In the orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of any revenue, tax-revenue, revenue refunding, or tax-revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the District's Board of Directors may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as such Board may deem appropriate. Such orders or resolutions may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such orders or resolutions. Such orders or resolutions may contain other provisions and covenants, as the District's Board may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and said Board may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any such bonds.

From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the District may appropriate or set aside out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest, administrative and operating expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, as may be provided in the bond orders or resolutions, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds. Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, and the reserve fund or funds, and in the other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond orders or resolutions may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond order or orders or may be placed on interest-bearing time deposit. Such bonds may be in the denomination of $100, or in multiples thereof, and until such time as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such proceeds may be invested in securities of the United States Government or any agency thereof or may be placed on interest-bearing time deposit, either or both. Any such revenue bonds, tax-revenue, revenue refunding bonds, or tax-revenue refunding bonds hereinafter mentioned may be registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

By orders or resolutions adopted by its Board of Directors, said District shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds or tax-revenue refunding bonds to refund revenue bonds or tax-revenue bonds (either original bonds or refunding bonds) theretofore issued by such District. Said refunding bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the orders or resolutions authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued provided an amount sufficient to pay the interest and principal on the underlying bonds to their maturity dates, or to their option dates if said bonds have been duly called for payment prior to maturity according to their terms, has been so deposited in the place or places where said underlying bonds are payable, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds.

After any bonds have been authorized by the District hereunder, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts made between the District and another party or parties (private or public) a copy of such contract or contracts and the proceedings authorizing the same may or may not be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record and, if so submitted, the approval by the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable for any cause except for forgery or fraud.

Sec. 7. Land contiguous or adjacent to the District may be added to the District in the manner provided by Art. 7880—75, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as now or hereafter amended, provided, however, that the Board of Directors may require the petitioners to assume their pro rata share of the voted but unissued bonds of the District and authorize the Board to levy a tax on their property in payment for such unissued bonds, when issued. If the petitioners consent, the District shall be authorized to issue its voted but unissued tax or tax-revenue bonds even though the boundaries of the District have been changed since the voting or authorization of such bonds. Land may be added to the District only as provided herein.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the District to call or hold, prior to voting any bonds or taxes, a hearing on the exclusion of land or other property from the District; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any land or other property owner within the District filed with the Secretary of the Board prior to the time the Board calls the first bond election for the District. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Board on its own motion from calling and holding an exclusions hearing or hearings pursuant to the provisions of the General Law.

Sec. 9. If a majority of the Board of Directors shall determine that the name of the District needs changing, the Board may change the name of the District to any name which is descriptive of the locale of the District and descriptive of the principal powers to be exercised by such District; provided, however, that the word "District" shall be included in the designation and a consecutive number shall be used if other districts of the same name have been created in the county. Notice of the change in name shall be given to the Texas Water Rights Commission by sending a certified copy of the resolution changing the District's name to the Secretary of the Texas Water Rights Commission. Notice shall also be given by filing a certified copy of the resolution in the Water Control and Improvement District records of the County. The District, under its changed name, shall be deemed to be a continuation of the District as formerly named, for all purposes.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors shall designate, establish and maintain a District Office as provided by Article 7880—44. The minutes, contracts, notices, accounts, receipts and records of all kinds of the District shall be kept in a fireproof vault or safe at such District Office and shall be subject to public inspection at all reasonable hours. The District Office shall be established and maintained within the District, provided, however, if the Board of Directors finds that a location outside of the District is better suited for the transaction of the business of the District, the Board of Directors may designate, establish and maintain the District Office at such location outside of the District.

If the Board of Directors establishes the District Office outside the District, it shall give notice of the location of the District Office by filing a true copy of its resolution establishing the location of the District Office with the Texas Water Rights Commission, by filing a true copy in the Water Control and Improvement District records of Galveston County and also by publishing the location in a newspaper of general circulation in Galveston County.

If location of the District Office is thereafter changed, notice of such change shall be given in the same manner.

Sec. 11. The provisions of Section 10, Chapter 280, Acts of the 41st Legislature of Texas, Regular Session, 1929 (codified as Article 7880—77b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply to the District; however, it shall be within the discretion of the Board of Directors to hold a hearing on the question of the dissolution of the District if a construction bond election fails and the Board of Directors shall not be required to hold a hearing on the question of the dissolution of the District unless twenty per cent of the qualified voters of the District petition the Board for such a hearing in the manner provided in Article 7880—77b.

Sec. 12. The bonds of the District shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 13. Upon the adoption of this Act, said District shall be a fully created and established water control and improvement district and it shall not be necessary to hold a confirmation election. The ad valorem basis or plan of taxation shall be used by said District; and it shall not be necessary for the Board of Directors to hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation.

Sec. 14. As soon as practicable after the qualification of the first Board of Directors of said District, the Board shall by resolution designate one or more banks within or without the District to serve as the District's depository, and all funds of said District shall be secured in the manner now provided for the security of County funds. Such bank or banks shall serve for a period of two (2) years and until a successor has been appointed by the Board and has qualified.

Sec. 15. The Legislature hereby exercises the authority conferred upon it by Section 59 of Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, and declares that the District created by this Act is essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of said constitutional provisions; finds that all of the land and other property included therein are, and will be, benefited thereby and by the improvements that the District will purchase, construct, or otherwise acquire; and declares the District to be a governmental agency, a body politic and corporate, and a municipal corporation.

Sec. 16. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall ever be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or other part of this Act to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 17. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having general circulation in Galveston County, Texas; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas who has submitted such notice and act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission had filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within thirty (30) days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article XVI, Section 59(d) of the Constitution of the State of Texas have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1367, ch. 593, emerg. eff. June 16, 1967.

Title of Act:

An Act creating a conservation and reclamation district under the provisions of Section 59, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, to be known as "Spanish Grant Municipal Utility District of Galveston County, Texas"; prescribing its rights, powers, privileges, and duties; providing the District shall bear the sole expense of the relocation of certain facilities under the provisions of this Act; providing for its governing body; containing provisions that its bonds are legal and authorized investments; providing for selection of a depository; adopting the ad valorem basis of taxation; providing a procedure to change its name; requiring the District to establish an office; containing other provisions relating to the subject; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1367, ch. 593.

Art. 8280—355. Coastal Industrial Water Authority

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Section 59 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and incorporated within the State of Texas, in addition to all other districts into which the state has heretofore been divided, to be known as "Coastal Industrial Water Authority" (hereinafter referred to as the "Authority"). The Authority shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate.

Sec. 2. The boundaries of the Authority shall be as follows:

Being part of the West portion of Liberty County, Texas, part of the West portion of Chambers County, Texas, and all of Harris County, Texas, except incorporated areas (other than the City of Houston) as hereinafter expressly excluded, bounded as follows:

THENCE East along the South line of said Williams League to its Southeast corner on the bank of the Trinity River;

THENCE Northerly along the West Bank of the Trinity River to the PLACE OF BEGINNING. But there is expressly excluded from the territory within the Authority all land situated within Harris County which is within the corporate limits of every incorporated city (other than the City of Houston), town and village situated in whole or in part in Harris County, as such corporate limits were fixed and established on January 1, 1967. There is further expressly excluded from the territory within the Authority all land situated within the boundaries and corporate limits of Chambers County Water Control and Improvement District No. 1 and the City of Mont Belvieu and the City of Beach City, all in Chambers County, Texas, as such boundaries and corporate limits were fixed and established on January 1, 1967.

Sec. 3. The Authority shall have and exercise and is hereby vested with all of the rights, powers and privileges, authorities and functions conferred and imposed by the general laws of this state now in force or hereafter enacted applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Section 59 of Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, but to the extent that the provisions of such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that the Authority shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers and privileges, authorities and functions conferred by Chapter 3A, Title 128, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto. The Authority shall have the power to make, construct, or otherwise acquire improvements either within or without the boundaries thereof necessary to carry out the powers and authority granted by this Act and said general laws. Not by way of limitation, the Authority shall be authorized and empowered to conserve, store, transport, treat and purify; distribute, sell and deliver water, both surface and underground, to persons, corporations, both public and private, political subdivisions of the state and others, and may purchase, construct or lease all property, works and facilities, both within and without the Authority, necessary for such purposes. The Authority is expressly authorized to acquire water supplies from sources both within and without the boundaries of the Authority and to sell, transport and deliver water to customers situated within and without the Authority and to acquire all properties and facilities necessary for such purposes, and for any and all of such purposes may enter into contracts with persons, with municipal, public and private corporations, including the City of Houston, and any political subdivision of the state for such periods of time, not exceeding forty (40) years, and on such terms and conditions as its Board of Directors may deem desirable, fair and advantageous and to which the parties may agree; provided, that such contracts may provide that they shall continue in effect until bonds issued by the Authority to finance the cost of water system facilities, and refunding bonds issued in lieu thereof, are paid. In addition, the Authority shall have the power to contract with others to transport their water and the power to act jointly with others in the performance of all functions and purposes of the Authority. The Authority shall comply with the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 128, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. Nothing herein contained shall preclude the Authority from acquiring water rights under any law or permits heretofore or hereafter issued, provided acquisition of the same is approved by order or subsequent permit from the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 4. The Authority shall have no power or authority to levy and collect taxes on any property, real, personal or mixed, nor shall the Authority have power and authority to issue bonds or create indebtedness which would in any way be payable from ad valorem taxes levied upon property within the Authority. The Authority shall have no power or authority to limit, regulate or control the pumping, withdrawal or use of subsurface ground water by any person, firm or corporation, nor shall the authority be authorized to construct, acquire, own or operate facilities for the navigation of public waters.

The enactment of this law shall not have the effect of preventing the organization of conservation districts or of preventing boundary changes of such districts within the boundaries of the Authority as authorized in Article XVI, Section 59 and Article III, Section 52 of the Constitution of Texas.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 5. The management and control of the Authority is hereby vested in a board of seven (7) directors who shall be at least twenty-one (21) years of age and shall be residents and landowners of Harris County or that part of Chambers and Liberty Counties which are within the boundaries of the Authority. Four (4) of such directors and their successors, being positions numbered one (1) to four (4) inclusive, shall be appointed by the mayor of the City of Houston with the advice and consent of the governing body of such city. The remaining three (3) directors and their successors, being positions numbered five (5) to seven (7) inclusive shall be appointed by the Governor of Texas with the advice and consent of the Senate, one of whom shall be a resident of Chambers County, one a resident of Liberty County and one a resident of Harris County.

The directors first appointed shall meet and organize as soon as practicable after the effective date of this Act, and shall file their official bonds and subscribe to the Constitutional Oath of Office. The directors first appointed shall serve until April 1, 1969, and all terms of office thereafter shall be for a period of two (2) years except for the first term of office after April 1, 1969, for positions one (1), two (2) and six (6) which shall be for a term of one (1) year. No member of the governing body of the City of Houston and no employee of the City of Houston shall be appointed as a director.

Sec. 6. The Authority is hereby authorized to issue its negotiable revenue bonds to provide funds for any or all of the purposes set out or incorporated by reference in Section 3 hereof, including the acquisition of land therefor, and said bonds shall be issued in the manner provided and as authorized by said Chapter 3A of Title 128, as presently or hereafter amended, except as provided herein. Such revenue bonds may be issued by authorization of the Authority's Board of Directors and no election therefor shall be necessary.

The bonds issued hereunder may be payable from all or any designated part or parts of the revenues of the Authority's properties and facilities or under specific contracts, as may be provided in the orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of such bonds; and, except as the same may be inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of said Chapter 3A of Title 128, as presently or hereafter amended, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act (the provisions of this Act to govern and take precedence in the event of any such inconsistency or conflict). The provisions of Section 139 of the Acts of 1925, 39th Legislature, Chapter 25, page 131, as amended by Section 3 of the Acts of 1961, 57th Legislature, Chapter 336, page 711, relating to Texas Water Rights Commission approval of plans and specifications for projects to be financed by the sale of bonds, applies to the sale of bonds under this Act.

Such bonds, within the discretion of the Board of Directors, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon part or all of the physical properties of the Authority, and franchises, easements, water rights and appropriation permits, leases, and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell such properties for payment of the indebtedness, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties, may contain provisions prescribed by the Board of Directors for the security of the bonds and the preservation of the trust estate, and may make provisions for amendment or modification thereof and the issuance of bonds to replace lost or mutilated bonds, and may condition the right to expend Authority money or sell Authority property upon approval of a registered professional engineer selected as provided therein and may make provision for investment of funds of the Authority. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust or mortgage lien, where one is given, shall be absolute owner of the properties, facilities and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate same.

In the orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of any revenue or revenue refunding bonds authorized hereunder, the Authority's Board of Directors may provide for the flow of funds, the establishment and maintenance of the interest and sinking fund or funds, reserve fund or funds, and other funds, and may make additional covenants with respect to the bonds and the pledged revenues and the operation and maintenance of those improvements and facilities (the revenues of which are pledged), including provisions for the operation or for the leasing of all or any part of said improvements and facilities and the use or pledge of moneys derived from such operation contracts and leases, as such Board may deem appropriate. Such orders or resolutions may also prohibit the further issuance of bonds or other obligations payable from the pledged revenues, or may reserve the right to issue additional bonds to be secured by a pledge of and payable from said revenues on a parity with, or subordinate to, the lien and pledge in support of the bonds being issued, subject to such conditions as are set forth in such orders or resolutions. Such orders or resolutions may contain other provisions and covenants, as the Authority's Board may determine, not prohibited by the Constitution of Texas or by this Act, and said Board may adopt and cause to be executed any other proceedings or instruments necessary and/or convenient in the issuance of any such bonds.

From the proceeds of sale of any bonds issued hereunder, the Authority may appropriate or set aside out of the bond proceeds an amount for the payment of interest and administrative expenses expected to accrue during the period of construction, an amount or amounts to be deposited into the reserve fund or funds as may be provided in the bond orders or resolutions, and an amount necessary to pay all expenses incurred and to be incurred in the issuance, sale and delivery of the bonds. Moneys in the interest and sinking fund or funds, and the reserve fund or funds, and in the other fund or funds established or provided for in the bond orders or resolutions may be invested in such manner and in such securities as may be provided in the bond order or orders or may be placed on interest-bearing time deposit. Such bonds may be in the denomination of $100, or in multiples thereof, and until such time as the bond proceeds are needed to carry out the bond purpose, such proceeds may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America or may be placed on interest-bearing time deposit, either or both. Any such revenue bonds or the revenue refunding bonds hereinafter mentioned may be registrable as to principal, or as to both principal and interest.

By orders or resolutions adopted by its Board of Directors, said Authority shall have the power and authority to issue revenue refunding bonds to refund revenue bonds (either original bonds or refunding bonds) theretofore issued by such Authority, and such refunding bonds shall bear interest at the same or lower rate or rates than that of the bonds refunded unless it is shown mathematically that a saving will result in the total amount of interest to be paid. Said refunding bonds shall be approved by the Attorney General as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts upon the surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the orders or resolutions authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity date, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

After any revenue or revenue refunding bonds have been authorized by the Authority hereunder, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for his examination as to the validity thereof, and after said Attorney General has approved the same, such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. When such revenue or revenue refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, and delivered to the purchasers, they shall thereafter be incontestable except for forgery or fraud. When any bonds recite that they are secured partially or otherwise by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract or contracts made between the Authority and another party or parties (private or public) a copy of such contract or contracts and the proceedings authorizing the same may or may not be submitted to the Attorney General along with the bond record and, if so submitted, the approval by the Attorney General of the bonds shall constitute an approval of such contract or contracts, and thereafter the contract or contracts shall be incontestable for any cause except for forgery or fraud. The owners or holders of such revenue or revenue refunding bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of either the principal or interest on such bonds out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Sec. 7. The Authority shall have the right and power to construct, lay, maintain, and operate canals, laterals, ditches, levees, pipelines and all other facilities for the transportation and distribution of water, together with service roads and all other facilities incidental to and designed for use in connection with such transportation and distribution of water, along, across and under any railroad, railroad right-of-way, canal, stream, pipeline, utility line, and under, along and across streets or alleys in cities, towns and villages, subject to reasonable regulation by such cities, towns and villages, and under, along and across public roads and highways, but such crossings shall not impair the uses of the facilities crossed, and such facilities shall be promptly restored to their former condition of usefulness. In the event that the Authority, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the Authority. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, rerouting, or change in grade or alteration of construction and providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

The Authority shall not be required to give bond for appeal or bond for costs in any condemnation suit or other suit to which it may be a party.

Sec. 8. The Legislature hereby exercises the authority conferred upon it by Section 59 of Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, and declares that the Authority created by this Act is essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of said constitutional provision; finds that all of the land and other property included in the area and boundaries of the Authority are, and will be, benefited by the improvements which the Authority will purchase, construct or otherwise acquire; and that the Authority is created to serve a public use and benefit; and declares the Authority to be a governmental agency, a body politic and corporate. The powers and duties herein granted to the Authority shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the state, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 9. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having general circulation in Harris, Chambers and Liberty Counties, Texas; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within thirty (30) days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article XVI, Section 59(d) of the Constitution of the State of Texas have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 10. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of this Act or the application thereto to any person or circumstance shall ever be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of this Act to other persons or circumstance shall not be affected thereby.

Title of Act:

An Act creating a conservation and reclamation district to be known as Coastal Industrial Water Authority; prescribing its boundaries, governing body, powers, authority, privileges, duties, functions, and restrictions; providing that said Authority shall have no power to levy taxes; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1381, ch. 601.

Art. 8280—356. Westheimer Road Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "Westheimer Road Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying wholly in Harris County, Texas, and being 219.4738 acres of land, more or less, out of the Joel Wheaton Survey, A-80, more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Bob Davis
Lafayette B. Herring
Clarence Estes
Harry B. Terry
Glen Hefner

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 21. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the district, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

trict; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or re-routing any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880-77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1388, ch. 602.

Art. 8280—357. Deer Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "Deer Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

A tract of land lying wholly in Harris County, Texas, and being 207.81 acres of land, more or less, out of the F. H. Rankin Survey, A-57; and also being parts of Lots 2, 3 and 9 of the Howard Dunks Subdivision of the south one-half of said Rankin Survey, a plat of which is recorded in Volume 5, Page 26 of the Harris County Map Records; and also being a portion of the land described in deed from Ruby Dunks Bossier et vir to Statewide Trust Company, recorded in Volume 5864, Page 390 of the Deed Records of Harris County, Texas; the said 207.81 acres, more or less, being more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

BEGINNING at the point of intersection of the west right-of-way line of State FM Highway 2100, 100 feet wide, with the south line of said Lot 2 of the Howard Dunks Subdivision, for the southeast corner of the tract herein described, from which an old 3/4-inch iron pipe in a fence line bears East 0.87 foot; said point of beginning being about 2.73 miles south of the intersection of said FM 2100 with FM 1960 at Huffman, Texas.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

THENCE, S 87° 09' 00" W, 4143.89 feet with the south line of said Lot 2 to an old railroad rail at the common corner of Lots 1, 2, 7 and 8 of the Dunks Subdivision.

THENCE N 13° 24' 51" W 1044.68 feet with the west line of said Lot 2 to an old ¾-inch iron pipe at the common corner of Lots 2, 3, 8 and 9 of said Subdivision.

THENCE, S 86° 16' 45" W with the south line of Lot 9, at 693.58 feet cross United Gas Corporation's pipe line; at 1622.57 feet pass a 1½-inch iron pipe 0.14 foot south of pipe line, in all 2101.93 feet to the center line of the combined 80-foot-wide pipe line easements to Sinclair Pipe Line Company and Service Pipeline Company (the said center line being the city limits of the City of Houston as set out in Houston City Ordinance No. 65-1556 AR), for the most westerly southwest corner of this tract, from which an old 2-inch drill stem in timber line bears about N 87° 40' 00" E 48.71 feet, and an old iron bed bar in timber line bears about S 84° 32' 00" W 61.33 feet.

THENCE, N 90° 05' 30" E 848.14 feet with the said center line of said 80-foot-wide pipeline easement and the said city limits line to the north line of said tract described in deed recorded in Volume 5864, Page 390 of the Deed Records of Harris County, Texas, for the northwest corner of this tract.

THENCE, N 87° 24' 33" E with said north line, along a fence, being also the south line of the Andrew Peterson tract of land, following a previous survey line, at 211.59 feet an old ¾-inch iron pipe on line; at 1211.66 feet another old ¾-inch iron pipe on line; at 1524.46 feet cross United Gas Corporation's pipe line; at 2113.00 feet another old ¾-inch iron pipe on line; at 4045.33 feet cross the Shell Pipeline Company's pipe line; in all 5917.19 feet to the southeast corner of said Peterson tract in the west right-of-way line of FM 2100 for the northeast corner of this tract, from which an old fence corner bears South 0.4 foot and a highway right-of-way monument bears N 13° 41' 45" W 554.07 feet.

THENCE, S 13° 41' 45" E with the west right-of-way line of the said FM 2100, at 829.74 feet pass the northeast corner of a 100-foot drainage ditch right-of-way; at 933.26 feet pass the southeast corner of said ditch right of way; at 1646.36 feet pass a highway right-of-way monument; in all 1830.74 feet to the place of beginning.

Containing 207.81 acres of land, more or less.

(Bearings are referred to Grid North-Texas Plane Co-ordinate System.)

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

J. D. McInturff
Sybil Burcalow
Ed Fick
Kay Tyra
Roberta Tyra

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a ma-majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

THENCE, S 0° 45' 38" E 1220 feet to a ¾-inch iron pipe to the place of beginning of the tract herein described.

Containing 319.620 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The costs of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

R. F. Black
Bill Cornelson
James M. Easterling, Jr.
Theodore L. Paul
James D. Heil

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

tions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1401, ch. 604.

Art. 8280—359. North Forest Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "North Forest Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying entirely within Harris County, Texas, and being 162.343 acres, more or less, out of the Manuel Tarin Survey, A-778, and the Christopher Walter Survey, A-868, and being more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at a ½-inch iron rod, on the west right-of-way line of U. S. Highway 75 (250 feet wide), said point of beginning being the southeast corner of the tract herein described; said corner also being N 12° 49' 27" E 889.25 feet from a 1-inch iron rod in the west line of the Manuel Tarin Survey, A-778; said point also being the southeast corner of the Christopher Walter Survey, A-868 and the northeast corner of the Calvin Richey Survey, A-1021, and being S 70° 00' 00" W 9,000 feet, more or less, from the town of Westfield.

THENCE, along a fence S 58° 53' 54" W, 787.76 feet to a point for corner, said point being an angle point and a fence post in said fence.

THENCE, along a fence N 56° 09' 03" W, 167.06 feet to a ½-inch iron pipe for corner.

THENCE, along a fence S 55° 22' 55" W, 479.60 feet to a ½-inch iron pipe for corner.

THENCE, along a fence S 68° 52' 02" W, 1152.45 feet to a ½-inch iron pipe for corner.

THENCE, along a fence S 58° 32' 39" W, 1877.07 feet to a ¾-inch iron rod, on the east right-of-way line of Medberry Road (40 feet wide), said iron rod being the southwest corner of the tract herein described.

THENCE, along a fence, on the said east right-of-way line of Medberry Road, N 31° 17' 25" W, 1600.43 feet to a ¾-inch iron pipe, for the northwest corner of the herein described tract.

THENCE, N 58° 40' 40" E, along a fence line 3724.49 feet to a point for corner on the westerly right-of-way line of Hafer Road.

THENCE, along the east line of the Christopher Walter Survey, and on the said westerly right-of-way line of Hafer Road (40 feet wide), S 81° 26' 47" E, 699.82 feet to a ¾-inch iron pipe for corner.

THENCE, N 58° 34' 35" E, 40.00 feet to a fence post for a point for corner.

THENCE, N 84° 29' 49" E, 1025.09 feet to a ¾-inch iron rod for corner on the aforesaid westerly right-of-way line of U. S. Highway 75, from which a highway right-of-way monument bears N 7° 41' 33" W at 1376.99 feet.

THENCE, along the said westerly right-of-way line of U. S. Highway 75 (250 feet wide), S 07° 41' 33" E 852.25 feet to the place of beginning, from which a highway right-of-way monument bears S 07° 41' 33" E, at 210.00 feet.

Containing 162.343 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

William S. Cochran, III
Christopher C. King
Vernon G. Henry
Bobby Morrow
William S. Crawford, Jr.

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

trict pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

C. S. Inscho, Jr.
William H. Craig
Don Brelsford
Harold R. DeMoss, Jr.
E. B. Ramsey

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Containing 924.3236 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this state now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Steve Dunn
J. Franklin Norris
Glenn W. Loggins
David Williams
Dean Smith

sume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

eral law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without

Containing 772.75 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this state now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Billy Frank Hearnberger
Curtis Hankamer
Milton Huebner
Glenn McMillan
Glen Waymire

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Floyd L. Dellinger
Jackie L. Whitt
R. E. Reamer
C. P. Embry
Stedwell Johnston

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters.

pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

ture of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "White Oak Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission, and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1434, ch. 609.

Art. 8280—364. Chaparral Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "Chaparral Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

THENCE, N 32° 00' W 1419.47 feet to the point of beginning.

The above described tract contains 223.9912 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Dennis C. Williams, Sr.
Helen Williams
Hinton H. Wilson
Hope M. Wilson
Nettie Owen

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Chaparral Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1442, ch. 610.

Art. 8280—365. Blue Ridge Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Fort Bend County, Texas, to be known as "Blue Ridge Municipal Utility District" (hereinafter called "the district") which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise an area in Fort Bend County, Texas, a more particular description of the area of the district being as follows:

A TRACT OF LAND of 497.278 acres, more or less, out of the John Lafayette Survey, Abstract Number 280 in Fort Bend County, Texas, said tract being described by metes and bounds as follows:

COMMENCING at a one-inch galvanized iron pipe marking the northwest corner of the said John Lafayette Survey and the northeast corner of the I. & G. N. R.R. Company Survey Number 4, Abstract Number 263;

THENCE, S 89° 38' E 2800.06 feet to the Point of Beginning at the northwest corner of the herein described tract, and said point lying in the east City Limit line of the City of Houston;

THENCE, S 89° 38' E 2020.0 feet to a point for corner, said point lying in the common line between Harris County and Fort Bend County;

THENCE, S 54° 45' 18" E 922.70 feet along the common line of Harris County and Fort Bend County to a point for a corner, said point lying in the easterly line of the John Lafayette Survey, Abstract Number 280, and the westerly line of the T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number 1, Abstract Number 1005;

THENCE, S 00° 12' W 2820.20 feet along the said westerly line of the T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number One with the general line of an old fence to a corner of said fence for an interior corner of the tract described herein;

THENCE, S 89° 55' E 4734.70 feet with the general line of an old fence along a northerly line of the said John Lafayette Survey and the southerly line of the said T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number One and the southerly line of the T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number 15, Abstract Number 1023, to a concrete monument at a corner of the said old fence for the northeast corner of the tract described herein;

THENCE, S 00° 05' W 1374.00 feet with the general line of an old fence along a westerly line of the T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number 15 and the easterly line of the John Lafayette Survey, Abstract Number 280, to a point for the most westerly common corner of the T. T. R.R. Company Survey Number 15 and the J. Poitevent Survey Number 3, Abstract Number 305; And continuing S 00° 05' W 292.80 feet along the general line of an old fence along a west line of the J. Poitevent Survey, Number 3, Abstract Number 305, and the easterly line of the John Lafayette Survey, Abstract Number 280, for a total distance of 1666.80 feet to a point for the southeast corner of the tract described herein;

THENCE, N 89° 55' W 7525.24 feet to a point for corner, said point lying in the east City Limit line of the City of Houston;

N. R.R. Company Survey Number 4 and along the east City Limit line of the City of Houston to the Point of Beginning.

The above described tract contains 497.278 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is expressly determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries will be benefited by the works and projects which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers herein conferred under the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas, and that such district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 4. It is determined, and the Legislature hereby finds, that the boundaries of said district form a closure, and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is found to have occurred in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence or validity of said district, or the right of the district to issue bonds or refunding bonds, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or in any other manner affect the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. Subject to the specific limitations hereafter set out, the district shall have and exercise and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers and privileges, authorities and functions conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force and hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under the authority of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict with or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions in this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. The board of directors shall not call a confirmation election or a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation. The ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used. The board of directors shall call and hold a hearing on the exclusion of land or other property from the district as provided by law.

Sec. 7. The district is specifically granted the right, power and authority to purchase and construct, or purchase or construct, or otherwise plan, acquire and accomplish by any and all practical means waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, and any and all works, facilities, plants, equipment, and appliances in any and all manner incident to, helpful or necessary to such purposes, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extensions, additions and repairs thereto, and to purchase within or without the district, or to acquire by eminent domain within the district only, all necessary land, right of way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain the same, and to sell its services and by-products, and to fix rates therefor, and the district may issue its bonds (whether funding or refunding) for such purposes and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith; and subject to the limitations contained herein, the district shall have and exercise and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority and functions conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under the authority of Article 16, Section 59, of the Constitution of Texas, and such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act.

Sec. 8. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of directors consisting of five persons. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless such person is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall subscribe to the oath of office and give bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties, the cost of which shall be paid by the district.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons shall be directors of said district:

George M. Saad
B. G. Baumgardner
Alvin S. Moody
Alvin S. Moody, III
Dan M. Moody, Jr.

If any of the foregoing persons shall die, become incapacitated, refuse to serve or otherwise not be qualified to assume their duties under this Act, the remaining directors shall appoint his successor. The first two of the above-named directors shall serve until the 2nd Tuesday in January, 1968; and the last three of the above-named directors shall serve until the 2nd Tuesday in January, 1969, as provided herein. An election for directors shall be held on the 2nd Tuesday in January of each year beginning in 1968, and two directors shall be elected in that year and in each even-numbered year thereafter, and three in each odd-numbered year thereafter. Such election shall be ordered by the board of directors, shall be held in compliance with the Texas Election Code and notice of election shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the district is located with the first publication to be at least 21 days prior to the election and no more than 35 days prior thereto. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president and secretary and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. The treasurer may be appointed by the board and shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the board, conditioned that he or it will faithfully account for all money which shall come into his or its custody as treasurer of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, fiscal agents, managers, employees or other personnel as may be needed, and shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 9. The district shall have the right, power and authority to use any and all public roadways, streets, alleys and public easements within the boundaries of the district in the accomplishment of its purpose, without the necessity of securing a franchise, but only after permission in writing has been obtained from the appropriate government agency having jurisdiction over the public property being used.

Sec. 10. In the event that the district in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or a power of relocation or any other power, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipelines, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, change of grade or alteration of construction and any additional expenses required thereby shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing, or changing grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the agreed net salvage value derived from the old facility, together with any additional or different facility that may be required as a result of such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing or change in grade or alteration of construction in any such facilities.

Sec. 11. The district shall have the right, power and authority to enter into contracts with the United States of America, the State of Texas or any subdivision thereof, municipal corporations, owners of land, developers or lessees of land and properties and others, as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the facilities, works or improvements as the district may be authorized and empowered to perform so that, to the greatest extent reasonably possible, considering sound engineering and economic practices, the area may be placed in position ultimately to receive the services of such facilities, works or improvements. No election shall be required of any city or town for approval of contracts with the district, but such contracts may be entered into without the necessity of an election by any contracting party. Such contracts may be for any term not to exceed 50 years.

The district shall have the power and authority to enter into a contract with the City of Houston with respect to compliance with the policy of the city on the formation of water control and improvement districts within such city's extraterritorial jurisdiction, generally to the effect that:

(a) Bonds may be issued by the district only for the purpose of purchasing and constructing, or purchasing or constructing, or otherwise acquiring waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extensions, additions and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, right-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services within or without the boundaries of the district. Such bonds issued by the district, other than refunding bonds, shall only be sold after the taking of public bids therefor, and none of such bonds, other than refunding bonds, shall be sold for less than 100 percent of their face value and shall bear interest at the rate of not more than six percent per annum.

(b) The district shall submit the plans and specifications for the construction of water, sanitary sewer and drainage facilities to serve such district to such city for approval and such district must obtain the approval thereof by such city before commencing construction thereof. The construction of the district's water, sanitary sewer and drainage facilities shall be in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and with applicable standards and specifications of the City of Houston, and during the progress of the construction and installation of such facilities, the Director of Public Works of the City of Houston, or an employee thereof, shall make periodic on the ground inspections, and no such construction shall be started or undertaken by the district unless it has in its possession the following:

(c) A certificate of the district's engineer, who shall be a registered professional engineer under the laws of the State of Texas, that, in his opinion, such construction conforms to said city's established standards and specifications; and a letter or certificate of the Director of the Department of Public Works of the City of Houston (or the successor, department, or agency of said Department of Public Works) that, in his opinion, such construction conforms to said city's established standards and specifications.

Sec. 12. The district is fully empowered to borrow money for its corporate purposes including the power to borrow money and accept grants, gratuities, or other support from the United States of America, or the State of Texas, or from any corporation or agency created or designated by the United States of America or the State of Texas, or from any other source, and in connection with any such loan, grant or other support, to enter into such arrangements as the board of directors may deem advisable. The district is granted full powers to authorize, execute, issue and sell bonds, whether to be supported by taxes, revenues or a combination of taxes and revenues, to evidence any indebtedness it may lawfully incur and in such connection the board of directors may proceed as permitted under the general laws pertaining to the issuance of bonds by water control and improvement districts, including refunding bonds. Bonds payable solely from net revenues of the district's operation or from the proceeds of any contract for the district's services may be issued by resolution of the board of directors and no hearing or election therefor shall be required of any contracting party. All bonds issued by the district pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall constitute negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code of this State. Before any bonds shall be sold by the district, a certified copy of the proceedings for the issuance thereof, including the form of such bonds, together with any other information which the Attorney General of Texas may require, shall be submitted to the attorney general, and if he shall find that such bonds have been issued in accordance with the law, he shall approve such bonds and execute a certificate of approval which shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and be recorded in a record kept for that purpose. No bonds shall be issued until the same shall have been registered by the comptroller of public accounts, who shall so register the same if the attorney general shall have filed with the comptroller of public accounts his certificate approving the bonds, and the proceedings for the issuance thereof, as hereinabove provided. When bonds or the proceedings pertaining thereto recite that they are secured by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract theretofore made between the district and any city, district, or other user, a copy of such contract and proceedings of the contracting parties shall be submitted to the attorney general with the bond record and if such bonds have been duly authorized and such contracts made in compliance with the law, he shall approve the bonds and contracts and the bonds shall then be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. When approved as aforesaid, the bonds and contracts shall be valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause. No bonds shall be issued until the same have been submitted to and reviewed by the Texas Water Commission as provided by Article 7880—139, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, followed by full compliance by the district with all requirements made by the commission pursuant to such statute.

All bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees and sinking funds of cities, towns and villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and for all public funds of the State of Texas or its agencies, including the State Permanent School Fund. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political subdivisions or corporations of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons pertinent thereto.

Sec. 13. The board of directors shall designate one or more banks within or without the district to serve as depository for the funds of the district. All funds of the district shall be deposited in such depository bank or banks except that sufficient funds shall be remitted to the bank or banks of payment of principal of and interest on the outstanding bonds of the district and in time that such may be received by the said bank or banks of payment on or prior to the date of the maturity of such principal and interest so to be paid. To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of county funds.

Sec. 14. A complete system of accounts shall be kept by the district and an audit of its affairs for each year shall be prepared by an independent certified public accountant, or a firm of independent certified public accountants, of recognized integrity and ability. The fiscal year of the district shall be from October 1 to September 30 of the following year, unless and until changed by the board of directors. A written report of the audit shall be delivered to each member of the board of directors not later than 90 days after the close of each fiscal year; and a copy of such audit report shall be delivered upon request to the holder or holders of at least 25 percent of the then outstanding bonds of the district; and at least five additional copies of said audit shall be delivered to the office of the district, one of which shall be kept on file, and shall constitute a public record open to inspection by any interested person or persons within normal office hours. The cost of such audit shall be paid for by the district.

Sec. 15. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this State and for the improvement of their properties and the industries thereof, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution and shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on its properties or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this State.

Sec. 16. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act, being Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 17. The Legislature specifically finds and declares that the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), of the Constitution of Texas, have been done and accomplished in due course and time, and in due order, and that the Legislature has the power and authority to enact this Act.

Sec. 18. The Legislature hereby declares that the enactment hereof is in fulfillment of a duty conferred upon it by Section 59 of Article 16 of the Constitution of the State of Texas wherein it is required to pass such laws as may be appropriate in the preservation and conservation of the natural resources of the State; that the district herein created is essential to the accomplishment of such purposes and that this Act therefore operates on a subject in which the State and the public at large are interested. All of the terms and provisions of this Act are to be liberally construed, to effectuate the purposes, powers, rights and authorities herein set forth.

Sec. 19. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to violate any provision of the Federal or State Constitutions and all acts done hereunder shall be done in such manner as may conform thereto whether herein expressly provided or not. Where any procedure hereunder may be held by any court to be violative of either of such Constitutions, the district shall have the power of resolution to provide an alternative procedure conformable to such Constitutions. If any provision of this Act shall be invalid, such fact shall not affect the creation of the district or the validity of any other provision of this Act, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have created the district and enacted the valid provisions of this Act notwithstanding the invalidity of any other provision or provisions thereof.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a Conservation and Reclamation District under Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, to be known as "Blue Ridge Municipal Utility District"; defining the boundaries; determining and finding benefits to the land and other property within the district; finding that the boundaries of the district form a closure; conferring rights, powers, privileges, authorities and functions upon the district; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing that the district shall not call a confirmation election; providing for a hearing for exclusions; providing that the district shall use the ad valorem plan of taxation; providing for the issuance of bonds; providing for a board of directors; providing for the use of public roadways, streets, alleys and public easements; providing that the district shall bear the expense of relocation of certain properties and facilities in the exercise of the power of eminent domain; providing for the power to contract with the United States of America, the State of Texas and others, and making provisions for such contracts; making specific provisions relating to contracts with the City of Houston; providing for the power to borrow money; providing for the appointment of a depository; providing for a system of accounts and an audit thereof; finding that the district will be carrying out an essential public function; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act is not applicable to the creation of the district; finding that the requirements of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution have been accomplished; providing that the enactment of this Act is essential and necessary in the preservation and conservation of natural resources; enacting other provisions related to the subject; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1454, ch. 612.

Art. 8280—366. Enchanted Oaks Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Henderson County, Texas, to be known as "Enchanted Oaks Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Glen L. Warden
Mrs. George W. McAlister
Otis B. Whatley
Don Boyce
W. V. Jackson

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880-37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Enchanted Oaks Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions; except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or re-routing any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1461, ch. 613.

Art. 8280—367. Royal Forest Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Montgomery County, Texas, to be known as "Royal Forest Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying in Montgomery County, Texas, and being 1040.4226 acres of land, more or less, out of the Jose M. De La Garza Survey, A-15, and vacant State land lying west of the Jose M. De La Garza Survey, A-15, and east of the John W. Overby Survey, A-408, more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at a concrete monument set at the intersection of the southerly boundary of the Jose M. De La Garza Survey with the north-easterly boundary of a 60-foot right-of-way for a county road connecting FM 1484 and FM 1097, said point of beginning lying N 64° 47' 19" E, 591.14 feet from the most southerly corner of said Jose M. De La Garza Survey.

THENCE, in a northwesterly direction 298.70 feet along the said northeasterly right-of-way line of the county road following the general line of an old fence with the arc of a curve having a radius of 1098.49 feet and subtending a central angle of 15° 34' 48" to a 5/8-inch iron rod at the point of tangency at said curve.

THENCE, N 71° 52' 00" W, 677.00 feet continuing along the said north-easterly right-of-way line of the county road in the general line of an old fence to a concrete monument in the westerly boundary of the said Jose M. De La Garza Survey, said concrete monument lying N 25° 00' 00" W, 653.95 feet from the said most southerly corner of the Jose M. De La Garza Survey.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Mary Lou Atkins
H. H. DuPre, Jr.
Bert B. Adkins, Jr.
Jack Duncan
Edwina Mosley

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

ment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Harlan Lane
Lon Rose
Jimmy Payne
L. E. Patterson
Harry L. Zunker

until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Frank W. Stoddard
Alfred C. Pogue
Jeff A. Howeth
Clarence K. Russell
Thomas W. Ferguson

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

“sole expense” shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Containing 177.8805 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

trict; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

W. A. Cook
R. H. Riley
Myrtle Wiggins
Jewel Shotwell
T. J. Hendrix

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and

Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 21. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the district, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Containing 42.3032 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Billie Jean McInturff
Jean Pemberton
Maurice Hollyfield
Mary Fick
W. A. Henry

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

daries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the district, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "River Oaks Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors, providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties;

providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1509, ch. 619.

Art. 8280—373. Indian Hill Estates Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Polk County, Texas, to be known as "Indian Hill Estates Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying wholly within Polk County, Texas, and being 200.9536 acres of land, more or less, out of the Thomas Burris League, Abstract Number 10, said 200.9536 acres being composed of two noncontiguous tracts described separately as Tract A and Tract B, as follows:

THENCE N 71° 53' 05" W 2775.28 feet along a northerly line of said Southland Paper Mills, Inc. 1200.84-acre tract to the Point of Beginning, containing 38.2620 acres of land, more or less.

The above two described tracts contain a total of 200.9536 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

William L. Orand
H. D. McMahan
J. D. Galloway
E. P. Dee
Herman Mead

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Paul Berry
Ray Beck
Carol Montgomery
Louise M. Montgomery
John W. Luker

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 21. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the district, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Containing 164.95 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Robert W. Simmer
W. S. McMeans
R. L. Curtis
Charles W. Palmer
Jerry J. Knauff

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880-37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Ernest Cochran
H. T. Collins
E. H. Cochran
W. L. Crawford
H. B. Davis, III

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Yupon Cove Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1548, ch. 625.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

T. G. Lilley
Alvin Wells
John Martin
H. N. Denham
J. B. Cook

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880-37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Don Riley
Barney Wiggins
Jimmy Clark
Bonnie Wiggins
Peyton Walters

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

land elevations where correction is needed or proper. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Containing 990.94 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

K. F. Adams, Jr.
John P. Collins
Carl Fuhman
L. W. Fisher
C. G. Sones

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 21. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the district, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

(b) Any of the land described in this Section which overlaps any area of Fort Bend County Water Supply District, in Fort Bend County, Texas, shall be and is as of the effective date of this Act deleted and eliminated from the area and boundaries of said Fort Bend County Water Supply District, said water supply district having been inactive for many years and no bonds having ever been issued or sold.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

W. A. Little
I. H. Kempner, III
Fred S. Ewing
J. D. Couvillion
Hugh L. Rouse

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

fically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "City of Cities Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries, deleting from Fort Bend County Water Supply District all area which overlaps the district created by this Act; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1588, ch. 634.

Art. 8280—381. College View Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "College View Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "distract," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying wholly in Harris County, Texas, and being 332.9854 acres of land, more or less, out of the W. M. Jones Survey, A-482, and described by metes and bounds as follows:

Commencing for reference at a one-half-inch iron rod at the intersection of the west line of said W. M. Jones Survey (same also being the east line of the Fabricius Reynolds Survey, A-643) and the south line of the 100-foot-wide Spencer Highway right of way.

THENCE, N 86° 55' 38" E 1320.00 feet along the south line of said 100-foot-wide Spencer Highway right of way to the point of beginning of the herein described tract.

THENCE, continuing N 86° 55' 38" E 3291.50 feet along the south line of said 100-foot-wide Spencer Highway right of way to a one-half-inch iron rod at the northeast corner of the herein described tract, said point lying in the west line of a 150-foot-wide Houston Lighting & Power Company right of way.

THENCE, S 3° 07' 50" E 3689.13 feet along said west line of the 150-foot-wide Houston Lighting & Power Company right of way to a one-half-inch iron rod at the most easterly southeast corner of the herein described tract.

THENCE, S 86° 54' 40" W 851.30 feet to a concrete monument at an interior corner of the herein described tract.

THENCE, S 3° 05' 22" E 963.30 feet to a concrete monument at the most westerly southeast corner of the herein described tract, said point lying in the north line of the Fairmont Parkway right of way.

THENCE, S 86° 54' 38" W 2443.90 feet along the north line of said Fairmont Parkway right of way to the southwest corner of the herein described tract.

THENCE, N 3° 04' 36" W 4653.38 feet to the point of beginning of the herein described tract.

Containing 332.9854 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

C. A. Rousser
Joe B. Ridings
Charles Gwaltney
Marshall Cochran
Robert A. White

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a. Further, the district shall conform to and comply with all the requirements of Ordinance No. 768 of the city of La-Porte, which ordinance was passed, approved and effective on May 1, 1967.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

The above described two tracts of land contain a total of 351.34 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Jacqueline Brainard
Jewel Tilley
Jane Bouldin
Julia Gonzales
Cleo Lee

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

M. M. Feld, Jr.
Robert D. Atkinson
Holt P. Daniels
David C. DuBose
Richard H. McClendon

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, re-routing or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, re-routing, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 21. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof or on any purchases made by the distract, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 22. All bonds and refunding bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal, eligible, and authorized investments for banks, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

(c) It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure, and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type or kind of bonds or refunding bonds, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body, which shall be a board of directors as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. The district shall conduct preliminary surveys and develop a plan for the control and use of the waters of Willow Creek to the end that improvements upon any one part of the watershed will be mechanically and economically related to the improvements of the entire watershed. Upon the completion of such surveys and plans, and their adoption by the directors of the district, a certified copy thereof shall be filed with the Texas Water Rights Commission for informational purposes.

Sec. 4. (a) The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

(b) No election shall be necessary for the purpose of confirming the organization of the district and no hearing shall be held to determine whether any lands or property included within the boundaries of the district shall be excluded; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise and is hereby vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this state now in force or hereafter enacted applicable to water control and improvement districts created under the authority of Section 59, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. Any such general laws are hereby incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in this Act.

Sec. 6. In addition to the powers contained in said general laws, the district shall have and possess all powers necessary or requisite to fully cooperate with the federal government, its agencies, departments and representatives thereof in taking advantage of, and in securing and getting assistance, aid, benefits, grants, loans, credit and money as provided in Public Law 566, 83rd Congress, Chapter 656, 2d Session, H.R. 6788, as amended, and as same may be hereafter amended. It is the intention of the Legislature to create the district with all the powers and authority necessary to fully qualify and gain the full benefits of said public laws including, but not limited to, all powers and authority necessary or requisite to carry out the projects and works and improvements contemplated by said public laws and the power and authority to secure a loan or loans from the proper agencies or departments of the federal government, and if necessary to issue bonds of the district as collateral or security therefor, for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of the district in connection with the carrying out of its projects and works and improvements. The provisions of said public laws that are applicable to the district are hereby enacted into this Act by reference and are made applicable to the district.

Sec. 7. (a) In exercising the power for which the district is created, it shall have all of the authority conferred by general law upon water control and improvement districts, including, but not limited to, the power to construct, acquire, improve, maintain and repair dams or other structures and the acquisition, by eminent domain or otherwise, of land, easements, properties, or equipment which may be needed to utilize, control, and distribute any waters that may be impounded, diverted, or controlled by the district.

(b) In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 8. For the purpose of providing dams, structures, projects and works of improvement for flood prevention, the conservation and development of water, and for other necessary plants, facilities and equipment in connection therewith and for the improvement, repair and operation of same and for carrying out any other powers or authority conferred by this Act or by Chapter 25 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, and the several amendments thereof, and for the purpose of paying all costs, charges and expenses of the district, the district is empowered to issue negotiable bonds in the manner provided by general law for water control and improvement districts.

Sec. 9. No loan shall be consummated by the district from the federal government and no bonds shall hereafter be issued unless authorized at an election at which only qualified voters who reside in the district, and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote unless a majority of the votes cast favor the proposition. Upon approval of the bonds by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 10. If the plans for works and improvements or amendments thereto contemplated by the district are prepared by the Soil Conservation Service, United States Department of Agriculture, and approved by the district's directors it shall not be necessary for an engineer's report covering the plans and improvements to be constructed, together with the maps, plats, profiles and data fully showing and explaining same be filed in the office of the district before an election is held to authorize the issuance of bonds in connection with such works and improvements and it shall not be necessary for such plans and specifications, engineering reports, profiles, maps and other data, or subsequent amendments thereto to be approved by the Texas Water Rights Commission prior to the issuance of such bonds; provided, however, that before the expenditure of any funds for the construction of any works and improvements, the approval of the Texas Water Rights Commission shall be secured for that portion of the works and improvements to be constructed and it shall not be necessary for advance approval to be given for the entire project contemplated by the district, but approval may be secured or given on a separate or individual basis for that portion of the entire project or works and improvements to be constructed at any particular time and on which plans and specifications of the Soil Conservation Service, United States Department of Agriculture, have been prepared and submitted by the directors to the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 11. All bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their par value, when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 12. (a) The board of directors is authorized to call an election to submit to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation the question of whether a maintenance tax may be levied by the district for the purpose of maintaining the projects, works, structures or improvements which the district is authorized to construct, purchase, acquire, or improve.

(b) In calling such an election, the board of directors shall specify the maximum rate of tax that may be levied and collected in any one year and shall specify that such tax shall be levied on an ad valorem basis. The election shall be called, held and conducted, and notices thereof shall be given in the mode and manner as required by the general law for the holding of elections for the authorization of the issuance of bonds and nothing herein shall prevent such election from being held at the same time as an election for the issuance of bonds, and the holding of such elections at the same time or at separate times is hereby authorized. The levy and collection of the maintenance tax, including the cost of assessing and collecting of the maintenance tax, is hereby authorized upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified voters voting at said election.

(c) The district is authorized to expend funds collected as maintenance taxes for easements and rights-of-way and for any of the purposes for which a district could expend bond proceeds as well as for maintenance purposes and the district is authorized to place surplus maintenance funds not needed for maintenance purposes into the sinking funds for any outstanding bonds of the district. The determination by the board of directors of the expenditure of maintenance funds of the district shall be final and cannot be judicially reviewed save on the grounds of fraud, palpable error, or gross abuse of discretion.

Sec. 13. The district is hereby empowered and authorized to cooperate with state, federal, and other agencies and groups in wildlife programs, not inconsistent with the purposes of the district set forth herein, designed to improve the general habitat of wildlife and to promote the propagation thereof.

Sec. 14. Except as modified or supplemented by the provisions of this Act, all laws or parts of laws now in effect or hereafter adopted, as well as those amendatory or supplemental to the general laws pertaining to water control and improvement districts, are adopted by reference as though set out at length herein, and such laws shall govern the district.

Sec. 15. (a) The board of directors of the district shall be comprised of seven persons. Immediately after this Act becomes effective the following named persons shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of said district: Dawson Coleman, L. P. Schwertner, Richard Book, A. C. Wendland, James Wright, A. T. Granzin, J. W. Klattenhoff.

(b) The board of directors herein appointed shall serve until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. The first four directors named above shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1968, and the following three directors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. An election for directors shall be held on the second Tuesday of each year as provided herein. Four directors shall be elected in each even-numbered year and three in each odd-numbered year.

(c) The directors of the district shall be landowners within the district and reside within Runnels or Tom Green counties and shall retain such status during their tenure in office or vacate such office.

(d) Directors of the district shall subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and each shall give bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties, the cost of which shall be paid by the district. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum.

(e) Each director shall serve until his successor has been duly elected or appointed and has duly qualified.

(f) Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining directors.

(g) Failure to call an election for directors will in no way affect the legal status of the district or the board of directors or the individual directors or the right of said board of directors to act or function and the directors shall serve until an election is held under the provisions of law and the succeeding directors have been duly elected or appointed and have duly qualified.

Sec. 16. The Legislature finds that the requirements of Section 59(d), Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, concerning the introduction of this Act have been met.

Title of Act:

An Act relating to the creation of the Willow Creek Water Control District as a conservation and reclamation district in portions of Runnels and Tom Green counties under the provisions of Section 59, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas; prescribing the powers, duties, functions, and procedures of the district; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1617, ch. 638.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Charles J. Gerlach
Cecil Liles
E. R. Pixley
Louis F. Gerlach
Carnie White

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

correction is needed or proper. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

of Texas. Such bonds and refunding bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their face value, when accompanied by all un-matured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Holiday Lakes Estates Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for construction of works for the prevention of floods, for construction of levees, bulkheading, and dams, for reclamation of overflowed lands, and alteration of land elevations; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1628, ch. 640.

Art. 8280—386. Colonia-Chaparral Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Guadalupe County, Texas, to be known as "Colonia-Chaparral Municipal Utility District of Guadalupe County" (hereinafter called the "district"), which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area and being entirely within Guadalupe County, Texas:

 NING, enclosing approximately 433.352 acres.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure, and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type or kind of bonds or refunding bonds, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body, which shall be a board of directors as hereinafter provided.

chase, construct, or purchase and construct, or otherwise acquire and accomplish by any and all practical means, waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities or parts of such systems or facilities and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extensions, additions and repairs thereto, and to purchase or otherwise acquire all necessary land, easements, buildings, structures, equipment and other necessary facilities therefor within or without the boundaries of the district, except as limited by this Act, and to issue and sell its negotiable bonds for any one or more of such purposes and provide and make payment therefor and for all necessary expenses in connection therewith. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the state, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district. It shall also not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district. It shall further not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

tary and a treasurer who may or may not be members of the board, and it may combine those offices. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district, and shall keep and sign the minutes of the board meetings, and attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting. The board may require that the treasurer give bond, in an amount deemed sufficient by the board, conditioned that he will faithfully account for all money coming into his custody as treasurer of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, fiscal agents and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 8. When bonds or refunding bonds have been issued by the district and said bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the attorney general of Texas and registered by the comptroller of public accounts, said bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, valid, legal and binding obligations and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 9. Before issuing bonds for any purpose, the district shall submit engineering plans and specifications and/or other pertinent information to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, Chapter 336, 1961, codified in Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas as Article 7880—139, and said district's project and improvements shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided in said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 10. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to Guadalupe County, Texas. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction and providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facilities.

Sec. 11. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, as amended, as codified in Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes of Texas, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 13. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having general circulation in Guadalupe County, Texas; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within thirty (30) days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all requirements and provisions of Article XVI, Section 59(d) of the Texas Constitution have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

(c) It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure, and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type or kind of bonds or refunding bonds, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body, which shall be a board of directors as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 3. The district shall conduct preliminary surveys and develop a plan for the control and use of the waters of Elm Creek to the end that improvements upon any one part of the watershed will be mechanically and economically related to the improvements of the entire watershed. Upon the completion of such surveys and plans, and their adoption by the directors of the district, a certified copy thereof shall be filed with the Texas Water Rights Commission for informational purposes.

Sec. 4. (a) The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act being for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, the district in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution, and the district shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

(b) No election shall be necessary for the purpose of confirming the organization of the district and no hearing shall be held to determine whether any lands or property included within the boundaries of the district shall be excluded; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise and is hereby vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this state now in force or hereafter enacted applicable to water control and improvement districts created under the authority of Section 59, Article XVI, Constitution of Texas, but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. Any such general laws are hereby incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in this Act.

Sec. 6. In addition to the powers contained in said general laws, the district shall have and possess all powers necessary or requisite to fully cooperate with the federal government, its agencies, departments and representatives thereof in taking advantage of, and in securing and getting assistance, aid, benefits, grants, loans, credit and money as provided in Public Law 566, 83rd Congress, Chapter 656, 2d Session, H.R. 6788, as amended, and as same may be hereafter amended. It is the intention of the Legislature to create the district with all the powers and authority necessary to fully qualify and gain the full benefits of said public laws including, but not limited to, all powers and authority necessary or requisite to carry out the projects and works and improvements contemplated by said public laws and the power and authority to secure a loan or loans from the proper agencies or departments of the federal government, and if necessary to issue bonds of the district as collateral or security therefor, for the purpose of defraying the costs and expenses of the district in connection with the carrying out of its projects and works and improvements. The provisions of said public laws that are applicable to the district are hereby enacted into this Act by reference and are made applicable to the district.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 7. (a) In exercising the power for which the district is created, it shall have all of the authority conferred by general law upon water control and improvement districts, including, but not limited to, the power to construct, acquire, improve, maintain and repair dams or other structures and the acquisition, by eminent domain or otherwise, of land, easements, properties, or equipment which may be needed to utilize, control, and distribute any waters that may be impounded, diverted, or controlled by the district.

(b) In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 8. For the purpose of providing dams, structures, projects and works of improvement for flood prevention, the conservation and development of water, and for other necessary plants, facilities and equipment in connection therewith and for the improvement, repair and operation of same and for carrying out any other powers or authority conferred by this Act or by Chapter 25 of the General Laws of the 39th Legislature, Regular Session, and the several amendments thereof, and for the purpose of paying all costs, charges and expenses of the district, the district is empowered to issue negotiable bonds in the manner provided by general law for water control and improvement districts.

Sec. 9. No loan shall be consummated by the district from the federal government and no bonds shall hereafter be issued unless authorized at an election at which only qualified voters who reside in the district, and who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote unless a majority of the votes cast favor the proposition. Upon approval of the bonds by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 10. If the plans for works and improvements or amendments thereto contemplated by the district are prepared by the Soil Conservation Service, United States Department of Agriculture, and approved by the district's directors it shall not be necessary for an engineer's report covering the plans and improvements to be constructed, together with the maps, plats, profiles and data fully showing and explaining same be filed in the office of the district before an election is held to authorize the issuance of bonds in connection with such works and improvements and it shall not be necessary for such plans and specifications, engineering reports, profiles, maps and other data, or subsequent amendments thereto to be approved by the Texas Water Rights Commission prior to the issuance of such bonds; provided, however, that before the expenditure of any funds for the construction of any works and improvements, the approval of the Texas Water Rights Commission shall be secured for that portion of the works and improvements to be constructed and it shall not be necessary for advance approval to be given for the entire project contemplated by the district, but approval may be secured or given on a separate or individual basis for that portion of the entire project or works and improvements to be constructed at any particular time and on which plans and specifications of the Soil Conservation Service, United States Department of Agriculture, have been prepared and submitted by the directors to the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 11. All bonds of the district shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their par value, when accompanied by all unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 12. (a) The board of directors is authorized to call an election to submit to the resident qualified property taxpaying voters who have duly rendered their property for taxation the question of whether a maintenance tax may be levied by the district for the purpose of maintaining the projects, works, structures or improvements which the district is authorized to construct, purchase, acquire, or improve.

(b) In calling such an election, the board of directors shall specify the maximum rate of tax that may be levied and collected in any one year and shall specify that such tax shall be levied on an ad valorem basis. The election shall be called, held and conducted, and notices thereof shall be given in the mode and manner as required by the general law for the holding of elections for the authorization of the issuance of bonds and nothing herein shall prevent such election from being held at the same time as an election for the issuance of bonds, and the holding of such elections at the same time or at separate times is hereby authorized. The levy and collection of the maintenance tax, including the cost of assessing and collecting said tax, is hereby authorized upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified voters voting at said election.

(c) The district is authorized to expend funds collected as maintenance taxes for easements and rights-of-way and for any of the purposes for which a district could expend bond proceeds as well as for maintenance purposes and the district is authorized to place surplus maintenance funds not needed for maintenance purposes into the sinking funds for any outstanding bonds of the district. The determination by the board of directors of the expenditure of maintenance funds of the district shall be final and cannot be judicially reviewed save on the grounds of fraud, palpable error, or gross abuse of discretion.

Sec. 13. The district is hereby empowered and authorized to cooperate with state, federal, and other agencies and groups in wildlife programs, not inconsistent with the purposes of the district set forth herein, designed to improve the general habitat of wildlife and to promote the propagation thereof.

Sec. 14. Except as modified or supplemented by the provisions of this Act, all laws or parts of laws now in effect or hereafter adopted, as well as those amendatory or supplemental to the general laws pertaining to water control and improvement districts, are adopted by reference as though set out at length herein, and such laws shall govern the district.

Sec. 15. (a) The board of directors of the district shall be comprised of eight persons. Immediately after this Act becomes effective the following named persons shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of said district: Virejil James, J. E. (Buck) Smith, C. M. Hambrick, Walter Spill, Richard C. Thomas, Clarence Ledbetter, J. W. Purifoy, N. L. Faubion.

(b) The board of directors herein appointed shall serve until their successors have been duly elected and qualified. The first four directors named above shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1968, and the following four directors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. An election for directors shall be held on the second Tuesday of each year as provided herein. Four directors shall be elected in each even-numbered year and four in each odd-numbered year.

(c) The directors of the district shall be landowners within the district and reside within Runnels or Taylor counties and shall retain such status during their tenure in office or vacate such office.

(d) Directors of the district shall subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and each shall give bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties, the cost of which shall be paid by the district. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum.

(e) Each director shall serve until his successor has been duly elected or appointed and has duly qualified.

(f) Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority vote of the remaining directors.

(g) Failure to call an election for directors will in no way affect the legal status of the district or the board of directors or the individual directors or the right of said board of directors to act or function and the directors shall serve until an election is held under the provisions of law and the succeeding directors have been duly elected or appointed and have duly qualified.

Sec. 16. The Legislature finds that the requirements of Section 59(d), Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas, concerning the introduction of this Act have been met.

Title of Act:

An Act relating to the creation of the Elm Creek Water Control District as a conservation and reclamation district in portions of Runnels and Taylor counties under the provisions of Section 59, Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas; prescribing the powers, duties, functions, and procedures of the district; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1647, ch. 643.

Art. 8280—388. Timberlakes Estates Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Montgomery County, Texas, to be known as "Timberlakes Estates Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying wholly in Montgomery County, Texas, and being 211 acres, more or less, out of the John Taylor Survey, A-547, more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a 3" iron pipe for corner on a common line between the John Taylor Survey, A-547, and the Harry Sigel Survey, A-796, said point also being the northwest corner of Lot 75 out of the R. D. McDonald Subdivision, bearing North approximately 8566 feet from the centerline of Spring Creek.

THENCE, S 89° 58' E 1787.80 feet to a railroad iron marking a point for corner.

THENCE, S 0° 20' W 1297.0 feet to a 1½-inch iron rod marking a point for corner.

THENCE, S 89° 06' E 677.60 feet to a 3½-inch iron pipe marking a point for corner.

THENCE, S 0° 50' W 2811.55 feet to a 3-inch iron pipe marking a point for corner.

THENCE, N 89° 21' W 642.0 feet to a 1½-inch iron pipe.

THENCE, N 89° 12' W 868.60 feet to a 2½-inch iron pipe marking a point for corner.

THENCE, S 0° 50' W 31.60 feet to a point for corner.

THENCE, S 89° 20' 40" W 906.02 feet to a point for corner in the said common line dividing the J. Taylor Survey and the Harry Sigel Survey.

THENCE, North with the said common dividing line 4142.40 feet to the place of beginning.

Containing 211 acres, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

R. W. Weakley
Ray McLean
Milton Wicker
George Conn
James F. Dickson

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Timberlakes Estates Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Art. 8280—389. Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority

Section 1. By virtue of Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, there is hereby created a defined district to be known as "Rio Grande Valley Pollution Control Authority" (hereinafter called "authority"), which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate.

Sec. 2. The authority shall comprise all of the territory contained within the boundaries of the counties of Cameron and Hidalgo. It is hereby found and determined that all of the territory contained within the boundaries of said counties will be benefitted by the works and improvements of the authority.

Sec. 3. (a) All powers of the authority shall be exercised by a board of directors (herein called "board") having five members, each of whom shall serve for a term of two years except for the directors herein named. The initial members of the board of directors shall be the following persons whose terms of office shall terminate on the dates indicated, to wit:

Carlton Farris	April 30, 1968;
A. M. Hervey	April 30, 1968;
S. H. Collier, Jr.	April 30, 1969;
Vance Raimond	April 30, 1969;
Garland F. Smith	April 30, 1969.

(b) In April of 1968 and in April of each year thereafter the Governor shall appoint the directors to succeed the directors whose terms are about to expire. Any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the Governor.

(c) Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he resides in and owns taxable property in the authority. No members of a governing body of a city, and no employee of a city shall be appointed as director. Such directors shall subscribe the constitutional oath of office, and each shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the amount of $5,000, the cost of which shall be paid by the authority. A majority shall constitute a quorum. If any director moves from the authority, he shall cease to be a director, and a vacancy shall thereupon be created.

Sec. 4. The board shall elect from its number a president and a vice president of the authority, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the authority and the presiding officer of the board, and shall have the same right to vote as any other director. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all powers conferred by this Act upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act except the president's right to vote. The board shall also appoint a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be members of the board, and it may combine those offices. The treasurer shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the board. The condition of such bond shall be that he will faithfully account for all money which shall come into his custody as treasurer of the authority. The board shall appoint necessary engineers, attorneys and other employees, and employ a general manager. The power to employ and discharge employees may be conferred upon the manager. The board shall adopt a seal for the authority.

Sec. 5. As a necessary aid to the preservation of water for beneficial use, the authority is authorized to acquire or construct within or without the boundaries of the authority all works, plants, and other facilities necessary or useful for the purposes of gathering, transporting, treating, and disposing of waste generated within or without the boundaries of the authority. For the purpose of this Act "waste" shall mean sewage, industrial waste, municipal waste, and any other waste that may cause impairment of the quality of the waters of the state. The authority shall not be empowered to store or distribute water for municipal use or for irrigation purposes, and shall not be empowered to drain lands of storm waters or construct facilities therefor.

Sec. 6. The authority is empowered to acquire land within or without the boundaries of the authority for all works, plants, and other facilities necessary or useful for the purposes of the gathering, transporting, treating, and disposing of waste. Subject to the terms of any resolution or deed of trust authorizing or securing bonds issued by the authority, the authority may sell, trade or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property deemed by the board not to be needed for authority purposes.

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of carrying out any power or authority conferred by this Act the authority shall have the right to acquire the fee simple title to land and other property and easements within the boundaries of the authority and adjoining counties, by condemnation in the manner provided by Title 52, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, relating to eminent domain. This authority is hereby declared to be a municipal corporation within the meaning of Article 3268 of said Title 52, except that the authority shall not have the right to so condemn any property which may be owned by any other political subdivision, city, or town; provided, however, that as against persons, firms, and corporations, or receivers or trustees thereof, who have the power of eminent domain, the fee title may not be condemned, but the authority may condemn only an easement. The amount of and character of interest in land, other property and easements thus to be acquired shall be determined by the board. The authority shall have the same power as is conferred upon water control and improvement districts by Section 49 of Chapter 25, Acts of the Thirty-ninth Legislature, Regular Session, 1925, with reference to making surveys and attending to other business of the authority.

(b) In the event the authority, in the exercise of its power of eminent domain or police power, or any other power requiring the relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing or change in grade or alteration in the construction of any railroad, electric transmission, telegraph or telephone lines, conduits, poles, properties or facilities or pipelines, all such relocation, raising, lowering, re-routing, or changes in grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the authority. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such lowering, re-routing, or change in grade or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 8. Any construction contract requiring an expenditure of more than $5,000 shall be made after publication of a notice to bidders once each week for two weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the authority, before awarding the contract. Such notice shall be sufficient if it states the time and place when and where the bids will be opened, the general nature of the work to be done, or the material, equipment or supplies to be purchased, and states where and the terms upon which copies of the plans and specifications may be obtained.

Sec. 9. (a) For the purpose of carrying out any power or authority conferred by this Act, the authority is empowered to issue its negotiable bonds to be payable from revenues of the authority as are pledged by resolution of the board.

(b) Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board and shall be issued in the name of the authority, signed by the president or vice president, attested by the secretary and shall bear the seal of the authority. It is provided, however, that the signatures of the president, the vice president or of the secretary or of both may be printed or lithographed on the bonds if authorized by the board and that the seal of the authority may be impressed on the bonds or may be printed or lithographed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years from their date and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the board to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, provided that the interest cost to the authority, including the discount, if any, does not exceed six percent per annum, and within the discretion of the board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest.

(c) Bonds may be issued in more than one series and from time to time as required for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(d) The bonds may be secured by a pledge of all or part of the revenues of the authority, or by the revenues of any one or more contracts theretofore or thereafter made or other revenues or income specified by resolution of the board or in the trust indenture. Any such pledge may reserve the right, under conditions therein specified, to issue additional bonds which may be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds then being issued.

(e) It shall be the duty of the board to fix, and from time to time to revise, the rates of compensation for waste services rendered by the authority which will be sufficient to pay the expense of operating and maintaining the facilities of the authority and to pay the bonds as they mature and the interest as it accrues and to maintain the reserve and other funds as provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds or in the trust indenture.

(f) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, the authority may set aside an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during construction, a reserve interest and sinking fund and such other funds as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds or in the trust indenture. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds may also be used for the payment of all expenses necessarily incurred in accomplishing the purposes for which this authority is created, including expenses of issuing and selling the bonds. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be temporarily invested in direct obligations of the United States Government. Other funds may be invested in such securities as are specified in the bond resolution or trust indenture.

(g) In the event of a default or a threatened default in the payment of principal or interest on bonds, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition of the holders of outstanding bonds, appoint a receiver with authority to collect and receive all income of the authority, employ and discharge agents and employees of the authority, take charge of funds of and manage the proprietary affairs of the authority without consent or hindrance by the board. Such receiver may also be authorized to make contracts for sewer services, or renew such contracts with the approval of the court appointing him. The court may vest the receiver with such other powers and duties as the court may find necessary for the protection of the holders of the bonds. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, or the trust indenture securing them, may limit or qualify the rights of the holders of less than all of the outstanding bonds payable from the same source to institute or prosecute litigation affecting the authority's property or income.

Sec. 10. The authority is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds authorized by this Act and interest thereon. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund more than one series of outstanding bonds and combine the pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and may be secured by other or additional revenues and mortgage liens. The provisions of this law with reference to the issuance by the authority of other bonds, their security, and their approval by the attorney general and the remedies of the holders shall be applicable to refunding bonds. Refunding bonds shall be registered by the comptroller upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolution authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank where the original bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the original bonds to their option date or maturity date, and the comptroller shall register them without concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds. Such refunding bonds may be issued without having been authorized at an election.

Sec. 11. Any bonds (including refunding bonds) authorized by this law may be additionally secured by a trust indenture under which the trustee may be a bank having trust powers situated either within or outside of the State of Texas. Such bonds, within the discretion of the board, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon physical properties of the authority and all franchises, easements, leases, and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell the properties for the payment of indebtedness, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties may contain any provisions prescribed by the board for the security of the bonds and the preservation of the trust estate, and may make provision for amendment or modification thereof and the issuance of bonds to replace lost or mutilated bonds, and may condition the right to expend authority money or sell authority property upon approval of a registered professional engineer selected as provided therein, and may make provision for the investment of funds of the authority. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust lien where one is given, shall be the absolute owner of the properties, facilities, and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate the same.

Sec. 12. After any bonds (including refunding bonds) are authorized by the authority, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for his examination as to the validity thereof. If such bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract theretofore made between the authority and any city or other governmental agency, authority or district, a copy of such contract and the proceedings of the city or other governmental agency, authority or district authorizing such contract shall also be submitted to the attorney general. If he finds that such bonds have been authorized and such contracts have been made in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas, he shall approve the bonds and such contracts and the bonds then shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. Thereafter the bonds, and the contracts, if any, shall be valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 13. The authority is authorized to enter into contracts with cities and others for gathering, transporting, treating, and disposing of waste. The authority is also authorized to contract with any city for the rental or leasing of, or for the operation of waste treatment facilities of such city upon such consideration as the authority and the city may agree. Any such contract may be upon such terms and for such time as the parties may agree, and it may provide that it shall continue in effect until bonds specified therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds are paid. The authority is authorized to sell the residuum of its treatment of wastes, whether in solid or liquid form.

Sec. 14. (a) The board shall designate one or more banks within or without the authority to serve as depository for the funds of the authority. All funds of the authority shall be deposited in such depository bank or banks except that bond proceeds and funds pledged to pay bonds may, to the extent provided in the indenture, be deposited with the trustee bank named in the trust indenture, and except that funds shall be remitted to the bank of payment for the payment of principal of and interest on bonds. To the extent that funds in the depository banks and the trustee bank are not insured by the F.D.I.C. they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of county funds.

(b) Before designating a depository bank or banks, the board shall issue a notice stating the time and place when and where the board will meet for such purpose and inviting the banks in the authority to submit applications to be designated depositories. The term of service for depositories shall be prescribed by the board. Such notice shall be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the authority and specified by the board, or, in lieu of such publication, a copy of such notice may be mailed to each bank in the authority.

(c) At the time mentioned in the notice, the board shall consider the applications and the management and condition of the banks filing them, and shall designate as depositories the bank or banks which offer the most favorable terms and conditions for the handling of the funds of the authority and which the board finds have proper management and are in condition to warrant handling of authority funds. Membership on the board of an officer or director of a bank shall not disqualify such bank from being designated as depository.

(d) If no applications are received by the time stated in the notice, the board shall designate some bank or banks within or without authority upon such terms and conditions as it may find advantageous to the authority.

Sec. 15. All bonds of the authority shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking fund of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas, and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivision of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 16. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act is for the benefit of the people of this state and for the improvement of their properties and industries, and the authority, in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution. The authority shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this state.

Sec. 17. In carrying out the purposes of this Act or otherwise, the authority shall not be empowered to levy a tax.

Sec. 18. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

Lenode Goldston
Jack A. Witte
Carl F. Mann, Jr.
Lewis C. Holder
A. Halla, Jr.

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 20. The returns of all elections may be canvassed by the board of directors of the district at any time within seven days after the holding of an election, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable. The election returns of the annual election of directors may be canvassed by the board of directors as it was composed at the time of such election, or by the directors elected at such election, or by a combination of both. At the board of directors meeting at which the returns are canvassed, composed as aforesaid, any director newly elected at such election may qualify by filing his official bond and taking the oath of office, either before or after the returns are canvassed, and upon the filing of such bond the board, composed as aforesaid, may approve same.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Art. 8280—391. Windfern Municipal Utility District

Section 1. Under and pursuant to the provisions of Article 16, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, a conservation and reclamation district is hereby created and established in Harris County, Texas, to be known as "Windfern Municipal Utility District," hereinafter called the "district," which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate. The creation and establishment of the district is hereby declared to be essential to the accomplishment of the purposes of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 2. The district shall comprise all of the territory contained within the following described area:

Lying wholly in Harris County, Texas, and being 152.0365 acres of land, more or less, out of the W. K. Hamblen Survey, A-317, being more particularly described by metes and bounds as follows:

Beginning at an old fence corner marking the intersection of the westerly right-of-way line of Windfern Road (formerly Reid Road) with the northerly boundary of the said W. K. Hamblen Survey and the southern boundary of the A. Lawson Survey, A-523, said point of beginning also being the northeast corner of the tract described herein.

THENCE, in a Southerly direction following the general line of an old fence along the said westerly right-of-way line of Windfern Road, as follows:

South 1480.68 feet to a point.

West 20.00 feet to a point.

South 400.00 feet to a point.

East 20.00 feet to a point.

South 959.76 feet to a 1-inch iron pipe set in a corner of the said old fence for the southeast corner of the tract described herein.

THENCE, N 88° 15' 51" W 2366.92 feet, following the general line of an old fence to a corner of the said old fence, for the southwest corner of the tract described herein.

THENCE, N 00° 17' 57" E 2782.03 feet, following the general line of an old fence to a corner of the said old fence at its intersection with the northerly boundary line of the W. K. Hamblen Survey and the southerly boundary line of the A. Lawson Survey for the northwest corner of the tract described herein.

