Art. 7880—117. Lowest responsible bidder; notice.—Contracts for making and constructing the plants, works and improvements of the district shall be made by the directors to the lowest responsible bidder. It is provided however, that if the owners of two-thirds or more of the land located in the district, either in acres or in value, or if two-thirds or more of the qualified electors of said district, do sign a petition to the directors in the district requesting that the contract for the construction of the plants, works and improvements be entered into by the directors by individual negotiation and not by advertisement for bids, then and in that event the directors of the district may, in their discretion, enter into such contract by individual negotiation. In the event the contract is not to be so entered into however, the directors of the district shall give notice of the letting of the contract by advertising the same in some one or more newspapers having general circulation in the state of Texas and also in one newspaper having general circulation in the county in which such district or part thereof is situated and in one newspaper published in said district, if there be a newspaper published therein. Such notice shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks prior to the date upon which said contract is let. The provisions of this Section shall not apply in case of any contract between the district and the United States. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 120, ch. 25, § 117; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 25.]

Art. 7880—118. Bids.—Anyone desiring to bid on the construction of any works advertised as herein provided shall, upon written application to the directors, be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report showing the work to be done and all details thereof, provided a charge may be made therefor to cover the cost of making such copy. All bids to do any such work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the board and shall be accompanied by a certified check upon some responsible bank of the State of Texas for at least one per cent of the total amount bid, and the amount of said check shall be forfeited to the district and the bank certifying to same shall be liable therefor to the district in the event such successful bidder shall fail or refuse to enter into a proper contract therefor or shall [or] refuse to furnish bond therefor as required by law. Any or all bids may be rejected by the directors. All bids shall be opened at the same time. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 121, § 118.]

Art. 7880—119. Form of contracts; engineer's report.—All construction contracts made by the district shall be in conformity with and subject to the provisions of this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall be a part of all such contracts in so far as applicable thereto, either to the contractor or to the district, and the provisions of this Act shall govern whenever the contract is in conflict therewith. The contract shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractor and the directors and a copy of same so executed shall be filed with the county clerk of the county or counties in which such district is situated, which copy shall be recorded in a book kept for that purpose and be subject to public inspection. All such contracts shall contain or have attached thereto the specifications for all work included in the contract and the plans and details thereof and all such work shall be done in accordance with such plans and specifications under the supervision of the directors and the district engineer. As the work progresses the district engineer shall make full written reports to the directors showing in detail whether the contract is being complied with or not and when the work is completed the engineer shall make a detailed report of same to the directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 121, § 119.]

Art. 7880—120. Payment on contract; inspection.—Such construction contract may be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses but such payments shall not exceed 85 per cent of the amount due at the time of such payment as shown by the report of the engineer of the district. The directors shall at all times during the progress of the work inspect the same and cause the same to be inspected by the district engineer and his assistants and upon the completion of any contract in accordance with its terms they shall draw a warrant on the depository of the district to pay any balance due thereon. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 121, § 120.]

Art. 7880—121. Contractor's bond.—The person, firm, or corporation to whom such contract is let shall give a good and sufficient bond payable to the district in such amount as the directors may determine, not to exceed the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract and that in default thereof they will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof or complete said contract according to its terms. All sureties signing such bond shall be bound thereto and thereby to the same extent that the principal thereon is so bound regardless of the technical defenses. Such bonds shall be approved by the directors and shall be deposited with the depository of the district, a true record thereof being made in a record book in the office of the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 121, § 121.]

Art. 7880—122. Crossing railroad, interurban or street railway.—Every such district is authorized and empowered to make and construct all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any railroad tracks and roadway of such railroad, interurban or street railway of any description to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, lateral, ditch, or other improvements of such district. Same shall be paid for by the district, provided, however, that notice shall be given by the district in writing to any local agent, superintendent, or roadmaster or owner of such railroad track, and the railway company or the owner thereof shall be allowed sixty days to build such bridge at their own expense if they should desire to do so and according to their own plans, provided such canals, culvert, ditch or structure shall be constructed of sufficient size and proper plan to serve the purpose for which it is intended. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 122, § 122.]

Art. 7880—123. Crossing county or public road.—Such districts are hereby authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, laterals and ditches made and constructed by such district, whenever the same crosses a county or public road, and shall pay for the same out of the funds of said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 122, § 123.]

Art. 7880—124. Facilities for drainage; levees.—Included in the plans of any such district may be the necessary drainage ditches, or other facilities for drainage, and necessary levees for the protection of land under the system. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 122, § 124.]

Art. 7880—125. Property of district; conveyance to United States.—Districts created under the provisions of this Act [Acts 7880—1 to 7880—147] are hereby empowered to own reservoirs, dams, levees, flood control retarding works, hydroelectric works, and a distributing system therefor, wells, canals, laterals, sites for pumping plants, sites for settling basins, and, all other properties plants and improvements necessary or proper or incident to the carrying out of the purposes for which same were organized, and to buy or construct the same, and to acquire the necessary rights of way for, or land for, the same by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation, and they may acquire the title to any and all lands necessary or incident to the successful operation thereof, in addition to any of the above, in the manner provided, including the authority by purchase or condemnation, to acquire rights of way for the enlargement, extension, or improvement of any existing canals or ditches. Any property acquired may be conveyed to the United States in so far as the same shall be necessary for the construction, operation, and maintenance of works by the United States for the benefit of the district under any contract that may be entered into thereunder. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 122, ch. 25, § 125; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 18.]

Art. 7880—126. Eminent domain.—If it shall appear on hearing by the Commissioners' Court of each County, containing territory to be included in the district sought to be organized or prayed for is feasible and practicable, that it would be a benefit to the land to be included therein and be a public benefit or utility, the Commissioners' Court shall so find and grant the petition if the Court shall find that such proposed district is not feasible or practicable nor be a public benefit or utility, or is not needed, the Court shall refuse to grant the petition. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 123, ch. 25, § 126; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 19.]

Art. 7880—127. Contribution to construction by other district.—Any district organized under the provisions of this Act may, in so far as its best interests are served thereby, contribute to the construction of any improvement by any other similar district, the construction of which shall contribute to the benefit of the district and in proportion to the cost thereof determined by the directors, and may make contract with such other district with reference thereto. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 123, § 127.]

Art. 7880—128. Joint ownership or construction.—Two or more districts may jointly own and construct irrigation works and reservoirs, levees, flood control retarding system, drainage systems, and all other plants, works and improvements which they are authorized to own or construct, under the terms and conditions to be set out in a written contract. Any such contract shall not be binding until same shall have been ratified by a majority vote of each of such districts. An election shall be held in each of such districts upon the same day to determine whether such contract shall be adopted. Notice of such election shall be the same as that required for the formation of a district under this Act. Such contract shall be printed or in writing, and a true copy thereof shall be filed in the office of each district fifteen days prior to such election, and be subject to public inspection, and one true copy of same shall be furnished to each voter calling for same at such office at any time within fifteen days prior to such election. When improvements are constructed by two or more districts, bids may be jointly called for and opened and considered at the designated office of either of such districts, and such districts shall approve the letting of the contracts and the contractor's bond, and may meet for that purpose at a place outside of their district, or at any office established for such joint project and at which office all business of such joint project may be transacted, all bids, bonds, contracts, etc., of such joint project may be in the names of such joint project districts, such districts being empowered and authorized to do all acts by joint action that one district may do. The action of each district being determined by its board of directors, a general manager may be employed by such joint enterprises whose duties may be set forth in the joint ownership contract.

The terms and conditions of such joint ownership contract shall not conflict with the provisions of law providing for the organization and conduct of districts, but may include provisions for joint construction and operation of same. Such contracts may be amended in the same manner as made. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 123, § 128; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 20.]

Art. 7880—129. Consolidation of districts.—Any two or more districts governed by the provisions of this Act and amendments thereof may be consolidated into one district in the following manner: The terms and conditions upon which such consolidation is to be effected shall be agreed upon by the board of directors of each district, and then the question shall be submitted to a vote in each district after giving notice thereof for at least twenty days in the manner provided by law for other elections. The election shall be held in each district on the same day. The consolidation to be effected only in the event same is adopted by each and all such districts. When two or more districts are consolidated their obligations shall not be impaired but shall be protected and paid by taxes levied upon the property in the district creating such debt or by assessments in the same manner and extent as if said consolidation had not been effected. After consolidation such taxes shall be assessed and collected by the officials of the consolidated district. When two or more districts are consolidated into one district same shall be governed as and be one district, except that the debts created by each district prior to the consolidation shall be paid as herein provided; provided, however, such consolidation district may contribute to such payments upon the terms stated in the consolidation agreement. When two or more districts are consolidated the officers of said respective districts shall continue to act jointly as the officers of said district, and to wind up the affairs of their respective districts as affected by said consolidation, for a period of ninety days after the consolidation election, and they may continue to so act until the next general election if so provided by the consolidation agreement, or the consolidation agreement may provide who shall constitute the first board of trustees to serve until the next general election if the officers then serving agree to resign. Said new officers shall within the period of ninety days after the election qualify as such officers of the consolidated district and assume such offices at the expiration of said period. All bonds of such officers will be approved by the then existing board of directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 124, § 129.]

Art. 7880—130. Benefit or ad valorem basis for tax levy.—Any district organized under authority of Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution of Texas, and as well any district which may have been created prior to the adoption of such Constitutional Amendment, and which has availed, or which may hereafter avail, itself of the benefits of said Section 59 of Article 16, may at the time of its creation, or at any time thereafter, before such districts may have issued bonds, submit to the qualified elector of such district the question whether the taxes to be levied therein, shall be levied, assessed, and collected upon an ad valorem basis; or whether the taxes to be levied, assessed, and collected shall be upon the basis of specific and equitable assessment in proportion to the benefits to be conferred; (a) or whether the tax to be levied or assessed and collected shall be on an ad valorem basis as to some part of the total tax required, and upon an equitable or specific assessment of benefits as to some defined part of the area of the district, or as to some designated part of the total tax required; (b) if the directors of a district wish to submit to the electors of their district the question as to whether the tax shall be in part ad valorem and in part upon the basis of equitable and specific assessment in proportion to benefit, they shall by resolution entered in their minutes designate what part of the tax is proposed to be on each basis; they shall also designate the peculiar physical or economic conditions, or peculiar diverse local needs of different areas within the district which make it equitable or expedient to levy part of the total tax upon the specific or equitable assessment of benefit basis. (c) If the proposed assessment of the tax upon an equitable, specific benefit basis is to apply only to some defined part of the district, the directors of a district shall in their minutes define the area and fully set out the peculiar local needs of the defined part of the district to which the peculiar assessment of specific benefits is proposed to apply. This finding shall be based upon distinctive local need of water supply, local drainage, local flood protection or altering land elevations needing correction, one or all, and not generally affecting the districts as a whole. Their findings further shall fix the sum of money required to provide the works needed to protect or serve the peculiar local conditions within such defined part of the district upon which it is proposed to assess a tax upon an equitable benefit basis, which tax may or may not be in addition to other taxes levied by the district on property within the defined area. It is provided however, that the proportional tax, or income, contributions of a defined area, either by water use or other tax levies of the district, may be taken into consideration in assessing benefits in the defined area. (d) Such questions shall be submitted to the qualified voters of such district at any time, in the manner, and after the notice provided by law under which the district is created with reference to the issuance of bonds by it. Such election may be held at the time of the election of directors, and the question of taxation may be on the same ballot as that provided for the election of directors. (e) If the directors submit the question as to whether the tax shall be on an ad valorem basis or on a specific benefit basis, then notice of the election shall so state and the ballot shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For levy of taxes on a basis of the assessed value of property," and, "For the levy of taxes on a specific benefit assessment basis." (f) If the directors wish to submit to the voters the question whether some designated part of the total tax proposed shall be on an ad valorem basis and the remainder on the basis of specific benefits, the notice of election shall in addition set out in full the minutes of the directors setting up the respective amounts and the reasons on which the proposed allocation of taxes has been based; also the ballot used shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For the levy of _____ per cent of a total tax on a basis of the assessed value of property, and _____ per cent, on a specific benefit basis," and, "Against the levy of _____

per cent of a total tax on a basis of the assessed value of property, and ——— per cent on a specific benefit basis." (g) The directors of a district shall not have power to assess a specific benefit tax on a defined area within a district unless the owners of more than fifty per cent of the real estate, either in acreage or in value, located within the area proposed to be defined and taxed for peculiar local improvements or benefits, do file with the board a petition signed by such owners or owner. Upon receipt of such petition the directors may give notice either by posting notice at some public place in said area proposed to be defined, or by publishing notice in a newspaper having general circulation in said area. Notice shall be given ten full days before the time set for hearing by the board and shall state the time and place of hearing. (h) The board shall hear evidence for or against the creation of the proposed defined area. They shall grant or deny the petition upon the grounds set out in Section 19 of said Chapter 25. (i) If no such appeal is perfected within said ten days, or after final decision of such appeal, the board may at any time order an election to be held within the district to confirm the designation of the area and to authorize the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax on the property within the defined area on the specific benefit basis, in order to provide the works necessary to serve the area to be defined. The area defined shall be for the purpose of this election a separate voting precinct. (j) The notice of election and manner of holding it, and the qualification of electors, shall be the same as for the issuance of bonds by such district. The notice shall, in addition to other requirements, set out in full the minutes giving the findings of the board as to the peculiar needs of the area defined, the works to be provided and the sum required to provide the works proposed. At such election the ballot shall have printed thereon in substance the following: "For designation of the area, the issuance of bonds, and the levy of a tax upon the specific benefit basis within the defined area," and, "Against such designation, the issuance of bonds and levy." (k) If the majority vote in the defined area is in favor of the proposal the directors of a district shall declare the result of the election by order in their minutes giving accurate description of the boundary of the defined area. A copy of this order properly certified shall be recorded in the deed records of the county or counties in which the defined area may lie. (l) If a majority vote within the defined area favors the issuance of such bonds the directors may issue bonds, assess benefits, levy and collect taxes to retire the bonds and to maintain the works designed to serve the defined area, and shall administer the business of said defined area as part of their duties as directors under the applicable provisions of said Chapter 25 of the Acts of the 39th Legislature. (m) If a majority of the vote in the whole district favors the creation of a defined area, or areas, within the district, then and in that event, and if the sums derived from the assessments and levy of specific benefit taxes within the defined area are not in any year sufficient to meet the obligations of the district for any given year under the bonds issued for the benefit of a defined area or areas, then the succeeding year the directors of the district shall levy upon the district as a whole a supplemental ad valorem tax or specific benefit assessment tax sufficient to protect the defaulted obligations under said bonds. In case of such levy or assessment to protect the deficiency the district shall reimburse itself by enforcement of its tax lien, hereby created, upon the property located in the defined area. The taxes in such defined area shall be levied, assessed and collected, as provided for by Sections 132 and 133 of said Chapter 25 of the Acts of the 39th Legislature. (n) The fact that bonds have been issued and sold by the district shall not prevent the creation of a defined area as provided herein, and the issuance of bonds for the specific benefit of such designated area, and to be retired by the assessment of specific taxes in such defined area. (o) Save as herein provided the issuance and sale of such bonds based on a defined area shall be in accordance with the provisions of said Chapter 25 relating to the issuance and sale of other bonds by the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 124, ch. 25, § 130; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 21.]

Art. 7880—131. Directors to apportion and assess benefits.—In the event an irrigation or water improvement district shall have heretofore been operated or shall hereafter be operated under contract with the United States and such district shall have adopted or may adopt the plan of the levy and collection of taxes on a benefit basis, instead of an ad valorem basis, then the directors of said district shall at some convenient time thereafter, and from time to time as may be necessary act as a board to apportion and assess the benefits conferred upon any and all property situated within such district and shall cause a record to be made showing the amount and value of the benefits computed to accrue to all of the property situated within such district and subject to taxation, and the amount of taxes upon such basis to be levied and collected against such property; provided that no taxes so assessed or adjudged against such property shall be in excess of the benefit accruing and to accrue to such property from the organization, operation and maintenance of such district and the improvements to be constructed or purchased thereby. After such record shall have been made up the board shall cause notice to be mailed to each property owner whose name appears upon such record, showing the amount of taxes to be levied against such property and fixing a date and place at which such owner may appear and contest the correctness and equitableness of such tax. And after such hearing, said board or other governing body shall determine the inequitableness of the tax and sustain, reduce, or increase the same as in their judgment shall be just and equitable, and the decision of such board shall be final. All of the provisions hereof not inconsistent therewith shall apply to the levy, assessment and collection of the taxes herein provided for. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 125, § 131.]

Art. 7880—132. Manner of levying assessment, collection of taxes, etc.—In the event that any district other than those operating under contract with the United States shall adopt the assessment for benefit plan of taxation as provided by law, then in that event, the levy, assessment, equalization of property values and collection of taxes shall be made in the manner herein provided.

A. As soon as practicable after the approval of the report of the engineer, and the adoption of the plan of improvements to be constructed, the board of directors shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall be known as commissioners of appraisal, but who shall be freeholders, but not owners of land within the district for which they are to act.

B. The secretary of the board of directors immediately following the appointment of the commissioners of appraisal shall, in writing, notify each of his appointment and in the notice designate the time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to meet at the time and place specified or as soon thereafter as possible and when they shall each take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully and impartially perform their duty as such commissioners, and make true report of the work done by them, and at such meeting the commissioners shall organize by electing one of their members chairman and one vice-chairman, and the secretary of the board of directors, or in his absence such person as the board of directors may appoint, shall be the secretary of said commissioners during their continuance in office and shall furnish to them such information and such assistance as may be within his power and necessary to the performance of their duties.

C. Within thirty days after qualifying and organizing as above directed, the commissioners of the appraisal shall begin their duties, and they may at any time call upon the attorney of the district for legal advice and information relative to such duties, and may if necessary require the presence of the district engineer or one of his assistants at such times and for so long as may be necessary for the proper performance of their duties. Such commissioners shall proceed to view the lands in such district as will be affected by the plan of reclamation for such district as carried out, and all public roads, railroads, rights of way and other property or improvements located within such districts and shall assess the amounts of benefits and all damages, if any, that will accrue to any tract of land or other property within such district or to any public highway, railroad and other rights of way, roadways or other property from carrying out and putting into effect the improvements to be constructed by such district. The board shall prepare a report of their findings which shall show the owner of each piece of property examined and on or concerning which any assessment is made, together with such description of said property as may identify the same, with the amount of damages and all benefits assessed for and on account of or against the same, which said report shall be signed by at least a majority of said commissioners and filed with the secretary of the board of directors of the district, and which report shall also show the number of days each commissioner has been employed and the actual expense incurred by each during his service as commissioner, and each shall be paid by the district not to exceed ten dollars per day for his services, and all necessary expenses in addition thereto on approval of the account for such per diem and expenses by the board of directors. Said commissioners shall in their said report fix a time and place when and where they will hear objections thereto, and such date shall not be more than twenty days after filing such report.

D. At or before the hearing upon the report of the commissioners of appraisal, any owner of land or other property affected by such report or the plan of reclamation or improvements may file exceptions to any or all parts of such report and said commissioners, at the time and place specified in the notice shall proceed to hear and base opinion on such objections, and where such objections are sustained, in whole or in part, may make such changes and modifications from time to time as may be necessary to conform the report to their findings. When the commissioners shall have finally acted, they shall make a decree confirming such report in so far as it is confirmed, and confirming and approving the same as modified or changed in so far as it may be modified or changed. The commissioners shall have power to adjudge and apportion costs incurred upon the hearing in such manner as may be deemed equitable. The findings of the commissioners as to damages and benefits to lands, railroads and other property within the district shall be final and conclusive. The final decree and judgment of the commissioners shall be entered of record in the minutes of the board of directors, and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the lands within such districts are located, as a permanent record of such county and such findings shall be notice to all persons of the contents and purpose of such decree.

E. When the report of the commissioners shall have been filed with the secretary of the board of directors, he shall forthwith give notice by publication in a newspaper published in each county wherein any portion of the district is located for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed for such hearing of the time and place for such hearing, and he shall also mail a written notice to all persons whose property will in any wise be affected by the carrying out of the plan of reclamation and improvement if his post office is known, stating the time and place of such meeting, which notice shall state in substance that the report of the commissioners to assess benefits and damages accruing to land or other property by reason of the plan of reclamation and improvement for the district in question has been filed in his office, and that all persons interested therein may examine same and make objections thereto in whole or in part, and that the commissioners will meet on the day and at the place named for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to such report, and the secretary upon the day of hearing shall file in his office the original notice with his[,] affidavit thereto, showing the manner of publication and the names of all persons to whom notices have been mailed and that post offices of those to be affected to whom notices were not mailed were unknown to him, and could not be ascertained by reasonable diligence, and copies of such notice and affidavit shall be filed, one with the commissioners of appraisal and one with the clerk of the county commissioners' court.

F. After the action of the commissioners of appraisal as aforesaid, their final findings, judgment and decree, until lawfully changed or modified shall form the basis of taxation within and for the district for which they shall have acted for all purposes for which taxes may be levied by, for and on behalf of such district and all taxes shall be apportioned and levied on each tract of land, railroad and other real property in the district in proportion to the net benefits of the property named in such final judgment or decree as shown thereby. In all matters before the commissioners of appraisal parties interested therein may not only appear in person or by attorney, but they shall be entitled to process for witnesses to be issued by the chairman of the commissioners of appraisal on demand, and such commissioners shall have the same power as a court of record to force the attendance of witnesses. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 125, § 132.]

Art. 7880—133. Benefit plan of taxation.— In the event that any district organized under the terms of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution shall adopt or have adopted the assessment of benefit plan of taxation instead of the ad valorem plan of taxation, fixing and assessment of property value on which taxes shall be levied and collected shall be made in the manner herein stated provided any such district may at the same election at which the adoption of such plan of taxation is voted upon, or at any other time before the issuance of bonds, vote upon the proposition of whether such benefits shall be fixed as an equal sum upon each acre of land that is irrigated or to be irrigated by gravity flow from the canal system of the district. In which event the amount of benefit per acre shall be voted upon as applied to all lands in the district that can be irrigated by gravity flow from the irrigation system to be constructed, or purchased, and also the benefit of lands in the district that cannot be so irrigated. When such questions are desired to be submitted and an election held to determine same the board of directors of the district shall submit same and order such election in the same manner as provided by law for other elections in such districts. The ballots for such elections shall have printed thereon the following propositions: "For uniform assessment of benefits of $—— per acre upon all irrigable lands in the district, and the assessment of $—— per acre upon all non-irrigable lands in the district." "Against uniform assessment of benefits."

Said blank spaces in said proposition shall be filled in with the amounts as determined by said board of directors to be voted upon. Said amount of charge per acre to be found by dividing the number of acres of land into the amount of indebtedness to be incurred by the district in providing for the irrigation of same. In the event the owners of lands classed as non-irrigable object to the amount of charges fixed against them by said order of the board calling such election or as a result of said election they may have their non-irrigable lands taken out of said district by filing application therefor as provided by law within ten days after such election is held. If a majority of those voting on such proposition at such election vote in favor thereof same shall be adopted.

In the event the plan of uniform valuation of acreage for taxation is adopted as herein provided the said valuation shall be applied to all such lands and it shall not be necessary for the assessor of the board of equalization to annually fix the value thereof or equalize the values, except as herein provided nor for the board of directors of the district to appoint a commission of appraisal to ascertain or fix the value of improvements to particular lands as in other cases provided. The board of equalization will examine the renditions and tax rolls to ascertain that all property subject to the tax is placed on such tax rolls under its proper classification and add any property thereto that may be left off of such tax rolls or that may not have been rendered for taxation, and examine and correct and certify to said tax rolls. Any property owner may protest the classification of his lands as not being proper and the board of equalization shall fully consider any such protest and after their findings thereon in their minutes in the same manner provided for protest in the case of the fixing of valuations upon property as provided by law.

The rate of taxation, the collection of taxes, assessment of property, rendering of property for taxation shall be made as now provided by law with reference to ad valorem taxes, except that only such lands shall be rendered or taxed and in rendering same the valuation thereof shall not be stated and it shall not be necessary that the party rendering same shall make affidavit to the value thereof nor that the value thereof be stated by the tax assessor, but same shall be rendered as subject to irrigation or not subject to irrigation.

In the event lands classed as non-irrigable are thereafter irrigated by said district, the owner thereof prior to receiving water for irrigation shall pay to the district an amount equal to the entire amount that would have been charged to same if same had originally been classed as irrigable. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 128, § 133.]

Art. 7880—134. Uniform assessment of benefits.—Districts organized for the purpose of constructing levees or works and plants as a protection from overflow, and districts organized for the purpose of constructing drainage systems, may adopt the proposition that the benefits shall be fixed at an equal sum upon each acre of land therein [in] the manner provided in the proceeding [preceding] section. In such event the proposition to be voted upon shall be stated in the order of election changing the wording thereof to apply to the purpose for which the district was organized or for which bonds are to be issued, substantially as follows:—"For uniform assessment of benefits for _____ purposes," and the negative "Against uniform assessment of benefits." [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 129, § 134.]

Art. 7880—135. Aid by town, city, or municipal corporation.—Any town, city or municipal corporation may have the benefit and powers herein provided under the constitution of this State and may aid any district in the construction and operation of any such improvements to the extent that same may be an advantage to such municipal corporation in the following manner:

A. The area included in any town, city or municipal corporation be organized into and constituted a water control and improvement district with all the powers, authority and privileges provided by Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution and be governed by this Act, by an ordinance duly enacted by the board of aldermen, commissioners, or governing body thereof, constituting same a water control and improvement district and appointing five directors therefor. The bonds of such directors shall be filed with and approved by said governing board of such municipality, and upon the qualifications of said directors said district is completely organized without the necessity of holding an election therefor. Said district shall from and after its organization be governed by the provisions of this Act and any amendments hereafter enacted.

B. Whenever a municipal corporation shall be constituted a water control and improvement district as herein provided all taxes levied therein may be assessed and collected in the manner herein provided or in the following manner: The directors of the district shall make an order fixing the rate of taxation and levying a tax as herein provided and enter same upon their minutes and then file a copy thereof duly signed by the president and secretary, with the seal affixed, with the secretary of the municipal corporation; the said secretary shall record same in a book kept in his office for that purpose and make and deliver to the tax assessor a copy thereof. Said tax levy shall be entered on the tax rolls and be assessed and collected in the same manner as other municipal taxes, and the collection thereof shall be governed by the provisions of law governing the collection of taxes in such municipal corporation, and all officers of such municipal corporation are charged with the same duties therein as provided by law for the collection of and accounting for municipal corporation taxes. The tax collector shall make a monthly report on the last day of each month of all such taxes collected to the district depository and deposit same therein, a copy of such report shall be filed in the office of the directors. The directors of the district pay to the city tax assessor, the city tax collector, and all other city officers reasonable compensation for the services performed by them for the district, the amount thereof to be fixed in advance of the performance of such duties.

D. When such taxes are so levied, assessed and collected it shall not be necessary for such district to appoint a tax assessor and collector, and the provisions of this Act with reference to the assessing and collecting of taxes shall not apply to such district.

E. All taxes levied, bonds issued, and indebtedness incurred by such water control and improvement district shall be subject to the provisions of the constitution and of this Act in so far as same require an election to authorize same.

F. Any such water control and improvement district may issue bonds and incur indebtedness for any purpose herein provided, or in aid thereof, in connection with the construction of improvements by any other district organized under the provisions of this Act or heretofore organized and governed by the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 135, § 135.]

Art. 7880—136. Payment of judgment against district.—In the event that any court within the State shall render any judgment of debt against any district such court may order the directors of such district to levy, assess and collect taxes or assessments to provide for the payment thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 131, § 136.]

Art. 7880—137. Suit to protect water rights.—The Board of directors are hereby empowered to institute and maintain any suit or suits to protect the water supply or other rights of the district and to prevent any unlawful interference with same or a diversion of its water supply by others and to prevent any taken or interference with such water supply or other rights. All districts may sue and be sued in the name of the district by and through its board of directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 131, § 137.]

Art. 7880—138. Sale of surplus water.—Any District may sell any surplus water that it may have to lands in the same vicinity, or to other Districts which include lands in the same vicinity, for the purpose of irrigation, domestic or commercial uses, or such District may contract to pump for or supply such other District with any waters in which such other District may have any right, if in the opinion of the Board of Directors same is advisable and on such terms as they provide. Any District may contract for the sale of water power privileges whenever it may be possible for power to be generated by the use of water flowing from their reservoir or within its canal system, provided, however, any such contract for the sale of water power privileges shall be subject to the duty of the District to protect the lands embraced therein in an adequate supply of water for the purpose for which such District was organized or for supplying water for municipal purposes in such Districts supplying water for such purposes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 131, ch. 25, § 138; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 377, ch. 254, § 1.]

Art. 7880—139. Investigation by State Board of Water Engineers.—The State Board of Water Engineers shall be and is constituted a commission to investigate and report upon the organization and feasibility of all districts which shall issue bonds under the provisions hereof. All such districts desiring to issue bonds for any purpose shall submit in writing to said board an application for investigation, together with a copy of the engineers report and a copy of data, profiles, maps, plans, and specifications prepared in connection therewith. Said board shall examine same and shall visit the project and carefully inspect the same and may ask for and shall be supplied with additional data and information requisite to a reasonable and careful investigation of the project and proposed improvements. They shall file in their office in writing their suggestions for changes and improvement and furnish a copy thereof to the board of directors of such district. If said board shall finally approve or refuse to approve such project, or the issuance of bonds for such improvements, they shall make a full written report thereon, file same in their office and furnish a copy of same to the board of directors of said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 131, § 139.]

Art. 7880—140. Effect of act on other districts.—This Act shall not in any manner affect or repeal other laws providing other methods of forming similar districts and shall not repeal or affect laws providing for the organization of water improvement districts, levee districts, improvement districts or levee improvement districts or drainage districts. And this Act shall apply to and affect only districts organized hereunder or specifically adopting the provisions hereof as herein[g] provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 132, § 140.]

Art. 7880—141. Donations and contributions.—Any district organized under the provisions hereof shall have authority to seek and solicit cooperation, donations and contributions from the United States Government, the Government of the State of Texas, or any other State or Nation, any county, municipality, water improvement district, water control district, drainage district, or any other political subdivision of Texas, any person, co-partnership, corporation or association and may incur reasonable expense to procure such cooperation, both with reference to adding to the area of the district or with reference to the contributions to the cost of the improvements undertaken by the district in such manner that the contributions would be either upon a percentage of cost, or a definite annual sum basis. (a) Any water improvement district, water control and improvement district, levee improvement district, county, city, town or other body politic within the State of Texas now organized or which may be hereafter organized shall have the power to enter into contract for contribution to the cost of the construction of drainage, flood control or water supply works, or the changing of the land elevations needing correction, to be constructed beyond the boundaries of the contributing district, municipality, or other political subdivision of the State of Texas, and to so contribute even though such works may be located beyond the boundaries of Texas or of the United States, and by whomsoever such works are to be constructed. Such contribution shall be in proportion to the extent that the proposed works will be a benefit to the contributor. (b) Such contract may provide for the issuance of bonds by the contributor and direct payment to contractors upon the estimates of the engineer for the contributor, out of the proceeds of such bonds. If bonds are to be issued by a body politic the contributor shall submit the contract for contribution to its qualified electors for approval and for authority to issue the bonds, fix a lien to secure the bonds and to levy, assess and collect taxes to retire the bonds. All such procedure by a contributing political subdivision of Texas shall be in conformity to the applicable law under which such contributing body politic has its being and may create bonded indebtedness. The disposition of the proceeds of such bonds shall be in conformity to the approved contract of contribution. (c) Such contract for contribution may provide that in lieu of the issuance of bonds the contributor may provide for the levy, assessment and collection of an annual tax in a specific sum to be a lien on the property within the contributor's taxing power, which tax shall be collected by the contributor at its own expense, and annually paid to the constructor of the works to which the contribution is to be made, and such annual payment shall be held as a trust fund by the constructor of the proposed works and applied annually by such constructor upon the bonds issued by it to provide funds for the construction of the works to which contribution[s] is to be made. (d) Such contract shall be submitted by the contributor to its qualified electors for approval and for authority to levy and assess a tax sufficient to meet the annual payments fixed in the contract of contribution. Such levy or assessment shall be a lien on the property subject to the contributor's taxing power. The election for the approval of the contract and the authorized taxes for the fulfillment of the contract shall be held in conformity to appropriate law under which such contributing body politic has its being and may create [create] bonded indebtedness. Payment of the annual sums of contribution shall be in conformity to the contract of contribution. (e) If the proposed contributor has any fund not otherwise appropriated, or any fund not required for actual use, even though otherwise appropriated, the said fund may be withdrawn from the appropriation not needing the fund and the same or either of the same may be applied in payment of contributions to the cost of the works deemed to be a benefit to the contributor, but to be constructed by another, or jointly by the contributor and another. Contributions from such an unappropriated, or available fund shall be within the powers of the governing officers of the contributing body politic, who are hereby authorized to enter into contract for contribution, and to contribute, without submitting the same to a vote of the qualified electors of the contributor. Such contribution shall not however be made in any case where the contribution would impair the ability of the contributor to meet any outstanding obligation or to well and economically discharge contributor's duty to its electorate or constituency. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 132, ch. 25, § 141; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 22.]

Art. 7880—142. Topographic maps and data.—It is hereby made the duty of the Reclamation Engineer of the State of Texas to furnish to any district topographic maps and data concerning all elements of the various projects undertaken by the district for the control of floods. It shall be the duty of the State Board of Water Engineers to furnish to a district topographic maps and data concerning all projects for the storage of water or creation of reservoirs undertaken by the district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 132, § 142.]

Art. 7880—143. Conversion of districts.—Any water improvement district, levee improvement district, irrigation district, or other conservation and reclamation district heretofore organized, or hereafter to be organized, under the provision of Section 59 Article 16, or Section 52 of Article 3 of the State Constitution, may become and be converted into a water control and improvement district in the following manner: The Board of Directors, supervisor or other governing body of such district shall adopt a resolution declaring that in their judgment it is for the best interest of such district, and will be a benefit to the lands and property included in said district to become a water control and improvement district, and to operate under the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas. Such resolution shall be entered in their minutes. Notice of the adoption of such resolution shall be given by publication thereof in a newspaper having general circulation in the county or counties in which the district is situated. Such notice shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks. The first publication must appear not less than fourteen full days prior to the time set down for a hearing. Notice shall state the time and place of the hearing and shall set out the resolution in full. It shall notify all interested persons to appear and offer testimony for or against the proposal contained in the resolution. If, upon a hearing, the board of directors, board of supervisors, or other governing body, find that it would be for the best interest of the district to be converted into a water control and improvement district, and would be a benefit to the lands and property situated in said district, then, and in that event, they shall enter their order so finding, and said district shall thereupon become a water control and improvement district. If they find that it would not be for the best interest of the district and would not be a benefit to the lands and property situated in the district, they shall so find and enter their order against conversion of the district to a water control and improvement district. The findings of said board of directors, board of supervisors, or other governing body, shall be final and not subject to appeal or review. All water improvement districts, levee improvement districts and other districts referred to in this section which shall become and be constituted a water control and improvement district under the provisions hereof shall be a conservation and reclamation district under the provisions of Section 59 Article 16 of the State Constitution and shall thereafter be governed by this Act, and any amendments hereof hereafter adopted, and shall have and may exercise all the powers, authority, functions and privileges herein provided in the same manner and to the same extent as if same had been organized under the provisions hereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 132, ch. 25, § 143; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 23.]

Art. 7880—144. Proceedings validated.—All the proceedings had and taken to organize any water improvement district or irrigation district and to determine the areas of land included therein and which are benefited thereby, and to determine the manner in which taxes and assessments for taxation should or shall be made, levied and collected, or to bring any such district under the provisions of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, or to authorize the issuance of notes or bonds, or for the election and qualification of its officers and directors, or for construction of projects jointly by two or more districts, shall be and are hereby in all respects declared to be ratified, validated, approved and confirmed by the conversion thereof into such water control and improvement district as herein provided. Provided, however, nothing herein contained shall in any manner affect or validate any bonds or any taxes or charges for the payment of any bonds, or any proceedings for the organization of a district, the validity of which bonds, taxes or proceedings is now being challenged or litigated in any court of this State. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 133, § 144.]

Art. 7880—145. Applications by candidates for director.—Candidates for the office of director or other elective offices may file with the secretary of the board of directors application to have their names printed upon the ballots to be used at an election. Such applications shall be signed by such candidates, or by ten qualified voters, and shall be filed at least twenty days prior to the date of such election. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 133, § 145.]

Art. 7880—146. Directors in districts containing less than 12,000 acres.—In all districts hereafter organized under the provisions of this Act which contain not to exceed twelve thousand acres of land and in which fifty per cent or more of the lands in such district are owned by persons who do not reside in the district, the directors shall be appointed by the county commissioners' court, instead of being elected as herein provided, if the petition for the organization of such district shall so provide. The term of office of such directors shall be two years, and they shall be so appointed at the same time fixed for election of directors in other districts, and if for any reason the county commissioners' court is not in session at that time the said court shall appoint said directors as soon thereafter as possible. The owners of the lands in such district may file with the county commissioners' court, petitions expressing their choice of persons to be selected as directors and if a majority of those filing such petition agree upon the persons to be appointed, the persons so agreed upon, if qualified, shall be appointed, otherwise the said court shall appoint suitable qualified persons as such directors. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 133, § 146.]

Art. 7880—147. Lands added to district; liability for debts.—When land is added to an established district and such district is organized or is operating under the authority of Section 59 of Article 16 of the State Constitution, such land may be added to such district upon the agreement contained in the order of the board of directors admitting such land to the district that same will be taxed upon the assessment of benefit plan of taxation instead of upon the plan of the general ad valorem tax, and such agreement may provide that such added land shall be so taxed upon a uniform acreage basis or upon the plan of a definite annual charge. In such event the amount of the debts to be paid by such land and the amount to be paid as an annual tax thereon for the purpose of paying such debt shall be fixed by the order of the board of directors admitting such land to the district and the same shall become a lien on said land in the same manner and to the same extent as if said land had been a part of said district at the time said indebtedness was incurred or authorized by an election held for that purpose. Such added land shall be a part of such district and shall be liable for debts thereafter incurred in the same way as other lands in said district. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 25, p. 134, § 147.]

Art. 7880—147a. Districts validated.—All water improvement districts which have heretofore complied with the requirements of Chapter 25 of the Acts of the 39th Legislature relating to converting such districts to water control and improvement districts are hereby declared to be valid water control and improvement districts just as though they had been originally organized under the provisions of said Chapter 25 of the Acts of said 39th Legislature, and further all water control and improvement districts as now defined and bounded, the validity of which is not now being contested in any of the courts of this State, are hereby declared to be valid water control and improvement districts and to have the powers and duties defined in and granted by Chapter 25 of the Acts of the 39th Legislature of Texas, and as well to have any powers and duties which may be hereafter defined in or granted by any Act amending said Act. All bonds issued by such districts, which have been declared valid by a judgment of the district court, and not appealed from, or by a judgment of the district court affirmed on appeal, or by the Attorney General of this State, shall be and are held to be valid and binding obligations of such districts and not subject to attack except for fraud. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 24.]

Art. 7880—147b. Record of proceedings.—All proceedings of the directors of a district and all decrees and orders of any court affecting the formation, boundaries or validity of such district must be recorded in the office of the county clerk of each county in which such district is located in a special record book kept for that purpose. This recording is to be in addition to other recording provisions in this Act contained. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 496, ch. 107, § 24.]

CHAPTER THREE B

AID TO CAMERON AND WILLACY COUNTIES FOR PROTECTION AGAINST OVERFLOWS

Art.

- 7880—148. Sinking fund.
7880—149. Bond issue for levees, etc.
7880—150. Collection of tax.
7880—151. Payment of interest on bonds.
7880—152. Grant to take effect when.
7880—153. Grant to terminate on retirement of bonds.

Article 7880—148. Sinking fund.—For the purpose of aiding in the protection of the property and lives of the citizens of Cameron and Willacy Counties from further disastrous and calamitous overflows, and to conserve and increase the revenues derived by the State from said counties, that part of the State ad valorem taxes, which is in excess of ten cents on the hundred dollars valuation of property subject to taxation, collected upon property and from persons in the county of Cameron, including the rolling stock belonging to railroad companies which shall be ascertained and apportioned as provided by law, is hereby donated and granted by the State of Texas to the county of Cameron, for a period of twenty-five years, beginning January 1, 1926, to be used by said county in part payment of interest and in creation of a sinking fund to pay the bonds of said county which shall be voted and issued as herein provided to obtain funds for the construction of the necessary breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways to protect the counties of Cameron and Willacy from such disastrous and calamitous overflows. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 161, § 1.]

Art. 7880—149. Bond issue for levees, etc.—It is an express condition of this grant that the resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters in Cameron County shall, on or before October 1, 1926, authorize the issuance of the bonds of said county in an amount not less than one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, nor more than one million five hundred thousand dollars, voted, issued and sold as is, or may be prescribed by law; the proceeds whereof shall be applied to the construction of the breakwaters, levees, dikes, floodways and drainways necessary to protect the counties of Cameron and Willacy from such overflows. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 162, § 2.]

Art. 7880—150. Collection of tax.—During the term of this grant the tax collector of Cameron County shall collect and pay into the State Treasury, as prescribed by law, ten cents on each one hundred dollars valuation of taxable property in Cameron County, as State ad valorem taxes; while the portion of said State ad valorem tax which is hereby donated and granted to Cameron County shall be levied and collected by Cameron County as is herein provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 162, § 3.]

Art. 7880—151. Payment of interest on bonds.—This donation and grant is further made with the express condition that Cameron County shall levy and collect, in the manner prescribed by law, an ad valorem tax on all property subject to taxation in said county, sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds as it accrues and create a sinking fund in an amount sufficient to pay the principal thereof at maturity, and in addition thereto an annual ad valorem tax of five cents on the $100 valuation to maintain said breakwaters, dikes, levees, floodways and drainways during the term of this grant, and said county of Cameron shall bond itself for the full constitutional limit for said purposes herein and assess and collect taxes on the county to pay said bonds and the excess after payment of the bonds shall be paid to the State of Texas; and when said county shall have made such levy, the State taxes hereby donated to said county shall not be separately levied and collected, but for convenience in administering this Act, shall be collected and applied by said county as part of said ad valorem tax, levied and collected to pay interest on and to create a sinking fund to retire said bonds. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 162, § 4.]

Art. 7880—152. Grant to take effect when.—The grant and donation hereby made shall take effect whenever the duly constituted authorities of Cameron County shall have filed with the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, a properly authenticated certified copy of the order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of an election at which the property tax payers who are qualified voters of Cameron County shall have authorized the issuance of bonds as herein provided; and such certified copy of said order shall likewise have the effect of authorizing and directing the Comptroller of Public Accounts to settle with the tax collector of Cameron County in conformity with the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 162, § 5.]

Art. 7880—153. Grant to terminate on retirement of bonds.—The grant and donation hereby made shall terminate in less than twenty-five years whenever the sinking fund provided by the terms of this Act shall become sufficient to retire the bonds issued under its provisions. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 35, p. 163, § 6.]

1. ESTABLISHMENT

Article 7881. Purposes.—There may be created within this State conservation districts to be known as Fresh Water Supply Districts for the purpose of conserving, transporting and distributing fresh water from lakes, pools, reservoirs, wells, springs, creeks, and rivers for domestic and commercial purposes, as contemplated by Section 59, Article 16 of the State Constitution. Said districts shall have and may exercise all the rights, privileges and powers given by this chapter and in accordance with its directions, limitations and provisions. Such districts may or may not include cities and towns. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 107.]

Art. 7882. Petition.—When it is proposed to create a district, a petition shall be presented to the commissioners court of the county embracing the lands in the proposed district, or to the county judge of the county if said court is not in session. Said petition shall be signed by fifty or a majority of the qualified voters of such district who own land therein, and shall set forth the boundaries thereof, the general nature of the work proposed to be done, the necessity therefor, and the feasibility thereof, and designating a name therefor which shall include the name of the county in which it is situated. [Id.]

Art. 7883. Deposit.—The petition shall be accompanied by a deposit of one hundred dollars, which shall be paid to the county clerk who shall pay same out upon vouchers approved by the county judge, for all expenses incident to the hearing and the election for the creation of the district, returning any excess to the petitioners or their attorney. [Id.]

Art. 7884. Notice of hearing.—The Commissioners' Court or County Judge, as the case may be, shall forthwith fix a time and place at which the petition shall be heard by the court not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days thereafter, and shall direct the county clerk, as ex-officio clerk of said court, to issue notice of such time and place of hearing. Such notice shall inform all persons of their right to appear and contest the form, and allegations of such petition, and the necessity and feasibility of such project, and the benefits to accrue, which notice may be delivered to any adult who is willing to execute the same by posting as herein directed. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 165, ch. 58, § 1.]

Art. 7885. Posting of notice.—Upon receipt of the notice, such person or persons receiving same shall post a copy thereof at the door of the courthouse of said county, and a copy at four different places within such proposed district. Such posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The persons so posting shall make affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths, of their action in respect to such posting, and such affidavit shall be conclusive of the facts sworn to. [Id.]

Art. 7886. Hearing.—The court shall examine the petition to ascertain the sufficiency thereof, and any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and offer testimony touching the sufficiency of such petition. Such court shall have jurisdiction to determine all issues raised touching the sufficiency of such petition. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day as the facts may require. The court shall have power to make all incidental orders necessary in respect to the matters before it. [Id.]

Art. 7887. Findings.—If, upon the hearing of such petition, it be found that the same sets forth and conforms to the requirements of Article 7882, and that such project is feasible and practical, is necessary and would be of benefit to the lands therein, such court shall so find by its order, and shall order an election within the boundaries of such proposed district as set forth in the petition, which shall be held not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of such order whereat the property tax paying voters within such boundaries may determine if such proposed district shall be established for the purposes and with the powers set out in this chapter, and for the election of five supervisors and a person to be assessor and collector of taxes. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 165, ch. 58, § 2.]

Art. 7887a. Districts validated.—In all Fresh Water Supply Districts heretofore formed, or now being formed, wherein the petition for such conforms to the requirements of Article 7882, setting out the necessity and feasibility of such project, and a notice of the time and place of hearing was given by the clerk, as directed in Article 7884, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and same was duly posted, and upon the hearing it was found by the Commissioners' Court that such petition was signed by the requisite number of proper parties, and was necessary and feasible, which shall be construed as a finding that same is a benefit to the lands therein, and ordered an election as provided, and for the purposes set forth, in Article 7887, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, and at which election a majority of such voters voted in favor of the District, are hereby declared to have been legally created within the meaning, intent and purposes of this Chapter, and the same are hereby validated as of the respective times and dates of such proceedings, and are recognized and established and with the boundaries set forth in such several Districts, and all bonds voted or issued thereunder are validated and declared to be legal and binding obligations of such several districts, according to their terms. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 165, ch. 58, § 3.]

Art. 7888. Notice of election.—Notice of such election shall be given stating the time and places of holding the election, and showing the boundaries of said district, the proposition to be voted upon, the officers to be voted for, and the presiding officers appointed for holding said election. Such notice shall be posted at the courthouse door for twenty days prior to the day of the election. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 107.]

Art. 7889. Conduct of election.—At all elections hereunder, none but resident property tax payers who are qualified voters of such proposed district shall be entitled to vote. The commissioners court shall name polling places for such election. Each district is hereby constituted an election precinct for the purposes of the election above specified, and all other elections which may be ordered or held under this chapter. Said court shall appoint two judges, one of whom shall be presiding judge, and two clerks at each polling place. [Id.]

Art. 7890. Ballot.—The commissioners court shall provide the necessary ballots for such election, which shall have printed thereon the following: "For the Fresh Water Supply District," "Against the Fresh Water Supply District," and the names of the persons recommended for supervisors and officers in the petition. Said ballot shall also have five blank places after the names of those printed, on which each voter may write the names of other persons, supervisors, and assessor and collector, and there shall be no other matter placed on said ballot. [Id.]

Art. 7891. Voter's oath.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held under the provisions of this chapter shall take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and such judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed Fresh Water Supply District voted on at this election, and have not voted before in this election." [Id.]

Art. 7892. Results of election.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judges shall make returns of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers. Said commissioners court shall forthwith, at a regular or called session, canvass such vote, and if it is found that a majority of such votes favor the creation of such district, then said court shall so declare and enter the result on their minutes; and shall issue certificates of election to the persons receiving the highest number of votes, respectively, for supervisors and assessor and collector. If two or more persons receive the same number of votes for the position of fifth supervisor, said court shall select one of said persons to fill said position. [Id.]

Art. 7893. Declaration of result.—If said court shall declare said election to be in favor of the establishment of the district, then it shall cause to be made and entered in the minutes of said court an order setting forth substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a Fresh Water Supply District as in said petition described and designated as _____ County Fresh Water Supply District No. _____; be it known that an election was called for that purpose in said district and held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. 19— and a majority of the resident taxpayers voting thereat voted in favor of the creation of said District. Now, therefore, it is ordered by the Court that a Fresh Water Supply District be and the same is hereby established under the name of _____ County Fresh Water Supply District No. _____ with the following metes and bounds." Such field notes shall be copied in the record. The first district created hereunder in any county shall assume the Number "One," the second district shall assume the number "Two," and so on consecutively. [Id.]

Art. 7894. Registration of order.—After entering said order, the court shall cause to be made a certified copy thereof which shall be filed with the county clerk and duly recorded in the deed records of said county. Such recordation shall have the same effect in so far as notice is concerned, as is provided for the record of deeds. All costs in connection with the making and recording of such copy shall be paid by the district. [Id.]

Art. 7895. District tax assessor.—The office of assessor and collector for the district shall be filled by the same person. He shall qualify as such by making good and sufficient bond for five thousand dollars, payable to the district and approved by the commissioners court, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties and upon paying over to the district depository of all money coming into his hands as such collector. He shall be required to give additional security if, in the judgment of the supervisors, the same may become necessary. He shall be a resident of the district and a qualified voter in the district. He shall receive not to exceed twenty-four hundred dollars per annum, as may be provided by the supervisors. The first assessor shall hold office until the next general election for officers. The person elected to such office at the next general election shall hold office for two years. All vacancies in such office shall be filled by the supervisors for the unexpired term. [Id.]

Art. 7896. Supervisor's bond and oath.—Within ten days or as soon after the making and entry of said order as practicable, each supervisor shall give a good bond for five thousand dollars payable to the district and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties, to be approved by the commissioners court. Each supervisor shall take the oath of office prescribed by the statute for commissioners court, except that the name of the district shall be substituted for the county. Said bond and oath shall be filed with the clerk of the county wherein the order was entered creating said district, and by him recorded in the official bond records of said county. Said bond shall then be delivered by the county clerk to the district depository, and shall be by it safely kept as part of the records of said district. [Id.]

Art. 7897. General election.—A general election for the election of five supervisors and one assessor and collector for such district shall be held therein biennially on the first Tuesday in January. [Id.]

Art. 7898. Fees.—For all services performed by any officer or individual under this law, the compensation for which is not expressly provided for, such officer or individual shall receive the same compensation as he would for like service if rendered as an officer for the county. Clerks recording orders hereunder shall receive the same compensation as a county clerk for recording deeds, and persons posting notices hereunder shall receive the same compensation as a sheriff for officially rendering such service. [Id.]

Art. 7899. Organization expenses.—The supervisors are authorized to pay all necessary costs and expenses necessarily incurred in the creation and organization of any district, and to reimburse any person, corporation or association for money advanced for such purposes. Such payment shall be made from money obtained from the sale of bonds. [Id.]

2. BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Art. 7900. Qualifications.—No person shall be elected as supervisor for any district unless he is a resident thereof and owns land subject to taxation therein, and unless at the time of such election he shall be more than twenty-one years of age. [Id.]

Art. 7901. Term of office.—The supervisors shall hold office for the same period as that provided for the district assessor. In case of vacancy in the board, their successors shall be chosen as provided by law for the filling of vacancies in the board of directors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7902. Salary.—The supervisors shall each receive not exceeding ten dollars for each day necessarily taken in the discharge of their duties as such, and they shall make a statement of such services similar to that required by law of directors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7903. Organization of board.—The supervisors shall organize by electing one of their number as president. Any three supervisors shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district. They shall have power to appoint a secretary who shall receive such compensation as the Board of Supervisors may fix, not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars per month. [Id.]

Art. 7904. Meetings.—The supervisors shall maintain a regular office in the district suitable for conducting the affairs of such district; and shall hold regular meetings thereat at ten o'clock in the morning on the first Mondays in February, May, August and November of each year. They shall hold such regular and special meetings at such office as they may see fit, and any taxpayer or resident or interested party may attend such meeting, but shall not participate in same without the consent of the supervisors, and may present in an orderly manner to said supervisors such matters as they desire. [Id.]

Art. 7905. District records.—The supervisors shall keep a true account of all their meetings and proceedings, and shall preserve all contracts, records of notices, duplicate vouchers, duplicate receipts, and all accounts and records of whatever kind, in a fire-proof vault or safe, and same shall be the property of the district, and shall be delivered to their successors in office. [Id.]

Art. 7906. Vouchers.—All vouchers issued for the payment of any funds of the district shall be signed by at least three supervisors and shall refer to the book and page of the minutes allowing such act. All vouchers shall be issued from a regular duplicate book, retaining a duplicate which shall be preserved. [Id.]

Art. 7907. District depository.—The supervisors shall select a depository for such district as provided by law for the selection of county depositories; and the duties of such depositories shall be the same as provided by law for county depositories. In such selection, the supervisors shall act in the same capacity and perform the same duties as are incumbent upon the county judge and members of the commissioners court in the selection of county depositories. The depository shall perform the services of district treasurer, and shall execute a bond as such as may be required by the supervisors. Such depository shall make and file reports and preserve the district records as required of depositories under Chapter 2 hereof. [Id.]

Art. 7908. Audit.—The supervisors shall have kept a complete book of accounts for such district, and shall on June first of each year select a competent auditor who shall examine the accounts, books and reports of the depository, the assessor and collector and supervisors, and make full report thereon, a copy of which shall be filed with the depository, and a copy with the supervisors, and one with the county clerk. Such reports shall be filed by September first of each year, and shall show in detail for what purposes the money from each fund has been expended. [Id.]

Art. 7909. Powers of board.—The supervisors shall have control over and management of all the affairs of such district, shall make all contracts pertaining thereto, and shall have control of the construction of all improvements and works within and without the boundaries of such district, and the transportation and distribution of the water of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7910. Powers: use of water.—The board shall prescribe the manner and terms upon which water shall be furnished, and shall be authorized to fix the rate to be charged users of waters from such district, and shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the distribution and use of water; and shall apply the revenue from the sale of such water to operating expenses and the upkeep of the system of improvements installed in said district, and any surplus that may be left after paying such expenses shall be from year to year applied to the paying of interest on the bonds or other indebtedness that may be incurred by the district, and if there be more than enough to pay operating and upkeep expenses and the interest on the indebtedness of the district, then such surplus shall be passed to the sinking fund. [Id.]

Art. 7911. Powers: employes.—The board shall employ all necessary employes for the proper handling and operation of such district, and especially may employ a general manager, attorneys, a bookkeeper and an engineer and such assistants and laborers as may be required. [Id.]

Art. 7912. District engineer.—After the establishment of any district, and after the qualification of the supervisors, the board may appoint an engineer who shall make maps and profiles of the several canals, reservoirs, aqueducts, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and all other works in such district and connected therewith and shall also show any part of said works extending beyond the limits of such district; and shall do such other and further work connected with such district as may be directed by the supervisors. He shall receive not exceeding thirty-six hundred dollars per year, as may be fixed by the board. Such engineer may adopt other maps, plats and surveys of the correctness of which he may be satisfied. [Id.]

Art. 7913. Official bonds.—All bonds required to be given by the officers and employes of such district shall be governed by the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title governing the approval and furnishing of bonds by surety companies for officers and employes of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7914. Powers: equipment.—The board may buy all necessary implements, machinery, work animals, equipment and supplies, as may be required for the construction, operation and maintenance of the system of works and improvement of such district. [Id.]

3. POWERS OF DISTRICT

Art. 7915. Status of district.—All districts shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate; and such districts are hereby declared to be defined districts within the meaning of Section 59, Article 16 of the State Constitution, and may, through their supervisors, sue and be sued in any and all courts of this State in the name of such districts, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts, and said districts shall contract and be contracted with in the name of such districts. [Id.]

Art. 7916. District seal.—Each district shall have a common seal which shall be circular in form with the name of the district surrounding a five pointed star. [Id.]

Art. 7917. Powers of district.—All such districts shall have such powers of government, and with authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the purposes for which they are created, as may be conferred by this chapter, or any other law in this State, to the benefit of which they may become entitled. All such districts shall have full authority and right to acquire water rights and privileges in any way that any individual or corporation may acquire same, and to hold the same either by gift, purchase, devise, appropriation or otherwise. No enumeration of specific powers herein shall be held a limitation upon the general powers conferred by this chapter, unless distinctly so expressed. [Id.]

Art. 7918. Powers: construction.—All districts shall have full power and authority to build, construct, complete, carry out, maintain, and in case of necessity add to and rebuild, all works and improvements within and without such districts necessary to accomplish any plan of conservation, transportation and distribution of fresh water adopted for or on behalf of such districts, and may make all necessary and proper contracts, and employ all persons and means necessary to that end; and such districts are authorized, if the governing bodies thereof shall deem it necessary, to take over in whole or in part by purchase or otherwise, any water plants or systems within such districts. [Id.]

Art. 7919. Construction contracts.—Contracts for the making and construction of all improvements contemplated in this chapter, and all necessary work in connection therewith, when the cost price exceeds ten thousand dollars shall be let to the lowest responsible bidder, furnishing satisfactory evidence of possessing equipment and facilities essential to the proper performance of such contract; after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State, once a week for ten days, and by posting a notice for at least ten days at the courthouse door. Such contract shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and supervisors, and a copy so executed filed with the depository subject to inspection of all interested parties. [Id.]

Art. 7920. Contractor's bond.—The person, firm, corporation or association to which such contract is let shall give bond to the district in such amount as the supervisors may determine, not to exceed the contract price, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the obligations, agreements and covenants of such contract, and for the payment to the district of all damages sustained in default thereof. Such bond shall be approved by the supervisors and shall be deposited with the depository, a true copy thereof being retained in the office of the district secretary. [Id.]

Art. 7921. Contract: performance.—All contracts shall be fulfilled in accordance with the specifications and under the supervision of the supervisors and district engineer. Such engineer shall inspect such work and make reports thereon, and such contract shall be paid as provided by law for similar contracts executed by water control and preservation districts. [Id.]

Art. 7922. Powers: indebtedness.—In the accomplishment of the purposes enumerated in the fourth preceding article, such districts may or may not issue bonds, and may or may not incur indebtedness. No bonds by or on behalf of such districts shall be issued nor shall any indebtedness against the same be incurred, unless the proposition to issue such bonds or to incur such indebtedness, shall be first submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such districts, and the proposition adopted by a majority vote at an election held to determine such question. [Id.]

Art. 7923. May enter lands.—The supervisors, engineers and employés of any district are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within or without said district for the purpose of examining the same with reference to the location of canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and all other kinds of improvements to be constructed for such district, and for any other lawful purpose connected with their plan of conservation, transportation and distribution of water. [Id.]

Art. 7924. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred on all districts to enable them to acquire the fee simple title, easement, or right of way over and through any and all lands, water, or lands under water, private or public (except lands and property used for parks, cemeteries, manufacturing industries and established and developed water powers existing at the time of the creation of such district), within and without such districts, necessary for making, constructing and maintaining all canals, conduits, aqueducts, pipe lines, pumping plants and other improvements necessary for the conservation, transportation and distribution of fresh water for the purposes herein named. Such proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the supervisors and in the name of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7925. Payment of damages.—All such compensation and damages adjudicated in such condemnation proceedings and all damage which may be done to the property of any person or corporation in the construction and maintenance of canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and other improvements under the provisions of this chapter, shall be paid out of any funds or properties of said district, except taxes necessarily applied to the sinking fund and interest on the district bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7926. Right of way; acquisition.—The supervisors are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for canals, conduits, pipe lines, pumping plants and other necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings; and such necessary improvements may be constructed and maintained within and without such proposed district upon lands acquired as herein authorized. [Id.]

Art. 7927. Right of way: roads.—All districts are hereby given the right of way across all public or county roads, but they shall restore such roads where crossed to their previous condition for use, as near as may be. [Id.]

Art. 7928. Use of road ways.—Said districts are authorized and empowered to make all necessary levees, bridges, and other improvements across or under any railroad embankments, tracks, or rights of way, or public or private roads or the rights of way thereof, or rivers or other public improvements of other districts, or other such improvements and the rights of way thereof, for the purpose of securing the fresh water supply necessary for said districts. [Id.]

Art. 7929. Railroad ways.—When such improvements are to be constructed across or under any railroad properties, notice shall first be given by said district to the proper railroad authorities or other persons relative to the additions or changes to result from the improvements contemplated; and said authorities or persons shall be given thirty days in which to agree to said work to be done in the manner proposed by said district, or to refuse to agree thereto; and in case of refusal, they shall at their own expense construct the said improvements in their own manner, provided such design or manner of construction shall be satisfactory to said district. [Id.]

Art. 7930. Joint projects.—All districts shall have authority to act jointly with each other, with political subdivisions of the State, with other States, with cities and towns, and with the Federal Government, in the performance of any of the things permitted by this chapter, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the supervisors. [Id.]

4. BONDS

Art. 7931. Election for bonds.—After the establishment of any district, and the qualification of the supervisors thereof, the board may order an election to be held within such district at a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of said order, at which there shall be submitted the proposition and none other: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 7932. Notice of election.—Notice of such election, stating the amount of bonds as determined by the board to be necessary to be issued, shall be given by the board by posting a copy thereof in four public places in the district, one at the courthouse door, for twenty days prior to the election. Such notice shall contain the proposition to be voted upon, with an estimate of the probable cost of construction of the proposed improvement, and incidental expenses connected therewith, and an estimate of the cost of the purchase of the improvements already existing, if the same is contemplated, or the purchase of said necessary improvements, and the construction of additions thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7933. Conduct of election.—The board shall name polling places in the district and shall appoint two judges, one of whom shall be presiding judge, and two clerks for each voting place designated by them. The supervisors shall provide the necessary ballots for said election, which shall have written or printed thereon the proposition to be submitted as provided in the second preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 7934. Elections: expenses.—All expenses incident to calling and holding all elections except the first authorized by this chapter, shall be paid out of any district funds, except interest and sinking fund for bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7935. Results of election.—Immediately after the election, the presiding judges shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers. Such return shall be made to the supervisors who shall at a regular or special session canvass said vote, and if a majority of said votes favor the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes, then the supervisors shall so declare and enter the result in their minutes. [Id.]

Art. 7936. Issuance of bonds.—After declaring the result of said election, the supervisors shall make and enter an order in their minutes directing the issuance of bonds for such district sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements with all necessary actual and incidental expenses connected therewith, not to exceed the amount specified in said order and notice of election. The provisions of Chapter 2 of this title providing for the issuance, denominations, rate of interest, manner and conditions of payment and maturity dates of water improvement district bonds shall apply. [Id.]

Art. 7937. Bonds: approval.—Before such bonds are offered for sale, there shall be forwarded to the Attorney General a certified copy of all proceedings had in the organization of the district, and with reference to the issuance of such bonds in connection with the bonds themselves, and such other information respecting same as he may require. The Attorney General shall carefully examine said bonds in connection with the record and Constitution and laws of this State governing the issuance of such bonds; and if such examination shows that such bonds are issued in conformity thereto, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon said district, he shall so officially certify. [Id.]

Art. 7938. Registration of bonds.—When such bonds are so approved, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose and the certificate of the Attorney General as to their validity shall be preserved of record; whereupon, such bonds shall be held prima facie valid in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity may be brought into question. In every suit to enforce collection of such bonds and interest thereon, the only available defense against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. [Id.]

Art. 7939. Sale of bonds.—After such bonds have been so registered, the supervisors shall sell same on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their face value and accrued interest; and shall promptly pay over to the district depository the proceeds of such sale to be placed to the credit of such district. [Id.]

Art. 7940. Bonds: payment.—At the time of the payment of interest or for redemption of district bonds, the depository shall receive and cancel any interest coupons so paid or any bonds so discharged, and when such interest coupon or bond shall be turned over to the supervisors, the account of such depository shall be credited with the amount thereof, and such bond or coupon shall be cancelled and destroyed. [Id.]

Art. 7941. Bonds: record book.—When bonds have been so issued, the supervisors shall procure and deliver to the county treasurer a well bound book in which a list shall be kept of all such bonds with their manner of payment, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, and the tax levy to pay interest on and redeem such bonds; and such books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested, either as taxpayers or bond holders. Upon the payment of any bond, said treasurer shall make an entry thereof in said book; and he shall receive for such services the same fees allowed by law to the county clerk for recording deeds. [Id.]

5. TAXES

Art. 7942. Duties of assessor.—The district assessor shall [return the assessment rolls and keep bound records thereof, fuse to sign the oath for tax assessments, shall make up and] return the assessment rolls and keep bound records thereof, collect all taxes and deposit the same weekly and make monthly reports of such collections, maintain an office, and be subject to the rules and regulations of the supervisors, in the same manner as provided by law for district tax assessors of water improvement districts. [Id.]

The bracketed matter is a typographical error.

Art. 7943. Collection of taxes.—All taxes provided for herein shall be collected under the direction of the district collector. He shall keep a true account of all moneys collected, and deposit same as collected in the district depository, and shall file with the district secretary a true statement of all money collected once a week. He shall use a duplicate receipt book and shall give a true receipt for each collection made, retaining in such book a true copy thereof which shall be preserved as a record of the district. [Id.]

Art. 7944. Assessor's accounts.—The assessor shall be charged by the supervisors upon a permanent finance ledger kept for the purpose by the district, with the total assessment as shown by the assessment rolls; and proper credit shall be given to him for all sums paid over to the depository as shown by his monthly reports; and upon final annual settlement, he shall make a complete report of all taxes that have not been collected, which report shall be audited by the supervisors and proper credits given therefor. Such annual settlements shall be made on the first Monday in May. [Id.]

Art. 7945. Tax assessments.—Immediately after the voting of such bonds, the district tax assessor shall at once proceed to make an assessment of all the taxable property, both real, personal and mixed in his district; and such assessment shall be made annually thereafter. Said assessment shall be made upon blanks to be provided by the district supervisors; and shall consist of a full statement under oath by the party rendering same of all property owned by him in said district and subject to State and county taxation, and shall state the full value thereof. Said assessor shall make out similar lists of all property not rendered for taxation in such district that is subject to State and county taxation. He shall have authority to administer oaths to fully carry out the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 7946. Assessment dates.—The assessment of taxes for such district shall be made on the first day of January of each year, and shall be completed and the lists and books ready to deliver on or before the first day of June. [Id.]

Art. 7947. Shall render property.—Each person, partnership or corporation owning taxable property in such district shall render same for taxation to the district assessor when called upon to do so, and if not so called upon, shall on or before June first of each year render for taxation all property owned by him in the district subject to taxation. [Id.]

Art. 7948. Board of Equalization.—At their first regular meeting, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and annually thereafter, the supervisors shall appoint three commissioners, each being a qualified voter and resident property owner of the district, who shall be styled the "Board of Equalization," and at the same meeting shall fix the time for the meeting of such Board for the first year. At such time said Board shall convene to receive all assessments, lists or books of the district assessor for examination, correction, equalization, appraisal and approval. At all meetings of such board a secretary shall keep a permanent record of all proceedings thereof. Each such commissioner and the secretary shall receive not exceeding five dollars per day for such services for the time actually engaged in the discharge of their duties. [Id.]

Art. 7949. Oath of members.—Before entering upon the duties as such board, each member shall take and subscribe to the following oath: "I, _____, do solemnly swear that I will to the best of my ability make a full and complete examination, correction, equalization and appraisal of all property contained within said district, as shown by the assessment list or books of the assessor for said district." Said oath shall be spread upon the minutes of said board. [Id.]

Art. 7950. Duties of board.—The Board of Equalization shall have the same powers and exercise the same duties with respect to such district, as is provided by law for equalization boards of water improvement districts. [Id.]

Art. 7951. Appraisal dates.—The Board of Equalization after the first year shall convene annually on the first Monday in June to receive all assessment lists or books of the assessor, and shall complete their examination and equalization of said lists by the second Monday in June, and deliver said rolls to the assessor by the second Monday in July, and said rolls shall be completed by the assessor and approved by the board and returned to said assessor by the first Monday in September. [Id.]

Art. 7952. Tax levy.—When bonds have been issued, the supervisors shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property, real, personal and mixed, in such district, based upon the full value of each piece of property, sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem and discharge such bonds at maturity; and such taxes shall thereafter be levied annually so long as such bonds are outstanding, sufficient to accomplish such purposes. [Id.]

Art. 7953. Interest and Sinking Fund.—There is hereby created an "Interest and Sinking Fund" for such district, and all taxes collected under this law for the payment of interest or redemption of district bonds shall be credited to such fund, and shall only be paid out to satisfy and discharge the interest on district bonds or for the cancellation and surrender of such bonds, and to defray the expenses of assessing and collecting such taxes. [Id.]

Art. 7954. May invest sinking fund.—Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in bonds of the series to which such funds apply if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by the supervisors. [Id.]

Art. 7955. Maintenance tax: election.—If at any time it should be deemed necessary for the supervisors to vote a maintenance tax, they shall call an election in such district to submit the question "For a maintenance tax;" "Against a maintenance tax;" and shall state the amount thereof. Such sum may be specific, or may be a maximum not to be exceeded. Such election shall be held and the votes canvassed in the same manner as provided for the issuance of bonds. [Id.]

Art. 7956. Maintenance tax levy.—When such tax is voted, the supervisors shall thereafter levy and cause the same to be assessed and collected as other taxes, to an amount not exceeding the specific sum voted. The proceeds of such taxes shall be used for the maintenance, upkeep, repairs and additions to the improvements, or other lawful expense incurred by and on behalf of such district and for no other purposes. The right to levy such taxes shall remain in force until abrogated in whole or in part by another such election. Elections upon the question of repeal or reduction of such taxes shall not be held oftener than every five years. The supervisors may or may not levy such taxes if they are not necessary. [Id.]

Art. 7957. Maintenance fund.—There is hereby created a "Maintenance and Operating Fund," which shall consist of all money collected by assessment or otherwise for the maintenance and operation of the properties purchased or constructed or otherwise acquired by such district. All salaries of officers and employes, other than the assessor and collector and all expenses of operation of every kind shall be paid out of such fund. [Id.]

Art. 7958. Collection dates.—All taxes shall become due and payable on the first day of October of each year and shall be paid on or before the thirty-first day of January thereafter. [Id.]

Art. 7959. Delinquent taxes.—All of the provisions of Chapter 2 of this title relating to the lien, penalties, interest and costs, preparation and publication of the delinquent tax roll, suit for collection and foreclosure proceedings, attorney's fees and fees of officers in such proceedings for the collection of delinquent taxes, and redemption of lands before sale, shall apply to the collection of such taxes in districts operating hereunder. [Id.]

The provisions of Chapter 2 referred to are articles 7677 to 7685 hereof.

STATE RECLAMATION ENGINEER

- Art.
7960. Appointment.
7961. Powers.
7962. Reclamation of overflowed lands.
7963. Surveys authorized.
7964. Surveys: natural conditions.
7965. Surveys: results.
7966. Details of work.
7967. Co-operative agreements.
7968. Co-operative conferences.
7969. Shall advise districts.
7970. District data.
7971. Record of expenditures.

Article 7960. Appointment.—The Governor shall biennially appoint a State Reclamation Engineer, with the advice and consent of the Senate. Said engineer shall be a thoroughly experienced and skilled topographer and hydrographer, draftsman and reclamation engineer of not less than five years actual experience in organizing and supervising geodetic [geodetic] and topographic surveying and mapping of large areas, and in the general direction of field and office engineering corps. He shall be thoroughly experienced in making and passing upon reclamation plans and estimates, and in the preparation and writing of technical reports and publications, and in the reproduction of maps. Said engineer shall have his office in the State Capitol. [Acts 1913, p. 292.]

Art. 7961. Powers.—Said engineer shall have general supervision of all work authorized by this law, and he shall perform, conduct or supervise the same. He shall have power to employ such assistants, to make or authorize to be made such purchases, to incur or authorize to be incurred such other expenses, and to formulate and enforce such reasonable and proper rules and regulations governing his official work, and the work of his assistants, both in the office and in the field, as may be necessary to perform with correct dispatch and economy the work herein authorized to be done. [Id.]

Art. 7962. Reclamation of overflowed lands.—The chief purpose of this law shall be to plan and mark out upon the ground all the improvements necessary to reclaim or cause to become suitable for agricultural uses, the overflowed and swamp lands, and overflowed areas in the coastal plain, and other lands in this State, which, by reason of the temporary or permanent excessive accumulation of water thereon, or contiguous thereto, are not suitable for such uses. [Id.]

Art. 7963. Surveys authorized.—To accomplish such purpose, it is hereby authorized and ordered that the necessary investigations, estimates, surveys, maps, reports and publications shall be made, and any other necessary work incident thereto shall be done, which may be required in the process of planning or marking out upon the ground the most practical, permanent, economical and equitable improvements or systems of improvements such as levees, dikes, dams, canals, drains, water-ways, reservoirs or any or all of them, and other improvements incidental thereto. [Id.]

Art. 7964. Surveys: natural conditions.—As far as possible, said improvements shall be designed with primary consideration to the topographic and hydrographic conditions, and in such manner that each division thereof shall be a complete united project, forming a co-ordinate part of an ultimately finished series of projects, so constituted that the successful operation of the improvements in each united project shall co-operate to the successful operation of the improvements in the other united projects existing within the same hydraulic influence. [Id.]

Art. 7965. Surveys: results.—The said improvements shall be discussed in reports, shown on maps, drawings or diagrams, or otherwise recorded or published. All such final results which are of value to this State shall be filed for public reference in the office of said engineer. [Id.]

Art. 7966. Details of work.—The engineer shall have power to determine at what points within the territory herein designated the said work shall be done; and he shall determine the manner and the season that the results of said work shall be made public. [Id.]

Art. 7967. Co-operative agreements.—The engineer shall have power, if in his judgment it will accomplish the objects herein provided for, to make and approve agreements or contracts for co-operation with any branch of the Federal, State, county or city governments for the doing of all or any part of the work herein authorized; and said engineer shall have power to cancel any said agreement or contract upon ten days written notice to such branch concerned. The engineer shall accomplish such objects independently of such co-operation, if he deems said co-operation not to be to the best interests of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7968. Co-operative conferences.—The engineer is empowered to confer with any branch of the Federal, State, county or city governments with a view to obtaining authority, assistance or advice in connection with his official work, whenever necessary or desirable, and he shall solicit the co-operation of such governments when the same may be to the best interests of the State. [Id.]

Art. 7969. Shall advise districts.—The engineer shall confer in a technical capacity with districts in this State that have requested his technical advice with a view to the adequate execution of proposed levee and drainage improvements contemplated in such districts. He shall receive no extra compensation for such advice. [Id.]

Art. 7970. District data.—Immediately prior to the approval of its bonds by the Attorney General, each drainage or levee district shall file with the engineer on forms furnished by him, a complete record showing each step in the organization of such district, and showing the boundaries, area, amount of bonds to be issued, together with plans, maps and profiles of improvements, and the district engineer's estimates and report thereon. [Id.]

Art. 7971. Record of expenditures.—The engineer shall keep an accurate record of all money spent by the State in the execution of the work authorized by this law. [Id.]

1. ESTABLISHMENT

Article 7972. Levee improvement districts.—There may be created within this State conservation and reclamation districts to be known as Levee Improvement Districts, for the purpose of constructing and maintaining levees and other improvements on, along and contiguous to rivers, creeks, and streams, for the purpose of reclaiming lands from overflow from such streams, for the purpose of the control and distribution of the waters of rivers and streams by straightening and otherwise improving the same, and for the proper drainage and other improvement of such lands, all as contemplated by Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution of this State, for the conservation and development of the natural resources of this State, which said districts shall have and may exercise all the rights, powers and privileges given by this Act and in accordance with its limitations and provisions.

This article and arts. 7973 to 8029 and 8030 to 8042 are from Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 21, p. 50, §§ 1-70, unchanged.

Art. 7973. Petition to reclamation engineer.—Whenever any engineer shall make application in writing to the State Reclamation Engineer for authority to obtain information by proper surveys in respect to the feasibility of reclaiming any lands which may be later incorporated in a levee improvement district, it shall be the duty of the State Reclamation Engineer, if satisfied that the applicant is competent and acting in good faith, to issue to such applicant express written authority to make such survey in order to obtain the desired information; and such engineer, acting under such written authority from the State Reclamation Engineer, is hereby authorized and empowered to go upon any lands proposed to be incorporated in any levee improvement district for the purpose of examining same with reference to the location of boundary lines, and for such other information which may be used in the formation of a levee improvement district.

Art. 7974. Petition for proposal to create levee.—When it is proposed to create a levee district wholly within one county, there shall be presented to the commissioners' court of the county in which the lands to be included in such district are located, or to the county judge of the county if the commissioners' court is not in session, a petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of such proposed district, setting forth the proposed boundaries thereof, the general nature of the work proposed to be done, the necessity therefor and the feasibility thereof, stating whether the taxes proposed to be levied therein shall be on the ad valorem plan or based on assessed benefits, and designating a name therefor, which shall include the name of the county in which it is situated; and when it is proposed to create such a district to be composed of lands in two or more counties, then a petition of the nature above indicated, signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of such proposed district, designating the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning the said district, which county may be any county in which any part of district is located, shall be presented to the commissioners' court of such county, or, if the court is not in session, to the county judge thereof; and upon presentation of either such petition, it shall be the duty of the court to which it is presented, or the county judge of such county if the court be not in session, to fix a time and place at which such petition shall be heard before the commissioners' court of the county wherein it is filed, which date shall not be less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the date of the order, and to order and direct the county clerk of such county, as ex officio clerk of the commissioners' court thereof, to issue a notice of such time and place of hearing, which notice shall inform all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing, and of their right to appear at such hearing and contend for or contest the formation of such district, as their interests may dictate, and to deliver notice to any adult person who is willing to execute the same by posting, as hereinafter directed. The order shall further direct the clerk forthwith to issue a notice of the filing of such petition and of its general purpose, stating the time and place of hearing, which shall be mailed forthwith to the State Reclamation Engineer at his office in Austin, Texas.

Art. 7975. Upon receipt of notice.—Upon receipt of the notice above provided for by any adult person willing to receive and execute the same, it shall be the duty of such person, or persons, if more than one shall act, if the district is wholly within a county, to post a copy of such notice at the door of the courthouse of said county, and copies at four different places within such proposed districts; if such district is located in more than one county such notice shall be posted at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is situated, and four copies at four separate places within the boundaries of those portions of such district situated in each county. Such posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for the hearing, and the person, or persons so posting, shall make affidavit before some officer authorized by law to administer oaths of his, or their action in respect to such postings, and such affidavit when so made shall be conclusive of the facts sworn to.

Art. 7976. Deposit.—A petition for the formation of such a district, if the district is wholly within one county [county], shall be accompanied by a deposit of fifty dollars, and if the district is proposed to be located in more than one county it shall be accompanied by a deposit of seventy-five dollars, which deposit shall be paid to the clerk of the court of jurisdiction, who shall therefrom, upon vouchers approved by the county judge, pay all expenses incident to the hearing herein provided for, returning any excess to the petitioners or their attorney.

Art. 7977. Duty of engineer.—The State Reclamation Engineer, upon receipt of the notice to him herein provided for, shall forthwith, by himself or deputy, examine said proposed district, and do, or cause to be done, such work in respect thereto as may be necessary to enable him to determine the necessity, feasibility and probable costs of reclaiming the land of such district from overflow, and the proper drainage thereof, together with the costs of organizing such district, and maintenance thereof, for a period of two years, and he shall, by himself or deputy, attend the hearing and file his written report in respect to the matters concerning which he has investigated and give to the court such further additional information as may be then required.

Art. 7978. Court to hear petition.—At the time and place set for the hearing of the petition, or such subsequent date as may then be fixed, the court shall proceed to hear such petition and all issues in respect to the creation of such proposed district, and any person interested may appear before the court in person or by attorney and contend for or contest the creation of such district, and offer testimony pertinent to any issue presented. Such court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine all issues in respect to the creation, or not, of such district, and of all subsequent proceedings in respect to said district if the same should be created. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day and from time to time, as the facts may require. The court shall have power to make all incidental orders deemed proper in respect to the matters before it.

Art. 7979. Judgment and findings.—If upon the hearing of such petition, it be found that the same is signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of the proposed district, and that due notice has been given, and that the proposed improvements are desirable, feasible, and practicable, and would be a public utility and a public benefit, and would be conducive to public health, then such court shall so find and render judgment reciting such findings and creating and establishing such district, which judgment and findings shall be embodied in an order which shall be entered of record in the minutes of said court, which order shall define the boundaries of such district, which need not include all of the lands described in the petition, if, upon the hearing a modification or change is found necessary or desirable. A levee improvement district created as herein specified shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate, with such powers of government and with the authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions concerning the purposes for which it is created as may be conferred by this chapter, or any other law of this State to the benefits of which it may become entitled. If at the hearing of such petition, as herein provided for, the commissioners' court shall enter an order dismissing the petition for the creation of said district, then, and in the event the petitioners, or any one of them or any taxpayer in such district, may appeal from said order to the district court of said county which appeal shall be perfected in the following manner, to-wit: notice of appeal shall be given at the time of the entry of said order by announcement of same before said court, which notice of appeal shall be entered on the minutes of said court, or by giving written notice within two days after the entry of such order; said notice to be a simple statement in writing to the effect that the undersigned gives notice of appeal from the order entered on the date stated, which notice shall be filed with the clerk of the county court, and the appellant shall, within five days from the date of the entry of said order, file an appeal bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties payable to the county judge of the county, to be approved by the county clerk; conditioned upon the due prosecution of the appeal and payment of all costs incident thereto, and unless the appeal be thus perfected within five days after the rendition of the order, such order shall be final and conclusive, and there shall be no extension of time granted for the filing of the appeal bond; the county clerk, shall within five days after the filing of said appeal bond, transfer to the clerk of such district court all records filed with the county commissioners' court, pertaining to the establishment of said district, together with a transcript of the orders of the commissioners' court, and it shall be unnecessary to file any other or additional pleadings in said court. The court shall set the matter down for hearing, giving it precedence over all other cases, and the matters shall be tried and determined by the court, the hearing to be de novo. The judgment of the district court shall be final and conclusive, and the same shall be certified to the commissioners' court for its further action.

Art. 7980. Levee improvement districts entitled to benefits.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act or entitled to the benefits of its provisions, subject to the supervision and direction of the State Reclamation Engineer, or other superior authority created by law, and subject to the limitations in this Act contained, shall have full power and authority to build, construct, complete, carry out, maintain, protect, and in case of necessity, add to and rebuild all works and improvements within their district necessary or proper to fully accomplish any plan of reclamation lawfully adopted for or on behalf of such district, and may make all necessary and proper contracts, and employ all persons and means necessary or proper to that end; and in the accomplishment of such purposes they may or may not issue bonds, and may or may not incur indebtedness; provided, that no bonds by or on behalf of such district shall be issued nor shall any indebtedness against the same be incurred unless the proposition to issue such bonds or to incur such indebtedness shall be first submitted to the qualified property taxpaying voters of such district, and the proposition adopted by a majority vote of the taxpaying voters of the district voting at an election held to determine such questions; and no enumeration of specific powers in this Act shall be held to be a limitation upon the general powers hereby conferred except as may be distinctly expressed.

Art. 7981. Eminent domain.—The right of eminent domain is hereby expressly conferred upon all districts to enable them to acquire the fee simple title, easement or right of way to, over, and through any and all lands, water, or lands under water, private or public (except land and property used for cemetery purposes), within[,] bordering upon, adjacent or opposite to such districts, necessary for making, constructing and maintaining all levees and other improvements for the improvement of a river or rivers, creek or creeks, or streams within or bordering upon such districts to prevent overflows thereof.

Adequate compensation shall be made to the owners of any property so taken, damaged or destroyed for such purposes. The levee district shall have the power to acquire any such property for any such purposes, which for any reason has not been condemned by the board of appraisers in the manner hereinafter provided, and may by condemnation proceedings acquire any property not acquired by the appraisers which condemnation proceedings shall be brought in the name of the levee district.

Art. 7982. District supervisors.—The district supervisors of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all levees and other necessary improvements contemplated by this Act, by gift, or condemnation proceedings; and they may by the same methods acquire any levee or other improvements already constructed.

Art. 7983. Authorized to go on lands.—The supervisors of any district and the engineer and employes thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within or adjacent to said district for the purpose of examining same with reference to the location of levees, drainage ditches and all other kinds of improvements to be constructed for or within such district, and for any other lawful purpose connected with their plan of reclamation, whether herein enumerated or not.

Art. 7984. Empowered to make levees.—The said levee improvement districts are hereby authorized and empowered to make all the necessary levees, bridges and other improvements across or under any railroad embankments, tracks, or rights of way, or public or private roads or the rights of way thereof, or levees or other public improvements of other districts, or other such improvements and the rights of way thereof, or to join such improvement thereto, for the purpose of enabling the said levee improvements necessary for the said district; provided, however, that notice shall first be given by said levee improvement district to the proper railroad authorities or other authorities or persons, relative to the additions or changes to result from the improvements contemplated by the said levee improvement district; and the said railroad authorities, or persons, shall be given thirty days in which to agree to the said work, or to refuse to agree thereto, or in which they, if they so desire, may at their own expense construct the said improvements in their own manner; provided, such design or manner of construction shall be satisfactory to the said levee improvement district and approved by the State Reclamation Engineer or his deputy.

Art. 7985. Right of way.—Levee improvement districts are hereby given the right of way across all public or county roads, but they shall restore such roads where crossed to their previous condition for use, as near as may be.

Art. 7986. Authority to act.—Levee improvement districts shall have authority to act jointly with each other, with cities and towns and other political subdivisions of the State, with other states, and with the Government of the United States in the performance of any of the things permitted by this Act; such joint acts to be done upon such terms as may be agreed upon by their supervisors, subject to the approval of the State Reclamation Engineer.

Art. 7987. Supervisors appointed.—When a levee improvement district has been created under this Act, the court creating the same shall forthwith appoint by a majority vote three supervisors for such district, who shall be known as "district supervisors," and whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided. Said supervisors shall each receive for his services not more than five dollars per day for the time actually engaged in work for said district, and all expenses while so engaged, to be paid upon rendition of sworn accounts, approved by the county judge of the county having jurisdiction; and they shall hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed and qualified; unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the court of jurisdiction; and any vacancy in office shall be filled by a majority vote of the court having jurisdiction which court shall continue from time to time to appoint supervisors in order that the board may always be full.

Art. 7988. Bond.—Before entering upon their duties the district supervisors shall each take and subscribe before some officer authorized to administer oaths, an oath to faithfully and impartially discharge his duties as supervisor and render true accounts of his services and expenses, and each shall enter into bond with good and sufficient security, payable to the levee improvement district, in the sum of one thousand dollars, unless the court of jurisdiction shall fix a larger amount, which it may do when in its judgment the interests of the district may so require, which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of such supervisor and that he will render true accounts of his services and expenses, which bond shall be approved by the county judge of the county the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction and by him entered of record in his office, and the original bond shall be retained on file.

Art. 7989. Name engineer.—District supervisors, after their qualification, shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice chairman, and shall elect a secretary, who need not be a member of the board; and an engineer and such other employes or assistants as may from time to time be found necessary to the successful carrying on and completion of the work and business of the district; they shall certify their organization and the name of their engineer, who shall be known as "district engineer," to the commissioners' court of the county having jurisdiction.

Art. 7990. District engineer have control.—The district engineer, subject to the authority of the State Reclamation Engineer, shall have control of the engineering work of the district, and shall, with such assistants as may be necessary in the judgment of the board of supervisors, as soon as practicable after his appointment, make a survey of the lands within the boundaries of the district and of all lands adjacent thereto that will be improved or reclaimed, in whole or in part by any system of levees and drainage that may be adopted; and shall make report in writing to the board of supervisors of his work in this regard, with maps and profiles of his surveys, which report shall contain a full and complete plan for draining, constructing levees and reclaiming the lands of the district from overflow or damage by waters from the streams in or adjacent to such district, and whose waters may in anywise affect the same, which plan may include, and where necessary shall include costs of straightening streams from which injury to the lands of said districts may result; and shall also in such report indicate the physical characteristics of the lands within the district, the location of any public roads, railroads, or the rights of way or roadways and other property or improvements located on said lands; a duplicate of which report shall be filed with the State Reclamation Engineer, for his approval. Such report before adoption may be modified by the State Reclamation Engineer, or by the board of supervisors, with his approval, and when approved by the State Reclamation Engineer and adopted by the board of supervisors, the same shall be known as, and shall be designated as "The Plan of Reclamation"; provided that no plan of reclamation, after such approval, shall be modified or changed in any manner, the cost of which shall exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), except upon petition to the State Reclamation Engineer, signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands in such district, and approved by the State Reclamation Engineer. When the plan of reclamation has been adopted as herein provided a copy of same shall be filed with the county clerk in each county where any lands lie, that will be affected in anywise by the plan of reclamation, and such filing shall be notice of its contents to all persons owning or having any interest in any lands in the county in which same is filed; and any amendments to said plan of reclamation shall be filed in like manner.

Art. 7991. Commissioners of appraisement.—When the petition for the creation of a levee improvement district stipulates that taxes are to be levied upon a benefit basis, then as soon after the approval and adoption of the plan of reclamation as practicable, the commissioners' court of the county of jurisdiction shall appoint three disinterested commissioners, who shall be known as "commissioners of appraisement," and who shall be freeholders but not owners of land within the district for which they are to act, and neither shall be related within the fourth degree of affinity or consanguinity to any of the members of the commissioners' court or the board of supervisors or any land owners in the district; and such commissioners of appraisement shall proceed as follows:

Art. 7992. Duties of commissioners.—The secretary of the board of supervisors, immediately following the appointment of the commissioners above mentioned shall in writing notify each of his appointment, and in the notice designate a time and place for the first meeting of such commissioners. In the event any such commissioner shall resign, his place shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies on the board of supervisors. It shall be the duty of the commissioners to meet at the time and place specified, or as soon thereafter as may be found practicable at some time and place to be agreed upon by them, when they shall each take and subscribe an oath that they will faithfully and impartially discharge their duties as such commissioners, and make true report of the work done by them, and at such meeting the commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one vice chairman, and the secretary of the board of supervisors, or, in his absence, such person as the board of supervisors may appoint, shall be secretary of said board of commissioners during their continuance in office, and shall furnish to them such information and such assistance as may be within his power and necessary to the performance of their duties.

Art. 7993. Duty of secretary.—Within thirty days after qualifying and organizing as above directed, the commissioners shall begin their duties, and they may at any time call upon the attorney of the district for legal advice and information relative to such duties, and may, if necessary require the presence of the district engineer, or one of his assistants, at such time and for so long as may be necessary to the proper performance of their duties. Said commissioners shall proceed to view the lands within such district, and all other lands which will be affected by the plan of reclamation for such district if carried out, and all public roads, railroads, rights of ways and other property or improvements located upon such lands, and all such lands within or without the district as may be acquired under the provision of this Act for any purpose connected with or incident to the fully carrying out of the plan of reclamation; they shall assess the amounts of benefits and all damages, if any, that will accrue to any tract of land within such district or which may be affected by the plan of reclamation, or to any public highway, railroad, and other rights of way, roadways or other property, from carrying out and putting into effect the plan of reclamation for such district; and they shall assess the value of all lands within or without the district to be acquired for right of way or other purposes; and the failure of said commissioners of appraisement to return damages to any tract of land within or without the district shall be deemed a finding that no damage will be done to that tract. The board shall prepare a report of their findings, which shall show the owner of each piece of property examined and on or concerning which any assessment is made, together with such description of said property as may identify the same, as well as the value of all property to be taken or acquired for rights of way or any other purposes connected with the carrying out of the plan of reclamation as finally approved by the State Reclamation Engineer; which report shall be signed by at least a majority of the commissioners and filed with the secretary of the board of supervisors of the district, which report shall show the number of days each commissioner has been employed and the actual expenses incurred by each during his service as commissioner; and each shall be paid by the district five dollars per day for his services, and all necessary expenses in addition thereto, upon the approval of his accounts for such per diem and expenses by the board of supervisors.

Said commissioners shall in their report fix a time and place, when and where they will hear objections thereto, and such date shall be not less than twenty days from the filing of such report.

Art. 7994. Notice of publication.—When the report of the commissioners shall have been filed with the secretary of the board of supervisors he shall forthwith give notice by publication in a newspaper published in each county wherein any portion of the district is located, and wherein any lands lie that will be in any way affected by the carrying out of the proposed plan of reclamation, for at least once a week for two consecutive weeks prior to the date fixed for such hearing, of the time and place of such hearing, which notice shall be in substantially the following form:

To the owners and all other persons having any interest in any lands lying in _____ County, take notice, that a copy of the plan of reclamation of the _____ levee improvement district has heretofore been filed with the county clerk of this county and that commissioners have been appointed to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land or other property within or without the said levee district which will be benefited, taken, or otherwise affected or damaged by the carrying out of said plan of reclamation. The report of said commissioners has been filed in my office at _____ and all persons interested may examine the same and make objection thereto in whole or in part and all persons claiming damage to their lands within or without the district to which no damages have been assessed in said report are required to file claim for such damage in my office on or before the _____ day of _____, 19____, and all persons failing to make such objection or claim for damages will be deemed to have waived the same. Further take notice that the said commissioners of appraisalment will meet on said day of _____ for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to their report and claims for damages.

Secretary, Board of Supervisors.
_____ Levee District.

The secretary of the board of supervisors shall also mail a written notice to each person whose property is listed in the report of the commissioners, if his post office address is known, stating the time and place of such meeting, which notice shall state in substance that the report of the commissioners to assess benefits and damages accruing to the land and other property by reason of the plan of reclamation for the district in question has been filed in his office, and that all persons interested may examine the same and make objections thereto in whole or in part, and that the commissioners will meet on the day and at the place named for the purpose of hearing and acting on objections to such report; and the secretary upon the day of the hearing shall file in his office the original notice, with his affidavit thereto, showing the manner of publication and the names of all persons to whom notices have been mailed, and that the post office of those to be affected to whom notices were not mailed were unknown to him and could not be ascertained by reasonable diligence; and copies of such notice and affidavit shall be filed, one with the commissioners of appraisalment and one with the clerk of the commissioners' court having jurisdiction.

Art. 7995. Filing exceptions and damage claims.—At or before the hearing upon the report of the commissioners of appraisalment, any owner of land or other property affected by such report, or the plan of reclamation, may file exception to any or all parts of such report, and any person to whose land no damages has been assessed and who believes that his land will be damaged by the carrying out of the plan of reclamation, may also file with the secretary of the board of supervisors a claim for such damages; and the said commissioners, at the time and place named in such notice, shall proceed to hear and pass upon all such objections and claims for damages, and may make such changes and modifications from time to time as may be necessary to conform the report to their findings; and may grant, in whole or in part, or may over rule, such claim for damages. Such hearing may be adjourned from day to day. When commissioners shall have finally acted they shall make a decree concerning such report insofar as it is confirmed, and approving and confirming the same as modified or changed insofar as it may be modified or changed, and shall condemn such land within or without the district as shall be needed for right of way or other purposes, and shall adjudge all damages, if any. The commissioners shall have power to adjudge and apportion costs incurred upon the hearing in such manner as may be deemed equitable. The findings of the commissioners as to benefits shall be final and conclusive and shall be entered of record in the minutes of the board of supervisors and certified copies thereof shall be filed with the county clerk of each county in which any portion of the lands within such district are located, as a permanent record of such county, and such filing shall be notice to all persons of the contents of such decree. Any person, or the board of supervisors of such levee district, may appeal from the decree of the appraisers assessing or refusing to assess damages or fixing the value of right of way; the only questions to be considered on such appeal shall be whether just compensation has been allowed for property taken or whether property damages have been allowed for property injured or whether any damages are recoverable at all. Such appeal shall be taken to the district court of the county of jurisdiction in the manner, under the conditions, and within the time provided by Article 7980, for appeals from judgments of the commissioners' court refusing to create the levee district, and the district court shall have jurisdiction thereof, regardless of the amount. The secretary of the board of supervisors in case any appeal or appeals are filed, within five days after filing of the appeal, shall send to the district clerk the plan of reclamation or certified copy thereof, together with a transcript of that part of the commissioners' report affecting the lands concerned in the appeal or appeals, and a transcript of the claim or claims for damages, as the case may be, and the action of the commissioners of appraisalment thereon, and such appeals may be consolidated in the district court. The trial in the district court shall be de novo and proceedings shall be in accordance with the laws of this State in suits for damages, and the claimant shall be considered as plaintiff and the district as defendant, excepting that no further pleadings shall be required. Appeals may be taken from the judgment of the district court as in other civil cases. No appeal shall delay the prosecution of the work, but upon payment by the district supervisors to the district clerk the amount of damages awarded by the commissioners of appraisalment, and upon the district making bond to pay to the owner of any further amount that may be awarded him upon such appeal, title to such property so condemned shall thereupon vest in the district and it shall be entitled to immediate possession thereof. No person owning or having any interest in any land in any county in which copy of the plan of reclamation has been filed and notice published of the hearing before the commissioners of appraisalment, who has failed to file claim for damages as above provided, or who has failed to file objection to the damages assessed by the commissioners against his land, or who having filed such claim or objection, has failed to appeal from an adverse ruling upon such claim or objection, shall thereafter be heard to claim any damages from the levee district or its supervisors, officers or agents by reason of the carrying out of the plan of reclamation.

Article 7980 referred to above should be article 7979 hereof.

Art. 7996. Basis of taxation.—After the action of the commissioners of appraisalment, as aforesaid, their final findings, judgment and decree assessing benefits, until lawfully changed or modified, shall form the basis of taxation within and for the levee improvement district for which they shall have acted, for all purposes for which taxes may be levied by, for or on behalf of such district, and all taxes shall be apportioned and levied on each tract of land, railroad and other real property in the district in proportion to the benefits to the property named in such final judgment or decree, as shown thereby. In all matters before the commissioners of appraisal, parties interested may not only appear in person or by attorney, or both in person and by attorney, but they shall be entitled to process for witnesses, to be issued by the chairman of the commissioners of appraisal on demand, and such commissioners shall have the same power as a court of record to enforce the attendance of witnesses.

Art. 7997. Limitation on commissioners.—In a district in which taxes are levied on the ad valorem basis, commissioners of appraisal shall be appointed and shall proceed in like manner as provided by Article 7991 to 7995, inclusive, of this Act, excepting that they shall not assess any benefits.

And, thereupon, all proceedings shall be had, notices given and hearings held in like manner; and all provisions of this statute relating to assessment of damages in districts levying taxes on a benefit basis shall apply to the assessment thereof in districts taxing on the ad valorem basis.

Art. 7998. Rate of taxation.—In all levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon an ad valorem basis, the taxable property shall be assessed at the same value as assessed for State and county purposes. In the assessment of taxes in such districts, and in all matters pertaining thereto or connected therewith, the county tax assessor shall have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and proceedings as are provided by the laws of this State for the assessment and collection of county and State taxes. And the county commissioners' court shall constitute the board of equalization for such levee improvement district or districts, and all laws governing boards of equalization for county and State taxing purposes shall govern such board or boards for such levee improvement districts. It shall be the duty of the county tax assessor of the county to assess all property within such levee improvement district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by the commissioners' court for that purpose, and return said books and rolls at the same time when he returns the other books and rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval. If the commissioners' court shall find said books or rolls correct, they shall approve the same and order the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of said tax assessor to be paid from the funds of said levee improvement district. The tax assessor shall receive for his said services such compensation as the commissioners' court shall deem proper to compensate him for the amount of work done; provided, that the said tax assessor shall in no event be allowed more than he is now allowed by law for like services. Should the tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of the commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all property in such improvement district as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duty by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

And levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon an ad valorem basis, and embracing lands located in more than one county, shall have all the rights, powers and privileges of such levee improvement districts that include lands in one county. The tax assessor of each county having lands included within such levee improvement district shall assess the taxes levied by the commissioners' court of his county against the territory included in such levee improvement district for each and every year that such tax is levied. It shall be the duty of the tax assessor to make up a separate tax roll covering the levee improvement taxes on territory in his county included in such levee improvement district, and deliver such separate tax roll together with the general tax rolls of his county. The said separate tax roll shall guide the tax collector in collecting the levee improvement taxes for such district. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to collect such levee improvement tax for such levee district in his county for every year that such tax has been levied in such district and keep a separate account covering the territory of his county included in such levee improvement district for the purpose of determining how much tax has been collected and how much tax shall be paid by his county to such levee improvement district.

Art. 7999. Non-bond issuing districts.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act, desiring to effect and carry out their plans of reclamation without the issuance of bonds, shall, subject to the limitations hereinabove stated, be authorized and empowered through their boards of supervisors to make such arrangements by contributions from land owners, or otherwise, as may be necessary to provide the funds requisite to the completion of their improvements; and may, by vote of the resident property taxpayers of such districts, create such indebtedness, to be evidenced otherwise than by bonds, as may be deemed requisite. Provided such indebtedness shall never exceed the cost of construction of improvements to be made according to the adopted plan of reclamation approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, and the cost of maintenance of such improvements for two years as estimated by him, plus ten per cent additional to meet emergencies, modifications and changes lawfully made, and plus all damages awarded against the district.

Art. 8000. Petition for bond election.—Where any levee improvement district desires to issue bonds to raise funds for its works of improvements, there shall be presented to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, or to the judge thereof, in vacation, a petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands included within such district, praying for the issuance of bonds to an amount stated, which amount shall not exceed the costs of construction of improvements to be made according to the adopted plan of reclamation approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, and the cost of maintenance of such improvement for two years as estimated by him, plus ten per cent additional to meet emergencies, modifications and charges lawfully made, plus all damages awarded against the district. The petition shall state the rate of interest to be borne by such bonds, and pray that an election be ordered within and for such district to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued by and on behalf of said district for the purposes above indicated, and to the amount stated, and whether taxes shall be levied within [within] and for said district in payment thereof; provided, that said bonds shall bear a rate of interest not exceeding six per cent per annum.

Art. 8001. Manner of election.—Upon presentation of said petition such commissioners' court, if in session, or the judge thereof, if the court be not in session, shall make and cause to be entered of record upon the minutes of said court an order directing that an election be held within and for such levee improvement district at a date to be fixed in the order, to be not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days after the date of such order, for the purpose of determining the questions mentioned in such petition. At such election those desiring to vote in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof, shall have written or printed on their ballots; "For the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof," and those desiring to vote against the proposition submitted shall have printed or written on their ballots; "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof." Each and every levee improvement district is hereby constituted an election precinct for the purpose of the election above specified and all other elections which may be ordered or held under any provisions of this Act. When elections are ordered the judge or court ordering the same shall fix the polling place or places for the holding of such election, and name a judge and two clerks at each polling place, and more judges or clerks if deemed necessary; and there shall be at least one polling place in each county in which any portion of the district is located.

Art. 8002. Expense of election.—When a petition for a bond election is presented it shall be accompanied by a deposit of two hundred dollars, from which shall be paid all expenses of such election, and such other expenses as may be properly incurred up to the sale and issuance of bonds, and any excess shall be returned to the petitioners or their attorney; and when bonds are issued the amount of such expense shall be refunded to the petitioners or their attorneys from the proceeds of the bonds.

Art. 8003. Posting notice of election.—When an order for an election has been made, the clerk of the commissioners' court of the county having jurisdiction shall forthwith issue and place in the hands of the sheriff of the county, if the district is wholly within one county a notice stating in substance the contents of such election order, and the time and place or places of such election, and it shall be the duty of such sheriff, by himself or deputy, forthwith to post a copy of such notice at the door of the courthouse of his county, and four other copies at four different places within the boundaries of such district, which posting shall be done not less than ten days prior to the date fixed for said election; if such district is located in more counties than one, then such notice may be delivered to any adult person, who shall post copies of the same, one at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of such district is situated, and four copies at four separate places within the boundaries of those portions of the district situated in each county, which posting shall be for not less than ten days prior to the date of said election; such sheriff or person posting shall make due return to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of his action in the premises; the return of the individual other than the sheriff to be under oath before some person authorized by law to administer oaths, and the return of the sheriff and such oath shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated.

Art. 8004. Who may vote.—All elections held under any provisions of this Act shall be governed as near as may be by the general election laws of this State, except as modified hereby, and shall be held and conducted by the judges and clerks appointed by the court of jurisdiction, or in their absence or refusal to act, by others chosen by the voters, and the supervisors of the district shall furnish all necessary ballots and other election supplies requisite to such elections. None but qualified property taxpaying voters of such district shall vote at any election to authorize the issuance of bonds by or on behalf of the district or for the creation of any indebtedness against any district, or for or against any maintenance tax.

Art. 8005. Making returns.—Immediately after any election under this Act the officers holding the same shall make return of the result thereof to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, and return the ballot boxes to the clerk of said court, who shall safely keep the same and deliver them, together with the returns of the election, to the commissioners' court of jurisdiction at its next regular or special session, and said court shall at such session canvass the vote and returns, and if it be found that the proposition submitted has been adopted by a majority of the qualified property taxpaying voters of such district voting at said election, then the court shall declare the result, and, if the election be for the issuance of bonds, shall declare that it resulted in favor of the issuance of bonds and the levy of taxes in payment thereof; and, if the result be against the issuance of bonds, then it shall declare that the result was against the issuance of bonds and the levy of taxes in payment thereof; and, if the question be for a maintenance tax, or other tax, then it shall declare the result to be for or against such tax, as the case may be; or, if the question be any other proposition which may be properly submitted at an election, the order shall declare the result to be for or against the proposition submitted, as the case may be, and an order, or orders declaring such result shall be entered upon the minutes of such court.

Art. 8006. Petition for and notice of election.—If, at the time for a bond election, or at any other time, the supervisors of any district created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall desire to be submitted to the voters of the district the question of a maintenance tax, or other proposition proper to be submitted to them, they shall petition the commissioners' court of jurisdiction for an election upon the question so desired to be submitted, and it shall be the duty of the court to order an election, and that notice be given substantially as in case of a bond election, and notice shall be given substantially as in case of such elections, and all other proceedings shall be in respect to the question so submitted substantially in accordance with the provisions hereof in respect to a bond election.

Art. 8007. Issuance of bonds.—If a bond election in any district created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall have resulted in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in payment thereof, after such result has been duly declared, the commissioners' court of jurisdiction shall make an order directing the issuance of bonds of such district, to be known as "Levee Improvement Bonds," to the amount voted, unless a less amount was requested by the district supervisors, which bonds shall state upon their face the purposes for which they are issued. Said bonds shall be issued in the name of the levee improvement district by and on behalf of which they are voted, shall be signed by the county judge of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, and shall be attested by the county clerk of said county, and the seal of the commissioners' court of such county shall be affixed to each; they shall be issued in such denominations, and payable at such time or times, not exceeding thirty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by the issuing authority, and shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

Art. 8008. Record of bonds.—When bonds shall have been issued by and on behalf of any levee improvement district, the supervisors of such district shall procure and deliver to the treasurer of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, a well bound book in which a record shall be kept of all such bonds, with their number, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, and the tax levy to pay interest on and to provide sinking funds for their payment, which book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested, either as taxpayers or bondholders; and upon the payment of any bond an entry thereof shall be made on such book. The county treasurer shall receive for his services in recording all these matters the same fees as may be allowed by law to the county clerk for recording deeds.

Art. 8009. Attorney General to examine.—Before any bonds issued by or on behalf of any levee improvement district are offered for sale, there shall be forwarded to the Attorney General a certified copy of all proceedings had in the organization of the district, and with reference to the issuance of such bonds in connection with the bonds, themselves, and such other information with respect thereto as may be required by the Attorney General, shall be furnished; and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to carefully examine said bonds, in connection [connection] with the record and the Constitution and laws of this State governing the issuance of such bonds, and, if, as a result of his examination, the Attorney General shall find that such bonds are issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws of this State and that they are valid and binding obligations upon the district by or on behalf of which they are issued, he shall so officially certify, and, until he shall so officially certify, and until registered by the Comptroller, as hereinafter required, said bonds shall be without validity.

Art. 8010. Recorded by Comptroller.—When the bonds of any levee improvement district have been examined and approved by the Attorney General and his certificate thereto has been issued, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller in a book kept for that purpose, and the certificate of the Attorney General as to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record. Such bonds after receiving the certificate of the Attorney General, and after having been registered in the Comptroller's office, as herein provided, shall be held, in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity may be brought into question, prima facie valid; and in every action brought to enforce collection of such bonds and interest thereon, the only available defense against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud.

Art. 8011. Sale of bonds.—When bonds shall have been issued, approved and registered as provided in this Act, the court of jurisdiction may appoint the county judge of the county of jurisdiction, or other suitable person, to sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible and approved by the district supervisors, and no sale shall be complete until approved by such supervisors. The judge or person selling such bonds shall be allowed, as full compensation for all services performed in respect thereto, one-fourth of one per cent of the amount received, and, except such commission, shall promptly pay over to the proper treasurer or depository the proceeds of said bonds, to be placed to the credit of such levee improvement district; but, before [before] proceeding to make any sale, such judge, or any person appointed, shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the levee improvement district, and approved by the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, for an amount not less than the par value of the bonds to be sold, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duty under his appointment.

Art. 8012. Levying taxes.—When bonds have been issued by any levee improvement district, providing for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon and proportioned, as to each piece of property, to the net benefits which it shall have been found will accrue to such property from the completion of the plan of reclamation or other duly authorized work, which taxes shall be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds, as it shall fall due, and to raise an additional sum which will create a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem such bonds at maturity; such levy may be made for or at the time of issuance of said bonds for each year throughout the life of the bond issue which shall be the rate of levy for each of such years until modified. Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in the bonds of the series to which such funds apply, if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by its supervisors or the court of jurisdiction.

When bonds shall have been issued by any levee improvement district, providing for the levy of taxes upon ad valorem basis, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or, if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon the value of each piece of property as made for State and county purposes, which taxes shall be sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it shall fall due, and to raise an additional fund which shall create a sinking fund sufficient to redeem and discharge such bonds at maturity; such levy may be made for or at the time of issuance of said bonds for each year throughout the life of the bond issue which shall be the rate of levy for each of such years until modified. Sinking funds shall from time to time be invested in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as other sinking funds may by law be invested in, or in the bonds of the series to which such funds apply, if offered for redemption before maturity upon terms deemed advantageous to the district by its supervisors or the court of jurisdiction.

Art. 8013. For what uses may be applied.—When a maintenance tax shall have been voted in any district entitled to the benefits of this Act, the commissioners' court of the county, if the district is wholly within one county, or, if the district is located in more than one county, then the commissioners' court of each county in which any portion of such district is located, shall thereafter levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property within such district, based upon the net benefits thereto contemplated to be accomplished through the plan of reclamation, if such district has provided for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis; or such court shall thereafter levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all taxable property, within such district, based upon the value of each piece of property as made for State and county purposes, if the district has provided for the levy of taxes upon ad valorem basis; provided, however, that the tax rate shall not exceed the specific rate voted, and the vote in such cases may be for a specific rate, or not to exceed a specific rate. The proceeds of such taxes shall be used for the maintenance, upkeep, repairs and additions to the levees and other improvements in the district, and for no other purposes, except as may be herein otherwise provided. The right to levy such taxes shall remain in force until abrogated, in whole or in part, by another election; but elections upon the question of the repeal or reduction of maintenance taxes shall not be held oftener than every five years; and any levee improvement district heretofore organized may avail itself of the provisions and benefits of this section.

Art. 8014. Secretary ex officio tax assessor.—The secretary of the board of supervisors of levee improvement districts providing for the levy of taxes upon a benefit basis shall be ex officio tax assessor for such districts, and it shall be his duty when any tax is levied, at the expense of the district, to prepare a tax roll in form substantially as the assessment roll made by county tax assessors, except that instead of ad valorem valuation it shall state net benefits assessed against property, and he shall compute against each piece of property the amount of taxes assessed against it, and enter on such roll the amount of such taxes. A certified copy of such roll, insofar as it appertains to each county in which any portion of the district is located, shall be filed with the tax collector of such county.

Art. 8015. Tax collectors under bond.—Tax collectors of the several counties shall be charged with the assessment rolls of levee improvement districts, and are required to make collections of all taxes levied and assessed against property within such district, and promptly pay over the same to the treasurer of the district; and the bonds of such collectors shall stand as security for the proper performance of their duties as tax collectors of such levee improvement district, or if in the judgment of the supervisors of such district it be necessary, additional bonds, payable to such districts, may be required, and any collector failing to act hereunder or failing to give the additional bond required, shall be deemed guilty of malfeasance in office and shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and may be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law; and in case of suspension the boards of supervisors may appoint special collectors for their respective districts and require such security of them as may be deemed proper, and the persons so chosen shall have and exercise within and for the district all the rights and powers which tax collectors have or may have by law in their respective counties.

Art. 8016. Recovering delinquent taxes.—Tax collectors of levee improvement districts shall perform all duties and exercise all powers in respect to delinquent taxes due levee improvement districts as may be provided by law for the collection of delinquent State and county taxes, and the collection of such delinquent levee improvement district taxes and sales of property therefor shall be governed by the laws applying to the collection of delinquent State and county taxes and foreclosure decree therefor shall include writ of possession. The supervisors are also given the power and authority to collect such delinquent taxes, and to institute and prosecute suits in the name of the district for their collection; and such districts are also authorized to do and perform all other things that may be necessary for the collection of such taxes. Taxes levied under this law shall be a first and prior lien upon all property against which they are assessed, and shall be payable and shall mature and become delinquent as provided by law for State and county taxes.

Art. 8017. Same; method to be pursued.—The board of supervisors may also proceed to collect delinquent levee taxes in the following manner:

Suit shall be brought in the name of the district for the collection of the taxes and the foreclosure of the lien thereof in the following manner:

(a) Such suits shall be brought in the district court of the county in which the land or the major part thereof is situated, and such courts shall give judgment against each tract of land for the amount of such taxes, together with penalties, interest, attorneys fees and costs; such judgment shall provide for the sale of each tract of land by the sheriff or any constable of the county in which it is situated in the same manner as other judicial sales of land; and it shall be immaterial that the ownership of said land be incorrectly alleged in said proceedings.

(b) Such action shall be in the nature of a proceeding in rem, and jurisdiction of land owners and other parties interested may be had by publication for a general notice thereof, once each week for at least four consecutive weeks in some paper of general circulation published in the county or counties in which such district is situated, and if no paper is published in the county, then the same shall be published in a paper in the nearest county thereto where a paper is published, and also by written notice mailed to the last known address of the land owner, and which notice shall be substantially in the following form:

Clerk of the District Court of _____ County, Texas.

(c) Such publication of notice of the pendency of such suit and the written notice addressed to the last known address of the land owner, shall be taken as and for service of process against any owner, vender, mortgage, [mortgagor,] heir or other person claiming any interest in the lands whatsoever, and the judgment in such case shall be binding upon each tract of land and the owner of every interest therein. Provided, it shall not be necessary to publish any delinquent list or give any other delinquent notice before proceeding under this Act.

(d) When the notice, petition and answer have been filed with the clerk, he shall docket the same in other causes, and the said suit have precedence over all other cases.

(e) In such suits it shall be sufficient to allege generally and briefly the organization of the district and the non-payment of the taxes, setting forth a reasonable description of the lands proceeded against and the amount chargeable to each tract, with prayer for foreclosure; provided that no irregularity in the assessment of the land, or mistake in the name of the owner or in the number of acres therein, shall be a defense to such action; provided, further, that no mistake as to the amount of the taxes, interest and penalty as alleged in the pleadings or in the notice of the pendency of the suit shall be a defense, but the correct amount of taxes, interest and penalty due may be proved and the judgment rendered thereon.

(f) Such suits shall be conducted in the name of the levee improvement district and in accordance with the practice and proceedings of the district courts in this State, except as herein otherwise provided. Continuances shall be granted only for good cause shown, which may be granted as to part of the lands, and in such case the court shall proceed as to all tracts as to which no continuance is granted.

(g) When notice has been properly given as aforesaid, and where no answer has been filed, or if filed and the cause has been decided for the plaintiff, the court shall enter judgment granting the relief as prayed for in the petition, and shall foreclose the lien on such taxes and order the sale of the land therefor in the same manner as other judicial sales of real estate, and foreclosure decree therefor shall include writ of possession, and if all the land and other real property be not sold on the date advertised, such sales shall continue from day to day until completed, and the sheriff or constable shall by proper deed convey to the purchaser the land so sold, and the title of said land shall thereupon become vested in such purchaser against all others whatsoever; provided, that the former owner shall within two years of the date of the purchaser's deed have the right to redeem the land upon payment of double the amount of money paid for the land.

(h) The board of supervisors shall have the power to employ attorneys for the purpose of collecting such delinquent taxes, paying such attorneys for their services such fees or commissions as to the supervisors may seem proper.

(i) Whenever the board of supervisors of any levee improvement district shall fail to commence suits within sixty days after taxes have become delinquent, the holder or holders of any bonds issued by such levee improvement district shall have the right to employ counsel to bring such suit in the name of the levee improvement district upon the relation of such holder or bond holders; and such suits may be proceeded with in the same manner as hereinabove prescribed, and shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of this section.

(j) The method of procedure provided in this section shall be cumulative, and shall not repeal or supersede [supersede] any other procedure provided herein for the collection of such taxes.

Art. 8018. Refunding bonds.—Any levee improvement district which has heretofore been organized under the laws of the State and has issued bonds, and any levee improvement district hereafter organized, and which may issue bonds, may by consent of the holders thereof refund any bonds issued by issuing new coupon bonds for that purpose. Such refunding bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than the bonds in lieu of which they are issued. Interest shall be evidenced by coupons attached to such bonds, and may be payable annually or semi-annually, within the discretion of the commissioners' court of the county of jurisdiction; and such refunding bonds shall be payable serially or otherwise, not exceeding forty years from the date thereof, and shall be issued in denomination one hundred dollars or some multiple thereof; and a sufficient tax levy to meet the payment of the principal and interest of said refunding bonds shall be made before the delivery thereof, provided the refunding of any bonds shall not affect any taxes already due.

The refunding bonds hereby authorized shall be executed in the same manner provided for the execution of levee improvement district bonds. Any sum to the credit of any sinking fund account on hand shall first be deducted in ascertaining the amount of refunding bonds to be issued, and such money shall in every case be applied to the payment of the outstanding bonds. No refunding bonds shall be issued and delivered until approved by the Attorney General and registered by the State Comptroller; provided, however, that the Comptroller shall not register such refunding bonds until the old bonds in lieu of which such refunding bonds are issued are presented to him for cancellation; and after the registration of the new bonds, the Comptroller shall cancel the old bonds and interest coupons, and deliver such new bonds to the proper party or parties; provided, further, that the old bonds may be so presented for cancellation, in installments, and a like amount of the new bonds registered and delivered as is herein provided.

Art. 8019. Treasurer under bond; compensation.—The county treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction, shall be treasurer of all levee improvement districts of which such court has jurisdiction, and as such shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the levee improvement district, in a sum equal to one and one-fourth of the taxes contemplated to be paid over in any one year, or such other or further amount as the board of supervisors of the district may require, which bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of the principal as treasurer of the levee improvement district, and shall be approved by the board of supervisors of such district. Such bond may be made by any guaranty or surety company approved by the board of district supervisors, and premiums therefor may be paid out of the maintenance fund of the district. The treasurer, as compensation for his services, shall be allowed not exceeding one-fourth of one per cent upon sums received by him by and on behalf of such levee improvement district.

Art. 8020. Treasurer to report to commissioners' court.—It shall be the duty of the county treasurer whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, as treasurer of the levee improvement district, to open an account with each such district and to keep an accurate account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district, and all moneys paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by two of the district supervisors and countersigned by the county judge, and he shall carefully preserve all orders for the payment of money; and as often as required by the said district supervisors or the commissioners' court he shall render a correct account to them on all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district.

Art. 8021. Supervisors select depository.—The board of supervisors shall select a depository or depositories for funds of the district and the county treasurer shall deposit such funds of the districts in such depository or depositories as the supervisors may direct; provided, before any such depository shall receive any funds of the district they shall give bond to the district with a corporate surety company as surety, which is authorized to do business in the State of Texas, in an amount equal to the funds so deposited, conditioned upon the safe keeping of said funds and paying of the same.

Art. 8022. Compensation of officers.—For all services performed by any officer or individual under this Act, the compensation for which is not herein expressly provided for, such officer or individual shall receive the same compensation as he would for like services if rendered as an officer of a county. Clerks recording orders hereunder shall receive the same compensation as would a county clerk for recording deeds, and persons posting notices hereunder shall receive the same compensation as would a sheriff for posting notices required by law to be posted by him officially.

Art. 8023. Awarding contracts.—All the improvements contemplated by the plan of reclamation, as approved by the State Reclamation Engineer, shall be constructed. Contracts for making and constructing levees and other improvements and all the necessary work in connection with any levee improvement district, shall be let by the district supervisors to the lowest and best bidder, after giving notice by advertising same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the State of Texas once a week for three consecutive weeks; which contracts shall be made in writing and signed by the contractor, in duplicate; provided, that such work may be let without advertisement upon contracts approved jointly by the district supervisors and the owners of a majority of the acreage of land in such district; provided, further that such contract shall include all works of improvement contemplated and authorized by the approved plan of reclamation, it being the intent hereof to require the contractor to complete the construction of such works of improvement for the amount of money, or bonds available for the purpose; provided, that such work may be let in sections but no contract for a part of the work shall be valid unless and until all sections of the work shall have been let under the above conditions so that the total cost of the work shall be within the amount of funds or bonds provided for the purposes; provided further, that it shall be the duty of the district supervisors immediately to notify the county treasurer that the contract has been executed and it shall thereupon be the duty of the county treasurer to set aside an amount of money in the construction and maintenance fund of said district to be known as "Special Fund Under Contract, dated _____ (inserting date of contract)," and which special fund, so set aside, shall be for the full amount of the contract price, and it shall be unlawful for the county treasurer to pay any warrants against such special fund, except upon accounts sworn to by the contractor and duly audited and approved by the district supervisors; and the use or payment of such special fund, or any part thereof, for any other purpose shall be a diversion thereof, and punishable as provided by Article 104, of the Penal Code of this State, Revision of 1911; and, provided further, that the district supervisors may deliver to the contractor upon the written consent of the county judge, the bonds of such district in full payment of the works of improvement constructed in conformity with the contract, and such bonds may be delivered in installments upon estimates of the engineer as the work progresses. In the event there are not sufficient funds available for the purpose of completing the works of improvement contemplated and authorized by the approval plan of reclamation, then no contract shall be awarded for any part of such work until sufficient funds have been provided for; and if such contract is made it shall be void, and shall not be enforceable in any court in this State, and the performance of same or any payment of any money thereunder may be enjoined by any taxpayer in such district; provided, however, that this requirement shall not apply to urgent necessity or present calamity where it becomes necessary to act at once to repair any levee so as to preserve the property in the district; and, provided further, that subsequent to the approval and registration of bonds by the proper State officials as herein provided, contracts may be let conditioned upon the sale of such bonds in an amount equal to the contract price. "The contractor shall be required to give a corporate surety bond for the full amount of the contract price, which shall guarantee the completion of the contract as above provided, which bond shall be subject to the approval of the county judge."

Article 104 of the Penal Code of 1911 referred to in this article is Art. 94 of Rev. Pen. Code 1925.

Art. 8024. Work to be supervised.—All work included in the contract shall be done in accordance with the specifications under the supervision of the supervisors and the district engineer. As the work progresses the engineer of such district shall make report to the supervisors, showing in detail whether the contract is being complied with, and when the work is completed he shall make a detailed report of same to the supervisors, showing whether or not the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been so complied with. It shall be the duty of the State Reclamation Engineer either in person or by deputy to inspect the construction of a levee and other works of improvement once every sixty days after such construction work has commenced; and if he finds that such levee or other duly authorized work has been constructed in strict accordance with the approved plan of reclamation he shall so officially certify and his certificate shall give a full description of the work that has been done up to the date of such inspection; and in the event he finds that such work has not been constructed in strict accordance with the approved plan of reclamation, he shall so officially certify, and in such certificate designate wherein the contractor has failed to comply with the approved plan of reclamation. It shall thereupon be the duty of the district supervisors to forthwith demand that the contractor shall comply with the requirements of the approved plan of reclamation, at his own cost and expense, and no further accounts, claims or vouchers submitted by such contractor shall be approved or paid until he has complied with the requirements of the State Reclamation Engineer in constructing such work in accordance with the approved plan of reclamation.

Art. 8025. Paying for work done.—The supervisors shall, during the progress of the work under contract, inspect the same; and upon the completion of any work in accordance with the contract, they shall draw a warrant on the treasurer of the district for the unpaid amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor. Payments pending the work shall not exceed in the aggregate eighty-five per cent of the contract price of the work done, the said amount of work completed to be shown by estimates of the engineer of the district.

Art. 8026. To have seal.—Levee improvement districts created under this Act, or entitled to its benefits, shall each have a common seal which shall be circular in form, with the name of the district within the center, with a star of five points in the center; and such districts may sue and be sued in the courts of this State in and by their corporate names, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of their existence.

Art. 8027. Plans to be approved by Reclamation Engineer.—It shall be unlawful for any levee improvement district, whether it proposes to construct its levees or other improvements with or without the issuance of bonds, to construct, to undertake to construct, or maintain any levee or other improvement, without first obtaining the approval by the State Reclamation Engineer, as provided in this Act, of the plans for such levees or other improvements; and in the event any such levee improvement district undertakes to construct, or constructs or maintains any levee or other improvement without first obtaining the approval of the State Reclamation Engineer of the plans for the same, as provided in this Act, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, on the request of the State Reclamation Engineer, to file suit in one of the district courts of Travis County, Texas, in which the venue of such suits is hereby fixed, to enjoin the construction or maintenance of such levee or other improvement.

Art. 8028. Same; along streams, lakes, etc.—From and after the taking effect of this Act it shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or levee improvement district, without first obtaining the approval of plans for the same by the State Reclamation Engineer, to construct, attempt to construct, cause to be constructed, maintain or cause to be maintained, any levee or other such improvement on, along or near any stream of this State which is subject to floods, freshets or overflows, so as to control, regulate or otherwise change, the flood waters of such stream; and any person, corporation or district violating this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars. And in the event any such structure is about to be constructed, is constructed, or maintained by any person or corporation without approval of the plans by the State Reclamation Engineer, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, on the request of the State Reclamation Engineer, to file suit in one of the district courts of Travis County, in which the venue of such suits is hereby fixed, to enjoin the construction or maintenance of such structure. Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to dams, canals or other improvements made or to be made by irrigation, water improvements or irrigation improvements made by individuals or corporations.

Art. 8029. Dissolution of district.—If any levee improvement district heretofore created or that hereafter may be created shall find, at any time prior to the sale of its bonds or final lending of its credit in other form, that the proposed undertaking for any reason is impracticable or apparently cannot be successfully carried out, the commissioners' court is hereby authorized to abolish such district upon petition signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage in the district, praying for the dissolution of such district, setting forth the reasons therefor, and accompanied by a deposit of fifty dollars. Such petition shall be set for hearing, notice of such hearing shall be given, the hearing thereon shall be held, and the expense thereof paid out of said deposit all in conformity with the procedure prescribed in this Act in connection with the petition for the establishment of the district; and the commissioners' court shall have the same powers with respect to the abolition of such districts that it has with respect to their creation. If upon the hearing it shall appear to the court that such district should be abolished, the court shall so find and shall render judgment reciting such findings, and by its orders entered of record declare and decree such district abolished, and appoint the chairman of the supervisors or some other suitable person as trustee to close up its affairs without delay; the term and compensation of such trustees to be at the pleasure of the said court. If the court should not so find, it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners, and enter such findings of record. Where any taxes have been levied and collected in the name of the district in anticipation of an issue of bonds, such taxes, so far as unexpended, shall in the event of dissolution of the district as herein provided, and on order of the commissioners' court duly entered, be returned to the taxpayers ratably, after deducting the compensation of the assessor, collector and treasurer in connection therewith, and any other claim properly chargeable against such taxes; proper receipt for all sums so refunded to be taken and filed by the treasurer.

Art. 8029a. Election for dissolution.—Any levee improvement district heretofore created or that hereafter may be created, may voluntarily abolish its corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided. If the proposition to abolish such district fails to carry at the election held therefor, no other election for the same purpose shall be held within one year after the result of such election has been declared. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029b. Order for election.—Upon the presentment to the Commissioners' Court at a regular session thereof, of a petition praying for the abolition of such levee improvement district, the court shall order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time to determine whether or not such district shall be abolished. Such petition shall be signed by the owners of a majority of the acreage of the lands in such district. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029c. Notice and qualified voters.—Notice of such election shall be posted and such election shall be ordered, held and conducted in the same form and manner as elections at which levee district bonds are now authorized. All persons who are legally qualified voters of the State and county in which such an election is ordered, and are resident property taxpayers in the levee district where such election is to be held, as shown by the records in the county tax collector's office, shall be entitled to vote at such election. A two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted at such election. The ballot for such election shall have written or printed thereon the words and no others, "For the abolition of the levee improvement district" and "Against the abolition of the levee improvement district." [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029d. Returns and declaration of result.—Returns of such elections shall be made and the votes canvassed as before provided in this Chapter, and if said proposition carries, the court shall so declare and enter the same in their minutes substantially as follows:

In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others, praying for the abolition of the levee improvement district in said petition described and designated as _____ County Improvement District No. _____ be it known that an election called for that purpose in said district held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. 19____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the abolition of said levee improvement district. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said district be, and the same is hereby abolished. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029e. Settlement of debts and taxes.—When the district is so abolished, the court shall provide for the settlement of the debts due by said district, including the costs and expenses of holding said election, for and such purpose shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this Chapter [Arts. 8029a-8029q], a tax against the real and personal property in said district, in such amount only as will be necessary for the payment of all valid debts and obligations of every character existing against said district, except bonds issued and held by purchaser. Such bonds shall be paid in accordance with the terms thereof by levy and collection of an annual tax as before provided, unless a retirement of such bonds is effected as provided in the succeeding article. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029f. Bonds and retirement.—If there are any district bonds outstanding at the time of such dissolution, the court shall immediately enter into negotiations with the holders of such bonds, and if, according to the terms thereof, or by agreement between said court and the holders, said bonds can be retired at an earlier date than stipulated on their face, and such retirement is considered by said court as feasible and practicable, then said court shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this Chapter [Arts. 8029a-8029q], such a tax either annually or at once as will pay off as speedily as possible, all indebtedness, both bonded and otherwise of said district. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029g. Sale of property, trustees' bonds.—Upon the dissolution of a district, the court shall provide for the disposition and sale of all district property and turn the same over to three trustees to be appointed by the Commissioners' Court from land owners of said district immediately upon the filing and approval of the bond, whereupon they shall become trustees for such defunct organization. Said trustees shall execute a good and sufficient bond jointly, in a sum not less than the amount of its outstanding bonds and other debts payable to and approved by the county judge and his successor in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duty as trustees of such district, and for paying over and delivering all money and other property coming into their hands as such trustees, to the parties entitled thereto. Said bond shall be recorded in the minutes of the court, and when approved, shall supersede the bond theretofore given by the treasurer of said district. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029h. Trustees' suits.—The said trustees of said defunct district, after giving the required bond, shall take charge of all the property of said district, including the money now in hands of treasurer, of the county, said money to be held by them as trustees of such district, and all books, notes, accounts and choses in action of every kind. As such trustees they may bring suit against any person in possession of such property or indebted to such district, the same as such district could if still organized, and may employ counsel in all suits thereunder, or in the care and management of the business of such defunct district. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029i. Claims, allowance and filing.—Any person, firm or corporation having any claim against such district, or any judgment against such district, shall, within six months after the approval of the bond or [of] the trustees present to them such claim, duly verified. If the trustees find the same correct, they shall allow such claim and thereupon the claimant shall file the same with the clerk of the county court not less than twenty days, before the beginning of the next regular session of the Commissioners' Court, and the said clerk shall immediately issue a notice of such filing to all persons interested in said district. Such notice shall be posted in three public places in the district, and at the court house door, not less than twenty days before the next regular session of said Commissioners' Court. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029j. Approval by Commissioners' Court.—The Commissioners' Court in regular session shall pass upon said claim, and if it be found correct, they shall approve the same, and the order of approval shall be entered upon their minutes, whereupon said claim shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district. Said claim shall then be filed with the trustees and shall be paid by them in the order of its filing out of the money in their hands as treasurer of said district, or collected as liquidation taxes hereunder. All bonds and approved claims outstanding against said district before its dissolution, shall not be required to be allowed and approved as herein provided, but shall be considered as valid and subsisting claims against said district without further approval, but subject to be contested in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029k. Refusal of claims and suits.—If the trustees find any claim presented to them unjust,

in whole or in part, they shall endorse thereon their refusal to allow same, and if it be refused in whole, the owner thereof may institute suit against trustees for said claim in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and if established by judgment as in other cases, said judgment shall be filed with said trustees and shall be paid in its order as other claims. If said claim be refused by the trustees in part and allowed in part, and the owner thereof waives his claim to the part so refused, he shall file said claim in the court for approval. But if he does not waive his right to the portion of said claim so refused, he shall withdraw said claim from the trustees and may bring suit thereon as herein provided. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029l. Judgment and appeals.—If the owner of any claim acted upon by the court is not satisfied with the judgment thereon, he may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal from judgment of a justice court. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029m. Taxpayers' protest of claims.—If any district taxpayer files with the trustees a protest against any claim which was allowed by the former commissioners of said district before the dissolution of the district, and which was unpaid at the time of dissolution, together with a bond in double the amount of such claim, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the trustees and made payable to them, conditioned that such contestant will pay all costs of suit, in case such claimant establishes his claim in full in any state court in which he may sue thereon, then the trustees shall refuse to pay said claim and the owner thereof may bring suit therefor against the trustees, as in other suits of a civil nature. In such suits the contestant and his bondsmen shall be made parties thereto, and trustees shall make all defenses urged against said claim by the contestant. In case of recovery by the claimant, judgment shall be rendered against said contestant and his bondsmen for all costs incurred in said suit; and the owner of said claim shall file the judgment with the trustees to be paid as other claims thereunder. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029n. Expenses approved.—All reasonable expenses incurred by the trustees in the care, control and conduct of the business of the district and employment of counsel therefor, or in conducting or defending suits in their capacity as such trustees, and any counsel fees or court costs incurred by the former commissioners of such district, which have not been paid at the time of the dissolution of such district, shall be charged by them against said trust estate, and shall be presented to the Commissioners' Court at a regular term thereof and upon due notice posted as required in case of other claims against the district. Upon approval by said court, the same shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district and shall be preferred claims, and may be retained by said trustees out of the funds in their hands as district treasurer. If said claim is rejected in whole or in part, and the trustees are dissatisfied with said ruling, they may appeal therefrom as other claimants. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029o. Trustees' compensation.—The trustees shall receive only one compensation for their services as trustees and ex-officio treasurer hereunder. They shall be allowed one-half of one per cent upon all money received by them as the entire compensation for all three trustees for the account of such district, and one-half of one per cent upon all money paid out as provided herein; but they shall not be entitled to such commission on money in their hands as treasurer of said district at the time of the dissolution thereof, as of money coming into their hands, nor to money turned over by them at the expiration of their trusteeship. The county assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation for the assessing and collecting of taxes as before provided in this Chapter [Arts. 8029a–8029q], and their compensation for such service shall be provided for in the order of the court assessing taxes thereunder. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029p. Trustees' final settlement.—When all claims established against the district have been paid and all costs and expenses incurred in the control and management thereof have been satisfied, the trustees shall file their account for final settlement with the court. Said account shall contain a full and complete account of all money received and paid out, all property of every kind that has come into their hands as trustees and the disposition thereof, and all other matters pertaining to the management of the affairs of the district. Upon the approval of said account, the court shall direct the trustees to turn over any property or money remaining in their hands to the person or persons entitled thereto as found by the court, and on their compliance with said order, they shall so report to the court, and thereupon the court shall enter an order discharging said trustees and their bondsmen and closing said trust estate. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8029q. Trustees' successors.—In case of death or resignation of any of said trustees, the Commissioners' Court shall appoint a successor or successors to fill such vacancy or vacancies. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 103, ch. 72, § 1.]

Art. 8030. Providing additional funds.—If it should develop that the works and improvements set out in any plan of reclamation adopted by or on behalf of a levee improvement district are found insufficient to reclaim in whole or in part any or all of the lands and other property within the district, or if extensive repairs or additions to such works are deemed necessary, or if additional funds are needed to complete improvements, then in respect thereto, the board of supervisors of the district, may proceed in all respects to provide additional funds for such additional works, in accordance with the provisions of this Act, in respect to the original plan of reclamation, and may, under like limitations, create additional indebtedness or issue additional bonds, but always subject to every limitation in respect to such original proceedings, as well as the approval of the new or amended plan of reclamation by the State Reclamation Engineer.

2. ALTERNATE METHOD

Art. 8031. Readjusting assessments.—At any time after one year from the date of any final judgment and decree of the commissioners of appraisal in districts levying taxes on the benefit basis, the owners of a majority of the acreage of the lands within the district may file a petition with the commissioners' court alleging that the previous assessment [assessment] of benefits in such judgment and decree are insufficient or inequitable, and praying for an increase or readjustment of the assessment of benefits for the purpose of making an adequate or more equitable basis for the levy of taxes; and if the plan of reclamation is changed or modified, or if extensive repairs or additions thereto are desired to be made, the board of supervisors shall file a petition with such court setting out therein such changes, modifications, repairs or additions; upon the filing of any such petition the court shall set a day for the hearing of each petition, and issue notice informing all persons concerned of the time and place of hearing, and their rights to appear and contend for or contest an increase or readjustment of assessments of benefits, such notice to be posted at the places, for the length of time, and in all respects the same as the notice of hearing for establishing the districts.

Art. 8032. Same; hearing petition.—At the time and place set for the hearing the commissioners' court shall proceed to hear such petition and proof for or against the same, and if it finds that the aggregate amount of assessed benefits as shown by such previous final judgment and decree is insufficient to carry out the original plan of reclamation, or any change in or modification of, or repairs, or additions to the same, or that there has been a material change in the relative value of the benefits conferred on the property in the district, or that for other reasons such assessment of benefits is inadequate or inequitable, it shall order that there be made a reassessment of benefits for the purpose of providing a sufficient, more adequate or equitable basis of taxation for all purposes within such district; and thereupon it shall proceed to appoint commissioners of appraisement in the manner and with the powers, rights, privileges and duties both to the commissioners and persons interested, as provided in the first instance.

Art. 8033. Assess and collect on reassessment.—Such commissioners shall finally make their findings and enter their judgment and decree in the matter, which, thereafter, until again changed or modified, shall be the basis of the assessment of taxes within and for the district. Provided, that there shall be no reassessment of benefits that will in any way render insecure any outstanding bonds or other indebtedness of any district, nor shall the sum of benefits as reassessed ever be less in amount than the sum total of all outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of such district. The commissioners' court of each county in which such district is located shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes based upon such reassessment, at rate sufficient to provide funds requisite to pay interest upon all outstanding bonds and other indebtedness of such district and to pay off such bonds or other indebtedness at maturity, and also to pay the interest on and provide necessary sinking funds to pay all bonds or other indebtedness that may be issued. The provisions of this section shall also apply to districts levying taxes upon the ad valorem plan, only if the plan of reclamation is changed or modified, or if extensive repairs or additions thereto are made, and such commissioners, if appointed, shall assess only the damages which will accrue to the property within or without the district because of the carrying out of the changes in the plan.

Art. 8034. Protesting decision of Reclamation Engineer.—If the supervisors of any levee improvement district, or any person or corporation whose interest [interests] are affected thereby, be dissatisfied with the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in finally approving or disapproving any plan of reclamation for such district, the district or person or corporation dissatisfied may within fifteen days after such final action, file suit in the district court of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction of the district in question, against the State Reclamation Engineer, and to which suit the district shall be made a party defendant, if the suit be on behalf of any other complaining person or corporation. The petition shall set forth the cause or causes of objection and show wherein the interests of the petitioners are injuriously affected by the action of the State Reclamation Engineer complained of. Process shall issue as in other cases and the case shall have preference of trial in the court wherein it is filed, and upon final hearing the court shall render its judgment and decree approving or disapproving of the plan of reclamation, in whole or in part, as it may find to be equitable and just; and such judgment shall stand for the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in such matters. There may be an appeal, as in ordinary cases, from the judgment of the trial court, which appeal shall have preference of hearing in the Court of Civil Appeals, the judgment of which in the matter shall be final, and shall stand for the action of the State Reclamation Engineer in respect to the matters at issue in such suit.

Art. 8035. Injuring levees.—Any person or persons who shall wrongfully or purposely cut, injure, destroy, or in any manner impair the usefulness of any levee or other reclamation improvement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year; or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 8036. Interfering with work.—Any person or persons who shall wilfully destroy or deface any corner, line, mark, bench mark or other object fixed or established in connection with the work herein authorized, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 8037. Districts not organized.—Districts organized under any laws of this State having for their objects the reclamation of lands through a system of levees and drainage, and not governed by the provisions of laws of this State, may become entitled to and may hereafter exercise all the rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created under it, and to all of the enlarged powers which may be conferred under Section 59, Article 16, of the Constitution of this State by proceedings as follows:

1. Whenever the owner of a majority of the acreage of any such district shall present to the commissioners' court of the county in which such district is located their petition praying that a hearing be ordered to determine whether such district may avail itself of the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the court to fix a time and place for such hearing, and cause notice thereof to be given, substantially in all respects as notice of the hearing upon the matters of the formation of a district under this Act.

2. At the time and place of such hearing the court shall proceed to hear and determine the issue presented by the petition, and evidence for and against the same, and if it finds that the interests of the district in question would be promoted by granting the prayer of the petition, it shall so decree and enter its judgment of record, declaring it to be to the interest of such district that it avail itself of all rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created under it, and that the district on behalf of which the petition is filed shall thereafter be entitled to and may exercise all rights, powers and privileges conferred by this Act upon districts created by it, and thereafter such district shall have and may exercise all such rights, powers and privileges as if created under this Act, and thereafter it shall proceed in all things as it would if created hereunder, but such decree shall not in any respect injuriously affect any financial liability of such district.

Art. 8038. Repealing provision.—All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act shall be, and the same are hereby repealed, and Chapter 146, of the General Laws of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature, and Chapter 44, of the General Laws of the Fourth Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, and all amendments thereto, and Chapter 6, of Title 128, embracing Articles 7972, to 8096, inclusive, of the Revised Civil Statutes, 1925 Revision, are hereby particularly repealed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 21, p. 80, § 66.]

The articles 7972 to 8096 repealed by the above mentioned act of 1925 are not the articles as printed in this revision, but the articles as printed in the proposed bill for which articles 7972 to 8042 of this revision have been substituted.

Art. 8039. Organized under former laws not invalidated.—Any proceedings begun under the provisions of any Act hereby repealed may be proceeded with and completed under the provisions of this Act; and nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to the issuance of any bonds where provisions for their issuance have been made in whole or in part before the passage of this Act. And no suit or action now pending in any court in this State by or against any levee improvement district organized under the provisions of laws hereby repealed shall be affected by the provisions hereof.

Art. 8040. All districts organized heretofore are under provision of this Act.—This Act is intended to take place of all such Statutes repealed hereby. All levee improvement districts that have been organized heretofore, or that have availed themselves of the provisions of such law, shall be governed by the provisions of this Act, and the plan of taxation therein provided for shall not be affected or changed by this Act. Any such districts which have not completed any improvements begun under the provisions of any former law shall be governed in the issuance of bonds and the completion of such improvements by the provisions of the Act or Acts under which they were created; and provided, further, that the repeal of Chapter 146, Acts of the Regular Session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature, shall not affect any districts heretofore created under the provisions of that Act, nor districts created under any former laws having for their objects the reclamation and protection of lands through a system of levees and drainage, and which have not heretofore become conservation and reclamation districts, but all rights, powers and privileges granted such districts by the Acts under which they were organized, and amendments thereto, are hereby directly preserved to such districts.

Art. 8041. Does not repeal laws of 1925 Statutes.—This Act shall not be construed to repeal any of the provisions of Chapter 7, Title 128, embracing Articles 8097 to 8193, entitled "Drainage Districts," in the Revised Civil Statutes, 1925 Revision, nor any of the irrigation laws of this State, nor any law upon the subject of drainage districts, water improvement districts or irrigation districts passed at the Regular Session of the Thirty-ninth Legislature.

Art. 8042. Continuation of former Acts.—This Act shall be construed to be a continuation of, and re-enactment of the Acts hereby repealed, excepting such provisions hereof as are now or are in conflict with said Acts. This Act is remedial [remedial] in character and shall be liberally construed to give full effect to all of its purposes.

This article is an exact copy of Texas Rev. Civ. St. 1925, and Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 21, p. 81, § 70, except for the word "remedial" in brackets, which was inserted by the Compiler.

[Note.—Articles from 8043 to 8096, inclusive, not provided for in the Act of 1925, and are therefore omitted from this Revised Statute in order to maintain subsequent number.]

Article 8097. [2567] May establish.—The commissioners courts may establish one or more drainage districts in their respective counties in the manner provided in this chapter. Such districts may or may not include villages, towns and municipal corporations, or any portion thereof, but no land shall at the same time be included in more than one drainage district created hereunder. Such districts, when so established, may make drainage improvements therein and issue bonds in payment therefor as provided in this chapter. The commissioners court shall hereafter be designated as the "Court." [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 245.]

Art. 8098. [2568] Petition.—A petition shall first be presented to the Court signed by twenty-five of the freehold resident taxpayers in the proposed district, or if there are less than seventy-five such citizens then by one-third thereof, whose lands may be affected thereby, praying for the establishment of a drainage district, and setting forth the necessity, public utility and feasibility and proposed boundaries thereof, and designating a name for such district, which shall include the name of the county. [Id.]

Art. 8099. [2602] Deposit.—Said petition shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said Court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of the district and issuance of bonds is officially made known. If said election is in favor of the establishment of said district, then the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. If said election is against the establishment of such district, then the clerk shall pay out of said deposit upon vouchers approved and signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to said proposed district up to and including said election, and the balance shall be returned to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8100. [2568] Notice of hearing.—At the same session when said petition is presented, the Court shall set said petition down for hearing at some regular or special session called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition, and shall order the clerk to give notice of the date and place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon for twenty days prior to the election in five public places in said county, one at the court house door, and four within the limits of the district. Said clerk shall be paid one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1909, p. 24; Acts 1911, p. 245.]

Art. 8101. [2569] Hearing.—On the day set for the hearing, any person whose land would be affected by the creation of said district may appear before said Court and contest the creation of such district or contend for its creation, and may offer testimony to show that the district is or is not necessary, and would or would not be of public utility, either sanitary, agricultural or otherwise, and that the creation of such district would or would not be feasible or practicable. [Id.]

Art. 8102. [2569] Hearing: powers of court.—Except as herein provided, said Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such district, and all matters pertaining to the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day, and all judgments rendered by said Court in relation thereto shall be final. [Id.]

Art. 8103. [2570] Hearing: findings.—If at the hearing it appears to the Court that the drainage of such district is feasible and practicable, and that it is needed, that the drainage would be conducive to the public health or would be a public benefit or a public utility, then the Court shall so find. But if said Court finds any of said issues in the negative, it shall dismiss the petition at the cost of the petitioners. The findings shall be entered of record. [Id.]

Art. 8104. [2571] Engineer.—If said findings favor the establishment of the district, the Court shall appoint a competent civil engineer who shall be entitled to such assistants as may be necessary. Said engineer and his assistants shall be paid for doing the work required of them hereunder, such compensation and allowances for transportation, supplies, etc., as may be agreed on between the engineer and the Court. [Id.; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 59.]

Art. 8105. [2572] Engineer's bond.—Said engineer shall give bond for five hundred dollars payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of the district, with two or more sureties to be approved by the Court, conditioned on the faithful discharge of his official duties hereunder. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 247.]

Art. 8106. [2573] Preliminary plans.—The engineer shall, within such time as may be prescribed by the Court, go upon the land proposed to be drained and protected by levees, and make a careful survey thereof, and from such survey make preliminary plans, locating approximately the necessary canals, drains, ditches, laterals and levees, and shall designate the streams and bayous necessary to be cleaned, deepened and straightened, and estimate the costs thereof in detail as to each improvement contemplated, and shall also estimate the probable cost of maintaining same per year, and shall at once make a detailed report of his work to the Court. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 89.]

Art. 8107. [2574] Plans: outlets.—The engineer is authorized and empowered to go upon lands and premises located outside of such district, and into another and different county, if necessary, for all purposes of the survey, and to ascertain and procure proper and necessary outlets for the proposed canals, drains, and ditches necessary to the drainage of the district. He shall obtain all possible information regarding the lands within the proposed district, and the outlets therefrom from the office of the State Reclamation Engineer and from other sources, and co-operate with said Engineer in the discharge of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8108. [2575] Map.—The engineer's report shall be accompanied by a map showing the beginning point, as well as the outlets, of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and shall show the length, width, depth and slopes of the banks of the cut or excavation, and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth to be removed from each, and shall show the location and size of all levees and the estimated number of cubic yards of earth necessary to construct the same. A copy of the official Land Office map of the county, with the boundaries of the district, and the beginning points and outlets of all canals, drains, ditches and laterals, and other data required by this article shown thereon shall be deemed a sufficient compliance herewith. [Acts 1907, p. 78; Acts 1911, p. 247.]

Art. 8109. [2576] Hearing on report.—When such report of the engineer is filed with the clerk, the Court shall at its next regular or special session set such report down for hearing at a subsequent regular or special session, not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from such sitting. The clerk shall post notice thereof as before provided. At such hearing, any freehold resident or non-resident taxpayer of the district whose lands may be affected by said improvements, may appear and object to any and all of said canals, drains, ditches and levees, for the reason that they are not located at the proper places, or that they are not sufficient in number or capacity to properly drain said territory. [Id.]

Art. 8110. [2577] Report: findings.—If there are no objections to said report, or if the Court finds that any objections thereto are not well taken, the report shall be approved and the fact of its approval entered in the minutes. The Court may change the location of any improvements as shown in the report, or may add to or reduce the number of same, and may order the engineer to locate any additional canals, drains, ditches or levees which may be constructed for the purpose of conducting waters from the lands of said district, or to prevent the overflow of waters from streams or otherwise onto the lands of said district proposed to be drained, or otherwise in aid of said purpose. The Court may, if it deem necessary, refer the entire report back to the engineer for a compliance with the orders of the Court and require a further report. If any changes or alterations are so made in said report, notice shall be given and hearing had as in the first instance. [Acts 1909, p. 24; Acts 1911, p. 248.]

Art. 8111. [2578] Election.—After the approval of the engineer's report, as presented or as modified, the Court shall order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time, at which election there shall be submitted the following propositions, and none other: "For the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor;" "Against the drainage district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." [Acts 1907, p. 81; Id.]

Art. 8112. [2579] Notice of election.—Notice of such election shall recite: the establishment of the district, the amount of bonds, which shall not exceed the engineer's estimate and the cost of any additional work which may become necessary by any change or modification in his report, the time and places of holding the election, the proposition to be voted on, and the purposes for which said bonds are to be issued. Such notice shall be posted by the clerk as before provided. [Id.]

