the justice of the peace, on receiving such certified copies, shall docket the case in the name of the plaintiff as plaintiff, and of the garnishee as defendant, and issue a notice to the garnishee, stating that his answer has been so controverted, and that such issue will stand for trial at the next term of court. Such notice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, be dated and tested as other process from such court, and served by delivering a copy thereof to the defendant.

Art. 4098. [305] [251] [217] Issue tried as other cases.—Upon the return of such notice served, an issue shall be formed under the direction of the court and tried as other cases.

Art. 4099. [306] [252] [218] Current wages.—No current wages for personal service shall be subject to garnishment; and where it appears upon the trial that the garnishee is indebted to the defendant for such current wages, the garnishee shall nevertheless be discharged as to such indebtedness. [Const., art. 16, sec. 28.]

Art. 4100. [307] [253] [219] Costs.—Where the garnishee is discharged upon his answer, the costs of the proceeding, including a reasonable compensation to the garnishee, shall be taxed against the plaintiff; where the answer of the garnishee has not been controverted and the garnishee is held thereon, such costs shall be taxed against the defendant and included in the execution provided for in this chapter; where the answer is contested, the costs shall abide the issue of such contest.

Art. 4101. [308] [254] [220] Garnishee discharged on proof.—It shall be a sufficient answer to any claim of the defendant against the garnishee founded on any indebtedness of such garnishee, or on the possession by him of any effects, or where the garnishee is an incorporated or joint stock company in which the defendant was the owner of shares of stock or other interest therein, for the garnishee to show that such indebtedness was paid, or such effects were delivered, or such shares of stock or other interest in such company were sold under the judgment of the court in accordance with the provisions of this title.

CHAPTER ONE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art.

4102. Jurisdiction of county court.
4103. Jurisdiction of district court.
4104. Definitions.
4105. Record books.
4106. Registration.
4107. Orders of court.
4108. Laws applicable.
4109. May contest proceedings.
4110. Call of docket.
4112. Unnecessary publications avoided.

Article 4102. [4043] [2550] [2469] Jurisdiction of county court.—The County Court shall appoint guardians of minors, persons of unsound mind and habitual drunkards, and other persons where it is necessary that a guardian be appointed to receive funds or money due such persons from the Federal Government, settle accounts of guardians, and transact all business appertaining to the estates of minors, persons of unsound mind, habitual drunkards, and other persons for whom a guardian is appointed. [Const. art. 5, sec. 16; Acts 1876, p. 19; G. L. vol. 8, p. 85; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 257, ch. 179, § 1.]

Art. 4103. [4044] [2551] [2470] Jurisdiction of district court.—The district court shall have appellate jurisdiction over the county court in all matters of guardianship, and original control and jurisdiction over guardians and wards, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. [Const. art. 5, sec. 8.]

Art. 4104. [4045-6-7-54] Definitions.—As used in this title:

1. A term of the county court means a term of such court held for the transaction of probate business.
2. Females under twenty-one years of age who have never been married and males under said age are minors.
3. Idiots, lunatics or insane persons are persons of unsound mind.
4. An habitual drunkard is one whose mind has become so impaired by the use of intoxicating liquors or drugs that he is incapable of taking care of himself.

Art. 4105. [4048] [2555] [2474] Record books.—The record books used for the business of estates of decedents shall also be used for the business of guardianships.

Art. 4106. [4049] [2556] [2475] Registration.—The following papers shall be copied at length into the minutes of the court:

1. All applications, citations and returns upon citations.
2. All notices, whether published or posted, with the returns thereon.
3. All bonds and official oaths.
4. All inventories, appraisements and lists of claims, after the same have been approved by the court.
5. All reports of sales approved by the court, renting or leasing of property, and of loaning or investing money.
6. All accounts and exhibits of the guardian, after approved by the court. [Id. p. 191.]

Art. 4107. [4050] [2557] [2476] Orders of court.—Each decision, order, and judgment of the court in matters of guardianship, shall be rendered in open court at a regular term thereof except in cases where it is otherwise specially provided.

Art. 4108. [4051] [2558] [2477] Laws applicable.—The provisions, rules and regulations which govern estates of decedents shall apply to and govern such guardianships, whenever the same are applicable and not inconsistent with any provision of this title.

Art. 4109. [4052] [2559] [2479] May contest proceedings.—Any person has the right to appear and contest the appointment of a particular person as guardian, or to contest any proceeding which he deems to be injurious to the ward, or to commence any proceeding which he considers beneficial to the ward, such person being liable for the costs occasioned by him in the case of his failure. [Id. p. 170.]

Art. 4110. [4053] [2560] [2479] Call of docket.—The county judge, at each regular term of his court, shall call each case of guardianship upon his docket, and make such orders therein as may be necessary, and see that such orders, together with all papers required to be recorded, are entered upon the minutes, and hold guardians and the officers of his court to a strict accountability for the performance of their duties with reference to guardianships.

Art. 4111. [4056-60] Venue.—A proceeding for the appointment of a guardian shall be begun:

1. For the estate of a minor in the county where the parents of such minor reside, or in the county where the parent having custody of the minor resides when the parents do not reside in the same county.

2. For the person and estate of an orphan, or of either, in the county where the last surviving parent of such orphan resided at the time of the death of such parent, or where such orphan is found, or where the principal estate of such orphan may be.

3. For the person and estate, or of either, of a person of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard, in the county where such person resides.

4. Where a guardian has been appointed by will, proceedings for letters of guardianship shall be begun in the county where the will has been admitted to probate.

5. For the estate of a person requiring the appointment of a guardian to receive funds or money from the Federal Government, in the county where such person resides. [Acts 1876, p. 176; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1012; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 257, ch. 179, § 2.]

Art. 4112. Unnecessary publications avoided.—The provisions of this title relating to citations and notice shall be held as special provisions complete within themselves, and no other or further publication of citation or notice in a newspaper than those provided for herein shall be required, the provisions of any other law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER TWO

COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS

Art.

4113. Application.
4114. Notice.
4115. Service and return.
4116. Personal citation.
4117. By judge.

Article 4113. [4061-62] Application.—A proceeding for the appointment of a guardian is begun by written application, filed in the county court of the county having jurisdiction thereof. Any person may make such application. It shall state:

1. The name, sex, age and residence of the minor.
2. The estate of such minor, if any, and the probable value thereof.
3. Such facts as show the jurisdiction of the court. [Acts 1876, p. 177; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1013.]

Art. 4114. [4063] [2570] [2489] Notice.—Upon the filing of such application, the clerk shall issue a notice which shall state that an application has been filed for the guardianship of the person, or estate, or both, as the case may be, of the minor, naming such minor, and by whom filed, which notice shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of such minor to appear at the named term of the court and contest such application if they see proper.

Art. 4115. [4064-5] [2571-2] [2490-1] Service and return.—Such notice shall be served by posting copies thereof for not less than ten days before the first day of the term of the court at which the application is to be acted upon, one of which copies shall be posted at the courthouse door and two other copies at two other public places in the county, not in the same city or town. The sheriff or other officer posting such notices shall return the original signed officially, stating thereon, in writing, the time and places, when and where, he posted such copies.

Certain notices in guardianship proceedings, under Art. 28, were validated by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., ch. 232, p. 346.

Art. 4116. [4066] [2573] [2492] Personal citation.—A minor fourteen years of age or over shall be personally served with citation to appear and answer such application, or such minor by writing filed with the clerk may waive the issuance of such citation and make choice of a guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4117. [4067] [2574] [2493] By judge.—Whenever it comes to the knowledge of the county judge that there is within his county a minor without a guardian of his person or estate, he shall cause a notice to be posted citing all persons interested in the welfare of such minor to show cause at a regular term of the court why a guardian of such minor should not be appointed. A minor fourteen years or over shall be personally cited. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS

1. REGULAR APPOINTMENTS

Art.

- 4118. Natural guardian.
- 4119. By will.
- 4120. Orphans.

- 4122. Persons disqualified.
- 4123. What facts must appear.
- 4124. Single appointment.
- 4125. Order of appointment.
- 4126. Minor may select.
- 4127. Failure to qualify.
- 4128. Term of appointment.
- 4129. Receiver.
- 4130. Receivership; expenditures.
- 4131. Receivership; loans.
- 4132. Nonresident minor.
- 4133. Letters of guardianship.

2. TEMPORARY APPOINTMENTS

- 4134. Temporary guardian.
- 4135. Order.
- 4136. Contest.
- 4137. Notice.
- 4138. Provisions applicable.

1. REGULAR APPOINTMENTS

Article 4118. [4068-69-70] Natural guardian.—If the parents live together, the father is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children by the marriage. If one parent is dead, the survivor is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children. The natural guardian is entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates. The rights of parents who do not live together are equal; the guardianship of their minor children shall be assigned to one or the other, taking into consideration the interest of the child alone. [Acts 1876, p. 175; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1011.]

Art. 4119. [4071] [2578] [2497] By will.—The surviving parent of a minor may, by will or written declaration, appoint any person qualified to be guardian of the persons of his or her children after the death of such parent; and such person shall also be entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates, after the death of such parent. [Id.]

Art. 4120. [4072-75] Orphans.—These rules shall govern as to orphans:

1. If the parent has appointed no guardian, the nearest ascendant in the direct line of such minor is entitled to the guardianship of both the person and estate of such minor.
2. If there be more than one ascendant in the same degree in the direct line, they are equally entitled. The guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the orphan alone.
3. If the orphan has no ascendant in the direct line, the guardianship shall be given to the nearest of kin in the collateral line who comes immediately after the presumptive heir or heirs of the orphan. If there be two or more in the same degree, the guardianship shall be given to the one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the orphan alone.

4. If there be no relative of the minor qualified to take the guardianship, or if no person entitled to such guardianship applies therefor, the court shall appoint some proper person to be such guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4121. [4076] [2583] [2502] Person of unsound mind.—In the case of a person of unsound mind, or an habitual drunkard, the nearest of kin to such person, who is not disqualified, shall be entitled to the guardianship. Where two or more are equally entitled the guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, taking into consideration the interest of the ward alone. If such ward have a husband or wife who is not disqualified, such husband or wife shall be entitled to the guardianship in preference to any other person.

Art. 4122. [4078] [2585] [2504] Persons disqualified.—The following persons shall not be appointed guardians:

1. Minors, except the father or mother.
2. Persons whose conduct is notoriously bad.
3. Persons of unsound mind.
4. Habitual drunkards.
5. Those who are themselves or whose father or mother are parties to a lawsuit, on the result of which the condition of the minor or part of his fortune may depend.
6. Those who are debtors to the minor, unless they discharge the debt prior to such appointment; but this subdivision does not apply to the father or mother of such minor. [Id.]

Art. 4123. [4080-81] What facts must appear.—At a regular term of the court, after notice as required by law, the court may proceed to the appointment of a guardian. Before appointing a guardian, the court must be satisfied:

1. That the person for whom a guardian is sought to be appointed is either a minor, a person of unsound mind, an habitual drunkard, or a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive funds or money due such person from the Federal Government.
2. That the court has jurisdiction of the case.
3. That the person to be appointed guardian is not disqualified to act as such and is entitled thereto; or, in case no person who is entitled thereto applies therefor, that the person appointed is a proper person to act as such guardian.
4. That the rights of persons or property are to be protected. All issues herein shall be determined by the court on hearing, unless a jury is demanded, but it shall not be a prerequisite to such appointment that there has been a jury trial, verdict and judgment that the person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, nor is such person required to be present at the trial.

The remedy herein provided is cumulative of that provided in Chapter 12 hereof, for the guardianship of persons of unsound mind and habitual drunkards, and may be resorted to without invoking the latter remedy. [Acts 1921, p. 15; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 257, ch. 179, § 3.]

Art. 4124. [4082] [2589] [2508] Single appointment.—Only one guardian can be appointed of the person or estate; but one person may be appointed guardian of the person, and another of the estate, whenever the court shall be satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the ward to do so. Nothing in this article shall be held to prohibit the joint appointment of husband and wife. [Acts 1870, p. 141; G. L. vol. 6, p. 315.]

Art. 4125. [4083] [2590] [2509] Order of appointment.—The order of the court appointing a guardian shall be entered upon the minutes of the court and shall specify:

1. The name of the person appointed.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

2. The name of the ward.
3. Whether the guardian of the person, of the estate, or of both the person and estate of such ward.
4. The amount of the bond required of such guardian.
5. If it be the guardianship of the estate, the order shall also appoint three or more disinterested persons to appraise such estate, and return such appraisal to the court.
6. It shall direct the clerk to issue letters of guardianship to the person appointed when such person has qualified according to law.

Art. 4126. [4084] [4079] Minor may select.—A minor upon attaining the age of fourteen years, may select another guardian either of his person or estate, or both, if such minor has a guardian appointed by the court, or if, having a guardian appointed by will or written declaration of the parent of such minor, such last named guardian dies, resigns or is removed from guardianship; and the court shall, if satisfied that the person selected is suitable and competent, make such appointment and revoke the letters of guardianship to the former guardian. Such selection may be made in open court, in person, or by attorney, by making application therefor as provided by law.

Art. 4127. [4085] [2592] [2511] Failure to qualify.—If a person appointed guardian fails to qualify as such according to law, or dies, resigns, or is removed, the court shall appoint another guardian in his stead.

Art. 4128. [4086-87] Term of appointment.—The guardian of a minor continues in office, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the minor dies or becomes twenty-one years of age, or being a female, marries. The guardian of a person of unsound mind or of an habitual drunkard shall continue as such, unless sooner discharged according to law, until the ward shall die or be restored to sound mind or to sober habits. [Acts 1876, p. 178; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1014.]

Art. 4129. [4088] [2595] Receiver.—When from any cause, the estate of a minor, person of unsound mind or of an habitual drunkard is without a guardian, and such estate is likely to injure or waste, the county judge shall, with or without application, in term time or in vacation, appoint some suitable person to take charge of such estate, as receiver, until a guardian can be regularly appointed, and shall make such other orders as may be necessary for the preservation of such estate. Such appointment and orders shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and shall specify the duties and powers of such receiver. The provisions of the law governing in the case of a temporary administration upon the estate of a decedent shall govern in the case of a receiver appointed under this article, so far as the same are applicable. [Acts 1885, p. 81; G. L. vol. 9, p. 702.]

Art. 4130. [4088] [2595] Receivership; expenditures.—If, during the pendency of such receivership, the wants of such minor, person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard should require the use of the means of such estate for their subsistence, clothing or education, the county judge, with or without application, in term time or in vacation, shall appropriate, by an order entered upon the minutes, out of the effects of such estate, an amount sufficient for such purpose; said amount to be paid by such receiver upon such claims for such subsistence, clothing or education as may have been presented to such county judge and approved, and by him ordered to be paid. [Id.]

Art. 4131. [4088] [2595] Receivership; loans.—If, at any time, the receiver shall have on hand any money belonging to such estate beyond what may be necessary for the present necessities and the current expenses of the beneficiary of said estate, he may, under the direction of the county judge, loan said money for such length of time as such judge may direct, for the highest legal rate of interest that can be obtained therefor, in the manner and upon the security and terms provided in Chapter 7 of this title. [Id.]

Art. 4132. [4089] [2596] [2515] Non-resident minor.—When a non-resident minor or person of unsound mind owns property in this State, guardianship of such estate may be granted when it is made to appear that a necessity exists therefor, in like manner as if such minor or person of unsound mind resided in this State. The court making such grant of guardianship shall take all such action and make all such orders in reference to the estate of the ward, for the maintenance and support or education and care of such ward, out of the proceeds of such ward's estate, in like manner as if the ward had resided in this State and guardianship of the person of said ward had been granted by said court, and the ward had been sent abroad by order of court for education or treatment. [Acts 1876, p. 176; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1012.]

Art. 4133. [4090] [2597] [2516] Letters of guardianship.—When a person appointed guardian has qualified as such, by taking the oath and giving the bond required by law, the clerk shall issue to him a certificate under seal, stating the fact of such appointment and qualification and date thereof; which certificate shall constitute letters of guardianship, and be evidence of the authority of such person to act as guardian.

2. TEMPORARY APPOINTMENTS

Art. 4134. [4091-94] Temporary guardian.—Whenever it appears to the county judge that the interest of any minor and his or her estate, or either, requires immediate appointment of a guardian, he shall, either in term time or in vacation, without citation and with or without written application therefor, appoint some suitable person temporary guardian of the person of such minor and his or her estate or either. Such appointment shall not take effect until such appointee has taken the oath and given the bond required by law. The appointment so made may be made permanent. [Acts 1905, p. 18.]

Art. 4135. [4092] Order.—The order of the court in making such appointment shall state that unless the same is contested at the next regular term of the court, after notice, the same shall be made permanent. [Id.]

Art. 4136. [4093] Contest.—If such appointment is contested, the court shall hear and determine the same as the law and the facts require. During the pendency of such contest, the person so appointed as temporary guardian shall continue to act as such. If such appointment is set aside, the court shall require the person so appointed to make out and file in court a complete sworn exhibit of the condition of such minor's estate, and what disposition he has made of the same. [Id.]

Art. 4137. [4095] Notice.—Immediately after the appointment of a temporary guardian, the clerk of the court shall issue notice which shall state the name of the person appointed and when so appointed, and the name of the minor, or minor's estate, or both, which notice shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of such minor to appear at the term of court named in such notice, and contest such appointment if they so desire; and, that, if such appointment is not contested at the term of court so named in the citation, then the same shall become permanent. [Id.]

Art. 4138. [4096] Provisions applicable.—All the provisions of this title relating to the guardianship of the persons and estates of minors shall apply to temporary guardianship of the persons and estates of minors, in so far as the same are applicable. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

OATH AND BOND OF GUARDIANS

Art.

4139. Oath of guardian.
 4140. Guardian of person: bond.
 4141. Guardian of estate, bond.
 4142. Sureties.
 4143. Premium.
 4144. Of person and estate.
 4145. Appointee under will.
 4146. Married woman, bond.
 4147. Parents under age.
 4148. New bond.
 4149. Temporary disqualification.
 4150. Release of surety.
 4151. Oath and bond.
 4152. Sureties on old bond.

Article 4139. [4097] [2598] [2517] Oath of guardian.—The guardian shall take an oath to discharge faithfully the duties of guardian of the person (or of the estate, or of the person and estate, as the case may be) of the ward, according to law; which oath shall be indorsed on the bond of such guardian. [Acts 1876, p. 177; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1013.]

Art. 4140. [4098] [2599] [2518] Guardian of person: bond.—The bond of a guardian of the person of a ward shall be in an amount to be fixed by the court granting such guardianship, not to exceed one thousand dollars, and shall be made payable to and to be approved by the county judge of the county where such guardianship is pending, conditioned that such guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the person of such ward. [Id.]

Art. 4141. [4099] [2600] [2519] Guardian of estate, bond.—The bond of the guardian of the estate of a ward shall be in amount equal to double the estimated value of the personal property belonging to such estate, plus a reasonable amount to be fixed at the discretion of the county judge, to cover rents, revenues and income derived from the renting or use of real estate belonging to such estate. Such bond shall be payable to and approved by the county judge of the county where such guardianship is pending, and conditioned that such guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the estate of such ward according to law. It shall be the duty of such county judge to annually examine into the condition of the estate of the ward and the solvency of such guardian's bond, and to require such guardian at any time it may appear that such bond is not ample security to protect such estate and the interests of his ward, to execute another bond in accordance with law. In such case, he shall notify the guardian as in other cases; and should damage or loss result to the estate of any ward through the negligence of such county judge to perform such duties, such county judge shall be liable on his official bond, payable to such ward, in an amount equal to the loss due to such negligence. [Acts 1895, p. 223; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 10, p. 953.]

Art. 4142. [4100] [2601] [2520] Sureties.—Any bond required by the provisions of this chapter to be given by a guardian shall be subscribed by such guardian, and at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the county judge of the county in which the guardianship is pending; or such bond shall be subscribed by such guardian and by one or more corporations authorized to execute surety bonds. [Acts 1897, p. 52; Acts 1899, p. 229.]

Art. 4143. [4101] [2601] [2520] Premium.—If such bond is made by a corporation authorized to issue and execute guaranty or indemnity bonds, the premium on such bond shall be paid by the guardian, and shall not be paid out of the estate of his ward. [Acts 1897, p. 52; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1106.]

Art. 4144. [4103] [2602] [2521] Of person and estate.—Where one person is appointed guardian of both the person and estate of a ward, only one bond shall be given by such guardian. [Acts 1876, p. 177; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1013.]

Art. 4145. [4104] [2603] [2522] Appointee under will.—When the surviving parent of a minor has provided by will, regularly probated, that a guardian appointed by such will shall not be required to give bond for the management of the estate devised by such will, the direction shall be observed, unless it be made to appear at any time that such guardian is mismanaging the property, or is about to betray his trust; in which case, upon proper proceedings had for that purpose, such guardian may be required by the court to give bond as in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 4146. [4105] [2604] [2523] Married woman, bond.—Where a married woman is appointed guardian, she may, either jointly with her husband or without him, if he is absent from the State or refuses to join in the bond with her, execute a bond as guardian, and acknowledge the same before a proper officer. Such bond, when signed by her, alone, shall bind her estate in the same manner as if she were unmarried. [Id.]

Art. 4147. [4106] [2605] [2524] Parents under age.—A bond executed by the father or mother of a minor, as guardian of such minor, when such father or mother is under twenty-one years of age, shall be as valid as if he or she were of full age. [Id.]

Art. 4148. [4107] [2606] [2525] New bond.—The county judge shall have power to require new bonds of guardians in any case where he has the power to require new bonds of executors or administrators, and under the same rules and regulations, and with like effect.

Art. 4149. [4108] [2607] [2526] Temporary disqualification.—When a guardian has been required to give a new bond, he shall thereafter refrain from acting as such guardian except to preserve the property in his charge, until he gives such new bond and the same has been approved, as such guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4150. [4109] [2608] [2527] Release of surety.—A surety upon the bond of a guardian may be relieved from his bond in the same manner and with like effect, as is provided in the case of a surety upon the bond of an executor or administrator. [Id.]

Art. 4151. [4110-11] Oath and bond.—The oath and bond of a guardian shall be presented to the county judge within twenty days after the order appointing such guardian, either in term time or vacation, for the action of such judge. If approved, the same shall be immediately filed with the county clerk and recorded in the minutes of said court and safely preserved.

Art. 4152. [4112] [2611] [2530] Sureties on old bond.—When a new bond has been given and approved, the sureties upon the former bond of such guardian shall not be liable for the acts of such guardian occurring [occurring] after the approval of such new bond. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

INVENTORY, APPRAISEMENT AND LIST OF CLAIMS

Art.

4153. Inventory.
 4154. List of claims.
 4155. Affidavit.
 4156. Property held in common.
 4157. Additional inventory.
 4158. Appraisers appointed.
 4159. May order supplement.
 4160. Corrections.
 4161. Inventories.

Article 4153. [4113] [2612] [2531] Inventory.—It shall be the duty of every guardian of an estate, as soon as he shall have collected the estate, and within thirty days after he has taken the oath and given bond, with the assistance of any two of the appraisers appointed by the court, to make and return to the court a correct inventory of all the property, real and personal belonging to said estate, which has come to his knowledge. Each article of such property shall be appraised by such appraisers, and the appraised value thereof stated opposite the same in the inventory; and the same shall be subscribed and duly sworn to by such appraisers. [Acts 1876, p. 179; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1015.]

Art. 4154. [4114] [2613] [2532] List of claims.—The guardian shall also make out and attach to such inventory and appraisal a list of all claims belonging to the estate. Such list shall state:

1. The name of each person indebted to the estate.
2. The nature of such indebtedness, whether by note, bill, bond or other written obligation, or by account or verbal contract.

3. The date of such indebtedness, and the date when the same was due or will be due.

4. The amount of each claim and the rate of interest thereon, and the time for which the same bears interest. [Id.]

Art. 4155. [4115] [2614] [2533] Affidavit.—The guardian shall annex to the inventory, appraisal, and list of claims, an affidavit in substance as follows: "I, A. B., guardian of the estate of C. D., do solemnly swear that the inventory and list of claims annexed hereto are a true and perfect inventory and list of all the property, real and personal, belonging to said estate that has come to my knowledge;" which affidavit shall be subscribed and sworn to by such guardian.

Art. 4156. [4116] [2615] [2534] Property held in common.—If any property be held or owned by the ward in common with another, it shall be distinctly stated in the inventory or list of claims, the items thereof that are so held or owned, the names and the relationship, if any, of the other part owner or owners, and the interest or share of such ward in such property. [Id.]

Art. 4157. [4117] [2616] [2535] Additional inventory.—Whenever any guardian of an estate shall discover any property belonging to such estate which has not been inventoried and appraised, or any claim that has not been embraced in the list of claims, he shall forthwith make out and return to the court an additional inventory or list of claims, embracing such property or claims. [Acts 1848, p. 285; P. D. 3899; G. L. vol. 3, p. 285.]

Art. 4158. [4118] [2617] [2536] Appraisers appointed.—Where an additional inventory of property has been returned by the guardian, the court shall appoint appraisers to appraise such property as in the case of original inventories, or such appraisers may be appointed before the return of such additional inventory either in term time or in vacation, by an order of the court. [Id.]

Art. 4159. [4119] [2618] [2537] May order supplement.—Whenever it shall be shown to the county judge that any guardian has not returned to the court an inventory and appraisal and list of claims of all the property belonging to his ward, such judge shall cause such guardian to be cited, either in term time or in vacation, and require him to return to the court an additional inventory and appraisal, or an additional list of claims, as the case may be, in the same manner as in the case of original inventories and appraisements and lists of claims are required to be returned, and within the same time; but such inventory and appraisal and list of claims shall only embrace such property as has been omitted in previous inventories and appraisements and lists of claims. [Id.]

Art. 4160. [4120] [2619] [2538] Corrections.—Erroneous inventories, appraisements and lists of claims may be corrected, and new appraisements may be ordered, under the same rules and regulations as are provided in the case of estates of decedents.

Art. 4161. [4121] [2620] [2539] Inventories.—All inventories, appraisements, or lists of claims, when approved by the court, or the record thereof, or copies of the same or the record thereof, duly certified under the seal of the county clerk, may be given in evidence in any suit by or against such guardian, but shall not be conclusive against the ward, if it be shown that there is other property or claims of such ward not included therein, or that the estate or claims were actually worth more than the value at which they are set down in such inventories, appraisements or lists. [Id. P. D. 3900.]

CHAPTER SIX

POWERS AND DUTIES

Art.

- 4162. Of the person, powers.
- 4163. Of the person, duties.
- 4164. Of the estate, powers.
- 4165. Of the estate, duties.
- 4166. Of person and estate.
- 4167. Records.
- 4168. To collect claims, etc.
- 4169. Discharge of debt.
- 4170. Expenses of ward.
- 4171. Education of ward, etc.
- 4172. Property held in common.
- 4173. Ward's title.

Article 4162. [4122] [2621] [2540] Of the person, powers.—The guardian of the person is entitled to the charge and control of the person of the ward, and the care of his support and education, and his duties shall correspond with his rights. [Acts 1876, p. 181; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1017.]

Art. 4163. [4123] [2622] [2541] Of the person, duties.—It is the duty of the guardian of the person of a minor to take care of the person of such minor, to treat him humanely, and to see that he is properly educated, and, if necessary for his support, that he learn a trade or adopt some useful profession. [Id.]

Art. 4164. [4124] [2623] [2542] Of the estate, powers.—The guardian of the estate is entitled to the possession and management of all property belonging to the ward, to collect all debts, rents or claims due such ward, to enforce all obligations in his favor, to bring and defend suits by or against him; but in the management of the estate, the guardian shall be governed by the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 4165. [4126] [2625] [2544] Of the estate, duties.—It is the duty of the guardian of the estate to take care of and manage such estate as a prudent man would manage his own property. He shall account for all rents, profits and revenues as the estate would have produced by such prudent management. [Id.]

Art. 4166. [4125] [2624] [2543] Of person and estate.—The guardian of both person and estate has all the rights and powers and shall perform all the duties of the guardian of the person and of the guardian of the estate. [Id.]

Art. 4167. [4127] [2626] [2545] Records.—The guardian of the estate, immediately after receiving letters, shall collect, and take into possession, the personal property, books, title papers, and other papers belonging to the estate. [Id.]

Art. 4168. [4128] [2627] [2546] To collect claims, etc.—The guardian of the estate shall use due diligence to collect all claims or debts owing to the ward, and to recover possession of all property to which the ward has a title or claim; provided, there is a reasonable prospect of collecting such claims or debts, or of receiving such property; and if he neglects to use diligence, he and his sureties shall be liable for all damages occasioned by such neglect. [Id.]

Art. 4169. [4129] [2628] [2547] Discharge of debt.—The guardian of the estate may receive property in payment of debts due to the ward, if he believes the interests of his ward will be advanced thereby, being responsible for the prudent exercise of the discretion hereby conferred. [Id.]

Art. 4170. [4130] [2629] [2548] Expenses of ward.—When different persons have the guardianship of the person and estate of a ward, the guardian of the estate shall pay to the guardian of the person, semi-annually, a sum fixed by the court, for the education and maintenance of the ward, and, on failure, shall be compelled to do so by order of the court, after being duly cited. [Id.]

Art. 4171. [4131] [2630] [2549] Education of ward, etc.—The court may direct the guardian of the person to expend, for the education and maintenance of his ward, a sum in excess of the income of the ward's estate; otherwise the guardian shall not be allowed, for the education and maintenance of the ward, more than the clear income of the estate. [Id.]

Art. 4172. [4132] [2631] [2550] Property held in common.—If the wards hold or own any property in common, or as part owner with another, the guardian shall be entitled to possession thereof in common with the other part owner or owners in the same manner as other owners in common or joint owners would be entitled. [Id.]

Art. 4173. [4133] [2632] [2551] Ward's title.—The guardian, or his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns shall not dispute the right of the ward to any property that came into the possession of such guardian, as guardian, except such property as shall have been recovered from the guardian, or there be a personal action pending on account of it. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

FISCAL MANAGEMENT

Art.

- 4174. Continuation of business.
- 4175. Rentals.
- 4176. Without order.
- 4177. Under order.
- 4178. Unimproved land.
- 4179. Guardian may be cited.
- 4180. Investments.
- 4181. Security for loan.
- 4182. Investing in real estate.
- 4183. Action of court.
- 4184. Order of court.
- 4185. Approval of contract.
- 4186. Title.
- 4187. Surplus.
- 4188. Duty of county judge.
- 4189. Liability for surplus.
- 4190. Liability for loans.
- 4191. Report.
- 4192. Mineral lease.

Article 4174. [4134] [2633] [2552] Continuation of business.—If there be a farm, plantation, manufactory or business belonging to the estate, and if the same be not required to be at once sold for the payment of debts, the guardian of such estate, upon order of the court, shall carry on such farm, plantation, manufactory or business, or rent the same, as shall appear for the best interest of the estate. In deciding, the court shall take into consideration the condition of the estate, and the necessity that may exist for the future sale of such property for the payment of debts, or the education and maintenance of the ward, and shall not extend the time of renting such property beyond what may be consistent with the interests of the estate and of the ward. [Acts 1876, p. 182, G. L. vol. 8, p. 1018.]

Art. 4175. [4135] [2634] [2553] Rentals.—When an order of the court is made directing property to be rented, it shall be the duty of the guardian to obey such order and rent the property for the best price that can be obtained therefor, taking good security for the payment of the rent, and that the tenant will not commit nor permit any other person to commit waste on the rented premises. [Id.]

Art. 4176. [4136] [2635] [2554] Without order.—The guardian may rent the improved property of the ward other than such property named in the second preceding article without an order of the court therefor, and either at public or private renting. When he rents without an order of the court, he shall be required to account to the estate of the ward for the reasonable value of the rent of such property for the time the same was so rented.

Art. 4177. [4137] [2636] [2555] Under order.—The court may order the farm, plantation, manufactory, business, or any improved property of the estate to be rented, either at public or private renting, for any length of time, not exceeding one year, and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem for the best interests of the ward.

Art. 4178. [4138] [2637] [2556] Unimproved land.—If the ward own wild or unimproved real property, the guardian may let out the same on improvement leases, under order of the court, for such length of time, and upon such terms and conditions as the court may direct in its order. [Id.]

Art. 4179. [4139] [2638] [2557] Guardian may be cited.—Any person upon complaint in writing filed with the county clerk may cause the guardian of the estate of a ward to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why he should not be required to rent out the farm, plantation or other improved property of the ward, or why he should not be required to lease for improvement the wild or unimproved lands of the ward. Upon the hearing of such complaint, the court shall make such order as he may deem to be for the best interest of the estate.

Art. 4180. [4140] [2639] [2558] Investments.—If, at any time, the guardian of the estate shall have on hand money belonging to the ward beyond what may be necessary for the education and maintenance of such ward, he shall invest such money in bonds of the United States, of the State of Texas, of any county or of any district or subdivision in Texas, or of any incorporated city or town in Texas, or loan the same for the highest rate of interest that can be obtained therefor. [Acts 1913, p. 321.]

Art. 4181. [4141-42] [2640] [2559] Security for loan.—The guardian shall take the note of the borrower for money loaned, secured by mortgage with power of sale on unincumbered real estate situated in this State, worth at least twice the amount of such note, or on collateral notes secured by vendor's lien notes, as collateral, or may purchase vendor's lien notes; provided that at least one-half has been paid in cash or its equivalent, on the land for which said notes were given. When the guardian loans or invests the money of his ward he shall not pay over or transfer any money in consummation of such investment, loan or purchase until he shall have submitted all bonds, notes, mortgages, documents, abstracts and other papers pertaining to such investment, loan or purchase to some reputable attorney for examination, and shall have received a written opinion from such attorney, to the effect that all papers pertaining to such investment, loan or purchase are regular and that the title to such bonds, notes or real estate is good. The attorney making such examination shall be paid a reasonable fee, not to exceed one per cent of the amount so invested or loaned, which shall be paid by the guardian out of the funds of the ward. [Acts 1876, p. 182; Acts 1897, p. 196; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1018; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1250.]

Art. 4182. [4143] [2641] [2560] Investing in real estate.—When the guardian may think it best for his ward to have a surplus of money on hand invested in real estate, he shall file a written application in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order of such court authorizing him to make such investment sought to be made, and the reasons why the guardian is of the opinion that it would be for the benefit of the ward to have the same made. [Acts 1876, p. 182; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1018.]

Art. 4183. [4144] [2642] [2561] Action of court.—When such application is filed, the attention of the judge of the court shall be called thereto, and he shall make such investigation as may be necessary to obtain all the facts concerning the investment; but shall not render an opinion or make any order on the application until after the expiration of five days from date of filing. [Acts 1876, p. 182; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1018.]

Art. 4184. [4145] [2643] [2562] Order of court.—Upon the hearing of such application, either in term time or vacation, if the court is satisfied that such investment will be beneficial to the ward, an order authorizing the same shall be made. Such order shall specify the investment to be made, and shall contain such other directions as the court may think advisable. [Id.]

Art. 4185. [4146] [2644] [2563] Approval of contract.—When any contract has been made for the investment of money in real estate under order of the court, such contract shall be reported in writing to the court by the guardian, and the court shall inquire fully into the same, and if satisfied that such investment will benefit the estate of the ward and that the title to such real estate is valid and unincumbered, the court may approve the contract and authorize the guardian to pay over the money in performance of the same; but no money shall be paid out by the guardian on any such contract until such contract has been approved by the court by an order to that effect. Such order may be made at a regular term or in vacation. [Id.]

Art. 4186. [4147] [2645] [2564] Title.—When the money of the ward has been invested in real estate, the title to such real estate shall be made to such ward; and such real estate shall be inventoried, appraised, managed and accounted for by the guardian as other real estate of the ward.

Art. 4187. [4148] [2646] [2565] Surplus.—When there is any surplus money of the estate in the hands of the guardian, any person may, by written complaint filed in the court in which such guardianship is pending, cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of such court to show cause why such surplus money should not be invested or loaned at interest, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon the hearing of such complaint, the court shall enter such order as the law and the facts may require.

Art. 4188. [4149] [2647] [2566] Duty of county judge.—When there is surplus money belonging to the ward in the hands of the guardian, the county judge shall cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why said money should not be invested or be loaned at interest, under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 4189. [4150] [2648] [2567] Liability for surplus.—If the guardian neglects to invest or loan surplus money on hand at interest when he can do so by the use of reasonable diligence, he shall be liable for the principal and also for the highest legal rate of interest upon such principal for the time he so neglects to invest or loan the same. [Id.]

Art. 4190. [4151] [2649] [2568] Liability for loans.—The guardian shall not be personally responsible for money loaned under the direction of the court, on security approved by the court, when the borrower is unable to pay the same, or because of failure of the security, unless such guardian has been guilty of fraud or negligence in respect to such loan or the collection of the same; in which case, he and the sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss his ward may have sustained by reason of such fraud or negligence. [Id.]

Art. 4191. [4152] [2650] [2569] Report.—The guardian shall report to the court in writing, verified by his affidavit, the renting or leasing of property or the investment or loaning of money belonging to the estate, within thirty days after such transaction, stating fully the facts thereof.

Art. 4192. Mineral lease.—Guardians of the estate of minors, and other persons, appointed under the laws of this State, may make oil and gas and other mineral leases upon the real estate belonging to the estates of their wards under the following rules:

1. The guardian shall file his sworn application with the County Clerk of the County where such Guardianship is pending for authority to make such oil and gas or mineral lease, and the County Judge either in term time or vacation shall hear such application and shall require proof as to the necessity or advisability of such lease, and if he shall approve the same he shall enter an order authorizing the guardian to make such oil and gas or mineral lease, which order shall set out the consideration for which said land may be leased for oil and gas or mineral purposes, shall give the name of the lessee and said order shall contain a copy of said oil and gas or mineral lease authorized to be made.

2. Previous notice thereof shall be given by the guardian for one week prior to the time the County Judge shall hear such application by publishing same in some newspaper of general circulation in the County where such guardianship is pending for one issue of said paper. Said notice shall say when and where such application shall be heard. If no such paper should be published in the County where such notice is required to be given, then said notice may be given by posting such notice at the Court House door of such County for seven days next preceding the date of such hearing. And said publishing or posting as herein provided may be shown by the return of the Sheriff or Constable or by the affidavit of any credible person made on a written copy of the notice so published or posted showing the fact of such publishing or posting.

3. No notice thereof shall be given by the County Clerk but such notice must be given by the Guardian as herein provided and when such an application is filed the Clerk shall immediately call the attention of the Judge of the Court in which such Guardianship is pending, to the filing of such application and the Judge shall designate a date to hear such application, and such date shall not be within seven days after the filing of said application and such hearing may be continued from time to time until he is satisfied concerning the application.

4. After hearing of said application and the granting of the same by the Court said guardian shall be fully authorized to make the oil and gas or mineral lease upon the real estate of the ward, in accordance with the judgment of the Court thereon, but such oil and gas or mineral lease shall not be valid until said guardian files a good and sufficient bond in double the amount of the cash bonus that may be paid for said oil and gas or mineral lease, or in the event no cash bonus is paid, then such sum as may be fixed by the County Judge, which bond shall be approved by the County Judge, filed with the County Clerk and recorded in the minutes of such Court. When such order has been made and such bond has been executed and approved, the guardian shall be fully authorized to execute and deliver such lease, and it shall not be necessary for the Court to make any order confirming said lease.

5. No such lease shall extend beyond the time that the ward shall become twenty-one years of age, unless at that time the lessee shall have discovered such minerals as are specified in the lease, or any of such minerals, upon the premises described in such lease, in which event the same shall remain in full force so long as such minerals or any of them shall be produced in paying quantities. The marriage of the female ward shall not terminate any lease made hereunder until such ward actually reaches the age of twenty-one years. [Acts 1913, p. 261; Acts 1915, p. 85; Acts 1919, p. 185; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 237, ch. 164, § 1.]

Article 4193. [4153] [2651] [2570] Perishable property.—The guardian of the estate, after appraisal, shall promptly apply for an order of the court to sell at public or private sale, for cash or on credit not exceeding six months, all the personal property belonging to the ward that is liable to perish, waste or deteriorate in value, or that will be an expense or disadvantage to the estate to keep. [Acts 1876, p. 181; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1017.]

Art. 4194. [4154] [2652] [2571] Wild stock.—If he shall represent to the court on oath that there is stock belonging to the estate which he is unable to collect or command, the court may order that the same be sold at public auction, on such credit as the court may deem reasonable, not exceeding twelve months, taking notes bearing interest at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the date of sale, with good and sufficient security for the purchase money. Such sale shall be advertised, made, returned and acted upon by the court the same as sales of real estate. [Id.]

Art. 4195. [4155] Guardian may sell real estate.—When the income of the ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay the debts against the estate, the guardian, or any person holding a valid claim against the estate, may, by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, ask for an order for a sufficient amount of real estate to be sold to make up the deficiency, or when the property of the ward consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate and the guardian believes it to be the best interest of the estate of the ward to sell such real estate, he may, by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, ask for an order for such real estate to be sold; or when the real estate of such minor is encumbered by a valid lien to secure a debt which is due or is about to become due, or when the taxes are due on the property of said ward, or when the holder of such debt has applied for or is threatening to apply for an order of sale of the real estate of the minor and the guardian has not in his hands sufficient funds to pay such debts, such guardian may by written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, apply in writing for an order to obtain an extension of such debt and to secure the same by a mortgage or deed of trust on the real estate of such minor; or if the real estate of such minor or any part thereof is not revenue producing, or the revenue therefrom could be increased by making improvements or additional improvements or repairs thereon, such guardian may make a written application to such court to make such improvements or repairs on such real estate as he may deem beneficial to the ward, and to secure the payment for the same by mortgage, deed of trust, mechanics contracts and materialmen lien.

Art. 4195a. Sale of unproductive real estate.—Whenever the estate of a minor consists in part of real estate, and any part or parcel of such real estate produces no revenue or does not produce sufficient revenue to make a fair return upon the value of such part or parcel of said real estate, and the Guardian of said estate does not deem it advisable or advantageous to said estate to improve such part or parcel of said estate, and said Guardian believes the sale of such part or parcel of said real estate and the investment of the money derived therefrom would be to the best interests of said estate under all the circumstances, said guardian may make a written application to the court in which such guardianship is pending, stating such facts and asking for an order to sell such part or parcel of said real estate, and the Court on hearing of such application, after notice as provided in Article 4197 may order the sale of said real estate, in whole or in part. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 43, ch. 31, § 2.]

Art. 4196. [4156] Application for sale.—The guardian shall apply for such order as is provided in the preceding article, whenever it appears that a necessity exists therefor, and set forth fully in his application with an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate. [Acts 1925, p. 338.] [39th Leg., ch. 134, § 1.]

Art. 4197. [4157] [2655] [2574] Guardian cited.—When the application for the sale of real estate is made by any other person than the guardian of the estate, the guardian of the estate shall be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why the order should not be made and also to present to the court an exhibit, under oath, showing fully the condition of the estate.

Art. 4198. [4158] [2656] [2575] Hearing on application.—Whenever an application for the sale of real estate is filed, the clerk shall immediately call the attention of the judge of the court in which such guardianship is pending to the filing of the application, and the judge shall designate a day to hear such application, which may be heard in term time or vacation, provided such application shall remain on file at least five days before any orders are made, and the judge may continue such hearing from time to time until he is satisfied concerning the application. [Acts 1876, p. 181; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1017.]

Art. 4199. [4160] [2658] [2577] Advantage of estate.—When a sale of real estate is ordered, it shall be of the property which the court may deem most advantageous to the estate to be sold. [Id.]

Art. 4200. [4161] [2659] [2578] Terms of sale.—A sale of real estate may be for cash, or for part cash and part credit, at public auction or private sale, as may appear to the court to be the best interest of the estate. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 9; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 10, p. 373.]

Art. 4201. [4162] [2660] [2579] Order of sale.—An order for the sale of real estate shall state:

1. The property to be sold, giving such description of it as will identify it.
2. Whether it is to be sold at public auction or at private sale, and if at public auction, the time and place of such sale.
3. The necessity and purpose of such sale.
4. It shall require the guardian to file a good and sufficient bond, subject to the approval of the court, in an amount equal to twice the amount for which such real estate is sold.
5. It shall require the sale to be made and the report thereof to be returned to the court in accordance with law. [Acts 1876, p. 180; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1016.]

Art. 4201a. Validating sales.—1. Wherever it shall appear that lands of a ward have been conveyed by a guardian of such ward, under an order of the county court, entered in the minutes of the county court, authorizing the making of such conveyance, and it shall appear that the order of sale in such proceeding failed to require the guardian to file the bond as provided by Subdivision No. 4, of Article 4201, or that the bond was not filed and approved by the court as required by Article 4191 [4216] either the guardian of the ward whose lands were conveyed, or the owner or anyone having an interest in the land, may, while the guardianship is still pending, apply to the county court of the county where the proceeding for the sale of the land was had, at a regular term of said court for an order confirming the sale and validating the title attempted to be conveyed by the guardian [guardian] in the earlier proceeding. Such application shall state the name, age and residence of the ward and name and residence of the guardian, description of the property, date when sold, and reference to the proceedings formerly had.

2. Upon the filing of such application the clerk shall immediately issue citation which shall state that the application has been filed, by whom, a description of the property, and the purpose of the application, and shall name the ward, and guardian, if the applicant be other than the guardian, and shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of the ward, or having any interest in the property, to appear at a term of the court named in the citation, and contest such application if they see proper. Such citation shall be served as required for service of other citations in guardianship proceedings.

3. At a regular term of the county court, after citation has been properly served, the court shall inquire into the facts and hear evidence in support of the application, and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the sale was made for the reasonable value of the property at the time of sale, and that the guardian received the proceeds of the sale, the court shall require the guardian to make and file a satisfactory bond to be approved by the court in an amount equal to twice the amount for which the property was sold, and upon the making, filing and approval of such bond the court shall enter an order confirming such sale, and upon the entry of such order in the minutes of such court such sale shall be, and hereby is, validated.

4. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as attaching any liability to the sureties on the general bonds of guardians heretofore made that did not exist prior to the enactment of this Act.

From Acts 1925, 39th Leg., c. 119, p. 303, §§ 1-4, unchanged except the substitution of "article 4191" for "article 4177, as amended," which should be article 4216 hereof.

Art. 4202. [4163] [2661] [2580] Place of sale.—All private sales of real estate shall be made in the county where the guardianship is pending; all public sales of real estate shall be made in the county where the real estate is situated. [Acts 1876, p. 180; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1016.]

Art. 4203. Notice of sale of real estate.—The time and place of making a public sale of real estate by a guardian under an order of the court shall be advertised by the officer by having notice thereof published in the English language once a week for three consecutive weeks preceding such sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is situated. The first of said publications shall appear not less than twenty days immediately preceding the day of sale; said notice shall contain a statement of the authority by virtue of which the sale is to be made, and the time and place of sale. It shall also contain a brief description of the property to be sold, the number of acres of original survey, locality in the county and the name by which the land is most generally known. It shall not contain the field notes. If no newspaper is published in the county, or if published in the county refuses to publish the notice, the officer shall post notices in writing in three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, for at least twenty days successively next before the day of the sale. The publisher's fee shall be fifty cents per square for the first insertion and thirty cents per square for the subsequent insertions. Ten lines shall constitute a square. In no case shall the fee exceed five dollars.

Art. 4204. [4164] [2662] [2581] Credit sale.—When real estate is sold partly on credit, the cash payment shall not be less than one-third of the purchase price, and the purchaser shall execute notes for the deferred payments maturing in equal annual amounts, the last note to mature not later than five years from date of deed, to bear interest from date at a rate not less than six per cent, payable annually. Default of the payment of principal or interest or any part thereof when due, shall mature the whole debt; all notes for the deferred payments to be secured by vendor's lien, retained in deed and notes upon the property sold, and further secured by deed of trust upon the property sold with usual provisions for foreclosure and sale upon failure to make payments provided in deed and notes. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 9; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 10, p. 373.]

Art. 4205. [4165] [2663] [2582] Purchase by guardian.—The guardian shall not become the purchaser either directly or indirectly of any property of the estate sold by him. If any guardian shall, directly or indirectly, become the purchaser of any property of his ward, at a sale made by such guardian, upon written complaint of any person, and after service of citation upon such guardian, and upon proof, such sale shall be held void and by the court set aside by order to that effect. The costs of such sale, and of suit, shall be adjudged against such guardian individually.

Art. 4206. [4166] [2664] [2583] Bidder's liability.—When any person shall bid off property offered for sale by a guardian, and shall fail to comply with the terms of the sale, the facts shall be reported to the court by the guardian; and such person so failing to comply shall be liable to pay such guardian for the use of the estate, ten per cent on the amount of his bid; and, also, the deficiency, if any, in price on the second sale of such property, to be recovered by suit in the county where such sale was made.

Art. 4207. [4167] [2665] [2584] May continue sale.—Public sales may be continued from day to day in case the day set apart for any such sale shall be insufficient to complete the same, by giving public notice verbally of such continuance at the conclusion of the sale each day. The continued sale shall commence and conclude within the hours prescribed for public sales under execution.

Art. 4208. [4169] [2667] [2586] Private sale.—Notice of a private sale of the property of the ward to be made by a guardian is not required to be given.

Art. 4209. [4170] [2668] [2587-2588] Mortgaged property.—Any person holding a claim against the estate of a ward, secured by mortgage or other lien, may obtain an order for the sale of the property upon which he has such mortgage or other lien, or so much thereof as may be required to satisfy the claim, by causing notice to be posted and the guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and show cause why such order should not be made. Such sale shall be made upon such terms as the court may direct, which shall be stated in the order of sale. The notice and other proceedings shall be the same as in other sales by guardians. [Id.]

Art. 4210. [4171] [2669] [2589] Lien, discharge of.—If it appears to the court that the discharge of such mortgage or other lien out of the general assets would be beneficial to the estate, the payment may be ordered to be so made, instead of ordering a sale of the property. [Id.]

Art. 4211. [4172] [2670] Interest on ward's debts.—Should an estate in the hands of a guardian be involved in debt, and it appears to the court that the guardian can discharge existing debts to the advantage of the estate by the hypothecation or mortgage of real estate at a lower rate of interest, or court may, in its discretion, by order, allow the guardian to pay off and discharge existing debts by the execution of a mortgage or deed of trust upon real estate to secure the person furnishing the money for that purpose; acts of guardians under this article shall be reported to the court and approved as in case of sales. No guardian shall renew any indebtedness or evidence thereof except by order of the court made upon application and notice as in case of sales of land. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 10; G. L. vol. 10, p. 374.]

Art. 4212. [4173] [2671] May renew debt.—Should a guardian not have sufficient funds in hand belonging to the estate of his ward to pay and discharge any existing debt, he may renew the evidence of the same in like manner as his ward could if able to act; and such act of the guardian shall have the same force and effect with reference to such novated paper as if done by the ward. No such guardian shall renew the evidences of any debt against the estate of his ward barred by the statutes of limitations; nor shall such guardian renew the evidences of any debt that may have been made or contracted by his ward during his minority or other disability. [Acts 1892, C. S., p. 10; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 10, p. 374.]

2. REPORTS AND APPROVAL OF SALES

Art. 4213. [4174] [2672] [2590] Time of report.—All sales of the property of the ward shall be reported by the guardian to the court in which the guardianship is pending within thirty days after the sale is made.

Art. 4214. [4175] [2673] [2591] Report of sale.—Reports of sale shall be in writing, and subscribed and sworn to by the guardian. They shall show:

1. The time and place of the sale.
2. The property sold, describing it.
3. The name of the purchaser of the property.
4. The amount for which each article or property was sold.
5. The date of the order of sale.
6. Whether such sale was at public auction or a private sale.
7. The terms of the sale.
8. Whether the purchaser has complied with the terms of the sale.

Art. 4215. [4176] [2674] [2592] Filing report.—A report of sale may be made in term time or vacation, and, when returned, shall be filed by the clerk, and the filing thereof noted in the case upon the judge's docket.

Art. 4216. [4177] [2675] [2593] Action of the court.—At any time after the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, the court shall inquire into the manner in which such sale was made, and hear evidence in support of or against such report, and if satisfied that such sale was fairly made and in conformity with law, and that the guardian has filed bond as required herein, which has been duly approved by the court, the court shall cause to be entered a decree confirming such sale, and order the report of sale to be recorded by the clerk, and the proper conveyance of the property sold to be made by the guardian to the purchaser, upon compliance by such purchaser with the terms of sale. [Acts 1876, p. 185; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1021.]

Art. 4217. [4178] [2676] [2594] Order for resale.—If the court is not satisfied that the sale was fairly made, and in conformity with law, order shall be entered, setting the same aside, and ordering the property to be again sold if necessary.

Art. 4218. [4179] [2677] [2595] Conveyances.—After a sale has been confirmed by a decree of the court, and after the purchaser has complied with the terms of the sale, the guardian shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a proper conveyance of the property. In sales of personal property, no conveyance shall be necessary; but the decree of the court confirming the sale shall vest the title of the ward to the property sold in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that the law has been complied with in making such sale. [Id.]

Art. 4219. [4180] [2678] [2596] Conveyance of real estate.—If real estate be sold, the conveyance shall be by deed, and shall refer to the decree of the court confirming the sale and ordering the conveyance to be made, by giving the date and term of the court of such order. Such conveyance shall vest the right and the title of the ward to such real estate in the purchaser, and shall be prima facie evidence that the law has been complied with in making such sale. [Id.]

Art. 4220. [4181] [2679] [2597] Prerequisites of grant.—No conveyance of real estate sold shall be executed and delivered by the guardian to the purchaser until the terms of the sale shall have been complied with by such purchaser. When such sale has been made for part cash and part credit, the guardian shall, before delivering a conveyance of the property to the purchaser, take from such purchaser a note or notes for the deferred payment, bearing interest at the rate of not less than six per cent per annum, payable annually, secured by vendor's lien and a deed of trust, with usual provisions for foreclosure and sale, as additional security, and to file such deed of trust for record in the county where such real estate is situated. [Acts 1913, p. 321.]

Art. 4221. [4182] [2680] [2598] Penalty.—Should the guardian neglect to take the note, security and mortgage, and file such mortgage for record in the proper county before delivering a deed to the purchaser, such guardian and sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss may accrue to the estate of the ward by reason of such neglect.

Art. 4222. [4183] [2681] [2599] Vendor's lien.—All notes executed for the purchase money of real estate, under the provisions of this chapter, shall hold the vendor's lien on the real estate for which such notes were given against all persons having notice, express or implied, in favor of the estate, whether the mortgage be recorded or not; and such lien shall in no case be waived.

Art. 4223. [4184] [2682] [2600] Failure to sell.—If, from any cause, the guardian shall fail to sell any real estate ordered to be sold at the time specified in the order, he shall report under oath the facts to the court or judge, and the judge in term time or vacation may by an order appoint another day for such sale. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINE

ANNUAL ACCOUNTS

Art.

- 4224. Guardian of person.
- 4225. Annual account.
- 4226. Annual account, requisites of.
- 4227. Failure to return.

Article 4224. [4185] [2683] [2601] Guardian of person.—The guardian of the person, where there is a separate guardian of the estate, shall annually return to the court his sworn account showing each item of expenditure since the last account for the education and maintenance of the ward. [Acts 1876, p. 186; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1022.]

Art. 4225. [4186] [2684] [2602] Annual account.—The guardian of an estate shall annually return to the court an account showing:

1. Any property that may have come to his knowledge belonging to his ward which has not been previously inventoried or listed.
2. Any changes in the property of the ward which have not been previously reported.
3. A complete account of receipts and disbursements since the last annual account.
4. All claims that have been allowed by him against the estate since the last annual account that are still unpaid.
5. All claims that have been rejected by him since the last annual account, and whether the same have been sued upon or not.
6. The money and property still on hand, and the condition of such property, and the use that is being made of the same.
7. Such other facts as may be necessary to show the true and exact condition of the estate.

Annexed to such account, shall be a certificate by an executive officer of any bank or trust company in which the money on hand is deposited showing the amount thereof, and the affidavit of the guardian that such account contains a correct and complete statement of the matters to which it relates. Where the ward is a beneficiary of the United States Veterans Bureau or the United States Pension Bureau, a complete certified copy of annual and other accounts of the guardians, certified to by the clerk of the court [court] shall be mailed by said clerk to the United States Veterans Bureau or Pension Bureau, as the case may be, within ten days after filing. [Acts 1925, p. 367.] [39th Leg., ch. 156, § 1.]

Art. 4226. [4187-8-9-90] Annual account, requisites of.—These rules shall govern an annual account:

1. When presented, it shall be filed, and the filing thereof noted upon the judge's docket, and before being acted on shall remain on file five days.

2. At any time after five days from the filing of an annual account, the judge may act thereon, and may continue the hearing thereon until fully advised as to all items of such account.

3. The guardian must produce and file proper vouchers for each item of credit claimed by him in his account, or support the same by satisfactory evidence.

4. If the account be found incorrect, it shall be corrected. When correct, it shall be approved by an order of the court. [Id. Acts 1913, p. 321.]

Art. 4227. [4191-2] Failure to return.—If the guardian fails to return an annual account, he shall be cited to return the same at the next term of the court, and to show cause for such failure. If the guardian fails to return such account after being so cited, or fails to show good cause for such failure, he may be fined by the court not exceeding five hundred dollars, for the use of the county; and he and his sureties shall be liable for any fine imposed and all damages sustained by reason of such failure. [Id.]

CHAPTER TEN

DEATH, RESIGNATION AND REMOVAL

Art.

- 4228. Death.
- 4229. Resignation.
- 4230. Notice.
- 4231. Service.
- 4232. Resignation: proceedings.
- 4233. Removal without notice.
- 4234. Removal after citation.
- 4235. Order of removal.
- 4236. Disqualification.
- 4237. Transfer of property.
- 4238. Subsequent guardian.

Article 4228. [4194] [2691] [2609] Death.—When a guardian dies, the court, on application, shall appoint another. [Acts 1876, p. 179; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1015.]

Art. 4229. [4195] [2692] [2610] Resignation.—A guardian who wishes to resign shall present his written application to that effect to the court accompanied by a full and complete sworn account of the condition of the estate and of his guardianship. [Id.]

Art. 4230. [4196] [2693] [2611] Notice.—Upon the filing of such application and account, the clerk shall issue a notice to all persons interested in such guardianship stating:

1. That such guardian has filed his application for leave to resign the guardianship, accompanied by an account for final settlement thereof.

2. It shall notify all persons interested in the guardianship that they may appear at a certain term of the court and contest the account of the guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4231. [4197] [2694] [2612] Service.—Three copies of such notice shall be duly posted for at least twenty days before the return term thereof, in three public places in the county, one at the courthouse door, and the others at two public places, not in the same city or town. The officer posting such notices shall make due return of such posting. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 22, ch. 16, § 1.]

Art. 4232. [4198] [2695] [2613] Resignation: Proceedings.—Upon the hearing of such application and account, if it appear that such guardian has accounted for all the estate according to law, the court shall enter an order that he deliver the estate remaining in his possession, or the person of his ward, or both, to some person who has or may be appointed and qualified as guardian in his place. Upon compliance with such order and surrender of his letters of guardianship, such guardian shall be permitted to resign his trust and be discharged, and an order to that effect shall be made by the court. [Id.]

Art. 4233. [4199] [2696] [2614] Removal without notice.—Guardians shall be removed in the following cases, without notice, at a regular term of the court:

1. When they fail to return, within thirty days after qualification, an inventory and list of claims of the property of the estate which has come to their knowledge.

2. When they have been required to give a new bond, and fail to do so within the time prescribed.

3. When they have removed from the State. [Id.]

Art. 4234. [4200] [2697] [2615] Removal after citation.—A guardian may be removed by the court of its own motion, or on the motion of any person interested in the ward, or his estate, after being cited to answer:

1. When he fails to return any account which is required to be returned by any provision of this title.

2. When he fails to obey any proper order of the court or judge.

3. When there is good cause to believe that he has misapplied, embezzled or removed, or is about to misapply, embezzle or remove from the State, the property committed to his charge, or any part thereof.

Art. 4235. [4201] [2698] [2616] Order of removal.—The order removing a guardian shall state the cause of such removal, and shall require such guardian to surrender his letters of guardianship, and shall further require such guardian to deliver the person of the ward, or his estate, or both, to some person who has been appointed and has qualified as guardian in his place.

Art. 4236. [4202] [2699] [2617] Disqualification.—A person removed from the guardianship of the person or estate of a ward shall not be reappointed to such guardianship. [Id.]

Art. 4237. [4203] [2700] [2618] Transfer of property.—If a guardian die, resign, or be removed, he or his legal representatives shall account for, pay and deliver to the person legally entitled to receive the same, all the property of every kind belonging to the estate of the ward at such time and in such manner as the court shall order. In case of refusal to comply with such order, the same may be enforced by contempt proceedings. [Id.]

Art. 4238. [4204-5] Subsequent guardian.—When a guardian succeeds another, he shall be required to account for all the estate which came into the hands of his predecessor and shall be entitled to any order or remedy which the court has power to give, in order to enforce the delivery of the estate, and the liability of the sureties of his predecessor for so much as is not delivered. Such subsequent guardian shall be excused from accounting for such of the estate as he has failed to recover after the use of due diligence. A subsequent guardian shall succeed to all the rights, powers, and duties of his predecessor, and shall proceed with the guardianship as if it were a continuation of the same by the former guardian. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE

Art.

- 4239. Payment.
- 4240. Claim of corporation.
- 4241. Affidavit of officer.
- 4242. Indorsement by guardian.
- 4243. Failure to endorse.
- 4244. Rejected claim: suit.
- 4245. Memorandum evidence.
- 4246. Allowance of claim.
- 4247. Examination of claim.
- 4248. May contest claim.
- 4249. Hearing.
- 4250. Court indorsement.
- 4251. Lost claim.
- 4252. Appeal.
- 4253. Guardian's claim.
- 4254. "Exhibited claim."
- 4255. "Established claim."
- 4256. Time of exhibit.
- 4257. Limitation interrupted.
- 4258. Purchase by guardian.

Art.

4259. Filing claim.
 4260. Cost of exhibition, etc.
 4261. Claim docket.
 4262. Payment of claims.
 4263. Order for payment.
 4264. Execution against guardian.
 4265. Sureties cited.
 4266. Citation and judgment.

Article 4239. [4206-7-8] Payment.—A guardian may pay an unauthenticated claim against the estate of his ward which he knows to be just. Otherwise he shall not allow, and the court shall not approve, a claim unless it be accompanied by an affidavit of the claimant that the claim is justly due, that nothing has been paid or delivered toward the satisfaction of such claim, except what is mentioned or credited; that there are no counter claims known to affiant which have not been allowed. If the claim is not founded on a written instrument or account, the affidavit must also state the facts upon which the claim is founded. [Acts 1876, p. 179; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1015.]

Art. 4240. [4209] [2706] [2624] Claim of corporation.—The cashier, treasurer or managing agent of a corporation shall make the affidavit required to authenticate a claim of a corporation. [Id.]

Art. 4241. [4210] [2707] [2625] Affidavit of officer.—When an affidavit authenticating a claim is made by an officer of a corporation, or an executor, administrator, trustee, assignee, agent or attorney, it shall be sufficient to state in such affidavit that he has made diligent inquiry and examination and that he believes that nothing has been paid and delivered toward the satisfaction of such claim except the amount credited, that there are no counter claims which have not been allowed, and that the sum claimed is justly due. [Id.]

Art. 4242. [4212] [2709] [2627] Indorsement by guardian.—When a duly authenticated claim is presented to the guardian, he shall indorse thereon or annex thereto a written memorandum signed by him, stating the time of its presentment, and that he allows or rejects it, or what portion thereof he allows, if any. [Id.]

Art. 4243. [4213] [2710] [2628] Failure to indorse.—The failure of a guardian to indorse on, or annex to, a claim presented to him, his allowance or rejection thereof, shall be deemed a rejection of such claim. In such case, if the claim be established, the costs shall be adjudged against the guardian to be paid out of his own estate. [Id.]

Art. 4244. [4214] [2711] [2629] Rejected claim: suit.—When a claim or a part thereof has been rejected by the guardian, the claimant shall institute suit thereon within ninety days after such rejection, or the same shall be barred. [Id.]

Art. 4245. [4215] [2712] [2630] Memorandum evidence.—When a rejected claim is sued upon, the indorsement of its rejection thereon or annexed thereto shall be taken to be true without proof unless it be denied under oath. [Id.]

Art. 4246. [4216] [2713] [2631] Allowance of claim.—After a claim has been presented to the guardian and allowed, the claimant shall present it to the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending, who shall enter it upon the claim docket. [Id.]

Art. 4247. [4217] [2714] [2632] Examination of claim.—At each regular term of the court, all claims which have been allowed and entered on the claim docket shall be examined by the court and approved or disapproved, in the same manner as is provided for claims against the estates of decedents. [Id.]

Art. 4248. [4218] [2715] [2633] May contest claim.—Any person may contest the approval of a claim, or any part thereof, and shall be entitled to process for witnesses and the production of testimony as in ordinary suits. [Id.]

Art. 4249. [4219] [2716] [2634] Hearing.—Although a claim be properly authenticated and allowed, if the court is not satisfied that it is just, he shall examine the claimant and guardian under oath and hear other evidence. If not then entirely convinced by evidence other than the testimony of the claimant that the claim is just, it shall be disapproved. [Id.]

Art. 4250. [4220-22] Court indorsement.—When a claim is acted on by the court, he shall indorse thereon, or annex thereto, a memorandum in writing, signed officially, stating the action of the court upon such claim, and shall also enter such action upon the claim docket. Such order of approval or disapproval shall have the force and effect of a judgment. [Id.]

Art. 4251. [4223] [2720] [2638] Lost claim.—When a claim has been lost, the claimant may make an affidavit of the facts and present it to the guardian, with the same effect as the claim itself; but in such case, before the court shall approve it, the claim must be proved by competent testimony, other than such claimant's affidavit or oath, produced in court or taken by deposition. [Id.]

Art. 4252. [4221] [2718] [2636] Appeal.—When a claimant or any person interested in a ward shall be dissatisfied with the action of the court in approving or disapproving a claim in whole or in part, he may appeal therefrom to the district court, as in other cases.

Art. 4253. [4224] [2721] [2639] Guardian's claim.—A claim which the guardian held against the ward at the time of his appointment, or which has since accrued, is exhibited by being filed, verified by the affidavit of the guardian; after which it takes the same course as other claims. [Id.]

Art. 4254. [4225] [2722] [2640] "Exhibited claim."—A claim is said to be legally exhibited:

1. When it is properly presented to the guardian, and after being allowed by him, is filed.
2. When, after being rejected, suit is commenced thereon. [Id.]

Art. 4255. [4226] [2723] [2641] "Established claim."—A claim is said to be established:

1. When it has been allowed by the guardian and approved by the court.
2. When in a suit thereon, it has been sustained by the judgment of the proper court. [Id.]

Art. 4256. [4227] [2724] [2642] Time of exhibit.—Claims which have not been legally exhibited within the year may be exhibited at any time afterward, before the estate is closed, or suit on such claims will be barred by the general law of limitation. [Id.]

Art. 4257. [4228] [2725] [2643] Limitation interrupted.—The general law of limitations is interrupted:

1. By filing a claim which has been allowed.
2. By bringing a suit upon a rejected or disapproved claim within ninety days after such rejection or disapproval.

Art. 4258. [4229] [2726] [2644] Purchase by guardian.—It shall be unlawful for a guardian, either directly or indirectly, to purchase for his own use any claim against the estate of his ward. Upon satisfactory proof of the violation of this provision, the court shall disapprove the claim.

Art. 4259. [4230] [2727] [2645] Filing claim.—When a claim has been established by judgment, a certified copy of such judgment shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending, and entered upon the claim docket as other claims are entered. [Id.]

Art. 4260. [4231] [2728] [2646] Cost of exhibition, etc.—The costs incurred in the exhibition and establishment of claims shall be taxed as follows:

1. If a claim be allowed and approved, the estate shall pay the costs.
2. If a claim be allowed, but disapproved, the claimant shall pay the costs.
3. If a claim which has been rejected be established, the estate shall pay the costs. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 4261. [4232] [2729] [2647] Claim docket.—The claim docket required to be kept in the estates of decedents shall be used also for the estates of wards under the same rules as far as applicable.

Art. 4262. [4233] [2730] [2648] Payment of claims.—The guardian shall pay all claims against the estate of his ward that have been allowed and approved, or established by suit, as soon as practicable. The court may, either in term time or vacation, direct the order in which the claims against the estate shall be paid, and the amount to be paid on each claim, when the funds are not sufficient to pay them all in full.

Art. 4263. [4234] [2731] [2649] Order for payment.—Any creditor of an estate whose claim has been approved by the court, or established by judgment, may, upon written application to the court at a regular term thereof, obtain an order for the payment of such claim, where there are funds in the hands of the guardian subject thereto, or, if there be no funds, or not sufficient for the payment of such claim, and if to await the receipt of funds from other sources would involve an unreasonable delay, an order shall be made for the sale of property of the estate sufficient to pay the debt. [Id.]

Art. 4264. [4235] [2732] [2650] Execution against guardian.—If a guardian shall fail on demand to pay a claim ordered by the court to be paid, upon affidavit of the demand, and failure to pay being filed with the clerk of the court making such order, an execution shall be issued for the amount ordered to be paid such claimant, and for the costs of such proceeding against the property of such guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4265. [4236] [2733] [2651] Sureties cited.—If such execution be returned not satisfied, the sureties upon such guardian's bond may be cited to appear at a regular term of the court from which such execution issued to show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for such debt, interest and costs. [Id.]

Art. 4266. [4237] [2734] [2652] Citation and judgment.—Citation in such case may be issued to any county in the State; and upon the return thereof duly served, if good cause to the contrary be not shown, the court shall render judgment against the sureties so served in favor of the claimant for the amount of the claim ordered to be paid as aforesaid, and remaining unpaid, and ten per cent damages thereon, together with interest and costs; and execution may issue thereon. [Id.]

[4238] [2735] [2653] Warrant.—Upon information that any person of the county is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, and is without a guardian, if satisfied that there is a good cause for the exercise of his jurisdiction, the county judge shall, either in term time or in vacation, issue a warrant to the proper officer commanding that such person be brought before him at a time and place named in such warrant. [Acts 1876, p. 187; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1023.]

'28 TEX. CIV. ST.—33

Art. 4268. [4239] [2736] [2654] Duty of county officer.—Any county officer who may discover any person who resides in the county to be of unsound mind, and without a guardian, shall file information thereof with the county judge, who shall issue a proper warrant.

Art. 4269. [4240] [2737] [2655] Requisites of information.—Such information shall state that to the best of the knowledge and belief of affiant that such person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard, and shall state the name of the person so charged; or if unknown, such person shall be described and such information shall be subscribed and duly sworn to by the informant.

Art. 4270. [4241] [2738] [2656] Jury impaneled.—When the person charged is brought before the judge he shall, either in term time or in vacation, cause to be impaneled a qualified jury to try the case and decide whether such person is of unsound mind, or is an habitual drunkard.

Art. 4271. [4242] [2739] [2657] Proceedings and trial.—The case shall be docketed in the name of the county as plaintiff, and the person against whom the information is filed as defendant, and the proceedings and trial therein shall be governed by the same rules that govern in ordinary suits in the county court.

Art. 4272. [4243] [2740] [2658] Appointment of guardian.—If it be found by the jury that the defendant is of unsound mind or is an habitual drunkard, as charged, the court shall proceed, immediately and without further notice, to appoint a guardian of the person and estate of such defendant in the same manner as in the case of a minor. [Id.]

Art. 4273. [4244] [2741] [2659] New trial.—The court may, for good cause shown, at any time within ten days after the verdict has been returned, set aside such verdict and grant a new trial to either party; but, when two juries have concurred in a case, the second verdict shall not be set aside. [Id.]

Art. 4274. [4245] [2742] [2660] Provisions applicable.—Each provision of this title relating to the guardianship of the persons and estates of minors shall apply to the guardianship of the persons and estates of persons of unsound mind, and habitual drunkards, in so far as the same are applicable.

Art. 4275. [4246] [2743] [2661] Support of ward's family.—The court by which any person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard is committed to guardianship may make orders for the support of his family and the education of his children when necessary. [Id.]

Art. 4276. [4247] [2744] [2662] Prior right.—If the person committed to guardianship is married, the husband or wife of such person, as the case may be, shall be entitled first in order to the guardianship.

Art. 4277. [4248] [2745] [2663] Confinement of ward.—If any person shall be furiously mad, or so far disordered in his mind as to endanger his own person or the person or property of others, the guardian or other person under whose care he may be, and who is bound to provide for his support, shall confine him in some suitable place until the first regular term of the county court of his county, when the court shall make such order for the restraint, support and safe-keeping of such ward as the circumstances may require. [Id.]

Art. 4278. [4249] [2746] [2664] Apprehension.—If any such person of unsound mind as is specified in the preceding article shall not be confined by those having charge of him, or if there be no person having such charge, any magistrate may cause such insane person to be apprehended and may employ any person to confine him in some suitable place until the county court shall make further order thereon. [Id.]

Art. 4279. [4250] [2747] [2665] Liability for maintenance.—Where the person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard has no estate of his own, he shall be maintained:

1. By the husband or wife of such person, if able to do so.
2. By the father or mother of such person, if able to do so.
3. By the children and grandchildren of such person, if able to do so.
4. By the county in which said person has his residence. [Id.]

Art. 4280. [4251] [2748] [2666] Expenses of confinement.—The expenses attending the confinement of an insane person shall be paid by the guardian out of the estate of the ward, if he has an estate; and if he has none, such expense shall be paid by the person bound to provide for and support such insane person; and, if not so paid, the county shall pay the same. [Id.]

Art. 4281. [4252] [2749] [2667] County may recover.—In all cases of appropriations out of the county treasury for the support and confinement of any person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard, the amount thereof may be recovered by the county from the estate of such person, or from any person who, by law, is bound to provide for the support of such person, if there be any such person able to pay for same. [Id.]

Art. 4282. [4253] [2750] [2668] Restoration.—If any person shall allege in writing and under oath that a person who has been adjudged to be of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard has been restored to his right mind or to sober habits, the guardian of the person and of the estate of such ward shall be cited to appear before the county judge on a day and at a place named in such citation, either in term time or in vacation, and show cause why such ward should not be discharged from further guardianship, or the guardian may appear without such citation. [Id.]

Art. 4283. [4254] [2751] [2669] Trial.—If the facts of such alleged restoration be doubtful, the court shall, either in term time or in vacation, cause a qualified jury to be impaneled to try the issue as in the first instance, and if such jury finds that the ward has been restored to his right mind, or has reformed, he shall be discharged from guardianship by an order to that effect; and the guardian shall immediately settle his accounts and deliver all the property remaining in his hands to such ward. [Id.]

Art. 4284. [4255] [2752] [2670] Order of discharge.—If the fact of such alleged restoration be not doubtful, the court may, without the intervention of a jury, make the order discharging the ward from guardianship, as provided in the preceding article. [Id.]

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

NON-RESIDENT GUARDIANS AND WARDS

- Art.
- 4285. Letters of guardianship.
 - 4286. May remove property.
 - 4287. Delivery of property.
 - 4288. Requisites of removal.
 - 4289. Reciprocity.

Article 4285. [4256] [2753] [2671] Letters of guardianship.—Where a guardian and his ward are non-residents, such guardian may file in the county court of any county a full and complete transcript from the records of a court of competent jurisdiction where he and his ward reside, showing that he has been appointed and has qualified as guardian of the estate of such ward; which said transcript shall be certified by the clerk of the court in which the proceedings were had, under the seal of such court, if there be one, together with a certificate from the judge, chief justice or presiding magistrate of such court, as the case may be, that the attestation of such transcript is in due form; and upon the filing of such transcript the same may be recorded, and the guardian shall be entitled to receive letters of guardianship of the estate of such minor situated in this State, upon filing a bond with sureties as provided in Article 4141. [Acts 1876, p. 180; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1011; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 13.]

Art. 4286. [4257] [2754] [2672] May remove property.—Upon the recovery of the property of the ward, if it be personal property, such guardian may remove the same out of the State, unless such removal would conflict with the tenure of such property, or the terms and limitations under which it is held; and if it be real property, he may obtain an order for the sale of it and remove the proceeds. Such sale shall be made, returned and acted upon by the court as other sales of real estate by a guardian made in accordance with this title. [Id.]

Art. 4287. [4258] [2755] [2673] Delivery of property.—Any resident executor, administrator or guardian, having any of the estate of such ward may be ordered by the court to deliver the same to such non-resident guardian. [Id.]

Art. 4288. [4259] [2756] [2674] Requisites of removal.—There shall be no removal from the State of any of such property, until all debts known to exist against the estate have been paid, or the payment thereof secured by bond payable to the county judge and approved by the clerk. [Id.]

Art. 4289. [4260] [2757] [2675] Reciprocity.—The benefit of the provisions of this chapter shall not extend to the residents of any State, territory, district or county in which a similar law does not exist in favor of the residents of this State. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

REMOVAL OF GUARDIANSHIP

- Art.
- 4290. Application.
 - 4291. Citation to sureties.
 - 4292. Action of court.
 - 4293. Transcript.
 - 4294. Prerequisites.
 - 4295. Guardianship continued.

Article 4290. [4261] [2758] [2676] Application.—When a guardian desires to remove the transaction of the business of the guardianship from one county to another, he shall file in the court where such guardianship is pending a written application asking for authority to do so, and state in such application his reasons for desiring such removal. [Acts 1876, p. 185; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1021.]

Art. 4291. [4262] [2759] [2677] Citation to sureties.—Upon the filing of such application, the clerk shall issue citation to the sureties upon the bond of such guardian citing them to appear at a regular term of the court, to be named in such citation, and show cause why such application should not be granted. [Id.]

Art. 4292. [4263] [2760] [2678] Action of court.—Upon the hearing of the application, if no good cause be shown to the contrary, and if it appears that the removal of the guardianship would be to the interest of the ward, the court shall enter an order authorizing such removal upon the payment of all costs that have accrued.

Art. 4293. [4264] [2761] [2679] Transcript.—When such order of removal has been made the clerk shall record all papers of the guardianship required to be recorded, and that have not already been recorded, and shall make out a full and complete certified transcript of all the orders, decrees, judgments and proceedings in such guardianship, and, upon the payment of his fees therefor, shall transmit such transcript, together with all the original papers in the case, to the county clerk of the county to which such guardianship has been removed.

Art. 4294. [4265] [2762] [2680] Prerequisites.—The order removing a guardianship shall not take effect until such transcript has been filed in the office of the county clerk of the county to which such guardianship has been ordered removed, and until a certificate of that fact from the clerk filing the same, under his official seal, has been filed in the court making such order of removal.

Art. 4295. [4266] [2763] [2681] Guardianship continued.—When a guardianship has been removed from one county to another, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, it shall be proceeded with in the court to which it has been removed as if it had been originally commenced in said court; but it shall not be necessary to record any of the papers in the case that have been recorded in the court from which the same has been removed.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN FINAL SETTLEMENT

Art.

- 4296. When settled.
- 4297. Account.
- 4298. Guardian may be cited.
- 4299. Citation to ward.
- 4300. Citation to executor.
- 4301. Publication of citation.
- 4302. Action of the court.
- 4303. Restatement of account.
- 4304. Proof of account.
- 4305. Ward's attorney.
- 4306. Bad debts.
- 4307. Offsets and credits.
- 4308. Failure of guardian.

Article 4296. [4267] [2764] [2682] When settled.—When the ward dies, or if a minor, arrives at the age of twenty-one years, or if a female, marries, or, if a person of unsound mind or habitual drunkard, is restored and discharged from guardianship, the guardianship shall be immediately settled and closed and the guardian discharged, as provided in this chapter.

Art. 4297. [4268] [2765] [2683] Account.—The guardian shall file with the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending his account for final settlement of such guardianship; which account shall show fully and completely:

1. The property, rents, revenues and profits received by the guardian and belonging to his ward during his guardianship.
2. The disposition made of such property, rents, revenues, and profits.
3. The expenses and debts, if any, against the estate remaining unpaid.
4. The property of the estate remaining in the hands of such guardian, if any.
5. Such other facts as may be necessary to a full and definite understanding of the exact condition of the guardianship.
6. Such account shall be subscribed and duly sworn to by the guardian.

Art. 4298. [4269] [2766] [2684] Guardian may be cited.—If the guardian fails to file his account for final settlement at the proper time, the court shall, upon its own motion, or upon the written complaint of any one interested in the estate, cause such guardian to be cited to appear at a regular term of the court and file such account.

Art. 4299. [4270] [2767] [2685] Citation to ward.—Upon the filing of an account for final settlement, the clerk shall, if the ward be living and resident in the State, and his residence be known, issue a citation notifying such ward of the filing of such account, and of the term of court at which the same will be acted upon, and that he may appear and contest such account.

Art. 4300. [4271] [2768] [2686] Citation to executor.—If the ward be not living but there is an executor or administrator of his estate legally qualified, such executor or administrator shall be cited as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 4301. [4272] [2769] [2687] Publication of citation.—If the ward be not living, and there be no executor or administrator of his estate, or if the ward be a non-resident of the State, or if his residence be unknown, citation shall be published once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county if there be one regularly published therein; if not, then such citation shall be duly posted for at least twenty days before the return term thereof.

Art. 4302. [4273] [2770] [2688] Action of the court.—After citation has been duly served, the court shall proceed to examine the account for final settlement, and to hear any exception or objection thereto, and the evidence in support of or against such account, and if the same is found to be just and correct, an order shall be entered approving it and directing the guardian to deliver the estate remaining in his hands to the ward or other person legally authorized to receive the same. Upon compliance with such order, the guardian shall be discharged, and such guardianship closed by an order to that effect entered upon the minutes.

Art. 4303. [4274] [2771] [2689] Restatement of account.—If the account be found to be incorrect in any particular, the court shall cause the same to be corrected and restated, and make such order in relation thereto as may be necessary to a full and fair settlement of the guardianship.

Art. 4304. [4275] [2772] [2690] Proof of account.—The guardian must produce and file proper vouchers for every item of credit claimed by him in his account, or support the same by other satisfactory evidence.

Art. 4305. [4276] [2773] [2691] Ward's attorney.—When the ward is dead and there is no executor or administrator of his estate, or when the ward is a non-resident, or his residence is unknown, the court shall appoint an attorney to represent the interest of such ward in the final settlement with the guardian, and shall allow such attorney reasonable compensation for his services out of the ward's estate.

Art. 4306. [4277] [2774] [2692] Bad debts.—In the settlement of the account of the guardian, all debts due the estate which the court is satisfied could not have been collected by due diligence, and which have not been collected, shall be excluded from the computation. [Id.]

Art. 4307. [4278] [2775] [2693] Offsets and credits.—In the settlement of any of the accounts of the guardian, he shall account for the reasonable value of the labor or services of his ward, or the proceeds thereof, if any such labor or services have been rendered by such ward. The guardian shall be entitled to reasonable credits for the board, clothing and maintenance of his ward.

Art. 4308. [4279] [2776] [2694] Failure of guardian.—When a guardian who has been ordered by the court, upon final settlement, to deliver the estate to the ward or other person legally authorized to receive the same fails to obey such order, he may be attached and punished as for a contempt of court.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

COSTS OF GUARDIANSHIP

Art.

- 4309. Guardian of person.
- 4310. Commissions of guardian.
- 4311. Extra compensation.
- 4312. Expenses.
- 4313. Pay of appraisers.
- 4314. Costs against guardian.
- 4315. Costs against applicant.
- 4316. Unsound mind.
- 4317. Laws applicable.

Article 4309. [4280] [2779] [2697] Guardian of person.—The guardian of the person alone is entitled to no compensation. [Acts 1876, p. 187; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1023.]

Art. 4310. [4281] [2780] [2698] Commissions of guardian.—The guardian of the estate shall not be entitled to or receive any fee or commission on the estate of the ward when first delivered to him; but shall be entitled to a fee of five per cent on the gross income of the ward's estate and five per cent on all money paid out. The term "money paid out" shall not be construed to include any money loaned or invested or paid over on the settlement of the guardianship. [Acts 1876, p. 187; Acts 1913, p. 321; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1023.]

Art. 4311. [4282] [2781] [2699] Extra compensation.—If the guardian manages a farm, plantation, manufactory or other business of his ward, the court may allow him a reasonable compensation for such services. [Id.]

Art. 4312. [4283] [2782] [2700] Expenses.—All necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the guardian in the preservation and management of the ward's estate, and in collecting or attempting to collect claims or debts due the ward, and in recovering or attempting to recover property to which the ward has a title or claim, and all reasonable attorneys' fees necessarily incurred in the management of such guardianship, shall be allowed the guardian, to be paid out of the estate on satisfactory proof thereof being made to the court. [Id.]

Art. 4313. [4284] [2783] [2701] Pay of appraisers.—Appraisers appointed by the court to appraise the property of the ward shall be allowed two dollars each for each day that they are necessarily engaged in the performance of such duty, to be paid out of the estate.

Art. 4314. [4285] [2784] [2702] Costs against guardian.—In any case where the guardian shall neglect the performance of any duty required of him and shall be cited to appear before the court on account thereof, he shall pay all costs of such proceeding out of his own estate; and the court shall adjudge the same against him. [Id.]

Art. 4315. [4286] [2785] [2703] Costs against applicant.—In any case where a party shall make any application or opposition, and on the trial thereof shall be defeated, all costs occasioned by such application or opposition shall be adjudged against such party by the court. [Id.]

Art. 4316. [4287-8] Unsound mind.—When any person is found to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual drunkard, the cost of the proceeding shall be paid out of his estate; or, if his estate be insufficient to pay the same, such costs shall be paid out of the county treasury, and the judgment of the court shall be accordingly. If the defendant be discharged, the person at whose instance the proceeding was had shall pay the costs of such proceeding; unless the informant be an officer acting in his official capacity in filing the information, in which case the costs shall be paid out of the county treasury. [Id.]

Art. 4317. [4289] [2788] [2706] Laws applicable.—The provisions of law regulating costs and security therefor shall apply to matters of guardianship when not expressly provided in this title. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

APPEAL

Art.

- 4318. Right of appeal.
- 4319. Notice of appeal.
- 4320. Transcript on appeal.
- 4321. Joint appeals.
- 4322. Submission of transcript.
- 4323. Appeal bond.
- 4324. Judgment suspended.
- 4325. Judgment of district court.
- 4326. Judgment dismissing appeal.
- 4327. Trial of appeals.
- 4328. Bill of review.
- 4329. Certiorari.

Article 4318. [4290] [2789] [2707] Right of appeal.—Any person who may consider himself aggrieved by any decision, order or judgment of the court, or by any order of the judge thereof, in relation to guardianships, may appeal to the district court, as a matter of right, without bond. [Acts 1876, p. 192; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1028.]

Art. 4319. [4291] [2790] [2708] Notice of appeal.—An appeal is taken by causing an entry of notice thereof to be made on the record during the term at which such decision, order or judgment is entered; or, if such decision, order or judgment be made in vacation, by causing the entry of such notice to be made before the close of the next regular term of the court thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 4320. [4292] [2791] [2709] Transcript on appeal.—When notice of appeal has been given, the clerk shall make out a certified transcript of the proceedings and send it to the district court of the county; such transcript shall not contain anything that does not relate to the decision, order or judgment appealed from. [Id.]

Art. 4321. [4293] [2792] [2710] Joint appeals.—When notice of appeal has been given by the same person from more than one decision, order or judgment of the court in the same guardianship, at the same term, all of the appeals may be embraced in the same transcript. [Id.]

Art. 4322. [4294] [2793] [2711] Submission of transcript.—If there be not time to make out such transcript before the first day of the next term of the district court after such appeal is taken, it shall be sent to such court within sixty days after such appeal is taken. [Id.]

Art. 4323. [4295] [2794] [2712] Appeal bond.—The appeal shall not suspend the decision, order or judgment except in the cases mentioned in the succeeding article, unless the appellant, within twenty days after the entry of notice of appeal, shall file a bond in an amount fixed by the court at the time of entry of appeal, signed by two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and approved by the clerk, conditioned that the appellant shall perform the orders and judgment which the district court may make therein, in case the decision be against him. [Id.]

Art. 4324. [4296] [2795] [2713] Judgment suspended.—An appeal suspends the decision, order or judgment without bond:

1. When taken by a claimant from the disapproval of his claim.
2. When taken by the guardian or trustee, except where the controversy is respecting the rights of guardianship or the settlement of an account. [Id.]

Art. 4325. [4297] [2796] [2714] Judgment of district court.—When a certified copy of the judgment of the district court in the case is received, it shall be entered of record upon the minutes of the county court as the judgment of such county court. [Id.]

Art. 4326. [4298] [2797] [2715] Judgment dismissing appeal.—Where a certified copy of the judgment of the district court dismissing an appeal or quashing a supersedeas is received, it shall be entered of record on the minutes of the county court, and the decision, order or judgment of the county court which was appealed from shall stand as if no appeal or supersedeas had been taken or obtained. [Id.]

Art. 4327. [4299] [2798] [2716] Trial of appeals.—Appeals from the decision, order or judgment of the county court or county judge to the district court in cases of guardianship shall be tried in the district court de novo. The judgment of the district court therein shall be certified to the county court to be carried into effect. [Acts 1846, p. 378; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1684.]

Art. 4328. [4300] [2799] [2717] Bill of review.—Any person interested may, by a bill of review, filed in the court in which the proceedings were had, have any decision, order or judgment rendered by such court, or by the judge thereof, revised and corrected on showing error therein. But no process or action under such decision, order or judgment shall be stayed except by writ of injunction. [Id.]

Art. 4329. [4301] [2800] [2718] Certiorari.—Any person interested may also have any decision, order or judgment of the county court or county judge revised and corrected by writ of certiorari from the district court under the same rules and regulations as are provided in estates of decedents.

4334. Reports sent to whom.
4335. Officers entitled to laws.
4336. How distributed.
4337. May sell copies of laws.
4338. Revision.
4339. Receipt for books.
4340. Chief clerk; Assistant Secretary of State.
4341. Commission.

Article 4330. [4302-3] Appointment and bond.—By and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the Governor shall appoint a Secretary of State who shall continue in office during the term of service of the Governor by whom he was appointed. Such appointee shall first give a bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. [Acts 1899, p. 3.]

Art. 4331. [4304-5-6-7-8-13-17-18] General duties.—Among other duties the Secretary of State shall:

1. Keep his office in the City of Austin or other place where the sessions of the Legislature may be held.
2. Appoint a chief clerk and such number of assistant clerks as may be authorized by law.
3. Affix the seal of the State to all certificates of official character that may emanate from his office.
4. Keep a fair register of all the official acts of the Governor, and when required shall lay the same and all minutes and other papers in relation thereto before the Legislature or either branch thereof.
5. Keep in a separate suitable book a complete register of all the officers appointed and elected in this State, and commission them when not otherwise provided by law.
6. Arrange and preserve all the books, maps, parchments, records, documents, and all papers that have been or may be properly deposited there, and sealed with the seal of the State, and also similar copies of any act, law or resolution of the United States, or either of them, from the originals in his office, which copies shall be as legal and conclusive in evidence, and to all intents and purposes, in the courts of this State, as the originals would have been; and furnish on request such copies to the Governor, the Legislature or either branch thereof.
7. Attend at every session of the Legislature to receiving bills which have become laws, and immediately after the close thereof cause all enrolled joint resolutions thereof and all such bills to be bound together in a volume to be kept in his office, the date of the session to be placed thereon, and deliver a certified copy thereof and index thereof to the Board of Control, and carefully examine and compare the printed copy with the certified copy and correct each error contained in the former.
8. Distribute to the Governor and heads of departments, and to each member of the Legislature, a copy of the printed journals of both houses; and forward to the county judge of each county two copies of said journals, one to be deposited in the office of the clerk of the district court and the other in the office of the county clerk for the use of said courts respectively.
9. Turn over to the person in charge of the State Library, immediately upon their receipt, all books, maps, charts or other publications of a political or miscellaneous character received at his office, and all printed volumes of the statutes or laws of any Nation, State or Territory, and in like manner turn over to the Supreme Court Librarian all volumes of reports of any courts of any other Nation, State or Territory received by him.

10. Forward to the Librarian of Congress, the Secretary of State of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, and the executive departments of each State of the Union, to each foreign librarian or government with whom a system of library exchange may be established, as he may deem advisable, copies of all laws and judicial reports printed and published by order of the Legislature at the expense of the State.

11. Forward to each county clerk for the use of the county one copy of each Act of Congress which may be received in his office.

Art. 4331a. Duties as to records of receivers.—That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, on the payment of the sum of two dollars and fifty cents, to record in a well bound book to be kept in his office, the names of all trustees appointed by any State organization of any church communion in the State, provided such appointment is duly authenticated by some officer authorized by law in this State to take acknowledgment of deeds; and it shall be the further duty of the Secretary of State to furnish a certified copy of said appointments to any court in this State on application for the same by any judge or clerk of any court in this State, and the sum of one dollar and fifty cents shall be taxed as cost for copy in any proceeding in which such copy may be used, to be collected and paid for as any other costs; and it shall be the duty of the judge of any court before making the appointment of any receiver, to apply to the Secretary of the State to be furnished with such certified copy before such appointments are made. That any communion shall have the right from time to time to change, appoint or elect its trustee or trustees. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 68, ch. 45, § 4.]

Art. 4331b. Exchange of reports.—The Secretary of State is hereby authorized and directed in addition to the exchanges he is now authorized to make under existing law, to make exchanges of the reports of the several appellate courts of this State, of the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, of the Session Acts of the Legislature, of the existing and future revised Civil and Criminal Statutes of this State, and of other State publications and department reports of this State, for the court reports, session acts, revised statutes, civil and criminal, and other State publications and department reports of the United States Government, of the other States of the Union, and of foreign countries, for the benefit of the law library of the University of Texas, provided that the Secretary of State shall always keep on hand a sufficient number of copies of all State publications to meet the reasonable current demands of the State. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 92, ch. 66, § 1.]

Art. 4332. Sale of reports.—The Secretary of State shall receive from the Supreme Court Reporter the printed and bound volumes of the Supreme Court Reports and the Reports of the Court of Criminal Appeals; he may sell single copies of such reports for the sum of the contract price for printing, exclusive of postage or express charges; he shall deliver to the State Treasurer the proceeds of all sales made by him, and shall make a full statement of such sales in his biennial report. [Acts 1919, p. 60.]

Art. 4333. Advance sheets.—The Secretary of State may transmit advance sheets of the reports as the publishing progresses, upon receipt of the price for the volume. The purchaser may return all the forms of the volume to the Secretary of State without further expense except the cost of transmitting the same to and from the State Department. [Id.]

Art. 4334. [4309] [2807] Reports sent to whom.—The Secretary of State shall deliver, by mail or otherwise, to each appellate judge, the Attorney General, the Governor, each district judge, each professor of law of the University of Texas, the librarian of said University, and to the county judge of each county for the use of the counties, one copy of the reports of said appellate courts hereafter issued; also furnish to each district judge of the United States for Texas one copy of each of said reports for each branch of his courts; and, when it appears that any of the reports of either of said courts have been heretofore furnished and not returned to the Department of State, or when they are hereafter delivered by the State to either of said officers or authorities, the Secretary shall have no authority to send another copy, except on proof that the same have been destroyed by fire, or have been rendered valueless by long use, to be evidenced by the certificate of the officer demanding to be resupplied with such report. [Acts 1887, p. 114; G. L. vol. 9, p. 912.]

Art. 4335. [4310] [2808] Officers entitled to laws.—The following officers shall be entitled to receive one copy of each of all general and special laws hereafter passed by the Legislature, to-wit: The Governor and heads of departments, each member of the Legislature, the judges of the several courts throughout the State, and the clerks of said courts, and each county attorney. The following officers shall be entitled to receive one copy each of all general laws hereafter passed by the Legislature, to-wit: county treasurer, county surveyor, sheriff, assessor of taxes, tax collector, inspector of hides and animals, justice of the peace, constable and county commissioner. [Acts 1885, p. 68; G. L. vol. 9, p. 688.]

Art. 4336. [4311] [2809] How distributed.—The Secretary of State shall distribute the printed laws of each session of the Legislature to the officers named in the preceding article, as follows: He shall mail or deliver in person to the Governor and heads of departments, and to all State or District officers, a copy each, and shall forward to the county judge of each county a sufficient number of said laws to supply each county officer named in the preceding article with a copy. [Acts 1850, p. 99; P. D. 4585; G. L. vol. 3, p. 537.]

Art. 4337. [4312] [2810] May sell copies of laws.—Said Secretary is authorized to sell copies of the general and special laws of the State of Texas that have or may be published at a price not exceeding twenty-five per cent above cost of publishing; provided, that a sufficient number of all laws published be reserved from sale for the use of the State. Any money realized in excess of the costs attending such sale shall be placed to the account of the general revenue in the State Treasury. [Acts 1883, p. 33; G. L. vol. 9, p. 339.]

Art. 4338. [4314-15] Revision.—Whenever a revision of the laws of the State has been or shall be subscribed for, or published by the State, a sufficient number of copies of each volume thereof shall be forwarded to the county judge of each county to furnish one of said copies to each judge of the appellate and district courts, to each clerk of the district and county courts, and appellate courts, and to each justice of the peace that may be a resident in said county. The Secretary of State shall also deliver to each executive officer at the seat of government one of said copies. [Id.]

Art. 4339. [4316] [2811] Receipt for books.—Whenever any officer shall receive a copy of any report, statute, digest or journal, he shall receipt for the same to the officer distributing it, who shall file such receipt in his office. Said books shall be deemed to belong to the office of said officer to whom they are delivered, and shall, at all reasonable hours, be subject to the examination of any citizen of this State. If any said officer fails or refuses to deliver any said book to his successor in office when demanded by him, the officer so failing or refusing shall be liable to pay such successor the costs and charges that may be necessary to supply the office of such successor with any said book that he shall so fail or refuse to deliver. [Id. P. D. 4588.]

Art. 4340. [4319] [2817] Chief Clerk; Assistant Secretary of State.—The office of Chief Clerk to the Secretary of State is hereby abolished, and the office of Assistant Secretary of State is hereby created. The Assistant Secretary of State shall be an attorney-at-law, and he shall have had at least five (5) years actual practice in this State prior to his appointment and shall perform all the duties required by law to be performed by the Secretary of State when the said Secretary of State is absent or unable to act for any reason. Such assistant shall perform such other duties as shall be required of him by the Secretary of State and his compensation shall be four thousand dollars per annum. There is hereby appropriated out of the State Treasury the sum of $2,500.00 to pay the compensation of said Assistant Secretary of State for the remainder of this fiscal year ending August 31, 1927, and this appropriation shall supersede the present appropriation for the compensation of the Chief Clerk in the Secretary of State's office for the remainder of said fiscal year. The said Assistant Secretary of State shall serve as such so long as the Secretary of State appointing him is in office. [As amended Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 55, ch. 39, § 1.]

Art. 4341. Commission.—The Secretary of State shall not be required to forward copies of laws to nor attest the authority of any officer in this State who fails or refuses to take out his commission. [Acts 1919, p. 80.]

4365. Duplicate warrants.
4366. To examine and cancel warrants.

Article 4342. [4320] Election and term.—At each biennial general election a Comptroller of Public Accounts shall be elected for a term of two years. The word "Comptroller", whenever used in any law of this State, shall mean the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4343. [4322] Bond.—Within twenty days after receipt of notice of his election or appointment and before he enters upon the duties of his office, the Comptroller shall give a bond with not less than six good sureties, in the sum of seventy-five thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 4344. Certain duties.—Among other duties the Comptroller shall:

1. Procure a seal with words "Comptroller's office, State of Texas" engraved around the margin and a five-pointed star in the center, which shall be used as the seal of his office to authenticate all his official acts, except warrants drawn on the State Treasury.
2. Adopt such regulations not inconsistent with the constitution and laws as he may deem essential to the speedy and proper assessment and collection of the revenues of the State.
3. Superintend the fiscal concerns of the State, as the sole accounting officer thereof, and manage the same in the manner required by law.

4. Require all accounts presented to him for settlement not otherwise provided for by law to be made on forms prescribed by him, all such accounts to be verified by affidavit as to their correctness, and he may administer the oath himself in any case in which he may deem it necessary.

5. Prescribe and furnish the form to be used by all persons in the collection of the public revenue and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts.

6. Prescribe forms of the same class, kind and purpose so as to be uniform in size, arrangement, matter and form.

7. From time to time require all persons receiving money or having the disposition or management of any property of the State, of which an account is kept in his office, to render statements thereof to him.

8. Require all persons who have received and not accounted for any money belonging to the State to settle their accounts.

9. Keep and settle all accounts in which the State is interested, including all moneys received by the State as interest and other payments on land and office fees of his and other departments of the State government, and all other moneys received by the State from whatever source and for whatever purpose.

10. Examine and settle the accounts of all persons indebted to the State and certify the amount or balance to the Treasurer, and direct and superintend the collection of all moneys due the State.

11. Audit the claims of all persons against the State in cases where provision for the payment thereof has been made by law, unless the audit of any such claim is otherwise specially provided for.

12. Keep a book to register and index all audited claims against the State, and on the meeting of the regular session of the Legislature make a minute report of the same to both houses thereof, giving the names and amounts of all audited claims.

13. Keep and state all accounts between this State and the United States.

14. Keep journals through which all entries are made in the ledger.

15. Remit or make an allowance to each tax collector in the auditing of his accounts for all sums of money which, in his judgment, have been illegally assessed.

16. Draw warrants on the Treasurer for the payment of all moneys directed by law to be paid out of the Treasury.

17. Suggest plans for the improvement and management of the general revenue.

18. Preserve the books, records, papers and other things belonging in his office and deliver the same in good condition to his successor. [Id.]

Art. 4345. [4336] Account of Comptroller.—The account of the Comptroller against the State shall not be passed to the Treasurer until approved by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 4346. [4337] Custodian of obligations.—Except as otherwise specially provided, all deeds to the State, all liens, mortgages, bonds, notes and other securities for money given to the State or any officer for the use of the State, contracts involving pecuniary obligations to the State, and all other documents or instruments creating a pecuniary obligation in favor of the State, shall be deposited in the office of the Comptroller.

Art. 4347. [4339] When accounts closed.—The accounts of the Comptroller shall be annually closed on the last day of August; and he shall exhibit all books, papers, vouchers, and all other matters pertaining to his office, for the examination of either branch of the Legislature, or any committee which may be by them appointed, whenever required by them to do so. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4348. [4340] Statement to Governor.—In addition to the reports required by the Constitution, the Comptroller shall exhibit to the Governor, on the first Monday of November of each year, and at such other times as he shall require, an exact and complete statement of the funds of the State, of its revenues, and of the public expenditures during the preceding year (or for such other times as may be required), with a detailed estimate of the expenditures to be defrayed from the Treasury for the ensuing year, specifying therein each object of the expenditures and distinguishing between such as are provided for by general or special appropriation, and such as are required to be provided for by law, and showing the means from which such expenditures are to be defrayed. [Id.]

Art. 4349. [4330-1] Special claims.—Each sheriff, attorney or other party holding claims against the State for which no warrant has been issued, and the appropriation for which has been exhausted, shall present them to the Comptroller for his consideration at least thirty days before the meeting of each regular session of the Legislature. The Comptroller shall not audit any such claim not presented within said time until all claims presented prior to that time have been considered and passed upon by him. [Id.]

Art. 4350. [4332] Warrants on Treasurer.—Every warrant shall refer to the law under which it is drawn. No warrant shall be issued to any person indebted to the State, or to his agent or assignee, until such debt is paid. [Id.]

Art. 4351. [4342] Notified of deficiencies.—All heads of departments, managers of State institutions or other persons intrusted with the power or duty of contracting for supplies, or in any manner pledging the credit of the State for any deficiency that may arise under their management or control, shall, at least thirty days before such deficiency shall occur, make out a sworn estimate of the amount necessary to cover such deficiency until the meeting of the next Legislature. Such estimate shall be immediately filed with the Governor, who shall thereupon carefully examine the same and approve or disapprove the same in whole or in part. When such deficiency claim, or any part thereof, has been so approved by the Governor he shall indorse his approval thereon, designating the amount and items thereof approved and the items disapproved, and file same with the Comptroller; and the same shall be authority for the Comptroller to draw his deficiency warrant for so much thereof as may be approved; but no claim, or any part thereof, shall be allowed or warrants drawn therefor by the Comptroller, or paid by the Treasurer, unless such estimate has been so approved and filed. If there is a deficiency appropriation sufficient to meet such claims, then a warrant shall be drawn therefor and the same shall be paid; but, if there is no such appropriation, or if such appropriation be so exhausted that it is not sufficient to pay such deficiency claim, then a deficiency warrant shall issue therefor; and such claim shall remain unpaid until provision be made therefor at some session of the Legislature thereafter. The provisions of this article shall not apply to fees and dues for which the State may be liable under the general laws. When any injury or damage shall occur to any public property from flood, storm or any unavoidable cause, the estimate may be filed at once but must be approved by the Governor as provided in this article. [Id.]

Art. 4351a. Limiting amount of deficiency warrants.—It shall be lawful for the Governor to approve deficiency warrants as provided for in Article 4351, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, to any amount, the aggregate of which does not exceed Two Hundred Thousand ($200,000.00) Dollars, for all purposes for which he is permitted to approve such deficiency warrants. If any deficiency warrants are approved above this amount, such warrants are invalid and unredeemable by the State Treasurer. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 232, ch. 158, § 1.]

Art. 4352. [4343] Chief clerk.—The Comptroller shall appoint a chief clerk, who shall take the official oath and give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable in like manner as the bond of the Comptroller, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. Said clerk shall perform the duties of the Comptroller when the Comptroller may be unavoidably absent or incapable, from sickness or other cause, to discharge said duties, and, under the direction of the Comptroller supervise the keeping of the books, records and accounts of the department, and perform such other duties as may be required of him by law and by the Comptroller. If the office of the Comptroller should become vacant by death, resignation or otherwise, said chief clerk shall act as Comptroller until a Comptroller is appointed and qualified. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4353. [4344] Deposit warrants.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform deposit warrants, which shall be of four classes: "State revenue," "available school" "permanent school" and "miscellaneous;" and which shall be prepared in triplicate and marked "original," "duplicate" and "triplicate" respectively. Each class shall be separately serially numbered, and shall be on paper of a different color from the other classes. He shall provide for the use of his department a warrant register for each class of deposit warrants, each volume of which shall be appropriately designated by number or otherwise, and the pages of which shall be ruled and the lines numbered consecutively. When a deposit warrant is prepared, it shall be registered in the deposit warrant register for the class to which it belongs and on the line in such register corresponding in number with the number of the deposit warrant registered. A distribution of the amount stated in each deposit warrant shall be posted in detail to the ledger containing accounts for each source of revenue. The triplicate deposit warrant shall be, on receipt by the Treasurer of the amount stated therein, receipted by the Treasurer and delivered to the person making the deposit, the original to the Treasurer, who shall file the same numerically; and the duplicate shall be, on the receipt of the amount stated therein, receipted by the Treasurer, and by him returned to the Comptroller, who shall file same numerically. The printed forms for these warrants shall be so prepared and arranged that the original, duplicate and triplicate may, by use of carbon sheets, all be prepared at one and the same writing. No deposit shall be received into the State Treasury on any account, except upon a deposit warrant issued as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 4354. [4345] Deposit receipts.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform deposit receipts, to be issued by the Comptroller to cover moneys and other securities received and held by the State Treasurer for which no deposit warrant is issued, or the issuance of a deposit warrant which is deferred, except office fees of the State Treasurer. Such receipts shall be prepared in duplicate and marked "original" and "duplicate," respectively, and shall be serially numbered. The printed form for these receipts shall be so prepared and arranged that the original and duplicate may, by the use of carbon sheets, both be prepared at one and the same writing. The duplicate shall be receipted by the Treasurer, and by him returned to the Comptroller, and the original delivered to, and retained by the State Treasurer. He shall provide his office with separate registers, prepared in like manner and form as the register provided for in this chapter, in which he shall register the deposit receipts, issued in like manner as is provided for the registration of deposit warrants, and shall provide a separate ledger in which shall be kept appropriate accounts for all matters for which such deposit receipts are issued. [Id.]

Art. 4355. [4346] Claims and accounts.—All claims and accounts against the State shall be submitted on forms prescribed by the Comptroller and in duplicate, when required by him, except claims for pensions, and shall be so prepared as to provide for the entering thereon, for the use of the Comptroller's Department, as well as other appropriate matters, the following:

1. Signature of the head of the department or other person responsible for incurring the expenditure, or of the person on whose account the expenditure was incurred.

2. Appropriation number.
3. Initials of the person ascertaining if there are funds available.
4. Initials of the person auditing the claim.
5. Number and date of warrant issued with the initials of the person preparing the warrant.
6. Initials of the person posting to ledger.
7. Initials of the person comparing the claim and warrant. [Id.]

Art. 4356. [4347] Claims classified.—There shall be three classes of claim forms as follows:

1. "General" which shall consist of: (a) payrolls, covering departmental and institutional services; (b) traveling expense vouchers; (c) purchases and services other than personal; and (d) sheriff and court claims; and under the head of sheriff and court claims the Comptroller may provide for different forms, such as those for sheriffs, county attorneys, district attorneys, district clerks, district judges, witnesses and all other like claims relating to the judiciary.

2. "Special," covering all claims for which special warrants are issued.

3. "Pensions," the form for which shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 4357. [4348] List of claims to be kept.

—When claims and accounts are received, it shall be ascertained if there are funds available therefor; and the person making the examination shall indicate such fact by marking his initials upon such claim; and if there are no funds available, that fact shall be written or stamped upon such claim; and the same shall be held to await the authority to issue a proper warrant therefor. When a claim has been audited and warrant drawn therefor, the claim shall be numbered with the same number as the warrant; and such claim shall be filed numerically according to class, "general," "special," "pension," respectively. There shall be kept, either in book form or in the form of a card index, an alphabetical index of claimants; but, as to payrolls, the department or institution shall be the claimant. The index shall show only the name of the claimant and the number of the claim. After the expiration of two years, such claims shall be removed from the files and otherwise securely stored and preserved as records. [Id.]

Art. 4358. [4349] Pay warrants.—The Comptroller shall have printed uniform pay warrants, which shall be of three classes, "general," "special," and "pension." Such warrants shall be prepared in duplicate, and shall be marked "original" and "duplicate," respectively; and each class shall be serially numbered and shall be of a color of paper different from the other class. Such warrants shall be prepared so as to provide for entering thereon, in addition to other appropriate matter, the following:

1. Initials of the person in the Comptroller's department comparing the warrant with the claim.

2. Initials of the person in the Comptroller's department registering the warrant.

3. Designation of the fund against which the warrant is drawn. [Id.]

Art. 4359. [4350] Pay warrants register.—

The Comptroller shall provide a pay warrant register for each class of pay warrants, each volume of which shall be appropriately designated by number or otherwise, and the pages of which shall be ruled, and the lines numbered consecutively. When a pay warrant is prepared, it shall be registered in the pay warrant register for the class to which it belongs; and such entries in those registers shall be on the line corresponding in number with the number on the pay warrant register; and such registry shall consist only of an entry of the amount and name of the payee of such warrant. If a warrant is erroneously prepared and not issued, or is cancelled, or is properly shown to be lost or destroyed, such fact shall be noted in the register opposite the number of such warrant in the register. One person shall be designated by the Comptroller as warrant clerk and such person shall prepare or be responsible for the preparation of all pay warrants, and shall be accountable to the Comptroller for warrants coming into his possession. No warrant shall be prepared except on presentation to the warrant clerk of a properly verified and audited claim, the proper auditing of which claim shall be evidenced by the initials written thereon by the person auditing the same; and such claim so verified and audited shall be sufficient and the only authority for the preparation of a warrant or warrants. When a warrant has been properly prepared, the claim upon which it was prepared shall be initialed with initials of the warrant clerk, and such warrant shall be registered as herein provided; and the fact of the registration thereof shall be shown by writing thereon the initials of the person registering the same. When a warrant is properly prepared, it shall be, with the claim upon which it is based, passed to the Comptroller for his signature or the signature of such person as may be authorized by law to sign the same in his stead. Such warrant shall then be passed to, and registered in, the Treasurer's department and signed by the State Treasurer, or some person authorized by law to sign for him, and returned to the Comptroller's department. Such warrant shall then be delivered by the Comptroller to the person entitled to receive it; and he shall at his option take a receipt from such person therefor and file it in his office. The printed forms for these warrants shall be so prepared and arranged that the original and duplicate shall by the use of carbon sheets be prepared at one writing. [Id.]

Art. 4360. [4351] Pension warrants.—Applications for pensions and the issuance of pension warrants shall not be subject to the provisions of this chapter. Such warrants shall be separately serially numbered. [Id.]

Art. 4361. [4352] Registration of bonds.—The Comptroller shall procure for the use of his department suitable books to be known as "bond registers," the volumes of which shall be separately designated by number or otherwise, in which he shall register alphabetically all State, county, school, municipal and drainage or such other bonds required by law to be registered by him. Neither the bonds nor opinion of the attorney general, nor the record or other papers or documents relative thereto, shall be recorded in full; but only the name of the authority issuing and the names and official capacities of the officers signing such bonds, the date of the issue, date of registration, amount of principal, date of maturity, number, time of option of redemption, rate of interest and day of the month of each year when the interest shall fall due, of each bond so registered, shall be entered upon such register. On the same line where such entry is made, shall be provided blank spaces in which shall be entered the date of payment or redemption of each bond when the same is paid or redeemed. When any bond is paid or redeemed the proper officer or the authority paying such bond shall notify the Comptroller of the fact and date of such payment or redemption, and all papers and documents pertaining to such bonds shall be filed and appropriately numbered. [Id.]

Art. 4362. Bond Clerk.—The Comptroller shall appoint a bond clerk whose term of office shall be at the pleasure of the Comptroller, and who shall first take the official oath and give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Comptroller, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. Such clerk shall under the supervision, direction and authority of the Comptroller, perform all duties with reference to the registration of bonds imposed upon the Comptroller by the provisions of the preceding and succeeding articles, and shall have authority to sign the name of the Comptroller to all certificates of registration of bonds required by law to be registered by the Comptroller, and which bonds are registered by such bond clerk, as provided herein. In the absence of the bond clerk the duties herein imposed upon such bond clerk may be performed in like manner by the chief clerk. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 23.]

Art. 4363. [4353] Account by funds kept separate.—The Comptroller shall keep appropriate accounts by funds, showing a short description of the essential features of each, of each bond or of each purchase of similar or like bonds, or other securities purchased by and belonging to the permanent school and other funds of the State; each of which accounts shall be charged with the principal of such bond or purchase; and, with each separate item of interest payments to accrue thereon, and shall be credited with payments as made. He shall also keep controlling or total accounts of such bonds or other securities; which accounts shall be kept with respect to the total amount of bonds or other securities belonging to each separate fund; each of which controlling accounts shall be balanced quarterly at the same time as, and the balance of which shall correspond with, like accounts kept by the State Treasurer. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 37.]

Art. 4364. [4354-5-6-7] Ledgers.—The Comptroller shall maintain a double entry system of book-keeping to be in charge of the chief book-keeper. The Comptroller shall keep the following ledgers:

1. State General Ledger.—The accounts of each fund shall be opened in a State general ledger. No entry shall be made in the ledger except by means of the double entry system. An account [account] shall be opened with the State Treasurer and charged with the cash on hand and the balance in depositories. Each charge shall represent the aggregate amount of cash held by him for the various funds. Warrants issued shall be charged in monthly totals to the fund account. An account shall be opened for the purpose of showing the amount of outstanding pay warrants from time to time, which shall be credited with the warrants issued and charged with the warrants paid. The Comptroller shall charge the State Treasurer in totals of all deposit warrants as issued, and credit him with warrants paid, so that the balance in the Treasurer's hands, together with the balance in the State depositories, shall agree with the balance shown by this account.

2. Revenue ledger.—A "revenue ledger" in which a distribution shall be made of the revenues derived by the State from all sources, and the amounts derived from each source as stated. The sources of revenue printed on the back of the duplicate in each deposit warrant issued therefor by the Comptroller shall be posted to this ledger, and its balances periodically agreed with the deposit warrants issued.

3. Accounts of Tax Collectors.—One ledger for current taxes, and one ledger for delinquent and insolvent taxes, each to be made self balancing by means of controlling accounts, in which he shall keep the accounts of tax collectors.

4. Account of State Treasurer.—A suspense ledger in which the accounts of the State Treasurer shall be stated in respect to moneys held by him pending the issuance of deposit warrants and moneys and securities held, other than those for State purposes, for all of which the Comptroller shall issue deposit receipts, posting the same in totals to this ledger. It shall also include the accounts with heads of departments for all moneys received by them and not deposited with the State Treasurer; which accounts shall be kept in monthly totals based upon monthly reports furnished to the Comptroller by each of the heads of departments. [Id.]

Art. 4365. [4359] Duplicate warrants.—The Comptroller, when satisfied that any original warrant drawn upon the State Treasurer has been lost or destroyed, or when any certificate or other evidence of indebtedness approved by the auditing board of the State has been lost, is authorized to issue a duplicate warrant in lieu of the original warrant or a duplicate or a copy of such certificate, or other evidence of indebtedness in lieu of such original; but no such duplicate warrant, or other evidence of indebtedness, shall issue until the applicant has filed with the Comptroller his affidavit, stating that he is the true owner of such instrument, and that the same is in fact lost or destroyed, and shall also file with the Comptroller his bond in double the amount of the claim with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, to be approved by the Comptroller, and conditioned that the applicant will hold the State harmless and return to the Comptroller, upon demand being made therefor, such duplicates or copies, or the amount of money named therein, together with all costs that may accrue against the State on collecting the same. After the issuance of said duplicate or copy if the Comptroller should ascertain that the same was improperly issued, or that the applicant or party to whom the same was issued was not the owner thereof, he shall at once demand the return of said duplicate or copy if unpaid, or the amount paid out by the State, if so paid; and, upon failure of the party to return same or the amount of money called for, suit shall be instituted upon said bond in Travis County. [Id.]

Art. 4366. [4361] To examine and cancel warrants.—The Comptroller shall examine the disbursements of the Treasurer at the end of each quarter, and shall, together with the Treasurer, cancel the warrants which have been paid in such manner as to prevent their future circulation, and shall examine if the receipts acknowledged by the Treasurer during the quarter correspond with the deposits, and if the balance of money reported to be in his possession is actually in his hands. [Id.]

Article 4367. [4362] [2849] Election and term.—At each biennial general election a State Treasurer shall be elected for a term of two years. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 438.]

Art. 4368. [4364] [2850] Bond.—The State Treasurer shall, within twenty days after he shall have received notice of his election, and before he enters upon the duties of his office, give a bond payable to and to be approved by the Governor, in the sum of seventy thousand dollars with a good and solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, conditioned that he will faithfully execute the duties of his office. All expense necessary and incident to the execution of such bond shall be paid by the State by appropriation. [Acts 1923, p. 310.]

Art. 4369. [4365-6] New bond required.—The Attorney General, with the Comptroller, shall on the first days of June and December of every year, examine the bond of the Treasurer and make diligent inquiry into the condition of the sureties on said bond; and, if in the opinion of the Attorney General, said bond is not sufficient to secure the State in her rights, then, the Attorney General shall notify said Treasurer in writing of the insufficiency of said bond; and, should said Treasurer fail for the space of twenty days from the date of such notice to furnish a sufficient new bond, the Governor shall forthwith suspend said Treasurer from office. If the Treasurer be so suspended from office the Governor shall appoint some suitable person as Treasurer who shall give bond as required by the provisions of the preceding article. The appointee shall perform the duties of Treasurer until the suspended officer shall give a new bond to be approved by the Governor. [Acts 1873, p. 62; G. L. vol. 7, p. 514; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 438.]

Art. 4370. [4367] [2854] To receive moneys from Comptroller.—The Treasurer shall receive, on the warrants of the Comptroller, all moneys which shall from time to time be paid into the State Treasury, receipting for the same upon duplicate and triplicate warrants; which duplicate shall be deposited with the Comptroller, and the triplicate given to the person depositing such money. [Acts 1846, p. 10; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1316.]

Art. 4371. [4368] [2855] Money paid out, how.—He shall countersign and pay all warrants drawn by the Comptroller on the Treasury which are authorized by law. No money shall be paid out of the Treasury except on the warrants of the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 4372. [4369-70] To keep accounts.—He shall keep true accounts of the receipts and expenditures of the public moneys of the Treasury, and close his accounts annually on the thirty-first day of August, with the proper legal vouchers for the same, distinguishing between the receipts and disbursements of each fiscal year. He shall also open an account in the Treasury for all appropriations of money made by law, so that the appropriations and the application in pursuance thereof may clearly and distinctly appear. [Id. P. D. 5287.]

Art. 4373. [4371] [2859] Annual exhibit to Governor.—In addition to the reports required by the Constitution, the Treasurer shall submit to the Governor on the first Monday of November of each year, and at such other times as he shall require, an exact statement of the condition and situation of the Treasury, and of the balance of money remaining therein to the credit of the State, with a summary of the receipts and payments of the Treasury during the preceding year, or for such other period of time as may be specially required, and shall exhibit all books, papers, vouchers and other matters pertaining to his office, for the examination of the Legislature, or either branch thereof, or any committee which may be by them appointed, whenever required by them to do so. [Id. P. D. 5288.]

Art. 4374. [4372] [2860] Only public moneys to be kept.—All moneys received by the Treasurer shall be kept in the safes and vaults of the Treasury; and the Treasurer shall not keep or receive into the building, safes or vaults of the Treasury any money, or the representative of money, belonging to any individual except in cases expressly provided for by law; nor shall said Treasurer appropriate to his own use, or lend, sell or exchange any money, or the representative of money, in his custody or control as such Treasurer. [Id. P. D. 5290.]

Art. 4375. [4373] [2861] Employés.—The Treasurer shall appoint a Chief Clerk who shall be required to give bond with a good and solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, in the sum of twenty-thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned as is the bond of the State Treasurer, and shall appoint such other employés and clerks as may be authorized by law. All such employés, whether clerks or otherwise, who, as a part of their duties, handle any money, drafts, checks, bills of exchange, warrants, or securities or other evidences of debt which are, or may be, convertible into money, shall give bond with a good and solvent surety company authorized to do business in this State, payable to the Treasurer in such sum as he may require, conditioned that he or she will faithfully execute and perform the duties of his or her position. The cost and expense incident to the execution of the bond of the chief clerk and of the bonds of the respective employés shall be paid by the State by appropriation. [Acts 1923, p. 310.]

Art. 4376. [4374] [2862] Chief clerk to act.—Whenever the Treasurer from sickness, unavoidable absence or other cause is not able to act, the chief clerk shall sign his own name as "Acting Treasurer" and do such other acts and things as the State Treasurer himself might legally do. The legal acts and signatures of such chief clerk as Acting Treasurer, shall be as valid as the acts and signatures of the Treasurer himself. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 438.]

Art. 4377. [4375] [2863] Delivery to successor.—The Treasurer shall, at the close of his term of office, deliver into the possession of his successor the moneys, securities and all other property of the State together with books, vouchers, papers and evidences of property in his possession, and all other matters and things which pertain to that office. [Acts 1846, p. 10; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1316; Acts 1909, 2nd C. S. p. 438.]

Art. 4378. [4376-7] School fund bonds.—The Treasurer shall be the custodian of all bonds in which the school funds of the State have been or may hereafter be invested, and shall keep said bonds in his custody until the same have been paid off, discharged or otherwise disposed of by the proper authorities of this State, and shall upon the payment of any installment of interest see that the proper credit is given, and the coupons on said bonds, when paid, shall be properly separated therefrom and canceled by him. [Acts 1895, p. 9; G. L. vol. 10, p. 739; Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 440.]

Art. 4379. [4378] Money returned to counties.—Whenever there is money in the State Treasury for the purpose of paying off any obligation due by any county, city or town, and it is made to appear to the Comptroller by certified copy of the records of the commissioners court, or by other satisfactory evidence, that said obligations are no longer outstanding against such county, city or town, then the Comptroller shall draw a warrant on the State Treasury in favor of such county, city or town, for the amount of money so remaining in the Treasury; and the Treasurer shall pay such money on said warrant of the Comptroller to the Treasurer of such county, city or town, for the benefit of its general fund. [Acts 1901, p. 19.]

Art. 4380. [4379] Deposit warrant register.—The Treasurer shall cause to be prepared a deposit warrant register designed with columns for State revenue, available school fund, and miscellaneous; all warrants to be entered consecutively and distributed to the proper columns. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 438.]

Art. 4381. [4380] Shall post daily totals.—The State Treasurer shall cause the daily totals of State revenue and all available school deposit warrants to be posted to the fund accounts in the ledger, and the items in the miscellaneous column to be posted in detail, except that deposit warrants for bonds sold or redeemed shall be posted in a bond book. [Id.]

Art. 4382. [4381] Register of warrants issued.—The Treasurer shall keep registers of warrants issued, one for general warrants, and one for special warrants. In case of pensions, the Comptroller shall furnish a list of those issued; which list shall be compared with the warrants and shall constitute the Treasurer's register of pension warrants issued. The date of payment of all warrants shall be stamped on the above registers. The Treasurer shall keep a "warrants paid register" with columns headed "general," "special," and "pensions." In this register the general and special warrants shall be entered when paid in detail and the pension warrants in one daily total. [Id.]

Art. 4383. [4382] Other accounts.—He shall keep accounts called "warrants payable, general," "warrants payable, special," and "warrants payable, pensions," to which shall be credited the daily totals of the several registers of warrants issued and charged with the daily total of warrants paid of each class, so that the balance of these accounts shall represent the aggregate amount of outstanding warrants. [Id.]

Art. 4384. [4383] Outstanding warrants.—Outstanding warrants shall be listed each month from the registers of warrants issued, and a list thereof sent to the Comptroller for his record. With this list the Treasurer shall furnish a statement showing the aggregate amount of general, special and pension warrants paid during the month. [Id.]

Art. 4385. [4384] General revenue account.—He shall charge the daily totals of the general warrants issued from the register to "general revenue" accounts in the ledger. The daily total of pension warrants issued shall be similarly treated; while the special warrants issued shall be charged to the fund account to which they apply, except that those issued for bonds purchased shall be posted in the bond book. [Id.]

Art. 4386. Certain special funds abolished.—All warrants on the State Treasury shall be general warrants, and shall be on an equal basis with each other except that in the event of a question and necessity arising as to the priority of payment of any such warrants, they shall be paid in order of their serial number, such warrants to be numbered at all times in the order of receiving the accounts in the Comptroller's office. This article shall not apply to warrants drawn on the Special Game Fund nor on funds collected for and appropriated to the State Highway Department nor to any special fund created or provided in the State Constitution, nor shall it apply to any special fund consisting of taxes set aside and remitted or donated by the Legislature to any county, city or locality. Such constitutional funds and special tax remitting funds and the warrants against the same shall be handled under present laws. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 61.]

Art. 4387. [4385] Appropriation ledger.—The State Treasurer shall charge all pay warrants issued under the authority of appropriations in detail to the "appropriation ledger," an account being kept for each appropriation, which shall be credited with the amount of the appropriation. The total of the appropriation so credited shall be charged to an account called "appropriation voted." The daily totals of the general warrants issued shall be credited to this account, so that the balance shall represent the aggregate amount of unused appropriation. [Id.]

Art. 4388. [4386] Daily statement from Land Office.—He shall receive daily from the General Land Office a detailed list of remitters of money for interest, principal and leases of school, university and asylum lands together with the actual remittances, which he shall cash and deposit in his vault, if the necessity arises. A deposit receipt shall be issued by the Comptroller for the daily total of such remittances; and the cashier of the Treasurer's department shall keep a cash book, to be called "suspense cash book," in which to enter these deposit receipts, and any others issued for cash received for which no deposit warrants can be issued, or when their issuance is delayed. When deposit warrants are issued, they shall be credited in this cash book, as well as any refunds, and the balance shall represent the aggregate of the items still in suspense. Refunds shall be made in a manner similar to that in present use, except that they shall be made on the Comptroller's authority. [Id.]

Art. 4389. [4387] Office fee book.—The Treasurer shall keep an office fee book in which shall be entered in detail all fees earned by the Treasury department; which fees shall be deposited in the Treasury to the credit of the general revenue at the end of each month on a deposit warrant issued by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 4390. [4388] Cash balancing book.—He shall keep a book, to be called "cash balancing book," for the purpose of arriving at the daily cash balance, in which shall be entered the daily totals of all receipts and disbursements. [Id.]

Art. 4391. [4389] Ledger.—The ledger kept by the Treasurer shall contain accounts for each fund, which shall be credited with the existing balances and with the daily totals of deposit warrants except those issued for bonds. The pay warrants issued, except those for bonds, shall be charged to the several fund accounts from the warrant register in daily totals. [Id.]

Art. 4392. [4390] Bond book.—He shall keep a bond book, with columns for each fund, which shall start with the aggregate amount of bonds now held and be charged with all subsequent additions and credited with all bonds sold or redeemed. The entries in the bond book shall be posted from the deposit warrant and special warrant registers, being the deposit warrants issued for bonds sold or redeemed and special warrants for bonds purchased. He shall also keep a bond register, in which shall be entered the essential details of all bonds held by him and belonging to any State fund. [Id.]

Art. 4393. [4391] Securities register.—He shall keep a suitable register in which to enter all bonds, cash and other securities lodged with him by bond investment, surety and insurance companies, and State depository banks, and all other bonds lodged with him under the provisions of the statutes, the registration of which is not otherwise provided for by law. The relinquishment of these securities shall be on the authority of the Comptroller. The Treasurer shall keep a separate bond book in which to enter all these transactions consecutively, posting each item to the register; which book shall be opened with the aggregate of securities now held. [Id.]

- 4411. No admission to prejudice.
- 4412. First office assistant.
- 4413. Biennial report.

Article 4394. [4411-30] Election and term.—At each biennial general election an Attorney General shall be elected for a term of two years. He shall reside and keep his office in the city of Austin.

Art. 4395. [4413] [2886] To represent State in higher courts.—The Attorney General shall prosecute and defend all actions in the Supreme Court or the Courts of Civil Appeals in which the State may be interested. [Act May 11, 1846, p. 206; P. D. 198; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1512.]

Art. 4396. [4415-16] Collection suits.—He shall transmit to the proper district or county attorney, with such instructions as he may deem necessary, any certified account, bond or other demand which the Comptroller has delivered to him for prosecution and suit. He shall require the several district and county attorneys to report to him at the close of the courts of their respective districts and counties, in such form as he may prescribe, precise information of the situation of all suits instituted by them for the collection of public money. He shall report to the Comptroller annually, on the last day of October and at such other times as the Comptroller may request, a full and correct statement of the status of all such suits. [Id.]

Art. 4397. [4417] [2890] To prepare forms.—He shall whenever requested by the Comptroller, prepare proper forms for contracts, obligations and other instruments which may be wanted for use of the State. [Id.]

Art. 4398. [619] To examine bonds.—He shall carefully examine all county and municipal bonds sent to him as provided by Article 709, in connection with the facts and the Constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds, and if, as the result of such examination, he shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon the county, city, or town, by which they are executed, he shall so officially certify. [Acts 1893, p. 84; G. L. vol. 10, p. 514.]

Art. 4399. Whom to advise.—The Attorney General at the request of the Governor, or the head of any department of the State government, including the heads and boards of penal and eleemosynary institutions, and all other State boards, regents, trustees of the State educational institutions, committees of either branch of the Legislature, and county auditors authorized by law, shall give them written advice upon any question touching the public interest, or concerning their official duties. He shall advise the several district and county attorneys of the State, in the prosecution and defense of all actions in the district or inferior courts, wherein the State is interested, whenever requested by them, after said attorney shall have investigated the question, and shall with such question, also submit his brief. He shall advise the proper legal authorities in regard to the issuance of all bonds that the law requires shall be approved by him. He is hereby prohibited from giving legal advice or written opinions to any other than the officers or persons named herein. [Acts 1917, p. 376.]

Art. 4400. [4419] [2892] Shall inspect accounts.—He shall at least once a month inspect the accounts of the offices of the State Treasurer and the Comptroller, of all officers and persons charged with the collection or custody of funds of the State. He shall proceed immediately to institute, or cause to be instituted, against any such officer or person who is in default or arrears, suit for the recovery of funds in his hands. He shall also institute immediately criminal proceedings against whoever has violated the laws by misapplying, or retaining in his hands, funds belonging to the State.

Art. 4401. [4420] [2893] To attend sales and bid in land.—If any property shall be sold by virtue of any execution, order or sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the State or sale by virtue of any deed of trust—except executions issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias the agent representing the State by and with the advice and consent of the Attorney General is hereby authorized and required to attend such sales and bid on and buy in for the State said property when it shall be deemed proper to protect the interest of the State in the collection of such judgment and debt. His bid shall not exceed the amount necessary to satisfy said judgment and debt and all costs due thereon. [Acts 1879, S. S., pp. 9-10; G. L. vol. 9, p. 41; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 361, ch. 243, § 1.]

Art. 4402. [4421] [2894] To execute deeds.—In all cases where property is so purchased by the State, the officer selling the same shall execute and deliver to the State a deed to the same, such as is prescribed for individuals in similar cases. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 4403. [4422] [2895] May sell such property.—The agent or attorney of the State buying for the State such property at such sales shall be authorized by and with the advice and consent of the Attorney General, at any time to sell or otherwise dispose of said property so purchased in the manner acquired and upon such terms and conditions as he may deem most advantageous to the State. If sold or disposed of for a greater amount than is necessary to pay off the amount due upon the judgment or debt, and all costs accrued thereon, the remainder shall be paid into the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue. When such sale is made, the Attorney General shall, in the name of the State, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance to said property, which deed shall vest all the rights and title to the same in the purchaser thereof. [Id. sec. 3; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 361, ch. 243, § 1.]

Art. 4404. [4423] [2896] Agent to bid and sell.—When any such property is sold under execution or order of sale issued upon any judgment in favor of the county, including executions issued upon judgments in cases of scire facias in the name of the State, the attorney or agent so representing the county, by and with the advice and consent of the commissioner's court, shall have the same authority to buy and dispose of such property for the county as the agent or attorney for the State is given in this law in similar cases. When any property is so purchased by the agent or attorney of the county, the officer so selling the same shall execute and deliver to the county a deed of conveyance to the same. Whenever the property so bought in for the county is sold, the commissioner's court shall execute and deliver to the purchaser thereof a deed in the name of the county to such property. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 4405. [4424] [2897] Judgments against insolvents.—If the principal and sureties upon any judgment held by the State are insolvent, so that under any existing process of law said judgment or any part thereof cannot be collected, there shall be, and is hereby constituted a board consisting of the Attorney General, Comptroller and State Treasurer, who are hereby empowered and authorized by such advertising as they may deem necessary to offer for sale at public outcry, or by private sale, as they may deem to be the best interest of the State, all the right of the State to such judgment; and, if by public sale, the amount bid on the same shall not be deemed sufficient, they shall refuse to accept the same, and dispose of the same in any manner deemed by them to be the best interest of the State, and upon sale shall make a proper assignment of said judgment to the purchaser. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 4406. [4425] [2898] [2803] Official register.—The Attorney General shall keep in proper books a register of all his official acts and opinions, of all actions and demands prosecuted or defended by him or any district or county attorney, in which any portion of the revenue of the State is involved, and of all proceedings had in relation thereto, and shall deliver the same to his successor in office [Acts 1846, p. 204; Id. sec. 12; P. D. 209; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1512.]

Art. 4407. [4426] [2899] [2804] Collections.—He shall immediately pay into the State Treasury all money received by him for debts due or penalties. [Id. P. D. 208.]

Art. 4408. [4427] [2900] [2805] Forfeiture of charters.—The Attorney General, unless otherwise expressly directed by law, whenever sufficient cause exists therefor shall seek a judicial forfeiture of the charters of private corporations. He shall at once take steps to seek such forfeiture in any case where satisfactory evidence is laid before him that any corporation receiving State aid has, by the non-performance of its charter conditions or any violation of its charter, or by any act or omission, mis-user or non-user, forfeited its charter or any rights thereunder. [Acts 1876, p. 312; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1148.]

Art. 4409. [4428] [2901] [2806] Inquiry into charter rights.—He shall also inquire into the charter rights of all private corporations and, in the name of the State, take such legal action as may be proper and necessary to prevent any private corporation from exercising any power or demanding or collecting any species of taxes, tolls, freight or wharfage not authorized by law. [Const. Art. 4, sec. 22.]

Art. 4410. Escheats.—The Attorney General shall institute and prosecute, or cause to be instituted and prosecuted, all suits and proceedings necessary to recover for and on behalf of the State all properties, real, personal or mixed, that have escheated or may escheat to the State under the laws of the State. [Acts 1917, p. 376.]

Art. 4411. [4429] [2902] [2807] No admission to prejudice.—No admission, agreement or waiver, made by the Attorney General, in any action or suit in which the State is a party, shall prejudice the rights of the State. [Acts 1846, p. 206; P. D. 211; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1148.]

Art. 4412. [4431] First office assistant.—In case of the absence or inability of the Attorney General to act, the first office assistant of the Attorney

General shall discharge the duties which devolve by law upon the Attorney General. [Act 1903, p. 117.]

Art. 4413. Biennial report.—The Attorney General shall report to the Governor biennially on the first Monday in December next preceding the expiration of his official term the number of indictments which have been found by grand juries in this State for the two preceding years; the offenses charged, the number of trials, convictions and acquittals for each offense; the number of dismissals and also a summary of the judgments rendered on conviction, the nature and amount of penalties imposed and the amount of fines collected. This report shall also give a general summary of all the business, civil and criminal, disposed of by the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals, so far as the State may be a party, and all civil causes to which the State is a party prosecuted or defended by him in any other courts, State or Federal. [Acts 1885, p. 61; G. L. vol. 9, p. 681.]

Article 4414. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4414a. State department of health established.—To better protect and promote the health of the people of Texas, there is hereby established the State Department of Health, which Department shall consist of a State Board of Health, a State Health Officer and his administrative staff, and which shall have the general powers and duties authorized and imposed by the provisions of this act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 1.]

Section 11 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, repeals Rev. Civ. St. 1925, arts. 4414-4418, 4463, and vests the powers and duties of the Director of the Food and Drug Division of the State Department of Health in the State Health Officer, to be exercised by him or by a division director within his Department and subject to his control. It further continues in force all other laws or parts of laws now in force, relating to the State Health Department, the State Board of Health and the State Health Officer, and all other laws relating to public health, sanitation and the control and prevention of communicable, contagious, and infectious diseases, except, insofar as the same may be in conflict with the provisions of this Act.

Section 12 of said Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, provides that if any part or section of the act is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder.

Art. 4415. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4415a. Composition of State Board of Health, appointment, term of office.—The State Board of Health shall consist of six members, who shall be appointed by the Governor, and confirmed by the Senate and who shall have the following qualifications: All of the members shall be legally qualified, practicing physicians, who shall have had not less than five years' experience in the actual practice of medicine within the State of Texas, of good professional standing, and graduates of recognized medical colleges. Of the six members of the Board first appointed under the provisions of this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f], two shall serve for a period of two years, two for a period of four years, and two for a period of six years, or until their successors shall be appointed and shall have qualified, unless sooner removed for cause. Immediately after this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f] becomes effective, the Governor shall appoint six members to constitute the new State Board of Health created by this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f] and, in the act of appointment, shall designate the respective terms of the members first appointed. The terms of office of the members of the State Board of Health shall be six years, after the terms of the members first appointed shall have expired. The State Health Officer shall be a member ex-officio and shall act as Chairman of the State Board of Health, but shall not have the right to vote as a member of such Board except in cases of a tie vote; provided, that in no event shall he be entitled to a vote in the matter of selecting the State Health officer. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 2.]

Art. 4416. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4416a. Organization and meetings of State Board of Health.—A majority of the members of the State Board of Health, exclusive of the members ex-officio, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The Board shall elect one of its members a Vice-Chairman, who shall proceed in the absence of the Chairman. The Board shall meet at Austin quarterly, on a date to be fixed by the Board, and shall hold such special meetings as may be called by the State Health Officer or any two members of the Board. Timely notice of such special meetings shall be given to each member. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 3.]

Art. 4417. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4417a. Compensation of members of State Board of Health.—The six members of the State Board of Health, excepting the member ex-officio, shall receive no fixed salary, but each member shall be allowed, for each and every day in attending the meetings of the Board, the sum of Twenty Dollars ($20.00), including time spent in travel to and from such meetings, and said members shall be allowed traveling and other necessary expenses while in the performance of official duty, to be evidenced by vouchers approved by the State Health Officer, provided no member shall receive more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) annually, including expenses. The members of the State Board of Health and the State Health officer shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office before an officer authorized to administer oaths within this State, and, upon presentation of such oath of office, together with the certificate of their appointment, the Secretary of State shall issue Commissions to them, which shall be evidence of their authority to act as such. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 4.]

Art. 4418a. Powers and duties of the State Board of Health.—The State Board of Health shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) To elect, by a majority vote of the whole membership of the Board, a State Health Officer, who shall be executive of the State Department of Health, subject to the further provisions of this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f]; and to suspend or remove said officer for good and sufficient cause, sustained by a majority of the Board membership; provided, that said officer shall not be removed until he has been given a hearing before said Board, if he so elects. Immediately after the appointment of a new State Board of Health, as provided in this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f], said Board shall organize, and appoint a State Health Officer, who shall serve as such, unless sooner removed as above provided, until the last regular quarterly meeting of the Board in 1928; and at such meeting, and every two years thereafter, the State Board of Health shall appoint a State Health Officer, who shall serve, unless sooner removed as above provided, for a term of two years and until his successor shall be appointed and shall have qualified.

(2) To investigate the conduct of the work of the State Department of Health, and for this purpose to have access, at any time, to all books and records thereof, and to require written or oral information from any officer or employee thereof.

(3) To adopt rules, not inconsistent with law, for its own procedure, a copy of which rules shall be filed in the State Department of Health. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 5.]

Art. 4418b. State Health Officer, qualifications, appointment, compensation.—The State Health Officer shall be a legally qualified physician, who shall have had not less than five years' experience in the actual practice of medicine within the State of Texas, of good professional standing, and a graduate of a recognized medical college. The State Health Officer shall be the executive head of the State Department of Health; he shall devote his whole time to the duties of this office, and shall not engage in the private practice of medicine during his term of office. He shall receive an annual salary of Four Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($4,500.00), and shall be allowed his actual traveling expenses while in the performance of official duties away from the Capitol, to be evidenced by vouchers approved by the State Board of Health; provided, that he shall be permitted to charge against his traveling expense account any expenses incurred in travel outside of this State on official business; said out-of-State traveling expenses not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per annum. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 6.]

Art. 4418c. State Health Officer to execute bond.—The State Health Officer shall execute a bond, in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), payable to the Governor, with two or more good and sufficient sureties thereon, or with some Surety Company authorized to do business in this State, as surety, conditioned for the faithful performance of his official duties, the bond to be approved by the Governor and filed in the office of the Secretary of State. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 7.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 4418d. Duties of State Health Officer.—The State Health Officer shall be the executive head of the State Department of Health, and he shall, subject to the provisions of this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f], exercise all the powers and discharge all the duties now vested by law in the Texas State Department of Health and the State Health Officer, as well as all powers now vested by law in any officer, assistant, director or bureau head of the State Department of Health, excepting only such powers as may be conferred by this Act [Arts. 4414a, 4415a, 4416a, 4417a, 4418a to 4418f] upon the State Board of Health hereby created. The State Health Officer, with the approval of the State Board of Health, may organize and maintain within his Department such divisions of service as are deemed necessary for the efficient conduct of the work of the Department. From time to time, he shall appoint directors of such divisions, as well as other employees of the Department, and shall designate the duties and supervise the work of all such directors and employees. He shall have the power, with the approval of the State Board of Health, to prescribe and promulgate such administrative rules and regulations, not inconsistent with any law of the State, as may be deemed necessary for the effective performance of the duties imposed by this or any other law upon the State Department of Health and its several officers and divisions. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 8.]

Art. 4418e. Acting State Health Officer.—The State Health Officer, with the approval of the State Board of Health, shall from time to time designate one of the directors of the Department Divisions, who is a legally qualified physician, as acting State Health Officer, and the persons so designated shall have the full authority and perform the duties of the State Health Officer in the event of his absence from the Capitol or inability to act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 9.]

Art. 4418f. Commissioners' Court to make appropriations.—It shall be lawful for the State Department of Health to accept donations and contributions, to be expended in the interest of the public health and the enforcement of public health laws. The Commissioners Court of any County shall have the authority to appropriate and expend money from the general revenues of its County for and in behalf of public health and sanitation within its County. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 10.]

Art. 4419. [4528] General duties and powers.—The State Board of Health shall have general supervision and control of all matters pertaining to the health of citizens of this State, as provided herein. It shall make a study of the causes and prevention of infection of contagious diseases affecting the lives of citizens within this State and except as otherwise provided in this chapter shall have direction and control of all matters of quarantine regulations and enforcement and shall have full power and authority to prevent the entrance of such diseases from points without the State, and shall have direction and control over sanitary and quarantine measures for dealing with all diseases within the State and to suppress same and prevent their spread. The president of the board shall have charge of and superintend the administration of all matters pertaining to State quarantine. [Acts 1909, 1st C. S., p. 340; Acts 1913, p. 147.]