THENCE, S 89° 40' 38" E 2351.34 feet, following the general line of an old fence along the said northerly boundary line of the W. K. Hamblen Survey and the said southerly boundary line of the A. Lawson Survey, to the point of beginning of the tract described herein.

Containing 152.0365 acres of land, more or less.

Sec. 3. It is determined and found that the boundaries and field notes of the district form a closure; and if any mistake is made in copying the field notes in the legislative process, or otherwise a mistake is made in the field notes, it shall in no way or manner affect the organization, existence, and validity of the district, or the right of the district to issue any type of bonds or refunding bonds for the purposes for which the district is created, or to pay the principal and interest thereon, or the right to assess, levy, and collect taxes, or the legality or operation of the district or its governing body.

Sec. 4. It is determined and found that all of the land and other property included within the area and boundaries of the district will be benefited by the works and project which are to be accomplished by the district pursuant to the powers conferred by the provisions of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, and that said district was and is created to serve a public use and benefit.

Sec. 5. The district shall have and exercise, and is hereby vested with, all of the rights, powers, privileges, authority, and duties conferred and imposed by the general laws of this State now in force or hereafter enacted, applicable to water control and improvement districts created under authority of Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas; but to the extent that the provisions of any such general laws may be in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall prevail. All such general laws are hereby adopted and incorporated by reference with the same effect as if incorporated in full in this Act. The powers and duties herein granted to the district shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 6. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a confirmation election for the confirmation of the district.

Sec. 7. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the exclusions of land or other property from the district; provided, however, that the board shall hold such hearing upon the written request of any landowner or other property owner within the district filed with the secretary of the board prior to the calling of the first bond election for the district. The board on its own motion may call and hold an exclusions hearing or hearings in the manner provided by the general law.

Sec. 8. It shall not be necessary for the board of directors to call or hold a hearing on the adoption of a plan of taxation, but the ad valorem plan of taxation shall be used by the district.

Sec. 9. All powers of the district shall be exercised by a board of five directors. Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be elected or appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he is 21 years of age or over and a resident of the State of Texas. Such director shall not be required to reside within the boundaries of the district. Each director shall qualify by subscribing to the oath of office and giving bond in the amount of $5,000 for the faithful performance of his duties. The cost of such bond shall be paid by the district. Such bond shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and approved by the county judge or the commissioner's court of the county within which district is situated. Such oath shall be filed with the secretary of the district's board of directors after his selection. The bonds of directors elected or appointed after the directors named below shall be approved by the district's board of directors, filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the district is located and shall be recorded in a record kept for that purpose in the office of the district and be filed for safekeeping in the depository of the district. Immediately after this Act becomes effective, the following named persons, all of whom are 21 years of age or over and residents of the State of Texas, shall be the directors of the district and shall constitute the board of directors of the district:

John Swope
Patricia Jackson
Ruben Lambert
Martin Morales
Dean Smith

Said persons shall qualify as directors within 30 days, or as soon thereafter as practicable, from the effective date of this Act. If any of the aforementioned persons shall fail or refuse to qualify or to serve, or shall die or become incapacitated, or otherwise not be qualified to assume the duties of a director of the district under this Act, a majority of the remaining directors shall appoint a successor or successors. The directors named above or their duly appointed successor or successors shall serve until the second Tuesday in January 1969. Succeeding directors shall be elected or appointed and shall serve for the term and in the manner provided for by Article 7880—37, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes. The annual elections shall be ordered by the board of directors. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by a majority of the remaining directors. The board of directors shall elect from its number a president, a vice president, and a secretary of the board of directors and of the district, and such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. Three directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting, and a concurrence of three shall be sufficient in all matters pertaining to the business of the district including the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants in payment for construction work, the purchase of existing facilities, and matters relating to construction work. Warrants to pay current expenses, salaries, and accounts may be drawn and signed by an officer or employee, designated by standing order entered on the minutes of the board of directors, when such accounts have been contracted and ordered paid by the directors. The president may execute all contracts, construction or otherwise, entered into by the board of directors on behalf of the district. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all power conferred by this Act or the general law upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act. Any order adopted or other action taken at a meeting of the board of directors at which the president is absent may be signed by the vice president, or the board may authorize the president to sign such order or other action. The secretary shall keep and sign the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors; and in his absence at any board meeting, a secretary pro tem shall be named for that meeting who may exercise all the duties and powers of the secretary for such meeting, and shall sign the minutes thereof, and may attest all orders passed or other action taken at such meeting, or the board may authorize the secretary to attest such orders or other action. The secretary shall be the custodian of all minutes and records of the district. The board shall appoint all necessary engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees. The board shall adopt a seal for the district.

Sec. 10. Before issuing any construction bonds, the district shall submit plans and specifications therefor to the Texas Water Rights Commission for approval in the manner required by Article 7880—139, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925; and the district's project and improvements during the course of construction shall be subject to inspection in the manner provided by said Article 7880—139.

Sec. 11. When any kind of bonds or refunding bonds have been approved by the Attorney General of Texas, registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and issued by the district, such bonds or refunding bonds shall be negotiable, legal, valid, and binding obligations of the district and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The power of eminent domain of the district shall be limited to the county or counties in which the district is situated. In the event that the district, in the exercise of the power of eminent domain or power of relocation, or any other power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of, any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telegraph or telephone properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade, or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the district. The term "sole expense" shall mean the actual cost of such relocation, raising, lowering, rerouting, or change in grade, or alteration of construction in providing comparable replacement without enhancement of such facilities, after deducting therefrom the net salvage value derived from the old facility.

Sec. 13. This district is hereby created notwithstanding any of the provisions of the Municipal Annexation Act (Article 970a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), as amended, and to the extent of the creation of the district only, said Article 970a shall have no application. In all other respects, the district hereby created is expressly made subject to all provisions of said Article 970a.

Sec. 14. It is determined and found that a proper and legal notice of the intention to introduce this Act, setting forth the general substance of this Act, has been published at least 30 days and not more than 90 days prior to the introduction of this Act in the Legislature of Texas, in a newspaper having a general circulation in the county or counties in which this district or any part thereof is situated; that a copy of such notice and a copy of this Act have been delivered to the Governor of Texas, who has submitted such notice and Act to the Texas Water Rights Commission, and said Texas Water Rights Commission has filed its recommendation as to such Act with the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Speaker of the House of Representatives of Texas within 30 days from the date such notice and Act were received by the Texas Water Rights Commission; and that all the requirements and provisions of Article 16, Section 59(d), Constitution of the State of Texas, have been fulfilled and accomplished as therein provided.

Sec. 15. The board of directors of the district shall select any bank or trust company in the State of Texas to act as depository of the proceeds of the bonds or revenues derived from the operation of the facilities of the district, and said depository shall furnish such indemnity bonds or pledge such securities or meet such other requirements as determined by the board of directors of the district. The district may select one or more depositories.

Sec. 16. In no manner limiting the right, power, or authority of the district, as heretofore granted, the district is specifically granted the right, power, and authority to purchase and construct, or to purchase or construct, or otherwise to acquire waterworks systems, sanitary sewer systems, storm sewer systems and drainage facilities, or parts of such systems or facilities, and to make any and all necessary purchases, constructions, improvements, extension, additions, and repairs thereto, and to purchase or acquire all necessary land, rights-of-way, easements, sites, equipment, buildings, plants, structures, and facilities therefor and to operate and maintain same, and to sell water and other services. The district may exercise any of the rights, powers, and authorities granted in this Act within or without the boundaries of the district and is specifically authorized to exercise any of said rights, powers, and authorities in order to provide water and sewerage services to areas within or without the boundaries of the district. The district may vote and issue any kind of bonds or refunding bonds for any or all of such purposes herein provided, for contiguous or noncontiguous areas, and provide and make payment therefor and for necessary expenses in connection therewith.

Sec. 17. Bonds of the district, other than refunding bonds, may be sold at a price and upon the terms determined by the board of directors of the district, except that such bonds shall not be sold for a less amount than provided by law. Such bonds or refunding bonds may be sold in denominations of $1,000 each or multiples thereof. Refunding bonds shall be sold at a price and under the terms of the general law applicable to water control and improvement districts. The district may exchange bonds or refunding bonds for property acquired by purchase, or in payment of the contract price of work done or materials furnished or services furnished for the use and benefit of the district; provided that no notice given pursuant to Article 7880—117, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall be predicated upon or require the exchange of bonds or refunding bonds, and said article shall otherwise be applicable to this district in all respects.

Sec. 18. The provisions of Article 7880—77b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other general law, pertaining to the calling of a hearing for the determination of the dissolution of a district where a bond election has failed shall be inapplicable to this district, and this district shall continue to exist and shall have full power to function and operate regardless of the outcome of any bond election. Upon the failure of any bond election, a subsequent bond election may be called after the expiration of six months from the date of the bond election which failed.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 19. Notice of all elections may be given under the hand of either the president or the secretary of the district.

Sec. 23. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision.

Title of Act:

An Act creating and establishing a conservation and reclamation district under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, known as "Windfern Municipal Utility District"; declaring district a governmental agency, body politic and corporate; defining the boundaries; finding the field notes and boundaries form a closure, and related matters; finding a benefit to all land and other property within the district; finding that district is created to serve a public use and benefit; conferring on district the rights, powers, privileges, authority and duties of the general laws of Texas applicable to water control and improvement districts created under Article 16, Section 59, Constitution of Texas, where not in conflict with this Act and adopting same by reference; providing for continuing supervision by the State through the Texas Water Rights Commission; providing for no election for confirmation; providing for no

hearing for exclusions, except on written request or the board of directors' own motion; providing for no hearing on plan of taxation and adopting ad valorem plan of taxation for district; providing for governing body of district; providing for qualifications and bonds of directors; naming first board of directors; providing for directors to fill vacancies; providing for terms and election of directors and notice of directors' elections, and related matters; providing for organization of board of directors; providing for the letting of construction contracts and the drawing of warrants; providing for the execution of contracts by the president; providing for a vice president, a secretary, and a secretary pro tem and outlining their duties; providing for employment of engineers, attorneys, auditors, and other employees; providing for a seal for the district; providing for approval of district's plans and specifications by the Texas Water Rights Commission and inspection during construction by said Commission; providing for bonds and refunding bonds to be approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas, and providing for negotiability, legality, validity, obligation, and incontestability of the bonds and refunding bonds; providing the power of eminent domain shall be limited to the county or counties within which district is situated; providing district shall bear expenses of relocating, raising, or rerouting any highway, railroad, or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by its exercise of the power of eminent domain; defining "sole expense"; providing that the Municipal Annexation Act shall have no application to the creation of this district; determining and finding the requirements of Article 16, Section 59(c), Constitution of Texas, as to notice of intention to introduce this Act have been fulfilled and accomplished; providing for the selection of a depository or depositories for the district and related matters; providing additional powers of district within and without the boundaries of district; providing for the voting and issuing of bonds to serve areas within or without the boundaries of district; providing for the sale of bonds of the district in denominations of $1,000 or multiples thereof, for the exchange of bonds for property and services, and for the minimum price of bonds at such sale or exchange; providing that Article 7880—77b (Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not be applicable to this district, and related matters; providing that notice of all elections shall be under the hand of the president or secretary; providing for canvassing of election returns; providing the bonds of this district and their transfer and income therefrom and profits thereon and purchases made by district shall be tax-free in this State; providing the bonds and refunding bonds of this district shall be eligible investments; enacting other provisions related to the aforementioned subjects; providing for a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1692, ch. 651.

Art. 8280—392. Lamar County Water Supply District

Section 1. By virtue of Article XVI, Section 59 of the Texas Constitution, there is hereby created a Conservation and Reclamation District to be known as "Lamar County Water Supply District" (hereinafter called "District"), which shall be a governmental agency and a body politic and corporate.

Sec. 2. Said District shall contain all of the territory contained in the boundaries of Lamar County, Texas, except that part of Lamar County contained within the corporate limits of the City of Paris, Texas, as of the effective date of this Act. It is hereby found and determined that all of the territory contained within the boundaries as above set forth will be benefited by the works and improvements of the District.

Sec. 3. (a) All powers of the Authority shall be exercised by a Board of Directors, each of whom shall serve for a term of two (2) years except for the directors appointed by this Act. The following directors are hereby appointed:

NAME		FOR TERM ENDING
J. C. Biard	Paris, Texas	April 30, 1969
M. F. Gilliam	Chicota, Texas	April 30, 1969
H. A. Todd	Faught, Texas	April 30, 1969
James S. Grant	Deport, Texas	April 30, 1969
J. R. Whitney	Brookston, Texas	April 30, 1968
G. Harold Rhoades	Roxton, Texas	April 30, 1968
Harold G. Prowse	Powderly, Texas	April 30, 1968

The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) members until such time as said Board shall determine that it would be to the best interest of the District to increase the number of members of said Board. Upon such determination, said Board may, by resolution, provide that said Board shall be increased to a total membership of nine (9) members. If the membership is so increased, the Commissioners Court of Lamar County shall appoint the new members of said Board for a term of office not to exceed two (2) years.

(b) In April of 1968 and in April of each year hereafter the Commissioners Court of Lamar County, Texas, shall appoint a director or directors to succeed the director or directors whose term or terms are about to expire. Any vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the Commissioners Court of Lamar County, Texas.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) Each director shall serve for his term of office as herein provided, and thereafter until his successor shall be appointed and qualified. No person shall be appointed a director unless he resides in Lamar County, Texas, or in a county all or a portion of which is contained in the District. Such directors shall subscribe the Constitutional Oath of Office, and each shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties in the amount of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), the cost of which shall be paid by the District. A majority shall constitute a quorum. If any director moves from a county all or a portion of which is contained in the District, or otherwise ceases to be a director, the Commissioners Court of Lamar County, Texas, shall appoint a director to succeed him, for the unexpired term.

(d) Each director shall receive a fee of not to exceed Twenty Dollars ($20) for attending each meeting of the Board, provided that no more than Forty Dollars ($40) shall be paid to any director for meetings held in any one (1) calendar month. Each director shall also be entitled to receive not to exceed Twenty Dollars ($20) per day devoted to the business of the District and to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in attending to District business provided that such service and expense are expressly approved by the Board.

Sec. 4. The Board of Directors shall elect from its number a president and a vice president of the District, and such other officers as in the judgment of the Board are necessary. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the District and the presiding officer of the Board, and shall have the same right to vote as any other director. The vice president shall perform all duties and exercise all powers conferred by this Act upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act except the president's right to vote. The Board shall also appoint a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be members of the Board, and it may combine those offices. The treasurer shall give bond in such amount as may be required by the Board of Directors. The condition of such bond shall be that he will faithfully account for all money which shall come into his custody as treasurer of the District. The Board shall appoint necessary engineers, attorneys and other employees, and may employ a general manager. The power to employ and discharge employees may be conferred upon the manager. The Board shall adopt a seal for the District.

Sec. 5. Other territory situated within the counties of Red River, Fannin and Delta may be annexed to the District in the following manner:

(a) A petition praying for such annexation signed by a majority of the qualified voters of the territory proposed to be annexed who own taxable property therein and who have duly rendered the same to the city (if situated within a city or town) or county for taxation shall be filed with the Board of Directors of the District. The petition shall describe the territory by metes and bounds, or otherwise, unless such territory is the same as that contained in a city or town, in which event it shall be sufficient to state that the territory to be annexed is that which is contained within such city or town.

(b) If the Board of Directors finds that the petition complies with, and is signed by the number of qualified persons required by the foregoing subsection, it shall adopt a resolution stating the conditions, if any, under which such territory may be annexed to the District, and fixing a time and place when and where a hearing shall be held by the Board of Directors, on the question of whether the territory will be benefited by the improvements, works, and facilities then owned or operated or contemplated to be owned or operated by the District. Railroad right-of-way which is not situated within the defined limits of an incorporated city or town will not be benefited by improvements, works and facilities which the District is authorized to construct; therefore, it is provided that no railroad right-of-way shall hereafter be annexed to the District except such right-of-way as is contained within the limit of an incorporated city or town then or theretofore annexed to the District.

(c) Notice of the adoption of such resolution stating the time and place of such hearing, addressed to the citizens and owners of property in such territory shall be published one (1) time in a newspaper of general circulation within such territory and designated by the Board of Directors at least ten (10) days prior to the date of such hearing. The notice shall describe the territory in the same manner in which it is required or permitted by this Act to be described in the petition.

(d) All persons interested may appear at such hearing and offer evidence for or against the proposed annexation. Such hearing may proceed in such order and under such rules as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, and the hearing may be recessed from time to time. If, at the conclusion of the hearing, the Board of Directors finds that lands in such territory will be benefited by the present or contemplated improvements, works or facilities of the District, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution annexing such territory to the District.

Sec. 6. The District is empowered to acquire the fee simple title to land and other properties and easements within or without the boundaries of the District, and to construct, lease or otherwise acquire all works, plants and other facilities necessary or useful for the purpose of transporting water to cities and others within or without the District for municipal, domestic, industrial and mining purposes. Subject to the terms of any deed of trust issued by the District, the District may sell, trade or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property deemed by the Board of Directors not to be needed for District purposes. The District is not authorized to develop underground sources of water and the District is not authorized to acquire land by condemnation. In the event that the District, in the exercise of any power granted hereunder, makes necessary the relocation, raising, rerouting or changing the grade of, or altering the construction of any highway, railroad, electric transmission line, telephone or telegraph properties and facilities, or pipeline, all such necessary relocation, raising, rerouting, changing of grade or alteration of construction shall be accomplished at the sole expense of the District.

The powers and duties herein granted to the District shall be subject to the continuing right of supervision of the State, to be exercised by and through the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 7. Any construction contract requiring an expenditure of more than Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000) shall be made after publication of a notice to bidders once each week for two (2) weeks before awarding the contract. Such notice shall be sufficient if it states the time and place when and where the bids will be opened, the general nature of the work to be done, or the material, equipment or supplies to be purchased, and states where and the terms upon which copies of the plans and specifications may be obtained. The publication shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in the District and designated or approved by the Board of Directors.

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of providing a source of water supply for cities and other users within or without the District for municipal, domestic, industrial and mining purposes, as authorized by this Act, and for the purpose of carrying out any other power or authority conferred by this Act, the District is empowered to issue its negotiable bonds to be payable from such revenues of the District as are pledged by resolution of the Board of Directors. Pending the issuance of definitive bonds the Board may authorize the delivery of negotiable interim bonds or notes, eligible for exchange or substitution by use of the definitive bonds.

(b) Such bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors and shall be issued in the name of the District, signed by the president or vice president, attested by the secretary and shall bear the seal of the District. It is provided, however, that the signatures of the president or of the secretary or of both may be printed or lithographed on the bonds if authorized by the Board of Directors, and that the seal of the District may be impressed on the bonds or may be printed or lithographed thereon. The bonds shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed forty (40) years from their date, shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six (6%) percent per annum, and may be sold at a price and under terms determined by the Board of Directors to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, and within the discretion of the Board, may be made callable prior to maturity at such times and prices as may be prescribed in the resolution authorizing the bonds, and may be made registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest, and may be in such denomination as the Board of Directors shall specify in the authorizing resolution; provided that none of said bonds shall be sold for less than ninety (90%) percent of their face value.

(c) Bonds may be issued in more than one (1) series and from time to time as required for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(d) The bonds may be secured by a pledge of all or part of the net revenues of the District, or by the net revenues of any one (1) or more contracts theretofore or thereafter made or other revenues or income specified by resolution of the Board of Directors or in the trust indenture. Any such pledge may reserve the right, under conditions therein specified, to issue additional bonds which will be on a parity with or subordinate to the bonds then being issued.

(e) The District shall not have the power to levy taxes of any kind.

(f) When bonds payable from revenues are issued, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to fix, and from time to time to revise, the rates of compensation for water sold and services rendered by the District which will be sufficient to pay the expense of operating and maintaining the facilities of the District and to pay the bonds as they mature and the interest as it accrues and to maintain the reserve and other funds as provided in the resolution authorizing the bonds.

(g) From the proceeds from the sale of the bonds, the District may set aside an amount for the payment of interest expected to accrue during construction and a reserve interest and sinking fund, and such provision may be made in the resolution authorizing the bonds. Proceeds from the sale of the bonds may also be used for the payment of all expenses necessarily incurred in accomplishing the purpose for which this District is created, including expenses of issuing and selling the bonds, and engineering and attorneys fees.

(h) In the event of a default or a threatened default in the payment of principal or of interest on bonds herein authorized, any court of competent jurisdiction may, upon petition of the holders of outstanding bonds, appoint a receiver with authority to collect and receive all income of the District, employ and discharge agents and employees of the District, take charge of funds on hand and manage the proprietary affairs of the District without consent or hindrance by the directors. Such receiver may also be authorized to sell or make contracts for the sale of water or renew such contracts with the approval of the court appointing him. The court may vest the receiver with such other powers and duties as the court may find necessary for the protection of the holders of the bonds. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or the trust indenture securing them may limit or qualify the rights of the holders of less than all of the outstanding bonds payable from the same source to institute or prosecute litigation affecting the District's property or income.

Sec. 9. The District is authorized to issue refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds authorized by this Act and interest thereon. Such refunding bonds may be issued to refund more than one (1) series of outstanding bonds and combine the pledges for the outstanding bonds for the security of the refunding bonds, and may be secured by other or additional revenues and mortgage liens. The provisions of this Act with reference to the issuance by the District of other bonds, their security, and their approval by the Attorney General and the remedies of the holders shall be applicable to refunding bonds. Refunding bonds shall be registered by the Comptroller upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded, but in lieu thereof, the resolution authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold and the proceeds thereof deposited in the bank where the original bonds are payable, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient to pay the principal of and the interest on the original bonds to their option date or maturity date, and the Comptroller shall register them without concurrent surrender and cancellation of the original bonds.

Sec. 10. Any bonds (including refunding bonds) authorized by this law may be additionally secured by a trust indenture under which the trustee may be a bank having trust powers situated either within or outside of the State of Texas. Such bonds, within the discretion of the Board of Directors, may be additionally secured by a deed of trust or mortgage lien upon physical properties of the District and all franchises, easements, leases and contracts and all rights appurtenant to such properties, vesting in the trustee power to sell the properties for the payment of the indebtedness, power to operate the properties and all other powers and authority for the further security of the bonds. Such trust indenture, regardless of the existence of the deed of trust or mortgage lien on the properties may contain any provisions prescribed by the Board of Directors for the security of the bonds and the preservation of the trust estate, and may make provision for amendment or modification thereof and the issuance of bonds to replace lost or mutilated bonds, and may condition the right to expend District money or sell District property upon approval of a registered professional engineer selected as provided therein, and may make provision for the investment of funds of the District. Any purchaser under a sale under the deed of trust lien, where one is given, shall be the absolute owner of the properties, facilities and rights so purchased and shall have the right to maintain and operate the same.

Sec. 11. After any bonds (including refunding bonds) are authorized by the District, such bonds and the record relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General for his examination as to the validity thereof. Where such bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of the proceeds of a contract theretofore made between the District and any city or other governmental agency, authority or district, a copy of such contract and the proceedings of the city or other governmental agency, authority or district authorizing such contract shall also be submitted to the Attorney General. If such bonds have been authorized and if such contracts have been made in accordance with the Constitution and laws of the State of Texas he shall approve the bonds and such contracts and the bonds then shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. Thereafter the bonds, and the contracts, if any, shall be valid and binding and shall be incontestable for any cause.

Sec. 12. The District is authorized to enter into contracts with cities and others for supplying water to them or for purchasing water from them. The District is also authorized to contract with any city for the rental or leasing of, or for the operation of the water production, water supply, water filtration or purification and water supply facilities of such city upon such consideration as the District and the city may agree. Any such contract may be upon such terms and for such time as the parties may agree, and it may provide that it shall continue in effect until bonds specified therein and refunding bonds issued in lieu of such bonds are paid.

Sec. 13. The District is authorized to accept grants, gifts or other aid from any source, public or private, and is authorized to contract with corporations, public or private, natural persons, and with governmental agencies, state, federal and local.

Sec. 14. (a) The Board of Directors shall designate one (1) or more banks within or without the district to serve as depository for the funds of the District. All funds of the District shall be deposited in such depository bank or banks except that funds pledged to pay bonds may be deposited with the trustee bank named in the trust agreement, and except that funds shall be remitted to the bank of payment for the payment of principal of and interest on bonds. To the extent that funds in the depository banks and the trustee bank are not insured by the F.D.I.C. they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of county funds.

(b) Before designating a depository bank or banks, the Board of Directors shall issue a notice stating the time and place when and where the Board will meet for such purpose and inviting banks to submit applications to be designated depositories. The term of service for depositories shall be prescribed by the Board. Such notice shall be published one (1) time in a newspaper or newspapers of general circulation published in the District and specified by the Board.

(c) At the time mentioned in the notice, the Board shall consider the applications and the management and condition of the banks filing them, and shall designate as depositories the bank or banks which offer the most favorable terms and conditions for the handling of the funds of the District and which the Board finds have proper management and are in condition to warrant handling of District funds. Membership on the Board of Directors of an officer or director of a bank shall not disqualify such bank from being designated as depository.

(d) If no applications are received by the time stated in the notice, the Board shall designate some bank or banks within or without the District upon such terms and conditions as it may find advantageous to the District.

Sec. 15. All bonds of the District shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, trustees, and for the sinking fund of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas; and such bonds shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of their market value, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

Sec. 16. The District is authorized to invest any of its funds, including proceeds from the sale of bonds, in direct obligations of, or obligations, the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by, the United States of America, and to invest such funds in direct obligations of or participation certificates guaranteed by the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank, the Federal Home Loan Bank, Federal Land Bank, or banks for cooperatives, and to place its funds on interest bearing time deposits with banks if such deposits are secured with a pledge of securities of the kind just specified, to the extent not otherwise provided in the Resolution or the Trust Indenture under which its bonds are issued. Income and profits on such investments shall be applied as provided in such Resolution or Trust Indenture.

Sec. 17. The accomplishment of the purposes stated in this Act is for the benefit of the people of this State and for the improvement of their properties and industries, and the District, in carrying out the purposes of this Act will be performing an essential public function under the Constitution. The District shall not be required to pay any tax or assessment on the project or any part thereof, and the bonds issued hereunder and their transfer and the income therefrom, including the profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within this State.

Sec. 18. Article 7880—139, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, relating to approval by the Texas Water Rights Commission of projects and bonds is hereby adopted and shall be applicable to the District.

Sec. 19. Any time after the effective date of this Act, any duly incorporated city or town initially included within the territory comprising the District may file with the Board of Directors of the District a resolution or ordinance duly adopted by the governing body of such city or town requesting that the territory contained within the corporate limits of such city or town be detached from the District. Upon receipt of such request, the Board of Directors shall pass a resolution detaching such territory from the District. In like manner, any duly incorporated city or town, whether initially included within the District or not, which annexes territory comprising part of the District, may request that the territory so annexed to such city or town be detached from the District. Upon such request the Board of Directors of the District shall adopt a resolution detaching such territory from the District. Provided, that the Board of Directors of the District shall not be required to detach territory which would reduce the size of the District below an area of less than four hundred square miles.

Sec. 20. Nothing in this Act shall be interpreted as amending or repealing Article 7471, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, which provide for priorities of the use of water. Any permits which may be required shall be secured from the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Sec. 21. It is hereby found that notice of intention to introduce this bill has been published at least thirty (30) days and not more than ninety (90) days prior to its introduction in a newspaper having general circulation in Lamar County, Texas, and in the manner provided by Article XVI, Section 59(d) of the Constitution, that a copy of said notice and of this bill as introduced were delivered to the governor, and the time, form and manner of giving said notice is hereby approved and ratified. The evidence of the foregoing was exhibited in the Legislature before the passage of this Act.

Sec. 22. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Title of Act:

An Act creating a Conservation and Reclamation District under Article XVI, Section 59, of the Constitution comprising all of the territory contained in the boundaries of Lamar County, Texas, except that part of Lamar County contained within the corporate limits of the city of Paris, Texas, as of the effective date of this Act, to be known as Lamar County Water Supply District, for the purpose of providing a source of water supply for cities and other users within or without the District for municipal, domestic, industrial and mining purposes; providing for a Board of Directors to govern said District; providing a method for the annexation of additional territory thereto and for the detachment of territory therefrom; providing that the District shall not have any powers of taxation or condemnation; authorizing the District to acquire land, easements and other properties within or without the District and to lease or otherwise acquire all works, plants, and other facilities necessary or useful for transporting water to cities and others, within or without the District; providing for continuing supervision by the state through the Texas Water Rights Commission; authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds and making provision for the payment and security thereof; providing that Article 7880—139, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, shall be applicable to the District; providing that the District shall bear the expense of relocation, raising or rerouting of any highway, railroad or utility lines or pipelines made necessary by the exercise of its powers; authorizing the District to enter into contracts for the sale of and purchase of water; authorizing the District to accept grants, gifts and other aid; providing for a depository bank; authorizing the investment of District funds; prescribing other powers and duties of the District; enacting other provisions relating to the subject; providing for severability; and declaring an emergency. TITLE 130—WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW

Part 4.

Art.
8309c—1. Extension of workmen's compensation insurance to employees of certain drainage districts [New].

PART 1

Art. 8306. Damages and compensation for personal injuries

Art. 8306, sec. 7—e. Artificial appliances

Sec. 7—e. (a) In all cases where liability for compensation exists for an injury sustained by an employee in the course of his employment where artificial appliances of any kind would materially and beneficially improve the future usefulness and occupational opportunities of such injured employee, the association shall furnish such employee with the artificial appliance or appliances needed by him for such occupational opportunities. The association shall not be liable for replacing or repairing any artificial appliances so furnished. The cost of such artificial appliances so furnished to any such employee shall be in keeping with the salary or wages received by such employee.

(b) In the event the association shall fail or refuse to furnish or provide such artificial appliances, such employee shall make application to the Board for such artificial appliances. On receipt of such application the Board shall order a medical examination of the employee and obtain such other evidence as in their opinion they may deem necessary, after which the Board shall determine whether or not the artificial appliances would materially and beneficially improve the future usefulness and occupational opportunities of the injured employee and in the event they find that such improvement would exist, then the Board shall order the association to furnish the artificial appliances.

Sec. 7—e amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 451, ch. 204, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 8308. Employers' Insurance Association

* * * * *

Furnishing workmen's compensation benefits to additional employees or classifications of employees by purchasing appropriate insurance

Sec. 18. Any employer may assume with respect to any employee or classification of employees not within the coverage of this law, other than any such employee or classification of employees for whom a rule of liability or a method of compensation has been or may be established by the Congress of the United States, the liability for compensation imposed upon employers by this law with respect to employees within the coverage of this law, and the purchase and acceptance by such employer of valid workmen's compensation insurance applicable to such employee or classification of employees shall constitute as to such employer subscription to this law without any further act on the part of such employer, but only with respect to such employee or such classification of employees as is within the coverage of said workmen's compensation insurance, and such subscription shall take effect from the effective date of such workmen's compensation insurance and shall continue as long only as such employer remains a subscriber, and each such employee shall be held to have waived his right of action at common law or under any statute of this State to recover damages for injuries sustained in the course of his employment if he shall not have given his employer notice that he claimed such right, in accordance with the provisions of Article 8306, Section 3a. It is specifically provided, however, that under no circumstances shall the failure of any employer to assume with respect to any employee or classification of employees the liability for compensation and to purchase workmen's compensation insurance applicable to such employee or classification of employees, as made optional with the employer by this law, be construed as depriving such employer of the common law defenses listed in Section 1 of Article 8306, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas.

Sec. 18 added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1812, ch. 695, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Information to be furnished when employer becomes subscriber

Sec. 18a. Whenever any employer of labor in this State becomes a subscriber to this law, he shall immediately notify the board of such fact, stating in such notice his name, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employees, estimated amount of his payroll and the name of the insurance company carrying his insurance, the date of issuing the policy and the date when the same will expire, and whenever any policy is renewed that fact shall be made known to the board and the notice thereof shall contain the above facts. Any such notice of renewal of an existing policy, by the same insurance company, may be signed by the licensed local recording agent through whom the renewal policy is issued. The association shall also report the same to the board, giving the name of the employer, place of business, character of the business, approximate number of employees, estimated amount of payroll, date of issuance and date of expiration of said policy. Any employer or association willfully failing or refusing to make any such report shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas a penalty of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for each offense, the same to be recovered by suit in Travis County by the Attorney General or by the district or county attorney under his direction in the district court thereof.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1812, ch. 695, which amended this article by adding section 18 thereto, provided in sections 2 and 3 thereof:	"Sec. 3. If the provisions of this Act or the application hereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."
"Sec. 2. In the event that any of the provisions of this Act are in conflict with the provisions of any other law, the provisions hereof shall take precedent and shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.

PART 4

Art. 8309. Definitions and general provisions

Art. 8309, sec. 1a. Executive officers as employees of corporation

Sec. 1a. Every executive officer elected or appointed and empowered in accordance with the charter and bylaws of a corporation which is a subscriber to this law, including charitable, religious, educational and other non-profit corporations as well as business corporations but excluding those educational corporations controlled by Article 8309b and 8309d, may, notwithstanding any other provision of this law, be brought within the coverage of its insurance contract by any such corporation by specifically including such executive officer in such contract of insurance and the election to bring such executive officer within the coverage shall continue for the period such contract of insurance is in effect, and during such period such executive officers thus brought within the coverage of the insurance contract shall be employees of such corporation under this law. Under no circumstance shall any executive officer of any corporation be counted in determining whether or not the employer has three or more employees so as to be subject to the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Law as specified in Section 2, Part 1, of this Act.

Sec. 1a amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 426, ch. 192, § 1, eff. May 15, 1967.

Sections 2 and 3 of the amendatory act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 2. In the event that any of the provisions of this Act are in conflict with the provisions of any other law, the provisions hereof shall take precedent and shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.

"Sec. 3. If the provisions of this Act or the application hereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 8309c—1. Extension of workmen's compensation insurance to employees of certain drainage districts

Sec. 1. The provisions of Section 60, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas, relating to the right of counties and other political subdivisions of this state, to provide workmen's compensation insurance for all employees of such political subdivision, shall be extended to include drainage districts as political subdivisions of this state which have been converted into conservation and reclamation districts under the provisions of Section 59, Article XVI, Constitution of the State of Texas.

Sec. 2. The provisions of Chapter 428, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 (Article 8309c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall apply to such Drainage Districts, including the provisions of Section 1 through Section 19 of such chapter outlining the procedure to be followed by the commissioners of such drainage districts in adopting the provisions relating to such workmen's compensation insurance, which shall be identical to such procedures followed by counties in this state, including the right to provide for the payment of all costs, charges and premiums on such policies of insurance and the benefits to be paid thereunder and the commissioners of such drainage districts shall have the same authority and be under the same obligations and duties as those now conferred on commissioners courts of the several counties throughout the state with regard to the provisions of said Chapter 428; provided that the provisions of this Act shall not be mandatory upon the commissioners of such drainage districts.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1843, ch. 716, § 3 provided: "Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or other part of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall ever be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act and the application of such word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section or other part of this Act to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby."

Title of Act:

An Act relating to the extension of workmen's compensation insurance to employees of certain drainage districts under the terms of Chapter 428, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949 (Article 8309c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and pursuant to Section 60, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1843, ch. 716.

Art. 8309e—1. Employees of independent school districts

Authority to provide insurance for employees

Sec. 1. All independent school districts located in any county are hereby permitted and authorized to provide insurance for all employees of such independent school districts, such power and authority to be exercised in accordance with the provisions of Article 8309e, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as it now exists or as it may be hereafter amended. The provisions of this Act authorizing such independent school districts to provide Workmen's Compensation benefits or to take out Workmen's Compensation Insurance is permissive only, and the provisions hereof, as well as the provisions of Article 8309e, with respect to either self-insurance or insurance under a policy of insurance, is not mandatory.

TITLE 6—OFFENSES AFFECTING THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE

CHAPTER FIVE—ILLEGAL VOTING

Art. 240. Participating in primary elections or conventions of more than one party

Whoever votes or offers to vote at either a general primary election or a runoff primary election or participates or offers to participate in a convention of a political party, having voted at either a general primary election or a runoff primary election or participated in a convention of any other party during the same voting year, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. As used in this article, the term "voting year" means the period for which each annual voter registration is effective.

Amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 115, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1926, ch. 723, § 69, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1858, ch. 723, §§ 1-68 amended, revised and added various articles to V.A.T.S. Election Code; sections 69-72 of the 1967 act amended various articles of the Penal Code; sections 73-76 amended and added various articles to the Civil Statutes and sections 77 and 78 thereof, repealing various articles of the Election Code, Penal Code and Civil Statutes and providing for the applicability of the act to certain elections, are set out as notes under V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 1.01a.

Synopsis of Changes—1967

Amended to change the definition of "voting year" to conform to the 1966 voter registration law, which changed the beginning date from February 1 to March 1.

CHAPTER SEVEN—RIOTS AND UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLIES AND MISCONDUCT AT ELECTIONS

Art. 259. Hiring vehicle to convey voters; removing ballots from polling place

Whoever hires any vehicle or hires any person to operate a vehicle for the purpose of conveying voters to the polling place, or rewards any person in money or other thing of value for procuring a vehicle or a driver for such purpose, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. This article shall not be construed to prohibit a voter from paying for the services of a vehicle or a driver for the purpose of conveying him to the polling place or to prevent him from allowing other voters to ride in the vehicle with him while he is going to the polling place in order to vote or returning therefrom after having voted.

Whoever willfully removes any ballots from the polling place, except as permitted by law, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. Amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 118, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1926, ch. 723, § 70, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 466a. Acts calculated to produce injury or damage to property, person or life of another person; injunctive relief

Section 1. Every person who, at a time and place and under circumstances reasonably calculated to produce a clear and present and immediate threat or danger to the physical well-being, property or life of another, knowingly and willfully commits an act, or urges another to commit an act, so calculated and tending to produce injury or damage to the property, person or life of another person, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $2,000, or a jail sentence of not more than two (2) years, or by both such fine and jail sentence.

Sec. 2. In all cases where such actions are threatened, the State by and through its County or District Attorney, may have injunctive relief as an additional sanction against all who are so threatening to commit such unlawful act or acts. Where such actions are threatened in, on, or against any state agency, or property thereof, the Attorney General may institute such proceedings. All such injunctive proceedings shall be in the name of the State of Texas and be guided by the rules of other injunction proceedings. No bond shall be required.

CHAPTER EIGHT—TEXAS LIQUOR CONTROL ACT

Art. 666—32½. Expense of holding elections [New].	Art. 667—33. Method of collecting tax on ale and malt liquor [New].
---	---

I. INTOXICATING LIQUORS

Art. 666—12. Cancellation or suspension of permit; grounds

The Board or Administrator may cancel or may suspend for a period of time not exceeding sixty (60) days, after notice and hearing, any permit or any renewal of such permit if it is found that any of the following is true:

(1) That the permittee has at any time been convicted for the violation of any provision of this Act.¹

(2) That the permittee has violated any provision of this Act or any rule or regulation of the Board at any time.

(3) That the permittee has made any false or misleading representation of statement in his application or renewal application.

(4) That the permittee is indebted to the State for any taxes, fees, or payment of penalties imposed by this Act or by any rule or regulation of the Board.

(5) That the permittee is not of good moral character, or that his reputation for being a peaceable and law-abiding citizen in the community where he resides is bad.

(6) That the place or manner in which the permittee conducts his business is of such a nature which, based on the general welfare, health, peace, morals, and safety of the people and on the public sense of decency, warrants the cancellation or suspension of the permit.

(7) That the permittee is not maintaining an acceptable bond.

(8) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee, maintains a noisy, lewd, disorderly or insanitary establishment or has been supplying impure or otherwise deleterious beverages.

(9) That the permittee is insolvent or mentally or physically unable to carry on the management of his establishment.

(10) That the permittee is in the habit of using alcoholic beverages to excess.

(11) That either the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee knowingly misrepresented to a customer or the public any liquor sold by him.

(12) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee was intoxicated on the licensed premises.

(13) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee sold or delivered alcoholic beverages to any intoxicated person.

(14) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee possessed on the premises covered by his permit any alcoholic beverage that he was not authorized by his permit to purchase and sell.

(15) That any Package Store or Wine Only Package Store permittee, his agent, servant, or employee transported, caused to be transported, shipped or caused to be shipped liquor into a dry State, or into any dry area within this State.

(16) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee sold or delivered any liquor on Sunday.

(17) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee knowingly sold or delivered liquor to any person under the age of twenty-one (21) years.

(18) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee sold or delivered any liquor on Christmas Day.

(19) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee employed any person under the age of twenty-one (21) years of age to sell, handle, transport, or dispense, or to assist in selling, handling, transporting or dispensing any liquor.

(20) That the permittee is residentially domiciled with any person who has financial interest in any establishment engaged in the business of selling beer at retail, except as provided in Section 23(a) (5) and Section 17(1) of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.

(21) That the permittee is residentially domiciled with any person whose permit or license has been cancelled for cause within twelve (12) months next preceding the date of application.

(22) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee sold, offered for sale, distributed, or delivered any alcoholic beverage during any period of suspension of his permit by the Board or Administrator.

(23) That the permittee is not a citizen of the United States or has not been a citizen of Texas for a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of his application; provided, however, this Paragraph (23) shall not apply to any person who has been issued a permit or a renewal thereof on or before September 1, 1948, and has at some time been a citizen of the United States.

(24) That the permittee has been finally convicted of a felony during the period he is the holder of any permit or renewal thereof.

(25) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee permitted any intoxicated person to remain on the premises.

(26) That the retail permittee, his agent, servant, or employee, sold or delivered any liquor between 9:00 P.M. of any day and 10:00 A.M. of the following day.

(27) That the permittee, his agent, servant, or employee permitted any person to open any container or to possess any open container of alcoholic beverage on the licensed premises.

(28) Where the word "permittee" is used in this Section it shall also mean and include each member of a partnership or association and each officer and the owner or owners of the majority of the corporate stock of a corporation, except as provided in Section 23(a) (5) and Section 17(1) of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.²

(29) In addition to the causes for cancellation or suspension hereinafter set out, the Board or Administrator may cancel or suspend the permit of any person upon satisfactory proof that the permittee has been finally convicted of any penal provisions of this Act.

Art. 666—15. Classification of permits

Permits shall be of the following classes:

(1) Brewer's Permit. A Brewer's Permit shall authorize the holder thereof to:

(a) Manufacture, bottle, package, label, and sell malt liquors, and import ale and malt liquor acquired from a holder of a Nonresident Brewer's Permit;

- (b) Sell same in this State to wholesale permit holders only;
 (c) Sell same out of state to qualified persons.

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, a person who holds a Nonresident Seller's Permit may have an interest in the business, assets, corporate stock, or permit of a person who holds a Brewer's Permit.

Art. 666—18. Qualifications of permittees

No person who has not been a citizen of Texas for a period of three (3) years immediately preceding the filing of his application therefor shall be eligible to receive a permit under this Act. No permit except a Brewer's Permit, and such other licenses and permits as are necessary to the operation of a Brewer's Permit, shall be issued to a corporation unless the same be incorporated under the laws of the State and unless at least fifty-one (51%) percent of the stock of the corporation is owned at all times by citizens who have resided within the State for a period of three (3) years and who possess the qualifications required of other applicants for permits; provided, however, that the restrictions contained in the preceding clause shall not apply to domestic or foreign corporations that were engaged in the legal alcoholic beverage business in this State under charter or permit prior to August 24, 1935. Partnerships, firms, and associations applying for permits shall be composed wholly of citizens possessing the qualifications above enumerated. Any corporation (except carrier) holding a permit under this Act which shall violate any provisions hereof, or any rule or regulations promulgated hereunder, shall be subject to forfeiture of its charter and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General, when any such violation is called to his attention, to file a suit for such cancellation in a District Court of Travis County. Such provisions of this section as require Texas citizenship or require incorporation in Texas shall not apply to the holders of agent's, industrial, medicinal and carrier's permits.

Art. 666—32. Local option election

The commissioners court of each county in the state, upon proper petition, shall order an election wherein the qualified voters of such county, or of any justice precinct, or incorporated city or town therein, may by the exercise of local option determine whether or not the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits of such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

Subject to the provisions of this section and Section 32½ of the Texas Liquor Control Act,¹ upon the written application of any ten or more qualified voters of any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, the county clerk of such county shall issue to the applicants a petition to be circulated among the qualified voters thereof for the signatures of those qualified voters in such area who desire that a local option election be called therein for the purpose of determining whether the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be prohibited or legalized within the prescribed limits of such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

An application for a petition seeking an election to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Application for Local Option Election Petition to Legalize," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the applicants, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the applicants whose signatures appear hereon to see legalized the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above." The petition so issued shall clearly state the issue to be voted upon in such election, which shall be the same issue as that set out in the application, and the issue shall be one of those set out in Section 40 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.²

An application for a petition seeking an election to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Application for Local Option Election Petition to Prohibit", and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the applicants, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the applicants whose signatures appear hereon to see prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above." The petition so issued shall clearly state the issue to be voted upon in such election, which shall be the same issue as that set out in the application, and the issue shall be one of those set out in Section 40 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act.²

The petition for a local option election seeking to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed "Petition for Local Option Election to Legalize," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the petitioners, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the petitioners whose signatures appear hereon to see legalized the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above."

The petition for a local option election seeking to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages of one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents shall be headed, "Petition for Local Option Election to Prohibit," and shall contain a statement just ahead of the signatures of the petitioners, as follows: "It is the hope, purpose and intent of the petitioners whose signatures appear hereon to see prohibited the sale of alcoholic beverages referred to in the issue set out above."

Each such petition shall show the date of its issue by the county clerk and shall be serially numbered, and each page of such petition shall bear the same date and serial number, and shall bear the seal of the county clerk. The county clerk shall deliver as many copies of the petition as may be required by the applicants, and each copy shall bear the date, number and seal on each page as required in the original. The county clerk shall keep a copy of each such petition and a record of the applicants therefor. When any such petition so issued shall within thirty days after the date of issue be filed with the county clerk bearing the actual signatures of as many as twenty-five percent of the qualified voters of any such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, together with a notation showing the residence address of each of the said signers, together with the number that appears on his voter registration certificate, taking the vote for Governor at the last preceding general election at which presidential electors were elected as the basis for determining the number of qualified voters in any such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, it is hereby required that the commissioners court at its next regular session shall order a local option election to be held upon the issue set out in such petition. Such order shall state in its heading and in its text whether the local option election to be held is for the purpose of prohibiting or for the purpose of legalizing the sale of the alcoholic beverages set out in the issue recited in the application and the petition. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to check the names of the signers of any such petition, and the voting precincts in which they reside, to determine whether or not the signers of such petition were in fact qualified voters in such county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town at the time such petition was issued, and to certify to the commissioners court the number of qualified voters signing such petition. No signature shall be counted, either by the county clerk or the commissioners court, where there is reason to believe it is not the actual signature of the purported signer or that it is a duplication either of name or of handwriting used in any other signature on the petition, and no signature shall be counted unless the residence address of the signer is shown, and unless it is signed exactly as the name of the voter appears on the official copy of the current list of registered voters for the voting year which the petition is issued.

The minutes of the commissioners court shall record the date any such petition is presented, the names of the signers thereof, and the action taken with relation to the same. In any election ordered by the commissioners court, the issue ordered to appear on the ballot shall be the same as that applied for and set out in the petition. No subsequent election upon the same issue shall be held within one year from the date of the last preceding local option election in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town.

These statutes [arts. 666—32 through 666—35] are amended to make certain clarifications and to eliminate certain conflicts with the Election Code. Art. 666—36½, on appointment of supervisors, is being repealed. It was enacted at a time when there was no general law authorizing appointment of supervisors (watchers) for elections on propositions; but such a statute was enacted in 1963 (Election Code, Art. 3.06), and the special statute in the Liquor Control Act is no longer necessary. Art. 666—34, on posting notice of the election, is not being amended.

Amended [Art. 666—32] to provide that the signature of a voter on the petition for an election will not be counted unless it is signed exactly as the name of the voter appears on the list of registered voters and unless the residence address of the signer is shown. (Former statute had been construed to require one of these conditions but not both.) Also amended to make the list of registered voters for the year in which the petition is issued the controlling one, and to clarify that the statute requires 25% of the number of voters voting in the last preceding presidential general election as signers on the petition, rather than 25% of voters who actually voted at that election.

Section 2 of the amendment of 1955 was a severability clause. Section 3 repealed conflicting laws. Section 4 was an emergency clause.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1858, ch. 723, §§ 1-68, amended, revised and added various articles to V.A.T.S. Election Code; sections 69-72 of the 1967 act amended various articles of the Penal Code; sections 73-76 amended and added various articles to the Civil Statutes and sections 77 and 78 thereof, repealing various articles of the Election Code, Penal Code and Civil Statutes and providing for the applicability of the act to certain elections, are set out as notes under V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 1.01a.

Art. 666—32½. Expense of holding elections

(a) The expense of holding any local option election authorized by the Texas Liquor Control Act in any county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town shall be paid by the county, but the expense to the county shall be limited to the holding of one election in each of the above political subdivisions within a one-year period where the intent of the election is to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, and the expense to the county shall be limited to the holding of one election in each of the aforesaid political subdivisions within a one-year period where the intent of the election is to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages. All other local option elections, excepting the aforementioned one election in a one-year period with intent to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, and excepting the aforementioned one election in a one-year period with intent to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages, shall be paid by the county from funds derived by the county as prescribed in Subsection (b) of this section as follows:

(b) When the application for an election in a county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town is presented, the county clerk at the time and before the issuance of any petition for a local option election shall require a deposit in the form of a cashier's check in the aggregate amount of twenty-five cents per voter listed on the current list of registered voters as residing in the county, justice precinct or incorporated city or town for which the election is sought. The money so received shall be deposited in the county's general fund, and no refund shall be made to the applicants regardless of whether the petition is returned to the county clerk or the election is ordered. When there is presented to the county clerk an application which must be accompanied by a deposit, the county clerk shall not issue a petition to the applicants unless and until the deposit is made, and a county clerk who issues a petition upon such an application without first receiving the deposit is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than 30 days, or both fined and imprisoned.

This is a new statute, providing in substance that the county will pay for one election per year in each county, justice precinct, and incorporated city or town, where the intent of the election is to legalize sale, and one election per year where the intent of the election is to prohibit sale; but any other election held within a period of one year from the date of the preceding election to legalize or to prohibit, as the case may be, must be paid from a deposit made by the applicants for the election petition in the aggregate amount of 25 cents for each registered voter in the affected territory.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1858, ch. 723, §§ 1-68, amended, revised and added various articles to V.A.T.S. Election Code; sections 69-72 of the 1967 act amended various articles of the Penal Code; sections 73-76 amended and added various articles to the Civil Statutes and sections 77 and 78 thereof, repealing various articles of the Election Code, Penal Code and Civil Statutes and providing for the applicability of the act to certain elections, are set out as notes under V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 1.01a.

Art. 666—33. Order for election

When the commissioners court orders an election as herein provided for, it shall be the duty of the court to order such election to be held upon a day not less than twenty nor more than thirty days from the date of the order, and the order thus made shall state the issue to be voted upon in such election, and the order shall be held to be prima facie evidence that all provisions necessary to give it validity or to clothe the court with jurisdiction to make it valid, have been duly complied with.

The election shall be held at a voting place within each regular county election precinct as established by the commissioners court within the affected territory if the election is for the entire county or for a justice precinct, and at a voting place within each election precinct established by the governing body of the city or town for its municipal elections if the election is for an incorporated city or town. If the governing body of a city or town has not established precincts for its municipal elections, the commissioners court shall prescribe the election precincts for the local option election, under the rules governing establishment of precincts for municipal elections. The election shall be held at the customary polling place within each election precinct, if available; and if it is not available for that election, the commissioners court shall designate some other polling place. The order for the election shall state the polling place for each election precinct. The order shall also state the precinct numbers of county precincts included in each municipal election precinct if the election is for an incorporated city or town. The general election laws shall govern the appointment of the election judges and clerks, who shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve. Watchers for the election may be appointed in accordance with the general laws of the state, but they shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve.

Not less than three days before any local option election, the county judge shall cause to be held a public school of instruction for those who will actually conduct the election at the polling places, such school to be open to any interested person. The county clerk shall post in his office a notice of the time and place of the meeting at least forty-eight hours before it is held. The county clerk shall also notify each presiding judge of the time and place at which such school will be held, and it shall be the duty of each presiding judge to give like notice to those persons who will serve as clerks and watchers, if appointed, at the election in his precinct. Amended by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 643, ch. 249, § 3, eff. Aug. 26, 1953; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1927, ch. 723, § 71, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Amended to clarify the election precincts for holding the elections, the designation of location of polling places, and the appointment and qualifications of the election judges, clerks, and watchers. Adds provisions requiring that a school of instruction for election officers be held preceding each election.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1858, ch. 723, §§ 1-68, amended, revised and added various articles to V.A.T.S. Election Code; sections 69-72 of the 1967 act amended various articles of the Penal Code; sections 73-76 amended and added various articles to the Civil Statutes and sections 77 and 78 thereof, repealing various articles of the Election Code, Penal Code and Civil Statutes and providing for the applicability of the act to certain elections, are set out as notes under V.A.T.S. Election Code, art. 1.01a.

Art. 666—35. Official ballot; requisites

(a) At the election the vote shall be by official ballot which shall have printed thereon at the top thereof the words "Official Ballot", (beneath which there shall be printed the following instruction note: "Scratch or mark out one statement so that the one remaining indicates the way you wish to vote.") The ballot also shall have printed thereon the issue appropriate to the election order as provided in Section 40 of this Act.¹ The county clerk shall furnish the presiding judge of each election precinct within such subdivision or county with a number of such ballots, to be at least as many as the number of qualified voters in the precinct, plus ten percent of such number of voters.

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the general election laws, the issue to be voted on shall be printed on the ballot in the exact language stated in Section 40 of this Act,¹ and the ballot shall be marked as provided herein. However, the failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted if the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. In elections to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages, those in favor of such legalization shall erase the words "Against the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same; and those who oppose such legalization shall erase the words "For the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same. In elections to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages, those who favor such prohibition shall erase the words "For the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same; and those who oppose such prohibition shall erase the words "Against the legal sale of, etc." by marking a pencil mark through same.

Amended by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 643, ch. 249, § 4, eff. Aug. 26, 1953; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1929, ch. 723, § 71, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

The number of ballots to be furnished is changed from twice the number of qualified voters to 110% of the qualified voters, and provisions relating to failure of the election judge to sign a ballot and to the giving of assistance to voters are deleted (see Arts. 8.11, 8.13, and 8.21 of the Election Code for the general law on these subjects). Rewrites provisions on form of printing the proposition on the ballot and method of marking the ballot, so as to keep in effect the existing law, which is an exception to the changes made by Chapter 452, above [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1026, ch. 452], for elections on propositions generally.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1858, ch. 723, §§ 1-68, amended, revised and added various articles to V.A.T.S. Election Code; sections 69-72 of the 1967 act amended various articles of the Penal Code; sections 73-76 amended and added various articles to the Civil Statutes and sections 77 and 78 thereof, repealing various articles of the Election Code, Penal Code and Civil Statutes and providing for the applicability of the act to certain elections, are set out as notes under V.A.T.S. Synopsis of Changes—1967

Sec. 36½, Texas Liquor Control Act (Art. 666—36½, Vernon's Penal Code), pertaining to appointment of supervisors for local option elections, was repealed because its subject matter is now covered by general provisions of the Election Code enacted in 1963.

Art. 666—37. Canvass of votes; continuance of operations as distributor and wholesaler

(a) Said court shall hold a special session on the fifth day after holding of said election, or as soon thereafter as practicable, for the purpose of canvassing the votes and certifying the results, and if a majority of the voters favor the issue "Against the legal sale, etc." as to any alcoholic beverages of the various types and alcoholic content, said court shall immediately make an order declaring the results of said vote and absolutely prohibiting the sale of such prohibited type or types of alcoholic beverages within the political subdivision after thirty (30) days from the date of declaring the results thereof, and thereafter until such time as the qualified voters therein may thereafter at the legal election held for such purpose by a majority vote decide otherwise; and the order thus made shall be held as prima facie evidence that all provisions of law have been complied with in giving notice of and holding said election and counting and returning the votes and declaring the results thereof.

In any local option election in which it is sought to prohibit the sale of alcoholic beverages in which a majority of the votes cast favor the issue "For the legal sale of" etc., or in any local option election in which it is sought to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages on one or more of the various types and alcoholic contents or manner of sale not already legal in the political subdivision involved in which a majority of the votes cast favor the issue "Against the legal sale of" etc., then the sale of all alcoholic beverages which were legal in said county, justice's precinct, or incorporated city or town before the holding of such local option election shall continue to be legal.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, or any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, a licensed distributor of beer whose warehouse or other facilities used in connection with such distributorship are located in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, at the time the sale of beer is prohibited in any such political subdivision by a valid local option election such distributor nevertheless shall have the right to continue to operate as a distributor in such political subdivision, and to maintain the necessary premises and facilities in such political subdivision for such distribution, and to enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to such distributorship previously enjoyed as such distributor in such political subdivision, including but not limited to, the right to possess, store, warehouse and sell beer in such political subdivision, and also to deliver beer into and out of such political subdivision; provided, however, that during the period the sale of beer is prohibited in such political subdivision as a result of such election, sale of beer and delivery of beer by such distributor shall be made only to licensed outlets located outside of such political subdivision where the possession and sale of beer is legal.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing Subsection (a) of this Section, or any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any holder of a Wholesaler's Permit whose warehouse or other facilities used in connection with such wholesale operation are located in any county, justice precinct, or incorporated city or town, at the time when the sale of the type or types of liquor authorized to be sold by such permit holder may be prohibited in any such political subdivision by a valid local option election, such Wholesaler's Permit holder nevertheless shall have the right to continue to operate as a wholesaler in such political subdivision and to maintain the necessary premises and facilities in such political subdivision for such wholesale operation and to enjoy all the rights and privileges incident to such Wholesaler's Permit previously enjoyed as such permit holder in such political subdivision, including but not limited to, the right to possess, store, warehouse and sell liquor in such political subdivision, and also to receive and deliver such liquor into and out of such political subdivision; provided, however, that during the period the sale of liquor is prohibited in such political subdivision as a result of such election, sale of liquor and delivery of such liquor by such Wholesaler's Permit holder shall be made only to permit-holding outlets located outside of such political subdivision where the possession and sale of liquor is legal.

(d) The purpose of subsections (b) and (c), above, is to protect the financial investment of distributors and wholesalers in such political subdivision that have voted to prohibit the sale of previously legalized type or types of alcoholic beverages in such political subdivision and not to authorize such distributors or wholesalers to sell any alcoholic beverage or beverages to be possessed or consumed in such political subdivision where the sale of such alcoholic beverage or beverages has been prohibited by such election.

Amended by Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 643, ch. 249, § 6; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1196, ch. 478, § 2, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 31, ch. 13, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 666—57. Brewer's permit

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any person who has theretofore been issued a Manufacturer's License or any renewal thereof under Article II¹ of the Texas Liquor Control Act, and so long as such Manufacturer's License or any renewal thereof remains in force, shall be entitled to the issuance, for the same location, of a Brewer's Permit, as well as renewals thereof, upon written application to the Board and payment of the fee therefor.

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act,² no person who has theretofore been issued a Manufacturer's License or a Brewer's Permit shall subsequently be denied a Manufacturer's License or any renewal of a Manufacturer's License, or a Brewer's Permit or any renewal of a Brewer's Permit, for the same location on the grounds that the sale of beer or ale has been prohibited by local option in the area in which the licensed premises are located and, except for the right to make sales of beer or ale contrary to such local option prohibition, any Manufacturer's License or Brewer's Permit so previously held, or issued or renewed under this provision shall authorize its holder to do all things which such a holder is authorized to do under any provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, as herein or hereafter amended, including but not limited to the manufacture, brewing, possession, storage, packaging, and transportation of beer or ale to areas wherein the sale of beer or ale is legal, and including the delivery at such holder's licensed premises of beer or ale to purchasers domiciled outside Texas, common carriers, contract carriers, or other carriers duly authorized to transport beer or ale, Distributors and/or Class B Wholesalers; and all such purchasers, carriers, Distributors and Class B Wholesalers are hereby authorized to receive at such holder's licensed premises such beer or ale for transportation to an area wherein the sale of beer or ale is legal, after the occurrence, in an area wherein the sale of beer or ale is legal, of the following: prior order, acceptance of such order, and either payment for same or legal satisfaction of payment for same.

Regardless of any other provision of the Texas Liquor Control Act, any holder of a Manufacturer's License or a Brewer's Permit is hereby authorized to manufacture or brew malt beverages and package same in containers for shipment outside of the State of Texas, and the holder of a Manufacturer's License is authorized to import beer, and the holder of a Brewer's Permit is authorized to import ale and malt liquor into Texas, even though the alcoholic content of such products, or the containers in which they are packaged, or the packages themselves, or the labels on the containers or the packages would make such products illegal for sale in Texas, and any such holder shall have the right to export such products to points outside Texas, and to make deliveries at such holder's premises for shipment outside Texas, without being liable for any tax imposed by the State of Texas on beer or ale sold for resale in Texas.

The Board by rule and regulation and the Administrator by directive are hereby empowered to do any and all things necessary to carry out the intent of this Section.

Art. 667—33. Method of collecting tax on ale and malt liquor

(a) The tax levied in Section 21 of Article 1¹ on ale and malt liquor is levied only on its first sale in Texas, or only on its importation into Texas, whichever shall first occur.

(b) On ale or malt liquor imported into this State the duty of paying the tax shall rest primarily upon the Importer, and said tax shall become due and payable on the tenth day of the month following that month in which said ale or malt liquor was imported into this State.

(c) On ale or malt liquor brewed in this State the duty of paying the tax shall rest primarily upon the Brewer, and said tax shall become due and payable on the tenth day of the month following that month on which the first sale of said ale or malt liquor was made in this State.

(d) It is not intended that the tax herein levied in Section 21 of Article I of the Texas Liquor Control Act shall be collected on ale or malt liquor shipped out of this State for consumption outside this State, or sold aboard ships for ship's supplies, and the Board shall provide forms for obtaining exemption from such taxes and shall provide by rule and regulation for equitable and final disposition of any tax credit brought about by such payment of any such unintended or excess tax. The Board may promulgate rules and regulations generally for the enforcement of this provision.

(e) The Board is hereby authorized and empowered to require of all Brewers and Nonresident Brewers, and all Importers, Wholesalers, and Class B Wholesalers of ale and malt liquor such information as to purchases, sales, and shipments as will enable the Board to collect the full amount of tax due the State, and it shall be unlawful for any such Brewer, Nonresident Brewer, Importer, Wholesaler, or Class B Wholesaler of ale or malt liquor to fail or refuse to give the Board such information. The Board shall have the power to seize and withhold from sale any ale or malt liquor the Brewer, Nonresident Brewer, Importer, Wholesaler, or Class B Wholesaler of which refuses to give to the Board any information which the Board may require under this provision, or fails or refuses to permit the Board to make investigation of pertinent records, whether they be located within or without this State.

(f) Any person in possession of ale or malt liquor on which the tax is delinquent shall be held in violation of this Article and liable for the taxes herein provided and for the penalties for such violations.

(g) The Board shall require of Brewers of ale and malt liquor in Texas and of Importers of ale and malt liquor a bond or bonds executed by the Brewer or Importer as principal, and a surety company duly qualified and doing business in this State, as surety, and said bond or bonds shall be made payable to the order of the State of Texas and conditioned as the Board may require and approved by the Attorney General of Texas as to form. Said bond or bonds shall be in such amount as will adequately protect the State against the anticipated tax liability of the principal during any six (6) weeks' period.

(h) Such sworn statements of taxes due as may be required by the Board, and remittance therefor made payable to the State Treasurer, shall be forwarded to the Board each month not later than the due date set out herein. All such remittances shall be turned over by the Board to the State Treasurer, and after the allocation of funds to defray administrative expenses of the Board as provided in the current Departmental Appropriation Act, all remaining funds shall be deposited in the State Treasury as set out in paragraphs (a) and (b) of Section 23½ of Article II of the Texas Liquor Control Act.²

(i) In any suit brought to enforce the collection of any tax due on ale or malt liquor brewed in or imported into Texas, a certificate by the Board or Administrator showing the delinquency shall be prima facie evidence of the levy of the tax, or the delinquency of the amount of tax and penalty set forth therein and of compliance by the Board with all provisions of this Act in relation to the computation and levy of the tax.

(j) The Board by rule and regulation and the Administrator by directive are hereby empowered to do any and all things necessary to carry out the intent of this Section.

(k) This section shall be effective on and after September 1, 1967, and on and after that date the purchase, affixing or mutilation of ale or malt liquor tax stamps shall no longer be required in Texas, and all requirements as to ale and malt liquor tax stamps in the Texas Liquor Control Act, as amended heretofore and herein, are hereby specifically repealed.

CHAPTER THREE—DRUGS, NARCOTICS AND POISONS

Art. 726d. Dangerous drugs

* * * * *

Definitions

Sec. 2. For the purposes of this Act:

(a) The term "dangerous drug" means any drug unsafe for self-medication, except preparations of drugs defined in Subdivisions (a) (6), (a) (7), (a) (9), and (a) (10) hereof, designed for the purpose of feeding or treating animals (other than man) or poultry, and so labeled, and includes the following:

(1) Any barbiturate or other hypnotic drug. "Barbiturate" includes malonylurea derivatives and barbituric acid derivatives. 'Other hypnotic drug' includes chloral, paraldehyde, sulfonmethane derivatives, or any other compounds or mixtures or preparations that may be used for producing hypnotic effects.

(2) Amphetamine, desoxyephedrine, or compounds or mixtures thereof, except preparations for use in the nose and unfit for internal use.

(3) Hallucinogens, including lysergic acid diethylamide, LSD-25, LSD, dimethyltryptamine, psilocybin, bufotenine, peyote, mescaline, and their salts and derivatives, or any compounds, mixtures or preparations which are chemically identical with such substances; provided, however, that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to unharvested peyote growing in its natural state.

(4) Aminopyrine, or compounds or mixtures thereof.

(5) Cantharidin or a compound related structurally to cantharidin; or cinchophen, neocinchophen, or compounds or mixtures thereof.

(6) Diethylstilbestrol, or compounds or mixtures thereof.

(7) Ergot, cotton root, or their contained or derived active compounds or mixtures thereof.

(8) Oils of croton, rue, savin or tansy or their contained or derived compounds or mixtures thereof.

(9) Sulfanilamide or substituted sulfanilamides, or compounds or mixtures thereof, except preparations for topical application only containing not more than five percent (5%) strength.

(10) Thyroid and its contained or derived active compounds or mixtures thereof.

(11) Phenylhydantoin derivatives.

(12) Thallium or any compound thereof.

(13) Any drug which bears the legend: Caution: federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription.

(14) Barbiturates or hypnotic drugs when combined and compounded with non-barbiturates or non-hypnotic drugs.

Provided, however, that preparations which contain certain other drugs not covered by the provisions of this Act, other than those dangerous drugs specified in Section 2(a) (2) through (13) inclusive, in sufficient proportions to confer upon the preparation qualities other than those possessed by the dangerous drugs alone are exempt from the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 2, subsec. (a) amended by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 971, ch. 466, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1965; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1847, ch. 720, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

CHAPTER FOUR—BARBER SHOPS AND BEAUTY PARLORS

Art. 728. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,

(1) "barbering" includes any of the following practices or combinations of practices when performed upon persons above the seventh cervical vertebra for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental illness or deformity, and when performed for the public:

(A) shaving or trimming the beard;

(B) cutting the hair;

(C) any of the following treatments or combinations of treatments which are performed in the same place where (A) or (B) of this Section is practiced;

(i) giving facial or scalp massages;

(ii) singeing, shampooing, dyeing, or tinting the hair;

(iii) applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, creams, clays, lotions, or tonics to the scalp, face, or neck; or

(iv) styling or processing the hair of males only.

None of the above described acts and practices shall constitute "barbering" within the provisions of this Act when performed upon females by persons engaged in the practice of hairdressing and cosmetology and who are licensed by the Texas State Board of Hairdressers and Cosmetologists.

(2) "barber" means a person who;

(A) performs an act of barbering;

(B) professes to do barbering; or

(C) holds himself out to do barbering;

(3) "manager" means a person who controls or directs the business affairs of a barber shop or directs the work of a person employed in a barber shop or both;

(4) "barber shop" means a place where barbering is practiced except when said place is owned or operated in whole or in part by the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof and except when said place is duly licensed as a barber school or college.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2018, ch. 746, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 734a. Texas Barber Law

* * * * *

Barber shop permit; application; inspection; display; transfer; renewal; supervision

Sec. 3. (A) No person may own, operate, or manage a barber shop without a barber shop permit issued by the board.

(B) Any firm, corporation or person who opens a new barber shop shall within three (3) days submit an application in writing to the Board of Barber Examiners for a temporary barber shop permit together with an inspection fee of one ($1.00) dollar. The applicant must place in his application the permanent address of his shop.

(C) The board must issue a barber shop permit to any applicant who holds a valid class A barber license and whose shop meets the minimum health standards for barber shops as promulgated by the State Department of Public Health.

(D) A barber shop permit must be displayed in a conspicuous place in the barber shop for which the permit is issued.

(E) A permit shall not be issued to any barber shop which is not complying with the sanitary rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to Section 28 of this Act, and Title 12, Chapter 4 of the Penal Code, or for any shop employing a barber who is not complying with the Provisions of this Act.

(F) Permits are not transferable to another person. If the ownership of a barber shop is transferred to another person, the shop may continue in operation if the new owner applies for and obtains a new permit not more than 30 days after the transfer of ownership. Provided, however, a permit is transferable from the permittee to any member of his immediate family, who may or may not be a licensed barber, who wants to continue to operate said shop as a family proprietorship.

(G) To continue operating a barber shop, a person must renew the permit issued to his shop by paying a renewal fee of one ($1.00) dollar before November 2 of each year.

(H) The owner or manager of a barber shop which is being operated on the effective date of this Act must obtain a permit before November 2, 1967, to continue operating the shop. The permit is effective until November 1, 1968 and must be renewed annually thereafter as provided in Subsection (G) of this section.

(I) No person may operate a barber shop unless the shop is at all times under the general supervision and management of a registered Class A barber.

(J) A person operating under a permit who wishes to move his operation to another location may do so by notifying the Board of Barber Examiners ten (10) days before he makes the move.

Sec. 3 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2019, ch. 746, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Definitions of barbering

Sec. 4. The practice of barbering is hereby defined to be the following practices when not done in the practice of medicine, surgery, osteopathy, or necessary treatments of healing the body by one authorized by law to do so; and when not done by a relative who cuts only the hair of those in his or her immediate family; and when done on living persons.

(A) Shaving or trimming the beard.

(1) Cutting the hair;

(2) Styling or processing the hair of males only.

(B) By giving any of the following treatments by any person engaged in shaving or trimming the beard and/or cutting the hair.

(1) Giving facial and scalp massages, or applications of oils, creams, lotions, or other preparations, either by hand or electrical appliances;

(2) Singeing, shampooing, or dyeing the hair or applying hair tonics;

(3) Applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp, face, neck or that part of the body above the shoulders.

Provided, however, that nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to include those persons lawfully engaged in beauty culture, hair-dressing or cosmetology under Chapter 116, Acts of the 44th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935, as amended (Article 734b, Vernon's Texas Penal Code), when so engaged in giving treatments or applications to female persons only, but such persons shall not be permitted to shave, trim the beard, style, process, color or cut the hair of male persons except in accordance with the provisions and requirements of this Act relating to barbering.

Assistant under supervision of registered Class A barber

Sec. 5. No registered assistant barber shall independently practice barbering, but he may as an assistant barber do any or all of the acts constituting the practice of barbering under the general supervision of a registered Class A Barber, who is engaged in barbering full time in the same shop. No more than three assistant barbers shall be employed for each registered Class A barber, in any shop.

Sec. 5 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2020, ch. 746, § 4, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

* * * * *

Assistant barbers; barbers' technicians

Sec. 14. (a) Any assistant barber who is at least sixteen and one-half years of age and who is of good moral character and temperate habits and who has a diploma showing graduation from a seventh grade grammar school, or an equivalent education as determined by an examination conducted by the Board, and who has a certificate of registration as an assistant barber in a State or country which has substantially the same requirements for registration as an assistant barber as is provided for by this Act, shall upon payment of the required fee be issued a permit to work as an assistant barber until called by the Board of Examiners for examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration as an assistant barber. Should such person be able to pass the required examination, he will be issued a certificate of registration as a registered assistant barber, and that the time spent in such other State or country as an assistant barber shall be credited upon the period of assistant barber required by this Act as a qualification to take the examination to determine his fitness to receive a certificate of registration as a registered barber.

(b) Any person who has at least 60 days study as a barber's technician including the study of shampooing, shampoos, manipulations, making appointments, preparing patrons, drying hair, and sterilizing tools and at least 60 hours study of sterilization and the barber laws may be licensed to practice as a barber's technician. Any licensed barber's technician may assist the barber in shampooing and sterilizing in a barber shop and shall work under the direction of a registered class-A barber or a men's hair stylist. No barber's technician may cut hair.

* * * * *

Refusal, suspension, or revocation of certificates; grounds

Sec. 21. The board shall either refuse to issue or to renew, or shall suspend or revoke any certificate of registration for any one of, or a combination of the following causes:

- (A) Gross malpractice;
- (B) Continued practice by a person knowingly having an infectious or contagious disease;
- (C) Advertising by means of knowingly making false or deceptive statements;
- (D) Advertising, practicing, or attempting to practice under another's trade name or another's name;
- (E) Habitual drunkenness or habitual addiction to the use of morphine, cocaine, or other habit-forming drugs;
- (F) Immoral or unethical conduct;
- (G) The commission of any of the offenses described in Section 24 of this Act;
- (H) No certificate shall be issued or renewed, unless and until each applicant shall present a health certificate from a regular practicing medical doctor showing that the applicant is free from any kind of infectious or contagious diseases, tuberculosis, communicable diseases, and free from the use of any kind of morphine, cocaine, or other habit-forming drug, or a habitual drunkard and that said applicant shall make affidavit to said medical examiner that all of the said facts are true. Sec. 21 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2020, ch. 746, § 5, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Violation or noncompliance with requirement; hearing; denial, suspension or revocation of certificate; appeal

Sec. 22. (a) If a barber inspector believes that any of the grounds specified in Section 21 exist, or that the holder of a certificate or permit has failed to comply with any of the requirements of this Act, he shall notify the holder of the certificate or permit of that fact and summons him to appear for hearing as provided in this section. The hearing shall be had not less than twenty (20) days after notification in writing to the holder of the certificate or permit, specifying the violation or non-compliance alleged. For the purpose of hearing such cases concurrent jurisdiction is vested in the county court of the county where the holder of the certificate or permit resides and in the county court of the county where the violation allegedly occurred. The court may administer oaths and may issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relative books and papers. The holder of the certificate or permit shall have the right to be represented by counsel. At the hearing, the board shall be represented by the attorney general, district attorney or county attorney. At such a hearing the issue to be determined is whether any grounds exist under Section 21 for denial, refusal to renew, suspension, or revocation of the certificate or permit. The judge who presides at the hearing shall report his finding to the board, which may, if the finding warrants, deny, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the certificate or permit.