Art. 8113. [2580] Requisites of election.—A two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition to be submitted at such election. Only resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters of the district may vote at any election held under this chapter. All such elections shall be conducted in the manner provided by the general election laws, unless otherwise provided. The Court shall name a polling place at each voting precinct or part thereof in the district, each of which shall be in the district, and shall appoint the judges and other necessary election officers. It shall provide twice as many ballots as there are qualified voters in the district, as shown by the county tax rolls; and said ballots shall have printed thereon the proposition to be submitted as stated in the second preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 8114. [2581] Oath of voter.—Every person who offers to vote in any election held hereunder shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place wherein he offers to vote, and said judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, and that I am a resident property taxpayer of the proposed district voted on at this election, and that I have not voted before at this election." [Id.]

Art. 8115. [2582] Election returns.—Immediately after the election each presiding judge shall make return of the result in the same manner as provided for in general elections for State and county officers, and return the ballot boxes to the county clerk, who shall keep same in a safe place and deliver them together with all returns to the Court at its next regular or special session called to canvass the vote. If the Court finds that said proposition has carried, it shall so declare the result and enter the same in the minutes as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8116. [2582] Declaration of result.—Said order shall be substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a drainage district in said petition described and designated as _____ County Drainage District No. _____, be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereat, voted in favor of the creation of said district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said drainage district be, and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ County Drainage District No. _____, within the following metes and bounds," (which field notes shall be copied into the record). [Id.]

Art. 8117. [2582] District classification.—All districts shall bear the name of the county in which they may be located, as a part of their names, and shall be numbered consecutively as created and established by order of the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8118. [2585] Appointment of commissioners.—When a district is so established, and unless said commissioners are elected as provided in the succeeding article, the Court shall appoint three drainage commissioners who shall be residents of the county or an adjoining county, who shall be freehold taxpayers of the district and legal voters of the county of their residence. Such commissioners shall hold office for two years and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the Court for malfeasance in office. Upon the expiration of their term of office, or in case of resignation, the Court shall appoint their successors by a majority vote. [Id., Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 127.]

Art. 8119. [2585] Election of commissioners.—After a district is so established, upon the petition of a majority of the real property taxpayers of the district, praying for the election of three drainage commissioners, the Court shall immediately order an election for said purpose at the earliest legal time, to be held as other elections hereunder, and shall declare the three persons receiving the highest number of votes to be elected. If the third highest vote be tied, the Court shall elect the third commissioner from those tying for the place. Such commissioners so elected, when duly qualified hereunder, shall be the legal and rightful drainage commissioners for such district within the full meaning and purpose of this law. Such commissioners shall hold office until the next regular election for State and county officers, and shall then and thereafter be elected every two years at such general election. [Id.]

Art. 8120. [2585] Commissioners: salary.—The commissioners shall receive for their services not more than two dollars and fifty cents per day for the time actually engaged in the work of the district, which shall be fixed by order of the Court. Such commissioners shall first submit a detailed report to the Court showing the time actually consumed in the work for said district and of the work done, and such report shall be audited and approved by the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8121. [2586] Commissioners' oath.—Before entering upon his duties, each commissioner shall take and subscribe before the county judge an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of his doings to the Court whenever requested to do so. Such oath shall be filed by the clerk of the Court and preserved as a part of the district records. [Acts 1907, p. 82; Acts 1911, p. 251.]

Art. 8122. [2587] Commissioners' bond.—Before entering upon his duties, each commissioner shall give a good and sufficient bond for one thousand dollars, payable to the county judge, for the use and benefit of the district, conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8123. [2588] Organization of commissioners.—The commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary. Two commissioners shall constitute a quorum, which shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district, except the letting of contracts and the drawing of warrants on the treasury, which shall require the concurrence of all the commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8124. [2592] District engineer.—The commissioners shall appoint a competent civil engineer, who shall be entitled to such assistants as may be necessary. For doing the work required of him hereunder, said engineer and his assistants shall receive such pay and allowances for transportation, supplies, etc., as may be agreed on between him and the commissioners with the approval of the Court. [Id. Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 59.]

Art. 8125. [2592] Duty of engineer.—Said engineer shall make a map of such district showing the boundary lines thereof, with the original surveys therein, and if such lines cross an original survey the map shall show how many acres of such original survey are included in the district. He shall also make maps and profiles of the several canals, drains, ditches and levees in the district and outlets thereof extending beyond the limits of the district. A copy of the Land Office map of the county, as it applies to such district, showing the name and number of each survey, and the area or number of acres contained in the district, shall be a sufficient compliance herewith in so far as making a map of the district is required; and any recognized map of any city or town in the district shall be sufficient as to such city or town. [Id.]

Art. 8126. [2593] Maps and estimates.—The map and profiles of each drain, ditch and levee required by this law shall show the relation that each canal, drain, ditch or levee bears to each tract of land through which it passes, and the shape into which it divides each tract, and where the canal, drain, ditch, or levee cuts off any tract containing less than twenty acres of land the map shall show the number of acres so divided therefrom, and the number of acres in the whole tract, showing the shape of such small tract and its relation to the canal, ditch, drain or levee. Such profile may also show the number of cubic yards necessary to be excavated in order to make each canal, drain or ditch, and to build any levee located in such district, and give the estimated cost of each. When said map, profile and estimates have been completed by the engineer, he shall sign the same in his official capacity and file them with the clerk of the court. [Acts 1907, p. 83; Acts 1911, p. 252.]

Art. 8127. [2595] Issuance of bonds.—When such maps, profiles and estimates are so filed, the Court shall make an order directing the issuance of drainage bonds for such district, sufficient in amount to pay for such proposed improvements, together with all necessary actual and incidental expenses connected therewith. Such bonds shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed valuation of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for said district, nor exceeding the amounts specified in said order and notice of election. [Id. Acts 1st C. S., 1913, p. 90.]

Art. 8128. [2595] Change in plans without bonds.—After the issuance of bonds is authorized, the commissioners may make changes in said district or in any improvements therein which will be of advantage to the district, but which will not increase the cost of such proposed work beyond the amount of bonds authorized. Such changes may be made by the commissioners by entering on their minutes a notation of such changes, with the district maps and profiles showing such changes. Notice of such change shall be given by publication of such notation with the book and page number of the minutes, for two successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation, published in the English language, within the county in which such district is situated. [Id.]

Art. 8129. [2595] Change in plans with bonds.—When it appears to the commissioners that changes or additions may be made in the preliminary survey of the engineer, which shall be of advantage to the district but which shall make necessary the issuance of more bonds of the district, they shall so certify to the Court, accompanying such certificate by maps and profiles prepared by the district engineer, showing such changes and the estimated cost thereof. At its first regular session after the filing of such data, the Court shall give notice of an election to determine whether or not such changes and improvements shall be made, and shall order such election to be held within such time and the returns made as provided for an original election. If two-thirds of the property taxpaying voters of the district vote in favor of such proposition, the court shall enter the same of record and order such bonds to be issued as in the first instance. [Id.]

Art. 8130. [2599] Bonds: record book.—Before issuing any bonds hereunder, the Court shall provide a well bound book, in which a record shall be kept by the county clerk of all bonds issued, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest and date of issue, when due, where payable and amount received for the same, and the annual rate of assessment made each year to pay the interest on said bonds and provide a sinking fund for their payment, and upon the payment of any bond an entry thereof shall be made in said book. Said book shall at all times be open to inspection of all parties interested in said district either as taxpayers or bond holders. The county clerk shall receive for his services in recording all bonds and other instruments of the district, the same fees as provided by law for other like records. [Id.]

Art. 8131. [2596] Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued hereunder shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the county judge and attested by the county clerk, with the seal of the Court affixed thereto. Such bonds shall be issued in denominations of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars each, and shall bear interest at not exceeding six per cent per annum, payable annually or semi-annually. Such bonds shall by their terms provide the time, places, manner and conditions of their payment, and the rate of interest thereon, as may be determined and ordered by the court. No bonds shall be made payable more than forty years after the date

Art. 8132. [2597] Bonds: approval.—Before any bonds are offered for sale, the district shall forward to the Attorney General a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the Court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such district as such, including the series of bonds proposed, and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation as shown by the last official assessment of the county, with such other information as the Attorney General may require. Such officer shall carefully examine said bonds, and if he shall find that they are issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such district, he shall so officially certify. [Acts 1907, p. 84; Acts 1911, p. 253.]

Art. 8133. [2598] Bonds: registration.—When said bonds have been so approved, they shall be registered by the Comptroller in a book to be kept for that purpose, and the certificate of their approval shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Thereafter, said bonds shall be held prima facie valid and binding obligations in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is brought in question. In every suit to enforce the collection of said bonds, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received in evidence as prima facie proof of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons attached thereto. The only defense that can be offered against the validity of such bonds shall be forgery or fraud. [Id.]

Art. 8134. [2600] Bonds: sale.—When the bonds have been registered, the county judge shall, under the direction of the Court, advertise and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, not less than their par value and accrued interest. All money received from such sale shall be turned over as received by the county judge to the county treasurer, and shall be by him placed to the credit of the district in the construction and maintenance fund thereof. The county judge shall be allowed one-half of one per cent of the amount received on the sale of any bonds sold by him in full payment of his services in that behalf. [Id. Acts 1915, p. 61; Acts 1921, p. 164.]

Art. 8135. [2601] Bond of county judge.—After the drainage bonds have been registered, the county judge shall at once execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the commissioners and approved by them, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. If said bond is executed by a satisfactory surety company, the district may pay a reasonable amount as premium on said bond, which shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund upon presentation of the bill therefor to the commissioners. If there is any controversy as to the reasonableness of the amount claimed as such premium, such controversy may be determined by any court of competent jurisdiction. Said premium may be deducted by the commissioners from the commissions allowed the county judge on the sale of bonds by him. [Id.]

Art. 8136. [2603] Tax levy for bonds.—When bonds have been voted, the Court shall annually levy and cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property within the district, whether real, personal or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds as it falls due, and to redeem such bonds at maturity. Such taxes when so collected shall be placed in the interest and sinking fund. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 255; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8137. [2603] Maintenance: estimate.—The commissioners shall annually, on or before the first day of July, prepare and file with the Court a full detailed report of the condition of the improvements theretofore made in the district, with an estimate of the probable cost of maintenance and needed repairs during the ensuing year, together with an inventory of all funds, effects, property and accounts

belonging to such district, and a list of all lawful demands, debts and obligations against the district. Such report shall be verified by the commissioners and carefully investigated and considered by the Court before any levy of taxes is made under the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8138. [2603] Maintenance: taxes.—At the same time that taxes are levied to meet the bonded indebtedness, the Court shall cause to be assessed and collected taxes upon all property in the district, whether real, personal or otherwise, sufficient to maintain, keep in repair, and to preserve the improvements in the district, and to pay all legal, just and lawful debts, demands and obligations against such district. Such levy shall never, in any one year, exceed one-half of one per cent of the total assessed valuation of such district for such year. Such taxes when so collected shall be placed in the construction and maintenance fund. [Id.]

Art. 8139. [2603] Maintenance: unsold bonds.—If any bonds remain which are not required for the completion of the improvements made or to be made, then with the consent of the Court duly made of public record, such bonds or a part thereof may be sold and the proceeds from the sale thereof shall be placed in the maintenance and construction fund and used for the purposes stated in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 8140. Taxes: assessment.—In the assessment and collection of the taxes authorized hereunder, and in all matters pertaining thereto or connected therewith, the county tax assessor and collector shall have the same powers and shall be governed by the same rules, regulations and proceedings as provided for the assessment and collection of State and county taxes, unless otherwise herein provided. The Court shall constitute a board of equalization for such district, and all laws governing boards of equalization for State and county taxing purposes shall govern such district board. [Acts 1915, p. 63.]

Art. 8141. Taxes: collection.—The taxes authorized hereunder shall be a lien upon all property assessed therefor. The Court shall, and it is empowered to, fix the time and determine the date when such taxes shall become due and payable, otherwise they shall become due and payable at the same time as State and county taxes. Upon the failure to pay such taxes when due, the penalty provided by law for failure to pay State and county taxes at maturity shall in every respect apply to taxes hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8142. [2604] Tax rolls.—The Court shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of the assessor and collector and the county clerk of such district, and charge the cost of same to the district. When ordered by the Court, the assessor shall assess all property within the district and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him by said Court for said purpose, and return said books or rolls when he returns the State and county rolls for correction and approval. If said Court finds them correct, it shall approve the same and direct the county clerk to issue a warrant against the county treasurer in favor of the assessor to be paid from the district funds. The assessor shall receive for said services such pay as the Court deems proper. If the assessor fails or refuses to comply with such order, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the Court, and removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 256.]

Art. 8143. [2605] Duty of collector.—The county tax collector shall be charged by the Court with the assessment rolls of the district, and shall be allowed such compensation for the collection of said taxes as is allowed for the collection of other taxes. The Court shall require said officer to give an additional bond or security in such sum as they deem proper and safe to secure the collection of said taxes. If such officer fails or refuses to give such additional security when requested by the Court, within the time provided by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the Court and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law. [Id.]

Art. 8144. [2606] Delinquent taxes.—The collector shall make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the drainage tax has not been paid, and return same to the Court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such property in the same manner provided by law for the sale of property for the collection of State and county taxes. The commissioners may purchase any property so sold, for the benefit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8145. Separate tax officers.—After the establishment of a district, and upon the petition of twenty-five resident freeholders thereof, the Court may order an election to determine whether or not such district shall have a separate tax assessor, separate tax collector, and separate board of equalization for the assessment and collection of district taxes. Notice of such election shall be given as in the original election, and if said proposition carries by a two-thirds vote, the Court shall appoint a suitable person as assessor and other such person as collector, and they shall give bond and exercise the same powers and perform the same duties as provided herein for the county assessor and collector; and the commissioners shall exercise all of the powers herein conferred upon said Court with relation to the equalization of taxes. The general laws relating to the assessment, collection and equalization of taxes, in so far as applicable, shall apply to the assessment, collection and equalization of district taxes. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 91.]

Art. 8146. [2607] Duty of treasurer.—The county treasurer shall open an account with the district and keep an accurate account of all money received by him belonging to such district, and of all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the commissioners and countersigned by the county judge. He shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money, and as often as required by the commissioners or the Court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of the district. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 256.]

Art. 8147. [2608] Bond of treasurer.—The county treasurer shall be the treasurer of such district, and shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to and approved by the commissioners in a sum equal to the amount of bonds issued, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer. If a district depository is selected, then he shall give bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office in accordance with the provisions of law relating to such county treasurers in counties where county depositories have been provided for county funds. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 91.]

Art. 8148. [2608] Salary of treasurer.—The treasurer shall be allowed as pay for his services as such, one-fourth of one per cent upon all money received by him for the account of such district, and one-eighth of one per cent upon all money by him paid out upon the order of the district. He shall not be entitled to any commissions on any district money received by him from his predecessor in office. [Id.]

Art. 8149. [2608] District depository.—The commissioners, in their discretion, may provide for a district depository for the funds of such district, by complying in all respects with the laws governing the designation of county depositories. Such depository shall give a good and sufficient bond, approved by the commissioners, as provided by law for depositories of county funds. All powers vested in the Court as to the designation of county depositories are hereby vested in the commissioners as to the funds of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8150. [2602] District funds.—After the establishment of a district, all legal and just expenses, debts and obligations other than bonds and interest thereon arising and created after the filing of the original petition and necessarily incurred in the creation, establishing, operation and maintenance of such district, shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund," of such district which shall consist of all money, effects, property and proceeds received by such district from all sources, except that portion of the tax collections which shall be necessary to pay the interest on the bonded indebtedness as it falls due and the payment of the bonds at maturity. Said tax collections shall be placed in and paid out of the "Interest and Sinking Fund" of such district for such purposes, and such fund may be invested for the benefit of the district in such bonds and securities as the Attorney General may approve. Such funds shall be held for the respective purposes for which they were created, and if money is improperly paid out of either, the Court may cause the county treasurer to make the necessary transfer of such amount in the district accounts, to restore the fund so improperly used. [Acts 1907, p. 85; Acts 1911, p. 255; Acts 1915, p. 61.]

Art. 8151. [2590] Eminent domain.—All districts shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn and acquire the right of way over and through all public and private lands, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for making the canals, drains, levees and improvements in the district, and for making the necessary outlets thereto in any county in this State. No right of way shall be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities thereof. Such proceedings shall be in the name of the district and under the direction of the commissioners. No appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall suspend the work of the drainage commissioners in prosecuting the work of drainage in all of its details. All expenses arising from such proceedings shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund. [Acts 1907, p. 87; Acts 1911, p. 257.]

Art. 8152. [2591] Right of way.—The commissioners are empowered to acquire the necessary right of way for all canals, drains, ditches and levees and other necessary improvements contemplated by this law, by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings, and if acquired by purchase shall be subject to approval by the Court. [Id.]

Art. 8153. [2619] Private drains.—All canals, drains, ditches and levees made and water courses cleaned or constructed by any district shall be the public property of such district, and every person owning land within said district shall have the right to drain into one or more of such public drains, and at his own expense to make drains according to the natural slope of the land through such other lands as intervene between his land and the nearest public drain or water-course, or along a public highway. Such owner shall first notify the commissioners of his desire to make such drain through another's property or along a public highway, and such commissioners shall go upon the premises and act as a jury of view and determine the place where such drain may be made. [Id.]

Art. 8154. [2623] Control of system.—The drainage commissioners shall keep the canals, drains, ditches and levees and other improvements made hereunder in repair, and shall have general authority to supervise and control the construction and maintenance of same. [Id.]

Art. 8155. [2610] Construction contracts.—Contracts for construction and other necessary work in the district shall be let by the commissioners to the lowest bidder after advertising the same in one or more newspapers of general circulation in this State, once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices thereof for at least twenty-five days, in five public places in the county, one at the courthouse door, and at least two within the district. Contracts may be let separately or all together. All improvements included in the report of the drainage engineer and adopted by the Court shall be constructed. [Id.]

Art. 8156. [2611] Bids.—Any person, firm or corporation desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for hereunder shall, upon application to the commissioners, be furnished with a copy of the engineer's report showing the location, profiles and estimates of such work. All bids shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the commissioners, with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract if his bid is accepted. Any bid may be rejected if deemed too high. [Id.]

Art. 8157. [2613] Contractor's bond.—The contractor shall give bond in the amount of the contract price, payable to the commissioners, conditioned that he will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements, and covenants of the contract, and that in default thereof he will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners and the county judge. [Id.]

Art. 8158. [2612] Requisites of contract.—All contracts shall be in writing and signed by the contractors and commissioners and approved by the county judge, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk. [Id.]

Art. 8159. [2614] Duty of engineer.—The drainage engineer shall furnish the contractor with a sectionized profile of the work contracted for, showing the depth, width and slope of all canals, drains, ditches and levees, and the number of cubic yards to be removed and other work to be done by the contractor, and such work shall be done by the contractor under the supervision of the drainage engineer, who shall indicate to said contractor the points at which the laterals shall intersect the main canal. No earth shall be deposited by the contractor so as to interfere with the construction of such laterals or other contemplated work in the district, or the building of bridges or other work on the public roads. When the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the commissioners showing whether the contract has been fully complied with according to its terms, and if not, in what particular it has not been complied with. [Id.]

Art. 8160. [2617] Railway culverts.—The commissioners are authorized at the expense of the district, to make all necessary bridges and culverts across or under any track or right of way of any railway to enable them to construct and maintain any canal, drain, or ditch necessary to be construed by such district. Notice shall first be given by such commissioners to the railway authorities authorized to build or construct bridges and culverts, and the railroad shall be allowed thirty days to build such bridges or culverts at their own expense, if it should so desire, according to its own plans. Such bridge or culvert shall be constructed so as not to interfere with the free and unobstructed flow of the water passing through the canal or drain, and shall be placed at such points as are designated by the drainage engineer. [Id.]

Art. 8161. [2618] Road culverts.—The commissioners are authorized and required to build all necessary bridges and culverts across and over all canals, drains, ditches, laterals and levees constructed hereunder whenever the same cross a county or public road, and shall pay for same out of the drainage fund. [Id.]

Art. 8162. Additional improvements.—If there remains a surplus of money or bonds to the credit of the district, after the final completion of all improvements contracted for, including bridges and culverts, and after the payment of all expenses incurred hereunder, the commissioners may cause the district engineer to make a detailed report of any additional or supplemental drains, ditches or levees or other character of surface drainage improvements, including tile

drainage, that may be needed in such district. Such report shall be made and acted upon in the manner prescribed for the initial report of the engineer before the issuance of bonds. The estimated cost of such additional improvements shall in no case exceed the amount of surplus money or bonds to the credit of the district. [Id.]

Art. 8163. Additions: election.—After the approval of the engineer's report or as modified by the Court, the Court shall order an election to be held within the district at the earliest possible legal time. The only proposition presented at such election shall be "For the additional improvements and payment therefor out of the moneys on hand;" and "Against the additional improvements and payment therefor out of the moneys on hand." A majority vote shall be necessary to carry such proposition. Notice of such election briefly reciting the character and scope of such proposed improvements, stating the estimated cost of same, and stating the time and places of holding such election shall be given, election officers appointed, returns made and canvassed, and the result declared, in like manner as provided for the original election. [Id.]

Art. 8164. Additions: contracts.—The provisions of this law relative to the letting of contracts and the construction of improvements thereunder and the authority of the drainage commissioners and the Court in connection therewith, shall apply to the construction of such additional improvements and payment therefor in so far as applicable. [Id.]

Art. 8165. [2615] Inspection of work.—The commissioners are empowered and they shall at all times during the progress of the work done under any contract, inspect the same. [Id.]

Art. 8166. [2615-16] Contracts: payment.—If the commissioners deem it advisable in order to obtain more favorable contracts, they may advertise and contract for work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses, but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate seventy-five per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract. The amount of work completed under any contract shall be shown by a certified report of the engineer, and no payment shall be made for work not completed. On the completion of any contract not let on the partial payment plan, the commissioners shall draw a warrant on the treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee. [Id.]

Art. 8167. [2620] Application for connecting drains.—No individual, company, corporation or adjoining district shall have the right to artificially drain adjacent lands, located outside of an established district, into the canals, drains or ditches of such established district, without first making written application to and obtaining the permission of the district commissioners to make such connections. Such application shall show the width, depth and length of such connecting drains or ditches. [Id.]

Art. 8168. [2620] Connections: engineer's report.—When such application has been filed with the commissioners, the district engineer shall make an estimate of the quantity of water which such connecting drains or ditches would probably empty into such established canals or drains, and whether such canals or drains have sufficient capacity to carry such excess of water without risk or damage thereto or the adjacent territory. The engineer shall report the result of his examination and estimate to the commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8169. [2620] Connections: requisites.—If the commissioners deem it advisable, they may authorize such connection, on condition that such applicant shall first pay into the county treasury for the benefit of the construction and maintenance fund a sum which bears the same ratio to the cost of the original canal or drain from the point of connection to its outlet, that the water to be emptied therein by the connecting drains bears to the water then tributary to and being carried by the original canal or drain as estimated by the district engineer, unless the commissioners otherwise agree with the applicants. [Id.]

Art. 8170. [2621] Connections: enlargement.—When it appears from the engineer's report that the canals, drains or outlets of such established district are not of sufficient capacity to carry the excess of water that would be discharged therein by reason of such connection, or that such additional discharge of water would endanger the initial canals and drains or the lands and property adjacent thereto, then the county court in which the initial district is situated shall nevertheless authorize such applicant to make such connection and secure the desired outlet only on condition that it shall first at its own expense and cost make the necessary enlargement of the canals and drains of the initial district, and such increased capacity shall be amply sufficient to carry any increase of water that may be caused by such connections without danger to said canals and drains or to lands adjacent thereto. [Id.]

Art. 8171. [2622] Enlargements: supervision.—Such enlargements shall be done under the supervision and direction of the district engineer, whose salary shall by order of the county court be paid by the applicant. When such work is completed to the satisfaction of the engineer, he shall report to said court under his official certificate showing the kind of work done, the extent thereof, and that the new capacity is sufficient to carry any excess from such connection. Said report shall also show the number of days he was actually employed in supervising said work, and the amount due for such services. On approval of such report, the county court shall make an order authorizing the connections desired with such canals and drains, on payment of the amount shown to be due the engineer by said report. [Id.]

Art. 8172. [2624] Report of commissioners.—The commissioners shall make semi-annual reports of their acts as such, including a financial statement showing with accuracy of date, amount and detail, the receipts and disbursements of all funds subject to their orders as such commissioners, and shall file same with the county clerk on or before the first days of January and July. Such report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done by the district, the cost of same and the amounts paid out in orders and for what purposes, and to whom paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of the improvements made hereunder. Such commissioners shall have a true copy of such report published in some newspaper in the county, once each week for two successive weeks immediately following the first day of January and July of each year. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 92.]

Art. 8173. [2589] Drainage attorney.—The commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of such commissioners, upon such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them and approved by the county judge, and such commissioners shall draw warrants in payment for such legal services. [Acts 1907, p. 91; Acts 1911, p. 263.]

Art. 8174. Status of districts.—All districts may, by and through their commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this State, in the name of such districts, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all such districts. [Id.]

Art. 8175. Suits affecting district.—No suit shall be permitted to be brought in any court of this State enjoining the formation or contesting the validity of any district or its bonds, except in the name of this State by the Attorney General upon his own motion, or upon the motion of any party affected thereby upon good cause shown. [Acts 1911, p. 253.]

Art. 8176. May become conservation district.—Any district established hereunder may become a conservation and reclamation district under Chapter 8 of this title by making the deposit and presenting the petition to the Court, after notice and hearing had as provided herein for establishing a district, by order of said court entered of record declaring such district to be a conservation and reclamation district. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 40.]

2. DISSOLUTION

Art. 8177. Power to dissolve.—Any drainage district may voluntarily abolish its corporate existence in the manner hereinafter provided. If the proposition to abolish such district fails to carry at the election held therefor, no other election for the same purpose shall be held within two years after the result of such election has been declared. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 41; Acts 1915, p. 127.]

Art. 8178. Petition.—Upon the presentation to the Court at a regular session thereof, of a petition praying for the abolition of such drainage district, the Court shall order an election to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time to determine whether or not such district shall be abolished. Such petition shall be signed by fifty of the freehold resident citizen taxpayers of the district, or if there are less than one hundred such citizens, then by one-third thereof. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 41.]

Art. 8179. Deposit.—Such petition shall be accompanied by two hundred dollars in cash which shall be deposited with the county clerk, and by him held until after the result of the election for the abolition of the district has been declared and entered of record by the Court. If such election favors the abolition of the district, the clerk shall return said deposit to the petitioners, their agent or attorney, and the costs and expenses of holding said election shall be a charge against said district, to be collected as other debts in the manner hereinafter provided. If the result of such election is against the abolition of the district, then the clerk shall pay out said sum upon vouchers signed by the county judge for all costs and expenses of said election, and return the balance to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Id.]

Art. 8180. Election.—Notice of such election shall be posted, and such election shall be held in like manner as provided for an election to establish a district hereunder. A two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted at such election. The ballot for such election shall have printed thereon the words and no others: "For the abolition of the drainage district," and "Against the abolition of the drainage district." [Id.]

Art. 8181. Result of election.—Returns of such election shall be made and the votes canvassed as before provided in this chapter, and if said proposition carries, the Court shall so declare and enter the same in their minutes, substantially as follows: "In the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others, praying for the abolition of the drainage district in said petition described and designated as _____ County Drainage District No. _____, be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19—, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the abolition of said drainage district. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said district be, and the same is hereby abolished." [Id.]

Art. 8182. Settlement of debts.—When the district is so abolished, the Court shall provide for the settlement of the debts due by said district, including the costs and expenses of holding said election, and for such purpose shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this chapter, a tax against the real and personal property in said district, in such amount only as will be necessary for the payments of all valid debts and obligations of every character existing against said district, except bonds issued and held by purchasers. Such bonds shall be paid in accordance with the terms thereof by levy and collection of an annual tax as before provided, unless a retirement of such bonds is effected as provided in the succeeding article. [Id.]

Art. 8183. Retirement of bonds.—If there are any district bonds outstanding at the time of such dissolution, the Court shall immediately enter into negotiations with the holders of such bonds, and if, according to the terms thereof, or by agreement between said Court and the holders, said bonds can be retired at an earlier date than stipulated on their face, and such retirement is considered by said Court as feasible and practicable, then said Court shall have the power to levy and cause to be assessed and collected in the manner provided in this chapter, such a tax, either annually or all at once (not exceeding the constitutional limit), as will pay off as speedily as possible all indebtedness, both bonded and otherwise, of said district. [Id.]

Art. 8184. Custody of property.—Upon the dissolution of a district, the Court shall provide for the disposition and sale of all district property and turn the same over to the county treasurer, immediately upon the filing and approval of his bond, whereupon he shall become trustee for such defunct organization. Said treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, in a sum not less than double the value of the district property and its outstanding bonds, payable to and approved by the county judge and his successors in office, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer and trustee of such district, and for paying over and delivering all money and other property coming into his hands as such treasurer and trustee, to the parties entitled thereto. Said bond shall be recorded in the minutes of the Court, and when approved, shall supersede the bond theretofore given by said treasurer, as treasurer of said district. [Id.]

Art. 8185. Powers of trustee.—The said treasurer, as ex-officio trustee of said defunct district, after giving the required bond, shall take charge of all the property of said district, including the money in his hands as treasurer, said money to be held by him as treasurer of such district, and all books, notes, accounts and choses of action of every kind. As such trustee he may bring suit against any persons in possession of such property, or indebted to such district, the same as such district could if still organized, and may employ counsel in all suits hereunder, or in the care and management of the business of such defunct district. [Id.]

Art. 8186. Presentation of claims.—Any person, firm or corporation having any claim against such district, shall within six months after the approval of the bond of the trustee, present to him such claim, duly verified. If the trustee finds the same correct, he shall allow such claim and thereupon the claimant shall file the same with the clerk of the Court not less than twenty days before the beginning of the next regular session of said court, and the clerk shall immediately issue a notice of such filing to all persons interested in said district. Such notice shall be posted in three public places in the district, and at the courthouse door, not less than twenty days before the next regular session of said court. [Id.]

Art. 8187. Approval of claims.—The Court in regular session shall pass upon said claim, and if it be found correct they shall approve the same, and the order of approval shall be entered upon their minutes, whereupon said claim shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district. Said claim shall then be filed with the trustee and shall be paid by him in the order of its filing out of the money in his hands as treasurer of said district or collected as liquidation taxes hereunder. All bonds and approved claims outstanding against said district before its dissolution shall not be required to be allowed and approved as herein provided, but shall be considered as valid and subsisting claims against said district without further approval, but subject to be contested in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision. [Id.]

Art. 8188. Rejection of claims.—If the trustee finds any claim presented to him unjust in whole or in part, he shall indorse thereon his refusal to allow same, and if it be refused in whole the owner thereof may institute suit against said trustee for said claim in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and if established by judgment as in other cases, said judgment shall be filed with the said treasurer and shall be paid in its order as other claims. If said claim be refused by the trustee in part and allowed in part, and the owner thereof waives his claim to the part so refused, he shall file said claim in the Court for approval. But if he does not waive his right to the portion of said claim so refused, he shall withdraw said claim from the trustee and may bring suit thereon as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 8189. Claimant may appeal.—If the owner of any claim acted upon by the Court is not satisfied with the judgment thereon, he may appeal therefrom as in cases of appeal from judgment of a justice court. [Id.]

Art. 8190. Contesting claim.—If any district taxpayer files with the trustee a protest against any claim which was allowed by the former drainage commissioners before the dissolution of the district and which was unpaid at the time of dissolution, together with a bond in double the amount of such claim, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the trustee and made payable to him, conditioned that such contestant will pay all costs of suit in case said claimant establishes his claim in full in any State court in which he may sue thereon, then the treasurer shall refuse to pay said claim and the owner thereof may bring suit therefor against the trustee, as in other suits of a civil nature. In such suits, the contestant and his bondsmen shall be made parties thereto, and the trustee shall make all defenses urged against said claim by the contestant. In case of recovery by the claimant, judgment shall be rendered against said contestant and his bondsmen for all costs incurred in said suit; and the owner of said claim shall file the judgment with the trustee, to be paid as other claims hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8191. Trustee's expenses.—All reasonable expenses incurred by the trustee in the care, control and conduct of the business of the district and employment of counsel therefor, or in conducting or defending suits in his capacity as such trustee, shall be charged by him against said trust estate, and shall be presented to the Court annually at a regular term thereof, and upon due notice posted as required in case of other claims against the district. Upon approval by said court, the same shall become a valid and subsisting claim against said district and shall be a preferred claim, and may be retained by said trustee out of the funds in his hands as district treasurer. If said claim is rejected in whole or in part, and the trustee is dissatisfied with said ruling, he may appeal therefrom as other claimants. [Id.]

Art. 8192. Fees of officers.—The trustee shall receive only one compensation for his services as trustee and ex-officio treasurer hereunder. He shall be allowed one per cent upon all money received by him for the account of such district, and one per cent upon all money paid out as provided herein; but he shall not be entitled to such commission on money in his hands as treasurer of said district at the time of the dissolution thereof, as of money coming into his hands, nor on money turned over by him at the expiration of his trusteeship. The county assessor and collector shall receive the same compensation for the assessing and collecting of taxes as before provided in this chapter, and their compensation for such service shall be provided for in the order of the Court assessing taxes hereunder. [Id.]

Art. 8193. Final report of trustee.—When all claims established against the district have been paid and all costs and expenses incurred in the control and management thereof have been satisfied, the trustee shall file his account for final settlement with the Court. Said account shall contain a full and complete account of all money received and paid out, all property of every kind that has come into his hands as trustee, and the disposition thereof, and all other matters pertaining to the management of the affairs of the district. Upon the approval of said account, the Court shall direct the trustee to turn over any property or money remaining in his hands to the person or persons entitled thereto as found by said Court, and on his compliance with said order he shall so report to the Court and thereupon the Court shall enter an order discharging said treasurer and trustee and his bondsmen and closing said trust estate. [Id.]

IV. CONSERVATION AND RECLAMATION

CHAPTER EIGHT

CONVERSION OF DISTRICTS

- Art.
8194. Creation.
8195. Conversion of districts.
8197. Indebtedness.

Article 8194. Creation.—Conservation and reclamation districts may be created and organized in any manner that water improvement, drainage, or levee improvement districts are authorized by the laws of this State to be created, and for the several purposes therein provided. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 40.]

Art. 8195. Conversion of districts.—Any water improvement, drainage, or levee improvement district organized under the laws of this State as a defined district under Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution, may avail itself of the benefits of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution, and thereby become a conservation and reclamation district without change of name, or impairment of its obligations, in the manner provided by law. [Id.]

Art. 8196. Powers.—Any such district, or any district organized hereunder, may incur indebtedness and levy taxes to fully carry out each purpose of its organization, and for the payment of its obligations and the maintenance and operation of said district; and any such district shall be governed and controlled by the provisions of law under which it organized. [Id.]

Art. 8197. Indebtedness.—All limitations of indebtedness authorized to be incurred and taxes to be levied, imposed by Section 52 of Article 3 of the Constitution and all laws under which any such district is organized, are removed as to all conservation and reclamation districts. [Id.]

1. ORGANIZATION

Article 8198. [5955] Scope of district.—Navigation districts may be created so as to include therein the territory of not more than two counties or parts thereof; and such districts may or may not include villages, towns, and municipal corporations, or any part thereof. Such districts may improve rivers, bays, creeks, streams and canals within or adjacent to such districts, and construct and maintain canals and waterways to permit of navigation or in aid thereof, and may issue bonds in payment therefor as hereinafter provided. [Acts 1909, p. 32; Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 113.]

For additional legislation affecting articles 8198-8220 and 8222-8228 hereof, see provisions of Laws 1925, p. 7, ch. 5, inserted herein following article 8263.

Art. 8199. [5956] May include road districts.—No navigation district including within its boundaries all or parts of two counties shall include any part of any defined or special road district which has voted bonds for the construction of public roads, except upon petition signed by a majority of the property taxpayers residing in such defined or special road district or part thereof so included, unless the whole county containing such road district be included in said navigation district, when this article shall not apply. [Id.]

Art. 8200. [5956] Petition for district.—When it is proposed to create a district wholly within one county, a petition shall be presented to the commissioners court of said county, signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers, or if there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district, then by one-third of such taxpayers, praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and praying for the issue of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof, and designating a name for such navigation district, which name shall include the name of the county. Said petitioners shall make affidavit to accompany said petition of their said qualifications. When a proposed district lies in two counties, the petition shall be signed by the said number of resident property taxpayers of each county, and shall be presented to the commissioners court of the county containing the greater part of such district, which shall be the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning said district, and the name of such county shall be included in the name of such district. [Id.]

Art. 8201. [5981] Deposit.—Said petition shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners court. If the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then said deposit shall be by said clerk returned to the petitioners, their agent or attorney; but, if the result of said election be against the establishment of said district, then said clerk shall pay out of the said five hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, to the petitioners, their agent or attorney. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8202. [5956] Notice of hearing.—Upon presentation of such petition, said court shall set the same down for hearing at some regular or special term, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from such presentation; and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and the place of said hearing by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed navigation district; and if the district be composed of more than one county, then said notices shall be so posted in each county. Said notices shall be posted not less than twenty days prior to the time set for the hearing. The clerk shall receive one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting same. [Acts 1909, p. 32; Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 113.]

Art. 8203. [5957-8-9] Navigation boards in cities.—If the district includes a city or cities, or a part or parts thereof, acting under special charter granted by the Legislature, the hearing of said petition shall be had at the regular meeting place of the commissioners court before the county judge and members of said court, and the mayor and aldermen or commissioners of said city or cities; and said persons shall constitute a board to be known and designated as the Navigation Board, to pass upon the petition aforesaid. Each individual member of said board shall be entitled to a vote. A majority in number of the individuals composing said board shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a quorum shall control. The date for the hearing shall be set within the time before provided, but without reference to any term of the commissioners court, and notice thereof shall be given as before provided. The county clerk shall enter and record the proceedings of the Navigation Board in a record book kept for this purpose, which record shall be a public archive. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8204. [5961] Hearing on petition.—Upon the day set for the hearing of said petition, any person who may be affected thereby may appear before the said court, or navigation board, and contest the creation of said district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of the said district, to show that the proposed improvements would or would not be a public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. Said court or board shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of such districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation and establishment of the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, and may adjourn hearing on any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments or decisions rendered by it in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 8205. [5962] Hearing: findings.—If it appears on said hearing that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable and that it would be a public benefit and a public utility, said court or board shall so find, and may approve the boundaries as set out in said petition or make changes therein; otherwise it shall dismiss said petition at the cost of the petitioners, but such dismissal shall not prevent the presentation of a similar petition at a later date. No changes shall be made in said boundaries until notice thereof has been given and hearing had, as provided for the hearing on petition. If said court or board approves the boundaries as set out in the petition, or as so changed, and also decides to grant the petition, it shall then find the amount of money necessary for said improvement and all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount, or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time they shall run, and their rate of interest, and enter all findings in its records. [Id.]

Art. 8206. [5963] Order for election.—If said findings are in favor of the establishment of the district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax therefor, the commissioners court shall order an election to vote on said proposition. Said order shall specify the amount of bonds to be issued, their maturity dates, and rate of interest, as determined under the preceding article. [Id. 1st C. S., 1921, p. 115.]

Art. 8207. [5965] Ballot.—The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the navigation district and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8208. [5967] Election: declaration of result.—If the proposition carries at such election, the court shall enter the same in their minutes as follows: "Commissioners Court of _____ County, Texas, _____ term, A. D. _____: in the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a navigation district and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition described and designated by the name of _____ Navigation District. Be it known that at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said navigation district be and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Navigation District, and that the bonds of said district in the amount of _____ dollars be issued, and a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars valuation or so much thereof as may be necessary be levied upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund to redeem them at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purposes same shall be increased until the same is sufficient, the metes and bounds of said district being as follows: (Giving metes and bounds.)" [Id. Acts 1st C. S., 1921, p. 116.]

Art. 8209. [5968] Navigation commissioners.—After the establishment of the district, the commissioners court or Navigation Board, by a majority vote, shall biennially [biennially] appoint three navigation and canal commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the district, and freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county. They shall receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners court and made of record. Said commissioners shall hold office for two years and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the commissioners court or Navigation Board for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. All vacancies in the office of such commissioners shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as original appointments to such office. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8210. [5969] Oath of commissioners.—Each commissioner shall first take and subscribe before the county judge of the county having jurisdiction an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of his doings to the court or board by which he was appointed, whenever required to do so. Such oath shall be filed by the clerk of said court and preserved as a part of the records of said district. [Acts 1921, 1st C. S., p. 116; Id.]

Art. 8211. [5970] Bond of commissioners.—Each commissioner shall first give a good bond for one thousand dollars payable to the county judge for the use and benefit of said district, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of his duties. [Id.]

Art. 8212. [5971] Organization: quorum.—Said commissioners shall organize by electing one of their number district chairman and one secretary, and two of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8213. [5973] Issuance of bonds.—When said commissioners shall have determined the cost of the proposed improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto and cost of maintenance thereof, they shall certify to the commissioners court the amount of bonds necessary to be issued, and thereupon the said court, at a regular or special meeting, shall make an order directing the issuance of navigation bonds for such district in the amount so certified, not to exceed the amount authorized by said election. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 116.]

Art. 8214. [5973] Additional bond issue.—If the proceeds of the original bonds should be insufficient to complete the proposed improvement or construction, or if the commissioners determine to make further construction or improvements, or shall require additional funds with which to maintain the improvements made, they shall certify to said court the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required, the purpose of the same, the rate of interest of said bonds, and the time for which they are to run. Said court shall thereupon issue such bonds, unless the amount previously authorized has been exhausted, in which case said court shall first order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such district at the earliest possible legal time. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon the words and no others: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof." [Id.]

Art. 8215. [5974] Bonds: limit of issue.—The outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount one-fourth of the assessed value of the real property in such district, as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for State and county taxation. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8216. [5975] Bonds: requisites.—All bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be issued in the name of the district, signed by the county judge, and attested by the county clerk under the seal of the commissioners court; they shall be issued in such denominations and payable at such time or times, not exceeding forty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by said court, and shall bear interest not exceeding six per cent per annum. All the provisions of Subdivision 1, Chapter 6 of this title governing the approval, registration and validity of bonds of Levee Improvement Districts shall apply to all bonds issued under this chapter; and the Navigation Board or commissioners court shall require a record to be kept of such bonds by the county treasurer as for bonds of said Levee Districts. [Id. Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 117.]

Art. 8217. [5979] Bonds: sale.—When such bonds have been so registered, the district chairman shall offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible for not less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon. All moneys received therefor shall immediately be paid to the county treasurer, and by him placed to the credit of such district. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8218. [5980] Chairman to give bond.—Before said chairman shall be authorized to sell said bonds, he shall execute a good bond, payable to the county judge and his successors in office, to be approved by the county judge, for an amount to be fixed by the district commissioners, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties. [Id. Acts 1923, 2nd C. S., p. 72.]

Art. 8219. [5981] Maintenance fund.—After the establishment of the district, all expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of the district shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such district. Said fund shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatever source, except the tax collections applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the navigation bonds. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8220. [5987] District treasurer.—The county treasurer of the county the commissioners court of which has jurisdiction shall be treasurer of said district, and he shall open an account of all moneys received by him belonging to such district and all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the chairman or any two commissioners, or the commissioners court, and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and as often as required by the said commissioners or said court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district. [Id. Acts 1921, 1st C. S. p. 119.]

Art. 8221. [5988] Bond of county treasurer.—The county treasurer upon the sale of any navigation district bonds, the proceeds of which may come in his possession or under his direction or control shall before receiving such proceeds, and before receiving any other funds from whatever source belonging to said district, execute a good and sufficient bond payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district and to their successors in office, for the benefit of said district in an amount to be fixed by the navigation and canal commissioners of said district and to be approved by said navigation and canal commissioners conditioned that such treasurer shall faithfully execute the duties of his office and pay over, according to law, all moneys that shall come into his hands as such treasurer and shall render a just and true account thereof to the commissioners' court of the county where said district is located and the navigation and canal commissioners of said district whenever required by law or such commissioners' court or navigation and canal commissioners so to do. As soon as this Act shall become effective the treasurer of said district shall give the bond required by the provisions of this Act in lieu of any other bond as such treasurer which he may have given under the law as it heretofore existed and the bond herein provided for shall remain in full force and effect so long as any funds belonging to said district are in his possession or under his control or direction. The county treasurer shall receive such compensation for his services as shall be determined by said navigation and canal commissioners. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district already created and having no district depository may as soon as this Act becomes effective provide for district depository for the funds of such district by complying with the laws for the designation of county depositories where applicable; and in case such depository shall be designated by the navigation and canal commissioners and shall give a good and sufficient bond approved by the said commissioners as now provided by law for depository of county funds, then the county treasurer, as treasurer of such district shall be required to deposit the funds of said district in said depository which said depository so selected shall be the depository of said district until the date of the election of the navigation and canal commissioners of said district and until its successor is selected and qualified. Within thirty days after the election of navigation and canal commissioners of any district created under this Act, the said navigation and canal commissioners elected shall select a depository for said district in the manner provided by law for the selection of a county depository and such depository so selected shall be the depository of said district for a period of two years thereafter and until its successor is selected and qualified. [Acts 1925, p. 280.] [39th Leg., ch. 103, § 1.]

Art. 8222. [5982] Tax levy.—When bonds have been voted, the commissioners court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes annually sufficient to pay the interest on such bonds and to provide a sinking fund to redeem said bonds at maturity. Said court is authorized to levy and cause to be assessed and collected for the maintenance, operation and upkeep of such district and its improvements, an annual tax not to exceed ten cents on the one hundred dollar valuation. All such taxes shall be levied upon all property within such district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise. The Navigation Board shall provide all necessary books for the use of the assessors and collectors and the clerk of the court of jurisdiction. [Acts 1917, p. 66.]

Art. 8223. [5983] Sinking fund investments.—The commissioners court may invest the sinking fund in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as the Attorney General shall approve. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8224. Chapter 3 applicable.—The provisions of Chapter 3 of this title governing Water Control and Preservation Districts shall, in the manner and to the extent herein specified, apply to all districts hereunder, and the acts therein authorized or required to be done by the district directors shall apply to the navigation commissioners:

1. Taxes.—When ordered by the commissioners court having jurisdiction of the navigation district, the tax assessors and collectors of each county in the district shall assess and collect the district taxes and pay the same to the district treasurer, in like manner as provided in such cases in said Chapter 3; and the provisions of said chapter relating to taxation, except the levy of maintenance taxes, creation and investment of sinking fund, and the liability of the commissioners court for failure to order such assessment, shall apply.

2. Construction contracts.—All the provisions of said chapter governing the advertising for, letting and performance of contracts for the construction of improvements and work authorized by law shall apply, except that the bidder's deposit shall be for five per cent of the amount bid, the contractor's bond shall be for not less than twenty-five per cent of the contract price; the contract shall be signed by any two commissioners, and the partial payments made thereon shall not exceed ninety per cent of the contract price.

3. Construction work.—All the provisions of said chapter governing the right of eminent domain, employment and duties of the district engineer, co-operation with the Federal Government, and the directors' annual report, shall apply.

The provisions of chapter 3 referred to are articles 7850, 7853, 7871, and 7873, hereof.

Art. 8225. [5990] May acquire property.—The commissioners are empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind for all necessary improvements contemplated by this chapter by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

Art. 8226. [5991] May enter lands.—The commissioners and the engineers from the time of their appointment are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass. [Id.]

Art. 8227. [5999] Employés and counsel.—The commissioners are authorized to employ such assistant engineers and other employés as may be necessary, paying such compensation as they may determine, and the said commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the commissioners, on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them. [Id.]

Art. 8228. [6001] May sue and be sued.—All districts, by and through their commissioners, may sue and be sued in all courts of this State in the name of such navigation district; and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of such districts. [Id.]

A. PORT FACILITIES

Art. 8229. Powers of certain districts.—Navigation districts provided for in this chapter created for the development of deep water navigation, having a city containing one hundred thousand population or more according to the preceding Federal census, are hereby granted, in addition to the powers conferred by this chapter, the right, power and authority to acquire, purchase, take over, construct, maintain, operate, develop and regulate wharves, docks, warehouses, grain elevators, bunkering facilities, belt railroads, floating plants, lighterage, lands, towing facilities, and all other facilities or aids incident to or necessary to the operation or development of ports or waterways, within the district and extending to the Gulf of Mexico, as provided in this subdivision, in addition to the power to issue bonds for the purposes above enumerated, and for the purpose either of acquiring necessary or proper lands, right-of-ways or dumping grounds, extension or improvement of belt railway lines, or construction or improvements or wharves, docks or other facilities, or aids to navigation, and to secure such obligations by liens upon the property so acquired, constructed or improved, and pledge available revenues as additional security, and such districts shall have the right to borrow funds for current expenses, and to evidence the same by warrants payable not later than the close of any calendar year for which loans are made. Such warrants shall never exceed the anticipated revenue and may bear not to exceed 6% interest. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 53; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 149, ch. 52, § 1.]

See note to article 8228.

Art. 8230. Petition for improvements.—When the Navigation Board of such district deems it advisable for said district to avail itself of the rights, powers and authority provided herein, said board shall so certify to the commissioners court of the county wherein said district is situated, petitioning the holding of an election therefor, whereupon said court shall set a day not less than thirty nor more than sixty days thereafter, for public hearing on said petition, at such place as may be designated by the said court. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 53.]

Art. 8231. Hearing: testimony.—Upon the day set for said hearing, any person who may be affected thereby may appear before said Navigation Board and contest the necessity, advisability or practicability of said election, and may offer testimony in favor of or against said election. [Id.]

Art. 8232. Election order.—After said hearing, if the Navigation Board is still of the opinion said election should be held, the commissioners court shall order an election to determine whether or not the said district should avail itself of the rights, powers and authority provided for herein. Said order shall state the day upon which said election shall be held. [Id.]

Art. 8233. Ballots.—The ballots for said election shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the development of the port by the Navigation District;" "Against the development of the port by the Navigation District." The expense of said election shall be borne by the district. [Id.]

Art. 8234. Declaration of result.—If said election results in favor of the development of the port by said navigation district, then such court shall so declare the result and enter the same in the minutes of the court as follows:

"Commissioners Court _____ County, Texas, _____ term A. D. _____, in the matter of the petition of the Navigation Board of the _____ County _____ Navigation District, praying that the right, power and authority be granted said Navigation District to develop the port of _____ (here enter the name of said municipality.) Be it known, That at an election called for that purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____, A. D. _____, a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the development of said port by said Navigation District.

"Now therefore, it is considered and ordered by the Court that said Navigation District be and is hereby authorized to proceed with the development of said port as authorized by law." [Id.]

Art. 8235. Governing board.—The district shall thereafter be managed, governed and controlled by five commissioners, who shall be appointed as follows: Two shall be selected for a term of one and two years respectively by a majority of the city council of the municipality having a population of one hundred thousand or more situated in said district. At the expiration of the term of office of said commissioners, the city council shall select their successors annually to serve for two years. The other three shall each serve for two years. Two commissioners and their successors shall be selected by the commissioners court in like manner, and the other, who shall be chairman, shall be selected by a majority vote of said city council and by the commissioners court in joint session called by the county judge of said county. Each commissioner shall be a freehold property taxpayer and legal voter in said navigation district and shall give the bond and take the oath required by this chapter and shall serve until their successors are qualified. Their duties shall be as prescribed in this chapter, and they shall receive such compensation as the Navigation Board may fix. A majority of said commissioners shall have power to act. Said commissioners shall serve their full term of appointment unless sooner removed by the authority by which they were appointed for malfeasance, non-feasance in office, inefficiency or other cause deemed sufficient. If any vacancy occurs through the death, resignation or otherwise of any commissioner, the same shall be filled as in the first instance by appointment for the unexpired term. All acts of the commissioners shall be subject to the supervision and control of the Navigation Board. [Id.]

Art. 8236. Bonds.—Such districts may issue bonds in payment for the improvements facilities, and acquisition of property authorized herein, upon compliance with the provisions of this chapter, and may also issue bonds to purchase wharves, docks, warehouses, bunkering facilities, belt railroads, lands to be used for port purposes and development, or other facilities constructed or owned by any municipality containing One Hundred Thousand population or more, as determined by the last preceding census within such district. An election shall be held therefor, and such bonds shall be issued as other bonds under this chapter. The outstanding bonds and the additional bonds so ordered shall not exceed in amount ten (10) per cent of the assessed value of the real property in such district as shown by the last annual assessment thereof made for State and County. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 149, ch. 52, § 1.]

See note to article 8238.

Art. 8237. Powers.—Such districts shall have all the right, power and authority herein granted, subject to the provisions of this law, and shall have all the authority granted by general or special law to navigation districts, and shall also have the fullest powers consistent with the State Constitution for the regulation of wharfage and of all facilities of or pertaining to the said port, waterways and navigation district, and shall have a right to assess and collect charges for the use of all facilities acquired or constructed in accordance with the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 8238. Property rights.—Such districts may exercise the right of eminent domain as provided under the preceding subdivision, and may also acquire, and take over, by lease or rental agreements, the docks, wharves, buildings, railroads, lands, improvements and other facilities already provided, constructed or owned by any incorporated municipality situated within such district for a period of not less than twenty-five (25) years, only with the consent of the lawful authorities of such municipality, and upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the district and the said municipality. No agreement for the use, acquisition or operation of such property or facilities of such municipality by the district shall be for a lease, or rental value thereof, which shall exceed the annual net revenues derived or to be derived by the navigation district after payment of the expenses of operation and maintenance of said property and facilities. The district shall have no supervision or control over such property or facilities owned, controlled or constructed by any municipality, until agreement for the lease and rental thereof by the district has been reached and made in the manner herein provided. Such districts now or hereafter leasing lands or facilities from any municipality in whole or in part, or having the right to do so under the provisions of this chapter, shall be authorized to purchase or acquire the same in the manner hereinafter set out.

The Navigation Commissioners and the officials of such municipality shall be authorized to enter into an agreement setting forth the lands and facilities to be acquired, the amount agreed upon as the purchase price thereof, and the terms of sale. The Navigation Commissioners shall be authorized to have issued in the manner provided in this Chapter, bonds of the District in such amount as represents the purchase price less any outstanding bonds previously issued by such municipality. Said bonds shall be issued, registered and sold in all respects as other bonds of the District, and the proceeds paid to the municipality. If there be outstanding bonds of the municipality, the Navigation District shall assume payment of said bonds and interest, and the Commissioners Court of the County shall levy a tax sufficient to meet the interest when due, and the amount due at the maturity of the bonds. Such taxes shall be collected as other taxes are now collected, and by the Navigation Commissioners paid to the city on or before the due dates of interest and principal for the sole purpose of paying the interest and principal on said outstanding bonds. Provided, however, that said municipality shall not be released from any obligation to the owners and holders of any outstanding bonds issued on account of the lands or facilities so purchased. Said municipality shall not levy, assess and collect any tax for interest and sinking fund thereon unless the payments from said Navigation District shall fail in whole or part in which event the municipality shall have the right to, and it shall, immediately proceed to levy and collect such tax as may be necessary to discharge the interest and meet the principal of the bonds then outstanding, and until paid, and shall further have the right to collect any and all amounts so paid on account of the Navigation District from said District and in the event of the continued failure to make said payments by the District, to take back said facilities. Provided, however, that no such bonds shall be issued or tax levied until the question of purchase of such facilities shall have been submitted to a vote of the people in said Navigation District. In addition to the requirements for submitting bonds to a vote, the notice of election shall contain a copy of the agreement, the bonds outstanding, the bonds sought to be issued by the district and the amount of taxes required to be levied. Said election shall be called and held as other elections for bonds and the ballots shall have printed thereon: "Official Ballot. For the Purchase of municipal facilities and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor. Against the purchase of municipal facilities and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment therefor." Should said election carry by a two-thirds majority of the qualified tax paying voters voting at said election, then the same shall be declared carried and said bonds be issued and sold, and the necessary taxes levied in accordance with the provisions of this Act. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 149, ch. 52, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 149, ch. 52, provides that if any provision of the act be held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder which shall remain in effect.

Art. 8239. Unimproved lands.—Districts acquiring, leasing and taking over unimproved lands owned or controlled by any such incorporated municipality, may pay for the use, rent and hire of such unimproved lands, a price or rental value to be fixed by the district commissioners. If such commissioners fail or are unable to agree upon terms and conditions for the use and rental of such unimproved lands, then the district, under its right of eminent domain, may condemn such lands or parts thereof, as in its discretion the interest of the district requires. [Id.]

Art. 8240. Franchises.—Such districts shall have power to grant franchises to persons or corporations on property owned or controlled by such districts, provided said franchises are granted for purposes consistent with the provisions of this chapter, but no franchise shall be granted for a longer period than thirty years, nor shall any franchise be granted hereunder except upon the affirmative vote of at least three commissioners at three separate meetings of said commissioners, said meetings to be not closer together than one week, and no franchise shall be granted until after the same as finally proposed to be passed shall be published at the expense of the applicant in full once a week for three consecutive weeks in some daily newspaper of general circulation published within said district. Said franchise shall require the grantee therein to file his or their written acceptance thereof within thirty days from the time of the final passage of said franchise. Nothing herein shall be construed as preventing said navigation district from granting revocable licenses or permits for the use of limited portions of water front or facilities for the purposes consistent with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 8241. Franchise election.—If in the opinion of the commissioners any proposed franchise should be submitted to a vote of the people, they shall so certify to the commissioners court, whereupon said court shall order an election thereon at the earliest legal time. At said election any resident of said district qualified under the Constitution and laws of this State to vote for Governor in a general election shall be qualified to vote. [Id.]

Art. 8242. Ballots.—The ballots used for voting upon such proposed franchise shall set forth the nature of said franchise sufficiently to identify it, and shall also set forth upon separate lines the words "For the franchise" and "Against the franchise." If at said election a majority of those voting shall vote in favor of the franchise, the same shall be granted; otherwise said franchise shall be of no force and effect. [Id.]

Art. 8243. Petition protesting franchise.—If prior to the date when any franchise has been granted by the commissioners, a petition signed by qualified voters of said district equal in number to ten per cent of the total vote cast at the last general election for State officers, shall be presented to the commissioners court protesting against the enactment or granting of said franchise, it shall be suspended from taking effect, and immediately upon the filing of such petition the commissioners court shall order an election upon said proposed franchise, which said election shall be governed by the provisions of the two preceding articles. [Id.]

Art. 8244. District depository.—The funds of such districts shall be handled in the same manner as provided in this chapter and as provided by the law governing county finances. The commissioners shall provide for a depository for all of the funds of said district, by complying with the laws governing the designation of county depositories. When the depository has given bond and the same has been approved, the county treasurer shall be required to give only such bond as the commissioners may require. [Id.]

Art. 8245. Employés.—Such commissioners may employ such persons as they may deem necessary for the construction, maintenance, operation and development of the navigation district, its business and facilities, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation. [Id.]

Art. 8246. Contracts.—The provisions governing letting of contracts for navigation districts shall apply in all cases consistent with the provisions of this law; provided, that in case of emergency, contracts may be let by the commissioners not exceeding one thousand dollars without advertisement for bids, and in case of urgent necessity or present calamity, advertisement for bids may be waived. [Id.]

Art. 8247. City police powers.—Nothing herein shall repeal or affect the police powers of any municipality within the navigation district, or any law, ordinance or regulation authorizing and empowering such municipality to exercise such powers as to any navigable stream or aids to navigation and facilities therefor, in a navigation district, not in conflict with this chapter. [Id.]

B. PILOTS

Art. 8248. Pilot Board.—The navigation and canal commissioners of any navigation district included in Part A of this subdivision, in connection with their other duties as such commissioners, shall constitute a Pilot Board, and be commissioners of pilots and their terms of office as such shall be contemporaneous with their terms of office as navigation and canal commissioners. No person who is engaged directly or indirectly in the towing business or in any pilot boat, or in any other business affected by or connected with the performance of his duties as a commissioner of pilots, shall be a member of such pilot board. [Acts 4th C. S., 1920, p. 3; Acts 1923, p. 42.]

Art. 8249. Jurisdiction.—Such navigation districts shall have exclusive jurisdiction as hereinafter defined over the pilotage of boats between the Gulf of Mexico and their respective ports, as well as of intermediate stops or landing places for such boats upon navigable streams wholly or partly within such navigation districts. [Id.]

Art. 8250. Supervision of pilots.—The right, power and authority is hereby granted to such commission to appoint, suspend or dismiss from office, branch pilots or deputy pilots of their respective ports, and to examine and determine upon their qualifications. No branch pilot or deputy pilot shall be suspended or dismissed except for misconduct, inefficiency, or inebriety on duty, and after due hearing of accusation, testimony and defense before said board of navigation and canal commissioners. [Id.]

Art. 8251. Applicant's qualifications.—Before making any appointments as branch pilot or deputy pilots, the commissioners shall examine and determine upon the qualifications for office of each applicant for the position of branch pilot or deputy pilot; and shall require of each of said applicants such terms of residence in this State preceding such appointment as they may deem advisable, not to exceed two years. [Id.]

Art. 8252. Powers of board.—The right, power and authority is further granted to such commissioners to fix rates of pilotage between the Gulf of Mexico and their respective ports, as well as intermediate stops or landing places for such boats, upon navigable streams wholly or partly within such districts; and to make, adopt and enforce all rules and regulations which they deem advisable in the matter of appointment, qualification and regulation of pilots and deputy pilots as may be needed for the government of pilots and their deputy pilots and the proper operation of their respective ports, not inconsistent with the Federal regulations thereof, the Constitution of Texas, or the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 8253. Branch pilot license.—All branch pilots appointed under and in accordance with this law or the rules and regulations of such navigation district shall enter into bond with one or more good and sufficient sureties in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the Governor, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Said bond shall be approved by the commissioners of such district, and shall be deposited in the office of the Secretary of State. Each pilot shall also take the official oath, which shall be endorsed on said bond. Upon the filing of said bond, and the taking of said oath, the commissioners of such district shall certify to the Governor that each branch pilot has duly qualified to act as such, and thereupon the Governor shall issue to said branch pilot, in the name and under the seal of the State, a commission to serve as branch pilot from such ports, across any intermediate bars, to the open gulf; and said commission shall be for a term of two years, unless such branch pilot shall be dismissed from service by said navigation and canal commissioners, in which event such commission shall expire. [Acts 1923, p. 44.]

Art. 8254. Deputy branch pilots.—Each branch pilot may appoint, subject to examination and approval by the navigation and canal commissioners, two deputies for whose acts such branch pilot shall be responsible, and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said commissioners, shall forfeit his own appointment; provided that an additional deputy shall be appointed if such branch pilot and commissioners mutually deem it advisable. [Id.]

Art. 8255. Pilotage charges.—The rates of pilotage charged by the pilots operating under this law shall at all times be fair and just, and a schedule of such rates shall at all times be on file in the office of the district commissioners, said schedule to be furnished by the pilots and strictly adhered to by them; provided that each time a change in the rate shall be effected, a revised schedule shall be filed as above specified. Whenever a vessel, (except vessels of twenty tons or under and all vessels excepted by Federal statutes and regulations) shall decline the services of a pilot operating under this law, offered outside the bar, and shall enter any channel subject to the jurisdiction of such navigation district, without the aid of a pilot operating under this law, such vessel shall be liable to the first pilot operating under this law whose services she has declined, for the payment of half-pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot operating under this law, shall go without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half-pilotage to the pilot operating under this law who brought her in; or if she has come in without the aid of such pilot, though offered outside, she shall, on so going out, be liable for the payment of one-half pilotage to the pilot operating under this law who has first offered his services before she came in. [Id.]

Art. 8256. Consignee liable for pilotage.—The consignee of any vessel shall be held responsible to pilots operating under this law for the pilotage of said vessel or services offered, and such pilots shall be entitled to recover same from the consignee of said vessel in any court of competent jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 8257. Unauthorized pilot: liability.—If any person not appointed a branch pilot or deputy pilot under this law shall pilot any ship or vessel out of, or into, the port, channel or waterway of which exclusive jurisdiction is, under this law, given to the navigation and canal commissioners of such navigation district, when a branch pilot or deputy pilot, operating hereunder has offered such services, the person so piloting shall forfeit and pay to such branch pilot or deputy pilot, the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 8258. "Commissioner."—The term "commissioner" as used in this chapter, shall mean Navigation and Canal Commissioner.

Art. 8259. Election notice.—When any election is held under this chapter, notice thereof shall be given for thirty days prior thereto, stating the time and place of holding same, the proposition to be voted on and the purpose thereof, and shall contain a copy of the election order. Such notices shall be posted in the manner provided for posting other notices hereunder.

Art. 8260. Election requisites.—At any such election a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to carry the proposition submitted thereat unless otherwise provided. The commissioners court shall order twice as many ballots printed as there are resident property taxpayers who are qualified voters in the district; and shall create and define, by order of the court, the voting precincts, in the district, and name convenient polling places therein, and shall appoint necessary election officers. Each such election shall be held at the earliest legal time.

Art. 8261. Voter's qualifications.—Every person who offers to vote in any such election shall first take the following oath before the presiding judge of the polling place where he offers to vote, and the presiding judge is authorized to administer same: "I do solemnly swear that I am a qualified voter of _____ County, that I am a resident property taxpayer of the _____ Navigation District, and I have not voted before at this election."

Art. 8262. Election: declaration of result.—If the commissioners court on canvassing the returns of any such election find that the proposition submitted thereat has carried, they shall so declare and enter the same in their minutes as specially provided hereunder.

Art. 8263. [5960] Duties imposed without compensation.—The duties and powers herein conferred upon the county, city and other officers, are made a part of the legal duty of said officials, which they shall perform without additional compensation, unless otherwise provided herein. [Acts 1909, p. 32.]

[Additional legislation, Acts 1925, p. 7.]

Section 1. There may be created within this State under and by virtue of Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, districts to be known as Navigation Districts, in the manner herein-after provided; and such districts may or may not include within their boundaries and limits villages, towns, cities, road districts, drainage districts, irrigation districts, levee districts, and other improvement districts, and municipal corporations of any kind, or any part thereof. Such navigation districts, when so established, may make improvements for the navigation of inland and coastal waters, and for the preservation and conservation of inland and coastal waters for navigation, and for the control and distribution of storm and flood waters of rivers and streams in aid of navigation, and for any and all other purposes stated in Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas, necessary or incidental to the navigation of inland and coastal waters or in aid thereof, which districts shall be governmental agencies and bodies politic and corporate with such powers of government and with the authority to exercise such rights, privileges and functions as may be essential to the accomplishment of such purposes; provided, that such districts shall not include therein the territory of more than two counties, or parts of two counties.

Sec. 2. When it is proposed to create a navigation district wholly within one county, there shall be presented to the county commissioners' court of the county in which the lands to be included in such districts are located, at any regular or special session, a petition accompanied by the deposit provided for in Section 26 of this Act, signed by twenty-five of the resident property taxpayers, or in the event there are less than seventy-five resident property taxpayers in the proposed district then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers in the proposed district; praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and setting forth the boundaries of the proposed district, accompanied by a map thereof, the general nature of the improvement or improvements proposed, and an estimate of the probable cost thereof, and designating a name for such navigation district, which name shall include the name of the county, said petitioners shall make affidavit to accompany said petition of their said qualifications; and when it is proposed to create such a district to be composed of lands in two counties, then a petition of the nature above indicated, signed by twenty-five of the property taxpayers residing in the territory of each county to be included in such proposed district, or in the event there are less than seventy-five property taxpayers residing in said territory, then by one-third of such resident property taxpayers, accompanied by the deposit provided for in Section 26 of this Act; which petition shall be presented to the commissioners' court of the county in which is located the greater amount of acreage of such proposed district, which shall be the county of jurisdiction in respect to all matters concerning said district, and the name of which county shall be included in the name of such district and, upon presentation of such petition the said commissioners' court shall, at the same session when said petition is presented set down for hearing at some regular term of said court, or at some special session of said court called for the purpose, not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the presentation of said petition and shall order the clerk of said court to give notice of the date and the place of said hearing, by posting a copy of said petition, and the order of the court thereon, in five public places in said county, one of which shall be the courthouse door of said county and four of which shall be within the limits of said proposed navigation district; and if the district be composed of more than one county, then there shall be posted a copy of said petition and the order of the court thereon, at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and four copies in four different places within each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and within the boundaries of said districts. Said notices shall be posted not less than twenty days prior to the time set for the hearing. The said clerk shall receive as compensation for such service one dollar for each such notice and five cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in posting such notices.

Sec. 3. In the event the boundaries of the proposed district shall include a city or cities, or a part or parts thereof, acting under special charter granted by the Legislature, the hearing of said petition, hereinafter provided for, shall be had before the county judge and the members of the commissioners' court and the mayor and aldermen or commissioners, as the case may be, of said city or cities; and said persons shall constitute a board to be known and designated as the navigation board, to pass upon the petition aforesaid. Each individual member of said board shall be entitled to a vote. A majority in number of the individuals composing said board shall constitute a quorum, and the action of a majority of the quorum shall control.

Sec. 4. In the event the hearing of said petition shall be had before the navigation board, the commissioners' court of said county shall set the petition down for hearing not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from the date of the presentation of said petition without reference to any term of the commissioners' court, but said hearing shall be held at the regular place of meeting of the commissioners' court, and notice shall be given of the hearing in the manner and for the time as hereinbefore provided.

Sec. 5. The county clerk shall enter and record the proceedings of the navigation board in a record book kept for this purpose, which record shall be a public archive.

Sec. 6. The duties and powers herein conferred upon the county judge and members of the commissioners' court, and upon the mayor and aldermen or commissioners of cities, and upon the county clerk and other officers, are made a part of the legal duty of said officials, which they shall render and perform without additional compensation, unless otherwise provided herein.

Sec. 7. Upon the day set by said county commissioners for the hearing of said petition, any person who has taxable property within the proposed district, or who may be affected thereby, may appear before the said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, and contest the creation of said district, or contend for the creation of said district, and may offer testimony in favor of or against the boundaries of the said district, to show that the proposed improvement or improvements would or would not be of any public utility and would or would not be feasible or practicable, and the probable cost of such improvement or improvements, or as to any other matter pertaining to the proposed district. Said county commissioners' court, or navigation board, shall have the exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all contests and objections to the creation of [such] districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation of [such] districts, and all matters pertaining to the creation and establishment of the same, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction in all subsequent proceedings of the district when organized, except as hereinafter provided, and may adjourn hearing in any matter connected therewith from day to day; and all judgments or decisions rendered by said court, or navigation board, in relation thereto shall be final, except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 8. If, at the hearing of said petition, it shall appear to the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility; and, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set out in said petition, then the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be recorded in the records of the commissioners' court, or minutes of the navigation board, as the case may be. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is feasible and practicable, that it would be a public benefit and a public utility, but does not approve the boundaries of the proposed district as set forth in the petition, the court, or navigation board, shall so find, and shall define the boundaries of such district as the court considers the same should be, and shall also find the amount of money necessary for said improvement or improvements, and for all expenses incident thereto, and shall determine whether to issue bonds for said full amount or in the first instance for a less amount, and shall specify the amount of bonds to issue, the length of time the bonds shall run, and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, and cause its findings to be entered of record, together with a map thereof. Providing, however, that before any change is made by said court, or navigation board, as the case may be, of the boundaries, notice and hearing thereof shall be given and had as provided for in Section 2 of this Act. If the court, or navigation board, shall find that the proposed improvement is not feasible or practicable, or that it would not be a public benefit or public utility, and that the establishment of such navigation district is therefore unnecessary, then the court, or navigation board, shall enter such findings of record and dismiss the petition at the cost of petitioners, but the order dismissing said petition shall not prevent or conclude the presentation at a later date of a similar petition.

Sec. 9. After the hearing upon the petition, as herein provided, if the court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall find in favor of the petitioners for the establishment of navigation district according to the boundaries as set out in said petition, or as changed or modified as above provided by the said court, or navigation board, the commissioners' court of jurisdiction shall order an election, in which order provision shall be made for submitting to the qualified property taxpaying voters residing in said district whether or not such navigation district shall be created, and whether or not said bonds shall be issued and a tax shall be levied sufficient to pay the interest and provide a sinking fund sufficient to redeem said bonds at maturity, said order specifying the amount of bonds to be issued, together with the length of time the bonds shall run and the rate of interest said bonds shall bear, as said matters have been determined by the commissioners' court or navigation board, as the case may be, under the provisions of Section 8 of this Act. Said election to be held within such proposed navigation at the earliest legal time, at which election there shall be submitted the following proposition, and none other; "For the navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and the levy of tax in payment thereof;" "Against the navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof."

Sec. 10. Notice of such election, stating the time and place of holding the same, shall be given by the clerk of the said court by posting notices thereof in four public places in such proposed navigation district, and one at the courthouse door of the county in which such district is located, and if the district be composed of more than one county, then there shall be posted a copy of said notice at the door of the courthouse of each county in which any portion of the proposed district is located, and four copies in four public places within each county in which any of the proposed district is located, and within the boundaries of said district; said notices shall be posted for thirty days prior to the date set for the election. Such notices shall contain the proposition to be voted upon as set forth in Section 9 of this Act, and shall also specify the purpose for which said bonds are to be issued, and the amount of said bonds, and shall contain a copy of the order of the court ordering the election.

Sec. 11. The manner of conducting said election shall be governed by the election laws of the State of Texas, except as herein otherwise provided. None but resident property taxpayers, who are qualified voters of said proposed district, shall be entitled to vote at any election on any question submitted to the voters thereof by the county commissioners' court at such election. The county commissioners' court shall create and define, by an order of the court, the voting precincts in the proposed navigation district, and shall name a polling place or places within said precincts, taking into consideration the convenience of the voters in the proposed navigation district, and shall also select and appoint the judges and other necessary officers of the election, and shall provide one and one-half times as many ballots as there are qualified resident property taxpaying voters within such navigation district. Said ballot shall have printed thereon the words and none others: "For the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof"; "Against the navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof."

Sec. 12. Immediately after said election, the officers holding the same shall make returns of the result thereof to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, and return the ballot boxes to the clerk of said court, who shall safely keep the same and deliver them, together with the returns of the election, to the commissioners' court of jurisdiction at its next regular or special session, and the said court at such session shall canvass the vote and return; and if it be found that a majority of those voting at such election shall have been cast in favor of the navigation district and the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, then the court shall declare the result of said election to be in favor of said navigation district, the issuance of said bonds and the levy of the tax, and shall enter same in the minutes of the court as follows:

Commissioners' Court of _____ County, Texas.
 _____ term, A. D. _____, in the matter of the petition of _____ and _____ others praying for the establishment of a navigation district, and issuance of bonds and levy of taxes in said petition described and designated by the name of _____ Navigation District. Be it known that at an election called for the purpose in said district, held on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____ a majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon voted in favor of the creation of said navigation district, and the issuance of bonds and levy of a tax. Now, therefore, it is considered and ordered by the court that said navigation district, be, and the same is hereby established by the name of _____ Navigation District, and that bonds of said district in the amount of _____ dollars be issued, and a tax of _____ cents on the one hundred dollars valuation, or so much thereof as may be necessary to be levied upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds and provide a sinking fund to redeem that at maturity, and that if said tax shall at any time become insufficient for such purposes same shall be increased until same is sufficient. The metes and bounds of said district being as follows:

(Giving metes and bounds.)

Sec. 13. After the establishment of any navigation district, as herein provided, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint three navigation and canal commissioners, all of whom shall be residents of the proposed navigation district, who shall be freehold property taxpayers and legal voters of the county, whose duties shall be as hereinafter provided, and who shall each receive for their services such compensation as may be fixed by the commissioners' court and made of record. Said navigation and canal commissioners shall hold office for the term of two years, and until their successors have qualified, unless sooner removed by a majority vote of the county commissioners, or navigation board, as the case may be, for malfeasance or nonfeasance in office. Upon the expiration of the term of office of said navigation and canal commissioners, the commissioners' court, or navigation board, as the case may be, shall appoint their successors by a majority vote. Should any vacancy occur through the death or resignation or otherwise of any commissioners, the same shall be filled by the commissioners' court, or the navigation board, as the case may be.

Sec. 14. Before entering upon their duties, all navigation and canal commissioners shall take and subscribe before the county judge of the county having jurisdiction an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of their office without favor or partiality, and to render a true account of their doings to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction, or navigation board, by which they are appointed whenever required to do so, which oath shall be filed by the clerk of said court and preserved as part of the records of said navigation district.

Sec. 15. Before entering upon duties each of the navigation and canal commissioners shall make and enter into a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars payable to the county judge of the county having jurisdiction for the use and benefit of said navigation district, and conditioned upon the faithful performance of their duties.

Sec. 16. Said commissioners shall also organize by electing one of their number chairman and one secretary, and two of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum, and a concurrence of two shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of said district.

Sec. 17. Said commissioners shall have authority to employ a competent engineer, whose term of office shall be at the will of said commissioners, and who shall receive such compensation as may be determined by such commissioners. It shall be the duty of the engineer to make all necessary surveys, examinations, investigations, maps, plans and drawings with reference to the proposed improvements. He shall make estimate or estimates of the cost of same, shall supervise the work of improvement, and shall do and perform all such duties as may be required of him by the commissioners. Provided, that if the river, creek, stream, bay, canal, or waterway, to be improved is navigable or the improvement proposed to be of such nature as requires the permission or consent of the Government of the United States, or any department or officer of the Government of the United States, the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to obtain the required permission or consent of the Government of the United States, or any officer or department thereof; and, in lieu of the employment of an engineer as herein provided, or in addition thereto, the navigation and canal commissioners shall have power to adopt any survey of the river, creek, canal, stream, bay, or waterway theretofore made by the Government of the United States, or any department thereof, and to arrange for surveys, examinations and investigations of the proposed improvement, and for supervision of the work of improvement by the Government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof; provided, that said commissioners shall have full power and authority to co-operate and act with the Government of the United States, or any officer or department thereof, in any and all matters pertaining to or relating to the construction and maintenance of said canals, and the improvement and navigation of all such navigable rivers, bays, creeks, streams, canals, and waterways, whether by survey, work or expenditure of money made or to be made either by said navigation and canal commissioners, or by said Government of the United States, or any proper officer or department thereof, or by both; and, to the end that the said Government of the United States may aid in all such matters, the said commissioners shall have authority to agree and consent to the said Government of the United States entering upon and taking management and control of said work, in so far as it may be necessary or permissible under the laws of the United States, and the regulations and orders of any department thereof.

Sec. 18. When said commissioners shall have determined the cost of the proposed improvement or improvements, all of the expenses incident thereto and cost of maintenance thereof, they shall certify to the commissioners' court having jurisdiction the amount of bonds necessary to be issued, and thereupon the said court, at a regular or special meeting, shall make an order directing the issuance of navigation bonds for such navigation district in the amount so certified; provided that the amount of bonds shall not exceed the amount authorized by the election theretofore held. In the event the proceeds of bonds issued by such navigation district should be insufficient to complete the proposed improvement or construction, or in the event said commissioners shall determine to make other and further construction or improvements, or shall require additional funds with which to maintain the improvements made, they shall certify to said commissioners' court the necessity for an additional bond issue, stating the amount required, the purpose of the same, the rate of interest of said bonds, and the time for which they are to run, whereupon said commissioners' court shall issue such bonds, unless the amount previously authorized shall have been exhausted, in which case said commissioners' court shall order an election on the issuance of said bonds to be held within such navigation district at the earliest possible legal time and in the manner hereinbefore provided for the original issue of bonds, at which election there shall be submitted the following proposition, and none other: "For the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" "against the issuance of bonds and levy of tax in payment thereof;" notices of said election shall be given as provided in Section 10 of this Act; and the election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided in Section 11 of this Act. Only those who are qualified property tax-paying voters as provided in this Act shall vote at such election, and the returns of such election shall be canvassed as provided in Section 12 of this Act.

Sec. 19. If, upon a canvass of the vote, the commissioners' court shall determine that a majority of the votes cast at said election shall have been cast in favor of the issuance of bonds and levy of tax, the said court shall make an order directing the issuance of said bonds and levy of tax.

Sec. 20. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be issued in the name of the navigation district, shall be signed by the county judge of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction of said district, shall be attested by the county clerk, and the seal of the commissioners' court of such county shall be affixed to each, they shall be issued in such denominations and payable at such time, or times, not exceeding forty years from their date, as may be deemed most expedient by said commissioners' court, and said bonds shall bear interest not to exceed six per cent per annum.

Sec. 21. Any navigation district in the State of Texas desiring to issue bonds in accordance with this Chapter shall, before such bonds are offered for sale, forward to the Attorney General a copy of the bonds to be issued, a certified copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax, a copy of the order of the commissioners' court levying the tax to pay interest and provide a sinking fund, and a statement of the total bonded indebtedness of such navigation district as such, including the series of bonds proposed and the assessed value of property for the purpose of taxation, as shown by the last official assessment by the county, together with such other information as the Attorney General may require; whereupon it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to carefully examine said bonds in connection with the facts and the Constitution and laws on the subject of the execution of such bonds; and, if as the result of such examination the Attorney General shall find that such bonds were issued in conformity with the Constitution and laws, and that they are valid and binding obligations upon such navigation district by which they are issued, he shall so officially certify.

Sec. 22. When said bonds have been examined by the Attorney General, and his certificate issued to that effect, they shall be registered by the State Comptroller, in a book to be kept for that purpose; and the certificate of the Attorney General to the validity of such bonds shall be preserved of record for use in the event of litigation. Such bonds, after being approved by the Attorney General, and after having been registered in the Comptroller's office as herein provided, shall thereafter be held in every action, suit or proceeding in which their validity is or may be brought in question, prima facie valid and binding obligations. And, in every action brought to enforce collection of said bonds or interest thereon, the certificate of the Attorney General, or a duly certified copy thereof, shall be admitted and received as prima facie evidence of the validity of such bonds, together with the coupons thereto attached; provided, that the only defense that can be offered against the validity of said bonds or coupons be forgery or fraud.

Sec. 23. When bonds shall have been issued under the provisions of this Act, the navigation board of said district shall procure and deliver to the treasurer of the county whose commissioners' court has jurisdiction, a well bound book in which a record shall be kept of all such bonds, with their numbers, amount, rate of interest, date of issuance, when due, where payable, amount received for same, the tax levy to pay interest on and to provide sinking funds for their payment, and said book shall at all times be open to the inspection of the parties interested in said district, either as taxpayers, or bondholders or otherwise; and upon payment of any bond, an entry thereof shall be made in said book. The county treasurer shall receive for his services in recording these matters the same fees as may be allowed by law to the county clerk for other like records.

Sec. 24. When such bonds have been registered, as provided for in the preceding section of this Act, the chairman of the navigation and canal commission shall offer for sale and sell said bonds on the best terms and for the best price possible, but none of said bonds shall be sold for less than the face par value thereof and accrued interest thereon; and, as fast as said bonds are sold, all moneys received therefor shall be paid to the county treasurer, and shall by him be placed to the credit of such navigation district.

Sec. 25. Before the said chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners shall be authorized to sell any of the navigation bonds, he shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the county judge or his successors in office, to be approved by the county commissioners' court of said county, for an amount not less than the amount of the bonds issued, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties.

Sec. 26. All expenses of any kind, after the filing of the original petition, necessarily incurred in connection with the creation, establishment and maintenance of any navigation district organized under the provisions of this Section, shall be paid out of the "Construction and Maintenance Fund" of such navigation district; which fund shall consist of all moneys received from the sale of bonds and all other amounts received by said district from whatever source, except the tax collections applied to the sinking fund and payment of interest on the navigation bonds; provided, that, should the proposition of the creation of such navigation district and issuance of bonds be defeated at the election called to vote upon the same then all expenses up to and including said election shall be paid in the following manner: When the original petition praying for the establishment of a navigation district is filed with the county commissioners' court, it shall be accompanied by five hundred dollars in cash, which shall be deposited with the clerk of said county commissioners' court, and by him held until after the result of the election for the creation of said navigation district has been declared and entered of record by the commissioners' court, as hereinafter provided; and, should the result of said election be in favor of the establishment of said district, then the said five hundred dollars shall be by said clerk returned to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney; but, should the result of said election be against the establishment of said district, then the said clerk shall pay out of the said five hundred dollars, upon vouchers signed by the county judge, all costs and expenses pertaining to the said proposed district up to and including the said election, and shall return the balance, if any, of said five hundred dollars to the signers of said original petition, or their agent or attorney.

Sec. 27. Whenever such navigation district bonds shall have been voted, the commissioners' court shall levy and cause to be assessed and collected improvement taxes upon all property within said navigation district, whether real, personal, mixed or otherwise, and sufficient in amount to pay the interest on such bonds, together with an additional amount to be annually placed in a sinking fund sufficient to discharge and redeem said bonds at their maturity, and in all such navigation districts which have heretofore been created or may hereafter be created, the commissioners' courts of the respective counties wherein said districts may be created, shall be and are hereby authorized to levy and cause to be assessed and collected for the maintenance, operation and up-keep of such navigation district and the improvements constructed by said district, an annual tax not to exceed ten cents on the one hundred dollar valuation upon all property within such navigation district, whether real, personal[,] mixed, or otherwise.

Sec. 28. If advisable, the sinking fund shall, from time to time, be invested by the commissioners' court of the county in such county, municipal, district or other bonds as shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State.

Sec. 29. The navigation board of said district shall provide all necessary additional books for the use of assessors and collectors of taxes and the clerk of the commissioners' court of jurisdiction for said navigation districts. The tax assessors of each county in said navigation district, when ordered to do so by the commissioners' court having jurisdiction of said district, shall assess all property within said navigation district which is located in his county and list the same for taxation in the books or rolls furnished him for said purposes, and return said books or rolls at the same time when he returns the other books or rolls of the State and county taxes for correction and approval to the commissioners' court of his county, and if said court shall find said books or rolls correct they shall approve the same, and in all matters pertaining to the assessment of property for taxation in said district, the tax assessors and boards of equalization of the counties in which said district is located shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of Texas for assessing and equalizing property for State and county taxes, except as herein provided. All taxes authorized to be levied by this Act shall be a lien upon the property upon which said taxes are assessed, and said taxes may be paid and shall mature and be paid at the time provided by the laws of this State for the payment of State and county taxes; and all the penalties provided by the laws of this State for the non-payment of State and county taxes shall apply to all taxes authorized to be levied by this Section. The tax assessors shall receive for such services such compensation as the said navigation and canal commissioners shall deem proper: provided that said county assessors shall in no event be allowed more than they are now allowed for like services. Should any tax assessor fail or refuse to comply with the orders of said commissioners' court requiring him to assess and list for taxation all the property in such navigation district, as herein provided, he shall be suspended from the further discharge of his duties by the commissioners' court of his county, and he shall be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law for the removal of county officers.

Sec. 30. That tax collectors of the several counties in said navigation district shall be charged with the assessment rolls of navigation districts, and are required to make collection of all taxes levied and assessed against the property in their county within such district and promptly pay over the same to the treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction of said district: and said tax collectors shall be allowed no more compensation for the collection of said taxes than is now allowed for collection of other taxes, same to be fixed by the navigation and canal commissioners. The bonds of such collectors shall stand as security for the proper performance of their duties as tax collectors of such navigation districts; or, if in the judgment of the navigation and canal commissioners of such districts it be necessary, additional bonds, payable to such districts, may be required, and in all matters pertaining to the collection of taxes levied under the provisions of this section, the tax collectors shall be authorized to act and shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas for the collection of State and county taxes, except as herein provided; and suits may be brought for the collection of said taxes and the enforcement of the tax liens created by this section. Should any collector of taxes fail or refuse to give such additional bond or security as herein provided, when requested to do so by said navigation and canal commissioners, within the time prescribed by law for such purposes, he shall be suspended from office by the commissioners' court of his county, and immediately thereafter be removed from office in the mode prescribed by law.

Sec. 31. It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make a certified list of all delinquent property upon which the navigation tax has not been paid, and return the same to the county commissioners' court, which shall proceed to have the same collected by the sale of such delinquent property in the same manner; both by suit and otherwise, as now or may be provided for the sale of property for the collection of State and county taxes; and, at the sale of any property for any delinquent tax, the navigation and canal commissioners may become the purchasers of the same for the benefit of the navigation district.

Sec. 32. The county treasurer of the county, the commissioners' court of which has jurisdiction of said district, shall be treasurer of said navigation district, and it shall be his duty to open an account of all monies received by him belonging to such district and all amounts paid out by him. He shall pay out no money except upon a voucher signed by the chairman or any two of said navigation and canal commissioners, or the said commissioners' court, and he shall carefully preserve on file all orders for the payment of money; and, as often as required by the said commissioners' court, he shall render a correct account to them of all matters pertaining to the financial condition of such district.

Sec. 33. The county treasurer shall execute a good and sufficient bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district; in a sum equal to twice the amount of funds he will have in his hands as treasurer of such district, at any time as estimated by said navigation and canal commissioners, such bond to be conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as treasurer of such district and to be approved by said navigation and canal commissioners; provided, whenever any bonds are voted by such navigation district the county treasurer before receiving the proceeds of sale thereof shall execute additional good and sufficient bond payable to the navigation and canal commissioners of such district in the sum equal to twice the amount of bonds so issued, which bond shall likewise be conditioned and approved as aforesaid, but such additional bond shall not be required after such treasurer shall have properly disbursed the proceeds of such bond issue; and the county treasurer shall be allowed such compensation for his services as treasurer of such navigation district as may be determined by said navigation and canal commissioners not exceeding the same per cent as is now authorized by law for his services as county treasurer.

Sec. 34. The right of eminent domain is hereby conferred upon all navigation districts established under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of condemning and acquiring the right of way over and through any and all lands, private or public, except property used for cemetery purposes, necessary for the improvement of any river, bay, creek, or stream, and the construction and maintenance of any canal or waterway, and for any and all purposes authorized by this Act. All such condemnation proceedings shall be instituted under the direction of the navigation and canal commissioners, and in the name of the navigation district, and the assessing of damages shall be in conformity to the statutes of the State of Texas for condemning and acquiring the right of way by railroads; provided, that no appeal from the finding and assessment of damage by the commissioners appointed for that purpose shall have the effect of causing a suspension of work by the navigation commissioners in prosecuting the work of improvement in all of its details; provided, that no right of way can be condemned through any part of an incorporated city or town without the consent of the lawful authorities of such city or town.

Sec. 35. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district are hereby empowered to acquire the necessary right of way and property of any kind for all necessary improvements contemplated by this Act by gift, grant, purchase or condemnation proceedings.

Sec. 36. The navigation and canal commissioners of any district, and the engineers, from the time of their appointment, are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action of trespass.

Sec. 37. If the improvement or improvements be not carried out and performed by the Government of the United States, as herein provided, the contract or contracts for such improvement or improvements shall be let by the navigation and canal commissioners, and the same shall be awarded to the lowest and best responsible bidder, after giving notice by advertising the same in one or more newspapers, of general circulation in the State of Texas once a week for four consecutive weeks, and by posting notices for at least thirty days in five public places in the county of jurisdiction, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, and at least two of which shall be within said district. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the making of more than one improvement, and where more than one improvement is to be made, the contract may be let separately for each one contract for all such improvements.

Sec. 38. Any person, corporation, or firm, desiring to bid on the construction of any work advertised for as provided under the preceding section of this Act, shall, upon application to the navigation and canal commissioners, be furnished the survey, plans and estimates for the said work, and all bids or offers for any such work shall be in writing and sealed and delivered to the chairman of the navigation and canal commissioners, together with a certified check for at least five per cent of the total amount of bid, which shall be forfeited to the district in case the bidder refuses to enter into a proper contract, if his bid is accepted. Any and all bids may be rejected at the discretion of the navigation and canal commissioners.

Sec. 39. All contracts made by the navigation and canal commissioners shall be reduced to writing and signed by the contractors and navigation and canal commissioners, or any two of said commissioners, and a copy of same filed with the county clerk for reference.

Sec. 40. The party, firm or corporation, to whom any such contract is let, shall give bond, payable to the navigation and canal commissioners for said district, in twice the amount of the contract price, conditioned that he, they or it, will faithfully perform the obligations, agreements and covenants of their contract, and that in default thereof will pay to said district all damages sustained by reason thereof. Said bond shall be approved by such navigation and canal commissioners.

Sec. 41. All work contracted for by the navigation and canal commissioners, unless done under the supervision of the Government of the United States, or the proper department or officer thereof, shall be done under the supervision of the engineer; and, when the work is completed according to contract, the engineer shall make a detailed report of the same to the navigation and canal commissioners, showing whether the contract has been fully complied with, according to its terms, and if not in what particular it has not been complied with.

Sec. 42. The commissioners shall have the right, and it is hereby made their duty, during the progress of the work being done under contract, to inspect the same; and, upon the completion of any contract, they shall draw a warrant on the county treasurer for the amount of the contract price in favor of the contractor or his assignee, which warrant shall be paid out of the construction and maintenance fund of such district; provided, that, if the navigation and canal commissioners shall deem it advisable, they may contract for the work to be paid for in partial payments as the work progresses; but such partial payments shall not exceed in the aggregate eight per cent of the total amount to be paid under the contract, the amount of work completed to be shown by a certificate of the engineer; and provided, further, that nothing in this Section shall affect the provisions of this Act providing for the carrying out and performing of the improvement or improvements by the Government of the United States.

Sec. 43. The commissioners shall make an annual report of their acts and doings as such commissioners, and file the same with the clerk of the county court on or before the first day of January of each year; which report shall show in detail the kind, character and amount of work done in the district, the cost of same, and the amount paid out on order, for what purpose paid, and other data necessary to show the condition of improvements made under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 44. The commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to employ such assistant engineers and other employees as may be necessary, paying such compensation as they may determine; and the said commissioners are authorized to employ counsel to represent such district in the preparation of any contract, or the conducting of any proceedings in or out of court, and to be the legal adviser of the navigation and canal commissioners on such terms and for such fees as may be agreed upon by them; and such commissioners shall have the authority to draw warrant or warrants in payment of such legal services, and for the salary of the engineer, his assistant, or any other employees, and for all expense incident and pertaining to the navigation district.

Sec. 45. Neither the county judge of any county in said navigation district, nor any county commissioner of said counties, nor members of the navigation board or engineer shall be directly or indirectly interested for themselves, or as agents for any one else, in the contract for the construction of any work to be performed by such navigation district.

Sec. 46. All navigation districts established under this Act may, by and through the navigation and canal commissioners, sue and be sued in all courts of this State in the name of such navigation district, and all courts of this State shall take judicial notice of the establishment of all districts. 1. PILOT BOARDS

Article 8264. [6299] [3790] Governor to appoint.—The Governor shall appoint, with the consent of the Senate, for each port whose population and circumstances warrant it, and also for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, a board of five persons of respectable standing, under the denomination of "commissioners of pilots" for such port and bays, three of whom shall be practical seamen and the other two merchants, who shall be commissioned by the Governor for the term of two years; and the Governor shall, during the recess of the Legislature, be authorized to suspend, until the next session of the same, any of said commissioners, and to fill, until the same period, any vacancies in the board caused by death, resignation or otherwise. No member of the board of commissioners shall be directly or indirectly pecuniarily [pecuniarily] interested in any pilot boat or branch pilot in the business of their trust. [Acts 1846, p. 79; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1385; Acts 1861, p. 19; P. D. 4762, 4775; G. L. vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8265. [6300] [3791] Duties of board.—Said board of commissioners shall be authorized, if they deem it advisable, to examine and decide on the qualifications of any branch or deputy pilot whom they find already appointed at the time of their organization; and it shall be their duty to examine each new applicant for the office of branch or deputy pilot, and to decide on his qualifications, recommending to the Governor, where new appointments are proper, such as are meritorious; and it shall also be their duty to examine into any cause of alleged or supposed misconduct or inefficiency in branch or deputy pilots; and they shall be authorized, after a due hearing of accusation, testimony and defense, to suspend such pilot if sufficient cause appear, and during such suspension he shall not be allowed to exercise the functions of his office; the Governor shall, however, have power at his will and pleasure to remove any branch pilot, or to reinstate any one of the same who has been suspended by the commissioners. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4763; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8266. [6301] [3792] Pilots' qualifications.—The board shall require a certain term of residence in this State, not less than two years, to authorize any person to exercise the functions of branch pilot for their port or said bays; as also to establish a term of probation, not exceeding one year, as a deputy pilot before any person can exercise the functions of branch pilot. [Id.]

Art. 8267. [6302] [3793] Regulations and rates.—The board shall have authority, within the limits provided in this subdivision, to fix rates of pilotage, and to establish regulations respecting the stations whereat and the times wherein pilots shall be on duty, with provisions for leave of absence; as also respecting the class, condition, number and use of pilot boats, and such other minor regulations, compatible with the provisions of this subdivision as may be needed for the government of pilots and for the order and good effect of the proceedings of the board, of which proceedings a record shall be kept; provided, no regulation shall be adopted repugnant to the Constitution. [Id.]

Art. 8268. [6303] [3794] Settlement of disputes.—The board shall be authorized and required to hear and determine all disputes that may arise respecting pilots and pilotage; to award to pilots extra compensation for extra services to vessels in distress; as also compensation for injurious loss of time incurred by pilots in waiting on vessels or by being carried off to sea on vessels by default of the master or owner when such pilots might have been landed; provided, always, that no more than three dollars for each day shall be awarded for mere loss of time; and said board shall superintend and generally attend to all matters appertaining to pilots and pilotage; but from any decision of said board an appeal may be taken to the court having cognizance of the case. [Id.]

Art. 8269. [6304] [3795] Boards in small ports.—At any port whose population and circumstances do not warrant the appointment of a board of commissioners of pilots in the manner before provided, the Governor may authorize the county judge of the county to appoint a provisional committee of from three to five persons of good character and maritime experience who shall be authorized under this chapter to establish the rates of pilotage and the rules for governing pilots; to examine the qualifications of pilots and applicants for the office; to investigate the case of any pilot charged with misconduct or inefficiency, and to suspend him if sufficient cause appear. [Id.]

2. BRANCH AND DEPUTY PILOTS

Art. 8270. [6305] [3796] Appointment.—The Governor shall appoint at each of the ports such number of branch pilots as may from time to time be necessary, each of whom shall hold his office for the term of two years. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4761; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8271. [6306] [3797] Bond and oath.—Each branch pilot shall give bond, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to the Governor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office. Such bond shall be approved by the board of commissioners of pilots for the port, or if there be no such board, by the county judge of the county in which the port is situated, and forwarded to the Governor. Each pilot shall also take and subscribe the official oath which shall be endorsed on said bond, and together with the bond shall be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such port is situated before being forwarded to the Governor. Certified copies of said bonds, under the hand and seal of the county clerk; may be used as evidence in all the courts with like effect as the originals. [Id.; Acts 1861, p. 19; G. L. vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8272. [6307] [3798] May appoint deputies.—Each branch pilot may appoint subject to examination and approval by the board of commissioners, two deputies, for whose acts the branch pilot so appointed shall be responsible; and any branch pilot who shall appoint a deputy without the approval of said board shall forfeit his own appointment and said board shall have authority to restrict all deputy pilots from piloting over the bar vessels of over a certain draught of water. [Id.]

Art. 8273. [6308] [3799] Malfeasance.—Any branch or deputy pilot in a state of inebriety who shall take charge of a vessel shall, upon proof of the same, for the first offense be suspended for one month, and for the second offense be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity. If any branch or deputy pilot shall willfully or by neglect cause the wreck of a vessel, he shall be dismissed and be rendered incapable of again serving in either capacity. [Id.]

Art. 8274. [6309] [3800] Pilotage.—The rate of pilotage on any class of vessels shall not, in any port of this State, exceed four dollars for each foot of water which the vessel at the time of piloting draws, and whenever a vessel, except of the classes below excepted, shall decline the services of a pilot, offered outside the bar, and shall enter the port without the aid of one, she shall be liable to the first pilot whose services she so declined for the payment of half pilotage; and any vessel which, after being brought in by a pilot, shall go out without employing one, shall be liable to the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who brought her in, or if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, though offered outside, she shall on so going out be liable for the payment of half pilotage to the pilot who had first offered his services before she came in, but if she has come in without the aid of a pilot, or the offer of one outside, she shall not, in case of going out without a pilot, be liable to half pilotage. At any port where vessels shall receive or discharge their cargoes at an anchorage outside of the bar, such vessel shall be liable to pilotage at the above rate to such anchorage, but shall not be liable for or compelled to pay pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and if any vessel bound from open sea to such anchorage, while under way, shall decline the services of a pilot, and shall afterward receive or discharge any portion of her cargo at such anchorage on the lighters or otherwise, she shall be liable for the payment of half pilotage, at the above rate to such anchorage to the first pilot whose services shall have been tendered to and declined by her, but not liable for any pilotage from such anchorage to the open sea; and when a pilot takes charge of a vessel twenty miles outside of the bar, and brings her to it, he shall be entitled to one-fourth pilotage for such off-shore service, in addition to what he is entitled to recover for bringing her in, but if such off-shore service be declined, no portion of said compensation shall be recovered. [Acts 1866, pp. 14, 15; G. L. vol. 5, p. 932; Acts 1879, p. 99; G. L. vol. 8, p. 1399.]

Art. 8275. [6310] [3801] Exemptions from extra pilotage.—The following classes of vessels shall be free from any charge for pilotage, unless for actual service, to-wit: All vessels of twenty tons and under, all vessels of whatsoever burthen owned in this State and registered and licensed in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port of this State; all vessels of seventy-five tons and under owned and licensed for the coasting trade in any part of the United States, when arriving from or departing to any port in the State of Texas; all vessels of seventy-five tons or under owned in this State and licensed for the coasting trade in the district of Texas, when arriving from or departing to any port in the United States. [Id.]

Art. 8276. [6311] [3802] Consignee responsible for pilotage.—The consignee of any vessel shall be held responsible for the pilotage of said vessel. [Acts 1846, p. 79; P. D. 4772; G. L. vol. 2, p. 1385.]

Art. 8277. [6312] [3803] Unauthorized pilot: liability.—If any person not appointed a branch or deputy pilot shall pilot any ship or vessel out of or into any port when a branch or deputy pilot has offered such service, the person so piloting shall forfeit and pay to such branch or deputy pilot the sum of fifty dollars to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Art. 8278. [6313-14] Pilots for mouth of Brazos.—The Governor shall also appoint a sufficient number of competent pilots for the mouth of the Brazos River, whose terms of office, mode of qualification and pilotage shall be the same as prescribed in the preceding articles for branch pilots; and they shall be entitled to all the privileges and shall exercise all the powers, and discharge all the duties prescribed for branch pilots, and be subject to like penalties. The county judge of Brazoria County shall approve the bond of any such pilot. [Acts 1848, p. 144; P. D. 4776, 4782; G. L. vol. 3, p. 144.]

Art. 8279. [6315-16-17] Pilots for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays.—The Governor shall also appoint not less than two nor more than four competent pilots for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays, from Pass Cavallo to Indianola and Lavaca, who shall hold their offices for the same term as branch pilots, and whose mode of qualification, powers and privileges, in so far as the same are applicable, shall be the same; the bonds of such pilots shall be approved by the county judge of Calhoun County. Such pilots shall keep the channels of said bays properly staked and marked out, and in default thereof they shall be subject to removal or suspension. The rate of pilotage for said bays shall be two dollars and fifty cents for each foot of water the vessel may draw at the time of piloting; and all vessels that may draw five feet or more shall be subject to pay any licensed pilot for said bays, whose services are tendered and declined, one-half the pilotage herein prescribed. [Acts 1861, p. 19; P. D. 4775; G. L. vol. 5, p. 355.]

Art. 8280. [6318-19] Rules for branch pilots applicable.—All the provisions of this chapter relating to branch pilots at ports in so far as the same are applicable and not expressly qualified, shall apply to and govern pilots appointed for the mouth of the Brazos River and for Matagorda and Lavaca Bays. If any person not a licensed pilot or deputy shall pilot any vessel into or out of the mouth of said river or through the channel of said bays, up or down, he shall forfeit and pay to any pilot licensed or commissioned for the mouth of said river, or for said bays, full pilotage for such vessel, to be recovered by suit. [Id.]

Article 8281. [7855] [5333] [4857] Who may execute.—Every person aged twenty-one years or upward, or who may be or may have been lawfully married, being of sound mind, shall have power to make a last will and testament, under the rules and limitations prescribed by law. [Acts 1840, p. 167; Acts 1856, p. 5; G. L. vol. 2, p. 341; vol. 4, p. 423.]

Art. 8282. [7856] [5334] [4858] May pass estate.—Every person competent to make a last will and testament may thereby devise and bequeath all the estate, right, title and interest in possession, reversion or remainder, which he has, or at the time of his death shall have, of, in or to any lands, tenements, hereditaments or rents charged upon or issuing out of them, or shall have of, in or to any personal property whatever, subject to the limitations prescribed by law. [P. D. 5361-2.]

Art. 8283. [7857] [5335] [4859] Requisites.—Every last will and testament except where otherwise provided by law, shall be in writing and signed by the testator or by some other person by his direction and in his presence, and shall, if not wholly written by himself, be attested by two or more credible witnesses above the age of fourteen years, subscribing their names thereto in the presence of the testator. [Acts Jan. 28, 1840; G. L. vol. 2, p. 341.]

Art. 8284. [7858] [5336] [4860] Exception.—Where the will is wholly written by the testator the attestation of the subscribing witnesses may be dispensed with. [Id.]

Art. 8285. [7859] [5337] [4861] Cancellation.—No will in writing, made in conformity with the preceding articles, nor any clause thereof or devise therein, shall be revoked, except by a subsequent will, codicil or declaration in writing, executed with like formalities, or by the testator destroying, canceling or obliterating the same, or causing it to be done in his presence.

Art. 8286. [7860] [5338] [4862] Nuncupative will.—Any person who is competent to make a last will and testament, under Articles 8281 and 8282 may dispose of his property by a nuncupative will made under the conditions and limitations hereinafter prescribed. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 8287. [7861] [5339] [4863] Requisites.—No nuncupative will shall be established, unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, at his habitation or where he has resided for ten days next preceding, except when the deceased is taken sick from home and dies before he returns to such habitation; nor when the value exceeds thirty dollars, unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on some person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import. [P. D. 5366.]

Art. 8288. [7862] [5340] [4864] Notice and proof.—No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor until those who would have been entitled by inheritance, had there been no will, have been summoned to contest the same, if they desire to do so. [P. D. 5371.]

Art. 8289. [7863] [5341] [4865] Testimony.—After six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the pretended testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove a nuncupative will, unless the testimony or the substance thereof, shall have been committed to writing within six days after making the will. [P. D. 5367.]

Art. 8290. [7864] [5342] [4866] Soldier's will.—Any soldier in actual military service, or any mariner or seaman being at sea, may dispose of his chattels without regard to the provisions of this title. [P. D. 5369.]

Art. 8291. [7865] [5343] [4867] Posthumous children.—When a testator shall have children born and his wife enceinte, the posthumous child, if unprovided for by settlement and pretermitted by his last will and testament, shall succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as such child would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 8292. [7866] [5344] [4868] After-born child.—If a testator having a child or children born at the time of making his last will and testament, shall at his death, leave a child or children born after the making of such last will and testament, the child or children so after born and pretermitted shall, unless provided for by settlement, succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as they would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward raising which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament, in the same manner as is provided in Article 8291. [P. D. 5364.]

Art. 8293. [7867] [5345] [4869] Validity.—Every last will and testament made when the testator had no child living, wherein any child he might have is not provided for or mentioned, if at the time of his death he shall leave a child, or leave his wife enceinte of a child which shall be born, shall have no effect during the life of such after-born child, and shall be void, unless the child die without having been married and before he shall have attained the age of twenty-one years. [P. D. 5363.]

Art. 8294. [7868] [5346] [4870] Descendants.—Under the name of "children" as used in this title, are included descendants of whatever degree they may be, it being understood that they are only counted for the child they represent. [P. D. 5373.]

Art. 8295. [7869] [5347] [4871] Prior death of legatee.—Where a testator shall devise or bequeath an estate or interest of any kind by will to a child or other descendant of such testator, should such devisee or legatee, during the lifetime of the testator, die leaving children or descendants who shall survive such testator, such devise or legacy shall not lapse by reason of such death; but the estate so devised or bequeathed shall vest in the children or descendants of such legatee or devisee in the same manner as if he had survived the testator and died intestate. [P. D. 5365.]

Art. 8296. [7870] [5348] [4872] Bequest to witness.—Should any person be subscribing witness to a will, and be also a legatee or devisee therein, if the will cannot be otherwise established, such bequest shall be void, and such witness shall be allowed and compelled to appear and give his testimony in like manner as if no such bequest had been made. But, if in such case the witness would have been entitled to a share of the estate of the testator had there been no will, he shall be entitled to so much of such share as shall not exceed the value of the bequest to him in the will. [Acts 1875, p. 179; G. L. vol. 8, p. 551.]

Art. 8297. [7871] [5349] [4873] Proof by witness.—In the case provided for in the preceding article, such will may be proved by the evidence of the subscribing witnesses, corroborated by the testimony of one or more other disinterested and credible persons, to the effect that the testimony of such subscribing witnesses necessary to sustain the will is substantially true; in which event the bequest to such subscribing witnesses shall not be void. [Id.]

Art. 8298. [7872] [5350] [4874] Separate property.—The husband or wife may, by last will and testament, give to the survivor of the marriage the power to keep his or her separate property together, until each of the several heirs shall become of lawful age, and to manage and control the same under the provisions of law relating to community property, and such other restrictions as may be imposed by such will; provided, the surviving husband or wife is the father or mother, as the case may be, of the minor heirs; and provided further, that any child or heir entitled to any part of said property shall, at any time upon becoming of age, be entitled to receive his distributive portion of said estate. [Acts 1856, p. 51; G. L. vol. 4, p. 469.]

Art. 8299. [7873] [5351] [4875] Custody.—All original wills, together with the probate thereof, shall be deposited in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county wherein the same shall have been probated, and shall there remain, except during such time as they may be removed to some other court, by proper process, for inspection. [P. D. 5372.]

Art. 8300. [7874] [5352] [4876] Registration.—Every such will, together with the probate thereof, shall be recorded by the clerk of the county court in a book to be kept for that purpose; and certified copies of such will and the probate of the same, or of the record thereof, may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence as the original might be. [Id.]

Art. 8301. [7875] [5353] Foreign will.—When any will or testament, or testamentary instrument of any character, conveying or in any manner disposing of land in this State, has been duly probated according to the laws of any of the United States or territories, a copy thereof and its probate, attested by the clerk of the court in which such will and testamentary instrument was admitted to probate, and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate from the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, may be filed and recorded in the register of deeds in any county in which said real estate is situated, in the same manner as deeds and conveyances are required to be recorded, and without further proof or authentication; provided, that, at any time within four years from the date of the record of such will in this State, the validity of such will may be contested in a proceeding instituted for that purpose as the original might have been. [Acts 1887, p. 38; G. L. vol. 9, p. 836.]

Art. 8302. [7876] [5354] Foreign will: registration.—A copy of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate so attested, together with the certificate that said attestation is in due form, as required by the preceding article, shall be prima facie evidence that said will has been duly admitted to probate, according to the laws of the State wherein it has been admitted to probate, and shall be sufficient to authorize the same to be recorded in the proper county or counties in this State. [Id.]

Art. 8303. [7877] [5355] Effective, when.—Every such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, which shall be attested and proven, as provided in the second preceding article, and delivered to the clerk of the proper court to be recorded, shall take effect and be valid and effectual

as a deed of conveyance of said property; and the record thereof shall have the same force and effect as the record of deeds or other conveyances to land from the time when such instrument was delivered to such clerk to be recorded, and from that time only. [Id.]

Art. 8304. [7878] [5356] Notice.—The record of such will and testament, or testamentary instrument, and its probate, duly attested and proven, as provided in the preceding articles, and duly made in the proper county, shall be taken and held as notice to all persons of the existence of such will and testament, and of the title or titles conferred thereby. [Id.]

Art. 8305. Foreign trustee.—When by any foreign will, filed and recorded in this State, as authorized by the four preceding articles, power is given an executor or trustee to sell any real or personal property situated in this State, no order of court shall be necessary to authorize such executor or trustee to make such sale and execute proper conveyance, and whenever any particular directions are given by a testator in any such will respecting the sale of any such property situated in this State, belonging to his estate, the same shall be followed unless such directions have been annulled or suspended by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. [Acts 1915, p. 120.]

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW

PART 1

Art.
8306. Damages and compensation for personal injuries.

PART 2.

8307. Industrial accident board.

PART 3.

8308. Employer's Insurance Association.

PART 4.

8309. Definitions and general provisions.

PART 1

Article 8306. Damages and compensation for personal injuries.—Sec. 1. In an action to recover damages for personal injuries sustained by an employé in the course of his employment, or for death resulting from personal injury so sustained, it shall not be a defense:

1. That the employé was guilty of contributory negligence.

2. That the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow employé.

3. That the employé had assumed the risk of the injury incident to his employment; but such employer may defend in such action on the ground that the injury was caused by the willful intention of the employé to bring about the injury, or was so caused while the employé was in a state of intoxication.

4. In all such actions against an employer who is not a subscriber, as defined hereafter in this law, it shall be necessary to a recovery for the plaintiff to prove negligence of such employer or some agent or servant of such employer acting within the general scope of his employment. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 2. The provisions of this law shall not apply to actions to recover damages for personal injuries nor for death resulting from personal injuries sustained by domestic servants, farm laborers, ranch laborers, nor to employé of any firm, person or corporation having in his or their employ less than three employés, nor to the employés of any person, firm or corporation operating any steam, electric, street, or interurban railway as a common carrier. Any employer of three or more employés at the time of becoming a subscriber shall remain a subscriber subject to all the rights, liabilities, duties and exemptions of such, notwithstanding after having become a subscriber the number of employés may at times be less than three. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1921, p. 221.]

Sec. 3. The employés of a subscriber and the parents of minor employés shall have no right of action against their employer or against any agent, servant or employé of said employer for damages for personal injuries, and the representatives and beneficiaries of deceased employés shall have no right of action against such subscribing employer or his agent, servant or employé for damages for injuries resulting in death, but such employés and their representatives and beneficiaries shall look for compensation solely to the association, as the same is hereinafter provided for. All compensation allowed under the succeeding sections herein shall be exempt from garnishment, attachment, judgment and all other suits or claims, and no such right of action and no such compensation and no part thereof or of either shall be assignable, except as otherwise herein provided, and any attempt to assign the same shall be void. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 385.]

Sec. 3a. An employé of a subscriber shall be held to have waived his right of action at common law or under any statute of this State to recover damages for injuries sustained in the course of his employment if he shall not have given his employer, at the time of his contract of hire, notice in writing that he claimed said right or if the contract of hire was made before the employer became a subscriber, if the employé shall not have given the said notice within five days of notice of such subscription. An employé who has given notice to his employer that he claimed his right of action at common law or under any statute may thereafter waive such claim by notice in writing, which shall take effect five days after its delivery to his employer or his agent. Any employé of a subscriber who has not waived his right of action at common law or under any statute to recover damages for injury sustained in the course of his employment, as above provided in this section, shall, as well as his legal beneficiaries and representatives have his or their cause of action for such injuries as now exist by the common law and statutes of this State, which action shall be subject to all defenses under the common law and statutes of this State. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 3b. If an employé who has not given notice of his claim of common law or statutory rights of action, or who has given such notice and waived the same, sustains an injury in the course of his employment, he shall be paid compensation by the association as hereinafter provided, if his employer is a subscriber at the time of the injury. [Id.]

Sec. 3c. From and after the time of the receipt by the Industrial Accident Board of notice from any employer that the latter has become a subscriber under this law, all employés of said subscriber then and thereafter employed, shall be conclusively deemed to have notice of the fact that such subscriber has provided with the association for the payment of compensation under this law. If any employer ceases to be a subscriber he shall on or before the date on which his policy expires give notice to that effect to the Industrial Accident Board, and to such subscribers' employés by posting notices to that effect in three public places around such subscribers' plant. [Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 4. Employés whose employers are not at the time of the injury subscribers to said association, and the representatives and beneficiaries of deceased employés who at the time of the injury were working for nonsubscribing employers can not participate in the benefits of said insurance association, but they shall be entitled to bring suit and may recover judgment against such employers, or any of them, for all damages, sustained by reason of any personal injury received in the course of employment or by reason of death resulting from such injury, and the provisions of section 1 of this law shall be applied in all such actions. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 5. Nothing in this law shall be taken or held to prohibit the recovery of exemplary damages by the surviving husband, wife, heirs of his or her body, or such of them as there may be of any deceased employé whose death is occasioned by homicide from the wilful act or omission or gross negligence of any person, firm or corporation from the employer of such employé at the time of the injury causing the death of the latter. In any suit so brought for exemplary damages the trial shall be de novo, and no presumption shall exist that any award, ruling or finding of the Industrial Accident Board was correct. In any such suit, such award, ruling or finding shall neither be pleaded nor offered in evidence. [Id.]

Sec. 6. No compensation shall be paid under this law for an injury which does not incapacitate the employé for a period of at least one week from earning full wages, but if incapacity extends beyond one week compensation shall begin to accrue on the eighth day after the injury. The medical aid, hospital services, and medicines, as provided for in Section 7 hereof, shall be supplied as and when needed and according to the terms and provisions of said Section 7. If incapacity does not follow at once after the infliction of the injury or within eight days thereof but does result subsequently, compensation shall begin to accrue with the eighth day after the date incapacity commenced. In any event the employé shall be entitled to the medical aid, hospital service and medicines provided in this law. Provided further, that if such incapacity continues for four (4) weeks or longer, compensation shall be computed from the inception date of such incapacity. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 84, ch. 60, § 1.]

Sec. 7. During the first four weeks of the injury, dating from the date of its infliction, the association shall furnish reasonable medical aid, hospital services and medicines. If the association fails to so furnish same as and when needed during the time specified after notice of the injury to the association or subscriber, the injured employé may provide said medical aid, hospital service and medicines at the cost and expense of the association. The employé shall not be entitled to recover any amount expended or incurred by him for said medical aid, hospital services or medicines nor shall any person who supplied the same be entitled to recover of the association thereof, unless the association or subscriber shall have had notice of the injury and shall have refused, failed or neglected to furnish it or them within a reasonable time. At the time of the injury or immediately thereafter, if necessary, the employé shall have the right to call in any available physician or surgeon to administer first aid treatment as may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the association. During the fourth or any subsequent week of continuous total incapacity requiring the confinement to a hospital, the association shall, upon application of the attending physician or surgeon certifying the necessity therefor to the Industrial Accident Board and to the association, furnish such additional hospital services as may be deemed necessary not to exceed one week, unless at the end of such additional week the attending physician shall certify to the necessity for another week of hospital services or so much thereof as may be needed. Such additional hospital services as are herein provided shall not be held to include any obligation on the part of the association to pay for medical or surgical services not ordinarily provided by hospitals as a part of their services. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 7a. If it be shown that the association is furnishing medical aid, hospital services and medicines provided for by Section 7 hereof in such manner that there is reasonable ground for believing that the life, health or recovery of the employé is being endangered or impaired thereby, the board may order a change in the physician or other requirements of said section. If the association fails promptly to comply with such order after receiving it, the board may permit the employé or some one for him to provide the same at the expense of the association under such reasonable regulations as may be provided by said board. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 7b. All fees and charges under Sections 7 and 7a hereof shall be fair and reasonable, shall be subject to regulation of the board and shall be limited to such charges as are reasonable for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living where such treatment is paid for by the injured person himself or some one acting for him. In determining what fees are reasonable, the board may also consider the increased security of payment afforded by this law. Where such medical aid, hospital service or medicines are furnished by a public hospital or other institution, payment thereof shall be made to the proper authorities conducting the same, and the amount so paid shall be promptly reported to the board. [Id.]

Sec. 7c. All fees of attorneys for representing claimants before the board under the provisions of this law shall be subject to the approval of the board. No attorney's fees for representing claimants before the board shall be allowed or approved against any party or parties not represented by such attorney, nor exceeding an amount equal to fifteen per cent of the amount of the first one thousand dollars or fraction thereof recovered, nor ten per cent of the excess of such recovery, if any, over one thousand dollars, in addition to the reasonable expenses incurred by the attorney in the preparation and presentation of the said claim before the board, such expenses to be allowed by the board. Where an attorney represents only a part of those interested in the allowance of a claim before the board and his services in prosecuting such claim and obtaining an award therein inures to the benefit of others jointly interested therein, then the board may take these facts into consideration and allow the attorney a reasonable charge, to be assessed against the interest of those receiving benefits from the service of such attorney. The attorney's fees herein provided for may be redeemed by the association by the payment of a lump sum or may be commuted by agreement of the parties subject to the approval of the board, but not until the claim represented by said attorney has been finally determined by the board and recognized and accepted by the association. After the approval, as first above provided for, if the association be notified in writing of such claim or agreement for legal services, the same shall be a lien against any amount thereafter to be paid as compensation; provided, that where the employé's compensation is payable by the association in periodical installments the Board shall fix at the time of approval the proportion of each installment to be paid on account of said legal services. [Id.]

Sec. 7d. For representing the interest of any claimant in any manner carried from the board into the courts, it shall be lawful for the attorney representing such interest to contract with any beneficiary under this law for an attorney's fee for such representation, not to exceed one third of the amount recovered, such fee for services so rendered to be fixed and allowed by the trial court in which such matter may be heard and determined. [Id.]

Sec. 8. If death should result from the injury the association hereinafter created shall pay the legal beneficiaries of the deceased employé a weekly payment equal to sixty per cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than $20.00 nor less than $7.00 per week, for a period of three hundred and sixty weeks from the date of the injury. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 8a. The compensation provided for in the foregoing section of this law shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the surviving husband who has not for good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned his wife at the time of the injury, and of the wife who has not at the time of the injury without good cause and for a period of three years prior thereto, abandoned her husband, and of the minor children, parents and stepmother, without regard to the question of dependency, dependent grandparents, dependent children and dependent brothers and sisters of the deceased employé; and the amount recovered thereunder shall not be liable for the debts of the deceased nor the debts of the beneficiary or beneficiaries and shall be distributed among the beneficiaries as may be entitled to the same as hereinbefore provided according to the laws of descent and distribution of this State; provided the right in such beneficiary or beneficiaries to recover compensation for death be determined by the facts that exist at the date of the death of the deceased and that said right be a complete, absolute and vested one. Such compensation shall not pass to the estate of the deceased to be administered upon, but shall be paid directly to said beneficiaries when the same are capable of taking, under the laws of this State, or to their guardian or next friend, in case of lunacy, infancy or other disqualifying cause of any beneficiary. The compensation provided for in this law shall be paid weekly to the beneficiaries herein specified, subject to the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 8b. In case death occurs as a result of the injury after a period of total or partial incapacity, for which compensation has been paid, the period of incapacity shall be deducted from the total period of compensation and the benefits paid thereunder from the maximum allowed for the death. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 9. If the deceased employé leaves no legal beneficiaries, the association shall pay all expenses incident to his last sickness as a result of the injury and in addition a funeral benefit not to exceed $100.00. Where any deceased employé leaves legal beneficiaries, but is buried at the expense of his employer or any other person, the expense of such burial, not to exceed $100.00, shall be payable out of the compensation due the beneficiary or beneficiaries of such deceased employé, subject to the approval of the board. [Id.]

Sec. 10. While the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is total, the association shall pay the injured employé a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than $20.00 nor less than $7.00 and in no case shall the period covered by such compensation be greater than four hundred and one weeks from the date of the injury. [Acts 1917, p. 269. Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 11. While the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is partial, the association shall pay the injured employé a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of the difference between his average weekly wages before the injury and his average weekly wage earning capacity during the existence of such partial incapacity, but in no case more than $20.00 per week. The period covered by such compensation shall be in no case greater than three hundred weeks; provided that in no case shall the period of compensation for total and partial incapacity exceed four hundred and one weeks from the date of injury. [Id.]

Sec. 11a. In cases of the following injuries, the incapacity shall conclusively be held to be total and permanent, to-wit:

- (1) The total and permanent loss of the sight of both eyes.
- (2) The loss of both feet at or above the ankle.
- (3) The loss of both hands at or above the wrist.
- (4) A similar loss of one hand and one foot.
- (5) An injury to the spine resulting in permanent and complete paralysis of both arms or both legs or of one arm and one leg.
- (6) An injury to the skull resulting in incurable insanity or imbecility.

In any of the above enumerated cases it shall be considered that the total loss of the use of a member shall be equivalent to and draw the same compensation during the time of such total loss of the use thereof as for the total and permanent loss of such member.

The above enumeration is not to be taken as exclusive but in all other cases the burden of proof shall be on the claimant to prove that his injuries have resulted in permanent, total incapacity. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 41, ch. 28, § 1.]

Sec. 12. For the injuries enumerated in the following schedule the employé shall receive in lieu of all other compensation except medical aid, hospital services and medicines as elsewhere herein provided, a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of the average weekly wages of such employé, but not less than $7.00 per week nor exceeding $20.00 per week, for the respective periods stated herein, to-wit:

For the loss of a thumb, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during sixty weeks.

For the loss of a first finger, commonly called the index finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during forty-five weeks.

For the loss of a second finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during thirty weeks.

For the loss of a third finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during twenty-one weeks.

For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly known as the little finger, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during fifteen weeks.

The loss of the second or distal phalange of the thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of such thumb; the loss of more than one-half of such thumb shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole thumb.

The loss of the third or distal phalange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-third of such finger.

The loss of more than the middle and distal phalange of any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole finger; provided that in no case shall the amount received for the loss of a thumb and more than one finger on the same hand exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

For the loss of the metacarpal bone (bone or palm) for the corresponding thumb, finger or fingers above, add ten weeks to the number of weeks as above subject to the limitation that in no case shall the amount received for the loss or injury to any one hand be more than for the loss of the hand.

For ankylosis (total stiffness of) or contracture (due to scars or injuries) which make the fingers useless, the same number of weeks shall apply to such finger or fingers or parts of fingers (not thumb) as given above.

For the loss of a hand, sixty per cent of the average weekly wage during one hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an arm at or above the elbow, sixty per cent of the average weekly wage during two hundred weeks.

For the loss of one of the toes other than the great toe, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during ten weeks.

For the loss of the great toe, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during thirty weeks.

The loss of more than two-thirds of any toe shall be considered to be equal to the loss of the whole toe.

The loss of less than two-thirds of any toe shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one-half of the toe.

For the loss of a foot, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred and twenty-five weeks.

For the loss of a leg at or above the knee, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during two hundred weeks.

For the total and permanent loss of the sight of one eye, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during one hundred weeks.

In the foregoing enumerated cases of permanent, partial incapacity, it shall be considered that the permanent loss of the use of a member shall be equivalent to and draw the same compensation as the loss of that member.

For the complete and permanent loss of the hearing in, both ears, sixty per cent of the weekly wages during one hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and leg above the knee, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and an arm above the elbow, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and fifty weeks.

For the loss of an eye and a hand, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred and twenty-five weeks.

For the loss of an eye and a foot, sixty per cent of the average weekly wages during a period of three hundred weeks.

Where the employé sustains concurrent injuries resulting in concurrent incapacities, he shall receive compensation only for the injury which produces the longest period of incapacity; but this section shall not affect liability for the concurrent loss or the loss of the use thereof of more than one member, for which member compensation is provided in this schedule, compensation for specific injuries under this law shall be cumulative as to time and not concurrent.

In all cases of permanent partial incapacity it shall be considered that the permanent loss of the use of the member is equivalent to, and shall draw the same compensation as, the loss of that member; but the compensation in and by said schedule provided shall be in lieu of all other compensation in such cases.

In all other cases of partial incapacity, including any disfigurement which will impair the future usefulness or occupational opportunities of the injured employé, compensation shall be determined according to the percentage of incapacity, taking into account among other things any previous incapacity, the nature of the physical injury or disfigurement, the occupation of the injured employé, and the age at the time of injury. The compensation paid therefor shall be sixty per cent of the average weekly wages of the employés but not to exceed $20.00 per week, multiplied by the percentage of incapacity caused by the injury for such period not exceeding three hundred weeks as the board may determine. Whenever the weekly payments under this paragraph would be less than $3.00 per week, the period may be shortened, and the payments correspondingly increased by the board. [Acts 1923, p. 386.]

Sec. 12a. If the injured employé refuses employment reasonably suited to his incapacity and physical condition, procured for him in the locality where injured or at a place agreeable to him, he shall not be entitled to compensation during the period of such refusal, unless in opinion of the board such refusal is justifiable. This section shall not apply in cases of specific injuries for which a schedule is fixed by this law. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 12b. In all claims for hernia resulting from injury sustained in the course of employment, it must be definitely proven to the satisfaction of the board:

1. That there was an injury resulting in hernia.
2. That the hernia appeared suddenly and immediately following the injury.
3. That the hernia did not exist in any degree prior to the injury for which compensation is claimed.
4. That the injury was accompanied by pain.

In all such cases where liability for compensation exists, the association shall provide competent surgical treatment by radical operation. In case the injured employé refuses to submit to the operation, the board shall immediately order a medical examination of such employee by a physician or physicians of its own selection at a time and place to be by them named, at which examination the employé and the association, or either of them, shall have the right to have his or their physician present. The physician or physicians so selected shall make to the board a written report, signed and sworn to, setting forth the facts developed at such examination and giving his or their opinion as to the advisability or non-advisability of an operation. If it be shown to the board by such examination and such report thereof and the expert opinions thereon that the employé has any chronic disease or is otherwise in such physical condition as to render it more than ordinarily unsafe to submit to such operation he shall, if unwilling to submit to the operation, be entitled to compensation for incapacity under the general provisions of this law. If the examination and the written report thereof and the expert opinions thereon then on file before the board do not show to the board the existence of disease or other physical condition rendering the operation more than ordinarily unsafe and the board shall unanimously so find and so reduce its findings to writing and file the same in the case and furnish the employé and the association with a copy of its findings, then if the employé with the knowledge of the result of such examination, such report, such opinions and such findings, thereafter refuses to submit within a reasonable time, which time shall be fixed in the findings of the board, to such operation, he shall be entitled to compensation for incapacity under the general provisions of this law for a period not exceeding one year.

If the employé submits to the operation and the same is successful, which shall be determined by the board, he shall in addition to the surgical benefits herein provided for be entitled to compensation for twenty-six weeks from the date of the operation. If such operation is not successful and does not result in death, he shall be paid compensation under the general provisions of this law the same as if such operation had not been had; other than in determining the compensation to be paid to the employé, the board may take into consideration any minor benefits that accrued to the employé by reason thereof or any aggravation or increased injury which accrued to him by reason thereof.

If the hernia results in death within one year after it is sustained, or the operation results in death, such death shall be held a result of the injury causing such hernia and compensated accordingly under this law. This paragraph shall not apply where the employé has wilfully refused to submit to an operation which has been found by the examination herein provided for not to be more than ordinarily unsafe. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 12c. If an employé who has suffered a previous injury shall suffer a subsequent injury which results in a condition of incapacity to which both injuries or their effects have contributed, the association shall be liable because of such injury only for the compensation to which the subsequent injury would have entitled the injured employé had there been no previous injury. [Id.]

Sec. 12d. Upon its own motion or upon the application of any person interested showing a change of conditions, mistake, or fraud, the board at any time within the compensation period may review any award or order, ending, diminishing or increasing compensation previously awarded within the maximum and minimum provided in this law, or change or revoke its previous order, sending immediately to the parties a copy of its subsequent order or award. Review under this section shall be only upon notice to the parties interested. [Id.]

Sec. 12e. In all cases where liability for compensation exists for an injury sustained by an employé in the course of his employment and a surgical operation for such injury will effect a cure of the employé or will materially and beneficially improve his condition, the association or the employé may demand that a surgical operation be had upon the employé as herein provided, and the association shall provide and pay for all necessary surgical treatment, medicines and hospital services incident to the performance of said operation, provided the same is had. In case either of said parties demands in writing to the board such operation, the board shall immediately order a medical examination of the employé in the same manner as is provided for in the section of this law relating to hernia. If it be shown by the examination, report of facts and opinions of experts, all reduced to writing and filed with the board, that such operation is advisable and will relieve the condition of the injured employé or will materially benefit him, the board shall so state in writing and upon unanimous order of said board in writing, a copy of which shall be delivered to the employé and the association, shall direct the employé at a time and place therein stated to submit himself to an operation for said injury. If the board should find that said operation is not advisable, then the employé shall continue to be compensated for his incapacity under the general provisions of this law. If the board shall unanimously find and so state in writing that said operation is advisable, it shall make its order to that effect, stating the time and place when and where such operation is to be performed, naming the physicians therein who shall perform said operation, and if the employé refuses to submit to such operation, the board may order or direct the association to suspend the whole or any part of his compensation during the time of said period of refusal. The results of such operation, the question as to whether the injured employé shall be required to submit thereto and the benefits and liabilities arising therefrom shall attach, be treated, handled and determined by the board in the same way as is provided in the case of hernia in this law. [Id.]

Sec. 12f. In all cases where a subscriber or the association has in his or its employ a physician or physicians regularly paid in any manner whatsoever by such subscriber or association to administer to or treat injured employés, the name or names of such physicians at the date of employment of the same shall be filed with the board together with a copy of the contract of such employment. If the contract of such physician or physicians is not in writing, then the same shall be reduced to writing and a copy thereof filed with the board. Such contract shall state fully the extent and scope of the employment and the compensation to be paid such physician or physicians. If the association or subscriber willfully fails or refuses to comply with this provision of this law, then an injured employé or any person acting for him shall have the right to provide hospital services, medical aid and medicine for said injured employé, at the expense of and the same shall be charged to the association, and the subscriber or association shall notify the employé at or before the time of injury what physician or physicians are contracted with to treat his or its employés. [Id.]

Sec. 12g. It shall be unlawful for any subscriber or any employer who seeks to comply with the provisions of this law to either directly or indirectly collect of or from his employés by any means or pretense whatever any premium under this law or part thereof paid or to be paid upon any policy of such insurance under this law which covers such employés, or any intended policy of such insurance designed to cover such employés. If any such subscriber or any employer of labor in this State violates this provision of this law, then any employé or the legal beneficiary of any employé of such employer or subscriber shall be entitled to all the benefits of this law and in addition thereto shall have a separate right of action to recover damages against such employer without regard to the compensation paid or to be paid to such employé or beneficiary under this law. The association shall in no wise be responsible because of such separate action by such employé or beneficiary against such employer on such separate cause of action. [Id.]

Sec. 12h. Every contract or agreement of an employer, the purpose of which is to indemnify him from loss or damage on account of the injury of an employé by accidental means or on account of the negligence of such employer or his officer, agent or servant, shall be absolutely void unless it also covers liability for the payment of the compensation provided for by this law. This section shall not apply to employers of labor who are not eligible under the terms hereof to become subscribers thereto, nor to employers whose employés have elected to reject the provisions of this law, nor to employers eligible to come under the terms of this law who do not elect to do so, but who choose to carry insurance upon their employés independently of this law and without attempting in such insurance to provide compensation under the terms of this law. Any evasion of this section whereby an insurance company shall undertake, under the guise of writing insurance against the risk of the employers who do not see proper to come under this law, to write insurance substantially or in any material respect similar to the insurance provided for by this law shall render such insurance void as provided for in this section. [Id.]

Sec. 12i. If it be established that the injured employé was a minor when injured and that under normal condition his wages would be expected to increase, that fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages and compensation may be fixed accordingly. This section shall not be considered as authorizing the employment of a minor in any hazardous employment which is prohibited by any statute of this State. [Id.]

Sec. 13. If an injured employé is mentally incompetent or is a minor or is under any other disqualifying cause at the time when any right or privileges accrue to him or exist under this law, his guardian or next friend may in his behalf claim and exercise such rights and privileges except as otherwise herein provided. In case of partial incapacity or temporary total incapacity, payment of compensation may be made direct to the minor and his receipt taken therefor, if the authority to so pay and receipt therefor is first obtained from the board. [Id.]

Sec. 14. No agreement by any employé to waive his rights to compensation under this law shall be valid. [Id.]

Sec. 15. In cases where death or total permanent incapacity results from an injury, the liability of the association may be redeemed by payment of a lump sum by agreement of the parties thereto, subject to the approval of the Industrial Accident Board. This section shall be construed as excluding any other character of lump sum settlement except as herein specified. In special cases where in the judgment of the board manifest hardship and injustice would otherwise result, the board may compel the association in the cases provided for in this section to redeem their liability by payment of a lump sum as may be determined by the board. [Id.]

Sec. 15a. In any case where compensation is payable weekly at a definite sum and for a definite period, and it appears to the board that the amount of compensation being paid is inadequate to meet the necessities of the employé or beneficiary, the board shall have the power to increase the amount of compensation by correspondingly decreasing the number of weeks for which the same is to be paid allowing discount for present payment at legal rate of interest; provided that in no case shall the amount to which it is increased exceed the amount of the average weekly wages upon which the compensation is based; provided it is not intended hereby to prevent lump sum settlement when approved by the board. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 16. In all cases of injury resulting in death, where such injury was sustained in the course of employment, cause of action shall survive. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 17. Non-resident alien beneficiaries and resident alien beneficiaries shall be entitled to compensation under this law. Non-resident alien beneficiaries may be officially represented by the consular officers of the nation of which such alien or aliens may be citizens or subjects, and in such cases the consular officers shall have the right to receive for distribution for such non-resident alien beneficiaries all compensation awarded hereunder, and the receipt of such consular officers shall be a full discharge of all sums paid to and received by them. The association may at any time, subject to the approval of the board, commute all future installments of compensation payable to alien beneficiaries, not resident of the United States, by paying to such alien beneficiaries the sum agreed upon and filing receipts therefor with the board. [Id.]

Sec. 18. It is the purpose of this law that the compensation herein provided for shall be paid from week to week and as it accrues and directly to the person entitled thereto, unless the liability is redeemed as in such cases provided elsewhere herein. If the association willfully fails or refuses to pay compensation as and when the same matures and accrues, the board shall notify said association that such is the course it is pursuing. If after such notice the association continues to willfully refuse and fail to meet these payments of compensation as provided for in this law, the board shall have the power to hold that such association is not complying with the provisions of this law, and shall certify such fact to the Commissioner of Insurance, and said certificate shall be sufficient cause to justify said Commissioner to revoke or forfeit the license or permit of such association to do business in Texas; provided, said power of the board shall not be held to deny the association the right to bring suit or suits to set aside any ruling, order or decision of the board. [Id.]

Sec. 19. [Sec. 1.] If an employee, who has been hired in this State, sustain injury in the course of his employment he shall be entitled to compensation according to the law of this State even though such injury was received outside of the State; and that such employee, though injured out of the State of Texas, shall be entitled to the same rights and remedies as if injured within the state of Texas, except that in such cases of injury outside of Texas, the suit of either the injured employee or his beneficiaries, or of the association, to set aside an award of the Industrial Accident Board of Texas, or to enforce it, as mentioned in Article 8307, Sections 5-5a, shall be brought either a. In the county of Texas where the contract of hiring was made, or

1b. In the county of Texas where such employee or his beneficiaries or any of them reside when the suit is brought, or

c. In the county where the employee or the employer resided when the contract of hiring was made, as the one filing such suit may elect.

Providing that such injury shall have occurred within one year from the date such injured employee leaves this State; and provided further that no recovery can be had by the injured employee hereunder in the event he has elected to pursue his remedy and recovers in the courts of the State where such injury occurred.

[Sec. 2.] That this Amendatory Act shall be effective and be deemed and held to be in effect as of March 28th, 1917, that being the effective date of the Act of 1917, Chapter 103, and that every such suit heretofore filed by either party in a court of Texas, having jurisdiction of the amount involved, to set aside an award of the Industrial Accident Board of Texas where the injury occurred outside of Texas, shall be held and deemed to have been properly filed, and the court to have jurisdiction thereof in the cases mentioned in Section 1 hereof where the injury occurred outside of Texas, if filed in a court of competent jurisdiction as to amount in either of the counties mentioned in Section 1 hereof if the court entertained jurisdiction of such suit; and provided that where any such suit by either party to set aside any such award was dismissed on the ground that the court, because of the injury having occurred outside of Texas, had no jurisdiction thereof then that either party to any proceeding or claim before the Industrial Accident Board of Texas relating to an injury which occurred outside of Texas, shall have six months after this Amendatory Act becomes effective in which to bring suit to set aside any award of said Board heretofore made by it in such cases where the injury occurred outside of Texas, such suit to be brought in the proper county or counties, as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act but provided further that where neither party to any such award made attempt to set the award aside, that such award shall be deemed and held to be in full force and effect. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 383, ch. 259.]

Section 3 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 383, ch. 259, provides that if any section or part thereof is held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remaining provisions.

Article 8307. Industrial Accident Board.—

Sec. 1. The Industrial Accident Board shall consist of three members, one to be biennially appointed by the Governor for a term of six years. Said board shall have the powers, duties and functions herein-after conferred. [Id.]

Sec. 2. At the time of each appointment one member of the Industrial Accident Board shall be an employer of labor in some industry or business covered by this law; one shall be employed in some business industry as a wage earner, and the third member shall be a practicing attorney of recognized ability, and shall act in the capacity of legal adviser to the board, in addition to his other duties as a member thereof, and be chairman of said board. [Id.]

Sec. 3. The board may appoint a secretary at a salary not to exceed $2,700.00 a year, and may appoint such other clerical and other assistants as may be necessary to properly administer this Act. It shall also be allowed a reasonable sum, the amount to be determined by the Legislature, for clerical and other services, office equipment, traveling expenses and all other expenses necessary. The board shall be provided suitable offices in the capitol where its records shall be kept. [Acts 1917, p. 269; Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 4. The board may make rules not inconsistent with this law for carrying out and enforcing its provisions, and may require any employé claiming to have sustained injury to submit himself for examination before such board or someone acting under its authority at some reasonable time and place within the State, and as often as may be reasonably ordered by the board to a physician or physicians authorized to practice under the laws of this State. If the employé or the association requests, he or it shall be entitled to have a physician or physicians of his or its own selection present to participate in such examination. Refusal of the employé to submit to such examination shall deprive him of his right to compensation during the continuance of such refusal. When a right to compensation is thus suspended no compensation shall be payable in respect to the period of suspension. If any employé shall persist in unsanitary or injurious practices which tend to either imperil or retard his recovery, or shall refuse to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is reasonably essential to promote his recovery, the board may in its discretion order or direct the association to reduce or suspend the compensation of any such injured employé. No compensation shall be reduced or suspended under the terms of this section without reasonable notice to the employé and an opportunity to be heard.

The association shall have the privilege of having any injured employé examined by a physician or physicians of its own selection, at reasonable times, at a place or places suitable to the condition of the injured employé and convenient and accessible to him. The association shall pay for such examination and the reasonable expense incident to the injured employé in submitting thereto. The injured employé shall have the privilege to have a physician or physicians of his own selection, at the expense of such injured employé, present to participate in such examination.

Process and procedure shall be as summary as may be under this law. The board or any member thereof shall have power to subpoena witnesses, administer oaths, inquire into matters of fact, and to examine such parts of the books and records of the parties to a proceeding as relate to questions in dispute. All rulings and decisions of the board relating to disputed claims shall be upon questions of fact and in accord with the provisions of this law. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 4a. Unless the association or subscriber have notice of the injury, no proceeding for compensation for injury under this law shall be maintained unless a notice of the injury shall have been given to the association or subscriber within thirty days after the happening thereof, and unless a claim for compensation with respect to such injury shall have been made within six months after the occurrence of same; or, in case of death of the employé or in the event of his physical or mental incapacity, within six months after death or the removal of such physical or mental incapacity. For good cause the board may, in meritorious cases, waive the strict compliance with the foregoing limitations as to notice, and the filing the claim before the board. [Id.]

Sec. 5. All questions arising under this law, if not settled by agreement of the parties interested therein and within the provisions of this law, shall, except as otherwise provided, be determined by the board. Any interested party who is not willing and does not consent to abide by the final ruling and decision of said board shall within twenty days after the rendition of said final ruling and decision by said board file with said board notice that he will not abide by said final ruling and decision. And he shall within twenty days after giving such notice bring suit in the county where the injury occurred to set aside said final ruling and decision and said board shall proceed no further toward the adjustment of such claim, other than as hereinafter provided. Whenever such suit is brought, the rights and liability of the parties thereto shall be determined by the provisions of this law and the suit of the injured employé or person suing on account of the death of such employé shall be against the association if the employer of such injured or deceased employé at the time of such injury or death was a subscriber as defined in this law. If the final order of the board is against the association, then the association and not the employer shall bring suit to set aside said final ruling and decision of the board, if it so desires, and the court shall in either event determine the issues in such cause instead of the board upon trial de novo, and the burden of proof shall be upon the party claiming compensation. In case of recovery the same shall not exceed the maximum compensation allowed under the provisions of this law. If any party to any such final ruling and decision of the board, after having given notice as above provided, fails within said twenty days to institute and prosecute a suit to set the same aside, then said final ruling and decision shall be binding upon all parties thereto, and, if the same is against the association, it shall at once comply with such final ruling and decision, and failing to do so the board shall certify that fact to the Commissioner of Insurance and such certificate shall be sufficient cause to justify said Commissioner to revoke or forfeit the license or permit of such association to do business in Texas. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 328, ch. 223, § 1.]

Sec. 5a. In all cases where the board shall make a final order, ruling or decision as provided in the preceding section and against the association, and the association shall fail and refuse to obey or comply with the same and shall fail or refuse to bring suit to set the same aside as in said section is provided, then in that event, the claimant in addition to the rights and remedies given him and the board in said section may bring suit where the injury occurred, upon said order, ruling or decision. If he secures a judgment sustaining such order, ruling or decision in whole or in part, he shall also be entitled to recover the further sum of twelve per cent as damages upon the amount of compensation so recovered in said judgment, together with a reasonable attorney's fee for the prosecution and collection of such claim.

Where the board has made an award against an association requiring the payment to an injured employé or his beneficiaries of any weekly or monthly payments, under the terms of this law, and such association should thereafter fail or refuse, without justifiable cause, to continue to make said payments promptly as they mature, then the said injured employé or his beneficiaries, in case of his death, shall have the right to mature the entire claim and to institute suit thereon to collect the full amount thereof, together with twelve per cent penalties and attorney's fees, as herein provided for. Suit may be brought under the provisions of this section, either in the county where the accident occurred, or in any county where the claimants reside, or where one or more of such claimants may have his place of residence at the time of the institution of the suit. [Id.]

Sec. 6. If any subscriber to this law with the purpose and intention of avoiding any liability imposed by its terms sublets the whole or any part of the work to be performed or done by said subscriber to any subcontractor, then in the event any employé of such subcontractor sustains an injury in the course of his employment he shall be deemed to be and taken for all purposes of this law to be the employé of the subscriber, and in addition thereto such employé shall have an independent right of action against such subcontractor, which shall in no way be affected by any compensation to be received by him under the provisions of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 6a. Where the injury for which compensation is payable under this law was caused under circumstances creating a legal liability in some person other than the subscriber to pay damages in respect thereof, the employé may at his option proceed either at law against that person to recover damages or against the association for compensation under this law, but not against both, and if he elects to proceed at law against the person other than the subscriber, then he shall not be entitled to compensation under this law. If compensation be claimed under this law by the injured employé or his legal beneficiaries, then the association shall be subrogated to the rights of the injured employé in so far as may be necessary and may enforce in the name of the injured employé or of his legal beneficiaries or in its own name and for the joint use and benefit of said employé or beneficiaries and the association the liability of said other person, and in case the association recovers a sum greater than that paid or assumed by the association to the employé or his legal beneficiaries, together with a reasonable cost of enforcing such liability, which shall be determined by the court trying the case, then out of the sum so recovered the association shall reimburse itself and pay said cost and the excess so recovered shall be paid to the injured employé or his beneficiaries. The association shall not have the right to adjust or compromise such liability against such third person without notice to the injured employé or his beneficiaries and the approval of the board, upon a hearing thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 7. Every subscriber shall hereafter keep a record of all injuries, fatal or otherwise, sustained by his employés in the course of their employment. Within eight days after the occurrence of an accident resulting in an injury to an employé, causing his absence from work for more than one day, a written report thereof shall be made to the board on blanks to be procured from the board for that purpose. Upon the termination of the incapacity of the injured employé, or if such incapacity extends beyond a period of sixty days, the subscriber shall make a supplemental report upon blanks to be procured for that purpose. The said report shall contain the name and nature of the business of the employer, the location of the establishment, the name, age, sex and occupation of the injured employé and the character of work in which he was engaged at the time of the injury, and shall state the date and hour of receiving such injury and the nature and cause of the injury, and such other information as the board may require. Any employer willfully failing or refusing to make any such report within the time herein provided, or willfully failing or refusing to give said board any information demanded by said board relating to any injury to any employé, which information is in the possession of or can be ascertained by the employer by the use of reasonable diligence, shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each and every offense, the same to be recovered in a suit to be instituted and prosecuted in Travis County by the Attorney General or by the district or county attorney under his direction in a district court thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 8. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum to transact business, and the act or decision of any two members thereof shall be held the act or decision of the board, except as otherwise herein specifically provided. No vacancy shall impair the right of the remaining member or members of the board to exercise all the powers of the board. The board shall provide itself with a seal on which shall be inscribed the words "Industrial Accident Board, State of Texas." Any order, award or proceeding of said board when duly attested and sealed by the board or its secretary shall be admissible as evidence of the act of said board in any court in this State. [Id.]

Sec. 9. Upon the written request and payment of the fees therefor, which fees shall be the same as those charged for similar services in the Secretary of State's office, the board shall furnish to any person entitled thereto a certified copy of any order, award, decision or paper on file in the office of said board, and the fees so received for such copies shall be paid into the State Treasury and credited to the general revenue fund. No fee or salary shall be paid to any person in said department for making such copies in excess of the fees charged for such copies. [Id.]

Sec. 10. Said board or any member thereof may hold hearings or take testimony or make investigations at any point within this State, reporting the result thereof, if the same is made by one member, to the board, or it can employ or use the assistance of an inspector or adjuster for the purpose of adjusting and settling claims for compensation or developing the facts relating to any claim for compensation. [Id.]

Sec. 11. When the association suspends or stops payment of compensation, it shall immediately notify the board of that fact, giving the board the name, number and style of the claim, the amount paid thereon, the date of the suspension or stopping of payment thereon, and the reason for such suspension or stopping. [Id.]

Sec. 12. The board upon application of either party may, in its discretion, having regard to the welfare of the employé and the convenience of the association, authorize compensation to be paid monthly or quarterly.

Where the liability of the association or the extent of the injury of the employé is uncertain, indefinite or incapable of being satisfactorily established, the board may approve any compromise, adjustment, settlement or commutation thereof made between the parties. [Id.]

Article 8308. Employers' Insurance Association.—Sec. 1. The "Texas Employers' Insurance Association" is hereby created a body corporate with the powers provided in this law and with all general corporate powers incident thereto. [Id.]

Sec. 2. The Governor shall appoint a board of directors of the association consisting of twelve members, who shall serve for a term of one year or until their successors are elected by ballot by the subscribers at such time and for such term as the by-laws shall provide. At any annual meeting of subscribers the number of directors may be increased or decreased by resolution duly recorded in the minutes of such meeting. [Id.]

Sec. 3. Until the first meeting of the subscribers, the board of directors shall have and exercise all the powers of the subscribers and may adopt by-laws, not inconsistent with the provisions of this law, which shall be in effect until amended or repealed by the subscribers. [Id.]

Sec. 4. The board of directors shall immediately choose by ballot a president, who shall be a member of the board, and shall elect a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officials as the by-laws may provide. [Id.]

Sec. 5. Seven or more directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Vacancies in any office may be filled in such manner as the by-laws shall provide. [Id.]