Art. 4420. [4536] May enter and inspect.—The members of the State Board of Health or any person duly authorized by them, upon presentation of proper authority in writing, are hereby empowered, whenever they may deem it necessary in pursuance of their duties, to enter into, examine, investigate, inspect and view any ground, public building, factory, slaughter house, packing house, abattoir, dairy, bakery, manufactory, hotel, restaurant and any other public place and public building where they deem it proper to enter for the discovery and suppression of disease and for the enforcement of the rules of the sanitary code for Texas and of any health law, sanitary law or quarantine regulation of this State. [Acts 1909, 1st C. S. p. 340.]

Art. 4421. [4537] Investigations by board.—The members of said Board of Health and its officers are severally authorized to administer oaths and to summon witnesses and compel their attendance in all matters proper for said board to investigate, such as the determination of nuisances, investigation of public water supplies, of any sanitary conditions, of the existence of infection, or the investigation of any matter requiring the exercise of the discretionary powers invested in said board and its officers and members, and in the general scope of its authority invested by this chapter. The several district judges and courts are hereby charged with the duty of aiding said board in its investigations and in compelling due observance of the provisions of this chapter; and if any witness summoned by said board or any of its officers or members shall prove disobedient or disrespectful to the lawful authority of such board, officer or member, such person shall be punished by the district court of the county in which such witness is summoned to appear, as for contempt of said court. [Id.]

Art. 4422. [4538] No county physician.—The office of county health officer shall be filled by a competent physician legally qualified to practice under the laws of this State and of reputable professional standing. [Id.]

Art. 4423. [4539] County health officer.—The commissioners court by a majority vote in each organized county shall biennially appoint a proper person for the office of county health officer for his county, who shall hold office for two years. Said county health officer shall take and subscribe to the official oath, and shall file a copy of such oath and a copy of his appointment with the Texas State Board of Health; and, until such copies are so filed, said officer shall not be deemed legally qualified. Compensation of said county health officer shall be fixed by the commissioners court; provided, that no compensation or salary shall be allowed except for services actually rendered. [Id.]

Art. 4424. [4540] No city physician.—The office of city physician is abolished, and instead the office of city health officer is created. The office of city health officer shall be filled by a competent physician, legally qualified to practice medicine within this State, of reputable professional standing. [Id.]

Art. 4425. [4541] City health officer.—The governing body of each incorporated city and town within this State shall elect a qualified person for the office of city health officer by a majority of the votes of the governing body, except in cities which may be operated under a charter providing for a different method of selecting city physicians, in which event the office of city health officer shall be filled as is now filled by the city physician, but in no instance shall the office of city health officer be abolished. The city health officer, after appointment, shall take and subscribe to the official oath, and shall file a copy of such oath and a copy of his appointment with the Texas State Board of Health, and shall not be deemed to be legally qualified until said copies shall have been so filed. [Id.]

Art. 4426. [4542] Health officers appoint [appointed] by board, when.—If said authorities shall fail, neglect or refuse to fill the office of county or city health officer as in this chapter provided then the State Board of Health shall have the power to appoint such county or city health officer to hold office until the local authorities shall fill said office, first having given ten days notice in writing to such authority of the desire for such appointment. [Id.]

Art. 4427. [4543] Duties of county health officer.—Each county health officer shall perform such duties as have been required of county physicians, with relation to caring for the prisoners in county jails and in caring for the inmates of county poor farms, hospitals, discharging duties of county quarantine and other such duties as may be lawfully required of the county physician by the commissioners court and other officers of the county, and shall discharge any additional duties which it may be proper for county authorities under the present laws to require of county physicians; and, in addition thereto, he shall discharge such duties as shall be prescribed for him under the rules, regulations and requirements of the Texas State Board of Health, or the president thereof, and is empowered and authorized to establish, maintain and enforce quarantine within his county. He shall also be required to aid and assist the State Board of Health in all matters of local quarantine, inspection, disease prevention and suppression, vital and mortuary statistics and general sanitation within his county; and he shall at all times report to said State board, in such manner and form as it shall prescribe, the presence of all contagious, infectious and dangerous epidemic diseases within his jurisdiction; and he shall make such other and further reports in such manner and form and at such times as said State board shall direct; touching on such matters as may be proper for said State board to direct; and he shall aid said State board at all times in the enforcement of its proper rules, regulations, requirements and ordinances, and in the enforcement of all sanitary laws and quarantine regulations within his jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 4428. [4544] Removal of county health officer.—In all matters with which the State Board of Health may be clothed with authority, said county health officer shall at all times be under its direction; and any failure or refusal on the part of said county health officer to obey the authority and reasonable commands of said State Board of Health shall constitute malfeasance in office, and shall subject said county health officer to removal from office at the relation of the State Board of Health; and pending charges for removal, said county health officer shall not receive any salary or compensation. Said cause shall be tried in the district court of the county in which such county health officer resides. [Id.]

Art. 4429. [4546] Charges against county health officer.—If any county health officer shall fail or refuse to properly discharge the duties of his office, as prescribed by this chapter, the State Board of Health shall file charges with the commissioners court for the proper county, specifying wherein such officer has failed in the discharge of his duties; and at the same time the State Board of Health shall file a protest with the county clerk and the county treasurer against the payment of further fees, salary or allowance to said county health officer; and, pending such protest and charges, it shall not be lawful for such county health officer to be paid or to receive any subsequently earned salary, fees or allowances on account of his office, unless such charges are shown to be untrue and are not sustained. After five days notice in writing to said county health officer, the commissioners court shall hear the charges, at which hearing the county judge shall preside, and the State Board of Health may be represented. Either party, the State Board or the county health officer, may appeal from the decision of said court to the district court of the county; and, pending such appeal, no salary, fees or allowances shall be paid to said county health officer for any subsequently earned salary; and, if the charges shall be sustained, the county health officer shall be adjudged to pay all costs of court, and shall forfeit all salary, fees and allowances, earned subsequently to the date of filing the charges and protests. [Id.]

Art. 4430. [4548] Duties of city health officer.—Each city health officer shall perform such duties as may be required of him by general law and city ordinances with regard to the general health and sanitation of towns and cities, and perform such other duties as shall be legally required of him by the mayor, governing body or the ordinances of his city or town. He shall discharge and perform such duties as may be prescribed for him under the directions, rules, regulations and requirements of the State Board of Health and the president thereof. He shall be required to aid and assist the State Board of Health in all matters of quarantine, vital and mortuary statistics, inspection, disease prevention and suppression and sanitation within his jurisdiction. He shall at all times report to the State Board of Health, in such manner and form as said board may prescribe, the presence of all contagious, infectious and dangerous epidemic diseases within his jurisdiction, and shall make such other and further reports in such manner and form and at such times as said State board shall direct, touching all such matters as may be proper for said board to direct, and he shall aid said State board at all times in the enforcement of proper rules, regulations and requirements in the enforcement of all sanitary laws, quarantine regulations and vital statistics collection, and perform such other duties as said State board shall direct. [Id.]

Art. 4431. [4549] City health officer removed.—In all matters in which the State Board of Health may be clothed with authority, said city health officer shall at all times be governed by the authority of said board, and failure or refusal on the part of said city health officer to properly perform the duties of his office as prescribed by this chapter shall constitute malfeasance in office, and shall subject said city health officer to removal from office at the relation of the State Board of Health. Said cause shall be tried in the district court of the county in which such city health officer resides. [Id.]

Art. 4432. [4550] Charges against city health officer.—If said city health officer fails or refuses to properly discharge his duties of his office, the State Board of Health shall file charges against said city health officer with the governing body of the proper town or city, which shall specify in what particulars said city health officer has failed in respect to the discharge of his duties, and shall at the same time file a protest with the city secretary and city treasurer against the payment to said city health officer of further fees, salary or allowance; and, pending such charges and protest, no further salary, fees or allowance shall be paid to said city health officer, unless such charges are shown to be untrue and not sustained. After five days notice in writing to said city health officer, the charges shall be heard before the mayor and governing body of the town or city in which said city health officer shall reside, at which hearing the State Board of Health may be represented, and either the city health officer or the State Board of Health shall have the right of appeal to the county court of the county in which the city or town is situated. If said charges be sustained, said city health officer shall be adjudged to pay all costs of court, and forfeit all salary, fees and allowances accrued subsequent to the date of filing of the charges and protest originally and which may be due him on account of his office. [Id.]

Art. 4433. [4552] Annual conference.—An annual conference of county and city health officers of this State shall be held at such time and place as the State Board of Health shall designate, at which conference the president or some member of said State board shall preside. The several counties, towns and cities may provide for and pay the necessary expense of its county health officer or city health officer for attendance upon said conference. [Id.]

Art. 4434. [2251] [1547] Co-operation.—The municipal authorities of towns and cities, and commissioners courts of the counties wherein such towns and cities are situated, may co-operate with each other in making such improvements connected with said towns, cities and counties as said authorities and courts may deem necessary to improve the public health and to promote efficient sanitary regulations; and, by mutual arrangement, they may provide for the construction of said improvements and the payment therefor. [Acts S. S. 1879, p. 9; G. L. vol. 9, p. 41.]

Art. 4435. [2248—49] In unincorporated towns.—The commissioners court of any county in which an unincorporated town or village may be situated, shall have power to designate the lines of such town or village, and may appoint a board of health for it, consisting of three persons, two or more of whom shall be regular practicing physicians. Said court when such appointments are made shall at once notify the State Health Officer. Said board shall elect one of their members as presiding officer; and such presiding officer, if the premises of any citizen residing within the prescribed limits of said town or village are in an unclean or unhealthy condition, shall notify him of the fact, and that he must proceed at once to clean the same. [Acts 1889, p. 139; Acts 1st C. S. 1901, p. 29.]

Art. 4436. [1984] Health control in certain cities.—In cities of thirty-five thousand population, or over, the governing body of a city or town whether acting under a special charter or incorporated under the general laws of Texas, shall have the power to require the filling up, drainage, and regulating of any lot or lots, grounds or yards, or any other places in the city or town which shall be unwholesome, or have stagnant water therein, or from any other cause be in such condition as to be liable to produce disease; to cause all premises to be inspected and to impose fines on the owners of houses under which stagnant water may be found, or upon whose premises such stagnant water may be found, and to pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the purposes aforesaid and for making, filling up, altering or repairing of all sinks, and privies, and directing the mode and material for constructing them in the future, and for cleaning and disinfecting the same; and for cleansing of any house, building, establishment, lot, yard or ground from filth; carrion or other impure or unwholesome matter of any kind; to require the owner of any lot or lots within such city or town to keep the same free from weeds, rubbish, brush and any and all other objectionable, unsightly or unsanitary matter of whatever nature, and if such owner fails or refuses to do so, within ten days after notice in writing, or by letter addressed to such owner at his post-office address, or by publication as many as two times within ten consecutive days, if personal service may not be had as aforesaid, or the owner's address be not known, such city or town may do such work or may cause the same to be done and may pay therefor and charge the expenses incurred in doing or having such work done or improvements made, to the owner of such property as herein provided; and to punish any owner or occupant violating the provisions of any ordinance so passed, as aforesaid; and the governing body of such town or city shall also, in addition to the foregoing remedy, have the power to cause any of the improvements above mentioned to be done at the expense of the city or town, on account of the owners, and cause the expense thereof to be assessed on the real estate, or lot or lots upon which such expense is incurred. On filing with the county clerk of the county in which the city or town is situated, a statement by the mayor or city health officer of such city or town of such expenses, such city or town shall have a privileged lien thereon, second only to tax liens and liens for street improvements to secure the expenditures so made, and ten per cent interest on the amount from the date of such payment. For any such expenditures, and interest, as aforesaid, suit may be instituted and recovery and foreclosure had in the name of the corporation; and the statement so made, as aforesaid, or a certified copy thereof, shall be prima facie proof of the amount expended in any such work or improvements. [Acts 1875, p. 113; G. L. vol. 8, p. 485; Acts 1917, p. 405.]

Art. 4437. Hospitals.—If by will or otherwise a fund of fifty thousand dollars or more was or may be left to establish and maintain a hospital in a city of ten thousand or more inhabitants, in which hospital the sick and wounded of such city or of this State may be admitted and receive medical and surgical attention, the commissioners court of the county and the governing body of the city in which said hospital shall be established, either or both, may from time to time appropriate and pay toward the maintenance of such hospital such sums of money as in the judgment of such court or body making such appropriation may be proper to provide hospital accommodations and medical and surgical attention for the sick and wounded of such county or city who are indigent. [Acts 1921, p. 93.]

Art. 4437a. Hospital control in large counties.—Sec. 1. That all counties in Texas having a population of 210,000 inhabitants, as shown by the census of 1920, in which are established hospitals jointly owned and operated by any city and county, in which said hospital is located, the said counties or cities under the terms of a mutual agreement, and not otherwise, are hereby authorized to designate either the county or city government for the purpose of taking over the entire ownership and control of such hospitals upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the city and county owning such hospitals and operating the same, and providing further that such portions of the tax hereinafter referred to shall, if voted by a majority of the qualified voters, be used to take care of the interest and sinking fund required by law on all outstanding bonds of the city or county heretofore issued which have been incurred against the building or maintenance of said hospitals or that may hereafter be issued. That in case it is determined by said mutual agreement for the city to take over the said hospitals and operate the same, the board of managers may be appointed by the governing body of the city in accordance with the terms of its charter or in accordance with its judgment.

Sec. 2. That if in the judgment of the combined boards of County Commissioners and City Councils of such cities, as may be part owners of such hospitals, a countywide election to determine the future ownership and operation of the hospitals is desirable, such countywide election may be ordered on the initiative of such combined boards, and a majority vote on the questions submitted shall govern the future ownership and operation of the hospitals, the expense of such election to be paid by the Commissioners' Court from county funds.

Sec. 3. A direct tax of not over ten cents (10¢) on the valuation of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) may be authorized and levied by the Commissioners' Court of such county for the purpose of erecting buildings or other improvements and for maintaining such hospitals; provided, that all such levy of taxes shall be submitted to the qualified taxpaying voters of the county, and a majority vote shall be necessary to levy the tax.

Sec. 4. The Board of Managers or Directors of such hospital shall be elected, when so taken over, by the County Commissioners' Court, and said Board shall consist of not less than three members, or more than nine members, and when so elected shall be responsible for and have full and complete control of the management of the conduct of such hospital or hospitals, giving a report of their management at least once every quarter to the Commissioners' Court, and as much oftener as said Court may request, upon any and all acts, rules and regulations performed by them. They shall also give a quarterly financial statement to the Commissioners' Court showing all money expended and received by them and showing fully for what purposes the money has been expended.

Sec. 5. The said hospital or hospitals shall give free service to all sick and injured indigent citizens of the entire county.

Sec. 6. Said Board of Managers shall be appointed for such terms that the terms of one-third of the number of the members of the Board will expire every two years and the term of office for such members of the Board shall be for six years. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 322, ch. 219.]

Art. 4438. [2247] [1543] [1520] Indigent sick.—If there is a regular established public hospital in the county, the commissioners court shall provide for sending the indigent sick of the county to such hospital. If more than one such hospital exists in the county, the indigent patient shall have the right to select which one of them he shall be sent to. [Acts 1876, p. 51; G. L. vol. 8, p. 890.]

Art. 4439. Isolation of lepers.—The unexpended sum remaining in the State treasury heretofore appropriated for the purpose of establishing a home for lepers, is hereby appropriated and made available to be expended by and under the direction of the State Health Officer for the isolation and care of persons in this State now known and who may hereafter be found to be afflicted with leprosy. [Acts 1909, p. 334; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 29; Acts 1919, pp. 261 and 262.]

Art. 4440. [4545] Indigent consumptives.—When any indigent person suffering from tuberculosis is sojourning in any other county than his residence and makes application for financial relief to any county health officer or commissioners court or to the mayor or health officer of any city, before any relief is granted, he shall make an affidavit that he is indigent and unable to provide for himself. When such affidavit is made, the county health officer, mayor, city health officer or county judge shall forthwith notify the State Health Officer of the case, giving the name of the patient and the place of his residence. If such patient is a bona fide citizen of any county within this State, it shall be the duty of the State Health Officer, and he shall have the power, to purchase a ticket for said patient and furnish him with sufficient means to purchase food en route to his former home, and return such patient thereto. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 337.]

Art. 4441. Protecting eyes of new-born.—All doctors, midwives, nurses, or those in attendance at child birth, shall use prophylactic drops in the child's eyes of a one per cent solution of silver nitrate or other prophylactic solution approved by the State Board of Health, to prevent ophthalmia neonatorum in the new-born, and said board shall furnish such solution or other prophylactic drops free of cost to the poor of the State, namely those upon whom it would work a hardship to buy the same. [Acts 1921, p. 172.]

Art. 4442. Maternity home.—1. Every individual, firm, association, or corporation, owning, keeping, conducting or managing an institution or home for the boarding or sheltering of infant children, or so-called "Baby Farm," or any lying-in hospital, hospital ward, maternity home or other place for the reception, care and treatment of pregnant women, and charging a fee or receiving or expecting compensation in the way of room rent or board, shall obtain an annual license which shall be issued by the State Board of Health without fee, shall not be transferable to other persons or other premises, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next following the issuance. The application for such license shall state the name and address of the licensee, the specific location of the building used, and the number of inmates which may be boarded there at one time, and shall be approved by the local health officer. No greater number of inmates shall be housed at one time in the building than is authorized by the license, and no pregnant woman or infant shall be kept in a building or place not designated in the license. A record of licenses issued shall be kept by the State Board of Health.

2. Whenever any such license is issued, the board shall forthwith give notice of the granting and terms to the local health officer, who shall keep informed of the nature and reputation of every such institution in his jurisdiction, and shall visit and inspect the same from time to time, and for such purposes shall at all reasonable hours be given free and unrestricted access to such institution.

3. Every such licensee shall report to the local health officer, within twenty-four hours next after it occurs, the birth of any child, including stillborn or prematurely born children at such institution; the arrival of any child, stating the name, sex, age, color, and from whom received; and the removal of any child, stating its name, age, and disposition made of it.

4. Whenever a keeper, manager or owner of any such institution as is defined in this article shall be convicted of keeping or conducting a "disorderly house" as that term is defined in the Penal Code, the State Board of Health shall forthwith revoke the license issued authorizing the keeping of such house; and should any such manager, keeper, or owner refuse to permit any person authorized by this article to inspect such house at any reasonable hour, or should they fail to make such reports to the local health officer within the time and in the manner required by this article, then said State Board of Health may suspend said license for any period of time not to exceed six months. Upon any subsequent failure to permit such visits of inspection or to make said reports, said State Board of Health is authorized to revoke the license issued for the conducting of such house. [Acts 1921, p. 146.]

Art. 4443. Child hygiene.—The State of Texas hereby accepts the provisions of the Act of Congress approved November 23, 1921, entitled "An Act for the promotion of the welfare and hygiene of maternity and infancy, and for other purposes," and the State Board of Health is hereby authorized and directed through its Bureau of Child Hygiene to co-operate with the Federal Children's Bureau in the administration of the provisions of said Act of Congress and do all things necessary to entitle the State of Texas to receive all the benefits thereof. Provided that no official, agent or representative of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, or any department having to do with the administration of this law, shall, by virtue hereof, have any right to enter any home over the objection of the owner thereof, or to take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them, or of the person standing in loco parentis, or having the custody of such child, or without the express permission of the owner of such home, or the parents, or either of them, or the person standing in loco parentis, or having the custody of such child. Nothing in this article shall be construed as limiting the power of the parent or guardian or person standing in the position of loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for the child, or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose. All correspondence between the Bureau of Child Hygiene or any official agent or representative thereof, and any parent, owner of a home, or person standing in loco parentis of any child, shall be held confidential, and not publicly disclosed, except by the permission of such parent, owner of the home or person standing in loco parentis, unless the public welfare shall demand that it be disclosed or used in furtherance of public welfare. The State Treasurer is hereby designated as the custodian of all funds allotted to the State of Texas from appropriations made by Congress or in pursuance of said Act to be disbursed in accordance with law through the State Health Board. [Acts 1923, p. 68.]

Art. 4443a. Federal aid accepted.—Sec. 1. That the State of Texas hereby accepts the provisions of the Act of Congress mentioned in the caption hereof and the State Board of Health is hereby authorized and directed through its bureau of Child Hygiene to co-operate with the Federal Children's Bureau in the administration of the provisions of said Act of Congress and do all things necessary to entitle the State of Texas to receive all the benefits thereof. Provided that no official, agent, or representative of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, or any department having to do with the administration of this Act, shall, by virtue of this Act, have any right to enter any home over the objection of the owner thereof, or to take charge of any child over the objection of the parents, or either of them or of the person standing in loco parentis, or having the custody of such child, or without the express permission of the owner of such home, or the parents or either of them or the person standing in loco parentis, or having the custody of such child. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as limiting the power of the parent or guardian or person standing in the position of loco parentis to determine what treatment or correction shall be provided for the child, or the agency or agencies to be employed for such purpose.

All correspondence between the Bureau of Child Hygiene or any official agent or representative thereof, and any parent, owner of a home, or person standing in loco parentis of any child, shall be held confidential, and not publicly disclosed, except by the permission of such parent, owner of the home or person standing in loco parentis, unless the public welfare shall demand that it be disclosed, or used in furtherance of public welfare.

Sec. 2. The Treasurer of the State of Texas is hereby designated as the custodian of all funds allotted to the State of Texas from appropriations made by Congress or in pursuance of said Act to be disbursed in accordance with law through the State Health Board. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 260, ch. 182.]

Section 4 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 260, ch. 182, provides that the purpose of the act is not to approve the policy of the Federal government to extend its control to subjects over which the Constitution gives Congress no control, but such aid is accepted to secure as large portion of the taxes paid by the citizens of the state as it may.

Art. 4444. Polluting public body of water.—No person, firm or corporation, private or municipal, shall pollute any water course or other public body of water, by throwing, casting or depositing or causing to be thrown, cast or deposited any crude petroleum, oil or other like substance therein, or pollute any water course, or other public body of water from which water is taken for the uses of farm livestock, drinking and domestic purposes, in this State, by the discharge, directly or indirectly, of any sewage or unclean water or unclean or polluting matter or thing therein, or in such proximity thereto that it will probably reach and pollute the waters of such water course or other public body of water from which water is taken, for said uses. Drain ditches, where waste oil finds its way into water courses or public bodies of water, shall be equipped with traps of sufficient capacity to arrest the flow of oil. In so far as concerns the protection of fish and oysters, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner or his deputies, may have jurisdiction in the enforcement hereof. This article shall not apply to any place or premises of manufacturing plants whose affluents contain no organic matter that will putrify, or any poisonous compounds, or any bacteria dangerous to public health or destructive of the fish life of streams or other public bodies of water. Upon the conviction of any person for violating this law, the court or judge thereof in which such conviction is had, shall issue a writ of injunction enjoining and restraining the person or corporation responsible for such pollution. For a violation of such injunction, the said court and the judge thereof shall have the power of fine and imprisonment as for contempt of court within the limits prescribed by law in other cases, and this remedy by injunction and punishment for violation thereof shall be cumulative of the fine imposed. The State Board of Health shall enforce the provisions of this article. The Governor shall appoint an inspector to act under the direction of said board and the State Health Officer, and said inspector shall make such investigations, inspection and reports and perform such other duties in respect to the enforcement hereof as the said health officer may require. [Acts 1913, p. 90; Acts 1915, p. 38; Acts 1923, p. 177.]

Art. 4445. Venereal diseases.—Syphilis, gonorrhea and chancroid, hereinafter designated venereal diseases, are hereby declared to be contagious, infectious, communicable, and dangerous to the public health:

Sec. 1. Any physician or other person who makes a diagnosis in, or treats, a case of syphilis, gonorrhea or chancroid, and every superintendent or manager of a hospital, dispensary, or charitable or penal institution, in which there is a case of venereal disease, shall report such case immediately, in writing, to the local health officer, stating the name and address or the office number, age, sex, color, and occupation of the diseased person, and the date of the onset of the disease, and the probable source of infection, provided that the name and address of the diseased person need not be stated, except as hereinafter specifically required in Section 5, and provided, further, that all information and reports concerning persons having venereal disease shall be held secret in accordance with provisions in Section 8. The report shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope and sent to the local health officer who shall report weekly on the prescribed form to the State Board of Health, all cases reported to him. The physicians and others residing in cities having no city health officer, shall make reports required in this section direct to the county health officer, where there is a county health officer in the county in which they reside, and where there is no county health officer, all such reports shall be made direct to the State Board of Health.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of every physician and of every other person who examines or treats a person having syphilis, gonorrhea or chancroid, to instruct him in measures for preventing the spread of such disease, and of the necessity for treatment until cured, and to hand him a copy of the circular of information obtainable for this purpose from the State Board of Health.

Sec. 3. All city, county, or other health officers shall use every available means to ascertain the existence of, and to investigate all cases of syphilis, gonorrhea, and chancroid within their several territorial jurisdictions, and to ascertain the sources of such infections. Local health officers are hereby empowered and directed to make such examinations of persons reasonably suspected of having syphilis, gonorrhea or chancroid as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this law. Owing to the prevalence of such diseases among prostitutes and persons associated with them, all such persons are to be considered within the above class.

Sec. 4. Upon receipt of a report of a case of venereal disease, the local health officer shall institute measures for protection of other persons from infection by such venereally diseased person:

1. Local health officers are authorized and directed to quarantine persons who have, or are reasonably suspected of having syphilis, gonorrhea, or chancroid, whenever, in the opinion of said local officer, or the State Board of Health, or its executive officer, quarantine is necessary for the protection of the public health. In establishing quarantine the local health officer shall designate and define the limits of the area in which the person known to have, or reasonably suspected of having syphilis, gonorrhea, or chancroid, and his immediate attendant, are to be quarantined, and no person other than the attending physician, shall enter or leave the area of quarantine without the permission of the local health officer.

No one but the local health officer shall terminate said quarantine, and this shall not be done until the quarantined person has become non-infectious, as determined by the local health officer or his authorized deputy through clinical examination and all necessary laboratory tests, or until permission has been given him to do so by the State Board of Health or its executive officer.

2. The local health officer shall inform all persons who are about to be released from quarantine for venereal disease, in case they are not cured, what further treatment should be taken to complete their cure. Any person not cured, before released from quarantine, shall be required to sign the following statement after the blank spaces have been filled to the satisfaction of the health officer:

"I _____ residing at _____ hereby acknowledge the fact that I am at this time infected with _____; and agree to place myself under the medical care of _____, (name of physician or clinic) _____ (address) within _____ hours, and that I will remain under the treatment of said physician or clinic until released by the health officer of _____ or until my case is transferred, with the approval of said health officer, to another regular licensed physician or an approved clinic.

"I hereby agree to report to the health officer within four days after beginning treatment as above agreed, and will bring with me a statement from the above physician or clinic of the medical treatment applied in my case, and thereafter will report as often as may be demanded of me by the health officer.

"I agree further, that I will take all precautions recommended by the health officer to prevent the spread of the above disease to other persons and that I will not perform any act which will expose other persons to the above disease.

"I agree, until finally released by the health officer, to notify him of any change of address and to obtain his consent before moving my abode outside of his jurisdiction.

Signature.

Date

All such agreements shall be filed with the health officer and kept inaccessible to the public.

The commissioners courts of the various counties and the governing body of all incorporated towns and cities are hereby empowered and directed to provide suitable places for the detention of persons who may be subject to quarantine and who should be segregated for the execution of the provisions of this law; and such commissioners courts and governing bodies of incorporated cities and towns are hereby authorized to incur, on behalf of their said counties, cities or towns, the expenses necessary to the enforcement of this law.

Sec. 5. 1. When a person applies to a physician or other person for the diagnosis or treatment of syphilis, gonorrhoea or chancroid, it shall be the duty of the physician or person so consulted to inquire of, and ascertain from, the person seeking such diagnosis or treatment, whether such person has heretofore consulted with, or has been treated by, any other physician or person, and if so, to ascertain the name and address of the physician or person last consulted. It shall be the duty of the physician or other person whom the applicant consults to notify the physician or other person last consulted of the change of advisers. Should the physician or person previously consulted fail to receive such notice within ten days after the last date upon which the patient was instructed by him to appear, it shall be the duty of such physician or person to report to the local health officer the name and address of such venereally diseased person.

2. If an attending physician or other person knows or has good reasons to suspect that a person having syphilis, gonorrhoea, or chancroid is so conducting himself or herself as to expose other persons to infection, or is about so to conduct himself or herself, he shall notify the local health officer of the name and address of the diseased person and the essential facts in the case.

Sec. 6. All local and State health officers are directed to co-operate with proper officials whose duty it is to enforce laws directed against prostitution, and otherwise to use every proper means for the repression of prostitution.

Sec. 7. Physicians, health officers, and all other persons are prohibited from issuing certificates of freedom from venereal disease, provided this section shall not prevent the issuance of statements of freedom from infectious diseases written in such form, or given under such safeguards, that their use for solicitation for sexual intercourse would be impossible.

Sec. 8. All information and reports concerning persons infected with venereal diseases shall be inaccessible to the public except in so far as publicity may attend the performance of the duties imposed by the laws of the State.

Sec. 9. Any health officer or other physician who shall willfully fail to perform the duties required of him in this article shall, in addition to the fines imposed by law, forfeit his right and license to practice medicine within this State; and the district courts of the State shall have jurisdiction of suits for the forfeiture of such license in such cases, and the suit may be filed by any citizen of the State in a court having jurisdiction, under the ordinary rules of venue, and it shall be the duty of the county and district attorneys to represent the petitioners in such suit. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 179.]

Art. 4446. [4547-53] Legal proceedings.—In all matters wherein the State Board of Health shall invoke the aid of the courts, the action shall run in the name of the State of Texas. The Attorney General shall assign a special assistant to attend to all legal matters of the board. Upon demand of the board, the Attorney General shall furnish the necessary assistance to the board to attend to all its legal requirements. No bond for costs, or bond on appeal or writ of error, shall be required of the State Board of Health or State officials in any action brought or maintained under this chapter. [Id. Acts 1909, 1st C. S., p. 340.]

Art. 4447. Charbon districts.—All of that portion of this State in which charbon or anthrax has been prevalent or any district of this State in which charbon or anthrax may become prevalent, shall be known as charbon districts and shall be subject to the following provisions:

1. Bacteriologist.—The State Board of Health shall employ a bacteriologist at a salary of not more than $300.00 per month and during the time that charbon or anthrax is prevalent he shall make an examination and analysis and a scientific research for the purpose of combating with said disease and he may be kept in the district affected by charbon as many months each year as said board deems necessary.

2. Visits and isolation.—The State Board of Health acting through one of the members or through the local health officer in the county where charbon is reported to be prevalent shall in person or through some one employed by them, visit all stock reported to have charbon or anthrax and see that proper steps be taken for the isolation of same from other stock, and also isolate other stock which have been exposed to said disease and so keep same isolated for such period as it may deem necessary.

3. Proclamation.—The proclamation of the county health officer shall be sufficient if it name the kinds or classes of stock to which it shall apply. It shall be published in some newspaper published in the county, if there be one; and if none, it shall be posted in three public places in said county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door of such county if the proclamation pertains to the whole county, but if only a subdivision of the county, then in any three public places in such subdivision. One insertion in a newspaper shall be sufficient, and such proclamation shall be effective three days after such notice is given.

4. Elections.—In all counties now or which may become affected with charbon or anthrax, the qualified voters of such county or any political subdivision thereof may, in the manner hereinafter provided, prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, sheep, goats and hogs or any of such animals within such county or subdivision thereof; upon the petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of such county or subdivision thereof presented to the commissioners court of such county in open session, requesting such court to order an election to be held in such county or political subdivision thereof, said petition to state the territory within which an election is requested, the kinds of animals to be affected, and also for what portions of the year it is desired to prohibit such stock from running at large, or whether the entire year, said court shall order such election to be held within such territory as may be petitioned for, naming the kinds of animals to be affected thereby and as designated in the order for such election; and the court shall also designate in said order of election the time within which such stock is to be prohibited from running at large, whether for the entire year or for portions thereof; which the said court is hereby authorized to do in accordance with the petition therefor. It is made the duty of said court to provide for the holding of such elections and compensation of officers thereof. The expense of such election shall be borne by the county wherein such election is ordered and held. In any such election so to be held the ballots shall read as follows:

"For the Running at Large of Domestic Animals," and

"Against the Running at Large of Domestic Animals."

Returns of such election shall be made by the presiding officers of the precinct or precincts of the county where such election is held, to the county judge of such county, who shall forthwith call the commissioners court together for the purpose of canvassing the Article 4448. [4554] [4321] Governor's proclamation.—The Governor is empowered to issue his proclamation declaring quarantine on the coast, or elsewhere within this State, whenever in his judgment quarantine may become necessary; and such quarantine may continue for any length of time as in the judgment of the Governor the safety and security of the people may require. [Acts 1891, p. 188; G. L. vol. 10, p. 190.]

Art. 4449. [4555] [4324] May issue proclamation.—Whenever the Governor has reason to believe that the State of Texas is threatened at any point or place on the coast [coast] border or elsewhere within the State with the introduction of [or] dissemination of yellow fever contagion, or any other infectious and contagious disease that can and should, in the opinion of the Texas State Board of Health, be guarded against by State quarantine, he shall by proclamation, immediately declare said quarantine against any and all such places, and direct the State Board of Health to promptly establish and enforce the restrictions and conditions imposed and indicated by said quarantine proclamation; and when from any cause the Governor can not act, and the exigencies of the threatened danger require immediate action, the Texas State Board of Health is empowered to declare quarantine as prescribed in this article, and maintain the same until the Governor shall officially take such action as he may see proper. [Acts 1891, p. 189; G. L. vol. 10, p. 191.]

Art. 4450. [4556] [4326] Local quarantine.—The law in regard to local quarantine by the inhabitants of any point or points on the coast or elsewhere in the State shall remain in full force when in conformity with this title; provided, that in all differences and disputes between any such points, contiguous or remote, within this State, such differences and disputes shall be immediately by the local health authorities, if any, and if none, by the inhabitants themselves, reported and submitted to the Governor; and, on the receipt of such report, he shall forthwith order the State Health Officer to such points with instructions to investigate the same and report the exact condition of things, and upon investigation of such report shall issue his proclamation declaring the determination of the issue, and by said proclamation the aforesaid differences shall be governed and determined. [Id.]

Art. 4451. [4557] [4328] Local subordinate to State authorities.—Whenever quarantine is declared by the Governor or by any county or corporate authorities in the State, such authorities shall establish a quarantine station or stations where any person may be detained for such length of time as, in the discretion of the quarantine officers, the public safety may demand; provided, that all county and municipal quarantine shall be subordinate, subject to and regulated by such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Governor or Texas State Board of Health. [Id.]

Art. 4452. [4558] [4329] Shelter to those detained.—The State Board of Health shall furnish persons detained by them with necessary shelter and subsistence (not including crews of vessels, except such as are removed by the quarantine officers from infected vessels), and provide all other things essential for the protection and comfort of those held in quarantine, and all such expenses authorized by the said board and approved by the Governor shall be paid by the State. [Id.]

Art. 4453. [4559] [4330] Expenses of quarantine.—All quarantine officers appointed by the Governor shall be selected and commissioned by the Governor, and shall be paid by the State, and all health authorities of the State, or of any county or city thereof, shall obey the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governor or State Board of Health. The regular officers in charge of regular established quarantine stations on the coast shall be allowed one hundred and fifty dollars per month while on duty at their respective stations; except that the officer in charge of the station at Galveston shall receive two hundred dollars per month. Temporary officers, or those commissioned by the Governor to guard against threatened epidemics, and those stationed at railway crossings on the Rio Grande shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars per month while on duty, and such other pay for extra expenses actually incurred as may be deemed just by the Governor and the State Board of Health. [Acts 1891, p. 188; G. L. vol. 10, pp. 188 and 872; Acts 1895, p. 142.]

Art. 4454. [4560] [4331] Stations provided.—Each county, town or city authority upon the coast or elsewhere in Texas, at as early a day as practicable after the promulgation of the Governor's proclamation declaring quarantine, shall provide suitable stations where they are not now provided, at sufficient distance from the usual places of landing of vessels, or the depots of railroads coming into their respective counties, towns, or cities, and select, appoint and employ a competent physician as health officer, subject to the approval of the Governor, at such stations, and furnish said officer with such guards, employes and other things as may be necessary to render such quarantine effective; and said county, town or city authorities may provide for the establishment and maintenance of quarantine, subordinate, subjected to, and regulated by, such rules and regulations as the Governor and State Board of Health may prescribe. [Acts 1883, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 323.]

Art. 4455. [4561] [4332] Local health officer.—Whenever on the coast of Texas or elsewhere in this State the authorities of any county, town or city fail, refuse or neglect to establish quarantine as provided in the preceding article, then the Governor shall appoint a health officer and prescribe such regulations for the government of the same as he may deem necessary. [Acts 1891, p. 190; G. L. vol. 10, p. 192.]

Art. 4456. [4562] [4333] Incoming vessels stopped.—All health officers and all quarantine authorities shall, if deemed necessary, stop each and every vessel from any infected port or district, tho the said vessel may have a clean bill of health. Such health officers or quarantine authorities shall have power to take the affidavit of the master of said vessel as to the health of himself and crew from the time of sailing from said infected port or district. Such officers and authorities shall detain said vessel at quarantine for such length of time as the Governor and State Board of Health may prescribe in their rules and regulations governing quarantine. All such officers and authorities may use force if necessary in order to discharge the duties imposed upon them by the provisions of this title and the rules and regulations of the Governor and Texas State Board of Health. [Acts 1883, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 323.]

Art. 4457. [4563-64] Vessels from infected ports.—Any vessel arriving at any quarantine station of this State, designated by the proper authorities, from any infected port or district, without a clean bill of health from the proper officers from said port or district, shall be taken possession of by the health officer or other quarantine authority at the station at which said vessel arrives, and be held by the same until all fines that may have been assessed against the master of said vessel for a violation of the quarantine laws, rules and regulations have been paid, or until said vessel shall have been replevied in accordance with law. The payment of the fine which may be assessed against the master of such vessel shall not operate as a release or discharge of the vessel from quarantine, but the same rules shall apply as in case of other vessels placed in quarantine. [Acts 1891, p. 190; G. L. vol. 10, p. 192.]

Art. 4458. [4565] [4336] Expenses itemized.—The county, town or city authorities aforesaid, as soon as quarantine ceases to exist, shall forward to the Comptroller an itemized account of all receipts and expenditures made by them, and when approved by the Governor and State Board of Health, said Comptroller shall draw his warrant upon the treasurer for the payment of any balance that may be due said authorities, or either of them, and pay into the treasury any excess of receipts over expenditures. [Acts 1883, p. 18; G. L. vol. 9, p. 324.]

Art. 4459. [4566] [4337] Local quarantine.—No provision of this title shall be construed to prevent any town, city or county from establishing any quarantine which they may think necessary for the preservation of the health of the same; provided, that the rules and regulations of such quarantine be not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, and be consistent with, and subordinate to, said provisions and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governor and State Board of Health. [Id.]

Art. 4460. [4568] [4340] County quarantine.—Whenever the commissioners court of any county has reason to believe that they are threatened at any point within or without the county limits with the introduction or dissemination of a dangerous, contagious or infectious disease that can and should be guarded against by quarantine they may direct their county health officer to declare and maintain said quarantine against any and all such dangerous diseases; to establish, maintain and supply stations or camps for those held in quarantine; to provide hospitals, tents or pest houses for those sick of contagious and infectious disease; to furnish provisions, medicine and all other things absolutely essential for the comfort of the well and the convalescence of the sick. The county physician shall keep an itemized account of all lawful expenses incurred by local quarantine, and his county shall assume and pay them as other claims against the county are paid. Chartered cities and towns are embraced within the purview of this article, and the mere fact of incorporation does not exclude them from the protection against epidemic diseases given by the commissioners court to other parts of their respective counties. The medical officers of chartered cities and towns may perform the duties granted or commanded in their several charters, but must be amenable and obedient to rules prescribed by the State Board of Health. This article, however, must not be construed as prohibiting any incorporated town or city from declaring, maintaining and paying for local quarantine. [Id.]

Art. 4461. [4569] [4341] Health officer at Galveston.—The quarantine or health officer at Galveston shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the Governor, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the care and preservation of any steam vessel or vessels belonging to the State at his station, and for the faithful performance of his duty. [Id.]

Art. 4462. [4570] [4342] To prescribe rules, etc.—The Governor and State Board of Health shall prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the disinfection of all vessels and their cargoes and passengers arriving at any port on the coast of Texas from any infected port or district, the object of such rules and regulations being to provide safety for the public health of the State without unnecessary restrictions upon commerce and travel. [Id.]

Art. 4463. [4571] [4342a] Sale of condemned property.—The State Health Officer is hereby authorized, with the advice and consent of the Governor, to sell to the best advantage of the State, for cash, any property in the quarantine service that is useless, and to apply the proceeds thereof to the general revenue of this State, and make due report of said sale or sales to the Governor. [Acts 1895, p. 2; G. L. vol. 10, p. 732.]

Art. 4464. [4572] Vessels disinfected.—Any vessel arriving at a port of this State, and required to be disinfected by the terms of the Governor's quarantine proclamation, shall be disinfected by the quarantine officer of such port and before being released from quarantine shall pay to such quarantine officer such fees as the Governor may prescribe. All vessels boarded by the quarantine officer of any port shall pay to such officer such fees as the Governor prescribes. The quarantine officer receiving such fees shall give bond in such sum as may be prescribed by the Governor for the safe keeping of such collections and shall report and remit them to the State Board of Health at least once every month. [Acts 1901, p. 266.]

4476. Self-rising flour.

Article 4465. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4465a. Public health laws continued in force.—Articles 4414, 4415, 4416, 4417, and 4418, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, are hereby repealed, Article 4465, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, is hereby repealed, and the powers and duties vested by Chapter 3 of Title 71, R. S. 1925, in the Director of the Food and Drug Division of the State Department of Health are hereby vested in the State Health Officer, to be hereafter exercised by him or by a division director within his Department and subject to his control under the terms of this Act. All other laws or parts of laws now in force, relating to the State Health Department, the State Board of Health and the State Health Officer, and all other laws relating to public health, sanitation and the control and prevention of communicable, contagious and infectious diseases, shall remain in full force and effect, except insofar as the same may be in conflict with the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S. p. 131, ch. 42, § 11.]

Art. 4466. Duties.—The director shall:

1. Keep his office and laboratory in Austin.
2. Make, publish and enforce rules consistent with this law, and adopt standards for foods, food products, beverages, drugs, etc., and the modern methods of analysis authorized as official by the Federal Department of Agriculture.
3. Inquire into the quality of the foods and drug products manufactured or sold or exposed for sale, or offered for sale in this State, and for such purpose he may enter any creamery, factory, store, salesroom, drug store or laboratory or place where he has reason to believe foods or drugs are made, prepared; sold or offered for sale or exchange, and open any cask, tub, jar, bottle or package containing or supposed to contain any article of food or drug and examine or cause to be examined the contents thereof, and he shall take samples therefrom and make analysis thereof. When making such inspection he shall seal and mark such sample and tender to the vendor or person having custody of same the value thereof, and a written statement stating the reason for taking such sample.

4. Make complaint and institute proceedings against any manufacturer or person who violates any provision of the food and drug laws of this State. He need not give security for costs in proceedings so instituted.

5. Report to the Governor on or before the 31st day of August of each year, showing the entire work of his office for the preceding year, the number of factories and other places inspected and by whom, the number of specimens of food and drug articles analyzed, and the number of complaints entered for violations of such laws, the number of convictions had, and the amount of fines imposed therefor, together with recommendations relative to the laws in force. Such report shall be published at the expense of the State. [Acts 1911, p. 76.]

Art. 4467. Administration and expenses.—The Director may appoint two inspectors who shall make inspections and perform such duties as he may require. With the consent of the State Health Officer he may appoint two assistant chemists, who shall each enter into bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable, approved and conditioned as the Director's bond. The Director may appoint one stenographer, and such additional inspectors, chemists, clerks and other assistants as he deems necessary. The actual and necessary expenses of the Director and his assistants and deputies shall be paid by the State, the amounts thereof to be audited by the Comptroller. [Id.]

Art. 4468. Bulletins.—The Director may issue bulletins quarterly, or as often as he deems advisable, showing the work of his division.

Art. 4469. Registration.—All manufacturers of foods and drugs doing business in Texas, or all such persons as shall bring into and offer for sale in this State any article of food or drug, shall annually register with the Director and pay him a fee of one dollar for such registration on or before the first day of each September. The Director shall promptly remit such fees as collected to the State Treasurer. [Id.]

Art. 4470. Condemnation.—Any article of food or drug that is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this law shall be liable to be condemned, confiscated and forfeited by a suit to be brought in the district court of the county where said article of food or drug is located, in the name of the State of Texas as plaintiff, and in the name of the owner thereof as defendant, if said owner be known; if he be unknown, then in the name of said article of food or drug, and service shall be obtained as in civil cases. Upon a trial of said case, if it be determined by the court or jury trying said case that said article of food or drug is misbranded or adulterated, or of a poisonous or deleterious character within the meaning of this law, the same shall be disposed of by destruction or sale in accordance with the judgment of the court, and the proceeds thereof, if sold, less the legal cost and charges, shall be paid into the State Treasury. District and county attorneys shall file forfeiture and condemnation suits under this law at the request of the Director. Said attorney shall be entitled to a fee of $15.00, to be paid out of the proceeds arising from the sale of the property condemned, said fee to be in addition to all other fees allowed by law, and shall be over and above the fees allowed under the General Fee Act of this State. Upon payment of the costs of such forfeiture or condemnation proceeding by the owner of the property proceeded against and by his executing and delivering a good and sufficient bond in double the value of the goods proceeded against, payable to the State of Texas, conditioned that said articles shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of contrary to the provisions of this law, the court may by order direct that said goods be delivered to the owner thereof. In all proceedings begun under this article, either party may demand trial by jury, of any issue of fact joined in any such case. [Id.]

Art. 4471. Adulterated or misbranded food or drug.—No person, firm or corporation shall within this State manufacture for sale, have in his possession with the intent to sell, offer or expose for sale, or sell or exchange any article of food or drug which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter. The term "food" shall include all articles used by man for food, drink, flavoring, confectionary or condiment, whether simple, mixed or compounded. The term "drug" shall include all medicines and preparations for internal or external use recognized in the United States Pharmacopoeia or National Formulary, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease of either man or animal. [Id.]

Art. 4472. Definitions.—The terms "adulterated" and "misbranded," as used in this chapter, shall be held to have the same meaning as is given those terms in chapter two of title 12 of the Penal Code. [Id.]

Art. 4473. Preservatives added.—No person shall manufacture, sell, offer or expose for sale or exchange any article of food to which has been added formaldehyde, boric acid or borates, benzoic acid or benzoate sulphurous acids or sulphites, salicylic acid or salicylates, abralstal, beta naphthal, flourine compounds, dulcin, glucin, cocaine, sulphuric acid or other mineral acid except phosphoric acid, any preparation of lead or copper or other ingredient injurious to health. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the sale of catsups, sauces, concentrated fruits, fruit juices, and like substances preserved with one tenth of one per cent benzoate of soda, or the equivalent benzoic acid, when a statement of such fact is plainly indicated upon the label. The oxides of sulphur may be used for bleaching, clarifying and refining food products. [Id.]

Art. 4474. Milk.—No person either by himself or agent shall sell or expose for sale or exchange any unwholesome, watered, adulterated, or impure milk, or swill milk, or colostrum, or milk from cows kept upon garbage, swill, or any other substance in a state of putrefaction or other deleterious substances, or from sick or diseased cows, or from cows kept in connection with any family in which there are infectious diseases. Skim milk may be sold if on the container from which such milk is sold, the words "skim milk" are distinctly printed in letters not less than one inch in length. [Id.]

Art. 4475. Baking powder compound.—Whoever manufactures for sale within this State, or offers or exposes for sale or exchange or sells any baking powder or compound intended for use as a baking powder under any name or title whatsoever shall securely affix or cause to be securely affixed to the outside of every box, can or package containing such baking powder or like mixture or compound a label distinctly printed in plain capital letters in the English language, containing the name and residence of the manufacturer or dealer, and the ingredients of the baking powder. Baking powder containing less than 10 per cent of available carbon dioxide shall be deemed to be adulterated. [Id.]

Art. 4476. Self-rising flour.—Whoever manufactures for sale within this State, or offers or exposes for sale or exchange, or sells any Self-rising Flour, or compound intended for use as a Self-rising Flour, under any name or title whatsoever shall securely affix or cause to be securely affixed to the outside of every box, can, sack or package containing such Self-rising Flour or like mixture or compound, a label distinctly printed in plain capital letters in the English language, containing the name and domicile of the manufacturer or dealer, and the percentage by weight of each of the chemical leavening ingredients of the contents thereof. Such Self-rising Flour or any compound so termed or styled, when sold for use shall produce not less than one-half of one per cent, by weight, of available carbon dioxide gas, and there shall not be contained in such Self-rising Flour more than three and one-half per cent of chemical leavening ingredients, otherwise such flour or compound shall be deemed adulterated. Self-rising Flour is defined to be a combination of flour, salt, and chemical leavening ingredients. The flour shall be of the grade of "straight" or better, and the chemical leavening ingredients shall be Bicarbonate of Soda, and either Calcium Acid Phosphate, Sodium Aluminum Sulphate, Cream of Tartar, Tartaric Acid or combinations of the same. [Acts 1923, p. 96.]

SANITARY CODE

Art. 4477. Sanitary code.—The following rules are hereby enacted as the "Sanitary Code for Texas," adopted for the promotion and protection of the public health and for the general amelioration of the sanitary and hygienic condition within this State, for the suppression and prevention of infectious and contagious diseases, and for the proper enforcement of quarantine, isolation and control of such diseases, to wit:

QUARANTINE AND DISINFECTION

Rule 1. Physician to report.—Every physician in this State shall report in writing or by an acknowledged telephone communication to the local health authority, immediately after his or her first professional visit, each patient he or she shall have or suspect of suffering with any contagious disease. If such disease is of a pestilential nature, he shall notify the President of the State Board of Health at Austin by telegraph or telephone at State expense, and report to him every death from such disease immediately after it shall have occurred. The attending physician is authorized to and he shall place the patient under restrictions of the character described herein in the case of each respective disease.

Rule 2. "Local health authority."—For the purpose of these regulations, the term "local health authority" shall be held to designate the city or county health officer, or local board of health, within their respective jurisdictions.

Rule 3. "Contagious diseases."—The term "contagious disease" as used in these regulations shall be held to include the following diseases, whether contagious or infectious; and as such shall be reported to all local health authorities and by said authority reported in turn to the President of the State Board of Health: Asiatic cholera, bubonic plague, typhus fever, yellow fever, leprosy, smallpox, scarlet fever (scarlatina), diphtheria (membranous croup), epidemic cerebrospinal meningitis, dengue typhoid fever, epidemic dysentery, trachoma, tuberculosis and anthrax.

Rule 4. Health officers to keep record.—City and county health authorities shall keep a careful and accurate record of all cases of contagious diseases as reported to them, with the date, name, age, sex, race, location and such other necessary data as may be prescribed by the State Board of Health. They shall also make a monthly report of all contagious diseases of which they may be cognizant, to the President of the State Board of Health, before the fifth of the following month, upon blank forms provided by the State Board of Health. The reports on tuberculosis are to be privately kept and are to be considered in the light of a confidential communication, not for the purpose of isolation, but with the object of education in sanitary precautions, and to supply literature of the State Board of Health.

Rule 5. Rules to quarantine and disinfection.—The following rules of instruction for the regulation of quarantine, isolation and disinfection in the several contagious diseases, hereinbefore mentioned, are to be observed by all boards of health, health officers, physicians, school superintendents and trustees, and others. All health authorities of counties, cities, and towns in this State are hereby directed and authorized to establish local quarantine, hold in detention, maintain isolation and practice disinfection as hereinafter provided for, of all such infected persons, vehicles or premises which are infected or are suspected of being infected with any of the above named diseases whenever found.

(a) Absolute quarantine includes, first, absolute prohibition of entrance to or exit from the building or conveyance except by officers or attendants authorized by the health authorities, and the placing of guards if necessary to enforce this prohibition; second, the posting of a warning placard stating "contagious disease," in a conspicuous place or places on the outside of the building or conveyance; third, the prohibition of the passing out of any object or material from the quarantined house or conveyance; fourth, provision for conveying the necessaries of life under careful restrictions to those in quarantine.

(b) Modified quarantine includes prohibition of entrance and exit, and in absolute quarantine except against certain members of the family authorized by the health authorities to pass in and out under certain definite restrictions; the placing of a placard as before; isolation of patient and attendant; prohibition of the carrying out of any object or material unless the same shall have been thoroughly disinfected.

(c) Absolute isolation includes, first, the confinement of the patient and attendants to one apartment or suite of apartments, to which none but authorized officers or attendants shall have admission; second, screening of room and entire house if necessary with not less than 16-mesh wire gauze; third, the prohibition of passing out of the sick room of any object or material until the same has been thoroughly disinfected; fourth, protection of the air of the house by hanging a sheet, kept constantly moist with a disinfectant solution, over the doorway of the patient's room or rooms and reaching from the top of the door; fifth, if in the opinion of the local health authority the patient can not be treated, with reasonable safety to the public, at home, the removal of the patient and exposures to a contagious disease hospital or pest house.

(d) Modified isolation includes the confinement of the patient and attendants to one room or suite of rooms, to which none but authorized officers or attendants shall have admission, but allowing the attendants to pass out of the room after disinfection of person and complete change of clothing; screening as above mentioned; the prohibition of passing any object or material out of the sick room until it has been disinfected; protection of the doorway as before.

(e) Special isolation includes, first, prohibition of patient from attending any place of public assemblage; second, the providing of separate eating utensils for the patient; third, prohibition of sleeping with others, or using the same towels or napkins.

(f) By complete disinfection is meant disinfection during illness, under direction of attending physician, of patient's body, of all excretions or discharges of patient and of all articles of clothing and utensils used by patient, and after recovery, death or removal, the disinfection of walls, woodwork, furniture, bedding, etc.

(g) By partial disinfection is meant disinfection of discharges or excretions of patients and their clothing and the room or rooms occupied by the patient during illness.

Rule 6. Disinfection.—All disinfection prescribed in these regulations shall be a part of the control of the disease, and shall be done according to the direction of the Texas State Board of Health in its circular on disinfection.

Rule 7. Health authority shall placard all houses where contagious diseases exist.—Upon notice that smallpox, diphtheria, scarlet fever, or other quarantinable disease exists within his jurisdiction, it shall be the duty of the local health authority to have the house in which such disease prevails placarded by placing a yellow flag or card not less than eight inches wide and twelve inches long with the words "contagious disease" and the quarantine regulations printed thereon in a conspicuous place on said house.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Rule 8. Going to or leaving quarantined premises.—After the house is flagged or placarded, all persons except the attending physician or health officer are forbidden from going in or leaving such premises, without the permission of the local health authority, and the carrying off, or causing to be carried off, of any material whereby such disease may be conveyed, is prohibited until after the disease has abated and the premises, dwelling and clothing have been disinfected and cleaned as the local health authority may direct.

Rule 9. Person exposed to diseases shall obey authority.—It shall be the duty of all persons infected with any contagious disease, or who, from exposure to contagion from such disease, may be liable to endanger others who may come in contact with them, to strictly observe such instructions as may be given them by any health authority of the State, in order to prevent the spread of such contagious disease, and it shall be lawful for such health authorities to command any person thus infected or exposed to infection to remain within designated premises for such length of time as such authority may deem necessary.

Rule 10. Certain persons not allowed on thoroughfares.—All persons having any quarantinable disease are prohibited from riding on any public vehicle or conveyance, and from being upon public thoroughfares or in public assemblages.

Rule 11. Placard not to be destroyed or removed.—No person shall alter, deface, remove, destroy or tear down any card posted by a local health authority. The occupant or person having possession or control of a building upon which a quarantine notice has been placed shall within twenty-four hours after the destruction or removal of such notice by other than the proper health authority, notify the local health authority of such destruction or removal.

Rule 12. Quarantinable pestilential disease.—In the management and control of the following pestilential diseases: cholera, plague, typhus fever and yellow fever, the house must be placarded, premises placed in absolute quarantine, patient in absolute isolation and a complete disinfection done upon death or recovery taking place.

Rule 13. Dangerous contagious diseases; modified quarantine.—In the management and control of leprosy, smallpox, scarlet fever (scarlatina) [scarlatina] diphtheria (membranous croup), and dengue, it is required that the house be placarded, premises placed in modified quarantine, patient in modified isolation, and complete disinfection done upon death or recovery.

Rule 14. Non-quarantinable contagious disease.—The management and control of typhoid fever, cerebro-spinal meningitis (epidemic), epidemic dysentery, trachoma (acute catarrhal conjunctivitis), tuberculosis and anthrax require special isolation and partial disinfection.

Rule 15. Quarantinable for school purposes.—Persons suffering from measles, whooping cough, mumps, German measles (rotheln) and chickenpox, shall be required to be barred from school for twenty-one days (at the discretion of the local health officer) from date of onset of the disease, with such additional time as may be deemed necessary; and may be readmitted on a certificate by him attesting to their recovery and non-infectiousness.

Rule 16. Minor diseases to be excluded during illness.—Those actually suffering from tonsillitis, scabies (itch), impetigo contagiosa, favus, shall be excluded from school during such illness and be readmitted on the certificate of the attending physician attesting to their recovery and non-infectiousness.

Rule 17. Rules not exclusive.—The above requirements shall in no sense be construed as abrogating any additional precautionary measures enforced by local health authorities, but it is expected that additional restrictive measures will be taken at the discretion of the local health authority when the necessity arises, more especially in the more densely populated cities and towns, or when violations of quarantine occur.

Rule 18. Authorities to investigate reported cases.—Whenever a local health authority is informed or has reason to suspect that there is a case of smallpox, scarlet fever, or other reportable disease within the territory over which he has jurisdiction, he shall immediately examine into the facts of the case and shall adopt the quarantine or employ the sanitary measures as herein provided.

Rule 19. Shall see that quarantine and disinfection is carried out.—Within his jurisdiction, each and every local health authority shall see that the quarantine or disinfection of any house, building, car, vessel, or vehicle, or any part thereof, and of any articles therein likely to retain infection, is carried out, and that all persons who have been in quarantine are required to take a disinfecting bath before the same are released. In the event of the disease having been smallpox, all persons exposed shall be isolated for eighteen days from the time of last exposure unless successfully vaccinated.

Rule 20. Premises to be disinfected before re-occupied.—No person shall offer for hire or cause or permit any one to occupy apartments, previously occupied by a person ill with smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria or tuberculosis, or any quarantinable disease, until such apartments shall have been disinfected under the supervision of the local health authority.

Rule 21. Placard premises on failure to disinfect.—Whenever these rules and regulations, or whenever the order or direction of the local health authority requiring the disinfection of articles, premises or apartments, shall not be complied with, or in case of any delay, said authority shall forthwith cause to be placed upon the door of the apartment or premises a placard as follows: "These apartments have been occupied by a patient suffering with a contagious disease and they may have become infected. They must not again be occupied until my orders directing the renovation and disinfection of same have been complied with. This notice must not be removed, under penalty of the law, except by an authorized health official."

Rule 22. Nurses to report redness of eyelids or inflammation.—Whenever any nurse, midwife or other person not [a] legally qualified practitioner of medicine shall notice inflammation of the eyes or redness of the lids in a new-born child under his or her care, it shall be the duty of such person to report the same to the local health authority or in his absence, any reputable physician, within twelve hours of the time the disease is first noticed.

Rule 23. Householdors to report contagious diseases.—Every hotel proprietor, keeper of a boarding house or inn, and householder or head of a family in a house wherein any case of reportable contagious disease (including tuberculosis) may occur, shall report the same to the local health authority within twelve hours of the time of his or her first knowledge of the nature of such disease, unless previous notice has been given by the physician in attendance; and in cases of quarantinable diseases until instructions are received from the said local health authority shall not permit any clothing or other article which may have been exposed to infection to be removed from the house; nor shall any occupant of said house change his residence elsewhere without the consent of the said local health authority.

Rule 24. Employés with reportable diseases.—No person who resides in a house in which there exists a case of smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, or typhoid fever, shall work or be permitted in or about any dairy, or any establishment for the manufacture of food products, until the local health authority has given such a person a written certificate to the effect that no danger to the public will result from his or her employment or presence in such establishment.

Rule 25. To send physician printed matter.—Immediately after being notified of any case of smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid fever, or tuberculosis, the local health authority shall send to the attending physician, or with his approval directly to the patient the printed matter published by the State Board of Health relative to the prevention and control of such diseases.

Rule 26. Persons excluded from schools.—Persons afflicted with trachoma, granulated lids, or contagious catarrhal conjunctivitis must be excluded from schools, public assemblages, and from close association with other individuals, unless they are under the constant care and strict supervision of a competent physician, and hold a certificate from said physician stating that active inflammation has subsided, said certificate to be countersigned by a local health authority.

Rule 27. Schools temporarily closed.—A school-house wherein a child suffering from smallpox, scarlet fever or diphtheria has been present, shall be deemed infected and must be temporarily closed and thoroughly disinfected and cleaned under the supervision of the local health authority before reopening of the school.

Rule 28. School to open after disinfection.—In the event of the aforementioned disease being smallpox and in the case the Board of Trustees having passed a regulation requiring a successful vaccination of all teachers and pupils, the school may be reopened immediately after the disinfection and cleaning, and all teachers and pupils who have been successfully vaccinated may return; otherwise the school shall be kept closed eighteen days or until the local health authority directs otherwise.

Rule 29. To notify superintendents of pupils from infected houses.—The local health authority shall notify the superintendent or principal of any school of the location of quarantinable diseases, and if the superintendent or principal finds any attendants in such school who live in said houses, he shall deny them admission to the said schools, only admitting them again upon presenting a certificate from the attending physician, countersigned by the local health authority, that there is no longer danger from contagion.

Rule 30. Children with diseases shall not attend school.—No superintendent, principal or teacher of any school, and no parent, master or guardian of any child or minor, having the power and authority to prevent, shall permit any child or minor, having any quarantinable disease, or any child residing in any house in which any such disease exists or has recently existed, to attend any public, private, parochial, church or Sunday school until the requirements of these rules have been complied with.

Rule 31. Health authorities to assume control of quarantine.—In all incorporated cities and towns the city health authorities shall assume control and management of contagious diseases and exposures and practice quarantine, isolation and disinfection as herein provided. In those portions of all counties outside of incorporated cities and towns the county health officer shall assume management and control of contagious diseases and exposures and practice quarantine, isolation and disinfection as herein provided.

Rule 32. These rules not to prevent local rules.—These regulations shall not be construed to prevent any city, county or town from establishing any quarantine which they deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the same; provided, that the rules and regulations of such quarantine be not inconsistent with the provisions of these regulations and be subordinate to said provisions, and the rules and regulations prescribed by the Governor and State Board of Health. The local health authority shall at once furnish the President of the State Board of Health with a true copy of any quarantine orders and regulations adopted by said local authorities.

Rule 33. Authorities may pass through quarantine lines.—All health authorities shall be allowed to pass through all quarantine lines, whether instituted at the instance of State or local authorities, they first requesting permission and acquainting the officers or guards in charge with the fact of their being properly authorized health officers, and with the additional statement that they are fully acquainted with the nature of the disease that they are visiting, and further that they will take proper precautions to prevent carrying the infection themselves.

VITAL STATISTICS

Rule 34. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 24.]

Rule 34a. State department of health.—That the State Department of Health shall have charge of the registration of births and deaths; shall prepare the necessary instructions, forms and blanks for obtaining and preserving such records and shall procure the faithful registration of the same in each primary registration district as constituted in Section 3 of this Act [rule 36a], and in the central bureau of vital statistics at the capitol of the state. The said department shall be charged with the uniform and thorough enforcement of the law throughout the state, and shall from time to time recommend any additional legislation that may be necessary for this purpose. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 1.]

Section 24 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, repeals Rules 34–57, Rev. St. 1925, art. 4477, and all conflicting laws.

Rule 35a. State health officer and registrar of vital statistics.—That the State Health Officer shall have general supervision over the central bureau of vital statistics, which is hereby authorized to be established by said department, and which shall be under the immediate direction of the state registrar of vital statistics, whom the State Health Officer shall appoint within thirty days after the taking effect of this law, and who shall be a medical practitioner of not less than five years' practice in his profession, and a competent vital statistician.* The state registrar of vital statistics shall hold office for two years and until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, unless such office shall sooner become vacant by death, disqualification, operation of law, or other causes. Any vacancy occurring in such office shall be filled for the unexpired term by the State Health Officer. At least ten days before the expiration of the term of office of the state registrar of vital statistics, his successor shall be appointed by the State Health Officer. The state registrar of vital statistics shall receive an annual salary at the rate of Four Thousand dollars ($4,000.00) from the date of his entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office. The State Department of Health shall provide for such clerical and other assistants as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act [Rules 34a–55a, P. C., art. 781a], who shall serve during the pleasure of said department, and shall fix the compensation of persons thus employed within the amount appropriated therefor by the legislature. The Board of Control shall provide suitable offices for the bureau of vital statistics in the state capitol or in other suitable public building at Austin, which shall be properly equipped with fireproof vault and filing cases for the permanent and safe preservation of all official records made and returned under this Act [Rules 34a–55a, P. C., art. 781a]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 2.]

Rule 36a. Registration districts.—That for the purposes of this Act [Rules 34a–55a, P. C., art. 781a] the state shall be divided into registration districts as follows: Each city, each incorporated town, and each justice precinct shall constitute a primary registration district, provided, that the State Department of Health may combine two or more primary registration districts when necessary to facilitate registration. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 3.]

Rule 37. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 24.]

Rule 37a. Local registrar.—That within ninety days after the taking effect of this Act [Rules 34a–55a, P. C., art. 781a], or as soon thereafter as possible, the State Health Officer shall appoint a local registrar of vital statistics for each registration district in the State. The term of office of each local registrar so appointed shall be two years, and until his successor has been appointed and has qualified, unless such office shall sooner become vacant by death, disqualification, operation of law, or other causes; provided, that in cities where health officers or other officials are, in the judgment of the State Health Officer, conducting effective registration of births and deaths under local ordinances or state law at the time of the taking effect of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], such officials may be appointed as registrars in and for such cities, and shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the state registrar, and to all of the provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a]. Any vacancy occurring in the office of local registrar of vital statistics shall be filled for the unexpired term by the State Health Officer. At least ten days before the expiration of the term of office of any such local registrar, his successor shall be appointed by the State Health Officer.

Any local registrar who, in the judgment of the State Health Officer fails or neglects to discharge efficiently the duties of his office as set forth in this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], or to make prompt and complete returns of births and deaths as required thereby, shall be forthwith removed by the State Health Officer, and such other penalties may be imposed as are provided under Section 22 of this Act [P. C., art. 781a].

Each local registrar shall, immediately upon his acceptance of appointment as such, appoint a deputy, whose duty it shall be to act in his stead in case of his absence or disability; and such deputy shall in writing accept such appointment, and be subject to all rules and regulations governing local registrars. And when it appears necessary for the convenience of the people in any rural district, the local registrar, when directed by the state registrar to do so, shall appoint one or more suitable persons to act as subregistrars, who shall be authorized to receive certificates and to issue burial or removal permits in and for such portions of the district as may be designated; and each subregistrar shall note, on each certificate, over his signature, the date of filing, and shall forward all certificates to the local registrar of the district within ten days, and in all cases before the third day of the following month; provided, that each subregistrar shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state registrar, and may be by him removed for neglect or failure to perform his duty in accordance with the provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a] or the rules and regulations of the state registrar, and shall be subject to the same penalties for neglect of duty as the local registrar. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 4.]

Rule 38a. Dead bodies—That the body of any person whose death occurs in this state, or which shall be found dead therein, shall not be interred, deposited in a vault or tomb, cremated or otherwise disposed of, or removed from or into any registration district, or be temporarily held pending further disposition more than 72 hours after death, unless a permit for burial, removal, or other disposition thereof shall have been properly issued by the local registrar of the registration district in which the death occurred or the body was found. And no such burial or removal permit shall be issued by any registrar until, wherever practicable, a complete and satisfactory certificate of death has been filed with him as hereinafter provided; provided, that when a dead body is transported from outside the State into a registration district in Texas for burial, the transit or removal permit, issued in accordance with the law and health regulations of the place where the death occurred shall be accepted by the local registrar of the district into which the body has been transported for burial or other disposition, as a basis upon which he may issue a local burial permit; he shall note upon the face of the burial permit the fact that it was a body shipped in for interment, and give the actual place of death, and no local registrar shall receive any fee for the issuance of burial or removal permits under this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a] other than the compensation provided in Section 20 [Rule 53a]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S. p. 116, ch. 41, § 5.]

Rule 39a. Report of stillborn.—That a stillborn child shall be registered as a birth and also as a death, and separate certificates of both the birth and the death shall be filed with the local registrar, in the usual form and manner, the certificate of birth to contain in place of the name of the child, the word "stillbirth"; provided, that a certificate of birth and a certificate of death shall not be required for a child that has not advanced to the fifth month of uterogestation. The medical certificate of the cause of death shall be signed by the attending physician, if any, and shall state the cause of death as "stillborn," with the cause of the stillbirth, if known, whether a premature birth, and, if born prematurely, the period of uterogestation, in months, if known; and a burial or removal permit of the prescribed form shall be required. Midwives shall not sign certificates of death for stillborn children; but such cases, and stillbirths occurring without attendance of either physician or midwife, shall be treated as deaths without medical attendance, as provided in Section 8 of this Act [Rule 41a]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 6.]

Rule 40a. Death certificates.—That the certificate of death shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

- (1) Place of death, including state, county, precinct, town or city. If in a city, the ward, street, and house number; if in a hospital or other institution, the name of the same to be given instead of the street and house number. If in an industrial camp, the name of the camp to be given.
- (2) Full name of decedent. If an unnamed child, the surname preceded by "Unnamed."
- (3) Sex.
- (4) Color or race—as white, black, mulatto (or other negro descent), Indian, Chinese, Japanese, or other.
- (5) Conjugal condition—as single, married, widowed or divorced.
- (6) Date of birth, including the year, month, and day.
- (7) Age, in years, months and days. If less than one day the hours or minutes.
- (8) Occupation. The occupation to be reported of any person, male or female, who had any remunerative employment, with the statement of (a) trade, profession or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business or establishment in which employed (or employer).
- (9) Birthplace; at least state or foreign country, if known.
- (10) Name of father.
- (11) Birthplace of father; at least state or foreign country, if known.
- (12) Maiden name of mother.
- (13) Birthplace of mother; at least state or foreign country, if known.
- (14) Signature and address of informant.
- (15) Official signature of registrar, with the date when certificate was filed, and registered number.
- (16) Date of death, year, month, and day.
- (17) Certification as to medical attendance on decedent, fact and time of death, time last seen alive, and the cause of death, with contributory (secondary) cause of complication, if any, and duration of each, and whether attributed to dangerous or insanitary conditions of employment; signature and address of physician or official making the medical certificate.
- (18) Length of residence (for inmates of hospitals and other institutions; transients or recent residents) at place of death and in the state, together with the place where disease was contracted, if not at place of death, and former or usual residence.

(19) Place of burial or removal; date of burial.

(20) Signature and address of undertaker or person acting as such.

The personal and statistical particulars (Items 1 to 13) shall be authenticated by the signature of the informant, who may be any competent person acquainted with the facts.

The statement of facts relating to the disposition of the body shall be signed by the undertaker or person acting as such.

The medical certificate shall be made and signed by the physician, if any, last in attendance on the deceased, who shall specify the time in attendance, the time he last saw the deceased alive and the hour of the day at which death occurred. And he shall further state the cause of death, so as to show the course of disease or sequence of causes resulting in the death, giving first the name of the disease causing death (primary cause) and the contributory (secondary) cause, if any, and the duration of each. Indefinite and unsatisfactory terms, denoting only symptoms of disease or conditions resulting from disease, will not be held sufficient for the issuance of a burial or removal permit; and any certificate containing only such terms, as defined by the state registrar, shall be returned to the physician or persons making the medical certificate for correction and more definite statement.

Causes of death which may be the result of either disease or violence shall be carefully defined; and if from violence, the means of injury shall be stated, and whether (probably) accidental, suicidal, or homicidal. And for deaths in hospitals, institutions, or of non-residents, the physician shall supply the information required under this head (Item 18), if he is able to do so, and may state where, in his opinion, the disease was contracted. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 7.]

Rule 41a. Death without medical attendance.—That in case of any death occurring without medical attendance, it shall be the duty of the undertaker or person acting as such to notify the local registrar of such death, and when so notified the registrar shall, prior to the issuance of the permit, inform the local health officer and refer the case to him for immediate investigation and certification; provided that when the local health officer is not a physician, or when there is no such official, and in such cases only, the registrar is authorized to make the certificate and return from the statement of relatives or other persons having adequate knowledge of the facts; provided, further, that if the registrar or the local health officer, as the case may be, has reason to believe that the death may have been due to unlawful act or neglect, or otherwise is one properly referable to the coroner, he shall then refer the case to the coroner or other proper officer for his investigation and certification. And the coroner or other proper officer whose duty it is to hold an inquest on the body of any deceased person, and to make the certificate of death required for a burial permit, shall state in his certificate the name of the disease causing death, if from external causes, (1) the means of death; and (2) whether (probably) accidental, suicidal, or homicidal; and shall, in any case, furnish such information as may be required by the state registrar in order properly to classify the death. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 8.]

Rule 42a. Undertaker's certificate.—That the undertaker, or person acting as undertaker, shall file the certificate of death with the local registrar of the district in which the death occurred and obtain a burial or removal permit prior to any disposition of the body; provided that any person who furnishes a casket, coffin or box in which to bury the dead and who renders service like or similar to that usually rendered by an undertaker, shall for the purposes of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a] be deemed an undertaker. He shall obtain the required personal and statistical particulars from the person best qualified to supply them, over the signature and address of his informant. He shall then present the certificate to the attending physician, if any, or to the health officer, justice of peace, or coroner, as directed by the local registrar, for the medical certificate of the cause of death and other particulars necessary to complete the record, as specified in Sections 7 [Rule 40a] and 8 [Rule 41a]. And he shall then state the facts required relative to the date and place of burial or removal, over his signature and with his address, and present the completed certificate to the local registrar in order to obtain a permit for burial, removal or other disposition of the body. The undertaker or person acting as such shall deliver the burial permit to the person in charge of the place of burial, before interring or otherwise disposing of the body; or shall attach the removal permit to the box containing the corpse, when shipped by any transportation company; said permit to accompany the corpse to its destination, where, if within the state of Texas, it shall be delivered to the person in charge of the place of burial.

Every person, firm, or corporation selling a casket, coffin or box for burial, shall keep a record showing the name of the purchaser, purchaser's postoffice address, name of deceased, date of death, and place of death of deceased; which record shall be open to inspection of the state registrar at all times. On the first day of each month the person, firm, or corporation, selling caskets, coffins or burial boxes, shall report to the state registrar each sale for the preceding month, on a blank provided for that purpose; provided, however, that no person, firm or corporation selling caskets, coffins or burial boxes to dealers or undertakers only shall be required to keep such record nor shall such report be required from undertakers when they have direct charge of the disposition of a dead body.

Every person, firm, or corporation selling a casket, coffin, or burial box, at retail, and not having charge of the disposition of the body, shall inclose within the casket, coffin or burial box a notice furnished by the state registrar calling attention to the requirements of the law, a blank certificate of death, and the rules and regulations of the State Department of Health, concerning the burial or other disposition of a dead body. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 9.]

Rule 43a. Burial permit within state.—That if the interment, or other disposition of the body is to be made within the state, the wording of the burial or removal permit may be limited to a statement by the registrar, and over his signature, that a satisfactory certificate of death having been filed with him, as required by law, permissions granted to inter, remove, or dispose otherwise of the body, stating the name, age, sex, cause of death, and other necessary details upon the form prescribed by the state registrar. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 10.]

Rule 44a. Report as to interment.—That no person in charge of any premises on which interments are made shall inter or permit the interment or other disposition of any body unless it is accompanied by a burial removal or transit permit, as herein provided. And such person shall indorse upon the permit the date of interment, over his signature, and shall return all permits so indorsed to the local registrar of his district within ten days from the date of interment, or within the time fixed by the local health authorities. He shall keep a record in a permanent bound book of all bodies interred or otherwise disposed of on the premises under his charge, in each case stating the name of each deceased person, place of death, date of burial or disposal, and name and address of the undertaker and such other information as the state registrar may direct; which record shall at all times be open to official inspection; and he shall before the tenth day of the following month make a report to the state registrar of all deceased persons deposited in the premises during the preceding month; provided, that the undertaker or person acting as such, when burying a body in a cemetery or burial ground having no person in charge, shall sign the burial or removal permit, giving the date of burial, and shall write across the face of the permit the words, "No person in charge," and file the burial or removal permit within ten days with the registrar of the district in which the cemetery is located. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 11.]

Rule 45a. Births.—That the birth of each and every child born in this state shall be registered as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 12.]

Rule 46a. Birth certificates.—That within five days after the date of each birth, there shall be filed with the local registrar of the district in which the birth occurred a certificate of such birth, which certificate shall be upon the form adopted by the State Department of Health with a view to procuring a full and accurate report with respect to each item of information enumerated in Section 14 [Rule 47a] of this Act.

In each case where a physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, was in attendance upon the birth, it shall be the duty of such physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, to file in accordance herewith the certificate herein contemplated.

In each case where there was no physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, in attendance upon the birth, it shall be the duty of the father or mother of the child, the householder or owner of the premises where the birth occurred or the manager or superintendent of the public or private institution where the birth occurred, each in the order named, within five days after the date of such birth, to report to the local registrar the fact of such birth. In such case and in case the physician, midwife, or person acting as midwife, in attendance upon the birth is unable, by diligent inquiry, to obtain any item or items of information contemplated in Section 14 of this Act [Rule 47a], it shall then be the duty of the local registrar to secure from the person so reporting, or from any other person having the required knowledge, such information as will enable him to prepare the certificate of birth herein contemplated, and it shall be the duty of the person reporting the birth or who may be interrogated in relation thereto to answer correctly and to the best of his knowledge all questions put to him by the local registrar which may be calculated to elicit any information needed to make a complete record of the birth as contemplated by said Section 14 [Rule 47a], and it shall be the duty of the informant as to any statement made in accordance herewith to verify such statement by his signature, when requested so to do by the local registrar. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 13.]

Rule 47a. Contents of birth certificate.—That the certificate of birth shall contain the following items, which are hereby declared necessary for the legal, social, and sanitary purposes subserved by registration records:

(1) Place of birth, including state, county, precinct, town, or city. If in a city, the ward, street, and house number; if in a hospital or other institution, the name of the same to be given, instead of the street and house number.

(2) Full name of child. If the child dies without a name, before the certificate is filed, enter the words "Died unnamed." If the living child has not yet been named at the date of filing certificate of birth, the space for "full name of child" is to be left blank, to be filled out subsequently by a supplemental report, as hereinafter provided.

(3) Sex of child.

(4) Whether a twin, triplet, or other plural birth. A separate certificate shall be required for each child in case of plural births.

(5) For plural births, number of each child in order of birth.

(6) Whether legitimate or illegitimate.

(7) Date of birth, including the year, month, and day.

(8) Full name of father.

(9) Residence of father.

(10) Color or race of father.

(11) Age of father at last birthday, in years.

(12) Birthplace of father; at least state or foreign country, if known.

(13) Occupation of father. The occupation to be reported if engaged in any remunerative employment, with the statement of (a) trade, profession, or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business or establishment in which employed (or employer).

(14) Maiden name of mother.

(15) Residence of mother.

(16) Color or race of mother.

(17) Age of mother at last birthday, in years.

(18) Birthplace of mother; at least state or foreign country, if known.

(19) Occupation of mother. The occupation to be reported if engaged in any remunerative employment, with the statement of (a) trade, profession, or particular kind of work; (b) general nature of industry, business or establishment in which employed (or employer).

(20) Number of children born to this mother, including present birth.

(21) Number of children of this mother living.

(22) The certification of attending physician or midwife as to attendance at birth, including statement of year, month, day (as given in Item 7), and hour of birth, and whether the child was born alive or still-born. This certification shall be signed by the attending physician or midwife with date of signature and address; if there is no physician or midwife in attendance, then by the father or mother of the child, householder owner of the premises, or manager or superintendent of public or private institution where the birth occurred, or other competent person, whose duty it shall be to notify the local registrar of such birth, as required by Section 13 of this Act [Rule 46a].

(23) Exact date of filing in office of local registrar, attested by his official signature, and registered number of birth, as hereinafter provided.

Rule 48. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 24.]

Rule 48a. Child's name.—That when any certificate of birth of a living child is presented without the statement of the given name, then the local registrar shall make out and deliver to the parents of the child a special blank for the supplemental report of the given name of the child, which shall be filled out as directed, and returned to the local registrar as soon as the child shall have been named. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 15.]

Rule 49a. Registration of physicians, midwives and undertakers.—That every physician, midwife, and undertaker shall, without delay, register his or her name, address and occupation with the local registrar of the district in which he or she resides, or may hereafter establish a residence; and shall thereupon be supplied by the local registrar with a copy of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], together with such rules and regulations as may be prepared by the state registrar relative to its enforcement. Within thirty days after the close of each calendar year each local registrar shall make a return to the state registrar of all physicians, midwives, and undertakers or persons who have acted as such who have been registered in his district during the whole or any part of the preceding calendar year; provided, that no fee or other compensation shall be charged by the local registrars to physicians, midwives, or undertakers or persons acting as such for registering their names under this section or making returns thereof to the state registrar. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 16.]

Rule 50a. Records of inmates of hospitals and institutions.—That all superintendents or managers, or other persons in charge of hospitals, almshouses, lying-in or other institutions, public or private, to which persons resort for treatment of diseases, confinement, or are committed by process of law, shall make a record of all the personal and statistical particulars relative to the inmates in their institutions at the date of approval of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], which are required in the forms of the certificates provided for by this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], as directed by the state registrar; and thereafter such record shall be, by them, made for all future inmates at the time of their admittance. And in case of persons admitted or committed for treatment of disease, the physician in charge shall specify for entry in the record, the nature of the disease, and where, in his opinion, it was contracted. The personal particulars and information required by this section shall be obtained from the individual himself if it is practicable to do so; and when they can not be so obtained, they shall be obtained in as complete a manner as possible from relatives, friends, or other persons acquainted with the facts. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 17.]

Rule 51a. Blanks and registration forms.—That the State Department of Health shall prepare, print, and supply to all registrars all blanks and forms used in registering, recording and preserving the returns, or in otherwise carrying out the purposes of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], and each city and incorporated town shall print and supply its local registrar, and each county shall print and supply all local registrars serving in its areas outside of cities and incorporated towns, with permanent record books, in form approved by the state registrar, for the recording of all births and deaths occurring within their respective jurisdictions. The state registrar shall prepare and issue such detailed instructions as may be required to procure the uniform observance of its provisions and the maintenance of a perfect system of registration; and no other forms shall be used than those approved by the State Department of Health. He shall carefully examine the certificates received monthly from the local registrars, and if any such are incomplete or unsatisfactory he shall require such further information to be supplied as may be necessary to make the record complete and satisfactory. And all physicians, midwives, informants, or undertakers, and all other persons having knowledge of the facts, are hereby required to supply, upon a form provided by the State Department of Health or upon the original certificate, such information as they may possess regarding any birth or death upon demand of the state registrar, in person, by mail, or through the local registrar; provided, that no certificate of birth or death, after its acceptance for registration by the local registrar, and no other record made in pursuance of this Act [Rules 34a-55a, P. C., art. 781a], shall be altered or changed in any respect otherwise than by the amendments properly dated, signed, and witnessed. The state registrar shall further arrange, bind and permanently preserve the certificates in a systematic manner, and shall prepare and maintain a comprehensive index of all births and deaths registered; said index to be arranged alphabetically, in the case of deaths, by the name of decedents, and in the case of births, by the names of fathers and mothers. He shall inform all registrars what diseases are to be considered infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, as decided by the State Department of Health, in order that when deaths occur from such diseases proper precautions may be taken to prevent their spread. If any cemetery company or association, or any church or historical society or association, or any other company, society or association, or any individual, is in possession of any record of births or deaths which may be of value in establishing the genealogy of any resident of this state, such company, society, association or individual, may file such record or a duly authenticated transcript thereof with the state registrar, and it shall be the duty of the state registrar to preserve such record or transcript and to make a record and index thereof in such form as to facilitate the finding of any information contained therein. Such record and index shall be open to inspection by the public, subject to such reasonable conditions as the State Department of Health may prescribe. If any person desires a transcript of any record filed in accordance herewith, the state registrar shall furnish the same upon application, together with a certificate that it is a true copy of such record, as filed in his office, and for his services in so furnishing such transcript and certificate he shall be entitled to a fee of (ten cents per folio) (fifty cents per hour or fraction of an hour necessarily consumed in making such transcript) and to a fee of twenty-five cents for the certificate, which fees shall be paid by the applicant; provided, that before the issuance of any such transcript, the registrar shall be satisfied that the applicant is properly entitled thereto, and that it is to be used only for legitimate purposes. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 18.]

Rule 52a. Duties of local registrars.—That each local registrar shall supply blank forms of certificates to such persons as require them. Each local registrar shall carefully examine each certificate of birth or death when presented for record in order to ascertain whether or not it has been made out in accordance with the provisions of this act and the instructions of the state registrar; and if any certificate of death is incomplete or unsatisfactory, it shall be his duty to call attention to the defects in the return, and to withhold the burial or removal permit until such defects are corrected. All certificates, either of birth or death, shall be written legibly, in durable black ink, and no certificate shall be held to be complete and correct that does not supply all of the items of information called for therein, or satisfactorily account for their omission. If the certificate of death is properly executed and complete, he shall then issue a burial or removal permit to the undertaker; provided, that in case the death occurred from some disease which is held by the State Department of Health to be infectious, contagious, or communicable and dangerous to the public health, no permit for the removal or other disposition of the body shall be issued by the registrar, except under such conditions as may be prescribed by the State Department of Health. If a certificate of birth is incomplete, the local registrar shall immediately notify the informant, and require him to supply the missing items of information if they can be obtained. He shall number consecutively the certificates of birth and death, in two separate series, beginning with number 1 for the first birth and the first death in each calendar year, and sign his name as registrar in attest of the date of filing in his office. He shall also make a complete and accurate copy of each birth and each death certificate registered by him in a record book supplied in accordance with provisions of Section 18 of this Act [Rule 51a], to be preserved permanently in his office as the local record, in such manner as directed by the state registrar, or in the event that local ordinances require that all reports of births and deaths be made in duplicate, he may permanently bind the duplicate reports and index them in the manner prescribed in section 18 [Rule 51a] for the state registrar. And he shall, on the tenth day of each month, transmit to the state registrar all original certificates registered by him for the preceding month. And if no births or no deaths occurred in any month, he shall, on the tenth day of the following month, report that fact to the state registrar, on a card provided for such purposes. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 19.]

Rule 53a. Fees.—That each local registrar shall be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each birth certificate and each death certificate properly and completely made out and registered with him, and correctly recorded and promptly returned by him to the state registrar, as required by this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a]; that in case no births or no deaths were registered during any month, the local registrar shall be paid the sum of twenty-five cents for each report to that effect, but only if such report be made promptly as required by this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a]; provided, that if the local registrar receives any salary from state, city or county for his services, then the fees herein provided for shall not be allowed. All amounts payable to a local registrar in a city or incorporated town, under the provisions of this section, shall be approved by the city council, or city commission, as the case may be, and also shall bear the approval of the state registrar, and the same shall be paid out of the general fund of the city; and all amounts payable to a local registrar serving in a district outside of cities and incorporated towns shall be approved by the commissioners' court of the county or the county auditor, as the case may be, and also shall bear the approval of the state registrar, and the same shall be paid by the county treasurer out of the general fund of the county. A subregistrar shall be paid from the monies paid to the local registrar, under whom he serves, and it shall be the duty of the local registrar to make these payments on the following basis: For each certificate of birth and each certificate of death properly and completely made out, received by the subregistrar and promptly filed by him with the local registrar under whom he serves, the subregistrar shall be entitled to the sum of ten cents, to be paid by the local registrar out of monies he receives under the provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a]; provided, that if the local registrar, by reason of other official salaries, receive none of the registration fees provided by this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a], then the subregistrar shall be entitled to the sum of ten cents for each certificate of birth and death properly filed for him with the local registrar under whom he serves, the amount earned to be certified to by the local registrar concerned, approved by the state registrar, approved by the commissioners' court or county auditor, as the case may be, and then to be paid to the subregistrar out of the general fund of the county. Nothing in this Section shall be construed as relieving the local registrar of duties relating to the proper recording and preservation of all birth and death records filed with him, including those received from subregistrars. And the state registrar shall annually certify to the city councils or city commissions, as the case may be and to the commissioners' court or county auditor, as the case may be, the number of births and deaths properly registered, with the name of the local registrars and subregistrars and the amounts due each at the rates fixed herein. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 20.]

Rule 54a. Copies of records.—That the state registrar shall, upon request, supply to any properly qualified applicant a certified copy of the record of any birth or death registered under provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a], for the making and certification of which he shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents, to be paid by the applicant. And any such copy of the record of a birth or death, when properly certified by the state registrar, shall be prima facie evidence in all courts and places of the facts therein stated. For any search of the files and records when no certified copy is made, the state registrar shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for each hour or fractional part of an hour of time of search, said fee to be paid by the applicant. And the state registrar shall keep a true and correct account of all fees by him received under these provisions, and turn the same over to the state treasurer at the close of each month, and all such fees shall be kept by the State Treasurer in a special and separate fund, to be known as the "Vital Statistics Fund," and the amounts so deposited in this fund may be used for defraying expenses incurred in the enforcement and operation of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a]; Provided, That the state registrar shall, upon request of any parent or guardian, supply, without fee, a certificate limited to a statement as to the date of birth of any child when the same shall be necessary for admission to school, or for the purpose of securing employment. And provided further, that the United States Census Bureau may obtain, without expenses to the state, transcripts or certified copies of births and deaths without payment of the fees herein prescribed. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 21.]

Rule 55a. Reports of violations of Act.—That each local registrar is hereby charged with the strict and thorough enforcement of the provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a] in his registration district, under the supervision and direction of the state registrar. And he shall make an immediate report to the state registrar of any violation of this law coming to his knowledge, by observation or upon complaint of any person, or otherwise.

The state registrar is hereby charged with the thorough and efficient execution of the provisions of this act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a] in every part of the state, and is hereby granted supervisory power over local registrars, deputy local registrars, and subregistrars, to the end that all of its requirements shall be uniformly complied with. The state registrar, either personally or by an accredited representative, shall have authority to investigate cases of irregularity or violation of law, and all registrars shall aid him, upon request, in such investigations. When he shall deem it necessary, he shall report cases of violation of any of the provisions of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a] to the county attorney, with a statement of the facts and circumstances; and when any such case is reported to him by the state registrar, the county attorney shall forthwith initiate and promptly follow up the necessary court proceedings against the person or corporation responsible for the alleged violation of law. And upon request of the state registrar, the attorney general shall assist in the enforcement of the provision of this Act [Rules 34a-55a; P. C., art. 781a]. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 23.]

Rules 56 and 57. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 24.]

DEPOTS, COACHES AND SLEEPERS

Rule 58. Diseases barred from public vehicles.—No person known to be suffering with any contagious diseases such as smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles, or whooping cough shall be allowed to enter or ride in any day coach, sleeping car, interurban car or street car, and when any such person is discovered to be in any car as mentioned above, it shall be the duty of the conductor or other person in charge of said car to notify the nearest or most accessible county or city health officer and the latter shall remove and isolate said patient as is proper in such case.

Rule 59. Ventilation and heat.—Each depot, railway coach, sleeping car, interurban car and street car while in use for the accommodation of the public shall be properly ventilated, and, if necessary, heated, and a sufficient amount of heat shall be furnished in time of need so that fresh air can be supplied without causing it to become unduly uncomfortably cold; and the janitor, conductor or other person in charge shall see to it that the air is replenished with fresh air from time to time as needed to prevent the same from becoming foul, unsanitary and oppressive.

Rule 60. Cuspidors.—Cuspidors must be provided in adequate numbers in all waiting rooms of depots and railway stations; each day coach shall be provided with one cuspidor for each seat or every two chairs and two in each smoking apartment, except in each parlor car there may be as few as one cuspidor to every three seats and two cuspidors used in the smoking apartment; in each sleeping car shall be placed one cuspidor to each section and three cuspidors in the smoking apartment, one of which cuspidors, in the absence of a dental lavatory, shall be of an unusually large size and placed near the wash basin for use in washing the teeth; each said cuspidor shall contain not less than one-third of a pint of an approved disinfectant solution, and the cuspidor shall be emptied, washed in a similar solution and replenished each trip or every twenty-four hours.

Rule 61. Dry cleaning prohibited.—Dry cleaning and dry sweeping is prohibited at all times in waiting rooms of depots and railway stations, or in railway coaches, sleeping cars, interurban cars and street cars.

Rule 62. Coaches.—Railway day coaches shall be thoroughly cleaned at the end of each trip, and in no instance shall the day coach go uncleaned longer than two days when such coach is in use; the thorough cleaning of day coaches shall consist as follows:

(a) Windows and doors shall be first opened and the aislestrip, if any, removed and when possible thoroughly sunned.

(b) All upholstery shall be dusted and brushed, using the vacuum process cleaning apparatus whenever possible.

(c) The floor shall be mopped or swept after it has been sprinkled with an approved disinfectant solution or preferably cleaned by sprinkling with sawdust moistened with said disinfectant and sweeping. After cleaning as described, the floor must be scrubbed with soap and water, to which may be added the same disinfectant solution.

(d) Closet floors, urinals, toilet bowls, and walls must be cleaned by washing, scouring and wiping with an approved disinfectant solution, to which soda ash or other cleansing agent may be added.

(e) All arms of seats and window ledges must be wiped free of dust with a damp cloth, preferably one wet with disinfectant solution.

(f) Provided, that where the vacuum cleaning apparatus is installed and coaches are thoroughly cleaned with this method daily, the afore-mentioned method of brushing, cleansing and scrubbing may be used as seldom as once in each period of seven days.

Rule 63. Railway stations.—The sanitary method of cleaning as prescribed in the foregoing rule must be followed in the sanitation of waiting rooms of depots and railway stations once in every twenty-four hours.

Rule 64. Parlor, buffet and dining cars.—Parlor, buffet and dining cars must be cleaned at cleaning terminals, as set forth in the article relating to day coaches. Carpets and draperies to be removed, dusted, sunned and aired. Food boxes, refrigerators, closets, drawers and cupboards to be cleaned, scalded and treated with a solution containing 2 per cent formaldehyde or other approved disinfectant.

Rule 65. Interurban and street cars.—Interurban and street cars must be washed with a hose and scrubbed thoroughly once every twenty-four hours, and must be disinfected with formaldehyde gas under the supervision of the local health authority immediately after any case of contagious disease has been discovered therein.

Rule 66. Sleeping cars.—All sleeping cars shall be cleaned at cleaning terminals according to the methods set forth in the article relating to day coaches at least twice during a period of every seven days; shall be disinfected with formaldehyde gas at least twice during a period of seven days; upon routes designated by the President of the State Board of Health all sleeping cars shall be disinfected as seldom as once during a period of seven days. In addition to the foregoing all sleeping cars shall be disinfected immediately after any case of contagious or infectious disease is discovered therein. All blankets used in sleeping cars must be thoroughly sterilized and washed at intervals of not more than ninety days.

Rule 67. Record of disinfection.—On each passenger car operated in this State a disinfection record must be kept and preserved and on same the following records are to be entered and kept: (1) place and date of each disinfection; (2) length of time devoted to each such thorough disinfection; and (3) each item in said record shall be inserted immediately after each act recorded, and the signature of the person or persons doing said cleaning or disinfection must appear beneath the said records.

Rule 68. Water coolers.—All depots, railway coaches, sleeping cars or interurban cars must be provided with a water cooler for the use of patrons and the traveling public; such water cooler must be so constructed as to be easily removed for the purpose of cleaning; must be emptied, rinsed and cleaned, and must be scalded and sunned when possible once in each period of twenty-four hours, and must be filled with good and wholesome drinking water when in service. Ice for use in water coolers must not be dumped on floors, sidewalks or car platform, but must be washed and must be handled with ice-tongs.

Rule 69. Expecting on floors.—Expecting on the floor or walls or furniture of any waiting room in any depot, on any depot platform, in any railway coach, sleeping car, interurban car, or street car is prohibited. Placards calling attention of passenger[s] and employes shall be hung in a conspicuous place in each of the said rooms and cars.

Rule 70. Expecting in basins.—Brushing of teeth or expectating in basins used for lavatory purposes is prohibited, and placards calling attention of passengers and employes shall be hung in a conspicuous place in the dressing room of passenger coaches.

Rule 71. Separate compartment for porter.—Sleeping car companies shall provide compartments and bedding for their negro porters separate from those provided for their white passengers.

Rule 72. Negro porter not to sleep in berth.—Negro porters shall not sleep in sleeping car berths nor use bedding intended for white passengers.

Rule 73. Certain floor covering prohibited.—No waiting room in any depot or railway station shall be floored in part or entirely with burlap, cocoa matting or sacking cloth.

Rule 74. Water closets.—All depots and railway stations shall provide adequate urinals and water closets for patrons and the traveling public; must keep them in proper sanitary condition, and if within five hundred feet of any public sewer must make permanent sanitary connection with same. Any privy or box closet furnished by such railway company shall be protected from flies by screening or other effective method including hinged lids or other device for covering the opening in the seats of said closets. Such privies and closets as are not in connection with a sanitary sewer shall be provided with a water-tight box or other receptacle underneath, and when full or at any time when its condition shall create a nuisance or become unsanitary, it must be emptied, and in no instance shall such box closet go longer than one month before it must be emptied and disinfected with 5 per cent carbolic acid solution or other approved disinfectant solution.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Rule 75. Railway premises shall be drained.—The premises of all depots and railway stations shall be thoroughly drained so that no stagnant water will collect on said premises.

Rule 76. Water containers screened.—All cisterns, fire water barrels, or other water containers upon the premises of any depot or railway station shall be screened with not less than 16 mesh wire gauze.

TRANSPORTATION OF DEAD BODIES

Rule 77. Bodies dead of pestilential diseases.—No body or [of] any person dead of Asiatic cholera, bubonic plague, typhus fever or smallpox shall be transported except in a hearse or undertaker's wagon unless said body shall have been cremated.

Rule 78. Bodies dead of contagious diseases.—The bodies of those who have died of diphtheria (membranous croup), scarlet fever (scarlatina, scarlet rash), glanders, anthrax or leprosy, shall not be accepted for transportation unless prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by (a) arterial and cavity injection with an approved disinfectant fluid, (b) disinfecting and stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton, and (c) washing the body with the disinfectant, all of which must be done by a licensed embalmer, holding a certificate as such. After being disinfected as above, such body shall be encased in an air-tight zinc, tin, copper or lead-lined coffin, or iron casket, all joints and seams hermetically soldered, and all enclosed in a strong, tight wooden box. Or, the body being prepared for shipment by disinfecting as above, may be placed in a strong coffin or casket and said coffin or casket enclosed in an air-tight copper or tin case, all joints and seams hermetically soldered and all enclosed in a strong outside wooden box.

Rule 79. Bodies dead of non-quarantinable contagious disease.—The bodies of those dead of typhoid fever, puerperal fever, erysipelas, tuberculosis and measles, or other dangerous communicable disease, other than those specified in rules 77 and 78, may be received for transportation when prepared for shipment by filling cavities with an approved disinfectant, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton and encased in an air-tight coffin or casket; provided, that this shall apply only to bodies which can reach their destination within forty-eight hours from time of death. In all other cases such bodies shall be prepared for transportation in conformity with Rule 78. But when the body has been prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by an embalmer holding a certificate, as in Rules 78, the air-tight sealing may be dispensed with.

Rule 80. Bodies dead of other diseases.—The bodies of those dead of diseases that are not contagious, infectious or communicable may be received for transportation when encased in a sound coffin or casket and enclosed in a strong outside box; provided, they reach their destination within thirty hours from time of death. If the body can not reach its destination within thirty hours from time of death, it must be prepared for shipment by filling cavities with an approved disinfectant, washing the exterior of the body with the same, and stopping all orifices with absorbent cotton, and encased in an air-tight coffin or casket. But when the body has been prepared for shipment by being thoroughly disinfected by a licensed embalmer as in Rule 78, the air-tight sealing may be dispensed with.

Rule 81. Persons accompanying bodies dead of contagious diseases.—In cases of contagious or infectious diseases, the body must not be accompanied by persons or articles which have been exposed to the infection of the disease, unless certified by the health officer as having been properly disinfected; and before selling passage tickets, agents shall carefully examine the transit permit and note the name of the passenger in charge and of any other proposing to accompany the body, and see that all necessary precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of disease. The transit permit in such cases shall specifically state who is authorized by the health authorities to accompany the remains. In all cases where bodies are forwarded under Rule 78, notice must be sent by telegraph to health officer at destination, advising the date and train on which the body may be expected. This notice must be sent by or in the name of the health officer of the initial point; and is to enable the health officer at destination to take all necessary precautions at that point.

Rule 82. Bodies not shipped by express.—Every dead body not shipped by express must be accompanied by a person in charge, who must be provided with a passage ticket and also present a full first-class ticket marked "corpse" for the transportation of the body, and a transit permit showing physician's or coroner's certificate, name of deceased, date and hour of death, age, place of death, cause of death, and if of a contagious or infectious disease, the point to which the body is to be shipped, and when death is caused by any of the diseases specified in rule 78, the names of those authorized by the health authorities to accompany the body. The transit permit must be made in duplicate, and the signatures of the physician or coroner, health officer and undertaker must be on both the original and duplicate copies. The undertaker's certificate and paster of the original shall be detached from the transit permit and pasted on the end of the coffin box. The physician's certificate and transit permit shall be handed to the passenger in charge of the corpse. The whole duplicate copy shall be sent to the official in charge of the baggage department of the initial line and by him to the Secretary of the State Board of Health at Austin.

Rule 83. Bodies shipped by express.—When dead bodies are shipped by express, the whole original transit permit shall be pasted upon the outside box, and the duplicate forwarded by the express agent to the Secretary of the State Board of Health at Austin.

Rule 84. Disinterred bodies treated as contagious.—Every disinterred body, dead from any disease or cause, shall be treated as contagious or dangerous to the public health and shall not be accepted for transportation unless removal has been approved by the State or local health authorities having jurisdiction where such body is disinterred, and the consent of the health authorities of the locality to which the corpse is consigned has first been obtained; and all such disinterred remains shall be enclosed in a hermetically sealed (soldered) zinc, tin or copper-lined coffin or box. Bodies deposited in receiving vaults shall be treated and considered the same as buried bodies.

Rule 85. Transfer of bodies in transit.—When necessary to transfer dead bodies in transit from one railway train to another, or from one station to another, or from a station to a ferry, the affidavit of the undertaker and permit of the local health officer accompanying the remains shall be in all cases sufficient authority for such transfer.

Rule 86. Certificate by undertaker.—No common carrier shall accept for transportation any body unless a certificate is furnished by the undertaker preparing such body for shipment to the effect that the foregoing rules have been complied with in the preparation for transportation of said body. [Acts 1911, p. 173; Acts 1917, p. 328.]

4486.	Admission of patients.

Art.

- 4487. Support of patients.
- 4488. Inspection.
- 4489. Poorhouse.
- 4490. Additional hospitals.
- 4491. Contract with hospital.
- 4492. Contracts with cities.
- 4493. Adequate facilities.
- 4494. Counties may join.

Article 4478. Authority.—The commissioners court of any county shall have power to establish a county hospital and to enlarge any existing hospitals for the care and treatment of persons suffering from any illness, disease, or injury, subject to the provisions of this chapter. At intervals of not less than twelve months, ten per cent of the qualified property tax paying voters of a county may petition such court to provide for the establishing or enlarging of a county hospital, in which event said court within the time designated in such petition shall submit to such voters at a special or regular election the proposition of issuing bonds in such aggregate amount as may be designated in said petition for the establishing or enlarging of such hospital. Whenever any such proposition shall receive a majority of the votes of the qualified property tax payers voting at such election, said commissioners court shall establish and maintain such hospital and shall have the following powers:

1. To purchase and lease real property therefor, or acquire such real property, and easements therein, by condemnation proceedings.

2. To purchase or erect all necessary buildings, make all necessary improvements and repairs and alter any existing buildings, for the use of said hospital. The plans for such erection, alteration, or repair shall first be approved by the State Health Officer, if his approval is requested by the said commissioners court.

3. To cause to be assessed, levied and collected, such taxes upon the real and personal property owned in the county as it shall deem necessary to provide the funds for the maintenance thereof, and for all other necessary expenditures therefor.

4. To issue county bonds to provide funds for the establishing, enlarging and equipping of said hospital and for all other necessary permanent improvements in connection therewith; to do all other things that may be required by law in order to render said bonds valid.

5. To appoint a board of managers for said hospital.

6. To accept and hold in trust for the county, any grant or devise of land, or any gift or bequest of money or other personal property or any donation to be applied, principal or income or both, for the benefit of said hospital, and apply the same in accordance with the terms of the gift. [Acts 1913, p. 71.]

Art. 4479. Board of managers.—When the commissioners' court shall have acquired a site for such hospital and shall have awarded contracts for the necessary buildings and improvements thereon, it shall appoint six resident property taxpaying citizens of the county who shall constitute a board of managers of said hospital. The term of office of each member of said board shall be two years, except that in making the first appointments after this Act takes effect three members shall be appointed for one year and three members for two years so that thereafter three members of said board will be appointed every two years. In case of a tie vote of said board the deadlock may be voted off one way or the other by the county judge of the county. Appointments to fill vacancies occurring by death, resignation or other cause shall be made for the unexpired term. Failure of any manager to attend three consecutive meetings of the board shall cause a vacancy in his office, unless said absence is excused by formal action of the board of managers. The managers shall receive no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses within this State to be audited and paid by the commissioners' court in the same manner as other expenses of the hospital. Any manager after being cited may at any time for cause be removed from office by said court. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 268, ch. 189, § 1.]

Art. 4480. Powers of board.—The board of managers shall elect from among its members a president, and one or more vice-presidents and a secretary and a treasurer. It shall appoint a superintendent of the hospital who shall hold office at the pleasure of said board. Said superintendent shall not be a member of the board, and shall be a qualified practitioner of medicine, or be specially trained for work of such character.

The board shall also appoint a staff of visiting physicians who shall serve without pay from the county, and who shall visit and treat hospital patients at the request either of the managers or of the superintendent.

Said board shall fix the salaries of the superintendent and all other officers and employes within the limit of the appropriation made therefor by the commissioners court, and such salaries shall be compensation in full for all services rendered. The board shall determine the amount of time required to be spent at the hospital by said superintendent in the discharge of his duties. The board shall have the general management and control of the said hospital, grounds, buildings, officers and employees thereof; of the inmates therein, and of all matters relating to the government, discipline, contracts and fiscal concerns thereof; and make such rules and regulations as may seem to them necessary for carrying out the purposes of such hospital. They shall maintain an effective inspection of said hospital and keep themselves informed of the affairs and management thereof; shall meet at the hospital at least once in every month, and at such other times as may be prescribed in the by-laws; and shall hold an annual meeting at least three weeks prior to the meeting of the commissioners court at which appropriations for the ensuing year are to be considered. [Id.]

Art. 4481. Clinics.—The board of managers may also establish and operate an outpatient department or free dispensary and clinic at the hospital or in the city nearest to which the hospital is located, with branch dispensaries or clinics in every city or town in the county of five thousand population and over. They shall appoint a physician or physicians, who shall serve at such dispensaries or clinics, and shall determine the amount of time required to be spent at such dispensaries or clinics by such physicians, and shall fix the salaries, if any, of such physicians. Said board shall also appoint one or more trained visiting nurses to serve in connection with each such dispensary or clinic, and in connection with the hospital, and shall fix their salaries within the limits of the appropriation made therefor by the commissioners court. [Id.]

Art. 4482. School for children.—The board may also establish, at the hospital or in the city nearest to which the hospital is situated, or in the largest city in the county, a special and separate school for the education, care and treatment of children suffering from tuberculosis. Said school shall be conducted as a branch of the hospital and the pupils and inmates of said school shall be considered as inmates of the hospital and subject to all the provisions of this law. Said board shall appoint a teacher or teachers, specially qualified, to instruct and care for the pupil inmates of said school. Said board shall delegate the superintendent of the hospital, a member or members of the staff of visiting physicians, a physician or physicians in attendance upon any county dispensary, or shall employ a physician, to attend the inmates of said school, and to supervise their care and treatment, and shall delegate one of the hospital nurses, or a visiting nurse, or shall employ a nurse to assist in the care and treatment of said pupils. [Id.]

Art. 4483. Health bulletins.—The State Board of Health, from time to time, shall make rules and regulations for the care of persons suffering from communicable disease and for the prevention and spread of such diseases; and prepare bulletins and other publications giving information as to the cause, nature, treatment and prevention of disease. The board of managers, shall from time to time, purchase from the State Board of Health, at the actual cost of printing, printed copies of such rules and regulations, bulletins and other publications, or shall have same printed, and shall send or deliver such copies to all practicing physicians in the county, to all public schools and to such private schools as request such copies, and such organizations, churches, societies, unions and individuals as may present written requests for copies of circulars, pamphlets, bulletins and such other publications prepared by the State Board of Health.

Art. 4484. Records.—The board of managers shall keep in a book provided for that purpose a proper record of its proceedings, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of its members, to the members of the commissioners court and to any citizen of the county. The board shall certify all bills and accounts, including salaries and wages, and transmit them to the commissioners court, who shall provide for their payment in the same manner as other charges against the county are paid.

The board of managers shall make to the commissioners court annually, and at such times as said court shall direct, a detailed report of the operation of the hospital dispensaries and school during the year, showing the number of patients received and the methods and results of their treatment, together with suitable recommendations and such other matter as may be required of them, and shall furnish full and detailed estimates of the appropriations required during the ensuing year for all purposes, including maintenance, the erection of buildings, repairs, renewals, extensions, improvements, betterments or other necessary purposes. [Id.]

Art. 4485. Superintendent.—The superintendent shall be the chief executive officer of the hospital, but shall at all times be subject to the by-laws, rules and regulations thereof, and to the powers of the board of managers.

He shall, with the consent of the board of managers, equip the hospital with all necessary furniture, appliances, fixtures and all other needed facilities for the care and treatment of patients, and for the use of officers and employes thereof, and shall purchase all necessary supplies, not exceeding the amount provided for such purposes by the commissioners court.

He shall have general supervision and control of the records, accounts and buildings of the hospital, and all internal affairs, and maintain discipline therein, and enforce compliance with and obedience to all rules, by-laws and regulations adopted by the board of managers for the government, discipline and management of said hospital and the employes and inmates thereof. He shall make such further rules, regulations and orders as he may deem necessary, not inconsistent with law or with the rules, regulations and directions of the board of managers. He shall, with the consent of the board of managers, appoint such resident officers and such employes as he may think proper and necessary for the efficient performance of the business of the hospital, and prescribe their duties; and for cause stated in writing, he may discharge any such officer or employe at his discretion, after giving such officer or employe an opportunity to be heard.

He shall cause proper accounts and records of the business and operations of the hospital to be kept regularly from day to day in books and on records provided for that purpose; and shall see that such accounts and records are correctly made up for the annual report as required by this law, and present the same to the board of managers who shall incorporate them in their report to the commissioners court.

He shall receive into the hospital, under the general direction of the board of managers, in order of application, or according to the urgency of need of treatment, any person found to be suffering from any illness, disease or injury, who has been an actual resident and inhabitant of the county for a period of at least one year prior to his application for admission to said hospital. He shall also receive into the hospital, patients sent by the commissioners court of any adjacent county, which has contracted with the board for the care and treatment of its sick and diseased and injured persons, resident in such counties for a period of at least one year. Such patients shall not be received and cared for unless there is sufficient provision for the care of the sick, diseased and injured of the county in which the hospital is situated. Said superintendent shall cause to be kept proper accounts and records of the admission of all patients, their names, age, sex, color, marital condition, residence, occupation and place of past employment.

He shall cause a careful examination to be made of the physical condition of all persons admitted to the hospital and provide for the treatment of each such patient according to his need; and shall cause a record to be kept of the condition of each patient when admitted and from time to time thereafter.

He shall temporarily or permanently discharge from said hospital any patient who shall wilfully or habitually violate the rules thereof; or who is found not to be sick, diseased or injured; or who is found to have recovered therefrom; or who for any other reason is no longer a suitable patient for treatment therein; and shall make a full report thereof at the next meeting of the board, and the said board shall make such final disposition of the case as they may think proper. From the decision of the board of managers there shall be no appeal.

He shall collect and receive all moneys due the hospital, keep an accurate account of the same, report the same at the monthly meeting of the board of managers, and transmit the same to the county collector within ten days after such meeting.

He shall before entering upon the discharge of his duties, give a bond in such sum as the board of managers may determine, to secure the faithful performance of the duties of his office. [Id.]

Art. 4486. Admission of patients.—Any resident of the county in which the hospital is situated, desiring treatment in such hospital, may apply in person to the superintendent or to any reputable physician for examination, and such physician, if he finds such person is suffering from any illness, disease or injury may apply to the superintendent of the hospital for his admission. Blank forms for such application shall be provided by the hospital and shall be forwarded by the superintendent thereof free to any reputable physician in the county upon request. So far as practicable, applications for admission to the hospital shall be made upon such forms. The superintendent upon receipt of such application, if it appears therefrom that the patient is suffering from illness, disease or injury, and if there be a vacancy in said hospital, shall notify the person named in such application to appear in person at the hospital. If, upon personal examination of such patient, or of any patient applying in person for admission, the superintendent is satisfied that such person is suffering from any illness, disease or injury, he shall admit him to the hospital as a patient. All such applications shall state whether, in the judgment of the physician, the person is able to pay in whole or in part for his care and treatment while at the hospital. Every application shall be filed and recorded in a book kept for that purpose in the order of its receipt. No discrimination shall be made in the accommodations, care or treatment of any patient because of the fact that the patient or his relatives contribute to the cost of his maintenance, in whole or in part. No patient shall be permitted to pay for his maintenance in such hospital a greater sum than the average per capita cost of maintenance therein, including a reasonable allowance for the interest on the cost of the hospital. No officer or employee of such hospital shall accept from any patient thereof, any fee, payment or gratuity whatsoever for his services. [Id.]

Art. 4487. Support of patients.—Whenever a patient has been admitted to said hospital from the county in which the hospital is situated, the superintendent shall cause inquiry to be made as to his circumstances, and of the relatives of such patient legally liable for his support. If he finds that such patient or said relatives are liable to pay for his care and treatment in whole or in part, an order shall be made directing such patient, or said relatives to pay to the treasurer of such hospital for the support of such patient a specified sum per week, in proportion to their financial ability, but such sum shall not exceed the actual per capita cost of maintenance. The superintendent shall have power and authority to collect such sum from the estate of the patient, or his relatives legally liable for his support, in the manner provided by law for the collection of expenses of the last illness of a deceased person. If the superintendent finds that such patient, or said relatives are not able to pay, either in whole or in part, for his care and treatment in such hospital, the same shall become a charge upon the county. Should there be a dispute as to the ability to pay, or doubt in the mind of the superintendent, the county court shall hear and determine same, after calling witnesses, and shall make such order as may be proper, from which there shall be no appeal. [Id.]

Art. 4488. Inspection.—The resident officer of the hospital shall admit the managers into every part of the hospital and the premises and give them access on demand to all books, papers, accounts, and records pertaining to the hospital, and shall furnish copies, abstracts, and reports whenever required by them. All hospitals established or maintained under the provisions of this law shall be subject to inspection by any duly authorized representative of the State Board of Health, or any State board of charities that may hereafter be created, and of the commissioners court of the county; and the resident officers shall admit such representatives into every part of the hospital and its buildings and give them access on demand to all records, reports, books, papers and accounts pertaining to the hospital. [Id.]

Art. 4489. Poorhouse.—Wherever a county hospital for the care and treatment of persons suffering from any illness, disease or injury exists in connection with, or on the grounds of a county poorhouse or elsewhere, the commissioners' court shall appoint a board of managers for such hospital, and such hospital and its board of managers shall thereafter be subject to each provision of this law, in like manner as if it had been originally established hereunder. Any hospital which may hereafter be established by any commissioners court shall in like manner be subject to each provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4490. Additional hospitals.—When deemed advisable by the commissioners court, and approved by the State Board of Health, a county may maintain more than one county hospital for the purpose aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 4491. Contract with hospital.—Any commissioners court of any county which has no city with a population of more than ten thousand persons, may contract for a period not exceeding one year, with any regularly incorporated society or hospital or municipality within the county maintaining a hospital, or with any other adjacent county, for the care of any or all of the sick, diseased or injured inhabitants of the county, upon such terms and conditions as they may by agreement think proper. Where a county has established such hospital, the board of managers may contract with any regularly incorporated society or hospital or city or town within the county maintaining a hospital, for the care of some of the sick, injured or diseased persons applying for admission to the county hospital. [Id.]

Art. 4492. Contracts with cities.—Any commissioners court may co-operate with and join the proper authorities of any city having a population of ten thousand persons or more in the establishment, building, equipment and maintenance of a hospital in said city, and to appropriate such funds as may be determined by said court, after joint conference with the authorities of such city or town, and the management of such hospital shall be under the joint control of such court and city authorities. [Id.]

Art. 4493. Adequate facilities.—Where no county hospital is now provided for the purpose aforesaid, or where such provision is inadequate, the commissioners court of each county which may have a city with a population of more than ten thousand persons, within six months from the time when such city shall have attained such population, such population to be ascertained by such court in such manner as may be determined upon resolution thereof, shall provide for the erection of such county hospital or hospitals as may be necessary for that purpose, and provide therein a room or rooms, or ward or wards for the care of confinement cases, and a room or rooms or ward or wards for the temporary care of persons suffering from mental or nervous disease, and also make provision in separate buildings for patients suffering from tuberculosis and other communicable diseases, and from time to time add thereto accommodations sufficient to take care of the patients of the county. This time may be extended by the State Board of Health for good cause shown. Unless adequate funds for the building of said hospital can be derived from current funds of the county available for such purpose, issuance of county warrants and script, the commissioners court shall submit, either at a special election called for the purpose, or at a regular election, the proposition of the issuance of county bonds for the purpose of building such hospital. If the proposition shall fail to receive a majority vote at such election said court may be required thereafter at intervals of not less than twelve months, upon petition of ten per cent of the qualified voters of said county, to submit said proposition until same shall receive the requisite vote authorizing the issuance of the bonds. [Id.]

Art. 4494. Counties may join.—Where found to be more practicable, and when approved by the State Board of Health, two or more adjacent counties, having each a population of less than fifteen thousand persons, may join for the purposes of this law, and erect one or more hospitals for their joint use, under the terms and conditions above set forth for a single county.

In such cases such combined counties shall have the same powers and be subject to the same liabilities as a single county, herein provided for. [Id.]

Article 4495. [5733] Medical board.—The Board of Medical Examiners for the State of Texas shall consist of eleven men learned in medicine, legal and active practitioners in this State, who shall have resided and practiced medicine in this State under a diploma from a legal and reputable college of medicine of the school to which said practitioner shall belong for more than three years prior to their appointment. No school shall have a majority representation on said board. Said board shall be appointed biennially by the Governor within ninety days after his inauguration, and the term of office of its members shall be two years. No member of said board shall be a stockholder or a member of the faculty or a board of trustees of any medical school. The word "medicine" as used in this article shall have the same meaning and scope as given to it in the article defining it. [Acts 1907, p. 224, sec. 1.]

Art. 4496. [5734] Organization and meetings.—Each member of said board shall qualify by taking the official oath in the county of his residence. At the first meeting of said board after each biennial appointment, the board shall elect a president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice a year, at such times and places as the board shall deem most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings shall be given by publication in such papers as may be selected by the board. Special meetings may be held upon a call of three members of the board. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws, in harmony with the provisions of this title, for its own proceedings and government for the examination of applicants for the practice of medicine and obstetrics. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 4497. [5735] Board shall keep register.

—The board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing name, age, place and duration of residence of each applicant, the time spent in medical study in respective medical schools, and the year and school from which degrees were granted; said register shall also show whether applicants were rejected or licensed, and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The Secretary of the board shall on March 1 of each year, transmit an official copy of said register to the Secretary of State for permanent record, a certified copy of which, with hand and seal of the secretary of said board, or the Secretary of State, shall be admitted in evidence in all courts. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 4498. [5736] Physicians to register.—

No person shall practice medicine in any of its branches upon human beings within the limits of this State who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resides, lawful authority to so practice medicine as herein prescribed, together with an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by him before said clerk stating his age, post-office address, place of birth, school of practice to which he professes to belong, that he is the identical person to whom the license offered for registration was issued, and that the same has not been canceled. The fact that said oath was so made, and said license so recorded, shall be endorsed by the district clerk upon the license. The holder of the license must in similar manner have the same recorded upon each change of residence to another county, and shall in each instance be required to make the affidavit provided above. The absence of such record in the office of the district clerk shall be prima facie evidence that no such license exists, and of failure to comply with the law in reference to the registration of license to practice medicine. [Acts 1923, p. 292.]

Art. 4499. [5737] Medical Register.—Every district clerk shall keep as a permanent record of his office a book of suitable size, to be known as the "Medical Register," and shall record therein all licenses to practice medicine issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners which shall be presented to him for registration and all the matters and things required by the preceding article to be recorded, and shall, as required by law, make therein notation of the cancellation of licenses so registered, and of the death and removal from the county of physicians whose licenses are so registered. When any district court shall cancel the license of any person to practice medicine, the clerk of said court shall, if said license is registered in his county, note the cancellation of said license upon the medical register of said county, and shall forthwith certify to the Secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners, under the seal of said court, the fact that said license was so canceled by said court, giving the exact date of said cancellation, and shall tax the fee for making said certificate as part of the costs of the suit to cancel said license. Each county health officer shall keep informed of the death and removal of all registered physicians residing in the county where he resides, and upon the death or removal of any such physician from said county shall certify such death or removal, giving the name of the physician who has died, or so removed, the date, or approximate date of such death or removal, and shall date and sign such certificate and deliver the same either in person or by registered mail, to the district clerk of said county, and said clerk shall forthwith make notation of said death or removal in said Medical Register, and notify the Secretary of the State Board of Medical Examiners of the said death or removal. The notation of such cancellation, if made by a district court, shall consist of writing in large, legible letters across the face of the record of the license cancelled the words "Cancelled by the district court of _____ County, on the _____ day of _____, 19—," (filling the blanks so as to correctly indicate the name of the county and the date of the cancellation) and such notation shall be dated and signed officially by the clerk. The notation of the death or removal of a registered physician by the district clerk shall consist of noting the fact of such death or removal upon the record of the license of the physician who has died or removed from the county in large, legible letters, the date of said notation, and the official signature of the clerk. The district clerk shall collect from each physician who presents a license for registration the sum of one dollar at the time such license is presented to him for registration, and that sum shall be full compensation for recording said license and making all notations in the medical register required by law to be so made in reference to the physician named in said license. All matters pertaining to each physician shall be kept and written upon one page of said medical register, and no other entry or registration shall ever be made on said page. It shall be unlawful for any district clerk to make a certified copy of any page or entry in said medical register, or any part thereof, which is not an exact copy of the entire page, or which does not include all notations regarding the cancellation of license, death, or removal of the physician in question, appearing in the office of said clerk. A copy from the medical register pertaining to any person whose license is registered therein certified to by the district clerk having the custody of said medical register under the seal of said court shall be competent evidence in all trial courts. The certificate of a district clerk under the seal of his office certifying that the person named in said certificate is not registered as a physician in the office of said district clerk shall also be prima facie evidence in all trial courts. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1923, p. 285.]

Art. 4500. [5738] Reciprocal arrangements.

—The State Board of Medical Examiners may in its discretion, upon payment by the applicant for registration of a fee of fifty dollars, grant license to practice medicine to any reputable physician who is a graduate of a reputable medical college or has qualified on examination for the certificate of medical qualification for a commission in the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, and to licentiates of other states or territories having requirements for medical registration and practice equal to those established by this law. Applications for license under the provisions of this article shall be in writing, and upon a form to be prescribed by the State Board of Medical Examiners. Said application shall be accompanied with a diploma or a photograph thereof, awarded to the applicant by a reputable medical college, or a certified transcript of the certificate or license or commission issued to the applicant by the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, or by a license or a certified copy of license to practice medicine, lawfully issued to the applicant by some other State or territory; and also be accompanied by an affidavit from a executive officer of the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, the president or secretary of the Board of Medical Examiners who issued the said license, or by a legally constituted medical registration officer of the State or territory in which the certificate or license was granted upon which the application for medical registration in Texas is based. Said affidavit shall recite that the accompanying certificate or license has not been cancelled or revoked except by honorable discharge from the medical corps of the United States Army or Navy, and that the statement of qualifications made in the application for medical registration in Texas is true and correct. Applicants for license under the provisions of this article shall subscribe to an oath in writing, which shall be a part of said application, stating that the license, certificate, or authority under which the applicant practiced medicine in the state or territory from which the applicant removed was at the time of such removal in full force and not suspended or cancelled; that the applicant is the identical person to whom the said certificate, license or commission and the said medical diploma were issued, and that no proceeding was pending at the time of such removal, or is at the present time pending against the applicant for the cancellation of such certificate, license, or authority to practice medicine in the State or territory in which the same was issued, and that no prosecution was then, or is at the time of the application pending against the applicant in any State or Federal court for any offense which under the law of Texas is a felony. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1915, p. 112; Acts 1923, p. 286.]

Art. 4501. [5739] Examination.—All applicants for license to practice medicine in this State, not otherwise licensed under the provisions of law, must successfully pass an examination before the Board of Medical Examiners established by this law. Applicants, to be eligible for examination, must present satisfactory evidence to the board that they are more than twenty-one years of age, of good moral character, and graduates of bona fide, reputable medical schools. Such school shall be considered reputable within the meaning of this law, whose entrance requirements and course of instruction are as high as those adopted by the better class of medical schools of the United States, whose course of instruction shall embrace not less than four terms of eight months each. Application for examination must be made in writing under affidavit to the secretary of the board, on forms prepared by the board, accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars; except when an applicant desires to practice obstetrics alone, the fee of which shall be five dollars. Such applicant shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. Applicants to practice obstetrics in this State, upon proper application, shall be examined by the board in obstetrics only, and upon satisfactory examination shall be licensed to practice that branch only; provided, this shall not apply to those who do not follow obstetrics as a profession, and who do not advertise themselves as obstetricians or midwives, or hold themselves out to the public as so practicing. If any applicant, because of failure to pass examination, be refused a license, he or she shall, at such time as the Board of Medical Examiners shall fix, be permitted to take a subsequent examination upon such subjects required in original examinations as the said board may prescribe, upon the payment of such part of twenty-five dollars as the said board may determine and state; and said board may, in the event satisfactory grades shall be made in the subjects prescribed and taken in such re-examination, grant to the applicant license to practice medicine. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1915, p. 112; Acts 1923, p. 287.]

Art. 4502. [5740] Disposition of fees.—The fund realized from the aforesaid fees shall be applied first to the payment of necessary expenses of the board of examiners; any remaining funds shall be applied by the order of the board to compensating members of the board in proportion to their labors. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4503. Details of examinations.—All examinations to practice medicine shall be conducted in writing in the English language and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals and to every school, or system of medicine, the applicants being known to the examiners only by numbers, without names or other method of identification on examination papers by which members of the board may be able to identify such applicants, or examinees, until after the general averages of the examinees' numbers in the class have been determined and license ordered, granted or refused. Examinations shall be conducted on anatomy, physiology, chemistry, histology, pathology, bacteriology, diagnosis, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, hygiene, and medical jurisprudence. Upon satisfactory examination under the rules of the board, applicants shall be granted license to practice medicine. All questions and answers, with grades attached, shall be preserved in the executive office of the board for one year. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions in each of the above named branches. All certificates shall be attested by the seal of the board and signed by all members of the board, or a quorum thereof. The board may in its discretion give its examination for license in two parts. The first part shall include such of the required scientific branches of medicine named above as may be prescribed by the board. The second, or final part of the examination shall not be given until the applicant has graduated and received a diploma from a reputable medical college. This, the second or final part of the examination shall include all of the scientific branches of medicine prescribed by this law not included and passed by the applicant in the first, or partial, examination, but no license to practice medicine shall issue to such applicant or examinee unless and until he or she has been examined in all of the scientific branches of medicine prescribed by this law and made the general average or averages required by the board. The application for the first partial examination shall be accompanied by an affidavit from the dean or registrar of a reputable medical college, stating that the applicant has successfully completed the work of the first two years of the college course, and a fee of fifteen dollars; the application for the second, or final, part of the examination shall include an affidavit showing that the applicant is a graduate of a reputable medical college, in good standing with this board, and a fee of twenty-five dollars. The board is authorized to make all rules as to credit to be given for partial examinations, and re-examinations of failed examinees in partial or complete examinations, and changes in procedure necessary to conduct the examination for license in two parts. But it shall be optional with the applicant for examination for license whether he or she shall take the twelve branches of medicine prescribed by this law in one examination session of the board or in two separate sessions. All applicants for examination by said board who cannot speak or write the English language must pay an additional charge of thirty dollars for the services of an interpreter, who shall fairly and accurately translate to the applicant each question propounded to applicants in such examination, and receive from said applicant full answer to said question and translate the said answer fully and with accuracy for the applicant and write the answer thus translated in the answers to said questions furnished to the board for examination and grading. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1923, p. 288.]

Art. 4504. [5742] Construction of this law.—Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to discriminate against any particular school or system of medical practice, nor to affect or limit in any way the application or use of the principles, tenets or teachings of any church in the ministrations to the sick or suffering by prayer without the use of any drug or material remedy, provided sanitary and quarantine laws and regulations are complied with, and that no charge is made therefor, directly or indirectly. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to dentists legally qualified and registered under the laws of this State who confine their practice strictly to dentistry; nor optometrists who confine their practice strictly to optometry, as defined in this title; nor to nurses who practice only nursing; nor to masseurs in their particular sphere of labor who publicly represent themselves as such; nor to commissioned or contract surgeons of the United States Army, Navy or Public Health and Marine Hospital Service in performance of their duties, but shall not engage in private practice without license from the Board of Medical Examiners; nor to legally qualified physicians of other States called in consultation, but who do not open office or appoint places in this State where patients may be met or called to see. This law shall be so construed as to apply to persons other than licensed druggists of this State not pretending to be physicians who offer for sale on the streets or other public places remedies which they recommend for the cure of disease. [Acts 1907, p. 224, Acts 1923, p. 289.]

Art. 4505. [5743] May refuse to admit certain persons.—The State Board of Medical Examiners may refuse to admit persons to its examinations, or to issue the certificate provided for in this law, for any of the following causes:

1. The presentation to the board of any license, certificate or diploma which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deception has been practiced in passing the examination.

2. Conviction of a crime of the grade of a felony, or one which involves moral turpitude, or procuring or aiding or abetting the procuring of a criminal abortion.

3. Other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public; or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction calculated to endanger the lives of patients; provided, that any applicant who may be refused admittance to examination before said board shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court of the county in which some member of the board shall reside. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 4506. [5744] Revocation of license.—The right to practice medicine in this State may be revoked by any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof of the violation of the law in any respect in regard thereto, or for any cause for which the State Board of Medical Examiners is authorized to refuse to admit persons to its examinations as provided in the preceding article; and it shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this State to file and prosecute appropriate judicial proceeding in the name of the State, on request of any member of said board. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 4507. To suspend or cancel license.—The district courts of the State shall have the authority to cancel or suspend [suspend] the license of any practitioner of medicine when it shall appear to the satisfaction of said court, upon hearing that such practitioner of medicine has been convicted in a State or Federal court of an offense, which in this State is a felony, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, or that the practitioner obtained his examination for license upon a diploma, certificate, or license which had been illegally or fraudulently obtained; upon a fictitious or bogus certificate, license, or diploma, or one issued to a person other than the applicant, or that the practitioner was guilty of fraud, false swearing, or deception in obtaining examination by the board, or in passing examination for medical license, or in procuring the issuance of a license to him or in securing registration of his license by a district clerk, or that the practitioner has, in the judgment of the court, been guilty of grossly improper or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, or when it shall be shown to the satisfaction of the court that he is addicted to the habitual use of narcotics, or to habits of intemperance reasonably calculated to endanger the lives of his patients. When complaint is made to the court by any county or district attorney, as provided in the preceding article, said court shall order the practitioner of medicine to show cause why his license shall not be suspended or revoked. Such complaint shall be made in writing, the charge and the grounds thereof shall be set out distinctly and the same shall be subscribed and sworn to by the prosecutor and filed with the clerk of the court. Citation thereon shall be issued in the name of the State of Texas, and in manner and form as in other cases, and the same shall be served upon the defendant at least ten days before the trial day set therein. Upon the return of said citation executed, if the defendant shall appear and deny the charge, the cause shall be docketed for trial, and conducted in the name of the State of Texas against the defendant. The State shall be represented by the county or district attorney. A jury of twelve men shall be impaneled unless waived by the defendant, and the cause shall be tried in like manner as other cases. If the said practitioner of medicine be found guilty, or shall fail to appear and deny the charge after being cited as aforesaid, the said court may, by proper order entered on the minutes, suspend his license for a time, or revoke and cancel it entirely, and may also give proper judgment for costs. [Acts 1919, p. 231, Acts 1921, p. 145, Acts 1923, p. 290.]

Art. 4508. Duty of Attorney General.—Upon the application of the Board of Medical Examiners, or a majority thereof, to the Attorney General, setting forth that the county or district attorney of a county or district has failed to prosecute or proceed against any person violating the terms of this chapter, setting forth that application and request has been made of such county or district attorney and that such request or application has been neglected or refused, the Attorney General shall proceed against such a person in the county of residence of the person complained against, either by civil or criminal proceedings. [Acts 1923, p. 291.]

Art. 4509. Injunction.—The actual practice of medicine in violation of the provisions of this title, or in violation of any provision of Title 12, chapter 6, of the Penal Code, shall be enjoined at the suit of the State, but such suit for injunction shall not be entertained in advance of the previous final conviction of the party sought to be enjoined of the violation of any provision of said chapter of the Penal Code. In such suits for injunction, it shall not be necessary to show that any person is personally injured by the acts complained of. Any person who may be or about to be so unlawfully practicing medicine in this State, may be made a party defendant in said suit. The Attorney General, the district attorney of the district in which the defendant resides, the county attorney of the county in which the defendant resides, or any of them, shall have the authority, and it shall be their duty, and the duty of each of them, to represent the State in such suits. No injunction, either temporary or permanent, shall be granted by any court, until after a hearing on complaint is had by a court of competent jurisdiction on its merits. In such suit no injunction or restraining order shall be issued until final trial and final judgment on the merits of the suit. If on the final trial it be shown that the defendant in such suit has been unlawfully practicing medicine, or is about to practice medicine unlawfully, the court shall by judgment perpetually enjoin the defendant from practicing or continuing the practice of medicine in violation of law as complained of in said suit. Disobedience of said injunction shall subject the defendant to the penalties provided by law for the violation of an injunction. The procedure in such cases shall be the same as in any other injunction suit as nearly as may be. The remedy by injunction given hereby shall be in addition to criminal prosecution. Such causes shall be advanced for trial on the docket of the trial court, and shall be advanced and tried in the appellate courts in the same manner and under the same laws and regulations as other suits for injunction. [Acts 1923, p. 291.]

Art. 4510. [5745] Who regarded as practicing medicine.—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this law:

1. Who shall publicly profess to be a physician or surgeon and shall treat, or offer to treat, any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury, by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof;

2. Or who shall treat or offer to treat any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof and charge therefor directly or indirectly, money or other compensation. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4511. [5746] Definitions.—The terms, "physician," and "surgeon," as used in this law, shall be construed as synonymous, and the terms, "practitioners," "practitioners of medicine," and, "practice of medicine," as used in this law, shall be construed to refer to and include physicians and surgeons. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 4512. [5747] Malpractice cause for revoking license.—Any physician or person who is engaged in the practice of medicine, surgery, osteopathy, or who belongs to any other school of medicine, whether they use the medicines in their practice or not, who shall be guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct, or of any malpractice, or shall, by any untrue or fraudulent statement or representations made as such physician or person to a patient or other person being treated by such physician or person, procure and withhold, or cause to be withheld, from another any money, negotiable note, or thing of value, may be suspended in his right to practice medicine or his license may be revoked by the district court of the county in which such physician or person resides, or of the county where such conduct or malpractice or false representations occurred, in the manner and form provided for revoking or suspending license of attorneys at law in this State. [Acts 1905, p. 370.]

Article 4513. Board of Examiners.—The Governor shall biennially appoint a Board of Nurse Examiners to consist of five members, two of whom shall be appointed for three years and three for two years. Each member of said board shall be a registered graduate nurse of at least twenty-five years of age, of good moral character and a graduate of a school of nursing connected with a general hospital or sanitarium of good standing presided over by a graduate registered nurse, where a two or more years training with a systematic course of instruction is given, and shall have had at least three years experience in educational work among nurses. The members of the board and the educational secretary shall each make and subscribe to the official oath and the same shall, within thirty days after their appointment, be filed with the Secretary of State. [Acts 1923, p. 413.]

Art. 4514. Organization of board.—The members of the said board shall elect from their number a president, and a secretary who shall also act as treasurer. Special meetings of said board shall be called by the president or by the secretary upon the written request of any two members. The board may make such by-laws and rules as may be necessary to govern its proceedings and to carry into effect the purpose of this law. The secretary shall be required to keep a record of each meeting of said board, including a register of the names of all nurses registered under this law, which shall at all times be open to public inspection. Said board shall assist the proper legal authorities in the prosecution of all persons violating any provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4515. Salaries.—The members of said board shall receive such per diem as may be fixed by the board, not to exceed ten dollars per day for each day they are actually engaged in the work of the board, and the board may defray all necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by its members in attending meetings. [Id.]

Art. 4516. Educational secretary.—The board shall appoint an educational secretary, who shall be at least thirty years old, and shall have had at least five years experience in educational work among nurses. The duties of said secretary shall be to visit all schools of nursing in the State at least once a year to confer with superintendents of hospitals and superintendents of nursing schools as to the system of instruction given and as to accommodations and rules governing said school in reference to its students. The board shall prescribe such methods and rules of visiting, and such methods of reporting by said secretary as may in its judgment be deemed proper. [Id.]

Art. 4517. Bond and salary of secretary.—The secretary-treasurer of the board shall, within thirty days of her election by the board, execute a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars payable to the Governor, conditioned that she shall faithfully perform the duties of her office and account for all funds coming into her hands as secretary-treasurer; said bond to be signed by two or more good and sufficient sureties or by a surety company authorized to do business in this State, to be approved by the president of said board. The salary of the secretary shall be fixed and paid by the board and shall be exclusive of such traveling and other expenses as may be incurred with the approval of the board in the discharge of the official duties of said secretary. [Id. p. 414.]

Art. 4518. Qualifications of applicants.—Applicants for registration under this law must have had two years continuous training under a registered nurse in a school of nursing from which she has graduated. Such school of nursing must be an accredited school approved by the board. Said school of nursing, if located in Texas, must be presided over by a nurse registered in Texas. Applicants who have had two years training in nursing schools connected with a special hospital may be accepted for registration, provided he or she shall have had additional training in an accredited school of nursing connected with a general hospital of at least one year. [Id.]

Art. 4519. Examination and fee.—Upon filing application for examination each applicant shall pay an examination fee of fifteen dollars which shall in no case be returned to applicant. If the applicant passes the examination, then no further fee shall be required for registration. Any applicant for registration who fails to successfully pass the examination herein provided for shall have the right after six months and within one year to stand a second examination on those subjects wherein he or she has failed to make a grade of seventy per cent, without payment of any additional fees. If more than three examinations are necessary, an additional fee of two dollars shall be charged for each. A grade of not less than seventy on any one subject shall be required to pass the examination. The examination shall be of such character as to determine the fitness of the applicant to practice professional nursing. If the result of the examination be satisfactory to the board, a certificate shall be issued to the applicant, signed by the president and secretary and attested by the seal of said board, which certificate shall qualify the person receiving the same to practice professional nursing in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4520. Exempt from examination.—No nurse who is engaged in professional nursing at the time of the passage of this law and who has qualified under any previous law of this State and received a certificate from the board under such provisions of law regulating professional nursing, shall be required to stand any further examination under this law, but shall register with the county clerk in the county where she then resides. [Id.]

Art. 4521. Certificate from another State.—Any applicant of good character who holds a registration certificate as a professional nurse from another State whose requirements are equal to those of Texas, and whose individual qualifications shall be equivalent to those required in this law, may be granted a license to practice nursing in this State without examination, provided a fee of fifteen dollars is paid to the board by such applicant. [Id.]

Art. 4522. Use of "R. N."—A nurse who has received his or her license or permit according to the provisions of this law shall be styled a "registered nurse," and may use the title or abbreviation "R. N." [Id.]

Art. 4523. Temporary permit.—The board shall issue to graduate nurses from accredited schools of nursing who are actually engaged in the pursuit of their profession, a temporary permit to practice their profession until such time as the applicant can qualify for registration. A fee of two dollars shall be paid upon filing application for such permit. [Id.]

Art. 4524. Recording certificate.—Every person receiving a certificate of registration as provided in this law shall within thirty days thereafter file the same for record with the county clerk of the county where such person resides, together with a certificate of his or her identity as the person to whom the same was issued, and his or her place of residence at the time of the examination and registration. The county clerk shall record such certificate together with the certificate of identity, in a book kept for that purpose, for which service he shall be paid by the holder of such certificate a fee of fifty cents. The county clerk shall furnish annually on the first day of January to the Board of Nurse Examiners, upon blanks supplied by said Board, a duplicate list of all certificates so recorded by him during the preceding year, including therein the date of recording and the name and residence of the person filing the same, for which the board shall pay him a fee of two and one-half dollars. [Id.]

Art. 4525. Revoking certificate.—The Board of Nurse Examiners may by unanimous vote file a complaint against any registered nurse in the county court where such certificate is recorded, charging gross incompetency, malpractice, dishonesty, intemperance or any other act derogatory to the morals and standing of the profession of nursing. Thereupon the person against whom such complaint is filed shall be cited in writing to appear before said court on a date named in such citation not less than ninety days from the issuance of said notice, to which citation there shall be attached a certified copy of the complaint so filed. If such court shall decree a revocation of the certificate of such nurse, he or she shall have the right to appeal to the district court of such county. Such certificate shall upon such appeal remain in full force and effect until the same shall be disposed of by such district court, the decision of which shall be final. Upon the revocation of any certificate as herein provided, the secretary of said board shall strike the name of the holder of such certificate from the roll of registered nurses kept by such board. [Id.]

Art. 4526. Re-registration.—On or before the first day of March of each year, the secretary of the board shall mail to each nurse registered in this State a blank application for re-registration, addressing the same to the post-office address as shown by the records of said board. Upon receipt of such application blank, which shall contain space for such information as the board shall deem necessary, he or she shall sign and swear to the accuracy of the same before some officer authorized to administer oaths, after which he or she shall forward such sworn statement and application for renewal of his or her registration certificate to the secretary of the board, together with a fee of fifty cents. Upon receipt of such application and fee and having verified the accuracy of the same by comparison with the applicant's initial registration statements, the secretary of the board shall issue and mail to the applicant a certificate of re-registration which shall render the holder thereof a legally qualified registered nurse for the ensuing year. In case of refusal, notice of such fact shall be given. Certificates of re-registration shall bear the date of April of the year of issue, and shall expire on the last day of March in the year following. Should any registered nurse continue to practice nursing and caring for the sick beyond the time for which he or she is registered or re-registered, he or she shall be deemed to be an illegal practitioner and his or her license may be suspended or revoked by the board. All nurses already registered in this State at the time of the passage of this law shall make application to the secretary of the board for a re-registration blank, upon receipt of which he or she shall, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed, make application for re-registration, failing which the delinquent may be dealt with as provided in regard to the suspension or revocation of license. [Id.]

Art. 4527. Fees.—All fees received by said Board under this law shall be paid to the treasurer thereof; who shall pay the same out only on vouchers issued and signed by the president and secretary of said board. All money so received and placed in said fund may be used by said board in defraying its expenses in carrying out the provisions of this law. No expenses incurred by said board shall be paid by the State. [Id.]

Art. 4528. Exceptions.—This law shall not be construed to apply to the gratuitous nursing of the sick by friends, nor any person nursing the sick for hire who does not in any way assume or profess to practice as a graduate certified registered nurse. [Id.]

Art. 4528a. Employment for public schools and compensation.—Sec. 1. That the Commissioners Court of the various Counties in the State of Texas shall have the authority, when in their judgment it shall be deemed to be necessary or advisable, to employ one or more Graduate Registered nurses whose duty it shall be to visit the public schools in the county in which they are employed, and to investigate the health conditions and sanitary surroundings of such schools, and the personal, physical and health condition of pupils therein, and to co-operate with the duly organized Board of Health and local health authorities in general public health nursing and perform such other and further duties as may be required of them by the Commissioners Court.