(b) If, after the hearing specified in Subsection (a), the board denies, suspends, revokes, or refuses to renew a certificate or permit, then the person holding the certificate or permit may file suit to prevent the action of the Board or to appeal from the order of the Board. Any and all suits filed hereunder shall be filed within twenty (20) days from the date of the order of said Board in a District Court of the county where the person filing such suit or appeal has his residence, or in any of the District Courts of Travis County, Texas. Such suit shall be a trial de novo as that term is used in appeals from Justice Courts to County Courts, and under no circumstances shall the substantial evidence rule, as defined by the Supreme Court of Texas, ever be used or applied in such cases. The burden of proof shall be on the Board to prove a violation.

Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act, codified as article 978j—1, conferring upon the Parks and Wildlife Commission the power and duty of protecting and regulating the harvest of wildlife resources in various counties and repealing various acts of a similar nature, provides, inter alia, in section 18: "All game laws, General or Special, presently in force or enacted during the 60th Legislature, pertaining to the State of Texas or any county or counties therein, shall be in full force and effect until the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall, in accordance with this Act issue a proclamation, rule or regulation dealing with the subject matter of the county affected by such presently existing game law." See article 978j—1, § 18.

Art. 875. Exemptions

English sparrows, crows, ravens, vultures or buzzards, "ricebirds" identified as harmful, blackbirds, roadrunners and the goshawk, the Cooper's hawk or blue darter, the sharp-shinned hawk, jaybird, sapsuckers, woodpeckers, butcher-birds or shrike, the great horned owl and the starling are not included among the birds protected by this Chapter; and providing, further, that nothing in this Section shall prevent the purchase and sale of canaries and parrots, or the keeping of same in cages as domestic pets.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 108, ch. 52, § 1, emerg. eff. Apr. 17, 1967.

Art. 888. Depredation of wild birds and animals

(a) Whenever any of the wild birds or animals protected by the laws of this state are found to be damaging or destroying crops or domestic animals, the person whose property is being injured shall give written notice of the facts to the county judge of the county in which the damage is being done if a depredation permit is desired. The county judge shall notify the Parks and Wildlife Department of the location of the property where the damage is being done, the type of crops or animals being destroyed, and the name of the applicant. The Department shall inspect the property and shall determine whether damage is being done as alleged. If so, the Department shall make such recommendations to the owner of the property as are feasible and appropriate for controlling the damage.

(b) When the county judge receives the notice under Section (a) of this article, he shall immediately cause a substantial copy of the notice to be posted in the county courthouse.

(c) On receiving an application as prescribed in this section, the Department may in its discretion issue permits for killing wild birds and animals without regard to closed season, bag limit, or night shooting. The application must be in writing, must contain a statement of the facts and an agreement to comply with the requirements of this article relating to the disposition of game, and must be sworn to by the applicant. The application must be accompanied by (1) a signed statement of the employee of the Department who made the investigation that damage is being done and that control measures have been recommended; (2) a statement of fact by applicant that he has taken all measures recommended by Department for prevention of damage; and (3) a certification by the county judge that the sworn application is true.

(d) Each permit issued by the Department shall distinctly specify the time period for which it is granted, the area which it covers, the kind of birds or animals to be killed, and the person or persons permitted to kill the noxious birds or animals. The permit shall not authorize the killing of migratory game birds protected by the Federal Migratory Bird Treaty Act unless the applicant has first procured a permit from the United States Fish and Wildlife Service.

(e) If the Department decides to issue the permit, it shall deliver the permit to the county judge, but not until at least 24 hours have elapsed since the Department received the initial notice from the county judge under Section (a) of this article.

(f) If the permit authorizes the killing of deer, then the permittee, as soon as practicable after a deer is killed, shall notify the game warden or other employee of the Department of the area covered by the permit, of the place where the deer carcass is located. The officer notified shall cause the carcass to be disposed of by donating it to a charitable institution or hospital or to needy persons.

(g) The Department may cancel the permit if the permittee violates any term or condition of the permit, or exceeds the authority granted by the permit, or if issuance of the permit does not accomplish the intended purposes.

(h) A permittee who fails to give the notice required by Section (f) of this article, or who disposes of a deer carcass or allows its disposition in any manner except as provided in Section (f) of this article, or who violates any term or condition of the permit, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500.

Taking fish by means other than hook and line; fines

Section 1. It is hereby made unlawful for any person to take or catch fish from the waters of Espiritu Santo Bay, or in those portions of San Antonio Bay South or Southeast of the Intracoastal Waterway, or in Shoalwater Bay, Barroom Bay, Pats Bay, Cory Cove, Big Bayou, Saluria Bayou, Rahal Bayou, Steamboat Pass, Mailboat Channel, Pringle Lake, Contee Lake, South Pass Lake, Long Lake, Big Pocket, Lighthouse Cove, Power Lake, Twin Lakes, Cedar Lake, Swan Lake, Panther Point Lake, Cottonwood Bayou or Shell Reef Bayou, in Calhoun County, Texas, by any other means than hook and line, rod and reel, or trotline, or flounder gig and light, or by the use of cast net or minnow seine used in catching bait not exceeding twenty (20) feet in length. Any person drawing a seine or setting a net for the purpose of taking fish in the waters of Espiritu Santo Bay, or in those portions of San Antonio Bay South or Southeast of the Intracoastal Waterway, or in Shoalwater Bay, Barroom Bay, Pats Bay, Cory Cove, Big Bayou, Saluria Bayou, Rahal Bayou, Steamboat Pass, Mailboat Channel, Pringle Lake, Contee Lake, South Pass Lake, Long Lake, Big Pocket, Lighthouse Cove, Power Lake, Twin Lakes, Cedar Lake, Swan Lake, Panther Point Lake, Cottonwood Bayou, or Shell Reef Bayou, in Calhoun County, Texas, or any person catching or taking fish in such waters by any other means than by hook and line, rod and reel, or trotline, or flounder gig and light, or by the use of cast net or minnow seine not exceeding twenty (20) feet in length shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined in a sum of not less than Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00).
Sec. 1 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1154, ch. 511, § 1, emerg. eff. June 14, 1967.

Arrests; disposition of seized seines and nets

Sec. 2. When any peace officer of this state or any law enforcement officer employed by the Parks and Wildlife Department sees any seine, strike net, gill net, or trammel net, or any device the use of which is prohibited under Section 1 of this Act where the use of such device is prohibited and has reason to believe and does believe that the same is being used or possessed in violation of the provisions of this Act, it shall be his duty to arrest the party using or possessing such device and, without a warrant, shall seize such device as evidence. It shall be the duty of such peace officer or employee to deliver such device to a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which it was seized, where it shall be held as evidence until after the trial. If the defendant is found guilty of possessing or using such device unlawfully, the court shall enter an order directing the immediate destruction of such device by any state game warden or by the sheriff or constable of the county where the case was tried, and the game warden or sheriff or constable of the county shall immediately destroy such device and make a sworn report to the judge of such court, showing how, when, and where said device was destroyed. When such device is found by a peace officer of this state or any law enforcement officer employed by the Parks and Wildlife Department without anyone in possession where its use is prohibited, it shall be seized by such officer without warrant and delivered to the appropriate court in the county in which it was found. Said peace officer or employee shall make affidavit that such device was found in or on the tidal waters of this state at a point where its use was prohibited, which said affidavit shall describe such device and the court shall direct the game warden or sheriff or any constable of the county to post a copy of said affidavit in the courthouse of the county in which said device was seized, and said officer shall make his return to the court showing when and where said notice was posted. Thirty (30) days after such notice is posted, the court, either in term-time or in vacation, shall enter an order directing the immediate destruction of such device by any game warden or the sheriff or any constable in the county, and said officer executing said order, shall, under oath, make his return to said court, showing how, when, and where, such device was destroyed. It shall be the duty of the Parks and Wildlife Department to enforce this Act.

The Parks and Wildlife Department when requested by authorized representatives of units of The University of Texas System and the Texas A&M University System, engaged in teaching and research related to marine science and oceanography, may transfer to such units of The University of Texas System and the Texas A&M University System fish nets, seines, and other marine equipment, which have been confiscated under this Act, to be used in carrying out the teaching and research programs within said institutions.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act, codified as article 978j—1, conferring upon the Parks and Wildlife Commission the power and duty of protecting and regulating the harvest of wildlife resources in various counties and repealing various acts of a similar nature, provides in section 15, inter alia, that Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 624, ch. 230, and any other laws relating to netting for fish in Calhoun or Victoria Counties shall not be altered or affected. See article 978j—1, § 15.

Art. 955a—2. Sale of fish taken from Hubbard Creek Lake

Section 1. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, no person may

(1) sell or barter, or offer to sell or barter, any fish taken from Hubbard Creek Lake in Shackelford and Stephens counties; or

(2) take or catch, attempt to take or catch, or possess or transport any fish from Hubbard Creek Lake for the purpose of barter or sale.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to a person

(1) catching, taking, possessing, transporting, bartering, or selling fish from Hubbard Creek Lake pursuant to a contract with the Parks and Wildlife Department for removal of rough fish under Chapter 422, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as now or later amended (Article 4050c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); or

(2) catching, taking, or possessing not more than 200 minnows on any one day for use as bait in fishing the waters of Hubbard Creek Lake.

Sec. 2. A person who violates any provision of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $200; and the illegal possession or sale of each fish is a separate offense.

Art. 955a—3. Importation, possession, sale or release of harmful tropical fish or fish eggs

Section 1. (a) No person may, without first obtaining written permission from the executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, import into this state, possess, sell, or release any tropical fish or fish eggs which are harmful or potentially harmful to human or animal life, as determined by the Parks and Wildlife Department.

(b) The Parks and Wildlife Department shall

- (1) determine which tropical fish are harmful or potentially harmful;
- (2) publish a list containing the names of the fish; and
- (3) promulgate rules necessary to carry out the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 2. A person who knowingly violates a provision of Section 1(a) of this Act, or a rule of the department promulgated under Section 1(b) (3), is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200.

Art. 978f—3d. State system of scientific areas

Section 1. The Parks and Wildlife Commission, hereafter called the commission, is hereby authorized to promote and establish a state system of scientific areas for the purposes of education, scientific research, and/or preservation of flora or fauna of scientific or educational value.

Sec. 2. To the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, the commission shall have the following powers and authorities:

(a) To determine the acceptance or rejection of state scientific areas proposed for incorporation into a state system of scientific areas;

(b) To make and publish all rules and regulations necessary for the management and protection of such scientific areas;

(c) To cooperate and contract with any agencies, organizations, or individuals for purposes of this Act;

(d) To accept gifts, grants, devise, and bequests of money, securities, or property to be used in accordance with the tenor of such gift, grant, devise, or bequest;

(e) To formulate policies for the selection, acquisition, management, and protection of state scientific areas;

(f) To negotiate for and approve the dedication of state scientific areas as part of the system;

(g) To advocate research, investigations, interpretive programs, and publication and dissemination of information pertaining to state scientific areas and related areas of scientific value.

Sec. 3. All departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the state, including counties, municipalities, public corporations, districts, boards, commissions, universities and colleges are empowered and are urged to acquire, administer, and dedicate as state scientific areas within the system under the policies established by the commission for purposes of this Act. Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed as interfering with the purposes stated in the establishment of or pertaining to any state or local park, preserve, wildlife refuge, or other area or the proper management and development thereof except that any agency administering any area designated as a state scientific area under the system shall be responsible for preserving the natural character of the area in accordance with the policies established by the commission. Designation of an area as a state scientific area within the system or allowance by the commission of an intrusion, easement or taking therein shall not void or replace any protected status under law which the area would have were it not so designated.

Sec. 4. The Parks and Wildlife Commission shall not use any funds available to it for the acquisition of scientific areas unless the funds are specifically appropriated for the purposes of this Act.

tem of scientific areas and authorizing governmental agencies to acquire, develop and manage scientific areas; repealing certain laws to the extent of conflict; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1794, ch. 684.

Art. 978f—5a. Wildlife management areas; expenditure of funds to counties and school districts in lieu of taxes

The Parks and Wildlife Department is hereby authorized and directed to expend funds to counties and school districts for assessments in lieu of property taxes on wildlife management areas purchased from federal funds or grants authorized by Pittman-Robertson Act or Dingell-Johnson Act. It is the intent of this bill to encourage the development of wildlife management areas in the counties of the state; however, it is a matter of equity that the local units of government are entitled to funds assessed in lieu of property taxes for these wildlife management areas. No general revenue funds may be expended in lieu of taxes for wildlife management areas; however, special funds may be expended for this purpose provided reimbursement or matching from the federal government is available at a federal ratio of 2 to 1 or better.

Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act, codified as article 978j—1, conferring upon the Parks and Wildlife Commission the power and duty of protecting and regulating the harvest of wildlife resources in various counties and repealing various acts of a similar nature, provides, inter alia, in section 18: "All game laws, General or Special, presently in force or enacted during the 60th Legislature, pertaining to the State of Texas or any county or counties therein, shall be in full force and effect until the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall, in accordance with this Act issue a proclamation, rule or regulation dealing with the subject matter of the county affected by such presently existing game law." See art. 978j—1, § 18.

For fish and game law applicable only to the named counties, see notes under Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 978j.

Art. 978j—1. Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act

Title; application of act

Section 1. This Act shall be referred to for all purposes as "The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act." This Act shall apply only to Anderson, Andrews, Aransas, Archer, Armstrong, Austin, Bailey, Bandera, Bastrop, Baylor, Bee, Bell, Bexar, Blanco, Borden, Bosque, Bowie, Brazoria, Brazos, Brewster, Briscoe, Brown, Burleson, Burnet, Caldwell, Calhoun, Callahan, Cameron, Carson, Castro, Childress, Clay, Cochran, Coke, Coleman, Collingsworth, Colorado, Comal, Comanche, Cooke, Coryell, Cottle, Crockett, Crosby, Culberson, Dallam, Dallas, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Denton, DeWitt, Dimmit, Donley, Duval, Eastland, Edwards, Ellis, El Paso, Erath, Falls, Fayette, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Fort Bend, Franklin, Freestone, Frio, Gaines, Garza, Gillespie, Glasscock, Goliad, Gonzales, Gray, Grimes, Guadalupe, Hale, Hall, Hamilton, Hansford, Hardeman, Hardin, Harris, Harrison, Hartley, Haskell, Hays, Hemphill, Henderson, Hidalgo, Hill, Hockley, Hood, Houston, Howard, Hudspeth, Hunt, Hutchinson, Irion, Jack, Jackson, Jasper, Jeff Davis, Jefferson, Jim Wells, Johnson, Jones, Karnes, Kerr, Kimble, Kinney, Knox, Lamar, Lamb, Lampasas, Liberty, Limestone, Lipscomb, Live Oak, Llano, Lubbock, Lynn, Madison, Martin, Mason, Matagorda, Maverick, Medina, Menard, Midland, Milam, Mills, Mitchell, Montague, Montgomery, Moore, Motley, McCulloch, McLennan, Navarro, Newton, Nolan, Ochiltree, Oldham, Orange, Palo Pinto, Panola, Parker, Parmer, Pecos, Polk, Potter, Presidio, Randall, Reagan, Real, Red River, Reeves, Roberts, Robertson, Rusk, San Patricio, San Saba, Schleicher, Shackelford, Sherman, Somervell, Starr, Stephens, Sterling, Stonewall, Sutton, Swisher, Tarrant, Taylor, Terrell, Terry, Throckmorton, Titus, Tom Green, Travis, Trinity, Tyler, Uvalde, Val Verde, Victoria, Walker, Waller, Webb, Wharton, Wheeler, Wichita, Wilbarger, Willacy, Williamson, Wilson, Wise, Yoakum, Young and Zavala Counties; and to all of the water area of Lake Towakoni located within Rains, Van Zandt, and Kaufman Counties; and to all of the water area of the Joe B. Hogsett Reservoir known as the Cedar Creek Reservoir, located within Henderson and Kaufman Counties; and to the land and water area of the Somerville Reservoir located in Burleson, Lee and Washington Counties; and to that portion of Lake Texoma in Cooke and Grayson Counties; and to all of the water area of the Sam Rayburn Reservoir in Angelina, Nacogdoches, Sabine and San Augustine Counties.

Prohibition on hunting, taking, killing or possessing game and fish; powers and duties of Parks and Wildlife Commission

Sec. 2. Subject to the limitations provided in Section 3, it shall be unlawful, except as provided in this Act, for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to take or kill any game bird or game animals in these counties of the State of Texas at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill or trap any fur-bearing animal in the counties to which this Act applies, at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish or other aquatic life or marine animals by any means or method in these counties of this state at any time. In order to better conserve an ample supply of the wildlife resources in the counties to which this Act applies to the end that the most reasonable and equitable privileges may be enjoyed by the people of said counties and their posterity in their ownership and in the taking of such resources, it is deemed for the public welfare that this Legislature should provide a law adaptable to changing conditions and emergencies which threaten depletion or waste of the wildlife resources in said counties. The Parks and Wildlife Commission is therefore granted the authority, power and duty to provide by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, periods of time when it shall be lawful to take a portion of the wildlife resources in said counties or in any portion of any of said counties when its investigations and findings of fact disclose that there is an ample supply of such wildlife resources that a portion thereof may be taken which will not threaten depletion or waste of such supply. It shall also, by proclamation, rule or regulation, from time to time, provide the means and the method and the place and the manner in which such wildlife resources may be lawfully taken, provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any person to hunt, take, kill or possess, or attempt to hunt, take or kill any game bird or game animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take, kill, trap or possess, or attempt to take, kill, or trap any fur-bearing animal in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; or to take or attempt to take any fish by any means or method in any county or in any portion of any county at any time; unless the owner of the land or the water, or his duly authorized agent shall give consent thereto.

Sec. 3.

a. "Depletion" as used in this Act shall be construed to mean reduction of a species below immediate recuperative potentials by any deleterious cause or causes.

b. "Waste" as used in this Act shall be construed to mean supply of a species or sex thereof sufficient that a seasonal harvest thereof will aid in the re-establishment of normal numbers of such species.

1349 OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PROPERTY Art. 978j—1

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

c. For the purpose of this Act, the wildlife resources of the State of Texas are defined to be all the game birds and game animals, fur-bearing animals of all kinds, alligators, fish and other aquatic life and marine animals of all kinds; provided, however, that the following limitations apply in the counties herein mentioned:

(1.) In Aransas, Jefferson, Matagorda, and Orange Counties shrimp are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(2.) In Austin and Waller Counties, only deer, quail, and turkeys are included in the term "wildlife resources."

(3.) In Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves, and Terrell Counties fish are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(4.) In Burleson County fish are not included in the term "wildlife resources," except in the Somerville Reservoir.

(5.) In Duval County antlerless deer are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(6.) In Calhoun, Harris and Victoria Counties salt water species of marine life are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(7.) In Goliad and Live Oak Counties, only wild deer, wild turkey, wild quail and alligators, are included in the term "wildlife resources."

(8.) In Jasper, Newton and Tyler Counties, fox are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(9.) In Bowie, Lamb, San Patricio and Victoria Counties, quail are not included in the term "wildlife resources."

(11.) In the Sam Rayburn Reservoir in Angelina, Nacogdoches, Sabine, and San Augustine Counties, only fresh water fish are included in the term "wildlife resources."

d. For the purposes of this Act the following limitations apply within the Counties named in this subsection.

(1.) In Aransas County this Act does not apply to the part of San Antonio Bay lying within the northeast part of Aransas County, nor to the Aransas River where it forms the boundary with Refugio County, nor to Copano Creek where it forms the boundary with Calhoun County.

(2.) In Cameron County this Act applies to the waters of the Laguna Madre and its abutting waters but does not apply to the waters of the Gulf of Mexico.

(3.) In Willacy County this Act does not apply to any of the coastal waters of the county, as the term "coastal waters" is defined in the Texas Shrimp Conservation Act.

Research investigations and studies of reduction or increase in supply of wildlife resources; open seasons

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Parks and Wildlife Department to conduct, from time to time, or continuously, scientific research investigations and studies of the supply, economic value, environment, breeding habits and, so far as possible, the sex ratio of the different species of wildlife resources as well as the factors affecting their increase or decrease, particularly with reference to hunting, trapping, fishing, disease, infestation, predation, agricultural pressure, over-population, and any and all other factors that enter into a reduction or an increase in the supply of such wildlife resources of this state. Pursuant to and based upon such studies, said Commission shall enter its findings of fact with respect thereto, and if, in the opinion of the Commission, an open season or period of time may be safely provided for any of the wildlife resources of said county, said Commission is authorized and directed from time to time to provide an open season or period of time when such wildlife resources may be taken. The proclamation, rule or regulation issued by the Commission shall be specific as to the quantity, species, sex, insofar as possible, age or size that may be taken. Such proclamation, rule or regulation shall provide the method and/or means that may be resorted to as well as the area, county or portion of the county where such wildlife resources may be taken. In order to prevent depletion or waste of the wildlife resources of said State of Texas, the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall have authority from time to time by proclamation, rule or regulation to conserve the wildlife resources of said county by an open season or period of time when it shall be lawful to take a portion of such wildlife resources from said county or portion of said county of the State of Texas.

Preventing depletion; declaring state of emergency

Sec. 5. When said Commission finds from its investigations herein provided for that danger of depletion, as defined in this Act, of any species of fish, game bird, game animal or fur-bearing animal exists in any portion of said counties, it shall be the duty of the said Commission to revoke or modify or otherwise amend its order or orders so as to deter or prevent contribution to depletion of such species by the taking thereof. When said Commission finds that danger of waste, as defined in this Act, of any of such species of fish, game bird, game animal or fur-bearing animal, or sex thereof, exists in all or any portion of said counties the Commission may issue or amend or revoke or modify such of its rules and regulations as will afford to all of the people of this state the most equitable and reasonable privileges in the pursuit, taking or killing of such species or sex thereof in said area. When the Commission finds that danger of depletion exists in any area by virtue of an emergency condition, the Commission may declare a state of emergency as to such species in said area, and its orders, rules and regulations issued under such state of emergency shall take effect and be in full force immediately upon issuance thereof.

Hunting antlerless deer, antelope and elk; proclamation, rule or regulation; agreement of landowner

Sec. 6. The Parks and Wildlife Commission's proclamation, rule or regulation permitting the hunting or taking of antlerless deer, antelope and elk shall not be effective as to any specific tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken until the owner or person in charge of that specific tract of land upon which antlerless deer, antelope or elk are to be taken shall have agreed in writing to the removal by hunting of such antlerless deer, antelope or elk from the tract under supervision and regulation of the Commission; and to the number of antlerless deer, antelope or elk which may be removed therefrom. Antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permits may be issued by the landowner, or by the person in charge of the land, to hunters to take antlerless deer, antelope or elk only upon the particular tract covered by the landowner's agreement. For the purposes of this Section, the Parks and Wildlife Commission may, when conditions warrant, permit the taking of antlerless deer, antelope or elk without the requirement of an antlerless and/or doe deer, antelope or elk hunting permit, but in such cases the Commission's proclamation shall be specific as to the counties or portions of counties in which antlerless deer, antelope or elk may be taken without the special hunting permit. In areas not covered by the above provision, no person shall hunt or kill any antlerless deer, antelope or elk without first having procured an antlerless deer, antelope or elk permit issued by the Parks and Wildlife Department. Such permit shall be issued in such form and under such rules as may be prescribed by the Parks and Wildlife Commission, but no permit shall be issued later than ten (10) days before the opening date of the hunting season.

1351 OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PROPERTY Art. 978j—1
For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Public hearing on proposed rule, regulation or order; notice

Sec. 7. There shall be a public hearing held in the county to be affected by any proposed rule, regulation or order dealing with hunting or fishing as provided for in this Act before such proposed rule, regulation or order is adopted by the Commission. Notice of this public hearing must be given in a newspaper published in such county at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing. If no newspaper is published in the county, notice of such hearing must be given in a newspaper published in an adjoining county, which is widely circulated in the county in which the proposed rule, regulation or order is to be in effect. The hearing may be conducted by a designated employee of the Parks and Wildlife Department, or by any member of the Commission, provided it is not necessary for the Commission or some member of the Commission to be present at the said hearing.

Adoption of orders, proclamations, rules and regulations; quorum

Sec. 8. Orders, proclamations, rules and regulations proposed under the provisions of this Act shall be adopted by a quorum of the Commission at any regular or special Commission meeting or meetings, the date and time to be designated by the Commission and such meeting or meetings for such purpose shall only be held in the Commission's office in Austin, Texas. For the purpose of the provisions of this Act any person interested shall be entitled to be heard at such meetings, and to introduce evidence as to imminence of waste or depletion, as defined in this Act. Two (2) members, or the chairman and one (1) member of said Commission shall constitute a quorum. No order, rule or regulation, general or local, shall be adopted at any regular or special meeting of the Commission unless a quorum is present.

Effective date of orders, rules and regulations; expiration; revocation or modification

Sec. 9. Orders, rules and regulations adopted by the Commission shall become effective at a time fixed by the Commission but not earlier than fifteen (15) days after their adoption, except in the case of emergency as provided in this Act, and shall continue in full force and effect until they shall expire by their own terms, or are revoked, modified or amended by said Commission.

Filing copies of orders, rules and regulations

Sec. 10. Immediately after its adoption, a copy of each order, rule or regulation adopted by said Commission shall be numbered and filed in its office in Austin, Texas; and a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and the office of the county clerk and the county attorney in the county affected by the order, rule or regulation and a mimeographed copy shall be furnished to each employee of the Parks and Wildlife Department.

Construing particular regulatory powers of Commission

Sec. 11. The particular regulatory powers herein granted to said Commission shall not be construed to limit other and general powers conferred upon it by law.

Review of orders; actions to test validity of orders, rules and regulations

Sec. 12. The Parks and Wildlife Commission is hereby expressly given the power and authority to review its own orders and to modify, amend or revise the same as it shall find the facts to warrant. Any action that may be filed to test the validity of any proclamation, order, rule or regulation of the Commission, passed pursuant to and under the provisions of this Act, must be brought in Travis County. Such suit shall be advanced by trial and determined as quickly as possible. In all such trials the burden of proof shall be upon the party complaining of such order, proclamation, rule or regulation to show it is invalid.

Special Provisions

a. The Commission's regulations relating to Lake Towakoni shall be uniform for the entire lake.

b. In Bandera, Coke, Crockett, Edwards, Hays, Kerr, Kimble, Kinney, Lampasas, Medina, Menard, Reagan, Real, Schleicher, Sutton, and Val Verde Counties, orders, rules and regulations adopted in accordance with Section 8 of this Act shall not be effective as provided in Section 9 unless and until they have been approved by the Commissioners Court of each of such counties. The Commissioners Court in each county named in this subsection shall approve or disapprove the Commission's rule, regulation or order or in Lampasas and any order or part of order, at its next regular meeting occurring more than five (5) days after adoption by the Commission. If approved, the rule, regulation or order becomes effective at the time specified in the proclamation by the Commission. If disapproved, for any of the above named counties, no public hearing on a similar proposal for the county may be held for a period of six (6) months unless a majority of said Commissioners Court certifies to the Commission that there has been some material change in the surrounding circumstances which necessitates the holding of a public hearing within the six month period. If the Commissioners Court disapproves the rules, regulations or orders promulgated by the Commission, then the taking of the wildlife resources of the county is regulated by the General Law until such time as the Commissioners Court approves rules, regulations, or orders subsequently promulgated by the Commission.

c. Notwithstanding the powers and duties herein vested in the Parks and Wildlife Commission, there is hereby established in Aransas County a net-free zone in which it shall be unlawful to set or drag any kind of net or seine except a minnow seine not exceeding twenty (20) feet in length for taking bait. Such net-free zone shall be all of Little Bay and the water area of Aransas Bay within one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) mile of the following line: From Hail Point on the Lamar Peninsula, then direct to the eastern end of Goose Island, then along the southern shore of Goose Island, then along the causeway between Lamar Peninsula and Live Oak Peninsula, then along the eastern shoreline of the Live Oak Peninsula past the town of Fulton, past Nine-Mile Point, past the town of Rockport to a point at the east end of Talley Island. Such net-free zone shall additionally include that part of Copano Bay within one thousand (1,000) feet of the causeway between Lamar Peninsula and Live Oak Peninsula. Any person using a net or seine (except a minnow seine not exceeding twenty (20) feet in length for taking bait only) in said net-free zone shall be punished as herein provided for a violation of this Act.

d. No person may place or set a trotline or crab trap in the net-free zone in Aransas County.

e. The Commission shall make reasonable rules to regulate the use of trotlines and crab traps in the waters outside the net-free zone in Aransas County, in order to provide for the safety of persons engaged in fishing, boating, and other water sports. The rules may provide for spacing and marking of trotlines and crab traps and for seizure of abandoned trotlines and crab traps. The rules shall be made and promulgated in the same manner as other rules are made and promulgated under this Act.

f. In Brewster, Culberson, El Paso, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Pecos, Presidio, Reeves, and Terrell Counties any open seasons or harvest limits proclaimed by the Commission for the wildlife resources listed below shall be subject to the following limitations:

(1) Black bear. Any open season shall be within the period November 1st to December 31st, and no person shall be permitted to kill or possess more than one black bear during any one season.

(2) Wild gray or cat and fox squirrels. Any open season shall be within the period of May 1st to December 31st; bag limit not to exceed ten (10) to be taken or killed by any person in one day nor to exceed twenty (20) in possession by any person at any time.

(3) Wild turkeys. Any open season shall be within the period November 1st to December 31st, and no person shall be permitted to kill or possess more than three (3) wild turkeys during any one open season.

(4) Wild mourning doves. Any open season shall be within the period September 1st to January 15th. A bag limit may be provided of not to exceed fifteen (15) mourning doves to be killed in any one day, nor more than thirty (30) to be possessed by any person at one time.

(5) Chachalaca. Any open season shall not be longer than ten (10) days within the period December 1st to December 31st, and no person shall be permitted to kill more than five (5) chachalaca in any one day or to possess more than one days kill at any time.

(6) Rails and gallinules. Any open season shall be within the period September 1st to October 31st, and no person shall be permitted to kill more than fifteen (15) rails or more than fifteen (15) gallinules or an aggregate of more than fifteen (15) of both rails and gallinules in any one day or to possess at any time more than two days kill of such birds.

(7) Wild plover. Any open season shall be within the period September 1st to October 31st, and no person shall be permitted to kill more than twelve (12) plover in any one day or to have more than one days kill in his possession at any time.

(8) Prairie chicken. Any open season shall be not longer than ten (10) successive days within the period September 1st to October 31st. No person shall be permitted to kill more than ten (10) prairie chicken during any open season or to have in his possession at any time more than ten (10) prairie chickens.

(9) Fur-bearing animals—beaver, otter, fox, opossum, racoon, mink, polecat or skunk, badger, muskrat, civet cat or ringtail. Any open season to permit trapping or the taking of pelts and sale of same of any of the fur-bearing animals named in this Section of this Act shall be within the period of December 1st and March 1st.

g. In Dimmit, Uvalde and Zavala Counties, the Commission shall endeavor to maintain a deer herd of productive excellence and breeding stock that will assure harvest of buck deer of the size and quality for which this area is noted. And when its investigations and findings of fact disclose that there is danger of losing this type of deer from excessive population or serious depletion of breeding stock or other controllable factors, they shall, by proclamation, rule or regulation, prescribe the length of season and/or determine proper harvest of buck or doe deer and/or prescribe type and size of legal buck deer to be harvested to adjust for this depletion of quality and to maintain and recover this standard of excellence.

h. In Lampasas County the regulatory authority herein granted to the Commission shall extend to and include regulation of the nature and extent of the records to be kept and maintained by every bailee for hire accepting deer for processing and/or for storage; provided that no rule, regulation or order may be promulgated by the Commission in respect of any such processing or storage business, or the conduct thereof, or the records to be kept and maintained in reference to the processing and/or storage of deer by any such person, firm or corporation in Lampasas County, Texas, that is more onerous on any such business, or that may otherwise conflict with any of the provisions hereof that are hereby adopted for application to any and all such matters in Lampasas County, Texas, from and after the opening day of the 1967 deer season. Each such bailee for hire shall enter in his usual and customary books of account, or in a simple journal if no other records are maintained by said bailee, in the ordinary course of his business, the name and address of each bailor and the date of each bailment of such deer, as well as the name and address of the person removing such deer from storage, if same has not been processed by such bailee, and the date of such removal. Such record shall be retained for a period of at least four (4) calendar months after entry thereof. With respect to every deer delivered to such bailee for processing, said bailee shall also, at the time of processing, remove and retain for a period of four (4) calendar months following the bailment all hunting license tags, if any, that are attached to the carcass of the deer at the time same was delivered to such bailee. Authorized representatives of the Commission may, during ordinary business hours and without undue interference with the business of the bailee inspect deer held for storage by any such bailee, as well as all hunting license tags held by such bailee. Upon the request of an authorized representative of the Commission, made within four (4) months after the date of any such bailment, and the delivery of a proper receipt therefor, any such bailee shall deliver to such authorized representative any of the hunting license tags held by the bailee as aforesaid that may be requested by such authorized representative of the Commission, and such bailee shall, without any liability to any person, firm or corporation furnish the name and address of any person delivering a deer to bailee for storage only, and the date thereof, as well as the name and address of the person removing same from storage and the date thereof if and when requested by an authorized representative of the Commission within four (4) months after the date of any such bailment for storage only, all without incurring any liability to any person, firm or corporation by reason of such storage and/or the disclosure of such information as authorized above. All such records and hunting license tags remaining in the hands of the bailee after expiration of four (4) calendar months following the date of the bailment may be destroyed by such bailee.

i. Except as provided in this Section, in Panola County it is lawful during the open season to use dogs for the purpose of hunting and trailing buck deer as defined by General Law. The Commission may prohibit or regulate hunting deer with dogs on any tract of 10,000 or more contiguous acres of land in Panola County which is owned by one or more persons and which is designated as a preserve for restocking deer under the federal and state laws and the rules, regulations, and proclamations of the Parks and Wildlife Commission and the United States Department of Interior.

j. In Foard County a seine or net of any kind or length may be used for taking minnows for bait purposes only.

k. In Hardeman County the quail open season shall be from December 1 through January 31, both dates inclusive.

Violations; penalties

Sec. 14. Any person who shall violate any provision of this Act, or any person who shall violate any proclamation, order, rule or regulation issued by the Parks and Wildlife Commission under the provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction therefor shall be fined a sum not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Each game bird, game animal, fur-bearing animal, or fish taken or possessed in violation of this Act or of any proclamation, order, rule or regulation issued by said Parks and Wildlife Commission shall constitute a separate offense.

Violations concerning hunting by use of artificial lights; penalties

Sec. 14A. Any person who violates any proclamation, order, rule, or regulation of the Commission concerning hunting by the use of artificial lights in Hardin, Jasper, Newton, Orange or Tyler Counties is guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than Fifty Dollars ($50) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than 3 days nor more than 90 days, or by both.

Repealer

Sec. 15.¹ It being the intent of the Legislature in this Act to "codify" all previous Acts of the Legislature of a similar nature into a single Act and thereby reduce the bulk of such legislation and to produce a greater degree of uniformity, the following Acts are hereby specifically repealed: Chapter 23, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Second Called Session, 1931, codified as Article 4026a, Vernon's Civil Statutes and Article 978i Vernon's Penal Code; Chapter 25, Special Laws, Acts of the 44th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935; Chapters 209 and 213, Acts of the 48th Legislature, Regular Session, 1943; Chapter 25, Acts of the 49th Legislature, Regular Session, 1945; Chapter 36, Acts of the First Called Session of the 51st Legislature, 1950; Chapter 125, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951; Chapters 11, 96, and 499, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955; Chapters 50, 115 and 181, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957; Chapter 40, Acts of the 55th Legislature, First Called Session, 1957; Chapter 19, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Second Called Session, 1957; Chapters 12, 109, 121, 125, 246, 276, and 278, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959; Chapters 9 and 20, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Third Called Session, 1959; Chapters 40, 47, 59, 86, 99, 106, 176, 241, 245, 250, 340, 354, 360, 492, 510, 521 and 534, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961; Chapters 7, 44, 48, and 55, Acts of the 57th Legislature, First Called Session, 1961; Chapter 76, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Third Called Session, 1962; Chapters 18, 141, 252, 271, 287, 376, 408, and 421, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, except that Sec. 15 of Chapter 252 protecting alligators in Refugio County is not repealed; and Chapters 156, 166, 169, 228, 244, 374, 393, 395, 411, 421, 422, 424, 499, 508, 566, 574, 590, and 636, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, except that Section 4 of Chapter 228 regulating sale of fish from Lake Towakoni is not repealed; provided further that: (a) Sections 15A, and 14(a), 16 and 20 of Chapter 508 relating to shrimping and penalty in Matagorda County shall not be repealed but shall remain in full force and effect; and, (b) that Chapter 428, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, shall not be affected or repealed; and, (c) in Borden County the provisions of Chapter 265, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, shall not be repealed; (d) in Calhoun and Victoria Counties Chapter 321, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955; Chapter 197, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957; Chapter 447, Acts of the 57th Legislature, Regular Session, 1961; and Chapter 230, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, and any other laws relating to netting for fish in Calhoun or Victoria Counties shall not be altered or affected; and (e) in Cameron County Chapter 80, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955 and Chapter 187, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 commonly known as the Texas Shrimp Conservation Act insofar as it relates to any shrimping activities in outside waters of the Gulf of Mexico, shall not be repealed, altered or affected; and (f) in Colorado County the provisions of Article 888, Penal Code of Texas, 1925, shall not be affected; and (g) in Webb County Articles 901, 902, and 924a of the Penal Code of the State of Texas shall not be affected; and (h) in Bowie County the provisions of Chapter 336, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, as amended, shall not be repealed; and (i) in Falls and Limestone Counties the provisions of Chapter 70, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, shall not be repealed; and, (j) in Hardin, Jasper, Newton, Orange, Polk and Tyler Counties the provisions of Chapter 510, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, are not repealed; and (k) in Harrison and Rusk Counties the provisions of Chapter 493, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1951, as amended, are not repealed; and (l) in Hidalgo County the provisions of Chapter 327, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended, are not repealed; and (m) in Liberty County, the provisions of Chapter 574, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, are not repealed; and (n) in Limestone County the provisions of Chapter 429, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, are not repealed; and (o) in Jefferson and Orange Counties the provisions of Chapter 339, Acts of the 58th Legislature, Regular Session, 1963, are not repealed; and (p) in Rusk County the provisions of Chapter 415, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965, shall not be repealed. Sections 1 and 3 of House Bill 50, Sections 1, 2 and 4 of House Bill 289, all of House Bill 429, Sections 2 and 3 of House Bill 944, all of House Bills 1261, 1274 and 1335, which bills of the present session would affect counties concerned in this Act are hereby specifically saved from repeal. However it is the intent of the Legislature to incorporate within this Act applicable provisions of the following bills of the 60th Legislature: House Bills 4, 50, 277, 289, 432, 500, 519, 522, 529, 560, 583, 590, 597, 645, 679, 725, 817, 912, 918, 944, 962, 964, 983, 1001, 1053, 1311, 1327, and Senate Bill 595². Any and all laws, General and Special, and not specifically saved from repeal in this Section, but in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict only. In the event any county now regulated by this Act is hereafter removed by any Act of the Legislature, the general game laws of this state in effect at the time of such removal shall apply to such county.

² See articles 978j notes, 978i—2 note and 978n—1 note.

Severability

Sec. 16. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent to enact each separate provision of this Act independent of all other provisions, and the fact that any Section, word, clause, sentence, or part of this Act may be declared unconstitutional shall in no event affect any other Section, word, clause, sentence, or part thereof. It is further declared to be the intention of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, Section, clause, or part of this Act irrespective of the fact that any other Section, sentence, clause or part thereof may be declared invalid.

Effective date

Sec. 17. This Act shall become effective on the 1st day of September 1967.

Promulgation of orders, rules and regulations; existing laws and proclamations

Sec. 18. The Parks and Wildlife Commission may thereafter within a reasonable period promulgate its proclamations, rules, regulations and orders for the purpose and under the provisions of this Act. Until such rules, regulations, orders and proclamations of the Parks and Wildlife Commission are adopted in accordance with the provisions of this Act, all General and Special Laws and existing proclamations relating to the taking of any of the wildlife resources within this state or county shall remain in full force and effect. All game laws, General and Special, presently in force or enacted during the 60th Legislature, pertaining to the State of Texas or any county or counties therein, shall be in full force and effect until the Parks and Wildlife Commission shall, in accordance with this Act issue a proclamation, rule or regulation dealing with the subject matter of the county affected by such presently existing game law. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, emerg. eff. Sept. 1, 1967.

Title of Act:

An Act to be referred to for all purposes as "The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act" conferring on the Parks and Wildlife Commission of Texas the authority, power and duty of protecting and regulating the harvest of wildlife resources in various counties; defining such resources; prescribing certain limitations; prescribing the manner of adoption and publication of regulations; providing a penalty for violation; providing for repeal of certain Acts; declaring provisions to be severable and providing a savings clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730.

Art. 978l—2. Repealed. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1799, ch. 688, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1967, ch. 730, § 15. Eff. Sept. 1, 1967

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, The Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act, codified as article 978j—1, conferring upon the Parks and Wildlife Commission the power and duty of protecting and regulating the harvest of wildlife resources in various counties and repealing various acts of a similar nature, provides in section 15, inter alia, that it is the intent of the legislature to incorporate within the Uniform Wildlife Regulatory Act applicable provisions of Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1799, ch. 688 (House Bill No. 522). See art. 978j—1, § 15.

Amendment

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1799, ch. 688, § 1 (H.B.No. 522) amended section 4 of article 978l—2, as last amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 24, ch. 18, § 1, to read as follows: "Section 4. The Parks and Wildlife Commission shall have full power and discretion to regulate the taking of wild deer, collared peccary, wild quail, and white-winged doves under sound wildlife management practices. The Commission is authorized to adopt any and all reasonable rules, regulations, or orders which it finds necessary and proper to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this Act, including the authority to determine the period of time in which it shall be lawful to take or kill any wild deer, collared peccary, wild quail, and white-winged doves, to determine the number and sex of a species to be taken by any one person, and to determine the means and methods that shall be lawful for the taking or killing of wild deer, collared peccary, wild quail, and white-winged doves. It is provided, however, that the Commission's proclamation, rule, or regulation permitting the hunting or taking of antlerless deer shall not be valid unless the owner or person in charge of the land upon which antlerless deer are to be taken shall have agreed in writing to the removal by hunting of such antlerless deer from his tract under supervision and regulation of the Commission, and to the number of antlerless deer which may be removed therefrom."

Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 196, ch. 109, which repealed sections 16 and 17 of article 978l—2 and which amended section 19 thereof, was also repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, § 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1967.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 24, ch. 18, which amended section 4 of article 978l—2, was also repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1959, ch. 730, § 15, eff. Sept. 1, 1967.

* * * * *

Section E. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep for the purpose of sale, offer or expose for sale, or sell, except for immediate consumption on the premises, any cheese, meat, or meat food products otherwise than by standard net weight. Provided, however, that any cheese, meat, or meat food products, in package form, shall comply with the requirements of Section C of this Article. For the purposes of this Section the following shall be deemed to be meat and meat food products: All fresh, cured, or salt meats, fish, poultry, sausage, chile, head cheese, souse meat, loaf meat, boneless meat, shredded meat, Hamburger meat, or any other manufactured, prepared, or processed meat or meat food products. This Section shall be construed to require that all poultry sold by live weight shall be weighed alive at the time of sale, and that any poultry dressed or killed prior to time of sale, whether cooked or uncooked, shall be sold by net weight at time of sale and not by live weight or by the piece; provided, however, that fresh-cooked poultry may be sold by the piece or by the head.

The word "poultry" as used in this Section shall be construed to include turkeys, chickens, ducks, geese, guineas, squabs, and all other domesticated fowls.

Sec. E amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 569, ch. 257, § 1, emerg. eff. May 23, 1967.

Section J. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall have the power to issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any commodity, thing or item covered by the provisions of this Act, which the Commissioner of Agriculture has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, prohibiting further sale of such commodity, item or thing until the Commissioner of Agriculture has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, however, in respect to the commodity, thing or item which has been denied sale as provided for in this Section, the owner or custodian of such commodity, thing or item shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the commodity, thing or item is found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and the discharge of such commodity, thing or item from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further, that the provisions of this Section shall not be construed as limiting the right of the Commissioner of Agriculture to proceed as authorized by other Sections of this Act.

Sec. J added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1014, ch. 444, § 1, emerg. eff. June 12, 1967.

Section K. The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby authorized to promulgate rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act and for the purpose of bringing about uniformity between the standards required pursuant to the provisions of this Act and those standards required pursuant to rules, regulations or statutes of the Federal Government.

Sec. K added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1015, ch. 444, § 2, emerg. eff. June 12, 1967.

repealed all conflicting laws and parts of laws.

Art. 1057b. License for testers

That it shall be unlawful for any person to operate a milk or cream testing apparatus to determine the percentage of butterfat in milk or cream for the purpose of purchasing same, either for himself or another, or to collect milk from raw milk storage tanks and take samples for the purpose of milk or cream testing, without first securing a license from the State Commissioner of Agriculture. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall issue such license upon a form prepared by him and upon payment of a fee of Ten Dollars ($10) for a period of twelve (12) months for each tester, and One Dollar ($1) for a period of twelve (12) months for each contract milk hauler and said Commissioner or his agents are hereby authorized to make such investigations as he may deem necessary to determine whether the applicant for the position of tester or contract milk hauler is a reliable person and competent and qualified to operate and use such apparatus for either the purpose of making an accurate test, or for taking the sample. If the applicant is not found to be reliable, competent and qualified, the Commissioner of Agriculture may refuse to license him, and said Commissioner is hereby authorized and empowered to revoke the license of any person licensed to make the Babcock Test of milk or cream under the laws of the State of Texas, or to revoke the license of any person licensed to collect raw milk and take raw milk samples, who shall fail to fully comply with the provisions of said laws, or with any of the rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture relating to said Babcock Test. Said money for licenses shall be turned in by the Commissioner of Agriculture to the general revenue fund of the state. The testing of each lot of milk or cream or the collecting of said raw milk and securing sample of raw milk by any unlicensed person shall constitute a separate offense under this Act; provided that any licensed person or his employer may for a valid reason, which must in every instance be reported to the Commissioner of Agriculture, appoint a substitute for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) days, and provided further that such appointment may for a valid reason satisfactory to said Commissioner and subject to his approval, be extended for an additional ten (10) days. Any person violating the requirements of this Article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished as provided in Subsection (b), Article 5736c (Article 1057c, Vernon's Texas Penal Code). Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 766, ch. 320, § 1, emerg. eff. May 27, 1967.

Section 1 of the act of 1967 also amended and is set out as a note under Vernon's Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. arts. 5728 and 5736d; Ann.Civ.St. art. 5728.

Art. 1137l—10. Secondhand metal dealers; records and reports of purchases and sales of copper and brass materials

Definitions

Section 1. As used in this Act,

(1) "copper or brass material" means either hard-drawn or soft-drawn copper wire or cable of the type used by public utilities or common carriers, or copper or brass pipe or fittings, or any combination of these;

(2) "secondhand metal dealer" means junk dealer, auto wrecker, scrap metal processor, or any other person purchasing, gathering, collecting, soliciting or traveling about from place to place procuring scrap metal or junk, or any person operating, carrying on, conducting or maintaining a scrap metal or junk yard or place where scrap metal or junk is gathered together or kept for shipment, sale, or transfer.

Duty to maintain record; exhibition; form and contents

Sec. 2. (a) Every secondhand metal dealer in this state shall keep a written record of all sales to and purchases from any individual or private person of copper or brass material in excess of 50 pounds made in the course of his business. The record shall be exhibited on demand to any peace officer of this state or the United States.

(b) The record shall be in the English language in written form and shall include:

(1) the place and date of each sale to or purchase from an individual or private person of copper or brass material in excess of 50 pounds made in the conduct of his business;

(2) the name and address of each individual or private person from whom copper or brass material in excess of 50 pounds is purchased or obtained, and the license number of any motor vehicle used in transporting such copper or brass material to the secondhand metal dealer's place of business;

(3) a description of the article or articles of copper or brass material sold or purchased and the quantity thereof.

Preservation of records

Sec. 3. Every secondhand metal dealer shall preserve the records required by Section 2 of this Act for a period of at least two years after making the entry of any purchase or sale of copper or brass material in excess of 50 pounds.

Reports; mailing

Sec. 4. Every secondhand metal dealer shall, within seven days after the purchase or other acquisition of any copper or brass material in excess of 50 pounds, mail to or file with the Department of Public Safety a report containing the information required to be recorded in Section 2 of this Act.

Violations; penalties

Sec. 5. A secondhand metal dealer who violates any provision of this Act or who fails to comply with any provision of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by confinement in the county jail for not more than 60 days, or by both.

Exempt purchases and sales

Sec. 6. All purchases made from any person or firm which sells or disposes of copper or brass material as an ordinary and usual part of its business, or from any person or firm which is engaged in business as a secondhand metal dealer, shall be exempt from Section 3 hereof, provided the purchaser obtains a bill of sale from the seller at the time of the purchase.

Sections 7 and 8 of the act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 7. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 8. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict only."

Title of Act:

An Act requiring secondhand metal dealers to maintain certain records and make certain reports with respect to certain purchases and sales of copper and brass materials; prescribing a penalty; exempting certain purchases from the provisions of Section 3 of this Act under certain conditions; providing for severability; repealing laws in conflict; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg. p. 1049, ch. 460.

Art. 1137p. Repealed. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 659, ch. 274, § 5. Eff. Oct. 1, 1967

Article 1137p, derived from Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 409, ch. 199, prohibited debt pooling. See, now, Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 5069—2.01 et seq.

Art. 1137q. Going out of business sales

Section 1. That the term "going out of business sale" shall mean any offer to sell to the public or sale to the public of goods, wares and merchandise on the implied or direct representation by word of mouth or written or oral advertising that such sale is in anticipation of the termination of a business at its present location.

Sec. 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, to fraudulently represent that he is conducting a "going out of business sale."

Sec. 3. To conduct a "going out of business sale," any person, firm, or corporation shall file a sworn itemized inventory with the assessor and collector of taxes of the city or county, which has jurisdiction of his location, together with a filing fee of $2. Said sworn inventory shall include the following:

(1) Name and address of the owner of the goods, wares or merchandise to be sold.

(2) The name and address of the owner of the defunct business, the former stock in trade of which is to be offered for sale, and the full name of such defunct business.

(3) A description of the place where the liquidation sale is to be held.

(4) The commencement and termination date of the liquidation sale.

(5) A complete and detailed inventory of the goods, wares, and merchandise to be offered at the liquidation sale if the owner is conducting said sale in his own name, or such information in the form of a copy of an itemized and descriptive bill of sale from the owner of the defunct business sold to any other person conducting the liquidation sale to be sold at such sale. Upon receipt thereof by the assessor and collector of taxes of the city or county, the applicant should be issued a permit for "going out of business sale" for 120 days. If at the expiration of the 120 days of the original permit the applicant has not terminated his business, he shall file with the assessor and collector of taxes of the city or county an inventory reflecting the remaining merchandise which shall include the information as stated in the original application and the assessor and collector of taxes of the city or county shall upon the receipt thereof and a renewal fee of $2 issue a renewal permit for 120 days; provided, however, that at the expiration of the first permit and any subsequent renewal an amended inventory stating any additional items, not included in the original inventory initially filed, which have been offered for sale shall be filed with the authority which received the initial inventory.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any sale conducted by a public officer as part of his official duties, to any sale, an accounting of which must be made to a court of law, or to any sale conducted pursuant to an order of a court of law. Any sale under a foreclosure pursuant to a deed of trust or other lien shall not be included in this Act.

Sec. 5. Any person violating any provisions of this Act shall, upon conviction, be fined in the sum of not less than $200, and each separate day's violation shall constitute a separate offense.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1003, ch. 434, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Section 6 of the act of 1967 provided:
"If any part of this Act is for any reason declared void, such partial invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act."

Title of Act:

An Act regulating the "Going Out of Business"; providing a penalty for violation; providing for severability; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1003, ch. 434.

TITLE 17—OFFENSES AGAINST PROPERTY

CHAPTER TWO—OTHER WILFUL BURNING

Art. 1321b. Negligent burning of woods, forest, cutover, brush, range or grassland; notice and promise to appear in court

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person negligently to set on fire, or cause to be set on fire any woods, forest, cutover, brush, range, or grassland belonging to another, or to set on fire any woods, forest, cutover, brush, range, or grassland belonging to himself and allowing such fire to spread to the property of another.

Sec. 2. Failure to prevent such fire from spreading to the property of another shall be prima facie evidence of negligence.

Sec. 3. Any person who shall violate any provision of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than Fifteen ($15.00) Dollars nor more than Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars.

Sec. 4. (a) Whenever a person is arrested for any violation of this Act and such person is not immediately taken before a magistrate if he so demands, the arresting officer shall prepare in duplicate, written notice to appear in court, such notice to contain the name and address of such person, the offense charged, and the time and place when and where such person shall appear in court.

(b) The time specified in said notice to appear must be at least ten (10) days after such arrest unless the person arrested shall demand an earlier hearing.

(c) The place specified in said notice to appear must be before a magistrate within the county in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed and who has jurisdiction of such offense.

(d) The arrested person in order to secure his release, must give his written promise to appear in court by signing in duplicate the written notice prepared by the arresting officer; otherwise, he shall be immediately taken before the nearest magistrate as specified in Subsection (c). The original of said notice shall be retained by said officer and the copy thereof delivered to the person arrested. Thereupon, said officer shall forthwith release the person arrested from custody.

(e) Any officer violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of misconduct in office and shall be subject to removal from office.

Section 5. (a) Any person wilfully violating his written promise to appear in court, given as provided in this Act, is guilty of a misdemeanor regardless of the disposition of the charge upon which he was originally arrested.

(b) A written promise to appear in court may be complied with by an appearance by counsel.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 388, ch. 162, § 1, emerg. eff. May 12, 1967.

CHAPTER THREE—MALICIOUS MISCHIEF

Art.
1350a. Defacing or damaging caves or caverns [New].

Art. 1350a. Defacing or damaging caves or caverns

Section 1. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person, without the prior permission of the owner, to willfully or knowingly break, break off, crack, carve upon, write or otherwise mark upon, or in any manner destroy, mutilate, injure, deface, remove, displace, mar or harm any natural material found in any cave or cavern, such as stalactites, stalagmites, helictites, anthodites, gypsum flowers or needles, flowstone, draperies, columns, or other similar crystalline mineral formations or otherwise; to kill, harm or disturb plant or animal life found therein; to otherwise disturb or alter the natural condition of such cave or cavern; or to break, force, tamper with, remove, or otherwise disturb a lock, gate, door, or other structure or obstruction designed to prevent entrance to a cave or cavern, without the permission of the owner thereof, whether or not entrance is gained.

(b) Any violation of this section shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or confinement in jail not exceeding twelve months.

Title of Act:

An Act relating to the defacing or damaging of caves or caverns; providing a penalty; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1111, ch. 491.

CHAPTER FIVE—BURGLARY

Art. 1389. [1303] [838] [704] "Burglary"

The offense of burglary is constituted by entering a house by force, threats or fraud, at night, or in any manner by entering a house at any time, either day or night, and remaining concealed therein, with the intent in either case of committing a felony or the crime of theft.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1141, ch. 505, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

CHAPTER SIX—OFFENSES ON VESSELS, BOATS, STEAMBOATS, MOTOR VEHICLES AND RAILROAD CARS

Art.

1407a. Entry upon boat, vessel, ship or other watercraft without consent of owner [New].

Art. 1407a. Entry upon boat, vessel, ship or other watercraft without consent of owner

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, without the consent of the owner or other person in charge thereof, to enter upon the boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft of another, whether or not such watercraft is documented or required to be numbered or registered by or under the laws of the United States or of the State of Texas or of any other state, nation, country, or political entity whatsoever, while such boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft is on any of the Coastal Waters of the State of Texas, as such term "coastal waters" is defined in Section 3(a), Chapter 340, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963,¹ or on any bay, inlet, pass, lake, river, stream, canal, channel, turning basin, or other body of water whatsoever in the State of Texas, and whether or not such boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft be docked, in passage, or otherwise.

Sec. 2. Any violation of Section 1 of this Act shall constitute a misdemeanor, and for the first conviction of such a violation the punishment shall be by a fine of not more than $200, but for a second or subsequent conviction the punishment shall be by fine of not less than $50 or more than $500, or by confinement in the county jail for not more than three months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 3. Any person found upon the boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft of any kind or character of another under circumstances which reasonably indicate that he entered upon it without the consent of the owner or other person in charge thereof shall be subject to arrest by any city policeman, constable, sheriff, highway patrolman, ranger, game warden, or any other peace officer in the State of Texas, or by the deputy of any of them, without a warrant, and any such peace officer is hereby empowered to make such an arrest.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1811, ch. 694, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Sections 4 and 5 of the act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 4. Any and all other laws of the State of Texas, general and special, in conflict with any of the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed but to the extent of such conflict only.

"Sec. 5. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent to enact each separate provision of this Act independent of all other provisions, and the fact that any section, word, clause, sentence, or part of this Act shall be declared unconstitutional shall in no event affect any other section, word, clause, sentence, or part thereof; and it is hereby declared to be the intent of the Legislature to have passed each sentence, section, part, or clause hereof irrespective of the fact that any other section, sentence, clause, or part thereof may be declared invalid."

Title of Act:

An Act making it unlawful for a person to enter upon a boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft of another without the consent of the owner or other person in charge thereof; providing a penalty; empowering peace officers to arrest without a warrant a person found on a boat, vessel, ship, or other watercraft of another under circumstances which reasonably indicate that he entered upon it without the consent of the owner or other person in charge thereof; and declaring an emergency. CHAPTER EIGHT—THEFT IN GENERAL

Art.

1436g. Theft and illegal transportation of copper wire or copper cable [New].

Art. 1436—1. Motor vehicles; Certificate of Title Act

* * * * *

Vehicles brought into state; examination; sale of vehicles;
Lien or encumbrances

Sec. 30. (a) Before any motor vehicle which was last registered and titled, or registered in some other state or country may be registered and titled in Texas, the applicant shall furnish to the designated agent a certificate from a duly constituted peace officer in the form prescribed by the Department, certifying that such officer has made a physical examination of the motor number and serial number, or the permanent identification number of the motor vehicle. The said peace officer will certify that he has made a physical examination of the motor number and serial number, or permanent identification number, and note the correct numbers on said form. No designated agent shall accept any application for registration and a certificate of title until the provisions of this Section have been complied with; and further, no designated agent shall accept an application for registration and a certificate of title if the said numbers on the peace officer's certification do not agree with the motor number and serial number, or permanent identification number, shown on the evidence of ownership papers presented by the applicant for registration and a certificate of title. The certificate of examination of the said motor and serial numbers, or permanent identification numbers, issued by the duly constituted peace officer shall become a part of the evidence of ownership to accompany the owner's application for a certificate of title and the Department may not issue a certificate of title unless and until these provisions have been complied with.

(b) Before any motor vehicle brought into this State by any person, other than a manufacturer or importer, and which is required to be registered or licensed within this State, can be bargained, sold, transferred, or delivered with intent to pass any interest therein or encumber by any lien, application on form to be prescribed by the Department must be made to the designated agent of the county wherein the transaction is to take place for a certificate of title, and no such designated agent shall issue a receipt until and unless the applicant shall deliver to him such evidence of title as shall satisfy the designated agent that the applicant is the owner of such motor vehicle, and that the same is free of liens except such as may be disclosed on an affidavit in form to be prescribed by the Department.

No designated agent of the department shall be liable for civil damages arising out of his failure to reflect liens or encumbrances on such motor vehicle unless such failure constitutes willful or wanton negligence.

Sec. 30 amended by Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1147, § 432, § 1, eff. June 14, 1955; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2011, ch. 744, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 1436b. Theft and illegal possession of mercury

* * * * *

Sec. 3. Any person who may be found in any county in this state with more than one (1) pound of mercury in his possession and who has not in his possession a bill of sale, or other written evidence of title to said mercury and is unable to produce such evidence without unnecessary delay, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, or shall be confined in the county jail for not less than ninety (90) days nor more than two hundred (200) days, or shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or both such fine and jail imprisonment.

Sec. 3 amended by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1100, ch. 426, § 1, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 595, ch. 269, § 1, emerg. eff. May 23, 1967.

Sec. 3 (a). It shall be prima facie evidence that a person is illegally in possession of mercury in excess of one (1) pound if at such time he does not have in his possession a bill of sale or other written evidence of title to such mercury and is unable to produce such evidence without unnecessary delay.

Sec. 3(a) added by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1100, ch. 426, § 1; eff. Aug. 23, 1963; amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 595, ch. 269, § 1, emerg. eff. May 23, 1967.

Art. 1436g. Theft and illegal transportation of copper wire or copper cable

Section 1. Any person who shall enter upon any premises or public utility right-of-way with intent to steal or carry away without the consent of the owner, or with intent to aid or assist in stealing or so carrying away, any copper wire or copper cable from and off of any appurtenance on such premises or public utility right-of-way by, through, or with the aid of which electricity or communication flows or is transmitted, or which is capable of being used for such purpose, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by a confinement in the penitentiary for not less than one year nor more than five years, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than 200 days, or shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

Sec. 2. Any person who shall illegally transport in this state more than 10 pounds of copper wire or copper cable shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof, shall be confined in the penitentiary for a term of not less than one year nor more than five years, or shall be confined in the county jail for not less than 90 days nor more than 200 days, or shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 3. It shall be a defense to any charge under Section 2 of this Act that (A) the person so charged is (1) a regulated common carrier of persons or property or, (2) a public utility engaged in the business of transmitting or distributing electrical energy or, (3) a public utility in the business of transmitting communications or, (4) an employee, agent or contractor while engaged in any activity connected with the furtherance of the business of any concern or person specified in (1), (2) and (3) above or, (5) is in the business of selling or installing copper wire or copper cable in an unused condition, or (B) that the copper wire or copper cable being transported by the person so charged is appurtenant to or an integral part of a mechanical apparatus.

Sec. 4. This Act shall be cumulative of all laws of the state and any violation hereof may be prosecuted, irrespective of whether or not the acts complained of may constitute some of the essential elements of other or different offenses against the penal laws of this state; and for the purposes of this Act the word "steal" shall mean to take wrongfully and without just claim of authority any copper wire or copper cable and the word "steal" need not be defined in any indictment for the prosecution of any offense hereunder.

Section 5 of the act of 1967 provided: "If any section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word of the Act is held to be unconstitutional, the remaining portions of the same nevertheless shall be valid and the Legislature declares that the Act would have been enacted without such unconstitutional portion."

Title of Act:

An Act making it unlawful and a felony for any person who shall enter upon any premises or public utility right-of-way with intent to steal or carry away without consent of the owner or assist in stealing or so carrying away any copper wire or copper cable; providing that any person illegally transporting more than a certain amount of copper wire or copper cable shall be guilty of a felony; providing penalties for violations of the terms of the Act; providing certain defenses; providing that the Act shall be cumulative; providing a severability clause; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1045, ch. 457.

Art. 1525a. Regulations as to scabies, quarantine, dipping, and penalties

* * * * *

Importations

Sec. 22. From and after the passage of this Act importation of sheep into this State by rail or other mode of movement shall not be made except under the following restrictions:

(a) The importer must apply to and receive from the Texas Animal Health Commission permission to import any sheep into the State.

(b) Such importations shall be accompanied by a certificate of a regularly and duly authorized sheep scabies inspector of the State of origin or a duly appointed and acting sheep scabies inspector of the Animal Health Division, United States Department of Agriculture, certifying that said sheep are free from scabies infection and exposure there- to, or that said sheep have been dipped in a dipping fluid recognized by the Animal Health Division, United States Department of Agriculture, for eradication of sheep scabies and in a manner calculated to have eradicated infection or exposure as the case may be within ten days next preceding the date of such importation, provided, however, that sheep dipped for infection at point of origin shall be held under quarantine at point of destination for a period of one hundred and eighty days. By "point of destination" as used herein is meant the range upon which the said sheep are placed in this State.

(c) The Commission shall have the authority to promulgate regula- tions designating areas as being infected or free and shall set the dipping requirements for importation of sheep into the State of Texas.

(d) The importer of show sheep shall be given a reasonable length of time to display his sheep at County Fairs or Livestock Exhibits, but in no instance shall this time be extended for a longer perior than sixty days from date of importation and all such sheep shall be kept separate from all other than show sheep, and shall be dipped at least once before being distributed to the range.

(e) Any person, company or corporation importing any sheep into this State in violation of this section of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined any sum not less than $25.00 nor more than $100.00 for each head of sheep so unlaw- fully imported, and the venue of such prosecution shall be in any County through or into which such importation is carried. Provided that each County into or through which said sheep are moved shall constitute a separate offense.

Carriers; imported sheep; permit

Sec. 23. No common carrier by rail in this State shall receive from any shipper or connecting carrier for importation into this State any ship- ment of sheep unless the bill of lading covering said shipment is accom- panied by a written permit from the Texas Animal Health Commission permitting such sheep to be imported into this State.

repealed conflicting laws.

Title of Act:

An Act fixing the penalty for transporting by motor vehicle for compensation or hire without first having obtained a certificate or permit from the Texas Railroad Commission when said certificate or permit from the Texas Railroad Commission is required by statute, or for aiding or abetting such operation; repealing laws in conflict to the extent of such conflict; and declaring an emergency. Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 168, ch. 88.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN A—WATER SAFETY ACT [NEW]

Art. 1722a. Texas Water Safety Act

Declaration of policy

Section 1. This Act shall be referred to as the "Water Safety Act." It is the policy of this state to promote safety for persons and property in and connected with the use, operation, and equipment of vessels and to promote uniformity of laws relating thereto.

Sec. 1 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1564, ch. 628, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Definitions

Section 2. As used in this Act, unless the context clearly requires a different meaning:

(1) "Vessel" means every description of watercraft, other than a seaplane on water, used or capable of being used as transportation on water.

(2) "Motorboat" means any vessel propelled by machinery, whether or not such machinery is the principal source of propulsion.

(3) "Owner" means the person who claims lawful possession of a vessel by virtue of legal title or equitable interest therein which entitles him to such possession.

(4) "Waters of this state" means any public waters within the territorial limits of this state; provided, however, privately-owned waters shall be excluded from the provisions of this Act.

(5) "Person" means an individual, partnership, firm, corporation, association, or other entity.

(6) "Operate" means to navigate or otherwise use a motorboat or a vessel.

(7) "Department" means the State Highway Department.

(8) "Dealer" means a person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling motorboats.

(9) "Boat Livery" means a business establishment engaged in renting or hiring out motorboats for profit.

(10) "Undocumented motorboat" means any vessel which is not required to have, and does not have, a valid marine document issued by the Bureau of Customs of the United States government, or federal agency successor thereto.

(11) The certificate of number or facsimile thereof required by this Act shall be carried on board the vessel at all times.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN—FALSE ALARMS AND REPORTS [NEW]

Art. 1724. False alarms or reports which cause emergency vehicles to respond

Section 1. Any person who knowingly and maliciously in writing or orally, or by the use of any telephone, telegraph, radio, or mechanical device or contrivance whatsoever, either directly or indirectly shall make, give, send, report, or communicate any false alarm, or falsely report any act or fact situation which causes an Authorized Emergency Vehicle as defined in Article 6701d of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes to respond to said report or alarm shall be guilty of a felony and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or imprisoned in the state penitentiary for a period of not more than five (5) years or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 2. On a trial of this offense, evidence shall be admitted that in responding to a false alarm or false report on a purported emergency call, any Authorized Emergency Vehicle, as defined in and operated under the provisions of Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, Article 6701d, Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways, suffered or caused, while so operated, damage to any property or injury to any person, including its occupants.

Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 342, ch. 156, eff. May 6, 1957, amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1798, ch. 687, § 1, emerg. eff. June 17, 1967.

Section 2 of the act of 1967 provided: "If any part or parts of this Act shall be held to be unconstitutional, such unconstitutionality shall not affect the validity of the remaining parts of this Act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remaining parts of this Act if it had known that such part or parts thereof would be declared unconstitutional."

PART I
CODE OF CRIMINAL PROCEDURE OF 1965

INTRODUCTORY

CHAPTER ONE—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Art. 1.14 [11] [22] [23] Waiver of rights

The defendant in a criminal prosecution for any offense may waive any rights secured him by law except the right of trial by jury in a capital felony case in which the state has made known in open court in writing at least 15 days prior to trial that it will seek the death penalty. No case in which the state seeks the death penalty shall be tried until 15 days after such notice is given. When the state makes known to the court in writing in open court that it will not seek the death penalty in a capital case, the defendant may enter a plea of guilty, nolo contendere, or not guilty before the court and waive trial by jury as provided in Article 1.13, and in such case under no circumstances may the death penalty be imposed.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1733, ch. 659, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1752, ch. 659 amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the 1967 act provided:

"Sec. 41. Saving Clause. Any confession admissible at the time it was made shall be admissible at any trial subsequent to the effective date of this Act. The provisions of this Act shall not affect the admissibility of confessions made prior to the effective date of the Act.

"Sec. 42. Severability Clause. If any provision, section or clause of this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications hereof which can be given effect without the invalid provision, section or clause, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1.15 [12] [21] [22] Jury in felony

No person can be convicted of a felony except upon the verdict of a jury duly rendered and recorded, unless in felony cases less than capital, or in capital cases where the state has waived the death penalty the defendant, upon entering a plea, has in open court in person waived his right of trial by jury in writing; provided, however, that it shall be necessary for the state to introduce evidence into the record showing the guilt of the defendant and said evidence shall be accepted by the court as the basis for its judgment and in no event shall a person charged be convicted upon his plea without sufficient evidence to support the same. The evidence may be stipulated if the defendant, in such case consents in writing, in open court, to waive the appearance, confrontation, and cross-examination of witnesses, and further consents to the introduction of testimony by affidavits, written statements of witnesses, and any other documentary evidence in support of the judgment of the court. Such waiver and consent must be approved by the court in writing, and be filed, with all of such evidence, in the file of the papers of the cause.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1733, ch. 659, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

CHAPTER TWO—GENERAL DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Art. 2.24 Identification of witnesses [New].

Art. 2.03 [27] [33] [34] Neglect of duty

* * * * *

(b) It is the duty of the trial court, the attorney representing the accused, the attorney representing the state and all peace officers to so conduct themselves as to insure a fair trial for both the state and the defendant, not impair the presumption of innocence, and at the same time afford the public the benefits of a free press.

Subsec. (b) amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1733, ch. 659, § 3, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

Art. 2.07 [31] [38] [39] Attorney pro tem

(a) Whenever any district or county attorney is disqualified in any case the judge of the court in which it is pending may appoint any district attorney or county attorney or other competent attorney to perform the duties of the prosecuting attorney in such case. If such appointed attorney is another district or county attorney no oath or other act of qualification shall be required of him, but the prosecution of such case shall be deemed as additional to his normal duties. If the appointed attorney is not a district or county attorney, he will be required only to file an oath of office for that particular case with the clerk of the court.

(b) Any attorney so appointed (other than a district attorney or county attorney) shall be paid the same amount and in the same manner as an attorney appointed to represent an indigent person.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60 Leg., p. 1733, ch. 659, § 4, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

Art. 2.12 [36] [43] [44] Who are peace officers

The following are peace officers: The sheriff and his deputies, constables and deputy constables, marshal or police officers of an incorporated city, town or village, rangers and officers commissioned by the Public Safety Commission and the Director of the Department of Public Safety, investigators of the district attorneys', criminal district attorneys' and county attorneys' offices, each member of an arson investigating unit of a city, county or the state, law enforcement agents of the Texas Liquor Control Board, and any private person specially appointed to execute criminal process.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1734, ch. 659, § 5, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

Art. 2.24 Identification of witnesses

Whenever a peace officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a crime has been committed, he may stop any person whom he reasonably believes was present and may demand of him his name and address. If such person fails or refuses to identify himself to the satisfaction of the officer, he may take the person forthwith before a magistrate. If the person fails to identify himself to the satisfaction of the magistrate, the latter may require him to furnish bond or may commit him to jail until he so identifies himself.

Added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1734, ch. 659, § 6, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

HABEAS CORPUS

CHAPTER ELEVEN—HABEAS CORPUS

Art. 11.07 [119] [167] [157] Return to certain county; procedure after conviction

After indictment found in any felony case, and before conviction, the writ must be made returnable in the county where the offense has been committed.

After final conviction in any felony case, the writ must be made returnable to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas at Austin, Texas. The writ may issue upon the order of any district judge, and said judge may upon presentation to him of a petition for said writ, set the same down for a hearing as to whether the writ should issue, and ascertain the facts, which facts shall be transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals with the return of the writ if same is issued after such hearing. Provided further, that should such writ be returned to the Court of Criminal Appeals without all the facts deemed necessary by the Court of Criminal Appeals, said court may designate and direct any district judge or judges of this state to ascertain the facts necessary for proper consideration of the issues involved. When a petition for writ of habeas corpus presented to the judge of the convicting court contains sworn allegations of fact, which, if true, would render petitioner's confinement under the felony conviction illegal, the attorney representing the state in said court and the Attorney General of Texas shall be afforded an opportunity to answer such allegations, and if it appears that there are issues of fact which are material on the question of whether the petitioner is illegally restrained which have not been resolved, the petitioner may be granted a hearing on such issues of fact and the judge conducting such hearing shall make and file his findings of fact and conclusions of law. It shall be the duty of the official court reporter of the district judge or judges so designated to forthwith prepare a narration of the facts adduced in evidence upon any such hearing and transmit the same, together with the judge's findings of fact and conclusions of law, to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals within ten days of the date of such hearing. And it shall be the duty of the district clerk of the county wherein the writ is issued to make up a transcript of all pleadings in such case and to transmit the same within thirty days to the clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Provided, that upon good cause shown, the time may be extended by the Court of Criminal Appeals for filing of such narration of facts or transcript.

The Court of Criminal Appeals may deny relief upon the findings and conclusions of the hearing judge without docketing the cause, or may direct that the cause be docketed and heard as though originally presented to said court or as an appeal. Upon reviewing the record the court shall enter its judgment remanding the petitioner to custody or ordering his release, as the law and facts may justify. The mandate of the court shall issue to the court issuing the writ, as in other criminal cases. After conviction the procedure outlined in this Act shall be exclusive and any other proceeding shall be void and of no force and effect in discharging the prisoner.

Upon any hearing by a district judge by virtue of this Act, the attorney for petitioner, and the state, shall be given at least three full day's notice before such hearing is held.

Art. 15.17 Duties of arresting officer and magistrate

In each case enumerated in this Code, the person making the arrest shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested or have him taken before some magistrate of the county where the accused was arrested. The magistrate shall inform in clear language the person arrested of the accusation against him and of any affidavit filed therewith, of his right to retain counsel, of his right to remain silent, of his right to have an attorney present during any interview with peace officers or attorneys representing the state, of his right to terminate the interview at any time, of his right to request the appointment of counsel if he is indigent and cannot afford counsel, and of his right to have an examining trial. He shall also inform the person arrested that he is not required to make a statement and that any statement made by him may be used against him. The magistrate shall allow the person arrested reasonable time and opportunity to consult counsel and shall admit the person arrested to bail if allowed by law.