Sec. 6. The board of directors may appoint an executive committee which may have and exercise all of the powers of the board of directors except when the board is in session. [Id.]

Sec. 7. Any employer of labor in this State may become a subscriber except as provided in Section 2, Part 1, of this law. [Id.]

Sec. 8. In any meeting of the subscribers each subscriber shall have one vote, and if a subscriber has 500 employés to whom the association is bound to pay compensation he shall be entitled to two votes and he shall be entitled to one additional vote for each additional 500 employés to whom the association is bound to pay compensation, but no subscriber shall cast, by his own right or by right of proxy, more than 20 votes. [Id.]

Sec. 9. No policies shall be issued by the association until not less than 50 members have subscribed, who have not less than 2,000 employés to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation. [Id.]

Sec. 10. No policies shall be issued by the association until a list of the subscribers with the number of employés of each, together with such information as the Commissioner of Insurance may require, shall have been filed with the Commissioner, nor until the president and secretary of the association shall have certified under oath that every subscription on the list so filed is genuine and made with an agreement with each subscriber that he will take the policy so subscribed for by him within thirty days of the granting of a license to the association by the Commissioner to issue policies. [Id.]

Sec. 11. If the number of subscribers falls below fifty, or the number of employés to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation falls below 2,000, no further policies shall be issued until other employés have subscribed who, together with existing subscribers, amount to not less than fifty, who have not less than 2,000 employés to whom the association may be bound to pay compensation, said subscriptions to be subject to the provisions of the preceding section. [Id.]

Sec. 12. Upon the filing of the certificates provided for in the two preceding sections, the Commissioner of Insurance shall make such investigations as he may deem proper and, if his findings warrant it, grant a license to the association to issue policies. [Id.]

Sec. 13. The board of directors may distribute the subscribers into groups for the purpose of segregating the experience of each such group as to premiums and losses, and for the purpose of determining dividends payable to and assessments payable by the subscribers within each group, but for the purpose of determining the solvency of the association, the funds of the association shall be deemed one and indivisible. The board of directors shall have power to re-arrange any of the groups by withdrawing any subscriber and transferring him wholly or in part to any group and to set up new groups at its discretion. [Id.]

Sec. 14. The association may, in its by-laws and policies, fix the limit of liability of the subscribers for the payment of assessments hereinafter provided for, but such limit of liability of the subscribers shall not, except by special agreement in writing between the association and subscriber, be fixed at an amount greater than an amount equal to and in addition to an annual premium. [Id.]

Sec. 15. If the association, at the end of any calendar year, is not possessed of admitted assets in excess of unearned premiums sufficient for the payment of its incurred losses and expenses, it shall make an assessment for the amount needed to pay such losses and expenses, first upon the subscribers within each group whose earned premiums compared with its incurred losses and expenses show[s] a deficiency for the group, and second only upon the subscribers within each group whose earned premiums compared with its incurred losses and expenses show[s] a surplus, and in no event shall it make an assessment for any aggregate amount more than is needed to pay losses and expenses. Every subscriber shall, in accordance with the law and his contract, pay his proportionate part of any assessment which may be levied by the association on account of losses and expenses incurred during any calendar year while he is a subscriber. [Id.]

Sec. 16. The board of directors may by vote fix the amount to be paid as dividends on the policies in force during each calendar year after retaining sums sufficient to pay all compensation which may be payable on account of injuries sustained and expenses incurred during the calendar year. Dividends and assessments shall be fixed by and for groups, but the entire assets of the association, including the liability of the subscriber to assessment within the limits fixed by the by-laws or by special agreement in writing as authorized, shall be subject to the payment of any approved claim for compensation against the association. [Id.]

Sec. 16a. Whenever the association shall have accumulated at the end of any calendar year an admitted surplus in excess of incurred losses, expenses and unearned premiums amounting to the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, the liability of its members to assessment shall be suspended during the ensuing calendar year, or for such further period as the association shall maintain unimpaired such surplus of two hundred thousand dollars or more, and the certificate of the Commissioner of Insurance, after an examination, and report, shall be conclusive evidence as to the fact in any proceeding in which the fact may be an issue. [Id.]

Sec. 17. Whenever by reason of having qualified under the preceding section, to issue policies which are not subject to assessment, the association may issue policies which will not entitle the holder to participate in any distribution of surplus. [Id.]

Sec. 18. The association shall make and enforce reasonable rules for the prevention of injuries on the premises of subscribers. For this purpose the inspector of the association or of the board shall have free access to all such premises during regular working hours. Any subscriber aggrieved by such rule or regulation may petition the board for a review and it may affirm, amend or annul the rule or regulation. [Id.]

Sec. 18a. Whenever any employer of labor in this State becomes a subscriber to this law, he shall immediately notify the board of such fact, stating in such notice his name, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employes, estimated amount of his pay roll and the name of the insurance company carrying his insurance, the date of issuing the policy and the date when the same will expire, and whenever any policy is renewed that fact shall be made known to the board and the notice thereof shall contain the above facts. The association shall also report the same to the board, giving the name of the employer, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employes, estimated amount of pay roll, date of issuance and date of expiration of said policy. Any employer or association willfully failing or refusing to make any such report shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each offense, the same to be recovered by suit in Travis County by the Attorney General or by the district or county attorney under his direction in the district court thereof. [Id.]

Sec. 19. Every subscriber shall, as soon as he secures a policy, give notice in writing or print, or in such manner or way as may be directed or approved by the board, to all persons under contract of hire with him that he has provided for payment of compensation for injuries with the association. [Id.]

Sec. 20. Every subscriber shall, after receiving a policy, give notice in writing or print, or in such manner or way as may be directed or approval [approved] by the board to all persons with whom he is about to enter into a contract of hire that he has provided for payment of compensation for injuries by the association. If any employer ceases to be a subscriber, he shall on or before the date on which his policy expires, give notice to that effect in writing or print or in such other manner or way as the board may direct or approve to all persons under contract of hire with him. In case of the renewal of his policy no notice shall be required under this law. He shall file a copy of said notice with the board. [Id.]

Sec. 21. If a subscriber who has complied with all the rules, regulations and demands of the association, is required by any judgment of a court at law, or by any judgment of a court of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction to pay any employe any damages, actual or exemplary, on account of any personal injury sustained by such employe in the course of his employment during the period of subscription, the association shall pay to the subscriber the full amount of the judgment and the cost assessed therewith, if the subscriber shall have given the association notice of the bringing of the action upon which the judgment was recovered and an opportunity to appear and defend the same in his or its name. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 359, ch. 241, § 1.]

Sec. 22. The corporate powers of the association shall not expire because of failure to issue policies or to make insurance. [Id.]

Sec. 23. The association shall set up and maintain reserves adequate to meet anticipated losses, carry all claims to maturity and policies to termination, which reserves shall be computed in accordance with such rules as shall be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance and may be invested in such securities as are permitted to casualty companies organized under the General Laws; and, for the protection of its reserves and surpluses against the liability herein imposed, shall have the same right to reinsure or be reinsured as casualty companies organized under General Laws. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Article 8309. Definitions and general provisions.—Sec. 1. The following words and phrases as used in this law shall, unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, have the following meanings, respectively:

"Employer" shall mean any person, firm, partnership, association of persons or corporations or their legal representatives that makes contracts of hire.

"Employe" shall mean every person in the service of another under any contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, except masters of or seamen on vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce, and except one whose employment is not in the usual course of trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer.

The words "legal beneficiaries" as used in this law shall mean the relatives named in section 8a, part 1, of this law. "Association" shall mean the "Texas Employers' Insurance Association" or other insurance company authorized under this law to insure the payment of compensation to injured employes or to the beneficiaries of deceased employes.

"Subscriber" shall mean any employer who has become a member of the association by paying the required premium; provided that the association holds a license issued by the Commissioner of Insurance, as provided for in section 12, part 3, of this law.

1. If the injured employe shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury, whether for the same employer or not, substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding the injury, his average annual wages shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

2. If the injured employe shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of the year, his average annual wages shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employe of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or in a similar employment in the same or a neighboring place, shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed.

3. When by reason of the shortness of the time of the employment of the employe, or other employe engaged in the same class of work in the manner and for the length of time specified in the above subsections 1 and 2, or other good and sufficient reasons it is impracticable to compute the average weekly wages as above defined, it shall be computed by the board in any manner which may seem just and fair to both parties.

4. Said wages shall include the market value of board, lodging, laundry, fuel, and other advantage which can be estimated in money, which the employé receives from the employer as part of his remuneration. Any sums, however, which the employer has paid to the employé to cover any special expenses entailed on him by the act of his employment shall not be included.

5. The average weekly wages of an employé shall be one-fifty-second part of the average annual wages.

The terms "injury" or "personal injury" shall be construed to mean damage or harm to the physical structure of the body and such diseases or infection as naturally result therefrom.

The term "injury sustained in the course of employment," as used in this law, shall not include:

1. An injury caused by the act of God, unless the employé is at the time engaged in the performance of duties that subject him to a greater hazard from the act of God responsible for the injury than ordinarily applies to the general public.

2. An injury caused by an act of a third person intended to injure the employé because of reasons personal to him and not directed against him as an employé, or because of his employment.

3. An injury received while in a state of intoxication.

4. An injury caused by the employé's willful intention and attempt to injure himself, or to unlawfully injure some other person, but shall include all other injuries of every kind and character having to do with and originating in the work, business, trade or profession of the employer received by an employé while engaged in or about the furtherance of the affairs or business of his employer whether upon the employer's premises or elsewhere.

Any reference to any employé herein who has been injured shall, when the employé is dead, also include the legal beneficiaries, as that term is herein used, of such employé to whom compensation may be payable. The word "board" whenever used in this law shall be held to mean the Industrial Accident Board created by this law. Whenever in this law the singular is used, the plural shall be included; whenever the masculine gender is used, the feminine and neuter shall be included. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 1a. The president, vice-president or vice-presidents, secretary or other officers thereof provided in its charter or by-laws and the directors of any corporation which is a subscriber to this law shall not be deemed or held to be an employé within the meaning of that term as defined in the preceding section hereof, and this notwithstanding they may hold other offices in the corporation and may perform other duties and render other services for which they receive a salary. [Acts 1917, p. 269, Acts 1923, p. 384.]

Sec. 2. Any insurance company, which term shall include mutual and reciprocal companies, lawfully transacting a liability or accident business in this State shall have the same right to insure the liability and pay the compensation provided for in part 1 of this law, and when such company issues a policy conditioned to pay such compensation, the holder of such policy shall be regarded as a subscriber so far as applicable under this law, and when such company insures such payment of compensation it shall be subject to the provisions of parts 1, 2 and 4 and of sections 10, 17, 18a and 21 of part 3 of this law. Such company may have and exercise all of the rights and powers conferred by this law on the association created hereby, but such rights and powers shall not be exercised by a mutual or reciprocal organization unless such organization has at least fifty subscribers who have not less than 2,000 employés. [Acts 1917, p. 269.]

Sec. 3. Any subscriber who has paid a premium as provided in section 1, part 4, of this law may upon application to the board and to the association and after a showing satisfactory to the board that he has notified all of his employés, in such manner as may be required by the board, cease to be a subscriber, and be entitled to a refund of the unearned portion of his premium, subject, however, to any rule approved by the Commissioner of Insurance as to the minimum premiums or short rate cancellation. [Id.]

Sec. 3a. Any subscriber who shall willfully misrepresent the amount of his pay roll to the association

writing his insurance upon which any premium under this law is to be based shall be liable to the association insuring the compensation of his employés in an amount not to exceed ten times the amount of the difference between the premium which he paid and the amount which said subscriber should have paid had his pay roll been correctly computed; and the liability to said association for such misrepresentation if it was deceived thereby, may be enforced by suit therefor. [Id.]

Sec. 3b. No inchoate, vested, matured, existing or other rights, remedies, powers, duties or authority, either of any employé or legal beneficiary, or of the board, or of the association, or of any other person shall be in any way affected by any of the amendments herein made to the original law hereby amended, but all such rights, remedies, powers, duties, and authority shall remain and be in force as under the original law just as if the amendments hereby adopted had never been made, and to that end it is hereby declared that said original law is not repealed, but the same is, and shall remain in full force and effect as to all such rights, remedies, powers, duties and authority; and further this law in so far as it adopts the law of which it is an amendment is a continuation thereof, and only in other respects a new enactment. [Id.]

Sec. 4. In cases of emergency or impending necessity the association may make advance payments of compensation to any employé during the period of his incapacity or to his beneficiaries within the terms of this law, and when the same is either directed or approved by the board it shall be credited as against any unaccrued compensation due said employé or beneficiaries. [Id.]

Sec. 5. The reports of accidents required by this law to be made by subscribers shall not be deemed as admissions and evidence against the association or the subscriber in any proceedings before the board or elsewhere in a contested case where the facts set out therein or in any one of them is sought to be contradicted by the association or subscriber. [Id.]

WRECKS

Chap.

1. Wreck-masters.
2. Cotton salvage.

CHAPTER ONE

WRECK-MASTERS

Art.

8310. Appointment.
8311. Bond and oath.
8312. Duties.
8313. Controlled by commissioners.
8314. To sell property.
8315. To keep a record.
8316. Additional record and reports.
8317. Fees and perquisites.
8318. Duty to prosecute.

Article 8310. [7887] [5365] Appointment
—The Governor shall appoint not more than three persons of good character in each maritime county of the State as wreck-masters for such county. [Acts April 30, 1846, p. 158; G. L. 2, p. 1464.]

Art. 8311. [7888] [5366] Bond and oath.—Each person so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, give a good bond in the sum of five thousand dollars, payable to and to be approved by the county judge of the county for which he is appointed, conditioned that the appointee shall faithfully discharge the duties of his office; which bond shall be deposited with the county clerk of such county. The appointee shall also take the official oath, which oath shall be indorsed on said bond before the same is filed. [Id.]

Art. 8312. [7889] [5367] Duties.—It shall be the duty of each wreck-master so appointed, as soon as he may be apprised of any wreck in his county, or the portion of such county allotted to him, to repair at once to the place where such wreck occurred. If the property so wrecked be found abandoned, to attend to the salving thereof, to use his best endeavors for the preservation of the same and to attend generally to the interests of the owners of such property or whom it may concern. The wreck-master shall have the command and direction of all persons engaged in saving and preserving such property. [Id.]

Art. 8313. [7890] [5368] Controlled by commissioners.—Wreck-masters shall be subject to the control and direction of the commissioners of pilots for the principal ports of their counties, if such there be. In case there are no such officers in such county, then wreck-masters shall be under the control of the county judge of their county. [Id.]

Art. 8314. [7891] [5369] To sell property.—Each wreck-master shall take into his custody and safely keep all wrecked property salvaged by him, or under his direction, or found wrecked and abandoned in his county, or that portion of the county under his supervision and jurisdiction. After the notice required by law, he shall sell the same at public auction for the benefit of the owners or underwriters and the salvers, to all of whom he shall faithfully account. [Id.]

Art. 8315. [7892] [5370] To keep a record.—Each wreck-master shall keep a true account of all property salvaged by him, or under his direction, with the circumstances under which it was salvaged, and the name of each person engaged in salving, the time that each was so employed and other data needful for the proper apportionment of salvage. [Id.]

Art. 8316. [7893] [5371] Additional record and reports.—He shall also keep a true account, in a book to be kept for that purpose of all sales made by him and the proceeds thereof, commissions, expenses, salvage, balance left, and the condition and disposition of the same. Within one month after each sale, and at other times when required, he shall make an abstract report in writing, signed by him, of the matters provided for in this and the preceding article, to the commissioners of pilots or the county judge, as the case may be, and he shall also, when required, report the same, together with all needful information in his possession, to the court or other tribunal before which cases of salvage may be pending. [Id.]

Art. 8317. [7894] [5372] Fees and perquisites.—Wreck-masters shall receive a commission of five per cent upon the amount of all sales made by them, after deducting all expenses, not including salvage, with such reasonable expenses as may be allowed by the authority which may control them, or the court before which the case may come; which expenses may include the wages and mileage of a crier, at a rate to be fixed by such controlling authority. [Id.]

Art. 8318. [7895] [5373] Duty to prosecute.—It shall be the duty of each wreck-master to cause a prosecution of any person who may be guilty of wasting, stealing or embezzling any wrecked property. [Id.]

CHAPTER TWO

COTTON SALVAGE

Art.
8319.	Wrecked cotton advertised.
8320.	Delivered to owner.
8321.	When sold.
8322.	Proceeds.
8323.	County clerk may act.
8324.	Warrant for suspected cotton.

Article 8319. [7896] [5374] Wrecked cotton advertised.—It shall be the duty of the person taking up cotton afloat, abandoned in rivers, or in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico on the coast of this State, or in the bays or bayous thereof, to place the same in a secure place out of the weather, and give early notice by advertisement, or by other means, at the port to which said cotton was destined, if within this State, and, if without the limits of the State, or its destination be unknown to the finder, then at the nearest port of entry in this State to the locality where it may be taken up, of the finding of the same, giving a description of the marks or brands on said cotton, together with the place of finding and the name of the finder. [Act Aug. 30, 1856, p. 76; G. L. vol. 4, p. 494.]

Art. 8320. [7897] [5375] Delivered to owner.—It shall be the duty of the finder or other person having said cotton in his possession, to deliver the same to the owner, insurer or consignee thereof, on demand, upon being paid the expenses of advertisement and five dollars upon each bale so saved and delivered. [Id.]

Art. 8321. [7898] When sold.—If no owner, insurer or consignee of the cotton appear within three months after such advertisement, the person finding shall cause the same to be sold at auction by a legal wreck-master of the county in which said cotton is deposited, at public outcry to the highest bidder. The wreck-master shall, from the proceeds of such sale, pay the necessary expenses attending the storage, advertising and sale of said cotton, and to the finder the salvage of five dollars for each bale as aforesaid. The remainder, less his commissions and other necessary expenses, he shall hold in trust for the benefit of the owner of [or] others concerned. [Id.]

Art. 8322. [7899] [5377] Proceeds.—If at the expiration of one year thereafter, no legal claimant appears therefor, said proceeds shall be paid over by said wreck-master to the treasurer of the county in which the sale took place; and said treasurer shall immediately pay the same over to the State Treasurer who shall pay the same over to the person entitled thereto on proof being made of the right of the claimant in the manner provided for the recovery of money paid into the State treasury by executors or administrators of estates where no heirs, devisees or legatees of the estate appear to claim the fund of the estate on the final settlement thereof. [Id.]

Art. 8323. [7900] [5378] County clerk may act.—If there shall be no wreck-master in the county in which the cotton is deposited, then the county clerk shall perform all the duties required of wreck-masters by the two preceding articles, and such clerk shall receive the same compensation as is allowed to wreck-masters under this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 8324. [7901] [5379] Warrant for suspected cotton.—Upon affidavit being made before any justice of the peace that the affiant has good reason to believe, and does believe, that certain cotton within his county has been so found, or having been found without such county has been brought therein, and that reasonable time has elapsed, and that the finder has neglected to comply with the requirements of the foregoing articles, such justice shall issue his warrant and cause said cotton, or its proceeds, to be seized by a legal officer and delivered to the wreck-master of said county, to be disposed of according to the provisions of this chapter. Be it further enacted:

Sec. 2. Repealing clause.—That all civil statutes of a general nature, in force when the Revised Statutes take effect, and which are not included herein, or which are not hereby expressly continued in force, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. Not ex post facto.—That the repeal of any statute, or any portion thereof, by the preceding section, shall not affect or impair any act done, or right vested or accrued, or any proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced in any cause before such repeal shall take effect; but every such act done, or right vested or accrued, or proceeding, suit or prosecution had or commenced shall remain in full force and effect to all intents or purposes as if such statute, or part thereof so repealed, had remained in force, except that where the course of practice or procedure for the enforcement of such right, or the conducting of such proceeding, suit or prosecution shall be changed, the same shall be conducted as near as may be in accordance with the Revised Statutes. No offense committed and no liability, penalty or forfeiture, either civil or criminal, incurred prior to the time when any statute, or part thereof, shall be repealed or altered by the Revised Statutes, shall be discharged or affected by such repeal or alteration; but prosecutions and suits for such offenses, liabilities, penalties or forfeitures shall be instituted and proceeded with in all respects as if such prior statute, or part thereof, had not been repealed or altered, except that where the mode of procedure or matters of practice have been changed by the Revised Statutes, the procedure had after the Revised Statutes shall have taken effect in such prosecution or suit shall be, as far as practicable, in accordance with the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 4. Validating Acts.—That no general or special law heretofore enacted validating or legalizing the acts or omissions of any officer, or validating any law, act or proceeding whatever, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title; but all validating or legalizing statutes whatsoever now in force in this State are hereby continued in force.

Sec. 5. Public debt.—That no law relating to the public debt or the public credit shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 6. School funds.—That no law relating to the University or public school fund, or to the Agricultural and Mechanical College fund, or the investment of any such funds, or making any reservation in favor of the same, and no law affecting Federal aid for vocational education in this State, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title, except where altered or amended by the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 7. Counties.—That no statute creating, adding to or organizing any county, or establishing any county seat, and no law affecting unorganized or new counties, shall be affected by the repealing clause of this title, or by any law relating to the establishment of county boundaries contained in this Act.

Sec. 8. Courts.—That the laws now in force organizing the several district and other courts, or increasing, diminishing, restoring or defining the jurisdiction of said courts, and prescribing the times of holding said courts, except as herein otherwise provided, are continued in force.

The apportionments acts are included in this compilation under Title 8.

Sec. 9. Public and other lands.—That all laws affecting the issuance of patents under valid land certificates; or fixing a time limit in which to redeem lands sold for taxes; or authorizing suits to contest forfeiture of sale for non-payment of interest on public lands, or affecting the reinstatement of rights after such forfeiture; or conferring a prior right to purchase land surveyed by virtue of a private right, for which a patent cannot issue; or extending oil and gas permits on public lands; or extending the time for payment of principal due on public lands sold in accordance with law; or affecting the title to public and other lands; or authorizing the Land Commissioner, the Governor, or any authorized board, to sell or lease certain lands or water rights; or granting land to cities; or affecting land reservations, or setting apart portions of such reservations for the benefit of actual settlers, are continued in force.

Sec. 10. Public buildings, etc.—That no law providing for the construction or repairing of the public buildings of this State, or providing for the establishment of a central prison system, nor any law establishing or providing for the maintenance of any public institution, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause of this title, unless expressly altered or repealed in some of the preceding articles of the Revised Statutes.

Sec. 11. Public libraries.—That no law giving authority to cities or towns to establish public libraries, or for like purposes, shall be affected or impaired by the repealing clause herein.

Sec. 12. Taxes.—That all laws now in force which donate taxes to, or release the inhabitants from payment of taxes in any city or county or part of a county in this State on account of any calamity; and all laws now in force authorizing the levy of taxes by levee or drainage districts to redeem certificates of indebtedness issued on account of damage from flood, are continued in force.

Sec. 13. Railroads.—That all laws now in force authorizing railroad companies to sell or buy or lease other railroad companies, or to buy, sell or abandon tracks or right of way, or extending the time for constructing main or branch lines; and all laws now in force affecting the State Railroad, are continued in force.

Sec. 14. Public roads.—That all laws providing for the maintenance of public roads in certain counties by a patrol system, are continued in force.

Sec. 15. Pensions.—That all laws granting pensions to soldiers and other persons entitled thereto by reason of service performed in connection with the Mexican War are continued in force.

Sec. 16. World War veterans.—That all laws exempting persons who served in the late world war from payment of fees in public educational institutions in Texas are continued in force.

Sec. 17. Monuments.—That all laws authorizing the erection of monuments are continued in force.

Sec. 18. Appropriations.—That all laws making specific appropriations of public funds are continued in force.

Sec. 19. Special laws.—That all laws, civil or criminal, of a local nature, operating in particular counties, cities or towns, or of a temporary nature operative when these Statutes go into effect, and all laws of a private nature operating on particular persons or corporations, are not affected by the repealing clause of this title.

Sec. 20. Effect of repeal.—That nothing in the repealing clause of this title shall be construed as releasing any person or corporation from any duty enjoined in the limitation or condition imposed by any law that may be repealed by said repealing clause.

Sec. 21. New laws.—That nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal or in anywise affect the validity of any law passed by this legislature in its regular session.

Sec. 22. Validity of Statutes.—That these Revised Statutes when adopted shall be construed to be an Act of the Legislature. No law herein shall be held to be void because its caption, when enacted, was in any way defective.

Sec. 23. Publication of Statutes.—That the Revised Statutes shall not be printed in the pamphlet laws of the thirty-ninth Legislature, but shall be printed, published and distributed at such time and in such manner as may be provided by law.

Sec. 23a. Same.—That the Revised Civil Statutes, the Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas adopted and established by the Thirty-ninth Legislature at its Regular Session, shall, as soon as practicable, be printed and published under the supervision of the Secretary of State and the Board of Control with the assistance of a supervisor as hereinafter provided, in the manner provided for in this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 282, § 1.]

Sec. 23b. Title.—That said Revised Civil Statutes shall be published in two volumes to be entitled "The Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925"; and that said Penal Code and said Code of Criminal Procedure shall be published in one volume to be entitled "Texas Criminal Statutes, 1925". In the publication thereof the head indices and references, titles, chapters, and articles contained and numbered in the acts by which the same were adopted and established shall be retained and published therein, together with a full and accurate index to each of said Codes and said Revised Statutes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 282, § 2.]

Sec. 23c. Omission of repealed articles.—Where any article in said Revised Statutes or Codes has been expressly repealed by the Thirty-ninth Legislature said article shall be omitted from said volume, and in lieu thereof, there shall be inserted a statement to the effect that said article has been repealed, and the page of the session acts containing said repealing statute. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 282, § 3.]

Sec. 23d. Omission of amended articles.—Where any article in said Revised Statutes or Codes shall have been amended and re-enacted by the Thirty-ninth Legislature, said article shall be omitted and the article as amended and re-enacted shall be inserted in lieu thereof, with notes or references showing the date of the Statute by which said article was amended, and the page of the session acts in which said Statute appears. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 282, § 4.]

Sec. 23e. Retention of modified articles.—When any article, chapter, or title of said Revised Statutes or Codes has been modified by an act of said Legislature, but the same is not amended and re-enacted, then said article, chapter, or title shall be retained in said volume, and the act modifying the same shall be inserted immediately after such article, chapter, or title, together with like notes or references, as hereinbefore provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 283, § 5.]

Sec. 23f. Indices.—Full and accurate indices to said Codes and the Revised Statutes shall be attached to each of said Codes and to the Revised Statutes respectively. The supervisor to be appointed shall have authority to correct evident typographical errors and inaccuracies found in said Revised Statutes and Codes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 283, § 6.]

Sec. 23g. Reviser.—The Governor shall appoint a lawyer of experience and ability who shall prepare said volumes for publication as directed in this Act, under the direction of the Secretary of State, and who shall read and revise the proof of the said Statutes, Codes and indices, and other matters included in said volumes, and shall receive for his services the same compensation as was allowed the commissioners who revised the Codes and Statutes, to-wit, five hundred dollars per month, for the time he is actually engaged in the duties required of him, the same to be paid upon the certificate of the Comptroller out of the amount appropriated for printing the Revised Statutes and Codes, and said codifier is authorized to employ one assistant such assistant to be paid on the certificate of the Comptroller out of the same fund, an amount not exceeding one hundred and fifty dollars per month and the total to be expended under this section shall not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 283, § 7.]

Sec. 23h. Printing.—The Statutes and Codes shall be printed on the good quality of book paper, in size of page and style and type corresponding with the printed bill adopting the Revised Statutes of Texas of 1925. There shall be printed eight thousand copies of each of said volumes of said Civil and Criminal Codes. The binding shall be of the best style and workmanship and in law buckram of the best quality, and the title page of each volume shall recite and show that it is published by authority of the State of Texas, and each shall be authenticated by the certificate of the Secretary of State annexed thereto, as other laws when published are required to be certified; and said State Board of Control shall require said edition to be electrotyped and shall secure and preserve the plates as the property of the State, same to be delivered to the Secretary of State. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 283, § 8.]

Sec. 23i. Printing contract.—The Board of Control shall immediately after the passage of this Act advertise for thirty days in three daily newspapers in this State for sealed proposals for printing, binding and electrotyping the laws as aforesaid, and shall on the day fixed in the advertisement, in the presence of such persons as desire to be present proceed to open the proposals and award the contract to the best and lowest bidder, which proposal shall state the price per volume at which the bidder proposes to electrotype, print, bind and furnish under the superintendence and direction of the said board the laws and electrotype plates, as herein provided, and no bid or proposal shall be considered that is not accompanied by a guarantee of two or more sufficient sureties that if the contract should be awarded to the bidder he will execute the necessary bond for the performance of the work in the manner and style provided in this Act; and the person or persons to whom such contract is awarded shall within ten days after receiving notice thereof, execute a bond to the State of Texas in the sum of such amount as may be fixed by the Board of Control, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the board, conditioned for the faithful performance of the work in the manner and style therein prescribed and according to the provisions of this Act, and for the delivery of said volumes and plates to the Secretary of State on or before the first day of September, 1925; said volumes may be received, for an earlier distribution, in numbers of a thousand at a time, as the work progresses; and the right shall be reserved by the board to reject any and all bids and proposals if in their judgment the terms proposed are not favorable to the State. Upon the delivery by the contractor of the volumes and plates aforesaid to the Secretary of State, executed according to the terms of the contract and accepted by the board, the amount due therefor shall be audited, allowed, and paid as provided by law in cases of other public printing, and the statutes in force in relation to public printing shall be applicable to the contract under this Act in all matters not herein otherwise provided. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 283, § 9.]

Sec. 23j. Copies for officials.—The Secretary of State shall furnish one copy of each volume to each member of the Legislature including the Lieutenant Governor and to each county judge in the State and shall in addition thereto furnish each county judge of the State a sufficient number of each of said volumes to supply each elective county and precinct officer, with one copy of each of said volumes and the Secretary of State shall furnish one copy of each volume[s] to each of the judges of the Supreme Court, the Courts of Civil and Criminal Appeals, to each district judge, to each district attorney, and each executive at the seat of government and four copies to the librarian of the State Library. In forwarding said copies the Secretary of State shall regard only those officers who have secured their certificate of election as officers, where certificates are required, entitled to receive said copies. After the officials hereinbefore enumerated have been supplied, single copies may be sold by the Secretary of State for the same price which the State pays the contracting printer, plus expense of handling and postage, such sales to be made to persons who desire them for their own use and the proceeds of such sales shall be paid the State Treasurer and the Secretary of State shall report such sales in his biennial report. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 284, § 10.]

Sec. 23k. Reprint.—The Board of Control shall contract for the printing of eight thousand copies each of the Civil and Criminal Statutes and may from time to time, if the demand shall make it necessary, at the request of the Secretary of State, cause such additional volumes to be printed as may be required to supply such demand. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 284, § 11.]

Sec. 23l. Appropriation.—Sixty thousand dollars, or so much of that sum as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 285, § 12.]

Sec. 23m. Emergency clause.—The necessity for the publication of the Revised Statutes and the Penal Code and Code of Criminal Procedure of the State of Texas in as complete a form as possible, and their early distribution among the people, creates an imperative public necessity and emergency that the rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 104, p. 285, § 13.]

Sec. 24. Date effective.—That these Revised Statutes shall take effect and be in force at twelve o'clock, meridian, on the first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

Sec. 25. Reading Act.—The importance and great length of this Act, the fact that it is impossible to read the same on any one day or on any three consecutive days, the length of time required for its publication, and the near approach of the end of the present session of the Legislature, create an imperative public necessity requiring that the constitutional rule which requires that bills be read on three several days in each house be and the same is hereby suspended.

RECORD OF ENACTMENT

The enrolled bill (Revised Civil Statutes 1925) on file in the office of the Secretary of State shows that the foregoing act passed the Senate finally January 27, 1925 (no vote given).

Passed the House March 18th, 1925 (no vote given).

Approved by the Governor April 1, 1925.

A BILL to be entitled "AN ACT to Adopt and Establish a 'PENAL CODE' and a 'CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE' for the State of Texas."

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. The following Titles, Chapters and Articles are hereby adopted and shall hereafter constitute and be known as the PENAL CODE of the State of Texas :

THE PENAL CODE

TITLE 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Chap.

1. General objects, principles, and rules of interpretation.
2. Definitions.
3. Persons punishable, and circumstances which excuse, extenuate or aggravate an offense.

CHAPTER ONE

GENERAL OBJECTS, PRINCIPLES, AND RULES OF INTERPRETATION

Art.

1. Design of the Code.
2. Object of punishment.
3. Penalties must be affixed by written law.
4. Common law rule of construction.
5. Special provisions control general.
6. Unintelligible law not operative.
7. General rule of construction.
8. Words, how understood.
9. Innocence presumed.
10. No offense against a law not in force.
11. When laws take effect.
12. Ignorance no excuse.
13. Modification by subsequent law.
14. Repeal, effect of.
15. When new penalty is substituted.
16. Change of definition.
17. Previous offense not affected.
18. No cumulative penalties.

Article 1. [1] Design of the Code.—The design of enacting this Code is to define in plain language every offense against the laws of this State, and affix to each offense its proper punishment.

Art. 2. [2] Object of punishment.—The object of punishment is to suppress crime and reform the offender.

Art. 3. [3] Penalties must be affixed by written law.—In order that the system of penal law in force in this State may be complete within itself, and that no system of foreign laws, written or unwritten, may be appealed to, it is declared that no person shall be punished for any act or omission, unless the same is made a penal offense, and a penalty is affixed thereto by the written law of this State.

Art. 4. [4] Common law rule of construction.—The principles of the common law shall be the rule of construction when not in conflict with this Code or the Code of Criminal Procedure, or with some other written statute of this State. [Act Feb. 12, 1884.]

Art. 5. [5] Special provisions control general.—Each general provision shall be controlled by a special provision on the same subject, if there be a conflict.

Art. 6. [6] Unintelligible law not operative.—Whenever it appears that a provision of the penal law is so indefinitely framed or of such doubtful construction that it can not be understood, either from the language in which it is expressed, or from some other written law of the State, such penal law shall be regarded as wholly inoperative.

Art. 7. [9] General rule of construction.—This Code and every other law upon the subject of crime which may be enacted shall be construed according to the plain import of the language in which it is written, without regard to the distinction usually made between the construction of penal laws and laws upon other subjects; and no person shall be punished for an offense which is not made penal by the plain import of the words of a law.

Art. 8. [10] Words, how understood.—Words which have their meaning specially defined shall be understood in that sense, though it be contrary to their usual meaning; and all words used in this Code, except where a word, term or phrase is specially defined, are to be taken and construed in the sense in which they are understood in common language, taking into consideration the context and subject matter relative to which they are employed.

Art. 9. [11] Innocence presumed.—Every person accused of an offense shall be presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

Art. 10. [12] No offense against a law not in force.—No act or omission can be punished as an offense unless the law making it penal was in force at the time when such act or omission took place.

Art. 11. [13] When laws take effect.—No law defining an offense, or affixing a penalty thereto, shall take effect until after the expiration of ninety days from the day of the adjournment of the session at which such law was enacted, unless the Legislature shall otherwise determine.

Art. 12. [14] Ignorance no excuse.—After a law has taken effect, no person shall be excused for its violation upon the ground that he was ignorant of its provisions.

Art. 13. [15] Effect of modification by subsequent law.—When the penalty for an offense is prescribed by one law and altered by a subsequent law, the penalty of such second law shall not be inflicted for an offense committed before the second shall have taken effect. In every case the accused shall be tried under the law in force when the offense was committed, and if convicted punished under that law; except that when by the provisions of the second law the punishment is ameliorated he shall be punished under the second unless he elect to receive the penalty prescribed by the law in force when the offense was committed.

Art. 14. [16] Repeal, effect of.—The repeal of a law where the repealing statute substitutes no other penalty will exempt from punishment all persons who may have violated such repealed law, unless it be otherwise declared in the repealing statute.

Art. 15. [17] When new penalty is substituted.—When by the provisions of a repealing statute a new penalty is substituted for an offense punishable under the law repealed, such repealing statute shall not exempt from punishment a person who has offended against the repealing [repealed] law while it was in force, but in such case the rule prescribed in article 13 shall govern.

Art. 16. [18] Change of definition.—If an offense be defined by one law and by a subsequent law the definition of the offense is changed, no such change shall take effect as to the offenses already committed; but one accused of violating the first law shall be tried under that law.

Art. 17. [19] Previous offenses not affected.—No offense committed and no fine, forfeiture or penalty incurred under existing laws previous to the time, when this Code takes effect shall be effected [affected] by the repeal herein of any such laws, but the punishment of such offense and the recovery of such fines and forfeitures shall take place as if the law repealed had remained in force, except that when any penalty, forfeiture or punishment shall have been mitigated by any provision of this Code, such provision shall control any judgment to be pronounced after this Code shall take effect for any offense committed before that time, unless the defendant elect to be punished under the repeal law.

Art. 18. [20] No cumulative penalties.—No penalty affixed to an offense by one law shall be cumulative of penalties under a former law, and where a new penalty is prescribed for an offense, the penalty of the first law shall be considered as repealed, unless the contrary be expressly provided in the law last enacted.

CHAPTER TWO

DEFINITIONS

Art.

19. Definition of terms.
20. Masculine includes feminine.
21. Singular includes plural.
22. "Person."
23. "Accused" and "Defendant."
24. "Criminal action."
25. "Convict."
26. "Criminal process."
27. "Writing" and "Oath."
28. "Signature" defined.

Article 19. [21] Definition of terms.—The terms "whoever", "any person", "any one", and the pronouns "he" and "they" as referring to these terms, include females as well as males, unless there is some express declaration to the contrary. The word "man" imports a male person of any age, and "woman" a female person of any age.

Art. 20. [22] Masculine includes feminine.—The use of any word expressive of relationship, state, condition, office or trust of any person, as of "parent", "child", "ascendant", "descendant", "minor", "infant", "ward", "guardian", or the like, or of the pronouns "he" or "they" in reference thereto, includes both males and females. Words used in the masculine gender include the feminine also, unless it appears that such was not the intent.

Art. 21. [23] Singular includes plural.—The use of the singular number includes the plural and the plural the singular.

Art. 22. [24] "Person."—Whenever any property or interest is intended to be protected by this Code, and the term "person" or any other general term is used to designate the party whose property it is intended to protect, the protection given shall extend to the property of the State, and of all public or private corporations.

Art. 23. [25] "Accused" and "defendant."—The word "accused" is intended to refer to any person who, in a legal manner, is held to answer for an offense, at any stage of the proceeding, or against whom complaint in a lawful manner is made charging an offense, including all proceedings from the order for arrest to the final execution of the law. The word "defendant" is used in the same sense.

Art. 24. [26] "Criminal action."—A "criminal action" means the whole or any part of the procedure which the law provides for bringing offenders to justice; and the terms "prosecution" and "accusation" are used in the same sense.

Art. 25. [27] "Convict."—An accused is termed a "convict" after the judgment of conviction against him has become final.

Art. 26. [28] "Criminal process."—The term "criminal process" is intended to signify any capias, warrant, citation, attachment, or any other written order issued in a criminal proceeding, whether the same be to arrest, commit, collect money, or for whatever purpose used.

Art. 27. [30] "Writing" and "oath."—The word "writing" includes printing; the word "oath" includes affirmation.

Art. 28. [31] "Signature" defined.—The word "signature" includes the mark of a person unable to write his name.

CHAPTER THREE

PERSONS PUNISHABLE, AND THE CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH EXCUSE, EXTENUATE, OR AGGRAVATE AN OFFENSE

Art.

29. Persons punishable.
30. Children not punishable.
31. One under 17 not punishable capitally.
32. Offenses by married women.
33. Instigated offense.
34. Insanity.
35. Proof of insanity.
36. Intoxication as a defense.
37. Officer justified.
38. Duress.
39. Accident.
40. Mistake of law.
41. Mistake of fact.
42. Act done by mistake a felony.
43. Act done by mistake a misdemeanor.
44. Felony done by mistake.
45. Intention presumed.
46. Burden of proof on defendant.

Article 29. [32] Persons punishable.—With the exceptions stated in this chapter, all persons whether inhabitants of this State or the United States or aliens are amenable to punishment for offenses punishable under this Code.

Art. 30. [34] Children not punishable.—No person shall be convicted of any offense committed before he was nine years old except perjury, and for that only when it shall appear by proof that he had sufficient discretion to understand the nature and obligation of an oath; nor of any other offense committed between the age of nine and thirteen, unless it shall appear by proof that he had discretion sufficient to understand the nature and illegality of the act constituting the offense.

Art. 31. [35] One under 17 not punishable capitally.—A person for an offense committed before he arrived at the age of seventeen years shall in no case be punished with death.

Art. 32. [36] Offenses by married women.—A married woman who commits an offense by the command or persuasion of her husband shall in no case be punished with death, but may be imprisoned for life or for a term of years, according to the nature of the crime; and in cases not capital she shall receive only one-half the punishment to which she would otherwise be liable.

Art. 33. [37] Instigated offense.—If it appears that a minor was instigated or aided in the commission of an offense by a relation in the ascending line or by his guardian, or an apprentice under age by his master, or a wife by her husband, such relation, guardian, master or husband shall, at the discretion of the jury, in capital cases be punished by death, and in other cases the punishment shall be doubled.

Art. 34. [39] Insanity.—No act done in a state of insanity can be punished as an offense. No person who becomes insane after he committed an offense shall be tried for the same while in such condition. No person who becomes insane after he is found guilty shall be punished while in such condition.

Art. 35. [40] Proof of insanity.—The rules of evidence known to the common law as to the proof of insanity shall be observed in all trials where that question is an issue.

Art. 36. [41] Intoxication as a defense.—Neither intoxication nor temporary insanity of mind produced by the voluntary recent use of ardent spirits shall constitute any excuse for the commission of crime. Evidence of temporary insanity produced by such use of ardent spirits may be introduced by the defendant in mitigation of the penalty attached to the offense for which he is being tried. When temporary insanity is relied upon as a defense and the evidence tends to show that such insanity was brought about by the immoderate use of intoxicating liquor, the judge shall charge the jury in accordance with the provisions of this article. [Acts 1881, p. 9.]

Art. 37. [42 and 43] Officer justified.—A person in the lawful execution of a written process or verbal order from a court or magistrate is justified for any act done in obedience thereto. A peace officer is in like manner justified for any act which he is bound by law to perform without warrant or verbal order.

Art. 38. [44] Duress.—A person forced by threats or actual violence to do an act is not liable to punishment for the same. Such threats, however, must be—

1. Loss of life or personal injury.
2. Such as are calculated to intimidate a person of ordinary firmness.
3. The act must be done when the person threatening is actually present.

The violence must be such actual force as restrains the person from escaping, or such ill-treatment as is calculated to render him incapable of resistance.

Art. 39. [45] Accident.—No act done by accident is an offense, except in certain cases specially provided for where there has been a degree of carelessness or negligence which the law regards as criminal.

Art. 40. [46] Mistake of law.—No mistake of law excuses one committing an offense.

Art. 41. [47] Mistake of fact.—If a person laboring under a mistake as to a particular fact shall do an act which would otherwise be criminal he is guilty of no offense, but the mistake of fact which will excuse must be such that the person so acting under a mistake would have been excusable had his conjecture as to the fact been correct, and it must also be such mistake as does not arise from a want of proper care on the part of the person so acting.

Art. 42. [48] Act done by mistake a felony.—One intending to commit a felony and who in the act of preparing for or executing the same shall through mistake or accident do another act which, if voluntarily done, would be a felony, shall receive the punishment affixed to the felony actually committed.

Art. 43. [49] Act done by mistake or misdemeanor.—One intending to commit a felony and who in the act of preparing for or executing the same shall through mistake or accident do another act which, if voluntarily done would be a misdemeanor, shall receive the highest punishment affixed to such misdemeanor.

Art. 44. [50] Felony done by mistake.—One intending to commit a misdemeanor and who in the act of preparing for or executing the same shall through mistake commit a felony shall receive the lowest punishment affixed to the felony.

Art. 45. [51] Intention presumed.—The intention to commit an offense is presumed whenever the means used is such as would ordinarily result in the commission of the forbidden act.

Art. 46. [52] Burden of proof on defendant.—When the facts have been proved which constitute the offense, it devolves upon the accused to establish the facts or circumstances on which he relies to excuse or justify the prohibited act or omission.

OFFENSES AND PUNISHMENTS

Chap.

1. Definition and division of offenses.
2. Punishments in general.

CHAPTER ONE

DEFINITION AND DIVISION OF OFFENSES

Article 47. [53–58] Offenses.—An offense is an act or omission forbidden by positive law, and to which is annexed, on conviction, any punishment prescribed in this Code. An offense which may—not must—be punishable by death or by confinement in the penitentiary is a felony; every other offense is a misdemeanor. Felonies are either capital or not capital. An offense for which the highest penalty is death is a capital felony. Offenses are divided into felonies and misdemeanors.

CHAPTER TWO

PUNISHMENTS IN GENERAL

Art.

48. Punishments.
49. Continuous offense suppressed.
50. No forfeiture in capital case.
51. No forfeiture in any case.
52. "Political rights" defined.
53. Doubling punishment.
54. Doubling penalty in misdemeanor.
55. Doubling alternative punishment.
56. Increase of penalty one-half.
57. Decrease of punishment one-half.
58. Diminution of punishment.
59. Exceptions to rules.
60. Officer to be removed.
61. Second and subsequent conviction for misdemeanor.
62. Subsequent conviction for felony.
63. Third conviction for felony.
64. Second conviction for capital offense.

Article 48. [59] Punishments.—The punishments incurred for offenses under this Code are—

1. Death.
2. Imprisonment in the penitentiary.
3. Imprisonment in jail. "Jail" means the county jail.
4. Pecuniary fines. "Not exceeding" means in any sum not to exceed the amount stated.
5. Forfeiture of civil or political rights.
6. Imprisonment in training schools and similar institutions.

Art. 49. [60] Continuous offense suppressed.—When an offense of which a person is convicted is in its nature continuous, there shall also be a judgment for its suppression.

Art. 50. [61] No forfeiture in capital case.—When a convict is executed or imprisoned for life, there shall be no forfeiture of any kind to the State, nor shall any cost of the prosecution be collected from his estate.

Art. 51. [62] No forfeiture in any case.—When a convict is imprisoned in the penitentiary, his property shall be controlled as directed by law; but there shall in no criminal case be a forfeiture of property of any kind to the State.

Art. 52. [63] "Political rights" defined.—When the penalty is deprivation of political rights, such rights are intended to include the rights of holding office, of serving on juries, and of suffrage.

Art. 53. [64] Doubling punishment.—When a minimum or maximum punishment is fixed, and by reason of any circumstance the law directs that the punishment be doubled, it shall be taken to mean that not less than double the smallest nor more than double the greatest punishment shall be inflicted.

Art. 54. [65] Doubling penalty in misdemeanor.—If fine and imprisonment are to be incurred, and punishment is doubled, then not less than double the smallest and not more than double the largest fine and not more than double the longest nor less than double the smallest period of imprisonment shall be given.

Art. 55. [66] Doubling alternative punishment.—When the punishment is either fine or imprisonment and the punishment is to be doubled, then the penalty is not less than double the smallest nor more than double the largest fine, or less than double the shortest nor more than double the longest period of imprisonment. This rule applies where there may be more than two kinds of punishment prescribed as alternatives.

Art. 56. [67] Increase of penalty one-half.—When the law directs that the punishment shall be increased one-half, it means that besides the ordinary penalty such additional punishment may be assessed as shall not be less than one-half the penalty in ordinary cases, and all the rules before prescribed as to alternative punishments are applicable where the penalty is to be so increased.

Art. 57. [68] Decrease of punishment one-half.—When it is provided that the punishment shall be diminished one-half, it means one-half of the penalty fixed under ordinary circumstances, and so with regard to any other proportion in which the penalty is to be diminished.

Art. 58. [69] Diminution of punishment.—In diminution of punishments, the same rule as to two or more penalties or as to alternative penalties shall apply as governs the increase of punishment.

Art. 59. [70] Exceptions to rules.—The rules as to increase or diminution of punishment have no application to capital cases, nor to any case where the penalty is total deprivation of civil or political rights.

Art. 60. [73] Officer to be removed.—When an offense is committed by an officer, and the same appears to the jury to be a wilful violation of duty, they shall so find, and such officer shall be removed from office.

Art. 61. [1618] [1014] [818] Second and subsequent conviction for misdemeanor.—If it be shown on the trial of a misdemeanor that the defendant has been once before convicted of the same offense, he shall on a second conviction receive double the punishment prescribed for such offense in ordinary cases, and upon a third or any subsequent conviction for the same offense, the punishment shall be increased so as not to exceed four times the penalty in ordinary cases.

Art. 62. [1619] [1015] [819] Subsequent conviction for felony.—If it be shown on the trial of a felony less than capital that the defendant has been before convicted of the same offense, or one of the same nature, the punishment on such second or other subsequent conviction shall be the highest which is affixed to the commission of such offenses in ordinary cases.

Art. 63. [1620] [1016] [820] Third conviction for felony.—Whoever shall have been three times convicted of a felony less than capital shall on such third conviction be imprisoned for life in the penitentiary.

Art. 64. [1621] [1017] [821] Second conviction for capital offense.—A person convicted a second time of any offense to which the penalty of death is affixed as an alternate punishment shall not receive on such second conviction a less punishment than imprisonment for life in the penitentiary.

TITLE 3

PRINCIPALS, ACCOMPLICES AND ACCESSORIES

Chap.

1. Principals.
2. Accomplices.
3. Accessories.
4. Trial of accomplices and accessories.

CHAPTER ONE

PRINCIPALS

Art.

65. Acting together.
66. Encouraging.
67. Aiding.
68. Indirect means.
69. Presence.

Article 65. [74] Acting together.—All persons are principals who are guilty of acting together in the commission of an offense.

Art. 66. [75] Encouraging.—When an offense is actually committed by one or more persons, but others are present, and knowing the unlawful intent, aid by acts or encourage by words or gestures, those actually engaged in the commission of the unlawful act, or who, not being actually present, keep watch so as to prevent the interruption of those engaged in committing the offense, such persons so aiding, encouraging or keeping watch are principal offenders.

Art. 67. [76] Aiding.—All persons who shall engage in procuring aid, arms or means of any kind to assist in the commission of an offense, while others are executing the unlawful act, and all persons who endeavor at the time of the commission of the offense to secure the safety or concealment of the offenders are principals.

Art. 68. [77] Indirect means.—If any one by employing a child or other person who cannot be punished to commit an offense, or by any means, such as laying poison where it may be taken and with intent that it shall be taken, or by preparing any other means by which a person may injure himself and with intent that such person shall thereby be injured, or by any other indirect means cause another to receive injury to his person or property, the offender by the use of such indirect means becomes a principal.

Art. 69. [78] Presence.—Any person who advises or agrees to the commission of an offense and who is present when the same is committed is a principal whether he aid or not in the illegal act.

CHAPTER TWO

ACCOMPLICES

Art.

70. Who is an accomplice.
71. Precise offense need not be committed.
72. Punishment of accomplice.
73. When different offense is committed.
74. When principal is under 17.
75. In instigated felony.
76. No accomplice in certain cases.

Article 70. [79] Who is an accomplice.—An accomplice is one who is not present at the commission of an offense, but who, before the act is done, advises, commands or encourages another to commit the offense; or

Who agrees with the principal offender to aid him in committing the offense, though he may not have given such aid; or,

Who promises any reward, favor or other inducement, or threatens any injury in order to procure the commission of the offense; or,

Who prepares arms or aid of any kind, prior to the commission of an offense, for the purpose of assisting the principal in the execution of the same.

Art. 71. [80] Precise offense need not be committed.—To render a person guilty as an accomplice, it is not necessary that the precise offense which he may have advised, or to the execution of which he may have given encouragement or promised assistance, should be committed; it is sufficient that the offense be of the same nature, though different in degree, as that which he so advised or encouraged.

Art. 72. [81] Punishment of accomplice.—Accomplices shall, in all cases not otherwise expressly provided for, be punished in the same manner as the principal offender.

Art. 73. [82] When different offense is committed.—If in the attempt to commit one offense the principal shall by mistake or accident commit some other under the circumstances set out in article 42, 43 and 44, the accomplice to the offense originally intended shall, if both offenses are felonies, receive the punishment affixed to the lower; but if the offense designed be a misdemeanor he shall receive the highest punishment affixed to such misdemeanor, whether the offense actually committed be a felony or a misdemeanor.

Art. 74. [83] When principal is under 17.—If the principal in an offense less than capital be under the age of seventeen, the punishment of an accomplice shall be increased so as not to exceed double the penalty affixed in ordinary cases.

Art. 75. [84] In instigated felony.—If the accomplice stands in the relation of parent, master, guardian or husband to the principal, he shall in all cases receive the highest punishment affixed to the offense, and the same may in felonies not capital be increased to double the highest penalty affixed to ordinary cases.

Art. 76. [85] No accomplice in certain cases.—There may be accomplices to all offenses except manslaughter and negligent homicide.

CHAPTER THREE

ACCESSORIES

Art.

77. Who is an accessory.
78. Who cannot be accessories.
79. Punishment of accessory.

Article 77. [86] Who is an accessory.—An accessory is one who, knowing that an offense has been committed, conceals the offender, or gives him any other aid in order that he may evade an arrest or trial or the execution of his sentence. One who aids an offender in making or preparing his defense at law, or procures him to be bailed though he afterwards escape, is not an accessory.

Art. 78. [87] Who cannot be accessories.—The following cannot be accessories; The husband or wife of the offender, his brothers and sisters, his relations in the ascending or descending line by consanguinity or affinity, or his domestic servants.

Art. 79. [88] Punishment of accessory.—Accessories shall be punished by the infliction of the lowest penalty to which the principal would be liable.

CHAPTER FOUR

TRIAL OF ACCOMPLICES AND ACCESSORIES

Art.

80. Accomplice may be tried before principal.
81. When accessory may be tried.
82. Parties to offense as witnesses.

Article 80. [89] Accomplice may be tried before principal.—An accomplice may be tried and punished before the conviction of the principal, and the acquittal of the principal shall not bar the prosecution against the accomplice, but on the trial of an accomplice the evidence must be such as would have convicted the principal.

Art. 81. [90] When accessory may be tried.—An accessory may in like manner be tried and punished before the principal when the latter has escaped; but if the principal is arrested he shall be first tried, and if acquitted, the accessory shall be discharged.

Art. 82. [91] Parties to offense as witnesses.—Persons charged as principals, accomplices or accessories, whether in the same or by different indictments, cannot be introduced as witnesses for one another, but they may claim a severance, and if one or more be acquitted they may testify in behalf of the others.

CHAPTER ONE

TREASON AND MISPRISION OF TREASON

Art.

83. "Treason" defined.
84. Punishment for treason.
85. "Misprision of treason" defined.

Article 83. [92] "Treason" defined.—Treason against the State shall consist only in levying war against it, or adhering to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort. [Const. Art. 1, Sec. 22, P. C. 231.]

Art. 84. [93] Punishment for treason.—If any citizen of this State shall be guilty of treason he shall suffer death or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life. [P. C. 232.]

Art. 85. [94] [95] "Misprision of treason" defined.—Whoever shall know that any person has committed treason or is intending to do so, and shall not within five days from the time of his having come to such knowledge give information of the same to the Governor or to some magistrate or peace officer of the State shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [P. C. 233, Acts 1858, p. 157.]

CHAPTER TWO

MISAPPLICATION OF PUBLIC MONEY

Art.

86. Protection of public money.
87. "Misapplication of public money."
88. Exceptions.
89. Diversion of donated State taxes.
90. Diversion of seawall money.
91. Receiving or concealing misapplied public money.
92. "Officer of the Government" defined.
93. State Treasurer receiving private funds.
94. Diverting special funds.
95. Misapplication of county or city funds.
96. Receiving or concealing.
97. Misapplication of school funds.
98. Officer failing to pay over public money.
99. Venue.
100. Collector failing to pay.
101. Collector failing to report.
102. Remitting fees, etc.
103. Unlawfully issuing process.
104. Regulating fees of officers.
105. Report of fees collected.
106. Disposition of fees not called for.
107. Penalty for three preceding articles.

Article 86. [96] Protection of public money.—If any officer of the government who is by law a receiver or depository of public money, or any clerk or other person employed about the office of such officer, shall fraudulently take, misapply or convert to his own use, any part of such public money, or secrete the same with intent to take, misapply or convert it to his own use, or shall pay or deliver the same to any person knowing that he is not entitled to receive it, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [P. C. 235, Acts 1858, p. 158.]

Art. 87. [97] "Misapplication of public money."—Within the term "misapplication of public money" are included the following acts:

1. The use of any public money in the hands of any officer of the government for any purpose whatsoever, save that of transmitting or transporting the same to the seat of government and its payment into the treasury;

2. The exchange of one character of public funds for those of another. The purchase of bank checks or post-office orders for transmission to the treasury is not included in this class;

3. The deposit by an officer of the government of public money at any other place than the treasury of the State when the treasury is accessible and open for business, or permitting the same to remain on deposit at such forbidden place after the treasury is so open;

4. The purchase of State warrants or other evidence of State indebtedness by any officer of the government with public money in his hands;

5. The special enumeration above set forth shall not be understood to exclude any case which, by fair construction, comes within the meaning of the preceding language. This article shall not be construed to prevent collectors of taxes from paying warrants drawn by the Comptroller in favor of officers living in their district or county as may be provided by law. [Acts 1879, p. 165.]

Art. 88. [100] Exceptions.—Nothing in the two preceding articles shall apply to the sale or exchange of one kind of money for another by the financial officers of this State, when done in accordance with law.

Art. 89. Diversion of donated State taxes.—All money donated by law out of the taxes collected for the State on account of calamity or for protection to either of the cities of Galveston, Aransas Pass, Rockport, Port Lavaca, Freeport and Corpus Christi, are declared to be trust funds for the purpose of aiding each of said cities in paying the interest and sinking fund upon the issue of bonds authorized by the law donating such tax money, and the provisions of the Revised Civil Statutes making such donations are made a part of this article, and the use or diversion of such moneys for any purpose other than that provided for by law is hereby prohibited, provided that whenever the money in the hands of the city treasurer received from the State under the law donating such tax money, or under any law in effect, shall exceed the sum of one year's interest and two per cent sinking fund on the bonds herein referred to that have been issued and are outstanding, such excess shall be invested by each of said cities so situated in the purchase of said bonds, or bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or the bonds of any county, city or town of this State, bearing interest at the rate of not less than four per cent per annum. The entire sinking fund, when received by the city treasurer shall be invested by the municipal authorities of said city as received, in the bonds herein referred to, or bonds of the United States, the State of Texas, or the bonds of any county, city or town of this State, bearing interest at a rate of not less than four per cent per annum. A violation of any provision of this article shall constitute a misapplication of public money, and the person so offending shall be punished as provided in article 86.

Art. 90. Diversion of seawall money.—All funds, revenues and moneys derived from the sale of the bonds authorized by law to pay the indebtedness incurred in establishing, locating, erecting, constructing, extending, strengthening, maintaining or keeping in repair or otherwise improving any seawall or breakwater, and to improve, maintain and beautify any boulevard erected in connection therewith, and all funds, revenues and moneys derived from the sale or rent of reclaimed or other lands acquired by law and from additional uses of such works as authorized by law, shall be deposited with the county or city treasurer, as the case may be, and shall be held in trust exclusively for the construction and maintenance of seawalls and breakwaters including the purchase of the right of way therefor; and all moneys derived from the assessment and levy of taxes as aforesaid are declared to be a trust fund for the payment of interest and principal of such bonds, and the use or diversion of such moneys for any other purpose whatever is hereby prohibited and a violation of this article shall constitute a misapplication of public money, and the person so offending shall be punished as provided in article 86. [Acts 1901, p. 25, 1st C. S.]

Art. 91. [101] Receiving or concealing misapplied public money.—Whoever shall knowingly and with fraudulent intent receive or conceal any public money which has been taken, converted or misapplied by an officer or employé as set forth in articles 86 and 87, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. [P. C. 236, Acts 1875, p. 12.]

Art. 92. [102] "Officer of the Government" defined.—The term "officer of the Government," as used in this chapter, includes the State Treasurer and all other heads of departments who by law may receive or keep in their care public money of the State, tax collectors, and all other officers who by law are authorized to collect, receive or keep money due to the government.

Art. 93. [103] State Treasurer receiving private funds.—If the State Treasurer shall knowingly keep or receive into the building, safes or vaults of the treasury, any money or representative thereof belonging to any individual, except in cases expressly provided for by law, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1873, p. 61.]

Art. 94. [104] Diverting special funds.—Whoever shall wilfully borrow, withhold or in any manner divert from its purpose, any special fund, or any part thereof, belonging to or under the control of the State, which has been set apart by law for a specific use, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

Art. 95. [105] Misapplication of county or city funds.—If any officer of any county, city or town, or any person employed by such officer, shall fraudulently take, misapply, or convert to his own use any money, property or other thing of value belonging to such county, city or town, that may have come into his custody or possession by virtue of his office or employment, or shall secret [secrete] the same with intent to take, misapply or convert it to his own use, or shall pay or deliver the same to any person knowing that he is not entitled to receive it, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

Art. 96. [106] [104] Receiving or concealing.—Whoever shall knowingly and with fraudulent intent receive or conceal any money or property which has been taken, misapplied or converted by an officer or employé, as set forth in the preceding article, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1875, p. 12.]

Art. 97. Misapplication of school funds.—If any person who is by law a treasurer of any school district in this State, or if any officer, director, stockholder, agent or employé or any corporation that is by law the treasurer or depository of any school district in this State shall fraudulently take, misapply or convert to his own use any money, property or other thing of value belonging to such district that may have come into his possession by virtue of his being treasurer of such district or that may have come into his possession by virtue of the corporation of which he is officer, director, stockholder, agent or employé being the treasurer or depository of such district, or shall secrete the same with intent to take, misapply or convert it to his own use or shall pay or deliver the same to any person knowing that he is not entitled to receive it, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1917, p. 340.]

Art. 98. Officer failing to pay over public money.—Any officer or appointee authorized to receive public moneys, other than a collector of taxes, who shall willfully or negligently fail to account for all moneys in his hands belonging to the State, and pay the same over to the State Treasurer within ten days after the same came into his possession, shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Art. 99. [108] Venue.—All prosecutions for failing or refusing to pay over money belonging to the State under this chapter shall be conducted in Travis County.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 100. [97-107-109-144] Collector failing to pay.—The collector of taxes shall at the end of each month pay over to the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him for the State during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected; and such collector shall pay over to the State Treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the State, and finally adjust and settle his account with the State Comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year. If any collector of taxes shall have wilfully or negligently failed at the end of each month or within ten days thereof to remit to the State Treasurer the amount due by him to the State for the preceding month, he shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. Every such failure to remit shall be a separate offense.

Art. 101. Collector failing to report.—At the end of each month the collector of taxes shall, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, make an itemized report under oath to the Comptroller showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all State taxes collected. Said reports for December and January of each year may not be made for twenty-five days after the end of such months if same cannot be completed by the end of such respective months. Such collector shall present such report together with the tax receipt stubs, to the county clerk who shall within two days compare said report with said stubs, and if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates and amounts, such clerk shall certify to its correctness, and such collector shall then immediately forward his report so certified to the State Comptroller, and upon the failure or refusal of such collector to comply with this article he shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. Each such failure or refusal is a separate offense. [Acts 1893, p. 90.]

Art. 102. [110-113] Remitting fees, etc.—Any county officer or any district attorney to whom fees or costs are allowed by law who shall fail to charge up the fees or costs that may be due under existing laws, or who shall remit any fee that may be due under the laws, or who shall fail to make the report required by law, or who shall pay his deputy, clerk or assistant a less sum than specified in his sworn statement, or receive back as a rebate any part of the compensation allowed such deputy, clerk or assistant, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars. Each act forbidden by this article is a separate offense. [Act June 16, 1897.]

Art. 103. [114-1577] Unlawfully issuing process.—Before the clerk or his deputy shall be required or permitted to issue a subpoena in any felony case pending in any district or criminal district court of this State of which he is clerk or deputy, the defendant or his attorney or the State's attorney shall make written sworn application to such clerk of each witness desired. Such application shall state the name of each witness desired, the location and avocation, if known, and that the testimony of said witness is believed to be material to the State or the defense. As far as practicable such clerk shall include in one subpoena the names of all witnesses for the State and the defendant and such process shall show that the witnesses are summoned for the State or defendant. If any such clerk or his deputy shall issue any subpoena for any witness in a felony case without complying with this article, or shall issue an attachment without an order of court, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1889, p. 145; Acts 1st C. S. 1897, p. 5; Acts 1913, p. 319.]

Art. 104. [115] Regulating fees of officers.—Each county and precinct officer who shall in his official capacity collect or receive any money or fees belonging to another person, shall inform such person of the collection of such money or fees, and promptly pay the same over on demand to the one entitled thereto, taking receipt therefor, which shall be entered or noted in his fee book. [Acts 1907, p. 120.]

Art. 105. [116] Report of fees collected.—On or before the second Mondays in March, June, September and December of each year, said officers shall make written sworn report to the commissioners court of all such moneys and fees so collected by them during the quarter last preceding and remaining in their hands uncalled for, giving the number and style of each cause in which the same accrued and the name of the person entitled thereto, which report shall be filed with the county clerk and by him kept for future reference and examination. [Id. Acts 1923, p. 223.]

Art. 106. [117] Disposition of fees not called for.—Each officer collecting or having the custody of any money or fees embraced within the provisions of this law at the expiration of four years from the time of collecting or receiving such money or fees, in all cases where the same have not been paid over to the person entitled thereto, shall pay the same to the county treasurer of his county, accompanying the same by an itemized statement, as provided in Article 105, which shall be filed and kept by said treasurer, and said money or fees shall be by him placed to the credit of the road and bridge fund. The treasurer shall issue to said officer his receipt for said money or fees itemizing the same as above provided, which receipt shall be filed by said officer with the county clerk. Any officer upon retiring from office having any money or fees in his hands embraced within these provisions and which are not due to be turned over to the treasurer as herein provided, shall turn the same over to his successor in office, together with an itemized list of the same, taking receipt therefor, and his successor shall report and pay over the same to the county treasurer in accordance with the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 107. [118] Penalty for three preceding articles.—Whoever violates any provision of the three preceding articles shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art.

- 108. Contracting without authority.
- 108a. State contract printing not to be reproduced.
- 108b. Same; state printing defined.
- 108c. Same; printing and sale of extra copies.
- 108d. Same; penalty for violations of act.
- 109. Storekeepers and accountants.
- 110. Using State's merchandise.
- 111. Institutions included.
- 112. Unlawfully creating deficiency.
- 113. Sale of goods to inmates.

Article 108. [106] Contracting without authority.—Whoever shall contract with any other person for his services or labor or for any property of any kind, with intent to charge the State of Texas with the same and without authority of law, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two thousand dollars. [Act May 4, 1874, p. 221.]

Art. 108a. State contract printing not to be reproduced.—Except under contract or agreement with the State as hereinafter provided authorizing them so to do, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association of persons doing any printing, under contract, for the State of Texas, to reproduce, print or prepare or to sell or furnish any such printing or printed matter or any reprint, reproduction or copy of same, or plate, type, mat, cut or engraving from which such printing contract was executed, except the amount and number of copies contracted to be printed and furnished to the State of Texas under such contract. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 78, p. 241, § 1.]

Art. 108b. Same; state printing defined.—Any printing done under contract for any department, the legislature or either branch thereof, any board, commission, court, officer or agent, of the State of Texas, as well as any such work done directly for the State, shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed to have been done for the State of Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 78, p. 241, § 2.]

Art. 108c. Same; printing and sale of extra copies.—Provided that with the consent of the State Board of Control and the Governor, any such person, firm, corporation or association may print extra copies and sell same at a price fixed by the State Board of Control, whenever in the opinion of the Board of Control and the Governor the printed matter should be distributed in such manner for the benefit of the public. Provided that any such contract for the printing and sale of such extra copies shall be approved by the Attorney General. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 78, p. 241, § 3.]

Art. 108d. Same; penalty for violations of act.—Any person, firm, corporation or association of persons violating any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, and in the event the violation is by a natural person or the agent or employee of a person, corporation, firm or association the punishment [punishment] may be by jail sentence not to exceed thirty days in addition to such fine. The conviction of an agent or employee shall not bar conviction of the principal also. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 78, p. 241, § 4.]

Art. 109. [121] Storekeepers and accountants.—Any storekeeper or accountant of any institution placed by law under the control of the State Board of Control who shall sell to or in any way be concerned in the sale of any merchandise or other articles to any such institution, or who shall have any interest in any bid or contract therewith or with any other institution or department of the State Government, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1899, p. 142; Acts 1915, p. 195.]

Art. 110. [122] Using State's merchandise.—No officer or employé created by the law governing this chapter shall ever use or receive for his own use any provisions, clothing, merchandise or other articles furnished by the State. Whoever violates the provisions of this article shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1899, p. 142.]

Art. 111. Institutions included.—The institutions contemplated in this chapter are those for the care of the insane, deaf and dumb, the blind, the orphans, the Confederate Home, and all other State institutions, educational or eleemosynary, now or hereafter established anywhere in Texas, excepting the penitentiary system and its management, and also excepting the Senate and House of Representatives and all departments in the State Capitol, including General Land Office. [Acts 1915, p. 198.]

Art. 112. Unlawfully creating deficiency.—Any regent, director, officer or member of any governing board of any educational or eleemosynary [eleemosynary] institution who shall contract or provide for the erection or repair of any building or other improvements or the purchase of equipment or supplies of any kind for any such institution, not authorized by specific legislative enactment or by written direction of the Governor acting under and consistent with the authority of existing laws, or who shall contract or create any indebtedness or deficiency in the name of or against this State, not specifically authorized by legislative enactment, or who shall divert any part of any fund provided by law to any other fund or purpose than that specifically named and designated in the legislative enactment creating such fund, or provided for in any appropriation bill, shall be imprisoned in jail not less than ten days nor more than six months; the venue to be in the county in which may be located the institution affected by such acts of such offender. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 32.]

Art. 113. Sale of goods to inmates.—Any person appointed as manager, superintendent, clerk, or otherwise employed in or by any eleemosynary institution under the control or management of this State, or the wife of such appointee or employé, or any other person related within the third degree by affinity or consanguinity to the person so appointed or employed in such institution, who shall own, operate, manage, or in any way be pecuniarily interested in any store or other place of business where any merchandise is sold or offered for sale to inmates of such institution, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Act November 15, 1921.]

Article 114. [107] Extorting excessive taxes.—If any person authorized to collect or receive taxes or other money due the State shall extort or attempt to extort from any one a larger sum than is due, or shall receive any money or other reward as a consideration for granting any delay in the collection of such dues, or for doing any illegal act or omitting to do any legal act in relation to the collection of such money, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [P. C. 238.]

Art. 115. [124] [108] Tax officer exacting usury.—If any assessor or collector of taxes shall advance for a person owing taxes to the government the amount of money so due, and shall charge therefor a rate of interest greater than ten per cent per annum, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [P. C. 239.]

Art. 116. [125] [109] Assuming taxes for reward.—Within the meaning of the preceding article is included the case of an assessor or collector who fails to collect taxes due and assumes to be responsible to the government therefor and receives for such act any compensation or reward. [P. C. 240.]

Art. 117. [126] [110] Collector failing to forward transcript.—The collector of taxes shall keep a book of such size and character as may be necessary, in which shall be entered quarterly, at the following dates to wit, January 1, April 1, July 1 and October 1, or within ten days thereafter, in which to require the returns to be made under the provisions of this article, the several amounts as shown by such returns for which and upon which any person, firm or association of persons is or may be liable to a tax under the law, and within fifteen days from the time of receiving and making up the several amounts and the sums due upon such amounts as occupation tax, the collector shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts a transcript or duplicate of the return and the amounts as shown by his record, this transcript and the record from which it is taken to show the amount of such quarterly returns, and the tax due thereon, from every person, firm or association of persons liable to such tax; and any collector failing to forward such transcript or duplicate, taken from the pages of such collector's record herein provided for, or who shall forward a false or pretended transcript of such account, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. Nothing herein contained is intended to affect the liability which, in the absence of this statute, would be incurred under any penal enactment. [Acts 1879, p. 148.]

Art. 118. [127] [110a] Unlawfully issuing receipt.—Any tax collector who issues any occupation tax receipt without first taking or filing the affidavit required by law, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1895, p. 18.]

Art. 119. [128] [110b] Wrong license no protection.—No occupation tax receipt or license taken out by a merchant of a lower class than the one to which he properly belongs shall be any protection against a prosecution for knowingly pursuing that of a higher class and failing to pay the occupation tax due therefor. [Id.]

Art. 120. [129] [111] Obstruction of tax collections.—Whoever shall, by force or threats of force, prevent, or attempt to prevent the collection of taxes or other money due the State by an officer authorized to enforce such collection, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in jail not less than three months nor more than one year. When the means used to prevent the collection are such as to amount to a riot or unlawful assembly the punishment shall be that which is prescribed in article 456. [P. C. 241.]

Art. 121. [130] [112] [110] Pursuing occupation without license.—Whoever shall pursue or follow any occupation, calling or profession, or do any act taxed by law, without first obtaining a license therefor, shall be fined not less than the amount of the taxes due and not more than double that sum.

Art. 122. [131] Plumbing without license.—Any person, whether as master plumber, employing, or journeyman plumber, engaged in, working at, or conducting the business of plumbing without license as provided by law, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 237.]

Art. 123. [132] [113] Penalty not exclusive.—The preceding articles shall not affect any civil remedy to enforce the collection of taxes.

Art. 124. [133] [114] Payment of tax bars prosecution.—Any person prosecuted under article 121 shall have the right at any time before conviction to have such prosecution dismissed upon payment of the tax and all costs of said prosecution and procuring the license on account of the failure to procure which, the prosecution was instituted, and no prosecution shall be commenced against any person after the procuring of said license, notwithstanding they may have followed such occupation, calling or profession before procuring said license; provided, said license shall cover the time said person has actually followed said occupation, calling or profession. [Acts 1881, p. 34.]

Art. 125. [134] [115] Refusal to render or swear to assessment.—Whoever shall refuse or neglect to make out and render a list of his taxable property when called upon in person by the assessor of taxes or his deputy, or shall fail or refuse to qualify to the truth of his statement of taxable property, or shall fail or refuse to subscribe to any oath required by law in the rendition of such property, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 196.]

Art. 126. [135] Assessment of national bank.—If any president, vice president, or cashier of any national bank shall fail or refuse to furnish the tax assessor or deputy tax assessor, when called upon to do so by such tax assessor or deputy tax assessor, a sworn statement, showing:

1. A list of the names of all the shareholders of the stock of such bank.

2. The number and amount of the shares owned and held by each shareholder in such bank.

3. The place of residence of each stockholder in such bank, if known. (If not known that fact shall be so stated.)

4. The amount of notes issued by such bank and circulating as money, or that is intended to circulate as money. (Stating such amount in dollars.)

5. The amount of money on hand or in transit, or in the hands of other banks, bankers, brokers or others, subject to draft, whether the same be in or out of the State.

6. The amount of indebtedness of such bank and how such indebtedness is evidenced.

7. The amount of paper evidencing indebtedness owned by such bank, which was acquired by such bank, either at par or at a discount.

They shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be confined in jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days. [Acts 1897, p. 157.]

Art. 127. [136] Money and notes defined.—By the terms money and notes, mentioned in the preceding article, is meant all money owned and on hand by such bank, whether on deposit or otherwise. [Acts 1897, p. 157.]

Art. 128. [137] [116] Pretended transfer of coin, notes or bonds.—Any evasion by the means of artifice or temporary or fictitious sale, exchange or pretended transfer upon any bank books of gold or silver coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds, subject to taxation under the laws of this State, for United States non-taxable treasury notes or any notes or bonds not so subject to taxation, and any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer not made in good faith, and by actual exchange and delivery of the funds so sold, exchanged or transferred and made only by entry on bank books, or by any express or implied understanding not to immediately make a bona fide and permanent sale, shall be deemed prima facie to be a fraud upon the public revenue of this State. [Sec. 1, Act March 23, 1891, Acts 1891, p. 39.]

Art. 129. [138] [116] Penalty for pretended transfer.—The president, cashier or secretary of any banking or other corporation, or any person that may be a party or privy to such fraudulent sale, exchange or transfer shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and in addition there-to shall be confined in jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days. [Sec. 2, Id.]

Art. 130. [139] [116] False affidavit.—All assessors of taxes shall require all tax payers when assessed by them, to make oath as to any such sale, exchange or transfer made by them on the first day of January or within sixty days before said first day of January of any year for which any such assessment is made, as to the good faith and bona fide business transaction of any such sale, exchange or transfer, as above set forth, if any have been made by them, and if it should be disclosed that any such pretended sale, exchange or transfer had been made for the purpose of evading taxation, then and in that event the assessor shall list and render against such person the coin, bank notes or other notes or bonds subject to taxation under the laws of this State. [Sec. 3, Id.]

Art. 131. [140] [117] Failure to collect occupation taxes.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to make an affidavit before any justice of the peace against any person, firm or association of persons engaging in or pursuing any occupation on which, under the laws of this State, a tax is imposed, who fails or refuses to pay the same. Any collector of taxes who shall knowingly permit any person, firm or association of persons to engage in or pursue any occupation on which, by the laws of this State, a tax is imposed, without first paying all legal taxes assessed against such person, firm or association of persons, for such occupation, for State and county purposes, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars for every such offense. Evidence that such collector has made the affidavit herein required immediately against such person, firm or association of persons so pursuing an occupation in violation of law, shall be a defense against all prosecution under this article. [Acts 1887, p. 128.]

Art. 132. [143] [119] [114c] Officer purchasing property sold for taxes.—If any sheriff, or collector of taxes, deputy sheriff, or deputy collector, or any employé of such sheriff or collector authorized by him to collect or receive taxes, or to assist in any way in making sales for the collection of taxes, shall in the county where he resides, bid for, purchase, or attempt to purchase, or be in any way interested in the purchase of any property, either real or personal, at any sale of such property, made or attempted to be, for the collection of State and county taxes, or either, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, and any such officer so offending shall be guilty of official misconduct and upon conviction shall be removed from office. [Acts 1883, p. 7.]

Art. 133. [144] [119a] Tax collector fail to perform certain duties.—If at the end of any month the collector of taxes shall fail to make to the Commissioners Court his itemized monthly report of all tax collections for the county, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, or if he shall fail to make out and post, between April 1 and 15 of each year, a list of delinquent or insolvent tax payers, he shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. Each failure is a separate offense. [Acts 1893, p. 91.]

Art. 134. [145] [119b] Occupation tax receipt.—Any collector of taxes in this State, who shall issue an occupation tax receipt upon any blank paper, or blank of any kind whatever other than the blank occupation tax receipt furnished to him as required by law, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. Each receipt so unlawfully issued is a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 135. Failure to make entry of payments.—The collector of taxes, or his deputy, whenever any tax is paid, shall give to the person paying the same a receipt therefor, specifying the amount of State, county and district taxes, and the year for which such tax was assessed; said receipt shall also show the number of acres in each separate tract, number, abstract and name of original grantee, and any city or town lot and name of city or town, and total value of all property assessed; said receipt shall have a duplicate to be retained by such collector. The collector of taxes shall provide himself with a seal as provided by law and shall impress said seal on each receipt and duplicate given by him for taxes collected on real estate. Such collector when any taxes are paid shall insert in the margin of the tax rolls the words and figures as follows:

“Taxes paid _____ day of _____ [”] No. of receipt _____” the date to be filled in and the receipt number to be given; and any tax collector, or his deputy, who shall fail to comply with any provision of this article imposing the duty to make such entry of taxes paid upon the tax roll, as above described, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 136.]

Art. 136. [146] [119c] Clerk failing to make certificate.—If the county clerk shall fail to examine the monthly reports of the collector of taxes, and within two days after the presentation to him of said reports by the collector, fail to certify to their correctness as regards names, dates and amounts, or shall fail to file with the reports intended for the Commissioners Court, together with the tax receipt stubs in his office for the next regular meeting of the Commissioners Court, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each failure is a separate offense. [Acts 1893, p. 92.]

Art. 137. [147] Refusal to make additional report of gross receipts.—If the Comptroller has reason to believe, that any individual, company, corporation, association, receiver or receivers subject to the provisions of the law providing for the levy of occupation taxes, has made a false return, or has failed or omitted to make a full return of gross receipts, or other statement of business done, required by any of the provisions of said law, he shall report the same in writing to the Governor, and the Governor shall immediately require the Comptroller to cause to be examined any books, papers or other records or evidence tending to show such unlawful act or omission. The person designated by the Comptroller shall check the report made with such books, papers, or other records or evidence, and make his report to the Comptroller, and if it appears from said report that any false or incorrect return has been made, or that any individual, or the president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or any member of any firm required by this Act to make reports, has failed or omitted to make a full return, as required by law, then the Comptroller shall notify such individual, or the president, treasurer, or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or receiver or receivers of any company, corporation or association, or any member of any firm, to make forthwith an additional report, and if such individual or the president, treasurer or superintendent of any company, corporation or association, or any member of a firm, or any receiver or receivers of any company, corporation or association making said original report, shall fail or refuse to make said additional report he shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. Venue of such prosecution is hereby fixed in Travis County. [Acts 1907, p. 488.]

Art. 138. [Acts 1905, p. 183, Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 20.]

THE FLAG AND LOYALTY.

Art.

- 148. Protecting the flag.
- 149. Exceptions.
- 150. Using Texas flag to advertise.
- 151. Sale of article with flag thereon.
- 152. Insult to United States flag.
- 153. Disloyalty in writing.
- 154. Possessing flag of enemy.
- 155. Disloyal language.
- 156. Arrest without warrant. Venue.
- 157. Discrimination against uniform.

Article 148. Protecting the flag.—Whoever shall in any manner, for exhibition or display, place or cause to be placed, any word, figure, mark, picture, design, drawing or any advertisement of any nature upon any flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States of America, or State flag of this State, or ensign, or shall expose or cause to be exposed to public view any such flag, standard, color, or ensign, upon which, after this Act takes effect, shall have been printed, painted or otherwise placed, or to which shall be attached, appended, affixed or annexed any word, figure, mark, picture, design or drawing, or any advertisement of any nature, or who shall after this Act takes effect, expose to public view, manufacture, sell, expose for sale, give away, or have in possession for sale, or to give away, or for use for any purpose, any article or substance being an article of merchandise, or receptacle of merchandise or article or thing for carrying or transporting merchandise, upon which after this Act takes effect, shall have been printed, painted, attached or otherwise placed a representation of any such flag or flags, standard, color or ensign to advertise, call attention to, decorate, mark or distinguish the article or substance on which so placed, or who shall publicly mutilate, deface, defy, or defile, trample upon or cast contempt either by words or act, upon any Texas flag, standard, color or ensign, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not more than thirty days, or both. The words flag, standard, color or ensign as used in this article shall include any flag, standard, color, ensign or any picture or representation of either, made of or represented on any substance, and of any size purporting to be, either of, said flag, standard, color or ensign of the United States of America, or a picture or representation, of either upon which shall be shown the colors, the stars and the stripes in any number of either or by which one seeing the same without deliberation may believe the same to represent the flag, colors, standard or ensign of the United States of America. The possession by one other than a public officer, as such, of any such flag, standard, color or ensign, on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time by this article, or of any article or substance or thing on which shall be anything made unlawful at any time by this article, shall be presumptive evidence that the same is in violation of this article, and was made, done or created after this Act takes effect, and that such did not exist when this law took effect. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 82.]

Art. 149. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to any act permitted by the Statutes of the United States of America, or by the United States Army and Navy regulations, nor shall it be construed to apply to a newspaper, periodical, book, pamphlet, circular, certificate, diploma, warrant or commission of appointment to office, ornamental picture, article of jewelry or stationery for use in correspondence on any of which shall be printed, or placed said flag, disconnected from any advertisement. [Id.]

Art. 150. Using Texas flag to advertise.—No person shall use any imitation, label, trade-mark, design, device, imprint or form of the flag of the State of Texas for the purpose of advertising or giving publicity to any goods, wares or merchandise, or any commercial undertaking, or for any trade or commercial purpose. Any person, whether in his individual capacity or as an officer, agent or receiver of any corporation, who shall violate this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars, and each day is a separate offense. No provision of this article shall apply to any fraternal or patriotic organizations using the Texas flag for an emblem. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 28.]

Art. 151. Sale of article with flag thereon.—No person shall offer or expose for sale any article or commodity of commerce bearing the imitation, design, imprint or form of the flag of the State of Texas. Any person whether in his individual capacity or as an officer, agent or receiver of any corporation who shall violate this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars. Each day shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 152. Insult to United States Flag.—Any person who shall within this State, publicly or privately, mutilate, deface, defile, defy, tramp upon, or cast contempt upon, either by word or act any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, or that of any of its officers, or on any imitation of either of them, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than twenty-five years. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 14.]

Art. 153. Disloyalty in writing.—Any person, who shall at any time and place within this State, during the time the United States is at war with any other nation, or nations, commit to writing or printing, or both writing and printing, by letters, words, signs, figures, or any other manner, and in any language, anything of and concerning the United States, the entry or continuance of the United States in the war, or of and concerning the army, navy or marine corps of the United States, any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States, or any imitation thereof, or uniform of any of its officers, which is abusive in character, or disloyal to the United States, and reasonably calculated to bring into disrepute the United States, the entry, or continuance of the United States in the war, the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States, any flag[,] standard, color or ensign of the United States, or that of any of its officers, and reasonably calculated to provoke a breach of peace if written to or in the presence of a citizen of the United States, or if said in the presence and hearing of any citizen of the United States shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two years nor more than twenty-five years. [Id.]

Art. 154. Possessing flag of enemy.—Whoever during the existence of a war between the United States and any other nation or nations shall knowingly within this State display, or have in his possession for any purpose whatsoever, any flag, standard, color, ensign or coat of arms of any nation with which the United States is at war or any imitation thereof, or that of any State, subdivision, city or municipality of any such nation shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than twenty-five years. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 14.]

Art. 155. Disloyal language.—If any person shall, at any time or place within this State, during the time the United States of America is at war with any other nation, use any language in the presence and hearing of another person, of and concerning the United States of America, the entry, or the continuance, of the United States of America in the war, or of and concerning the army, navy, or marine corps of the United States of America, or of and concerning any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States of America, or any imitation thereof, or the uniform of any officer of the army of the United States of America, which language is disloyal to the United States of America, or abusive in character, and calculated to bring into disrepute the United States of America, the entry, or continuance, of the United States of America in the war, the army, navy, marine corps of the United States of America, or any flag, standard, color, or ensign of the United States of America, or any imitation thereof, or the flag, color, standard, or ensign, or the uniform of any officer of the army of the United States of America, and is of such nature as to be reasonably calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, if said in the presence and hearing of a citizen of the United States of America, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than twenty-five years. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 12.]

Art. 156. Arrest without warrant. Venue.—Any officer without warrant may arrest anyone violating any provision of the four preceding articles when the offense is committed in his presence or within his view, or within the view of a magistrate, and such officer about to make such arrest is authorized to require the offender to at once desist from such violation. Travis county shall also have venue of said offenses. The Suspended Sentence Law shall not apply to such offenses. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 14.]

Art. 157. Discrimination against uniform.—Whoever shall subject or cause to be subjected any other person to the deprivation of any right, privilege or immunity usually enjoyed by the public on account of membership in the army, navy, marine corps or revenue cutter service of the United States, or of the National Guard or naval service of this State, or otherwise in the military or naval service of the United States or of this State, wearing the uniform prescribed for him at that time by law, regulation of the service or custom, on account of his wearing such uniform or of his being in such service, subject only to the limitations established by law and applicable alike to all persons, or who on account of such membership or the wearing of such uniform shall make or cause to be made such discrimination, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 20.]

[174] [125] Bribery of certain officers.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any executive, legislative or judicial officer after his election or appointment, and either before or after he shall have been qualified or entered upon the duties of his office, with intent to influence his act, vote, opinion [opinion], decision or judgment on any matter, question, cause or proceeding which may be then pending or may thereafter by law be brought before such officer in his official capacity, or do any other act or omit to do any other act in violation of his duty as an officer, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 159, amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 159. [175] [126] Officers accepting bribe.—Any legislative, executive or judicial officer who shall accept a bribe or consent to accept a bribe under an agreement or with an understanding that his act, vote, opinion or judgment shall be done or given in any particular manner or upon a particular side of any question, cause or proceeding which is or may thereafter by law be brought before him, or that he shall make any particular nomination, appointment, or do any other act or omit to do any act in violation of his duty as an officer, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1858, p. 159, amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 160. [176] [127] Officers specified.—Under the name of executive, legislative and judicial officers are included the governor, lieutenant-governor, comptroller, secretary of state, state treasurer, commissioner of the general land office, commissioner of agriculture, commissioner of insurance, superintendent of public instruction, members of the legislature, aldermen of all incorporated cities and towns, judges of the supreme, district and county courts and of the courts of appeals, attorney general, district and county attorneys, justices of the peace, mayors and judges of such city courts as may be organized by law, county commissioners, school trustees, and all other city, county and State officials. [Acts 1885, p. 69; Acts 1899, p. 320.]

Art. 161. [177] [128] Bribery of clerks, etc.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe, any clerk or other officer of either branch of the Legislature, or any clerk or employé in any department of the State government, with the intent to influence such officer to make any false entry in any book or record pertaining to his office, or to mutilate or destroy any part of such book or record, or to violate any other duty imposed upon him as an officer, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 159, amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 162. [178] [129] Accepting bribe by same.—If any officer named in the preceding article shall accept a bribe so offered, or consent to accept the same, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 159, amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 163. [179] [130] Bribery of auditor, juror, etc.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, with intent to influence his decision or bias his opinion in relation to any cause or matter which may be pending before, or may thereafter by law be submitted to such auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 160.]

Art. 164. [180] [131] Acceptance of bribe by same.—If any juror, auditor, arbitrator, umpire or referee shall accept, or agree to accept, a bribe offered for the purpose of biasing or influencing his opinion or judgment, as set forth in the preceding article, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 161.]

Art. 165. [181] [132] Offense complete, when.—To complete the offenses mentioned in the two preceding articles, it is not necessary that the auditor, umpire, arbitrator or referee shall have been actually selected or appointed; it is sufficient if the bribe be offered or accepted with a view to the probable appointment or selection of the person to whom the bribe is offered, or by whom it is accepted. Nor is it necessary that the juror shall have been actually summoned; it is sufficient if the bribe be given or accepted in view of his being summoned or selected as such to sit in any particular case, civil or criminal.

Art. 166. [182] [133] Bribery of attorneys.—Whoever bribes or offers to bribe any attorney at law charged with the prosecution or defense of a suit, with intent to induce him to divulge any secret of his client, or any circumstance which came to his knowledge as counsel, to the injury of his client, or with intent to induce him to give counsel or in any way advise or assist the opposite party to the injury of his client in any cause, civil or criminal, or to neglect the interests of his client, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 161.]

Art. 167. [183] [134] Acceptance of bribe by attorney.—If any attorney at law charged, as above stated, with the management of any cause, civil or criminal, shall accept or agree to accept a bribe offered to induce him to divulge any secret of his client, or any circumstance which came to his knowledge as counsel, to the injury of his client, or to give counsel or in any way advise or assist the opposite party to the injury of his client or to neglect the interests of his client, he shall be punished in the manner provided in the preceding article.

Art. 168. [184] [135] Bribery of clerks of court.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any clerk or deputy clerk of any court of record to induce such officer to alter, destroy, or mutilate any book, record or paper pertaining to his office, or to surrender to the person offending any book, record or paper for any unlawful purpose, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 161.]

Art. 169. [185] [136] Acceptance of bribe by clerk.—If any clerk or deputy clerk of any court of record shall accept or agree to accept a bribe offered for the purpose enumerated in the preceding article, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 161.]

Art. 170. [186] [137] Bribery of clerks to violate duty.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any officer named in Article 168 to do or omit to do any other act not enumerated in said article in violation of the duties of his office, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 161.]

Art. 171. [187] [138] Bribe to permit escape.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any sheriff or other peace officer to permit any prisoner in his custody to escape shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 162.]

Art. 172. [188] [139] Bribe as to process.—Whoever shall bribe or offer to bribe any sheriff or other peace officer, in any case, civil or criminal, to make a false return upon any process directed to him, or fail to return any such process, or summon, or fail to summon any one to serve on a jury, with a view to produce a result favorable to a particular side in any cause, civil or criminal, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 162.]

Art. 173. [189] [140] Bribery of peace officer.—Whoever shall bribe, or offer to bribe, a sheriff or any other peace officer to do or to omit to do any other act not heretofore enumerated in violation of his duty as an officer, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 162.]

Art. 174. [190] [141] Acceptance of bribe by officer.—If any sheriff or other executive or peace officer shall accept or agree to accept a bribe offered, as mentioned in articles 171, 172 and 173, he shall receive the same punishment as is affixed to the offense of giving or offering a bribe in the particular case specified.

Art. 175. [191] [142] Bribery of witness.—Whoever shall bribe, or offer to bribe any witness in any case, civil or criminal, to disobey a subpoena or other legal process, or to avoid the service of the same by secreting himself, or by any other means, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1860, p. 95.]

Art. 176. [192] [143] Acceptance of bribe by witness.—If any witness in any case, civil or criminal, shall accept or agree to accept a bribe offered for any purpose mentioned in the preceding article, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Id.]

Art. 177. [193] [144] "Bribe."—By a "bribe" as used throughout this Code, is meant any gift, emolument, money or thing of value, testimonial, privilege, appointment or personal advantage, or the promise of either, bestowed or promised for the purpose of influencing an officer or other person, such as are named in this chapter, in the performance of any duty, public or official, or as an inducement to favor the one offering the same, or some other person.

Art. 178. [194] [145] Bribe need not be direct.—The bribe need not be direct; it may be hidden under the semblance of a sale, wager, payment of debt, or in any other manner designed to cover the true intention of the parties. The bribe or promise thereof must precede the act which it is intended to induce the one bribed to perform.

CHAPTER TWO

LOBBYING

Art.

179. Defining lobbying.
180. Privately soliciting vote of legislator.
181. Exceptions.
182. Penalty.
183. Prohibited from going on floor.

Article 179. [195] Defining lobbying.—If any person having any direct interest, or the president or any other officer of any corporation having any direct interest in any measure pending before, or thereafter to be introduced in either branch of the Legislature of this State, in any manner, except by appealing to his reason, privately attempt to influence the action of any member of such Legislature, during his term of office, concerning such measure, he shall be deemed guilty of lobbying. [Sec. 1, Act April 6, 1907, Acts 1907, p. 162.]

Art. 180. [196] Privately soliciting vote of legislator.—If any paid or employed agent, representative or attorney of any person, association or corporation, shall at any place in this State, after the election and during the term of office of any member of the Legislature of this State, privately solicit the vote, or privately endeavor to exercise any influence, or offer anything of value or any other inducements whatever, to any such member of the Legislature, to influence his action concerning any measure then pending or thereafter to be introduced in either branch of the Legislature of this State, he shall be deemed guilty of lobbying. [Sec. 2, Id.]

Art. 181. [197] Exceptions.—The provisions of this law shall not apply to the Governor or a member of the Legislature of this State, nor prohibit any person either in person, or by his agent or attorney, or any corporation by representatives, agents or attorneys from exercising the rights of petition to the Legislature, or from collecting facts, preparing petitions, procuring evidence and submitting the same, together with arguments, to either branch of the Legislature, when in session, or to any committee thereof, in the interest of any measure in which he or it may be interested; but in such case the agency and the interest in the measure or the person so appearing shall be fully disclosed. [Sec. 3, Id.]

Art. 182. [198] Penalty.—Any person who shall be convicted of lobbying, shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, and in addition may, at the discretion of the jury, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than six months nor more than two years. Any violation of this law may be prosecuted in the county where the offense is committed, or in Travis County. [Sec. 4, Id.]

Art. 183. [199] Prohibited from going on floor.—No person employed in any manner to represent the interest in legislation of any person, association or corporation shall go upon the floor of either House of the Legislature, reserved for members thereof, while in session, except upon invitation of such House. Any person violating the provisions of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Sec. 5, Id.]

[O. C. 276, Acts 1876, p. 311.]

Art. 234. [274-283] False swearing by voter.—Whoever shall swear falsely as to his own qualifications to vote, or who shall swear falsely as to the qualifications of a person offering to vote who is challenged as unqualified, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 235. [275] [176] [169] Procuring voter to swear falsely.—Whoever wilfully and corruptly procures any person to swear falsely, as prescribed in the preceding article, shall be confined in the penitentiary not to exceed three years, or be fined not exceeding three thousand dollars. [O. C. 279.]

Art. 236. [289] [192a] Illegal voting at primary.—Any person voting at any primary election called and held by authority of any political party for the purpose of nominating candidates of such political party for any public office who is not qualified to vote in the election precinct where he offers to vote at the next State, county or municipal election, or who shall vote more than once at the same or different precincts or polls on the same day, or different days in the same primary election, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding sixty days, or both. [Acts 1895, p. 40.]

Art. 237. [290] [192b] Procuring an illegal vote.—Whoever shall knowingly procure any illegal vote to be cast at such primary election shall be punished as provided in the preceding article. [Acts 1895, p. 40.]

Art. 238. Absentee voting.—Any person wishing to vote as an absentee voter who shall vote or offer to vote illegally, or in any case or at any place where he is not entitled to vote, or who shall make false representation in any effort to vote, or who shall attempt to vote on any poll tax receipt issued to a person other than himself, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than two years or both so fined and imprisoned. This law applies to any and all elections including general, special and primary elections. [Acts 1923, p. 318.]

Art. 239. [246] Falsely personating another.—Whoever attempts to falsely personate at an election another person, and vote or attempt to vote on the authority of a poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption not issued to him by the county tax collector, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years. [Sec. 177, p. 562, Acts 1905.]

Art. 240. [240] Voting at both primary elections.—Whoever votes or offers to vote at a primary election or convention of a political party, having voted at a primary election or convention of any other party on the same day, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Sec. 171, p. 561, Acts 1905.]

Art. 241. [221] Voting more than once.—Whoever at a general, special or primary election votes or attempts to vote more than once shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Sec. 149, p. 558, Acts 1905.]

Art. 242. [213] Using dummy ballot.—Any judge may require a citizen to answer under oath before he secures an official ballot whether he has been furnished with any paper or ballot on which is marked the names of any one for whom he has agreed to vote, or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper or marked ballot in his possession, and he shall not be furnished with an official ballot until he has delivered to the judge such marked paper or ballot, if he has one. Any person who gives, receives or secures or is interested in giving or receiving an official ballot or any paper whatever, on which is marked, printed or written the name of any person for whom he has agreed to vote, or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper marked, written or printed in his possession as a guide by which he could make out his ticket, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be confined in jail thirty days. [Sec. 70, p. 536, Acts 1905.]

Art. 243. [231] Illegal acts while voting.—Any voter who shall show his ballot so as to reveal the vote cast by him, or who marks it otherwise than required by law for identification or who after voting delivers to the precinct judge of election any ballot other than the one delivered to him by the judge at the polling place, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 1905, sec. 559, p. 159.]

LIMITING EXPENDITURE IN PRIMARY ELECTION

Art.

- 262. Definitions.
- 263. Appointing manager.
- 264. Limiting expenditures by candidate.
- 265. Campaign contributions.
- 266. Paid workers.
- 267. One candidate contributing to another.
- 268. Giving or accepting.
- 269. Sworn statement.

Article 262. Definitions.—The word "candidate" shall mean any person who has announced to any other person or to the public that he is a candidate for the nomination for any office which the laws of this State permit to be determined by a primary election. The words "county nomination" shall mean the nomination for any office to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county and the words "District nomination" shall mean the nomination for any office to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county. The words "State nomination" shall mean the nomination for any office to be filled by the choice of the voters of the entire State.

In all cases where second primary elections may be held in compliance with any law of this State, the first and second primary elections shall for the purposes of this law be considered together as one primary election. [Sec. 1, Act Mar. 20, 1919, Acts 1919, p. 139.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 263. Appointing manager.—Every candidate for a State or District nomination may designate a campaign manager by written appointment filed with the Secretary of State. Every candidate for a county nomination may designate a campaign manager by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of his county, and each candidate for State or District nomination, or the lawfully designated campaign manager of such candidate, may also designate an assistant campaign manager for each county affected by such candidacy by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of the county. [Sec. 2, Id.]

Art. 264. Limiting expenditures by candidate.—Any candidate for any nomination for a State, county, district or precinct office, to be determined by a primary election held under the laws of this State, or any campaign manager for such candidate, who shall himself, or by or through any other person or persons, or on behalf of any other person or persons, directly or indirectly, give, pay or expend any money, or pay or give anything of value, or promise to give, pay or expend any money or to pay or to give anything of value, or authorize any expenditure or assume any pecuniary liability in furthering or opposing the candidacy of any person for any nomination to be determined by such primary election, except for the purposes provided for by the laws of this State, governing such primary elections; or any candidate or any campaign manager of any candidate or his clerk or agent, or assistant campaign manager, or his clerk or agent, in furthering or opposing the candidacy of any person for any nomination in any such primary election, who shall expend any money, or give or promise to give or pay any money or anything of value, in excess of the amount fixed and prescribed by the laws of this State regulating expenditures by candidates and campaign managers, at such primary elections, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or confined in jail for not more than one year, or both, or be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 3, Id.]

Art. 265. Campaign contributions.—It shall be lawful for any person to make campaign contributions to be paid directly to the candidate or his lawfully appointed campaign manager or by citizens of any county to the lawfully designated and appointed assistant campaign manager for such county, such contributions to be used for lawful purposes. It shall be lawful for any citizens residing in any locality to raise by voluntary contributions a fund not exceeding fifty dollars for the purpose of defraying the expenses of any political meeting to be held in such locality, such expense to include the cost of advertising such meeting, or providing a place to hold the same, or providing music therefor, or the bona fide traveling expenses and hotel bills of speakers. A statement of all receipts and disbursements for such purposes signed and sworn to by the person or persons receiving and disbursing the same shall be filed with the county clerk of the county in which such meeting is held, within twenty-four hours after it is held. It shall be lawful for any person to expend a sum for postage, or telegraph or telephone tolls, or for cost of any correspondence or any other lawful purpose out of his own funds where the sum is not to be repaid to him in behalf of any one candidate a sum which shall not in the aggregate exceed ten dollars. It shall be lawful for any person to contribute bona fide his own personal services and personal traveling expenses, including hotel bills while traveling in the support of any candidacy. Except as expressly permitted by the foregoing provisions of this article, it shall be unlawful for any person other than candidates for nomination to be determined by primary elections or the campaign managers or assistant campaign managers of such candidate lawfully designated as provided in this chapter or the agents of such campaign managers or assistant campaign managers lawfully authorized as provided in this chapter, either himself or by or through any other person or on behalf of any other person directly or indirectly to give, pay or expend any money or give or pay anything of value or promise to give, pay or expend any money or authorize any expenditure or assume any pecuniary liability for the purpose of aiding, or defeating or helping to defeat the nomination at any such primary election of any candidate for any nomination to be determined thereby. Any person who shall violate any provision of this article shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars or by confinement in jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, or by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 4, Id.]

Art. 266. Paid workers.—Whoever otherwise than in compliance with the provisions of this chapter, shall hire or employ or offer to hire or employ or shall reward or give to any person anything of value for his services or for loss of time or for reimbursement for his expenses in consideration of such person directly or indirectly working, electioneering or making public addresses for or against any candidate for a nomination in a primary election, or who rewards or offers to reward any person for his vote or influence or the promise of his vote or influence for or against any candidate for nomination in a primary election, shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars, or be confined in jail for not more than one year, or both, or be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 5, Id.]

Art. 267. One candidate contributing to another.—Any candidate for a nomination in a primary election or his campaign manager or his assistant campaign manager, who shall directly or indirectly himself or by or through another person, give, pay, expend or contribute any money or thing of value for the furtherance of the candidacy of any other candidate shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars or be confined in jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Sec. 6, Id.]

Art. 268. Giving or accepting.—Any candidate or other person who furnishes, gives, or delivers to another person any money or other thing of value to be used in violation of or for any purpose prohibited by any provision of this chapter and any person who receives or accepts any money or thing of value to be used in violation of or for any purpose prohibited by any provision of this chapter shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $1000.00, or by confinement in jail for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment, or by confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 7, Id.]

Art. 269. Sworn statement.—Each candidate for nomination in a primary election and every campaign manager or assistant campaign manager for any such candidate, is hereby required to keep an accurate record of all funds received and disbursed for campaign purposes, which record shall be preserved for a period of twelve months, and shall be open to inspection of all opposing candidates and qualified voters, and every candidate and campaign manager is hereby required to file a sworn statement of all monies previously received or disbursed by him, including money borrowed and liabilities incurred but not paid, not more than thirty nor less than twenty-five days prior to the date of the primary election, and not more than twelve nor less than eight days prior to the date of the primary election. Each such statement shall include all items contained in all statements previously made in accordance with the requirements of this article if any, and shall include the names of all contributors to any campaign fund, handled by the party making the same, and the names of all persons from whom any money has been received or from whom any money has been borrowed for such fund, and the names of all persons to whom disbursements exceeding ten dollars in amount have been made and the purposes of such disbursements. Such statement shall also set forth that it is as full and explicit as the party making it is able to make, and the party making it shall before some officer qualified to administer oaths, take and subscribe the following oath, which shall be filed with said statement.

"I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement filed herewith correctly shows all moneys received by me and disbursed by me or in my behalf or with my knowledge or consent through or by any other person in connection with the candidacy of _____ for the nomination for _____ before the _____ primary election, and that I have neither directly or indirectly arranged or assented to, encouraged or connived at the spending of any money other than as shown in said statement, and that I have not violated any provision of the laws of Texas, governing primary elections of the expenditure of funds in connection with a candidacy for a nomination in such primary election in letter or in spirit."

Such statements and oaths shall be filed within the times required by this article by candidates for State and District nominations and their campaign managers with the Secretary of State, and by candidates for County nominations and their campaign managers and by the assistant campaign managers of candidates for State and District nominations with the County Clerk of the County in which they reside.

Whoever shall wilfully and corruptly make any false oath, affidavit or sworn statements in complying with the requirements of this article shall be fined not to exceed $1000.00 or be confined in jail for not more than one year, or both, or be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 8, Id.]

CHAPTER NINE

ELECTION FOR CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

- Art.
 270. Refusing judge, clerk and supervisor.
 271. Making false return or certificate of result.
 272. Intimidating voter.
 273. False certificate.
 274. County judge refusing to appoint officers.

Article 270. Refusing judge, clerk and supervisor.—Whenever any proposed amendment to the Constitution of this State is to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State, either at an election held for that purpose or at any election for the State officers, the county chairman of any organization advocating, and the county chairman of any organization opposing the adoption of such amendment, or if such county chairman fails to act, then three members of the county executive committee of any organization advocating, or three members of the county executive committee opposing the adoption of such constitutional amendment may at any time not less than five days before the election at which such proposed amendment is to be voted upon, nominate one judge, one clerk and one supervisor to serve as judge, clerk and supervisor, respectively, for the voting precinct or box for which they are so selected, who shall be qualified voters of the voting precinct or box for which they are chosen, by presenting in writing to the county judge of the county the names of such judges, clerks and supervisors so selected, and such county judge shall appoint the parties nominated to act in such capacities at the respective voting precincts and boxes for which they are respectively selected. Should the county judge fail or refuse to appoint such officers, they shall apply to the officers and judges of the voting precinct or box for which they were respectively nominated, and the manager and judges of such precinct or box shall permit such persons so selected to act in the capacities named. The managers or judges of the election so refusing, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and imprisoned in jail for not less than twenty and not more than sixty days. [Secs. 1 and 2, Act March 17, 1911, Acts 1911, p. 144.]

Art. 271. Making false return or false certificate of result.—Any manager, judge or clerk of any such election, who shall knowingly make any false return or false certificate of the result of any such election, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 5, Id.]

Art. 272. Intimidating voter.—Any election officer or supervisor who shall intimidate or attempt to intimidate any voter, or knowingly refuse to allow any qualified voter to vote, or any person who, within one hundred feet of the voting box on election day, shall intimidate or attempt to intimidate any qualified voter from voting, or in any manner by word or act attempt to influence any voter to cast his vote for or against any question provided under this Act to be voted upon, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Sec. 5a, Id.]

Art. 273. False certificate.—Any officers of any county upon whom is placed by law the duty of making and certifying to the Secretary of State returns of any such election, who shall knowingly make or certify to any false certificate or false statement of the result of any such election shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Sec. 5, Id.]

Art. 274. County judge refusing to appoint officers.—If any county judge refuses to appoint the officers as provided for and required by law, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days, and such refusal shall be grounds for his impeachment and removal from office. [Sec. 7, Id.]

CHAPTER TEN

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATOR

[Act Dec. 16, 1863, Act Dec. 2, 1887, Acts 1887, p. 108.]

Art. 284. [300] [197] Not applicable.—The preceding article shall not apply to household duties, works of necessity or charity; nor to necessary work on farms or plantations in order to prevent the loss of any crop; nor to the running of steamboats and other water crafts, rail cars, wagon trains, common carriers, nor to the delivery of goods by them or the receiving or storing of said goods by the parties or their agents to whom said goods are delivered; nor to stages carrying the United States mail or passengers; nor to foundries, sugar mills, or herders who have a herd of stock actually gathered and under herd; nor to persons traveling; nor to ferrymen or keepers of toll bridges, keepers of hotels, boarding houses and restaurants and their servants; nor to keepers of livery stables and their servants; nor to any person who conscientiously believes that the seventh or any other day of the week ought to be observed as the Sabbath, and who actually refrains from business and labor on that day for religious reasons. [Act Dec. 2, 1871, Acts 1871, p. 62. Amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 285. [301] [198] Horse racing or gaming on Sunday.—Any person who shall run or be engaged in running any horse race, or who shall permit or allow the use of any nine or ten pin alley, or who shall be engaged in match shooting or any species of gaming for money or other [other] consideration, within the limits of any city or town on Sunday, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1871, p. 62.]

Art. 286. [302] [199] [186] Selling goods on Sunday.—Any merchant, grocer, or dealer in wares or merchandise, or trader in any business whatsoever, or the proprietor of any place of public amusement, or the agent or employe of any such person, who shall sell, barter, or permit his place of business or place of public amusement to be open for the purpose of traffic or public amusement on Sunday, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars. The term place of public amusement, shall be construed to mean circuses, theaters, variety theaters and such other amusements as are exhibited and for which an admission fee is charged; and shall also include dances at disorderly houses, low dives and places of like character, with or without fees for admission. [Act Dec. 2, 1871, Acts 1883, p. 66, Acts 1887, p. 108.]

Art. 287. Permitting the sale of gasoline and lubricants on Sunday.—The preceding article shall not apply to markets or dealers in provisions as to sales of provisions made by them before 9 o'clock a. m., nor to the sales of burial or shrouding material, newspapers, ice, ice cream, milk, nor to the sending of telegraph or telephone messages at any hour of the day nor to keepers of drug stores, hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, livery stables, bath houses, or ice dealers, nor to telegraph or telephone offices, nor to sales of gasoline or other motor fuel, nor to vehicle lubricants. [Acts 1925, p. 347.] [39th Leg., ch. 139, § 1.]

Art.

- 296. Transfer of school children.
- 297. School attendance required.
- 298. Exempt from attendance.
- 299. Duties of parent or guardian.
- 300. Habitual truant.
- 301. School reports.

Article 288. Shall use English language.—Except as herein provided, each teacher, principal and superintendent employed in the public free schools of this State shall use the English language exclusively in the conduct of the work of the schools and recitations and exercises of the school shall be conducted in the English language, and the trustees shall not prescribe any texts for elementary grades not printed in English; provided, however, that it shall be lawful to provide text books for and to teach the Spanish language in elementary grades in the public free schools in counties bordering on the boundary line between the United States and the Republic of Mexico and having a city or cities of five thousand or more inhabitants according to the United States census for the year 1920. It is lawful to teach Latin, Greek, French, German, Spanish, Bohemian, or other language as a branch of study in the high school grades as outlined in the state course of study. Any such teacher, principal, superintendent, trustee, or other school official having responsibility in the conduct of the work of such schools who fails to comply with the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, cancellation of certificate or removal from office, or both fine and such cancellation or fine and removal from office. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 170; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 267, ch. 188, § 1.]

Art. 289. Shall teach patriotism.—The daily program of every public school shall be so formulated by the teacher, principal or superintendent [superintendent] as to include at least ten minutes for the teachings of intelligent patriotism, including the needs of the State and Federal Governments, the duty of the citizen to the State, and the obligation of the State to the citizen. Any official or employé of the public free schools who fails to perform his legal duty in connection with the provisions of this law shall be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or removal from office or both fine and removal from office. [Acts 4th C. S., 1918, p. 67.]

Art. 290. To teach Texas History.—The History of Texas shall be taught in all public schools in and only in the history course of all such schools. The said course shall not be less than two hours in any one week. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall notify the different county and city superintendents as to how said course shall be divided, and any city or county superintendent who fails or refuses to follow out the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 302.]

Art. 291. [1512] [1006] Approving voucher without certificate.—Any county or city superintendent or school trustee who approves any teacher's contract or voucher until the person has presented a valid certificate shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1891, p. 187.]

Art. 292. [1513] Traffic in examination questions.—Whoever shall sell, barter, or give away, prior to any forthcoming examination, to applicants for teachers' certificates, or to any person, the questions prepared by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to be used by the county, summer normal, or any board of examiners in the examination of teachers at said forthcoming examination; or any person who shall accept, or otherwise obtain possession of such questions, or the answers thereto, prior to any such examination; or whoever shall use the same fraudulently at the time of said examination, or thereafter; or who shall permit or aid in the substitution of examination papers fraudulently prepared to be substituted for examination papers prepared during the examination; or who accepts remuneration for the granting of certificates or for aiding others to obtain certificates, except as provided for by law, shall be fined not less than one hundred and not more than five hundred dollars and imprisoned in jail for not less than twenty nor more than sixty days. [Acts 1901, p. 272, Acts 1905, p. 296, Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 114.]

Art. 293. Violating Textbook Law.—Any person who wilfully violates any provision of the law providing for the purchase and distribution of free text books for the public free school[s] shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 47.]

This article is superseded by article 293c.

Art. 293a. Frustrating use of prescribed text books.—Any school trustee who shall prevent or aid in preventing the use in any public school in this State of the books or any of them as adopted under the provisions of this Act, or any teacher in any public school in this State who shall wilfully fail or refuse to use the said books shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum of not less than five dollars and not more than fifty dollars for each offense, and each day of such wilful failure or refusal by said teacher or wilful prevention of the use of the books by said trustee shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 176, p. 427, § 23.]

The act referred to in this article, and article 293c, is the free textbook act, Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 417, ch. 176, the civil provisions of which are set forth in the Revised Civil Statutes, 1925 as articles 2839 to 2876.]

Art. 293b. Rebate on text books.—No trustee or teacher shall ever receive any commission or rebate on any books used in the schools with which he is concerned as such trustee or teacher and if any such trustee or teacher shall receive or accept any such commission or rebate he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction he shall be fined not less than fifty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 176, p. 427, § 24.]

Art. 293c. Violating textbook law.—A wilful violation of any provision of this Act by any person shall be a misdemeanor punishable by fine of not less than $5.00 nor more than $100.00. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 176, p. 433, § 48.]

See note to article 293a. This article apparently supersedes article 293.

Art. 294. [418] Refusal to answer census trustee.—Every person having control of any child which will be over seven and under seventeen years of age on the first of September next thereafter and who, being requested by the census trustee to prepare the form prescribed by law giving the information showing the name, sex and date of birth of each child of which he has control and which is within said ages, or to give the information necessary to enable the trustee to prepare the same, shall refuse to do so, or shall refuse to make oath to such form when filled according to his statement of facts in regard to said children, or shall fail to return the form left at his home in his absence to the census trustee as required by law, shall be fined not less than five nor more than ten dollars. [Acts 1893, p. 199, Acts 1905, p. 285.]

Art. 295. [1514] Loitering on school grounds.—Any person who loiters or loafs upon any public school grounds during the session of such school after being warned by the person in charge of such school to leave such grounds shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 452.]

Art. 296. Transfer of school children.—In the case of conditions arising from public calamity in any section of the State such as serious floods, prolonged drouth, or extraordinary border disturbances, resulting after the scholastic census has been taken, in such sudden changes of the scholastic population of any county as would work a hardship in the support of the public free schools of the said county, the State apportionment of any child of school age may, on approval of the State Board of Education, be ordered by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction to be transferred to any other county or independent school district in any other county; providing that the facts warranting such transfer shall be sent to the State Superintendent by the county or district board of trustees of schools to which transfer is to be made with a formal request for the said transfer before the first of August of the year in which such unusual conditions occur, and provided further that no application for emergency transfers shall be granted unless the number of transfers applied for exceeds twenty per cent. of the number of children assigned to said district including regular transfers as a result of the last preceding census. The State Superintendent shall in such case notify the county superintendent of the county to which the funds are to be transferred and the county superintendent of the county from which the funds are to be transferred that final apportionments of school funds cannot be made under these circumstances before August 15. All arrangements for the said emergency transfers must be completed by the 15th of August following the unusual conditions causing the emergency. Children whose State funds are thus transferred to any county shall be included in the number of children for whom the county school apportionment of the said county is made. Any county judge serving as ex-officio county superintendent, or any county superintendent, district, city or town superintendent or any school officer who refuses to comply with the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00, or be confined in jail not more than sixty days, or both. [Acts 1923, p. 253.]

Art. 297. School attendance required.—Every child in this State who is eight years and not more than fourteen years old shall be required to attend the public schools in the district of its residence, or in some other district to which it may be transferred as provided by law, for a period of not less than one hundred days. The period of compulsory school attendance at each school shall begin at the opening of the school term unless otherwise authorized by the district school trustees and notice given by the trustees prior to the beginning of such school term; provided that no child shall be required to attend school for a longer period than the maximum term of the public school in the district where such child resides. [Acts 1915, p. 94, Acts 1923, p. 255.]

Art. 298. Exempt from attendance.—The following classes of children are exempt from the requirements of the compulsory attendance law:

(a) Any child in attendance upon a private or parochial school which shall include in its course a study of good citizenship, and shall make the English language the basis of instruction in all subjects.

(b) Any child whose bodily or mental condition is such as to render attendance inadvisable, and who holds definite certificate of a reputable physician specifying this condition and covering the period of absence.

(c) Any child who is blind, deaf, dumb, or feeble-minded, for the instruction of whom no adequate provision has been made by the school district.

(d) Any child living more than two and one-half miles by direct and traveled road from the nearest public school supported for children of the same race and color of such child, and with no free transportation provided.

(e) Any child more than twelve years of age who has satisfactorily completed the work of the seventh grade of a standard elementary school of seven grades, and whose services are needed in support of a parent or other person standing in parental relation to the child, may, on presentation of proper evidence to the county superintendent of public instruction, be exempted from further attendance at school. [Acts 1915, p. 94, Acts 1921, p. 235, Act Mar. 23, 1923, Acts 1923, p. 255.]

Art. 299. Duties of parent or guardian.—If any parent or person standing in parental relation to a child within the compulsory school attendance ages who is not properly excused from attendance upon school for some exemption provided by law fails to require such child to attend school regularly for such period as is required by law, it shall be the duty of the attendance officer who has jurisdiction in the territory where said parent or person standing in parental relation resides, to warn such parent or person standing in parental relation that this law must be immediately complied with, and upon failure of said parent or person standing in parental relation to immediately comply with this law after such warning has been given, the official discharging the duties of the attendance officer shall forthwith file complaint against such parent or person standing in parental relation to said child, which complaint shall be filed in the County Court, or in the Justice Court in the precinct where such parent or guardian resides. Any parent or other person standing in parental relation upon conviction for failure to comply with the provisions of this law shall be fined for the first offense five dollars, and for the second offense ten dollars, and for each subsequent offense twenty-five dollars. Each day that said child remains out of said school after said warning has been given or after said child has been ordered in school by the Juvenile Court, may constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1915, p. 96.]

Art. 300. Habitual truant.—If any parent or person standing in parental relation to any child within the compulsory school attendance ages shall present proof that he or she is unable to compel said child to attend school, said person shall be exempt from the penalties provided in the preceding article as regards the non-attendance of such child, and such child may be proceeded against as an habitual truant and be subject to commitment to the State Juvenile Training School or any other suitable school agreed upon between such parent or guardian and the judge of the Juvenile Court. [Id.]

Art. 301. School reports.—The State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall require of Judges acting as ex-officio county superintendents of public schools, of county, city and town superintendents, of county and city treasurers and depositories, and of treasurers and depositories of school boards, and of other school officers and teachers, such school reports relating to the school fund and to other school affairs as he may deem proper for collecting information and advancing the interests of the public schools, and shall furnish the county, city and town superintendents, treasurers, and depositories, and other school officers and teachers for the use of such teachers and officers the necessary blanks and forms for making such reports and carrying out such instructions as may be required of them. All teachers, librarians, school presidents, superintendents, principals, or other school officers employed by all schools supported wholly or partly by the State, shall fill out and send to the State Department of Education, before the expiration of the first school month of each annual session, a registration card, supplied by the State Department of Education, which card shall furnish blanks for useful statistical information, and said teachers, librarians, school presidents, superintendents, and principals shall not be paid the salary for the first month's services, except on the presentation of a receipt certifying that the said registration card has been received by the State Department of Education. The monthly salary of any county judge acting as ex-officio county superintendent of public schools, or any county, district, city or town superintendent, or principal or any teacher or librarian in any school supported wholly or partly by the State, or any assessor, county treasurer, treasurer in county school depository or treasurer of any school district depository, shall be withheld by the officials or authorities paying the said salary, on notification by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction that said county judge, acting as ex-officio county superintendent of public schools, county, district, city or town superintendent or principal, teacher, librarian, assessor, county treasurer, treasurer of county school depository or treasurer of school district depository, has refused or failed to make the reports required of him; provided, that this notification shall not be sent by the State Superintendent until at least two written requests have been made for the desired information and until thirty days have elapsed from the time of the first request without the receipt of the information required; in such case the aforesaid monthly salary shall be withheld until a notice is received from the State Superintendent, certifying that the information requested has been furnished by the delinquent person.

Any employé of the State or of any district, county, city, town or school, who may be responsible for the payment of the salary of any county judge acting as ex-officio county superintendent of public schools, or any county, district or town superintendent or principal, or other school officer, or any teacher, librarian, assessor, county-treasurer, treasurer of county school depository, or treasurer of school district depository, after notice by the State Superintendent that the said person has failed to comply with the provisions of this article who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 294, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 185.]

[329] [225] [210] Aiding one charged with felony to escape from jail.—Whoever shall convey or cause to be conveyed into any jail any disguise, instrument, arms, or any other thing useful to aid any prisoner in escaping, with intent to facilitate the escape of a prisoner lawfully detained in such jail on an accusation of felony, or shall in any other manner calculated to effect the object aid in the escape of a prisoner legally confined in jail, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 321, Acts 1858, p. 162.]

Art. 327. [330] [226] [211] Aiding one charged with misdemeanor to escape from jail.—Whoever shall, by any means contemplated in the preceding article, aid in the escape of a person legally confined in jail upon an accusation for a misdemeanor, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [O. C. 323.]

Art. 328. [331] [227] [212] Breaking into jail to rescue prisoner.—Whoever shall break into any jail for the purpose of effecting the rescue or escape of a prisoner therein confined, or for the purpose of aiding in the escape of any prisoner so confined, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than six years. [O. C. 322.]

Art. 329. [332] [228] [213] Aiding one charged with felony to escape.—Whoever wilfully aids in the escape of a prisoner from the custody of an officer by whom he is legally held in custody on an accusation of felony, by doing any act calculated to effect that object, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years; and if, in aiding in the escape, he shall make use of arms, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [O. C. 325.]

Art. 330. [333] [229] [214] Aiding one charged with misdemeanor to escape from officer.—Whoever wilfully aids a prisoner to escape from the custody of an officer by whom he is legally detained in custody after conviction of a misdemeanor or while being so detained in custody on an accusation for misdemeanor, by doing an act calculated to effect that object, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars; and if in aiding in the escape he shall make use of arms, he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [O. C. 326, Acts 1905, p. 377.]

Art. 331. State Home for children.—Whoever shall persuade, coerce, employ or induce in any manner any child who has been committed to the State Home for Dependent and Neglected Children, from any institution or from any home selected by the person empowered by law to make such selection, without the knowledge and consent of such persons, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than sixty days nor more than six months, or both. [Acts 1919, p. 304.]

Art. 332. Colony for the Feebleminded.—Whoever entices a patient away from the State Colony for Feebleminded, or assists any such patient to escape therefrom, or shall remove or abduct or kidnap any such patient therefrom, as the terms "abduct" and "kidnap" are defined in this Code, or conceals any patient who has escaped or been enticed, removed, abducted or kidnapped from such colony, shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not more than five years. [Acts 1923, p. 174.]

Art. 333. Interfering with custody of girl committed to Training School.—Whoever shall persuade, coerce, employ or induce in any manner any girl who has been committed to the Girls Training School, from such institution or from any home selected by the persons empowered by law to make such selection, without the knowledge and consent of such persons, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than sixty days, or both. [Acts 1913, p. 291.]

Art. 333a. Interfering with colored girl committed to Training School.—Any person who shall persuade, coerce, employ or induce in any manner any girl who has been committed to the Colored Girl's Training School provided for in this Act [Civ. St. art. 3259a] to leave said school, or to leave any home selected for any such girl as provided in this Act [Civ. St. art. 3259a] without the knowledge or consent of the superintendent of said school and the Board of Control, and the person immediately in charge of said girl, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars and not more than Five Hundred Dollars, or by imprisonment in the County Jail for not less than thirty days and not more than sixty days, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 441, ch. 293, § 11.]

Art. 334. [334] [230] Assisting escape of juvenile.—Whoever shall knowingly assist any inmate lawfully confined in the State Juvenile Training School to escape, or who shall knowingly conceal such inmate, or advise or abet the escape of such inmate or who shall furnish such inmate with money, arms, or any character of means to escape, with the purpose of facilitating the escape of such inmate, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 335. [335] [231] [215] Telegraph officer divulging process.—Any executive officer, director, superintendent, manager, operator, clerk, messenger or other party in the employ of a telegraph company, who shall wilfully divulge or in any manner make known, except to the proper authority, the contents of any warrant, affidavit or telegram relating to any crime already committed, or for the prevention of the same, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in the penitentiary not less than two years nor more than five years. [Acts 1871, p. 40.]

Art. 336. [336] [232] [216] Preventing execution of civil process.—Whoever shall prevent or defeat the execution of any process in a civil cause, by any means not amounting to actual resistance, but which are calculated to prevent the execution of such process, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars; evading the execution of such process is not an offense under this article. [O. C. 327.]

Art. 337. [337] [233] [217] Offenses complete without actual escape.—The offenses enumerated in articles 326, 327, 328, 329 and 330 are complete without actual escape of the prisoner. A person accused of any of said offenses may be prosecuted and tried, although the person escaping be retaken, and although after being retaken he is tried and acquitted.

Art. 338. [339] [235] [219] Opposing arrest of another for felony.—Whoever shall wilfully oppose or resist an officer in executing, or attempting to execute any lawful warrant for the arrest of another person in a felony case shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. If arms be used in such resistance, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [O. C. 331; Acts 1858, p. 163.]

Art. 339. [340] [236] [220] Opposing arrest of another for misdemeanor.—If any person shall wilfully oppose or resist an officer in executing or attempting to execute any lawful warrant for the arrest of another person in a misdemeanor case, or in arresting or attempting to arrest any person without a warrant, where the law authorizes or requires the arrest to be made without a warrant, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, and if arms be used, be fined not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars. [O. C. 332; Acts 1881, p. 108.]

Art. 340. [341] [237] [221] Resisting execution of civil process.—Whoever shall wilfully resist or oppose an officer in executing or attempting to execute, any process in a civil cause shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars; and if arms be used in such resistance, the punishment shall be doubled. [O. C. 333.]

Art. 341. [344] [238] [222] Accused resisting warrant.—If the party against whom a legal warrant of arrest is directed in any criminal case, resist its execution when attempted by any person legally authorized to execute the same, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. If arms be used in making the resistance, in such manner as would make him liable for an assault and battery or assault with intent to murder, or any other offense against the person, he shall receive the highest penalty affixed by law for the commission of such offense in ordinary cases. [O. C. 334.]

Art. 342. [345] [239] [223] Process must be executed in legal manner.—To render a person guilty of any offense included within the meaning of articles 338 and 339 the warrant or process must be executed or its execution attempted in a legal manner. [O. C. 335.]

Art. 343. [346] [240] [224] "Accusation."—The word "accusation" as used in this Code means a charge made in a lawful manner against any person that he has been guilty of some offense which subjects him to prosecution in the name of the State. One is said to be "accused" of an offense from the time that any "criminal action" shall have been commenced against him.

A legal arrest with or without warrant; a complaint to a magistrate, or an indictment are examples of accusation. [O. C. 356.]

Art. 344. [347] [241] [225] "Legally confined in jail."—A person is "legally confined in jail," or "legally detained in custody," when he has been committed or arrested upon a legal warrant, or arrested in any legal manner. [O. C. 337.]

Art. 345. [348] [242] [226] "Jail."—The word "jail" means any place of confinement used for detaining a prisoner. [O. C. 338.]

Art. 346. [349] [243] [227] "Officer."—By "Officer," as used in this chapter, is meant any

peace officer, as sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal or policeman of a city or town, any jailer or guard, or any person specially authorized by warrant to arrest. [O. C. 339.]

Art. 347. [350] [244] [228] "Arms."—The term "arms," as used in this chapter, includes any deadly weapon.

Art. 348. [351] [245] [229] Refusing to aid an officer.—If any person, being called on by a magistrate or peace officer shall fail or refuse to aid such officer in any manner in which, by law, he may be rightfully called on to aid or assist in the execution of a duty incumbent upon such magistrate or peace officer, he shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [O. C. 339; Acts 1858, p. 163.]

Art. 349. [1610] Excessive whipping of prisoners.—The Prison Commission may adopt such modes of punishment as may be necessary, such punishment being always humane, and placing prisoners in stocks shall be prohibited. Whipping with not exceeding twenty lashes on the bare rump and thighs may be resorted to with prisoners of the third class, who cannot be made to observe the rules by milder methods of punishment. The strap to be used must be of leather, not over two and one-half inches wide, and twenty-four inches long, attached to a wooden handle; no convict shall be whipped until same has been authorized by at least two members of the Prison Commission upon their written order, and such order so issued shall be executed only in the presence of a prison physician, and a sworn report shall be made by the officer executing such order to the Penitentiary Commission, who shall keep a record of all such reports in a well bound book to be kept for that purpose, which shall be at all times open to public inspection; and such report so to be made by such officer executing the order of the Prison Commission, shall state the name of the convict whipped, the number of strokes administered, the size of the strap used, the time and place thereof, in whose presence same was done, and the cause thereof. The Prison Commission shall make a semi-annual report of the whipping of convicts to the district judge of the county where such whippings occurred, who shall report the same to the grand jury, which shall make investigation thereof, if they deem same advisable. The utmost care must be used by the officer executing the order of the Commission not to break the skin of the prisoner whipped, and any person guilty of whipping a prisoner more lashes than as provided herein, or striking a prisoner, except in self-defense, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars and imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [Sec. 33, Act September 17, 1910.]

Art. 350. To report death of prisoner.—The Prison Commission or other persons in charge of prisoners upon the death of any prisoner under their care and control if he die suddenly or from accident or injury, shall at once notify the nearest justice of the peace of the county in which said prisoner dies of such death. It shall be the duty of such justice of the peace, notified of the death of such prisoner, to go and make a personal examination of the body of such prisoner, and such justice shall reduce to writing the evidence taken during such inquest and shall furnish a copy of the same to the district judge of the county in which said prisoner dies. The copy so furnished to said district judge shall be turned over by him to the succeeding grand jury; and the said judge shall charge the grand jury if there be any suspicion of wrong doing shown by the inquest papers to thoroughly investigate the cause of such death. No inquest shall be required when the prisoner dies from natural causes, and has been under the care of the prison physician. Any officer or employé of the prison system having charge of any prisoner at the time of the death by accident, injury or sudden death of such prisoner, who fails to immediately notify a justice of the peace of the death of such prisoner, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be confined in jail not less than sixty days, nor more than one year. [Acts 1910, p. 156, Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 52.]

Art. 351. [1614] Report of prison physician.—Each physician employed in the prison system shall at the end of each month file with the Prison Commission a written sworn report which shall state the name, race and sex of each prisoner treated, or examined by him during said month, the malady or disease with which each was afflicted, and if any shall be suffering with wounds or injuries inflicted by accident or some individual, he shall state the nature and extent of said injuries, by whom and by what means inflicted, or how the same occurred, and all such further information concerning said matters, and the condition of each prisoner treated or examined by him during said month, as he may possess. For a failure to make such a report or any false statement knowingly made by any such physician in any such report he shall be prosecuted for perjury. [Acts September 17, 1910, Sec. 50.]

Art. 352. [1616] Financial interest in contract.—Any officer, agent or employé in any capacity connected with the prison system who shall be financially interested either directly or indirectly in any contract for the furnishing of supplies or property to the prison system, or the purchase of supplies or property for the prison system, or who shall be financially interested in any contract to which said prison system is a party, or who shall knowingly and fraudulently sell or dispose of any property belonging to the prison system below its reasonable market value, or who shall be financially interested in any other transaction connected with the prison system shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. Each transaction is a separate offense. [Sec. 56, Id.]

Art. 353. [1617] Unauthorized punishment of prisoner.—Any sergeant, guard or other officer or employé of the prison system who shall inflict any punishment upon a prisoner not authorized by the rules of the prison system shall be guilty of an assault. It shall be the duty of the Prison Commission to make complaint before the proper officer of any county in which such assault was committed upon such prisoner. In all cases where any person is charged by complaint or indictment with an offense against a prisoner, prisoners and ex-prisoners shall be permitted to testify. [Sec. 57, Id.]

[O. C. 344.]

Art. 359. [357] [251] [235] Clerk giving false certificate.—If any such clerk shall give a false certificate, stating that any person has done any act whatever, to which he has a right to certify, or that such person is entitled to any right whatever, when such clerk may by law give such certificate if the same were true, he shall be punished as directed in the preceding article. [O. C. 345.]

Art. 360. [358] [252] [236] Notary public giving false certificate.—If any notary public or other officer authorized by law, shall give a false certificate for the purpose of authenticating any instrument of writing for registration, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 346.]

Art. 361. [359] [253] [237] Officer giving blank certificate.—If any officer authorized by law to take depositions or administer oaths in this State, shall falsely certify that any deposition was sworn to before him, or any oath made, or shall with fraudulent intent place his certificate, signature or seal to any affidavit which is drawn with blanks as to any other matter of substance, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. Within the meaning of this article shall be included the case of an officer who, with design that the same may be filled up and used for fraudulent purposes attaches his signature or seal of office to any paper wholly blank. [O. C. 347, Acts 1858, p. 163.]

Art. 362. [360] [254] [238] Failing to keep record of acknowledgments.—Any county clerk, justice of the peace, notary public, or any other officer in this State authorized by law to take acknowledgments or proof of instruments required or permitted by law to be placed on record, who shall willfully fail, neglect or refuse to enter and record in a well-bound book a short statement of each acknowledgment or proof taken by him and sign the same officially, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 156.]

Art. 363. [361] [255] [239] Requisites of such record.—By "short statement," as used in the preceding article, is meant that such statement shall recite the true date on which such acknowledgment or proofs were taken, the name of the grantor and the grantee of such instrument, its date, if proved by a subscribing witness the name and the known or alleged residence of the witness and whether personally known or unknown to the officer; if personally unknown this fact shall be stated, and by whom such person was introduced to the officer, if by any one; and the known or alleged residence of such person. Such statement shall also recite, if the instrument is acknowledged by the grantor, his then place of residence, if known to the officer; if unknown, his alleged residence, and whether such grantor is personally known to the officer; if personally unknown by whom such grantor was introduced, if by any one, and his place of residence. If land is conveyed or charged by the instrument, the name of the original grantee shall be mentioned, and the county where the same is situated; and a failure to comply with any one of the requirements shall be punished as prescribed in the preceding article. [Acts 1874, p. 156.]

Art. 364. [362] [255a] False certificate of corporate indebtedness, etc.—If any mayor, county judge, tax assessor, or other officer or person, for the purpose of securing the certificate of the Attorney General, provided for in the issuance and sale of bonds by any county, city or town in this State, shall knowingly make, or be concerned in making or forwarding to the Attorney General, a false certificate as to the amount of the taxable value of the property in such county, city or town, as shown by the last official assessment, or knowingly and falsely certify as to the amount of indebtedness of such county, city or town, or the rate of tax levied to provide interest and sinking fund for such indebtedness, or other facts required by the Attorney General, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Acts 1893, p. 85.]

than taxes for the use of the State, who shall fail to report to the district court of his county, in writing and under oath, on the first day of each term thereof, the amount of money that may come into his hands for the use of the State since the last term of said court, from whom collected, and by virtue of what process, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 182.]

Art. 391. [396] [273] [257] Officer failing to report collections for county.—Any officer, such as is named in the preceding article, whose duty it may be to collect money, other than taxes, for the use of any county, who shall fail to report in writing, and under oath, to the commissioners court of such county at each regular term thereof, the amount of money that may have come into his hands for the use of such county since the last term of said court, from whom the same was received, and by virtue of what process, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 392. [397] [274] [258] Town or city officer failing to report collections.—Any town or city marshal, or constable, or other officer or person who may collect money other than taxes for the use of such town or city, who shall fail to report in writing and under oath to the mayor and board of aldermen, or common council of such town or city on the first Monday of each month, the amount of money that may have come into his hands during the month preceding such report for the use of such town or city, from whom the same was collected, and by virtue of what process, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 393. [398] [275] Justice to report jury service.—Justices of the peace shall report to the county clerk on the first Monday in each month the names of the persons who have served as jurors in his court for the preceding month, and the number of days and fractions of days that they have served respectively, and the number of cases in which they have served respectively on each of said days or fractional days. Every justice failing to make and file such report shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars. [Acts 1881, p. 32.]

Art. 394. [399] [276] [259] Commissioners court failing to make statement.—If the commissioners court of any county shall wilfully fail, neglect or refuse to make, or cause to be made a tabular statement of the assets, expenditures, and indebtedness of such county at each regular term of said court, specifying therein the names of creditors and the items of indebtedness, with their respective dates of accrual and also the names of persons to whom moneys have been paid, with the amounts paid each during the quarter for which such statement is prepared, or shall wilfully fail, neglect or refuse to publish an exhibit showing the aggregate receipts and disbursements of each separate fund for the quarter in some newspaper published in the county (or if there be no newspaper, then by posting such exhibit in at least four public places in the county), immediately after the first regular term in each calendar year, or shall wilfully fail, neglect or refuse to post such exhibit made at the third regular meeting of said court in each calendar year at the court house door, and at least three other public places in the county, the members of the court so failing, neglecting or refusing, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1891, p. 91.]

Art. 395. [400] Tax assessor failing to report.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall furnish blank forms to the tax assessors of each county before the first day of January of each year, including forms as to the acreage in cotton, grain and other leading products of the State, to be filled out by persons assessed for taxes, together with such instructions as will properly direct said assessor in filling them out. Said tax assessor shall return said blanks, with accurate answers to the Commissioner of Agriculture on or before the first day of June following.

Failure upon the part of any county tax assessor to make such reports as are required by law shall be deemed a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof such tax assessor shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 129.]

Art. 396. [401] Duty as to county treasurer's report.—When the Commissioners Court has compared and examined the quarterly report of the Treasurer and found the same correct, it shall cause an order to be entered upon the minutes of the court stating the approval thereof, which order shall recite separately the amount received and paid out of each fund by the Treasurer since the preceding Treasurer's quarterly report, and the balance of such fund, if any, remaining in the Treasurer's hands, and shall cause the proper credit to be made in the accounts of the Treasurer in accordance with said order, and said court shall actually inspect and count all the actual cash and assets in the hands of the Treasurer belonging to the county at the time of the examination of his said report; and prior to the adjournment of each regular term of the court, the county judge and each commissioner shall make affidavit that the requirements of this article have been in all things fully complied with by them at said term of said court, and that the cash and other assets mentioned in the county Treasurer's quarterly report made by said Treasurer to said court, and held by him for the county, have been fully inspected and counted by them, giving the amount of said money and other assets in his hands, which affidavits of the members shall be filed with the county clerk of the county, and by him recorded in the minutes of the said commissioners court of the term at which the same were filed, and the same shall be published in some newspaper published in the county, if there be a newspaper published in the county, for one time, to be paid for at the same rate as other legal notices.

Any county judge, county commissioner, or county clerk who shall negligently or intentionally fail or refuse to comply with the requirements of this article, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 27.]

Art. 397. [402] [277] [259a] Commissioner failing to attend court.—Should any member of the commissioners court of any county wilfully fail or refuse to attend any regular meeting or term of said court at which the business or question of levying a county tax for any purpose is to be acted on, he shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1885, p. 51.]

Art. 398. [403] [278] Treasurer failing to make report.—If any county treasurer in this State shall fail, neglect or refuse to furnish to the commissioners court of his county, upon demand, a detailed statement of the amount of county funds, including permanent and available county school funds, received by him from any given time, and when and from whom received, the amount of each fund on hand, the amount paid out, when and to whom paid; on what account, and the kinds of funds received and disbursed; or shall fail, neglect or refuse to exhibit to said commissioners court upon demand, all his books and accounts from any given time, together with all vouchers relating to the same, for the inspection and auditing by said court; or shall fail, neglect or refuse to forthwith produce to said commissioners court, upon demand, all cash and other assets in his hands belonging to his county to be counted by said commissioners court, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and may be punished for contempt by said court. [Acts 1905, p. 369.]

Art. 399. [404] [279] [261] Clerk failing to keep indexes.—Any clerk of the county or district court who shall fail to provide and keep in his office, as part of the records thereof, well-bound alphabetical indexes and cross-indexes of the names of all parties to all suits disposed of or pending in his court, together with a reference opposite each party's name to the page of the minute book upon which is entered the final judgment in each case, shall be punished by fine not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. Each month's failure is a separate offense. [Acts 1876, p. 25.]

Art. 400. [405] [280] [262] Withdrawal of deeds when records are burned.—Any clerk or deputy clerk of the county court of any county, the land records or records of title in which have been burned, who shall permit any deed filed for record in his office to be withdrawn within twelve months after the same is filed, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and may in addition thereto, be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year. [Acts 1876, p. 252.]

Art. 401. [406] [281] [263] To what deeds not applicable.—The preceding article shall not apply to deeds executed or purporting to have been executed subsequent to the destruction of such records. [Id.]

Art. 402. [407] [282] [264] County judge practicing law.—Any county judge in this State who shall practice or offer or attempt to practice as an attorney at law in any county court or court of a justice of the peace shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 216.]

Art. 403. [408] [283] Exceptions to preceding article.—County judges in those counties wherein the civil or criminal jurisdiction of the county court has or may be diminished shall if a licensed lawyer have the right to practice in all justice and county courts in cases where the courts over which they preside have neither original nor appellate jurisdiction. [Acts 1879, S. S. p. 12.]

Art. 404. [409] [284] [265] Issuing marriage license without consent.—If the clerk of any county court or other officer authorized by law to issue a license for marriage shall, without the consent of the parent or guardian of the party applying, or if there be no parent or guardian without the consent of the county judge of the county of the residence of such minor, issue a marriage license to a male person under the age of twenty-one years or to a female under the age of eighteen years, he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 132.]

Art. 427. [1584] Checks and warrants on city depository.—No check shall be drawn upon the city depository by the treasurer except upon a warrant signed by the mayor and attested by the secretary. No warrant shall be drawn by the mayor and secretary upon any special funds, created for the purpose of paying the bonded indebtedness of said city in the hands of the city treasurer, or in the depository, for any purpose whatsoever other than to pay the principal or interest of said special fund, or for the purpose of investing said special fund according to law. No city treasurer shall pay off, or issue a check to pay any money out of any special fund created for the purpose of paying any bonded indebtedness of said city other than for the purpose to pay interest due on said bonds, the principal of said bonds, or for the purpose of making an investment of said funds according to law. Any mayor who shall draw a warrant against a special fund as above defined for any other purpose than above specified, or any city treasurer who shall pay, or issue a check to pay a warrant drawn on the special fund of any city other than for the legal purpose of paying interest due on said bonds, the principal of said bonds or for investing said sinking fund according to law, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Acts 1905, p. 397.]

Art. 427a. Officers or employes of insane hospitals or asylums violating laws relating to restraint of inmates.—Any supervisor, attendant or other employee of any institution who knowingly violates or willingly permits to be violated any provision of the three preceding sections shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars, nor more than three hundred ($300.00) dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 174, p. 414, § 22.]

The three preceding sections above referred to are articles 3193k, 3193l and 3193m of Rev. Civ. St. 1925.

Art. 427b. County clerk's failure of duty as to recording plats.—When any such map, plat, or replat is tendered for filing in the office of the County Clerk of any county in which any city of the above class may be situated, it shall be the duty of such Clerk to ascertain that the proposed plan, plat or replat is or is not subject to the provisions of this Act [Civ. St. art. 974a], and if it is subject to its provisions, then to examine said map, plat or replat to ascertain whether the endorsements required by this Act [Civ. St. art. 974a] appear thereon. If such endorsements do appear thereon, he shall accept same for registration. If such endorsements do not appear thereon, he shall refuse to accept same for registration. When same does not disclose whether the land covered by said map, plat or replat, or any part thereof, is or is not within five miles of the corporate limits of a city of the class above mentioned, the County Clerk may require one offering said map, plat or replat for registration to file with him an affidavit setting forth such information. The filing or recording of any plan, plat or replat contrary to the provisions of this Act [Civ. St. art. 974a] shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00), and both the County Clerk and any Deputy filing or recording the same shall be guilty. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 342, ch. 231, § 7.]

Section 12 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 342, ch. 231, repeals all conflicting laws or parts of laws to the extent of such conflict.

Article 428. [422] [291] [272] Compounding a crime.—Whoever has knowledge that an offense against the penal laws of this State has been committed, and shall agree with the offender, directly or indirectly, not to prosecute or inform on him in consideration of money or other valuable thing paid, delivered or promised to him by such offender, or other person for him, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. (Added in revising, 1879.)

Art. 429. [424] [293] [273] False personation.—Whoever falsely assumes or pretends to be a judicial or executive officer of this State or justice of the peace, sheriff or deputy, constable, or any other judicial or ministerial officer of any county in this State, and takes upon himself to act as such, shall be confined in jail not exceeding six months or be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. (Act Nov. 12, 1866, Acts 1866, p. 201.)

Art. 430. [421] Barratry.—Whoever shall, for his own profit or with the intent to distress or harass the defendant therein, wilfully instigate, maintain, excite, prosecute or encourage the bringing, in any court of this State, of a suit at law or equity in which he has no interest; or shall, for his own profit or with such intent, wilfully bring or prosecute any false suit of his own at law or equity; or shall wilfully instigate, maintain, excite, prosecute or encourage the bringing or prosecution of any claim in which he has no interest, for his own profit or with the intent to distress or harass the person against whom such claim is brought or prosecuted; or shall seek to obtain employment in any claim to prosecute, defend or collect the same by means of personal solicitation of such employment, or by procuring another to solicit for him employment in such claim; or shall, by himself or another seek or obtain such employment by giving, directly or indirectly, to the person from whom the employment is sought, money or other thing of value, or shall, directly or indirectly pay the debts or liabilities of the person from whom such employment is sought, or who shall loan or promise to give, loan or otherwise grant money or other valuable thing to the person from whom such employment is sought before such employment whether the same be done directly by him or through another; or any attorney at law who shall seek or obtain employment in any suit or case at law, or in equity, to prosecute or defend the same by means of personal solicitation of such employment, or by procuring another to solicit for him employment in such cases; or who shall, by himself or another, seek or obtain such employment by giving directly or indirectly to the person from whom employment is sought money or other thing of value, or who shall directly or indirectly pay the debts or liabilities of the person from whom such employment is sought, or who shall loan or promise to give, loan or otherwise grant money or other valuable thing to the person from whom such employment is sought, before such employment, in order to induce such employment, whether the same shall be done directly by him or through another, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars, and may in addition thereto be imprisoned in jail not exceeding three months. The penalties herein prescribed shall apply not only to attorneys at law, but to any other person who may be guilty of any of the things set forth in this article. The term attorney shall include counsel at law. (Acts 1901, p. 125, Acts 1917, p. 336.)

Art. 431. [1486] Examination of records of corporation.—If any president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, manager, agent or other officer of any corporation doing business under permit or charter from this State shall fail or refuse to permit the Attorney General or any of his assistants or representatives who may be authorized in writing by the Attorney General to make such examination, to examine or to take copies of any or all of the books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws and other records of said corporation, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than one hundred days. Each day of such failure or refusal shall be a separate offense. (Acts 1907, p. 35.)

Art. 432. [381] "Nepotism."—No officer of this State or any officer of any district, county, city, precinct, school district, or other municipal subdivision of this State, or any officer or member of any State, district, county, city, school district or other municipal board, or judge of any court, created by or under authority of any general or special law of this State, or any member of the Legislature, shall appoint, or vote for, or confirm the appointment to any office, position, clerkship, employment or duty, of any person related within the second degree by affinity or within the third degree by consanguinity to the person so appointing or so voting, or to any other member of any such board, the Legislature, or court of which such person so appointing or voting may be a member, when the salary, fees, or compensation of such appointee is to be paid for, directly or indirectly, out of or from public funds or fees of office of any kind or character whatsoever. [Acts 1909, p. 85, Acts 1915, p. 149.]

Art. 433. [382] Officers included.—The inhibitions set forth in this law shall apply to and include the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Railroad Commissioners, head of departments of the State government, judges and members of any and all Boards and courts established by or under the authority of any general or special law of this State, members of the Legislature, mayors, commissioners, recorders, aldermen and members of school boards of incorporated cities and towns, public school trustees, officers and members of boards of managers of the State University and of its several branches, and of the various State educational institutions and of the various State eleemosynary institutions, and of the penitentiaries. This enumeration shall not be held to exclude from the operation and effect of this law any person included within its general provisions. [Acts 1909, p. 86.]

Art. 434. [383] Evading nepotism law by trading.—No officer or other person included within any provision of this law shall appoint or vote for appointment or for confirmation of appointment to any such office, position, clerkship, employment or duty of any person whose services are to be rendered under his direction or control and to be paid for, directly or indirectly out of any such public funds or fees of office, and who is related by affinity within the second degree or by consanguinity within the third degree to any such officer or person included within any provision of this law, in consideration, in whole or in part, that such other officer or person has theretofore appointed, or voted for the appointment or for the confirmation of the appointment, or will thereafter appoint or vote for the appointment, or for the confirmation of the appointment to any such office, position, or clerkship, employment or duty of any person whomsoever related within the second degree by affinity or within the third degree by consanguinity to such officer or other person making such appointment. [Id.]

Art. 435. [385] Shall not approve account.—No officer or other person included within the third preceding article shall approve any account or draw or authorize the drawing of any warrant or order to pay any salary, fee or compensation of such ineligible officer or person, knowing him to be so ineligible. [Id.]

Art. 436. [387] Official stenographer.—No district judge shall appoint as official stenographer of his district any person related within the third degree to the judge or district attorney of such district. [Id.]