Sec. 2. That said nurses when so appointed shall be employed on a monthly salary to be fixed by the Commissioners Court and shall at all times be subject to removal by the Commissioners Court without prior notice.

Sec. 3. The Commissioners Court shall be empowered to appropriate from any funds of the respective Counties the necessary money to cover the salary of such nurses, not to exceed the sum of $1,800.00 to each nurse, and in addition thereto may appropriate additional funds to cover all expenses that may be proper and necessary in the visiting of such schools, and General Public Health Nursing including transportation and other incidental expenses. 4542. Fees of board.

Article 4529. [6286] Appointment of board.—The Governor shall biennially on or before September 1st after his inauguration appoint five persons to constitute a board to be styled "The Texas State Board of Pharmacy," hereinafter referred to as the board. Any member of said board may be removed by the Governor for good cause shown. Each member of said board shall be a licensed pharmacist and shall have been actively engaged in the practice of pharmacy in this State at the time of his appointment and for the five years immediately preceding such appointment. No one who is connected in any way with any school or college of pharmacy shall be appointed as a member of said board. No two members of the board shall reside in the same county. [Acts 1907, p. 349.]

Art. 4530. [6287] Organization of board.—The board shall within thirty days after their appointment and annually thereafter, meet and organize by the election of a president, secretary and a treasurer, who shall hold office for one year from the date of their election. The president and the treasurer shall be members of the board, but the secretary need not be a member. The secretary shall receive such salary as the board may prescribe, and his necessary expense while engaged in the performance of his official duties. The treasurer and the secretary shall give bond, payable to the Governor, in such sum as the board may determine, conditioned for the faithful performance of all duties imposed by law or by order of the board, which at no time shall be for less amount than the sum handled by them annually. The board shall pay the expense of making such bonds. The secretary shall collect all money due the board from all sources, and pay the same over to the treasurer within ten days, taking his receipt therefor. The board shall prescribe the pay of the members thereof, but at no time shall the amount exceed five dollars per day for each member, to be paid to them for such days during which they are actually engaged in the discharge of their official duties, and shall pay them the amounts they actually incur for expenses in the discharge of their duties for mileage, hotel bills, stamps and stationery. No bill either of services or expense of such member shall be paid until an itemized statement of such service and each item of expense has been made out and duly sworn to by such member of such board, and such account has been filed with and approved by said board. The State shall never be liable for the salary and expense of any member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 4531. [6289] Duty of board.—The board shall adopt such by-laws and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this law as they deem necessary to carry out such provisions, and shall examine all applications for registration of such persons as may be entitled to the same under the provisions of this law. It shall make an annual report to the Governor, a copy of which shall be furnished to the Texas State Pharmaceutical Association, upon the condition of pharmacy in Texas; which report shall embrace all the proceedings of the board, and give an itemized account of all money received and disbursed by said board, and shall show to whom paid and for what purpose it was paid, and also show the names of all pharmacists duly registered under this law. The board shall deliver all money on hand at the end of the term of each board, after all outstanding debts have been paid, over to their successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 4532. [6290] Meetings for examination.—The board shall hold meetings for the examination of applicants for registration, and for the transaction of such other business as may legally come before it, at least once in four months, and such additional meetings as may be necessary. Said regular meetings shall be held on the third Tuesday of January, May and September of each year, in such places as the board may select, or places as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants. Due notice of such meetings thirty days in advance thereof, shall be given by publication in such papers as the board may select. [Id.]

Art. 4533. [6294] Application for license.—Every person who desires to be licensed as a pharmacist, shall file with the secretary of the board of pharmacy an application upon blanks furnished by the board of pharmacy for that purpose, duly verified under oath, setting forth the name and age of the applicant, the place or places at which and the time spent in the study of the science and art of pharmacy, the experience in compounding physician's prescriptions which the applicant has had under the direction of a legally licensed pharmacist, and shall appear at a time and place designated by the board of pharmacy, and submit to an examination as to his or her qualifications for registration as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist. If any applicant should fail to pass a satisfactory examination, he or she may at any subsequent meeting of the board of pharmacy, within six months, be permitted to be re-examined without cost. [Id.]

Art. 4534. [6295] Qualifications of applicants.—In order to be licensed as a pharmacist, each applicant shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall have been licensed as an assistant pharmacist for not less than two years prior to his application for license as a pharmacist, or he shall present to the board satisfactory evidence that he is a graduate of a reputable school or college of pharmacy, or that he has had four years practical experience in pharmacy under the instruction of a pharmacist; and he shall also pass a satisfactory examination by or under the direction of a board of pharmacy. In order to be licensed as an assistant pharmacist, an applicant shall not be less than eighteen years of age and shall have a sufficient preliminary general education, and shall have had not less than two years experience in pharmacy, and shall pass a satisfactory examination by or under the direction of the board of pharmacy. In the case of persons who have attended a reputable school or college of pharmacy, the actual time of attendance at school or college of pharmacy may be deducted from the time of experience required of a pharmacist and assistant pharmacist, but in no case shall less than two years experience be required for registration as a licensed pharmacist. [Id.]

Art. 4535. [6296] Board to issue license.—If the applicant for license as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist has complied with each requirement of this law, the board shall enroll his name upon the register of pharmacists or assistant pharmacists, and issue to him a license which shall entitle him to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist for a period of two years from the date of said license. The board may refuse to grant a license to any person who has been convicted of a felony or who has been guilty of gross immorality, or who is addicted to the use of alcoholic liquors or narcotic drugs to such extent as to render him unfit to practice. The board after due notice, may revoke a license for like cause, or may revoke any license which has been procured by fraud. [Id.]

Art. 4536. [6291] Temporary certificate.—Upon satisfactory proof that the applicant is competent, any member of the board may issue a temporary certificate which shall be null and void after the first meeting of the board next after granting said certificate. Only one such certificate shall be granted to any one person.

Art. 4537. [6296] Renewal of license.—Every licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist who desires to continue in the practice of his profession shall, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of his license or permit, file with the board an application for the renewal thereof, accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed. If the board shall find that the applicant has been legally licensed in this State and is entitled to renewal of license, or to a renewal of such permit, it shall issue to him a certificate attesting the fact. If any pharmacist or assistant pharmacist shall fail, for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license, to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist; and such person, in order to become registered as a licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall be required to pay the same fee as in the case of original registration. [Id.]

Art. 4538. [6297] Applicant registered in foreign country.—The board may issue license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist in this State, without examination, to such persons as have been legally registered or licensed as pharmacists or assistant pharmacists in other states, or foreign countries; provided, the applicant for such license shall present satisfactory evidence of qualifications equal to those required from licentiates in this State, and that he was registered or licensed by examination in such other state, or foreign country, and that the standard of competency required in such other state, or foreign country, accords similar recognition to the licentiates of this State. Applicants for license under this article shall, with their application, forward to the secretary of the board the same fees as are required of other candidates for license. [Id.]

Art. 4539. [6298] License to be posted.—Every certificate of license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, and every license to any proprietor or employee to conduct a drug store in towns of not more than one thousand inhabitants and every renewal of such license shall be conspicuously exposed in the pharmacy, drug store or place of business of which the pharmacist or assistant pharmacist or other person to whom it is issued is the owner or manager, or in which he is employed. [Id.]

Art. 4540. [6293] Pharmacists to be licensed.—No person not licensed as a pharmacist, within the meaning of this law, shall conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop, or other place of business, for the retailing, compounding or dispensing of any drug, chemical or poison, or for the compounding of physician's prescriptions, or keep exposed for sale at retail any drug, chemical or poisons, except as hereinafter provided. No person not licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, within the meaning of this law, shall compound, dispense or sell at retail any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician or otherwise, or compound physician's prescriptions, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist under this law. No owner or manager of a pharmacy or drug store, or other place of business, shall cause or permit any other than a person licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist to compound, dispense, or sell at retail any medicine or poison, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist. Nothing in this article shall be construed to prevent any person from engaging in the business herein described as proprietor and owner thereof, provided such proprietor or owner shall have employed in his business to conduct same some one qualified under this chapter, nor to interfere with any legally registered practitioner of medicine or dentistry in the compounding of his prescriptions, or to prevent him from supplying his patients such medicine as he may deem proper, nor with exclusively wholesale business of any dealer who shall be licensed as a pharmacist, or who shall keep in his employ at least one person who is licensed as a pharmacist, nor with the selling at retail of non-poisonous domestic remedies, nor with the sale of patent or proprietary preparations, when sold in unbroken packages, nor with the sale of poisonous substances which are sold exclusively for use in the arts, or for use as insecticides, when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing a label having plainly printed upon it the name of the contents, the word "poison" and the names of at least two readily obtainable antidotes. [Id.]

Art. 4541. [6290] Record and register.—The board shall keep a record of its proceedings and a register of all persons to whom certificates or license as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist and permits have been issued, and all renewals thereof. The books and register of the board, or a copy of any part thereof certified by the secretary, shall be accepted as competent evidence in all the courts. [Id.]

Art. 4542. [6292] Fees of board.—The board shall be entitled to charge the following fees: For the examination of an applicant for license as a pharmacist, five dollars; for the examination of an applicant for license as an assistant pharmacist, two dollars and fifty cents. Every registered pharmacist and every registered assistant pharmacist in the meaning of this law, who desires to continue in the pursuit of pharmacy in this State shall annually, after the expiration of the first year of registration and on or before the first day of January of each year, pay to the secretary of the board a renewal fee to be fixed by the board which shall not exceed three dollars, in return for which a renewal of registration shall be issued. The board shall each year turn over to the State Pharmaceutical Association for the advancement of the science and arts of pharmacy out of the annual fees collected by it, such sum as it may deem advisable, not to exceed two dollars for each pharmacist and assistant pharmacist who shall have paid his renewal fee during such year. Those holding a certificate of pharmacy and not engaged in the active practice of pharmacy, shall be issued a renewal certificate upon payment of an annual fee of one dollar. Said Association shall report annually to said board on the condition of pharmacy in the State. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 88.]

DENTISTRY

Art.
4543.	Appointment and qualification.
4544.	Duty of board.
4545.	Qualifications of applicants.
4546.	To record license.
4547.	Persons already licensed.
4548.	License required to practice.
4549.	Revoking license.
4550.	Record of board.
4551.	Fees and expenses.

Article 4543. Appointment and qualification.

—The State Board of Dental Examiners shall consist of six practicing dentists, to be appointed biennially by the Governor. Each member shall serve two years. No person shall be eligible to appointment unless he has been actively engaged in the practice of dentistry for the three years next preceding his appointment. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each member of the board shall make written oath that he will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties incumbent upon him to the best of his ability; said oath shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which affiant resides; and such clerk shall duly record the same on the records of his office, and shall receive fifty cents therefor. The board shall elect one member president and one secretary. [Acts 1919, p. 50.]

Art. 4544. Duty of Board.—The Board shall have authority to examine all applicants for license to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State, and shall examine and grade all papers submitted by such applicants and report thereon to such applicant within thirty days from the time of the meeting of such board. The applicant upon passing a satisfactory examination before said board on the subjects pertaining to dentistry shall be granted a license to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State. The board shall meet at least twice in each year. The proceedings shall be open to the public. [Id.]

Art. 4545. Qualifications of applicants.—Each applicant shall be not less than twenty-one years of age, and shall present a diploma from a reputable dental college and evidence of good moral character. Any person upon proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has been regularly engaged in the legal practice of dentistry in any State of the United States for at least three years next preceding the application shall be entitled to an examination without presentation of a diploma. A dental college shall be held reputable whose entrance requirements and courses of instructions are as high as those adopted by the better class of dental colleges of the United States. The decision of the board as to whether a college is reputable shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 4546. To record license.—Every person to whom license is issued by the Board of Examiners shall, before beginning the practice of dentistry in this State, present the same to the county clerk of the county in which he or she resides or expects to practice; who shall record said license in a book provided for that purpose and receive fifty cents therefor. [Id.]

Art. 4547. Persons already licensed.—Any person who has heretofore been licensed, authorized, or granted permission to practice dentistry or dental surgery under the laws of this State, and who has so practiced under said license, authorization or permit, previous to the passage of this law, and who desires to obtain a license of authority from the board created under this law, upon presentation and surrender to the board of said license, authorization or permit, and an affidavit that he is the same person to whom same was originally granted, shall be granted a license under this law. No person shall be required to surrender an old license for a new one unless he so desires. If any license issued under this or any former law in Texas shall be lost or destroyed, the holder of said license may present his application to the board for a duplicate license together with his affidavit of such loss or destruction and that he is the same person to whom said license was issued, and shall be granted a license under this law. If the records of said board fail to show that such person was ever licensed, the board may exercise its discretion in granting said duplicate license. [Id.]

Art. 4548. License required to practice.—No person shall practice or offer, or attempt to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State, without first having obtained a license from the State Board of Dental Examiners, as provided for in this law, provided that physicians and surgeons may, in the regular practice of their profession, extract teeth or make application for the relief of pain. Nothing herein applies to any person legally engaged in the practice of dentistry in Texas at the time of the passage of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4549. Revoking license.—Any member of the Board of Examiners when it shall be made to appear to said member by satisfactory evidence that any person who has been granted a license to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State has been convicted of a felony, or has been guilty of any fraudulent or dishonorable conduct or malpractice, or any deception or misrepresentation for the purpose of soliciting or obtaining business, shall report the same to the county or district attorney, who shall, if in his judgment the evidence is sufficient, file a complaint to the district court of said county, requiring accused to appear before said court, at a regular term of said court, and upon the trial of said cause, if the defendant is found guilty of said charge, said court shall revoke the license of said defendant. No one shall be required to stand trial, unless a copy of said charge shall have been furnished him at least ten days before said trial, and he shall be cited to appear under the same rules as govern other civil cases in said court. [Id.]

Art. 4550. Record of Board.—Said Board shall keep a record in which shall be registered the name and residence or place of business of all persons authorized under this law to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4551. Fees and expenses.—Each applicant for examination for license under this law shall pay to the Secretary of the Board twenty-five dollars which shall not be returned to said applicant. For each license of authority and each duplicate license issued the board shall receive a fee of one dollar.

Each member of the board shall receive for his services five dollars per day for each day actually engaged in the duties of his office, together with all legitimate expenses incurred in the performance of such duties. All expenses of said board shall be paid from money received by the board from applicants as provided for in this law. No money shall ever be paid to any member of the board from any fund in the State Treasury. Any excess money remaining in the hands of the board, after all expenses in the performance of their duty have been paid, shall be kept in the hands of the secretary for the proper enforcement of this law, and for other legitimate expenses of the board. The secretary shall be required to give bond payable to the board in such sum as the board may require for the faithful performance of his duty in the safekeeping of and the proper delivery of said money. [Id.]

4565g. Optical mechanics.
4565h. Spectacles as premiums.
4566. Exceptions.

Article 4552. "Optometry."—The practice of optometry is defined to be the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eyes for any defect whatsoever in any manner nor to administer nor to prescribe any drugs or physical treatment whatsoever, unless such optometrist is a regularly licensed physician or surgeon under the laws of this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 159.]

Art. 4553. Board of Examiners.—The Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry shall be composed of five members who shall possess the necessary qualifications to practice optometry and who shall have been residents of this State, actually engaged in the practice of optometry for at least five years immediately preceding their appointment. The board may prescribe rules, regulations and by-laws in harmony with the provisions of this chapter for its own proceedings and government and for the examination of applicants for license to practice optometry. [Id.]

Art. 4554. Term of office.—The members of the Board, to be appointed by the Governor, shall be divided into three classes: one, two and three, and their term of office shall be determined by lot at the first meeting of the board. Two members shall hold their offices for two years, two members for four years, and one member for six years, respectively, from the time of their appointment. The members of one of the above classes of said board shall thereafter be appointed biennially by the Governor and shall hold office for six years. Only optometrists licensed under the laws of Texas and actively engaged in the practice of optometry shall be eligible for appointment on said board. [Id.]

Art. 4555. Organization and meetings.—The Board shall elect a president, a vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer biennially, at its first meeting after the appointment of a member of said board. Regular meetings shall be held at least twice a year, at such time and place as shall be deemed most convenient for applicants for license. Not less than ten days notice of such meeting shall be given by publication in at least three daily newspapers of general circulation to be selected by the board. Special meetings may be held upon call of three members of the board. [Id.]

Art. 4556. Record of proceedings.—The Board shall preserve a record of its proceedings in a book kept for that purpose, showing the name, age, place and present residence of each applicant, the name and location of any school of optometry from which he holds credentials, and the time devoted to the study and practice of same, together with such other information as the board may desire to record. Said record shall also show whether applicants were rejected or licensed and shall be prima facie evidence of all matters contained therein. The secretary of the board shall on

March first of each year send a certified copy of said record to the Secretary of State for permanent record a certified copy from which, with hand and seal of the secretary of said board, or the Secretary of State, shall be admitted as evidence in all courts. When a license or certificate is issued it shall be numbered and recorded in a book kept by the secretary of the board. [Id.]

Art. 4557. Application for license.—Whoever desires to begin the practice of optometry shall make application for license by presenting to the secretary of the board, on forms furnished by the board, satisfactory sworn evidence that he or she has attained the age of twenty-one years, is of good moral character, and has graduated from a school of optometry maintaining a standard which meets with the requirements of said board, or has studied optometry in Texas not less than two years in the office of an optometrist licensed under this law before taking the examination which shall be prescribed by the board. [Id.]

Art. 4558. Subjects of examinations.—Said examinations shall consist of tests in practical, theoretical, and physiological optics, in theoretical and practical optometry, and in the anatomy, physiology, and pathology of the eye as applied to optometry. Every candidate successfully passing examination shall be registered by the board as possessing the qualifications required by this law, and shall receive from said board a license to practice optometry in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4559. Examinations.—Each applicant shall be given due notice of the date and place of examination. All examinations shall be conducted in writing and by such other means as the board shall determine adequate to ascertain the qualifications of applicants, and in such manner as shall be entirely fair and impartial to all individuals and every recognized school of optometry. All applicants examined at the same time shall be given identical questions. The board may refuse to admit persons to its examination or to issue licenses for any of the following reasons:

1. The presentation to the board of any untrue statement or any document or testimony which was illegally or fraudulently obtained, or when fraud or deceit has been practiced in passing the examination.

2. Conviction of a felony, or of a misdemeanor which involves moral turpitude.

3. Other grossly unprofessional or dishonorable conduct of a character likely to deceive or defraud the public, or for habits of intemperance or drug addiction. Any applicant who may be refused an examination or a license, after legal notice and a full and impartial hearing, shall have his right of action to have such issue tried in the district court of any county in which one of the members of the board shall reside. [Id.]

Art. 4560. Reciprocity.—The board shall have authority, at its discretion, to recognize the license which has been issued, after full examination, by State Boards of Examiners in Optometry of other states having a standard satisfactory to the Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry and may issue to such persons a license to practice optometry in Texas, or in its discretion, may admit for full examination any person presenting an unrevoked certificate of examination from the Board of Examiners of any other state. [Id.]

Art. 4561. To record license.—It shall be unlawful for any person to begin to practice optometry within the limits of this State who has not registered in the county clerk's office of the county in which he resides, and in each county in which he practices, his license for so practicing as herein prescribed, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth, subscribed and verified by his oath. The fact of such oath and record shall be endorsed by the county clerk upon the license. The absence of record of such license in the county clerk's office shall be prima facie evidence of the lack of possession of such license to practice optometry. [Id.]

Art. 4562. Optometry register.—Each county clerk in this State shall purchase a book of suitable size to be known as the "Optometry Register" of such county, and set apart at least one full page for the registration of each optometrist, and record in said Optometry Register the name and record of each optometrist who presents for record a license or certificate issued by the State Board of Examiners in Optometry. The county clerk shall receive one dollar for each document registered as provided in this article, which shall be his full compensation for all duties herein required. When an optometrist shall have his license revoked, said county clerk, upon being notified by the board, shall make a note of the fact beneath the record in the Optometry Register, which entry shall close the record. On the first day of January in each year, said county clerk shall, upon the request of the board, certify to the secretary of the board a correct list of the optometrists then registered in the county, together with such other information as said board may require. [Id.]

Art. 4563. Revocation of license.—The right herein to practice optometry in this State may be revoked by any district court upon proof of the violation of the law in any respect in regard thereto, or for any cause for which the State Board of Examiners in Optometry is authorized to refuse to admit persons to examinations or to issue licenses as provided herein, and it shall be the duty of the several district and county attorneys of this State to file and prosecute proceedings in the name of the State upon request of any member of said board. [Id.]

Art. 4564. Duty of licensee.—Every person practicing optometry in this State shall display his license or certificate in a conspicuous place in the principal office where he practices optometry, and whenever required, exhibit such license or certificate to said board, or its authorized representative, and whenever practicing said profession of optometry outside of, or away from said office or place of business, he shall deliver to each person fitted with glasses a bill, which shall contain his signature, post-office address, and number of his license or certificate, together with a specification of the lenses and material furnished and the prices charged for the same respectively. [Id.]

Art. 4565. Fees and expenses.—The board shall charge a fee of fifteen dollars for examining an applicant for license, which fee must accompany the application. If an applicant, because of failure to pass examination, be refused a license, he shall, after six months, be permitted to take a second examination without additional fee. The fee for issuing a license or certificate shall be five dollars, to be paid to the secretary of the board. The fund realized from fees shall first be applied to the payment of all necessary expenses of the board and the remainder be applied, by order of the board, to compensating members of the board in proportion to their labors. Said compensation shall in no case exceed twenty dollars per day for the time occupied. The board shall defray all expenses under this law from fees provided in this title and no part of same shall be paid from the State Treasury, nor shall any appropriation ever be made from the State Treasury for any expenditures made necessary by this law. All fees in excess of five thousand dollars remaining in the hands of the board at the end of any fiscal year shall be paid into the general fund of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4565a. Fee.—On or before January 1st, 1926, and on or before January 1st, of each year thereafter, every licensed optometrist in this State shall pay to the secretary-treasurer of the Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry, an annual renewal fee of $5.00 for the renewal of his or her license to practice optometry for the current year. Practicing optometry without an annual renewal certificate for the current year, as provided, shall be subject to all penalties prescribed by this Act, for practicing optometry without a license.

When an optometrist shall have failed to pay his annual renewal fee and said annual renewal fee has been due and unpaid for a period of one year, it shall be the duty of the board to notify such optometrist or optometrists by notifying him or them by notice sent by registered mail, and the return receipt to be the only valid evidence that said notice has been delivered and that he or they have been notified that said annual renewal fee is due and unpaid. Thirty days after date of receipt of such notice it shall be the duty of the board, under this Act, to declare the license void for non-payment of annual renewal fee. After a license has been declared void by the board for non-payment of annual renewal fee, it shall be the duty of the county clerk, of the county, in which such license may have been registered, upon receipt of notice from said board, to enter upon the optometry register of such county the fact that such license is void for non-payment of annual renewal fee and to notify the board in writing that such entry has been made. After the board has declared a license void, as provided for in this section, the board may thereafter, at its discretion, refuse to issue a new license until such optometrist, whose license has been declared void for non-payment of annual renewal fee, has passed the regular examination for license as provided for by this Act.

Art. 4565b. Renewal license.—On the receipt of said annual renewal fee by the Texas Board of Examiners in Optometry, it shall issue an annual renewal certificate, bearing the number of the license, the year for which renewed and other information from the records of the board that the said board may deem necessary to the proper enforcement of this Act.

Art. 4565c. Defining terms.—For the purpose of this Act, the words "Ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye," as employed in Article 4552, shall be construed to include:

(1) The examination of the eye to ascertain the presence of defects or abnormal conditions which may be corrected, remedied, or relieved, or the effects of which may be corrected, remedied or relieved by the use of lenses or prisms, or

(2) The employment of any objective or subjective, means to determine the accommodative or refractive condition, or the range or powers of vision of muscular equilibrium of the human eye, or

(3) The employment of any objective or subjective means for the examination of the human eye for the purpose of ascertaining any departure from the normal, measuring its power of vision or adapting lenses or prisms for the aid or relief thereof, and it shall be construed as a violation of this Act, for any person not a licensed optometrist or a licensed physician to do any one act or thing, or any combination of acts or things, named or described in this article; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eye for any defect whatsoever in any manner, nor to administer any drug or physical treatment whatsoever, unless said optometrist is a duly licensed physician and surgeon, under the laws of this State.

Art. 4565d. "Fitting Lenses."—For the purpose of this Act the words "and fitting lenses or prisms," as employed in Article 4552, shall be construed to include:

(1) Prescribing or supplying, directly or indirectly, lenses or prisms, by the employment of objective or subjective means or the making of any measurements whatsoever involving the eyes or the optical requirements thereof;

(2) The adaptation or supplying of lenses or prisms to correct, relieve or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of the human eye or to correct, relieve or remedy or attempt to correct, relieve or remedy the effect of any defect or abnormal condition of the human eye.

(3) It shall be construed as a violation of this Act for any person not a licensed optometrist or a licensed physician to do any one thing or act, or any combination of things or acts, named or described in this article.

Art. 4565e. Selling as merchandise.—For the purpose of this Act the words "Persons [Persons] who sell spectacles and eye-glasses as merchandise," as employed in Article 4566, shall be construed to mean merchants who do not practice optometry, or offer to practice optometry, but who sell spectacles or eye-glasses as merchandise, after they have been selected by their customers alone without aid from the merchant, either in person or indirectly, or by the provision of any mechanical or eye-testing machine or self-testing eye-machine, either for purposes of exhibition or use, or offering to provide or providing any self-testing system or methods, or other means, either for purposes of exhibition of [or] use, other than the particular and complete and ready-to-wear spectacles or eye-glasses selected by the customer in person from trays or other containers, containing such merchandise, and any other method of sale or delivery shall be construed as practicing optometry.

Art. 4565f. Acts unlawful.—In the interest of public health, welfare, safety, and comfort, after the passage of this Act, it shall be unlawful, and a violation hereof to:

(1) Sign or cause to be signed, a prescription for an ophthalmic lens without first making a personal examination of the eyes of the person prescribed for, or

(2) For any person licensed under this Act to practice optometry, when he, or she, is knowingly suffering from a contagious or infectious disease.

Art. 4565g. Optical mechanics.—Nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to prevent an optical mechanic from doing the merely mechanical work of manufacturing ophthalmic lenses or to prevent the sale of such ophthalmic lenses to those who are licensed and legally qualified to prescribe them, nor to prevent such optical machanic [mechanic], who does not practice optometry, from following the specific directions of a competently and legally signed prescription where he does no more than manufacture or dispense the spectacles or eye-glasses, or component parts thereof, called for by such prescription. Nor shall this Act be so construed as to prevent selling ready-to-wear spectacles or eye-glasses as merchandise at wholesale to merchants for purposes of re-sale as merchandise, as provided for in this Act when neither the wholesaler nor merchant to whom he sells practices optometry.

Art. 4565h. Spectacles as premiums.—It shall be unlawful for any person in this State to give, or cause to be given, deliver, or cause to be delivered, in any manner whatsoever, any spectacles or eye-glasses, separate or together, as a prize or premium, or as an inducement to sell any book, paper, magazine or any work of literature or art, or any item of merchandise whatsoever.

Art. 4566. Exceptions.—Nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to persons who sell spectacles and eye-glasses as merchandise; officers or agents of the United States or the State of Texas, in the discharge of their official duties; nor to prevent physicians and surgeons, duly licensed as such under the laws of the State of Texas regulating the practice of medicine, from treating the human eye or prescribing lenses or glasses, or fitting lenses or glasses for the aid thereof. [Acts 1925, p. 149.] [39th Leg., ch. 31.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

CHIROPODY

Art.
4567.	Definitions.
4568.	Selecting board of examiners.
4569.	Subjects of examination.
4570.	Examinations.
4571.	Licenses.
4572.	Reciprocity.
4573.	Revoking license.
4574.	Compensation and expenses.
4575.	Exceptions.

Article 4567. Definitions.—"Chiropody" means the diagnosis, medical and surgical treatment of the human foot. A chiropodist is one who practices chiropody. [Acts 1923, p. 357.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 4568. Selecting Board of Examiners.—At the regular annual meeting of the State Board of Medical Examiners, it shall each year select two physicians from its own membership and two graduate chiropodists, residents of this State, and actively engaged in the practice of chiropody, who together with the Secretary of the State Medical Examiners shall constitute the State Board of Chiropody Examiners which shall serve for a period of one year. [Id.]

Art. 4569. Subjects of Examination.—Any person, other than those exempt from examination under this law desiring a license to practice chiropody shall be examined by the Board of Chiropody Examiners in the following subjects: anatomy, chemistry, dermatology, diagnosis, materia medica, pathology, physiology, therapeutic clinical and orthopedic chiropody, limited in their scope to the treatment of the human foot. If the applicant possesses the qualifications required and shall pass the examination prescribed with a general average of seventy-five per cent in all subjects, and not less than fifty per cent in any one subject, he shall be issued a license by the said Chiropody Board to practice chiropody in this State. Each applicant before taking the examination shall pay to the secretary of said Chiropody Board an examination fee of fifty dollars. Any applicant failing in the examination, and being refused a license shall be entitled, at the expiration of six months from the time of such refusal, to a re-examination without the payment of an additional fee for such examination. [Id.]

Art. 4570. Examinations.—Examinations to procure a license to practice chiropody in this State shall be held semi-annually at such times and places as the Board of Chiropody Examiners shall fix. All applicants for a license to practice chiropody under the provisions of this law shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and shall be of good moral character; they shall have had at least one year of instruction in and be graduates of some school of chiropody recognized as being in good standing by the Board of Chiropody Examiners. No school of chiropody shall be accredited by said board as a school of good standing which does not require for graduation a course of study of at least two years. [Id.]

Art. 4571. Licenses.—All licensees shall be designated as "Registered Chiropodists," and shall not use any title or abbreviations thereof without the designation "Registered Chiropodist, practice limited to the foot," shall not mislead the public as to their limited professional qualifications to treat human ailments. All licenses shall be recorded in the same manner as medical licenses in the office of the district clerk of the county in which the licensee practices. Every registered chiropodist shall renew his license on July 1st, of each year by the payment to the secretary of the State Board of Chiropody Examiners for the State of Texas, a fee of one dollar, and if such renewal fee is not paid within three months subsequent to July 1st, of each year such license shall be considered revoked and shall be reissued upon another application and examination, and the payment of the examination fee of fifty dollars. All licenses granted under this Act shall be conspicuously displayed at the office or other place of practice of the licensee. [Acts 1923, p. 358.]

Art. 4572. Reciprocity.—Upon the payment of a fee of fifty dollars a license without examination may be issued to chiropodists of other states, removing to this state, maintaining statutory requirements equal to those fixed in this law for the practice of chiropody and extending the same reciprocal privileges for the practice of chiropody, to this State. [Id.]

Art. 4573. Revoking license.—The board may, after due hearing, refuse to grant or renew and may revoke any license issued under the provisions of this law to a person, otherwise qualified, who obtained such license by fraudulent representation or dishonesty in taking an examination; or who makes use of untruthful and improbable statements to patients or in his advertising, or for habitual intoxication, or for unprofessional and immoral conduct; or who gives away or sells drugs or alcohol for other than legitimate purposes in his practice; or who may be convicted of amputating the human foot or toe or of using an anesthetic other than local. When a license has been granted it shall not be revoked or the renewal thereof refused without at least fifteen days notice to the licensee, who shall be entitled to a hearing by the board, and shall have the right to be represented by counsel. At least ten days prior to the date of such hearing the licensee shall be notified of the filing of the charges and of the nature thereof. Any person licensed to practice chiropody in this State whose license shall be cancelled by such board may, within thirty days after the cancellation thereof, and not thereafter, have his right of action for reinstatement against such board in the district court of Travis county. If the person whose license has been canceled by the board shall, within ten days after receiving information of such cancellation, give written notice to the secretary of the board of his intention to file such suit, the action of the board in cancelling the license of such person shall be suspended for a period of thirty days, but unless such suit shall be filed within said time, the action of the board shall be final. If suit shall be filed against the board to reinstate such license within said time, the action of the board shall remain suspended until the validity of the license in question shall be determined by the court. In such suit the burden shall be upon the plaintiff to show cause for reinstatement of his license. The board may, at its discretion, in case license has been revoked or the renewal thereof refused, reissue such license at the expiration of six months from the time such license was revoked. [Id.]

Art. 4574. Compensation and expenses.—Each member of the board shall receive for his services ten dollars a day and necessary traveling and incidental expenses, while actually engaged in the service of the board. The secretary shall receive his necessary expenses for services actually performed for the board. All printing, postage and other contingent expenses, necessarily incurred in administering this law shall be paid from the fees received by the board, and all expenses shall be itemized, verified, audited and an account kept thereof by the secretary of the board, who shall pay the same out of said fees which accrue to it. [Id.]

Art. 4575. Exceptions.—This law shall not apply to the physicians licensed by the State Board of Medical Examiners, nor to surgeons of the United States Army, Navy and United States Public Health Service, when in actual performance of their official duties. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWELVE

EMBALMING [BOARD]

- Art.
4576. Embalming board.
4577. Duties and powers.
4578. Application for license.
4579. Renewal of license.
4580. License revoked.
4581. Department self-sustaining.
4582. Provisions do not apply.

Article 4576. [4596-7-8] Embalming board.—The State Board of Embalming shall consist of five members, the term of each to be two years, to be appointed biennially by the State Board of Health on or before the first day of June. The members of said board shall be practical embalmers having experience in said business and the care and disposition of dead human bodies. The appointing board shall remove any such appointee for neglect of duty, incompetency or improper conduct. All temporary vacancies on such board shall be filled by the Board of Health for the unexpired term. The Board of Health shall furnish each appointee a certificate of appointment upon which shall be noted that such appointee has taken the official oath. [Acts 1903, p. 123.]

Art. 4577. [4599] Duties and powers.—The Board of Embalming shall have the power and it shall be its duty:

1. To prescribe and maintain a standard of proficiency as to the qualifications of those engaged, and who may engage in the practice of embalming in connection with the care and disposition of dead human bodies in this State, and shall have the right, to be exercised at its discretion, to employ capable and efficient lecturers and demonstrators in the science of embalming for the benefit of all licensed embalmers in this State. The said lecturers and demonstrators shall meet not more than once in each year with annual session of the Texas Funeral Directors' and Embalmers' Association.

2. To meet in regular session once a year at such time and place as may be determined by said board at its previous annual meeting. Special meetings may be held at such time and place as may be determined by the president of said board. Notice of such special meetings shall be given in at least three daily newspapers published in different cities in the State. The board shall make an annual report to the State Health Officer on or before June first of each year on the condition of embalming in Texas, which shall embrace all the proceedings of the board and give an itemized account of money received and paid out and for what purpose; also the names of all embalmers duly licensed under this chapter. A copy of said report shall be furnished to each licensed embalmer in this State. The secretary of said board shall deliver all money on hand at the end of the term of each board to his successor in office.

3. To elect a president and secretary from the members of said board who shall serve for one year, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

4. To adopt rules, regulations and by-laws from time to time not inconsistent with the laws of this State or the United States, whereby the performance of all the duties of said board and the practice of embalming dead human bodies shall be regulated. [Id. Acts 1915, p. 211.]

Art. 4578. [4600] Application for license.—Any person engaged or desiring to engage in the practice of embalming in connection with the care and disposition of dead human bodies within this State shall make a written application to the State Board of Embalming for a license, accompanying the same with a license fee of ten dollars, whereupon the applicant shall come before said board at its regular annual meeting or at a special meeting thereof. If the board finds that the applicant is of good moral character, possessed of knowledge of the arterial system, the location of the heart, lungs, and other organs of the human body, and the location of abdominal, pleural and thoracic cavities, location of the carotid brachial, radial, ulner, femoral and tibial arteries, a knowledge of the science of embalming and the care and disposition of the dead, and has a reasonable knowledge of sanitation and the disinfection of the bodies of diseased persons, and the apartment, clothing and bedding in case of death by infectious or contagious diseases, the board shall issue to said applicant a license as a duly licensed embalmer, authorizing him to practice the science of embalming. Such license shall be signed by a majority of the board. All persons receiving license under the provisions of this law shall have said license registered in the county clerk's office in the county in which it is proposed to carry on said practice, and shall display said license conspicuously in the place of business of the licensee. [Id. Acts 1915, p. 180.]

Art. 4579. [4601] Renewal of license.—Every registered embalmer, who desires to continue the practice of his profession, shall annually thereafter during the time he shall continue in such practice, on such date as said board may determine, pay to the secretary of said board a fee of five dollars for the renewal of said license. [Id.]

Art. 4580. [4602] License revoked.—The Board of Embalming is hereby authorized for good cause to revoke any license issued by it subject to the right of appeal to the State Board of Health, whose decision shall be final. [Acts 1903, p. 123.]

Art. 4581. [4603] Department self-sustaining.—All expenses, salaries and per diem to the members of this board shall be paid from fees received under the provisions of this law, and shall in no manner be an expense to the State. All moneys received in excess of per diem allowance, and other expenses provided for, shall be held by the secretary of said board as a special fund for meeting the expenses of the board. [Id.]

Art. 4582. [4605] Provisions do not apply.—Nothing in this law shall apply to, or in any manner interfere with, the duties of any municipal, county and State officer, or State institution, nor apply to any person simply engaged in the furnishing of burial receptacles for the dead, but only to such person or persons engaged in the business of embalming in connection with the care and disposition of the dead. [Id.]

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

ANATOMICAL BOARD

Art.

- 4583. Board and duties.
- 4584. Regulations for delivering bodies.
- 4585. Distribution of bodies to institutions.
- 4586. Regulations for moving bodies.
- 4587. May dissect bodies.
- 4588. Parties receiving bodies to give bond.
- 4589. Expenses.
- 4590. Compensation of board.

Article 4583. [5756] Board and duties.—The professor of anatomy and the professor of surgery of each of the medical schools or colleges now incorporated, and of the several medical and dental schools and colleges which may hereafter be incorporated in this State are constituted a board, to be known as the Anatomical Board of the State of Texas, for the distribution and delivery of dead human bodies, hereinafter described, to and among such institutions as, under the provisions of this law, are entitled thereto. The board shall have power to establish rules and regulations for its government, and to appoint and remove proper officers of such board, and shall keep full and complete minutes of its transactions. Records sufficient for identification shall also be kept, under its direction, of all bodies received and distributed by said board and of persons to whom the same may be distributed, which minutes and records shall be open at all times to the inspection of each member of said board and of any district attorney or county attorney of this State. [Act 1907, p. 117, sec. 1.]

Art. 4584. [5757] Regulations for delivering bodies.—All public officers, agents, and servants, and all officers, agents and servants of any county, city, town, district, or other municipality, and of any and every almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital, or any other public institution, other than the State Orphan's Home, the Confederate Home, the State Blind Institute, and the State Deaf and Dumb Institute, insane asylum, and epileptic colony, or any other home for the indigent, or other eleemosynary institution maintained by the State, having charge or control of dead human bodies required to be buried at public expense, are hereby required, after notification in writing by said board or its duly authorized officers, or persons designated by the authorities of said board, then and thereafter to announce to said board, its authorized officer or agent, whenever such body or bodies come into his or their possession, charge or control, and shall without fee or reward greater than the value of such fee as was paid in any county, city, town, or municipality on the third day of April, 1907, for the burial of pauper bodies, deliver such body or bodies, and permit the said board and its agents and the physicians and surgeons, from time to time designated by them, who may comply with the provisions of this law, to take and remove all such bodies as are not desired for post mortem examinations by the medical staff of public hospitals or institutions for the insane, to be used within this State for the advancement of medical science; but no such notice need be given, nor any such body be delivered, if any person claiming to be and satisfying the authorities in charge of such

body that he or she is of a kindred or is related by marriage to the deceased, or is a bona fide friend or representative of an organization of which the deceased was a member, shall claim the said body for burial, but it shall be surrendered without cost to such claimant for interment, or shall, upon such claimant's request, be interred in the manner provided for the interment of bodies not coming within the operation of this law. No notice shall be given for the body to be delivered, if the deceased died of contagious disease, save tuberculosis, or syphilis; nor shall notice be given if such deceased person were a traveler who died suddenly, in which cases the body shall be buried. It is further required that due effort be made by those in charge of such almshouse, prison, morgue, hospital or other public institution having charge or control of such dead human bodies, to find kindred or relatives of such deceased and notify him or her of the death; and failure to claim such body by kindred or relation within twenty-four hours after receipt of such notification shall be recognized as bringing such body under the provisions of this law, and delivery shall be made as soon thereafter to said board, its officers, or agents as may be possible. Such person in charge of such public institution shall file with the county judge an affidavit that he has made diligent inquiry to find the kindred or relatives of the deceased, stating such inquiry as he has made. In case a body is claimed by relatives within ten days after it has been delivered to an institution or person entitled to receive the same under the provisions of this law, it shall be delivered to them for burial and without cost. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 4585. [5758] Distribution of bodies to institutions.—The board, or their duly authorized agents, may take and receive such bodies so delivered as aforesaid, and shall, upon receiving them, distribute and deliver them to and among the schools, colleges, physicians and surgeons aforesaid in the manner following: Those bodies needed for lecture and demonstration in the said incorporated schools and colleges shall first be supplied; the remaining bodies shall then be distributed proportionately and equitably, the number assigned to each to be based upon the number of students receiving instruction or demonstration in normal or morbid anatomy and operative surgery, which number shall be certified by the dean of each school or college to the board at such times as it may direct. Instead of receiving and delivering said bodies themselves through their agent or servant, the said board may, from time to time, either directly or by their designated officer or agent authorize physicians and surgeons to receive them, and the number which each shall receive. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 4586. [5759] Regulations for moving bodies.—The board may employ public carriers for the conveyance of said bodies, which shall be carefully deposited, with the least possible public display. The sender shall keep on permanent file a description by name, color, sex, age, place and cause of death of each body transmitted by him; or where the body shall be one of a person unknown, the color, age, sex, place and supposed cause of death; and any other data available for identification, such as scars, deformities, etc., shall be put on record. A duplicate of this description shall be mailed, or otherwise safely conveyed, to the person or institution to whom the body is being sent; and the person or institution receiving such body shall, without delay, safely transmit to the sender a receipt for the same in the full terms of the description furnished by the sender. All these records shall be filed in a manner to be determined by the board so that they may be at any time available for inspection by the board, or any district or county attorney of this State. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 4587. [5760] May dissect bodies.—Any and all schools, colleges, and persons who may be designated by said Anatomical Board shall be authorized to dissect, operate upon, examine, and experiment upon such bodies hereinbefore described and distributed for the furtherance of medical science; and such dissections, operations, examinations, and experiments shall not be considered as amenable under any existing laws for the prevention of mutilation of dead human bodies. Such persons, schools, or colleges shall keep a permanent record, sufficient for identification of each body received from such anatomical board or agent, which record shall be subject to inspection by the board, or its authorized officer or agent. The board shall also have power to authorize incorporated schools or colleges and individual physicians and surgeons to experiment on the lower animals under bond as herein-after designated. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 4588. [5761] Parties receiving bodies to give bond.—No school, college, physician, or surgeon shall be allowed or permitted to receive any such body or bodies until bond shall have been given to the State by such physician or surgeon, or by or in behalf of such school or college, to be approved by the clerk of the county court in and for the county in which such physician or surgeon may reside, or in which such school or college may be situated, and to be filed in the office of said clerk; which bond shall be in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, conditioned that all such bodies which the said physician or surgeon, or said college, shall receive thereafter shall be used, and that all experiments on the lower animals shall be conducted only for the promotion of medical science. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 4589. [5762] Expenses.—Neither the State, nor any county, nor municipality, nor any officer, agent or servant thereof, shall be at any expense by reason of the delivery or distribution of any such body; but all expense thereof, and of said board of distribution, shall be paid by those receiving the bodies in such manner as may be specified by said Anatomical Board, or otherwise agreed upon. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 4590. [5763] Compensation of board.—No compensation other than actual traveling expenses shall be received for their services in this capacity by members of this board. [Id. sec. 9.]

TITLE 72

HOLIDAYS—LEGAL

Art.

4591. Enumeration.

4591a. Texas Pioneers' Day.

Article 4591. [4606] [2939] Enumeration.—The first day of January, the twenty-second day of February, the second day of March, the twenty-first day of April, the third day of June, the fourth day of July, the first Monday in September, the twelfth day of October, the eleventh day of November, and the twenty-fifth day of December, of each year, and all days appointed by the President of the United States, or by the Governor, as days of fasting and thanksgiving and every day on which an election is held throughout the State, are declared legal holidays, on which all the public offices of the State may be closed, and shall be considered and treated as Sunday or the Christian Sabbath for all purposes regarding the presenting for payment or acceptance and of protesting for and giving notice of the dishonor of bills of exchange, bank checks and promissory notes placed by the law upon the footing of bills of exchange. [Acts 1893, p. 4; Acts 1911, p. 52; Acts 1921, p. 99.]

Art. 4591a. Texas Pioneers' Day.—The 12th of August of each year hereafter shall be designated and observed as Texas Pioneers' Day, and the Governor of Texas shall issue a proclamation at least thirty days in advance of such date each year, in which he shall call upon the people of the State of Texas to assemble in mass-meetings preferably to be held in the open air and in the form of Pioneers' Picnics and Old Settlers' Reunions and similar celebrations, to do honor to the memory of the heroic pioneers who by their sacrifices and hardships converted the primeval wilderness into the great empire of peace and plenty which we today enjoy;

The purpose of these celebrations shall be patriotic and educational, to preserve the traditions and memories of pioneer days, and in nowise of a political, sectarian or partisan nature;

The State Association of Texas Pioneers is hereby requested to assume the initiative in the organization of Pioneer Day celebrations each year and to prepare and circulate suitable programs for the observance of the same.

Nothing in this resolution shall be construed to make Texas Pioneers' Day a legal holiday. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 689, H. C. R. No. 12.]

TITLE 73

HOTELS AND BOARDING HOUSES

Art.

4592. Liability for valuables.

4593. Gratuitous bailee.

4594. Lien.

Article 4592. Liability for valuables.—Any hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house keeper, who constantly has in his hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house a metal safe or vault in good order and fit for the custody of money, jewelry, articles of gold or silver manufacture, precious stones, personal ornaments, or documents of any kind, and who keeps on the doors of the sleeping rooms used by guests suitable locks or bolts and proper fastening on the transom and window of said room, shall not be liable for the loss or injury suffered by any guest on account of the loss of said valuables in excess of the sum of fifty dollars, which could reasonably be kept in the safe or vault of the hotel, unless said guest has offered to deliver such valuables to said hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house keeper for custody in such metal safe or vault, and said hotel, apartment hotel or boarding hotel or boarding house keeper has omitted or refused to deposit said valuables in such safe or vault and issue a receipt therefor; provided, such loss or injury does not occur through the negligence or wrong doing of said hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house keeper, his servants, or employes, and that a printed copy of this law is posted on the door of the sleeping room of such guest. [Acts 1923, p. 317.]

Art. 4593. Gratuitous bailee.—Whenever any person shall allow his baggage or other property to remain in any hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house after the relation of innkeeper and guest has ceased without checking same, or shall leave his baggage or other property in the lobby of any hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house prior to checking it or becoming a guest, or shall forward any baggage to such hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house before becoming a guest, said hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house keeper may, at his option, hold such baggage or other property at the risk of said owner. If any person should check his baggage or other property at any hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house and leave it there free of charge for a period of one week without being a guest, said hotel, apartment hotel or boarding house keeper may, after the expiration of such time and in the absence of any special agreement, hold such baggage or other property at the risk of the owner. [Id.]

Art. 4594. [5663] [3318] [3182] Lien.—Proprietors of hotels or boarding houses shall have a lien on the baggage and other property of guests in such hotel or boarding house, for all sums due for board, lodging, extras furnished or money advanced at the request of such guest, and shall have the right to retain possession of such baggage or other property until the amount of such charges is paid. Such baggage and other property shall be exempt from attachment or execution while in the possession of such proprietor. [Acts 1874, p. 200; G. L., vol. 8, p. 202; Acts 1919, p. 117.]

Art. 4595. Sale to satisfy lien.—The keeper of the inn, boarding house or hotel shall retain such baggage and other property upon which he has a lien for a period of thirty days, at the expiration of which time if such lien is not satisfied, he may sell such baggage or other property, at public auction, first giving notice of the time and place of sale by posting at least three notices thereof in public places in the county where the inn, hotel or boarding house is situated and also by mailing a copy of such notice to said guest or boarder at the place of residence shown on the register of such inn or hotel, if shown. After satisfying the lien and any costs that may accrue, the residue shall on demand, within sixty days be paid such guest or boarder. If not demanded within sixty days, from date of sale, such residue shall be deposited by such keeper with the treasurer of the county in which said hotel, inn or boarding house is located, accompanied with a sworn true and correct statement. Such residue shall be retained by the county treasurer and if not claimed within one year by the owner thereof, such treasurer shall pay the same into the State Treasury, and it shall be placed to the credit of the escheat fund. [Acts 1919, p. 117.]

Art. 4596. Definition.—As used herein, a hotel or inn includes rooming houses, and is a place where the business is to furnish food and lodging or either, to all who apply and pay therefor. [Id.]

HUMANE SOCIETY

Art.

4597. Appointment of Bureau.

4598. Duty of Bureau.

4599. Annual meeting.

4600. Annual Report.

4601. Distribution of Report.

Article 4597. Appointment of Bureau.—The Governor shall appoint a State Bureau of Child and Animal Protection which shall not have less than nine nor more than twenty-one members from the members of the directorate of the Texas State Humane Society. The Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction and the Attorney General shall be ex-officio members of the Board of Directors of said State Bureau. [Acts 1913, p. 108.]

Art. 4598. Duty of Bureau.—It shall be the duty of said bureau to secure the enforcement of the laws for the prevention of wrongs to children and dumb animals as now or hereafter defined by law; to appoint local and State agents to assist in this work; to assist the organization of district and county societies, and to give them representation in the State Bureau; to aid such societies and agents in the enforcement of the laws for the prevention of wrongs to children and dumb animals as prescribed by law; and to promote the growth of education and sentiment favorable to the protection of children and dumb animals. [Id.]

Art. 4599. Annual meeting.—Said bureau shall hold its annual meeting on the second Monday in November in each year, at the State capitol, for the transaction of its business and the election of officers, at which meeting all questions relating to child and animal protection may be considered. [Id.]

Art. 4600. Annual report.—The said bureau shall make an annual report before the first day of January of each year to the Secretary of State, embracing the proceedings of the Bureau for the preceding year, and statistics showing the work of the Bureau and its agents and county and district societies throughout the State, together with such papers, facts and recommendations as they may deem useful to the interests of the children and dumb animals in the State, said report to be fully prepared for publication. The Secretary of State shall cause the same to be published in pamphlet or book form by the State, under the supervision of the Bureau. [Id.]

Art. 4601. Distribution of Report.—The number of copies of said report to be published shall not be less than five thousand, all bound in uniform style, every two years in one volume, and shall be distributed by the Secretary of State as follows: ten copies, each, to the Governor, Secretary of State, Comptroller and State Treasurer, five to each judge of the Supreme Court, and the Attorney General, two to each member of the Legislature, and one to each judge and clerk of the district, county and federal courts, one to each county commissioner, one to each newspaper office in the State, ten each to the State University, State Industrial Schools, and the Warden of the penitentiary, two to each college of learning in the State, two to each of the other State Boards, and the remainder to the Bureau of Child and Animal Protection. [Id.]

HUSBAND AND WIFE

Chap.

1. Celebration of marriage.
2. Marriage contracts.
3. Rights of married women.
4. Divorce.

CHAPTER ONE

CELEBRATION OF MARRIAGE

Art.

4602. Who authorized to celebrate.
 4603. Who shall not marry.
 4604. License.
 4605. Consent of parent or guardian.
 4606. Record and return of license.
 4607. Certain intermarriages prohibited.
 4608. Marriages by bond, etc.
 4609. Cohabitation of slaves.

Article 4602. [4608] [2954] [2838] Who authorized to celebrate.—All licensed or ordained ministers of the gospel, Jewish rabbis, judges of the district and county courts, and justices of the peace are authorized to celebrate the rites of matrimony between persons legally authorized to marry. [Acts 1866, p. 72; Acts 1891, p. 96; P. D., 7119; G. L., vol. 5, p. 990; G. L., vol. 10, p. 98.]

Art. 4603. [4609] [2955] [2839] Who shall not marry.—Males under sixteen and females under fourteen years of age shall not marry. [Id.]

Art. 4604. [4610] [2956] [2840] License.—Persons who desire to marry shall procure from the county clerk a license directed to all persons authorized by law to celebrate the rites of matrimony, which shall be sufficient authority to celebrate such marriage. [Acts 1837, p. 234; G. L., vol. 1, p. 129.]

Art. 4605. [4611] [2957] [2841] Consent of parent or guardian.—No clerk shall issue a license without the consent of the parent or guardian of the parties applying, if there be a guardian. Such consent may be given in person, or in writing signed and acknowledged by said parent or guardian before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments, unless the parties so applying are, in the case of the male twenty-one years of age, and in case of the female eighteen years of age. If there be any doubt in the mind of the clerk, he shall not issue said license unless there shall be presented to him a sworn certificate from the parent or guardian or some person other than the contracting parties that the contracting parties have attained the ages aforesaid. Nothing herein shall be construed to affect the issuance of marriage license in seduction prosecution. If a minor has neither parent nor guardian, then the clerk shall not issue a license without the consent of the county judge of the county of the residence of such minor, such consent to be in writing and signed and acknowledged by such county judge. [P. D., 4667; Acts 1911, p. 63.]

Art. 4606. [4612] [2958] [2842] Record and return of license.—The clerk shall record all licenses so issued by him in a well bound book kept for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the person solemnizing the rites of matrimony to indorse the same on the license and return it to the county clerk within sixty days after the celebration aforesaid; such return shall be recorded with the license. [P. D., 4668.]

Art. 4607. [4613] [2959] [2843] Certain intermarriages prohibited.—It shall not be lawful for any person of Caucasian blood or their descendants to intermarry with Africans or the descendants of Africans. If any person shall violate any provision of this article, such marriage shall be null and void. [P. D., 4670; P. C., 346.]

Art. 4608. [4614-15] [2960-61] [2844-45] Marriages by bond, etc., validated.—All marriages by bond or those performed by officers of justice not authorized to celebrate the rites of matrimony, and those marriages celebrated agreeably to the custom of the times, which occurred prior to the passage of an Act approved June 5, 1837, regulating marriages and for other purposes, are legal and valid, and the issue of such persons are legitimate children capable of inheritance. [Acts 1841, p. 126; P. D., 4671; G. L., vol. 2, p. 640.]

Art. 4609. [4616] [2962] [2846] Cohabitation of slaves.—All persons who at any time heretofore have lived together as man and wife, and both of whom by the laws of bondage, were precluded from the rites of matrimony, and continue to live together until the death of one of the parties shall be considered as having been legally married, and the issue of such cohabitation is declared legitimate; and all such persons as were so living together in such relation on the fifteenth day of August, 1870, shall be considered as having been legally married, and the children born of such cohabitation are declared legitimate. [Acts 1870, p. 127; P. D., 7120; G. L., vol. 6, p. 301.]

CHAPTER TWO

MARRIAGE CONTRACTS

Art.

4610. Stipulations.
 4611. How authenticated.
 4612. Reservation by wife recorded.

Article 4610. [4617-19] Stipulations.—Parties intending to marry may enter into such stipulations as they may desire, provided they be not contrary to good morals or to some rule of law; and in no case shall they enter into an agreement, or make any renunciation, the object of which would be to alter the legal orders of descent, either with respect to themselves, in what concerns the inheritance of their children or posterity, which either may have by any other person, or in respect to their common children; nor shall they make any agreement to impair the legal rights of the husband over the persons of their common children. No matrimonial agreement shall be altered after the celebration of the marriage. [Acts 1840, p. 3; P. D., 4632; G. L., vol. 2, p. 177.]

Art. 4611. [4618] [2964] [2848] How authenticated.—Every matrimonial agreement must be acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments to deeds and attested by at least two witnesses; the minor capable of contracting matrimony may give his consent to any agreement which this contract is susceptible of, but such agreement must be made by the written consent of both parents, if both be living; if not, by that of the survivor; if both be dead, then by the written consent of the guardian of such minor. [P. D., 4633.]

Art. 4612. [4620] [2966] [2850] Reservation by wife recorded.—When the wife, by a marriage contract, reserves to herself any property, or rights to property, whether such rights be in esse or expectancy, such reservation to be valid as to the subsequent purchasers or creditors of her husband, must be acknowledged and recorded as provided by law. [P. D., 4635.]

CHAPTER THREE

RIGHTS OF MARRIED WOMEN

Art.

4613. Husband's separate property.
 4614. Wife's separate property.
 4615. Compensation for personal injuries to wife.
 4616. Wife's separate property protected.
 4617. When wife may convey, etc.
 4618. Sale of homestead.
 4619. Community property.
 4620. Community property liable for debts.

Art.

4621. Community property not liable.
 4622. Funds in bank.
 4623. Subject to debts of wife.
 4624. Judgment and execution.
 4625. Female emancipated by marriage.
 4626. Application to be feme sole.
 4627. Rights of persons married elsewhere.

Article 4613. [4621] [2967] [2851] Husband's separate property.—All property of the husband, both real and personal, owned or claimed by him before marriage, and that acquired afterwards by gift, devise, or descent, as also the increase of all lands thus acquired, and the rents and revenues derived therefrom, shall be his separate property. The separate property of the husband shall not be subject to the debts contracted by the wife, either before or after marriage, except for necessities furnished herself and children after her marriage with him, nor for torts of the wife. During marriage the husband shall have the sole management, control and disposition of his separate property, both real and personal. [Acts 1848, p. 77; G. L., vol. 3, p. 77; Const., Art. 16, sec. 15; Acts 1913, p. 61; Acts 1917, p. 436; Acts 1921, p. 251.]

Art. 4614. [4621] [2967] [2851] Wife's separate property.—All property of the wife, both real and personal, owned or claimed by her before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent, as also the increase of all lands thus acquired, and the rents and revenues derived therefrom, the interest on bonds and notes belonging to her and dividends on stocks owned by her, shall be the separate property of the wife. The wife shall have the sole management, control and disposition of her separate property, both real and personal; provided however, the joinder of the husband in the manner now provided by law for conveyances of the separate real estate of the wife shall be necessary to the incumbrance or conveyance by the wife of her lands, and the joint signature of the husband and wife shall be necessary to a transfer of stocks and bonds belonging to her or of which she may be given control by this law. [Id.]

Art. 4615. Compensation for personal injuries to wife.—All property or moneys received as compensation for personal injuries sustained by the wife shall be her separate property, except such actual and necessary expenses as may have accumulated against the husband for hospital fees, medical bills and all other expenses incident to the collection of said compensation. [Acts 1915, p. 103.]

Art. 4616. [4621] [2967] [2851] Wife's separate property protected.—Neither the separate property of the wife, nor the rents from the wife's separate real estate, nor the interest on bonds and notes belonging to her, nor dividends on stocks owned by her, nor her personal earnings, shall be subject to the payment of debts contracted by the husband nor of torts of the husband. [Acts 1848, p. 77; G. L., vol. 3, p. 77; Const., Art. 16, sec. 15; Acts 1913, p. 61; Acts 1917, p. 436; Acts 1921, p. 251.]

Art. 4617. [4621] [2967] [2851] When wife may convey, etc.—If the husband be insane or shall have permanently abandoned his wife, or shall refuse to join in such encumbrance, conveyance or transfer of such property, the wife may apply to the district court of the county of her residence, and the court, in term time or vacation, upon satisfactory proof that such encumbrance, conveyance or transfer would be advantageous to the interests of the wife, shall make an order granting her permission to make such encumbrance, conveyance or transfer without the joinder of her husband, and she may then encumber, convey or transfer said property without such joinder. [Id.]

Art. 4618. [4621] [2967] [2651] Sale of homestead.—The homestead, whether the separate property of the husband or wife, or the community property of both, shall not be disposed of except by the joint conveyance of both the husband and the wife, except where the husband is insane or has permanently abandoned the wife, in which instances the wife may sell and make title to any such homestead, if her separate property, in the manner herein provided for conveying or making title to her other separate property. [Id.]

Art. 4619. [4622-3] Community property.—Sec. 1. All property acquired by either the husband or wife during marriage, except that which is the separate property of either, shall be deemed the common property of the husband and wife; and all the effects which the husband and wife possess at the time the marriage may be dissolved shall be regarded as common effects or gains, unless the contrary be satisfactorily proved. During coverture the common property of the husband and wife may be disposed of by the husband only; provided, however, if the husband shall have disappeared and his whereabouts shall have been and remain unknown to the wife continuously for more than twelve months, the wife shall after such twelve month period and until the husband returns to her and the affidavit hereinafter provided for is made and filed for record, have full control, management and disposition of the community property, and shall have the same powers with reference thereto as are conferred by law upon the husband, and her acts shall be as those of a feme sole.

Sec. 2. If the wife shall hereafter desire to exercise any of the powers herein conferred upon her, she shall file a petition in writing under oath in the district court of the county in which the husband resided at the time of such disappearance, if he then resided in this State, or in the district court of the county in which the wife resided, if the husband was a nonresident of this State at the time of disappearance, or of any county in which the community property or part thereof is situated in which petition the wife shall set forth the facts entitling her to control, manage and dispose of the community property under the provisions of this article.

Sec. 3. After the filing of said petition the judge of said court shall set the same down for hearing, either in term time or vacation.

Sec. 4. Notice of the filing of said petition and the date set for the hearing thereon shall be issued by the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed and the same shall be published in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the petition is filed, if there be a newspaper published in said county, but if not then in the nearest county where a newspaper of general circulation is published, once in each week for two consecutive weeks previous to the date set for said hearing, the first of which publications shall be not less than ten days prior to such date set for such hearing.

Sec. 5. If, upon the hearing of said petition, the judge shall be satisfied that the facts alleged therein are true, and that facts exist which entitle the wife to control, manage and dispose of the community property under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act, he shall make his order finding and setting out such facts, and thereafter the wife shall have the same powers over the community property as are conferred by law upon the husband, until the husband shall have returned to the wife, and until either the husband or wife shall make and file for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which said petition was filed, his or her affidavit stating the fact of such return. Said affidavit shall be recorded in the deed records of said county and may be recorded in the deed records of other counties in which the property of said community estate may be situated. [Acts 1840, p. 3; G. L. vol. 2, p. 177; Acts 1913, p. 61; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 219, ch. 148.]

Section 6 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 219, ch. 148, provides that if any provision or provisions of the act be held invalid such holding shall not affect the validity of the other provisions.

Art. 4620. [4627] [2973] [2857] Community property liable for debts.—The community property of the husband and wife shall be liable for their debts contracted during marriage, except in such cases as are specially excepted by law. [Acts 1856, p. 51; G. L. vol. 4, p. 469; P. D. 4646.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 4621. [4621] [2967] [2851] Community property not liable.—The community property of the husband and wife shall not be liable for debts or damages resulting from contracts of the wife except for necessities furnished herself and children, unless the husband joins in the execution of the contract; provided, that her rights with reference to the community property on permanent abandonment by the husband shall not be affected by this provision. [Acts 1848, p. 77; Const. art. 16, sec. 15; Acts 1913, p. 61; Acts 1917, p. 436; Acts 1921, p. 252.]

Art. 4622. [4622] [2968] [2852] Funds in bank.—Funds on deposit in any bank or banking institution, whether in the name of the husband or wife, shall be presumed to be the separate property of the party in whose name they stand, regardless of who made the deposit, and unless said bank or banking institution is notified to the contrary, it shall be governed accordingly in honoring checks and orders against such account. [P. D. 4642; Acts 1913, p. 61.]

Art. 4623. [4624] [2970] [2854] Subject to debts of wife.—Neither the separate property of the husband nor the community property other than the personal earnings of the wife, and the income, rents and revenues from her separate property, shall be subject to the payment of debts contracted by the wife, except those contracted for necessities furnished her or her children. The wife shall never be the joint maker of a note or a surety on any bond or obligation of another without the joinder of her husband with her in making such contract. [Id. Acts 1848, p. 77; G. L. vol. 3, p. 77.]

Art. 4624. [4625] [2971] [2855] Judgment and execution.—Upon the trial of any suit as provided for in the preceding article, if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court and jury that the debts so contracted or expenses so incurred were for the purposes enumerated in said article, and also that the debts so contracted or expenses so incurred were reasonable and proper, the court shall decree that execution may be levied upon either the common property or the separate property of the wife at the discretion of the plaintiff. [P. D. 4644.]

Art. 4625. [4628] [2974] [2958] Female emancipated by marriage.—Every female under the age of twenty-one years who shall marry in accordance with the laws of this State, shall, from and after the time of such marriage, be deemed to be of full age and shall have all the rights and privileges to which she would have been entitled had she been at the time of her marriage of full age. [Acts 1848, p. 77; G. L. vol. 3, p. 77.]

Art. 4626. Application to be feme sole.—Any married woman within this State may, with the consent of and joined by her husband, apply by written petition addressed to the district court of the county in which she may be a bona fide resident for judgment or orders of the said court removing her disabilities of coverture and declaring her feme sole for mercantile and trading purposes. Such petition shall set out the causes which make it to the advantage of said married woman to be so declared feme sole, and shall be filed and docketed as in other cases, and at any time thereafter the district court may, in term time, take up and hear said petition and evidence in regard thereto. If upon a hearing of said petition and evidence relating thereto, it appears to the court that it would be to the advantage of the woman applying, then said court shall enter its decree declaring said married woman feme sole for mercantile or trading purposes, and thereafter she may, in her own name, contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, and all of her separate property not exempt from execution under the laws of Texas shall thereafter be subject to her debts and liable under execution therefor, and her contracts and obligations shall be binding on her. [Acts 1911, p. 92.]

Art. 4627. [4629] [2975] [2859] Rights of persons married elsewhere.—The marital rights of persons married in other countries who may remove to this State shall, in regard to property acquired in this State, during the marriage, be regulated by the laws of this State. [P. D. 4639.]

CHAPTER FOUR

DIVORCE

Art.
4628.	Annulment.
4629.	Grounds for divorce.
4630.	Adultery and seduction.
4631.	Residence of plaintiff.
4632.	Procedure.
4633.	Testimony of husband or wife.
4634.	Debts created after suit.
4635.	Inventory and appraisement.
4636.	Temporary orders.
4637.	Alimony.
4638.	Division of property.
4639.	Children.
4640.	Remarriage.
4641.	Costs.

Article 4628. [4630] [2976] [2860] Annulment.—The marriage relation may be dissolved where the causes alleged therefor shall be natural or incurable impotency of body at the time of entering into the marriage contract, or any other impediment that renders such contract void, and the court may decree the marriage to be null and void. [Acts 1841, p. 19; G. L. vol. 2, p. 483.]

Art. 4629. [4631-2] Grounds for divorce.—Except where the husband or wife is insane, a divorce may be decreed in the following cases:

1. Where either party is guilty of excesses, cruel treatment or outrages toward the other, if such ill treatment is of such a nature as to render their living together insupportable.

2. In favor of the husband, where his wife shall have been taken in adultery, or where she shall have voluntarily left his bed and board for the space of three years with the intention of abandonment.

3. In favor of the wife, where the husband shall have left her for three years with intention of abandonment, or where he shall have abandoned her and lived in adultery with another woman.

4. Where a husband and wife have lived apart without cohabitation for as long as ten years.

5. In favor of either the husband or wife, when the other shall have been convicted, after marriage, of a felony and imprisoned in the State penitentiary; provided, that no suit for divorce shall be sustained because of the conviction of either party for felony until twelve months after final judgment of conviction, nor then if the Governor shall have pardoned the convict; provided that the husband has not been convicted on the testimony of the wife; nor the wife on the testimony of the husband. [Acts 1876, p. 16; G. L. vol. 8, p. 852; Acts 1913, p. 183.]

Art. 4630. [4632-5] Adultery and seduction.—In any suit for divorce for the cause of adultery, if it shall be proved that the complainant has been guilty of the like crime, or has admitted the defendant into conjugal society or embraces after he or she knew the criminal fact, or that the complainant, if the husband, connived at his wife's prostitution, or exposed her to lewd company, whereby she became ensnared to the crime aforesaid, it shall be a good defense and a perpetual bar against said suit; or if it appears that the adultery complained of is occasioned by collusion of the parties, and done with the intention to procure a divorce, or where both parties shall be guilty of adultery, then no divorce shall be decreed. A man who to escape prosecution for seduction marries the woman he seduced shall not be entitled to a divorce for any cause within three years after such marriage. [Acts 1873, p. 117; G. L. vol. 7, p. 569; Acts 1913, p. 183.]

Art. 4631. [4632] [2978] [2862] Residence of plaintiff.—No suit for divorce shall be maintained in the courts of this State unless the petitioner for such divorce shall at the time of exhibiting his or her petition, be an actual bona fide inhabitant of this State for a period of twelve months, and shall have resided in the county where the suit is filed for six months next preceding the filing of same. A citizen of this State who is or has been absent from this State for more than six months in the military or naval service of the United States or of this State, shall be entitled to sue for divorce in this State and in the county in which such person had his or her residence before entering such service. [Acts 1921, p. 163; Id.]

Art. 4632. [4632-3] Procedure.—Suit shall not be heard or divorce granted before the expiration of thirty days after the same is filed. In all such suits the defendant shall not be compelled to answer upon oath nor shall the petition be taken as confessed for want of answer, but the decree of the court shall be rendered upon full and satisfactory evidence, upon the judgment of the court affirming the material facts alleged in the petition. Either party may demand a jury. [Id.]

Art. 4633. [4633] [2979] [2863] Testimony of husband or wife.—In all such suits and proceedings the husband and wife shall be competent witnesses for and against each other, but neither party shall be compelled to testify as to any matter that will criminate himself or herself; and where the husband or wife testifies, the court or jury trying the case shall determine the credibility of such witness and the weight to be given such testimony; but no divorce shall be granted upon the evidence of either husband or wife, if there be any collusion between them.

Art. 4634. [4637] [2983] [2867] Debts created after suit.—On and after the day on which the suit for divorce shall be brought, it shall not be lawful for the husband to contract any debts on account of the community, nor to dispose of the lands belonging to the same; and any alienation made by him after that time shall be null and void, if it be proved to the satisfaction of the court that such alienation was made with a fraudulent view of injuring the rights of the wife. [P. D. 3457.]

Art. 4635. [4638] [2984] [2868] Inventory and appraisal.—At any time during a suit for divorce the wife may, for the preservation of her rights, require an inventory and an appraisal to be made of both real and personal estate which are in the possession of the husband, and an injunction restraining him from disposing of any part thereof in any manner. [P. D. 3458.]

Art. 4636. [4639] [2985] [2869] Temporary orders.—Pending suit for a divorce the court, or the judge thereof, may make such temporary orders respecting the property and parties as shall be deemed necessary and equitable. [P. D. 3454.]

Art. 4637. [4640] [2986] [2870] Alimony.—If the wife, whether complainant or defendant, has not a sufficient income for her maintenance during the pendency of the suit for a divorce, the judge may, either in term time or in vacation, after due notice, allow her a sum for her support in proportion to the means of the husband, until a final decree shall be made in the case. [P. D. 3456.]

Art. 4638. [4634] [2980] [2864] Division of property.—The court pronouncing a decree of divorce shall also decree and order a division of the estate of the parties in such a way as the court shall deem just and right, having due regard to the rights of each party and their children, if any. Nothing herein shall be construed to compel either party to divest himself or herself of the title to real estate. [P. D. 3452.]

Art. 4639. [4636-41] Children.—A divorce shall not in anywise affect the legitimacy of the children of the parents so divorced. The court shall have power, in all divorce suits, to give the custody and education of the children to either father or mother, as the court shall deem right and proper, having regard to the prudence and ability of the parents, and the age and sex of the children, to be determined and decided on the petition of either party; and in the meantime to issue any injunction or make any order that the safety and well-being of any such children may require. [P. D. 3461.]

Art. 4640. [4632] [2978] [2862] Remarriage.—Neither party to a divorce suit, where a divorce is granted upon the ground of cruel treatment, shall marry any other person for a period of twelve months next after such divorce is granted, but the parties so divorced may marry each other at any time. In all other cases either party may marry again after the dissolution of the marriage. [Acts 1873, p. 117; G. L. vol. 7, p. 569; Acts 1913, p. 183; Acts 1921, p. 163.]

Art. 4641. [4642] [2988] [2872] Costs.—The court may award costs to the party in whose behalf the sentence or decree shall pass, or that each party shall pay his or her own costs, as the court shall deem reasonable.

1. IN GENERAL

Article 4642. [4643] [2989] Grounds for.—Judges of the district and county courts shall, in term time or vacation, hear and determine applications for and may grant writs of injunction returnable to said courts in the following cases:

1. Where the applicant is entitled to the relief demanded and such relief or any part thereof requires the restraint of some act prejudicial to him.

2. Where a party does some act respecting the subject of pending litigation or threatens or is about to do some act or is procuring or suffering the same to be done in violation of the rights of the applicant when said act would tend to render judgment ineffectual.

3. Where the applicant shows himself entitled there-to under the principles of equity, and the provisions of the statutes of this State relating to the granting of injunctions.

4. Where a cloud would be put on the title of real estate being sold under an execution against a party having no interest in such real estate subject to the execution at the time of the sale, or irreparable injury to real estate or personal property is threatened, irrespective of any legal remedy at law. [Acts 1907, p. 206; Acts 1909, p. 354; Const., Art. 5, secs. 8, 16.]

Art. 4643. [4643] [2989] Issuance by non-resident judge.—No district judge shall grant a writ of injunction returnable to any other court than his own except in the following cases:

1. Where the resident judge cannot hear and act upon the application by reason of his absence, sickness, inability, inaccessibility, disqualification or refusal to act, when such facts are fully set out in the application or in an affidavit accompanying same, and if such judge refuses to act, such refusal shall be indorsed by said judge on such writ with his reasons therefor. In such case no district judge shall grant the writ when the application therefor has once been acted upon by another district judge of this State.

2. To stay execution, or to restrain foreclosure, sales under deeds of trust, trespasses, the removal of property, or acts injurious to or impairing riparian or easement rights, when satisfactory proof is made to such non-resident judge that it is impracticable for the applicant to reach the resident judge and procure his action in time to effectuate the purpose of the application.

3. When the resident judge cannot be reached by the ordinary and available means of travel and communication in sufficient time to effectuate the purpose of the writ sought. In such case the applicant or his attorney seeking a writ on the ground of such inaccessibility shall attach to his application an affidavit fully stating the facts of such inaccessibility and his efforts made to reach and communicate with said judge, and the result thereof, and unless such efforts appear to have been fair and reasonable the application shall not be heard. Such injunction may be subsequently dissolved upon it being shown that the petitioner did not first make reasonable efforts to procure a hearing upon said application before the resident judge. [Id.]

Art. 4644. Against well or mine operator.—No injunction or temporary restraining order shall ever be issued prohibiting sub-surface drilling or mining operations on the application of an adjacent land owner claiming injury to his surface or improvements or loss of or injury to the minerals thereunder, unless the party against whom drilling or mining operations is alleged as a wrongful act is shown to be unable to respond in damages for such injury as may result from such drilling or mining operations; provided, however, that the party against whom such injunction is sought shall enter into a good and sufficient bond in such sum as the judge hearing the application shall fix, securing the complainant in the payment of any injuries that may be sustained by such complainant as the result of such drilling or mining operations. The court may, when he deems it necessary to protect the interests involved in such litigation, in lieu of such bond, appoint a trustee or receiver with such powers as the court may prescribe, to take charge of and hold the minerals produced from the lands of those complained against or the proceeds thereof subject to the final disposition of such litigation. [Acts 1919, p. 311.]

Art. 4645. [4647] [2990] Against a judgment.—No injunction shall be granted to stay any judgment or proceeding at law, except so much of the recovery or cause of action as the complainant shall in his petition show himself equitably entitled to be relieved against and so much as will cover the costs. [Acts 1848, p. 363; P. D. 3930.]

Art. 4646. [4648] [2991] To stay execution.—No injunction to stay an execution upon any valid and subsisting judgment shall be granted after the expiration of one year from the rendition of such judgment, unless it be made to appear that an application for such injunction has been delayed in consequence of the fraud or false promises of the plaintiff in the judgment, practiced or made at the time, or after rendition, of such judgment, or unless for some equitable matter or defense arising after the rendition of such judgment. If it be made to appear that the applicant was absent from the State at the time such judgment was rendered and was unable to apply for such writ within the time aforesaid, such injunction may be granted at any time within two years from the date of the rendition of the judgment. [Id. P. D. 3931.]

Art. 4647. [4649] [2992] Sworn petition.—No writ of injunction shall be granted unless the applicant therefor shall present his petition to the judge verified by his affidavit and containing a plain and intelligible statement of the grounds for such relief. [P. D. 3929.]

Art. 4648. [4650] [2993] Indorsement of judge.—If it shall appear to the judge from the facts stated in the petition that the applicant is entitled to the writ, he shall indorse thereon or annex thereto his written order directing the clerk of the proper court to issue the writ of injunction prayed for, upon such terms and under such modifications, limitations and restrictions as may be specified in said order. The judge shall also specify in such order the amount of the bond to be given by the applicant as a prerequisite to the issuance of the writ. If the injunction be applied for to restrain the execution of a money judgment or the collection of a debt, the bond shall be fixed in double the amount of such judgment or debt. [P. D. 3933.]

Art. 4649. [4654] [2997] Applicant's bond.—Upon the filing of the petition and order of the judge and before the issuance of the writ of injunction, the complainant shall execute and file with the clerk a bond to the adverse party, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such clerk in the sum fixed in the order of the judge granting the writ, conditioned that the complainant will abide the decision which may be made therein, and that he will pay all sums of money and costs that may be made therein, and that he will pay all sums of money and costs that may be adjudged against him if the injunction be dissolved in whole or in part. [P. D. 3933.]

Art. 4650. [4652] [2995] Filing and docketing.—Upon the grant of a writ of injunction, the party to whom the same is granted shall file his petition therefor, together with the order of the judge granting the same, with the clerk of the proper court; and, if such writ of injunction does not pertain to a pending suit in said court, the cause shall be entered on the civil docket of the court in its regular order in the name of the party to whom the writ is granted as plaintiff and of the opposite party as defendant.

Art. 4651. [4656] [2999] Requisites of writ.—The writ of injunction shall be sufficient if it contains substantially the following requisites:

1. Its style shall be, "The State of Texas."
2. It shall be directed to the person or persons enjoined.

3. It must state the names of the parties to the proceeding, plaintiff and defendant, and the nature of the plaintiff's application, with the action of the judge thereon.

4. It must command the person or persons to whom it is directed to desist and refrain from the commission or continuance of the act enjoined, or to obey and execute such order as the judge has seen proper to make.

5. It shall state the term of the court to which it is returnable.

6. It shall be dated and signed by the clerk officially, and attested with the seal of his office and the date of its issuance must be indorsed thereon.

Art. 4652. [4655-7-8] Clerk to issue writ.—When the petition, order of the judge and bond are filed, the clerk shall issue the writ of injunction directed in such order, in conformity with the terms thereof, and deliver the same to the sheriff or any constable of the county of the residence of the person enjoined. If several persons are enjoined, residing in different counties, the writ shall issue to each such county.

Art. 4653. [4659] [3002] Service and return.—The officer receiving a writ of injunction shall indorse thereon the date of its receipt by him, and shall forthwith execute the same by delivering to the party enjoined a true copy thereof. The original shall be returned to the court from which it issued on or before the return day named therein with the action of the officer indorsed thereon or annexed thereto showing how and when he executed the same.

Art. 4654. [4651] [2994] Notice.—If it appear to the judge that delay will not prove injurious to either party, and that justice may be subserved thereby, he may cause notice of such application to be served upon the opposite party, his agent or attorney, in some manner as he may direct, and fix a time and place for the hearing of such application.

Art. 4655. [4662] [3005] Citation on independent writ.—On the issuance of a writ of injunction not pertaining to a suit pending in the court, the clerk of such court shall issue a citation to the defendant as in other civil cases, which shall be served and returned in like manner as ordinary citations issued from said court. No citation shall be necessary when notice is given as provided in the preceding article.

Art. 4656. [4653] [2996] Jurisdiction for trial.—Writs of injunction granted to stay proceedings in a suit, or execution on a judgment, shall be returnable to and tried in the court where such suit is pending, or such judgment was rendered; writs of injunction for other causes, if the party against whom it is granted be an inhabitant of the State, shall be returnable to and tried in the district or county court of the county in which such party has his domicile, according as the amount or matter in controversy comes within the jurisdiction of either of said courts. If there be more than one party against whom a writ is granted, it may be returned and tried in the proper court of the county where either may have his domicile. [Acts 1846, p. 363; P. D. 3932; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1669.]

Art. 4657. [4663] [3006] The answer.—The defendant to an injunction proceeding may answer as in other civil actions; but no injunction shall be dissolved before final hearing because of the denial of the material allegations of the plaintiff's petition, unless the answer denying the same is verified by the oath of the defendant. [P. D. 3929.]

Art. 4658. [4664] [3007] Dissolution.—In all cases of injunction, motions to dissolve the same without determining the merits, may be heard after answer filed, in vacation or in term time, at least ten days notice of such motion being first given to the opposite party or his attorney. In such cases, the proceedings upon such hearing, including the action of the judge upon the motion, shall be entered upon the minutes of the proper court by the clerk thereof, on or before the first day of the succeeding term of such court, and thereafter shall constitute a part of the record of the same. [P. D. 3934.]

Art. 4659. [4665-66] Bond on dissolution.—Upon the dissolution of an injunction restraining the collection of money, by an interlocutory order of the court or judge, made in term time or vacation, if the petition be continued over for trial, the court or judge shall require of the defendant in such injunction proceedings a bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the clerk of the court, payable to the complainant in double the amount of the sum enjoined, and conditioned to refund to the complainant the amount of money, interest and costs which may be collected of him in the suit or proceeding enjoined if such injunction is made perpetual on final hearing. If such injunction is so perpetuated, the court, on motion of the complainant, may enter judgment against the principal and sureties in such bond for such amount as may be shown to have been collected from such complainant.

Art. 4660. [4667] [3010] Damages for delay.—Upon the dissolution of an injunction, either in whole or in part, on final hearing, where the collection of money has been enjoined, if the court be satisfied that the injunction was obtained only for delay, damages thereon may be assessed by the court, at ten per cent on the amount released by the dissolution of the injunction exclusive of costs. [P. D. 3935.]

Art. 4661. [4661-8-9-70] Disobedience.—An injunction restrains the attorneys, agents, servants and employes of the party enjoined, as well as the party himself, effective from the service or notice of the injunction and during its continuance in force. Disobedience of an injunction may be punished by the court or judge, in term time or in vacation, as a contempt. In case of such disobedience, the complainant, his agent or attorney, may file in the court in which such injunction is pending or with the judge in vacation, his affidavit stating the person guilty of such disobedience and describing the acts constituting the same; and thereupon the court or judge shall cause to be issued an attachment for such person, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, and requiring such officer to arrest the person therein named and have him before the court or judge at the time and place named in such writ. On return of such attachment, the judge shall proceed to hear proof; and if satisfied that such person has disobeyed the injunction, either directly or indirectly, he shall be committed to jail without bail until he purges himself of such contempt, in such manner and form as the court or judge may direct.

Art. 4662. [4644-5-6] Appeals.—Any party to a civil suit wherein a temporary injunction may be granted or refused or when motion to dissolve has been granted or over-ruled, under any provision of this title, in term time or in vacation, may appeal from such order or judgment to the Court of Civil Appeals by filing the transcript in such case with the clerk of the said appellate court not later than twenty days after the entry of record of such order or judgment. Such appeal shall not have the effect to suspend the order appealed from unless it shall be so ordered by the court or judge who enters the order. Such case may be heard in the Court of Civil Appeals or Supreme Court on the bill and answer and such affidavits and evidence as may have been admitted by the judge of the court below. If the appellant desires to file a brief in said appellate court he shall furnish the appellee with a copy thereof not later than two days before the case is called for submission in such court, and the appellee shall have until the day the case is called for submission to answer such brief. Such case may be advanced in the Court of Civil Appeals or Supreme Court on motion of either party, and shall have priority over other cases pending therein. [Acts 1909, p. 354; Acts 1907, p. 206; Acts 1919, p. 22.]

Art. 4663. [4671] [3014] Principles of equity applicable.—The principles, practice and procedure governing courts of equity shall govern proceedings in injunctions when the same are not in conflict with the provisions of this title or other law.

2. IN PARTICULAR CASES

Art. 4664. Nuisance.—Any hotel, rooming house or boarding house, country club, garage, rent car stand or other place to which the public commonly resort for board or lodging or commonly congregate for business or pleasure, where intoxicating liquors are kept, possessed, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or to which persons resort in assembling of two or more persons to the room for the purpose of drinking intoxicating liquor, or where intoxicating liquors are furnished to minors or to students of any educational institution, or where persons resort for the purpose of gambling, or for the purpose of prostitution, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance. Any person who knowingly maintains or assists in maintaining such a place is guilty of maintaining a nuisance. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 57.]

Art. 4665. Nuisance; evidence.—Proof that any of said prohibited acts are frequently committed in any of said places shall be prima facie evidence that the proprietor knowingly permitted the same, and evidence that persons have been convicted of committing any said act in a hotel, boarding house or rooming house, is admissible to show knowledge on the part of the defendants that this law is being violated in the house. The original papers and judgments or certified copies thereof in such cases of convictions may be used in evidence in the suit for injunction and oral evidence is admissible to show that the offense for which said parties were convicted was committed in said house. Evidence of general reputation of said houses shall also be admissible to prove the existence of said nuisance. [Id.]

Art. 4666. Nuisance; prosecution.—Whenever the Attorney General, or the district or county attorney has reliable information that such a nuisance exists, either of them shall file suit in the name of this

State in the county where the nuisance is alleged to exist against whoever maintains such nuisance to abate and enjoin the same. If judgment be in favor of the State, then judgment shall be rendered abating said nuisance and enjoining the defendants from maintaining the same, and ordering that said house be closed for one year from the date of said judgment, unless the defendants in said suit, or the owner, tenant or lessee of said property make bond payable to the State at the county seat of the county where such nuisance is alleged to exist, in the penal sum of not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the judge trying the case, conditioned that the acts prohibited in this law shall not be done or permitted to be done in said house. On violation of any condition of such bond, the whole sum may be recovered as a penalty in the name and for the State in the county where such conditions are violated, all such suits to be brought by the district or county attorney of such county. [Id.]

Art. 4667. [4685-93] Gaming and disorderly houses.—The habitual use, actual, threatened or contemplated, of any premises, place or building or part thereof, for any of the following uses shall be enjoined at the suit of either the State or any citizen thereof:

1. For gaming or keeping or exhibiting games prohibited by law.
2. For keeping, being interested in, aiding or abetting the keeping of a bawdy or disorderly house, as those terms are defined in the Penal Code.
3. For carrying on bucket shops as defined in the Penal Code, or the habitual use by or permitting to remain in any such bucket shop, any telegraph or telephone wires or instruments, under circumstances prohibited by the Penal Code.

Any person who may use or be about to use, or who may aid or abet another in the use of any such premises for any purpose mentioned in this article may be made a party defendant in such suit. The Attorney General or any district or county attorney may bring and prosecute all suits that either may deem necessary to enjoin such uses, and need not verify the petition; or any citizen of this State may sue in his own name and shall not be required to show that he is personally injured by the acts complained of.

Art. 4668. Pool halls.—No person acting for himself or others shall maintain or operate a pool hall within this State. The term "Pool Hall," as used herein, includes any room, hall, building or part thereof, tent or enclosure of any kind similar to those named, or any inclosed open space, in which are exhibited for hire, revenue, fees or gain of any kind, or for advertising purposes of any kind, any pool or billiard table or stand or structure of any kind or character on which may be played pool or billiards, or any game similar to pool or billiards played with balls, cues or pins or any similar device. Any such table, stand or structure of any kind used or exhibited in connection with any place where goods, wares or merchandise or other things of value are sold or given away or where or upon which any money or thing of value is paid or exchanged shall be regarded as a place where is exhibited the same for hire, revenue or gain. The habitual, actual, or contemplated use of any premises, place, room, building or part thereof or tent, or any kind or character of enclosure similar to those named, or any uninclosed open space for the purpose of exhibiting any table, stand or structure of any kind described in this article may be enjoined at the suit of either the State or any citizen thereof. The Attorney General of this State, or any district or county attorney, or any citizen of any county in which any pool hall is maintained, operated or contemplated may, either in term time or vacation, apply to the district judge of the district in which is located the place where such pool hall is maintained, operated or contemplated, or to any district judge in Travis County, for an injunction to prohibit the maintenance and operation of any such pool hall. Such judge upon the presentation of a petition for such injunction shall issue a temporary injunction or restraining order, and, if upon final hearing thereof the fact be shown that the defendant is guilty of keeping, maintaining, or operating a pool hall, or of contemplating such act, the court before which the case is tried shall grant a permanent injunction against such party as prayed for in the petition. Any person operating or contemplating the operation of any pool hall in violation of any provision of this article, or anyone aiding or abetting such person may be made a party defendant in such suit. [Acts 1919, p. 18.]

Art. 4669. [4672] [3015] Revenue laws.—The full right, power and remedy of injunction may be invoked by the State at the instance of the county or district attorney or Attorney General, to prevent, prohibit or restrain the violation of any revenue law of the State. [Acts 1888, p. 8; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1006.]

Art. 4670. Procedure.—The procedure in any suit under this subdivision shall be the same as near as may be as in other suits for injunction.

INJURIES RESULTING IN DEATH

Art.

- 4671. Cause of action.
- 4672. Character of wrongful act.
- 4673. Exemplary damages.
- 4674. Crime no bar.
- 4675. Institution of suit.
- 4676. Executor, etc., made party, when.
- 4677. Damages apportioned.
- 4678. Death in foreign State.

Article 4671. [4694] [3017] [2899] Cause of action.—No agreement between any owner of any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach, or other vehicle for transporting passengers or goods, or any industrial or public utility plant, or other machinery, and any person, corporation, trustee, receiver, lessee, joint stock association or other person in control of, or operating the same, shall release such owner, person, trustee, lessee, corporation or joint stock association from any liability fixed by the provisions of this article. An action for actual damages on account of the injuries causing the death of any person may be brought in the following cases:

1. When an injury causing the death of any person is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskilfulness, or default of another person, association of persons, joint stock company, corporation or trustee or receiver of any person, corporation, joint stock company, or association of persons, his, its or their agents or servants, such persons, association of persons, joint stock company, corporation, trustee or receiver, shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death. The term "corporation," as used in this article, shall include all municipal corporations, as well as all private and public and quasi public corporations, except counties and common and independent school districts.

2. When an injury causing the death of any person is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskilfulness, or default of the proprietor, owner, charterer or hirer of any industrial or public utility plant, or any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach, or other vehicle for the conveyance of goods or passengers, or by the unfitness, wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskilfulness or default of his, their or its servants or agents, such proprietor, owner, charterer or hirer shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death.

3. When an injury causing the death of any person is caused by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unskilfulness or default of the receiver, trustee or other person in charge of or in control of any railroad, street railway, steamboat, stage-coach, or other vehicle for the conveyance of goods or passengers, or any industrial plant, public utility plant, or any other machinery, or by the wrongful act, neglect, carelessness, unfitness, unskilfulness or default of his or their servants or agents, such receiver, trustee, or other person shall be liable in damages for the injuries causing such death, and the liability here fixed against such receiver, trustee, or other person shall extend to all cases in which the death is caused by reason of any bad or unsafe condition of the railroad, street railway or other machinery under the control or operation of such receiver, trustee or other person, and to all other cases in which the death results from any other reason or cause for which an action may be brought for damages on account of personal injuries, the same as if said railroad, street railway or other machinery were being operated by the owner thereof. [Acts 1860, p. 32; G. L. vol. 4, p. 1394; Acts 1887, p. 44; G. L. vol. 9, p. 842; Acts 1913, p. 288; Acts 1921, p. 212.]

Art. 4672. [4695] [3018] [2900] Character of wrongful act.—The wrongful act, negligence, carelessness, unskilfulness or default mentioned in the preceding article must be of such character as would, if death had not ensued, have entitled the party injured to maintain an action for such injury. [Acts 1860, p. 32; Acts 1887, p. 44; Acts 1st C. S. 1892, p. 5; G. L. vol. 10, p. 369.]

Art. 4673. [4696] [3019] [2901] Exemplary damages.—When the death is caused by the wilful act or omission, or gross negligence of the defendant, exemplary as well as actual damages may be recovered. [Const., Art. 16, sec. 26.]

Art. 4674. [4697] [3020] [2902] Crime no bar.—The action may be commenced and prosecuted, although the death has been caused under circumstances amounting in law to a felony, and without regard to any criminal proceedings that may or may not be had in relation to the homicide. [Id.]

Art. 4675. [4698-9-4700] Institution of suit.—Actions for damage arising from death shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of and may be brought by the surviving husband, wife, children, and parents of the person whose death has been caused or by either of them for the benefit of all. If none of said parties commence such action within three calendar months after the death of the deceased, the executor or administrator of the deceased shall commence and prosecute the action unless requested by all of such parties not to prosecute the same. The amount recovered shall not be liable for the debts of the deceased. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 356, ch. 239, § 2.]

Art. 4676. [4703] Executor, etc., made party, when.—If the defendant die pending the suit, or if the person or persons against whom such suit might have been instituted, if alive, die before the suit is instituted, his or their executors or administrators may be made a party or parties defendant, and the suit instituted and prosecuted to judgment as though such defendant or person or persons had continued to live. The judgment in such case, if rendered in favor of the plaintiff, shall be, to be paid in due course of administration. [Acts 1925, p. 298.] [39th Leg., ch. 115, § 1.]

Art. 4677. [4704] [3027] [2909] Damages apportioned.—The jury may give such damages as they think proportionate to the injury resulting from such death. The amount so recovered shall be divided among the persons entitled to the benefit of the action, or such of them as shall then be alive, in such shares as the jury shall find by their verdict. [Id.]

Art. 4678. Death in foreign State.—Whenever the death or personal injury of a citizen of this State or of the United States, or of any foreign country having equal treaty rights with the United States on behalf of its citizens, has been or may be caused by the wrongful act, neglect or default of another in any foreign State or country for which a right to maintain an action and recover damages thereof is given by the statute or law of such foreign State or country, such right of action may be enforced in the courts of this State within the time prescribed for the commencement of such actions by the statutes of this State. The law of the forum shall control in the prosecution and maintenance of such action in the courts of this State in all matters pertaining to the procedure. [Acts 1913, p. 338; Acts 1917, p. 365.]

Article 4679. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 7.]

Art. 4679a. Board of Insurance Commissioners.—There is hereby created a Board of Insurance Commissioners, who shall be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. There shall be three members of the said Board, one of whom shall be known as the Life Insurance Commissioner, who shall also be the Chairman of the Board; there shall be a Fire Insurance Commissioner, and there shall be a Casualty Insurance Commissioner. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 1.]

Section 7 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, repeals articles 4679, 4876, 4877, and all conflicting laws or parts of laws.

Art. 4679b. Terms of office.—Until their present terms shall expire the present Commissioner of Insurance shall be the Life Insurance Commissioner and Chairman of the Board. The Secretary of the State Insurance Commission shall be the Fire Insurance Commissioner, and the State Fire Marshal shall be the Casualty Insurance Commissioner. At the expiration of such present terms the Governor shall appoint a Casualty Insurance Commissioner, whose term of office shall expire on February 10, 1929; a Fire Insurance Commissioner whose term of office shall expire on February 10, 1931; and a Life Insurance Commissioner whose term shall expire on February 10, 1933. At the conclusion of the initial terms the regular terms of such offices shall thereupon commence, and thereafter shall run for six years, so that each membership shall run for six years, and so that one membership of said Board shall expire every two years. Vacancies occurring in any office during any term shall with the advice and consent of the Senate be filled by appointment of the Governor, which appointment shall extend only to the end of the unexpired term. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 2.]

Art. 4679c. Duties of commissioners.—Generally, the Life Insurance Commissioner shall have supervision of matters relating to Life Insurance, to the chartering of companies, certificates of authority, and as to the solvency of persons and corporations engaged in the Insurance business; the Fire Insurance Commissioner shall have general supervision of matters relating to Fire Insurance; and the Casualty Insurance Commissioner shall have general supervision of matters relating to casualty, workmen's compensation, fidelity, guaranty and miscellaneous insurance. The Board shall nevertheless operate as a whole, and a majority vote of the members shall be necessary to official action. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 3.]

Art. 4679d. Bond.—Sec. 6. Each of the members of the Board of Insurance Commissioners shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a good bond to the State of Texas in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

Sec. 6A. Compensation to be paid the Commissioners shall be such sums as are provided for by the appropriation bills from time to time.

Sec. 6B. Nothing in this bill [Arts. 4679-4679c, 4681, 4682a, 4876, 4877] shall be construed to in any manner affect the duties now imposed by law on the Industrial Accident Board or to take from said board the performance of the duties now imposed on said board by law. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224.]

Art. 4680. [4489-90] Clerks.—The Commissioner may appoint a chief clerk and such other clerks as the work of his office may require. All clerks shall be removable at the will of the Commissioner. The chief clerk shall possess all the power and perform all the duties attached by law to the office of Commissioner during the necessary absence of the Commissioner, or his inability to act from any cause. The Commissioner shall be responsible for the acts of his chief clerk, who shall, before entering upon the duties of his position, take the oath required of the Commissioner; he may also be required by the Commissioner to enter into bond with security, payable to said Commissioner, for the faithful performance of the duties of his position. [Id.]

Art. 4681. [4492] [2915] [2818] Ineligibility of certain persons.—No person who is a director, officer or agent of, or directly or indirectly interested in any insurance company, except as insured, shall be a Commissioner or a Clerk. [As reenacted Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 4.]

Art. 4682. [4493] [3050] Duties of Commissioner.—In addition to the other duties required of the Commissioner, he shall perform duties as follows:

1. Shall execute the laws.—See that all laws respecting insurance and insurance companies are faithfully executed.

2. File articles of incorporation and other papers.—File and preserve in his office all acts or articles of incorporation of insurance companies and all other papers required by law to be deposited with him, and, upon application of any party interested therein, to furnish certified copies thereof upon payment of the fees prescribed by law.

3. Calculate net value of policies.—He shall, as soon as practicable in each year, calculate or cause to be calculated in his office by an officer or employé of his department, the net value on the thirty-first day of December of the previous year of all the policies in force on that day in each life or health insurance company doing business in the State, upon the basis and in the manner prescribed by law.

4. See that net value of policies are [is] on hand.—Having determined the net value of all the policies in force, he shall see that the company has in safe securities of the class and character required by the laws of this State the amount of said net value of all its policies, after all its debts and claims against it and at least one hundred thousand dollars of surplus to policy holders have been provided for.

5. May accept valuation of other States.—He may accept the valuation made by the insurance commissioner of the State under whose authority a life insurance company was organized, when such valuation has been properly made on sound and recognized principles, as a legal basis as above. The company shall furnish to him a certificate of the insurance commissioner of such States, setting forth the value calculated on the data designated above of all the policies in force in the company on the previous thirty-first day of December, and stating that, after all other debts of the company and claims against it at that time, and one hundred thousand dollars surplus to policy holders, were provided for, the company had, in safe securities of the character required by the laws of this State an amount equal to the net value of all its policies in force, and that said company is entitled to do business in its own State.

6. That company furnishes certificate.—Every life insurance company doing business in this State during the year for which the statement is made that fails promptly to furnish the certificate aforesaid shall be required to make full detailed lists of policies and securities to the Commissioner, and shall be liable for all charges and expenses consequent upon such failure.

7. Shall calculate reserve on fire insurance.—For every company doing fire insurance business in this State, he shall calculate the reinsurance reserve for unexpired fire risks by taking fifty per cent of the premiums received on all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run. When the reinsurance reserve, calculated as above, is less than forty per cent of all the premiums received during the year, the reinsurance reserve in this case shall be the whole of the premiums received on all of its unexpired risks. For every company transacting any kind of insurance business in this State, for which no basis is prescribed by law, he shall calculate the reinsurance reserve upon the same basis prescribed in this article as to companies transacting fire insurance business.

8. Shall charge premiums.—In marine and inland insurance, he shall charge all the premiums received on unexpired risks as a reinsurance reserve.

9. When company's capital is impaired.—Having charged against a company other than life, the reinsurance reserve, as prescribed by the laws of this state, and adding thereto all other debts and claims against the company, he shall, in case he finds the capital stock of the company impaired to the extent of twenty per cent, give notice to the company to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days, and, if this is not done, he shall require the company to cease to do business within this State, and shall thereupon, in case the company is organized under authority of the State, immediately institute legal proceedings to determine what further shall be done in the case.

10. Shall publish results of investigation.—The Commissioner shall publish the result of his examination of the affairs of any company whenever he deems it for the interest of the public.

11. Shall suspend or revoke certificate.—He shall suspend the entire business of any company of this State, and the business within this State of any other company, during its noncompliance with any provision of the laws relative to insurance, or when its business is being fraudulently conducted, by suspending or revoking the certificate granted by him. He shall give notice thereof to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of every state, and shall publish notice thereof. He shall give such company at least ten days notice in writing of his intention to suspend its right to do business or revoke the certificate of authority granted by him, stating specifically the reason why he intends such action.

12. Report to Attorney General.—He shall report promptly and in detail to the Attorney General any violation of law relative to insurance companies or the business of insurance.

13. Shall furnish blanks.—He shall furnish to the companies required to report to him the necessary blank forms for the statements required.

14. Shall keep records.—He shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of his proceedings and a concise statement of the condition of each company or agency visited or examined.

15. Give certified copies.—At the request of any person, and on the payment of the legal fee, he shall give certified copies of any record or papers in his office, when he deems it not prejudicial to public interest, and shall give such other certificates as are provided for by law.

16. Report to Governor.—He shall report annually to the Governor the names and compensations of his clerks, the receipts and expenses of his department for the year, his official acts, the condition of companies doing business in this State, and such other information as will exhibit the affairs of said department.

17. Send copies of reports to.—He shall send a copy of such annual report to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of every state and to each company doing business in the State.

18. Report laws to other States.—On request, he shall communicate to the Insurance Commissioner or other similar officer of any other State, in which the substantial provisions of the law of this State relative to insurance have been, or shall be, enacted, any facts which by law it is his duty to ascertain respecting the companies of this State doing business within such other State.

19. See that no company does business.—He shall see that no company is permitted to transact the business of life insurance in this State whose charter authorizes it to do a fire, marine, lightning, tornado or inland insurance business, and that no company authorized to do a life or health insurance business in this State be permitted to take fire, marine or inland risks.

20. Admit mutual companies.—He shall admit into this State mutual insurance companies organized under the laws of other states and who have two hundred thousand dollars assets in excess of liabilities engaged in cyclone, tornado, hail and storm insurance. [Acts 1909, p. 211, sec. 59.]

Art. 4682a. Duties of the Commission.—All the powers, duties and prerogatives heretofore vested in or devolving upon the Commissioner of Insurance or the State Insurance Commission or any member thereof as now constituted by statute shall hereafter be had, enjoyed, and exercised by the Board of Insurance Commissioners as herein created. The duties heretofore placed upon and the powers and privileges heretofore exercised by the State Fire Marshal are now to be placed upon and exercised and enjoyed by the Fire Insurance Commissioner. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 5.]

Art. 4682b. Fixing rate of automobile insurance.—Sec. 1. Every insurance company, corporation, inter-insurance exchange, mutual, reciprocal, association, Lloyds or other insurer writing automobile insurance in this State, hereinafter called the insurer, shall file with the Commissioner of Insurance, hereinafter called the Commissioner, within 90 days after this Act takes effect, its classification of risks and premium rates, none of which shall take effect until the Commissioner shall have approved the same as just, reasonable and adequate for the risks to which they respectively apply, and not confiscatory as to the class of insurance carriers authorized by law to write such insurance in this State. The Commissioner may withdraw his approval of any rate, made or used by any insurer, if in his judgment such rate is unjust, unreasonable or inadequate to provide for the obligations assumed by the insurer.

Sec. 2. On and after the filing and effective date of such classification of such risks and rates, no such insurer shall issue or renew any such insurance at premium rates which are greater or less than, or different from, those approved by the Commissioner as just, reasonable and adequate for the risks to which they respectively apply, and not confiscatory as to any class of insurance carriers authorized by law to write such insurance.

Sec. 3. To insure the adequacy and reasonableness of rates the Commissioner may take into consideration experience gathered from a territory sufficiently broad to include the varying conditions of the risks involved and the hazards and liabilities assumed, and over a period sufficiently long to insure that the rates determined therefrom shall be just, reasonable and adequate, and to that end the Commissioner may consult any rate making organization or association that may now or hereafter exist.

Sec. 4. The Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to require sworn statements from any insurer affected by this Act, showing its experience on any classification or classifications of risks and such other information which may be necessary or helpful in determining proper classifications and rates, or other duties or authority imposed by law. The Commissioner shall prescribe the necessary forms for such statements and reports, having due regard to the rules, methods and forms in use in other states for similar purposes in order that uniformity of statistics may not be disturbed.

Sec. 5. In addition to the duty of approving classifications and rates, the Commissioner shall prescribe policy forms for each kind of insurance uniform in all respects except as necessitated by the different plans on which the various kinds of insurers operate, and no insurer shall thereafter use any other form in writing automobile insurance in this State; provided, however, that any insurer may use any form of endorsement appropriate to its plan of operation, provided such endorsement shall be first submitted to and approved by the Commissioner; and any contract or agreement not written into the application and policy shall be void and of no effect and in violation of the provisions of this Act, and shall be sufficient cause for revocation of license of such insurer to write automobile insurance within this State.

Sec. 6. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the operation hereunder of any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange or Lloyds association or to prohibit any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange or Lloyds association issuing participating policies; provided no distribution of profits or dividends to insured shall take effect or be paid until the same shall have been approved by the Commissioner; and provided further that no such distribution shall be approved until adequate reserves shall have been provided, such reserves to be computed on the same basis for all classes of insurers operating under this Act.

Sec. 7. It shall be unlawful for any insurer, as defined in this Act, or its officers, directors, general agent, State agents, special agents, local agents or other representatives, to grant to or contract with insured for any special favor or advantage in dividends or other profits, or any commissions or divisions of commissions or profits to accrue thereon, or any compensation or any valuable consideration not specified in the policy contract, or any inducement not specified in the policy contract, for the purpose of writing the insurance of any insured. Nothing in this Section, however, shall be construed to prohibit an insurer from sharing its profits after the same have been earned with its policy holders under and in accordance with an agreement as to such profit sharing contained in its policy contract. Any profit sharing under any policy with insured shall be uniform as between such insured, and shall consist only and solely of an equitable distribution under and in accordance with the terms of the policy of earnings between such insured, and no such insurer shall discriminate in any distribution of profits between insured of a class, and no classes for such distribution shall be made or established except on the approval of the Commissioner. No part of any profit shall be distributed to any insured under any such policy until the expiration of the policy contract. Any violation of the terms of this Section shall constitute unjust discrimination and shall constitute rebating, and shall be sufficient grounds for the revocation of the permit of the insurer or of the license of the agent being guilty of such unjust discrimination and rebating.

Sec. 8. No insurer coming within the terms of this Act shall, in its business in this State, make or permit any distinction or discrimination in favor of the insured having a like hazard, in the matter of the charge of premiums for insurance, or in dividends or other benefits payable under any policy, nor shall any such insurer or agent make any contract of insurance, or agreement as to such insurance, other than expressed in the policy, nor shall any such insurer or its agents or representatives pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to insured, any rebate payable upon the policy or any special favor or advantage in dividends or other benefits to accrue, or anything of value whatsoever, not specified in the policy; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit the modification of rates by an experience rating plan designed to encourage the prevention of accidents and to take account of the peculiar hazards of individual risks, provided such plan shall have been approved by the Commissioner; and provided further that only one such plan shall be approved for each form of insurance hereunder.

Sec. 9. The Commissioner is hereby empowered to make and enforce all such reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as are necessary to carry out its provisions, including full power and control over any administrative agencies and/or stamping office which may be organized or established by insurer with his approval to carry into effect the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 10. Any policyholder or insurer shall have the right to a hearing before the Commissioner on any grievance occasioned by the approval or disapproval by the Commissioner of any classification, rate or endorsement or policy form, or any rule or regulation established under the terms hereof, such hearing to be held in conformity with rules prescribed by the Commissioner. Upon receipt of request that such hearing is desired, the Commissioner shall forthwith set a date for the hearing, at the same time notifying all interested parties in writing of the place and date thereof, which date, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties at interest, shall not be less than ten nor more than thirty days after the date of said notice. Any party aggrieved shall have the right to apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction to obtain redress.

No hearing shall suspend the operation of any classification, rate or policy form unless the Commissioner shall so order.

Sec. 11. Until the insurer shall file, as provided herein, its classification of risks and rates, and the same shall be approved or become effective under the terms hereof, and the Commissioner shall have approved other or different rates, classifications, policy forms, rules and regulations under the Act, the rates, classifications, policy forms, rules and regulations now in use by the insurers now writing automobile insurance in this State shall remain in effect. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 373, ch. 253.]

Section 13 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 373, ch. 253, provides that if any part is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder. Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 373, ch. 253, §§ 1-7, abolish the Commissioner of Insurance and confer his duties on the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Art. 4683. [4494] May change form of annual statement.—The Commissioner may, from time to time make such changes in the forms of the annual statements required of insurance companies of any kind, as shall seem to him best adapted to elicit a true exhibit of their condition and methods of transacting business. Such form shall elicit only such information as shall pertain to the business of the company. [Acts 1909, p. 213, sec. 60.]

Art. 4684. [4495] When parties refuse to testify.—If any person refuses to appear and testify or to give information authorized by this chapter to be demanded by the Commissioner, such Commissioner may file his sworn application with any district judge or district court within this State, where said witness is summoned to appear; and said judge shall summon said witness and require answers to such questions. [Id. sec. 63.]

Art. 4685. [4496] Officers shall execute service.—Peace officers shall execute process directed to them by the Commissioner and make return thereof to him, as in the case of process issued from any court. [Id. sec. 64.]

Art. 4686. [4497] Shall issue certificate of authority.—Should the Commissioner be satisfied that any company applying for a certificate of authority has in all respects fully complied with the law, and that, if a stock company, its capital stock has been fully paid up, that it has the required amount of capital or surplus to policy holders, it shall be his duty to issue to such company a certificate of authority under his seal, authorizing such company to transact insurance business, naming therein the particular kind of insurance, for the period of not less than three months nor extending beyond the last day of February next following the date of such certificate. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 4687. [4497] Revocation of certificate.—If any such insurance company organized under the laws of any State or country, after having obtained a certificate of authority from the Commissioner or other officer authorized to issue such permit to do business in this State, shall bring in any Federal court any suit or action against any citizen of this State, or shall remove any suit or action heretofore or hereafter commenced in any court of this State, to which it is a party, to any Federal court, the Commissioner shall forthwith revoke and recall the certificate of authority of such insurance company to transact business in this State. No renewal of authority shall be granted to such insurance company to do business in this State for a period of three years after such revocation; and such insurance company shall be prohibited from transacting any business in this State until again duly authorized by law. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 4688. [4498] To compute reserve liability.—The Commissioner, as soon as practicable in each year, shall compute the reserve liability on the thirty-first day of December of the preceding year of every company organized under the laws of this State, or authorized to transact business in this State, which has outstanding policies of insurance on the lives of citizens of this State in accordance with the following rules:

1. The net value on the first day of December of the preceding year of all outstanding policies of life insurance in the company issued prior to the first day of January, 1910, shall be computed according to the terms of said policies on the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality, and four and one-half per cent interest per annum.

2. The net value on the last day of December, of the preceding year, of all policies of life insurance issued after the thirty-first day of December, 1909, upon the basis of the Actuary's or Combined Experience Table of Mortality, with four per cent interest per annum. The policies of any such life insurance company thereafter issued upon the reserve basis of an interest rate lower than four per cent shall be computed upon the basis of the American Experience Table of Mortality with interest at such lower rate per annum.

3. In every case in which the actual premium charged for an insurance is less than the net premium for such insurance computed according to its respective tables of mortality and rate of interest aforesaid, the company shall also be charged with the value of annuity, the amount of which shall equal the difference between the premium charged and that required by the rules above stated, and the term of which in years shall equal the number of future annual payments due on the insurance at the date of the valuation. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 4689. [4499] To calculate reinsurance reserve.—On the thirty-first day of December of each and every year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, the Commissioner shall have calculated in his office the reinsurance reserve for all unexpired risks of all insurance companies organized under the laws of this State, or transacting business in this State, transacting any kind of insurance other than life, fire, marine, inland, lightning or tornado insurance, by taking fifty per cent of the gross premiums on all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run. [Id. sec. 53.]

Art. 4690. [4500] To examine companies.—The Commissioner shall, at the end of each two years, or oftener if he deems necessary, in person or by one or more examiners commissioned in writing, visit each company organized under the laws of this State, and examine its financial condition and its ability to meet its liabilities. He shall have free access to all the books and papers of the company or agents thereof relating to the business and affairs of such company, and shall have power to summon and examine under oath the officers, agents and employees of such company and any other person within the State relative to the affairs of such insurance company. He may revoke or modify any certificate of authority issued by him when, any conditions or requirements prescribed by law for granting it no longer exist. He shall give such company at least ten days written notice of his intention to revoke or modify such certificate of authority issued by him, stating specifically the reasons why he intends to revoke or modify such certificate. The expense of every such examination shall be paid by the company so examined. The Commissioner shall not make any charge for services except for traveling or other actual expenses and shall furnish the company with an itemized statement of such expense. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 4691. [4501] In case of examination.—The Commissioner, for the purpose of examination authorized by law, has power either in person or by one or more examiners by him commissioned in writing:

1. To require free access to all books and papers within this State of any insurance companies, or the agents thereof, doing business within this State.

2. To summon and examine any person within this State, under oath, which he or any examiner may administer, relative to the affairs and conditions of any insurance company.

3. To visit at its principal office, wherever situated, any insurance company doing business in this State, for the purpose of investigating its affairs and conditions, and shall revoke the certificate of authority of any such company, in this State refusing to permit such examination. The reasonable expenses of all such examinations shall be paid by the company examined.

4. He may revoke or modify any certificate of authority issued by him when any conditions prescribed by law for granting it no longer exist.

5. He shall also have power to institute suits and prosecutions, either by the Attorney General or such other attorneys as the Attorney General may designate, for any violation of the law of this State relating to insurance. No action shall be brought or maintained by any person other than the Commissioner for closing up the affairs or to enjoin, restrain or interfere with the prosecution of the business of any such insurance company organized under the laws of this State. [Id. Sec. 66.]

Art. 4692. [4502] [3054] Transfer of securities by Commissioner.—No transfer by the Commissioner of securities of any kind, in any way held by him in his official capacity, shall be valid unless countersigned by the State Treasurer. [Acts 1876, p. 224, vol. 8, G. L., p. 1060.]

Art. 4693. [4503] [3055] Duty of State Treasurer.—It is the duty of the State Treasurer:

1. To countersign any such transfer presented to him by the Commissioner.

2. To keep a record of all transfers, stating the name of the transferee, unless transferred in blank, and a description of the security.

3. Upon countersigning, to advise by mail the company concerned, the particulars of the transaction.

4. In his annual report to the legislature, to state the transfers and the amount thereof, countersigned by him. [Id.]

Art. 4694. [4504] [3056] Free access to records.—To verify the correctness of records, the Commissioner shall be entitled to free access to the treasurer's records, required by the preceding article, and the Treasurer shall be entitled to free access to the books and other documents of the insurance department relating to securities held by the Commissioner. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 4695. [4505] [3057] Instruments and copies evidence.—Every instrument executed by the Commissioner of Insurance of this or any other State, in which the substantial provisions of the laws of this State relating to insurance have been or shall be enacted pursuant to authority conferred by law, and authenticated by his seal of office, shall be received as evidence; and copies of papers and records in his office certified by him, and so authenticated, shall be received as evidence with the same effect as the originals. [Id. p. 223, Sec. 11.]

Art. 4696. [4506] [3058] To make inquiries of company.—The Commissioner is authorized to address any inquiries to any insurance company in relation to its business and condition, or any matter connected with its transactions which he may deem necessary for the public good or for a proper discharge of his duties. It shall be the duty of the addressee to promptly answer such inquiries in writing. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 39, vol. 8, G. L. p. 411.]

Art. 4697. [4507] [3059] Annual statement to legislature.—The Commissioner shall cause the information contained in the annual statements of companies to be arranged in tabular form and prepare the same for printing in a single document and submit the same to the legislature as a portion of his regular report to that body. [Id. p. 43, Sec. 28.]

Art. 4698. Co-operative Savings Companies.—All assets arising from the business of the liquidation of Co-operative Savings and Contract Loan Companies created under the provisions of Chapter Five of the General Laws of Texas passed at the First Called Session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature and Chapter Forty-five of the General Laws passed at the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, shall remain under the supervision and control of the Insurance Commissioner. Such corporations shall continue in existence until June 14, 1933, within which time the officers of such respective corporations shall liquidate the same, but such corporations, from and after June 14, 1923, shall not sell any further contracts or receive further payments on any contract heretofore sold. [Acts 1923, p. 336.]

insurance business shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, and submit the same to the Commissioner who in turn shall submit the same to the Attorney General. If said articles shall be found by the Attorney General to be in accordance with the law of this State, and of the United States, he shall attach thereto his certificate to that effect, whereupon such articles shall be deposited with the Commissioner of Insurance.

Art. 4700. [4706] [3029] [2911] Articles of incorporation.—Such articles of incorporation shall contain:

1. The name of the company; and the name selected shall not be so similar to that of any other insurance company as to be likely to mislead the public.

2. The locality of the principal business office of such company.

3. The kind of insurance business in which the company proposes to engage.

4. The amount of its capital stock, which shall in no case be less than one hundred thousand dollars.

Art. 4701. [4707] [3030] [2912] Certificate of authority.—When the said articles of incorporation have been deposited with the Commissioner, and the law in all other respects has been complied with by the company, the Commissioner shall make or cause an examination to be made by some competent and disinterested person appointed by him for that purpose; and if it shall be found that the capital stock of the company, to the amount required by law, has been paid in, and is possessed by it, in money, or in such stocks, notes, bonds, or mortgages, as are required by law, and that the same is the bona fide property of such company, and that such company has in all respects complied with the law relating to insurance, then the Commissioner shall issue to such company a certificate of authority to commence business as proposed in their articles of incorporation. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 33; G. L. vol. 8, p. 405.]

Art. 4702. [4708] [3031] [2913] Oath as to capital.—The incorporators or officers of any such company shall be required to certify under oath to the Commissioner that the capital exhibited to the person making the examination is the bona fide property of such company. The certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4703. [4709] [3032] [2914] Certificate of examiner.—If the examination be made by one other than the Commissioner, the finding shall be certified under the oath of the examiner. Such finding and certificate shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4704. [4710] [3033] [2915] Shares of stock.—The stock of any insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall be divided into shares of not less than ten dollars each and not more than one hundred dollars each. [As amended Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 155, ch. 104, § 1.]

Art. 4705. [4711] [3034] [2916] Items of capital stock.—The capital stock of any such company shall consist:

1. In lawful money of the United States; or

2. In the bonds of this State or any county or incorporated town or city thereof, or the stock of any national bank; or

3. In first mortgages upon unincumbered real estate in this State, the title to which is valid, and the market value of which is double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of buildings, unless such buildings are insured in some responsible company and the policy or policies transferred to the company taking such mortgage. [Acts 1889, p. 11; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1039.]

Art. 4706. [4712] [3035] [2917] Investment of surplus money.—The surplus money of any such company over and above its paid up capital stock may be invested in, or loaned upon the pledge of public stocks or bonds of the United States, or any of the States, or stocks, bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness of any solvent dividend paying corporations, or in bills of exchange or other commercial notes or bills, except its own stock. The current market value of such stocks, bonds, notes, bills, or other evidences of indebtedness, shall be at all times during the continuance of such loans at least twenty per cent more than the sum loaned thereon. [Acts 1875, p. 33; G. L. vol. 8, p. 405.]

Art. 4707. [4713] [3036] [2918] Re-investment of capital stock.—Any such company may exchange and re-invest its capital stock in like securities, as occasion may require. [Id.]

Art. 4708. [4714-15-16] Directors.—The affairs of any insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall be managed by not fewer than seven directors, all of whom shall be stockholders in the company. Within thirty days after the subscription books of the company have been filed, a majority of the stockholders shall hold a meeting for the election of directors, each share entitling the holder thereof to one vote. The directors then in office shall continue in office until their successors have been duly chosen and have accepted the trust. The annual meeting for the election of directors of any such company shall be held during January, as the by-laws of the company may direct. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 155, ch. 104, § 1.]

Art. 4709. [4717] [3040] [2922] Special meeting to elect directors.—If from any cause the stockholders should fail to elect directors at an annual meeting, they may hold a special meeting for that purpose, by giving thirty days notice thereof in some newspaper in general circulation in the county in which the principal office of the company is located. The directors chosen at such special meeting shall continue in office until their successors are duly elected and have accepted. [Id.]

Art. 4710. [4718] [3041] [2923] Quorum of stockholders.—No meeting of stockholders shall elect directors or transact such other business of the company, unless there shall be present, in person or by proxy, a majority in value of the stockholders equal to two-thirds of the stock of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4711. [4719] [3042] [2924] Directors shall choose officers.—The directors shall choose by ballot from their own number a president and such other officers as the by-laws require, who shall perform such duties, receive such compensation and give such security as the by-laws may require. [Id.]

Art. 4712. [4720] [3043] [2925] May ordain by-laws.—The directors may establish such by-laws and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as shall appear to them necessary for regulating and conducting the business of the company. [Id.]

Art. 4713. [4721] [3044] [2926] Business records.—The directors shall keep a full and correct record of their transactions, to be open during business hours to the inspection of stockholders and others interested therein. [Id.]

Art. 4714. [4722] [3045] [2927] Shall fill vacancies; quorum.—The directors shall fill any vacancy which occurs in the board or in any office of such company. A majority of the board shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

Art. 4715. [4723] [3046] [2928] Governed by other laws.—The laws governing corporations in general shall apply to and govern insurance companies incorporated in this State in so far as the same are not inconsistent with any provision of this title.

Article 4716. [4724] Terms defined.—A life insurance company shall be deemed to be a corporation doing business under any charter involving the payment of money or other thing of value, conditioned on the continuance or cessation of human life, or involving an insurance, guaranty, contract or pledge for the payment of endowments or annuities. An accident insurance company shall be deemed to be a corporation doing business under any charter involving the payment of money or other thing of value, conditioned upon the injury, disablement or death of persons resulting from traveling or general accidents by land or water. A health insurance company shall be deemed to be a corporation doing business under any charter involving the payment of any amount of money, or other thing of value, conditioned upon loss by reason of disability due to sickness or ill-health. When consistent with the context and not obviously used in a different sense, the term "company," or "insurance company," as used herein, includes all corporations engaged as principals in the business of life, accident or health insurance. The term "home," or domestic company, as used herein, designates those life, accident or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance companies incorporated and formed in this State. The term "foreign company," means any life, accident or health insurance company organized under the laws of any other state or territory of the United States or foreign country. The term "home office" of a company means its principal office within the State or country in which it is incorporated and formed. The "insured" or "policy holder" is the person on whose life a policy of insurance is effected. The "beneficiary" is the person to whom a policy of insurance effected is payable. By the term, "net assets" is meant the funds of the company available for the payment of its obligations in this State, including uncollected premiums not more than three months past due and deferred premiums on policies actually in force, after deducting from such funds all unpaid losses and claims, and claims for losses, and all other debts, exclusive of capital stock. The "profits" of a company are that portion of its funds not required for the payment of losses and expenses, nor set apart for any other purpose required by law. [Acts 1909, p. 192, sec. 1.]

Art. 4717. [4725] Who may incorporate.—Any three or more citizens of this State, may associate themselves for the purpose of forming a life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company. No such company shall transact more than one of the foregoing classes of business except in separate and distinct departments. In order to form such a company, the incorporators shall sign and acknowledge its articles of incorporation and file the same in the office of the Commissioner. Such articles shall specify:

1. The name and place of residence of each of the incorporators.
2. The name of the proposed company, which shall contain the words, "Insurance Company" as a part thereof.
3. The location of its home office.
4. The kind or kinds of insurance business it proposes to transact.
5. The amount of its capital stock, not less than $100,000, all of which capital stock must be subscribed and fully paid up and in the hands of the corporators before said articles of incorporation are filed.
6. The period of time it is to exist, which shall not exceed five hundred years.
7. The number of shares of such capital stock.
8. Such other provisions not inconsistent with the law as the corporators may deem proper to insert therein. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 4718. [4726] Charter and organization.—When such articles of incorporation are filed with the Commissioner, together with an affidavit made by two or more of its incorporators that all the stock has been subscribed in good faith and fully paid for, together with a charter fee of twenty dollars, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to submit such articles of incorporation to the Attorney General for examination; and if he approves the same as conforming with the law, he shall so certify and deliver such articles of incorporation, together with his certificate of approval attached thereto, to the Commissioner, who shall, upon receipt thereof, record the same in a book kept for that purpose; and upon receipt of a fee of one dollar, he shall furnish a certified copy of the same to the corporators, upon which they shall be a body politic and corporate, and may proceed to complete the organization of the company, for which purpose they shall forthwith call a meeting of the stockholders, who shall adopt by-laws for the government of the company, and elect a board of directors not less than five, composed of stockholders; which board shall have full control and management of the affairs of the corporation, subject to the by-laws thereof as adopted or amended from time to time by the stockholders or directors, and to the laws of this State. The board of directors so elected shall serve until the second Tuesday in March thereafter, on which date annually thereafter, there shall be held a meeting of the stockholders at the home office, and a board of directors elected for the ensuing year. At all meetings of the stockholders, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock fully paid up appearing in his name on the books of the company, which vote may be given in person or by written proxy. The majority of the paid up capital stock at any meeting of the stockholders shall be a quorum. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 4719. [4727] Amendment of charter.—At any regular or called meeting of the stockholders, they may by resolution, provide for any lawful amendment to the charter or articles of incorporation; and such amendment, accompanied by a copy of such resolution duly certified by the president and secretary of the company, shall be filed and recorded in the same manner as the original charter, and shall thereupon become effective. Stockholders representing a majority of the capital stock of any such company may in such manner also increase or reduce the amount of its capital stock. The capital stock shall in no case, be reduced to less than one hundred thousand dollars fully paid up. A statement of any such increase or reduction shall be signed and acknowledged by two officers of the company and filed and recorded along with the certified copy of the resolution of the stockholders provided therefor in the same manner as the charter or amendment thereto. For any such increase or reduction, the company may require the return of the original certificates as other evidence of stock in exchange for new certificates issued in lieu thereof. The shares of stock of such company shall be transferable on its books, in accordance with law and the by-laws of the company, by the owner in person or his authorized agent. Every person becoming a stockholder by such transfer shall succeed to all rights of the former holder of the stock transferred, by reason of such ownership. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 4720. [4728] Examination by Commissioner.—When the first meeting of the stockholders shall be held and the officers of the company elected, the president or secretary shall notify the Commissioner; and he shall thereupon immediately make, or cause to be made, at the expense of the company, a full and thorough examination thereof. If he finds that all of the capital stock of the company, amounting to not less than one hundred thousand dollars, has been fully paid up and is in the custody of the officers, either in cash or securities of the class in which such companies are authorized by this chapter to invest or loan their funds, he shall issue to such company a certificate of authority to transact such kind or kinds of insurance business within this State as such officers may apply for and as may be authorized by its charter; which certificate shall expire on the last day of February next after the date of its issuance. Before such certificate is issued, not less than two officers of such company shall execute and file with the Commissioner a sworn schedule of all the assets of the company exhibited to him upon such examination, showing the value thereof, together with a sworn statement that the same are bona fide, the unconditional and unencumbered property of the company and are worth the amounts stated in such schedule. No original or first certificate of authority shall be granted, except in conformity herewith, regardless of the date of filing of the articles of incorporation with the Commissioner. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 4721. [4729] Shall file annual statement.—Each life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life[,] health and accident insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, shall, after the first day of January of each year and before the first day of March following, and before the renewal of its certificate of authority to transact business, prepare, under oath of two of its officers, and deposit in the office of the Commissioner, a statement accompanied with the fee for filing annual statements of ten dollars, showing the condition of the company on the thirty-first day of December the next preceding, which shall include a statement in detail showing the character of its assets and liabilities on that date, the amount and character of business transacted, moneys received and how expended during the year, and the number and amount of its policies, in force on that date in Texas, and the total amount of its policies in force. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 4722. [4830] Renewal certificate.—Whenever any such company, transacting insurance business in this State, shall have filed its annual statement in accordance with the preceding article, showing a condition which entitles it to transact business in this State in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, the Commissioner shall, upon a receipt of a fee of one dollar, issue a renewal certificate of authority to such company, which shall expire on the last day of February of the subsequent year. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 4723. [4731] Copy of certificate for agents.—Any such company organized under the laws of this State, having received authority from the Commissioner to transact business in this State, shall receive from such Commissioner, upon written request therefor, a certified copy of its certificate of authority for each of its agents in this State. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 4724. [4732] To sue and be sued.—Actions may be maintained by a company organized under the laws of this State against any of its policyholders, stockholders, or other person for any cause relating to the business of such company. Suits may also be prosecuted and maintained by any policyholder or his heirs or his legal representatives against the company for losses which accrue on any policy. No action shall be brought or maintained by any person other than the Commissioner for the enjoining, restraining or interfering with the prosecution of the business of the company. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 4725. [4734] May invest in what securities.—A life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may invest in or loan upon the following securities, viz:

1. It may invest any of its funds or accumulations in the bonds of the United States or of any State, county, or city of the United States, or the bonds of any independent or common school district, or first mortgage bonds of any independent or common school district, or first mortgage bonds of any dividend paying railroad or electrical railway company duly incorporated under the laws of the United States, or any State thereof.

2. It may loan any of its funds and accumulations, taking as security therefor such collateral as under the previous subdivision it may invest in, and upon first liens upon real estate, the title to which is valid and the value of which is double the amount loaned thereon. If any part of such value is in buildings, such buildings shall be insured against loss by fire for at least fifty per cent of the value thereof, with loss clause payable to such company. It may also make loans upon the security of or purchase of its own policies. No loan on any public policy shall exceed the reserve value thereof. No investment or loan, except policy loans, shall be made by any such insurance company, unless the same shall first have been authorized by the board of directors, or by a committee charged with the duty of supervising such investments or loans. No such company shall subscribe to, or participate in, any underwriting of the purchase or sale of securities or property, or enter into any such transaction for such purpose, or sell on account of such company jointly with any other person, firm or corporation; nor shall any such company enter into any agreement to withhold from sale any of its property; but the disposition of its property shall be at all times within the control of its board of directors. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 4726. [4735] May hold real estate.—Every such insurance company may secure, hold and convey real property only for the following purposes and in the following manner:

1. One building site and office building for its accommodation in the transaction of its business and for lease and rental.

2. Such as have been acquired in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for moneys due.

3. Such as have been conveyed to it in the satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings.

4. Such as have been purchased at sales under judgment or decrees of court, or mortgage or other liens held by such companies.

All such real property specified in sub-divisions 2, 3, and 4, of this article which shall not be necessary for its accommodation in the convenient transaction of its business, shall be sold and disposed of within five years after the company shall have acquired title to the same, or within five years after the same shall have ceased to be necessary for the accommodation of its business. It shall not hold such property for a longer period, unless it shall procure a certificate from the Commissioner that its interests will suffer materially by the forced sale thereof; in which event the time for the sale may be extended to such time as the Commissioner shall direct in such certificate. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 4727. [4736] Director not to do certain things.—No director or officer of any insurance company transacting business in or organized under the laws of this State, shall receive any money or valuable thing for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale by such company of any property, or any loan from such company, nor be peculiarly interested, either as principal, co-principal, agent or beneficiary in any such purchase, sale or loan. Nothing in this article shall prevent a life insurance corporation from making a loan upon a policy held therein, by the borrower, not in excess of the reserve value thereof. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 4728. [4737] May reinsure.—Any life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may reinsure in any insurance company authorized to transact business in this State, any risk or part of a risk which it may assume. No such company shall have the power to so reinsure its entire outstanding business until the contract therefor shall be submitted to the Commissioner, and be by him approved, as protecting fully the interests of all the policy holders. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 4729. [4738] Dividends to be paid from profits.—No life insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall declare or pay any dividends to its policy holders, except from the profits made by such company. This shall not prohibit the issuance of policies guaranteeing a definite payment or reduction in premiums, not exceeding the expense loading on said premiums. Where said reduction exceeds said expense loading, the proper reserve therefor must be held by the company to provide for the deficiency so arising in the net premium, but this shall not apply to payments to holders of special or board contracts heretofore issued. No such life insurance company shall declare or pay any dividends to its stockholders, except from the profits made by said company, not including surplus arising from the sale of stock. [Id. Sec. 14.]

Art. 4730. [4739] Salaries.—No domestic life insurance company shall pay any salary, compensation or emolument to any officer, trustee, or director thereof, nor any salary, compensation or emolument amounting in any year to more than five thousand dollars to any person, firm or corporation, unless such payment be first authorized by a vote of the board of directors of such company. The limitation as to time contained herein shall not be construed as preventing a life insurance company from entering into contracts with its agents for the payment of renewal commissions. No such company shall grant any pension to any officer, director or trustee thereof, or to any member of his family after his death. [Id. Sec. 20.]

Art. 4731. [4740] Disbursements by vouchers.—No domestic life insurance company shall make any disbursement of one hundred dollars or more, unless the same be evidenced by a voucher signed by, or on behalf of, the person, firm or corporation receiving the money and correctly describing the consideration for the payment. If the expenditure be for both services and disbursements, the voucher shall set forth the service rendered and statement of the disbursement made. If the expenditure be in connection with any matter pending before any legislature or public body, or before any department or officer of any State or government, the voucher shall correctly describe, in addition, the nature of the matter and of the interest of such company therein. When such voucher cannot be obtained, the expenditure shall be evidenced by a paid check or an affidavit describing the character and object of the expenditure and stating the reason for not obtaining such voucher. [Id. Sec. 21.]

Art. 4732. [4741] Policies shall contain what.—No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this State, or be issued by a life insurance company organized under the laws of this State, unless the same shall contain provisions substantially as follows:

1. That all premiums shall be payable in advance either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers who are designated in the policy.

2. For a grace of at least one month for the payment of every premium after the first, which may be subject to an interest charge, during which month the insurance shall continue in force, which may stipulate that if the insured shall die during the period of grace, the overdue premium will be deducted in any settlement under the policy.

3. That the policy, or policy and application, shall constitute the entire contract between the parties and shall be incontestable not later than two years from its date, except for nonpayment of premiums; and which provision may or may not, at the option of the company, contain an exception for violations of the conditions of the policy relating to naval and military services in time of war.

4. That all statements made by the insured shall, in the absence of fraud be deemed representations and not warranties.

5. That if the age of the insured has been understated, the amount payable under the policy shall be such as the premium paid would have purchased at the correct age.

6. That after three full years premiums have been paid, the company at any time while the policy is in force, will advance upon proper assignment of the policy and upon the sole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to, or at the option of the owner of the policy less than, the legal reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend addition thereto, less than a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy, and of any dividend additions thereto; and that the company may deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year, and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year, which provision may also provide that such loans may be deferred for not exceeding six months after application therefor is made. It shall also be stipulated in the policy that failure to repay any such advance, or to pay interest, shall not void the policy until the total indebtedness thereon to the company shall equal or exceed the loan value. No condition other than as herein provided shall be exacted as a prerequisite to any such advance. This provision shall not be required in term insurances, nor in pure endowments issued or granted as original policies, or in exchange for lapsed or surrendered policies. No provision herein shall compel any company to loan on any policy an amount greater than ninety-seven and one-half per centum of the face value thereof, including net dividend additions thereto.

7. A provision which, in event of default in premium payments, after premiums shall have been paid for three full years, shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance, the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy, and on any dividend additions thereto, specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserve, less a sum not more than two and one-half per cent of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto, and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Such provisions shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance, as aforesaid, and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six months after the application therefor is made. This provision shall not be required in term insurances.

8. A table showing in figures the loan values, and the options available under the policies each year, upon default in premium payments during the first twenty years of the policy or the period during which premiums are payable, beginning with the year in which such values and options become available.

9. That if, in event of default in premium payments, the value of the policy shall be applied to the purchase of other insurances; and if such insurance shall be in force and the original policy shall not have been surrendered to the company and canceled, the policy may be reinstated within three years from such default upon evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and payments of arrears of premiums with interest.

10. That when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured, settlement shall be made upon receipt of or not later than two months after due proof of death and the right of the claimant to the proceeds.

11. A table showing the amounts of installments in which the policy may provide its proceeds may be payable.

Any foregoing provision not applicable to single premium policies, shall, to that extent, not be incorporated therein. [Id.]

Art. 4733. [4742] Policies shall not contain what.—No policy of life insurance shall be issued or delivered in this State, or be issued by a life insurance company incorporated under the laws of this State, if it contains any of the following provisions:

1. A provision limiting the time within which any action at law or in equity may be commenced to less than two years after the cause of action shall accrue.

2. A provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the insurance was made, if thereby the insured would rate at any age younger than his age at date when the application was made, according to his age at nearest birthday.

3. A provision for any mode of settlement at maturity of less value than the amounts insured on the face of the policy, plus dividend additions, if any, less any indebtedness to the company on the policy, and less any premium that may, by the terms of the policy, be deducted. Any company may issue a policy promising a benefit less than the full benefit in case of the death of the insured by his own hand while sane or insane, or by following stated hazardous occupations. This provision shall not apply to purely accident and health policies. No foregoing provision relating to policy forms shall apply to policies issued in lieu of, or in exchange for, any other policies issued before July 10, 1909. [Id. Sec. 23.]

Art. 4734. [4743] Policies of foreign companies.—The policies of a life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State may contain any provision which the law of the State, territory, district or county under which the company is organized, prescribes shall be in such policies when issued in this State; and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this State may, when issued or delivered in any other State, territory, district or country, contain any provision required by the laws of the State, territory, district or country in which the same are issued, anything in this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding. [Id. Sec. 24.]

Art. 4735. [4745] Service of process.—Process in any civil suit against any domestic life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, may be served only on the president, or any active vice president, or secretary, or general counsel residing at the city of the home office of the company, or by leaving a copy of same at the home office of such company during business hours. [Id. Sec. 34.]

Art. 4736. [4746] Losses shall be paid promptly.—In all cases where a loss occurs and the life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company liable therefor shall fail to pay the same within thirty days after demand therefor, such company shall be liable to pay the holder of such policy, in addition to the amount of the loss, twelve per cent damages on the amount of such loss together with reasonable attorney fees for the prosecution and collection of such loss. [Id. Sec. 35.]

Art. 4737. [4747] Certificate null and void, when.—If any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident or life, health and accident insurance company fails to pay off and satisfy any execution that may lawfully issue on any final judgment against said company within thirty days after the officer holding such execution has demanded payment thereof from any officer or attorney of record of such company, in this State, or out of it, such officer shall immediately certify such demand and failure to the Commissioner; and thereupon the Commissioner shall forthwith declare null and void the certificate of authority of such company; and such company shall be prohibited from transacting any business in this State until such execution shall be fully satisfied and discharged, and until such Commissioner shall renew his certificate of authority to such company. [Id. Sec. 36.]

Art. 4738. [4748] Limitation of business.—It shall be unlawful for any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident, and life, health and accident insurance company to take any kind of risks or issue any policies of insurance, except those of life, accident or health; nor shall the business of life, accident or health insurance in this State be in any wise conducted or transacted by any company which in this or any other State or country, is engaged or concerned in the business of marine, fire, or inland insurance. [Id. Sec. 37.]

Art. 4739. [4749] Deposit of securities.—Any life insurance company, accident insurance company, life and accident, health and accident, or life health and accident insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, may at its option, deposit with the State Treasurer securities equal to the amount of its capital stock, and may, at its option, withdraw the same or any part thereof, first having deposited in the treasury in lieu thereof other securities equal in value to those withdrawn. Any such securities, before being so originally deposited or substituted, shall be approved by the Commissioner. When any such deposit is made, the Treasurer shall execute to the company making the deposit a receipt therefor, giving such description to such securities as will identify the same; and such company shall have the right to advertise such fact, or print a copy of the treasurer's receipt on the policies it may issue; and the proper officers or agents of each insurance company making such deposit shall be permitted, at all reasonable times, to examine such securities and to detach coupons therefrom and to collect interest thereon, under such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Treasurer, and the Commissioner. Such deposit when made by any company shall thereafter be maintained as long as said company shall have outstanding any liability to its policy holders. For the purpose of State, county, and municipal taxation, the situs of all personal property belonging to such companies shall be at the home office of such company. [Id. Sec. 38.]

Art. 4740. [4750] Deposits for benefit of insured.—Any life insurance company now or which may hereafter be incorporated under the laws of this State may deposit with the Commissioner for the common benefit of all the holders of its policies and annuity bonds, securities of the kinds in which, by the laws of this State, it is permitted to invest or loan its funds, equal to the legal reserve on all its outstanding policies in force, which securities shall be held by said Commissioner in trust for the purpose and objects herein specified. Any such company may deposit lawful money of the United States in lieu of the securities above referred to, or any portion thereof, and may also, for the purposes of such deposit, convey to said Commissioner in trust the real estate in which any portion of its said reserve may be lawfully invested. In such case, said Commissioner shall hold the title thereto in trust until other securities in lieu thereof shall be deposited with him, whereupon he shall reconvey the same to such company. Said Commissioner may cause any such securities or real estate to be appraised and valued prior to their being deposited with, or conveyed to, him in trust as aforesaid, the reasonable expense of such appraisal or valuation to be paid by the company. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1909, p. 448.]

Art. 4741. [4751] Effect and value of deposits.—After making the deposit mentioned above, no company shall thereafter issue a policy of insurance or endowment or annuity bond, except policies of industrial insurance, unless it shall have upon its face a certificate substantially in the following words: "This policy is registered, and approved securities equal in value to the legal reserve hereon are held in trust by the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas," which certificate shall be signed by such Commissioner and attested by his seal. All policies and bonds of each kind and class issued and the forms thereof filed in the office of said Commissioner shall have printed thereon some appropriate designating letter or figure, combination of letters or figures or terms identifying the particular form of contract, together with the year of adoption of such form. Whenever any change or modification is made in the form of contracts, policy or bond, the designating letters, figures or terms and the year of adoption thereon shall be correspondingly changed. The Commissioner shall prepare and keep such registers thereof as will enable him to compute their value at any time. Upon written proof attested by the president or vice president and secretary of the company which shall have issued such policies or annuity bonds that any of them have been commuted or terminated, the Commissioner shall commute or cancel them upon his register. Until such proof is furnished all registered contracts shall be considered in force for the purposes of this chapter. The net value of every policy or annuity bond, according to the standard prescribed by the laws of this State for the valuation of policies of life insurance companies, when the first premium shall have been paid thereon, less the amount of such liens as the company may have against it (not exceeding such value), shall be entered opposite the record of said policy or annuity bond in the register aforesaid at the time such record is made. On the first day of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, the Commissioner shall cause the policies and annuity bonds of each company accepting the terms of this chapter to be carefully valued; and the actual value thereof at the time fixed for such valuation, less such liens as the company may have against it, not exceeding such value, shall be entered upon the register opposite the record of such policy or bond, and the Commissioner shall furnish a certificate of the aggregate of such value to the company. The Commissioner shall cancel mutilated or surrendered policies and annuity bonds issued by any such company, and register other like policies or bonds issued in lieu thereof. Each company, which shall have made the deposit herein provided for, shall make additional deposits from time to time, in amounts not less than five thousand dollars, and of such securities as are permitted by this chapter to be deposited, so that the market value of the securities deposited shall always be equal to the net value of the policies and annuity bonds issued by said company, less such liens as the company may have against them, not exceeding such net value. So long as any company shall maintain its deposits as herein prescribed at an amount equal to, or in excess of, the net value of its policies and annuity bonds as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to sign and affix his seal to the certificates before mentioned on every policy and annuity bond presented to him for that purpose by any company so depositing. The Commissioner shall keep a careful record of the securities deposited by each company, showing by item the amount and market value thereof. If at any time it shall appear therefrom that the value of the securities held on deposit is less than the actual value of the policies and annuity bonds issued by such company and then in force, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioner to execute the certificate on any additional policies or annuity bonds of such company until it shall have made good the deficit. Any company depositing under the provisions of this chapter may increase its deposits at any time by making additional deposits of not less than five thousand dollars of such securities as are authorized by this chapter. Any such company whose deposits exceed the net value of all policies and annuity bonds it has in force less such liens (not exceeding such net value) as the company may hold against them, may withdraw such excess; and it may withdraw any of such securities at any time by depositing others of equal value and of the character authorized by this chapter in their stead; and it may collect the interest coupons, rents and other income on the securities deposited as the same accrue.

The securities deposited under this chapter by each company shall be placed and kept by the Commissioner in some secure safe-deposit, fire-proof box or vault in the city or town in or near which the home office of the company is located. The officers of the company shall have access to such securities for the purpose of detaching interest coupons and crediting payment and exchanging securities as above provided, under such reasonable rules and regulations as the Commissioner may establish. [Id. Sec. 2.]