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN—BAIL

Art. 17.11 [277] [325] [313] How bail bond is taken

Section 1. Every court, judge, magistrate or other officer taking a bail bond shall require evidence of the sufficiency of the security offered; but in every case, one surety shall be sufficient, if it be made to appear that such surety is worth at least double the amount of the sum for which he is bound, exclusive of all property exempted by law from execution, and of debts or other encumbrances; and that he is a resident of this state, and has property therein liable to execution worth the sum for which he is bound.

Sec. 2. Provided, however, any person who has signed as a surety on a bail bond and is in default thereon shall thereafter be disqualified to sign as a surety so long as he is in default on said bond. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the court wherein such surety is in default on a bail bond, to notify in writing the sheriff, chief of police, or other peace officer, of such default. A surety shall be deemed in default from the time the trial court enters its final judgment on the scire facias until such judgment is satisfied or set aside.

SEARCH WARRANTS

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN—SEARCH WARRANTS

Art. 18.30 [332a] Disposition of abandoned or unclaimed property

(a) All unclaimed or abandoned personal property of every kind, except whiskey, wine and beer, seized by any state or county peace officer in the State of Texas which is not held as evidence to be used in any pending case and has not been ordered destroyed or returned to the person entitled to possession of the same by a magistrate, which shall remain unclaimed for a period of 30 days shall be delivered for sale to the purchasing agent of the county in which the property was seized. If the county has no purchasing agent then such property shall be sold by the sheriff of the county.

(b) The purchasing agent or sheriff of the county, as the case may be, shall mail a notice to the last known address of the owner of such property by certified mail. Such notice shall describe the property being held, give the name and address of the officer holding such property, and shall state that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the notice such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of the sale, placed in the county treasury.

(c) If the owner of such property is unknown or if the address of the owner is unknown, then the purchasing agent or the sheriff, as the case may be, shall cause to be published once in a paper of general circulation in the county a notice containing a description of the property held, the name of the owner if known, the name and address of the officer holding such property, and a statement that if the owner does not claim such property within six months from the date of the publication such property will be sold and the proceeds of such sale after deducting the reasonable expense of keeping such property and the costs of sale, placed in the county treasury.

(d) The sale of any property hereunder shall be preceded by a notice published once at least three weeks prior to the date of such sale in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the sale is to take place, stating the description of the property, the names of the owners if known and the date and place that such sale will occur. If the purchasing agent or sheriff, as the case may be, shall consider any bid as insufficient he need not sell such property but may decline such bid and reoffer such property for sale.

(e) The real owner of any property sold shall have the right to file a claim to the proceeds of such sale with the commissioners court of the county in which the sale took place. If the claim is allowed by the commissioners court, the county treasurer shall pay the owner such funds as were paid into the treasury of the county as proceeds of the sale. If the claim is denied by the commissioners court or if said court fails to act upon such claim within 90 days, the claimant may sue the county treasurer in a court of competent jurisdiction in the county, and upon sufficient proof of ownership, recover judgment against such county for the recovery of the proceeds of the sale.

AFTER COMMITMENT OR BAIL AND BEFORE THE TRIAL

CHAPTER NINETEEN—ORGANIZATION OF THE GRAND JURY

Art. 19.06 [338] [389] [377] Shall select grand jurors

The jury commissioners shall select not less than 15 nor more than 20 persons from the citizens of different portions of the county to be summoned as grand jurors for the next term of court, or the term of court for which said commissioners were selected to serve, as directed in the order of the court selecting the commissioners.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1158, ch. 515, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE—INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION

Art. 21.08 [402] [457] [445] Allegation of ownership

Where one person owns the property, and another person has the possession of the same, the ownership thereof may be alleged to be in either. Where property is owned in common, or jointly, by two or more persons, the ownership may be alleged to be in all or either of them. When the property belongs to the estate of a deceased person, the ownership may be alleged to be in the executor, administrator or heirs of such deceased person, or in any one of such heirs. Where the ownership of the property is unknown to the grand jury, it shall be sufficient to allege that fact.

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO—FORFEITURE OF BAIL

Art.
22.01a Failure to appear; violation of bail bond [New].

Art. 22.01a Failure to appear; violation of bail bond

1. Whoever, having been admitted to bail for appearance before any court of record of this state, incurs a forfeiture of the bail and knowingly and willfully fails to surrender himself within 30 days following the date of such forfeiture, shall, if the bail was given in connection with a charge of felony or pending appeal after conviction of any offense, be fined not more than $2,000.00 or imprisoned in the penitentiary not more than two years, or both; or, if the bail was given in connection with a charge of committing a misdemeanor, or for appearance as a witness, be fined not more than $500.00 or imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or both.

2. Nothing in this Article shall interfere with or prevent the exercise by any court of its power to punish for contempt.

Added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 804, ch. 339, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Sections 2 and 3 of the act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 2. All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

"Sec. 3. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 26.05—1 Contribution from state in certain counties

Section 1. A county in which a state training school for delinquent children is located shall pay from its general fund the first $250 of fees awarded for court-appointed counsel under Article 26.05 toward defending a child committed to the school from another county who is being prosecuted for a felony or misdemeanor in the county where the training school is located.

Sec. 2. If the fees awarded for counsel compensation are in excess of $250, the court shall certify the amount in excess of $250 to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas. The Comptroller shall issue a warrant to the court-appointed counsel in the amount certified to the comptroller by the court.

Added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 733, ch. 307, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN—THE PLEADING IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS

Art. 27.02 [505] [569] [558] Defendant's pleadings

On the part of the defendant, the following are the only pleadings:

1. The motion to set aside the indictment or information;
2. A special plea setting forth one or more facts as cause why the defendant ought not to be tried upon the accusation presented against him;
3. An exception to the indictment or information for some matter of form or substance;
4. A plea of guilty;
5. A plea of not guilty;
6. A plea of nolo contendere. The legal effect of such plea shall be the same as that of a plea of guilty, but the plea may not be used against the defendant as an admission in any civil suit based upon or growing out of the act upon which the criminal prosecution is based;
7. Defendant's application for probation, if any; and
8. Defendant's election, if any, to have the jury assess the punishment if he is found guilty.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1738, ch. 659, § 17, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

Art. 27.14 [518] [582] [571] Plea of guilty or nolo contendere in misdemeanor

A plea of "guilty" or a plea of "nolo contendere" in a misdemeanor case may be made either by the defendant or his counsel in open court; in such case, the defendant or his counsel may waive a jury, and the punishment may be assessed by the court either upon or without evidence, at the discretion of the court. In a misdemeanor case arising out of a moving traffic violation for which the maximum possible punishment is by fine only, payment of a fine, or an amount accepted by the court constitutes a finding of guilty in open court, as though a plea of nolo contendere had been entered by the defendant.

Art. 28.01 [522] [587] [576] Pre-trial

* * * * *

Sec. 3. The notice mentioned in Section 2 above shall be sufficient if given in any one of the following ways:

(1) By announcement made by the court in open court in the presence of the defendant or his attorney of record;

(2) By personal service upon the defendant or his attorney of record;

(3) By mail to either the defendant or his attorney of record deposited by the clerk in the mail at least six days prior to the date set for hearing. If the defendant has no attorney of record such notice shall be addressed to defendant at the address shown on his bond, if the bond shows such an address, and if not, it may be addressed to one of the sureties on his bond. If the envelope containing the notice is properly addressed, stamped and mailed, the state will not be required to show that it was received.

CHAPTER THIRTY-SEVEN—THE VERDICT

Art. 37.07 [693] [770] [750] Verdict must be general; separate hearing on proper punishment

1. The verdict in every criminal action must be general. When there are special pleas on which a jury is to find they must say in their verdict that the allegations in such pleas are true or untrue. If the plea is not guilty, they must find that the defendant is either guilty or not guilty, and, except as provided in Section 2, they shall assess the punishment in all cases where the same is not absolutely fixed by law to some particular penalty.

2. Alternate procedure

(a) In all criminal cases, other than misdemeanor cases of which the justice court or corporation court has jurisdiction, which are tried before a jury on a plea of not guilty, the judge shall, before argument begins, first submit to the jury the issue of guilt or innocence of the defendant of the offense or offenses charged, without authorizing the jury to pass upon the punishment to be imposed.

(b) If a finding of guilty is returned, it shall then be the responsibility of the judge to assess the punishment applicable to the offense; provided, however, that (1) in capital cases where the state has made it known in writing prior to trial that it will seek the death penalty, (2) in any criminal action where the jury may recommend probation and the defendant filed his sworn motion for probation before the trial began, and (3) in other cases where the defendant so elects in writing at the time he enters his plea in open court, the punishment shall be assessed by the same jury. If a finding of guilty is returned, the defendant may, with the consent of the attorney for the state, change his election of one who assesses the punishment.

3. Evidence of prior criminal record in all criminal cases after a finding of guilty

(a) Regardless of the plea and whether the punishment be assessed by the judge or the jury, evidence may be offered by the state and the defendant as to the prior criminal record of the defendant, his general reputation and his character. The term prior criminal record means a final conviction in a court of record, or a probated or suspended sentence that has occurred prior to trial, or any final conviction material to the offense charged.

(b) After the introduction of such evidence has been concluded, and if the jury has the responsibility of assessing the punishment, the court shall give such additional written instructions as may be necessary and the order of procedure and the rules governing the conduct of the trial shall be the same as are applicable on the issue of guilt or innocence.

(c) In cases where the matter of punishment is referred to the jury, the verdict shall not be complete until the jury has rendered a verdict both on the guilt or innocence of the defendant and the amount of punishment, where the jury finds the defendant guilty. In the event the jury shall fail to agree, a mistrial shall be declared, the jury shall be discharged, and no jeopardy shall attach.

(d) When the judge assesses the punishment, and after the hearing of the evidence hereinabove provided for, he shall forthwith announce his decision in open court as to the punishment to be assessed.

(e) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting the admissibility of extraneous offenses on the question of guilt or innocence." Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1739, ch. 659, § 22, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1732, ch. 659, amended various articles of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, and repealed Vernon's Ann.P.C. art. 82; sections 41 and 42 of the act of 1967, savings and severability clauses, are set out as notes under article 1.14.

CHAPTER THIRTY-EIGHT—EVIDENCE IN CRIMINAL ACTIONS

Art. 38.22 [727] [810] [790] When oral and written confessions shall be used

1. The oral or written confession of a defendant made while the defendant was in jail or other place of confinement or in the custody of an officer shall be admissible if:

(a) it be shown to be the voluntary statement of the accused taken in the presence of an examining court in accordance with law; or

(b) it be made in writing and signed by the accused, and show that the accused has at some time prior to the making thereof received from the person to whom the statement is made the warning set out in Subsection (c)(1), (2) and (3) below or received from the magistrate the warning provided in Article 15.17, and shows the time, date, and place of the warning and the name of the person or magistrate who administered the warning; or

(c) it be made in writing to some person who has warned the defendant from whom the statement is taken that

(1) he has the right to have a lawyer present to advise him either prior to any questioning or during any questioning,

(2) if he is unable to employ a lawyer, he has the right to have a lawyer appointed to counsel with him prior to or during any questioning, and

(3) he has the right to remain silent and not make any statement at all and that any statement he makes may be used in evidence against him at his trial.

The defendant must knowingly, intelligently, and voluntarily waive these rights prior to and during the making of the statement.

(d) If a written statement is taken and if the defendant is unable to write his name and signs the statement by making his mark, such statement shall not be admitted in evidence, unless it be witnessed by some person other than a peace officer, who shall sign the same as witness.

(e) It be made orally and the defendant makes a statement of facts or circumstances that are found to be true, which conduce to establish his guilt, such as the finding of secreted or stolen property, or the instrument with which he states the offense was committed.

(f) Nothing contained herein shall preclude the admissibility of any statement made by the defendant in open court at his trial or at his ex-aming trial in compliance with Articles 16.03 and 16.04 or of any statement that is the res gestae of the arrest or of the offense.

2. In all cases where a question is raised as to the voluntariness of a confession or statement, the court must make an independent finding in the absence of the jury as to whether the confession or statement was made under voluntary conditions. If the confession or statement has been found to have been voluntarily made and held admissible as a matter of law and fact by the court in a hearing in the absence of the jury, the court must enter an order stating its findings, which order shall be filed among the papers of the cause. Such order shall not be exhibited to the jury nor the finding thereof made known to the jury in any manner. Upon the finding by the judge as a matter of law and fact that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, evidence pertaining to such matter may be submitted to the jury and it shall be instructed that unless the jury believes beyond a reasonable doubt that the confession or statement was voluntarily made, the jury shall not consider such statement or confession for any purpose nor any evidence obtained as a result thereof. In any case where a motion to suppress the statement or confession has been filed and evidence has been submitted to the court on this issue, the court within its discretion may reconsider such evidence in his finding that the statement or confession was voluntarily made and the same evidence submitted to the court at the hearing on the motion to suppress shall be made a part of the record the same as if it were being presented at the time of trial. However, the state or the defendant shall be entitled to present any new evidence on the issue of the voluntariness of the statement or confession prior to the court's final ruling and order stating its findings.

3. When the issue is raised by the evidence, the trial judge shall appropriately instruct the jury, generally, on the law pertaining to such statement or confession.

CHAPTER THIRTY-NINE—DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

Art. 39.02 [735] [818] [798] Depositions for defendant

Depositions of witnesses may be taken by the defendant. When the defendant desires to take the deposition of a witness, he shall, by himself or counsel, file with the clerk of the court in which the case is pending an affidavit stating the facts necessary to constitute a good reason for taking the same, and an application to take the same. Provided that upon the filing of such application, and after notice to the attorney for the state, the courts shall hear the application and determine if good reason exists for taking the deposition. Such determination shall be based on the facts made known at the hearing and the court, in its judgment, shall grant or deny the application on such facts.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1741, ch. 659, § 24, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Art. 39.03 [736, 737, 738] [819, 820, 821] [799, 800, 801] Officers who may take the deposition

Upon the filing of such an affidavit and application, the court shall appoint, order or designate one of the following persons before whom such deposition shall be taken:

1. A district judge.
2. A county judge.
3. A notary public.
4. A district clerk.
5. A county clerk.

Such order shall specifically name such person and the time when and place where such deposition shall be taken. Failure of a witness to respond thereto, shall be punishable by contempt by the court. Such deposition shall be oral or written, as the court shall direct.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER VERDICT

CHAPTER FORTY—NEW TRIALS

Art. 40.09 The record on appeal

* * * * *

5. Responsibility for obtaining transcription of reporter's notes

A party desiring to have included in the record a transcription of notes of the reporter shall have the responsibility of obtaining such transcription and furnishing same to the clerk in duplicate in time for inclusion in the record and the defendant shall pay therefor. The court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to defendant if the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security therefor. Upon certificate of the court that this service has been rendered, payment therefor shall be made from the general funds by the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed in a sum to be set by the trial judge. The court reporter shall report any portion of the proceedings requested by either party or directed by the court.

Par. 5 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1742, ch. 659, § 27, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

6. Bills of exception

(a) A party desiring to have the record disclose some action, testimony, evidence, proceeding, objection, exception or other event or occurrence not otherwise shown by the record may utilize a bill of exception for this purpose. Bills of exception must be filed with the clerk and presented to the trial judge within ninety days after notice of appeal is given, and for good cause shown, the judge trying the cause may further extend the time in which to file the bills of exception and shall have the power, in term-time or in vacation, upon application for good cause to extend for as many times as deemed necessary the time for preparation and filing of bills of exception and the approval for any bill of exception by the judge trying the cause after the expiration of the ninety-day period shall be sufficient proof that the time for filing was properly extended, and any bill of exception so filed shall be construed to have been filed within the time required by law. The clerk shall notify the court of each bill immediately upon its being filed. The court shall either approve the bill without qualification or shall approve it subject to qualification or refuse it, setting forth in the qualification or refusal any reasons that may seem proper to the judge. Notice of the court's action in qualifying or refusing a bill shall be immediately given by the clerk to the party filing the bill or to his counsel, and such party, if unwilling to accept the court's qualification or refusal may not later than fifteen days after receipt of such notice, file a by-stander's bill of exception, and the clerk shall include same in the record. A bill of exception will be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 100 days after notice of appeal is given and no extension of time for filing has been granted; provided, however, if an extension of time for filing has been granted, a bill of exception will be deemed approved without qualification if it be not acted upon by the trial judge within a period of 10 days after the actual filing of the bill.

Par. 6(a) amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1742, ch. 659, § 27, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

7. Approval of the record

Notice of completion of the record shall be made by the clerk by certified mail to the parties or their respective counsel. If neither files and presents to the court in writing any objection to the record, within fifteen days after the mailing of such notice and if the court has no objection to the record, he shall approve the same. If such objection be made, or if the court fails to approve the record within five days after the expiration of such fifteen-day period, the court shall set the matter down for hearing, and, after hearing, shall enter such orders as may be appropriate to cause the record to speak the truth and the findings and adjudications in such orders, if supported by evidence, shall be final. In its discretion, the court may require the attendance of the defendant at such hearing. Such proceeding shall be included in the record, and the entire record approved by the court.

Par. 7 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1743, ch. 659, § 27, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

12. Trial court's duty

It shall be the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs and oral arguments, if any, whether the defendant should be granted a new trial by the trial court. This duty shall be performed within the period of thirty days immediately after the state's brief is filed, or, if none be filed, then within the period of thirty days immediately after the last day on which the state's brief could be timely filed. Omission of the court to perform this duty within such period shall constitute refusal of the court to grant a new trial to defendant.

Par. 12 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1743, ch. 659, § 27, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

CHAPTER FORTY-TWO—JUDGMENT AND SENTENCE

Art 42.03 [768] [855] [833] Pronouncing sentence; time; credit for time spent in jail between arrest and sentence or pending appeal

If a new trial is not granted, nor judgment arrested in felony and misdemeanor cases, the sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of the defendant except when his presence is not required by Article 42.02 at any time after the expiration of the time allowed for making the motion for a new trial or the motion in arrest of judgment; provided that in all criminal cases the judge of the court in which the defendant was convicted may within his discretion, give the defendant credit on his sentence for the time, or any part thereof, which said defendant has spent in jail in said cause, from the time of his arrest and confinement until his sentence by the trial court; and provided further, that in all cases where the defendant has been tried for any violation of the laws of the State of Texas, and has been convicted and has appealed from said judgment and sentence of conviction, and where said cause has been affirmed by the Court of Criminal Appeals, and after receipt of the mandate by the clerk of the trial court, the judge is authorized to again call said defendant before him; and if pending appeal, the defendant has not made bond and has remained in jail pending the time of such appeal, said trial judge may then in his discretion resentence the defendant, and may subtract from the original sentence pronounced upon the defendant, the length of time the defendant has lain in jail pending such appeal, noting any credit allowed upon the mandate, which credit shall be allowed by the Texas Department of Corrections in all computations affecting the eligibility of the defendant for parole or discharge. Where jail time has been awarded, the trial judge may, when in his discretion the ends of justice would best be served, sentence the defendant to serve his sentence during his off-work hours, or on week-ends. When such a sentence is permitted by the trial judge it must be served on consecutive days or consecutive week-ends. The trial judge may require bail of the defendant to insure the faithful performance of the sentence. The trial judge may attach conditions regarding the employment, travel, and other conduct of the defendant during the performance of such a sentence.

Art. 42.12 [781d] Adult Probation and Parole Law

B. Probations

* * * * *

Sec. 6a. (a) A court granting probation may fix a fee not exceeding $10 per month to be paid to the court by the probationer during the probationary period. The court may make payment of the fee a condition of granting or continuing the probation.

(b) The court shall distribute the fees received under Subsection (a) of this section to the county or counties in which the court has jurisdiction for use in administering the probation laws. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the court shall distribute the fees received to the counties in proportion to population as prescribed by Paragraph 7, Section 10 of this Article.

Sec. 6a added by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1744, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Sec. 10. For the purpose of providing adequate probation services, the district judge or district judges having original jurisdiction of criminal actions in the county or counties, if applicable, are authorized, with the advice and consent of the commissioners court as hereinafter provided, to employ and designate the titles and fix the salaries of probation officers, and such administrative, supervisory, stenographic, clerical, and other personnel as may be necessary to conduct presentence investigations, supervise and rehabilitate probationers, and enforce the terms and conditions of probation. Only those persons who have successfully completed education in an accredited college or university and two years full time paid employment in responsible probation or correctional work with juveniles or adults, social welfare work, teaching or personnel work; or persons who are licensed attorneys with experience in criminal law; or persons who are serving in such capacities at the time of the passage of this Article and who are not otherwise disqualified by Section 31 of this Article, shall be eligible for appointments as probation officers; providing that additional experience in any of the above work categories may be substituted year for year for the required college education, with a maximum substitution of two years. Provided, however, that in a county having a population of less than 50,000, according to the last preceding Federal census, any person having completed at least two years education in an accredited college or university will be eligible for appointment.

It is the further intent of this Article that the caseload of each probation officer not substantially exceed seventy-five probationers.

Where more than one probation officer is required, the judge or judges shall appoint a chief adult probation officer or director, who, with their approval, shall appoint a sufficient number of assistants and other employees to carry on the professional, clerical, and other work of the court.

The judge or judges, with the approval of the juvenile board of the county, may authorize the chief probation or chief juvenile officer to establish a separate division of adult probation and appoint adult probation officers and such other personnel as required. It is the further intent of this Act that the same person serving as a probation officer for juveniles shall not be required to serve as a probation officer for adults and vice-versa.

The judge or judges may, with the approval of the director of parole supervision, designate a parole officer or supervisor employed by the Division of Parole Supervision as a probation officer for the county or district.

Probation officers shall be furnished transportation, or alternatively, shall be entitled to an automobile allowance for use of personal automobile on official business, under the same terms and conditions as is provided for sheriffs.

The salaries of personnel, and other expenses essential to the adequate supervision of probationers; shall be paid from the funds of the county or counties comprising the judicial district or geographical area served by such probation officers. In instances where a district court has jurisdiction in two or more counties, the total expenses of such probation services shall be distributed approximately in the same proportion as the population in each county bears to the total population of all those counties, according to the last preceding or any future Federal Census. In all the instances of the employment of probation officers, the responsible judges and county commissioners are authorized to accept grants or gifts from other political subdivisions of the state or associations and foundations, for the sole purpose of financing adequate and effective probationary programs in the various parts of the state. For the purposes of this Act, the municipalities of this state are specifically authorized to grant and allocate such sums of money as their respective governing bodies may approve to their appropriate county governments for the support and maintenance of effective probationary programs. All grants, gifts, and allocations of the character and purpose described in this section shall be handled and accounted for separately from other public funds of the county.

Sec. 10 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1744, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

* * * * *

Sec. 12. The provisions of Sections 6a, 10, and 11 of this Article also apply to Article 42.13.

Sec. 12 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1745, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

C. Paroles

* * * * *

Sec. 15. (a) The Board is hereby authorized to release on parole, with the approval of the Governor, any person confined in any penal or correctional institution of this State, except persons under sentence of death, who has served one-third of the maximum sentence imposed, provided that in any case he may be paroled after serving 20 calendar years. Time served on the sentence imposed shall be the total calendar time served and all credits allowed under the laws governing the operation of the Department of Corrections, and executive clemency. All paroles shall issue upon order of the Board, duly adopted and approved by the Governor.

(b) Within one year after a prisoner's admittance to the penal or correctional institution and at such intervals thereafter, as it may determine, the Board shall secure and consider all pertinent information regarding each prisoner, except any under sentence of death, including the circumstances of his offense, his previous social history and criminal record, his conduct, employment and attitude in prison, and the reports of such physical and mental examinations as have been made.

(c) Before ordering the parole of any prisoner, the Board may have the prisoner appear before it and interview him. A parole shall be ordered only for the best interest of society, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered to be a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner shall be placed on parole only when arrangements have been made for his proper employment or for his maintenance and care, and when the Board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen. Every prisoner while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the institution from which he was released but shall be amenable to the orders of the Board.

(d) The Board may adopt such other reasonable rules not inconsistent with law as it may deem proper or necessary with respect to the eligibility of prisoners for parole, the conduct of parole hearings, or conditions to be imposed upon parolees. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the conditions thereof in clear and intelligible language.

(e) It shall be the duty of the Board at least ten days before ordering the parole of any prisoner or upon the granting of executive clemency by the Governor to notify the sheriff, the district attorney and the district judge in the county where such person was convicted that such parole or clemency is being considered by the Board or by the Governor.

(f) If no parole officer has been assigned to the locality where a person is to be released on parole or executive clemency the Board shall notify the chairman of the Voluntary Parole Board of such county prior to the release of such person. The Board shall request such Voluntary Parole Board, in the absence of a parole office, for information which would herein be required of such duly appointed parole officer. This shall not, however, preclude the Board from requesting information from any public agency in such locality.

Sec. 15 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1745, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Sec. 16. It shall be the duty of any judge, district attorney, county attorney, police officer or other public official of the state, having information with reference to any prisoner eligible for parole, to send in writing such information as may be in his possession or under his control to the Board, upon request of any member or employee thereof.

Amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1746, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

* * * * *

Sec. 18. The Board shall formulate rules as to the submission and presentation of information and arguments to the Board for and in behalf of any person within the jurisdiction of the Board.

All persons presenting information or arguments to the Board shall submit therewith an affidavit stating whether any fee has been paid or is to be paid for their services in the case, the amount of such fee, if any, and by whom such fee is paid or to be paid.

Sec. 18 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1746, ch. 659, § 29, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

D. Supervision of Parolees

* * * * *

Sec. 27. All information obtained in connection with inmates of the Texas Department of Corrections subject to parole or executive clemency or individuals who may be on parole and under the supervision of the division, or persons directly identified in any proposed plan of release for a parolee, shall be privileged information and shall not be subject to public inspection; provided, however, that all such information shall be available to the Governor and the Board of Pardons and Paroles upon request. It is further provided, that statistical and general information respecting the parole program and system, including the names of paroled prisoners and data recorded in connection with parole services, shall be subject to public inspection at any reasonable time.

Art. 42.13 Misdemeanor Probation Law

* * * * * * * * * *

Probation authorized in misdemeanor cases

Sec. 3. (a) A defendant who has been found guilty of a misdemeanor wherein the maximum permissible punishment is by confinement in jail or by a fine in excess of $200.00 or by both such fine and imprisonment may be granted probation if:

(1) he applies by written motion under oath to the court for probation before trial;

(2) he has not been granted probation nor been under probation under this Act or any other Act in the preceding 5 years;

(3) he has paid all costs of his trial and so much of any fine imposed as the court directs; and

(4) the court believes that the ends of justice and the best interests of society and of the defendant will be served by granting him probation.

(b) If a defendant satisfies all the requirements of Section 3(a) (1), (2), (3) and (4) of this Article, and the jury hearing his case recommends probation in its verdict, the court must grant the defendant probation. The court may grant the defendant probation regardless of the recommendation of the jury or the prior conviction of the defendant. The court may, however, extend the term of the probationary period to any length of time not exceeding the maximum time of confinement allowed by law. In the event probation is revoked in accordance with Section 6, the judgment of the court shall not prescribe any penalty in excess of that imposed by the jury.

(c) A defendant's application for probation must be made under oath and must also contain statements (1) either that he has never before been convicted in this or another jurisdiction of a felony or of a misdemeanor for which the maximum permissible punishment is by confinement in jail or by a fine in excess of $200 or by both such fine and imprisonment, or, if he has been so convicted, setting forth such fact and specifying the time and place of such conviction, the nature of the offense for which he was convicted, and the final punishment assessed therein; and (2) that he has not been granted probation nor been under probation under this Article or any other Article in the preceding five years. The application may contain what other information the court directs.

(d) When a defendant has applied for probation, the court during the trial of his case must receive competent evidence concerning the defendant's entitlement to probation.

Sec. 3 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1746, ch. 659, § 30, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

* * * * * * * * * *

Terms and supervision of probation

Sec. 5. (a) The period and terms of probation shall be determined by the court granting it. Except as provided in Subsection (d) of this section, a probationer is under the supervision of the court granting him probation.

(b) The period and terms of probation shall be designed to prevent recidivism and promote rehabilitation of the probationer. The terms must include, but are not limited to, the requirement that a probationer:

(1) commit no offense against the laws of this or any other state or the United States;

(2) avoid injurious or vicious habits;

(3) avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character;

(4) report to the probation officer as directed;

(5) permit the probation officer to visit him at his home or elsewhere;

(6) work faithfully at suitable employment as far as possible;

(7) remain within a specified place;

(8) pay his fine, if the court so orders and, if one be assessed, in one or several sums, and make restitution or reparation in any sum that the court shall determine not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1,000);

(9) support his dependents; and

(10) submit a copy of his fingerprints to the sheriff's office of the county in which he was tried.

The clerk shall send such fingerprints to the Texas Department of Public Safety, which shall return a certificate to the court in which the defendant was tried, which certificate shall contain any criminal record of the defendant or record with the Department, or if no record exists, then a certificate from the Texas Department of Public Safety showing the absence of any previous criminal record. The Texas Department of Public Safety shall, in addition to its present responsibilities, keep a record of all misdemeanor arrests within the purview of this section and the deposition of such cases.

(c) The clerk of a court granting probation shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the period and terms of his probation. If the period or terms are later modified, the clerk of the modifying court shall promptly furnish the probationer with a written statement of the modifications. The clerk in either case shall take a receipt from the probationer for delivery of the statement.

(d) After probation has been granted, jurisdiction of the probationer's case may be transferred to another court which can more conveniently supervise the probation. If the other court accepts the transfer, the transferring court shall forward to it all pertinent records in the case. The court accepting the transfer is vested with jurisdiction of the case and may exercise any power conferred by this Act upon the court initially granting probation.

APPEAL AND WRIT OF ERROR

CHAPTER FORTY-FOUR—APPEAL AND WRIT OF ERROR

Art. 44.11 [828] [916] [884] Effect of appeal

Upon the appellate record being filed in the Court of Criminal Appeals, all further proceedings in the trial court, except as to bond as provided in Article 44.04 and the proceedings in Article 40.09, shall be suspended and arrested until the judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals is received by the trial court. In cases where the record or any portion thereof is lost or destroyed it may be substituted in the trial court and when so substituted the record may be prepared and transmitted to the Court of Criminal Appeals as in other cases.

JUSTICE AND CORPORATION COURTS

CHAPTER FORTY-FIVE—JUSTICE AND CORPORATION COURTS

Art. 45.04 [870] Service of process

Section 1. All process issuing out of a corporation court may be served and shall be served when directed by the court, by a policeman or marshal of the city, town or village within which it is situated, under the same rules as are provided by law for the service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of the justice court, so far as applicable.

Sec. 2. The policeman or marshal may serve all process issuing out of a corporation court anywhere in the county in which the city, town or village is situated. If the city, town or village is situated in more than one county, the policeman or marshal may serve the process throughout those counties.

Sec. 3. A defendant is entitled to at least one day's notice of any complaint against him, if such time is demanded.

CHAPTER FORTY-SIX—INSANITY AS DEFENSE

Art. 46.01 [932-1] Mental illness after conviction

* * * * *

Transfer from department of corrections to mental hospital

Sec. 2. (a) The Director of the Department of Corrections may transfer a prisoner not under death sentence who is confined in an institution operated by the Department of Corrections to a State mental hospital, or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, if a prison physician is of the opinion that the prisoner is mentally ill and would benefit from treatment in a mental hospital and if he is advised by the head of the mental hospital that facilities are available and the prisoner is eligible for treatment.

(b) A prisoner so transferred remains under the jurisdiction of the Department of Corrections.

(c) The Director of the Department of Corrections shall transport the prisoner to and from the mental hospital.

Sec. 2 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 717, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Transfer from county jail to mental hospital

Sec. 3. (a) The county judge may transfer a prisoner who is serving sentence in a county jail to a State mental hospital, or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, if the county health officer certifies that the prisoner is mentally ill and would benefit from treatment in a mental hospital and if the judge is advised by the head of the mental hospital that facilities are available and the prisoner is eligible for treatment.

(b) A prisoner so transferred remains under the jurisdiction of the sheriff of the county.

(c) The county from which a prisoner is so transferred shall transport the prisoner to and from the mental hospital, and shall pay the costs of his support, treatment and maintenance while in a State mental hospital as a prisoner.

Sec. 3 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 717, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Confinement in mental hospital

Sec. 4. The head of the mental hospital in which a prisoner is being treated shall take reasonable precaution to prevent the escape of the prisoner and shall not discharge or furlough the prisoner or transfer him to any mental hospital other than a State mental hospital or an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or a Veterans' Administration hospital during the term of his sentence.

Sec. 4 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 718, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Escape from mental hospital

Sec. 5. The Director of the Department of Corrections or the sheriff from whose custody the prisoner was transferred is responsible for regaining custody of a prisoner who escapes from a mental hospital.

Sec. 5 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 718, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Recovery before expiration of sentence

Sec. 6. When the head of a mental hospital determines that a prisoner whose sentence has not expired no longer requires hospitalization for mental illness or will not benefit from continued hospitalization, he shall so notify the Director of the Department of Corrections or the county judge who transferred the prisoner to the mental hospital. Upon receiving this notice the Director of the Department of Corrections or the county judge shall immediately transport the prisoner from the mental hospital to the Department of Corrections or county jail to serve the unexpired portion of his sentence.

Sec. 6 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 718, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Examination prior to expiration of sentence

Sec. 7. Prior to the date of the expiration of the sentence of a prisoner who is being treated in a mental hospital, the head of the mental hospital shall have the prisoner examined and shall determine whether he requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and whether because of his mental illness he is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained.

(a) The head of the mental hospital shall release the prisoner upon receiving notice of his discharge from the Department of Corrections or from jail, unless he determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and because of his mental illness is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained.

(b) If the head of the hospital determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person and because of his mental illness is likely to cause injury to himself or others if not restrained, he shall cause to be filed in the county court of the county in which the hospital is located a Certificate of Examination for Mental Illness and an Application for Temporary Hospitalization or Petition for Indefinite Commitment and may detain the person as a patient after his discharge from prison pending order of the court.

(c) If the head of the hospital determines that the prisoner requires further hospitalization as a mentally ill person, he shall so inform a responsible relative of the patient, and may cause an Application for Temporary Hospitalization or Petition for Indefinite Commitment to be filed in the county court of the proper county.

Sec. 7 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 718, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Time credited

Sec. 8. The time a prisoner is confined in a mental hospital for treatment shall be considered time served and shall be credited to the term of his sentence, but he shall not be entitled to any commutation of sentence for good conduct while he is under treatment in a mental hospital.

Sec. 8 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 718, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Discharge from prison

Sec. 9. Upon the expiration of the sentence of a prisoner who is being treated in a mental hospital, he shall receive a discharge from the Department of Corrections or the county jail as in all other cases.

Sec. 9 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 719, ch. 299, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

* * * * *

Section 1 of the amendatory act of 1967 amended article 46.02.

Art. 46.02 [932b] Insanity in defense or in bar

No prior trial except by agreement

Section 1. No issue of insanity shall be tried in advance of trial on the merits, except upon written application on behalf of the accused with the consent of the state's attorney and the approval of the trial judge.

Sec. 1 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1748, ch. 659, § 33, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Procedure at trial

Sec. 2. (a) At the trial on the merits, the trial court shall hear evidence on the issue of present insanity (1) if prior to the offer thereof there be filed on behalf of the defendant's written motion asking the court to hear evidence on such issue and requesting the court to declare a mistrial because of such insanity in the manner and to the extent provided for in this article; or (2) if the defendant or his counsel otherwise asks for a decision or issue thereon, in which event such act of the defendant shall be treated and considered as if the defendant had filed such a motion for mistrial. For purposes of present insanity, the defendant shall be considered presently insane if he is presently incompetent to make a rational defense.

(b) When the issue of present insanity is tried, the following rules shall apply:

(1) The issue of present insanity shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent testimony.

(2) (a) Instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant is sane or insane at the time of the trial.

(b) If there has been competent medical or psychiatric testimony to the effect that the defendant is presently insane, instructions submitting the issue of present insanity shall require the jury, if it finds the defendant presently insane, to state whether the defendant requires hospitalization in a mental hospital for his own welfare and protection or the protection of others.

(3) The charge shall instruct the jury that if it finds defendant is presently insane it will not consider or deliberate upon any other issues except (a) whether the defendant should be committed to a mental hospital; and (b) whether he was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense, if such issue be submitted.

(c) When the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense is tried, the following rules shall apply:

(1) The issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be submitted to the jury only if supported by competent evidence tending to show that defendant was insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

(2) Instructions submitting the issue of insanity as of the time of the alleged offense shall be framed so as to require the jury to state in its verdict whether defendant was sane or insane as of the time of the alleged offense.

(3) If the jury finds the defendant to have been insane at the time the offense is alleged to have been committed, the defendant shall stand acquitted of the alleged offense.

(d) The following rules shall apply upon defendant's being acquitted by reason of the jury's returning a finding that he was insane as of the time of the alleged offense:

(1) If the jury finds the defendant to be insane at the time of trial, and if it further finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, or if the court so finds on competent medical or psychiatric testimony, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to a state mental hospital and placing him in the custody of the sheriff for transportation to a state mental hospital to be confined therein until he becomes sane. The court shall further order that a transcript of all medical testimony adduced before the jury shall be forthwith prepared by the court reporter and such transcript shall accompany the patient to the state mental hospital.

(2) If the jury returns a finding that defendant is sane as of the time of the trial, then the defendant shall be finally discharged.

(3) If there be no jury finding on the issue of present insanity, then the court, if the discharge or going at large of defendant be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, shall order defendant committed to jail or other suitable place pending the prompt initiation and prosecution by the attorney for the state or other person designated by the court of appropriate civil proceedings to determine whether defendant shall be committed to a mental institution, or the court may give defendant into the care of his friends on their giving satisfactory security for his proper care and protection; otherwise, defendant shall be discharged.

Amendment of subsection (d) of section 2 of article 46.02 by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 716, ch. 299, § 1, see subsection (d) post.

(d) The following rules shall apply upon defendant's being acquitted by reason of the jury's returning a finding that he was insane as of the time of the alleged offense:

(1) If the jury finds the defendant to be insane at the time of trial, and it further finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the court shall enter an order committing the defendant to a State mental hospital or to an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or to a Veterans' Administration hospital, and placing him in the custody of the sheriff for transportation to the mental hospital to be confined therein until he becomes sane. The court shall further order that a transcript of all medical testimony adduced before the jury, shall be forthwith prepared by the court reporter and such transcript shall accompany the patient to the mental hospital.

(2) If the jury returns a finding that defendant is sane as of the time of the trial, then the defendant shall be finally discharged.

(3) If there be no jury finding on the issue of present insanity, then the court, if the discharge or going at large of defendant be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, shall order defendant committed to jail or other suitable place pending the prompt initiation and prosecution by the attorney for the State or other person designated by the court of appropriate civil proceedings to determine whether defendant shall be committed to a mental institution, or the court may give defendant into the care of his friends on their giving satisfactory security for his proper care and protection; otherwise, defendant shall be discharged.

(e) Where the jury finds that the defendant is presently insane, but does not find that he was insane at the time of the offense (either because such issue was not submitted or because the jury failed to find on that issue or because it found that he was not insane at such time), the court shall enter a mistrial as to all issues except the issue of present insanity. If the jury finds that the defendant should be committed to a mental institution, the proper order so committing him shall be entered by the court.

(f) Evidence. (1) The court may, at its discretion appoint disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant with regard to his present competency to stand trial and as to his sanity, and to testify thereto at any trial or hearing in connection to the accusation against the accused.

(2) Such appointed experts shall be paid out of the General Fund of the county where the indictment was found or information was filed.

(3) If the defendant is free on bail, the court in its discretion may commit him to custody pending such examination.

(4) No statement made by the defendant during examination into his competency shall be admitted in evidence against the accused on the issue of guilt in any criminal proceeding no matter under what circumstances such examination takes place.

(5) Any party may introduce other competent testimony regarding the defendant's competency.

(g) If trial is without a jury. (1) If the trial is before the court without a jury and if, after commencement of a trial on the merits and before the return of a verdict, there arises in the mind of the court from any cause, a reasonable doubt as to the present sanity of the defendant, the court shall suspend the proceedings and shall without unnecessary delay impanel a jury to determine the issue of the present sanity of the defendant.

(2) In such event, the trial before the jury on that issue shall proceed under the same procedure, and the jury shall have the same duties and responsibilities with respect to the hearing on the question of present insanity and on the question of hospitalization and related questions, as are set forth in the other portions of this article where the question is raised in a jury trial.

(3) If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is sane at present, then in such event the court shall resume without unnecessary delay, the trial on the merits at the point where the proceedings were suspended. If the jury so impanelled shall determine that the defendant is not sane at present, then in such event the court shall declare a mistrial of the trial on the merits and shall enter such orders with respect to commitment and other matters as are authorized in accordance with the other portions of this article, and as may be appropriate under the jury findings, the facts and the law.

(4) If the jury so impanelled is unable to agree upon a unanimous verdict after a reasonable opportunity to deliberate, the court shall declare a mistrial of the competency trial, discharge the jury so impanelled and impanel another jury to determine the present mental competency of the defendant.

(h) A mistrial under the provisions of this section shall not serve to bar a subsequent trial and conviction for the same offense, and no jeopardy shall be considered as having attached in the event the defendant is found to be presently insane and a mistrial is declared by reason thereof, irrespective of the manner in which the issue is raised.

Sec. 2 amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1748, ch. 659, § 33, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.

Status of patient acquitted

Sec. 3. (a) A person committed to a State mental hospital or to a mental hospital operated by the United States or the Veterans' Administration under this Article upon a jury finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of the alleged offense is not by reason of that offense a person charged with a criminal offense. In the event the head of the mental hospital to which he is committed is of the opinion that the person is sane, he shall so notify the court which committed the person to the mental hospital. Upon receiving such notice, the judge of the committing court shall impanel a jury to determine whether the person is sane or insane. If the jury finds the person is sane, he shall be released. If the jury finds the person is insane, the court shall order his return to the mental hospital until he is so adjudged to be sane at a subsequent jury trial in such committing county.

(b) If, after a person has been committed to a State hospital upon a finding of insanity at the time of trial who has been acquitted of the alleged offense, the committing court receives written notice from an agency of the United States operating a mental hospital or from a Veterans' Administration hospital stating that facilities are available and that the patient is eligible for care or treatment therein, the court may order the patient committed or transferred to the agency or Veterans' Administration and may place the patient in the custody of the agency or Veterans' Administration for transportation to the mental hospital.

Art. 52.02 Evidence; Deposition; Affidavits

At the hearing at a Court of Inquiry, evidence may be taken orally or by deposition, or, in the discretion of the judge, by affidavit. If affidavits are admitted, any witness against whom they may bear has the right to propound written interrogatories to the affiants or to file answering affidavits. The judge in hearing such evidence, at his discretion, may conclude not to sustain objections to all or to any portion of the evidence taken nor exclude same; but any of the witnesses or attorneys engaged in taking the testimony may have any objections they make recorded with the testimony and reserved for the action of any court in which such evidence is thereafter sought to be admitted, but such court is not confined to objections made at the taking of the testimony at the Court of Inquiry. Without restricting the foregoing, the judge may allow the introduction of any documentary or real evidence which he deems reliable, and the testimony adduced before any grand jury.

Art. 52.04 Rights of Witnesses

All witnesses testifying in any Court of Inquiry have the same rights as to testifying as do defendants in felony prosecutions in this state. Before any witness is sworn to testify in any Court of Inquiry, he shall be instructed by the judge that he is entitled to counsel; that he cannot be forced to testify against himself; and that such testimony may be taken down and used against him in a later trial or trials ensuing from the instant Court of Inquiry. Any witness or his counsel has the right to fully cross-examine any of the witnesses whose testimony bears in any manner against him.

Art. 52.05 Witness must testify

A person may be compelled to give testimony or produce evidence when legally called upon to do so at any Court of Inquiry; however, if any person refuses or declines to testify or produce evidence on the ground that it may incriminate him under laws of this state, then the judge may, in his discretion, compel such person to testify or produce evidence but the person shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may be compelled to testify or produce evidence at such Court of Inquiry.

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE, CONSTRUCTION, APPLICATION AND SUBJECT MATTER OF THE TITLE

Section 1.101. Short Title

This title may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—101.)

§ 1.102. Purposes; Rules of Construction; Variation by Agreement

(a) This title shall be liberally construed and applied to promote its underlying purposes and policies.

(b) Underlying purposes and policies of this title are

(1) to simplify, clarify and modernize the law governing commercial transactions;

§ 1.102 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) to permit the continued expansion of commercial practices through custom, usage and agreement of the parties;

(3) to make uniform the law among the various jurisdictions.

(c) The effect of provisions of this title may be varied by agreement, except as otherwise provided in this title and except that the obligations of good faith, diligence, reasonableness and care prescribed by this title may not be disclaimed by agreement but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the performance of such obligations is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(d) The presence in certain provisions of this title of the words "unless otherwise agreed" or words of similar import does not imply that the effect of other provisions may not be varied by agreement under Subsection (c).

(e) In this title unless the context otherwise requires

(1) words in the singular number include the plural, and in the plural include the singular;

(2) words of the masculine gender include the feminine and the neuter, and when the sense so indicates words of the neuter gender may refer to any gender.

§ 1.103. Supplementary General Principles of Law Applicable

Unless displaced by the particular provisions of this title, the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relative to capacity to contract, principal and agent, estoppel, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other validating or invalidating cause shall supplement its provisions. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—103.)

§ 1.104. Construction Against Implicit Repeal

This title being a general body of law intended as a unified coverage of its subject matter, no part of it shall be deemed to be impliedly repealed by subsequent legislation if such construction can reasonably be avoided. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—104.)

§ 1.105. Territorial Application of the Title; Parties' Power to Choose Applicable Law

(a) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement this title applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 1.109

(b) Where one of the following provisions of this title specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

Rights of creditors against sold goods. Section 2.402.

Applicability of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections. Section 4.102.

Bulk transfers subject to the chapter on Bulk Transfers. Section 6.102.

Applicability of the chapter on Investment Securities. Section 8.106.

Policy and scope of the chapter on Secured Transactions. Sections 9.102 and 9.103.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—105.)

§ 1.106. Remedies to be Liberally Administered

(a) The remedies provided by this title shall be liberally administered to the end that the aggrieved party may be put in as good a position as if the other party had fully performed but neither consequential or special nor penal damages may be had except as specifically provided in this title or by other rule of law.

(b) Any right or obligation declared by this title is enforceable by action unless the provision declaring it specifies a different and limited effect. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—106.)

§ 1.107. Waiver or Renunciation of Claim or Right After Breach

Any claim or right arising out of an alleged breach can be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—107.)

§ 1.108. Severability

If any provision or clause of this title or application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the title which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this title are declared to be severable. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—108.)

§ 1.109. Section Captions

Section captions are parts of this title. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—109.)

§ 1.201 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER B. GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND PRINCIPLES OF INTERPRETATION

§ 1.201. General Definitions

Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent chapters of this title which are applicable to specific chapters or subchapters thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this title:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, set-off, suit in equity and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this title (Sections 1.205 and 2.208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this title, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (Section 1.103). (Compare "Contract").

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or security payable to bearer or indorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its non-existence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind but does not include a pawnbroker. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a pre-existing contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 1.201

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: Non-Negotiable Bill of Lading) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this title and any other applicable rules of law. (Compare "Agreement".)

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper or securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this title to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder" means a person who is in possession of a document of title or an instrument or an investment security drawn, issued or indorsed to him or to his order or to bearer or in blank.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

§ 1.201 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government as a part of its currency.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when

(A) he has actual knowledge of it; or

(B) he has received a notice or notification of it; or

(C) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists.

A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this title.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when

(A) it comes to his attention; or

(B) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 1.201

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(29) "Party", as distinct from "third party", means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this title.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization (See Section 1.102).

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its non-existence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures which secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (Section 2.401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts, chattel paper, or contract rights which is subject to Chapter 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of such goods to a contract for sale under Section 2.401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with Chapter 9. Unless a lease or consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest" but a consignment is in any event subject to the provisions on consignment sales (Section 2.326). Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (A) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (B) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature or indorsement means one made without actual, implied or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (Sections 3.303, 4.208 and 4.209) a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them

(A) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(B) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a pre-existing claim; or

(C) by accepting delivery pursuant to a pre-existing contract for purchase; or

(D) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting or any other intentional reduction to tangible form. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—201.)

§ 1.202. Prima Facie Evidence by Third Party Documents

A document in due form purporting to be a bill of lading, policy or certificate of insurance, official weigher's or inspector's certificate, consular invoice, or any other document authorized or required by the contract to be issued by a third party shall be prima facie evidence of its own authenticity and genuineness and of the facts stated in the document by the third party. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—202.)

§ 1.203. Obligation of Good Faith

Every contract or duty within this title imposes an obligation of good faith in its performance or enforcement. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—203.)

§ 1.204. Time; Reasonable Time; "Seasonably"

(a) Whenever this title requires any action to be taken within a reasonable time, any time which is not manifestly unreasonable may be fixed by agreement.

(b) What is a reasonable time for taking any action depends on the nature, purpose and circumstances of such action.

(c) An action is taken "seasonably" when it is taken at or within the time agreed or if no time is agreed at or within a reasonable time. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—204.)

§ 1.205. Course of Dealing and Usage of Trade

(a) A course of dealing is a sequence of previous conduct between the parties to a particular transaction which is fairly to be regarded as establishing a common basis of understanding for interpreting their expressions and other conduct.

(b) A usage of trade is any practice or method of dealing having such regularity of observance in a place, vocation or trade as to justify an expectation that it will be observed with respect to the transaction in question. The existence and scope of such a usage are to be proved as facts. If it is established that such a usage is embodied in a written trade code or similar writing the interpretation of the writing is for the court.

(c) A course of dealing between parties and any usage of trade in the vocation or trade in which they are engaged or of which they are or should be aware give particular meaning to and supplement or qualify terms of an agreement.

(d) The express terms of an agreement and an applicable course of dealing or usage of trade shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable express terms control both course of dealing and usage of trade and course of dealing controls usage of trade.

(e) An applicable usage of trade in the place where any part of performance is to occur shall be used in interpreting the agreement as to that part of the performance.

(f) Evidence of a relevant usage of trade offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise to the latter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—205.)

§ 1.206. Statute of Frauds for Kinds of Personal Property Not Otherwise Covered

(a) Except in the cases described in Subsection (b) of this section a contract for the sale of personal property is not enforceable by way of action or defense beyond $5,000 in amount or value of remedy unless there is some writing which indicates that a contract for sale has been made between the parties at a defined or stated price, reasonably identifies the subject matter, and is signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply to contracts for the sale of goods (Section 2.201) nor of securities (Section 8.319) nor to security agreements (Section 9.203). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—206.)

§ 1.207. Performance or Acceptance Under Reservation of Rights

A party who with explicit reservation of rights performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as “without prejudice”, “under protest” or the like are sufficient. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—207.)

§ 1.208. Option to Accelerate at Will

A term providing that one party or his successor in interest may accelerate payment or performance or require collateral or additional collateral “at will” or “when he deems himself insecure” or in words of similar import shall be construed to mean that he shall have power to do so only if he in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired. The burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 1—208.)

§ 2.101 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE, GENERAL CONSTRUCTION AND SUBJECT MATTER

Section 2.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Sales.
(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—101.)

§ 2.102. Scope; Certain Security and Other Transactions Excluded From This Chapter

Unless the context otherwise requires, this chapter applies to transactions in goods; it does not apply to any transaction which although in the form of an unconditional contract to sell or present sale is intended to operate only as a security transaction nor does this chapter impair or repeal any statute regulating sales to consumers, farmers or other specified classes of buyers. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—102.)

§ 2.103. Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

(1) "Buyer" means a person who buys or contracts to buy goods.

(2) "Good faith" in the case of a merchant means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in the trade.

(3) "Receipt" of goods means taking physical possession of them.

(4) "Seller" means a person who sells or contracts to sell goods.

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified sub-chapters thereof, and the sections in which they appear are:

"Acceptance". Section 2.606.

(c) The following definitions in other chapters apply to this chapter:

- "Check". Section 3.104.
- "Consignee". Section 7.102.
- "Consignor". Section 7.102.
- "Consumer goods". Section 9.109.
- "Dishonor". Section 3.507.
- "Draft". Section 3.104.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—103.)

§ 2.104. Definitions: "Merchant"; "Between Merchants"; "Financing Agency"

(a) "Merchant" means a person who deals in goods of the kind or otherwise by his occupation holds himself out as having knowledge or skill peculiar to the practices or goods involved in the transaction or to whom such knowledge or skill may be attributed by his employment of an agent or broker or other intermediary who by his occupation holds himself out as having such knowledge or skill.

(b) "Financing agency" means a bank, finance company or other person who in the ordinary course of business makes advances against goods or documents of title or who by arrangement with either the seller or the buyer intervenes in ordinary course to make or collect payment due or claimed under the contract for sale, as by purchasing or paying the seller's draft or making advances against it or by merely taking it for collection whether or not documents of title accompany the draft. "Financing agency" includes also a bank or other person who similarly intervenes between persons who are in the position of seller and buyer in respect to the goods (Section 2.707).

(c) "Between merchants" means in any transaction with respect to which both parties are chargeable with the knowledge or skill of merchants. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—104.)

§ 2.105 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.105. Definitions: Transferability; "Goods"; "Future" Goods; "Lot"; "Commercial Unit"

(a) "Goods" means all things (including specially manufactured goods) which are movable at the time of identification to the contract for sale other than the money in which the price is to be paid, investment securities (Chapter 8) and things in action. "Goods" also includes the unborn young of animals and growing crops and other identified things attached to realty as described in the section on goods to be severed from realty (Section 2.107).

(b) Goods must be both existing and identified before any interest in them can pass. Goods which are not both existing and identified are "future" goods. A purported present sale of future goods or of any interest therein operates as a contract to sell.

(c) There may be a sale of a part interest in existing identified goods.

(d) An undivided share in an identified bulk of fungible goods is sufficiently identified to be sold although the quantity of the bulk is not determined. Any agreed proportion of such a bulk or any quantity thereof agreed upon by number, weight or other measure may to the extent of the seller's interest in the bulk be sold to the buyer who then becomes an owner in common.

(e) "Lot" means a parcel or a single article which is the subject matter of a separate sale or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the contract.

(f) "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of sale and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article (as a machine) or a set of articles (as a suite of furniture or an assortment of sizes) or a quantity (as a bale, gross, or carload) or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—105.)

§ 2.106. Definitions: "Contract"; "Agreement"; "Contract for Sale"; "Sale"; "Present Sale"; "Conforming" to Contract; "Termination"; "Cancellation"

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires "contract" and "agreement" are limited to those relating to the present or future sale of goods. "Contract for sale" includes both a present sale of goods and a contract to sell goods at a future time. A "sale" consists in the passing of title from the seller to the buyer for a price (Section 2.401). A "present sale" means a sale which is accomplished by the making of the contract.

(b) Goods or conduct including any part of a performance are "conforming" or conform to the contract when they are in accordance with the obligations under the contract.

(c) "Termination" occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the contract otherwise than for its breach. On "termination" all obligations which are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior breach or performance survives.

(d) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the contract for breach by the other and its effect is the same as that of "termination" except that the cancelling party also retains any remedy for breach of the whole contract or any unperformed balance. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—106.)

§ 2.107. Goods to be Severed From Realty: Recording

(a) A contract for the sale of timber, minerals or the like or a structure or its materials to be removed from realty is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter if they are to be severed by the seller but until severance a purported present sale thereof which is not effective as a transfer of an interest in land is effective only as a contract to sell.

(b) A contract for the sale apart from the land of growing crops or other things attached to realty and capable of severance without material harm thereto but not described in Subsection (a) is a contract for the sale of goods within this chapter whether the subject matter is to be severed by the buyer or by the seller even though it forms part of the realty at the time of contracting, and the parties can by identification effect a present sale before severance.

(c) The provisions of this section are subject to any third party rights provided by the law relating to realty records, and the contract for sale may be executed and recorded as a document transferring an interest in land and shall then constitute notice to third parties of the buyer's rights under the contract for sale. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—107.)

SUBCHAPTER B. FORM, FORMATION AND READJUSTMENT OF CONTRACT

§ 2.201. Formal Requirements; Statute of Frauds

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section a contract for the sale of goods for the price of $500 or more is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless there is some writing sufficient to indicate that a contract for sale has been made between the parties and signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent or broker. A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon but the contract is not enforceable under this paragraph beyond the quantity of goods shown in such writing.

(b) Between merchants if within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the contract and sufficient against the sender is received and the party receiving it has reason to know its contents, it satisfies the requirements of Subsection (a) against such party unless written notice of objection to its contents is given within ten days after it is received.

(c) A contract which does not satisfy the requirements of Subsection (a) but which is valid in other respects is enforceable

- (1) if the goods are to be specially manufactured for the buyer and are not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business and the seller, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances which reasonably indicate that the goods are for the buyer, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement; or
- (2) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in his pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract for sale was made, but the contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or
- (3) with respect to goods for which payment has been made and accepted or which have been received and accepted (Section 2.606).

§ 2.202. Final Written Expression: Parol or Extrinsic Evidence

Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented

- (1) by course of dealing or usage of trade (Section 1.205) or by course of performance (Section 2.208); and
- (2) by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—202.)

§ 2.203. Seals Inoperative

The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a contract for sale or an offer to buy or sell goods does not constitute the writing a sealed instrument and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to such a contract or offer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—203.)

§ 2.204. Formation in General

(a) A contract for sale of goods may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of such a contract.

(b) An agreement sufficient to constitute a contract for sale may be found even though the moment of its making is undetermined.

(c) Even though one or more terms are left open a contract for sale does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—204.)

§ 2.205. Firm Offers

An offer by a merchant to buy or sell goods in a signed writing which by its terms gives assurance that it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or if no time is stated for a reasonable time, but in no event may such period of irrevocability exceed three months; but any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—205.)

§ 2.206. Offer and Acceptance in Formation of Contract

(a) Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances

(1) an offer to make a contract shall be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances;

(2) an order or other offer to buy goods for prompt or current shipment shall be construed as inviting acceptance either by a prompt promise to ship or by the prompt or current shipment of conforming or non-conforming goods, but such a shipment of non-conforming goods does not constitute an acceptance if the seller seasonably notifies the buyer that the shipment is offered only as an accommodation to the buyer.

(b) Where the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—206.)

§ 2.207. Additional Terms in Acceptance or Confirmation

(a) A definite and seasonable expression of acceptance or a written confirmation which is sent within a reasonable time operates as an acceptance even though it states terms additional to or different from those offered or agreed upon, unless acceptance is expressly made conditional on assent to the additional or different terms.

(b) The additional terms are to be construed as proposals for addition to the contract. Between merchants such terms become part of the contract unless:

- (1) the offer expressly limits acceptance to the terms of the offer;
- (2) they materially alter it; or
- (3) notification of objection to them has already been given or is given within a reasonable time after notice of them is received.

(c) Conduct by both parties which recognizes the existence of a contract is sufficient to establish a contract for sale although the writings of the parties do not otherwise establish a contract. In such case the terms of the particular contract consist of those terms on which the writings of the parties agree, together with any supplementary terms incorporated under any other provisions of this title. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—207.)

§ 2.208. Course of Performance or Practical Construction

(a) Where the contract for sale involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection shall be relevant to determine the meaning of the agreement.

(b) The express terms of the agreement and any such course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, shall be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but when such construction is unreasonable, express terms shall control course of performance and course of performance shall control both course of dealing and usage of trade (Section 1.205).

(c) Subject to the provisions of the next section on modification and waiver, such course of performance shall be relevant to show a waiver or modification of any term inconsistent with such course of performance. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—208.)

§ 2.209. Modification, Rescission and Waiver

(a) An agreement modifying a contract within this chapter needs no consideration to be binding.

(b) A signed agreement which excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing cannot be otherwise modified or rescinded, but except as between merchants such a requirement on a form supplied by the merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

(c) The requirements of the statute of frauds section of this chapter (Section 2.201) must be satisfied if the contract as modified is within its provisions.

(d) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of Subsection (b) or (c) it can operate as a waiver.

(e) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of the contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—209.)

§ 2.210. Delegation of Performance; Assignment of Rights

(a) A party may perform his duty through a delegate unless otherwise agreed or unless the other party has a substantial interest in having his original promisor perform or control the acts required by the contract. No delegation of performance relieves the party delegating of any duty to perform or any liability for breach.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed all rights of either seller or buyer can be assigned except where the assignment would materially change the duty of the other party, or increase materially the burden or risk imposed on him by his contract, or impair materially his chance of obtaining return performance. A right to damages for breach of the whole contract or a right arising out of the assignor's due performance of his entire obligation can be assigned despite agreement otherwise.

(c) Unless the circumstances indicate the contrary a prohibition of assignment of "the contract" is to be construed as barring only the delegation to the assignee of the assignor's performance.

(d) An assignment of "the contract" or of "all my rights under the contract" or an assignment in similar general terms is an assignment of rights and unless the language or the circumstances (as in an assignment for security) indicate the contrary, it is a delegation of performance of the duties of the assignor and its acceptance by the assignee constitutes a promise by him to perform those duties. This promise is enforceable by either the assignor or the other party to the original contract.

(e) The other party may treat any assignment which delegates performance as creating reasonable grounds for insecurity and may without prejudice to his rights against the assignor demand assurances from the assignee (Section 2.609). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2-210.)

SUBCHAPTER C. GENERAL OBLIGATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF CONTRACT

§ 2.301. General Obligations of Parties

The obligation of the seller is to transfer and deliver and that of the buyer is to accept and pay in accordance with the contract. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2-301.)

§ 2.302. Unconscionable Contract or Clause

(a) If the court as a matter of law finds the contract or any clause of the contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made the court may refuse to enforce the contract, or it may enforce the remainder of the contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

(b) When it is claimed or appears to the court that the contract or any clause thereof may be unconscionable the parties shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to its commercial setting, purpose and effect to aid the court in making the determination. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2-302.)

§ 2.303. Allocation or Division of Risks

Where this chapter allocates a risk or a burden as between the parties "unless otherwise agreed", the agreement may not only shift the allocation but may also divide the risk or burden. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2-303.)

§ 2.304. Price Payable in Money, Goods, Realty, or Otherwise

(a) The price can be made payable in money or otherwise. If it is payable in whole or in part in goods each party is a seller of the goods which he is to transfer.

(b) Even though all or part of the price is payable in an interest in realty the transfer of the goods and the seller's obligations with reference to them are subject to this chapter, but not the transfer of the interest in realty or the transferor's obligations in connection therewith. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—304.)

§ 2.305. Open Price Term

(a) The parties if they so intend can conclude a contract for sale even though the price is not settled. In such a case the price is a reasonable price at the time for delivery if

- (1) nothing is said as to price; or
- (2) the price is left to be agreed by the parties and they fail to agree; or
- (3) the price is to be fixed in terms of some agreed market or other standard as set or recorded by a third person or agency and it is not so set or recorded.

(b) A price to be fixed by the seller or by the buyer means a price for him to fix in good faith.

(c) When a price left to be fixed otherwise than by agreement of the parties fails to be fixed through fault of one party the other may at his option treat the contract as cancelled or himself fix a reasonable price.

(d) Where, however, the parties intend not to be bound unless the price be fixed or agreed and it is not fixed or agreed there is no contract. In such a case the buyer must return any goods already received or if unable so to do must pay their reasonable value at the time of delivery and the seller must return any portion of the price paid on account. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—305.)

§ 2.306. Output, Requirements and Exclusive Dealings

(a) A term which measures the quantity by the output of the seller or the requirements of the buyer means such actual output or requirements as may occur in good faith, except that no quantity unreasonably disproportionate to any stated estimate or in the absence of a stated estimate to any normal or otherwise comparable prior output or requirements may be tendered or demanded.

(b) A lawful agreement by either the seller or the buyer for exclusive dealing in the kind of goods concerned imposes unless otherwise agreed an obligation by the seller to use best efforts to supply the goods and by the buyer to use best efforts to promote their sale. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—306.)

§ 2.307. Delivery in Single Lot or Several Lots

Unless otherwise agreed all goods called for by a contract for sale must be tendered in a single delivery and payment is due only on such tender but where the circumstances give either party the right to make or demand delivery in lots the price if it can be apportioned may be demanded for each lot. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—307.)

§ 2.308. Absence of Specified Place for Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed

- (1) the place for delivery of goods is the seller's place of business or if he has none his residence; but
- (2) in a contract for sale of identified goods which to the knowledge of the parties at the time of contracting are in some other place, that place is the place for their delivery; and
- (3) documents of title may be delivered through customary banking channels.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—308.)

§ 2.309. Absence of Specific Time Provisions; Notice of Termination

(a) The time for shipment or delivery or any other action under a contract if not provided in this chapter or agreed upon shall be a reasonable time.

(b) Where the contract provides for successive performances but is indefinite in duration it is valid for a reasonable time but unless otherwise agreed may be terminated at any time by either party.

(c) Termination of a contract by one party except on the happening of an agreed event requires that reasonable notification be received by the other party and an agreement dispensing with notification is invalid if its operation would be unconscionable. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—309.)

§ 2.310. Open Time for Payment or Running of Credit; Authority to Ship Under Reservation

Unless otherwise agreed

- (1) payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the goods even though the place of shipment is the place of delivery; and
- (2) if the seller is authorized to send the goods he may ship them under reservation, and may tender the documents of title, but the buyer may inspect the goods after their arrival before payment is due unless such inspection is inconsistent with the terms of the contract (Section 2.513); and
- (3) if delivery is authorized and made by way of documents of title otherwise than by Subdivision (2) then payment is due at the time and place at which the buyer is to receive the

§ 2.312

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

documents regardless of where the goods are to be received;
and

- (4) where the seller is required or authorized to ship the goods on credit the credit period runs from the time of shipment but post-dating the invoice or delaying its dispatch will correspondingly delay the starting of the credit period.

§ 2.311. Options and Cooperation Respecting Performance

(a) An agreement for sale which is otherwise sufficiently definite (Subsection (c) of Section 2.204) to be a contract is not made invalid by the fact that it leaves particulars of performance to be specified by one of the parties. Any such specification must be made in good faith and within limits set by commercial reasonableness.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed specifications relating to assortment of the goods are at the buyer's option and except as otherwise provided in Subsections (a) (3) and (c) of Section 2.319 specifications or arrangements relating to shipment are at the seller's option.

(c) Where such specification would materially affect the other party's performance but is not seasonably made or where one party's cooperation is necessary to the agreed performance of the other but is not seasonably forthcoming, the other party in addition to all other remedies

- (1) is excused for any resulting delay in his own performance;
and
- (2) may also either proceed to perform in any reasonable manner or after the time for a material part of his own performance treat the failure to specify or to cooperate as a breach by failure to deliver or accept the goods.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—311.)

§ 2.312. Warranty of Title and Against Infringement; Buyer's Obligation Against Infringement

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) there is in a contract for sale a warranty by the seller that

- (1) the title conveyed shall be good, and its transfer rightful;
and
- (2) the goods shall be delivered free from any security interest or other lien or encumbrance of which the buyer at the time of contracting has no knowledge.

(b) A warranty under Subsection (a) will be excluded or modified only by specific language or by circumstances which give the buyer reason to know that the person selling does not claim title in himself or that he is purporting to sell only such right or title as he or a third person may have.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed a seller who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind warrants that the goods shall be delivered free of the rightful claim of any third person by way of infringement or the like but a buyer who furnishes specifications to the seller must hold the seller harmless against any such claim which arises out of compliance with the specifications. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—312.)

§ 2.313. Express Warranties by Affirmation, Promise, Description, Sample

(a) Express warranties by the seller are created as follows:

- (1) Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the seller to the buyer which relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the affirmation or promise.
- (2) Any description of the goods which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods shall conform to the description.
- (3) Any sample or model which is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods shall conform to the sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the seller use formal words such a "warrant" or "guarantee" or that he have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the seller's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—313.)

§ 2.314. Implied Warranty: Merchantability; Usage of Trade

(a) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2.316), a warranty that the goods shall be merchantable is implied in a contract for their sale if the seller is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind. Under this section the serving for value of food or drink to be consumed either on the premises or elsewhere is a sale.

(b) Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as

- (1) pass without objection in the trade under the contract description; and
- (2) in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description; and

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 2.316

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (3) are fit for the ordinary purposes for which such goods are used; and
- (4) run, within the variations permitted by the agreement, of even kind, quality and quantity within each unit and among all units involved; and
- (5) are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the agreement may require; and
- (6) conform to the promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label if any.

(c) Unless excluded or modified (Section 2.316) other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—314.)

§ 2.315. Implied Warranty: Fitness for Particular Purpose

Where the seller at the time of contracting has reason to know any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the buyer is relying on the seller's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is unless excluded or modified under the next section an implied warranty that the goods shall be fit for such purpose. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—315.)

§ 2.316. Exclusion or Modification of Warranties

(a) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit warranty shall be construed wherever reasonable as consistent with each other; but subject to the provisions of this chapter on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2.202) negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that such construction is unreasonable.

(b) Subject to Subsection (c), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it the language must mention merchantability and in case of a writing must be conspicuous, and to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness the exclusion must be by a writing and conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it states, for example, that "There are no warranties which extend beyond the description on the face hereof."

(c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b)

- (1) unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions like "as is", "with all faults" or other language which in common understanding calls the buyer's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty; and

§ 2.316 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) when the buyer before entering into the contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as he desired or has refused to examine the goods there is no implied warranty with regard to defects which an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed to him; and
- (3) an implied warrant can also be excluded or modified by course of dealing or course of performance or usage of trade.
- (d) Remedies for breach of warranty can be limited in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on liquidation or limitation of damages and on contractual modification of remedy (Sections 2.718 and 2.719).
- (e) The implied warranties of merchantability and fitness shall not be applicable to the furnishing of human blood, blood plasma, or other human tissue or organs from a blood bank or reservoir of such other tissues or organs. Such blood, blood plasma or tissue or organs shall not for the purpose of this Title be considered commodities subject to sale or barter, but shall be considered as medical services. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—316.)

§ 2.317. Cumulation and Conflict of Warranties Express or Implied

Warranties whether express or implied shall be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if such construction is unreasonable the intention of the parties shall determine which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention the following rules apply:

- (1) Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.
- (2) A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.
- (3) Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

§ 2.318. Chapter Neutral on Question of Third Party Beneficiaries of Warranties of Quality and on Need for Priv-ity of Contract

This chapter does not provide whether anyone other than a buyer may take advantage of an express or implied warranty of quality made to the buyer or whether the buyer or anyone entitled to take advantage of a warranty made to the buyer may sue a third party other than the immediate seller for deficiencies in the quality of the goods. These matters are left to the courts for their determination. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—318.)

§ 2.319. F.O.B. and F.A.S. Terms

(a) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.O.B. (which means “free on board”) at a named place, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which

- (1) when the term is F.O.B. the place of shipment, the seller must at that place ship the goods in the manner provided in this chapter (Section 2.504) and bear the expense and risk of putting them into the possession of the carrier; or
- (2) when the term is F.O.B. the place of destination, the seller must at his own expense and risk transport the goods to that place and there tender delivery of them in the manner provided in this chapter (Section 2.503);
- (3) when under either Subdivision (1) or (2) the term is also F.O.B. vessel, car or other vehicle, the seller must in addition at his own expense and risk load the goods on board. If the term is F.O.B. vessel the buyer must name the vessel and in an appropriate case the seller must comply with the provisions of this chapter on the form of bill of lading (Section 2.323).

(b) Unless otherwise agreed the term F.A.S. vessel (which means “free alongside”), at a named port, even though used only in connection with the stated price, is a delivery term under which the seller must

- (1) at his own expense and risk deliver the goods alongside the vessel in the manner usual in that port or on a dock designated and provided by the buyer; and
- (2) obtain and tender a receipt for the goods in exchange for which the carrier is under a duty to issue a bill of lading.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed in any case falling within Subsection (a) (1) or (3) or Subsection (b) the buyer must seasonably give any needed instructions for making delivery, including when the term is F.A.S. or F.O.B. the loading berth of the vessel and in an appropriate case its name and sailing date. The seller may treat the failure of needed instructions as a failure of cooperation under this chapter (Section 2.311). He may also at his option move the goods in any reasonable manner preparatory to delivery or shipment.

(d) Under the term F.O.B. vessel or F.A.S. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—319.)

§ 2.320 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.320. C.I.F. and C. & F. Terms

(a) The term C.I.F. means that the price includes in a lump sum the cost of the goods and the insurance and freight to the named destination. The term C. & F. or C.F. means that the price so includes cost and freight to the named destination.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed and even though used only in connection with the stated price and destination, the term C.I.F. destination or its equivalent requires the seller at his own expense and risk to

- (1) put the goods into the possession of a carrier at the port for shipment and obtain a negotiable bill or bills of lading covering the entire transportation to the named destination; and
- (2) load the goods and obtain a receipt from the carrier (which may be contained in the bill of lading) showing that the freight has been paid or provided for; and
- (3) obtain a policy or certificate of insurance, including any war risk insurance, of a kind and on terms then current at the port of shipment in the usual amount, in the currency of the contract, shown to cover the same goods covered by the bill of lading and providing for payment of loss to the order of the buyer or for the account of whom it may concern; but the seller may add to the price the amount of the premium for any such war risk insurance; and
- (4) prepare an invoice of the goods and procure any other documents required to effect shipment or to comply with the contract; and
- (5) forward and tender with commercial promptness all the documents in due form and with any indorsement necessary to perfect the buyer's rights.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed the term C. & F. or its equivalent has the same effect and imposes upon the seller the same obligations and risks as a C.I.F. term except the obligation as to insurance.

(d) Under the term C.I.F. or C. & F. unless otherwise agreed the buyer must make payment against tender of the required documents and the seller may not tender nor the buyer demand delivery of the goods in substitution for the documents. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—320.)

§ 2.321. C.I.F. or C. & F.: "Net Landed Weights"; "Payment on Arrival"; Warranty of Condition on Arrival

Under a contract containing a term C.I.F. or C. & F.

(a) Where the price is based on or is to be adjusted according to "net landed weights", "delivered weights", "out turn" quantity or quality or the like, unless otherwise agreed the seller must reasonably estimate the price. The payment due on tender of the documents called for by the contract is the amount so estimated, but after final adjustment of the price a settlement must be made with commercial promptness.

§ 2.323

(b) An agreement described in Subsection (a) or any warranty of quality or condition of the goods on arrival places upon the seller the risk of ordinary deterioration, shrinkage and the like in transportation but has no effect on the place or time of identification to the contract for sale or delivery or on the passing of the risk of loss.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed where the contract provides for payment on or after arrival of the goods the seller must before payment allow such preliminary inspection as is feasible; but if the goods are lost delivery of the documents and payment are due when the goods should have arrived. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—321.)

§ 2.322. Delivery “Ex-Ship”

(a) Unless otherwise agreed a term for delivery of goods “ex-ship” (which means from the carrying vessel) or in equivalent language is not restricted to a particular ship and requires delivery from a ship which has reached a place at the named port of destination where goods of the kind are usually discharged.

(b) Under such a term unless otherwise agreed

(1) the seller must discharge all liens arising out of the carriage and furnish the buyer with a direction which puts the carrier under a duty to deliver the goods; and

(2) the risk of loss does not pass to the buyer until the goods leave the ship’s tackle or are otherwise properly unloaded.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—322.)

§ 2.323. Form of Bill of Lading Required in Overseas Shipment; “Overseas”

(a) Where the contract contemplates overseas shipment and contains a term C.I.F. or C. & F. or F.O.B. vessel, the seller unless otherwise agreed must obtain a negotiable bill of lading stating that the goods have been loaded on board or, in the case of a term C.I.F. or C. & F., received for shipment.