Art. 437. [386] Punishment.—Whoever violates any provision of the five preceding articles shall be guilty of a misdemeanor involving official misconduct, and shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 438. Exceptions.—That nothing in this law shall apply to any appointment to the office of a notary public, or to the confirmation thereof; or to the appointment of a page, secretary, attendant or other employee by the Legislature for attendance on any member of the Legislature who, by reason of physical infirmities, is required to have a personal attendant. [Acts 1925, p. 148.] [39th Leg., ch. 30, § 2.]

Art. 438a. Search without warrant unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any person or peace officer, or State ranger, to search the private residence, actual place of habitation, place of business, person or personal possessions of any person, without having first obtained a search warrant as required by law. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 149, p. 357, § 2.]

Art. 438b. Penalty for search without warrant.—Any person violating any provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or by confinement in the county jail not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 149, p. 358, § 3.]

- 454e. Masked persons assaulting; "masked" defined.
- 454f. Masked individuals parading on public highway.
- 454g. Partial invalidity not to affect other parts.

Article 439. [435] [299] "Unlawful assembly."—An "unlawful assembly" is the meeting of three or more persons with intent to aid each other by violence or in any other manner either to commit an offense or illegally to deprive any person of any right or to disturb him in the enjoyment thereof.

Art. 440. [436] [300] To prevent elections.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly is to prevent the holding of any public election or to prevent any particular person or number of persons from voting at a public election the punishment shall be that which is prescribed in article 254.

Art. 441. [437] [301] To prevent execution of law, etc.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to oppose or prevent the execution or enforcement of any law of the state, or the lawful decree or judgment of a court in a civil action, the punishment shall be a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Art. 442. [438] [302] To effect rescue of capital felon.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to effect the rescue of a prisoner lawfully convicted of a capital offense, the punishment shall be a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 443. [439] [303] To effect rescue of non-capital felon.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to effect the rescue of any person lawfully convicted of a felony less than capital, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 444. [440] [304] To rescue one accused of capital felony.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to rescue any person arrested or imprisoned for a capital offense before trial, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 445. [441] [305] To rescue one accused of lesser felony.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to rescue any person lawfully arrested or imprisoned for any felony less than capital, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

Art. 446. [442] [306] To rescue one accused of misdemeanor.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to rescue a person accused of a misdemeanor, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Art. 447. [443] [307] To prevent the sitting of any tribunal.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to prevent or oppose the sitting of any lawful court, board of arbitrators or referees, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Art. 448. [444] [308] To prevent collection of taxes.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to prevent the collection of taxes or other money due the State, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 449. [445] [309] To prevent any person from pursuing his labor.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to prevent any person from pursuing any labor, occupation or employment, or to intimidate any person from following his daily avocation, or to interfere in any manner with the labor or employment of another, the punishment shall be by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 450. [446] [310] To frighten anyone by disguise.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to alarm and frighten any person by appearing in disguise, so that the real person so acting and assembling cannot be readily known, and by using language or gestures calculated to produce in such person the fear of bodily harm, the punishment shall be by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 451. [447] [311] To disturb families.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to repair to the vicinity of any residence, and to disturb the inmates thereof by loud, unusual or unseemly noises, or by the discharge of fire-arms, the punishment shall be by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. A private residence may be either a public or private house.

Art. 452. [448] [312] To effect any other illegal object.—If the purpose of the unlawful assembly be to effect any illegal object other than those mentioned in the preceding articles of this chapter, all persons engaged therein shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars.

Art. 453. [449] [313] Lawful meeting not included.—No public meeting for the purpose of exercising any political, religious or other lawful rights or for the purpose of lawful amusement or recreation is within the meaning of this chapter.

Art. 454. [450] [314] Lawful meetings included.—Where the persons engaged in an unlawful assembly met at first for a lawful purpose and afterward agreed upon an unlawful purpose, they are equally guilty of the offense defined in article 439.

Art. 454a. Wearing mask in public.—If any person shall go into or near any public place masked or disguised in such manner as [to] hide his identity or render same difficult to determine, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined in any sum not exceeding $500.00 or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment provided this article shall not apply to private or public functions, festivals or events not fostered, caused or presented by any secret society or organization. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 213, § 1.]

Art. 454b. "Public place" defined.—Any "public place" as used in the preceding article is any public road, street, or alley of a town, city, or any store, garage, workshop, or any place at which people are assembled or to which people commonly resort for purposes of business, amusement, or other lawful purposes, other than a church or other place where people are assembled for religious services or purposes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 213, § 2.]

Art. 454c. Masked person entering house.—If any person who is masked or disguised in such manner as to hide his or [her] identity, or as to render same difficult to determine shall go into or near any private house, or shall demand or seek entrance therein or disturb any of the inhabitants thereof, he shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one nor more than ten years; provided this article shall not apply to persons attending social gatherings in private homes where social custom sanctions the wearing of a mask or disguise. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 213, § 3.]

Art. 454d. Masked person entering church.—If any person masked or disguised in such manner as to hide his identity or make same difficult of determination shall go into any church or other place where people are assembled for religious services or purposes, he shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for a term of years not less than two nor more than ten; provided this article shall not apply to any entertainments or service solely under the auspices of such church or religious gathering, and not fostered, caused or presented by any secret society or organization. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 213, § 4.]

Art. 454e. Masked persons assaulting; "masked" defined.—If any two or more persons acting in concert, or aiding and abetting each other, when either or all of whom are masked, or in disguise, shall assault or shall falsely imprison any other person, each of such persons so offending shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than five. The terms "masked" or "in disguise" used in this article mean[s] that such person by artificial means has so changed or obscured his usual appearance as to render his identification impossible, or more difficult than it would have been if such mask or disguise has [had] not been used. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 214, § 5.]

Art. 454f. Masked individuals parading on public highway.—It shall be unlawful for any secret society or organization, or a part of the members thereof, masked or in disguise, to parade upon or along any public road or any street or alley of any city or town in this State, and all members of such society or organization so parading, or other members of such, who aid, abet or encourage such parade, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 214, § 6.]

Art. 454g. Partial invalidity not to affect other parts.—Should any article or part of this Act be held invalid it shall not affect or invalidate any other article or part thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 63, p. 214, § 7.]

CHAPTER TWO

RIOTS

- Art.
455. "Riot."
456. To prevent collection of taxes.
457. Execution of law.
458. Rescue of felon under death sentence.
459. Rescue of felon less than capital.
460. Rescue of one convicted of misdemeanor.
461. Rescue of one imprisoned for capital felony.
462. Felony less than capital.
463. Misdemeanor.
464. Preventing any person from labor.
465. Disturbing residence.
466. Committing any other illegal act.
467. Penalty when object not accomplished.
468. All participants guilty.
469. Where assembly was at first lawful.
470. One may be prosecuted.
471. Indictment.
472. Duty of officers in case of riot.

Article 455. [451] [315] "Riot."—If the persons unlawfully assembled together do or attempt to do any illegal act, all those engaged in such illegal act are guilty of riot.

Art. 456. [452] [316] To prevent collection of taxes.—If the purpose of a riot be to prevent the collection of taxes or other money due the State, any person engaged therein shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, although the purpose of the riot be not effected; and if such illegal purpose be effected, in addition thereto, imprisonment in jail not exceeding two years may be added.

Art. 457. [453] [317] Execution of law.—If any person, by engaging in a riot, shall prevent the execution or enforcement of any law of this State, or the lawful decree of any court in a civil case, he shall be confined in jail not exceeding two years, and be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Art. 458. [454] [318] Rescue of felon under death sentence.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue one lawfully convicted and given the death penalty or under lawful sentence of death shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years.

Art. 459. [455] [319] Rescue of felon less than capital.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue any prisoner lawfully convicted of felony less than capital, or lawfully under sentence for such offense, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years.

Art. 460. [456] [320] Rescue of one convicted of misdemeanor.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue any prisoner lawfully convicted of a misdemeanor, shall be confined in jail not less than six months nor more than two years.

Art. 461. [457] [321] Rescue of one imprisoned for capital felony.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue any prisoner lawfully arrested or imprisoned for a capital felony, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years.

Art. 462. [458] [322] Felony less than capital.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue any prisoner lawfully arrested or imprisoned for a felony less than capital shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years.

Art. 463. [459] [323] Misdemeanor.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall rescue any prisoner lawfully arrested or imprisoned for a misdemeanor shall be confined in jail not less than six nor more than twelve months.

Art. 464. [460] [324] Preventing any person from labor.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall prevent any other person from pursuing any labor; occupation or employment, or intimidate any other person from following his daily avocation, or interfere in any manner with the labor or employment of another, shall be confined in jail not less than six months nor more than one year.

Art. 465. [461] [325] Disturbing residence.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall disturb the inmates of any residence by loud, unusual or unseemly noises, or by the discharge of firearms in the immediate vicinity of such residence, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. A residence may be either a public or private house.

Art. 466. [462] [326] Committing any other illegal act.—Whoever by engaging in a riot shall commit any illegal act other than those mentioned in the ten preceding articles shall, in addition to receiving the punishment affixed to such illegal act, be also confined in jail not exceeding one year, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Art. 467. [463] [327] Penalty when object not accomplished.—When the purpose of the riot was to effect any illegal acts mentioned in the preceding articles of this chapter, and such unlawful object is not effected, the punishment may, in the discretion of the jury, be diminished to half the penalty affixed to such riot where the illegal purpose was effected.

Art. 468. [464] [328] All participants guilty.—One engaged in any riot whereby an illegal act is committed shall be deemed guilty of the offense of riot, according to the character and degree of such offense, whether the said illegal act was in fact perpetrated by him or by those with whom he is participating.

Art. 469. [465] [329] Where assembly was at first lawful.—Where the assembly was at first lawful, and the persons so assembled afterward agree to join in the commission of an act which would amount to riot, if it had been the original purpose of the meeting, all those who do not retire when the change of purpose is known are guilty of riot.

Art. 470. [466] [330] One may be prosecuted.—Anyone engaged in an unlawful assembly or riot may be prosecuted and convicted before the others are arrested.

Art. 471. [467] [331] Indictment.—The indictment must state the illegal act which was the object of the meeting, or which they proceeded to do if the assembly was originally lawful, and must state and it must be proven on the trial, that three or more persons were assembled, and their names must be given if known; if unknown, it must be so alleged.

Art. 472. [468] [332] Duty of officers in case of riot.—If any persons shall be unlawfully or riotously assembled together, it is the duty of any magistrate or peace officer, so soon as it may come to his knowledge to go to the place of such assembly and command the persons assembled to disperse; and all who continue so unlawfully assembled or engaged in a riot after being warned to disperse shall be punished by the addition of one-half the penalty to which they would otherwise be liable if no such warning had been given.

CHAPTER THREE

AFFRAYS AND DISTURBANCES OF THE PEACE

Art.

- 473. Affray.
- 474. Disturbing the peace.
- 475. "Public place."

Article 473. [469] [333] [313] Affray.—If any two or more persons shall fight together in a public place they shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Art. 474. [470] [334] Disturbing the peace.—Whoever shall go into or near any public place or into or near any private house and shall use loud and vociferous, or obscene, vulgar, or indecent language or swear or curse, or yell or shriek, or expose his person, or rudely display any pistol or other deadly weapon, in a manner calculated to disturb the inhabitants of such place or house, shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars.

Art. 475. [472] [335] "Public place."—A "public place," as used in the two preceding articles, is any public road, street or alley of a town or city, or any store or work shop or any place at which people are assembled or to which people commonly resort for purposes of business, amusement or other lawful purpose.

Art. 476. Profane language over telephone.—Whoever uses any vulgar, profane, obscene or indecent language over or through any telephone shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 87.]

Art. 477. [204] [150] Drunk in public place.—Whoever shall get drunk or be found in a state of intoxication in any public place, or at any private house except his own, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 177.]

Art. 478. [205] Drinking liquor on train.—Whoever shall drink intoxicating liquor in or upon any railway passenger train, coach, closet, vestibule or platform connected therewith, while said train or coach is in the service of passenger transportation, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Nothing herein shall prevent the use of such liquor as stimulant in case of actual sickness of the person using it. [Acts 1907, p. 51.]

Art. 479. Peddler refusing to leave.—Any peddler or hawker of goods or merchandise who enters upon premises owned or leased by another and wilfully refuses to leave said premises after having been notified by the owner or possessor of said premises, or his agent, to leave the same, shall be fined not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 142.]

Art. 480. [473] [336] Shooting in public place.—Any person who discharges any gun, pistol or firearm of any kind, or discharges any cannon cracker or torpedo on or across any public square, street or alley of any town or city or within one hundred yards of any business house in this State shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. A "cannon cracker" is any combustible package more than two inches long and more than one inch through. [Acts 1901, p. 300.]

Art. 481. [474] [337] Horse racing on road or street.—Whoever shall run or be in any way concerned in running any horse race in, along or across any public road or any public square, street or alley in any city, town or village, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 482. [1020] [599] Abusive language.—Any person who shall in the presence or hearing of another curse or abuse such person, or use any violently abusive language to such person concerning him or any of his female relatives, under circumstances reasonably calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1887, p. 13.]

CHAPTER FOUR

Article 483. [475] [338] [318] Unlawfully carrying arms.—Whoever shall carry on or about his person, saddle, or in his saddle bags any pistol, dirk, dagger, slung-shot, sword cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, bowie knife, or any other knife manufactured or sold for the purposes of offense or defense, shall be punished by fine not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00 or by confinement in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year. [Acts 1887, p. 6; Acts 1905, p. 56; Acts 1918, p. 194.]

Art. 484. [476] [339] [319] Not applicable.—The preceding article shall not apply to a person in actual service as a militiaman, nor to any peace officer in the actual discharge of his official duty, nor to the carrying of arms on one's own premises or place of business, nor to persons traveling, nor to any deputy constable, or special policeman who receives a compensation of forty dollars or more per month for his services as such officer, and who is appointed in conformity [conformity] with the statutes authorizing such appointment; nor to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, nor to any deputy, when in the actual discharge of his duties as such, nor to any game warden, or local deputy Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner when in the actual discharge of his duties in the county of his residence, nor shall it apply to any game warden or deputy Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner who actually receives from the State fees or compensation for his services. [Acts 1871, p. 25, Acts 1918, p. 194.]

Art. 485. [477] [340] Carrying arms in any assembly.—If any person shall go into any church or any religious assembly, any schoolroom, ballroom, or other place where persons are assembled for amusement or for educational or scientific purposes, or into any circus, show or public exhibition of any kind, or social gathering, or to any election on the day or days of any election where any portion of the people of this State are collected to vote at an election, or to any other place where people may be assembled to muster or perform any other public duties, and shall have or carry about his person any pistol or other firearm, dirk, dagger, slung shot, sword cane, spear, brass knuckle, bowie knife, or any other kind of a knife made and manufactured for the purpose of offense and defense, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not less than thirty days nor more than twelve months, or both. [Acts 1871, p. 25; Acts 1915, p. 132.]

Art. 486. [478] [341] Not applicable to whom.—The preceding article shall not apply to peace officers or other persons authorized or permitted by law to carry arms at the places therein designated. [Acts 1871, p. 25. Revision of 1879.]

Art. 487. [479] [342] Arrest without warrant.—Any person violating any article of this chapter may be arrested without warrant by any peace officer and carried before the nearest justice of the peace. Any peace officer who shall fail or refuse to arrest such person on his own knowledge, or upon information from some reliable person, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 1871, p. 26.]

Art. 488. Dope seller carrying arms.—Whoever shall carry on or about his person a pistol or any other weapon or arm mentioned in the first article of this chapter while possessing for the purpose of unlawful sale, furnishing or giving away any drug, narcotic, derivative or preparation or marijuana mentioned in article 720 of this Code, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than ten years. [Act June 18, 1923, p. 164.]

[1048] Sale of weapon to minor.—Whoever shall knowingly sell, give or barter, or cause to be sold, given or bartered to any minor a pistol or any other weapon or arm mentioned in the first article of this chapter, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, or of some one standing in lieu thereof, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or both. [Acts 1897, p. 221.]

OFFENSES AGAINST MORALS, DECENCY AND CHASTITY

Chap.

1. Unlawful marriages.
2. Incest.
3. Adultery and fornication.
4. Seduction.
5. Bawdy and disorderly houses.
6. Pandering.
7. Miscellaneous offenses.

CHAPTER ONE

UNLAWFUL MARRIAGES

Art.

490. Bigamy.
491. Defensive matter.
492. Miscegenation.
493. "Negro" and "white person."
494. Proof of marriage.

Article 490. [481] [344] [324] Bigamy.—Any person who has a former wife or husband living who shall marry another in this State shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1887, p. 37.]

Art. 491. [482] [345] Defensive matter.—The preceding article does not apply to one whose husband or wife shall have been continually remaining out of the State or shall have voluntarily withdrawn from the other and remained absent for five years, the one marrying again not knowing the other to be living within that time, nor to any one who has been legally divorced.

Art. 492. [483] [346] [326] Miscegenation.—If any white person and negro shall knowingly intermarry with each other in this State, or having so intermarried in or out of the State shall continue to live together as man and wife within this State, they shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 493. [484] [347] [327] "Negro" and "white person."—The term "negro" includes also a person of mixed blood descended from negro ancestry from the third generation inclusive, though one ancestor of each generation may have been a white person. Any person not included [included] in the foregoing definition is deemed a white person [person] within the meaning of this law.

Art. 494. [485] [348] [328] Proof of marriage.—In trials for any offense included in this chapter, proof of marriage by mere reputation shall not be sufficient.

CHAPTER TWO

INCEST

Art.

495. Punishment.
496. Who men cannot marry.
497. Who women cannot marry.
498. Evidence.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Article 495. [486] [349] Punishment.—All persons who are forbidden to marry by the succeeding [succeeding] articles who shall intermarry or carnally know each other shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

Art. 496. [487] [350] [330] Who men can not marry.—No man shall marry his mother, his father's sister or half-sister, his mother's sister or half-sister, his daughter, the daughter of his father, mother, brother or sister or of his half-brother or sister, the daughter of his son or daughter, his father's widow, his son's widow, his wife's daughter or the daughter of his wife's son or daughter.

Art. 497. [488] [351] [331] Who women can not marry.—No woman shall marry her father, her father's brother or half-brother, her mother's brother or half-brother, her own brother or half-brother, her son, the son of her brother or sister or her half brother, or half-sister, the son of her son or daughter, her mother's husband after the death of her mother, her daughter's husband after the death of her daughter, her husband's son, the son of her husband's son or daughter.

Art. 498. [489] [352] Evidence.—On a trial for incest the fact of the relationship between the parties may be proved as in civil suits, and proof of carnal knowledge shall be in all cases sufficient without proof of marriage.

CHAPTER THREE

ADULTERY AND FORNICATION

Art.

- 449. "Adultery."
- 500. Proof of marriage.
- 501. Both guilty.
- 502. Punishment for adultery.
- 503. "Fornication."
- 504. Punishment for fornication.

Article 499 [490] [353] [333] "Adultery."—"Adultery" is the living together and carnal intercourse with each other, or habitual carnal intercourse with each other without living together, of a man and woman when either is lawfully married to some other person.

Art. 500. [491] [354] Proof of marriage.—Proof of marriage in such cases may be made by the original or a certified copy of the marriage license and return thereon, or by the testimony of any one present at the marriage or who has known the husband and wife to live together as married persons.

Art. 501. [492] [355] Both guilty.—When adultery has been committed, both parties are guilty though only one may be married.

Art. 502. [493] [356] Punishment for adultery.—Every one guilty of adultery shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Art. 503. [494] [357] "Fornication."—"Fornication" is the living together and carnal intercourse with each other, or habitual carnal intercourse with each other without living together, of a man and woman, both being unmarried.

Art. 504. [495] [358] Punishment for fornication.—Every one guilty of fornication shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER FOUR

SEDUCTION

Art.

- 505. Seduction.
- 506. Marriage obliterates offense.
- 507. Abandonment after seduction and marriage.
- 508. "Seduce."
- 509. Liability of married man.

Article 505. [1447] [967] [814] Seduction.—If any person by promise to marry shall seduce an unmarried female under the age of twenty-five years and shall have carnal knowledge of such female, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1858, p. 185; Acts 1903, p. 221.]

Art. 506. [1449] [969] [816] Marriage obliterates offense.—If the parties marry each other at any time before the defendant pleads to the indictment before a court of competent jurisdiction, the prosecution shall be dismissed. If after the prosecution is begun and before he pleads to the indictment before a court of competent jurisdiction, the defendant in good faith offers to marry the female so seduced and she refuses to marry him, such refusal shall be a bar to further prosecution. This article shall not apply to the case of a defendant who was in fact married at the time of committing the offense. [O. C. 790; Acts 1903, p. 221.]

Art. 507. [1450] Abandonment after seduction and marriage.—If any person by promise of marriage shall seduce an unmarried female under the age of twenty-five years and shall have carnal knowledge of said female, and if after prosecution has begun, the parties marry each other at any time before the defendant pleads to the indictment before a court of competent jurisdiction, and if the defendant within two years after said marriage without the fault of said wife, such fault amounting to acts committed by her after said marriage as would entitle him to a divorce under the laws of this State, shall abandon her or refuse to live with her, or shall be so cruel to her as to compel her to leave him, or shall be guilty of such outrages or cruelties toward her as to make their living together insupportable thereby leaving her or forcing her to leave him and live apart from each other, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. Such female so seduced and subsequently married and abandoned shall be a competent witness against said defendant. [Acts 1909, p. 97.]

Art. 508. [1448] [968] [815] "Seduce."—The word "seduce" is used in the sense in which it is commonly understood.

Art. 509. [1451] [970] [817] Liability of married man.—No one who was married at the time of committing the offense and that fact known to the woman, shall be held liable for the offenses defined in this chapter.

CHAPTER FIVE

BAWDY AND DISORDERLY HOUSES

Art.

- 510. "Bawdy house."
- 511. "Assignment house."
- 512. "House."

- 515. Owner, lessee or agent liable.
- 516. Employing prostitutes.
- 517. Duty of officers.
- 518. Liquor in bawdy or disorderly house.

Article 510. [496] "Bawdy house"—A bawdy house is one kept for prostitution or where prostitutes are permitted to resort or reside for the purpose of plying their vocation. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 32.]

Art. 511. [497] "Assignment house."—An assignment house is a house, room or place where men and women meet by mutual appointment, or by appointment made by another for the purpose of sexual intercourse. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 32.]

Art. 512. [499] [360] [340] "House."—Any room or part of a building or other place appropriated for either of the purposes above mentioned is a bawdy or a disorderly house within the meaning of this chapter. [O. C. 397.]

Art. 513. [496] "Disorderly house."—A disorderly house is any assignment house, or any house to which persons resort for the purpose of smoking or in any manner using opium. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1910, p. 32.]

Art. 514. [500] [361] [341] Keeping bawdy or disorderly house.—Any person who shall directly, as agent for another, or through an agent, keep or be concerned in keeping, or aid or assist or abet, in keeping a bawdy or disorderly house in any house, building, edifice or tenement, or shall knowingly permit the keeping of a bawdy or disorderly house in any house, building, edifice or tenement owned, leased, occupied or controlled by him or her, directly, as agent for another or through any agent, shall be fined two hundred dollars and confined in jail for twenty days for each day he or she shall keep, be concerned in keeping or knowingly permit to be kept such bawdy or disorderly house. [Acts 1907, p. 247.]

Art. 515. [501] [361] [341] Owner, lessee or agent liable.—Any owner, lessee, or the agent of either, controlling the premises, having information that such premises are being kept, used or occupied as a bawdy or disorderly house, shall be guilty of knowingly permitting the premises to be kept as a bawdy or disorderly house, unless he shall immediately proceed to prevent such keeping, use or occupancy by giving such information to the county or district attorney, or take such other action as may reasonably accomplish such result. [Acts 1907, p. 247.]

Art. 516. [502] [362] [341a] Employing prostitutes.—Any person who shall directly, as agent for another, or through an agent, knowingly employ or have in his service in any capacity in any theater, play house or dance house, any prostitute, lewd woman or woman of bad reputation for chastity, or permit such woman to display or conduct herself therein in an indecent manner, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and confined in jail for twenty days for each day that such woman is kept in service or so permitted to display or conduct herself. [Acts 1889, p. 38; Acts 1907, p. 247.]

Art. 517. [506] [363] Duty of officers.—All peace officers are especially charged to discover and report and aid in the enforcement of the articles of this chapter; judges are required to give them specially in charge to the grand juries, and each grand jury is required to call before them all officers charged with enforcing said articles and examine them as to their knowledge and information of violations thereof and their diligence in their enforcement. [Acts 1889, p. 33.]

Art. 518. Liquor in bawdy or disorderly house.—If any person, whether the owner, lessee, manager, housekeeper, proprietor, servant, agent, employé, inmate, visitor or any other person shall give away or drink or permit to be given away or drunk any spirituous or vinous or malt liquors whether capable of producing intoxication or not, in any bawdy house, disorderly house or assignation house, he shall be confined in jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days and be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1911, p. 23.]

CHAPTER SIX

PANDERING

Art.

- 519. "Pandering."
- 520. Defenses and venue.
- 521. Female competent to testify.
- 522. Keeping resort to aid pandering.
- 523. Marriage no defense.

Article 519. "Pandering."—Any person who shall procure or attempt to procure or be concerned in procuring with or without her consent a female inmate for a house of prostitution, or who by promises, threats, violence or by any device or scheme shall cause, induce, persuade or encourage a female to become an inmate of a house of prostitution, or shall procure a place as inmate in a house of prostitution for a female person; or shall by such means persuade or encourage an inmate of such a house to remain therein as such inmate; or shall by fraud or artifice, or by duress of person or goods, or by abuse of any position of confidence or authority procure any female person to become or remain an inmate of such a house, or to enter any place in which prostitution is encouraged or allowed in this State or to come into or leave this State for the purpose of prostitution, or who shall procure any female person to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame within this State, or to come into or to leave this State for the purpose of prostitution, or who shall give or agree to receive or give any money or thing of value for procuring or attempting to procure any female person to become an inmate of a house of ill-fame within this State, or to come into this State or leave this State, for the purpose of prostitution, shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than five. [Acts 1911, p. 29.]

Art. 520. Defenses and venue.—It is no defense that any part of any act prohibited by the preceding article was committed outside this State, and the offense shall in such case be deemed and alleged to have been committed and the accused tried in any county in which the prostitution was intended to be practiced or in which the offense was consummated, or in which any overt act in furtherance thereof was done. [Id.]

Art. 521. Female competent to testify.—Any such female shall be a competent witness to testify for or against the accused as to any act or words with him or by him with another in her presence, notwithstanding her having married him before or after the violation of the law, whether called as a witness during the existence of the marriage or after its dissolution. No testimony or statement given by such female during the trial for any such offense above named shall be used against her in any criminal prosecution. [Id.]

Art. 522. Keeping resort to aid pandering.—Any person who shall keep or be concerned in keeping or maintaining any house or station or rendezvous or place of resort for females under the guise of securing for such female a place of employment, but with the intent to place such female in a house of prostitution or in the possession of another person to be used for prostitution, shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than five. Any person keeping such house or station or place of rendezvous or resort for females who shall employ any other person to procure any female to go to such place or resort shall be confined to the penitentiary for any term of years not less than five. [Id.]

Art. 523. Marriage no defense.—The act or state of marriage shall not be a defense to any violation of any article of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 525. [498] [359a] Procuring.—Whoever shall invite, solicit, procure, allure or use any means in alluring or procuring any female to visit and be at any particular house, room or place for the purpose of meeting and having unlawful sexual intercourse with any male person, or to take part or in any way participate in any immoral conduct with men or women, or to use at such place any intoxicating liquor; or give to any person the name and address, or either, or photograph of any female for the purpose of enabling the person to whom the same is given to meet and have unlawful sexual intercourse or to bring about or procure such intercourse with such female shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars and be confined in jail not less than one nor more than six months. [Acts 1907, p. 246.]

Art. 526. [508] [365] [343] Indecent publications and exposures.—If any person shall make, publish or print any indecent and obscene print, picture or written composition manifestly designed to corrupt the morals of youth, or shall designedly make any obscene and indecent exhibition of his own or the person of another in public, he shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [O. C. 399.]

Art. 527. [509] Immoral publications.—Whoever shall within this State engage in the business of editing, publishing or disseminating any newspaper, pamphlet, magazine, or any printed paper devoted mainly to the publications of scandals, whoring, lechery, assignations, intrigues between men and women and immoral conduct of persons; or shall knowingly have in his possession for sale, or shall keep for sale or distribute or in any way assist in the sale or shall give away any such newspaper, pamphlet, magazine or printed matter in this State shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1897, p. 160.]

Art. 528. [510] [366] [344] Desecration of graves.—If any person shall wrongfully destroy, mutilate, deface, injure or remove any tomb, monument, grave stone or other structure in any place used or intended for the burial of the dead, or any fence, railing or curb for the protection of such structure, or any inclosure for any such place of burial, or shall wrongfully injure, cut, remove or destroy any tree or shrub growing within any such inclosure, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed six months. [Acts 1858, p. 166.]

Art. 529. [511] [367] [345] Interference with dead bodies.—If any person not authorized by law or by a relative or friend for the purpose of reinterment, shall disinter, remove, or carry away any human body, or the remains thereof, or shall conceal the same knowing it to be so illegally disinterred, he shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [O. C. 399b. Acts 1858, p. 166.]

Art. 530. [512] Traffic in dead bodies.—No school, college, physician or surgeon shall be allowed or permitted to receive any dead human body until bond shall have been given as provided by law, and whosoever shall sell or buy any such body or in any way traffic in the same, or shall transmit or convey, or procure to be transmitted or conveyed, any said body to any place outside the State shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars or be imprisoned not exceeding two years in jail. [Acts 1907, p. 119.]

Art. 531. [513] Violating Anatomical Board Act.—Any person having duties imposed upon him by the provisions of the Anatomical Board Act who shall refuse, neglect or omit to perform any of them as required by said law, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 532. Traveling women dancers.—Any person, or aggregation of persons traveling from place to place composed in whole or in part of women who shall show or exhibit in any dancing performances, or as dancers in a tent, inclosure, temporary structure or in any location whatever, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and be confined in jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year. [Acts 1919, p. 26.]

Art. 533. Exceptions.—It shall not be unlawful under the preceding article for any regularly organized show, theatrical company or troupe to show or exhibit dancing performances in permanently established opera houses, play houses or auditoriums, or for any licensed circus not exhibiting more than one day in succession in any town or city to give dancing exhibitions in connection with any regular performance. [Id.]

Art. 534. Contributing to delinquency of child.—In all cases where any child shall be a "delinquent child" or a "neglected or dependent child," as defined in the statutes of this State, the parent, guardian or person having the custody of, or the person responsible for such child who by any act encourages, causes or contributes to the delinquency or dependency of such child, or any other person who shall in any manner cause, encourage or contribute to the delinquency of such child shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. By the term "delinquency," as used herein, is also meant any act which tends to debase or injure the morals, health or welfare of such child, and includes the use of tobacco in any form, drinking intoxicating liquor, going into or remaining in any bawdy house, and any act which would constitute such child a "delinquent child." [Acts 1907, p. 209, Acts 1918, 4th C. S. p. 125.]

Art. 535. [1047] [625a] Enticing minor from legal custody.—Any person in this State who shall knowingly entice or decoy any minor in the State away from the custody of the parent or guardian or person standing in the stead of the parent or guardian of such minor shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. In all cases where charitable and benevolent institutions have established homes for dependent orphans of their deceased members and the person legally entitled to the guardianship of such orphans surrenders them to such homes for care and support, such institutions under their agencies and rules are considered as standing in the stead of the parent. [Acts 1893, p. 114.]

[516] [370] Indorsement of foreign bills.—Whoever brings into this State any bank bill, purporting to be issued by any bank in any other State or territory of the Union, or in any foreign country, and shall sign or indorse the same to be circulated as money in this State, is guilty of the offense mentioned in article 536.

Art. 539. [517] [371] Passing paper of broken bank.—Whoever shall fraudulently pass or transfer, or offer to pass or transfer, any paper purporting to be bank paper, and to be issued by any bank which, having once existed, has since broken, or the money of the same becomes valueless, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 540. [518] [372] Not applicable to National banks.—The provisions of the four preceding articles shall not apply to any bank incorporated under the laws of the United States, nor to bills issued to such bank.

Art. 541. [519] [520] Misappropriating savings funds.—Any officer or director of any bank or bank and trust company which shall establish or maintain or continue to maintain, a savings department, or which shall use the word "savings," as provided by law, who shall knowingly misappropriate any moneys or funds belonging to such savings department, or use or consent to the use of any such moneys or funds otherwise than for the payment of lawful demands of savings depositors, and in making such investments as are prescribed by law, and in the payment of such dividends to the shareholders as are allowed by law to be paid therefrom, or borrow any of the funds belonging to such savings department, or in any way be an obligor for moneys loaned by or borrowed of such savings department, or receive or accept, directly or indirectly, any commission, brokerage or other valuable thing or favor of any kind by reason of any loan or investment made out of the funds of such savings department, or sell such savings department any security or other investment, or wilfully or knowingly do, or perform, any act or transaction by or as a result of which at any time the assets of such savings department, including cash, shall not at least equal in amount the deposits in such savings department, at least fifteen per cent of which shall be actual cash in such savings department, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Acts 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 542. [521] Certificate of authority.—All State banks transacting business in this State shall be required to hold a certificate of authority to transact a banking business, issued by the Banking Commissioner in compliance with the provisions of the laws of this State. The said Commissioner shall issue to each State bank entitled to transact a banking business, a certificate of authority to be signed by him under his official seal, certifying that such State bank is authorized under the laws of this State to engage in the banking business. Such certificate of authority, when issued to guaranty fund banks, shall contain the following statement on the face thereof in bold type: "The non-interest bearing and unsecured deposits of this bank are protected by the State bank guaranty fund." And, when issued to bond security banks, shall contain the following statement on the face thereof in bold type: "All deposits of this bank are protected by security bond under the laws of the State of Texas." And, when issued to the State banks other than guaranty fund banks and bond security bonds [banks], it shall contain neither of these nor any similar statement. Said Commissioner shall deliver the certificate herein provided for, upon such corporation showing to the satisfaction of the State Banking Board that it has complied with the State banking laws.

Any person or persons who shall in any capacity transact, or hold themselves out as transacting, the business of banking for or on behalf of any State bank or State banking and trust company, without such bank or banking and trust company's holding a certificate of authority from the said Commissioner, as herein provided for, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than one nor more than twelve months, or both. Each day is a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 543. [522] False statement as to system.—Any officer, director, or stockholder of any State bank or State bank and trust company doing business under the laws of this State, or any other person acting for such bank or bank and trust company, who shall write, print, publish, or advertise in any manner any false statement as to the Guaranty Fund system or the bond security system of the State banks of Texas, or any person who shall write, print, publish, or advertise any false statement as to the Guaranty Fund system or bond security system of the State banks of this State authorized to be used by State banks or State bank and trust companies of this State, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both. [Acts 1923, p. 92.]

Art. 544. [523] Embezzling or misapplying funds.—Every president, cashier, director, teller, clerk, or agent of any State bank or bank and trust company incorporated under the laws of Texas, who embezzles, fraudulently abstracts or wilfully misapplies any of the moneys, funds or credits of such bank or bank and trust company, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. It shall not be necessary to allege in the indictment nor to prove on the trial that such embezzlement, abstraction or misapplication was without the consent of anyone. If the accused had the consent of anyone authorized to consent to his act, he may prove it. [Acts 1909, p. 406; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 202, ch. 133, § 1.]

Art. 545. [523] Acts without authority.—Every president, cashier, director, teller, clerk, or agent of any State bank or banking and trust company incorporated under the laws of Texas, who, without authority from the directors, issues or puts forth any certificate of deposit, draws any order or bill of exchange, makes any acceptance, assigns any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment or decree, or who makes any false entry in any book, report or statement of such bank or banking and trust company with intent, in either case to defraud such bank or banking and trust company, or any other corporation, body politic, or any person, firm, or association, or to deceive any officer of such bank or banking and trust company, the Banking Commissioner or any examiner or special agent authorized by law to examine the affairs of any such bank or banking and trust company, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 253, ch. 95, § 1.]

Art. 546. [524] Director borrowing funds.—Any director of a State bank or banking and trust company, incorporated under the laws of this State, who shall, either directly or indirectly, borrow any of the funds of such bank in excess of ten per cent of its capital and surplus, without the consent of a majority of the directors of the bank first having been obtained and made a matter of record at a regular meeting of the board, or without the written consent of such majority of the directors, other than the borrowers, being jointly executed by them and filed in the archives of such bank before the loan is made; and any officer of a State bank who shall knowingly become indebted to such bank, directly or indirectly, in any sum whatever, without the consent of a majority of the board, other than the borrower, obtained or recorded or filed in like manner, and any officer or director of such bank who shall knowingly loan or assent to the loaning of any of its funds to any officer, or any of its funds to any director in excess of ten per cent of its capital and surplus, without such consent being first obtained and recorded, or filed, or who shall knowingly permit any such officer or director to become indebted to the bank or liable to it without such consent, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term of not less than two years. [Id.]

Art. 547. [525] Officer or director, failure of duty.—Any officer, director or employé of any State bank or trust company who wilfully fails or refuses to perform any duty imposed upon him by law, or who shall do or perform, or assist in doing or performing any act or transaction prohibited by the provisions of the laws of this State governing such banks or companies, for the punishment of which provision is not otherwise made in this chapter, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both. [Id.]

Art. 547a. Acting as president and cashier.—Sec. 1. That hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person to be president and cashier, at the same time, in any bank, organized and operating under the laws of this state.

Sec. 2. Any person offending against the above provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in any sum not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 288, ch. 201.]

Art. 547b. Sale of securities without consent of directors.—Sec. 1. That it shall be unlawful for any officer, director or employee of a bank, organized and operating under the laws of this state to sell any note, security or property to such bank, without the written consent of a majority of the board of directors, made in the same manner as is required by law for the making of loans to such officers.

Sec. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than five hundred ($500.00) or more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty or more than ninety days, or both. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 203, ch. 134.]

Art. 547c. Destroying or removing bank records.—Sec. 1. That any stockholder, officer, director, employee or agent of any bank incorporated and operating under the laws of this State who, for the purpose of concealing any fact or suppressing evidence against himself or other persons, shall abstract, remove, destroy or secrete any papers, books or records of any bank from such bank, or the house in which such bank carried on its business; or from the custody of the State Banking Commissioner of Texas, shall be guilty of a felony; and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two years and not to exceed five years.

Sec. 2. All such principal offenders, accessories and accomplices may be charged in the same count and separate offenses may be charged in separate counts in the same indictment or information; and they may be tried together. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 398, ch. 269.]

Section 3 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 398, ch. 269, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 548. [526] [527] Commissioner financially interested.—Neither the Banking Commissioner nor any regularly appointed clerk or employé of the department of banking, nor any State bank examiner, shall, at any time during his incumbency, be financially interested, directly or indirectly, in any State bank or banking and trust company, subject to the supervision of the department of banking, or knowingly be or become indebted, either directly or indirectly, to any such State bank or banking and trust company. Any officer or employé above named violating any provision hereof shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. The venue in such case shall be in the county wherein such bank or banking and trust company is located. The violation of the provisions of this article shall work a forfeiture of the office or position held by the person guilty of such violation. [Acts 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 548a. Commissioner purchasing assets.—Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for the Banking Commissioner of Texas or any of his employees to purchase, either directly or indirectly, any asset of any nature belonging to any bank in the hands of the Commissioner for liquidation.

Sec. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than twenty-five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not less than six months nor more than two years, or both. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 201, ch. 131.]

Art. 549. [528] Certifying check without funds.—Any officer, clerk or agent of any State bank or banking and trust company incorporated under the laws of Texas, who shall wilfully certify to any check before the amount thereof shall have been regularly entered to the credit of the drawer, upon the books of such State bank or banking and trust company, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars, or be confined in the penitentiary for not more than one year, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1909, p. 406.]

Art. 550. [529] Notice of violation.—Any State bank examiner, or special agent, who shall knowingly and intentionally fail or refuse to notify the Banking Commissioner in writing of any violation of any criminal provision of this law within ten days after the same shall come to his notice or attention, unless such notice shall, within his knowledge, have been previously given by some other bank examiner or special agent; or any Banking Commissioner who shall knowingly and intentionally fail or refuse to notify in writing the county or district attorney charged by law with the duty of the prosecution thereof, of any such violation, within ten days after the same shall have come to his knowledge or attention, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both, and, upon conviction, shall be removed from office. [Id.]

Art. 551. [530] Examiner violating oath of office.—For any violation of his oath of office, or of any duty imposed upon him by law, any examiner shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding five years, and upon indictment of any such examiner for any violation of this law, he shall be disqualified from further discharging the duties of such office until such indictment is fully disposed of. [Acts 1905, p. 489.]

Art. 552. [531] Statement.—The Banking Commissioner, not less than twice during any one year, shall call upon each bank organized under the laws of this State, and each trust company or savings bank doing business under the provisions of such laws, for a statement as provided by law; and he may call upon any one or more of such corporations to make such statements at any time, though it be more than a second statement within the year. Said Commissioner shall give no notice to any person whatsoever of the day on which he will call for such statement. For a violation of this prohibition, or of any other duty herein imposed upon him, he shall be deemed to have committed a misdemeanor in office, and, upon conviction of the same, he shall be punished by removal from office, and by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars for each violation of this law. Should any president, cashier or secretary, or any officer of such corporation, or any director thereof, refuse to make the statement so required of him or them, or wilfully and corruptly make a false statement, he shall be fined for each offense not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one nor more than twelve months in jail or both. [Id.]

Art. 553. Accepting bonus for loan.—Any officer, director, or employé of any State bank or banking corporation organized under the laws of Texas who demands or accepts directly or indirectly, any commission or consideration or any other compensation on account of the making by any such corporation of any loan or extension of credit to any person, firm or corporation, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both. [Acts 1917, p. 470.]

Art. 554. Exceeding loan limit.—No incorporated bank or trust company chartered under the laws of this State shall loan its money, directly or indirectly, or permit any individual, corporation, company, or firm to become at any time indebted or liable to it in a sum exceeding twenty-five per cent of its capital stock actually paid in and surplus, or permit a line of loans or credits to any greater amount to any individual, corporation, company or firm. Any agent or officer of any incorporated bank or trust company who violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both. All loans to members of any unincorporated company or firm shall be considered as if they were loans to such company or firm in determining the limitation here prescribed. The discount of commercial or business paper actually owned by the person negotiating the same shall not be considered as borrowed money; a permanent surplus, the setting apart of which shall have been certified to the Banking Commissioner and which cannot be diverted without due notice to and consent of said officer, may be taken and considered as a part of the capital stock for the purpose of this article. In no event shall any such loan exceed 25 per cent of the authorized capital stock and certified surplus. [Acts 1917, p. 472.]

Art. 555. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not be held to interfere with the rules and regulations of any clearing house association in this State in reference to the daily balances between banks; nor does it apply to balances due from correspondents subject to draft. The discount of the following classes of paper shall not be considered as money borrowed within the meaning of the preceding article:

1. The discount of bills of exchange, drawn in good faith, against actual existing values.

2. The discount of paper upon collateral security or warehouse receipts, covering agricultural and manufactured products in store in elevators and warehouses, under the following conditions: first, that the actual market value of the property held in store and covered by such receipts shall at all times exceed by at least twenty-five per cent the amount loaned upon the same; second, that the full amount of such loans shall at all times be covered by policies of fire insurance issued by companies lawfully doing business in this State, to the extent of their ability to cover such loans; and all such policies shall be made payable in case of loss to the bank or holder of the warehouse receipts.

Any State banking corporation may accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it and growing out of transactions involving the importation and exportation of goods having not more than six months sight to run; but no bank shall accept such bills to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than one-half of its paid up capital and surplus. [Id.]

Art. 556. Unlawfully accepting deposits.—No director, officer or employé of any State bank or banking corporation organized under or subject to the general banking laws of this State, or any person for any such bank or banking corporation, shall receive any deposit at any time after such bank or banking corporation has failed or refused within the time required, to comply with any order or requirement of the State Banking Board, pursuant to the provisions of the laws regulating such deposits, when its total demand and time deposits and savings accounts shall in the aggregate amount to more than the limitations placed upon deposits by laws of this State; and such acceptance of deposits by any director, officer, or employé of any such bank or banking corporation or by any person therefor, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or by both. Each acceptance or receipt of a deposit in violation hereof is a separate offense. [Acts 1921, p. 115.]

Art. 557. Accepting deposits when insolvent.—If any president, director, manager, cashier, or other officer, of any banking institution, or the owner, agent, or manager of any private bank or banking institution, or the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, director or agent, of any trust company or institution, doing business in this State, shall receive or assent to the reception of any deposit of money or other valuable thing into such bank or banking institution, or trust company or institution, or if any such officer, owner, or agent, of such bank or banking institution, or if any president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, director, or agent, of such trust company or institution, shall create or assent to the creation of any debt, debts, or indebtedness, in consideration of or by reason of which indebtedness any money or valuable property shall be received into such bank or banking institution, or trust company or institution, after he shall have had knowledge of the fact that such bank, banking institution, or trust company or institution, or the owner or owners of any private bank, is insolvent or in failing circumstances, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. The failure of any such bank or banking institution, or trust company or institution, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge on the part of any such officer or person that the same was insolvent or in failing circumstances when the money or property was received on deposit. [Acts 1897, p. 130.]

Art. 558. Organizing private bank.—No additional private banking institution or business shall be organized or established after the taking effect of this Act, and it shall be unlawful for any person, association of persons, partnerships, or trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, to hereafter organize or establish, or begin the operation of any banking institution or business within this State, or to resume such operations, except as provided in this Act. [Acts 1923, p. 422.]

Art. 559. Deceptive advertising.—No persons, association of persons, partnerships or any trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, shall hereafter use, advertise or put forth any sign as a bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank, or in any way solicit or receive business as such, or use as their name or part of their name on any sign, advertising or letter head or envelope the word bank, banker, banking, banking company, trust, trust company, bank and trust company, savings bank, savings, or any other term which may or might be confused with the name of a corporation organized under the general provisions of the banking laws of this State. No such person, association of persons, partnership or any trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust shall adopt or use any artificial name or business title, or use any other than the name of the person or one or more of the persons, or a member or one or more of the members of the association of persons or partnership, or a member or one or more of the members of such common law trust association, in the management, conduct or operation of any private banking institution or bank of deposit within this State. [Id.]

Art. 560. Speculative venture.—No person or association of persons, trustee or trustees, acting under any common law declaration of trust, engaged in the business of banking or operating a bank of deposit in this State shall employ any part of the funds of the depositors of said institution in any speculative venture or enterprise owned or promoted by said bank or any of the partners, officers or managers thereof. [Id.]

Art. 560a. Bank officers dealing in bucket shops.—Sec. 1. That it shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of any state Bank or State Bank and Trust Company incorporated under the laws of this State, who is, or may be actively engaged in the handling of the funds of the Bank or Bank and Trust Company and who is, or may be receiving a yearly or monthly salary from said Bank or Bank and Trust Company, to enter into any contract with a bucket shop, as defined in Article 659 of the Penal Code of Texas, or to place any order with a bucket shop, as thus defined, for a margin contract or any contract denounced by Article 658 and by Article 661 of the Penal Code of Texas.

Sec. 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of felony, and, upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding two years. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 325, ch. 221.]

Art. 561. Affidavit of solvency.—Annually, not later than January 15th of each year, each person or persons, association of persons or partnerships, or trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, or the officers or the managers thereof, owning or operating any bank of deposit within this State, shall file with the county clerk of the county wherein the principal business of said institution is conducted an affidavit stating that said person or association of persons, partnership or institution, operating under a common law declaration of trust, is solvent and has and owns property and assets in this State the value of which is in excess of any and all of the liabilities of such person, association of persons, partnership or institution operating under a declaration of trust. [Acts 1923, p. 422.]

Art. 562. Statement of private bank.—Every person, partnership or association of persons, the trustee or trustees of every joint stock association, or institution, operating under any common law declaration of trust, owning or operating a bank of deposit within this State, shall annually, not later than January 20th, file with the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of said joint stock association or institution operating under a common law declaration of trust is located, a written sworn statement giving the names of each partner or stockholder, or member holding or owning any financial interest or stock in such partnership or institution operating under a common law declaration of trust or association of persons; and a copy of such statement shall be published by the institution, partnership or association of persons, trustee or trustees of such institution, in some newspaper of general circulation in said county, if such newspaper be published within said county. [Id.]

Art. 563. Advertisement of responsibility.—No person, association of persons, partnership, or any trustee or trustees, acting under any common law declaration of trust, owning or operating any private banking institution or bank of deposit within this State, shall advertise in any newspaper or otherwise within this State, that said person or association of persons, partnership or institution operating under any common law declaration of trust, owns, possesses or has a financial responsibility in excess of, or above the real and true financial responsibility of such person, association of persons, partnership or institution operating under a declaration of trust. By the term "financial responsibility" as herein used, is meant money or real or personal property within this State. [Id.]

Art. 564. Punishment.—The violation of any provision of the six preceding articles by any person, association of persons, partnership, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, shall constitute a misdemeanor as to such person, as to each member or association of persons, and as to each and every trustee acting under such common law declaration of trust, punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than twelve months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day said business is carried on or attempted to be carried on shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 565. Insolvent private bank accepting deposits.—Any person, association of persons, partnership, or any trustee or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, or any manager, cashier or other person owning or operating any unincorporated bank or banking institution, banking company, trust company, bank and trust company, savings bank, or the trustee or manager thereof doing business in this State who shall receive or assent to the reception of any deposit of money or other valuable thing into said bank or banking institution, or trust company or institution, or bank and trust company, or savings bank, or if any such person, association of persons, owner or agent of any such bank or banking institution, or any director or agent of any such institution shall create or assent to the creation of any debt, debts or indebtedness in consideration or by reason of which indebtedness any money or valuable property shall be received into such bank or banking institution, or trust company, or institution, or any institution operating under a common law declaration of trust, after such person shall have had knowledge of the fact that such bank, banking institution or trust company, or bank and trust company, or savings bank, is insolvent, or in failing circumstances, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. The failure of any such bank, banker, or banking institution, trust company, or bank and trust company, or savings bank, shall be prima facie evidence of the knowledge on the part of such person, persons, partnership, officers and trustees of any institution operating under a common law declaration of trust that the same was insolvent or in failing circumstances when the money or property was received and deposited. [Id.]

Art. 566. Exceptions.—The provisions of the eight preceding articles shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustees, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who, at the time this Act becomes effective are actively engaged in the operation of any bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank within this State, nor to any bank which may have been in successful operation in this State for twenty years and shall have suspended operation prior to the passage of this Act, but which shall resume operation within twelve months after the passage of this Act. The right to continue such business of such bank, trust company, bank and trust company or savings bank so engaged, or shall resume business as provided in this Act, and by their heirs, legal representatives, assigns and successors, is hereby expressly recognized, confirmed and fixed. Said provisions shall not apply to any person, association of persons, partnerships or trustee, or trustees acting under any common law declaration of trust, who has for a period of one year next preceding the date that this Act becomes effective, and who, as such, in the course of the liquidation of any bank or trust company or bank and trust company within this State, has acquired the assets, or any part thereof, including the real estate used as its banking house or place of business and has assumed the liabilities, or a part thereof, of such liquidated bank or trust company or bank and trust company. [Acts 1923, p. 422.] [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 148, p. 356, § 1.]

Art. 567. Rural Credit Union.—Any officer or member of a Rural Credit Union organized under the laws of this State who embezzles or misapplies any money or funds belonging to such Rural Credit Union shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years. [Acts 1913, p. 163.]

Art. 567a. Uttering untrue statement regarding bank.—Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate, or transmit to another, or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any bank, banking house, banking company, trust company, in the State, with intent to injure [injure] any such financial institution; or who shall counsel, aid, procure, or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit, or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not more than two thousand five hundred ($2,500) dollars or by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for a period of not exceeding two years or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 23, p. 83, § 1.]

[644] [417] [388a] Who are insurance agents.—Whoever solicits insurance on behalf of any insurance company, whether incorporated under the laws of this or any other State, or foreign government, or who takes or transmits other than for himself, any application for insurance, or any policy of insurance, to or from such company, or who advertises or otherwise gives notice that he will receive or transmit the same, or shall receive or deliver a policy of insurance of any such company, or who shall examine or inspect any risk, or receive or collect or transmit any premium of insurance, or make or forward any diagram of any building or do any other act in the making or consummating of any contract of insurance for or with any such insurance company other than for himself, or who shall examine into, or adjust or aid in adjusting any loss for or on behalf of any such insurance company, whether any of such acts shall be done at the instance, or by the employment of such insurance company, or of or by any broker or other person, shall be held to be the agent of the company for which the act is done or the risk is taken, as far as relates to all the requirements and penalties herein set forth. [Acts C. S. 1879, p. 32.]

Art. 569. Exception.—The preceding article shall not apply to citizens of this State who arbitrate in the adjustment of losses between the insurers and the assured, nor to the adjustment of particular or general average losses of vessels or cargoes by marine adjusters, nor to attorneys at law in the State acting in the regular transaction of their business as such, and who are not local agents nor acting as adjusters for any insurance company. [Id.]

Art. 570. [645-689] Unlawfully acting as agent.—Whoever shall do or perform any of the acts or things mentioned in the first article of this chapter for any insurance company referred to in said article without such company having first complied with the requirements of the laws of this State, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 571. [643] [416] [388] Violating insurance laws.—Whoever violates any provision of the laws of this State regulating the business of life, fire, or marine insurance, shall, where the punishment is not otherwise provided for, be fined not less than five hundred nor [nor] more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1875, p. 44.]

Art. 571a. Violating law as to automobile insurance.—Any insurer or officer or representative thereof which shall violate any provision of this Act [Civ. St. art. 4682b] shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for the first offense, and upon conviction for a second offense in addition to such fine, the Commissioner may cancel the license of such insurer or person to write insurance. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 373, ch. 253, § 12.]

Section 13 provides that if any part is held invalid such holding shall not affect the remainder. Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 373, ch. 253, §§ 1-7, abolish the Commissioner of Insurance and confer his duties on the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Art. 572. Soliciting without certificate of authority.—Whoever for direct or indirect compensation solicits insurance in behalf of any insurance company of any kind or character, or transmits for a person other than himself, an application for a policy of insurance to or from such company, or assumes to act in negotiation of insurance without a certificate of authority to act as agent or solicitor for such company, or after such certificate of authority shall have been canceled or revoked, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 573. [690] Agent procuring by fraudulent representation.—Any such agent or solicitor who knowingly procures by fraudulent representations payment of an obligation for the payment of a premium of insurance, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 208.]

Art. 574. [692] Agent or physician making false statement.—Any solicitor, agent or examining physician who knowingly or wilfully makes any false or fraudulent statement or representation in or with reference to any application for insurance, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 575. [693] False statement by officer of foreign company.—Any officer of any insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, who shall file with the Commissioner of Insurance any statement, report or other paper required or provided for by law to be so filed, which shall contain any material statement or fact known to be false by the person filing the same, or any person who shall execute or cause to be executed any such false statement, report or other paper to be so filed, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one year. [Acts 1909, p. 211.]

Art. 576. [691] Conversion by insurance agent.—Any insurance agent or solicitor who collects premiums for an insurance company lawfully doing business in this State and who embezzles or fraudulently converts or appropriates to his own use, or with intent to embezzle takes, secretes, or otherwise disposes of or fraudulently withholds, appropriates, lends, invests or otherwise uses or applies any money or substitutes for money received by him as such agent or broker, contrary to the instructions or without the consent of the company for or on account of which the same was received by him, shall be punished as if he had stolen the same. [Acts 1909, p. 208.]

Art. 577. [687] Director or officer pecuniarily interested.—No director or officer of any insurance company transacting business in this State, or organized under the laws of this State, shall receive any money or valuable thing for negotiating, procuring, recommending or aiding in any purchase or sale by such company of any property or any loan from such company, nor be pecuniarily interested either as principal, co-principal, agent or beneficiary, in any such purchase, sale or loan. Nothing contained in this article shall prevent a life insurance corporation from making a loan upon a policy held therein, by the borrower not in excess of the reserve value thereof. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Act March 22, 1909, sec. 12, Acts 1909, p. 197.]

Art. 578. [688] Companies not to discriminate.—No insurance company doing business in this State shall make or permit any distinction or discrimination in favor of individuals between the insured of the same class and of equal expectation of life in the amount of or payment of premiums or rates charged for policies of life or endowment insurance or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon; nor shall any such company or agent thereof make any contract of insurance or agreement as to such contract other than as expressed in the policy issued thereon, nor shall any such company or any officer, agent, solicitor or representative thereof, pay, allow or give, or offer to pay, allow or give, directly or indirectly as an inducement to insurance, any rebate of premium payable on the policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other benefits to accrue thereon or any paid employment or contract for service of any kind, or any valuable consideration or inducement whatever, not specified in the policy contract of insurance; or give, sell or purchase, or offer to give, sell or purchase, as an inducement to insurance or in connection therewith, any stocks, bonds or other securities of any insurance company or other corporation, association or partnership, or any dividends or profits to accrue thereon, or anything of value whatsoever not specified in the policy, or issue any policy containing any special or board contract or similar provision by the terms of which said policy will share or participate in any special fund derived from a tax or a charge against any portion of the premium on any other policy. Any officer or agent of such company violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 199.]

Art. 579. Indemnity contracts.—Any attorney in fact duly appointed as such by the subscribers to execute contracts to exchange reciprocal or inter-insurance contracts according to the law governing such contracts, who shall, except for the purpose of applying for certificate of authority from the Commissioner of Insurance as provided for by such law, exchange any contract of indemnity of the kind and character specified in such law, or shall directly or indirectly solicit or negotiate any application for same without first complying with the law governing such contracts, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 271.]

Art. 580. Workmen's Compensation Insurance.—Any officer or representative of any insurance company or association authorized to write workmen's compensation insurance in this State, who shall violate any provision of the laws relating to such business contained in chapter 10, Title "Insurance" of the Revised Statutes, relating to the State Insurance Commission and such business, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 411.]

FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETY

Art. 581. False statement to fraternal benefit society.—Any person, officer, member or examining physician of any society authorized to do business under the laws of this State relating to fraternal benefit societies who wilfully makes any false or fraudulent statement or representation in or with reference to any application for membership, or for the purpose of obtaining money from or benefit in any society transacting business under this law, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both. [Acts 1913, p. 235.]

Art. 582. Unlawfully soliciting membership.—Whoever solicits membership for, or in any manner assists in procuring membership in any fraternal benefit society not licensed to do business in this State, or who shall solicit membership for, or in any manner assist in procuring membership in such society not authorized by law to do business in this State, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 583. Soliciting without certificate of authority.—Whoever solicits for or organizes lodges of such association as are defined to be a fraternal benefit society under the laws of this State, without first obtaining from the Commissioner of Insurance a certificate of authority showing that the association has complied with the provisions of such laws and is entitled to do business in this State, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than three nor more than six months, or both. [Id.]

Art. 584. Exceptions.—No provision of the preceding articles shall prohibit any member of a local or subordinate lodge from soliciting any person to become a member of any local or subordinate lodge already in existence, nor apply to any members of any local or subordinate lodge who participate in, direct or conduct the organization or establishment of any local or subordinate lodge within the limits of the county of their residence or lodge district. [Id.]

Art. 585. General penalty.—Any officer, agent or employé of any fraternal benefit society organized under the laws of this State who neglects or refuses to comply with or who violates any provision of the laws of this State governing such societies, shall where the penalty is not provided for in the preceding articles of this chapter, be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Id.]

MUTUAL LIFE COMPANIES

Art. 586. Investment of funds.—Mutual life insurance companies shall invest their funds in accordance with the provisions of the statutes concerning investments of life insurance companies in this State; all moneys of mutual life companies, coming into the hands of any officer or officers thereof, when not invested as prescribed by said laws, shall be deposited in the name of such company or companies in some bank or banks which are subject to either State or national regulation and supervision; and which have been approved by the Commissioner of Insurance as depositories therefor. Any officer or director of any such company who shall knowingly and wilfully violate or assent to the violation of the provisions of this article shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Acts 1921, p. 150.]

Art. 587. [686] Insuring without examination.—No mutual life insurance company shall enter into any contract of insurance amounting to $500.00 or more, upon the life of any person, without having previously made a medical examination prescribed by its medical director and approved by its board of directors, of the insured, by a duly qualified and licensed practitioner, and without his certificate that the insured was in sound health at the date of examination. Any officer or agent or employé of such company violating any provision of this article or effecting or attempting to effect a contract of insurance contrary to any provision hereof shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not less than six months, or both. [Acts 1909, p. 289, Acts 1921, p. 152.]

OTHER MUTUAL INSURANCE

Art. 588. [680] Mutual accident insurance law.—Any officer or any employé of a mutual accident insurance company, incorporated under the laws of this State, who shall use or appropriate, or knowingly permit to be used or appropriated by another, any money belonging to such mutual insurance company, in any manner other than is provided in the law authorizing the organization of such company, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1903, p. 175.]

Art. 589. Failure to report condition.—If at any time the admitted assets of any mutual company operating under the law providing for the incorporation of mutual fire, lightning, hail and storm insurance companies, shall come to be less than the largest single risk for which the company is liable, then the president and the secretary of the company shall at once notify the Commissioner of Insurance, and he may make an examination into the company's affairs if he deems best, and if such president and secretary shall fail to report the company's condition as so required, they shall each be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 57.]

Art. 590. [683] False statement or misappropriation.—Whoever shall intentionally submit a false statement, or intentionally misappropriate the funds of mutual companies organized under the laws providing for the incorporation of mutual fire, lightning, hail and storm insurance companies, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years. [Id.]

INSURANCE ON THE LLOYDS PLAN

Art. 591. Underwriters and attorneys.—Individuals, partnerships or associations of individuals, hereby designated "underwriters" are authorized to make any insurance, except life insurance, on the Lloyds plan, by executing articles of agreement expressing their purpose so to do, and complying with the requirements set forth in the law authorizing such insurance. Policies of insurance may be executed by an attorney in fact or other representatives, hereby designated "attorney," authorized by and acting for such underwriters under powers of attorney. [Acts 1921, p. 238.]

Art. 592. To file application for license.—The attorney for a Lloyds shall file with the Commissioner of Insurance a verified application for license setting forth the data and information required by law, and upon complying with the law such Commissioner shall issue to any attorney applying therefor a license specifying the kind or kinds of insurance which he is authorized to make, which shall continue in force until surrendered by the attorney or revoked or suspended by such Commissioner as authorized by law. [Id.]

Art. 593. Examination of books and affairs.—The Commissioner of Insurance may make examinations of the books and affairs of any attorney for underwriters at a Lloyds, and the attorney and his deputies shall facilitate such examination and furnish all information which such Commissioner may reasonably demand. [Id.]

Art. 594. Assuming undue risk.—No attorney for underwriters at a Lloyds shall assume any one insurance risk exceeding one-fifth of the amount of the net assets of the underwriters as defined by law and the additional liability assumed by the individual underwriters in the articles of agreement and in the policies or contracts of insurance, unless such excess shall be promptly reinsured. [Id.]

Art. 595. Violation of Lloyds insurance law.—Any person, who, as principal, attorney, agent, broker, or other representative, shall engage in the business of making insurance on the Lloyds plan, as defined in this chapter and by the Revised Statutes of this State, without complying with the requirements of such law governing such business, or who shall violate any provision of the four preceding articles, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Id.]

FIRE INSURANCE

Art. 596. Accepting rebates.—Whoever shall knowingly receive or accept from any insurance company or from any of its agents, sub-agents, brokers, solicitors, employés, intermediaries or representatives, or any other person, any rebate of premium payable on policy, or any special favor or advantage in the dividends or other financial profits accrued or to accrue thereon, or any valuable consideration, position or inducement not specified in the policy of insurance, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding ninety days, or both. [Acts 1913, p. 205.]

Art. 597. Violating fire insurance law.—Any officer or director of any fire insurance company affected by the statutes of this State creating the State Insurance Commission, or any agent, or any one acting or employed by such company who alone or in conjunction with any corporation, company or person, shall wilfully do or cause to be done any act prohibited or declared to be unlawful by such statutes, or who wilfully fails to do any act required to be done by such statutes, or who shall wilfully permit any act directed not to be done, or who shall be guilty of any wilful infraction of such statutes, shall be fined not less than three hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 598. [663] Witness must testify.—No person shall be excused from giving testimony or producing evidence when legally called upon to do so at the trial of another charged with violating any provision of the laws relating to fire insurance on the ground that it may incriminate him under the laws of this State; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may testify or produce evidence under this law. [Acts 1910, p. 125; Acts 1913, p. 206.]

Art. 599. Failure to give bond.—Every fire insurance company not organized under the laws of this State, hereafter issuing or causing or authorizing to be issued any policy of insurance other than life insurance shall first have filed with the Commissioner of Insurance during the calendar year in which such policy may issue, or be authorized or caused to be issued, a bond with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by such Commissioner, in a sum of not less than ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the payment of all lawful obligations to citizens of this State arising out of any policies or contracts issued by such insurance company. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not less than three nor more than twelve months, or both. [Acts 1909, p. 182.]

Art. 600. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation or association doing an interinsurance, co-operative or reciprocal business. [Id.]

Art. 601. Mutual fire insurance companies.—Any person who shall transact the business of mutual fire insurance in this State without complying with the laws regulating such business shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 396.]

CHAPTER THREE

WIFE AND CHILD DESERTION

Art.

- 602. Desertion of wife or child.
- 603. Jurisdiction.
- 604. Allowance for support.
- 605. Wife may testify.
- 606. Duty of commissioners' court.

Article 602. Desertion of wife or child.—Any husband who shall wilfully desert, neglect or refuse to provide for the support and maintenance of his wife who may be in destitute or necessitous circumstances, or any parent who shall wilfully desert, neglect or refuse to provide for the support and maintenance of his or her child or children under sixteen years in destitute or necessitous circumstances, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not more than one year, or both. [Acts 1913, p. 188.]

Art. 603. Jurisdiction.—An offense under this chapter shall be held to have been committed in the county in which such wife, child or children may have been at the time such abandonment occurred, or in the county in which such wife, child or children shall have resided for six months next preceding the filing of the indictment or information. [Id.]

Art. 604. Allowance for support.—At any time before the trial, upon petition of the complainant and upon notice to the defendant, the court, or judge thereof in vacation, may enter such temporary orders as may seem just, providing for the support of the deserted wife or children, or both, pendente lite, and may punish for the violation of or refusal to obey such order as for contempt. [Id.]

Art. 605. Wife may testify.—No other or greater evidence to prove the marriage of such husband and wife, or that the defendant is the father or mother of such child or children, shall be required than is or shall be in a civil action. In no prosecution under this chapter shall any statute prohibiting disclosures of confidential communications between husband and wife apply to strictly relevant facts. Both husband and wife shall be competent and compellable witnesses to testify against each other to any relevant matter including the fact of such marriage, and the parentage of such child or children. Proof of the desertion of such wife, child or children in destitute or necessitous circumstances or of neglect or refusal to provide for the support and maintenance of such wife, child or children shall be prima facie evidence that such desertion, neglect, or refusal is wilful. [Id.]

Art. 606. Duty of commissioners court.—The commissioners court of the county in which information or indictment under this chapter is filed shall furnish the funds necessary for arresting and returning to such county any defendant under this chapter who is not at the time in such county. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

VAGRANCY

Art.

- 607. "Vagrancy."
- 608. Punishment for vagrancy.
- 609. Duty of peace officers.

Article 607. [634-635-636] "Vagrancy."—The following persons are and shall be punished as vagrants, viz.:

(1) Persons known as tramps, wandering or strolling about in idleness, who are able to work and have no property to support them.

(2) Persons leading an idle, immoral or profligate life, who have no property to support them, and who are able to work and do not work.

(3) All persons able to work, [who] have no property to support them, and who have no visible or known means of a fair, honest and reputable livelihood. The term "visible or known means of a fair, honest and reputable livelihood," as used in this article, shall be construed to mean reasonably continuous employment at some lawful occupation for reasonable compensation, or a fixed and regular income from property or other investments, which income is sufficient for the support and maintenance of such person.

(4) All able-bodied persons who habitually loaf, loiter and idle in any city, town or village, or railroad station, or any other public place in this State for the larger portions of their time, without any regular employment and without any visible means of support. An offense under this subdivision shall be made out if it is shown that any person has no visible means of support, and only occasionally has employment at odd jobs, being for the most of the time out of employment.

(5) Persons trading or bartering stolen property.

(6) Every common gambler or person who for the most part maintains himself by gambling.

(7) All companies of gypsies, who, in whole or in part, maintain themselves by telling fortunes.

(8) Every able-bodied person who shall go begging for a livelihood.

(9) Every common prostitute.

(10) Every able-bodied person who lives without employment or labor, and who has no visible means of support.

(11) All persons who are able to work and do not work, but hire out their minor children, or allow them to be hired out, and live upon their wages, being without other means of support.

(12) All persons over sixteen years of age and under twenty-one, able to work and who do not work, and have no property to support them, and have not some known, visible means of a fair, honest and reputable livelihood, and whose parents, or those in loco parentis, are unable to support them, and who are not in attendance upon some educational institution.

(13) All persons who advertise and maintain themselves in whole or in part as clairvoyants or foretellers of future events, or as having supernatural knowledge with respect to present or future conditions, transactions, happenings or events.

(14) All male persons who habitually associate with prostitutes, or habitually loiter in or around houses of prostitution, or who, without having visible means of support, receive financial aid or assistance from prostitutes. [Acts 1909, p. 111.]

Art. 608. [639] Punishment for vagrancy.—Each vagrant shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 609. [637-638-640] Duty of peace officers.—It shall be the duty of every sheriff, deputy sheriff and constable in every county, and of the police, town marshal, deputy marshal, and like officials, in every county, city, town, or village in this State to make complaint under oath to any officer empowered to issue criminal warrants, of all vagrants within their knowledge, or upon information, in their respective counties, cities, towns, and villages. If any such officer shall fail, refuse, or neglect to perform the duties herein required, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

Article 610. [1507] [1005] Pugilistic encounters prohibited.—Any person who shall voluntarily engage in a pugilistic encounter between man and man, or a fight between a man and a bull, or any other animal, for money or other thing of value, or for any championship, or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered, or to see which any admission fee is charged, either directly or indirectly, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1st C. S. 1895, p. 5.]

Art. 611. [1508] "Pugilistic encounter."—By the term "pugilistic encounter," as used herein, is meant any voluntary fight or personal encounter by blows by means of the fists or otherwise, whether with or without gloves, between two or more men for money, or for a prize of any character, or for any other thing of value, or for any championship, or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered, or to see which any admission fee is charged. [Id.]

Art. 612. [1509] Moving pictures of prize fights.—No person, association, corporation, or any agent or employé of any person, association, corporation or receiver, partnership or firm, shall give or present to the public an exhibition of prize fights or glove contests, or of any obscene, indecent or immoral picture of any character whatsoever, by means of moving picture films, bioscopes, vitascopes, magic lanterns or other device or devices in moving picture shows, theaters, or any other place whatsoever.

Any person, or any agent or employé of any person, association, corporation or receiver violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than ten nor more than sixty days, or both. Each day's violation of any provision of this article shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1st C. S. 1910, p. 21.]

Art. 613. [1510] Matching cock fight, etc.—Any person who shall match or be concerned in matching any cock fight or who shall match or be concerned in matching or causing a fight between any animals or fowls, or who shall keep or be concerned in keeping any cock pit or other place for the purpose of matching fights between cocks or any animals or fowls, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Each day such cock pit or other place as aforesaid shall be kept shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1907, p. 156.]

Art. 614. [1511] Engaging in roping contest.—Any person who shall engage in a roping contest with other persons or alone, in which cattle or other animals are roped as a test or trial of the skill of the person or persons engaged in such roping contest, for money or prize of any character, or for any championship, for anything of value, or upon the result of which any money or anything of value is bet or wagered, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. Each animal roped, or attempted to be roped, shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1905, p. 69.]

A. B. C., chuckaluck, keno and rondo; but the enumeration of these games shall not exclude any other properly within the meaning of the two preceding articles.

Art. 622. [554-555-571] Indictment and proof.—In any indictment for any offense named in the three preceding articles, it is sufficient to state that the accused kept a table or bank for gaming, or exhibited a table or bank for gaming, without giving the name or description thereof, and without stating that it was without any name or that the name was unknown. It shall be sufficient to prove that any game therein mentioned was played, dealt or exhibited, without proving that money or other article of value was won or lost thereon. [Acts 1907, p. 110.]

Art. 623. [556] [387] "Exhibited."—The word "exhibited" is intended to signify the act of displaying the bank or game for the purpose of obtaining bettors.

Art. 624. [557-560] Miscellaneous betting.—If any person shall bet or wager at any gaming table or bank or shall bet or wager any money or other thing of value at any of the following games, viz.: muggins, crack-loo, crack-or-loo, or the game of matching money or coins of any denomination for such coins or for any other thing of value, or at any table or bank, by whatsoever name the same may be known, or whether named or not, and without reference as to how the same may be played, constructed or operated, or shall bet or wager upon anything in any place where people resort for the purpose of betting or wagering, he shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars. When it is alleged and proven that the betting was on any gaming table or bank, the court or jury may, in addition to said fine, impose a jail penalty of not less than ten nor more than thirty days. [Acts 1907, p. 108.]

Art. 625. [559] [388] Keeping.—If any person shall keep, or be in any manner interested in keeping any premises, building, room or place for the purpose of being used as a place to bet or wager, or to gamble with cards, dice or dominoes, or to keep or to exhibit for the purpose of gaming, any bank, table, alley, machine, wheel or device whatsoever, or as a place where people resort to gamble, bet or wager upon anything whatever, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years, regardless of whether any of the above mentioned games, tables, banks, alleys, machines, wheels or devices, or things are licensed by law or not. Any place or device shall be considered as used for gaming or to gamble with or for betting or wagering, if any money or anything of value is bet thereon, or if the same is resorted to for the purpose of gaming or betting. [Id.]

Art. 626. [559-573] Renting.—Whoever shall rent to another any premises, building, room or place for any purpose mentioned in the preceding article, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [Id.]

Art. 627. [559] Permitting premises to be used for gaming.—Whoever knowingly permits property or premises of which he is owner, or which is under his control, to be used for any purpose mentioned in the two preceding articles, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [Id.]

Art. 628. [572] [389] Permitting intermittent playing.—Whoever permits any game prohibited by the preceding articles of this chapter to be played in his house, or a house under his control, or upon his premises, or upon premises under his control, the said house being a public place, or the said premises being appurtenances to a public place, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1881, p. 17.]

Art. 629. [561] Equipping gaming house.—If any person shall, in any manner aid in equipping or furnishing any gaming house, or place where people resort for the purpose of gaming, wagering or betting, he shall be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. [Acts 1907, p. 109.]

Art. 630. [562] Permitting device on premises.—If any person shall knowingly permit any gaming paraphernalia, table, or device or equipment of a gaming house, of any character whatever to remain in his possession or on premises under his control or of which he is owner and to be used for gaming purposes, he shall be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year. [Id.]

Art. 631. [563] Going in gaming house.—If any person shall go into or remain in any gambling house, knowing the same to be such, or shall remain in any place where any game prohibited by the preceding articles of this chapter is within his knowledge being played, dealt or exhibited, he shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars. Gambling house and gaming house, as used in this article is meant [mean] any place where people resort for the purpose of gaming, betting or wagering. [Id.]

Art. 632. [564] Officers to suppress.—Whenever it comes to the knowledge of any sheriff or other peace officer, by affidavit of a reputable citizen, or otherwise, that any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter is being violated, such officer shall immediately avail himself of all lawful means to suppress such violation; and he shall be authorized, by any search warrant that is issued by virtue of this law, to enter any house, room or place to be searched, using such force as may be necessary to accomplish such purpose. [Id.]

Art. 633. [565] Justice to issue search warrant.—Upon the filing with any justice of the peace, or any other magistrate, of an affidavit made by a reputable citizen that gaming, betting or wagering, as prohibited by the preceding articles of this chapter is being conducted in any building, room, premises or place, describing the same sufficiently for identification, such officer with whom said affidavit is filed shall immediately issue a warrant commanding the peace officer to whom same is directed to immediately enter and search such building, room, premises or place, and in the event the same is a gaming house, as defined in this chapter, to arrest all parties found therein or making their escape therefrom, and to take possession of any gambling paraphernalia, device or equipment found therein and such officer shall immediately take the persons arrested before the nearest magistrate, and lodge the proper complaint against each person so arrested. [Id.]

Art. 634. [566] Gambling house public nuisance.—The existence of any gambling house or gaming table or bank or gaming paraphernalia or device of whatever kind or character, and all equipments of such gambling house, is hereby declared to be against public policy and a public nuisance. No suit shall be brought or maintained in any court of this State for the recovery of same or for any insurance thereon, or for damages by reason of any injury to, or for the destruction of same. [Id.]

Art. 635. [567] Use terminates lease.—The use of any house, property or premises, by any tenant or lessee for any purpose made unlawful by the preceding articles of this chapter shall terminate all rights and interests of such tenant or lessee in same, and shall entitle the owner thereof to the immediate possession of said house, property or premises. [Id.]

Art. 636. [568] Officers to seize gaming tables.—It shall be the duty of every sheriff, or other peace officer by virtue of the warrant authorized by this chapter to seize and take into his possession all gaming tables, devices and other equipments or paraphernalia of gambling houses, the existence of which has come to his knowledge and to immediately file with the justice of the peace, county judge, or district judge, a written list of the property seized designating the place where same was seized, and the owner of same, or the person from whom possession was taken. Thereupon said justice of the peace, county or district judge shall note the same upon his docket and issue, or cause the clerk of the court to issue a written notice to the owner or person in whose possession the articles seized were found, commanding him to appear at a designated time, not earlier than five days from the service of such notice, and show cause why such articles should not be destroyed. If personal service cannot be had upon the person to whom same is directed, a copy of said notice shall be posted for not less than five days, either upon the court house door of the county where the proceedings are begun or upon the building or premises from which the property seized was taken. [Id.]

Art. 637. [569] Destroyed by order of court.—If upon a hearing of the matter referred to in the preceding article, the justice of the peace, county judge or district judge, before whom the cause is pending shall determine that the property seized is a gaming table or bank or is used as equipment or paraphernalia for a gambling house, and was being used for gaming purposes, he shall order same to be destroyed, but any part of same may, by order of the court be held as evidence to be used in any case until the case is finally disposed of. Property not of that character or not so used shall be ordered returned to the person entitled to possession of the same. The officer, within not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days from the entry of said order shall destroy all property the destruction of which has been ordered by the court, unless the owner, lessee or person entitled to possession under this law, shall, before the destruction of said property, file suit to recover same. [Id.]

Art. 638. [570] Persons interested in, rights of.—Any person having interest in or entitled to possession of any property so seized shall have the right at any time before the destruction of such property, as in ordinary civil cases, to try the issue of whether or not such property is a gaming table, or bank or device or was used as equipment or paraphernalia of any gambling house and to recover the possession of the same, and to maintain any other character of suit not inconsistent with this law; and it shall be the duty of the officer having said property in his possession after notice of the pendency of said suit to safely keep said property, pending the same. [Id.]

Art. 639. [574] [391] Procedure in gaming cases.—Any court, officer or tribunal having jurisdiction of any offense enumerated in this chapter, or any district or county attorney, may subpoena persons and compel their attendance as witnesses to testify as to the violation of any provision of the foregoing articles of this chapter. Any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of said articles about which he may testify. For any offense enumerated in said foregoing articles a conviction may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant.

Art. 640. [583] [392] [368] Failing to prosecute.—If any justice of the peace, or recorder shall know the fact that an offense against the gaming laws has been committed by any person, and shall fail or neglect to cause such person to be arrested and prosecuted for the same, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 641. [584] [393] [369] Peace officer failing to inform.—If any peace officer shall know that any person has committed an offense against the gaming laws, and shall neglect or fail to give information thereof to some justice of the peace, or recorder having jurisdiction to try such offense, he shall be punished by fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 642. [585] [394] [370] "Offense against gaming laws."—By the term "offense against the gaming laws," as used in the two preceding articles, is meant any offense included within the provisions of the preceding articles of this chapter.

er place to be wagered on any such horse race, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 652. [582] Evidence sufficient to convict.—A conviction for the violation of any provision of the five preceding articles may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant. Such accomplice or participant shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense under this law about which he may be required to testify. [Id.]

Art. 653. Operating pool hall.—Whoever shall operate or maintain a pool hall, as that term is defined by the laws of this State, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars or be confined in jail not less than one month nor more than one year. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1919, p. 10.]

Art. 654. [533-4] Lottery.—If any person shall establish a lottery or dispose of any estate, real or personal, by lottery, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; or if any person shall sell, offer for sale or keep for sale any ticket or part ticket in any lottery, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

Art. 655. [535] [375] [353] Raffle.—If any person shall establish a raffle for or dispose by raffle of any estate, real or personal, exceeding five hundred dollars in value, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; or if any person shall establish a raffle for or shall dispose by raffle of any estate, real or personal, of the value of five hundred dollars or less, he shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. Whoever shall offer for sale or keep for sale any chance, ticket or part ticket, in any raffle of any estate, real or personal of any value whatever shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 98.]

BUCKET SHOPS

Art. 656. Defining bucket shops and cotton exchanges and regulating contracts for future deliveries of cotton and grain.—That for the purpose of this Act, the term "Contract of Sale" shall be held to include sales, purchases, agreements of sale, agreements to sell, and agreements to purchase; that the word "person" wherever used in this Act shall be construed to import the plural or singular as the case demands, and shall include individuals, associations, partnerships, and corporations.

Art. 657. Future Contracts Valid.—All contracts of sale for future delivery of cotton, grain, stocks, or other commodities, (1) made in accordance with the rules of any board of trade, exchange, or similar institution, and (2) actually executed on the floor of such board of trade, exchange, or similar institution, and performed or discharged according to the rules thereof, and (3) when such contracts of sale are placed with or through a regular member in good standing of a cotton exchange, grain exchange, board of trade, or similar institution, organized under the laws of the State of Texas or any other State, shall be and they hereby are declared to be valid and enforceable in the courts of this State, according to their terms: provided, that contracts of sale for future delivery of cotton in order to be valid and enforceable as provided herein, must not only conform to the requirements of clauses 1 and 2 of this section, but must also be made subject to the provisions of the United States Cotton Futures Act, approved August 11, 1916, and any amendments thereto; provided, further, that if this clause should for any reason be held inoperative, then contracts for the future delivery of cotton shall be valid and enforceable if they conform to the requirements of clauses 1 and 2 of this section; provided further, that all contracts as defined in Section 1 hereof where it is not contemplated by the parties thereto that there shall be an actual delivery of the commodities sold or bought shall be unlawful.

Art. 658. Future Contracts Invalid.—Any contract of sale for future delivery of cotton, grain, stocks, or other commodities where it is not the bona fide intention of parties that the things mentioned therein are to be delivered but which is to be settled according to or upon the basis of the public market quotations or prices made on any board of trade, exchange, or other similar institution, without any actual bona fide execution and the carrying out of such contract upon the floor of such exchange, board of trade or similar institution, in accordance with the rules thereof, shall be null and void and unenforceable in any court of this State, and no action shall be maintainable thereon at the suit of any party.

Art. 659. Bucket shop defined.—A bucket shop is hereby defined to be and mean any place of business wherein are made contracts of the sort or character denounced by the preceding Section 3 of this Act, and the maintenance or operation of a bucket shop at any point in this State is prohibited.

Art. 660. Shall furnish copy of contract.—Every person shall furnish upon demand to any principal for whom such person has executed any contract for the future delivery of any cotton, grain, stocks, or other commodities, a written instrument setting forth the name and location of the exchange, board of trade, or similar institution, upon which such contract has been executed, the date of the execution, of the contract, and the name and address of the person with whom such contract was executed, and if such person shall refuse or neglect to furnish such statement upon reasonable demand, such refusal or neglect shall be prima facie evidence that such contract was an illegal contract within the provisions of Art. 658, and that the person who executed it was engaged in the maintenance and operation of a bucket shop, within the provisions of Article 661 hereof.

Art. 661. Penalty.—Any person, either as agent or principal, who enters into or assists in making any contracts of sale of the sort or character denounced in the preceding Art. 658 for the future delivery of cotton, grain, stocks, or other commodities, or who maintain a bucket shop, as that term is defined in Art. 659, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding two years.

Art. 662. Permitting exchanges.—There may be organized in any city, town, or municipality in the State of Texas, voluntary associations to be known as cotton exchanges, grain exchanges, boards of trade, or similar institutions, to receive and post quotations on cotton, grain, stocks, or other commodities, for the benefit of its members and other persons engaged in the production of cotton, grain, or other commodities. Such associations shall be composed of members and shall adopt a uniform set of rules and regulations not incompatible with the laws of Texas and of the United States. They shall open their books to inspection of all proper courts and officers when required so to do.

Art. 663. Repealing clause.—Articles 536 and 537 of Chapter 2, Title 11, and Articles 538 to 547 inclusive of Chapter 3, Title 11, of the Revised Penal Code of the State of Texas, of 1911, and all laws and parts of laws regulating or prohibiting dealings in future contracts, or in conflict or inconsistent herewith, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Art. 664. Constitutionality.—If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this Act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not effect, [affect] impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, or paragraph or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered; and any contract valid under and satisfying the remaining clauses, sentences, paragraphs, or parts of this Act shall be valid and enforceable in the courts of this State. [Acts 1925, p. 38.] [39th Leg., ch. 15, §§ 1-9.]

Art. 665. Omitted from the amended Act.

Exceptions as to other liquor.—The manufacture, sale, barter, exchange, transportation, exporting, taking orders for, furnishing, and possessing of any of the liquors mentioned in this chapter, if done for medicinal, mechanical, scientific, or sacramental purposes, shall not be punishable under the terms of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 670. Not an accomplice witness.—Upon a trial for a violation of any provision of this chapter, the purchaser, transporter, or possessor of any of the liquors prohibited herein shall not be held in law or in fact to be an accomplice, when a witness in any such trial. [Id.]

Art. 671. Possession prima facie evidence.—Wherever possession or receipt, or possession or receipt for the purpose of sale, is made unlawful by law, proof of possession of mash, or a still or any device for manufacturing intoxicating liquors, or proof of the possession of more than one quart of intoxicating liquors, shall be prima facie evidence of guilt; but the defendant shall have the right to introduce evidence showing the legality of such possession. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 672. "Intoxicating liquors."—The words "intoxicating liquors," or "liquors" hereafter used in this chapter shall be held to include and comprehend all liquors referred to in the first and second articles of this chapter, and the said liquors prohibited by said articles will hereafter be referred to herein for convenience as "intoxicating liquors." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 673. Liquors included.—The various liquors described in the first two articles of this chapter shall be construed to include all distilled, malt, spirituous, vinous, fermented or alcoholic liquors and all alcoholic liquids and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called, which require a federal tax as a beverage, or which contain more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drug contained in such preparation and to hold the medicinal agents in solution and preserve the same. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 229.]

Art. 674. Lawful use.—The provisions of this chapter shall not prohibit the possession of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes for use by the owner and members of his family, or bona fide guests, in a bona fide residence, if such liquors were purchased and deposited in such residence before this law goes into effect. Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the manufacture, transportation, storage, and sale of denatured or pure ethyl alcohol, or denatured rum for use only in the industrial or mechanical arts or for scientific purposes or in chemical laboratories or hospitals, or prevent the manufacture, transportation, sale and keeping and storing for sale any medicinal preparations manufactured in accordance with formulas prescribed by the United States Pharmacopeia or National Formulary or American Institute of Homeopathy, or of alcoholic, patent or proprietary medicines which do not require the payment of the Federal Tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary to extract the medicinal properties of the drug contained in such preparation, and to hold the medicinal agents in solution, and to preserve the same and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, or to prevent the manufacture and sale of bona fide alcohol toilet, or antiseptic preparations and solutions or flavoring extracts which do not require the payment of Federal Tax as a beverage and which contain no more alcohol than is necessary for the extraction, solution and preservation of the agents contained therein, and which are manufactured and sold for legitimate and lawful purposes and not as beverages, and upon the outside of the bottle or package of each is printed in English conspicuously and legibly and clearly the quantity by volume of alcohol in such preparation. The manufacturer of flavoring extracts or toilet, medicinal, antiseptic preparations or solutions, patent or proprietary medicines, or preparations permitted to be manufactured by this law shall be permitted to purchase, possess, transport and store alcohol necessary for the manufacture of said article, but not to be sold or given away, provided that such manufacturer shall secure a permit from the Comptroller, and shall make a monthly report to be filed with the Comptroller on or before the 10th day of each month, showing the name and quantity of every such preparation, solution or medicine so manufactured, and the percentage of alcohol contained in each such preparation, solution or medicine. Said manufacturer shall, upon request of the Attorney General of the State, the Comptroller, or the District or County Attorney of the county in which such manufacturer has his place of business, furnish to the officer making such request any information called for by such officer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of any such alcoholic preparation, solution or medicine, and any information with reference to the quantities and dates of sale and transportation of any such preparation, solution or medicine to any person or persons designated in such request. Any of the officers herein above named shall have the right at any reasonable time within business hours to examine the books and records and all data in the possession of such manufacturer with reference to the manufacture, storage or sale of such alcoholic preparations. Nothing herein shall prevent the storage in United States bonded warehouses in the custody of a United States collector of internal revenue of all liquors manufactured prior to the taking effect of this law or to prevent the transportation of such liquors for purposes not inhibited by law. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 230.]

Art. 675. Attach label to container.—All persons manufacturing alcohol or wine, or either, shall securely and permanently attach to any container or [of] such liquor as the same is manufactured, and thereafter, persons possessing such liquor in wholesale quantities shall securely keep and maintain thereon, a manufacturers' label, stating name of manufacturer, kind and quantity of liquor contained therein, with a copy of the permit authorizing the manufacture thereof. Every person having in his possession any intoxicating liquor, purchased after this law becomes effective, for permitted purposes, shall have pasted on or permanently attached to the container a copy of the prescription or affidavit as the same may be, upon which authority it was purchased as is provided for in this chapter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 676. Record of manufacturer.—All persons [persons] authorized to manufacture alcohol shall keep a separate record of such liquors manufactured or sold, giving date and quantity of such liquor manufactured and sold, the quantity of such liquor on hand, name and address of persons to whom such liquor was sold, the name and address of all agents in any way connected with such manufacture, sale, or purchase, or the keeping, storing, delivering, consigning, and distribution of such liquor, the name and address of all common, or other carriers, receiving, transporting, and delivering said liquor, and a copy of the application on which the purchase or sale of such liquor was made, and a detailed account of the disposition of such liquor. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 677. Sales by wholesale druggists.—It shall be unlawful for a wholesale druggist to sell alcohol or wine, except in wholesale quantities, to persons having permits to purchase in such quantities. Such wholesale druggists shall keep an accurate record of all sales and label the containers of such liquor, setting forth the kind of liquor contained therein, by whom manufactured, and the person to whom sold. A copy of such record shall be sent to the Comptroller every third month by the 10th of the month for the quarter preceding. It shall be unlawful for a retail druggist or pharmacist to sell any liquor except alcohol for nonbeverage purposes or wine for sacramental purposes. Such druggist or pharmacist shall keep a record giving the name of the doctor issuing the prescriptions containing alcohol, the amount, date of sales, the name and signature of the purchaser, the person making the sale, and a copy of the prescription. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 232.]

Art. 678. Duty of physician prescribing.—Every physician who issues a prescription for ethyl alcohol, or any alcoholic liquor, shall first secure a permit from the Comptroller, except as herein provided, and shall keep a record alphabetically arranged in a separate book provided by the Comptroller, which shall show: Date, amount, to whom issued, directions for use (stating the amount and frequency of dose), and the druggist to whom addressed. Such physician shall send a copy of such record to the Comptroller, not later than the fifth day of the month for the quarter preceding. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 679. Physician to obey law.—Any physician who issues prescriptions must be in active practice, in good standing with his profession, not addicted to the use of any narcotic drug, and have a permit as provided herein for issuing prescriptions. Such physician before issuing any prescriptions must make a careful personal, physical examination of the person to whom the alcohol is prescribed, and in no case issue such prescription to any person whom he has reason to believe will use alcohol for beverage purposes, nor prescribe more than a pint of alcohol to any person at a time. Nor shall such prescriptions be filled at any pharmacy or drug store in which the physician has any financial interest. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 233.]

Art. 680. Advertising liquor.—It shall be unlawful to advertise anywhere, on land or water, by any means or method, intoxicating liquors, or to advertise the manufacture, method of manufacture, sale, keeping for sale or furnishing of the same, or where, how, from whom and at what price the same may be obtained. The manufacturer of alcohol or wine and wholesale druggists having a permit under this law shall be allowed to send price lists to those to whom they are lawfully permitted to sell alcohol or wine. It shall also be unlawful to permit any sign or billboard containing such prohibited advertisement to remain upon one's premises or to circulate any prohibited price list, order blank or other matter designed to induce or secure orders for such intoxicating liquors. Any advertisement or notice containing the picture of a brewery, distillery, bottle, keg, barrel, or box or other receptacle represented as containing intoxicating liquors, or designed to serve as an advertisement thereof, shall be within the inhibition of this article. It shall be unlawful for any newspaper or periodical to print in its columns statement concerning the manufacture or distribution of alcoholic liquors directly or indirectly, for which the said newspaper or periodical receives compensation of any kind, without printing at the beginning and at the close of said statement in type of the same size used in the body of the said article the following statement: "Printed as paid advertising." [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 681. Liquor places to clean up.—Every person except licensed pharmacists, wholesale druggists, manufacturing chemists, or hospitals or other places provided for herein to legally possess liquor, shall remove, or cause to be removed, all intoxicating liquors in his possession for prohibited purposes, and failure to do so shall be evidence that such liquor is kept therein for the purpose of being sold, bartered, exchanged, given away, furnished or otherwise disposed of in violation of the provisions of this law. All screens, stained glass, or other obstructions which prevent a clear view of the interior of any room or place where intoxicating liquors were sold as a beverage, within one year before this act became operative shall be removed or changed so as to give a permanent unobstructed view of the interior of said room or place, if beverages of any kind are sold therein. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 682. Recipe or formula.—It shall be unlawful to advertise, sell, deliver, or possess any preparation, compound, or table from which intoxicating liquor as a beverage is made, or any formula, directions, or recipes for making intoxicating liquors for beverage purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 236.]

Art. 683. Concealing nature of shipment.—No person shall use or induce any railroad company, express company, or any other carrier, or any servant or employé thereof, or any person or persons, to carry, transport, or ship any package or receptacle containing liquors without notifying the carrier, its servant or agent, or any person who carries the same, of the true nature and character of the shipment. Failure to notify such carrier shall be no defense for illegal transportation. [Id.]

Art. 684. Soliciting or giving information.—No person shall solicit, or receive from any person for the purpose of forwarding for the person from whom received, any orders for intoxicating liquors from any person, or give any information how such prohibited liquors may be received, or where such liquors are, or send for such liquors, except for the purposes permitted by this chapter. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 237.]

Art. 685. Order to carrier to deliver.—It shall be unlawful to give to any carrier, or any officer, agent or person acting or assuming to act for such carrier, an order requiring the delivery to any person of any liquor or package containing liquors consigned to or purporting to or claimed to be consigned to a person when the purpose of the order is to enable any person not an actual bona fide consignee to obtain such liquors. [Id.]

Art. 686. Information on shipped container.—No person shall transport liquor or receive or possess any liquors from a common or other carrier unless there appears on the outside of the package containing such liquors the following information: Name and address of the consignor or seller, name and address of the consignee or persons receiving the liquor; kind and quantity of liquor contained therein and number of permit. Any consignee accepting or receiving any package containing any such liquors upon which appears a false statement, or any person consigning, shipping, transporting, or delivering any such package, knowing that such statement appearing on the outside is false, shall be guilty of violating the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 687. To rent or keep for unlawful purpose.—No person shall rent to another or keep or be in any way interested in keeping any premises, building, room, boat or place to be used for the purpose of storing, manufacturing, selling, transporting, receiving or delivering, or bartering or giving away intoxicating liquors in violation of this chapter. Whoever knowingly does so shall be punished as provided in the penal article of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 688. Nuisance.—Any room, house, building, boat, structure or place of any kind similar or dissimilar to those named, where intoxicating liquor is kept, possessed, sold, manufactured, bartered or given away, or to be transported to or transported from in violation of law, and all intoxicating liquors and all property kept in and used in maintaining such place are hereby declared to be a common nuisance. Whoever maintains or assists in maintaining such common nuisance shall be guilty of violating this law and shall be punished accordingly. [Id.]

Art. 689. Penal article.—Any person who violates any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. No person over twenty-five years of age convicted under any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter shall have the benefit of the Suspended Sentence Law. [Id.; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 234.]

Art. 690. Seizure.—Any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquor is hereby declared to be a public nuisance; and any animal, automobile, flying machine, airplane, boat, ship, or other vehicle or instrumentality used in the presence and view of any peace officer of this State for the unlawful transportation or storage of intoxicating liquors, or for the commission of any act made unlawful by this chapter, shall be seized without warrant by such peace officer, which officer shall within twenty-four hours after such seizure file with the county clerk a detailed statement of the time when, the place where and the circumstances under which he seized such property. If the officer making such seizure shall fail to make such report and appraisal of the value of the said property and file the same with the county clerk within twenty-four hours after such seizure thereof, he shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S., 1923, p. 54.]

Art. 691. Search warrant.—A search warrant may be issued under Title 6 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the purpose of searching for and seizing and destroying any intoxicating liquor possessed, sold or to be sold or transported, or to be transported, or manufactured in violation of this law, and for the purpose of searching for and seizing and destroying any containers, instrumentalities for manufacture or of transportation used or to be used in the unlawful possession, sale, manufacture or transportation of intoxicating liquors. No warrant shall be issued to search a private dwelling occupied as such, unless some part of it is used as a store, shop, hotel or boarding house, or for some purpose other than a private residence, or unless the affidavits of two credible persons show that such residence is a place where intoxicating liquor is sold or manufactured in violation of the terms of this act. The application for the issuance of and the execution of any such search warrant, and all proceedings relative thereto, shall conform as near as may be to the provisions of Title 6 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, except where otherwise provided in this title. In the event any such liquor or utensils, containers or instrumentalities herein referred to are found, the officer executing the warrant shall seize same. The liquor and articles so seized shall not be taken from the custody of an officer by writ of replevin or other process, but shall be held by the officer to await the final judgment in the proceedings. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 238.]

Art. 692. Report and record of seizures.—In all cases where intoxicating liquors or any personal property used for the purpose of violating any of the intoxicating liquor laws of this State, shall be seized by any officer with or without a search warrant, such officer shall immediately make a written report thereof, which report shall in detail state the name of the officer making the seizure, the place where seized and an inventory of the property, articles or intoxicating liquors so taken into possession. The report shall be in triplicate and signed by the officer seizing, and one witness, if there be a witness present. One copy shall be given to the person from whom the goods are taken, one copy shall be sworn to by the officer who makes the seizure and immediately filed with the county clerk of the county in which the goods are seized, and one copy shall be retained by the officer who makes the seizure. Said officer, if not the sheriff, shall immediately deliver to the sheriff of the county, the goods seized, and take the sheriff's receipt therefor in duplicate. And such sheriff shall retain the intoxicating liquor or personal property so seized and hold the same until the same shall be disposed of by proper orders of the district court of the county in which said property was seized. The duplicate copy of said receipt shall be immediately filed with said county clerk. All liquors and property so seized shall be preserved for use as evidence in the trial of any action growing out of such seizure and all officers seizing such liquors or property are hereby required to mark the date of the seizure and the name of the person from whom seized. Any officer who shall give away or dispose of any intoxicating liquor in violation of the provisions of this article, or who shall wilfully make a false report of intoxicating liquors or personal property used for the purpose of violating the intoxicating liquor laws, seized by him, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. Any officer who shall fail to comply with any other provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not more than sixty days, or both. [Acts 1923, p. 236.]

Art. 693. [593] Gift or delivery to minor.—Any person who shall give or deliver, or cause to be given or delivered, or be in any way concerned in the gift or delivery of any spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors to any person under the age of twenty-one years, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, or any person, who, as agent for or employed by an express company or other common carrier, or who, as agent for or employé of any other person, firm or corporation, delivers, or causes to be delivered, any spirituous, vinous, malt or intoxicating liquors to any person under the age of twenty-one years, whether consigned to such person or to some other person, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of such minor shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 119.]

Art. 694. Witness shall testify.—No person shall be excused from testifying against persons who have violated any provision of this chapter for the reason that such testimony will tend to incriminate him, but no person required to so testify shall be punishable for acts disclosed by such testimony.

ACTS INJURIOUS TO HEALTH

Art.

695. Nuisances.
696. Leaving dead animal.
- 696a. Dumping refuse near highway.
697. Polluting or obstructing water.
698. Unlawful to pollute water courses and other bodies of water.
699. Pure drinking water.
700. Sterilizing dishes.
701. Maternity home.
702. Private disease posters.
703. Exceptions.
704. Venereal diseases.
705. Sanitary employés.
- 705a. Cemeteries.

Article 695. [694] [423] Nuisances.—Whoever shall carry on any trade, business or occupation injurious to the health of those who reside in the vicinity, or suffer any substance which has that effect to remain on premises in his possession, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Each day is a separate offense.

Art. 696. [696] [425] Leaving dead animal.—Whoever shall leave the carcass of any animal, which died in the actual possession of such person, within five hundred yards of any private residence, or in any public road or highway, or in any street or alley of any town or city, or within fifty yards of such public road, highway, street or alley, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 155.]

Art. 696a. Dumping refuse near highway.—Sec. 1. That no municipal corporation, private corporation, partnership, joint stock association, syndicate, voluntary association or person shall use or maintain any dumping ground or dump any trash, refuse, debris or dead animals or permit the same to remain within or nearer than three hundred yards of any public highway of the State of Texas; that no person, firm or corporation, as above named, shall dump or deposit any rubbish, trash, refuse, debris or dead animals within or nearer than three hundred yards of any public highway whether said land belongs to such person, firm or corporation or not; provided, however, that the provisions of this Act shall not affect farmers in the handling of anything necessary in the growing, handling and care of livestock, or the erection, operation and maintenance of any and all such improvements that may be necessary in the handling, thrashing and preparation of any and all agricultural products.

Sec. 2. Any violation of this Act by any person, firm or private corporation shall subject the offender to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, and each day of any such violation shall be a separate offense. In event of any threatened or probable violation of this Act by any public corporation, municipality, city, town or village, an injunction suit may be brought to prevent any such threatened or probable violation by any county or district attorney, or by any private individual affected or to be affected by any such threatened or probable violation. The enforcement of the remedy by injunction as herein provided shall not prevent the enforcement of the other penalties provided in this Act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 153, ch. 53.]

Art. 697. [695] [424] Polluting or obstructing water.—Whoever shall in anywise pollute or obstruct any watercourse, lake, pond, marsh, or common sewer, or continue such pollution or obstruction so as to render the same unwholesome or offensive to the inhabitants of the county, city, town or neighborhood thereabout, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 1860, p. 97.]

Art. 698. Unlawful to pollute water courses and other bodies of water.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, private or municipal to pollute any water course or other public body of water, by throwing, casting or depositing, or causing to be thrown, cast or deposited any crude petroleum, oil or other like substance therein, or to pollute any water course, or other public body of water, from which water is taken for the use of farm live stock, drinking and domestic purposes, in the State of Texas, by the discharge, directly or indirectly, of any sewage or unclean water or unclean or polluting matter or thing therein, or in such proximity thereto as that it will probably reach and pollute the water of such water course or other public body of water from which water is taken, for the uses of farm live stock, drinking and domestic purposes; provided, however, that the provisions of this bill shall not affect any municipal corporation situated on tide waters; that is to say, where the tide ebbs and flows in such water course; provided, however, that no city located on tide water shall discharge or permit to be discharged sewerage, oil or any other effluents into public tide waters of this State when such discharge will become a menace to or endangers the oyster beds or fish life in such waters, or when such discharge becomes a menace to the bathing places in such waters; and provided further that drain ditches, where waste oil finds its way into water courses or public bodies of water, shall be equipped with traps of sufficient capacity to arrest the flow of oil. In so far as concerns the protection of fish and oysters, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or his deputies, may have jurisdiction in the enforcement of this chapter. A violation of any of the provisions of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars. When the offense shall have been committed by a firm, partnership or association, each member thereof who has knowledge of the commission of such offense, shall be held guilty. When committed by a private corporation, the officers and members of the board of directors, having knowledge of the commission of such offense, shall each be deemed guilty; and when by a municipal corporation the mayor and each member of the board of aldermen or commission, having knowledge of the commission of such offense, as the case may be, shall be held guilty as representatives of the municipality; and each person so indicated as above shall be subject to the punishment provided hereinbefore; provided, however, that the payment of the fine by one of the persons so named shall be a satisfaction of the penalty as against his associates for the offense for which he may have been convicted. Each day such pollution is knowingly caused or permitted shall constitute a separate offense; provided, the provisions of this article shall not apply to any place or premises of manufacturing plants whose effluents contain no organic matter that will putrify, or any poisonous compounds, or any bacteria dangerous to public health or destructive of the fish life of streams or other public bodies of water. [Acts 1925, p. 200.] [39th Leg., ch. 57, § 1.]

Art. 699. Pure drinking water.—The authorities of all cities and towns and villages having a population of five thousand inhabitants or less and all other companies, persons, corporations or receivers, who are supplying drinking water through a water works system to the public, shall, before supplying the same to the public use for drinking water, first cause the supply of water to be chemically tested for any contaminated infusion of sand, dirt or filth, or dangerous bacteria or disease-bearing germs. This test shall be made according to the direction of the county or city health officers, or both such health officers. Said water as above supplied shall be subject to such test at any time, and the county and city health officer where such water supply is furnished shall make such tests at least once a year and oftener where there is an outbreak of any disease that might be induced through use of impure or unclean water. All authorities of any such city or town or persons, firms, or the officers and agents of all incorporated companies or receivers supplying water for such public use, in such cities or towns, shall provide proper strainers for all wells and all other sources of supply so that sand and dirt shall not be carried into the water for such public use, and cause all of the conduits and drain pipes conveying said water to be thoroughly washed out and flushed so as to clean the same at least one time every ninety days. Any such authorities, persons, firms or receivers or their agents, when any such drinking water as furnished is pronounced unfit or infectious or impregnated with sand, or dirt, or filth, or unclean and dangerous to the public use by the health officers of any such city or county as the case may be, shall immediately take steps to purify, clean or sanitize the same. In any case where the authorities of any city, or town or village, or any person or officer, agent or receiver of any firm, or corporation or company furnishing drinking water to such cities or towns or villages shall fail or refuse to carry out the provisions of this article and shall furnish for public use, drinking water that is contaminated, impure and unclean, he shall be fined not to exceed $500.00 for any such offense. [Acts 1919, p. 247.]

Art. 700. Sterilizing dishes.—No person, firm, or corporation operating, managing, or conducting a hotel, cafe, restaurant, dining car, or any other public eating place, or any drug store, soda water fountain, drink stand, or any bakery or meat market, shall furnish to any patron or customer any dish, or any other receptacle or utensil used in eating, drinking, or conveying food, until such dish, receptacle, or other utensil has been thoroughly cleaned and sterilized by heat or in boiling water subsequent to being used by any other person, or any dish, or receptacle or utensil used in eating, drinking or conveying food if the same is broken or cracked in such a manner as to render its sterilization impossible or doubtful, or so furnish for use any napkin after being used once and not laundered. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Act Feb. 12, 1915, Acts 1921, p. 135.]

Art. 701. Maternity home.—Any person, manager, keeper, or officer of any corporation, firm or association who shall keep or conduct any "Baby Farm," lying-in hospital, hospital ward, maternity home or place for the reception, care or treatment of pregnant women without first having obtained a license from the State Board of Health as provided by law shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars and in addition thereto may be confined in jail not to exceed twelve months. [Acts 1921, p. 147.]

Art. 702. Private disease posters.—Any person who shall publish, deliver or distribute, or cause to be published, delivered or distributed in any manner, or who shall permit, placards or posters to be or remain on buildings, outhouses or premises controlled by him, containing an advertisement concerning a venereal disease, lost manhood, lost vitality, impotency, sexual weakness or emissions, varicocele, self-abuse or excessive sexual indulgence and calling attention to a medicine, article or preparation that may be used therefor or to a person from whom or place at which information, treatment or condition may be obtained shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 195.]

Art. 703. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to didactic or scientific treatises which do not advertise or call attention to any person from whom or any place at which information, treatment or advice may be obtained, nor to advertisements or notices issued by a municipal or county department of health or by the State Board of Health. [Id.]

Art. 704. Venereal diseases.—Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars:

1. No person infected with a venereal disease shall knowingly expose another to infection with any venereal disease, or perform an act which exposes another person to infection with such disease.

2. No local health officer, employé, inspector, physician, nurse, or superintendent of a clinic or hospital shall fail to perform any duty required of him by the laws of this State relating to venereal diseases and requiring reports in such cases.

3. Whoever sells any drug or preparation of any kind used for or believed by the seller to be intended to be used for the treatment of syphilis, gonorrhoea, or chancroid shall keep a record of the name and address of such purchaser and mail a copy of such record each week to the local health officer. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 179.]

Art. 705. Sanitary employés.—No person, firm, corporation or common carrier, operating or conducting any hotel, cafe, restaurant, dining car or other public eating place, or operating any bakery or meat market, public dairy or candy factory in this State, shall work, employ or keep in their employ in or about any said place any person infected with or affected by any infectious or contagious disease, or work or employ any person to work in or about any said place who, at the time of his employment had not in his possession a certificate from some reputable physician of the county where said person is to be employed, attesting the fact that the bearer has been examined by such physician within one week prior to the time of employment, and that such examination discloses the fact that such person to be employed was free from any infectious or contagious disease; or fail to institute and have made a medical examination of all their employés at intervals of time not to exceed six months and after such examination promptly discharge from their employment in or about any said place any person found to be infected with or affected by any infectious or contagious disease. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 134.]

Art. 705a. Cemeteries.—It shall be unlawful for any person, company, corporation or association to establish or use for burial purposes any graveyard or cemetery located less than one mile from the incorporated line of any city of not less than five thousand

(5,000) inhabitants within the State of Texas; provided, that where cemeteries have heretofore been used and maintained within less than one mile from any incorporated city or town, and additional lands are required for cemetery purposes, any person owning lands adjacent to such cemetery may lay out and use or sell the same to be used as an addition to such cemetery, and the use of the said additional lands for such purposes shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section.

CHAPTER TWO

UNWHOLESOME FOOD, DRINK OR MEDICINE

Art.

- 706. Adulterated or misbranded food or drug.
- 707. "Adulterated."
- 708. "Misbranded."
- 709. Preservatives added.
- 710. Baking powder compound to be labeled.
- 711. Self-rising flour.
- 712. Milk.
- 713. Skim milk.
- 714. Dealer not to be prosecuted, when.
- 715. Certificates of purity.
- 716. Obstruction of officers.
- 717. Penalty for violating pure food laws.
- 718. Mixed or adulterated cereals.
- 719. Bakeries and bakers.
- 719a. Marketing citrus fruit unfit for consumption.

Article 706. Adulterated or misbranded food or drug.—No person, firm or corporation, shall within this State manufacture for sale, have in his possession with the intent to sell, offer or expose for sale or sell or exchange any article of food or drug which is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter. The term "food" shall include all articles used by man for food, drink, flavoring, confectionery or condiment, whether simple, mixed or compounded. The term "drug" shall include all medicines and preparations for internal or external use recognized in the United States Pharmacopeia [Pharmacopœia] or National Formulary, and any substance or mixture of substances intended to be used for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease of either man or animal. [Acts 1911, p. 76.]

Art. 707. "Adulterated."—For the purposes of this chapter an article shall be deemed to be adulterated:

- (a) In the case of drugs:
 - (1) if, when sold under or by a name, recognized in the eighth decennial revision of the United States Pharmacopeia [Pharmacopœia] or in such United States Pharmacopeia [Pharmacopœia] as was official at the time of labeling it, or in the National Formulary, it differs from the standard strength, quality or purity laid down therein;
 - (2) if, when sold under or by a name not recognized in the eighth decennial revision of the United States Pharmacopœia, but which is found in some other pharmacopœia or other standard work on materia medica, it differs materially from the standard of strength, quality or purity laid down in such work;
 - (3) if its strength, quality or purity falls below the professed standard under which it was sold.
- (b) In the case of confectionery; if it contains terra alba, barytes, talc, chrome yellow, or other mineral substances or poisonous color or flavor, or other ingredients deleterious or detrimental to health, or any vinous, malt or spirituous liquor or compound, or narcotic drug.
 - (c) In the case of food:
 - (1) if any substance has been mixed and packed with it so as to reduce or lower or injuriously affect its quality or strength;
 - (2) if any substance has been substituted wholly or in part for the article;
 - (3) if any valuable constituent of the article has been wholly or in part abstracted, or if the product be below that standard of quality, quantity, strength or purity represented to the purchaser or consumer.
 - (4) if it be mixed, colored or powdered, coated or stained in a manner whereby damage or inferiority is concealed;
 - (5) if it contains any added poisonous or other added

deleterious ingredient which may render such article injurious to health, provided, that when in the preparation of food products for shipment they are preserved by any external application applied in such manner that the preservative is necessarily removed mechanically, or by maceration in water or otherwise, and directions for the removal of said preservative shall be printed on the covering of the package, the provisions of this Act shall be construed as applying only when said products are ready for consumption;

(6) if it consists in whole or in part of a filthy, decomposed or putrid animal or vegetable substance, or any portion of an animal or vegetable unfit for food, whether manufactured or not, or if it is the product of a diseased animal, or one that has died otherwise than by slaughter.

"Filthy" defined.—The term "filthy" shall be deemed to apply to food not securely protected from flies, dust, dirt, and as far as may be necessary by all reasonable means, from all foreign or injurious contaminations. [Id.]

Art. 708. "Misbranded."—The term "misbranded," as used herein, shall apply to all drugs or articles of food or articles which enter into the composition of food, the package or label of which shall bear any statement, design or device regarding such article or the ingredients or substances contained therein which shall be false or misleading in any particular.

An article shall also be deemed to be misbranded:

- (a) in the case of drugs;
 - (1) if it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the name of another article;
 - (2) if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if the package fail to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of any morphine, phenacetin, opium, cocaine, heroin, alpha or beta eucaine, chloroform cannabis indica [indica], chloral hydrate, or acetanilid, or any derivative or preparation of any such substances contained therein;
- (b) in the case of food;
 - (1) if it be an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article;
 - (2) if it be labeled or branded so as to deceive or mislead the purchaser or purport to be a foreign product when not so, or if the contents of the package as originally put up shall have been removed in whole or in part and other contents shall have been placed in such package, or if it fails to bear a statement on the label of the quantity or proportion of any morphine, opium, cocaine, heroin alpha or beta eucaine, phenacetin chloroform, cannabis indica [indica] chloral hydrate or acetanilid, or any derivative or preparation of any of such substances contained therein;
 - (3) if in package form and the contents are stated in terms of weight or measure, they are not plainly and correctly stated on the outside of the package;
 - (4) if the package containing it or its labels bear any statement, design or device regarding the ingredients or the substances contained therein, which statement, design or device shall be false or misleading in any particular, provided that an article of food which does not contain any added poisonous or deleterious ingredient shall not be deemed to be adulterated or misbranded in the following cases: First, in case of mixtures or compounds which may be now or from time to time hereafter known as articles of food, under their own distinctive names, and not an imitation of or offered for sale under the distinctive name of another article, if the name be accompanied on the same label or brand with a statement of the place where said article has been manufactured or produced; second, in the case of articles labeled, branded, or tagged so as to plainly indicate that they are compounds, imitations or blends. The term "blend," as used herein, shall be held to mean a mixture of like substances, not excluding harmless coloring or flavoring ingredients used for the purpose of coloring and flavoring only. Nothing in this law shall be construed as requiring proprietors or manufacturers of proprietary foods which contain no unwholesome added ingredients to disclose their trade formulas except in so far as the provisions of this law require to secure freedom from adulteration or misbranding. [Acts 1911, p. 76.]

Art. 709. Preservatives added.—No person shall manufacture, sell, offer or expose for sale or exchange any article of food to which has been added formaldehyde, boric acid or borates, benzoic acid or benzoate, sulphurous acids or sulphites, salicylic acid or salicylates, abralstal, beta naphthal, flourine compounds, dulcin, glucin, cocaine, sulphuric acid or other mineral acid except phosphoric acid, any preparation of lead or copper or other ingredient injurious to health. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the sale of catsups, sauces, concentrated fruits, fruit juices and like substances preserved with one-tenth of one per cent of benzoate of soda, or the equivalent benzoic acid, when a statement of such fact is plainly indicated upon the label. The oxides of sulphur may be used for bleaching, clarifying and refining food products. [Id.]

Art. 710. Baking powder compound to be labeled.—Whoever manufactures for sale within this State, or offers or exposes for sale or exchange or sells any baking powder or compound intended for use as a baking powder under any name or title whatsoever shall securely affix or cause to be securely affixed to the outside of every box, can or package containing such baking powder or like mixture or compound a label distinctly printed in plain capital letters in the English language, containing the name and residence of the manufacturer or dealer, and the ingredients of the baking powder. Baking powder containing less than 10 per cent of available carbon dioxide shall be deemed to be adulterated. [Id.]

Art. 711. Self-rising flour.—Whoever manufactures for sale within this State, or offers or exposes for sale or exchange, or sells any Self-rising Flour, or compound intended for use as a Self-rising Flour, under any name or title whatsoever shall securely affix or cause to be securely affixed to the outside of every box, can, sack or package containing such Self-rising Flour or like mixture or compound, a label distinctly printed in plain capital letters in the English language containing the name and domicile of the manufacturers or dealer, and the percentage by weight of each of the chemical leavening ingredients of the contents thereof. Such Self-rising Flour or any compound so termed or styled, when sold for use shall produce not less than one-half of one per cent. by weight of available carbon dioxide gas, and there shall not be contained in such Self-rising Flour more than three and one-half per cent of chemical leavening ingredients, otherwise such flour or compound shall be deemed adulterated.

Self-rising Flour is defined to be a combination of flour, salt and chemical leavening ingredients. The flour shall be of the grade of "straight" or better, and the chemical leavening ingredients shall be, Bicarbonate of Soda and either Calcium Acid Phosphate, Sodium Aluminum Sulphate, Cream of Tartar, Tartaric Acid or combinations of the same. [Acts 1923, p. 96.]

Art. 712. [706] Milk.—No person either by himself or agent shall sell or expose for sale or exchange any unwholesome, watered, adulterated, or impure milk, or swill milk, or colostrum, or milk from cows kept upon garbage, swill, or any other substance in a state of putrefaction or other deleterious substances, or from sick or diseased cows, or from cows kept in connection with any family in which there are infectious disease[s]. [Acts 1911, p. 76.]

Art. 713. [706] Skim milk.—Skim milk may be sold if on the container from which such milk is sold, the words "skim milk" are distinctly painted in letters not less than one inch in length. [Id.]

Art. 714. [708] Dealer not to be prosecuted, when.—No dealer shall be prosecuted under this chapter when he can establish a guaranty signed by the wholesaler, manufacturer, or other party residing in the United States from whom he purchased such article, to the effect that the same is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this Act, designating it. Said guaranty, to afford protection, shall contain the name and address of the party making the sale of such article to such dealer, and in such case said party shall be amenable to the fines and other penalties which would attach in due course to the dealer under the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 715. [709] Certificates of purity.—The State Health Department or any employé thereof shall not furnish to any individual, firm or corporation any certificate as to the purity or excellence of any article manufactured or sold to or by them to be used as food or drug or in the preparation of food or drugs.

Art. 716. [710] Obstruction of officers.—No person shall wilfully hinder or obstruct the director of the food and drug division of the State Board of Health, or his inspector or other person duly authorized by him, in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the laws of this State.

Art. 717. [711] Penalty for violating pure food laws.—Whoever shall do any act or thing prohibited, or neglect or refuse to do any act or thing enjoined by the preceding articles of this chapter, or in any way violate any provision thereof, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. It shall not be necessary for the indictment to allege or for the State to prove that the act or omission was knowingly done or omitted. [Acts 1911, p. 76.]

Art. 718. [714] Mixed or adulterated cereals.—Whoever shall knowingly sell or exchange or offer for sale or exchange, whether in single packages or lots, any product composed of mixed cereals of any kind, or any cereal adulterated in any manner, unless the word "adulterated" is plainly marked, printed or stenciled diagonally across the other marks or brands, if any, on the hogshead, box, bale, cask, sack or package containing the same, or in case there are no marks thereon, then across such container in a conspicuous place in large legible letters and figures not less than two inches in size, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1905, p. 227.]

Art. 719. Bakeries and bakers.—Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars:

Rule 1. Bakery Building.—Any building occupied or used as a bakery wherein is carried on the business of the production, preparation, storage or display of bread, cakes, pies, and other bakery products intended for sale for human consumption, shall be clean, properly lighted, drained and ventilated. Every such bakery shall be provided with adequate plumbing and drainage facilities including suitable wash sinks, toilets and water closets. All toilets and water closets shall be separated and apart from the rooms in which the bakery products are produced or handled. All wash sinks, toilets and water closets shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and shall be in well lighted and ventilated rooms. The floors, walls and ceilings of the rooms in which the dough is mixed and handled, or the pastry prepared for baking, or in which the bakery products or ingredients of such products are otherwise handled or stored, shall be kept and maintained in a clean, wholesome and sanitary condition. All openings into such rooms, including windows and doors, shall be kept properly screened or otherwise protected to exclude flies. No working rooms shall be used for purposes other than those directly connected with the preparing, baking, storage and handling of food, and shall not be used as washing, sleeping, or living rooms, and shall, at all times, be separated and closed from the living and sleeping rooms. Rooms shall be provided for the changing and hanging of wearing apparel apart and separate from such work rooms and such rooms as to be provided for the changing and hanging of wearing apparel shall be kept clean at all times.

Rule 2. Sanitation.—No employé or other person shall sit or lie upon any table, bench, trough or shelf which is intended for the dough or bakery products. No animals or fowls shall be kept or allowed in any bakery or other place where bread or other bakery products are produced or stored. Before beginning the work of preparing, mixing and handling the ingredients used in baking, every person engaged in the preparation or handling of bakery products shall wash his hands and arms thoroughly, and for this purpose sufficient wash basins and soap and clean towels shall be provided. No employé or other person shall use tobacco in any form in any room where bakery products are manufactured, wrapped or prepared for sale. No master baker, person or any employé who is affected with any contagious or infectious disease shall be permitted to work in any bakery or be permitted to handle any product therein, or delivered therefrom.

Rule 3. Clean condition.—The wagons, boxes, baskets and other receptacles in which bread, cake, pies or other bakery products are transported, shall be kept in a clean condition at all times and free from dust, flies and other contamination. All show cases, shelves or other places where bakery products are sold, shall be kept well covered, properly ventilated, well protected from dust and flies, and shall be kept in a clean and wholesome condition at all times. Boxes or other receptacles for the storing or receiving of bread and other bakery products, before and after the retail stores and selling places are open, shall be constructed and placed so as to be free from the contamination of streets, alleys and sidewalks, and shall be raised at least ten inches from the sidewalk or street, and shall be kept clean and sanitary, and no bread shall be placed in any box along with any other articles of food than bakery products. All such boxes shall be provided with private locks and shall be locked at all times except when open to receive or remove bread or other bakery products and when being cleaned.

Rule 4. Ingredients must be good.—All material used in the production or preparation of bakery products shall be stored, handled and kept in a way to protect them from spoiling and contamination, and no material shall be used which is spoiled or contaminated, or which may render the bread or other bakery products unwholesome or unfit for food. The ingredients used in the production of bread and other bakery products and the sale or offering for sale of bread and other bakery products shall comply with the provisions of the laws against adulteration and misbranding. No ingredients shall be used which may render the bread or other bakery products injurious to health.

Rule 5. Weight of bread.—Bread to be sold by the loaf made by bakers engaged in the business of wholesaling and retailing bread, shall be sold based upon any of the following standards of weight and no other, namely: a loaf weighing one pound or 16 ounces, a loaf weighing 24 ounces or a pound and a half, and loaves weighing two pounds or 32 ounces, and loaves weighing three pounds, or some other multiple of one pound or 16 ounces. These shall be the standard of weight for bread to be sold by the loaf. Variations, or tolerance, shall not exceed one ounce per pound over or under the said standard within a period of 24 hours after baking. [Acts 1921, p. 129.]

Art. 719a. Marketing citrus fruit unfit for consumption.—Sec. 1. That as used in this Act the word "person" shall extend to and include persons, partnerships, associations and corporations; and the word "box" refers to the standard size containers now in common use in this State in the packing and shipping of citrus fruits; and the words "citrus fruit" shall extend to and include only the fruits of citrus grandis, osbeck, commonly and hereafter called grape fruit or Pomelo, and citrus sinensis, osbeck, commonly called sweet or round oranges and hereafter called oranges and the words "packing house" shall extend to and include any structure or place prepared for and used for packing or otherwise preparing citrus fruit for market or transportation.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale any citrus fruit that is immature, unripe, overripe, frozen, or frost damaged, or otherwise unfit for consumption, or to transport, prepare, receive, or deliver for transportation, or market, any citrus fruit between the 1st day of September and the next succeeding December 15th, both dates inclusive, in any year, unless such fruit is accompanied by a stamp or stamps as provided herein to evidence the certificate of inspection and maturity thereof as defined by this Act, issued by a duly authorized Citrus Fruit Inspector, or Special Citrus Fruit Inspector, or State Chemist, or an Assistant State Chemist, or an Inspector of the Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture of this State, or a duly authorized Inspector of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

The certificates of inspection and maturity mentioned in this Act shall be of such number, form, size, and character as the Commissioner of Agriculture of this State may by rule or regulation prescribe, and shall be used in such manner as to identify the fruit to which they relate. All inspections shall be made at a regularly registered packing house as prescribed herein. Provided that it shall be unlawful during the remaining period of from December 16th to August 31st following, both dates inclusive, when inspection is not required by this Act, for any person to sell, offer for sale, transport, deliver, or prepare for sale or transportation, any citrus fruit which is immature or otherwise unfit for consumption, or for any person to receive such fruits under a contract of sale, or for the purpose of sale, offering for sale, transportation or delivery for transportation thereof. Provided further, that the provisions of this Act shall not apply to sales of citrus fruit "on the trees," nor to common carriers or their agents when the fruit accepted for transportation or transported by such common carrier is accompanied by a proper certificate of maturity and inspection of such fruits, as hereinafter provided, or when accepted by them for transportation between the 16th day of December in any year and the 31st day of August, next thereafter, both dates inclusive, or transportation of the fruit from the grove to the packing house located within this State.

Sec. 3. (a) That within the purpose and meaning of this Act, Pomelos (grape fruit) shall be deemed to be mature only when the total soluble solids of the juice are not less than ten (10) per cent and when the minimum ratio of total soluble solids to anhydrous citric acid shall be seven to one (7 to 1).

(b) That within the meaning and purpose of this Act, oranges shall be deemed to be mature when the juice thereof contains not less than eight (8) per centum of total soluble solids to each part of anhydrous citric acid.

(c) In determining the total soluble solids the Brix Hydrometer shall be used, and the reading of the Hydrometer corrected for temperature shall be considered as the per centum of total soluble solids. Anhydrous citric acid to be determined by titration of the juice, using standard alkali and phenolphthalein as the indicator, the total acidity being calculated as anhydrous citric acid.

(d) Any citrus fruit not conforming to the above standards shall be deemed and held to be immature within the meaning of this Act.

Sec. 4. The owner, manager, or operator of each packing house at which it is intended to pack or prepare citrus fruit for market or transportation during the then present or next ensuing citrus fruit shipping season, shall register such packing house and its location, shipping point, and Postoffice address with the Commissioner of Agriculture of this State, not less than ten (10) days before packing or otherwise preparing any citrus fruit for sale or transportation in or at such packing house; and he shall in addition to such registration give the said Commissioner of Agriculture not less than seven (7) days' written notice of the date on which the packing, or other preparation for sale, or transportation between September 1st and December 16th, both dates inclusive, of the citrus fruit of the then current or then next ensuing season's crop would be begun. And it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a citrus fruit packing house, or to pack, or otherwise prepare for sale or transportation, any citrus fruit at such packing house without having previously registered said packing house and given notice herein required; provided, that no certificate of inspection and maturity of any fruit shall be issued by any authorized Inspector to any person who has not registered with the Commissioner of Agriculture of this State during the then current year or has not given to said Commissioner the notice as required by this Act, nor until after the payment of the inspection fee imposed by or under the provisions of this Act and such payment evidenced as herein required or authorized.

Sec. 5. Every vendor or shipper of citrus fruit between the dates of September 1st and December 15th, both inclusive, of each year shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture of this State a fee of one and one-half (1½) cents for every box of citrus fruit by him, it, or them sold, transported, or delivered for transportation; or when such fruit is sold or transported in bulk, or in containers other than standard size boxes, shall pay one and one-half (1½) cents for each two (2) cubic feet or fraction thereof, or each eighty (80) pounds or fraction thereof, of such fruit.

Such fee shall be due and payable when the fruit is prepared for market or transportation, and payment thereof shall be evidenced by stamps, as hereinafter provided. And it shall be unlawful to sell, deliver, transport, or deliver for transportation, or receive for transportation, any citrus fruit, payment of the fee for which is not evidenced by proper stamps to be provided by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Provided, however, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to the transportation or carriage of fruit from groves to packing houses within this State.

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Agriculture to furnish vendors and shippers of citrus fruits with such stamps to be attached to the packages of fruit prepared for sale or delivery for transportation, or to be affixed to the bill-of-lading where shipment is in bulk.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of any vendor or shipper of citrus fruit to properly and securely affix and attach to each package of citrus fruit prepared for sale or delivery for transportation, or to the bill-of-lading or other shipping receipt therefor when shipment is in bulk, the necessary stamp or stamps to evidence payment of the inspection fee herein provided.

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any authorized Inspector to make or issue any false certificate as to inspection, maturity, or payment of inspection fee.

Sec. 9. All citrus fruit prepared for sale or transportation, or which is being prepared for such purposes, or is being delivered for sale or transportation, that may be found to be immature or otherwise unfit for consumption upon inspection and testing, is hereby declared to be a public nuisance, detrimental to the public health, and the sale thereof declared to be a fraud upon the public, and shall be seized and destroyed by Citrus Fruit Inspectors, or by the Sheriff of the County where found; provided, that the owner of such citrus fruit that is immature or otherwise unfit for consumption may be allowed to retain possession of the same subject to such regulations as the Commissioner of Agriculture shall prescribe for the disposition thereof.

Sec. 10. Upon recommendation of the Commissioner of Agriculture, the Governor may in each year appoint and commission as many Citrus Fruit Inspectors for such period or periods, not exceeding one year, as said Commissioner shall deem to be necessary for the effective enforcement of this Act. Such Inspectors shall make and file in the office of the Secretary of State, the oath required by the Constitution of this State, and shall give a good and sufficient bond in the sum of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, payable to the Governor of the State of Texas, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of such office.

All persons authorized under the provisions of this Act to inspect and certify to the maturity of citrus fruit shall be governed in the discharge of their duties as such Inspectors by the provisions of this Act, and by the rules and regulations pursuant thereto prescribed by the Commissioner of Agriculture as herein authorized, and shall perform their duties under his direction and supervision.

Sec. 11. The salary of each Citrus Fruit Inspector or "Special Citrus Fruit Inspector" shall be at the rate of One Hundred and Fifty ($150.00) Dollars per month and in addition thereto shall receive his or her necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by him or her in the discharge of his or her duties as such Inspector, which shall be paid upon approval of accounts therefor by the Commissioner of Agriculture. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to employ such additional field and other agents and clerical assistance, at such times and for such periods, and to incur and pay any other expenses including the traveling expenses of the Commissioner of Agriculture during the citrus fruit season, as may be necessary for the effective enforcement of this Act, and to secure the payment of the inspection fees hereby imposed or that may be imposed under the authority of this Act.

In cases of emergency or necessity when no Citrus Fruit Inspector is available for the inspection of citrus fruit in any particular locality in this State, the Commissioner of Agriculture may designate some fit and competent individual to inspect, test, and certify as to such fruit offered for sale or transportation in such locality. Certificate made or issued by such designated individual shall be signed by him or her as "Special Citrus Fruit Inspector"; he or she shall not be required to give bond, but shall be subject to the penalties imposed by this Act for violation of any of the provisions thereof.

Sec. 12. Inspectors shall draw samples for analysis in the presence of the owner, manager, agent, or custodian of any packing house where grape fruit or oranges are packed for shipment or sale. Three samples of 15 average grape fruit or oranges each, fairly representative of all of the fruit at the time of being inspected, may be drawn by the Inspector, witnessed by either the owner, manager, agent, or custodian of the fruit. The mixing of Royal or other low acid grape fruit-orange hybrids with the ordinary varieties of grape fruit in order to secure the passing of a lot of fruit as mature of which a large part is immature and readily distinguishable from the mature fruit is unlawful. Likewise the mixing of mature fruit from one grove with immature fruit from another grove for the purpose of securing a lot of fruit that will pass the test as mature fruit is unlawful.

Sec. 13. No Inspector, State Chemist, Assistant State Chemist, duly authorized Inspector of the United States Bureau of Economics, or individual designated by the Commissioner of Agriculture as "Special Citrus Fruit Inspector" shall be authorized to inspect, test, or issue a certificate of inspection and maturity, or give any expression of opinion relating to the maturity or quality of any fruit, either express or implied, except at a regularly registered packing house as herein defined and provided.

Sec. 14. It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or resist any authorized Inspector in the performance or discharge of any duty imposed or required by him or her by the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 15. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, or do, or commit any act herein declared to be unlawful, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars nor more than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment for not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court.

Sec. 16. All money received by the Commissioner of Agriculture for inspection fees and certificates of inspection and maturity shall be paid by him to the State Treasurer who shall deposit said money to the account of "Citrus Fruit Inspection Fund." All salaries and other expenses incurred in the execution and enforcement of the provisions of this Act shall be paid out of such "Citrus Fruit Inspection Fund" (except as provided in the next succeeding section) by vouchers approved by the Commissioner of Agriculture and war-

DRUGS, NARCOTICS AND POISONS

Art.

- 720. Sale without prescription.
- 721. Prescriptions.
- 722. Exceptions.
- 723. Furnishing habitual user.
- 724. False labels.
- 725. Penalty.
- 726. Sale of poisons.
- 727. Sale of tobacco to minor.

Article 720. [747] Sale without prescription.

—No person, firm or corporation shall sell, furnish, or give away cocaine, derivations of cocaine, preparations containing cocaine or derivatives of cocaine, morphine, derivations of morphine, preparations containing morphine or derivatives of morphine, opium, preparations containing opium, chloral hydrate or preparations containing chloral [chloral] hydrate, cannabis [cannabis] indica, cannabis [cannabis] sativa or preparations thereof or any drug or preparation from any cannabis [cannabis] variety, or any preparation known as marijuana. [Acts 1905, p. 45; Acts 1919, p. 277, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 156.]

Art. 721. Prescriptions.—The preceding article shall not apply when such sale, furnishing or gift is upon the original written order or prescription of a lawfully authorized practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, which order or prescription shall be dated and shall contain the name of the person for whom prescribed, or if ordered by a veterinarian shall state the kind of animal for which ordered, and shall be signed by the person giving the prescription or order. Such written order or prescription shall be permanently retained on file by the person, firm or corporation who shall compound or dispense the article ordered or prescribed, and it shall not be compounded or dispensed a second time except upon the written order of the original prescriber for each and every subsequent compounding or dispensing. No copy or duplicate of such written order or prescription shall be made or delivered to any person, but the original shall at all times be open to inspection by properly authorized officers of the law. [Id.]

Art. 722. Exceptions.—The provisions of the first article of this chapter shall not apply to preparations containing not more than two grains of opium or not more than one-eighth grain of morphine, or not more than two grains of chloral hydrate, or not more than one sixteenth grain of cocaine in one fluid ounce, or if a solid preparation in one avoirdupois ounce, nor to preparations containing not more than one grain per ounce of solid extract of cannabis [cannabis] indica, cannabis [cannabis] sativa or preparations thereof or any drug or preparation from any cannabis [cannabis] variety, nor to sales by wholesale jobbers, wholesalers and manufacturers to retail druggists, nor to sales at retail by retail druggists to regular practitioners of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine, nor to sales made to manufacturers of proprietary or pharmaceutical preparations for use in the manufacture of such preparations, nor to sales to hospitals, colleges, scientific or public institutions. [Id.]

Art. 723. [748] Furnishing habitual user.—No practitioner of medicine, dentistry, or veterinary medicine shall furnish to or prescribe for the use of an habitual user of the same, any cocaine or morphine or any derivative or compound of cocaine or morphine or any preparation containing cocaine or morphine or their derivatives, or any opium or chloral hydrate or any preparation containing opium or chloral hydrate, or cannabis [cannabis] or any preparation thereof, for the use of any person not under his treatment in the regular practice of his profession. No practitioner of veterinary medicine shall prescribe any of the foregoing substances for the use of any human being. [Acts 1919, p. 278.]

Art. 724. False labels.—It shall be unlawful to manufacture for sale, sell or exchange any drugs, medicine, or device advocated for the cure of diseases, if the package or label or any representation pertaining to same shall bear or contain any statement, design or device regarding the curative or therapeutic effect of such article or any of the ingredients or substances contained therein, which is misleading, false or fraudulent. [Id.]

Art. 725. [749] Penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year, or both. [Id.]

Art. 726. Sale of poisons.—The following poisons are included with the provisions of this article: arsenic, cyanide of potassium, hydrocyanic acid, cocaine, morphine, strychnia and all other poisonous vegetable alkaloids and their salts, oil of bitter almonds, containing hydrocyanic acid, opium and its preparations, except paregoric and such others as contain less than two grains of opium to the ounce, aconite, belladonna, cantharides, colchicum, conium, cotton root, digitalis, ergot, hellebore, henbane, phytolacca, strophanthus, oil of tansy, veratrum viride and their pharmaceutical preparations, arsenical solutions, carbolic acid, chloral hydrate, chloroform, corrosive sublimate, creosote, croton oil, mineral acids, oxalic acid, paris green, salts of lead, salts of zinc, white hellebore or any drug, chemical or preparation which, according to standard works on medicine or materia medica, is liable to be destructive to adult human life in quantities of sixty grains or less.

Every person, firm or corporation who sells any poison shall place on each package and container of poison sold a label containing the word "poison" printed in red ink in a conspicuous place thereon; and keep a well-bound book which shall at all times be open to the inspection of any officer charged with the enforcement of law, in which shall be recorded at the time of the sale the name and quantity of the poison purchased and the purpose for which the same is to be used, and the name and address of the purchaser, if known to the seller, and if unknown the sale shall not be made until the purchaser is identified by one known to the seller. The seller shall also record the name and address of the identifier.

Any person who shall for himself or as the agent or employé of another person, firm or corporation, sell, give away or deliver any of said poisons to another without having complied with any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars and be confined in jail for not less than twenty days nor more than six months. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 86.]

Art. 727. [1049] Sale of tobacco to minor.—Whoever shall sell, give or barter, or cause to be sold, given or bartered, to any minor under the age of sixteen years, or knowingly sell to another for delivery to such minor, without the written consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, any cigarette or tobacco in any of its forms, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1899, p. 237.]

CHAPTER FOUR

BARBER SHOPS AND BEAUTY PARLORS

Art.

- 728. Definitions.
- 729. Registering name and location.
- 730. Equipment.
- 731. Employé with disease.
- 732. Cleanliness.
- 733. No place to sleep.
- 734. Penalty.

Article 728. Definitions.—A "barber" is one who shaves, or trims the beard, or cuts or shampoos or dresses the hair and massages the face of any person for pay, and includes "barbers' apprentices" and shop boys. A "manager" means any person having control of a barber shop or beauty parlor or person working or employed therein. A barber shop is any place where the work or business of a barber is done for pay, and may or may not include a beauty parlor or any work of a beauty parlor. A beauty parlor is a place where hair-dressing or manicuring of finger nails or massaging the skin, or shampooing or washing the scalp, is done for pay, and may or may not include work or business of a barber. [Acts 1921, p. 155.]

Art. 729. Registering name and location.—Every person owning, operating or managing a barber shop or beauty parlor shall register his full name and the location of said shop or parlor in a book to be kept in the office of the State Board of Health for that purpose, and every owner, operator or manager of a barber shop or beauty parlor that is first opened for business hereafter shall within five days after the opening of such shop or parlor register in like manner. In event of a change in the manager or location of any such shop or parlor, the manager of same shall call at or communicate by mail with said board within five days after such change takes place and inform said board thereof. [Id.]

Art. 730. Equipment.—The owner, operator or manager of any barber shop or beauty parlor shall equip and keep equipped the same with facilities and supplies and with all such appliances, furnishings and materials as may be necessary to enable persons employed in and about the same to comply with the law. [Id.]

Art. 731. Employé with disease.—No owner, operator or manager of a barber shop or a beauty parlor shall knowingly permit any person suffering from a communicable skin disease or from a venereal disease to act as a barber or employé or work or be employed in said shop or parlor. No person who to his own knowledge is suffering from a communicable disease or from venereal disease shall act as a barber or work or be employed in said shop or parlor. [Id.]

Art. 732. Cleanliness.—Every person in charge of a barber shop or beauty parlor shall keep said shop or parlor and all furniture, tools, appliances and other equipment used therein at all times in a cleanly condition, and shall cause all combs, hair brushes, hair dusters and similar articles used therein to be washed thoroughly at least once a day and to be kept clean at all times, and shall cause all mugs, shaving brushes, razors, shears, scissors, clippers and tweezers used therein to be sterilized at least once after each time used as hereinafter provided. The term "persons affected by this chapter" shall include any person working or employed in a barber shop or beauty parlor or acting as a barber, beauty specialist or manicurist. Every barber or other person affected by this chapter, immediately after using a mug, shaving brush, razor, scissors, shears, clippers, or tweezers, for the service of any person, shall sterilize the same by immersing it in boiling water for not less than a minute, or in the case of a razor, scissors, shears or tweezers, by immersing it for not less than ten minutes in a five per cent aqueous solution of carbolic acid. No barber or other person affected by this chapter shall:

1. Use for the service of any customer a comb, hair brush, hair duster or any similar article that is not thoroughly clean, nor any mug, shaving brush, razor, shears, scissors, clippers, or tweezers, that are not thoroughly clean or that have not been sterilized since last used.

2. Serve any customer unless he shall immediately before such service cleanse his hands thoroughly.

3. Use for the service of a customer any towel or wash cloth that has not been boiled and laundered since last used.

4. To stop the flow of blood use the same piece of alum or other material for more than one person.

5. Shave any person when the surface to be shaved is inflamed or broken out or contains pus, unless such person be provided with a cup, razor and lather brush for his individual use.

6. Permit any person to use the head rest of any barber's chair under his control until after the head rest has been covered with a towel that has been washed and boiled since having been used before, or by clean new paper or similar clean substance.

7. Use a powder puff or a sponge in the service of a customer unless it has been sterilized since last used.

8. Use a finger bowl unless it has been sterilized since last used and fresh water or other liquid placed therein. [Id.]

Art. 733. No place to sleep.—No owner or manager of any barber shop or beauty parlor shall permit any person to sleep in any room used wholly or in part as such shop or parlor, and no person shall pursue the barber business or be employed in a barber shop or beauty parlor in any room used as a sleeping apartment. [Id.]

Art. 734. Penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter or fails or refuses to comply with any provision thereof shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

OPTOMETRY

- Art.
735. "Optometry."
736. Display license and itemize bill.
737. Penalty.
738. Treating diseased eye.

Article 735. "Optometry."—The practice of optometry is defined to be the employment of objective or subjective means, without the use of drugs, for the purpose of ascertaining and measuring the powers of vision of the human eye, and fitting lenses or prisms to correct or remedy any defect or abnormal condition of vision. Nothing herein shall be construed to permit optometrists to treat the eyes for any defect whatsoever in any manner nor to administer or prescribe any drug or physical treatment whatsoever, unless such optometrist is a regular licensed physician or surgeon under the laws of this State. No person shall begin to practice optometry within this State who has not registered in the county clerk's office of the county in which he resides, and in each county in which he practices, his license for so practicing, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth, subscribed and verified by his oath. The fact of such oath and record shall be indorsed by the county clerk upon the license. The absence of record of such license in the county clerk's office shall be prima facie evidence of the lack of possession of such license. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 159.]

Art. 736. Display license and itemize bill.—Every person practicing optometry in this State shall display his license or certificate in a conspicuous place in the principal office where he practices optometry, and whenever required, exhibit the same to the Texas State Board of Examiners in Optometry or its authorized representative, and whenever practicing said profession of optometry outside of, or away from said office or place of business, he shall deliver to each person fitted with glasses a bill, which shall contain his signature, post-office address, and number of his license or certificate, together with a specification of the lenses and material furnished and the prices charged for such lenses and material respectively. [Id.]

Art. 737. Penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of the two preceding articles shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than two nor more than six months, or both. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 738. Treating diseased eye.—Anyone practicing optometry who shall prescribe for or fit lenses for any diseased condition of the eye, or for the disease of any other organ of the body that manifests itself in the eye, shall be deemed to be practicing medicine within the meaning of that term as defined in the succeeding chapter. Any such person possessing no license to practice medicine who shall so prescribe or fit lenses shall be punished in the same manner as is prescribed for the practice of medicine without a license. [Id.]

CHAPTER SIX

MEDICINE

Art.

- 739. Authority to practice to be registered.
- 740. Exceptions.
- 741. "Practicing medicine."
- 742. Unlawfully practicing medicine.
- 743. Practice after license cancelled.
- 744. False statement by applicant.
- 745. Medical register.
- 746. Protecting eyes of new born.

Article 739. [750] Authority to practice to be registered.—No person shall practice medicine in any of its branches upon human beings within the limits of this State who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resides lawful authority to so practice medicine as herein prescribed, together with an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by him before said district clerk stating his age, post-office address, place of birth, school of practice to which he professes to belong, that he is the identical person to whom the license offered for registration was issued, and that since the issuance of said license the same has not been cancelled. The fact that said oath was so made and said license so recorded shall be indorsed by the district clerk upon the license. The holder of the license must in similar manner have the same recorded upon each change of residence to another county, and shall in each instance be required to make the affidavit provided above. The absence of such record in the office of the district clerk shall be prima facie evidence that no such license exists, and of failure to comply with the law in reference to the registration of license to practice medicine. [Acts 1923, p. 292.]

Art. 740. [754] Exceptions.—Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as to discriminate against any particular school or system of medical practice, nor to effect or limit in any way the application or use of the principles, tenets or teachings of any church in the ministrations to the sick or suffering by prayer without the use of any drug or material remedy, provided sanitary and quarantine laws and regulations are complied with, and that no charge is made therefor, directly or indirectly. The provisions of this chapter do not apply to dentists legally qualified and registered under the laws of this State who confine their practice strictly to dentistry; nor to optometrists who confine their practice strictly to optometry, as defined in this title; nor to nurses who practice only nursing; nor to masseurs in their particular sphere of labor who publicly represent themselves as such; nor to commissioned or contract surgeons of the United States Army, Navy or Public Health and Marine Hospital Service in performance of their duties, but such shall not engage in private practice without license from the Board of Medical Examiners; nor to legally qualified physicians of other States called in consultation, but who do not open offices or appoint places in this State where patients may be met or called to see. This law shall be so construed as to apply to persons other than licensed druggists of this State not pretending to be physicians who offer for sale on the streets or other public places remedies which they recommend for the cure of disease. [Id.]

Art. 741. [755] "Practicing medicine."—Any person shall be regarded as practicing medicine within the meaning of this chapter:

1. Who shall publicly profess to be a physician or surgeon and shall treat or offer to treat any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury, by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof.
2. Who shall treat or offer to treat any disease or disorder, mental or physical, or any physical deformity or injury, by any system or method, or to effect cures thereof and charge therefor, directly or indirectly, money or other compensation. [Acts 1907, p. 224.]

Art. 742. [756] Unlawfully practicing medicine.—Any person practicing medicine in this State in violation of the preceding articles of this chapter shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 743. Practice after license cancelled.—Whoever shall practice medicine in any of its branches upon human beings within the limits of this State after his license has been cancelled by any court of competent jurisdiction shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than four years, or be confined in jail not to exceed six months. [Acts 1923, p. 292.]

Art. 744. False statement by applicant.—Whoever shall make any false statement in his application for examination by the Board of Medical Examiners, or who shall make any false statement under oath to obtain a license or to secure the registration of his license to practice medicine, shall be guilty of false swearing and punished accordingly. [Id.]

Art. 745. [751] Medical register.—Every district clerk shall keep as a permanent record of his office a book to be known as the "Medical Register," and shall record therein all licenses to practice medicine issued by the State Board of Medical Examiners which shall be presented to him for registration. When the license of any one to practice medicine has been cancelled, said clerk shall, if such license is registered in his county, note such cancellation upon said book, and shall also note therein the death or removal of any licensee. Any such clerk knowingly violating any provision hereof shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 224, Acts 1923, p. 285.]

Art. 746. Protecting eyes of new born.—All physicians, midwives, nurses, or those in attendance at child birth shall use prophylactic drops in the child's eyes of a one per cent solution of silver nitrate or other prophylactic solution approved by the State Board of Health to prevent ophthalmia neonatorum in the new born. Any of the persons referred to in attendance at child birth who shall violate this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [Acts 1921, p. 172.]

DENTISTRY

Art.

- 747. Dentist to obtain license.
- 748. Must comply with law.
- 749. License to be recorded.
- 750. Practice after license has been revoked.
- 751. Shall exhibit license.
- 752. Must use proper name.
- 753. Exceptions.
- 754. Punishment.

Article 747. Dentist to obtain license.—No person shall practice or attempt to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State without first having obtained a license from the State Board of Dental Examiners. [Acts 1919, p. 50.]

Art. 748. Must comply with law.—No person shall extract teeth or perform any other operation pertaining to dentistry or dental surgery for pay or for the purpose of advertising, exhibiting or selling any medicine or instrument, unless such person shall first have complied with the provisions of the law regulating the practice of dentistry in this State. [Id.]

Art. 749. License to be recorded.—Each person to whom such license is issued by the Board of Examiners, shall before beginning the practice of dentistry in this State, present the same to the county clerk of the county in which he resides or expects to practice, and such clerk shall record said license in a book provided for that purpose. [Id.]

Art. 750. Practice after license has been revoked.—No person whose license to practice dentistry in this State shall be revoked by any district court of this State shall practice or attempt to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State after such license has been so revoked. [Id.]

Art. 751. Shall exhibit license.—Any person authorized to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State either under this or any former law of Texas, shall place his license on exhibition in his office where said license shall be in plain view of patients. No such person shall do any operation in the mouth of a patient, or treat any lesions of the mouth or teeth, without having said license so exhibited. [Id.]

Art. 752. Must use proper name.—No person who has been granted a license to practice dentistry or dental surgery in this State shall advertise or solicit business under a nom de plume or corporation name, or any other than his proper and legal name. Each day so engaged is a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 753. Exceptions.—Nothing in this chapter applies to students of a reputable dental college who perform their operations without pay, except for actual cost of materials, in the presence of and under the direct personal supervision of a demonstrator or teacher who has been legally authorized to practice dentistry in Texas, nor to persons doing laboratory work on inert matter only. Physicians and surgeons may in the regular practice of their profession, extract teeth or make application for the relief of pain. Nothing in this chapter applies to one legally engaged in the practice of dentistry of this State at the time of the passage of this law, except as hereinbefore provided. [Id.]