Art. 4742. [4752] Fees for making deposits.—Every company making deposit under the provisions of this chapter shall pay to the Commissioner for each certificate placed on registered policies or annuity bonds issued by the company, after the original or first deposit is made hereunder, a fee of twenty-five cents; and the fee so received shall be disposed of by said Commissioner as follows:

1. The payment of the annual rent or hire of the safety deposit fire-proof box above provided.

2. Payment for the services of a competent and reliable representative of said Commissioner, to be appointed by him, who shall have direct charge of the securities and safety box containing the same, and through whom, and under whose supervision, the insurance company may have access to its securities for the purposes above provided. The sum paid such representative shall not exceed sixty dollars per annum for each company.

3. The balance of such fees shall be paid to the State Treasurer to the credit of the general fund. [Id. Sec. 3.]

Art. 4743. [4753] What deposits may include.—Any life insurance company organized under the laws of this State and making the deposit provided for by this chapter, may include, as a part thereof, securities representing its capital stock, and any deposits of its securities heretofore or hereafter made in compliance with the laws of this State representing its capital stock, and shall only be required to deposit in addition thereto the remainder of its total reserve on outstanding policies and annuity bonds after deducting therefrom the amount of its capital stock securities so deposited. Deposits of securities made hereunder to the value of the reserve on all outstanding policies and annuity bonds shall be added to, and maintained from time to time as the reserve values increase, by the company issuing such contracts, or by any company which may reinsure or assume them; and such securities shall be held by the Commissioner and his successors in office in trust for the benefit of such policies and annuity bonds so long as the same shall remain in force. No company making the deposit provided for herein shall reinsure its outstanding business, or the whole of any one or more of its risks, except in or with a company or companies incorporated and organized under the laws of this State, or a company having permission to do business in this State. [Id. Secs. 4 and 5.]

Art. 4744. [4754] Extra hazardous policies.—If any life insurance company doing business under the laws of this State has written or assumed risks that are sub-standard or extra hazardous and has charged therefor more than its published rates of premium, the Commissioner shall in valuing such policies compute and charge such extra reserves thereon

as is warranted by reason of the extra hazard assumed and the extra premium charged. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 4745 [4755] No commissions paid officers.—No life insurance company transacting business in this State shall pay, or contract to pay, directly or indirectly, to its president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, actuary, medical director or other physician charged with the duty of examining risks or applications for insurance or to any officer of the company other than an agent or solicitor, any commission or other compensation contingent upon the writing or procuring of any policy of insurance in such company, or procuring an application therefor by any person whomsoever, or contingent upon the payment of any renewal premium, or upon the assumption of any life insurance risk by such company. Should any company violate any provision of this article, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Insurance to revoke its certificate of authority to transact business in this State. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 4746. [4756] Co-operative companies.—The provisions of the six preceding articles shall likewise apply to and govern co-operative life insurance companies organized under the laws of this State. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 4747. [4757] To deposit funds in name of company.—Any director, member of a committee, or officer, or any clerk of a home company, who is charged with the duty of handling or investing its funds, shall not deposit or invest such funds, except in the corporate name of such company; shall not borrow the funds of such company; shall not be interested in any way in any loan, pledge, security, or property of such company, except as stockholder; shall not take or receive to his own use any fee, brokerage, commission, gift or other consideration for, or on account of, a loan made by or on behalf of such company. [Act 1909, p. 192; Sec. 39.]

Art. 4748. [4758] Impairment of capital stock.—Any such insurance company transacting business within this State, whose capital stock shall become impaired to the extent of thirty-three and one-third per cent thereof, computing its liabilities according to the terms of this chapter, shall make good such impairment within sixty days, by reduction of its capital stock; (provided such capital stock shall in no case be less than one hundred thousand dollars), or otherwise; and failing to make good such impairment within said time shall forfeit its right to write new business in this State until said impairment shall have been made good. The Commissioner may apply to any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a receiver to wind up the affairs of such company when its capital stock shall become impaired to the extent of fifty per cent thereof, computing its policy liabilities according to the American experience table of mortality and four and one-half per cent interest. No company shall write new business in Texas when its net surplus to policy holders is less than one hundred thousand dollars. [Id. Sec. 43.]

Art. 4749. [4759] Form of policies to be filed.—Life insurance companies shall, within five days after the issuance of, and the placing upon the market, any form of policies of life insurance, file a copy of such form of policy with the Insurance Department. [Id. Sec. 44.]

Art. 4750. [4760] Commissioner to approve policy.—No insurance company transacting business in this State shall hereafter be permitted to issue or sell any policy of industrial life insurance, or any policy of accident or health insurance, until the form thereof has been submitted to the Commissioner. If the Commissioner shall approve the form of such policy as complying with the laws of this State, the same may thereafter be issued and sold. If he shall disapprove the same, any such company may institute a proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction to review his action thereon. [Id. Sec. 45.]

Art. 4751. [4761] Must have certificate of authority.—No foreign or domestic insurance company shall transact any insurance business in this State, other than the lending of money, unless it shall first procure from the Commissioner a certificate of authority, stating that the laws of this State have been fully complied with by it, and authorizing it to do business in this State. Such certificate of authority shall expire on the last day of February in each year, and shall be renewed annually so long as the company shall continue to comply with the laws of the State, such renewals to be granted upon the same terms and considerations as the original certificate. [Id. Sec. 46.]

Art. 4752. [4762] Limited capital stock companies.—Companies may be incorporated in the manner prescribed by this chapter for the incorporation of life, accident and health insurance companies generally, which shall have power only to transact business within this State, and to write insurance only on the weekly or monthly premiums plan, and to issue no policy promising to pay more than one thousand dollars in the event of death of the insured from natural causes, nor more than two thousand dollars in the event of death of any person from accidental causes, which may issue, combined or separately, life, accident or health insurance policies with not less than an actual paid up capital of twenty-five thousand dollars. All such companies shall be subject to all the laws, regulating life insurance companies in this State not inconsistent with the provisions of this article. Such companies shall not be permitted to invest their assets in other than Texas securities as defined by the laws of this State regulating the investments of life insurance companies. [Id. Sec. 56.]

Art. 4753. [4763] Unlawful dividends.—It shall not be lawful for any insurance company organized under the laws of this State to make any dividend, except from surplus profits arising from its business. In estimating such profits, there shall be reserved therefrom the lawful reserve on all unexpired risks and also the amount of all unpaid losses, whether adjusted or unadjusted, and all other debts due and payable, or to become due and payable, by the company. Any dividends made contrary to any provision of this article shall subject the company making them to a forfeiture of its charter; and the Commissioner shall forthwith revoke its certificate of authority. He shall give such company at least ten days notice in writing of his intention to revoke such certificate, stating specifically the reasons why he intends to revoke same. [Id. Sec. 61.]

Art. 4754. [4764] Taxation of domestic company.—Insurance companies incorporated under the laws of this State shall hereafter be required to render for State, county and municipal taxation all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered. All personal property of such insurance companies shall be valued as other property is valued for assessment in this State in the following manner: From the total valuation of its assets shall be deducted the reserve being the amount of the debts of insurance companies by reason of their outstanding policies in gross, and from the remainder shall be deducted the assessed value of all real estate owned by the company and the remainder shall be the assessed taxable value of its personal property. Home insurance companies shall not be required to pay any occupation or gross receipt tax. [Id. Sec. 25.]

Art. 4755. [4765] Foreign companies, statement.—Any life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, incorporated under the laws of any other State, territory or country, desiring to transact the business of such insurance in this State, shall furnish said Commissioner with a written or printed statement under oath of the president or vice president, or treasurer and secretary of such company, which statement shall show:

1. The name and locality of the company.
2. The amount of its capital stock.
3. The amount of its capital stock paid up.

4. The assets of the company, including: first, the amount of cash on hand and in the hands of other persons, naming such persons and their residence; second, real estate unincumbered, where situated and its value; third, the bonds owned by the company and how they are secured, with the rate of interest thereon; fourth, debts due the company secured by mortgage, describing the property mortgaged and its market value; fifth, debts otherwise secured, stating how secured; sixth, debts for premiums; seventh, all other moneys and securities.

5. Amount of liabilities to the company, stating the name of the person or corporation to whom liable.

6. Losses adjusted and due.

7. Losses adjusted and not due.

8. Losses adjusted.

9. Losses in suspense and for what cause.

10. All other claims against the company, describing the same.

The Commissioner may require any additional fact to be shown by such annual statement. Each such company shall be required to file a similar statement not later than March 1 of each year. [Act 1909, p. 192, Sec. 26.]

Art. 4756. [4766] Articles of incorporation, filed.—Such foreign life insurance company, or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company shall accompany such statement with a certified copy of its acts or articles of incorporation, and all amendments thereto, and a copy of its by-laws, together with the name and residence of each of its officers and directors. The same shall be certified under the hand of the president or secretary of such company. [Id. Sec. 27.]

Art. 4757. [4767] Paid up capital stock.—No such foreign life insurance company, accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, shall transact any business of insurance in this State, unless such company is possessed of at least one hundred thousand dollars of actual paid up cash money, capital invested in such securities as provided under the laws of the State, territory or country of its creation. No mutual life insurance or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company operating on the old line or legal reserve basis, shall transact any business of insurance in this State, unless such company is possessed of at least one hundred thousand dollars of net surplus assets invested in securities provided for under the laws of the State[,] territory or country of its creation. [Id. Sec. 28.]

Art. 4758. [4768] Deposits required.—Whenever the existing or future laws of any other State or territory of the United States, or of any other country, shall require of life insurance companies, accident insurance companies, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance companies, incorporated by this State, any deposit of securities in such other State, territory or country before transacting insurance business therein, then, and in every such case, all insurance companies of such State shall, before doing any insurance business in this State, be required to make the same deposit of securities with the Treasurer of this State. [Id. Sec. 29.]

Art. 4759. [4769] Alien companies to deposit.—No foreign life insurance company or accident insurance company, or life and accident, health and accident, or life, health and accident insurance company, incorporated by or organized under the laws of any foreign government, shall transact business in this State, unless it shall first deposit and keep deposited with the Treasurer of this State, for the benefit of the policy holders of such company, citizens or residents of the United States, bonds or securities of the United States or the State of Texas to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 4760. [4770] Deposit liable for judgment.—The deposit required by the preceding article shall be held liable to pay the judgments of policy holders in such company, and may be so decreed by the court adjudicating the same. [Id. Sec. 30.]

Art. 4761. [4771] When alien companies need not deposit.—If the deposit required by Article 4759 has been made in any State of the United States, under the laws of such State, in such manner as to secure equally all the policy holders of such company who are citizens and residents of the United States, then no deposits shall be required in this State; but a certificate of such deposit under the hand and seal of the officer of such other State with whom the same has been made shall be filed with the Commissioner. [Id. Sec. 32.]

Art. 4762. [4772] Assets invested.—The assets of any company not organized under the laws of this State shall be invested in securities or property of the same classes permitted by the laws of this State as to home companies or by other laws of this State in other securities approved by the Commissioner as being of substantially the same grade. [Id. Sec. 57.]

Art. 4763. [4773] Shall file power of attorney.—Each life insurance company engaged in doing or desiring to do business in this State shall file with the Commissioner an irrevocable power of attorney, duly executed, constituting and appointing the Commissioner and his successors in office, or any officer or board which may hereafter be clothed with the powers and duties now devolving upon said Commissioner, its duly authorized agent and attorney in fact for the purpose of accepting service for it or being served with citation in any suit brought against it in any court of this State, by any person, or by or to or for the use of the State of Texas, and consenting that the service of any civil process upon him as its attorney for such purpose in any suit or proceeding shall be taken and held to be valid, waiving all claim and right to object to such service or to any error by reason of such service; and such appointment, agency and power of attorney shall, by its terms and recitals, provide that it shall continue and remain in force and effect so long as such company continues to do business in this State or to collect premiums of insurance from citizens of this State, and so long as it shall have outstanding policies in this State, and until all claims of every character held by the citizens of this State, or by the State of Texas, against such company, shall have been settled. Said power of attorney shall be signed by the president or a vice president and the secretary of such company, whose signature shall be attested by the seal of the company; and said officer signing the same shall acknowledge its execution before an officer authorized by the laws of this State to take acknowledgments. The said power of attorney shall be embodied in, and approved by, a resolution of the board of directors of such company, and a copy of such resolution, duly certified to by the proper officers of said company, shall be filed with the said power of attorney in the office of the Commissioner, and shall be recorded by him in a book kept for that purpose, there to remain a permanent record of said department. [Act 1909, p. 240, Sec. 12.]

Art. 4764. [4774] Commissioner's duty in accepting service.—Whenever the Commissioner shall accept service or be served with citation in any suit pending against any life insurance company in this State, he shall immediately enclose the copy of the citation served upon him, or a substantial copy thereof, in a letter properly addressed to the general manager or general agent of the company against whom such service is had, if it shall have a general manager or general agent within this State, and if not, then to the home office of the company, and shall forward the same by registered mail, postage prepaid. No judgment by default shall be taken in any such case until after the expiration of at least ten days after the general agent or general manager of such company, or the company at its home office, as the case may be, shall have received such copy of such citation; and the presumption shall obtain, until rebutted, that such notice was received by such agent or com-

Article 4765. [4775] Investment in Texas securities.—Each life insurance company now engaged, or that may hereafter engage in transacting the business of life insurance in this State, shall, as a condition of its right to transact such business in this State, invest and keep invested in Texas securities and in Texas real estate as hereinafter provided, a sum of money equal to at least seventy-five per cent of the aggregate amount of the legal reserve required by the laws of the State of its domicile, to be maintained on account of its policies of insurance in force written upon the lives of the citizens of this State, which reserve is hereafter denominated as its "Texas Reserves." And each such company, securing a certificate of authority to do business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate subject to all the conditions and requirements of this chapter. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

Art. 4766. [4776] "Texas securities."—The term "Texas securities," as used in this chapter, shall be held to include all bonds issued under and by virtue of the Federal Farm Loan Act approved July 17, 1916, when such bonds are issued against and secured by promissory notes or other obligations, the payment of which is secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other valid lien upon unincumbered real estate situated in this State; bonds of the State of Texas, or of any county, city, town, school district, or other municipality or subdivision, which is now or may hereafter be constituted or organized and authorized to issue bonds under the constitution and laws of this State, promissory notes and other obligations, the payment of which is secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other valid lien upon unincumbered real estate situated in this State, the title to which real estate is valid and the market value of which is double the amount loaned thereon, exclusive of buildings, unless such buildings are insured and kept insured in some company authorized to transact business in this State, and the policy or policies transferred to the company taking such mortgage or lien; the first mortgage bonds of any solvent corporation incorporated under the laws of this State and doing business in this State, which has not in five years next preceding the date of the investment by such company in such mortgage bonds, defaulted for more than three months in the payment of interest upon its bonds or indebtedness, the market value of which bonds is equal to the amount invested therein; and loans made to policy holders on the sole security of the reserve values of their policies. The investments required by this chapter may be made by the purchase of not more than one building site, and in the erection thereon of not more than one office building, or in the purchase at its reasonable market value of such office building already constructed and the ground upon which the same is located, in any city of the State of more than four thousand inhabitants. All real estate owned by life insurance companies in this State, on December 31, 1909, and all thereafter acquired under the provisions of this chapter, or by foreclosure of a lien thereon, shall be treated, to the extent of its reasonable market value, as a part of the investments required by this chapter. And "Texas Securities" shall be held to include every character of investment authorized by the terms of this article. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 122.]

Art. 4767. [4777] Investments, how made.—The investments required by this chapter shall be made as follows:

1. Each life insurance company which had a certificate of authority to transact business in this State April 2, 1909, the total amount of whose investments in Texas securities as of December 31, 1908, was equal to or exceeded seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of that date, shall have so invested not later than January 31, in each year, a sum of money equal to seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of the preceding December 31.

2. Each life insurance company which had a certificate of authority to transact business in this State on April 2, 1909, the amount of whose investments in Texas securities as of December 31, 1908, was less than seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves as of said date, shall have so invested, not later than January 31 in each year, a sum at least equal to seventy-five per cent of the amount by which its Texas reserves as of December 31 preceding exceeded the amount of its Texas reserves as of December 31, 1908, added to the amount of its total investments in Texas securities as of said date; and each such company, shall in addition, have so invested not later than January 31, 1910, a sum at least equal to ten per cent of the amount by which seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves as of December 31, 1908, exceeded the amount of its investments in Texas securities as of said date, and annually thereafter it shall have invested, not later than January 31, an additional ten per cent of the amount of such excess, until the total amount of its investments in Texas securities shall at least equal seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves.

3. Each life insurance company not having a certificate of authority to do business in this State on April 2, 1909, or that may thereafter discontinue writing new business under such certificate, shall, if it again obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, be required to have invested in Texas securities annually as above provided, a sum equal to seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves. If on December 31 preceding the issuance of such certificate of authority, the amount of its investments in Texas securities was less than seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves, it shall be required to have so invested annually as above provided, a sum equal to seventy-five per cent of the increase of its Texas reserves since December [December] 31, last preceding the issuance of its certificate of authority, added to the amount of its total investment in Texas securities as of said date; and, in addition, it shall, not later than January 31 in each year after the issuance of its certificate of authority, have so invested ten per cent of the amount by which seventy-five per cent of its Texas reserves as of December 31 preceding the date of said certificate exceeded the amount of its total investments in Texas securities as of that date, and shall have invested annually thereafter, not later than January 31, an additional ten per cent of such excess, until the total amount of its investments in Texas securities shall at least equal seventy-five per cent of the amount of its Texas reserves. The proportionate amount of the Texas reserves required by this section to be invested in Texas securities as of any date shall thereafter be maintained. Such investment shall not be required to be made by any life insurance company after it has ceased to do the business of life insurance or to write policies of life insurance in this State. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

Art. 4768. [4778] Report showing amount of reserve.—Each life insurance company doing business in this State shall, not later than ten days after January 31 of each year, file with the Commissioner on a blank prepared and furnished by him for that purpose, a report showing the entire amount of the reserve on its entire business in force in this State on December 31, preceding, and an itemized schedule of its investments in Texas securities, which report shall be sworn to by either the president or a vice president and the secretary of such company. Such report shall contain such other information as may be required by the Commissioner to determine whether or not, such company has continuously and in good faith complied with this law; and for that purpose the Commissioner may, whenever he shall deem it proper, require such special or supplemental reports as he may deem necessary. [Id.]

Art. 4769. [4779] Report showing gross receipts.—Each life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, transacting business in this State, shall annually, on or before the first day of March, make a report to the Commissioner, which report shall be sworn to by either the president or vice president and secretary or treasurer of such company, which shall show the gross amount of premiums collected during the year ending on December 31, preceding, from citizens of this State, upon policies of insurance. Each such company shall pay annually an occupation tax equal to three per cent of such gross premium receipts. When the report of the investment, in Texas securities, as defined by law, of any such companies as of December 31, of any year, shall show that it has invested on said date as much as thirty per cent of its total Texas reserves, as defined by law, in promissory notes or other obligations secured by mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien on Texas real estate, the rate of occupation tax shall be reduced to two and six-tenths per cent; and, when such report shall show that such company has so invested on said date as much as sixty per cent of its total Texas reserve, the rate of such occupation tax shall be reduced to two and three-tenths per cent; and when such report shall show that such company has so invested, on said date, as much as seventy-five per cent of its total Texas reserve, the rate of such occupation tax shall be reduced to two per cent. All such companies shall in any event make the investments in Texas securities in proportion to the amount of Texas reserves as required by law. Such occupation taxes shall be for and on account of the business transacted within this State during the calendar year in which such premiums were collected, or for that portion thereof during which the company shall have transacted business in this State. [Acts 1st C. S. 1909, p. 264.]

Art. 4770. [4780] Taxes to be paid before certificate is issued.—Upon the receipt of sworn statements showing the gross premium receipts of such company, the Commissioner of Insurance shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by such company for the preceding year, which taxes shall be paid to the State Treasurer for the use of the State, by such company. Upon his receipt of such certificate, and the payment of such tax, the treasurer shall execute a receipt therefor, which receipt shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes. No such life insurance company shall receive a certificate of authority to do business in this State until such taxes are paid. If, upon the examination of any company, or in any other manner, the Commissioner of Insurance shall be informed that the gross premium receipts of any year exceed in amount those shown by the report, thereof, theretofore made as above provided, it shall be the duty of such Commissioner to file with the State Treasurer a supplemental certificate showing the additional amount of taxes due by such company, which shall be paid by such company upon notice thereof. The State Treasurer if, within fifteen days after the receipt by him of any certificate or supplemental certificate provided for by this article, the taxes due as shown thereby have not been paid, shall report the facts to the Attorney General, who shall immediately institute suit in the proper court in Travis County to recover such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 4771. [4781] Taxes imposed exclusive.—No occupation tax other than herein imposed shall be levied by the State or any county, city or town, upon any life insurance company herein subject to the occupation tax in proportion to its gross premium receipts, or its agents. The occupation tax imposed by this law shall be the sole occupation tax which any company doing business in this State under the provision of this chapter shall be required to pay. [Acts 1909, p. 240.]

Art. 4772. [4782] Law deemed accepted.—Each life insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, hereafter granted a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate and to transact such business hereunder subject to the conditions and requirements that, after it shall cease to transact new business in this State under a certificate of authority, and so long as it shall continue to collect renewal premiums from citizens of this State, it shall be subject to the payment of the same occupation tax in proportion to its gross premiums during any year, from citizens of this State, as is or may be imposed by law on such companies transacting new business within this State, under certificates of authority during such year. The rate of such tax to be so paid by any such company shall never exceed the rate imposed by this chapter upon insurance companies transacting business in this State. Each such company shall make the same reports of its gross premium receipts for each such year and within the same period as is or may be required of such companies holding certificates of authority and shall at all times be subject to examination by the Commissioner of Insurance or some one selected by him for that purpose, in the same way and to the same extent as is or may be required of companies transacting new business under certificates of authority in this State, the expenses of such examination to be paid by the company examined. The respective duties of the Commissioner in certifying to the amount of such taxes and of the State Treasurer and Attorney General in their collection shall be the same as are or may be prescribed respecting taxes due from companies authorized to transact new business within this State. [Id.]

Art. 4773. [4783] Companies renewing business.—Any life insurance company which has heretofore been, may now be, or may hereafter be, engaged in writing policies of insurance upon the lives of citizens of this State, which has heretofore ceased, or may hereafter cease writing such policies, and which does not now or may not hereafter have a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance in this State, but which has continued or may continue to collect renewal or other premiums upon such policies, shall, before it may again obtain a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance in this State, report under oath to the Commissioner the gross amount of premiums so collected from citizens of this State upon policies of insurance during each calendar year since the end of the period covered by the last preceding report by such company of gross premium receipts upon which it paid an occupation tax, and shall pay to the State a sum equal to the percentage of its gross premium receipts for each such year that was required by law to be paid as occupation taxes by companies doing business in this State, during such year or years; and, upon the payment of such sum and securing a certificate of authority to do business in this State, the penalties provided for the failure to pay such taxes and make such report in the past shall be remitted. [Id.]

Art. 4774. [4784] Failure to renew certificate.—Any company which shall fail to renew its certificate of authority or continue to write new business in this State, shall, nevertheless, have the right to maintain agents in Texas for the purpose of collecting renewal premiums on outstanding business written by it under certificate of authority, and also for the purpose of making investments as provided by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4775. [4785] Commissioner may revoke certificate.—If any life insurance company, while holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall fail or refuse to comply with any of the provisions or requirements of this chapter, the Commissioner upon ascertaining such fact, shall notify such company by actual notice in writing delivered to an executive officer of such company, of his intention to revoke its certificate of authority to transact business in this State at the expiration of thirty days after the mailing of such registered letter, or the date upon which such actual notice is served. If such provisions or requirements are not fully complied with upon the expiration of said thirty days, it shall be the duty of said Commissioner to revoke the certificate of authority of such company. In case of such revocation, such company shall not be entitled to receive another certificate of authority for a period of one year, and until it shall have fully and in good faith complied with all such provisions and requirements of this chapter. Any company feeling itself aggrieved by the action of the Commissioner in revoking its certificate of authority to do business in this State may bring suit against him in Travis County to annul and vacate the order revoking such certificate. [Id.]

Art. 4776. [4786] Failure to report or invest.—If any company shall intentionally fail or refuse to make the investments required by this chapter, or make any report required by this chapter, or to make any special report requested by the Commissioner under authority of this chapter, or generally to comply with any provision or requirements of this chapter, while holding a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, or after it shall cease to write new business or cease to hold such certificate, such failure or refusal shall subject such company, in addition to the penalty provided in the preceding article, in cases to which said article may be applicable, to the payment of a penalty of twenty-five dollars per day for each day that such company shall remain in default after the Commissioner shall notify such company of such default, in the manner provided in the preceding article, to be recovered in a suit that may be brought by the Attorney General in behalf of the State in the District Court of Travis County. In any suit brought to recover such penalty, there shall be a prima facie presumption subject to rebuttal, that any default that may have occurred was intentional; that the notice required by this chapter was given, and the burden of proof shall be on the defendant company to prove that the investments required by this chapter were made as herein required whenever the question of whether or not such investments were thus made is in issue. [Id.]

Art. 4777. [4787] Deposit by domestic company.—Any life insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, may, at its option, deposit with the Treasurer of this State, securities in which its capital stock is invested, or securities equal in amount to its capital stock, of the class in which the law of this State permits insurance companies to invest their capital stock, and may, at its option, withdraw the same or any part thereof, first having deposited with the Treasurer, in lieu thereof, other securities of like class and equal amount and value to those withdrawn. Any such securities, before being so originally deposited or substituted, shall be approved by the Commissioner; and, when any such deposit is made, the Treasurer shall execute to the company making such deposit a receipt therefor, giving such description of said stock or securities as will identify the same, and stating that the same are held on deposit as the capital stock investments of such company; and such company shall have the right to advertise such fact or print a copy of the Treasurer's receipt on the policies it may issue; and the proper officer or agent of each insurance company making such deposit shall be permitted at all reasonable times to examine such securities and to detach coupons therefrom, and to collect interest thereon, under such reasonable rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Treasurer and the Commissioner. The deposit herein provided for, when made by any company, shall thereafter be maintained so long as said company shall have outstanding any liability to its policy holders in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4778. [4788] Not to apply to certain companies.—The provisions of this chapter requiring investments in Texas securities shall not apply to any life insurance company, the total amount of whose Texas reserves does not exceed five thousand dollars, or to any such company doing only a reinsurance business in this State, but all other provisions of this chapter shall apply to such companies. [Id.]

Art. 4779. [4789] Not to apply to fraternal societies.—Nothing in this chapter shall be held to apply to fraternal benefit societies as defined by the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4780. [4790] Companies desiring to loan money.—Any life insurance company not desiring to engage in the business of writing life insurance in this State, but desiring to loan its funds in this State, may obtain a permit to do so by complying with the laws of this State relating to foreign corporations engaged in loaning money in this State, without being required to secure a certificate of authority to write life insurance in this State. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

ASSESSMENT OR NATURAL PREMIUM COMPANIES

Art.

4781. Foreign assessment companies.

4782. Fees.

4783. Exceptions.

Article 4781. [4791] Foreign assessment companies.—Companies or associations organized under the laws of any other State of the United States, carrying on the business of life or casualty insurance on the assessment or natural premium plan, having cash assets of a sum not less than one hundred thousand dollars, invested as required by the laws of this State regulating other insurance companies, shall be licensed by the Commissioner to do business in this State, and be subject only to the provisions of this chapter. Such company or association shall first file with said Commissioner a certified copy of its charter, a written agreement appointing said Commissioner and his successor in office, to be its attorney, upon whom all lawful process in any action or proceeding against it may be served; a certificate under oath of its president and secretary that it is paying, and for the twelve months next preceding has paid, the maximum amount named in its policies or certificates in full; a statement under oath of its president and secretary of its business for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December preceding; a certified copy of its constitution and by-laws, and a copy of its policy and application; a certificate from the proper authority in its home State that said company or association is lawfully entitled to do business therein, and has at least one hundred thousand dollars surplus assets subject to its indebtedness. The Commissioner shall issue a license to any company or association complying with the provisions of this chapter. Every such company or association shall annually thereafter before such license is renewed, file with said Commissioner on or before the first day of March, a statement under oath of its president and secretary, or like officers, of its business for the year ending December 31 preceding. [Acts 1889, p. 98; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1126.]

Art. 4782. [4792] Fees.—Every such company or association shall pay to the Commissioner, for the use of the State, the following fees: For filing copy of its charter, twenty-five dollars; for filing statement preliminary to its admission, twenty dollars; for license to company or association, one dollar. [Id.]

Art. 4783. [4793] Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall in no wise apply to mutual benefit organizations doing business in this State through lodges or councils, such as the Knights of Honor, or kindred organizations. [Id.]

 4793. Statement to be filed.
 4794. Membership fund.
 4795. Notices of assessment.
 4796. May change beneficiary.
 4797. Policy shall specify what.
 4798. Forfeiture of charter.
 4799. Sick benefits.

Article 4784. [4794] Incorporation of.—Any number of persons, not less than five, may organize a corporation for the purpose of transacting the business of accident insurance, upon the co-operate or mutual assessment plan, without capital stock, by complying with the provisions of this chapter. All such persons shall be bona fide citizens and residents of the State of Texas. [Acts 1903, p. 174.]

Art. 4785. [4795] Charter.—Such persons must sign and acknowledge a written charter setting forth:

1. The name of such corporation.
2. The number of its directors, and the names and residences of those who are to act as such for the first year.
3. The location of its principal office, which must be within this State.
4. It shall state that said corporation shall have no capital stock, and shall give the purpose for which same is organized, and the plan upon which it proposes to do business, by stating that its said business shall be conducted upon the assessment plan, without lodges.
5. The term for which it is to exist, which shall not be for more than fifty years. [Id.]

Art. 4786. [4796] Application.—Said charter shall be presented to the Attorney General, accompanied by affidavits of all said incorporators, showing that they are bona fide citizens of this State, by bona fide applications for insurance in said company from not less than two hundred applicants, for not less than one hundred thousand dollars insurance, by an affidavit by one of its incorporators showing that each of said applicants has deposited with applicant at least eighty cents on each one thousand dollars insurance so applied for by him, and by a certificate of some solvent bank showing that all such advance funds are deposited therein to be turned over to the treasurer of such corporation when organized. The Attorney General shall examine all said instruments. If he finds the same are in conformity with this chapter, he shall give his approval and file the same with the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4787. [4797] Ready for business, when.—When said charter has been filed with the Commissioner, with the approval of the Attorney General, accompanied by a filing fee of twenty dollars, the Commissioner shall record the said charter and certificate of the Attorney General in a book kept for that purpose, and shall, upon the receipt of fee for certifying copy of charter of one dollar, furnish a certified copy of such charter and certificate of the Attorney General to the corporators, and shall return to said corporators all such applications for membership, also a certificate that such charter has been filed and recorded in his office, and that said company is duly incorporated under the laws of this State, and authorized to transact the business set forth in its charter, stating same. Upon filing and recording said charter, said association shall become a body politic and corporate, with the right to transact its said business in this State and elsewhere, according to the provisions of this chapter, to hold property and to alienate same, to contract, sue and be sued under its corporate name, and by that name shall have succession, and may by its board of directors make by-laws not inconsistent with law, and shall carry on its business subject to the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 3a.]

Art. 4788. [4798] "Mutual assessment company."—Any corporation which issues any certificate, policy or other evidence of interest to its members, whereby, upon his death or total disability, any money is to be paid by such corporation to such member, or beneficiary designated by him, which money is derived from voluntary contributions or from admission fees, dues and assessments, or any of them, collected, or to be collected, from the members thereof, and interest and accretions upon, and wherein the paying of such money is conditioned upon the same being realized in the manner aforesaid, and wherein the money so realized is applied to the uses and purposes of said corporation and the expense of the management and prosecution of its business, and which has no subordinate lodges or similar bodies, shall be held to be engaged in the business of mutual assessment accident insurance as contemplated by this chapter, and shall be subject only to the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Sec. 4.]

Art. 4789. [4799] Powers of company.—Such corporations shall issue no certificate of stock, shall declare no dividends, shall pay no profits; and the salaries of all officers shall be designated in its by-laws. Such by-laws shall provide for annual members' meetings, in which each member shall be entitled to vote, only in person, the amount of insurance held. [Id. Sec. 5.]

Art. 4790. [4800] Notice of by-laws.—Every such corporation must, before the adoption of any by-laws or amendments thereto, cause the same to be mailed to each member and director of such association, together with notice of the time and place when the same will be considered at least ten days before the time for such meeting. The provisions of this article shall not apply to by-laws adopted within sixty days after the incorporation of such company. [Id. Sec. 6.]

Art. 4791. [4801] Books and papers subject to inspection.—All books and papers of such corporation shall, at all reasonable times be open for examination by members and their representatives. [Id. Sec. 7.]

Art. 4792. [4802] Examination.—The Commissioner shall annually or as often as he deems it necessary, in person or by one or more examiners, commissioned in writing, visit each such corporation and examine its financial condition and its ability to meet its liabilities. He shall have free access to all books and papers of the corporation, or agents thereof, and shall have power to examine under oath the officers, agents and employees of such corporation. He may revoke or modify any certificate of authority issued by him, when any conditions prescribed by law for granting it no longer exist. The expense of every such examination shall be paid by the corporation so examined. [Id. Sec. 7a.]

Art. 4793. [4803] Statement to be filed.—Every such corporation shall, on the first day of January of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, make and file with the Commissioner a report of its affairs and operations during the year ending on the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding. Such report shall be upon blank forms to be provided by such Commissioner, and shall be verified by the oath of the secretary of such corporation, and shall contain answers to the following questions:

1. Number of certificates or policies issued or members admitted during the year.
2. Amount of indemnity affected thereby.
3. Number of death losses.
4. Number of death losses paid.
5. Number of other losses.
6. Number of other losses paid.
7. The amount received from each assessment in each class.
8. Total amount paid for losses.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

9. Number of death claims for which assessments have been made.

10. Number of death claims compromised or resisted, and brief statement of reasons.

11. Number of other claims for which assessment has been made.

12. Number of other claims compromised or resisted, and brief statement of the reasons.

13. Does company charge annual dues, and, if so, how much?

14. Total amount received and the disposition thereof.

15. Does the company use moneys received for payment of claims to pay expense of the company in whole or in part, and, if so, state the amount so used.

16. Give total amount of salaries paid officers, and name of each salaried officer and the amount paid him.

17. Does the company guarantee fixed amount to be paid, regardless of amounts realized from assessments, dues, admissions, fees, etc.

18. If so, state the amount guaranteed and the security therefor.

19. Has the company a reserve fund?

20. If so, how is it created and for what purpose, the amount thereof and in what form and how invested?

21. Has the company more than one class of members?

22. If so, how many and what, and give amount of indemnity in each.

23. Give number of members in each class.

24. State when the company was organized.

25. Number of policies or memberships lapsed during the year.

26. Number of policies of each class at beginning and at the end of the year.

27. All assets applicable to payment of insurance, other than reserve fund, and how invested.

28. Amount received from all sources for payment of losses, and the disposition thereof; and, in case such corporation fails or refuses to make such report in full within said time, its charter and franchise shall be forfeited. The following fees shall be paid annually: Filing annual statement, ten dollars; certificate of authority to corporation, one dollar; each certified copy thereof, one dollar. [Id. Sec. 8.]

Art. 4794. [4804] Membership fund.—Each certificate of membership, policy or other contract of insurance issued by such company shall bear on its face in red letters the following words: "The payment of the benefit herein provided for is conditioned upon its being collected by this company from assessments and other sources as provided in its by-laws." Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent the creation of a reserve fund by any such organization, which fund, or its accretions, or both, are to be used only for the payment of losses or benefits, as provided in the by-laws of such corporation. Such corporation may charge a membership or admission fee of not exceeding three dollars upon each policy issued, the proceeds of which may be placed in the expense fund, and at least sixty per cent of all amounts realized from any other sources shall be used only for the payment of losses or benefits as they occur, or the balance thereof remaining after paying such losses or benefits transferred to such reserve fund. Such membership fee may also apply as a payment or credit upon the initial assessment or premium, if the by-laws of the corporation so provide. [Acts 1905, p. 311, Acts 1915, p. 255.]

Art. 4795. [4805] Notices of assessment.—Each notice of assessments made by such corporation upon its members, or any of them, shall truly state the cause and purpose of such assessment, amount paid on the last claim paid, the cause of disability or death, the name of the member for whose death or disability such payment was made, the maximum face value of the certificate or policy, and, in case of disability, the maximum amount provided for in such policy or certificate for such disability, and, if not paid in full, the reason therefor. [Acts 1903, p. 174.]

Art. 4796. [4806] May change beneficiary.—Any member of such corporation shall have the right at any time, with the consent of such corporation, to change the beneficiary in his policy or certificate, without requiring the consent of such beneficiary; and such corporation shall give consent under such regulations as may be prescribed in its by-laws. [Id. Sec. 11.]

Art. 4797. [4807] Policy shall specify what.—Every policy or certificate issued by any such corporation shall specify the sum of money which it promises to pay upon the contingency insured against, and the number of days after the receipt of satisfactory proof of the happening of such contingency at which such payment shall be made. Upon the happening of such contingency, such corporation shall be liable for the payment of such amount in full at the time so specified, subject to such legal defenses as it may have against same. If the sum realized by it from assessments made in accordance with its by-laws to meet such payment, together with such other sums as its by-laws may provide shall be used for that purpose, shall be insufficient to pay such sum in full, for which it is so liable, then the payment of the full amount so realized shall discharge such corporation from all liability, by reason of the happening of such contingency, and in that event, such corporation shall be liable only for the amount so actually realized. [Id. Sec. 12.]

Art. 4798. [4808] Forfeiture of charter.—If any corporation not incorporated under this chapter shall engage in any branch of mutual assessment accident insurance, as herein defined, or if any corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter shall transact business in any manner except as herein authorized, such corporation shall, in either event, be subject to the forfeiture of its charter and franchises; and the Attorney General of this State shall immediately institute suit to forfeit its charter and dissolve it. [Id. Sec. 13.]

Art. 4799. Sick benefits.—Any corporation now existing or hereafter organized under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of transacting the business of a mutual assessment accident insurance company shall have and is hereby vested with the authority under its corporate powers to engage in the business, on the assessment plan, as defined in this chapter, of insuring against disability resulting from sickness or disease, and to pay to the beneficiaries of its deceased members a funeral benefit which shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars in event of death of any member resulting from sickness or disease. In enforcing compliance with the requirements of the third article of this chapter, applications for insurance against disability or death resulting from sickness or disease shall not be taken into consideration. [Acts 1915, p. 255.]

Article 4800. [4809] Incorporation.—Nine or more persons, residents of this State, may form a mutual life insurance company for the purpose of insuring the lives of individuals on the mutual, level premium, legal reserve plan, subject to the provisions of this chapter, by executing and acknowledging articles of incorporation for that purpose. Such articles of incorporation shall set forth:

1. The name and residence of each incorporator.
2. The name of the proposed company, which shall contain the words, "Mutual Life Insurance Company," as a part thereof.
3. The location of the principal office from which the business of the company is to be transacted.
4. The number of directors and the name and residence of each one who is to serve until the first regular election of directors. [Acts 1921, p. 148.]

Art. 4801. Certificate of authority.—If the Attorney General approves such articles of incorporation, he shall so certify thereon in writing, and return them to the Commissioner, who shall file the same in his office and issue to the company a certificate of authority to which shall be attached a certified copy of the articles of incorporation authorizing such company to receive applications for insurance as provided in this chapter, to collect premiums thereon and to issue receipts therefor. Such certificate shall expressly state that such company is not authorized to issue policies of insurance or transact any business other than that specifically authorized therein until it has received bona fide applications for insurance on the lives of at least two hundred individuals for not less than five hundred dollars each, aggregating at least two hundred thousand dollars of insurance on which the aggregate net premiums shall be at least equal to the largest net risk assumed on any one life, which applications have been approved by a competent physician and on which the first annual premiums at adequate rates have been paid to the company, nor until these facts shall have been fully shown to the Commissioner and he shall have issued to the company a certificate of authority to transact business as a mutual life insurance company. If this showing is not made within six months after the date upon which such articles of incorporation are filed with the Commissioner, it shall be his duty to cancel the certificate of authority of such company to receive applications for insurance, and to notify each incorporator of such action. When the Commissioner shall be notified that any such company has complied with all the provisions of this and the preceding article, he shall make, or cause to be made, at the expense of such company, an examination thereof; and if he shall find that the law has been fully complied with, it shall be his duty to issue to it a certificate of authority to transact the business of a mutual life insurance company, in accordance with the terms of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4802. [4810] Directors.—The business of a mutual life insurance company shall be controlled and directed by a board of directors consisting of not less than five nor more than twenty-five members, who shall be elected annually as provided in this chapter. The directors who are to serve until the first annual election shall be named in the charter, and they shall hold office until their successors shall be elected and qualified, or until they shall be removed for improper practices. The board of directors shall elect the officers of the company, which shall be a president, and such number of vice-presidents as their by-laws may provide; a secretary, a treasurer, a medical director and such other officers as the by-laws may provide for; and shall fix the compensation of all such officers. The duties of all officers shall be prescribed by the by-laws. The by-laws governing the company until the date of its first annual meeting shall be adopted by the board of directors at their first meeting after the certificate of authority shall be issued authorizing the company to transact the business of a mutual life insurance company. [Id.]

Art. 4803. Annual meeting of policy-holders.—There shall be an annual meeting of all the policy-holders of each mutual life insurance company at the home office of such company or at such other place as may be properly announced to the policy-holders, on the second Tuesday in March after it shall have received a certificate of authority to transact the business of life insurance, and annually thereafter, at which the directors shall be elected for the succeeding year, and at which by-laws for the government of the company, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter or with the laws of this State may be adopted, and at which the existing by-laws may be repealed or amended. At such annual meeting, each policy-holder shall be entitled to one vote for each five hundred dollars of insurance held by him. Any policy-holder may execute his proxy authorizing and entitling the holder to exercise his voting powers, unless such proxy shall be revoked previous to such annual meeting. [Id.]

Art. 4804. Bonds of officers.—The president, secretary and treasurer shall each give bond for the protection of the policy-holders in amount and with securities to be approved by the Commissioner, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties. [Id.]

Art. 4805. Annual statement; renewal certificate.—Such mutual life insurance companies shall file their annual statements with the Commissioner, and receive from him their certificates of authority to transact the business of life insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4806. Annual examination.—The Commissioner shall have made, once in each calendar year, a thorough examination of the affairs of each such mutual life insurance company, the report of which examination shall be made to such Commissioner under oath. The Commissioner, if he approves the report of such examination, shall furnish the company with certificate of approval. The expense of such examination shall be borne by the company examined. [Id.]

Art. 4807. Agents and commissions.—Any such mutual life insurance company which has received authority from the Commissioner to transact business in this State shall receive from such Commissioner, upon written request therefor, a certificate of authority for each of its agents in this State. Contracts between such companies and such agents shall not provide for commissions or other compensation to such agents in excess of the expense loading in the premiums of policies issued upon the applications procured by such agents, collected therefor, and paid to the company in cash. [Id.]

Art. 4808. Annual valuation of policies.—The Commissioner shall annually make valuations of all outstanding policies of mutual life insurance companies as of December 31 of each year, in accordance with the one year preliminary term method based upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent interest per annum, assuming an average risk exposure of six months on all new policies issued within each calendar year. [Id.]

Art. 4809. Net premiums.—The net premiums upon all policies issued by any such company shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article, the net premiums on all new policies issued to be obtained by deducting from the total premium paid the amount of the preliminary term premium as above provided and allowing the remainder of the first annual premium as expense loading; no portion of such net premium collected upon any such policy shall ever be used or applied for the payment of any expenses of the company of any kind or character, or for any other purpose than the payment of death losses, surrender values, or lawful dividends to policy-holders; loans on policies, or for the purposes of such investments of the company as are prescribed in the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4810. Contingency reserve.—Every such company may maintain and set aside, before declaring any dividends to policy-holders, in addition to an amount equal to the net value of all its policies, computed as required by this chapter, a contingency reserve not exceeding the following respective percentages of said net values, to wit: When said net values are less than one hundred thousand dollars, twenty per cent thereof, or the sum of ten thousand dollars, whichever is the greater; the percentage thereof measuring the contingency reserve shall decrease one-half of one per cent for each one hundred thousand dollars of said net values up to one million dollars, and thereafter, one-half of one per cent for each additional one million dollars of said net values; provided, that as the said net values of said policies increase, and as the maximum percentage measuring the contingency reserve decreases, such company may maintain the contingency reserve already accumulated hereunder, although for the time being it may exceed the maximum percentage herein prescribed, but may not add to the contingency reserve when the addition will bring it beyond the maximum percentage. [Id.]

Art. 4811. Surplus and dividends.—Each such company shall make an annual accounting and apportionment of divisible surplus to each policy-holder, beginning not later than the end of the second policy year on all policies issued; and each such policy-holder shall be entitled to and credited with or paid, such portion of the entire divisible surplus as has been contributed thereto by his policy. Upon the thirty-first day of December of each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, each such company shall truly ascertain the surplus earned by it during such year; and after setting aside from such surplus the contingency reserve provided for in this chapter, it shall apportion to each of its policies upon which all premiums due and payable for at least one year have been paid, the proportion of the remainder of such surplus which has been contributed by each such policy, and shall immediately submit a detailed report of such apportionment under oath of its president or secretary to the Commissioner. If such Commissioner shall find such apportionment to be equitable and just to the policy-holders and in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, he shall approve the same, and it shall become effective. If he shall not approve such apportionment, he shall make such changes therein as he shall deem equitable and just and necessary to make the same comply with the provisions of this chapter, and shall certify such changes to such company, whereupon such apportionment as changed by the Commissioner shall become effective. Each dividend declared as aforesaid shall be paid in cash, or in the equivalent of its cash value in any option stated in the policy and selected by the policy-holder, notice of which selection by the policy-holder shall be given to the company in writing. [Id.]

Art. 4812. Policies.—Mutual life insurance companies are authorized to transact business throughout this State and in other States to which they may be admitted; they shall issue no policies except upon the participating plan with dividends payable annually as provided in this chapter; the forms of all policies issued by any such company shall be approved by the Commissioner, and all such policies shall have plainly printed on both the face and the reverse sides thereof the words, "The form of this policy is approved by the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Texas," and the Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of any such company which shall issue any policy except upon such form so approved. No such company shall issue any policy or policies by which, after deducting reinsurance, if any, it shall be bound for more than five thousand dollars upon any one life at any time when the total amount of its insurance in force is less than ten million dollars. [Id.]

Art. 4813 [4819] Unlawful deductions from policy.—Each policy issued by such company shall provide, in the event that premiums are payable other than annually, that no deduction shall be made from the amount due on any policy in the event that the death of the policy-holder shall occur prior to the due date of any premium less than annual. [Id.]

Art. 4814. Table of guaranteed values.—Each policy issued by such company shall contain a table of guaranteed values, which shall become non-forfeitable not later than upon the payment of the third full annual premium; such tables of values shall be drawn in accordance with the law governing life and accident insurance companies. [Id.]

pose other than the payment of death losses. No such company shall have the power to incur any debt on any account except under policies issued by it or for money borrowed to pay death losses, for which any portion of its assets over and above that which may represent or be derived from the expense loading of the premiums collected by it, shall, in any event be subject to execution upon a judgment therefor. [Id.]

Art. 4816. Advances to company.—Any officer, director, or policy-holder of a mutual life insurance company, or any other person, may advance to such company any sum of money for the purpose of promoting or conserving its business, or to enable it to comply with any requirement of the law; and such money, together with such interest thereon as may have been agreed upon, not exceeding ten per cent per annum, shall be payable only out of the surplus remaining after providing for all reserves and other liabilities, and shall not otherwise be a liability or claim against the company or any of its assets. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company, and the amount of such advance shall be reported in each annual statement. [Id.]

Art. 4817. Liabilities.—At any time when the liabilities of any such company, computing its reserve liability upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and three and one-half per cent per annum interest, shall be in excess of its assets, the company shall cease the issuance of new policies until the impairment in its reserve shall be made good. Whenever the liabilities of any such company, computing its reserve liability upon the American Experience Table of Mortality and four and one-half per cent interest per annum, exceeds its assets, the Commissioner may request the Attorney General to file suit in the name of the State in the district court of the county in which such company is located for the appointment of a receiver to terminate and liquidate the affairs of the company, and such action may be maintained. In any such action, such district court, or judge thereof, in vacation, shall have the power, if in his opinion the interests of the policy-holders of the company require it, to enter an order for the reinsurance of all outstanding risks of such company in some other life insurance company authorized to do business in this State upon such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Commissioner, and by such court, or the judge thereof, in vacation; and such court or judge may for that purpose direct the conveyance of the entire assets of any such company, or any portion thereof, to such reinsuring company in consideration of such re-insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4818. [4811] Investment of funds.—Mutual life insurance companies shall invest their funds in accordance with the provisions of the third chapter of this title, concerning investments of life insurance companies in this State; all moneys of mutual life insurance companies, coming into the hands of any officer thereof, when not invested as prescribed, shall be deposited in the name of such company in some bank which is subject to either State or national regulation and supervision, and which has been approved by the Commissioner as a depository therefor. [Id.]

Art. 4819. Other laws to govern.—The provisions of chapter 3 of this title when not in conflict with the articles of this chapter, shall apply to and govern mutual life insurance companies organized under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Article 4820. "Fraternal benefit society."—

Any corporation, society, order or voluntary association, without capital stock, organized and carried on solely for the mutual benefit of its members and their beneficiaries, and not for profit, and having a lodge system with ritualistic form of work and representative form of government, and which shall make provision for the payment of benefits in accordance with Article 4824 is hereby declared to be a fraternal benefit society. [Acts 1913, p. 220.]

Art. 4821. "Lodge system."—Any society having a supreme governing or legislative body and subordinate lodges or branches by whatever name known, into which members shall be elected[,] initiated and admitted in accordance with the Constitution, laws, rules, regulations and prescribed ritualistic ceremonies, which subordinate lodges or branches shall be required by the laws of such society to hold regular or stated meetings at least once in each month, shall be deemed to be operating on the lodge system. [Id.]

Art. 4822. "Representative form of government."—Any such society shall be deemed to have a representative form of government when it shall provide in its Constitution and laws for a supreme legislative or governing body, composed of representatives, elected either by the members or by delegates elected, directly or indirectly by the members, together with such other members as may be prescribed by its Constitution and laws; provided that elective members shall constitute a majority in number and have not less than two-thirds of the votes, nor less than the votes required to amend its Constitution and laws. The meetings of the supreme or governing body, and the election of officers, representatives or delegates, shall be held as often as once in four years. The members, officers, representatives or delegates of a fraternal benefit society shall not vote by proxy. [Id.]

Art. 4823. Exemptions.—Except as herein provided, such societies shall be governed by this law, and shall be exempt from all provisions of the insurance laws of this State, not only in governmental relations with the State, but for every other purpose. No law hereafter enacted shall apply to them, unless they be expressly designated therein. [Id.]

Art. 4824. Benefits.—Every society transacting business under this law shall provide for the payment of death benefits and may provide for the payment of benefits in case of temporary or permanent physical disability, either as the result of disease, accident or old age. The period of life at which the payment of benefits for disability on account of old age shall commence shall not be under seventy years. Such society may provide for monuments or tombstones to the memory of its deceased members, and for the payment of funeral benefits. Such society shall have the power to give a member, when permanently disabled or on attaining the age of seventy, all or such portion of the face value of his certificate as its laws may provide. Nothing in this law shall be so construed as to prevent the issuing of benefit certificates for a term of years less than the whole of life which are payable upon the death or disability of the member occurring within the term for which the benefit certificates may be issued. Such society shall, upon written application of the member, have the power to accept a part of the periodical contributions in cash, and charge the remainder, not exceeding one-half of the periodical contribution, against the certificate, with interest payable or compounded annually at a rate not lower than four per cent per annum. This privilege shall not be granted except to societies which have readjusted or may hereafter readjust their rates of contribution, and to contracts affected by such readjustment. Any society which shall show by the annual valuation hereinafter provided for that it is accumulating and maintaining the reserve not lower than the usual reserve computed by the American Experience Table and five per cent interest may grant to its members extended and paid-up protection, or such withdrawal equities as its Constitution and laws may provide. Such grants shall in no case exceed in value the portion of the reserve to the credit of such members to whom they are made. [Id.]

Art. 4825. Benefits upon life of child.—Any fraternal benefit society authorized to do business in this State and operating on the lodge plan, may provide in its constitution and by-laws, in addition to other benefits provided for therein, for the payment of death or annuity benefits upon the lives of children between the ages of two and eighteen years at next birthday, for whose support and maintenance a member of such society is responsible. Any such society may at its option organize and operate branches for such children and membership in local lodges and initiation therein shall not be required of such children, nor shall they have any voice in the management of the society. The total benefits payable as above provided shall in no case exceed the following amounts at ages at next birthday at time of death, respectively as follows:

Between the ages of	Amount	Between the ages of	Amount
2 and 3	$ 34	8 and 9	$200.00
3 and 4	40	9 and 10	240.00
4 and 5	48	10 and 11	300.00
5 and 6	58	11 and 12	380.00
6 and 7	140	12 and 13	460.00
7 and 8	160	13 and 16	520.00
		16 and 18	600.00

[Acts 1917, p. 430.]

Art. 4826. Certificates as to child.—No benefit certificates as to any child shall take effect until after medical examination or inspection by a licensed medical practitioner, in accordance with the laws of the society, nor shall any such benefits [benefit] certificate be issued unless the society shall simultaneously put in force or have in force at time of issue of said certificate at least five hundred such certificates, on each of which at least one assessment has been paid, nor where the number of lives represented by like certificate falls below five hundred. The death benefit contributions to be made upon such certificate shall be based upon the "Standard Industrial Mortality Table" or the "English Life Number Six" and a rate of interest not greater than 4 per cent per annum, or upon a higher standard. Contributions may be waived or returns may be made from any surplus held in excess of reserve and other liabilities, as provided in the by-laws. Extra contributions shall be made if the reserves hereafter provided for become impaired. [Id.]

Art. 4827. Reserve and rights of child.—Any society entering into such insurance agreement shall maintain on all such contracts the reserve required by the standard of mortality and interest adopted by the society for computing contributions, as provided in the preceding article, and the funds representing the benefit contributions and all accretions thereon shall be kept as separate and distinct funds, independent of the other funds of the society, and shall not be liable for nor used for the payment of the debts and obligations of the society other than the benefits herein authorized. A society may provide that when a child reaches the minimum age for initiation into membership in such society, any benefit certificate issued hereunder may be surrendered for cancellation and exchanged for any other form of certificate issued by the society, provided that such surrender will not reduce the number of lives insured in the branch below five hundred, and upon the issuance of such new certificate any reserve upon the original certificate herein provided for shall be transferred to credit of the new certificate. Neither the person who originally made application for benefits on account of such child, nor the beneficiary named in such original certificate, nor the person who paid the contribution, shall have any vested right in such new certificate, the free nomination of a beneficiary under the new certificate being left to the child so admitted to benefit membership. [Id.]

Art. 4828. Statement as to children.—An entirely separate financial statement of the business transactions and of assets and liabilities arising therefrom shall be made in its annual report to the Commissioner of Insurance by any society availing itself of the provisions hereof. The separation of assets, funds and liabilities required hereby shall not be terminated, rescinded or modified, nor shall the funds be diverted for any use other than as specified in the preceding article as long as any certificates issued hereunder remain in force, and this requirement shall be recognized and enforced in any liquidation, reinsurance, merger, or other change in the condition of the status of the society. [Id.]

Art. 4829. Specified payments.—Any society shall have the right to provide in its laws and the certificate issued hereunder for specified payments on account of the expense or general fund, which payments shall or shall not be mingled with the general fund of the society as its constitution and by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Art. 4830. Child membership.—In the event of the termination of membership in the society by the person responsible for the support of any child, on whose account a certificate may have been issued, as provided herein, the certificate may be continued for the benefit of the estate of the child, provided, the contributions are continued, or for the benefit of any other person responsible for the support and maintenance of such child, who shall assume the payment of the required contributions. [Id.]

Art. 4831. Beneficiaries.—The payment of death benefits shall be confined to wife, husband, relative by blood to the fourth degree, children by legal adoption, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, step-father, step-mother, step-children, father-in-law or to a person or persons dependent upon the member. If after the issuance of the original certificate the member shall become dependent upon an incorporated charitable institution, he shall have the privilege, with the consent of the society, to make such institution his beneficiary. Within the above restrictions each member shall have the right to designate his beneficiary, and from time to time have the same changed in accordance with the laws, rules or regulations of the society, and no beneficiary shall have or obtain any vested interest in the said benefit until the same has become due and payable upon the death of the said member. If a member shall die without designating a beneficiary, or if at the death of the member the beneficiary designated is dead or has no insurable interest in the life of the member, the benefits payable under the certificate shall not be forfeited but shall be paid to the persons named in this article, but in such order as the by-laws of the society shall prescribe; and if such society shall fail to prescribe the order of payment, then the same shall be payable to the persons named in this article and in the order first named. [Acts 1923, p. 116.]

Art. 4832. Organizations as beneficiary.—Fraternal benefit societies, heretofore or hereafter incorporated by the State of Texas or licensed to do business therein, shall be authorized to provide in their constitutions, by-laws or fundamental laws for the issuance of benefit certificates to their members, wherein any association, society or corporation, organized and operated for religious, eleemosynary or educational purposes may be named as beneficiary. [Acts 1917, p. 372.]

Art. 4833. Qualifications for membership.—Any society may admit to beneficial membership any person not less than sixteen and not more than sixty years of age, who has been examined by a legally qualified physician, and whose examination has been supervised and approved in accordance with the laws of the society. Any beneficiary member of such society who shall apply for a certificate providing for disability benefits need not be required to pass an additional medical examination therefor. Nothing herein shall prevent such society from accepting general or social members. [Acts 1913, p. 220.]

Art. 4834. Certificate.—Every certificate issued by any such society shall specify the amount of benefit provided thereby, and shall provide that the certificate, the charter or articles of incorporation or, if a voluntary association, the articles of association, the constitution and laws of the society, and the application for membership and medical examination, signed by the applicant, and all amendments to each thereof, shall constitute the agreement between the society and the member, and copies of the same, certified by the secretary of the society, or corresponding officer, shall be received in evidence of the terms and conditions thereof. Any changes, additions or amendments to said charter or articles of incorporation, or articles of association, or constitution or laws duly made or enacted subsequent to the issuance of the benefit certificates shall bind the member and his beneficiaries, and shall govern and control the agreement in all respects the same as though such changes, additions or amendments had been made prior to and were in force at the time of the application for membership. [Id.]

Art. 4835. Funds.—Any society may create, maintain, invest, disburse and apply an emergency surplus or other similar fund in accordance with its laws. Unless otherwise provided in the contract, such funds shall be held, invested and disbursed for the use and benefit of the society, and no member or beneficiary shall have or acquire individual rights therein or become entitled to any apportionment of the surrender of any part thereof, except as provided in the fifth article of this chapter. The funds from which benefits shall be paid and the funds from which the expenses of the society shall be defrayed shall be derived from periodical or other payments by the members of the society and accretions of said funds. No society, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter be incorporated or admitted to transact business in this State which does not provide for stated periodical contributions sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligations contracted, when valued upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard with interest assumption not more than four per cent per annum, nor write or accept members for temporary or permanent disability benefits except upon tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum. Deferred payments or installments of claims shall be considered as fixed liabilities on the happenings of the contingency upon which such payments or installments are thereafter to be paid. Such liability shall be the present value of such future payments or installments upon the rate of interest and mortality assumed by the society for valuation, and every society shall maintain a fund sufficient to meet such liability regardless of proposed future collections to meet any such liabilities. [Id.]

Art. 4836. Investments.—Every society shall invest its funds only in securities permitted by the laws of this State for the investment of the assets of life insurance companies. Any foreign society permitted or seeking to do business in this State which invests funds in accordance with the laws of the State in which it is incorporated shall be held to meet the requirements of this law for the investment of funds. In case the Constitution and by-laws of the Grand Lodge or governing body of any such association provides that all or any part of the beneficiary or mortuary or insurance fund of such association that is paid in by or collected from the members of such subordinate or local lodge may be retained in the custody of and controlled and managed by such subordinate or local lodge, and designate what officer of such subordinate or local lodge shall have the custody and control of such fund and authorize such local officers to loan or invest the same, and such local officer shall have executed and filed, and shall from time to time when required by the Commissioner, file with such Commissioner such bond or other written instrument to be prescribed and approved in terms and amount by such Commissioner as will indemnify such fund against waste, depletion or loss through loans, investment or otherwise, then such fund so secured shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4837. Distribution of funds.—Every provision of the laws of the society for payment by members of such society, in whatever form made, shall distinctly state the purpose of the same and the proportion thereof which may be used for expenses. No part of the money collected for mortuary or disability purposes or the net accretions of either or any of said funds shall be used for expenses. [Id.]

Art. 4838. Organization.—Seven or more persons, citizens of the United States, and a majority of whom are citizens of this State, who desire to form a fraternal benefit society, as defined by this law, may make and sign, giving their addresses, and acknowledge before some officer competent to take acknowledgment of deeds, articles of incorporation, in which shall be stated:

1. The proposed corporate name of the society, which shall not so closely resemble the name of any society or insurance company already transacting business in this State as to mislead the public or to lead to confusion.

2. The purpose for which it is formed, which shall not include more liberal powers than are granted by this law. Any lawful, social, intellectual, educational, charitable, benevolent, moral or religious advantages may be set forth among the purposes of the society, and the mode in which its corporate powers are to be exercised.

3. The names, residences and official titles of all the officers, trustees, directors or other persons who are to have and exercise the general control and management of the affairs and funds of the society for the first year or until the ensuing election at which all such officers shall be elected by the supreme legislative or governing body, which election shall be held not later than one year from the date of the issuance of the permanent certificate.

4. Such articles of incorporation and duly certified copies of the Constitution and laws, rules and regulations, and copies of all proposed forms of benefit certificates, applications therefor and circulars to be issued by such society, and a bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the Commissioner, conditioned upon the return of the advance payments, as provided in this article, to applicants, if the organization is not completed within one year, shall be filed with such Commissioner, who may require such further information as he deems necessary, and if the purposes of the society conform to the requirements of this law, and all provisions of law have been complied with, said Commissioner shall so certify and retain and record or file the articles of incorporation, and furnish the incorporators a preliminary certificate authorizing said society to solicit members as hereinafter provided.

Upon receipt of said certificate from the Commissioner, said society may solicit members for the purpose of completing its organization and shall collect from each applicant the amount of not less than one regular monthly payment, in accordance with its Table of Rates as provided by its Constitution and laws, and shall issue to each such applicant a receipt for the amount so collected. No such society shall incur any liability other than for such advanced payments, nor issue any benefit certificate nor pay or allow, or offer or promise to pay or allow, to any person any death or disability benefit until actual bona fide applications for death benefit certificates have been secured upon at least five hundred lives for at least one thousand dollars each, and all such applicants for death benefits shall have been regularly examined by legally qualified practicing physicians, and certificates of such examination have been duly filed and approved by the chief medical examiner of such society; nor until there shall be established ten subordinate lodges or branches into which said five hundred applicants have been initiated; nor until there has been submitted to said Commissioner, under oath of the president and secretary or corresponding officers of such society, a list of such applicants, giving their names, addresses, date examined, date approved, date initiated, name and number of the subordinate branch of which each applicant is a member, amount of benefits to be granted, rate of stated periodical contributions, which shall be sufficient to provide for meeting the mortuary obligation, contracted, when valued for death benefits upon the basis of the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality, as adopted by the National Fraternal Congress, August 23, 1899, or any higher standard, at the option of the society, and for disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience and for combined death and permanent total disability benefits by tables based upon reliable experience, with an interest assumption not higher than four per cent per annum; nor until it shall be shown to the Commissioner by the sworn statement of the treasurer or corresponding officer of such society, that at least five hundred applicants have each paid in cash at least one regular monthly payment as herein provided per one thousand dollars of indemnity to be effected, which payments in the aggregate shall amount to at least twenty-five hundred dollars; all of which shall be credited to the mortuary or disability fund on account of such applicants and no part of which may be used for expenses.

Said advanced payments shall, during the period of organization, be held in trust, and if the organization is not completed within one year as hereinafter provided, returned to said applicants.

The Commissioner may make such examination and require such further information as he may deem advisable; and upon presentation of satisfactory evidence that the society has complied with all the provisions of law, he shall issue to such society a certificate to that effect. Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the existence of such society at the date of such certificate. The Commissioner shall cause a record of such certificate to be made and a certified copy of such record may be given in evidence with like effect as the original certificate.

No preliminary certificate granted under the provisions of this article shall be valid after one year from its date, or after such further period, not exceeding one year, as may be authorized by the Commissioner upon cause shown; unless the five hundred applicants herein required have been secured and the organization has been completed as herein provided; and the articles of incorporation and all proceedings thereunder shall become null and void in one year from the date of said preliminary certificate, or at the expiration of said extended period, unless such society has completed its organization and commenced business as herein provided. When any domestic society shall have discontinued business for the period of one year, or has less than four hundred members, its charter shall become null and void. Every such society shall have the power to make a Constitution and by-laws for the government of the society, the admission of its members, the management of its affairs and the fixing and readjusting of the rates of contribution of its members from time to time; and it shall have the power to change, alter, add to, or amend such Constitution and by-laws and shall have such other powers as are necessary and incidental to carrying into effect its object and purposes. [Id.]

Art. 4839. Powers retained—amendments.—Any society now engaged in transacting business in this State may exercise all of the rights conferred hereby, and all of the rights, powers and privileges now exercised or possessed by it under its charter or articles of incorporation not inconsistent with this chapter, if incorporated; or if it be a voluntary association, it may incorporate hereunder. But no society already organized shall be required to reincorporate hereunder, and any such society may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time in the manner provided therein or in its Constitution and laws, and all such amendments shall be filed with the Commissioner and shall become operative upon such filing, unless a later time be provided in such amendments or in its articles of incorporation, Constitution or laws. [Id.]

Art. 4840. Mergers and transfers.—No domestic society shall merge with or accept the transfer of the membership or funds of any other society unless such merger or transfer is evidenced by a contract in writing, setting out in full the terms and conditions of such merger or transfer, and filed with the Commissioner, together with a sworn statement of the financial condition of each of said societies by its president and secretary, or corresponding officers, and a certificate of such officers, duly verified under oath of said officers of each of the contracting societies, that such a merger or transfer has been approved by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the supreme legislative or governing body of each of said societies.

Upon the submission of said contract, financial statements and certificates, said Commissioner shall examine the same, and if he shall find such statements to be correct and the said contract to be in conformity with the provisions of this article, and that such merger or transfer is just and equitable to the members of each of said societies, he shall approve said merger or transfer, issue his certificate to that effect, and thereupon the said contract or merger or transfer shall be of full force and effect. In case such contract is not approved, the fact of its submission and its contents shall not be disclosed by said Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4841. Annual license.—Societies which are now authorized to transact business in this State may continue such business until the first day of April next succeeding the passage of this law, and the authority of such societies may thereafter be renewed annually; but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding April. The license shall continue in full force and effect until the new license be issued or specifically refused. For each such license or renewal the society shall pay the Commissioner ten dollars. A duly certified copy or duplicate of such license shall be prima facie evidence that the licensee is a fraternal benefit society within the meaning of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4842. Admission of foreign society.—No foreign society now transacting business, organized prior to the passage of this law, which is not now authorized to transact business in this State, shall transact any business herein without a license from the Commissioner of Insurance. Any such society shall be entitled to a license to transact business within this State upon filing with said Commissioner a duly certified copy of its charter or articles of association; a copy of its Constitution and laws, certified by its secretary or corresponding officer; a power of attorney to said Commissioner as hereinafter provided; a statement of its business under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers in the form required by said Commissioner, duly verified by an examination made by the supervising insurance official of its home State or other State satisfactory to the Commissioner; a certificate from the proper official in its home State, province or country that the society is legally organized; a copy of its contract, which must show that benefits are provided for by periodical or other payments by persons holding similar contracts; and upon furnishing the Commissioner such other information as he may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working, and upon showing that its assets are invested in accordance with the laws of the State, territory, district, province or country where it is organized, he shall issue a license to such society to do business in this State until the first day of the succeeding April, and such license shall, upon compliance with the provisions of this law, be renewed annually, but in all cases to terminate on the first day of the succeeding April. The license shall continue in full force and effect until the new license be issued or specifically refused. Any foreign society desiring admission to this State shall have the qualifications required of domestic societies organized under this law and have its assets invested as required by the laws of the State, territory, district, country or province where it is organized. For each such license or renewal the society shall pay the Commissioner of Insurance ten dollars. When said Commissioner refuses to license any society or revokes its authority to do business in this State, he shall reduce his decision to writing and file the same in his office, and shall furnish a copy thereof, together with a statement of his reasons, to the officers of the society, upon request, and the action of said Commissioner shall be reviewable by proper proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction within the State. Nothing in this or the preceding article shall be construed as preventing any such society from continuing in good faith all contracts made in this State during the time such society was legally authorized to transact business herein. [Id.]

Art. 4843. Service of process.—Every society, whether domestic or foreign, hereafter applying for admission, shall before being licensed, appoint in writing the Commissioner and his successors in office to be its true and lawful attorney upon whom all legal process in any action or proceeding against it shall be served, and in such writing shall agree that any lawful process against it which is served upon such attorney shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served upon the society and that the authority shall continue in force so long as any liability remains outstanding in this State.

Copies of such appointment certified by said Commissioner shall be deemed sufficient evidence thereof and shall be admitted in evidence with the same force and effect as the original thereof might be admitted. Service shall only be made upon such attorney, must be made in duplicate upon said Commissioner or, in his absence, upon the person in charge of his office, and shall be deemed sufficient service upon such society. No such service shall be valid or binding against any such society when it is required thereunder to file its answer, pleading or defense in less than thirty days from the date of mailing the copy of such service to such society. When legal process against any such society is served upon said Commissioner he shall forthwith forward by registered mail, one of the duplicate copies prepaid and directed to its secretary or corresponding officer. Legal process shall not be served upon any such society except in the manner provided herein. [Id.]

Art. 4844. Place of meeting.—Each domestic society shall have its principal office in this State, but may provide that the meetings of its legislative or governing body may be held in any State, district, province or territory wherein such society has subordinate branches. All business transacted at such meetings shall be as valid in all respects as if such meetings were held in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4845. No personal liability.—Officers and members of the supreme, grand or any subordinate body of any such incorporated society shall not be individually liable for the payment of any disability or death benefit provided for in the laws and agreements of such society. The same shall be payable only out of the funds of such society and in the manner provided by its laws. [Id.]

Art. 4846. Waiving provisions of law.—The Constitution and laws of the society may provide that no subordinate body nor any of its subordinate officers or members shall have the power or authority to waive any provision of the laws and Constitution of the society, and the same shall be binding on the society and each and every member thereof and on all beneficiaries of members. All grand lodges, by whatever name known, whether incorporated or not, holding charters from any supreme governing body, which were conducting business in this State upon the passage of this law as a fraternal beneficiary association, upon what is known as the separate jurisdiction plan, shall be treated as single State organizations, and all reports required by the provisions of this charter shall be made and furnished by the officers of such supreme State governing body and shall embrace and contain the transactions, liabilities and assets of such State organization. [Id.]

Art. 4847. Benefit not attachable.—No money or other benefit, charity or relief or aid to be paid, provided or rendered by any such society shall be liable to attachment, garnishment, or other process, or be seized, taken or appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law to pay any debtor liability of a member or beneficiary or any other person who may have a right thereunder, either before or after payment. [Id.]

Art. 4848. Constitution and laws.—Every society transacting business under this law shall file with the Commissioner a duly certified copy of all amendments of, or additions to its Constitution and laws within ninety days after the enactment of the same. Printed copies of the Constitution and laws, as amended, changed, or added to, certified by the secretary or corresponding officer of the society, shall be prima facie evidence of the legal adoption thereof. [Id.]

Art 4849. Annual reports.—Every society transacting business in this State shall annually, on or before the first day of March, file with the Commissioner in such form as he may require, a statement under oath of its president and secretary or corresponding officers, of its condition and standing on the thirty-first day of December next preceding, and its transactions for the year ending on that date, and shall furnish such other information as said Commissioner may deem necessary to a proper exhibit of its business and plan of working. The Commissioner may at other times require any further statement he may deem necessary to be made relating to such society. In addition to such annual report, each society shall annually report to said Commissioner a valuation of its certificates in force on December 31st last preceding, excluding those issued within the year for which the report is filed, in cases where the contribution [contributions] for the first year in whole or in part are used for current mortality and expenses. Such report of valuation shall show as contingent liabilities the present mid-year value of the promised benefits provided in the constitution and laws of such society, under the certificates subject to valuation; and as contingent assets the present mid-year value of the future net contributions provided in the Constitution and laws as the same are in practice actually collected. At the option of any society, in lieu of the above, the valuation may show the net value of the certificates subject to valuation hereinbefore provided, and said net value, when computed in case of monthly contributions, may be the mean of the terminal values for the end of the preceding and of the current insurance years. Such valuation shall be certified by a competent accountant or actuary, or, at the request and expense of the society, verified by the actuary of the Department of Insurance of the home State of the society, and shall be filed with the Commissioner within ninety days after the submission of the last preceding annual report. The legal minimum standard of valuation for all certificates, except for disability benefits, shall be the National Fraternal Congress Table of Mortality as adopted by the National Congress, August 23, 1899; or, at the option of the society, any higher table; or, at its option, it may use a table based upon the society's own experience of at least twenty years, and covering not less than one hundred thousand lives with interest assumption not more than four per centum per annum. Each such valuation report shall set forth clearly and fully the mortality and interest basis and the method of valuation. Any society providing for disability benefits shall keep the net contributions for such benefits in a fund separate and apart from all other benefit and expense funds and the valuation of all other business of the society; provided, that where a combined contribution table is used by a society for both death and permanent total disability benefits, the valuation shall be according to tables of reliable experiences, and in such cases a separation of the funds shall not be required. The valuation herein provided for shall not be considered or regarded as a test of the financial solvency of the society, but each society shall be held to be legally solvent so long as the funds in its possession are equal to or in excess of its matured liabilities. A report of such valuation and an explanation of the facts concerning the condition of the society thereby disclosed, shall be printed and mailed to each beneficiary member of the society not later than June 1st, of each year; or, in lieu thereof, such report of valuation and showing of the society's condition as thereby disclosed may be published in the society's official paper and the issue containing the same mailed to each beneficiary member of the society. The laws of such society shall provide that if the stated periodical contributions of the members are insufficient to pay all matured death and disability claims in full, and to provide for the creation and maintenance of the funds required by its laws additional, increased or extra rates of contribution shall be collected from the members to meet such deficiency; and such laws may provide that, upon the written application or consent of the member, his certificate may be charged with its proportion of any deficiency disclosed by valuation, with interest not exceeding five per centum per annum. [Id.]

Art. 4850. Provisions to insure security.—If the valuation of the certificates, as hereinbefore provided, on December 31st, 1917, shall show that the present value of future net contributions, together with the admitted assets, is less than the present value of the promised benefits and accrued liabilities, such society shall thereafter maintain said financial condition at each succeeding triennial valuation as to the degree of deficiency as shown in the valuation as of December 31, 1917. If at any succeeding triennial valuation such society does not show at least the same condition, the Commissioner shall direct that it thereafter comply with the requirements herein specified. If the next succeeding triennial valuation after the receipt of such notice shall show that the society has failed to maintain the condition required herein, said Commissioner may, in the absence of good cause shown for such failure, institute proceedings for the dissolution of such society, or in the case of a foreign society, its license may be cancelled in the manner provided in this chapter. Any such society, shown by any triennial valuation, subsequent to December 31, 1917, not to have maintained the condition herein required, shall, within two years thereafter, make such improvement as to show a percentage of deficiency not greater than as of December 31, 1917, or thereafter, as to all new members admitted, be subject so far as stated rates of contributions are concerned, to the provisions of this chapter applicable to the organization of new societies. The net mortuary or beneficiary contributions and funds of new members shall be kept separate and apart from the other funds of the society. If such required improvement is not shown by the succeeding triennial valuation, then the said new members may be placed in a separate class and their certificates valued as an independent society in respect of contributions and funds. [Id.]

Art. 4851. Accumulation basis.—In lieu of the requirements of the two preceding articles, any society accepting in its laws the provisions of this article may value its certificates on a basis herein designated, "accumulation basis," by crediting each member with the net amount contributed for each year and with interest at approximately the next rate earned and by charging him with his share of the losses for each year, herein designated "cost of insurance," and carrying the balance, if any, to his credit. The charge for the cost of insurance may be according to the actual experience of the society applied to a table of mortality recognized by the law of this State, and shall take into consideration the amount at risk during each year, which shall be the amount payable at death less the credit to the member. Except as specifically provided in its articles or laws or contracts no charge shall be carried forward from the first valuation hereunder against any member for any past share of losses exceeding the contributions and credit. If, after the first valuation, any member's share of losses for any year exceeds his credit, including the contribution for the year, the contribution shall be increased to cover his share of the losses. Any such excess share of losses chargeable to any member may be paid out of a fund or contribution especially created or required for such purpose. Any member may transfer to any plan adopted by the society with net rates on which tabular reserves are maintained and on such transfer shall be entitled to make such application of his credit as provided in the laws of the society. Certificates issued, rerated or [re]adjusted on a basis providing for adequate rates with adequate reserves to mature such certificates upon assumption for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this State shall be valued on such basis, herein designated the "Tabular Basis." If on the first valuation under this article a deficiency in reserve shall be shown for any such certificate, the same shall be valued on the accumulation basis.

Whenever in any society having members upon the tabular basis and upon the accumulation basis, the total of all costs of insurance provided for any year shall be insufficient to meet the actual death and disability losses for the year, the deficiency shall be met for the year from the available funds after setting aside all credits in the reserve or from increased contributions or by an increase in the number of assessments applied to the society, as a whole or to classes of members as may be specified in its laws. Savings from a lower amount of death losses may be returned in like manner as may be specified in its laws. If the laws of the society so provide, the assets representing the reserves of any separate class of members may be carried separately for such class as if in an independent society. The required reserve accumulation of such class so set apart shall not thereafter be mingled with the assets of other classes of the society.

A table showing the credits to individual members for each age and year of entry and showing opposite each credit the tabular reserve required on the whole life, or other plan of insurance, specified in the contract, according [according] to assumptions for mortality and interest recognized by the law of this State and adopted by the society, shall be filed by the society with each annual report, and also be furnished to each member before July 1st of each year.

In lieu of the aforesaid statement there may be furnished to each member within the same time a statement giving the credit for such member and giving the tabular reserve and level rate required for a transfer carrying out the plan of insurance specified in the contract. No table or statement need be made or furnished where the reserves are maintained on the tabular basis. For this purpose individual bookkeeping accounts for each member shall not be required and all calculation may be made by the actuarial methods.

Nothing herein shall prevent the maintenance of such surplus over and above the credits on the accumulation basis, and the reserves on the tabular basis pursuant to its laws; nor be construed as giving to the individual member any right or claim to any such reserve or credit other than in manner as expressed in the contract and its laws; nor as making any such reserve or credits a liability in determining the legal solvency of the society. [Id.]

Art. 4852. Examination of domestic societies.—The Commissioner or any person he may appoint, shall have the power of visitation and examination into the affairs of any domestic society. He may employ assistants for the purpose of such examination, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society, and may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents and employes or other person in relation to the affairs, transactions and conditions of the society. The expense of such examination shall be paid by the society examined, upon statement furnished by the Commissioner, and the examination shall be made at least once in three years. Whenever after examination the Commissioner is satisfied that any domestic society has failed to comply with any provisions of this chapter, or is exceeding its powers, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, or is transacting business fraudulently; or whenever any domestic society, after the existence of one year or more, shall have a membership of less than four hundred, or shall determine to discontinue business, said Commissioner may present the facts relating thereto to the Attorney General, who shall, if he deem the circumstances warrant, commence an action in quo warranto in a court of competent jurisdiction, and if it shall then appear upon the trial that such society should be closed, said society shall be enjoined from carrying on any further business and some person shall be appointed receiver of such society and shall proceed at once to take possession of the books, papers, moneys and other assets of the society, and shall forthwith, under the direction of the court, proceed to close the affairs of the society, and to distribute its funds to those entitled thereto. No such proceedings shall be commenced by the Attorney General against any such society until after notice has been duly served on the chief executive officers of the society and a reasonable opportunity given to it, on a date named in said notice, to show cause why such proceeding should not be commenced. [Id.]

Art. 4853. Application for receiver, etc.—No application for injunction against or proceedings for the dissolution of or the appointment of a receiver for any such domestic society or branch thereof shall be entertained by any court in the State unless the same is made by the Attorney General. [Id.]

Art. 4854. Examination of foreign societies.—The Commissioner, or any person whom he may appoint, may examine any foreign society transacting or applying for admission to transact business in this State. The said Commissioner may employ assistants, and he, or any person he may appoint, shall have free access to all the books, papers and documents that relate to the business of the society, and may summon and qualify as witnesses under oath and examine its officers, agents and employees and other persons in relation to the affairs, transactions and conditions of the society. He may, in his discretion, accept in lieu of such examination the examination of the Insurance Department of the State, territory, district, province or country where such society is organized. The actual expense of examiners making such examination shall be paid by the society, upon statements furnished by the Commissioner. If any such society or its officers refuse to permit such examination or to comply with the provisions of the law relative thereto, the authority of such society to write new business in this State shall be suspended, or license refused, until satisfactory evidence is furnished the Commissioner relating to the condition and affairs of the society, and during such suspension the society shall not write any new business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4855. No adverse publications.—Pending, during, or after an examination or investigation of any such society, either domestic or foreign, the Commissioner shall make public no financial statement, report or finding, nor shall he permit to become public any financial statement, report or finding affecting the status, standing or rights of any such society until a copy thereof shall have been served upon such society, at its home office, nor until such society has been afforded a reasonable opportunity to answer any such financial statement or report of finding; and to make such showing in connection therewith as it may desire. [Id.]

Art. 4856. Revocation of license.—When the Commissioner on investigation is satisfied that any foreign society transacting business under this law has exceeded its powers, or has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter, or is conducting business fraudulently, or is not carrying out its contracts in good faith, he shall notify the society of his findings, and state in writing the grounds of his dissatisfaction, and after reasonable notice require said society, on a date named, to show cause why its license should not be revoked. If, on the date named in said notice, such objections have not been removed to the satisfaction of said Commissioner, or the society does not present good and sufficient reason why its authority to transact business in this State should not at that time be revoked, he may revoke the authority of the society to continue business in this State. All decisions and findings of said Commissioner made under the provisions of this article may be reviewed by proper proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art 4857. Examination of certain societies.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect or apply to grand or subordinate lodges of Masons, Odd Fellows or Knights of Pythias (exclusive of the insurance department of the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias) and the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics (exclusive of their beneficiary degree or insurance branch) or societies which limit their membership to any one hazardous occupation nor to similar societies which do not issue insurance certificates nor to an association of local lodges of a society now doing business in this State which provides death benefits not exceeding five hundred dollars to any one person or disability benefits not exceeding three hundred dollars in any one year to pay one person or both, nor to any contracts of reinsurance business on such plan in this State nor to domestic societies which limit their membership to the employees of a particular city or town, designated firm, business house or corporation, nor to domestic lodges, orders or associations of a purely religious, charitable and benevolent description which do not provide for a death benefit of more than one hundred dollars or for disability benefits of more than one hundred and fifty dollars to any person in one year. The Commissioner may require from any society such information as will enable him to determine whether such society is exempt from the provisions of this law.

Any fraternal benefit society heretofore organized and incorporated and operating within the definition set forth in the first three articles of this chapter, providing for the benefits in case of death or disability resulting solely from accidents, but which does not obligate itself to pay death or sick benefits, may be licensed under the provisions of this law and shall have all the privileges and shall be subject to all the provisions and regulations of this law, except that the provisions of this law requiring medical examinations, valuations of benefit certificates and that the certificates shall specify the amount of benefits, shall not apply to such society. [Id.]

Art. 4858. Taxation.—Every fraternal benefit society organized or licensed under this chapter is hereby declared to be a charitable and benevolent institution, and all of its funds and property shall be exempt from all and every State, county, district, municipal and school tax, other than taxes on real estate and office equipment, when same is used for other than lodge purposes. [Id.]

Art. 4859. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to incorporated or unincorporated mutual relief or benefit, or burial associations, operating upon the assessment plan, whose business is confined to not more than one county in the State of Texas, or to a territory in two or more adjacent counties included within a radius of not more than fifty miles surrounding the city or town in which its principal office is to be located, which is designated in its charter and which at no time shall have a membership exceeding 2000 members in any one class or group, which are hereby denominated local mutual aid associations; provided that such associations are in no manner directly or indirectly connected, federated or associated with any such association and do not directly or indirectly contribute to the expense or support of any other such association, or to the officers, promoters, or managers thereof; and, provided, that no person or officer shall receive from said association any payment on account of organization or other expenses or salaries who is not a bona fide resident of the county or area in which such association is domiciled. The association above mentioned shall annually, on or before March 1, file a statement with the Commissioner of Insurance which shall be signed and sworn to by the president, secretary and treasurer, or the officer holding position corresponding thereto. Such a statement shall show whether the association has, during the preceding year, done any business outside of the county or area in which it is domiciled, and shall state whether the association has, during the preceding year, done any business outside of the county or area in which it is domiciled, and shall state whether or not said association is associated, federated or directly or indirectly connected with any other, and shall show what, if anything, has been contributed during the preceding year by said association, or the members, to any person or officer, or director thereof for salaries, commissions or promotion expenses, and the name and residence of the party or parties receiving the same. The Commissioner of Insurance may, at his option, and it shall be his duty, if not satisfied with said statement, to demand other and additional statements and examine the books, papers, and records of said association, either himself or by some other suitable person authorized by him. Should it appear to the Commissioner of Insurance that any such local mutual aid association is not carrying on business as set forth in this article, and is not entitled to the exemption therein set forth, such association shall be subject to and comply with all provisions of this chapter as a fraternal beneficiary association. Every such local association claiming to be entitled to the benefit of the exemption created by this article shall plainly state upon its certificates, applications and all advertising matter, in a conspicuous manner, that said association is a local mutual aid association or same shall be deemed subject to all provisions of this chapter concerning fraternal beneficiary associations.

This article and articles 4859a to 4859d are from Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 672, ch. 203, § 1.

Art. 4859a. Bond required.—The Commissioner of Insurance shall require the Secretary or other person having charge of the funds of every Local Mutual Aid Association doing business in this State to give bond in an amount not less than $1,000.00 and $1.00 in addition thereto for each member over 1,000 with some surety company having a permit to do business in this State or a sufficient personal surety bond.

Art. 4859b. Amount of Bond.—The secretary or other person having charge of the funds of every Local Mutual Aid Association which is now doing business in Texas or which may hereafter be organized shall be required to furnish either a surety company bond or a personal surety bond to be approved by the president of such Local Mutual Aid Association which bond shall at no time be less than $1,000.00 and which at all times shall be for an amount not less than $1.00 for each member in good standing in said Local Mutual Aid Association.

Art. 4859c. Penalty for failure to give bond.—Every person organizing a Local Mutual Aid Association who shall fail to execute the bond required herein shall be deemed guilty [guilty] of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not less than $100.00 or more than $500.00 or by imprisonment of not less than thirty days or more than six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 4859d. Bond payable to the president.—Every such Local Mutual Aid Association shall have a president who shall be the presiding officer thereof and to whom the bond provided herein shall be payable for the use and benefit of the members. [Id. p. 672.]

CHAPTER NINE

MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANIES

Art.

- 4860. Who may incorporate.
- 4861. Articles of incorporation.
- 4862. Name of company.
- 4863. Certificate of incorporation.
- 4864. Powers and by-laws.
- 4865. Kinds of insurance.
- 4866. Conditions to obtain license.
- 4867. Corporations may contract with.
- 4868. Votes of members.
- 4869. Provisions of policy.
- 4870. May advance money.
- 4871. Reserves.
- 4872. Foreign mutual company.
- 4873. Subject to general laws.
- 4874. Re-insurance.
- 4875. Taxes and fees.

Article 4860. Who may incorporate.—Any number of persons, not less than twenty, a majority of whom shall be bona fide residents of this State, by complying with the provisions of this chapter, may become, together with others who may hereafter be associated with them or their successors, a body corporate for the purpose of carrying on the business of mutual insurance as herein provided. [Acts 1923, p. 392.]

Art. 4861. Articles of incorporation.—Any person proposing to form any such company shall subscribe and acknowledge articles of incorporation specifying:

1. The location of its principal, or home office, which shall be within this State.
2. The names and addresses of those composing the board of directors in which the management shall be vested until the first meeting of the members.
3. The names and places of residence of the incorporators. [Id.]

Art. 4862. Name of company.—No name shall be adopted by such company which does not contain the word "mutual" or which is so similar to any name already in use by any such existing corporation, company, or association, organized or doing business in the United States, as to be misleading. [Id.]

Art. 4863. Certificate of incorporation.—If such articles are prepared in accordance with this law, the Commissioner shall approve and file the same in his office and issue a certificate of incorporation to the company, which shall constitute their authority to commence business and issue policies as hereinafter provided. Such articles of incorporation may be amended in the manner provided for other corporations, or as may be provided in said certificate. [Id.]

Art. 4864. Powers and by-laws.—The company shall have legal existence from and after the date of issuance of said certificate and shall have such powers as are necessary or incident to the transaction of its business. The board of directors named in such articles may thereupon adopt by-laws, accept applications for insurance, and proceed to transact the business of such company. No insurance shall be put into force until the company has been licensed to transact insurance as provided by this chapter. The by-laws and any change or addition to the by-laws or any amendments thereto shall first be submitted to and be approved by the Commissioner before such changes or amendments shall be adopted by any company. [Id.]

Art. 4865. Kinds of insurance.—Any company organized under any provision of this chapter is empowered and authorized to write such kinds of insurance as may now or hereafter be written in Texas by Stock Fire Insurance Companies. [Id.]

Art. 4866. Conditions to obtain license.—No company organized under this chapter shall issue policies or transact any business of insurance unless it shall comply with the conditions following, nor until the Commissioner has, by formal license, authorized it to do so, which license he shall not issue until the corporation has complied with the following conditions:

1. It shall hold bona fide applications for insurance upon which it shall issue simultaneously or it shall have in force, at least twenty policies to at least twenty members for the same kind of insurance upon not less than two hundred separate risks, each within the maximum single risk described herein.

2. The "maximum single risk" shall not exceed twenty per cent of the admitted assets or three times the average risk, or one per cent of the insurance in force, whichever is the greater, any reinsurance taking effect simultaneously with the policy being deducted in determining such maximum single risk.

3. It shall have collected a premium upon each application the total of which premiums shall be held in cash or securities in which insurance companies are under Texas law authorized to invest and the total net assets shall be equal in case of fire insurance to not less than twice the maximum single risk assumed subject to one fire, or to one loss, nor less than ten thousand dollars, which amount shall be maintained and upon failure to do so, the company shall cease writing new business and immediately report such condition to the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4867. Corporations may contract with.—Any public or private corporation, board or association in this State or elsewhere may make applications, enter into agreements for and hold policies in any such mutual insurance company. Any officer, stockholder, trustee, or legal representative of any such corporation, board, association, or estate may be recognized as acting for or on its behalf for the purpose of such membership, but shall not be personally liable upon such contract of insurance by reason of so acting. The right of any corporation organized under the laws of this State to participate as a member of any such mutual insurance company is hereby declared to be incidental to the purpose for which such corporation is organized and as much granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [Id.]

Art. 4868. Votes of members.—Each member of the company shall be entitled to one vote, or to a number of votes based upon the insurance in force, the number of policies held, or the amount of premiums paid, as the by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Art. 4869. Provisions of policy.—The policies shall provide for a premium or premium deposit payable in cash and except as herein provided, for a contingent premium at least equal to the premium or premium deposit. Such company may issue a policy without a contingent premium while it has a surplus equal to the capital required of a domestic stock insurance company transacting the same kind of insurance, and in no event shall the holder of any such policy be liable for a greater amount than the premium or premium deposit expressed in the policy, if at any time the admitted assets are less than the unearned premium, reserve and other liabilities, the company shall immediately collect upon policies with a contingent premium a sufficient proportionate part thereof to restore such assets. No member shall be liable for any part of such contingent premium in excess of the amount demanded within one year after the termination of the policy. The Commissioner may, by written order, direct that proceedings to restore such assets be deferred during the time fixed in such order. [Id.]

Art. 4870. May advance money.—Any director, officer or member of such company, or any other person, may advance to such company, any money necessary for the purpose of its business or to enable it to comply with any requirements of the law and such money and interest thereon as may have been agreed upon, not exceeding seven per cent per annum shall be payable only out of the surplus remaining after providing for all reserve and other liabilities and shall not otherwise be a liability or claim against the company, or any of its assets. No commission or promotion expenses shall be paid in connection with the advance of any such money to the company. The amount of such advance shall be reported in each annual statement. [Id.]

Art. 4871. Reserves.—Such company shall maintain unearned premium and other reserves separately for each kind of insurance, upon the same basis as that required of domestic stock insurance companies transacting the same kind of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4872. Foreign mutual company.—Any such mutual insurance company organized outside of this State and authorized to transact the business of insurance on the mutual plan in any State, district or territory shall be admitted and licensed to transact the kinds of insurance authorized by its charter or articles to the extent and with the powers and privileges specified in this law when it shall be solvent under this law and shall have complied with the following requirements:

1. Filed with the Commissioner a copy of its by-laws certified to by its secretary.
2. Filed with the Commissioner a certified copy of its charter or articles.
3. Appointed the Commissioner its agent for the service of process in any action, suit or proceedings in any court of this State, which authority shall continue as long as any liability shall remain outstanding in this State.
4. Filed a financial statement under oath, in such form as the Commissioner may require, and have complied with other provisions of law applicable to the filing of papers and furnishing information by stock companies on application for authority to transact the same kinds of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4873. Subject to general laws.—Each such mutual insurance company, whether organized within or without this State, shall be subject except as otherwise provided by law to all general provisions of law applicable to stock insurance companies transacting the same kinds of insurance which relate to annual reports and renewal of licenses, investments, valued policies, policy forms, reciprocal or retaliatory laws, insolvency and liquidation, publication of defamatory statements, and shall make its annual report in such form and submit to such examinations and furnish such information as may be required by the Commissioner. As far as practicable such examinations of mutual insurance companies organized outside of this State shall be made in co-operation with the insurance departments of other States. The forms of annual report shall be such as are in general use throughout the United States. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that any company or association incorporated or organized hereunder shall be exempt from the provisions of the General Laws of this State, heretofore or hereafter enacted governing the incorporation, organization, regulation and operation of companies or organizations writing insurance in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4874. Re-insurance.—Any such mutual insurance company organized or admitted to transact insurance in this State may by policy, treaty or other agreement cede to, or accept from any insurance company or insurer re-insurance upon the whole or any part of any risk which reinsurance shall be without contingent liability or participation or membership unless the contract provides otherwise, and shall not be effected with any company or insurer disapproved therefor by written order of the Commissioner filed in his office. [Id.]

Art. 4875. Taxes and fees.—Each such company, whether within or without this State shall be subject to such taxes and fees as are now provided by law for such mutual companies. The tax shall be paid upon the gross premiums received for direct insurance upon property, or risks located in this State, deducting amounts paid for re-insurance, premiums upon policies not taken, premiums returned on cancelled policies and any refund or return made to the policy-holders [policyholders] other than for losses. [Id.]

Art. 4877. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 329, ch. 224, § 7].

Art. 4878. Commission shall fix rates.—The State Insurance Commission shall have the sole and exclusive power and authority and it shall be its duty to prescribe, fix, determine and promulgate the rates of premiums to be charged and collected by fire insurance companies transacting business in this State. Said Commission shall also have authority to alter or amend any and all such rates of premiums so fixed and determined and adopted by it, and to raise or lower the same, or any part thereof, as herein provided. Said Commission shall have authority to employ clerical help, inspectors, experts and other assistants, and to incur such other expenses as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this law. Such expenses, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, shall not exceed in the aggregate, for any fiscal year, the sum of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars. Said Commission shall ascertain as soon as practicable the annual fire loss in this State; obtain, make and maintain a record thereof and collect such data with respect thereto as will enable said Commission to classify the fire losses of this State, the causes thereof, and the amount of premiums collected therefor for each class of risks and the amount paid thereon, in such manner as will aid in determining equitable insurance rates, methods of reducing such fire losses and reducing the insurance rates of the State, or sub-divisions of the State. [Acts 1917, p. 136.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 4879. Maximum rate fixed.—A maximum rate of premiums to be charged or collected by all companies transacting in this State the business of fire insurance, as herein defined, shall be exclusively fixed and determined and promulgated by the State Insurance Commission, and no such fire insurance company shall charge or collect any premium or other compensation for or on account of any policy or contract of fire insurance as herein defined in excess of the maximum rate as herein provided for, but may write insurance at a less rate than the maximum rate as herein provided for. When insurance is written for less than the maximum rate, such lesser rate shall be applicable to all risks of the same character situated in the same community. [Acts 1913, p. 195.]

Art. 4880. No company exempt.—Every fire insurance company, every marine insurance company, every fire and marine insurance company, every fire and tornado insurance company, and each and every insurance company of every kind and name issuing a contract or policy of insurance, or contracts or policies of insurance against loss by fire on property within this State, whether such property be fixed or movable, stationary or in transit, or whether such property is consigned, or billed for shipment within or beyond the boundary of this State or to some foreign country, whether such company is organized under the laws of this State or under the laws of any other State, territory or possession of the United States, or foreign country, or by authority of the Federal government, now holding certificate of authority to transact business in this State, shall be deemed to have accepted such certificate and to transact business thereunder, upon condition that it consents to the terms and provisions of this chapter and that it agrees to transact business in this State, subject thereto; it being intended that every contract or policy of insurance against the hazard of fire shall be issued in accordance with the terms and provisions of this chapter, and the company issuing the same governed thereby, regardless of the kind and character of such property and whether the same is fixed or movable, stationary or in transit, including the shore end of all marine risks insured against loss by fire. [Id.]

Art. 4881. Statements and books.—Said Commission is authorized and empowered to require sworn statements for any period of time from any insurance company affected by this law, and from any of its directors, officers, representatives, general agents, State agents, special agents and local agents of the rates and premiums collected for fire insurance on each class of risks, on all property in this State and of the causes of fire, if such be known, if they are in possession of such data, and information, or can obtain it at a reasonable expense; and said Commission is empowered to require such statements showing all necessary facts and information to enable said Commission to make, amend and maintain the general basis schedules provided for in this law and the rules and regulations for applying same and to determine reasonable and proper maximum specific rates and to determine and assist in the enforcement of the provisions of this law. The said Commission shall also have the right, at its discretion, either personally, or by some one duly authorized by it, to visit the office whether general, local or otherwise, of any insurance company doing business in this State, and the home office of said company outside of this State, if there be such, and the office of any officers, directors, general agents, State agents, local agents or representatives of such company, and there require such company, its officers, agents or representatives to produce for inspection by said Commission or any of its duly authorized representatives all books, records and papers of such company or such agents and representatives; and the said Commission or its duly authorized agents or representatives shall have the right to examine such books and papers and make or cause to be made copies thereof; and shall have the right to take testimony under oath with reference thereto, and to compel the attendance of witnesses for such purpose. Said Commission shall be further empowered to require the fire insurance companies transacting business in this State or any of them, to furnish said Commission with any and all data which may be in their possession, either jointly or severally, including maps, tariffs, inspection reports and any and all data affecting fire insurance risks in this State, or in any portion thereof and said Commission shall be empowered to require any two or more of said companies, or any joint agent or representative of them, to turn over any and all such data in their possession, or any part thereof, to said Commission for its use in carrying out the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 4882. Schedule and report.—The rates of premium fixed by said Commission in pursuance of the provision of this law shall be at all times reasonable and the schedules thereof made and promulgated by said Commission shall be in such form as will in the judgment of the Commission, most clearly and in detail disclose the rate so fixed and determined by said Commission to be charged and collected for policies of fire insurance. Said Commission may employ and use any facts obtainable from and concerning fire insurance companies transacting business in this State, showing their expense and charges for fire insurance premiums for any period or periods said Commission may deem advisable, which in their opinion will enable them to devise and fix and determine reasonable rates of premium for fire insurance. The said Commission in making and publishing schedules of the rates fixed and determined by it shall show all charges, credits, terms, privileges and conditions which in any wise affect such rates, and copies of all such schedules shall be furnished by said Commission to any and all companies affected by this law applying therefor, and the same shall be furnished to any citizens of this State applying therefor, upon the payment of the actual cost thereof. No rate or rates fixed or determined by the Commission shall take effect until it shall have entered on order or orders fixing and determining same, and shall give notice thereof to all fire insurance companies affected by this law, authorized to transact business in the State. The State Insurance Commission, and any inspector or other agent or employee thereof, who shall inspect any risk for the purpose of enabling the Commission to fix and determine the reasonable rate to be charged thereon, shall furnish to the owner of such risk at the date of such inspection, a copy of the inspection report, showing all defects that may operate as charges to increase the insurance rate. [Id.]

Art. 4883. Analysis of rate.—When a policy of fire insurance shall be issued by any company transacting the business of fire insurance in this State, such company shall furnish the policyholder with a written or printed analysis of the rate or premium charged for such policy, showing the items of charge and credit which determine the rate, unless such policyholder has theretofore been furnished with such analysis of such rate. All schedules of rates promulgated by said Commission shall be open to the public, and every local agent of such fire insurance company shall have and exhibit to the public copies of such schedules covering all risks upon which he is authorized to write insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4884. Change or limit of rate.—Said Commission shall have full power and authority to alter, amend, modify or change any rate fixed and determined by it on thirty days' notice, or to prescribe that any such rate or rates shall be in effect for a limited time, and said Commission shall also have full power and authority to prescribe reasonable rules whereby in cases where no rate of premium shall have been fixed and determined by the Commission, for certain risks or classes of risks, policies may be written thereon at rates to be determined by the company. Such company or companies shall immediately report to said Commission such risk so written, and the rates collected therefor and such rates shall always be subject to review by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4885. Petition for change.—Any such fire insurance company shall have the right at any time to petition the Commission for an order changing or modifying any rate or rates fixed and determined by the Commission, and the Commission shall consider such petition in the manner provided in this law and enter such order thereon as it may deem just and equitable. [Id.]

Art. 4886. Reducing hazard.—The Commission shall have full authority and power to give each city, town, village or locality credit for each and every hazard they may reduce or entirely remove, and also for all added fire fighting equipment, increased police protection, or any other equipment or improvement that has a tendency to reduce the fire hazard of any such city, town, village or locality, and also to give credit for a good fire record made by any city, town, village or locality. Said Commission shall also have the power and authority to compel any company to give any or all policyholders credit for any and all hazards that said policyholder or holders may reduce or remove. Said credit shall be in proportion to such reduction or removal of such hazard and said company or companies shall return to such policyholder or holders such proportional part of the unearned premium charged for such hazard that may be reduced or removed. [Id.]

Art. 4887. Revising rates.—The Commission shall have authority after having given reasonable notice, not exceeding thirty days, of its intention to do so, to alter, amend or revise any rates of premium fixed and determined by it in any schedules of such rates promulgated by it, and to give reasonable notice of such alteration, amendment or revision to the public, or to any company or companies affected thereby. Such altered, amended or revised rates shall be the rates thereafter to be charged and collected by all fire insurance companies affected by this law. No policy in force prior to the taking effect of such changes or amendments shall be affected thereby, unless there shall be a change in the hazard of the risk, necessitating a change in the rate applicable to such risk, in which event such policy shall be subject to the new rates. [Id.]

Art. 4888. Uniform policies.—The Commission shall make, promulgate and establish uniform policies of insurance applicable to the various risks of this State, copies of which uniform policies shall be furnished each company now or hereafter doing business in this State. After such uniform policies shall have been established and promulgated and furnished the respective companies doing business in this State, such companies shall, within sixty days after the receipt of such forms of policies, adopt and use said form or forms and no other; also all companies which may commence business in this State after the adoption and promulgation of such forms of policies, shall adopt and use the same and no other forms of policies. [Id.]

Art. 4889. Standard forms.—The Commission shall prescribe all standard forms, clauses and endorsements used on or in connection with insurance policies. All other forms, clauses and endorsements placed upon insurance policies shall be placed thereon subject to the approval of the Commission. The Commission shall have authority in its discretion to change, alter or amend such form or forms of policy or policies, and such clauses and endorsements used in connection therewith, upon giving notice. [Id.]

Art. 4890. Lien on insured property.—Any provision in any policy of insurance issued by any company subject to the provisions of this law to the effect that if said property is encumbered by a lien of any character or shall after the issuance of such policy become encumbered by a lien of any character then such encumbrance shall render such policy void shall be of no force and effect. Any such provision within or placed upon any such policy shall be null and void. [Id.]

Art. 4891. Co-insurance clauses.—No company subject to the provisions of this law may issue any policy or contract of insurance covering property in this State, which shall contain any clause or provision requiring the assured to take out or maintain a larger amount of insurance than that expressed in such policy, nor in any way providing that the assured shall be liable as a co-insurer with the company issuing the policy for any part of the loss or damage which may be caused by fire to the property described in such policy, and any such clause or provision shall be null and void, and of no effect. The co-insurance clauses and provisions may be inserted in policies written upon cotton, grain or other products in process of marketing, shipping, storing or manufacture. [Id.]

Art. 4892. Complaints of rates or orders.—Any citizen or number of citizens of this State or any policyholder or policyholders, or any insurance company affected by this law, or any Board of Trade, Chamber of Commerce, or other civic organization, or the civil authorities of any town, city, or village, shall have the right to file a petition with the State Insurance Commission, setting forth any cause of complaint that they may have as to any order made by this Commission, or any rate fixed and determined by the Commission, and they shall have the right to offer evidence in support of the allegations of such petition by witnesses, or by depositions, or by affidavits; upon the filing of such petition, the party complained of, if other than the Commission, shall be notified by the Commission of the filing of such petition and a copy thereof furnished the party or parties, company or companies, of whom complaint is made, and the said petition shall be set down for a hearing at a time not exceeding thirty days after the filing of such petition and the Commission shall hear and determine said petition; but it shall not be necessary for the petitioners or any one of them to be present to present the cause to the Commission, but they shall consider the testimony of all witnesses, whether such witnesses testify in person or by depositions, or by affidavits, and if it be found that the complaint made in such petition is a just one, then the matter complained of shall be corrected or required to be corrected by said Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4893. Hearing of protests.—The Commission shall give the public and all insurance companies to be affected by its orders or decisions, reasonable notice thereof, not exceeding thirty days, and an opportunity to appear and be heard with respect to the same; which notice to the public shall be published in one or more daily papers of the State, and such notice to any insurance company to be affected thereby shall be mailed addressed to the State or general agent of such company, if such address be known to the Commission, or if not known, then such letter shall be addressed to some local agent of such company, or if the address of a local agent be unknown to the Commission, then by publication in one or more of the daily papers of the State, and the Commission shall hear all protests or complaints from any insurance company or any citizen or any city, or town, or village or any commercial or civic organization as to the inadequacy or unreasonableness of any rates fixed by it or approved by it, or as to the inadequacy or unreasonableness of any general basis schedules promulgated by it or the injustice of any order or decision by it, and if any insurance company, or other person, or commercial or civic organization, or any city, town or village, which shall be interested in any such order or decision, shall be dissatisfied with any regulation, schedule or rate adopted by such Commission, such company or person, commercial or civic organization, city, town or village shall have the right, within thirty days after the making of such regulation or order, or rate, or schedule or within thirty days after the hearing above provided for, to bring an action against said Commission in the district court of Travis county to have such regulation or order or schedule or rate vacated or modified; and shall set forth in a petition therefor the principal grounds of objection to any or all of such regulations, schedules, rates or orders. In any such suit the issue shall be formed and the controversy tried and determined as in other civil cases. The court may set aside and vacate or annul any or all or any part of any regulation, schedule, order or rate promulgated or adopted by said Commission, which shall be found by the court to be unreasonable, unjust, excessive or inadequate, without disturbing others. No injunction, interlocutory order or decree suspending or restraining directly or indirectly the enforcement of any schedule, rate, order or regulation of said Commission shall be granted. In such suit, the court, by interlocutory order, may authorize the writing and acceptance of fire insurance policies at any rate which in the judgment of the court is fair and reasonable, during the pending of such suit, upon condition that the party to such suit in whose favor the said interlocutory order of said court may be, shall execute and file with the Commissioner of Insurance a good and sufficient bond to be first approved by said court, conditioned that the party giving said bond will abide the final judgment of said court and will pay to the Commissioner of Insurance whatever difference in the rate of insurance, it may be finally determined to exist between the rates as fixed by the State Insurance Commission complained of in such suit, and the rate finally determined to be fair and reasonable by the court in said suit, and the said Commissioner of Insurance, when he receives such difference in money, shall transmit the same to the parties entitled thereto.

Whenever any action shall be brought by any company under any provision of this article within said period of thirty days, no penalties nor forfeitures shall attach or accrue on account of the failure of the plaintiff to comply with the orders, schedules, rates or regulations sought to be vacated in such action until the final determination of the same.

Either party to any such action, if dissatisfied with the judgment or decree of said court, may appeal therefrom as in other civil cases. No action shall be brought in any court of the United States to set aside any orders, rates, schedules or regulations made by said Commission under the provisions of this law until all of the remedies provided herein shall have been exhausted by the party complaining. [Id.]

Art. 4894. Rebating or discrimination.—No company shall engage or participate in the insuring or re-insuring of any property in this State against loss or damage by fire except in compliance with the terms and provisions of this law; nor shall any such company knowingly write insurance at any lesser rate than the rates herein provided for, and it shall be unlawful for any company so to do, unless it shall thereafter file an analysis of same with the Commission, and it shall be unlawful for any company, or its officers, directors, general agents, State agents, special agents, local agents, or its representatives, to grant or contract for any special favor or advantages in the dividends or other profits to come thereon, or in commissions in the dividends or other profits to accrue thereon, or in commissions or division of commission, or any position or any valuable consideration or any inducement not specified in the policy contract of insurance; nor shall such company give, sell or purchase, offer to give, sell or purchase, directly or indirectly as an inducement to insure or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, partnership or individual, or any dividends or profits accrued or to accrue thereon, or any thing of value whatsoever, not specified in the policy. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit a company from sharing its profits with its policyholders, if such agreement as to profit-sharing shall be placed on or in the face of the policy, and such profit-sharing shall be uniform and shall not discriminate between individuals or between classes. No part of the profit shall be paid until the expiration of the policy. Any company, or any of its officers, directors, general agents, State agents, special agents, local agents or its representatives, doing any of the acts in this article prohibited, shall be deemed guilty of unjust discrimination. If any agent or company shall issue a policy without authority, and any policyholder holding such policy shall sustain a loss or damage thereunder, said company or companies shall be liable to the policyholder thereunder, in the same manner and to the same extent as if said company had been authorized to issue said policies, although the company issued said policy in violation of the provisions of this chapter. But this shall not be construed to give any company the right to issue any contract or policy of insurance other than as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4895. Not retroactive.—The provisions of this law shall not deal with the collection of premiums, but each company shall be permitted to make such rules and regulations as it may deem just between the company, its agents, and its policyholders; and no bona fide extension of credit shall be construed as a discrimination, or in violation of the provisions of this chapter. All policies heretofore issued which provide that said policies shall be void for nonpayment of premiums at a certain specified time, shall be and the same are in full force and effect, provided, that the company or any of its agents have accepted the premium on said policies after the expiration of the dates named in said provisions fixing the date of payment.

Art. 4896. Duty of Fire Marshal.—The State Fire Marshal, at the discretion of the board, and upon the request of the mayor of any city or village, or the chief of a fire department of any city or village, or any fire marshal where a fire occurs within such city or village, or of a county or a district judge, or of a sheriff or county attorney of any county where a fire occurs within the district or county of the officers making such request, or of any fire insurance company, or its general, State or special agent, interested in a loss, or of a policyholder sustaining a loss, or upon the direction of the Insurance Commission shall forthwith investigate at the place of such fire before loss can be paid, the origin, cause and circumstances of any fire occurring within this State, whereby property has been destroyed or damaged, and shall ascertain if possible whether the same was the result of any accident, carelessness or design, and shall make a written report thereof to the Commission. The State Fire Marshal shall have the power to administer oaths, take testimony, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents. When, in his opinion, further investigation is necessary, he shall take or cause to be taken the testimony on oath of all persons supposed to be cognizant of any facts, or to have knowledge in relation to the matter under investigation, and shall cause the same to be reduced to writing, and if he shall be of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with arson, or with attempt to commit arson, or of conspiracy to defraud or criminal conduct in connection with such, he shall arrest or cause to be arrested such person, and shall furnish to the proper prosecuting attorney all evidence secured, together with the names of witnesses and all information obtained by him, including a copy of all material testimony taken in the case, and it shall be the duty of the State Fire Marshal to assist in the prosecution of all such complaints filed by him. All investigations held by or under the direction of the State Fire Marshal may, in his discretion, be private and persons other than those required to be present may be excluded from the place where such investigation is held, and the witnesses may be kept separate from each other and not allowed to communicate with such others until they have been examined; and all testimony taken in an investigation under the provisions of this law may, at the election of the State Fire Marshal, be withheld from the public. [Acts 1917, p. 137.]

Art. 4897. Authority of Fire Marshal.—The State Fire Marshal is hereby authorized to enter at any time any buildings or premises where fire occurred or is in progress, or any place contiguous thereto, for the purpose of investigating the cause, origin and circumstances of such fire. The State Fire Marshal, upon complaint of any person, shall, at all reasonable hours, for the purpose of examination, enter into and upon all buildings and premises within this State, and it shall be his duty to enter upon and make or cause to be entered upon and made, at any time, a thorough examination of mercantile, manufacturing and public buildings, and all places of public amusement, or where public gatherings are held, together with the premises belonging thereto. Whenever he shall find any building or other structure which for want of repair or by reason of age or dilapidated condition, or which for any cause is liable to fire, and which is so situated as to endanger other buildings or property, or is so occupied that fire would endanger persons or property therein, and whenever he shall find an improper or dangerous arrangement of stoves, ranges, furnaces or other heating appliances of any kind whatsoever, including chimneys, flues and pipes with which the same may be connected, or dangerous arrangement or lighting systems or devices, or dangerous storage of explosives, compounds, petroleum, gasoline, kerosene, dangerous chemicals, vegetable products, ashes, combustible, inflammable and refuse materials, or other conditions which may be dangerous in character, or liable to cause or promote fire, or create conditions dangerous to firemen or occupants, he shall order the same to be removed or remedied, and such order shall be forthwith complied with by the occupant or owner of such building or premises, and the State Fire Marshal is hereby authorized, when necessary, to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for the necessary writs or orders to enforce the provisions of this article and in such case he shall not be required to give bond. [Id.]

Art. 4898. Acting Fire Marshal.—If for any reason the State Fire Marshal is unable to make any required investigation in person, he may designate the fire marshal of such city or town or some other suitable person to act for him; and such person so designated shall have the same authority as is herein given the State Fire Marshal with reference to the particular matter to be investigated by him, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the State Insurance Commission may allow. If the investigation of a fire is made at the request of an insurance company, or at the request of a policyholder sustaining loss, or at the request of the mayor, town clerk or chief of the fire department of any city, village or town in which the fire occurred, then the expenses of the Fire Marshal, clerical expenses, witnesses and officers fees incident and necessary to such investigation shall be paid by such insurance company, or such policyholder of such city or town as the case may be, otherwise the expenses of such investigation are to be paid as part of the expenses of the State Insurance Commission. The party or parties, company or companies, requesting such investigation, shall before such investigation is commenced deposit with the State Insurance Commission, an amount of money in the judgment of said Commission sufficient to defray the expenses of said Fire Marshal in conducting such investigation. [Acts 1913, p. 198.]

Art. 4899. Result of investigation.—No action taken by the State Fire Marshal shall affect the rights of any policyholder or any company in respect to a loss by reason of any fire so investigated; nor shall the result of any such investigation be given in evidence upon the trial of any civil action upon such policy, nor shall any statement made by any insurance company, its officers, agents or adjusters, nor by any policy holder, or any one representing him, made with reference to the origin, cause or supposed origin or cause of a fire to the Fire Marshal or to any one acting for him, or under his direction, be admitted in evidence or made the basis for any civil action for damages. [Id.]

Art. 4900. To cancel authority.—If any insurance company affected by the provisions of this law shall violate any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner shall, by and with the consent of the Attorney General, cancel its certificate of authority to transact business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4901. Revocation of certificate.—The Commissioner of Insurance, upon ascertaining that any insurance company or officer, agent or representative thereof has violated any provision of this chapter, may, at his discretion, and with the consent and approval of the Attorney General, revoke the certificate of authority of such company, officer, agent or representative; but such revocation of any certificate shall in no manner affect the liability of such company, officer, agent or representative to the infliction of any other penalty provided by law. Any action, decision or determination of the Commissioner and the Attorney General in such cases shall be subject to the review of the courts of this State as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 4902. Tax on premiums.—The State of Texas shall assess and collect an additional one and one-fourth per cent of the gross fire insurance premiums of all fire insurance companies doing business in this State, according to the reports made to the Commissioner as required by law; and said taxes when collected shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer to be expended during the current year, or so much thereof as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this chapter. Such expenditures, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of two hundred and twelve thousand five hundred dollars per annum; and should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, the State Insurance Commission shall reduce the assessment for the succeeding year so that the amount produced and paid into the State Treasury, together with said unexpended balance in the Treasury, will not exceed the amount appropriated for the current year, to pay all necessary expenses of maintaining the Commission, which funds shall be paid out upon requisition made out and filed by a majority of the Commission, when the Comptroller shall issue warrants therefor. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 105.]

Art. 4903. Exceptions.—This law shall not apply to purely mutual or to purely profit-sharing fire insurance companies incorporated or unincorporated under the laws of this State, and carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their property and not for profit; nor to purely co-operative inter-insurance and reciprocal exchange carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their property and not for profit. [Id.]

Art. 4904. Compensation of Commission.—The necessary compensation of experts, clerical force, and other persons employed by said Commission, and all necessary traveling expenses, and such other expenses as may be necessary, incurred in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid by warrants drawn by the Comptroller upon the State Treasurer upon the order of said Commission. The total amount of all salaries and said other expenses shall not exceed the sum produced by the assessment on the gross premiums of all fire insurance companies doing business in this State. [Acts 1917, p. 136.]

Art. 4905. Additional compensation.—The necessary compensation of experts, the clerical force and other persons employed by the Commission to carry out the purposes of the succeeding articles of this chapter, and all necessary traveling expenses and such other expenses as may be necessarily incurred in carrying out such provisions, shall be paid as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1923, p. 408.]

Art. 4906. Tax on gross premiums.—To defray the expense of carrying out the provisions of the succeeding articles of this chapter, there shall be annually assessed and collected by the State of Texas from each company and association writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State, in addition to all other taxes now imposed or which may hereafter be imposed by law, a tax of three-fifths of one per cent of the gross premiums collected by such company or association during the preceding year, under workmen's compensation insurance policies written by said companies and associations covering risks in this State, according to the reports made to the Commissioner as required by law. Said taxes when collected shall be placed in a separate fund with the State Treasurer to be expended during the current year in carrying out such provisions. Such expenditures, including the salaries of the members of the Commission, hereunder, shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum assessed and collected from said companies and associations; and, should there be an unexpended balance at the end of any year, it shall be transferred by the State Treasurer to the credit of the general revenue of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4907. Workmen's compensation rates.—The said Commission shall make, establish and promulgate all classifications of hazards and rates of premium respectively applicable to each, contemplated and provided for by Chapter 18 of this title. Said commission shall publish all rates promulgated by it as affecting compensation insurance in this State, and said rates, or any change therein, shall be published fifteen days before they become effective and in force. [Id.]

Art. 4908. To prescribe standard forms.—The Commission shall prescribe standard policy forms to be used by all companies or associations writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State. No company or association authorized to write workmen's compensation insurance in this State shall, except as hereinafter provided for, use any classifications of hazards, rates of premium, or policy forms other than those made, established and promulgated and prescribed by the Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4909. To assemble data.—The Commission shall assemble all necessary data for its use in establishing classifications of hazards and making and promulgating premium rates. [Id.]

Art. 4910. May require statements.—The Commission may require sworn statements from any insurance company or association affected by this law showing the payroll reported to it and incurred losses by classifications and such other information which in the judgment of the Commission may be necessary in determining proper classifications, rates and forms. The Commission shall prescribe the necessary forms for such statements and reports, having due regard to the methods and forms in use in other States for similar purpose in order that uniformity of statistics may not be disturbed. [Id.]

Art. 4911. Experience rating.—The Commission shall determine hazards by classes and fix such rates of premium applicable to the payroll in each of such classes as shall be adequate to the risks to which they apply and consistent with the maintenance of solvency and the creation of adequate reserves and a reasonable surplus, and for such purpose may adopt a system of schedule and experience rating in such manner as to take account of the peculiar hazard of each individual risk, provided such rate shall be fair and reasonable and not confiscatory as to any class of insurance carriers authorized by law to write workmen's compensation insurance in this State. To insure the adequacy and reasonableness of rates, the Commission shall take into consideration an experience gathered from a territory sufficiently broad to include the varying conditions of the industries in which the classifications are involved, and over a period sufficiently long to insure that the rates determined therefrom shall be just, reasonable, and adequate rates. The Commission shall exchange information and experience data with the rate-making bodies of other States and shall consult any national organization or association now or hereafter existing for the purpose of assembling data for the making of compensation insurance rate. [Id.]

Art. 4912. Hearing before Commission.—Any policyholder, insurance company, or association shall have the right to a hearing before the Commission on any grievance occasioned by the promulgation of any classification, rate or policy form by the Commission; such hearing to be held in conformity with rules to be prescribed by the Commission. No hearing shall suspend the operation of any classification, rate, or policy form unless the Commission shall so order. [Id.]

Art. 4913. Uniform policy.—The Commission shall prescribe a uniform policy for workmen's compensation insurance and no company or association shall thereafter use any other form in writing workmen's compensation insurance in this State, provided that any company or association may use any form of endorsement appropriate to its plan of operation, if such endorsement shall be first submitted to and approved by the Commission, and any contract or agreement not written into the application and policy shall be void and of no effect and in violation of the provisions of this chapter, and shall be sufficient cause for revocation of license to write workmen's compensation insurance within this State. [Id.]

Art. 4914. Adequate reserves.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the operation hereunder of any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange, or Lloyd's association, to prohibit any stock company, mutual company, reciprocal, or inter-insurance exchange or Lloyd's association, issuing participating policies, provided no dividend to subscribers under the Workmen's Compensation Act shall take effect until the same has been approved by the Commission. No such dividend shall be approved until adequate reserve has been provided, said reserves to be computed on the same basis for all classes of companies or associations operating under this chapter, as prescribed under the insurance laws of the State of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 4915. Commission to make rules.—The Commission is hereby empowered to make and enforce all such reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with the provisions of this law as are necessary to carry out its provisions. [Id.]

Art. 4916. Scope of law.—No provision of the Act creating the State Insurance Commission, with regard to the fixing and promulgation of rates for fire insurance or the prescribing of fire insurance policies and forms shall be applicable to the fixing of compensation insurance classifications or the making of compensation insurance rates or the prescribing of compensation insurance policy forms; but the provisions of this Act shall be construed and applied independently of any other law or laws, or parts of laws, having to do with the matter of insurance rates and forms or of fixing the duties of the State Insurance Commission. [Id.]

Art. 4917. Definitions.—The words "Company" and "Association" used in this Act mean the Texas Employers Insurance Association, or any stock company, or any mutual company, or any reciprocal, or any inter-insurance exchange, or Lloyd's association authorized to write Workmen's Compensation Insurance in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4918. Cancellation of license.—The Commissioner shall cancel the license of any insurance company or association of persons to transact workmen's compensation insurance business in this State upon a second conviction of any officer or representative of such company or association for a violation of any provision of this chapter relating to such business. [Id.]

 4930. Breach by insured.
 4931. Interest of mortgagee or trustee.
 4932. Re-insurance.

Article 4919. [4862] What may be insured.
 —It shall be lawful for any insurance company doing business in this State under the proper certificate of authority, except a life or health insurance company, to insure houses, buildings and all other kinds of property against loss or damage by fire; to take all kinds of insurance on goods, merchandise, or other property in the course of transportation, whether on land or water, or any vessel afloat, wherever the same may be;

to lend money on bottomry or respondentia; to cause itself to be insured against any loss or risk it may have incurred in the course of its business and upon the interest which it may have in any property by means of any loan or loans which it may have on bottomry or respondentia; and generally to do and perform all other matters and things proper to promote these objects; insure automobiles or other motor vehicles, whether stationery [stationary] or being operated under their own power, against all or any of the risks of fire, lightning, wind storms, hail storms, tornadoes, cyclones, explosions, transportation by land or water, theft and collisions, upon filing with the Commissioner notification of their purpose to do so. [Acts 1875, p. 34; G. L. vol. 8, p. 406; Acts 1913, p. 209.]

Art. 4920. [4865] [3077] Reduction of capital stock.—Whenever the joint stock of any fire, fire and marine, or marine insurance company of this State becomes impaired, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, permit the said company to reduce its capital stock and par value of its shares in proportion to the extent of impairment. In fixing such reduced capital, no sum exceeding twenty-five thousand dollars shall be deducted from the assets and property on hand, which shall be retained as surplus assets. No part of such assets and property shall be distributed to the stockholders, nor shall the capital stock of a company in any case be reduced to an amount less than one hundred thousand dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 222; G. L., vol. 8, p. 1058.]

Art. 4921. [4864] [3078] Capital stock to be made good.—Any fire, marine or inland insurance company having received notice from the Commissioner to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days shall forthwith call upon its stockholders for such amounts as shall make its capital equal to the amount fixed by the charter of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4922. [4865] [3079] Stockholder failing to pay.—If any stockholder of such company shall neglect or refuse to pay the amount so called for, after notice personally given, or by advertisement for such time and in such manner as said Commissioner shall approve, it shall be lawful for said company to require the return of the original certificate of stock held by such stockholder, and in lieu thereof to issue a new certificate for such number of shares as such defaulting stockholders may be entitled to in the proportion that the ascertained value of the funds of said company may be found to bear to the original capital of said company; the value of such shares for which new certificates are issued shall be ascertained under the direction of said Commissioner, and the company shall pay for the fractional parts of shares. [Id.]

Art. 4923. [4866] [3080] New stock.—It shall be lawful for such company to create new stock and dispose of the same and to issue new certificates therefor, to any amount sufficient to make up the original capital of the company. [Id.]

Art. 4924. [4869] [3076] Holding real estate.—No fire, marine or inland insurance company organized under the laws of this State shall purchase or hold any real estate, except—

1. Such as shall be requisite for its convenient accommodation in the transaction of its business.
2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans previously contracted or for money due.
3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the legitimate business of the company or for money due.
4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales under judgments, decrees or mortgages obtained or made for such debts.

All lands purchased or held in violation of this article shall be forfeited to the State. [Id.]

Art. 4925. [4870] Shall file bond.—Every fire insurance company, not organized under the laws of this State, applying for a certificate of authority to transact any kind of insurance in this State, shall, before obtaining such certificate, file with the Commissioner, a bond, with good and sufficient surety or sureties, to be approved by and to be payable to the Commissioner and his successors in office, in a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of its premiums collected from citizens or upon property in this State during the preceding calendar year, as shown by its annual report for such year. The bond in no case shall be less than ten thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars, conditioned that said company will pay all its lawful obligations to citizens of this State. Such bonds shall be subject to successive suits by citizens of this State so long as any part of the same shall not be exhausted, and the same shall be kept in force unimpaired until all claims of such citizens arising out of obligations of said company have been fully satisfied. Such bonds shall provide that in the event the company shall become insolvent or cease to transact business in this State at any time when it has outstanding policies of insurance in favor of citizens of this State, or upon property in this State, the Commissioner shall have power, after having given ten days notice to the officers of such company, or any receiver in charge of its property and affairs, to contract with any other insurance company transacting business in this State for the assumption and reinsurance by it of all the insurance risks outstanding in this State of such company which is insolvent, or which has ceased to transact business in this State, which contract shall also provide for the assumption by such reinsurance company of all outstanding and unsatisfied lawful claims then outstanding against such company which has become insolvent, or ceased to transact business in this State. In the event of the Commissioner making any such contract, and if the same shall be approved as reasonable by the Attorney General and the Governor of this State, the reinsuring company shall be entitled to recover from the makers of such bond the amount of the premium or compensation so agreed upon for such reinsurance. Any company desiring to do so may, at its option, in lieu of giving the bond required by this article, deposit securities of any kind in which it may lawfully invest its funds with the State Treasurer upon such terms and conditions as will in all respects afford the same protection and indemnity as herein provided for to be afforded by said bond. [Acts 1909, p. 182.]

Art. 4926. [4871] May deposit securities.—Every fire insurance company, not organized under the laws of this State, hereafter issuing or causing or authorizing to be issued, any policy of insurance other than life insurance, shall first have filed with the Commissioner during the calendar year in which such policy may issue, or authorize or cause to be issued, a bond of good and sufficient sureties to be approved by such Commissioner in a sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the payment of all lawful obligations to citizens of this State arising out of any policies or contracts issued by such fire insurance company; which such bonds shall be subject to successive suits by citizens of this State so long as any part of the same shall not be adjusted, and so long as there remains outstanding any such obligations or contracts of such fire insurance company. This article shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation, or association, doing an inter-insurance, cooperative or reciprocal business. [Id.]

Art. 4927. [4872] [3083] Annual statement.—The president or vice-president and secretary of each fire, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State, annually, on the first day of each year, or within sixty days thereafter, shall prepare under oath and deposit with the Commissioner a full, true and complete statement of the condition of such company on the last day of the month of December preceding. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 37; G. L., vol. 8, p. 409.]

Art. 4928. [4873] [3084] Details of annual statement.—Such annual statement shall exhibit the following items and facts:

1. The name of the company and where located.
2. The names and residence of the officers.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

3. The amount of the capital stock of the company.
4. The amount of capital stock paid up.
5. The property or assets held by the company, viz: The real estate owned by such company, its location, description and value as near as may be, and if said company be one organized under the laws of this State, shall accompany such statement with an abstract of the title to the same; the amount of cash on hand and deposited in banks to the credit of the company, and in what bank or banks the same is deposited; and the amount of cash in the hands of agents, naming such agents: the amount of cash in course of transmission; the amount of loans secured by first mortgages on real estate, with the rate of interest thereon, specifying the location of such real estate, its value and the name of the mortgagor; the amount of all bonds and other loans, with the rate of interest thereon and how secured; the amount due the company in which judgments have been obtained, describing such judgments; the amount of stock of this State, of the United States, of any incorporated city of this State, and of any other stock owned by the company, describing the same and specifying the amount and number of shares, and the par and market value of each kind of stock; the amount of stock held by such company as collateral security for loans, with amount loaned on each kind of stock, its par and market value; the amount of interest actually due to the company and unpaid; all other securities, their description and value.
6. The liabilities of such company, specifying the losses adjusted and due; losses adjusted and not due; losses unadjusted; losses in suspense and the cause thereof; losses resisted and in litigation; dividends, either in scrip or cash, specifying the amount of each declared but not due; dividends declared and due; the amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks on the basis of forty per cent of the premium on all unexpired fire risks and one hundred per cent of the premium on all unexpired marine and inland transportation risks; the amount due banks or other creditors, naming such banks or other creditors and the amount due to each; the amount of money borrowed by the company, of whom borrowed, the rate of interest thereon and how secured; all other claims against the company, describing the same.
7. The income of the company during the preceding year, stating the amount received for premiums, specifying separately fire, marine and inland transportation premiums, deducting reinsurance; the amount received for interest, and from all other sources.
8. The expenditures during the preceding year, specifying the amount of losses paid during said term, stating how much of the same accrued prior, and how much subsequent, to the date of the preceding statement, and the amount at which losses were estimated in such preceding statement; the amount paid for dividends; the amount paid for return premiums, commissions, salaries, expenses, and other charges of officers, agents, clerks and other employes; the amount paid for local, state, national, internal revenue and other taxes and duties; the amount paid for all other expenses such as fees, printing, stationery, rents, furniture, etc.
9. The largest amount insured in any one risk, naming the risk.
10. The amount of risks written during the preceding year.
11. The amount of risks in force having less than one year to run.
12. The amount of risks in force having more than one and not over three years to run.
13. The amount of risks having more than three years to run.
14. Whether or not dividends are declared on premiums received for risks not terminated. [Id.]

Art. 4929. [4874] [3089] Policy a liquidated demand.—A fire insurance policy, in case of a total loss by fire of property insured, shall be held and considered to be a liquidated demand against the company for the full amount of such policy. The provisions of this article shall not apply to personal property. [Acts 1879, p. 83.]

Art. 4930. Breach by insured.—No breach or violation by the insured of any warranty, condition or provision of any fire insurance policy, contract of insurance, or application therefor, upon personal property, shall render void the policy or contract, or constitute a defense to a suit for loss thereon, unless such breach or violation contributed to bring about the destruction of the property. [Acts 1913, p. 194; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 48, ch. 33, § 1.]

Art. 4931. Interest of mortgagee or trustee.—The interest of a mortgagee or trustee under any fire insurance contract hereafter issued covering any property situated in this State shall not be invalidated by any act of neglect of the mortgagee or owner of said described property or the happening of any condition beyond his control, and any stipulation in any contract in conflict herewith shall be null and void. [Acts 1919, p. 20.]

Acts 1919, p. 20, ch. 15, § 1, from which the above article is taken, reads "act or neglect of the mortgagor," instead of "act of neglect of the mortgagee" in line 5.

Art. 4932. [4875] [3075] Re-insurance.—

1. No fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State shall expose itself to any one risk, except when insuring cotton in bales, and grain, to an amount exceeding ten per cent of its paid up capital stock, unless the excess shall be insured by such company in some other solvent insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State.

2. Every fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company doing business in this State may re-insure the whole or any part of any policy obligation in any other insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State. The Commissioner shall require every year from every insurance company doing business in this State a certificate sworn to before an officer in this State to the effect that no part of the business written by such company in this State has been re-insured in whole or in part by any company, corporation, association or society not authorized to do business in this State. Every insurance company doing business shall also furnish the Commissioner with a list of re-insurances during the year in authorized companies, showing the name, amount and premium effected in each company.

3. Any insurance company authorized to transact the business of fire, fire and marine, marine and inland insurance in this State failing to comply with any provisions of this article, shall forfeit its authority to do business for a period of one year. The Commissioner shall investigate any complaint as to such violation and upon satisfactory proof that any company authorized to transact the business of fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance in this State has violated any provision of this article, the Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority of the offending company.

4. The Commissioner upon payment of license fee of twenty-five dollars, may issue to an agent who is regularly commissioned to represent one or more fire, fire and marine insurance companies authorized to do business in this State, a certificate of authority to place excess lines of insurance in companies not authorized to do business in this State, provided the party desiring such excess insurance shall first file with the Commissioner an affidavit that he has exhausted all the insurance obtainable from companies duly authorized to do business in the State.

5. Before receiving license provided for in section 4 of this article, the party applying for same shall file with the Commissioner a bond in the sum of one thousand dollars, payable to the Governor for the faithful observance of the provisions of this article. Said bond to be approved by the Commissioner, and to be for the benefit of the State of Texas.

6. Every agent so licensed shall report, under oath, to the Commissioner within thirty days from the first day of January and July of each year, the amount of gross premiums received by him for such excess insurance, and shall pay the Commissioner a tax of five per cent thereon. The agent procuring a license as provided in this article shall keep a separate record of all transactions herein provided open at all times to the inspection of the Commissioner, or his legally appointed representative. In default of the payment of any sum which may be due the State under this article, the Commissioner may sue for the same. [Act Feb. 17, 1875, p. 34; G. L., vol. 8, p. 406; Acts 1905, p. 112.]

- 4943. Reserve and dividend.
- 4944. Discretionary examination.
- 4945. Revocation of license.
- 4946. Other laws to govern.
- 4947. Penalty.
- 4948. Foreign mutual companies.
- 4949. Filing fees and taxes.

Article 4933. May incorporate.—Any number of persons, not less than seven, who shall be resident citizens of this State, may form and incorporate a company for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by fire, lightning, hail and storms, and for all or either of such purposes. Each company incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall embody the word "mutual" in its title, which shall appear upon the first page of every policy, and renewal receipt. [Acts 1913, p. 54.]

Art. 4934. Requisites of application.—When such number of persons desire to organize such mutual insurance company, they shall apply to the Commissioner for permission to solicit insurance on the mutual plan, which application shall contain:

1. The name of the company, and the name selected shall not be so similar to that of any other insurance company as to be likely to mislead the public.
2. The locality of the principal business office of such company.
3. The kind of insurance business the company proposes to engage in.
4. The names and places of residence of not less than seven persons making such application.
5. An affidavit of at least one of said applicants, correctly stating the names and residence of such applicants.

Upon receipt of such application, together with a fee of one dollar for filing it, the Commissioner shall at once file it and issue a permit authorizing said applicant to solicit insurance on the mutual plan, in accordance with the terms of the application, but not to issue policies of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4935. Requisites of charter.—No such company shall be granted a charter, or be authorized to issue policies of insurance, until insurance upon not less than one hundred separate risks, the total amount of which insurance shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, has been applied for and entered on the books of said company, and until an amount equal to not less than fifty per cent of the first premiums for such insurance has been paid in cash to such company, a premium note being taken for the balance, if any, and such premiums must aggregate not less than twice the maximum liability to be incurred on any one risk. No policy of insurance shall be written, or liability, as an insurer, be incurred by said company, until a statement subscribed and sworn to by the president and secretary of said company, stating that the above provisions have been complied with, has been filed with the Commissioner, together with certified copies of the company's proposed charter, and by-laws.

The charter or articles of association of said company shall be signed and acknowledged by at least four of the original applicants for said permit, and shall contain:

1. The purpose for which it is formed.
2. The place or places where its business is to be transacted.
3. The term for which it is to exist.
4. The number of its directors, or trustees, and the names and residences of those who are elected for the first year.

When said applicants have complied with the above requirements, and have filed the necessary copies of their charter and by-laws with the Commissioner, and have paid the fees and taxes required by the laws of the State to be paid, the Commissioner shall record said charter and furnish said company with a certified copy thereof, and shall issue to said company a certificate of authority showing it has complied with the laws of this State, and authorizing it to do business until the last day of the following February. [Id.]

Art. 4936. Examination.—Each mutual fire, lightning, and storm insurance company incorporated in this State shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner, who shall make or cause to be made, an examination of the affairs of each mutual insurance company, at the company's expense, at least once in every two years and at such other times as he deems proper. He shall thoroughly inspect books, accounts and records of the company, and if upon such inspection the affairs of such company are found to be in a sound condition and the company thus solvent and able to fulfill its obligations, he shall issue to the company a certificate showing the result of such examination. If upon examination he is of opinion that the mutual insurance company is insolvent or has exceeded its powers, or has failed to comply with any provision of law governing it, he may suspend the company's permit and shall give such company written notice of that objected to, and failing such being remedied within thirty days, he shall report the same to the Attorney General, who shall at once bring suit to forfeit the charter of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4937. Statement of condition.—Each mutual insurance company transacting business in the State shall, before the month of March in each year, file in the office of the Commissioner a statement showing the exact condition of affairs of the company upon the 31st day of December preceding, such statement being in conformity with such forms as the Commissioner may furnish. [Id.]

Art. 4938. Rights of insured.—Each person to whom a policy of insurance has been issued by a mutual company incorporated in this State shall be a member of such company so long as his policy remains in force and shall be entitled to one vote at the meetings of the members of such companies, and shall further be entitled to his equitable share of all benefits derived from being a member of such company. [Id.]

Art. 4939. Liability of insured.—The by-laws of such companies shall provide that every member, in addition to his annual premium paid in cash, or in cash and premium notes, shall be liable for a sum equal to another annual premium, or it may provide, a sum equal to three or five annual premiums, such additional liability being assessable at the discretion of the Commissioner or the company's board of directors, for the members proportionate [proportionate] share of losses and expenses should the company's funds become impaired. [Id.]

Art. 4940. By-laws.—The by-laws of such companies shall specifically provide for the rules and regulations of its government, providing for the collection of adequate premiums or assessments, either all in cash or part cash and part by note, such premiums being based upon the greater or less risk attached to the property insured, and they shall state clearly and plainly the extent of each member's liability to other members, shall provide for the accumulation of a surplus fund to which shall be added not less than ten per cent of the annual saving, being made by the company, shall provide for the bonding of the company's officers and shall name such other provisions and safeguards as may be deemed proper and not contrary to the laws of the state, and a notice in heavy type shall be printed on each policy calling to the attention of the insured that the by-laws are a part of his contract with the company. [Id.]

Art. 4941. Investment of funds.—Funds of mutual companies may be invested in United States bonds, Texas State bonds, county or city bonds of this State, if such bonds are issued by authority of law and interest upon them has never been defaulted, or in first mortgages on improved real estate within the State where the first mortgage does not exceed fifty per cent of the value of the land and improvements thereon. [Id.]

Art. 4942. Expenses of company.—The expenses of such companies must not exceed an amount equal to thirty-five per cent of the annual premiums, and a statement must be made annually to the Commissioner by the president or secretary of the company that they are being so limited. [Id.]

Art. 4943. Reserve and dividend.—In determining the solvency of any such mutual company and in determining the profit or saving to be distributed among members, forty per cent of the actual cash premiums paid on policies in force for one year and a pro rata of all premiums received on risks that have more than one year to run shall be deemed to be a sufficient reserve under the said policies and no dividends to members shall be paid out of this reserve. [Id.]

Art. 4944. Discretionary examination.—If at any time the admitted assets of any such company shall come to be less than the largest single risk for which the company is liable, then the president and the secretary of the company shall at once notify the Commissioner, and he may make an examination into the company's affairs if he deems it best. [Id.]

Art. 4945. Revocation of license.—If, upon examination of the company's affairs, it appears that the largest single risk for which the company is liable exceeds the admitted assets of the company, the Commissioner shall immediately suspend or revoke the license of the company until the assets of the company are increased by assessment or otherwise, sufficiently to meet the requirements. The company shall have thirty days within which to meet this requirement, and if within that time it fails to do so the Commissioner shall refer the matter to the Attorney General, with instructions to institute proper legal proceeding to forfeit the charter of said company. [Id.]

Art. 4946. Other laws to govern.—Each mutual company organized for any purpose mentioned in this chapter shall be amenable to, and subject to, the provisions of all laws of this State governing stock fire insurance companies, in so far as they are applicable to mutual companies, and not in conflict with any provision of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 4947. Penalty.—Any mutual company that shall wilfully violate, or fail to comply with any provision of this chapter shall be subject to, and liable to pay, a penalty of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars for each violation thereof. Such penalty may be collected and recovered by suit brought in the name of the State of Texas. For any violation or failure to comply with any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner may suspend a company's permit, or license, and while suspended, such company shall be prohibited from writing or renewing any insurance policies. [Id.]

Art. 4948. Foreign mutual companies.—Mutual companies incorporated under the laws of any other State, or foreign government for any or all of the purposes specified in the first article of this chapter, and duly licensed to transact business in such other States or governments, and that have not less than one hundred thousand dollars assets in excess of liabilities, shall, when they have complied with the requirements and restrictions of this chapter, as far as applicable to them, be admitted to do business in this State, and the Commissioner shall issue to any such company, so complying, a permit authorizing such company to do business in this State until the last day of the following February. [Id.]

Art. 4949. Filing fees and taxes.—Each mutual company operating under this chapter shall pay to the Commissioner, for obtaining a charter, a fee of twenty dollars, and for each license granted, or renewal thereof, a fee of one dollar, and for filing each annual statement a fee of ten dollars annually on the 31st day of each December, and when the Commissioner has certified to the State Treasurer the correct amount to be paid, every mutual company operating under this chapter shall pay to said Treasurer one-half of one per cent of all of the net premiums, or assessments, received by it during the year, and no other tax shall be required of such mutual company, or companies, their officers and agents, except such fees as shall be paid to the Commissioner as required by law. [Id.]

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

MUTUAL HAIL INSURANCE

Art.

- 4950. Authority to incorporate.
- 4951. Permit to solicit business.
- 4952. License to solicit.
- 4953. Application for charter.
- 4954. Directors and officers.
- 4955. Policies on crops.
- 4956. Premiums and funds.
- 4957. Fixing rates.
- 4958. Annual report.
- 4959. Fees.

Article 4950. Authority to incorporate.—Private corporations may be created without a capital stock within this State by the voluntary association of seven or more persons, resident citizens of this State who collectively own not less than one thousand acres of growing crops of all kinds for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by hail. Each company incorporated under the provisions of this chapter shall embody the word "mutual" in its title. [Acts 1913, p. 40.]