(b) Where in a case within Subsection (a) a bill of lading has been issued in a set of parts, unless otherwise agreed if the documents are not to be sent from abroad the buyer may demand tender of the full set; otherwise only one part of the bill of lading need be tendered. Even if the agreement expressly requires a full set

§ 2.323 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (1) due tender of a single part is acceptable within the provisions of this chapter on cure of improper delivery (Subsection (a) of Section 2.508); and
 - (2) even though the full set is demanded, if the documents are sent from abroad the person tendering an incomplete set may nevertheless require payment upon furnishing an indemnity which the buyer in good faith deems adequate.
- (c) A shipment by water or by air or a contract contemplating such shipment is "overseas" insofar as by usage of trade or agreement it is subject to the commercial, financing or shipping practices characteristic of international deep water commerce. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—323.)

§ 2.324. "No Arrival, No Sale" Term

Under a term "no arrival, no sale" or terms of like meaning, unless otherwise agreed,

- (1) the seller must properly ship conforming goods and if they arrive by any means he must tender them on arrival but he assumes no obligation that the goods will arrive unless he has caused the non-arrival; and
- (2) where without fault of the seller the goods are in part lost or have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract or arrive after the contract time, the buyer may proceed as if there had been casualty to identified goods (Section 2.613).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—324.)

§ 2.325. "Letter of Credit" Term; "Confirmed Credit"

(a) Failure of the buyer seasonably to furnish an agreed letter of credit is a breach of the contract for sale.

(b) The delivery to seller of a proper letter of credit suspends the buyer's obligation to pay. If the letter of credit is dishonored, the seller may on seasonable notification to the buyer require payment directly from him.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed the term "letter of credit" or "banker's credit" in a contract for sale means an irrevocable credit issued by a financing agency of good repute and, where the shipment is overseas, of good international repute. The term "confirmed credit" means that the credit must also carry the direct obligation of such an agency which does business in the seller's financial market. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—325.)

§ 2.326. Sale on Approval and Sale or Return; Consignment Sales and Rights of Creditors

(a) Unless otherwise agreed, if delivered goods may be returned by the buyer even though they conform to the contract, the transaction is

- (1) a "sale on approval" if the goods are delivered primarily for use, and
- (2) a "sale or return" if the goods are delivered primarily for resale.

(b) Except as provided in Subsection (c), goods held on approval are not subject to the claims of the buyer's creditors until acceptance; goods held on sale or return are subject to such claims while in the buyer's possession.

(c) Where goods are delivered to a person for sale and such person maintains a place of business at which he deals in goods of the kind involved, under a name other than the name of the person making delivery, then with respect to claims of creditors of the person conducting the business the goods are deemed to be on sale or return. The provisions of this subsection are applicable even though an agreement purports to reserve title to the person making delivery until payment or resale or uses such words as "on consignment" or "on memorandum". However, this subsection is not applicable if the person making delivery

- (1) complies with an applicable law providing for a consignor's interest or the like to be evidenced by a sign, or
- (2) establishes that the person conducting the business is generally known by his creditors to be substantially engaged in selling the goods of others, or
- (3) complies with the filing provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9).

(d) Any "or return" term of a contract for sale is to be treated as a separate contract for sale within the statute of frauds section of this chapter (Section 2.201) and as contradicting the sale aspect of the contract within the provisions of this chapter on parol or extrinsic evidence (Section 2.202). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—326.)

§ 2.327. Special Incidents of Sale on Approval and Sale or Return

- (a) Under a sale on approval unless otherwise agreed
- (1) although the goods are identified to the contract the risk of loss and the title do not pass to the buyer until acceptance; and
 - (2) use of the goods consistent with the purpose of trial is not acceptance but failure seasonably to notify the seller of election to return the goods is acceptance, and if the goods conform to the contract acceptance of any part is acceptance of the whole; and

§ 2.327 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (3) after due notification of election to return, the return is at the seller's risk and expense but a merchant buyer must follow any reasonable instructions.
- (b) Under a sale or return unless otherwise agreed
 - (1) the option to return extends to the whole or any commercial unit of the goods while in substantially their original condition, but must be exercised seasonably; and
 - (2) the return is at the buyer's risk and expense.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—327.)

§ 2.328. Sale by Auction

(a) In a sale by auction if goods are put up in lots each lot is the subject of a separate sale.

(b) A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer so announces by the fall of the hammer or in other customary manner. Where a bid is made while the hammer is falling in acceptance of a prior bid the auctioneer may in his discretion reopen the bidding or declare the goods sold under the bid on which the hammer was falling.

(c) Such a sale is with reserve unless the goods are in explicit terms put up without reserve. In an auction with reserve the auctioneer may withdraw the goods at any time until he announces completion of the sale. In an auction without reserve, after the auctioneer calls for bids on an article or lot, that article or lot cannot be withdrawn unless no bid is made within a reasonable time. In either case a bidder may retract his bid until the auctioneer's announcement of completion of the sale, but a bidder's retraction does not revive any previous bid.

(d) If the auctioneer knowingly receives a bid on the seller's behalf or the seller makes or procures such a bid, and notice has not been given that liberty for such bidding is reserved, the buyer may at his option avoid the sale or take the goods at the price of the last good faith bid prior to the completion of the sale. This subsection shall not apply to any bid at a forced sale. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—328.)

SUBCHAPTER D. TITLE, CREDITORS AND GOOD FAITH
PURCHASERS

§ 2.401. Passing of Title; Reservation for Security; Limited Application of This Section

Each provision of this chapter with regard to the rights, obligations and remedies of the seller, the buyer, purchasers or other third parties applies irrespective of title to the goods except where the provision refers to such title. Insofar as situations are not covered by the other provisions of this chapter and matters concerning title become material the following rules apply:

(a) Title to goods cannot pass under a contract for sale prior to their identification to the contract (Section 2.501), and unless otherwise explicitly agreed the buyer acquires by their identification a special property as limited by this title. Any retention or reservation by the seller of the title (property) in goods shipped or delivered to the buyer is limited in effect to a reservation of a security interest. Subject to these provisions and to the provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9), title to goods passes from the seller to the buyer in any manner and on any conditions explicitly agreed on by the parties.

(b) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed title passes to the buyer at the time and place at which the seller completes his performance with reference to the physical delivery of the goods, despite any reservation of a security interest and even though a document of title is to be delivered at a different time or place; and in particular and despite any reservation of a security interest by the bill of lading

(1) if the contract requires or authorizes the seller to send the goods to the buyer but does not require him to deliver them at destination, title passes to the buyer at the time and place of shipment; but

(2) if the contract requires delivery at destination, title passes on tender there.

(c) Unless otherwise explicitly agreed where delivery is to be made without moving the goods,

(1) if the seller is to deliver a document of title, title passes at the time when and the place where he delivers such documents;
or

(2) if the goods are at the time of contracting already identified and no documents are to be delivered, title passes at the time and place of contracting.

(d) A rejection or other refusal by the buyer to receive or retain the goods, whether or not justified, or a justified revocation of acceptance reverts title to the goods in the seller. Such reversion occurs by operation of law and is not a "sale". (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—401.)

§ 2.402. Rights of Seller's Creditors Against Sold Goods

(a) Except as provided in Subsections (b) and (c), rights of unsecured creditors of the seller with respect to goods which have been identified to a contract for sale are subject to the buyer's rights to recover the goods under this chapter (Section 2.502 and 2.716).

(b) A creditor of the seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against him a retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated, except that retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by a merchant-seller for a commercially reasonable time after a sale or identification is not fraudulent.

(c) Nothing in this chapter shall be deemed to impair the rights of creditors of the seller

- (1) under the provisions of the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9); or
- (2) where identification to the contract or delivery is made not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a pre-existing claim for money, security or the like and is made under circumstances which under any rule of law of the state where the goods are situated would apart from this chapter constitute the transaction a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.

§ 2.403. Power to Transfer; Good Faith Purchase of Goods; "Entrusting"

(a) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though

- (1) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser, or
- (2) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored, or
- (3) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale", or

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(4) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(b) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(c) "Entrusting" includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods have been such as to be larcenous under the criminal law.

(d) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the chapters on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9), Bulk Transfers (Chapter 6) and Documents of Title (Chapter 7). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—403.)

SUBCHAPTER E. PERFORMANCE

§ 2.501. Insurable Interest in Goods; Manner of Identification of Goods

(a) The buyer obtains a special property and an insurable interest in goods by identification of existing goods as goods to which the contract refers even though the goods so identified are non-conforming and he has an option to return or reject them. Such identification can be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement identification occurs

- (1) when the contract is made if it is for the sale of goods already existing and identified;
- (2) if the contract is for the sale of future goods other than those described in Subdivision (3), when goods are shipped, marked or otherwise designated by the seller as goods to which the contract refers;
- (3) when the crops are planted or otherwise become growing crops or the young are conceived if the contract is for the sale of unborn young to be born within twelve months after contracting or for the sale of crops to be harvested within twelve months or the next normal harvest season after contracting whichever is longer.

(b) The seller retains an insurable interest in goods so long as title to or any security interest in the goods remains in him and where the identification is by the seller alone he may until default or insolvency or notification to the buyer that the identification is final substitute other goods for those identified.

(c) Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—501.)

§ 2.502. Buyer's Right to Goods on Seller's Insolvency

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) and even though the goods have not been shipped a buyer who has paid a part or all of the price of goods in which he has a special property under the provisions of the immediately preceding section may on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of their price recover them from the seller if the seller becomes insolvent within ten days after receipt of the first installment on their price.

(b) If the identification creating his special property has been made by the buyer he acquires the right to recover the goods only if they conform to the contract for sale. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—502.)

§ 2.503. Manner of Seller's Tender of Delivery

(a) Tender of delivery requires that the seller put and hold conforming goods at the buyer's disposition and give the buyer any notification reasonably necessary to enable him to take delivery. The manner, time and place for tender are determined by the agreement and this chapter, and in particular

- (1) tender must be at a reasonable hour, and if it is of goods they must be kept available for the period reasonably necessary to enable the buyer to take possession; but
- (2) unless otherwise agreed the buyer must furnish facilities reasonably suited to the receipt of the goods.

(b) Where the case is within the next section respecting shipment tender requires that the seller comply with its provisions.

(c) Where the seller is required to deliver at a particular destination tender requires that he comply with Subsection (a) and also in any appropriate case tender documents as described in Subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Where goods are in the possession of a bailee and are to be delivered without being moved

- (1) tender requires that the seller either tender a negotiable document of title covering such goods or procure acknowledgement by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; but
- (2) tender to the buyer of a non-negotiable document of title or of a written direction to the bailee to deliver is sufficient tender unless the buyer seasonably objects, and receipt by the bailee of notification of the buyer's rights fixes those rights as against the bailee and all third persons; but risk of loss of the goods and of any failure by the bailee to honor the non-negotiable document of title or to obey the direction remains on the seller until the buyer has had a reasonable time to present the document or direction, and a refusal by the bailee to honor the document or to obey the direction defeats the tender.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 2.505

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (e) Where the contract requires the seller to deliver documents
 - (1) he must tender all such documents in correct form, except as provided in this chapter with respect to bills of lading in a set (Subsection (b) of Section 2.323); and
 - (2) tender through customary banking channels is sufficient and dishonor of a draft accompanying the documents constitutes non-acceptance or rejection.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—503.)

§ 2.504. Shipment by Seller

Where the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer and the contract does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, then unless otherwise agreed he must

- (1) put the goods in the possession of such a carrier and make such a contract for their transportation as may be reasonable having regard to the nature of the goods and other circumstances of the case; and
- (2) obtain and promptly deliver or tender in due form any document necessary to enable the buyer to obtain possession of the goods or otherwise required by the agreement or by usage of trade; and
- (3) promptly notify the buyer of the shipment.

Failure to notify the buyer under Subdivision (3) or to make a proper contract under Subdivision (1) is a ground for rejection only if material delay or loss ensues. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—504.)

§ 2.505. Seller's Shipment Under Reservation

(a) Where the seller has identified goods to the contract by or before shipment:

- (1) his procurement of a negotiable bill of lading to his own order or otherwise reserves in him a security interest in the goods. His procurement of the bill to the order of a financing agency or of the buyer indicates in addition only the seller's expectation of transferring that interest to the person named.
- (2) a non-negotiable bill of lading to himself or his nominee reserves possession of the goods as security but except in a case of conditional delivery (Subsection (b) of Section 2.507) a non-negotiable bill of lading naming the buyer as consignee reserves no security interest even though the seller retains possession of the bill of lading.

(b) When shipment by the seller with reservation of a security interest is in violation of the contract for sale it constitutes an improper contract for transportation within the preceding section but impairs neither the rights given to the buyer by shipment and identification of the goods to the contract nor the seller's powers as a holder of a negotiable document. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—505.)

§ 2.506. Rights of Financing Agency

(a) A financing agency by paying or purchasing for value a draft which relates to a shipment of goods acquires to the extent of the payment or purchase and in addition to its own rights under the draft and any document of title securing it any rights of the shipper in the goods including the right to stop delivery and the shipper's right to have the draft honored by the buyer.

(b) The right to reimbursement of a financing agency which has in good faith honored or purchased the draft under commitment to or authority from the buyer is not impaired by subsequent discovery of defects with reference to any relevant document which was apparently regular on its face. (59 Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—506.)

§ 2.507. Effect of Seller's Tender; Delivery on Condition

(a) Tender of delivery is a condition to the buyer's duty to accept the goods and, unless otherwise agreed, to his duty to pay for them. Tender entitles the seller to acceptance of the goods and to payment according to the contract.

(b) Where payment is due and demanded on the delivery to the buyer of goods or documents of title, his right as against the seller to retain or dispose of them is conditional upon his making the payment due. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—507.)

§ 2.508. Cure by Seller of Improper Tender or Delivery; Replacement

(a) Where any tender or delivery by the seller is rejected because non-conforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the seller may seasonably notify the buyer of his intention to cure and may then within the contract time make a conforming delivery.

(b) Where the buyer rejects a non-conforming tender which the seller had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance the seller may if he seasonably notifies the buyer have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—508.)

§ 2.509. Risk of Loss in the Absence of Breach

(a) Where the contract requires or authorizes the seller to ship the goods by carrier

(1) if it does not require him to deliver them at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier even though the shipment is under reservation (Section 2.505); but

(2) if it does require him to deliver them at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the buyer when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the buyer to take delivery.

(b) Where the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the buyer

(1) on his receipt of a negotiable document of title covering the goods; or

(2) on acknowledgement by the bailee of the buyer's right to possession of the goods; or

(3) after his receipt of a non-negotiable document of title or other written direction to deliver, as provided in Subsection (d) (2) of Section 2.503.

(c) In any case not within Subsection (a) or (b), the risk of loss passes to the buyer on his receipt of the goods if the seller is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the buyer on tender of delivery.

(d) The provisions of this section are subject to contrary agreement of the parties and to the provisions of this chapter on sale on approval (Section 2.327) and on effect of breach on risk of loss (Section 2.510). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—509.)

§ 2.510. Effect of Breach on Risk of Loss

(a) Where a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the contract as to give a right of rejection the risk of their loss remains on the seller until cure or acceptance.

(b) Where the buyer rightfully revokes acceptance he may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as having rested on the seller from the beginning.

(c) Where the buyer as to conforming goods already identified to the contract for sale repudiates or is otherwise in breach before risk of their loss has passed to him, the seller may to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage treat the risk of loss as resting on the buyer for a commercially reasonable time. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—510.)

§ 2.511 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.511. Tender of Payment by Buyer; Payment by Check

(a) Unless otherwise agreed tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery.

(b) Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this title on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (Section 3.802), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—511.)

§ 2.512. Payment by Buyer Before Inspection

(a) Where the contract requires payment before inspection non-conformity of the goods does not excuse the buyer from so making payment unless

- (1) the non-conformity appears without inspection; or
- (2) despite tender of the required documents circumstances would justify injunction against honor under the provisions of this title (Section 5.114).

(b) Payment pursuant to Subsection (a) does not constitute an acceptance of goods or impair the buyer's right to inspect or any of his remedies. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—512.)

§ 2.513. Buyer's Right to Inspection of Goods

(a) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to Subsection (c), where goods are tendered or delivered or identified to the contract for sale, the buyer has a right before payment or acceptance to inspect them at any reasonable place and time and in any reasonable manner. When the seller is required or authorized to send the goods to the buyer, the inspection may be after their arrival.

(b) Expenses of inspection must be borne by the buyer but may be recovered from the seller if the goods do not conform and are rejected.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to the provisions of this chapter on C.I.F. contracts (Subsection (c) of Section 2.321), the buyer is not entitled to inspect the goods before payment of the price when the contract provides

- (1) for delivery "C.O.D." or on other like terms; or
- (2) for payment against documents of title, except where such payment is due only after the goods are to become available for inspection.

§ 2.601

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) A place or method of inspection fixed by the parties is presumed to be exclusive but unless otherwise expressly agreed it does not postpone identification or shift the place for delivery or for passing the risk of loss. If compliance becomes impossible, inspection shall be as provided in this section unless the place or method fixed was clearly intended as an indispensable condition failure of which avoids the contract. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—513.)

§ 2.514. When Documents Deliverable on Acceptance; When on Payment

Unless otherwise agreed documents against which a draft is drawn are to be delivered to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—514.)

§ 2.515. Preserving Evidence of Goods in Dispute

In furtherance of the adjustment of any claim or dispute

- (1) either party on reasonable notification to the other and for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and preserving evidence has the right to inspect, test and sample the goods including such of them as may be in the possession or control of the other; and
- (2) the parties may agree to a third party inspection or survey to determine the conformity or condition of the goods and may agree that the findings shall be binding upon them in any subsequent litigation or adjustment.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—515.)

SUBCHAPTER F. BREACH, REPUDIATION AND EXCUSE

§ 2.601. Buyer's Rights on Improper Delivery

Subject to the provisions of this chapter on breach in installment contracts (Section 2.612) and unless otherwise agreed under the sections on contractual limitations of remedy (Sections 2.718 and 2.719), if the goods or the tender of delivery fail in any respect to conform to the contract, the buyer may

- (1) reject the whole; or
- (2) accept the whole; or
- (3) accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—601.)

§ 2.602 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.602. Manner and Effect of Rightful Rejection

(a) Rejection of goods must be within a reasonable time after their delivery or tender. It is ineffective unless the buyer seasonably notifies the seller.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the two following sections on rejected goods (Sections 2.603 and 2.604),

- (1) after rejection any exercise of ownership by the buyer with respect to any commercial unit is wrongful as against the seller; and
- (2) if the buyer has before rejection taken physical possession of goods in which he does not have a security interest under the provisions of this chapter (Subsection (c) of Section 2.711), he is under a duty after rejection to hold them with reasonable care at the seller's disposition for a time sufficient to permit the seller to remove them; but
- (3) the buyer has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

(c) The seller's rights with respect to goods wrongfully rejected are governed by the provisions of this chapter on Seller's remedies in general (Section 2.703). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—602.)

§ 2.603. Merchant Buyer's Duties as to Rightfully Rejected Goods

(a) Subject to any security interest in the buyer (Subsection (c) of Section 2.711), when the seller has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection a merchant buyer is under a duty after rejection of goods in his possession or control to follow any reasonable instructions received from the seller with respect to the goods and in the absence of such instructions to make reasonable efforts to sell them for the seller's account if they are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.

(b) When the buyer sells goods under Subsection (a), he is entitled to reimbursement from the seller or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and selling them, and if the expenses include no selling commission then to such commission as is usual in the trade or if there is none to a reasonable sum not exceeding ten per cent on the gross proceeds.

(c) In complying with this section the buyer is held only to good faith and good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance nor conversion nor the basis of an action for damages. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—603.)

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 2.606

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 2.604. Buyer's Options as to Salvage of Rightfully Rejected Goods

Subject to the provisions of the immediately preceding section on perishables if the seller gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection the buyer may store the rejected goods for the seller's account or reship them to him or resell them for the seller's account with reimbursement as provided in the preceding section. Such action is not acceptance or conversion. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—604.)

§ 2.605. Waiver of Buyer's Objections by Failure to Particularize

(a) The buyer's failure to state in connection with rejection a particular defect which is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes him from relying on the unstated defect to justify rejection or to establish breach

- (1) where the seller could have cured it if stated seasonably; or
- (2) between merchants when the seller has after rejection made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the buyer proposes to rely.

(b) Payment against documents made without reservation of rights precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—605.)

§ 2.606. What Constitutes Acceptance of Goods

(a) Acceptance of goods occurs when the buyer

- (1) after a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods signifies to the seller that the goods are conforming or that he will take or retain them in spite of their non-conformity; or
- (2) fails to make an effective rejection (Subsection (a) of Section 2.602), but such acceptance does not occur until the buyer has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect them; or
- (3) does any act inconsistent with the seller's ownership; but if such act is wrongful as against the seller it is an acceptance only if ratified by him.

(b) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—606.)

§ 2.607 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.607. Effect of Acceptance; Notice of Breach; Burden of Establishing Breach After Acceptance; Notice of Claim or Litigation to Person Answerable Over

(a) The buyer must pay at the contract rate for any goods accepted.

(b) Acceptance of goods by the buyer precludes rejection of the goods accepted and if made with knowledge of a non-conformity cannot be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the non-conformity would be seasonably cured but acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by this chapter for non-conformity.

(c) Where a tender has been accepted

(1) the buyer must within a reasonable time after he discovers or should have discovered any breach notify the seller of breach or be barred from any remedy; and

(2) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (Subsection (c) of Section 2.312) and the buyer is sued as a result of such a breach he must so notify the seller within a reasonable time after he receives notice of the litigation or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation.

(d) The burden is on the buyer to establish any breach with respect to the goods accepted.

(e) Where the buyer is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which his seller is answerable over

(1) he may give his seller written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the seller may come in and defend and that if the seller does not do so he will be bound in any action against him by his buyer by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the seller after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend he is so bound.

(2) if the claim is one for infringement or the like (Subsection (c) of Section 2.312) the original seller may demand in writing that his buyer turn over to him control of the litigation including settlement or else be barred from any remedy over and if he also agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the buyer after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control the buyer is so barred.

(f) The provisions of Subsections (c), (d) and (e) apply to any obligation of a buyer to hold the seller harmless against infringement or the like (Subsection (c) of Section 2.312). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—607.)

§ 2.608. Revocation of Acceptance in Whole or in Part

(a) The buyer may revoke his acceptance of a lot or commercial unit whose non-conformity substantially impairs its value to him if he has accepted it

- (1) on the reasonable assumption that its non-conformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or
- (2) without discovery of such non-conformity if his acceptance was reasonably induced either by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance or by the seller's assurances.

(b) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the buyer discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods which is not caused by their own defects. It is not effective until the buyer notifies the seller of it.

(c) A buyer who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if he had rejected them. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—608.)

§ 2.609. Right to Adequate Assurance of Performance

(a) A contract for sale imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired. When reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party the other may in writing demand adequate assurance of due performance and until he receives such assurance may if commercially reasonable suspend any performance for which he has not already received the agreed return.

(b) Between merchants the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered shall be determined according to commercial standards.

(c) Acceptance of any improper delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

(d) After receipt of a justified demand failure to provide within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days such assurance of due performance as is adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is a repudiation of the contract. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—609.)

§ 2.610. Anticipatory Repudiation

When either party repudiates the contract with respect to a performance not yet due the loss of which will substantially impair the value of the contract to the other, the aggrieved party may

- (1) for a commercially reasonable time await performance by the repudiating party; or

§ 2.610 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) resort to any remedy for breach (Section 2.703 or Section 2.711), even though he has notified the repudiating party that he would await the latter's performance and has urged retraction; and
- (3) in either case suspend his own performance or proceed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter on the seller's right to identify goods to the contract notwithstanding breach or to salvage unfinished goods (Section 2.704).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—610.)

§ 2.611. Retraction of Anticipatory Repudiation

(a) Until the repudiating party's next performance is due he can retract his repudiation unless the aggrieved party has since the repudiation cancelled or materially changed his position or otherwise indicated that he considers the repudiation final.

(b) Retraction may be by any method which clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform, but must include any assurance justifiably demanded under the provisions of this chapter (Section 2.609).

(c) Retraction reinstates the repudiating party's rights under the contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—611.)

§ 2.612. "Installment Contract"; Breach

(a) An "installment contract" is one which requires or authorizes the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate contract" or its equivalent.

(b) The buyer may reject any installment which is non-conforming if the non-conformity substantially impairs the value of that installment and cannot be cured or if the non-conformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the non-conformity does not fall within Subsection (c) and the seller gives adequate assurance of its cure the buyer must accept that installment.

(c) Whenever non-conformity or default with respect to one or more installments substantially impairs the value of the whole contract there is a breach of the whole. But the aggrieved party reinstates the contract if he accepts a non-conforming installment without seasonably notifying of cancellation or if he brings an action with respect only to past installments or demands performance as to future installments. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—612.)

§ 2.613. Casualty to Identified Goods

Where the contract requires for its performance goods identified when the contract is made, and the goods suffer casualty without fault of either party before the risk of loss passes to the buyer, or in a proper case under a "no arrival, no sale" term (Section 2.324) then

- (1) if the loss is total the contract is avoided; and
- (2) if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as no longer to conform to the contract the buyer may nevertheless demand inspection and at his option either treat the contract as avoided or accept the goods with due allowance from the contract price for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the seller.

§ 2.614. Substituted Performance

(a) Where without fault of either party the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail or an agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, such substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.

(b) If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation, the seller may withhold or stop delivery unless the buyer provides a means or manner of payment which is commercially a substantial equivalent. If delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the buyer's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive or predatory. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—614.)

§ 2.615. Excuse by Failure of Presupposed Conditions

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to the preceding section on substituted performance:

- (1) Delay in delivery or non-delivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with Subdivisions (2) and (3) is not a breach of his duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid.

§ 2.615 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) Where the causes mentioned in Subdivision (1) affect only a part of the seller's capacity to perform, he must allocate production and deliveries among his customers but may at his option include regular customers not then under contract as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable.
- (3) The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or non-delivery and, when allocation is required under Subdivision (2), of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer.

§ 2.616. Procedure on Notice Claiming Excuse

(a) Where the buyer receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under the preceding section he may by written notification to the seller as to any delivery concerned, and where the prospective deficiency substantially impairs the value of the whole contract under the provisions of this chapter relating to breach of installment contracts (Section 2.612), then also as to the whole,

- (1) terminate and thereby discharge any unexecuted portion of the contract; or
- (2) modify the contract by agreeing to take his available quota in substitution.

(b) If after receipt of such notification from the seller the buyer fails so to modify the contract within a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days the contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

(c) The provisions of this section may not be negated by agreement except insofar as the seller has assumed a greater obligation under the preceding section. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—616.)

SUBCHAPTER G. REMEDIES

§ 2.701. Remedies for Breach of Collateral Contracts Not Impaired

Remedies for breach of any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to a contract for sale are not impaired by the provisions of this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—701.)

§ 2.702. Seller's Remedies on Discovery of Buyer's Insolvency

(a) Where the seller discovers the buyer to be insolvent he may refuse delivery except for cash including payment for all goods theretofore delivered under the contract, and stop delivery under this chapter (Section 2.705).

(b) Where the seller discovers that the buyer has received goods on credit while insolvent he may reclaim the goods upon demand made within ten days after the receipt, but if misrepresentation of solvency has been made to the particular seller in writing within three months before delivery the ten day limitation does not apply. Except as provided in this subsection the seller may not base a right to reclaim goods on the buyer's fraudulent or innocent misrepresentation of solvency or of intent to pay.

(c) The seller's right to reclaim under Subsection (b) is subject to the rights of a buyer in ordinary course or other good faith purchaser or lien creditor under this chapter (Section 2.403). Successful reclamation of goods excludes all other remedies with respect to them. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—702.)

§ 2.703. Seller's Remedies in General

Where the buyer wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods or fails to make a payment due on or before delivery or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then with respect to any goods directly affected and, if the breach is of the whole contract (Section 2.612), then also with respect to the whole undelivered balance, the aggrieved seller may

- (1) withhold delivery of such goods;
- (2) stop delivery by any bailee as hereafter provided (Section 2.705);
- (3) proceed under the next section respecting goods still unidentified to the contract;
- (4) resell and recover damages as hereafter provided (Section 2.706);
- (5) recover damages for non-acceptance (Section 2.708) or in a proper case the price (Section 2.709);
- (6) cancel.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—703.)

§ 2.704 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.704. Seller's Right to Identify Goods to the Contract Notwithstanding Breach or to Salvage Unfinished Goods

- (a) An aggrieved seller under the preceding section may
 - (1) identify to the contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time he learned of the breach they are in his possession or control;
 - (2) treat as the subject of resale goods which have demonstrably been intended for the particular contract even though those goods are unfinished.

(b) Where the goods are unfinished an aggrieved seller may in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization either complete the manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the contract or cease manufacture and resell for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—704.)

§ 2.705. Seller's Stoppage of Delivery in Transit or Otherwise

(a) The seller may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee when he discovers the buyer to be insolvent (Section 2.702) and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, plane-load or larger shipments of express or freight when the buyer repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery or if for any other reason the seller has a right to withhold or reclaim the goods.

- (b) As against such buyer the seller may stop delivery until
 - (1) receipt of the goods by the buyer; or
 - (2) acknowledgment to the buyer by any bailee of the goods except a carrier that the bailee holds the goods for the buyer; or
 - (3) such acknowledgment to the buyer by a carrier by reshipment or as warehouseman; or
 - (4) negotiation to the buyer of any negotiable document of title covering the goods.
- (c) (1) To stop delivery the seller must so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.
- (2) After such notification the bailee must hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the seller but the seller is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.
- (3) If a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods the bailee is not obliged to obey a notification to stop until surrender of the document.

- (4) A carrier who has issued a non-negotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

§ 2.706. Seller's Resale Including Contract for Resale

(a) Under the conditions stated in Section 2.703 on seller's remedies, the seller may resell the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof. Where the resale is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner the seller may recover the difference between the resale price and the contract price together with any incidental damages allowed under the provisions of this chapter (Section 2.710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (c) or unless otherwise agreed resale may be at public or private sale including sale by way of one or more contracts to sell or of identification to an existing contract of the seller. Sale may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the sale including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. The resale must be reasonably identified as referring to the broken contract, but it is not necessary that the goods be in existence or that any or all of them have been identified to the contract before the breach.

(c) Where the resale is at private sale the seller must give the buyer reasonable notification of his intention to resell.

(d) Where the resale is at public sale

(1) only identified goods can be sold except where there is a recognized market for a public sale of futures in goods of the kind; and

(2) it must be made at a usual place or market for public sale if one is reasonably available and except in the case of goods which are perishable or threaten to decline in value speedily the seller must give the buyer reasonable notice of the time and place of the resale; and

(3) if the goods are not to be within the view of those attending the sale the notification of sale must state the place where the goods are located and provide for their reasonable inspection by prospective bidders; and

(4) the seller may buy.

(e) A purchaser who buys in good faith at a resale takes the goods free of any rights of the original buyer even though the seller fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of this section.

§ 2.706 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(f) The seller is not accountable to the buyer for any profit made on any resale. A person in the position of a seller (Section 2.707) or a buyer who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance must account for any excess over the amount of his security interest, as hereinafter defined (Subsection (c) of Section 2.711). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—706).

§ 2.707. "Person in the Position of a Seller"

(a) A "person in the position of a seller" includes as against a principal an agent who has paid or become responsible for the price of goods on behalf of his principal or anyone who otherwise holds a security interest or other right in goods similar to that of a seller.

(b) A person in the position of a seller may as provided in this chapter withhold or stop delivery (Section 2.705) and resell (Section 2.706) and recover incidental damages (Section 2.710). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—707.)

§ 2.708. Seller's Damages for Non-Acceptance or Repudiation

(a) Subject to Subsection (b) and to the provisions of this chapter with respect to proof of market price (Section 2.723), the measure of damages for non-acceptance of repudiation by the buyer is the difference between the market price at the time and place for tender and the unpaid contract price together with any incidental damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.710), but less expenses saved in consequence of the buyer's breach.

(b) If the measure of damages provided in Subsection (a) is inadequate to put the seller in as good a position as performance would have done then the measure of damages is the profit (including reasonable overhead) which the seller would have made from full performance by the buyer, together with any incidental damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.710), due allowance for costs reasonably incurred and due credit for payments or proceeds of resale. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—708.)

§ 2.709. Action for the Price

(a) When the buyer fails to pay the price as it becomes due the seller may recover, together with any incidental damages under the next section, the price

- (1) of goods accepted or of conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of their loss has passed to the buyer; and
- (2) of goods identified to the contract if the seller is unable after reasonable effort to resell them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 2.711

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) Where the seller sues for the price he must hold for the buyer any goods which have been identified to the contract and are still in his control except that if resale becomes possible he may resell them at any time prior to the collection of the judgment. The net proceeds of any such resale must be credited to the buyer and payment of the judgment entitles him to any goods not resold.

(c) After the buyer has wrongfully rejected or revoked acceptance of the goods or has failed to make a payment due or has repudiated (Section 2.610), a seller who is held not entitled to the price under this section shall nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under the preceding section. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—709.)

§ 2.710. Seller's Incidental Damages

Incidental damages to an aggrieved seller include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions incurred in stopping delivery, in the transportation, care and custody of goods after the buyer's breach, in connection with return or resale of the goods or otherwise resulting from the breach. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—710.)

§ 2.711. Buyer's Remedies in General; Buyer's Security Interest in Rejected Goods

(a) Where the seller fails to make delivery or repudiates or the buyer rightfully rejects or justifiably revokes acceptance then with respect to any goods involved, and with respect to the whole if the breach goes to the whole contract (Section 2.612), the buyer may cancel and whether or not he has done so may in addition to recovering so much of the price as has been paid

- (1) "cover" and have damages under the next section as to all the goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the contract; or
- (2) recover damages for non-delivery as provided in this chapter (Section 2.713).

(b) Where the seller fails to deliver or repudiates the buyer may also

- (1) if the goods have been identified recover them as provided in this chapter (Section 2.502); or
- (2) in a proper case obtain specific performance or replevy the goods as provided in this chapter (Section 2.716).

§ 2.711 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance a buyer has a security interest in goods in his possession or control for any payments made on their price and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, care and custody and may hold such goods and resell them in like manner as an aggrieved seller (Section 2.706). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—711.)

§ 2.712. "Cover"; Buyer's Procurement of Substitute Goods

(a) After a breach within the preceding section the buyer may "cover" by making in good faith and without unreasonable delay any reasonable purchase of or contract to purchase goods in substitution for those due from the seller.

(b) The buyer may recover from the seller as damages the difference between the cost of cover and the contract price together with any incidental or consequential damages as hereinafter defined (Section 2.715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

(c) Failure of the buyer to effect cover within this section does not bar him from any other remedy. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—712.)

§ 2.713. Buyer's Damages for Non-Delivery or Repudiation

(a) Subject to the provisions of this chapter with respect to proof of market price (Section 2.723), the measure of damages for non-delivery or repudiation by the seller is the difference between the market price at the time when the buyer learned of the breach and the contract price together with any incidental and consequential damages provided in this chapter (Section 2.715), but less expenses saved in consequence of the seller's breach.

(b) Market price is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—713.)

§ 2.714. Buyer's Damages for Breach in Regard to Accepted Goods

(a) Where the buyer has accepted goods and given notification (Subsection (c) of Section 2.607) he may recover as damages for any non-conformity of tender the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach as determined in any manner which is reasonable.

(b) The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the difference at the time and place of acceptance between the value of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had been as warranted, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount.

(c) In a proper case any incidental and consequential damages under the next section may also be recovered. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—714.)

§ 2.715. Buyer's Incidental and Consequential Damages

(a) Incidental damages resulting from the seller's breach include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected, any commercially reasonable charges, expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover and any other reasonable expense incident to the delay or other breach.

(b) Consequential damages resulting from the seller's breach include

(1) any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the seller at the time of contracting had reason to know and which could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

(2) injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—715.)

§ 2.716. Buyer's Right to Specific Performance or Replevin

(a) Specific performance may be decreed where the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(b) The decree for specific performance may include such terms and conditions as to payment of the price, damages, or other relief as the court may deem just.

(c) The buyer has a right of replevin for goods identified to the contract if after reasonable effort he is unable to effect cover for such goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that such effort will be unavailing or if the goods have been shipped under reservation and satisfaction of the security interest in them has been made or tendered. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—716.)

§ 2.717. Deduction of Damages from the Price

The buyer on notifying the seller of his intention to do so may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any breach of the contract from any part of the price still due under the same contract. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—717.)

§ 2.718 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.718. Liquidation or Limitation of Damages; Deposits

(a) Damages for breach by either party may be liquidated in the agreement but only at an amount which is reasonable in the light of the anticipated or actual harm caused by the breach, the difficulties of proof of loss, and the inconvenience or non-feasibility of otherwise obtaining an adequate remedy. A term fixing unreasonably large liquidated damages is void as a penalty.

(b) Where the seller justifiably withholds delivery of goods because of the buyer's breach, the buyer is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of his payments exceeds

- (1) the amount to which the seller is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the seller's damages in accordance with Subsection (a), or
- (2) in the absence of such terms, twenty percent of the value of the total performance for which the buyer is obligated under the contract or $500, whichever is smaller.

(c) The buyer's right to restitution under Subsection (b) is subject to offset to the extent that the seller establishes

- (1) a right to recover damages under the provisions of this chapter other than Subsection (a), and
- (2) the amount or value of any benefits received by the buyer directly or indirectly by reason of the contract.

(d) Where a seller has received payment in goods their reasonable value or the proceeds of their resale shall be treated as payments for the purposes of Subsection (b); but if the seller has notice of the buyer's breach before reselling goods received in part performance, his resale is subject to the conditions laid down in this chapter on resale by an aggrieved seller (Section 2.706). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—718.)

§ 2.719. Contractual Modification or Limitation of Remedy

(a) Subject to the provisions of Subsections (b) and (c) of this section and of the preceding section on liquidation and limitation of damages,

- (1) the agreement may provide for remedies in addition to or in substitution for those provided in this chapter and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under this chapter, as by limiting the buyer's remedies to return of the goods and repayment of the price or to repair and replacement of non-conforming goods or parts; and
- (2) resort to a remedy as provided is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive, in which case it is the sole remedy.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 2.722

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) Where circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in this title.

(c) Consequential damages may be limited or excluded unless the limitation or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable but limitation of damages where the loss is commercial is not. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—719.)

§ 2.720. Effect of “Cancellation” or “Rescission” on Claims for Antecedent Breach

Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of “cancellation” or “rescission” of the contract or the like shall not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent breach. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—720.)

§ 2.721. Remedies for Fraud

Remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all remedies available under this chapter for non-fraudulent breach. Neither rescission or a claim for rescission of the contract for sale nor rejection or return of the goods shall bar or be deemed inconsistent with a claim for damages or other remedy. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—721.)

§ 2.722. Who Can Sue Third Parties for Injury to Goods

Where a third party so deals with goods which have been identified to a contract for sale as to cause actionable injury to a party to that contract

- (1) a right of action against the third party is in either party to the contract for sale who has title to or a security interest or a special property or an insurable interest in the goods; and if the goods have been destroyed or converted a right of action is also in the party who either bore the risk of loss under the contract for sale or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the other;
- (2) if at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the contract for sale and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, his suit or settlement is, subject to his own interest, as a fiduciary for the other party to the contract;
- (3) either party may with the consent of the other sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—722.)

§ 2.723 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 2.723. Proof of Market Price: Time and Place

(a) If an action based on anticipatory repudiation comes to trial before the time for performance with respect to some or all of the goods, any damages based on market price (Section 2.708 or Section 2.713) shall be determined according to the price of such goods prevailing at the time when the aggrieved party learned of the repudiation.

(b) If evidence of a price prevailing at the times or places described in this chapter is not readily available the price prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place which in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the cost of transporting the goods to or from such other place.

(c) Evidence of a relevant price prevailing at a time or place other than the one described in this chapter offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party such notice as the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—723.)

§ 2.724. Admissibility of Market Quotations

Whenever the prevailing price or value of any goods regularly bought and sold in any established commodity market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of such market shall be admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of such a report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—724.)

§ 2.725. Statute of Limitations in Contracts for Sale

(a) An action for breach of any contract for sale must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. By the original agreement the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than one year but may not extend it.

(b) A cause of action accrues when the breach occurs, regardless of the aggrieved party's lack of knowledge of the breach. A breach of warranty occurs when tender of delivery is made, except that where a warranty explicitly extends to future performance of the goods and discovery of the breach must await the time of such performance the cause of action accrues when the breach is or should have been discovered.

(c) Where an action commenced within the time limited by Subsection (a) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same breach such other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within six months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

§ 2.725

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations nor does it apply to causes of action which have accrued before this title becomes effective. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 2—725.)

§ 3.103. Limitations on Scope of Chapter

(a) This chapter does not apply to money, documents of title or investment securities.

(b) The provisions of this chapter are subject to the provisions of the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections (Chapter 4) and Secured Transactions (Chapter 9). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3-103.)

§ 3.104. Form of Negotiable Instruments; "Draft"; "Check"; "Certificate of Deposit"; "Note"

(a) Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this chapter must

- (1) be signed by the maker or drawer; and
- (2) contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this chapter; and
- (3) be payable on demand or at a definite time; and
- (4) be payable to order or to bearer.

§ 3.104 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is

- (1) a "draft" ("bill of exchange") if it is an order;
- (2) a "check" if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand;
- (3) a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;
- (4) a "note" if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit.

(c) As used in other chapters of this title, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this chapter as well as to instruments which are so negotiable. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—104.)

§ 3.105. When Promise or Order Unconditional

(a) A promise or order otherwise unconditional is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument

- (1) is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or
- (2) states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction; or
- (3) refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or
- (4) states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or
- (5) states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or
- (6) indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or
- (7) is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or
- (8) is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued.

(b) A promise or order is not unconditional if the instrument

- (1) states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement; or
- (2) states that it is to be paid only out of a particular fund or source except as provided in this section.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—105.)

§ 3.106. Sum Certain

(a) The sum payable is a sum certain even though it is to be paid

- (1) with stated interest or by stated installments; or
- (2) with stated different rates of interest before and after default or a specified date; or
- (3) with a stated discount or addition if paid before or after the date fixed for payment; or
- (4) with exchange or less exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or
- (5) with costs of collection or an attorney's fee or both upon default.

(b) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—106.)

§ 3.107. Money

(a) An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in "currency" or "current funds" is payable in money.

(b) A promise or order to pay a sum stated in a foreign currency is for a sum certain in money and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument, may be satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated foreign currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—107.)

§ 3.108. Payable on Demand

Instruments payable on demand include those payable at sight or on presentation and those in which no time for payment is stated. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—108.)

§ 3.109. Definite Time

(a) An instrument is payable at a definite time if by its terms it is payable

- (1) on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date; or

§ 3.109 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) at a fixed period after sight; or
- (3) at a definite time subject to any acceleration; or
- (4) at a definite time subject to extension at the option of the holder, or to extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(b) An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—109.)

§ 3.110. Payable to Order

(a) An instrument is payable to order when by its terms it is payable to the order or assigns of any person therein specified with reasonable certainty, or to him or his order, or when it is conspicuously designated on its face as “exchange” or the like and names a payee. It may be payable to the order of

- (1) the maker or drawer; or
- (2) the drawee; or
- (3) a payee who is not maker, drawer or drawee; or
- (4) two or more payees together or in the alternative; or
- (5) an estate, trust or fund, in which case it is payable to the order of the representative of such estate, trust or fund or his successors; or
- (6) an office, or an officer by his title as such in which case it is payable to the principal but the incumbent of the office or his successors may act as if he or they were the holder; or
- (7) a partnership or unincorporated association, in which case it is payable to the partnership or association and may be indorsed or transferred by any person thereto authorized.

(b) An instrument not payable to order is not made so payable by such words as “payable upon return of this instrument properly indorsed.”

(c) An instrument made payable both to order and to bearer is payable to order unless the bearer words are handwritten or typewritten. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—110.)

§ 3.111. Payable to Bearer

An instrument is payable to bearer when by its terms it is payable to

- (1) bearer or the order of bearer; or
- (2) a specified person or bearer; or
- (3) "cash" or the order of "cash", or any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—111.)

§ 3.112. Terms and Omissions Not Affecting Negotiability

(a) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by

- (1) the omission of a statement of any consideration or of the place where the instrument is drawn or payable; or
- (2) a statement that collateral has been given to secure obligations either on the instrument or otherwise of an obligor on the instrument or that in case of default on those obligations the holder may realize on or dispose of the collateral; or
- (3) a promise or power to maintain or protect collateral or to give additional collateral; or
- (4) a term authorizing a confession of judgment on the instrument if it is not paid when due; or
- (5) a term purporting to waive the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor; or
- (6) a term in a draft providing that the payee by indorsing or cashing it acknowledges full satisfaction of an obligation of the drawer; or
- (7) a statement in a draft drawn in a set of parts (Section 3.801) to the effect that the order is effective only if no other part has been honored.

(b) Nothing in this section shall validate any term which is otherwise illegal. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—112.)

§ 3.113. Seal

An instrument otherwise negotiable is within this chapter even though it is under a seal. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—113.)

§ 3.114 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.114. Date, Antedating, Postdating

(a) The negotiability of an instrument is not affected by the fact that it is undated, antedated or postdated.

(b) Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the time when it is payable is determined by the stated date if the instrument is payable on demand or at a fixed period after date.

(c) Where the instrument or any signature thereon is dated, the date is presumed to be correct. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—114.)

§ 3.115. Incomplete Instruments

(a) When a paper whose contents at the time of signing show that it is intended to become an instrument is signed while still incomplete in any necessary respect it cannot be enforced until completed, but when it is completed in accordance with authority given it is effective as completed.

(b) If the completion is unauthorized the rules as to material alteration apply (Section 3.407), even though the paper was not delivered by the maker or drawer; but the burden of establishing that any completion is unauthorized is on the party so asserting. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—115.)

§ 3.116. Instruments Payable to Two or More Persons

An instrument payable to the order of two or more persons

(1) if in the alternative is payable to any one of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by any of them who has possession of it;

(2) if not in the alternative is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced only by all of them.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—116.)

§ 3.117. Instruments Payable With Words of Description

An instrument made payable to a named person with the addition of words describing him

(1) as agent or officer of a specified person is payable to his principal but the agent or officer may act as if he were the holder;

(2) as any other fiduciary for a specified person or purpose is payable to the payee and may be negotiated, discharged or enforced by him;

(3) in any other manner is payable to the payee unconditionally and the additional words are without effect on subsequent parties.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—117.)

§ 3.118. Ambiguous Terms and Rules of Construction

The following rules apply to every instrument:

- (1) Where there is doubt whether the instrument is a draft or a note the holder may treat it as either. A draft drawn on the drawer is effective as a note.
- (2) Handwritten terms control typewritten and printed terms, and typewritten control printed.
- (3) Words control figures except that if the words are ambiguous figures control.
- (4) Unless otherwise specified a provision for interest means interest at the judgment rate at the place of payment from the date of the instrument, or if it is undated from the date of issue.
- (5) Unless the instrument otherwise specifies two or more persons who sign as maker, acceptor or drawer or indorser and as a part of the same transaction are jointly and severally liable even though the instrument contains such words as "I promise to pay."
- (6) Unless otherwise specified consent to extension authorizes a single extension for not longer than the original period. A consent to extension, expressed in the instrument, is binding on secondary parties and accommodation makers. A holder may not exercise his option to extend an instrument over the objection of a maker or acceptor or other party who in accordance with Section 3.604 tenders full payment when the instrument is due.

§ 3.119. Other Writings Affecting Instrument

(a) As between the obligor and his immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an instrument may be modified or affected by any other written agreement executed as a part of the same transaction, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of his rights arising out of the separate written agreement if he had no notice of the limitation when he took the instrument.

(b) A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—119.)

§ 3.120. Instruments "Payable Through" Bank

An instrument which states that it is "payable through" a bank or the like designates that bank as a collecting bank to make presentment but does not of itself authorize the bank to pay the instrument. (59th Leg., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—120.)

§ 3.121 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.121. Instruments Payable at Bank

A note or acceptance which states that it is payable at a bank is the equivalent of a draft drawn on the bank payable when it falls due out of any funds of the maker or acceptor in current account or otherwise available for such payment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—121.)

§ 3.122. Accrual of Cause of Action

(a) A cause of action against a maker or an acceptor accrues

(1) in the case of a time instrument on the day after maturity;

(2) in the case of a demand instrument upon its date or, if no date is stated, on the date of issue.

(b) A cause of action against the obligor of a demand or time certificate of deposit accrues upon demand, but demand on a time certificate may not be made until on or after the date of maturity.

(c) A cause of action against a drawer of a draft or an indorser of any instrument accrues upon demand following dishonor of the instrument. Notice of dishonor is a demand.

(d) Unless an instrument provides otherwise, interest runs at the rate provided by law for a judgment

(1) in the case of a maker, acceptor or other primary obligor of a demand instrument, from the date of demand;

(2) in all other cases from the date of accrual of the cause of action.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—122.)

SUBCHAPTER B. TRANSFER AND NEGOTIATION

§ 3.201. Transfer: Right to Indorsement

(a) Transfer of an instrument vests in the transferee such rights as the transferor has therein, except that a transferee who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument or who as a prior holder had notice of a defense or claim against it cannot improve his position by taking from a later holder in due course.

(b) A transfer of a security interest in an instrument vests the foregoing rights in the transferee to the extent of the interest transferred.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed any transfer for value of an instrument not then payable to bearer gives the transferee the specifically enforceable right to have the unqualified indorsement of the transferor. Negotiation takes effect only when the indorsement is made and until that time there is no presumption that the transferee is the owner. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—201.)

§ 3.202. Negotiation

(a) Negotiation is the transfer of an instrument in such form that the transferee becomes a holder. If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary indorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.

(b) An indorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.

(c) An indorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.

(d) Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an indorsement do not affect its character as an indorsement. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—202.)

§ 3.203. Wrong or Misspelled Name

Where an instrument is made payable to a person under a misspelled name or one other than his own he may indorse in that name or his own or both; but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or giving value for the instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—203.)

§ 3.204. Special Indorsement; Blank Indorsement

(a) A special indorsement specifies the person to whom or to whose order it makes the instrument payable. Any instrument specially indorsed becomes payable to the order of the special indorsee and may be further negotiated only by his indorsement.

(b) An indorsement in blank specifies no particular indorsee and may consist of a mere signature. An instrument payable to order and indorsed in blank becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery alone until specially indorsed.

(c) The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—204.)

§ 3.205 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.205. Restrictive Indorsements

An indorsement is restrictive which either

- (1) is conditional; or
- (2) purports to prohibit further transfer of the instrument; or
- (3) includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms signifying a purpose of deposit or collection; or
- (4) otherwise states that it is for the benefit or use of the indorser or of another person.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—205.)

§ 3.206. Effect of Restrictive Indorsement

(a) No restrictive indorsement prevents further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(b) An intermediary bank, or a payor bank which is not the depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor or the person presenting for payment.

(c) Except for an intermediary bank, any transferee under an indorsement which is conditional or includes the words "for collection", "for deposit", "pay any bank", or like terms (Subdivisions (1) and (3) of Section 3.205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value. In addition such transferee is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of Section 3.302 on what constitutes a holder in due course.

(d) The first taker under an indorsement for the benefit of the indorser or another person (Subdivision (4) of Section 3.205) must pay or apply any value given by him for or on the security of the instrument consistently with the indorsement and to the extent that he does so he becomes a holder for value. In addition such taker is a holder in due course if he otherwise complies with the requirements of Section 3.302 on what constitutes a holder in due course. A later holder for value is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by such restrictive indorsement unless he has knowledge that a fiduciary or other person has negotiated the instrument in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty (Subsection (b) of Section 3.304). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—206.)

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 3:302
For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 3.207. Negotiation Effective Although It May Be Rescinded

(a) Negotiation is effective to transfer the instrument although the negotiation is

- (1) made by an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or any other person without capacity; or
- (2) obtained by fraud, duress or mistake of any kind; or
- (3) part of an illegal transaction; or
- (4) made in breach of duty.

(b) Except as against a subsequent holder in due course such negotiation is in an appropriate case subject to rescission, the declaration of a constructive trust or any other remedy permitted by law. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—207.)

§ 3.208. Reacquisition

Where an instrument is returned to or reacquired by a prior party he may cancel any indorsement which is not necessary to his title and reissue or further negotiate the instrument, but any intervening party is discharged as against the reacquiring party and subsequent holders not in due course and if his indorsement has been cancelled is discharged as against subsequent holders in due course as well. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—208.)

SUBCHAPTER C. RIGHTS OF A HOLDER

§ 3.301. Rights of a Holder

The holder of an instrument whether or not he is the owner may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in Section 3.603 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in his own name. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—301.)

§ 3.302. Holder in Due Course

- (a) A holder in due course is a holder who takes the instrument
- (1) for value; and
 - (2) in good faith; and
 - (3) without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person.

(b) A payee may be a holder in due course.

(c) A holder does not become a holder in due course of an instrument:

- (1) by purchase of it at judicial sale or by taking it under legal process; or

§ 3.302 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) by acquiring it in taking over an estate; or
- (3) by purchasing it as part of a bulk transaction not in regular course of business of the transferor.
- (d) A purchaser of a limited interest can be a holder in due course only to the extent of the interest purchased. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—302.)

§ 3.303. Taking for Value

A holder takes the instrument for value

- (1) to the extent that the agreed consideration has been performed or that he acquires a security interest in or a lien on the instrument otherwise than by legal process; or
 - (2) when he takes the instrument in payment of or as security for an antecedent claim against any person whether or not the claim is due; or
 - (3) when he gives a negotiable instrument for it or makes an irrevocable commitment to a third person.
- (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—303.)

§ 3.304. Notice to Purchaser

- (a) The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if
 - (1) the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay; or
 - (2) the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged.
- (b) The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when he has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for his own debt or in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty.
- (c) The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if he has reason to know
 - (1) that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series; or
 - (2) that acceleration of the instrument has been made; or
 - (3) that he is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue. A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be thirty days.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 3.305

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim

- (1) that the instrument is antedated or postdated;
- (2) that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof;
- (3) that any party has signed for accommodation;
- (4) that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;
- (5) that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;
- (6) that there has been default in payment of interest on the instrument or in payment of any other instrument, except one of the same series.

(e) The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this chapter to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.

(f) To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—304.)

§ 3.305. Rights of a Holder in Due Course

To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course he takes the instrument free from

- (a) all claims to it on the part of any person; and
- (b) all defenses of any party to the instrument with whom the holder has not dealt except
 - (1) infancy, to the extent that it is a defense to a simple contract; and
 - (2) such other incapacity, or duress, or illegality of the transaction, as renders the obligation of the party a nullity; and
 - (3) such misrepresentation as has induced the party to sign the instrument with neither knowledge nor reasonable opportunity to obtain knowledge of its character or its essential terms; and
 - (4) discharge in insolvency proceedings; and
 - (5) any other discharge of which the holder has notice when he takes the instrument.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—305.)

§ 3.306 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.306. Rights of One Not Holder in Due Course

Unless he has the rights of a holder in due course any person takes the instrument subject to

- (1) all valid claims to it on the part of any person; and
- (2) all defenses of any party which would be available in an action on a simple contract; and
- (3) the defenses of want or failure of consideration, non-performance of any condition precedent, non-delivery, or delivery for a special purpose (Section 3.408); and
- (4) the defense that he or a person through whom he holds the instrument acquired it by theft, or that payment or satisfaction to such holder would be inconsistent with the terms of a restrictive indorsement. The claim of any third person to the instrument is not otherwise available as a defense to any party liable thereon unless the third person himself defends the action for such party.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—306.)

§ 3.307. Burden of Establishing Signatures, Defenses and Due Course

(a) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings each signature on an instrument is admitted. When the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue

- (1) the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature; but
- (2) the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized except where the action is to enforce the obligation of a purported signer who has died or become incompetent before proof is required.

(b) When signatures are admitted or established, production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense.

(c) After it is shown that a defense exists a person claiming the rights of a holder in due course has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is in all respects a holder in due course. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—307.)

SUBCHAPTER D. LIABILITY OF PARTIES

§ 3.401. Signature

(a) No person is liable on an instrument unless his signature appears thereon.

(b) A signature is made by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, upon an instrument, or by any word or mark used in lieu of a written signature. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—401.)

§ 3.402. Signature in Ambiguous Capacity

Unless the instrument clearly indicates that a signature is made in some other capacity it is an indorsement. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—402.)

§ 3.403. Signature by Authorized Representative

(a) A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and his authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority.

(b) An authorized representative who signs his own name to an instrument

(1) is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;

(2) except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but does not show that the representative signed in a representative capacity, or if the instrument does not name the person represented but does show that the representative signed in a representative capacity.

(c) Except as otherwise established the name of an organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature made in a representative capacity. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—403.)

§ 3.404. Unauthorized Signatures

(a) Any unauthorized signature is wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless he ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.

§ 3.404 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) Any unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this chapter. Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—404.)

§ 3.405. Imposters; Signature in Name of Payee

(a) An indorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if

- (1) an imposter by use of the mails or otherwise has induced the maker or drawer to issue the instrument to him or his confederate in the name of the payee; or
- (2) a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or
- (3) an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so indorsing. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—405.)

§ 3.406. Negligence Contributing to Alteration or Unauthorized Signature

Any person who by his negligence substantially contributes to a material alteration of the instrument or to the making of an unauthorized signature is precluded from asserting the alteration or lack of authority against a holder in due course or against a drawee or other payor who pays the instrument in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards of the drawee's or payor's business. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—406.)

§ 3.407. Alteration

(a) Any alteration of an instrument is material which changes the contract of any party thereto in any respect, including any such change in

- (1) the number or relations of the parties; or
- (2) an incomplete instrument, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or
- (3) the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it.

(b) As against any person other than a subsequent holder in due course

- (1) alteration by the holder which is both fraudulent and material discharges any party whose contract is thereby changed unless that party assents or is precluded from asserting the defense;

(2) no other alteration discharges any party and the instrument may be enforced according to its original tenor, or as to incomplete instruments according to the authority given.

(c) A subsequent holder in due course may in all cases enforce the instrument according to its original tenor, and when an incomplete instrument has been completed, he may enforce it as completed. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—407.)

§ 3.408. Consideration

Want or failure of consideration is a defense as against any person not having the rights of a holder in due course (Section 3.305), except that no consideration is necessary for an instrument or obligation thereon given in payment of or as security for an antecedent obligation of any kind. Nothing in this section shall be taken to displace any statute outside this title under which a promise is enforceable notwithstanding lack or failure of consideration. Partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto whether or not the failure is in an ascertained or liquidated amount. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—408.)

§ 3.409. Draft Not an Assignment

(a) A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of any funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until he accepts it.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—409.)

§ 3.410. Definition and Operation of Acceptance

(a) Acceptance is the drawee's signed engagement to honor the draft as presented. It must be written on the draft, and may consist of his signature alone. It becomes operative when completed by delivery or notification.

(b) A draft may be accepted although it has not been signed by the drawer or is otherwise incomplete or is overdue or has been dishonored.

(c) Where the draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date his acceptance the holder may complete it by supplying a date in good faith. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—410.)

§ 3.411 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.411. Certification of a Check

(a) Certification of a check is acceptance. Where a holder procures certification the drawer and all prior indorsers are discharged.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed a bank has no obligation to certify a check.

(c) A bank may certify a check before returning it for lack of proper indorsement. If it does so the drawer is discharged. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—411.)

§ 3.412. Acceptance Varying Draft

(a) Where the drawee's proffered acceptance in any manner varies the draft as presented the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored in which case the drawee is entitled to have his acceptance cancelled.

(b) The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at any particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at such bank or place.

(c) Where the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of the draft each drawer and indorser who does not affirmatively assent is discharged. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—412.)

§ 3.413. Contract of Maker, Drawer and Acceptor

(a) The maker or acceptor engages that he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his engagement or as completed pursuant to Section 3.115 on incomplete instruments.

(b) The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest he will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any indorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.

(c) By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—413.)

§ 3.414. Contract of Indorser; Order of Liability

(a) Unless the indorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as "without recourse") every indorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his indorsement to the holder or to any subsequent indorser who takes it up, even though the indorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so.

(b) Unless they otherwise agree indorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they indorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—414.)

§ 3.415. Contract of Accommodation Party

(a) An accommodation party is one who signs the instrument in any capacity for the purpose of lending his name to another party to it.

(b) When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the accommodation party is liable in the capacity in which he has signed even though the taker knows of the accommodation.

(c) As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on his character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.

(d) An indorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.

(e) An accommodation party is not liable to the party accommodated, and if he pays the instrument has a right of recourse on the instrument against such party. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—415.)

§ 3.416. Contract of Guarantor

(a) "Payment guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor without resort by the holder to any other party.

(b) "Collection guaranteed" or equivalent words added to a signature mean that the signer engages that if the instrument is not paid when due he will pay it according to its tenor, but only after the holder has reduced his claim against the maker or acceptor to judgment and execution has been returned unsatisfied, or after the maker or acceptor has become insolvent or it is otherwise apparent that it is useless to proceed against him.

(c) Words of guaranty which do not otherwise specify guarantee payment.

(d) No words of guaranty added to the signature of a sole maker or acceptor affect his liability on the instrument. Such words added to the signature of one of two or more makers or acceptors create a presumption that the signature is for the accommodation of the others.

(e) When words of guaranty are used presentment, notice of dishonor and protest are not necessary to charge the user.

(f) Any guaranty written on the instrument is enforceable notwithstanding any statute of frauds. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—416.)

§ 3.417 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.417. Warranties on Presentment and Transfer

(a) Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that

(1) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and

(2) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith

(A) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or

(B) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(C) to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and

(3) the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith

(A) to the maker of a note; or

(B) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or

(C) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or

(D) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

(b) Any person who transfers an instrument and receives consideration warrants to his transferee and if the transfer is by indorsement to any subsequent holder who takes the instrument in good faith that

(1) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and

(2) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and

(3) the instrument has not been materially altered; and

(4) no defense of any party is good against him; and

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.419

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(5) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted instrument.

(c) By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in Subsection (b) (4) to a warranty that he has no knowledge of such a defense.

(d) A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that he is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if he makes such disclosure warrants only his good faith and authority. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—417.)

§ 3.418. Finality of Payment or Acceptance

Except for recovery of bank payments as provided in the chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections (Chapter 4) and except for liability for breach of warranty on presentment under the preceding section, payment or acceptance of any instrument is final in favor of a holder in due course, or a person who has in good faith changed his position in reliance on the payment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—418.)

§ 3.419. Conversion of Instrument; Innocent Representative

(a) An instrument is converted when

- (1) a drawee to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or
- (2) any person to whom it is delivered for payment refuses on demand either to pay or to return it; or
- (3) it is paid on a forged indorsement.

(b) In an action against a drawee under Subsection (a) the measure of the drawee's liability is the face amount of the instrument. In any other action under Subsection (a) the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument.

(c) Subject to the provisions of this title concerning restrictive indorsements a representative, including a depository or collecting bank, who has in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the true owner is not liable in conversion or otherwise to the true owner beyond the amount of any proceeds remaining in his hands.

(d) An intermediary bank or payor bank which is not a depository bank is not liable in conversion solely by reason of the fact that proceeds of an item indorsed restrictively (Sections 3.205 and 3.206) are not paid or applied consistently with the restrictive indorsement of an indorser other than its immediate transferor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—419.)

§ 3.501 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER E. PRESENTMENT, NOTICE OF DISHONOR AND PROTEST

§ 3.501. When Presentment, Notice of Dishonor, and Protest Necessary or Permissible

(a) Unless excused (Section 3.511) presentment is necessary to charge secondary parties as follows:

- (1) presentment for acceptance is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of a draft where the draft so provides, or is payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee, or its date of payment depends upon such presentment. The holder may at his option present for acceptance any other draft payable at a stated date;
- (2) presentment for payment is necessary to charge any indorser;
- (3) in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, presentment for payment is necessary, but failure to make presentment discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in Section 3.502(a) (2).

(b) Unless excused (Section 3.511)

- (1) notice of any dishonor is necessary to charge any indorser;
- (2) in the case of any drawer, the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank, notice of any dishonor is necessary, but failure to give such notice discharges such drawer, acceptor or maker only as stated in Section 3.502(a) (2).

(c) Unless excused (Section 3.511) protest of any dishonor is necessary to charge the drawer and indorsers of any draft which on its face appears to be drawn or payable outside of the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia. The holder may at his option make protest of any dishonor of any other instrument and in the case of a foreign draft may on insolvency of the acceptor before maturity make protest for better security.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, neither presentment nor notice of dishonor nor protest is necessary to charge an indorser who has indorsed an instrument after maturity. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—501.)

§ 3.502. Unexcused Delay; Discharge

(a) Where without excuse any necessary presentment or notice of dishonor is delayed beyond the time when it is due

- (1) any indorser is discharged; and
- (2) any drawer or the acceptor of a draft payable at a bank or the maker of a note payable at a bank who because the drawee or payor bank becomes insolvent during the delay is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee or payor bank to cover the instrument may discharge his liability by written assignment to the holder of his rights against the drawee or payor bank in respect of such funds, but such drawer, acceptor or maker is not otherwise discharged.

(b) Where without excuse a necessary protest is delayed beyond the time when it is due any drawer or indorser is discharged. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—502.)

§ 3.503. Time of Presentment

(a) Unless a different time is expressed in the instrument the time for any presentment is determined as follows:

- (1) where an instrument is payable at or a fixed period after a stated date any presentment for acceptance must be made on or before the date it is payable;
- (2) where an instrument is payable after sight it must either be presented for acceptance or negotiated within a reasonable time after date or issue whichever is later;
- (3) where an instrument shows the date on which it is payable presentment for payment is due on that date;
- (4) where an instrument is accelerated presentment for payment is due within a reasonable time after the acceleration;
- (5) with respect to the liability of any secondary party presentment for acceptance or payment of any other instrument is due within a reasonable time after such party becomes liable thereon.

(b) A reasonable time for presentment is determined by the nature of the instrument, any usage of banking or trade and the facts of the particular case. In the case of an uncertified check which is drawn and payable within the United States and which is not a draft drawn by a bank the following are presumed to be reasonable periods within which to present for payment or to initiate bank collection:

- (1) with respect to the liability of the drawer, thirty days after date or issue whichever is later; and

§ 3.503 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) with respect to the liability of an indorser, seven days after his indorsement.

(c) Where any presentment is due on a day which is not a full business day for either the person making presentment or the party to pay or accept, presentment is due on the next following day which is a full business day for both parties.

(d) Presentment to be sufficient must be made at a reasonable hour, and if at a bank during its banking day. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—503.)

§ 3.504. How Presentment Made

(a) Presentment is a demand for acceptance or payment made upon the maker, acceptor, drawee or other payor by or on behalf of the holder.

(b) Presentment may be made

(1) by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or

(2) through a clearing house; or

(3) at the place of acceptance or payment specified in the instrument or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for him is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.

(c) It may be made

(1) to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees or other payors; or

(2) to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment.

(d) A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.

(e) In the cases described in Section 4.210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—504.)

§ 3.505. Rights of Party to Whom Presentment Is Made

(a) The party to whom presentment is made may without dishonor require

(1) exhibition of the instrument; and

(2) reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of his authority to make it if made for another; and

§ 3.507

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (3) that the instrument be produced for acceptance or payment at a place specified in it, or if there be none at any place reasonable in the circumstances; and
- (4) a signed receipt on the instrument for any partial or full payment and its surrender upon full payment.

(b) Failure to comply with any such requirement invalidates the presentment but the person presenting has a reasonable time in which to comply and the time for acceptance or payment runs from the time of compliance. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—505.)

§ 3.506. Time Allowed for Acceptance or Payment

(a) Acceptance may be deferred without dishonor until the close of the next business day following presentment. The holder may also in a good faith effort to obtain acceptance and without either dishonor of the instrument or discharge of secondary parties allow postponement of acceptance for an additional business day.

(b) Except as a longer time is allowed in the case of documentary drafts drawn under a letter of credit, and unless an earlier time is agreed to by the party to pay, payment of an instrument may be deferred without dishonor pending reasonable examination to determine whether it is properly payable, but payment must be made in any event before the close of business on the day of presentment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—506.)

§ 3.507. Dishonor; Holder's Right of Recourse; Term Allowing Re-Presentment

(a) An instrument is dishonored when

- (1) a necessary or optional presentment is duly made and due acceptance or payment is refused or cannot be obtained within the prescribed time or in case of bank collections the instrument is seasonably returned by the midnight deadline (Section 4.301); or
- (2) presentment is excused and the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(b) Subject to any necessary notice of dishonor and protest, the holder has upon dishonor an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers.

(c) Return of an instrument for lack of proper indorsement is not dishonor.

(d) A term in a draft or an indorsement thereof allowing a stated time for re-presentment in the event of any dishonor of the draft by nonacceptance if a time draft or by nonpayment if a sight draft gives the holder as against any secondary party bound by the term an option to waive the dishonor without affecting the liability of the secondary party and he may present again up to the end of the stated time. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—507.)

§ 3.507 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.508. Notice of Dishonor

(a) Notice of dishonor may be given to any person who may be liable on the instrument by or on behalf of the holder or any party who has himself received notice, or any other party who can be compelled to pay the instrument. In addition an agent or bank in whose hands the instrument is dishonored may give notice to his principal or customer or to another agent or bank from which the instrument was received.

(b) Any necessary notice must be given by a bank before its midnight deadline and by any other person before midnight of the third business day after dishonor or receipt of notice of dishonor.

(c) Notice may be given in any reasonable manner. It may be oral or written and in any terms which identify the instrument and state that it has been dishonored. A misdescription which does not mislead the party notified does not vitiate the notice. Sending the instrument bearing a stamp, ticket or writing stating that acceptance or payment has been refused or sending a notice of debit with respect to the instrument is sufficient.

(d) Written notice is given when sent although it is not received.

(e) Notice to one partner is notice to each although the firm has been dissolved.

(f) When any party is in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument notice may be given either to the party or to the representative of his estate.

(g) When any party is dead or incompetent notice may be sent to his last known address or given to his personal representative.

(h) Notice operates for the benefit of all parties who have rights on the instrument against the party notified. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—508.)

§ 3.509. Protest; Noting for Protest

(a) A protest is a certificate of dishonor made under the hand and seal of a United States consul or vice-consul or a notary public or other person authorized to certify dishonor by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to such person.

(b) The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that due presentment has been made or the reason why it is excused and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or non-payment.

(c) The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to all parties or to specified parties.

(d) Subject to Subsection (e) any necessary protest is due by the time that notice of dishonor is due.

(e) If, before protest is due, an instrument has been noted for protest by the officer to make protest, the protest may be made at any time thereafter as of the date of the noting. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—509.)

§ 3.510. Evidence of Dishonor and Notice of Dishonor

The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor therein shown:

- (1) a document regular in form as provided in the preceding section which purports to be a protest;
- (2) the purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank or presenting bank on the instrument or accompanying it stating that acceptance or payment has been refused for reasons consistent with dishonor;
- (3) any book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or any collecting bank kept in the usual course of business which shows dishonor, even though there is no evidence of who made the entry.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—510.)

§ 3.511. Waived or Excused Presentment, Protest or Notice of Dishonor or Delay Therein

(a) Delay in presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is excused when the party is without notice that it is due or when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond his control and he exercises reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceases to operate.

(b) Presentment or notice or protest as the case may be is entirely excused when

- (1) the party to be charged has waived it expressly or by implication either before or after it is due; or
- (2) such party has himself dishonored the instrument or has countermanded payment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be accepted or paid; or
- (3) by reasonable diligence the presentment or protest cannot be made or the notice given.

§ 3.511 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) Presentment is also entirely excused when

- (1) the maker, acceptor or drawee of any instrument except a documentary draft is dead or in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument; or
- (2) acceptance or payment is refused but not for want of proper presentment.

(d) Where a draft has been dishonored by nonacceptance a later presentment for payment and any notice of dishonor and protest for nonpayment are excused unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted.

(e) A waiver of protest is also a waiver of presentment and of notice of dishonor even though protest is not required.

(f) Where a waiver of presentment or notice or protest is embodied in the instrument itself it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser it binds him only. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—511.)

SUBCHAPTER F. DISCHARGE

§ 3.601. Discharge of Parties

(a) The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on

- (1) payment or satisfaction (Section 3.603); or
- (2) tender of payment (Section 3.604); or
- (3) cancellation or renunciation (Section 3.605); or
- (4) impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (Section 3.606); or
- (5) reacquisition of the instrument by a prior party (Section 3.208); or
- (6) fraudulent and material alteration (Section 3.407); or
- (7) certification of a check (Section 3.411); or
- (8) acceptance varying a draft (Section 3.412); or
- (9) unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (Section 3.502).

(b) Any party is also discharged from his liability on an instrument to another party by any other act or agreement with such party which would discharge his simple contract for the payment of money.

(c) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action or recourse on the instrument

- (1) reacquires the instrument in his own right; or

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 3.604

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) is discharged under any provision of this chapter, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of security (Section 3.606).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—601.)

§ 3.602. Effect of Discharge Against Holder in Due Course

No discharge of any party provided by this chapter is effective against a subsequent holder in due course unless he has notice thereof when he takes the instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—602.)

§ 3.603. Payment or Satisfaction

(a) The liability of any party is discharged to the extent of his payment or satisfaction to the holder even though it is made with knowledge of a claim of another person to the instrument unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability

- (1) of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or
- (2) of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depositary bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument which has been restrictively indorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive indorsement.

(b) Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives him the rights of a transferee (Section 3.201). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—603.)

§ 3.604. Tender of Payment

(a) Any party making tender of full payment to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney's fees.

(b) The holder's refusal of such tender wholly discharges any party who has a right of recourse against the party making the tender.

(c) Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand is able and ready to pay at every place of payment specified in the instrument when it is due, it is equivalent to tender. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—604.)

§ 3.605. Cancellation and Renunciation

(a) The holder of an instrument may even without consideration discharge any party

- (1) in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the indorsement, as by intentionally cancelling the instrument or the party's signature by destruction or mutilation, or by striking out the party's signature; or
- (2) by renouncing his rights by a writing signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged.

(b) Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—605.)

§ 3.606. Impairment of Recourse or of Collateral

(a) The holder discharges any party to the instrument to the extent that without such party's consent the holder

- (1) without express reservation of rights releases or agrees not to sue any person against whom the party has to the knowledge of the holder a right of recourse or agrees to suspend the right to enforce against such person the instrument or collateral or otherwise discharges such person, except that failure or delay in effecting any required presentment, protest or notice of dishonor with respect to any such person does not discharge any party as to whom presentment, protest or notice of dishonor is effective or unnecessary; or
- (2) unjustifiably impairs any collateral for the instrument given by or on behalf of the party or any person against whom he has a right of recourse.

(b) By express reservation of rights against a party with a right of recourse the holder preserves

- (1) all his rights against such party as of the time when the instrument was originally due; and
- (2) the right of the party to pay the instrument as of that time; and
- (3) all rights of such party to recourse against others.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—606.)