Art. 754. Punishment.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not to exceed six months, or both. Such fine shall go into the common school fund of the county in which it is collected, and shall not be collected or used by the Board of Examiners. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

PHARMACY

Art.

755. Unlicensed pharmacy.

756. Exceptions.

757. License and removal posted.

758. Offenses and penalty.

Article 755. Unlicensed pharmacy.—No person not licensed as a pharmacist, within the meaning of this law, shall conduct or manage any pharmacy, drug or chemical store, apothecary shop or other place of business for the retailing, compounding or dispensing of any drug, chemical or poison, or for the compounding of physician's prescriptions, or keep exposed for sale at retail any drug, chemicals or poisons, except as hereinafter provided. No person not licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, shall compound, dispense or sell at retail any drug, chemical, poison, or pharmaceutical preparation upon the prescription of a physician, or otherwise, or compound physicians' prescriptions except as an aid to, or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist under this law. No owner, or manager of a pharmacy, or drug store, or other place of business, shall cause or permit any other than a person licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist to compound, dispense or sell at retail any medicine or poison, except as an aid to or under the supervision of a person licensed as a pharmacist. [Acts 1907, p. 349.]

Art. 756. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not be construed to prevent any person from engaging in such business as proprietor or owner thereof, provided such proprietor or owner shall have employed to conduct same some one qualified under this law, nor to interfere with any legally registered practitioner of medicine or dentistry in the compounding of his prescriptions, or to prevent him from supplying his patients such medicine as he may deem proper; nor with exclusively wholesale business of any dealer who shall be licensed as a pharmacist, or who shall keep in his employ at least one person who is licensed as a pharmacist; nor with the selling at retail of nonpoisonous domestic remedies, nor with the sale of patent or proprietary preparations, when sold in unbroken packages, nor with the sale of poisonous substances which are sold exclusively for use in the arts or for use as insecticides, when such substances are sold in unbroken packages bearing a label having plainly printed upon it the name of the contents, the word "poison" and the names of at least two readily obtainable antidotes. [Id.]

Art. 757. License and renewal posted.—Every certificate of license to practice as pharmacist or assistant pharmacist, and every license to any proprietor or employé to conduct a drug store in towns of not more than one thousand inhabitants, and every renewal of such license shall be conspicuously exposed in the place of business of which the pharmacist or assistant pharmacist or other person to whom it is issued is the owner or manager, or in which he is employed. Every licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist who desires to continue in the practice of his profession shall, within thirty days next preceding the expiration of his license or permit, file with the board an application for the renewal thereof. If any pharmacist or assistant pharmacist shall fail for a period of sixty days after the expiration of his license, to make application to the board for its renewal, his name shall be erased from the register of licensed pharmacist or assistant pharmacist. The name of the responsible manager of every pharmacy, drug store or apothecary shop, shall be conspicuously displayed outside of such place of business. [Id.]

Art. 758. Offenses and penalty.—Whoever, not being licensed as a pharmacist, shall conduct or manage any drug store or other place of business for the compounding, dispensing or sale at retail of any drugs, medicine or poisons, or for the compounding of physicians' prescriptions contrary to any provision of the three preceding articles shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. Each week such drug store or pharmacy or other place of business is so unlawfully conducted shall be a separate offense. Whoever not being licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist shall compound, dispense or sell at retail any drugs, medicine, poison or pharmaceutical preparation even upon a physician's prescription or otherwise, and whoever being the owner or manager of the drug store, pharmacy or other place of business, shall cause or permit any one not licensed as a pharmacist or assistant pharmacist to dispense, sell at retail or compound any drug, medicine, poison or physician's prescription, contrary to any provision of the three preceding articles, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Any license or permit or renewal thereof, obtained through fraud, or by any false or fraudulent representations, shall be void and of no effect in law. Any person who shall make any false or fraudulent representations for the purpose of procuring a license or renewal thereof, either for himself or for another, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. Whoever being the holder of any license or permit granted under this law, shall fail to expose such license or permit, or any renewal thereof, in a conspicuous position in the place of business to which such license or permit relates, or in which the holder thereof is employed, contrary to the provisions of article 757 shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars, and each week that such license, permit or renewal shall not be exposed, shall be a separate offense, and whoever being the holder of any license or permit granted under this law shall, after the expiration of such license or permit, and without renewing the same, continue to carry on the business for which such license or permit was granted, contrary to the provisions of ar-

Article 757 shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINE

EMBALMING

Art.

- 759. Embalmer's license.
- 760. Unlawful embalming.
- 761. Exceptions.
- 762. Penalty.

Article 759. [784-5] Embalmer's license.—Every person engaged in or desiring to engage in the practice of embalming in connection with the care and disposition of dead bodies within this State shall make a written application to the State Board of Embalming for a license, accompanying the same with the fee fixed by law, and if said board shall find upon examination that the applicant is of good moral character and possesses the knowledge required by law, they shall issue to him a license authorizing him to practice the science of embalming. All persons receiving such license shall have it registered in the county clerk's office in the county in which it is proposed to carry on said practice, and shall display said license in a conspicuous place in the place of business of said person so licensed. Every registered embalmer who desires to continue the practice of his profession shall annually thereafter during the time he may continue in such practice, on such date as said board [board] may determine, pay to the secretary of said board a fee of five dollars for the renewal of said license. [Acts 1903, p. 124; Acts 1921, p. 180.]

Art. 760. [786] Unlawful embalming.—No person shall embalm or pretend to practice the science of embalming, in connection with the care and disposition of the dead, unless such person is a registered embalmer within the meaning of this chapter. [Acts 1903, p. 125.]

Art. 761. [787] Exceptions.—This chapter does not apply to one simply engaged in the furnishing of burial receptacles, nor is it intended to apply to or interfere with the duties of any municipal, county or State officer or State institution. [Id.]

Art. 762. [788] Penalty.—Whoever shall embalm, or attempt to practice the science of embalming, in connection with the care and disposition of the dead, without having complied with the provisions of this chapter, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [Id.]

CHAPTER TEN

QUARANTINE REGULATIONS

Art.

- 763. Vessel landing from infected port.
- 764. Passing station without permission.
- 765. Going ashore without permission.
- 766. Landing goods without permission.
- 767. Leaving quarantine station.
- 768. Violating quarantine law.
- 769. Evading quarantine guards, etc.
- 770. Violating quarantine regulations.
- 771. Person in charge of train or boat.
- 772. Violating Governor's proclamation.

Article 763. [789] [472] Vessel landing from infected port.—After the legal establishment of any quarantine station on the coast of this State, if any vessel shall land or arrive at such station from any infected port without a bill of health from the proper officer of said port, or with a false bill of health, the master or commanding officer of such vessel shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars. [Acts Aug. 13, 1870; Acts 1901, p. 305.]

Art. 764. [790] [473] Passing station without permission.—Any master or commanding officer of a vessel that passes or attempts to pass any quarantine station on the coast of this State during the continuance of the quarantine without having first obtained permission from the health officer of such station so to do, shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years, or be fined not less than five hundred nor more than ten thousand dollars. [Act Aug. 13, 1870.]

Art. 765. [791] [474] Going ashore without permission.—Any person belonging to or on board of a vessel placed under quarantine who shall go ashore without the written permission of the health officer of the station shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 766. [792] [475] Landing goods without permission.—Any master or officer of a vessel placed under quarantine, who shall land or permit to be landed from said vessel any goods, wares, merchandise or article whatsoever, while the same is under quarantine, without the written permission of the health officer of the quarantine station, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars for each article so landed. [Id.]

Art. 767. [793] [476] Leaving quarantine station.—Any person detained at any quarantine station who shall wilfully absent himself without leave of the officer having charge thereof, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1883, p. 81.]

Art. 768. [794] [477] Violating quarantine law.—Any health officer, guard or other employé who shall wilfully disobey or in any manner knowingly neglect or fail to perform any duty imposed upon him by the provisions of quarantine laws, rules and regulations of this State, or who shall disobey knowingly an order emanating from superior authority, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. In the meaning of this article the Governor and State Health Officer shall alone be deemed superior authority. [Id.]

Art. 769. [795] [478] Evading quarantine guards, etc.—Any person coming from any port or district infected with yellow fever, or any other infectious or contagious disease, who shall knowingly evade any guard or pass through any cordon of quarantine duly established shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 770. [796] [479] Violating quarantine regulations.—Whoever wilfully violates any regulation of the quarantine established by the Governor, the State Health Officer, or the health officer of any county or city of this State, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1901, p. 305.]

Art. 771. [797] [478b] Person in charge of train or boat.—If any conductor, or person in charge of any train, ship, steamboat or any other kind of common carriers, shall wilfully bring into this State any person or thing contrary to quarantine regulations as proclaimed by the Governor or State Health Officer, such conductor or person so wilfully offending shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 772. [798] [478c] Violating Governor's proclamation.—Any merchant or other person who shall wilfully order the shipment, or wilfully receive any merchandise whose shipment into the State is prohibited by the Governor's proclamation, or any person who wilfully sells and proceeds to deliver such merchandise or other article as above, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

MISCELLANEOUS

Art.

- 773. Soliciting patients.
- 774. Advertising.
- 775. Witness shall testify.
- 776. Nurse.
- 777. Exceptions.
- 778. Chiropody.
- 779. Improper practice.
- 780. Exceptions.
- 781. Vital statistics.
- 781a. Violation of provisions as to vital statistics.
- 782. Sanitary Code.

Article 773. Soliciting patients.—No physician, surgeon, osteopath, masseur, or any other person who practices medicine or the art of healing the sick or afflicted, with or without the use of medicine, shall employ or agree to employ, pay or promise to pay, or reward or promise to reward any person, firm, association of persons, partnership or corporation for securing, soliciting or drumming patients or patronage. No person shall accept or agree to accept any payment, fee or reward, or anything of value, for securing, soliciting or drumming for patients or patronage for any physician, surgeon, osteopath, masseur or any other person who practices medicine or the art of healing with or without medicine. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense. Each payment or reward or fee or agreement to pay or accept a reward or fee shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1911, p. 97.]

Art. 774. Advertising.—The preceding article shall not be construed to prohibit the inserting in a newspaper of an advertisement of a person's business, profession and place of business, or from advertising by handbills and paying for services in distributing same. [Id.]

Art. 775. Witness shall testify.—No person shall be exempt from giving testimony in any proceedings for the enforcement of the second preceding article, but the testimony so given shall not be used against him in any criminal action or proceeding, nor shall any criminal action or proceeding be brought against such witness on account of any testimony so given by him. [Id.]

Art. 776. Nurse.—No person shall practice nursing as or claiming to be a graduate certified registered nurse without a license or permit from the State Board of Nurse Examiners, which license or permit shall have been registered with the county clerk of the county in which he or she resides within a period of thirty days. A nurse who has received his or her license or permit according to law shall be styled a "registered nurse," and no other person shall assume such title or use the abbreviation "R. N." or any other to indicate that he or she is a graduate certified registered nurse; and any person violating any provision of this article or who shall make any false representations to said board in applying for a license shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 413.]

Art. 777. Exceptions.—The preceding article does not apply to gratuitous nursing by friends or members of the family or to any person nursing for hire who does not in any way assume or profess to practice as a graduate certified registered nurse.

Art. 778. Chiropody.—"Chiropody" means the diagnosis, medical and surgical treatment of ailments of the human foot. A chiropodist is one practicing chiropody. Whoever professes to be a chiropodist, or practices or assumes the duties incident to chiropody, without first obtaining from the State Board of Chiropody Examiners a license authorizing the practice of chiropody, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not to exceed thirty days. [Acts 1923, p. 357.]

Art. 779. Improper practice.—If any registered chiropodist shall amputate the human foot or toe, or use any anaesthetic other than local, he shall be punished as directed in the preceding article. [Id.]

Art. 780. Exceptions.—The two preceding articles shall not apply to physicians licensed by the State Board of Medical Examiners of this State, nor to surgeons of the United States Army, Navy, and Public Health Service, when in actual performance of their official duties. [Id.]

Art. 781. Vital statistics.—Any person who shall violate any rule of the Sanitary Code of this State relating to vital statistics, or who shall fail to perform any duty imposed on him by said rules herein referred to, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Whoever shall falsely or fraudulently furnish any information for the purpose of making an incorrect record of a birth or death shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than two years. [Acts 1911, p. 173; Acts 1917, p. 332.]

Art. 781a. Violation of provisions as to vital statistics.—That any person, who for himself or as an officer, agent, or employee of any other person, or of any corporation or partnership, (a) shall inter, cremate, or otherwise finally dispose of the dead body of a human being, or permit the same to be done, or shall remove said body from the primary registration district in which the death occurred or the body was found, without the authority of a burial or removal permit issued by the local registrar of the district in which the death occurred or in which the body was found; or (b) shall refuse or fail to furnish correctly any information in his possession, or shall furnish false information affecting any certificate or record, required by this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rules 34a to 55a]; or (c) shall willfully alter, otherwise than is provided by Section 18 of this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rule 51a], or shall falsify any certificate of birth or death, or any record established by this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rules 34a to 55a]; or (d) being required by this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rules 34a to 55a] to fill out a certificate of birth or death and file the same with the local registrar, or deliver it, upon request, to any person charged with the duty of filing the same, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform such duty in the manner required by this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rules 34a to 55a]; or (e) being a local registrar, deputy registrar, or sub-registrar, shall fail, neglect, or refuse to perform his duty as required by this Act [Civ. art. 4477, rules 34a to 55a] and by the instructions, and direction of the state registrar thereunder, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall for the first offense be fined not less than five dollars ($5.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00), and for each subsequent offense not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than sixty days, or be both fined and imprisoned. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 116, ch. 41, § 22.]

Art. 782. Sanitary Code.—Whoever shall violate any provision of the Sanitary Code of this State, other than those relating to vital statistics, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1911, p. 173.]

OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PROPERTY.

Chap.

Article 783. [811] [479] [404] Obstruction of navigable stream.—Whoever obstructs the navigation of any stream which can be navigated by steam, keel, or flatboats, by cutting and felling trees or by building on or across the same any dyke, mill dam, bridge, or other obstruction, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [O. C. 428.]

Art. 784. [812] [480] [405] Obstructing public road, street, etc.—Whoever shall wilfully obstruct or injure or cause to be obstructed or injured in any manner whatsoever any public road or highway or any street or alley in any town or city, or any public bridge or causeway, within this State, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1860, p. 97; Acts 1913, p. 258.]

Art. 785. [823] [483] [406] Permission to obstruct.—No person shall be punished under the preceding article who places obstructions in the streets or alleys of an incorporated city or town for purposes of building or improvement under the sanction of the governing body thereof. [Acts 1860, p. 97.]

Art. 786. [824] [484] [407] May regulate removal.—Nothing in this chapter is to be construed to prevent the commissioners court or the municipal authorities from adopting regulations relative to the removal of obstructions from public roads, streets or bridges, and to enforce the same by due process of law. [O. C. 430.]

Art. 787. Obstructing railway crossing.—Any officer, agent, servant or receiver of any railway corporation who wilfully obstructs for more than five minutes at any one time any street, railway crossing or public highway by permitting their train to stand on or across such crossing, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 34.]

Art. 788. Exceptions as to railways.—The city council of any incorporated city may by ordinance grant a franchise to a railway company to obstruct a street crossing, not a part of a "Designated State Highway," by railway passenger trains for the purpose of receiving and discharging passengers, mail, express or freight, for a longer time than specified herein, and may enact and enforce reasonable ordinances in the premises. When any such franchise has been granted under the provisions of this law, the street crossing named therein shall be excepted from the preceding article. The provisions hereof shall not apply to a city having a special charter unless it shall first be amended so as to adopt the provisions hereof. [Id.]

Art. 789. [915] Rate of speed of vehicle.—Whoever shall operate or drive any motor or other vehicle upon the public highways of Texas at a rate of speed in excess of thirty-five miles per hour, or who shall drive or operate a motor or other vehicle within the corporate limits of an incorporated city or town or within or through any town or village not incorporated, at a greater rate of speed than twenty miles per hour, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 333.]

Art. 790. Shall drive carefully.—No person operating or driving a motor or other vehicle upon the public highways shall pass any motor or other vehicle, person or thing on any public highway of this State at such rate of speed as to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 791. Exceptions to speed law.—The two preceding articles shall not apply to fire patrols or motor vehicles operated by the fire department of any city, town or village responding to calls, nor to police patrols, ambulances or physicians responding to emergency calls. [Id.]

Art. 792. Violation of promise to appear.—In case of any person arrested for violation of the preceding articles relating to speed of vehicles, unless such person so arrested shall demand that he be taken forthwith before a court of competent jurisdiction for an immediate hearing, the arresting officer shall take the license number, name and make of the car, the name and address of the operator or driver thereof, and notify such operator or driver in writing to appear before a designated court of competent jurisdiction at a time and place to be specified in such written notice at least five days subsequent to the date thereof, and upon the promise in writing of such person to appear at such time and place, such officer shall forthwith release such person from custody. Any person wilfully violating such promise, regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which he was originally arrested, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 793. Speed limit on commercial vehicles.—Commercial motor vehicles of the kinds and weights specified in this article shall not be operated on the public highways of this State at a greater rate of speed than herein prescribed, as follows:

(a) Commercial motor vehicles equipped with pneumatic tires or cushion wheels:

Weights in pounds, including gross weight of vehicle and load.	Speed limit miles per hour
2,000-4,000	18
4,001-8,000	15
8,001-12,000	12
12,001-16,000	12
16,001-20,000	10

(b) Commercial motor vehicles equipped with solid rubber tires:

Weights in pounds, including gross weight of vehicles and load.	Speed limit miles per hour
2,001-4,000	16
4,001-8,000	14
8,001-16,000	16
16,001-22,000	10

Whoever shall operate a commercial motor vehicle at a greater rate of speed than that herein allowed shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not more than thirty days. [Acts 1923, p. 333.]

Art. 794. To slow down in passing.—All operators of motor vehicles in passing each other on the public highways shall slow down their speed to fifteen miles per hour. Any person who violates this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 481, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 795. No racing or contest for speed.—No race or contest for speed between motor vehicles of any kind shall be held upon any public highway. Any person violating this article shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 480, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 796. Horn or noise device.—Every motor vehicle shall be equipped with a bell, gong, horn, whistle or other device in good working order, capable of emitting an abrupt sound adequate in quality and volume to give warning of the approach of such motor vehicle to pedestrians and to the rider or driver of animals, or of other vehicles and to persons entering or leaving street, interurban or railroad cars. Every person operating a motor vehicle shall sound said bell, gong, horn, whistle or other device whenever necessary as a warning of danger but not at other times or for other purposes. Any person while operating a motor vehicle who shall violate this article shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 496, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 797. Device to prevent unusual noise, etc.—Every motor vehicle must have devices in good working order which shall at all times be in constant operation to prevent excessive or unusual noises, annoying smoke, and the escape of gas or steam. Pipes carrying exhaust gas from the engine shall be directly parallel to the ground or slightly upward. Devices known as "Muffler cut-outs" shall not be used within the limits of any incorporated city or town or on any public highway where the territory contiguous thereto is closely built up. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 477, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 797a. Preventing unnecessary noises by motor vehicles.—Any person operating on any public highway or street in this State a motor vehicle or motorcycle which is not equipped with a muffler, or which is equipped with a muffler cutout, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, or by confinement in the county jail not more than ten days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 797b. Muffler defined.—A muffler cut-out within the meaning of this Act is any device or aperture [aperture] which permits the escaping gasses [gases] produced by the operation of the motor of a motor vehicle or motorcycle to escape without going through the muffler on such motor vehicle or motorcycle, or which is capable of being manipulated so as to permit such gasses [gases] to so escape. A muffler within the meaning of this Act is a device through which the escaping gasses [gases] of the motor of a motor vehicle or motorcycle pass, designed to muffle or minimize the noise produced by the operation of such motor. [Acts 1925, p. 350.] [39th Leg., ch. 142, § 2.]

Art. 798. Front and rear lights.—Every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle while on the public highways, when in operation, during one-half hour after sunset to one-half hour before sunrise, and at all times when fog or other atmospheric conditions render the operation of such vehicles unusually dangerous to traffic and the use of the highways, shall carry at the front at least two lighted lamps showing the white lights visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least five hundred feet in the direction toward which such motor vehicle is facing, and shall also carry at the rear a lighted lamp exhibiting one red light plainly visible for a distance of five hundred feet to the rear. At the times and under the conditions hereinbefore specified every motorcycle or bicycle while on the public highway shall carry on its front one lighted lamp showing a white light visible under normal atmospheric conditions at least two hundred feet in the direction such vehicle is facing, and shall have at the rear one red light plainly visible from the rear. Any person who while operating such vehicle on a public highway shall violate any provision of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 476; Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 799. Brakes.—Any person who operates upon a public highway a motor vehicle not provided with adequate brakes kept in good working order, or any person having control or charge of a motor vehicle who shall allow such vehicle to stand in any public street or highway unattended without first effectively setting the brakes and stopping the motor thereon, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 477, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 800. Approaching railroad crossing.—Any person driving a motor vehicle or motorcycle, when approaching the intersection of a public street or highway with the tracks of a steam railroad or interurban railroad, where such street or highway crosses such track or tracks at grade, and where the view of the said crossing is obscured, either wholly or partially, shall before attempting to make the said crossing, and at some point not nearer than thirty feet of the said track, reduce the speed of his motor vehicle or motorcycle to a speed not exceeding six miles per hour before making the said crossing, unless there are flagmen or gates at such crossing and such flagmen or gates show that the way is clear and safe to cross such track or tracks. This article shall not apply to persons crossing interurban or street railway tracks within the limits of incorporated cities or towns. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 479, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 801. Law of the road.—(A) The driver or operator of any vehicle in or upon any public highway wherever practicable shall travel upon the right hand side of such highway. Two vehicles which are passing each other in opposite directions shall have the right of way, and no other vehicle to the rear of either of such two vehicles shall pass or attempt to pass such two vehicles. On all occasions the driver or operator of any vehicle upon any public highway shall travel upon the right hand side of such highway unless the road on the left hand side of such highway is clear and unobstructed for a distance of at least fifty yards ahead.

(B) Vehicles proceeding in opposite directions shall pass each other to the right, each giving to the other one-half of the road as nearly as possible.

(C) Vehicles overtaking other vehicles proceeding in the same direction shall pass to the left thereof and shall not again drive to the right until the road is reasonably clear of such overtaken vehicle.

(D) It is the duty of the driver, rider, or operator of a vehicle about to be overtaken and passed to give way to the right in favor of the overtaking vehicle on suitable and audible signal, given by or on behalf of the operator, driver or other person in charge and control of such overtaking vehicle, if such overtaking vehicle be a motor vehicle.

(E) Except where controlled by such ordinances or regulations enacted by local authorities, as are permitted under the law, the operator of a vehicle approaching an intersection on the public highway shall yield the right-of-way to a vehicle approaching such intersection from the right of such first named vehicle.

(F) It is the duty of the person operating or in charge of an overtaking vehicle to sound audible and suitable signal before passing a vehicle proceeding in the same direction.

(G) All vehicles approaching an intersection of the public highway with the intention of turning thereat shall, in turning to the right, keep to the right of the center of such intersection and in turning to the left, shall run beyond the center of such intersection, passing to the right before turning such vehicle to the left.

(H) In passing and overtaking, such assistance shall be given by the occupants of each vehicle respectively to the other as the circumstances shall reasonably demand in order to obtain clearance and avoid accident.

(I) Every person having control or charge of any motor vehicle or other vehicle upon any public highway and approaching any vehicle drawn by horse or horses, or any horse upon which any person is riding, shall operate and control such vehicle in such manner as to exercise every reasonable precaution to prevent the frightening of any such horse and to insure the safety of any person riding or driving the same; and if such horse or horses appear frightened, the person in control of such vehicle shall reduce its speed, and if requested by signal of the hand, by the driver or rider of such horse or horses, shall not proceed further toward such animal or animals unless such movement be necessary to avoid injury or accident, until such animal or animals shall be under the control of the rider or driver thereof.

(J) The person in control of any vehicle moving slowly along upon any public highway shall keep such vehicle as closely as possible to the right hand boundary of the highway, allowing more swiftly moving vehicles reasonably free passage to the left.

(K) The person in charge of any vehicle upon any public highway before turning, stopping or changing the course of such vehicle shall see first that there is sufficient space for such movement to be made in safety, and if the movement or operation of other vehicles may reasonably be affected by such turning, stopping or changing of course, shall give plainly visible or audible signal to the person operating, driving or in charge of such vehicle of his intentions so to turn, stop or change said course.

(L) Before attempting to pass any railroad train, interurban car or street car stopped for the purpose of receiving or discharging passengers, every operator in charge of a motor vehicle or motorcycle approaching the same from the rear and proceeding in the same direction shall bring such motor vehicle or motorcycle to a full stop and shall not start up or attempt to pass until the said railroad train, interurban car or street car has finished receiving and discharging its passengers; provided that cities of ten thousand inhabitants and over may provide by ordinance for the establishment of safety zones for the use and safety of such passengers contiguous to such railroad, interurban or street car tracks, and may maintain and establish such safety zones at such places and may provide by ordinance for the regulation of traffic in passing such safety zones, and when such safety zones are so established and ordinances are passed to regulate the traffic in passing same, the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the places where safety zones are so established.

(M) Every motor vehicle when moving along such portions of the road where the curvature of the road prevents a clear view for a distance ahead of one hundred yards shall be held under control, and the operator thereof in approaching curves or sharp turns in the road shall give a warning by his signaling device.

(N) Police patrols, police ambulances, fire patrols, fire engines and fire apparatus in all cases while being operated as such shall have the right-of-way with due regard to the safety of the public; provided that this provision shall not protect the driver or operator of any such vehicle or his employer or principal from the consequence of the arbitrary exercise of this right to the injury of another.

Any person while operating or driving any motor vehicle upon a public highway who shall violate any provision of this article shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 478; Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70; Acts 1919, p. 310; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 96.]

Art. 802. Intoxicated driver.—Any person who drives or operates an automobile or any motor vehicle upon any street or alley or any other place within the limits of any incorporated city, town or village or upon any public road or highway in this State while such person is intoxicated or in any degree under the influence of intoxicating liquor, shall be confined in the penitentiary for not more than two years, or be confined in jail for not more than ninety days, or fined not more than five hundred dollars, or be punished by both such fine and imprisonment in jail. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 56.]

Art. 803. May arrest without warrant.—Any peace officer is authorized to arrest without warrant any person found committing a violation of any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 48.]

Art. 803a. Regulating arrests for speeding.—No officer shall have authority to make any arrests for violation of the laws of this State relating to the speed of motor vehicles unless he is at the time of such arrest wearing a uniform and a badge clearly distinguishing him from ordinary civilians or private citizens, and shall have no authority to make any such arrest by designedly remaining in hiding or lying in wait unobserved in order to trap those suspected of violating the speed laws in reference to motor vehicles. No such officer, and no sheriff, constable, marshal, policeman, traffic officer, or other officer shall be entitled to any fee for making an arrest or serving a warrant of arrest or claim, demand or receive any witness fee or commitment fee for an alleged violation of any law of this State relative to such speeding. It shall be the duty of the district or county attorney, as the case may be, to dismiss any and all prosecutions wherein it is shown that the arrest was made by designedly remaining in hiding or lying in wait unobserved in order to trap those suspected of violating such speed law, and this provision shall apply to such conduct by any highway officer, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, marshal, policeman or any other officer of this State, or political subdivision thereof. The venue of any prosecution for speeding of motor vehicles under state laws shall be in the Justice Precinct only wherein the offense was committed or in the precinct of the defendant's residence. The badge herein required to be worn by any officer making an arrest shall be diamond-shaped, and the uniform prescribed to be worn by such officer or officers shall consist of a cap, coat and trousers of dark grey color. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 321, ch. 218, § 1.]

Section 2 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 321, ch. 218, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws, and section 3 provides that if any part of the act be held invalid, such holding shall not affect the remainder.

Art. 804. Operating unregistered vehicle.—Whoever operates upon any public highway a motor vehicle which has not been registered as required by law shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 158.]

Art. 805. Operating under improper license.—Whoever operates upon a public highway a motor vehicle under a license, however obtained, for a class other than that to which such vehicle properly belongs, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 806. Motorcycle without seal.—Any person operating, or as owner permitting to be operated, on any public highway any motorcycle during any calendar year to which there is not attached a registration seal assigned to said motorcycle, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 425; Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 147.]

Art. 807. Vehicle without seal.—Any person operating, or as owner permitting to be operated, on any public highway any motor vehicle during any calendar year, except the first calendar year after a renumbering is ordered according to law, to which vehicle for the current year there is not attached a registration seal assigned for said vehicle, shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 147.]

Art. 808. Unauthorized distinguishing seal.—Whoever obtains a distinguishing seal for a motor vehicle or motorcycle from any source other than the State Highway Department or its authorized agents, unless authorized by law, shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 425.]

Art. 809. Sale of imitation seal or number.—Whoever sells or offers to sell any seal or number in imitation of those furnished by the State Highway Department shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

Art. 810. Must have number plate.—Whoever shall operate, or as owner permit to be operated upon a public highway any motor vehicle to which there is not attached a license number plate or pair of license number plates issued for said vehicle shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, pp. 425 and 475, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 147.]

Art. 811. Must have own number and seal.—Whoever shall operate, or as owner permit to be operated upon a public highway a motor vehicle with a number plate or seal issued for a different motor vehicle attached thereto shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 475, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 147.]

Art. 812. Wrong or unclean number plate.—No person shall attach to or display on any motor vehicle any number plate or seal assigned to a different motor vehicle or assigned to it under any other motor vehicle law other than by the State Highway Department, or any registration seal other than that assigned for the current year, or a homemade or fictitious number plate or seal. All letters, numbers and other identification marks shall be kept clear and distinct and free from grease or other blurring matter so that they may be plainly seen at all times during daylight. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 813. Chauffeur.—A "chauffeur" is one whose business or occupation is operating a motor vehicle for compensation, wages or hire.

1. No person shall operate a motor vehicle as a chauffeur upon any public highway unless he shall have complied in all respects with the requirements of the law regulating the licensing of chauffeurs and shall have at all times in his possession his certificate or license and wear the badge issued to him by the State Highway Department prominently displayed on his clothing while on duty.

2. No person shall use a fictitious name in applying for a license as a chauffeur.

3. No licensed chauffeur shall use or possess any fictitious badge, nor permit any other person to use or possess his license or badge, nor while operating a motor vehicle shall use or possess any license or badge belonging to another.

4. No owner of a motor vehicle shall permit said vehicle to be driven by a chauffeur upon a public highway unless the requirements of the law applicable to chauffeurs have in all respects been complied with.

Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 482-3, Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 814. Suspension of license.—In addition to the punishment provided in this chapter, the court may for a period not to exceed thirty days suspend an operator or chauffeur's license upon conviction of the licensee for violation of any provision of this chapter. [Acts 1917, p. 482.]

Art. 815. Penalty for subsequent offense.—Where the penalty for violating any article of this chapter is a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, then for a second or subsequent violation of a provision of the same article the fine shall be not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 70.]

Art. 816. Width of tires.—No person shall sell or offer for sale any wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than two thousand pounds and not exceeding four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than three inches in width; or any such wagon or other road vehicle with an intended carrying capacity of more than four thousand five hundred pounds which shall have a rim or tire on the wheels of same less than four inches in width. This article shall apply to all persons engaged in the sale of road vehicles, either at wholesale or retail, but not to individuals, selling or offering for sale road vehicles purchased for their individual use. Whoever violates the terms of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. Each sale or offer of sale is a separate offense. [Acts 1917, p. 139, Acts 1919, p. 284, Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 61.]

Art. 817. Protuberance on tires.—No person shall operate or run on any public highway any vehicle which has on its periphery any block, log, [lug], stud, cleat, ridge, bead or any other protuberance of metal that shall project more than one-fourth of an inch beyond the tread or traction surface of the tire, unless the said wheels are protected by bands, wooden blocks, skids or some sufficient device to protect the highway against injury by reason thereof. Nothing herein shall prevent the use of traction engines with cleats on the driving wheels thereof on dirt or unimproved roads, or the use of vehicles actually engaged at the time in construction or repair work on roads. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 477; Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 70.]

Art. 818. Certain vehicles defined.—As used in this Code the terms:

1. "Interurban commercial motor vehicle" is a vehicle of net carrying capacity of more than one ton that is used regularly in carrying passengers or freight for hire between cities, towns and villages in this State.

2. "Commercial motor vehicle" is any motor vehicle intended, designated or used for the transportation of property.

3. "Tractor" means any self-propelled vehicle designed or used as a traveling power plant or for drawing other vehicles, but having no provision for carrying loads on its own structure.

Art. 819. Unregistered interurban vehicle.—Any person, or the agent of any person, firm or corporation, who operates any interurban commercial motor vehicle in carrying passengers for hire between any cities, towns or villages of this State when such vehicle has not been registered and licensed as required by law shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 177.]

Art. 820. Motor busses.—Owners of passenger motor vehicles operating for hire shall pay in addition to the fee of 17½ cents per horsepower and the weight fee provided therefor, an additional registration fee of four dollars for each passenger such vehicle will seat. Any owner of a motor bus vehicle who shall fail or refuse to comply with this article shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 158.]

Art. 821. Inscription on State vehicle.—There shall be printed upon each side of every automobile, truck or other motor vehicle owned by the State of Texas, the word "Texas" followed in letters of not less than two inches high by the title of the department, bureau, board, commission or official having the custody of such car, and the official having control thereof shall have such wording placed thereon as prescribed herein, and whoever drives any automobile, truck or other motor vehicle belonging to the State upon the streets of any town or city or upon a public highway without such inscription printed thereon shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 122.]

Art. 822. Mirror.—Whoever shall operate or permit to be operated upon a public highway, a commercial motor vehicle which is not equipped with a mirror placed and maintained so that the operator shall at all times be able to see other vehicles approaching from the rear, shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 169; Acts 1923, p. 159.]

Art. 823. Operating overloaded vehicle.—Any owner of a commercial motor vehicle who operates or permits the same to be operated upon a public highway while loaded with a load weighing over ten per cent in excess of its registered carrying capacity, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 824. Operating overweight vehicle.—Whoever operates or permit[s] to be operated upon a public highway a commercial motor vehicle, trailer, semi-trailer or tractor whose gross weight, including load, is greater than 650 pounds per inch width of tire, or more than 6000 pounds on any one wheel, or whose body is wider than 90 inches, shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 158.]

Art. 825. License plate for trailer or tractor.—Whoever operates upon a public highway a motor vehicle, trailer, semi-trailer or tractor which has not attached thereto so as to be plainly visible from the rear, a license plate for the calendar year then current, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 155.]

Art. 826. Tire equipment of trailer or tractor.—Whoever shall operate or permit to be operated upon a public highway a motor vehicle, trailer, semi-trailer or tractor equipped with solid rubber tires less than one inch in thickness at any point from the surface to the rim, or if equipped with pneumatic tires when one or more of such tires has been removed, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 827. [1570-1-2-3-4-5] Street railways.—All persons or corporations owning or operating street railways in or upon the public streets of any town or city of not less than forty thousand inhabitants are required:

1. To carry children of the age of twelve years or less for one-half the fare regularly collected for the transportation of adults. This law shall not apply to street cars carrying children or students to and from schools, colleges or other institutions of learning situated, at a distance of one mile or more beyond the limits of the incorporated city or town from which said cars run.

2. To sell or provide for the sale of tickets in lots of twenty, each good for one trip over the line or lines owned or operated by such person or corporation, for one-half the regular fare collected for the transportation of adults, to students not more than seventeen years of age in actual attendance upon any academic, public or private school of grades not higher than the grades of the public high schools situated within, or adjacent to the town or city in which such railway is located. Such tickets are required to be sold only upon the presentation by the student desiring to purchase them of the written certificate of the principal of the school which he attends showing that he is not more than seventeen years old, is in regular attendance upon such school and is within the grades herein provided. Such tickets are not required to be sold to such students and shall not be used except during the months when such schools are in actual session and such students shall be transported at half fare only when they present such tickets.

3. To transport free of charge children of the age of five years or less when attended by a passenger of above said age.

4. To accord to all passengers referred to in this article the same rights as to the use of transfers issued by their own or other lines as are or may be accorded to passengers paying full fare.

Any such person or any officer or employé of any such corporation or other person who knowingly violates any provision of this article, or any person who misrepresents the age or the grade of any person for the purpose of securing the reduced fare herein provided for, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1903, p. 132.]

850. Resisting improvement commissioners or engineers.
851. Resisting navigation and canal officer.
852. Resisting drainage district officer.
853. Resisting water control officer.

Article 828. [827] [486] [408] Refusal to serve as overseer.—If any person subject to public road duty under the laws of this State shall wilfully fail or refuse to serve as overseer of any road in his road district or precinct, when duly appointed as such overseer by the commissioners court, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 67.]

Art. 829. [828] [487] [409] Failure of duty as overseer.—If any overseer of a public road shall wilfully fail, neglect or refuse to perform any duty imposed upon him by law, or shall so fail, neglect or refuse to keep the roads, bridges and causeways in his precinct or district clear of obstructions and in good order, or shall wilfully suffer such roads, bridges or causeways to remain uncleared and out of repair for twenty days at any one time, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Id.]

Art. 830. [829] [488] [410] Overseer to mark roads, etc.—If any overseer of a public road shall fail, within six months after his appointment as such, to measure the road or roads in his precinct or district and set up posts of lasting timber or stone at the end of each mile leading from the court house or some other noted place or town, and to mark on such posts in legible words and figures the distance in miles to such court house or other noted place, or shall fail, when any such post is destroyed or removed, to replace the same with another marked as the original; or shall fail to affix or set up, at the forks of all public roads, or conspicuously and permanently at the intersections of all first and second class public roads, in his precinct or district, index or sign boards with directions plainly marked thereon stating the most noted place to which each of said roads lead, he shall be fined five dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 67, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 57, Acts 1923, p. 59.]

Art. 831. [830] [489] Failure of duty as road commissioner.—Any road commissioner who shall wilfully fail to comply with any duty required of him shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1889, p. 135.]

Art. 832. [831] [290] Failure of duty as road superintendent.—Any road superintendent who shall wilfully fail or refuse to comply with any provisions of law or order of the commissioners court shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense. [Sec. 21, p. 163, Acts 1891.]

Art. 833. Forbidding use of highway.—The county commissioners of any precinct, or county road superintendent of any county, or road supervisor whose road is affected, may have the authority by posting notices on the highways when from wet weather or recent construction or repairs such cannot be safely used without probable serious damage to same, or when the bridge or culverts on same are unsafe, to forbid the use of such highway or section thereof by any vehicle or loads of such weight or tires of such character as will unduly damage such highway. The notices provided for herein shall state the maximum load permitted and the time such use is prohibited and shall be posted upon the highway in such place as will enable the drivers to make detours to avoid the restricted highways or portions thereof.

If the owner or operator of any such vehicle feels himself aggrieved by such action, he may complain in writing to the county judge of such county, setting forth the nature of his grievance. Upon the filing of such complaint the county judge shall forthwith set down for hearing the issue thus raised for a day certain, not more than three days later, and shall give notice in writing to such official of the day and purpose of each hearing, and at such hearing the county judge shall hear testimony offered by the parties respectively, and upon conclusion thereof, shall render judgment sustaining, revoking or modifying such order heretofore made by the county road superintendent or road supervisor, and the judgment of the county judge shall be final as to the issues raised. If upon such hearing the judgment sustains the order of the county road superintendent or road supervisor and it appears that any violation of same has been committed by the complainant since posting such notices, he shall be subject to the same penalty hereinafter provided for such offense as if the same had been committed subsequent to the rendition of such judgment made upon such hearing.

Any party guilty of violating the provisions and directions of such order of the county road superintendent or road supervisor, before or after it has been so approved by such judgment of the county judge shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 170, Acts 1923, p. 160.]

Art. 834. Closing roads and bridges.—The commissioners court of any county subject to this law acting upon their own motion, or through the superintendent where one is employed, shall have the power and authority to regulate the tonnage of trucks and heavy vehicles which by reason of the construction of the vehicle or its weight and tonnage of the load shall tend to rapidly deteriorate or destroy the roads, bridges and culverts along the particular road or highway sought to be protected, and notices shall be posted and shall state the maximum load permitted and the time such use is prohibited, and shall be posted upon the highway in such places as will enable the drivers to make detours to avoid the restricted highways or portions thereof.

If the owner or operator of any such vehicle feels himself aggrieved by such action, he may complain in writing to the county judge of such county, setting forth the nature of his grievance. Upon the filing of such complaint, the county judge shall forthwith set down for hearing the issue thus raised for a certain day, not more than three days later, and shall give notice in writing to such road official of the day and purpose of such hearing, and at such hearing the county judge shall hear testimony offered by the parties respectively, and upon conclusion thereof shall render judgment sustaining, revoking or modifying such order theretofore made by the county road superintendent, and the judgment of the county judge shall be final as to the issues so raised.

If upon such hearing the judgment sustains the order of the county superintendent, and it appears that any violation of same had been committed by the complainant since posting such notices, he shall be subject to the same penalty hereinafter provided for such offense as if same had been committed subsequent to the rendition of such judgment made upon such hearing.

Any party guilty of violating the provisions and directions of such order of the county road superintendent after it has been so approved by such judgment of the county judge shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 133, Acts 1923, p. 355.]

Art. 835. [832] [491] [411] Failure to work road.—If any person liable to work upon the public roads after being legally summoned shall fail or refuse to attend either in person or by able and competent substitute, or fail or refuse to furnish his team or tools at the time and place designated by the person summoning him, or having attended shall fail or refuse to perform good service or any other duty required of him by law or the person under whom he may work, or if any one fails to comply with any duty requested of him as provided by the statutes providing for a systematic method of road maintenance, he shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 60, Acts 1901, p. 280, Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 138.]

Art. 836. [833] [493] [412] Neighborhood roads.—Whenever the commissioners court shall duly declare the boundary lines between the lands of different persons, or any section line, or any direct line through an inclosure containing 1280 acres or more of land, a public highway in accordance with law, if a person or owner shall fail, neglect or refuse for twelve months after legal notice thereof to leave open his land free from all obstructions for fifteen feet on his side of the line designated, he shall be fined not more than twenty dollars for each month after the twelve months aforesaid in which he may so fail, neglect or refuse. [Acts 1876, p. 69; Acts 1884, S. S., p. 22.]

Art. 837. [834] [494] [413] Leaving gates open on third class roads.—Any person placing a gate on or across any third-class road, or on or across any road such as is designated in article 836 shall be required to keep said gate and the approaches to the same in good order, and the gate shall be ten feet wide and so constructed as to cause no unnecessary delay to the traveling public in opening and shutting the same; and provide a fastening to hold said gate open until the passengers go through. Such person shall place a permanent hitching post and stile block on each side of and within sixty feet of such gate. Any person who may place a gate on or across a third-class road, or on or across any road such as is designated in article 836 who shall wilfully or negligently fail to comply with any requirement of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty dollars for each offense, and each week of such failure is a separate offense. Whoever wilfully or negligently leaves open any gate on or across any third-class road, or on or across any road such as is designated in article 836, shall be fined as above provided for. [Id.]

Art. 838. Unlawfully taking water.—Whoever shall wilfully take, divert, or appropriate any of the water of this State, or the use of such water, for any purpose, without first complying with all the provisions of the statutes regulating such use shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months or both. Each day that such taking, diversion or appropriation of water shall continue shall constitute a separate offense; and the possession of such water, except when the right to its use is acquired in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be prima facie proof of guilt. [Acts 1917, p. 219.]

Art. 839. Diverting stored water.—Any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district having in possession and control storm, flood or rain waters conserved or stored, under the provisions of this law, may enter into contract to supply same to any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district having the right to acquire such use; provided that the price and terms of such contract shall be just and reasonable and without discrimination and subject to the same revision and control as provided by law for other water rates and charges. To convey and deliver storm, flood or rain water from the place or [of] storage to the place of use, as provided herein, it shall be lawful for any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district to use the banks and beds of any flowing natural stream within this State, under and in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Board of Water Engineers, and such board shall prescribe rules and regulations for such purpose. No person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who has not acquired the right to the use of such conserved or stored waters as provided in this article shall take, use or divert same. Any person, or the agent, officer, employé or representative of any association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district who shall wilfully interfere with the passage of, or take, divert or appropriate such conserved or stored water during the passage and delivery thereof, as provided in this article, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months, or both. Each day that such taking, diversion or appropriation may be made shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1917, p. 224.]

Art. 840. Sale of permanent water rights.—Whoever sells or offers for sale any permanent water right, without having complied with the provisions of the statute relating to certified filings, or for the uses and purposes purporting to be conveyed by such permanent water right, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Acts 1917, p. 225.]

Art. 841. Interfering with headgates, etc.—Whoever shall wilfully open, close, change or interfere with any headgate or water box without lawful authority, or who shall wilfully use water or conduct water in and through his ditch or upon his land, to which water he was not entitled, shall be fined not less than ten and not more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months. The possession or use of water to which the person using or possessing same shall not be lawfully entitled shall be prima facie proof of the guilt of the person so using or in possession of same. [Acts 1917, p. 227.]

Art. 842. Unlawfully diverting water.—No person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall take or divert any of the water of the ordinary flow, underflow, or storm flow of any stream, water course or watershed in this State into any other natural stream, water course or watershed, to the prejudice of any person or property situated within the watershed from which such water is proposed to be taken or diverted.

Before any person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall take any water from any natural stream, water course, or watershed in this State into any other watershed, such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district shall make application to the Board of Water Engineers for a permit so to take or divert such waters, and no such permit shall be issued by the board until after full hearing before said board as to the rights to be affected thereby.

Whoever shall take or divert any waters from one natural stream, water course or watershed into any other watershed contrary to the provisions of this article, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for any term not exceeding six months. Each day that such taking or diversion shall continue shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1917, p. 231.]

Art. 843. Water from nuisance.—Any person, directly, or as agent, who operates or attempts to operate any works, or who uses any water under contract with any canal or irrigation system that has been previously declared to be a public nuisance shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars or be confined in jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Acts 1917, p. 234.]

Art. 844. Wasting water.—Any person owning or acquiring any possessory rights to lands contiguous to any canal or irrigation system and who acquires the right to the use of water from such canal or irrigation system by contract, who wilfully permits the excessive or wasteful use of water by his agent, servant or employé, or who wilfully permits water to be wasted and not applied to a beneficial purpose, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not more than ninety days, or both. [Acts 1917, p. 233.]

Art. 845. "Artesian well."—An artesian well is an artificial water well in which, if properly cased, the waters will rise by natural pressure above the first impervious stratum below the surface of the ground. [Acts 1917, p. 232.]

Art. 846. "Waste."—Waste in relation to artesian wells is defined to be the causing, suffering or permitting the waters of an artesian well to run into any river, creek, or other natural water course or drain, superficial or underground channel, bayou, or into any sewer, street, road, highway, or upon the land of any other person than that of the owner of such well, or upon the public lands, or to run or percolate through the strata above that in which the water is found unless it be used for the purposes and in the manner in which it may be lawfully used on the premises of the owner of such well. Nothing herein shall prevent the use of such water, if suitable, for proper irrigation of trees standing along or upon any street, road, or highway, or for ornamental ponds or fountains, or the propagation of fish, or for any purpose authorized by law. [Acts 1917, p. 233.]

Art. 847. Waste from artesian well.—Whoever wilfully causes or knowingly permits waste as defined in relation to artesian wells shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not more than ninety days, or both. [Acts 1917, p. 234.]

Art. 848. Log of artesian well.—Any person boring or causing to be bored any artesian well shall keep a complete and accurate record of the depth and thickness and character of the different strata penetrated, and when such well is completed, shall transmit, by registered mail, to the Board of Water Engineers, a copy of such record. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 233.]

Art. 849. Hindering water improvement district work.—The directors of any Water Improvement District and the engineer and employés thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any lands within said district, for the purpose of examining same, locating reservoirs, canals, dams, pumping plants, and all other improvements, to make maps and profiles thereof and are hereby authorized to go upon the lands beyond the boundaries of such districts in any county for the purposes stated, and for any other purposes necessarily connected therewith, whether herein enumerated or not. Whoever shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any such officer or employé from entering any lands for any such purpose shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer or employé. [Acts 1917, p. 199.]

Art. 850. Resisting improvement commissioners or engineers.—The district supervisors of any levee improvement district, and the district engineer and his assistants, from the time of their appointment, and the State reclamation engineer and his deputies, are hereby authorized to go upon any lands or waters for the purpose of examining the same and locating all levees and other improvements, making plans, surveys, maps, and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help and instruments, without subjecting themselves to an act of trespass. Any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any of such officers from entering any lands or waters for such purposes shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer. [Acts 1909, p. 152; Acts 1915, p. 244.]

Art. 851. Resisting navigation and canal officer.—The navigation and canal commissioners of any district and the engineers from the time of their appointment are hereby authorized to go upon any lands lying within said district for the purpose of examining the same, making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and instruments, without subjecting themselves to action for trespass. Any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any such officer from entering any land for such purpose shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer. [Acts 1909, p. 45.]

Art. 852. Resisting drainage district officer.—The drainage commissioners of any drainage district and the civil engineer from the time of their appointment are authorized to go upon any lands lying within any such district for the purpose of establishing the same, locating the canals, drains, ditches, levees making plans, surveys, maps and profiles, and are authorized to go upon any lands beyond the boundaries of such district and in any county for the purpose of examining the same and locating the necessary outlets of any canal, drain or ditch of such district, together with all necessary teams, help, tools and implements. Any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any of such officers from entering any land for such purposes shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars for each day he shall so prevent or hinder such officer. [Acts 1911, p. 258.]

Art. 853. Resisting water control officer.—The directors of any Water Control and Preservation District and the engineers and employes thereof are hereby authorized to go upon any land lying within said district for the purpose of examining same for locating dams, bulkheads, jetties, locks, gates or any other character of improvement or construction necessary to the accomplishment of the purposes of the district, to make maps and profiles thereof, and are hereby authorized to go upon lands beyond the boundaries of such districts for the purposes stated and for any other purposes necessarily connected therewith whether herein enumerated or not. Any person who shall wilfully prevent or prohibit any such officer or employe from entering upon such land for such purpose shall be fined one hundred dollars for each day he shall so prevent or prohibit such officer or employe. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 95.]

CHAPTER THREE

FERRIES, TOLL ROADS AND BRIDGES

Art.

- 854. Keeping ferry without license.
- 855. Failure to keep good boats, etc.
- 856. Trespassing on toll road.
- 857. Obstructing toll road.
- 858. Trespassing on toll bridge.

Article 854. [838] [497] [415] Keeping ferry without license.—Whoever shall keep any ferry over any water course, navigable stream, lake or bay in this State, and shall charge or receive any money, property, or other valuable thing for crossing passengers or property at such ferry, without first obtaining license as required by law, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1860, p. 98.]

Art. 855. [839] [498] [416] Failure to keep good boats, etc.—If the owner of any licensed ferry in this State shall fail to keep at all times good, safe and substantial boats, sufficient in number for the ready accommodation of the public, or shall fail to keep the banks on each side of the ferry in good repair, and so graded that the ascent shall not exceed one foot in every seven feet from the water's edge to the top of the bank, or shall fail to give ready attendance on all passengers desiring to cross with their animals, wagons or other property; or shall charge higher rates of ferriage than those fixed by the proper authority, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1875, p. 58.]

Art. 856. Trespassing on toll road.—Whoever trespasses or enters upon the property or right of way of a toll road corporation without its consent except as to crossings provided by law shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 146.]

Art. 857. Obstructing toll road.—Whoever in any manner obstructs any toll road, or places thereon any thing or substance which would be reasonably calculated to result in injury to any patron of such road or damage to any vehicle which might be run over the same, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 858. Trespassing on toll bridge.—Whoever wilfully enters upon any toll bridge maintained wholly or partly within this State, without the consent of those in charge of such bridge, with the intent to avoid the payment of the toll lawfully chargeable for crossing the same shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 154.]

CHAPTER FOUR

PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

Art.

- 859. Injuring or defacing public building.
- 860. "Public building."
- 861. Driving in capitol grounds.
- 862. Injuring roadway, grounds or property.
- 863. Pass keys to capitol.
- 864. Taking property from public grounds.
- 865. Turning loose too many stock.
- 866. Fences without gates.
- 867. Procedure.
- 868. Illegal fencing or use of public lands.

Article 859. [840] [499] [417] Injuring or defacing public building.—Whoever shall wilfully injure or deface any public building or the furniture therein shall be fined not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars. The word "deface" in this chapter shall be held to apply to writing, carving or scratching on the walls or plastering or furniture of said building, or staining the same with paint or any other article which will produce a discoloration of the same. [Acts 1862, p. 51; Acts 1888, p. 5.]

Art. 860. [841] [500] [418] "Public building."—The term "public building," as used [used] in this chapter, means the capitol and all other buildings in the capital grounds at Austin, including the executive mansion, the various State asylums and all buildings belonging to either, all college or university buildings erected by the State, all court houses and jails and all other buildings held for public use by any department or branch of government, State, county or municipal. The specific enumeration of the above shall not exclude other buildings not named, properly coming within the meaning and description of a public building.

Art. 861. [843] [502] [420] Driving in capitol grounds.—Whoever shall drive, ride or lead, or cause to be driven, ridden or led, any horse or other animal into the capitol grounds at Austin or into the inclosure of the State cemetery, without the consent of the keeper or superintendent of said grounds or cemetery, shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 165.]

Art. 862. [844-5-6] Injuring roadway, grounds or property.—No person shall drive, or cause to be driven, over or along any roadway in any of the public grounds of this State, any heavy vehicle for carrying merchandise, or vehicle heavily loaded or otherwise reasonably calculated to injure or deface such roadways or to make their maintenance more expensive; or drive or cause to be driven any vehicle or conveyance of any kind, or drive, or cause to be ridden any animal of any kind over, across, or along any of the footpaths or walks in such grounds or on the turf of such grounds or at any place therein, except on and along the roadways; or cause or permit any horse not being driven to some vehicle or ridden, or any cow, sheep, goat, hog or other animal reasonably calculated to injure said grounds or anything pertaining thereto to go into or remain in any portion of said grounds; or cut, pull, break, bruise, remove, or in anywise injure any tree, or shrub or vegetation of any kind growing thereon; or disturbing any birds'

nesses or eggs; or in anywise injure, deface or in any way interfere with any chair, bench, seat or hydrant, frame, fence, gate, or structure of any kind therein or thereon or connected therewith; or wash or bathe in or in any way pollute the waters of any lake or pond, or stream therein; or obscenely or indecently expose any part of his person, or do any indecent act thereon. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. This article shall not apply to anything done by the lawful custodian of the public grounds on which said act is performed, or under his authority or direction, and which is done in the reasonable discharge of his duties as such custodian, or in the use of such grounds for the purpose to which they are dedicated by the State. The term "public grounds," as used in this law, includes all grounds owned by the State, and used and maintained by it in connection with any public building or institution, whether for governmental, educational, eleemosynary or other purpose, and all State cemeteries and all parks maintained at the expense of the public. [Acts 1903, p. 187.]

Art. 863. [848] [503a] Pass keys to capitol.—Any person who shall make or have made or keep in his possession a pass or master key to the rooms and apartments in the State Capitol, unless authorized to do so, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1895, p. 79.]

Art. 864. [849] [504] [422] Taking property from public grounds.—Whoever shall take, remove, injure or destroy any public property pertaining to any public building or to the grounds belonging to such building shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Art. 865. [852] Turning loose too many stock.—No purchaser or other person than the lessee of public school, asylum and public lands shall be permitted to turn loose within such lessee's inclosure more than one head of horses, mules or cattle, or in lieu thereof four head of sheep or goats for every ten acres so purchased, owned or controlled by him and uninclosed, and whoever violates this article shall be fined one dollar for each head of stock he may turn loose and each thirty days violation hereof shall be a separate offense. [Act April 1, 1887, Acts 1895, p. 71, Acts 1897, p. 187, Acts 1901, p. 296.]

Art. 866. [508] [422d] Fences without gates.—Any person who has used any of the pasture lands by joining fences or otherwise, who shall build or maintain more than three miles lineal measure of fences running in the same general direction without a gate way in same, which must be at least ten feet wide and shall not be locked or kept closed so as to obstruct free ingress and egress, shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1884, p. 37, Acts 1887, p. 90.]

Art. 867. [855-6] Procedure.—In all prosecutions under the preceding article, the provisions of article 1380 shall apply. The preceding article shall not apply to persons who have heretofore settled upon lands not their own, where the inclosure is two hundred acres or less and where the principal pursuit of such person upon the land is that of agriculture. [Acts 1884, p. 69.]

Art. 868. [860] Illegal fencing or use of public lands.—No person shall fence, use, occupy or appropriate by herding or line-riding, any portion of the public lands of the State, or of the lands belonging to the public free schools or asylums, without having first obtained a lease of such lands from the proper authority. Any person, whether owner of stock, manager, agent, employé or servant who shall fence, use, occupy or appropriate by herding or line-riding any portion of such lands without a lease thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and imprisoned in jail for not less than three months nor more than two years. Each day of such fencing, occupying, using or appropriating shall be a separate offense, and any person so offending may be prosecuted in the county where any portion of the land lies, or to which it may be attached for judicial purposes, or in the county of Travis. "Fencing" within the meaning of this article is the erection of any structure of wood, wire, or both, or any other material intended to prevent the passage of cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats or hogs, whether the same shall inclose lands on all sides or be erected on one or more sides. Any appropriation of land belonging to any particular fund or of any public land of this State without having first obtained a lease thereof, by fencing of any kind or by inclosures consisting partly of fencing and partly of natural obstacles or impediments to the passage of live stock shall be deemed unlawful appropriation, punishable as provided in this article for appropriating such lands. Each day said land is appropriated shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1887, p. 89, Acts 1895, p. 74.]

Art. 888. Protection against depredation of wild fowls or animals.—Whenever any wild birds, wild fowls, or wild animals, protected under the provisions of this chapter, are destroying crops or domestic animals, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is hereby authorized to permit the killing of such wild birds or wild animals, without regard to the open or closed season, bag limit, or night shooting; but before such permission shall be granted, the commissioner aforesaid, shall be furnished with a statement of facts, sworn to by persons whose property is being injured, with the endorsement of the county judge of the county in which the crops are being destroyed or domestic animals being injured or killed, to the effect that the sworn statement is true and that such crops or domestic animals can only be preserved by the granting of such permit. Such permit when issued shall distinctly state the time for which it is granted, the area which it covers, and a designation of the person or persons permitted to kill the noxious birds and animals named in such permit. Such permit shall not authorize the killing of migratory birds protected by the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act, unless the applicant shall first procure a permit from the United States Department of Agriculture, in compliance with the regulations of such Migratory Bird Treaty Act.

Art. 888a. [883] Taking game bird by net or trap.—Whoever sets a net or trap or other device for taking any bird mentioned in article 872, or who snares or takes by such devices any such bird, without first obtaining from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner a permit in writing so to do, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Sec. 18, Id.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, repeals Acts 1919, 36th Leg., ch. 157, from which this article was taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 889. Specimens for taxidermist.—Any person shall have the right to ship or carry to and from a taxidermist or tannery, for mounting or preserving purposes or to his home, any specimen or part of specimen of the wild birds or wild animals of this State, where same have been lawfully taken or killed by such person, and when such specimens or parts of specimens are not for sale, but before making shipment as herein provided, such person shall first make the following affidavit in writing before some officer authorized to administer oaths, and deliver same to the common carrier transporting same, or its agents: State of Texas)

County of _____) Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____, who after being duly sworn, upon oath says: I live at _____ in the County of _____, State of _____; that I have personally killed _____, which I desire to ship from _____ to _____ County, to _____, State of _____, which I have lawfully killed for my own use and not for sale, and which shall not be bartered or sold; that I have not killed during the present hunting season more than the bag limit, as provided by law, of any of the wild game birds, wild fowl, or wild animals. Signature _____

Sworn to and subscribed before me this _____ day of _____, A. D. 192—.

Office held _____

The affidavit thus prepared by the affiant shall be attached to the shipment, and shall not be removed during the period of transportation. If such game is carried by the person killing same, it shall not be necessary to attach the affidavit herein set forth.

Art. 890. Penalty.—Any person who so ships any game from any place within this State without making the foregoing affidavit; or any agent of any express company or other common carrier who receives any shipment without it being accompanied by such affidavit and list attached; or any auditor or conductor or other person in charge of any railroad train, who knowingly permits any person to carry any wild birds, wild fowl or wild animals without such affidavit being made, as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

All express agents, conductors, and auditors of trains, captains of boats, and the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies are hereby empowered to administer oaths necessary to the shipment of game, and for administering such oaths they are hereby authorized to collect the sum of twenty-five (25c) cents from the person making such oath.

Art. 891. Destroying nests or eggs of birds.—It shall be unlawful for any person to destroy or take the nest, eggs, or young of any wild game bird, wild bird, or wild fowl, protected by this chapter, except as provided herein. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 892. Certain animals declared to be game animals.—Wild deer, wild elk, wild antelope, wild Rocky Mountain sheep, wild black bear, and wild gray and red squirrels, cat squirrels or fox squirrels, are hereby declared to be game animals within the meaning of this Act.

Art. 893. Forfeiture of license.—Any person convicted of violating any provision of the game laws of this State shall thereby automatically forfeit his license for said season. Any such person so convicted of violating the game laws shall not be entitled to receive from the State a license to hunt for one year immediately following the date of his conviction; and it shall be unlawful for any person who is convicted of violating any of the provisions of the game laws of this State to purchase or possess a hunting license for a period of one year immediately following date of such conviction; and it shall also be unlawful for any person convicted of violating any of the game laws of this State to hunt with a gun in this State for a period of one year immediately following date of such conviction.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 894. Form of license.—All hunting licenses issued shall have printed across their faces the year for which they are issued; they shall bear the name and address or residence of the person to whom issued, and shall give the approximate weight, height, age, color of hair, and color of eyes of such person, in order that proper identification may be had in the field, and shall have printed thereon a statement, to be subscribed to in ink by the person to whom issued, that such person will not exceed in any one day the bag limit as printed on the license. Such license shall be dated on the date of issuance, and shall remain in effect until the last day of August thereafter; provided that non-resident or alien licenses shall have printed thereon the following: This license does not entitle the holder thereof to hunt upon the enclosed and posted lands of another, without the consent of the owner or agent.

Art. 895. County clerk to issue license.—The county clerk of each county in this State, is hereby authorized to issue hunting licenses under his official seal, to all persons complying with the provisions of this Act, and shall fill out correctly and preserve for the use of the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commission, the stubs attached thereto; and the county clerk shall keep a complete and correct record of hunting licenses issued, showing the name and place of residence of each license and the serial number and date of the license issued. Said license stubs and penalties and forfeitures of bonds imposed and collected for violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, shall belong to the special game fund of this State, and shall be paid over by the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner, to the State Treasurer during the first week of each month, and shall be credited to such special game fund; and such fund shall be used solely for the purpose of wild bird and game protection; for the creation, purchase, and maintenance of game sanctuaries and public hunting-ground; for the purchase, introduction, propagation, and distribution of game and wild birds; for the dissemination of information pertaining to the conservation and economic value of wild animal life; and in the employment of special deputy game commissioners, payment of their necessary expenses and the purchase and supply of means to enable the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies to enforce the game laws of this State. All expenditures shall be verified by affidavit to the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner; and on the approval of such expenditures by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the State to draw his warrant on the Treasurer of the State for the amount of such expenditures in favor of the person claiming the same, such warrant to be paid out of the special game fund. All moneys and all balances now in such fund from moneys already paid into the State Treasury, or that may hereafter be paid into said fund through or because of this chapter, are made available as soon as paid into the State Treasury, and are hereby specifically appropriated to the use of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner for the several purposes herein specified. The county clerk shall, within ten days after the close of each calendar month, make out a detailed report under the seal of his office, showing the serial number and date of each license issued during the month covered by the report, and the name and address of the person to whom issued, and shall forward such report, with remittance of fees due the State, to the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commission at Austin, and said Commission shall credit such county clerk with the amount so remitted. As soon as possible after the licenses in a license book have all been issued, and only the stubs remain therein, such county clerk shall forward such used license book to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission at Austin, in order that such Commission may furnish necessary information regarding holders of licenses to any officers in the State.

Art. 896. License fees under control of council.—All license fees and hunting-boat registration fees collected under this Act, and all fines that may be made from this fund shall be expended for land or other real estate only upon the authorization of a majority vote of a council composed of Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, the Attorney General of Texas, and the State Comptroller, who shall act on this council during their respective terms of office.

Art. 897. Game unlawfully taken to be disposed of by commissioner.—All wild birds, wild fowl, or wild game animals, or parts thereof, which have been killed, taken in any way, shipped, held in storage, or found in a public eating place, contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall be disposed of by order of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies by donating same to charitable institutions, hospitals, or needy widows and orphans. If such birds, fowl or animals mentioned in this article are required to be placed in cold storage, the expense of such storage shall, upon his conviction, be placed in a bill of cost against the defendant or person from whom they were taken.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or any of his deputies shall have the right to search the game bag or any other receptacle of any kind whenever such Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner or his deputy has reason to suspect that such game bag, or other receptacle or any buggy, wagon, automobile, or other vehicle may contain game unlawfully killed or taken, and any person who refuses to permit the searching of the same, or who refuses to stop such vehicle when requested to do so by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or his deputy, shall be fined not less than ten ($10.00) nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 898. Commissioner to keep lists of fees and fines.—It shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to keep in his office, at Austin, a complete list of the license fees and fines collected; said records shall be kept open for inspection of the State Comptroller and of the public. At the close of each calendar month the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner, shall file with the Comptroller, a report in writing, showing all fines, licenses, and other fees collected, their disposition, and any other particulars which he may deem proper.

Art. 899. Hunting under the license of another.—Any person who shall hunt under the license issued to any other person, or any person who shall permit any other person to hunt under a license issued to him, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 900. Hunting for hire.—It shall be unlawful for any person to hire or employ any other person, or to be hired or employed by any other person, by the payment, or by the promise of payment, of money or any other thing of value, to hunt any bird, wild fowl, or game animal protected by this chapter. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars. Provided, that if any person who has received money, or a promise of money or other thing of value, to hunt any wild bird, wild fowl, or game animal protected and mentioned by this chapter, testifies against the person employing him, all prosecutions against him in the case in which he testifies shall be dismissed.

Art. 901. Hunting from automobile, airplane or boat.—It is hereby declared unlawful for any person at any time and in any manner, to hunt, take, capture, or kill, or attempt to hunt, take, capture, or kill any of the wild game birds[,] wild game fowl, or wild game animals, protected by the laws of this State, from an automobile, an airplane, a powerboat, a sailboat, any boat under sail, or any floating device towed by powerboat or sailboat. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 902. Hunting with headlight.—It shall be unlawful for any person at any time of the year to hunt deer or any other animal or bird protected by this chapter, by the aid of what is commonly known as a headlight or hunting-lamp, or by artificial light attached to an automobile, or by the means of any form of artificial light. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than thirty (30) days nor more than ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. The possession of a headlight, or any other hunting light used on or about the head when hunting at night, between sunset and one-half hour before sunrise, by any person hunting in a community where deer are known to range, shall be prima facie evidence that the person found in possession of said headlight, or other hunting light, is violating the provisions of this article.

Art. 903. Boat owner to have license.—It is hereby declared unlawful for any person owning or navigating a sailboat or powerboat, to receive on board such boat for pay any person or persons engaged in hunting, before such person owning or navigating such boat shall have applied for and received a license from the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, granting him the right for one year, to receive and carry on his boat persons engaged in hunting. Before such license is issued, the person applying for it shall pay to the Game[,] Fish, and Oyster Commissioner or one of his deputies, the sum of two ($2.00) dollars, and shall file with such Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, the name of his vessel, her accommodations for passengers, and the number of her crew and shall file with the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, an affidavit to the effect that he will not violate any of the provisions of this chapter, and will endeavor to prevent anyone whom he carries on his boat from violating any of the provisions of this chapter, and that he will not carry any hunter on his boat who does not possess a hunting license. Whenever any boat owner or navigator fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of this section, the Game, Fish, and Oyster Commissioner is authorized and empowered to cancel his license without a refund or return of the license fee paid; and no license shall be renewed or issued to him thereafter for a period of one year.

Any person who carries out any hunting parties for reward or pay of any kind without first having procured his license, as provided in this article, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 904. Hunting with gun; license for.—No citizen of this State shall hunt outside of the county of his residence with a gun without first having procured from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, or from any county clerk in this State, a license to hunt, and for which he shall pay either of such officers the sum of two ($2.00) dollars; fifteen cents of which amount shall be retained by said officer as his fee for collecting.

The fee for a non-resident citizen or alien hunting license shall be twenty-five ($25.00) dollars; three ($3.00) dollars of such amount shall be retained by the officer issuing such license as his fee for collecting, issuing, and making report on license so issued and for remitting the remaining twenty-two ($22.00) dollars to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Any person hunting with a gun out of the county of his residence without a license authorizing him to hunt out of the county of his residence, or any person who fails or refuses on demand by any officer to show such officer his hunting license required of him by this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars; provided, that the provisions of this article requiring hunting license shall not apply to persons under seventeen years of age.

Art. 904a. Non-resident and alien license.—Any non-resident of this State or any alien who shall hunt wild game and birds in this State without first securing a license to hunt from the Commissioner or his deputy or the county clerk shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 298.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, repeals Acts 1919, 36th Leg., ch. 157, from which this article was taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 905. Commissioner to enforce game law.

—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies shall have the same power and authority as sheriffs to serve criminal processes in connection with cases growing out of the violations of this chapter, shall have the same power as sheriffs to require aid in executing such process, and shall be entitled to receive the same fees as are provided by law for sheriffs in misdemeanor cases.

Said Commissioner or any of his deputies may arrest without a warrant any person found by them in the act of violating any of the laws for the protection and propagation of game, wild birds or fish, and take such person forthwith before a magistrate having jurisdiction. Such arrests may be made on Sunday, and in which case the person arrested shall be taken before a magistrate having jurisdiction, and proceeded against as soon as may be, on a week day following the arrest.

Art. 906. Deputy commissioners to enforce law.—It is hereby made a special duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to enforce the statutes of this State for the protection and preservation of wild game and wild birds; and to bring, or cause to be brought, actions and proceedings in the name of the State of Texas, to recover any and all fines and penalties provided for in the laws now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted, relating to wild game and wild birds. Said Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner may make complaint and cause proceedings to be commenced against any person for violating any of the laws for the protection and propagation of game or birds without the sanction of the county attorney of the county in which such proceedings are commenced; and in such cases he shall not be required to furnish security for costs.

Art. 907. Prima-facie evidence.—The possession of any wild game bird, wild game fowl, or wild game animal mentioned in this chapter, whether dead or alive, during the time when killing or taking is prohibited shall be prima facie evidence of the guilt of the person in possession during the time when killing or taking is prohibited by law; provided, however, that it shall not be unlawful to ship or bring any wild game birds, wild fowl, or wild game animals from the Republic of Mexico into this State at any season; provided, that the party bringing the same into this State shall procure from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or from one of his deputies, a permit to bring same into the State, and shall procure from the United States custom officer at the port of entry a statement showing that such game was brought from the Republic of Mexico; and provided, further, that such party comply with the provisions of this Act regulating the shipment and sale of such wild game birds, wild fowls, or game animals.

Art. 908. Hunting on game preserves for pay.

—It is hereby declared unlawful for any person or persons, who may be acting as manager of any club, or the owner of any club, or shooting resort or shooting preserve, or lessor of premises leased for hunting purposes, to receive or accommodate as a guest or member of said club, or shooting resort, or shooting preserve, or lessee of premises leased for hunting purposes, for pay, any person or persons engaged in hunting, before such manager of such club, shooting resort, shooting preserve, or premises leased for hunting purposes, shall have applied for and received a license from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, granting him the right for the year beginning September 1 and ending August 31, following, to receive and accommodate any such person or persons at such club, shooting resort, shooting preserve, or premises leased for hunting purposes.

Before such license is issued the person applying for same shall pay to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner the sum of five ($5.00) dollars, and shall file with the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner the name of said club, shooting resort, shooting preserve or premises leased for hunting purposes, and shall file with the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner an affidavit that he will not violate any of the provisions of this article and will endeavor to prevent guests of said club, shooting resort, shooting preserve, or premises leased for hunting purposes from doing so, and that no guest will be accommodated who has not previously secured a hunting license.

All such managers of clubs, shooting resorts, shooting preserves and premises leased for hunting purposes shall be required to keep a suitable record book, and each guest or member shall be required to register, showing his name and place of residence, license number, and a record of each day's kill of different birds and game, and a complete record must be made to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner by such manager of club, shooting resort, shooting preserve or premises leased for hunting purposes, not later than February 10 of each year.

Whenever any manager of any club, shooting resort, shooting preserve or premises leased for hunting purposes, fails or refuses to comply with any of the provisions of this article, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is authorized and empowered to cancel his license without refund or return of the license fee, and no license shall be renewed or issued to such party, or parties, thereafter for a period of one year.

Any manager of any club, shooting resort, shooting preserve, or premises leased for hunting purposes, who accommodates hunters for reward, without first having secured the necessary license as provided in this article, or failing to comply with all the provisions thereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined the sum of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such fines shall be placed to the credit of the special game fund.

For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article, it shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to have prepared and to furnish to all deputy game commissioners blank license with stubs attached, numbered serially, such license to be called "Shooting Preserve License"; such shooting preserve license shall have printed across the face the year for which it is issued, shall bear the name and address of the licensee, name of club, character of game found on such preserve or lease, and the expiration date of such license. Said license must bear the seal of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, and must be signed by the Commissioner or one of his deputies. On the reverse side of said license shall be printed the open seasons and bag-limit, as provided in this chapter.

Art. 909. Storage after closed season.—All game birds, wild fowl, and game animals, named in this chapter, killed during the open season prescribed therefor, may be possessed during and for an additional ten days after such season is closed. But it shall be unlawful, after such ten days, to place in storage or keep in storage any wild birds, or wild game animals, or parts thereof, named in this chapter. Any person owning or claiming such birds, fowl, or animals, or parts thereof, after such ten days, or any person storing such birds, fowl, or animals, or parts thereof, for such claimant or owner, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less [less] than ten ($10.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, and each bird, fowl or animal, or part thereof, stored in violation of this section shall constitute a separate offense.

Art. 910. Female deer, fawn or young buck.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take, kill, wound, shoot at, hunt or possess, dead or alive, any wild female deer, wild fawn deer or any wild buck deer without a pronged horn, or to possess any deer carcass or green deer hide with all evidence of sex removed.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 911. Chief deputy to act as commissioner.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall appoint a chief deputy commissioner, who shall maintain an office in the Capitol of this State; and said chief deputy commissioner shall take the constitutional oath of office, and shall act as general assistant to the said Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner; and, during the absence, sickness, or disability of the commissioner, he shall exercise the duties of the said commissioner. Said chief deputy commissioner shall devote his entire time to the work of his office. The chief deputy game, fish and oyster commissioner shall, before assuming the duties of his office, file with the Secretary of State a good and sufficient bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be approved by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. It shall be the duty of the chief deputy game, fish and oyster commissioner to prepare and furnish to each county clerk, blank hunting licenses, with stubs attached, numbered serially; and said chief deputy commissioner shall cause an account to be opened in his office with each county clerk, and charge said clerk with the number of licenses furnished him. He shall also open an account with each deputy of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission and charge such deputy with the number of licenses furnished him. Said accounts shall show the serial numbers of such licenses.

Art. 912. Clerk and justice of the peace to remit fines.—It shall be the duty of any justice of the peace, clerk of any court, or any other officer of this State, receiving [receiving] any fine or penalty imposed by any court for violation of any of the laws of this State pertaining to the protection and conservation of wild birds, wild fowl, wild animals, fish, oysters, and other wild life, within ten days from and after the receipt or collection of such fine or penalty, to remit same to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission at Austin, giving docket number of case, name of person fined, and section or article of the law under which conviction was secured, when such laws are required to be enforced by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Art. 913. Propagation and scientific purposes.—Nothing in this Act shall prevent the capture, by any means and at any time, day or night, of wild birds or wild fowl and their nests and eggs, or of wild animals or wild quadrupeds, for zoological gardens or parks, or for propagation purposes, or for scientific purposes; but, before any birds, fowl, animals, quadrupeds, nests, or eggs are taken or molested for the aforesaid purposes, permission must be secured from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, only, by the person desiring so to operate, such person shall make application in the form of an affidavit, in duplicate, setting forth what birds, fowls, animals, quadrupeds, nests, or eggs he desires, and the purposes for which he desires the same; and if such request is for collection of skins, nests, or eggs, for scientific purposes, such application should be accompanied by certificates from two well known ornithologists (where the specimens are birds or their nests or eggs) or mammalogists (where the specimens are animals or quadrupeds) residents of the United States, stating that the applicant is a fit person to be entrusted with such a permit and that they have known him for at least five years past, and the applicant should further be supplied with a Federal scientific collecting permit issued by the Bureau of Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, permitting him or her to collect migratory birds, and the serial number and date of said Federal permit should be furnished by the applicant on said affidavit, where request is made for the collecting of birds and their nests or eggs. Such scientific collecting permit as issued by the State of Texas will authorize the holder thereof to take, possess, and transport, in any manner and at any time, birds and their nests and eggs, for scientific purposes; provided, that before migratory birds, or their nests or eggs, are taken the Federal permit indicated above must be obtained. Such scientific permit shall be issued for the fiscal year and shall be null and void after midnight of December 31st of the year issued.

If any person desires to bring into the State any wild birds or wild animals, dead or alive, or the nests or eggs, of any bird, he shall apply to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, for permission to do so, attaching to such application an affidavit setting forth the number and species of birds or animals, or the nests or eggs of birds, desired to be introduced.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner may refuse to issue permits for any of the purposes set forth in this article if, in his judgment, such application, or party making same, is not satisfactory.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is empowered to prescribe rules and regulations governing the propagation of game birds and animals, and the taking of birds and animals for scientific purposes, and is authorized to cancel any permit issued, when, in his judgment, the holder thereof fails or refuses to comply with such rules and regulations.

In the shipment of skins of protected animals, or the skins or nests or eggs of birds, each package shall have clearly and conspicuously marked, on the outside thereof, the name and address of the sender, the number of the sender's permit, and the statement that it contains specimens of animals, or of birds or their nests or eggs for scientific purposes. A person operating under, or holding a permit for scientific collecting shall report, on or before January 10th, following the expiration of his permit, to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, the number of skins, nests or eggs of each species collected, or transported, together with the disposition of all such specimens not in his possession at the time of making said report, and also a statement covering any scientific data observed during his field collecting that, in his judgment, would be of interest to the ornithological or zoological public.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall, at all times have the power to take in any manner, keep, and transport, anywhere within the State, any of the wild birds or their nests or eggs, or any wild animals, for investigation, propagation, distribution, or scientific purposes.

Any person violating any provision of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars; and each bird, fowl, animal, quadruped, nest, or egg, taken or possessed in violation of this article shall constitute a separate offense.

Art. 914. Special deputy game commissioners.—It shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to appoint special deputy game commissioners, who shall be ex officio deputy game, fish and oyster commissioners to enforce conservation laws in the various districts of the State, with all the powers of the latter to enforce the game, fish and oyster laws of this State. Such special deputy game commissioners shall not receive more than one hundred and fifty ($150.00) dollars per month and expenses. Each special deputy game commissioner shall take the oath of office, and shall give a good and sufficient bond in the sum of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars for the faithful performance of his duties, such bond to be approved by and filed with the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. Such special deputy game commissioners shall hold office at the discretion of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, and shall have all the power[s] in the discharge of their duties as are conferred on the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, in order to enforce conservation laws in the various sections of the State, shall also have the power to appoint deputy game commissioners in any county of the State; and said deputies shall have, in the discharge of their duties, the same powers and authority as are herein provided for the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, and shall be subject to the supervision and control of and removal by said Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner; except that they shall not be authorized to carry on or about their person, saddle, or saddle-bags any pistol, dirk, dagger, slung-shot, sword-cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or any hard substance, Bowie knife or other knife manufactured or sold for the purpose of offense or defense. Such deputy game commissioners shall not receive more than three ($3.00) dollars a day for each day of service performed, together with all necessary expenses incurred, when same have been rendered on sworn account, and when the performance of said services was authorized by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, the chief deputy commissioner, or a special deputy game commissioner, which account shall be approved by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner or chief deputy commissioner, and paid on warrant drawn by the Comptroller.

Art. 915. Season for turkeys.—The open season for killing wild turkeys shall be during November and December. Whoever kills wild turkey hen, or more than three wild turkey gobblers during any one year shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Each gobbler killed above three shall be a separate offense.

Art. 915a. Special deputy commissioners required to enforce game law.—All special deputy game commissioners and deputy game commissioners are hereby empowered and required to enforce the game, fish and oyster laws of this State, and such deputy who violates such laws shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 916. Killing turkeys in certain counties.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take, kill, wound, shoot at, hunt for, or possess, dead or alive any wild turkey gobbler, or turkey hen in the counties of Cameron, Hidalgo, Star, Willacy, Kennedy, Brooks, Kleburg, or Nueces until November 16, 1930, from and after which time it shall be lawful to kill only turkey gobblers as herein provided in this bill.

Art. 917. Game preserves—how acquired.—Any person, firm or corporation owning and in possession of lands in the State of Texas, may transfer by an instrument of writing, duly acknowledged before an officer, authorized under the laws of this State to take acknowledgments, to the State of Texas the right to preserve, protect and introduce for propagation purposes any of the game birds or game animals mentioned in this chapter on the lands mentioned therein, for a period of not less than ten years. Such instrument of writing shall be filed in the office of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, whereupon the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner may at his discretion declare the lands described in said instrument a State Game Preserve, and thereafter for the period named therein shall for all the purposes relating to the preservation, protection and propagation [propagation] of game birds and game animals be under the control of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. The aggregate acreage of all preserves which may be designated in any one county shall never exceed ten per cent of the total acreage of such county. Such preserves shall be numbered in the order of the filing of the instrument therefor. The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall cause notices to be prepared containing the words "State Game Preserve," "Trespassing Prohibited," and cause such notices to be posted at each gate or entrance thereto. All State game preserves established under the provisions of this chapter shall for all purposes of preservation, protection and propagation of game birds and game animals thereon be under the control and management of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, and he and his deputies may at all times enter in and upon such preserves in the performance of their duties.

It shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, pursue, shoot at, kill, take, destroy, or in any manner molest any of the game birds or game animals within the exterior boundaries of any game preserve, and any person who shall violate any provision of this chapter shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 918. Cautioning sportsmen.—It shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies, in addition to their duties provided for in this chapter, to caution sportsmen and other persons while in the woods, marshes, or prairies of the State of danger from fire; and, to the extent of their power, to extinguish all fires left burning by any one, and to give notice, when possible to any and all persons, interested, of fires ranging beyond control to the end that same may be controlled and extinguished.

Art. 919. Power of commissioners to enter on lands.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies shall at all times have the power to enter upon any lands or water where wild game or fish are known to range or stray for the purpose of enforcing the game, and fish laws of this State, and for the purpose of making scientific investigations or for research work as to such wild game or fish, and no action in any court shall be sustained against the commissioner or any of his deputies to prevent their entrance upon lands or waters when acting in their official capacity as herein set forth.

Art. 920. Citizen, non-resident and alien defined.—For the purpose of this chapter, any person, except an alien, who has been a bona fide resident of this State for a period of time exceeding six months, continuously and immediately before applying for a hunting license, shall be considered a citizen of this State.

An alien is any person who is not a natural born citizen of the United States of America, and who has not declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States of America.

A non-resident shall be any person who is a citizen of any other State, or who has not continuously or immediately previous to the time of applying for a hunting license, been a bona-fide resident of the State of Texas, for a period of time more than six months.

Art. 921. Constitutionality.—If any paragraph, section, or part of this chapter shall be held unconstitutional or inoperative, it shall not affect any other paragraph, section, or part of this chapter; and the remainder of this chapter, save the part declared unconstitutional or inoperative, shall continue to be in full force and effect.

Art. 922. Name of bill.—This bill shall be known as the "Boyd-Hubby Game Bill" and shall take effect and be in force from and after September 1, 1925.

Art. 923. Killing birds in closed season.—No person shall kill or take any of the birds or fowls enumerated in Article 872 except during the open season as fixed for each kind of bird or fowl, and if any person shall kill, take or have in his possession, any of the birds or fowls enumerated in Article 872 at any time of the year except during the open season as provided for in this chapter, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 290, Sec. 9.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, repeals Acts 1919, 36th Leg., ch. 157, from which this article was taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 923a. Importing game in closed season.—It shall be unlawful to bring into this State for any purpose whatever during the closed season, either alive or dead, any kind of wild game birds or fowl or animal, enumerated in this chapter, or to bring into this State for sale or exchange or barter or shipment for sale any such bird or fowl or animal, during the open season as set out in this chapter except as provided in article 908. Any person bringing such game, bird or fowl or animal into the State during the closed season or bringing such game bird or fowl or animal for sale or barter or shipment for sale during the open season, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. The bringing in of each game bird or fowl or animal herein interdicted is a separate offense. [Acts C. S. 1919, p. 187.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, repealed Acts 1919, 2nd C. S., ch. 72, from which this act was taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 923b. Protecting bats.—Whoever wilfully kills or in any manner injures any winged mammal known as the common bat shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifteen dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 124.]

Art. 923c. Birds protected by Audubon Society.—After the recording of the lease made by the Commissioner of the General Land Office to the National Association of Audubon Societies for the purpose of protecting birds and bird life on and about the property leased in Kleberg County, known as North Bird Island and South Bird Island and on Green Island in Cameron County and on the group of three islands in Big Bay in Cameron County and on the flats and reefs and shallow waters near all of said islands as described in the laws of this State, it shall be unlawful for any person whomsoever except a representative, an agent or an employé of said Association or a peace officer of this State or of the United States to enter upon such leased area without the knowledge and consent of said association, for the purpose of catching or killing any bird or birds or for the purpose of taking any bird or bird eggs or to destroy any bird nests or bird eggs; it shall be unlawful for any person whomsoever to catch, kill or maim any bird or birds on such leased area or to catch, kill or maim or attempt to catch, kill or maim any bird or birds on or above said area by any means whatsoever even though such person may be above or outside of such leased area; it shall be unlawful for any person whomsoever to discharge any firearms or other explosive on or above such leased area; or to land, tie or anchor any fishing boat within such leased area. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit any representative, agent or employé of said Association from catching, killing or destroying within any such leased area any bird or birds, and any animals that may be known to prey upon bird life or bird eggs nor to prohibit such representatives, agent or employé from taking bird eggs and catching any bird for propagation or conservation or scientific purposes only, nor to prohibit persons from taking refuge on such area on account of storms. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or both. [Acts 1st C. C. [S.] 1921, p. 33, Acts 1923, p. 188.]

Art. 923d. Refusing to stop vehicle for search.—The Commissioner or any of his deputies shall have the right to search the game bag or any other receptacle of any kind whenever such Commissioner or his deputy has reason to suspect that such game bag, or other receptacle or any buggy, wagon, automobile or other vehicle may contain game unlawfully killed or taken, and any person who refuses to permit the searching of the same, or who refuses to stop such vehicle when requested to do so by the Commissioner or his deputy, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 294.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47 repealed Acts 1919, 36th Leg., ch. 157, from which this article is taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 923e. Buying for evidence.—One who buys, for the purpose of establishing testimony, a game bird or animal the sale of which is prohibited by this chapter shall not be prosecuted for such purchase. [Acts 1919, p. 296.]

Art. 923i. Liberty County squirrels.—Whoever shall ship or cause to be shipped beyond the limits of Liberty County, or any agent or employé of any express or railroad company or other common carrier who receives for the purpose of transportation, or who shall transport, carry or take beyond the limits of said county, any wild squirrels, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, apparently repealed the above article. See note to article 871.

Art. 923k. [876] Montgomery County squirrels.—Whoever sells or offers for sale or ships for sale in Montgomery County any squirrels shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Act 1909, p. 117.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, apparently repealed the above article. See note to article 871.

Art. 923l. Killing squirrels prohibited.—Whoever kills any squirrels in the counties of Angelina, Cherokee, Hardin, Liberty, Nacogdoches, Dallas, Rockwall, Tyler, Jefferson, Orange, Jasper, or Newton during the months of January to July inclusive, or kills more than five squirrels in any one day during any other month in any of said counties shall be fined not to exceed fifty dollars. [Acts 1917, 3rd C. S., p. 69.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 387, § 47, repealed Acts 1917, 35th Leg., 3d C. S., ch. 3, from which this article was taken. See note to article 871.

Art. 923ll. Hardin county squirrels.—Sec. 1. That from and after the passage of this Act it shall be unlawful for anyone to kill squirrels in Hardin County, Texas, during the months of February 1st to October 15th, inclusive.

Sec. 2. That during the other months of the year it shall be unlawful for anyone to kill more than ten squirrels in any one day.

Sec. 3. Every person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 137, ch. 45.]

Art. 923m. Fur bearing animals defined.—All the fur-bearing animals of this State are hereby declared to be the property of the people of this State. For the purposes of this Act, wild beaver, wild otter, wild mink, wild ring-tail cat, wild badger, wild polecat or skunk, wild raccoon, wild muskrat, wild o'possum, wild fox and wild civet cat are hereby declared to be fur-bearing animals. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 434, § 1.]

Art. 923mm. Trapper defined.—The term trapper as used under the provisions of this Act is any person who traps, kills or takes any of the animals or pelts thereof, herein mentioned, for the purpose of sale or barter. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 434, § 2.]

Art. 923n. Trapping license.—All residents, non-residents, and alien trappers desiring to trap, kill or take any of the wild fur-bearing animals or the pelts thereof mentioned in Section 1, of this Act, for sale or barter, shall procure a license to do so, as hereinafter provided, and any person who fails to procure such license as herein provided for, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; which license shall expire February 15th after date of issuance and shall entitle the holder to trap or take any of the fur-bearing animals or the pelts thereof, mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, for sale or barter, during the season when it is lawful to do so; which license shall state the residence, age, height, weight, color of hair and color of eyes of the licensee [licensee]. The fee for each resident license shall be one dollar ($1.00), ten cents of which shall be retained by the officer issuing and reporting the same as his commission. The fee for a non-resident or an alien license shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) for each county in which said alien or non-resident shall take, kill or trap such animals, five dollars [dollars] of which shall be retained by the officer issuing and reporting the same, as his commission. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 435, § 3.]

Art. 923nn. Resident trapper; nonresident trapper; alien trapper; definitions.—For the purposes of this Act a resident trapper of this State is any person who has been a bona fide resident of this State for a period of time exceeding twelve months continuously and immediately before applying for a trapper's license. A non-resident is any person who is a citizen of any other State of the United States of America or who has not continuously and immediately preceding the time of applying for a trapper's license been a bona fide resident of the State of Texas for a period of twelve months. An alien is any person who is not a natural born American citizen or who has not received the final naturalization papers of United States citizenship. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 435, § 4.]

Art. 923o. Trapping license; commissioner to provide forms.—The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall cause to be printed blank trapper's license which shall contain the requirements as provided for in Section 3 of this Act, and shall distribute the same to his deputies and to various county clerks of the State of Texas, taking their receipts therefor by members and quantity, and it is hereby declared to be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, his deputies, and the county clerks of this State to issue licenses as provided in this Act, and to make reports and remittances therefor, which reports and remittances shall be made during the first week of the month, succeeding such sale. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 435, § 5.]

Art. 923oo. License not required for tenants and owners.—Owners and tenants and their children who are residents, as defined in this Act, shall have the right to kill or take from their premises any of the fur-bearing animals or pelts thereof for sale or barter during the time when it is lawful to do so, without procuring a trapper's license. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 435, § 6.]

Art. 923p. Tenant defined.—The term tenant as herein used shall mean any person who has resided on the land they occupy for a period in excess of twelve months continuously and who shall have the same rented or leased for agricultural or grazing purposes. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 435, § 7.]

Art. 923pp. Beaver, otter, and fox protected.—It shall be unlawful for any person to kill, take or have in his possession for barter or sale within a period of ten years after the passage of this Act any wild beaver, wild otter or wild fox or the pelts thereof. Provided that this section shall not apply to wild fox in that portion of West Texas lying north and west of a line starting at the mouth of the San Antonio River where it empties into the Corpus Christi Bay; thence following the meanders of the said San Antonio River northerly to the mouth of the Cibolo River where same empties into the San Antonio River; thence following said Cibolo River northerly to the northwest line of Guadalupe County, the boundary between Guadalupe and Comal Counties; thence easterly with the north boundary line of Guadalupe, Caldwell, Bastrop, Lee, Burleson and Brazos Counties to the Brazos River; thence following the meanders of the Brazos River north to the intersection of the east boundary line of Young County; thence north along the west boundary line of Jack and Clay Counties to the Red River; provided that the Counties of Hays, Milam and Williamson shall be exempted from the provisions of this bill applying to the territory west of the boundary line herein set out and shall be in and under the full effects of the law applicable to the territory east of said division line; provided that it shall be unlawful to take, hunt, capture or kill, or attempt to hunt, capture or kill any wild game or wild animals by means of traps or any other mechanical device within the limits of Limestone County for a period of five years from and after the passage of this Act.

Provided that in Young County, it shall be unlawful for any person to kill, take or have in his possession for barter or sale within a period of ten years after the passage of this Act any wild beaver, wild otter or wild fox or the pelts thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 436, ch. 177, § 8; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 49, ch. 35, § 1; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 102, ch. 34, § 1.]

Art. 923q. Fur bearing animals; closed season.—It shall be unlawful for any person to kill, or take for sale or barter any of the wild fur-bearing animals, muskrats excepted, or other pelts permitted to be killed or taken by this Act, for sale or barter, between the fifteenth day of February and the thirteenth day of November, of any year, both days included, in the closed season. The prohibited or closed season on muskrats shall be from March 15th to November 15th. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 9.]

Art. 923ql. Five years closed season in Cass County.—Sec. 1. That for five years from and after the passage of this Act, it shall be illegal for any person to take or trap by means of any snare, dead-fall or steel trap, any fur-bearing animal within the territorial limits of Cass County.

Sec. 2. That whosoever shall violate the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars and not more than two hundred dollars, provided that each animal so taken or trapped shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 234, ch. 160.]

Art. 923qq. Fund for enforcement.—All moneys collected from the fines and penalties for the violation of this Act, and all moneys collected from the sale of trapper's licenses shall belong to the special game fund of this State, and shall be paid over by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to the Treasurer of the State during the first week of each month, and shall be credited to such special game fund for the enforcement of this Act and the game laws in general, provided county attorneys shall receive ten per centum and officers making collection five per centum of any fines or fine assessed for violation of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 10.]

Art. 923r. Trapping without owner's consent prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person to trap, or set any trap or deadfall on the inclosed lands of another without the consent or permission of the owner of said land. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 11.]

Art. 923rr. Possession of muskrats on posted or inclosed lands.—It shall be unlawful for any person, at any time, to trap or kill upon the posted or inclosed lands of another, or be in possession of a muskrat or the hide of such animal, without the consent of the owner or lessee of such lands to trap thereon, provided that such person may, in relief against this provision, show a rightful, legal possession of such muskrats or the hides of such animals. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 12.]

Art. 923s. Molesting muskrat beds and nests.—It shall be unlawful for any person to destroy the beds, nests or breeding places of any muskrat or muskrats, or to take or kill any of such animals except by trapping; provided, however, that any person shall have the right to kill such animal upon his own premises at any time or by any means. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 13.]

Art. 923ss. Purchase of muskrats trapped on lands of another.—It shall be unlawful for any person to purchase the hide or furs of muskrats on the land of another, taken or trapped on the land of another, from any person other than the owner of such land or the duly authorized agent of such owner. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 14.]

Art. 923t. Inclosed lands defined.—By inclosed land is meant any land inclosed by a fence or fences, or by water, or partly by fence and partly by water, or by any barrier, natural or artificial, that is used by owners as methods or means of inclosure. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 15.]

Art. 923tt. Posted land defined.—Posted land within the meaning of this Act shall have signs at the gate or gates and at any streams entering said inclosure reading "Posted" in a conspicuous place, shall be deemed posted within the meaning of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 16.]

Art. 923u. Refusal to carry and exhibit license to officer.—Any person required to procure a license under this Act and who fails to carry said license on his person when trapping, killing or taking any of the fur-bearing animals or the pelts thereof for sale or barter, or who fails or refuses to exhibit the same to any officer authorized to enforce the laws of this State, or who uses the license of another or permits another to use his license shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 436, § 17.]

Art. 923uu. Trapping license required.—It shall be unlawful for any person required by this Act to procure a trapper's license to kill or take any of the fur-bearing animals or the pelts thereof mentioned in this Act, for the purpose of sale or barter, without having procured a license to do so, as required by Section 3 of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 437, § 18.]

Art. 923v. Commissioner to enforce.—It shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies to enforce the provisions of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 437, § 19.]

Art. 923vv. Penalty.—Every person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 437, § 20.]

Art. 923w. Repeal of conflicting laws.—That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 437, § 21.]

Art. 923ww. Partial invalidity.—If any section of this bill shall be held unconstitutional, it shall not affect any other section of this bill, and all sections save the one that may be declared unconstitutional shall continue to be in full force and effect. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 177, p. 437, § 22.]

Art. 924. Explosives and poisons.—The catching, taking or the attempt to catch or take any fish, green turtle or terrapin in any of the salt or fresh waters, lakes or streams in the State by poison, lime, dynamite, nitroglycerine, giant powder or other explosive, or by the use of drugs, substances, or things deleterious to fish life, is hereby prohibited; and any person offending against this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall [shall] be fined not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, and by confinement in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days.

Art. 925. [870] Taking fish without consent of owner.—Whoever shall take, catch, ensnare or trap any fish by means of nets or seines or by poisoning, polluting, or by use of any explosive, or by muddying, ditching or draining in any lake, pool or pond in any county in this State without the consent of the owner of such lake, pool, or pond, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. In prosecutions hereunder the burden to prove such consent shall be upon the defendant. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 191.]

Art. 926. Fresh water streams defined.—For the purpose of establishing the dividing line between the salt and fresh waters of this State, in so far as it pertains to the fishing laws, all fresh water rivers and streams in this State, and all lakes, lagoons, and bodies of rivers, except tidal bays or coastal waters, such as bays and gulfs, shall be and are hereby declared to be fresh water streams and rivers to their mouths, and it shall be unlawful to set nets or drag seines or fish in other ways in such streams, rivers and their connecting lakes, lagoons, and bodies of water mentioned, except in conformity with the laws enacted to govern, apply and control in fresh water fishing.

Art. 927. [923f] Fishing in fresh waters.—Except the ordinary hook and line or trot line, or a set or drag net or seine, the meshes of which shall be three or more inches square, or a minnow seine not more than twenty feet long used for catching bait, no person shall place in any fresh water river, creek, lake, bayou, pool, lagoon or tank, in this State, any net, trap or other device for catching fish, or take or catch any fish from said waters with any net, seine, device, or hook and line or trot line, other than as permitted herein. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 274, Acts 1917, p. 410, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 210.]

Art. 928. Fishing in closed fresh waters.—The commissioner is authorized to close any fresh water river, creek, lake, pool, bayou, lagoon or tank in this State, against the use of nets or seines or any particular kind of such nets and seines whenever he thinks that such closing is necessary or best to protect and conserve the fish in such waters. Before closing such waters against the use of seines or nets or any particular kind of seine or net, he shall give notice by posting his intentions for two weeks, at not less than three stores or other places in proximity to such waters. Whoever shall fish with a net or seine in such closed waters, or who shall use such particular kind of net or seine as forbidden in such waters after the notice given as above required, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 210.]

Art. 929. Oversize or undersize fish for sale.—It shall be unlawful for any person to sell, or offer for sale, or to have in his possession, or to have on board any boat or to have in any mercantile business establishment, or in any market where merchandise is disposed of, any redfish or channel bass of greater length than thirty-two inches, or less than fourteen inches; any salt water or speckled sea trout of less length than twelve inches; any sheephead of less than nine inches in length; any flounder of less than twelve inches in length; any pompano of less than nine inches in length; any mackerel of less than fourteen inches in length, and any salt water gaff-topsail of less than eleven inches in length.

The place of sale or offering for sale or possession shall for the purpose of this chapter to establish venue, be either the place from which such fish are shipped, or where the fish are found, or offered for sale. It shall be unlawful in selling or offering for sale any fish mentioned in this article to sever the head from the body, except in case of the redfish and catfish in which case the head shall only be severed through the gill-cavity and the gill-fins shall remain on the body of such redfish or catfish. Such headless body of a redfish shall not measure more than twenty-seven inches in length, and such headless body of a catfish shall not measure less than eight inches in length; and all fish marketed or sold as mentioned in this article, must be weighed and sold with the head attached, except redfish and catfish as mentioned herein.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined a sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than fifty ($50.00) dollars.

Art. 930. Venue for under or oversize fish.—A prosecution for a sale of fish of unlawful size may be begun and carried on either in the county where such fish were shipped or in the county where they were received or offered for sale, or in any county through which such shipments may pass. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 211.]

Art. 931. Undersize bass, etc.—Whoever shall take or catch from the fresh waters of this State, or have in his possession any bass of less length than eleven inches or any white perch or crappie of less length than seven inches shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 932. Injuring small fish.—Whoever at any time shall catch or take from any fresh water river, lake, bayou, creek, pond, or other natural or artificial stream or pond of water by use of any means whatever any crappie or bass of less length than he is permitted to catch or take from such water, shall immediately return the fish back into such water; and unnecessary injuring of such fish shall be an offense under this article. Whoever violates any provision hereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 69, Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 188.]

Art. 933. Closed season on crappie or bass.—Any person who shall take or catch or have in possession any bass or crappie from the fresh waters of this State during the months of March or April of any year; or shall take, catch or have in possession any bass of less length than eleven inches, or any white perch or crappie of less length than seven inches, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined a sum of not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 933a. Sale of bass and crappie prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or their agents, to buy or sell, or offer for sale, or offer to buy, or have in his or their possession for sale, or to carry, transport or ship for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange, any fresh water crappie or bass within the State of Texas.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and each sale or shipment or act in violation hereof shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 178, p. 447, § 4.]

Art. 933½. Rainbow trout; protected for two years.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take, possess, sell or barter any rainbow trout from any of the fresh waters of Texas for a period of two years from and after the passage of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 163, p. 374, § 1.]

Art. 933½a. Same; closed season after expiration of two years.—From and after the expiration of the closed season on rainbow trout as provided in Section 1 of this Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to take, possess, sell or barter any rainbow trout from any of the fresh waters of Texas during the months of January, February, March, April and May of each year, which months shall constitute a closed season on rainbow trout. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 163, p. 374, § 2.]

Art. 933½b. Same; size limit.—It is hereby made unlawful for any person to take or have in his or her possession any rainbow trout from any of the fresh waters of Texas, of a less length than fourteen inches, or to take and have in his or her possession more than five rainbow trout during any one day. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 163, p. 374, § 3.]

Art. 933½c. Same; sale prohibited.—It is hereby made unlawful for any person to sell, barter, or offer for sale or barter any rainbow trout taken from any of the fresh waters of Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 163, p. 374, § 4.]

Art. 933½d. Same; penalty.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00). [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 163, p. 375, § 5.]

Art. 934. [908] [529d] License to fish for market.—Whoever fishes in the public waters of this State for oysters, fish, shrimp, turtle, terrapin, crabs, clams or other marine life for market or sells such product of such waters without first procuring a license to do so, as provided by law, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1895, p. 173, Acts 1897, p. 126; Acts 1913, p. 270, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 200, Acts 1923, p. 295.]

Art. 935. Refusal to show license.—Any person fishing for market or for the sale of marine life and having a license therefor who refuses to show it to the Commissioner, or his deputy when requested to do so, shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 200.]

Art. 936. Wholesale dealer's license.—Any individual, firm or corporation engaged in, or who may engage in the business of a wholesale dealer in fish and oysters shall secure from the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, a license granting such individual, firm or corporation, permission to engage in said occupation for one year. For the purpose of obtaining this license, the applicant desiring same must make written application to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, in which he (the applicant) shall set forth under oath, if required, that he is a citizen of the United States by birth, or not being so, shall state that he has been granted, full naturalization papers, and by what court and at what time they were granted. Where a corporation applying for permit to conduct a wholesale business in fish, oysters, or other marine products as mentioned, contains foreigners, it shall conform to the foregoing provision as applied to individual applicants. He shall also agree that because of the privilege which he applied for from the State of Texas, that all products handled by him shall, at all times, be subject to the inspection of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or any of his deputies; and in said application he shall authorize said Commissioner or any of his deputies to enter his place of business, or any place where he may have such products stored, and inspect same. He shall agree to keep correct record of all fish, oysters, shrimp and other taxed marine life handled by him under this law, in a book to be furnished by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner; and further, that failure on his part to keep a correct record shall be grounds for the forfeiture of his license granted him under the application aforesaid. This application, having been duly executed and delivered to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or any of his deputies, together with a fee of ten ($10.00) dollars for same, it shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or his deputy to issue to the applicant a license to engage in the business set forth in the application. Said license must be signed by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, or one of his deputies, stamped with the seal of his office, and state the name of the licensee, place of business and the kind of license applied for, and shall be good for twelve months following the date of issuance. For such license, the applicant shall pay one ($1.00) dollar for each one thousand pounds of fish, shrimp and crabs handled by him, and a tax of one cent per barrel on oysters handled by him, which tax shall be paid monthly, the tax to be paid on the first of each month, which may be due upon said product handled during the preceding month, as shown by the record books, hereinbefore mentioned. And any person, firm, or corporation, or association of persons, or any officer, agent or employé of any company, corporation or association of persons who shall engage in the business of a wholesale dealer in fish and oysters or either, without procuring a license to follow said business, or without paying the tax and fee required by this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars, nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars; and each day such business may be engaged in [in] violation of this article, shall constitute a separate offense, and upon conviction of pursuing said occupation without payment of the tax and fee required by law, or for any other violation of the game, fish and oyster law, the license of such dealer shall be forfeited. A wholesale dealer, in the meaning and definition of this chapter, is any person, corporation or firm or partnership engaged in the business of buying and selling or handling for shipment, fish, oysters, shrimp, turtle, terrapin, crabs, clams, lobsters or other commercial marine life, in quantities of ten pounds or more to any customer during the same day, or whose daily sales, or whose sales for any one day, amount to more than the aggregate of one hundred pounds of above mentioned marine products.

Art. 937. "Barrel of Oysters," Tax.—There is hereby levied a tax of not less than one-fifth of one per cent per pound on all fish and shrimp taken and sold or offered for sale in this State, and not less than two cents a barrel on all oysters sold or offered for sale in this State whether from private or public beds and offered for sale or shipment, and not less than one-half a cent per pound on all turtles, and not less than twenty-five cents on each terrapin offered for sale and shipment. Such tax shall be paid under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner shall prescribe. For all purposes mentioned in this chapter a barrel of oysters shall be deemed to consist of three boxes of oysters in the shell, said boxes to be ten inches wide by twenty inches long and thirteen and one-half inches in depth. In filling such boxes for measurement, such oysters shall be placed so as not to fill such box more than two and one-half inches in the center above the height of the box. Two gallons of shucked oysters without their shells shall be deemed as equal to one barrel of oysters in the shell. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 193.]

This article is apparently superseded by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 438, ch. 178, art. 10, which is art. 937a, post.

Art. 937a. Tax on fish, crabs, and shrimp; "barrel of oysters" tax.—There shall be and is hereby levied a tax of not less than one-fifth of one per cent per pound on all fish, crabs and shrimp, whether from private or public waters, taken and sold or offered for sale in this State, and not less than two cents a barrel on all oysters, sold or offered for sale in this State whether from private or public beds, and offered for sale or shipment, and not less than one-half a cent per pound on all turtles, and not less than twenty-five cents on each terrapin offered for sale and shipment. Such tax shall be paid under such rules and regulations as the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall prescribe. For all purposes mentioned in this title or section, a barrel of oysters shall be deemed and taken to consist of three boxes of oysters in the shell; said boxes to be the following dimensions; ten inches wide by twenty inches long, and thirteen and one-half inches in depth. In filling such boxes for measurement, such oysters shall not be placed or deposited in such box in a way that will make them fill the box more than two and one-half inches in the center above the height of the box. Provided that two gallons of shucked oysters without their shells shall be considered and deemed by this Act as equal to one barrel of oysters in the shell. It is hereby specially provided that the title to the shells, from which oysters are taken shall remain in the State and the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is directed to handle, control or sell same as he may see fit. Provided such oyster shells shall not be sold for a lower price than twenty-five cents the cubic yard. All moneys and royalties collected under and by the provisions of this article shall be deposited by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to the credit of the fish and oyster fund, hereinafter provided for. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 178, p. 438, § 1 (art. 10).]

Art. 938. Measurement of oysters.—Whoever shall use any measurement other than that established in article 937 for the measurement of oysters in the purchase and sale of oysters, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars and any person who shall fill the measuring box in the buying and selling of oysters higher than two and one-half inches in the center of such box, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 275, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 194.]

Art. 939. Failure to pay tax.—Any person who shall not pay or who shall refuse to pay the tax imposed on the taking and sale of fish, oysters, turtle, terrapin and shrimp, as imposed in Article 10 of Acts 1925, p. 439, or who shall not pay or shall refuse to pay the taxes established and fixed by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in Article 10 of said Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, and if such person shall be a licensed fish dealer or fisherman or oysterman, his license as a fish dealer or fisherman shall be cancelled and not re-issued for a period of three years.

Art. 940. Refusing to pay tax.—If any person shall refuse to pay any tax provided in this chapter, on any fish, oyster, shrimp, turtle, terrapin, clam, crabs, or other marine life, which he has sold, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than fifty ($50.00) nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 941. Using seines or gigs.—It shall be unlawful for [for] any person at any time to place, to set, or drag, any seine or net, or use any other device or method for taking fish other than the ordinary pole and line or castnet, or minnow seine of not more than twenty feet in length for catching bait within the waters of Agua Dulce Creek, Oso Creek, Shamrock Cove, Nueces Bay, Ingleside Cove, Red Fish Cove, Shoal Bay, Mut Flats, Shallow Bay, all of Aransas Bay between Port Aransas and Corpus Christi Bayou and lying between Harbor Island and Mud Island, Copano Bay, Mission Bay, in Refugio County, Puerto Bay, St. Charles Bay, Hynes Bay, Contec Lake, Powderhorn Lake, Oyster Lake, the waters of the Gulf Shore Line one-fourth mile from mean low tide from the South end of Padre Island to a point on Mustang Island two miles north of Corpus Christi Pass, Offats Bayou in Galveston County from its head to its mouth, Sabine Pass, leading from Sabine Lake to the Gulf of Mexico, San Luis Pass, leading from Galveston West Bay to the Gulf of Mexico, Turtle Bay, Lost Lake or Old River Lake in Chambers County, as shown by the Government charts, Brown's Cedar Pass, Mitchell's Cut, Pass Cavallo, leading from Matagorda Bay to the Gulf of Mexico; Cedar Bayou, leading from Mesquite Bay to the Gulf of Mexico; North Pass or St. Jo Pass; Aransas Pass, leading from Aransas Bay to the Gulf of Mexico; Corpus Christi Pass, leading from Corpus Christi Bay to the Gulf of Mexico; Brazos Santiago Pass, leading from the Lower Laguna Madra [Madre] to the Gulf of Mexico or the pass on the North of Laguna Madra [Madre] leading into Corpus Christi Bay, which pass shall be defined as beginning one-fourth of a mile southwest of Peat Island and running from said point to Flour Bluff, all of said waters being situated in Nueces County, and all other passes connecting the bays and tidal waters of the State within the Gulf of Mexico, or within one mile of such passes, or within the waters of any pass, stream, or canal, leading from one body of Texas bay or coastal waters into another body of such waters; provided that nothing in this article shall prevent the use of spear or gig and light for the purpose of securing flounders from such passes at any time of the year except the months of November and December, which months shall constitute a closed season on flounders in all coastal waters of the State, and it shall be unlawful to possess or to take any flounder from the tidal waters of this State during the months of November and December of any year. And the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, whenever he has reason to believe it is best for the protection and conservation and increase of fish life, or to prevent their destruction in the bays or parts thereof, or such tidal waters is hereby authorized to close such waters against fishing with any seine, net, spear, gig, light or other devices, except with hook and line or cast-net or minnow seine of not more than twenty feet in length; but before closing bays or parts thereof, or of other tidal waters, against such seining or netting or the using of gigs, spears, and lights, the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall give notice of a public hearing, and shall hold a public hearing in the port nearest the waters proposed to be closed and shall give notice of his intentions to close such bays or parts thereof of such tidal waters at least two weeks prior to such closing, giving the reason why such action is deemed necessary, and which notice shall contain a designation of the area which it is proposed to close, a statement that after the date indicated in such notice it shall be unlawful to drag a seine or net or use a gig or spear and light in taking fish from such bayou or parts of such tidal waters for the period of time which the Commissioner in said notice shall declare same to be closed; and such notice shall be posted in such fish houses as are in two towns nearest waters to be closed, and such notice shall contain the information as to where and when the public hearing is to be held, and provided further, that the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner shall have the authority, when proper hearing has been had, and investigation been made, and he has determined that any such closed area in the tidal waters of this State does not promote conservation of fish, to open such areas to seining, netting, gigging and fishing of all sorts. For the purpose of locating all closed waters mentioned in this chapter, it shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner to have erected suitable stakes, monuments or markers at points determined by him as being the outermost boundaries of such closed waters, such stakes or markers to bear the words, "Warning—Closed Waters." Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on first conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, and shall have his license revoked for a period of time not exceeding two years; and on second conviction shall be confined in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days; and shall have his license revoked for a period of not less than two years, provided further that the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner or his deputy shall have power to seize and keep such seines, or other tackle in his possession as evidence until trial of defendant, and no suit shall be maintained against him therefor.

Art. 941a. Suckers, buffalo, carp and shad.—Any and all persons shall be permitted to take or catch sucker, buffalo, carp and shad in any fresh water rivers, creeks or lakes in the counties of Grayson, Bosque, Cook, Denton, Burnet, Williamson, Lampasas, Coryell, Hamilton, Erath, Dallas and Hood with a seine of any size mesh or by the use of wire, rope or grab hooks, during the months of July, August and September of each year; provided, however, that any catfish, crappie, perch, bass or any other kind of fish caught by any of the above methods herein allowed shall be immediately released in the waters from which they were caught; and provided, further that the owner or the one in possession of any seine used for the purpose of seining shall within five days from and after using of any seine for the purpose of catching fish make a report under oath to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, giving in said report the names of each and every person in the seining party, and showing in said report that all fish not permitted to be caught or taken with a seine were released in the waters from which they were taken immediately after they were caught.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not less than ten ($10.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, and any person making a false affidavit shall be guilty of false swearing. [Acts 1925, p. 170.] [39th Leg., ch. 38, § 2; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 91, ch. 65, § 1.]

Art. 942. Unlawful possession of seine.—Whoever shall carry on, or over, or into the waters of any pass leading from the inland bays or tidal waters of this State to the Gulf of Mexico any seine or net except a cast net used for catching bait, or a minnow net not exceeding twenty feet in length, or shall carry by vehicle or in any other way, any seine or net except a cast net used for catching bait or a minnow seine not exceeding twenty feet in length to any point or place within one mile of such pass or shall have in his possession within one mile of any such pass any net or seine except a cast net for catching bait, or a minnow seine not exceeding twenty feet in length, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, and be confined in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. Nothing in this law shall apply to the carrying of nets or seines over closed waters within one mile of any town. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 205, Acts 1923, p. 298.]

Art. 943. Exceptions.—Nothing in the foregoing article shall apply to vessels engaged in carrying freight or passengers, and engaged as seagoing vessels in coast and foreign trade, and licensed and recognized as such by the Federal Government; provided further that the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner may grant permits to persons desiring to fish, to carry their boats, nets and seine, and vehicles into, over and on such passes or closed waters or on land to within the mile limits of such passes, and such permits shall state at what time such boats, vehicles, nets and seines shall be taken away from such mile limit and such passes.

Art. 944. Proof of possession.—In all prosecutions under articles 941 and 942 the identification of the boat or vehicle or the seine or net by which or from which the violation of the law occurred, shall be prima facie evidence against the owner or party last in charge of such boat, or against the owner of the vehicle or seines or net. [Id.]

Art. 945. [912] Seining in salt water.—The mesh of all seines and nets used for taking fish in salt waters of this State, not including the bag, shall not be less than one and one-half inch square mesh. The mesh of the bags and for fifty feet on each side of the bags, shall not be larger than a one inch square mesh. No seine or net of any kind of over two thousand feet shall be dragged or pulled in the salt water of this State, and any person dragging such seine, or dragging two or more seines which are connected or tied together with a combined length of more than two thousand feet, shall be upon first conviction thereof fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars; upon second conviction thereof shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars, and shall have his license revoked for a period not less than thirty nor more than ninety days; and upon third conviction thereof shall be confined in jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, and shall have his license revoked for a period of not less than one year. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 201.]

Art. 945a. Permit to use pound net in Gulf.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to erect, set, operate or maintain any fish pound net in any waters of the Gulf of Mexico within three nautical miles from the coast line of this State, without first obtaining a permit for such purpose. Application for such permits shall be made to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. Such commissioner shall issue to the person, firm or corporation applying therefor, if entitled thereto under the provisions of this Act, a permit duly signed, to erect, set, operate or maintain a fish pound net in the waters above specified. No person, firm or corporation shall set, erect, operate or maintain any pound net at any place closer than three miles of any other pound net owned or operated by any other person, firm or corporation; provided, further, that no pound net shall ever be placed or operated closer than three miles of any pass mentioned in this Act. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 178, p. 447, § 3.]

Art. 946. To tag seines and nets.—All seines and nets used in the salt waters of this State shall be examined by the Commissioner or one of his deputies to see if they conform to the requirements of this law as to length and size of mesh, and if they are found to conform to such requirements, the Commissioner shall tag such seines or nets with a metal tag on which shall be indented the number of such seine and net; the cost of such tag to be paid by the owner of such seines or net. The Commissioner shall then issue to the owner of it a permit to use such seine or net for one year from the date of such permit; such permit shall state the name of the owner of such net, the date on which it was issued, the size of the mesh and the length and kind of such net. It shall be the duty of the owner of the seine or net to keep the tag attached to such seine or net, and where a seine or net is used without such tag being attached, it shall be a prima facie evidence that such seine or net is an unlawful seine or net; and any person who shall drag, haul or set any seine or net in the salt waters of this State without first having such seine or net examined by the Commissioner, or his deputy, and tagged, or who shall fail to have a permit therefor issued by said Commissioner or his deputy, or shall not keep such tag attached to such seine or net or attached to its floats, as prescribed in this article shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 201; Acts 1923, p. 296.]

Art. 947. [906] Seining within one mile from city.—It shall be unlawful for any person to catch or attempt to catch any fish, green turtle, loggerhead, terrapin or shrimp in any of the bays or navigable waters of this State, within the limits or within one mile of the limits of any city or town in this State, with seines, drags, fykes, set nets, trammel nets, traps, dams or weirs. A town or city in the meaning of this article shall be the collection of one hundred families within an area of one square mile. Anyone violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. In all prosecutions the identification of the boat from which such violation occurs shall be prima facie evidence against the owner, lessee, person in charge or master of such boat. It shall be the duty of such town to establish and maintain the buoys, stakes or other marks designating the limits of the one mile within which such seines shall be hauled and such nets set. [Acts 1897, p. 269, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 201.]

Art. 948. Metallic seines.—It shall be unlawful for any person to set or drag in any of the fresh waters of this State any net or seine made of wire or other metallic substance.

It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch or attempt to take or catch fish in the fresh waters, rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, lagoons, or in lakes or sloughs, subject to overflow from rivers or streams in this State, by any other means, other than by the ordinary hook and line or trotline, or by a set or drag net or seine or trammel net, the meshes of which are three or more inches square, or by a minnow seine, not more than twenty feet in length, and it shall be unlawful for any person to place in the fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, lagoons, of this State any net or other device or trap for taking or catching fish other than as designated and permitted by this Article.

Any person violating any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Any fish trap, net or seine or other seine or other fishing device found in the waters of this State, in violation of this article are hereby declared to be a nuisance, and it shall be the duty of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner and his deputies to destroy same whenever found, and no suit shall be maintained against them therefor.

The Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner is authorized to close any of the waters mentioned in this article against the use of nets or seines or any particular kind of such nets and seines, whenever he thinks that such closing is necessary or best to protect and conserve the fish in such waters. But before closing such waters against the use of seines or nets or any particular kind of seine or net, he shall give notice by posting his intentions for two weeks at not less than three stores or other places in proximity to such waters.

Any person who shall fish with a net or seine in such closed waters or shall use such particular kind of net or seine, as forbidden in such waters, after the notice given as above required, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars and no more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

Art. 949. [912] Seiners shall return small fish.—Any person dragging a seine or engaging in taking fish in a set net shall return to the water all fish under and above size according to the measure or weight established in this chapter, and all other fish except sharks, gars, rays, turtle and terrapin, saw fish and cat fish, except the gulf-topsail cat, which may be retained, and any person not returning such fish to the water as required by this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 211.]

Art. 950. Net for shrimp.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized to permit the use of any shrimp seine or other device for catching shrimp in the tidal waters of this State. Any person desiring to use such seine shall apply to the Commissioner, or his deputy, for a permit to use such seine, net or other contrivance for catching shrimp and such Commissioner or his deputy shall fix and establish the mesh, construction, depth and length of such seine or net or other contrivance so that it shall not be used for other purposes than in taking shrimp, and he shall tag such seine officially and issue such permit and shall state in what waters and localities such seines or nets shall be used. Any person using such shrimp seine or other contrivance for catching shrimp in the tidal waters of this State without the permit herein provided for, or who shall use any seine or contrivance or net in any waters or locality other than that stated in such permit, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 205.]

Art. 951. March and April closed to seines and artificial bait.—It shall be unlawful for any person to catch any fish in the fresh waters of this State, with any seine or net other than minnow seine, not exceeding twenty feet in length, or to drag any seine, except such specified minnow seine, or to set any net, in the fresh waters of this State during the months of March and April, or to fish with any artificial bait of any kind in the fresh waters of this State during the months of March and April. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be upon conviction fined a sum of not less than twenty ($20.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars. This article shall not apply to any artificial lake, pond or pool, owned by any person, firm, corporation, city or town, that does not have as its source of water supply a river or creek or is not subject to overflow from a river or creek.

Art. 951a. [872] Fish ladder.—It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation, municipal or private who has erected, or who may erect any dam, water wier [weir], or other obstruction on any regular flowing stream within this State, on the written order of the commissioners' court in the county in which such obstruction is erected, to construct and keep in repair fish ways or fish ladders at such dam, weir or obstruction, at the discretion of the Fish Commissioner, so that at all seasons of the year fish may ascend above such dam, weir or obstruction to deposit their spawn. Whoever erects or owns or maintains any such dam, obstruction or weir, and shall fail or refuse to build, construct and keep in repair such fish way or fish ladder, within 90 days after having been notified by such Commissioner to do so, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars. Each week, after the expiration of 90 days after receiving such notice, of such failure or refusal is a separate offense. [Acts 1881, p. 83, Acts 1915, p. 118, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 203.]

Art. 952. Fish in certain counties.—Section 1. Whoever shall barter or sell or offer for barter or sale any bass, perch, crappie or catfish taken from any of the fresh waters of the counties of Comal, Guadalupe, Bexar, Kerr, Bandera and Medina, shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 2. Whoever shall use any dynamite, powder or other explosive in any of the fresh water streams of said counties and shall destroy any fish thereby shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year.

Sec. 3. No person shall take or catch any fish in the fresh waters, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, lagoons, or tanks in said counties by any other means than by the ordinary hook and line, or trot line or artificial baits, and no person shall place in the fresh waters, rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, lagoons, ponds, or tanks in said counties any seine, net or other device or trap for taking or catching fish; any person may use a minnow seine which is not more than ten feet in length, and the meshes of which are not less than one-fourth inch square, for the purpose of catching minnows for bait. No person shall use the minnow seine herein permitted to take any fish other than minnows for bait.

Sec. 4. No person, firm or corporation or their agents shall take, catch, seine, entrap by any means, or have in their possession any bass, perch, or crappie, or catfish taken from any fresh waters in said counties from the first of February to the first of May of any year.

Sec. 5. If any person shall at any time, catch or take from any fresh water river, lake, bayou, lagoon, creek, pond, or other natural or artificial stream or pond of water within said counties by use of any means whatsoever any bass of less than eleven inches in length he shall immediately return same back into such water; and unnecessarily injuring such fish shall be deemed an offense under the provisions hereof. Each such fish shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 6. No person shall take from the fresh waters of said counties more than ten bass and ten crappie in any one day.

Any person violating any provision of Sections 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 126; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 365, ch. 246, § 1.]

Art. 952a. Fish in Big Wichita River waters; sale prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or their agent, or agents, to barter, or sell, or offer for barter, or sale, or to buy any bass, perch, crappie or catfish, or any other fish, except minnows taken from any of the waters which are located in the valley of the Big Wichita River from where the lower or diversion dam on the Big Wichita River is located, which was built by the Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 1, in the northeast corner of Archer County, Texas, and from said dam and above the same up the valley of said Big Wichita River to the storage dam on said river built by said Wichita County Water Improvement District No. 1, in Baylor County, Texas, and up the valley of said river from said storage dam as far as the water by said storage dam is impounded in said river in Baylor County, Texas, or in any water which is impounded in Archer County, Texas, and in Baylor County, Texas, by said diversion dam, or in any water which is in Baylor County, Texas, by said storage dam, or in any water in Lake Wichita in Wichita County, Texas, and in Archer County, Texas, or in any water impounded by the dam across Holliday Creek forming said Lake Wichita in Wichita County, Texas, or in any water in the Big Wichita River in Baylor County, Texas, connecting with the big reservoir, or Lake Kemp, created by the storage dam, with the diversion reservoir, or Diversion Lake, formed in Baylor County or Archer County, Texas, by said diversion dam, or in any water of the irrigation canals connected with said Lake Kemp or said diversion dam, or in any water in laterals leading off from said canals in Baylor County, Texas, Archer County, Texas, Wichita County, Texas, or Wilbarger County, Texas, or in any water in Wichita County, Texas, or Archer County, Texas, in the lateral, canal, or drainage ditch leading from what is known as the South Side Canal out of said Diversion Lake from a point in the said South Side Canal in Section No. 16, of Denton County school lands, League No. 4, Wichita County, Texas, to Holliday Creek and thence down Holliday Creek to Lake Wichita in Wichita and Archer Counties, Texas. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 166, § 1.]

Art. 952aa. Fishing in certain counties.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch any fish in the public fresh waters, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, lagoons or tanks in the Counties of Marion, Harrison, Smith and Rusk, State of Texas, by any other means than by the ordinary hook and line, set hook and line, gig or artificial bait, and it shall be unlawful for any person to place in the public fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, lagoons or tanks of the Counties of Marion, Harrison, Smith and Rusk, State of Texas, any seine, net or other device or trap for taking or catching fish, provided, however, that persons may use a minnow seine for the purpose of catching minnows and small perch for bait; provided that in seining for minnows or small perch for bait, all crappie or white perch and all black bass shall be immediately returned to the water while alive. No person shall use the minnow seine herein permitted for the purpose of taking any fish other than minnows and small perch for bait.

Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 275, ch. 193, § 1; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 98, ch. 32, § 1.]

Art. 952aal. Fishing in Jackson county.—It is hereby made unlawful for any person to take or catch fish from any of the fresh water lakes, streams, bayous, and lagoons in Jackson County, Texas, by any other means than hook and line or trot line or flounder gig and light or by the use of cast net or minnow seine, not exceeding twenty feet in length, used in catching bait. Any person dragging a seine or setting a net in any of the fresh water streams, lakes, bayous, or lagoons in Jackson County, or any person catching or taking fish by any other means than hook and line or trot line or cast net and minnow seine not exceeding twenty feet in length, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined in a sum of not less than Ten Dollars or more than One Hundred Dollars. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 251, ch. 93, § 1.]

Art. 952b. Same; explosives and poisons prohibited.—Any person who shall use any dynamite, powder or other explosive, or any poison in any of the waters described in Section 1 of this Act, and shall injure or destroy any fish thereby shall be deemed guilty of misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, and may be imprisoned in the county jail for any time not exceeding one year. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 167, § 2.]

Art. 952c. Same; seining prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take or catch any fish in the waters described in Section 1 of this Act by any other means than the ordinary hook and line, or trot-line or artificial bait; and it shall be unlawful for any person to place in any of the waters described in Section 1 of this Act by any seine, net or other devise [device] or trap for taking or catching fish; provided, however, that any person may use a minnow seine which is not more than twenty feet in length and the meshes of which are not less than one-sixth inch square for the purpose of catching minnows for bait; provided, further, that in seining for minnows for bait, as herein permitted, all bass, species of bass, crappie, and white perch, calico bass, blue gill bream and strawberry bream of whatever size that may be taken by seining shall immediately be returned to the waters uninjured and all other fish more than three inches in length, except minnows, shall be immediately returned to the waters uninjured; provided, further that no person shall use the minnow seine herein permitted for the purpose of taking any fish other than minnow for bait. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 167, § 3.]

Art. 952d. Same; closed season.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or their agent, or agents, to take, catch, seine, entrap by any action, or to have in their possession any bass, perch, crappie or catfish, or any other fish taken from any of the waters described in Section 1 of this Act, on or from the first day of February to the first day of May of any year. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 168, § 4.]

Art. 952e. Same; size and daily bag limit.—It shall be unlawful for any person to catch or retain, or have in his possession any bass, or other fish of the bass species, which are less than eleven (11) inches in length or to catch or retain, or have in his possession, in any one day a total aggregate of more than ten (10) bass, or other fish of the bass species, taken from the waters described in Section 1 of this Act; provided that it shall be unlawful for any person to catch and retain, or have in his possession from those waters in any one day bass, or other fish of the bass species, of any aggregate weight in excess of twenty (20) pounds; to catch and retain, or have in his possession any crappie or white perch or calico bass which are less than seven (7) inches in length, or catch and retain, or have in his possession any blue gill bream which are less than five (5) inches in length or to catch or retain, or have in his possession in any one day more than a total aggregate of twenty (20) crappie, or white perch or calico bass or blue gill bream or of any of or all those fish, taken from the waters described in Section 1 of this Act; provided that it shall be unlawful for any person to catch and retain or have in his possession from those waters in any one day crappie or white perch, or calico bass, or blue gill bream or of any or all of those fish of an aggregate weight in excess of twenty (20) pounds; provided, further that it shall be unlawful for any person to catch and retain or have in his possession in any one day from the waters described in Section 1 of this Act, bass, or any other fish of the bass species, crappie, white perch or sun fish, or calico bass or blue gill bream, or other fish of the crappie, white perch or bream of sun fish species, or an aggregate weight in excess of thirty (30) pounds. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 168, § 5; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 274, ch. 192, § 1.]

Art. 952f. Same; return of undersized fish.—If any person shall at any time catch or take from any of the waters described in Section 1 of this Act in the counties named in that section by use of any means whatsoever any bass, or other fish of the bass species, of less than eleven inches in length, or any crappie or white perch, or calico bass of less than seven (7) inches in length, or any blue gill bream of less than five (5) inches in length he shall immediately return the same into such water without unnecessarily injuring such fish; and the failure to immediately return such fish into such waters or the unnecessarily [unnecessary] injuring of such fish shall be deemed an offense under this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 168, § 6; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 274, ch. 192, § 2.]

Art. 952g. Same—trout and char, taking prohibited.—It shall be unlawful for any person to catch and retain or have in his possession any rainbow trout, or other species of trout or of any species of char within a period of six (6) years from the taking effect of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 168, § 7.]

Art. 952h. Same; leaving dead fish on banks.—It shall be unlawful for any person, or persons, knowingly to place, throw or deposit upon the banks or grounds adjacent to any of the waters described in Section 1 of this Act in the counties named in Section 1 of this Act, any bass, crappie, white perch, sun fish, drum, catfish, or other edible fish, and leave such fish to die without any intent upon the part of such person to eat such fish, or in like manner to leave any minnows without any intent to use the same for bait. Any person found guilty of the violation of any provisions of this section shall be fined in any sum not less than $1.00 nor more than $25.00, and each fish so allowed to die shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 168, § 8.]

Art. 952i. Same; penalty.—Any person violating any of the provisions of Sections I, III, IV, V, VI, of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $5.00 nor more than $50.00 for each violation of the law, and each fish caught, held in possession, sold or purchased in violation of this Act shall be deemed a separate violation hereof and a separate offense, and the person guilty thereof may be prosecuted either in the county where the fish are caught, where he is found, with them in his possession or where the fish are sold or bartered or offered for sale or bartered or bought. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 169, § 9.]

Art. 952j. Same; enforcement.—It is made the duty of the district judges of the judicial districts in which the counties of Archer, Baylor, Wilbarger and Wichita are situated to give a special charge upon [upon] this law to the grand juries of these counties. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 169, § 10.]

Art. 952k. Same; act cumulative.—This law shall be cumulative of all General Laws relating to fish and the protection thereof. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 169, § 11.]

Art. 952l. Same; partial invalidity.—If any court should hold unconstitutional or invalid any provisions of this Act such unconstitutionality or invalidity of that part shall in no way effect [affect] the constitutionality and validity of the remainder of this Act. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 37, p. 169, § 12.]

Art. 953. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 365, ch. 246, § 2.]

Art 954. Fish pound in gulf waters.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to erect, set[,] operate or maintain any fish pound net in any waters of the Gulf of Mexico within three nautical miles from the coast line of this State, without first obtaining a permit for such purpose. Application for such permits shall be made to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. Such commissioner shall issue to the person, firm or corporation applying therefor, if entitled thereto under the provisions of this chapter, a permit duly signed, to erect, set, operate or maintain a fish pound net in the waters above specified. No person, firm or corporation shall set, erect, operate or maintain any pound net at any place closer than three miles of any other pound net owned or operated by any other person, firm or corporation. No pound net shall ever be placed or operated closer than three miles of any pass mentioned in this chapter. Any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars.

Art. 955. Sale [of] fish in certain counties.—If any person shall sell or offer for sale any bass, white perch, crappie, channel or other catfish, caught, trapped or ensnared in the streams of the counties of Burnet, San Saba, Brown, McCulloch, Edwards, Coleman, Concho, Menard, Mason, Gillespie, Kimble, Sutton, Kinney, Uvalde, Real, Kerr, Comal, Val Verde, Bandera, Reeves, Ward, Loving, Pecos, Medina, Bexar, Hunt, Runnels, Rains, [Kimble,] Williamson, Zavalla, Dimmit, Milam, Travis, Lampasas, or Llano, State of Texas, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars. No person shall take or catch any fish in the fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools, or lagoons in the counties above named by any other means than by ordinary hook and line or trot line or artificial bait, and no person shall place in the fresh water rivers, creeks, lakes, bayous, pools or lagoons of the counties above mentioned, any seine, net or other device or trap for taking or catching fish; provided, however, that persons may use a minnow seine which is not more than twenty feet in length for the purpose of catching minnows for bait. In seining for bait as herein permitted, all fish and minnows more than three inches in length shall be returned to the water at once while alive. No person shall use the minnow seine herein permitted for the purpose of taking any fish other than minnows for bait. Any person violating any provision of this section shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars.

No person shall take from the fresh waters of any county mentioned more than thirty-five of such fish in any one day. Any person violating this provision of this article shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. The taking of each fish in excess of the number herein allowed shall be a separate offense.

No person shall knowingly place, throw, or deposit upon the banks or grounds adjacent to any of the fresh waters, creeks, lakes, bayous, rivers, pools, lagoons, or tanks in the counties above named any catfish, perch, crappie, white perch, bass, trout, or other edible fish, and leave such fish to die without any intention upon the part of such person either to eat such fish or use same for bait. Any person found guilty of the violation of this provision shall be fined not to exceed twenty-five dollars. The allowing of each fish so to die shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1923, p. 166; Acts 1925, p. 174.] [39th Leg., ch. 41½, § 1.]

Art. 956. Mischief in prohibited waters.—Whoever shall wilfully and with intent to injure the owner, take any boat, seine or net or other device for fishing into prohibited waters, or shall use said articles for the unlawful taking or catching of fish, so as to cause the destruction of same, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars, and be confined in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. [Acts 1913, p. 275.]

Art. 957. Season for salt water terrapin.—Whoever kills, takes or has in his possession any salt water terrapin at any time except during November, December, January and February shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 208.]

Art. 958. [910] Underweight turtle or terrapin.—Whoever sells or ships any green turtle of less than twelve pounds in weight or terrapin of less than six inches in length of under shell shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1895, p. 173, Acts 1913, p. 270.]

Art. 959. [905] Buoy or marker.—Whoever shall deface, injure, or destroy or remove any buoy, marker or fence or any part thereof, used to designate or enclose a private oyster bed or a location where oysters have been deposited to be prepared for market, without the consent of the owner thereof, or any buoy, marker or sign placed or used by the Commissioner for the purpose of designating any waters closed against fishing or oyster taking, without the consent of said Commissioner, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 200.]

Art. 960. Public or private oyster bed.—All oyster beds shall be public or private; all not designated private shall be public. All natural oyster beds and oyster reefs of this State shall be deemed public and a natural oyster bed shall be declared to exist when as many as five barrels of oysters may be found within twenty-five hundred square feet of any position of said reef or bed and any lands covered by water containing less oysters than the above amount shall be subject to location at the discretion of the Commissioner, but this shall not apply to a reef or bed that has been exhausted within a period of eight years. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 193.]

Art. 961. Right to private oyster bed.—When any creek, bayou, lake or cove shall be included within the metes and bounds of any original grant or location of land in this State, the lawful occupant of such grant or location shall have the exclusive right to use said creek, lake, bayou or cove for gathering, planting, or sowing oysters within the metes and bounds of the official grant or patent. The Commissioner may require the owner of oysters produced in said water when offered for sale, to make an affidavit that such oysters were so produced. The failure of the person claiming that such oysters were produced on his private oyster bed or bottoms, to have and to show such affidavit to the Commissioner or one of his deputies, or to whoever he offers such oysters for sale, shall be presumptive that such oysters were taken from a public bed, and on prosecution for the same it shall devolve on the defendant to show that such oysters were taken from his private bed, or bottom of oysters. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 193.]

Art. 962. [920] Theft of oysters.—Whoever fraudulently takes the oysters placed on private reefs without the consent of the owner of the private reef or from beds or deposits made for the purpose of preparing oysters for market without the consent of the owner of the oysters who has deposited them to prepare them for market under the provisions of law, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than two years. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 200.]

Art. 963. [904] License to dredge oysters.—Anyone who is an American citizen or any firm or any corporation composed of such citizens desiring to use scrapers or dredges in removing oysters from the natural oyster reefs of this State shall procure from the Commissioner or his deputy a license to do so. It is unlawful to use a dredge or any means other than hand tongs in removing oysters from such reefs in bodies of water less than four feet deep, and it is unlawful to use a power dredge except one operated by hand power for removing oysters from such reefs in bodies of water less than six feet deep. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1891, p. 157, Acts 1913, p. 269, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 207, Acts 1923, p. 298.]

Art. 964. [923b] Oysters from closed reef.—Whenever the Commissioner believes that any public reef is being overworked or damaged in any way, or where such reef has been worked under his supervision, he may close such reef against anyone taking oysters from it, but before he closes it he shall give two weeks' notice of such closing by posting notices in such fish houses as are in two towns nearest such reef. In such notices he shall state the date of closing and the time for which such reef shall be closed. Whoever takes oysters from such reef within the time closed by the Commissioner shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 274, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 207.]

Art. 965. Oysters from insanitary reef.—It shall be unlawful to ship, sell or possess for the purpose of sale any fish or oysters taken from insanitary or polluted reefs or beds. Any reef or bed of oysters which has been declared by the State Health Department as insanitary or polluted is within the meaning of this article insanitary and polluted. Whoever sells or has in his possession for the purpose of sale fish or oysters taken from such insanitary or polluted reef or bed shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 209.]

Art. 966. [914] Taking oysters in closed season.—Whoever shall take or catch oysters from any public beds or reefs for sale or for market from the first day of April to the first day of September, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day is a separate offense. That part of the Laguna Madre which is South and West of Baffin's

Bay is exempt from the operation of this article. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 206.]

Art. 967. [904] Buying or planting oysters in closed season.—Whoever plants or buys oysters for planting, bedding, marketing or any other purpose from the first day of May to the first day of September in any year without the consent of the Commissioner shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1891, p. 155, Acts 1913, p. 269.]

Reference in brackets to 904 should be 902.

Art. 968. [903] Shipping oysters in closed season.—No transportation company operating within this State, its officers[,] agents or employes, shall receive for shipment, or ship, within the boundaries of this State, from the first day of May to the first day of September of any year, any oysters from any public bed or reef for depositing or for marketing; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any such transportation company, its officers, agents or employes, from shipping or receiving for shipment, any oysters taken from a private bed located under the laws of this State, offered for shipment by the owner or owners, locator or locators, of such bed, such fact to be established by the affidavit of the person or persons offering such oysters for shipment. Any officer, agent or employe of such transportation company violating any provision of this article shall be fined for each offense not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 238, Acts 1913, p. 269, Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 203.]

Art. 969. Scattering oyster culls.—It shall be unlawful for any person to fail, or refuse to scatter the culls of such oysters as he may take from the oyster reefs as directed by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner, and it is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person to open or shuck oysters for market near or on the reefs or beds from which such oysters were taken, or to open or shuck oysters for market on any fishing vessel or barge, except when such vessel or barge be in some part or place where oysters are commonly sold. The shell from oysters opened or shucked on board any vessel or barge must be deposited on shore as directed by the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner. Any one violating any of the provisions of this article shall be fined in a sum not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars; and on such conviction the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner in his discretion may cancel the license of the captain of the boat on which such person is employed or for which he is gathering oysters, as well as cancel the license to fish and gather oysters of such persons offending, and no new license shall be issued to such captain or to such person convicted for a period not to exceed two years.

Art. 970. Sale of oysters taken for planting.—No person gathering oysters for planting or depositing for preparations for market, on locations obtained from the State or on private property, shall sell, market or in any way dispose of oysters so gathered at the time of gathering, for any other purpose than planting or preparing for market, provided, this shall not be considered as meaning the right to dispose of a location or oyster bed. Any person offending against this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 206.]

Art. 971. [918] Cargo of Young Oysters.—Any person offering for sale, or who shall sell, any cargo of oysters which shall contain more than five per cent young oysters shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. Any oyster that measures less than three and one-half inches from hinge to mouth shall be deemed a young oyster for the purpose of this chapter. The Commissioner is authorized to permit the taking of oysters of less size than three and one-half inches from any reef he may designate but it shall be unlawful to take any oysters from reefs other than those designated by such Commissioner, and any one taking such oysters smaller in measurement than three and one-half inches from hinge to mouth from other than such reefs as designated by such Commissioner shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 972. Using insanitary container.—Any receptacle for oysters which has not been thoroughly cleaned before oysters are placed in it, is hereby declared to be insanitary. Whoever sells oysters from such receptacle, or ships oysters in such receptacle shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 209.]

Art. 973. Floating or bloating oysters.—No person, firm or corporation shall ship into or in this State, sell or have in his possession for the purpose of sale, any oyster or shell fish in which any formaldehyde or other preservative has been placed, or any oysters or other shell fish which have been subjected to "floating," "drinking" or "bloating" in water containing less salt than in which they are grown, or oysters or other shell fish to which water has been added either directly or indirectly or in the form of melted ice. Unpolluted salt cold or ice water may be used in washing shucked or shelled oysters or other shell fish, if the washing does not continue any longer than the minimum time necessary for chilling, and whoever engages in "floating," "drinking" or "bloating" oysters in this State, or who ships into or in this State such oysters, or who has in his possession, sells or offers to sell any such oysters, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 974. "Net" defined.—Whenever a net mentioned in this chapter as a trammel, strike, gill, hoop, pound, purse or other kind of a net, the standard net of such variety or kind or the usual or ordinary kind of such net as manufactured and sold as in or to the trade is meant. [Id.; Acts 1923, p. 299.]

Art. 975. License for mussel or clam.—Whoever takes from the public waters of this State for sale, any mussels, clams or naiad or shells thereof without first obtaining a license from the Commissioner, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 214.]

Art. 976. Marl, sand and shell.—Whoever shall, for himself, or for or on behalf of or under the direction of another person, association of persons, corporate or otherwise, take or carry away any marl, sand or shells or mudshell or gravel placed under the management, control and protection of the Commissioner, or shall disturb any of said marl, sand, shells or mudshell or gravel or oyster beds or fishing waters or shall operate in or upon any of said places for any purpose other than that necessary or incident to navigation or dredging under State or Federal authority, without having first obtained a written permit from said Commissioner for the territory in which such operation is carried on, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day's operation shall be a separate offense. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 218.]

Art. 977. Charts as evidence.—All United States Coastal Survey Charts covering the coast of Texas are admissible in any prosecution under this chapter.

Art. 978. [871] Witnesses must testify.—Any court, office or tribunal having jurisdiction of the offenses set forth in this chapter or any district or county attorney may subpoena persons and compel their attendance as witnesses to testify as to violations of any provision of this chapter. Anyone so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any such violation about which he may testify; and a conviction of said offense may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 207.]

Art. 978a. Trespass on hatchery or reservation.—Any person entering and trespassing on the grounds of any State fish hatchery or on the grounds set apart by the State for the propagation and keeping of birds and animals, without the permission of the Commissioner or deputy in charge of such reservation, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 208.]

Art. 978b. Protecting fish and game in hatchery.—Whoever shall take, injure or kill any fish kept by the State in its hatcheries, or any bird or animal kept by the State on its reservation grounds or elsewhere for propagation or exhibition purposes, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 978c. [915] Screening canal or pipe.—Every person, firm or corporation using any means for the purpose of taking water from the fresh waters of the State, when directed to do so by the Commissioner, shall place screens over the entrance of the canal, pipe, or over whatever means are used for diverting the water, or over the mouth of the intake pipe, for the purpose of preventing fish from entering said pipe or canal. The size of and regulations for placing such screen and any other obstruction shall be designated by the Commissioner. Whoever fails to comply with this article after notification by the Commissioner to do so shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day is a separate offense. [Acts 1909, p. 331, Acts 1913, p. 271.]

Art. 978d. Closed season for green turtle.—It shall be unlawful for any person to take or kill or have in his possession at any time before September 1, 1920, any sea turtle known as the green turtle, and it shall be unlawful to destroy or take the eggs of such turtle and any person who shall take, kill or have in his possession within such five years, or shall destroy or take the eggs of such turtle, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in a sum of not less than fifty ($50.00) nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

(The foregoing article is senseless but is a correct copy of the enrolled bill.)

The note in parenthesis was inserted by the official revisors. The article is from Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 438, ch. 178, § 1, art. 55, unchanged. The reference to 1920 probably was intended to be to 1930.

Art. 978e. Closed season on bass and crappie.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, or their agents, to buy or sell, or offer for sale, or offer to buy, or have in his or their possession for sale, or to carry, transport or ship for the purpose of sale, barter or exchange, any fresh water crappie or bass within the State of Texas.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, and each sale or shipment or act in violation hereof shall constitute a separate offense.

 1002. Altering or injuring public records.
 1003. Falsely personating another.
 1004. False personation in acknowledgments.
 1005. Procedure.

Article 979. [924] [530] [431] "Forgery."

—He is guilty of forgery who without lawful authority, and with intent to injure or defraud, shall make a false instrument in writing purporting to be the act of another, in such manner that the false instrument so made would (if the same were true) have created, increased, diminished, discharged or defeated any pecuniary obligation, or would have transferred, or in any manner have affected any property whatever. [O. C. 431.]

Art. 980. Forgery of will.—Any person who executes what purports to be the last will and testament of another, without the consent of such other person, is also guilty of forgery. Prosecution under this article may be begun at any time after such forgery is committed and within five years after the death of the purported testator, but not thereafter. [Acts 1919, p. 119.]

Art. 981. Forgery of obligation of foreign government.—He is guilty of forgery who without lawful authority and with intent to injure or defraud shall falsely make, alter[,] forge or counterfeit any bond, certificate, obligation, or instrument in writing having a value or purporting to be of value issued by or purporting to be issued by or under the authority or direction of any foreign government or de facto foreign government, or any officer or agent of any foreign government or de facto foreign government, or any person or persons claiming to act by or under the authority of any foreign government or de facto foreign government or claiming by right of any office, military or civil, to have a right in any foreign country to issue money, bills of exchange, notes, or any papers circulating as money or mediums of exchange in any foreign country or portion thereof, or purporting to be redeemable in money or other thing of value, and any person violating any of the provisions of this article shall be punished as provided in article 995. [Act Sept. 16, 1914.]

Art. 982. Passing obligation of foreign government.—If any person shall knowingly pass as true or attempt to pass as true any such forged instrument in writing as is mentioned and defined in article 981 he shall be punished as provided by article 996. [Act Sept. 16, 1914.]

Art. 983. Possessing of obligation of foreign government.—If any person shall knowingly have in his possession any instrument of writing, the making of which is by law an offense under the provisions of article 981 hereof, with intent to use or pass the same as true, he shall be punished as is provided in article 998. [Act Sept. 16, 1914.]

Art. 984. [925] [531] [432] Alteration also forgery.—He is also guilty of forgery who, without lawful authority, and with intent to injure or defraud, shall alter an instrument in writing then already in existence, by whomsoever made, in such manner that the alteration would (if it had been legally made) have created, increased, diminished, discharged or defeated any pecuniary obligation, or would have transferred, or in any manner have affected any property whatever. [O. C. 432.]

Art. 985. [926] [532] [433] Intent necessary.—The false making or alteration, to constitute forgery, must be done with intent to injure or defraud, and the injury must be such as affects one pecuniarily, or in relation to his property. [O. C. 442.]

Art. 986. [927] [533] [434] "Instrument in writing."—The words "Instrument in writing," as used in this chapter, include every writing purporting to make known or declare the will or intention of the party whose act it purports to be, whether the same be of record or under seal or private signature, or whatever other form it may have. It must be upon paper or parchment, or some substance, made to resemble either of them. The words may be written, printed, stamped or made in any other way, or by any other device. And the words "in writing," "write," "written," include all these modes of making. An instrument, partly printed or stamped, and partly written, is an instrument in writing. In order to come within the definition of forgery, the signature, when made otherwise than by writing, must be made to resemble manuscript. [O. C. 434.]

Art. 987. [928] [534] [435] "Alter."—The word "alter," in the definition of forgery, means to erase or obliterate any word, letter or figure, to extract the writing altogether, or to substitute other words, letters or figures for those erased, obliterated or extracted, to add any other word, letter or figure to the original instrument, or to make any other change whatever which shall have the effect to create, increase, diminish, discharge or defeat a pecuniary obligation, or to transfer, or in any other way affect any property whatever. [O. C. 438.]

Art. 988. [929] [535] [436] "Another."—The instrument must purport to be the act of "another," and within the meaning of this word, as used in defining forgery, are included this State, the United States, or either of the States or Territories of the Union; all the several branches of the government or either of them; all public or private bodies, politic and corporate; all courts; all officers, public or private, in their official capacity; all partnerships in professions or trades; and all other persons, whether real or fictitious, except the person engaged in the forgery. [O. C. 439.]

Art. 989. [930] [536] [437] "Pecuniary obligation."—"Pecuniary obligation" means every instrument having money for its object, and every obligation for the breach of which a civil action for damages may be lawfully brought. [O. C. 440.]