Art. 4951. Permit to solicit business.—When any number of persons not less than seven desire to organize a mutual hail insurance company, they shall make application to the Commissioner for permission to solicit business under the mutual plan, stating that said company is to be organized for the insurance of growing crops against loss or damage by hail. Upon receipt of said application the Commissioner shall issue said applicants a permit to solicit insurance against loss or damage by hail on the mutual plan in accordance with the terms of the application, but not to issue policies of insurance. Said mutual company shall take from each applicant an obligation specifying the property to be insured, and the amount to be paid as the first assessment, evidenced by a promissory note for such sum and payable on or before the 31st day of the succeeding December, and upon the State granting to said company a charter authorizing it to do business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 4952. License to solicit.—When applications have been secured for insurance with such company from at least two hundred applicants residing in not less than twenty-five different counties of this State, the first assessment or premium on which applications shall amount to at least ten thousand dollars, for which notes of solvent parties founded on actual bona fide applications for insurance payable upon the granting of the charter by the State to said mutual hail insurance company, which premium notes shall be a lien on the crop insured, or otherwise secured and which notes and applications shall be submitted to the Commissioner. If he finds the applications and notes to be genuine and secured by liens on growing crops or otherwise secured, he shall upon the payment of the fee of twenty-five dollars, certify the fact that he has examined and approved said application and notes to such company, and permit said company to incorporate and issue to it a charter. Said Commissioner upon the payment of the fees required by law, shall issue to said mutual hail insurance company a license to solicit and transact business and issue policies against loss or damage by hail. Each person making application for insurance in such company prior to the granting of a charter to such company and signing a non-negotiable promissory note shall be liable upon the note upon the granting of a charter by the State. If payment is refused, suit may be brought on the same. [Id.]

Art. 4953. Application for charter.—The application for charter shall state the purpose for which it is formed, the term for which it is to exist, the number, name, and residence of its directors for the first year and shall be subscribed and acknowledged by seven or more of the applicants. [Id.]

Art. 4954. Directors and officers.—Upon the issuance of a charter to such mutual hail insurance company, the persons making application for such charter shall constitute a board of directors for the first year which shall consist of not less than seven persons all of whom shall be residents of this State. The officers of such company shall be such as may be provided by the by-laws, and the treasurer or the secretary and treasurer, if such offices should be combined in one, shall execute a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Commissioner and his successors in office conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and that he will account for all moneys, notes or other assets that may come into his hands. [Id.]

Art. 4955. Policies on crops.—Mutual hail insurance companies organized under the provisions of this chapter may issue policies on growing crops of all kinds against loss or damage by hail only. Any person desiring insurance in such company shall make application on blanks furnished by the company and shall pay the full amount of the premium in cash or secured notes. No contract shall be made providing for payment of any obligation by the insured or for suit on any such obligation of the insured, except those given by the charter members referred to in the preceding article in any county other than in which the insured has his domicile. In case the whole amount of the premium collected by such company for any one year shall be insufficient to pay all losses occurring during said year, after paying the necessary expenses for said year, the persons insured by such company shall receive their proportionate share of the sum realized from said premiums after deducting the expenses therefrom in full satisfaction of their losses. No member shall be liable to the company or to any other person for more than the premium, which shall be paid by him or secured to be paid by him in making his application for insurance. [Id.]

Art. 4956. Premiums and funds.—All companies incorporated under this Act shall set aside sixty per cent of all premiums collected as a policy holder's fund for the payment of losses which fund shall be used for no other purpose, and the remainder of the gross premiums collected shall be used if needed, for paying the expenses of said company, and if not needed for such purpose such remainder not so used shall be added to the policy holder's fund at the end of the current year, and if, at the end of such current year the total of said policy holder's fund has not been appropriated or necessary in the payment of losses to policy holders, then such amount of said fund so remaining may be invested in first mortgage notes on lands in this State, said investment not exceeding fifty per cent of the value of said lands, or in bonds of this State, or in county, city, town or school district bonds of this State which have been approved by the Attorney General, which funds or securities shall be deposited in trust for said policy holders with any bank approved by the Commissioner as a reserve fund, which fund may be used for the payment of policy holders, if necessary, in case of excessive and unprecedented losses. Such company may collect and receive the interest and dividends thereon to be used in defraying the expenses and paying the losses of said company. [Id.]

Art. 4957. Fixing rates.—The board of directors of such company shall fix the rates to be charged for such insurance, and may fix at their discretion different rates for different sections of the State based upon the frequency of hail storms in such sections. [Id.]

Art. 4958. Annual report.—Every such corporation shall on or before January first, or within thirty days thereafter, each year make and file with the Commissioner a report upon forms to be furnished by such Commissioner which report shall be verified by the oath of the secretary of such corporation showing the number of policies issued for the preceding year, the number and amount of losses paid, the gross amount received from premiums, the amount of expenses paid, and the amount set aside or invested during the year as a reserve fund, if any. The books, records and documents of such corporation shall be subject to the inspection and examination of the Attorney General or the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 4959. Fees.—The following fees shall be paid by companies organized under this law:

In addition to the application fee and charter fee, an annual franchise tax of fifty dollars; and for filing annual statement, five dollars, certificate of authority to corporation, one dollar. No other fees shall be paid by said companies. [Id.]

State, for the purpose of insuring against loss or damage resulting from burglary and robbery, or any attempt thereat, and securing against the loss of money and securities in course of transportation when shipped by registered mail, shall be authorized, admitted and licensed to do business in this State, as provided in this chapter. [Acts 1899, p. 107, sec. 1.]

Art. 4964. [4923] Conditions.—Before any such company shall be authorized to transact business in this State, except to solicit and receive applications for insurance and portions of premiums thereon, as provided in this chapter, it shall have in force five hundred or more policies on which the premiums shall have been paid in cash, or shall be evidenced by the written contracts of the policy holders, on which not less than one-fifth of the amount shall have been paid in cash, and the cash and contracts for premiums shall amount in the aggregate to a sum of not less than one hundred thousand dollars. The premium contracts so held shall constitute a part of the assets of the company. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 4965. [4924] Duty of company.—Every such company, association or partnership shall also file a certified copy of its charter, articles of incorporation or deed of settlement, together with a statement under the oath of the president or vice-president and secretary of the company, for which he or they may act, stating the name of the company and place where located, a detailed statement of its assets, showing the number of policy holders, aggregate amount of premium contracts, the amount of cash on hand, in bank or in the hands of agents, the amount of real estate and how the same is encumbered by mortgage, the number of shares of stock of every kind owned by the company, the par and market value of the same, amount loaned on bond and mortgage, the amount loaned on other securities, stating the kind and amount loaned on each, and the estimated value of the whole amount of such securities, and other assets or property of the company, also stating the indebtedness of the company, the amount of losses adjusted and unpaid, the amount incurred and in process of adjustment, the amount resisted by the company as illegal and fraudulent, and all other claims existing against the company; and for a company organized under the laws of any other State, a copy of the last annual report, if any, made under any law of such State. No agent shall be allowed to transact business for any such company whose reinsurance reserve, as required in this chapter is impaired to the extent of twenty per cent thereof, while such deficiency shall continue. No agent shall act for any company referred to in this chapter directly or indirectly, in taking risks or transacting the business of insurance against burglary and robbery, or the insuring of the safe shipping of money and securities by registered mail in this State, without procuring from the Commissioner a certificate of authority stating that such company has complied with all the requirements of this chapter which apply to such companies, and as to companies organized under the laws of any other State, there shall be added the name of the attorney appointed to act for the company. Any company organized, admitted and licensed to transact business in this State under this chapter shall confine its line of business to that stated in Article 4963, and shall confine its business in this State to, and shall not issue any policy or policies to any person, firm or corporation in this State other than banks, bankers, loan companies and county treasurers. Every such company shall set aside a reinsurance reserve of fifty per cent of its premiums, whether collected in cash or represented by the obligations of the policy holders as written in its policies. [Id. secs. 3 and 4.]

Art. 4966. [4925] Policy holders.—Policy holders of any company organized and admitted to transact business in this State under this chapter shall be held liable to pay the membership fee and premium on their insurance as paid, or contracted to be paid, at the time the policy is taken out, and shall not be held liable for any further or other assessments or claims on the part of the company or its policy holders. The membership fees and premiums agreed upon may be collected in cash at the time the policy is issued or evidenced by a written obligation of the policy holder as may be agreed upon by the company and the policy holder. Such payment or obligation shall be the limit of the liability of the policy holder to the company for premium on their insurance. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 4967. [4926] Commissioner agent for service.—It shall not be lawful for any insurance company, association or partnership incorporated by, or organized under, the laws of any other State of the United States for any of the purposes specified in this chapter, directly or indirectly, to take risks or transact any business of insurance in this State by any agent in this State until it shall first appoint an attorney in this State, who shall be the Commissioner, or whom process of law can be served, and file in the office of the Commissioner a written instrument duly signed and sealed, certifying such appointment. Any process issued by any court of record in this State, and served upon such attorney by the proper officer of the county in which such attorney may reside or be found, shall be deemed sufficient service of the process upon said company. Service of process upon such company may also be made in any other manner provided by law. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 4968. [4927] Statement and license.—The statement and evidences of new membership, assets, and investments required by this chapter shall be renewed from year to year in such manner and form as may be required by said Commissioner with an additional statement of the amount of premiums received in this State during the preceding year, so long as such agency continues. The Commissioner, if satisfied that the membership, assets, securities and investments remain secure, shall furnish a renewal of the certificate. [Id.]

1. FIDELITY, GUARANTY AND SURETY COMPANIES

Article 4969. [4928] To act as surety.—Private corporations may be created to act as trustee, assignee, executor, administrator, guardian and receiver, when designated by any person, corporation or court to do so; to do a general fiduciary and depository business; to act as surety and guarantor of the fidelity of employees, trustees, executors, administrators, guardians or others appointed to, or assuming the performance of any trust, public or private, under appointment of any court or tribunal, or under contract between private individuals or corporations; also upon any bond or bonds that may be required to be filed in any judiciary proceedings; also to guarantee any contract or undertaking between individuals, or between private corporations, or between individuals or private corporations and the State and municipal corporations or counties or between corporations and individuals; to act as executor and testamentary guardian when designated by such decedents; or to act as administrator or guardian when appointed by any court having jurisdiction; also on any bond or bonds that may be required of any State official, district official, county official or official of any school district or of any municipality, provided that the commissioners courts of each county shall have the right to reject any or all official bonds made by surety companies and in their discretion may require any or all officials to make their official bonds by personal sureties. Any such bond may be accepted and approved by the officer charged by law with the duty of accepting and approving the same without being signed by other securities than such corporation. When any such bond shall exceed fifty thousand dollars in penal sum, the officer charged by law with the duty of approving and accepting such bond, may require that such bond be signed by two or more surety companies, or by one surety company and two or more good and sufficient personal sureties, in the discretion of the principal or official of whom the bond is required, and any statute or law to the contrary, or requiring any such bond to be signed by two or more good and sufficient sureties, shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of this article. Each corporation, making or offering to make any bond under this article, shall publish in some newspaper of general circulation in the county where such company is organized or has its principal office on the first day of February of each year, a statement of its condition on the previous thirty-first day of December, showing under oath its assets and liabilities. A copy of said statement shall be filed with the Commissioner before the 1st day of March of the year following, and a fee of twenty-five dollars be paid to that office for filing the same, and an examination of its affairs may be made at any time by said Commissioner at the expense of the company. Said corporation organized under the provisions of this article shall have a paid up capital stock of not less than $100,000.00 and shall keep on deposit with the State Treasurer money, bonds or other securities in an amount not less than $50,000.00. Said securities shall be approved by the Commissioner and this amount shall be kept intact at all times. All foreign corporations transacting the business of a guaranty and fidelity company in this State shall file with the Commissioner an affidavit showing that such foreign company has on deposit with the State Treasurer of its home state $100,000.00 or more, in money, bonds or other securities for the protection of its policyholders. [Acts 1897, p. 128; 1903, p. 197; 1913, p. 123.]

Art. 4970. [4929] Bond of surety company.—Whenever any bond, undertaking, recognizance or other obligation is, by law or the charter, ordinances, rules and regulations of a municipality, board, body, organization, court, judge or public officer, required or permitted to be made, given, tendered or filed, and whenever the performance of any act, duty or obligation, or the refraining from any act, is required or permitted to be guaranteed, such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee may be executed by a surety company, qualified as hereinbefore provided; and such execution by such company of such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee shall be in all respects a full and complete compliance with every law, charter, rule or regulation that such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee shall be executed by one surety or by one or more sureties, or that such sureties shall be residents, or householders, or freeholders, or either, or both, or possess any other qualification and all courts, judges, heads of departments, boards, bodies, municipalities, and public officers of every character shall accept and treat such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee when so executed by such company, as conforming to, and fully and completely complying with, every requirement of every such law, charter, ordinance, rule or regulation. Any suit on any bond issued under this and the preceding article shall be brought at the place as provided for in this chapter, and if the corporation issuing the bond sued on has no agent in the county where said bond was issued then the Commissioner is made, by consent of the said company, its agent on whom service of process may be held. [Id.]

Art. 4971. [4930] Requirements to be complied with.—Such company to be qualified to so act as surety or guarantor, must comply with the requirements of every law of this State applicable to such company doing business therein; must be authorized under the laws of the State where incorporated, and under its charter, to become surety upon such bond, undertaking, obligation, recognizance or guarantee; must have a fully paid up and safely unimpaired capital of at least one hundred thousand dollars; must have good available assets exceeding its liabilities, which liabilities for the purpose of this subdivision shall be taken to be its capital stock, its outstanding debts and a premium reserve at the rate of fifty per cent of the current annual premiums on each outstanding bond, undertaking, recognizance and obligation of like character in force; must file with the Commissioner, a certified copy of its certificate of incorporation, a written application to be authorized to do business under this subdivision and also, with such application, and in each year thereafter, a statement verified under oath made up to December 31, preceding, stating the amount of its paid up cash capital particularizing each item of investment, the amount of premiums upon existing bonds, undertakings, recognizances and obligations of like character in force upon which it is surety; the amount of liability for unearned portion thereof estimated at the rate of fifty per cent of the current annual premiums on each such bond, undertaking, recognizance and obligation in force, stating also the amount of its outstanding debts of all kinds, and such further facts as may be by the laws of this State required of such company in transacting business therein. If such company be organized under the laws of any other state it must also have on deposit with a State officer of one of the states of the United States, not less than one hundred thousand dollars in good securities, deposited with and held by such officer for the benefit of the holders of all obligations wheresoever incurred; must also appoint an attorney in this State upon whom process of law can be served, which appointment shall continue until revoked or another attorney substituted, and must file with the Commissioner written evidence of such appointment, which shall state the residence and office of such attorney; and such service of process may also be made upon the Commissioner, by virtue of his office, and shall be as effective as if made upon said attorney; and must, also, have on deposit with the Treasurer of this State at least fifty thousand dollars in good securities worth at par and market value, at least that sum, of the value of which securities the Commissioner shall judge, held for the benefit of the holders of all the obligations of such company wheresoever incurred; said securities so deposited with said Treasurer to remain with him in trust to answer any default of said company as surety upon any such bond, undertaking, recognizance or other obligation established by final judgment in whatsoever court and wheresoever rendered upon which execution may lawfully be issued against said company; said Treasurer and his successors in office being hereby directed to so receive and hereafter retain such deposit under this law in trust for the purposes hereof; such company, however, at all times to have the right to collect the interest, dividends and profits upon such securities, and, from time to time, to withdraw such securities, or portions thereof, substituting therefor others of equally good character and value, to the satisfaction of said Treasurer; and such securities and substitutes therefor shall be, at all times, exempt from and not subject to levy under writ or process of attachment; and shall not be sold under any process against such company until after thirty days notice to said company, specifying the time, place, and manner of such sale, and the process under which and purposes for which it is to be made, accompanied by a copy of such process. Whenever any such company, domestic or foreign, has been engaged in this State in the business contemplated by this law, has made a deposit in this state, in trust or otherwise, of securities, to answer any default of such company upon any such bond, undertaking, recognizance, guaranty or stipulation, such securities so deposited shall be by the trustee or custodian thereof transferred and delivered to the State Treasurer in trust for the same purposes and subject to all the rights and equities of all parties interested and to the terms and provisions of this law; and thereupon, such deposit shall remain in trust under and subject to the terms and provisions of this law. Whenever such deposit has been made with a trustee by order of any court or other authority, it shall be the duty of the court or other authority, by order or otherwise, to direct such transfer to said Treasurer; and in case such deposit is less than the sum of fifty thousand dollars, then said company must deposit with said Treasurer securities sufficient to increase said deposit to the sum of fifty thousand dollars as required by this subdivision. Domestic corporations chartered for the purpose of doing business under this subdivision within this State alone shall be required to deposit securities as hereinbefore provided for to the amount of twenty-five thousand dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 244; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 4.]

Art. 4972. [4931] Certificate to issue.—The Commissioner upon due proof by any such company of its possessing the qualifications in this subdivision specified, shall issue to such company a certificate setting forth that such company has qualified, and is authorized for the ensuing year to do business under this subdivision, which said certificate shall be evidence of such qualification of such company, and of its authorization to become and to be accepted as sole surety on all bonds, undertakings, recognizances and obligations required or permitted by law or the charter, ordinance, rules or regulations of any municipality, board, body, organization or public officer, and the solvency or credit of such company for all purposes, and its sufficiency as such surety. [Acts 1897, p. 244.]

Art. 4973. [4932] Certificate to be surrendered.—Any such company, domestic or foreign, may at any time surrender to the Commissioner its said certificate of qualification, and shall thereupon cease to engage in said business of suretyship; and such company shall thereupon be entitled to the release and return of its said deposit as aforesaid in manner following: Said company shall file with said Commissioner a statement in writing, under oath, giving the date, name and amount of all its then existing obligations of suretyship in this State, briefly stating the facts of each case to said commissioner, who after examination of the facts, shall require said company to file with the State Treasurer a bond payable to the State, in a sum equal to the whole amount of its liability in this State, under its contracts, conditioned for the faithful performance and fulfillment of all its outstanding obligations, or it may, at its option, reinsure its risks in some surety company authorized to do business in this State, or cancel all bonds on which it is liable, and return a pro rata of the premium received thereon, whenever such cancellation and return can be done without impairing its obligation to third parties. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 4974. [4933] May withdraw from bond.—Any surety company may withdraw from the bond of any trustee, guardian, assignee, receiver, executor, administrator or other fiduciary, in like manner and by like proceeding as is now provided by law in the case of individual sureties. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 4975. [4934] Venue of suit on bond.—If any suit shall be instituted upon any bond or obligation of any surety company, the proper court of the county wherein said bond is filed shall have jurisdiction of said cause. Service therein shall be made, either upon the attorney for said company, by this subdivision required to be appointed, or upon the Commissioner; and such service shall be to all intents valid and effectual as service upon said company. Such guaranty, fidelity and surety companies shall be deemed resident of the counties wherever they may do business, and the doing or performing any business in any county shall be deemed an acceptance of the provisions of this subdivision. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 4976. [4935] Defaulting company; claims paid.—Should any company of the character mentioned in this subdivision fail or refuse to pay any loss by it whatsoever [wheresoever] incurred within sixty days after its liability thereupon shall have been finally determined by the judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction wheresoever rendered, then upon satisfactory proof to the Treasurer of this State of such liability and of its nonpayment, said Treasurer shall, out of the deposits so made with him, as by this subdivision provided, pay said loss and when he shall have done so he shall at once certify to the Commissioner the fact of such default on the part of said company; whereupon said Commissioner shall forthwith cancel and annul the certificate of authority of such company to do business in this State. Such payment shall not operate to release the company from payment of any balance which it still may owe after such payment by the Treasurer of this State has been made. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 5.]

Art. 4977. [4936] Who are agents.—Any person who solicits business for or on behalf of such corporation, or makes or transmits, for any person other than himself, any application for guaranty or security, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit same, or who shall receive or transmit same, or who shall receive or deliver a contract of guaranty or security, or who shall examine or investigate the character of any applicant for guaranty or security other than himself, or who shall refer any applicant for guaranty or security to such corporation, whether any of said acts shall be done at the instance and request, or by the employment of such corporation or other corporation or person, or any person who shall issue indemnifying bonds or contracts, whose solvency and compliance with his said bonds or obligations is guaranteed, directly or indirectly, by any corporation, shall be held to be the agent of such corporation so far as relates to all the liabilities and penalties prescribed by this subdivision. [Acts 1897, p. 244, sec. 8.]

Art. 4978. [4937] Penalty.—Any person, association of persons, or corporations, who shall accept any corporation created for the purposes, or either of them, mentioned in the first article of this subdivision without such corporation, having previously complied with the provisions and requirements of this subdivision and having received from the Commissioner of Insurance the certificate of authority provided for in this subdivision shall forfeit as a penalty the sum of five hundred dollars to be recovered by suit in the name of the State. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 4979. [4938] Cancellation of bond.—When any corporation shall cancel a bond of guaranty or indemnity, or shall notify the employer of the person whose fidelity is guaranteed that said corporation will no longer guarantee or be security for the fidelity of said person, or when said corporation has once guaranteed the fidelity of any person, or acted as security therefor, and on application refuses to do so again, it shall furnish to such person a full statement in writing of the facts on which the action of the corporation is based, and if such action be based in whole or in part on information, all such information. Any such corporation failing or refusing to furnish any such written statement within thirty days after a request therefor, shall be liable to such person injured in the sum of five hundred dollars, in addition to all other damages caused thereby. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 4980. [4939] Authority revoked, when.—If any such corporation shall fail or refuse to comply with the provisions of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall revoke its certificate of authority. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 4981. [4940] Charged with public use.—Corporations created for the purposes mentioned in Article 4969 are hereby declared to be charged with a public use. [Id. sec. 12.]

2. TRUST COMPANIES

Art. 4982. [540-44] Powers.—Any person or association of persons, any State banking corporation or any other domestic corporation, or any corporation organized under the laws of any other State, provided such foreign corporation complies with the laws of this State relating to insurance other than life, may exercise the following powers by complying with the provisions of this subdivision:

1. Qualify as guardian, curator, executor, administrator, assignee, receiver, trustee by appointment of any court or under will, or depository of money in court, without giving bond as such.

2. Become sole guarantor or surety in or upon any bond required to be given under the laws of this State, any other statute to the contrary notwithstanding. [Acts 1st C. S. 1905, p. 513.]

Art. 4983. [540-41-43] Requirements.—Those included in the provisions of this subdivision shall:

1. Deposit with the State Treasurer fifty thousand dollars consisting of cash, treasury notes of the United States, or government, State, county, municipal or other bonds, notes, or debentures, secured by first mortgages or deeds of trust, or mortgages or deeds of trust on unencumbered real estate in Texas worth at least double the amount loaned thereon, or such other first class securities as the Commissioner may approve. Said bonds or securities shall not be received or held at a rate above par, but if their market value is less than par they shall not be held above their actual market value. The State Treasurer shall require any such depositor to replace any securities so deposited on which the interest shall not be paid within six months after maturity, by other securities equal in amount to those removed, upon which the interest has not been defaulted. The funds so deposited shall be primarily liable for the obligations of the depositor in any capacity herein authorized, and shall not be liable for any other debt or obligation of the depositor until all such trust liabilities have been discharged.

2. Satisfy the Commissioner of its solvency. The Commissioner shall issue any such depositor, when satisfied it is solvent and has made the required deposit, a certificate showing such facts.

3. Maintain a premium reserve of the amount required to reinsure all outstanding risks, to be determined by taking fifty per cent of the premiums of all unexpired risks that have less than one year to run, and a pro rata of all gross premiums on risks that have more than one year to run.

4. File with the Commissioner, within sixty days after the first day of each January, a report sworn to by its president and secretary or by two of its principal officers, as to the surety and bond business done by the same during the preceding year.

5. Pay taxes on its surety and bond business as required of other surety companies. [Id.]

Art. 4984. [540] Authority to act.—Whenever any such depositor shall exhibit said certificate to the court, judge, clerk or other officer making the appointment herein authorized, or whose duty it is to approve any bond, such court or officer may appoint such depositor to such office or trust, or permit it to become surety on such bond. [Id.]

Art. 4985. [545] Other trust powers.—Those complying with the provisions of this law shall not exercise any other powers conferred by law upon State banking and trust companies, except those herein authorized, unless such depositor shall have, at the time of making such deposit, a paid up capital or surplus of at least one hundred thousand dollars in addition to said deposit. [Id.]

Art. 4986. [542] Statutes applicable.—All articles of the statutes so far as the same are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions of law governing banks and banking corporations shall apply to all companies doing business hereunder. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

EMPLOYERS LIABILITY INSURANCE COMPANIES

Art.

4987. Calculation and report of reserve.

4988. Certificates from other States.

Article 4987. [4941] Calculation and report of reserve.—Every insurance company which has for ten years or more undertaken to insure persons, firms or corporations against loss or damage on account of the bodily injury or death by accident of any person, for which loss or damage said persons, firms or corporations are respectively responsible, shall, on or before the first day of October in each year, render to the Commissioner of Insurance a statement in writing of its business transacted in the United States, which shall show separately for each of the five calendar years constituting the first half of the period of ten years next preceding the thirty-first day of December of the year in which the statement is made:

1. The number of persons reported injured under all its forms of liability policies, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, and whether such injury resulted in loss to the company or not.

2. The amount that, on or before the thirty-first day of August of the year in which the statement is made, had been paid on account or in consequence of all injuries so reported, including therein all payments on suits arising from such injuries.

3. The number of suits or actions under such policies on account of injuries reported which have been settled, either by payments or compromise.

4. The amount paid in settlement of such suits or actions on or before the thirty-first day of August of the year when the statement is made, including therein all payments made on account or in consequence of injuries from which the suits arose, whether prior to or later than the date when the suits were brought. Every such company shall, in its financial statements hereafter made in this State, use the experience so ascertained for computing its outstanding losses under all its forms of liability policies, irrespective of the date when the policies were issued. The average cost per suit of settling such cases, as computed by the data required in this article, shall be multiplied by the number of suits or actions pending on account of injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date on which the condition of the company is to be ascertained and shown, which suits or actions are being defended for or on account of a holder of any such policy, also the average cost on account of each injured person, determined as aforesaid from the company's experience, shall be multiplied by the number of injuries reported within the eighteen months prior to making the statement of the company's condition, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives. From the sum of these two products so ascertained there shall be deducted the amount of all payments made on account or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months, this amount so deducted to be taken as of the date at which the said statement is made. The sum remaining after making this deduction shall be charged as the liability of the company on account of outstanding losses. Any admitted company issuing liability contracts, which, by reason of its limited experience in liability underwriting, cannot furnish the information required by this article shall, nevertheless, until it is able to comply with said requirements, be charged with a liability for outstanding losses upon all kinds of its liability policies an amount not less than the amount resulting from the following process:

The number of suits or actions pending on account of injuries reported prior to eighteen months previous to the date of making up the statement, whether such injuries were reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, which are being defended on account of the holder of any policy, shall be multiplied by the average cost per suit as shown by the average experience of all other admitted liability companies ascertained from the data required by this article, also the number of injuries reported under said policies at any time within eighteen months of making up the statement, whether reported to the home office of the company or to any of its representatives, and whether such injuries resulted in loss to the company or not, shall be multiplied by the average cost for each injured person as shown by the average of said experience of all other admitted liability companies, ascertained from the data required by this article. From the sum of these two products there shall be deducted the amount of all payments made on account of or in consequence of said injuries reported within eighteen months, this amount to be taken as of the date at which the statement is made. A sum not less than the amount remaining after this deduction shall be charged as a liability for outstanding losses to the liability companies covered by the provisions of this paragraph. The average costs for suits and for injured persons required by this paragraph shall, on or before the first day of December of each year, be furnished by the Commissioner to every such company which has not had an experience of ten years in liability underwriting. Besides the reserve provided for in this article, each such company shall be charged as a liability with all unpaid losses of which the company received notice on or before December 31, and all other debts and liabilities. If the capital stock of any such company, computing its liabilities in accordance with the provisions of this article shall be at any time impaired to the extent of twenty per cent thereof, the Commissioner shall give notice to the company to make good its whole capital stock within sixty days; and, if this is not done, he shall require the company to cease to do business within this State, and shall thereupon, in case the company is organized under the authority of this State, immediately institute legal proceedings to wind up the affairs of such company. [Acts 1909, p. 193.]

Art. 4988. [4942] Certificates from other States.—The Commissioner, in calculating the reserve liability of any such company, may accept the certificate of the officer of any other State charged with the duty of supervising such company as to any such company organized under the laws of such State; provided, such certificate shows that such liability has been computed in accordance with the provisions of Article 4987.

Art. 4990. Articles of incorporation.—Such persons shall associate themselves together by written articles of incorporation for the purpose of forming an accident or casualty insurance company, which articles shall specify the general object of the company, and the proposed duration of the same. [Acts 1911, p. 237.]

Art. 4991. Organization.—When such articles of incorporation are filed with the Commissioner, together with an affidavit made by two or more of its incorporators, that all the stock has been subscribed in good faith and fully paid for together with a charter fee of twenty dollars, the Commissioner shall record the same in a book kept for that purpose, and upon receipt of a fee of one dollar he shall furnish a certified copy of the same to the incorporators, upon which they shall be a body politic and corporate, and may proceed to complete the organization of the company, for which purpose they shall forthwith call a meeting of the stockholders who shall adopt by-laws for the government of the company and elect a board of directors composed of stockholders, which board shall have full control and management of the affairs of the corporation, subject to the by-laws thereof as adopted or amended from time to time by the stockholders or directors, and to the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 4992. Officers and records.—The subscribers to said articles of incorporation shall choose from their number a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer and such number of directors not less than three who shall continue in office for the period of one year from the date of filing articles of incorporation, and until their successors shall be duly chosen and qualified. They shall open books for the subscriptions of stock in the company at such times and places as they shall deem convenient and proper, and shall keep them open until the full amount specified in the certificate is subscribed. [Id.]

Art. 4993. Capital and deposits.—Only companies organized and doing business under the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to its provisions. Such company shall have not less than one hundred thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed, paid in in cash, with an additional fifty thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed and fully paid in in cash for every kind of insurance more than one [of] which it is authorized to transact. Such companies with two hundred thousand dollars of capital stock subscribed and fully paid in in cash shall be authorized to transact all and every kind of insurance specified in the first article of this chapter; all of which said capital stock shall be paid up or invested in bonds of the United States, or of this State, or of any county or municipality of this State or in bonds or first liens upon unencumbered real estate in this State or in any other State in which such company may previously have been duly licensed to conduct an insurance business. In either instance such real estate shall be worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon. The value of such real estate shall be determined by a sworn valuation made by two freeholders of the county where the real estate is located. If buildings are considered as part of the value of such real estate they must be insured for the benefit of the mortgage. Upon such company furnishing evidence satisfactory to the Commissioner that the capital stock as herein prescribed has been all subscribed and paid up in cash in good faith, and that such capital stock has been invested as herein prescribed, and upon the deposit of the sum of fifty thousand dollars of such securities or in cash with the State Treasurer, then said Commissioner shall issue to said company a certificate authorizing it to do business. No part of the capital paid in shall be loaned to any officer of said company. In the event any such company shall be required by the law of any other State, country or province as a requirement prior to doing an insurance business therein to deposit with the duly appointed officer of such other State, country or province or with the State Treasurer of this State, any securities or cash in excess of the said deposit of fifty thousand dollars hereinbefore mentioned, such company, at its discretion, may deposit with the State Treasurer securities of the character authorized by this law, or cash sufficient to enable it to meet such requirements. The State Treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to receive such deposit and to hold it exclusively for the protection of all policy holders of the company. Any deposits so made to meet the requirements of any other State, country or province shall not be withdrawn by the company except upon filing with the Commissioner evidence satisfactory to him that the company has withdrawn from business, and has no unsecured liabilities outstanding in any such other State, country or province by which such additional deposit was required, and upon the filing of such evidence the company may withdraw such additional deposit at any time. [Id.]

Art. 4994. Powers.—A corporation organized or doing business under the provisions of this law shall, by the name adopted by such corporation, in law, be capable of suing or being sued, and may make or enforce contracts in relation to the business of such corporation; may have and use a common seal, and in the name of the corporation or by a trustee chosen by the board of directors, shall in law, be capable of taking, purchasing, holding and disposing of real and personal property for carrying into effect the purposes of their organization; and may by their board of directors, trustees, or managers, make by-laws and amendments thereto not inconsistent with the laws or the Constitution of this State or of the United States, which by-laws shall define the manner of electing directors, trustees or managers and officers of such corporation, together with the qualifications and duties of the same, and fixing the term of office. [Id.]

Art. 4995. Annual statement.—The president, vice president and secretary or a majority of directors or trustees of such company organized under the provisions of this law shall annually, on the first day of January or within sixty days thereafter, prepare and deposit in the office of the Commissioner a verified statement of the condition of such company on the 31st day of December of the preceding year, showing:

1. Name and where located, (a) names of officers, (b) the amount of capital stock, (c) the amount of capital stock paid in.

2. Assets, (a) the value of real estate owned by said company, (b) the amount of cash on hand, (c) the amount of cash deposited in bank or trust company, (d) the amount of bonds of the United States, and all other bonds, giving names and amounts with par and market values of each kind, (e) the amount of loans secured by first mortgage on real estate, (f) the amount of all other bonds, loans and how secured, with rate of interest, (g) the amount of notes given for unpaid stock and how secured, (h) the amount of interest due and unpaid, (i) all other credits or assets.

3. Liabilities, (a) the amount of losses due and unpaid, (b) the amount of claims for losses unadjusted, (c) the amount of claims for losses resisted.

4. Income during the year, (a) the amount of fees received during the year, (b) the amount of interest received from all sources, (c) the amount of receipts from all other sources.

5. Expenditures during the year, (a) the amount paid for losses, (b) the amount of dividends paid to stockholders, (c) the amount of commissions and salaries paid to agents, (d) the amount paid to officers for salaries, (e) the amount paid for taxes, (f) the amount of all other payments or expenditures.

6. Miscellaneous, (a) the amount paid in fees during the year, (b) the amount paid for losses during the year, (c) the whole amount of insurance issued and in force on the 31st day of December of the previous year. [Id.]

Art. 4996. Additional information.—The Commissioner is authorized to amend the form of statement and to exact such additional information as he may think necessary in order that a full exhibit of the standing of such companies may be shown. [Id.]

Art. 4997. Failure of duty.—Upon the failure of any company to make such deposit or to file the statement in time, the Commissioner shall notify such company to issue no new insurance until the law is complied with, and it shall be unlawful for any such company to thereafter issue any policy of insurance until such requirements shall be complied with. [Id.]

Art. 4998. Examination.—The Commissioner may at any time make or authorize any suitable person to make a personal examination of the books, papers and securities of any such company. For the purpose of securing a full and true exhibit of its affairs, he or the person selected by him shall have power to examine under oath any officer of said company relative to its business management. [Id.]

Art. 4999. Revoking certificate.—If the Commissioner shall at any time from the report of examination determine that the company has not complied with any provision of this law, he shall revoke its certificate of authority to do business in this State, and shall refer the facts to the Attorney General, who shall proceed to ask the proper court to appoint a receiver for said company, who shall, under the direction of the court, wind up the affairs of said company. In no other way can the Commissioner or any other person restrain or interfere with the prosecution of business of any company doing business under the provisions of this law, except in actions by judgment creditor or in proceedings supplementary to execution. [Id.]

Art. 5000. Change of securities.—Such companies shall have the right at any time to change their securities on deposit with the State Treasurer by substituting for those withdrawn a like amount in other securities of the character provided for in this law. [Id.]

Art. 5001. Increase of capital.—Any such company may increase its capital stock at any time after the intention to so increase the capital stock shall have been ratified by a two-thirds vote of the stockholders, and after notice of the purpose to so increase the capital stock has been given by publication in some newspaper of general circulation for four consecutive weeks. No increase of capital stock in less amount than fifty thousand dollars is hereby authorized. [Id.]

Art. 5002. Dividends.—The directors of any such company shall not make any dividends except from the surplus profit arising from their business. No dividends shall be declared except at the close of the year. [Id.]

Art. 5003. Interest on deposits.—The State Treasurer shall permit companies having securities on deposit with him under the provisions of this law to collect the interest as the same may become due, and shall deliver to such companies respectively the coupons or other evidences of interest pertaining to such deposits. Upon failure of any company to deposit additional security as called for by the Commissioner, or pending any proceedings to close up or enjoin it, the State Treasurer shall collect the interest as it becomes due and hold the same as additional security in his hands belonging to such company. [Id.]

Art. 5004. Penalty.—Any company organized or doing business under this law without a certificate as provided for in this chapter shall forfeit one hundred dollars for every day it continues to write new business in this State without such certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5005. Suits for penalties.—Suits to recover any penalty provided for in this law shall be instituted in the name of the State of Texas, by the Attorney General or by a district or county attorney under his direction, either in the county where the principal office is situated, or in Travis County. Such penalties, when recovered, shall be paid into the State Treasury for the use of the school fund. [Id.]

Art. 5006. Investment of funds.—No company organized under the provisions of this chapter shall invest its funds over and above its paid up capital stock in any other manner than as follows:

(a) In bonds of the United States or of any of the states of the United States which are at or above par. (b) In bonds or first liens on unencumbered real estate in this State or in any other state, country or province in which such company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business, and provided in each instance such real estate shall be worth at least twice the amount loaned thereon. The value of such real estate shall be determined by a valuation made under oath by two freeholders of the county where the real estate is located and if buildings are considered as a part of the value of such real estate they must be insured for the benefit of the mortgages. (c) In bonds or other interest-bearing evidence of indebtedness of any county, incorporated city, town or school or sanitary district in this or any other state in which said company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business, if such evidences of indebtedness are issued by authority of law and if interest upon them has never been defaulted. (d) In the stocks or bonds or other evidences of indebtedness of any solvent dividend-paying corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, or of the United States or of any state, country or province in which such company may be duly licensed to conduct an insurance business.

(e) In loans upon the pledge of any mortgage, stock or bonds, or other evidence of indebtedness, acceptable as investments under the terms of this law if the current value of such mortgage stock, bond or other evidence of indebtedness is at least twenty-five per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5007. Real estate.—No such company shall be permitted to purchase, hold or convey real estate, except for the purpose and in the manner herein set forth:

1. For the erection and maintenance of buildings at least ample and adequate for the transaction of its own business.

2. Such as shall have been mortgaged to it in good faith for money due.

3. Such as shall have been conveyed to it in the satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings and which must be taken in by the company on account of the debt secured by such mortgage.

4. Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments, decrees or mortgages obtained or made for such debts. No company incorporated as aforesaid shall purchase, hold or convey real estate in any other cases or for any other purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5008. Sale of real estate.—All real estate so acquired, except as is occupied by buildings used in whole or in part for the accommodation of such companies in the transaction of its business, shall, except as hereinafter provided, be sold and disposed of within ten years after such company shall have acquired title to the same. No such company shall have such real estate for a longer period than that above mentioned, unless the said company shall procure a certificate from the Commissioner that the interests of the company will suffer materially by a forced sale of such real estate, in which event the time for the sale may be extended to such time as the Commissioner shall direct in said certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5009. Certificate of authority.—The Commissioner upon due proof by a company organized under the provisions of this law, of its possessing the qualifications required, shall issue a certificate setting forth that it has qualified and is authorized for the ensuing year to do business under the law, which certificate or a copy thereof shall be evidence of such qualifications and of the company's authority to transact business authorized by this law, and of its solvency and credits. [Id.]

Art. 5010. Fees.—The Commissioner shall charge for filing the preliminary statement and for filing the annual statement required by this chapter, a fee of ten dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5011. Service of process.—Process in any civil suit against any casualty company organized under the laws of this State may be served only on the president, or any active vice president or secretary, or general counsel residing at the city of the home office of the company, or by leaving a copy of same at the home office of such company, during business hours. [Id.]

Art. 5012. Decrease of stock.—Any such company may decrease its capital stock at any time after the intention to so decrease the capital stock shall have been ratified by a majority vote of the stockholders, and after notice of such purpose has been published in some newspaper of general circulation for a period of four consecutive weeks. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINETEEN

LLOYD'S PLAN

- Art.
5013. "Underwriters" defined.
5014. "Attorneys" defined.
5015. Application for license.
5016. License.
5017. Assets.
5018. Examination of affairs.
5019. Liability of substitutes.
5020. Assuming risk.
5021. Action on policy.
5022. Revoking or suspending license.
5023. This law exclusive.

Article 5013. "Underwriters" defined.—Individuals, partnerships or associations of individuals, hereby designated "underwriters," are authorized to make any insurance, except life insurance, on the Lloyd's plan, by executing articles of agreement expressing their purpose so to do and complying with the requirements set forth in this chapter. [Acts 1921, p. 238.]

Art. 5014. "Attorneys" defined.—Policies of insurance may be executed by an attorney in fact or other representative, hereby designated "attorney" authorized by and acting for such underwriters under powers of attorney. The principal office of such attorney shall be maintained at such place as may be designated by the underwriters in their articles of agreement. [Id.]

Art. 5015. Application for license.—The attorney shall file with the Commissioner a verified application for license setting forth and accompanied by:

(a) The name of the attorney and the title under which the business is to be conducted, which title shall contain the name Lloyd's and shall not be so similar to any name or title in use in this State as to be likely to confuse or deceive.

(b) The location of the principal office.

(c) The kinds of insurance to be effected, which kinds of insurance may be as follows:

1. Fire insurance, which term shall be construed to include tornado, hail, crop and floater insurance.

2. Automobile insurance, which term shall be construed to include fire, theft, transportation, property damage, collision, liability and tornado insurance.

3. Liability insurance.

4. Marine insurance.

5. Accident and health insurance.

6. Burglary and plate glass insurance.

7. Fidelity and surety bonds insurance.

8. Any other kinds of insurance, not above specified, the making of which is not otherwise unlawful in this State, except life insurance.

(d) A copy of each form of policy or contract by which such insurance is to be effected.

(e) A copy of the form of power of attorney by virtue of which the attorney is to act for and bind the several underwriters and a copy of the articles of agreement entered into between the underwriters themselves and the attorney.

(f) The names and addresses of all underwriters, whose number shall not be less than ten.

(g) A financial statement showing in detail the assets and liabilities accumulated and incurred and the income and disbursements received and made by the attorney for the underwriters.

(h) An instrument executed by each and all of the underwriters specially empowering the attorney to accept service of process for each underwriter in any action on any policy or contract of insurance, and an instrument from the attorney to such Commissioner delegating the attorney's powers in this respect to such Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5016. License.—Upon compliance with the requirements of this chapter and upon a showing of assets as provided in the succeeding article, the Commissioner shall, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars, issue a license to any attorney applying therefor specifying the kind or kinds of insurance which he is authorized to make and containing the name of the attorney, the location of his principal office, and the title under which such business is to be conducted. Such license shall continue in force until surrendered by the attorney or revoked or suspended by the Commissioner as authorized by this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5017. Assets.—No attorney shall be licensed for the underwriters at a Lloyd's under this chapter unless the net assets, including the guarantee fund provided for in the articles of agreement, held by the attorney, committee of underwriters, trustee or other officer, as provided for in the articles of agreement, shall be at least forty thousand dollars in cash or convertible securities; nor shall any attorney be licensed for the underwriters at a Lloyd's to transact more than two kinds of insurance as defined in the third article of this chapter, unless the net assets as above defined and held shall be as much as ten thousand dollars additional for each additional kind of insurance designated in the application for license; provided that if the underwriters have net assets as above described in an amount equal to one hundred thousand dollars, they may write any kind of insurance that may be lawfully written in this State except life insurance. If the Commissioner finds upon any examination of a Lloyd's that the net assets as above defined are less than the amount required, the impairment shall be made good within thirty days from the service of a requisition for that purpose by such Commissioner upon the attorney for the underwriters. If any such attorney or other person shall make any advancement to make good any such impairment, the claim for the same against the assets of the underwriters shall be deferred to claims for losses under policies or contracts of insurance. [Id.]

Art. 5018. Examination of affairs.—The Commissioner may make examinations of the books and affairs of any attorney for underwriters at a Lloyd's, the expense of any such examination to be borne by the underwriters, and the attorney and his deputies shall facilitate such examinations and furnish all information which the Commissioner may reasonably demand. Such Commissioner may revoke or suspend the license of any attorney in case of breach of any of the conditions imposed by this chapter and upon reasonable notice in writing to the attorney so that he may appear and show cause why such license should not be revoked or suspended. [Id.]

Art. 5019. Liability of substitutes.—Additional or substituted underwriters shall be bound in the same manner and to the same extent as original subscribers to the articles of agreement and power of attorney on file with the Commissioner; and the acts of the duly appointed deputy or substitute attorney of any attorney licensed under this chapter in accepting powers of attorney from underwriters and in making and issuing policies and contracts of insurance and in doing any additional acts incident thereto shall be deemed authorized by the license issued to the original attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5020. Assuming risk.—No attorney for underwriters at a Lloyd's shall assume any one insurance risk exceeding one-fifth of the amount of the net assets of the underwriters as defined in this chapter and the additional liability assumed by the individual underwriters in the articles of agreement and in the policies or contracts of insurance, unless such excess shall be promptly reinsured. [Id.]

Art. 5021. Action on policy.—Action on any policy or contract of insurance made by the attorney for the underwriters may be brought against the attorney or against the attorney and the underwriters or any of them. In such action, summons and process shall be served on the Commissioner or on the attorney in fact and when so served shall have the same force and effect as if served on the attorney and on each underwriter personally. A judgment in any such action against the attorney or against any of the underwriters shall be binding upon and be a judgment against each and all of the underwriters as their several liabilities may appear in the contract of insurance in which the action is brought.

Any such summons or other process shall be served in duplicate, and the Commissioner shall forthwith by registered mail send one copy thereof to the attorney for the underwriters at the principal office designated in the application for license or latest amendment thereof. The party commencing any action against the underwriters at a Lloyd's and securing service of process in this manner shall at the time of such service pay to such Commissioner for the use of the Department a fee of two dollars, which he shall be entitled to collect as taxable costs in the action if he shall prevail. [Id.]

Art. 5022. Revoking or suspending license.—All such underwriters, their attorneys, agents and representatives transacting the business of insurance in this State on the Lloyd's plan shall be governed and regulated by the provisions of this chapter and upon violation of any provision hereof the Commissioner may revoke or suspend any license or certificate of authority issued under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 5023. This law exclusive.—Except as herein provided no other insurance law of this State shall apply to insurance on the Lloyd's plan unless it is specifically so provided in such other law that the same shall be applicable. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWENTY

INDEMNITY CONTRACTS

Art.

- 5024. May exchange contracts.
- 5025. Attorney for subscribers.
- 5026. Declaration of subscribers.
- 5027. Service of process.
- 5028. Statement of indemnity.
- 5029. Reserve.
- 5030. Financial report.
- 5031. Any corporation may exchange.
- 5032. Certificate of authority.
- 5033. When insurance law applies.

Article 5024. May exchange contracts.—Individuals, partnerships and corporations of this State hereby designated subscribers are hereby authorized to exchange reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts with each other, or with individuals, partnerships and corporations of other States and countries, providing indemnity among themselves from any loss which may be insured against under other provisions of the laws, excepting life insurance. [Acts 1915, p. 269.]

Art. 5025. Attorney for subscribers.—Such contracts may be executed by a duly appointed attorney in fact duly authorized and acting for such subscribers. The office or offices of such attorney may be maintained at such place or places as may be designated by the subscribers in the power of attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5026. Declaration of subscribers.—Such subscribers, so contracting among themselves, shall, through their attorney, file with the Commissioner a declaration verified by the oath of such attorney setting forth:

1. The name or the title of the office at which subscribers propose to exchange such indemnity contracts. Said name or title shall not be so similar to any other name or title previously adopted by a similar organization, or by any insurance corporation or association, as in the opinion of such Commissioner is calculated to confuse or deceive. The office or offices through which such indemnity contracts shall be exchanged shall be classified as reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges.

2. The kind or kinds of insurance to be effected or exchanged.

3. A copy of the form of policy, contract or agreement under or by which such insurance is to be effected or exchanged.

4. A copy of the form of power of attorney or authority of such attorney under which such insurance is to be effected or exchanged.

5. The location of the office or offices from which such contracts or agreements are to be issued.

6. That applications have been made for indemnity upon at least seventy-five separate risks, aggregating not less than one-half million dollars as represented by executed contracts or bona fide applications to become concurrently effective, or in case of liability or compensation insurance, covering a total payroll of not less than two thousand employes.

7. That there is on deposit with some State or National bank as a depository for the payment of losses not less than the sum of ten thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5027. Service of process.—Concurrently with the filing of such declaration, the attorney shall file with the Commissioner of Insurance an instrument in writing, executed by him for said subscribers, conditioned that, upon the issuance of certificates of authority hereinafter provided for, service or process may be had upon such Commissioner in all suits in this State arising out of such policies, contracts or agreements, which service shall be valid and binding upon all subscribers exchanging at any time reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts through such attorney.

Three copies of such process shall be served, and the Commissioner shall file one copy, forward one copy to said attorney, and return one copy with his admission of service. [Id.]

Art. 5028. Statement of indemnity.—Such attorney shall file with the Commissioner a statement under the oath of such attorney showing the maximum amount of indemnity upon any single risk, and such attorney shall, whenever and as often as the same shall be required, file with such Commissioner a statement verified by his oath to the effect that he has examined the commercial rating of such subscribers as shown by the reference book of a commercial agency having at least one hundred thousand subscribers, and that from such examination or from other information in his possession it appears that no subscriber has assumed on any single risk an amount greater than 10 per cent of the net worth of such subscriber. [Id.]

Art. 5029. Reserve.—There shall at all times be maintained as a reserve a sum in cash or convertible securities equal to one-half of the aggregate net annual deposits collected and credited to the accounts of the subscribers on policies having one year or less to run and pro-rata on those for longer periods. For the purpose of said reserve, net annual deposits shall mean the advance payments of subscribers after deducting therefrom the amounts specifically provided in the subscribers' agreements for expenses and reinsurance. Said sum shall at no time be less than ten thousand dollars, and if at any time one-half of the aggregate deposits so collected and credited shall not equal that amount, then the subscribers, or their attorney for them, shall make up any deficiency. [Id.]

Art. 5030. Financial report.—Such attorney shall make an annual report to the Commissioner for each calendar year, which report shall be made on or before March 1st, for the previous calendar year ending December 31, showing the financial condition of affairs at the office where such contracts are issued is in accordance with the standard of solvency provided for herein, and shall furnish such additional information and reports as may be required to show the total premiums or deposits collected, the total losses paid, the total amounts returned to subscribers, and the amounts retained for expenses. Such attorney shall not be required to furnish the name and address of any subscriber. The business affairs and assets of said reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges, as shown at the office of the attorney thereof, shall be subject to examination by such Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5031. Any corporation may exchange.—Any corporation now or hereafter organized under the laws of this State shall, in addition to the rights, powers and franchises specified in its articles of incorporation, have full power and authority to exchange insurance contracts of the kind and character herein mentioned. The right to exchange such contracts is hereby declared to be incidental to the purposes for which such corporations are organized and as much granted as the rights and powers expressly conferred. [Id.]

Art. 5032. Certificate of authority.—Each attorney by whom or through whom are issued any policies of or contracts for indemnity of the character referred to herein shall procure from the Commissioner annually a certificate of authority, stating that all of the requirements have been complied with, and upon such compliance and the payment of the fees required by this law, the Commissioner shall issue such certificate of authority. Such Commissioner may revoke or suspend any certificate of authority issued hereunder in case of breach of any condition imposed by this law after reasonable written notice has been given said attorney so that he may appear and show cause why action should not be taken. Any attorney who may have procured a certificate of authority hereunder shall renew same annually thereafter. Any certificate of authority shall continue in effect until the new certificate of authority be issued or specifically refused. Such attorney shall pay as a fee for the issuance of the certificate of authority herein provided for the sum of twenty dollars, which shall be in lieu of all license fees and taxes of whatsoever character in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5033. When insurance law applies.—Except as herein provided, no insurance law of this State shall apply to the exchange of such indemnity contracts unless they are specifically mentioned. [Id.]

[4943] [3086] Must publish certificate.—Every insurance company doing business in this State, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, shall publish annually, within thirty days after the issuance thereof, a certificate from the Commission that such company has in all respects complied with the laws in relation to insurance.

Art. 5035. [4946] [3082] Publication of notices.—Whenever, by any provision of this title, any notice or other matter is required to be published, it shall, unless otherwise provided, be published for three successive weeks in two newspapers printed in this State which have a general circulation in this State.

Art. 5036. [4967-4868-4944] Unlawful dividend.—No life, health, fire marine or inland insurance company, organized under the laws of this State, shall make any dividend except from the surplus profits arising from its business. In estimating such profits, there shall be reserved therefrom a sum equal to forty per cent of the amount received as premiums on unexpired fire risks and policies, and one hundred per cent of the premiums received on unexpired life, health, marine or inland transportation risks and policies, which amount so reserved is hereby declared to be unearned premiums. There shall also be reserved the amount of all unpaid losses, whether adjusted or unadjusted; all sums due the company on bonds, mortgages, stocks and book accounts, of which no part of the principal or the interest thereon has been paid during the year preceding such estimate of profits, and upon which suit for foreclosures or collections has not been commenced, or which after judgment has been obtained thereon shall have remained more than two years unsatisfied, and upon which interest shall not have been paid. In case of any such judgment, the interest due or accrued thereon and remaining unpaid shall also be reserved. Any dividend made contrary to the provisions of this article shall subject the company making it to a forfeiture of its charter, and the Commissioner shall forthwith revoke its certificate of authority. [Acts 1875, p. 36; G. L. vol. 8, p. 408.]

Art. 5037. Live stock, etc.—Fire, marine, life and live stock insurance companies may be organized under the provisions of this title. Such live stock insurance companies may be organized with an authorized and paid up capital stock of not less than ten thousand dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 292.]

Art. 5038. [4956] Extension of powers.—Corporations may be incorporated under the laws of this State to transact any one or more kinds of insurance business other than life, fire, marine, inland, lightning or tornado insurance business in the same manner, and by complying with the same requirements, as prescribed by law for the incorporation of life insurance companies. No such company shall be incorporated having the power to do a fidelity and surety business or a liability insurance business with a paid up capital stock of less than two hundred thousand dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5039. [4945] [3081] Association of companies.—In the event that any number of insurance companies, whether life, health, fire, marine or inland, should associate themselves together for the purpose of issuing or vending policies or joint policies of insurance, such association shall not be permitted to do business in this State until the taxes and fees due from each of said companies shall have been paid and all the conditions of the law fully complied with by each company; and any company failing or refusing to pay such taxes and fees, and to fully comply with the requirements of law, shall be refused permission by the Commissioner to do business in this State.

Art. 5040. What companies may consolidate.—Any two or more insurance companies doing a similar line of business which are and have been substantially owned by same controlling stockholders and which have never been companies actually competing with each other, and where all of them have been previously organized under the laws of this State, may unite or consolidate upon compliance with the terms of this law. Such consolidation shall not be effectuated in violation of the anti-trust and anti-monopoly laws of this State. Before any such consolidation shall take place the parties holding at least two-thirds of the capital stock of each of the companies shall vote in favor thereof at a separate meeting of the stockholders of each company called for such purpose. Such meeting may be called in the manner provided in the by-laws of the respective companies or the laws under which such companies are organized, for calling special meetings of stockholders, except that each stockholder shall be notified by mail of the time and place and object of such meeting. [Acts 1919, p. 97.]

Art. 5041. Consolidation.—Such companies proposing to consolidate may unite their assets or any part thereof and become incorporated in one body under the name of any one or more of such companies or under any other name that may be agreed upon, and issue stock in such corporation to the stock holders of each of the companies consolidated, the actual value of which stock in the new company shall bear the same proportion to the actual value of the stock surrendered by such stockholders as the entire assets of the company surrendering such stock bears to the entire assets of the new company, which value shall be agreed upon by the board of directors of each company; provided, that said stockholders (holding two-thirds of the stock) may at the meeting provided for in the preceding article, delegate the valuation of assets to a committee of stockholders appointed by their respective boards of directors; or

2. One company may take over all the assets of the other companies proposing to consolidate and issue stock to their stockholders in the proportion that the value of their stock bears to the entire value of the assets of the company in which they are stockholders, and for this purpose the capital stock of such purchasing company may be increased, as now or may be hereafter provided by law.

3. In case of consolidation under the first option provided in the first subdivision hereof, the Commissioner shall upon proof furnished of compliance with the terms hereof and being satisfied that the proposed consolidation is for the best interests of the policy holders of the respective companies and made in accordance with law, and upon the filing of articles of incorporation and other due proceedings had as required by the laws of this State, issue and deliver a charter to such new company.

4. Such consolidation shall work a dissolution of the companies absorbed, but shall in no wise prejudice the right of any creditor of any such corporation to have payment of his debt out of the assets and property thereof, nor shall any creditor be thereby deprived of, nor prejudiced in any right of action then pending or existing or which may thereafter arise against said company, and service or summons of the proper officers or agents of such new or reorganized corporation shall be deemed sufficient as to all or any of such companies.

5. All policies of insurance outstanding against all such companies shall by reason of such consolidation be assumed by the reorganized company, and they shall carry out the terms of such policy on the part of the insurer and be entitled to all the rights and privileges thereof and the reserves accumulating on such policy prior to such consolidation.

Art. 5042. [4957] Other laws for certain companies.—No provision of this chapter shall apply to companies carrying on the business of life or casualty insurance on the assessment or annual premium plan, under the provisions of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5043. [4947] Misrepresentation by policy holder.—Any provision in any contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State, which provides that the answers or statements made in the application for such contract or in the contract of insurance, if untrue or false, shall render the contract or policy void or voidable, shall be of no effect, and shall not constitute any defense to any suit brought upon such contract, unless it be shown upon the trial thereof that the matter or thing misrepresented was material to the risk or actually contributed to the contingency or event on which said policy became due and payable, and whether it was material and so contributed in any case shall be a question of fact to be determined by the court or jury trying such case. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5044. [4948] Notice of misrepresentation.—In all suits brought upon insurance contracts or policies hereafter issued or contracted for in this State, no defense based upon misrepresentations made in the applications for, or in obtaining or securing the said contract, shall be valid, unless the defendant shall show on the trial that, within a reasonable time after discovering the falsity of the representations so made, it gave notice to the assured, if living, or, if dead, to the owners or beneficiaries of said contract, that it refused to be bound by the contract or policy; provided, that ninety days shall be a reasonable time; provided, also, that this article shall not be construed as to render available as a defense any immaterial misrepresentation, nor to in any wise modify or affect Article 5043.

Art. 5045. [4959] Immaterial misrepresentation.—No recovery upon any life, accident or health insurance policy shall ever be defeated because of any misrepresentation in the application which is of an immaterial fact and which does not affect the risks assumed. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5046. [4949] Misrepresenting loss or death.—Any provision in any contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State, which provides that the same shall be void or voidable, if any misrepresentations or false statements be made in proofs of loss or of death, as the case may be, shall be of no effect, and shall not constitute any defense to any suit brought upon such contract or policy, unless it be shown upon the trial of such suit that the false statement made in such proofs of loss or death was fraudulently made, and misrepresented a fact material to the question of the liability of the insurance company upon the contract of insurance sued on, and that the insurance company was thereby misled, and caused to waive or lose some valid defense to the policy. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5047. Forfeiture of beneficiary's rights.—The interest of a beneficiary in a life insurance policy or contract heretofore or hereafter issued shall be forfeited when the beneficiary is the principal or an accomplice in willfully bringing about the death of the insured. When such is the case, the nearest relative of insured shall receive said insurance. [Acts 1919, p. 21.]

Art. 5048. Life insurance beneficiaries.—Any corporation, partnership, joint stock association or any trust estate doing business for profit, may be named beneficiary in any policy of insurance issued by a legal reserve life insurance company on the life of any officer or stockholder of said corporation, joint stock association or trust estate; or any partnership or member thereof may be the beneficiary in any policy of insurance issued by a legal reserve life insurance company upon the life of any member of said partnership; or any religious, educational, eleemosynary, charitable or benevolent institution or undertaking may be named beneficiary in any policy of life insurance issued by any legal reserve life insurance company upon the life of any individual. The beneficiaries aforementioned shall have an insurable interest for the full face of the policy and shall be entitled to collect same. On all policies of life insurance heretofore issued by legal reserve companies in which any of the aforementioned shall have been designated beneficiaries in the policies, said beneficiaries shall have an insurable interest to the full extent of the face of the policy and be entitled to collect same. [Acts 1921, p. 165.]

Art. 5049. [4951] Policies and applications.—Every contract or policy of insurance issued or contracted for in this State shall be accompanied by a written, photographic or printed copy of the application for such insurance policy or contract, as well as a copy of all questions asked and answers given thereto. The provisions of the foregoing articles shall not apply to policies of life insurance in which there is a clause making such policy indisputable after two years or less, provided premiums are duly paid; provided, further, that no defense based upon misrepresentation made in the application for, or in obtaining or securing, any contract of insurance upon the life of any person being or residing in this State shall be valid or enforceable in any suit brought upon such contract two years or more after the date of its issuance, when premiums due on such contract for the said term of two years have been paid to, and received by, the company issuing such contract, without notice to the assured by the company so issuing such contract of its intention to rescind the same on account of misrepresentation so made, unless it shall be shown on the trial that such misrepresentation was material to the risk and intentionally made. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5050. [4953] Policies to contain entire contract.—Every policy of insurance issued or delivered within this State by any life insurance company doing business within this State, shall contain the entire contract between the parties, and the application therefor may be made a part thereof. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5051. [4952] Level premium policies.—No level premium policy of life insurance shall be issued or sold by any company in this State which provides for more than one year preliminary term insurance. [Id.]

Art. 5052. [4958] Misrepresentation of policies.—No life insurance company doing business in this State, and no officer, director or agent thereof, shall issue or circulate, or cause or permit to be issued or circulated, any estimate, illustration, circular or statement of any sort misrepresenting the terms of any policy issued by it, or benefits or advantages to be promised thereby, or the dividends or share of surplus to be received thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5053. [4954] Discrimination.—No insurance company doing business in this State shall make or permit any distinction or discrimination in favor of individuals between the insured of the same class and of equal expectation of life in the amount of, or payment of, premiums or rates charged for policies of life or endowment insurance, or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon; nor shall any such company or agent thereof make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as expressed in the policy issued thereon; nor shall any such company, or any officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly, as an inducement to insurance, any rebate of premiums payable on the policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue thereon, or any paid employment or contract for service of any kind, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever not specified in the policy or contract of insurance; or give, sell or purchase, or offer to give, sell or purchase, as an inducement to insurance, or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits to accrue thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the policy, or issue any policy containing any special or board contract or similar provision, by the terms of which said policy will share or participate in any special fund derived from a tax or a charge against any portion of the premium on any other policy. Any company or agent violating the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as provided in the Penal Code; and the said company shall, as an additional penalty, forfeit its certificate of authority to do business in this State, and the said agent shall, as an additional penalty, forfeit his license to do business in this State for one year. The company shall not be held liable under this article for any act of its agent, unless such act was authorized by its president, one of its vice presidents, its secretary or an assistant secretary, or by its board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 5054. [4950] Texas laws govern policies.—Any contract of insurance payable to any citizen or inhabitant of this State by any insurance company or corporation doing business within this State shall be held to be a contract made and entered into under and by virtue of the laws of this State relating to insurance, and governed thereby, notwithstanding such policy or contract of insurance may provide that the contract was executed, and the premiums and policy (in case it becomes a demand) should be payable without this State, or at the home office of the company or corporation issuing the same. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5055. [4960] [3061] [2943] Certificate of authority.—It shall not be lawful for any person to act within this State, as agent or otherwise, in soliciting or receiving applications for insurance of any kind whatever, or in any manner to aid in the transaction of the business of any insurance company incorporated in this State or out of it, without first procuring a certificate of authority from the Commissioner.

Art. 5056. [4961] [3093] Who are agents.—Any person who solicits insurance on behalf of any insurance company, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State or foreign government, or who takes or transmits other than for himself any application for insurance or any policy of insurance to or from such company, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit the same, or who shall receive or deliver a policy of insurance of any such company, or who shall examine or inspect any risk, or receive, or collect, or transmit any premium of insurance, or make or forward any diagram of any building or buildings, or do or perform any other act or thing in the making or consummating of any contract of insurance for or with any such insurance company other than for himself, or who shall examine into, or adjust or aid in adjusting any loss for or on behalf of any such insurance company, whether any of such acts shall be done at the instance or request, or by the employment of such insurance company, or of, or by any broker or other person, shall be held to be the agent of the company for which the act is done, or the risk is taken, as far as relates to all the liabilities, duties, requirements and penalties set forth in this chapter. The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to citizens of this State who arbitrate in the adjustment of losses between the insurers and insured, nor to the adjustment of particular or general average losses of vessels or cargoes by marine adjusters who have paid an occupation tax of two hundred dollars for the year in which the adjustment is made nor to practicing attorneys at law in the State of Texas, acting in the regular transaction of their business as such attorneys at law, and who are not local agents, nor acting as adjusters for any insurance company. Any person who shall do any of the acts mentioned in this article for or on behalf of any insurance company without such company having first complied with the requirements of the laws of this State, shall be personally liable to the holder of any policy of insurance in respect of which such act was done for any loss covered by the same. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 32.]

Art. 5057. [4962] [3094] Assessment of taxes.—Whenever any person shall do or perform within this State any of the acts mentioned in the preceding article for or on behalf of any insurance company therein referred to, such company shall be held to be doing business in this State, and shall be subject to the same taxes, State, county and municipal, as insurance companies that have been legally qualified and admitted to do business in this State by agents or otherwise are subject, the same to be assessed and collected as taxes are assessed and collected against such companies; and such persons so doing or performing any of such acts or things shall be personally liable for such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 5057a. Tax assessment of fire and casualty companies.—That Fire Insurance Companies and Casualty Companies incorporated under the laws of this State shall hereafter be required to render for State, County and Municipal taxation all of their real estate as other real estate is rendered. All personal property of such insurance companies shall be valued as other property is valued for assessment in this State in the following manner: From the total valuation of their assets shall be deducted the reserve and from the remainder shall be deducted the assessed value of all real estate owned by such companies and the remainder shall be the taxable personal property of such companies, to be assessed as other property. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 269, ch. 190, § 1.]

Art. 5058. [4963] Resident agents.—Any fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety, or fidelity insurance company, legally authorized to do business in this State, is hereby prohibited from authorizing or allowing any person, agent, firm or corporation that is a nonresident of the State of Texas to issue, or cause to be issued, to sign or countersign, or to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any policy or policies of insurance on property, person or persons located in this State, except through regularly commissioned and licensed agents of such companies in Texas. This law shall not apply to property owned by the railroad companies or other common carriers. Upon oath made in writing by any person that he can not procure insurance on property through such agents in Texas, it shall be lawful for any insurance company not having an agent in Texas to insure property of any person upon application of said person, upon his filing said oath with the county clerk of the county in which such person resides. [Acts 1903, p. 232.]

Art. 5059. [4964] Affidavit of company.—Before a certificate or license to any fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company is issued authorizing it to transact business in this State, the Commissioner shall require in every case, in addition to the other requirements already made and provided by the law, that each such insurance company shall file with him an affidavit that it has not violated any provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5060. [4965] Commissions to non-residents.—Any person, agent, firm or corporation licensed by the Commissioner to act as a fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent in the State of Texas, is hereby prohibited from paying, directly or indirectly, any commission, brokerage or other valuable consideration on account of any policy or policies covering property, person or persons, in this State, to any person, persons, agent, firm or corporation that is a non-resident of this State, or to any person or persons, agent, firm or corporation not duly licensed by the Commissioner of Insurance of this State as a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent. [Id.]

Art. 5061. [4967] Commissioner may examine.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized and it is made his duty, at the expense of the company investigated, to examine at the head office, located within the United States of America, all books, records and papers of such company and also any officers or employees thereof under oath, as to violations of this law, and he is further empowered to examine person or persons, administer oaths, and send for papers and records, and failure or refusal upon the part of any life, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company, person or persons, agent, firm or corporation, licensed to do business in the State of Texas, to appear before the Commissioner when requested to do so, or to produce records and papers, or answer under oath, shall subject such fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company, person, persons, agent, firm or corporation to the penalties of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5062. [4966] Penalty for violation.—Whenever the Commissioner shall have or receive notice or information of any violation of any provision of this law, he shall immediately investigate, or cause to be investigated, such violation, and if a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance company has violated any of such provisions, he shall immediately revoke its license for not less than three months, nor more than six months for the first offense, and, for each offense thereafter, for not less than one year; and, if any person, agent, firm or corporation licensed by such Commissioner as a fire, fire and marine, marine, tornado, rent, accident, casualty, liability, health, elevator, disability, plate glass, burglary, bonding, title, surety or fidelity insurance agent shall violate or cause to be violated any provision of this law, he shall, for the first offense, have his license revoked for all companies for which he has been licensed, for not less than three months, and for the second offense he shall have his license revoked for all companies for which he is licensed and shall not thereafter be licensed for any company for one year from date of such revocation. [Id.]

ficiary and the company issuing any policy upon such application be regarded as the agent of the company, and not the agent of the insured, but such agent shall not have the power to waive, change or alter any of the terms or conditions of the application or policy. [Acts 1909, p. 192.]

Art. 5064. [4969] Who may not be agents.—No corporation or stock company shall be licensed or granted a certificate of authority as the agent or representative of any life insurance company in soliciting, selling or in any manner placing life insurance policies or contracts in the State. No life insurance company shall be granted a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, which has or is bound by any valid subsisting contract with any other corporation, by virtue of which such other corporation is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, any percentage or portion of the premium or other income of such life insurance company for any period. No person shall be granted a certificate of authority as the agent of any life insurance company who enters into any contract with any corporation other than such life insurance company, by virtue of which such other corporation is entitled to receive, directly or indirectly, any compensation earned by him as agent for such life insurance company, or any percentage or portion thereof for any period. [Id.]

Art. 5065. [4970] Certificates for agents.—Each such foreign insurance company shall, by resolution of its board of directors, designate some officer or agent who is empowered to appoint or employ its agents or solicitors in this State, and such officer or agent shall promptly notify the Commissioner in writing of the name, title and address of each person so appointed or employed. Upon receipt of this notice, if such person is of good reputation and character, the Commissioner shall issue to him a certificate which shall include a copy of the certificate of authority authorizing the company requesting it to do business in this State, and the name and title of the person to whom the certificate is issued. Such certificate, unless sooner revoked by the Commissioner for cause or canceled at the request of the company employing the holder thereof, shall continue in force until the first day of March next after its issuance, and must be renewed annually. [Id.]

Art. 5066. [4971] Revocation of agent's certificate.—Cause for the revocation of the certificate of authority of an agent or solicitor for an insurance company may exist for violation of any of the insurance laws, or if it shall appear to the Commissioner upon due proof, after notice that such agent or solicitor has knowingly deceived or defrauded a policy holder or a person having been solicited for insurance, or that such agent or solicitor has unreasonably failed and neglected to pay over to the company, or its agent entitled thereto, any premium or part thereof, collected by him on any policy of insurance or application therefor. The Commissioner shall publish such revocation in such manner as he deems proper for the protection of the public; and no person whose certificate of authority as agent or solicitor has been revoked shall be entitled to again receive a certificate of authority as such agent or solicitor for any insurance company in this State for a period of one year. [Id.]

Art. 5067. [4508] [3060] Revocation of certificate of authority.—Should any insurance company fail or neglect to pay off and discharge any execution, issued upon a valid final judgment against said company, within thirty days after the notice of the issuance thereof, then in that event the certificate of authority of said company to transact business of insurance shall be revoked, canceled and annulled, and said company shall be prohibited from transacting business of insurance in this State until said execution be satisfied. [Acts 1879, p. 159.]

Art. 5068. [4972] Foreign insurance corporations.—The provisions of this title are conditioned [conditions] upon which foreign insurance corporations shall be permitted to do business within this State, and any such foreign corporation engaged in issuing contracts or policies within this State shall be held to have assented thereto as a condition precedent to its right to engage in such business within this State. [Acts 1903, p. 94.]

Art. 5068a. Exemption of insurance benefits from seizure under process.—Sec. 1. No money or benefits of any kind to be paid or rendered on a weekly, monthly or other periodic or installment basis to the insured or any beneficiary under any policy of insurance issued by a life, health or accident insurance company, including mutual and fraternal insurance, or under any plan or program of annuities and benefits in use by any employer, shall be liable to execution, attachment, garnishment or other process or be seized, taken or appropriated or applied by any legal or equitable process or operation of law to pay any debt or liability of the insured or of any beneficiary, either before or after said money or benefits is or are paid or rendered, except for premiums payable on such policy or a debt of the insured secured by a pledge thereof.

Sec. 2. Wherever any policy of insurance or plan or program of annuities and benefits mentioned in Section 1 of this Act shall contain a provision against assignment or commutation by any beneficiary thereunder of the money or benefits to be paid or rendered thereunder, or any rights therein, any assignment or commutation or any attempted assignment or commutation by such beneficiary of such money or benefits or rights in violation of such provision shall be wholly void. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 348, ch. 234.]

INTEREST

Art.

- 5069. Definitions.
- 5070. Legal rate applicable.
- 5071. Limit on rate.
- 5072. Rate on judgments.
- 5073. Action on usurious rate.
- 5074. Usury, how pleaded.

Article 5069. [4973–4974–4975] Definitions.—“Interest” is the compensation allowed by law or fixed by the parties to a contract for the use or forbearance or detention of money: “legal interest” is that interest which is allowed by law when the parties to a contract have not agreed upon any particular rate of interest; and “conventional interest” is that interest which is agreed upon and fixed by the parties to a written contract, not to exceed ten per cent per annum. “Usury” is interest in excess of the amount allowed by law; all contracts for usury are contrary to public policy and shall be void.

Art. 5070. [4977–4978] Legal rate applicable.—When no specified rate of interest is agreed upon by the parties, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be allowed on all written contracts ascertaining the sum payable, from and after the time when the sum is due and payable; and on all open accounts, from the first day of January after the same are made. [Acts 1892, p. 4; G. L. vol. 10, p. 368.]

Art. 5071. [4979–4980] Limit on rate.—The parties to any written contract may agree to and stipulate for any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent per annum on the amount of the contract; and all written contracts whatsoever, which may in any way, directly or indirectly, provide for a greater rate of interest shall be void and of no effect for the amount or value of the interest only; but the principal sum of money or value of the contract may be received and recovered. [Id.]

Art. 5072. [4981] Rate on judgments.—All judgments of the courts of this State shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from and after the date of the judgment, except where the contract upon which the judgment is founded bears a specified interest greater than six per cent per annum and not exceeding ten per cent per annum, in which case the judgment shall bear the same rate of interest specified in such contract and after the date of such judgment. [Id.]

Art. 5073. [4982] Action on usurious rate.—Within two years after the time that a greater rate of interest than ten per cent shall have been received or collected upon any contract, the person paying the same or his legal representative may by an action of debt recover double the amount of such interest from the person, firm or corporation receiving the same. Such action shall be instituted in any court of this State having jurisdiction thereof, in the county of the defendant's residence, or in the county where such usurious interest shall have been received or collected, or where said contract has been entered into, or where the parties who paid the usurious interest resided when such contract was made. [Acts 1907, p. 277.]

Art. 5074. [4983] Usury, how pleaded.—No evidence of usurious interest as a defense shall be received on the trial of any case, unless the same shall be specially pleaded and verified by the affidavit of the party wishing to avail himself of such defense. [Acts 1876, p. 228; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1064.]

manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, or furnish spirituous, vinous or malt liquors or medicated bitters, or any potable liquor, mixture or preparation containing in excess of one per cent of alcohol by volume, or to possess, receive, manufacture, or knowingly sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, or furnish any equipment, still, mash, material, supplies, device, or other thing for manufacturing, selling, bartering, exchanging, transporting, exporting, delivering, taking orders for, or furnishing any such liquors, intoxicants or beverages. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 233, Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5077. Exceptions as to intoxicating liquor.

—It shall not be unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, barter, exchange, transport, export, deliver, take orders for, furnish, possess or receive for the purpose of sale, barter, exchange, transport, export, or deliver spirituous, vinous, or malt liquors or medicated bitters for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, or sacramental purposes. [Acts Sept. 3, 1921, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 234.]

Art. 5078. Exceptions as to other liquor.—The manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, transportation, exporting, taking orders for, furnishing, and possessing of any of the liquors mentioned in this title, if done for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, or sacramental purposes, shall not be punishable under the terms of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5079. Not an accomplice witness.—Upon a trial for a violation of any provision of this title, the purchaser, transporter, or possessor of any of the liquors prohibited herein shall not be held in law or in fact to be an accomplice, when a witness in any such trial. [Id.]

Art. 5080. Possession prima facie evidence.—Whenever possession or receipt, or possession or receipt for the purpose of sale, is made unlawful by law, proof of possession of mash, or of a still or any device for manufacturing intoxicating liquors, or proof of the possession of more than one quart of intoxicating liquors, shall be prima facie evidence of guilt; but the defendant shall have the right to introduce evidence showing the legality of such possession. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5081. "Intoxicating liquors" defined.—The words "intoxicating liquors," or "liquors" hereafter used in this title shall be held to include and comprehend all liquors referred to in the first and second articles of this chapter, and the said liquors prohibited by said articles will hereafter be referred to herein for convenience as "intoxicating liquors." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5082. Liquors included.—The various liquors described in the first two articles of this title shall be construed to include all distilled, malt, spirituous, vinous, fermented or alcoholic liquors and all alcoholic liquids and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called, which require a federal tax as a beverage, or which contain more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medical properties of the drug contained in such preparation and to hold the medicinal agents in solution and preserve the same. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5083. Lawful use.—The provisions of this title shall not prohibit the possession of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes for use by the owner and members of his family, or bona fide guests, in a bona fide residence, if such liquors were purchased and deposited in such residence before this law goes into effect. Nothing in this title shall prohibit the manufacture, transportation, storage, and sale of denatured or pure ethyl [ethyl] alcohol, or denatured rum for use only in the industrial or mechanical arts or for scientific purposes or in chemical laboratories or hospitals, or to prevent the manufacture, transportation, sale and keeping and storing for sale any medical preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States Pharmacopeia or National Formulary or American Institute of Homeopathy, or of alcoholic, patent or proprietary medicines which do not require the payment of the Federal Tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drug contained in such preparation, and to hold the medicinal agents in solution, and to preserve the same and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, or to prevent the manufacture and sale of bona fide alcohol toilet, or antiseptic preparations and solutions or flavoring extracts which do not require the payment of Federal tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary for the extraction, solution and preservation of the agents contained therein, and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, and upon the outside of the bottle or package of each is printed in English conspicuously and legibly and clearly the quantity by volume of alcohol in such preparation. The manufacturer of flavoring extracts or toilet, medicinal, antiseptic preparations or solutions, patent or proprietary medicines, or preparations permitted to be manufactured by this law shall be permitted to purchase, possess, transport and store alcohol necessary for the manufacture of said article, but not to be sold or given away. Such manufacturer shall secure a permit from the Comptroller and shall make a monthly report to be filed with the Comptroller on or before the 10th day of each month, showing the name and quantity of every such preparation, solution or medicine so manufactured, and the percentage of alcohol contained in each such preparation, solution or medicine. Said manufacturer shall, upon request of the Attorney General, the Comptroller, or the District or County Attorney of the county in which such manufacturer has his place of business, furnish to the officer making such request any information called for by such officer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of any such alcoholic preparation, solution or medicine, and any information with reference to the quantities and dates of sale and transportation of any such preparation, solution or medicine to any person or persons designated in such request. Any of the officers herein above named shall have the right at any reasonable time within business hours to examine the books and records and all data in the possession of such manufacturer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of such alcoholic preparations. Nothing herein shall prevent the storage in United States bonded warehouses in the custody of a United States collector of internal revenue of all liquors manufactured prior to the taking effect of this law or to prevent the transportation of such liquors for purposes not inhibited by law. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5084. Permit to sell or make.—Alcohol for non-beverage purposes and wine for sacramental purposes may be manufactured and sold as follows:

The Comptroller may issue permits to persons, to manufacture and sell equipment for the manufacture of liquor not prohibited herein; to manufacture alcohol and wine; to manufacture alcoholic, patent or proprietary medicine, flavoring extracts and culinary preparations and other nonbeverage alcoholic preparation; to wholesale and retail druggists or pharmacists and to persons permitted to possess alcohol and wine for authorized purposes. Such permits shall not be in conflict with the prohibitions contained herein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5085. Bond.—A permit shall not be issued by the Comptroller to any person who has, within two years next preceding the issuing of the same, been adjudged guilty of violating any provision of this Act, or of any permit, or of any law of this State, or of the United States, prohibiting or regulating the liquor traffic; nor shall a permit be issued for the purpose of selling such liquor at retail, unless such sale be made by a pharmacist designated in the permit and duly licensed by the State Board of Pharmacy, nor until a bond shall be given and approved, and the applicant has filed written application therefor setting forth the qualifications and the purposes for which the permit will be used, together with such other information as the Comptroller may require. The bond herein required of a retailer shall be made payable to the Governor of this State at Austin, in Travis County, shall be in the sum of one thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful observance of this Act; the bond shall be upon such form as may be drawn and prescribed by the Attorney General and for any breach of the same, suit may be brought in the District Court of Travis County to recover the entire amount of same as a penalty for such violation of the law and breach of the bond. Said bond, if signed by personal sureties, must be signed by two solvent sureties, or, if by a surety company, then by a surety company authorized to transact business in the State of Texas. The bond shall be subject to the approval of the Comptroller and shall be filed in his office. The Attorney General shall bring all actions for breach of said bond in the name of the State. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5086. No permit for sacramental wine.—Such permit when issued shall contain date of issue, shall be in writing, signed by the Comptroller, shall name and give the address of the person to whom issued, give location where such liquors, equipment or material is to be manufactured, kept, stored or sold, and fix the maximum quantity of such liquor permitted to be kept or stored and specifically designate and limit the acts permitted, give the name and address of all individuals authorized to do the permitted acts; provided the name and address of the agents, employes and servants of common carriers [carriers] may be omitted by the Comptroller from such permit, and such permit shall expire on the 31st day of December next succeeding the date of issue thereof. Nothing herein shall be construed as requiring any priest, rabbi or minister of any religious denomination or sect to have a permit in order to purchase or receive shipments of wine for sacramental purposes; and nothing in this title shall make it unlawful for any priest, rabbi or minister or [of] any religious denomination or sect to purchase, order or receive, wine for sacramental purposes or for any common carrier to ship, transport, carry or deliver same to any priest, rabbi or minister of any religious denomination or sect for sacramental purposes only. Where such shipment or purchase is made a record thereof shall be made and kept and the priest, rabbi or minister making such purchase or shipment shall be identified. Such quantities of wine may be purchased and kept on hand for sacramental purposes as may be necessary for the particular church or religious institution for the use and service of which same is purchased or shipped. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, Acts 1919, p. 231.]

Art. 5087. Attach label to container.—All persons manufacturing alcohol or wine, or either, shall securely and permanently attach to any container of such liquor as the same is manufactured, and thereafter, persons possessing such liquor in wholesale quantities shall securely keep and maintain thereon, a manufacturer's label, stating name of manufacturer, kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, with a copy of the permit authorizing the manufacture thereof. Every person having in his possession any intoxicating liquor, purchased after this law becomes effective, for permitted purposes, shall have pasted on or permanently attached to the container a copy of the prescription or affidavit as the case may be, upon which authority it was purchased as is provided for in this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5088. Record of manufacturer.—All persons authorized to manufacture alcohol shall keep a separate record of such liquors manufactured or sold, giving date and quantity of such liquor manufactured and sold, the quantity of such liquor on hand, name and address of persons to whom such liquor was sold, the name and address of all agents in any way connected with such manufacture, sale, or purchase, or the keeping, storing, delivering, consigning, and distribution of such liquor, the name and address of all common, or other carriers, receiving, transporting, and delivering said liquor, and a copy of the application on which the purchase or sale of such liquor was made, and a detailed account of the dispositions of such liquor. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller every third month by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232].

Art. 5089. Sale by wholesale druggists.—It shall be unlawful for a wholesale druggist to sell alcohol or wine, except in wholesale quantities, to persons having permits to purchase in such quantities. Such wholesale druggist shall keep an accurate record of all sales and label the containers of such liquor, setting forth the kind of liquor contained therein, by whom manufactured, and the person to whom sold. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller every third month by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. It shall be unlawful for a retail druggist or pharmacist to sell any liquor except alcohol for non-beverage purposes or wine for sacramental purposes. Such druggist or pharmacist shall keep a record giving the name of the doctor issuing the prescriptions containing alcohol, the amount, date of sales, the name and signature of the purchaser, the person making the sale, and a copy of the prescription. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5090. Duty of physician prescribing.—Every physician who issues a prescription for ethyl alcohol, or any alcoholic liquor, shall first secure a permit from the Comptroller, except as herein provided, and shall keep a record alphabetically arranged in a separate book provided by the Comptroller, which shall show: Date, amount, to whom issued, directions for use (stating the amount and frequency of dose), and the druggist to whom addressed. Such physician shall send a copy of such record to the Comptroller not later than the fifth day of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5091. Physician to obey law.—A physician who issues prescriptions must be in active practice, in good standing with his profession, not addicted to the use of any narcotic drug, and have a permit as provided herein for issuing prescriptions. Such physician before issuing any prescriptions must make a careful personal, physical examination of the person to whom the alcohol is prescribed, and in no case issue such prescription to any person whom he has reason to believe will use alcohol for beverage purposes, nor prescribe more than a pint of alcohol to any person at a time. Nor shall such prescriptions be filed at any pharmacy or drugstore in which the physician has any financial interest. For any shift or device by which intoxicating liquors may be improperly prescribed, or for any violation of this article, in addition to the penalty prescribed, for the first offense under this title, the Comptroller may suspend the permit of such physician to issue prescriptions for alcohol for a period of one year, and for the second offense, in addition to the punishment prescribed herein, the permit of such physician shall be deemed revoked forthwith. The revocation of such permit, if revoked by the court, shall be sent to the authority granting the permit and shall act as a ban to the granting of any further permit to such physician to issue prescriptions. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5092. Carrier to secure permit.—Every railroad company, express company, or other common carrier that transports any liquor shall secure first a permit from the Comptroller and keep correctly at the place of receipt for shipment, in typewriting or in a clear and legible hand, that the same may be easily read, a permanent alphabetically arranged record of the receipt of such liquors and the name and post-office address, street address, or other description of domicile of the consignor and consignee, and the place of delivery. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the transportation of liquor for other than permitted purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5093. Delivery by carrier.—Common carriers may deliver liquor to persons who have permits to manufacture or possess the same in wholesale quantities, upon the presentation of a verified copy of the permits from the Comptroller, and affidavit to the carrier that such liquor will not be used in violation of the law; and the common carrier may also receive for shipment, and ship and deliver, liquor to persons for the uses permitted herein when affidavit is presented to the carrier that such liquor will not be used in violation of the law. The copy of the record hereinbefore mentioned shall be sent by the transportation company to the Comptroller of the State where the delivery was made, not later than the 10th day of the month for the quarter next preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5094. Record of carrier.—The record to be kept by the transportation company at the place of delivery shall show: Name of consignor, consignee, kind of liquor and quantity; the number of permit from the Comptroller; and the signature of the consignee. The affidavits of the consignee to be attached to the above record shall be as follows:

State of _____ } County of _____ } ss

_____ being duly sworn, deposes and says, that my address is _____ (or other definite description, giving street number or hotel); I am not a minor, nor of intemperate habits. I am the owner of a package in the office of a common carrier, to wit: _____. It contains (giving amount and kind of liquor) _____ which I have ordered in writing the _____ day of _____ upon the authority of permit No. _____; that the purpose for which I ordered such liquor is _____; that I have not received from any carrier or any person, nor have I had in my control at any place or places, more than _____ (amount) of alcohol or wine within the last three days preceding this date, and I do not have liquor on hand except _____; that I will not use any of such liquor nor allow anyone else to use such liquor for beverage purposes or for purposes other than herein stated.

Sworn to and subscribed in my presence _____ day of _____, 19____.

The agent of the common carrier is hereby authorized to administer the oath to the foregoing consignee, who, if not personally known to the agent, shall first be identified before the delivery of the liquor to him. The names and addresses of the person identifying the consignee shall be included in the record. The affidavit shall be made in the form prescribed, in a permanent record, and if such permanent record has not been furnished the carrier by the Comptroller, after application for the same, then the affidavit of the consignee shall be pasted or permanently attached at the bottom of the record mentioned therein and a copy attached permanently to the container of such liquor. If such container is enclosed in a package with other material, then such copy shall be attached to it or pasted on it when it is taken from such package and before the liquor is so delivered. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 234.]

Art. 5095. Comptroller to furnish form.—The Comptroller shall have printed forms of records, affidavits, and prescriptions, as provided herein, and shall furnish the same at cost to only such persons as are authorized by law to sell, transport, purchase, manufacture or use alcohol. The affidavits or prescriptions to be filed with the druggist shall be printed in book form, numbering such affidavit with a consecutive serial number from one to one hundred. Each book shall be given a number, and a stub in each book shall carry the same number as the affidavit or prescription, showing the copy of the record of such sale. The book containing such stub shall be returned to the Comptroller when the affidavits or prescriptions are used, or not later than six months from the date that such book or affidavits and prescriptions were delivered to such druggist or physician. All unused, mutilated, or defaced blanks shall be returned with the book. No druggist or physician shall make such sale or issue such prescriptions, except on blanks herein provided. The form of such record shall be prescribed by the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall charge a fee of five dollars for each and every character of permit issued by him under this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5096. Pharmacist cited for violation.—If at any time there shall be filed with the Comptroller a complaint under oath setting forth that any pharmacist, who has a permit to sell alcohol for medical, mechanical, or scientific purposes, or wine for sacramental purposes, is not in good faith conforming to the provisions of this chapter, or is guilty of violating this law, the Comptroller or his agent shall immediately issue an order citing such pharmacist to appear at a place in the State where he resides before the Comptroller, on a day named not more than thirty days, nor fewer than fifteen days, from the issuing of such order, at which time the question of the cancellation of such permit shall be heard. If it be found that such pharmacist is guilty of violating any provision of this law, such permit shall be revoked and no permit shall be granted to such person, firm, or corporation for two years thereafter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5097. Fixing place of sale—Venne.—In case of a sale where a shipment or delivery of such intoxicating liquor is made by a common or other carrier the sale or delivery thereof shall be deemed to be made in the county wherein the delivery is made by such carrier to the consignee, his agent, or employees. A prosecution for such sale or delivery may likewise be had in the county wherein the sale is made or from which the shipment is made, or in any county through which the shipment is made. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5098. Advertising liquor.—It shall be unlawful to advertise anywhere, on land or water, by any means or method, intoxicating liquors, or to advertise the manufacture, method of manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing of the same, or where, how, from whom and at what price the same may be obtained. The manufacturer of alcohol or wine and wholesale druggists having a permit under this chapter shall be allowed to send price lists to those to whom they are permitted to sell alcohol or wine under this law; it shall also be unlawful to permit any sign or billboard containing such prohibited advertisement to remain upon one's premises or to circulate any prohibited price list, order blank or other matter designed to induce or secure orders for such intoxicating liquors. The officers charged with the enforcement of this law are authorized to remove, paint over or otherwise obliterate any such advertisement from any sign, billboard, or other place when it comes to his notice, and shall do so upon the demand of any citizen who has first requested the person in charge of such advertisement, or the owner of the property on which it is located to remove the same and such person fails to remove such advertisement as required by law. Any advertisement or notice containing the picture of a brewery, distillery, bottle, keg, barrel, or box or other receptacle represented as containing intoxicating liquors, or designed to serve as an advertisement thereof, shall be within the inhibition of this article. It shall be unlawful for any newspaper or periodical to print in its columns statement concerning the manufacture or distribution of alcoholic liquors directly or indirectly, for which the said newspaper or periodical receives compensation of any kind, without printing at the beginning and at the close of said statement in type of the same size used in the body of the said article the following statement: "Printed as paid advertising." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 5099. Liquor places to clean up.—Every person except licensed pharmacists, wholesale druggists, manufacturing chemists, or hospitals or other places provided for herein to legally possess liquor, shall remove, or cause to be removed, all intoxicating liquors in his possession for prohibited purposes, and failure to do so shall be evidence that such liquor is kept therein for the purpose of being sold, bartered, exchanged, given away, furnished or otherwise disposed of in violation of the provisions of this title. All screens, stained glass, or other obstructions which prevent a clear view of the interior of any room or place where intoxicating liquors were sold as a beverage within one year before this Act becomes operative shall be removed or changed so as to give a permanent unobstructed view of the interior of said room or place, if beverages of any kind are sold therein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 5100. Recipe or formula.—It shall be unlawful to advertise, sell, deliver or possess any preparation, compound, or table from which intoxicating liquor as a beverage is made, or any formula, directions, or recipes for making intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 5101. Concealing nature of shipment.—No person shall use or induce any railroad company, express company, or any other carrier, or any servant or employé thereof, or any person or persons, to carry[,] transport, or ship any package or receptacle containing liquors without notifying the carrier, its servant or agent, or any person who carries the same, of the true nature and character of the shipment. But failure to notify such carrier shall not be a defense for illegal transportation. [Id.]

Art. 5102. Soliciting or giving information.—No person shall solicit, or receive from any person for the purpose of forwarding for the person from whom received, any orders for intoxicating liquors from any person, or give any information how such prohibited liquors may be received, or where such liquors are, or send for such liquors, except for the purposes permitted by this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5103. Order to carrier to deliver.—It shall be unlawful to give to any carrier, or any officer, agent or person acting or assuming to act for such carrier, an order requiring the delivery to any person of any liquor or package containing liquors consigned to a person when the purpose of the order is to enable any person not an actual bona fide consignee to obtain such liquors. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5104. Information on shipped container.—No person shall transport liquor or receive or possess any liquor from a common or other carrier unless there appears on the outside of the package containing such liquors the following information: Name and address of the consignor or seller, name and address of the consignee or persons receiving the liquor; kind and quantity of liquor contained therein and number of permit. Any consignee accepting or receiving any package containing any such liquors upon which appears a false statement, or any person consigning, shipping, transporting, or delivering any such package, knowing that such statement appearing on the outside is false, shall be deemed guilty of violating the provisions of this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5105. No property right in liquor.—No property rights of any kind shall exist in any intoxicating liquors manufactured or sold or kept for sale for beverage purposes in violation of law, and in all such cases the same may be searched for, seized and ordered to be destroyed. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 5106. To rent or keep for unlawful purpose.—No person shall rent to another or keep or be in any way interested in keeping any premises, building, room, boat or place to be used for the purpose of storing, manufacturing, selling, transporting, receiving or delivering, or bartering or giving away intoxicating liquors in violation of this title, and any one who knowingly does so shall be guilty of violating this law and shall be punished accordingly as provided in the penal article of this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5107. Nuisance.—Any room, house, building, boat, structure, or place of any kind similar or dissimilar to those named, where intoxicating liquor is kept, possessed, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or be transported to or transported from in violation of law, and all intoxicating liquors and all property kept in and used in maintaining such place are hereby declared to be a common nuisance and any person who maintains or assists in maintaining such common nuisance shall be guilty of violating this law and shall be punished accordingly. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5108. May enjoin nuisance.—The Attorney General or County or District Attorney of the county where such nuisance, as defined in the preceding article exists or is kept or maintained, may maintain an action in the name of the State of Texas to abate and perpetually enjoin such nuisance and upon judgment of the court ordering, such nuisance shall be abated, all intoxicating liquor, containers, utensils and instrumentalities used in the maintenance of such nuisance shall be ordered by the court to be destroyed, same shall be destroyed by any officer authorized to execute civil process; the court shall also order that the place where said nuisance is kept or maintained be closed for one year or until the owner, lessee, tenant or occupant thereof shall file bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court making the order in the penal sum of $1,000.00, payable to the State of Texas, at Austin, Texas, and conditioned that intoxicating liquor will not thereafter be manufactured, sold, bartered, stored, transported to or from, or given away in violation of law. In case of the violation of any condition of such bond, the whole sum may be recovered as a penalty in the name and for the State of Texas in the District Courts of Travis County, all suits to be brought by the Attorney General. In all cases where any person has been convicted of a violation of the provisions of this title for acts done in keeping or maintaining the nuisance defined in the preceding article, and such conviction has been final, then a certified copy of such judgment of conviction shall be considered as prima facie evidence of the existence of such nuisance in any action to abate the same. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 5109. Penal article.—Any corporation violating any provision of this title shall be subject to a penalty in favor of the State of Texas, which shall be recoverable in an action in the name of the State to be brought by the Attorney General in any district court of Travis County or such action may be brought in the district court of any county where the offense is committed, by the Attorney General or by the county or district attorney of such county with the consent and approval of the Attorney General. In any such action for penalties, the State shall recover the sum of Five Hundred Dollars for any violation of the law, provided that each separate violation of the law shall be considered a separate offense within the terms of this article, or where the offense is of a continuing character, then each day shall be considered a separate infraction of the law, for which the penalty may be recovered. The officers, agents or servants of any corporation against which any such penalty suit may be brought shall not be excused from testifying on the ground that their testimony might incriminate them, but where they are called upon by the State to testify and do testify they shall not be prosecuted for their participation in those acts about which they have testified. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 239.]

Art. 5110. Violating injunction.—In addition to all other remedies now provided by law and provided in this Act, the Attorney General is hereby authorized to enjoin the violation of any article of this title, and suit therefor may be maintained in the name of the State of Texas in any District Court in Travis County. The district or county attorney of any county, wherein any of the provisions of this Act, are violated, is authorized to institute and maintain, in the district court of any such county, a suit in the name of the State to enjoin and prevent the violation of any article of this title. This remedy by an injunction given in this article shall be cumulative of and in addition to the other provisions of this Act providing penalties or creating and defining crimes and punishments, and may be maintained with or without prosections or penalty suits herein otherwise provided for. Any person violating the terms of any injunction issued under the provisions of this article shall be punished for contempt by fine of not less than One Hundred nor more than Five Hundred Dollars, and by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days, nor more than six months. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 240.]

Art. 5111. Witness shall testify.—No person shall be excused from testifying against persons who have violated any provisions of this title for the reason that such testimony will tend to incriminate him, but no person required to so testify shall be punished for acts disclosed by such testimony. [Id.]

Art. 5112. Seizure.—Any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquor as defined in this title is declared to be a public nuisance; and any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used in the presence and view of any peace officer of this State for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquors as so defined, or for the commission of any act made unlawful by this Act, shall be seized without warrant by such peace officer, which officer shall within twenty-four hours after such seizure file with the county clerk a detailed statement of the time when, the place where and the circumstances under which he seized such property, and shall appraise the value thereof. At any time before the trial of the condemnation suit herein provided for, the owner of said property seized or the person in whose possession or under whose control the same was at the time of seizure, may replevy the same by giving bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, or a solvent guaranty or surety company, chartered or authorized to do business under the laws of this State, to be approved by the officer making the seizure or by his successor in office, payable to the State of Texas in an amount equal to the reasonable market value of the property replevied as fixed by the appraisal of said officer seizing same, conditioned that should said property in said action be condemned as a nuisance, the obligors in such bond will pay to the State of Texas the reasonable cash market value of the property replevied at the time it was seized, and all costs. In the event the property seized is not replevied, same shall be stored in a bonded warehouse, provided that if there is not a bonded warehouse in the county where such property is seized and within reasonable reach of the officer seizing same, then such property shall under the direction of the district judge having jurisdiction of said suit be stored in a safe place and be safely kept in good condition, to abide the final judgment of the proper court with reference thereto, the fees for storage to be taxed as costs in any proceeding for the condemnation or recovery of said property. The county or district attorney shall after the seizure of said property institute suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to condemn the same as a public nuisance, and to have the same destroyed if the same is not valuable or useful for some legitimate purpose, and if valuable or useful for some legitimate purpose to be sold under order of said court, and the proceeds of such sale shall be immediately paid into the State Treasury. In cases where the property is destroyed the county or district attorney shall receive fifteen dollars in each case, and the sheriff or other officer making the seizure and sale shall receive ten dollars, to be paid by the county in which said condemnation suit is tried. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 5113. "Person" includes corporation.—The word "person" as used in this Act shall be held to include both natural persons and corporations. Where the offense is committed by a corporation, the corporation shall be subject to the penalties prescribed in this title. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 5114. Disposition of intoxicating liquors.—In all cases where intoxicating liquors or any personal property used for the purpose of violating any of the intoxicating liquor laws of this State, shall be seized by an officer with or without a search warrant, such officer shall immediately make a written report thereof, which report shall in detail state the name of the officer making the seizure, the place where seized and an inventory of the property, articles or intoxicating liquors so taken into possession. The report shall be in triplicate and signed by the officer seizing, and one witness, if there be a witness present. One copy shall be given to the person from whom the goods are taken, one copy shall be sworn to by the officer who makes the seizure and immediately filed with the county clerk of the county in which the goods are seized, and one copy shall be retained by the officer who makes the seizure. Said officer, if not the sheriff, shall immediately deliver to the sheriff of the county, the goods seized, and take the sheriff's receipt therefor in duplicate. And such sheriff shall retain the intoxicating liquor or personal property so seized and hold the same until the same shall be disposed of by proper orders of the district court of the county in which said property was seized. The duplicate copy of said receipt shall be immediately filed with said county clerk.

"Whenever any intoxicating liquor is adjudged to be destroyed, the district judge may, instead of having the same actually destroyed, order the same to be delivered to the State Board of Control at Austin, Texas, for use for medicinal purposes in the State eleemosynary institutions. When notified that a district judge has so ordered any intoxicating liquor to be so delivered, the Board of Control shall pay the expenses of transporting and delivering the same to said Board of Control.

"All liquors and property so seized shall be preserved for use as evidence in the trial of any action growing out of such seizure and all officers seizing such liquors or property are hereby required to mark the date of the seizure and the name of the person from whom seized. The sheriff shall be liable on his bond for the safe-keeping of all such property so turned over to him under the provisions of this Act." [Acts 1925, p. 346.] [39th Leg., ch. 138, § 1.]

JAILS

Art.

- 5115. Jails provided.
- 5116. Sheriff and jailer.
- 5117. Marshal may use jail.
- 5118. Prisoner sent to another jail.

Article 5115. [5108–5111] Jails provided.—The commissioners court shall provide safe and suitable jails for their respective counties, and shall cause the same to be kept in good repair. They shall see that the jails of their respective counties are kept in a clean and healthy condition, properly ventilated, and not over-crowded with prisoners, and that they are furnished with clean and comfortable mattresses and blankets sufficient for the comfort of the prisoners. When there is no jail in a county, the sheriff may rent a suitable house and employ guards, the expense to be paid by the proper county. [Act July 22, 1876, p. 52; G. L. vol. 8, p. 888.]

Art. 5116. [5109] Sheriff and jailer.—Each sheriff is the keeper of the jail of his county. He shall safely keep therein all prisoners committed thereto by lawful authority, subject to the order of the proper court, and shall be responsible for the safe keeping of such prisoners. The sheriff may appoint a jailer to take charge of the jail, and supply the wants of those therein confined; but in all cases the sheriff shall exercise a supervision and control over the jail. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 268; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1574; Act August 26, 1856, p. 88; G. L. vol. 4, p. 506.]

Art. 5117. [5112–3] Marshal may use jail.—Sheriffs and jailers shall receive into their jails such prisoners as may be delivered or tendered to them by any United States Marshal or his deputy for any district of Texas, and shall safely keep such prisoners until they are demanded by such marshal or his deputy, or are discharged by due course of law. The marshal by whose authority such prisoners are received and kept shall be directly and personally liable to the sheriff or jailer for the jail fees and all other expenses of the keeping of such prisoners, such fees and expenses to be estimated according to the laws regulating the same in other cases. [Id.]

Art. 5118. Prisoner sent to another jail.—A county to which a prisoner is sent, for want of a safe jail in the proper county, may by suit recover from the county from which such prisoner was sent a sum not exceeding seventy-five cents per day on account of the expense attending the safekeeping of such prisoner.

JUVENILES

- Art. 5119. Instruction of inmates.
 5120. The superintendent.
 5121. Powers and duties of the superintendent.
 5122. Employment of officers, etc.
 5123. Religious services.
 5124. Conveying male to school.
 5125. Who received.
 5126. Promotion and discharge of inmates.
 5127. Escape and apprehension.
 5128. Limitation of term.
 5129. Care of inmates.
 5130. Punishment of inmates.
 5131. School for negro boys.
 5132. Girls' Training School.
 5133. Superintendent and officers.
 5134. Rules and regulations.
 5135. Commitment.
 5136. Conveying to school.
 5137. Dismissal of inmates.
 5138. Detention homes and parental schools.
 5139. County Juvenile Board.
 5140. Powers of Board.
 5141. Sessions of Board.
 5142. Probation officers—Qualifications, duties, appointment, salaries and removal.
 5143. Incurable boy.

Article 5119. [5224] Instruction of inmates.—The Board of Control and the Superintendent of the State Juvenile Training School shall provide for and maintain suitable instruction and training of the inmates of said school. Said instruction shall include common school or agricultural branches, or all as may be deemed desirable by said Board and superintendent. The Board and superintendent shall arrange for each inmate to receive a reasonable amount of instruction in the school of letters and industrial branch each year. Each inmate shall be given definite instruction and training in some useful occupation and shall be given such moral training and discipline as he is capable of receiving. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 7.]

Art. 5120. [5225] The superintendent.—The superintendent shall be a man of high moral character, education and training, and shall have had experience in handling wayward boys. He shall take the official oath and shall give a sufficient bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Governor or his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 5121. [5226] Powers and duties of the superintendent.—The superintendent shall: 1. Keep a register in which he shall enter the name of each inmate, date of reception, previous moral character, habits and education, so far as can be ascertained, his conduct and department, educational and vocational advancement while in said school, the discharge, death, escape, commutation of time, parolment and punishment of each person admitted to said school.

2. See that the buildings and premises are kept in good and sanitary order.

3. Cause to be kept the books of the institution fully exhibiting all moneys received and disbursed, the source from which received and purposes for which same is expended. All supplies for the school shall be purchased in the same manner as for other similar institutions. Said books shall give a full record of all products produced on the farm, whether sold or consumed, and shall at all times be open for the inspection of the Board or the Governor.

Art. 5122. [5227] Employment of officers, etc.—The superintendent shall employ subordinate officers, teachers and employees necessary to the conduct, administration and maintenance of said institution up to the standards of efficiency and utility essential to accomplish the best results. Any employee who uses tobacco or intoxicating liquor in any form while on duty shall be discharged by the superintendent. The superintendent with the consent of the Board may discharge any employee for cause.

The salaries and compensation of all subordinate officers, teachers and employees shall be fixed by the Board in the form of an itemized account to be sworn to by the superintendent. Such salaries shall not exceed the amounts appropriated for same and shall be paid monthly on the Comptroller's warrants based upon such account. Said account shall contain the name and address of each person and the amount due and for what service. No account for salary shall be presented by said superintendent until the same has been fixed by said Board. [Id.]

Art. 5123. [5228] Religious services.—The Board shall provide for religious services at said institution for the benefit of the inmates thereof, and shall employ a chaplain who shall be an ordained minister of the gospel. The superintendent shall require all inmates in said institution who are physically able to attend at least one religious service on each Sunday. Such chaplain shall, under the direction of the superintendent, devote his time to the religious and moral training and education of said inmates, and to visiting sick inmates whenever necessary, and shall receive an annual salary not to exceed seven hundred and twenty dollars. Such chaplain may also be a teacher, such as is provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1911, p. 211.]

Art. 5124. Conveying male to school.—The officer conveying any male to any State training school shall be paid by the county in which such child was convicted the actual traveling expenses of such officer and child, and five dollars additional. [Acts 1909, p. 100.]

Art. 5125. [5229] Who received.—All male persons under the age of seventeen years who shall be lawfully committed to the State Juvenile Training School as a delinquent child shall be received as inmates of said training school. [Acts 1909, p. 103, 1st C. S. 1913, p. 10; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 316, ch. 214.]

Art. 5126. [5230] Promotion and discharge of inmates.—The Board shall establish and maintain in said school a system of grading and promotion on a basis of the moral, intellectual and industrial advancement of the inmates. When the superintendent is satisfied that any inmate has acquired sufficient self-control, moral habits and industrial efficiency, and suitable employment under a responsible, sober and moral person can be found for said inmate, he shall, with the approval of said Board, grant said inmate "leave of probation." To secure homes and employment for inmates and of visiting and supervising them while on probation, a furlough officer shall be employed who shall, when not engaged with his duties as such officer, assist in teaching and in the general work of the school under the direction of the superintendent. When employment has been secured for any inmate he shall be sent out on a furlough with the condition that the person furloughed and his employer shall send a written report at the end of each month thereafter for a period of twelve months to the furlough officer stating the habits and demeanor of said furloughed person. If each report be favorable the superintendent shall recommend to the Governor that a full release be granted such juvenile and that his term of commitment be terminated. If any monthly report shall be deemed unfavorable, or be not sent as herein provided, and the superintendent should become convinced before the expiration of the said twelve months that said furloughed person should be returned to the school for further training or discipline, the said inmate shall in that event forfeit his leave of probation, and shall be returned to school. If his employer shall fail or refuse to return said furloughed person to said school it shall be the duty of the furlough officer or any peace officer, upon notice from the superintendent, to take such furloughed person into custody, under the same conditions as if he were an escaped inmate, and return him to said school in the manner prescribed in the succeeding article. The Governor shall at any time have power to grant a pardon to any inmate of said school. [Id.]

Art. 5127. [5234] Escape and apprehension.—If any inmate of said school shall escape therefrom, or if on leave of probation or furlough and is ordered returned and the employer of said furloughed person fails or refuses to return him it shall be the duty of the superintendent of said institution or any officer or employé of same, or any peace officer to apprehend him. Any person may lawfully apprehend such escaped inmate and forthwith deliver him to any peace officer. Any such escaped inmate shall be returned to said school by any furlough, probation or peace officer. The cost of his return shall be paid by the county from which said inmate was committed. [Id.]

Art. 5128. [5231] Limitation of term.—Commitments to such school shall be upon the indeterminate sentence plan. No juvenile shall remain or be detained therein or upon parole under the control of the officers of said school after he becomes twenty-one years old. [Id.]

Art. 5129. [5232] [5233] Care of inmates.—The superintendent shall divide the inmates into such classes and shall house, feed and train them in such manner as he deems best for the development and advancement of the child. All inmates shall be provided with shelter, wholesome food and suitable clothing, books, means of healthful recreation and other material necessary for their training, at the expense of the State, except as otherwise provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5130. Punishment of inmates.—Corporal punishment in any form shall not be inflicted upon the inmates of said institution except as a last resort to maintain discipline, and then only in the presence of the superintendent and a resident nurse. At no time shall any inmate be struck more than twenty times, and that [then] only with such instrument and in such manner as will inflict reasonable and moderate punishment, considering the age, size and strength of the culprit and the strength of the person administering such punishment. At no time shall any weapon or instrument of torture be used or any instrument which by its make, coupled with the manner of its use, would be calculated to inflict bodily injury. [Acts 1913, 1st C. S. p. 11.]

Art. 5132. Girls' Training School.—The Girls' Training School for dependent and delinquent girls shall be under the control and management of the State Board of Control which shall provide wholesome and proper quarters and exercise and diversion, and shall make provision for training in all of the useful arts and sciences to which women are adapted, to prepare them for future womanhood and independence, and shall provide instruction in nursing, sanitation and hygiene. [Acts 1913, p. 289.]

Art. 5133. Superintendent and officers.—The Board shall employ as superintendent of such school a woman of previous experience and training in a similar institution, who shall have power to appoint and discharge all subordinate officials and teachers for the school. The Board shall fix the salary of the superintendent and all employees. The Board shall have power to remove the superintendent for cause, and the decision of said Board in such matter shall be final. [Id.]

of the training school, and shall provide that the time of the pupils is properly distributed between the school of letters and the industrial and domestic pursuits, according to the needs of the pupil and the facilities at hand. Provision shall be made for giving diplomas or certificates of proficiency for graduates from the nurses training school or any industrial school that may be established by such Board. [Id.]

Art. 5135. Commitment.—Whenever any girl between the ages of seven and eighteen years shall be tried or brought before any juvenile court upon indictment or information or before the district court on petition of any person in this State or the Humane Society or any institution of a similar purpose or character, charged with being a dependent or delinquent child as these terms are defined in the statutes of this State, the court may, if in the opinion of the judge, the Girls' Training School is the proper place for her, commit such girl to said Girls' Training School during her minority. No girl shall be committed to the Girls' Training School who is feeble-minded, epileptic or insane. Any girl committed to said Girls' Training School who is afflicted with a venereal, tubercular or other communicable disease shall be assigned to a distinct and separate building of the institution and shall not be allowed to associate with the other wards until cured of said disease or diseases. No girl shall be admitted to the institution until she has been examined by the School physician, and such physician has issued a certificate showing her exact state or condition in reference to said qualifications hereinabove enumerated. [Id.]

Art. 5136. Conveying to school.—The court committing any girl to the Girls' Training School, in addition to the commitment, shall annex a carefully prepared transcript of the trial to aid the officials of the institution in better understanding and classifying the girl. The court shall also designate some reputable woman to convey the girl to the institution. The cost of conveying any girl committed to this institution shall be paid by the county from which she is committed, provided that no compensation shall be allowed beyond the actual and necessary expenses of the party conveying and the girl conveyed. [Id.]

Art. 5137. Dismissal of inmates.—No girl shall be discharged or paroled until some suitable home has been found for her and only then upon the written recommendation of the superintendent to the Board, or unless she has become married with the consent of the Board and superintendent. The Governor shall have power to issue a pardon or commute the sentence of any inmate. Any girl who is thus paroled from the school shall be under the supervision and guidance of the superintendent who shall require that she write bi-weekly letters to the superintendent or matron of the school for the first six months and monthly letters thereafter. The person under whose care or employ the girl is placed shall write monthly letters to the superintendent or matron of the school for the first six months and semi-annually thereafter.

The Board, superintendent or any employee of said school may visit the place where the girl is and it shall be the duty of the person having the girl in custody to answer inquiries of said visiting committee concerning the conduct, employment or treatment of said girl. If, in the judgment of the Board, it should be to the best interests of the girl that she be returned to the school, the Board is empowered to have her returned. [Id.]

Art. 5138. Detention homes and parental schools.—All counties in this State may establish detention homes and parental schools for dependent and delinquent juveniles. It shall be lawful for the commissioner's court to appropriate from the general fund of the county such sums as may be necessary to establish, equip and maintain such detention homes and parental schools as may be necessary to care for the dependent and delinquent children of the county. In like manner any county in which no such detention home or parental school exists may appropriate such funds as may be necessary to pay for the board and for the proper care and training of its dependent and delinquent juveniles in the detention home or parental school of any county that may agree to receive them and at such rates of board and tuition as shall be agreed upon by the commissioners courts of the counties concerned. When in the opinion of the commissioners court, it is desirable to levy a special tax for establishing and maintaining such detention home or parental school, or for paying the board and tuition of dependent and delinquent children as herein provided the said court may bring the question of levying such special tax to a vote of the qualified voters of the county at a special election held for that purpose, and the said court must submit the said question to the voters when requested to do so by a petition signed by ten per cent of the qualified voters of the county. All elections held under the provisions of this article shall be governed in all respects not herein specified to the contrary by the laws of this State governing elections for the levy of special school taxes. [Acts 1913, p. 218.]

Art. 5139. County Juvenile Board.—In any county having a population of one hundred thousand or over, according to the preceding Federal census, the judges of the several district and criminal district courts of such county, together with the county judge of such county, are hereby constituted a Juvenile Board for such county. The annual salary of each of the judges of the civil and criminal district courts of such county as members of said board shall be $1,500 in addition to that paid the other district judges of the State, said additional salary to be paid monthly out of the general funds of such county, upon the order of the commissioners court. [Acts 1917, p. 27, Acts 1921, p. 273.]

Art. 5140. Powers of Board.—Such Board shall neither have nor exercise judicial power or function. In the event such Board desires to make inquiry as to whether any child should be adjudged either dependent, neglected or delinquent, it shall have power to direct one of the probation officers of said Board to file complaint against such child in some court of such county having jurisdiction to hear and determine such complaint. Such board or the members thereof may be present at such hearing, either in person or by one or more of its probation officers, and make such inquiry concerning such child as may be proper under the established rules of procedure in such court. [Id.]

Art. 5141. Sessions of Board.—Such Board shall hold meetings in accordance with the rules which it may prescribe, and at intervals of not less than once in three months, and shall keep such records as it desires, and shall hear and consider such facts as may be brought to its attention, under such rules as it may prescribe, concerning the welfare of any child in such county or under the jurisdiction of any of its courts. If such child has been adjudged to be dependent, neglected or delinquent by any court of such county, it may make to the court or person having custody of such child, such recommendation in writing as it may think proper as to the care and custody of such child. [Id.]

Art. 5142. Probation officers—Qualifications, duties, appointment, salaries and removal.—There may be appointed in the manner hereinafter provided, discreet persons of good moral character to serve as juvenile officers, for periods not to exceed two years from date of appointment.

Such officer shall have authority and it shall be their duty to make investigations of all cases referred to them as such by such Board; to be present in court and to represent the interest of the juvenile when the case is heard and to furnish to the court and such Board any information and assistance as such Board may require, and to take charge of any child before and after the trial and to perform such other services for the child as may be required by the court or said Board, and such juvenile officers shall be vested with all the power and authority of police officers or sheriffs incident to their offices.

The clerk of the court shall, when practicable, notify such juvenile officer when any juvenile is to be brought before the court. It shall be the duty of such juvenile officer to make investigation of any such case, to be present in court to represent the interest of the juvenile when the case is tried; to furnish to such court such information and assistance as the court may require and to take charge of any juvenile before and after the trial as the court may direct. In counties having a population of less than seventy-five thousand, one juvenile officer may be appointed by the commissioners' court, when in their opinion, such officer is needed, who shall receive a compensation not to exceed $125.00 per month. Provided that in counties having a population of not less than thirty-five thousand, and not more than one hundred thousand and containing a city of more than twenty-nine thousand population, one juvenile officer may be appointed by the commissioners' court, when in their opinion the services of such officers is needed whose salary shall not exceed $200.00 per month and expenses not to exceed $200.00 per year. The county judge shall select such juvenile officers from a list of three furnished by a nominating committee composed of three members as follows: The county superintendent of public instruction, and the superintendents of the two largest school districts in such county.

Provided that in counties having a population of one hundred thousand and less than one hundred and fifty thousand, the county judge may appoint a juvenile officer, subject to the approval of the county juvenile board for a period not to exceed two years from date of appointment at a salary not to exceed $250.00 per month, and expenses not to exceed $200.00 per year. Such juvenile officers may select assistant juvenile officers, subject to the approval of the county judge and the county juvenile board, the number not to exceed one assistant juvenile officer to each twenty-five thousand population. The salaries of such assistant juvenile officers shall be the same as that fixed by the General Law, in Article 3902 Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, for assistants to other county officials. Such assistant juvenile officers may be allowed expenses, each, not to exceed $200.00 per year.

Provided that in counties having a population of one hundred fifty thousand or more, and containing a city of one hundred thousand or more, the county judge may appoint a juvenile officer, subject to the approval of the county juvenile board, to serve for a period not to exceed two years from the date of appointment, and whose extra duties shall be to make investigations for the commissioners' court on applications for charity, or admittance into detention homes or orphan homes created by such counties. The salary of such juvenile officer shall not exceed $300.00 per month, his allowance for expenses not to exceed $200.00 a year. Such juvenile officer may select assistant juvenile officers, subject to the approval of the county judge and the county juvenile board, the number of such assistant juvenile officers not to exceed one assistant to each twenty-five thousand population. The salaries of such assistant juvenile officers shall be the same as that fixed by the General Law in Article 3902 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, for assistants to other county officials. Such assistant juvenile officers may be allowed expenses not to exceed $200.00 per year each.

In the appointment of all juvenile officers, the county judge and the county juvenile board may select for such office any school attendance officer or officers of the county, or of school districts in the county, that may be authorized by law, and the salary and expense of such joint juvenile officer or officers and attendance officers shall be paid jointly by the county and school authorities upon any basis of division they may agree upon.

Salaries of paid juvenile officers and their assistants shall be fixed by the commissioners' court, not to exceed the sums herein mentioned, and any bill for the expenses not exceeding the sums herein provided for, shall be certified by the county judge as being necessary in the performance of the duties of a juvenile officer. The commissioners' court of the county shall provide the necessary funds for the payment of salaries and expenses of the juvenile officers provided for in this Act. The appointment of said juvenile officers shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court. Juvenile officers shall take oath to perform their duties and file such oath in the office of the county clerk. As a basis for reckoning the population of any county the preceding federal census shall be used.

Provided that any juvenile officer appointed under the provisions of this Act may be removed from office by the power appointing him, at any time. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 130; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 335, ch. 228.]

Art. 5143. Incurrible boy.—Any parent or guardian of any incurrible boy under the age of seventeen years, may present a petition to the judge of the juvenile court of the county of his residence, setting forth under oath the age and habits of any such boy and praying that said boy be committed as a delinquent child. The court shall set the case down for hearing and shall take testimony, and if, in his judgment, the child should be committed, said judge may enter an order committing said child to said institution. The parent or guardian shall pay all necessary expenses of carrying said child to said institution and in addition shall pay at least one quarter in advance, the amount necessary for the maintenance of said child at said institution, as estimated by the superintendent of said institution. Said parent or guardian shall also deposit with the superintendent of said institution an amount sufficient to pay the fare of said child from said institution to its home; and, if said parent or guardian shall fail or refuse to make any subsequent quarterly payment for maintenance, in advance, said commitment shall terminate; and the superintendent of said school shall discharge such boy and return him to his home.

The expense of conveying all boys committed to said school shall be paid by the county from which said commitment is made; and the sheriff, probation, or any peace officer, as the court may direct, shall convey all boys committed to said institution to such Training School as the court and said parents or guardians may agree upon. The court may send the boy to school without escort. [Acts 1913, p. 219.]

Article 5144. [5236] Appointment of Commissioner.—A Commissioner of Labor Statistics, whose office shall be in the Capitol building, shall be biennially appointed by the Governor for a term of two years. The Commissioner may be removed for cause by the Governor, record thereof being made in his office. The Commissioner shall give a good bond in the sum of two thousand dollars, to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office. [Acts 1909, p. 59.]

Art. 5145. [5235-6-7] Duties of Commissioner.—The Bureau of Labor Statistics shall be under the charge and control of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics. The Commissioner shall collect, systematize and present in biennial reports to the Governor, statistical details relating to all departments of labor in Texas, especially as bearing upon the commercial, social, educational, and sanitary conditions of the employees and their families, the means of escape from dangers incident to their employment, the protection of life and health in the factories and other places of employment, the labor of women and children, and the number of hours of labor exacted of them, and, in general, all matters and things which affect or tend to affect the prosperity of the mechanical, manufacturing and productive industries of this State, and of the persons employed therein.

Said Commissioner shall, also, as fully as may be done, collect reliable reports and information from each county, showing the amount and condition of the mechanical, mining and manufacturing interest therein, and all sites offering natural or acquired advantages for the location and operation of any of the different branches of industry. He shall, by correspondence with interested parties in other parts of the United States, or in foreign countries, impart to them such information as may tend to induce the location of manufacturing and producing plants within the State, together with such information as may tend to increase the employment of labor and the products of such employment in Texas. Except as hereinafter provided he shall safely keep and deliver to his successor all records, papers, documents, correspondence and property pertaining to or coming into his hands by virtue of his office. [Id.]

Art. 5146. [5238] Report.—In each biennial report, the Commissioner shall give a full statement of the business of the bureau since the last preceding report, and such information as may be of value to the industrial interests and their employees, showing, among other things, the number of laborers and mechanics employed, the number of apprentices in each trade, with the nativity of such laborers, mechanics and apprentices, the wages earned, the savings from the same, the age and sex of the persons employed, the number and character of accidents, the sanitary conditions of places where persons are employed, the restrictions put upon apprentices when indentured, the proportion of married employees living in rented houses, with the average rental paid, the value of property owned by such employees, and a statement as to the progress made in schools in operation for the instruction of students in mechanic arts, and what systems have been found most practical. Such reports shall not contain more than six hundred printed pages, and the same shall be printed and distributed in such manner as may be provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5147. [5240] Preservation of records.—No report or return made to the bureau under the provisions of this chapter or the Penal Code, and no schedule, record or document gathered or returned by its officers or employees shall be destroyed within two years of the collection or receipt thereof. At the expiration of two years all such reports, returns, schedules, records and documents as shall be considered by the Commissioner to be of no further value, shall be destroyed, if the permission of the Governor therefor be first obtained. [Id.]

Art. 5148. [5241] May enter factories, etc.—Upon the written complaint of two or more persons, or upon his failure otherwise to obtain information in accordance with the provisions of this law, the Commissioner shall have the power to enter any factory, mill, workshop, mine, store, business house, public or private work, or other establishment or place where five or more persons are employed at work when the same is open and in operation, for the purpose of gathering facts and statistics such as are contemplated by this chapter, and for the purpose of examining into the methods of protecting employees from danger and the sanitary conditions in and around such building or place, of all of which the said Commissioner shall make and return to the Bureau of Labor Statistics a true and detailed record in writing.

Art. 5149. [5242] To report violations.—If the Commissioner shall learn of any violation of the law with respect to the employment of children, or fire escapes, or the safety of employees, or the preservation of health, or in any other way affecting the employes, he shall at once give written notice of the facts to the proper county or district attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5150. [5239] To take testimony.—The Commissioner shall have power to issue subpoenas and take testimony in all matters relating to the duties herein required of said Bureau. Such testimony must be taken in the vicinity of the residence or office of the person testifying. [Id.]

Art. 5151. [5243] Expenses.—The Commissioner shall be allowed necessary postage, stationery, printing, and other expenses to transact the business of the Bureau, and he and any employe of the Bureau shall be allowed his actual necessary traveling expenses while in the performance of duties required by this chapter, and within the limits of the appropriations made therefor. [Id. Acts 1919, p. 164.]

CHAPTER TWO

LABOR ORGANIZATIONS

Art.

- 5152. Right to organize.
- 5153. Other rights and privileges.
- 5154. Organizations excepted.

Article 5152. [5244] Right to organize.—It shall be lawful for any and all persons engaged in any kind of work or labor, manual or mental, or both, to associate themselves together and form trades unions and other organizations for the purpose of protecting themselves in their personal work, personal labor, and personal service in their respective pursuits and employments. [Acts 1899, p. 262.]

Art. 5153. [5245] Other rights and privileges.—It shall be lawful for any member or members of such trades union or other organization or association, or any other person, to induce or attempt to induce by peaceable and lawful means, any person to accept any particular employment or to enter or refuse to enter any pursuit or quit or relinquish any particular employment or pursuit in which such person may then be engaged. Such member or members shall not have the right to invade or trespass upon the premises of another without the consent of the owner thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5154. [5246] Organizations excepted.—The two preceding articles shall not be held to apply to any combination or combinations, association or associations of capital, or capital and persons, natural or artificial, formed for the purpose of limiting the production or consumption of labor's products, or for any other purpose in restraint of trade. Nothing herein shall be held to interfere with the terms and conditions of private contract with regard to the time of service, or other stipulations between employers and employes, or be construed to repeal, affect or diminish the force and effect of any statute on the subject of trusts, conspiracies against trade, pools and monopolies. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

PAYMENT OF WAGES

Art.

- 5155. Pay days.
- 5156. If not paid on pay day.
- 5157. Penalty for failure to pay.
- 5158. Attorneys fees.
- 5159. Duty of Commissioner.

Article 5155. Pay days.—Each manufacturing, mercantile, mining, quarrying, railroad, street railway, canal, oil, steambot, telegraph, telephone and express company, employing more than ten persons, and each and every water company not operated by a municipal corporation, and each and every wharf company, and every other corporation engaged in any business within this State, which employs more than ten persons, or any person, firm or corporation engaged in or upon any public work for the State or for any county or any municipal corporation thereof, either as a contractor or a sub-contractor, therewith, shall pay each of its employees the wages earned by him or her as often as semi-monthly, and pay to a day not more than sixteen days prior to the day of payment. [Acts 1915, p. 43.]

Art. 5156. If not paid on pay day.—An employe who is absent at the time fixed for payment, or who for any other reason is not paid at that time, shall be paid thereafter on six days' demand. Any employee leaving his or her employment, or discharged therefrom, shall be paid in full on six days' demand. [Id.]

Article 5157. Penalty for failure to pay.—Every person, partnership or corporation, willfully failing or refusing to pay the wages of any employee at the time and in the manner provided in this statute shall forfeit to the State of Texas the sum of fifty dollars for each and every such failure or refusal. Suits for penalties accruing under this law shall be brought in any court having jurisdiction of the amount in the county in which the employe should have been paid, or where employed. Such suits shall be instituted at the direction of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics by the Attorney General or under his direction, or by the County or District Attorney for the county or district in which suit is brought. [Id.]

Art. 5158. Attorneys fees.—The attorney bringing any such suit shall be entitled to receive and shall receive as compensation for his service therein ten dollars of the penalty or penalties recovered in such suit, and the fees and compensation so allowed shall be over and above the fees allowed to the county or district attorneys under the General Fee Act. [Id.]

Art. 5159. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall inquire diligently for violations of this chapter and institute prosecutions and see that the same are carried to final termination and generally to see to the enforcement of the provision hereof. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

BOND TO SECURE WAGES

Art.

- 5160. Bond for wages.
- 5161. Creditor may sue.
- 5162. Time to sue.
- 5163. Prorating claims.
- 5164. Notice of suit.

Article 5160. Bond for wages.—Any person or persons, firm or corporation entering into a formal contract with this State or its counties or school districts or for subdivisions thereof or any municipality therein for the construction of any public building, or the prosecution and completion of any public work, shall be required, before commencing such work, to execute the usual penal bond, with the additional obligation that such contractor shall promptly make payments to all persons supplying him or them with labor and materials in the prosecution of the work provided for in said contract. Any person, company, or corporation who has furnished labor or materials used in the construction or repair of any public building or public work, and payment for which has not been made, shall have the right to intervene and be made a party to any action instituted by the State or any municipality on the bond of the contractor, and to have their rights and claims adjudicated in said action and judgment rendered thereon, subject, however, to the priority of the claims and judgments of the State or municipality. If the full amount of the liability of the surety on said bond is insufficient to pay the full amount of said claims and demands, then, after paying the full amount due the State or municipality,

the remainder shall be distributed pro rata among said intervenors. Provided further, that no person or persons, firm or corporation shall be secured in the payment of any claim contracted prior to the execution of the contract that said bond is given to secure, and provided further that all claims for labor shall be itemized and sworn to by the owner or his authorized agent and filed with the contractor or with the county clerk of the county in which said work is being prosecuted within thirty days from the date that said claim accrued and became payable, and all claims for material shall be itemized and sworn to by the owner or his authorized agent and filed with the contractor or with the county clerk of the county in which said work is being prosecuted within thirty days from the date of the delivery of said material; and any claim filed after said thirty days shall not be secured by said bond. [Acts 1913, p. 185; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 114, ch. 39, § 1.]

Art. 5161. Creditor may sue.—If no suit should be brought by the State or municipality within six months from the completion and final settlement of said contract, then the person or persons supplying the contractor with labor and materials shall, upon application therefor, and furnishing affidavit to the State or municipality that labor or materials for the prosecution of such work has been supplied by him or them, and the payment for which has not been made, be furnished with a certified copy of said contract and bond, upon which he or they shall have a right of action for his or their use and benefit, against said contractor and his surety, and to prosecute the same to final judgment and execution. [Id.]

Art. 5162. Time to sue.—When suit is instituted by any creditor on the bond of the contractor, it shall not be commenced until after the complete performance of said contract and final settlement thereof, and shall be commenced within one year after the performance and final settlement of said contract, and not later; provided that if the contractor quits or abandons the contract before its consummation, suit may be instituted by any of such creditors on the bond of the contractor, and shall be commenced within one year after abandonment of said contract and not later. Where suit is so instituted by a creditor or by creditors, only one action shall be brought, and any creditor may file his claim in such action and be made party thereto within one year from the completion of the work under said contractor and not later. [Id.]

Art. 5163. Prorating claims.—If the recovery on the bond should be inadequate to pay the amounts found due to all of said creditors, judgment shall be given to each creditor pro rata of the amount of the recovery, subject to the provisions in the first article of this chapter giving to the State or municipality the right of priority in the proceeds of such judgment. The sureties on said bond may pay into court, for distribution among said claimants and creditors, the full amount of the sureties' liability, to-wit: the penalty named in the bond, less any amount which said surety may have had to pay to the State or municipality by reason of the execution of said bond, and upon so doing the surety will be relieved from further liability. [Id.]

Art. 5164. Notice of suit.—In all suits instituted under the provisions of this law notice of the pendency of such suits shall be made by publication in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the county or town where the contract is being performed, for at least three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least one week before the trial of such case. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

HOURS OF LABOR

- Art.
5165. Eight hours a day's work.
5166. Violating eight-hour law.
5167. Hours of patrolmen.

Article 5165. Eight hours a day's work.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen or mechanics who may be employed by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality, or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality in any one calendar day, where such employment, contract or work is for the purpose of constructing, repairing or improving buildings, bridges, roads, highways, streams, levees, or other work of a similar character, requiring the service of laborers, workmen or mechanics. [Acts 1913, p. 127].

Art. 5166. Violating eight-hour law.—All contracts made by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, with any corporation, persons or associations of persons for performance of any work, shall be deemed and considered as made upon the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. The time consumed by the laborer in going to and returning from the place of work shall not be considered as part of the hours of work. It shall be unlawful for any corporation, person, or association of persons having a contract with the State or any political subdivision thereof, to require any such laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons to work more than eight hours per calendar day in doing such work, except in case of emergency, which may arise in times of war, or in cases where it may become necessary to work more than eight hours per calendar day for the protection of property, human life or the necessity of housing inmates of public institutions in case of fire or destruction by the elements. In such emergencies the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed and working to exceed eight hours per calendar day shall be paid on the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. Not less than the current rate of per hour wages for like work in the locality where the work is being performed shall be paid to the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed by or on behalf of the State, or for any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county, or municipality, and every contract hereafter made for the performance of work for the State, or for any county, municipality, or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county, or municipality, must comply with the requirements of this chapter. Nothing in the foregoing article shall prevent any person, or any officer, agent, or employee of a person or corporation, or association of persons from making mutually satisfactory contracts as to the hours of labor, at the rates of pay as herein provided. [Acts 1913, p. 127, Acts 1921, p. 229.]

Art. 5167. Hours of patrolmen.—In all incorporated cities and towns however incorporated, having a population of fifty thousand inhabitants or more, according to the preceding Federal census, the patrolmen thereof, or those performing duties ordinarily performed by patrolmen, shall be required to serve on actual duty as patrolmen not longer than eight hours in every twenty-four hours of the day; provided that in case of riot or other emergency, such patrolmen shall perform such duty and for such time as the directing authority of the departments shall require. [Acts 1917, p. 403.]

CHAPTER SIX

FEMALE EMPLOYEES

- Art.
5168. Hours of work for female employee.
5169. Hours of female laundry worker.
5170. Hours of cotton goods worker.
5171. Seats for female employees.
5172. Exceptions.

Article 5168. Hours of work for female employee.—No female shall be employed in any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, hotel, restaurant, rooming house, theater, moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph, telephone or other office, express or transportation company, or any State institution, or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed, for more than nine hours in any one calendar day, nor more than fifty-four hours in any one calendar week. [Acts 1915, p. 105.]

Art. 5169. Hours of female laundry worker.—No female shall be employed in any laundry for more than fifty-four hours in one calendar week; the hours of such employment to be so arranged as to permit the employment of such female at any time so that she shall not work more than a maximum of eleven hours during the twenty-four hours' period of one day. If such female is employed for more than nine hours in any one day she shall receive pay at the rate of double her regular pay for such time as she is employed for more than nine hours per day. [Id.]

Art. 5170. Hours of cotton goods worker.—No female shall be employed in any factory engaged in the manufacture of cotton, woolen or worsted goods or articles of merchandise manufactured out of cotton goods for more than ten hours in any one calendar day, nor more than sixty hours in any one calendar week. If such female is employed for more than nine hours in any one day she shall receive pay at the rate of double her regular pay for such time as she may be employed for more than nine hours per day. [Id.]

Art. 5171. Seats for female employees.—Every employer owning or operating any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, restaurant or rooming house, theater or moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph or telephone or other office, express or transportation company, the superintendent of any State institution or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed as provided in the three preceding articles, shall provide and furnish suitable seats, to be used by such employees when not engaged in the active duties of their employment and shall give notice to all such employees by posting in a conspicuous place on the premises of such employment, in letters not less than one inch in height, that all such employees will be permitted to use such seats when not so engaged. [Id.]

Art. 5172. Exceptions.—The four preceding articles shall not apply to stenographers and pharmacists, nor to mercantile establishments, or telegraph or telephone companies in rural districts and in cities or towns or villages of less than 3000 inhabitants as shown by the last preceding Federal census. In cases of extraordinary emergencies, such as great public calamities, or where it becomes necessary for the protection of human life or property, longer hours may be worked, but for such time not less than double time shall be paid such female with her consent. [Id.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

PROTECTION OF FEMALE EMPLOYEES.

Art.

- 5173. Temperature and humidity.
- 5174. Odors and dust.
- 5175. Cleaning and wet floors.
- 5176. Exits and hand rails.
- 5177. Toilets.
- 5178. Immoral influences.
- 5179. Order to correct conditions.
- 5180. Suit to set order aside.

Article 5173. Temperature and humidity.—In every factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry, or other establishment, adequate measures shall be taken for securing and maintaining a reasonable, and as far as possible, an equable temperature consistent with a reasonable requirement of the manufacturing process. No unnecessary humidity which would jeopardize the health of employees shall be permitted. In every room, apartment, or building used as a factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other place of employment, sufficient air space shall be provided for every employee, and which in the judgment of the Commissioner of Labor Statistics or of his deputies and inspectors is sufficient for their health and welfare. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 132.]

Art. 5174. Odors and dust.—All factories, mills, workshops, mercantile establishments, laundries and other establishments shall be kept free from gas or effluvia arising from any sewer, drain, privy or other nuisance on the premises; all poisonous or noxious gases arising from any process, and all dust which is injurious to the health of persons employed, which is created in the process of manufacturing within the above named establishment, shall be removed as far as practicable by ventilators or exhaust fans or other adequate devices. [Id.]

Art. 5175. Cleaning and wet floors.—All decomposed, fetid or putrescent matter, and all refuse, waste and sweepings of any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment, shall be removed at least once each day and be disposed of in such manner as not to cause a nuisance. All cleaning, sweeping and dusting shall be done as far as possible outside of working hours, but if done during working hours, shall be done in such manner as to avoid so far as possible the raising of dust and noxious odors. In all establishments where any process is carried on which makes the floors wet, the floors shall be constructed and maintained with due regard for the health of the employees, and gratings or dry standing room shall be provided wherever practicable, at points wherever employees are regularly stationed, and adequate means shall be provided for drainage and for preventing leakage or seepage to lower floors. [Id.]

Art. 5176. Exits and hand rails.—All doors used by employees as entrances to, or exits from factories, mills, workshops, mercantile establishments, laundries or other establishments of a height of two stories or over, shall open outward, and shall be so constructed as to be easily and immediately opened from within in case of fire or other emergencies. Proper and substantial hand rails shall be provided on all stairways, and lights shall be kept burning at all main stairs, stair landings and elevator shafts in the absence of sufficient natural light. The provisions of this article shall not apply to any mercantile establishment having seven female employees or less. [Id.]

Art. 5177. Toilets.—Every factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment, shall be provided with a sufficient number of water closets, earth closets or privies, and such water closets, earth closets or privies shall be supplied in the proportion of one to every twenty-five male persons, and one to every twenty female persons, and whenever both male and female persons are employed, said water closets, earth closets or privies shall be provided separate and apart for the use of each sex, and such water closets, earth closets, or privies shall be constructed in an approved manner and properly enclosed, and at all times kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and effectively disinfected and ventilated, and shall at all times during operation of such establishment be kept properly lighted.

In case there be more than one shift of not more than eight hours each of employees, the average number of persons in the establishment at any one time should be used in determining the number of toilets required. [Id.]

Art. 5178. Immoral influences.—It shall be unlawful for the owner, manager, superintendent or other person in control or management of any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry or other establishment where five or more persons are employed, all or part of whom are females, to permit in such place of employment any influence, practices or conditions calculated to injuriously affect the morals of such female employees. [Id.]

Art. 5179. Order to correct conditions.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics, or any of his deputies or inspectors, shall have the right to enter any factory, mill, workshop, mercantile establishment, laundry, or other establishment where five or more persons are employed, for the purpose of making inspections and enforcing the provisions of this chapter; and they are hereby empowered, upon finding any violation of this law by reason of unsanitary conditions such as endanger the health of the employees therein employed, or of neglect to remove and prevent fumes and gases or odors injurious to employees, or by reason of the failure or refusal to comply with any requirement of this law, or by reason of the inadequacy or insufficiency of any plan, method, practice or device employed in assumed compliance with any of the requirements of this law, to pass upon and to make a written finding as to the failure or refusal to comply with any requirement of this law, or as to the adequacy or sufficiency of any practice, plan or method used in or about any place mentioned in this law in supposed compliance with any of the requirements of this law, and, thereupon they may issue a written order to the owner, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, for the correction of any condition caused or permitted in or about such place or establishment in violation of any of the requirements of this law, or of any condition, practice, plan, or method used therein or thereabouts in supposed compliance with any requirement of this law, but which are found to be inadequate or insufficient, in any respect, to comply therewith, and shall state in such order how such conditions, practices, plans or methods, in any case, shall be corrected and the time within which the same shall be corrected, a reasonable time being given in such order therefor. One copy of such order shall be delivered to the owner, manager, superintendent or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, and one copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. Such findings and orders shall be prima facie valid, reasonable and just, and shall be conclusive unless attacked and set aside in the manner provided in the succeeding article. Upon the failure or refusal of the owner, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management of such place or establishment, to comply with such order within the time therein specified, unless the same shall have been attacked and suspended or set aside as provided for in the succeeding article, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics or his deputy or inspectors shall have full authority and power to close such place or establishment, or any part of it that may be in such unsanitary or dangerous condition or immoral influences in violation of any requirement of this law or of such order, until such time as such condition, practice or method shall have been corrected. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

Art. 5180. Suit to set order aside.—The owner or owners, manager, superintendent, or other person in control or management, of any place or establishment covered by this law, and directly affected by any finding or order provided for in the preceding article, may, within fifteen days from the date of the delivery to him or them of a copy of any such order as provided for in the preceding article, file a petition setting forth the particular cause or causes of objection to such order and findings in a court of competent jurisdiction against the Commissioner of Labor Statistics. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes of a different nature, except such causes as are provided for in the statutes relating to the Railroad Commission, and shall be tried and determined as other civil causes in said court. If the court be in session at the time such cause of action arises, the suit may be filed during such term and stand ready for trial after ten days' notice. Either party may appeal, but shall not have the right to sue out a writ of error from the trial court. Said appeal shall at once be returnable to the proper appellate court at either of its terms, and shall have precedence in such appellate court over other causes of a different nature, except as above provided for. In any trial under this article the burden shall be upon the plaintiff to show that the findings and order complained of are illegal, unreasonable, or unjust to it or them. [Id.]

Article 5181. Permit for child to work.—Upon application being made to the county judge of any county in which any child over the age of twelve (12) years shall reside, the earnings of which child are necessary for the support of itself, its mother when widowed, or in needy circumstances, or invalid father, or of other children younger than the child for whom the permit is sought, the said county judge may upon the sworn statement of such child or its parents or guardian, that the child for whom the permit is sought is over twelve (12) years of age, that the said child has completed the fifth grade in a public school or its equivalent, and that it shall not be employed in or around any mill, factory, workshop, or other place where dangerous machinery is used, nor in any mine, quarry or other place where explosives are used, or where the moral or physical condition of the child is liable to be injured, and that the earnings of such child are necessary for the support of such invalid parent, widowed mother or mother in needy circumstances, or of younger children, and that such support cannot be obtained in any other manner, and that suitable employment has been obtained for such child, which sworn statement shall be accompanied by the certificate of a licensed physician showing that such child is physically able to perform the work or labor for which the permit is sought, issue a permit for such child to enter such employment. Every person, firm or corporation employing any such child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years shall post in a conspicuous place where such child is employed, the permit issued by the county judge; provided that no permit shall be issued for a longer period than twelve (12) months, but may be renewed from time to time upon satisfactory evidence being produced that the conditions under which the former permit was issued still exists [exist], and that no physical or moral injury has resulted to such child by reason of its employment. In every case where a permit is sought for any child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years, the parent, guardian or other person in charge or control of such child shall appear before the county judge in person with such child for whom a permit is sought before such permit shall be issued. There shall be nothing in this Act to prevent the working of school children of any age from June 1 to September 1 of each year except that they shall not be permitted to work in factory, mill, workshop, and the places mentioned in Section 4 of this Act. [Id. page 176.]