SUBCHAPTER G. ADVICE OF INTERNATIONAL SIGHT DRAFT

§ 3.701. Letter of Advice of International Sight Draft

(a) A "letter of advice" is a drawer's communication to the drawee that a described draft has been drawn.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed when a bank receives from another bank a letter of advice of an international sight draft the drawee bank may immediately debit the drawer's account and stop the running of interest pro tanto. Such a debit and any resulting credit to any account covering outstanding drafts leaves in the drawer full power to stop payment or otherwise dispose of the amount and creates no trust or interest in favor of the holder.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed and except where a draft is drawn under a credit issued by the drawee, the drawee of an international sight draft owes the drawer no duty to pay an unadvised draft but if it does so and the draft is genuine, may appropriately debit the drawer's account. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—701.)

SUBCHAPTER H. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 3.801. Drafts in a Set

(a) Where a draft is drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be an order only if no other part has been honored, the whole of the parts constitutes one draft but a taker of any part may become a holder in due course of the draft.

(b) Any person who negotiates, indorses or accepts a single part of a draft drawn in a set thereby becomes liable to any holder in due course of that part as if it were the whole set, but as between different holders in due course to whom different parts have been negotiated the holder whose title first accrues has all rights to the draft and its proceeds.

(c) As against the drawee the first presented part of a draft drawn in a set is the part entitled to payment, or if a time draft to acceptance and payment. Acceptance of any subsequently presented part renders the drawee liable thereon under Subsection (b). With respect both to a holder and to the drawer payment of a subsequently presented part of a draft payable at sight has the same effect as payment of a check notwithstanding an effective stop order (Section 4.407).

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this section, where any part of a draft in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole draft is discharged. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—801.)

§ 3.802 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 3.802. Effect of Instrument on Obligation for Which It Is Given

(a) Unless otherwise agreed where an instrument is taken for an underlying obligation

- (1) the obligation is pro tanto discharged if a bank is drawer, maker or acceptor of the instrument and there is no recourse on the instrument against the underlying obligor; and
- (2) in any other case the obligation is suspended pro tanto until the instrument is due or if it is payable on demand until its presentment. If the instrument is dishonored action may be maintained on either the instrument or the obligation; discharge of the underlying obligor on the instrument also discharges him on the obligation.

(b) The taking in good faith of a check which is not postdated does not of itself so extend the time on the original obligation as to discharge a surety. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—802.)

§ 3.803. Notice to Third Party

Where a defendant is sued for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over under this chapter he may give the third person written notice of the litigation, and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over to him under this chapter. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that if the person notified does not do so he will in any action against him by the person giving the notice be bound by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless after seasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend he is so bound. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—803.)

§ 3.804. Lost, Destroyed or Stolen Instruments

The owner of an instrument which is lost, whether by destruction, theft or otherwise, may maintain an action in his own name and recover from any party liable thereon upon due proof of his ownership, the facts which prevent his production of the instrument and its terms. The court may require security indemnifying the defendant against loss by reason of further claims on the instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—804.)

§ 3.805. Instruments Not Payable to Order or to Bearer

This chapter applies to any instrument whose terms do not preclude transfer and which is otherwise negotiable within this chapter but which is not payable to order or to bearer, except that there can be no holder in due course of such an instrument. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 3—805.)

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DEFINITIONS

Section 4.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Bank Deposits and Collections. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—101.)

§ 4.102. Applicability

(a) To the extent that items within this chapter are also within the scope of Chapters 3 and 8, they are subject to the provisions of those chapters. In the event of conflict the provisions of this chapter govern those of Chapter 3 but the provisions of Chapter 8 govern those of this chapter.

(b) The liability of a bank for action or non-action with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or non-action by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—102.)

§ 4.103. Variation by Agreement; Measure of Damages; Certain Action Constituting Ordinary Care

(a) The effect of the provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement except that no agreement can disclaim a bank's responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or can limit the measure of damages for such lack or failure; but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which such responsibility is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(b) Federal Reserve regulations and operating letters, clearing house rules, and the like, have the effect of agreements under Subsection (a), whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.

(c) Action or non-action approved by this chapter or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating letters constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or non-action consistent with clearing house rules and the like or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this chapter, prima facie constitutes the exercise of ordinary care.

(d) The specification or approval of certain procedures by this chapter does not constitute disapproval of other procedures which may be reasonable under the circumstances.

(e) The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount which could not have been realized by the use of ordinary care, and where there is bad faith it includes other damages, if any, suffered by the party as a proximate consequence. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—103.)

§ 4.104. Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

- (1) "Account" means any account with a bank and includes a checking, time, interest or savings account;
- (2) "Afternoon" means the period of a day between noon and midnight;
- (3) "Banking day" means that part of any day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions;

§ 4.104 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (4) "Clearing house" means any association of banks or other payors regularly clearing items;
- (5) "Customer" means any person having an account with a bank or for whom a bank has agreed to collect items and includes a bank carrying an account with another bank;
- (6) "Documentary draft" means any negotiable or non-negotiable draft with accompanying documents, securities or other papers to be delivered against honor of the draft;
- (7) "Item" means any instrument for the payment of money even though it is not negotiable but does not include money;
- (8) "Midnight deadline" with respect to a bank is midnight on its next banking day following the banking day on which it receives the relevant item or notice or from which the time for taking action commences to run, whichever is later;
- (9) "Properly payable" includes the availability of funds for payment at the time of decision to pay or dishonor;
- (10) "Settle" means to pay in cash, by clearing house settlement, in a charge or credit or by remittance, or otherwise as instructed. A settlement may be either provisional or final;
- (11) "Suspends payments" with respect to a bank means that it has been closed by order of the supervisory authorities, that a public officer has been appointed to take it over or that it ceases or refuses to make payments in the ordinary course of business.

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

"Collecting bank"	Section 4.105.
"Depository bank"	Section 4.105.
"Intermediary bank"	Section 4.105.
"Payor bank"	Section 4.105.
"Presenting bank"	Section 4.105.
"Remitting bank"	Section 4.105.

(c) The following definitions in other chapters apply to this chapter:

"Acceptance"	Section 3.410.
"Certificate of deposit"	Section 3.104.
"Certification"	Section 3.411.
"Check"	Section 3.104.
"Draft"	Section 3.104.
"Holder in due course"	Section 3.302.
"Notice of dishonor"	Section 3.508.
"Presentment"	Section 3.504.
"Protest"	Section 3.509.
"Secondary party"	Section 3.102.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—104.)

§ 4.105. “Depository Bank”; “Intermediary Bank”; “Collecting Bank”; “Payor Bank”; “Presenting Bank”; “Remitting Bank”

In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Depository bank” means the first bank to which an item is transferred for collection even though it is also the payor bank;
- (2) “Payor bank” means a bank by which an item is payable as drawn or accepted;
- (3) “Intermediary bank” means any bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depository or payor bank;
- (4) “Collecting bank” means any bank handling the item for collection except the payor bank;
- (5) “Presenting bank” means any bank presenting an item except a payor bank;
- (6) “Remitting bank” means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—105.)

§ 4.106. Separate Office of a Bank

A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders shall be given under this chapter and under Chapter 3. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—106.)

§ 4.107. Time of Receipt of Items

(a) For the purpose of allowing time to process items, prove balances and make the necessary entries on its books to determine its position for the day, a bank may fix an afternoon hour of two P.M. or later as a cut-off hour for the handling of money and items and the making of entries on its books.

(b) Any item or deposit of money received on any day after a cut-off hour so fixed or after the close of the banking day may be treated as being received at the opening of the next banking day. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—107.)

§ 4.108 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 4.108. Delays

(a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment may, in the case of specific items and with or without the approval of any person involved, waive, modify or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this title for a period not in excess of an additional banking day without discharge of secondary parties and without liability to its transferor or any prior party.

(b) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this title or by instructions is excused if caused by interruption of communication facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank provided it exercises such diligence as the circumstances require. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—108.)

§ 4.109. Process of Posting

The “process of posting” means the usual procedure followed by a payor bank in determining to pay an item and in recording the payment including one or more of the following or other steps as determined by the bank:

- (1) verification of any signature;
- (2) ascertaining that sufficient funds are available;
- (3) affixing a “paid” or other stamp;
- (4) entering a charge or entry to a customer’s account;
- (5) correcting or reversing an entry or erroneous action with respect to the item.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—109.)

SUBCHAPTER B. COLLECTION OF ITEMS: DEPOSITARY AND COLLECTING BANKS

§ 4.201. Presumption and Duration of Agency Status of Collecting Banks and Provisional Status of Credits; Applicability of Article; Item Indorsed “Pay Any Bank”

(a) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and prior to the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211 and Sections 4.212 and 4.213) the bank is an agent or sub-agent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of indorsement or lack of indorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and valid rights of setoff. When an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment and collection, the relevant provisions of this chapter apply even though action of parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.

(b) After an item has been indorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder

- (1) until the item has been returned to the customer initiating collection; or
- (2) until the item has been specially indorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—201.)

§ 4.202. Responsibility for Collection; When Action Seasonable

(a) A collecting bank must use ordinary care in

- (1) presenting an item or sending it for presentment; and
- (2) sending notice of dishonor or non-payment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor or directly to the depository bank under Subsection (b) of Section 4.212 after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; and
- (3) settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and
- (4) making or providing for any necessary protest; and
- (5) notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

(b) A collecting bank taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice or payment acts seasonably; taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may be seasonable but the bank has the burden of so establishing.

(c) Subject to Subsection (a) (1), a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—202.)

§ 4.203. Effect of Instructions

Subject to the provisions of Chapter 3 concerning conversion of instruments (Section 3.419) and the provisions of both Chapter 3 and this chapter concerning restrictive indorsements only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions which affect the bank or constitute notice to it and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to such instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—203.)

§ 4.203 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 4.204. Methods of Sending and Presenting; Sending Direct to Payor Bank

(a) A collecting bank must send items by reasonably prompt method taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of such items on hand, and the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present such items.

(b) A collecting bank may send

- (1) any item direct to the payor bank;
- (2) any item to any non-bank payor if authorized by its transferor; and
- (3) any item other than documentary drafts to any non-bank payor, if authorized by Federal Reserve regulation or operating letter, clearing house rule or the like.

(c) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank has requested that presentment be made. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—204.)

§ 4.205. Supplying Missing Indorsement; No Notice from Prior Indorsement

(a) A depository bank which has taken an item for collection may supply any indorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's indorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by the depository bank to the effect that the item was deposited by a customer or credited to his account is effective as the customer's indorsement.

(b) An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depository bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive indorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—205.)

§ 4.206. Transfer Between Banks

Any agreed method which identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—206.)

§ 4.207. Warranties of Customer and Collecting Bank on Transfer or Presentment of Items; Time for Claims

(a) Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that

- (1) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and
- (2) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
 - (A) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or
 - (B) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
 - (C) to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and
- (3) the item has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith
 - (A) to the maker of a note; or
 - (B) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or
 - (C) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or
 - (D) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.

(b) Each customer and collecting bank who transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration for it warrants to his transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank who takes the item in good faith that

- (1) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful; and
- (2) all signatures are genuine or authorized; and
- (3) the item has not been materially altered; and

§ 4.207 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (4) no defense of any party is good against him; and
- (5) he has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding instituted with respect to the maker or acceptor or the drawer of an unaccepted item.

In addition each customer and collecting bank so transferring an item and receiving a settlement or other consideration engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item.

(c) The warranties and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwithstanding the absence of indorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any.

(d) Unless a claim for breach of warranty under this section is made within a reasonable time after the person claiming learns of the breach, the person liable is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in making claim. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—207.)

§ 4.208. Security Interest of Collecting Bank in Items, Accompanying Documents and Proceeds

(a) A bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either

- (1) in case of an item deposited in an account to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;
- (2) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given whether or not the credit is drawn upon and whether or not there is a right of charge-back; or
- (3) if it makes an advance on or against the item.

(b) When credit which has been given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(c) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of Chapter 9 except that

- (1) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (Subsection (a) (2) of Section 9.203); and
- (2) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and
- (3) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—208.)

§ 4.209. When Bank Gives Value for Purposes of Holder in Due Course

For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, the bank has given value to the extent that it has a security interest in an item provided that the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of Section 3.302 on what constitutes a holder in due course. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—209.)

§ 4.210. Presentment by Notice of Item Not Payable by, Through or at a Bank; Liability of Secondary Parties

(a) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under Section 3.505 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(b) Where presentment is made by notice and neither honor nor request for compliance with a requirement under Section 3.505 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending him notice of the facts. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—210.)

§ 4.211. Media of Remittance; Provisional and Final Settlement in Remittance Cases

- (a) A collecting bank may take in settlement of an item
- (1) a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank; or
 - (2) a cashier's check or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearing house or group as the collecting bank; or

§ 4.211 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (3) appropriate authority to charge an account of the remitting bank or of another bank with the collecting bank; or
- (4) if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier's check, certified check or other bank check or obligation.

(b) If before its midnight deadline the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or presents or forwards for collection a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by Subsection (a) or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization.

(c) A settlement for an item by means of a remittance instrument or authorization to charge is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person receiving the settlement

- (1) if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by Subsection (a) or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization,—at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable;
- (2) if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a non-bank check or obligation or by a cashier's check remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by Subsection (a) (2);—at the time of the receipt of such remittance check or obligation; or
- (3) if in a case not covered by Subdivision (1) or (2) the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline,—at such midnight deadline.

§ 4.212. Right of Charge-Back or Refund

(a) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and itself fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive a settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. These rights to revoke, charge-back and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211 and Subsections (b) and (c) of Section 4.213).

(b) Within the time and manner prescribed by this section and Section 4.301, an intermediary or payor bank, as the case may be, may return an unpaid item directly to the depository bank and may send for collection a draft on the depository bank and obtain reimbursement. In such case, if the depository bank has received provisional settlement for the item, it must reimburse the bank drawing the draft and any provisional credits for the item between banks shall become and remain final.

(c) A depository bank which is also the payor may charge-back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (Section 4.301).

(d) The right to charge-back is not affected by

- (1) prior use of the credit given for the item; or
- (2) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

(e) A failure to charge-back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(f) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in a foreign currency the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund shall be calculated on the basis of the buying sight rate for the foreign currency prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—212.)

§ 4.213. Final Payment of Item by Payor Bank; When Provisional Debits and Credits Become Final; When Certain Credits Become Available for Withdrawal

(a) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:

- (1) paid the item in cash; or
- (2) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement; or
- (3) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or
- (4) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearing house rule or agreement.

§ 4.213 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

Upon a final payment under Subdivisions (2), (3) or (4) the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.

(b) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearing house or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(c) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211, Subsection (b) of Section 4.213) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(d) Subject to any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in an account with its customer becomes available for withdrawal as of right

(1) in any case where the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item,—when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to learn that the settlement is final;

(2) in any case where the bank is both a depository bank and a payor bank and the item is finally paid,—at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(e) A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject to any right of the bank to apply the deposit to an obligation of the customer, the deposit becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day following receipt of the deposit. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—213.)

§ 4.214. Insolvency and Preference

(a) Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(b) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(c) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (Subsection (c) of Section 4.211, Subsections (a) (4), (b) and (c) of Section 4.213).

(d) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer which is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against such collecting bank. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—214.)

SUBCHAPTER C. COLLECTION OF ITEMS: PAYOR BANKS

§ 4.301. Deferred Posting; Recovery of Payment by Return of Items; Time of Dishonor

(a) Where an authorized settlement for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) received by a payor bank otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter has been made before midnight of the banking day of receipt the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any payment if before it has made final payment (Subsection (a) of Section 4.213) and before its midnight deadline it

- (1) returns the item; or
- (2) sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is held for protest or is otherwise unavailable for return.

(b) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books it may return such item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in the preceding subsection.

(c) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

(d) An item is returned:

- (1) as to an item received through a clearing house, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearing house or is sent or delivered in accordance with its rules; or
- (2) in all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to his instructions.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—301.)

§ 4.302. Payor Bank's Responsibility for Late Return of Item

In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (Subsection (a) of Section 4.207), settlement effected or the like, if an item is presented on and received by a payor bank the bank is accountable for the amount of

- (1) a demand item other than a documentary draft whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case where it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depositary bank, does not pay or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or
- (2) any other properly payable item unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—302.)

§ 4.303. When Items Subject to Notice, Stop-Order, Legal Process or Setoff; Order in Which Items May be Charged or Certified

(a) Any knowledge, notice or stop-order received by, legal process served upon or setoff exercised by a payor bank, whether or not effective under other rules of law to terminate, suspend or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item, comes too late to so terminate, suspend or modify such right or duty if the knowledge, notice, stop-order or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the bank has done any of the following:

- (1) accepted or certified the item;
- (2) paid the item in cash;
- (3) settled for the item without reserving a right to revoke the settlement and without having such right under statute, clearing house rule or agreement;
- (4) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item; or
- (5) become accountable for the amount of the item under Subsection (a) (4) of Section 4.213 and Section 4.302 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) items may be accepted, paid, certified or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order convenient to the bank. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—303.)

SUBCHAPTER D. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN PAYOR BANK AND ITS CUSTOMER

§ 4.401. When Bank May Charge Customer's Account

(a) As against its customer; a bank may charge against his account any item which is otherwise properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft.

(b) A bank which in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to

- (1) the original tenor of his altered item; or
- (2) the tenor of his completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—401.)

§ 4.402. Bank's Liability to Customer for Wrongful Dishonor

A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. When the dishonor occurs through mistake liability is limited to actual damages proved. If so proximately caused and proved damages may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—402.)

§ 4.403. Customer's Right to Stop Payment; Burden of Proof of Loss

(a) A customer may by order to his bank stop payment of any item payable for his account but the order must be received at such time and in such manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to any action by the bank with respect to the item described in Section 4.303.

(b) An order is binding upon the bank only if it is in writing, dated, signed, and describes the item with certainty. An order is effective for only six months unless renewed in writing.

(c) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order is on the customer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—403.)

§ 4.404 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 4.404. Bank Not Obligated to Pay Check More Than Six Months Old

A bank is under no obligation to a customer having a checking account to pay a check, other than a certified check, which is presented more than six months after its date, but it may charge its customer's account for a payment made thereafter in good faith. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—404.)

§ 4.405. Death or Incompetence of Customer

(a) A payor or collecting bank's authority to accept, pay or collect an item or to account for proceeds of its collection if otherwise effective is not rendered ineffective by incompetence of a customer of either bank existing at the time the item is issued or its collection is undertaken if the bank does not know of an adjudication of incompetence. Neither death nor incompetence of a customer revokes such authority to accept, pay, collect or account until the bank knows of the fact of death or of an adjudication of incompetence and has reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(b) Even with knowledge a bank may for ten days after the date of death pay or certify checks drawn on or prior to that date unless ordered to stop payment by a person claiming an interest in the account. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—405.)

§ 4.406. Customer's Duty to Discover and Report Unauthorized Signature or Alteration

(a) When a bank sends to its customer a statement of account accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover his unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof.

(b) If the bank establishes that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by Subsection (a) the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank

- (1) his unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also establishes that it suffered a loss by reason of such failure; and
- (2) an unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period not exceeding fourteen calendar days and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such unauthorized signature or alteration.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 4.407

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) The preclusion under Subsection (b) does not apply if the customer establishes lack of ordinary care on the part of the bank in paying the item(s).

(d) Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within one year from the time the statement and items are made available to the customer (Subsection (a)) discover and report his unauthorized signature or any alteration on the face or back of the item or does not within three years from that time discover and report any unauthorized indorsement is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or indorsement or such alteration.

(e) If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waives or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer's claim. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—406.)

§ 4.407. Payor Bank's Right to Subrogation on Improper Payment

If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights

- (1) of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; and
- (2) of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose; and
- (3) of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—407.)

§ 4.501 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER E. COLLECTION OF DOCUMENTARY DRAFTS

§ 4.501. Handling of Documentary Drafts; Duty to Send for Presentment and to Notify Customer of Dishonor

A bank which takes a documentary draft for collection must present or send the draft and accompanying documents for presentment and upon learning that the draft has not been paid or accepted in due course must seasonably notify its customer of such fact even though it may have discounted or bought the draft or extended credit available for withdrawal as of right. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—501.)

§ 4.502. Presentment of “On Arrival” Drafts

When a draft or the relevant instructions require presentment “on arrival”, “when goods arrive” or the like, the collecting bank need not present until in its judgment a reasonable time for arrival of the goods has expired. Refusal to pay or accept because the goods have not arrived is not dishonor; the bank must notify its transferor of such refusal but need not present the draft again until it is instructed to do so or learns of the arrival of the goods. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—502.)

§ 4.503. Responsibility of Presenting Bank for Documents and Goods; Report of Reasons for Dishonor; Referee in Case of Need

Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in Chapter 5 a bank presenting a documentary draft

- (1) must deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than three days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and
- (2) upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize his services it must use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, must notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor and must request instructions.

But the presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for such expenses. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—503.)

§ 4.504. Privilege of Presenting Bank to Deal With Goods; Security Interest for Expenses

(a) A presenting bank which, following the dishonor of a documentary draft, has seasonably requested instructions but does not receive them within a reasonable time may store, sell, or otherwise deal with the goods in any reasonable manner.

(b) For its reasonable expenses incurred by action under Subsection (a) the presenting bank has a lien upon the goods or their proceeds, which may be foreclosed in the same manner as an unpaid seller's lien. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 4—504.)

Section 5.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Letters of Credit. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—101.)

§ 5.102. Scope

(a) This chapter applies

- (1) to a credit issued by a bank if the credit requires a documentary draft or a documentary demand for payment; and
- (2) to a credit issued by a person other than a bank if the credit requires that the draft or demand for payment be accompanied by a document of title; and
- (3) to a credit issued by a bank or other person if the credit is not within Subdivision (1) or (2) but conspicuously states that it is a letter of credit or is conspicuously so entitled.

(b) Unless the engagement meets the requirements of Subsection (a), this chapter does not apply to engagements to make advances or to honor drafts or demands for payment, to authorities to pay or purchase, to guarantees or to general agreements.

(c) This chapter deals with some but not all of the rules and concepts of letters of credit as such rules or concepts have developed prior to this title or may hereafter develop. The fact that this chapter states a rule does not by itself require, imply or negate application of the same or a converse rule to a situation not provided for or to a person not specified by this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—102.)

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 5.103. Definitions

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires

- (1) "Credit" or "letter of credit" means an engagement by a bank or other person made at the request of a customer and of a kind within the scope of this chapter (Section 5.102) that the issuer will honor drafts or other demands for payment upon compliance with the conditions specified in the credit. A credit may be either revocable or irrevocable. The engagement may be either an agreement to honor or a statement that the bank or other person is authorized to honor.
- (2) A "documentary draft" or a "documentary demand for payment" is one honor of which is conditioned upon the presentation of a document or documents. "Document" means any paper including document of title, security, invoice, certificate, notice of default and the like.
- (3) An "issuer" is a bank or other person issuing a credit.
- (4) A "beneficiary" of a credit is a person who is entitled under its terms to draw or demand payment.
- (5) An "advising bank" is a bank which gives notification of the issuance of a credit by another bank.
- (6) A "confirming bank" is a bank which engages either that it will itself honor a credit already issued by another bank or that such a credit will be honored by the issuer or a third bank.
- (7) A "customer" is a buyer or other person who causes an issuer to issue a credit. The term also includes a bank which procures issuance or confirmation on behalf of that bank's customer.

“Security”. Section 8.102.

(d) In addition, Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—103.)

§ 5.104. Formal Requirements; Signing

(a) Except as otherwise required in Subsection (a) (3) of Section 5.102 on scope, no particular form of phrasing is required for a credit. A credit must be in writing and signed by the issuer and a confirmation must be in writing and signed by the confirming bank. A modification of the terms of a credit or confirmation must be signed by the issuer or confirming bank.

(b) A telegram may be a sufficient signed writing if it identifies its sender by an authorized authentication. The authentication may be in code and the authorized naming of the issuer in an advice of credit is a sufficient signing. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—104.)

§ 5.105. Consideration

No consideration is necessary to establish a credit or to enlarge or otherwise modify its terms. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—105.)

§ 5.106. Time and Effect of Establishment of Credit

(a) Unless otherwise agreed a credit is established

- (1) as regards the customer as soon as a letter of credit is sent to him or the letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance is sent to the beneficiary; and
- (2) as regards the beneficiary when he receives a letter of credit or an authorized written advice of its issuance.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed once an irrevocable credit is established as regards the customer it can be modified or revoked only with the consent of the customer and once it is established as regards the beneficiary it can be modified or revoked only with his consent.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed after a revocable credit is established it may be modified or revoked by the issuer without notice to or consent from the customer or beneficiary.

(d) Notwithstanding any modification or revocation of a revocable credit any person authorized to honor or negotiate under the terms of the original credit is entitled to reimbursement for or honor of any draft or demand for payment duly honored or negotiated before receipt of notice of the modification or revocation and the issuer in turn is entitled to reimbursement from its customer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—106.)

§ 5.107. Advice of Credit; Confirmation; Error in Statement of Terms

(a) Unless otherwise specified an advising bank by advising a credit issued by another bank does not assume any obligation to honor drafts drawn or demands for payment made under the credit but it does assume obligation for the accuracy of its own statement.

(b) A confirming bank by confirming a credit becomes directly obligated on the credit to the extent of its confirmation as though it were its issuer and acquires the rights of an issuer.

(c) Even though an advising bank incorrectly advises the terms of a credit it has been authorized to advise the credit is established as against the issuer to the extent of its original terms.

(d) Unless otherwise specified the customer bears as against the issuer all risks of transmission and reasonable translation or interpretation of any message relating to a credit. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—107.)

§ 5.108. "Notation Credit"; Exhaustion of Credit

(a) A credit which specifies that any person purchasing or paying drafts drawn or demands for payment made under it must note the amount of the draft or demand on the letter or advice of credit is a "notation credit".

(b) Under a notation credit

(1) a person paying the beneficiary or purchasing a draft or demand for payment from him acquires a right to honor only if the appropriate notation is made and by transferring or forwarding for honor the documents under the credit such a person warrants to the issuer that the notation has been made; and

(2) unless the credit or a signed statement that an appropriate notation has been made accompanies the draft or demand for payment the issuer may delay honor until evidence of notation has been procured which is satisfactory to it but its obligation and that of its customer continue for a reasonable time not exceeding thirty days to obtain such evidence.

(c) If the credit is not a notation credit

(1) the issuer may honor complying drafts or demands for payment presented to it in the order in which they are presented and is discharged pro tanto by honor of any such draft or demand;

(2) as between competing good faith purchasers of complying drafts or demands the person first purchasing has priority over a subsequent purchaser even though the later purchased draft or demand has been first honored.

§ 5.108 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—108.)

§ 5.109. Issuer's Obligation to Its Customer

(a) An issuer's obligation to its customer includes good faith and observance of any general banking usage but unless otherwise agreed does not include liability or responsibility

- (1) for performance of the underlying contract for sale or other transaction between the customer and the beneficiary; or
- (2) for any act or omission of any person other than itself or its own branch or for loss or destruction of a draft, demand or document in transit or in the possession of others; or
- (3) based on knowledge or lack of knowledge of any usage of any particular trade.

(b) An issuer must examine documents with care so as to ascertain that on their face they appear to comply with the terms of the credit but unless otherwise agreed assumes no liability or responsibility for the genuineness, falsification or effect of any document which appears on such examination to be regular on its face.

(c) A non-bank issuer is not bound by any banking usage of which it has no knowledge. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—109.)

§ 5.110. Availability of Credit in Portions; Presenter's Reservation of Lien or Claim

(a) Unless otherwise specified a credit may be used in portions in the discretion of the beneficiary.

(b) Unless otherwise specified a person by presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment under a credit relinquishes upon its honor all claims to the documents and a person by transferring such draft or demand or causing such presentment authorizes such relinquishment. An explicit reservation of claim makes the draft or demand non-complying. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—110.)

§ 5.111. Warranties on Transfer and Presentment

(a) Unless otherwise agreed the beneficiary by transferring or presenting a documentary draft or demand for payment warrants to all interested parties that the necessary conditions of the credit have been complied with. This is in addition to any warranties arising under Chapters 3, 4, 7 and 8.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed a negotiating, advising, confirming, collecting or issuing bank presenting or transferring a draft or demand for payment under a credit warrants only the matters warranted by a collecting bank under Chapter 4 and any such bank transferring a document warrants only the matters warranted by an intermediary under Chapters 7 and 8. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—111.)

§ 5.112. Time Allowed for Honor or Rejection; Withholding Honor or Rejection by Consent; "Presenter"

(a) A bank to which a documentary draft or demand for payment is presented under a credit may without dishonor of the draft, demand or credit

- (1) defer honor until the close of the third banking day following receipt of the documents; and
- (2) further defer honor if the presenter has expressly or impliedly consented thereto.

Failure to honor within the time here specified constitutes dishonor of the draft or demand and of the credit except as otherwise provided in Subsection (d) of Section 5.114 on conditional payment.

(b) Upon dishonor the bank may unless otherwise instructed fulfill its duty to return the draft or demand and the documents by holding them at the disposal of the presenter and sending him an advice to that effect.

(c) "Presenter" means any person presenting a draft or demand for payment for honor under a credit even though that person is a confirming bank or other correspondent which is acting under an issuer's authorization. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—112.)

§ 5.113. Indemnities

(a) A bank seeking to obtain (whether for itself or another) honor, negotiation or reimbursement under a credit may give an indemnity to induce such honor, negotiation or reimbursement.

(b) An indemnity agreement inducing honor, negotiation or reimbursement

- (1) unless otherwise explicitly agreed applies to defects in the documents but not in the goods; and
- (2) unless a longer time is explicitly agreed expires at the end of ten business days following receipt of the documents by the ultimate customer unless notice of objection is sent before such expiration date. The ultimate customer may send notice of objection to the person from whom he received the documents and any bank receiving such notice is under a duty to send notice to its transferor before its midnight deadline.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—113.)

§ 5.114 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 5.114. Issuer's Duty and Privilege to Honor; Right to Reimbursement

(a) An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or transfer of a document of title (Section 7.507) or of a security (Section 8.306) or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction

- (1) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course (Section 3.302) and in an appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated (Section 7.502) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (Section 8.302); and
- (2) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit.

(d) When a credit provides for payment by the issuer on receipt of notice that the required documents are in the possession of a correspondent or other agent of the issuer

- (1) any payment made on receipt of such notice is conditional; and
- (2) the issuer may reject documents which do not comply with the credit if it does so within three banking days following its receipt of the documents; and
- (3) in the event of such rejection, the issuer is entitled by charge back or otherwise to return of the payment made.

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(e) In the case covered by Subsection (d) failure to reject documents within the time specified in Subdivision (2), constitutes acceptance of the documents and makes the payment final in favor of the beneficiary. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—114.)

§ 5.115. Remedy for Improper Dishonor or Anticipatory Repudiation

(a) When an issuer wrongfully dishonors a draft or demand for payment presented under a credit the person entitled to honor has with respect to any documents the rights of a person in the position of a seller (Section 2.707) and may recover from the issuer the face amount of the draft or demand together with incidental damages under Section 2.710 on seller's incidental damages and interest but less any amount realized by resale or other use or disposition of the subject matter of the transaction. In the event no resale or other utilization is made the documents, goods or other subject matter involved in the transaction must be turned over to the issuer on payment of judgment.

(b) When an issuer wrongfully cancels or otherwise repudiates a credit before presentment of a draft or demand for payment drawn under it the beneficiary has the rights of a seller after anticipatory repudiation by the buyer under Section 2.610 if he learns of the repudiation in time reasonably to avoid procurement of the required documents. Otherwise the beneficiary has an immediate right of action for wrongful dishonor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—115.)

§ 5.116. Transfer and Assignment

(a) The right to draw under a credit can be transferred or assigned only when the credit is expressly designated as transferable or assignable.

(b) Even though the credit specifically states that it is non-transferable or nonassignable the beneficiary may before performance of the conditions of the credit assign his right to proceeds. Such an assignment is an assignment of a contract right under Chapter 9 on Secured Transactions and is governed by that chapter except that

- (1) the assignment is ineffective until the letter of credit or advice of credit is delivered to the assignee which delivery constitutes perfection of the security interest under Chapter 9; and
- (2) the issuer may honor drafts or demands for payment drawn under the credit until it receives a notification of the assignment signed by the beneficiary which reasonably identifies the credit involved in the assignment and contains a request to pay the assignee; and

§ 5.116 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(3) after what reasonably appears to be such a notification has been received the issuer may without dishonor refuse to accept or pay even to a person otherwise entitled to honor until the letter of credit or advice of credit is exhibited to the issuer.

(c) Except where the beneficiary has effectively assigned his right to draw or his right to proceeds, nothing in this section limits his right to transfer or negotiate drafts or demands drawn under the credit. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—116.)

§ 5.117. Insolvency of Bank Holding Funds for Documentary Credit

(a) Where an issuer or an advising or confirming bank or a bank which has for a customer procured issuance of a credit by another bank becomes insolvent before final payment under the credit and the credit is one to which this chapter is made applicable by Subdivision (1) or (2) of Section 5.102(a) on scope, the receipt or allocation of funds or collateral to secure or meet obligations under the credit shall have the following results:

- (1) to the extent of any funds or collateral turned over after or before the insolvency as indemnity against or specifically for the purpose of payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit, the drafts or demands are entitled to payment in preference over depositors or other general creditors of the issuer or bank; and
- (2) on expiration of the credit or surrender of the beneficiary's rights under it unused any person who has given such funds or collateral is similarly entitled to return thereof; and
- (3) a charge to a general or current account with a bank if specifically consented to for the purpose of indemnity against or payment of drafts or demands for payment drawn under the designated credit falls under the same rules as if the funds had been drawn out in cash and then turned over with specific instructions.

(b) After honor or reimbursement under this section the customer or other person for whose account the insolvent bank has acted is entitled to receive the documents involved. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 5—117.)

Section 6.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Bulk Transfers. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—101.)

§ 6.102. "Bulk Transfers"; Transfers of Equipment; Enterprises Subject to This Chapter; Bulk Transfers Subject to This Chapter

(a) A "bulk transfer" is any transfer in bulk and not in the ordinary course of the transferor's business of a major part of the materials, supplies, merchandise or other inventory (Section 9.109) of an enterprise subject to this chapter.

(b) A transfer of a substantial part of the equipment (Section 9.109) of such an enterprise is a bulk transfer if it is made in connection with a bulk transfer of inventory, but not otherwise.

(c) The enterprises subject to this chapter are all those whose principal business is the sale of merchandise from stock, including those who manufacture what they sell.

(d) Except as limited by the following section all bulk transfers of goods located within this state are subject to this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—102.)

§ 6.103. Transfers Excepted From This Chapter

The following transfers are not subject to this chapter:

- (1) Those made to give security for the performance of an obligation;
- (2) General assignments for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the assignee thereunder;

§ 6.103 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (3) Transfers in settlement or realization of a lien or other security interest;
- (4) Sales by executors, administrators, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or any public officer under judicial process;
- (5) Sales made in the course of judicial or administrative proceedings for the dissolution or reorganization of a corporation and of which notice is sent to the creditors of the corporation pursuant to order of the court or administrative agency;
- (6) Transfers to a person maintaining a known place of business in this state who becomes bound to pay the debts of the transferor in full and gives public notice of that fact, and who is solvent after becoming so bound;
- (7) A transfer to a new business enterprise organized to take over and continue the business, if public notice of the transaction is given and the new enterprise assumes the debts of the transferor and he receives nothing from the transaction except an interest in the new enterprise junior to the claims of creditors;
- (8) Transfers of property which are exempt from execution.

Public notice under Subdivision (6) or (7) may be given by publishing once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation where the transferor had its principal place of business in this state an advertisement including the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee and the effective date of the transfer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—103.)

§ 6.104. Schedule of Property, List of Creditors

(a) Except as provided with respect to auction sales (Section 6.108), a bulk transfer subject to this chapter is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless:

- (1) The transferee requires the transferor to furnish a list of his existing creditors prepared as stated in this section; and
- (2) The parties prepare a schedule of the property transferred sufficient to identify it; and
- (3) The transferee preserves the list and schedule for six months next following the transfer and permits inspection of either or both and copying therefrom at all reasonable hours by any creditor of the transferor, or files the list and schedule in the office of the County Clerk of the county in which the transferor had its principal place of business in this state.

(b) The list of creditors must be signed and sworn to or affirmed by the transferor or his agent. It must contain the names and business addresses of all creditors of the transferor, with the amounts when known, and also the names of all persons who are known to the transferor to assert claims against him even though such claims are disputed. If the transferor is the obligor of an outstanding issue of bonds, debentures or the like as to which there is an indenture trustee, the list of creditors need include only the name and address of the indenture trustee and the aggregate outstanding principal amount of the issue.

(c) Responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the list of creditors rests on the transferor, and the transfer is not rendered ineffective by errors or omissions therein unless the transferee is shown to have had knowledge. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—104.)

§ 6.105. Notice to Creditors

In addition to the requirements of the preceding section, any bulk transfer subject to this chapter except one made by auction sale (Section 6.108) is ineffective against any creditor of the transferor unless at least ten days before he takes possession of the goods or pays for them, whichever happens first, the transferee gives notice of the transfer in the manner and to the persons hereafter provided (Section 6.107). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—105.)

§ 6.106. Application of the Proceeds

In addition to the requirements of the two preceding sections:

- (1) Upon every bulk transfer subject to this chapter for which new consideration becomes payable except those made by sale at auction it is the duty of the transferee to assure that such consideration is applied so far as necessary to pay those debts of the transferor which are either shown on the list furnished by the transferor (Section 6.104) or filed in writing in the place stated in the notice (Section 6.107) within thirty days after the mailing of such notice. This duty of the transferee runs to all the holders of such debts, and may be enforced by any of them for the benefit of all.
- (2) If any of said debts are in dispute the necessary sum may be withheld from distribution until the dispute is settled or adjudicated.
- (3) If the consideration payable is not enough to pay all of the said debts in full distribution shall be made pro rata.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—106.)

§ 6.107 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 6.107. The Notice

(a) The notice to creditors (Section 6.105) shall state:

- (1) that a bulk transfer is about to be made; and
- (2) the names and business addresses of the transferor and transferee, and all other business names and addresses used by the transferor within three years last past so far as known to the transferee; and
- (3) whether or not all the debts of the transferor are to be paid in full as they fall due as a result of the transaction, and if so, the address to which creditors should send their bills.

(b) If the debts of the transferor are not to be paid in full as they fall due or if the transferee is in doubt on that point then the notice shall state further:

- (1) the location and general description of the property to be transferred and the estimated total of the transferor's debts;
- (2) the address where the schedule of property and list of creditors (Section 6.104) may be inspected;
- (3) whether the transfer is to pay existing debts and if so the amount of such debts and to whom owing;
- (4) whether the transfer is for new consideration and if so the amount of such consideration and the time and place of payment; and
- (5) if for new consideration the time and place where creditors of the transferor are to file their claims.

(c) The notice in any case shall be delivered personally or sent by registered or certified mail to all the persons shown on the list of creditors furnished by the transferor (Section 6.104) and to all other persons who are known to the transferee to hold or assert claims against the transferor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—107.)

§ 6.108. Auction Sales; "Auctioneer"

(a) A bulk transfer is subject to this chapter even though it is by sale at auction, but only in the manner and with the results stated in this section.

(b) The transferor shall furnish a list of his creditors and assist in the preparation of a schedule of the property to be sold, both prepared as before stated (Section 6.104).

(c) The person or persons other than the transferor who direct, control or are responsible for the auction are collectively called the "auctioneer". The auctioneer shall:

- (1) receive and retain the list of creditors and prepare and retain the schedule of property for the period stated in this chapter (Section 6.104);

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 6.110

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) give notice of the auction personally or by registered or certified mail at least ten days before it occurs to all persons shown on the list of creditors and to all other persons who are known to him to hold or assert claims against the transferor; and
- (3) assure that the net proceeds of the auction are applied as as provided in this chapter (Section 6.106).

(d) Failure of the auctioneer to perform any of these duties does not affect the validity of the sale or the title of the purchasers, but if the auctioneer knows that the auction constitutes a bulk transfer such failure renders the auctioneer liable to the creditors of the transferor as a class for the sums owing to them from the transferor up to but not exceeding the net proceeds of the auction. If the auctioneer consists of several persons their liability is joint and several. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—108.)

§ 6.109. What Creditors Protected; Credit for Payment to Particular Creditors

(a) The creditors of the transferor mentioned in this chapter are those holding claims based on transactions or events occurring before the bulk transfer, but creditors who become such after notice to creditors is given (Sections 6.105 and 6.107) are not entitled to notice.

(b) Against the aggregate obligation imposed by the provisions of this chapter concerning the application of the proceeds (Section 6.106 and Subsection (c) (3) of 6.108) the transferee or auctioneer is entitled to credit for sums paid to particular creditors of the transferor, not exceeding the sums believed in good faith at the time of the payment to be properly payable to such creditors. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—109.)

§ 6.110. Subsequent Transfers

When the title of a transferee to property is subject to a defect by reason of his noncompliance with the requirements of this chapter, then:

- (1) a purchaser of any of such property from such transferee who pays no value or who takes with notice of such non-compliance takes subject to such defect, but
- (2) a purchaser for value in good faith and without such notice takes free of such defect.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—110.)

§ 6.111 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 6.111. Limitation of Actions and Levies

No action under this chapter shall be brought nor levy made more than six months after the date on which the transferee took possession of the goods unless the transfer has been concealed. If the transfer has been concealed, actions may be brought or levies made within six months after its discovery. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 6—111.)

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL

Section 7.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Documents of Title. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—101.)

§ 7.102. Definitions and Index of Definitions

- (a) In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:
 - (1) "Bailee" means the person who by a warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title acknowledges possession of goods and contracts to deliver them.
 - (2) "Consignee" means the person named in a bill to whom or to whose order the bill promises delivery.
 - (3) "Consignor" means the person named in a bill as the person from whom the goods have been received for shipment.
 - (4) "Delivery order" means a written order to deliver goods directed to a warehouseman, carrier or other person who in the ordinary course of business issues warehouse receipts or bills of lading.
 - (5) "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions in Chapter 1 (Section 1.201).
 - (6) "Goods" means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 7.104

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (7) "Issuer" means a bailee who issues a document except that in relation to an unaccepted delivery order it means the person who orders the possessor of goods to deliver. Issuer includes any person for whom an agent or employee purports to act in issuing a document if the agent or employee has real or apparent authority to issue documents, notwithstanding that the issuer received no goods or that the goods were misdescribed or that in any other respect the agent or employee violated his instructions.
- (8) "Warehouseman" is a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.
- (b) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified subchapters thereof, and the sections in which they appear are:
- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------|
| "Duly negotiate". | Section 7.501. |
| "Person entitled under the document". | Section 7.403(d). |
- (c) Definitions in other chapters applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:
- | | |
|----------------------|----------------|
| "Contract for sale". | Section 2.106. |
| "Overseas". | Section 2.323. |
| "Receipt" of goods. | Section 2.103. |
- (d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—102.)

§ 7.103. Relation of Chapter to Treaty, Statute, Tariff, Classification or Regulation

To the extent that any treaty or statute of the United States, regulatory statute of this state or tariff, classification or regulation filed or issued pursuant thereto is applicable, the provisions of this chapter are subject thereto. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—103.)

§ 7.104. Negotiable and Non-Negotiable Warehouse Receipt, Bill of Lading or Other Document of Title

- (a) A warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document of title is negotiable
- (1) if by its terms the goods are to be delivered to bearer or to the order of a named person; or
 - (2) where recognized in overseas trade, if it runs to a named person or assigns.
- (b) Any other document is non-negotiable. A bill of lading in which it is stated that the goods are consigned to a named person is not made negotiable by a provision that the goods are to be delivered only against a written order signed by the same or another named person. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—104.)

§ 7.104 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 7.105. Construction Against Negative Implication

The omission from either Subchapter B or Subchapter C of this chapter of a provision corresponding to a provision made in the other subchapter does not imply that a corresponding rule of law is not applicable. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—105.)

SUBCHAPTER B. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7.201. Who May Issue a Warehouse Receipt; Storage Under Government Bond

(a) A warehouse receipt may be issued by any warehouseman.

(b) Where goods including distilled spirits and agricultural commodities are stored under a statute requiring a bond against withdrawal or a license for the issuance of receipts in the nature of warehouse receipts, a receipt issued for the goods has like effect as a warehouse receipt even though issued by a person who is the owner of the goods and is not a warehouseman. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—201.)

§ 7.202. Form of Warehouse Receipt; Essential Term; Optional Terms

(a) A warehouse receipt need not be in any particular form.

(b) Unless a warehouse receipt embodies within its written or printed terms each of the following, the warehouseman is liable for damages caused by the omission to a person injured thereby:

- (1) the location of the warehouse where the goods are stored;
- (2) the date of issue of the receipt;
- (3) the consecutive number of the receipt;
- (4) a statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order;
- (5) the rate of storage and handling charges, except that where goods are stored under a field warehousing arrangement a statement of that fact is sufficient on a non-negotiable receipt;
- (6) a description of the goods or of the packages containing them;
- (7) the signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (8) if the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership; and
- (9) a statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien or security interest (Section 7.209). If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

(c) A warehouseman may insert in his receipt any other terms which are not contrary to the provisions of this title and do not impair his obligation of delivery (Section 7.403) or his duty of care (Section 7.204). Any contrary provisions shall be ineffective. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—202.)

§ 7.203. Liability for Non-Receipt or Misdescription

A party to or purchaser for value in good faith of a document of title other than a bill of lading relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods may recover from the issuer damages caused by the non-receipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document conspicuously indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity or condition, or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents, condition and quality unknown", "said to contain" or the like, if such indication be true, or the party or purchaser otherwise has notice. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—203.)

§ 7.204. Duty of Care; Contractual Limitation of Warehouseman's Liability

(a) A warehouseman is liable for damages for loss of or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful man would exercise under like circumstances but unless otherwise agreed he is not liable for damages which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

(b) Damages may be limited by a term in the warehouse receipt or storage agreement limiting the amount of liability in case of loss or damage, and setting forth a specific liability per article or item, or value per unit of weight, beyond which the warehouseman shall not be liable; provided, however, that such liability may on written request of the bailor at the time of signing such storage agreement or within a reasonable time after receipt of the warehouse receipt be increased on part or all of the goods thereunder, in which event increased rates may be charged based on such increased valuation, but that no such increase shall be permitted contrary to a lawful limitation of liability contained in the warehouseman's tariff, if any. No such limitation is effective with respect to the warehouseman's liability for conversion to his own use.

(c) Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the bailment may be included in the warehouse receipt or tariff.

(d) This section does not impair or repeal Texas Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, Articles 5545 and 5546. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—204.)

§ 7.205. Title Under Warehouse Receipt Defeated in Certain Cases

A buyer in the ordinary course of business of fungible goods sold and delivered by a warehouseman who is also in the business of buying and selling such goods takes free of any claim under a warehouse receipt even though it has been duly negotiated. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—205.)

§ 7.206. Termination of Storage at Warehouseman's Option

(a) A warehouseman may on notifying the person on whose account the goods are held and any other person known to claim an interest in the goods require payment of any charges and removal of the goods from the warehouse at the termination of the period of storage fixed by the document, or, if no period is fixed, within a stated period not less than thirty days after the notification. If the goods are not removed before the date specified in the notification, the warehouseman may sell them in accordance with the provisions of the section on enforcement of a warehouseman's lien (Section 7.210).

(b) If a warehouseman in good faith believes that the goods are about to deteriorate or decline in value to less than the amount of his lien within the time prescribed in Subsection (a) for notification, advertisement and sale, the warehouseman may specify in the notification any reasonable shorter time for removal of the goods and in case the goods are not removed, may sell them at public sale held not less than one week after a single advertisement or posting.

(c) If as a result of a quality or condition of the goods of which the warehouseman had no notice at the time of deposit the goods are a hazard to other property or to the warehouse or to persons, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without advertisement on reasonable notification to all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell the goods he may dispose of them in any lawful manner and shall incur no liability by reason of such disposition.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 7.209

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) The warehouseman must deliver the goods to any person entitled to them under this chapter upon due demand made at any time prior to sale or other disposition under this section.

(e) The warehouseman may satisfy his lien from the proceeds of any sale or disposition under this section but must hold the balance for delivery on the demand of any person to whom he would have been bound to deliver the goods. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—206.)

§ 7.207. Goods Must be Kept Separate; Fungible Goods

(a) Unless the warehouse receipt otherwise provides, a warehouseman must keep separate the goods covered by each receipt so as to permit at all times identification and delivery of those goods except that different lots of fungible goods may be commingled.

(b) Fungible goods so commingled are owned in common by the persons entitled thereto and the warehouseman is severally liable to each owner for that owner's share. Where because of overissue a mass of fungible goods is insufficient to meet all the receipts which the warehouseman has issued against it, the persons entitled include all holders to whom overissued receipts have been duly negotiated. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—207.)

§ 7.208. Altered Warehouse Receipts

Where a blank in a negotiable warehouse receipt has been filled in without authority, a purchaser for value and without notice of the want of authority may treat the insertion as authorized. Any other unauthorized alteration leaves any receipt enforceable against the issuer according to its original tenor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—208.)

§ 7.209. Lien of Warehouseman

(a) (1) A warehouseman has a lien against the bailor on the goods covered by a warehouse receipt or on the proceeds thereof in his possession for charges for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges), insurance, labor, or charges present or future in relation to the goods, and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law.

(2) If the person on whose account the goods are held is liable for like charges or expenses in relation to other goods whenever deposited and it is stated in the receipt that a lien is claimed for charges and expenses in relation to other goods,

the warehouseman also has a lien against him for such charges and expenses whether or not the other goods have been delivered by the warehouseman. But against a person to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt is duly negotiated a warehouseman's lien is limited to charges in an amount or at a rate specified on the receipt or if no charges are so specified then to a reasonable charge for storage of the goods covered by the receipt subsequent to the date of the receipt.

(b) The warehouseman may also reserve a security interest against the bailor for a maximum amount specified on the receipt for charges other than those specified in Subsection (a), such as for money advanced and interest. Such a security interest is governed by the chapter on Secured Transactions (Chapter 9).

(c) A warehouseman's lien for charges and expenses under Subsection (a) or a security interest under Subsection (b) is also effective against any person who so entrusted the bailor with possession of the goods that a pledge of them by him to a good faith purchaser for value would have been valid but is not effective against a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under Section 7.503. However, the warehouseman's specific lien for charges and expenses under Subsection (a) (1) is effective against any security interest. If the warehouseman learns of a perfected security interest owned by a person as to whom the document confers no right in the goods covered by it under Section 7.503 against the goods and fails thereafter to give such secured party (Section 9.105) written notice of the accrued and unpaid charges and expenses at the time when they have accrued for between two and six months, then the warehouseman's specific lien under Subsection (a) (1) is effective as against such secured party only with respect to unpaid charges and expenses which have accrued by the end of six months.

(d) A warehouseman loses his lien on any goods which he voluntarily delivers or which he unjustifiably refuses to deliver. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—209.)

§ 7.210. Enforcement of Warehouseman's Lien

(a) Except as provided in Subsection (b), a warehouseman's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods in block or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the warehouseman is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the warehouseman either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor, or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale, or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold, he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to insure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

§ 7.210

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) A warehouseman's lien on goods other than goods stored by a merchant in the course of his business may be enforced only as follows:

- (1) All persons known to claim an interest in the goods must be notified.
- (2) The notification must be delivered in person or sent by registered or certified letter to the last known address of any person to be notified.
- (3) The notification must include an itemized statement of the claim, a description of the goods subject to the lien, a demand for payment within a specified time not less than ten days after receipt of the notification, and a conspicuous statement that unless the claim is paid within that time the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.
- (4) The sale must conform to the terms of the notification.
- (5) The sale must be held at the nearest suitable place to that where the goods are held or stored.
- (6) After the expiration of the time given in the notification, an advertisement of the sale must be published once a week for two weeks consecutively in a newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held. The advertisement must include a description of the goods, the name of the person on whose account they are being held, and the time and place of the sale. The sale must take place at least fifteen days after the first publication. If there is no newspaper of general circulation where the sale is to be held, the advertisement must be posted at least ten days before the sale in not less than six conspicuous places in the neighborhood of the proposed sale.

(c) Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be retained by the warehouseman subject to the terms of the receipt and this chapter.

§ 7.210 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(d) The warehouseman may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

(e) A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a warehouseman's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the warehouseman with the requirements of this section.

(f) The warehouseman may satisfy his lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom he would have been bound to deliver the goods.

(g) The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor.

(h) Where a lien is on goods stored by a merchant in the course of his business the lien may be enforced in accordance with either Subsection (a) or (b).

(i) The warehouseman is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—210.)

SUBCHAPTER C. BILLS OF LADING: SPECIAL PROVISIONS

§ 7.301. Liability for Non-Receipt or Misdescription; "Said to Contain"; "Shipper's Load and Count"; Improper Handling

(a) A consignee of a non-negotiable bill who has given value in good faith or a holder to whom a negotiable bill has been duly negotiated relying in either case upon the description therein of the goods, or upon the date therein shown, may recover from the issuer damages caused by the misdating of the bill or the non-receipt or misdescription of the goods, except to the extent that the document indicates that the issuer does not know whether any part or all of the goods in fact were received or conform to the description, as where the description is in terms of marks or labels or kind, quantity, or condition or the receipt or description is qualified by "contents or condition of contents of packages unknown", "said to contain", "shipper's weight, load and count" or the like, if such indication be true.

(b) When goods are loaded by an issuer who is a common carrier, the issuer must count the packages of goods if package freight and ascertain the kind and quantity if bulk freight. In such cases "shipper's weight, load and count" or other words indicating that the description was made by the shipper are ineffective except as to freight concealed by packages.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 7.302

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) When bulk freight is loaded by a shipper who makes available to the issuer adequate facilities for weighing such freight, an issuer who is a common carrier must ascertain the kind and quantity within a reasonable time after receiving the written request of the shipper to do so. In such cases "shipper's weight" or other words of like purport are ineffective.

(d) The issuer may by inserting in the bill the words "shipper's weight, load and count" or other words of like purport indicate that the goods were loaded by the shipper; and if such statement be true the issuer shall not be liable for damages caused by the improper loading. But their omission does not imply liability for such damages.

(e) The shipper shall be deemed to have guaranteed to the issuer the accuracy at the time of shipment of the description, marks, labels, number, kind, quantity, condition and weight, as furnished by him; and the shipper shall indemnify the issuer against damage caused by inaccuracies in such particulars. The right of the issuer to such indemnity shall in no way limit his responsibility and liability under the contract of carriage to any person other than the shipper. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—301.)

§ 7.302. Through Bills of Lading and Similar Documents

(a) The issuer of a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons acting as its agents or by connecting carriers is liable to anyone entitled to recover on the document for any breach by such other persons or by a connecting carrier of its obligation under the document but to the extent that the bill covers an undertaking to be performed overseas or in territory not contiguous to the continental United States or an undertaking including matters other than transportation this liability may be varied by agreement of the parties.

(b) Where goods covered by a through bill of lading or other document embodying an undertaking to be performed in part by persons other than the issuer are received by any such person, he is subject with respect to his own performance while the goods are in his possession to the obligation of the issuer. His obligation is discharged by delivery of the goods to another such person pursuant to the document, and does not include liability for breach by any other such persons or by the issuer.

(c) The issuer of such through bill of lading or other document shall be entitled to recover from the connecting carrier or such other person in possession of the goods when the breach of the obligation under the document occurred, the amount it may be required to pay to anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor, as may be evidenced by any receipt, judgment, or transcript thereof, and the amount of any expense reasonably incurred by it in defending any action brought by anyone entitled to recover on the document therefor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—302.)

§ 7.303. Diversion; Reconsignment; Change of Instructions

(a) Unless the bill of lading otherwise provides, the carrier may deliver the goods to a person or destination other than that stated in the bill or may otherwise dispose of the goods on instructions from

- (1) the holder of a negotiable bill; or
- (2) the consignor on a non-negotiable bill notwithstanding contrary instructions from the consignee; or
- (3) the consignee on a non-negotiable bill in the absence of contrary instructions from the consignor, if the goods have arrived at the billed destination or if the consignee is in possession of the bill; or
- (4) the consignee on a non-negotiable bill if he is entitled as against the consignor to dispose of them.

(b) Unless such instructions are noted on a negotiable bill of lading, a person to whom the bill is duly negotiated can hold the bailee according to the original terms. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—303.)

§ 7.304. Bills of Lading in a Set

(a) Except where customary in overseas transportation, a bill of lading must not be issued in a set of parts. The issuer is liable for damages caused by violation of this subsection.

(b) Where a bill of lading is lawfully drawn in a set of parts, each of which is numbered and expressed to be valid only if the goods have not been delivered against any other part, the whole of the parts constitute one bill.

(c) Where a bill of lading is lawfully issued in a set of parts and different parts are negotiated to different persons, the title of the holder to whom the first due negotiation is made prevails as to both the document and the goods even though any later holder may have received the goods from the carrier in good faith and discharged the carrier's obligation by surrender of his part.

(d) Any person who negotiates or transfers a single part of a bill of lading drawn in a set is liable to holders of that part as if it were the whole set.

(e) The bailee is obliged to deliver in accordance with Subchapter D of this chapter against the first presented part of a bill of lading lawfully drawn in a set. Such delivery discharges the bailee's obligation on the whole bill. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—304.)

§ 7.305. Destination Bills

(a) Instead of issuing a bill of lading to the consignor at the place of shipment a carrier may at the request of the consignor procure the bill to be issued at destination or at any other place designated in the request.

(b) Upon request of anyone entitled as against the carrier to control the goods while in transit and on surrender of any outstanding bill of lading or other receipt covering such goods, the issuer may procure a substitute bill to be issued at any place designated in the request. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—305.)

§ 7.306. Altered Bills of Lading

An unauthorized alteration or filling in of a blank in a bill of lading leaves the bill enforceable according to its original tenor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—306.)

§ 7.307. Lien of Carrier

(a) A carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading for charges subsequent to the date of its receipt of the goods for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges) and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law. But against a purchaser for value of a negotiable bill of lading a carrier's lien is limited to charges stated in the bill or the applicable tariffs, or if no charges are stated then to a reasonable charge.

(b) A lien for charges and expenses under Subsection (a) on goods which the carrier was required by law to receive for transportation is effective against the consignor or any person entitled to the goods unless the carrier had notice that the consignor lacked authority to subject the goods to such charges and expenses. Any other lien under Subsection (a) is effective against the consignor and any person who permitted the bailor to have control or possession of the goods unless the carrier had notice that the bailor lacked such authority.

(c) A carrier loses his lien on any goods which he voluntarily delivers or which he unjustifiably refuses to deliver. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—307.)

§ 7.308. Enforcement of Carrier's Lien

(a) A carrier's lien may be enforced by public or private sale of the goods, in bloc or in parcels, at any time or place and on any terms which are commercially reasonable, after notifying all persons known to claim an interest in the goods. Such notification must include a statement of the amount due, the nature of the proposed sale and the time and place of any public sale. The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the carrier is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the carrier either sells the goods in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with commercially reasonable practices among dealers in the type of goods sold he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A sale of more goods than apparently necessary to be offered to ensure satisfaction of the obligation is not commercially reasonable except in cases covered by the preceding sentence.

(b) Before any sale pursuant to this section any person claiming a right in the goods may pay the amount necessary to satisfy the lien and the reasonable expenses incurred under this section. In that event the goods must not be sold, but must be retained by the carrier subject to the terms of the bill and this chapter.

(c) The carrier may buy at any public sale pursuant to this section.

(d) A purchaser in good faith of goods sold to enforce a carrier's lien takes the goods free of any rights of persons against whom the lien was valid, despite noncompliance by the carrier with the requirements of this section.

(e) The carrier may satisfy his lien from the proceeds of any sale pursuant to this section but must hold the balance, if any, for delivery on demand to any person to whom he would have been bound to deliver the goods.

(f) The rights provided by this section shall be in addition to all other rights allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor.

(g) A carrier's lien may be enforced in accordance with either Subsection (a) or the procedure set forth in Subsection (b) of Section 7.210.

(h) The carrier is liable for damages caused by failure to comply with the requirements for sale under this section and in case of willful violation is liable for conversion. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—308.)

§ 7.309. Duty of Care; Contractual Limitation of Carrier's Liability

(a) A carrier who issues a bill of lading whether negotiable or non-negotiable must exercise the degree of care in relation to the goods which a reasonably careful man would exercise under like circumstances. This subsection does not repeal or change any law or rule of law which imposes liability upon a common carrier for damages not caused by its negligence.

(b) Damages may be limited by a provision that the carrier's liability shall not exceed a value stated in the document if the carrier's rates are dependent upon value and the consignor by the carrier's tariff is afforded an opportunity to declare a higher value or a value as lawfully provided in the tariff, or where no tariff is filed he is otherwise advised of such opportunity; but no such limitation is effective with respect to the carrier's liability for conversion to its own use.

(c) Reasonable provisions as to the time and manner of presenting claims and instituting actions based on the shipment may be included in a bill of lading or tariff. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—309.)

SUBCHAPTER D. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: GENERAL OBLIGATIONS

§ 7.401. Irregularities in Issue of Receipt or Bill or Conduct of Issuer

The obligations imposed by this chapter on an issuer apply to a document of title regardless of the fact that

- (1) the document may not comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any other law or regulation regarding its issue, form or content; or
- (2) the issuer may have violated laws regulating the conduct of his business; or
- (3) the goods covered by the document were owned by the bailee at the time the document was issued; or
- (4) the person issuing the document does not come within the definition of warehouseman if it purports to be a warehouse receipt.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—401.)

§ 7.402. Duplicate Receipt or Bill; Overissue

Neither a duplicate nor any other document of title purporting to cover goods already represented by an outstanding document of the same issuer confers any right in the goods, except as provided in the case of bills in a set, overissue of documents for fungible goods substitutes for lost, stolen or destroyed documents. But the issuer is liable for damages caused by his overissue or failure to identify a duplicate document as such by conspicuous notation on its face. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—402.)

§ 7.403 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 7.403. Obligation of Warehouseman or Carrier to Deliver; Excuse

(a) The bailee must deliver the goods to a person entitled under the document who complies with Subsections (b) and (c), unless and to the extent that the bailee establishes any of the following:

- (1) delivery of the goods to a person whose receipt was rightful as against the claimant;
- (2) damage to or delay, loss or destruction of the goods for which the bailee is not liable, but the burden of establishing negligence in case of damage or destruction by fire is on the person entitled under the document;
- (3) previous sale or other disposition of the goods in lawful enforcement of a lien or on warehouseman's lawful termination of storage;
- (4) the exercise by a seller of his right to stop delivery pursuant to the provisions of the chapter on Sales (Section 2.705);
- (5) a diversion, reconsignment or other disposition pursuant to the provisions of this chapter (Section 7.303) or tariff regulating such right;
- (6) release, satisfaction or any other fact affording a personal defense against the claimant;
- (7) any other lawful excuse.

(b) A person claiming goods covered by a document of title must satisfy the bailee's lien where the bailee so requests or where the bailee is prohibited by law from delivering the goods until the charges are paid.

(c) Unless the person claiming is one against whom the document confers no right under Section 7.503(a), he must surrender for cancellation or notation of partial deliveries any outstanding negotiable document covering the goods, and the bailee must cancel the document or conspicuously note the partial delivery thereon or be liable to any person to whom the document is duly negotiated.

(d) "Person entitled under the document" means holder in the case of a negotiable document, or the person to whom delivery is to be made by the terms of or pursuant to written instructions under a non-negotiable document. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—403.)

§ 7.404. No Liability for Good Faith Delivery Pursuant to Receipt or Bill

A bailee who in good faith including observance of reasonable commercial standards has received goods and delivered or otherwise disposed of them according to the terms of the document of title or pursuant to this chapter is not liable therefor. This rule applies even though the person from whom he received the goods had no authority to procure the document or to dispose of the goods and even though the person to whom he delivered the goods had no authority to receive them. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—404.)

SUBCHAPTER E. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: NEGOTIATION AND TRANSFER

§ 7.501. Form of Negotiation and Requirements of "Due Negotiation"

(a) A negotiable document of title running to the order of a named person is negotiated by his indorsement and delivery. After his indorsement in blank or to bearer any person can negotiate it by delivery alone.

(b) (1) A negotiable document of title is also negotiated by delivery alone when by its original terms it runs to bearer.

(2) When a document running to the order of a named person is delivered to him the effect is the same as if the document had been negotiated.

(c) Negotiation of a negotiable document of title after it has been indorsed to a specified person requires indorsement by the special indorsee as well as delivery.

(d) A negotiable document of title is "duly negotiated" when it is negotiated in the manner stated in this section to a holder who purchases it in good faith without notice of any defense against or claim to it on the part of any person and for value, unless it is established that the negotiation is not in the regular course of business or financing or involves receiving the document in settlement or payment of a money obligation.

(e) Indorsement of a non-negotiable document neither makes it negotiable nor adds to the transferee's rights.

(f) The naming in a negotiable bill of a person to be notified of the arrival of the goods does not limit the negotiability of the bill nor constitute notice to a purchaser thereof of any interest of such person in the goods. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—501.)

§ 7.502. Rights Acquired by Due Negotiation

(a) Subject to the following section and to the provisions of Section 7.205 on fungible goods, a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

(1) title to the document;

(2) title to the goods;

§ 7.502 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (3) all rights accruing under the law of agency or estoppel, including rights to goods delivered to the bailee after the document was issued; and
- (4) the direct obligation of the issuer to hold or deliver the goods according to the terms of the document free of any defense or claim by him except those arising under the terms of the document or under this chapter. In the case of a delivery order the bailee's obligation accrues only upon acceptance and the obligation acquired by the holder is that the issuer and any indorser will procure the acceptance of the bailee.

(b) Subject to the following section, title and rights so acquired are not defeated by any stoppage of the goods represented by the document or by surrender of such goods by the bailee, and are not impaired even though the negotiation or any prior negotiation constituted a breach of duty or even though any person has been deprived of possession of the document by misrepresentation, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, loss, theft or conversion, or even though a previous sale or other transfer of the goods or document has been made to a third person. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—502.)

§ 7.503. Document of Title to Goods Defeated in Certain Cases

(a) A document of title confers no right in goods against a person who before issuance of the document had a legal interest or a perfected security interest in them and who neither

- (1) delivered or entrusted them or any document of title covering them to the bailor or his nominee with actual or apparent authority to ship, store or sell or with power to obtain delivery under this chapter (Section 7.403) or with power of disposition under this title (Sections 2.403 and 9.307) or other statute or rule of law; nor
- (2) acquiesced in the procurement by the bailor or his nominee of any document of title.

(b) Title to goods based upon an unaccepted delivery order is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a negotiable warehouse receipt or bill of lading covering the goods has been duly negotiated. Such a title may be defeated under the next section to the same extent as the rights of the issuer or a transferee from the issuer.

(c) Title to goods based upon a bill of lading issued to a freight forwarder is subject to the rights of anyone to whom a bill issued by the freight forwarder is duly negotiated; but delivery by the carrier in accordance with Subchapter D of this chapter pursuant to its own bill of lading discharges the carrier's obligation to delivery. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—503.)

§ 7.504. Rights Acquired in the Absence of Due Negotiation; Effect of Diversion; Seller's Stoppage of Delivery

(a) A transferee of a document, whether negotiable or non-negotiable, to whom the document has been delivered but not duly negotiated, acquires the title and rights which his transferor had or had actual authority to convey.

(b) In the case of a non-negotiable document, until but not after the bailee receives notification of the transfer, the rights of the transferee may be defeated

- (1) by those creditors of the transferor who could treat the sale as void under Section 2.402; or
- (2) by a buyer from the transferor in ordinary course of business if the bailee has delivered the goods to the buyer or received notification of his rights; or
- (3) as against the bailee by good faith dealings of the bailee with the transferor.

(c) A diversion or other change of shipping instructions by the consignor in a non-negotiable bill of lading which causes the bailee not to deliver to the consignee defeats the consignee's title to the goods if they have been delivered to a buyer in ordinary course of business and in any event defeats the consignee's rights against the bailee.

(d) Delivery pursuant to a non-negotiable document may be stopped by a seller under Section 2.705, and subject to the requirement of due notification there provided. A bailee honoring the seller's instructions is entitled to be indemnified by the seller against any resulting loss or expense. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—504.)

§ 7.505. Indorser Not a Guarantor for Other Parties

The indorsement of a document of title issued by a bailee does not make the indorser liable for any default by the bailee or by previous indorsers. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—505.)

§ 7.506. Delivery Without Indorsement: Right to Compel Indorsement

The transferee of a negotiable document of title has a specifically enforceable right to have his transferor supply any necessary indorsement but the transfer becomes a negotiation only as of the time the indorsement is supplied. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—506.)

§ 7.507. Warranties on Negotiation or Transfer of Receipt or Bill

Where a person negotiates or transfers a document of title for value otherwise than as a mere intermediary under the next following

§ 7.507 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

section, then unless otherwise agreed he warrants to his immediate purchaser only in addition to any warranty made in selling the goods

- (1) that the document is genuine; and
- (2) that he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair its validity or worth; and
- (3) that his negotiation or transfer is rightful and fully effective with respect to the title to the document and the goods it represents.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—507.)

§ 7.508. Warranties of Collecting Bank as to Documents

A collecting bank or other intermediary known to be entrusted with documents on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against delivery of documents warrants by such delivery of the documents only its own good faith and authority. This rule applies even though the intermediary has purchased or made advances against the claim or draft to be collected. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—508.)

§ 7.509. Receipt or Bill: When Adequate Compliance With Commercial Contract

The question whether a document is adequate to fulfill the obligations of a contract for sale or the conditions of a credit is governed by the chapters on Sales (Chapter 2) and on Letters of Credit (Chapter 5). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—509.)

SUBCHAPTER F. WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS AND BILLS OF LADING: MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 7.601. Lost and Missing Documents

(a) If a document has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a court may order delivery of the goods or issuance of a substitute document and the bailee may without liability to any person comply with such order. If the document was negotiable the claimant must post security approved by the court to indemnify any person who may suffer loss as a result of a non-surrender of the document. If the document was not negotiable, such security may be required at the discretion of the court. The court may also in its discretion order payment of the bailee's reasonable costs and counsel fees.

(b) A bailee who without court order delivers goods to a person claiming under a missing negotiable document is liable to any person injured thereby, and if the delivery is not in good faith becomes liable for conversion. Delivery in good faith is not conversion if made in accordance with a filed classification or tariff or, where no classification or tariff is filed, if the claimant posts security with the bailee in an amount at least double the value of the goods at the time of posting to indemnify any person injured by the delivery who files a notice of claim within one year after the delivery. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—601.)

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 7.602. Attachment of Goods Covered by a Negotiable Document

Except where the document was originally issued upon delivery of the goods by a person who had no power to dispose of them, no lien attaches by virtue of any judicial process to goods in the possession of a bailee for which a negotiable document of title is outstanding unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined, and the bailee shall not be compelled to deliver the goods pursuant to process until the document is surrendered to him or impounded by the court. One who purchases the document for value without notice of the process or injunction takes free of the lien imposed by judicial process. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—602.)

§ 7.603. Conflicting Claims; Interpleader

If more than one person claims title or possession of the goods, the bailee is excused from delivery until he has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claims or to bring an action to compel all claimants to interplead and may compel such interpleader, either in defending an action for non-delivery of the goods, or by original action, whichever is appropriate. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 7—603.)

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE AND GENERAL MATTERS

Section 8.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Investment Securities. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—101.)

§ 8.102. Definitions and Index of Definitions

- (a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires
 - (1) A “security” is an instrument which
 - (A) is issued in bearer or registered form; and
 - (B) is of a type commonly dealt in upon securities exchanges or markets or commonly recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; and
 - (C) is either one of a class or series or by its terms is divisible into a class or series of instruments; and
 - (D) evidences a share, participation or other interest in property or in an enterprise or evidences an obligation of the issuer.
 - (2) A writing which is a security is governed by this chapter and not by Uniform Commercial Code—Commercial Paper even though it also meets the requirements of that chapter. This chapter does not apply to money.
 - (3) A security is in “registered form” when it specifies a person entitled to the security or to the rights it evidences and when its transfer may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of an issuer or the security so states.
 - (4) A security is in “bearer form” when it runs to bearer according to its terms and not by reason of any indorsement.
- (b) A “subsequent purchaser” is a person who takes other than by original issue.

§ 8.102 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) A "clearing corporation" is a corporation all of the capital stock of which is held by or for a national securities exchange or association registered under a statute of the United States such as the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(d) A "custodian bank" is any bank or trust company which is supervised and examined by state or federal authority having supervision over banks and which is acting as custodian for a clearing corporation.

(e) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified subchapters thereof and the sections in which they appear are:

"Adverse claim".	Section 8.301.
"Bona fide purchaser".	Section 8.302.
"Broker".	Section 8.303.
"Guarantee of the signature".	Section 8.402.
"Intermediary bank".	Section 4.105.
"Issuer".	Section 8.201.
"Overissue".	Section 8.104.

(f) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—102.)

§ 8.103. Issuer's Lien

A lien upon a security in favor of an issuer thereof is valid against a purchaser only if the right of the issuer to such lien is noted conspicuously on the security. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—103.)

§ 8.104. Effect of Overissue; "Overissue"

(a) The provisions of this chapter which validate a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue or reissue would result in overissue; but

- (1) if an identical security which does not constitute an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase and deliver such a security to him against surrender of the security, if any, which he holds; or
- (2) if a security is not so available for purchase, the person entitled to issue or validation may recover from the issuer the price he or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest from the date of his demand.

(b) "Overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount which the issuer has corporate power to issue. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—104.)

§ 8.105. Securities Negotiable; Presumptions

(a) Securities governed by this chapter are negotiable instruments.

(b) In any action on a security

- (1) unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on the security or in a necessary indorsement is admitted;
- (2) when the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue the burden of establishing it is on the party claiming under the signature but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized;
- (3) when signatures are admitted or established production of the instrument entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the validity of the security; and
- (4) after it is shown that a defense or defect exists the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that he or some person under whom he claims is a person against whom the defense or defect is ineffective (Section 8.202).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—105.)

§ 8.106. Applicability

The validity of a security and the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction of organization of the issuer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—106.)

§ 8.107. Securities Deliverable; Action for Price

(a) Unless otherwise agreed and subject to any applicable law or regulation respecting short sales, a person obligated to deliver securities may deliver any security of the specified issue in bearer form or registered in the name of the transferee or indorsed to him or in blank.

(b) When the buyer fails to pay the price as it comes due under a contract of sale the seller may recover the price

- (1) of securities accepted by the buyer; and
- (2) of other securities if efforts at their resale would be unduly burdensome or if there is no readily available market for their resale.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—107.)

§ 8.201 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER B. ISSUE—ISSUER

§ 8.201. “Issuer”

(a) With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security “issuer” includes a person who

- (1) places or authorizes the placing of his name on a security (otherwise than as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like) to evidence that it represents a share, participation or other interest in his property or in an enterprise or to evidence his duty to perform an obligation evidenced by the security; or
- (2) directly or indirectly creates fractional interests in his rights or property which fractional interests are evidenced by securities; or
- (3) becomes responsible for or in place of any other person described as an issuer in this section.

(b) With respect to obligations on or defenses to a security a guarantor is an issuer to the extent of his guaranty whether or not his obligation is noted on the security.