Art. 990. [931] [537] [438] "Transferred or in any manner have affected."—By an instrument which would "have transferred or in any manner have affected" property, is meant every species of conveyance, or undertaking in writing, which supposes a right in the person purporting to execute it, to dispose of or change the character of property of every kind, and which can have such effect when genuine. [O. C. 441.]

Art. 991. [932] [538] [439] All participants guilty.—One is guilty of making or altering, who, knowing the illegal purpose intended, shall write, or cause to be written, the signature, or the whole or any part of a forged instrument. All persons engaged in the illegal act are deemed guilty of forgery. [O. C. 435.]

Art. 992. [933] [539] [440] Filling up over signature.—It is a forgery to make, with intent to defraud or injure, a written instrument, by filling up over a genuine signature, or by writing on the opposite side of a paper so as to make the signature appear as an endorsement. [O. C. 436.]

Art. 993. [934] [540] [441] Person not guilty, when.—When the person making or altering an instrument in writing acts under an authority which he has good reason to believe, and actually does believe, to be sufficient, he is not guilty of forgery, though the authority be in fact insufficient and void. [O. C. 437.]

Art. 994. [935] Altering teacher's certificate.—Whoever shall wilfully raise, change, or alter any teacher's certificate or diploma, or other instrument having the force of a teacher's certificate, shall be deemed guilty of forgery. [Acts 1893, p. 205.]

Art. 995. [936] [541] [442] Penalty for forgery.—Any person guilty of forgery shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [O. C. 433.]

Art. 996. [937] [542] [443] Passing forged instrument.—If any person shall knowingly pass as true, or attempt to pass as true, any such forged instrument in writing as is mentioned and defined in the preceding articles of this chapter, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 443.]

Art. 997. [938] [534] [444] Preparing implements for forgery.—Whoever shall prepare in this State any implements or materials, or engrave any plate for the purpose of being used in forging the notes of any bank, whether within this State or out of it, and whether the same be incorporated or not, or who shall have in his possession in this State any such implements, materials or engraved plate, with intent to be used for the purpose above mentioned, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 444.]

Art. 998. [939] [544] [445] Possession with intent to pass.—If any person shall knowingly have in his possession any instrument of writing, the making of which is by law an offense, with intent to use or pass the same as true, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 445, Acts 1858, p. 169.]

Art. 999. [940] [545] [446] Evidence in case of bank bills.—Upon a trial for forgery of any bank bill, or for passing or attempting to pass any such bill as true, or for knowingly having in possession any such forged bank bill, evidence that bills or notes purporting to be issued by any bank are commonly received as currency, or proof of the existence of such bank by parol testimony, shall be deemed sufficient to show its legal establishment and existence. [O. C. 446.]

Art. 1000. [941] [546] [447] Falsely reading instrument.—Whoever with intent to defraud shall, either by falsely reading, or falsely interpreting, any pecuniary obligation or instrument in writing, which would in any manner affect property, or by misrepresenting its contents, induce any one to sign such instrument as his act, or give assent to it in such manner as would make it his act, if not done under mistake, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 447.]

Art. 1001. [942] [547] [448] Substituting one instrument for another.—Whoever with intent to defraud shall substitute one instrument in writing for another, and by this means induce any person to sign an instrument materially different from that which he intended to sign, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 448.]

Art. 1002. [943] Altering or injuring public records.—If any person, without authority of law, shall wilfully and maliciously change, alter, mutilate, destroy, deface or injure any book, paper, record or any other document, required or permitted by law to be kept by any officer within this State, he shall be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Acts 1899, p. 301.]

Art. 1003. [944] [548] [449] Falsely personating another.—If one shall falsely personate another, whether bearing the same name or not, and, in such assumed character, shall give authority to any person to sign such assumed name to any instrument in writing which, if genuine, would create, increase, diminish or discharge any pecuniary obligation, or would transfer, or in any way affect any property, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [O. C. 449.]

Art. 1004. [945] [549] [450] False personation in acknowledgments.—If any person shall falsely personate another whether bearing the same name or not, and in such assumed character shall, before any officer authorized by law to authenticate instruments of writing for registration, acknowledge the execution of an instrument of writing purporting to convey, or in any manner affect, an interest in property, such instrument purporting to be the act of the person whose name is so assumed, and the acknowledgment thereof being such as would entitle the instrument to be registered, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [O. C. 450.]

Art. 1005. [946] [549a] [450a] Procedure.—A conviction for any offense mentioned in articles 979, 996 and 998 shall be a bar to any other prosecution under said articles based upon the same transaction or same forged instrument of writing. One or more of said several offenses may be charged in separate counts in the same indictment, and prosecuted together to final judgment without election by the State as to which it relies upon for a conviction. A judgment of conviction shall specify which offense or under which count the defendant is found guilty, and shall assess but one penalty not exceeding the greatest punishment fixed by law to the highest grade of offense of which defendant is convicted. It is unlawful for any county or district attorney, or any person acting as such, to wilfully or knowingly demand or receive fees for more than one prosecution that could have been combined or prosecuted in one indictment, subject to the penalties prescribed by law for the punishment of extortion of illegal fees. [Acts 1895, p. 106.]

CHAPTER TWO

FORGERY OF LAND TITLES, ETC.

Art.

- 1006. "Forgery of patents," etc.
- 1007. False certificate by officers.
- 1008. Knowingly uttering forged instruments.
- 1009. Non-residents may commit.
- 1010. Proof and allegations.
- 1011. Rules in forgery applicable.

Article 1006. [947] [550] [451] "Forgery of patents," etc.—Every person who falsely makes, alters, forges, or counterfeits, or causes or procures to be falsely made, altered, forged, or counterfeited, or in any way aids, assists, advises, or encourages the false making, altering, forging, or counterfeiting of any certificate, field notes, returns, survey, map, plat, report, order, decree, record, patent, deed, power of attorney, transfer, assignment, release, conveyance, or title paper, or acknowledgment, or proof of record, or certificate of record belonging to or pertaining to any instrument or paper, or any seal, official or private stamp, scroll, mark, date, signature, or any paper, or any evidence of any right, title, or claim of any character, or any instrument in writing, document, paper or memorandum, or file of any character whatsoever, in relation to or affecting lands, or any interest in lands in this State, with the intent to make money or other valuable thing thereby, or with intent to set up a claim or title, or aid or assist any one else in setting up a claim or title to lands or any interest in lands, or to prosecute or defend a suit, or aid or assist anyone else in prosecuting or defending a suit with respect to lands, or to cast a cloud upon the title, or in any way injure, obtain the advantage of, or prejudice the rights or interest of, the true owner of lands, or with any fraudulent intent whatever, shall be deemed guilty of forgery and be punished by imprisonment in the State penitentiary at hard labor not less than five nor more than twenty years. [Acts 1876, p. 59.]

Art. 1007. [948] [551] [452] False certificate by officers.—If any person authorized by law to take the proof of acknowledgment of any instrument, document or paper whatsoever, affecting or relating to the title of lands in this State, wilfully and falsely certify that such proof or acknowledgment was duly made, or if any person fraudulently affixes a fictitious or pretended signature purporting to be that of an officer or any other person, though such person never was an officer or never existed, he shall be deemed guilty of forgery and punished as provided in article 1006 of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1008. [949] [552] [453] Knowingly uttering forged instruments.—Every person who knowingly utters, publishes, passes, or uses, or who in any way aids, assists in or advises the uttering, publishing, passing or using as true and genuine any false, forged, altered, or counterfeited certificate, field-notes, returns, survey, map, plat, report, order, decree, record, patent, deed, power of attorney, transfer, assignment, release, conveyance, title papers, acknowledgment or proof for record or certificate of record belonging to or pertaining to any instrument or paper, or any evidence of any right, title or claim of any character whatsoever, or any instrument in writing, document, paper, memorandum or file, or any official or private seal, or any scroll, mark, date, or signature in any way relating to, or having any connection with land, or any interest in land in this State, with the intent mentioned in article 1006 of this chapter, or with any other fraudulent intent whatsoever, shall be deemed guilty and be punished in like manner as is provided in article 1006 of this chapter. And the filing or causing or directing to be filed, or causing or directing to be recorded, in the General Land Office of the State, or in any office of record or in any court in this State, or the sending through the mails or by express, or in any other way, for the purpose of filing of record of any such false, altered, forged or counterfeited matter, documents, conveyances, papers, or things, knowing the same to be false, altered, forged or counterfeited, shall be an uttering, publishing and using within the meaning of this article. [Id.]

Art. 1009. [950] [553] [454] Non-residents may commit.—Persons out of the State may commit and be liable to indictment and conviction for committing any offenses enumerated in this chapter, which do not in their commission necessarily require a personal presence in this State—the object of this chapter being to reach and punish all offending against its provisions, whether within or without the State.

Art. 1010. [951] [554] [455] Proof and allegations.—Upon indictment under this chapter, to warrant a conviction, it shall only be necessary to prove that the person charged took any one step, or did any one act or thing in the commission of the offense, if from such step, act or thing any of the intentions hereinbefore mentioned, or any other fraudulent intention, may be reasonably inferred; nor shall it be any defense to a prosecution under this chapter that the matter, act, deed, instrument or thing was in law, either as to substance or form, void, or that the same was not in fact used for the purpose for which it was made or designed; and it shall only be necessary in an indictment under this chapter to state with reasonable certainty the act constituting the offense, and charge, in connection therewith, in general terms, the intention to defraud, without naming the person or persons it was intended to defraud. On trial of such indictment, it shall be sufficient and shall not be deemed a variance if there appears to be an intent to defraud the United States, or any State, Territory, county, city, town or village, or any body corporate, or any public officer in his official capacity, or any co-partnership, or member thereof, or any particular person. [Acts 1876, p. 59.]

Art. 1011. [953] [556] [457] Rules in forgery applicable.—The rules prescribed in the preceding chapter relative to the offense of forgery, so far as the same are applicable, shall apply to the various offenses enumerated in this chapter. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

COUNTERFEITING AND DIMINISHING VALUE OF COIN

- Art.
1012. "Counterfeiting."
1013. Passing counterfeit coin.
1014. Making dies, etc.

- Art.
1015. Passing coin of diminished value.
1016. "Gold and silver coin."
1017. What constitutes passing.

Article 1012. [954-5-6-7] "Counterfeiting."—He is guilty of counterfeiting who makes, in the semblance of true gold or silver coin, any coin of whatever denomination, having in its composition a less proportion of the precious metal of which the true coin intended to be imitated is composed than is contained in such true coin, with intent that the same should be passed in this State or elsewhere; or who, with like intent, alters any coin of lower value so as to make it resemble coin of higher value. The resemblance between the true and the false coin need not be perfect to constitute the offense of counterfeiting. Whoever shall counterfeit any gold or silver coin shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years.

Art. 1013. [958] [561] [463] Passing counterfeit coin.—Whoever with intent to defraud shall pass or offer to pass as true, or bring into this State, or have in his possession with intent to pass as true, any counterfeit coin, knowing the same to be counterfeit, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 455.]

Art. 1014. [959] [562] [464] Making dies, etc.—If any person with the intention of committing the offense of counterfeiting, or of aiding therein, shall make or repair, or shall have in his possession any die, mould or other instrument whatever, designed or adapted, or usually employed for making coin, or shall prepare, or have in his possession, any base metal prepared for coinage, with intent that the same may be used for the purpose of counterfeiting, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 1015. [960] [563] [465] Passing coin of diminished value.—If any person shall with intent to profit thereby diminish the weight of any gold or silver coin and afterwards pass it for the value it would have had before it was so diminished, or send it to any place, whether in the State or out of it, with the intent that the same may be passed, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 457; Acts 1858, p. 169.]

Art. 1016. [961] [564] [466] "Gold and silver coin."—By the gold or silver coin mentioned in this chapter is meant any piece of gold or silver of which one of these metals is the principal component part, and which passes as money in the United States, either by law or usage, whether the same be of the United States or of any foreign country. [O. C. 458.]

Art. 1017. [962] [565] [467] What constitutes passing.—It is sufficient to constitute the offense of passing or attempting to pass under the provisions of this chapter if the counterfeit coin be delivered or offered to another with the intention of defrauding or enabling such other person to defraud although such counterfeit coin be not delivered or offered at the full value which it would bear if genuine.

CHAPTER FOUR

WAREHOUSES AND COTTON

- Art.
1018. Issuing receipt without basis.
1019. Receipt containing false statement.
1020. Duplicating receipts.
1021. Exception.
1022. Failure to disclose ownership.
1023. Unlawful delivery by warehouseman.
1024. Exception.
1025. Unlawfully depositing goods.
1026. Forging warehouse receipt.
1027. Unlicensed cotton classer.
1028. Substituting sample.
1029. Fraudulent certificate.
1030. Wilfully plating cotton.
1031. Ginner to comply with law.
1032. Unlicensed ginner.
1033. Ginner's record.
1034. Pink bollworm laws.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Article 1018. Issuing receipt without basis.

—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt, knowing that the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouseman, or are not under the actual control of such warehouseman at the time of issuing such receipt, shall be confined in the penitentiary not exceeding five years, or be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both. [Acts 1919, p. 225, Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 82.]

Art. 1019. Receipt containing false statement.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods, knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. [Acts 1919, p. 225.]

Art. 1020. Duplicating receipts.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods, knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "Duplicate," shall be confined in the penitentiary not exceeding five years, or be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1021. Exception.—The preceding article shall not apply where such goods were delivered upon an order of court upon proof of loss or destruction of a negotiable receipt therefor. [Id.]

Art. 1022. Failure to disclose ownership.—Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman, goods of which he is owner, either solely, jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents, or servants who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1023. Unlawful delivery by warehouseman.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent or servant of a warehouseman, who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1024. Exception.—The preceding article shall not apply where such goods were delivered upon an order of court upon proof of loss or destruction of a negotiable receipt therefor; nor where such goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature. [Id.]

Art. 1025. Unlawfully depositing goods.—Whoever deposits goods to which he has no title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage, shall be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year, or be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1026. Forging warehouse receipt.—Whoever shall forge any warehouse receipt or knowingly negotiate any forged warehouse receipt purporting to be issued under and by authority of the law passed at the First Called Session of the Thirty-fifth Legislature, being Chapter forty-one of the General Laws of such Session and known as the "Permanent Warehouse Law," shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years, or both. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 1027. Unlicensed cotton classer.—Whoever shall engage in business as a public cotton classer, classing cotton for the public generally, without holding a license as a public cotton classer, as provided by law, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1028. Substituting sample.—Whoever with intent to defraud shall substitute any sample of cotton or other farm product for a sample taken under authority of law shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1029. Fraudulent certificate.—Whoever shall issue, or cause to be issued, any certificate of sample, weight, grade, or class, of any cotton or other farm products, for commercial purposes, with intent to deceive or defraud, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. Each instrument so issued shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 1030. Wilfully plating cotton.—Each ginner, and any officer, servant or employé of a corporation, person or gin company, conducting a gin business, who shall wilfully plate a bale of cotton, which is to say, who shall wilfully and knowingly place on the outside of said bale a better grade and quality of cotton than on the inside of said bale, for the purpose of deceiving, shall be confined in the penitentiary not exceeding two years, or be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, or both. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1914, p. 32.]

Art. 1031. Ginner to comply with law.—Whoever operates a cotton gin, either for himself or for another for commercial purposes, without complying with the laws of this State governing such ginner, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 65.]

Art. 1032. Unlicensed ginner.—Whoever shall operate any gin, ginning cotton for commercial purposes, without first obtaining a license as a licensed ginner from the Commissioner of Agriculture, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1033. [1986-7-9] Ginner's record.—Every person, firm, corporation or association of persons owning, controlling or operating a public cotton gin shall keep or cause to be kept in a book a public record of all cotton brought to them for ginning and packing, showing correctly the amount of cotton received, date of its receipt, by whom brought to the gin, and the name or names of the party or parties claiming to own the same, and after ginning and packing said cotton shall place or cause to be placed on each bale of cotton the initials of the party or parties claiming to own said cotton, under which the ginner shall place some private ginner's mark and record, all of which shall be recorded in said book. Any ginner who fails, neglects or refuses to comply with any provision of this article shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1901, p. 263.]

Art. 1034. Pink bollworm laws.—Whoever shall transport any cotton or cotton products by any means from any territory in this State which has been quarantined and placed under restrictions by proclamation of the Governor of the State, in accordance with the authority conferred by the laws of this State relating to the pink bollworm; or whoever shall violate any proclamation or any rule, regulation or other restriction authorized by said laws or bring into the State any material contaminated with said worm or its eggs; or whoever shall plant, cultivate, grow, allow to grow, gather, transport or market cotton in or from any territory in this State, that has been quarantined and declared a non-cotton zone and placed under restrictions by any of the proclamations authorized by said laws; or whoever shall fail to comply with any of the said rules and regulations so promulgated for the control and direction of cotton growing and marketing in any restricted or regulated zone; or shall violate any proclamation, regulation or restriction authorized by said laws, or any ginner who shall fail or refuse to disinfect cotton seed as provided for in said laws; or whoever shall wilfully refuse or knowingly neglect to comply with any such proclamation, restriction or regulation promulgated and maintained for the protection of the cotton industry, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. Each transaction of each product so shipped or transported, and each act in violation of the restrictions herein authorized governing the planting, growing, marketing and cleaning the field, shall constitute a separate offense. The district court of the county in which any criminal case is filed under the provisions of this article may, upon the application of either the State or of the defendant and a showing that the applicant cannot obtain a fair trial in that county, order a change of venue to an adjoining county or district. [Acts 1st C. S. 1921, p. 128.]

CHAPTER FIVE

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES

- Art.
 1035. Duty of local sealer.
 1036. Removing tag of sealer.

 1040. Refusing to permit test of article.
 1041. Unlawfully sealing.
 1042. Failure to regard unit of measure.
 1043. Parties may contract.
 1044. Receptacle containing mill product.
 1045. Containers for fruit or vegetables.
 1046. Inspection of fruits and vegetables.
 1047. "Public weigher."
 1048. Weight certificate.
 1049. Record of weights.
 1050. Issuing false certificate.
 1051. Requesting false certificate.
 1052. Weigher to comply with law.
 1053. Shipping at false weight.
 1054. Deposit for installing service.
 1055. Water, gas and electric meters.
 1056. Diverting from meters.
 1057. Misreading meter.
 1057a. Refusal to allow authorities to examine meter.

Article 1035. Duty of local sealer.—Each local or deputy sealer of weights and measures appointed by any city or town council or commission, shall be under the supervision of the Commissioner of Agriculture and shall be required to report to him regularly and carry out all his instructions, and on failure or refusal to do so shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 240.]

Art. 1036. Removing tag of sealer.—Whoever removes or obliterates any tag or device placed by any authorized sealer, deputy sealer or inspector upon any weight or measure, or weighing or measuring instrument, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1037. False weights and measures.—Any person, who, by himself or his employé or agent, or as the employé or agent of another, shall use, in the buying or selling of any commodity, or retain in his possession, a false weight or measure, or weighing or measuring instrument, or shall offer or expose for sale, or sell, except as specifically allowed by law, or use or retain in his possession any weight or measure or weighing or measuring instrument contrary to law, or any person, who, by himself, or his employé or agent, or as the employé or agent of another, shall sell or offer or expose for sale, or use or have in his possession for the purpose of selling or using, any device or instrument to be used to, or calculated to, falsify any weight or measure, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. Possession of such false weights or measures or instruments shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that they were intended to be used in the violation of law. [Id.]

Art. 1038. Hindering sealers.—Whoever hinders or obstructs in any way the Commissioner of Agriculture, or his deputy, inspector or sealer or any local sealer, in the performance of their duties, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1039. Refusing to permit test of weight.—Any person neglecting or refusing to exhibit any weight, measure, or weighing or measuring instrument of any kind, or appliances and accessories connected with any of such instruments or measures which are in his possession or under his control to the Commissioner, his deputy, inspector or to any local inspector or sealer, for the purpose of allowing the same to be inspected and examined as provided for by law, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1040. Refusing to permit test of article.—Any person, who, by himself, or his employé or agent, or as the proprietor or manager, shall refuse to exhibit any article, commodity, produce or anything being sold or offered for sale at a given weight or quantity, or ordinarily so sold, to the Commissioner or to his deputy or to a sealer or his deputy or to an inspector or local sealer, for the purpose of allowing same to be tested and proved as to quantity contained therein, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1041. Unlawfully sealing.—Any sealer, deputy sealer, inspector or local sealer appointed under the provisions of law, or discharging the duties of a sealer of weights and measures in this State, who shall seal any weight, measure, balance or apparatus before testing and making the same conform with the standards of the State or who shall condemn any weight, measure, balance or apparatus without first testing the same, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, and shall be immediately suspended from office. [Id.]

Art. 1042. Failure to regard unit of measure.—Whoever in buying any commodity or article of property, merchandise or produce, the standard weight of which per bushel or barrel, or divisible merchantable quantities of a bushel or barrel, or by the cord or ton or cubic yard, has been fixed by the laws of this State, shall take any greater number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel or cubic yard, or divisible merchantable quantity of bushel, barrel, cubic yard or lineal [lineal] yard, or in selling any of the same, shall give any less number of pounds thereof to the bushel, barrel, cubic or lineal yard, or divisible merchantable quantity of bushel, barrel, cubic or lineal yard than is allowed by the laws of this State, with intent to gain an advantage thereby, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 235.]

Art. 1043. Parties may contract.—The preceding article does not apply where the buyer or seller is expressly authorized by special contract or agreement to take more or give less of such article. [Id.]

Art. 1044. [730] Receptacle containing mill product.—Any one engaged in the manufacture of mill products of any character who shall use any bag, box, barrel or any other receptacle into which to put such product other than the one bearing the name of such mill manufacturing the same, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars or be confined in jail for thirty days, or both. [Acts 1907, p. 244.]

Art. 1045. Containers for fruit or vegetables.—Whoever shall make, sell, or offer to sell containers for the shipment of fruit or vegetables, which containers are of different size or dimensions from the standards of such containers established by the laws of this State, shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 402.]

Art. 1046. Inspection of fruits and vegetables.—Any grower, shipper's agent, packer, or any agent, receiver or representative of any common carrier or transportation company, who shall violate any provision of the laws of this State relating to standards of grades and pack of fruit and vegetables, or who shall refuse to submit any such fruit or vegetables packed or ready for shipment to inspection by any inspector appointed, as authorized by law, by the Commissioner of Agriculture and empowered by such Commissioner to make such inspection, shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 150.]

Art. 1047. "Public weigher."—All persons engaged in the business of public weighing for hire, or any person who shall weigh or measure any commodity, produce or article, and issue therefor a weight certificate or weight sheet, which shall be accepted as the accurate weight upon which the purchase or sale of such commodity, produce, or article is based, shall be known as a public weigher, and shall comply with the provisions of the law regulating public weighers, provided the provisions of this article shall not apply to any owner, manager, agent or employé of any compress or any public or private warehouse in their operations as a warehouseman. This law shall not apply in any manner to any Texas port. [Acts 1921, p. 168.]

Art. 1048. Weight certificate.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall prescribe the form of weight certificate to be used by all public weighers in this State, which certificate shall be known as a State Certificate of Weights and Measures; such certificate shall state thereon the kind of produce; the number of the same, the date of the receipt of the produce, the owner, agent or consignee, the total weight of the produce, the vessel, railroad, or other means by which the produce was received, and any trade mark or other mark thereon; and such other information as may be necessary to distinguish or identify the produce from a like kind. No certificate other than the one herein prescribed shall be used by any public weigher in this State, and such certificate when so made and properly signed, shall be prima facie evidence of such weight. [Acts 1919, p. 124.]

Art. 1049. Record of weights.—All public weighers, within this State, shall keep and preserve a correct and accurate record of all weights made by them, which record shall be open for the inspection of the Commissioner of Agriculture, his deputies or inspectors, and the public at any and all times. Such record shall be uniform throughout the State, and the form of such record shall be prescribed by said Commissioner. [Id.]

Art. 1050. Issuing false certificate.—All certificates of weights and measures or weight sheets as provided for in this chapter shall contain the accurate and correct weight of any and all commodities weighed when issued by public weighers. Any public weigher, or deputy public weigher, who shall issue any certificate of weights and measures or weight sheet giving false weights or measures of any article, or commodity weighed or measured by him, or his representative or deputy, to any person, firm or corporation, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, and may be imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months, and in addition thereto, he shall be suspended from office and not permitted to continue the business of public weighing any longer. [Id.]

Art. 1051. Requesting false certificate.—Whoever shall request a public weigher, deputy public weigher or any person employed by him, or pay to him any money, or give him anything to weigh any produce, commodity or article, falsely or incorrectly, or who shall request a false or incorrect certificate of weights or measures, or weight sheet, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in jail for not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [Id.]

Art. 1052. Weigher to comply with law.—Any person, or agent or representative of any corporation, who shall engage in the business of weighing for the public, or who shall grant or issue a certificate or weight sheet, upon which a purchase or sale is made without complying with the terms of the statutes regulating public weighers, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. Each certificate so granted, or weight sheet issued by him is a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 1053. Shipping at false weight.—Whoever ships to any one in this State any thing in which the weight is necessary to be given at any weight other than the true weight properly certified to shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and may be imprisoned in jail for not more than twelve months, or both so fined and imprisoned. [Id.]

Art. 1054. Deposit for installing service.—Every person, firm, company, corporation, receiver or trustee engaged in the furnishing of water, light, gas or telephone service which requires the payment on the part of the user of such service a deposit of money as a condition precedent to furnishing any such service, shall pay six per cent interest per annum on such deposit to the one making same, or to his heirs or assigns, from the time of such deposit, the same to be paid on the first day of January of each year, or sooner if such service be discontinued. When such service is discontinued, such deposit, together with any unpaid interest thereon, or such part of such deposit and unpaid interest not consumed in bills due for such service, shall be returned to such depositor, his heirs or legal representatives. Whoever violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be confined in jail not less than six months nor more than one year, or both. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 101.]

Art. 1055. Water, gas and electric meters.—All water meters, gas meters and electric meters are subject at all times to inspection of the Commissioner of Agriculture and said Commissioner either on his own motion or complaint of any user of any of the above named meters, shall have same inspected as to its correctness, and if found incorrect to discontinue its use until corrected, so that it will register correctly and whoever refuses to discontinue such meter when so notified by said Commissioner that it is incorrect or when so ordered to discontinue such meter should fail or refuse to comply with such order of said Commissioner shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars and each day he shall fail or refuse to comply with such order to discontinue same shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1923, p. 225.]

Art. 1056. [993] Diverting from meters.—Whoever, intentionally, by any means or device, prevents electric current, water or gas from passing through any meter belonging to a person, corporation or company engaged in the manufacture or sale of electricity, water, or gas, for lighting, power or other purposes, furnished such person to register the current of electricity, water or gas, passing through meters, or intentionally prevents a meter from duly registering the quantity of electricity, water or gas supplied, or in any way, interferes with its proper action or just registration, or without the consent of such person, corporation or company, intentionally diverts any electric current from any wire, or water or gas from any pipe or pipes of such person, corporation or company, or otherwise intentionally uses, or causes to be used, without the consent of such person, corporation or company any electricity or gas manufactured, or water produced or distributed, by such person, corporation or company, or any person who retains possession of, or refuses to deliver, any meter, lamp, or other appliances which may be, or may have been loaned them by any person, corporation or company for the purpose of furnishing electricity, water, or gas, through the same, with the intent to defraud such person, corporation or company, shall for every such offense be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. The presence at any time, on or about any such meter, wire or pipe of any device or pipes or wires resulting in the diversion of electric current, water or gas, as above defined or resulting in the prevention of the proper action or just registration of the meter or meters, as above set forth, shall constitute prima facie evidence of knowledge on the part of the person having custody and control of the room or place where such device or pipe or wire is of the existence thereof and the effect thereof and shall further constitute prima facie evidence of intention on the part of such person to defraud and shall bring such person prima facie within the scope, meaning and penalties of this article. [Acts 1905, p. 205; Acts 3rd C. S. 1917, p. 107; Acts 1923, p. 224.]

Art. 1057. Misreading meter.—Any person engaged in the manufacture or sale of electricity, water, or gas for lighting, power or other purposes, or any officer or employé of any person, corporation or company so engaged who shall knowingly misread any meter or overcharge any customer for such light, water or gas furnished, or shall cause or knowingly permit any light, water or gas meter to register or show greater than the true amount of light, electricity, water or gas sold or furnished any customer shall, for every such offense, be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 225.]

Art. 1057a. Refusal to allow authorities to examine meter.—Any person or furnisher of electrical power and current or gas who fails or refuses to allow the agents of city commissioners or city council of any cities, towns or villages of the class hereinbefore mentioned to examine the meters and measuring devices hereinbefore referred to, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred ($200.00) dollars, each and every day of such refusal to constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 71, ch. 47, § 5.]

CHAPTER SIX

OFFENSES AGAINST LABELS, TRADE MARKS, ETC.

Art.

- 1058. Using trade mark of another.
- 1059. Possession prima facie evidence.
- 1060. Penalties.
- 1061. Counterfeiting trade mark, etc.
- 1062. Unlawfully using or displaying.
- 1063. Filling or not returning container.
- 1064. Injuring milk containers, etc.
- 1065. Ownership of containers, etc.
- 1066. Dairy trade mark.

Article 1058. [1392] Using trade mark of another.—Each manufacturer or dealer in carbonated goods, mineral waters, soda water or other beverage, and each manufacturer of medicine or other compound, requiring the use of kegs, casks, barrels, boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, upon which the names, brands, marks, or trade marks, or other designation of ownership or proprietorship, is stamped, engraved, etched, blown in, impressed, or otherwise produced upon such boxes, syphons, bottles, or any other vessels for containers, may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the principal place or office of business is situated, a fac simile or description of the name or names, marks or devices, so used by such manufacturer or dealer in such wares herein enumerated, and cause such description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks. The act of so filing and publishing shall operate as a trade mark, securing to said manufacturer the full protection of the law as a trade mark, entitling said manufacturer to the sole and exclusive use in Texas of said mark, name or device. No person, corporate or otherwise, other than the proprietor, or by his written consent, shall fill for sale for the purpose of traffic with any compound whatever, any box, syphon, bottle or other container so marked, recorded and published as provided in this article, or deface, erase, obliterate, cover up or otherwise remove or cancel any such mark or device. [Acts 1893, p. 125; Acts 1901, p. 288.]

Art. 1059. [1393] Possession prima facie evidence.—To wilfully have in possession, otherwise than by contract with the proprietor of the goods above enumerated, or with his duly accredited agents, any vessel in said article enumerated, or to use, buy, sell or dispose of any such vessel, with or without contents of any kind, except by authority of the proprietor, or to wilfully break, damage, or destroy any such vessel, is prima facie evidence of such unlawful use. [Acts 1893, p. 125.]

Art. 1060. [1394] [918c] Penalties.—Whoever violates any provision of the two preceding articles shall be fined for such unlawful use of each and every box, five dollars; for each and every syphon, five dollars; for each and every bottle, five dollars; and for each and every other receptacle, except a fountain, five dollars; and for each fountain, twenty-five dollars; said fines to be the minimum in each case, the maximum not to exceed double the minimum. [Acts 1893, p. 125.]

Art. 1061. [1395] [918d] Counterfeiting trade mark, etc.—Whenever any person, association, private corporations or union of workmen, incorporated or unincorporated, have adopted, or shall hereafter adopt for their protection any label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement, indicating that goods to which such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement shall be attached, were manufactured by such person, association, private corporations or union, or by a member or members of such association or union, it shall be unlawful for any person, inclusive of officers, agents, receiver or receivers of corporations, to counterfeit or imitate such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint or form of advertisement or to use such counterfeit or imitation of such label, trade mark, design, device, imprint, or form of advertisement, knowing the same to be counterfeit or imitation, or to aid, assist, countenance or knowingly permit such counterfeit or imitation or the use of such counterfeit or imitation for his own use or benefit, or for the use or benefit of any corporation of which he may then be an officer, agent or receiver. Every person, whether in his individual capacity or as an officer, agent or receiver of a corporation, violating this article, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and each day's violation shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1895, p. 108.]

Art. 1062. [1396] [918e] Unlawfully using or displaying.—Every person, whether in his individual capacity or as the officer, agent or receiver of a corporation, who shall wilfully use or display the genuine label, trade mark, design, device, imprint, or form of advertisement, or name of any such person, association or union, incorporated or unincorporated, not being authorized to use or display the same, or shall aid, assist, countenance or knowingly permit the use of same, not being authorized to use the same, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1063. Filling or not returning container.—Whoever shall, other than the lawful owner, for any purpose whatever, fill with milk, cream, butter or ice cream any milk can, milk bottle, milk jar, butter box, ice cream can or ice cream tub or mutilate or destroy without the consent of the owner of the same, or wilfully refuse to return or deliver to such owner, upon demand, any such milk can, milk bottle, milk jar, butter box, ice cream can, or ice cream tub branded or stamped with the name or trade mark of such owner, or bearing any private mark in common use by such owner, or from which such brand or stamp or private mark, or marks have been removed, cut off or defaced, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 167.]

Art. 1064. Injuring milk containers, etc.—Whoever shall remove, cut off, deface or obliterate the stamp or brand or private mark of any owner of any milk bottle, milk jar, butter box, milk can, ice cream can or ice cream tub, or stamp or place other than brands or stamps or private mark on any such milk bottle, milk jar, milk can, butter box, ice cream

can or ice cream tub, without the written permission of such owner, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1065. Ownership of milk containers, etc.—Any person, firm or corporation, or joint stock association owning or using milk cans, milk bottles, milk jars, butter boxes, ice cream cans or ice cream tubs in his, her or their name or names, or private mark or marks in common use branded or stamped or placed on the same shall be considered the owner thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1066. Dairy trade mark.—Any person, firm or corporation engaged in the dairying business or in the distribution or sale of milk requiring the use of bottles may file in the office of the county clerk of the county in which such person, firm or corporation expects to sell or distribute milk, a fac simile or description of the name, trade name, mark or design used by such person, firm or corporation for advertising purposes, and cause such fac simile or description to be published in a public newspaper published in such county for three successive weeks, and the act of filing and publication shall operate to secure to such dairyman, milk distributor or milk dealer, the exclusive right to use in said county said name, trade name, mark or design, and the same may be impressed upon the bottles of the owner of such name, mark or design, and such impression upon such a bottle is prima facie proof that the owner of such name, mark or design is the owner of such bottle, either as the original owner or transferee as provided by law. Whoever sells or offers for sale a bottle upon which such name, mark or design appears shall, unless he be the owner thereof, be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. Any dairyman, milk distributor or milk dealer who shall deliver or sell milk in a bottle bearing a name, mark or design recorded as herein provided without the consent of the owner of said name, mark or design, shall be fined not less than one nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 161.]

ASSUMED NAME

- Art.
1067. Transacting business under assumed name.
1068. Change of ownership.
1069. Corporations not included.
1070. Punishment.

Article 1067. Transacting business under assumed name.—No person or persons shall carry on or conduct or transact business in this State under any assumed name or under any designation, name, style, corporate or otherwise, other than the real name or names of the individual or individuals conducting or transacting such business unless such person or persons shall file in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which such person or persons conduct, or transact or intend to conduct or transact such business, a certificate setting forth the name under which such business is or is to be conducted or transacted, and the true or real full name or names of the person or persons conducting or transacting the same, with the post-office address or the addresses of said person or persons. Said certificate shall be executed and duly acknowledged by the person or persons so conducting or intending to conduct said business in the manner now provided for acknowledgment of conveyance of real estate. [Acts 1921, p. 142.]

Art. 1068. Change of ownership.—Whenever there is a change in ownership of any business operated under any such assumed name as set out in the preceding article, the person or persons withdrawing from said business or disposing of their interest therein, shall file in the office of the county clerk of the county or counties in which such business is being conducted and has a place or places of business, a certificate setting forth the fact of such withdrawal from or disposition of interest in such business, which certificate shall be executed and duly acknowledged by the person or persons so withdrawing from or selling their interest in said business in the manner now provided for acknowledgment of conveyance of real estate. [Id.]

Art. 1069. Corporations not included.—The preceding articles shall in no way apply to any corporation duly organized under the law of this State or to any corporation organized under the laws of any other State and lawfully doing business in this State. [Id.]

Art. 1070. Punishment.—Any person owning, carrying on, or transacting business as described in the preceding articles of this chapter who shall fail to comply with any provision of this Chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

BLUE SKY LAW OF TEXAS

- Art.
1071. Definitions.
1072. To file with Secretary of State.
1073. Stock of solvent concerns.
1074. Changing document.
1075. Using mail, etc., without permit.
1076. Merger.
1077. Unlawful merger.
1078. Unlawfully paying dividend.
1079. False entry.
1080. Advertisement.
1081. Sale of stock without permit.
1082. Exceptions.
1083. General penalty.

Article 1071. Definitions.—The term "stock" as used in this chapter shall include the certificates of stock of every corporation, as well as the certificates or any other written instruments evidencing ownership or membership in any joint stock association, common law trust, or any other organization, association, or concern of whatsoever nature, which is organized, formed or created, or intended to be organized, formed or created, which may, or which is designed to own property of any character.

The terms "person," "company," or "concern" shall refer to and include any such concern, or individual, or person who may issue such stock, and whose such stock or certificate shall represent or evidence ownership or membership therein, which ownership or membership may be designed to be transferred, assigned or negotiated by the transfer, assignment or negotiation of such instrument. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 114.]

Art. 1072. To file with Secretary of State.—Every concern which shall hereafter be formed or created, or which shall hereafter attempt to increase its capital stock, or commence the transaction of business in this State, shall, before offering for sale, directly or indirectly, through itself, its agents or employes, or through any character of person, or association, whether herein defined or not, holding company, sales company, or otherwise any stock as defined in the preceding article, and before transacting any business in this State, except the preparation of instruments hereinafter mentioned and other instruments relative to the organization and transaction of business thereof, file in the office of the Secretary of State, together with a fee equal in amount to the filing fee of a private corporation having capital and surplus of like amount, the following: [This requirement as to fees shall not apply to corporations.]

1. An application for a permit to sell any of the securities mentioned herein, or any other securities offered, or to be offered for sale, and for the transaction of any and all other business in this State. Said application must show the name under which such business is to be conducted, its location and general purpose, the age, occupation and general qualifications of such trustees or managing officers, and also fully the business in which each has been engaged for the last five years immediately preceding the filing of such application.

2. A copy of its articles of association, partnership agreement, constitution, by-laws, or any other contract, agreement or other form of organization under which business is to be transacted, and all amendments thereto, showing the county or counties in which such instruments are filed, or to be filed for record; also showing the capital stock, par value of such stock, price at which same is to be sold, commission to be paid for the sale of same, amount of such stock, or other interest therein issued, or to be issued for promotion, compensation or other purposes.

3. Copies of stock certificates, bonds, debentures, or other securities offered, or to be offered for sale, or other disposition, together with copies of application blank for such securities. Such application must show the capital stock, the price at which same is to be sold, the commissions to be paid for the sale thereof, the amount of such stock or other interest therein issued, or to be issued for promotion, compensation, or other purposes.

4. A detailed statement showing the assets and liabilities of such issuer together with a profit and loss statement.

Any person violating any provision of this article, shall be fined not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, and in addition thereto be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than five years. [Id.]

Art. 1073. Stock of solvent concerns.—Any concern which has been a solvent going concern for a period of two years next preceding the date of any application named in this law, may submit to the Secretary of State satisfactory evidence of such fact and of its present sound solvent condition; whereupon the Secretary of State shall consider the same and shall require such further evidence, and may make such independent investigation as he may deem proper, concerning such matter. If upon full consideration thereof he shall conclude that such concern has been a solvent going concern for a period of two years and is at present solvent, he shall enter such finding upon his record, whereupon the proposed issue and sale of such stock, debentures or other securities as in this chapter defined of such concern shall be exempted from the general requirements of this law. [Id.]

Art. 1074. Changing document.—Any original document under which a permit has been granted shall not be changed or amended without permission to do so being granted by the Secretary of State. [Id.]

Art. 1075. Using mail, etc., without permit.—Any person, broker, agent, joint stock company, co-partnership or other company, individual or organization, domestic or foreign, sending advertising matter through the mails, by express, telegram or otherwise wholly within this State offering for sale or selling any of the securities enumerated in article 1071 without first having been issued a permit as provided by law shall be deemed guilty of having violated the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1076. Merger.—The merger, absorption or transfer of property of any company, association, joint stock company, co-partnership or other company, individual or organization by another coming under the provisions of article 1071 is declared to be unlawful, unless same is approved by the Secretary of State, after notice to all stockholders of the interested companies mailed thirty days in advance of said merger, and approved by the holders of a majority in amount of the outstanding and issued stock. [Id.]

Art. 1077. Unlawful merger.—Whoever shall bring about or effect, or who shall assist in bringing about or in effecting, or who shall attempt to bring about or effect, any merger, absorption or transfer of property of any person or concern designated by this chapter in violation of the preceding article, shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1078. Unlawfully paying dividend.—Whoever shall in any manner participate in declaring, issuing, or paying any cash dividend, by, or for any such concern, to any stockholder thereof out of any funds other than the actual earnings or from the lawful liquidation of such company, shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1079. False entry.—Whoever shall knowingly or wilfully subscribe or make, or cause to be subscribed or made, any false entry in any book, record, instrument, document or paper required by this law to be filed with the Secretary of State, of or for any concern embraced within the terms of this chapter, or shall exhibit any such false entry in or of any such book, record, instrument, document, or paper, with the intention of deceiving any person or official authorized to examine into the affairs of such concern, or who shall knowingly make or publish any false statement of the financial or other condition of such concern, shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for any term not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1080. Advertisement.—If any owner, manager, or executive of any newspaper or other publication issued in this State shall knowingly advertise the sale of securities within this State not authorized to be sold within this State as required by this chapter, and which under this law can not be legally sold without a permit from the Secretary of State, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than ten days nor more than six months, or both. Every issue of such publication in which such advertisement appears shall be deemed to evidence and constitute a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 1081. Sale of stock without permit.—Any person who shall sell, or offer for sale, or in any manner be concerned with selling, or offering for sale, any stock of any concern embraced within the provisions of this chapter, for whose sale no permit as herein required has been issued, shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1082. Exceptions.—This chapter shall not apply to banking corporations or private banks, railroad or building and loan corporations, nor to the stock thereof, nor be construed to in any manner affect the existing laws of this State relating to the regulations of any corporation or concern, but in all respects shall be cumulative thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1083. General penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter not covered by a specific penalty herein shall be fined not less than one thousand nor more than ten thousand dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years, or both.

CHAPTER NINE

AGRICULTURAL AND LIVESTOCK POOLS

Art.
1084.	May incorporate.
1085.	Definitions.
1086.	Loans and interest.
1087.	Agents for borrowers.
1088.	Officers to furnish bonds.
1089.	To file statement.
1090.	Pools may use security.
1091.	Term of loan.
1092.	Unlawfully disposing of receipt.
1093.	Penalty.

Article 1084. May incorporate.—Any association of persons, which may include corporations duly chartered, State banks and trust companies, and national banks and trust companies, and cooperative associations composed of persons engaged in producing or producing and marketing staple agricultural products, or livestock, or both, may organize pools for the purpose of borrowing and lending money on agricultural products and livestock, or both, for agricultural purposes, or for the raising, breeding, fattening or marketing of livestock.

Any number of persons not less than three, may incorporate for the purpose of growing, storing, preparing for the market, and marketing agricultural products, or for the purpose of growing, raising, fattening for the market, and marketing livestock, or for both such purposes, and may use any of such livestock or farm products, or both, as security in financing such enterprises, and shall have all the privileges of a pooling organization in borrowing money to promote the business of such corporation. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 82.]

Art. 1085. Definitions.—The term "pools" shall mean agricultural financing pools.

The term "agricultural products" shall mean any or all products of the farm, orchard and dairy usually classed as agricultural products other than livestock.

The term "livestock" shall mean any herd of cattle, sheep, goats or swine.

The term "margins" shall mean additional surety in money of legal tender of the United States. [Id.]

Art. 1086. Loans and interest.—The interest charged on all such loans shall not exceed by more than one and one-half per cent the rate of interest charged such pooling institutions by the farm loan banks, provided that no loans shall be made by any pooling organization to any person or association of persons, unless such person or association is engaged in producing or producing and marketing staple agricultural products, or livestock, upon which such loan is made. All such commodities, articles or things classed herein as agricultural products shall be insured with some stock insurance company authorized to do business in this State. Such insurance shall be for not less than the full amount of the loan. At no time shall a greater amount than seventy-five per cent of the market value of such commodities, articles or things on date of loan be loaned thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1087. Agents for borrowers.—All such pools shall have the right to act as agents for all borrowers, in the sale of such commodities, articles or things on which loans have been made and the commissions charged for such service shall not exceed fifty cents per bale for cotton sold and shall in all cases on all other commodities, articles or things be reasonable. Where such pools operate bonded and licensed warehouses, it shall have authority to make a charge for storage, for drawing and handling of samples and for insurance in addition to other charges as provided for herein. [Id.]

Art. 1088. Officers to furnish bonds.—The officers of such pools shall be a president, vice-president, and a secretary and treasurer, provided that the office of secretary and treasurer may be held by one person, and a board of directors, all of which shall be members of such organization. The board of directors shall elect said president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer from the said board of directors. The secretary-treasurer and each officer in charge of the management shall be required to furnish to such pool a good and sufficient bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of duty. Such bonds shall be not less than five per cent of the total of the capital stock and surplus of said pool. The directors of any such pool shall not permit such persons to conduct the affairs of such pools when they have not so furnished bond. [Id.]

Art. 1089. To file statement.—All such pools shall on the first of January, April, July and October of each year file with the Commissioner of Markets and Warehouses a sworn statement of the condition of the affairs of such pool, and such statement shall be made to show the amount of business done, the number of negotiable receipts on which loans have been made and the value of such commodities, the total of all such loans and the total of all obligations of the pool and to whom due and the amount of interest being paid on same and the quantity or number of sales made for clients and the gross receipts of such sales and the amount of commissions charged thereon, and the number and value of all live stock mortgages and other securities. [Id.]

Art. 1090. Pools may use security.—All such pools shall be authorized to use such security or collateral held by them as security for loans made to such pooling organizations, provided that when any loan due the pooling organization is satisfied, such organization shall deliver to the borrower a final receipt of settlement, and when any article, commodity or thing is sold the negotiable receipt shall be delivered to the maker thereof, and canceled in accordance with the provisions of the Warehouse Acts of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1091. Term of loan.—The maximum term of any loan on agricultural products shall not exceed twelve months and no loans on live stock shall be for any term exceeding three years. Loans may be renewed conditioned upon new and agreed valuations of the commodity, article or thing, or upon additional security, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1092. Unlawfully disposing of receipt.—No person shall dispose of any negotiable bonded warehouse receipt placed with any pooling organization as security on loan, or to be held by such pool pending the sale of any such commodity, article or thing represented by such receipt, except as provided for in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1093. Penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not more than one year, or be both so fined and imprisoned. [Id.]

CHAPTER TEN

PROTECTING MOVEMENT OF COMMERCE

- Art.
1094. Interfering with workers.
1095. Conspiracy to intimidate.
1096. "Intimidation" construed.
1097. Definitions.
1098. Exceptions.
1099. Penalty.
1100. Procedure.

Article 1094. Interfering with workers.—It shall be unlawful for any one by or through the use of any physical violence or by threatening the use of any physical violence, or by intimidation or threatening destruction of his property to interfere with or molest or harass any person or persons engaged in the work of loading or unloading or transporting any commerce within this State. [Acts 4th C. S. 1920, p. 7.]

Art. 1095. Conspiracy to intimidate.—It shall be unlawful for any two or more persons to conspire together to prevent or attempt to prevent, by the use of physical violence or intimidation or by threats of physical violence or by abusive language spoken or written to any person engaged in loading or unloading or transporting any commerce within this State, any person from performing the duties of such employment. [Id.]

Art. 1096. "Intimidation" construed.—Every person who shall through any act or written communication or conversation with any person or persons engaged in loading, unloading or transporting any commerce by any common carrier in Texas, or with the father, mother, wife, sister, brother, child or children of such person or persons while so engaged, or during the hours of day or night while not engaged in such work and when employed for such work, which is reasonably calculated, intended or designed to cause such person or persons so engaged to desist from performing such work through fear of physical violence or destruction of his property, shall be deemed to have intimidated, molested or harassed such person or persons engaged in the work of loading or unloading or transporting commerce within this State. [Id.]

Art. 1097. Definitions.—The term "person or persons engaged in the work of loading or unloading or transporting commerce in this State" as used in this chapter shall be construed as including any person or persons employed in any way in the docks, wharves, switches, railroad tracks, express companies, compresses, depots, freight depots, pipelines, or approaches or appurtenances to or incident to or used in connection with the handling of commerce by common carriers within this State. This article by naming certain occupations and work shall not be construed to exclude any other occupation or work not named, but reasonably incident to and necessary for the transportation of commerce in this State by common carriers. For the purposes of this chapter the words "common carrier" are defined to mean any railway corporation, any express company, any interurban railway company, any street car company, any ship, dock, wharf company, any pipe line company, engaged in the transportation of freight, express or passengers. The word "commerce" is defined to mean any freight, express or passengers being handled or transported by any common carrier as herein defined. [Id.]

Art. 1098. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to peace officers in the discharge of their lawful duties. [Id.]

Art. 1099. Penalty.—Any person violating any provision of this chapter shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than one year, or both. Should any person violating any provision of this chapter use any physical violence upon, or threaten the life of any person engaged in the work of loading or unloading, or transporting any commerce, as defined in this chapter, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. [Id.]

Art. 1100. Procedure.—Indictment for violation of any provision of this law may be returned by the grand jury of the county in which the violation occurs, or by the grand jury of any county adjoining the county in which the territory embraced in the Governor's proclamation is situated. Any person indicted may be prosecuted and tried in the county in which the indictment is returned, but no indictment shall be returned in any county except where the offense occurred, until after the Governor has issued his proclamation as provided for herein. Nothing in this law as to change of venue shall in any manner abridge the right of the defendant to apply for and secure a change of venue under the existing laws of this State, the same as if the indictment had been returned in the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed.

When the provisions of this law have been violated, and the grand jury of the county in which the offense was committed have returned an indictment the district judge in whose court the indictment may be returned shall grant a change of venue upon motion made by the Attorney General representing this State, or at his direction, or by the local prosecuting attorney. The motion for a change of venue shall be sufficient if it sets out that the offense charged is prohibited by the provisions of this law, and that on account of local conditions, preferences, prejudices or influence, it is the opinion of the Attorney General that a fair and impartial trial can not be had in the county where the indictment is found. Upon the filing and presenting of such motion it will be the duty of the district judge in whose court such case may be pending to immediately issue a proper order changing the venue of such case to such other county as the court may select not subject in the opinion of the Attorney General to like conditions and objections. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

GASOLINE AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

Art.

- 1101. Sale under another name.
- 1102. Shall mark containers.
- 1103. To give name of manufacturer.
- 1104. Must not flash.
- 1105. Sale of inferior product.
- 1106. "Gasoline."
- 1107. Tests of petroleum products.
- 1108. Using incorrect measure.
- 1109. Breaking seal on incorrect measure.
- 1110. Hindering inspector.
- 1111. Punishment.

Article 1101. Sale under another name.—No person, firm or corporation, shall sell gasoline, benzine, naphtha, or other similar product of petroleum, capable of being used for illuminating, heating or power purposes, under any other than the true name of said products; and such petroleum products shall be subject to inspection by the proper authorities. [Acts 1919, p. 213.]

Art. 1102. Shall mark containers.—No person, firm, association of persons, corporation or carrier selling or transporting for hire any gasoline, benzine, naphtha or other highly inflammable substance made from petroleum, shall fail to plainly mark the packages containing the same in accordance with the regulations of the Interstate Commerce Commission, unless such regulations should conflict with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1103. To give name of manufacturer.—No person, firm, association of persons, corporation or carrier selling or transporting for hire any gasoline, benzine, naphtha or other similar product of petroleum, shall fail to truly label in large letters showing the name of the manufacturer and the place of manufacture of the products, any tank car, barrel, cask, tank wagon, receptacle or reservoir in which any petroleum product shall be shipped or stored within this State, or from which sales or delivery of the same are to be made. [Id.]

Art. 1104. Must not flash.—No person, firm, association of persons or corporation shall sell any product of petroleum to be used for illuminating purposes unless such petroleum product is such that it will not flash at a temperature less than 110 degrees Fahrenheit. [Id.]

Art. 1105. Sale of inferior product.—No person, firm, association of persons or corporation, shall sell as gasoline any substance, liquid or product or [of] petroleum which falls below the standard and definition of gasoline as provided in this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1106. "Gasoline."—For the purpose of this chapter the word GASOLINE whether used alone or in connection with other words shall apply only to the petroleum products complying with the following minimum requirements:

- (a) Boiling point must not be higher than "60 degrees" C., ("140 degrees" F.)
- (b) Twenty per cent of the sample must distill below "105 degrees" C., ("221 degrees" F.)
- (c) Forty-five per cent must distill below "135 degrees" C., ("275 degrees" F.)
- (d) Ninety per cent must distill below "180 degrees" C., ("256 degrees" F.)
- (e) The end or dry point of distillation must not be higher than "220 degrees" C., ("428 Degrees" F.)
- (f) Not less than ninety-five per cent of the liquid will be recovered from the distillation.
- (g) Gasoline to be high grade, refined and free from water and all impurities, and shall have a vapor tension not greater than 10 pounds per square inch at 100 degrees Fahrenheit temperature. [Id.]

Art. 1107. Tests of petroleum products.—The apparatus and methods of conducting all tests and arriving at proper standards of gasoline and other products under this Act shall be those now or hereafter authorized and used by the U. S. Bureau of Mines. [Id.]

Art. 1108. Using incorrect measure.—No person, firm, association of persons, corporation or carrier, shall use any scales, measure or measuring device in the handling or sale of petroleum products unless the same is true and accurate according to the standard of weights and measures under the laws of this State nor use any pumping device unless the same is correct according to such standard at three speeds, fast, slow and medium. [Id.]

Art. 1109. Breaking seal on incorrect measure.—The inspector shall seal and forbid the use of any inaccurate measuring device until such time as the defect is corrected. The breaking of said official seal shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this law and no person, firm, association of persons, corporation or carrier shall refuse to permit the inspector provided for by law to inspect and seal, if deemed necessary, any such measuring device, or to break the seal after being placed by such inspector. [Id.]

Art. 1110. Hindering inspector.—The Director of Food and Drug Division of the State Board of Health, his inspectors, or any person by him duly appointed for that purpose shall have in the performance of their duties under this law the power to inspect any premises or place where petroleum products are made, prepared, stored, transported, sold or offered for sale or exchange, and take samples of same, and test measuring devices. It shall be unlawful for any person to hinder or obstruct or refuse to permit said director, or his inspector or other person by him duly authorized to perform his duties in the exercise of such power. [Id.]

Art. 1111. Punishment.—Whoever violates any provision of the preceding articles of this chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year, or both. [Id.]

fyng, and any member of a firm or association or any manager of a corporation who comes within the meaning of a contracting stevedore who shall thus offend is amenable to prosecution.

Art. 1125. [1007] Commission merchant.—Whoever shall pursue the business of selling produce or goods, wares or merchandise of any kind upon consignment for commission, without first making and filing the bond required by the laws regulating commission merchants, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 179.]

Art. 1126. [641] [414] [386] Pawnbroker.—If any pawnbroker, or person doing business as such, shall receive any article in pledge or sell any article pledged to him, without complying with the statutes regulating pawnbrokers, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars.

Arts. 1127–1129. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S. p. 30, ch. 17, § 7.]

Art. 1129a. Violations of law by loan brokers.—That if any loan broker or person doing business as such loan broker shall make any loans upon any chattel mortgage on household and kitchen furniture or purchase contracts for wages or salaries or bills of sale upon such household and kitchen furniture, or shall make any loan taking as security for the payment thereof an assignment of wages or salary or an assignment of wages with Power of Attorney to collect same, or purchase contract of salary or wages whether same be called a loan or purchase without first executing the above bond specified herein together with the said affidavit to be filed in the County Clerk's office, receiving receipt therefor, and without fully complying with this Act regulating loan brokers in this State, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and that upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars or by imprisonment in the County jail for a term of not more than twelve months, or may be punished by both such fine and imprisonment, and that each day that the same may be violated by such loan broker shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 30, ch. 17, § 8.]

Art. 1130. Patent right notes and liens.—All notes and liens given for a patent right consideration or patent right territory shall state on their face that the same were given for a patent right and if anyone selling a patent or patent right territory shall take a note or lien for the purchase price of the same, contrary to the provisions of this law, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 128.]

Art. 1131. [1504–1505–1506] Bond investment company.—Any officer, agent, or representative of any domestic or foreign corporation or company doing business in this State as a bond investment company or company to place or sell bonds, certificates or debentures on the partial payment or installment plan, who shall attempt to place or sell shares or transact any business in the name of or on behalf of such company while it fails to comply with the laws of this State requiring deposits to be made with the State Treasurer, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both. [Acts 1897, p. 118.]

Art. 1132. Unlawfully acting as accountant.—If any person represents himself to the public as having received a certificate as a Certified Public Accountant issued as provided for by the law of this State, or advertises as a "Certified Public Accountant," or uses the initials "C. P. A.," or otherwise falsely holds himself out as being qualified under said law, while practicing in this State, without having actually received such certificate; or it has been recalled or revoked, and he shall continue to use the initials "C. P. A.;" or shall refuse to surrender such certificate after revocation thereof; or shall otherwise violate any provision of the law governing Certified Public Accountants of this State, he shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. No audit company, incorporated or unincorporated, shall use the title "Certified Public Accountants" or the initials "C. P. A.," and no firm or partnership shall use such title or initials unless each member of said firm or partnership is a legal holder of a certificate issued under the laws of this State. Whoever violates any of these provisions shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. The use by any person, firm or corporation of the abbreviated title "Certified Accountant," or of the initials "C. A.," shall be a violation of this law and shall subject each person so using it to such fine. [Acts 1915, p. 188.]

Art. 1133. Accountant falsifying report.—If any person practicing in this State as a Certified Public Accountant under the laws of this State shall wilfully falsify any report or statement bearing upon any examination, investigation or report made by him or under his direction as such, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1134. Violating building and loan association law.—Every officer, director, member of any committee, clerk or agent of any building and loan association doing business in this State, who embezzles, abstracts or misapplies any of the moneys, funds or credits of such corporation; or who issues or puts into circulation any warrant or other order; or who assigns, transfers, cancels or delivers up any note, bond, draft, mortgage, judgment, decree, or any other written instrument belonging to such association; or who certifies to or makes a false entry in any book, report or statement of or to such association, with intent in either case to deceive, injure or defraud such association, or any member thereof, or to deceive any one appointed to examine the affairs of such association, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than ten years. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 72.]

Art. 1135. Failure to make reports.—Any officer of any building and loan association whose duty it is to make the reports required by law of such association, who shall fail to make such reports as required by the law regulating such associations, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than one nor more than six months. [Id.]

Art. 1136. Acting for unauthorized association.—Whoever acts as agent for any building and loan association not authorized to do business in this State, or shall solicit sales of, sell or dispose of any shares of such unauthorized association, or shall in any manner aid in the transaction of the business of such unauthorized association, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1137. Dealing in acceptances.—Any officer, director, employé, or agent of any corporation organized for the purpose of contracting with reference to, or otherwise dealing in acceptances, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warehouse and other receipts growing out, or to be used in aid, of the transportation, warehousing, distribution, or financing of agricultural products, who shall enter into, or cause such corporation to enter into, any contract of acceptance, guaranty, indorsement, or suretyship, without complying with the laws of this State regulating such contracts, shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than three months nor more than one year, or both. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 21.]

Art. 1137a. Endless chain schemes.—Sec. 5. That any dealer or agent violating any provision of this Act [Civ. St. art. 7429a] shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00, and each day such dealer or agent violates this Act shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 324, ch. 220.]

CHAPTER ONE

ASSAULT AND ASSAULT AND BATTERY

Art.

1138. "Assault and battery."
 1139. Intent presumed, and "injury."
 1140. How it may be committed.
 1141. "Coupled with ability to commit."
 1142. Lawful violence.
 1143. Verbal provocation.
 1144. "Battery."
 1146. Intimidation.

Article 1138. [1008] [587] [484] "Assault and battery."—The use of any unlawful violence upon the person of another with intent to injure him, whatever be the means or the degree of violence used, is an assault and battery. Any attempt to commit a battery, or any threatening gesture showing in itself or by words accompanying it, an immediate intention, coupled with an ability to commit a battery, is an assault.

Art. 1139. [1009] [588] [485] Intent presumed, and "injury."—When an injury is caused by violence to the person, the intent to injure is presumed, and it rests with the person inflicting the injury to show the accident or innocent intention. The injury intended may be either bodily pain, constraint, a sense of shame or other disagreeable emotion of the mind.

Art. 1140. [1010-11-12] How it may be committed.—An assault or an assault and battery may be committed by the use of any part of the body of the person committing the offense, as of the hand, foot, head, or by the use of any inanimate object, as a stick, knife, or anything else capable of inflicting the slightest injury; or by the use of any animate object, as by throwing one person against another, or driving a horse or other animal against the person; or by any means used, as by spitting in the face or otherwise, which is capable of inflicting an injury; and may be committed though the person actually injured thereby was not the person intended to be injured.

Art. 1141. [1013] [592] [489] "Coupled with ability to commit."—By the terms "coupled with an ability to commit," as used in article 1138 is meant:

1. That the person making the assault must be in such a position that, if not prevented, he may inflict a battery upon the person assailed.

2. That he must be within such distance of the person so assailed as to make it within his power to commit the battery by the use of the means with which he attempts it.

3. It follows, that one who is, at the time of making an attempt to commit a battery under such restraint as to deprive him of the power to act, or who is at so great a distance from the person assailed as that he cannot reach his person by the use of the means with which he makes the attempt, is not guilty of an assault. But the use of any dangerous weapon, or the semblance thereof, in an angry or threatening manner, with intent to alarm another, and under circumstances calculated to effect that object, comes within the meaning of an assault. [Amended in revising in 1879.]

Art. 1142. [1014-15] Lawful violence.—Violence used to the person does not amount to an assault or battery in the following cases:

1. In the exercise of the right of moderate restraint or correction given by law to the parent over the child, the guardian over the ward, the master over his apprentice, the teacher over the scholar.

2. To preserve order in a meeting for religious, political or other lawful purposes.

3. To preserve the peace, or to prevent the commission of offenses.

4. In preventing or interrupting an intrusion upon the lawful possession of property.

5. In making a lawful arrest and detaining the party arrested, in obedience to the lawful order of a magistrate or court, and in overcoming resistance to such lawful order.

6. In self defense, or in defense of another against unlawful violence offered to his person or property.

7. Where violence is permitted to effect a lawful purpose, only that degree of force must be used which is necessary to effect such purpose.

Art. 1143. [1016] [595] [492] Verbal provocation.—No verbal provocation justifies an assault and battery, but insulting and abusive words may be given in mitigation of the punishment affixed to the offense.

Art. 1144. [1017] [596] [493] "Battery."—The word "battery" is used in this Code in the same sense as "assault and battery."

Art. 1145. [1019] [598] [495] Punishment.—The punishment for a simple assault or for assault and battery shall be a fine not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

Art. 1146. [1021] [600] [495b] Intimidation.—Any person who shall by threatening words or by acts of violence or intimidation prevent or attempt to prevent another from engaging or remaining in or from performing the duties of any lawful employment shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or be confined not less than one nor more than six months in jail. [Acts 1887, p. 13.]

CHAPTER TWO

AGGRAVATED ASSAULTS AND OTHER OFFENSES

Art.

1147. Definition.
 1148. Punishment.
 1149. Assault with motor vehicle.
 1150. Failure to stop and render aid.
 1151. Assault with a prohibited weapon.

Article 1147. [1022] [601] Definition.—An assault or battery becomes aggravated when committed under any of the following circumstances:

1. When committed upon an officer in the lawful discharge of the duties of his office, if it was known or declared to the offender that the person assaulted was an officer discharging an official duty.

2. When committed in a court of justice, or in any place of religious worship, or in any place where persons are assembled for the purpose of innocent amusement.

3. When the person committing the offense goes into the house of a private family and is there guilty of an assault and battery.

4. When committed by a person of robust health or strength upon one who is aged or decrepit.

5. When committed by an adult male upon the person of a female or child, or by an adult female upon the person of a child.

6. When the instrument or means used is such as inflicts disgrace upon the person assaulted, as an assault or battery with a whip or cowhide.

7. When a serious bodily injury is inflicted upon the person assaulted.

8. When committed with deadly weapons under circumstances not amounting to an intent to murder or maim.

9. When committed with premeditated design, and by the use of means calculated to inflict great bodily injury.

Art. 1148. [1024] [603] Punishment.—The punishment for an aggravated assault or battery shall be a fine not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in jail not less than one month nor more than two years, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 1149. Assault with motor vehicle.—If any driver or operator of a motor vehicle or motorcycle upon the public highways of this State shall wilfully, or with negligence, as is defined in this title in the chapter on negligent homicide, collide with or cause injury less than death to any other person upon such highway, he shall be held guilty of aggravated assault and shall be punished accordingly unless such injuries result in death, in which event he shall be dealt with under the general law of homicide. [Acts 1917, p. 484.]

Art. 1150. Failure to stop and render aid.—Whenever an automobile, motorcycle or other motor vehicle whatsoever, regardless of the power by which the same may be propelled, or drawn, strikes any person or collides with any vehicle containing a person, the driver of, and all persons in control of such automobile, motor vehicle or other vehicle shall stop and shall render to the person struck or to the occupants of the vehicle collided with all necessary assistance including the carrying of such person or occupants to a physician or surgeon for medical or surgical treatment, if such treatment be required, or if such carrying is requested by the person struck or any occupant of the vehicle collided with; and such driver and person having or assuming authority of such driver shall further give to the occupant of such vehicle or person struck, if requested at the time of such striking or collision or immediately thereafter, the number of such automobile, motorcycle or motor vehicle, also the name of the owner thereof and his address, the names of the passenger or passengers not exceeding five in each automobile or other vehicle, together with the address of each one thereof. Any person violating any provision of this article is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed five years or in jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Id.]

Art. 1151. Assault with a prohibited weapon.—If any person shall wilfully commit an assault or an assault and battery upon another with a pistol, dirk, dagger, slung shot, sword cane, spear or knuckles made of any metal or made of any hard substance, bowie knife, or any knife manufactured or sold for the purpose of offense or defense, while the same is being carried unlawfully by the person committing said assault, he shall be deemed guilty of an assault with a prohibited weapon and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred dollars or by imprisonment in jail not to exceed two years, or by confinement in the penitentiary for not more than five years. [Acts 1913, p. 237.]

CHAPTER THREE

HAZING AND OTHER VIOLENCE

Art.

- 1152. "Hazing" defined.
- 1153. Teacher, etc., assisting in hazing.
- 1154. Student punished.
- 1155. Teacher, etc., punished.
- 1156. Construction of statute.
- 1157. Violence to induce confession.
- 1158. Whipping inmate of Training School.

Article 1152. "Hazing" defined.—No student of the University of Texas, of the A. & M. College of Texas, of any normal school of Texas, or of any other State educational institution of this State, shall engage in what is commonly known and recognized as hazing, or encourage, aid or assist any other person thus offending.

"Hazing" is defined as follows:—

1. Any wilful act by one student alone or acting with others, directed against any other student of such eduational institution, done for the purpose of submitting such student made the subject of the attack committed, to indignity or humiliation, without his consent.

2. Any wilful act of any one student alone, or acting with others, directed against any other student of such educational institution, done for the purpose of intimidating such student attacked by threatening such student with social or other ostracism, or of submitting such student to ignominy, shame, or disgrace among his fellow students, and acts calculated to produce such results.

3. Any wilful act of any one student alone, or acting with others, directed against any other student of such educational institution, done for the purpose of humbling, or that is reasonably calculated to humble the pride, stifle the ambition, or blight the courage of such student attacked, or to discourage any such student from longer remaining in such educational institution or to reasonably cause him to leave such institution rather than submit to such acts.

4. Any wilful act by any one student alone, or acting with others, in striking, beating, bruising or maiming; or seriously offering, threatening, or attempting to strike, beat, bruise, or maim, or to do or seriously offer, threaten, or attempt to do physical violence to any student of any such educational institution or any assault upon any such students made for the purpose of committing any of the acts, or producing any of the results to such student as defined in the preceding subdivisions of this article. [Sec. 1, Act April 3, 1913, Acts 1913, p. 239.]

Art. 1153. Teacher, etc., assisting in hazing.—No teacher, instructor, member of any faculty, or any officer or director, or a member of any governing board of any of such educational institutions shall knowingly permit, encourage, aid or assist any student in committing the offense of hazing, or wilfully acquiesce in the commission of such offense, or fail to promptly report his knowledge or any reasonable information within his knowledge of the presence and practice of hazing in the institution in which he may be serving to the executive head or governing board of such institution. Any act of omission or commission shall be deemed "hazing" under the provisions of this chapter. [Sec. 2, Id.]

Art. 1154. Student punished.—Any student of any of the said State educational institutions of this State who shall commit the offense of hazing shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars or shall be confined in jail not less than ten days nor more than three months, or both. [Sec. 3, Id.]

Art. 1155. Teacher, etc., punished.—Any teacher, instructor, or member of any faculty, or officer or director of any such educational institution who shall commit the offense of hazing shall be fined not less than fifty or not more than five hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days or not more than six months, or both, and in addition thereto shall be immediately discharged and removed from his then position or office in such institution, and shall thereafter be ineligible to reinstatement or re-employment as teacher, instructor, member of faculty, officer, or director in any such State educational institution for a period of three years. [Sec. 4, Id.]

Art. 1156. Construction of statute.—Nothing herein shall be construed as in any manner affecting or repealing any law of this State respecting homicide, or murder, manslaughter, assault with intent to murder, or aggravated assault. [Sec. 5, Id.]

Art. 1157. Violence to induce confession.—Any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable, Texas ranger, city marshal, chief of police, policeman, or any other officer having under arrest or in his custody any person as a prisoner who shall torture, torment or punish such person by inflicting upon him any physical or mental pain for the purpose of making or attempting to make such person confess to any knowledge of the commission of any offense against the laws of this State, shall be fined not less than one dollar nor more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both such fine and imprisonment, and in addition thereto the jury may state in its verdict that the defendant should never thereafter be allowed to hold any office of profit or trust under the laws of this State, or any subdivision thereof, nor any city or town thereof. Should the jury so state in its verdict, the court trying said case shall render judgment in accordance with said verdict and thereafter the defendant shall forever be barred from holding any such office. [Acts 1923, p. 269.]

Art. 1158. Whipping inmate of Training School.—Corporal punishment in any form shall not be inflicted upon any inmate of the State Training School except as a last resort to maintain discipline, and then only in the presence of the superintendent and a resident nurse. At no time shall any inmate be struck more than twenty times, and that only with such instrument and in such manner as will inflict reasonable and moderate punishment, considering the age, size and strength of the culprit and the strength of the person administering such punishment. At no time shall any weapon or instrument of torture be used, or any instrument which by its make, coupled with the manner of its use would be calculated to inflict bodily injury. Anyone violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 or confined not less than thirty nor more than ninety days in jail, or both. [Acts 1st C. S. 1913, p. 11.]

CHAPTER FOUR

ASSAULTS WITH INTENT TO COMMIT SOME OTHER OFFENSES

- Art.
1159. Assault to maim, disfigure or castrate.
1160. Assault with intent to murder.
1161. "Bowie knife" and "dagger."
1162. Assault with intent to rape.
1163. Assault with intent to rob.
1164. Assault in attempting burglary.
1165. Test of assault to commit offense.

Article 1159. [1025] [604] [499] Assault to maim, disfigure or castrate.—If any person shall assault another with intent to commit the offense of maiming, disfiguring, or castration, he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years and if such assault be made by a person or persons in disguise, the penalty shall be double. [Acts 1871, p. 20.]

Art. 1160. [1026] [605] [500] Assault with intent to murder.—If any person shall assault another with intent to murder, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than fifteen years; if the assault be made with a bowie-knife or dagger, or in disguise, or by laying in wait, or by shooting into a private residence, the punishment shall be double. [O. C. 493, Acts 1871, p. 20, Acts 1903, p. 160.]

Art. 1161. [1027] [606] [501] "Bowie-knife" and "dagger."—A "bowie-knife" or "dagger" as here and elsewhere used means any knife intended to be worn upon the person which is capable of inflicting death and not commonly known as a pocket knife.

Art. 1162. [1029] [608] [503] Assault with intent to rape.—If any person shall assault a woman with intent to commit the offense of rape, he shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than two. [O. C. 494, Acts 1895, p. 104.]

Art. 1163. [1030] [609] [504] Assault with intent to rob.—If any person shall assault another with the intent to commit the offense of robbery, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1858, p. 171.]

Art. 1164. [1031] [610] [506] Assault in attempting burglary.—If any person in attempting to commit burglary shall assault another, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 171.]

Art. 1165. [1023-1032] [611] [506] Test of assault to commit offense.—An assault with intent to commit any other offense is constituted by the existence of the facts which bring the offense within the definition of an assault, coupled with an intention to commit such other offense, as of maiming, murder, rape or robbery.

CHAPTER FIVE

MAIMING, DISFIGURING AND CASTRATION

- Art.
1166. Maiming.
1167. Disfiguration.
1168. Castration.

Article 1166. [1033-4] Maiming.—Whoever shall wilfully and maliciously cut off or otherwise deprive a person of the hand, arm, finger, toe, foot, leg, nose or ear, or put out an eye or in any way deprive a person of any other member of his body shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

Art. 1167. [1035-6] Disfiguring.—Whoever wilfully and maliciously places any mark by means of a knife or other instrument upon the face or other part of the person of another shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [Acts 1858, p. 171.]

Art. 1168. [1037-8] Castration.—Whoever wilfully and maliciously deprives any person of either or both or any part of either or both of the testicles shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than fifteen years.

CHAPTER SIX

FALSE IMPRISONMENT

- Art.
1169. "False imprisonment."
1170. Assault and violence necessary.
1171. What impediment necessary.
1172. Character of threat necessary.
1173. Lawful detention.
1174. Penalty.
1175. Detaining after discharge on habeas corpus.
1176. Refusal to allow consultation with counsel.

Article 1169. [1039] [618] "False imprisonment."—False imprisonment is the wilful detention of another against his consent and where it is not expressly authorized by law, whether such detention be effected by an assault, by actual violence to the person, by threats or by any other means which restrains the party so detained from removing from one place to another as he may see proper.

Art. 1170. [1040] [619] Assault or violence necessary.—The assault or violence may be such as is spoken of in defining an assault and battery.

Art. 1171. [1041] [620] What impediment necessary.—The impediment must be such as is in its nature calculated to detain the person and from which he cannot by ordinary means relieve himself.

Art. 1172. [1042] [621] Character of threat necessary.—The threat must be such as is calculated to operate upon the person threatened and inspire a just fear of some injury to his or another's person, reputation or property and the age, sex, condition, disposition or health of the one threatened is to be considered in determining whether the threat was sufficient to intimidate and prevent such person from moving beyond the bounds in which he was detained.

Art. 1173. [1043] [622] Lawful detention.—It is no offense to detain one for the objects mentioned in article 1142 as justifying the use of force, but when it is claimed as a justification that such circumstances existed it must be shown also that the detention was necessary to effect any such object.

Art. 1174. [1044] [623] Penalty.—Any person guilty of false imprisonment shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars or be confined in jail not exceeding one year.

Art. 1175. [1045] [624] Detention after discharge on habeas corpus.—If any officer or any person shall hold or detain in any manner any one who has been ordered to be discharged by any court or judge upon the hearing of a writ of habeas corpus, he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars or be confined in jail not exceeding two years.

Art. 1176. [1046] [625] Refusal to allow consultation with counsel.—If any officer or any person having the custody of a prisoner shall wilfully prevent such prisoner from consulting or communicating with counsel, or from obtaining the advice or services of counsel in the protection or prosecution of his legal rights, he shall be confined in jail not less than sixty days nor more than six months and be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars.

CHAPTER SEVEN

KIDNAPPING AND ABDUCTION

Art.

1177. "Kidnapping."
1178. If one kidnapped be actually removed.
1179. "Abduction."
1180. Of female under fourteen.
1181. Abduction complete.
1182. Punishment for abduction.

Article 1177. [1056] [626] [521] Kidnaping.—When any person is falsely imprisoned for the purpose of being removed from the State, or if a minor under the age of seventeen years, for the purpose of being concealed or taken from the lawful possession of a parent or guardian, such false imprisonment is "kidnapping." If the person kidnapped be under fifteen years of age, it is not necessary that there should be force in order to constitute kidnapping. One guilty of kidnapping shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [Acts 1858, p. 171.]

Art. 1178. [1058] [628] [523] If one kidnapped be actually removed.—If the person so falsely imprisoned be actually removed out of the State, the punishment shall be imprisonment in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years.

Art. 1179. [1059] [629] [524] "Abduction."—"Abduction" is the false imprisonment of a woman with intent to force her into a marriage or for the purpose of prostitution.

Art. 1180. [1060] [630] [525] Of female under fourteen.—If a girl under the age of fourteen years be taken for the purpose of marriage or prostitution from her parent, guardian or other person having the legal charge of her, it is abduction whether she consent or not and though a marriage afterward take place between the parties.

Art. 1181. [1061] [631] [526] Abduction complete.—Abduction is complete if the female is detained as long as twelve hours though she may afterwards be relieved from such detention without marriage or prostitution.

Art. 1182. [1062] [632] [527] Punishment for abduction.—One guilty of abduction shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. If by reason of such abduction a woman be forced into marriage the punishment shall be confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years; and if by reason of such abduction a woman be prostituted, the punishment shall be confinement in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than twenty years.

CHAPTER EIGHT

RAPE

- Art.
1183. "Rape."
1184. "Force."
1185. "Threat."
1186. "Fraud."
1187. Proof of carnal knowledge.
1188. Defendant must be over fourteen.
1189. Penalty.
1190. Attempt to rape.

Article 1183. [1063] [633] [528] "Rape."—Rape is the carnal knowledge of a woman without her consent obtained by force, threats or fraud; or the carnal knowledge of a woman other than the wife of the person having such carnal knowledge with or without consent and with or without the use of force, threats or fraud, such woman being so mentally diseased at the time as to have no will to oppose the act of carnal knowledge, the person having carnal knowledge of her knowing her to be so mentally diseased; or the carnal knowledge of a female under the age of eighteen years other than the wife of the person with or without her consent and with or without the use of force, threats or fraud; provided that if she is fifteen years of age or over the defendant may show in consent cases she was not of previous chaste character as a defense. [Acts 1891, p. 96, Acts 1895, p. 79, Act April 2, 1918, Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 123.]

Art. 1184. [1064] [634] [529] "Force."—The definition of "force" as applicable to assault and battery applies also to rape, and it must have been such as might reasonably be supposed sufficient to overcome resistance, taking into consideration the relative strength of the parties and other circumstances of the case.

Art. 1185. [1065] [635] [530] "Threat."—The threat must be such as might reasonably create a just fear of death or great bodily harm, in view of the relative condition of the parties as to health, strength and other circumstances of the case.

Art. 1186. [1066] [636] [531] "Fraud."—The fraud must consist in the use of some stratagem by which the woman is induced to believe the man is her husband, or in administering without her knowledge or consent some substance producing unnatural sexual desire or such stupor as prevents or weakens resistance and committing the offense while she is under the influence of such substance. It is a presumption of law which cannot be rebutted by testimony that no consent was given under the circumstances set out in this article.

Art. 1187. [1067] [637] [532] Proof of carnal knowledge.—Penetration only is necessary to be proved on a trial for rape.

Art. 1188. [1068] [638] [533] Defendant must be over fourteen.—One under the age of fourteen at the time the offense was committed cannot be convicted of rape or assault with intent to rape.

Art. 1189. [1069] [639] [534] Penalty.—A person guilty of rape shall be punished by death or by confinement in the penitentiary for life, or for any term of years not less than five.

Art. 1190. [1070] [640] [536] Attempt to rape.—If it appear on the trial of an indictment for rape that the offense though not committed was attempted by the use of force, threats or fraud, but not such as to bring it within the definition of an assault with intent to commit rape, the jury may find the defendant guilty of an attempt to rape and assess his punishment at confinement in the penitentiary for any term of years not less than two.

CHAPTER NINE

ABORTION

Art.

1191. Abortion.
1192. Furnishing the means.
1193. Attempt at abortion.
1194. Murder in producing abortion.
1195. Destroying unborn child.
1196. By medical advice.

Article 1191. [1071] [641] [536] Abortion.—If any person shall designedly administer to a pregnant woman or knowingly procure to be administered with her consent any drug or medicine, or shall use towards her any violence or means whatever externally or internally applied, and thereby procure an abortion, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years; if it be done without her consent, the punishment shall be doubled. By "abortion" is meant that the life of the fetus or embryo shall be destroyed in the woman's womb or that a premature birth thereof be caused. [Acts 1907, p. 55.]

Art. 1192. [1072] [642] [537] Furnishing the means.—Whoever furnishes the means for procuring an abortion knowing the purpose intended is guilty as an accomplice.

Art. 1193. [1073] [643] [538] Attempt at abortion.—If the means used shall fail to produce an abortion, the offender is nevertheless guilty of an attempt to produce abortion, provided it be shown that such means were calculated to produce that result, and shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Art. 1194. [1074] [644] [539] Murder in producing abortion.—If the death of the mother is occasioned by an abortion so produced or by an attempt to effect the same it is murder.

Art. 1195. [1075] [645] [540] Destroying unborn child.—Whoever shall during parturition of the mother destroy the vitality or life in a child in a state of being born and before actual birth, which child would otherwise have been born alive, shall be confined in the penitentiary for life or for not less than five years.

Art. 1196. [1076] [646] [541] By medical advice.—Nothing in this chapter applies to an abortion procured or attempted by medical advice for the purpose of saving the life of the mother.

CHAPTER TEN

ADMINISTERING POISONOUS AND INJURIOUS POTIONS

Art.

- 1197. Poisoning food, well, etc.
- 1198. Administering injurious substances.
- 1199. Death within a year, murder.
- 1200. Malpractice punishable.

Article 1197. [1077] [647] [542] Poisoning food, well, etc.—Whoever shall mingle or cause to be mingled any noxious potion or substance with any drink, food or medicine, with intent to kill or to injure any other person, or shall wilfully poison or cause to be poisoned any spring, well, cistern or reservoir of water with such intent, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two or [nor] more than ten years.

Art. 1198. [1078] [648] [543] Administering injurious substances.—Whoever with intent to injure shall cause another person to inhale or swallow any substance injurious to health or any function of the body, or administer such substance with intent to kill, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1858, p. 172.]

Art. 1199. [1079] [649] [544] Death within a year, murder.—If by reason of the commission of any offense named in the two preceding articles the death of a person be caused within one year, the offender shall be deemed guilty of murder. [O. C. 539.]

Art. 1200. [1080] [650] [545] Malpractice punishable.—If any person engaged in the practice of medicine and claiming to be a physician shall by the use of any noxious substance administered in a grossly ignorant manner produce death, or other great bodily injury, he shall be punished for the offense as any other person would be who had given such substance knowing it to be injurious and intending to kill or injure. [O. C. 540.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

HOMICIDE

Art.

- 1201. "Homicide."
- 1202. Destruction of life must be complete.
- 1203. Foregoing article refers to acts of others.
- 1204. Body of deceased must be found.
- 1205. Person killed must be in existence.
- 1206. Homicide produced by words, etc.

Article 1201. [1081] [651] [546] "Homicide."—"Homicide" is the destruction of the life of one human being by the act, agency, procurement, or culpable omission of another. [O. C. 541.]

Art. 1202. [1082] [652] [547] Destruction of life must be complete.—The destruction of life must be complete by such act, agency, procurement or omission; but although the injury which caused death might not under other circumstances have proved fatal, yet if such injury be the cause of death, without its appearing that there has been any gross neglect or manifestly improper treatment of the person injured, it is homicide. [O. C. 542.]

Art. 1203. [1083] [653] [548] Foregoing article refers to acts of others.—What is said of gross neglect or improper treatment, has reference to the acts of some person other than him who inflicts the first injury, as of the physician or any attendant. If the person inflicting the injury which makes it necessary to call aid in preserving the life of the person injured shall wilfully fail or neglect to call such aid, he shall be deemed equally guilty as if the injury were one which would inevitably lead to death. [O. C. 543.]

Art. 1204. [1084] [654] [549] Body of deceased must be found.—No person shall be convicted of any grade of homicide unless the body of the deceased, or portions of it, are found and sufficiently identified to establish the fact of the death of the person charged to have been killed. [O. C. 544, Acts 1887, p. 14.]

Art. 1205. [1085] [655] [550] Person killed must be in existence.—The person upon whom the homicide is alleged to have been committed must be in existence by actual birth. It is homicide, however, to destroy human life actually in existence however frail such existence may be or however near extinction from other causes. [O. C. 445.]

Art. 1206. [1086] [656] [551] Homicide produced by words, etc.—Although it is necessary to constitute homicide that it shall result from some act of the party accused, yet if words be used which are reasonably calculated to produce and do produce an act which is the immediate cause of death, it is homicide; as for example, if a blind man, a stranger, a child, or a person of unsound mind, be directed by words to a precipice or other dangerous place where he falls and is killed; or if one be directed to take any article of medicine, food or drink, known to be poisonous and which does produce a fatal effect; in these and like cases the person so operating upon the mind or conduct of the person injured shall be deemed guilty of homicide. [O. C. 546.]

CHAPTER TWELVE

JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE

Art.

- 1207. When justifiable.
- 1208. Killing a public enemy.
- 1209. Execution of a convict.
- 1210. By officer in execution of lawful order.
- 1211. Even though order is erroneous.
- 1212. Qualification of foregoing.
- 1213. Order may be written or verbal.
- 1214. Written order.
- 1215. Verbal order justifies only in felony.
- 1216. Persons aiding officer justified.
- 1217. Persons aiding escape.
- 1218. Federal officers included.
- 1219. In suppressing riots.
- 1220. Adultery as justification.
- 1221. In defense of person or property.
- 1222. In preventing felonies, etc.
- 1223. Presumption from weapon of deceased.
- 1224. Defense against milder attack.
- 1225. Retreat not necessary.
- 1226. Requisites of the attack.
- 1227. Defense of property.

Article 1207. [1087] [657] [552] When justifiable.—Homicide is justifiable in the cases enumerated in the succeeding articles of this chapter.

Art. 1208. [1088-89] Killing a public enemy.—It is lawful to kill a public enemy, not only in the prosecution of war, but when he may be in the act of hostile invasion or occupation of any part of the State. A public enemy is any person acting under the authority or enlisted in the service of any government at war with this State or with the United States. Homicide of a public enemy by poison or by the use of poisoned weapons is not justifiable. Homicide of a public enemy who is a deserter or prisoner of war or the bearer of a flag of truce is not justifiable.

Art. 1209. [1091] [661] [556] Execution of a convict.—The execution of a convict for a capital offense by a legally qualified officer under the warrant of a court of competent jurisdiction is justifiable when the same takes place in the manner authorized by law and directed by warrant.

Art. 1210. [1092] [662] [557] By officer in execution of lawful order.—Homicide by an officer in the execution of lawful orders of magistrates and courts is justifiable when he is violently resisted and has just grounds to fear danger to his own life in executing the order.

Art. 1211. [1093] [663] [558] Even though order is erroneous.—The officer is justifiable though there may have been an error of judgment on the part of the magistrate or court, if the order emanated from a proper authority.

Art. 1212. [1094] [664] [559] Qualification of the foregoing.—The rule set forth in the two preceding articles is subject to the following restrictions:

1. The order must be that of a magistrate or a court having lawful authority to issue it.

2. It must have such form as the law requires to give it validity.

3. The person executing the order must be some officer duly authorized by law to execute the order, or some person specially appointed in accordance with law for the performance of the duty.

4. If the person executing the order be an officer and performing a duty which no other person can by law perform, he must have taken the oath of office and given bond, where such is required by law.

5. The order must be executed in the manner directed by law, and the person executing the same must make known his purpose and the capacity in which he acts.

6. If the order be a written one, and the person against whom it issues, before resistance offered, wishes to see the same or hear it read the person charged with its execution shall produce the order and show it or read it.

7. In making an arrest under a written order, the person acting under such order shall, in all cases, declare to the party against whom it is directed the offense of which he is accused, and state the nature of the warrant, unless prevented therefrom by the act of the party to be arrested.

8. The officer or other person executing an order of arrest is required to use such force as may be necessary to prevent an escape when it is attempted, but he shall not in any case kill one who attempts to escape, unless in making or attempting such escape the life of the officer is endangered, or he is threatened with great bodily injury.

9. In overcoming a resistance to the execution of an order, the officer or person executing the same may oppose such force as is necessary to overcome the resistance, but he shall not take the life of the person resisting unless he has just ground to fear that his own life will be taken or that he will suffer great bodily injury in the execution of the order.

10. A prisoner under sentence of death or of imprisonment in the penitentiary or attempting to escape from the penitentiary may be killed by the person having legal custody of him, if his escape can in no other manner be prevented.

Art. 1213. [1095] [665] [560] Order may be written or verbal.—The order referred to in this chapter may be either written or verbal, where a verbal order is allowed for the arrest of a person.

Art. 1214. [1096] [666] [561] "Written order."—Under written orders are included all process in a criminal or civil action which directs the seizure of the person or of property.

Art. 1215. [1097] [667] [562] Verbal order justifies only in felony.—No officer or other person ordered verbally to arrest another is justified in killing except the arrest be in a case of felony or for the prevention of a felony.

Art. 1216. [1098] [668] [563] Persons aiding officer justified.—Persons called in aid of an officer, in the performance of a duty, are justified in the same manner as the officer himself.

Art. 1217. [1099] [699] [564] Persons aiding escape.—All person [persons] opposing the execution of the order, or aiding in an escape, may be treated in the same manner as the person against whom the order is directed or who is attempting to escape.

Art. 1218. [1100] [670] [565] Federal officers included.—Officers acting under the authority of the laws or courts of the United States have the same rights and are liable to the rules prescribed in this chapter.

Art. 1219. [1101] [671] [566] In suppressing riots.—Homicide is justifiable when necessary to suppress a riot when the same is attempted to be suppressed in the manner pointed out in the Code of Criminal Procedure, and can in no way be suppressed except by taking life.

Art. 1220. [1102] [672] [567] Adultery as justification.—Homicide is justifiable when committed by the husband upon one taken in the act of adultery with the wife, provided the killing take place before the parties to the act have separated. Such circumstance cannot justify a homicide where it appears that there has been, on the part of the husband, any connivance in or assent to the adulterous connection.

Art. 1221. [1104] [674] [569] In defense of person or property.—Homicide is permitted in the necessary defense of person or property, under the circumstances and subject to the rules herein set forth.

Art. 1222. [1105] [675] [570] In preventing felonies, etc.—Homicide is justifiable when inflicted for the purpose of preventing murder, rape, robbery, maiming, disfiguring, castration, arson, burglary and theft at night, or when inflicted upon a person or persons who are found armed with deadly weapons and in disguise in the night time on premises not his or their own, whether the homicide be committed by the party about to be injured or by another in his behalf, when the killing takes place under the following circumstances:

1. It must reasonably appear by the acts or by words coupled with the acts of the person killed that it was the purpose and intent of such person to commit one of the offenses above named.

2. The killing must take place while the person killed was in the act of committing the offense, or after some act done by him showing evidently an intent to commit such offense.

3. It must take place before the offense committed by the party killed is actually completed, except that in case of rape the ravisher may be killed at any time before he has escaped from the presence of his victim, and except also in the cases hereinafter enumerated.

4. Where the killing takes place to prevent the murder of some other person, it shall not be deemed that the murder is completed so long as the offender is still inflicting violence, though the mortal wound may have been given.

5. If homicide takes place in preventing a robbery, it is justifiable if done while the robber is in the presence of the one robbed or is flying with the property taken by him.

6. In cases of maiming, disfiguring or castration, the homicide may take place at any time while the offender is mistreating with violence the person injured, though he may have completed the offense.

7. In case of arson the homicide may be inflicted while the offender is in or at the building or other property burnt, or flying from the place before the destruction of the same.

8. In cases of burglary and theft by night, the homicide is justifiable at any time while the offender is in the building or at the place where the theft is committed, or is within reach of gunshot from such place or building.

9. When the party slain in disguise is engaged in any attempt by word, gesture or otherwise to alarm some other person or persons and put them in bodily fear.

Art. 1223. [1106] [676] [571] Presumption from weapon of deceased.—When the homicide takes place to prevent murder, maiming, disfiguring or castration, if the weapon or means used by the party attempting or committing such murder, maiming, disfiguring or castration are such as would have been calculated to produce that result, it is to be presumed that the person so using them designed to inflict the injury.

Art. 1224. [1107] [677] [572] Defense against milder attack.—Homicide is justifiable also in the protection of the person or property against any other unlawful and violent attack besides those mentioned, and in such cases all other means must be resorted to for the prevention of the injury, and the killing must take place while the person killed is in the very act of making such unlawful and violent attack, and any person interfering in such case in behalf of the party about to be injured is not justified in killing the aggressor unless the life or person of the injured party is in peril by reason of such attack upon his property.

Art. 1225. [1108] [678] [573] Retreat not necessary.—The party whose person or property is so unlawfully attacked is not bound to retreat in order to avoid the necessity of killing his assailant.

Art. 1226. [1109] [679] [574] Requisites of the attack.—The attack upon the person of an individual in order to justify homicide must be such as produces a reasonable expectation or fear of death or some serious bodily injury.

Art. 1227. [1110] [680] [575] Defense of property.—When under article 1224 a homicide is committed in the protection of property, it must be done under the following circumstances:

1. The possession must be of corporeal property, and not of a mere right, and the possession must be actual and not merely constructive.

2. The possession must be legal, though the right of the property may not be in the possessor.

3. If possession be once lost, it is not lawful to regain it by such means as result in homicide.

4. Every other effort in his power must have been made by the possessor to repel the aggression before he will be justified in killing.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

EXCUSABLE HOMICIDE

Art.

1228. "Excusable homicide."

1229. Must be done by lawful means.

Article 1228. [1111] [681] [576] "Excusable homicide."—Homicide is excusable when the death of a human being happens by accident or misfortune, though caused by the act of another who is in the prosecution of a lawful object by lawful means.

Art. 1229. [1112] [682] [577] Must be done by lawful means.—The lawful act causing the death of another must be done by lawful means and used in a lawful degree. Though lawful for the parent, guardian, schoolmaster or master to chastise the child, ward, scholar, or apprentice, yet if this be done with an instrument likely to produce death, or if with a proper instrument the chastisement be cruelly inflicted and death result, it is murder.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

HOMICIDE BY NEGLIGENCE

Art.

1230. Two kinds.

1. IN THE PERFORMANCE OF A LAWFUL ACT

1231. In first degree.

1232. Must be apparent danger of causing death.

1233. How distinguished from excusable homicide.

1234. Examples.

1235. No apparent intention to kill.

1236. Must be consequence of the act.

1237. Punishment.

2. IN THE PERFORMANCE OF AN UNLAWFUL ACT

1238. Previous rules apply to second degree.

1239. Only be committed, when.

1240. "Unlawful act."

1241. If intent is to commit a felony.

1242. In attempt at misdemeanor.

1243. Punishment.

Article 1230. [1113] [683] [578] Two kinds.—Homicide by negligence is of two kinds:

1. Such as happens in the performance of a lawful act; and

2. That which occurs in the performance of an unlawful act.

1. IN THE PERFORMANCE OF A LAWFUL ACT

Art. 1231. [1114-5] In first degree.—Whoever in the performance of a lawful act shall by negligence and carelessness cause the death of another is guilty of negligent homicide of the first degree. A lawful act is one not forbidden by the penal law and which would give no just occasion for a civil action.

Art. 1232. [1116] [686] [581] Must be apparent danger of causing death.—To constitute this offense there must be an apparent danger of causing the death of the person killed or some other.

Art. 1233. [1117] [687] [582] How distinguished from excusable homicide.—The want of proper care and caution distinguishes this offense from excusable homicide. The degree of care and caution is such as a man of ordinary prudence would use under like circumstances.

Art. 1234. [1118] [688] [583] Examples.—Throwing timbers by a workman from the roof or upper part of the house in a public street or highway, or where a number of persons are known to be around the house, or discharging firearms on or near a public highway other than a street in a town or city in such manner as would be likely to injure persons who might be passing, are examples of negligent homicide of the first degree, in case of death resulting therefrom. If death is caused by the careless discharge of firearms in a public street of a town or city, the offense will be of a higher degree.

Art. 1235. [1119] [689] [584] No apparent intention to kill.—To bring the offense within the definition of negligent homicide either of the first or second degree, there must be no apparent intention to kill.

Art. 1236. [1120] [690] [585] Must be consequence of the act.—The homicide must be the consequence of the act done or attempted to be done.

Art. 1237. [1121] [691] [586] Punishment.—Negligent homicide of the first degree shall be punished by confinement in jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

2. IN THE PERFORMANCE OF AN UNLAWFUL ACT

Art. 1238. [1122] [692] [587] Previous rules apply to second degree.—The definitions, rules and provisions of the preceding articles of this chapter, with respect to negligent homicide of the first degree, apply also to the offense of negligent homicide of the second degree, or such as is committed in the prosecution of an unlawful act, except when contrary to the following provisions.

Art. 1239. [1123] [693] [588] Only committed, when.—Negligent homicide of the second degree can only be committed when the person guilty thereof is in the act of committing or attempting the commission of an unlawful act.

Art. 1240. [1124] [694] [589] "Unlawful act."—Within the meaning of an "unlawful act" as used in this chapter are included:

1. Such acts as by the penal law are called misdemeanors; and

2. Such acts, not being penal offenses, as would give just occasion for a civil action.

Art. 1241. [1125] [695] [590] If intent is to commit a felony.—When one in the execution of or in attempting to execute an act made a felony by law shall kill another, though without an apparent intention to kill, the offense does not come within the definition of negligent homicide.

Art. 1242. [1126] [696] [591] In attempt at misdemeanor.—When the unlawful act attempted or executed is known as a misdemeanor, the punishment of negligent homicide committed in the execution of such unlawful act shall be imprisonment in jail not exceeding three years, or by fine not exceeding three thousand dollars.

Art. 1243. [1127] [697] [592] Punishment.—If the act intended is one for which an action would lie, but not an offense against the penal law, the homicide resulting therefrom is a misdemeanor, and may be punished by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

MANSLAUGHTER

Articles 1244 to 1255. [Repealed by Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 3.]

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

MURDER

Art.

1256. "Murder."
1257. Punishment for murder.
1257a. Evidence.
1257b. Instructions.
1258. Threats and character of deceased.

Article 1256. [1140] [710] [605] "Murder."—Whoever shall voluntarily kill any person within this State shall be guilty of murder. Murder shall be distinguished from every other species of homicide by the absence of circumstances which reduce the offense to negligent homicide or which excuse or justify the killing. [O. C. 607, Act Feb. 12, 1858, Acts 1913, p. 238; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 1.]

Art. 1257. [1141] [711] [606] Punishment for murder.—The punishment for murder shall be death or confinement in the penitentiary for life or for any term of years not less than two. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 1.]

Art. 1257a. Evidence.—In all prosecutions for felonious homicide the State or the defendant shall be permitted to offer testimony as to all relevant facts and circumstances surrounding the killing and the previous relationship existing between the accused and the deceased, together with all relevant facts and circumstances going to show the condition of the mind of the accused at the time of the homicide, which may be considered by the jury in determining the punishment to be assessed. Provided, however, that in all convictions under this Act and where the punishment assessed by the jury does not exceed five years, the defendant shall have the benefits of the suspended sentence act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 2.]

Art. 1257b. Instructions.—In all cases tried under the provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the court to define "malice aforethought" and shall apply that term by appropriate charge to the facts in the case and shall instruct the jury that unless from all the facts and circumstances in evidence the jury believes the defendant was prompted and acted with his malice aforethought, they cannot assess the punishment at a period longer than five years; provided, however, that no offense committed prior to the taking effect of Chapter 274 of the General Laws of the 40th Legislature of 1927, shall be affected hereby whether an indictment has been returned or not, but in every such case the offender may be proceeded against and punished under the law as it existed prior to the taking effect of said act, the same as if said act had not been passed. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 3a; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 18, ch. 8, § 1.]

Section 3 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, repeals Title 15, chapters 15 and 18 of Penal Code 1925, and all other conflicting laws, but provides that it shall not be construed as repealing Title 15, chapter 14 of the Penal Code relating to negligent homicide.

Art. 1258. [1143] [713] [608] Threats and character of deceased.—Where a defendant accused of murder seeks to justify himself on the ground of threats against his own life, he may be permitted to introduce evidence of the threats made, but the same shall not be regarded as affording a justification for the killing unless it be shown that at the time of the homicide the person killed by some act then done manifested an intention to execute the threat so made. In every instance where proof of threats has been made, it shall be competent to introduce evidence of the general character of the deceased. Such evidence shall extend only to an inquiry as to whether the deceased was a man of violent or dangerous character, or a man of kind and inoffensive disposition, or whether he was such a person as might reasonably be expected to execute a threat made.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

DUELING

Art.

1259. Dueling.
1260. Homicide committed in a duel.

Article 1259. [1145] [715] [610] Dueling.—Any person who shall within this State fight a duel with deadly weapons, or send or accept a challenge to fight a duel with deadly weapons, either within the State or out of it, or who shall act as a second, or knowingly aid or assist in any manner those thus offending, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Art. 1260. [1146] [716] [611] Homicide committed in a duel.—If in any duel hereafter fought in this State, either of the combatants be killed or receive a wound from which he dies within three months, the survivor shall be deemed guilty of murder.

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO HOMICIDE

Articles 1261 to 1264. [Repealed Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 412, ch. 274, § 3.]

CHAPTER NINETEEN

THREATS

Art.

1265. Seriously threatening life.
1266. Threat must be seriously made.
1267. Certain threats not included.
1268. Threatening letter.

Article 1265. [1442] [962] [809] Seriously threatening life.—Whoever shall seriously threaten to take the life of any human being or to inflict upon any human being any serious bodily injury shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year. [Act Feb. 22, 1875, Acts 1875, p. 51.]

Art. 1266. [1443] [963] [810] Threat must be seriously made.—To constitute the offense it is necessary that the threat be seriously made, and it is for the jury to determine whether the threat, if made, was seriously made or was merely idle and with no intention of executing the same.

Art. 1267. [1445] [965] [812] Certain threats not included.—A threat that a person will do any act merely to protect himself, or to prevent the commission of some unlawful act by another, does not come within the meaning of this chapter.

Art. 1268. [1446] [966] [813] Threatening letter.—Whoever shall knowingly send or deliver to another any letter or writing, whether signed or not, threatening to accuse such other person of a criminal offense with a view of extorting money, property, thing of value, or any advantage whatever from such other person, or threatening to kill or in any manner injure the person of such other, or to burn or otherwise destroy or injure any of his property, real or personal, or to do any other injury to such other person, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year. [Added in revising, 1879.]

TITLE 16

OFFENSES AGAINST REPUTATION.

Chap.

1. Libel.
2. Slander.
3. Sending anonymous letters.
4. False accusation and threats of prosecution.

LIBEL

Art.

- 1269. "Libel."
- 1269a. Libel on banks.
- 1270. Punishment.
- 1271. Forged writing.
- 1272. "Maker."
- 1273. "Publisher."

- 1289. Statement in legislative or judicial proceeding.
- 1290. Truth of statement may be shown; when.
- 1291. Province of jury.
- 1292. Scope of title.

Article 1269. [1151] [721] "Libel."—He is guilty of "libel" who, with intent to injure, makes, writes, prints, publishes, sells, or circulates any malicious statement affecting the reputation of another in respect to any matter or thing pointed out in this chapter.

Art. 1269a. Libel on banks.—Any person who shall knowingly make, utter, circulate, or transmit to another, or others, any statement untrue in fact, derogatory to the financial condition of any bank, banking house, banking company, trust company, in the State, with intent to injure any such financial institution; or who shall counsel, aid, procure, or induce another to originate, make, utter, transmit, or circulate any such statement or rumor, with like intent, shall be guilty of an offense and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not more than two thousand five hundred ($2,500) dollars or by imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for a period of not exceeding two years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 1270. [1152] [722] Punishment.—If any person be guilty of libel he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding two years; and the court may enter judgment and issue an order thereupon directing the sheriff to seize and destroy all the publications, prints, paintings or engravings constituting the libel as charged in the indictment.

Art. 1271. [1153] [723] Forged writing.—If any person with intent to injure the reputation of another shall without lawful authority make, publish or circulate a writing purporting to be the act of some other person, and which comes within the definition of libel, as given in this chapter, he shall be punished in the same manner as if the act purported to be his own; and the rules with respect to libel apply also to the making and circulation of such false writing.

Art. 1272. [1154] [724] "Maker."—He is the maker of a libel who originally contrived and either executed it himself by writing, printing, engraving or painting, or dictated or caused it to be done by others.

Art. 1273. [1155] [725] "Publisher."—He is the publisher of a libel who, either of his own will or by the persuasion or dictation of another, executes the same in any of the modes pointed out as constituting a libel; but if any one by force or threats is compelled to execute such libel he is guilty of no offense.

Art. 1274. [1156] [726] "Circulating."—He is guilty of circulating a libel who, knowing its contents, either sells, distributes or gives, or who, with malicious design, reads or exhibits it to others.

Art. 1275. [1157] [727] The ideas the statement must convey.—The written, printed or published statement, to come within the definition of libel, must convey the idea either:

1. That the person to whom it refers has been guilty of some penal offense; or,
2. That he has been guilty of some act or omission which, though not a penal offense, is disgraceful to him as a member of society, and the natural consequence of which is to bring him into contempt among honorable persons; or
3. That he has some moral vice, or physical or mental defect or disease, which renders him unfit for intercourse with respectable society, and such as should cause him to be generally avoided; or
4. That he is notoriously of bad or infamous character; or
5. That any person in office or a candidate therefor is dishonest and therefore unworthy of such office, or that while in office he has been guilty of some malfeasance rendering him unworthy of the place.

Art. 1276. [1158] [728] Mode of publication.—A libel may be either written, printed, engraved, etched, or painted, but no verbal defamation comes within the meaning thereof; and whenever a defendant is accused of libel by means of a painting, engraving, or caricature, it must clearly appear therefrom that the person said to be defamed was, in fact, intended to be represented by such painting, engraving, or caricature.

Art. 1277. [1159] [729] A manuscript must be circulated.—In order to render any manuscript a libel, it must be circulated or posted up in some public place.

Art. 1278. [1160] [730] Editor, etc., prima facie guilty.—If the libel be in printed form, and issues or is sold in any office or shop where a public newspaper is conducted, or where books or other printed works are sold or printed, the editor, publisher and proprietor of such newspaper, or any one of them, or the owner of such shop, is to be deemed guilty of making or circulating such libel until the contrary is made on the trial to appear.

Art. 1279. [1161] [731] Editor, etc., may avoid responsibility.—The editor, publisher or proprietor of a public newspaper may avoid the responsibility of making or publishing a libel by giving the true author of the same, provided such author be a resident of this State and a person of good character except in cases where it is shown that such editor, publisher, or proprietor caused the libel to be published with malicious design.

Art. 1280. [1162] [732] Mechanical executor not guilty unless.—No person shall be convicted of libel merely on evidence that he has made a manuscript copy of a libel or has performed the manual labor of printing it, unless it be shown positively that such person was actuated by a malicious design against the person defamed. But the person for whose account or by whose order it was printed shall be presumed to have known the intent of the publication, and shall be liable for the offense.

Art. 1281. [1163] [733] Actual injury not necessary.—It is sufficient to constitute the offense of libel if the natural consequence of the publication of the same is to injure the person defamed, although no actual injury to his reputation has been sustained.

Art. 1282. [1164] [734] Intent to injure presumed.—The intent to injure is to be presumed if such would be the natural consequence of the libel, though no actual proof be made that the defendant had such design.

Art. 1283. [1168] [738] The offense relates to persons.—To constitute libel, there must be some injury intended to the reputation of persons, and no publication as to the government, or any of the branches thereof as such is an offense under the name of seditious writings or any other name.

Art. 1284. [1165-6-7-9-70-71] Not libelous.—It is no libel:

1. To make any publication respecting a body politic or corporate as such.

2. To make publications respecting the merits or doctrines of any particular religion, system of morals or politics, or of any particular form of government.

3. To publish any statement respecting any legislative or judicial proceedings, whether in fact true or not, unless in such statement a charge of corruption is made against some person acting in a legislative or judicial capacity.

4. To publish any criticism or examination of any work of literature, science or art or any opinion as to the qualifications or merits of the author of such work.

5. To publish true statements of fact as to the qualifications of any person for any occupation, profession or trade.

6. To make true statements of fact or express opinions as to the integrity or other qualifications of a candidate for any office or public place or appointment.

Art. 1285. [1172] [742] Recorder of minutes not liable.—Where any person by virtue of his office is required to record the proceedings of any department of the government or of any body corporate or politic, or of any association organized for purposes of business or as a religious, moral, benevolent, literary, or scientific institution, he cannot be charged with libel for any entry upon the minutes or records of such department, body, or association, made in the course of his official duties.

Art. 1286. [1173] [743] Members who assent.—If any false statement be entered upon the minutes or record of proceedings of any corporate body or association included within the meaning of the preceding article, which would be libel if written, printed, published, or circulated by an individual, according to the previous articles of this chapter, the members of such body or association who assent to and direct such libelous statement to be made, are guilty of libel under the same rules as if the false statement had been written, published, or circulated in any other manner than as a part of the record of proceedings of such body or association, subject, however, to the restrictions contained in the succeeding article.

Art. 1287. [1174] [744] Intent to injure.—The libelous statement referred to in the preceding article is not to be presumed to have been made with intent to injure, from the mere fact that such would be the natural result thereof, unless it appear from other facts that the statement was in fact made with that intention.

Art. 1288. [1175] [745] "Malicious."—The word "malicious" is used to signify an act done with evil or mischievous design, and it is not necessary to prove any special facts showing ill feeling on the part of the person who is concerned in making, printing, publishing, or circulating a libelous statement against the person injured thereby.

Art. 1289. [1176] [746] Statement in legislative or judicial proceeding.—No statement made in the course of a legislative or judicial proceeding, whether true or false, although made with intent to injure and from malicious purposes, comes within the definition of libel.

Art. 1290. [1177] [747] Truth of statement may be shown, when.—In the following cases the truth of any statement charged as libel may be shown in justification of the defendant:

1. Where the publication purports to be an investigation of the official conduct of officers or men in a public capacity.

2. Where it is stated in the libel that a person has been guilty of some penal offense, and the time, place and nature of the offense is specified in the publication.

3. Where it is stated in the libel that a person is of notoriously bad or infamous character.

4. Where the publication charges any person in office, or a candidate therefor, with a want of honesty, or of having been guilty of some malfeasance in office rendering him unworthy of the place. In other cases the truth of the facts stated in the libel can not be inquired into.

Art. 1291. [1178] [748] Province of jury.—The jury in every case of libel are not only the judges of the facts and of the law under the direction of the court in accordance with the constitution, but they are judges of the intent with which a libel may have been published or circulated, subject to the rules prescribed in this chapter.

Art. 1292. [1179] [749] Scope of title.—This title regulates the law with regard to libel when prosecuted as a penal offense, and is not intended to affect civil remedies for the recovery of damages.

CHAPTER TWO

SLANDER

Art.

1293. Definition and punishment.

1294. Procedure.

Article 1293. [1180] [750] Definition and punishment.—If any person shall, orally or otherwise, falsely and maliciously, or falsely and wantonly, impute to any female in this State, married or unmarried, a want of chastity, he shall be deemed guilty of slander and shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and may be in addition thereto imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year.

Art. 1294. [1181] [751] Procedure.—It shall not be necessary for the State to show that such imputation was false, but the defendant may in justification show the truth of the imputation, and the general reputation for chastity of the female alleged to have been slandered may be inquired into.

CHAPTER THREE

SENDING ANONYMOUS LETTERS

Art.

1295. Sending or delivering—Punishment.

1296. Definition of.

1297. Joint offender may be made to testify.

Article 1295. [1182] Sending or delivering—Punishment.—If any person shall send or cause to be sent to any person any anonymous letter or written instrument of any character whatsoever, reflecting upon the integrity, chastity, virtue, good character or reputation of the person to whom such letter or written instrument is sent or addressed, or of any other person, or wherein the life of such person is threatened, said person so sending such letter or written instrument shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, and confined in jail for not less than one nor more than twelve months. [Acts 1909, p. 138.]

Art. 1296. [1183] Definition of.—By an anonymous letter or written instrument, within the meaning of this chapter, is meant where the sender of the same withholds his full and true name from the same or where no name or where a fictitious name is signed thereto, or where any description of such sender instead of a name is used, such as "a friend" or the like. [Id.]

Art. 1297. [1184] Joint offender may be made to testify.—If two or more persons are concerned in the composition or sending of any anonymous letter or written instrument, as herein prohibited, then either of such persons shall be compelled to testify thereto; and the fact that such testimony will incriminate such person shall not exempt him from testifying in regard thereto. Where such person has been compelled to testify as above stated, then, when he has testified fully in regard thereto, he shall not be prosecuted for the particular offense about which he has testified. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

FALSE ACCUSATION AND THREATS OF PROSECUTION

- Art.
1298. Malicious prosecution.
1299. Combination to falsely accuse another.
1300. Combination to extort money.
1301. Threats of prosecution to extort money.
1302. Publishing another as a coward.
1303. "Whitecapping."

Article 1298. [423] [292] [273] Malicious prosecution.—Whoever for the purpose of extorting money from another, or the payment or security of a debt due him by such other, or with intent to vex, harass or injure such person, shall institute or cause to be instituted any criminal prosecution against such other person, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be confined in jail not less than one month nor more than one year. [Added in revising, 1879.]

Art. 1299. [1185] [752] Combination to falsely accuse another.—If any two or more persons shall combine falsely to accuse another of an offense, and shall in pursuance of such combination make such accusation before a court or magistrate, or in any newspaper or other public print, or by the circulation of hand bills, or in any other public manner by writing, they shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding two years.

Art. 1300. [1186] [753] Combination to extort money.—If the purpose of such combination be to extort money or any pecuniary advantage, the punishment shall be by fine not to exceed two thousand dollars, and imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed three years.

Art. 1301. [1187] [754] Threats of prosecution to extort money.—Whoever with intent to extort money or any pecuniary advantage shall threaten to accuse another of a felony before any court, or to publish any other statement respecting him which would come within the meaning of libel, shall be punished in the manner set forth in article 1299.

Art. 1302. [1188] [755] Publishing another as a coward.—Whoever in any newspaper or hand bill, or by notice posted up in any place shall publish another as a coward, or use toward him other opprobrious language, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars; and, if such publication or posting be in consequence of a refusal to fight a duel, the punishment shall be by fine of not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars.

Art. 1303. [1189] "Whitecapping."—Whoever shall post any anonymous notice or make any threats or signs or skull and cross bones, or shall by any other method post any character or style of notice or threat to do personal violence or injury to property on or near the premises of another, or who shall cause the same to be sent with the intention of interfering in any way with the right of such person to occupy said premises or to follow any legitimate occupation, calling or profession or with the intention of causing such person to abandon such premises, or precinct or county in which such person may reside, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1899, p. 215.]

CHAPTER ONE

ARSON

- Art.
1304. "Arson."
1305. "House."
1306. Offense complete, when.
1307. "Design" the essence of the offense.
1308. Intent presumed.
1309. Explosions included.
1310. House destroyed to save others.
1311. Owner may destroy.
1312. Owner liable, when.
1313. Part owner cannot burn.
1314. Punishment.
1315. State buildings.
1316. Attempt at arson.

Article 1304. [1200] [756] [651] "Arson."—"Arson" is the wilful burning of any house included within the meaning of the succeeding article of this chapter. [O. C. 679.]

Art. 1305. [1201] [757] [652] "House."—A "house" is any building, edifice, or structure enclosed with walls and covered, whatever may be the material used for building. [O. C. 680.]

Art. 1306. [1202] [758] [653] Offense complete, when.—The burning is complete, when the fire has actually communicated to a house, though it may be neither destroyed nor seriously injured. [O. C. 684.]

Art. 1307. [1203] [759] "Design" the essence of the offense.—It is of no consequence by what means the fire is communicated to a house, if the burning is with design. It may be by setting fire to any combustible material communicated therewith, by an explosion, or by any other means. [O. C. 685.]

Art. 1308. [1204] [760] [655] Intent presumed.—When fire is communicated to a house by means of the burning of another house, or some combustible matter, it is presumed that the intent was to destroy every house actually burnt; provided there was any apparent danger of such construction [destruction]. [O. C. 686.]

Art. 1309. [1205] [761] [656] Explosions included.—The explosion of a house by means of gunpowder or other explosive matter comes within the meaning of arson. [O. C. 687.]

Art. 1310. [1206] [762] [657] House destroyed to save others.—A house blown up or otherwise destroyed for the purpose of saving another house from fire is not within the meaning of arson. [O. C. 688.]

Art. 1311. [1207] [763] [658] Owner may destroy.—The owner of a house may destroy it by fire or explosion without incurring the penalty of arson, except in the cases mentioned in the succeeding article. [O. C. 689.]

Art. 1312. [1208] [764] [659] Owner liable, when.—When a house is within a town or city, or when it is insured, or when there is within it any property belonging to another, or when there is apparent danger by reason of the burning thereof, that the life or person of some individual, or the safety of some house belonging to another will be endangered, the owner, if he burn the same, is guilty of arson. [O. C. 690.]

Art. 1313. [1209] [765] [660] Part owner can not burn.—One of the part owners of a house is not permitted to burn it. [O. C. 691.]

Art. 1314. [1210] [766] [661] Punishment.—Whoever is guilty of arson shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than twenty years. [O. C. 694, Acts 1917; p. 352.]

Art. 1315. [1211] [767] [662] State buildings.—Whoever shall wilfully burn the capitol building of the State, the State Office Building, or the executive mansion, shall be confined in the penitentiary for life. [O. C. 694.]

Art. 1316. [1212] [768] [663] Attempt at arson.—Whoever, by any means calculated to effect the object, attempts to commit the offense of arson, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [O. C. 708.]

CHAPTER TWO

OTHER WILFUL BURNING

Art.

- 1317. Rules of arson applicable.
- 1318. Burning other buildings, hay, lumber, etc.
- 1319. Ship, or other vessel.
- 1320. Bridge burning.
- 1321. Burning woodland or prairie.
- 1322. Burning insured personal property.
- 1323. Burning another's personal property.
- 1324. Punishment in case of personal injury.
- 1325. When death ensues, murder.
- 1326. Attempts at other wilful burning.
- 1327. Wilfully firing grass in inclosure of another.
- 1328. Wilfully firing grass with intent to injure.
- 1329. Preventing escape of sparks.
- 1330. Firing forest or cut-over land.

Article 1317. [1213] [769] [664] Rules of arson applicable.—The rules and definitions contained in the preceding chapter with respect to arson apply, unless clearly inapplicable, to wilful burning under this chapter. [O. C. 597.]

Art. 1318. [1214] [770] [665] Burning other buildings, hay, lumber, etc.—Whoever shall wilfully burn any building not a house as defined in the preceding chapter, or shall wilfully burn any stack of corn, hay, fodder, grain, or flax, or any pile of boards, lumber, or wood, or any fence or other inclosure, the property of another, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years, or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [O. C. 698.]

Art. 1319. [1215–16] Ship, or other vessel.—Whoever shall wilfully burn any ship or other vessel, or any boat of any kind whatsoever, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years, or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. This offense is complete only when some person other than the offender has an interest in the property by insurance or otherwise at the time the burning takes place. [O. C. 699, O. C. 700.]

Art. 1320. [1217] [773] [668] Bridge burning.—Whoever wilfully burns any bridge which by law or usage is a public highway shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years, or be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars. [O. C. 701, Acts 1858, p. 177.]

Art. 1321. [1218–19] Burning woodland or prairie.—Whoever wilfully or negligently sets fire to, or burns, or causes to be burned, any woodland or prairie not his own, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars. This offense is complete where the offender sets fire to his own woodland or prairie and the fire communicates to the woodland or prairie of another. [O. C. 701, 703, Acts 1883, p. 102.]

Art. 1322. [1220] [776] [671] Burning insured personal property.—Whoever with intent to defraud wilfully burns any personal property owned by himself which shall be at the time insured against loss or damage from fire shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 704, Acts 1858, p. 178.]

Art. 1323. [1221] [777] [672] Burning another's personal property.—Whoever wilfully burns any personal property belonging to another, the punishment for which is not otherwise provided for in this chapter, shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [O. C. 705.]

Art. 1324. [1222] [778] [673] Punishment in case of personal injury.—If any bodily injury less than death is suffered by any one by reason of the commission of any offense named in this and the preceding chapter, the punishment may be increased so as not to exceed double that which is prescribed in cases where no such injury is suffered. [O. C. 706.]

Art. 1325. [1223] [779] [674] When death ensues, murder.—Where death is occasioned by any offense described in this and the preceding chapter the offender is guilty of murder. [O. C. 707.]

Art. 1326. [1224] [780] [675] Attempts at other wilful burning.—Whoever by any means calculated to effect the object, attempts to commit any offense enumerated in this chapter, shall receive such punishment as may be assessed not to exceed one-half of the penalty which would have been affixed in case the offense attempted had been actually committed. When the punishment is confinement in the penitentiary, in no case shall the lowest term be less than two years. [O. C. 708, Acts 1858, p. 178.]

Art. 1327. [1225] [781] [675a] Wilfully firing grass in inclosure of another.—Whoever wilfully fires any grass within any inclosure not his own in this State, with intent to destroy the grass in such pasture, or any part thereof, or whoever fires the grass outside of any inclosure with the intent to destroy the grass therein by the communication of said fire to the grass, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1884, p. 66.]

Art. 1328. [1226] [782] [675b] Wilfully firing grass with intent to injure.—Whoever wilfully, and with intent to injure the owner of the stock grazing thereon, sets fire to any grass upon land not his own, with intent to destroy the same, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years. [Id.]

Art. 1329. Preventing escape of sparks.—All logging and railroad locomotives, dinkey engines and other engines and boilers operated or used within two hundred feet of any forest, cut-over, brush or grass land, which do not use oil as fuel, shall be equipped with efficient appliances or devices to prevent the escape of fire and sparks from the smoke stacks, ash pans and fire boxes thereof. Such appliances and devices shall at all times be kept in proper adjustment and in good repair, and the State Forester or his designated agents may examine any locomotive or other engine to determine the condition of said appliances and devices. Any person operating any logging or railroad locomotive, dinkey engine or other engine or boiler in violation of any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [Acts 1923, p. 270.]

Art. 1330. Firing forest or cut-over land.—Whoever wilfully or negligently sets on fire or causes to be set on fire any forest, cut-over, brush or grass land not his own; or sets on fire or causes to be set on fire any forest, cut-over, brush or grass land, belonging to himself, and allows such fire to escape to any forest, cut-over, brush or grass land, not his own; or wilfully or negligently suffers any fire set by himself to damage any property of another, and any person setting fire or causing fire to be set for the purpose of burning debris on areas worked or cupped for turpentine and wilfully or negligently allowing such fire to spread to adjacent areas not then being so worked or cupped, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Article 1331. [1233] [789] [681] Tampering with buoy or signal.—If any person shall wilfully remove any buoy, beacon, light or any other mark or signal erected for the purpose of indicating the channel in any bay, river, lake or other navigable water within the State, or shall erect any false buoy, beacon, light or mark or signal to indicate the channel in any such navigable water, with intent to mislead or deceive, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years, or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars; if death occurs by reason of such unlawful act the offender is guilty of murder. [Acts 1858, p. 179.]

Art. 1332. [1227] [783] [676] Sinking or destroying vessel.—If any person shall wilfully and maliciously cast away, sink, or destroy in any way other than by fire any vessel or boat which together with its cargo, if any, shall be of the value of one hundred dollars or more, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years, or be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. If the life of any person is lost by such act the offender is guilty of murder. [Acts 1858, p. 178.]

Art. 1333. Using boat without consent.—Whoever shall use in this State without the consent of the owner thereof any boat of any size or kind, which is capable of being used or operated on any bay, lake, river or body of water or any part thereof in this State, or who shall without such consent remove therefrom any motor or part thereof, oars, rowlocks, oarlocks, anchor, anchor chain or rope, paddles, seats, planks, poles, or any rigging whatever belonging to such boat, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 141.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 172, p. 404, § 47, repeals chapter 72 of Acts 1921, 37th Leg., p. 141, from which this article was taken.

Art. 1334. [1228] [784] [677] Telegraph or telephone.—If any person shall intentionally break, cut, pull or tear down, misplace or in any other manner injure any telegraph or telephone wire, post, machinery, or other necessary appurtenances to any such line, or in any way wilfully obstruct or interfere with the transmission of messages along such telegraph or telephone line, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years or be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two thousand dollars. [Acts 1885, p. 10.]

Art. 1335. [1229] [785] [678] Obstructing railroad track, etc.—If any person shall wilfully place any obstruction upon the track of any railroad, or remove any rail therefrom, or displace or interfere with any switch thereof, or in any way injure such road, or do any damage to any railroad, locomotive, tender or car whereby the life of any person might be endangered, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. If the life of any person is lost by such act the offender is guilty of murder. [Acts 1887, p. 14.]

Art. 1336. [1259] [808] [691e] Injuring railroad, etc.—Whoever wilfully injures any railroad, locomotive engine or tender, or baggage, passenger or freight car of any railroad so as to prevent the use of the same shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars and imprisoned in jail not less than three nor more than twelve months. [Acts 1887, p. 72.]

Art. 1337. [1257] [806] [691c] Preventing moving of train.—Whoever shall by force, threats, or intimidation of any kind against any railroad engineer or any conductor, brakeman, or other officer or employé employed or engaged in running any passenger, freight or construction train running upon any railroad in this State, prevent the moving or running of such train shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and be imprisoned in jail not less than three nor more than twelve months. Each day such trains are prevented from moving on their road is a separate offense. [Acts 1887, p. 72.]

Art. 1338. [1238] [792] [683a] Injuring baggage.—Any baggage master, express agent, hack driver or other common carrier whose duty it is to handle, remove, transfer or take care of trunks, valises, boxes or other baggage while handling the same, whether or not in the employ of any common carrier, who shall maliciously, carelessly or recklessly break, injure or destroy said baggage shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Acts 1881, p. 17.]

Art. 1339. [1239] [793] [683b] Throwing or firing into car, etc.—Whoever shall wilfully or maliciously throw a stone or other missile or fire any gun or pistol at, against or into any engine, tender, coach, passenger car whether moving or not, or any other car of any moving train on any railway, or any railway depot, or any private residence, school house, church house, court house, store house, hotel or other public or private building, private or public tent, sailboat or steamboat, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one thousand dollars or be confined in jail not less than ten days nor more than two years. [Acts 1889, p. 36, Acts 1895, p. 161, Acts 1897, p. 41.]

Art. 1340. [1232] [788] [680a] Using animal without consent.—Any person who shall take and use or take up and use any horse, mule, ox, cow or any other dumb animal the property of another, without the consent of the owner thereof, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. This article shall not be held to interfere with the laws as to estrays, nor to prevent a prosecution for theft. [Acts 1879, p. 129, Acts 1889, p. 319.]

Art. 1341. Driving vehicle without consent.—Whoever wilfully and in the absence of the owner drives or operates or causes to be so driven or operated upon any public road or highway any automobile, motor cycle, or other motor vehicle, bicycle, buggy or other horse driven vehicle without the consent of the owner thereof, shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Acts 1913, p. 187, Acts 1915, p. 160, Acts 1917, p. 483.]

Art. 1342. Unlawful use of State's vehicle.—Whoever uses any automobile, truck or other motor vehicle owned by this State for any purpose except in the transaction of business for the State shall be fined not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1921, p. 122.]

Art. 1343. Manipulating starter or lever of vehicle.—Any person who shall without the consent of the owner or person in charge of a motor vehicle climb upon or in such vehicle, whether the same be in motion or at rest, or shall while said vehicle is at rest and unattended attempt to manipulate any of the levers, starting crank or other device or to set said vehicle in motion shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail for sixty days or both. [Sec. 34, p. 484, Acts 1917.]

Art. 1344. Tampering with motor vehicle.—Any person who shall individually or in association with one or more others wilfully break, injure or tamper with any part of any motor vehicle for the purpose of injuring, defacing or destroying such vehicle or temporarily or permanently preventing its useful operation or for any other purpose against the will and without the consent of the owner thereof, or in any other manner wilfully or maliciously interfere with or prevent the running or operation of such vehicle, shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed twelve months or both, provided that when such offense comes within the definition of felony theft, this article shall not be applicable. [Sec. 33, p. 484, Acts 1917.]

Art. 1345. Mischief with motor vehicle.—Whoever shall wilfully cut, mark, scratch or damage the chassis, running gear, body, sides, top, robe covering or upholstery of a motor vehicle, the property of another, or shall wilfully destroy any part thereof with any liquid or other substance, or shall wilfully cut, mash, mark or in any other way damage or destroy the cylinder, radiator, starter, battery, or any device, emblem or monogram, or any other attachment, fastening or appurtenance of a motor vehicle, without the permission of the owner thereof, or whoever wilfully shall drain or start the drainage of any radiator or oil tank upon a motor vehicle without permission of the owner thereof, or wilfully puts any metallic or other substance or liquid in the radiator, carburetor, oil-tank, grease cup, oilers, lamps or machinery of a motor vehicle with the intent to injure or damage the same or impede the working of the machinery, maliciously tighten or loosen any bracket, bolt, wire, nut, screw or other fastening on such vehicle, shall be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year. [Acts 1913, p. 187.]

Art. 1346. Removing parts of motor vehicle.—Whoever shall maliciously or wilfully and without authority from the owner unlawfully remove from any motor vehicle or bicycle any portion of the running or steering gear, pump, or any tire, rim, robe, cover, tube, clock, casing, radiator, fire-extinguisher, tool, lamp, starter, battery, coil, spring, gas or oil tank, bell or any signal device, speedometer, license number, horn, box, basket, trunk or carrier, shield, hood, oiler, gauge, chain or any device, emblem or monogram thereon, or any attachment, fastenings or other appurtenances or any other part attached to such vehicle which is necessary in the use or operation thereof, or whoever knowingly buys, receives or has in his possession any of said articles or any part thereof so unlawfully removed, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than six months nor more than one year. [Acts 1913, p. 187.]

Art. 1347. Throwing glass, etc. in road.—Whoever throws or deposits in or on any public road, street or alley, or any public highway any glass bottles, glass, nails, tacks, hoops, wire, cans or any other substance likely to injure any person, animal, automobile or any vehicle upon such highway shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 131, Acts 1917, p. 483.]

Art. 1348. [1248] [801] [687] Removing rock, etc. from premises.—Whoever knowingly enters upon the land or premises of another and takes or removes therefrom any rock, earth, coal, slate or mineral of any kind, without the consent of the owner of such land or premises shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [Acts 1876, p. 28.]

Art. 1349. [1234] [790] [682] Robbing orchards, etc.—Whoever shall take or carry away from the farm, orchard, garden or vineyard of another without his consent, any fruit, melons or garden vegetables, shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 55.]

Art. 1350. [1235] [791] [683] Injuring personal property.—If any person shall wilfully and mischievously injure or destroy any growing fruit, corn, grain or other like agricultural product, or if any person shall wilfully or mischievously injure or destroy any real or personal property of any description whatever in such manner as that the injury does not come within any of the offenses otherwise provided for by this Code; or if any person who is in charge or possession of any real property of another shall wilfully, without consent of the owner, tear down, injure or destroy any house, building, edifice or material located thereon; he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars; provided that when the value of the property injured is fifty dollars or less, then he shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1889, p. 35; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 254, ch. 176, § 1.]

Art. 1351. [854] Fencing land of another.—Whoever knowingly and without the consent of the owner makes any fence on or around the land of another shall be fined not to exceed two hundred dollars. [Acts 1884, p. 68.]

Art. 1352. [1240] [794] [684] Injuring fence.—If any person shall break, pull down or injure the fence of another without his consent, or shall wilfully and without the consent of the owner thereof open and leave open any gate leading into the enclosure of another, or shall knowingly cause any hogs, cattle, mules, horses or other stock to go within the inclosed lands of another without his consent, or shall tie or stake out, or cause to be tied or staked out to graze within any inclosed lands not his own and without the consent of the owner any horse, mule or other animal, he shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, and in addition there-to may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year. [Acts 1873, p. 41.]

Art. 1353. [1242] [795] [684a] Wilfully cutting fence.—Any person who shall wilfully and wantonly or with intent to injure the owner cut, injure or destroy any fence or part of a fence (unless such fence is the property of the person so cutting or destroying the same) shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years. A fence within the meaning hereof is any structure of wood, wire, or of both, or of any other material intended to prevent the passage of cattle, horses, mules, asses, sheep, goats or hogs, provided however, that it shall constitute no offense for any person owning or residing upon land inclosed by the land [fence] of another who refuses permission to such person residing within such inclosure free egress or ingress to their

said land for said person to open a passage way through said inclosure. [Acts 1884, p. 34.]

Art. 1354. [1243-1244] Removal of party fence.—No person who is a joint owner of any separating or dividing fence, or who is in any manner interested in any fence attached to or connected with any fence owned or controlled by any other person shall remove the same except by mutual consent or as hereinafter provided. Any person who is the owner or part owner of any fence connected with or adjoined to any fence owned in part or in whole by any other person shall have the right to withdraw or separate his fence or part of a fence from the fence of any other person; such person who desires to withdraw or separate such fence from the fence of any other person shall give notice in writing to such person, his agent, attorney, or lessee of his intention to separate or withdraw his fence or part thereof for at least six months prior to the time of such intended withdrawal or separation. Any person failing to comply with the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than two nor more than fifty dollars. Every ten days shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1889, p. 45.]

Art. 1355. [1245] [798] Notice requiring removal.—Any person who is the owner of any fence wholly upon his own land to which the fence of another is adjoined or connected in any manner may require the owner of any such fence to disconnect and withdraw the same back on his own land by first giving notice in writing for at least six months to such person, his agent, attorney, or lessee to disconnect and withdraw his fence back on his own land. Any person who shall wilfully or negligently fail to disconnect his fence and remove the same back upon his own land after the expiration of said notice shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, and each ten days failure after such notice shall constitute a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 1356. [1253] Injuring drainage canal or ditch.—Whoever shall wilfully fill up, cut, injure, destroy or in any manner impair the usefulness of any canal, drain, ditch or water course or other work constructed, repaired or improved under the provisions of the law providing for drainage districts for the purpose of drainage and protection from an overflow of water, shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars or be confined in jail not exceeding two months. [Acts 1907, p. 88, Acts 1911, p. 258.]

Art. 1357. Injuring levee.—Any person or persons who shall wrongfully or purposely cut, injure, destroy, or in any manner impair the usefulness of any levee or other reclamation improvement, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding one year; or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Laws 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 21, p. 80, § 66, repeals chapter 146 of Acts 1915, 34th Leg., p. 244, from which this article is taken.

Art. 1358. Destroying line work.—Any person or persons who shall wilfully destroy or deface any corner, line, mark, bench mark, or other object fixed or established in connection with the work herein authorized shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Laws 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 21, p. 80, § 66, repeals chapter 146 of Acts 1915, 34th Leg., p. 244, from which this article is taken.

Art. 1359. [1236] [791a] Introducing Johnson Grass.—Whoever shall wilfully and with intent to injure, sow, scatter or place, on any land not his own, the seed or roots of Johnson Grass, or Russian Thistle, or wilfully and knowingly sell, or give away any oats, hay, straw, seed or grain containing or intermixed with the seeds or roots of Johnson Grass, to any one who is ignorant of the fact that such seeds or roots are so contained in or intermixed with such oats, hay, straw, seed or grain shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars. It shall not be necessary to allege or prove the name of the owner of the land but it shall be sufficient to allege and prove that the land was not defendant's. [Acts 1895, p. 160.]

Art. 1360. Johnson Grass and Russian Thistle.—No person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district owning, leasing or operating any ditch or canal or reservoir, or cultivating any lands abutting upon any reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way or lateral shall permit Johnson Grass or Russian Thistle to go to seed upon such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way or lateral within ten feet of the high water line of any such reservoir, ditch, flume, canal, waste-way, or lateral, where the same crosses or lies upon land in the ownership or control of any such person, association of persons, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both. This article shall not apply to Tom Green, Sterling, Irion, Schleicher, McCullough, Brewster, Menard, Maverick, Kinney, Val Verde and San Saba counties. [Acts 1913, p. 378, Acts 1917, p. 232.]

Art. 1361. Injuring irrigation property.—Any person who shall wilfully cut, dig, break down, destroy or injure, or open any gate, bank, embankment or side of any ditch, canal, reservoir, flume, tunnel or feeder or pump or machinery, building, structure, or other work, which is the property of another or in which another owns an interest or which is in the lawful possession or use of another, and which is used for the purpose of irrigation, milling, mining, manufacturing, for the development of power, for domestic purposes or for stockraising, with intent maliciously to injure any person, association, corporation, water improvement or irrigation district, or for the gain of any person, association, water improvement or corporation, so cutting, digging, breaking[,] injuring or opening any such work hereinbefore in this article named, or with the intent of taking or stealing or causing to run out or waste out of any such ditch, canal, or reservoir, feeder or flume, any water for his own profit, benefit or advantage, or to the injury of any person, association or corporation lawfully entitled to the use of such water or to the use or management of such ditch, canal, tunnel, reservoir, feeder, flume, machine, structure or other irrigation work, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one thousand dollars, and may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding two years, or be so fined and imprisoned. [Acts 1917, p. 228.]

Art. 1362. Mischief with irrigation works.—Whoever shall deposit in any canal, lateral, reservoir or lake, used for any of the purposes enumerated in the preceding article, the carcass of any dead animal, tin cans, discarded buckets or pails, garbage, ashes, baling or barbed wire, earth, offal or refuse of any character or any other article which might pollute the water or obstruct the flow in any such canal or other similar structure, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months, or be so fined and imprisoned. [Acts 1917, p. 228.]

Art. 1363. Unlawfully constructing levee.—No person, corporation or levee improvement district, without first obtaining the approval of plans for the same by the State Reclamation Engineer shall construct, attempt to construct, cause to be constructed, maintain or caused to be maintained any levee or other such improvement on, along or near any stream of this State which is subject to floods, freshets or overflows so as to control, regulate or otherwise change the flood waters of said stream. Any person violating this article shall be punished by fine of not exceeding $100.00 and each day such structure is maintained or caused to be maintained shall be a separate offense. The provisions of this article shall not apply to dams, canals or other improvements made or to be made by irrigation, water improvements or irrigation improvements made by individuals or corporations. [Acts 1913, p. 248, Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 113.]

Art. 1364. [416] Mischief with topographical survey.—Whoever destroys or defaces any mark or object fixed as a line, corner or bearing of any survey or any permanent mark or any bench mark made or set by the topographical surveyors shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 286.]

Art. 1365. [415] [289] [270] Mischief with surveys.—Whoever without authority of law shall wilfully destroy, deface, alter or change any established line, corner, or line or bearing tree of any legal survey, or shall wilfully make any new line or corner on any established legal survey without authority of law shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 220.]

Art. 1366. Injuring or defacing library property.—Whoever wilfully injures or defaces any book, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, or other property belonging to any public library, reading room, museum, or other educational institution, by writing, marking, tearing, breaking, or otherwise mutilating, shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 155.]

Art. 1367. Detaining book, etc.—Whoever wilfully detains any book, newspaper, magazine, pamphlet, manuscript, or other property belonging to any public or incorporated library, reading room, museum, or other educational institution for thirty days after notice in writing to return the same, given after the expiration of the time which by the rules of such institution such property may be kept, shall be fined not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 281.]

Art. 1368. [1250] [802] [690] Unlawfully herding stock.—Whoever shall herd any drove of horses, mules, cattle, sheep, goats or hogs, numbering more than five head, upon any land not his own and within one-half mile of the residence of any citizen of this State whenever the owner, lessee or legal representative of such land shall forbid such herding, and fails or refuses to remove such drove at once upon the request of such owner, lessee or legal representative; or whoever herds or causes to be herded any such drove upon the inclosed lands or pasture of another, without the consent of such owner, lessee or legal representative shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. Each hour of delay after notice given or request made is a separate offense. This article shall not apply to droves which are driven through pastures by the usual route in the most direct and practicable route to any named destination traveling at the greatest practicable speed, and where there is no public road leading to the point of destination. No one shall be authorized under this article to drive any drove or herd of stock of any kind into any inclosure of another for the purpose of grazing or holding such drove or herd of stock for any length of time whatever, without the consent of the owner, lessee or person in charge of such inclosure. This article does not apply to stock while being held for shipment. [Acts 1873, p. 186; Acts 1885, p. 29; Acts 1897, p. 183.]

Art. 1369. [1241] Local option "Hog Law."—Whoever shall wilfully turn out or cause to be turned out on land not his own or under his control or wilfully fail or refuse to keep up any stock, prohibited by law from running at large in any county or subdivision of any county in which the stock law has been adopted, or wilfully allow such stock to trespass upon the land of another in such county or subdivision thereof, or wilfully permit to run at large any stock of his own, or of which he is the agent or of which he has the control, and not permitted to run at large in any county or subdivision of any county in which the stock law has been adopted, shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1897, p. 112; Sec. 20a, Acts 1907, p. 124.]

Art. 1370. [1249] Local option "Horse Law."—Whoever shall knowingly permit any horses, mules, jacks, jennets, and cattle to run at large in any territory in this State where the provisions of the laws of this State have been adopted prohibiting any of such animals from running at large shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Sec. 20b, Act April 3, 1907, Acts 1907, p. 124.]

Art. 1371. Permitting bad dog to run at large.—Any owner, keeper, or person in control of any dog accustomed to run, worry or kill goats, sheep or poultry, knowing such dog to be so accustomed who shall permit such dog to run at large shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. Each time such dog runs at large is a separate offense. [Acts 1923, p. 201.]

Art. 1372. [1246-7] Dogging stock when fence insufficient.—Any owner, proprietor, lessee, or other person in charge of cleared and cultivated land surrounded with an insufficient fence, or the agent or employé of such person, who shall, with fire-arms, dogs, or otherwise, maim, wound or kill any cattle, horses or hogs of another within such inclosure, or who shall cause or procure the same to be done, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. An "insufficient fence," means a fence less than five feet high, or with openings, or crevices in some part thereof sufficiently large for the passage of the animal so maimed, wounded or killed. [Act Oct. 18, 1871, p. 10.]

Art. 1373. [1230] [786] [679] Killing animal to injure owner.—Whoever shall wilfully kill, maim, wound, poison or disfigure any horse, ass, mule, cattle, sheep, goat, swine, dog, or other domesticated animal, or any domesticated bird, of another, with intent to injure the owner thereof, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. In prosecutions under this article the intent to injure may be presumed from the perpetration of the act. [Acts 1858, p. 178, amended in revising 1879.]

Art. 1374. [1231] [787] [680] Cruelty to animals.—Whoever overdrives, wilfully overloads, drives when overloaded, overworks, tortures, torments, deprives of necessary sustenance, unnecessarily or cruelly beats, or needlessly mutilates or kills any animal, or carries any animal in or upon any vehicle, or otherwise, in a cruel or inhumane manner, or causes or procures the same to be done, or who having the charge or custody of any animal unnecessarily fails to provide it with proper food, drink, or cruelly abandons it, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. As used in this article the word "animal" includes every living dumb creature, and the words "torture" and "cruelly" includes every act, omission or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable pain or suffering is caused, permitted or allowed to continue when there is a reasonable remedy or relief. [Acts 1913, p. 168; Acts 1919, p. 99.]

Art. 1375. Cruelty to impounded animal.—Whoever under the laws of this State or any municipality shall impound or cause to be impounded any animal in any pound or corral, shall supply it during such confinement with sufficient quantity of wholesome food and water, and in default thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1913, p. 168.]

Art. 1376. Cruelty to fowls and poultry.—Whoever receives live fowls, poultry or other birds for transportation or to be confined on wagons or stands, or by the owners of grocery stores, commission houses or other market houses or by any other person when to be closely confined, shall place same immediately in

coops, crates or cages made of open slats or wire on at least three sides and of such height that the fowls can stand upright without touching the top, have troughs or other receptacles easy of access at all times by the birds confined therein and so placed that their contents shall not be defiled by them, in which receptacles clean water and suitable food shall be constantly kept; keep such coops, crates or cages in a clean and wholesome condition, place only such numbers in each coop, crate or cage as can stand without crowding one another but have room to move around; not expose same to undue heat or cold; remove immediately all injured, diseased or dead fowls or other birds, and in default thereof shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1377. [1235] Entering inclosed land to hunt or fish.—Whoever shall enter upon the inclosed land of another without the consent of the owner, proprietor or agent in charge, and therein hunt with fire-arms or therein catch or take any fish from any pond, lake, tank or stream, or in any other manner depredate upon the same, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. This article shall not apply to inclosures including two thousand acres or more in one inclosure. [Acts 1885, p. 80; Acts 1893, p. 87; Acts 1903, p. 159.]

Art. 1378. Hunting on posted lands.—Whoever shall knowingly, without the consent of the owner or agent, enter the inclosed and posted lands of another and with fire-arms or dogs hunt on such lands, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars. By inclosed lands is meant such lands as are in use as agricultural lands or for grazing purposes, having cattle, horses, sheep, or goats herding or grazing thereon, and inclosed by any structure for fencing, either of wood or iron or combination thereof, or wood and wire, or partly inclosed by a fence of iron or wood, or wood and iron, or wood and wire, and partly by water or stream, canon, brush, or rock or bluffs or of any islands. Inclosed land is "posted" when the owner or proprietor of such enclosure at each entrance thereof keeps a notice with "posted" plainly marked thereon. The State shall prove, before a conviction shall be had, that all the land in said enclosure is owned or leased by the proprietor thereof, where such lands are subject to purchase or lease. Proof of ownership or lease may be made by oral testimony. Nothing herein authorizes any person to hunt without the consent of the owner or lessee, in any enclosure which is a farm or in which are growing crops; nor prohibits a bona fide traveler while traveling along a public road in an enclosure from killing game within four hundred yards on each side of the road. [Acts 1899, p. 173.]

CHAPTER FOUR

TIMBER AND LOGS

Art.
1379.	Cutting or destroying timber.
1380.	Procedure.
1381.	Road repairs, etc.
1382.	If the offense is theft.
1383.	Destroying walnut trees.
1384.	Pecans and pecan timber.
1385.	Log brand.
1386.	Shall make report of logs cut, etc.
1387.	Evidence of ownership.
1388.	Offenses and definitions.

Article 1379. [1289-90] Cutting or destroying timber.—Whoever, without the consent of the owner, shall knowingly cut down or destroy any tree or timber upon any land not his own, or shall knowingly and without such consent, carry away any such timber, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than five hundred dollars. The word "timber" as used herein includes rails or other articles manufactured from timber; and the word "owner" includes the State and any corporation, public or private, owning lands within this State.

Art. 1380. [1291-2] Procedure.—The indictment need not allege the name of the owner of the timber, but is sufficient if it alleges that the timber was not the property of the accused, and describes the land by the name of the owner or of the original grantee, or by any name by which it may be commonly known in the neighborhood in which the offense was committed. Upon a trial under the preceding article, the State may prove the ownership of the land to be in some person other than the accused by either of the following modes:

1. By a copy of a grant duly certified from the General Land Office.

2. By a deed, or a copy of a deed, or other evidence of title, duly certified, from the office of the clerk of the county court of the county where the prosecution is pending.

3. By certificate from the Comptroller's office, or from the assessor and collector of the county, that some person other than the accused pays taxes on the land.

4. By verbal testimony of title, or of notorious use and possession of the land by some person other than the accused; and such proof shall be held sufficient until contradicted by competent evidence on the part of the accused that he is the owner of the land. [Acts 1858, p. 179.]

Art. 1381. [1293] [829] Road repairs, etc.—It is no offense to cut or use timber for the purpose of making or repairing any public road or bridge passing over or immediately adjacent to the land on which such tree or timber may be found, or to use a reasonable amount of wood standing outside of an enclosure for the purpose of making fires while traveling upon the road.

Art. 1382. [1294] [830] If the offense is theft.—Nothing contained in the foregoing articles shall exempt a person from the penalty affixed to theft whenever timber is taken in such manner as to be theft.

Art. 1383. [1295] [831] Destroying walnut tree.—Whoever shall cut down or otherwise destroy or injure any walnut tree on land not his own without authority in writing from the owner of such tree, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars. [Acts 1871, p. 42.]

Art. 1384. [1296] Pecans and pecan timber.—Whoever shall gather any pecan nuts upon inclosed land not owned, leased or controlled by him, unless it be made to appear in defense that it was done by consent of the owner, lessor, or person in control, or any person who shall cut, destroy or injure any pecan timber upon lands not his own, unless it be made to appear in defense that it was done with the consent of the owner thereof, shall be fined not less than five nor more than three hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not more than three months or both. [Acts 1897, p. 53.]

Art. 1385. [1297-8] Log brand.—Any person engaged in floating or rafting timber upon the waters of any river or creek of this state shall have a log brand with which to brand every log or stick that he may float or haul and put into the waters for sale or market, the same to be distinctly branded, and shall have said brand recorded in every county in which he cuts any of said timber, and in the county where he proposes to sell or market said timber, by the county clerk in a book to be kept by said clerk for that purpose. [Acts 1879, p. 81.]

Art. 1386. [1299] [834] Shall make report of logs cut, etc.—Any persons who float any logs or timber in this State shall on the first day of April, July, October, and January of each year, or within fifteen days of such dates, make a written report under oath showing the number of logs cut or floated during the next preceding three months, the survey or surveys of land from which they were cut or carried, and the number cut from each, and a description of the brand placed thereon, and shall file the same with the county clerk of the county in which the timber was cut, and such clerk shall record and index the same in a book kept for that purpose. This article shall not apply to pickets, posts, rails or firewood. [Id.]

Art. 1387. [1300] [835] Evidence of ownership.—A certificate, under the hand of the county clerk, containing a description of a log brand and the name of the owner thereof, with a transfer on the back of it, signed and acknowledged by such owner or proved as other instruments for record, shall be prima facie evidence that the person to whom the transfer is made owns the logs described thereon. [Id.]

Art. 1388. [1301-2] Offenses and definitions.—Whoever shall buy or sell any timber or log floating or that has been floated in this State, before the same has been branded, shall be fined not more than ten dollars for each log or piece of timber so purchased, sold or traded for. Whoever shall float any unbranded log or timber for market, or who shall fail to make the reports required under article 1386, or who shall brand any log or timber of another without his authority, or who shall deface any brand on any log or timber otherwise than when it is in the act of being sawed or manufactured into lumber or other commodity for use in building, or any person not an employé of the owner, who shall without the written consent of the owner, take into possession any branded or unbranded log or timber cut for floating or sawing, or any sawed timber, lumber or shingle floating in any of the waters of this State, or deposited upon the banks of any river or stream in this State, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars for each offense. The accused may be prosecuted in any county in which the timber or lumber was deposited in the water, or in which it was unlawfully taken into possession or unlawfully defaced, sold, purchased or branded. By "lumber" is meant lumber attached or bound together in some way for floating, and not loose lumber; and by "shingles" is meant shingles in bunches or bundles, and not loose shingles. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

BURGLARY

- Art.
1389. "Burglary."
1390. "Burglary" by breaking.
1391. Burglary of private residence at night.
1392. "Entry" defined.
1393. "Entry" further defined.
1394. "Breaking."
1395. "House."
1396. "Daytime" defined.
1397. Punishment for burglary.
1398. Burglary by explosives.
1399. Offenses committed after entry.
1400. Felony committed after entry.
1401. In case of domestic servant.
1402. Attempt at burglary.