CHAPTER NINE

PROTECTION OF WORKMEN ON BUILDINGS

Article 5182. Protection of workmen on buildings.—1. To prevent workmen from falling.—Any building three or more stories in height, in the course of construction or repair, shall have the joists, beams or girders of each and every floor below the floor level where any work is being done, or about to be done, covered with planking laid close together, said planking to be of not less than one and one-half inches of thickness in buildings that have steel framework, and what is commonly known as one-inch plank in all others where joists are set on two foot centers or less, to protect the workmen engaged in the erection or construction of such buildings from falling through joists, girders, and from falling planks, bricks, rivets, tools or other substances, whereby life and limb are endangered. Where any scaffolding is placed on the outside of any of said buildings, over any public street or alley where persons are in the habit of passing, then said scaffolding shall be so constructed as to prevent any material, tools or other things from falling off and endangering the life of passersby. Such flooring shall not be removed until the same is replaced by a permanent flooring in such building.

2. To inclose elevators and shafts.—If elevators, elevating machines or hoisting apparatus are used within a building in the course of construction, for the purpose of lifting materials to be used in such construction, the contractor or owners, or the agents of the owners, shall cause the shafts or openings in each floor to be inclosed or fenced in on all sides, two sides of which must be at least six feet, and two sides where material is taken off or on shall be protected by automatic safety gates.

3. Duty of general contractors.—The general contractor having charge of the erection and construction of such building shall provide for the flooring as herein required, and make such arrangements as may be necessary with the sub-contractor in order that the provisions of this article may be carried out.

4. Duty of owner.—The owner, or the agent of the owner of such building, shall see that the general contractor or sub-contractors carry out the provisions of this article.

5. Owner to see to flooring.—If the general contractor or sub-contractor of such building fails to provide for the flooring of such buildings as herein provided, then the owner or the agent of the owner of such building shall see that the provisions of this article are carried out. [Acts 1919, p. 281.]

CHAPTER TEN

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

Art.
5183.	Appointment of members.
5184.	Expenses.
5185.	Officers.
5186.	Controversies referred to.
5187.	Hearing and report.
5188.	Hearing to be public.
5189.	Report to Legislature.
5190.	Power of Commission.

Article 5183. Appointment of members.—There is hereby created an Industrial Commission, composed of five members, one to represent employers of labor, one to represent the employes or laborers, and three to represent the general public. The members of this commission shall be appointed biennially by the Governor, to hold office for a term of two years. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 19.]

Art. 5184. Expenses.—The members of this commission shall serve without pay or salary. The actual expenses incurred during hearings had by or before the commission and railway fare and hotel bills incurred by them shall be paid out of appropriations made to the executive office for the payment of rewards and the enforcement of the law, until such time as the Legislature may make appropriations to cover such items.

Art. 5185. Officers.—This commission shall elect one of their members as chairman of the commission, to preside at all hearings had under the provisions of this law, with power and authority usually exercised by chairmen in such capacity. The commission shall have authority to employ and pay a stenographer to act as secretary of such commission. The salary shall be paid out of the fund or funds described in article 5184. [Id.]

Art. 5186. Controversies referred to.—When the Governor becomes convinced or has reason to believe that controversies between employers and employes are of such nature and character as to be of public concern or interest he shall refer, by proclamation, such controversies to the commission here created for hearing and report. [Id.]

Art. 5187. Hearing and report.—The commission, and the members thereof, shall forthwith proceed to the place where the employees in the controversy may be located, or to such other place as may appear best to said commission for the purpose of making investigation and report. The commission shall make investigation and hear testimony concerning the controversy between the employers and employees. After said investigation is completed a full report shall be made to the Governor, covering the facts established by the investigations made and hearing had. Said commission shall make recommendations to the Governor as to what action should be taken in reference to the controversy or the settlement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5188. Hearing to be public.—All hearings had by this commission shall be open to the public; and the findings and recommendations of the commission shall be furnished to the news agencies and newspapers of the State, to be published by the several papers of this State as news items. [Id.]

Art. 5189. Report to Legislature.—The commission shall also make full report to the Legislature, if in session, and if not in session, then to the succeeding session, setting forth the findings and recommendations, accompanied by a transcript of the testimony taken at the hearings provided for herein. [Id.]

Art. 5190. Power of commission.—The commission shall have power to summon witnesses, to issue subpoenas, to compel attendance of witnesses, to compel production of books and records by witnesses, to punish for contempt, to hold sessions and to take testimony in or out of the State of Texas, and to pay witnesses as paid in felony cases. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

STEVEDORES

Art.
5191.	"Contracting stevedore."
5192.	Bond.
5193.	Suits on bond.
5194.	License.
5195.	Bond and license.

Article 5191. "Contracting stevedore."—A contracting stevedore, within the meaning of this chapter, is any person, firm or association of persons, or corporation that contracts with any ship, agent, owners, masters, managers or captains of vessels, or with any other person or corporation, for the purpose of loading or unloading, or having loaded or unloaded any vessel, ship or water craft. [Acts 1913, p. 153.]

Art. 5192. Bond.—Each contracting stevedore shall make bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, who are residents of this State, or with any surety company authorized to transact business in this State, payable to the county judge of the county in which such stevedore pursues his occupation and to his successor in office, as trustee for all persons who may become entitled to the benefits of this law; conditioned that said contracting stevedore will promptly on Saturday of each week pay each laborer his wages for labor performed in loading and unloading any such ship, vessel or water craft according to the scale of wages agreed upon, and that all agreements entered into with each of said laborers in respect to the loading and unloading of said water craft, will be faithfully and truly performed. Such bond shall be approved by the county clerk of the county in which said contracting stevedore is pursuing said business or occupation and by him shall be filed and recorded. [Id.]

Art. 5193. Suits on bond.—Suits may be maintained upon such bond by any person to whom wages are due and unpaid for such labor as is hereinbefore mentioned. The same may be sued upon until the full amount thereof is exhausted, or suits sufficient to exhaust the bond are pending, and when so exhausted, said contracting stevedore shall make and file a new bond in amount and conditioned as provided for the first. [Id.]

Art. 5194. License.—Said contracting stevedore shall, before beginning such business, file written application to such county clerk for a license to pursue the occupation of a contracting stevedore for the county mentioned. On approval of the bond and payment of an occupation tax of five dollars the clerk shall issue a license to pursue said occupation, the license fee to be paid into the general fund of the county. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 5195. Bond and license.—Such bond shall be made and such license shall be obtained in each county in which said contracting stevedore pursues said occupation. Said contracting stevedore shall be required to execute a new bond and to obtain a new license at the expiration of every year from the issuance of the former license. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWELVE

RESTRICTIONS ON LABOR

Art.

- 5196. Discrimination.
- 5197. Discrimination prohibited, etc.
- 5198. Foreign corporations to forfeit permit.
- 5199. Liability.
- 5200. Fees of attorney.
- 5201. Prima facie evidence of agency.
- 5202. May examine witnesses.
- 5203. Sworn statement.
- 5204. Failure of witness to appear.
- 5205. Immunity of witness.
- 5206. Statement of cause of discharge.
- 5207. Detectives.

Article 5196. [594] Discrimination.—The following shall constitute discrimination against persons seeking employment: Where any corporation, or receiver of same, doing business in this State, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver shall discriminate against any person seeking employment on account of his having participated in a strike. [Acts 1907, p. 142, Acts 1909, p. 160.]

Art. 5197. [595] Discrimination prohibited, etc.—Any and all discriminations against persons seeking employment as defined in this chapter are hereby prohibited and are declared to be illegal. [Acts 1907, p. 142.]

Art. 5198. [596] Foreign corporations to forfeit permit.—Any foreign corporation violating any provision of this chapter is hereby denied the right, and is prohibited from doing any business within this State, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to enforce this provision, by injunction or other proceeding in the district court of Travis County, in the name of the State of Texas. [Id.]

Art. 5199. [597] Liability.—Each person, company or corporation, who shall in any manner violate any provision of this chapter shall, for each offense committed, forfeit and pay the sum of one thousand dollars, which may be recovered in the name of the State of Texas, in any county where the offense was committed, or where the offender resides, or in Travis County; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, or the district or county attorney under the direction of the Attorney General, to sue for the recovery of the same. [Id.]

Art. 5200. [598] Fees of attorney.—The fees of the prosecuting attorney for representing the State in proceedings under this chapter shall not be accounted for as fees of office. [Id.]

Art. 5201. [599] Prima facie evidence of agency.—In prosecutions for the violation of any provision of this chapter, evidence that any person has acted as the agent of a corporation in the transaction of its business in this State shall be received as prima facie proof that his act in the name, behalf or interest of the corporation of which he was acting as the agent, was the act of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 5202. [600] May examine witnesses.—Upon the application of the Attorney General, or of any district or county attorney, made to any justice of the peace in this State, and stating that he has reason to believe that a witness, who is to be found in the county of which such justice is an officer, knows of a violation of any provision of this chapter, the justice to whom such application is made shall have summoned and examined such witness in relation to such violations. [Id.]

Art. 5203. [601] Sworn statement.—Such witness shall be summoned as provided for in criminal cases. He shall be duly sworn, and the justice shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him, and such statement shall be delivered to the attorney upon whose application the witness was summoned. [Id.]

Art. 5204. [602] Failure of witness to appear.—If the witness summoned as aforesaid fails to appear or to make statements of the facts within his knowledge under oath, or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in jail until he shall make a full statement of all facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. [Id.]

Art. 5205. [603] Immunity of witness.—Any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of any provision of this chapter about which he may testify fully and without reserve. [Id.]

Art. 5206. [604] Statement of cause of discharge.—Any written statement of cause of discharge, if true, when made by such agent, company or corporation, shall never be used as the cause for an action for libel, either civil or criminal, against the agent, company or corporation so furnishing same. [Id.]

Art. 5207. [2475-2476] Detectives.—Any person, corporation, or firm who shall employ any armed force of detectives, or other persons not residents of this State, in the State of Texas, shall be liable to pay to the State as a penalty not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction in this State. Nothing herein shall be construed to deprive any person, firm or corporation of the right of self-defense, or defense of the property of said person, firm, or corporation by such lawful means as may be necessary to such defense. [Acts 1893, p. 159; G. L., vol. 10, p. 589.]

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

EMPLOYMENT AGENTS

Art.

- 5208. Definitions.
- 5209. Exceptions.
- 5210. Application and bond.
- 5210a. Appropriation of fees collected.
- 5211. Suits on bond.
- 5212. Cancellation of license.
- 5213. Commissioner may examine.
- 5214. False advertisements.
- 5215. Overcharging.
- 5216. Receipt.
- 5217. To protect female applicants.
- 5218. License as evidence.
- 5219. Authority of commissioner.
- 5220. Injunction.
- 5221. Lockout or strike.

Article 5208. Definitions.—The term "Employment Agent" means every person, firm, partnership or association of persons engaged in the business of assisting employers to secure employees, and persons to secure employment, or of collecting information regarding employers seeking employees, and persons seeking employment. The term "Employment Office" means every place or office where the business of giving intelligence or information where employment or help may be obtained or where the business of an employment agent is carried on. The term "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Labor Statistics of the State of Texas. The term "Deputy or Inspector" means any person who shall be duly authorized by the Commissioner to act in that capacity. [Acts 1923, p. 75.]

Art. 5209. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agents who charge a fee of not more than two dollars for registration only for procuring employment for school teachers; nor to any department or bureau maintained by this State, the United States Government, or any municipal government of this State, nor to any person, firm, partnership, association of persons or corporation or any officer, or employee thereof engaged in obtaining or soliciting help from him, them or it when no fees are charged directly or indirectly the applicant for help or the applicant for employment; nor to farmers and stockraisers acting jointly or severally in securing laborers for their own use where no fee is collected or charged directly or indirectly, nor to any association or corporation chartered under the laws of Texas conducting a free employment bureau or agency. [Id.]

Art. 5210. Application and bond.—Application and bond for private employment agency license shall be executed on blank forms prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner. Application for license to act as employment agent may be made in person or by mail to the Commissioner upon blank application form which shall be verified by the applicant. Where the application is made by a firm, partnership or association of persons, it must be verified by each person for whose benefit the application is made, and such application shall also be accompanied by affidavits of at least five credible citizens, who have resided in the county in which such applicant desires to conduct the business of an employment agent, for at least three years, to the effect that the applicant or applicants has or have resided within the county in which such person or persons desires to become an employment agent for at least one year prior to the date of the application, and that such person or persons are of good moral character. The Commissioner may require additional evidence of the moral character of applicants; and no license shall be granted to any person except he be of good moral character. Such application shall be examined by the Commissioner, and if he finds that the same complies with the law and that the applicant is entitled to a license, then he shall issue a license to the applicant for each county for which application is made and shall deliver such license to the applicant upon the payment of a license fee of one hundred and fifty dollars for each county in which an employment office is to be maintained by said agent, and upon the presentation to and approval by the Commissioner of a good and sufficient bond executed by the applicant with good and sufficient surety in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the State of Texas, for each county where an employment office is to be maintained; said bond shall be conditioned that the obligor will not violate any of the duties, terms; conditions and requirements of this law, and that the principal, his agents or representatives, will not make any false representation or statement to any person soliciting any assistance from him for help or employment. Said bond shall further recite that any person injured or aggrieved by any false or fraudulent statement of such agent, or any violation of the provisions thereof by such agent, shall be entitled to bring suit thereon. Not more than one office shall be operated under any one license. Each license issued by the Commissioner shall be for a period of one year. [Acts 1923, p. 75; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 93.]

Art. 5210a. Appropriation of fees collected.—All fees collected from the issuance of licenses to employment agencies as provided for in Article 5210 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, collected or to be collected on or after September 1, 1926, are hereby appropriated for the use of the Commissioners of Labor of this State for the enforcement of the labor laws wherever it is the duty of such Commissioner to enforce such laws and also for the purpose of carrying on any of the activities or performing any of the duties devolving upon said Labor Commissioner. The life of this appropriation shall be from September 1, 1926, to August 31, 1927. [Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 11, ch. 7, § 1.]

Art. 5211. Suits on bond.—Any person injured or aggrieved by any action, conduct, false representation or false statement of any such employment agent may bring suit for damages against such agent on said bond in any county where such action, conduct, false representation or false statement was made in any court of competent jurisdiction, without the necessity of making the State a party thereto; Where the bond has become impaired by recoveries thereon to the extent of fifty per cent of the penal sum named therein, the Commissioner may, by a notice in writing, demand the execution of a new bond which, if not executed and submitted to the Commissioner within twenty days, for his approval, such failure to execute a new bond shall ipso facto forfeit and cancel the license issued to the principal named in said bond. [Acts 1923, p. 77.]

Art. 5212. Cancellation of license.—The Commissioner shall have the authority, and it shall be his duty, to cancel the license of any employment agent when it shall appear to his satisfaction, upon hearing, that such agent has been convicted in a State or Federal court of an offense which under the laws of this State is a felony, or for any offense involving moral turpitude, or that the agent had obtained his license illegally or fraudulently or was guilty of fraud, false swearing, or deception in securing his license, or has violated any provision of this chapter. The Commissioner shall not cancel the license of any employment agent until complaint in writing made by a credible person, shall be filed with him, specifying in general terms the grounds of the proposed cancellation, and a full and fair hearing given to him thereon. Upon the filing of such complaint, the Commissioner shall fix a time and place, reasonably accessible to the employment agent complained against, for the hearing of said complaint. The Commissioner shall notify the agent so complained against of the time and place fixed for said hearing by a registered letter addressed to him at his postoffice address as the same appears upon his application for license, accompanied by an exact copy of the complaint against him; and mailing of such notice and copy shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of proper service of the procedure upon the agent so complained against. The employment agent so complained against shall have at least ten days after the date of said notice mailed, exclusive of the day of mailing and day of hearing, before hearing upon said complaint shall be had, and shall have the right to file answer, introduce evidence and to be heard both in person and by counsel. The Commissioner shall have the power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses before him to testify in relation to any such complaint, and may require the production of any book, paper or document deemed pertinent thereto. Said Commissioner shall also have the power to provide for the taking of depositions of witnesses and evidence may be heard either from witnesses present testifying orally, or by deposition taken under such rules, and in such fair and impartial manner as the Commissioner may prescribe. Said hearing shall be had before the Commissioner and shall be conducted in a fair and orderly manner, and in accordance with rules of procedure to be adopted by the Commissioner. At the conclusion of the hearing the Commissioner shall enter his findings and judgment in writing and the same shall be recorded by him in a permanent record to be kept by him, and a copy thereof furnished to the employment agent complained against. Any employment agent whose license shall be cancelled by the Commissioner may, within thirty days after the cancellation thereof, and not thereafter, have his right of action for reinstatement against the Commissioner in the district court of Travis County. If the agent whose license has been cancelled by the Commissioner shall, within ten days after receiving information of such cancellation, give notice to the Commissioner in writing of his intention to file such suit, the action of the Commissioner in cancelling the said license shall be suspended for a period of thirty days, but unless such suit shall be filed within said time, the action of the Commissioner shall be final. If suit shall be filed against the Commissioner to reinstate said license within said time, the action of the Commissioner shall remain suspended until the validity of the license in question shall be adjusted by the court in said suit. In such suits the burden shall be upon the employment agent to show good cause for reinstatement of his license. [Id.]

Art. 5213. Commissioner may examine.—All the books, correspondence, memoranda, papers and records of every kind and character incident to the business of an employment agent of each agent licensed under this chapter shall be subject to examination at any time by the Commissioner, his deputies, or inspectors, and the refusal of any agent to permit the Commissioner, his deputies, or inspectors, to inspect such correspondence, memoranda, papers and records at any time shall be sufficient grounds for the Commissioner to cancel the license of such agent in accordance with the provisions of the fifth article of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5214. False advertisements.—No employment agent shall publish or cause to be published any false or misleading advertisements or notice relating to his employment agency; nor shall any such employment agent advertise his agency by means of cards, circulars, signs or in newspapers or other publications, unless such advertisements shall set forth the name of the agent and the address of his employment office; nor shall any such licensed person use any letterheads or blanks not containing the name of such employment agent and the address of his employment office. [Id.]

Art. 5215. Overcharging.—Where a fee is charged for obtaining employment, such fee in no event shall exceed the sum of three dollars, which may be collected from the applicant only after employment has been obtained and accepted by the applicant; provided, however, employment agents engaged exclusively in providing employment for skilled, professional or clerical positions may charge, with the written consent of the applicant, a fee, not to exceed twenty per cent of the first month's salary. [Id.]

Art. 5216. Receipt.—A receipt shall be given to the applicant by the employment agent for all fees collected from such applicant. The form of such receipt shall be prescribed by the Commissioner and shall contain the name of the applicant, the amount of the fee paid, the date, the character of the work or the situation secured, the name of the employer, together with his post-office address and the location of the work the applicant is to perform. [Id.]

Art. 5217. To protect female applicants.—No employment agent shall furnish any female for immoral purposes; or send, or cause to be sent any female to enter as servant, inmate, or for any purpose whatsoever, any place of bad repute, house of ill-fame, or assignation house, or any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, the character of which such employment agent could have ascertained by reasonable diligence. [Id.]

Art. 5218. License as evidence.—Any application made by an employment agent for a license, or a certified copy thereof under the hand and seal of the Commissioner, shall be received as evidence in any court in this State without the necessity of proving the execution thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5219. Authority of Commissioner.—The Commissioner and his deputies, or inspectors, shall have the authority of peace officers only in making arrests of any person or persons who violate, in their presence, any provision of this chapter for which a penalty is prescribed, and when such arrest has been made the Commissioner, or his duly appointed deputies or inspectors, may enter any employment office at any time when such employment office is open for business, and inspect the registers and all other records of whatsoever kind and character of such employment agent for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this law are being violated, and the refusal of any employment agent to permit such inspection shall be sufficient reason for the Commissioner to cancel the license of such agent in accordance with the provisions of Article 5212. [Id.]

Art. 5220. Injunction.—Any person who shall engage in the business of an employment agent, or who shall conduct an employment office, without first procuring a license as required and provided for in this chapter may be enjoined from unlawfully pursuing such business or occupation, and the Attorney General shall bring suit for such purpose in the name of the State of Texas in Travis County, and the district or county attorney of any county wherein such person engages in such business or conducts an employment office in violation of the preceding article is hereby authorized to maintain in the proper court of said county a suit in the name of the State of Texas to enjoin and prevent such person from unlawfully pursuing such occupation. In all such cases it shall not be necessary for the attorney bringing the suit to verify the pleadings or for the State to execute any bond as a condition precedent to the issuing of any injunction or restraining order hereunder. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 94.]

Art. 5221. Lockout or strike.—No employment agent shall send any person to a prospective employer who is conducting a "lockout" against all or part of his employees; or whose employees, or a part of them are out on a strike, without first apprising said person of the existence of said "lockout" or strike. [Acts 1923, p. 81.]

LANDLORD AND TENANT

Art.
5222.	Landlord's lien.
5223.	When lien expires.
5224.	Does not apply.
5225.	Tenant not to remove property.
5226.	Removal not a waiver.
5227.	Distress warrant.
5228.	Oath and bond.
5229.	Issuance of distress warrant.
5230.	Duty of officer.
5231.	Defendant may replevy.
5232.	Judgment against sureties.
5233.	Perishable property sold.
5234.	Citation for defendant.
5235.	Petition.
5236.	Rights of tenant.
5237.	Tenants shall not sub-let.
5238.	Owners of buildings lien.
5239.	Distress warrant.

Article 5222. [5475] [3235] Landlord's lien.
—All persons leasing or renting lands or tenements at will or for a term of years shall have a preference lien upon the property of the tenant, as hereinafter indicated, upon such premises, for any rent that may become due and for all money and the value of all animals, tools, provisions and supplies furnished by the landlord to the tenant to make a crop on such premises; and to gather, secure, house and put the same in condition for marketing, the money, animals and tools and provisions and supplies so furnished being necessary for that purpose, whether the same is to be paid in money, agricultural products or other property; and this lien shall apply only to animals, tools and other property furnished by the landlord to the tenant and to the crop raised on such premises. This article shall not apply in any way nor in any case where any person leases or rents lands or tenements at will or for a term of years for agricultural purposes where the same is cultivated by the tenant who furnishes everything except the land, and where the landlord charges a rental of more than one-third of the value of the grain and more than one-fourth of the value of the cotton raised on said land; nor where the landlord furnishes everything except the labor and the tenant furnishes the labor and the landlord directly or indirectly charges a rental of more than one-half the value of the grain and more than one-half of the value of the cotton raised on said land, and any contract for the leasing or renting of land or tenements at will or for a term of years for agricultural purposes stipulating or fixing a higher or greater rental than that herein provided for shall be null and void, and shall not be enforceable in any court in this State by an action either at law or in equity, and no lien of any kind, either contractual or statutory, shall attach in favor of the landlord, his estate or assigns, upon any of the property named, nor for the purpose mentioned in this article. If any landlord or any person for him shall violate or attempt to evade any provision of this article by collecting or receiving a greater amount of rent for such land than herein provided shall be collected or received by him upon any contract, either written or verbal, the tenant or person paying the same, or the legal representatives thereof, may, by an action of debt instituted in the county of the defendant's residence or in the county where such rents or money may have been received or collected, or where said contract may have been entered into, or where the party or parties paying the same resided when such contract was made, within two years after such payment, recover from the person, firm or corporation receiving the same, double the full amount of such rent or money so received or collected. [Acts 1874, p. 55; P. D. 7418c; G. L. vol. 8, p. 57; Acts. 1915, p. 77.]

Art. 5223. [5477] [3237] When lien expires.—Such preference lien shall continue as to such agricultural products and as to animals, tools and other property furnished to the tenant, as aforesaid, so long as they remain on such rented or leased premises, and for one month thereafter; and such lien as to agricultural products, if stored in public or bonded warehouses controlled or regulated by the laws of the State within thirty days after the removal of said products from said rented premises, shall continue so long as they remain in such warehouses; and such lien, as to agricultural products and as to animals and tools furnished as aforesaid, shall be superior to all laws exempting such property from forced sale. [Id. Acts 1914, 2nd C. S., p. 33.]

Art. 5224. [5478] [3238] Does not apply.—Such lien shall not attach to the goods, wares and merchandise of a merchant, trader or mechanic, sold and delivered in good faith in the regular course of business to the tenant. [Id.]

Art. 5225. [5476] [3236] Tenant not to remove property.—The tenant, while the rent and advances remain unpaid, shall not without the consent of the landlord remove or permit to be removed from the premises so leased or rented any agricultural product produced thereon, or any of the animals, tools or property furnished as aforesaid. [Id.]

Art. 5226. [5478a] [3239] Removal not a waiver.—The removal of the agricultural products with the consent of the landlord for the purpose of being prepared for market shall not be considered a waiver of such lien, but such lien shall continue and attach to the products so removed the same as if they had remained on such rented or leased premises. [Id.]

Art. 5227. [5479] [3240] Distress warrant.—When any rent or advances shall become due, or the tenant shall be about to remove from such leased or rented premises, or to remove his property from such premises, the person to whom the rents or advances are payable, his agent, attorney, assigns, heirs or legal representatives may apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the premises are situated, or in which the property upon which a lien for rents or advances exists may be found, or to any justice having jurisdiction of the cause of action, for a warrant to seize the property of such tenant. If a distress warrant shall be issued by any justice, other than the justice of the peace of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated or in which the defendant may reside, such warrant shall be made returnable to, and the affidavit and bond upon which it is issued shall be transmitted by the justice issuing such distress warrant to some justice of the precinct in which the rented premises may be situated, or in which the defendant may reside. [Acts 1881, p. 98; G. L. vol. 9, p. 190.]

Art. 5228. [5480] [3241] Oath and bond.—The plaintiff, his agent or attorney shall make oath that the amount sued for is rent or advances, such as are mentioned in the first article of this title, or shall produce a writing signed by such tenant to that effect, and shall further swear that such warrant is not sued out for the purpose of vexing and harassing the defendant. The person applying for such warrant shall execute a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice of the peace, payable to the defendant, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages as he may sustain in case such warrant has been illegally and unjustly sued out, which bond shall be filed among the papers of the cause; and, in case the suit shall be finally decided in favor of defendant, he may bring suit against the plaintiff and his sureties on such bond, and shall recover such damages as may be awarded to him.

Art. 5229. [5481] [3242] Issuance of distress warrant.—Upon the filing of such oath and bond such justice shall issue his warrant to the proper officer commanding him to seize the property of the defendant, or so much thereof as will satisfy the demand. Such warrant shall be returnable to the court having exclusive jurisdiction thereof, but if the amount in controversy is within the jurisdiction of both the county and district courts, the writ shall be made returnable to either court as the plaintiff in such writ may direct. When the writ is made returnable to the district or county court the justice shall transmit all papers in said cause to the proper court on or before the first day of the next term thereof.

Art. 5230. [5482] [3243] Duty of officer.—The officer to whom such warrant is directed shall seize the property of such tenant, or so much thereof as shall be of value sufficient to satisfy such debt and costs, and safely keep it in his possession unless replevied, and make due return thereof to the court to which the warrant is returnable at the next term thereof.

Art. 5231. [5483] [3244] Defendant may replevy.—The defendant at any time within ten days from the date of levy may replevy the property by giving bond payable to the plaintiff, with two or more good and sufficient sureties in double the amount of the debt, or at his election, for the value of the property so seized, conditioned that if the defendant be cast in the action he shall satisfy the judgment that may be rendered against him or pay the estimated value of the property, with lawful interest thereon from the date of the bond.

Art. 5232. [5484] [3245] Judgment against sureties.—When the property levied on has been replevied and if final judgment is rendered against the defendant, such judgment shall also be against him and his sureties on his replevy bond for the amount of the judgment and interest or for the value of the property replevied and interest, according to the terms of such bond.

Art. 5233. [5485] [3246] Perishable property sold.—If the property is of a perishable or wasting kind, and the defendant fails to replevy as herein provided, the officer making the levy, or the plaintiff, or the defendant, may apply to the court, or judge thereof, to which the warrant is returnable, either in term time or vacation for an order to sell such property; and, if any person other than the defendant apply for such order of sale, the court shall not grant such order, unless the person applying shall file with such court a bond payable to the defendant, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said court, that they will be responsible to the defendant for such damages as he may sustain in case such sale be illegally and unjustly applied for, or be illegally and unjustly made, which sale shall be conducted as sales under execution. [R. S. 1879.]

Art. 5234. [5486] [3247] Citation for defendant.—The justice at the time he issues the warrant shall issue a citation to the defendant requiring him to answer before such justice, if he has jurisdiction to finally try the cause, and upon its being returned served, to proceed to judgment as in ordinary cases; and, if he has not such jurisdiction, the citation shall require the defendant to answer before the court to which the warrant was made returnable, and shall be returned with the other papers to such court. If the defendant has removed from the county without service, the proper officer shall state this fact in his return on the citation; and the court shall proceed to try the case ex parte, and may enter the proper judgment. [P. D. 7418f.]

Art. 5235. [5487] [3248] Petition.—When the warrant is made returnable to the district or county court, the plaintiff shall file his petition on or before the appearance day of the term of court to which said papers are returnable. [Id.]

Art. 5236. [5488] [3249] Rights of tenant.—Should the landlord, without default on the part of the tenant or lessee, fail to comply in any respect with his part of the contract, he shall be responsible to said tenant or lessee for whatever damages may be sustained thereby; and to secure such damages to such tenant or lessee, he shall have a lien on all the property of the landlord in his possession not exempt from forced sale, as well as upon all rents due to said landlord under said contract. [Acts 1876, p. 137; G. L. vol. 8, p. 973.]

Art. 5237. [5489] [3250] Tenants shall not sub-let.—A person renting said lands or tenements shall not rent or lease the same during the term of said lease to any other person without first obtaining the consent of the landlord, his agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 5238. [5490] [3251] Owners of buildings lien.—All persons leasing or renting any residence, storehouse, or other building, shall have a preference lien upon all property of the tenant in such residence, storehouse, or other building for the payment of rents due and to become due provided that in order to secure the lien for rents that are more than six months due, it shall be necessary for the person leasing or renting any storehouse or other building which is used for commercial purposes, to file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such storehouse or such other building is situated, a sworn statement of the amount of rent due, itemized as to the months for which it is claimed to be due, together with the name and address of the tenant, a description of the rented premises, the date on which the rental contract began and that on which it is to terminate, verified by the person claiming such lien, his agent or attorney, and such statement when so verified shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book to be provided for such purpose. No lien for rent more than six months past due upon any storehouse or other building rented for commercial purposes shall be valid as against bona fide purchasers or unsecured or lien creditors of said tenant, unless said statement shall be verified, filed and recorded as above provided.

Each county clerk shall keep an alphabetical index for the purpose of recording the rental liens above described.

The lien for rents to become due shall not continue or be enforced for a longer period than the current contract years, it being intended by the term "current contract years" to embrace a period of twelve months, reckoning from the beginning of the lease or rental contract, whether the same be in the first or any other year of such lease or rental contract. Such lien shall continue and be in force so long as the tenant shall occupy the rental premises, and for one month thereafter; but this article shall not be construed as in any manner repealing or affecting any Act exempting property from forced sale. [Acts 1889, p. 11; Acts 1919, p. 170.]

Art. 5239. [5491] [3252] Distress warrant.—When any rent shall become due, or the tenant about to remove from such leased or rented buildings, or remove his property therefrom, it shall be lawful for the person to whom the rent is payable, his agent, attorney or assignee, to apply to a justice of the peace of the precinct where the building is situated for a distress warrant, which shall be issued on an affidavit and bond; and the same proceedings shall be had on the issuance, trial and return of such warrant and the same rights conferred on the owners of storehouses and residences as is provided in this title in cases of other landlords. [Acts 1879, p. 128; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1428.]

LANDS—ACQUISITION FOR PUBLIC USE

1. STATE USE

Art.
5240. Mode of acquisition.
5241. State railroad.

2. FEDERAL USE

5242. Authorized uses.
5243. Condemnation proceedings.
5244. Immediate occupancy.
5245. State land.
5246. To record title.
5247. Federal jurisdiction.
5248. Exempt from taxation.

1. STATE USE

Article 5240. [5247—8] Mode of acquisition.—When any land shall be required by the State for any character of public use, the Governor is authorized to purchase said land, or the right to the use thereof, for such purpose; or, failing to agree with the owner on the price therefor, such land may be condemned for such public use in the name of this State. Upon the direction of the Governor, proceedings shall be instituted against the owner of the land by the Attorney General or under his direction by the district or county attorney. Should the award of damages in the opinion of the Governor be excessive, such award shall not be paid but the State shall pay the costs of the proceedings and no further action shall be taken. [Acts 1903, 1st C. S., p. 10.]

Art. 5241. [5251] State railroad.—If any land is acquired by purchase or condemnation to obtain right of way for any railroad or tram road, to be built or extended and operated in connection with, or for the use of, any of the penitentiaries of this State, or any of the farms of this State, and used in connection with the State penitentiaries, the penitentiary board is hereby authorized and required to pay, out of any money authorized by law to be used for the support and maintenance of said penitentiaries, the damages and costs of condemnation, or the purchase price of said property. [Id.]

2. FEDERAL USE

Art. 5242. [5252] Authorized uses.—The United States Government through its proper agent, may purchase, acquire, hold, own, occupy and possess such lands within the limits of this State as it deems expedient and may seek to occupy and hold as sites on which to erect and maintain light houses, forts, military stations, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, custom houses, post offices and all other needful public buildings, and for the purpose of erecting and constructing locks and dams, for the straightening of streams by making cutoffs, building levees, or for the erection of any other structures or improvements that may become necessary in developing or improving the waterways, rivers and harbors of Texas and the consent of the Legislature is hereby expressly given to any such purchase or acquisition made in accordance with the provisions of this law. [Acts 1905, p. 101.]

Art. 5243. [5253] Condemnation proceedings.—Whenever the land owner and the authorized Federal agent cannot agree upon the purchase price, then such agent may institute condemnation proceedings against such owner. [Id.]

Art. 5244. [5271] Immediate occupancy.—Upon the filing of the award of the commissioners with the county judge, if the United States Government shall deposit the amount of the award of the commissioners, together with all costs adjudged against the United States, they may proceed immediately to the occupancy of the said land and to the construction of their said improvements without awaiting the decision of the county court. [Id.]

Art. 5245. [5273] [372] [331] State land.—When this State may be the owner of any land desired by the United States for any purpose specified in this title, the Governor may sell such land to the United States, and upon payment of the purchase money therefor into the Treasury, the Land Commissioner, upon the order of the Governor, shall issue a patent to the United States for such land in like manner as other patents are issued. [Acts 1854, p. 102; P. D. 5450; G. L. vol. 3, p. 1546.]

Art. 5246. [5274] [373] [332] To record title.—All deeds of conveyances, decrees, patents, or other instruments vesting title in lands within this State in the United States, shall be recorded in the land records of the county in which such lands, or a part thereof, may be situated, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes and until filed for record in the proper county they shall not take effect as to subsequent purchasers in good faith, for a valuable consideration, and without notice. [Acts 1871, p. 19; P. D. 7693, G. L. vol. 6, p. 921.]

Art. 5247. [5275-6] Federal jurisdiction.—Whenever the United States shall acquire any lands under this title, and shall desire to acquire constitutional jurisdiction over such lands for any purpose authorized herein, it shall be lawful for the Governor, in the name and in behalf of the State, to cede to the United States exclusive jurisdiction over any lands so acquired, when application may be made to him for that purpose, which application shall be in writing and accompanied with the proper evidence of such acquisition, duly authenticated and recorded, containing or having annexed thereto, an accurate description by metes and bounds of the lands sought to be ceded. No such cession shall ever be made except upon the express condition that this State shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over every portion of the lands so ceded, so far, that all process, civil or criminal[,] issuing under the authority of this State or any of the courts or judicial officers thereof, may be executed by the proper officers of the State, upon any person amenable to the same within the limits of the land so ceded, in like manner and like effect as if no such cession had taken place; and such condition shall be inserted in such instrument of cession. [Acts 1849, p. 12; G. L. vol. 3, p. 450.]

Art. 5248. [5277] [376] [335] Exempt from taxation.—The United States shall be secure in their possession and enjoyment of all lands acquired under the provisions of this title; and such lands and all improvements thereon shall be exempt from any taxation under the authority of this State so long as the same are held, owned, used and occupied by the United States for the purposes expressed in this title and not otherwise. [Acts 1871, p. 19; G. L. vol. 6, p. 921.]

 - 5264. Public access to papers.
 - 5265. Removal of papers.
 - 5266. Receipts for papers.
 - 5267. Liability of Commissioner.

1. THE COMMISSIONER

Article 5249. [4392] [2864] Election.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office, hereinafter called the Commissioner, shall be elected at each general election for a term of two years, and shall reside at Austin during his continuance in office. [Const. art. 4, secs. 2, 23.]

Art. 5250. [4394] [2866] Bond.—The Commissioner shall give bond with three or more sureties for fifty thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his official duties. All other bonds required by law of employees of the General Land Office shall be executed and approved in like manner. [Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5251. [4396-4397] General duties.—The Commissioner shall superintend, control and direct the official conduct of all subordinate officers of the General Land Office, and execute and perform all acts and things touching or respecting the public land of this State or rights of individuals in relation thereto, as may be required by law, and make and enforce suitable rules consistent therewith. He shall give information to the Governor and Legislature concerning the public lands, or the General Land Office, when required.

Art. 5252. [5389] [4215] Abstract clerk.—The Commissioner shall make it the special duty of one of his clerks to constantly correct the abstract of patented, titled and surveyed lands required to be kept in his office according to errors discovered, changes by cancellation of patents, changes of county lines, and creation of new counties, and to add all new patented surveys at the date of the patent. [Acts 1837, p. 62; P. D. 4090; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1404.]

Art. 5253. [5390] [4216] Report to Comptroller.—During August of each year the Commissioner shall make out and furnish to the Comptroller a supplementary abstract of all patents issued from his office during the year ending on the last day of August. [Id.]

Art. 5254. [5391-5392] May print abstracts.—The Comptroller may have not more than fifteen hundred copies of said supplementary abstracts printed and bound for distribution among those officers of the State and counties whose duties require its use, the surplus copies to be sold at a reasonable price to parties applying for them. The costs so incurred shall be paid out of the general appropriation for printing; and the Comptroller shall pay all money received from such sales into the Treasury to the credit of said appropriation. [Id.]

Art. 5255. [4398-4399] Chief clerk.—The Commissioner shall appoint a chief clerk who shall give bond in the sum of twenty thousand dollars. He shall be authorized to perform all of the duties required of the Commissioner in case of his sickness, absence, death or resignation. [Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5256. [4400-4401] Spanish translator.—The Commissioner shall appoint a translator who shall thoroughly understand Spanish and English languages, who shall give bond as required of the chief clerk, and take the official oath. He shall translate into English and record in a book all laws and public contracts relating to titles of lands, and all original titles or papers relating thereto on file in the General Land Office, which are written in the Spanish language. [Id.]

Art. 5257. [4402-3-4-5] Receiving clerk.—With the consent of the Governor, the Commissioner shall appoint a suitable person as receiving clerk for the Land Office. Such person shall give bond in the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars. The receiving clerk shall:

1. Receive all funds required by law to be paid to the Commissioner and give the person depositing money a certificate of deposit stating the amount, name of party, and character of claim upon which deposited; and if any funds are received of a general character in advance of fees and dues, it shall be so stated; and said clerk shall be responsible therefor to the state or individual.

2. Keep books in which he shall enter each deposit separately, giving name of party, number of claim and situation of land sought to be perfected, and shall keep all letters and other vouchers filed in neat and regular order and number corresponding with his books. He shall report to the Treasurer on the last day of each month all funds in his hands due the State, paying the same in kind and taking the receipt in his own name. He shall keep separate columns in his books, showing the amount of specie or the amount of currency or other funds paid in. Upon his removal or resignation, he shall turn over his books, accounts and money in hand to his successor, when properly qualified, or to the Commissioner, taking a receipt for the same.

3. Furnish the Governor, through the Commissioner, on or before the meeting of the Legislature, a correct report of the condition of his office, the money received, giving character of claim, the money paid out and character of payment. [Acts 1866, p. 161; G. L. vol. 5, p. 1079.]

Art. 5258. [4406] [2879] Examination of books.—The Commissioner shall examine the books and accounts of the receiving clerk and note that they are properly kept, and if any defalcation is found he shall at once report the same to the Governor, who shall suspend said clerk from office until an examination is made, and if found guilty he shall be removed and suit instituted for recovery upon his bond. [Id.]

Art. 5259. [4407] [2880] Draftsmen.—The Commissioner shall appoint a chief draftsman and such number of compiling or assistant draftsmen as authorized by law, who shall make out and complete maps of all surveys made in the several counties from the maps furnished by county surveyors; and they shall plot additional surveys upon the proper county maps as forwarded to the Land Office. They shall perform all drafting and other duties required of them by the Commissioner for the benefit of the State or individuals. [Acts 1841, p. 150; G. L. vol. 2, p. 614.]

Art. 5260. [4408-9-10] Conditions of employment.—The Commissioner shall appoint such number of clerks as authorized by legislative appropriation or other law of this State. All clerks and employees of the Land Office shall hold their offices and positions at the pleasure of the Commissioner, and may be removed by him at any time for satisfactory cause.

2. GENERAL LAND OFFICE

Art. 5261. [5280] [4042] Office established.—There shall be one general land office at Austin, where all land titles emanating from the State shall be registered when not prohibited by the Constitution. The term "land office," as used in this title shall mean the General Land Office of this State. [Const. art. 14, sec. 1; Acts 1846, p. 232; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1538.]

Art. 5262. [5281] [4043] Custody of records.—All books, accounts, records, papers, maps and original documents appertaining to land titles and which were termed archives by law, shall be the books and papers of said office, under the control and custody of the Commissioner. He shall keep in the Land Office a copy of each permit, lease or other paper issued by authority of law. [Acts 1837, p. 63; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5263. [5283] Filing papers.—The Commissioner shall adopt the most convenient method for filing papers and preserving the records of said office.

A list of all papers in each file shall be retained in the file. Each employee who files a paper shall place his own name thereon. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5264. [5284-5285] Public access to papers.—One desiring to examine any paper, record or file shall first obtain the written consent of the Commissioner or the chief clerk, and an order for the detail of a clerk to be present and superintend such examination. After the examination, the clerk shall carefully examine the papers of said file and see that they are all in place. [Acts 1873, p. 180; G. L. vol. 7, p. 632.]

Art. 5265. [5290] [4053] Removal of papers.—No transfer or deed that may be a link in any chain of title to any certificate on file in the Land Office shall be withdrawn by any one. The Commissioner shall deliver to the interested party on demand certified copies thereof which shall have the same force and effect as the originals. If the genuineness of any such original paper is questioned in any suit, the Commissioner shall deliver the same to the proper party on the order of the court where such suit is pending; and the Commissioner shall retain a duly certified copy thereof, which shall have the same force and effect as the original in the event of its loss. [Acts 1879, p. 40; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1340.]

Art. 5266. [5291] [4061] Receipts for papers.—No paper, certificate, copy or document, other than a patent, shall be delivered to the owner until he has received for the same. The receipt shall state his residence and post office, and, if delivered to an agent or attorney, it shall also state his residence and post office. The Commissioner shall file such receipt with the other papers. When the Commissioner has good reason to doubt the genuineness of any transfer, power of attorney, or other paper on file in his office, he shall not permit any one to obtain an official copy thereof until such doubts have been removed. [Id.]

Art. 5267. [5292] [4062] Liability of Commissioner.—The Commissioner and the sureties on his official bond shall be responsible to any party injured by removal, withdrawal or alteration of any record or file in said office, unless said Commissioner can show that such act has taken place by permission of the party owning said file or record. [Id.]

1. LICENSED LAND SURVEYORS

Article 5268. Board of Examiners.—The Board of Examiners of Land Surveyors shall be appointed by the Governor, and shall be composed of the Commissioner and two reputable land surveyors of not less than fifteen years practical and active experience in the field as land surveyors. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 173.]

Art. 5269. Organization of board.—The board shall organize by electing from their number a chairman and a secretary-treasurer. The concurrence of two members shall be necessary for the adoption or rejection of any question upon which they may be called to pass. The records and books of the board relating to the execution of this law shall be deposited in the Land Office for safe-keeping when not in use by the board. [Id.]

Art. 5270. Duties of board.—The board shall prepare written questions upon the theory of surveying, practical surveying, theory and use of surveyor's instruments, calculation of areas, closing field notes, the law of land boundaries and such other matters pertaining to surveying as the board may deem important. When the questions prepared by the board and the answers thereto shall have been returned to the chairman of the board as herein provided, he shall either convene the board for the purpose of passing upon such answers and the issuance or refusal of the license, or he may transmit the questions and answers to other members of the board for their consideration and action, and shall issue license to the applicant if he shall have passed a successful examination as herein provided. Upon receipt of a written application for license, the board shall forward the same to the custodian of questions for teachers' certificates in the county where such applicant resides, together with the questions prepared by the board, with suitable words on the inclosure indicating the contents. [Id.]

Art. 5271. Examination.—Upon receipt of the questions by the custodian of questions for teachers' certificates as provided herein, he shall hold the same unopened and shall open the same only in the presence of the applicant or applicants at the same time and place as may be required for the examination of applicants for teachers' certificates. Each applicant shall deposit ten dollars with the authority that may be authorized to receive such fees from applicants for teachers' certificates. The authority for conducting the examination for teachers' certificates shall conduct the examination of applicants for license hereunder in the same manner as is provided by law for the examination of applicants for teachers' certificates. When such applicant shall have returned the questions and answers to the source from which they were received, the authority receiving them shall return both questions and answers to the chairman of the Board of Examiners of Land Surveyors, together with eight dollars of the ten dollars deposited by each applicant, retaining the two dollars, which two dollars shall be disposed of as are the fees paid by applicants for teachers' certificates. Such questions and answers shall be deposited in the Land Office and there safely kept for at least one year. If a license be refused an applicant he may take any subsequent examination under the same conditions as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 5272. Seal of licensee.—Each licensed land surveyor shall procure a seal of office. Around the margin shall be the words "Licensed State Land Surveyor," and between the points of the star in the said seal shall be the word "Texas." He shall attest with said seal all certificates and other official acts issued under the provisions of this law. No certificate or other instrument issued by such surveyor shall be admitted in evidence or have any legal effect unless such seal is impressed thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5273. License: term of.—A license issued to an applicant under these provisions shall be valid for life unless sooner revoked by the Board for any of the following causes: That the holder has been found by a court of competent jurisdiction guilty of a felony or adjudged to have committed a theft, or fraud, or to be insane or incompetent, or shall be found by the Board to have unlawfully given information concerning any undisclosed public land or to have been directly or indirectly interested in the purchase or in the acquisition of title to any public land or to have been found guilty of any act or default discreditable to the surveying profession. [Id.]

Art. 5274. Revocation of license.—Before any license issued under these provisions shall be revoked, the holder shall have been advised by written notice from the Board, mailed to him at his last known address, at least thirty days before the day fixed for hearing, of any charge against him, stating the charge, and the time and place for such hearing. The evidence adduced on such hearing shall be reduced to writing. If the Board finds the charges sustained by the evidence, the license of such surveyor shall be revoked. The surveyor whose license has been revoked may appeal from such revocation to any district court of the county in which he resides. Upon such appeal the court shall admit in evidence the written record of the Board together with such other evidence as may be offered on either side in accordance with the rules of evidence in such courts. [Id.]

Art. 5275. Oath and bond.—Before one who receives a land surveyor's license shall be authorized to perform the duties of licensed land surveyor, he shall take the official oath, and shall make a good bond in the sum of one thousand dollars payable to the Governor, conditioned that he will faithfully, impartially and honestly perform all the duties of a licensed surveyor, to the best of his skill and ability in all matters wherein he may be employed. Such oath and bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the licensee resides, and after being so recorded shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied with one dollar filing fee, and thereupon the licensee shall be authorized to enter upon the discharge of the duties of a licensed land surveyor. [Id.]

Art. 5276. Authority of licensee.—Land surveyors licensed under these provisions are hereby authorized to perform the duties that may be performed by county surveyors, and shall be subject to the direction of the Governor, Land Commissioner, Attorney General and the courts of the State in matters of land surveying in such cases as may come under the supervision of such authorities. The jurisdiction of such licensees shall be coextensive with the limits of the State. They may hold the office of county surveyor, and if so elected shall qualify as provided by law for county surveyors, but such election for any particular county shall not limit the jurisdiction of said surveyor to such county, nor shall the election of a county surveyor for any particular county prevent any licensed surveyor from performing the duties of a surveyor in such county. All field notes made by one licensed under this law shall be signed by such surveyor, followed by the designation, "Licensed land surveyor." [Id.]

Art. 5277. Field notes to be recorded.—Every survey made by any licensed surveyor shall be recorded in the county surveyor's records of the proper county, and for the purpose of such record, and for all other purposes, licensed surveyors shall have free and unrestrained access to the county surveyor's records. The field notes of all surveys and plats of same made by any licensed land surveyor affecting the lines, boundaries and areas of unpatented land shall be forwarded to the Land Office. All field notes made by a licensed land surveyor in any county in this State shall have the same force and effect and be admissible in evidence the same as field notes made by county surveyors. [Id.]

Art. 5278. Undisclosed land.—If a licensed surveyor shall discover an undisclosed tract of public land he shall not make known that fact to anyone except to such person as may have it enclosed, but he shall forward to the Land Office a report of the existence of such tract and the acreage therein, and its probable value. [Id.]

Art. 5279. Compensation.—A licensed land surveyor shall receive as compensation for his services not to exceed ten dollars per day and other expenses incident to the survey as shall be agreed upon between the surveyor and the interested party, whether the same be a private person, a county, a court or the State. [Id.]

Art. 5280. Certified copies.—Surveyors qualified under this law and county surveyors may make a certificate of any fact shown by the books, documents and records of any county surveyor's office and may make a certified copy of any document or record or entry shown by record of such county surveyor, and said certificate shall be admissible in evidence as to what said records may disclose. For each such certificate the surveyor may charge a fee of one dollar, and for each one hundred words contained in any certified copy thirty-five cents. When a county has a county surveyor such surveyor alone shall be authorized to make certificates and certified copies and receive the fees therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5281. Disposition of fees.—The sum received by the Board or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be used to defray the actual expenses incurred by the members of said Board in the execution of this law, and the remainder shall be deposited annually in the State Treasury. No appropriation shall ever be made to defray the expenses of said Board or to carry into effect any provision of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5282. Experienced surveyors.—Any applicant who is a reputable surveyor of fifteen years actual experience in the field as such surveyor shall receive a license without examination when he shall have applied therefor, accompanying such application to the Board with the affidavits of three credible persons to the effect that such applicant is a reputable land surveyor of fifteen years actual experience in the field; and upon the payment of a fee of two dollars to said Board. [Id.]

2. COUNTY SURVEYORS

Art. 5283. [5300–5325–5326] Election.—A county surveyor shall be elected in each county at each general election for a term of two years. He shall reside in the county and keep his office at the courthouse or some suitable building at the county seat, the rent therefor to be paid by the commissioners' court on satisfactory showing that the rent is reasonable, the office necessary and that there is no available office at the courthouse. [Const., art. 6, sec. 44; Acts 1858, p. 66; Acts 1876, p. 196; G. L. vol. 4, p. 938; vol. 8, p. 1032.]

Art. 5284. [5301] [4069] Bond.—The county surveyor shall first give bond in such sum as the commissioners' court may fix, not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 1081, 4522; Acts 1897, p. 26; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5285. [5308] [4076] Deputy.—Each county surveyor may appoint a deputy surveyor as he may deem necessary, and shall administer his official oath and take his bond in the sum of five thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. The deputy may do all acts authorized or required by law to be done by the county surveyor. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 4522; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5286. [5309] [4077] Chain carriers.—Each county surveyor may employ persons sixteen years of age or over as chain carriers or markers, and shall administer to each an oath to faithfully perform his duties as such in accordance with the instructions given him. [Id.]

Art. 5287. [5303–5307] Duties.—Each county surveyor shall receive and examine all field notes of surveys made in said county upon which patents are to be obtained, and shall certify to the same according to law and record such field notes in a book to be kept by him for that purpose; and he shall perform such other duties as may be required of him by law. The commissioners' court shall furnish him all necessary books of record. [Id.]

Art. 5288. [5304] [4072] Inclosed school lands.—He shall report to the commissioners' court on the first Monday in June each year the number of sections of public school lands in his county inclosed during the past year, and the names of the persons controlling same, and the number of sections controlled by each person. [Acts 1879, p. 101; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1401.]

Art. 5289. [5343] [4153] Failure to survey.—If any county surveyor fails, neglects or refuses, when the amount of lawful surveying fees of any location of land may be tendered to him by any person legally entitled to the survey, to make or cause such survey to be made within one month after such tender, he and his sureties shall be liable on his official bond to such injured parties in the amount of damages or injury said parties may sustain by reason of such neglect, refusal or failure. [Acts 1837, p. 63; G. L. vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5290. [5305] [4073] To record field notes.—Each county surveyor shall record in a well bound book all the surveys in his county, with the plats thereof that he may make, whether private or official. Such record shall be open to the inspection of the public. For such service the surveyor may charge in addition to the fees allowed by law for field work, twenty cents per hundred words for such record. [Acts 1881, p. 71; G. L. vol. 9, p. 163.]

Art. 5291. [5306–5312] Record of surveys.—Each county surveyor shall quarterly plat upon the map of his county all surveys made during the preceding quarter and transmit sketches and field notes of same to the Commissioner. Such map shall be free to public inspection. [Acts 1858, p. 66; P. D. 1087; G. L. vol. 4, p. 938.]

Art. 5292. [5328] [4098] Right to examine books.—Any person interested, for himself, or as agent or attorney of another, shall at all times have the right to examine the books, papers, plats, maps or other archives belonging to the office of any surveyor, on the payment of the fee fixed by law. [Id.]

Art. 5293. [5313] [4081] Change of county boundary.—When any county boundaries are changed the surveyor of the county from which territory may be so taken shall furnish the surveyor of the county including such territory with a complete copy of all the field notes of surveys made in the same. [Acts 1840, p. 191; G. L. vol. 2, p. 365.]

Art. 5294. [5324] [4092] Lost records.—Whenever the maps, field notes of surveys, or other records, or any part thereof of the surveyor's office shall from any cause be lost or destroyed, such surveyor shall obtain from the Commissioner a transcript of such lost records certified to as required by law, and which certified copy shall have the same force and effect as the original. Such surveyor shall receive five cents and the State ten cents per hundred words for such transcript to be paid by the commissioners' court. [Acts 1885, p. 92; Amend. Sen. Jour. p. 482, 1895; G. L. vol. 9, p. 712.]

Art. 5295. [5330–1] Standards of measure.—Each surveyor shall, in some convenient place at the county seat, establish a true meridian by a substantial monument, to be erected at the expense of the county, and shall adjust to the said meridian all compasses or other such instruments before being used; and shall keep in his office a standard chain of the true measurement of ten varas, to which all of his chains shall be adjusted before being used. All surveyors shall be responsible to parties interested for any cost that may accrue in rectifying any errors that may occur in their work by reason of neglect or failure to comply with the requirements of this article. [Acts 1873, p. 173; P. D. 7099; G. L. vol. 7, p. 625.]

Art. 5296. [5332] [4103] Removal: delivery of records.—Upon removal from office, or at the expiration of his term of office, each county surveyor shall deliver to his successor all records, books, papers, maps and other things appertaining to his office.

Art. 5297. [5333] [4104] Custody of records in absence.—Whenever an organized county from any cause has not a qualified county surveyor, the county clerk of such county shall take charge of all records, maps and papers belonging to the county surveyor's office and safely keep the same in his office. [Acts 1866, p. 31; G. L. vol. 5, p. 949.]

Art. 5298. [5334] [4105] Bound records.—Whenever the commissioners court deems it necessary it shall order the surveyor's record to be transcribed in good and substantial books, by the surveyor or special deputies sworn to make true copies of the same, for which services they shall be allowed not more than fifteen cents per hundred words, to be paid out of the county treasury. [Acts S. S. 1871, p. 18; G. L. vol. 7, p. 20.]

3. SURVEYS AND FIELD NOTES

Art. 5299. [5335] [4142] Authorized surveys.—All surveys of public lands shall be made by authority of law, and by a surveyor duly appointed, elected or licensed, and qualified.

Art. 5300. [5336] [4144] Field notes; requisites.—The field notes of every such survey shall state:

1. The county in which the land is situated.
2. The authority under or by virtue of which it is made, giving a true description of the same.
3. The land by proper field notes with the necessary calls and connections for identification (observing the Spanish measurement by varas).
4. A diagram of the survey.
5. The variation at which the running was made.
6. The names of the chain carriers.
7. The date thereof, and the signature of the surveyor.

8. The surveyor shall officially certify to the correctness of the survey, that it was made according to law; that such survey was actually made in the field, and that the field notes have been duly recorded, giving book and page.

9. When the survey has been made by a deputy, the county surveyor shall certify officially that he has examined the field notes, has found them correct, and that they are duly recorded giving book and page of record.

Art. 5301. [5337] [4146] Loss of field notes.—When the original field notes of any authorized survey are lost or destroyed, the owner thereof or his agent, on making affidavit of such fact and filing same in the office of the surveyor where the survey was made, may obtain from him a certified copy of the record thereof. Such copy shall be as valid and efficient in law as the original and shall secure to the party all the rights before the Commissioner that the original would have done. [Acts 1841, p. 293; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1599.]

Art. 5302. [5338-9] Surveys on navigable streams.—All lands surveyed for individuals, lying on navigable water courses, shall front one-half of the square on the water course and the line running at right angles with the general course of the stream, if circumstances of the lines previously surveyed under the laws will permit. All streams so far as they retain an average width of thirty feet from the mouth up shall be considered navigable streams within the meaning hereof, and they shall not be crossed by the lines of any survey. All surveys not made upon navigable water courses shall be in a square, so far as lines previously surveyed will permit. [Acts 1837, p. 63; P. D. 4529, G. L. vol. 1, p. 1405.]

Art. 5303. [5340] [4150] Division line: notice.—Before running a division line between two settlers or occupants claiming lands, the surveyor shall give written notice to the interested parties. Any survey made contrary to the true intent and meaning of this article shall be unlawful. [Id.]

Art. 5304. [5341] [4151] Disputed line: trial.—When persons cannot agree to a division line of any land which has never been surveyed agreeably to law, either party may apply to the nearest justice of the peace, and make oath that he has tried and has not been able to settle such dispute, naming the parties thereto; and said justice shall issue a warrant to any lawful officer to summon the parties defendant, together with six disinterested jurors, to meet upon the premises in dispute, together with such witnesses as either party may summon, to give evidence on a certain day, naming the time and place. The justice shall meet the parties, examine all the testimony before the jury, who shall on oath hear and determine the case in dispute and who shall pay the costs. Each juror shall receive two dollars per day for such services, and the other officers such fees as allowed by law for similar services. If the land in dispute is on a county line, a justice of either county in which part of the land lies may act in such case. Either party may appeal to the county court within ten days upon giving bond and security for the costs. [Id.]

Art. 5305. [5344-5-6] Incorrect field notes.—The Commissioner shall cause a plain statement of the errors in any field notes in the land office, with a sketch of the map, to be forwarded by mail, or by the party interested, to the surveyor who made the survey, with a requisition to correct and return the same; and said surveyor shall do so at once without further charge. If the conflict exists only on the map or in the field notes, the surveyor need only officially certify to the facts, and furnish a true sketch of the survey with its connections. [Acts S. S. 1871, p. 11; P. D. 7091; G. L. vol. 7, p. 13.]

visions of this chapter. All tracts of less than eighty acres shall be sold as a whole for cash. All such lands shall be sold without condition of settlement and residence, but shall not be sold to corporations. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. vol. 170, p. 793; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5307. [5406] Duties of Commissioner.—The Commissioner is hereby vested with all the power and authority necessary to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter, and shall have full charge and discretion of all matters pertaining to the sale and lease of said lands, and their protection from free use and occupancy and from unlawful inclosure, with such exceptions and under such restrictions as may be imposed by the Constitution and laws of this State. He shall adopt such regulations not inconsistent therewith as may be deemed necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter, and may alter or amend such regulations so as to protect the public interest; but all such regulations shall first be submitted to the Governor for his approval. The Commissioner shall adopt all forms necessary or proper for the transaction of the business imposed upon him by this chapter, and may call upon the Attorney General to prepare such forms, and said officer shall also furnish the Commissioner with such advice and legal assistance as may be requisite for the due execution of the provisions hereof. The Commissioner shall furnish all available data to the State Board of Education on its request. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. vol. 10, p. 793.]

Art. 5308. [5449] Accounts.—The Commissioner shall retain in his custody as records of his office each application, affidavit, obligation and paper relating to the sales and leases of said lands, and shall cause to be kept accurate accounts with each purchaser or lessee. [Id.]

2. SALES

Art. 5309. Land subject to sale.—On the first day of September, 1925, and the first day of each January, May and September of each year thereafter all of the surveyed public free school land then unsold and portions of same and all tracts theretofore surveyed for which field notes were returned to and filed in the General Land Office and which reverted to the public domain or the public free school fund, and those surveys for which field notes were returned to and filed in the General Land Office and cannot be legally patented under existing law; and such sold public free school and asylum land as may be forfeited or canceled for any cause prior to the sale date for which the land may be advertised and such unsurveyed land as may hereafter be recovered for the public free school fund upon suit by the Attorney General filed prior to the acquisition of rights to purchase the area as unsurveyed land, shall be subject to and offered for sale by the Commissioner of the General Land Office under the regulations and upon the terms and condition[s] provided in this Act.

Art. 5310. [5407] Classification and valuation.—The Commissioner shall from time to time, as the public interest may require, classify or reclassify, value or revalue, any of the lands included in this chapter, designating the same as agricultural, grazing, or timber, or a combination of said classifications, according to the facts in the particular case, and when entry of the classification and the appraisement is made on the records of the Land Office, no further action on the part of the Commissioner, nor notice to the county clerk shall be required to give effect thereto. No land classed as agricultural shall be sold for less than one dollar and fifty cents per acre, and no land classed as grazing shall be sold for less than one dollar per acre. The land included in this chapter shall be sold with the reservation of the oil, gas, coal and all other minerals that may be therein to the fund to which the land belongs, and all applications shall so state. [Acts 1897, p. 184; Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5311. [5408] Commissioner shall classify and advertise.—In cases where any land included in this Act may be leased and the same may come on the market by reason of the expiration or cancellation of such leases and in cases where land may be sold and become subject to forfeiture or cancellation for non-payment of interest and thereby subject to revert to the fund to which it originally belonged by reason of the forfeiture or cancellation of the sale, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to classify and value same before some sale date thereafter and adopt such means as may be at his command that will give wide publicity and general information as to when such land will be forfeited or canceled, and when it and other land will be on the market for sale together with the regulations, terms and conditions upon which the land may be purchased if past due interest should not be paid. No tract of land shall be subject to sale, except unsurveyed school land, until it shall have been advertised. If there are no other satisfactory or sufficient means at the command of the Commissioner that will give the necessary publicity he shall have printed at the expense of the State, to be paid out of the appropriation for public printing, lists of the land for free distribution to the public. The list shall contain a brief statement of how one shall proceed to buy the land and also state the year to which delinquent interest must be paid to prevent a forfeiture and cancellation. No corporation shall buy any land under this Act.

Art. 5311a. Sold in whole tracts without settlement.—The land included in this Act shall be sold in whole tracts only and without condition of settlement and residence. Any unsold land may be leased subject to sale, at not less than five cents per acre per annum, payable in advance each year and for a term not to exceed five years. All land so leased shall be subject to sale on any sale date for which it may be advertised to come on the market.

Art. 5311b. Validating sales.—In cases where public free school and asylum land has been advertised as being subject to forfeiture for non-payment of interest and to be forfeited and canceled and come on the market for sale at some future sale date and such land was declared forfeited and the sale canceled on the records of the General Land Office and sale awards issued upon applications filed at such sale date, and said sale award has been held by the Supreme Court to be void and all other sale awards which may be void or voidable or the titles to which may have become defective from any cause, are hereby validated, and when the said land shall be fully paid for together with payment of all fees it shall be patented; provided, in cases where the sale award of the land advertised as aforesaid has not stood one year the owner of said land at date of forfeiture, shall have the right to apply to the General Land Office for a re-instatement of said former sale upon the payment of all past due interest at any time within six months after the taking effect of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 332.] [39th Leg., ch. 130, § 4.]

Art. 5312. [5409] Application to purchase.—One desiring to buy any portion of such surveyed land shall make separate written application to the Commissioner for each tract applied for as a whole, designating the same, and stating the price offered, and make affidavit that he desires to purchase the land for himself and that no other person or corporation is interested in the purchase thereof either directly or indirectly, and pay one-fortieth of the aggregate price offered for the land, and submit his obligation in a sum equal to the amount of the unpaid purchase price offered for the land, binding the purchaser to pay to the State at the General Land Office at Austin, on the first day of each November thereafter until the whole purchase price is paid, one-fortieth of the aggregate price with interest on the unpaid purchase price at the rate of five per cent per annum. Upon receipt and filing of the application, affidavit, obligation and the one-fortieth of the price offered, the sale shall be held effective from that date. [Acts 1895, p. 65; Acts 1919, p. 313.]

Art. 5313. [5410] Application: opening.—The application shall be delivered to the Land Office in a sealed envelope addressed to the Commissioner at Austin, and the envelope shall have indorsed thereon in effect: "Application to buy land," and date when the land will be on the market. Applications received at the Land Office in envelopes not so indorsed shall nevertheless be valid. All such envelopes shall remain unopened and the applications shall remain unfilled and all shall be safely and securely kept by the Commissioner or his Chief Clerk until the day following the day when the land comes on the market and at ten o'clock a. m. on said day one or both of them shall begin to open the envelopes and file all applications; provided, if the opening day should be Sunday or other legal holiday, the opening shall be postponed until the first work day thereafter. Those desiring to be present at such opening may do so. All sales shall be made to, and date from the filing of the application of, the applicant who offers the most for the land, at a price not less than that fixed by the Commissioner, and shall be made by or under the direction of the Commissioner. Should two or more applicants offer the same price for any tract, the same being the highest price offered therefor on any sale date, all bids shall be rejected and the land offered for sale on the next sale date, but a subsequent bid shall not be considered if less than the former price offered. [Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5314. [5416] Individual bids.—Land that is or may be on the market, and not filed on as provided in the preceding article, may be filed on and sold to any one any time upon proper applications filed in the Land Office as provided by law, except the envelope enclosing the application shall not be required to have any memorandum thereon, and, if two or more applications should be filed the same day for the same land, the one offering the highest price shall be accepted, but if two or more applicants should offer the same price, the Commissioner shall proceed as herein provided for in the first filing. [Acts 1905, p. 159.]

Art. 5315. [5411] Cash payments, how remitted.—All such applicants shall transmit with their applications the required first payment in the form of money or remittance collectible on demand in Austin, and convertible at par into money on the order of the State Treasurer, without liability; provided, that, should a remittance be made payable to the Commissioner, such payment shall not be invalid for that reason, but the Commissioner shall indorse it to the State Treasurer without incurring liability and the same shall be treated as if payable to the Treasurer. The application shall be void if the payment is not made as required in this article. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5316. [5407] Notice of sale.—The Commissioner shall notify the clerk of the proper county of the sale of each tract, giving the name and address of the purchaser together with the price of the land. When informed of the sale of any land the clerk shall enter on his books opposite the description of the land sold, the name of the purchaser and the date sold, and the notice of such sale and the books of record and entry shall be considered public records. [Acts 1897, p. 184; Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5317. [5413] Awards.—Notice of awards shall be prepared and issued by the Commissioner, and shall be appropriately numbered and shall be so worded as to constitute a receipt for first payment when signed by the Commissioner. Books shall be prepared containing two copies of the notice of award and a suitable number of coupons to be used by the applicant in making subsequent payments on the land. The notice of awards shall be prepared in duplicate, one to be detached from the book and retained in the Land Office, the other, with the coupons attached, to be sent to the applicant. The coupons in each book shall be prepared in duplicate, each of which shall be numbered with the same number as that on the notice of award. The form of the coupon shall be so prepared as to be suitable for, and shall be used by the remitter in making all subsequent payments on the land, the original to be so worded as to be used as a receipt for remittances when signed as such by the Commissioner. The remitter shall describe each tract of land on which he is making remittance by properly filling in the blanks on both the original and duplicate coupons, and shall enter in the proper blanks the amounts remitted as interest and principal, and both the original and duplicate shall be mailed to the Commissioner with the remittance. [Acts 1909, p. 429.]

Art. 5318. [5415] Purchaser's name to be given.—Persons making payments of interest, principal or lease rentals on land shall give the name of the original purchaser or lessee and sufficiently designate the land. [Id.]

Art. 5319. [5412] First payment accounts.—When an envelope inclosing an application to purchase land is opened and the remittance for the first payment is in the Land Office, the Commissioner shall cause such remittance to be listed in triplicate daily, and in such form as to show the purpose and amount of each remittance, the name and address of the applicant, and transmit the remittance and two of the lists to the Treasurer. On receipt thereof, the Treasurer shall check the remittances with the lists, and, if found correct, he shall receipt one of the lists and return it to the Commissioner and retain the other list; and thereupon the Commissioner shall deliver the third list retained by him to the Comptroller. The Treasurer shall at once collect all collectible remittances and report to the Commissioner and Comptroller all remittances not collectible in Austin. The items not collected shall be returned to the Commissioner. All first payments thus collected by the Treasurer shall be retained by him until he receives notice from the Commissioner of the final disposition of the applications to purchase, and thereupon he shall at once return to each applicant the amount shown to have been paid on his rejected applications. A duplicate of the notice to the Treasurer of accepted and rejected applications and the amount of first payment shall be transmitted to the Comptroller. On the last working day of each month, the Treasurer shall deposit in the Treasury to the credit of the proper fund the sum collected by him on accepted applications during that month. [Id.]

Art. 5320. [5414] Other accounts.—Payments on interest, principal and lease rentals shall be listed and accounted for separate from, but in a similar manner to, first payments. The Treasurer shall deposit eighty per cent of all such remittances received each month to the credit of the probable fund to which they belong, as indicated by the Commissioner; and he shall hold the remaining twenty per cent upon deposit receipts furnished by the Comptroller until receipt of definite notice from the Commissioner of the proper fund, which shall then be credited with the full amount received. The Commissioner shall give such definite notice to the Treasurer and Comptroller immediately after he issues receipts to the remitters. The Commissioner, Treasurer and Comptroller shall each keep an account with each fund according to advices given by them, retaining such advices as permanent records.

Art. 5321. [5429] Timber lands.—Timber on lands shall be sold in full tracts for cash at its fair market value, and the Commissioner shall adopt such regulations for the sale thereof as may be deemed necessary and judicious, subject to the provisions of this chapter. By timbered lands is meant lands valued chiefly for the timber thereon. [Acts 1901, p. 296; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5322. [5430] Timber: sale.—Application to purchase timber shall be made in the manner provided for the filing of applications for the purchase of lands. If two or more persons each apply to purchase the timber and land on the same day, the one who offers more for the timber but less for the land than a competitor shall have an option for thirty days to take the land at the highest price offered by such competitor, or he may be awarded the timber without the land. If the timber is so sold without the land such competitor shall have an option for thirty days to purchase the land. If such first party buys neither the timber nor the land, then the land and timber shall be awarded to the one offering the highest price for the land, and next highest price for the timber. If two or more applications for timber alone be filed on the same day the one offering the most therefor shall be accepted. The purchaser of timber without the land shall have the right of ingress and egress upon the land for a period of five years after date of award to remove or protect all the timber thereon. After that time the title to the timber shall revert to the fund to which the land belonged and be again subject to sale by the State, unless the land shall sooner be sold and fully paid for and patent issued thereon; and in that event the timber shall revert to the owner of the land. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 312.]

Art. 5323. [5432] Unsurveyed school lands.—The rules governing the sale of unsurveyed school lands are:

1. Application.—One desiring to purchase any portion of the unsurveyed land believed to belong to the school fund shall make a written application of inquiry to the Commissioner. The inquiry shall give the applicant's post-office address, state in effect that he desires to buy the land if it is for sale and sufficiently designate it. If it appears from the records of the Land Office that the area belongs to the public free school fund, or if there be doubt as to the existence of the area as public free school land, the applicant shall be advised and given the name and address of an authorized surveyor with whom he may contract for the survey of the land at the expense of the applicant. The applicant shall file an application with the surveyor accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee. The application shall be filed and recorded and sufficiently describe the land. The survey shall be made and returned to the Land Office within ninety days after the date of the Commissioner's advice as to an available authorized surveyor.

2. Suit to require survey.—If the Commissioner declines to recognize the existence of the area as public school land and refuses to authorize a survey to be made, such person may file suit against the county surveyor in the district court of the county in which the land is located, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, to compel him to make the survey and thereupon the surveyor shall implead the claimant of the land and in such proceedings determine if the area be public land. In such proceedings the surveyor shall not be held for any cost incurred. If the final judgment of the court should decree the area or part thereof to be school land the surveyor shall make the survey, and the application, field notes and one dollar filing fee shall be filed in the Land Office within ninety days from the date of the final decree.

3. Classification.—When the surveyor returns the field notes and a plat of the survey to the Land Office, together with one dollar filing fee to be paid by applicant, he shall report under oath the classification and reasonable market value of the land and also the timber thereon and its value, which may be considered in connection with such other evidence as may be required by the Commissioner in determining the price to be given for the land and timber. If upon inspection of the papers the Commissioner is satisfied from the report of the surveyor and the records of the Land Office that the land belongs to the public free school fund and the survey has been made according to law, he shall approve the same by classifying and valuing the land, and mail notice of such action to the applicant, giving the classification, price and terms.

4. Terms of sale.—Any timber on such land shall be sold for cash at its reasonable market value. No award shall be issued for the land until the timber shall have been fully paid for. The applicant shall file in the Land Office his application for the purchase of the land together with one-fortieth of the appraised value fixed thereon within sixty days from the date of the notice of the classification and valuation, together with the applicant's obligation for the balance of the unpaid purchase price bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, and the obligation and other conditions of sale shall be the same as that for surveyed land. If such application should not be filed within the time prescribed herein, the Commissioner shall place the land on the market for sale upon the same terms as are herein provided for other surveyed school land. If upon the inspection of any application, field notes and records of the Land Office, there should appear to be a greater area belonging to the school fund than that included in the application and field notes, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, require the applicant to include the whole area in his field notes. If it appears that another than the applicant claims an unsurveyed area which belongs to the school fund, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, refer the removal of such claim to the Attorney General before making a sale to an applicant. The Commissioner may sell the area though the Attorney General refuses to institute proceedings for the removal of such claim. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 315.]

Art. 5323a. Reclassification of scrap school land.—The Commissioner of the General Land Office is hereby authorized to revalue and to reclassify all tracts of unsold scrap school land that was heretofore valued and classified on March 26, 1926, and which remains unsold when this Act takes effect. Within sixty days after such revaluation and reclassification the person for whom the survey was originally made shall file in the General Land Office his application for the purchase of said land together with the full cash payment for the tract applied for at the value per acre fixed thereon by the said Commissioner. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 158, ch. 107, § 1.]

Art. 5324. [5434] Sale of gayule and lechuguilla.—The Commissioner may, with the consent and approval of the Governor and Attorney General, sell the gayule or lechuguilla growing or found upon the public free school land, exclusive of timber. The sales may be upon such terms, conditions and limitations as they may deem most advantageous, having in view the protection of the interest of the school fund and the State. They may also enter into such contracts as they may deem wise for the purpose of having determined the commercial properties and value of any and all such material, and for such purpose they may enter into executory contracts of sale; provided, they shall not in such contracts cause the expenditure of public money nor incur any liability on the State. [Acts 1907, p. 251.]

Art. 5325. [5433] Unlawful use of minerals.—If any person who has no authority or right to do so, cuts or removes any mineral, gayule or lechuguilla [lechuguilla] from the school land belonging to the public free school fund, judgment shall be rendered against the defendant in behalf of the State in a sum of money equal to the value of the substance so cut or removed, which shall be collected as under execution; and when collected, the money shall be remitted to the State Treasurer, and by him credited to the fund to which the land belongs. [Acts 1907, p. 490.]

Art. 5326. [5423] Forfeiture for non-payment of interest.—If any portion of the interest on any sale should not be paid when due, the land shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner entering on the wrapper containing the papers "Land Forfeited," or words of similar import, with the date of such action and sign it officially, and thereupon the land and all payments shall be forfeited to the State, and the lands shall be offered for sale on a subsequent sale date. In any case where lands have been forfeited to the State for the non-payment of interest, the purchasers, or their vendees, may have their claims reinstated on their written request, by paying into the Treasury the full amount of interest due on such claim up to the date of reinstatement, provided that no rights of third persons may have intervened. In all such cases, the original obligations and penalties shall thereby become as binding as if no forfeiture had ever occurred. If any purchaser shall die, his heirs or legal representatives shall have one year in which to make payment after the first day of November next after such death.

Nothing in this article shall inhibit the State from instituting such legal proceedings as may be necessary to enforce such forfeiture, or to recover the full amount of the interest and such penalties as may be due the State at the time such forfeiture occurred or to protect any other right to such land. [Acts 1897, pp. 39, 184; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Following is additional legislative Acts 1925, Chapter 94, p. 267, as amended by Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 43, ch. 25, § 1:

Art. 5326a. Repurchase of land forfeited.—Section 1. In case [of] any of the public free school lands that have been heretofore purchased from the state have been forfeited for nonpayment of interest and have not been resold, and that which may hereafter be forfeited for nonpayment of interest, either with or without advertisement as being subject to forfeiture for nonpayment of interest that may have accrued prior to November 1, 1925, the owner of such land or a part thereof at the date of forfeiture shall have the right for a period of ninety days after the date of the notice of revaluation of such lands as herein provided to repurchase same upon the terms and conditions in this act any or all of the land in whole tracts according to the forfeiture; provided, that two or more portions of the same section or tracts may be combined into one purchase as may be desired by the applicant.

Section 2. Where any of the lands included in the preceding section may hereafter be forfeited for the non-payment of interest in the manner provided by law for such forfeiture and either before or after advertisement of land as being subject to forfeiture for non-payment of interest, the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall forward such list of land to the clerk of the county in which the land is wholly or partly located or to the clerk of the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes and include therein such land as may have heretofore been forfeited and remains unsold and on which valid oil and gas applications have not been filed. Within sixty days after a list of such forfeited land was forwarded to the proper clerk the owner or part owner mentioned in the preceding section, who may desire to repurchase such land as provided herein, shall advise the said Commissioner of such desire and pay one cent per acre for each acre such person desires revalued. As soon as practicable after the receipt of such advice and the one cent per acre by the Commissioner, he shall proceed to ascertain the reasonable value of such land and appraise the same accordingly. Duplicate notices of said appraisal shall be prepared and one shall be sent to the person requesting the revaluation and the other shall be retained for the General Land Office. One of two or more part owners of land who request a revaluation shall be deemed as having acted for the other owners, and a repurchase by such one or more persons shall likewise be deemed as made on behalf of all of them and shall inure to the benefit of every owner of a part thereof to the extent of each one's ownership. If such forfeiting owner desires to repurchase the land at the appraised value placed thereon, he shall file his application therefor in the General Land Office within ninety days after the date in the notice of appraisal, together with one-fortieth of the appraised value and his obligation for the remaining portion of the purchase price bearing the same rate of interest per annum as the forfeited purchase bore. The one-fortieth cash payment and future interest and principal payments and forfeiture for non-payment shall be the same and conform to the present or any future law regulating the purchase and forfeiture of public free school land. The one cent per acre received by the Commissioner, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be used by him to defray the expenses incident to the revaluation and the remainder, if any, shall be by him returned pro rata to those for whom it was paid into the General Land Office. If land should be purchased under this act by one or more part owners, such purchase shall inure to the benefit of each and every owner at date of forfeiture according to each one's former interest.

Section 3. If the owner at the date of forfeiture shall not exercise his right to repurchase, the Commissioner shall place the land on the market for sale in the manner that is now or may hereafter be provided by law for the sale of other forfeited public free school lands. One-sixteenth of the oil and gas, and all of other minerals in the lands included herein, whether known or unknown, are expressly reserved to the public free school fund in the event the forfeited sale was with mineral reservation. Forfeited land, on which the owner requests a revaluation as herein provided, shall not be subject to oil and gas application until such forfeiting owner fails to repurchase as herein provided.

Section 4. Whenever any land affected by this act is repurchased under the rights of repurchase given herein, any lien, legal or equitable, in behalf of any person or the State, and any valid contractual right in favor of any person or persons existing in and to said land, or any part thereof, at the time of forfeiture, shall remain unimpaired and in full force and effect as if no such forfeiture had occurred; also all forfeitures without advertisement of the land for which land the owner or owners of part thereof requested a revaluation within the time prescribed herein and for which applications to repurchase were filed in the General Land Office in legal form after expiration of the time required by law and on which the first one-fortieth cash payment was made, such forfeitures and applications and [and] the sale and award thereon are hereby authorized and in all things validated and shall not be questioned by the State or any person whose rights did not accrue prior to the taking effect of this Act.

Section 5. The fact that several consecutive years drought in that portion of the State in which most of the public lands are located caused the original enactment of this law and the fact that the validity of forfeitures without first advertising the land as being subject to forfeiture and naming the date of forfeiture and sale as provided in Chapter 130 of an act approved March 28, 1925, has been questioned and the fact that this original Chapter 94 could not have been executed without great expense to the State, except in the manner it has been administered by the General Land Office, which has attained the purpose of the Legislature in its enactment, and the importance of placing land titles beyond question, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity exists, that the constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each house be suspended and that this be placed upon third reading and final passage, and take effect from and after its passage and it is so enacted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 267; ch. 94; Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 43, ch. 25, § 1.]

Art. 5327. Lien.—To secure the payment of all principal and interest due upon any sale of public free school land, University land, and the several asylums land, the State shall have an express lien for the use and benefit of the fund to which the land belongs in addition to any right and remedy that it has for the enforcement of the payment of any principal or interest that may become due and unpaid. [Acts 1917, 3rd C. S., p. 95.]

Art. 5328. Transfer of indebtedness.—If any person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank with the consent of the owner of any lands mentioned in the preceding article, pays to the State the principal and interest due upon any obligation given for such land, the Commissioner shall be authorized, upon written request of such owner duly acknowledged in the manner required for the conveyance of real estate, coupled with an affidavit of ownership, to execute, acknowledge and deliver a written transfer of the indebtedness held by the State to such person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank which shall thereupon be subrogated to all the rights, liens and remedies held by the State to secure and enforce the payment on the amount of principal and interest so paid to the State. If the land claimed by the one representing himself to be the owner should be held under such evidence of titles as the law or rules of the Land Office will not authorize or permit to be filed in said office, then the Commissioner may admit the owner to be such person as the person, firm or corporation or the Federal Farm Loan Bank paying the indebtedness shall admit to be the owner, and upon such admission the instrument of transfer shall be executed. Nothing herein shall change in any particular whatever, the law or rules that obtain in the Land Office relative to titles to land and the issuance of patents thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5329. [5435] Transfers.—Owners of public free school land and asylum land purchased from the State may sell their land or a definite portion of the same in any size tract. If in any of the succeeding conditions the land that is desired to be separated from another portion should not be sufficiently designated by metes and bounds in the papers offered for filing, to identify it with certainty, the Commissioner shall require that proper field notes accompany the papers before he files them and separates the land.

1. Personal transfers.—A vendee through personal transfer executed for a whole survey or for a whole portion of a survey purchased from the State as a whole or for a portion of a survey purchased from the State as a whole or in a quantity less than the whole survey, shall have the right to become a substitute purchaser direct from the State in the manner provided herein. With the approval of the Commissioner such vendee may file in said office a complete and valid chain of title through personal transfers which have been duly executed and recorded in the counties in which the land or a part thereof is situated or in the county to which [to] such county or counties may be attached for judicial purposes, and pay the lawful fees. When said papers have been filed in said office the substituted purchaser shall have his portion of land separated from the other portion, if any, on the records of the Land Office and thereby he shall assume and become liable to the State for all unpaid principal and interest due and to become due the State for the land conveyed in the deeds so filed, together with all obligations and penalties attaching to the original purchase the same as was the original purchaser. The obligation of the original purchaser and the obligation of all vendors of such substituted purchaser shall be enforceable against the substituted purchaser the same as if he were the original purchaser from the State, and the obligation of the vendor or vendors of the substituted purchaser shall be deemed canceled.

2. Other transfers.—One who claims title through a source other than by personal transfer, to a definite portion of a survey less than a whole as it was purchased from the State may, with the approval of the Commissioner, have that portion of land so claimed separated from the other portion of the survey upon the records of said office by filing therein such evidence of claims as may be required by said Commissioner and pay the lawful fees for the papers filed as evidence of the claim or a right to a separation of such area.

3. Liability of vendee.—When a separation of the land has been made upon the records of the Land Office in either manner provided for herein, that portion so separated shall be charged and credited with its pro-rata part of the principal and interest due and paid to the first day of November preceding the date of the filing of the transfers or other papers.

4. Patent.—If any owner or claimant of any land included in this chapter, which ownership or claim is shown on the records of said office, should desire a patent upon a portion thereof less than the whole, such owner or claimant may, with the approval of the Commissioner, file field notes with lawful filing fee for that portion on which patent is desired and obtain a patent therefor when the land is fully paid for with all lawful fees. If the ownership should be evidenced by personal transfers the patent shall be issued to such owner and his assigns. If the claimant claims title through other evidence than by personal transfer, the patent shall be issued in the name of the person and his assigns that holds title by original purchase or in the name of the person and his assigns who appears on said records to hold title through the last personal transfer. If a patent should be issued in the name of one other than the legal owner, such patent and the rights granted therein shall inure to the benefit of the legal owner. Where any land has been purchased from the State on condition of residence, no patent shall be issued until proper proof of such residence either by the vendor or vendee, or both consecutively, has been filed and the Commissioner is satisfied therewith. Every vendee before the completion of the required residence by his vendor shall file in the Land Office an application, affidavit and obligation, such as is required of an original purchaser, together with the partial proof of his vendor's continuous residence to the date of the deed of transfer. On the filing of proof of the required three years' residence, the Commissioner shall issue a certificate of its sufficiency upon the payment of the lawful fees. The said certificate may be recorded in the deed records of the proper county, and when so recorded it shall become a muniment of title. After a certificate has been recorded, neither the sale nor the occupancy of said land shall be questioned by the State nor any person whose rights did not accrue prior to the completion of said residence. The effect of the issuance of said certificate shall include and extend to all land purchased as additional to a home tract on which the said certificate may have been issued. No sale made without condition of settlement shall be questioned by the State or any person after one year from the date of such sale. All purchasers shall have the option of paying the purchase price in full at any time, together with full fees, and obtain a patent for the land. [Acts 1907, p. 490; Acts 1919, p. 316; Acts 1921, p. 118.]

Art. 5330. [5438] Patents for town sites.—Whenever a town shall be located and established upon any lands sold under this or any former law, the purchaser or his vendee shall be permitted to pay the entire balance of principal and interest due the State upon such land and obtain a patent therefor at any time; but no such payment shall be permitted or patent issued until such a purchaser or owner of such land shall file in the land office a certified plat of such town, made by a surveyor, which shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner of such land, corroborated by the affidavit of five disinterested and credible citizens of the county, to the effect that a town, giving its name, has been located and established upon the land, and that there has been erected therein and is being occupied by bona fide citizens, twenty business and resident houses, or either or both. [Acts 1895, p. 66; G. L. vol. 10, p. 796.]

3. LEASES

Art. 5331. Lease of unsold tracts.—Any unsold land may be leased at any time at not less than five cents per acre, payable in advance each year and for a term not to exceed five years, but all land so leased and unsold shall be subject to sale on each succeeding sale date. [Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5332. [5451] To advertise lands.—All leases under the provisions of this chapter may be advertised by the Commissioner in such manner as he deems best, and let to the highest responsible bidder in such quantities and under such regulations as he deems to be the best interest of the State, not inconsistent with the equities of the occupant. Any bid or offer to lease may be rejected by him prior to signing the lease contract, for fraud or collusion, or other good and sufficient cause.

Art. 5333. [5452] Application and delivery.—One desiring to lease said lands shall make written application to the Commissioner specifying and describing the particular lands he desires to lease; and thereupon the Commissioner shall notify the applicant in writing who offers the highest price, that his proposition to lease is accepted; and shall execute to the lessee in the name and by authority of the State of Texas a lease on such lands. When the lessee has paid the rent for one year in advance, the Commissioner shall deliver said lease to the clerk of the county in which the land is situated, who shall record in a well-bound book kept in his office, a memorandum or abstract of said lease, showing the number of the survey or surveys leased, the name of the original grantee, the amount leased, the name of the lessee, the date of the lease and the number of years it has to run, and no other record of leases shall be required. The clerk shall be entitled to twenty-five cents for entering said memorandum. Upon payment of said fee, the clerk shall deliver the lease to the lessee. When any such lease is filed for record the clerk shall make the memorandum or abstract above provided for. [Acts 1901, p. 292.]

Art. 5334. [5455] Water supply: option.—Any person desiring to lease any lands on which no permanent water supply exists, shall notify the Commissioner in writing that he desires to lease lands, specifying and describing them; provided he can obtain the necessary supply of water by boring or otherwise, and that he will within ninety days lease said lands, provided such water supply can be obtained; he shall also make and file with the Commissioner his bond, with good and sufficient personal security, to be approved by the Commissioner, in a sum equal to one year's rental of the quantity of land applied for, payable to the State, conditioned that he will diligently and in good faith try to secure water on such land during such ninety days, and if secured will lease the designated lands for the term prescribed herein; and thereupon the Commissioner shall, for such ninety days, withhold such lands from lease to any other person. Within or at the expiration of the said ninety days, and annually thereafter, such applicant shall pay to the State in advance, one year's rental of the land applied for by him; on satisfactory proof of which payment the Commissioner shall execute and deliver to the lessee a lease of the said lands, signed by himself officially, and attested by the seal of the Land Office, together with which he shall deliver up the bond of said lessee, marked, "Satisfied." If said lessee fails to apply for his lease and make the payment aforesaid within said ninety days, and shall also within said ninety days fail to prove to the satisfaction of the Commissioner within that time that he has in good faith diligently used proper means and made proper efforts to secure a water supply on such land and failed, then the Commissioner shall mark said bond, "Forfeited", and shall deliver the same to the Attorney General, who shall at once cause said bond to be sued upon and collected, and paid to the available school fund. The penalty stated in such bond is hereby declared to be liquidated damages, and judgment for that sum shall in all cases be recovered by the State. Proof satisfactory to the Commissioner that proper, suitable and diligent effort has been made by such applicant to secure water, and that sufficient water could not be secured, shall relieve the principal and sureties on said bond from all responsibilities therein, and it shall be marked, "Satisfied", by said Commissioner and delivered to the principal therein. No lease of less than four sections of unwatered pasture lands shall be made, unless such less number includes all unleased land in that vicinity belonging to the several funds mentioned in this chapter. Lessees or their vendees who shall have at their own expense secured water on their leaseholds in accordance with the provisions of this article, shall at the expiration of their lease contract, have a right to a renewal of their leases for another term of five years at the price then provided by law, by giving sixty days written notice to the Commissioner. [Acts 1895, p. 63; G. L. vol. 10, p. 793.]

Art. 5335. [5454] Expired leases.—When a lease expires, or is canceled for any cause within ninety days from any sale date, the Commissioner shall not consider an application to lease the land within said time. An original lessee, or the assignee of an entire leasehold, who was such at the date of the termination thereof, shall have a preference to another lease of the land at the expiration of the ninety days over another applicant to lease, provided he will pay as much therefor as another, after due publicity. [Acts 1905, p. 159; Acts 1919, p. 314.]

Art. 5336. [5456] Forfeiture: lien.—If any lessee fails to pay the annual rent due for any year within sixty days after such rent becomes due, the Commissioner shall cancel said lease by a writing under his hand and seal of office, and filing it with the other papers relating to such lease, when such lease shall immediately terminate. During the continuance of all leases, and after forfeiture, the State shall have a lien upon all property owned by the lessee upon the leased premises to secure the payments of all rents due, which lien shall be superior to all other liens whatsoever. A reservation of such lien in said lease shall not be essential to the preservation or validity thereof. [Acts 1901, p. 29.]

Art. 5337. [5457] Lessees may remove improvements.—All improvements made by lessees on lands leased by them are hereby declared to be personal property, which may be removed by such lessees on the expiration of their lease contracts; and they shall have sixty days after such expiration in which to remove the same. 1. UNIVERSITY AND OTHER LANDS

Article 5338. Permit.—Subject to the terms hereof, permits for the development of oil and gas may be issued to any person, firm or corporation upon the following lands: All surveyed public school, University, asylum land and other public lands, fresh water lakes, river beds and channels, belonging to the State and all of said lands, except public school and asylum lands sold or disposed of by the State or by its authority with a reservation of minerals or mineral rights therein, and lands purchased with a relinquishment of the minerals therein. [Acts 1917, p. 158; Acts 2d C. S. 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5339. Application for surveyed lands.—One desiring to obtain the right to prospect for and develop oil and natural gas that may be in any surveyed area included herein shall file with the county clerk a written application designating it sufficiently to identify it. Such clerk shall, upon receipt of one dollar as a filing fee, file and record the application and note the same on his record of surveys opposite the entry of the proper survey, giving the time of filing. When one has obtained four sections, or the equivalent, eligible to be embraced in one permit, such applicant shall not obtain any more land within two miles thereof, but if one obtains less than four sections eligible to be embraced in one permit, such one may obtain such additional area within two miles of the other area as will equal four sections. One shall not obtain more than one thousand acres within one mile of a well producing petroleum. [Acts 1917, p. 158.]

Art. 5340. Unsurveyed lands: application.—One desiring to obtain the right to prospect for and develop oil and natural gas in any unsurveyed areas named in this law shall file with the county surveyor a written application for each area applied for, designating it sufficiently to identify it, but such areas shall not exceed 2,560 acres. Upon receipt of one dollar filing fee the surveyor shall file and record the application. [Id.]

Art. 5341. Issuance of permit.—When the Commissioner receives an application that was filed with the county clerk or with the surveyor and the field notes and plat, one dollar filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre applied for, which shall also be paid annually thereafter during the life of the permit, and an affidavit by the applicant showing what interest he has in any other permit, lease or patent issued under this law and in good standing, he shall file the same, and if upon examination the application and field notes are found correct and the area applied for is within the provisions of this law, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant or his assignee a permit conferring upon him an exclusive right to prospect for and develop petroleum and natural gas within the designated area for a term not to exceed two years. [Id.]

Art. 5341a. Extension of permits.—All permits to prospect for oil and gas heretofore issued on river beds or channels, fresh water lakes and islands therein which have not expired and on which as much as twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) has been spent in prospecting for oil and gas and on which actual work is now being done, are hereby extended for a period of ten years from date the permit was issued, upon condition that the owner will pay annually in advance the acreage rental due thereon under the law as provided in the permit. This Act shall not be construed to relieve the owner of such permits from the obligations to drill such offset wells as are required by the law under which the permit was issued. [Acts 1925, p. 349.] [39th Leg., ch. 141, § 1.]

Art. 5341b. Extension of oil leases.—All oil and gas permits heretofore or hereafter issued upon lands included herein and which have not expired shall be extended for a term of five years from date thereof, conditioned only upon the payment of the annual rental, as provided by law, in advance and whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual rental money. After production is secured in paying quantities, the owner shall be entitled to a lease which shall run so long as the area covered by his lease produces oil or gas in paying quantities, subject to the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 351.] [39th Leg., ch. 143, § 1.]

Art. 5342. Development work.—Before the expiration of twelve months after the date of the permit the owner thereof shall in good faith begin actual work necessary to the physical development of said area. If petroleum and natural gas is not sooner developed in commercial quantities the owner or manager shall within thirty days after the expiration of one year from the date of the permit, file in the Land Office an affidavit supported by two disinterested credible persons that such actual work was begun within the first twelve months aforesaid, and that a bona fide effort to develop the said area was made during the twelve months preceding the filing of the statement, and showing what work was done and expenditures incurred and whether or not petroleum or natural gas had been discovered in commercial quantities. A failure to file said affidavit within the time specified, or the filing of an affidavit false in material matters shall subject the permit to forfeiture. The owner of a permit shall not take, carry away or sell any petroleum or natural gas before obtaining a lease therefor; provided such quantity as may be necessary for the continued development of the area before obtaining a lease may be used without accounting therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5342a. Permits extended.—All oil and gas permits issued on other than public school or university land, by the Commissioner of the General Land Office of the State of Texas under date of February 3, 1920, and heretofore extended for three years by act of the Legislature, are hereby renewed and extended for an additional period of two years; provided however, that this Act shall apply only to those permits on which all rentals have been paid and under which, as extended, a well has been drilled to a depth of 3000 or more feet, and on which drilling operations for oil and gas are being actively conducted in good faith. Rights hereunder shall be conditioned on regular payment of annual rentals covering the two year extension period, and also on owner making report to the Commissioner of the General Land Office within sixty days after this Act becomes effective, showing drilling operations and depth of well. [Id.]

Art. 5343. University permits.—The provisions of subdivision 3 of this Chapter, so far as they relate to a combination of permits and extension of time for beginning development and time for development thereunder, shall apply to permits upon University land.

[Following is additional legislation. Acts 1925, Chapter 71, p. 225.]

Section 1. That all university land now unsold and all of said land that has heretofore been sold with reservation of the minerals therein and that which may hereafter be sold with reservation of the minerals therein, whether known or unknown, shall be included in this Act, and leases thereon conferring upon persons, firms and corporations the right to develop the oil and natural gas that may be in said land shall be subject to sale by the Commissioner of the General Land Office in accordance with the provisions of this Act and under such rules and regulations as may be adopted by said commissioner as may be necessary to the proper execution of its purposes; provided, oil and gas permits and leases outstanding, shall not be affected by this Act except as provided in Section 14 hereof.

Sec. 2. Sales of oil and gas leases on the lands included herein shall be made by the Commissioner of the General Land Office not less than once each month, when there is land in demand, and at 10 o'clock A. M. on the day fixed therefor. Sales of leases shall be for ten cents per acre in advance for the first year and twenty-five cents per acre in advance for the second year and fifty cents per acre in advance each year thereafter until production is secured in paying quantities, but not to exceed five years, and a royalty of one-eighth of the gross production of the oil, or the value thereof, produced and saved from the leased premises delivered into such pipe line as the lessee may connect his well, or wells, and one-eighth of the gross production of gas, or the value thereof, produced and sold off of the leased premises, and in addition thereto such sum, of [if] any, that one may pay therefor as provided herein.

Sec. 3. The commissioner shall advertise the land and the time when the mineral lease will be subject to sale, except as elsewhere provided in the event of tie bids.

If there should be no other sufficient means for giving the necessary publicity as to what tracts will be subject to lease and the time when applications may be delivered to the General Land Office, the commissioner shall have lists of such tracts printed for free distribution at the expense of the State, which expense shall be paid out of the appropriation for public printing. Such lists shall contain a brief designation of the tracts subject to lease and the terms upon which they may be leased and the time when applications therefor will be opened and filed in the General Land Office.

Sec. 4. Separate applications for each tract, with one dollar for county clerk recording fee, and the first payment of ten cents per acre and the sum offered in addition thereto, if any, for any tract shall be delivered into the General Land Office on or before the day and hour on which the lease will be subject to sale, in sealed envelopes on which shall be endorsed in substance "Application to buy oil and gas," and in addition thereto the time the lease will be subject to sale. All envelopes so endorsed shall be securely kept by the commissioner or his chief clerk unopened until the date on which applications are to be opened and at said hour either or both of them shall begin to open the envelopes in the presence of such persons as may desire to be present. All applications received up to the opening hour, whether open or sealed, endorsed or not endorsed, shall be considered as properly delivered into the General Land Office. An application which includes two or more tracts or is for a price less than the fixed royalty and ten cents per acre shall be void. When an application shall have been filed and considered and the land found to be subject to lease, the lease shall be issued for a term not to exceed five years to the applicant that pays the most, if any sum, for the area in addition to the ten cents per acre and the stipulated royalty. If production should not be secured in five years the lease shall terminate and another lease on the land again be subject to sale as in the first instance. A duplicate of the lease shall be kept on file in the General Land Office. All leases shall be forwarded by the commissioner, with one dollar recording fee, to the proper county clerk, who shall record same and deliver the lease to the lessor or his agent. If two or more persons should offer the same price for the same area and the same should be the highest price offered, all shall be rejected and a date fixed within the discretion of the commissioner, but not more than fifteen days after rejection, when a lease on the land will be subject to sale as in the first instance; provided no lease shall be sold for a sum less than the tie bid without the tract having been duly advertised and offered for sale on a regular sale date. All sums paid upon rejected applications shall be returned by the State Treasurer.

Sec. 5. Whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual rental. After production is secured in paying quantities, the owner shall be entitled to an absolute lease which shall run so long as the area produces in paying quantities, subject only to the provisions of this Act. Whenever a lease ceases to produce in paying quantities, or the owner fails to pay to the State the royalty due, it shall be subject to forfeiture by the commissioner, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorize a forfeiture he shall forfeit it, and the area shall be again offered for sale as in the first instance.

Sec. 6. Royalty of one-eighth of the gross production, as herein provided, shall be paid to the General Land Office for the benefit of the University permanent fund on or before the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the lease, and it shall be accompanied by the sworn statement of the owner, manager or other authorized agent showing the gross amount of oil produced and saved since the last report and the amount of gas produced and sold off the premises, and the market value of the oil and gas together with a copy of all daily gauges of tanks, gas meter readings, if any, pipe line receipts, gas line receipts and other checks or memoranda of amount produced and put into pipe lines, tanks or pools and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, the receipts and discharges of all lines, tanks, pools and meters, and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale and marketing of the oil and gas shall at all time[s] be subject to inspection and examination by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, the Attorney General, the Governor or member of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas, or the representative of either.

Sec. 7. Royalty and all other sums shall be due and payable to the State at Austin, Texas, and shall be paid to the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and he shall transmit all remittances in the form received to the State Treasurer, who shall credit the permanent University fund with all amounts received from royalty. All payments shall be in the form of cash, bank draft on some State or National bank in Texas, or post office or express money order, or such other forms as may be collectible in Austin.

Sec. 8. The State shall have a first lien upon all oil and gas produced upon any leased area to secure the payment of all unpaid royalty and other sum or sums of money that may be due and become due under the provisions of this Act and may follow the same and the value thereof into the hands of any purchaser.

Sec. 9. If oil or gas should be produced in commercial quantities in a well on an adjoining area whether privately owned, or covered by separate lease, which well should be within five hundred feet of an area leased under this Act, the owner of the lease on such University area shall, within sixty days after the initial production on such privately owned area, begin in good faith and prosecute diligently the actual drilling of an offset well or wells on the area so leased from the State and such offset well or wells shall be drilled to such depth and under such conditions as may be necessary to prevent the undue drainage of oil and gas beneath such University area. A log of such well, whether producer or non-producer, shall be filed in the General Land Office within thirty days after the well has been completed or abandoned.

Sec. 10. One may transfer his lease at any time or a part thereof in any size tract not less than forty acres, and such transfer shall be recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and the recorded transfer or certified copy of same shall be filed in the General Land Office, accompanied by one dollar as filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre in the transfer, and thereby the assignee shall have his portion separated from the other part and succeed to all the rights and be subject to all the obligations and penalties of the original lessee. The ten cents per acre as a transfer fee shall be deposited into the State Treasury to the credit of the available University fund, and the lease rental and the bonus paid by a purchaser shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the University permanent fund.

Sec. 11. An owner may relinquish his lease to the State at any time by having the relinquishment recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and the recorded relinquishment or certified copy of same shall be filed in the General Land Office, accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the owner of such lease shall be relieved of any further obligations to the State, but such relinquishment shall not have the effect to release the owner from any obligations or liabilities theretofore accrued in favor of the State. The area so relinquished shall be subject to lease as in the first instance.

Sec. 12. If the owner of a lease should fail or refuse to make the payment of any sum due thereon either as rental or royalty on the production within thirty days after same shall become due, or if such owner or his authorized agent should make any false return, or false report concerning production, royalty or drilling, or if such owner should fail or refuse to drill any offset well or wells in good faith as required by this Act, or if such owner or his agent should refuse the proper authority access to the records or other data pertaining to the operations under this Act, or if such owner or his authorized agent should fail or refuse to give correct information to the proper authority, or fail or refuse to furnish the log of any well as provided herein, such lease shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner of the General Land Office, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorized a forfeiture, the commissioner shall forfeit same, and the area shall be subject to lease again after due advertisement; provided, such forfeiture may be set aside and the lease and all rights thereunder reinstated before the rights of another intervene, upon satisfactory evidence of future compliance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations authorized to be adopted for the purpose of executing its provisions.

Sec. 13. Whenever it may be necessary for the owner of a lease to enter the enclosed land of another for the purpose of ingress and egress to and from the area so leased from the State, and such lessee and owner of enclosure or agent of the owner cannot agree upon the terms or place of entry, the lessee or his agent may petition the commissioners' court of the county or counties in which such enclosure may be situated, in whole or in part, for the opening of such way of ingress and egress aforesaid as may be necessary. Upon the filing of such petition it shall be the duty of said court, or courts to proceed to lay out and establish in the manner provided for the laying out of third class public roads, such road or roads as may be necessary for the purposes named herein.

Sec. 14. All oil and gas permits heretofore issued upon lands included herein and now in force shall be extended for a term of five years from date thereof, and whenever production is secured in paying quantities and the payment of royalty begins, the owner shall not pay any further annual money rental. After production is secured in paying quantities the owner shall be entitled to a lease which shall run so long as the area covered by his lease produces oil or gas in paying quantities, subject to the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, p. 225.]

Section 14 of the above Act was amended and superseded by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 143, § 1, which is art. 5341b of these statutes.

Art. 5343a. Withdrawal of University land from lease.—If, in cases now pending in the Supreme Court or in cases hereafter filed, the said Court should decide that the mineral lease or sales Act of March 10, 1925, Chapter 71, Acts Regular Session, 39th Legislature, is invalid or ineffective, then and in that event the minerals in all University land are hereby withdrawn from lease or sale until such time as the Legislature may enact legislation deemed adequate for the protection of the University available and permanent funds; and the Commissioner of the General Land Office shall not, in the event such sales act is declared unconstitutional, thereafter issue any oil and gas permits on said land upon any application heretofore or hereafter filed, until further legislation as to same. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 368, ch. 249, § 1.]

Art. 5344. Oil leases.—Upon the payment of $2.00 (two dollars) per acre for each acre in the permit a lease shall be issued for a term of ten (10) years, or less, as may be desired by the applicant, and with the option of a renewal or renewals for an equal or shorter period, and immediately after the expiration [expiration] of the first year after the date of the lease, the sum of [two] ($2.00) dollars per acre shall be paid during the life of the lease, and in addition thereto, the owner of the lease shall pay a sum of money equal to a royalty of one-eighth of the value of the gross production of petroleum. The owner of a gas well shall pay a royalty of one-tenth of the value of the metre output of all gas disposed of off the premises; provided, however, that the provisions hereof as to the payment of two ($2.00) dollars per acre during the lease period and the life of said lease shall not apply to leases of bays, marshes, reefs, salt-water lakes or other submerged lands containing as much as one hundred (100) acres but not in excess of five hundred (500) acres upon which as many as five wells have been drilled, and upon which an expenditure of as much as one hundred thousand ($100,000.00) dollars has been made. The drilling of said wells and the expenditure of said amount to be established to the satisfaction of the commissioner of the land office. [Acts 1925, p. 348.] [39th Leg., ch. 140, § 1.]

Art. 5344a. Terms of lease.—A lease shall then be issued for a term of ten years or less, with the option of a renewal or renewals for an equal or shorter period, and the owner of the lease shall pay a royalty of one-eighth of the value of the gross production of petroleum. The owner of a gas well shall pay a royalty of one-tenth of the value of the meter output of all gas disposed of off the premises. [Id.]

Art. 5344b. Offset wells.—The permit or lease shall contain the terms upon which it is issued, including the authority of the Commissioner to require the drilling of wells necessary to offset wells drilled upon adjacent private land, and such other matters as the Commissioner may deem important to the rights of the applicant or the State.

Art. 5345. Damages to surface.—If the surface of an area included within the operations of this law, has been acquired by one prior to the filing of an application under the provisions herein, such area shall nevertheless be subject to prospect and lease as provided herein, but the owner of the permit or lease shall pay ten cents per acre to the owner of the surface annually in advance during the life of the permit or lease. The sum so paid and accepted by the surface owner shall be full compensation for all damages to the surface. [Acts 1917, p. 158; Acts 2 C. S., 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5346. Statement of holdings.—Whoever applies for a permit or lease shall file with the application an affidavit showing what interest the applicant has in any other permit or lease issued by the State and in good standing at the date of the statement. [Id.]

Art. 5347. Distribution of funds.—The proceeds arising from activities under this law, and Chapter 5 thereof, which affect lands belonging to the public free school funds and the permanent fund of the several asylums, shall be credited to the permanent funds of said institutions. All proceeds paid or collected from activities under this law affecting the lands belonging to the Permanent Fund of the University of Texas (except such funds as are required by the Constitution to be credited to the Permanent University Fund) shall be credited by the State Treasurer to the available fund of such institution; Provided that all such funds shall be held by the Board of Regents of the University in a special building fund and shall be expended only for the erection of buildings and equipping same, or for other permanent improvements. All proceeds, including those collected after this Act takes effect and those collected prior to September 1, 1925, now being held in suspense fund, arising from the activities affecting lands other than those belonging in the public free school fund, the University and the several asylums, shall be credited to the General Revenue Fund. Provided that the funds herein apportioned shall not include proceeds and royalties derived from the Sand, Gravel and Shell Fund, the disposition of which is now fixed by Statute. [Id.; Acts 3 C. S. 1920, p. 120(102); Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 135, ch. 43, § 1.]

Art. 5348. General provisions.—The general provisions in this article shall apply to each foregoing provision so far as applicable.

Surveyed lands within the meaning of this law shall include all tracts for which there are approved field notes on file in the Land Office and eighty acre tracts and multiples thereof of such surveys.

Unsurveyed areas within the meaning of this law shall include all areas for which there are no approved field notes on file in the General Land Office.

All applications for surveyed land shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which the tract or a portion thereof is situated, or with the clerk of the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, and shall be filed in the Land Office within thirty days after it was filed with the county clerk.

All applications for unsurveyed areas shall be filed with the county surveyor of the county in which the area or part thereof is situated. The area shall be surveyed within ninety days, and the application, field notes and plat shall be filed in the Land Office within one hundred days after the date of filing of the application.

A separate written application shall be made for the area desired in a permit. No permit or lease shall embrace the area in two or more applications.

No application, permit or lease shall embrace a divided area.

Whole tracts of surveyed lands may be applied for as a whole or in eighty acre tracts or multiples thereof without furnishing field notes therefor.

The area in each permit shall be developed independently of other areas.

When one desires a lease, any one or more whole tracts in the permit may be abandoned by relinquishment filed in the Land Office as herein provided and thereupon obtain a lease upon the remaining area; provided such remaining area is in a solid body.

An owner may relinquish a permit or lease at any time by having the deed of relinquishment acknowledged, recorded by the proper county clerk and filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar filing fee. The Commissioner shall mail notice to the proper county clerk of the filing of the relinquishment and when said notice has had time through the due course of mail to reach said clerk the area shall be subject to applications as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 5349. Transfer of rights.—The owner of a file or permit or lease under any provision of this subdivision may sell same and the rights secured thereby at any time, also fix a lien of any kind thereon to any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise, who may be qualified to receive a permit or lease in the first instance; provided, the instrument evidencing the sale or lien shall be recorded in the county where the area or part thereof is situated, or in the county to which such county may be attached for judicial purposes, and same shall be filed in the Land Office within sixty days after the date thereof accompanied with a filing fee of one dollar. If not so filed the contract evidenced by said instrument shall be void and the obligations therein assumed shall not be enforceable. A sublease contract need not be filed in the Land Office. [Acts 1917, p. 165.]

Art. 5349a. Transfer of not less than forty acres.—Owners of oil and gas permits and leases that have heretofore been issued and those that may hereafter be issued on University land may sell and transfer same as a whole or in tracts not less than forty acres, and the assignee may have the instruments evidencing such transfer filed in the General Land Office and that portion so transferred separated from the parent tract or parent subdivision of a tract permit or lease on the records of said office upon the payment of one dollar as a filing fee for each transfer and an additional fee of ten cents per acre for each acre in such transfer. The Commissioner of the General Land Office may, when deemed necessary, require field notes before filing a transfer. All transfers shall be recorded in the county or counties in which the area or a part thereof is located before offering same for filing in the Land Office. The one dollar filing fee shall be turned into the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue and the acreage fee shall be turned into the State Treasury to the credit of the available fund of the State University. The provisions of this Act shall apply to permits and leases that may be held singly or in combination with other permits or leases. [Acts 1925, p. 23.] [39th Leg., ch. 7, § 1.]

Art. 5349b. May dissolve combination at wish of owner.—Owners of oil and gas permits, and leases based thereon, that were heretofore issued and those that may hereafter be issued that have been combined under the provisions of existing law and those that may hereafter be so combined, may dissolve such combinations in such manner as may be satisfactory to the owners thereof, and conditioned only upon the payment of the fees prescribed herein when transfers are preferred for filing in the General Land Office after having been recorded in the county or counties in which the area or part thereof may be located; provided no acreage fee shall be charged under this Act; when a transfer includes a whole permit or a whole lease or a whole tract in a permit or lease. [Id.] [39th Leg., ch. 7, § 2.]

Section 3 hereunder was apparently intended to be a separate article.

Sec. 3. When the transfers provided for herein shall have been filed in the General Land Office the assignee or assignees in such transfer shall become substituted for the original permittee or lessee, as the case may be, and thereby assume all the obligations, pains and penalties that the law imposed upon the original permittee or lessee. [Acts 1925, p. 23.] [39th Leg., ch. 7, § 3.]

Art. 5350. Forfeiture of rights.—If a permit or lease should be issued upon a statement by the applicant which is false or untrue in material matters, or should the owner of a permit fail or refuse to begin in good faith the work necessary to the development of the area within the time required, or to proceed in good faith and with reasonable diligence in a bona fide effort to develop an area included in his permit after having begun the development, or to apply for a lease within the prescribed time, or should the owner of a lease fail or refuse to make proper remittances in payment of royalty or other payments, or to make the proper statement, or to furnish the required evidence of the output and market value and material matters relating thereto when requested, or fail to make the annual payment on the area when requested so to do, the permit or lease, shall be subject to forfeiture. When the Commissioner is sufficiently informed of such facts he may declare the permit or lease forfeited by proper entry upon the duplicate thereof in his office; and he shall mail a notice of that fact to the proper county clerk and the area shall be subject to the application of another than the forfeiting owner when the notice has had time to reach the county clerk through due course of mail; provided, the Commissioner may exercise large discretion in the matter of requiring one to develop gas wells. All forfeitures may, within the discretion of the Commissioner, be set aside and all rights reinstated before the rights of another intervene. [Id.]

Art. 5351. Pollution of streams.—All development in water or on islands, or river beds and channels shall be done under such regulations as will prevent the pollution of the water and for the prevention of such pollution the Commissioner may call upon the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner for assistance in the adoption and enforcement of rules and regulations for the protection of the waters from such pollution. The Commissioner of the General Land Office may cancel a permit or lease for a failure or refusal of the owner to comply with such rules and regulations as may be adopted. [Id.]

Art. 5352. Properties taxable.—Rights acquired under this law shall be subject to taxation as is other property. [Id.]

2. GULF LANDS

Art. 5353. Lands subject to lease.—All islands, salt water lakes, bays, inlets, marshes and reefs owned by the State within tide water limits, and that portion of the Gulf of Mexico within the jurisdiction of Texas, and unsold unsurveyed public free school lands, shall be subject to lease by the Commissioner to any person, firm or corporation for the production of oil and natural gas that may be therein or thereunder, in accordance with the provisions of this law. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 112.]

Art. 5354. Notice for bids.—The Commissioner shall fix the day and hour when an area or areas will be subject to lease and advertise or readvertise such areas at least thirty days before such lease date, except as provided in case of tie bids. The Commissioner may give such notice by distributing printed lists as provided for sales of surface rights of public lands. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51.]

Art. 5355. Application for lease.—Application for separate areas and the first payment thereon shall be delivered into the Land Office on or before the day, and hour on which the area will be subject to lease, in sealed envelopes indorsed, "Application to lease Minerals," with the date the area will be subject to lease. All envelopes so indorsed shall be securely kept by the Commissioner or his chief clerk unopened until the date on which applications are to be opened, and at said hour either or both of them shall open the envelopes in the presence of such persons as desire to be present. All applications received up to the opening hour, whether open or sealed, indorsed or not indorsed, shall be considered as properly delivered. An application which includes two or more areas, or is for a price less than the fixed royalty and price per acre shall be void. [Id.]

Art. 5356. Tie bids.—If the highest bid for the same area is made by more than one applicant, all such applications shall be rejected and a date fixed within the discretion of the Commissioner, not later than the fifteenth day of the following month, when the area will be subject to lease as in the first instance, but no bids therefor shall be considered if the price is less than the former sum offered. The State Treasurer shall return all sums paid upon rejected applications. [Id.]

Art. 5357. Acceptance of bid.—When an application has been filed and considered and the area found to be subject to lease, the lease shall be issued for a term not to exceed twenty-five years to the applicant that pays the most for the area in addition to the fixed price per acre and the stipulated royalty. If production should not be secured in ten years, the lease shall terminate and the area again be subject to lease. [Id.]

Art. 5358. Terms of lease.—The areas included herein shall be leased for one-eighth of the gross production of oil, or the value of same, that may be produced and saved, and one-eighth of the gross production of gas or the value of same, that may be produced and sold off of the area, and ten cents per acre in advance for the first year, and thereafter in advance an additional sum of twenty-five cents per acre for the second year, and fifty cents per acre for the third year, and one dollar per acre for each year thereafter. When production has been secured in commercial quantities and the payment of royalty begins and continues to be paid, the owner shall be exempt from further annual payments on the acreage. If production should cease and royalty not be paid, the owner of the lease shall, at the end of the lease year in which royalty ceased to be paid, and annually thereafter in advance, pay one dollar per acre so long as such owner may desire to maintain the rights acquired under the lease, not to exceed ten years from the date of said lease. [Id.]

Art. 5359. Offset wells.—If oil or gas should be produced in commercial quantities in a well on an area privately owned when such well is within one thousand feet of an area leased hereunder, the owner of the lease on such State area shall, within sixty days after the initial production on such privately owned area, begin in good faith and prosecute diligently the drilling of an offset well or wells on the area so leased from the State. Such offset wells shall be drilled to such depth and such means shall be used as may be necessary to prevent the undue drainage of oil or gas from beneath such State area. A log of each well shall be filed in the Land Office within thirty days after the well has been completed or abandoned. [Id.]

Art. 5360. Forfeiture of rights.—The provisions of subdivision 3 of this chapter governing the forfeiture of rights thereunder and a reinstatement thereof, shall apply to leases under this subdivision, and on forfeiture of such lease, after due advertisement, it shall be subject to lease by another than such forfeiting owner. [Id.]

'28 TEX. CIV. ST.—42

Art. 5361. Access to lands.—Whenever it becomes necessary for the owner of a lease acquired hereunder to enter the inclosed land of another for the purpose of ingress and egress to and from the area so leased from the State, and such lessee and owner or his agent cannot agree upon the place of such entry, nor the conditions thereof, the lessee or his agent may petition the commissioners courts of the counties in which such inclosure is situated in whole or in part for the opening of such way of ingress and egress as may be necessary. Upon the filing of such petition, said courts shall lay out and establish in the manner provided for the laying out of third class public roads, such roads as may be necessary for the purpose named herein. [Id.]

Art. 5362. Assignments of leases.—One may transfer his lease at any time. Such transfer shall be recorded in the counties in which the area or part thereof is situated and within ninety days after the date of its execution the recorded transfer or certified copy of same shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the assignee shall succeed to all the rights and be subject to all the obligations and penalties of the original lessee. [Id.]

Art. 5363. Relinquishment of lease.—An owner may relinquish his lease to the State at any time by having the relinquishment recorded in the counties in which the area or part thereof is situated, and within ninety days after the date of its execution the recorded relinquishment or certified copy of same shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by one dollar as filing fee, and thereby the owner of such lease shall be relieved of any further obligations to the State, but such relinquishment shall not have the effect to release the owner from any obligations or liabilities theretofore accrued in favor of the State. [Id.]

Art. 5364. Disposition of payments.—The State Treasurer shall credit the permanent free school fund with all amounts received from the unsurveyed school lands, and with two-thirds of the amount so received from other areas, and shall credit the general revenue fund with the remaining one-third from said other areas. [Id.]

Art. 5365. Classification of surveys.—To administer this law to the best interest of the State, the Commissioner may recognize or decline to recognize any survey heretofore made of any area included herein. Recognized surveys shall be advertised and shall be subject to lease as a whole. Surveys not recognized shall be deemed, together with all adjacent unsurveyed areas, as one unsurveyed area, and the Commissioner shall advertise the whole or designated portions thereof for lease. The Commissioner may require field notes for unsurveyed areas before issuing a lease therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5366. Pollution of streams.—The development of wells and the development and operation upon the areas included herein shall be done so far as practicable in such manner as to prevent such pollution of the water as will destroy fish, oysters and other sea food. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall enforce such rules as the Commissioner of the General Land Office may prescribe for that purpose. [Id.]

3. SOLD ASYLUM AND SCHOOL LANDS

Art. 5367. School and asylum lands.—The State hereby constitutes the owner of the soil its agent for the purposes herein named, and in consideration therefor, relinquishes and vests in the owner of the soil an undivided fifteen-sixteenths of all oil and gas which has been undeveloped and the value of the same that may be upon and within the surveyed and unsurveyed public free school land and asylum lands and portions of such surveys sold with a mineral classification or mineral reservation, subject to the terms of this law. The remaining undivided portion of said oil and gas and its value is hereby reserved for the use of and benefit of the public school fund and the several asylum funds. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 249; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 112.]

Art. 5368. Sale and lease by agent.—The owner of said land is hereby authorized to sell or lease to any person, firm or corporation the oil and gas that may be thereon or therein upon such terms and conditions as such owner may deem best, subject only to the provisions hereof, and he may have a second lien thereon to secure the payment of any sum due him. All leases and sales so made shall be assignable. No oil or gas rights shall be sold or leased hereunder for less than ten cents per acre per year plus royalty, and the lessee or purchaser shall in every case pay the State ten cents per acre per year of sales and rentals; and in case of production shall pay the State the undivided one-sixteenth of the value of the oil and gas reserved herein, and like amounts to the owner of the soil. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 249.]

Art. 5369. Offset wells.—If oil or gas should be discovered in paying quantities on land not included in this law, and within one thousand feet of land that is so included, the owner, lessee, sub-lessee, receiver or other agent in control of such land included herein, shall in good faith begin the drilling of an offset well or wells upon such land within one hundred days after the first discovery, and prosecute same with diligence to completion. Every offset well shall be drilled to the depth necessary for effective protection against undue drainage by other wells on other lands in that locality. [Id.]

Art. 5370. Failure to drill offset.—If such persons fail or refuse to begin drilling such offset wells within the time required, or to drill such offset well or wells diligently and in good faith, or to drill such wells to the depth necessary for the purpose intended, or to use the means necessary to the development of any well or wells thereon within the time required, or to drill such well drilled thereon, thereupon the relinquishment herein granted shall ipso facto terminate and the rights acquired thereunder shall likewise terminate, and the oil and gas relinquished herein shall revert to and become the property of the State's general revenue fund. When the Commissioner is sufficiently informed of the facts which so terminate such rights, he shall, on the wrapper containing the papers relating to the sale of the land, write and sign officially, words indicating such termination. [Id.]

Art. 5371. Sale of forfeited rights.—When the relinquishment granted herein and the rights acquired thereunder have been so terminated, the Commissioner shall take possession of the land and advertise the oil and gas therein for sale. All such sales shall be made at such times as the Commissioner may determine and in the manner provided for the sale of public free school land. The sale shall be made to the person, firm or corporation that will pay the highest price therefor in addition to one-eighth of the oil and gas produced or the value of the same, which shall be reserved to the public free school fund. The sum received in addition to the reserved one-eighth shall be divided equally between the General Revenue Fund and the owner of the soil, after deducting the expenses incident to the advertisement and sale. Purchasers at such sales shall begin the drilling of the necessary offset wells within sixty days after the acceptance of their offer, and the failure to do so and the failure to comply with the provisions of this law relating to the drilling of offset wells shall likewise operate as a termination of the rights acquired thereunder and the substances therein shall again be subject to sale. [Id.]

Art. 5372. Forfeiture of rights.—If any person, firm or corporation operating under this law shall fail or refuse to make the payment of any sum within thirty days after it becomes due, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly make any false return or false report concerning production or drilling, or if such one should fail or refuse the proper authority access to the records pertaining to the operations, or if such one or an authorized agent should knowingly fail or refuse to give correct information to the proper authority, or knowingly fail or refuse to furnish the Land Office a correct log of any well, the rights acquired under the permit or lease shall be subject to forfeiture by the Commissioner, and he shall forfeit same when sufficiently informed of the facts which authorize a forfeiture, and the oil and gas shall be subject to sale in the manner provided for the sale of other forfeited rights hereunder, except that the owner of the soil shall not thereby forfeit his interest in the oil and gas. Such forfeiture may be set aside and all rights theretofore existing shall be reinstated at any time before the rights of another intervene, upon satisfactory evidence of future compliance with the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5373. Rights of subsequent purchaser.—If one acquires a valid right by permit or lease to the oil and gas in any unsold public free school or asylum land under any other law, a subsequent purchaser of such land shall not acquire any rights to any of the oil and gas that may be therein, but when the rights under such permit or lease terminate in the manner provided in the law under which they were obtained, then the owner of the soil shall become the owner of that portion of the oil and gas herein relinquished, and shall be thereafter subject to the provisions of this law. A forfeiture of the purchase of any survey or tract for any cause shall operate as a forfeiture of the minerals therein to the State. A relinquishment to the State of a lease producing oil or gas in paying quantities shall not operate to relinquish or convey to the owner of the soil any interest whatever in the oil and gas that may be in the land included in said lease. [Id.]

Art. 5374. May combine permits.—Any permits issued upon any land included in this law may upon such terms as the owners may agree, be assigned as a whole into one ownership or may be grouped or combined into one organization, and in one or more groups or combinations not to exceed sixteen sections of 640 acres each, more or less, in one group, for the purpose of developing oil and gas. All such assignments and agreements shall be recorded in the counties in which the land or part thereof is situated and shall be filed in the Land Office within sixty days after the execution of same, with a filing fee of one dollar. [Id.]

Art. 5375. Operation under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits shall have eighteen months from the date or average date thereof in which to begin drilling a well for oil and gas on some portion of the land included therein. The drilling on one permit shall be sufficient protection against forfeiture of all the permits included in a combination. Owners of permits or combination of permits included herein shall have three years after the date or average date thereof in which to complete the development of oil and gas thereon, and if oil and gas should not be found in paying quantities and a lease applied for within said time all rights in such permit or combination of permits shall terminate, and the oil and gas in such land shall become subject to the provisions of this law relating to the relinquishment of oil and gas to the owner of the soil. [Id.]

Art. 5376. Lease under permit.—If oil or gas should be produced in paying quantities upon any land included in this law, the owner of the permit shall report the development to the Commissioner within thirty days thereafter and apply for a lease upon such whole surveys or tracts in each permit as the owner or owners of a combination of permits may desire to be leased, and accompany the application with a log of the wells, and the correctness of the log shall be sworn to by the owner, manager or driller, and thereupon a lease shall be issued without the payment of any additional sum of money and for a period not to exceed ten years, subject to renewal or renewals. [Id.]

Art. 5377. Payments under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits who desires to avail himself of the terms of this law, shall pay the State ten cents per acre, annually in advance, for the second and third years, and shall likewise pay the owner of the soil ten cents per acre for the first year of such permit, before availing himself of the privileges hereof, and a like sum thereafter annually in advance. A failure to make either of said payments shall subject the permit or permits to forfeiture by the Commissioner, and when sufficiently informed of the facts which subject the permits to forfeiture, said Commissioner shall forfeit the same by an indorsement of forfeiture upon the wrapper containing the papers relating to the permits and sign it officially. The payment of ten cents per acre to the owner of the soil may be made to him or to the county clerk of the county in which the land is situated, and said clerk shall deposit such payment as he receives, in some bank at the county seat to the credit of the record owner of such land. If the owner of the soil refuses to accept such payment, said clerk shall withdraw such deposit and return it to the owner of the permit. The payment, or the tender of payment, shall be evidenced by the receipt of the owner or part owner or county clerk filed among the papers in the Land Office relating to such permits. [Id.]

Art. 5378. Relinquishment under permit.—The owner of a permit or combination of permits may relinquish to the State a permit or combination of permits or any whole survey or whole tract included in a permit at any time before obtaining a lease therefor by having such relinquishment recorded in the counties in which the land or part thereof is situated, and by filing it in the Land Office within sixty days after its execution, with one dollar as a filing fee. [Id.]

Art. 5379. Damages to soil.—The payment of the ten cents per acre and the obligation to pay the owner of the soil one-sixteenth of the production and the payment of same when produced and the acceptance of same by the owner, shall be in lieu of all damages to the soil. [Id.]

4. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 5380. Payment of royalty.—All royalties shall be paid to the State on or before the twentieth day of each month for the preceding month during the life of the lease, accompanied by the affidavit of the owner, manager or other authorized agent, showing the gross amount of oil produced and saved since the last report and the amount of gas produced and sold off the area, and the market value of the oil and gas, together with a copy of all daily gauges of tanks, gas meter readings, pipe line receipts, gas line receipts and other checks or memoranda of amount produced and put into pipe lines, tanks, or pools and gas lines or gas storage. The books and accounts, receipts and discharges of all lines, tanks, pools and meters and all contracts and other records pertaining to the production, transportation, sale and marketing of the oil and gas shall at any time be subject to inspection and examination by the Commissioner, the Attorney General, the Governor, or the representative of either. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 51.]

Art. 5381. Form of payments.—All payments shall be in the form of cash, bank draft on some State or National bank in Texas, post-office or express money order, or such other form as the law may prescribe for making remittances to the State Treasury, and shall be due and payable to the Commissioner at Austin. [Id.]

Art. 5382. Lien.—The State shall have a first lien upon all oil and gas produced upon any lease area to secure the payment of all unpaid royalty and other sums that may become due hereunder. [Id.]

1. COAL AND LIGNITE

Article 5383. Lands included.—Any person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise that may desire to acquire the right to prospect for and mine coal or lignite in or under any of the following lands: all unsold public free school land, University land, asylum land or any such lands sold with a reservation of minerals therein, and either of said substances that may be in or upon said land that was purchased with the relinquishment of the minerals therein, and all lands of which the mineral rights therein have reverted to this State as the Sovereign Government, and either of said substances that may be in or upon any other public lands including islands and river beds and channels which belong to the State, may do so by complying with the following conditions:

1. Notice of location.—Date and post up a notice to the effect that the applicant has located a coal or lignite mine, stating the area desired, not to exceed 2560 acres or four sections of 640 acres each, more or less, and give the approximate courses and the approximate distances that the lines shall extend from the point at which the notice is posted.

2. Application for survey.—Within thirty days after the date of such posting, the applicant shall file an application for a survey of the claim with one dollar as a filing fee. The application shall state when the claim was first posted. If an applicant files on whole tracts or upon eighty acres or multiples thereof of surveyed land, the application shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the proper county with one dollar as a filing fee, and after being recorded by the clerk shall be filed in the Land Office without field notes within thirty days after being filed with the county clerk, with one dollar as a filing fee.

3. Boundary line.—The application and survey shall not differ so materially from the original posted notice as to defeat the rights of subsequent locators. Lines of previous surveys need not be regarded by an applicant unless he may desire to do so.

4. Application for permit.—Within ninety days from the filing of the application, the surveyor shall survey the area in substantial compliance with the posted notice, record the field notes and make a plat of the survey. The application, field notes and plat shall be filed in the Land Office within one hundred days after the application was filed with the surveyor, accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee and ten cents per acre for each acre included within the area embraced in the field notes or in the application if no field notes are required, and accompanied by a sworn statement by the applicant showing what interest he has in any other permit, lease or patent issued under this law and in good standing. [Acts 1917, p. 161.]

Art. 5384. Permit and lease.—When the foregoing conditions have been complied with and the application, field notes and plat have been approved by the Commissioner, he shall issue to the applicant or his assignee a separate permit for each area applied for, conferring upon him an exclusive right to prospect for, develop and put out coal and lignite therein upon the following conditions:

1. The permit shall be void after five years from the date of issue.
2. Development work shall commence within the first year and continue until the discovery of such minerals in paying quantities.
3. Within thirty days after the expiration of each year, except the fifth, the owner or manager shall file in the land office a sworn statement supported by the affidavit of two disinterested credible persons, showing a performance in good faith of the development work required in this article, and expenditures thereunder. If the Commissioner is satisfied that such statement is true, the owner shall have the right to prospect the area for another year.
4. During the life of the permit, and within thirty days after the discovery of such minerals in paying quantities, the owner shall apply for a lease to develop and put out such minerals in the area included in the permit, or forfeit all rights under such permit.
5. Such lease may be granted for not to exceed ten years, with right of renewals for the same or less term.
6. Royalty of ten cents a ton on coal, and seven cents a ton on lignite shall be paid monthly on each ton mined under such permit or lease.
7. The owner shall annually pay ten cents per acre in advance for each acre covered by his permit or lease.
8. Each mine shall be kept in reasonably continuous operation, and shall be operated in conformity with rules and regulations prescribed by the State Mining Inspector and the laws relating to such mines.
9. On the termination of the rights under a permit, the area shall again be subject to the prospect and development by another than the forfeiting owner. [Id.]

Art. 5385. Patent.—At any time during the life of a permit but prior to accepting a lease upon any area, the owner of a permit may elect to pay one hundred dollars per acre for the area embraced in his permit and obtain a patent for all the minerals that may be in such area except petroleum and natural gas, in lieu of the payment of the royalty as provided in this law; provided, however, one shall pay the prescribed royalty on all coal or lignite put out and disposed of while developing the area prior to obtaining a patent. [Id.]

Art. 5386. Surface rights.—An owner of any claim may fell and remove for building or mining purposes any timber upon any of the unsold areas included within this law, and shall also have the right to occupy within the limits of his application, permit or lease, so much of the surface thereof as may be necessary for the development of the minerals and substances therein, and shall have the right of ingress to and egress from the area embraced in the file, permit, lease or patent. Ten cents per acre per year in advance shall be paid to the owner of the surface and when accepted by the owner, it shall be deemed full compensation for such damages as may be occasioned to the surface through the occupancy and operation by the owner of the permit, lease or patent. [Id.]

Art. 5387. Laws applicable.—In so far as applicable, the provisions of Subdivision 1 of Chapter 4 governing the sale or transfer of a permit or lease, the forfeiture of rights thereunder for a violation of the conditions of said law, the relinquishment of whole tracts under a permit, and the subjection of rights thereunder to taxation, shall all apply to those operations hereunder.

2. OTHER MINERALS

Art. 5388. Lands and minerals included.—All valuable mineral bearing deposits, placers, veins, lodes and rock carrying metallic or non-metallic substances of value except oil, natural gas, coal and lignite, that may be in any lands included in this chapter shall be subject to development, sale and patenting as provided in this subdivision. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 241.]

Art. 5389. Extent of claim.—A mining claim upon mineral lands hereunder may equal, but shall not exceed fifteen hundred feet in length and six hundred feet in width. Such claims may be of unlimited depth, but shall be bounded by four vertical planes from the side and end lines. All claims shall be in the form of a parallelogram unless such form is prevented by adjoining rights. The locator shall be entitled to the use of all superficial area bounded by the enclosed lines of the claim, and to all minerals therein, upon the terms of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5390. Boundary marks.—The locator of any mining claim shall conspicuously post up at the center of one of the end lines of the claim a written notice giving his name and that of the claim, and date of posting, and shall describe the claim by giving the number of feet in length, width and approximate directions the claim lies, in length from the notice, with the section number, if known, and the county; and shall place temporary posts, or stone markers at the four approximate corners of the claim at the time of making the location. The temporary monuments shall be replaced by permanent monuments at the four corners as given by the county surveyor within one hundred days after the issuance of an award to said claim. The permanent monuments shall be of four inch timber posts or their equivalent of stone or concrete, and shall be not less than three feet high. In all conflicts, priority of location shall decide.

Art. 5391. Application for survey.—Within thirty days after posting the required notice the locator shall file with the county surveyor of the county in which the land or part thereof is situated, a written application for the survey of the claim. Such application shall be accompanied by one dollar as a filing fee, and the application shall be recorded by the surveyor. The application shall give the name of the claim and the locator and such description of the boundary and location as will enable the surveyor to identify the area of the land. [Id.]

Art. 5392. Requisites of survey.—In making the survey, the surveyor shall locate and mark the corners of the claim on the ground as described in the location notice, and he shall determine the direction and distance to a corner of a section on which the claim is located, as well as the direction and distance to some prominent and permanent land mark other than a section corner, which may serve as a mineral monument or marker, and in case of any conflict this direction and distance to said prominent and permanent land mark shall have priority over all other distances and directions in serving to locate the mining claim. The directions and distances herein required shall be incorporated in and made a part of the record of the field notes and plat of the survey. The surveyor shall not charge more than ten dollars per day for his services hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 5393. Issue of award.—Within one hundred days after the application for survey has been filed with the surveyor, the application and field notes of the area applied for shall be filed in the Land Office accompanied by the filing fee of one dollar. When the application has been considered and all things have been done in compliance with the law, the Commissioner shall issue to the applicant an award for the area. Nothing in this article shall interfere with the right of the locator to proceed with the development and operation of the property after the posting of the location, if such operation does not conflict with the mineral rights of a prior locator or owner. [Id.]

Art. 5394. Development of claim.—After the date of an award, the owner shall have the exclusive right to the possession and use of the minerals within the area of the claim so long as he continues to do or causes to be done the annual assessment work for each claim consisting of excavation in the form of shaft or tunnel or an open cut to the extent of ten feet in depth or length and at least four feet by five feet for the other dimensions, in event the mineral sought to be mined is such as is usually and customarily produced by means of shafts, tunnels or open cuts, but in

event the mineral sought is usually and customarily produced from drilling holes by means of machinery, except such minerals as oil, natural gas, coal or lignite, then the drilling of a hole to such depth or length in lieu of the digging of shaft or tunnel or open cut shall constitute the annual assessment required. If an award is issued prior to the first day of October of any year the first annual assessment work shall be done before the end of that calendar year, and during the month of January following, such owner shall file in the Land Office his affidavit that such work has been done and shall state the extent thereof. Such owner shall, during each succeeding calendar year beginning January first next after the date of such award, perform the required annual assessment work and file an affidavit thereof as in the first instance. All the assessment work for a contiguous group of claims may be done on one claim. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 417, ch. 278, § 1.]

Art. 5395. Rental and royalty.—The owner of each claim shall pay fifty cents per acre annually in advance after the award and during the month of each succeeding January thereafter; and pay two per cent royalty upon the production of such claim as shown by the net smelter, mill, mint, or refinery returns, or of sums arising from the sale of the ore or products from the claim and received by the owner. Royalty payments arising from the sale of ores, mineral or other products shall be due quarterly in January, April, July and October for the quarters preceding. [Id.]

Art. 5396. Joint claimants.—Any mining claim may be filed upon by one or more persons separately or jointly, and if any one or more of them shall fail to perform his part of the conditions, imposed by this law, their right, interest, title and claim shall ipso facto cease, and the same shall revert to the State. The co-owners performing their proportional part of the conditions shall have the prior right within ninety days after such forfeiture to make the delinquent payments and do the work so defaulted, and thereupon they shall have thirty days after the expiration of said ninety days within which to make affidavit to the Commissioner to the effect that all of said conditions have been performed within said time in the same manner as if no location had been made by said defaulting co-owner. [Id.]

Art. 5397. Forfeiture of rights.—Failure of the locator or owner of any claim to comply with any provision of this law prior to receiving patent thereto, shall constitute an ipso facto forfeiture of all his rights in the claim, and the claim shall be open to location by others as prescribed in this law, the same as if no location had ever been made. Any claim which has been forfeited by any locator or owner shall not be relocated either in whole or in part by such forfeiting locator or owner within a period of six months from the time of such forfeiture. [Id.]

Art. 5398. Patent.—At any time after five years from the date of the award, the owner may pay the balance due on the purchase price of the claim and obtain a patent thereto, and after the issuance of the patent no further assessment work shall be required, but the royalty shall be perpetual. The purchase price shall be ten dollars per acre, and the annual payments of fifty cents per acre shall be applied thereon. [Id.]

Art. 5399. Prison and juvenile lands.—All State lands belonging to or under the jurisdiction and control of the Prison Commission or the Board of Control for the State Juvenile Training School, and all other farms belonging to the State and administered by other boards, shall become subject to the provisions of this law; but with the express reservation that in sales of the mineral rights in or under such farms, the annual payments and the royalties shall be made so long as the purchasers of said rights desire to operate their respective claims; and in no event shall a patent issue upon any claim filed upon any such farms belonging to the State, and all rights of the claimant to any land or filings hereunder shall terminate upon permanent cessation by such claimant of operation under such claim. [Id.]

Art. 5399a. Board of Managers for the State Iron Industries near Rusk.—That a board of managers for said State properties be created, said board to consist of the Senator and Representative from the district in which said properties heretofore mentioned are situated together with a third members [member] to be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor of Texas, which board shall exercise full and plenary control and management of said properties. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 261, § 1.]

Art. 5399b. Transfer of property.—Immediately after the taking effect of this Act it shall be the duty of the Board of Prison Commissions of the State of Texas, upon demand of the Board of Managers of said State properties, to deliver to said Board of Managers the possession of said properties including all lands except such lands as the Board of Control of the State of Texas has heretofore or shall hereafter designate as suitable and necessary for the use of the East Texas Hospital for the Insane at Rusk, Texas, and the necessary conveyances shall be prepared by the Attorney General of the State of Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 261, § 2.]

Art. 5399c. Sale or lease of property.—The Board of Managers of said State properties is hereby authorized, upon approval of the Governor of the State of Texas, and given full authority to sell or lease any and all of said properties upon the best terms obtainable to any person, firm or corporation and to execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof deeds and leases to the same. Said Board of Managers is further authorized to collect any obligations which are now outstanding against said properties and to execute release therefor or to extend such obligations upon such terms as may appear to be to the best interests of the State. And all such contracts shall be prepared by the Attorney General and approved by the Governor of the State of Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 262, § 3.]

Art. 5399d. Reports to comptroller.—Said Board of Managers shall make reports to the Comptroller of all receipts, expenditures and disbursements, which report shall cover all funds from whatever source received by said board and shall be filed as soon as practicable after the receipt of such funds, said reports shall be accompanied by a remittance to the Comptroller of all moneys so received by said Board of Managers for the sale or lease of any of said property or from the collection of any outstanding indebtedness. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 262, § 4.]

Art. 5399e. Compensation.—Said Board of Managers shall serve without pay except such actual and necessary expenses incurred while in the performance of their duties as herein defined, and the sum of $5.00 per day for each day the board is actually engaged in the performance of said duties and said board is authorized and directed to deduct the amount of said expenses and per diem from any funds coming into its possession and to include said amount so deducted as part of the report hereinabove required to be made to the Comptroller of Public Accounts. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 262, § 5.]

Art. 5399f. Report to Legislature.—The said Board of Managers is hereby directed to make a report of all transactions in connection with the sale, lease or management of said properties to the Regular Session of the Fortieth Legislature. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 88, p. 262, § 6.]

Art. 5400. Surface rights.—The locator or owner of a mining claim shall have the right to occupy within the limits of his claim so much of the surface ground as is strictly necessary for the use and exploration of the mineral deposits and for the building and works necessary for mining operations and for the treating and smelting of the ore produced on such claims and to occupy within and without the limits of his claim the necessary land for right of way, for ingress and egress to and from his claim for roadways and railways. If the locator or owner cannot agree with the owner or lessee of the surface right in regard to the acquiring of same and in regard to the compensation for the injury incident to the opening and the working of such mine and the access thereto, he may apply to the county judge of the county in which such mining claim is located by filing a written petition so setting forth with a sufficient description the property and surface right sought to be taken and the purpose for which the same is to be taken. Such judge shall then appoint three disinterested freeholders to examine, pass upon and determine the damages and compensation to be paid to the owner of such surface right or other property necessary to be taken, and all proceedings thereunder shall be had in accordance with the law regulating the exercise of the right of eminent domain. Nothing herein shall give the prospector or locator any grazing right, or rights to any surface or well water in use for livestock, or to any timber rights either on or off the claim, to the detriment of the surface owner or lessee. [Id.]

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 5401. Payments.—All royalties and other payments under this chapter shall be paid to the State through the Commissioner at Austin. All royalty payments shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the owner or manager showing the number of tons mined, to whom sold, and the selling price, as shown by copies of smelter, mint, mill, refinery or other returns or documents attached to such statement. All books, accounts, weights, wage contracts, correspondence, and other papers in any way pertaining to any mine being operated hereunder shall be open to the inspection of the Commissioner, or his representative and any representative of the State appointed by the Governor or Attorney General.