(c) With respect to registration of transfer (Subchapter D of this chapter) “issuer” means a person on whose behalf transfer books are maintained. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—201.)

§ 8.202. Issuer’s Responsibility and Defenses; Notice of Defect or Defense

(a) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a security include those stated on the security and those made part of the security by reference to another instrument, indenture or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order or the like to the extent that the terms so referred to do not conflict with the stated terms. Such a reference does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security even though the security expressly states that a person accepting it admits such notice.

- (b) (1) A security other than one issued by a government or governmental agency or unit even though issued with a defect going to its validity is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of constitutional provisions in which case the security is valid in the hands of a subsequent purchaser for value and without notice of the defect.
- (2) The rule of Subdivision (1) applies to an issuer which is a government or governmental agency or unit only if either

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 8.204
For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or issue the security.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the case of certain unauthorized signatures on issue (Section 8.205), lack of genuineness of a security is a complete defense even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

(d) All other defenses of the issuer including nondelivery and conditional delivery of the security are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken without notice of the particular defense.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the right of a party to a "when, as and if issued" or a "when distributed" contract to cancel the contract in the event of a material change in the character of the security which is the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which such security is to be issued or distributed. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—202.)

§ 8.203. Staleness as Notice of Defects or Defenses

(a) After an act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer

(1) if the act or event is one requiring the payment of money or the delivery of securities or both on presentation or surrender of the security and such funds or securities are available on the date set for payment or exchange and he takes the security more than one year after that date; and

(2) if the act or event is not covered by Subdivision (1) and he takes the security more than two years after the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which such performance became due.

(b) A call which has been revoked is not within Subsection (a). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—203.)

§ 8.204. Effect of Issuer's Restrictions on Transfer

Unless noted conspicuously on the security a restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer even though otherwise lawful is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of it. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—204.)

§ 8.205 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 8.205. Effect of Unauthorized Signature on Issue

An unauthorized signature placed on a security prior to or in the course of issue is ineffective except that the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value and without notice of the lack of authority if the signing has been done by

- (1) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security or of similar securities or their immediate preparation for signing; or
- (2) an employee of the issuer or of any of the foregoing entrusted with responsible handling of the security.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—205.)

§ 8.206. Completion or Alteration of Instrument

(a) Where a security contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete in any other respect

- (1) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and
- (2) even though the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security as completed is enforceable by a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of such incorrectness.

(b) A complete security which has been improperly altered even though fraudulently remains enforceable but only according to its original terms. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—206.)

§ 8.207. Rights of Issuer With Respect to Registered Owners

(a) Prior to due presentment for registration of transfer of a security in registered form the issuer or indenture trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notifications and otherwise to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for calls, assessments or the like. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—207.)

§ 8.208. Effect of Signature of Authenticating Trustee, Registrar or Transfer Agent

(a) A person placing his signature upon a security as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent or the like warrants to a purchaser for value without notice of the particular defect that

- (1) the security is genuine; and

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 8.303

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) his own participation in the issue of the security is within his capacity and within the scope of the authorization received by him from the issuer; and
 - (3) he has reasonable grounds to believe that the security is in the form and within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.
- (b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person by so placing his signature does not assume responsibility for the validity of the security in other respects. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—208.)

SUBCHAPTER C. PURCHASE

§ 8.301. Rights Acquired by Purchaser; "Adverse Claim"; Title Acquired by Bona Fide Purchaser

(a) Upon delivery of a security the purchaser acquires the rights in the security which his transferor had or had actual authority to convey except that a purchaser who has himself been a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the security or who as a prior holder had notice of an adverse claim cannot improve his position by taking from a later bona fide purchaser. "Adverse claim" includes a claim that a transfer was or would be wrongful or that a particular adverse person is the owner of or has an interest in the security.

(b) A bona fide purchaser in addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser also acquires the security free of any adverse claim.

(c) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—301.)

§ 8.302. "Bona Fide Purchaser"

A "bona fide purchaser" is a purchaser for value in good faith and without notice of any adverse claim who takes delivery of a security in bearer form or of one in registered form issued to him or indorsed to him or in blank. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—302.)

§ 8.303. "Broker"

"Broker" means a person engaged for all or part of his time in the business of buying and selling securities, who in the transaction concerned acts for, or buys a security from or sells a security to a customer. Nothing in this chapter determines the capacity in which a person acts for purposes of any other statute or rule to which such person is subject. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—303.)

§ 8.304 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 8.304. Notice to Purchaser of Adverse Claims

(a) A purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer but excluding an intermediary bank) of a security is charged with notice of adverse claims if

- (1) the security whether in bearer or registered form has been indorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for some other purpose not involving transfer; or
- (2) the security is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person other than the transferor. The mere writing of a name on a security is not such a statement.

(b) The fact that the purchaser (including a broker for the seller or buyer) has notice that the security is held for a third person or is registered in the name of or indorsed by a fiduciary does not create a duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of the transfer or constitute notice of adverse claims. If, however, the purchaser (excluding an intermediary bank) has knowledge that the proceeds are being used or that the transaction is for the individual benefit of the fiduciary or otherwise in breach of duty, the purchaser is charged with notice of adverse claims. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—304.)

§ 8.305. Staleness as Notice of Adverse Claims

An act or event which creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation evidenced by the security or which sets a date on or after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange does not of itself constitute any notice of adverse claims except in the case of a purchase

- (1) after one year from any date set for such presentment or surrender for redemption or exchange; or
- (2) after six months from any date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the security if funds are available for payment on that date.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—305.)

§ 8.306. Warranties on Presentment and Transfer

(a) A person who presents a security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that he is entitled to the registration, payment or exchange. But a purchaser for value without notice of adverse claims who receives a new, reissued or re-registered security on registration of transfer warrants only that he has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature (Section 8.311) in a necessary indorsement.

(b) A person by transferring a security to a purchaser for value warrants only that

- (1) his transfer is effective and rightful; and
- (2) the security is genuine and has not been materially altered; and
- (3) he knows no fact which might impair the validity of the security.

(c) Where a security is delivered by an intermediary known to be entrusted with delivery of the security on behalf of another or with collection of a draft or other claim against such delivery, the intermediary by such delivery warrants only his own good faith and authority even though he has purchased or made advances against the claim to be collected against the delivery.

(d) A pledgee or other holder for security who redelivers the security received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers that security to a third person makes only the warranties of an intermediary under Subsection (c).

(e) A broker gives to his customer and to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in this section and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of his customer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—306.)

§ 8.307. Effect of Delivery Without Indorsement; Right to Compel Indorsement

Where a security in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary indorsement he may become a bona fide purchaser only as of the time the indorsement is supplied, but against the transferor the transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically enforceable right to have any necessary indorsement supplied. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—307.)

§ 8.308. Indorsement, How Made; Special Indorsement; Indorser Not a Guarantor; Partial Assignment

(a) An indorsement of a security in registered form is made when an appropriate person signs on it or on a separate document an assignment or transfer of the security or a power to assign or transfer it or when the signature of such person is written without more upon the back of the security.

(b) An indorsement may be in blank or special. An indorsement in blank includes an indorsement to bearer. A special indorsement specifies the person to whom the security is to be transferred, or who has power to transfer it. A holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement.

(c) "An appropriate person" in Subsection (a) means

- (1) the person specified by the security or by special indorsement to be entitled to the security; or
- (2) where the person so specified is described as a fiduciary but is no longer serving in the described capacity,—either that person or his successor; or
- (3) where the security or indorsement so specifies more than one person as fiduciaries and one or more are no longer serving in the described capacity,—the remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries, whether or not a successor has been appointed or qualified; or
- (4) where the person so specified is an individual and is without capacity to act by virtue of death, incompetence, infancy or otherwise,—his executor, administrator, guardian or like fiduciary; or
- (5) where the security or indorsement so specifies more than one person as tenants by the entirety or with right of survivorship and by reason of death all cannot sign,—the survivor or survivors; or
- (6) a person having power to sign under applicable law or controlling instrument; or
- (7) to the extent that any of the foregoing persons may act through an agent,—his authorized agent.

(d) Unless otherwise agreed the indorser by his indorsement assumes no obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

(e) An indorsement purporting to be only of part of a security representing units intended by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the indorsement.

(f) Whether the person signing is appropriate is determined as of the date of signing and an indorsement by such a person does not become unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter by virtue of any subsequent change of circumstances.

(g) Failure of a fiduciary to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer, does not render his indorsement unauthorized for the purposes of this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—308.)

§ 8.309. Effect of Indorsement Without Delivery

An indorsement of a security whether special or in blank does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the security on which it appears or if the indorsement is on a separate document until delivery of both the document and the security. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—309.)

§ 8.310. Indorsement of Security in Bearer Form

An indorsement of a security in bearer form may give notice of adverse claims (Section 8.304) but does not otherwise affect any right to registration the holder may possess. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—310.)

§ 8.311. Effect of Unauthorized Indorsement

Unless the owner has ratified an unauthorized indorsement or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness

- (1) he may assert its ineffectiveness against the issuer or any purchaser other than a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims who has in good faith received a new, reissued or re-registered security on registration of transfer; and
- (2) an issuer who registers the transfer of a security upon the unauthorized indorsement is subject to liability for improper registration (Section 8.404).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—311.)

§ 8.312. Effect of Guaranteeing Signature or Indorsement

(a) Any person guaranteeing a signature of an indorser of a security warrants that at the time of signing

- (1) the signature was genuine; and
- (2) the signer was an appropriate person to indorse (Section 8.308); and
- (3) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

But the guarantor does not otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the particular transfer.

(b) Any person may guarantee an indorsement of a security and by so doing warrants not only the signature (Subsection (a)) but also the rightfulness of the particular transfer in all respects. But no issuer may require a guarantee of indorsement as a condition to registration of transfer.

(c) The foregoing warranties are made to any person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guarantee and the guarantor is liable to such person for any loss resulting from breach of the warranties. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—312.)

§ 8.313 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 8.313. When Delivery to the Purchaser Occurs; Purchaser's Broker as Holder

- (a) Delivery to a purchaser occurs when
- (1) he or a person designated by him acquires possession of a security; or
 - (2) his broker acquires possession of a security specially indorsed to or issued in the name of the purchaser; or
 - (3) his broker sends him confirmation of the purchase and also by book entry or otherwise identifies a specific security in the broker's possession as belonging to the purchaser; or
 - (4) with respect to an identified security to be delivered while still in the possession of a third person when that person acknowledges that he holds for the purchaser; or
 - (5) appropriate entries on the books of a clearing corporation are made under Section 8.320.

(b) The purchaser is the owner of a security held for him by his broker, but is not the holder except as specified in Subdivisions (2), (3) and (5) of Subsection (a). Where a security is part of a fungible bulk the purchaser is the owner of a proportionate property interest in the fungible bulk.

(c) Notice of an adverse claim received by the broker or by the purchaser after the broker takes delivery as a holder for value is not effective either as to the broker or as to the purchaser. However, as between the broker and the purchaser the purchaser may demand delivery of an equivalent security as to which no notice of an adverse claim has been received. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—313.)

§ 8.314. Duty to Deliver, When Completed

(a) Unless otherwise agreed where a sale of a security is made on an exchange or otherwise through brokers

- (1) the selling customer fulfills his duty to deliver when he places such a security in the possession of the selling broker or of a person designated by the broker or if requested causes an acknowledgment to be made to the selling broker that it is held for him; and
- (2) the selling broker including a correspondent broker acting for a selling customer fulfills his duty to deliver by placing the security or a like security in the possession of the buying broker or a person designated by him or by effecting clearance of the sale in accordance with the rules of the exchange on which the transaction took place.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this section and unless otherwise agreed, a transferor's duty to deliver a security under a contract of purchase is not fulfilled until he places the security in form to be negotiated by the purchaser in the possession of the purchaser or of a person designated by him or at the purchaser's request causes an acknowledgment to be made to the purchaser that it is held for him. Unless made on an exchange a sale to a broker purchasing for his own account is within this subsection and not within Subsection (a). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—314.)

§ 8.315. Action Against Purchaser Based Upon Wrongful Transfer

(a) Any person against whom the transfer of a security is wrongful for any reason, including his incapacity, may against anyone except a bona fide purchaser reclaim possession of the security or obtain possession of any new security evidencing all or part of the same rights or have damages.

(b) If the transfer is wrongful because of an unauthorized indorsement, the owner may also reclaim or obtain possession of the security or new security even from a bona fide purchaser if the ineffectiveness of the purported indorsement can be asserted against him under the provisions of this chapter on unauthorized indorsements (Section 8.311).

(c) The right to obtain or reclaim possession of a security may be specifically enforced and its transfer enjoined and the security impounded pending the litigation. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—315.)

§ 8.316. Purchaser's Right to Requisites for Registration of Transfer on Books

Unless otherwise agreed the transferor must on due demand supply his purchaser with any proof of his authority to transfer or with any other requisite which may be necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security but if the transfer is not for value a transferor need not do so unless the purchaser furnishes the necessary expenses. Failure to comply with a demand made within a reasonable time gives the purchaser the right to reject or rescind the transfer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—316.)

§ 8.317. Attachment or Levy Upon Security

(a) No attachment or levy upon a security or any share or other interest evidenced thereby which is outstanding shall be valid until the security is actually seized by the officer making the attachment or levy but a security which has been surrendered to the issuer may be attached or levied upon at the source.

(b) A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a security shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in reaching such security or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which cannot readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—317.)

§ 8.317 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 8.318. No Conversion by Good Faith Delivery

An agent or bailee who in good faith (including observance of reasonable commercial standards if he is in the business of buying, selling or otherwise dealing with securities) has received securities and sold, pledged or delivered them according to the instructions of his principal is not liable for conversion or for participation in breach of fiduciary duty although the principal had no right to dispose of them. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—318.)

§ 8.319. Statute of Frauds

A contract for the sale of securities is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless

- (1) there is some writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by his authorized agent or broker sufficient to indicate that a contract has been made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price; or
- (2) delivery of the security has been accepted or payment has been made but the contract is enforceable under this provision only to the extent of such delivery or payment; or
- (3) within a reasonable time a writing in confirmation of the sale or purchase and sufficient against the sender under Subdivision (1) has been received by the party against whom enforcement is sought and he has failed to send written objection to its contents within ten days after its receipt; or
- (4) the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in his pleading, testimony or otherwise in court that a contract was made for sale of a stated quantity of described securities at a defined or stated price.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—319.)

§ 8.320. Transfer or Pledge within a Central Depository System

- (a) If a security
 - (1) is in the custody of a clearing corporation or of a custodian bank or a nominee of either subject to the instructions of the clearing corporation; and
 - (2) is in bearer form or indorsed in blank by an appropriate person or registered in the name of the clearing corporation or custodian bank or a nominee of either; and

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 8.401

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(3) is shown on the account of a transferor or pledgor on the books of the clearing corporation; then, in addition to other methods, a transfer or pledge of the security or any interest therein may be effected by the making of appropriate entries on the books of the clearing corporation reducing the account of the transferor or pledgor and increasing the account of the transferee or pledgee by the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged.

(b) Under this section entries may be with respect to like securities or interests therein as a part of a fungible bulk and may refer merely to a quantity of a particular security without reference to the name of the registered owner, certificate or bond number or the like and, in appropriate cases, may be on a net basis taking into account other transfers or pledges of the same security.

(c) A transfer or pledge under this section has the effect of a delivery of a security in bearer form or duly indorsed in blank (Section 8.301) representing the amount of the obligation or the number of shares or rights transferred or pledged. If a pledge or the creation of a security interest is intended, the making of entries has the effect of a taking of delivery by the pledgee or a secured party (Sections 9.304 and 9.305). A transferee or pledgee under this section is a holder.

(d) A transfer or pledge under this section does not constitute a registration of transfer under Subchapter D of this chapter.

(e) That entries made on the books of the clearing corporation as provided in Subsection (a) are not appropriate does not affect the validity or effect of the entries nor the liabilities or obligations of the clearing corporation to any person adversely affected thereby. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—320.)

SUBCHAPTER D. REGISTRATION

§ 8.401. Duty of Issuer to Register Transfer

(a) Where a security in registered form is presented to the issuer with a request to register transfer, the issuer is under a duty to register the transfer as requested if

- (1) the security is indorsed by the appropriate person or persons (Section 8.308); and
- (2) reasonable assurance is given that those indorsements are genuine and effective (Section 8.402); and
- (3) the issuer has no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (Section 8.403); and

§ 8.401 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(4) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with; and

(5) the transfer is in fact rightful or is to a bona fide purchaser.

(b) Where an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security the issuer is also liable to the person presenting it for registration or his principal for loss resulting from any unreasonable delay in registration or from failure or refusal to register the transfer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—401.)

§ 8.402. Assurance That Indorsements Are Effective

(a) The issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary indorsement (Section 8.308) is genuine and effective

(1) in all cases, a guarantee of the signature (Subsection (a) of Section 8.312) of the person indorsing; and

(2) where the indorsement is by an agent, appropriate assurance of authority to sign;

(3) where the indorsement is by a fiduciary, appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;

(4) where there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have done so;

(5) where the indorsement is by a person not covered by any of the foregoing, assurance appropriate to the case corresponding as nearly as may be to the foregoing.

(b) A “guarantee of the signature” in Subsection (a) means a guarantee signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(c) “Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency” in Subsection (a) means

(1) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the direction or supervision of that court or an officer thereof and dated within sixty days before the date of presentation for transfer; or

(2) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the issuer to be appropriate. The issuer may adopt standards with respect to such evidence provided such standards are not manifestly unreasonable. The issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to this Subdivision (2) except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency.

(d) The issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section but if it does so and for a purpose other than that specified in Subsection (c) (2) both requires and obtains a copy of a will, trust, indenture, articles of co-partnership, by-laws or other controlling instrument it is charged with notice of all matters contained therein affecting the transfer. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—402.)

§ 8.403. Limited Duty of Inquiry

(a) An issuer to whom a security is presented for registration is under a duty to inquire into adverse claims if

- (1) a written notification of an adverse claim is received at a time and in a manner which affords the issuer a reasonable opportunity to act on it prior to the issuance of a new, re-issued or re-registered security and the notification identifies the claimant, the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address for communications directed to the claimant; or
- (2) the issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under Subsection (d) of Section 8.402.

(b) The issuer may discharge any duty of inquiry by any reasonable means, including notifying an adverse claimant by registered or certified mail at the address furnished by him or if there be no such address at his residence or regular place of business that the security has been presented for registration of transfer by a named person, and that the transfer will be registered unless within thirty days from the date of mailing the notification, either

- (1) an appropriate restraining order, injunction or other process issues from a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- (2) an indemnity bond sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the issuer involved, from any loss which it or they may suffer by complying with the adverse claim is filed with the issuer.

(c) Unless an issuer is charged with notice of an adverse claim from a controlling instrument which it has elected to require under Subsection (d) of Section 8.402 or receives notification of an adverse claim under Subsection (a) of this section, where a security presented for registration is indorsed by the appropriate person or persons the issuer is under no duty to inquire into adverse claims: In particular

§ 8.403 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (1) an issuer registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship and thereafter the issuer may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the issuer receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security;
- (2) an issuer registering transfer on an indorsement by a fiduciary is not bound to inquire whether the transfer is made in compliance with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state having jurisdiction of the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and
- (3) the issuer is not charged with notice of the contents of any court record or file or other recorded or unrecorded document even though the document is in its possession and even though the transfer is made on the indorsement of a fiduciary to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—403.)

§ 8.404. Liability and Non-Liability for Registration

(a) Except as otherwise provided in any law relating to the collection of taxes, the issuer is not liable to the owner or any other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if

- (1) there were on or with the security the necessary indorsements (Section 8.308); and
- (2) the issuer had no duty to inquire into adverse claims or has discharged any such duty (Section 8.403).

(b) Where an issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it the issuer on demand must deliver a like security to the true owner unless

- (1) the registration was pursuant to Subsection (a); or
- (2) the owner is precluded from asserting any claim for registering the transfer under Subsection (a) of the following section; or
- (3) such delivery would result in overissue, in which case the issuer's liability is governed by Section 8.104.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—404.)

§ 8.405. Lost, Destroyed and Stolen Securities

(a) Where a security has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken and the owner fails to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after he has notice of it and the issuer registers a transfer of the security before receiving such a notification, the owner is precluded from asserting against the issuer any claim for registering the transfer under the preceding section or any claim to a new security under this section.

(b) Where the owner of a security claims that the security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the issuer must issue a new security in place of the original security if the owner

- (1) so requests before the issuer has notice that the security has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; and
- (2) files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and
- (3) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

(c) If, after the issue of the new security, a bona fide purchaser of the original security presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer must register the transfer unless registration would result in overissue, in which event the issuer's liability is governed by Section 8.104. In addition to any rights on the indemnity bond, the issuer may recover the new security from the person to whom it was issued or any person taking under him except a bona fide purchaser. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—405.)

§ 8.406. Duty of Authenticating Trustee, Transfer Agent or Registrar

(a) Where a person acts as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in the registration of transfers of its securities or in the issue of new securities or in the cancellation of surrendered securities

- (1) he is under a duty to the issuer to exercise good faith and due diligence in performing his functions; and
- (2) he has with regard to the particular functions he performs the same obligation to the holder or owner of the security and has the same rights and privileges as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

(b) Notice to an authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar or other such agent is notice to the issuer with respect to the functions performed by the agent. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 8—406.)

§ 9.101 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER A. SHORT TITLE, APPLICABILITY AND DEFINITIONS

Section 9.101. Short Title

This chapter may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Secured Transactions. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—101.)

§ 9.102. Policy and Scope of Chapter

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 9.103 on multiple state transactions and in Section 9.104 on excluded transactions, this chapter applies so far as concerns any personal property and fixtures within the jurisdiction of this state.

(1) to any transaction (regardless of its form) which is intended to create a security interest in personal property or fixtures including goods, documents, instruments, general intangibles, chattel paper, accounts or contract rights; and also

(2) to any sale of accounts, contract rights or chattel paper.

(b) This chapter applies to security interests created by contract including pledge, assignment, chattel mortgage, chattel trust, trust deed, factor's lien, equipment trust, conditional sale, trust receipt, other lien or title retention contract and lease or consignment intended as security. This chapter does not apply to statutory liens except as provided in Section 9.310.

(c) The application of this chapter to a security interest in a secured obligation is not affected by the fact that the obligation is itself secured by a transaction or interest to which this chapter does not apply. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—102.)

§ 9.103. Accounts, Contract Rights, General Intangibles and Equipment Relating to Another Jurisdiction; and Incoming Goods Already Subject to a Security Interest

(a) If the office where the assignor of accounts or contract rights keeps his records concerning them is in this state, the validity and perfection of a security interest therein and the possibility and effect of proper filing is governed by this chapter; otherwise by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction where such office is located.

(b) If the chief place of business of a debtor is in this state, this chapter governs the validity and perfection of a security interest and the possibility and effect of proper filing with regard to general intangibles or with regard to goods of a type which are normally used in more than one jurisdiction (such as automotive equipment, rolling stock, airplanes, road building equipment, commercial harvesting equipment, construction machinery and the like) if such goods are classified as equipment or classified as inventory by reason of their being leased by the debtor to others. Otherwise, the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction where such chief place of business is located shall govern. If the chief place of business is located in a jurisdiction which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, then the security interest may be perfected by filing in this state. For the purpose of determining the validity and perfection of a security interest in an airplane, the chief place of business of a debtor who is a foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, is the designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the debtor.

(c) If personal property other than that governed by Subsections (a) and (b) is already subject to a security interest when it is brought into this state, the validity of the security interest in this state is to be determined by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction where the property was when the security interest attached. However, if the parties to the transaction understood at the time that the security interest attached that the property would be kept in this state and it was brought into this state within 30 days after the security interest attached for purposes other than transportation through this state, then the validity of the security interest in this state is to be determined by the law of this state. If the security interest was already perfected under the law of the jurisdiction where the property was when the security interest attached and before being brought into this state, the security interest continues perfected in this state for four months and also thereafter if within the four month period it is perfected in this state. The security interest may also be perfected in this state after the expiration of the four month period; in such case perfection dates from the time of perfection in this state. If the security interest was not perfected under the law of the jurisdiction where the property was when the security interest attached and before being brought into this state, it may be perfected in this state; in such case perfection dates from the time of perfection in this state.

(d) Notwithstanding Subsections (b) and (c), if personal property is covered by certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or any other jurisdiction which requires indication on a certificate of title of any security interest in the property as a condition of perfection, then the perfection is governed by the law of the jurisdiction which issued the certificate.

§ 9.103 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(e) Notwithstanding Subsection (a) and Section 9.302, if the office where the assignor of accounts or contract rights keeps his records concerning them is not located in a jurisdiction which is a part of the United States, its territories or possessions, and the accounts or contract rights are within the jurisdiction of this state or the transaction which creates the security interest otherwise bears an appropriate relation to this state, this chapter governs the validity and perfection of the security interest and the security interest may only be perfected by notification to the account debtor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—103.)

§ 9.104. Transactions Excluded From Chapter

This chapter does not apply

- (1) to a security interest subject to any statute of the United States such as the Ship Mortgage Act, 1920, to the extent that such statute governs the rights of parties to and third parties affected by transactions in particular types of property; or
- (2) to a landlord's lien; or
- (3) to a lien given by statute or other rule of law for services or materials except as provided in Section 9.310 on priority of such liens; or
- (4) to a transfer of a claim for wages, salary or other compensation of an employee; or
- (5) to an equipment trust covering railway rolling stock; or
- (6) to a sale of accounts, contract rights or chattel paper as part of a sale of the business out of which they arose, or an assignment of accounts, contract rights or chattel paper which is for the purpose of collection only, or a transfer of a contract right to an assignee who is also to do the performance under the contract; or
- (7) to a transfer of an interest or claim in or under any policy of insurance; or
- (8) to a right represented by a judgment; or
- (9) to any right of set-off; or
- (10) except to the extent that provision is made for fixtures in Section 9.313, to the creation or transfer of an interest in or lien on real estate, including a lease or rents thereunder; or
- (11) to a transfer in whole or in part of any of the following: any claim arising out of tort; any deposit, savings, pass-book or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—104.)

§ 9.105. Definitions and Index of Definitions

(a) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper, contract right or general intangible;
- (2) "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a security interest in or a lease of specific goods. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes chattel paper;
- (3) "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts, contract rights and chattel paper which have been sold;
- (4) "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, whether or not he owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts, contract rights or chattel paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the chapter dealing with the collateral, the obligor in any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires;
- (5) "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Chapter 1 (Section 1.201);
- (6) "Goods" includes all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which are fixtures (Section 9.313), but does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, contract rights and other things in action. "Goods" also include the unborn young of animals and growing crops;
- (7) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument (defined in Section 3.104), or a security (defined in Section 8.102) or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment;
- (8) "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest;
- (9) "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest, including a person to whom accounts, contract rights or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or other person, the representative is the secured party.

§ 9.105 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) Other definitions applying to this chapter and the sections in which they appear are:

"Account".	Section 9.106.
"Consumer goods".	Section 9.109(1).
"Contract right".	Section 9.106.
"Equipment".	Section 9.109(2).
"Farm products".	Section 9.109(3).
"General intangibles".	Section 9.106.
"Inventory".	Section 9.109(4).
"Lien creditor".	Section 9.301(c).
"Proceeds".	Section 9.306(a).
"Purchase money security interest".	Section 9.107.

(c) The following definitions in other chapters apply to this chapter:

"Check".	Section 3.104.
"Contract for sale".	Section 2.106.
"Holder in due course".	Section 3.302.
"Note".	Section 3.104.
"Sale".	Section 2.106.

(d) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—105.)

§ 9.106. Definitions: "Account"; "Contract Right"; "General Intangibles"

"Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper. "Contract right" means any right to payment under a contract not yet earned by performance and not evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper. "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, accounts, contract rights, chattel paper, documents and instruments. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—106.)

§ 9.107. Definitions: "Purchase Money Security Interest"

A security interest is a "purchase money security interest" to the extent that it is

- (1) taken or retained by the seller of the collateral to secure all or part of its price; or

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 9.109

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) taken by a person who by making advances or incurring an obligation gives value to enable the debtor to acquire rights in or the use of collateral if such value is in fact so used.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—107.)

§ 9.108. When After-Acquired Collateral Not Security for Antecedent Debt

Where a secured party makes an advance, incurs an obligation, releases a perfected security interest, or otherwise gives new value which is to be secured in whole or in part by after-acquired property his security interest in the after-acquired collateral shall be deemed to be taken for new value and not as security for an antecedent debt if the debtor acquires his rights in such collateral either in the ordinary course of his business or under a contract of purchase made pursuant to the security agreement within a reasonable time after new value is given. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—108.)

§ 9.109. Classification of Goods; “Consumer Goods”; “Equipment”; “Farm Products”; “Inventory”

Goods are

- (1) “consumer goods” if they are used or bought for use primarily for personal, family or household purposes;
- (2) “equipment” if they are used or bought for use primarily in business (including farming or a profession) or by a debtor who is a non-profit organization or a governmental subdivision or agency or if the goods are not included in the definitions of inventory, farm products or consumer goods;
- (3) “farm products” if they are crops or livestock or supplies used or produced in farming operations or if they are products of crops or livestock in their unmanufactured states (such as ginned cotton, wool-clip, maple syrup, milk and eggs), and if they are in the possession of a debtor engaged in raising, fattening, grazing or other farming operations. If goods are farm products they are neither equipment nor inventory;
- (4) “inventory” if they are held by a person who holds them for sale or lease or to be furnished under contracts of service or if he has so furnished them, or if they are raw materials, work in process or materials used or consumed in a business. Inventory of a person is not to be classified as his equipment.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—109.)

§ 9.110 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.110. Sufficiency of Description

For the purposes of this chapter any description of personal property or real estate is sufficient whether or not it is specific if it reasonably identifies what is described. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—110.)

§ 9.111. Applicability of Bulk Transfer Laws

The creation of a security interest is not a bulk transfer under Chapter 6 (see Section 6.103). (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—111.)

§ 9.112. Where Collateral Is Not Owned by Debtor

Unless otherwise agreed, when a secured party knows that collateral is owned by a person who is not the debtor, the owner of the collateral is entitled to receive from the secured party any surplus under Section 9.502(b) or under Section 9.504(a), and is not liable for the debt or for any deficiency after resale, and he has the same right as the debtor

- (1) to receive statements under Section 9.208;
- (2) to receive notice of and to object to a secured party's proposal to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the indebtedness under Section 9.505;
- (3) to redeem the collateral under Section 9.506;
- (4) to obtain injunctive or other relief under Section 9.507(a); and
- (5) to recover losses caused to him under Section 9.208(b).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—112.)

§ 9.113. Security Interests Arising Under Chapter on Sales

A security interest arising solely under the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2) is subject to the provisions of this chapter except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods

- (1) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable; and
- (2) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and
- (3) the rights of the secured party on default by the debtor are governed by the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2).

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—113.)

SUBCHAPTER B. VALIDITY OF SECURITY AGREEMENT
AND RIGHTS OF PARTIES THERETO*§ 9.201. General Validity of Security Agreement

Except as otherwise provided by this title a security agreement is effective according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the collateral and against creditors. Nothing in this chapter validates any charge or practice illegal under any statute or regulation thereunder governing usury, small loans, retail installment sales, or the like, or extends the application of any such statute or regulation to any transaction not otherwise subject thereto. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—201.)

§ 9.202. Title to Collateral Immaterial

Each provision of this chapter with regard to rights, obligations and remedies applies whether title to collateral is in the secured party or in the debtor. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—202.)

§ 9.203. Enforceability of Security Interest; Proceeds, Formal Requisites

(a) Subject to the provisions of Section 4.208 on the security interest of a collecting bank and Section 9.113 on a security interest arising under the chapter on Sales, a security interest is not enforceable against the debtor or third parties unless

- (1) the collateral is in the possession of the secured party; or
- (2) the debtor has signed a security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops or oil, gas or minerals to be extracted or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned. In describing collateral, the word "proceeds" is sufficient without further description to cover proceeds of any character.

(b) A transaction, although subject to this chapter, is also subject to the Texas Regulatory Loan Act, Texas Laws, 1963, Chap. 205, p. 550 (compiled as Vern.Tex.Civ.Stat.Ann., Art. 6165b), and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and any such statute, the provisions of such statute control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is specified therein. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—203.)

§ 9.204 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.204. When Security Interest Attaches; After-Acquired Property; Future Advances

(a) A security interest cannot attach until there is agreement (Subdivision (3) of Section 1.201) that it attach and value is given and the debtor has rights in the collateral. It attaches as soon as all of the events in the preceding sentence have taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.

(b) For the purposes of this section the debtor has no rights

- (1) in crops until they are planted or otherwise become growing crops, in the young of livestock until they are conceived;
- (2) in fish until caught, in oil, gas or minerals until they are extracted, in timber until it is cut;
- (3) in a contract right until the contract has been made;
- (4) in an account until it comes into existence.

(c) Except as provided in Subsection (d) a security agreement may provide that collateral, whenever acquired, shall secure all obligations covered by the security agreement.

(d) No security interest attaches under an after-acquired property clause

- (1) to crops which become such more than three years after the security agreement is executed except that a security interest in crops which is given in conjunction with a lease or a land purchase or improvement transaction evidenced by a contract, mortgage or deed of trust may if so agreed attach to crops to be grown on the land concerned during the period of such real estate transaction;
- (2) to consumer goods other than accessions (Section 9.314) when given as additional security unless the debtor acquires rights in them within ten days after the secured party gives value.

(e) Obligations covered by a security agreement may include future advances or other value whether or not the advances or value are given pursuant to commitment. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—204.)

§ 9.205. Use or Disposition of Collateral Without Accounting Permissible

A security interest is not invalid or fraudulent against creditors by reason of liberty in the debtor to use, commingle or dispose of all or part of the collateral (including returned or repossessed goods) or to collect or compromise accounts, contract rights or chattel paper, or to accept the return of goods or make repossessions, or to use, commingle or dispose of proceeds, or by reason of the failure of the secured party to require the debtor to account for proceeds or replace collateral. This section does not relax the requirements of possession where perfection of a security interest depends upon possession of the collateral by the secured party or by a bailee. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—205.)

§ 9.206. Agreement Not to Assert Defenses Against Assignee; Modification of Sales Warranties Where Security Agreement Exists

(a) Subject to any statute or decision which establishes a different rule for buyers or lessees of consumer goods, an agreement by a buyer or lessee that he will not assert against an assignee any claim or defense which he may have against the seller or lessor is enforceable by an assignee who takes his assignment for value, in good faith and without notice of a claim or defense, except as to defenses of a type which may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under the chapter on Commercial Paper (Chapter 3). A buyer who as part of one transaction signs both a negotiable instrument and a security agreement makes such an agreement.

(b) When a seller retains a purchase money security interest in goods the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2) governs the sale and any disclaimer, limitation or modification of the seller's warranties. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—206.)

§ 9.207. Rights and Duties When Collateral is in Secured Party's Possession

(a) A secured party must use reasonable care in the custody and preservation of collateral in his possession. In the case of an instrument or chattel paper reasonable care includes taking necessary steps to preserve rights against prior parties unless otherwise agreed.

(b) Unless otherwise agreed, when collateral is in the secured party's possession

- (1) reasonable expenses (including the cost of any insurance and payment of taxes or other charges) incurred in the custody, preservation, use or operation of the collateral are chargeable to the debtor and are secured by the collateral;
- (2) the risk of accidental loss or damage is on the debtor to the extent of any deficiency in any effective insurance coverage;
- (3) the secured party may hold as additional security any increase or profits (except money) received from the collateral, but money so received, unless remitted to the debtor, shall be applied in reduction of the secured obligation;

§ 9.207 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(4) the secured party must keep the collateral identifiable but fungible collateral may be commingled;

(5) the secured party may repledge the collateral upon terms which do not impair the debtor's right to redeem it.

(c) A secured party is liable for any loss caused by his failure to meet any obligation imposed by the preceding subsections but does not lose his security interest.

(d) A secured party may use or operate the collateral for the purpose of preserving the collateral or its value or pursuant to the order of a court of appropriate jurisdiction or, except in the case of consumer goods, in the manner and to the extent provided in the security agreement. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—207.)

§ 9.208. Request for Statement of Account or List of Collateral

(a) A debtor may sign a statement indicating what he believes to be the aggregate amount of unpaid indebtedness as of a specified date and may send it to the secured party with a request that the statement be approved or corrected and returned to the debtor. When the security agreement or any other record kept by the secured party identifies the collateral a debtor may similarly request the secured party to approve or correct a list of the collateral.

(b) The secured party must comply with such a request within two weeks after receipt by sending a written correction or approval. If the secured party claims a security interest in all of a particular type of collateral owned by the debtor he may indicate that fact in his reply and need not approve or correct an itemized list of such collateral. If the secured party without reasonable excuse fails to comply he is liable for any loss caused to the debtor thereby; and if the debtor has properly included in his request a good faith statement of the obligation or a list of the collateral or both the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the statement against persons misled by his failure to comply. If he no longer has an interest in the obligation or collateral at the time the request is received he must disclose the name and address of any successor in interest known to him and he is liable for any loss caused to the debtor as a result of failure to disclose. A successor in interest is not subject to this section until a request is received by him.

(c) A debtor is entitled to such a statement once every six months without charge. The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding $10 for each additional statement furnished. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—208.)

SUBCHAPTER C. RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES; PERFECTED AND UNPERFECTED SECURITY INTERESTS; RULES OF PRIORITY

§ 9.301. Persons Who Take Priority Over Unperfected Security Interests; "Lien Creditor"

(a) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (b), an unperfected security interest is subordinate to the rights of

- (1) persons entitled to priority under Section 9.312;
- (2) a person who becomes a lien creditor without knowledge of the security interests and before it is perfected;
- (3) in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected;
- (4) in the case of accounts, contract rights, and general intangibles, a person who is not a secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that he gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(b) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within ten days after the collateral comes into possession of the debtor, he takes priority over the rights of a transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing:

(c) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity from the time of appointment. Unless all the creditors represented had knowledge of the security interests such a representative of creditors is a lien creditor without knowledge even though he personally has knowledge of the security interest. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—301.)

§ 9.302. When Filing Is Required to Perfect Security Interest; Security Interests to Which Filing Provisions of This Chapter Do Not Apply

(a) A financing statement must be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

- (1) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under Section 9.305;

§ 9.302 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (2) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments or documents without delivery under Section 9.304 or in proceeds for a 10 day period under Section 9.306;
- (3) a purchase money security interest in farm equipment having a purchase price not in excess of $2500; but filing is required for a fixture under Section 9.313 or for a motor vehicle required to be licensed;
- (4) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but filing is required for a fixture under Section 9.313 or for a motor vehicle required to be licensed;
- (5) an assignment of accounts or contract rights which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts or contract rights of the assignor;
- (6) a security interest of a collecting bank (Section 4.208) or arising under the chapter on Sales (see Section 9.113) or covered in Subsection (c) of this section.

(b) If a secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this chapter is required in order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the original debtor.

(c) The filing provisions of this chapter do not apply to a security interest in property subject to a statute

- (1) of the United States which provides for a national registration or filing of all security interests in such property; or
- (2) of this state which provides for central filing of, or which requires indication on a certificate of title of, such security interests in such property.

(d) A security interest in property covered by a statute described in Subsection (c) can be perfected only by registration or filing under that statute or by indication of the security interest on a certificate of title or a duplicate thereof by a public official.

(e) Where the debtor is a utility as defined in Section 35.01 of this code, a security interest granted by or on behalf of the debtor may be perfected by filing in the place and manner described in Section 35.02 or 35.03 of this code. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—302.)

Amendment of former U.C.C. § 9—302, see Acts 1967, 60th Leg., ch. 735, §§ 1—3.

§ 9.303. When Security Interest Is Perfected; Continuity of Perfection

(a) A security interest is perfected when it has attached and when all of the applicable steps required for perfection have been taken. Such steps are specified in Sections 9.302, 9.304, 9.305 and 9.306. If such steps are taken before the security interest attaches, it is perfected at the time when it attaches.

§ 9.304

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) If a security interest is originally perfected in any way permitted under this chapter and is subsequently perfected in some other way under this chapter, without an intermediate period when it was unperfected, the security interest shall be deemed to be perfected continuously for the purposes of this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—303.)

§ 9.304. Perfection of Security Interest in Instruments, Documents and Goods Covered by Documents; Perfection by Permissive Filing; Temporary Perfection Without Filing or Transfer of Possession

(a) A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in instruments (other than instruments which constitute part of chattel paper) can be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession, except as provided in Subsections (d) and (e).

(b) During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

(c) A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or by the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest or by filing as to the goods.

(d) A security interest in instruments or negotiable documents is perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of 21 days from the time it attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

(e) A security interest remains perfected for a period of 21 days without filing where a secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument, a negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor

- (1) makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or exchange; or

§ 9.304 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) delivers the instrument to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

(f) After the 21 day period in Subsections (d) and (e) perfection depends upon compliance with applicable provisions of this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—304.)

§ 9.305. When Possession by Secured Party Perfects Security Interest Without Filing

A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit (Subsection (b) (1) of Section 5.116), goods, instruments, negotiable documents or chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party's taking possession of the collateral. If such collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party's interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this chapter. The security interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this chapter before or after the period of possession by the secured party. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—305.)

§ 9.306. "Proceeds"; Secured Party's Rights on Disposition of Collateral

(a) "Proceeds" includes whatever is received when collateral or proceeds is sold, exchanged, collected or otherwise disposed of. The term also includes the account arising when the right to payment is earned under a contract right. Money, checks and the like are "cash proceeds". All other proceeds are "non-cash proceeds".

(b) Except where this chapter otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral notwithstanding sale, exchange or other disposition thereof by the debtor unless his action was authorized by the secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds including collections received by the debtor.

(c) The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected ten days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless

- (1) a filed financing statement covering the original collateral also covers proceeds; or
- (2) the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the ten day period.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.306

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest

- (1) in identifiable non-cash proceeds;
- (2) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is not commingled with other money or deposited in a bank account prior to the insolvency proceedings;
- (3) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a bank account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and
- (4) in all cash and bank accounts of the debtor, if other cash proceeds have been commingled or deposited in a bank account, but the perfected security interest under this Subdivision (4) is
 - (A) subject to any right of set-off; and
 - (B) limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor within ten days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings and commingled or deposited in a bank account prior to the insolvency proceedings less the amount of cash proceeds received by the debtor and paid over to the secured party during the ten day period.

(e) If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the following rules determine priorities:

- (1) If the goods were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must file.
- (2) An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under Subdivision (1) to the extent that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under Section 9.308.
- (3) An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. Such security interest is subordinate to a security interest asserted under Subdivision (1).

§ 9.306 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (4) A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under Subdivision (2) or (3) must be perfected for protection against creditors of the transferor and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods.

(59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—306.)

§ 9.307. Protection of Buyers of Goods

(a) A buyer in ordinary course of business (Subdivision (9) of Section 1.201) other than a person buying farm products from a person engaged in farming operations takes free of a security interest created by his seller even though the security interest is perfected and even though the buyer knows of its existence.

(b) In the case of consumer goods and in the case of farm equipment having an original purchase price not in excess of $2500 (other than fixtures, see Section 9.313), a buyer takes free of a security interest even though perfected if he buys without knowledge of the security interest, for value and for his own personal, family or household purposes or his own farming operations unless prior to the purchase the secured party has filed a financing statement covering such goods. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—307.)

§ 9.308. Purchase of Chattel Paper and Non-Negotiable Instruments

A purchaser of chattel paper or a non-negotiable instrument who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of his business and without knowledge that the specific paper or instrument is subject to a security interest has priority over a security interest which is perfected under Section 9.304 (permissive filing and temporary perfection). A purchaser of chattel paper who gives new value and takes possession of it in the ordinary course of his business has priority over a security interest in chattel paper which is claimed merely as proceeds of inventory subject to a security interest (Section 9.306), even though he knows that the specific paper is subject to the security interest. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—308.)

§ 9.309. Protection of Purchasers of Instruments and Documents

Nothing in this chapter limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument (Section 3.302) or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated (Section 7.501) or a bona fide purchaser of a security (Section 8.301) and such holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under this chapter does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—309.)

§ 9.310. Priority of Certain Liens Arising by Operation of Law

When a person in the ordinary course of his business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest unless the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides otherwise. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—310.)

§ 9.311. Alienability of Debtor's Rights: Judicial Process

The debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred (by way of sale, creation of a security interest, attachment, levy, garnishment or other judicial process) notwithstanding a provision in the security agreement prohibiting any transfer or making the transfer constitute a default. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—311.)

§ 9.312. Priorities Among Conflicting Security Interests in the Same Collateral

(a) The rules of priority stated in the following sections shall govern where applicable: Section 4.208 with respect to the security interest of collecting banks in items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; Section 9.301 on certain priorities; Section 9.304 on goods covered by documents; Section 9.306 on proceeds and repossessions; Section 9.307 on buyers of goods; Section 9.308 on possessory against non-possessory interests in chattel paper or non-negotiable instruments; Section 9.309 on security interests in negotiable instruments, documents or securities; Section 9.310 on priorities between perfected security interests and liens by operation of law; Section 9.313 on security interests in fixtures as against interests in real estate; Section 9.314 on security interests in accessions as against interest in goods; Section 9.315 on conflicting security interests where goods lose their identity or become part of a product; and Section 9.316 on contractual subordination.

(b) A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the earlier security interest.

§ 9.312 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(c) A purchase money security interest in inventory collateral has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral if

- (1) the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral; and
- (2) any secured party whose security interest is known to the holder of the purchase money security interest or who, prior to the date of the filing made by the holder of the purchase money security interest, had filed a financing statement covering the same items or type of inventory, has received notification of the purchase money security interest before the debtor receives possession of the collateral covered by the purchase money security interest; and
- (3) such notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(d) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a conflicting security interest in the same collateral if the purchase money security interest is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within ten days thereafter.

(e) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section (including cases of purchase money security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in Subsections (c) and (d) of this section), priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined as follows:

- (1) in the order of filing if both are perfected by filing, regardless of which security interest attached first under Section 9.204(a) and whether it attached before or after filing;
- (2) in the order of perfection unless both are perfected by filing, regardless of which security interest attached first under Section 9.204(a) and, in the case of a filed security interest whether it attached before or after filing; and
- (3) in the order of attachment under Section 9.204(a) so long as neither is perfected.

(f) For the purpose of the priority rules of the immediately preceding subsection, a continuously perfected security interest shall be treated at all times as if perfected by filing if it was originally so perfected and it shall be treated at all times as if perfected otherwise than by filing if it was originally perfected otherwise than by filing. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—312.)

§ 9.313. Priority of Security Interests in Fixtures

(a) The rules of this section do not apply to goods incorporated into a structure in the manner of lumber, bricks, tile, cement, glass, metal work and the like and no security interest in them exists under this chapter unless the structure remains personal property under applicable law. The law of this state other than this title determines whether and when other goods become fixtures. This title does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures or real estate pursuant to the law applicable to real estate.

(b) A security interest which attaches to goods before they become fixtures takes priority as to the goods over the claims of all persons who have an interest in the real estate except as stated in Subsection (d).

(c) A security interest which attaches to goods after they become fixtures is valid against all persons subsequently acquiring interests in the real estate except as stated in Subsection (d) but is invalid against any person with an interest in the real estate at the time the security interest attaches to the goods who has not in writing consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures.

(d) The security interests described in Subsections (b) and (c) do not take priority over

- (1) a subsequent purchaser for value of any interest in the real estate; or
- (2) a creditor with a lien on the real estate subsequently obtained by judicial proceedings; or
- (3) a creditor with a prior encumbrance of record on the real estate to the extent that he makes subsequent advances if the subsequent purchase is made, the lien by judicial proceedings is obtained, or the subsequent advance under the prior encumbrance is made or contracted for without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected. A purchaser of the real estate at a foreclosure sale other than an encumbrancer purchasing at his own foreclosure sale is a subsequent purchaser within this section.

(e) When under Subsections (b) or (c) and (d) a secured party has priority over the claims of all persons who have interests in the real estate, he may, on default, subject to the provisions of Subchapter E, remove his collateral from the real estate but he must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—313.)

§ 9.314. Accessions

(a) A security interest in goods which attaches before they are installed in or affixed to other goods takes priority as to the goods installed or affixed (called in this section "accessions") over the claims of all persons to the whole except as stated in Subsection (c) and subject to Section 9.315(a).

(b) A security interest which attaches to goods after they become part of a whole is valid against all persons subsequently acquiring interests in the whole except as stated in Subsection (c) but is invalid against any person with an interest in the whole at the time the security interest attaches to the goods who has not in writing consented to the security interest or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.

(c) The security interests described in Subsections (a) and (b) do not take priority over

- (1) a subsequent purchaser for value of any interest in the whole; or
- (2) a creditor with a lien on the whole subsequently obtained by judicial proceedings; or
- (3) a creditor with a prior perfected security interest in the whole to the extent that he makes subsequent advances if the subsequent purchase is made, the lien by judicial proceedings obtained or the subsequent advance under the prior perfected security interest is made or contracted for without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected. A purchaser of the whole at a foreclosure sale other than the holder of a perfected security interest purchasing at his own foreclosure sale is a subsequent purchaser within this section.

(d) When under Subsections (a) or (b) and (c) a secured party has an interest in accessions which has priority over the claims of all persons who have interests in the whole, he may on default subject to the provisions of Subchapter E remove his collateral from the whole but he must reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the whole who is not the debtor and who has not otherwise agreed for the cost of repair of any physical injury but not for any diminution in value of the whole caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the secured party gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—314.)

§ 9.315. Priority When Goods Are Commingled or Processed

(a) If a security interest in goods was perfected and subsequently the goods or a part thereof have become part of a product or mass, the security interest continues in the product or mass if

- (1) the goods are so manufactured, processed, assembled or commingled that their identity is lost in the product or mass;
or
- (2) a financing statement covering the original goods also covers the product into which the goods have been manufactured, processed or assembled.

In a case to which Subdivision (2) applies, no separate security interest in that part of the original goods which has been manufactured, processed or assembled into the product may be claimed under Section 9.314.

(b) When under Subsection (a) more than one security interest attaches to the product or mass, they rank equally according to the ratio that the cost of the goods to which each interest originally attached bears to the cost of the total product or mass. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—315.)

§ 9.316. Priority Subject to Subordination

Nothing in this chapter prevents subordination by agreement by any person entitled to priority. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—316.)

§ 9.317. Secured Party Not Obligated on Contract of Debtor

The mere existence of a security interest or authority given to the debtor to dispose of or use collateral does not impose contract or tort liability upon the secured party for the debtor's acts or omissions. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—317.)

§ 9.318. Defenses Against Assignee; Modification of Contract After Notification of Assignment; Term Prohibiting Assignment Ineffective; Identification and Proof of Assignment

(a) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims arising out of a sale as provided in Section 9.206 the rights of an assignee are subject to

- (1) all the terms of the contract between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim arising therefrom; and
- (2) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives notification of the assignment.

§ 9.318 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) So far as the right to payment under an assigned contract right has not already become an account, and notwithstanding notification of the assignment, any modification of or substitution for the contract made in good faith and in accordance with reasonable commercial standards is effective against an assignee unless the account debtor has otherwise agreed but the assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that such modification or substitution is a breach by the assignor.

(c) The account debtor is authorized to pay the assignor until the account debtor receives notification that the account has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. A notification which does not reasonably identify the rights assigned is ineffective. If requested by the account debtor, the assignee must seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made and unless he does so the account debtor may pay the assignor.

(d) A term in any contract between an account debtor and an assignor which prohibits assignment of an account or contract right to which they are parties is ineffective. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—318.)

SUBCHAPTER D. FILING

§ 9.401. Place of Filing; Erroneous Filing; Removal of Collateral

(a) The proper place to file in order to perfect a security interest is as follows:

- (1) when the collateral is equipment used in farming operations, or farm products, or accounts, contract rights or general intangibles arising from or relating to the sale of farm products by a farmer, or consumer goods, then in the office of the County Clerk in the county of the debtor's residence or if the debtor is not a resident of this state then in the office of the County Clerk in the county where the goods are kept, and in addition when the collateral is crops in the office of the County Clerk in the county where the land on which the crops are growing or to be grown is located;
- (2) when the collateral is goods which at the time the security interest attaches are or are to become fixtures, then in the office where a mortgage on the real estate concerned would be filed or recorded;
- (3) in all other cases, in the office of the Secretary of State.

(b) A filing which is made in good faith in an improper place or not in all of the places required by this section is nevertheless effective with regard to any collateral as to which the filing complied with the requirements of this chapter and is also effective with regard to collateral covered by the financing statement against any person who has knowledge of the contents of such financing statement.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 9.402

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) A filing which is made in the proper county continues effective for four months after a change to another county of the debtor's residence or place of business or the location of the collateral, whichever controlled the original filing. It becomes ineffective thereafter unless a copy of the financing statement signed by the secured party is filed in the new county within said period. The security interest may also be perfected in the new county after the expiration of the four-month period; in such case perfection dates from the time of perfection in the new county. A change in the use of the collateral does not impair the effectiveness of the original filing.

(d) If collateral is brought into this state from another jurisdiction, the rules stated in Section 9.103 determine whether filing is necessary in this state. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—401.)

Amendment of former U.C.C. § 9—401, see Acts 1967, 60th Leg., ch. 735, § 4.

§ 9.402. Formal Requisites of Financing Statement; Amendments

(a) A financing statement is sufficient if it is signed by the debtor and the secured party, gives an address of the secured party from which information concerning the security interest may be obtained, gives a mailing address of the debtor and contains a statement indicating the types, or describing the items, of collateral. A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches. When the financing statement covers crops growing or to be grown or goods which are or are to become fixtures, the statement must also contain a description of the real estate concerned. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a financing statement if it contains the above information and is signed by both parties.

(b) A financing statement which otherwise complies with Subsection (a) is sufficient although it is signed only by the secured party when it is filed to perfect a security interest in

- (1) collateral already subject to a security interest in another jurisdiction when it is brought into this state. Such a financing statement must state that the collateral was brought into this state under such circumstances.

§ 9.402 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(2) proceeds under Section 9.306 if the security interest in the original collateral was perfected. Such a financing statement must describe the original collateral.

(c) A form substantially as follows is sufficient to comply with Subsection (a):

- Name of debtor (or assignor)
- Address
- Name of secured party (or assignee)
- Address
- 1. This financing statement covers the following types (or items) of property:
 - (Describe)
- 2. (If collateral is crops) The above described crops are growing or are to be grown on:
 - (Describe Real Estate)
- 3. (If collateral is goods which are or are to become fixtures) The above described goods are affixed or to be affixed to:
 - (Describe Real Estate)
- 4. If proceeds or products of collateral are claimed) Proceeds —Products of the collateral are also covered.
 - Signature of Debtor (or Assignor)
 - Signature of Secured Party (or Assignee)

(d) The term "financing statement" as used in this chapter means the original financing statement and any amendments but if any amendment adds collateral, it is effective as to the added collateral only from the filing date of the amendment.

(e) A financing statement substantially complying with the requirements of this section is effective even though it contains minor errors which are not seriously misleading. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—402.)

Amendment of former U.C.C. § 9—402, see Acts 1967, 60th Leg., ch. 735, §§ 5, 6.

§ 9.403. What Constitutes Filing; Duration of Filing; Effect of Lapsed Filing; Duties of Filing Officer

(a) Presentation for filing of a financing statement and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the statement by the filing officer constitutes filing under this chapter.

(b) A filed financing statement which states a maturity date of the obligation secured of five years or less is effective until such maturity date and thereafter for a period of sixty days. Any other filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years from the date of filing. The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of such sixty day period after a stated maturity date or on the expiration of such five year period, as the case may be, unless a continuation statement is filed prior to the lapse. Upon such lapse the security interest becomes unperfected. A filed financing statement which states that the obligation secured is payable on demand is effective for five years from the date of filing.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE§ 9.404

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(c) A continuation statement may be filed by the secured party (1) within six months before and sixty days after a stated maturity date of five years or less, and (2) otherwise within six months prior to the expiration of the five year period specified in Subsection (b). Any such continuation statement must be signed by the secured party, identify the original statement by file number and state that the original statement is still effective. Upon timely filing of the continuation statement, the effectiveness of the original statement is continued for five years after the last date to which the filing was effective whereupon it lapses in the same manner as provided in Subsection (b) unless another continuation statement is filed prior to such lapse. Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the original statement. Unless a statute on disposition of public records provides otherwise, the filing officer may remove a lapsed statement from the files and destroy it.

(d) A filing officer shall mark each statement with a consecutive file number and with the date and hour of filing and shall hold the statement for public inspection. In addition the filing officer shall index the statements according to the name of the debtor and shall note in the index the file number and the address of the debtor given in the statement.

(e) The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for an original or a continuation statement shall be $1.00. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—403.)

Amendment of former U.C.C. § 9—403, see Acts 1967, 60th Leg., ch. 735, § 7.

§ 9.404. Termination Statement

(a) Whenever there is no outstanding secured obligation and no commitment to make advances, incur obligations or otherwise give value, the secured party must on written demand by the debtor send the debtor a statement that he no longer claims a security interest under the financing statement, which shall be identified by file number. A termination statement signed by a person other than the secured party of record must include or be accompanied by the assignment or a statement by the secured party of record that he has assigned the security interest to the signer of the termination statement. The uniform fee for filing and indexing such an assignment or statement thereof shall be $0.75. If the affected secured party fails to send such a termination statement within ten days after proper demand thereof he shall be liable to the debtor for $100, and in addition for any loss caused to the debtor by such failure.

(b) On presentation to the filing officer of such a termination statement he must note it in the index. The filing officer shall remove from the files, mark "terminated" and send or deliver to the secured party the financing statement and any continuation statement, statement of assignment or statement of release pertaining thereto.

(c) The uniform fee for filing and indexing a termination statement including sending or delivering the financing statement shall be $1.00. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—404.)

§ 9.405. Assignment of Security Interest: Duties of Filing Officer; Fees

(a) A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the statement by indication in the statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. Either the original secured party or the assignee may sign this statement as the secured party. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark the same as provided in Section 9.403(d). The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data for a financing statement so indicating an assignment shall be $1.50.

(b) A secured party may assign of record all or a part of his rights under a financing statement by the filing of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the file number and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement, the filing officer shall mark such separate statement with the date and hour of the filing. He shall note the assignment on the index of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing, indexing and furnishing filing data about such a separate statement of assignment shall be $1.00.

(c) After the disclosure or filing of an assignment under this section, the assignee is the secured party of record. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—405.)

§ 9.406. Release of Collateral; Duties of Filing Officer; Fees

A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of the debtor, the name and address of the secured party, and the file number of the financing statement. Upon presentation of such a statement to the filing officer he shall mark the statement with the hour and date of filing and shall note the same upon the margin of the index of the filing of the financing statement. The uniform fee for filing and noting such a statement of release shall be $1.00. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—406.)

§ 9.407. Information From Filing Officer

(a) If the person filing any financing statement, termination statement, statement of assignment, or statement of release, furnishes the filing officer a copy thereof, the filing officer shall upon request note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and deliver or send the copy to such person.

(b) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue his certificate showing whether there is on file on the date and hour stated therein, any presently effective financing statement naming a particular debtor and any statement of assignment thereof and if there is, giving the date and hour of filing of each such statement and the names and addresses of each secured party therein. The uniform fee for such a certificate shall be $1.00 plus $1.00 for each financing statement and for each statement of assignment reported therein. Upon request the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed financing statement or statement of assignment for a uniform fee of $1.00 per page. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—407.)

§ 9.408. Prescribed Forms

(a) The Secretary of State may prescribe the forms to be used in making any filing or in requesting any information of the filing officer under this chapter. Where the Secretary of State has prescribed the form and a person fails to use this form, the fee shall be twice that specified in the preceding sections.

(b) The filing and other fees paid to the Secretary of State under this chapter shall be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the State Treasury. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—408.)

§ 9.501 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER E. DEFAULT

§ 9.501. Default; Procedure When Security Agreement Covers Both Real and Personal Property

(a) When a debtor is in default under a security agreement, a secured party has the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter and except as limited by Subsection (c) those provided in the security agreement. He may reduce his claim to judgment, foreclose or otherwise enforce the security interest by any available judicial procedure. If the collateral is documents the secured party may proceed either as to the documents or as to the goods covered thereby. A secured party in possession has the rights, remedies and duties provided in Section 9.207. The rights and remedies referred to in this subsection are cumulative.

(b) After default, the debtor has the rights and remedies provided in this subchapter, those provided in the security agreement and those provided in Section 9.207.

(c) To the extent that they give rights to the debtor and impose duties on the secured party, the rules stated in the subsections referred to below may not be waived or varied except as provided with respect to compulsory disposition of collateral (Subsection (a) of Section 9.505) and with respect to redemption of collateral (Section 9.506) but the parties may by agreement determine the standards by which the fulfillment of these rights and duties is to be measured if such standards are not manifestly unreasonable:

- (1) Subsection (b) of Section 9.502 and Subsection (b) of Section 9.504 insofar as they require accounting for surplus proceeds of collateral;
- (2) Subsection (c) of Section 9.504 and Subsection (a) of Section 9.505 which deal with disposition of collateral;
- (3) Subsection (b) of Section 9.505 which deals with acceptance of collateral as discharge of obligation;
- (4) Section 9.506 which deals with redemption of collateral; and
- (5) Subsection (a) of Section 9.507 which deals with the secured party's liability for failure to comply with this subchapter.

(d) If the security agreement covers both real and personal property, the secured party may proceed under this subchapter as to the personal property or he may proceed as to both the real and the personal property in accordance with his rights and remedies in respect of the real property in which case the provisions of this subchapter do not apply.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.503

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(e) When a secured party has reduced his claim to judgment the lien of any levy which may be made upon his collateral by virtue of any execution based upon the judgment shall relate back to the date of the perfection of the security interest in such collateral. A judicial sale, pursuant to such execution, is a foreclosure of security interest by judicial procedure within the meaning of this section, and the secured party may purchase at the sale and thereafter hold the collateral free of any other requirements of this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—501.)

§ 9.502. Collection Rights of Secured Party

(a) When so agreed and in any event on default the secured party is entitled to notify an account debtor or the obligor on an instrument to make payment to him whether or not the assignor was theretofore making collections on the collateral, and also to take control of any proceeds to which he is entitled under Section 9.306.

(b) A secured party who by agreement is entitled to charge back uncollected collateral or otherwise to full or limited recourse against the debtor and who undertakes to collect from the account debtors or obligors must proceed in a commercially reasonable manner and may deduct his reasonable expenses of realization from the collections. If the security agreement secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But, if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts, contract rights, or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—502.)

§ 9.503. Secured Party's Right to Take Possession After Default

Unless otherwise agreed a secured party has on default the right to take possession of the collateral. In taking possession a secured party may proceed without judicial process if this can be done without breach of the peace or may proceed by action. If the security agreement so provides the secured party may require the debtor to assemble the collateral and make it available to the secured party at a place to be designated by the secured party which is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal a secured party may render equipment unusable, and may dispose of collateral on the debtor's premises under Section 9.504. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—503.)

§ 9.504 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.504. Secured Party's Right to Dispose of Collateral After Default; Effect of Disposition

(a) A secured party after default may sell, lease or otherwise dispose of any or all of the collateral in its then condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. Any sale of goods is subject to the chapter on Sales (Chapter 2). The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to

- (1) the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling and the like and, to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;
- (2) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the security interest under which the disposition is made;
- (3) the satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the secured party, the holder of a subordinate security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of his interest, and unless he does so, the secured party need not comply with his demand.

(b) If the security interest secures an indebtedness, the secured party must account to the debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the debtor is liable for any deficiency. But if the underlying transaction was a sale of accounts, contract rights, or chattel paper, the debtor is entitled to any surplus or is liable for any deficiency only if the security agreement so provides.

(c) Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts. Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place and terms must be commercially reasonable. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline speedily in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time and place of any public sale or reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the secured party to the debtor, and except in the case of consumer goods to any other person who has a security interest in the collateral and who has duly filed a financing statement indexed in the name of the debtor in this state or who is known by the secured party to have a security interest in the collateral. The secured party may buy at any public sale and if the collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations he may buy at private sale.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.505

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) When collateral is disposed of by a secured party after default, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the debtor's rights therein, discharges the security interest under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interests even though the secured party fails to comply with the requirements of this subchapter or of any judicial proceedings

- (1) in the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he does not buy in collusion with the secured party, other bidders or the person conducting the sale; or
- (2) in any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith.

(e) A person who is liable to a secured party under a guaranty, indorsement, repurchase agreement or the like and who receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party or is subrogated to his rights has thereafter the rights and duties of the secured party. Such a transfer of collateral is not a sale or disposition of the collateral under this chapter. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—504.)

§ 9.505. Compulsory Disposition of Collateral; Acceptance of the Collateral as Discharge of Obligation

(a) If the debtor has paid sixty per cent of the cash price in the case of a purchase money security interest in consumer goods or sixty per cent of the loan in the case of another security interest in consumer goods, and has not signed after default a statement renouncing or modifying his rights under this subchapter a secured party who has taken possession of collateral must dispose of it under Section 9.504 and if he fails to do so within ninety days after he takes possession the debtor at his option may recover in conversion or under Section 9.507(a) on secured party's liability.

(b) In any other case involving consumer goods or any other collateral a secured party in possession may, after default, propose to retain the collateral in satisfaction of the obligation. Written notice of such proposal shall be sent to the debtor and except in the case of consumer goods to any other secured party who has a security interest in the collateral and who has duly filed a financing statement indexed in the name of the debtor in this state or is known by the secured party in possession to have a security interest in it. If the debtor or other person entitled to receive notification objects in writing within thirty days from the receipt of the notification or if any other secured party objects in writing within thirty days after the secured party obtains possession the secured party must dispose of the collateral under Section 9.504. In the absence of such written objection the secured party may retain the collateral in satisfaction of the debtor's obligation. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—505.)

§ 9.506 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 9.506. Debtor's Right to Redeem Collateral

At any time before the secured party has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under Section 9.504 or before the obligation has been discharged under Section 9.505(b) the debtor or any other secured party may unless otherwise agreed in writing after default redeem the collateral by tendering fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral as well as the expenses reasonably incurred by the secured party in retaking, holding and preparing the collateral for disposition, in arranging for the sale, and to the extent provided in the agreement and not prohibited by law, his reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses. (59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 9—506.)

§ 9.507. Secured Party's Liability for Failure to Comply With This Subchapter

(a) If it is established that the secured party is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred the debtor or any person entitled to notification or whose security interest has been made known to the secured party prior to the disposition has a right to recover from the secured party any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this subchapter. If the collateral is consumer goods, the debtor has a right to recover in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten per cent of the principal amount of the debt or the time price differential plus ten per cent of the cash price.

(b) The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the secured party either sells the collateral in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if he sells at the price current in such market at the time of his sale or if he has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold he has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. The principles stated in the two preceding sentences with respect to sales also apply as may be appropriate to other types of disposition. A disposition which has been approved in any judicial proceeding or by any bona fide creditors' committee or representative of creditors shall conclusively be deemed to be commercially reasonable, but this sentence does not indicate that any such approval must be obtained in any case nor does it indicate that any disposition not so approved is not commercially reasonable. § 15.01 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER A. DEFINITIONS AND PROHIBITIONS

Section 15.01. Monopoly Defined

A "monopoly" is a combination or consolidation of two or more corporations effected by

- (1) bringing the direction of their affairs under common management or control to create, or where the common management or control tends to create, a trust as defined in Section 15.02 of this code; or
- (2) one corporation acquiring (in whole or part and whether directly, through trustees, or otherwise) the stock, bonds, franchise or other rights, or physical property of one or more other corporations to prevent or lessen, or where the acquisition tends to prevent or lessen, competition.

(R.S. Art. 7427; P.C. Art. 1633.)

§ 15.02. Trust Defined

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "person" does not include municipal corporation. (No source citation.)

(b) A "trust" is a combination of capital, skill, or acts by two or more persons to

- (1) restrict, or tend to restrict, trade, commerce, aids to commerce, the preparation of tangible personal property for market or transportation, or the free pursuit of a lawful business; or
- (2) fix, maintain, increase, or reduce the price of tangible personal property, the cost of insurance, or the cost of preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or
- (3) prevent or lessen competition in
 - (A) the manufacture, transportation, sale, or purchase of tangible personal property;
 - (B) the business of insurance;
 - (C) aids to commerce; or
 - (D) preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or
- (4) affect, control, or establish the price of tangible personal property, or the cost of transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 15.03

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(5) agree

- (A) not to sell, dispose of, transport, or prepare tangible personal property for market or transportation, or not to make an insurance contract, at a price below a common standard or figure;
 - (B) to maintain the price of tangible personal property, the charge for transportation or insurance, or the cost of preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation at a fixed or graded figure;
 - (C) to affect or maintain the price of tangible personal property or the cost of transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation in order to preclude free competition between or among themselves or others in the sale or transportation of tangible personal property, in the business of transportation or insurance, or in preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or
 - (D) to pool, combine, or unite an interest they have in the sale or purchase of tangible personal property, or in the charge for transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation, so that the price of the tangible personal property, or charge for transportation, insurance, or preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation, might be in any manner affected; or
- (6) regulate, fix, or limit the output of tangible personal property, or the amount of insurance undertaken, or the amount of work performed in preparing tangible personal property for market or transportation; or
- (7) refrain from engaging in business, or from buying or selling tangible personal property, partially or entirely in this state. (R.S. Art. 7426; P.C. Art. 1632.)

§ 15.03. Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Defined

- (a) It is a conspiracy in restraint of trade for
- (1) two or more persons engaged in buying or selling tangible personal property to agree not to buy from or sell to another person tangible personal property;
 - (2) two or more persons to agree to boycott, or threaten not to buy from or sell to, a person because that person buys from or sells to another person; (R.S. Art. 7428, subdiv. 1 and 2; P.C. Art. 1634, subdiv. 1 and 2.)

§ 15.03 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (3) two or more persons to agree to boycott, or not to deal with, the tangible personal property of another person; or (R.S. Art. 7428, subdiv. 3 (part), amd. by 50th Legis., Ch. 310, Sec. 1; P.C. Art. 1634, subdiv. 3 (part), amd. by 50th Legis., Ch. 310, Sec. 1.)
- (4) an employer and labor union or other organization to agree or combine so that
 - (A) a person is denied the right to work for an employer because of membership or nonmembership in the labor union or other organization; or
 - (B) membership or nonmembership in the labor union or other organization is made a condition of obtaining or keeping a job with the employer. (R.S. Art. 7428—1.)
- (b) It is not a conspiracy in restraint of trade for
 - (1) employees to agree to quit their employment, or to refuse to deal with tangible personal property of their immediate employer, unless their refusal to deal with tangible personal property of their immediate employer is intended to induce, or has the effect of inducing, that employer to refrain from buying or otherwise acquiring tangible personal property from a person; or (R.S. Art. 7428, subdiv. 3 (part), amd. by 50th Legis., Ch. 310, Sec. 1; P.C. Art. 1634, subdiv. 3 (part), amd. by 50th Legis., Ch. 310, Sec. 1.)
 - (2) persons to agree to refer for employment a migratory farm worker who works on seasonal crops if the referral is made irrespective of whether or not the worker belongs to a labor union or other organization. (52nd Legis., Ch. 494, Sec. 2.)

§ 15.04. Monopoly, Trust, and Conspiracy in Restraint of Trade Prohibited; Agreement Violating Prohibition Void

(a) Every monopoly, trust, and conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03 of this code, respectively, is illegal and prohibited. (R.S. Art. 7429.)

(b) An agreement violating the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade contained in Subsection (a) of this section is void and unenforceable in law or equity. (R.S. Art. 7437.)

§ 15.05. Public Utility Prohibited from Injuring Competition or Discriminating in Rates

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "utility" means an individual, company, partnership, or corporation in the business of transporting or selling natural gas, electric current and power, telephone or telegraph service, or a similar public utility. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 1.)

(b) No utility may intentionally prevent or hinder legitimate competition among utilities. No utility doing business in more than one municipality or county may discriminate between or among persons in rates, prices, or kinds of service for the purpose of injuring a competitor or preventing or hindering competition among utilities. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 2.)

(c) For purposes of this section,

- (1) "subsidiary utility" means a utility that is controlled by another individual, company, partnership, or corporation;
- (2) "controlling company" means an individual, company, partnership, or corporation that controls a subsidiary utility;
- (3) the act of a subsidiary utility is the act of its controlling company and of every other subsidiary utility of that controlling company;
- (4) the act of a controlling company is the act of each of its subsidiary utilities; and
- (5) the costs of production and transportation shall be considered in determining whether or not discrimination in rates, prices, or kinds of service exists. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 3 and 4.)

(d) A utility's reduction of rates or prices below those required by an ordinance or proposed in a petition is prima facie evidence of an intent to prevent competition or injure a competitor if

- (1) a municipality has required by ordinance, or its governing body, a majority of its citizens, or a majority of the residents of a community served by the utility has requested by petition, that the utility lower the rates or prices charged for its services;
- (2) the petition proposes rates or prices for the utility to charge which the municipality, its citizens, or the residents believe to be fair and reasonable;
- (3) the utility first refuses or fails to reduce its rates or prices;
- (4) within 12 months after the refusal or failure another utility begins, or attempts to begin, serving the municipality or community; and
- (5) the reduction is made after the other utility began, or attempted to begin, serving the municipality or community. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 5, sen. 1.)

(e) It is not prima facie evidence of an intent to prevent competition or injure a competitor for a utility to reduce its rates or prices to the level of those charged by the municipality or a competing utility,

§ 15.05 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

even though the reduced rates or prices are below those required by the ordinance or requested in the petition. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 5, sen. 2.)

(f) A utility adjudged guilty of violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section forfeits its charter or articles of incorporation (or permit or certificate of authority) and right to do business in this state. The attorney general on learning of the violation shall file suit, or institute quo warranto proceedings, in a district court in any county in this state to obtain the forfeiture. (44th Legis., Ch. 44, Sec. 6.)

§ 15.06. Publication Tying Arrangement Prohibited

(a) No wholesale distributor or news agency, or its agent or employee, may require or demand that a retailer purchase or accept from the wholesale distributor or news agency a particular publication so that the retailer can obtain another publication from the wholesale distributor or news agency.

(b) A wholesale distributor or news agency, or its agent or employee, who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both. (54th Legis., Ch. 453, Sec. 1.)

[Sections 15.07-15.11 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. PROCEDURE AND EVIDENCE

§ 15.12. Declaratory Judgment Action

(a) A person (other than a foreign corporation not having a permit or certificate of authority to do business in this state) uncertain of whether or not his action or proposed action violates or will violate the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code may file suit against the state for declaratory judgment, citing this section as authority, in one of the Travis County district courts.

(b) Citation and all process in the suit shall be served on the attorney general, who shall represent the state. The petition shall describe in detail the person's action, or proposed action, and all other relevant facts, and the court in its declaratory judgment shall fully recite the action, or proposed action, and other facts considered.

(c) A declaratory judgment granted under this section which rules that action or proposed action does not violate the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code

(1) shall be strictly construed and may not be extended by implication to an action or fact not recited in the judgment;

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 15.14

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) does not bind the state with reference to a person not a party to the suit in which the judgment was granted; and
- (3) does not estop the state from subsequently establishing a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code based on an action or fact not recited in the declaratory judgment, which action or fact, when combined with an action or fact recited in the judgment, constitutes a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code.
- (d) A person filing suit under this section shall pay all costs of the suit (R.S. Art. 7436a, Sec. 1—4.)