Article 1389. [1303] [838] [704] "Burglary."—The offense of burglary is constituted by entering a house by force, threats or fraud, at night, or in like manner by entering a house at any time, either day or night, and remaining concealed therein, with the intent in either case of committing a felony or the crime of theft. [O. C. 724, Acts 1876, p. 231, Acts 1897, p. 65.]

Art. 1390. [1304] [839] [705] "Burglary" by breaking.—He is also guilty of burglary who, with intent to commit a felony or theft, by breaking, enters a house in the daytime. [O. C. 725, Acts 1876, p. 231.]

Art. 1391. [1305-12-13] Burglary of private residence at night.—The offense of burglary of a private residence at night is constituted by entering a private residence by force, threats or fraud, at night, or in any manner by entering a private residence at any time, either day or night, and remaining concealed therein until night, with the intent, in either case, of committing a felony, or the crime of theft. The term "private residence," as used herein, means any building or room occupied and actually used at the time of the offense by any person as a place of residence. One guilty of burglary of a private residence at night shall be confined in the penitentiary for any term not less than five years. Such burglary is a distinct offense, and nothing making it such shall alter or repeal the two preceding articles. [Act June 5, 1899; Acts 1899, p. 318.]

Art. 1392. [1306] [840] [706] "Entry" defined.—The "entry" into a house includes every kind of entry but one made by the free consent of the occupant, or of one authorized to give such consent; it is not necessary that there should be any actual breaking to constitute burglary, except when the entry is made in the daytime.

Art. 1393. [1307] [841] [707] "Entry" further defined.—The entry is not confined to the entrance of the whole body; it may consist of the entry of any part for the purpose of committing a felony or theft, or it may be constituted by the discharge of fire-arms or other deadly missile into the house, with intent to injure any person therein, or by the introduction of any instrument for the purpose of taking from the house any personal property, although no part of the body of the offender should be introduced. [O. C. 726.]

Art. 1394. [1308] [842] [708] "Breaking."—By "breaking," as used in this chapter, is meant that the entry must be made with actual force. The slightest force, however, is sufficient to constitute breaking; it may be by lifting the latch of a door that is shut, or by raising a window, the entry at a chimney, or other unusual place, the introduction of the hand or any instrument to draw out the property through an aperture made by the offender for that purpose. [O. C. 727.]

Art. 1395. [1309] [843] [709] "House."—A "house" within the meaning of this chapter, is any building or structure erected for public or private use, whether the property of the United States, or this State, or of any public or private corporation or association, or of any individual, and of whatever material it may be constructed. [O. C. 728.]

Art. 1396. [1310] [844] [710] "Daytime" defined.—By "daytime" is meant any time of the twenty-four hours from thirty minutes before sunrise until thirty minutes after sunset.

Art. 1397. [1311] [845] [711] Punishment for burglary.—One guilty of burglary shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than twelve years.

Art. 1398. [1315-1316] Burglary by explosives.—Whoever shall commit burglary, as defined in this chapter, and in the commission thereof uses nitro-glycerine, dynamite, gunpowder or other high explosives, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than twelve years. [Acts 1907, p. 210; Acts 1925, p. 331.] [39th Leg., ch. 129, § 1.]

Art. 1399. [1317] [846] [712] Offenses committed after entry.—If a house be entered in such manner as to be burglary, and the one guilty of such burglary shall after such entry commit any other offense, he shall be punished for burglary and also for whatever other offense is so committed. [O. C. 734, Acts 1858, p. 180.]

Art. 1400. [1318] [847] [713] Felony committed after entry.—If the burglary was effected for the purpose of committing one felony, and the one guilty thereof shall while in the house commit another felony, he shall be punishable for any felony so committed as well as for the burglary. [O. C. 735.]

Art. 1401. [1319] [848] [714] In case of domestic servant.—An entry into a house for the purpose of committing theft, unless the same is effected by actual breaking, is not burglary when the same is done by a domestic servant or other inhabitant of such house; but a theft committed by such person after entering a house is punishable as in other cases. [O. C. 736.]

Art. 1402. [1320-21] Attempt at burglary.—An "attempt" is an endeavor to accomplish the crime of burglary carried beyond mere preparation, but falling short of the ultimate design in any part of it. Whoever shall attempt to commit burglary shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [Acts 1860, p. 100.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

CHAPTER SIX

OFFENSES ON BOARD OF VESSELS, STEAM-BOATS AND RAILROAD CARS

Art.

1403. Nighttime burglary of railroad car, etc.
 1404. Entry by breaking.
 1405. Offenses committed after entry.
 1406. Rules of burglary applicable.
 1407. Theft on board by servant.

Article 1403. [1322] [851] [717] Night-time burglary of railroad car, etc.—Whoever, by any of the means enumerated in article 1389, shall at night enter any vessel, steamboat or railroad car, with intent to commit a felony or theft, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 738.]

Art. 1404. [1323] [852] [718] Entry by breaking.—Whoever shall, by breaking, enter a vessel, steamboat or railroad car in the daytime, with intent to commit a felony or theft, shall be punished as prescribed in the preceding article. [O. C. 739.]

Art. 1405. [1324] [853] [719] Offenses committed after entry.—If a vessel, steamboat or railroad car be entered in such manner as that the entry, if made in a house, would be burglary, and the person so entering shall commit theft or any other offense after entry, he shall be punished for the offense defined in the first article of this chapter, and also for whatever other offense he may so commit. [O. C. 740.]

Art. 1406. [1325] [854] [720] Rules of burglary applicable.—The definitions, rules and explanations of terms in the preceding chapter are applicable to such terms in this chapter; and the rules prescribed in articles 1389, 1390, 1392, 1393 and 1394 of the preceding chapter shall also apply to similar cases on board of a vessel, steamboat or railroad car. [O. C. 741.]

Art. 1407. [1326] [855] [721] Theft on board by servant.—A theft on board a steamboat, vessel or railroad car, committed by a servant or employe, except in cases where there has been an actual breaking in, is punishable simply as theft. [O. C. 742.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

ROBBERY

Art.

1408. Robbery.
 1409. Acquisition of property by threats.

Article 1408. [1327] [856] [722] Robbery.—If any person by assault, or violence, or by putting in fear of life or bodily injury, shall fraudulently take from the person or possession of another any property with intent to appropriate the same to his own use, he shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary for life, or for a term of not less than five years; and when a firearm or other deadly weapon is used or exhibited in the commission of the offense, the punishment shall be death or by confinement in the penitentiary for any term not less than five years. [O. C. 743, Acts 1866, p. 202, Acts 1883, p. 80, Acts 1895, p. 89.]

Art. 1409. [1328] [857] [723] Acquisition of property by threats.—If any person, by threatening to do some illegal act injurious to the character, person or property of another, shall fraudulently induce the person so threatened to deliver to him any property, with intent to appropriate the same to his own use, he shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 744, Acts 1858, p. 180.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

THEFT IN GENERAL

Art.

1410. "Theft" defined.
 1411. Property must have some value.
 1412. Asportation not necessary.
 1413. The "taking" must be wrongful.

Art.

1414. Possession and ownership.
 1415. Possession.
 1416. Theft of one's own property.
 1417. Theft by part owner.
 1418. "Property."
 1419. Domesticated animals and birds.
 1420. Particular penalties exclude general.
 1421. Punishment for felony theft.
 1422. Punishment for misdemeanor theft.
 1423. General penalties not applicable, when.
 1424. Voluntary return.
 1425. "Steal" and "Stolen."
 1426. Stealing agricultural products.
 1427. Stealing record books or filed papers.
 1428. Stealing from wreck.
 1429. Conversion by a bailee.
 1430. Receiving stolen property.
 1431. Motor vehicle without engine number.
 1432. Record of engine number.
 1433. When engine number is renewed.
 1434. Secondhand motor vehicle—License fee receipt.
 1435. Secondhand motor vehicle—Transfer.
 1436. Records to be kept of motor vehicle.

Article 1410. [1329] [858] [724] "Theft" defined.—"Theft" is the fraudulent taking of corporeal personal property belonging to another from his possession, or from the possession of some person holding the same for him, without his consent, with intent to deprive the owner of the value of the same, and to appropriate it to the use or benefit of the person taking. [O. C. 745.]

Art. 1411. [1330] [859] [725] Property must have some value.—The property must be such as has some specific value capable of being ascertained. It embraces every species of personal property capable of being taken. [O. C. 746.]

Art. 1412. [1331] [860] [726] Asportation not necessary.—To constitute "taking" it is not necessary that the property be removed any distance from the place of taking; it is sufficient that it has been in the possession of the thief, though it may not be moved out of the presence of the person deprived of it; nor is it necessary that any definite length of time shall elapse between the taking and the discovery thereof; if but a moment elapse, the offense is complete.

Art. 1413. [1332] [861] [727] The "taking" must be wrongful.—The taking must be wrongful, so that if the property came into the possession of the person accused of theft by lawful means, the subsequent appropriation of it is not theft, but if the taking, though originally lawful, was obtained by any false pretext, or with any intent to deprive the owner of the value thereof, and appropriate the property to the use and benefit of the person taking, and the same is so appropriated, the offense of theft is complete. [O. C. 748.]

Art. 1414. [1333] [862] [728] Possession and ownership.—To constitute theft it is not necessary that the possession and ownership of the property be in the same person at the time of taking. [O. C. 749.]

Art. 1415. [1334] [863] [729] Possession.—Possession of the person so unlawfully deprived of property is constituted by the exercise of actual control, care and management of the property, whether the same be lawful or not.

Art. 1416. [1335] [864] [730] Theft of one's own property.—No person can be guilty of theft by taking property belonging to himself, except in the following cases:

1. Where the property has been deposited with the person in possession as a pledge or security for debt.
2. Where it is in the possession of an officer of the law by process from a court of competent jurisdiction.
3. Where the property is in the possession of an executor or administrator for the purpose of administration.
4. In all other cases where the person so deprived of possession is, at the time of taking, lawfully entitled to the possession thereof as against the true owner. [O. C. 751.]

Art. 1417. [1336] [865] [731] Theft by part owner.—If the person accused of the theft be part owner of the property, the taking does not come within the definition of theft, unless the person from whom it is taken be wholly entitled to the possession at the time. [O. C. 752.]

Art. 1418. [1337] [866] [732] "Property."—The term "property," as used in relation to the crime of theft, includes money, bank bills, goods of every description commonly sold as merchandise, every kind of agricultural produce, clothing, any writing containing evidence of an existing debt, contract, liability, promise or ownership of property real or personal, any receipts for money, discharge, release, acquittance, and printed book or manuscript, and in general any and every article commonly known as and called personal property, and all writings of every description, provided such property possesses any ascertainable value. [O. C. 753.]

Art. 1419. [1338] [867] [733] Domesticated animals and birds.—Within the meaning of "personal property," which may be the subject of theft, are included all domesticated animals and birds, when they are proved to be of any specific value. [O. C. 755.]

Art. 1420. [1339] [868] [734] Particular penalties exclude general.—Theft of certain particular kinds of property, as of a horse, etc., have a punishment affixed differing from the general punishment of the crime of theft; whenever, therefore, the law provides a particular punishment for theft committed in regard to a special kind of property, theft of such property is not included within the law affixing a general penalty to the offense; but in other cases, whenever it is declared to be an offense to steal or otherwise fraudulently appropriate property, the provision is intended to include any and every species of personal property according to its general and broadest signification. [O. C. 754.]

Art. 1421. [1340] [869] [735] Punishment for felony theft.—Theft of property of the value of fifty dollars or over shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [O. C. 756, Acts 1895, p. 15.]

Art. 1422. [1341] [870] [736] Punishment for misdemeanor theft.—Theft of property under the value of fifty dollars and over the value of five dollars shall be punished by imprisonment in jail not exceeding two years, and by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by such imprisonment without fine; theft of property of the value of five dollars or under shall be punished by a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars. [O. C. 757, Acts 1858, p. 181, Acts 1876, p. 242, Acts 1895, p. 15, Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 232, ch. 157, § 1.]

Art. 1423. [1342] [871] [737] General penalties not applicable when.—The two preceding articles do not apply to theft of property from the person nor to cases of theft of any particular kind of property where the punishment is specially prescribed. [O. C. 758.]

Art. 1424. [1343] [872] [738] Voluntary return.—If property taken under such circumstances as to constitute theft be voluntarily returned within a reasonable time, and before any prosecution is commenced therefor, the punishment shall be a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars. [O. C. 759, Acts 1858, p. 181.]

Art. 1425. [1344] [873] [739] "Steal" and "Stolen."—The words "steal" or "stolen," when used in this Code in reference to the acquisition of property, include property acquired by theft. [O. C. 760.]

Art. 1426. [1345] [874] [740] Stealing agricultural products.—Whoever shall fraudulently take or pluck, sever, or carry away any Indian corn, or wheat, cotton, potatoes, rice or other agricultural product, growing, standing or remaining ungathered in any plantation, field, or other ground, shall be guilty of theft. [O. C. 761.]

Art. 1427. [1346] [875] [741] Stealing record books or filed papers.—Whoever shall take and carry away any record book or filed paper from any clerk's office, public office, or other place where the same may be lawfully deposited, or from the lawful possession of any person whatsoever, with intent to destroy, suppress, alter or conceal, or in any wise dispose of the same, so as to prevent the lawful use of such record book or filed paper, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than seven years. [Acts 1858, p. 181.]

Art. 1428. [1347] [876] [742] Stealing from wreck.—Whoever with intent to deprive the true owner of the value thereof, shall appropriate to his own use, or dispose of to his own benefit, any property taken or driven on shore from any vessel wrecked, stranded or burned on the seashore, or on any river, bay or harbor of the State shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 770.]

Art. 1429. [1348] [877] [742a] Conversion by a bailee.—Any person having possession of personal property of another by virtue of a contract of hiring or borrowing, or other bailment, who shall without the consent of the owner, fraudulently convert such property to his own use with intent to deprive the owner of the value of the same, shall be guilty of theft, and shall be punished as for theft of like property. [Acts 1887, p. 14.]

Art. 1430. [1349] [878] [743] Receiving stolen property.—Whoever shall receive or conceal property which has been acquired by another in such manner as that the acquisition comes within the meaning of the term theft, knowing the same to have been so acquired, shall be punished in the same manner as if he had stolen the property. [O. C. 745a, Acts 1858, p. 180, Acts 1897, p. 26.]

Art. 1431. Motor vehicle without engine number.—No person in this State shall have or retain in his possession, or sell or offer to sell any motor vehicle from which the engine number has been removed or obliterated. Every such owner of a motor vehicle from which the engine number has been removed, erased, or destroyed in any manner, before using the same upon the public highways of this State, or selling or offering for sale any such motor vehicle, shall make application to the Highway Commission for an engine number, and the number assigned by the Highway Commission shall be stamped with a steel die on the engine of such motor vehicle. Anyone violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1919, p. 253.]

Art. 1432. Record of engine number.—The State Highway Commission shall cause to be kept in the State Highway Department a separate register in which shall be recorded the engine number assigned to owners of motor vehicles, from which the original engine number has been removed, erased or destroyed in any manner, and before assigning any such number the Commission shall require the filing of an application for same, attested by oath of the applicant, that he is the owner of such motor vehicle, and such record shall disclose the name and address of the owner; the trade name and model of the motor vehicle; the year manufactured, and the engine number assigned. Anyone failing to comply with the requirements of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1433. When engine number is removed.—Whoever makes an application to the county tax collector for the registration of any motor vehicle from which the original engine number has been removed, erased, or destroyed in any manner until it bears the new engine number designated by the State Highway Department under the provisions of this law shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars; and it shall be the duty of any person who has applied to and received from the State Highway Department a new engine number as herein provided, to present the receipt received for the registration of such new engine number from the Department [Department] to the County Tax Collector when applying for the registration of such motor vehicle under the provisions of the law and failure to so present such receipt to the county tax collector shall subject the owner of said motor vehicle to a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. Any tax collector who shall knowingly accept an application for the registration of a motor vehicle from which the original engine number has been removed, erased or destroyed in any manner, and which does not have on it the number designated by the Highway Department, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1434. Second-hand motor vehicle—License fee receipt.—Whoever acting for himself or another shall offer for trade or sale any second-hand motor vehicle in this State, without then and there having in his actual physical possession the tax collector's receipt for the license fee issued for the year that said vehicle is offered for sale or trade, or a certified copy of the tax collector's receipt for the fee paid by said party offering the vehicle for sale or trade for a general distinguishing number; or whoever shall sell or trade any such vehicle in this State without transferring by indorsement of the name of the person to whom said receipt was issued by the tax collector and by physical delivery of the tax collector's receipt for license fee for the year that the said sale or trade is made, or a certified copy of the tax collector's receipt for the fee paid by said party offering the vehicle for sale or trade for a general distinguishing number; or whoever acting for himself or another who shall buy or trade for any such vehicle in this State without demanding and receiving the tax collector's receipt for the license fee issued for said motor vehicle for the year that said vehicle is bought or traded for, or a certified copy of the tax collector's receipt for the fee paid by said party offering the vehicle for sale or trade for a general distinguishing number, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not more than one year, or both. [Id.; Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 205, ch. 77, § 1.]

Art. 1435. Second-hand motor vehicle—Transfer.—It shall be unlawful for any person whether acting for himself or as an employé or agent to sell, trade, or otherwise transfer any secondhand motor vehicle without delivering to the purchaser a bill of sale in duplicate, the form of which is prescribed in this article, one copy of which shall be retained by the transferee as evidence of title, and the other copy of which shall be filed by the transferee with the county tax collector as an application for transfer of license together with the lawful transfer fee of one dollar. The following form of transfer shall be subscribed before a Notary Public:

"State of Texas:
County of _____:

Know all men by these presents that the ownership of the following described motor vehicle is hereby transferred by the undersigned to _____ for and in consideration of _____ and other valuable consideration.

Seal No. _____ State License No. _____ Name and Model and Year made _____ Engine No. _____ Horse Power (A. L. A. M.) _____ Transferee's name in full _____ Transfer[ree's correct address in full _____.

Before me the undersigned authority personally appeared the vendor of the vehicle described above, and being duly sworn, deposes and upon oath states that the vehicle described is hereby transferred to the transferee named above.

VENDER.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19--."

Anyone who shall fail to comply with any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1436. Records to be kept of motor vehicle.—Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating a repair shop or garage of every kind, within this State, where the repairing, rebuilding or repainting of automobiles is carried on, or electrical work in connection with the repair of automobiles is done and performed, and every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of the purchase and sale of second hand or used automobiles within this State, shall keep a well bound book in the office or place of business where said work is carried on, or said business conducted, in which shall be kept, in a clear and intelligent manner, a register of each repair or change in any automobile of every description so repaired or dealt in by any party mentioned in this law. Repairs of a value not exceeding one dollar are hereby excepted.

Said register shall contain a substantially complete and accurate description of each car upon which there is performed said repairs, or upon which there is installed any new parts or accessories of any character, and where the said car is bought or sold as a used car, the said register shall particularly show in each of the cases mentioned, the make of the automobile, the number of cylinders, motor number, passenger capacity, model, and also the name, apparent age and sex and any special identifying physical characteristics of the party or parties claiming to be the owner or owners of the automobile, his or their usual place of address, and the State register number of such automobile. In case of the sale of a used or second-hand car by any dealer, or the owner or proprietor of any garage, a like register shall be made as to the name and address and description of said purchaser, the character and description of said car and the state register thereof. Said registers shall be kept in a secure place and be subject at all times to the inspection of any peace officer desiring to examine the same or any party or parties interested in tracing or locating stolen automobiles.

Any owner of a motor vehicle registered in the State Highway Department, as provided by law, and of which motor vehicle the cylinder block has been so damaged as to make necessary the installation of a new cylinder block shall cause the original engine number of the motor vehicle to be stamped with a steel die on the new cylinder block, and the owner of the garage or repair shop so installing the new cylinder block and impressing the number thereon, as herein provided, shall enter a record in a substantially bound book showing the name of the owner of such vehicle, his address, the engine number, and the registration number of said vehicle. All records required to be kept by the requirements of this article shall be preserved for one year after the date recorded and shall be open to the inspection of the public at all reasonable hours. Whoever shall fail to comply with any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINE

THEFT FROM THE PERSON

Art.

1437. Punishment.

1438. Ingredients of the offense.

1439. Attempt to commit theft from the person.

Article 1437. [1350] [879] [744] Punishment.—Whoever shall commit theft by privately stealing from the person of another shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than seven years. [O. C. 762.]

Art. 1438. [1351] [880] [745] Ingredients of the offense.—To constitute the offense each following circumstance must concur:

1. The theft must be from the person; it is not sufficient that the property be merely in the presence of the person from whom it is taken.

2. The theft must be committed without the knowledge of the person from whom the property is taken, or so suddenly as not to allow time to make resistance before the property is carried away.

3. It is only necessary that the property stolen should have gone into the possession of the thief; it need not be carried away in order to complete the offense. [O. C. 763.]

Art. 1439. [1352] Attempt to commit theft from the person.—Whoever attempts to commit theft from the person as defined in the two preceding articles shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than three years. [Acts 1909, p. 70.]

CHAPTER TEN

THEFT OF ANIMALS

Art.

1440. Theft of horse, ass or mule.
 1441. Theft of cattle or hog.
 1442. Theft of sheep or goat.
 1442a. Theft of chicken or turkey.
 1443. Wilfully driving stock from range.
 1444. May drive stock in range.

Article 1440. [1353] [881] [746] Theft of horse, ass or mule.—Whoever shall steal any horse, ass or mule shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [O. C. 765, Acts 1858, p. 181; Acts 1897, p. 83.]

Art. 1441. [1354] [882] [747] Theft of cattle or hog.—Whoever shall steal any cattle or hog shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [O. C. 766, Acts 1873, p. 80; Acts 1893, p. 25.]

Art. 1442. [1355] [883] [748] Theft of sheep or goat.—Whoever shall steal any sheep or goat shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [O. C. 766, Acts 1873, p. 80; Acts 1905, p. 16.]

Art. 1442a. Theft of chicken or turkey.—Whoever shall steal any chicken or turkey, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one year nor more than two years, or by fine not to exceed two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in jail not to exceed one hundred days, or by such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1926, 39th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 22, ch. 15, § 1.]

Art. 1443. [1356-58] Wilfully driving stock from range.—If any person shall wilfully take into possession and drive, use or remove from its accustomed range, any live stock not his own, without the consent of the owner and with intent to defraud the owner thereof, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years or be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars, or both. It shall only be necessary for the State to prove the act of driving, using or removing from its accustomed range any live stock not belonging to or under the control of the accused. It shall devolve upon the accused to show any fact under which he can justify or mitigate the act. [Act Nov. 12, 1866; Acts 1866, p. 187.]

Art. 1444. [1357] [885] [750] May drive stock in range.—Nothing in the preceding article shall prevent any person from driving his own and other stock that may be mixed therewith to the nearest convenient point within the usual range of such stock for separation. [Id.]

CHAPTER ELEVEN

RELATING TO THE RECOVERY OF STOLEN ANIMALS AND THEFT THEREOF

Art.

1445. Want of bill of sale.
 1446. Driving stock to market without bill of sale.
 1447. Butchering unmarked or unbranded animals.
 1448. Preceding article not applicable.
 1449. Failing to report animals slaughtered.
 1450. Butchers to register.
 1451. Failure to make bond.
 1452. Butcher to keep record.
 1453. Purchasing slaughtered cattle without hide and ears.
 1454. Record open for inspection.
 1455. Inspector to keep record.
 1456. Counties exempt.
 1457. Auctioneer selling animal.

Article 1445. [1359] [887] [752] Want of bill of sale.—Upon the trial of any person charged with the theft of any animal of the horse, ass or cattle species, the possession of such stolen animal by the accused, without a written transfer or bill of sale containing a specific description of such animal, shall be prima facie evidence against the accused that such possession was illegal. [Acts 1866, p. 223, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1446. [1360] [888] [753] Driving stock to market without bill of sale.—Any person who may be found in any county of this State driving to market any animals such as are specified in the preceding article, and who has not in his possession a bill of sale or transfer for each and all of said animals, containing their marks and brands, or a list of such marks and brands of any of such animals as were raised by himself, both said bill of sale and list being duly certified as recorded by the clerk of the county court of the county from which said animals have been driven, shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 223.]

Art. 1447. [1361] [889] [754] Butchering unmarked or unbranded animals.—If any butcher or other person engaged in the slaughter of animals shall kill or cause to be killed any unmarked or unbranded animal for market, or shall purchase and kill or cause to be killed, any animal, without having taken a bill of sale or written transfer from the party selling the same, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 224, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1448. [1362] [890] [755] Preceding article not applicable.—The preceding article shall not apply to the slaughter of any animal raised by the person slaughtering the same. [Acts 1866, p. 224, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1449. [1363] [891] [756] Failing to report animals slaughtered.—If any person engaged in the slaughter and sale of animals for market in any county, city, town or village in this State shall fail to report to the commissioners court of the county in which he transacts such business, at each regular term thereof, the number, color, age, sex, marks and brands of every animal slaughtered by him since the last term of said court, accompanied with a bill of sale or written conveyance to him of every animal slaughtered, save such as were raised by himself, which shall be specified, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 224, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1450. [1364] Butchers to register.—Before engaging in the business of slaughter and sale of animals for market, every person so desiring must first register his name with the county clerk indicating his purpose to engage in such business. Upon failure to so first register his name, he shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. Nothing herein applies to slaughter houses in this State slaughtering as many as three hundred cattle per day. [Acts 1907, p. 239.]

Art. 1451. [1366] [893] Failure to make bond.—Whoever shall carry on the business of butcher or slaughtering of animals, without having filed with the clerk of the county court of the county in which he conducts such business the bond provided for by law, shall be fined not less than five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Sec. 2, Act April 6, 1889, Acts 1893, p. 38, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1452. [1367] [894] Butcher to keep record.—Every person who shall carry on the business of butcher or slaughtering of animals and shall fail to keep a true and faithful record, in a book kept for the purpose, of all cattle purchased and slaughtered by him, together with a description of each animal, including brand, age, color, weight and from whom purchased and the date of purchase, or shall fail to have the hide and ears of such animal or animals inspected by the inspector or some magistrate within twenty days after such animal is slaughtered, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Sec. 3, Act April 6, 1889, Acts 1893, p. 38, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1453. [1368] [895] Purchasing slaughtered cattle without hide and ears.—Any person engaged in butchering or slaughtering and who shall purchase any cattle that have been slaughtered by another without the hide and ears of such animal accompanying the same, or shall purchase any animal that has been slaughtered by another when the ear mark or brand on the hide accompanying the same, when offered for sale, has been changed, mutilated or destroyed, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Sec. 4, Act April 6, 1889, Acts 1893, p. 38, Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1454. [1369] [896] Record open for inspection.—The record provided for in article 1452 of this chapter shall be open to the inspection of all parties, and any butcher refusing to permit such inspection at any reasonable hour shall be fined not exceeding twenty-five dollars. [Sec. 5, Act April 6, 1889; Acts 1893, p. 38; Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1455. [1371] [898] Inspector to keep record.—The inspector or magistrate shall keep a record of the marks, brands, color and general description of such hides, and for whom and when inspected, and return a copy of the same to the clerk of the county court of the county in which it was inspected within thirty days after said inspection. Any inspector or magistrate failing to keep such book or to make such report as above provided for, shall be fined not less than one nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1893, p. 38; Acts 1899, p. 87.]

Art. 1456. [1372] [899] Counties exempt.—The counties exempt from the provisions of the five preceding articles shall be the counties now or hereafter exempted by the statutes of this State. [Acts 1917, p. 358.]

Art. 1457. [1373-4] Auctioneer selling animal.—Whoever sells at auction any horse, mule, or ox, without first requiring from the party for whom such sale is made a written statement signed by him of the manner in which and the name and residence of the person from whom he acquired such animal, or fails within ten days after such sale to file with the clerk of the county court such written statement, duly attested with his certificate as to its genuineness, and accompanied with a further certificate containing an accurate description of the animal sold, together with the name and residence of the seller and purchaser, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1874, p. 98; Acts 1899, p. 89.]

CHAPTER TWELVE

OTHER OFFENSES RELATING TO STOCK

Art.

- 1458. Illegal marking and branding.
- 1459. Altering or defacing mark or brand.
- 1460. Using mark or brand not on record.
- 1461. Altering mark or brand to one unrecorded.
- 1462. Killing unmarked or unbranded cattle.
- 1463. Skinning cattle.
- 1464. Having hide without owner's consent.
- 1465. Having hide with brand disfigured.
- 1466. Milking another's cow.
- 1467. Driving live stock from range.
- 1468. Preceding article qualified.
- 1469. Use of false pedigree or certificate of sale.
- 1470. Estrays.

Article 1458. [1376] [903] [759] Illegal marking and branding.—Whoever shall mark or brand any horse, mule, ass or cattle, or who shall mark any sheep, goat or hog, not his own, without the consent of the owner and with intent to defraud, shall be punished as if he had stolen such animal. [O. C. 767.]

Art. 1459. [1377] [904] [760] Altering or defacing mark or brand.—Whoever shall alter or deface the mark or brand of any horse, mule, ass or cattle, or shall alter or deface the mark of any sheep, goat or hog, not his own, without the consent of the owner and with intent to defraud, shall be punished as if he had stolen such animal. [O. C. 768, Acts 1858, p. 181.]

Art. 1460. [1378] [905] [761] Using mark or brand not on record.—Whoever shall mark or brand any unmarked or unbranded stock with a mark or brand not upon record shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 188.]

Art. 1461. [1379] [906] [762] Altering mark or brand to one unrecorded.—Whoever shall alter or change any mark or brand upon any stock of his own, or under his control, without first having such changed mark or brand recorded, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 188.]

Art. 1462. [1380-81] Killing unmarked or unbranded cattle.—Whoever knowingly kills any unmarked or unbranded animal of the cattle species, or any unmarked hog, sheep or goat, not his own, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars. It shall only be necessary to allege and prove that the animal killed was not the property of the accused, without stating or proving the true owner. [Id.]

Art. 1463. [1382] [909] [765] Skinning cattle.—Whoever removes the hide or any part thereof from any cattle not his own, without the consent of the owner, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars. Each hide so removed is a separate offense. [Acts 1887, p. 105.]

Art. 1464. [1383] [910] Having hide without owner's consent.—Whoever is found in possession of any hide of any cattle not his own, obtained without the consent of the owner or his legal representative, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1465. [1384] [911] [765b] Having hide with brand disfigured.—Whoever is found in possession of any hide of any cattle with brand cut out or disfigured, and shall offer the same for sale, shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars. The possession and offer of sale of each hide with the brand cut out or disfigured is a separate offense; nothing in this article shall prevent anyone guilty of theft of such hide from being convicted for theft. [Id.]

Art. 1466. [1385] [912] [766] Milking another's cow.—Whoever without the consent of the owner shall take up, use or milk any cow, not his own, shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars. [Acts 1866, p. 188.]

Art. 1467. [1386-8] Driving live stock from range.—Whoever shall wilfully kill, destroy, drive, or remove any live stock not his own from its accustomed range, without the consent of the owner, under such circumstances as not to constitute theft, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. In any prosecution under this article, after proof of the act of killing, destroying, driving, using or removing from the range of any stock not belonging to or under the control of the accused, it shall devolve upon the accused to show any fact under which he can justify or mitigate his act. [Id.]

Art. 1468. [1387] [914] Preceding article qualified.—The preceding article shall not be construed to prevent one from driving his own and other stock which may be mixed therewith until the same can be conveniently separated, nor to authorize anyone under any circumstances to remove any live stock not his own from their usual range. [Id.]

Art. 1469. [1389] [916] Use of false pedigree or certificate of sale.—Whoever shall wilfully furnish or give to a purchaser of any animal any false pedigree or false certificate of sale of such animal, or shall wilfully use, for the purpose of deceiving, any false pedigree or false certificate of sale of any animal, whether such false pedigree or false certificate was furnished, given or procured in this State or elsewhere, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months, or both. [Acts 1891, p. 84.]

Art. 1470. [1390-91] Estrays.—Whoever shall unlawfully remove, sell, or in any other manner dispose of any animal which has been taken up by him as an estray, or, without complying with the law regulating estrays, shall take up and use or otherwise dispose of any animal coming within the meaning of estray, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars. If such taking or disposition be effected so as to be theft, the offender shall be punished for that offense. [Acts 1858, p. 184.]

[Act April 4, 1889, Acts 1889, p. 36.]

Art. 1473. [1399] [921] [772b] Inspector failing to keep record.—Any inspector of hides and animals who shall fail to provide and keep a well bound book and record therein a correct statement, showing the number, ages, and marks and brands of each animal inspected by him or by his deputy, and the number and all the marks and brands of all hides inspected by him or by his deputy, and whether the hides are dry or green, and the names of the vendors and purchasers of said animals or hides, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1474. [1400] [922] [772c] Certificate by inspector.—Any inspector or deputy inspector of hides and animals who shall fail to correctly state in his certificate of inspection or in his certificate of acknowledgment all the marks and brands of all animals and hides inspected by him shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than three hundred dollars. [Acts 1889, p. 36.]

Art. 1475. [1401] [923] [772d] Return of certified copies, etc.—Any inspector of hides and animals who shall fail to return a certified copy of all entries made in his record during each month to the county clerk of his county on the last day of each month shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than three hundred dollars. [Acts 1889, p. 36.]

Art. 1476. [1402] [924] [773] Unlawful counterbranding.—Whoever counterbrands any cattle without the consent of the owner or his agent shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each animal so counterbranded. [Sec. 32, Act Aug. 23, 1876, Acts 1876, p. 302.]

Art. 1477. [1403] [925] [774] Driving cattle into Mexico.—Whoever drives any cattle across the Rio Grande into Mexico, at any other point than where a United States custom house is established, or where there is a place of inspection by United States custom house officers, or without first having the same inspected in accordance with law, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Sec. 35, Id.]

Art. 1478. [1404] [926] [775] Shipping imported hides.—Whoever ships from any port in this State any hides of cattle imported from Mexico without first having procured a certificate of importation and inspection in accordance with law shall be fined not less than one nor more than five dollars for each hide so shipped. [Sec. 35, Id.]

Art. 1479. [1405] [927] [776] Selling hides without inspection.—Whoever sells any hides of cattle without the same having been inspected shall be punished as prescribed in the preceding article. [Sec. 36, Id.]

Art. 1480. [1406] [928] [777] Driving cattle without road-branding.—Whoever drives any cattle out of any county with the intention of driving the same beyond the limits of the State to a market, without first having road-branded the same in accordance with law shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars for each animal so driven. [Sec. 37, Id.]

Art. 1481. [1407] [929] [778] Driving stock out of county without owner's consent.—Whoever drives any cattle or horses out of any county, without the written authority of the owner thereof, duly authenticated as the law requires, and without first having the same duly inspected, shall be punished as prescribed in the preceding article. [Sec. 39, Id.]

Art. 1482. [1408] [930] [779] Purchasing animal without bill of sale.—Whoever purchases any animal or hides of cattle without obtaining a bill of sale from the owner or his agent shall be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars for each animal or hide so purchased. [Sec. 39, Id.]

Art. 1483. [1409] [931] [780] Agent selling without power of attorney.—Whoever shall as the agent of another sell any cattle without first having obtained a power of attorney from the owner duly authenticated shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Sec. 40, Id.]

Art. 1484. [1410] [932] [781] More than one brand or mark.—Whoever in originally branding or marking cattle uses more than one mark or brand shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each animal so branded or marked. [Sec. 41, Id.]

Art. 1485. [1411] [933] [782] Branding or marking outside a pen.—Whoever shall brand or mark any animal, except in a pen, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars for each animal so branded or marked. [Sec. 42, Id.]

Art. 1486. [1412] [934] [783] Clerk improperly recording brand.—Any county clerk who shall record any brand when the person having the same recorded fails to designate the part of the animal upon which the same is to be placed shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars. [Sec. 43, Id.]

Art. 1487. [1413] [935] [784] Receiving uninspected animals for shipment.—If any agent of any railroad, steamship, sailing vessel, or shipping company of any kind, shall receive for shipment any horses or cattle, unless such horses or cattle have been duly inspected according to law, he shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one thousand dollars for each such animal. [Acts 1883, p. 71.]

Art. 1488. [1414] [936] [785] Counties exempted.—The counties exempted from the laws regulating the inspection of hides and animals are those as are or may be exempted by statute. [Acts 1921, p. 43.]

FEEDING STUFF

Art. 1489. [730] Tag and certificate.—Every lot or parcel of feeding stuff, used for feeding farm live stock, sold, offered or exposed for sale in this State, for use within the State, shall have attached a tag described in article 1492, carrying a plainly printed statement clearly and truly certifying the number of net pounds of feeding stuff in the package, stating the name or names of material of which such weight is composed where the contents are of a mixed nature, the name, brand or trade mark under which the article is sold, the name and address of the manufacturer or importer, the place of manufacture, such information as is required by article 1497, if any, and a chemical analysis stating the minimum percentages it contains of crude protein, allowing one per cent of nitrogen to equal six and one-quarter per cent of protein, of crude fat, of nitrogen-free extract, and the maximum percentage it contains of crude fiber; these constituents to be determined by the methods adopted at the time by the Association of Official Agricultural [Agricultural] Chemists of North America. [Acts 1905, p. 207.]

Art. 1490. [731] [732] "Feeding stuff."—The term "feeding stuff," as used in this chapter, is defined to mean and include wheat bran, wheat shorts, linseed meal, cotton seed meals, pea meals, coconut meals, gluten meals, gluten feeds, maize feeds, starch feed, sugar feeds, dried brewer's grains, malt sprouts, hominy feeds, cerealine feeds, rice meals, rice bran, rice polish, oat feeds, corn and oat chops, corn chops, ground beef or mixed fish feeds, and all other materials of similar nature, but shall not include hay or straw, the whole seed or grains of wheat, rye, barley, oats, Indian corn, rice, buckwheat or broom-corn, or any other whole or unground grains or seed. [Acts 1905, p. 208.]

Art. 1491. [733] To file statement and deposit samples.—Before any feeding stuff is so offered or exposed for sale, the importer, manufacturer or party who causes it to be sold, or offered for sale within this State for use within the State, shall, for each feeding stuff bearing a distinguishing name and trade mark, file with the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station a certified copy of the statement named in article 1489, and shall also deposit with said director a sealed glass jar or bottle containing not less than one pound of the feeding stuff to be sold or offered for sale, accompanied by an affidavit that it is a fair average sample thereof, and corresponds within reasonable limits to the feeding stuff which it represents in the percentage of protein, fat and crude fiber, and nitrogen-free extract which it contains. This does not apply to farmers who grind their own feeding stuff, and who do not adulterate same. [Acts 1907, p. 243.]

Art. 1492. [734] To pay inspection tax and affix tag.—The manufacturer, importer, agent or seller of each feeding stuff, shall before the article is offered for sale, pay to the director of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, an inspection tax of ten cents for each ton of such feeding stuff sold or offered for sale in this State, for use within the State, and shall affix to each lot shipped in bulk, and to each bag, barrel, or other package of such feeding stuff a tag to be furnished by said director, stating that all charges specified in this article have been paid. The director of said Experiment Station is hereby empowered to prescribe the form of such tags, and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this law. Whenever the manufacturer or importer or shipper of a feeding stuff shall have filed a statement made as provided for in article 1489, and paid the inspection tax, no agent or seller of said manufacturer, importer, or shipper shall be required to file such statement or pay such tax. [Id.]

Art. 1493. [735] Failure to affix tag or label.—Any manufacturer, importer, or agent, selling, offering or exposing for sale, any feeding stuff, without the statement required by article 1489, and the tag tag required by the preceding article, or with a label stating that said feeding stuff contains a larger percentage of protein, fat or nitrogen-free extract, or a smaller percentage of crude fiber, than is contained therein, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

Art. 1494. [736] Counterfeiting tag.—Whoever shall counterfeit or knowingly use a counterfeit of the tag or tags mentioned in the two preceding articles, or shall use them a second time after the said tags shall have been once attached, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, one-half of which shall be paid to the informer. [Acts 1905, p. 207.]

Art. 1495. [739] "Importer."—The term "importer" means all persons as shall bring into or offer for sale within this State feeding stuff manufactured without this State. [Id.]

Art. 1496. [740] "Adulterated."—A feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if it contains any sawdust, dirt, damaged feed, or any foreign matter whatever, or if it is in any respect not what it is represented to be, or if any rice hulls or chaff, peanut shells, corn cobs, oat hulls, or other similar substances of little or no feeding value are admixed therewith. [Acts 1907, p. 243.]

Art. 1497. [740] Wholesome mixture.—No wholesome mixture of feeding stuff shall be deemed to be adulterated if the true percentage of constituents thereof is plainly and clearly stated on the package and made known to the buyer at the time of the sale. [Id.]

Art. 1498. [740] Manufacture or sale of adulterated feeding stuff.—Every person who shall directly or for another or for any corporation, association of persons, or for a firm, or through or by any agent, manufacture, sell or offer for sale any adulterated feeding stuff within this State shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than sixty days, or both. [Id.]

LIVE STOCK COMMISSION MERCHANT

Art. 1499. Live stock commission merchant.—Any person, firm or corporation who pursues the business of selling live stock, cattle, cows, calves, bulls, steers, hogs, sheep, goats, mules, horses, jacks and jennets, or any of them, upon consignment for a commission or other charges, or who solicits consignment of live stock as a commission merchant or agent, or who advertises or holds himself out to be such shall be held to be a live stock commission merchant within the meaning of this chapter. [Acts 1921, p. 175.]

Art. 1500. Failure to give bond.—Whoever advertises or solicits business as a live stock commission merchant or in any way pursues the occupation of a live stock commission merchant without first having made the bond required by the laws of this State, or fails to keep and maintain said bond in full force and effect as required by such laws, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than two years, or be fined not less than five hundred nor more than five thousand dollars or be both so fined and imprisoned. [Id.]

Art. 1501. Failure to remit promptly.—Any person engaged in the business of a live stock commission merchant, as defined by this chapter, who shall intentionally fail and refuse, within forty-eight hours after the sale of any live stock consigned to him to remit the net proceeds thereof to the person rightfully entitled to receive the same, or to such person, firm or corporation as said party rightfully entitled there-to shall direct, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not less than one nor more than twelve months, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1502. Appropriating proceeds.—Any person engaged in the business of live stock commission merchant who shall appropriate or use for any purpose other than remitting to such person, firm or corporation entitled to receive the same, any portion of the net proceeds of live stock so sold by such live stock commission merchant, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than four years. [Id.]

Art. 1503. To post copy of bond.—Any live stock commission merchant who shall fail at any time to keep conspicuously posted in the main office of his principal place of business a certified copy of the bond furnished to him by the county clerk under the law shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. Each day said copy shall not be so posted is a separate offense. [Id.]

Article 1504. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg. p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1504a. To burn or bury animal dead of disease.—It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation of this State to burn to ashes or bury at a depth of not less than two and one-half feet and to cover with quick lime the carcass or carcasses of any domestic animal or animals dying from any infectious, contagious or communicable disease of any malignant character that may be found upon their premises within twenty-four hours after the death of such animal or animals. Any person who is the owner or caretaker of any premises who shall fail or refuse to burn to ashes or bury to the depth herein prescribed and cover with quick lime the carcass or carcasses of any domestic [domestic] animal or animals dying from infectious, contagious or communicable disease of a malignant character found on such premises within twenty-four hours after the death of such animal or animals, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in a sum not less than ten dollars or more than one hundred dollars, and each day said owner or caretaker of said premises shall fail or refuse to burn said animal or animals, as aforesaid, shall be deemed a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 313, § 8.]

Art. 1505. Live Stock Sanitary Commission.—The word "Commission" as used in this chapter shall mean The Live Stock Sanitary Commission of the State of Texas.

Art. 1506. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1506a. Drifting, etc.—Any person, firm or corporation who is the owner or caretaker of any cattle located in any territory which is quarantined because of tick infestation, who shall drive, ship, drift or permit his cattle to go into any county, part of any county, or district, or premises, or land of another, which has been freed of ticks, or in which systematic tick eradication is being carried on, without a written permit of an inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas, or of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry, showing said cattle to be free of ticks, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one dollar nor more than five dollars per head for all livestock so shipped, driven, drifted, or permitted to go into unquarantined territory, or in territory in which systematic tick eradication is being carried on. Provided, that any person or persons violating the provisions of this section of this Act may be prosecuted in the county from which such cattle were so illegally moved, and in each county into or through which they may have been taken. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 314, § 10.]

Art. 1507. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1507a. Failure to dip stock.—In every county or part of county in this State where systematic tick eradication work is being conducted under the provisions of this Act, every person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for any cattle which have the fever-carrying tick (Margaropice Annulatus) upon them or upon any one of them, or that are exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or that are on any premises or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist, or that have sometime within nine months next preceding the issuance of the written direction to dip, hereinafter provided, been exposed to the said fever-carrying tick or been on said premises or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist, who shall fail or refuse to dip said cattle at such time and in such manner as directed in writing by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, as provided for in this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and each day of such failure or refusal shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 315, § 13.]

Art. 1507b. Owner to gather and drive.—In all counties and parts of counties in this State in which tick eradication work is being prosecuted under the provisions of this Act, or by virtue of any local option election, it shall be the duty of the owner, owners or caretakers of such cattle or other live stock within such territory, to gather same, at his or their own expense, and drive, or cause them to be driven, to the dipping vat, and to dip same for the purpose of eradicating said fever ticks. Upon the failure or refusal of any such owner, owners or caretakers of such animals so to do when directed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, he or they shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined in any sum not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars, and each and every day that he or they shall refuse or fail to dip said cattle after said notice shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 322, § 27.]

Art. 1508. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1508a. Direction to dip stock.—The Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, is hereby authorized and empowered to direct in writing any person or persons, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for any cattle which are subject to be dipped under the provisions of this Act in the prosecution of the systematic tick eradication work, to dip said cattle under the supervision of an authorized inspector of such Commission in an arsenical solution of a strength not less than seven and one-half pounds, and not more than eight and one-half pounds, of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the said solution for the purpose of destroying, eradicating and removing said fever-carrying tick or exposure, subject to the provisions of this Act. Said dippings shall be administered at regular intervals, but the Live Stock Sanitary Commission shall not require the dipping of cattle at more frequent intervals than every fourteen days. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 316, § 14.]

Art. 1509. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1509a. Particulars of direction.—The written direction issued by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or its chairman, requiring the dipping of cattle, as provided for in this Act, shall be dated, showing the date of its issuance, the name of the person, company or corporations to whom the said directions are given, the approximate location of the premises on which the said livestock are located; the name of the county in which said premises are located, and it shall state in clear and intelligible language that the said cattle, which the said person is therein directed to dip, have the fever-carrying tick upon them, or that they are exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or are on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist, or that they have sometime during the nine months next preceding the date of the issuance of said written direction hereinbefore provided been exposed to the said fever-carrying tick, or been on a premise or other place on which the fever-carrying tick is known to exist; and it shall direct the said person, company or corporation to dip the said livestock under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, in an arsenical solution of a strength of not less than seven and one-half pounds, nor more than eight and one-half pounds of arsenic to each five hundred gallons of water in the dipping solution in which the said livestock are to be dipped, and it shall designate the place, date and time that said dipping is to be done and it shall be signed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its chairman. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 316, § 15.]

Art. 1510. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1510a. Time of notice.—The said dipping direction, provided for in this Act, shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for said cattle required to be dipped at least fourteen full days before the date and time said dipping is to be administered. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 317, § 16.]

Art. 1511. [Repealed by Acts 1925, 39th Leg., p. 307, ch. 122, § 1.]

Art. 1511a. Removing stock from quarantine.—Any owner, caretaker or person in charge of any cattle infested with or exposed to the fever-carrying tick, who shall ship, drive or permit such stock to be moved or strayed to any county, part of county, or on the premises or land of another, whether in the county from which said driving, shipping or drifting or straying commence, or into some other county that has been freed of said fever-carrying tick, or released from quarantine, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not less than one dollar per head nor more than five dollars per head for all such live stock so shipped, driven, drifted, strayed or permitted to go into such clean territory; and prosecutions under this section of this Act may be instituted and carried on in the county where the movement originated and in each county into or through which they may have been so moved. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 319, § 21.]

Art. 1511b. Shipping for immediate slaughter.—The owner, caretaker or person in charge of any cattle located in any quarantine county, district, area, premises or land, may move said cattle to shipping pens, and may ship same to market for the purpose of immediate slaughter upon one dipping, provided that in the driving or otherwise moving said cattle to the shipping pens, they shall not be moved or transported over or into any land or premises belonging to another that has been declared clean of the fever tick by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or over or into and [any] land or premises upon which systematic tick eradication is being carried on by Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry.

If any owner, caretaker or other person in charge of any cattle intended to be shipped to market for immediate slaughter shall fail to dip their cattle or after dipping said cattle shall drive them to any shipping point through or into any area, premises or land of another declared clean by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or into any premises or land of another upon which systematic tick eradication is being carried on by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or who has failed to secure a certificate from a duly authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry showing that the above mentioned conditions have been complied with, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $200.00; and if the provisions of this section of this Act are violated by driving said cattle from one county into or through another county, the prosecution may be instituted and maintained in the county where said movement of cattle originated and in any other county into or through which said cattle may have been so taken, moved or driven, transported or shipped. Provided, that cattle shipped for the purpose of immediate slaughter under the provisions of this section shall be shipped within seventy-two (72) hours from the time they were dipped. The solution in which said cattle are dipped shall not be less than eight and one-fourth nor more than nine and one-eighth pounds of arsenic to each 500 gallons of water. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 319, § 23.]

Art. 1511c. Other shipping regulations.—Any owner or person in charge of any cattle located in quarantined counties in this State may move or ship said cattle to any other quarantined county in this State upon one dipping under official inspection of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or the Bureau of Animal Industry and so certified as having been inspected by said Live Stock Sanitary Commission or said Bureau of Animal Industry, provided the county to which said cattle are shipped is not engaged in systematic tick eradication, and provided further that in moving said cattle to the shipping pens in the county from which they are shipped and in moving said cattle from the shipping pens in the county to which they are shipped they do not go into, through or over any clean land or premises, and provided further that said cattle shall not be unloaded en route in clean pens and shall not be unloaded at the point of destination in any clean pens; provided, that said cattle shall be shipped within forty-eight hours from the time they are dipped. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than one dollar per head and not exceeding five dollars per head for said cattle so unlawfully shipped or driven, and provided further that prosecutions under this section may be maintained in the county in which said shipment originated and in each county into or through which said cattle may have been driven or shipped. Said cattle shall be dipped in a solution of not less than 8- $\frac{1}{4}$ pounds and not more than 9- $\frac{1}{8}$ pounds of arsenic to each 500 gallons of water; provided that cattle may be driven from one quarantined county to another quarantined county, and when so driven pass through quarantined territory in which no systematic tick eradication is being carried on, and do not pass through or along side of any clean territory, said cattle may be driven without dipping. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 320, § 23a.]

Art. 1512. Failure to dip for scabies.—Any person owning, controlling or caring for any cattle which are infected with cattle scabies, or sheep which are infected with sheep scabies, or that are exposed to said cattle scabies or sheep scabies, or that are on premises or other places on which cattle or sheep scabies are known to exist, or that have at some time within three months next preceding the issuance of the written direction to dip as provided by law, been exposed to the said cattle or sheep scabies, or been on premises or other place on which the cattle or sheep scabies is known to exist, who shall fail or refuse to dip any of said cattle or sheep at such time and in such manner as directed in writing by the Commission, or its chairman, as provided for by law, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars and each day of such failure or refusal shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1923, p. 303.]

Art. 1513. Disinfecting shearing plant and apparel.—Any person owning, controlling or having charge of any itinerant shearing plant or crew, or any person shearing sheep, or handling or packing the wool therefrom, which are infected with scabies, or located upon premises under quarantine for sheep scabies, who fails or refuses to disinfect the said shearing plant or any portion thereof, or his wearing apparel as required by law, shall be fined in any sum not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 306.]

Art. 1514. Disinfecting premises quarantined.—When any premises are placed under quarantine for sheep scabies infection it shall be the duty of the owner, lessee or person in charge of such premises to cleanse and disinfect all corrals, water lots, pens, sheds, or other places where sheep are closely confined in the following manner: All manure and litter shall first be removed and burned or buried, then the surface of such corrals, water lots, pens, sheds or other places where sheep are closely confined, with which sheep confined therein may come in contact shall be sprayed with a solution made of 6 oz. of 95 per cent. carbolic acid to each gallon of water or a solution containing 4 oz. of cresol compound U. S. P. to each gallon of water, under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Commission before any sheep which are not infected with scabies, or which have been dipped therefor, shall be permitted in such corrals, water lots, pens, sheds or other places where sheep are closely confined. Whoever violates the provisions of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1515. [1267] Moving stock with scabies.—No person, company or corporation shall drive, drift, haul by common carrier or private conveyance, or in any other manner transport along or across any public road or railroad, or on or across the lands or premises of another, any cattle or sheep which are infected with cattle or sheep scabies. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1923, p. 307.]

Art. 1516. Importing sheep.—Importations of sheep into this State by rail or any other mode of movement shall not be made except under the following requirements:

1. The importer must apply to and receive from the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of this State permission to import such sheep into this State.
2. Such importation shall be accompanied by a certificate of a regularly employed and duly authorized sheep scab inspector of the state of origin, or a duly appointed and acting sheep scab inspector of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry certifying that said sheep are free from scabies or exposure thereto, or that said sheep have been dipped in a dipping fluid recognized by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry for the eradication of sheep scabies within ten days next preceding the date of such importation; provided, however, that sheep dipped for infection at point of origin shall be held under quarantine at the point of destination for a period of ninety days. By "point of destination" as used herein is meant the range upon which said sheep are placed in this State.

All importations of sheep by rail shall be billed to a recognized sheep dipping center where the Commission maintains an inspector to supervise the dipping of sheep, except sheep imported for show purposes only, or for immediate slaughter, and upon arrival thereat shall be dipped in accordance with the provisions of law unless the same are accompanied by a certificate of dipping at place of origin as provided in paragraph "2" of these requirements. Whoever imports any sheep into this State in violation of this article shall be fined not less than one nor more than two dollars for each head of sheep so unlawfully imported, and the venue shall be in any county through, or into which such importation is carried. [Acts 1923, p. 307.]

Art. 1517a. Failure to maintain dip.—Any person, owning, controlling or in charge of any domestic animal or animals which shall be required to be dipped under any of the provisions of this Act, who shall wilfully fail or refuse to maintain said dip at the strength officially specified, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 321, § 24.]

Art. 1518. Failing to report charbon or anthrax.—Each person residing in a district where charbon or anthrax is prevalent or where the same is supposed to be prevalent shall report in writing to the county health officer, who in turn shall report in writing to the president of the State Board of Health all cases where an animal or animals are suffering with charbon or anthrax or supposed to have such disease, and each physician practicing in the State of Texas shall report in writing to the president of the State Board of Health all persons suffering from charbon or anthrax or supposed to be suffering from same and in case of failure to do so any person so failing shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars. Each case of which no report is made shall constitute a separate offense. [Sec. 10b, Act March 31, 1913, Acts 1913, p. 147.]

Art. 1519. Failing to destroy carcass.—Carcasses of stock which have died from charbon or anthrax shall be destroyed by burning by the owner or person in charge within twenty-four hours after death and any owner or person having charge of said animals who should fail to destroy said carcasses as herein provided shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars and each twenty-four hours after the first twenty-four hours that said carcass is permitted to remain undestroyed shall be a separate offense. [Sec. 10e, Id.]

Art. 1520. Disobeying charbon quarantine.—The county health officer shall be the exclusive judge of the necessity of isolation or quarantine of all animals infected with charbon or anthrax and when in the judgment of said county health officer there exists a necessity therefor said county health officer shall issue a proclamation directing that all animals of certain classes which he may specify in the infected district, in either the entire county or any political subdivision thereof, shall be placed and kept in an enclosure by the owners or keeper thereof, and any owner or keeper of such animals for the owners who shall fail or refuse to obey the requirements of such proclamation shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars and where any owner or keeper for the owner shall have more than ten animals subject to the quarantine regulations herein provided the fine shall be doubled and each day that any owner or keeper for such owner shall fail to comply with the proclamation of said county health officer shall constitute a separate offense and such quarantine shall continue and be in effect as long as in the judgment of such county health officer it may be necessary to prevent the spread of charbon or anthrax. [Sec. 10f, Id.]

Art. 1521. Permitting animals to run at large.—From and after the issuance and posting according to law of the proclamation declaring the result of the election held in a charbon district to be against the running at large of domestic animals therein it shall be unlawful for any owner or keeper of cattle, horses, sheep, goats and hogs, or any of them, to permit such animals as have been voted upon to run at large within such county or subdivision thereof at any time within which the same has been prohibited; and in case of failure or refusal of any owner or keeper of such stock or any of them to comply with such proclamation he shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars. Each day that any owner or keeper for such owner shall fail to comply with the law as herein provided for, shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1913, p. 150.]

Art. 1522. [1282] [824b] Refusing examination by commissioner.—Any person who owns or is in possession of live stock which is reported to be affected with any infectious or contagious disease, who shall refuse to allow the State live stock sanitary commissioners to examine such stock, or shall hinder or obstruct the said commissioners in any examination of or in any attempt to examine such stock shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1893, p. 72.]

Art. 1522a. Refusing inspection.—Any owner, caretaker, or person in charge of any cattle, horses, mules or asses, who shall refuse to permit any duly authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to enter upon his land and premises for the purpose of making an inspection of such live stock to determine whether they are infested with said fever-carrying tick, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 122, p. 318, § 20.]

Art. 1523. [1260] [809] [692] Failing to confine animal with glanders.—Whoever wilfully fails or refuses to place in secure confinement apart from all other stock any animal of the horse or ass species belonging to him or subject to his control diseased with glanders or farcy shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars or imprisoned in jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days. [Acts 1876, p. 211.]

Art. 1524. [1261] Sale or trade of animal with glanders.—Whoever shall trade or sell or offer to trade or sell any animal of the horse or ass species known or suspected to be affected with glanders shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned in jail not less than ten nor more than ninety days. [Acts 1897, p. 216.]

Art. 1525. [1264] [811] Using or permitting animal with glanders to run at large.—Any person who may drive, lead or ride any animal infected with said diseases of glanders or farcy, knowing them to be so infected, on, along or across any public highway, or allow any such animal so diseased to run at large on the open range of any county shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1892, p. 11.]

Art. 1525a. Regulations as to scabies, quarantine, dipping, and penalties.—Sec. 1. Any person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for any sheep which are infected with sheep scabies, or cattle which are infected with cattle scabies, or that have been exposed to the said sheep or cattle scabies infection within six months next preceding the issuance of the written direction to dip hereinafter provided, who shall fail or refuse to dip any of said sheep or cattle at such time and in such manner as directed in writing by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman as provided for in this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $5.00 nor more than $200.00, and each day of such failure or refusal shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 2. The Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman is hereby authorized and empowered to direct in writing any person or persons, company or corporation owning, controlling, or caring for any sheep or cattle which are subject to being dipped under the provisions of this Act, to dip any or all of said sheep or cattle under the supervision of an authorized inspector of such Commission in the dip or dipping solutions hereinafter provided for the dipping of sheep and cattle respectively for the purpose of destroying, eradicating, curing, and removing such scabies or exposure thereto. Said dipping or dippings shall, when administered for psoroptic scabies infection or exposure among sheep or cattle, be at regular intervals of from ten to fourteen days, but when said dipping or dippings shall be administered for sarcoptic scabies infection or exposure among cattle the same shall not be required at more frequent intervals than every six days.

Sec. 3. All dippings of sheep for scabies infection or exposure under the provisions of this Act shall be done in a solution of lime and sulphur made in the following proportions: Eight pounds of unslaked lime or eleven pounds of commercial hydrated lime (not air slaked lime) and twenty-four pounds of Flowers of Sulphur to each one hundred gallons of water, said solution to be boiled for a period of at least two hours before using, which shall at all times be maintained at a strength of not less than one and one-half per cent sulphide sulphur or in such other dip or dipping solutions as may be approved by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of this State and designated by it in the written instructions and notice to dip served upon such person or persons, company or corporation owning, controlling, or caring for said sheep. The dipping solution shall at all times be maintained at a temperature of not less than 95 nor more than 105 degrees Fahrenheit. No dipping solution shall be used which has been mixed and in the vat more than ten days.

Sec. 4. All dipping or dippings of cattle for psoroptic scabies infection or exposure thereto shall be done in the same solution or dip as above provided for dipping sheep except that the solution or dip shall be maintained at a strength of not less than 2 per cent sulphide sulphur and the same shall be at all times maintained at a temperature of not less than 95 nor more than 105 degrees Fahrenheit.

Sec. 5. All dipping or dippings of cattle for sarcoptic scabies infection or exposure thereto shall be done in the same solution or dip as herein provided for dipping cattle infected with or exposed to psoroptic scabies infection, except the dippings shall not be required at more frequent intervals than six days, and further provided that one dipping in crude oil shall be considered effective and sufficient for eradication of sarcoptic scabies infection among cattle.

Sec. 6. All dippings, inspections, and certifications for scabies among sheep and cattle, and all disinfection of cars, sheds, boats, chutes, alleys, platforms, pens, and yards required by the provisions of this law shall be done under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas.

(a) All sheep infected with scabies and all sheep in a herd where scabies infection is present shall be classed as scabies infected sheep.

(b) All cattle infected with scabies and all cattle in a herd where scabies infection is present shall be classed as scabies infected cattle.

(c) All sheep and cattle that enter or have access to any corrals, sheds, cars, roads, pastures, premises, or other places that scabies infected sheep or cattle, as the case may be, have entered or had access to at any time within the next preceding ninety days shall be classed as exposed to scabies infection, and all sheep shorn by a shearing plant that has shorn infected sheep within the next preceding ninety days shall be classed as scabies exposed sheep, provided the above named places or premises have not been disinfected since the infected sheep have moved or been removed therefrom, provided that cattle and sheep shall be subject to dipping as provided for in Section 1 of this Act at any time within the period of time prescribed in said Section 1, and in accordance with the provisions of said Section 1.

Sec. 7. No sheep or cattle that are under quarantine for scabies infection or exposure by written order of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman, or that are on any premises within this State which are quarantined by said Commission for scabies infection or exposure thereto shall be moved or allowed to move therefrom unless and until certified to by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this Section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00.

Sec. 8. When the fact has been determined by inspection or investigation that sheep or cattle scabies infection exists in any County within this State, then the County Commissioners' Court of such County shall appropriate a sufficient sum of money to employ County inspectors to cooperate with and under the direction of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of Texas in scabies eradication.

(a) If for any reason the County Commissioners' Court does not cooperate by appropriating the said money to pay said inspector or inspectors, then it shall be the duty of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to place the County under blanket quarantine, and no sheep or cattle shall be moved therefrom until and unless certified to by an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission.

Sec. 9. All goats ranging with infected sheep shall be dipped at least once in the same solution and in the same manner as infected sheep except they shall not be held in the dipping vat for a longer period than is necessary to thoroughly wet them.

Sec. 10. The written direction issued by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman requiring the dipping of sheep or cattle for sheep or cattle scabies under the provisions of this Act shall be dated showing the date of its issuance, the name of the person or persons, company or corporation to whom the said directions are given, the approximate location of the premises on which the said live stock are located, the name of the County in which said premises are located, and it shall state in clear and intelligible language that the said sheep or cattle which the said person or persons, company or corporation is therein directed to dip, are infected with scabies or that they are exposed thereto, and it shall direct said person or persons, company or corporation to dip the said livestock under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission in the dipping solutions provided in this Act, or such other dipping solutions as the Live Stock Sanitary Commission may approve for such purpose, designating the same, and it shall designate the date, place and time that the said dipping is to be done, and it shall be signed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman.

Sec. 11. The said dipping direction shall be delivered to the person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for said sheep or cattle required to be dipped at least fourteen full days before the date and time said dipping is to be administered. The person, company or corporation owning, controlling or caring for said sheep or cattle required to be dipped under the provisions of this Act may file with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman at any time within five days after receiving said dipping directions to dip, a written affidavit denying the said sheep or cattle are subject to being dipped under the provisions of Law or that for good and sufficient reason set out in said affidavit the said person, company or corporation is entitled to have said dipping direction rescinded or to have said dipping postponed, and requesting that the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman withhold enforcement of said dipping direction and grant a hearing on said matter or make necessary investigation to determine the correctness of the statement contained in such affidavit. Upon receipt of said affidavit the Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman shall within five days thereafter grant said affiant a hearing in the office of the Chairman of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, if the affiant so desires, and give such affiant notice of such hearing by telegram or registered mail, which hearing shall be had not less than four days after the giving of such notice and that said Live Stock Sanitary Commission or its Chairman shall consider such ex-parte affidavits as such person, company or corporation may file with said Commission in said hearing and said Commission or its Chairman shall make such investigation in person or through its authorized representative in reference to said affidavit as the Commission or its Chairman deem necessary, and if the statements in said affidavit are found to be correct the said dipping direction shall be rescinded by the said Commission or its Chairman, or said dipping postponed to such time as said Commission or its Chairman may consider proper. Otherwise, the said dipping direction shall be enforced on the date and at the time specified in said written direction. The said Commission or its Chairman, after having granted said hearing or said investigation, shall notify said person, company or corporation in writing of its or his findings, which notice shall be delivered to the said person, company, or corporation at least four full days before the day and time he or they are required to dip said sheep or cattle by virtue of said written direction. If the said person, company or corporation shall be dissatisfied with the findings of said Commission or its Chairman, he or they may apply to a court of proper venue and jurisdiction for injunction or other relief.

Sec. 12. The ascertaining of the presence of scabies infection on any premises, place, sheep, or cattle or the ascertaining of exposure of premises, places, sheep or cattle to scabies infection shall be done by an authorized representative or inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and for such purpose said representatives and inspectors are hereby authorized to enter upon any private or public premises of this State where sheep or cattle are kept or ranged, and it shall be the duty of the person or persons, company or corporation owning or controlling such premises or range or the sheep or cattle thereon, when requested by such representative or inspector or member of said Commission, to gather the sheep or cattle on said range for inspection, and a failure or refusal to do so shall be prima facie evidence that the said premises and the sheep or cattle thereon are infected with scabies, and authorize the quarantining of such premises and the sheep and cattle thereon under the provisions of Law, authorizing such quarantine by order of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission. Any person who shall refuse to gather any sheep or cattle of which he is the owner or caretaker from the range when requested by an inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission for the purpose of inspection shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00, and on each day on which said refusal is made shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 13. When sheep infected with scabies are located upon premises which are under quarantine for sheep scabies under the Laws of this State are shorn by an itinerant shearing plant or shearing crew it shall be unlawful for the person, company or corporation owning, controlling or having charge of such shearing plant or crew or the laborers engaged in the shearing of said sheep or packing the wool shorn therefrom to move from the premises where said sheep are shorn until the said shearing plant and wearing apparel of said shearers in use during said shearing shall have been disinfected as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 14. All utensils, machinery, floors, ground coverings, or other portions of said shearing plant which come in contact with the body of said sheep shall be thoroughly cleaned with pure gasoline. The wearing apparel of the laborers engaged in shearing said sheep and handling and packing the wool shorn from said sheep shall be disinfected by being submerged in boiling water for a period of five minutes.

Sec. 15. Any person, company or corporation owning, controlling or having charge of any itinerant shearing plant or crew or person shearing sheep or handling or packing the wool therefrom which are infected with scabies or located upon premises under quarantine for sheep scabies who fails or refuses to disinfect the said shearing plant or any portion thereof or the wearing apparel as herein required shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than one nor more than one hundred dollars.

Sec. 16. When any premises are placed under quarantine for sheep scabies infection it shall be the duty of the owner, lessee, or person in charge of such premises to cleanse and disinfect all corrals, water lots, pens, sheds, or other places where sheep have been closely confined in the following manner:

Sec. 17. All manure and litter shall first be removed or burned or buried, then the surface of such corrals, water lots, pens, sheds, or other places where sheep have been closely confined shall be sprayed with a solution made of six ounces of 95 per cent carbolic acid to each gallon of water, or a solution containing four ounces of cresol compound U. S. P. to each gallon of water under the supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission before any sheep which are not infected with scabies or exposed thereto shall be permitted to enter such corrals, water lots, pens, sheds, or other places where infected sheep have been closely confined. Any person, company or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars.

Sec. 18. When any person, company or corporation owning, or having charge of any sheep or cattle required to be dipped under the provisions of this Act for infection or exposure to sheep or cattle scabies shall for any reason fail or refuse to dip said sheep or cattle it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners' Court of said County under the direction and supervision of an authorized inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to have said sheep or cattle dipped in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and to pay the expense of such dipping by warrant drawn upon the general funds of the said County. It shall be the duty of the County Commissioners' Court of any and all Counties within the State of Texas to cooperate with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission in eradication and control of cattle and sheep scabies within their respective Counties whenever the said disease exists in said Counties or whenever the Live Stock Sanitary Commission has reason to believe that the infection exists therein; Counties shall pay the salaries and necessary traveling expenses of County inspectors for the purpose of inspecting, dipping, and certifying to live stock in said Counties, said inspectors to be appointed by the Live Stock Sanitary Commission and to work under the direction of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, and said inspectors are hereby required to perform all duties necessary to the inspection, dipping, and certification of said live stock. In case the owner or caretaker fails or refuses to dip his livestock in compliance with any of the provisions of this Act, the County Commissioners' Courts shall provide necessary dipping vats, facilities, and pens, together with dipping fluids and material for dipping said live stock, the same to be furnished at the expense of the respective counties, to be paid for out of their general funds.

Sec. 19. Inspectors of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission are hereby authorized and directed to enter upon the premises of any person, firm or corporation for the purpose of inspecting, classifying, or dipping cattle or sheep for scabies or exposure thereto whenever in the opinion of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission such inspection, classification, or dipping is deemed necessary. Any person who shall refuse to permit an inspector of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission to enter upon any premises of which he is the owner or tenant or caretaker for the purpose of making said inspection, classification, or dipping, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined any sum not less than $10.00 and not more than $200.00, and each separate day on which said refusal is made shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 20. The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to employ a Chief Cattle and Sheep Scabies Inspector, whose duties shall be to supervise the inspectors engaged in sheep and cattle scabies eradication, and the said Commission shall employ District Supervising Inspectors and Local Inspectors for the purpose of eradicating cattle and sheep scabies. Salaries of local County Inspectors to be paid by the Counties, but salaries of the said Chief Inspector and District Supervising Inspectors to be paid by the State.

Sec. 21. It shall be unlawful for any person, company or corporation to drive, drift, ship, or haul by common carrier or private conveyance, or in any other manner transport or move or permit the movement along or across any public road or railroad or on or across the land or premises of another, any sheep or cattle which are infected with or exposed to scabies or that are under quarantine for scabies infection or exposure, and any person violating any of the provisions of this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $10.00 nor more than $200.00. Provided that each public road, railway, and premise of another along, across, or onto which said person, company or corporation shall drive, drift, haul or transport any of said live stock shall constitute a separate offense. Provided that the venue for the prosecution of persons, firms, or corporations violating any quarantine provision of any section of this Act shall be in the County from which said illegal movement was made and in any and all counties into or through which said live stock moved.

Sec. 22. From and after the passage of this Act importation of sheep into this State by rail or other mode of movement shall not be made except under the following restrictions:

(a) The importer must apply to and receive from the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of this State, permission to import any sheep (except sheep billed to market centers for slaughter purposes) into the State.

(b) Such importations shall be accompanied by a certificate of a regularly employed and duly authorized sheep scabies inspector of the State of origin or a duly appointed and acting sheep scabies inspector of the United States Bureau of Animal Industry certifying that said sheep are free from scabies infection and exposure thereto, and that said sheep have been dipped in a dipping fluid recognized by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry for the eradication of sheep scabies and in a manner calculated to have eradicated infection or exposure as the case may be within ten days next preceding the date of such importation, provided, however, that sheep dipped for infection at point of origin shall be held under quarantine at point of destination for a period of one hundred and eighty days. By "point of destination" as used herein is meant the range upon which the said sheep are placed in this State, provided further that in the event the sheep are accompanied by the proper certification and permit they may be moved into the State without first having been dipped when arrangements are made with the Live Stock Sanitary Commission at Fort Worth, Texas, prior to movement, to dip on arrival in the State.

(c) All importations of sheep by rail shall be billed to recognized sheep dipping center where the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of this State maintains an inspector to supervise the dipping of sheep except sheep imported for show purposes only or for immediate slaughter, and upon arrival thereat shall be dipped in accordance with the provisions contained in Sections Two and Three of this Act, unless the same are accompanied by a certificate of dipping at point of origin as provided in Section 22(b) of these requirements.

(d) The importer of show sheep shall be given a reasonable length of time to display his sheep at County Fairs or Live Stock Exhibits, but in no instance shall this time be extended for a longer period than sixty days from date of importation and all such sheep shall be kept separate from all other than show sheep, and shall be dipped at least once before being distributed to the range.

(e) Any person, company or corporation importing any sheep into this State in violation of this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than $1.00 nor more than $5.00 for each head of sheep so unlawfully imported, and the venue of such prosecution shall be in any County through or into which such importation is carried. Provided that each County into or through which said sheep are moved shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 23. No common carrier by rail in this State shall receive from any shipper or connecting carrier for importation into this State any shipment of sheep (except sheep billed for slaughter purposes) unless the bill of lading covering said shipment is accompanied by a written permit from the Live Stock Sanitary Commission of this State or its Chairman, permitting such sheep to be imported into this State.

Sec. 24. Any common carrier violating the provisions of this Section of this Act shall forfeit to the State the sum of not less than $1.00 nor more than $5.00 per head for each sheep so unlawfully transported by it, which may be recovered by suit instituted on behalf of the State in any Court of this State having jurisdiction of the amount involved in any County through which said common carrier by rail transported such shipment. Provided that such suits may be maintained in all Counties into or through which said movement of sheep is transported, said suits shall be instituted by the County attorney of the respective Counties into or through which said movements are made and further provided that if any corporation or company shall violate any of the penal provisions of this Act, it shall be the duty of the County Attorneys in each County in which said offense occurs to file a civil suit in the Court of proper jurisdiction in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the collection of said penalties.

Sec. 25. The Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to quarantine any County or district or premises, places, roads, pastures, lots, yards, stockyards, enclosures, cattle or sheep whenever it has determined by inspection through an authorized inspector that scabies infection or exposure thereto exists therein or thereon, and notice of said quarantine shall be given by posting a written notice thereof at the County Court House door of the County in which said quarantine is established and two other notices in conspicuous places within the area or place quarantined, or by publication in a newspaper in said County, or if there be no newspaper therein, by publication in some newspaper in an adjoining County or by delivering a written or printed notice thereof to the owner or caretaker of the live stock or territory or place to be quarantined, said delivery to be made in person by an inspector or other employé of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, or by a member of said Commission to deliver the same, or by sending by United States mail. Any one of the foregoing methods of giving notice shall be sufficient, but it shall not be necessary to give notice in more than one way. Whenever a territory, County, or district is quarantined under the provisions of this Act, all local premises, cattle and sheep therein shall thereby become quarantined without designating them separately.

Sec. 26. The Chairman of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and duties which the Live Stock Sanitary Commission is authorized by this Act to do. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 174, ch. 63.]

Section 27 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., 1st C. S., p. 174, ch. 63, provides that the act shall be cumulative of all existing statutes relating to the quarantining of sheep and cattle and shall not be construed as repealing the same unless in direct conflict therewith, and section 28 provides that the act shall be liberally construed and if any section be declared invalid such holding shall not affect the remaining parts.

VETERINARIANS

Art. 1526. Practicing without registering.—No person shall practice veterinary medicine in any of its branches upon animals within the limits of this State, who has not registered in the district clerk's office of the county in which he resides, his authority for so practicing, together with his age, post-office address, place of birth and name of school of veterinary medicine from which he graduated. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 144.]

Art. 1527. Exceptions.—Nothing in this law shall prohibit any person, who has heretofore registered as a veterinary surgeon in the county of his residence according to the provisions of Chapter 76 of the Acts of the regular session of the Thirty-second Legislature who had previous to the year 1911 practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery as his principal occupation for five years in the State of Texas prior to the year 1911, from practicing in the county of his residence only, by securing a license from the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners by filing satisfactory evidence of his former compliance with the requirements of said Act of the regular session of the Thirty-second Legislature, together with an affidavit that he has practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery continuously for five years prior to 1911, in which affidavit he shall state the place where he has practiced veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery for five consecutive years immediately prior to 1911, together with his place of residence during said period. Upon the face of such license shall be printed the word[s], nongraduate. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person to register under the five year practicing clause of this article. The fact of such oath shall be endorsed upon the certificate or license as the case may be, but if such person shall remove from such county of residence, he shall comply with all the requirements of this law before he shall be allowed to practice. Nothing in this law shall apply to commission or contract veterinarians in the employ of the United States or the Bureau of Animal Industry of the United States Department of Agriculture in the performance of their duties as such, but [they] shall not engage in private practice, nor to legally qualified veterinarians of other states called in consultation but who do not open offices. Nothing in this law shall prohibit the sale by licensed druggists of remedies which they recommend for the cure of diseases of animals. [Id.]

Art. 1528. Who are veterinarians.—Any person shall be deemed as practicing veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery or dentistry who professes publicly to be a veterinary physician, surgeon or dentist, or who appends to his name any initials or title implying qualifications to practice veterinary medicine or who shall treat, operate or prescribe for any physical ailment or deformity of any domestic animal for which he shall receive compensation, either direct or indirect, or any county demonstration agent or farm demonstration agent while in the employment of any county, state or Federal government on a salary for treating or attempting to treat any animal for any disease, ailment or deformity. Nothing in this law shall apply to persons not so employed gratuitously treating animals. The operations known as "Dehorning," "Castrating," or "Spraying" shall not be construed as the practice of veterinary medicine or surgery nor the vaccination of cattle for blackleg as the practice of veterinary medicine. The terms veterinarians, veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery, veterinary physician and veterinary dentist as used in this chapter shall be construed as synonymous. [Id.]

Art. 1529. Offenses by Board.—Any member of the State Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners who shall issue any certificate under the law providing for such board other than as therein provided, or who shall give any applicant for license to practice veterinary medicine or veterinary surgery prior to examination a list of questions to be propounded at any examination shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1530. License to be recorded.—Any person receiving a certificate of license from the Board of Veterinary Medical Examiners shall forthwith have it recorded in the office of the District Clerk of the County in which he makes his residence, and shall display it in his regular place of business. The date of recording shall be recorded thereon, and until the license is recorded the holder shall not exercise any of its rights or privileges therein conferred; and in case said license is not recorded within ninety days from its date of issuance, it shall become invalid. [Id.]

Art. 1531. To record license on removal.—Any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed examination and who has been granted license by said Board to practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in this State, and has recorded his license as provided for by law, may go from one county to another county in this State on professional business and may practice veterinary medicine, veterinary surgery or veterinary dentistry in any county in this State to which he may go, without recording or registering said license in any county to which he may go or in which he may practice. Provided that any veterinarian or veterinary surgeon who has successfully passed the said examination and duly recorded his license, and who removes his residence from the county in which his license is recorded, shall again record his license in the county to which he removes his residence, in the same manner as the same was recorded in the county from which he removed his residence. Such veterinarian or veterinary surgeon shall have no authority to practice in any county to which he removes his residence until he has recorded said license as herein provided. [Id.]

Art. 1532. Unlawfully practicing.—Any person who practices or attempts to practice veterinary medicine, surgery or dentistry in this State, without first having complied with the provisions of the six preceding articles shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day of such practice or attempt to practice is a separate offense. [Id.]

Art. 1533. Honey bees.—1. Common carriers accepting shipment.—No common carrier shall accept for intrastate shipment any honey bees, used honey-combs, used beehives or fixtures, except under such regulations as the State Entomologist shall prescribe.

2. Protective quarantine.—Said Entomologist shall have authority to declare a protective quarantine in any district, county, precinct or other defined area wherein foul brood or other contagious disease of bees is not known to exist, or wherein any disease of bees is being eradicated in accordance with the provisions of this law, said quarantine to prohibit the movement or shipment into said area, of any bees, honey, appliances or other things capable of transmitting the infection, except under such regulations as he shall prescribe.

3. Restrictive quarantine.—Said Entomologist may, when in his opinion public welfare and necessity require it, place a restrictive quarantine upon any district, county, precinct or other defined area wherein are located any honey bees infected with contagious or infectious disease, said quarantine to prohibit the movement or shipment therefrom of any bees, honey, appliances or other things capable of transmitting the infection, except under such rules and regulations as he shall prescribe.

4. Sale and shipment.—Queen bees and their attendant bees shall not be sold or offered for sale in this State unless accompanied by a copy of a certificate from a State or Government entomologist or apiary inspector to the effect that the apiary from which said queen bees are shipped has been inspected within the preceding twelve months and found apparently free from contagious and infectious diseases, or by an affidavit made by the beekeeper that the bees are not diseased to the best belief of affiant and that the honey used in making the candy contained in the queen cage has been diluted and boiled for at least thirty minutes in a closed vessel.

5. To report diseased bees.—If any owner of, or any person having control or possession of, any honey bees in this State, knows that such bees are affected with American foul brood, or any other contagious or infectious disease, or knows of any other bees so diseased, it shall be his duty to at once report such fact to said Entomologist at College Station, setting out in said report all the facts known with reference to said infection.

6. Sale, etc. of infected bees, etc.—No owner or keeper of any diseased colonies of bees shall barter, give away, sell, ship or move any infected bees, honey or appliances, or shall expose any other bees to the danger of infection of the disease.

7. Exposing infected honey, etc.—No person, firm or corporation shall expose, on their own premises or elsewhere, any honey, hives, frames, combs, brood or appliances known to be infected by foul brood or other dangerous disease of bees, in such a manner that honey bees may have access to same; nor sell, offer for sale, barter, give away, ship or distribute any honey taken from a colony or colonies of bees infected with foul brood or other infectious or contagious disease.

8. Interfering with inspection.—No person shall seek to prevent any inspection of bees, honey or appliances under the direction of the State Entomologist in accordance with this law, or shall seek or attempt to prevent the discovery or treatment of diseased honey bees, or shall attempt to intimidate the State Entomologist, his assistants or inspectors, or otherwise interfere with them in the lawful discharge of their duties as herein defined.

Whoever violates any provision of this article, or violates any rule, quarantine, order or regulation of the State Entomologist issued in accordance with the provisions of this law shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. All fines collected under this article shall be paid into the State Treasury. [Acts 1913, p. 97.]

- 1544. "Money" and "Property" defined.

Article 1534. [1416] [938] [786] Embezzlement.—If any officer, agent, clerk, employé, or attorney at law or in fact, of any incorporated company or institution, or any clerk, agent, attorney at law or in fact, servant or employé of any private person, copartnership or joint stock association, or any consignee or bailee of money or property, shall embezzle, fraudulently misapply or convert to his own use, without the consent of his principal or employer, any money or property of such principal or employer which may have come into his possession or be under his care by virtue of such office, agency or employment, he shall be punished in the same manner as if he had committed a theft of such money or property. [Acts 1858, p. 182, Acts 1876, p. 9.]

Art. 1535. [1417] [939] [787] By factor or commission merchant.—If any factor or commission merchant shall embezzle or fraudulently misapply or convert to his own use any money or other property, which shall have come into his possession or shall be under his care by virtue of his agency or employment, he shall be punished as if he had stolen such property. [Acts 1858, p. 182.]

Art. 1536. [1418] [940] [788] Embezzlement by carrier.—If any carrier to whom any money, goods, or other property, shall have been delivered, to be carried by him; or if any other person, who shall be intrusted with such property shall embezzle or fraudulently convert to his own use any such money, goods, or property, either in the mass, as the same were delivered or otherwise shall be punished as prescribed for theft. [Acts 1858, p. 182.]

Art. 1537. [1576] [1011] Secreting or concealing property from assignee.—If any assignor shall secrete or conceal from his assignee any portion of the property belonging to his estate other than that which is exempt from execution or shall previous to and in contemplation of the assignment transfer any property with the intent or design to defraud his creditors, such assignor shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1879, p. 59.]

Art. 1538. [1426] [948] [795] Conversion of estate.—If any executor[,], administrator or guardian having charge of any estate, real, personal or mixed, shall unlawfully and with intent to defraud any creditor, heir, legatee, ward or distributee interested in such estate, convert the same or any part thereof to his own use, he shall be punished as is provided in cases of theft. [Acts 1858, p. 184; Act April 10, 1883, p. 66.]

Art. 1539. [366] [258] [242] Conversion by sheriff, etc.—If any sheriff or other officer having collected money for any party to a suit shall without the consent of such party, unlawfully convert the same or any part thereof to his own use, he shall be punished in the same manner as if he had stolen such money. [Acts 1858, p. 164.]

Art. 1540. [367] [259] [243] Appropriation of trust funds.—If any officer of any court who has the legal custody of any money, evidence of debt, script, instrument of writing or other article that may have been deposited in court to abide the result of legal proceedings shall appropriate the same to his own use, he shall be punished as if he had stolen the same. [Acts 1876, p. 7.]

Art. 1541. [1611] Misapplication of money of prisoners.—Prisoners when received into the penitentiary shall be carefully searched. If money be found on the person of the prisoner, or received by him at any time, it shall be taken in charge by the Prison Commissioner and placed to the prisoner's credit, and expended for the prisoner's benefit on his written order, and under such restrictions as may be prescribed by law or the rules. Any officer or employé of the prison system having charge of a prisoner's money who misappropriates the same or any part thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary not more than five years. [Act Sept. 17, 1910, sec. 47.]

Art. 1542. [1615] Conversion of prison property.—Any officer or employé of the prison system who shall fraudulently convert to his own use and benefit any food, clothing, or other property, belonging to or under control of the prison system, shall be punished as if he had stolen the same. [Id. Sec. 55.]

Art. 1543. [1420] [942] [789a] Receiving or concealing embezzled property.—If any person shall fraudulently receive or conceal any property which has been converted by another in such manner as that the conversion comes within the meaning of embezzlement, knowing the same to have been so converted, he shall be punished in the same manner as the person embezzling the same would be liable to be punished. [Acts 1883, p. 24.]

Art. 1544. [1419] [941] [789] "Money" and "Property" defined.—The term "money", as used in this chapter, includes, besides gold, silver, copper or other coin, bank bills, government notes or other circulating medium current as money; and the term "property" includes any article commonly known as personal property, and all writings of every description that possess any ascertainable value.

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

SWINDLING AND CHEATING

Art.

- 1545. "Swindling" defined.
- 1546. Specific acts; certain wrongful acts included.
- 1546a. False written statement of financial condition.
- 1547. "Money" defined.
- 1548. No benefit need accrue to defendant.
- 1549. If the act constitutes any other defense.
- 1550. Punishment for swindling.
- 1551. Obtaining board or lodging by trick, etc.
- 1552. To post price in hotel rooms.
- 1553. Hotel to furnish rate card.
- 1554. Untrue advertisement.
- 1555. Unlawfully using or wearing emblem.

Article 1545. [1421] [943] [790] "Swindling" defined.—"Swindling" is the acquisition of any personal or movable property, money or instrument of writing conveying or securing a valuable right, by means of some false or deceitful pretense or device, or fraudulent representation, with intent to appropriate the same to the use of the party so acquiring, or of destroying or impairing the right of the party justly entitled to the same. [Acts 1858, p. 183.]

Art. 1546. Specific acts; certain wrongful acts included.—Within the meaning of the term "swindling" are included the following wrongful acts:

1. The exchange of property upon the false pretense that the party is the owner or has the right to dispose of the property given in exchange.
2. The purchase of property upon the faith and credit of some other person upon the false pretense that such other has given the accused the right to use his name in making the acquisition.
3. The obtaining by false pretense the possession of any instrument of writing, certificate, field notes or other paper relating to lands, the property of another, with the intent that thereby the property owner shall be defeated of a valuable right in such lands.
4. The obtaining by any person of any money or other thing of value with intent to defraud by the giving or drawing of any check, draft or order upon any bank, person, firm or corporation with which or with whom such person giving or drawing said check, draft or order has not at the time of the giving or drawing said check, draft or order, or at the time when in the ordinary course of business such check, draft or order would be presented to the drawee for payment, sufficient funds to pay same, and no good reason to believe that such check, draft or order will be paid; provided, that if said check, draft or order is not paid on presentation the return of same shall be prima facie evidence of the fraudulent intent of said person drawing or giving said check; and provided further, that if such check, draft or order is not paid within fifteen days after the same is returned unpaid, it shall be prima facie evidence that no good reason existed for believing that said check, draft or order would be paid, and it shall also be prima facie evidence of intent to defraud and knowledge of insufficient funds with the drawee.
5. The special enumeration of cases of swindling above set forth shall not be understood to exclude any case which by fair construction of language comes within the meaning of the preceding article.
6. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on this subject and should any section or provision be declared unconstitutional such decision shall not effect [affect] any of the remaining provisions of this Act. [Act 1925, p. 38.] [39th Leg., ch. 14.]

Art. 1546a. False written statement of financial condition.—Any person who shall knowingly make or cause to be made, either directly or indirectly, or through any agency whatsoever, any materially false statement in writing with intent that it shall be relied upon, representing the financial condition, or means, or ability to pay, of himself, or any other person or firm, or corporation, in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, for the purpose of procuring in any form whatsoever either the delivery of personal property, the payment of cash, the making a loan or credit, the extension of a credit, the discount of any account receivable, or the making, acceptance, discount, sale, or endorsement of a bill of exchange or promissory note, amounting to more than fifty dollars for the benefit of either himself, or of any such person, firm, or corporation; or

Who, knowing that a false statement in writing has been made respecting the financial condition or means or ability to pay, of himself, or such person, firm or corporation in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, procures upon the faith thereof, for the benefit of either himself, or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in the first subdivision of this section; or

Who, knowing that a false statement in writing has been made, respecting the financial condition or means, or ability to pay of himself, or the person, firm or corporation, in which he is interested, or for whom he is acting, represents on a later day, in writing that such statements theretofore made, if then again made on said day would be true, when same would be false, and procures upon faith thereof, for the benefit either of himself, or of such person, firm or corporation, either or any of the things of benefit mentioned in the first subdivision of this section,

Shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding two hundred ($200.00) dollars or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 168, p. 383, § 1.]

Art. 1547. [1423] [945] [792] "Money" defined.—Within the meaning of "money", as used in this chapter, are included also bank bills or other circulating medium current as money.

Art. 1548. [1424] [946] [793] No benefit need accrue to defendant.—It is not necessary in order to constitute the offense of swindling, that any benefit shall accrue to the person guilty of the fraud or deceit, nor that any injury shall result to the person intended to be defrauded, if it is sufficiently apparent that there was a wilful design to receive benefit or cause an injury. [Acts 1858, p. 183.]

Art. 1549. [1425] [947] [794] If the act constitutes any other offense.—Where property, money, or other articles of value enumerated in the definition of swindling, are obtained in such manner as to come within the meaning of theft or some other offense the rules herein prescribed with regard to swindling shall not be understood to take any such case out of the operation of the law which defines any such other offense. [Acts 1858, p. 184.]

Art. 1550. [1427] [948] [796] Punishment for swindling.—Every person guilty of swindling shall be punished in the same manner as is provided for the punishment of theft, according to the amount of the money or the value of the property or instrument of writing so fraudulently acquired.

Art. 1551. [1428] Obtaining board or lodging by trick, etc.—Every person who shall obtain board or lodging in any hotel or boarding house by means of any trick or deception or false or fraudulent representations, or statement or pretense, and shall fail or refuse to pay therefor, shall be held to have obtained the same with the intent to cheat and defraud such hotel or boarding house keeper, and shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one month or both. [Act May 10, 1899, Acts 1899, p. 173.]

Art. 1552. To post price in hotel rooms.—The owner or keeper of each hotel within this State shall post in a conspicuous place in each room thereof a card or sign, stating the price per day of each room and bearing date when posted; and no advance in the price list so posted shall be made within thirty days from the time said card or sign was last posted.

Any hotel owner or keeper who shall fail or refuse to post the rates of his rooms as above required, or any hotel owner, keeper or employé who shall knowingly charge any guest a rate in excess of the rate posted shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding thirty days or both, and each day that such excessive rate is charged is a separate offense. [Acts 1923, p. 95.]

Art. 1553. Hotel to furnish rate card.—When a room is assigned to a guest by any hotel having twenty rooms or more, such hotel shall give said guest a ticket showing the rate per day he is being charged for such room, which shall conform with the rates posted, and any owner, keeper or employé of said hotel who shall neglect to furnish said guest with such ticket shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1554. Untrue advertisement.—Whoever with intent to sell or in any way dispose of merchandise, securities, service, or anything offered by such person, or by any firm, corporation or association which he owns or of which he has control directly or indirectly, to the public for sale or distribution, or with intent to increase the consumption thereof, or to induce the public in any manner to enter into any obligation relating thereto, or to acquire title thereto, or any interest therein, makes, publishes, disseminates, circulates or places before the public or causes to be made, published, disseminated, circulated or placed before the public in a newspaper, or other publication, or in the form of a book, notice, handbill, window display card or price tag, poster, bill, circular, pamphlet or letter, or in any other way, an advertisement of any sort regarding merchandise, as to its character or cost, securities, service, or anything so offered to the public, which advertisement contains any assertion, representation or statement of fact which is known by said person or could have been known by use of reasonable diligence or inquiry to be untrue, deceptive or misleading in any material particular as to such matters or things so advertised, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars. In prosecutions under this article such statement, trade name or trade mark, with the name, signature, mark or identification of the person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, shall be considered prima facie evidence of the publication of such statement, trade name or trade mark by the person, firm, corporation, partnership, association, referred to therein. [Acts 1921, p. 86.]

Art. 1555. [425] Unlawfully using or wearing emblem.—Whoever shall wilfully and without due authority use or wear the badge, label or button or other emblem of the United Confederate Veterans, United Sons of Confederate Veterans, United Daughters of the Confederacy, Grand Army of the Republic, Woman's Relief Corps, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of the United States of America, the Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, the Woodmen of the World, any labor organization, or any order, society or organization in this State, or who shall use or wear the same to obtain aid, assistance or patronage thereby, unless he shall be entitled to use or wear the same under the rules and regulations of any such order, society or organization whose badge, label or button or other emblem was so used or worn, shall be fined not exceeding fifty dollars, or imprisoned in jail not exceeding sixty days. [Acts 1909, p. 134.]

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

PROPERTY UNDER LIEN

Art.

1556. Removing property under lien.
1557. Concealing location of motor vehicle.
1558. Fraudulent disposition of mortgaged property.

Article 1556. Removing property under lien.—If any person shall remove any personal property or any part thereof covered by the lien created by chapter 17, Acts of the 35th Legislature, Regular Session, from the place where it was located when the lien therein provided for shall have been filed of record, without the written consent of the owner and holder of said lien, with intent to defraud the person having such lien, either originally or by transfer, he shall be fined not less than five nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1917, p. 28.]

Art. 1557. Concealing location of motor vehicle.—Whoever shall wilfully, upon demand, fail or refuse to notify the mortgagee or holder of a mortgage given upon any motor vehicle or accessories therefor purchased by him to secure the purchase price therefor or any portion of same, of the location of such motor vehicle, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or be confined in jail for not more than sixty days or both. [Acts 1919, p. 320.]

Art. 1558. [1430] [950] [797] Fraudulent disposition of mortgaged property.—If any person has given or shall hereafter give any mortgage, deed of trust or other lien, in writing, upon any personal or movable property or growing crop of farm produce, and shall remove the same or any part thereof out of the State, or shall sell or otherwise dispose of the same with intent to defraud the person having such lien, either originally or by transfer, he shall be confined in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1885, p. 85.]

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

OFFENSES COMMITTED IN ANOTHER COUNTY OR STATE

Art.

1559. Bringing stolen property into this state.
1560. Requisites of guilt.

Article 1559. [1431] [951] [798] Bringing stolen property into this State.—If any person having committed an offense in any foreign country, State or territory, which if committed in this State would have been swindling, robbery, theft, embezzlement or receiving of stolen property, knowing the same to have been stolen, or fraudulently receiving or concealing property acquired by another by embezzlement, knowing the same to have been so acquired by another, shall bring into this State any property so acquired or received he shall be deemed guilty of swindling, robbery, theft, embezzlement, or receiving of goods or property stolen or embezzled, and shall be punished as if the offense had been committed in this State. In cases herein mentioned the offense may be charged to have been committed in any county into or through which the property may be brought in the same manner as if the act constituting such offense had taken place wholly within this State. [O. C. 774, Acts 1895, p. 116.]

Art. 1560. [1432] [952] [799] Requisites of guilt.—To render a person guilty under the preceding article it must appear that by the law of the foreign country, State or territory from which the property was taken and brought to this State the act committed would also have been swindling, robbery, embezzlement, theft or receiving stolen goods or property embezzled. [O. C. 775, Id.]

ployé of such bureau violating any provision of this article, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed ninety days. [Sec. 7, Id.]

Art. 1565. [1589] Commissioner may enter factory, etc.—Upon the written complaint of two or more persons, or upon his failure otherwise to obtain information in accordance with any provision of this chapter, the Commissioner of Labor Statistics shall have the power to enter any factory, mill, workshop, mine, store, business house, public or private work, or other establishment, or place where five or more persons are employed at work, when the same is open and in operation, for the purpose of gathering facts and statistics, such as are contemplated by this chapter, and for the purpose of examining into the methods of protecting employé from danger and the sanitary conditions in and around such building or place. [Sec. 9, Id.]

Art. 1566. [1591] Interfering with Labor Bureau.—Any owner, manager, superintendent or other person in charge or control of any factory, mill, workshop, mine, store, business house, public or private work, or other establishment or place, where five or more persons are employed at work, who shall refuse to allow any officer or employé of the said Bureau of Labor Statistics to enter the same or to remain therein for such time as is reasonably necessary, or who shall hinder any such officer or employé, or in any way prevent or deter him from collecting information, as to any matter consistent with any duty imposed on him by law, shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisoned in jail not to exceed sixty days. [Sec. 11, Id.]

CHAPTER TWO

SANITARY AND HEALTH CONDITIONS

Art.

1567. Permitting immoral conditions.
1568. Refusal to correct condition.

Article 1567. Permitting immoral conditions.—Any person in control of any factory, mill, workshop, laundry, mercantile establishment or other establishment where five or more persons are employed, all or part of whom are females, who shall permit in such place of employment any influence, practices or conditions calculated to injuriously affect the morals of such female employé, shall be fined [fined] not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding sixty days, or both. [Acts 4th C. S. 1918, p. 134.]

Art. 1568. Refusal to correct condition.—Any person in control or management of any establishment included in the preceding article who shall fail or refuse to comply with any written order issued to such person by the Commissioner of Labor Statistics, or any of his deputies or inspectors, for the correction of any condition caused or permitted therein which endangers the health of the employé therein or which do not comply with the law governing such establishments, shall be punished as provided in the preceding article. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

FEMALE EMPLOYÉS

Art.

1569. Hours of work.
1570. Seats.
1571. Exceptions.
1572. Punishment.

Article 1569. Hours of work.—No female shall be employed:

1. In any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, hotel, restaurant, rooming house, theater, moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph, telephone or other office, express or transportation company, or any State institution, or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed, for more than nine hours in any one calendar day nor more than fifty-four hours in any one calendar week.

2. In any laundry for more than fifty-four hours in one calendar week; the hours of work to be so arranged as to permit the employment of such female at any time so that she shall not work more than a maximum of eleven hours during the twenty-four-hour period of one day.

3. In any factory engaged in the manufacture of cotton, woollen or worsted goods or articles of merchandise manufactured out of cotton goods, for more than ten hours in any one calendar day nor more than sixty hours in any one calendar week. [Acts 1915, p. 105.]

Art. 1570. Seats.—Every employer owning or operating any factory, mine, mill, workshop, mechanical or mercantile establishment, laundry, hotel, restaurant or rooming house, theater or moving picture show, barber shop, telegraph, telephone or other office, express or transportation company; the superintendent of any State institution or any other establishment, institution or enterprise where females are employed as provided in the preceding article, shall provide and furnish suitable seats to be used by such employé when not engaged in the active duties of their employment, and shall give notice to all such employé by posting in a conspicuous place on the premises of such employment, in letters not less than one inch in height, that all such employé will be permitted to use such seats when not so engaged. [Id.]

Art. 1571. Exceptions.—The two preceding articles shall not apply to stenographers and pharmacists, nor to mercantile establishments or telegraph or telephone companies in rural districts and in cities or towns or villages of less than three thousand inhabitants, as shown by the preceding Federal census. In cases of extraordinary emergencies, such as great public calamities or where it becomes necessary for the protection of human life or property, longer hours may be worked. [Id.]

Art. 1572. Punishment.—Any employer, overseer, superintendent, foreman or other agent of any such employer who shall permit any female to work in any place mentioned in the first two articles of this chapter more than the number of hours provided for during any day of the twenty-four hours, or who shall fail or refuse to so arrange the work of such employé in said place so that they shall not work more than the number of hours so provided for, or who shall fail or refuse to provide suitable seats as provided in the second preceding article, shall be fined not less than fifty, nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day of such violation and each such employé permitted to work more than the time so specified shall be a separate offense. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

Art.

1573. Children under fifteen.
1574. Under age of seventeen.
1575. Messengers.
1576. Limitation of hours.
1577. Exemptions.
1578. Inspectors to have access.
1578a. Exceptions.

Article 1573. Children under fifteen.—Any person, or any agent or employé of any person, firm or corporation who shall hereafter employ any child under the age of fifteen (15) years to labor in or about any factory, mill, workshop, laundry, or in messenger service in towns and cities of more than fifteen thousand population, according to the Federal census, except as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than sixty days; or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed as affecting the employment of children on farms, ranches, dairies or other agricultural or stock raising pursuits.

Art. 1574. Under age of seventeen.—Any person, or agent, or employee of any person, firm or corporation who shall hereafter employ any child under the age of seventeen (17) years to labor in any mine, quarry or place where explosives are used, or who, having control or employment of such child, shall send or cause to be sent, or who shall permit any person, firm or corporation, their agents or employees to send any such child under the age of seventeen (17) years to any disorderly house, bawdy house, assignation house or place of amusement conducted for immoral purposes, the character or reputation of which could have been ascertained upon reasonable inquiry on the part of such person, firm or corporation having the control of such child shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty ($50.00) dollars nor more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 1575. Messengers.—It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation, their agents or employees, having in their employ or under their control, any child under the age of seventeen (17) years, doing a messenger or deliver[y] business, or whose employees may be required to deliver any message, package, merchandise or other thing, before sending any such child on such errand, to first ascertain if such child is being sent or is to be sent to any place prohibited in Art. 1574. Failure or refusal to comply with this article shall subject any person, firm or corporation, their agents or employees, having the control of such child or children to the penalties provided in Art. 1574.

Art. 1576. Limitation of Hours.—Any person, firm or corporation, their agents or employees, having in their employ or under their control any child under the age of fifteen (15) years who shall require or permit any such child to work or be on duty for more than eight (8) hours in any one calendar day, or for more than forty-eight hours in any one week, or who shall cause or permit such child to work between the hours of ten (10) P. M., and five (5) A. M., shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than two hundred ($200.00) dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed sixty (60) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided that nothing herein or in any other section of this Act shall apply to employment of children for farm labor, or to hours which children may work on farms.

Art. 1577. Exemptions.—Upon application being made to the county judge of any county in which any child over the age of twelve (12) years shall reside, the earnings of which child are necessary for the support of itself, its mother when widowed, or in needy circumstances, or invalid father, or of other children younger than the child for whom the permit is sought, the said county judge may upon the sworn statement of such child or its parents or guardian, that the child for whom the permit is sought is over twelve (12) years of age, that the said child has completed the fifth grade in a public school or its equivalent, and that it shall not be employed in or around any mill, factory, workshop, or other place where dangerous machinery is used, nor in any mine, quarry or other place where explosives are used, or where the moral or physical condition of the child is liable to be injured, and that the earnings of such child are necessary for the support of such invalid parent, widowed mother or mother in needy circumstances, or of younger children, and that such support cannot be obtained in any other manner, and that suitable employment has been obtained for such child, which sworn statement shall be accompanied by the certificate of a licensed physician showing that such child is physically able to perform the work or labor for which the permit is sought, issue a permit for such child to enter such employment. Every person, firm or corporation employing any such child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years shall post in a conspicuous place where such child is employed, the permit issued by the county judge; provided that no permit shall be issued for a longer period than twelve (12) months, but may be renewed from time to time upon satisfactory evidence being produced that the conditions under which the former permit was issued still exists, and that no physical or moral injury has resulted to such child by reason of its employment. In every case where a permit is sought for any child between the ages of twelve (12) years and fifteen (15) years, the parent, guardian or other person in charge or control of such child shall appear before the county judge in person with such child for whom a permit is sought before such permit shall be issued. There shall be nothing in this chapter to prevent the working of school children of any age from June 1 to September 1 of each year except that they shall not be permitted to work in factory, mill, workshop, and the places mentioned in Article 1574 and Article 1577; nor shall their hours of labor conflict with Article 1576 of this chapter.

Art. 1578. Inspectors to have access.—The Commissioner of Labor Statistics, or any of his deputies or inspectors shall have free access during working hours to all places where children or minors are employed, and any owner, manager, superintendent, foreman or other person in authority, who shall refuse to admit, or in any way hinder or defer the said commissioner or any of his deputies or inspectors from entering or remaining in such place, or from collecting information with respect to the employment of children as provided in this chapter, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars, nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars; provided that nothing herein shall apply to those engaged in agricultural pursuits.

Art. 1578a. Exceptions.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the employment by any person of nurses, maids, yard-servants, or others for private homes and families, regardless of their ages. [Acts 1925, p. 175.]

CHAPTER FIVE

HOURS OF LABOR ON PUBLIC WORKS

Art.
1579. Eight hours a day work.
1580. Violating eight hour law.
1581. Punishment.

Article 1579. Eight hours a day work.—Eight hours shall constitute a day's work for all laborers, workmen or mechanics who may be employed by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality, or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality in any one calendar day, where such employment, contract or work is for the purpose of constructing, repairing or improving buildings, bridges, roads, highways, streams, levees, or other work of a similar character, requiring the service of laborers, workmen or mechanics. [Acts 1913, p. 127.]

Art. 1580. Violating eight hour law.—All contracts made by or on behalf of the State of Texas, or by or on behalf of any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, with any corporation, persons or association of persons for performance of any work, shall be deemed and considered as made upon the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. The time consumed by the laborer in going to and returning from the place of work shall not be considered as part of the hours of work. No corporation, person, or association of persons having a contract with the State or any political subdivision thereof, shall require any such laborers, workmen or mechanics or other persons to work more than eight hours per calendar day in doing such work, except in case of emergency, which may arise in times of war, or in cases where it may become necessary to work more than eight hours per calendar day for the protection of property, human life or the necessity of housing inmates of public institutions in case of fire or destruction by the elements. In such emergencies the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed and working to exceed eight hours per calendar day shall be paid on the basis of eight hours constituting a day's work. Not less than the current rate of per hour wages for like work in the locality where the work is being performed shall be paid to the laborers, workmen, mechanics or other persons so employed or on behalf of the State, or for any county, municipality or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality, and every contract hereafter made for the performance of work for the State, or for any county, municipality, or other legal or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality, must comply with the requirements of this chapter. Nothing in the foregoing article shall prevent any person, or any officer, agent, or employé of any person or corporation, or association of persons from making mutually satisfactory contracts as to the hours of labor, at the rates of pay as herein provided. [Acts 1913, p. 127; Acts 1921, p. 229.]

Art. 1581. Punishment.—Any person, or any officer, agent or employé of any person, corporation or association of persons, or any officer, agent or employé of the State, county, municipality, or any legal or political subdivision of the State, county or municipality, who shall fail or refuse to comply with any provision of this chapter or who shall violate any of its provisions shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed six months or both. Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1913, p. 127.]

CHAPTER SIX

WORKMEN AND FIREMEN

Art.

1582. Protection of workmen on buildings.
1583. Work and vacation of firemen.

Article 1582. Protection of workmen on buildings.—1. To prevent workmen from falling.—Any building three or more stories in height, in the course of construction or repairs, shall have the joists, beams or girders of each and every floor below the floor level where any work is being done, or about to be done, covered with planking laid close together, said planking to be of not less than one and one-half inches of thickness in buildings that have steel framework, and what is commonly known as one-inch plank in all others where joists are set on two feet centers or less, to protect the workmen engaged in the erection or construction of such buildings from falling through joists, girders, and from falling planks, bricks, rivets, tools or other substances, whereby life and limb are endangered. Where any scaffolding is placed on the outside of any of said buildings, over any public street or alley where persons are in the habit of passing, then said scaffolding shall be so constructed as to prevent any material, tools or other things from falling off and endangering the life of passersby. Such flooring shall not be removed until the same is replaced by a permanent flooring in such building.

2. To inclose elevators and shafts.—If elevators, elevating machines or hod hoisting apparatus are used within a building in the course of construction, for the purpose of lifting materials to be used in such construction, the contractor or owners, or the agents of the owners, shall cause the shafts or openings in each floor to be inclosed or fenced in on all sides, two sides of which must be at least six feet, and two sides where material is to be taken off or on shall be protected by automatic safety gates.

3. Duty of general contractors.—The general contractor having charge of the erection and construction of such building shall provide for the flooring as herein required, and make such arrangements as may be necessary with the sub-contractor in order that the provisions of this article may be carried out.

4. Duty of owner.—The owner, or the agent of the owner of such building, shall see that the general contractor or sub-contractors carry out the provisions of this article.

5. Owner to see to flooring.—If the general contractor or sub-contractor of such building fails to provide for the flooring of such building as herein provided, then the owner or the agent of the owner of such building shall see that the provisions of this article are carried out.

Any owner or agent of the owner, or any general contractor or sub-contractor, of any building described in the first subdivision of this article who shall fail to comply with any provision of this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day of such violation is a separate offense. [Acts 1919, p. 281.]

Art. 1583. Work and vacation of firemen.—1. No member of any paid fire department in any city of more than 25,000 inhabitants shall be required to be on duty for more than six days in any one week.

2. The preceding subdivision shall not apply in cases of emergency.

3. Each member of any such department in any city of more than 30,000 inhabitants shall be allowed fifteen days vacation in each year, with pay, not more than fourteen men to be on vacation at the same time.

4. Each preceding Federal census shall determine the population.

5. The city officials having supervision of the fire department shall designate the days of the week upon which each such member shall not be required to be on duty, and the days upon which each such member shall be allowed to be on vacation.

The city official having charge of the fire department in any such city who violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1st C. S. 1915, p. 22, Acts 1st C. S. 1917, p. 19.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

EMPLOYMENT AGENTS

Art.

1584. Definitions.
1585. Exceptions.
1586. Doing business without license.
1587. Agent to keep record.
1588. Certain acts prohibited.
1589. Overcharging.
1590. Untruth by employer or applicant.
1591. To display license and law.
1592. Punishment.
1593. Inducing employé to quit.

Article 1584. Definitions.—As used in this chapter:

1. "Employment agent" means every person, firm, partnership or association of persons engaged in the business of assisting employers to secure employés, and persons to secure employment, or of collecting information regarding employers seeking employés, and persons seeking employment.

2. "Employment office" means every place or office where the business of giving intelligence or information where employment or help may be obtained, or where the business of an employment agent is carried on. [Acts 1923, p. 75.]

Art. 1585. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agents who charge a fee of not more than two dollars for registration only for procuring employment for school teachers; nor to any department or bureau maintained by this State, the United States Government, or any municipal government of this State, nor to any person, firm, partnership, association of persons or corporation or any officer or employé thereof engaged in obtaining or soliciting help for him, them or it when no fees are charged, directly or indirectly, [of] the applicant for help or the applicant for employment; nor to farmers and stockraisers acting jointly or severally in securing laborers for their own use where no fee is collected or charged directly or indirectly, nor to any association or corporation chartered under the laws of Texas conducting a free employment bureau or agency. [Id.]

Art. 1586. Doing business without license.—Whoever engages in the business of an employment agent or conducts an employment office, without first procuring a license therefor, as required by law, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. Each day such person shall engage in such business or shall conduct an employment office without first procuring such license shall be a separate offense. [Id.; Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 94.]

Art. 1587. Agent to keep record.—Every licensed employment agent shall keep and maintain an office at which a complete record of the business transacted shall be kept; he shall keep a substantially bound book in the form prescribed by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics of this State in which shall be entered the age, sex, nativity, trade or occupation, name and address of each person who makes application for employment, or for help, to such employment agent, and where and to whom such person was directed to go by such agent for employment. Such employment agent shall also enter and keep in a well bound book the name and address of every person, firm, corporation or association of persons who shall make application to him for assistance in securing employes together with the number and kind of employes desired, the amount of wages or salary to be paid and the place where such employes are to work, and the date of the application and when received. [Acts 1923, p. 79.]

Art. 1588. Certain acts prohibited.—No employment agent shall:

1. Knowingly admit, or allow to remain on the premises of such agent any prostitute, gambler, intoxicated person or any person of bad character.

2. Advertise his agency by means of cards, circulars, signs or in newspapers or other publications, unless all such advertisements shall set forth the name of the agent and the address of his employment office; nor shall any such licensed person use any letterheads or blanks not containing the name of such employment agent and the address of his employment office.

3. Publish or cause to be published any false or misleading advertisement or notice relating to his employment agency.

4. Give any false information or make any false representation concerning employment to any applicant for employment.

5. Send out an applicant for employment to any prospective employer without first having obtained a bona fide written order from such prospective employer.

6. Furnish any female for immoral purposes; or send, or cause to be sent any female to enter as servant, inmate, or for any purpose whatsoever, any place of bad repute, house of ill fame, or assignation house, or any house or place of amusement kept for immoral purposes, the character of which such employment agent could have ascertained by reasonable diligence.

7. Furnish employment to any child in violation of the Statutes regulating the employment of children or the compulsory attendance at school.

8. Divide or offer to divide, directly or indirectly, any fee charged or received with any person who secures help through such agent, or to whom help is referred by such agent. [Id.]

Art. 1589. Overcharging.—Where a fee is charged for obtaining employment, such fee in no event shall exceed the sum of three dollars, which may be collected from the applicant only after employment has been obtained and accepted by the applicant. Employment agents engaged exclusively in providing employment for skilled, professional or clerical positions may charge, with the written consent of the applicant, a fee, not to exceed 20% of the first month's salary. [Id.]

Art. 1590. Untruth by employer or applicant.—No employer seeking employes, and no person seeking employment, shall knowingly make any false statement or conceal any material facts for the purpose of obtaining employes, or employment, by or through any employment agent. [Id.]

Art. 1591. To display license and law.—Every employment agent shall keep conspicuously posted in his office the license issued to him under the law, two copies of this Act, one printed in English and the other in Spanish in type not smaller than ten points, which copies shall be conspicuously placed so that they may be easily read by the public. [Id.]

Art. 1592. Punishment.—Whoever violates any provision of the five preceding articles of this chapter shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1593. Inducing employe to quit.—Any employment agent who shall induce or attempt to induce any person to leave his or her employer with a view to having said person obtain employment through his agency shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not to exceed one year, or both. [Id.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

MINES AND MINING

Art.

- 1594. Escapement shaft.
- 1595. Shafts, cages and passways.
- 1596. Ventilation.
- 1597. Notice of fire damp.
- 1598. Mining cage.
- 1599. Powder.
- 1600. Cut-throughs.
- 1601. Safety lamps.
- 1602. Endangering life or health.
- 1603. Posting mine rules.
- 1604. Coal scales.
- 1605. Check weighman.
- 1606. Oil used.
- 1607. Penalty.
- 1608. Insulating live wires.
- 1609. Map of mine.
- 1610. Animals in mines.
- 1611. Exceptions.
- 1612. Bath facilities.

Article 1594. [1592] [1593]. Escapement shaft.—No owner, agent, lessee, receiver or operator of any mine in this State shall employ any person or persons in said mine for the purpose of working therein unless there are in connection with every seam or stratum of coal or ore worked in such mine not less than two openings or outlets, separated by a stratum of not less than one hundred and fifty feet at surface and not less than thirty feet at any place, at which openings or outlets safe and distinct means of ingress and egress shall at all times be available for the persons employed in such mine. The escapement shafts or slopes shall be fitted with safe and available appliances by which the employes of the mine may readily escape in case of accident. In slopes used as haulage roads where the dip or incline is ten degrees or more there must be provided a separate traveling way which shall be maintained in a safe condition for travel and keep free from dangerous gases. The time which shall be allowed for completing such escapement shaft or opening shall be two years for all shafts or slopes more than two hundred feet in depth, and one year for all shafts two hundred feet in depth or less; and the time shall be reckoned in all cases from the date on which coal or ore is first hoisted from the original shaft or slope for sale or use. Any person, owner, agent, lessee, receiver or operator of any mine who shall violate or suffer or permit the violation of any provision of this article shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and each day such violation continues shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1903, p. 103.]

Art. 1595. [1594] Shafts, cages and passways.—Any shaft in process of sinking, and any opening projected for the purpose of mining coal of all kinds shall be subjected to the provisions of this and the twelve succeeding articles. At the bottom of every shaft and every caging place therein, a safe, commodious passageway must be cut around said landing place, to serve as a traveling way by which employes shall pass from one side of the shaft to the other without passing under or on the cage. The upper and lower landings at the top of each shaft, and the openings of each intermediate seam from or to the shaft shall be clear and free from loose materials and shall be securely fenced with automatic or other gates or bars so as to prevent either men or materials from falling into the shaft. Every hoisting shaft must be equipped with substantial cages fitted to guide rails running from the top to the bottom. Said cages must be safely constructed, they must be furnished with suitable boiler iron covers to protect persons riding thereon from falling objects, and they must be equipped with safety catches. Every cage on which people are carried must be fitted with iron bars, rings, or chains in proper place and in sufficient number to furnish a secure handhold for every person permitted to ride thereon. At the top landing, cage supports, where necessary, must be carefully set and adjusted so as to work properly and securely hold the cages when at rest. In all cases where the human voice can not be distinctly heard there shall be provided a metal tube or telephone from the top to the bottom of the shaft or slope through which conversation may be held between persons at the bottom and top of such shaft or slope, and there shall also be maintained an efficient system of signaling to and from the top of the shaft or slope in each seam or opening. Every underground place on which persons travel, worked by self-acting engines, windlasses or machinery of any description shall be provided with practical means of signaling between the stopping places and the ends of the plane, and shall further be provided, at intervals of not more than sixty feet, with sufficient man-holes for places of refuge. Every mine shall be supplied with props and timbers of suitable length and size, and if from any cause the timbers are not supplied when required, the miners shall vacate any and all such working places until supplied with timber needed. All openings connected with worked out or abandoned portions of every operated mine likely to accumulate explosive gases or dangerous conditions shall be securely gobbled and blocked off from the operative portions thereof so as to protect every person working in such mines from all danger that may be caused or produced by such worked out portions of such mines. [Sec. 1, Act April 30, 1907, Acts 1907, p. 331.]

Art. 1596. [1595] Ventilation.—Throughout every mine there shall be maintained currents of fresh air sufficient for the health and safety of all men and animals employed therein; and such ventilation shall be produced by a fan or some other artificial means; provided, a furnace shall not be used for ventilating any mine in which explosive gases are generated.

The quantity of air required to be kept in circulation and passing a given point shall be not less than one hundred cubic feet per minute for each person, and not less than three hundred cubic feet per minute for each animal in the mine, measured at the foot of the downcast; and this quantity may be increased at the discretion of the inspector, whenever, in his judgment, unusual conditions make a stronger current necessary. Said current shall be forced into every working place throughout the mine, so that all parts of the same shall be reasonably free from standing powder, smoke and deleterious air of any kind.

The measurement of the current of air shall be taken with an anemometer at the foot of the downcast, at the foot of the upcast, and at the working face of each division or split of the air current.

The main current of air shall be so split or subdivided as to provide a separate current of reasonably pure air to every one hundred men at work; and the inspector shall have authority to order separate currents for smaller groups of men, if in his judgment special conditions make it necessary.

The air current for ventilating the stable shall not pass into the intake air current for ventilating the working parts of the mine.

Whenever the inspector shall find men working without sufficient air, he shall at once give the mine manager or operator notice and a reasonable time in which to restore the current, and upon his or their refusal or neglect to act promptly the inspector may order the endangered men out of the mine. [Sec. 2, Id.]

Art. 1597. [1596] Notice of fire damp.—Immediate notice must be conveyed by the miner or mine owner to the inspector, upon the appearance of any large body of fire damp in any mine, whether accompanied by any explosion or not, and upon the occurrence of any serious fire within the mine or on the surface. [Sec. 3, Id.]

Art. 1598. [1597] Mining cage.—Cages on which men are riding shall not be lifted or lowered at a rate greater than six hundred feet per minute, except with the written consent of the inspector. No person shall carry any tools or materials with him on a cage in motion, except for use in making repairs, and no one shall ride on a cage while the other cage contains a loaded car. No cage having an unstable or self-dumping platform shall be used for the carriage of men or materials unless the same is provided with some convenient device by which said platform can be securely locked, and unless it is so locked whenever men or material are being conveyed thereon. [Sec. 4, Id.]

Art. 1599. [1598] Powder.—No miner or other person shall carry powder into the mine except in the original keg or in a regulation powder can securely fastened, and the can in otherwise air tight condition. [Sec. 5, Id.]

Art. 1600. [1599] Cut-throughs.—The mine foreman shall see that proper cut-throughs are made in all the pillars at such distances as in the judgment of the mine inspector may be deemed requisite, not more than twenty yards nor less than ten yards apart, for the purpose of ventilation, and the ventilation shall be conducted through said cut-throughs into the rooms and entries by means of check doors made of canvas or other material, placed on the entries or in other suitable places, and he shall not permit any room to be opened in advance of the ventilating current. Should the mine inspector discover any room, entry, airway or other working place being driven in advance of the air current contrary to the requirements of this article he shall order the workmen in such places to cease work at once until the law is complied with. [Sec. 6, Id.]

Art. 1601. [1600] Safety lamps.—At any mine where the inspector shall find fire damp is being generated so as to require the use of a safety lamp in any part thereof, the operator of such mine, upon receiving notice from the inspector that one or more such lamps are necessary for the safety of the men in the mines, shall at once procure and keep for use such number of safety lamps as may be necessary. [Sec. 7, Id.]

Art. 1602. [1601] Endangering life or health.—No miner, workman or other person shall knowingly or carelessly injure any shaft, safety lamp, instrument, air-course or brattice, or obstruct or throw open an air-way, or carry any open lamp or lighted pipe or fire in any form into a place worked by the light of safety lamps or within three feet of any open powder, or handle or disturb any part of the hoisting machinery, or enter any part of the mine against caution, or do any wilful act whereby the lives or health of persons working in mines or the security of the mine machinery thereof is endangered. [Sec. 8, Id.]

Art. 1603. [1602] Posting mine rules.—Every operator shall post on the engine house and at the pit top of his mine, in such manner that the employes of the mine can read them, rules not inconsistent with this chapter, plainly printed in the English language, which shall govern all persons working in the mine. [Sec. 9, Id.]

Art. 1604. [1603] Coal scales.—The owner or operator of every mine shall provide adequate and accurate scales for weighing coal. [Id.]

Art. 1605. [1604] Check weighman.—The employes in any mine shall have the right to employ a check weighman at their own option and their own expense. [Sec. 11, Id.]

Art. 1606. [1605] Oil used.—No miner or other person employed in a mine shall use any kind of oil other than a good quality of lard oil for lighting purposes, except when repairing downcast or up-cast shafts. [Sec. 12, Id.]

Art. 1607. [1606] Penalty.—Any person who shall wilfully violate any provision of the twelve preceding articles shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months. [Sec. 13, Id.]

Art. 1608. Insulating live wires.—In all mines where electricity is or hereafter shall be used as a part of the system, power or means of mining and procuring the coal or other mineral from any of said mines, the owners or operators of every such mine shall cause all wires conducting electricity in and about said mine to be carefully and thoroughly insulated or protected in a safe manner, so that the person or animals coming in contact therewith shall not be injured thereby; all wires as aforesaid shall either be thoroughly insulated or placed where persons employed in and about the mines cannot come in contact therewith, or shall be covered, protected or shielded in a safe manner, so as to prevent any injuries or accidents therefrom to those in or about the mines. It shall not be necessary to insulate or cover trolley wires, but they shall all be hung and kept not less than five feet and six inches above the rail, and shall be securely fastened, and not permitted to sag less than said height, where there is sufficient height in existing entries to permit this. But where sufficient height is not available in existing entries, then the trolley wires shall be placed to one side of the entry, six inches outside the rail; and in all such cases the trolley wire shall be placed on the side of the entry opposite from the working rooms, except where there are rooms on both sides of the entry, in which event, the trolley wires may be placed over the opening of said rooms, said trolley wires to be safely shielded. Where it is impracticable in existing entries to place trolley wires six inches outside of the rail, or five feet six inches high, and where separate travel way is not provided, then the trolley wire shall be safely shielded. This article shall not apply to entries that are not used as travel ways for workmen or work animals, nor to mines in operation on January 1, 1902, and prior thereto, and which have developed until there is at least two thousand feet distance from the shaft to the face of the coal being operated, except as to extensions of trolley wires made in such mines. Any person who shall violate any provision of this article shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months. [Act March 23, 1911, Acts 1911, p. 197.]

Art. 1609. Map of mine.—Any operator of a coal mine in this State who shall fail to make a map of the underground workings of any such mine in his charge in the manner and at the times required by the laws of this State governing such mines, or who shall fail to keep the original of such map on file at his office at or near such mine, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars for each offense. [Id.]

Art. 1610. Animals in mines.—Any person owning, operating or managing any mine who shall permit any work animal under his control to remain in any mine longer than ten consecutive hours, or who shall feed or permit to be fed any work animal in said mine, or who shall store or keep any feed for such animals in said mine, shall be imprisoned in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year. [Acts 1911, p. 205.]

Art. 1611. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply when the stables in which work animals are kept are equipped with fireproof doors at each opening, with door-frames of concrete, stone or brick, laid in mortar, which door is kept closed during working hours, and where not more than twenty-four hours' supply of grass, cane, hay or other like inflammable feed, except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats, is taken down in any mine in any one day, and where no such feed except corn, corn chops, bran and shelled oats is taken down in the mine until after the regular day shift is out of the mine, and where no open light is taken into any underground stable in any mine. [Id.]

Art. 1612. Bath facilities.—The operator, owner, lessee or superintendent of any coal mine employing ten or more men shall provide a suitable building convenient to the principal entrance of such mine, for the use of persons employed in and about said mine, for the purpose of washing themselves and changing their clothing when entering or leaving the mine. Such building shall be provided with proper light and heat, with a supply of hot and cold water and shower baths, and with properly constructed individual lockers for the use of such employes. The baths and lockers for negroes shall be separate from those for whites, but may be in the same building. Any operator, owner, lessee or superintendent of any coal mine violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail for not more than sixty days, or both. Every two weeks of such violation shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1915, p. 100.]

CHAPTER NINE

BLACKLISTING

Art.

- 1613. Discrimination against persons seeking employment.
- 1614. Penalty.
- 1615. What is prima facie proof.
- 1616. "Blacklisting" defined.
- 1617. Blacklisting prohibited.
- 1618. Penalty.
- 1619. Exceptions.
- 1620. Servants or employes not to be coerced.
- 1621. Witness must testify.

Article 1613. [1190] Discrimination against persons seeking employment.—The following shall constitute discrimination against persons seeking employment: Where any corporation, or receiver of same, doing business in this State, or any officer or agent of such corporation or receiver shall discriminate against any person seeking employment on account of his having participated in a strike. [Acts 1909, p. 160, Acts 1907, p. 143.]

Art. 1614. [1191] Penalty.—Every person violating any provision of the preceding article shall be imprisoned in jail for not less than one month nor more than one year. [Id.]

Art. 1615. [1192] What is prima facie proof.—Evidence that any person has acted as the agent of a corporation in the transaction of its business in this State shall be received as prima facie proof that his act in the name, behalf or interest of the corporation of which he was acting as the agent, was the act of the corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1616. [1193] "Blacklisting" defined.—He is guilty of "blacklisting" who places, or causes to be placed, the name of any discharged employe, or any employe who has voluntarily left the service of any individual, firm, company or corporation on any book or list, or publishes it in any newspaper, periodical, letter or circular, with the intent to prevent said employes from securing employment of any kind with any other person, firm, company or corporation, either in a public or private capacity. [Act 1901, p. 264.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 1617. [1194] Blacklisting prohibited.—No corporation, company or individual shall blacklist or publish, or cause to be blacklisted or published, any employé, mechanic, or laborer discharged by such corporation, company, or individual, with the intent and for the purpose of preventing such employé, mechanic, or laborer discharged by such corporation, company, or individual, from engaging in or securing similar or other employment from any other corporation, company or individual. [Id.]

Art. 1618. [1195] Penalty.—If any officer or agent of any corporation, company or individual, or other person shall blacklist or publish, or cause to be blacklisted or published, any employé, mechanic or laborer, discharged by such corporation, company or individual, with the intent and for the purpose of preventing such employé, mechanic or laborer from engaging in or securing similar or other employment from any other corporation, company or individual, or shall in any manner conspire or contrive by correspondence or otherwise, to prevent such discharged employé from procuring employment, as provided in the two preceding articles he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both. [Id.]

Art. 1619. [1196] Exceptions.—This law shall not be held to prohibit any corporation, company or individual from giving, on application from such discharged employé, or any corporation, company or individual who may desire to employ such discharged employé, a written truthful statement of the reason for such discharge. Said written cause of discharge, when so made by such person, agent, company or corporation, shall never be used as the cause for an action for libel either civil or criminal, against the person, agent, company or corporation so furnishing same. [Id.]

Art. 1620. [1197] Servants or employés not to be coerced.—No person, corporation or firm, or any agent, manager or board of managers, or servants of any corporation or firm shall coerce or require any servant or employé to deal with or purchase any article of food, clothing or merchandise of any kind whatever from any person, association, corporation or company, or at any place or store whatever. No such person, or agent, manager, or board of managers, or servants shall exclude from work, or punish or blacklist any of said employés for failure to deal with any such person or any firm, company or corporation, or for failure to purchase any article of food, clothing or merchandise at any store or any place whatever. Any person violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Acts 1903, p. 89.]

Art. 1621. [1199] Witness must testify.—No witness shall refuse to testify as to any violation of this chapter on the ground that his testimony may incriminate him, but any witness so examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any violation of any provision of this chapter about which he may testify fully and without reserve. [Acts 1907, p. 143.]

CONSPIRACY

Art.

1622. Definition.
 1623. When conspiracy complete.
 1624. Agreement must be positive.
 1625. Mere threat not sufficient.
 1626. Punishment of conspiracy.
 1627. Conspiracy to commit murder defined.
 1628. Conspiracy to commit felony in another State.
 1629. Conspiracy in another State to commit felony in this.

Article 1622. [1433–1437] Definition.—A conspiracy is an agreement entered into between two or more persons to commit a felony. [O. C. 776, Acts 2nd C. S. 1871, p. 15.]

Art. 1623. [1434] [954] [801] When conspiracy complete.—The offense of conspiracy is complete, although the parties conspiring do not proceed to effect the object for which they have so unlawfully combined. [O. C. 777, Act Oct. 26, 1871.]

Art. 1624. [1435] [955] [802] Agreement must be positive.—Before a conviction can be had for the offense of conspiracy, it must appear that there was a positive agreement to commit a felony. It will not be sufficient that such agreement was contemplated by the parties charged. [O. C. 778; Id.]

Art. 1625. [1436] [956] [803] Mere threat not sufficient.—A threat made by two or more persons acting in concert will not be sufficient to constitute conspiracy. [O. C. 779; Id.]

Art. 1626. [1438] [958] [805] Punishment for conspiracy.—Conspiracy to commit murder shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. Conspiracy to commit any other felony shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [O. C. 781, Act Oct. 26, 1871.]

Art. 1627. [1439] [959] [806] Conspiracy to commit murder defined.—A conspiracy to kill a human being is a conspiracy to commit murder. [O. C. 782; Id.]

Art. 1628. [1440] [960] [807] Conspiracy to commit offense in another State.—A conspiracy entered into in this State for the purpose of committing a felony in any other of the States or territories of the United States, or in any foreign territory, shall be punished in the same manner as if the conspiracy so entered into was to commit the offense in this State. [O. C. 783; Id.]

Art. 1629. [1441] [961] [808] Conspiracy in another State to commit felony in this.—A conspiracy entered into in another State or territory of the United States to commit a felony in this State, shall be punished in the same manner as if the conspiracy had been entered into in this State.

CHAPTER TWO

PUBLIC GAS UTILITY

Art.

1630. Discrimination.
 1631. Violating gas utility law.

Article 1630. Discrimination.—No pipe line public utility, as such utility is defined in the laws of this State governing the production and delivery of natural gas, shall discriminate in favor of or against any person, place or corporation, either in apportioning the supply of natural gas or in its charges therefor; nor shall any such utility directly or indirectly charge, demand, collect or receive from any one a greater or less compensation for any service rendered than from another for a like and contemporaneous service; provided this shall not limit the right of the Railroad Commission to prescribe different rates and regulations for the use of natural gas for manufacturing and similar purposes or to prescribe rates and regulations for service from or to other or different places, as it may determine. [Acts 3rd C. S. 1920, p. 18.]

Art. 1631. Violating gas utility law.—Any owner, officer, director, agent or employé of any person, firm or corporation owning, operating or controlling gas pipe lines of such utility mentioned in the preceding article, who shall wilfully violate any provision of the statutes of this State governing such utility, including the preceding article, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, and may in addition thereto be imprisoned in jail not less than ten days nor more than six months. [Id.]

CHAPTER THREE

TRUSTS AND CONSPIRACIES AGAINST TRADE

Art.

- 1632. Defining trusts.
- 1633. "Monopoly."
- 1634. "Conspiracy in restraint of trade."
- 1635. Punishment.
- 1636. Persons required to testify.
- 1637. Agreement to form trust, monopoly, etc.
- 1638. Operating in violation of this law.
- 1639. Persons outside State liable.
- 1640. Forming trusts, etc.
- 1641. Venue.
- 1642. Agricultural products and live stock exempt.
- 1643. Trade unions, etc.
- 1644. Not to apply to combination, etc.

Article 1632. [1454] Defining trusts.—A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill or acts by two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, or either two or more of them for any or all of the following purposes:

1. To create, or which may tend to create or carry out, restrictions in trade or commerce or aids to commerce, or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or to create or carry out restrictions in the free pursuit of any business authorized or permitted by the laws of this State.

2. To fix, maintain, increase or reduce the price of merchandise, produce, or commodities, or the cost of insurance, or of the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

3. To prevent or lessen competition in the manufacture, making, transportation, sale or purchase of merchandise, produce, or commodities, or the business of insurance, or to prevent or lessen competition in aids to commerce, or in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

4. To fix or maintain any standard or figure whereby the price of any article or commodity of merchandise, produce or commerce, or the cost of transportation, or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, shall be in any manner affected, controlled or established.

5. To make, enter into, maintain, execute or carry out any contract, obligation or agreement by which the parties thereto bind, or have bound, themselves not to sell, dispose of, transport or to prepare for market or transportation any article or commodity, or to make any contract of insurance at a price below a common standard or figure, or by which they shall agree, in any manner, to keep the price of such article or commodity, or charge for transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation, at a fixed or graded figure, or by which they shall, in any manner, affect or maintain the price of any commodity or article, or the cost of transportation or insurance, or the cost of the preparation of any product for market or transportation, between them or themselves and others, to preclude a free and unrestricted competition among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of any such article or commodity or business of transportation or insurance, or the preparation of any product for market or transportation, or by which they shall agree to pool, combine or unite any interest they may have in connection with the sale or purchase of any article or commodity, or charge for transportation or insurance, or charge for the preparation of any product for market or transportation, whereby its price or such charge might be in any manner affected.

6. To regulate, fix or limit the output of any article or commodity which may be manufactured, mined, produced or sold, or the amount of insurance which may be undertaken, or the amount of work that may be done in the preparation of any product for market or transportation.

7. To abstain from engaging in or continuing business, or from the purchase or sale of merchandise, produce or commodities partially or entirely within this State, or any portion thereof. [Acts 1903, p. 119.]

Art. 1633. [1455] "Monopoly."—A "monopoly" is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations when effected in either of the following methods:

1. When the direction of the affairs of two or more corporations is in any manner brought under the same management or control for the purpose of producing, or where such common management or control tends to create a trust as defined in the first article of this chapter.

2. Where any corporation acquires the shares or certificates of stock or bonds, franchise or other rights, or the physical properties, or any part thereof, of any other corporation or corporations, for the purpose of preventing or lessening, or where the effect of such acquisition tends to affect or lessen competition, whether such acquisition is accomplished directly or through the instrumentality of trustees or otherwise. [Id.]

Art. 1634. [1456] "Conspiracy in restraint of trade."—Either or any of the following acts shall constitute a conspiracy in restraint of trade:

1. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, who are engaged in buying or selling any article of merchandise, produce or any commodity, enter into an agreement or understanding to refuse to buy from or sell to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons, any article of merchandise, produce or commodity.

2. Where any two or more persons, firms, corporations or associations of persons, shall agree to boycott or threaten to refuse to buy from or sell to any person, firm, corporation or association of persons for buying from or selling to any other person, firm, corporation or association of persons. [Id.]

Art. 1635. [1466] Punishment.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1907, p. 194.]

Art. 1636. [1468] Persons required to testify.—Upon the application of the Attorney General or of any of his assistants, or of any district or county attorney, acting under the direction of the Attorney General, made to any county judge, or any justice of the peace, in this State, stating that he has reason to believe that a witness, who is to be found in the county in which such judge or justice is an officer, knows of a violation of any provision of this chapter, it shall be the duty of such judge, or justice, before whom such application is made, to have summoned and examined such witness in relation to violations of any provision of this chapter, said witness to be summoned as in criminal cases. The said witness shall be duly sworn; and the judge or justice shall cause the statements of the witness to be reduced to writing and signed and sworn to before him; such sworn statement shall be delivered to the attorney upon whose application the witness was summoned. Should the witness so summoned fail to appear or to make statements of the facts within his knowledge under oath, or to sign the same after it has been reduced to writing, he shall be guilty of contempt of court, and may be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be attached and imprisoned in jail until he makes a full statement of all the facts within his knowledge with reference to the matter inquired about. Any person who shall testify before any judge or justice as provided for in this chapter, or who shall testify as a witness for the State in the course of any statutory proceeding to secure testimony for the enforcement of this law, or in the course of any judicial proceeding to enforce the provisions of this chapter, shall not be subject to indictment or prosecution for any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he shall so give evidence, documentary or otherwise. [Acts 1907, p. 221.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 1637. [1470] Agreement to form trust, monopoly, etc.—If any person shall enter into an agreement or understanding of any character to form a trust, or to form a monopoly, or to form a conspiracy in restraint of trade, as these offenses are defined in this chapter, or shall form a trust, monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, or shall be a party to the formation of a trust or monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, or shall become a party to a trust or monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, or shall do any act in furtherance of or aid to such trust or monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1907, p. 457.]

Art. 1638. [1471] Operating in violation of this law.—If any person, shall, as a member, agent, employé, officer, director or stockholder of any business, firm, corporation or association of persons, form, in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or shall operate, in violation of such provisions, any such business, firm, corporation or association formed in violation of this chapter, or shall make any sale, or purchase, or any other contract, or do business for such business, firm, corporation or association, or shall do any other act which has the effect of violating or aiding in the violation of any provision of this chapter, or shall, with the intent or purpose of driving out competition or for the purpose of financially injuring competitors, sell within this State at less than cost of manufacture or production, or sell in such a way or give away within this State, products for the purpose of driving out competition or financially injuring competitors engaged in a similar business, or give secret rebates on such purchase for the purpose of the aforesaid, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1639. [1472] Persons outside State liable.—If any person, shall, outside of this State, do anything which, if done within this State, would constitute the formation of a trust or monopoly or conspiracy in the restraint of trade, as defined in this chapter, and shall cause or permit the trust or monopoly so formed by him to do business within this State, or shall cause or permit such trust, monopoly, or conspiracy in restraint of trade to have any operation or effect within this State, or, if such trust, monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, having been formed outside of said State, any person shall give effect to such trust, monopoly or conspiracy in this State, or he shall do anything to help or aid it doing business in this State, or otherwise violate the anti-trust laws of this State, or if any person shall buy or sell or otherwise make contracts for or aid any business, firm, corporation or association of persons, formed or operated in violation of any provision of this chapter, or so formed or operated as would be in violation of the laws of this State, if it had been formed within this State, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1640. [1473] Forming trusts, etc.—If any person, employé, agent, stockholder, or officer of any person, firm, association of persons, or corporation, now doing business in this State, have formed a trust, or monopoly, as defined in this chapter, or have formed a conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in this chapter, or shall do or perform any act of any character to carry out such trust, monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade, such person, employé, agent, stockholder, or officer, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than ten years. [Acts 1907, p. 458.]

Art. 1641. [1474] Venue.—Prosecutions under this chapter may be conducted in Travis County, or in any county wherein a trust, monopoly or conspiracy in restraint of trade is being carried on. [Acts 1907, p. 458.]

Art. 1642. [1477] Agricultural products and live stock exempt.—No provision of this law shall apply to agricultural products or live stock while in the hands of the producer or raiser. It shall be lawful for any person engaged in any kind of work or labor, manual or mental, or both, to associate with other such persons to form trades unions and other organizations for the purpose of protecting themselves in their personal work, personal labor, and personal service, in their respective pursuits and employments. [Acts 1899, p. 262.]

Art. 1643. [1478] Trade unions, etc.—It shall be lawful for any members of such trades union or other organization or association, or any other person, to induce or attempt to induce, by peaceable and lawful means, any person to accept any particular employment, or quit any particular employment in which such person may then be engaged, or to enter any pursuit, or refuse to enter any pursuit, or quit any pursuit, in which such person may then be engaged. No such member shall have the right to trespass upon the premises of another without the consent of the owner thereof. [Id.]

Art. 1644. [1479] Not to apply to combination, etc.—The foregoing article shall not be held to apply to any combination or combinations, association or associations of capital, or capital and persons, natural or artificial, formed for the purpose of limiting the production or consumption of labor's products, or for any other purpose in restraint of trade. Nothing herein contained shall be held to interfere with the terms and conditions of private contract with regard to the time of service, or other stipulations between employers and employés. Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal, affect or diminish the force and effect of any statute now existing on the subject of trusts, conspiracies against trade, pools and monopolies. [Id.]

CHAPTER FOUR

AMUSEMENTS—PUBLIC HOUSES OF

Art.

1645. "Public house of amusement."

1646. Discrimination against reputable productions.

1647. Exceptions.

1648. List of bookings.

Article 1645. [1480] "Public house of amusement."—All buildings constructed, fitted and equipped for the purpose of theaters, commonly called theaters, opera houses, play houses, or by whatever name designated, which are and shall hereafter be used for public performances, the production and exhibition of plays, dramas, operas and other shows of whatever nature to which admission fees are charged, are declared to be public houses of amusement. [Acts 1907, p. 21.]

Art. 1646. [1481] Discrimination against reputable productions.—No owner or lessee, or any manager, agent, employé or representative of the owner or lessee who may be in charge and having the care and management of any house of public amusement, shall discriminate against reputable theaters, operas, shows or other productions by whatever name known. Any owner or lessee, or any manager, agent, employé, or representative of the owner or lessee in charge of such house who shall fail and refuse to rent, lease and let such house of public amusement for one or more performances upon such terms and conditions as shall not be deemed unreasonable, extortionate or prohibitive to the agent, manager, proprietor or representative, who may in good faith make application therefor, of any reputable theater, opera or show, by whatever name known, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, one-half of which fine shall be paid to the complainant, the balance to go to the jury fund of the county in which such prosecution is had; and in addition, such person so convicted may be committed to the county jail for not more than ten days. Each violation of any provision of this article is a separate offense. [Acts 1907, p. 21.]

Art. 1647. [1481] Exceptions.—If at the time of the application to lease or rent such house of public amusement for said purposes, it shall be shown by the owner, lessee or other person in charge thereof that said house of public amusement has in good faith been already leased, let or rented to other persons or parties, and that other bookings have in good faith been made for the date or dates so applied for, and not with the intention of evading the provisions of this chapter, then the penalties provided by the preceding article shall not be imposed. [Id.]

Art. 1648. [1482] List of bookings.—Owners, lessees, managers or other persons in charge of such houses of public amusement shall make and keep in convenient form a list of all bookings of shows for such houses, with the dates specifically set out therein, and said list of bookings shall be exhibited upon request, to all persons applying therefor who in good faith desire to lease or rent such house or houses for the purposes indicated in the first article of this chapter. Each owner, lessee or other person in charge of such house who shall fail or refuse to keep and exhibit such list of bookings as required herein, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars. Each such failure or refusal is a separate offense. [Id.]

CHAPTER FIVE

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION

Art.

1649. Consolidation of railroad corporations.
1650. Exceptions.

Article 1649. [646-7-8-9] Consolidation of railroad corporations.—Railroad corporation, or other corporation, as used in this article shall mean any corporation, company, person or association of persons, who own or control, manage or operate any line of railroad in this State. No railroad corporation, or other corporation, or the lessee, purchasers or managers of any railroad corporation shall consolidate the stocks, property, works or franchises of such corporation with, or lease or purchase the stocks, property, works or franchises of any railroad corporation owning or having under its control or management a competing or parallel line; nor shall any officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of such railroad corporation act or become an officer, agent, manager, lessee or purchaser of any other corporation in leasing or purchasing any parallel or competing line. Any officer, director, manager, superintendent, agent, purchaser or lessee of any such railroad corporation, or other corporation, who violates or aids in violating any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one thousand dollars nor more than four thousand dollars. Indictments and prosecutions under this article may be found and made in any county through or into which the line of railroad may run. [Acts 1887, p. 137.]

Art. 1650. [647] Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to one who has not by virtue of his office, agency, or position, a voice in the management of the railway company, or who has not, by virtue of his office, agency or position, some power to prevent a violation of such law. [Id.]

CHAPTER SIX

FREE PASSES, TRANSPORTATION AND FRANKS

Art.

1651. Free pass law.
1652. Exceptions.
1653. Using another's pass.
1654. Discrimination by device.
1655. Unlawfully using free pass.
1656. Evading law.
1657. May be compelled to testify.
1658. Reduced rate for officers.

SEPARATE COACH LAW

1659. Separate coaches.
1660. Exceptions.
1661. Preference in transportation.

Article 1651. [1532] Free pass law.—Any president, director, officer, employé or agent of any steam or electric railway company, street railway company, interurban railway company, or other chartered transportation company, express company, sleeping car company, telegraph or telephone company, who shall sell any transportation for anything except money or knowingly give, grant, issue, or cause to be issued, a free pass, a frank, a privilege, or any substitute for, or in lieu thereof, for the transportation of any person, article or thing, or the sending or transmitting any messages over wire or other means of transmitting messages in this State, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than two thousand dollars, and may, in addition thereto, in the discretion of the jury, be confined in the penitentiary not less than six months nor more than two years. [Acts 1907, p. 93.]

Art. 1652. [1533] Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply in cases where the laws of this State provide that such companies as are referred to in said article, or the receivers or lessees thereof, or persons operating the same, or the officers, agents, or employés thereof, may grant free passes, franks, privileges, or substitutes for pay to or for the persons, articles or things referred to and mentioned in said laws and said article.

Art. 1653. [1534] Using another's pass.—If any person shall present, or offer to use, in his own behalf, any permit or frank whatever, to travel, pass or to convey any person or property or message which has been issued to any other person, or shall, knowing that he is not entitled under the law, apply to any railway, express, telegraph or telephone company, officer, agent, lessee or receiver thereof, for any free pass, frank, privilege or a substitute for pay given or to be used instead of the regular fare or rate for transportation, or for any other consideration, except money, he shall be confined in jail not less than thirty days and not more than twelve months, and be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 1907, p. 95.]

Art. 1654. [1535] Discrimination by device.—No steam or electric railway company, street railway company, interurban railway company, or other chartered transportation company, express company, sleeping car company, telegraph or telephone company, shall directly or indirectly, by any special rate, rebate, draw-back, or other device or exchange, demand, charge or collect or receive from any person, firm, association of persons or corporation a greater or less or different compensation for any service rendered, or to be rendered, in the transportation of passengers, property or messages, than it charges, demands, collects or receives from any other person, firm, association of persons or corporation for doing for him, them or it, a like service, if the transportation or transmission is a like kind of traffic or service under substantially similar circumstances and conditions. [Acts 1907, p. 96.]

Art. 1655. [1537] Unlawfully using free pass.—Any person, other than the persons excepted by law, who uses such free ticket, free pass or free transportation, frank or privilege over any railway or other transportation line or sleeping or express car, telegraph or telephone line mentioned in the preceding articles of this chapter, for any distance under the control and operation of either of said companies or under their authority, or shall knowingly or wilfully by any means or device whatsoever obtain, use or enjoy from any such company a less fare or rate than is charged, demanded, collected or received by any such company from any other person, firm, association of persons or corporations for doing for him, them or it, a like service, if the transportation or service is of a like kind of traffic or service under substantially similar circumstances and conditions, such person or such officer or agent who acts for such corporation or company thus favored, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1656. [1538] Evading law.—Any director, officer, agent or any receiver, trustee, lessee or person acting for, or employed by, any company subject to the provisions of the preceding articles of this chapter, who alone, or with any other corporation, company, persons or party, shall wilfully do, or cause to be done, or shall wilfully suffer, or permit to be done, any act, matter or thing in said articles prohibited, or who shall aid or abet therein, or shall wilfully omit or fail to do any act, matter or thing in this Act required to be done, or shall cause or wilfully suffer or permit any act, matter or thing so directed, required by said articles to be done, not to be done, or shall aid or abet any such omission or failure, or shall be guilty of any infraction of said articles, or shall aid or abet therein, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars; and, if the offense for which any person shall be convicted under this article shall be unlawful discrimination in rates, fares or charges for the transportation of passengers or property, or the transmission of messages, such person may, in addition to the fines hereinbefore provided for, at the discretion of the jury, be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than six months nor more than two years. [Id.]

Art. 1657. [1539] May be compelled to testify.—In any investigation or prosecution under any provision of this chapter, the court or tribunal in which the same is pending may compel any person to attend and give testimony, and to produce such papers, books and documents as may be desired by the State. No person shall be exempt from giving testimony therein, but no criminal action or proceeding shall be brought or prosecuted against such witness on account of any testimony so given or furnished by him. [Act 1907, p. 97.]

Art. 1658. Reduced rate for officers.—Any steam railroad company or any electric interurban railroad company or any person or persons operating the same, or any receiver or receivers, or lessee or lessees thereof, shall be permitted to transport between points wholly within this State at the reduced rate of one cent per mile, while traveling on official business connected with their respective offices, the following named peace officers, to-wit: the Adjutant General; State Rangers; the sheriff of any county, his deputies to be designated by him; constables; chiefs of police and assistant chiefs and captains; city marshals, chief of the detectives of any county or city, and assistant detectives. Any such peace officer who shall procure transportation over any such railroad between points in this State under the provisions of this article and shall use the same for any other than official business connected with the duties of his office, or any person not entitled to the benefits of this law who shall falsely represent himself as entitled to such privileges and shall purchase or offer to purchase transportation over any such railroad company at the rate provided for herein, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months, or both. [Acts 1921, p. 171.]