Art. 5402. Sale of surface rights.—The issuance of an award, permit or lease on unsold land hereunder shall not prevent the sale of such land without minerals under the laws applicable to such land. In case of such sale after an application has been filed with the Commissioner, the purchaser of such land shall not be entitled to any part of the proceeds of such minerals or mining location nor other compensation, nor shall such purchaser have any action for damages done to such land by or resulting from the proper working of or operation under such award or prospector's location.

Art. 5403. Discovery: right of locator.—If any mineral or substance included in this chapter, other than those included in the permit or lease under which one is operating, be discovered while the area is being worked under such permit or lease, the owner thereof shall have a preference right for sixty days after such discovery in which to file on the area allowed one for such minerals or other substances by complying with the provisions of this law relating to the mineral or substances discovered.

5405.	Doubtful claim.
5406.	Church and schoolhouse sites.
5407.	Patents on surveys in two counties.
5408.	Conflicting surveys.
5409.	Conflicting title: cancellation.
5410.	Cancellation: partial conflict.
5411.	Purchase money refunded.
5412.	Order of issue.
5413.	Issuance and delivery.
5414.	Deceased patentee.

Article 5404. [5361] [4175] Requisites of patent.—Every patent for land emanating from the State shall be issued in the name and by authority of the State, under the seal of the State and of the land office, signed by the Governor and countersigned by the Commissioner; and before the delivery thereof to the party entitled thereto, it shall be registered in the land office patent book. [Acts 1846, p. 234; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1540.]

Art. 5405. [5363] [4177] Doubtful claim.—Should it appear to the Commissioner from the records of his office or from information on oath given him that there is some illegality in the claim, he shall, if he deems it necessary, refer the matter to the Attorney General, whose written decision shall be sufficient authority for him to issue or withhold the patent.

Art. 5406. [5448] Church and schoolhouse sites.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized to patent in quantities of not less than one nor more than five acres any of the vacant and unappropriated public domain of Texas, or any public school or asylum lands, as sites for cemeteries, churches or schoolhouses. When the land is desired as a location for a schoolhouse, the patent shall issue to the county judge of the proper county and his successors in office in trust for that purpose; and when desired for a church house or a cemetery, it shall be issued to trustees designated by those requesting the patent. If the land has been previously sold by the State and not patented, the owner thereof shall execute a deed therefor to the county judge, or trustees, as the case may be, and cause the same to be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the proper county, and be filed in the Land Office, and shall be entitled to credit on his account with the State for the value thereof. Such land shall be taken from the margin of a tract or section, or of a subdivision thereof, as the case may be. [Acts 1895, p. 68; G. L. vol. 10, p. 798.]

Art. 5407. [5365] [4179] Patents on surveys in two counties.—The Commissioner shall issue patents upon all surveys of land in two or more counties where no conflict between such surveys and others exist, and to which there is no other objection than that of a division in said surveys occasioned by a county boundary passing through them; provided, the field notes have been recorded in the office of the county surveyor of both counties. [Acts 1846, p. 188; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1494.]

Art. 5408. [5367] [4181] Conflicting surveys.—Where conflicts exist between surveys, the Commissioner shall issue patents to such portions of such surveys as are free from conflicts. [Id.]

Art. 5409. [5374] [4189] Conflicting title: cancellation.—Where a patent to land through mistake is issued upon any valid claim for land, which is afterwards found to be in conflict with any older title, it shall be competent for the owner of such patent, or of any part of the land embraced therein, and within such conflict, to return the same to the Commissioner for cancellation, or in case the owner of such land in conflict cannot obtain the patent, then he shall return instead thereof legal evidence of his title to such patent, or part thereof. In either case he shall make and file with said Commissioner an affidavit that he is still the owner of the same, and has not sold or transferred it. If it appears from the Land Office records or from a duly certified copy of a judgment of any court of competent jurisdiction before which the title to such land may have been adjudicated, that such conflict really exists, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to cancel the patent, or such part thereof as shall appear to belong to the party so applying.

Art. 5410. [5375] [4190] Cancellation: partial conflict.—In cases where there is only a partial conflict, the Commissioner may, under like circumstances and in like manner as provided in the preceding article, cancel any patent presented to him, and issue a patent to the applicant for such portion of the land covered by his patent as may not be in conflict with the older title, where from the field notes the same may be done. [P. D. 4302.]

Art. 5411. [5378-5404] Purchase money refunded.—Upon proper proof that money has been in good faith paid into the State Treasury upon lands for taxes, lease and purchase money, for which, on account of conflicts, erroneous surveys, or illegal sales, patents cannot legally issue, or upon lands on which patents have issued and afterwards are legally canceled, the Comptroller may issue his warrant in favor of the proper parties for the amounts so paid. Proof of such payments may be made upon the certificate of the Commissioner thereto when such facts are disclosed by the records of the Land Office. This article shall not apply to surveys, the errors in which may be corrected. [Acts 1883, p. 113; G. L. vol. 9, p. 419.]

Art. 5412. [5372] [4186] Order of issue.—The Commissioner shall patent surveys in the order in which they may be made ready for patenting, without regard to the order of filing in the Land Office or the order of application; but an application made for patent on any claim accompanied by the office fees therefor shall have preference over claims for which no application has been made; provided, such surveys have been regularly mapped, or there is sufficient evidence that no previous survey has been legally filed in the land office covering the same ground as represented on the maps of the office. [Acts 1861, p. 51; Acts 1879, p. 23, S. S.; G. L. vol. 5, p. 387.]

Art. 5413. [5376] [4191] Issuance and delivery.—The Commissioner shall issue patents when it appears from the books of his office that full payment for the land has been made where payment is required, and all legal fees due thereon have been paid into said office and not withdrawn, including the legal fees for the recording of said patent in the counties in which the land may be located. When one applies for a patent such person, shall, in addition to all other payments required by law, remit to the land office one dollar for each county in which the land may be wholly or partially located and give the name and address of the owner or agent. When the patent is ready for delivery the Commissioner shall send it by registered mail to the clerk of any such county with the receivers check for one dollar for each such county and accompany the same with the name and address of the owner or his agent. Upon receipt thereof the clerk shall record the patent and send the same by registered mail with such name and address and the remaining fees to the clerk of another proper county until the patent has been recorded in each such county, and thereupon the patent shall be delivered to the proper party by registered mail. [Acts 1891, p. 182; G. L. vol. 10, p. 184; Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 119.]

Art. 5414. [5371] [4185] Deceased patentee.—All patents issued in the names of persons deceased at the time of issuance shall convey and secure valid title to the heirs or assignee of such deceased persons. [Acts 1851, p. 21; P. D. 4228a; G. L. vol. 3, p. 899.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art.

- 5415. Public domain.
- 5416. School fund.
- 5417. University fund.
- 5418. Asylum fund.
- 5419. Unlawful inclosures.
- 5420. Adverse claimant: suit.
- 5421. Suits for minerals and timber.

Article 5415. [5279] [4036] Public domain.—To bring the provisions of law relating to the public domain together, the following extract is made from the joint resolutions of the Congress of the United States for annexing Texas to the United States, approved June 23, 1845: "Said State, when admitted into the Union, . . . shall also retain all the vacant and unappropriated lands lying within its limits, to be applied to the payment of debts and liabilities of said Republic of Texas, and the residue of said lands, after discharging said debts and liabilities, to be disposed of as said State may direct," etc.

Art. 5416. [5278-5385] School fund.—All lands heretofore set apart under the constitution and laws of Texas, and all of the unappropriated public domain remaining in this State of whatever character, and wheresoever located, including any lands hereafter recovered by the State, except that included in lakes, bays and islands along the Gulf of Mexico within tidewater limits, is set apart and granted to the permanent school fund of the State. All such lands heretofore or hereafter recovered from railway companies, firms, persons, or other corporations by the State, by suit or otherwise, and constituting a part of said school fund as herein provided, shall be disposed of as other school lands, except as otherwise provided by law. In all cases where said land, or any portion thereof, has been surveyed into tracts of six hundred and forty acres, more or less, and field notes thereof returned to and filed in the Land Office, the same is hereby declared a sufficient designation of said land; and the Commissioner shall dispose of the same by the survey and block numbers contained in said field notes. [Acts 1900, p. 29; Acts 1899, p. 123.]

Art. 5417. [5386] [4253] University fund.—After the payment of the amounts due from the State to the common free school fund out of the proceeds of the sales of that portion of the public lands set aside for the payment of the public debt by an Act approved July 14, 1879, and an Act amendatory thereof approved March 11, 1881, and the payment directed to be made to the common school and University funds by an Act approved February 23, 1883, the remainder of said land not to exceed two million acres, or the proceeds thereof, shall one-half thereof constitute a permanent endowment fund for the University of Texas and its branches, including the branch for the instruction of colored youths. [Acts 1883, p. 71; G. L. vol. 9, p. 377.]

Art. 5418. [5387] [4254] Asylum fund.—The four hundred thousand acres of land set apart for the lunatic asylum, the blind asylum, the asylum for the deaf and dumb, and an orphan asylum, in equal portions of one hundred thousand acres for each of said asylums, by the provisions of an act of the legislature entitled, "An Act setting aside and appropriating land for the benefit of asylums," approved August 30, 1856, is hereby recognized and set apart to provide a permanent fund for the support, maintenance and improvement of such asylums. [Const. art. 7; Acts 1856, p. 76; G. L. vol. 8, p. 494.]

Art. 5419. [5467] Unlawful inclosures.—If the Governor shall at any time be credibly informed that any portion of the public lands or the lands belonging to any of the several funds named in this title, have been inclosed or that fences have been erected thereon without authority of law, he is authorized in his discretion to direct the Attorney General to institute suit in the name of the State for the recovery of such lands and damages, and a fee of not less than ten dollars for the attorney when the sum recovered is less than one hundred dollars, and, when it is over that sum, the fee shall be ten per cent, to be paid by the defendant for the use and occupancy of the same, and the removal of such inclosure and fences; and such damages shall not be for a less sum than five cents per acre per annum during such occupancy. In suits provided for in this article the court shall issue a writ of sequestration directed to any sheriff of the State, commanding and requiring such officer to take into his actual custody such land and all property thereon belonging to the persons so unlawfully occupying said lands, and hold the same subject to further orders of the court. Such writ of sequestration may be executed by any sheriff into whose hands it may be delivered, and he shall proceed to execute such writ. The defendant in such suit may replevy as in ordinary cases by giving bond as prescribed by law; and such cases and all appeals therefrom shall have precedence over all other cases; and, if judgment is recovered by the State in such suit, the court shall order such inclosure or fences to be removed, and shall tax the costs of the suit against the defendant; and all property found upon the land belonging to the defendant, not exempt from execution; shall be liable to the payment of such costs and damages in addition to the personal liability of the defendant. [Acts 1895, p. 63, amended p. 75; G. L. vol. 10, pp. 793, 805.]

Art. 5420. [5468] Adverse claimant; suit.—When any public lands are held, occupied or claimed by any person, association or corporation adversely to the State, or to any fund, or when lands are forfeited to the State for any cause, the Attorney General shall institute suit therefor, together for rent thereon, and for any damages thereto. For the purposes of this and the preceding article, venue is fixed in Travis County, concurrently with the county of defendant's residence and the county where the land lies. [Acts 1900, p. 29.]

Art. 5421. [5469-70-71-72-73-74] Suits for minerals and timber.—The Commissioner and the county attorneys of the State shall report to the Attorney General semi-annually, or oftener if they desire, the name and residence of each person, firm, association of persons or corporation who has cut, used, destroyed, sold or otherwise appropriated any timber from any public lands or taken any minerals or other property of value therefrom, and such other data within their knowledge, and the county attorneys shall assist the Attorney General in whatever way he requests in relation thereto. The Attorney General shall bring suit for the value of such property in any county where the injury or a part thereof occurs, or in the county where the defendant resides, or he may, with the consent of the Governor, compromise and settle with or without suit any of the aforesaid liabilities. The Attorney General shall pay all sums so collected or received to the permanent funds to which they belong. Of all amounts recovered by suit, the Attorney General shall receive a fee of ten per cent, and the county attorney five per cent, and on amounts recovered by compromise, each shall receive one-half of such fees to be taxed against the defendant as costs. No county attorney shall receive compensation from cases not reported by him to the Attorney General. [Acts 1905, p. 38.]

TITLE 87

LEGISLATURE

Art.

- 5422. Time of meeting.
- 5423. Who may organize.
- 5424. Who shall preside.
- 5425. Duties of clerk.
- 5426. Credentials.
- 5427. If no quorum.
- 5428. Election of Speaker.
- 5429. Election of officers.

Article 5422. [5505] [3271] Time of meeting.—The Fortieth Legislature shall assemble to hold its biennial session on the second Tuesday in January, A. D. 1927, at 12 o'clock m., and shall meet biennially thereafter on the same day and hour until otherwise provided by law. [Const. art. 3, sec. 5.]

Art. 5423. [5506] [3272] Who may organize.—Those persons receiving certificates of election to the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legislature, and those Senators whose terms of office shall not have terminated, and none others, shall be competent to organize the Senate and House of Representatives. [Acts 1876, p. 311; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1147.]

Art. 5424. [5507-8-16] Who shall preside.—For the purpose of such organization the Secretary of State shall preside at each recurring session of the Legislature. Should there be no Secretary of State, or in case he be absent or unable to attend, the Attorney General shall attend and perform the duties prescribed. He shall attend at the time and place designated for the meeting of the Legislature, and shall appoint a clerk who shall have been chief clerk of the House the preceding session, if he be present, to take a minute of the proceedings.

Art. 5425. [5509-10-11] Duties of clerk.—The clerk, under the direction of the Secretary of State, shall:

1. Call all the counties in alphabetical order. Should returns of election in any county for members of the Legislature not be made to the office of Secretary of State, he shall nevertheless call such county.

2. When the counties are called and the members elect appear and present their credentials, administer to each the official oath.

Art. 5426. [5512] [3278] Credentials.—Any person appearing at said call and presenting the proper evidence of his election shall be admitted or qualified in the same manner as though the return of his election had been made to the office of Secretary of State. [P. D. 5438.]

Art. 5427. [5513] [3279] If no quorum.—If no quorum is in attendance on the day appointed for the meeting of the Legislature, the Secretary of State and clerk shall attend from day to day until a quorum shall appear and be qualified as above. [P. D. 5439.]

Art. 5428. [5514] [3280] Election of Speaker.—When a quorum has appeared and been qualified, the House shall proceed to the election of a Speaker, unless a majority of the members present shall decide to defer said election. [P. D. 5440.]

Art. 5429. [5515] [3281] Election of officers.—When an election for Speaker shall have been had, the Speaker elect shall immediately take the chair, and the House proceed to its further organization by electing the necessary officers, to whom the Speaker shall administer the official oath. [P. D. 5441.]

LIBEL

Art.

- 5430. Definitions.
- 5431. Mitigation of damages.
- 5432. Privileged matters.
- 5433. Construction.

Article 5430. [5595] Definitions.—A libel is a defamation expressed in printing or writing, or by signs and pictures, or drawings tending to blacken the memory of the dead, or tending to injure the reputation of one who is alive, and thereby expose him to public hatred, contempt or ridicule, or financial injury, or to impeach the honesty, integrity, or virtue, or reputation of any one, or to publish the natural defects of any one and thereby expose such person to public hatred, ridicule, or financial injury. [Acts 1901, p. 30.]

Art. 5431. [5596] Mitigation of damages.—In any action for libel, in determining the extent and source of actual damage and in mitigation of exemplary or punitive damage, the defendant may give in evidence, if specially pleaded, all material facts and circumstances surrounding such claim of damage and the defense thereto, and also all facts and circumstances under which the libelous publication was made, and any public apology, correction or retraction made and published by him of the libel complained of, and may also give in evidence, if specially pleaded in mitigation of exemplary or punitive damage, the intention with which the libelous publication was made. The truth of the statement, or statements, in such publication shall be a defense to such action. [Id.: Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 121, ch. 80, § 1.]

Art. 5432. [5597] Privileged matters.—The publication of the following matters by any newspaper or periodical shall be deemed privileged and shall not be made the basis of any action for libel.

1. A fair, true and impartial account of the proceedings in a court of justice, unless the court prohibits the publication of same when in the judgment of the court the ends of justice demand that the same should not be published and the court so orders, or any other official proceedings authorized by law in the administration of the law.

2. A fair, true and impartial account of all executive and legislative proceedings, including all reports of and proceedings in or before legislative committees and before each and all such committees heretofore appointed by the Legislature or either branch of the Legislature or hereafter to be appointed by such bodies or either of them and of any debate or statement in or before the Legislature or either branch thereof or any of its committees, and including also all reports of and proceedings in or before the managing boards of educational and eleemosynary institutions supported from the public revenue, of city councils or other governing bodies of cities or towns, of the commissioners' court of any county, and of the board of trustees of the public schools of any district, city or county, and of any debate or statement in or before any such body.

3. A fair, true and impartial account of the proceedings of public meetings, dealing with public purposes, including a fair, true and impartial account of statements and discussion in such meetings, and of other matters of public concern, transpiring and uttered at such public meetings.

4. A reasonable and fair comment or criticism of the official acts of public officials and of other matters of public concern published for general information.

5. The privilege provided under Sections 1, 2, 3, and 4, of this article shall extend to any first publication of such privileged matter by any newspaper or periodical, and to subsequent publications thereof by it when published as a matter of public concern for general information; but any re-publication of such privileged matter, after the same has ceased to be a matter of such public concern, shall not be deemed privileged, and may be made the basis of an action for libel upon proof that such matter had ceased to be of such public concern and that same was published with actual malice. [Id.; Acts 1919, p. 34; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 121, ch. 80, § 2.]

Art. 5433. [5598] Construction.—Nothing in this title shall be construed to amend or repeal any penal law on the subject of libel, nor to take away any now or at any time heretofore existing defense to a civil action for libel, either at common law or otherwise, but all such defenses are hereby expressly preserved. [Id. Acts 1917, p. 474.]

TITLE 89

LIBRARY AND HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Art.

- 5434. Organization.
- 5435. Purpose.
- 5436. Powers and duties.
- 5437. Seal.
- 5438. Custody of records.
- 5438a. Historical relics.
- 5438b. Title to relics.
- 5438c. Removal of relics.
- 5439. Exchange of records.
- 5440. State Librarian.
- 5441. Duties of Librarian.
- 5442. Distribution of publications.
- 5443. Sale of archives.
- 5444. Legislative reference section.
- 5445. Assistants.
- 5446. Report to Governor.

Article 5434. [5600-5601] Organization.—The Governor shall, by, and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint five persons who shall constitute the Texas Library and Historical Commission. Appointments shall be made for a term of six years, the classification to continue as constituted by law. The Commission shall be assigned suitable offices at the capitol where they shall hold at least one regular meeting annually, and as many special meetings as may be necessary. Each such member while in attendance at said meetings shall receive five dollars per day and the actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings. [Acts 1909, p. 122; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5435. [5599] Purpose.—The Commission shall control and administer the State Library, adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations governing its administration and control, aid and encourage libraries, collect materials relating to the history of Texas and the adjoining states, preserve, classify and publish the manuscript archives and such other matters as it may deem proper, diffuse knowledge in regard to the history of Texas, encourage historical work and research, mark historic sites and houses and secure their preservation, and aid those who are studying the problems to be dealt with by legislation. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5436. [5602-3] Powers and duties.—The Commission is authorized and empowered to purchase within the limits of the annual appropriation allowed by Act of the Legislature from time to time, suitable books, pictures, etc., the same to be the property of the State. The Commission shall have power and authority to receive donations or gifts of money or property upon such terms and conditions as it may deem proper; provided, no financial liability is thereby entailed upon the State. It shall give advice to such persons as contemplate the establishment of public libraries, in regard to such matters as the maintenance of public libraries, selection of books, cataloging and library management. The Commission shall conduct library institutes and encourage library associations. [Id.; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5437. Seal.—The style of the Library governed by the Commission shall be "Texas State Library." A circular seal of not less than one and one-half inches, and not more than two inches in diameter, bearing a star of five points, surrounded by two concentric circles, between which are printed the words, "Texas State Library," is hereby designated the official seal of said Library. Said seal shall be used in authentication of the official acts of the State Library. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5438. [5604-5] Custody of records.—The custody and control of books, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementos, flags, works of art, etc., and the duty of collecting and preserving historical data, is under the control of the Commission. The gallery of the portraits of the Presidents of the Republic and the Governors of this State constitutes a part of the State Library. All books, pictures, documents, publications and manuscripts, received through gift, purchase or exchange, or on deposit, from any source, for the use of the State, shall constitute a part of the State Library, and shall be placed therein for the use of the public. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5438a. Historical relics.—The Texas Library and Historical Commission is hereby authorized in their discretion to place temporarily in the custody of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas and the United Daughters of the Confederacy, Texas Division, all or part of the historical relics belonging to the Texas State Library, under such conditions and terms of agreement as will insure the safekeeping of these relics in the Texas Museum. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 146, p. 354, § 1.]

Art. 5438b. Title to relics.—The title of the State to these relics shall not be affected by this transfer. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 146, p. 354, § 2.]

Art. 5438c. Removal of relics.—The Texas Library and Historical Commission shall retain the right to remove these relics at any time they may see fit. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 146, p. 354, § 3.]

Art. 5439. [5606] Exchange of records.—Any State, county or other official is hereby authorized in his discretion to turn over to the State Library for permanent preservation therein any official books, records, documents, original papers, maps, charts, newspaper files and printed books not in current use in his office, and the State Librarian shall receipt for the same. [Acts 1909, p. 122; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 152.]

Art. 5440. State Librarian.—The Commission shall elect a State Librarian, not of their number, who shall be a man or woman of at least one year's training in a library school and at least three years' administrative experience as head of a free public or institutional library, or as an assistant of high rank in such library. Said Librarian shall serve at the will of the Commission, and shall give bond in the sum of five thousand dollars for the proper care of the State Library and its equipment. He shall be allowed his actual expenses when traveling in the service of the Commission, on his sworn account showing such expenses in detail. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5441. [5606] Duties of Librarian.—The duties of the State Librarian, acting under the direction of said Commission, shall be as follows:

1. He shall record the proceedings of the Commission, keep an accurate account of its financial transactions, and perform such other duties as said Commission may assign him; and he shall be authorized to approve the vouchers for all expenditures made in connection with the State Library.

2. He shall have charge of the State Library and all books, pictures, documents, newspapers, manuscripts, archives, relics, mementos, flags, etc., therein contained.

3. He shall endeavor to collect all manuscript records relating to the history of Texas in the hands of private individuals, and where the originals cannot be obtained he shall endeavor to procure authenticated copies. He shall be authorized to expend the money appropriated for the purchase of books relating to Texas, and he shall seek diligently to procure a copy of every book, pamphlet, map or other printed matter giving valuable information concerning this State. He shall collect portraits or photographs of as many of the prominent men of Texas as possible. He shall endeavor to complete the files of the early Texas newspapers in the State Library; and he shall cause to be bound the current files of not less than ten of the leading newspapers of the State and the current files of not less than four leading newspapers of other states, and of as many county papers, professional journals, denominational papers, agricultural papers, trade journals and other publications of this State as seem necessary to preserve in the State Library an accurate record of the history of Texas.

4. He shall demand and receive from the officers of State departments having them in charge, all books, maps, papers, manuscripts, documents, memoranda and data not connected with or necessary to the current duties of said officers, relating to the history of Texas, and carefully classify, catalogue and preserve the same. The Attorney General shall decide as to the proper custody of such books, etc., whenever there is any disagreement as to the same.

5. He shall endeavor to procure from Mexico the original archives which have been removed from Texas and relate to the history and settlement thereof, and if he cannot procure the originals, he shall endeavor to procure authentic copies thereof. In like manner he shall procure the originals or authentic copies of manuscripts preserved in other archives beyond the limits of this State, in so far as said manuscripts relate to the history of Texas.

6. He shall preserve all historical relics, mementos, antiquities and works of art connected with and relating to the history of Texas, which may in any way come into his possession as State Librarian. He shall constantly endeavor to build up an historical museum worthy of the interesting and important history of this State.

7. He shall give careful attention to the proper classification, indexing and preserving of the official archives that are now or may hereafter come into his custody.

8. He shall make a biennial report to the Commission, to be by it transmitted to the Governor, to be accompanied by such historical papers and documents as he may deem of sufficient importance.

9. He shall ascertain the condition of all public libraries in this State and report the results to the Commission. He is authorized in his discretion to withhold from libraries refusing or neglecting to furnish their annual reports or such other information as he may request, public documents furnished the Commission for distribution, or interlibrary loans desired by such libraries. [Id.; Acts 1909, p. 122.]

Art. 5442. Distribution of publications.—On the requisition of the State Librarian therefor, the Board of Control shall cause to be printed and furnished to the State Library for distribution and exchange the following publications, or such additional number as said Librarian shall request: 150 copies of all annual, biennial and special reports of State departments, boards and institutions, findings of all investigations, bulletins, circulars, laws issued as separates, and legislative manuals, 75 copies of all daily legislative journals, bound journals, bills, resolutions, session laws and compiled statutes, and 150 copies of all other publications, except routine business forms and court reports. All such printed (daily legislative journals, bills, resolutions and other legislative documents shall be delivered daily to the State Library, and at the close of each legislative session all daily journals, bills and resolutions in the hands of the sergeant-at-arms of the House and Senate shall be delivered to the State Library to be disposed of at the discretion of the Librarian. No accounts for such printing shall be approved and no warrants shall be issued therefor, until the Board of Control is furnished by the contract printer with the receipt of the Librarian for such publications. [Acts 1913, p. 281; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 154.]

Art. 5443. Sale of archives.—The Commission is authorized to sell copies of the Texas Archives, printed with funds appropriated for that purpose, at a price not to exceed twenty-five per cent above the cost of publishing, and all moneys received from such sale shall be paid into the State Treasury. One copy of each such volume may be distributed free to the Governor, the members of the Legislature, and to the libraries, indicated in the preceding article. [Acts 1913, p. 281.]

Art. 5444. [5608] Legislative reference section.—The Commission shall maintain for the use and information of the members of the Legislature, the heads of the several State departments, and such other citizens as may desire to consult the same, a section of the State Library for legislative reference and information. This section shall possess available for use, explanatory check lists and catalogues of the current legislation of this and other states, catalogues of the bills and resolutions presented in either branch of the Legislature, check lists of the public documents of the several states, including all reports issued by the various departments, boards and commissions of this State, and digests of such public laws of this and other states as may best be made available for legislative use. Such section shall give the members of the Legislature such aid and assistance in the drafting of bills and resolutions as may be asked. [Acts 1909, p. 122; Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 155.]

Art. 5445. Assistants.—The Commission shall appoint an assistant librarian who shall rank as head of a department and who in the absence of the State Librarian may sign and certify accounts and documents in the same manner and with the same legal authority as the State Librarian. Said assistant shall give bond to the Governor in the sum of three thousand dollars and shall take the official oath. Other assistants in the State Library shall be appointed by the Commission and be divided into four grades: Heads of departments, library assistants, clerks and laborers. Heads of departments and library assistants shall be required to have technical library training; and heads of departments shall have had at least one year of experience in library work prior to appointment. Clerks shall be required to hold a diploma from a first class high school according to the standards of the State Board of Education or the University of Texas, or to present satisfactory evidence of educational training equal to that provided by such high school, and also to present satisfactory evidence of proficiency in stenography and typewriting or book-keeping. Laborers must present satisfactory evidence of education sufficient to do such elementary clerical work as shall be required of them. The archivist must present satisfactory evidence of one year's advanced work in American or Southwestern history in a standard college and of a fluent reading knowledge of Spanish and French; provided, that the archivist shall not be required to have technical library school training or any library experience. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 151.]

Art. 5446. [5609] Report to Governor.—The Commission shall make a biennial report to the Governor, which shall include the biennial report of the State Librarian. Said report shall present a comprehensive view of the operation of the Commission in the discharge of the duties imposed by this title, shall present a review of the library conditions in this State, present an itemized statement of the expenditures of the Commission, make such recommendations as their experience shall suggest, and present careful estimates of the sums of money necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of this title. Said report shall be made and printed, and by the Governor laid before the Legislature as other departmental reports. [Acts 1909, p. 122.]

TITLE 90

LIENS

Chap.

1. Judgment liens.
2. Mechanics, contractors and material men.
3. Oil and mineral property.
4. Liens of railroad laborers.
5. Farm, factory and store operatives.
6. Chattel mortgages.
7. Other liens.

CHAPTER ONE

JUDGMENT LIENS

Art.

5447. Abstracts of judgments.
5448. Recording judgments.
5449. Lien of judgment.
5450. Satisfaction of judgment.
5451. Federal court judgments.

Article 5447. [5611-2-3] Abstracts of judgments.—Each clerk of a court, when the person in whose favor a judgment was rendered, his agent, attorney or assignee, applies therefor, shall make out, certify under his hand and official seal, and deliver to such applicant upon the payment of the fee allowed by law, an abstract of such judgment showing:

1. The names of the plaintiff and of the defendant in such judgment.
2. The number of the suit in which the judgment was rendered.
3. The date when such judgment was rendered.
4. The amount for which the judgment was rendered and balance due thereon.
5. The rate of interest specified in the judgment.

Each justice of the peace shall also make and deliver an abstract of any judgment rendered in his court in the manner herein provided, certified under his hand.

Art. 5448. [5610-4-5-9] Recording judgments.—Each county clerk shall keep a well bound book called the "judgment record," and he shall immediately file and therein record all properly authenticated abstracts of judgment when presented to him for record, noting therein the day and hour of such record. He shall at the same time enter it upon the alphabetical index to such judgment record, showing the name of each plaintiff and of each defendant in the judgment, and the number of the page of the book upon which the abstract is recorded. He shall leave a space at the foot of each such abstract for the entry of credits upon and satisfaction of such judgment, and shall enter the same when properly shown.

Art. 5449. [5516-7] Lien of judgment.—When any judgment has been so recorded and indexed, it shall from the date of such record and index operate as a lien upon all of the real estate of the defendant situated in the county where such record and index are made, and upon all real estate which the defendant may thereafter acquire situated in said county. Said lien shall continue for ten years from the date of such record and index; but if the plaintiff fails to have execution issued upon his judgment within twelve months after the rendition thereof, said lien shall cease to exist.

Art. 5450. [5618] Satisfaction of judgment.—Satisfaction of any judgment in whole or in part may be shown:

1. By return upon an execution issued upon said judgment, or by a certified copy of such return, certified by the officer to whom the return is made, such certificate showing the names of the parties to the judgment, the number and style of the suit, the court in which rendered, the date and amount of the judgment, and the dates of the issuance and return of the execution.

2. By a receipt, acknowledgment or release signed by the party entitled to receive payment of the judgment, or his agent, or attorney of record, and acknowledged or proven for record as required for deeds.

Art. 5451. [5620] [3293] Federal court judgments.—An abstract of a judgment rendered in this State by any United States Court may be recorded and indexed in the same manner and with like force and effect as provided for judgments of the Courts of this State, upon the certificates of the clerks of such United States courts.

CHAPTER TWO

MECHANICS, CONTRACTORS AND MATERIAL MEN

Art.

5452. Lien prescribed.
5453. Securing lien.
5454. Owner to furnish contractor with account.
5455. Form of claim on unwritten contract.
5456. Form when the debtor is not the owner.
5457. Description of property.
5458. What included on property in city and country.
5459. Priority of lien.
5460. Lien on homestead.
5461. Notice of sub-contractor or laborer to owner of property.
5462. Diligence, what is sufficient.
5463. Contractor to defend suits.
5464. Preference lien.
5465. Copy of bill furnished to owner.
5466. Relinquishment entered.
5467. Accrual of indebtedness.
5468. Equality of liens.
5469. Mechanic's fund.
5470. Release.
5471. Separate sales.
5472. Requisite of sale.
- 5472a. Lien for material furnished public contractor.
- 5472b. Retention of funds.

Article 5452. [5621] [3294] Lien prescribed.—Any person or firm, lumber dealer or corporation, artisan, laborer, mechanic or sub-contractor who may labor or furnish material, machinery, fixtures or tools; (a) to erect or repair any house, building or improvement whatever; (b) for the construction or repair of levees or embankments to be erected for the reclamation of overflow lands along any river or creek in this State; (c) or who may furnish any material for the construction or repair of any railroad within this State under or by virtue of a contract with the owner, owners, or his or their agent, trustee, receiver, contractor or contractors; upon complying with the provisions of this chapter shall have a lien on such house, building, fixtures, improvements, land reclaimed from overflow, or railroad, and all of its properties, and shall have a lien on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith, or reclaimed thereby, to secure payment for the labor done, lumber, material, machinery or fixtures and tools furnished for construction or repair. The word "improvement" as used herein shall be construed so as to include clearing, grubbing, draining or fencing of land, and shall include wells, cisterns, tanks, reservoirs or artificial lakes or pools made for supplying or storing water and all pumps, siphons, and wind mills or other machinery or apparatus used for raising water for stock, domestic use or for irrigation purposes. [Acts 1895, p. 194; Acts 1913, p. 252; Acts 1917, p. 383; G. L. vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5453. [5622-3] Securing lien.—The lien provided for in Article 5452 may be fixed and secured in the following manner:

1. Every original contractor, within four months, and every journeyman, day laborer, or other person, within thirty days after the indebtedness accrues, shall file his contract in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property is situated to be recorded in a book kept by the county clerk for that purpose.
2. If a journeyman, day laborer or other person has no written contract, it shall be sufficient to file an itemized account of the claim supported by affidavit showing that the account is just and correct and that all just and lawful offsets, payment and credits known to affiant have been allowed.

3. Within ninety days after such indebtedness accrues, each person, firm or corporation who furnished material to or performed labor for a contractor or subcontractor to construct or repair a house, building, improvement or railroad or its properties, shall give written notice to the owner of such house, building or improvement, or to his agent, or to such railroad company or its agent or receiver of each and every item furnished and showing how much there is due and unpaid on each bill of lumber or material furnished or labor performed by such person, firm or corporation, and shall file with the county clerk of the county in which such property is located or through or into which such railroad may extend, an itemized account of his or their claim to be recorded by such clerk in a book kept for that purpose.

Art. 5454. [5634] [3307] Owner to furnish contractor with account.—Whenever any such account shall be placed in the hands of such owner, or his authorized agent, it shall be the duty of such owner, or his agent, to furnish his contractor with a true copy of said attested account; and, if said contractor shall not, within ten days after the receipt of said copy of attested account, give the owner written notice that he intends to dispute said claim, he shall be considered as assenting to the demand, which shall be paid by the owner when it becomes due.

Art. 5455. [5624] [3297] Form of claim on unwritten contract.—If there be no written contract in cases where the labor is performed for or the material is furnished to the owner of the building or improvements, or the owner or receiver of a railroad, the following form or the substance thereof may be used for filing the claimant's account, and will be sufficient to fix the meaning contemplated by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of _____,

A. B., affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed (or material furnished) for C. D. of _____ County, Texas, and that the prices thereof as set forth in said account hereto annexed are just and reasonable, and the same is unpaid; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for said C. D. at the time in said account mentioned, under and by virtue of a contract between affiant (or affiant's principal) and C. D. and that due notice was given by affiant (or his principal) of the labor performed (or material furnished) in accordance with law; and affiant further makes oath and says that he is informed that C. D. was at the time said contract was made and entered into and said labor was performed (or material furnished) the owner of the house (or improvements) described as follows: (Here describe the house or improvements). And the said house (or improvements) is situated upon a certain lot or tract of land which affiant is informed is owned by said C. D. and which is described as follows: (Here describe the lot or lots or the land). And this affiant (or his principal) claims a lien upon said house or improvements and upon said land. (Or if the material was furnished to any railroad company, its agent or receiver, to construct or repair its railroad or other property, then the affiant shall describe said railroad by giving its charter name and the name of the receiver, if any, and the agent of said company, if any, with whom the contract was made, and that affiant or his principal claims a lien on said railroad and its property.) [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1895, p. 194; G. L. vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5456. [5625] [3298] Form when the debtor is not the owner.—If the labor is performed for, or the material is furnished to a contractor, builder, agent or receiver, and not the owner of the property, then the following form shall be deemed sufficient to fix the lien provided for by this chapter:

The State of Texas,

County of _____,

A. B., affiant, makes oath and says that the annexed is a true and correct account of the labor performed for (or the material furnished to) C. D., a contractor (builder, agent, or receiver) by affiant (or his principal) and the prices therefor as set forth in the annexed account are just and reasonable, and that the same is unpaid (or the sum of $_____, as shown by said account, is unpaid) after allowing all just and lawful offsets, payments and credits known to affiant; that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) for (or to) said C. D. to be used in the erection of a house (or building or improvements, or in the repair of the house, building or improvement, or in the construction or improvement of the railroad or its property), owned, as affiant is informed and believes, by E. F., of _____ County, Texas, and that said labor was performed (or material furnished, or both) to (or for) said C. D. under and by virtue of his contract between affiant (or his principal) and said C. D. (And in case of material furnished, affiant shall further swear that he has given to the owner, his agent or representative or receiver, notice in writing of each item of said account as required in this chapter as the same was furnished to said C. D.) [Id.]

Art. 5457. [5626-7] [3299-3300] Description of property.—In case the contract is filed and recorded as provided for in Section 1 and 2 of Article 5453, a like description of the house, building or improvement, and the lot or tract of land, shall accompany the same, as is required in the foregoing forms, except that the same is not required to be under oath. When a contract or account is filed and recorded, it shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure this lien. [Acts 1889, p. 110.]

Art. 5458. [5627] [3300] What included on property in city and country.—If this lien is against land in a city, town or village, it shall extend to or into the lot or lots upon which such house, building or improvement is situated, or upon which such labor was performed; and if the lien is against land in the country, it shall extend to and include fifty acres upon which such house, building or improvements are situated, or upon which such labor has been performed; and, if the lien is against a railroad company, it shall extend to and include all of its property. [Acts 1889, p. 110; Acts 1895, p. 194.]

Art. 5459. [5628] [3301] Priority of lien.—The lien herein provided for shall attach to the house, building, improvements or railroad for which they were furnished or the work was done, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land upon which the houses, buildings or improvements, or railroad have been put, or labor performed, and the person enforcing the same may have such house, building or improvement, or any piece of the railroad property, sold separately; provided, any lien, encumbrance or mortgage on the land or improvement at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and holders of such liens need not be made parties in suits to foreclose liens herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 5460. [5631] [3304] Lien on homestead.—When material is furnished, labor performed, or improvements as defined in this title are made, or when erections or repairs are made upon homesteads, if the owner thereof is a married man, then to fix and secure the lien upon the same it shall be necessary for the person or persons who furnish the material or perform the labor, before such material is furnished or such labor is performed, to make and enter into a contract in writing, setting forth the terms thereof, which shall be signed by the owner and his wife, and privily acknowledged by her, as is required in making sale of homestead. And such contract shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk in the county where such homestead is situated, in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose. When such contract has been made and entered into by the husband and wife and the contractor or builder, and the same has been recorded, as heretofore provided, then the same shall inure to the benefit of any and all persons who shall furnish material or labor thereon for such contractor or builder. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1917, p. 383.]

Art. 5461. [5632] [3305] Notice of sub-contractor or laborer to owner of property.—Every person, except the original contractor or builder, or those claiming under Section 3 of Article 5453 who may wish to avail himself, of the benefits of this law, shall give at least ten days' notice in writing before the filing of the lien, as herein required, to the owner or owners or agent, that he holds a claim against such house, building or improvement, setting forth the amount, and from whom the same is due; and thereafter said owner, or owners, or agent, shall be authorized to retain in his hands the amount claimed until the same is settled or determined not to be owing. [Acts 1889, p. 110.]

Art. 5462. [5633] [3306] Diligence, what is sufficient.—A compliance with the provisions of the preceding article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix the liability of the owner of such house, building or improvement for the payment of such demand, subject to the subsequent provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5463. [5635] [3308] Contractor to defend suits.—When a lien is filed under a provision of this chapter by any person other than the original contractor or builder, the original contractor shall defend the action brought thereupon, at his own expense; and, the owner may detain the amount of money for which such lien is filed and in case of judgment against the owner or his property upon the lien, he shall be entitled to deduct from the amount due the contractor the amount of said judgment and costs; and if he shall have settled with the contractor or builder in full, he shall be entitled to recover from the contractor or builder any amount so paid for which the contractor or builder was originally liable. But the owner shall in no case be required to pay, nor his property be liable for, any money that he may have paid to the contractor before the fixing of the lien or before he has received written notice of the existence of the debt. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5464. [5635] [3308] Preference lien.—All sub-contractors, laborers and material men shall have preference over other creditors of the principal contractor or builder. [Id.]

Art. 5465. [5635] [3308] Copy of bill furnished to owner.—A copy of each bill of lumber furnished to the contractor or builder as the same is furnished shall be delivered to the owner of said homestead, said bill specifying each item so furnished, how much is paid thereon, and what is due for lumber or material furnished for said contract prior thereto. [Id.]

Art. 5466. [5635] [3308] Relinquishment entered.—When the debt is paid under the contract for such building or improvements, the party for whose interest the contract was recorded shall enter a relinquishment showing a full compliance of said contract to the extent of all money due them from the original contractor or builder on account of labor done or material furnished; and the money due said original contractor or builder from the person owning or having improvements made shall not be garnished by other creditors to the prejudice of such sub-contractors, mechanics, laborers or material men. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5467. [5636] [3309] Accrual of indebtedness.—When labor is performed by the day or week, then the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the end of each week during which labor is performed. When material is furnished, the indebtedness shall be deemed to have accrued at the date of the last delivery of such material, unless there is an agreement to pay for such material at a specified time. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5468. [5637] [3310] Equality of liens.—Except as provided in the succeeding article, the liens for work and labor done or material furnished, as provided in this chapter, shall be upon an equal footing without reference to date or filing the account or lien. In case of foreclosure, if the proceeds of the sale of any property described in any account or lien are insufficient to discharge all the liens against the same, such proceeds shall be paid pro rata on the respective liens; provided, such accounts or liens shall have been filed and suit brought as provided by this law. Nothing in this law shall in any manner affect the contract between the owner and original contractor as to the amount, manner or time of payment of said contract price. [Id.]

Art. 5469. [5638] Mechanic's fund.—Whenever any mechanic or artisan shall perform any labor or service for any contractor, sub-contractor, agent or receiver, in the erection or repair of any house, building, fixture or improvement, or as a necessary incident in connection with such work of construction or repair, such owner, or agent or receiver shall retain in his hands during the progress of such work and for thirty days after the completion thereof, to secure the payment of said artisans and mechanics, ten per cent of the contract price of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, or ten per cent of the value of such building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, measured by the proportion that the work done bears to the work to be done thereon, and using the contract price or the reasonable value of the completed building, fixture or improvement, or the repair thereof, as a basis of computation of value. All mechanics or artisans who may file a mechanic's lien upon said building, fixture or improvement so made or erected or repaired in accordance with the law applying thereto, shall have ratably among themselves, a preference lien upon said fund so retained in the hands of such owner, or agent, or receiver. If such owner, receiver or agent refuses or fails to comply with the provisions of this law, the mechanics and artisans performing work thereon and in connection therewith, who may file liens thereon in accordance with law, shall have ratably among themselves preference liens, to be preferred above all other liens and claims whatsoever upon such house, building, structure, fixture, or improvement, and all its properties, and on the lot or lots of land necessarily connected therewith to secure payment for such labor thereon. [Acts 1909, p. 184.]

Art. 5470. [5639] [3311] Release.—All parties who are authorized under this law to file a lien, and have done so, and had such lien recorded, shall, when such lien is paid or satisfied, or have received their proper lienable parts for which the owner of the building would be liable under this law, shall record a relinquishment and satisfaction of such lien. [Acts 1876, p. 91; G. L. vol. 8, p. 927; Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5471. [5629] [3302] Separate sales.—When the house, building, improvement, or any piece of the railroad's property is sold separately, the officer making the sale shall place the purchaser in possession thereof; and such purchaser shall have the right to remove the same within a reasonable time from the date of purchase. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138; Acts 1895, p. 194; G. L. vol. 10, p. 924.]

Art. 5472. [5630] [3303] Requisites of sale.—Every sale must be upon judgment rendered by some court of competent jurisdiction foreclosing such lien and ordering sale of such property. [Acts 1889, p. 110; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1138.]

Art. 5472a. Lien for material furnished public contractor.—That any person, firm or corporation, or trust estate, furnishing any material, apparatus, fixtures, machinery or labor to any contractor for any public improvements in this State, shall have a lien on the moneys, or bonds, or warrants, due or to become due to such contractors for such improvements; provided, such person, firm, corporation, or stock association, shall, before any payment is made to such contractor, notify in writing the officials of the State, county, town or municipality whose duty it is to pay such contractor of his claim. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 17, p. 44, § 1.]

Art. 5472b. Retention of funds.—That no public official, when so notified in writing, shall pay all of said moneys, bonds or warrants, due said contractor, but shall retain enough of said moneys, bonds or warrants to pay said claim, in case it is established by judgment in a court of proper jurisdiction. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 17, p. 44, § 2.]

CHAPTER THREE

OIL AND MINERAL PROPERTY

Art.

- 5473. Contractor's lien.
- 5474. Sub-contractor's lien.
- 5475. Priority of lien.
- 5476. Proceedings to fix lien.
- 5477. Sale or removal of property.
- 5478. Extent of liability of owner.
- 5479. Remedy cumulative.

Article 5473. Contractor's lien.—Any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership, materialman, artisan, laborer or mechanic, who shall, under contract, express or implied, with the owner of any land, mine or quarry, or the owner of any gas, oil or mineral leasehold interest in land, or the owner of any gas pipe line or oil pipe line, or owner of any oil or gas pipe line right of way, or with the trustee, agent or receiver of any such owner, perform labor or furnish material, machinery or supplies, used in digging, drilling, torpedoing, operating, completing, maintaining or repairing any such oil or gas well, water well, mine or quarry, or oil or gas pipe line, shall have a lien on the whole of such land or leasehold interest therein, or oil pipe line or gas pipe line, including the right of way for same, or lease for oil and gas purposes, the buildings and appurtenances, and upon the materials and supplies so furnished, and upon said oil well, gas well, water well, oil or gas pipe line, mine or quarry for which the same are furnished, and upon all of the other oil wells, gas wells, buildings and appurtenances, including pipe line, leasehold interest, and land used in operating for oil, gas and other minerals, upon such leasehold or land or pipe line and the right of way therefor, for which said material and supplies were furnished or labor performed. Provided, that if labor, supplies, machinery, or material is furnished to a leaseholder, the lien hereby created shall not attach to the underlying fee title to the land. [Acts 1917, p. 28.]

Art. 5474. Sub-contractor's lien.—Any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership or materialman who shall furnish such machinery, material or supplies to a contractor or sub-contractor or any person who shall perform such labor under a sub-contract with a contractor, or who as an artisan or day laborer in the employ of such contractor or sub-contractor shall perform any such labor, shall have a lien upon all such property or interest described in the preceding article, including right of way, for which said material and supplies were furnished and labor performed, in the same manner and to the same extent as the original contractor, for the amount due him for material furnished or labor performed. [Id.]

Art. 5475. Priority of lien.—The lien herein provided for shall attach to the machinery, material, supplies and the specific improvements made, in preference to any prior lien or encumbrance or mortgage upon the land or leasehold interest upon which the said machinery, material, supplies or specific improvements are placed or located, provided, however, that any lien, encumbrance, or mortgage upon the land or leasehold interest at the time of the inception of the lien herein provided for shall not be affected thereby, and the holders of such liens upon such land or leasehold interest shall not be necessary parties in suits to foreclose the liens hereby created. [Id.]

Art. 5476. Proceedings to fix lien.—The liens herein created shall be fixed and secured and notice thereof shall be given and such liens shall attach and be enforced in the same manner, and the material-man's statement, or the lien of any laborer herein mentioned shall be filed and recorded within the same time and in the same manner as provided for in the preceding chapter. Whenever any person shall remove any such property to a county other than the one in which the lien has been filed, the lien holder may within ninety days thereafter file an itemized inventory of the property so removed showing the amount due and unpaid thereon, with the clerk of the county to which it has been removed, which shall be recorded in the materialman's lien records of such county, and such filing shall operate as notice of the existence of the lien and the lien shall attach and extend to the land or leasehold and other premises, properties and appurtenances to which said properties so removed shall attach, of the kind and character enumerated in Article 5473. [Id.]

Art. 5477. Sale or removal of property.—When the lien herein provided for shall have attached to the property covered thereby, neither the owner of the land, nor the owner of said oil, gas or mineral leasehold interest therein, nor the owner of any gas or oil pipe line, nor the contractor, nor the sub-contractor, nor the purchaser, nor the trustee, receiver or agent, of any such owner, lessor, lessee, contractor, sub-contractor or purchaser shall either sell or remove the property subject to said lien or cause same to be removed from the land or premises upon which they were to be used, or otherwise sell or dispose of the same, without the written consent of the holder of the lien hereby created; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this article, the said lienholder shall be entitled to the possession of the property upon which said lien exists wherever found, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether said debt has become due or not. [Id.]

Art. 5478. Extent of liability of owner.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to fix a greater liability against the owner of the land or leasehold interest therein than the price or sum stipulated to be paid in the contract under which such material is furnished, or labor performed. [Id.]

Art. 5479. Remedy cumulative.—The provisions of this law shall not be construed to deprive or abridge materialmen, artisans, laborers, or mechanics of any rights and remedies now given them by law, and the provisions of this law shall be cumulative of the present lien laws. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

LIENS OF RAILROAD LABORERS

Art.

- 5480. Lien prescribed.
- 5481. Enforcement.
- 5482. Venue.

Article 5480. [5640-43] Lien prescribed.—All mechanics, laborers and operatives who may have performed labor, or worked with tools, teams or otherwise, in the construction, operation or repair of any railroad locomotive, car or other equipment of a railroad, and to whom wages are due or owing for such work, or for the work of tools or teams thus employed, or for work otherwise performed, shall have a lien prior to all others upon such railroad and its equipments for the amount due them for personal services, or for the use of tools or teams. Such lien shall cease to be operative in twelve months after its creation, if no steps are sooner taken to enforce it. [Acts 1887, p. 17; G. L. vol. 9, p. 815.]

Art. 5481. [5641] [3313] Enforcement.—In all suits for wages due by a railroad company for such labor, upon proof being satisfactorily made that such labor had been performed, either at the instance of said company, a contractor, or subcontractor or agent of said company, and that such wages are due, and the lien given by the preceding article is sought to be enforced, the court having jurisdiction shall try the same, render judgment for the amount of wages found to be due, and adjudge and order said railroad and equipments, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy said judgment. In all suits of this kind, it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to make other lienholders defendants hereto, but such lienholders may intervene and become parties thereto and have their respective rights adjusted and determined by the court. [Acts 1879, p. 8; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1308.]

Art. 5482. [5642] [3314] Venue.—Such suits may be brought in any county in this State where such labor was performed, or in which the cause of action or part thereof accrued or in the county in which the principal office of such railroad company is situated. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

FARM, FACTORY AND STORE OPERATIVES

Art.

- 5483. Lien prescribed.
- 5484. Newspaper office employees.
- 5485. Payment of wages.
- 5486. Liens, how fixed.
- 5487. Right of assignment.
- 5488. Duration of lien.

Article 5483. [5644] Lien prescribed.—Whenever any clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, artisan, craftsman, factory operator, mill operator, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or common laborer, farm hand, male or female, may labor or perform any service in any office, store, hotel, shop, factory, mine, quarry or mill of any character, or perform any service in the cutting, preparation, hauling, handling, or transporting to any mill, or other point for sale, manufacture or other disposition, logs or timber, or perform any service upon any wagon, cart, tram, or railroad, or other means or methods of transporting such logs or timber, and in the construction or maintenance of such tram or railroad, constructed or used for the transportation of logs or timber to or for such mills to its owner or operator, or to points for sale, shipment or other disposition, or any farm hands, under or by virtue of any contract or agreement, written or verbal, with any person, employer, firm or corporation, or his, her, or their agent, receiver or trustee, in order to secure the payment of the amount due or owing under such contract or agreement, written or verbal, the hereinbefore mentioned employees shall have a first lien upon all products, machinery, tools, fixtures, appurtenances, goods, wares, merchandise, chattels, wagons, carts, tram roads, railroads, rolling stock, and appurtenances, or thing or things of value of whatsoever character that may be created in whole or in part by the labor or that may be used by such person or persons or necessarily connected with the performance of such labor or service, which may be owned by or in the possession or under the control of the aforesaid employer, person, firm, corporation, or his or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, provided, that the lien herein given to a farm hand shall be subordinate to the landlord's lien provided by law. [Acts 1897, p. 218; Acts 1913, p. 151; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1272.]

Art. 5484. Newspaper office employees.—Whenever any newspaper worker in the editorial or reportorial department of any newspaper, publication or periodical, whether daily or otherwise, also any solicitor, clerk or other employee, in the advertising or business office of any newspaper publication or periodical, whether daily or otherwise, shall labor or perform any service in any of the departments or offices of such newspaper or periodical, under or by virtue of any contracts or agreements, written or verbal, with any person, employer, firm or corporation, or his, her or their agent, receiver or trustee, in order to secure the payment of the amount due by such contract or agreement, written or verbal, the hereinbefore mentioned employee shall have a first lien upon all products, papers, machinery, tools, fixtures, appurtenances, goods, wares, merchandise, subscription contracts, chattels, or things of value of whatsoever character that may be created in whole or in part by the labor of such persons, or necessarily connected with the performance of such labor or service, which may be owned by, or in possession of the aforesaid employer, person, firm, corporation, or his, her or their agent, receiver or trustee. [Acts 1917, p. 324.]

Art. 5485. [5646] Payment of wages.—Under the operation of this law, all wages, if service is by agreement performed by the day or week, shall be due and payable weekly, or if by the month, shall be due and payable monthly; all payments to be made in lawful money of the United States. [Acts 1897, p. 218; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1272.]

Art. 5486. [5645] Liens, how fixed.—Whenever any person, employer, firm, corporation, his, her or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, shall fail or refuse to make payments as hereinafter prescribed in this law, the said clerk, accountant, bookkeeper, farm hand, artisan, craftsman, operative, servant, mechanic, quarryman, or laborer, who shall have performed service of any character, shall make or have made duplicate accounts of such service, with amount due him or her for the same, and present, or have presented, to aforesaid employer, person, firm or corporation, his, her, or their agent or agents, receiver or receivers, trustee or trustees, one of the aforesaid duplicate accounts within thirty days after the said indebtedness shall have accrued. The other of the said duplicate accounts shall, within the time hereinbefore prescribed, be filed with the county clerk of the county in which said service was rendered, and shall be recorded by the county clerk in a book kept for that purpose. The party or parties presenting the aforesaid account shall make affidavit as to the correctness of the same. A compliance with the foregoing requirements in this article shall be necessary to fix and preserve the lien given under this law; and the liens of different persons shall take precedence in the order in which they are filed; provided, that all persons claiming the benefit of this law shall have six months within which to bring suit to foreclose the aforesaid lien; and provided, further, that a substantial compliance with the provisions of this article shall be deemed sufficient diligence to fix and secure the lien hereinbefore given; provided, that any purchaser of such products from the owner thereof shall acquire a good title thereto, unless he has at the time of the purchase actual or constructive notice of the claim of such lienholder upon such products, said constructive notice to be given by record of such claim, as provided for in this law, or by suit filed. [Acts 1897, p. 218.]

Art. 5487. [5647] Right of assignment.—Any party entitled to such lien may transfer or assign his rights hereunder, and his assignee or assignees shall have the same rights and privileges as are conferred upon him. [Id.]

Art. 5488. [5648] Duration of lien.—The lien created by this chapter shall cease to be operative after six months after the same is fixed, unless suit is brought within said time to enforce said lien. [Id.]

CHAPTER SIX

CHATTEL MORTGAGES

Art.

- 5489. Vendor's security.
- 5490. Chattel mortgages.
- 5491. Combined with Article 5490.
- 5492. Duty of clerk.
- 5493. Copy of instrument: evidence.
- 5494. Chattel mortgage record.
- 5495. Satisfaction to be entered.
- 5496. Property not to be removed.
- 5497. Effect of registration.
- 5498. Record of chattels on realty.
- 5499. Destruction of chattel mortgages.

Article 5489. [5654] [3327] Vendor's security.—All reservation of the title to or property in chattels, as security for the purchase money thereof, shall be held to be chattel mortgages, and shall, when possession is delivered to the vendee, be void as to creditors and bona fide purchasers, unless such reservations be in writing and registered as required of chattel mortgages. Nothing in this law shall be construed to contravene the landlord and tenant law. [Acts 1885, p. 76; G. L. vol. 9, p. 696.]

Art. 5490. Chattel mortgages.—Every chattel mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument of writing, intended to operate as a mortgage, or lien upon personal property, and every transfer thereof which shall not be accompanied by an immediate delivery and be followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the property mortgaged, pledged, or affected by such instrument, shall be absolutely void as against the creditors of the mortgagor or person making same, as against subsequent purchasers and mortgagees or lien holders in good faith, unless such instrument, or a true copy thereof, shall be forthwith deposited with and filed in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property shall then be situated, or if the mortgagor or person making the same be a resident of this State, then, of the county of which he shall at that time be a resident; provided, that written contracts for the conditional sale, lease or hire of railroad equipment and rolling stock, by which the purchase money is therein agreed to be paid at any time or times after the date of such contract, with a reservation of title or lien in the vendor, lessor or bailor until the same has been fully paid, shall be recorded in the office of the Secretary of State, in a book of records to be kept by him for that purpose; and on payment in full of the purchase money and the performance of the terms and conditions stipulated in any such contract, a declaration in writing to that effect may be made by the vendor, lessor or bailor, or his or its assignee, which declaration may be made on the margin of the record of the contract, duly attested, or it may be made by a separate instrument to be acknowledged by the lessor, vendor or bailor, or his or its assignee, and recorded as aforesaid; and for such services the Secretary of State shall be entitled to a fee of five dollars for recording each of said contracts and each of said declaration [declarations], and a fee of one dollar for entering such declaration on the margin of the record.

Art. 5491. Combined with Article 5490.

Art. 5492. [5656] [3329] Duty of clerk.—Upon the receipt of such instrument, the clerk shall indorse thereon the day and hour when the same was deposited in his office for record, and shall keep the same on file in his office for the inspection of all parties interested until satisfaction thereof shall be entered, as provided for in this chapter. If a copy be presented to the clerk for filing, instead of the original instrument, he shall carefully compare such copy with the original, and the same shall not be filed unless it is a true copy thereof, and unless the original has been witnessed by two subscribing witnesses or acknowledged or proven for record and certified as required in case of other instruments for the purpose of being recorded. [Sen. Jour. 1895, p. 479.]

Art. 5493. [5657] [3330] Copy of instrument: evidence.—A certified copy of any such instrument so filed as aforesaid, certified to under the hand and seal of said clerk, shall be admitted in evidence in like manner as the original might be, unless the execution of the original has been denied under oath by the party sought to be charged thereby. The party desiring to use such instrument shall file the same in the papers of the cause before announcing ready for trial, and not afterwards. Such certified copy shall in all cases be received as evidence of filing and entry thereof in the chattel mortgage record according to the indorsement of the clerk thereon. [Id., p. 480.]

Art. 5494. [5658] Chattel mortgage record.—The county clerk shall keep a book in which shall be entered a minute of all such instruments, which shall be ruled off into separate columns, with heads as follows: Time of reception, name of mortgagor, name of mortgagee or trustee and cestui que trust, date of instrument, amount secured, when due, property mortgaged, and remarks; and the proper entry shall be made under each of such heads. Under the head of "property mortgaged" it will be sufficient to enter a general description of the property pledged and the particular place where located, and an index shall be kept in the manner as required for other records. When the instrument is the transfer of a lien the county clerk shall enter on the margin, or under the head "remarks" in connection with the original record of registration of such lien, a notation, "transferred by _____ to _____ this _____ day of _____, 19—," filling the blanks with the names of the parties and the date of such transfer, and note the date it is filed for registration. Provided, however, that the failure of the transferee of any note or lien to have the records so noted shall not operate as a release of the lien then in existence in any manner whatsoever to affect the validity of said lien or to operate so as to give the transferee of said note or lien any less rights than those held by the original payee in the note. [Acts 1925, p. 368.] [39th Leg., ch. 157, § 2.]

Art. 5495. [5659] [3332] Satisfaction to be entered.—When the debt secured by any such instrument has been paid or satisfied, the mortgagee, his assignee, attorney or legal representative shall enter or cause to be entered, and attested by the clerk, as aforesaid, satisfaction thereof, in the record book in which the instrument is entered, which may be done under the head of "remarks." Any instrument acknowledging payment or satisfaction need not be recorded at length, but the entry as above provided showing the same has been paid shall be sufficient, and the original instrument or copy thereof on file shall then be delivered to the mortgagor or maker upon demand, or the clerk may mail the same to him. [Id.]

Art. 5496. [5660] [3333] Property not to be removed.—The person making any such instrument shall not remove the property pledged from the county, nor otherwise sell or dispose of the same, without the consent of the mortgagee; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this article, the mortgagee shall be entitled to the possession of the property, and to have the same then sold for the payment of his debt, whether the same has become due or not. [Id.]

Art. 5497. [5661] [3334] Effect of registration.—Chattel mortgages and other instruments intended to operate as mortgages or liens upon personal property shall not be recorded at length, and all persons shall be thereby charged with notice thereof, and of the rights of the mortgagee, his assignee or representatives thereunder. [Acts 1879, p. 134; Acts 1917, p. 361; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1434.]

Art. 5498. [5661] [3334] Record of chattels on realty.—When any machinery or other manufactured article is susceptible of being attached to the realty in such a way as to become a fixture thereto and is located upon real estate in such manner as the same may be deemed a fixture thereto, and at the time of its location upon such real estate there is a lien or mortgage evidenced by written instrument or any instrument reserving title in such machinery or other manufactured article to secure an indebtedness thereon, executed by the purchaser or owner of such machinery or other manufactured article at the time of its location on such real estate, and the instrument evidencing said lien, mortgage or reservation of title contains a description of said machinery or other manufactured article, as well as the real estate upon which it is to be located or situated, reasonably sufficient to identify said real estate, and such instrument is registered under the provisions of this Act, then the registration of such instrument evidencing said lien, mortgage, or reservation of title as provided for by this Act, shall be notice to all persons thereafter dealing with or acquiring any right or interest in said machinery or other manufactured article, or the realty upon which the same is located or other improvements or property situated on said real estate, of all of the rights of the owners or holders of the indebtedness secured by said instrument the same as if recorded at length in the deed records or records of mortgages upon realty of the county where the real estate is situated, and such lien, mortgage or reservation of title upon or to such machinery or other manufactured article shall be as to such machinery and other manufactured article superior to any lien or rights existing in any one to said real estate or other improvements or other property located and situated thereon existing at the time of the location of said machinery or other manufactured article thereon, but nothing herein contained shall be held to give the holder of such lien, mortgage or reservation of title any right to or claim upon the real estate save and except the right to establish and foreclose his lien, mortgage or reservation of title upon such machinery or other manufactured article, and to enforce his rights thereto under the instrument evidencing his lien, mortgage or reservation of title, as in other cases of liens upon personal property hereunder. All such instruments shall be endorsed on the back thereof, to wit, "Liens on machinery situated on realty," and shall be registered in the county where the real estate is located in the manner as other chattel mortgages except that there shall be kept, indexed and recorded, as now herein provided for chattel mortgages, a separate book to be endorsed "chattel mortgage records on realty." The record thereof shall in addition to the other requirements of this Act contain a brief description of said real estate to which said fixtures are to be attached. [Acts 1879, p. 134; Acts 1917, p. 361; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1434.]

Art. 5499. [5662] Destruction of chattel mortgages.—All chattel mortgages filed with the county clerks of this State in accordance with law shall be prima facie presumed to have been paid after the expiration of six years from the date of the maturity of the debts such mortgages were intended to secure, unless the owner or holder of such mortgages, his agent or attorney, shall, within three months next before the expiration of said time, file an affidavit in writing with the county clerk stating that such debt has not been paid, and the amount still due thereon. If such affidavit is not filed, the clerk shall, at the expiration of said time, either deliver such mortgage to the maker or destroy the same. [Acts 1907, p. 272.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

OTHER LIENS

Art.

- 5500. Lien on vessels.
- 5501. Stock breeder's lien.
- 5502. Livery stables, etc.
- 5503. Mechanics may retain property.
- 5504. Sale of property.
- 5505. Unclaimed proceeds.
- 5506. Other liens not affected.

Article 5500. [5650-51] Lien on vessels.—Every person who may furnish supplies or materials, or do repairs or labor for or on account of any domestic vessel, owned in whole or in part in this State, shall have a lien on such vessel, her tackle, apparel, furniture and freight money for the security and payment of the same. The provisions of this article shall not be construed to alter or affect in any way the general law regulating the liens of seamen on foreign vessels. [Acts Feb. 3, 1848; P. D. 4600, 4601; G. L. vol. 3, p. 22.]

Art. 5501. [5652-53] Stock breeder's lien.—The owner or keeper of any stallion, jack, bull or boar, who keeps the same confined for the purpose of standing him for profit, shall have a preference lien upon the progeny of such stallion, jack, bull or boar to secure the payment for the amount due such owner or keeper for the services of such stallion, jack, bull or boar, and such lien shall exist by reason of the force and effect of the provisions hereof, and it shall never be necessary in order to secure and fix said lien to secure, file or register any contract or statement thereof with any officer, nor shall it be necessary that the owner of such progeny execute any contract whatever, but such preference lien may be foreclosed in the same manner as the statutory landlord's lien is by law enforced; provided, that where parties misrepresent their stock by false pedigree, no lien shall obtain. Said lien shall remain in force for a period of ten months from the birth of said progeny, but shall not be enforced until five months shall have elapsed after such birth. [Acts 1889, p. 115; Acts 1905, p. 24; G. L. vol. 9, p. 1143.]

Art. 5502. [5664] [3319] Livery stables, etc.—Proprietors of livery or public stables shall have a special lien on all animals placed with them for feed, care and attention, as also upon such carriages, buggies or other vehicles as may have been placed in their care, for the amount of the charges against the same; and this article shall apply to and include owners or lessees of pastures, who shall have a similar lien on all animals placed with them for pasturage. [Acts 1874, p. 200; Acts 1895, p. 96; G. L. vol. 8, p. 202; G. L. vol. 10, p. 826.]

Art. 5503. [5665-6] Mechanics may retain property.—Whenever any article, implement, utensil or vehicle shall be repaired with labor and material, or with labor and without furnishing material by any carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman in this State, such carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman is authorized to retain possession of said article, implement, utensil, or vehicle until the amount due on same for repairing by contract shall be fully paid off and discharged. In case no amount is agreed upon by contract, then said carpenter, mechanic, artisan, or other workman shall retain possession of such article, implement, utensil or vehicle, until all reasonable, customary and usual compensation shall be paid in full. [Acts 1874, p. 68; P. D. 711a; G. L. vol. 8, p. 70.]

Art. 5504. [5667-8] Sale of property.—When possession of any of the property embraced in the preceding article has continued for sixty days after the charges accrue, and the charges so due have not been paid, it shall be the duty of the persons so holding said property to notify the owner, if in the State and his residence be known, to come forward and pay the charges due, and on his failure within ten days after such notice has been given him to pay said charges, the persons so holding said property, after twenty days notice, are authorized to sell said property at public sale and apply the proceeds to the payment of said charges, and shall pay over the balance to the person entitled to the same. If the owner's residence is beyond the State or is unknown, the person holding said property shall not be required to give such notice before proceeding to sell. [Id.]

Art. 5505. [5669-70] Unclaimed proceeds.—If the person who is legally entitled to receive the balance mentioned in this chapter is not known, or has removed from the State or from the county in which such repairing was done, or such property was so held, the person so holding said property shall pay the balance to the county treasurer of the county in which said property is held and take his receipt therefor. Whenever such balance shall remain in the possession of the county treasurer for the period of two years unclaimed by the party legally entitled to the same, such balance shall become a part of the county fund of the county in which the property was sold, and shall be applied as any other county fund or money of such county is applied or used. [Id.]

Art. 5506. [5671] [3326] Other liens not affected.—Nothing in this title shall be construed or considered as in any manner impairing or affecting the right of parties to create liens by special contract or agreement, nor shall it in any manner affect or impair other liens arising at common law or in equity, or by any statute of this State, or any other lien not treated of under this title.

1. LIMITATIONS OF ACTIONS FOR LANDS

Article 5507. [5672] [3340] [3191] Three years' possession.—Suits to recover real estate, as against a person in peaceable and adverse possession thereof under title or color of title, shall be instituted within three years next after the cause of action accrued, and not afterward. [Acts 1841, p. 119; P. D. 4622; G. L. vol. 2, p. 621.]

Art. 5508. [5673] [3341] [3192] "Title" and "color of title" defined.—By the term "title" is meant a regular chain of transfers from or under the sovereignty of the soil, and by "color of title" is meant a consecutive chain of such transfers down to such person in possession, without being regular, as if one or more of the memorials or muniments be not registered, or not duly registered, or be only in writing, or such like defect as may not extend to or include the want of intrinsic fairness and honesty; or when the party in possession shall hold the same by a certificate of headright, land warrant, or land scrip, with a chain of transfer down to him in possession. [Id.]

Art. 5509. [5674] [3342] [3193] Five years' possession.—Every suit to recover real estate as against a person having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, and paying taxes thereon, if any, and claiming under a deed or deeds duly registered, shall be instituted within five years next after cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. This article shall not apply to one in possession of land, who derails title through a forged deed. And no one claiming under a forged deed, or deed executed under a forged power of attorney shall be allowed the benefits of this article. [Id., Acts 1879, p. 132; G. L. vol. 3, p. 1432.]

Art. 5510. [5675-5676] [3343] Ten years' possession.—Any person who has the right of action for the recovery of lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying the same, shall institute his suit therefor within ten years next after his cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward. The peaceable and adverse possession contemplated in this article, as against the person having right of action, shall be construed to embrace not more than one hundred and sixty acres, including the improvements or the number of acres actually enclosed, should the same exceed one hundred and sixty acres; but when such possession is taken and held under some written memorandum of title, other than a deed, which fixes the boundaries of the possessor's claim and is duly registered, such peaceable possession shall be construed to be co-extensive with the boundaries specified in such instrument. [Id.; P. D. 4621-24.]

Art. 5511. [5677] [3345] Land surrounded by other lands.—A tract of land owned by one person, entirely surrounded by a tract or tracts owned, claimed or fenced by another, shall not be considered inclosed by a fence inclosing the circumscribing tract or tracts, or any part thereof; nor shall the possession by the owner or claimant of such circumscribing land of such interior tract be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by Article 5510 unless the same be segregated and separated from the circumscribing land by a fence, or unless at least one-tenth thereof be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes, or used for manufacturing purposes. [Acts 1891, p. 76; G. L. vol. 10, p. 78.]

Art. 5512. [5678] [3346] Possession by adjacent owner.—Possession of land belonging to another by a person owning or claiming five thousand acres or more of lands inclosed by a fence in connection therewith, or adjoining thereto, shall not be the peaceable and adverse possession contemplated by Article 5510 unless said land so belonging to another shall be segregated and separated by a substantial fence from said lands connected therewith or thereto adjoining or unless at least one-tenth thereof shall be cultivated and used for agricultural purposes or used for manufacturing purposes, or unless there be actual possession thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5513. [5679] [3347] [3196] Title by possession.—Whenever an action for the recovery of real estate is barred by any provision of this title, the person having such peaceable and adverse possession shall be held to have full title, precluding all claims.

Art. 5514. [5680] [3348] [3197] "Peaceable possession."—"Peaceable possession" is such as is continuous and not interrupted by adverse suit to recover the estate. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4621; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5515. [5681] [3349] [3198] "Adverse possession."—"Adverse possession" is an actual and visible appropriation of the land, commenced and continued under a claim of right inconsistent with and hostile to the claim of another.

Art. 5516. [5682] [3350] [3199] Possession by different persons.—Peaceable and adverse possession need not be continued in the same person, but when held by different persons successively there must be a privity of estate between them.

Art. 5517. [5683] [3351] [3200] Right of the State.—The right of the State shall not be barred by any of the provisions of this title, nor shall any person ever acquire, by occupancy or adverse possession, any right or title to any part or portion of any road, street, sidewalk or grounds which belong to any town, city or county, or which have been donated or dedicated for public use to any such town, city or county by the owner thereof, or which have been laid out or dedicated in any manner to public use in any town, city, or county in this State; provided, this law shall not apply to any alley laid out across any block or square in any city or town. [Id.; P. D. 4622-4; Acts 1887, p. 28; G. L. vol. 9, p. 826.]

Art. 5518. [5684] [3352] Person under disability.—If a person entitled to sue for the recovery of real property or make any defense founded on the title thereto, be at the time such title shall first descend or the adverse possession commence:

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

1. A person, including a married woman, under twenty-one years of age, or

2. In time of war, a person in the military or naval service of the United States, or

3. A person of unsound mind, or

4. A person imprisoned, the time during which such disability or status shall continue shall not be deemed any portion of the time limited for the commencement of such suit, or the making of such defense; and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this title; provided, that notwithstanding a person may be or may have been laboring under any of the disabilities mentioned in this article, one having the right of action for the recovery of any lands, tenements or hereditaments against another having peaceable and adverse possession thereof, cultivating, using or enjoying same, shall institute his suit therefor within twenty-five years next after his cause of action shall have accrued and not thereafter. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4621-4; Acts 1895, p. 35; Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., p. 139; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. vol. 10, p. 765.]

Art. 5519. [5684a] [3352] Action barred in twenty-five years.—No person who has a right of action for the recovery of real estate shall be permitted to maintain an action therefor against any person having peaceable and adverse possession of such real estate for a period of twenty-five years prior to the filing of such action, under claim of right, in good faith, under a deed or deeds, or any instrument or instruments, purporting to convey the same, which deed or deeds or instrument or instruments purporting to convey the same have been recorded in the deed records of the county in which the real estate or a part thereof is situated; and one so holding and claiming such real estate under such claim of title and possession shall be held to have a good marketable title thereto, and on proof of the above facts shall be held to have established title by limitation to such real estate regardless of coverture, minority, insanity or other disability in the adverse claimant, or any person under whom such adverse claimant claims, existing at the time of the accrual of the cause of action, or at any time thereafter. Such peaceable and adverse possession need not be continued in the same person, but when held by different persons successively there must be a privity of estate between them. The adverse possession of any part of such real estate shall extend to and be held to include all of the property described in such deed or instrument conveying or purporting to convey, under which entry was made upon such land or any part thereof, and by instrument purporting to convey shall be meant any instrument in the form of a deed or which contains language showing an intention to convey even though such instrument, for want of proper execution or for other cause is void on its face or in fact. [Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., p. 139; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 369, ch. 250, § 1.]

Art. 5520. [5694] Actions by vendors.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action has accrued and not afterward, all actions of the following description:

1. Actions to recover real estate by virtue of a superior title retained by the vendor in a deed of conveyance or purchase money note.

2. Actions for the foreclosure of the vendor's lien on real estate. [Acts 1905, p. 334; Acts 1913, p. 250.]

Art. 5521. [5694] Presumption of payment.—Purchase money or mortgage lien notes relating to real estate shall conclusively be presumed to have been paid after four years from the date of maturity of such notes unless extended as provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 5522. [5695] Lien continued in force.—When the date of maturity of either debt referred to in either of the foregoing articles is extended, if the contract of extension is signed and acknowledged as provided for in the law relating to the execution of deeds of conveyance by the party or parties obligated to pay such indebtedness as extended and filed for record in the county clerk's office in the county in which the land is situated, the lien shall continue and be in force until four years after maturity of the notes as provided in such extension, the same as in the original contract and the lien shall so continue for any succeeding or additional extension so made and recorded. The date of maturity set forth in the deed of conveyance or deed of trust or mortgage, or the recorded renewal and extension of the same, shall be conclusive evidence of the date of maturity of the indebtedness therein mentioned. Provided the owner of the land and the holder of the note or notes may at any time enter into a valid agreement renewing and extending the debt and lien, so long as it does not prejudice the rights of lien holders or purchasers subsequent to the date such liens became barred of record under laws existing prior to the taking effect of, or under this Act; as to all such lien holders or purchasers any renewal or extension executed or filed for record after the note or notes and lien or liens were, or are, barred of record and before the filing for record of such renewal or extension, such renewal or extension shall be void. [Acts 1925, p. 216.] [39th Leg., ch. 64, § 2.]

Art. 5523. [5693] Limitation as to deeds of trust, etc.—No power of sale conferred by a deed of trust or other mortgage on real estate executed subsequent to the 14th day of July, 1905, and prior to the 1st day of July, 1913, shall be enforced after the expiration of ten years from the maturity date of the indebtedness secured thereby, and no power of sale conferred by any deed of trust or other mortgage on real estate executed on or subsequent to the 1st day of July, 1913, or that may hereafter be executed, shall be enforced after the expiration of four years from the maturity of the indebtedness secured thereby, and any such sale under such powers after the expiration of such times, shall be void, and such sale may be enjoined and the lien created in any such deeds of trust or mortgages as were executed subsequent to the 14th day of July, 1905, and prior to the 1st day of July, 1913, shall cease to exist ten years after the maturity date of the debt secured thereby, and as to all deeds of trust or mortgages as were executed on or subsequent to the 1st day of July, 1913, or that may hereafter be executed, the lien created thereby shall cease to exist four years after the maturity of the debt secured thereby; provided, if several obligations are secured by said mortgage or deed of trust, the same may be enforced at any time prior to four years after the note or obligation last maturing has matured and may be enforced as to all notes and obligations not then barred by the four years statute of limitations; provided, the lien created by such deeds of trust or other mortgages may be extended by an agreement in writing acknowledged by the parties thereto and filed and recorded in the manner provided for the acknowledgment and record of conveyance of real estate.

2. LIMITATION OF PERSONAL ACTIONS

Art. 5524. [5685] [3353] [3202] Actions to be commenced in one year.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within one year after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in courts of the following description:

1. Actions for malicious prosecution or for injuries done to the character or reputation of another by libel or slander.

2. Actions for damages for seduction, or breach of promise of marriage. [Acts 1897, p. 12; Act Feb. 5, 1841; Acts Feb. 2, 1860; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1066.]

Art. 5525. [5686] Survival of cause of action.—All causes of action upon which suit has been or may hereafter be brought for personal injuries, or for injuries resulting in death, whether such injuries be to the health or to the reputation, or to the person of the injured party, shall not abate by reason of the death of the person against whom such cause of action shall have accrued, nor by reason of the death of such injured person, but, in the case of the death of either or both, all such causes of action shall survive to and in favor of the heirs and legal representatives and estate of such injured party and against the person, or persons liable for such injuries and his or their legal representatives, and may be instituted and prosecuted as if such person or persons against whom same accrued were alive. [Acts 1925, p. 299.] [39th Leg., ch. 115, § 2; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 356, ch. 239, § 1.]

Art. 5526. [5687-98] [3354-63] [3203-12] Actions to be commenced in two years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within two years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions of trespass for injury done to the estate or the property of another.

2. Actions for detaining the personal property of another, and for converting such property to one's own use.

3. Actions for taking or carrying away the goods and chattels of another.

4. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is not evidenced by a contract in writing.

5. Actions upon stated or open accounts, other than such mutual and current accounts as concern the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents. In all accounts, except those between merchant and merchant, as aforesaid, their factors and agents, the respective times or dates of the delivery of the several articles charged shall be particularly specified, and limitation shall run against each item from the date of such delivery, unless otherwise specially contracted, [Acts 1841, p. 163; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627.]

6. Action for injury done to the person of another.

7. Action for injury done to the person of another where death ensued from such injury; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued at the death of the party injured. [Acts 1897, p. 12; Acts 1841, p. 163; Acts 1852, p. 128; P. D. 4604; G. L. vol. 10, p. 1066; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627; G. L. vol. 3, p. 1006.]

8. Actions of forcible entry and forcible detainer.

Art. 5527. [5688] [3356] [3205] What actions barred in four years.—There shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not afterward, all actions or suits in court of the following description:

1. Actions for debt where the indebtedness is evidenced by or founded upon any contract in writing.

2. Actions for the penalty or for damages on the penal clause of a bond to convey real estate.

3. Actions by one partner against his co-partner for a settlement of the partnership accounts, or upon mutual and current accounts concerning the trade of merchandise between merchant and merchant, their factors or agents; and the cause of action shall be considered as having accrued on a cessation of the dealings in which they were interested together. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4604; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5528. [5689] [3357] [3206] On bond of executor, administrator or guardian.—All suits on the bond of any executor, administrator or guardian shall be commenced and prosecuted within four years next after the death, resignation, removal or discharge of such executor, administrator or guardian, and not thereafter. [Acts 1876, p. 102; P. D. 1375, 3923; G. L. vol. 8, p. 938.]

Art. 5529. [5690] [3358] [3207] All other actions barred, when.—Every action other than for the recovery of real estate, for which no limitation is otherwise prescribed, shall be brought within four years next after the right to bring the same shall have accrued and not afterward.

Art. 5530. [5691] [3359] [3208] Actions on foreign judgments.—Every action upon a judgment or decree rendered in any other State or territory of the United States, in the District of Columbia or in any foreign country, shall be barred, if by the laws of such State or country such action would there be barred, and the judgment or decree be incapable of being otherwise enforced there; and whether so barred or not, no action against a person who shall have resided in this State during the ten years next preceding such action shall be brought upon any such judgment or decree rendered more than ten years before the commencement of such action.

Art. 5531. [5692] [3360] [3209] Actions for specific performance.—Any action for the specific performance of a contract for the conveyance of real estate shall be commenced within four years next after the cause of action shall have accrued, and not thereafter. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 87.]

Art. 5532. [5696] [3361] [3210] Judgment revived, when.—A judgment in any court of record, where execution has not issued within twelve months after the rendition of the judgment, may be revived by scire facias or an action of debt brought thereon within ten years after date of such judgment, and not after. [Acts 1841, p. 163; P. D. 4608; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5533. [5697] [3362] [3211] On motion for returning execution.—Where execution has issued and no return is made thereon, the party in whose favor the same was issued may move against any sheriff or other officer and his sureties for not returning the same, within five years from the day on which it was returnable, and not after. [Id.; P. D. 4608.]

Art. 5534. [5699] [3364] [3213] On actions to contest a will.—Any person interested in any will which shall have been probated under the laws of this State may institute suit in the proper court to contest the validity thereof, within four years after such will shall have been admitted to probate, and not afterward. [Acts 1876, p. 94; G. L. vol. 8, p. 930.]

Art. 5535. [5708] [3373] [3222] Limitations against infants.—If a person entitled to bring any action mentioned in this subdivision of this title be at the time the cause of action accrues either a minor, a married woman, a person imprisoned or of unsound mind, the time of such disability shall not be deemed a portion of the time limited for the commencement of the action and such person shall have the same time after the removal of his disability that is allowed to others by the provisions of this title.

Art. 5536. [5700] [3365] [3214] In forgery or fraud.—Any heir at law of the testator, or other person interested in his estate, may institute suit in the proper court to cancel a will for forgery or other fraud within four years after the discovery of such forgery or fraud, and not afterward. [Id.]

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 5537. [5702] [3367] [3216] Temporary absence.—If any person against whom there shall be cause of action shall be without the limits of this State at the time of the accruing of such action, or at any time during which the same might have been maintained, the person entitled to such action shall be at liberty to bring the same against such person after his return to the State and the time of such person's absence shall not be accounted or taken as a part of the time limited by any provision of this title. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627.]

Art. 5538. [5703-5704] Limitation after death.—In case of the death of any person against whom or in whose favor there may be a cause of action, the law of limitation shall cease to run against such cause of action until twelve months after such death, unless an administrator or executor shall have sooner qualified according to law upon such deceased person's estate; in which case the law of limitation shall only cease to run until such qualification. [Id. P. D. 4606.]

LUNACY—JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS IN CASES OF

Art. 5539. [5705] [3370] [3219] Acknowledgment must be in writing.—When an action may appear to be barred by a law of limitation, no acknowledgment of the justness of the claim made subsequent to the time it became due shall be admitted in evidence to take the case out of the operation of the law, unless such acknowledgment be in writing and signed by the party to be charged thereby. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. vol. 2, p. 630.]

Art. 5540. [5706] [3371] [3220] Limitation must be pleaded.—The law of limitation shall not be available in any suit unless it be specifically set forth by the party who in his answer invokes it as a defense. [Act Feb. 16, 1852; G. L. vol. 3, p. 1006.]

Art. 5541. [5707] [3372] [3221] Presumption of death.—Any person absenting himself for seven years successively shall be presumed to be dead, unless proof be made that he was alive within that time; but an estate recovered on such presumption, if in a subsequent action or suit the person presumed to be dead shall be proved to be living, shall be restored to him with the rents and profits of the estate with legal interest during such time as he shall be deprived thereof. [Act Feb. 5, 1841; G. L. vol. 2, p. 627; P. D. 23.]

Art. 5542. [5709] [3374] [3223] Action against immigrant.—No action shall be brought against an immigrant to recover a claim which was barred by the law of limitation of the State or country from which he emigrated; nor shall any action be brought to recover money from an immigrant who was released from its payment by the bankrupt or insolvent laws of the State or country from which he emigrated. [Id. sec. 13; P. D. 4618.]

Art. 5543. [5710] [3375] [3224] Debts incurred prior to removal.—No demand against a person who has removed to this State, incurred prior to his removal, shall be barred by the statute of limitation until he shall have resided in this State for the space of twelve months. Nothing in this article shall be construed to affect the provisions of the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 5544. [5711] [3376] [3225] One disability not tacked to another.—The period of limitation shall not be extended by the connection of one disability with another; and, when the law of limitation shall begin to run, it shall continue to run, notwithstanding any supervening disability of the party entitled to sue or liable to be sued.

Art. 5545. [5713] [3378] Agreement shortening period invalid.—No person, firm, corporation, association or combination of whatsoever kind shall enter into any stipulation, contract, or agreement, by reason whereof the time in which to sue thereon is limited to a shorter period than two years. And no stipulation, contract, or agreement for any such shorter limitation in which to sue shall ever be valid in this State. [Acts 1891, p. 20; G. L. vol. 10, p. 22.]

Art. 5546. [5714] [3379] Notice of claims for damages.—No stipulation in a contract requiring notice to be given of a claim for damages as a condition precedent to the right to sue thereon shall ever be valid unless such stipulation is reasonable. Any such stipulation fixing the time within which such notice shall be given at a less period than ninety days shall be void, and when any such notice is required, the same may be given to the nearest or to any other convenient local agent of the company requiring the same. No stipulation in any contract between a person, corporation, or receiver operating a railroad, or street railway, or interurban railroad, and an employe or servant requiring notice of a claim by an employe or servant for damages for injury received to the person, or by a husband, wife, father, mother, child or children of a deceased employe for his or her death, caused by negligence as a condition precedent to liability, shall ever be valid. In any suit brought under this and the preceding article it shall be presumed that notice has been given unless the want of notice is especially pleaded under oath. [Acts 1891, p. 20; Acts 1907, p. 241.]

Article 5547. [150] Apprehension of lunatics.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.) [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 23.]

Art. 5548. [151] The writ and its requisites.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.) [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 23.]

Art. 5549. [152] Jury summoned.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.) [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 23.]

Art. 5550. [153] Cause docketed, etc.—The cause shall be docketed on the probate docket of the court in the name of the State of Texas as plaintiff, and of the person charged to be insane as defendant. The county attorney shall appear and represent the State on the hearing, and the defendant shall also be entitled to counsel; and in proper cases the county judge may appoint counsel for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5551. [154] Jury impaneled and sworn.—At the time appointed for the hearing or at any other time to which the proceeding may have been postponed, the cause shall be called for trial and a jury of six men impaneled, to whom shall be administered the following oath:

"You and each of you do solemnly swear that upon all the issues about to be submitted to you in the matter of the State of Texas against A B, you will a true verdict render according to the evidence. So help you God."

Art. 5552. [155] Special issues submitted.—After the evidence is heard the county judge shall submit the matter to the jury upon the following special issues:

1. Is A B, the defendant, of unsound mind?
2. If the defendant is of unsound mind, is it necessary that he should be placed under restraint?
3. If you answer both the foregoing questions in the affirmative, then what is the age and nativity of the defendant?
4. How many attacks of insanity has he had, and how long has the present attack existed?
5. Is insanity hereditary in the family of defendant or not?
6. Is defendant possessed of any estate, and if so, of what does it consist and its estimated value?
7. If the defendant is possessed of no estate, are there any persons legally liable for his support? If yea, name them. [Acts 1876, p. 138.]

Art. 5553. [156] Verdict.—The jury shall return plain answers in writing to the issues named in the preceding article, but, if they find either the first or second issues in the negative, they need not determine further, and the defendant shall be discharged.

Art. 5554. [157] Judgment.—"Upon return of a verdict finding that the defendant is of unsound mind and that it is necessary that he be placed under restraint, judgment shall be entered adjudging the defendant to be a person of unsound mind and ordering him to be committed for restraint and treatment to any insane asylum operated by the State of Texas in which there may be available room, or delivered into the custody of the United States Veterans' Bureau, or to any other agency or department of the United States Government required or authorized by law to furnish care or treatment to such person of unsound mind in those cases where such agency of the United States will accept such person." [Acts 1925, p. 234.] [39th Leg., ch. 76, § 1.]

Art. 5555. [158-9] Reimbursement to the State.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 214.) [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 23.]

Art. 5556. [160] County attorney to represent State.—(Repealed, Acts 1925, p. 414.) [39th Leg., ch. 174, § 23.]

Art. 5557. [161] Warrant to convey lunatic to asylum.—"Immediately after any person is adjudged a person of unsound mind, the county judge shall communicate with the superintendents of the insane asylums within this State, and if it is ascertained that there is a vacancy in any of such asylums, or that the patient may be accommodated therein, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff or to some other suitable person directing him to convey the person of unsound mind to the asylum designated in such warrant, which warrant shall also prescribe the number of guards to be allowed, not to exceed two, and the same shall be executed with all convenient dispatch, provided, that in any case where the United States Veterans' Bureau or any other agency or department of the United States Government will accept such person of unsound mind for care or treatment, that he shall be delivered into the custody of such bureau or department of the United States instead of to the insane asylum of the State; provided further that the State of Texas shall not in any event become liable for any expense in connection with the care or treatment of those persons delivered to the United States Government as provided herein." [Acts 1925, p. 234.] [39th Leg., ch. 76, § 2.]

Art. 5558. [162] Relative or friend may give bond, etc.—No warrant to convey a lunatic to the asylum shall issue if some relative or friend of the lunatic will undertake, before the county judge, his care and restraint and will execute a bond in a sum to be fixed by the county judge, payable to the State of Texas, with two or more good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the county judge, conditioned that the party giving such bond will restrain and take proper care of the lunatic so long as his mental unsoundness continues or until he is delivered to the sheriff of the county or other person, to be proceeded with according to law, which bond shall be filed with and constitute a part of the record of the proceedings, and may be sued and recovered upon by any party injured, in his own name. [Id.]

Art. 5559. Record of proceedings and notice.—"The proceedings in any inquisition to determine whether a person is of unsound mind shall be entered of record in the probate minutes of the county court by the clerk thereof; and before any patient is sent to any asylum or is delivered to the United States for care and treatment as provided in Sections 1 and 2 hereof, the county judge shall cause a complete transcript of the proceedings to be made up and certified by the clerk of the county court under the seal of said court, which transcript he shall forward by mail to the superintendent of the asylum or to the medical officer in charge of the United States Government hospital to which such patient may be sent." [Acts 1925, p. 235.] [39th Leg., ch. 76, § 3.]

Art. 5560. [164] Clothing to be provided.—Before sending any patient to the asylum, the county judge shall take care that the patient is provided with two full suits of substantial summer clothing and one full suit of substantial winter clothing.

Art. 5561. [165] Officers' fees.—In such cases the officers and jurors shall be allowed the same fees upon conviction, as are now allowed for similar services performed in misdemeanor cases in the justice courts, to be paid out of the estate of the defendant

if he have an estate, otherwise by the county on accounts approved by the county judge. [Acts 1903, p. 110.]

CHAPTER ONE

COMMISSIONER OF MARKETS AND WAREHOUSES

Art.

5562. Appointing Board.
5563. The Commissioner.
5564. Employees and expenses.
5565. May examine affairs.
5566. Statistics.
5567. To establish agencies.

Article 5562. Appointing Board.—The Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture and the Banking Commissioner shall constitute a board which with the consent of the Senate, shall appoint biennially a suitable person as Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses to fill such office for a term of two years. Said Commissioner may for cause be removed at any time by the board. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5563. The Commissioner.—The word "Commissioner," as used in this title, shall mean the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas. He shall be furnished proper quarters to be selected by the Governor, to meet the requirements of his department. He shall give bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars payable to the Governor and conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 5564. Employees and expenses.—The Commissioner with the consent of said Board may employ a chief clerk, and such other help as may be necessary. Such help, other than the chief clerk, shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by the Commissioner and approved by the Board. The Commissioner and such employees when traveling on official business shall receive actual necessary expenses. All expenditures, including expenses of administering this department shall be paid by a warrant drawn by the Comptroller on the State Treasurer, on accounts approved by the Commissioner or on his authority. [Id.]

Art. 5565. May examine affairs.—The Commissioner and each person appointed by him shall have authority to administer oaths for the purpose of this law, and under the direction and at the instance of the Commissioner, such persons may, upon their warrants, examine into the affairs of any gin or corporation licensed under this Act. [Id.]

Art. 5566. Statistics.—The Commissioner shall collect, from every source available, information concerning stocks on hand and the probable yield of farm and ranch products, and disseminate the same. [Id.]

Art. 5567. To establish agencies.—The Commissioner shall establish agencies for the sale of farm, orchard, and ranch products, wherever it may be deemed advisable, in which event he is empowered to prescribe all regulations for the conduct of such agencies as may be found necessary. [Id.]

WAREHOUSES AND WAREHOUSEMEN

- Art.
 5568. "Public Warehousemen" and "Warehouse."
 5569. Certificate and bond.
 5570. Receipts and duplicates.
 5571. Cotton under lien.
 5572. Exchange of receipt.
 5573. Delivery must precede receipt.
 5574. Delivery from warehouse.
 5575. Cannot limit liability.
 5576. Receipt negotiable.
 5577. Exceptions.

Article 5568. [7819] "Public Warehousemen" and "Warehouse."—Any person, firm, company, or corporation who shall receive cotton, wheat, rye, oats, rice, or any kind of produce, wares, merchandise, or any personal property in store for hire, shall be deemed and taken to be public warehousemen.

A warehouse, within the meaning of this law shall be a house, building, or room in which any of the above mentioned commodities are stored and are protected from damage thereto by action of the elements. [Acts 1901, p. 251, Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 93, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 138.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5569. [7820] Certificate and bond.—The owner, proprietor, lessee or manager of any public warehouse, whether an individual, firm or corporation, before transacting any business in such public warehouse shall procure from the county clerk of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, a certificate that he is transacting business as a public warehouseman under the laws of the State of Texas, which certificate shall be issued by said clerk upon a written application, setting forth the location and name of such warehouse or warehouses, and the name of each person, individual or a member of the firm, interested as owner or principal in the management of the same, or, if the warehouse is owned or managed by a corporation, the name of the president, secretary and treasurer of such corporation shall be stated, which application shall be received and filed by such clerk and preserved in his office, and the said certificate shall give authority to carry on and conduct the business of a public warehouse and shall be revocable only by the district court of the county in which the warehouse or warehouses are situated, upon a proceeding before the court, by written petition of any person, setting forth the particular violation of the law, and upon process, procedure and proof, as in other civil cases. The person receiving a certificate, as herein provided for, shall file with the county clerk granting same, a bond payable to the State of Texas, with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by said clerk, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as a public warehouseman, which bond shall be filed and preserved in the office of such county clerk. [Acts 1901, p. 251, Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 93.]

Art. 5570. [7821] Receipts and duplicates.—On application of the owner or depositor of the property stored in a public warehouse, the warehouseman shall issue over his own signature, or that of his duly authorized agent, a public warehouse receipt therefor, to the order of the person entitled thereto; which receipt shall purport to be issued by a public warehouse, shall bear the date of the day of its issue, and shall state upon its face the name of the warehouse and its location, the description, quantity, number and marks of the property stored. Where such receipt is for cotton it shall state the class and weight, and the date on which it was originally received in warehouse, and that it is deliverable upon return of the receipt properly indorsed by the person to whose order it was issued, and on payment of all charges for storage, and insurance, which charges shall be stated on the face of the receipt. All such receipts shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their issue. A correct record of such receipts shall be kept in a well bound book, which shall be at all reasonable hours, open to an examination by any interested person. No two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during the same year, nor shall any duplicate receipts be issued, except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case the new receipt shall bear the same date and number as the original, and shall be plainly marked on its face, "duplicate." No such duplicate receipt shall be issued by the public warehouseman until adequate security acceptable to the warehouseman be deposited with or to the order of said warehouseman, to protect the party or parties who may finally hold the original receipt in good faith and for a valuable consideration. [Acts 1901, p. 251; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 94.]

Art. 5571. Cotton under lien.—If there is any incumbrance or lien of any kind on said cotton at the time of its storage the nature and amount of same shall be clearly set out and it is hereby made the duty of the public warehouseman or his authorized agent issuing the receipt, to have said blank filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton before issuing a negotiable receipt against same. Such statement need not be made if a non-negotiable receipt is desired, but in such cases the public warehouseman issuing said receipt shall write or stamp across the face thereof the words "not-negotiable." [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 95.]

Art. 5572. Exchange of receipt.—If a person holding a non-negotiable receipt for cotton as is herein provided for, shall desire to obtain a negotiable receipt in lieu thereof, he shall return said non-negotiable receipt to the public warehouse issuing same and thereupon shall comply in every respect with the provisions of this chapter relating to negotiable receipts, and upon compliance therewith a negotiable receipt shall be issued to him in lieu of said non-negotiable receipt, and said negotiable receipt thereupon shall be canceled, and the word "canceled" plainly marked in ink across the face thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5573. Delivery must precede receipt.—No public warehouse receipt shall be issued except upon the actual previous delivery of the goods in the public warehouse or on the premises, and under the control of the public warehouseman by whom it purports to be issued; and the name of the warehouse shall invariably be specified in such receipt. [Id.]

Art. 5574. Delivery from warehouse.—On the presentation and return to the warehouseman of any public warehouse receipt issued by him and properly indorsed, and the tender of all proper warehouse charges upon the property represented by it, such property shall be delivered immediately to the holder of such receipt; but no public warehouseman who shall issue a receipt for goods shall, under any circumstances or upon any order or guarantee whatsoever, deliver the property for which receipts have been issued, until the said receipt shall have been surrendered and canceled except in case of lost receipts. In default of strict compliance with the provisions of this article, he shall be held liable to the legal holder of the receipt for the full value of the property therein described, as it appeared on the day of the default, and shall also be liable to the special penalty herein provided. Upon delivery of the goods from the warehouse, upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked in ink across its face with the words "Canceled" with the name of the person canceling the same, and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put in circulation. [Id.]

Art. 5575. Cannot limit liability.—No public warehouseman shall insert in the public warehouse receipt issued by him any language limiting or modifying his liabilities or responsibilities as imposed by the laws of this State, excepting, "not accountable for leakage or depreciation," or words of like import and meaning. [Id.]

Art. 5576. Receipt negotiable.—The receipt issued against property stored in a public warehouse, as herein provided for shall be negotiable and transferable by endorsement in blank or by special endorsement; and delivery in the same manner and to the same extent as bills of exchange and promissory notes now are, without other formality; and the transferee or holder of such public warehouse receipt shall be considered and held as the actual and exclusive owner, to all intents and purposes, of the property therein described, subject only to the lien and privilege of the public warehouseman for storage and other warehouse charges; provided, however, that all such public warehouse receipts as shall have the words "not negotiable" plainly written or stamped on the face thereof, shall be exempt from the provisions of this article; and provided, further, that no public warehouseman shall issue a warehouse receipt against his own property in his own warehouse; but, upon sale of such property in good faith may issue to the purchaser his public warehouse receipt in form and manner as herein provided, which issue and delivery of the receipt shall be deemed to complete the sale, and shall constitute the purchaser full owner, as aforesaid, of the property therein described. Nothing in this last clause shall be construed to exempt the issuer of said receipt for his own goods in his own public warehouse, from complying with and being subject in all respects, to all other articles of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5577. Exceptions.—Nothing in this law shall be construed to apply to private warehouses or to the issue of receipts by their owners or managers under existing laws, or to prohibit public warehousemen from issuing such receipts as are now issued by private warehousemen under existing laws. Such private warehouse receipts issued by public warehousemen shall never be written on a form or blank indicating that it is issued from a public warehouse, but shall, on the contrary, bear on its face, in large characters, the words, "not a public warehouse receipt." [Id.]

Article 5578. Application for charter.—Any number of persons, not less than ten, at least sixty per cent of whom shall be engaged in agriculture, horticulture, or stock-raising as a business, and not less than three-fourths of whom shall be resident citizens of Texas, may apply to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses for a charter to permit them to organize and operate as a co-operative association, under the provisions of this chapter. In cities of a population of forty thousand or over, the above provisions shall not apply. The application for such charter shall contain the information required by the general corporation laws, and also state the number of its directors, which shall not be less than three, nor more than twenty-five and the name and residence of those selected for the first year.

The application shall be accompanied by the affidavit of three of such applicants, showing that no less than fifty per cent of the capital stock is actually paid in, which capital stock shall be, in no instance, less than five hundred dollars, divided into shares of five dollars each. If the same has been paid in otherwise than in cash, then a detailed statement as to the kind, character, and value of the property in which paid shall be made a part of the affidavit. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5579. Powers of corporation.—Corporations chartered hereunder shall have the right to act and do, and perform generally, all things which may be done and performed by warehousemen. Such corporations may sell in the market all products of the farm, ranch or orchard, on a commission basis, or such other basis as may be agreed upon by them with their customers. They may purchase, construct or lease all such warehouses, landings and buildings, as may be necessary for their business. They may employ such other instrumentalities and agencies as may be necessary for the storage, preservation and marketing of farm, ranch, and orchard products, to the best advantage of the members and customers. They may loan money upon products placed in their warehouses; provided, that the amount loaned thereon shall not exceed seventy-five per cent of the market value of the property so placed with them. They may loan money upon chattel mortgages, to their members only, for the purpose of enabling them to make and mature their crops, but such chattel mortgages shall always be upon property of at least double the value of money loaned thereon. They may loan money on crop mortgages, but such crop mortgages must always be the first mortgage thereon, exclusive of the landlord's lien, and shall always be secured by an acreage, which, under ordinary general conditions, would produce double the amount loaned thereon. They may invest their capital stock and surplus in a home office building, and may also invest such capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits in United States bonds, Texas State bonds, county, city district, and municipal bonds, and road bonds in the State of Texas; provided, such bonds are issued by authority of law, and interest upon them has never been defaulted. Such corporations shall never receive deposits, nor discount commercial paper generally, but may make such character of loans and investments as are herein provided for; provided, such corporations shall never be permitted to loan money upon chattel mortgages, crop mortgages, or personal security, except to their members, and then only to enable them to make, mature, and gather their crops; or market their farm, ranch or orchard products. They may erect, purchase or lease, and operate warehouses, buildings, elevators, gins, storage tanks, silos, and such other places of storage and security as may be necessary for the storage, grading, weighing and classification of cotton, and all farm products, and for the purpose of preparing such products for the market.

Art. 5580. May issue bonds.—Such corporations shall have authority to contract debts, as have other business corporations, and may issue special bonds, to be known as "sinking fund bonds" as follows: They may invest all or any part of their capital stock in such securities as are herein designated for the payment or investment of their capital, which, when approved by the Commissioner, shall be deposited in the State Treasury. The interest on such investments shall be annually paid into the State Treasury, and be placed to the credit of the sinking fund for the liquidation of bonds of such corporations, and the interest shall be invested from time to time by the Commissioner in similar securities, which in turn shall be deposited in the State Treasury. Such securities, when so deposited in the State Treasury, shall remain there as the sinking fund out of which the principal sum of the bonds herein provided for shall be paid, and said securities shall not be used for any other purpose than to liquidate the bonds herein provided for; unless, and until, such sinking fund bonds have been paid; in which event, the securities herein provided for shall be returned to the corporation owning same, and shall become a part of the general assets of the corporation. After the investment in such securities has been made, the Commissioner shall grant authority to the corporation to issue bonds in double the amount of such original capital stock, to bear not greater than six per cent interest, and to run not exceeding thirty years. When said bonds have been issued and signed by the proper officers of the corporation, they shall be registered by the Commissioner. Said bonds shall show on their face that the principal thereon is secured by the securities herein required to be deposited in the State Treasury, and shall have plainly written, printed, lithographed, or engraved, on their face the words, "Sinking Fund Bonds of ——— State Bonded Warehouse," with the post-office address of the corporation, the blank space to be filled in with the name of the corporation. Said bonds shall show on their face that the interest contracted to be paid therein is secured to them by the general assets of the corporation. After said bonds have been issued and registered by the Commissioner they shall be returned to the proper officer of the corporation issuing them, and may then be by such corporation placed on the market and sold; but they shall never be sold at less than ninety per cent of their face value. [Id.]

Art. 5581. Fees and certificate.—When such an application for charter is filed with said Commissioner, and approved by him, the Secretary of State shall, upon notice of such filing and approval, and the payment of the following fees: Five dollars for five thousand dollars, or less; ten dollars for ten thousand dollars, or more than five thousand dollars; and twenty-five dollars for all over that amount, issue a charter to the applicants; and thereupon the Commissioner shall record said charter, and furnish the corporation a certified copy thereof; and he shall issue to the corporation a certificate of authority showing that it has complied with the laws of the State of Texas, and is authorized to do business until the last day of April of the succeeding year. No charter fee shall exceed twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5582. Bond.—Before said charter is delivered to the corporation, and before said certificate is furnished, the corporation shall execute, by its proper officers, a bond, payable to the State of Texas, the amount of such bond to be determined by the Commissioner. The amount of any such bond may be changed from time to time, in accordance with the volume of business done or to be done by the corporation; and such bond shall be approved by the Commissioner before it is filed. Such bond shall be conditioned that the corporation will observe all provisions of this law, and the rules of the Commissioner, in so far as its business is regulated and controlled by them; and that the corporation will exercise ordinary care in the storage, preservation, and handling of all farm, ranch, and orchard products intrusted to it for storage or sale, or both; and shall also guarantee the classification, weights, grades and measures made by the corporation, or under its authority, as approximately correct. [Id.]

Art. 5583. Breach and new bond.—The bond herein provided for shall indemnify any person who may be damaged by any statement made by the corporation, or under its authority, in any certificate it may issue for such product stored with it. Such bond may be sued upon by any person sustaining damage by reason of any breach of its condition, growing out of any fault or dereliction of duty by said corporation, or any person authorized to act for it. If any such bond shall become impaired from any cause, the Commissioner may require the maker to furnish a new and sufficient bond, by written notice, and if such impairment is not made good within thirty days after notice, the Commissioner shall have authority to proceed to close the doors of the corporation, liquidate its affairs, and discharge its debts, as is provided for in this chapter. In the event the Commissioner shall take charge of such corporation, he is empowered to collect by suit, or otherwise, the full amount of the bond, or so much thereof as is necessary, which taken with the other assets of the corporation, may be found sufficient to discharge its obligations. [Id.]

Art. 5584. Directors and meetings.—The property and business of corporations chartered hereunder shall be controlled and managed by a board of directors of not less than three, nor more than twenty-five in number, who shall be members of the corporation, and bona fide citizens of Texas, and no member of the board of directors of one such corporation shall be a member of a board of directors of any other such corporation. The directors shall be elected annually, at a general meeting of the directors of such corporation, which meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation. The notice of such meeting shall be mailed to each member at least two weeks before the date set for the same. Each member of the corporation, at all general and special meetings of the same, shall have one vote, and no more. The directors may appoint, or remove any officer or employee at pleasure. [Id.]

Art. 5585. Statement of affairs.—The Commissioner shall, also, at least twice each year, and more if deemed necessary, require each such corporation to file in his office upon forms prescribed by him, a statement of its affairs, showing the condition of its reserve fund, its assets and liabilities, and such other information as he may deem advisable. Such statement shall be made upon the oath of one of the managing officers of the corporation, and shall be attested by at least a majority of its directors. [Id.]

Art. 5586. Examination of affairs.—Every bonded warehouse corporation chartered under the laws of this State shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Commissioner, and he shall make, or cause to be made, an examination of the affairs and dealings of each such corporation, at its expense, at least once each year, and at such other times as the Commissioner may deem necessary. If, upon examination, any such corporation is found to be insolvent, or has exceeded its powers, or its business is being conducted in an unsafe manner, or it has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter within a reasonable time, not to exceed, in any event, thirty days, the Commissioner shall report the condition of the corporation to the Attorney General, who may bring such action as the necessities of the case and law may require.

Art. 5587. Expense of examination.—The expense of each regular and special examination of corporations chartered under this chapter shall be paid by the corporation examined, in such an amount as the Commissioner shall certify to be just and reasonable. Such expense shall be paid in proportion to the capital stock of the various corporations, as follows: Those with a capital stock of less than twenty-five hundred dollars shall not pay more than five dollars; those with a capital stock of two thousand five hundred dollars, and not exceeding ten thousand dollars, not exceeding ten dollars; those with a capital stock of twenty-five thousand dollars, and not less than ten thousand dollars, not exceeding twenty dollars; those with a capital stock of one million dollars or more, shall pay not exceeding two hundred dollars, for each examination. All money collected as examination fees shall be paid by the Commissioner directly into the State Treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. [Id.]

Art. 5588. Amenable to general laws.—Every corporation organized under this chapter shall be amenable to and subject to all laws of this State governing corporations generally. [Id.]

Art. 5589. Limitation of authority.—No officer or employee shall have power to indorse, sell, pledge, or hypothecate any bond, note or other obligation received by such corporation, or any property deposited with it as warehousemen, until such power and authority shall have been given such officer or employee by the board of directors, in a meeting of the board, regularly called and held, a written record of which proceedings shall have first been made upon the minutes of the corporation; and all such acts of any officer or employé, indorsing, selling, pledging, or hypothecating any such pledge or property, shall, without the authority of the board of directors, as herein provided, be null and void. [Id.]

Art. 5590. Division of profits.—Every corporation organized hereunder may divide its profits among its members, in proportion to the amount of business transacted for each said member, after having paid dividends to each member, on the amount which each of said members has paid into the capital stock of the company, subject, however, to the following provisions: Twenty per cent of the net profit on each years business shall annually be paid into the reserve fund, until the reserve fund shall equal twice the amount placed in the capital stock at the time the corporation was chartered; the balance of the net profits shall be divided in accordance with the by-laws of the corporation; provided, that the subscribers to the capital stock shall first be entitled to a ten per cent dividend, or such less amount as may be stated in the by-laws for each year, before the remainder thereof is divided among the members in proportion to the amount of business transacted for each member. [Id.]

Art. 5591. Failure to obey law.—If any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter shall refuse to submit its books, and papers, and correspondence, for inspection, to the Commissioner or any of his authorized examiners; or, if any officer or directors of any such corporation shall refuse to be examined on oath touching the business and property of the corporation; or, if it shall be found to have violated its charter, or any law of the State binding upon it, the Commissioner shall report the facts to the Attorney General, who shall institute such proceedings against such corporation as is authorized to be instituted against insolvent corporations. [Id.]

Art. 5592. Certificate of qualification.—Before any such corporation shall be permitted to open its doors for business and in order for it to continue to transact business, the employé or officer in active management shall obtain a certificate from the Commissioner, certifying that he is qualified and authorized to perform the duties of said corporation. In order to receive such certificate such person must present satisfactory evidence to the Commissioner that he is competent to discharge the duties of such position. Upon receiving satisfactory evidence of qualification, and upon the payment of a filing fee of one dollar, the Commissioner may issue to any applicant therefor a certificate showing that such applicant is qualified. The life of any such certificate shall not exceed two years, at the expiration of which time the applicant must obtain a new certificate. [Id.]

Art. 5593. Unsafe corporation.—Whenever, after examination, the Commissioner shall have reason to believe that the capital stock of any corporation subject to the provisions of this chapter is impaired, he shall, by written notice, require the corporation to make good the impairment. Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner, from any examination made by an examiner, that such corporation is conducting its business in an unsafe, and unauthorized manner, he shall, by an order under his hand and seal, direct the discontinuance of such unsafe and unauthorized practice, and shall require a strict compliance with the requirements of the law. If wrong entries are made in the books of a corporation, or if wrong or unlawful uses of its funds have been made, the Commissioner shall require that such entries be corrected and such sums as were unlawfully paid out shall be restored to the corporation by the person or persons responsible for the wrongful use thereof. If any corporation shall refuse or neglect to make any such report as herein-after required, or to comply with any such order as aforesaid, or whenever it shall appear to the Commissioner that it is unsafe or inexpedient for any such corporation to continue to transact business, by reason of neglect or mismanagement, or that any officer or director has abused his trust, or has been guilty of misconduct, or of malversation of his official position, injurious to the institution, or that it has suffered a serious loss by fire, repudiation, or otherwise, the Commissioner shall communicate the facts to the Attorney General, who shall institute such proceedings as the nature of the case may require. [Id.]

Art. 5594. Forced liquidation.—The court, or judge, in term time or vacation, before whom such proceedings may be instituted, shall have power to grant such orders as may be necessary to grant such relief as the evidence and the situation of the parties may require. If, from any examination made by the examiner, it shall be discovered that any such corporation is insolvent, or that its continuance in business will seriously jeopardize the interest of its stockholders or its creditors, the Commissioner shall immediately close such corporation, and shall take charge of all its property and effects. Upon taking charge of any such corporation, the Commissioner shall, as soon as practicable, ascertain by a thorough examination into its affairs, its actual financial condition. If the Commissioner shall become satisfied that such corporation cannot resume business or liquidate its indebtedness to the safety of its shareholders and its creditors, he shall report the fact of its insolvency to the Attorney General. Upon receipt of such notice and information, the Attorney General shall institute proper proceedings, for the purpose of having a receiver appointed to take charge of such corporation, and to wind up its affairs and business for the benefit of its creditors and members; and the court, or judge thereof, in term time or vacation, after such notice and hearing, if it appear necessary, shall appoint a receiver to take possession of the property and effects of said corporation, for the purpose of winding up the business thereof. The Commissioner may appoint a special agent to take charge of the affairs of any such insolvent corporation, until a receiver is appointed. The special agent so appointed shall qualify, give bond, and receive compensation, the same as regularly appointed warehouse examiners; such compensation to be paid by the corporation out of its assets, when allowed by the court as costs in the case of the appointment of a receiver. In no case shall any corporation continue in charge of such special agent for a longer period than sixty days. [Id.]

Art. 5595. Voluntary liquidation.—Any such corporation may place its affairs and effects under the control of the Commissioner, on notice to him, and by posting a notice on its front door as follows: "This institution is in the hands of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas." The posting of this notice, or a similar notice, by the Commissioner, or under his direction, that he has taken possession of any corporation, shall be sufficient to place the property and assets of the corporation, of whatever nature, in possession of said Commissioner and shall operate as a bar to any and all attachment proceedings. [Id.]

Art. 5596. Warehouse examiners.—The Commissioners [Commissioner] shall, from time to time, appoint such number of State warehouse examiners as he may deem necessary to make examination of public warehouses, and corporations chartered under this chapter, which number shall at no time exceed one examiner for each fifty corporations and public warehouses subject to examination under this chapter and laws of this State. As full compensation for the performance of the duties of examiner, each person so appointed shall be entitled to receive a salary of not exceeding two thousand dollars per annum, and all reasonable necessary expenses, including hotel bills. An itemized and sworn account of such expenses shall be presented to the Commissioner for approval. Every warehouse examiner appointed by the Commissioner shall be a cotton grader and classer, and a competent book-keeper. Such examiner shall first make and file with the Commissioner an affidavit that he will make fair and impartial examinations; that he will not accept directly or indirectly any gift or pay for any service done in the line of his duty other than the pay fixed by law, and that he will not reveal the condition of any corporation or public warehouse examined by him, or give out any information secured in the course of any examination to any one except the Commissioner and except when requested to do so in court. [Id.]

Art. 5597. Appointment of examiners.—No such examiner shall be appointed who is, at the time, an officer or stockholder in any warehouse company or corporation, or who owns any interest in any warehouse; or in any firm or corporation engaged in the purchase or sale of farm, ranch or orchard products, on commission or otherwise. No such examiner shall be appointed receiver of any State bonded or public warehouse company whose papers and affairs he shall have examined. Each such examiner shall give a bond payable to the State of Texas, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Commissioner, conditioned that he will faithfully perform his duties as such examiner. [Id.]

Art. 5598. May deny or revoke permit.—The Commissioner shall have power to deny a permit to do business under this chapter and to revoke a permit when in his judgment there are sufficient warehouse facilities at the point where a new corporation may desire to do business. [Id.]

Art. 5599. Safety first.—The Commissioner shall have power to prohibit the storage of cotton or other inflammable commodities in an unsafe building, or require a storage house to be remodeled within certain specified dates, so as not to unduly hamper the conduct of the business and the convenience of the public. [Id.]

Art. 5600. Fire insurance.—The Commissioner shall require fire insurance by blanket policies or individual policies, in some solvent insurance company chartered under the laws of this State or having a permit to do business in the State, to be carried by all public warehouses and all warehouse corporations operating under this chapter, and to require such other means and methods of protection from fire and weather, or depreciation of warehouse property, as the Commissioner may deem necessary in each case. No fire, fire and marine, marine or inland insurance company, doing business in this State shall expose itself to any one risk, either upon buildings of any character, or their contents, except when insuring cotton in bales, and grain, in an amount exceeding ten per cent of the aggregate of the paid up capital stock, and surplus, unless the excess shall be reinsured by such company in some other solvent insurance company legally authorized to do business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5601. Charge for storage.—All charges for storage in warehouses operating under the provisions of this and the preceding chapter, shall be subject to limitation and regulation by the Commissioner to the extent of fixing a minimum charge therefor. The charges so fixed need not be the same at all places or at all times, but the Commissioner may take into consideration the local conditions, and the volume of business of each warehouse. In fixing charges for gin compressed cotton, consideration shall be given to the size of the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5602. Standards of weights and measures.—The standards of weights and measures of this State shall be the standards of weights and measures used under the terms and provisions of this chapter. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner to establish standards of classifications of cotton, corn, and other farm and ranch products, of whatever kind and character, which may be subject to classification, and originals of such standards so established shall be maintained, subject to public inspection, in the office of the Commissioner at all reasonable times; and duplicates of such standards as well as the standards of weights and measures, shall be furnished by the Commissioner to all persons who may apply therefor, under the payment of the necessary cost thereof. It shall be the duty of each public warehouse company to keep a duplicate of said standards, as well as the standards of weights and measures, at its warehouse, subject to inspection and comparison of grades and classification by persons storing products therein; provided, that the standards of classification shall always be the standards established by the Government of the United States, or of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5603. Liability of corporation.—The liability of a corporation chartered and operating under this chapter for warehouse purposes, shall be that of a public warehouseman, and it shall have the same rights as a public warehouseman, including a lien for storage, insurance, and other warehouse charges, as well as for charges for any service performed by it. [Id.]

Art. 5604. Lien of corporation.—Such corporation shall also have a lien for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering, and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; and also, all reasonable charges and expenses for notice and advertisement of sale of goods, where sale has been made in satisfaction of the warehouseman's lien. [Id.]

Art. 5605. Satisfaction of lien.—A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as provided in the succeeding chapter. No publication fee shall be charged in excess of the rate now allotted by statute for the publication of legal notices. One notice of sale shall be placed at the court house door of the county in which the warehouse is located. If any goods are delivered to any person paying for the same and the warehouseman desires it, he may require a bond of indemnity as protection from claims of other persons. [Id.]

Art. 5606. Landlord's lien.—The landlord's lien on cotton or other farm products shall continue so long as the same are on storage in any warehouse, whether the same be a warehouse operated under this law or a private warehouse, provided a negotiable receipt has not been issued therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5607. Delivery of goods.—Upon the presentation and return to the warehouse of any warehouse receipt issued by its manager, and properly endorsed, and the tender of all proper warehouse charges upon the property presented by it, such property shall be delivered immediately to the holder of such receipt; but the manager of such warehouse shall not, under any circumstances, or upon any other guarantee, deliver the property upon which said receipts were issued until such receipts have been delivered and cancelled, except in case of lost receipts. Any such receipt, when returned and cancelled, shall be kept by the manager in his office, until ordered destroyed by the directors, for one year from date of cancellation. Upon delivery of the goods in a warehouse, upon any receipt, such receipt shall be plainly marked, or stamped in ink, across its face, with the word "cancelled," together with the name of the manager cancelling the same; and shall thereafter be void, and shall not again be put into circulation. [Id.]

Art. 5608. Forms.—The Commissioner shall prescribe all the forms of receipts, certificates and records, of whatsoever description necessary in the conduct of warehouses under this chapter, but all such receipts, certificates and forms shall be drawn in accordance with the terms of this title. All warehouse receipts shall be of uniform character, in the same class as prescribed by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5609. Negotiable receipt.—A negotiable receipt issued against goods or products stored in a warehouse under this chapter shall be negotiable and transferable by endorsement in blank, or by a special endorsement and delivery in the same manner and to the same extent as bills of exchange and promissory notes now are, without any formality. The transferee or holder of such warehouse receipt shall be considered and held as actual and exclusive owner, to all intents and purposes, of the property therein described, subject only to lien and privileges of the warehouse for storage, insurance, and other warehouse charges. All such warehouse receipts with the word "non-negotiable" plainly marked or stamped on the face thereof shall be exempt from the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 5610. Receipts.—All receipts shall be numbered consecutively, in the order of their issuance, and a record of such receipt shall be kept at the office of the company. No two receipts bearing the same number shall be issued from the same warehouse during the same year, nor shall any duplicate receipt be issued, except in case of a lost or destroyed receipt, in which case a new receipt shall be issued, which shall bear the same date and number as the original, and shall be plainly marked on its face "Duplicate." In addition to the other provisions, each receipt shall have a blank form on the back thereof, to be filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton or other products for which it is issued, showing whether a pre-existing and unsatisfied lien of any kind exists against it. If there be a landlord's lien, or such unsatisfied lien, or incumbrance, or lien of any kind, on said cotton, or other products, at the time of its storage, the amount of the claim shall be clearly set out; and it is made the duty of the manager issuing the receipt to have said blank filled in and signed by the owner of the cotton, or other product before issuing a negotiable receipt for the same; provided, however, such statement may not be made if a nonnegotiable receipt is desired. When cotton grown on rented or leased premises is tendered for storage in a State warehouse, in addition to the foregoing instruments, all receipts issued therefor shall be issued jointly, in the name of the owner and the landlord, showing their respective interests in such cotton, unless the tenant or person storing the same presents authority from the landlord, or from the tenant, as the case may be, requesting the issuance of a receipt in the name of the one or the other, which request shall be in writing, and filed with the manager of the warehouse. If the person holding a non-negotiable receipt desires to obtain a negotiable receipt in lieu thereof, he shall return the non-negotiable receipt to the warehouse issuing the same and thereupon shall comply in every respect with the provisions of this Act, relating to negotiable receipts, and upon compliance with which a negotiable receipt shall be issued to him in lieu of the non-negotiable receipt. When the non-negotiable receipt is surrendered or canceled, the word "canceled" shall be plainly marked or stamped in ink, across the face thereof. No warehouse receipt shall be issued except on the actual previous delivery of the goods in the warehouse or on the premises under the control of the manager thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5611. All warehouses included.—All warehouses now or hereafter operating under an Act passed by the Thirty-third Legislature of Texas, and known as the "Public Warehouse Act," are hereby placed under the management and control of the Commissioner, and all chartered warehouses for the storing of farm, ranch or orchard products, not incorporated under this Act, may, by a majority vote of its stockholders, upon application to the Secretary of State, upon payment of a fee of ten dollars, amend their charter so as to come under this Act. Such warehouses shall make such bonds as the Commissioner may require, and such warehouses shall issue such receipts as are authorized by the Commissioner. [Id.]

Section 1. The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses of the State of Texas is hereby abolished, and the authority, duties, powers, functions, rights, and liabilities, heretofore vesting in said commissioner, shall hereafter vest in and be had and performed by the Commissioner of Agriculture. The Markets and Warehouse Department and the Weights and Measures Department of the State of Texas are hereby abolished, and the duties and functions of the same shall hereafter vest in the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Sec. 2. The board, consisting of the Governor, the Commissioner of Agriculture, and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, created by Chapter 5, of the General Laws enacted at the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, for the purpose of appointing a Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, is hereby abolished.

Sec. 3. The Board of Supervisors of Warehouses, consisting of the Governor, Commissioner of Agriculture, and the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, created by Chapter 5, of the General Laws enacted at the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature, is hereby abolished, and any authority, duties, powers, functions, rights, and liabilities of said board, existing under the law, shall hereafter vest in and be had and performed by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Sec. 4. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall hereafter have and perform all the authority, duties, powers, rights, and liabilities heretofore vesting in the Commissioner of Insurance and Banking, or the Banking Commissioner of Texas or the Commissioner of Insurance, if any, relative to warehouses, except such as are conferred upon said Commissioner of Insurance and Banking by the provisions of Chapter 3 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature of this State.

Sec. 5. The power and authority to administer the provisions of Chapter 5 of the General Laws of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-third Legislature; Chapter 41 of the General Laws of the First Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and Chapters 116 and 126 of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-sixth Legislature and such powers and duties as are conferred upon the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses by Chapter 22, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-seventh Legislature and Chapter 38 of the Second Called Session of the Thirty-eighth Legislature shall hereafter vest in the Commissioner of Agriculture, and it shall be his duty to administer said laws, or so much of same as may be in force.

Sec. 6. All appropriations heretofore made for the Markets and Warehouse Department and the Weights and Measures Department shall hereafter be available to the Commissioner of Agriculture to expend, as provided by law, in the execution of the work and the performance of the duties herein transferred; provided that the Commissioner of Agriculture shall be authorized to re-apportion and rearrange the duties of the office and of the employees and fix the salaries of said employees, where not fixed by law, and shall be authorized to discontinue any duties, work, or employees, in order to prevent a duplication of work already being performed, or authorized to be performed by the Department of Agriculture. [Id. p. 35.] [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, §§ 1-6.]

The above chapter abolishes the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses and confers some, if not all, of his powers and duties on the Commissioner of Agriculture. Chapters 1, 2 and 3 of Title 93 are retained herein in order that it may be ascertained therefrom what are the powers and duties of the Commissioner of Agriculture under said Chapter 13.

Article 5612. Issue of warehouse receipts.—Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman. [Acts 1919, p. 215.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5613. Form of receipt.—Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms:

1. The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored.
2. The date of issue of the receipt.
3. The consecutive number of the receipt.
4. A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order.
5. The rate of storage charges.
6. A description of the goods or of the packages containing them.
7. The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent.
8. If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership, and
9. A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the terms herein required.

10. When a negotiable receipt is issued under the terms of this Act for cotton or other agricultural products stored in any warehouse operating under the terms of this Act, it shall, in addition to the other conditions mentioned herein, state the weight, grade, and condition of the same and shall state plainly whether such agricultural products are insured or not. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5614. Conditions of receipt.—A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

1. Be contrary to the provisions of this chapter.
2. In any wise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods entrusted to him, which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5615. Non-negotiable receipt.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a non-negotiable receipt. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5616. Negotiable receipt.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is non-negotiable. Such provision, if inserted shall be void. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5617. Duplicate receipts.—When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damages caused by his failure so to do to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5618. Non-negotiable receipt.—A non-negotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it, "non-negotiable," or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable, may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable. This action shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5619. Bound to deliver goods.—A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this law, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with:

1. An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien.
2. An offer to surrender the receipt of negotiable, with such indorsements as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt, and
3. A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, an acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is required by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5620. Justified in delivery.—A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to the provisions of the three following articles, to:

1. The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent.
2. A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a non-negotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has written authority from the person so entitled either endorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper, or
3. A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are deliverable to him or order or to bearer, or which has been endorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5621. Delivery to wrong person.—Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by Subdivision 1 and 2 of the preceding article and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivisions he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either:

1. Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property in or possession of the goods, not to make such delivery, or
2. Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5622. Failure to cancel receipt.—Except as hereinafter provided, where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he has issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5623. Partial delivery; failure to cancel.—Except as hereinafter provided, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered, he shall be liable to any one who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 5624. Alteration of receipt.—The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was immaterial, authorized or made without fraudulent intent. If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration. Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 5625. Loss of receipt.—Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient securities to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The Court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs. The delivery of the goods under an order of the Court shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods. [Id. sec. 14.]

Art. 5626. Effect of duplicate receipt.—A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability. [Id. sec. 15.]

Art. 5627. Title in warehouseman.—No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5628. May make claimants interplead.—If more than one person claims the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5629. Adverse claim.—If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5630. Failure to deliver.—Except as provided otherwise in this chapter, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5631. Relying on labels.—A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that the packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5632. Must exercise care.—A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care. [Id. sec. 21.]

Art. 5633. Care of goods.—Except as provided in the following article, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited. [Id. sec. 22.]

Art. 5634. Mingled goods.—If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole. [Id. sec. 23.]

Art. 5635. Care of mingled goods.—The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and re-delivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate. [Id. sec. 24.]

Art. 5636. Surrender of receipt.—If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they can not thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. [Id. sec. 25.]

Art. 5637. Rights of creditor.—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from the courts, by injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. [Id. sec. 26.]

Art. 5638. Lien of warehouseman.—Subject to the provisions of the second succeeding article, a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, coopering and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of sale, and for sale of goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien. [Id. sec. 27.]

Art. 5639. Lien enforced against goods.—Subject to the provisions of the second succeeding article, a warehouseman's lien may be enforced:

1. Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, and

2. Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted if such person has been so entrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in the good faith for value would have been valid. [Id. sec. 28.]

Art. 5640. Loss of lien.—A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods by surrendering possession thereof, or by refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this law. [Id. sec. 29.]

Art. 5641. Lien for charges.—If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of this law, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt. [Id. sec. 30.]

Art. 5642. May refuse to deliver goods.—A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied. [Id. sec. 31.]

Art. 5643. Collection of charges.—Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor, for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay. [Id. sec. 32.]

Art. 5644. Satisfaction of lien.—A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows: The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain:

1. An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claims, showing the sum due at the time of the notice and the date or dates when it became due;

2. A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists;

3. A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claims as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail; and

4. A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

In accordance with the terms of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or, if such place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place. After the time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the depositor has elapsed, an advertisement of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose account the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in the place where such sale is to be held. The sale shall not be held less than fifteen days from the time of the first publication. If no newspaper is published in such place, the advertisement shall be posted at least ten days before such sale in not less than six conspicuous places therein. From the proceeds of such sale, the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien, including the reasonable charges of notice, advertisements and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds shall be deposited with the county clerk of the county in which the warehouse is located and shall be delivered, on demand, to the person to whom the warehouseman would have been bound to deliver, or justified in delivering the goods, for which the receipt was issued. At any time before the goods are so sold any person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving notices and advertising and preparing for the sale up to the time of such payment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of this Act, to the possession of the goods on payment of charges thereon. Otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the original contract or deposit. [Id. sec. 33.]

Art. 5645. Perishable or dangerous goods.—If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature, will be liable to injure other property, the warehouseman may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods, and to remove them from the warehouse. and in the event of the failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertising. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof. The proceeds of any sale made upon the terms of this article shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sales made under the terms of Article 5644. [Id. sec. 34.]

Art. 5646. Remedy not exclusive.—The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the property. [Id. sec. 35.]

Art. 5647. Effect of sale.—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature, the warehouseman shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable. [Id. sec. 36.]

Art. 5648. Negotiation and transfer of receipts.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery:

1. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

2. Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer or when a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee. [Id. sec. 37.]

Art. 5649. Negotiation by indorsement.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner. [Id. sec. 38.]

Art. 5650. Non-negotiable receipt.—A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A nonnegotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such receipt gives the transferee no additional right. [Id. sec. 39.]

Art. 5651. Who may negotiate receipt.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the owner thereof or by any person to whom the possession or custody thereof has been entrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the receipt the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the receipt has been entrusted, or if at the time of such entrusting the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery. [Id. sec. 40.]

Art. 5652. Title by negotiation.—A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

1. Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

2. The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him. [Id. sec. 41.]

Art. 5653. Title acquired by transfer.—A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title of the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the receipt is non-negotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt. Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or transferee of a non-negotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor. [Id. sec. 42.]

Art. 5654. Who may compel indorsement.—Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made. [Id. sec. 43.]

Art. 5655. Warranty.—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

1. That the receipt is genuine;

2. That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it;

3. That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and

4. That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby. [Id. sec. 44.]

Art. 5656. Liability of indorser.—The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations. [Id. sec. 45.]

Art. 5657. Implied warranty.—A mortgagee, pledgee or holder for security of a receipt who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described. [Id. sec. 46.]

Art. 5658. Innocent purchaser.—The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was induced by fraud, mistake, or duress to entrust the possession or custody of the receipt to such person, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress. [Id. sec. 47.]

Art. 5659. Subsequent negotiation.—Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage, or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation. [Id. sec. 48.]

Art. 5660. Purchaser for value.—Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right or stoppage in transit shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transit. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller, unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation. [Id. sec. 49.]

Art. 5661. Who may become public warehouseman.—Any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association of persons, may become a public warehouseman under the provisions of this chapter by filing with the county clerk of the county in which he is located and proposes to do business, a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand dollars conditioned that he will conduct his business in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon the filing and approval of such bond with the county clerk,

it shall be the duty of the county clerk to immediately certify such fact to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. Any one injured by the violation of the terms of the bond, and the provisions of this chapter may recover damages to the extent of said bond. Should said bond become impaired by recovery, or otherwise, said Commissioner may require such public warehouseman to file an additional bond, but in no event shall such additional bond be for a greater amount than five thousand dollars. The bond required hereunder shall be good for the term of one year from the date of filing and the right to continue as a public warehouseman shall be conditioned upon the renewal of said bond from year to year, according to the terms of this chapter. The form of the bond required hereunder shall be prescribed by said Commissioner, and the bond may be made by any surety company authorized to do business under the laws of this State; or by two solvent sureties to be approved by the county clerk of the county in which such public warehouseman may desire to do business. [Id. sec. 56.]

Art. 5662. Commissioner to supervise.—The Commissioner may exercise a general supervision over all private warehouses operating under the provisions of this chapter, and may, in his discretion, prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of same not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. sec. 57.]

Art. 5663. Interpretation.—In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall govern. This law shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it. [Id. secs. 59 and 60.]

Art. 5664. Definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject-matter otherwise requires:

“Action” includes counter claim, set-off and suit in equity.

“Delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

“Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is from its nature or by mercantile custom treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

“Goods” means chattels or merchandise in storage, or which has been or is about to be stored.

“Holder” of a receipt means a person who has both actual possession of such receipt and a right of property therein.

“Order” means an order by indorsement on the receipt.

“Owner” does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

“Person” includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To “purchase” includes to take as mortgagee or as pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee.

“Receipt” means a warehouse receipt.

“Value” is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or pre-existing obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a receipt is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

“Warehouseman” means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods for profit.

A thing is done “in good faith” within the meaning of this law when it is in fact done honestly, whether it is done negligently or not. [Id. sec. 61.]

Art. 5665. Citation of Act.—This Act may be cited as the Uniform Warehouse Receipts Act. [Id. sec. 63.]

CHAPTER FIVE

GINNERS AND COTTON

- Art.
5670. “Ginners.”
5671. To obtain license.
5668. Bond.
5669. Suit on bond.

'28 TEX. CIV. ST.—44

Art.

5670. Ginner to take sample.
5671. Certificate with sample.
5672. Certificate of guarantee.
5673. Duty of Commissioner.
5674. Cotton board.
5675. Marking cotton.
5676. Wrapping cotton.
5677. Baling of cotton regulated.
5678. Liability.
5679. Duty of Commissioner.

Article 5666. “Ginners.”—All persons, partnerships, joint stock companies or corporations operating in this State any gin ginning cotton for commercial purposes shall be known as ginners, and shall be charged with the public use. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 5667. To obtain license.—All such ginners shall be required to obtain a license as a licensed ginner, from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, which license shall be renewed each year, upon the payment of an annual fee of one dollar. Application for such license shall be made to said Commissioner stating the location and amount of capital of the gin, by whom owned, by whom conducted, and the post-office address of the owner and operator. Such application shall be accompanied by a bond prescribed by the board. [Id.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, § 1, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses and vested his duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. See sections herein following article 5611.

Art. 5668. Bond.—Such bond may be that of a bonding company authorized to do business in Texas, or may be a personal surety bond. In the event of a personal surety bond, such bond shall be renewed once each year. In no event shall a bond less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars be required of any ginner for each gin he may own. Said bond shall be payable to the State of Texas, for the use and benefit of all who may have a cause of action against the maker thereof under the provisions of this chapter and shall be conditioned that the cotton ginned by the ginner designated in the bond and in the application for license has been carefully ginned, and that no foreign matter or substance has been placed in the cotton, nor has any water nor anything that would increase the weight thereof been placed therein during the process of ginning or thereafter while the cotton was in the possession of the gin; and that the ginner will separate the dirt from the seed; and that any sample of cotton taken from the bale during the process of ginning, is a fair and true sample of the cotton in the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5669. Suit on bond.—Suit may be brought against the maker thereof on such bond in the name of the aggrieved party, without the necessity of binding the State in the suit. Said bond shall not be void on first recovery but repeated suits may be brought on one bond until the amount of same has been exhausted. When the bond has become impaired by reason of any judgment thereon, the maker thereof shall be required to give a new bond, or make good the impairment; otherwise the board shall cancel his license as a public ginner. [Id.]

Art. 5670. Ginner to take sample.—Each licensed ginner shall take from each bale of cotton ginned by him one fair, true, and correct sample of cotton, unless requested in writing by the owner of the cotton, not to do so. When a sample of cotton is taken, such sample shall weigh not less than four nor more than six ounces; and the ginner shall wrap the same tightly in a sample wrapper, to secure a reasonable degree of compactness. Such sample shall be taken in three draws, as nearly as practicable, representing three parts of a bale. Any ginner who takes a sample from a bale of cotton, under the provisions of this Act, may, at his option, take and file a like sample from such bale for protection under the bond given by such ginner. [Id.]

Art. 5671. Certificate with sample.—With each sample of cotton there shall be placed a certificate, under the signature of the ginner, that same is a fair and true sample, as far as said ginner may be able to determine; and that the ginner guarantees no fraud was practiced in taking such sample; and that it was taken from the bale in such manner as to secure a correct sample of the cotton in the bale. [Id.]

Art. 5672. Certificate of guarantee.—Whether or not a sample of the bale of cotton so ginned shall be requested and taken by the ginner, the ginner shall nevertheless, place with each bale of cotton ginned by him a certificate guaranteeing under his bond that during the process of ginning, or thereafter, while the cotton was in the possession of the ginner, no water or foreign substance of any nature had been placed with such cotton, with intent to defraud. Such certificate shall bear the name and address of the person for whom the cotton was ginned, the number of the bale on the books of the ginner, and the weight of the bale at the gin. [Id.]

Art. 5673. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall have power and authority, and it shall be his duty to enforce all provisions of this chapter relating to ginner and to regulate and control them in all matters relating to the performance of their duties as such. [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5667.

Art. 5674. Cotton Board.—All matters relating to the issuance of a ginner's license, and all rules and regulations pertaining to gins, ginning, and ginner, as authorized and required by any provision of this chapter shall be subject to review for affirmation, modification or rejection, by a board hereby created to be known as the Cotton Board, which Board shall be composed of the Commissioner of Agriculture, Banking Commissioner, and the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. The last named Commissioner shall be chairman of the said board, and shall have the power, and it shall be his duty, to convene said board at all reasonable necessary times, to hear and decide all questions properly coming before it for review and decision. All rules, regulations, and acts of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, or of said board, pertaining to gins, ginner, and ginning, shall be subject to review by any court of competent jurisdiction in this State. [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5667.

Art. 5675. Marking cotton.—Each licensed and bonded ginner shall place in letters and figures, on one side of each bale of cotton ginned by him, in appropriate and distinct letters, the following: "B——" and "B. G.——" The manner of marking for identification may at any time be changed or regulated by the Commissioner. The first blank above indicated shall be filled in by the ginner by placing the same number, numerically, as that of the bale, as shown on the books of the gin ginning the same; and the letter "B," shall stand for "bale." The second blank shall be filled in by the ginner by inserting the number of the gin license assigned to it by the Commissioner; and the letters "B. G.," when so used, shall stand for "Bonded Gin." [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5667.

Art. 5676. Wrapping cotton.—Each bale of cotton ginned by a licensed and bonded ginner in this State shall be so wrapped that the bale will be completely covered when compressed and that the ends of the bale shall be closed and well sewed. The quality of the bagging shall at all times be such that the markings thereon will, under ordinary conditions, remain intact and visible. [Id.]

Art. 5677. [1322] Baling of cotton regulated.—Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons, owning or operating a compress in this State, and their agents and employes, are hereby required, in compressing, recompressing, baling or rebaling cotton bales, to so bind and tie every bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, that no such bale shall be delivered to any railroad company, or other common carrier, by such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, their agents or employes, unless such bale of cotton shall be free from all or any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale of cotton. Any such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, who shall fail to bind or tie any such bale of cotton by them compressed, recompressed, baled or rebaled, in the manner above provided, and shall deliver or cause to be delivered, any such bale of cotton to any railroad company, or other common carrier, shall forfeit and pay to the State of Texas not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, which may be recovered in a civil suit brought in the name of the State. [Acts 4th C. S. 1910, p. 118.]

Art. 5678. [1323] Liability.—Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons, receiving for storage, loading for transportation, or transporting, any such compressed bale or bales of cotton, in this State, containing any dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton, shall be liable in damages for injury to any person in the employ of such person, firm, corporation or association of persons, occasioned by reason of such dangerously exposed ends of bands or buckles, or any dangerously exposed or protruding part or parts of the ties, bands, buckles, or splices used in tying or binding such bale or bales of cotton while in the discharge of the duties of such employment. The duty of inspection of such bales of cotton shall be on the employer and not the employee. [Id.]

Art. 5679. [1324] Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall see that the provisions of the two preceding articles are observed and enforced. He shall obtain and collect evidence of any violation thereof upon the part of any person, firm, corporation, or association of persons engaged in the business of compressing cotton, who shall fail to comply with said provisions. Said commissioner shall file annual statements with the Governor, showing in detail all expenses incurred by him in connection with his duties under this law. [Id.]

PUBLIC WEIGHER

- Art.
 5680. "Public weigher" defined.
 5681. Appointment.
 5682. Recommendation for appointment.
 5683. Election.
 5683a. Office—in cities of not less than 25,600 population.
 5683b. Office—in cities of not less than 55,700 population.
 5684. Qualifications of weigher.
 5685. Term and removal.
 5686. Abolishing elective office.
 5687. Bond of appointed weigher.
 5688. Bond of elective weigher.
 5689. Filing bond and oath of office.
 5690. Certificate of authority.
 5691. Deputy weighers.
 5692. Special weighers.
 5693. Must comply with law.
 5694. Commissioner to supervise.
 5695. Duty of Commissioner.
 5696. Weight certificates.
 5697. Seal.
 5698. Record of weights.
 5699. Piled or stored separately.
 5700. To tag or mark article.
 5701. Re-weighing.
 5702. Suspension or dismissal.
 5703. Factor or commission merchant.
 5704. Owner may weigh, etc.

Article 5680. "Public weigher" defined.—Any person engaged in the business of public weighing for hire, or any person, who shall weigh or measure any commodity, produce or article, and issue therefor a weight certificate or weight sheet, which shall be accepted as the accurate weight upon which the purchase or sale of such commodity, produce or article is based, shall be known as a public weigher, and shall comply with the provisions of this chapter. The provisions of this article shall not apply to the owners, managers, agents or employees of any compress or any public warehouse in their operation as a warehouseman. This exemption shall not apply in any manner to any Texas port. [Acts 1919, p. 168.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5681. [7828] [4308] Appointment.—The Governor is authorized and required to appoint five persons as public weighers in every city which receives annually one hundred thousand bales of cotton on sale or for shipment. In all cities and towns which receive as much as fifty thousand bales of cotton, twenty-five thousand tons of cotton seed; one hundred thousand bushels of grain or rice, one hundred thousand pounds of wool; five thousand barrels of sugar, or any other commodity in large quantities, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint a sufficient number of public weighers for such city or town to carefully and accurately weigh all produce tendered for the purpose of weighing for shipment. [Acts 1883, p. 83; Acts 1899, p. 264; Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5682. Recommendation for appointment.—No man shall be appointed as such weigher unless he shall receive the endorsement of the senator and a majority of the representatives from the senatorial district where such appointee would hold such office. [Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5683. [7828] [4308] Election.—In all counties in which there are no city or cities in which the Governor is authorized to appoint public weighers, there shall be elected at each general election a public weigher for each justice precinct in the manner and form governing the election of other precinct officers. The commissioners court at the regular February term preceding the election may unite two or more justice precincts for the purpose of electing such public weighers. [Id.]