SEPARATE COACH LAW

Art. 1659. [1523] [1010] Separate coaches.—1. Every railway company, street car company and interurban railway company, lessee, manager, or receiver thereof doing business in this State as a common carrier of passengers for hire shall provide separate coaches or compartments for the accommodation of white and negro passengers.

2. "Negro" defined.—The term negro as used herein includes every person of African descent as defined by the Statutes of this State.

3. "Separate coach" defined.—Each compartment of a railroad coach divided by good and substantial wooden partitions with a door therein shall be deemed a separate coach within the meaning of this law, and each separate coach shall bear in some conspicuous place appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart; and each compartment of a street car or interurban car divided by board or marker placed in a conspicuous place, bearing appropriate words in plain letters indicating the race for which it is set apart, shall be sufficient as a separate compartment within the meaning of this law.

4. Violating separate coach law.—If any passenger upon a train or street car or interurban car provided with separate coaches or compartments as above provided shall ride in any coach or compartment not designated for his race after having been forbidden to do so by the conductor in charge of the train, he shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

5. Duty of conductor.—Conductors of passenger trains, street cars, or interurban lines provided with separate coaches shall have the authority to refuse any passenger admittance to any coach or compartment in which they are not entitled to ride under the provisions of this law, and the conductor in charge of the train or street car or interurban car shall have authority, and it shall be his duty, to remove from a coach or street car, or interurban car, any passenger not entitled to ride therein under the provisions of this law, and upon his refusal to do so knowingly he shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars.

6. Fines to go to School Fund.—All fines collected under the provisions of this law shall go to the available common school fund of the county in which conviction is had. Prosecutions under this law may be instituted in any county through or into which said railroad may be run or have an office.

Art. 1660. Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to any excursion train or street car or interurban car as such for the benefit of either race, nor to such freight trains as carry passengers in cabooses, nor be so construed as to prevent railroad companies from hauling sleeping cars, dining or cafe cars or chair cars attached to their trains to be used exclusively by either race, separately but not jointly, or to prevent nurses from traveling in any coach or compartment with their employer, or employes upon the train or cars in the discharge of their duty.

Art. 1661. Preference in transportation.—By the word "preference" as used in this article is meant any advantage, privilege, right, opportunity, precedence, choice, favor, priority, or gain that is or may be, or is sought or purposed to be accorded, granted, given, allowed, permitted or extended to any person, place, or thing, as against any other person, place, or thing in the receipt, carriage, transportation, movement, placing, storing, handling, caring for or delivery of any freight, commodity or article, or any railroad car or by any common carrier in this State, or any agent or employé thereof. Any person who shall ask, solicit, demand, or receive, directly or indirectly, from any person, corporate or otherwise, any money, reward, favor, benefit, or other thing of value, or the promise of either, as a consideration for procuring or effecting, or with the intent of the person asking, soliciting, demanding, charging or receiving the same, or the promise thereof, that such person can or will, seek or undertake to procure or effect any preference in the receipt, carriage, transportation, storing, movement, placing, handling, caring for, or delivery of any freight, commodity or article, or any railroad car by any common carrier in this State or any agent or employé thereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars and be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months. [Acts 1921, p. 34.]

CHAPTER SIX A

PASSENGER ELEVATORS

Art. 1661a. Safety devices.—Any person, or the members of any partnership, owning, leasing or in charge or control of any building or edifice operating passenger elevators, and the board of directors, president, general manager, or other agent or employé of any corporation, or any trustee or receiver of such corporation, which is the owner, lessee, or in charge of any such building or edifice operating passenger elevators therein, who shall violate the provisions of this Act shall each be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five ($5) dollars nor more than twenty-five ($25), and each day such elevator is operated without such device shall constitute a separate offense. [Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 29, p. 147, § 3.]

CHAPTER SEVEN

OPERATING RAILROADS

Art.
1662.	Station to bear name of post office.
1663.	Exceptions.
1664.	To do repair work in Texas.
1665.	Exceptions.
1666.	Air brake inspection.
1667.	Exceptions to brake inspection.
1668.	Using tracks to repair cars.
1669.	Duty of train dispatcher.
1670.	Failing to bulletin passenger train.
1671.	Animal found dead along railroad.
1672.	Failure to ring bell and blow whistle.
1673.	Unlawfully boarding a train.

Article 1662. [1567] Station to bear name of post office.—Any officer, agent or representative of any corporation or receiver operating any line of railroad in whole or in part within this State who shall retain, maintain or establish a name for any railway station or depot in any incorporated or unincorporated town or city within this State other than the name of the town or city which has and bears the name of its post office so given by the United States Government shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, or both. The venue shall be in the county where the station in question is located. [Acts 1909, p. 89.]

Art. 1663. [1568] Exceptions.—The preceding article shall not apply to two or more incorporated or unincorporated towns or cities which now are situated within five miles of each other, and which each have therein established a post office named and designated by the United States Government, nor to those cases where the post office name is so similar in sound or otherwise to that of some other station upon such railroad as that confusion in train orders and directions may arise therefrom. Where the name of such place is changed by the Federal postal department such railway shall not be required to again change the name of its station. [Id.]

Art. 1664. [1561-1562-1564] To do repair work in Texas.—All railroad corporations operating in, and having their repair shops within this State, are required to repair, renovate or rebuild in this State all defective or broken cars, coaches, locomotives or other equipment, owned or leased by said corporation in this State, when such rolling stock is within the State, and shall be prohibited from sending or removing any such rolling stock out of this State to be repaired, renovated or rebuilt, when the same is in a defective or broken condition, and within this State, when such railway shall have, or be under obligation to have proper facilities in this State to do such work. Any lessee, receiver, superintendent or agent of such railway corporation who violates any provision of this article shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1909, p. 73.]

Art. 1665. [1563] Exceptions.—The preceding article does not apply to companies having less than sixty continuous miles of railroad in operation in this State, nor in case of strike, fire or other unforeseen casualties and emergencies; and is not to be construed to require a violation of the Federal safety appliance law; and no railway shall be required to haul such disabled equipment a greater distance for repairs at a point within this State than would be necessary to reach their repair shops in another State. [Id.]

Art. 1666. Air brake inspection.—The air brakes and air brake attachments on each train in this State must be inspected by a competent inspector before such train leaves its division terminal. Whoever operates or causes to be operated any such train without such inspection shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1911, p. 106.]

Art. 1667. Exceptions to brake inspection.—The preceding article shall not apply to tram roads engaged in hauling logs to a sawmill, nor to railroads under forty miles in length. [Id.]

Art. 1668. Using tracks to repair cars.—No person, firm, corporation or receiver operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in repairing or manufacturing cars within this State, shall use any tracks not equipped with derailing devices upon which to repair or manufacture cars; such derailing devices to be provided with private locks, to be kept locked at all times when tracks are in use. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit temporary repairs to cars on tracks other than where cars are regularly repaired or manufactured. Any person operating any railroad, machine shop or other concern engaged in the repairing or manufacture of cars in this State who shall violate this law shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. Each day such violation shall exist shall be a separate offense. [Acts 1913, p. 334.]

Art. 1669. Duty of train dispatcher.—The train dispatcher shall keep all agents at stations having telegraph offices in or near them informed of the movement of each passenger train one hour prior to the time such train is due, according to the published schedule, at such stations. If any such passenger train is delayed for more than one hour, according to said published schedule, then it shall be the duty of such train dispatcher to inform such local agent how late said train is and the last telegraph station passed. If such train dispatcher shall fail or refuse to furnish such information, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars for each offense. [Acts 1st C. S. 1903, p. 21; Acts 1913, p. 318.]

Art. 1670. Failing to bulletin passenger train.—Every railroad agent at stations having telegraphic communication with the train dispatcher of the railroad, shall ascertain one hour before the schedule time of the arrival of passenger trains, if such train is on time, and if on time, bulletin that fact on a board provided by the company and placed in some conspicuous place at the passenger station. If the train is late, such agent shall bulletin how late, and the last telegraph station passed by such train. If later than one hour, said agent shall thereafter ascertain the latest news from such train dispatcher, or some other reliable source, every hour, and bulletin such information and the time of the probable arrival of such train. If such agent shall fail or refuse to perform any duty required of him by this article, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense. [Acts 1903, p. 162; Acts 1913, p. 350.]

Art. 1671. Animal found dead along railroad.—Whenever any animal is killed or found dead upon the roadbed or right of way of any railroad company in this State, the section foreman of the railroad where said animal is killed or found dead, shall take and make a description of such animal, stating its kind, the marks and brands, color and apparent age, and any other description that may serve to identify said animal, which description must be taken and made before said animal be buried or otherwise disposed of, and shall transmit same to the County Clerk of the county in which said animal is found or killed, within ten days from the date of finding or killing, which description shall be by said County Clerk filed and kept of record in his office without exacting any fees from the section foreman for filing same, and any person violating any of these provisions shall be fined not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars. [Acts 1915, p. 126.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 1672. [1524] Failure to ring bell and blow whistle.—Any engineer having charge of a locomotive engine while such engine is approaching a place where two lines of railway cross each other who shall before reaching such railway crossing fail to bring such engine to a full stop, or who shall fail to blow the whistle and ring the bell on such engine at the distance of at least eighty rods from the place where the railroad shall cross any public road or street, or who shall fail to keep said bell ringing until such engine shall have crossed said road or street or stopped, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars, provided that the full stop at such crossings may be discontinued when the railroads crossing each other shall put into full operation at such crossing an interlocking switch and signal apparatus, and shall keep a flagman in attendance at such crossings. [Acts 1893, p. 87.]

Art. 1673. [1531] [1010h] Unlawfully boarding a train.—Whoever boards any passenger, freight or other railway train, whether moving or standing, for any purpose without in good faith, intending to become a passenger thereon and with no lawful business thereon, and with intent to obtain a free ride on such train, however short the distance, without the consent of the person or persons in charge thereof, shall be fined not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars. [Acts 1895, p. 178.]

CHAPTER EIGHT

BILLS OF LADING

Art.

- 1674. Common carriers to issue bills of lading.
- 1675. What bills of lading may contain.
- 1676. "Straight" and "order" bills of lading.
- 1677. Authority of agents of carriers to be posted.
- 1678. Failure or refusal to issue bill of lading.
- 1679. Issuing fraudulent bill of lading.
- 1680. Forgery or uttering forgery of bill of lading.
- 1681. Duplication of bill of lading.
- 1682. Transfer of bill of lading.
- 1683. Procuring false bill of lading.

Article 1674. [1540] Common carriers to issue bills of lading.—All railroad companies, steamship companies and other common carriers, or receivers thereof, except express companies and pipe line companies, upon the receipt of freight for transportation shall issue bills of lading therefor, and authenticate, validate or certify such bills of lading, when the same shall be demanded by the shipper, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. [Acts S. S. 1910, p. 138.]

Art. 1675. [1541] What bills of lading may contain.—Each bill of lading issued by a common carrier, to which the provisions of this chapter apply, for an intrastate shipment, shall contain, and each bill of lading issued by such carrier for interstate or foreign shipment may contain, within the written or printed terms, in addition to the other requirements of this chapter, the following:

1. The date of its issuance;
2. The name of the person from whom the goods have been received;
3. The place where the goods have been received;
4. The place to which the goods are to be transported;
5. A statement of whether the goods will be delivered to a specific person or to the order of a specific person;
6. A description of the goods, or the packages containing them, which may, however, be in the terms such as may be approved by the Railroad Commission;
7. The signature of the carrier, or the duly authorized agent of the carrier; said bill of lading shall be so signed with pen and ink, and the person signing the same shall attach his signature below all written, printed or stamped matter contained in said bill of lading, except the words, "Authorized agent of _____" (stating the name of his principal), which shall appear below his signature;

8. The carrier may insert in a bill of lading issued by him any other terms and conditions, provided such terms and conditions shall not be contrary to law or public policy or the orders promulgated by the Railroad Commission; and provided further, that no language shall be inserted in any bill having the effect of limiting or avoiding any of the provisions of this chapter;

9. Provided, that when any form of bill of lading has been approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, and has been adopted by any carrier and made a part of its tariff, then such bill of lading, as to interstate and foreign shipments, shall be a sufficient compliance with the provisions of this article. [Id.]

Art. 1676. [1542] "Straight" and "order" bills of lading.—A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned or destined to a specific person is a "straight" bill of lading, and a bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to the order of any person named in such bill of lading is an "order" bill of lading. Order bills of lading shall not be issued in sets or in duplicate, but copies thereof may be issued; provided such copies have written or printed across the face thereof: "Copy—Not Negotiable." [Id.]

Art. 1677. [1544] Authority of agents of carriers to be posted.—The carriers affected by this chapter shall keep posted for public inspection in some conspicuous place in the station or place where freight is received an instrument of writing, authorizing the agent of such carrier, or person authorized to act for such carrier, selected for such purpose, to execute, sign and issue bills of lading; and the agent, or person so authorized to act for said carrier, so selected, shall attach his signature to such instrument in the same manner that he signs bills of lading. [Id.]

Art. 1678. [1545] Failure or refusal to issue bill of lading.—Any officer, agent or servant of any carrier, railroad or transportation company, or receiver thereof, affected by this chapter, who shall fail or refuse to issue a bill of lading in accordance with this chapter and the regulations and orders of the Railroad Commission, when the same is rightfully demanded, shall be fined not exceeding two hundred dollars or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months or both. [Id.]

Art. 1679. [1546] Issuing fraudulent bill of lading.—Any officer, agent, or servant of a carrier, railroad or other transportation company, or receiver thereof, affected by this chapter, who shall wrongfully issue a bill of lading, with the intent to defraud any person, or who shall, with intent to defraud, knowingly misdescribe any goods, articles or other property, or the quantity or amount thereof, described in any bill of lading, or who shall knowingly issue a bill of lading without authority so to do, with the intent to defraud any person, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two and not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1680. [1547] Forgery or uttering forgery of bill of lading.—Whoever shall forge the name of any agent of a railroad company, or other common carrier, to a bill of lading, with the intent to defraud, or who shall forge the name of any person to any certificate attached to a bill of lading issued by such carrier, with the intent to defraud, or who shall knowingly utter or attempt to utter any such forged instrument with intent to defraud, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than fifteen years. [Id.]

Art. 1681. [1548] Duplication of bill of lading.—Any officer, agent or servant of a common carrier who knowingly issues, or aids in issuing, or knowingly permits to be issued in parts or sets, or in duplicate, an order bill of lading, shall be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars, and be confined in the penitentiary not exceeding five years. [Id.]

Art. 1682. [1549] Transfer of bill of lading.—Whoever knowingly, and with the intent to defraud, negotiates or transfers a bill of lading issued in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or who knowingly and with the intent to defraud, negotiates or transfers a bill of lading which contains any statement of fact that is untrue, and which statement relates to a material matter, shall be fined not exceeding five thousand dollars and be imprisoned in the penitentiary not exceeding ten years. [Id.]

Art. 1683. [1550] Procuring false bill of lading.—Whoever shall knowingly and fraudulently procure and cause the agent of any common carrier to make and set forth in any bill of lading issued by him on behalf of such carrier any statements or representations which are false and which materially misrepresent the number, amount or quantity of the goods, chattels or other articles therein described, or who shall procure or cause any agent of a common carrier to issue to him a bill of lading with the intent to defraud, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two or more than five years. [Id.]

CHAPTER NINE

RAILROAD COMMISSION

Art.

- 1684. Refusal to permit inspection.
- 1685. Refusal to answer.
- 1686. False billing or classification.
- 1687. "Unjust discrimination."
- 1688. Not applicable, when.
- 1689. Persons compelled to testify.
- 1690. False statement to secure bond registration.
- 1690a. Violation of orders.

Article 1684. [1514] [1007] Refusal to permit inspection.—Any officer, agent or employé of any railroad company who shall, upon proper demand, fail or refuse to exhibit to any member of the Railroad Commission of Texas or any person authorized to investigate the same, any book or paper of such railroad company, which is in the possession or under the control of such officer, agent, or employé, shall be fined not less than one hundred and twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. [Acts 1891, p. 60.]

Art. 1685. [1515] [1008] Refusal to answer.—If any officer or employé of a railroad company shall fail or refuse to fill out and return any blanks to said Railroad Commission as provided by law, or fail or refuse to answer any question therein propounded, or give a false answer to any such question, where the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or shall evade the answer to any such question, such person shall be fined five hundred dollars for each day he shall fail to perform such duty, after the expiration of the time allowed by law to so answer. [Id.]

Art. 1686. [1516] [1009] False billing or classification.—Any officer or agent of any railroad subject to the jurisdiction of the Railroad Commission, who by means of false billing, false classification, false weight, or by any other device, shall suffer or permit any persons to obtain transportation for property at less than the regular rates then in force on such railroad, or who by means of false billing, false classification, false weighing, or by any device whatever shall charge any person, firm or corporation more for the transportation of property than the regular rates, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1687. [1517] "Unjust discrimination."—If any officer, agent, clerk, servant or employé, or any receiver, or his servant, agent or employé, of any railroad company in this State shall, directly or indirectly, or by any special rate, rebate, drawback, or other device, for, and on behalf of such railroad company, knowingly charge, demand, contract for, collect or receive from any person, firm or corporation a greater or less compensation for any service rendered, or to be rendered, by any such railroad company than such railroad company, or its said officers, agents, clerks, servants or employés, or receiver thereof, charges, demands, contracts for, collects or receives from any other person, firm or corporation for doing a like and contemporaneous service, or if any officer, agent, clerk, servant or employé, or receiver, or his agents, servants or employés, of any railroad company in this State, shall, on behalf of such railroad company, make or give any undue or unreasonable preference or any advantage to any particular person, company, firm, corporation or locality, as to any service rendered or to be rendered by such railroad company, or shall subject any particular description of traffic on such railroad company to any undue or unreasonable prejudice, delay or disadvantage in any respect whatever, such officer, clerk, servant or employé, or receiver, his agents, servants or employés, of such railroad company, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years. [Acts 1899, p. 203.]

Art. 1688. [1518] Not applicable, when.—Nothing herein shall prevent the carriage, storing or handling, by railroad companies in this State, or by their agents, officers, clerks, servants and employés, of freight free or at reduced rates, or to prevent railroads, their agents, employés and officers, from giving free transportation or freight rates to any railroad officers, agents, employés, attorneys, stockholders or directors, or to any other officer or person, when permitted by the laws of this State. [Id.]

Art. 1689. [1519] Persons compelled to testify.—Any court, officer or tribunal having jurisdiction of any offense mentioned in article 1687, or any district or county attorney may subpoena persons and compel their attendance as witnesses to testify as to any violation of said article; and any person so summoned and examined shall not be liable to prosecution for any offense by reason of violation of said article about which he may testify; and for any offense by reason of violation of said article, a conviction may be had upon the unsupported evidence of an accomplice or participant. [Id.]

Art. 1690. [1521] False statement to secure bond registration.—Each railroad director, president, secretary or other official who shall knowingly make any false statement upon which to secure the registration of any bond or other evidence of debt, as required by the law regulating the issuance of stocks and bonds, or who shall by false statement knowingly made procure of the Railroad Commission direction to the Secretary of State to register the same, and which shall be by the Secretary of State registered, or shall with knowledge of such fraud negotiate or cause to be negotiated any such bond or other security issued in violation of law, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than fifteen years. [Acts 1893, p. 59.]

Art. 1690a. Violation of orders.—Every officer, agent, or employee of any corporation and every other person who violates or fails to comply with, or who procures, aids, or abets in the violation of any provision of this Act or fails to obey, observe, or comply with any order, decision, rule or regulation, direction, demand, or requirement of the Commission shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day any provision of this Act or any rule, regulation, order, etc., of the Commission is violated shall constitute a separate offense, and the fact that the Commission may have caused prosecution for violation of its rules, regulations, etc., under the penal section of this Act shall not operate to prevent or limit the exercise of the authority of the Commission to suspend, revoke, alter or amend permits or certificates as provided in Section 10 of this Act. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 399, ch. 270, § 14.]

Sections 1-13 and 15-19 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 399, ch. 270, are published as article 911a of the Civil Statutes. Section 20 repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws, and section 21 provides that if any provision is held invalid such holding shall not affect the remaining provisions.

CHAPTER TEN

NURSERY STOCK

Art.

1691. Diseased nursery stock.
 1692. Examination.
 1693. Shipment.
 1694. Carrier not to receive, when.
 1695. Hindering Commissioner.
 1696. False representations.
 1697. Giving false certificate.
 1698. Definitions.
 1699. Unlawful delivery.
 1700. Fraud in sales.

Article 1691. [717] Diseased nursery stock.

—No person in this State shall knowingly or wilfully keep any peach, almond, apricot, nectarine or other trees, affected with the contagious disease known as yellows; nor keep for sale any apple, peach, plum or other tree affected with nematode galls, crown galls, fire blight, or root rot. No person shall knowingly or wilfully keep any plum, cherry or other trees affected with the contagious disease or fungus known as black knot or plum canker; nor any tree, shrub or plant infested with or by the San Jose scale or other insect pest dangerously injurious to or destructive of trees, shrubs, or other plants; nor any grapefruit, orange, or lemon trees, citrus stocks, cape jasmines or other trees, plants or shrubs infested with "white fly," Florida red scale, cottony cushion scale, wooly aphid, or other injurious insect pests, or citrus canker, or other contagious diseases of citrus fruits; nor subtropical plants, shrubs, evergreens or ornamentals; nor any china, forest or other trees, shrubs, or plants infested with injurious insect pests or contagious diseases. [Acts 1909, p. 316; Acts 1921, p. 100.]

Art. 1692. [718] Examination.—The Commissioner of Agriculture shall cause to be made at least once each year an examination of each nursery or other place where nursery stock is exposed for sale. If such stock so examined is apparently free in all respects from any contagious or infectious disease or dangerously injurious insect pests, the Commissioner shall issue to the owner or proprietor of such stock a certificate reciting that such stock so examined was at the time of such examination apparently free from any such disease or pest. No such certificate shall be negotiable or transferable, and shall be void if sold or transferred. Any such sale or transference shall be punishable as provided by the succeeding article. [Acts 1909, p. 316.]

Art. 1693. [719] Shipment.—All nursery stock consigned for shipment, or shipped by freight, express or other means of transportation shall be accompanied by a copy of said certificate attached to each car, box, bale, bundle or package. When such box, bale, bundle or package contains nursery stock to be delivered to more than one person, partnership or corporation, each portion of such nursery stock to be so delivered shall also bear a copy of such certificate of inspection. Whoever sends out or delivers within this State, trees, vines, shrubs, plants, buds or cuttings, commonly known as nursery stock, which are subject to the attacks of insects and diseases enumerated herein, unless he has in his possession a copy of said certificate, dated within a year thereof; or shall deface or destroy such certificate, or wrongfully be in possession of such certificate, or fail to attach proper tags on each shipment, such tags bearing a copy of said certificate, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1694. [721] Carrier not to receive, when.—No transportation company or common carrier shall receive, transport or deliver shipments of nursery stock originating either within or without this State which do not bear shipping tags or labels showing the certificate of inspection of the state in which it originates, together with the permit from this State if it be a shipment from without this State. Any person without this State, or any agent of any transportation company or common carrier, or any person who shall violate any provision of this article, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1695. [722] Hindering Commissioner.—Whoever refuses or prevents entrance upon any premises under his control to the Commissioner of Agriculture, or his representative, seeking such entrance on official duty, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1696. [722] False representations.—Whoever shall make false representations for the purpose of obtaining any such certificate of inspection from the Commissioner of Agriculture, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1697. [724] Giving false certificate.—If the Commissioner of Agriculture or any of his agents or employes gives a false certificate or a certificate without an actual examination of the nursery stock for which said certificate is given, to any owner, proprietor or lessee of any nursery, or owner of nursery stock, or to any other person, for use under the provisions of this law, he shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1698. [725-6-7] Definitions.—1. "Nursery stock."—The term "Nursery stock" within the meaning of this law, shall include all fruit trees and vines, shade trees and forest trees, whether such shade or forest trees be especially grown for sale in a nursery, or taken from the forests and offered for sale; all scions, seedlings, roses, evergreens, shrubbery or ornamentals, also such greenhouse plants or propagation stock, all classes of berry plants, cut flowers taken from plants, bushes, shrubs or other trees growing in this State, which may be a medium for disseminating injurious insect pests and contagious diseases.

2. "Nursery."—The term "nursery" shall be construed to mean any grounds or premises on which nursery stock is grown, or exposed for sale. "Being in the nursery business" applies to any individual, partnership or corporation which may either sell or grow, or both grow and sell, nursery stock, regardless of the variety or quantity of nursery stock sold or grown.

3. "Dealer" and "agent."—The term "dealer" shall be construed to apply to any individual, partnership or corporation not growers of nursery stock, but who buy and sell nursery stock for the purpose of reselling and reshipping under their own name or title, independently of any control of those from whom they purchase. An "agent of a nursery or dealer" shall be construed to apply to any individual, partnership or corporation selling nursery stock, either as being entirely under the control of the nursery or dealer with whom the nursery stock offered for barter and traffic originates, or some cooperative basis for handling nursery stock with the grower or dealer, as specified in this article. Any such agent shall have proper credentials from the dealer he represents or cooperates with, and failing in that, any such agent shall be classed as a dealer, and subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted relative to them, and shall be amenable to the same penalties for violations of any provisions of this law. [Id.]

Art. 1699. [727] Unlawful delivery.—Any agent of any dealer or nurseryman, who shall knowingly deliver to any individual, partnership or corporation, any tree, shrub, or plant infested or diseased, as specified in the provisions of this law, even though such trees, shrubs, or plants are received in a box, bale or package, bearing a certificate of inspection, as provided in this law, shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars for each such delivery to each individual, partnership or corporation. [Id.]

Art. 1700 [728-9] Fraud in sales.—Whoever knowingly makes any false representation of the name, quality or nature of any nursery product for the purpose of inducing any vendee to buy the same, or who knowingly delivers to any vendee any such product other than that contracted for, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in jail not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both. The statute of limitation shall not begin to run against a prosecution under this article until such product shall have developed and disclosed the fraud. [Acts 1907, p. 304.]

CHAPTER TEN A

PLANT DISEASES AND PESTS

Art. 1700a. Quarantine and insect and plant disease control.—Any person or persons who shall sell, carry, or transport any plant, plant product, thing or substance from any area quarantined as provided for herein, except under such rules and regulations as may be provided therefor by the Commissioner of Agriculture; or who shall carry, transport or receive into any area declared by the said Commissioner a "pest-free" zone any plant, plant product, thing or substance declared to be dangerous to the agricultural interest of such pest-free zone, except under such rules and regulations as may be provided therefor by the Commissioner of Agriculture; or who shall violate any rule, regulation or ordinance herein authorized, or who shall fail or refuse to do any act herein authorized to be commanded to be done; or who shall sell or offer to sell or transport from any part of the state to another or into the state any plants or plant produce declared by the Commissioner to be carriers of dangerous insect pests or plant diseases, except under such rules and regulations as may be provided therefor by the said Commissioner; shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars, and each thing sold, transported, and each act in violation hereof shall be considered a separate offense. Provided that when any plants, plant products, things, or substances, prohibited shipment or sale or distribution by any of the provisions of this act, shall be transported in violation hereof, the Commissioner or his authorized agents shall be authorized to cause the same to be destroyed or returned to the owners thereof, at the option of such owner. Said Commissioner or his authorized agents shall make known by telegraph or letter, as he may deem necessary, such fact of such illegal shipment and give a reasonable time for reply thereto, and if such reply is not made, then such infested or contaminated plants or plant products, things, or substances shall be destroyed in such manner as to protect the agricultural and horticultural interests of this State. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 97, ch. 69, § 5.]

Sections 1-4 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 97, ch. 69, are published as articles 135a-135d of the Civil Statutes. Section 6 provides that the Act shall be cumulative of all laws providing for quarantine and insect and plant disease control and shall not repeal any law or part of law except when in direct conflict.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

AGRICULTURAL SEEDS

Art.

- 1701. "Agricultural seeds."
- 1702. Label.
- 1703. Mixture of.
- 1704. Exceptions.
- 1705. Samples.
- 1706. Penalty.
- 1707. Preventing inspection or sampling.
- 1708. Cotton seed.

Article 1701. "Agricultural seeds."—Agricultural seeds are defined as the seeds of alfalfa, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, clovers, corn, cotton, saccharine sorghums, non-saccharine sorghums, broom corn, small grains, including rice, cowpeas, soybeans, velvet beans, peanuts, vetch, rape, millet, Johnson grass, Bermuda grass, Kentucky blue grass, orchard grass, sudan grass, onion and Rhodes grass, which are to be used for sowing or seeding purposes. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1919, p. 158.]

Art. 1702. Label.—Agricultural seeds, except as herein otherwise provided, which are offered or exposed for sale within this State for seeding purposes, in lots of ten pounds or more, shall bear a plainly written or printed statement in the English language stating:

- (a) Commonly accepted name of agricultural seed.
- (b) Correct weight in pounds and ounces.
- (c) Name of State where seed was grown, and if unknown, a statement that the locality where grown is unknown.
- (d) Approximate percentage of germible seed as determined by germination test and date on which germination test was made.

Name and address of person, firm or party or agency making the germination test, provided however, that the statement shall not be a basis for prosecution under this chapter.

- (e) Name and address of vendor.
- (f) The approximate percentage, by weight, or purity, meaning freedom of such agricultural seed from foreign matter and from other seed distinguishable by their appearance.
- (g) The approximate total percentage, by weight, of weed seeds or other foreign matter.

(h) The name and the approximate number per pound of each kind of the seed of the following named noxious weeds which are present at the rate of, or in excess of, one such noxious weed seed in five grams of agricultural seed. Such noxious weed seed are defined as seeds of dodder (cascuta, various species), bind weed or wild morning glory (convolvulus, various species), blue weed, (helianthus ciliatus), wire grass (Paspalum distichum), Bermuda grass, Johnson grass, and all other seeds or foreign matter known by science to be noxious are hereby defined as noxious weed seeds. [Id. p. 158.]

Art. 1703. Mixture of.—Mixtures of seeds offered or exposed for sale within the State for seeding purposes, in lots of ten pounds or more, containing one or more kinds of agricultural seeds defined in the preceding article in excess of five per centum, by weight, of the total mixture, shall bear a plainly written or printed statement in English language, stating:

- (a) That such seed is a mixture.
- (b) The approximate percentage, by weight of inert matter.
- (c) The requirements provided in paragraphs (c), (g) and (h) of the preceding article. [Id. p. 159.]

Art. 1704. Exceptions.—The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to agricultural seeds, or mixtures of seeds, when plainly labeled "not clean seed," or "not tested seed" nor seeds sold to merchants to be recleaned before being sold or exposed for sale for seeding purposes, or when in storage for the purpose of recleaning. [Id. p. 159.]

Art. 1705. Samples.—The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized in person or by his inspectors or assistants to take for analysis, paying the reasonable purchase price, a sample not exceeding four ounces in weight, from any lot of agricultural seeds or "mixtures" offered or exposed for sale. Said sample shall be drawn or taken in the presence of the vendor or parties interested, or his or their agents or representatives, and shall not be less than ten per cent of the whole lot inspected and shall be thoroughly mixed and then divided into two samples and placed in glass or metal vessels or containers, carefully sealed and a label placed on each vessel stating the name of the agricultural seed or mixture sampled, the name of the vendor from whose stock said samples were taken, and the date and place of taking such samples, and said label shall be signed by said Commissioner, or his authorized agent; or said sample may be taken in the presence of the disinterested witnesses if the vendor or party in interest fails or refuses to be present, when notified. One of said duplicate samples shall be left with or on the premises of the vendor or party in interest, and the other retained by the Commissioner for analysis and comparison with the labels required by law. [Id. p. 159.]

Art. 1706. Penalty.—Whoever offers or exposes for sale within this State any agricultural seed, defined in the first article of this chapter without complying with the requirements of the second and third articles of this chapter, or whoever falsely marks or labels any agricultural seeds under said second article, or mixture under said third article, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. [Id. p. 160.]

Art. 1707. Preventing inspection or sampling.—Whoever prevents the Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agent from inspecting the seeds described in the preceding articles of this chapter, or from collecting samples as provided in the preceding articles, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars. [Id. p. 160.]

Art. 1708. Cotton seed.—Every person who falsely advertises or proclaims himself a "Registered Cotton Seed Breeder" or "Certified Cotton Seed Grower," and every person who sells or offers for sale cotton seed and falsely represents it to be "Registered Cotton Seed" or "Certified Cotton Seed," shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [Acts 2nd C. S. 1923, p. 130.]

CHAPTER TWELVE COMMERCIAL FERTILIZER

Art.
1709.	Branding or labeling.
1710.	Statement furnished state chemist.
1711.	Words prohibited on bag.
1712.	Tax tags.
1713.	Interfering with chemist.
1714.	Forbidden materials.
1715.	Unlawful acts.
1716.	Definitions.
1717.	Selling adulterated or misbranded fertilizer.
1718.	Sale of bulk fertilizer.
1719.	Unlawful tag, bag or label.
1720.	General penalty.

Article 1709. Branding or labeling.—All corporations, firms or persons, before selling or offering for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State, shall brand or attach to each bag, barrel or package a plainly printed statement, showing the brand or name, of said fertilizer, the net weight of the contents of the package, the name and address of the corporation, firm or person registering said fertilizer and the minimum percentages guaranteed to be present of available phosphoric acid, of nitrogen and of potash soluble in distilled water. Only such potash shall be claimed to be present as sulphate, which is in excess of the quantity required to combine with the chlorine present, less one-half per cent. In bone meal, tankage, or other similar products, the phosphoric acid shall be claimed as total phosphoric acid, unless it be desired to claim available phosphoric acid only, in which latter case the guarantee must take the form above set forth. In the case of bone meal and tankage, information showing the fineness of the product may be branded or attached to the package; provided it takes a form approved by the State Chemist. All branding or labeling must be durable and legible, and so placed and arranged as to be easily read. [Acts 1911, p. 218.]

Art. 1710. Statement furnished State Chemist.—All firms, corporations or persons, before selling or offering for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State, shall annually file with the State Chemist a certified statement giving the information required by the preceding article and the true names and sources of all the ingredients used in the manufacture of said fertilizer. If the same fertilizer is sold under a different name or names, said fact shall be stated, and the different brands which are identical shall be named. If the source of any ingredient is changed, notification must be promptly furnished the State Chemist. A copy of the brand or stamp on the bag or other package or on the label attached thereto shall be filed with the State Chemist on or before delivery to the dealers, agents or consumers in this State, which brand or stamp shall be uniformly used during the fiscal year for which it is filed, but such brand or stamp shall truly set forth the data required in said preceding article, and be otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. On receipt of the certified statement above described, and the copy of the brand or stamp and after compliance with other requirements of this chapter, the State Chemist shall issue a certificate of registration for the commercial fertilizer, which shall be in force until the succeeding September 1st. A brand name previously registered shall not be allowed to be registered by another firm, corporation or individual, and no brand or name shall be allowed to be registered which is so nearly similar to another as to lead to uncertainty, confusion or fraud. The party whom the previous records of the State Chemist's office show to have first registered the name shall be permitted to retain it, subject, however, to appeal and hearing before the State Chemist to determine who is entitled to the brand; but the action of the State Chemist shall be without prejudice to the legal rights of the parties to the brand or trade-mark. No brand or name once registered shall be changed to a lower grade at any subsequent registration. [Id.]

Art. 1711. Words prohibited on bag.—The words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any complete fertilizer which complete fertilizer contains, by its guaranteed analysis, less than ten per cent available phosphoric acid, one and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent nitrogen and two per cent of potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any complete fertilizer which contains, by its guaranteed analysis, less than eight per cent available phosphoric acid, one and sixty-five one-hundredths per cent nitrogen and two per cent potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any acid phosphate with potash, which shall contain, by its guaranteed analysis, less than thirteen per cent available phosphoric acid, and one per cent of potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any acid phosphate with potash which shall contain, by its guaranteed analysis, less than eleven per cent available phosphoric acid, and one per cent of potash, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value; the words "high grade" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any plain acid phosphate which shall contain by its guaranteed analysis, less than fourteen per cent available phosphoric acid; and the word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of any plain acid phosphate which shall contain by its guaranteed analysis, less than twelve per cent available phosphoric acid. The word "standard" shall not appear upon any bag or other package of acid phosphate with nitrogen which shall contain, by its guaranteed analysis, less than nine per cent of available phosphoric acid and two per cent nitrogen, or a grade or analysis of equal total commercial value. No commercial fertilizer shall be sold, offered or exposed for sale for use within this State, upon which the use of the words "high grade" or "standard" is prohibited by this article, unless the words "low grade" is printed in two-inch letters in a conspicuous place upon the package of said fertilizer. No claim or guarantee for less than one per cent of phosphoric acid or of potash, or for less than a 0.82 per cent of nitrogen, shall be allowed in any commercial fertilizer. [Id. p. 219.]

Art. 1712. Tax tags.—All firms, corporations or persons engaged in the manufacture or sale of commercial fertilizers shall pay to the State Chemist an inspection tax of twenty-five cents per ton for such commercial fertilizers sold or exposed or offered for sale in this State in order to entitle the same to inspection and delivery, and shall attach a tag furnished by the State Chemist as evidence that said tax is paid, and goods so tagged shall not be liable to any further tax. Nothing in this article shall interfere with fertilizers passing through the State in transit; nor apply to the delivery of fertilizing materials in bulk to fertiliz-ing factories for manufacturing purposes. Firms, corporations or persons, or agents representing them, who have registered their brands in compliance with this law shall forward to the State Chemist a request for tax tags, stating that the said tags are to be used upon the brands of commercial fertilizers registered and sold in accordance with this chapter, and said request shall be accompanied with the inspection tax, whereupon the State Chemist shall issue tags to parties applying, who shall attach said tags to each bag, barrel or package thereof. All firms, corporations or persons are hereby forbidden to attach the tag prescribed by this article to any bag, barrel or package of any commercial fertilizer which has not been previously registered as required by this chapter and which is not in accordance with all other provisions of this chapter. No tags shall be used after the end of the fiscal year for which they are issued, and they shall not be redeemed by the State Chemist. [Id.]

Art. 1713. Interfering with chemist.—The State Chemist shall cause one analysis or more to be made annually of such commercial fertilizer sold or offered for sale under the provisions of this chapter as may be sampled under his direction. The State Chemist, in person, or by deputy, shall have power to enter into any car, warehouse, store, building, boat, vessel, steamboat, or place supposed to contain fertilizers, for the purpose of inspection or sampling, and shall have the power to take a sample for analysis, not exceeding two pounds, from any package or lot of fertilizer found within the State. Any person who opposes the entrance of said chemist or deputy, or in any way interferes with the discharge of his duty, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1714. Forbidden materials.—It shall be unlawful to sell or offer for sale, in this State, any fertilizer or fertilizing materials which contain an undue quantity of hair, or which contain leather scraps, peat or other substances of low availability as food for plants, but in which such forbidden materials aid in making up the required or guaranteed analysis. The presence of any forbidden material shall vitiate the whole. Manufacturers who desire to use any such material may do so under such regulations as the State Chemist may prescribe, if it be shown that it is available for a proper purpose. [Id.]

Art. 1715. Unlawful acts.—No person shall sell or offer for sale any commercial fertilizer without having attached thereto such labels, stamps and tags as are required by law, or use the required tag a second time to avoid the payment of the tonnage charge. No person shall knowingly sell or offer for sale any commercial fertilizer for use within this State which is materially below the guaranteed value in plant food. [Id.]

Art. 1716. Definitions.—These terms mean:

1. A commercial fertilizer is any material, substance or mixture which contains or is claimed to contain more than one per cent of total phosphoric acid, or of potash, or of nitrogen, and which is used for application to the soil to promote the growth of crops, or any substance, material or mixture, which is claimed to exert a beneficial action upon the soil or to promote the growth of crops. Lime, limestone, marl, underground bones, stockpen manure, barn-yard manure, or the excrement of any domestic animal shall be exempt from the provisions of this chapter, in case that said manure or excrement has not been dried or manipulated or otherwise treated or is not claimed to have a value of more than four dollars a ton.

2. A fertilizer is misbranded if it carries any false or misleading statement upon or attached to the package, or if false or misleading statements concerning its agricultural value are made on the package or in any printed advertising matter issued by the corporation, firm or individual that registered said fertilizer, or if the number of net pounds set forth upon the package is not substantially correct.

3. A fertilizer is adulterated if it contains any substance or substances injurious to the crop or to the soil, or if the guaranteed valuation exceeds the valuation of the plant food found on analysis ten per cent or more, or if any of the plant food constituents falls twenty per cent or more below the guaranteed composition. [Id.]

Art. 1717. Selling adulterated or misbranded fertilizer.—Whoever manufactures, sells or offers for sale any adulterated or misbranded commercial fertilizer for use within this State shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1718. Sale of bulk fertilizer.—Manufacturers, jobbers, dealers or manipulators of commercial fertilizers may sell acid phosphate or other commercial fertilizer in bulk to persons, individuals or firms who desire to purchase the same for their own use on their own land but not for sale or distribution, under rules and regulations prescribed by the State Chemist which will not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Inspection tax shall be paid upon such fertilizer as provided herein. If such bulk fertilizer is offered for sale or distribution, it must be tagged and branded and otherwise accord with the provisions of this chapter. [Id.]

Art. 1719. Unlawful tag, bag or label.—Whoever uses the fertilizer tags, bags or labels of some other person, party or manufacturer, in such a way as to deceive or tend to deceive, or who counterfeits or uses a counterfeit of the tax tag prescribed in this chapter, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [Id.]

Art. 1720. General penalty.—Whoever violates any provision of this chapter for which a penalty is not otherwise provided herein shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than two hundred dollars. [Id.]

GENERAL REPEALING CLAUSE

Section 3, of the Act of 1925, entitled, "An Act to Adopt and Establish a 'Penal Code' and a 'Code of Criminal Procedure' for the State of Texas," reads as follows:

"Art. 1. Be it further enacted by the Legislature of the State of Texas: That all penal laws and all laws relating to criminal procedure in this State; that are not embraced in this Act and that have not been enacted during the present session of the Legislature, be and the same are hereby repealed. All laws and parts of laws relating to crime omitted from this Act have been intentionally omitted, and all additions have been intentionally added, and this Act shall be construed to be an independent Act of the Legislature enacted under the caption hereof, and the articles contained in this Act, as revised, rewritten, changed, combined and codified shall not be construed as a continuation of former laws, except as otherwise herein provided.

"Art. 2. The importance of this Act, and the near approach of the close of this session of the Legislature, and the fact that it is impossible to read this Act on any day or on three several days, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and it is so enacted.

"Art. 3. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after twelve o'clock, Meridian, of the First day of September, Anno Domini, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-five."

RECORD OF ENACTMENT

The enrolled bill (Revised Penal Code 1925) on file in the office of the Secretary of State shows that the foregoing act passed the Senate, finally January 23, 1925 (no vote given).

Passed the House February 4, 1925 by following vote: 111 yeas, 4 nays.

Approved by the Governor Feb. 7, 1925.

19. Privilege of voters.
20. Dignity of State.
21. Public trial.
22. Confronted by witnesses.
23. Construction of this Code.
24. Common law governs.

Article 1. [1] Objects of this Code.—This code is intended to embrace rules applicable to the prevention and prosecution of offenses against the laws of this State, and to make the rules of proceeding in respect to the prevention and punishment of offenses intelligible to the officers who are to act under them, and to all persons whose rights are to be affected by them. It seeks:

1. To adopt measures for preventing the commission of crime.
2. To exclude the offender from all hope of escape.
3. To insure a trial with as little delay as is consistent with the ends of justice.
4. To bring to the investigation of each offense on the trial all the evidence tending to produce conviction or acquittal.
5. To insure a fair and impartial trial; and
6. The certain execution of the sentence of the law when declared. [O. C. 1, Act Feb. 15, 1858.]

Art. 2. [3] Due course of law.—No citizen of this State shall be deprived of life, liberty, property, privileges or immunities, or in any manner disfranchised, except by the due course of the law of the land. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 19.]

Art. 3. [4] Rights of accused.—In all criminal prosecutions the accused shall have a speedy public trial by an impartial jury. He shall have the right to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, and to have a copy thereof. He shall not be compelled to give evidence against himself. He shall have the right of being heard by himself, or counsel, or both; shall be confronted with the witnesses against him, and shall have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor. No person shall be held to answer for a felony unless on indictment of a grand jury. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 10.]

Art. 4. [5] Searches and seizures.—The people shall be secure in their persons, houses, papers and possessions from all unreasonable seizures or searches. No warrant to search any place or to seize any person or thing shall issue without describing them as near as may be, nor without probable cause supported by oath or affirmation. [Bill of Rights, sec. 9.]

Acts 1925, 39th Leg., ch. 149, p. 357, § 1, is similar in language to the above section of the Bill of Rights.

Art. 4a. Relating to unlawful and unreasonable seizures and searches.—It shall be unlawful for any person or peace officer, or State ranger, to search the private residence, actual place of habitation, place of business, person or personal possessions of any person, without having first obtained a search warrant as required by law.

Art. 4b. Penalty.—Any person violating any provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or by confinement in the county jail not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1925, p. 357.] [39th Leg., ch. 149, § 3.]

Art. 5. [6] Right to bail.—All prisoners shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, unless for capital offenses where the proof is evident. This provision shall not be so construed as to prevent bail after indictment found, upon examination of the evidence in such manner as may be prescribed by law. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 11.]

Art. 6. [7] Habeas corpus.—The writ of habeas corpus is a writ of right and shall never be suspended. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 12.]

Art. 7. [8] Cruelty forbidden.—Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel or unusual punishment inflicted. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 13.]

Art. 8. [9] Jeopardy.—No person for the same offense shall be twice put in jeopardy of life or liberty; nor shall a person be again put upon trial for the same offense, after a verdict of not guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 14.]

Art. 9. [20] [21] Acquittal a bar.—An acquittal of the defendant exempts him from a second trial or a second prosecution for the same offense, however irregular the proceedings may have been; but if the defendant shall have been acquitted upon trial in a court having no jurisdiction of the offense, he may be prosecuted again in a court having jurisdiction.

Art. 10. [10] Right to jury.—The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate. [Bill of Rights, sec. 15.]

Art. 11. [22] [23] Waiver of rights.—The defendant in a criminal prosecution for any offense may waive any right secured to him by law, except the right of trial by jury in a felony case. [O. C. 26.]

Art. 12. [21] [22] Jury in felony.—No person can be convicted of a felony except upon the verdict of a jury duly rendered and recorded. [O. C. 22.]

Art. 13. [11] Liberty of speech and press.—Every person shall be at liberty to speak, write or publish his opinion on any subject, being liable for the abuse of that privilege; and no law shall ever be passed curtailing the liberty of speech or of the press. In prosecutions for the publication of papers investigating the conduct of officers or men in public capacity, or when the matter published is proper for public information, the truth thereof may be given in evidence. In all indictments for libels, the jury shall have the right to determine the law and the facts, under the direction of the court, as in other cases. [Bill of Rights, sec. 8.]

Art. 14. [12] Religious belief.—No person shall be disqualified to give evidence in any court of this State on account of his religious opinions, or for the want of any religious belief; but all oaths or affirmations shall be administered in the mode most binding upon the conscience, and shall be taken subject to the pains and penalties of perjury. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 5.]

Art. 15. [13] Outlawry and transportation.—No citizen shall be outlawed, nor shall any person be transported out of the State for any offense committed within the same. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 20.]

Art. 16. [14] Corruption of blood, etc.—No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 21.]

Art. 17. [15] Conviction of treason.—No person shall be convicted of treason except on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court. [Bill of Rights, Sec. 22.]

Art. 18. [16] Privilege of legislators.—Senators and representatives shall, except in cases of treason, felony or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during the session of the legislature, and in going to and returning from the same, allowing one day for every twenty miles such member may reside from the place at which the legislature is convened. [Const., art. 3, sec. 14.]

Art. 19. [17] Privilege of voters.—Voters shall, in all cases, except treason, felony or breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections, and in going to and returning therefrom. [Const., Art. 6, sec. 5.]

Art. 20. [19] Dignity of State.—All judges of the Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals and district courts, shall, by virtue of their offices, be conservators of the peace throughout the State. The style of all writs and process shall be "The State of Texas." All prosecutions shall be carried on in the name and by authority of the State of Texas, and conclude, "against the peace and dignity of the State." [Const., art. 5, sec. 12.]

Art. 21. [23] [24] Public trial.—The proceedings and trials in all courts shall be public. [O. C. 23.]

Art. 22. [24] [25] Confronted by witnesses.—The defendant, upon a trial, shall be confronted with the witnesses, except in certain cases provided for in this Code where depositions have been taken. [O. C. 24.]

Art. 23. [25] [26] Construction of this Code.—The provisions of this Code shall be liberally construed, so as to attain the objects intended by the legislature: The prevention, suppression and punishment of crime. [O. C. 25.]

Art. 24. [26] [27] Common law governs.—If this Code fails to provide a rule of procedure in any particular state of case which may arise, the rules of the common law shall be applied and govern. [O. C. 27.]

1. DISTRICT AND COUNTY ATTORNEYS

Article 25. [30] [31] Duties of district attorneys.—Each district attorney shall represent the State in all criminal cases in the district courts of his district, except in cases where he has been, before his election, employed adversely. When any criminal proceeding is had before an examining court in his district or before a judge upon habeas corpus, and he is notified of the same, and is at the time within the county where such proceeding is had, he shall represent the State therein, unless prevented by other official duties. [O. C. 30-31.]

Art. 26. [32] [33] Duties of county attorneys.—The county attorney shall attend the terms of all courts in his county below the grade of district court, and shall represent the State in all criminal cases under examination or prosecution in said county; and in the absence of the district attorney he shall represent the State alone, or when requested, shall aid the district attorney in the prosecution of any case in behalf of the State in the district court, and in such cases he shall receive all or one-half of the fees allowed by law to district attorneys, according as he acted alone or jointly. [Acts 1879, p. 94.]

Art. 27. [33] [34] When officer neglects duty.—It shall be the duty of the district or county attorney to present by information to the court having jurisdiction, any officer for neglect or failure of any duty enjoined upon such officer, when such neglect or failure can be presented by information, whenever it shall come to the knowledge of said attorney that there has been a neglect or failure of duty upon the part of said officer; and he shall bring to the notice of the grand jury any act of violation of law or neglect or failure of duty upon the part of any officer, when such violation, neglect or failure are not presented by information, and whenever the same may come to his knowledge. [Acts 1876, p. 86.]

Art. 28. [34] [35] Shall draw complaints.—Upon complaint being made before a district or county attorney that an offense has been committed in his district or county, he shall reduce the complaint to writing and cause the same to be signed and sworn to by the complainant, and it shall be duly attested by said attorney. [Id.]

Art. 29. [35] [36] When complaint is made.—If the offense be a misdemeanor, the attorney shall forthwith prepare an information based upon such complaint and file the same in the court having jurisdiction. If the offense be a felony, he shall forthwith file the complaint with a magistrate of the county. [Id.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 30. [36] [37] May administer oaths.—For the purpose mentioned in the two preceding articles, district and county attorneys are authorized to administer oaths. [Id.]

Art. 31. [38] [39] Attorney pro tem.—Whenever any district or county attorney fails to attend any term of the district, county or justice's court, the judge of said court or such justice may appoint some competent attorney to perform the duties of such district or county attorney, who shall be allowed the same compensation for his services as is allowed the district attorney or county attorney. Said appointment shall not extend beyond the term of the court at which it is made, and shall be vacated upon the appearance of the district or county attorney.

Art. 32. [40] [41] Disqualified.—District and county attorneys shall not be of counsel adversely to the State in any case, in any court, nor shall they, after they cease to be such officers, be of counsel adversely to the State in any case in which they have been of counsel for the State. [O. C. 30.]

2. MAGISTRATES

Art. 33. [41] [42] Who are magistrates.—Each of the following officers is a "magistrate" within the meaning of this Code: The judges of the Supreme Court, the judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the judges of the district court, the county judge, any county commissioner, the justices of the peace, the mayor or recorder of an incorporated city or town.

Art. 34. [42] [43] Duty of magistrates.—It is the duty of every magistrate to preserve the peace within his jurisdiction by the use of all lawful means; to issue all process intended to aid in preventing and suppressing crime; to cause the arrest of offenders by the use of lawful means in order that they may be brought to punishment. [O. C. 32.]

Art. 35. [62] [63] "Examining court."—When the magistrate sits for the purpose of inquiring into a criminal accusation against any person, this is called an "examining court."

3. PEACE OFFICERS

Art. 36. [43] [44] Who are peace officers.—The following are "peace officers:" the sheriff and his deputies, constable, the marshal or policemen of an incorporated town or city, the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of the State ranger force, and any private person specially appointed to execute criminal process. [O. C. 53, Acts 1919, p. 264.]

Art. 37. [44] [45] Duties and powers.—It is the duty of every peace officer to preserve the peace within his jurisdiction. To effect this purpose, he shall use all lawful means. He shall, in every case where he is authorized by the provisions of this Code, interfere without warrant to prevent or suppress crime. He shall execute all lawful process issued to him by any magistrate or court. He shall give notice to some magistrate of all offenses committed within his jurisdiction, where he has good reason to believe there has been a violation of the penal law. He shall arrest offenders without warrant in every case where he is authorized by law, in order that they may be taken before the proper magistrate or court and be tried. [O. C. 34.]

Art. 38. [45] [46] May summon aid.—Whenever a peace officer meets with resistance in discharging any duty imposed upon him by law, he shall summon a sufficient number of citizens of his county to overcome the resistance; and all persons summoned are bound to obey. [O. C. 44.]

Art. 39. [46] [47] Person refusing to aid.—The peace officer who has summoned any person to assist him in performing any duty shall report such person, if he refuse to obey, to the proper district or county attorney, in order that he may be prosecuted for the offense. [O. C. 45.]

Art. 40. [47] [48] Neglecting to execute process.—If any sheriff or other officer shall wilfully refuse or fail from neglect to execute any summons, subpoena or attachment for a witness, or any other legal process which it is made his duty by law to execute, he shall be liable to a fine for contempt not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court. The payment of such fine shall be enforced in the same manner as fines for contempt in civil cases. [Act Feb. 11, 1860.]

4. SHERIFFS

Art. 41. [48] [49] Conservator of the peace.—Each sheriff shall be a conservator of the peace in his county, and shall arrest all offenders against the laws of the State, in his view or hearing, and take them before the proper court for examination or trial. He shall quell and suppress all assaults and batteries, affrays, insurrections and unlawful assemblies. He shall apprehend and commit to jail all offenders, until an examination or trial can be had. [Act May 12, 1846, p. 265.]

Art. 42. [50] [51] Custody of prisoners.—When a prisoner is committed to jail by warrant from a magistrate or court, he shall be placed in jail by the sheriff. It is a violation of duty on the part of any sheriff to permit a defendant so committed to remain out of jail, except that he may, when a defendant is committed for want of bail, or when he arrests in a bailable case, give the person arrested a reasonable time to procure bail; but, he shall so guard the accused as to prevent escape.

Art. 43. [51] Report as to prisoners.—At each term of any court having criminal jurisdiction, the sheriff shall give notice to the district or county attorney as to all prisoners in his custody and of the authority under which he detains them.

Art. 44. [54] [55] Deputy.—Wherever a duty is imposed by this Code upon the sheriff, the same duty may lawfully be performed by his deputy. When there is no sheriff in a county, the duties of that office, as to all proceedings under the criminal law, devolve upon the officer who, under the law, is empowered to discharge the duties of sheriff, in case of vacancy in the office. [O. C. 46.]

5. DISTRICT AND COUNTY CLERKS

Art. 45. [55] [56] Duty of clerks.—Each clerk of the district or county court shall receive and file all papers in respect to criminal proceedings, issue all process in such cases, and perform all other duties imposed upon them by law.

Art. 46. [56] [57] Power of deputy clerks.—Whenever a duty is imposed upon the clerk of the district or county court, the same may be lawfully performed by his deputy. [O. C. 48.]

Art. 47. [57] [58] Report to Attorney General.—The clerks of the district and county courts shall, when required by the Attorney General, report to him at such times, and in accordance with such forms as he may direct, such information in relation to criminal matters as may be shown by their records.

ACTS CREATING CRIMINAL DISTRICT COURTS AND SIMILAR COURTS AND AFFECTING SUCH COURTS

Art. 52-1. Dallas criminal district court created; jurisdiction.—There is hereby created and established at the city of Dallas a criminal district court, which shall have and exercise all the criminal jurisdiction heretofore vested in and exercised by the district courts of Dallas county. All appeals from the judgments of said court shall be to the court of criminal appeals, under the same regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by law for appeals in criminal cases from district courts. [Acts 1893, p. 118.]

Art. 52-2. Dallas county district courts to have no criminal jurisdiction.—The district courts of Dallas county shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction. [Id.]

Art. 52-3. Judge; qualifications, election, etc.—The judge of said criminal district court shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of a judge of the district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter, be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges in criminal cases. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of the judge, a special judge may be selected, elected, or appointed, as provided by law in cases of district judges. [Id.]

Art. 52-4. Seal of the court and its use.—Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court of Dallas County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments, and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible. [Id.]

Art. 52-5. Sheriff, clerk and county attorney to serve, etc.—The sheriff, the county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, county attorney, and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court, under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be, prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks in the district courts of the state; and said sheriff, county attorney, and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the state, to be paid in the same manner. [Id.]

By Act March 29, 1917, ch. 121, post, art. 52-24, the office of Criminal District Attorney for Dallas county is created, with power to exercise exclusive control over criminal matters in such county.

Art. 52-6. Terms of the court and grand juries.—Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of January, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, and one term beginning the first Monday of October. A grand jury shall be impaneled in said court for each term thereof; and jury commissioners shall be appointed for drawing jurors for said court, as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under like rules and regulations. [Id.]

Art. 52-7. Practice in.—The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice, and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts. [Id.]

Art. 52-8. Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County created.—There is hereby created and established at the city of Dallas a criminal district court to be known as the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County," which court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the criminal district court of Dallas county, Texas, as now given and exercised by the said criminal district court of Dallas county under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas. [Act 1911, 1st S. S., p. 106, ch. 19, § 1.]

Art. 52-9. Same; concurrent jurisdiction with criminal district court of Dallas county; transfer of causes.—From and after the time this law shall take effect the criminal district court of Dallas county, and the criminal district court No. 2 of Dallas county shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony causes and in all matters and proceedings of which the said criminal district court of Dallas county now has jurisdiction; and either of the judges of said criminal district court may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other criminal district court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made the clerk of such district court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which such transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the judge shall try and dispose of said causes in the same manner as if such causes were originally instituted in said court. [Id., § 2.]

Act March 22, 1915, ch. 86, in its title purports to amend this section, but the enacting part makes no reference to the matter of amendment. The amendatory act is set forth in art. 52-23.

Art. 52-10. Judge, how elected; term; qualifications; powers and duties; exchange; special judge; etc.—The judge of said criminal district court No. 2 of Dallas county shall be elected by the qualified voters of Dallas county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of the criminal district court of Dallas county. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and, in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected, elected or appointed as provided by law in cases of district judges; provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a judge of said court, who shall hold the office until the next general election, after the passage of this law, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-11. Seal of court, etc.—Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this State in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-12. Criminal judicial district created.—There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Dallas County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Dallas, Texas, alone, and the Criminal District Court of Dallas county, and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas county, Texas, shall have and exercise all the Criminal Jurisdiction of such courts, of and for said Criminal District of Dallas county, Texas, that are now conferred by law on said Criminal District Courts. [Act March 29, 1917, ch. 121, § 1.]

Sections 2 to 10, inclusive, relate to the Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County, and are set forth as art. 52-24. Sec. 11 repeals all laws in conflict.

Art. 52-13. Sheriff, county attorney, and clerk of Dallas county to act, etc.; fees.—The sheriff, county attorney and the clerk of the district court of Dallas county, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, county attorney and clerk, respectively, of said criminal district court under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys and clerks of the district courts of the State; and said sheriff, county attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the State to be paid in the same manner. [Act 1911, 1st S. S., p. 106, ch. 19, § 5.]

By Act March 29, 1917, ch. 121, post, art. 52-24, the office of Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County is created with exclusive powers over criminal matters in such county.

Art. 52-14. Terms of court; grand jury; drawing jurors; pleading, practice, and procedure.—Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, and one term beginning the first Monday of January. The grand jury shall be impaneled in said court for each term thereof unless otherwise directed by the judge of said court, and the procedure for drawing jurors for said court shall be the same as is now or may hereafter be required by law in district courts, and under the same rules and regulations. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the pleadings, practice and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-15. Apportionment.—Dallas county shall constitute the Forty-fourth Judicial District and the Sixty-eighth Judicial District, and Dallas county and Rockwall county shall constitute the Fourteenth Judicial District. The said district courts herein named shall not have nor exercise any criminal jurisdiction in Dallas county, such criminal jurisdiction having been by law exclusively vested in the Criminal District Courts for said county. But all of said three courts shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction coextensive with the limits of Dallas county in all civil cases, proceedings and matters of which district courts are given jurisdiction by the Constitution and laws of the State. The said Fourteenth Judicial District Court shall have jurisdiction in Rockwall county, Texas, in all civil and criminal cases which under the Constitution and laws of this State are cognizable by district courts, and in which the jurisdiction is in Rockwall county, Texas; and all appeals in criminal cases shall be to the Court of Criminal Appeals of the State of Texas under the same regulations as are now or may hereafter be provided by the laws for appeals in criminal cases in the district court. [Act 1913, p. 171, ch. 89, § 1.]

Art. 52-16. Concurrent jurisdiction of criminal district courts with county court at law; transfer of causes.—The Criminal District Court and Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County shall have and exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with each other and with the County Court of Dallas County at Law in all matters and proceedings relative to misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County at Law now has jurisdiction and either of the judges of said Criminal District Courts and the judge of said County Court of Dallas County at Law may, in his discretion, or upon the motion of the county attorney of Dallas county, transfer by written order or orders, entered upon the minutes of said court, any misdemeanor cause or misdemeanor causes that may at any time be pending in either of said courts to either of the other of said courts, as should, in his discretion, be transferred or as may be prayed for in the motion of the county attorney. [Act 1915, p. 74, ch. 37, § 1.]

Art. 52-17. Duty of county clerk on transfer of cause; costs and fees; duty of clerk of district court.—Upon the transfer of any such cause or causes from said County Court of Dallas County at Law to either of said Criminal District Courts it shall be the duty of the county clerk of Dallas County to prepare and forward with the papers in said cause or causes so transferred a bill of the cost then accrued which said cost shall follow said cause or causes, and be taxed in said cause or causes with any other cost that may accrue in said cause or causes in either of said Criminal District Courts to which said cause or causes may be transferred; provided that the county clerk of Dallas County making such a bill of cost shall receive the sum of 50 cents for the preparation and forwarding of said bill of cost, in each cause so transferred, which said sum and cost shall be taxed in said cause and collected as other cost in the manner now provided by law; and the clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall likewise, upon the transfer of any such cause from either of said Criminal District Courts to the County Court of Dallas County at Law, prepare such bill of cost and forward same as provided therein, and shall receive the same compensation as herein provided for the county clerk of Dallas County in such cases. [Id., § 2.]

Art. 52-18. Misdemeanor dockets for transferred causes.—The clerk of the District Court of Dallas County shall keep for each of said Criminal District Courts a misdemeanor docket and a misdemeanor motion docket in like manner as is now provided for by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and upon any such cause or causes being transferred from the County Court of Dallas County at Law or from one of said Criminal District Courts to the other, said cause or causes shall be docketed as now provided by law for the County Court of Dallas County at Law. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-19. Practice in transferred causes.—In trial of causes transferred to either of the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County from the County Court of Dallas County at Law, the trials, pleadings and practice shall be the same as in trial of other causes over which the Criminal District Courts of Dallas County now have jurisdiction. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-20. Fees of officers in misdemeanor causes.—The county attorney of Dallas county and all other officers shall receive the same fees in misdemeanor causes in said Criminal District Courts as are now provided by law in the County Court of Dallas County at Law and in all other matters of cost tax in said causes in said Criminal District Courts, the item shall in no event be greater than that provided by law for such items in the County Court of Dallas County at law, and all such cost in such causes shall be paid to the officers of the court in which same is accrued. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-21. Filing misdemeanor causes in either court.—All misdemeanor causes of which the County Court of Dallas County now has jurisdiction may be filed originally with the clerk of the district [court] of Dallas county, in either the Criminal District Court of Dallas County or the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the filing of such causes with the county clerk of Dallas county in the County Court of Dallas County at Law. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-22. Jurisdiction of proceeding on bail bonds and recognizances given in transferred causes.—Said Criminal District Courts shall have jurisdiction on all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before such courts; in all causes transferred to said courts from either of them or that may be transferred to said courts from the County Court of Dallas County at Law; and may enter forfeitures thereof; and final judgment and enforce the collection of same by proper process in the manner as provided by law in said bail bond proceedings; and all bail bonds, recognizances or other obligations taken for the appearance of defendants, parties and witnesses, in either the County Court of Dallas County at Law or Criminal District Court of Dallas County or Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County, shall be binding on all such defendants, parties and witnesses and their sureties for appearance in either of said courts in which said cause may be pending or to which same may be transferred. [Id., § 7a.]

Art. 52-23. Judges of criminal district courts may sit in either court.—From and after the time this law shall take effect the Criminal District Court of Dallas County, Texas, and the Criminal District Court Number Two of Dallas County, Texas, and the respective judges thereof, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony cases, and in all misdemeanor cases in which said courts have, or may hereafter have, concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court of Dallas County at Law, and in all matters and proceedings of which either of said criminal district courts of Dallas County, Texas, now have jurisdiction; and either of the judges of said criminal district courts may, in his discretion, in the absence of the judge of the other criminal district court from his courtroom, or from the County of Dallas, Texas, try and dispose of any cause or causes that may be pending in such criminal district court as fully as could such absent judge were he personally present and presiding. And either of said judges may receive in open court from the foreman of the grand jury any bill or bills of indictment in the court to which such bill or bills of indictment may be returnable, entering the presentment of such bill or bills of indictment in the minutes of the proceedings of such court, and may hear and receive from any impaneled petit jury any report, information or verdict, and make and cause to be entered any order or orders in reference thereto, or with reference to the continuation of the deliberation of such petit jury or their final discharge, as fully and completely as such absent district judge could do if personally present and presiding over such court; and may make any other order or orders in such courts respecting the causes therein pending or the procedure pertaining thereto, as the regular judge of said criminal district judge could make if personally present and presiding. [Act 1915, p. 138, ch. 86, § 1.]

Act March 22, 1915, ch. 86, in its title purports to amend chapter 19, section 2, of Act Sept. 14, 1911, set forth in art. 52-9, but the enacting part makes no mention of the matter of amendment.

Art. 52-24. Criminal District Attorney; duties; salary; fees; accounting; assistants; oath; powers; report of expenses; election.—There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Dallas county, Texas, an attorney for said district, who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Dallas county," and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other district attorneys. [March 29, 1917, ch. 121, § 2.]

It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants, as hereinafter provided to be in attendance upon each term of the "Criminal Court of Dallas County" and the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Dallas County" and to represent the state in all matters pending before said courts. And he shall have exclusive control of all criminal cases wherever pending, or in whatever court in Dallas County, that now has jurisdiction of criminal cases, as well as any or all courts that may hereafter be created and given jurisdiction in criminal cases, and he shall have the fees therefor fixed by law. He shall also have control of any and all cases heard on habeas corpus before any civil district court of Dallas County, as well as before the Criminal Court of said county. The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties [duties] and privileges within said Criminal District of Dallas County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this state.

It is further provided that he and his assistants shall have the exclusive right and it shall be their sole duty to perform the duties provided for in this Act, except in cases of absence from the county of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants, or their inability or refusal to act; and no other person shall have the power to perform the duties provided for in this Act, or to represent the state in any criminal case in Dallas County, except in case of the absence from Dallas County, or the inability or refusal to act of the Criminal District Attorney and his assistants. [Id., § 3.]

The said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of $500.00 per annum, to be paid by the state, and in addition thereto shall receive the following fees in felony cases, to be paid by the state; for each conviction of felonious homicide, where the defendant does not appeal or dies, or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of forty dollars. For all other convictions in felony cases, where the defendant does not appeal, or dies, or escapes, after appeal, and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of thirty dollars; provided, that in all convictions of felony, in which punishment is fixed by the verdict and judgment by confinement in the House of Correction and Reformatory, his fee shall be fifteen dollars. For representing the state in each case of habeas corpus where the defendant is charged with felony, the sum of twenty dollars. For representing the state in examining trials, in felony cases, where indictment is returned, in each case, the sum of five dollars. The Criminal District Attorney shall also receive such fees for other services rendered by him as is now, or may hereafter be authorized by law to be paid to other district and county attorneys in this state for such services. [Id., § 4.]

The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County shall retain out of the fees earned and collected by him the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum and in addition thereto one fourth of the gross excess of all such fees in excess of three thousand five hundred dollars per annum to an amount not in excess of two thousand dollars. The three fourth[s] remaining to be applied first to the payment of the salaries of the Assistant District Attorneys and extra assistant District Attorneys and stenographer as hereinafter provided for. The remainder to be paid into the treasury of Dallas County; provided that in arriving at the amount collected by him he shall include the fees arising from all classes of criminal cases whether felony or misdemeanor arising in any of the courts in Dallas County now existing, or which may hereafter be created including habeas corpus hearing and fines and forfeitures; provided that after the 30th day of November and before the first day of January following of each year, he shall make a full and complete report and accounting to the county judge of Dallas County of all of such fees so collected by him; provided that in addition to the above he shall receive ten per cent. for the collection of delinquent fees as is now provided by law relating to the collection of delinquent fees by county and district attorneys. Such fees however, to be included in the reports herein provided for and to be taken into consideration in arriving at the total maximum compensation provided in this Act. [Id., § 5.]

The Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may appoint two assistants criminal district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed eighteen hundred dollars per annum payable monthly, and four additional assistant district attorneys who shall each receive a salary of not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars a year payable monthly. He may appoint a stenographer who shall receive a salary of not more than twelve hundred dollars per annum payable monthly.

In addition to the assistant criminal district attorneys and stenographer above provided for, said Criminal District Attorney of Dallas County may, with the approval of the county judge and commissioners court of Dallas county, appoint as many additional extra assistant district attorneys as may be necessary to properly administer the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney and enforce the law, upon the Criminal District Attorney making application under oath addressed to the county judge of Dallas county, setting out the need therefor; provided, the county judge, with the approval of the commissioners court, may discontinue the services of any one or more of said extra assistant criminal district attorneys so appointed, the salary of said extra assistant criminal district attorney to be fixed by the commissioners court of Dallas county. [Id., § 6.]

The assistant criminal district attorneys and the extra assistant criminal district attorneys above provided for, when so appointed, shall take oath of office and be authorized to represent the state before said criminal district court, and in all other courts of Dallas county, in which the criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized by this Act to represent the state, such authority to be exercised under the direction of said criminal district attorney, and which said assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the said criminal district attorney. Each of said assistant criminal district attorneys shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally perform any duty devolving upon the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon the said criminal district attorney when by him so authorized. The criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be paid the same fees for services rendered by his assistants as he would be entitled to receive if the services shall have been rendered by himself. [Id., § 7.]

The criminal district attorney of Dallas county is authorized, with the consent of the county judge and county commissioners of Dallas county, to appoint not to exceed two assistants in addition to his regular assistant criminal district attorneys, provided for in this Act, which two assistants shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for district or county attorneys, and who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation one hundred dollars per month each, to be paid in monthly installments out of the county funds of Dallas county, Texas, by warrants drawn on such county fund; and provided further, that the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be allowed a sum of money by order of said commissioners court of Dallas county, as in the judgment of the commissioners court may be deemed necessary, to the proper administration of the duties of such office not to exceed, however, the amount of fifty dollars per month. Such amount as may be thus necessarily incurred shall be paid by the commissioners court upon affidavit made by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, showing the necessity for such expenditure and for what the same was incurred. The commissioners court may also require any other evidence as in their opinion may be necessary to show the necessity for such expenditure, but they shall be the sole judge as to the necessity for such expenditure and their judgment allowing same shall be final. [Id., § 8.]

The criminal district attorney shall at the close of each month of the tenure of such office make, as a part of the report required by this Act, an itemized and sworn statement of the actual and necessary expenses incurred by him in the conduct of his said office, such as stamps, stationery, books, telephone, traveling expenses and other necessary expenses. If such expenses be incurred in connection with any particular case such statement shall name such case. Such expense account shall be subject to the audit of the county auditor and if it appears that any item of such expenses was not incurred by such officer or that such item was not necessary thereto, such item may be by the said auditor rejected, in which case the correction of such item may be adjudicated in any court of competent jurisdiction. The amount of such expense shall be deducted by the criminal district attorney of Dallas county in making such a report from the amount if any due by him to the county under the provisions of this Act. [Id., § 9.]

The criminal district attorney of Dallas county, as provided for in this Act, shall be elected by the qualified electors of the criminal judicial district of Dallas county at the next general election, and it is provided and directed that the present county attorney of Dallas county, Texas shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the criminal district attorney of Dallas county, Texas, and proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of criminal district attorney of Dallas county, and appoint assistants as provided for in this Act and receive the fees provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election and until the criminal district attorney of Dallas county shall be elected and qualified. [Id., § 10.]

Art. 52-25. Galveston and Harris counties criminal judicial district changed to include only Harris county; criminal district court of Harris county created; original jurisdiction.—The territorial limits of the Criminal Judicial District composed of the counties of Galveston and Harris is hereby changed so as to hereafter include Harris county alone, and there is hereby created and established in the city of Houston, in the county of Harris, a Criminal District Court, which shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases, both felony and misdemeanor, in the county of Harris, of which district and county courts under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall be known as "The Criminal District Court of Harris County." [Act 1911, p. 111, ch. 67, § 1.]

Art. 52-26. Appellate jurisdiction.—The said court shall have exclusive appellate jurisdiction over all criminal cases tried and determined by justices of the peace, mayors and recorders in said county of Harris, under the same rules and regulations as are provided by law for appeals from justices of the peace, mayors and recorders to the county courts in criminal cases. [Id., § 2.]

Art. 52-27. May grant habeas corpus, etc.—The judge of said court hereinafter provided for shall have power to grant writs of habeas corpus, mandamus and all writs necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of his court, under the same rules and regulations which govern district judges. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-28. Jurisdiction over bail bonds, etc.—Said court shall have jurisdiction over all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof, and final judgments, and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in district courts. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-29. Jurisdiction over cases transferred.—Said court shall have jurisdiction over all criminal cases heretofore transferred from other courts to the Criminal District Court of Harris County as heretofore established, and over such criminal cases as may hereafter be transferred to the court created by this Act, as fully in all respects as if said cases had originated in said court. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-30. Seal of court.—The said Criminal District Court of Harris County shall have a seal similar to the seal of the district court, with the words "Criminal District Court of Harris County" engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other process, except subpoenas issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of all official acts of the clerk of the said court. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-31. Rules of practice; pleading and evidence.—The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the district court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the district court shall govern in so far as the same may be applicable. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-32. Selection, etc., of juries.—All laws regulating the selection, summoning, and impaneling of grand and petit jurors in the district court shall govern and apply in the criminal district court in so far as the same may be applicable; provided, that the clerk of the district court of Harris county shall assist in drawing the names of the jurors for said criminal court as is now provided by law. [Id., § 8.]

Art. 52-33. Procedure.—All rules of the criminal procedure governing the district and county courts shall apply to and govern said criminal district court. [Id., § 9.]

Art. 52-34. Terms of court.—Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday in May, one term beginning the first Monday in August, one term beginning on the first Monday in November and one term beginning on the first Monday in February of each year. Each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. [Act 1903, ch. 18; Act 1911, p. 112, ch. 67, § 11.]

Art. 52-35. Extension of term.—Whenever the Criminal District Court of Harris County shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for the expiration of the term of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the judge presiding shall have the power and may, if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the court before they are signed. [Act 1911, p. 112, ch. 67, § 12.]

Art. 52-36. Sheriff of Harris county shall attend, etc.—The sheriff of Harris county and his deputies shall attend upon said court and execute all the process issuing therefrom and perform all duties required by said court or the judge thereof, and shall perform all such services for said court as sheriffs and constables are authorized or required to perform in and for other district courts of this State and he shall receive the same fees for his services as are provided by law for the same services in the district court. [Id., § 13.]

Art. 52-37. Same powers as district court.—In all matters over which said criminal district court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said district as is conferred by law upon the district court, and shall be governed by the same rules in the exercise of such power. [Id., § 14.]

Art. 52-38. Appeals and writs of error.—Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from the said criminal district court to the court of criminal appeals, in the same manner and form as from district courts in like cases. [Id. sec. 15, superseding article 2228, Rev. Civ. St. 1911.]

Art. 52-39. Harris county separate criminal judicial district judge, clerk, and district attorney, how elected; duties and powers.—The county of Harris is hereby created a separate criminal judicial district and at the next general election after this Act shall take effect, there shall be elected in and for said district a criminal district judge, a criminal district clerk and a district attorney, each of whom shall have and exercise, respectively, the same duties, powers and authority within said county as are now possessed and exercised by the judge of the criminal district court, the clerk of the criminal district court, and the district attorney for the criminal district composed of Galveston and Harris Counties, and such other duties as are prescribed herein. [Act 1911, p. 113, ch. 67, § 16.]

Art. 52-40. Abolished as to Galveston county; transfer of cases; jurisdiction of district and county courts, etc.; compensation of district clerk; special deputy clerks; duty of county attorney, etc.—From and after the taking effect of this Act, the criminal district now composed of Galveston and Harris counties shall cease to exist so far as it embraces Galveston county, and all cases of felony that are then pending on the docket of the Criminal District Court of Galveston County shall be at once transferred to the district courts in said county of the Tenth and Fifty-sixth Judicial Districts, the felony cases on said docket of even numbers shall be transferred to the district court for the Tenth Judicial District and the felony cases on said docket of odd numbers shall be transferred to the district court for the Fifty-sixth Judicial District, and the said district court for the Tenth Judicial District and the said court for the Fifty-sixth Judicial District are hereby vested with concurrent exclusive jurisdiction of all felony cases arising in the county of Galveston, and the judges of said courts are hereby vested with all powers, privileges, and authority given by the Constitution and laws of this State in criminal matters, to the district courts of this State; and the judge of the district court for the Tenth Judicial District and the judge of the district court for the Fifty-sixth Judicial District shall alternately impanel grand juries in said county of Galveston in the same manner provided therefor by the judges of the district courts of this State; and from and after taking effect of this Act, all cases of misdemeanor pending on the docket of the Criminal District Court of Galveston County shall be transferred to the County Court of Galveston County, Texas, unless there be a county court at law of said county, in which event they shall be transferred to the latter court; and said county court and the judge thereof is hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and authority in criminal cases that are conferred by the laws of this State on the county court; and the clerk of the District Court of Galveston County is hereby vested with the powers, duties and authority in criminal matters in cases of felony that are now conferred by law on clerks of the district court in this State, and shall be the custodian of the records in felony cases transferred from said Criminal District Court and hereafter arising in the county of Galveston; and the clerk of the County Court of Galveston County is hereby vested with the powers, duties and authority in criminal matters in cases of misdemeanor as are now conferred by law on the clerks of the county courts of this State, and such clerk shall be the custodian of the papers and records of misdemeanor cases arising in such county after such transfer, and the clerk of the Criminal District Court of Galveston County shall at once make the transfer of cases here provided and turn over the papers and records of his office to the clerk of the district court and the clerk of the County Court of Galveston County as herein provided. The clerk of the district court shall file and docket the even numbered felony cases in the court of the Tenth Judicial District and the odd numbered felony cases in the court of the Fifty-sixth Judicial District, but any case pending in either of said courts may, in the discretion of the judge thereof, be transferred by one of said district courts to the other, and in case of the disqualification of the judge of either of said courts and in any case, such case on his suggestion of disqualification shall stand transferred to the other of said courts and docketed by the clerk accordingly. All writs and process heretofore, or that may hereafter be issued, up to the time this Act shall take effect, which are made returnable to the Criminal District Court of Galveston and Harris Counties, shall be returnable to the court to which the cause has been or may be transferred in like manner as if originally made returnable to said court and all writs and process are hereby validated.

The district clerk of Galveston county shall receive the sum of $600.00 per annum, to be paid by the county of Galveston for ex officio services, and receive the same fees in criminal cases as fixed by law in felony cases, and the county clerk shall receive the sum of $600.00 per annum for ex officio services and be entitled to such fees as are provided by law in misdemeanor cases.

The county commissioners court shall have authority to pay for the services of a special deputy district or county clerk, or both, if in their judgment such shall be required; such assistant to be appointed by the clerk of the court in which his services are needed. The county attorney and his assistant shall conduct all prosecutions in said district and county courts and county court at law and said county attorneys and the clerks of said court shall receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be provided for by law. [Id., § 17.]

Art. 52-41. Continuation in matters of jurisdiction, records and procedure of former court.—The Criminal District Court of Harris County herein provided for shall, from and after the time when this Act takes effect, be taken and deemed to be, in respect to all matters of jurisdiction, records and procedure a continuation of the Criminal District Court of Galveston and Harris Counties as now organized for Harris county, it being the intention of this Act to reduce the territorial limits of the Criminal Judicial District of Galveston and Harris Counties to Harris county alone. [Id., § 17a.]

Art. 52-42. Judge, how elected; term; qualifications; salary; powers and duties.—The judge of the Criminal District Court of Harris County shall be elected by the qualified voters of said county for a term of four years and shall hold his office until his successor is elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judges of the district court and shall receive the salary and compensation as is now, or may hereafter be provided for district judges of this State, to be paid in the same manner as the salary and compensation of other district judges is paid. Said judge of said criminal district court shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which are now, or hereafter may be by law vested in and exercised by district judges of this State in criminal cases. The judge of said court may exchange with other district judges, as provided by law, and the said judge shall have all the power within said criminal district which is by the Constitution and laws of this State vested in district judges of their respective judicial districts, except that the jurisdiction and authority of said criminal district judge shall be limited to criminal cases, and to the exercise of such powers and the granting of such writs and process as may be necessary or incidental to the exercise of such criminal jurisdiction. [Id., § 18.]

Art. 52-43. Criminal district attorney of Harris county; powers and duties.—There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the criminal district of Harris county, Texas, an attorney for said court who shall be styled "The Criminal District Attorney of Harris County," and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said criminal district attorney shall possess all of the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other district attorneys. It shall be the duty of said criminal district attorney, or of his assistants, as hereinafter provided, to be in attendance upon each term of said Criminal District Court of Harris County and to represent the State in all matters pending before said court. And he shall have exclusive control of all criminal cases wherever pending, or in whatever court in Harris county that now has jurisdiction of criminal cases, as well as any or all courts that may be hereafter created and given jurisdiction of any criminal cases, and he shall collect the fees therefor provided by law. He shall also have control of any and all cases heard on habeas corpus before any civil district court of Harris county, as well as before the criminal court of said county. The criminal district attorney of Harris county shall have and exercise, in addition to the specific powers given and duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within said criminal district of Harris county as are by law now conferred or which may hereafter be conferred upon district and county attorneys in the various counties and judicial districts of this State. It is further provided that he and his assistants shall have the exclusive right, and it shall be their sole duty to perform the duties provided for in this Act, except in cases of the absence from the county of the criminal district attorney and his assistants, or their inability or refusal to act; and no other person shall have the power to perform the duties provided in this Act, or to represent the State in any case in Harris county, except in case of the absence from Harris county, or the disability or refusal to act, of the criminal district attorney and his assistants. [Id., § 19.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 52-44. Same; appointment and compensation.—The said criminal district attorney of Harris county shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive a salary of five hundred dollars per annum, to be paid by the State, and in addition thereto shall receive the following fees in felony cases, to be paid by the State: For each conviction of felonious homicide, where the defendant does not appeal or dies, or escapes after appeal and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of forty dollars. For all other convictions in felony cases, where the defendant does not appeal, or dies, or escapes, after appeal, and before final judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or where, upon appeal, the judgment is affirmed, the sum of thirty dollars; provided, that in all convictions of felony, in which punishment is fixed by the verdict and judgment by confinement in the House of Correction and Reformatory, his fee shall be fifteen dollars. For representing the State in each case of habeas corpus where the defendant is charged with a felony, the sum of twenty dollars. For representing the State in examining trials, in felony cases, where indictment is returned, in each case, the sum of five dollars. The criminal district attorney shall also receive such fees in misdemeanor cases, to be paid by the defendant and by the county; as is now provided by law for district and county attorneys, and he shall also receive such compensation for other services rendered by him as is now, or may hereafter be, authorized by law to be paid to other district and county attorneys in this State. [Id., § 20.]

Art. 52-45. Same; accounting for fees in excess of specified amount.—The criminal district attorney of Harris county shall retain out of the fees earned by him in the Criminal District Court of Harris County the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, and in addition thereto, one-fourth of the gross excess of all fees in excess of twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, the three-fourths of the excess over and above twenty-five hundred dollars per annum, remaining, to be paid by him into the treasury of Harris county. It is provided that in arriving at the amount collected by him, he shall include the fees arising from all classes of criminal cases of which the Criminal District Court of Harris County has original and exclusive jurisdiction, whether felony, misdemeanor, habeas corpus hearings, or commission on fines and forfeitures collected in said court, it being the intention of this Act that the criminal district attorney of Harris county shall include all fees of every kind and class earned by him in said criminal district court in arriving at the amount collected by him; it being further provided that at the end of each year he shall make a full and complete report and accounting to the county judge of Harris county of the amount of such fees collected by him. [Id., § 21.]

Art. 52-46. Same; assistants and stenographer; salaries; oath; removal; powers of assistants; fees.—The Criminal District Attorney of Harris County shall appoint two assistant criminal district attorneys, who shall each receive a salary of eighteen hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly. He shall also appoint a stenographer, who shall receive a salary of not more than twelve hundred dollars per annum, payable monthly. In addition to the assistant criminal district attorneys and stenographer, above provided for, the county judge of Harris County may, with the approval of the commissioners' court, appoint as many additional assistants as may be necessary to properly administer the affairs of the office of Criminal District Attorney and enforce the law, upon the Criminal District Attorney making application under oath, addressed to the County Judge of Harris County, setting out the need therefor, provided, the county judge, with the approval of the commissioners' court may discontinue the service of any one or more of the assistant criminal district attorneys provided for in this Act, when in his judgment and of the judgment of the commissioners' court, they are not necessary; provided that the additional assistants appointed by the county judge as herein provided for shall receive not more than $1,800.00 per year, payable monthly. The salaries of all assistants shall be paid by Harris County; provided that if the above salaries be insufficient and inadequate for the proper investigation of crime in Harris County and the efficient performance of the duties of said office, then the Criminal District Attorney may contract for and pay such additional compensation as is necessary for the proper and efficient discharge of his duties, out of the excess fees collected by him which would otherwise go to the county, a detailed itemized statement, under oath, of which he shall include in his annual report to the County Judge of Harris County, to be approved by the county auditor, but in no event shall the county be liable for such extra compensation. Provided further that before said Criminal District Attorney shall pay such extra compensation he shall secure the written approval of a majority of the District Judges of Harris County. The assistant criminal district attorneys above provided for, when so appointed, shall take the oath of office and be authorized to represent the State before said Criminal District Court, and in all other courts in Harris County in which the Criminal District Attorney of Harris County, is authorized by this Act to represent the State, such authority to be exercised under the direction of the said Criminal District Attorney, and which assistants shall be subject to removal at the will of the said Criminal District Attorney. Each of said assistant criminal district attorneys shall be authorized to file informations, examine witnesses before the grand jury and generally to perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Harris County, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon the said Criminal District Attorney when by him so authorized. The Criminal District Attorney of Harris County shall be paid the same fees for services rendered by his assistants as he would be entitled to receive if the services should have been rendered by himself. Provided, further, that the $2,500 in fees and the one-fourth of the excess fees heretofore provided for shall in no event exceed the total sum of $6,000 per year as compensation to said District Attorney, and any amount in excess thereof shall be turned in to the County Treasurer. [Act Feb. 23, 1917, ch. 42, § 1.]

Art. 52-47. Clerk, how elected; term; fee; salary; powers and duties; deputies.—The clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Harris county, and shall hold his office for a term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. Said clerk shall receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law to be paid to the clerk of the district courts of this State, and to be paid and collected in the same manner; and in addition thereto, he shall receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars, to be paid out of the treasury of Harris county monthly. Said clerk shall have the same power and authority, and shall perform the same duties with respect to said Criminal District Court of Harris County as are by law conferred upon the clerks of other district courts in criminal cases, and shall have authority to appoint one or more deputies as needed, whose salary shall be paid by said clerk. Said deputies shall take the oath of office prescribed by the Constitution of this State, and said deputies are authorized to perform such services as may be authorized by said criminal district clerk, and shall be removable at the will of the clerk. [Act 1911, p. 117, ch. 67, § 23.]

Art. 52-48. Judge, attorney and clerk to continue in office until, etc.; clerk to be appointed.—The criminal district judge and the criminal district attorney of the criminal judicial district composed of Galveston and Harris counties, who shall be in office at the time when this Act goes into effect, shall continue in office, respectively, as the judge and the district attorney of the Criminal District Court of Harris County until the next general election, or until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

The clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County who shall be in office at the time when this Act goes into effect shall continue in office as clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County until January 1, A. D. 1912, and until his successor is appointed and qualified.

The Governor shall, on January 1, 1912, or thereafter, appoint a clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County, who shall hold his office from January 1, A. D. 1912, until the next general election, or until his successor is elected and qualified. [Id., § 24.]

Art. 52-49. Criminal District Court of Travis County; jurisdiction.—The criminal district court of Travis and Williamson Counties, as now created by law shall when this bill takes effect, be known as the Criminal District Court of Travis County, Texas, and shall exercise, have and enforce all the powers and jurisdiction which it now has within and for Travis County and, in addition thereto, shall have and exercise all of the jurisdiction, powers, and functions of a district court under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas; provided, however, that it shall not exercise or have any jurisdiction or powers as such other than is incident to a district court of general jurisdiction, it being the purpose of this Act to take Williamson County out of the district of said criminal district court as now organized and confine its jurisdiction exclusively to Travis County. The said criminal district court, when this bill becomes effective, shall have the right and power to certify and transfer to the Fifty-third Judicial District Court either civil or criminal cases and the Fifty-third Judicial [Judicial] District Court shall have the right to certify and transfer to the criminal district court of Travis County for trial civil cases. Civil cases may be filed or instituted in either the criminal district court of Travis County or in the Fifty-third Judicial District Court in Travis County and both of said courts, or either of them, shall have the right, power and jurisdiction to try either civil or criminal cases within its jurisdiction under the Constitution [Constitution] and General Laws of the State. The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall continue, as now provided by law, to select jury commissioners and impanel grand juries and exercise all of the other powers, functions and jurisdiction now conferred upon it by law, it being the purpose of this Act, not to repeal the Act hereby amended otherwise than is herein specifically done, and this Act is in addition to and cumulative of the Act hereby amended. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 5.]

Art. 52-50. Terms of Court.—The Criminal District Court of Travis County shall hold its terms at the following time, to-wit: On the first Monday in February and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in March; on the first Monday in April and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in May; on the first Monday in June and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in August; on the first Monday in October and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in November; on the first Monday in December and may continue in session to and including the last Saturday in January. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 5a.]

Art. 52-51. Clerk.—The district clerk of Travis County shall be the clerk of the district courts for the Fifty-third Judicial District and of the Criminal District Court of Travis County and shall perform all of the duties of clerk of the said two courts. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 6.]

Art. 52-52. Election of judge; term.—At the general election, next preceding the taking effect of this Act, there shall be elected, a district judge for the Criminal District Court of Travis County who shall qualify as soon as the Act takes effect, and his term of office shall be four years, and he shall continue in office until his successor is elected and qualified. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 8.]

Art. 52-53. Court reporter.—Upon the taking effect of this Act, the respective judges of each of the said three district courts shall, each for his respective court, appoint an official court reporter who shall have the qualifications and be subject to the same regulations and receive the same compensation as is now, or may hereafter be, fixed by law, for court reporters in district courts. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 9.]

Art. 52-54. District Attorney; election; qualifications; term; compensation.—At the general election next preceding the taking effect of this Act, there shall be elected a district attorney for the counties of Travis and Williamson who shall hold office for a term of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. That the said district attorney shall possess the qualifications and receive the compensation fixed by law for the office of district attorney; and it shall be his duty to represent the State of Texas in all courts in Travis and Williamson Counties in all matters pertaining to the duties of the office of district attorney. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 10.]

Art. 52-55. Grand juries.—Grand juries for the Criminal District Court of Travis County shall be organized at each of the terms of said court. And grand juries for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court shall be organized at the January, May and September terms of the said court; provided, however, that the judge of the district court for the Twenty-sixth Judicial District may, when deemed necessary, organize and impanel grand juries at any other term of said court by entering an order therefor. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 11.]

Art. 52-56. Transfer of causes.—Upon the taking effect of this Act the district clerk of Williamson County shall transfer all causes pending on the docket of the said Criminal District Court in Williamson County to the docket of the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court; and that all causes so transferred shall be disposed of as though originally filed in the said court to which they were so transferred. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 13.]

Art. 52-57. Same.—Either judge of the Fifty-third Judicial District or the Criminal District Court of Travis County may, in his discretion, at any time, transfer any cause pending on the docket of his court to the other District Court in Travis County, and when the said transfer is so made the said cause so transferred shall be disposed of by the court to which the same was so transferred as though originally filed in the said court. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 14.]

Art. 52-58. Writs, processes, bonds, etc.; return.—All writs, processes, bonds, recognizances and orders in civil and criminal cases and matters, issued, executed, entered into, or required prior to the taking effect of this Act, in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court, and in the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties, respectively, and returnable to terms of said courts, as heretofore fixed by law, in the counties of Travis and Williamson, are hereby made returnable to the next ensuing terms of the respective courts to which they are required to be transferred, under the provisions of this Act, and shall be as valid and binding as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the time of holding same; and all juries drawn and selected under existing laws shall be as valid as if no change had been made in said courts or in the time of holding same; and at the last term of the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties held in Williamson and Travis Counties, under existing laws, the judge of said criminal district court shall provide for the drawing and selection of a grand jury for the proper terms of court in Travis and Williamson Counties, to be held after this Act takes effect; and the said petit and grand juries so drawn and selected shall be required to appear and serve and their acts shall be valid as if no change had been made in said courts, or in the times of holding said courts. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 15.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 52-59. Judgments and orders.—This Act shall not be construed to in anywise or in any manner affect judgments or orders rendered or made in the Twenty-sixth Judicial District Court in Travis County, or rendered or made in the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties, in either of said counties prior to the taking effect of this Act; but it is provided that after this Act becomes effective as a law the Twenty-sixth Judicial District shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court of Travis and Williamson Counties had or could exercise jurisdiction in Williamson County under the law as it now exists; and after this Act becomes effective as a law the Fifty-third Judicial District Court and the Criminal District Court of Travis County shall have jurisdiction of all judgments, orders and matters over which the Criminal District Court for Travis and Williamson Counties and the Twenty-sixth Judicial District had or could exercise jurisdiction in Travis County under the law as it now exists. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 16.]

Art. 52-60. Taking effect of Act.—It is provided that this Act shall take effect and be in force on and after January first, 1925. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 17.]

Art. 52-61. Repeal.—All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed. [Acts 1923, 38th Leg., ch. 68, § 18.]

Art. 52-62. Criminal District Court of Nueces, Kleberg, Kenedy, Willacy and Cameron, Counties.—See Rev. Civ. St. 1925, art. 199-28.

Art. 52-63. Court for Tarrant County created; jurisdiction.—There is hereby created and established at the city of Ft. Worth a Criminal District Court to be known as "Criminal District Court of Tarrant County," which Court shall have and exercise, from and after the taking effect of this Act, original and exclusive jurisdiction over all criminal cases of the grade of felony in the county of Tarrant of which district courts, under the Constitution and laws of this State, have original and exclusive jurisdiction, and shall have and exercise such concurrent jurisdiction with the county court of Tarrant county over misdemeanor cases as is hereinafter provided by this Act. [Act March 15, 1917, ch. 77, § 1.]

Art. 52-64. Criminal judicial district created.—There is hereby created and established a Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, to be composed of the County of Tarrant, Texas, alone and which shall be co-extensive with the territorial boundaries and limits of said Tarrant County, and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, Texas, shall have and exercise all of the criminal jurisdiction of and for said Criminal District of Tarrant County, Texas, which is now conferred by law on said Criminal District Court. [Acts 1919, 36th Leg. 2d C. S., ch. 80, § 1.]

Art. 52-65. Jurisdiction; transfer of causes.—From and after the time this Act shall take effect, the county court of Tarrant county and the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county created by this Act, shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all misdemeanor cases of which the county court of Tarrant county may now, or may hereafter have exclusive jurisdiction; and of such misdemeanor cases as shall be filed in said county court on appeal from justices' or recorders' courts; and either the judge of said Criminal District Court, or the judge of said county court of Tarrant county, may upon motion of the county attorney of Tarrant county, or other officer representing the State in said courts, in his discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers, are made, the clerk of the court making such transfer shall certify to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made a statement of the cause or causes so transferred giving the style and number of the same to the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made and shall accompany such statement with all the papers in said cause or causes so transferred and upon receipt of such statement and the papers in such cause or causes so transferred, the clerk of the court to which such transfer is made shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of the court to which such transfer or transfers are made shall dispose of said cause or causes in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted in said court. [Act March 15, 1917, ch. 77, § 2.]

Art. 52-66. Jurisdiction over bail bonds, etc.—Said court shall have jurisdiction over all bail bonds and recognizances taken in proceedings had before said court, or that may be returned to said court from other courts, and may enter forfeitures thereof and final judgments, and enforce the collection of the same by proper process in the same manner as is provided by law in district courts. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-67. Seal of court.—The said Criminal District Court of Tarrant county shall have a seal similar to the seal of the district court with the words "Criminal District Court of Tarrant county" engraved thereon, an impression of which seal shall be attached to all writs and other processes, except subpoenas, issuing from said court, and shall be used in the authentication of the official acts of the clerk of said court. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-68. Procedure.—The practice in said court shall be conducted according to the laws governing the practice in the district court, and the rules of pleading and evidence in the district court shall govern insofar as the same may be applicable. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-69. Jury laws to apply.—All laws regulating the selection, summoning and impaneling of grand and petit jurors in the district court shall govern and apply in the Criminal District Court in so far as the same may be applicable. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-70. Rules of criminal procedure.—All rules of criminal procedure governing the district and county courts shall apply to and govern said Criminal District Court. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-71. Juries in misdemeanor cases.—Said Criminal District Court of Tarrant County shall try all misdemeanor cases coming before it with six jurors instead of twelve jurors, unless a jury be waived by the defendant. [Id., § 8.]

Art. 52-72. Terms of court; grand jury.—Said Court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday of April, one term beginning the first Monday of July, one term beginning the first Monday of October, one term beginning the first Monday of January. Each term shall continue until the term ends by operation of law or the business is disposed of. The grand jury shall be impanelled in said court for each term thereof, unless otherwise directed by the judge of said Court. [Id., § 9.]

Art. 52-73. Continuance of term.—Whenever the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County shall be engaged in the trial of any cause when the time for expiration of the terms of said court as fixed by law shall arrive, the judge presiding shall have the power, and may, if he deems it expedient, continue the term of said court until the conclusion of such pending trial; in such case, the extension of such term shall be shown on the minutes of the court before they are signed. [Id., § 10.]

Art. 52-74. Officers.—The sheriff, county attorney, and the clerk of the district court of Tarrant county shall be the sheriff, county attorney and clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court under the same rules and regulations as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, county attorneys, and clerks of the district courts of this State; and said sheriff, county attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now, or may hereafter be prescribed for such officers in the district courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner, provided that the clerk of the court herein created, shall receive as compensation for his services the sum of $125.00 (one hundred and twenty-five dollars) per month, to be paid as all the salaries of other clerks of criminal district courts in this State. [Id., § 11.]

Art. 52-75. Same powers as district court; rules.—In all such matters over which said Criminal District Court has jurisdiction, it shall have the same power within said district as is conferred by law upon the district court, and shall be governed by the same rules in the exercise of said power. [Id., § 12.]

Art. 52-76. Appeal and error.—Appeals and writs of error may be prosecuted from said Criminal District Court to the court of criminal appeals in criminal cases and to the courts of civil appeals in the same manner and form as from district courts in like cases. [Id., § 13.]

Art. 52-77. Jurisdiction of district court.—From and after the taking effect of this Act, the district courts of Tarrant county as now constituted, shall be, and they are hereby deprived and divested of all jurisdiction in all criminal cases, and of all jurisdiction given the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county by this Act, and all criminal causes pending in said district courts at the time of the taking effect of this Act and all matters pertaining to criminal cases pending therein over which the court herein created is given jurisdiction, shall be, by the judges of the other district courts ordered transferred to and entered upon the docket of said Criminal District Court, and when so entered upon the docket, the judge of said Criminal District Court shall try and dispose of same in the same manner as if such cases were originally instituted therein. Provided that the other district courts of Tarrant county shall have jurisdiction concurrently with this court to empanel grand juries and to receive their bills of indictment and make proper transfer of same to the Criminal District Court. [Id., § 14.]

Art. 52-78. Judge; election; term; qualifications; salary; powers; appointment.—The judge of said Criminal Court of Tarrant county shall be elected by the qualified voters of Tarrant county for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now, or may hereafter be paid, to the district judges to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of this State in criminal cases. Provided, that the Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, if in session, shall appoint a judge of said court who shall hold the office until the next general election after the passage of this Act, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. [Id., § 15.]

Art. 52-79. Exchange of judges; disqualification or absence.—The judge of said criminal district court may exchange districts with or hold court for any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected. [Id., § 16.]

Art. 52-80. Validation of process heretofore issued.—All orders heretofore made and all process heretofore issued in any criminal cause so transferred are hereby validated and made of full force and effect in the Criminal District Court of Tarrant county. [Id., § 17.]

Art. 52-81. Criminal district attorney; election; term of office; qualifications; oath; bond.—There shall be elected by the qualified electors of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County, Texas, an Attorney for said District who shall be styled the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and who shall hold his office for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified. The said Criminal District Attorney shall possess all the qualifications and take the oath and give the bond required by the Constitution and laws of this State, of other District Attorneys. [Acts 1919, 36th Leg., 2d C. S., ch. 80, § 2.]

Art. 52-82. Same; powers and duties.—It shall be the duty of said Criminal District Attorney or his assistants as herein provided to be in attendance upon each term and all sessions of the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County, and of all sessions and terms of the County Court of Tarrant County, Texas, held for the transaction of criminal business, and to represent the State in all matters pending before said Courts, and to represent Tarrant County in all matters pending before such Courts, the Commissioners' Court of Tarrant County and Justice Courts and any other courts where said Tarrant County has pending business of any kind or matter of concern or interest. The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall have and exercise in addition to the specific powers given and the duties imposed upon him by this Act, all such powers, duties and privileges within such criminal district of Tarrant County as are by law now conferred, or which may hereafter be conferred upon District and County Attorneys in the various Counties and Judicial Districts of this State. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-83. Same; compensation.—Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive as salary and compensation the following and no more:

A salary of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars from the State of Texas, as provided in the Constitution of the State of Texas, for the salary of District Attorney, and so much of the fees, commissions and perquisites earned by said office to make up the total compensation to the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars; provided, that the amount of such salary, fees and perquisites to be received and retained by him shall never exceed the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000) Dollars in any one year; and, provided, further, that all salaries, fees, commissions and perquisites so earned and received by such office in excess of $6,000 during each and every fiscal year shall be paid into the County Treasury of said county in accordance with the terms and provisions of the maximum fee bill, except as to such portion of such excess as shall be used and expended in the payment of salaries to deputies, as hereinafter provided. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-84. Same; assistants.—The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, for the purpose of conducting the affairs of such office, shall be and is hereby authorized, by and with the written consent of the county judge of said county, to appoint such assistant district attorneys who shall have all the qualifications of the criminal district attorney, as are necessary to perform the duties and affairs of such office, not to exceed six in number, two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed three thousand dollars each per annum; two of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-five hundred dollars each per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars per annum; one of whom shall receive a salary not to exceed fifteen hundred dollars per annum. Said criminal district attorney shall also be authorized, with the consent of the county judge of said county, to appoint, not to exceed two assistants who shall not be required to possess the qualifications prescribed by law for criminal district attorneys, who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by said criminal district attorney, and who shall receive as their compensation a salary not to exceed twenty-one hundred dollars each per annum. All salaries above mentioned shall be payable monthly, and the said salaries to be paid only out of the fees of office collected by said district attorney, said fees of office to be the same as are now allowed and permitted by law to be paid to the county and district attorneys of this State. The fixing of the amount of salaries to be paid by said criminal district attorney to said assistants shall be fixed and regulated by the commissioners court of said county by an order passed at a regular session of said court and duly spread upon the minutes of said court; provided that the two assistants to the district attorney who are not required to have the qualifications of a criminal district attorney shall, so far as Tarrant County is concerned, be in lieu of the assistants of like character provided for in any statutes of this State. [Acts 1919, 36th Leg. 2d C. S., ch. 80, § 5; Acts 1920, 36th Leg. 3d C. S., ch. 6, § 1 (§ 5).]

Art. 52-85. Same; assistants; oath, etc.—The Assistant Criminal District Attorneys above provided for when so appointed shall take the oath of office as such, and be authorized to represent the State before the Criminal District Court of Tarrant County in which the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County is authorized by this Act to represent the State, or to represent Tarrant County. Each of said Assistant Criminal District Attorneys shall be authorized to administer oaths, file information, examine witnesses before the Grand Jury, and generally to perform any duty devolving upon the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and to exercise any power conferred by law upon such Criminal District Attorney when by him so authorized and directed. [Acts 1919, 36th Leg. 2d C. S., ch. 80, § 6.]

Art. 52-86. Same; powers; fees.—Said Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County shall be clothed with all the powers and vested with all the rights and privileges conferred upon County Attorneys and District Attorneys of this state, and shall receive no salary or compensation or perquisites or fees of any character save those provided in Section 4 of this Act. All fees or commissions from all sources, including fees and commissions in all criminal and civil cases, and for the prosecution of all tax suits, and from every other source, shall be turned over to the County Treasurer of said County by the said District Attorney, subject only to the payment of the salary of himself and his deputies, as provided in this Act. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-87. Same; election.—The Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, as provided for in this Act shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Criminal Judicial District of Tarrant County at the next general election, but it is provided and directed that the present County Attorney of Tarrant County shall continue in office and assume the duties and be known as the "Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County" and shall proceed to organize and arrange the affairs of the office of the Criminal District Attorney of Tarrant County, and appoint Assistants as provided for in this Act, and receive the compensation and salary provided for in this Act for such office until the next general election, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified. Provided this Act shall not be construed as, creating any Court additional to those now existing in Tarrant County. [Id., § 8.]

Section 9 of Acts 1919, 36th Leg., 2d C. S., ch. 80, p. 246, repeals all conflicting laws.

Art. 52-88. [91] County Courts; exclusive jurisdiction of misdemeanors, except, etc.—The county courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors, except misdemeanors involving official misconduct, and except cases in which the highest penalty or fine that may be imposed under the law may not exceed two hundred dollars; and except in counties where there is established a criminal district court. [Const., art. 5, § 16; Act June 16, 1876, p. 13, § 3.]

Art. 52-89. [92] Power to forfeit bail bonds.—County courts shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture and final judgment of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases, of which criminal cases said courts have jurisdiction. [Act June 16, 1876, p. 18, § 3.]

Art. 52-90. [93] Power to issue writs of habeas corpus.—The county courts, or judges thereof, shall have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus in all cases in which the constitution has not conferred the power on the district courts or judges thereof; and, upon the return of such writ, may remand to custody, admit to bail or discharge the person imprisoned or detained, as the law and nature of the case may require. [Const., art. 5, § 16; Act June 16, 1876, p. 19, § 5.]

Art. 52-91. [94] Appellate jurisdiction.—The county courts shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases of which justices of the peace and other inferior tribunals have original jurisdiction. [Const., art. 5, § 16; Act June 16, 1876, p. 18, § 3.]

[Id. sec. 9.]

Art. 52-101. Appointment of jury commissioners; selection, etc., of juries.—The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the county court of Dallas county, at law. [Id. sec. 10.]

Art. 52-102. Vacancy in office of judge, how filled.—Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, may be filled by the commissioners' court of Dallas county until the next general election. [Id. sec. 11.]

Art. 52-103. Fees and salary of judge.—The judge of the county court of Dallas county, at law, shall collect the same fees as are now established by law relating to county judges, all of which shall be by him paid monthly into the county treasury; and he shall receive an annual salary of three thousand dollars per annum, payable monthly, to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners' court. [Id. sec. 12.]

Art. 52-104. Salary of county judge of Dallas county.—The county judge of Dallas county shall hereafter receive from the county treasury, in addition to the fees allowed him by law, such a salary, for the ex officio duties of his office, as may be allowed him by the commissioners' court, not less than twelve hundred dollars per year. [Id. sec. 13.]

Art. 52-105. County court of Bexar county for criminal cases created.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Bexar County, Texas, to be called the "County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases." [Act 1915, p. 78, ch. 39, § 1.]

Art. 52-106. Same; jurisdiction.—The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall have exclusive jurisdiction of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, over which, by the General Laws of the State of Texas, the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction, and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases; and all criminal writs and processes heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, be, and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases. [Id. § 2.]

Art. 52-107. Same; jurisdiction retained by other courts.—The jurisdiction hereby transferred to the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall include all criminal cases and matters, the forfeiture of bonds in criminal cases, all proceedings in relation thereto; but the County Court of Bexar County shall retain, as heretofore, the jurisdiction of all cases of eminent domain; the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians; transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlement, partition and distribution of estates of deceased persons, and to apprentice minors, as provided by law. The county judge of Bexar county shall be the judge of County Court of Bexar County, and all ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the County Court of Bexar County, except in so far as the same shall, by this Act and by Act of the Thirty-second Legislature, General Laws pages 15-17, House Bill No. 111, Chapter 10, be committed to the judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases. The county judge of Bexar County shall retain authority to determine all matters relating to or arising out of or connected with the granting or revoking of liquor licenses, and all matters appertaining thereto, try all applications for liquor licenses and shall approve all liquor bonds as may be provided by law. He shall also retain jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-108. Same; power to issue writs.—The said County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, and the judge thereof shall have the power to issue writs of injunction, certiorari, supersedeas, mandamus, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court; and also power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are or may be provided by the General Laws governing County Courts throughout the State; and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases within the jurisdiction of said court. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-109. Same; terms.—The County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall hold at least four terms for criminal business annually as may be provided by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County under authority of law, and such other terms each year as may be fixed by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County; provided the Commissioners Court having fixed the terms of said court, shall not change the same until the expiration of one year. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-110. Same; election of judge; qualifications and tenure.—There shall be elected in said county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall be learned in the laws of the State, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have been duly qualified. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-111. Same; judge's bond.—The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases shall execute a bond in the sum of five thousand ($5,000.00) dollars and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-112. Same; special judge.—Special judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be appointed or elected as provided by laws relating to County Courts, and to the judges thereof, and shall receive salary and compensation similar to the judge of the court hereby created, but which shall be prorated and paid to him only for the actual number of days he actually serves. [Id., § 8.]

Art. 52-113. Same; clerk and sheriff.—The county clerk of Bexar County shall be the clerk of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases. The seal of said court shall be the same as that provided for County Courts, except that the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases." The sheriff of Bexar County shall in person or by deputy attend the court when required by the judge thereof. [Id., § 9.]

Art. 52-114. Same; jurors.—The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the County Court of Bexar County, and the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, for the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by each of the three courts within their jurisdiction. [Id., § 10.]

Art. 52-115. Same; vacancy in office of judge; appointment of first incumbent.—Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act may be filled by the Commissioners Court of Bexar County until the next general election. The Commissioners Court of the county shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases, who shall serve until the next general election, and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. [Id., § 11.]

Art. 52-116. Same; removal of judge.—The judge of the County Court of Bexar County for Criminal Cases may be removed from office in the same manner and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State. [Id., § 13.]

Art. 52-117. Same; purpose of act.—The provisions of this law are not intended to in any manner affect the jurisdiction of the County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, and this law is intended to create another court somewhat similar to said County Court of Bexar County for Civil Cases, but the court hereby created to have jurisdiction of criminal matters only. [Id., § 14.]

Art. 52-118. County court at law of Harris county, Texas, created.—The County Court of Harris County for Civil Cases shall hereafter be known as the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, and the seal of said court shall hereafter be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words: "County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas." [Act 1913, p. 10, ch. 8, § 1.]

Art. 52-119. Same; effect of change of name of former court.—The change in the name of said court shall in no way or manner, other than is provided in this Act, affect the officers or judge of said court, their compensation or tenure of office, and shall, in no way or manner, affect the process of said court already issued. The judge and officers now serving said County Court of Harris County for Civil Cases, shall continue to serve said court under its changed name to the same effect to all things as if the name had not been changed. All process heretofore issued out of said County Court for Civil Cases and all returns thereon shall in all things be treated and considered as if the name of said court had not been changed. [Id., § 2.]

Art. 52-120. Same; jurisdiction.—The said court to be hereafter known as the County Court at Law for Harris County shall have all the jurisdiction heretofore conferred upon it under the name of the County Court of Harris County for Civil Cases, and its judge shall have all the powers heretofore conferred upon the judge of the County Court of Harris County for Civil Cases; and in addition to the said jurisdiction the said County Court at Law of Harris County shall have all of the, and the same jurisdiction over criminal matters that is now vested in the county courts having jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases under the Constitution and laws of Texas, and all appeals from justices, mayors, recorders, or other inferior courts within Harris county, shall hereafter lie to said County Court at Law of Harris County instead of as heretofore, to the Criminal District Court of Harris County, and the judge of said court shall have, in addition to the powers now conferred upon him, the same powers, rights and privileges, as to criminal matters as are now vested in and enjoyed by the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided, however, that said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters the jurisdiction over which is now in the county court of Harris county or the judge thereof. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-121. Same; clerk; fees.—The county clerk of Harris county shall have no authority in criminal matters pending in said County Court at Law for Harris County. The clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County shall act as the clerk of the said County Court of Law for Harris County in all criminal matters, but only in criminal matters, and he shall sign all papers emanating from said court, including the minutes of said court in criminal matters, whenever its clerk's signature is necessary, as ex officio clerk of said County Court at Law for Harris County, using the seal of said court. The fees of said clerk as to those criminal matters, the jurisdiction over which is hereby vested in said County Court at Law, shall be the same in all respects, including amount, manner of payment and collection, as if the Criminal District Court of Harris County had retained jurisdiction over said matters. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-122. Same; transfer of misdemeanor cases.—All misdemeanor criminal cases now pending in the Criminal District Court of Harris County, as well as all criminal cases on appeal to the said district court from the various subordinate courts of Harris county shall, immediately upon the taking effect of this Act, be transferred to the County Court at Law of Harris County, and the same are hereby so transferred, and upon said County Court at Law is hereby conferred jurisdiction of such cases. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-123. Same; fees of judge.—In addition to the compensation now provided by law, the judge of said County Court at Law of Harris County, shall tax up, receive and collect in each case, the same fees and costs in criminal cases over which said county court has jurisdiction, as are now provided by the General Laws of the State, for judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction, such fees to be retained by him as compensation for the additional jurisdiction conferred upon his court. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-124. Same; terms.—Said court shall hold six terms a year, beginning respectively on the first Monday in January, in March, in May, in July, in September, and in November of each year, and each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-125. County court at law No. 2 of Harris County.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Harris County, Texas, to be called the "County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas." [Act 1915, 1st S. S., p. 18, ch. 8, § 1.]

Art. 52-126. Same; jurisdiction.—Said County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have, and it is hereby granted original and appellate jurisdiction, in all matters and causes of a civil and criminal nature, concurrent with and in all things equal to that heretofore conferred upon the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas. [Id., § 2.]

Art. 52-127. Same; judge; concurrent jurisdiction with county court at law; proviso.—The judge of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have and exercise all the powers and shall be subject to all the limitations and obligations heretofore or hereafter conferred or imposed upon the judge of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas. Said County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court at Law of Harris County over criminal matters, and shall have the same jurisdiction over criminal matters, that is now vested in county courts having jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases under the Constitution and laws of Texas. And said County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the County Court at Law of Harris County in all appeals from justices, mayors, recorders or other inferior courts within Harris County; and the judge of said court shall have the same powers, rights and privileges as to criminal matters as are now vested in and enjoyed by the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction; provided, however, that said court shall have no jurisdiction over any of those matters the jurisdiction over which is now vested in the County Court of Harris County, or the judge thereof. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-128. Same; qualifications of judge; compensation; fees.—The judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall be well informed in the law; he shall have been a duly licensed and practicing member of the bar of this State for not less than two years; he shall be appointed by the Governor of the State of Texas as soon as may be after this Act takes effect; he shall take the oath of office and execute an official bond as now required by the law relating to county judges, and he shall collect the same fees in civil cases as are now provided by law in case of county judges, all of which he shall pay monthly into the county treasury, and in lieu of such fees he shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars per annum to be paid out of the county treasury by the Commissioners Court of Harris County in monthly installments of two hundred and fifty dollars each. In addition to the compensation hereinbefore provided the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County shall tax up, receive and collect in each criminal case the same fees and costs as are now provided by the General Laws of the State for the judges of county courts having criminal jurisdiction, such fees to be retained by him as compensation for the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction herein conferred upon his court. [Id., § 4.]

Art. 52-129. Same; clerk; fees.—The county clerk of Harris County shall be the clerk of said County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County in civil matters and causes; and shall receive and collect the same fees which he now receives and collects as clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas. The clerk of the Criminal District Court of Harris County, Texas, shall be clerk of said County Court at Law No. 2 in all criminal matters and causes, and shall receive and collect such fees as he now receives and collects in criminal matters as clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County. [Id., § 5.]

Art. 52-130. Same; seal.—The seal of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that such seal shall contain the words "County Court at Law Number Two of Harris County, Texas," and said seal shall be judicially noticed. [Id., § 6.]

Art. 52-131. Same; sheriff; fees.—The sheriff of Harris County, either in person or by deputy, shall attend said court when required by the judge thereof; and the various sheriffs and constables of this State executing process issued out of said court shall receive the fees now or hereafter fixed by law for executing process issued out of county courts. [Id., § 7.]

Art. 52-132. Same; special judge.—A special judge of said court may be appointed or elected in the manner and instances now or hereafter provided by the law relating to county courts and the judges thereof. [Id., § 8.]

Art. 52-133. Same; power to issue writs.—Said court shall have power to issue writs of injunction, mandamus, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, certiorari, supersedeas, habeas corpus in criminal misdemeanor cases, and all writs necessary to the enforcement of its jurisdiction; and, within the limitations placed upon county courts, to punish contempts thereof. Writs of injunction granted in civil cases by the judge of said County Court at Law No. 2 and by the judge of said County Court at Law shall be made returnable to the court in which the petition for injunction shall be filed, as hereinafter provided. [Id., § 9.]

Art. 52-134. Same; jurisdiction of county court at law not impaired.—The jurisdiction, civil and criminal, of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall not in anywise be impaired or affected by this Act. [Id., § 10.]

Art. 52-135. Same; terms of court.—The terms of the court hereby created shall begin on the first Monday of the months of June, August, October, December, February and April of each year. The sessions of said court shall be held in such place as may be provided therefor by the Commissioners Court of Harris County. [Id., § 11.]

Art. 52-136. Same; transfer of pending causes.—As soon as may be, after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, shall transfer to the docket of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas, one-half of the civil cases then pending in said County Court at Law. In making such transfer, said Clerk shall first transfer to said County Court at Law No. 2 the case having the smallest file number on the docket of said County Court at Law. The case having the next highest file number shall remain on the docket of said County Court at Law. The case having the third smallest file number shall be transferred. In like manner said clerk shall go through the docket of said County Court at Law, transferring to the docket of said County Court at Law No. 2 every second civil case thereafter. The clerk shall note such transfer, when made, on the minutes of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas. New civil and new criminal cases filed with said clerk after such transfer has been made, irrespective of the court or judge to which the petitions in such civil cases shall be addressed, shall, in like manner, be filed by the said clerk, one civil and one criminal case in said County Court at Law No. 2, and one civil and one criminal case in said County Court at Law. The first new civil case and the first new criminal case, filed with said clerk after such transfer has been made, shall both be filed in said County Court at Law No. 2. [Id., § 12.]

Art. 52-137. Same; transfer of causes.—The judges of said County Court at Law and of said County Court at Law No. 2, in their discretion, either in term time or in vacation, by an order entered upon the minutes of their respective courts, may transfer to the court of the other any case or cases then pending in their respective courts. And when such case or case[s] shall be so transferred the court to which such transfer shall be made shall have the same right and authority to try and finally dispose of the same as the court making such transfer. [Id., § 13.]

Art. 52-138. Same; procedure.—The practice in said County Court at Law No. 2, and in cases of appeal and writs of error therefrom and thereto, shall be the same as is now, or may hereafter be prescribed for county courts. [Id., § 14.]

Art. 52-139. Same; return of process in transferred causes.—All process issued out of the County Court at Law of Harris County, Texas, prior to the time when the clerk thereof shall transfer cases from the docket of said courts, as provided in Section 12 of this Act, in cases transferred as therein provided, shall be returned to and filed in the court hereby created, and shall be equally as valid and binding upon parties to such transferred cases as though such process had been issued out of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, Texas. Likewise, in cases transferred by the judges of either of said courts, as provided in Section 13 of this Act, all process extant at the time of such transfer shall be returned to and filed in the court to which such transfer is made, and shall be as valid and binding as though originally issued out of the court to which such transfer may be made. [Id., § 15.]

Art. 52-140. Same; appointment of judge in first instance; election.—As soon as this Act shall take effect the Governor of the State shall appoint a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. And any vacancy thereafter occurring in the office of the judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, created by this Act, shall be filled by the Commissioners Court of Harris County, the appointee thereof to hold office until the next succeeding general election, and until his successor shall have qualified. There shall be elected by the qualified voters of Harris County at each general election hereafter, a judge of the County Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall be duly qualified. [Id., § 16.]

Art. 52-141. County court of Jefferson county at law created.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Beaumont, Jefferson County, Texas, to be called the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. [Acts 1915, p. 51, ch. 29, § 1.]

Art. 52-142. Same; jurisdiction.—The County Court of Jefferson County at Law shall have jurisdiction in all matters and cases, civil and criminal, original and appellate, over which by the general laws of the State the County Court of said county would have jurisdiction, except as hereinafter provided in Section 3 of this Act, and all cases pending in the County Court of said county other than probate matters such as are provided in Section 3 of this Act, shall be and the same are hereby transferred to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and all writs and process, civil and criminal, heretofore issued by or out of said County Court, other than those pertaining to matters which are hereby exempt from this bill that are to remain in the County Court of Jefferson County, shall be and the same are hereby made returnable to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. The jurisdiction of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and to the Judge thereof, shall extend to all matters of eminent domain of which jurisdiction has heretofore vested in the County Court or in the County Judge; but this provision shall not affect the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the County Judge of Jefferson County as the presiding officer of said Commissioners Court as to roads, bridges and public highways, or matters of eminent domain which are now in the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Court or the Judge thereof. [Id., § 2.]

Art. 52-143. Same; jurisdiction of other courts.—The County Court of Jefferson County shall retain, as heretofore, the general jurisdiction of the Probate Court and all jurisdiction conferred by law now over probate matters; and the court herein created shall have no other jurisdiction than that named in this bill, and the County Court of Jefferson County as now and heretofore existing shall have all jurisdiction which it now has, save and except that which is given the County Court of Jefferson County at Law in this bill, but the County Court as now existing shall have no other jurisdiction, civil or criminal. The County Judge of Jefferson County shall be the Judge of the County Court of said county, and all ex officio duties of the County Judge shall be exercised by said Judge of the County Court of Jefferson County, except in so far as the same shall by this bill be committed to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law. [Id., § 3.]

Art. 52-144. Same; clerk; seal; sheriff and deputy.—The County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and the seal of said court shall be the same as that provided by law for County Courts, except the seal shall contain the words "County Court of Jefferson County at Law;" and the Sheriff of Jefferson County shall in person or by deputy attend said court when required by the Judge thereof, and the County Clerk of Jefferson County, Texas, is hereby authorized, if it becomes necessary, in his judgment, to appoint a deputy to specially attend to the matters pertaining to the County Court of Jefferson County at Law, and said deputy shall be allowed a salary of one hundred dollars per month. [Id., § 10.]

Art. 52-145. County court at law of Galveston, Texas, created.—There is hereby created a court to be held in Galveston county, to be called the "County Court of Galveston County at Law." [Loc. & Sp. Acts 1911, 32d Leg., ch. 104, § 1.]

Art. 52-146. Same; jurisdiction; causes transferred to.—The County Court of Galveston county at law shall only have jurisdiction in criminal matters and causes, original and appellate, over which, by the general laws of the State, the county courts of this State would have jurisdiction; and all misdemeanor cases be and the same are hereby transferred to the county court of Galveston county at law, and all criminal writs and process in misdemeanor cases heretofore issued by or out of the criminal district court of said county be and the same are hereby made returnable to the county court of Galveston county at law. [Id. § 2.]

Art. 52-147. Same; other jurisdiction not affected.—This Act shall not affect the jurisdiction of the county court of Galveston county, which shall be exclusive in probate, civil or other matters, except as stated, nor shall it affect the jurisdiction of the commissioners court or of the county judge of Galveston county as the presiding officer of such court. All ex officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the county court of Galveston county, except in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the county court of Galveston county at law. [Id. § 3.]

Art. 52-148. Same; terms of court; practice; appeals and writs of error.—The terms of the county court of Galveston county at law, and the practice therein and appeals and writs of error therefrom, shall be as prescribed by laws relating to county courts. The terms of the county court of Galveston county at law shall be held as now established for the terms of the county court of Galveston county until the same terms may be changed by the Commissioners Court. [Id. § 4.]

Art. 52-149. Same; judge; election; term of office.—There shall be elected in said county by the qualified voters thereof, at each general election, a judge of the county court of Galveston county at law, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State, who shall hold his office for two years, and until his successor shall have duly qualified. [Id. § 5.]

Art. 52-150. Same; judge; bond; oath of office.—The judge of the county court of Galveston county at law shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges. [Id. § 6.]

Art. 52-151. Same; special judge.—A special judge of the county court of Galveston county at law may be appointed or elected, as provided by laws relating to county courts and to judges thereof. [Id. § 7.]

Art. 52-152. Same; writs; power to issue.—The county court of Galveston county at law, or the judges thereof, shall have power to issue all writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of said court, and to issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or of any other court or tribunal inferior to said court. [Id. § 8.]

Art. 52-153. Same; clerk; deputy; salary; fees; seal of court; sheriff or constable to attend; prosecuting officer.—The county clerk of Galveston county shall be the clerk of the county court of Galveston county at law. The county clerk shall have authority to appoint a suitable person special deputy for said court to be paid a salary by the county of Galveston, not to exceed the sum of one hundred ($100.00) dollars per month; and said county clerk shall be entitled to the same fees for criminal cases in said court as is now or hereafter fixed by law for criminal cases in county courts of this State. He shall be allowed by the county to be paid out of the general fund the sum of six hundred ($600.00) dollars as ex officio fees for said court. The seal of the said court shall be the same as that provided by law for county courts, except that the seal shall contain the words, "County Court of Galveston County, at Law." The sheriff of Galveston county, or the constable for the justices precinct in which is located the county site of said county, shall, in person or by deputy, attend the said court when required by the judge thereof; and shall receive the same fees allowed by law for attending the county court. The county attorney of Galveston county shall be prosecuting officer of said court, and shall receive the same fees as are established by law relating to county and district attorneys. [Id. § 9.]

Art. 52-154. Same; juries.—The jurisdiction and authority now vested by law in the county court for the appointment of jury commissioners and the selection and service of jurors shall be exercised by the county court of Galveston county at law. [Id. § 10.]

Art. 52-155. Same; judge; vacancy in office of.—Any vacancy in the office of the judge of the court created by this Act may be filled by the commissioners court of Galveston county until the next general election. The commissioners court shall, as soon as may be, after this Act shall take effect, appoint a judge of the county court of Galveston county at law, who shall serve until the next general election and until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. [Id. § 11.]

Art. 52-156. Same; judge; fees, salary.—The judge of the county court of Galveston county at law shall collect the same fees as are now established by law relating to county judges in misdemeanor cases, all of which shall be by him paid monthly into the county treasury, and he shall receive an annual salary of twenty-one hundred ($2,100.00) dollars per annum, payable monthly, to be paid out of the county treasury by the commissioners court. [Id. § 12.]

Art. 52-157. [95] Appeal, etc., to district court, when.—In all counties in which the civil and criminal jurisdiction, or either, of county courts has been transferred to the district courts, appeals and writs of certiorari may be prosecuted to remove a case tried before a justice of the peace to the district court in the same manner and under the same circumstances under which appeals and writs of certiorari are allowed by general law to remove causes to the county court. [Act April 21, 1879, p. 125.]

Art. 52-158. Criminal district court No. 2, Harris county created.—Sec. 1. There is hereby created and established at the city of Houston a criminal district court to be known as the "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County," which court shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the criminal district court of Harris County under the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. From and after the time this law shall take effect, the criminal district court of Harris County and the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with each other in all felony causes, and in all matters and proceedings of which the said criminal district court of Harris County now has jurisdiction; and either of the judges of said criminal district courts may in their discretion transfer any cause or causes that may at any time be pending in his court to the other criminal district court by an order or orders entered upon the minutes of his court; and where such transfer or transfers are made the clerk of such criminal district court shall enter such cause or causes upon the docket to which such transfer or transfers are made, and, when so entered upon the docket, the judge of that court shall try and dispose of said causes in the same manner as if such causes were originally instituted in said court. From and after the taking effect of this Act, all felony cases of even numbers that are then pending on the docket of the criminal district court of Harris County shall be at once transferred to the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County, and from and after the taking effect of this Act, the clerk of the criminal district court shall file and docket the felony cases of even numbers in the Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County, and the felony cases of odd numbers in the criminal district court of Harris County.

Sec. 3. The judge of said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County shall be elected by the qualified voters of Harris County for a term of four years, and shall hold his office until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. He shall possess the same qualifications as are required of the judge of a district court, and shall receive the same salary as is now or may hereafter be paid to the district judges, to be paid in like manner. He shall have and exercise all the powers and duties now or hereafter to be vested in and exercised by district judges of the criminal district court of Harris County. The judge of said court may exchange with any district judge, as provided by law in cases of district judges, and, in case of disqualification or absence of a judge, a special judge may be selected, elected or appointed as provided by law in cases of district judges; provided, that the Governor, under the authority now provided by law, upon this Act becoming effective, shall appoint a judge of said court, who shall hold the office until the next general election, after the passage of this Law, and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. Either of the judges of said criminal district courts may, in his discretion, in the absence of the judge of the other criminal district court from his court room or from the County of Harris, Texas, try and dispose of any cause or causes that may be pending in such criminal district court as fully as could such absent judge were he personally present and presiding. And either of said judges may receive in open court from the foreman of the grand jury any bill or bills of indictment in the court to which such bill or bills of indictment may be returnable, entering the presentment of such bill or bills of indictment in the minutes of the proceedings of such court, and may hear and receive from any empaneled petit jury any report, information or verdict, and make and cause to be entered any order or orders in reference thereto, or with reference to the continuation of the deliberation of such petit jury or their final discharge, as fully and completely as such absent district judge could do if personally present and presiding over such court; and may make any other order or orders in such courts respecting the causes therein pending or the procedure pertaining thereto as the regular judge of said criminal district court could make if personally present and presiding.

Sec. 4. Said court shall have a seal of like design as the seal now provided by law for district courts, except that the words "Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County" shall be engraved around the margin thereof, which seal shall be used for all the purposes for which the seals of the district courts are required to be used; and certified copies of the orders, proceedings, judgments and other official acts of said court, under the hand of the clerk and attested by the seal of said court, shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this State in like manner as similar certified copies from courts of record are now or may hereafter be admissible.

Sec. 5. The sheriff, district attorney and the clerk of the criminal district court of Harris County, as heretofore provided for by law, shall be the sheriff, district attorney and clerk, respectively, of said Criminal District Court No. 2 of Harris County under the same rules and regulations as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for the government of sheriffs, district attorneys and clerks of the district courts of the State; and said sheriff, district attorney and clerk shall respectively receive such fees as are now or may hereafter be prescribed by law for such officers in the district courts of the State, to be paid in the same manner.

The county commissioners' court shall have authority to pay out of the general funds of the county for the services of such special deputy district clerks as in their judgment shall be required, such special deputy or deputies to be appointed by the clerk of the criminal district court, and to be removable at the will of the clerk, and to be paid a salary not to exceed the compensation allowed by law to other deputy district clerks, said salary shall be payable monthly. The criminal district attorney may appoint an assistant district attorney, in addition to those now provided by law, to attend said court. Said assistant shall have the authority and shall qualify as provided by law for assistant district attorneys, and shall be removable at the will of the district attorney, and shall receive a salary not to exceed the maximum salary allowed assistant district attorneys; said salary to be payable monthly by said county by warrant drawn from the general funds thereof.

Sec. 6. Said court shall hold four terms each year for the trial of causes and the disposition of business coming before it, one term beginning the first Monday in May, one term beginning on the first Monday in August, one term beginning on the first Monday in November, and one term beginning on the first Monday in February of each year. Each term shall continue until the business is disposed of. The trials and proceedings in said court shall be conducted according to the law governing the pleadings, practice and proceedings in criminal cases in the district courts. The district judges of the criminal district courts of Harris County shall alternately appoint grand jury commissioners and empanel grand juries; and they shall meet together and determine approximately the number of petit jurors that are reasonably necessary for jury service in the criminal district courts of the county for each week during the time said courts may hold during the year, and shall thereupon order the drawing of such number of jurors from the jury wheel of the county for each of said weeks, said jury to be known as the panel of jurors for service in the criminal district courts for the respective weeks for which they are designated to serve. The judges of the said criminal district courts shall agree upon which one shall be authorized to act in carrying out the provisions of this Act as relating to the calling and qualifying of the jury panel; they may increase or diminish the number of jurors to be selected for any week, and shall order said jurors drawn for as many weeks in advance of service as they deem proper. From time to time they shall designate the criminal district judge to whom the panel of jurors shall report for duty, and said judge, for such time as he is chosen to so act, shall organize said juries and have immediate supervision and control of them. The said jurors, after being regularly drawn from the wheel, shall be served by the sheriff to appear and report for jury service before said judge so designated, who shall hear excuses of said jury and swear them in for service for the week that they are to serve to try all cases that may be submitted to them in any of said criminal district courts, and they may be used interchangeably in the criminal district courts. In the event of a deficiency of said jurors, the judge having control of said panel of jurors shall order such additional jurors to be drawn from the wheel as may be sufficient to meet such emergency, but such jurors shall act only as special jurors and shall be discharged as soon as their services are no further needed. The provisions of the articles commonly known as the "jury wheel law" shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified by this Act and other laws now in effect. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 33, ch. 24.]

Section 7 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 33, ch. 24, repeals all conflicting laws and parts of laws; and section 9 provides that if any provision or part shall be held invalid, it shall not affect the remainder.

Art. 52-159. County Criminal Court of Dallas County, creation, jurisdiction, etc.—Sec. 1. There shall be created a court to be held in Dallas County, Texas, to be known and designated as "The County Criminal Court of Dallas County, Texas."

Sec. 2. The county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, shall have and same is hereby vested with concurrent jurisdiction within the said county of all criminal matters and causes, original and appellate that is now vested in the county courts having jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases under the Constitution and laws of Texas, except as provided in Section Three of this Act.

Sec. 3. The county court of Dallas County, Texas, shall retain as heretofore, its jurisdiction as a juvenile court, the general jurisdiction of a probate court; it shall probate wills, appoint guardians of minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and habitual drunkards, and grant letters testamentary and of administration, settle accounts of administrators, executors and guardians, transact all business pertaining to deceased persons, minors, idiots, lunatics, persons non compos mentis, and common drunkards, including the settlements, partition and distribution of the estates of deceased persons; and of apprenticing minors as provided by law. The county judge of Dallas County shall be the judge of the county court of Dallas County, Texas, and all ex-officio duties of the county judge shall be exercised by the said judge of the said county court, except as in so far as the same shall, by this Act, be committed to the judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas; and except such as have heretofore been conferred upon the judges of the County Court at Law, Number One, and the County Court at Law, Number Two, of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 4. The county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, or the judge thereof shall have the power of [to] issue writs of habeas corpus and grant injunctions for the enforcement of the penal laws, in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of said court or any court or tribunal inferior to said court; and shall also have power to punish for contempt under such provisions as are now or may be provided by the General Law governing county courts throughout the State.

Sec. 5. The terms of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, and the practice therein and appeals therefrom shall be as prescribed by law relating to the county courts. The terms of said county criminal court shall be held not less than four times each year and the commissioners' court of Dallas County, Texas, shall fix the time at which said court shall hold its terms, until the same may be changed according to law.

Sec. 6. As soon as may be after the passage of this Act, there shall be appointed by the commissioners' court of Dallas County in accordance with the law, a judge of the county criminal court hereby created, who shall be well informed in the laws of the State and who shall hold his office until the next succeeding general election and until his successor shall have duly qualified. The judge of said court elected at any general election shall hold office for two years and until his successor shall have duly qualified; provided, that no person shall be eligible for judge of said court unless he shall be a citizen of the United States and of this State, who shall have been a practicing lawyer of this State or a judge of a court in said State for four years next preceding his appointment or election, and who shall have resided in the county of Dallas for two years next preceding his appointment or election.

Sec. 7. The judge of the county court of Dallas County, Texas, shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by the law relating to county judges.

Sec. 8. A special judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, may be appointed or elected as provided by the laws relating to county courts and the judges thereof.

Sec. 9. The county clerk of Dallas County, Texas, shall be the clerk of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, the seal of said court shall be the same as provided for county courts except that the seal shall contain the words "The county criminal court, Dallas County, Texas." The sheriff of Dallas County, Texas, shall in person or by deputy, attend said court when required by the judge thereof.

Sec. 10. The judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, shall collect the same fee provided by law for county judges in similar cases, all of which shall be paid by him monthly into the County Treasury, and the judge of said Court shall receive a salary of Three Thousand Six Hundred ($3,600.00) Dollars annually, to be paid monthly out of the County Treasury by the Commissioners' Court.

Sec. 11. The judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, may be removed from office in the same manner, and for the same causes as any other county judge may be removed under the laws of this State.

Sec. 12. For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases for the information of the court, jury, and parties, the judge of the county criminal court of Dallas County, Texas, shall appoint an official shorthand reporter, who shall be well skilled in his profession, shall be a sworn officer of the court and who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the court; the provisions of the general laws of Texas relating to the appointment of stenographers for the District Courts shall, and is hereby made to apply in all its provisions, in so far as they are applicable to the official shorthand reporter herein authorized to be appointed, and said reporter shall be entitled to the same fees and salary and shall perform the same duties and shall take the same oath as are in said laws provided for the stenographers of District Courts of this State, and also be governed by any other laws covering the stenographers of the District Courts of this State; provided, that the official shorthand reporter of said court shall not be required to take testimony in cases where neither party litigant nor the judge demands it; but where the testimony is taken by said reporter a fee of Three Dollars ($3.00) shall be taxed by the clerk as costs in the case, the said Three Dollars ($3.00), when collected to be paid into the County Treasury of Dallas County, Texas.

Sec. 13. As soon as may be, after this Act takes effect, the clerk of the County Court of Law Number One of Dallas County, Texas, and the County Court at Law Number Two, shall transfer to the docket of the County Criminal Court of Dallas County, Texas, hereby created, all of the criminal cases then pending in the County Courts at Law Number One and Number Two of Dallas County, Texas. The clerk shall note such transfer when made on the minutes of the County Courts at Law Number One and Number Two of Dallas County, Texas. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 36, ch. 25.]

Section 14 of Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 36, ch. 25, declared that decisions that any part of the act were invalid should not impair other provisions of the act.

Art. 53. [68-86-87] Court of Criminal Appeals.—The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State in all criminal cases. This article shall not be so construed as to embrace any case which has been appealed from any inferior court to the county court or county court at law, in which the fine imposed by the county court or county court at law shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

Art. 53a. Mandamus, certiorari, and contempt.—Sec. 1. In addition to the power and authority now vested in the Court of Criminal Appeals of the State of Texas, said Court and each member thereof shall have and is hereby given power and authority to grant and issue and cause the issuance of writs of mandamus and certiorari, agreeable to the principles of law regarding said writs, whenever in the judgment of said Court or any member thereof the same should be necessary to enforce the jurisdiction of said Court.

Sec. 2. The Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas, and each of the judges thereof, are hereby empowered to punish disobedience of any of the above named writs and to hold in contempt any party found by said Court to have wilfully disobeyed any of said writs so issued by said Court or any of the members thereof. [Acts 1927, 40th Leg., p. 54, ch. 38.]

Art. 54. [88] [87] Jurisdiction of district courts.—District courts and criminal district courts shall have original jurisdiction in criminal cases of the grade of felony, and of all misdemeanors involving official misconduct.

Art. 55. [89] [88] When felony includes misdemeanor.—Upon the trial of a felony case, the court shall hear and determine the case as to any grade of offense included in the indictment, whether the proof shows a felony or a misdemeanor.

Art. 56. [98] [91] Jurisdiction of county courts.—The county courts shall have original jurisdiction of all misdemeanors of which exclusive original jurisdiction is not given to the justice court, and when the fine to be imposed shall exceed two hundred dollars. [Const., art. 5, sec. 16.]

Art. 57. [101-897] Appellate jurisdiction of county courts.—The county courts shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases of which justice courts and other inferior courts have original jurisdiction.

Art. 58. [106] [95] Appeal from inferior court.—If the jurisdiction of any county court has been transferred to the district court or to a county court at law, then an appeal from a justice or other inferior court will lie to the court to which such appellate jurisdiction has been transferred. [Acts 1879, p. 126.]

Reference in brackets to 106 should be 105.

Art. 59. [99] [92] To forfeit bail bonds.—County courts and county courts at law shall have jurisdiction in the forfeiture and final judgment of all bonds and recognizances taken in criminal cases of which said courts have jurisdiction.

Art. 60. [106] [96] Jurisdiction of justice courts.—Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction in criminal cases where the fine to be imposed by law may not exceed two hundred dollars. [Const. art. 5, sec. 19.]

Art. 61. [107] [97] Justice may forfeit bail bond.—A justice of the peace shall have the power to take forfeitures of all bail bonds given for the appearance of any party at his court, regardless of the amount. [Acts 1876, p. 155.]

Art. 62. [108] [98] Corporation court.—The corporation court in each incorporated city, town or village of this State shall have jurisdiction within the corporate limits in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of such city, town or village, and shall have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which said city, town or village is situated in all criminal cases arising under the criminal laws of this State, in which punishment is by fine only, and where the maximum of such fine may not exceed two hundred dollars, and arising within such corporate limits. [Acts 1899, p. 40.]

Art. 63. [109] [99] May sit at any time.—Justice courts and corporation courts may sit at any time to try criminal cases over which they have jurisdiction.

Art. 64. [63] Concurrent jurisdiction.—When two or more courts have concurrent jurisdiction of any criminal offense, the court in which an indictment or a complaint shall first be filed shall retain jurisdiction of such offense to the exclusion of all other courts. [Acts 1903, p. 194.]

TITLE 3

THE PREVENTION AND SUPPRESSION OF OFFENSES, AND THE WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS

Chap.

1. Preventing Offenses by the Act of a Private Person.
2. Preventing Offenses by the Act of Magistrates and Other Officers.
3. Proceedings Before Magistrates to Prevent Offenses.
4. Suppression of Riots and Other Disturbances.
5. Offenses Injurious to Public Health.
6. Obstructions of Public Highways.
7. Habeas Corpus.

CHAPTER ONE

PREVENTING OFFENSES BY THE ACT OF A PRIVATE PERSON

Art.

65. May prevent.
66. Resistance to protect person.
67. To protect property.
68. Limit to resistance.
69. Excessive force.
70. Other person may prevent.
71. Defense of another.

Article 65. [110] [100] May prevent.—The commission of offenses may be prevented either by lawful resistance or by the intervention of the officers of the law. [O. C. 66.]

Art. 66. [111] [101] Resistance to protect person.—Resistance by the party about to be injured may be used to prevent the commission of any offense which, in the Penal Code, is classed as an "offense against the person." [O. C. 67.]

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see Vernon's Texas Annotated Statutes

Art. 67. [112] [102] To protect property.—Resistance may also be made by the person about to be injured, to prevent any illegal attempt by force to take or injure property in his lawful possession. [O. C. 63.]

Art. 68. [113] [103] Limit to resistance.—The resistance which the person about to be injured may make to prevent the commission of the offense must be proportioned to the injury about to be inflicted. It must be only such as is necessary to repel the aggression. [O. C. 69.]

Art. 69. [114] [104] Excessive force.—If the person about to be injured, in respect either to his person or property, uses a greater amount of force to resist such injury than is necessary to repel the aggressor and protect his own person or property, he is himself guilty of an illegal act, according to the nature and degree of the force which he has used. [O. C. 70.]

Art. 70. [115] [105] Other person may prevent.—Any person other than the party about to be injured may also, by the use of necessary means, prevent the commission of the offense. [O. C. 71.]

Art. 71. [116] [106] Defense of another.—The same rules which regulate the conduct of the person about to be injured, in repelling the aggression, are also applicable to the conduct of him who interferes in behalf of such person. He may use a degree of force proportioned to the injury about to be inflicted, and no greater. [O. C. 72.]

CHAPTER TWO

PREVENTING OFFENSES BY THE ACT OF MAGISTRATES AND OTHER OFFICERS

Art.

- 72. When magistrate hears threat.
- 73. Threat to take life.
- 74. On attempt to injure.
- 75. May compel offender to give security.
- 76. Duty of peace officer as to threats.
- 77. Peace officer to prevent injury.
- 78. Conduct of peace officer.

Article 72. [117] [107] When magistrate hears threat.—It is the duty of every magistrate, when he may have heard, in any manner, that a threat has been made by one person to do some injury to the person or property of another, immediately to give notice to some peace officer, in order that such peace officer may use lawful means to prevent the injury. [O. C. 73.]

Art. 73. [119] [109] Threat to take life.—If, within the hearing of a magistrate, one person shall threaten to take the life of another, he shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the person making the threat, or, in case of emergency, he may himself immediately arrest such person. [O. C. 75.]

Art. 74. [118] [108] On attempt to injure.—Whenever, in the presence or within the observation of a magistrate, an attempt is made by one person to inflict an injury upon the person or property of another, it is his duty to use all lawful means to prevent the injury. This may be done, either by verbal order to a peace officer to interfere and prevent the injury, or by the issuance of an order of arrest against the offender, or by arresting the offender; for which purpose he may call upon all persons present to assist in making the arrest. [O. C. 74.]

Art. 75. [120] [110] May compel offender to give security.—When the person making such threat is brought before a magistrate, he may compel him to give security to keep the peace, or commit him to custody. [O. C. 76.]

Art. 76. [121] [111] Duty of peace officer as to threats.—It is the duty of every peace officer, when he may have been informed in any manner that a threat has been made by one person to do some injury to the person or property of another, to prevent the threatened injury, if within his power; and, in order to do this, he may call in aid any number of citizens in his county. He may take such measures as the person about to be injured might for the prevention of the offense. [O. C. 77.]

Art. 77. [122] [112] Peace officer to prevent injury.—Whenever, in the presence of a peace officer, or within his view, one person is about to commit an offense against the person or property of another, it is his duty to prevent it; and, for this purpose, he may summon any number of the citizens of his county to his aid. He must use the amount of force necessary to prevent the commission of the offense, and no greater. [O. C. 92.]

Art. 78. [123] [113] Conduct of peace officer.—The conduct of peace officers, in preventing offenses about to be committed in their presence, or within their view, is to be regulated by the same rules as are prescribed to the action of the person about to be injured. They may use all force necessary to repel the aggression. [O. C. 79.]

CHAPTER THREE

PROCEEDINGS BEFORE MAGISTRATES TO PREVENT OFFENSES

Art.

- 79. Shall issue warrant.
- 80. Accused brought before magistrate.
- 81. Form of peace bond.
- 82. Oath of surety; bond filed.
- 83. Amount of bail.
- 84. Surety may exonerate himself.
- 85. Failure to give bond.
- 86. Discharge of defendant.
- 87. May discharge defendant.
- 88. Bond of person charged with libel.
- 89. Destruction of libel.
- 90. When defendant has committed a crime.
- 91. Costs.
- 92. May order protection.
- 93. Suit on bond.
- 94. Limitation and procedure.

Article 79. [124] [114] Shall issue warrant.—Whenever a magistrate is informed upon oath that an offense is about to be committed against the person or property of the informant, or of another, or that any person has threatened to commit an offense, it is his duty immediately to issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused, that he may be brought before such magistrate or before some other named in the warrant. [O. C. 80.]

Art. 80. [125] [115] Accused brought before magistrate.—When the accused has been brought before the magistrate, he shall hear proof as to the accusation, and, if he be satisfied that there is just reason to apprehend that the offense was intended to be committed, or that the threat was seriously made, he shall make an order that the accused enter into bond in such sum as he may in his discretion require, conditioned that he will not commit such offense, and that he will keep the peace toward the person threatened or about to be injured, and toward all others for one year from the date of such bond. [O. C. 81.]

Art. 81. [126] [116] Form of peace bond.—Such bond shall be sufficient if it be payable to the State of Texas, conditioned as required in said order of the magistrate, be for some certain sum, and be signed by the defendant and his surety, and dated. No error of form shall vitiate such bond, and no error in the proceedings prior to the execution of the bond shall be a defense in a suit thereon. [O. C. 84.]

Art. 82. [127] [117] Oath of surety; bond filed.—The officer taking such bond shall require the sureties of the accused to make oath as to the value of their property as pointed out with regard to bail bonds. Such officer shall forthwith deposit such bond and oaths in the office of the clerk of the county where such bond is taken. [O. C. 90.]

Art. 83. [128] [118] Amount of bail.—Magistrates, in fixing the amount of such bonds, shall be governed by the pecuniary circumstances of the accused and the nature of the offense threatened or about to be committed. [O. C. 90.]

Art. 84. [129] [119] Surety may exonerate himself.—A surety upon any such bond may, at any time before a breach thereof, exonerate himself from the obligations of the same by delivering to any magistrate of the county where such bond was taken the person of the defendant; and such magistrate shall in that case again require of the defendant bond, with other security in the same amount as the first bond; and the same proceeding shall be had as in the first instance, but the one year's time shall commence to run from the date of the first order. [O. C. 89.]

Art. 85. [130] [120] Failure to give bond.—If the defendant fail to give bond, he shall be committed to jail for one year from the date of the first order requiring such bond. [O. C. 82.]

Art. 86. [131] [121] Discharge of defendant.—A defendant committed for failing to give bond shall be discharged by the officer having him in custody, upon giving the required bond, or at the expiration of the time for which he has been committed. [O. C. 86.]

Art. 87. [132] [122] May discharge defendant.—If the magistrate believes from the evidence that there is no good reason to apprehend that the offense was intended or will be committed, or that no serious threat was made by the defendant, he shall discharge the accused, and may, in his discretion, tax the cost of the proceeding against the party making the complaint.