Art. 5683a. Office—in cities not less than 25,600 population.—In and for all counties in this State having a population, according to the United States census of 1920, of not less than 25,600 people and not more than 25,700 people, there is created the office of public weigher, whose official headquarters shall be at the county seat of such county and who shall discharge and perform at the county seat only, all the duties required by law of any public weigher, and whose qualifications shall be the same as required by law of public weighers elected in precincts, and who shall appoint a sufficient number of deputies to enable him to discharge his duties.

2. Such public weigher shall take the oath required by the Constitution of public officers, and shall give a bond in the sum of $2,500.00, payable, conditioned and to be approved as required in cases of bonds of precinct public weighers, and shall procure a like certificate of authority from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. The deputies of such public weigher shall take such oath and give bond in like manner, which bond, however, shall in the case of such deputies be in the sum of $1,000.00.

3. At the first regular term of the commissioners' court of such counties, following the passage of this Act, such commissioners' court shall appoint a public weigher for its county, who shall serve until the next general election when his successor shall be elected.

4. This Act shall not be construed to suspend the operation of the present law, providing for the election of precinct public weighers, in the counties effected [affected] by this law.

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5683b. Office—in cities not less than 55,700 population.—In and for all counties in this State having a population according to the United States census of 1920 not less than 55,700 and not more than 55,800 people, there is created the office of public weigher to be filled by two officers of equal rank, whose official headquarters shall be in the county seat of such county and who shall discharge and perform at the county seat only, all the duties required by law of any public weigher and whose qualifications shall be the same as required by law of public weighers elected in precincts, and who shall appoint a sufficient number of deputies to enable them to discharge their duties.

Sec. 2. Each of said public weighers shall take the oath required by the Constitution of public weighers and give a bond in the sum of $2,500, payable, conditioned and to be approved as required in cases of bonds of precinct public weighers, and shall procure a like certificate of authority from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses.

Sec. 3. Such public weighers shall be elected by popular vote of the entire county as other county officers. One of said weighers shall fill a place called Place No. 1 and the other shall fill the place called Place No. 2.

Sec. 4. This Act shall not be construed to suspend the operations of the present law providing for the election of Precinct Public Weighers in the counties affected by this law, except the precinct in which the county seat is located, and it shall not disturb the present Public Weighers, but shall take effect and be in force on and after January 1, A. D. 1927. [As amended Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 91, p. 265, § 4; Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 21, ch. 14, § 1.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5684. [7828] [4308] Qualifications of weigher.—No person shall be appointed or elected public weigher unless he is a qualified voter in the city or precinct for which he is appointed or elected and is of a good moral character and unquestioned integrity. He shall have a fair education and be able to keep an accurate set of books as required by this law. No person shall be appointed or elected public weigher, or deputy public weigher who is interested in the buying or sale of cotton, wool, sugar or grain to be weighed, either as principal, agent, factor, commission merchant or employee. [Id.]

Art. 5685. Term and removal.—All public weighers appointed by the Governor or elected for any precinct shall hold their office for the term of two years. [Id.]

Art. 5686. Abolishing elective office.—When the people of any subdivision of a county that has an elective weigher may wish to abolish said office of public weigher, the commissioners court of said county shall, upon petition to abolish said office signed by qualified voters at least one-third in number of the whole vote cast for Governor at the last preceding election in the weigher's precinct, order an election to decide whether such office of public weigher of the subdivision named in the petition, shall be abolished or not. Said election shall be held in the same manner as other elections. If a majority of the votes of the subdivision of the county ordering said election shall be cast in favor of abolishing any office of public weigher, the commissioners court shall declare such office to be abolished within thirty days after the election; and another election for this purpose shall not be held for two years.

Art. 5687. Bond of appointed weigher.—Every public weigher appointed by the Governor, shall file a bond payable to the State of Texas in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will accurately weigh, or measure all produce tendered to him for weighing or measuring, and that all certificates of weights issued by him shall represent a true and accurate weight of the produce so weighed and that he will comply with the laws governing public weighers, and that he will not permit any one to molest, mutilate or destroy any article, produce or commodity while in his possession. Such bond shall not be void on first recovery, but may be sued on by any person injured by such public weigher. All bonds given by such public weighers or their deputies shall be subject to approval by the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. [Acts 1919, p. 122.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5688. [7829] Bond of elective weigher.—Each public weigher elected for a precinct shall execute a bond payable to the county judge in the sum of five thousand dollars to be approved by the commissioners court, conditioned upon the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of his office. The bond of a weigher for a precinct where not over five thousand bales of cotton are received for sale or shipment shall be two thousand five hundred dollars. [Acts 1903, p. 216.]

Art. 5689. Filing bond and oath of office.—Each public weigher, whether elected or appointed, before entering upon his duties as such, shall take and subscribe to the official oath and file said oath and his bond with the county clerk of the county in which he resides. [Id.]

Art. 5690. Certificate of authority.—All public weighers or deputy public weighers, appointed or elected shall obtain from the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses a certificate of authority to carry on the business of public weigher or deputy public weigher within the city, town, precinct or shipping point for which he was elected or appointed. [Acts 1919, p. 124.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5691. Deputy weighers.—Each public weigher, appointed or elected, shall have the right, and it shall be his duty to appoint a sufficient number of deputies in each precinct, to weigh all produce tendered for the purpose of weighing, at any and all points within such precinct. He shall require of each of said deputies to file a bond in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, under the same terms and conditions as the bond which he filed with the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, before he shall be permitted to engage in the business of deputy public weigher; such bond so filed, shall be payable to the State of Texas, and shall be subject to the approval of the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, and certified to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, before such deputy public weigher shall be entitled to engage in the business of public weighing. Such public weigher shall have the right to appoint a sufficient number of deputies to serve at will of the public weigher, to aid him in weighing or measuring any commodity that is tendered to him for weighing.

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5692. Special weighers.—In all counties of this State in which there are two or more cities, towns or shipping points that receive as much as fifty thousand bales of cotton, or twenty-five tons of cotton seed, or one hundred thousand bushels of grain, or two hundred thousand bushels of rice, or one hundred thousand pounds of wool, or five thousand barrels of sugar, or any other commodity in large quantities, it shall be lawful for the Governor to appoint a sufficient number of weighers for such county to carefully and accurately weigh all commodities tendered for the purpose of weighing for shipment, sale or purchase. This article shall not apply to Galveston and Nueces counties. All such appointments shall be made by the Governor on the recommendation of the Senator from whose senatorial district such appointment is made, together with a majority of the representatives in the Legislature from such senatorial district. No man shall be appointed unless he shall receive the endorsement of the Senator and a majority of the representatives from such district. Every public weigher so appointed shall file a bond payable to the State of Texas, in the sum of five thousand dollars, conditioned that he will accurately weigh, or measure, all commodities tendered to him in said county for weighing or measuring, and that all certificates of weight issued by him shall represent a true and accurate weight of such produce so weighed, and otherwise complying with the law governing the conditions of bonds required of public weighers. Such bonds so given shall not be void upon first recovery but may be sued on successively by any and all persons who are injured by such public weigher. Such public weigher shall have the right to appoint a sufficient number of deputies to aid him in weighing or measuring any commodity that is tendered to him for weighing. All bonds given by such public weighers or their deputies shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, and all bonds and oaths of such public weighers or their deputies shall be filed with said Commissioner. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 35.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5693. Must comply with law.—No one shall be allowed to pursue the business of weighing for the public or grant a certificate or weight sheet upon which a purchase or sale is made unless he comply with the provisions of this chapter. [Id. Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 5694. Commissioner to supervise.—All public weighers in this State as provided for in this chapter, shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses and all weights made by them shall be subject to his approval. In any case where any discrepancy arises as to weights or measures of cotton or other farm products, made between public weighers in different sections of this State, or between public and private weighers, the difference shall be subject to review by the Commissioner; and any party who may be dissatisfied with the weights or measures of any public or private weigher, may appeal to the Commissioner, and have such cotton or other farm products re-weighed or re-measured, for the purpose of ascertaining and deciding the correct weight and measure thereof. The scales of all public and private weighers weighing cotton and other products shall at all reasonable times be subject to inspection by the Commissioner, or his duly authorized representative. Compliance with this article shall be absolute prerequisite to the right to institute and maintain any action concerning the subject matter hereof, in any court of this State. The authority herein conferred upon the Commissioner, to review the weights, shall not be construed as in any manner affecting the selection of public weighers or of fixing the charge to the public of such public weighers. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 68.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5695. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses shall issue a certificate of authority to all persons engaged in the business of weighing for the public; carefully and accurately test all scales, weights, beams and measures, used by such public weighers at least once every twelve months, and charge such public weigher a fee of five dollars for such inspection, which fee shall be paid, by the Commissioner into the State Treasury; such inspection fee to be collected at the time of the certificate of authority is issued to any public weigher or deputy public weigher in this State, and such fee shall be collected annually thereafter from all persons engaged in the business of public weigher. [Id. p. 126.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5696. Weight certificates.—The Commissioner shall prescribe the form of weight certificate to be used by all public weighers in this State, which certificate shall be known as a State certificate of Weights and Measures. Such certificate shall state thereon the kind of produce; the number of same, the date of the receipt of the produce, the owner, agent, or consignee, the total weight of the produce, the vessel, railroad, or other means by which the produce was received, and any trade or other mark thereon; and such other information as may be necessary to distinguish or identify the produce from a like kind. No certificate other than the one herein prescribed shall be used by any public weigher in this State, and such certificate when so made and properly signed, shall be prima facie evidence of such weight. All certificates of weights and measures or weight sheets as provided for in this chapter shall contain the accurate and correct weight of any and all commodities weighed when issued by public weighers. [Id. p. 126.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5697. Seal.—Every public weigher in this State shall provide himself with a seal, consisting of a star of five points, and shall have inscribed on the outer margin thereof the words, "Public Weigher, Precinct No. —, — County, Texas" or "Public Weigher, — city, Texas" which seal shall be impressed upon each weight certificate issued by such public weigher, or deputy public weigher, on all weight sheets made out by them. [Id. p. 125.]

Art. 5698. Record of weights.—All public weighers shall keep and preserve in a well bound book a correct and accurate record of all weights by them, as provided in this chapter, which record shall at all times be open for inspection to the public and to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, his deputies or inspectors. Such record shall be uniform throughout the State, and the form of such record shall be prescribed by the Commissioner. [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5699. Piled or stored separately.—All amounts, lots, or shipments or consignments of produce, after having been weighed, shall be piled or stored separately as nearly as can be, in order that amounts, lots, shipments or consignments, may be distinguished from other lots, shipments, or consignments of like kind. [Id. p. 127.]

Art. 5700. To tag or mark article.—All public weighers in weighing any commodity, produce, or article, shall immediately tag or mark such commodity, produce or article that has been weighed by him so as to distinguish same from that which has not been weighed. [Id.]

Art. 5701. Re-weighing.—When any doubt or difference arises as to the correctness of the net or gross weight of any amount, or a part of a commodity, produce or article, for which a certificate of weight or measure has been issued, as provided in this State, by the public weigher, the owner, agent or consignee, may, upon complaint to the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, have said amount, or part of any commodity, produce or article re-weighed by the Commissioner, or his deputy, or by a public weigher designated by the Commissioner by depositing with the Commissioner sufficient money to defray the cost of re-weighing such article or commodity. If on re-weighing, it is discovered that fraud or carelessness, or any faulty weighing apparatus was the cause of a discrepancy in weights, the cost of re-weighing shall, in all instances, be borne by the public weigher who issued the weight sheet or weight certificate. [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5702. Suspension or dismissal.—Whenever any public weigher or deputy public weigher appointed or elected under the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of malfeasance in office, or who is grossly incompetent in the performance of his duties, he shall be subject to suspension or dismissal from office by the commissioners court of the county in which he resides, or by the Governor, should he be appointed by the Governor. In all cases it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, to file with the commissioners court or the Governor the specific charges alleging malfeasance, misfeasance, dishonesty or incompetency or other cause. Such case may be set down for hearing not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the filing of such charges. The accused shall be furnished a copy of such charges and be notified of the date set for hearing of his case. He shall have the right to be represented by an attorney, to introduce evidence in his own behalf, and to have compulsory process for witnesses and the production of records. If he is found guilty, the commissioners court or Governor shall immediately discharge him as a public weigher, provided, he may have the right of appeal to the district court of his county or to the district court of Travis county. [Id.]

The office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses is abolished, see note to article 5680.

Art. 5703. [7833] [4314] Factor or commission merchant.—It shall not be lawful for any factor, commission merchant, or other person or persons, to employ any other than a public weigher, or his deputies to weigh cotton, wool, sugar, hay, or grain, or other produce, sold or offered for sale in any city or justice precinct having a public weigher duly qualified. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be liable at the suit of the public weigher to damages in any sum not less than five dollars for each bale of cotton, bale or sack of wool, ton of hay, or ton of grain, so unlawfully weighed. [Id.]

Art. 5704. [7834] [4316] Owner may weigh, etc.—Nothing in this chapter shall prevent any person, firm or corporation from weighing his own cotton, wool, sugar, hay, grain or pecans in person. In places where there are no public weighers appointed or elected, any person who shall weigh cotton, wool, sugar, grain, hay, or pecans for compensation shall be required before weighing such produce to enter into a bond for twenty-five hundred dollars approved and payable as in case of public weighers referred to in this chapter, and conditioned that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office and turn over all property weighed by him on demand of the owner. This article shall not apply to merchant flouring mills. [Acts 1905, p. 117.]

Article 5705. Commissioner to enforce law.—The Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses shall have power and authority to enforce, or cause to be enforced, any provision of this chapter. He shall appoint a chief deputy, who shall be known as Chief Deputy of Weights and Measures. In the absence or inability of the Commissioner, such deputy may perform any duty required by the provisions of this chapter. The Commissioner shall also appoint such additional deputies from time to time to serve as sealers of weights and measures, as may be provided for by appropriation. He may also designate such inspectors, lecturers, or employes, serving under him as Commissioner, as sealers of weights and measures. [Acts 1919, p. 237.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 13, p. 35, §§ 1-6, abolished the office of Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, the Markets and Warehouse Department, and the Weights and Measures Department and vested their duties and functions in the Commissioner of Agriculture. Such sections are inserted herein following article 5611.

Art. 5706. Expenses.—Such deputies, together with the chief deputy and the Commissioner, shall be entitled to their actual traveling expenses when traveling on business for the State, and the Legislature shall provide from time to time by appropriation other estimated expenses to fully carry out the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5707. Duty of Commissioner.—The Commissioner shall investigate conditions throughout the State, and especially in all the cities and towns in the State, with respect to weights and measures, and the sale of goods, wares and merchandise, commodities, food stuff and feed stuff sold in packages or containers, and also all kinds of feed, fuel or ice that is sold by weight or measure. The Commissioner shall annually report to the Governor, and shall, prior to each regular session of the Legislature, file a copy of such report made by him to the Governor, together with his recommendations, with the Legislature of the State. [Id.]

Art. 5708. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner shall issue instructions and make such rules and regulations for the government of all State sealers of weights and measures, deputy sealers, inspectors and local sealers, as he may see proper in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter. All such rules and regulations so issued by him shall have the same force and effect as if they were enacted into law. [Id.]

Art. 5709. Jurisdiction.—The jurisdiction of all State sealers, deputy sealers and inspectors appointed by the Commissioner shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and they shall have a right to inspect weights and measures in any and all districts or localities designated by the Commissioner. The jurisdiction of all local sealers of weights and measures appointed by the governing body of any city in this State shall be co-extensive with the limits of said city. [Id.]

Art. 5710. Same power as peace officer.—The Commissioner, his deputy, sealers or inspectors and all local sealers and their deputies in the performance of their official duties, shall have the same power as peace officers in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5711. Record of acts and reports.—The Commissioner shall keep in his office a complete record of all acts done by him; of all inspections made throughout the State, and a record of all prosecutions for the violation of any provision of this chapter. He shall keep an accurate record of the reports of all the various sealers of weights and measures, deputy sealers and inspectors appointed by him, or under his direction, as well as a record of the inspections of all local sealers of weights and measures appointed by the various cities of the State; such record shall always be open to the inspection of the public. Copies of such record may be had by application therefor, together with the necessary cost of making such copies. [Id.]

Art. 5712. Test of standard.—The standard of weights and measures received from the United States under a resolution of Congress, approved June 14, 1836, and such new weights and measures as shall be received from the United States as standard weights and measures in addition thereto, or in renewal thereof, and such as shall be procured by the State in conformity therewith and certified by the bureau of standards, shall be the State's standards by which all State and municipal standards of weights and measures shall be tried, authenticated, proved and sealed. [Id.]

Art. 5713. To keep and maintain standards.—The standards referred to in the preceding article shall be kept by the Commissioner in a safe and suitable place in his office, from which they shall not be removed except for repairs or certification. He shall maintain such standards in good order and shall submit them, at least once in ten years to the National Bureau of Standards for certification. He shall purchase such apparatus as shall be found necessary to a proper prosecution of the work of the office. [Id.]

Art. 5714. Shall establish tolerances.—The Commissioner shall establish tolerances and specifications for commercial weighing and measuring apparatus for use in this State, similar to the tolerances and specifications recommended by the National Bureau of Standards and he may establish a standard net weight or net count of any commodity, produce, or article, and prescribe such tolerances for same as he may in his best judgment deem necessary for the proper protection of the public. [Id.]

Art. 5715. Copies to cities.—The Commissioner shall, at the request of any city council, town council, city commission or any other such town or city body, furnish to them copies of the standard weights and measures of the State; such copies shall be furnished at the expense of any such city or town requesting the same. He shall, upon request of any such city council, town council, or city commission, test and accurately approve copies of the State's standards of weights and measures procured for the use of any such city or town, to be used by the sealer of weights and measures for such city or town. All copies furnished or copies tested and approved by the Commissioner shall be true and correct; shall be sealed and certified by the Commissioner and stamped with the letter "C." Such copies need not be of the same material or construction as the standards of the State and such copies may be furnished in any suitable materials or construction that the city or town requiring the same may specify, subject, however, to the approval of the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5716. Correcting standards of cities.—The Commissioner shall inspect and correct the standards used by any incorporated city or town in this State at least once every two years and compare the same with others in his possession, and keep a record of the state of inspection and character of weights and measures so compared. [Id.]

Art. 5717. Sale of false devices.—The Commissioner shall have general supervision over all weights and measures and weighing and measuring devices sold or offered for sale in this State. If any false weights or measures are being sold, offered for sale, or about to be sold, he shall have full authority to condemn same and prohibit the sale and distribution of such false weights and measures, or weighing and measuring devices in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5718. Certified standard.—All sealers of weights and measures, or deputy sealers of weights and measures appointed under the terms and provisions of this law are prohibited from using for the purpose of comparison or verification in any official capacity any weights or measures, unless same have been certified to by the Commissioner. All expenses incurred in certifying to the correctness of the weights and measures or copies of the same used by any incorporated city or town in this State shall be paid by such city or town for whom the comparison or test is made. [Id.]

Art. 5719. Copies of original standard.—In addition to the standards heretofore referred to, and required to be kept by the State, the State shall also have a complete set of copies of such original standards of weights and measures adopted by this chapter, which shall be used for adjusting municipal standards by the Commissioner or his deputy in the performance of their duties, and the original standards shall not be used, except for the adjustment of this set of copies and for certification purposes. Additional complete sets of copies for such original standards of weights and measures may be purchased by the Commissioner when the same are necessary for use by any State sealer of weights and measures, or deputy State sealer of weights and measures. In all instances where the State shall furnish true and correct copies of weights and measures for the use of any incorporated city or town in this State, such city or town shall reimburse the State for the actual cost thereof, plus such expenses as are necessary to pay the freight, express and cost of certification thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5720. Tests for State institutions.—The Commissioner or his deputy shall at least once annually, or oftener if requested so to do by the Board of

Control, or board of supervisors, regents or other governing body of any State institution or penitentiary commission or the governing body of any other penal institution of the State, test all scales, weights and measures used in checking the receipt and distribution of supplies of any such institution under the control of the State, and shall report his findings to the Chairman of the Board, or the superintendent of such institution. He shall also test all scales, weights and measures used for any other purpose by such institution. [Id.]

Art. 5721. Charges against city sealer.—The Commissioner, if he finds that any sealer or deputy sealer of weights and measures appointed by any incorporated city or town in this State, by virtue of the authority given them under the law, is neglecting to perform the duties of his office, or has refused to accept the recommendations and instructions of the Commissioner and be guided thereby, or is guilty of any malfeasance in office, or who is incompetent, he shall present to the governing body or officer who has control or supervision of such city sealer of weights and measures, or deputy sealer of weights and measures, a written charge and accusation based upon and clearly stating the offense of such sealer or deputy sealer and request such officer or governing body to hear and determine such accusation. Upon receipt of such charge and accusation, such officer or city commission with whom the same has been filed, shall make an order setting the same for a hearing at a time which shall be not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of filing of such charge and accusation and shall in such order fix the time and place for such hearing. A copy of such charge and accusation, together with a copy of such order, shall be served upon the accused at least seven days prior to the time fixed for such hearing. At such hearing the accused shall have the right to be represented by counsel and to produce evidence in his defense. If, upon such hearing, he shall be found guilty of malfeasance, or misfeasance in office or adjudged to be incompetent to perform the duties of the office, the officer or governing body before whom such hearing is had must forthwith remove him from office. Whenever it shall become known to the Commissioner or his deputy that any local sealer of weights and measures for any city or town in this State, or deputy sealer of weights and measures, is guilty of accepting any bribe, gift or money from any one who is interested in procuring false weights and measures, as soon as such fact shall become known, or be made known to the officer or governing body employing such sealer or deputy sealer, he or they shall immediately suspend such sealer from office. [Id.]

Art. 5722. To supervise local sealers.—Every local sealer of weights and measures, or deputy sealer, appointed by any governing body of any town or city shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner, and shall be required to report to him regularly and carry out all the instructions of the Commissioner. Failure or refusal to do so shall be grounds for dismissal from the service. [Id.]

Art. 5723. Duty of sealer and inspector.—Each sealer of weights and measures, deputy sealer, inspector, or local sealer shall carefully preserve all copies of the standards of weights and measures used by him in his inspection work, and keep the same safe and in good order, when not in actual use. He shall keep a record of all work done by him showing the inspections made, for whom made, giving the name and post-office address of each party for whom any measurement, test weight, inspection, condemnation or prosecution is made; such record shall be preserved by him, from which he shall compile his reports at regular intervals to the Commissioner when required to make a report. He shall keep a careful record of all violations of the weights and measures law and report in detail to the Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 5724. Sealing and marking.—Every person, firm or corporation, or association of persons, using or keeping for use, or having or offering for sale, weights, scales, beams or measures of any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, and tools, appliances and accessories connected with any or all of such instruments or measurements within this State, shall cause the same to be sealed and marked by the sealer of weights and measures as to their correctness, and no instrument shall be sold for the purpose of weighing or measuring unless it shall bear the seal of the inspector of weights and measures as to its correctness. [Id.]

Art. 5725. Subject to inspection.—When any weight, scale, beam, measure of any kind, instrument or mechanical device for weighing or measuring; also all tools and appliances necessary or connected with any such instruments of measure have been tested and found correct by any sealer appointed under the provisions of this chapter, the same may be used, kept for use, offered for sale, sold or kept for sale anywhere within this State for one year without being further tested. Any weight, scale, beam, measures of every kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, or appliances and accessories connected with any or all of such instruments or measure, which have been tested and sealed and certified as correct by the National Bureau of Standards may be kept for sale, sold or offered for sale without being tested and sealed by a sealer under the provisions of this chapter, but all such weights, scales, beams, measures of any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring; also all tools and appliances necessary connected with any or all of such instruments or measures shall always be subject to inspection and testing as herein provided, notwithstanding that the same have been tested and sealed, either by a sealer appointed under the provisions of this chapter, or by the National Bureau of Standards. Any scale, beam or mechanical device for weighing or measuring, which, after being sold, and before being used for weighing and measuring, is found necessary to assemble and set up, may be sold, kept for sale or offered for sale without first being tested and sealed, but such scale, beam or measuring device for weighing or measuring, before being used for weighing or measuring, without the consent of the Commissioner, must be tested and sealed as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5726. Testing weights and devices.—All sealers, deputy sealers, inspectors, and local sealers shall inspect, try and test all weights, scales, beams, measures of any kind, instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring and all tools, appliances and accessories connected with any or all such instruments or measures kept for the purpose of sale, sold or used by any proprietor, agent, lessee or employee in proving the size, quantity, extent, area, weight or measurement of quantities, things, produce, articles for distribution or consumption, purchased or offered or submitted by such person or persons for sale, hire, or award, and ascertain if the same are correct, and he shall have the power to and shall from time to time weigh or measure packages or amounts of commodities of whatsoever kind kept for the purpose of sale, offered for sale or sold, or in the process of delivery, in order to determine whether the same contains the quantity or amount represented and whether they are being offered for sale or sold in accordance with law and may seize for use as evidence such amounts of commodities or packages which shall be found to contain a less amount than that represented. He shall at least once each year, or as much oftener as may be found necessary, and directed by the Commissioner, see that the weights, measures and all weighing and measuring apparatus, used in any locality to which he is assigned for the purpose of inspection, are correct. All local sealers of weights and measures shall test at least once each year all scales, weights and measures of every kind and device within any such city to which they are appointed, and oftener, if required so to do. Any sealer, or deputy sealer, or inspector for the purposes above mentioned, and in the general performance of his duty may, without warrant, enter, go into or upon any stand, place, building or premises, or stop any vendor, peddler, junk dealer, driver of a coal wagon, ice wagon or delivery wagon or the driver of any wagon containing commodities for sale or delivery, and if necessary require him to proceed to some place which the sealer may specify for the purpose of making the proper tests. [Id.]

Art. 5727. Marking and tagging.—Whenever a sealer, deputy sealer, or inspector of weights and measures compares weights and measures, or weighing or measuring instruments and finds that they correspond, or causes them to correspond to the standards, he shall seal or mark under his name such weight or measure or weighing or measuring instrument with an appropriate device showing that the weight or measure, or weighing or measuring instrument is correct, and the date of the inspection, which device shall be placed so as to be easily seen. He shall condemn and seize and may destroy incorrect weights and measures and weighing and measuring instruments, which in his best judgment are not susceptible of repair, but any weights and measures, or weighing or measuring instruments which shall be found to be incorrect, but which, in his best judgment are susceptible of repair, he shall cause to be marked with a tag or other suitable device with the words "Out of Order." The owner or user of any weights or measures, or weighing or measuring instruments, which have been marked "Out of Order," as in this article provided, may have the same repaired or corrected within thirty days, but until the same have been repaired or corrected and tested as herein provided, the owner or user thereof must neither use nor dispose of the same in any way, but shall hold the same at the disposal of the Commissioner or any deputy or local sealer. When the same have been repaired or corrected, the owner or user thereof shall notify the Commissioner or his deputy or local sealer and they shall again be tested for the purpose of proving the weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument which had been found to be incorrect and marked as in this article, and until such weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument has been re-inspected by the sealer and found correct, the same shall not be used or in any way disposed of by the owner. When any weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument has been repaired and corrected, and has been re-inspected and found correct by the sealer of weights and measures, the sealer of weights and measures shall remove the tag or device with the words "Out of Order" and shall mark such weight, measure or weighing or measuring instrument in the manner provided for the marking of same where upon inspection they were found to be correct. [Id.]

Art. 5728. Fees.—The Commissioner shall have the right and power to fix and collect a nominal fee for testing all weights, scales, beams and any kind of instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring; all tools, appliances and accessories connected with all such instruments before they are offered for sale; such fee, however, to be reasonable and to be graduated according to the cost of such instrument, and it shall be unlawful for anyone to sell any weights, scales, beams, measuring instruments or mechanical devices for weighing or measuring, or to lease or rent same, unless such instruments have been duly inspected, tested and approved by the Commissioner, or one of his duly accredited deputies. All moneys collected by the Commissioner shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Id.]

Art. 5729. Definitions.—The word "person," whenever used in this chapter, shall be deemed to include person, firm or corporation and all officers, directors and managers of corporations shall comply with the provisions of this chapter on behalf of their respective corporations. [Id.]

Art. 5730. Legal standards.—The standard of weights and measures adopted and used by the Government of the United States is hereby declared the legal standard of weights and measures of this State; provided, that as to commodities for which the Congress of the United States provided no standard of weights or measures, the standards adopted by this State shall be the standards of weights and measures for such commodities. The unit of standard of length and surface, from which all the other measures of extension, whether lineal, superficial or solid, shall be derived and ascertained, is the standard yard designated in this chapter, which is divided into three equal parts called feet, and each foot into twelve equal parts called inches. For measures of cloth, and other commodities commonly sold by the yard, it may be divided into halves, quarters, eighths and sixteenths. The rod, pole or perch contains five and one-half yards; the mile one thousand seven hundred and sixty yards. The Spanish vara, thirty-three and one-third inches. Where land is measured by the English rule, the chain for measuring land shall be twenty-two yards long and divided into one hundred equal parts called links. The acre for land measure shall be measured horizontally and shall contain forty eight hundred and forty square yards; six hundred and forty acres shall constitute a square mile. [Acts 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 5731. Standard of avoirdupois and troy weights.—The units or standards of weight from which all the other weights shall be derived and ascertained shall be the standard of avoirdupois and troy weights designated in this chapter, and avoirdupois pounds shall bear to the troy pounds the ratio of seven thousand to five thousand seven hundred and sixty grains, and the avoirdupois pound shall be divided into sixteen equal parts called ounces. The hundred weight shall consist of one hundred avoirdupois pounds, and twenty hundred weight shall constitute a ton. The troy ounce shall be one twelfth of a troy pound. [Id.]

Art. 5732. Standard for liquids.—The units or standards of measure of capacity for liquids from which all other measures shall be derived and ascertained, shall be the standard gallon and its parts designated in this chapter. The barrel shall constitute thirty-one and one-half gallons and two barrels shall make a hogshead. All other measures of capacity for liquids shall be derived from the liquid gallon by continual division by the number two, so as to make half gallons, quarts, pints, half pints and gills. [Id.]

Art. 5733. Standard for solids.—The unit or standard measure of capacity for substance not liquids, from which all measures of such substance shall be derived and ascertained, is the standard half bushel mentioned in this chapter. The peck, half peck, quarter peck, quart and pint measure for measuring commodities which are not liquid shall be derived from the half bushel by successively dividing that measure by two. The standard bushel measure shall constitute two thousand one hundred fifty and forty-two one hundredths cubic inches; the standard half-bushel measure shall contain ten hundred seventy-five and twenty one-hundredths cubic inches; the standard gallon shall contain two hundred thirty-one cubic inches. All measures for measuring dry commodities shall not be heaped but shall be stricken with a straight stick or roller. [Id.]

Art. 5734. Weight per bushel, barrel or ton.—Whenever any of the following articles shall be contracted for, sold or delivered, the weight per bushel or barrel or divisible merchantable quantities of a bushel or barrel shall be as follows: Wheat flour, per barrel 200 pounds; half barrel sack 100 pounds; quarter barrel sack 50 pounds; eight barrel sack 25 pounds Corn meal, per bushel sack 50 pounds; half bushel sack 25 pounds; quarter bushel sack 12½ pounds. Wheat, per bushel 60 pounds.

Whenever any commodity is sold by the cord it shall mean 128 cubic feet, or the contents of a space eight feet long, four feet wide and four feet high. Whenever anything is sold by the ton, it shall mean two thousand pounds avoirdupois. Whenever any of the following articles are sold by the cubic yard, and the same are weighed, the following weights shall govern: Torpedo sand or gravel, 3,000 pounds equal one cubic yard, and 2,500 pounds of bank sand equals one cubic yard. [Acts 1907, p. 244; Acts 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 5735. Failure to regard unit of measure.—Whoever in buying any of the articles mentioned in the preceding article shall take any greater number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel or cubic yard, or divisible, merchantable quantity of bushel, barrel, cubic yard, or lineal yard, or in selling any of said articles shall give any less number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel, cubic or lineal yard than is allowed by the laws of this State, with intent to gain an advantage thereby, shall be liable to the party injured in double the amount of the property wrongfully taken, or not given. This article does not apply to cases where the buyer or seller is expressly authorized by special contract or agreement to take more or give less of such articles. [Id.]

Art. 5736. This law to govern contracts.—All contracts hereafter to be executed and made within this State for any work to be done, or for anything to be sold, delivered, done or agreed for, by weight or measure, shall be construed to be made according to the standard weight and measure ascertained as hereinbefore provided, unless there is an express contract to the contrary. In making any adjustment of weights or measures under the laws of this State, the standard given in this chapter shall be taken as the guide for making such adjustment. [Id.]

Article 5737. Declaration of policy.—In order to promote, foster and encourage the intelligent and orderly marketing of agricultural products through co-operation and to eliminate speculation and waste; and to make the distribution of agricultural products as direct as can be efficiently done between producer and consumer; and to stabilize the marketing problems of agricultural products, this law is passed. [Acts 1921, p. 45.]

Art. 5738. Definitions.—(a) The term "Agricultural products" shall include horticultural, viticultural, forestry, dairy, livestock, poultry, bee and any farm and ranch products; (b) the term "member" shall include actual members of associations without capital stock and holders of common stock in associations organized with capital stock; (c) the term "association" means any corporation organized under this Act; and (d) the term "person" shall include individuals, firms, partnerships, corporations and associations. Associations organized hereunder shall be deemed non-profit, inasmuch as they are organized not to make profits for themselves, as such, or for their members, as such, but only for their members as producers. This Act shall be referred to as the "Co-operative Marketing Act." [Id.]

Art. 5739. Who may organize.—Five or more persons engaged in the production of agricultural products may form a non-profit co-operative association, with or without capital stock, under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5740. Purposes.—An association may be organized to engage in any activity in connection with the marketing or selling of the agricultural products of its members, or with the harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling, shipping, or utilization thereof, or the manufacturing or marketing of the by-products thereof; or in connection with the manufacturing, selling or supplying to its members of machinery, equipment or supplies; or in the financing of the above enumerated activities; or in any one or more of the activities specified herein. [Id.]

Art. 5741. Preliminary investigation.—Every group of persons contemplating the organization of an association under this chapter is urged to communicate with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, who will inform it, whatever a survey of the marketing conditions affecting the commodities to be handled by the proposed association indicates, regarding probable success. [Id.]

Art. 5742. Powers.—Each association incorporated under this chapter shall have the following powers:

(a) To engage in any activity in connection with the marketing, selling, harvesting, preserving, drying, processing, canning, packing, storing, handling or utilization of any agricultural products produced or delivered to it by its members, or the manufacturing or marketing of the by-products thereof or in connection with the purchase, hiring, or use by its members of supplies, machinery or equipment, or in the financing of any such activities; or in any one or more of the activities specified in this article. No association, however, shall handle the agricultural products of any non-member.

(b) To borrow money and make advances to members.

(c) To act as the agent or representative of any member or members in any of the above mentioned activities.

(d) To purchase or otherwise acquire, and to hold, own and exercise all rights of ownership in, and to sell, transfer, or pledge shares of the capital stock or bonds of any corporation or association engaged in any related activity or in the handling or marketing of any of the products handled by the association. (e) To establish reserves and to invest the funds thereof in bonds or such other property as may be provided in the by-laws. (f) To buy, hold and exercise all privileges of ownership over such real or personal property as may be necessary or convenient for the conducting and operation of any of the business of the association or incidental thereto. (g) To do each and everything necessary, suitable or proper for the accomplishment of any one of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated; or conducive to or expedient for the interest or benefit of the association; and to contract accordingly; and in addition to exercise and possess all powers, rights and privileges necessary or incidental to the purposes for which the association is organized or to the activities in which it is engaged; and in addition, any other rights, powers and privileges granted by the laws of this State to ordinary corporations, except such as are inconsistent with the express provisions of this Act; and to do any such thing anywhere. [Id.]

Art. 5743. Members.—(a) Under the terms and conditions prescribed in its by-laws, an association may admit as members, or issue common stock, only to persons engaged in the production of the agricultural products to be handled by or through the association, including the lessees and tenants of land used for the production of such products and any lessors and landlords who receive as rent part of the crop raised on the leased premises. (b) If a member of a non-stock association be other than a natural person, such member may be presented by any individual, associate officer or member thereof, duly authorized in writing. (c) One association organized hereunder may become a member or stockholder of any other association or associations organized hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 5744. Articles of incorporation.—Each association formed under this Act must prepare and file Articles of Incorporation, setting forth: (a) The name of the association. (b) The purposes for which it is formed. (c) The place where its principal business will be transacted. (d) The term for which it is to exist, not exceeding fifty years. (e) The number of directors thereof, which must not be less than five and may be any number in excess thereof, and the term of office of such directors. (f) If organized without capital stock, whether the property rights and interests of each member shall be equal or unequal; and if unequal, the Articles shall set forth the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed; and the association shall have the power to admit new members who shall be entitled to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule or rules. This provision of the Articles of Incorporation shall not be altered, amended, or repealed except by the written consent or the vote of three-fourths of the members. (g) If organized with capital stock, the amount of such capital stock and the number of shares into which it is divided and the par value thereof. The capital stock may be divided into preferred and common stock. If so divided, the Articles of Incorporation must contain a statement of the number of shares of stock to which preference is granted and the number of shares of stock to which no preference is granted and the nature and extent of the preference and privileges granted to each. The Articles must be subscribed by the incorporators and acknowledged by one of them before an officer authorized by the law of this State to take and certify acknowledgments of deeds and conveyances; and shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this State; and when so filed the said Articles of Incorporation, or certified copies thereof, shall be received in all courts of this State, and other places, as prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein, and of the due incorporation of such association. A certified copy of the Articles of Incorporation shall also be filed with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses. [Id.]

Art. 5745. Amendments to articles of incorporation.—The Articles of Incorporation may be altered or amended at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose. An amendment must first be approved by two-thirds of the directors and then adopted by a vote representing a majority of all the members of the Association. Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation when so adopted shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5746. By-laws.—Each association incorporated under this Act must, within thirty days after its incorporation, adopt for its government and management, a code of by-laws, not inconsistent with the powers granted by this law. A majority vote of the members or stock-holders, or their assent, is necessary to adopt such by-laws. Each association under its by-laws may also provide for any or all of the following matters: (a) The time, place and manner of calling and conducting its meetings. (b) The number of stock-holders or members constituting a quorum. (c) The right of members or stock-holders to vote by proxy or by mail, or by both, and the conditions, manner and effects of such votes. (d) The number of directors constituting a quorum. (e) The qualifications, compensation and duties and term of office of directors and officers; time of their election and the mode and manner of giving notice thereof. (f) Penalties for violations of the by-laws. (g) The amount of entrance, organization and membership fees, if any; the manner and method of collection of the same, and the purposes for which they must be used. (h) The amount which each member or stock-holders [stockholder] shall be required to pay annually or from time to time, if at all, to carry on the business of the association; the charge, if any, to be paid by each member or stock-holder for services rendered by the association to him and the time of payment and the manner of collection; and the marketing contract between the association and its members or stock-holders which every member or stock-holder may be required to sign. (i) The number and qualification of members or stock-holders of the association and the conditions precedent to members of ownership of common stock; the method, time and manner of permitting members to withdraw or the holders of common stock to transfer their stock; the manner of assignment and transfer of the interest of members, and of the shares of common stock; the conditions upon which, and time when membership of any member shall cease. The automatic suspension or the rights of a member when he ceases to be eligible to membership in the association, and mode, manner and effect of the expulsion of a member; manner of determining the value of a member's interest and provision for its purchase by the association upon the death or withdrawal of a member or stockholder, or upon the expulsion of a member or forfeiture of his membership, or, at the option of the association, by conclusive appraisal by the board of directors. In case of the withdrawal or expulsion of a member, the board of directors shall equitably and conclusively appraise his property interests in the association and shall fix the amount thereof in money, which shall be paid to him within one year after such expulsion or withdrawal. [Id.]

Art. 5747. General and special meetings.—In its by-laws each association shall provide for one or more regular meetings annually. The board of directors shall have the right to call a special meeting at any time, and ten per cent of the members or stockholders may file a petition stating the specific business to be brought before the association and demand a special meeting at any time. Such meeting must thereupon be called by the directors. Notice of all meetings, together with a statement of the purposes thereof, shall be mailed to each member at least ten days prior to the meeting. The by-laws may require instead that such notice may be given by publication in a newspaper of general circulation published at the principal place of business of the association. [Id.]

Art. 5748. Directors—Election.—The affairs of the association shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors, elected by the members or stockholders from their own number. The by-laws may provide that the territory in which the association has members shall be divided into districts and that the directors shall be elected according to such districts. In such a case the by-laws shall specify the number of directors to be elected by each district, the manner and method of re-apportioning the directors and of re-districting the territory covered by the association. The by-laws may provide that primary elections should be held in each district to elect the directors apportioned to such districts and the result of all such primary elections must be ratified by the next regular meeting of the association. An association may provide a fair remuneration for the time actually spent by its officers and directors in its service. No director, during the term of his office, shall be a party to a contract for profit with the association differing in any way from the business relations accorded regular members or holders of common stock of the association, or to any other kind of contract differing from terms generally current in that district. When a vacancy on the board of directors occurs, other than by expiration of term, the remaining members of the board, by a majority vote, shall fill the vacancy, unless the by-laws provide for an election of directors by district. In such a case the board of directors shall immediately call a special meeting of the members or stockholders in that district to fill the vacancy. [Id.]

Art. 5749. Election of officers.—The directors shall elect from their number a president and one or more vice-presidents. They shall also elect a secretary and treasurer, who need not be a director, and they may combine the two latter offices and designate the combined office as secretary-treasurer. The treasurer may be a bank or any depository, and as such shall not be considered as an officer but as a function of the board of directors. In such case the secretary shall perform the usual accounting duties of the treasurer, excepting that the funds shall be deposited only as authorized by the board of directors. [Id.]

Art. 5750. Stock—Membership Certificates.—When a member of an association established without capital stock, has paid his membership fee in full, he shall receive a certificate of membership. No association shall issue stock to a member until it has been fully paid for. The promissory notes of the members may be accepted by the association as full or partial payment. The association shall hold the stock as security for the payment of the note, but such retention as security shall not affect the members' right to vote. Except for debts lawfully contracted between him and the association, no member shall be liable for the debts of the association to an amount exceeding the sum remaining unpaid on his membership fee or his subscription to the capital stock, including any unpaid balance on any promissory notes given in payment thereof. No stockholder of a co-operative association shall own more than one-twentieth of the issued common stock of the association; and an association, in its by-laws, may limit the amount of common stock which one member may own to any amount less than one-twentieth of the issued common stock. No member or stockholder shall be entitled to more than one vote. Any association organized with stock, under this law may issue preferred stock, with or without the right to vote. Such stock may be redeemable or retirable by the association on such terms and conditions as may be provided for by the Articles of Incorporation and printed on the face of the certificate. The by-laws shall prohibit the transfer of the common stock of the association to persons not engaged in the production of the agricultural products handled by the association, and such restrictions must be printed upon every certificate of stock subject thereto. The association may at any time except when the debts of the association exceed fifty per cent of the assets thereof, buy in or purchase its common stock at book value thereof as conclusively determined by the board of directors and pay for it in cash within one year thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 5751. Removal of officer or director.—Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the secretary of the association, together with a petition signed by ten per cent of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The removal shall be voted upon at the next regular or special meeting of the association, and by a vote of a majority of the members, the association may remove the officer or director and fill the vacancy. The director or officer against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of the charges previous to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present witnesses; and the person or persons bringing the charges against him shall have the same opportunity. In case the by-laws provide for election of directors by districts with primary elections in each district, then the petition for removal of a director must be signed by twenty per cent of the members residing in the district from which he was elected. The board of directors must call a special meeting of the members residing in that district to consider the removal of the director. By a vote of the majority of the members of that district, the director in question shall be removed from office. [Id.]

Art. 5752. Referendum.—Upon demand of one-third of the entire board of directors, any matter that has been approved or passed by the board must be referred to the entire membership or the stockholders for decision at the next special or regular meeting. A special meeting may be called for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 5753. Marketing contract.—The association and its members may make and execute marketing contracts, requiring the members to sell, for a period of time, not over ten years, all or any specified part of their agricultural products or specified commodities exclusively to or through the association or any facilities to be created by the association. The contract may provide that the association may sell or resell the products of its members, with or without taking title thereto; and pay over to its members the resale price, after deducting all necessary selling, overhead and other costs and expenses, including interest on preferred stock, not exceeding eight per cent per annum, and reserves for retiring the stock, if any, and other proper reserves; and interest not exceeding eight per cent per annum upon common stock. The by-laws and the marketing contract may fix, as liquidated damages, specific sums to be paid by the member or stockholder to the association upon the breach by him of any provisions of the marketing contract regarding the sale or delivery or withholding of products; and may further provide that the member will pay all costs, premiums for bonds, expenses and fees in case any action is brought upon the contract by the association; and any such provisions shall be valid and enforceable in the courts of this State. In the event of any breach or threatened breach of such marketing contract by a member, the association shall be entitled to an injunction to prevent the further breach of the contract and to a decree of specific performance thereof. Pending the adjudication of such an action and upon filing a verified complaint showing the breach or threatened breach, and upon filing a sufficient bond, the association shall be entitled to a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction against the member. [Id.]

Art. 5754. Purchasing business of others.—Whenever an association organized hereunder with preferred capital stock, shall purchase the stock or any property, or any interest in any property of any person, firm, or corporation or association, it may discharge the obligations so incurred, wholly or in part, by exchanging for the acquiring interest, shares of its preferred capital stock to an amount which at par value would equal a fair market value of the stock or interest so purchased, as determined by the board of directors. In that case the transfer to the association of the stock or interest purchased shall be equivalent to payment in cash for the shares of stock issued. [Id.]

Art. 5755. Annual reports.—Each association formed under this Act shall prepare and make out an annual report on forms furnished by the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses, containing the name of the association, its principal place of business and a general statement of its business operations during the fiscal year, showing the amount of capital stock paid up and the number of stockholders of a stock association or the number of members and amount of membership fees received, if a non-stock association; the total expenses of operation; the amount of its indebtedness, or liability, and its balance sheets. [Id.]

Art. 5756. Conflicting laws not to apply.—Any provision of law which is in conflict with this chapter shall not be construed as applying to the associations herein provided for. [Id.]

Art. 5757. Bond.—Each and all officers, employees and agents handling funds or property of the corporation created under the provisions of this chapter, or any property or funds of any person placed under the control of or in the possession of said corporation, shall be required to execute and deliver to the corporation a bond, for the benefit of all members of said corporation, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties and obligations of such person, and further conditioned that such person shall faithfully account for any and all funds, moneys and property coming into his or her hands or possession, by reason of such office or employment, and shall promptly remit to the person, or persons, entitled to receive the same, all moneys which may come into his possession by virtue of being such officer, employee or agent, and in case of sale or failure to sell any products under the care of and in the possession of such officer, employé or agent, that he shall promptly make a true and correct report of said sale, or in case of failure to sell, the reasons why said sale is not made. In case the officers and directors of any corporation authorized to be created under the provisions of this law shall fail to have all officers, employees and agents handling such funds or property, execute the bond provided for herein, each and all of said officers and directors shall be personally liable for all losses occasioned by such failure, and which might have been recovered on said bond. [Id.]

Art. 5758. Interest in other corporations or associations.—An association may organize, form, operate, own, control, have an interest in, own stock of, or be a member of any other corporation or corporations, with or without capital stock, and engaged in preserving, drying, pressing, canning, packing, storing, handling, shipping, utilizing, manufacturing, marketing or selling of the agricultural products handled by the association, or the by-products thereof. If such corporations are warehousing corporations, they may issue legal warehouse receipts to the association or to any other person and such legal warehouse receipts shall be considered as adequate collateral to the extent of the current value of the commodity represented thereby. In case such warehouse is licensed or licensed and bonded under the laws of this State or the United States, its warehouse receipts shall not be challenged or discriminated against because of ownership or control, wholly or in part, by the association. [Id.]

Art. 5759. Contracts and agreement with other associations.—Any association may, upon resolution adopted by its board of directors, enter into all necessary and proper contracts and agreements and make all necessary and proper stipulations, agreements and contracts and arrangements with any other co-operative corporation, association or associations, formed in this or any other State for the co-operative and more economical carrying on of its business, or any part or parts thereof. Any two or more associations may, by agreement between them, unite in employing and using or may separately employ and use the same methods, means and agencies for carrying on and conducting their respective businesses. [Id.]

Art. 5760. Associations heretofore organized.—Any corporation or association organized under previously existing statutes, may by a majority vote of its stockholders or members be brought under the provisions of this chapter by limiting its membership and adopting the other restrictions as provided herein. It shall make out in duplicate a statement signed and sworn to by its directors, upon forms supplied by the Secretary of State, to the effect that the corporation or association has by a majority vote of its stockholders or members decided to accept the benefits and be bound by the provisions of this chapter. Articles of Incorporation shall be filed as required in the eighth article of this chapter, except that they shall be signed by the members of the board of directors. The filing fee shall be the same as for filing an amendment to Articles of Incorporation. [Id.]

Art. 5761. Breach of contract or false reports.—Any person or persons or any corporation whose officers or employes knowingly induce or attempt to induce any member or stockholder of an association organized hereunder to breach his marketing contract with the association, or who maliciously and knowingly spread false reports about the finances or management thereof shall be liable to the association aggrieved thereby in a civil suit for damages suffered in three times the amount of actual damage proven for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 5762. Associations not in restraint of trade.—No association organized hereunder shall be deemed to be a combination in restraint of trade or an illegal monopoly; or an attempt to lessen competition or fix prices arbitrarily; nor shall the marketing contracts or agreements between the association and its members nor any agreements authorized in this chapter, be considered illegal or in restraint of trade. [Id.]

Art. 5763. Application of general laws.—The provisions of the general corporation laws of this State, and all powers and rights thereunder shall apply to the association organized hereunder, except when in conflict with the express provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5764. Fees.—Each association organized hereunder shall pay to the Commissioner an annual license fee of ten dollars but shall be exempt from all franchise or license taxes. For filing articles of incorporation, an association organized hereunder shall pay ten dollars, and for filing an amendment thereto, two dollars and fifty cents. [Id.]

TITLE 94

MILITIA

Chap.

1. General provisions.
2. Reserve militia.
3. National guard.
4. State naval militia.

CHAPTER ONE

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art.

5765. Active and reserve.
5766. Who are subject.
5767. Exemptions.
5768. Commander-in-chief.
5769. Expenditures.

Article 5765. [5764] Active and reserve.—The militia of this State shall be divided into two classes, the active and reserve militia. The active militia shall consist of the organized and uniformed military forces of this State, which shall be known as the Texas National Guard; the reserve militia shall consist of all those liable to service in the militia, but not serving in the Texas National Guard. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5766. [5765] Who are subject.—All able-bodied male citizens, and able-bodied males of foreign birth who have declared their intention to become citizens, who are residents of this State and between eighteen and forty-five years of age, and who are not exempted by the laws of the United States or of this State, shall constitute the militia and be subject to military duty. [Id.]

Art. 5767. [5766] Exemptions.—In addition to those exempted by the laws of the United States, the following persons shall be exempt from military duty in this State:

1. The Lieutenant-Governor and the heads of the several departments.
2. The judges and clerks of all courts of record.
3. The members and officers of both houses of the Legislature.
4. Each sheriff, district attorney, county attorney, county assessor, county collector, county treasurer, and county commissioner.
5. The mayor, aldermen, assessor and collector of incorporated cities and towns.
6. The officers and guards of State prisons, houses of correction, and the officers and instructors and attendants of other State institutions; keepers, attendants and assistants of poor houses; superintendents, nurses, and assistants of all hospitals.
7. The members of any regularly organized and paid fire or police department in any city or town, but no member of the active militia shall be relieved from duty because of his joining any such fire company or department.
8. All ministers of the gospel exclusively engaged in their calling; all teachers engaged in public institutions and public schools.
9. All persons who shall have served in the active militia of this State for the term of seven years, and have been honorably discharged therefrom.
10. Idiots, lunatics, vagabonds, confirmed drunkards, persons addicted to the use of narcotic drugs, and persons convicted of infamous crimes.
11. Any person who conscientiously scruples to bear arms; provided he shall pay an equivalent for personal service.
12. All such exempted persons, except those enumerated in subdivision 10, shall be liable to military duty in case of war, insurrection, invasion or imminent danger thereof. [Id.]

Art. 5768. [5767] Commander-in-chief.—The Governor by virtue of his office, shall be commander-in-chief of the military forces of this State, except such portions as may at times be in the service of the United States. Whenever the Governor is unable to perform the duties of commander-in-chief, the Adjutant General shall command the military forces of this State, except in cases where the Lieutenant-Governor, or the president of the Senate, under the laws of this State is required to perform the duties of Governor. [Id.]

Art. 5769. Expenditures.—All amounts expended from appropriations made for the military forces of this State shall be paid only on itemized accounts sworn to by the party expending the same and showing the time, purpose and for what said amount was expended and by whom, approved by both the Adjutant General and the Governor before their payment. The Comptroller shall not issue warrants upon the State Treasury for any moneys expended under this title until said itemized accounts have been filed in the Comptroller's office. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO

RESERVE MILITIA

Art.

5770. Military duty.
5771. Enrollment.
5772. Notice.
5773. Assessment rolls.
5774. Drafts.
5775. Drafts: report.
5776. Drafts: substitute.
5777. Civil officers' duty.
5778. Power of Governor.
5779. Muster.

Article 5770. [5768] Military duty.—The reserve militia shall not be subject to active military duty, except when called into the service of this State, or of the United States, in case of war, insurrection, invasion, or for the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, tumults and breaches of the peace, or to aid the civil officers in the execution of the law and the service of process, in which case, they or so many of them as the necessity requires, may be ordered out for actual service by draft or otherwise as the Governor may direct. The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted shall be mustered into the service for such period as may be required, and the Governor may assign them to existing organizations of the active militia, or organize them as the exigency of the occasion may require. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5771. [5769] Enrollment.—Whenever the Governor deems it necessary, he may order the county tax assessors or may designate other persons to make an enrollment of all persons liable to military duty, other than members of the active militia. Such enrollment shall state the name, residence, age, color and occupation of the persons enrolled. Enrolling officers may question under oath, which they are hereby authorized to administer, any person deemed liable to perform military duty, but who denies the same; and, if any person refuses to be sworn, the enrolling officer shall enroll his name in the same manner as though he had admitted his liability. Said enrolling officers shall, within such time as the Governor may require, prepare and file three copies of such enrollment, properly certifying that he has enrolled all persons residing in his county, who are liable to perform military duty, one copy to be filed in the office of the Adjutant General, one in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the enrollment was made, and one copy retained by the enrolling officer. Upon filing such lists the enrolling officer shall be paid out of the county treasury eight cents for each person so enrolled and notified as hereinafter set out. [Id.]

Art. 5772. [5770] Notice.—The enrolling officer shall at the time of making the enrollment, serve a notice of such enrollment upon each person enrolled, by delivering such notice to him, or leaving it with some person over fourteen years old at his place of residence, or by mailing such notice at the expense of the county to his last known place of residence or abode. All persons claiming exemption, must within ten days after receiving such notice, file a written verified statement of such exemption in the office of the county clerk. Such clerk shall thereupon, if such person be exempted according to law, mark the word "exempt" opposite his name; and the remainder of all thus enrolled and not thus found to be exempt shall constitute the militia of this State and be subject to military duty. Such clerk shall transmit a copy of such corrected list of enrollment to the Adjutant General within twenty days after the filing of the original list of enrollment for which he shall be allowed two cents for each name on such list, to be paid by the county. The officer highest in rank in the active militia, and the heads of the fire and police departments in each city or town, shall whenever an enrollment is ordered, file within ten days in the office of such county clerk a certified list of the names of all persons in the active militia of such county or in such department. [Id.]

Art. 5773. [5771] Assessment rolls.—Each county assessor shall allow persons appointed to make such enrollment, if persons other than the assessor be appointed, at all times to examine their assessment rolls and make copies thereof. All persons shall, upon the application of any person making such enrollment, give the name of and all other information concerning any person within their knowledge liable to be enrolled, under penalty of ten dollars for every concealment or false information, or refusal to give the information requested, to be recovered in the name of the State of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney in the justice court at Austin, or in the precinct of his residence with costs. The officer making the enrollment shall, within ten days, report to the Adjutant General all persons who fail or neglect to give information. [Id.]

Art. 5774. [5772] Drafts.—Whenever it shall be necessary to call out any portion of the reserve militia for active duty, the Governor may apportion the number by draft according to the population of the several counties of the State, or otherwise, as he shall direct. The Governor shall direct his order to the sheriff of each county from which any draft is required, setting forth the number of persons such county is to furnish. Upon the requisition of the Governor being received by the sheriff, he shall immediately personally notify the county clerk, who shall copy by name or number, from the corrected list of enrollment of such county on file in his office, all persons who are so returned as liable to perform military duty; such names or their corresponding numbers, shall be placed on slips of paper of the same size and appearance, as near as practicable, which slips so named or numbered, shall be placed in a box suitable for that purpose, and the number required to fill such draft or requisition shall be drawn therefrom, in the same manner provided by law for drawing jurors. All persons so drawn and liable to perform military duty shall be determined to be legally held to serve, in the manner and for the purpose and time specified in the requisition; and the sheriff shall notify the persons so drafted by registered letter, or personally in writing, at what time and place they shall appear, for which he shall receive expense of postage and five cents each to be paid by the county. [Id.]

Art. 5775. [5773] Drafts: report.—Every member of the reserve militia ordered out, or who volunteers, or is drafted, under the provisions of this law, who does not appear at the time and place so designated by the sheriff, or his commanding officer within twenty-four hours from such time, or furnish a substitute or who does not produce a sworn statement of physical disability from a physician in good standing of his inability to so appear, shall be deemed to be a deserter and dealt with as prescribed by law for deserters. [Id.]

Art. 5776. [5774] Drafts; substitute.—Any person in the reserve militia of this State, who has been drawn to perform military duty, may at any time, be exempt until again required in his turn to serve, by furnishing an acceptable substitute on or before the day fixed for his appearance; but if during any period of service, any man who is serving in the active militia as a substitute for another, becomes liable to service in his own person, he shall be taken for such service, and his place as substitute shall be supplied by the man in whose stead he was serving, or another substitute. [Id.]

Art. 5777. [5775] Civil officers' duty.—Any sheriff, or constable, county assessor or county clerk who neglects or refuses to perform any duty enjoined upon him by this law, in addition to criminal liability, shall be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars to be recovered against him or his bondsmen in the name of the State by suit instituted by a judge advocate or district or county attorney, in the proper court of Travis County, or the county of which such person is the sheriff, constable, assessor or clerk. [Id.]

Art. 5778. [5776] Power of Governor.—The Governor shall have power in the case of insurrection, invasion, tumult, riot or breach of peace, or imminent danger thereof, to order into the active service of this State any part of the militia that he may deem proper. When the militia of this State, or any part thereof, is called forth under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall order out for service the active militia, or such part thereof as may be necessary; and, if the number be insufficient, he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. During the absence of organizations of the militia in the service of the United States, their State designations shall not be given to new organizations. [Id.]

Art. 5779. [5777] Muster.—The portion of the reserve militia ordered out or accepted into the service, as indicated in Articles 5770 and 5774 of this chapter, shall be immediately mustered into service for such period as the Governor may direct, and shall be organized into troops, batteries, companies and such other organizations as may be necessary, which may be arranged in squadrons, battalions, regiments or corps, or assigned to organizations of the active militia already existing. The Governor is authorized to appoint the officers necessary to commence or complete, or to command any organization thus created. Such new organization shall be equipped, disciplined and governed according to the military laws and military regulations of this State. [Id.]

ORGANIZATION

Article 5780. [5778] Strength.—The Texas National Guard shall consist of the existing military organizations; and such others as may be organized hereafter, and such persons as are held to military duty under the laws of this State, or such persons as are exempt under said laws who may accept appointment or voluntarily enlist therein, or of such persons of the reserve militia as may be mustered therein, but at no time, except in case of war, insurrection, invasion, the prevention of invasion, the suppression of riot, or the aiding of the civil authorities in the execution of the laws of this State, shall the maximum strength thereof exceed seven thousand officers and enlisted men. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5781. [5779] Regulations.—The Governor shall prescribe such regulations as he may see fit for the organization of the Texas National Guard; and he shall, from time to time, as he may deem for the best interests of the service, change such regulations, which shall be in accordance with this chapter, and conform as near as practicable to the organization of the regular army of the United States. He may, at any time for cause deemed good and sufficient by him, muster out of the service or reorganize any portion of the Texas National Guard or the reserve militia, or discharge any officer or enlisted man thereof, and he shall have full control and authority over all matters touching the military forces of this State, its organization, equipment and discipline. [Id.]

Art. 5782. [5780] Publication.—The Governor shall make and publish regulations in accordance with existing military laws, for the government of the military forces of this State, which shall embrace all necessary orders and forms of general character for the performance of all duties incumbent on officers and men in the military service, including the rules for the government of courts martial; the existing regulations to remain in force until the Governor shall have published such regulations. The Governor shall, as he may see fit from time to time, create new regulations, or amend, modify, or repeal existing regulations. [Id.]

Art. 5783. [5781] Governor's staff.—The Governor shall have a staff consisting of the Adjutant General and twelve aides-de-camp. The Adjutant General shall have rank and be appointed as provided by this law; the twelve aides-de-camp shall have the rank of lieutenant-colonel while also serving, and shall be appointed by, and serve during the pleasure of the Governor. Three of the aides-de-camp shall be selected from the officers of the Texas National Guard below the grade of colonel, and nine shall be selected without restriction as to the source of selection; provided, further, that said aides-de-camp shall not be ineligible from holding any office of emolument, trust or honor within this State, nor shall said aides-de-camp be ineligible from serving as chairman or member of any committee of any political party or organization. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1911, p. 25.]

Art. 5784. [5782] Bodies corporate.—Whenever any troop, battery, company, signal corps or band is mustered into the active militia of this State by the authority of the Governor, such troop, battery, company, signal corps or band shall, from the date of such muster in, be deemed and be held in law a body corporate and politic, with power under its corporate name to take, purchase, own in fee simple, hold, transfer, mortgage, pledge and convey real or personal property to an amount in value, at the time of its acquisition, of two hundred thousand dollars (provided that the natural enhancement in value of any property properly acquired by any such company shall not affect the right of such company to hold or otherwise handle such property), and with like power under its corporate name to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, and to prosecute and defend in the courts of this State or elsewhere; to have and use a common seal of such device as it may adopt; to ordain, establish, alter or amend by-laws for the government and regulation of the company affairs not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State and of the United States, and the orders and regulations of the Governor; and generally to do and perform any and all things necessary and proper to be done in carrying out and perfecting the purpose of its organization, of which the officers, and in case of a band, the non-commissioned officers, shall be directors, the senior the president. [Acts 1907, p. 224; Acts 1911, p. 149.]

Art. 5785. [5783] Discipline.—The system of discipline and exercise of the active militia of this State shall conform generally to that of the army of the United States, as prescribed by the President, and to the provisions of the laws of the United States, except as otherwise provided by law, or by the regulations issued by the Governor. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5786. [5784] Prohibiting organization.—No body of men, other than the regularly organized militia of this State and the troops of the United States, shall associate themselves together as a military company or organization or parade in public with firearms in any city, or town of this State; provided that students in the educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction, and soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States, and Confederate veterans, may, with the consent of the Governor, drill and parade with firearms in public. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent parades by the active militia of any other State as hereinafter provided. [Id.]

ADJUTANT GENERAL

Art. 5787. [5785-6-7] Department.—The Adjutant General shall be the head of the Adjutant General's Department, and shall have the rank of brigadier general. He shall be biennially appointed for a term of two years by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, if in session. [Id.]

Art. 5788. [5788] Oath and bond.—The person appointed Adjutant General shall first enter into a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties payable to and to be approved by the Governor, which bond shall be in the sum of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of said office. [Id.]

Art. 5789. [5789] Seal.—The device upon the seal of the Adjutant General shall consist of a star of five points with the words, "Office of Adjutant General, State of Texas," around the margin. [Id.]

Art. 5790. [5790] Powers.—The Adjutant General shall be in control of the military department of this State and subordinate only to the Governor in matters pertaining to said department, or the military forces of this State; and he shall perform such duties as the Governor may from time to time entrust to him, relative to the military commissions, the military forces, the military stores and supplies, or to other matters respecting military affairs of this State; and he shall conduct the business of the department in such manner as the Governor shall direct. He shall have the custody and charge of all books, records, papers, furniture, fixtures and other property relating to his department; and shall perform as near as practicable, such duties as pertain to the chief of staff, the military secretary and other chiefs of staff departments, under the regulations and customs of the United States Army. [Id.]

Art. 5791. [5791] Duties.—The Adjutant General shall, from time to time, define and prescribe the kind and amount of supplies to be purchased for the military forces of this State, and the duties and powers respecting such purchases; and shall prescribe general regulations for the transportation of the articles of supply from the places of purchase to the several camps, stations of companies, or other necessary places for the safe-keeping of such articles, and for the distribution of an adequate and timely supply of the same to the regimental quartermasters, and to such other officers as may, by virtue of such regulations, be entrusted with the same; and shall fix and make reasonable allowance for the store rent and storage necessary for the safe-keeping of all military stores and supplies; and shall control and supervise the transportation of troops, munitions of war, equipment, military property and stores throughout the State. [Id.]

Art. 5792. [5792] Bids.—The Adjutant General may prescribe rules and regulations to be observed in the preparation and submission and opening of bids for contracts under his department; and at his discretion may require any bid to be accompanied by a good bond in such penal sum as he deems advisable, conditioned that the bidder will enter into a contract agreeable to the terms of his bid, if the same be awarded to him, within sixty days from the date of the opening of the bids, or otherwise pay the penalty. No bid shall be withdrawn by the bidder within said period of sixty days. [Id.]

Art. 5793. [5793] Regulations and duties.—The Adjutant General shall prescribe regulations not inconsistent with law for the government of his department and the custody, use and preservation of the records and property appertaining to it whether belonging to this or the United States, such regulations to be operative and in force when promulgated in the form of general orders, circulars or letters of instruction and shall:

1. Superintend the preparation of such returns and reports as may be required by the laws of the United States from this State.

2. Keep a register of all officers of the militia of Texas, and keep in his office all records and papers required to be kept and filed therein.

3. Have printed at the expense of the State, when necessary, the military law and regulations of Texas, and distributed to the commissioned officers, sheriffs, clerks and assessors of the counties of Texas at the rate of one copy to each.

4. Issue to each commissioned officer and headquarters one copy of the necessary text books, and of such annual reports concerning the militia as the Governor may direct.

5. Cause to be prepared and issued all necessary blank books, blanks, forms and notices required to carry into full effect the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 5794. [5793-94] Report to Governor.—He shall report annually to the Governor the following information to be laid before the Legislature:

1. A statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since his last annual report.

2. An account of all arms, ammunition, and other military property belonging to this State, or in possession of this State, from what source received, to whom issued, and its present condition, so far as he may be informed.

3. The number, condition and organization of the Texas National Guard and reserve militia.

4. Any suggestions which he may deem of importance to the military interests and conditions of this State, and the perfection of its military organization. [Id.]

Art. 5795. [5795-6] Assistants.—The Adjutant General shall have one assistant who shall fill the position of chief clerk, with the rank of colonel, one assistant quartermaster general, with the rank of colonel. All necessary clerks and employees may be employed and laborers hired by the Adjutant General as may be required to carry on the operations of his department. [Id.]

Art. 5796. [5797-8] Assistant Adjutant General.—The Governor shall appoint the Assistant Adjutant General on the recommendation of the Adjutant General. He shall remain in office during the pleasure of the Governor, and shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas National Guard. He shall before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas National Guard, which oath shall be deposited in the office of the Adjutant General. He shall aid the Adjutant General by the performance of such duties as may be assigned him, and shall, in case of absence or inability of the Adjutant General to act, perform all such portions of the duties of Adjutant General as the latter may expressly delegate to him, and shall on application and without compensation therefor, administer oaths of office to officers of the active militia, and to employes of the Adjutant General's office required to be taken on their appointment or promotion. [Id.]

Art. 5797. [5799] To issue certificates.—On the muster-in to the active militia of this State of any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band, the Ad-

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Adjutant General shall issue to such organization a certificate to the effect that such organization has been duly organized in accordance with the laws and regulations of the militia service of this State, and that such organization is entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred by such laws and regulations. Such certificate shall be in such form as the Adjutant General may prescribe. Such certificate shall be evidence in all the courts of this State that the organization therein named is duly incorporated. [Id.]

Art. 5798. [5800] To purchase stores.—The Adjutant General, after the appropriations are made for that purpose, may purchase and keep ready for use, or issue to the military forces of this State, as the best interests of the service may require, such amount and kind of quartermasters, ordnance, subsistence, medical, signal, engineers, and all other military stores and supplies as shall be necessary; he shall see that all military stores and supplies both the property of this State and of the United States are properly cared for and kept in good order, ready for use; and all accounts which may accrue against this State under the provisions of this chapter shall, if correct, be certified and approved by the Adjutant General and paid out of the State Treasury as other claims are paid. Any military stores belonging to this State which may become unserviceable, obsolete, or unfit for further use, may be disposed of in such manner as the Governor or Adjutant General may prescribe by regulations or order; and the Adjutant General may sell or destroy as he may see fit for the best interests of the service, any unserviceable, or obsolete, or unsuitable military stores belonging to this State, the sums realized from the sale thereof to be turned into the State Treasury, or he may in his discretion, exchange such stores for such other military stores as the interest of the service may require, for the use of the active militia of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5798a. State Service Officer.—Sec. 1. There is hereby created the office of State Service Officer, to be attached to the Adjutant General's Department of the State of Texas, who shall receive a salary of Thirty Six Hundred ($3,600.00) Dollars per annum to be paid in equal monthly installments. He shall likewise be allowed all necessary expenses for the conduct of his office and such as may be incurred in traveling in the state for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, such expense to be paid by warrants, approved by the Adjutant General.

Sec. 2. As soon as practicable after the taking effect of this Act, the Governor shall appoint some suitable person to the office of State Service Officer, with the advice and consent of the Senate, to serve under the Adjutant General, who shall be experienced in the regulations and departmental rulings applicable to cases before and rulings of the United States Veterans' Bureau, and who shall have served in the military or naval forces of the United States for some time during the period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, and who shall have been honorably discharged therefrom, who shall serve until August 31, 1927, and who shall be appointed for a term of two years thereafter.

Sec. 3. That the sum of Three Thousand Five Hundred Seventy-Five ($3,575.00) Dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated out of any monies in the State Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to cover the salary of the State Service Officer, traveling and incidental expenses, for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1927.

Sec. 4. The duties of such officer shall be to aid all residents of the State of Texas who served in the Military or Naval Forces of the United States of America during the late World War, their relatives, beneficiaries and dependents to receive from the United States any and all compensation, hospitalization, insurance or other aid or benefit to which they may be entitled under existing laws of the United States, or such as may hereafter be enacted. It shall also be his duty to aid the United States Government to defeat all unjust claims for aid or benefits therefrom. No fee, either directly or indirectly, for any service rendered by such Service Officer shall be charged any applicant nor shall said Service Officer permit the payment of any fee by applicant to any third person for any services that might be rendered by said Service Officer.

Sec. 5. The said officer shall have a seal of office, shall be authorized to administer oath to any person or persons who may desire to swear to the correctness of any statement, or statements, made in connection with any application for compensation, hospitalization, insurance, or other aid or benefit, to which such person or persons, or any other person or persons on whose behalf the affidavits are made may be entitled under existing laws of the United States, or such as may be hereafter enacted; and he shall likewise be authorized and empowered to certify to the correctness of any document, or documents, which may be submitted in connection with any such application or applications. The Service Officer shall be given official entry into the records of the eleemosynary and penal institutions of Texas for the purpose of determining the status of any inmate confined therein as regards compensation, hospitalization, insurance or other aid or benefit and proper decision thereto. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 210, ch. 141.]

ASSISTANT QUARTERMASTER GENERAL

Art. 5799. [5801] Assistant.—The Assistant Quartermaster General shall be appointed by the Governor on the recommendation of the Adjutant General, and shall remain in office during the pleasure of the Governor. He shall be entitled to all the rights, privileges and immunities granted officers of like rank in the Texas National Guard. He shall first enter into bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the Governor, and conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office and disburse and account for all moneys, and to faithfully keep, issue and [and] account for all military stores, supplies and other property of this State, or of the United States, coming into his possession or entrusted to his care for the use of the military forces of this State. He shall take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed for officers of the Texas National Guard. He shall, under the immediate direction of the Adjutant General, perform as near as may be, the duties pertaining to the chiefs of the quartermaster, subsistence, and ordnance department under the regulations and customs of the United States army. Upon assuming his duties he shall receive to the Adjutant General for all military property of whatever kind belonging to this State, or to the United States, which may be on hand and intended for the use of or issued to the military forces of this State, and receipt to the Adjutant General for such other military property as may be received from the United States or other sources. He shall be responsible for all quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies belonging to this State, or which may be issued to this State by the United States, except such of the above mentioned stores and supplies as may be issued to the officers and organizations of the military forces of this State in accordance with the regulations in force. He shall issue and receive such quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal, and all other military stores and supplies as the Governor or the Adjutant General may direct; attend to the care, preservation, safe-keeping, and repairing of the arms, ordnance, accoutrements, equipments and all other military property belonging to this State, or issued to this State by the United States, for the purpose of arming and equipping the military forces of this State; prepare such returns of all quartermasters, subsistence, ordnance, medical, signal and other military stores and supplies that have been issued to this State by the United States at the times and in the manner required by the Secretary of War, and render semi-annually to the Adjutant General returns of all military stores and supplies on hand or issued, in such manner as the Adjutant General may require. He shall render to the Adjutant General annually, or oftener, if required, a statement of all moneys received or disbursed by him since last report. He shall perform the duties of the quartermaster, commissary, and paymaster of the Ranger force, and such other duties as the Governor or the Adjutant General may require of him. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS

Art. 5800. [5802] Term.—All officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor, and shall hold their positions until they shall have reached the age of sixty-four years, unless sooner retired by reason of resignations, disability or for cause to be determined by a court martial or an efficiency board legally convened for that purpose. [Acts 1905, p. 167; Acts 1917, 1st C. S. p. 3.]

Art. 5801. [5803] Commissions.—All commissions in the military service of this State shall be in the name and by authority of the State of Texas, sealed with the State seal, signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State, and recorded by the Adjutant General in a record book kept in his office for that purpose. No fee for issuing such commissions shall be charged, or collected. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5802. [5804] Qualifications.—Staff officers, including officers of the pay, inspection, subsistence and medical departments, shall have had previous military experience. Vacancies among said officers shall be filled by the appointment from the officers of the militia of the State of Texas. All other officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be selected from the following classes: officers and enlisted men of the National Guard; officers on the reserve or unassigned list of the National Guard; officers, active or retired, and former officers of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps; graduates of the United States Military and Naval Academies, and graduates of schools, colleges and universities where military science is taught under the supervision of an officer of the Regular Army; for the technical branches and staff corps or departments, such other civilians as may be especially qualified for duty therein. [Acts 1905, p. 167; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 3.]

Art. 5803. Other qualifications.—All officers of the National Guard of Texas shall be citizens of the United States, over twenty-one and under sixty-four years of age, and shall take and subscribe the official oath, and shall have successfully passed the physical examination as prescribed by the laws of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 5804. [5805] Examination.—Before receiving a commission consequent upon an original appointment or before commissioned to a higher grade as a result of promotion, each officer must pass a satisfactory examination before a board as to his knowledge of military affairs and general knowledge and fitness for the service. No one failing to pass such examination shall be eligible for an office in the militia of this State, or for promotion, for the period of one year from the date of such failure. Judge advocates, medical officers, and veterinary surgeons shall be examined as to their general and professional knowledge and fitness for such service only. The following are exempt from examination: General officers, chaplains and enlisted men placed on the retired list as brevet second lieutenants. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5805. [5806] Boards of examiners.—Boards of examination under the preceding article shall be appointed by the Governor. Such boards shall consist of not less than three officers, and shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court martial. When returns of appointments are received by a board, the persons appointed shall by it be ordered before it for examination, and the result of the examination, with all papers in the case, shall be forwarded to the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5806. [5807] Oath.—Every officer duly commissioned shall, within ten days after his commission is tendered him, or within ten days after he shall have been notified personally or by mail that the same is held in readiness for him by a superior officer, take and subscribe the official oath. Such oath shall be taken and subscribed before an officer authorized to administer an oath, or some general or field officer or an officer who shall hold the assimilated grade of a field officer, who has taken the oath himself, and who is hereby authorized to administer the same. In case of neglect or refusal to take and subscribe such oath within the time mentioned such commission shall be canceled by the Governor, and a new appointment shall be made. Such oath of office shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5807. [5808] Brevet commissions.—The Governor may, upon the recommendation of their commanding officers, confer brevet commissions of a grade higher than the ordinary or brevet commissions ever held by them, upon the officers of the military service of this State for gallant conduct, or meritorious service of not less than twenty-five years. He may also confer upon officers in active service in the military service of this State, who have previously served in the forces of the United States in time of war, brevet commissions of a grade equal to the highest grade in which they previously served. Such commissions shall carry with them only such privileges or rights as are allowed in like cases in the military service of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 5808. [5809] Supernumerary list.—Officers who shall be rendered surplus by reduction or disbandment of organizations, or in any manner provided by this law, shall at the discretion of the Governor, be withdrawn from active service and placed upon the supernumerary list. The Governor may detail supernumerary officers for active duty, in which case they shall rank in their grade from the date of such detail, and he may relieve them from such duty and return them to the supernumerary list at his discretion.

Art. 5809. [5810] Retirement.—Any officer of the active militia who has reached the age of sixty-four years may be placed upon the retired list by the Governor. Any officer who shall have served as an officer in the same grade in the military service of this State for the continuous period of eight years, or as an officer in the military service of this State continuously for ten years, or as an officer in the military service of this State for twelve years or as an officer and enlisted man in the military service of this State for eighteen years may, upon his own request, be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command by the Governor. Any officer who becomes disabled, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be withdrawn from active service and placed on the retired list by the Governor. Any officer who becomes unfit or incompetent, and thereby incapable of performing the duties of his office, shall be discharged upon the recommendation of his commanding officer, or the recommendation of an inspecting officer. Such retirement or discharge shall be by order of the Governor, and in either case, shall be subject to the provisions of this article. Before making such order the Governor shall, at his discretion, appoint a board of not less than five commissioned officers, one of whom shall be a surgeon, whose duty it shall be to determine the facts as to the nature and cause of incapacity of such officer as appears disabled or unfit, or incompetent from any cause, to perform military service, and whose case shall be referred to it. No officer whose grade or promotion would be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Such board is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, shall report such fact to the Governor, stating cause of incapacity, whether from disability, unfitness, or incompetency, and if he approves such finding such officer shall be placed on the retired list or discharged as herein provided. The members of the board shall first be sworn to honestly and impartially perform their duties as members of such board. No officer shall be placed upon the retired list, or discharged by the action of such board, if appointed by the Governor, without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if upon notice he shall demand it, and the Governor in his discretion shall think proper to appoint such board. No case need be referred for the action of such board, under this article, unless the officer designated to be placed on the retired list, or discharged shall, within twenty days after being notified that he will be so retired or discharged, serve on the Adjutant General a written notice that he demands a hearing and examination before such board, and the Governor approve such demand. The Governor may withdraw from active service and command and place upon the retired list any officer who has been twenty-five years in the military service of this State, on the recommendation of the commanding officer of the brigade or division. Vacancies created by the operations of this article shall be filled in the same manner as other vacancies. [Id.]

Art. 5810. [5811] Board to examine officers.—The Governor may whenever he may deem that the good of the service requires it, order any officer before a board of examination, to consist of not less than three nor more than five officers above the grade of captain, which is hereby invested with the powers of courts of inquiry and courts martial, and such board shall examine into the moral character, capacity, and general fitness for the service of such officer, and record and return the testimony taken and a record of its proceedings. If the findings of such board be unfavorable to such officer and be approved by the Governor, he shall be discharged from the service. No officer whose grade or promotion would in any way be affected by the decision of such board, in any case that may come before it, shall participate in the examination or decision of the board in such case. Failure to appear when ordered before a board constituted under this article shall be sufficient ground for a finding by such board that the officer ordered to appear be discharged. [Id.]

Art. 5811. [5812] Bond of officers.—When required to do so by the Governor, any officer of the active militia of this State shall give good and sufficient bond in such sum as the Adjutant General may direct, payable to the Governor conditioned faithfully to discharge the duties of his office, and faithfully to expend all public money of this State and account for the same, and to account for and safely keep all public property of this State or of the United States issued and intended for the use of the military forces of this State, which he may receive from time to time, and to promptly turn over the same to whomsoever the Governor may direct. Such bond shall be in such sum as prescribed by the Adjutant General, and shall be approved by him and filed in his office; and such bond shall not apply to the reasonable wear and tear of arms, equipments, and other military supplies, incident to the military service. The commanding officer of every troop, battery, company, or signal corps and the chief musician of every band mustered into the military service of this State shall file such bond in the office of the Adjutant General, before the commission of such officer shall be issued for the use of his organization. When required to do so by the Governor, any noncommissioned officer or enlisted man of the military forces of this State shall make and file the bond as provided by this article. Such bond shall provide for the payment of a reasonable attorney's fee, not to exceed ten per cent, nor be less than ten dollars. [Id.]

Art. 5812. [5813] Records admissible.—Copies of all bonds and other papers filed in the office of the Adjutant General, in accordance with the provisions of any law of this State, certified under the hand and seal of office of the Adjutant General, shall be admitted in evidence in all the courts of this State, in the same manner and with like effect as the original would be if duly proven. [Id.]

Art. 5813. [5814] Pay deductions.—The commanding officer of any troop, battery, company, signal corps or band is hereby authorized to deduct from any pay for military service due any officer or enlisted man of his organization such amount as such officer or enlisted man may owe his organization for dues and fines, as provided by the by-laws of such organization. [Id.]

Art. 5814. [5815] Company funds.—The commanding officer of each company shall be the custodian of the company fund, and shall receive, safely keep, and properly disburse, as may be required by the Governor, all money that may be entrusted to his care, and to render on June 30 and December 31 of each year, to the Adjutant General, an itemized statement of all money by him received and disbursed for the preceding six months. [Id.]

Art. 5815. [5816] Absence of commander.—The duties assigned to an officer by title in this chapter shall devolve in case of absence or disability to command of the officer named, upon the line officer next in rank, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5816. [5817] Absence of men.—The officer ordering any military duty may excuse any officer or enlisted man for absence therefrom upon good and sufficient grounds. [Id.]

Art. 5817. [5818] To furnish arms, etc.—Every commissioned officer shall provide himself with the arms, uniforms, and equipments prescribed and approved by the Governor. [Id.]

Art. 5818. [5819] Examination exemption.—Any person who graduates from any college or school of this State, wherein there is a prescribed course of military instruction under the supervision of an officer of the United States army, or any officer of the active militia of this State shall, if he applies for appointment as a commissioned officer in the active militia of this State, in the grade of second lieutenant, within two years after graduation, be exempt from examination in all military subjects, except the militia law of this State, and examination as to personal qualifications and physical condition. In no case shall such graduate be drafted to serve in any capacity other than that of commissioned officer; provided, that when an officer of the active militia of this State is a military instructor, the Adjutant General shall prescribe the course of military instruction to be given, and when such colleges or schools do not follow the course of instructions so prescribed, the graduates thereof shall not be entitled to the exemptions and privileges specified in this article. [Id.]

NON-COMMISSIONED OFFICERS AND ENLISTED MEN

Art. 5819. [5820] Enlistment.—Any male citizen of the United States, or any male who has declared his intention to become such citizen, who is a resident of this State, if more than eighteen or less than forty-five years of age, able-bodied, free of disease, and of good character and temperate habits, may voluntarily enlist in the active militia of this State; provided, persons not within such ages may enlist on the written authority of the Adjutant General. [Id.]

Art. 5820. [5821] Three year enlistment.—All enlistments in the active militia of this State shall be for the term of three years. No soldier shall be again enlisted in the active militia of this State whose service during his last preceding term of enlistment has not been honest and faithful. [Id.]

Art. 5821. [5822] Oath.—Every person who enlists or reenlists in the active militia of this State shall sign and make oath to an enlistment paper, which shall be filed in the office of the Adjutant General. Such oath may also be taken and subscribed to before a field officer, or the commanding officer of a signal corps, troop, battery or company, who are hereby authorized to administer such oaths. [Id.]

Art. 5822. [5830] Administering oaths.—No civil or military officer shall be entitled to charge or receive any fee or compensation for administering or certifying any oath administered or certified under any provision of this title. [Id.]

Art. 5823. [5823] Disqualifications.—No minor shall be enlisted without the written consent of his parents or guardian. One who has been expelled or dishonorably discharged from military service of this State or of the United States shall not be eligible for enlistment or re-enlistment, unless he produce the written consent to such enlistment of the commanding officer of the organization from which he was expelled or dishonorably discharged, and of the commanding officer who approved such expulsion, or issued such dishonorable discharge. [Id.]

Art. 5824. Federal laws applicable.—The terms of and requirements for enlistments and the qualifications of enlisted men in the National Guard shall be that prescribed by the laws of the United States. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 3.]

Art. 5825. [5824] Officers, how appointed.—Commanding officers of regiments and of battalions and squadrons not part of regiments shall appoint and warrant the non-commissioned staff officers of their respective regiments, battalions, or squadrons; and they shall, in their discretion, warrant the non-commissioned officers of the troops, batteries and companies of their respective regiments, battalions and squadrons from the members thereof, upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troops, batteries and companies, respectively. In troops, batteries and companies not a part of a regiment, battalion or squadron, and in signal and hospital corps, the non-commissioned officers shall be warranted by the commanding officer of the brigade or division, in his discretion, to which such organization may be attached, from the members of such organization upon the written nomination of the commanding officer of the troop, battery, company, signal or hospital corps. To be eligible for appointment as sergeant, first class of the hospital corps, a candidate must be a registered pharmacist. A sergeant of the hospital corps must be appointed from the hospital corps. The officer warranting a non-commissioned officer shall have power to reduce to the ranks for good and sufficient reasons the non-commissioned officers herein named. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5826. [5825] Re-enlistments.—Men who have been discharged by reason of disbandment may be re-enlisted, and shall then receive credit for the period served at the time of such disbandment. A man discharged from [for] physical disabilities shall, if such disability cease, and he again enlists, or a man discharged upon his own request shall, if he again enlists, receive credit for the period served prior to such discharge. [Id.]

Art. 5827. [5826] Second lieutenants.—The Governor may appoint and commission enlisted men, who have served well and faithfully in the active militia of this State for a period of not less than twenty-five years, without examination, second lieutenants by brevet; provided, such enlisted men, so appointed and commissioned, shall be immediately placed on the retired list. [Id.]

Art. 5828. [5827] Physical examination.—No applicant for appointment or enlistment in the active militia of this State will be commissioned or enlisted without first passing a satisfactory physical examination. [Id.]

Art. 5829. [5828] Assignment of pay.—No assignment of pay by any officer or an enlisted man shall be valid, except as otherwise provided by the Governor. [Id.]

SERVICE AND DUTIES

Art. 5830. [5831] Governor may call.—When an invasion of, or an insurrection in, this State is made or threatened, or when the Governor may deem it necessary for the enforcement of the laws of this State, he shall call forth the active militia or any part thereof, to repel, suppress, or enforce the same, and if the number available is insufficient he shall order out such part of the reserve militia as he may deem necessary. [Id.]

Art. 5831. [5832] Impending riot.—When there is in any county, city or town in this State tumult, riot or body of men acting together by force with intent to commit a felony, or breach of the peace, or to do violence to person or property, or by force to break or resist the laws of this State, or when such tumult[,] riot, mob or other unlawful act or violence is threatened and that fact is made to appear to the Governor, he may issue his order to any commander of a division, brigade, regiment, squadron, battalion, troop, battery or company of the active militia of this State to appear at the time and place directed, to aid the civil authorities to suppress or prevent such violence and in executing the laws; provided, whenever the necessity for military aid in preventing or suppressing such violence and in executing the law is immediate and urgent, and when it is impracticable to furnish such information to the Governor in time to secure military aid by his order, the district judge of the judicial district in which the disturbance occurs, or the sheriff of such county, or the mayor of such city, or town, may call in writing for aid upon the commanding officer of the active militia stationed therein, or adjacent thereto; and the civil officer making the call shall at once notify the Governor of his action. [Id.]

Art. 5832. [5833] Mobilization order.—The officer to whom the order of the Governor, or the call of the civil authority, is directed shall, upon its receipt, forthwith order his command, or such portion thereof as may be ordered or called for, to parade at the time and place appointed, and shall immediately notify the Governor of his action. [Id.]

Art. 5833. [5834] Commanding officer's duty.—When such troops have appeared at the appointed place, the commanding officer thereof shall obey and execute such general instructions, which shall be in writing, if practicable, otherwise verbal instructions given in the presence of two or more credible witnesses, as he may there and then receive from the civil authorities charged by law with the suppression of riot, or tumult or the preservation of the public peace, but such commanding officer shall exercise his discretion as to the proper method of practically accomplishing the instructions received; the kind and extent of force to be used, and the particular means to be employed to accomplish the object specified by the civil authority shall be left solely to such commanding officer. [Id.]

Art. 5834. [5835] Active militia.—The Governor may order the active militia, or any part thereof, to assist the civil authorities in guarding prisoners, or in conveying prisoners from and to any point in this State, or discharging other duties in connection with the execution of the law as the public interest or safety at any time may require. [Id.]

Art. 5835. [5836] Sale of arms.—Whenever any part of the active militia of this State is on active duty pursuant to the order of the Governor, or call of civil authority, to aid in the enforcement of the law, the commanding officer of such troops may order the closing of any place where arms, ammunition, dynamite or other explosives are sold, and forbid the sale, barter, loan or gift of any said article so long as any of the troops remain on duty in such place, or in the vicinity where such place may be located. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 5836. [5837] Regular training.—Officers and enlisted men of each troop, battery, and company of the active militia of this State shall assemble for and undergo drill and instruction at company, battalion, or regimental armories (troop, squadron, or battery armories for cavalry or field artillery) or rendezvous or for target practice, not less than twenty-four times during each calendar year preceding the annual allotment of funds under Section 1661 Revised Civil Statutes of the United States as amended. During the same period there shall be at least one inspection of each troop, battery, and company by an officer of the active militia of this State, or by an officer of the regular army of the United States, at such times as the Governor may direct. In addition to such drills and parades, the commanding officer of any organization may require the officers and enlisted men of his command to meet for parade, drill or instruction at such times and places as he may appoint. [Id.]

Art. 5837. [5838] Practice marches, etc.—Each troop, battery or company of the active militia of this State, not especially excused by the Governor, will be required to participate for at least five consecutive days annually in practice marches or camps of instruction, under such regulations as the Governor may prescribe, and under such instructors as he may appoint. [Id.]

Art. 5837a. President's call of National Guard.—The State of Texas recognizes the right of the President of the United States to call into the military service of the United States, the Texas National Guard and Texas National Guard Reserve for service within or without the United States, and when Congress shall have authorized the use of the armed land forces of the United States for any purpose requiring the use of troops in excess of those of the Regular Army, the right and power of the President of the United States is recognized under such regulations as he may prescribe, to draft the military service of the United States to serve therein for the period of the war or emergency unless sooner discharged, the Texas National Guard and the Texas National Guard Reserve. On the termination of the emergency all persons so called or drafted who shall be discharged from the army shall resume their membership in Texas National Guard and in the Texas National Guard Reserve, and shall continue to serve until the dates upon which their commissions or enlistments entered into prior to the call or draft, would have expired if uninterrupted, unless sooner discharged. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 262, ch. 183, § 2.]

COMPENSATION AND PRIVILEGES

Art. 5838. [5839] Active militia service.—The military forces of this State when called into active service of this State in time of war, insurrection, invasion, or imminent danger thereof, or the prevention of invasion, shall during their time of service, be entitled to the same pay, rations, and allowances for clothing as is now or may hereafter be established by the laws for the army of the United States. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5839. [5840] Enumeration.—When the military forces of this State, or any part thereof, are called into active service under the fifth, sixth, seventh or eighth articles, officers shall, during their term of service, receive the same pay as now or may be established by law for the army of the United States, and enlisted men shall be paid for such time per day as follows: Chief musician of cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineers, three dollars; first class sergeants of signal corps, two dollars and seventy-five cents, battalion sergeants major of engineers, battalion quartermaster sergeants of engineers, sergeants major of artillery senior grade, first sergeant of engineers, company quartermaster sergeants of engineers, sergeants of engineers, sergeants of signal corps, regimental quartermaster sergeants, regimental commissary sergeants, and regimental sergeants, two dollars and fifty cents; sergeants major of artillery, junior grade, first sergeants of infantry, cavalry and artillery, sergeants of hospital corps, drum majors, sergeant major of squadron and battalion, color sergeants, chief trumpeters of cavalry, artillery, infantry and engineers, two dollars and twenty-five cents; corporals of engineers, and signal corps, cooks of engineers and signal corps, sergeants and cooks of infantry, cavalry, artillery and bands, mechanics of coast artillery, stable sergeants of field artillery, privates of hospital corps, company quartermaster sergeants of cavalry, artillery and infantry, two dollars; first class privates of engineer and signal corps, corporals of cavalry, artillery, infantry and bands, artificers of field artillery and infantry, farriers, blacksmiths, saddlers and waggoners of cavalry, one dollar and seventy-five cents; privates of cavalry, artillery, infantry, signal corps and bands, second class privates of engineers, musicians of artillery, infantry and engineers, trumpeters cavalry, one dollar and fifty cents. [Id.]

Art. 5840. [5841] Tax exemptions.—All officers and enlisted men of the active militia of this State, who comply with their military duties as prescribed by this chapter, shall be entitled to exemption from the payment of all poll taxes, except the poll tax prescribed by the Constitution for the support of the public schools; exemption from the payment of any road or street tax, and from any road duty whatsoever under the laws of this State, and exemption from jury service or duty of every character and description. [Id.]

Art. 5841. [5842] Poll tax exemptions.—To entitle any troop, battery, company, signal corps, or band of the active militia of this State to the exemption from the payment of poll taxes as specified in the preceding article, the commanding officer of such organization shall, between the first days of January and April of each year, file with the assessor of taxes for his county a list of all members of his command who have discharged the military duties required of them for the preceding year, and who have been present for at least twenty-four drills or parades, or have been excused for non-attendance thereof by reason of illness or other necessary cause; such list shall be certified to by such commanding officer, and the persons whose names appear on such list, shall not be assessed for any poll taxes whatever, other than the poll tax of one dollar prescribed by the Constitution for the support of public schools for the current year; and each assessor with whom such lists are filed shall note the exemptions on his assessment roll as set forth in such lists, and furnish such information to all concerned as may be necessary in carrying out the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 5842. [5843] Road and jury exemptions.—To entitle any troop, battery, company, signal corps or band of the active militia of this State to exemption from the payment of road or street taxes, jury service or duty, and road duty as specified in Article 5840 of this chapter, the commanding officer of such organization shall, between the first and thirty-first days of January of each year, file lists similar to that set forth in the preceding article, certified to him, one copy with clerk of the district court of his county and one copy with the clerk of the county court of his county; and the names appearing on such lists shall thereafter be exempt from jury service or duty of every character and description, from the performance of any road duty; and from the payment of any road or street tax in such county for the current year. County clerks shall furnish information of those so exempt to the proper road overseers and to all others concerned. [Id.]

Art. 5843. [5844] Staff officers exempt.—To entitle any general, field or staff officer of the active militia of this State to said exemptions as set forth in this chapter, such officer shall between the first days of January and April of each year, file with the assessor of taxes for his county his certificate to the effect that he is an officer of the active militia of this State in good standing, and that he has faithfully discharged all the military duties required of him during the preceding year, and, on filing the certificate as herein required, such officer shall not be assessed for any poll tax whatever other than the poll tax of one dollar prescribed by the Constitution for the support of public schools for the current year; and such officer shall file similar certificates between the first and thirty-first days of January of each year, with the district and county clerks of his county, and on filing such certificates, shall thereafter be exempt from jury service or duty of every character and description, from the performance of any road duty and from the payment of any road or street tax in such county for the current year. [Id.]

Art. 5844. [5845] Non-commissioned officers exempt.—To entitle any non-commissioned staff officer, member of the engineer or hospital corps, or any other enlisted man of the active militia of this State not belonging to the regular organization, to the exemptions as set forth in the fourth preceding article, such non-commissioned officer or soldier shall prepare and file affidavits similar to the certificate provided in the preceding article for officers, with the assessor, district and county clerks of his county; such affidavits shall be filed during the same period and in the same manner as set forth above for officers. On filing such affidavits, such non-commissioned officer or soldier shall be entitled to the same exemptions in the same manner as provided for such officers. [Id.]

Art. 5845. [5846] Disabled men.—Every member of the military forces of this State who shall be wounded or disabled while in the service of this State, in case of riot, tumult, breach of the peace, resistance to process, invasion, insurrection or imminent danger thereof, or whenever called upon in aid of the civil authorities, shall be taken care of and provided for at the expense of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5846. [5847] Transportation, etc.—The State shall make suitable provision for the pay, transportation, subsistence and quarters of all troops of this State who may attend at any annual encampment, or when called into active service of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5847. [5848] Exempt from arrest.—No persons belonging to the active militia of this State shall be arrested on any civil process while going on duty or returning from any place at which he may be required to attend for military duty, except in cases of treason, felony or breach of the peace. [Id.]

ARMS, EQUIPMENT, ETC.

Art. 5848. [5849] To return property.—An enlisted man who has not returned all the public property for which he is responsible, shall under no circumstances, receive a full and honorable discharge. [Id.]

Art. 5849. [5850] Liable for damage.—The cost of arms, equipment, and all other military supplies and stores, and the cost of repairs or damages done to arms, equipment and all other military supplies and stores, shall be deducted from the pay of any officer or soldier in whose care or use the same were when such loss, destruction or damage occurred, if said loss, destruction or damage was occasioned by the carelessness, neglect or abuse of said officer or soldier. [Id.]

Art. 5850. [5851] Private use.—No officer or enlisted man of the active militia of this State having property in charge shall lend for private use, or permit to be used for any other purpose than the legitimate purpose intended, any public property that he may be responsible for to the Governor. All property issued to a brigade, regimental, battalion, or company commander, or to any band, corps, or auxiliary squad or to any military organization whatever, when not in legitimate use, shall be carefully stored and protected from waste, theft, loss or injury. [Id.]

Art. 5851. [5852] Provided by State.—All organizations shall be provided by this State with such arms, equipments, books of instruction and of record and other supplies as may be necessary for the proper performance of the duty required of them by this chapter. Each organization shall keep such property in proper repair and in good condition. [Id.]

Art. 5852. [5853-54] Warrant for seizure.—Whenever it comes to the knowledge of the Governor, on the affidavit of a credible person, that the persons having arms, equipment, or other military property issued by this State for the use of the military forces of this State without authority of law, fail or refuse to deliver up such property, he shall issue his warrant to the sheriff of the county where such persons may be or reside, commanding such sheriff to seize and take into his possession such arms, equipments, or other military property, and keep the same subject to the further order of the Governor. Any sheriff receiving such warrant shall without delay execute the same as directed, and in executing such warrant he may summon to his aid the power of the county and any command of the active militia of this State that may be convenient. [Id.]

Art. 5853. [5855] Sheriff to collect arms.—Each sheriff shall, from time to time, collect such arms or property as may be liable to loss or in the hands of unauthorized persons, and such property when collected shall be kept safely subject to the order of the Governor, to whom a report of such collection shall be made. The official bond of sheriffs shall extend to and include the faithful performance of their duties under this and the preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 5854. [5856] Exempt from execution.—Arms, equipments, clothing or other military supplies issued by this State to organizations or members of the active militia for military purposes, shall be exempt from levy and sale by virtue of an execution for debt, or any other legal proceedings. [Id.]

Art. 5855. [5857] Governor to draw arms.—The Governor in his official capacity is authorized to draw from the United States government all arms, equipment, munitions, or other military stores to which this State may, from time to time, be entitled, for the use of the militia, and may execute such bonds in the name of the State as may be necessary or requisite to secure their issuance. [Id.]

Art. 5856. [5858] Storing arms.—The Governor shall cause all arms, equipment, munitions, or other military property belonging to or under the control of this State, to be stored at such points as he may deem to be the best interests of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5857. [5859] Uniform.—The uniform for officers and enlisted men of the active militia of this State shall be the same as that prescribed for the United States army, with such modifications as the Governor may deem necessary from time to time. All uniforms and other military property issued by this State shall be used for military purposes only, and when issued shall be receipted for, and kept and accounted for in such manner as the Adjutant General may prescribe. [Id.]

ARTICLES OF WAR

Art. 5858. [5860] Rules.—The military forces of this State shall be governed by the following rules known as articles:

The word "officer" as used therein, shall be held to designate commissioned officers; the word "soldier" includes non-commissioned officers, musicians, artificers, privates and enlisted men; the word, "company" shall be understood to include troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps, bands and detachments, and the convictions mentioned therein shall be understood to be convictions by court martial.

1. Enlistment in the active militia of this State shall be voluntary, and every person who enlists therein shall take and subscribe an oath in the following form:

"I,, do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the State of Texas and to the United States of America; that I will serve them honestly and faithfully against all their enemies whomsoever, and that I will obey the orders of the Governor of Texas, and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to the laws, rules and articles for the government of the military forces of the State of Texas."

2. Every officer who knowingly enlists or musters into the military service of this State any minor over the age of sixteen years without the consent of his parents or guardian, or any minor under the age of sixteen years, or any insane or intoxicated person, or any deserter from the military service of this State or of the United States, or any person who has been convicted of any infamous crime, shall upon conviction, be dismissed from the service or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

3. No enlisted man, duly-sworn, shall be discharged from service without a discharge in writing, signed by a field officer of the regiment to which he belongs, or by the commanding officer when no field officer is present; and no discharge shall be given to any enlisted man before his term of service has expired, except by order of the Governor, the Adjutant General, or by order of a court martial.

4. Any officer who knowingly musters as a soldier a person who is not a soldier, shall be deemed guilty of knowingly making a false muster, and punished as a court martial may direct.

5. Any officer who takes money, or other thing by way of gratification, on mustering any regiment or company, or on signing muster rolls, shall be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military, in the service of the State of Texas, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

6. Every commanding officer shall, in the beginning of January and July of each year, and oftener if required by the Governor, transmit to the Adjutant General's department an exact return of the troops under his command, specifying the names of the officers absent from their posts, with the reasons for and the time of their absence. Such returns shall be made in the form and forwarded in the manner prescribed by the Adjutant General; and any such officer, who through neglect or design omits to send such return shall, on conviction thereof, be punished as a court martial may direct.

7. Every officer who knowingly makes a false return to the Adjutant General's department, or to any of his superior officers authorized to call for such returns, of the state of the regiment or company under his command, or of any arms, ammunition, clothing or other stores thereunto belonging, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

8. Every officer who signs a false certificate relating to the absence or pay of any officer or soldier shall be dismissed from the service, or suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

9. Any officer who knowingly makes a false muster of man or horse, or who signs, or directs, or allows, the signing of any muster roll, knowing the same to contain a false muster shall, upon proof thereof by two witnesses before a court martial, be dismissed from the service, and shall thereby be disabled to hold any office or employment, civil or military in the service of the State of Texas.

10. Any officer who wilfully or through neglect suffers to be lost, damaged or spoiled any military stores or supplies belonging to this State, or to the United States, which has been received for use of the military forces of this State, shall make good the loss or damage, and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

11. Any soldier who sells or through neglect loses or spoils the arms, uniforms, equipments, accoutrements, or any other military stores or supplies issued to him for his use or in his charge, shall make good the loss or damage, and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

12. Any officer or soldier who shall strike his superior officer, or offers any violence to him, the said superior officer being engaged in the reasonable execution of his official duties, or any officer or soldier who disobeys any lawful command of his superior officer shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

13. Any officer or soldier who begins, excites, causes or joins in any mutiny or sedition in any regiment, company quarters or guard, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

14. Any officer or soldier, who being present at any mutiny or sedition, does not use his utmost endeavor to suppress the same, or having any knowledge of any intended mutiny or sedition, does not, without delay, give information thereof to his commanding officer, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

15. All officers, of what conditions soever, have power to quell all quarrels, frays and disorders, whether among persons belonging to their own or to any regiment or company, and to order officers into arrest and non-commissioned officers and soldiers into confinement who take part in same, until their proper superior officer is acquainted therewith. Whoever being so ordered refuses to obey such officer or non-commissioned officer, or draws a weapon upon him, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

16. No officer or soldier shall send a challenge to another officer or soldier to fight a duel, or accept a challenge so sent. Any officer who so offends shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

17. Any soldier who absents himself from his company or guard, without leave from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

18. Any officer or soldier who fails except when prevented by sickness or other necessity, to repair at the fixed time, to the place of parade, exercise, or other rendezvous appointed by his commanding officer, or goes from the same, without leave from his commanding officer, before he is dismissed or relieved, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

19. Any soldier who is found one mile from camp, without leave in writing from his commanding officer, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

20. Any officer who is found drunk on his guard, party or other duty, shall be dismissed from the service. Any soldier who so offends shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

21. Any sentinel who is found sleeping upon his post, or who leaves it before he is regularly relieved, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

22. Any officer or soldier who quits his guard without leave from his superior officer, except in case of urgent necessity, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

23. Any officer who, by any means whatsoever, occasions false alarms in camp, command or quarters, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

24. Any officer or soldier who misbehaves himself before the enemy, runs away, or shamefully abandons any place, post or guard, which he is commanded to defend, or speaks words inducing others to do the like, or casts away his arms or ammunition, or quits his post or colors to plunder or pillage, shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

25. Any officer or soldier who, having been duly enlisted or drafted in the military service of this State, deserts the same shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct.

26. Every soldier who deserts the military service of this State shall be liable to serve for such period as shall, with the time he may have served previous to his desertion, amount to the full term of his enlistment; and such soldier shall be tried by a court martial and punished, although the term of his enlistment may have elapsed previous to his being apprehended and tried.

27. Any officer who, having tendered his resignation, quits his post or proper duties, without leave and with intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, prior to due notice of the acceptance of the same, shall be deemed and punished as a deserter.

28. No soldier shall enlist himself in any other regiment or company, without a regular discharge from the regiment or company in which he last served, on a penalty of being reputed a deserter and suffering accordingly. And in case any officer shall knowingly receive and entertain such soldier, or shall not, after his being discovered to be a deserter, immediately give notice thereof to the command in which he last served, the said officer shall, by court martial be dismissed.

29. In time of war, insurrection or rebellion, larceny, robbery, burglary, arson, rape or assault with intent to rape, mayhem, manslaughter, murder, assault and battery with attempt to kill, wounding by shooting or stabbing with intent to commit murder, shall be punished by the sentence of a general court martial when committed by persons in the military service of the State; and punishment in every such case shall not be less than the punishment provided for like offenses by the Penal Code of this State.

30. When any officer or soldier is accused of a capital crime, or of any offense against the person or property of any citizen of this State, which is punishable by the laws of this State, the commanding officer and the officers of the regiment or company to which the person so accused belongs are required, except in time of war, upon application duly made by or in behalf of the party injured, to use their utmost endeavors to deliver him over to the civil authority and to aid the officers of justice in apprehending and securing him in order to bring him to trial. If, upon application, any officer refuses or wilfully neglects, except in time of war, to deliver over such accused person to the civil authorities, or to aid the officers of justice in apprehending him, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

31. Any person in the military service of this State, who makes or causes to be made, any claim against this State or the United States, or any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or who presents or causes to be presented, to any person in the civil or military service thereof, for approval or payment, any claim against this State, or the United States, or against any officer thereof, knowing such claim to be false or fraudulent; or

Who enters into any agreement or conspiracy to defraud this State or the United States, by obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the allowance or payment of any false or fraudulent claim; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State, or the United States, or against any officer thereof, makes or uses, or procures or advises the making or use of, any writing, or other papers knowing the same to contain any false or fraudulent statement; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State or the United States, or any officer thereof, makes or procures or advises the making of, any oath to any fact or to any writing or other paper knowing such oath to be false; or

Who for the purpose of obtaining, or aiding others to obtain, the approval, allowance or payment of any claim against this State, or the United States, or any officer thereof, forges or counterfeits or procures or advises the forging or counterfeiting of any signature upon any writing or other paper, or uses or procures or advises the use of any such signature, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeited; or

Who, having charge, possession, custody or control of any money or other property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State, knowingly delivers or causes to be delivered to any person having authority to receive the same, any amount less than that for which he receives a certificate or receipt; or

Who, being authorized to make or deliver any papers certifying the receipt of any property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State, makes or delivers to any person, such writing, without having full knowledge of the truth of the statements therein contained, or with intent to defraud this State, or the United States; or

Who steals, embezzles, knowingly and wilfully misappropriates, applies to his own use or benefit, or wrongfully or knowingly sells or disposes of any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores, money or other property of this State, or the United States, furnished or intended for the military service of this State; or

Who knowingly purchases, or receives in pledge for any obligation or indebtedness, from any soldier, officer or other person who is part of, or employed in, said forces or service, any ordnance, arms, equipment, ammunition, clothing, subsistence stores or other property of this State, or the United States, such soldier or officer, or other person not having lawful right to sell or pledge the same shall on conviction thereof, be punished by fine or imprisonment, or by such other punishment as a court martial may adjudge, or by any or all of said penalties. If any person, being guilty of any of the offenses aforesaid, while in the military service of this State, receives his discharge, or is dismissed from the service, he shall continue to be liable to be arrested and held for trial and sentence by a court martial, in the same manner and to the same extent as if he had not received such discharge or been dismissed.

32. Any officer who is convicted of conduct unbecoming to an officer and a gentleman shall be dismissed from the service.

33. All crimes not capital, and all disorders and neglects which officers and soldiers may be guilty of, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, though not mentioned in the foregoing articles, are to be taken cognizance of by a general or regimental, or a summary court martial, according to the nature and degree of the offense, and punished at the discretion of such court.

34. Whenever, by these articles of war for the government of the military forces of this State, the punishment or conviction of any military offense, is left to the discretion of the court martial, the punishment therefor shall not be in excess of a limit which the Governor may prescribe.

35. The officers and soldiers of any troops whether active or reserve militia of this State or otherwise appointed, enlisted, mustered or drafted into the military forces of this State, shall at all times, and in all places be governed by these articles, and shall be tried by courts martial.

36. All retainers of the camp and all persons serving with the military forces of this State in the field, though not enlisted soldiers, shall be subject to these rules and articles in the same manner as enlisted men.

37. Officers charged with crime shall be arrested and confined in their quarters or tents, or other place, and deprived of their swords by the commanding officer. And any officer who leaves his confinement before he is set at liberty by his commanding officer shall be dismissed from the service, and suffer such other punishment as a court martial may direct.

38. Soldiers charged with crime shall be confined until tried by court martial, or released by proper authority.

39. Any provost marshal, or any officer commanding a guard, who shall refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to his charge by an officer belonging to the military forces of this State shall suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct, provided the officer committing shall, at the same time, deliver a statement in writing, signed by himself, of the crime charged against the prisoner.

40. Every officer to whose charge a prisoner is committed, shall within twenty-four hours after such commitment, or as soon as he is relieved from his guard, report in writing to the commanding officer the name of such prisoner, the crime charged against him, and the name of the officer committing him; and if he fails to make such report, he shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

41. Any officer who presumes without proper authority, to release a prisoner committed to his charge, or suffers any prisoner so committed to escape, shall be punished as a court martial may direct.

42. No officer or soldier put in arrest shall be continued in confinement more than five days, or until such time as a court martial can be assembled.

43. When an officer is put in arrest for the purpose of trial, except at remote stations, the officer by whose order he is arrested shall see that a copy of the charges on which he is to be tried is served upon him within five days after his arrest, and that he is brought to trial within ten days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of said ten days. If a copy of the charges be not served, or the arrested officer be not brought to trial, as herein required, the arrest shall cease. But officers released from arrest under the provisions of this article, may be tried, whenever the exigencies of the service shall permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest.

44. The Governor, or any general, or other officer commanding a division or brigade, may appoint general courts martial whenever necessary. But when any such general or other officer is the accuser or prosecutor of any officer under his command, the court shall be appointed by the Governor; and its proceedings and sentence shall be sent directly to the Adjutant General, by whom they shall be laid before the Governor for his approval or orders in the case.

45. Officers who may appoint a court martial shall be competent to appoint a judge advocate for the same.

46. General courts martial may consist of any number of officers, from five to thirteen inclusive, but they shall not consist of less than thirteen when that number can be convened without injury to the service. A decision of the appointing authority as to the number that can be assembled without injury to the service is conclusive.

47. When the requisite number of officers to form a general court martial is not present in any command or detachment, the commanding officer shall, in cases which require the cognizance of such a court, report to the Governor, who shall thereupon order a court to be assembled at the nearest and most convenient place at or near which there may be such a requisite number of officers, and shall order the party accused, with the necessary witnesses to be transported to the place where the said court shall be assembled.

48. Every officer commanding a camp or other place where the troops consist of different corps, and every officer commanding a regiment, separate squadron or battalion, shall be competent to appoint for such camp or other place, or such regiment, separate squadron or battalion, regimental courts martial, consisting of three officers, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital; but such courts martial shall be appointed and the officers designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable. Such courts martial shall have power to award punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, or forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and in case of a non-commissioned officer, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto.

49. Every commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and the commanding officer of each company at its home station, shall have power to appoint for such place, command or station summary courts martial to consist of one officer to be designated by him, to try enlisted men for offenses not capital, but such summary courts martial may be appointed and the officer designated by superior authority when by him deemed desirable; and, when but one commissioned officer is present with a command, he shall hear and finally determine such cases. Such summary courts shall have power to adjudge punishment not to exceed confinement at hard labor for thirty days, forfeiture of thirty dollars pay, or a fine of thirty dollars or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, and, in case of non-commissioned officers, reduction to the ranks in addition thereto; provided such summary courts shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine, unless the accused shall, before trial, consent in writing to trial by said court; but in case of refusal to so consent, the trial may be had either by general, regimental or by said summary court, but in case of trial by said summary court without the consent as aforesaid, the court shall not adjudge confinement for more than ten days, or forfeiture of more than ten dollars pay, or a fine of more than ten dollars, or any or all of such confinement, forfeiture of pay and fine. The officer holding the summary court shall have power to administer oaths and to hear and determine cases cognizable by said court, and when satisfied of the guilt of the accused, adjudge the punishment to be inflicted which shall not exceed the limit prescribed in this article.

50. There shall be a summary court record kept at the headquarters of the proper command in the field, each regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station; for which summary courts martial have been appointed, in which shall be entered a record of all cases heard and determined and the action had thereon. The commanding officer of each camp or other place, regiment or corps, detached battalion or company, and each company at its home station, for which summary courts martial have been appointed shall, on the last day of every month and oftener if required, make a report to the Adjutant General of the number of cases determined by summary courts, during the period, setting forth the offenses committed and the penalties awarded.

51. The judge advocate of any general or regimental court martial shall administer to each member of such court, before they proceed upon any trial, the following oath: "You, A. B., do solemnly swear that you will well and truly try and determine according to evidence, the matter now before you, between the State of Texas and the prisoner to be tried, and that you will duly administer justice, without partiality, favor or affection, according to the provisions of the rules and articles for the government for the military forces of this State, and if any doubts should arise, not explained by said articles, then according to your conscience, and the best of your understanding, and the customs in like cases; and you do further swear that you will not divulge the sentence of the court until it shall be published by the proper authority, except to the judge advocate; neither will you disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law. So help you God."

52. When the oath has been administered to the members of a court martial, the president of the court shall administer to the judge advocate, or person officiating as such an oath in the following form: "You do swear that you will not disclose or discover the vote or opinion of any particular member of the court martial, unless required to give evidence thereof as a witness by a court of justice in due course of law; nor divulge the sentence of the court to any but the proper authority until it shall be duly disclosed by the same. So help you God."

53. A court martial may punish, at discretion, any person who uses any menacing words, signs or gestures in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder.

54. All members of a court martial are to behave with decency and calmness.

55. Members of a court martial may be challenged by a prisoner, but only for causes stated to the court. The court shall determine the relevancy and validity thereof, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one member at a time.

56. When a prisoner, arraigned before a court martial, from obstancy [obstinacy] and deliberate design, stands mute or answers foreign to the purpose, the court may proceed to trial and judgment as if the prisoner had pleaded not guilty.

57. The judge advocate general or some person deputed [deputized] by him, or by the Governor, or general or officer commanding the division, brigade, camp or other place, regiment, separate squadron or battalion shall prosecute on [in] the name of the State of Texas; but when the prisoner has made his plea he shall so far consider himself counsel for the prisoner as to object to any leading question to any of the witnesses and to any question to the prisoner, the answer to which might tend to criminate himself. Whenever a court martial shall sit in closed session the judge advocate shall withdraw, and, whenever his legal advice or his assistance in referring to recorded evidence is required, it shall be obtained in open court.

58. The judge advocate general and the officers of his department, the judge advocate of court martial and the trial officers of summary courts are hereby authorized to administer oaths for the purpose of administration of military justice and for other military purposes.

59. The deposition of witnesses for the accused residing beyond the limits of the State, or the county in which any military court may be ordered to sit, may be taken and read in evidence as provided by the laws of this State.

60. All persons who give evidence before a court martial shall be examined on oath administered by the judge advocate in the following form: "You swear that the evidence you shall give in the case now in hearing shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. So help you God."

61. A court martial for reasonable cause shall grant a continuance to either party for such time and as often as may appear to be just; provided, that if the prisoner be in close confinement the trial shall not be delayed for more than sixty days.

62. Members of a court martial in giving their votes, shall begin with the youngest in commission.

63. Officers shall be tried only by general courts martial; and no officer shall, when it can be avoided, be tried by officers inferior to him in rank.

64. No officer shall be discharged or dismissed from the service except by order of the Governor, or by sentence of a general court martial.

65. When an officer is dismissed from the service for cowardice or fraud, the sentence shall direct that the crime, punishment, name and place of abode of the delinquent shall be published in the newspapers in and about the State and in the county in which the offender lives, or where he usually resides; and, after such publication, it shall be scandalous for an officer to associate with him.

66. When a court martial suspends an officer from command it may also suspend his pay and emoluments for the same time according to the nature of his offense.

67. No person shall be tried for the second time for the same offense.

68. No person shall be liable to be tried or punished by a general court martial for any offense except for desertion in the face of an enemy, committed more than two years before the arraignment of such person for such offense, unless he shall have meanwhile absented himself from this State, in which case the time of his absence shall be excluded in computing the period of the limitation; provided that said limitation shall not begin until the end of the term for which said person was mustered into service.

69. No sentence of a court martial respecting a general officer, and no sentence of a court martial directing the dismissal of any officer, shall be carried into execution until it shall have been confirmed by the Governor.

70. No sentence of a court martial shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being.

71. All sentences of a court martial may be confirmed and carried into execution by the officer ordering the court, or by the officer commanding for the time being, where the confirmation by the Governor is not required by these articles.

72. Any officer who is authorized to confirm and carry into execution the sentence of a court martial shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by it, except the punishment of dismissal of an officer; and the Governor shall have power to pardon or mitigate any punishment adjudged by any court martial.

73. Every judge advocate, or person acting as such, at any general or regimental court martial shall, with such expedition as the opportunity of time and distance of place may admit, forward the original proceedings and sentences of such court to the Adjutant General in whose office they shall be carefully preserved.

74. Every party tried by general or regimental court martial shall, upon demand thereof, made by himself or any person in his behalf, be entitled to a copy of the proceedings and sentences of such court.

75. A court of inquiry to examine into the nature of any such transaction or, accusation or imputation against, any officer or soldier may be ordered by the Governor, or by any commanding officer; but such courts of inquiry shall never be ordered by any commanding officer, except upon a demand by the officer or soldier whose conduct is to be inquired of.

76. A court of inquiry shall consist of one or more officers, not exceeding three, and a recorder to reduce the proceedings and evidence to writing.

77. The recorder of a court of inquiry shall administer to the members the following oath: "You shall well and truly examine and inquire, according to the evidence, into the matter now before you without partially [partiality], favor, affection, prejudice or hope of reward. So help you God." After which the president of the court shall administer to the recorder the following oath: "You do swear that you will according to your best abilities, accurately and impartially record the proceedings of the court and the evidence to be given in the case in hearing. So help you God."

78. A court of inquiry and the recorder thereof shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses as is given to courts martial and the judge advocates thereof. Such witnesses shall take the same oath which is taken by witnesses before courts martial and the party accused shall be permitted to examine and cross-examine them so as to fully investigate the circumstances in question.

79. A court of inquiry shall not give an opinion on the merits of the case inquired of, unless specially ordered to do so.

80. The proceedings of a court of inquiry must be authenticated by the signatures of the recorder and the president thereof, and delivered to the commanding officer.

81. The proceedings of a court of inquiry may be admitted as evidence by a court martial in cases not extending to the dismissal of an officer; provided, that the circumstances are such that oral testimony can be obtained.

82. The foregoing articles shall be read once in every twelve months to every company in the military service of this State, and shall be duly observed and obeyed by all officers and soldiers in said service. [Id.]

COURTS MARTIAL

Art. 5859. [5861] Evidence.—The rules of evidence in all courts martial shall follow in general, so far as apposite, the common law rules of evidence as observed by the courts of this State in criminal cases; but a certain latitude in the introduction of evidence and the examination of witnesses by an avoidance of restrictive rules is permissible, when it is in the administration of military justice.

Art. 5860. [5862] Privileges of accused.—In all trials before courts martial, the accused shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to be presented with a copy of the charges. He shall have the right of being heard by himself or counsel, or both; shall be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor. [Id.]

Art. 5861. [5863] Counsel for defendant.—The officer ordering a general or regimental court martial will at the request of any prisoner who is to be arraigned, detail as counsel for his defense a suitable officer, one not acting as a summary court; provided such request is made within a reasonable time before trial. If there be no such officer available, the fact will be reported to the Adjutant General for his action. An officer so detailed shall perform such duties as usually devolve upon counsel for defendant before civil courts in criminal cases. [Id.]

Art. 5862. [5864] Reporter.—The judge advocate of a military court shall have power to appoint a reporter, who shall record the proceedings of, and testimony taken before such court, and may set down the same, in the first instance in shorthand. The reporter shall, before entering upon his duty, be sworn faithfully to perform the same. [Id.]

Art. 5863. [5865] May issue process.—The president or judge advocate of every general or regimental court martial shall have the power to issue like process to compel witnesses to appear and testify, which courts of criminal jurisdiction within this State may lawfully issue; and such process shall be issued in the same style and manner and executed by the same officers as when issued by such court. [Id.]

Art. 5864. [5866] Process generally.—The president of any court martial, and any summary court officer, shall have authority to issue, under his hand, in the name of the State of Texas, directed to any sheriff or constable, whose duty it shall be to serve or execute the same in the same manner in which like process is served or executed when issued by a magistrate, all necessary process, subpoenas, attachments, warrants of arrest and warrant of commitment. [Id.]

Art. 5865. [5867] Penalty.—Every person, who being duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness before a regimental or general court martial, who willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or produce documentary evidence which such person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and prosecuted in the proper justice court, and punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars; provided, such witness may plead as a defense that he was not tendered or paid one day's fee and mileage for the journey to and from the place of trial, as provided in this chapter, such amounts to be paid by the Adjutant General's department out of any appropriation of funds available for that purpose; provided, that no witness shall be compelled to incriminate himself, or to answer any questions which may tend to incriminate or degrade him. [Id.]

Art. 5866. [5868] Witnesses' expenses.—Persons in the employ of this State, but not belonging to the military forces thereof, when traveling upon summons as witnesses before military courts, are entitled to transportation from their place of residence to the place where the court is in session and return. If no transportation be furnished they are entitled to reimbursement of the cost of travel actually performed by the shortest usually traveled route. They are also entitled to reimbursement of the actual cost of meals and rooms at a rate not to exceed two dollars per day for each day actually and unavoidably consumed in travel, or in attendance upon the court under the order or summons. No allowance will be made to them when attendance upon court does not require them to leave their place of residence. [Id.]

Art. 5867. [5869] Compensation of.—A person not in the employ of this State and not belonging to the active military forces thereof, who has been duly summoned to appear as a witness before a military court, will receive one dollar and fifty cents per day for each day actually in attendance upon the court, and six cents a mile for going from his place of residence to the place of trial or hearing, and six cents a mile for returning. Civilian witnesses will be paid by the Adjutant General's department. [Id.]

Art. 5868. [5870] Account.—The charges for return journeys of witnesses will be made upon the basis of the actual charges allowed for travel to the court, and the entire account thus completed will be paid upon discharge from attendance without waiting for completion of return travel. [Id.]

Art. 5869. [5871] Attachment for witnesses.—If a witness has been subpoenaed and fails to attend, attachment shall issue, and he shall be liable for the costs of such attachment unless good cause be shown to the court why he failed to obey the subpoena, which cost may be recovered by civil suit. [Id.]

Art. 5870. [5872] Witness fees.—No fees shall be allowed to a person as witness fees, unless such person has been subpoenaed, attached, or recognized as a witness in the case.

Art. 5871. [5873] Governor may order arrest.—When charges against any person in the military service of this State are made to the Governor, or any officer authorized to order a court martial for the trial of such person, and the Governor or such officer, believes that such charges can be sustained, and has reason to believe that the person so charged will not appear for trial, or intends to flee from justice, the Governor, or such officer, may issue a warrant of arrest to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which the person so charged resides, or wherein he is supposed to be, commanding the sheriff or constable to take the body of the person so charged and confine him in jail until such time as his case may be finally disposed of; and the sheriff or constable, on the order of the Governor, or officer ordering the court, shall bring the person so charged before the court martial for trial, or turn him over to whoever the order may direct; the Governor, or the officer issuing the warrant of arrest, shall indorse thereon the amount of bail to be required; and it shall be a violation of duty on the part of any sheriff or constable to permit a person so committed to remain out of jail, except that he may, when such person desires it, permit him to give bail in the sum indorsed on the warrant, conditioned for his appearance, from time to time, before such court martial as he may be ordered for trial, and until his case is finally disposed of, or until such time as he may surrender to the sheriff or constable as directed by the reviewing authority of the court martial before which he may be ordered for trial. [Id.]

Art. 5872. [5874] Suit on bonds, etc.—Upon the failure of any person, who has been admitted to bail conditioned for his appearance for trial before a court martial, or upon the failure of any person admitted to bail to appear as a witness in any case before a court martial, as conditioned in the bail bond of any such person, the court martial shall certify the fact of such failure to so appear to the officer ordering the court martial, or to the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be; and such officer shall cause a judge advocate, district or county attorney to file suit in Travis County therefor. [Id.]

Art. 5873. [5875] Laws applicable.—The rules laid down in the Code of Criminal Procedure of this State relating to the giving of bail, the amount of bail, the number of sureties, the persons who may be sureties, the property exempt from liability, the responsibility of parties to the same and all other rules of a general nature not inconsistent with this law are applicable to bail taken as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 5874. [5876] Warrant of arrest.—A warrant of arrest issued by the Governor, or other officer authorized to order a general court martial, and all subpoenas and other process issued by general courts martial shall extend to every part of the State; but warrants of arrest issued by an officer, other than those named above, and all subpoenas and other process issued by other military courts can not be executed in any other county than the one in which they were issued, except they be indorsed by the Governor, or an officer authorized to order a general court martial, in which case they can be executed anywhere in the State. The indorsement may be "Let this process be executed in any county in the State of Texas." The indorsement shall be dated and signed officially by the Governor or officer making it. [Id.]

Art. 5875. [5877-78] Officers' fees.—Upon conviction of any person by a court martial, all costs including the cost accruing for witness fees and the fees for sheriffs or constables for executing the process, subpoenas, writs of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be taxed against defendant; and any sheriff or constable executing any process, subpoena, writ of attachment, warrant of arrest, warrant of commitment, or any other authorized writs, shall be allowed the same fees as provided by the Code of Criminal Procedure in this State. When the defendant is imprisoned for costs the Adjutant General shall pay said costs out of any fund that may be available. [Id.]

Art. 5876. [5879] Felony.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same in whole or in part, and such sentence as approved exceeds two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which the court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county until taken charge of by a duly accredited agent of the State penitentiary; and such reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall certify a copy of the proceedings, as approved, of the court martial in the case of such person to be confined to the superintendent of the State penitentiary, which shall be sufficient authority for, and such superintendent shall send for and confine such person in said penitentiary for the period named in the proceedings of the court martial as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and the State penitentiary board shall make such provision as may be necessary for receiving from the sheriff as aforesaid and confining such person in such manner as persons are received and confined in the State penitentiary on sentence of district courts in this State. [Id.]

Art. 5877. [5880] Misdemeanor.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges confinement, and the reviewing authority has approved the same in whole or in part, and such sentence as approved, does not exceed two years confinement, the reviewing authority, or the commanding officer for the time being, as the case may be, shall issue a warrant of commitment to the sheriff of the county in which such court martial was held, directing such sheriff to take the body of the person so sentenced and confine him in the county jail of such county for the period named in such sentence, as approved, or until he may be directed to release him by proper authority; and such confinement shall be carried out as prescribed for confinement in jail by the Code of Criminal Procedure of this State. [Id.]

Art. 5878. [5881] Fine and costs.—When the sentence of a court martial adjudges a fine and cost against any person, and such fine and cost has not been fully paid within ten days after the confirmation thereof, the Governor or officer ordering the court or the officer commanding for the time being, as the case may be; shall issue a warrant of commitment directed to the sheriff of the county in which the court martial was held, directing him to take the body of the person so convicted and confine him in the county jail; and the sheriff shall take the body of [of] the person convicted and confine him in the county jail for one day for any fine not exceeding one dollar, and one additional day for every dollar above that sum, and one additional day for each dollar of cost. [Id.]

Art. 5879. [5882] Payment of fines.—All fines and forfeitures imposed by general or regimental courts martial, shall be paid to the officer ordering such courts, or to the officer commanding for the time being, and by said officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, paid to the Adjutant General, who shall disburse the same as he may see fit for military purposes. [Id.]

Art. 5880. [5883] Fines.—All fines and forfeitures imposed by summary courts martial shall be paid to the officer ordering the court, or the officer commanding for the time being, and by such officer, within five days from the receipt thereof, placed to the credit of the company fund of the company of which the person fined was a member when the fine was imposed. [Id.]

Art. 5881. [5884] Sheriff to execute process.—When any lawful process, issued by the proper officer of any court martial, comes to the hands of any sheriff or constable, he shall perform the usual duties of such officer and perform all acts and duties by this chapter imposed or authorized to be performed by any sheriff or constable. [Id.]

Art. 5882. [5885] Jurisdiction presumed.—The jurisdiction of the courts and boards established by this chapter shall be presumed and the burden of proof shall rest on any person seeking to oust such courts or boards of jurisdiction in any action or proceeding. [Id.]

Art. 5883. [5886] Exemption from sentence.—No action or proceeding shall be prosecuted or maintained against a member of the military forces of this State or officer or person acting under its authority or reviewing its proceedings on account of the approval or imposition or execution of any sentence, or the imposition or collection of any fine or penalty, or the execution of any warrant, writ, execution, process, or mandate of a military court. [Id.]

Art. 5884. [5887] Change of venue.—Any officer or member of the military forces of this State, who is sued for any injury to persons or property done while performing, or endeavoring to perform, any duty required of him by this law, shall have the right, and the court in which suit is pending, upon the application of the person sued, shall remove the venue of such cause to some court of competent jurisdiction in another county not subject to the same or some other disqualification; provided, such application is supported by the affidavit of two credible persons to the effect that they have good reason to believe that the defendant cannot have a fair and impartial trial before such court. [Id.]

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 5885. [5888] Appropriations.—Each commissioners court and the council of any city or town in this State are hereby authorized and empowered, in their discretion, to appropriate a sufficient sum, not otherwise appropriated, to pay the necessary expenses of the troops, batteries, companies, signal corps, hospital corps and bands of the active militia of this State located in their respective counties, cities or towns, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per month for such expenses of any one organization. [Id.]

Art. 5886. [5889] Right of way on street.—The commanding officer of any portion of the active militia of this State, parading or performing any military duty in any street or highway, may require any or all persons in such street or highway to yield to the right of way to such militia; provided, that the carriage of the United States mails, the legitimate functions of the police and the progress and operations of hospital ambulances, fire engines and fire departments shall not be interfered with thereby. [Id.]

Art. 5887. [5890] Penalties.—Any person who shall secrete, sell, dispose of, offer for sale, purchase, retain after demand made by a commissioned officer of the active militia of this State, or in any manner pawn or pledge any arms, uniforms, equipment, or other military property issued under the provisions of this chapter, or of the military regulations of this State, or any person who shall wear any uniform or part thereof, or device, strap, knot, or insignia of any design or character used as a designation of grade, rank of office, such as are by law or by general regulations duly promulgated, prescribed for the use of the active militia of this State, or similar thereto, except members of the army of the United States or the active militia of this State; or any person who shall subject or cause to be subjected any other person to the deprivation of any right, privilege or immunity usually enjoyed by the public on account of membership in the army, navy, marine corps or revenue cutter service of the United States, or of the National Guard or naval service of this State, or otherwise in the military or naval service of the United States or of this State, wearing the uniform prescribed for him at that time by law, regulation of the service or custom, on account of his wearing such uniform or of being in such service; or who on account of such membership or the wearing of such uniform shall make or cause to be made such discrimination, shall forfeit to the State one hundred dollars for each offense, to be sued for in the name of the State of Texas by a judge advocate, district or county attorney. All money recovered by any action under this article shall be paid to the Adjutant General, who shall apply the same to the use of the active militia of this State. [Acts 1905, p. 167, sec. 72; Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 20.]

Art. 5888. [5891] Gambling, etc.—The commanding officer upon any occasion of duty may place in arrest, during the continuance thereof, any person who shall trespass upon the camp ground, parade ground, armory or other place devoted to such duty, or shall in any way or manner interrupt or molest the orderly discharge of duty by those under arms, or shall disturb or prevent the passage of troops going to and returning from any duty. He may prohibit and prevent the holding of huckster or auction sales, and all gambling within the limit of the post, camp ground, place of encampment, parade or drill under his command, or within limits not exceeding one mile therefrom as he may prescribe. And he may in his discretion, abate as a common nuisance all such sales. [Acts 1905, p. 167.]

Art. 5889. [5892] Insurrection.—Whenever any portion of the military forces of this State is employed in aid of the civil authority, the Governor, if in his judgment the maintenance of law and order will thereby be promoted may, by proclamation, declare the county or city in which the troops are serving, or any special portion thereof, to be in a state of insurrection. [Id.]

Art. 5890. [5893] Foreign troops.—No armed military force from another State, territory or district shall be permitted to enter this State without the permission of the Governor, unless such force is a part of the United States army. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

STATE NAVAL MILITIA

Article 5891. Texas Naval Board.—The "Texas Naval Board" shall consist of the Governor, and one other person to be appointed by him, which board shall have power to make, adopt and promulgate all such rules, orders and regulations as may be advisable and necessary to create and maintain an efficient naval militia, and is further empowered to co-operate with the Secretary of the Navy of the United States in putting into effect in the State of Texas, the provisions of an Act passed by the Sixty-third Congress, entitled: "An Act to promulgate the efficiency of the naval militia, and for other purposes." [Acts 1915, p. 124.]

1. MINING BOARD AND INSPECTOR

Article 5892. [5923-4] Mining Board.—The Governor shall biennially appoint for a term of two years a board of seven members to be known as the State Mining Board, who shall make formal inquiry into and pass upon the qualifications and personal fitness of those seeking appointment as State Mining Inspector. Three members of said board shall be practical miners and three shall be mine operators. These six members shall nominate to the Governor a suitable person for appointment as the seventh member. If the said nomination is not made within ten days after their appointment, the Governor shall appoint the seventh. [Acts 1907, p. 331.]

Art. 5893. [5925] Board to select inspector.—The board shall meet biennially in the State Capitol to hear applications for the office of State Mining Inspector, and shall examine thoroughly all applicants who may come before it and select from among them the one who in its opinion is best qualified to perform the duties of said office, and upon their nomination, the Governor shall appoint [appoint] their nominee. [Id. sec. 16.]

Art. 5894. [5926] Qualifications and term.—The State Mining Inspector shall be a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in this State for one year, a man at least thirty years old, of good repute, personal integrity and temperate habits, without any pecuniary interest in any mine in this State, and with at least five years experience working in and around coal mines. He shall hold office for a term of two years. [Id. sec. 17.]

Art. 5895. [5927] Supervision and removal.—The board shall exercise supervision over the acts of said inspector, and in the event of his incompetency or the neglect of his duty being proved to the board, they shall recommend to the Governor that he be removed from office, and his successor shall be chosen as herein provided. [Id. sec. 18.]

Art. 5896. [5928] Meetings of board.—The board shall meet twice each year at such time and place as the majority may select for the purpose of receiving reports from the inspector and instructing him in the performance of his duties. [Id. sec. 19.]

Art. 5897. [5929] Compensation of board.—The members of said board shall receive as compensation for their services five dollars a day not exceeding thirty days in any one year, and traveling expenses going to and returning from board meetings. [Id. sec. 20.]

Art. 5898. [5930] Duties of inspector.—Said inspector under the instruction of said board shall enforce the provisions of this title, and shall make a report to said board at its semiannual meeting and oftener if required. He shall file an itemized statement showing the number of times he inspected each mine and the actual amounts expended. [Id. Acts 1909, p. 163.]

Art. 5899. [5931] Discrimination.—Neither the instructions of said board nor the acts of said inspector shall ever discriminate in favor of or against any mine or against any owner, operator or employé of any mine, but said acts, either of the board or of the inspector, shall be impartial, fair and just to all persons or corporations subject to this law. [Id.]

Art. 5900. [5932] Bond and liability.—Before receiving his appointment by the Governor, said inspector shall enter into and deliver to the Governor a bond in the sum of ten thousand dollars, with at least three good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the faithful and impartial performance of his duty, which bond shall be payable to and approved by the Governor. His sureties shall make affidavit that they, in their own right, are worth over and above all exemptions the full amount of the bond they sign as sureties. On proof that said inspector has discriminated against and to the injury of any owner, operator or employee of any mine, the said owner, operator or employee may sue upon said bond and shall be entitled to recover such damages as may be proved in such suit. [Id.]

2. MINING REGULATIONS

Art. 5901. [5933] Shafts, cages and pass-ways.—Any shaft in process of sinking, and any opening projected for the purpose of mining coal of all kinds, shall be subjected to the provisions of this and the thirteen succeeding articles. At the bottom of each shaft and every caging place therein, a safe commodious passageway must be cut around said landing place, to serve as a traveling way by which employés shall pass from one side of the shaft, to the other without passing under or on the cage. The upper and lower landings at the top of each shaft, and the openings of each intermediate seam from or to the shaft, shall be clear and free from loose materials and shall be securely fenced with automatic or other gates or bars so as to prevent either men or materials from falling into the shaft. Every hoisting shaft must be equipped with substantial cages fitted to guide rails running from the top to the bottom. Said cages must be safely constructed, they must be furnished with suitable boiler iron covers to protect persons riding thereon from falling objects, and they must be equipped with safety catches. Every cage on which people are carried must be fitted with iron bars, rings or chains in proper place and in sufficient number to furnish a secure handhold for every person permitted to ride thereon. At the top landing, cage supports, where necessary, must be carefully set and adjusted so as to work properly and securely hold the cages when at rest. In all cases where the human voice cannot be distinctly heard, there shall be provided a metal tube or telephone from the top to the bottom of the shaft or slope through which conversation may be held between persons at the bottom and top of such shaft or slope, and there shall also be maintained an efficient system of signaling to and from the top of the shaft or slope and each seam or opening. Every underground place on which persons travel, worked by self-acting engines, windlasses or machinery of any description, shall be provided with practical means of signaling between the stopping places and the ends of the plane, and shall further be provided, at intervals of not more than sixty feet, with sufficient manholes for places of refuge. [Acts 1907, p. 331.]

Art. 5902. [5934] Props and timbers.—Every mine shall be supplied with props and timbers of suitable length and size; and, if from any cause the timbers are not supplied when required, the miners shall vacate any and all such working places until supplied with timber needed. [Id.]

Art. 5903. [5925] Abandoned workings.—All openings connecting with worked-out or abandoned portions of every operated mine likely to accumulate explosive gases or dangerous conditions shall be securely gobbed and blocked off from the operated portions thereof, so as to protect every person working in such mines from all danger that may be caused or produced by such worked-out portions of such mines. [Id.]

Art. 5904. [5936] Ventilation.—Throughout every mine there shall be maintained currents of fresh air sufficient for the health and safety of all men and animals employed therein, and such ventilation shall be produced by a fan or some other artificial means; provided, a furnace shall not be used for ventilating any mine in which explosive gases are generated. The quantity of air required to be kept in circulation and passing a given point shall be not less than one hundred cubic feet per minute for each person, and not less than three hundred cubic feet per minute for each animal, in the mine, measured at the foot of the downcast; and this quantity may be increased at the discretion of the inspector whenever in his judgment unusual conditions make a stronger current necessary. Said current shall be forced into every working place throughout the mine, so that all parts of the same shall be reasonably free from standing powder smoke and deleterious air of any kind. The measurement of the current of air shall be taken with an anemometer at the foot of the downcast, at the foot of the upcast and at the working face of each division or split of the air current. The main current of air shall be split or subdivided so as to provide a separate current of reasonably pure air to every one hundred men at work; and the inspector shall have authority to order separate currents for smaller groups of men, if in his judgment special conditions make it necessary. The air current for ventilating the stables shall not pass into the intake air current for ventilating the working parts of the mine. Whenever the inspector shall find men working without sufficient air, he shall at once give the mine manager or operator notice and a reasonable time in which to restore the current; and, upon his refusal or neglect to act promptly, the inspector may order the endangered men out of the mine. [Id. sec. 2.]

Art. 5905. [5937] Cut-throughs.—The mine foreman shall see that proper cut-throughs are made in all the pillars at such distances as in the judgment of the mine inspector may be deemed requisite, not more than twenty yards nor less than ten yards apart, for the purpose of ventilation; and the ventilation shall be conducted through said cut-throughs into the rooms and entries by means of check doors made of canvas or other material, placed on the entries or in other suitable places; and he shall not permit any room to be opened in advance of the ventilating current. Should the mine inspector discover any room, entry, airway, or other working place, being driven in advance of the air current contrary to the requirements of this article, he shall order the workmen in such places to cease work at once until the law is complied with. [Id. sec. 6.]

Art. 5906. [5938] Notice of fire damp.—Immediate notice must be conveyed by the miner or mine owner to the inspector upon the appearance of any large body of fire damp in any mine, whether accompanied by any explosion or not, and upon the occurrence of any serious fire within the mine or on the surface. [Id. sec. 3.]

Art. 5907. [5939] Mining cage.—Cages on which men are riding shall not be lifted or lowered at a rate greater than six hundred feet per minute, except with the written consent of the inspector. No person shall carry any tools or material with him on a cage in motion, except for use in making repairs; and no one shall ride on a cage while the other cage contains a loaded car. No cage having an unstable or self-dumping platform shall be used for the carriage of men or materials unless the same is provided with some convenient device by which said platform can be securely locked, and unless it is so locked whenever men or material are being conveyed thereon. [Id. sec. 4.]

Art. 5908. [5940] Powder.—No miner or other person shall carry powder into the mine except in the original keg or in a regulation powder can securely fastened, and the can in otherwise air tight condition. [Id. sec. 5.]

Art. 5909. [5941] Safety lamps.—At any mine where the inspector shall find fire damp is being generated so as to require the use of a safety lamp in any part thereof, the operator of such mine, upon receiving notice from the inspector that one or more such lamps are necessary for the safety of the men in the mines, shall at once procure and keep for use such number of safety lamps as may be necessary. [Id. sec. 7.]

Art. 5910. [5942] Endangering life or health.—It shall be unlawful for any miner, workman or other person knowingly or carelessly to injure any shaft, safety lamp, instrument, air-course or brattice, or to obstruct or throw open an airway, or to carry any open lamp or lighted pipe or fire in any form, into a place worked by the light of safety lamps, or within three feet of any open powder, or to handle or disturb any part of the hoisting machinery, or to enter any part of the mine against caution, or to do any wilful act whereby the lives or health of persons working in the mines, or the security of the mine machinery thereof is endangered. [Id. sec. 8.]

Art. 5911. [5943] Posting mine rules.—Every operator shall post on the engine house and at the pit top of his mine, in such manner that the employees of the mine can read them, rules not inconsistent with this law, plainly printed in the English language, which shall govern all persons working in the mine. The posting of such notice shall charge all employees of such mine with legal notice of the contents thereof. [Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 5912. [5944] Coal scales.—The owner or operator of every coal mine shall provide adequate and accurate scales for weighing coal; the mine inspector shall examine such scales, and if same are not found to be accurate, he shall notify the owner to repair same; and, if such owner fails or refuses to repair same within a reasonable time, said inspector shall institute proceedings under the law against the proper parties. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 5913. [5945] Check weighman.—The employees in any mine shall have the right to employ a check weighman [weighman] at their own option and their own expense. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 5914. [5946] Oil used.—No miner or other person employed in a mine shall use any kind of oil other than a good quality of lard oil for lighting purposes, except when repairing downcast or upcast shafts. [Id. sec. 12.]