§ 15.13. Attorney General's Assistants

An assistant attorney general, county attorney, district attorney, or criminal district attorney acting under the attorney general's direction has the powers and duties of the attorney general set out in Sections 15.14–15.17 of this code. (No source citation.)

§ 15.14. Discovery Procedure

(a) If the attorney general believes that a person knows of a violation of the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, he may apply to the county judge or to a justice of the peace in the county where the person is located to compel the examination of the person.

(b) Upon receipt of the application, the county judge or justice of the peace shall

- (1) summon the person as in a criminal case;
- (2) administer an oath to him;
- (3) transcribe his statement;
- (4) have him swear to and sign his statement; and
- (5) deliver his statement to the attorney general.

(c) A person summoned under Subsection (b) of this section is guilty of contempt of court if he fails to

- (1) appear in response to the summons;
- (2) make a sworn statement of the facts he knows; or
- (3) sign his written statement.

(d) A person guilty of contempt under Subsection (c) of this section may be

- (1) fined not more than $100; and
- (2) attached and imprisoned in the county jail until he makes a full statement about the facts he knows.

(R.S. Art. 7439; see also P.C. Art. 1636.)

§ 15.15 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 15.15. Party to Suit May Subpoena Witness

(a) A party to a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws conserving natural resources, may apply to the clerk of the court in which the suit is pending to subpoena a witness located anywhere in the state. On receipt of the application, the clerk shall issue the subpoena applied for but may not issue more than five subpoenas each for state witnesses and defense witnesses without first obtaining the court's written approval. (42nd Legis., 1st C.S., Ch. 44, Sec. 1, sen. 1 and 2.)

(b) A witness subpoenaed under Subsection (a) of this section who fails to appear and testify in compliance with the subpoena is guilty of contempt of court and may be

- (1) fined not more than $100; and
- (2) attached and imprisoned in the county jail until he appears in court and testifies about the facts he knows. (42nd Legis., 1st C.S., Ch. 44, Sec. 1, sen. 3 (part).)

§ 15.16. State May Compel Attendance of Defendant and Production of Documentary Evidence

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) "witness" includes
 - (A) director, officer, agent, and employee of a defendant corporation or joint stock association;
 - (B) member of a defendant partnership; and
 - (C) individual defendant; and
- (2) "court" includes special commissioner appointed under Section 15.19 of this code. (No source citation.)

(b) The attorney general in a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws regulating corporations, may request the appearance and testimony of a witness, and his production of documentary evidence, at a place in or out of the state by written application to the court in term time or vacation.

- (c) The attorney general in the application shall
 - (1) state the name and address of each witness whose testimony he wishes to take;
 - (2) describe in a general way the documentary evidence he wishes produced; and
 - (3) state the place where and the time when the witness is to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. (R.S. Arts. 7440 and 7441, sen. 1.)

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 15.17

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(d) On receipt of the attorney general's application, the court shall immediately issue a written notice, directed to the witness and defendant or his attorney, requiring the defendant or his attorney to notify the witness of the place where and the time when he is to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence. (R.S. Art. 7441, sen. 2.)

(e) A defendant or his attorney notified by written notice issued under Subsection (d) of this section

(1) that a witness is wanted to testify shall immediately inform the witness of the place where and time when he is required to appear and testify; and (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 1.)

(2) to produce documentary evidence shall produce the evidence if it belongs to the defendant or is under his control at the place and time specified in the notice. (R.S. Art. 7442, sen. 1.)

(f) A witness notified under Subsection (e) of this section shall remain in attendance before the court from day to day until discharged by the court. (R.S. Arts. 7445, sen. 2, and 7441, sen. 3.)

§ 15.17. Sanction for Failure to Appear or Produce Documentary Evidence

(a) The court on motion of the attorney general and after a hearing shall strike all of the defendant's pleadings and render default judgment against him if a witness fails or refuses to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence in compliance with a written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code. (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 2 and 3 (part).)

(b) A defendant's pleadings may not be stricken, nor default judgment rendered against him, if the defendant

(1) files with the court a sworn statement that

(A) a witness's failure or refusal to attend and testify was due to no act or fault of the defendant;

(B) documentary evidence demanded was not in defendant's possession or control and could not be produced; and

(C) defendant complied with the written notice to the best of his ability; and

(2) the court after a hearing is satisfied that the defendant's statement is true. (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 3 (part).)

(c) The court after the hearing provided in Subsection (b) (2) of this section may make additional orders concerning evidence that it considers necessary. (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 3 (part).)

§ 15.18 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 15.18. Service of Written Notice

(a) Written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code must allow the witness named in the notice at least 10 days after the day of service before he is required to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence in compliance with the written notice. (R.S. Art. 7445, sen. 1.)

(b) Written notice issued under Section 15.16(d) of this code may be served, and the return completed for it, by a sheriff, constable, or a disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact of service. The person serving the written notice shall deliver a copy to the person to be served, or to his attorney, shall endorse (either on the original notice or on an attachment to it) the date, time, and manner of service and the name of the person served, and shall sign the return. If the person serving the written notice is not a sheriff or constable, he shall swear to the return before someone authorized to administer an oath. (R.S. Art. 7445, sen. 3-5.)

§ 15.19. Special Commissioner Appointed to Take Evidence

(a) A party to a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to enforce the laws regulating corporations, may apply in term time or vacation to the court in which the suit is pending for appointment of a special commissioner to take evidence at a location in or out of the state as designated in the application. Upon receipt of the application, the court shall appoint a disinterested person as special commissioner, who shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office. (R.S. Art. 7444, sen. 1 and 3 (part).)

(b) A special commissioner appointed under Subsection (a) of this section may

(1) issue

(A) a written notice under Section 15.16(d) of this code, or a subpoena, to compel the attendance and testimony of a witness or the production of documentary evidence; and

(B) an attachment for a witness;

(2) punish for contempt of court to the extent provided by law for the court appointing him;

(3) administer an oath to a witness; and

(4) have a witness examined orally and his testimony transcribed, sworn to, and signed by the witness. (R.S. Art. 7444, sen. 2.)

(c) The special commissioner shall

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 15.21

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (1) note and reserve each objection to the evidence taken for the court hearing the suit and may not exclude evidence;
- (2) with all convenient speed certify and return the evidence taken to the court appointing him. (R.S. Art. 7444, sen. 4, 5, and 3 (part).)
- (d) Evidence taken by a special commissioner is admissible in the suit for which it was taken, subject to objection made at the time it is offered in the suit. (R.S. Art. 7444, sen. 6.)
- (e) When filed with the court appointing him, a special commissioner's certificate, showing the failure or refusal of a witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence, is prima facie evidence of the failure or refusal. (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 4.)
- (f) A special commissioner appointed under Subsection (a) of this section is entitled to be reimbursed for his actual travel expenses and to the fee allowed by law to a notary public for taking a deposition. A special commissioner's travel expenses and fee are taxed as costs in the suit and collected as in a civil case. (R.S. Art. 7444, sen. 7.)

§ 15.20. Immunity of State's Witness

A person testifying or producing documentary evidence for the state in a discovery procedure under Section 15.14 of this code, in a suit brought to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or in a suit brought to enforce the laws regulating corporations, is immune from indictment and prosecution for anything about which he truthfully testifies or produces documentary evidence. (R.S. Art. 7446.)

§ 15.21. Priority of Civil Suits and Cumulative Effect of Subchapter

- (a) A civil suit filed by the state under Section 15.29, 15.30, or 15.32 of this code has priority over all other court business, civil or criminal, except a criminal prosecution in which the defendant is in jail. (R.S. Art. 7438.)
- (b) The provisions of Sections 15.14 and 15.16-15.20 of this code
 - (1) are cumulative of and do not repeal other law relating to securing evidence; and
 - (2) provide additional means of securing evidence to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code and the laws regulating corporations. (R.S. Art. 7447.)

§ 15.22 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 15.22. Witness Fees

(a) A witness residing outside the county in which a suit is pending, before he need comply with a subpoena issued under Section 15.15 (a) of this code, must be tendered by the party calling him his anticipated expenses, not to exceed four cents a mile and $2 a day, for going to, attending, and returning from court. In the case of a state witness, these expenses shall be paid in the same manner as in a felony case. (42nd Legis., 1st C.S., Ch. 44, Sec. 1, sen. 3 (part) and 4.)

(b) A person complying with a written notice or summons issued under Section 15.16(d) or 15.14 of this code, respectively, is entitled to four cents a mile and $1 a day for going to, attending, and returning from court. A person shall file a sworn claim for his mileage and per diem with the court, and the mileage and per diem shall be taxed as costs and collected as in a civil case. (R.S. Art. 7443, sen. 5 and 6.)

SUBCHAPTER C. CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES

§ 15.28. Definitions

In Sections 15.29–15.31 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) “domestic corporation” means a corporation organized under the law of this state;
- (2) “foreign corporation” means a corporation organized under the law of another state or country; and
- (3) “successor” means a corporation to which another corporation has transferred its property and business or which has assumed payment of its obligations. (No source citation.)

§ 15.29. Charter of Domestic Corporation Forfeited

(a) When he believes the public interest requires it, the attorney general shall file suit to forfeit the charter or articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation which has violated or is violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The attorney general may file suit under this subsection in a district court in any county in the state. (R.S. Art. 7431.)

(b) To the extent consistent with this chapter, the law governing quo warranto applies to a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section. (R.S. Art. 7434.)

(c) If he finds the public interest requires it, in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, the court may forfeit the charter or articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The forfeiture is in addition to other penalties provided by law. (R.S. Art. 7430.)

(d) The successor to a domestic corporation whose charter or articles of incorporation has been forfeited under Subsection (c) of this section may not incorporate or do business in this state. (R.S. Art. 7432.)

§ 15.30. Foreign Corporation Enjoined From Doing Business

(a) If a foreign corporation has violated or is violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, the attorney general may file suit in a district court in Travis County to permanently enjoin the foreign corporation from doing business or incorporating in this state.

(b) If the court finds the public interest requires it, in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, it shall permanently enjoin from doing business or incorporating in this state a foreign corporation adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. The injunction is in addition to other penalties provided by law. (R.S. Art. 7433.)

(c) The successor to a foreign corporation permanently enjoined from doing business in this state may not incorporate or do business in this state. (No source citation.)

§ 15.31. Reinstatement of Enjoined Foreign Corporation

(a) Five or more years after being enjoined from doing business in this state under Section 15.30(b) of this code, a foreign corporation or its successor may apply for reinstatement to the district court originally granting the injunction. The corporation shall have a copy of the application, and all other papers, served on the attorney general, who shall represent the state in the reinstatement proceeding. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 3, 1, and 7.)

(b) On receipt of the application, the court shall hold a hearing on it, may compel the production of documentary evidence, and may appoint a special commissioner under Section 15.19 of this code to take testimony either in or out of the state. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 5, 6, and 8.)

(c) The court after the hearing may modify the original injunction and permit the foreign corporation or its successor to incorporate or secure a certificate of authority to do business in this state, if the corporation or its successor has established that the enjoined corporation

- (1) fully obeyed the injunction and paid all fines adjudged against it; (Based on R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 5 (part) and 1 part.)
- (2) has organized or reorganized its affairs so that it may do business in this state without violating a state law; and
- (3) is not itself violating, and is not connected with a person who is violating, the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 2.)

(d) If the court modifies the original injunction in a reinstatement proceeding, it shall retain jurisdiction over the proceeding. The attorney general for good cause shall apply to the court to set aside the modification. If the attorney general establishes that the reinstated foreign corporation or its successor has violated or is violating, or is connected with a person who is violating, the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, the court shall set aside the modification and permanently enjoin the foreign corporation or its successor from doing business or incorporating in this state. If the modification is set aside, all proceedings based on it are void. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 10 and 11.)

(e) The clerk of the court shall forward to the secretary of state a certified copy of the court's judgment in a reinstatement proceeding, and the secretary of state shall comply with the judgment. (Based on R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 5 (part).)

(f) A foreign corporation or its successor seeking reinstatement shall pay all expenses of the proceeding, including a reasonable attorney's fee fixed by the court. The attorney general shall deposit the attorney's fee in the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 9.)

(g) A foreign corporation or its successor adjudged guilty a second time of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code may not apply for reinstatement under Subsection (a) of this section. (R.S. Art. 7435, sen. 4.)

§ 15.32. Monetary Penalty

(a) A person adjudged guilty of violating the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code shall pay a fine to the state of not less than $50 nor more than $1,500 for each day of violation. The attorney general, or a district, criminal district, or county attorney acting under his direction, shall represent the state in a suit filed to collect this fine. (R.S. Art. 7436, sen. 1 and 3.)

(b) Each district court in this state has jurisdiction and venue over a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section, and once suit is filed, it may not be transferred to another county except on order of the court. (R.S. Art. 7436, sen. 2.)

(c) A district, criminal district, or county attorney representing the state in a suit filed to enforce the prohibition contained in Section 15.04 of this code, or to collect a fine under Subsection (a) of this section, is entitled to a fee equal to

- (1) 10 percent of the amount collected up to and including $50,000; and
- (2) five percent of the amount collected over $50,000; or
- (3) one-half of the percentages specified in Subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, if the suit is compromised before final judgment in the trial court. (R.S. Art. 7436, sen. 4 and 8.)

(d) The fee specified in Subsection (c) of this section may be retained by the district, criminal district, or county attorney collecting it and is in addition to other fees allowed him by law. (Based on R.S. Art. 7436, sen. 4 (part).)

(e) A district, criminal district, or county attorney representing the state, who ceases to hold office before a fine is collected, is entitled to share equally with his successor in the fee specified in Subsection (c) of this section. A contract hiring special counsel to assist in representing the state is binding on the district, criminal district, or county attorney making the contract and subsequently retiring from office. (R.S. Art. 7436, sen. 6 and 7.)

§ 15.33. Criminal Penalties

(a) A person may not agree to form, form, be a party to the formation of, or aid a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a) (1)–(3) of this code, respectively. (P.C. Art. 1637.)

(b) A person acting as a member, agent, employee, officer, director, or stockholder of a business, firm, corporation, or association may not

- (1) sell, purchase, contract, do business or any other act for, or form or operate, the business, firm, corporation, or association in violation of the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, and conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a) (1)–(3) of this code, respectively; or
- (2) in this state, with an intent to drive out competition or financially injure a competitor,
 - (A) sell a product below the cost of its manufacture or production;
 - (B) give away a product; or

§ 15.33 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(C) give a secret rebate on the sale price of a product. (P. C. Art. 1638.)

(c) A person who forms outside this state a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a) (1)–(3) of this code, respectively, may not, with respect to the monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade,

(1) cause or permit it to do business, operate, or have an effect in this state;

(2) aid it to do business in this state or otherwise violate the prohibition against a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, as defined in Sections 15.01, 15.02, and 15.03(a) (1)–(3) of this code, respectively; or

(3) buy, sell, or contract for it.

(P.C. Art. 1639 (part).)

(d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a), (b), or (c) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 2 nor more than 10 years. (P.C. Art. 1639 (part).)

(e) A criminal prosecution under this section may be brought in Travis or any other county in which a monopoly, trust, or conspiracy in restraint of trade is allegedly operating. (P.C. Art. 1641.)

§ 15.34. Exemption From Criminal Penalties

Section 15.33 of this code does not apply to agricultural products or livestock while in the hands of the producer or raiser. (P.C. Art. 1642.)

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 16.01. Definitions

- (a) In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition, (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 1 (part).)
 - (1) "applicant" means the person applying for registration of a mark under this chapter and includes his legal representative, successor, assignee, and predecessor in title to the mark sought to be registered; (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 1(c).)
 - (2) "mark" includes service mark and trademark;
 - (3) "registrant" means the person to whom a registration has been issued under this chapter and includes his legal representative, successor, assignee, and predecessor in title to the registration;

§ 16.01 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (4) "service mark" means a word, name, symbol, device, slogan or any combination thereof which, whether registered or not, has been adopted and used by a person to identify his services and distinguish them from the services of others, and includes the titles, designations, character names, and distinctive features of broadcast or other advertising;
- (5) "trademark" means a word, name, symbol, device, slogan or any combination thereof which, whether registered or not, has been adopted and used by a person to identify his goods and distinguish them from the goods manufactured or sold by others; and
- (6) "trade name" includes individual name, surname, firm name, corporate name, and lawfully adopted name or title used by a person to identify his business, vocation, or occupation. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 1(a), sen. 2, 3, (d), (f).)

(b) This chapter does not apply to the registration or use of live-stock brands or other indicia of ownership of goods which do not qualify as a "mark" as defined in this chapter. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 14, sen. 2 (part).)

§ 16.02. When Mark Considered to be Used

(a) A mark is considered to be used in this state in connection with goods when

- (1) it is placed on
 - (A) the goods;
 - (B) containers of the goods;
 - (C) displays associated with the goods; or
 - (D) tags or labels affixed to the goods; and
- (2) the goods are sold, displayed for sale, or otherwise publicly distributed in this state.

(b) A mark is considered to be used in this state in connection with services when

- (1) it is used or displayed in this state in connection with selling or advertising the services; and
- (2) the services are rendered in this state. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 1(e).)

[Sections 16.03–16.07 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. REGISTRATION OF MARK

§ 16.08. Registrable Marks

(a) A mark in actual use in connection with the applicant's goods or services, which distinguishes his goods or services from those of others, is registrable unless it

- (1) is, or includes matter which is, immoral, deceptive, or scandalous;
- (2) may disparage, or falsely suggest a connection with, or bring into contempt or disrepute
 - (A) a person, whether living or dead;
 - (B) an institution;
 - (C) a belief; or
 - (D) a national symbol;
- (3) depicts or simulates the flag, coat of arms, or other insignia of
 - (A) the United States;
 - (B) a state;
 - (C) a municipality; or
 - (D) a foreign nation;
- (4) is or includes the name, signature, or portrait of a living individual who has not consented in writing to its registration;
- (5) is
 - (A) merely descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of the applicant's goods or services;
 - (B) primarily geographically descriptive or deceptively misdescriptive of the applicant's goods or services; or
 - (C) primarily merely a surname; or (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 2(a)-(d), (e), sen. 1 (part).)
- (6) is likely to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive, because, when applied to the applicant's goods or services, it resembles another person's unabandoned mark registered in this state. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 2(f).)

(b) Subsection (a) (5) of this section does not prevent the registration of a mark that has become distinctive as applied to the applicant's goods or services. The secretary of state may accept as evidence that a mark has become distinctive as applied to the applicant's goods or services proof of substantially exclusive and continuous use of the mark by the applicant in this state for the five years next preceding the date on which the applicant filed his application for registration. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 2(e), sen. 1 (part), 2.)

(c) A trade name is not registrable under this chapter. However, if a trade name is also a service mark or trademark, as defined in this chapter, it is registrable as a service mark or trademark. (No source citation.)

§ 16.09. Classes of Goods and Services

(a) An applicant may include in a single application for registration of a mark all goods or services in connection with which the mark is actually being used and which are in a single class. An applicant may not include in a single application for registration goods or services which are not in a single class. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 12, sen. 2, 3.)

(b) The classes of goods are:

- (1) Class 1: raw or partly prepared materials;

 - (52) Class 52: detergents and soaps.
- (c) The classes of services are:
- (1) Class 100: miscellaneous;
 - (2) Class 101: advertising and business;
 - (3) Class 102: insurance and financial;
 - (4) Class 103: construction and repair;

§ 16.09 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (5) Class 104: communication;
- (6) Class 105: transportation and storage;
- (7) Class 106: material treatment; and
- (8) Class 107: education and entertainment.

(57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 12 (part).)

(d) The classes of goods and services enumerated in Subsections (b) and (c) of this section are established for the convenient administration of this chapter and do not limit or expand an applicant's or registrant's rights. The secretary of state may amend the classes of goods and services to conform to those now or later established by the U.S. Patent Office. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 12, sen. 1, 4.)

§ 16.10. Application for Registration

(a) A person shall file his application to register a mark in the office of the secretary of state on a form prescribed by the secretary of state.

(b) The applicant shall include in the application

- (1) the name and business address of the applicant;
- (2) the state of incorporation of the applicant if the applicant is a corporation;
- (3) an appointment of the secretary of state as the applicant's agent for service of process only in suits relating to the registration which may be issued if the applicant
 - (A) is or becomes a
 - (i) nonresident individual, partnership, or association; or
 - (ii) foreign corporation without a certificate of authority to do business in this state; or
 - (B) cannot be found in this state;
- (4) the names or a description of the goods or services in connection with which the mark is being used;
- (5) the manner in which the mark is being used in connection with the goods or services;
- (6) the class in which the applicant believes the goods or services belong;
- (7) the date on which the applicant first used the mark anywhere in connection with the goods or services;
- (8) the date on which the applicant first used the mark in this state in connection with the goods or services;
- (9) a statement that the applicant believes he is the owner of the mark and that, to the best of his knowledge, no other person is entitled to use the mark in this state

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 16.12

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (A) in the identical form used by the applicant; or
 - (B) in a form that is likely, when used in connection with the goods or services, to cause confusion or mistake, or to deceive, because of its resemblance to the mark used by the applicant; and (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 3, sen. 1.)
- (10) such additional information or documents as the secretary of state may reasonably require. (No source citation.)
- (c) The applicant shall
- (1) prepare and file the application with the secretary of state in duplicate originals; and (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 4, sen. 1.)
 - (2) submit as part of the application to the secretary of state
 - (A) two identical specimens or facsimiles of the mark as actually used, one specimen or facsimile with each duplicate original application; and
 - (B) a filing fee of $10 payable to the secretary of state. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 3, sen. 3, 4.)
- (d) The applicant or his agent shall sign and verify the application. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 3, sen. 2.)

§ 16.11. Registration by Secretary of State

If the application satisfies the requirements of this chapter, and the filing fee is paid, the secretary of state shall

- (1) endorse on each duplicate original application
 - (A) the word "filed"; and
 - (B) the date on which the application was filed;
- (2) file one of the duplicate original applications in his office;
- (3) issue a certificate of registration evidencing registration on the date on which the application was filed;
- (4) attach the other duplicate original application to the certificate of registration; and
- (5) deliver the certificate of registration with the attached duplicate original application to the applicant. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 4 (part).)

§ 16.12. Term of Registration

- (a) The registration of a mark under this chapter is effective for a term of 10 years from the date of registration. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 7, sen. 1 (part).)
- (b) A registration in force before May 2, 1962, expires 10 years from the date of registration. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 7, sen. 5 (part).)

§ 16.13 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 16.13. Notice of Expiration of Registration

(a) During the period beginning 12 months and ending 6 months before the day a registration expires, the secretary of state shall, by writing to the last known address of the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act, notify the registrant of the necessity for renewing or reregistering under Section 16.14 of this code.

(b) Neither the secretary of state's failure to notify a registrant nor the registrant's nonreceipt of a notice under Subsection (a) of this section

- (1) extends the term of a registration; or
- (2) excuses the registrant's failure to renew or reregister. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 7, sen. 6, 7.)

§ 16.14. Renewal of Registration and Reregistration

(a) The registration of a mark under this chapter may be renewed for an additional 10-year term by filing a renewal application within six months before the day the registration expires on a form prescribed by the secretary of state. The registrant shall submit as part of his renewal application to the secretary of state

- (1) an affidavit stating that
 - (A) the mark is still in use in this state; or
 - (B) nonuse of the mark in this state
 - (i) is due to special circumstances which excuse the nonuse; and
 - (ii) is not due to an intention to abandon the mark in this state; and
- (2) a renewal fee of $10 payable to the secretary of state.

(b) A registrant may renew a registration under Subsection (a) of this section for successive terms of 10 years. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 7, sen. 1 (part), 2, 3, 4.)

(c) A mark for which a registration was in force before May 2, 1962, may be reregistered by filing an original application under Section 16.10 of this code within six months before the day the registration expires. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 7, sen. 5 (part).)

§ 16.15. Record, Notice, and Proof of Registration

(a) The secretary of state shall keep for public examination a record of all

- (1) marks registered, reregistered, or renewed under this chapter; and
- (2) assignments recorded under Section 16.18 of this code. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 9.)

(b) Registration of a mark under this chapter is constructive notice throughout this state of the registrant's claim of ownership of the mark throughout this state. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 5.)

(c) A certificate of registration issued by the secretary of state under this chapter, or a copy of it certified by the secretary of state, is admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of

- (1) the validity of the registration;
- (2) the registrant's ownership of the mark; and
- (3) the registrant's exclusive right to use the mark in commerce in this state in connection with the goods or services specified in the certificate, subject to any conditions and limitations stated in the certificate. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 4 (part).)

§ 16.16. Cancellation of Registration

(a) The secretary of state shall cancel

- (1) all registrations in force before May 2, 1962, which are more than 10 years old and which have not been reregistered under Section 16.14(c) of this code;
- (2) a registration on receipt of a voluntary request for cancellation from the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act as identified by the records of the secretary of state;
- (3) registrations granted under this chapter and not renewed under Section 16.14(a) of this code;
- (4) a registration concerning which a district or appellate court has rendered a final judgment, which has become unappealable, cancelling the registration or finding that
 - (A) the registered mark has been abandoned;
 - (B) the registrant under this chapter or under a prior act is not the owner of the mark;
 - (C) the registration was granted contrary to the provisions of this chapter;
 - (D) the registration was obtained fraudulently; or
 - (E) the registered mark has become incapable of serving as a mark. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 10.)

(b) The clerk of the court whose final judgment cancels a registration or makes any of the findings specified in Subsection (a) (4) of this section shall, when the judgment becomes unappealable, transmit a certified copy of it to the secretary of state. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 11, sen. 5.)

§ 16.17 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 16.17. Assignment of Mark and Registration

(a) A mark and its registration under this chapter are assignable with the goodwill of the business in which the mark is used, or with that part of the goodwill connected with the use of, and symbolized by, the mark.

(b) An assignment shall be made by duly executed written instrument. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 8, sen. 1, 2 (part).)

§ 16.18. Recordation of Assignment and Its Effect

(a) An assignment made under Section 16.17 of this code may be recorded with the secretary of state by

- (1) filing with him
 - (A) the original assignment; and
 - (B) a duplicate original or legible photocopy on durable paper of the assignment; and
- (2) paying him a fee of $3.

(b) If an assignment has been properly filed for record under Subsection (a) of this section, the secretary of state shall

- (1) issue in the assignee's name a new certificate of registration for the remainder of the term of the mark's registration, re-registration, or last renewal;
- (2) endorse on the original and duplicate original assignment or photocopy the
 - (A) words "Filed for record in the office of the Secretary of State, State of Texas"; and
 - (B) date on which the assignment was filed for record;
- (3) file the duplicate original or photocopy of the assignment in his office; and
- (4) return the endorsed original assignment to the assignee or his representative. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 8, sen. 2 (part), 4, 5.)

(c) The assignment of a mark registered under this chapter is void against a purchaser who purchases the mark for value after the assignment is made and without notice of it unless the assignment is recorded by the secretary of state

- (1) within three months after the date of the assignment; or
- (2) before the mark is purchased. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 8, sen. 3.)

[Sections 16.19–16.23 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. COURT ACTION

§ 16.24. Review of Secretary of State's Decisions

(a) Final action taken or a final decision made by the secretary of state under this chapter may be reviewed by a suit filed in one of the Travis County district courts.

(b) A suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section is tried de novo, as an appeal from a justice court to a county court, and

- (1) every decision or action concerning an issue in the suit made or taken by the secretary of state before the suit was filed is void;
- (2) the district court shall determine the issues in the suit as if no decision had been made or action taken by the secretary of state; and
- (3) the district court may not apply in any form the substantial evidence rule in reviewing a decision or action of the secretary of state.

(c) The legislature declares that

- (1) this section is not severable from the other sections of this chapter;
- (2) it would not have enacted this chapter without this section; and
- (3) this chapter is void if a court in a final judgment which becomes unappealable invalidates this section in whole or part. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 6.)

§ 16.25. Suit to Cancel Registration

(a) A person who believes that he is or will be damaged by a registration under this chapter may sue to cancel the registration in a district court having venue. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 11, sen. 1, 2 (part).)

(b) The clerk of a court in which suit is filed under Subsection (a) of this section shall transmit notice of the suit to the secretary of state, who shall place the notice in the registration file with proper notations and endorsements. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 11, sen. 3.)

(c) When the registrant's agent for service of process is the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall forward notice of the suit by registered mail to the registrant at his last address of record. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 11, sen. 2 (part).)

(d) If the court finds that the losing party in a suit filed under Subsection (a) of this section should have known his position was without merit, the court may award the successful party his reasonable attorneys' fees and charge them as part of the costs against the losing party. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 11, sen. 4.)

§ 16.26. Infringement of Registered Mark

(a) Subject to Section 16.27 of this code, a person commits an infringement if, without the registrant's consent, he

- (1) uses anywhere in this state a reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation of a mark registered under this chapter in connection with selling, offering for sale, or advertising goods or services when the use is likely to deceive or cause confusion or mistake as to the source or origin of the goods or services; or
- (2) reproduces, counterfeits, copies, or colorably imitates a mark registered under this chapter and applies the reproduction, counterfeit, copy, or colorable imitation to a label, sign, print, package, wrapper, receptacle, or advertisement intended to be used in selling, leasing, distributing, or rendering goods or services in this state when the use is likely to deceive or cause confusion or mistake as to the source or origin of the goods or services. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 15, sen. 1.)

(b) A registrant may sue for damages and to enjoin an infringement proscribed by Subsection (a) of this section in a district court having venue.

(c) If the district court determines that there has been an infringement, it shall enjoin the act of infringement and may

- (1) require the infringer to pay the registrant all damages resulting from the acts of infringement and occurring from and after the date two years before the day the suit was filed; and
- (2) order that the infringing reproductions, counterfeits, copies, or colorable imitations in the possession or under the control of the infringer be
 - (A) delivered to an officer of the court;
 - (B) delivered to the registrant; or
 - (C) destroyed.

(d) A registrant is entitled to recover damages under Subsection (c) (1) of this section only for an infringement that occurred during the period of time the infringer had actual knowledge of the registrant's mark. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 16.)

§ 16.27. Exceptions to Liability for Infringement

(a) No registration under this chapter adversely affects common law rights acquired prior to registration under this chapter. However, during any period when the registration of a mark under this chapter is in force and the registrant has not abandoned the mark, no common law rights as against the registrant of the mark may be acquired. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 14, sen. 1, 2 (part).)

(b) The owner or operator of a radio or television station, or the owner or publisher of a newspaper, magazine, directory, or other publication, is not liable in that business under Section 16.26 of this code for the use of a registered mark furnished by one of his advertisers or customers. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 15, sen. 2.)

§ 16.28. Procuring Application or Registration by Fraud

(a) No person may procure for himself or another the filing of an application or the registration of a mark under this chapter by knowingly making a false or fraudulent representation or declaration, oral or written, or by any other fraudulent means.

(b) A person injured by the false or fraudulent procurement of an application or registration may sue the person who violated Subsection (a) of this section in a district court having venue and

- (1) recover from him damages resulting from use of the fraudulently registered mark, plus costs of suit, including attorneys' fees; and
- (2) have the registration cancelled. (57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 13.)

§ 17.11. Deceptive Wholesale and Going-Out-Of-Business Advertising

(a) In Subsection (b) of this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "wholesaler" means a person who sells for the purpose of resale and not directly to a consuming purchaser. (56th Legis., Ch. 234, Sec. 1, sen. 2.)

(b) No person may wilfully misrepresent the nature of his business by using in selling or advertising the word manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or other word of similar meaning. (56th Legis., Ch. 234, Sec. 1, sen. 1.)

(c) No person may wilfully misrepresent the ownership of a business for the purpose of holding a liquidation sale, auction sale, or other sale which represents that the business is going out of business. A person who advertises a liquidation sale, auction sale, or going-out-of-business sale shall state the correct name and permanent address of the owner of the business in the advertising. (56th Legis., Ch. 234, Sec. 1a.)

(d) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) or (c) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500. (56th Legis., Ch. 234, Sec. 2.)

§ 17.12. Deceptive Advertising

(a) No person may disseminate a statement he knows materially misrepresents the cost or character of tangible personal property, a security, service, or anything he may offer for the purpose of

(1) selling, contracting to sell, otherwise disposing of, or contracting to dispose of the tangible personal property, security, service, or anything he may offer; or

(2) inducing a person to contract with regard to the tangible personal property, security, service, or anything he may offer. (P.C. Art. 1554, sen. 1 (part).)

(b) A person's proprietary mark appearing on or in a statement described in Subsection (a) of this section is prima facie evidence that the person disseminated the statement. (P.C. Art. 1554, sen. 2 (part).)

(c) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $200. (P.C. Art. 1554, sen. 1 (part).)

§ 17.18 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER C. REGULATING THE SALE OR TRANSFER OF SECONDHAND WATCHES

§ 17.18. Applicability of Subchapter to Secondhand Watches

- (a) A watch is secondhand if its
 - (1) case, movement, or case and movement as a unit, has been previously sold or transferred to a person for his own use or the use of another; (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 4(a) (part).)
 - (2) serial number, movement number, or other identification mark or number has been removed, altered, or covered up; or (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 4(b).)
 - (3) movement is more than one year old and has been repaired even though the watch has been returned to the seller or transferor for exchange or credit as described in Subsection (b) (1) of this section. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 4(c), sen. 1.)
- (b) A watch is not secondhand if
 - (1) after the sale or transfer described in Subsection (a) (1) of this section,
 - (A) the purchaser or transferee returns the watch to the seller or transferor for exchange or credit within one year from the date of sale or transfer to him;
 - (B) the seller or transferor keeps a written record showing
 - (i) the purchaser's or transferee's name;
 - (ii) the date of sale or transfer;
 - (iii) the serial number on the case and movement, if present; and
 - (iv) any proprietary mark;
 - (C) the record is kept for at least five years from the date of sale or transfer; and
 - (D) the record is open for inspection at the seller's or transferor's business address during business hours by
 - (i) the county or district attorney of the county in which the seller or transferor does business; or
 - (ii) his duly authorized representative; or (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 4(a) (part).)
 - (2) its movement is merely cleaned, oiled, or recased. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 4(c), sen. 2.)
- (c) The provisions of Subsections (a) and (b) of this section do not apply to a pawnbroker's auction sale of unredeemed pledges. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 6.)

§ 17.19. Labeling Secondhand Watches

No person in the business of buying or selling watches may sell or exchange, offer to sell or exchange, possess, or display with intent to sell or exchange a secondhand watch unless he

- (1) fastens to the watch a clearly written or printed tag bearing the word "secondhand"; and
- (2) places the tag so the word "secondhand" is in plain sight at all times. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 1.)

§ 17.20. Content of Invoice for Secondhand Watch

(a) No person in the business of buying or selling watches may sell or transfer a secondhand watch unless he gives the purchaser or transferee a written invoice

- (1) bearing the words "secondhand watch" in letters larger than any other letters on the invoice, except those of the letterhead; and
- (2) listing the following items:
 - (A) the seller's or transferor's name and address;
 - (B) the purchaser's or transferee's name and address;
 - (C) the date of sale or transfer;
 - (D) the name of the watch or its manufacturer; and
 - (E) the serial number or proprietary mark on the watch or, if the serial number or proprietary mark has been removed, altered, or covered up, a statement to that effect.

(b) The seller or transferor shall keep on file a duplicate of the invoice required by Subsection (a) of this section for at least five years from the date of sale or transfer.

(c) The county or district attorney, or his authorized representative, of the county in which the seller or transferor does business may inspect the duplicate invoice described in Subsection (b) of this section

- (1) during the seller's or transferor's business hours; and
- (2) at the seller's or transferor's business address. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 2.)

§ 17.21. Advertising Watch as Secondhand

No person may advertise or display a secondhand watch for sale or exchange unless he clearly states in the advertisement or display that the watch is secondhand. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 3.)

§ 17.22 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 17.22. Criminal Penalty

A person, or his agent or employee, who violates a provision of Section 17.19, 17.20, or 17.21 of this code is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 100 days or by a fine of not more than $500 or by both. (47th Legis., Ch. 314, Sec. 5.)

[Sections 17.23–17.27 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. COUNTERFEITING OR CHANGING A REQUIRED MARK; MISUSE OF CONTAINER BEARING MARK

§ 17.28. Counterfeiting or Changing a Mark Required by State Law

(a) No person may counterfeit or change a mark, brand, or stamp required by state law to be put on

- (1) tangible personal property; or
- (2) a container containing tangible personal property.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000. (P.C. Art. 1113.)

§ 17.29. Misusing Container; Evidence of Misuse and Container's Ownership

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "container" also includes drink-dispensing fountain. (No source citation.)

(b) Unless the owner of a reusable container bearing a proprietary mark (or one acting with the owner's written permission) agrees, no person may

- (1) fill the container for sale or other commercial purpose;
- (2) deface, cover up, or remove the proprietary mark from the container; or
- (3) refuse to return the container to the owner if he requests its return. (P.C. Art. 1058, sen. 2, amd. by 57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 17; R.S. Art. 843, sen. 2, amd. by 57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 18.)

(c) A person's wilful

- (1) possession of a full or empty reusable container without the owner's permission is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section;

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 17.30

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(2) use, purchase, sale, or other disposition of a full or empty reusable container without the owner's permission is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section; and

(3) breaking, damaging, or destroying a full or empty reusable container is prima facie evidence of his violating a provision of Subsection (b) of this section. (P.C. Art. 1059.)

(d) In an action in which the ownership of a reusable container is in issue, a person's proprietary mark on the container is prima facie evidence that the person or his licensee owns the container. (P.C. Art. 1058, sen. 1, amd. by 57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 17; R.S. Art. 843, sen. 1, amd. by 57th Legis., 3rd C.S., Ch. 24, Sec. 18.)

(e) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by

(1) a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $50 for each violation concerning a drink-dispensing fountain; or

(2) a fine of not less than $5 nor more than $10 for each violation concerning any other container. (P.C. Art. 1060.)

§ 17.30. Misusing Dairy Container Bearing Proprietary Mark

(a) In this section, unless the context requires a different definition, "dairy container" includes butter box, ice cream can, ice cream tub, milk bottle, milk bottle case, milk can, and milk jar.

(b) Without the owner's consent, no person may

(1) fill with milk, cream, butter, or ice cream; damage; mutilate; or destroy a dairy container bearing the owner's commonly used proprietary mark; or

(2) wilfully refuse to return on request to the owner a dairy container bearing his commonly used proprietary mark. (P.C. Art. 1063, amd. by 45th Legis., Ch. 218, Sec. 1.)

(c) Without the owner's written consent, no person may

(1) deface or remove an owner's proprietary mark from a dairy container; or

(2) substitute on a dairy container his proprietary mark for that of the owner. (P.C. Art. 1064 (part), amd. by 45th Legis., Ch. 218, Sec. 2.)

(d) A person's commonly used proprietary mark on a dairy container is prima facie evidence of that person's ownership of the container. (P.C. Art. 1065, amd. by 45th Legis., Ch. 218, Sec. 3.)

(e) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (b) or (c) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100. (P.C. Art. 1064 (part), amd. by 45th Legis., Ch. 218, Sec. 2.)

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 23.01. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) "assigned estate" means all the real and personal estate of an assigning debtor passing to the consenting creditors under an assignment by virtue of Section 23.02 or 23.09(b) of this code;

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 23.08

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (2) "assignee" means an assignee for the benefit of creditors;
- (3) "assigning debtor" means a person executing an assignment;
- (4) "assignment" means a general assignment for the benefit of creditors made under this chapter;
- (5) "consenting creditor" means a creditor who has consented to an assignment in one of the ways provided by Section 23.30 of this code; and
- (6) "real and personal estate" does not include property exempt by law from execution. (No source citation.)

§ 23.02. Nature and Effect of Assignment

(a) A debtor may assign his real and personal estate under this chapter to an assignee for the benefit of the debtor's creditors. (No source citation.)

(b) An assigning debtor shall provide in the assignment for distribution of all his real and personal estate to each consenting creditor in proportion to each consenting creditor's claim.

(c) Regardless of an expression to the contrary, an assignment passes all an assigning debtor's real and personal estate to each consenting creditor in proportion to each consenting creditor's claim. (R.S. Art. 261.)

[Sections 23.03–23.07 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER B. THE ASSIGNMENT

§ 23.08. Form and Content of Assignment

- (a) For an assignment to be valid,
 - (1) the assigning debtor must make the assignment in writing; and
 - (2) it must be proved or acknowledged and recorded in the manner provided by law for the conveyance of real estate.
- (b) The assigning debtor shall attach to his assignment an inventory containing the following information:
 - (1) a list naming each creditor of the assigning debtor;
 - (2) the resident address, if known, of each creditor;
 - (3) the amount owed each creditor and the type of debt;
 - (4) the consideration for the debt and the place where the debt arose;
 - (5) a description of each existing judgment or security for the payment of the debt;

§ 23.08 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

- (6) a schedule of all the assigning debtor's real and personal estate at the date of the assignment;
- (7) a description of
 - (A) each encumbrance on the real and personal estate; and
 - (B) each voucher and security relating to the estate; and
- (8) the value of the estate.

(c) The assigning debtor shall sign the inventory required by Subsection (b) of this section and swear that it is just and true. (R. S. Art. 262.)

§ 23.09. Fraud Does Not Defeat Assignment

(a) An assignment is not affected and a consenting creditor is not deprived of his proportionate share of the assigned estate by the fraudulent act or intent of the assigning debtor or assignee. A consenting creditor is a proper party to a suit filed to enforce a right under an assignment, or to protect an interest in an assigned estate. (R.S. Art. 267.)

(b) Except as to an innocent purchaser for value, a transfer of property made in contemplation of an assignment with an intent to defeat, delay, defraud, or give preference to a creditor is void and the property passes under the assignment rather than by the transfer.

(c) An assignee may sue to recover property transferred with an intent described in Subsection (b) of this section, and when the property is recovered, the assignee shall apply it for the benefit of the assigning debtor's creditors along with property belonging to the assigned estate already in the assignee's possession. If an assignee neglects or refuses to sue to recover property transferred with an intent described in Subsection (b) of this section, a creditor, after securing the assignee against cost or liability, may sue in the assignee's name to recover the property. (R.S. Art. 268.)

§ 23.10. Assignment Discharges Debtor

If an assigning debtor makes an assignment, he is discharged from liability on the claim of a consenting creditor unless the consenting creditor does not receive at least one-third of the amount allowed on his claim against the assigned estate. (R.S. Art. 263.)

[Sections 23.11–23.15 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF ASSIGNEE

§ 23.16. Assignee's Qualifications, Duty to Record Assignment, and Bond

(a) An assignee shall be a resident of this state and a resident of the county in which the assigning debtor resides, or in which the assigning debtor's principal business was conducted.

(b) Immediately after the assignment instrument is executed and delivered to him, the assignee shall record it in the county of his residence and in each county in which there is real property conveyed to the assignee by the assignment.

(c) Within five days after delivery to him of the assignment instrument, the assignee shall execute a bond

- (1) with a surety who must be approved by the judge of either the county or district court in the county of the assignee's residence;
- (2) conditioned that he will perform faithfully his duties as assignee and distribute proportionately the net proceeds of the assigned estate to the consenting creditors entitled to it under the assignment;
- (3) in an amount fixed by the county or district judge;
- (4) payable to the state; and
- (5) which inures to the benefit of the assigning debtor and each of the creditors.

(d) The assignee shall file the bond with the county clerk of the county in which the assigning debtor resides and then the assignee shall take possession of the assigned estate and carry out the assignment.

(e) An assignment is valid as against an assigning debtor or his creditors even though the assignee fails to execute and file a bond as required by Subsections (c) and (d) of this section. (R.S. Art. 266, sen. 1, 2, 3.)

§ 23.17. Notice of Assignee's Appointment

(a) Within 30 days after an assignment is executed, the assignee shall publish notice of his appointment as assignee in a newspaper published in the county

- (1) where the assigning debtor resides or where he operated his principal business before the assignment; or
- (2) nearest the assigning debtor's residence or principal business if a newspaper is not published in the county of the assigning debtor's residence or principal business.

§ 23.17 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

(b) The assignee shall publish notice of his appointment as assignee once each week for three consecutive weeks.

(c) The assignee shall notify by mail each of the assigning debtor's listed creditors of his appointment as assignee. (R.S. Art. 264.)

§ 23.18. Replacement of Assignee

(a) A county or district court of the county in which the assignee resides shall remove or replace the assignee on application of the assigning debtor or a creditor, or on its own motion,

- (1) if the court is satisfied that the assignee has not executed and filed the bond required by Sections 23.16(c) and (d) of this code;
- (2) if the assignee refuses or fails to serve for any reason; or
- (3) for good cause.

(b) On removal, resignation, or death of the assignee, the court shall appoint in writing a new assignee in term time or vacation.

(c) As soon as the new assignee executes and files a bond as required by Sections 23.16(c) and (d) of this code, he shall take possession of the assigned estate and carry out the assignment. (R.S. Art. 266, sen. 4, 5.)

§ 23.19. Assignee's Duty to Distribute Assigned Estate

Each time an assignee has enough money to pay 10 percent of the assigning debtor's debts, he shall distribute the money among the creditors entitled to receive it in proportion to their claims allowed under Section 23.31(b) of this code. (R.S. Art. 270 (part).)

§ 23.20. Discount of Claim Not Due and Allowance of Secured Claim

(a) The assignee may allow a claim which is not due at its present value by discounting it at the legal rate.

(b) If a creditor holds collateral to secure his claim worth less than his claim, the assignee may estimate the value of the collateral and allow the creditor as a claim against the assigned estate only the difference between the value of the collateral and the amount of the claim. (R.S. Art. 273.)

§ 23.21. Assignee's Entitlement to Compensation

An assignee is entitled to reasonable compensation for his services and reimbursement for his necessary expenses, including an attorney's fee, all of which shall be fixed by the county or district court who approved his bond. The compensation, expenses, and attorney's fee fixed by the county or district court shall be paid out of the assigned estate. (R.S. Art. 270 (part).)

§ 23.22. Examination of Debtor or Other Person

(a) The court in which a proceeding involving an assigned estate has been filed may, after reasonable notice to each person concerned, compel any person to answer questions under oath on

- (1) application of a creditor of the assigning debtor; or
- (2) its own motion.

(b) The court may compel attendance and an answer to any question concerning the assigned estate by writ or order as in other cases. Questions asked and answers given during the examination shall be in writing, the person examined shall swear to and sign his answers before the clerk, and the questions and answers shall be filed with the clerk for use by anyone interested in the proceeding.

(c) The court shall charge the cost of the examination against the applicant or the assigned estate, as the court deems proper.

(d) The assigning debtor may not be prosecuted or punished for an answer given by him during the examination. (R.S. Art. 272.)

§ 23.23. Assignee's Final Report and Discharge

(a) An assignee wishing to be discharged from his appointment shall prepare and file for record with the county clerk of the county in which his assignment is recorded a sworn report describing

- (1) all property which came into his possession under the assignment; and
- (2) how and to whom he distributed the property.

(b) The assignee shall also deposit in the registry of the court who approved his bond money belonging to the assigned estate still in his possession at the time he files his report under Subsection (a) of this section. The court shall distribute the money under this chapter to the consenting creditors and assignee and, in the case of surplus, to the nonconsenting creditors and assigning debtor. (R.S. Art. 274, sen. 1, 2, 3 (part).)

§ 23.24. Time Limit on Bringing Action Against Assignee

An action against an assignee based on his conduct in carrying out the assignment, as shown in his report filed under Section 23.23 (a) of this code, must be brought within 12 months after the report is filed or the action is barred. (R.S. Art. 274, sen. 3 (part).)

[Sections 23.25-23.29 reserved for expansion]

§ 23.30 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER D. DUTIES AND RIGHTS OF CREDITORS

§ 23.30. Creditor's Consent to Assignment

(a) A creditor must inform the assignee in writing of his consent to the assignment within four months after the assignee gives the notice required by Section 23.17 of this code.

(b) If a creditor is not given actual notice of an assignment, but subsequently learns of the assignment, he may consent to the assignment at any time before the first distribution of the assigned estate is begun.

(c) Receipt by a creditor of payment for part of his claim from the assignee is conclusive evidence of the creditor's consent to the assignment. (R.S. Art. 265, sen. 1, 3, 4.)

(d) If a creditor does not consent to an assignment, he is not entitled to receive any of the assigned estate under the assignment. (R.S. Art. 265, sen. 2.)

§ 23.31. Creditor's Proof and Assignee's Allowance of Claim

(a) Within six months after the first publication of notice of appointment required by Section 23.17 of this code, a consenting creditor must file with the assignee a statement, sworn to by the creditor, his agent, or attorney,

- (1) describing the nature and amount of the creditor's claim against the assigning debtor; and
- (2) stating that
 - (A) the claim is true;
 - (B) the debt is just; and
 - (C) all proper credits or offsets have been allowed against the claim.

(b) The assignee shall allow a claim filed under Subsection (a) of this section against the assigned estate unless he has good reason to believe the claim is not just and true.

(c) If a creditor does not file a statement in the time required by Subsection (a) of this section, he is not entitled to receive any of the assigned estate. (R.S. Art. 269, sen. 1, 2.)

§ 23.32. Creditor's Suit on Disputed Claim

(a) The assignee shall give any creditor a copy of any statement of claim filed under Section 23.31(a) of this code if the creditor requests a copy. (R.S. Art. 269, sen. 4.)

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 23.33

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(b) Within eight months after the first publication of notice required by Section 23.17 of this code, an assigning debtor or creditor may sue to

- (1) set aside an allowance made on a claim by the assignee; and
- (2) restrain payment of the claim by the assignee. (R.S. Art. 269, sen. 3.)

§ 23.33. Nonconsenting Creditor's Right to Surplus

If a creditor does not consent to an assignment, he may garnishee the assignee for the excess of the assigned estate remaining in the assignee's possession after the assignee has paid

- (1) each consenting creditor the amount of his claim allowed under Section 23.31(b) of this code; and
- (2) the expense of carrying out the assignment. (R.S. Art. 271.)

CHAPTER 24. FRAUDULENT TRANSFERS

Section

- 24.01. Definition of Transfer.
- 24.02. Transfer to Defraud is Void.
- 24.03. Debtor's Transfer not for Value is Void.
- 24.04. Fraudulent Gift of Tangible Personal Property is Void.
- 24.05. Pretended Loan of Tangible Personal Property is Ineffective.

Section 24.01. Definition of Transfer

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition, "transfer" includes conveyance, gift, assignment, and charge. (R.S. Art. 3996 (part), amd. by 40th Legis., Ch. 30, Sec. 1.)

§ 24.02. Transfer to Defraud Is Void

(a) A transfer of real or personal property, a suit, a decree, judgment, or execution, or a bond or other writing is void with respect to a creditor, purchaser, or other interested person if the transfer, suit, decree, judgment, execution, or bond or other writing was intended to

- (1) delay or hinder any creditor, purchaser, or other interested person from obtaining that to which he is, or may become, entitled; or
- (2) defraud any creditor, purchaser, or other interested person of that to which he is, or may become, entitled.

(b) The title of a purchaser for value is not void under Subsection (a) of this section unless he purchased with notice of

- (1) the intent of his transferor to delay, hinder, or defraud; or
- (2) the fraud that voided the title of his transferor. (R.S. Art. 3996 (part), amd. by 40th Legis., Ch. 30, Sec. 1.)

§ 24.03. Debtor's Transfer Not for Value Is Void

(a) A transfer by a debtor is void with respect to an existing creditor of the debtor if the transfer is not made for fair consideration, unless, in addition to the property transferred, the debtor has at the time of transfer enough property in this state subject to execution to pay all of his existing debts.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not void a transfer with respect to a subsequent creditor of or purchaser from the debtor. (R.S. Art. 3997.)

§ 24.04. Fraudulent Gift of Tangible Personal Property Is Void

A gift of tangible personal property is void unless

- (1) the gift is evidenced by
 - (A) a deed that has been duly acknowledged or proved and recorded; or
 - (B) a will that has been duly probated; or
- (2) actual possession of the subject matter of the gift is in the donee or someone claiming under him. (R.S. Art. 3998.)

§ 24.05. Pretended Loan of Tangible Personal Property Is Ineffective

(a) With respect to a creditor of or purchaser from the possessor of tangible personal property, a pretended loan of tangible personal property is fraudulent, and the absolute title to the tangible personal property is in the possessor, if

- (1) the possessor, or someone claiming under him, has possessed the tangible personal property for two years; and
- (2) the lender of the tangible personal property has not, during those two years, made and pursued by law a demand for the tangible personal property.

(b) With respect to a creditor of or purchaser from the possessor of tangible personal property, a pretended reservation or limitation on the use of tangible personal property is fraudulent, and the absolute title to the tangible personal property is in the possessor, if the possessor, or someone claiming under him, has possessed the tangible personal property for two years.

(c) Neither Subsection (a) nor (b) of this section applies to a loan, or reservation or limitation on the use, of tangible personal property if the loan, reservation, or limitation is evidenced by a

- (1) duly probated will; or
- (2) duly acknowledged or proved and recorded deed or other writing. (R.S. Art. 3999.)

CHAPTER 25. PROPERTY UNDER LIEN

Section

- 25.01. Concealing Mortgaged Property Prohibited.
- 25.02. Fraudulently Disposing of Mortgaged Property Prohibited.
- 25.03. Criminal Penalties.

Section 25.01. Concealing Mortgaged Property Prohibited

A person who has given a security interest (see Section 1.201 (37) of this code) in writing to secure the purchase price of personal property, while the purchase price remains due in whole or part, may not

- (1) conceal the property;
- (2) wilfully refuse, after demand from the secured party (see Section 9.105(a) (9) of this code), to reveal the location of the property; or
- (3) absent himself from the county or otherwise conceal himself so that notice cannot be given him. (P.C. Art. 1557 (part), amd. by 41st Legis., Ch. 102, Sec. 1.)

§ 25.02. Fraudulently Disposing of Mortgaged Property Prohibited

(a) A person who has given a security interest in writing on personal property or a growing crop of farm produce may not, with intent to defraud the secured party,

- (1) remove the property or crop from the county in which the property or crop was located when the security interest attached;
- (2) sell the property or crop; or
- (3) otherwise dispose of the property or crop. (P.C. Art. 1558, sen. 1 (part), amd. by 41st Legis., 2nd C.S., Ch. 48, Sec. 1.)

(b) It is prima facie evidence of the intent to defraud specified in Subsection (a) of this section if the person giving the security interest on personal property or a growing crop of farm produce

- (1) removed, sold, or otherwise disposed of the property or crop; and
- (2) failed, when the debt secured by the security interest was due, to
 - (A) pay in whole or part the debt; or
 - (B) deliver possession of the property or crop when demanded by the secured party. (P.C. Art. 1558, sen. 2, amd. by 41st Legis., 2nd C.S., Ch. 48, Sec. 1.)

§ 25.03. Criminal Penalties

(a) A person who violates Section 25.01 of this code is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 60 days or by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1557 (part), amd. by 41st Legis., Ch. 102, Sec. 1.)

(b) A person who violates Section 25.02 of this code is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. (P.C. Art. 1558, sen. 1 (part), amd. by 41st Legis., 2nd C.S., Ch. 48, Sec. 1.)

CHAPTER 26. STATUTE OF FRAUDS

Section

26.01. Promise or Agreement Must be in Writing.

Section 26.01. Promise or Agreement Must be In Writing

(a) A promise or agreement described in Subsection (b) of this section is not enforceable unless the promise or agreement, or a memorandum of it, is

- (1) in writing; and
 - (2) signed by the person to be charged with the promise or agreement or by someone lawfully authorized to sign for him.
- (b) Subsection (a) of this section applies to
- (1) a promise by an executor or administrator to answer out of his own estate for any debt or damage due from his testator or intestate;
 - (2) a promise by one person to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another person;
 - (3) an agreement made on consideration of marriage;
 - (4) a contract for the sale of real estate;
 - (5) a lease of real estate for a term longer than one year;
 - (6) an agreement which is not to be performed within one year from the date of making the agreement; and (R.S. Art. 3995.)
 - (7) a promise or agreement to pay a commission for the sale or purchase of
 - (A) an oil or gas mining lease;
 - (B) an oil or gas royalty;
 - (C) minerals; or
 - (D) a mineral interest. (46th Legis., p. 333, Ch. 1, Sec. 1.)

CHAPTER 27. FRAUD

Section

27.01. Fraud in Real Estate and Stock Transactions.

Section 27.01. Fraud In Real Estate and Stock Transactions

(a) Fraud in a transaction involving real estate or stock in a corporation or joint stock company consists of a

- (1) false representation of a past or existing material fact, when the false representation is
 - (A) made to a person for the purpose of inducing that person to enter into a contract; and
 - (B) relied on by that person in entering into that contract; or
- (2) false promise to do an act, when the false promise is
 - (A) material;
 - (B) made with the intention of not fulfilling it;
 - (C) made to a person for the purpose of inducing that person to enter into a contract; and
 - (D) relied on by that person in entering into that contract.

(b) A person who makes a false representation or false promise, and a person who benefits from that false representation or false promise, commit the fraud described in Subsection (a) of this section and are jointly and severally liable to the person defrauded for actual damages. The measure of actual damages is the difference between the value of the real estate or stock as represented or promised, and its actual value in the condition in which it is delivered at the time of the contract.

(c) A person who wilfully makes a false representation or false promise, and a person who knowingly benefits from a false representation or false promise, commit the fraud described in Subsection (a) of this section and are liable to the person defrauded for exemplary damages not to exceed twice the amount of the actual damages. (R.S. Art. 4004, sen. 1, 3, and 4.)

TITLE 4. MISCELLANEOUS COMMERCIAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER 33. FIDUCIARY SECURITY TRANSFERS

Section

- 33.01. Definitions.
- 33.02. Registration in the Name of a Fiduciary.
- 33.03. Assignment by a Fiduciary.
- 33.04. Requirement of Signature Guarantee.
- 33.05. Evidence of Appointment or Incumbency.
- 33.06. Adverse Claims.
- 33.07. Nonliability of Corporation and Transfer Agent.
- 33.08. Nonliability of Third Persons.
- 33.09. Territorial Application.
- 33.10. Tax Obligations.

Section 33.01. Definitions

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) "assignment" includes any written stock power, bond power, bill of sale, deed, declaration of trust, or other instrument of transfer;
- (2) "claim of beneficial interest" includes a claim of any interest by a decedent's legatee, distributee, heir or creditor, a beneficiary under a trust, a ward, a beneficial owner of a security registered in the name of a nominee, or a minor owner of a security registered in the name of a custodian, or a claim of any similar interest, whether the claim is asserted by the claimant, a fiduciary, or any other authorized person on his behalf, and includes a claim that the transfer would be in breach of fiduciary duties;
- (3) "corporation" means a private or public corporation, association, or trust issuing a security;
- (4) "fiduciary" means an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, committee, conservator, curator, tutor, custodian, or nominee;
- (5) "person" includes an individual, a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity;
- (6) "security" includes any share of stock, bond, debenture, note, or other security issued by a corporation which is registered as to ownership on the books of the corporation;

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (7) "transfer" means a change on the books of a corporation in the registered ownership of a security; and
- (8) "transfer agent" means a person employed or authorized by a corporation to transfer securities issued by the corporation. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 1.)

§ 33.02. Registration In the Name of a Fiduciary

A corporation or transfer agent registering a security in the name of a person who is a fiduciary or who is described as a fiduciary is not bound to inquire into the existence, extent, or correct description of the fiduciary relationship; and thereafter the corporation and its transfer agent may assume without inquiry that the newly registered owner continues to be the fiduciary until the corporation or transfer agent receives written notice that the fiduciary is no longer acting as such with respect to the particular security. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 2.)

§ 33.03. Assignment by a Fiduciary

Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a corporation or transfer agent making a transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary

- (1) may assume without inquiry that the assignment, even though to the fiduciary himself or to his nominee, is within his authority and capacity and is not in breach of his fiduciary duties;
- (2) may assume without inquiry that the fiduciary has complied with any controlling instrument and with the law of the jurisdiction governing the fiduciary relationship, including any law requiring the fiduciary to obtain court approval of the transfer; and
- (3) is not charged with notice of and is not bound to obtain or examine any court record or any recorded or unrecorded document relating to the fiduciary relationship or the assignment. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 3.)

§ 33.04. Requirement of Signature Guarantee

For the transfer of a security to come within the terms of this chapter, the signature on the assignment of the security must be guaranteed by an officer of a bank which is a member of the Federal Reserve System or an officer of a state bank as defined in Texas Banking Code, Article 2, Chapter 1. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 3a, amd. by 58th Legis., Ch. 37, Sec. 1.)

§ 33.05 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 33.05. Evidence of Appointment or Incumbency

(a) A corporation or transfer agent making a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary who is not the registered owner shall obtain the following evidence of appointment or incumbency:

- (1) in case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by that court or an officer thereof and dated within 60 days before the transfer; or
- (2) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or on behalf of a person reasonably believed by the corporation or transfer agent to be responsible or, in the absence of such a document or certificate, other evidence reasonably deemed by the corporation or transfer agent to be appropriate.

(b) Corporations and transfer agents may adopt standards with respect to evidence of appointment or incumbency under Subsection (a) (2) of this section if the standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(c) Neither the corporation nor transfer agent is charged with notice of the contents of any document obtained pursuant to Subsection (a) (2) of this section except to the extent that the contents relate directly to the appointment or incumbency. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 4.)

§ 33.06. Adverse Claims

(a) A person asserting a claim of beneficial interest adverse to the transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary may give the corporation or transfer agent written notice of the claim. The corporation or transfer agent is not put on notice unless the written notice identifies the claimant, the registered owner, and the issue of which the security is a part, provides an address for communications directed to the claimant, and is received before the transfer. Nothing in this chapter relieves the corporation or transfer agent of any liability for making or refusing to make the transfer after it is so put on notice, unless it proceeds in the manner authorized in Subsection (b) of this section.

(b) As soon as practicable after the presentation of a security for transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a corporation or transfer agent which has received notice of a claim of beneficial interest adverse to the transfer may send notice of the presentation by registered or certified mail to the claimant at the address given by him. If the corporation or transfer agent so mails this notice, it shall withhold the transfer for 30 days after the mailing and shall then make the transfer unless restrained by court order. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 5.)

§ 33.07. Nonliability of Corporation and Transfer Agent

A corporation or transfer agent incurs no liability to any person by making a transfer or otherwise acting in a manner authorized by this chapter. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 6.)

§ 33.08. Nonliability of Third Persons

(a) No person who participates in the acquisition, disposition, assignment, or transfer of a security by or to a fiduciary (including a person who guarantees the signature of the fiduciary) is liable for participation in a breach of fiduciary duty by reason of failure to inquire whether the transaction involves such a breach unless it is shown that

- (1) he acted with actual knowledge that the proceeds of the transaction were being or were to be used wrongfully for the individual benefit of the fiduciary; or
- (2) the transaction was otherwise in breach of duty.

(b) If a corporation or transfer agent makes a transfer pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary, a person who guaranteed the signature of the fiduciary is not liable on the guarantee to any person to whom the corporation or transfer agent by reason of this chapter incurs no liability.

(c) This section does not impose any liability on the corporation or its transfer agent. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 7.)

§ 33.09. Territorial Application

(a) The rights and duties of a corporation and its transfer agents in registering a security in the name of a fiduciary or in making a transfer of a security pursuant to an assignment by a fiduciary are governed by the law of the jurisdiction under whose laws the corporation is organized.

- (b) This chapter applies to the rights and duties of a person
- (1) other than the corporation and its transfer agents with regard to acts and omissions in this state in connection with the acquisition, disposition, assignment, or transfer of a security by or to a fiduciary; and
 - (2) who guarantees in this state the signature of a fiduciary in connection with such a transaction. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 8.)

§ 33.10. Tax Obligations

This chapter does not affect any obligation of a corporation or transfer agent with respect to estate, inheritance, succession, or other taxes imposed by the laws of this state. (56th Legis., Ch. 358, Sec. 9.)

CHAPTER 34. PRINCIPAL AND SURETY

Section

- 34.01. Definition of Surety.
- 34.02. Surety May Require Suit on Accrued Right of Action.
- 34.03. Levy First on Principal's Property.
- 34.04. Subrogation Rights of Surety.
- 34.05. Officer Compelled to Pay on Judgment Treated as Surety.

Section 34.01. Definition of Surety

In this chapter, unless the context requires a different definition, "surety" includes endorser, guarantor, drawer of a draft which has been accepted, and every other form of suretyship, whether created by express contract or by operation of law. (R.S. Art. 6252.)

§ 34.02. Surety May Require Suit on Accrued Right of Action

(a) When a right of action has accrued on a contract for the payment of money or performance of an act, a surety on the contract may require by written notice that the obligee forthwith sue on the contract. (R.S. Art. 6244.)

(b) A surety who gives notice to an obligee under Subsection (a) of this section is discharged from all liability on the contract if the obligee

- (1) is not under legal disability; and either
- (2) fails to sue on the contract during the first term of court after receiving the notice, or during the second term showing good cause for the delay; or
- (3) fails to prosecute the suit to judgment and execution. (R.S. Art. 6245.)

§ 34.03. Levy First on Principal's Property

(a) If a judgment granted against two or more defendants finds a suretyship relation between or among them, the court shall order the sheriff to levy the execution

- (1) first, against the principal's property which is located in the county where the judgment was granted;
- (2) second, if the sheriff cannot find enough of the principal's property in the county to satisfy the execution, against so much of the principal's property as he finds; and
- (3) third, against so much of the surety's property as is necessary to make up the balance of the amount shown in the writ of execution.

(b) The clerk shall note the order to the sheriff on the writ of execution. (R.S. Art. 6247.)

§ 34.04. Subrogation Rights of Surety

(a) A judgment is not discharged by a surety's payment of it in whole or part if the payment is compelled or, if voluntarily made, is applied to the judgment because of the suretyship relation. (R.S. Art. 6248 (part).)

(b) A surety who pays on a judgment as described in Subsection (a) of this section is subrogated to all of the judgment creditor's rights under the judgment. A subrogated surety is entitled

- (1) to execution on the judgment against the principal's property for the amount of his payment, plus interest and costs; and (R.S. Art. 6248 (part).)
- (2) if there is more than one surety, to execution on the judgment against both the principal's property and the property of his cosurety or cosureties for the amount his payment exceeded his proportionate share of the judgment, plus interest and costs. (R.S. Art. 6249.)

(c) A subrogated surety seeking execution under Subsection (b) of this section shall apply for it to the clerk or court, and execution shall be levied, collected, and returned as in other cases. (R.S. Art. 6248 (part).)

§ 34.05. Officer Compelled to Pay on Judgment Treated As Surety

(a) An officer has the rights of a surety provided in Section 34.04 of this code if compelled to pay a judgment in whole or part because of his default.

(b) An officer who fails to pay over money collected, or who wastes property levied on by him or in his possession, does not have the rights of a surety provided in Section 34.04 of this code. (R.S. Art. 6250.)

SUBCHAPTER D. MISCELLANEOUS

- 35.39. Damages on Protested, Out-Of-State Draft.
- 35.40. Identification of Patent Right Note or Lien.

SUBCHAPTER A. RECORDATION OF UTILITY SECURITY INSTRUMENTS

Section 35.01. Definitions

(a) In Sections 35.02–35.08 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) “security instrument” means a mortgage, deed of trust, security agreement, or other instrument executed to secure the payment of a bond, note, or other obligation of a utility; and
- (2) “utility” means a person engaged in this state in the
 - (A) generation, transmission, or distribution and sale of electric power;
 - (B) transportation, distribution and sale through a local distribution system of natural or other gas for domestic, commercial, industrial, or other use;
 - (C) ownership or operation of a pipeline for the transportation or sale of natural gas, crude oil, or petroleum products to other pipeline companies, refineries, local distributing systems, municipalities, or industrial consumers;
 - (D) provision of telephone or telegraph service to others;
 - (E) production, transmission, or distribution and sale of steam or water; or
 - (F) operation of a railroad. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 1, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

(b) The definitions in Section 1.201 of this code also apply to Sections 35.01–35.08 of this code. (No source citation.)

§ 35.02. Notice of Lien on Existing Property

Payment of the statutory recording fees and deposit for record in the office of the county clerk of a security instrument executed by a utility constitutes notice to third parties of the lien granted by the security instrument on property

- (1) owned by the utility when the security instrument was executed;
- (2) located in the county; and
- (3) described in the security instrument. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 2, sen. 1, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.03 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 35.03. Notice of Lien on Property Acquired After Execution of Security Instrument

Deposit for record in the office of the county clerk of a security instrument executed by a utility which grants a lien on property to be acquired by the utility after execution of the security instrument constitutes notice of the lien granted by the security instrument on property located in the county and acquired by the utility after execution of the security instrument if it

- (1) states conspicuously on its title page: "This Instrument Contains After-acquired Property Provisions"; and
- (2) contains an affidavit of the president, vice president, treasurer, or secretary of the utility that executed it that it was executed by a utility. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 3, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.04. Duration of Notice

A security instrument deposited for record under Section 35.02 or 35.03 of this code is effective as notice of the lien it grants for 10 years from the date of deposit for record if the security instrument grants a lien on

- (1) goods which are fixtures or are to become fixtures; or
- (2) personal property (see Section 9.102(a) of this code). (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 5, sen. 1, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.05. Renewal of Notice by Continuation Statement

(a) Within six months prior to the date of expiration of effective notice, a utility or holder of a security instrument granted by a utility may continue the notice by depositing for record in the office of the county clerk a continuation statement

- (1) signed by the utility or holder of the security instrument granted by the utility;
- (2) identifying by file number or recording data the security instrument and any supplement to it; and
- (3) stating that the security instrument, as supplemented, is still effective.

(b) Deposit for record of a continuation statement with the county clerk in accordance with Subsection (a) of this section continues the effectiveness of the security instrument as notice of the lien on property located in the county for an additional 10 years after the date on which the initial recordation or last continuation expired.

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

§ 35.08

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

(52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 5, sen. 2, 3, 4, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

(c) The effectiveness of a security instrument as notice of a lien may be continued for additional 10-year periods by complying with Subsection (a) of this section. (No source citation.)

§ 35.06. Notice of Name Change

(a) A utility which changes its name or merges or consolidates with another person after the deposit for record of a security instrument executed by it shall promptly deposit for record in the office of the county clerk in each county where it owns property evidence of the name change, merger, or consolidation. The utility shall include in the evidence the name of the utility after the name change, merger, or consolidation.

(b) Until the evidence is prepared and deposited as required by Subsection (a) of this section, a security instrument deposited for record before the name change, merger, or consolidation does not constitute notice as to property acquired by the successor to the utility which executed the security instrument. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 4, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.07. Separate Index of Security Instruments and Continuation Statements

The county clerk shall maintain a separate index of security instruments and continuation statements recorded under Sections 35.02, 35.03, and 35.05 of this code. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 2, sen. 2, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.08. Prior Perfected Liens; Cumulative Effect of Subchapter

(a) A lien perfected prior to July 1, 1967, by complying with Chapter 195, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, 1951, remains perfected until July 1, 1977, without depositing for record the continuation statement described in Section 35.05 of this code if the lien is on

- (1) goods which are fixtures or are to become fixtures; or
- (2) personal property.

(b) Sections 35.01—35.08 of this code are cumulative of other laws concerning executing, filing, and recording security instruments. (52nd Legis., Ch. 195, Sec. 5, sen. 5, 6, and Sec. 6, amd. by 59th Legis., Ch. 721, Sec. 10—104(4).)

§ 35.14 BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

SUBCHAPTER B. DUTIES OF RAILROAD COMMISSION AND CRIMINAL OFFENSES INVOLVING BILLS OF LADING

§ 35.14. Definitions

In Sections 35.15–35.21 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) “agent” includes officer, employee, and receiver;
- (2) “airbill” means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill;
- (3) “bill of lading” means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill;
- (4) “common carrier” in Sections 35.15–35.17 of this code does not include a pipeline company or express company; and
- (5) “goods” means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation. (No source citation.)

§ 35.15. Duties of Railroad Commission

(a) The railroad commission shall

- (1) prescribe forms, terms, and conditions for authenticating, certifying, or validating bills of lading issued by a common carrier;
- (2) regulate the manner of issuing bills of lading by a common carrier; and
- (3) take other action necessary to carry out the purposes of Chapter 7 of this code.

(b) After giving reasonable notice to interested common carriers and to the public, the railroad commission may amend a rule promulgated under Subsection (a) of this section. (R.S. Art. 899.)

§ 35.16. Agent Wrongfully Failing to Issue Bill of Lading

(a) An agent of a common carrier may not after lawful demand fail or refuse to issue a bill of lading in accordance with Chapter 7 of this code or a rule of the railroad commission.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by a fine of not more than $200 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1678.)

§ 35.17. Agent Issuing Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) An agent of a common carrier may not with intent to defraud a person

- (1) issue a bill of lading;
- (2) misdescribe in a bill of lading goods or their quantity described in the bill of lading; or
- (3) issue a bill of lading without authority.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 2 nor more than 10 years. (P.C. Art. 1679.)

§ 35.18. Agent Issuing Duplicate Order Bill of Lading

(a) Except where customary in overseas transportation, an agent of a common carrier may not knowingly issue or aid in issuing an order bill of lading in duplicate or in a set of parts.

(b) An agent who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years and by a fine of not more than $5,000. (P.C. Art. 1681.)

§ 35.19. Forging Name on Bill of Lading

(a) A person may not with intent to defraud

- (1) forge the name of a common carrier's agent on a bill of lading;
- (2) forge the name of a person to a certificate attached to a bill of lading issued by a common carrier; or
- (3) utter or attempt to utter a forged bill or certificate.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than 5 nor more than 15 years. (P.C. Art. 1680.)

§ 35.20. Inducing Issuance of Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) A person may not with intent to defraud induce an agent of a common carrier to

- (1) issue to him a bill of lading; or
- (2) materially misrepresent in a bill of lading issued on behalf of the common carrier the quantity of goods described in the bill of lading.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two nor more than five years. (P.C. Art. 1683.)

§ 35.21. Negotiating Fraudulent Bill of Lading

(a) A person may not with intent to defraud negotiate or transfer a bill of lading

- (1) issued in violation of Chapter 7 of this code; or
- (2) containing a false, material statement of fact.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than 10 years. (P.C. Art. 1682.)

[Sections 35.22–35.26 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER C. CRIMINAL OFFENSES INVOLVING WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

§ 35.27. Definitions

In Sections 35.28–35.33 of this code, unless the context requires a different definition,

- (1) “goods” means all things which are treated as movable for the purposes of a contract of storage or transportation;
- (2) “issue” includes aiding in the issue of;
- (3) “warehouseman” means a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire; and
- (4) “warehouse receipt” means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire. (No source citation.)

§ 35.28. Warehouseman Issuing Fraudulent Warehouse Receipt

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not with intent to defraud issue a warehouse receipt which contains a false statement of fact.

(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1019.)

§ 35.29. Warehouseman Failing to State His Ownership of Goods on Receipt

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not knowingly issue a negotiable warehouse receipt describing goods the warehouseman owns and is storing (whether the warehouseman owns them solely, jointly, or in common) unless he states the warehouseman's ownership on the receipt.

(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000. (P.C. Art. 1022.)

§ 35.30. Warehouseman Issuing Warehouse Receipt Without Goods

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not issue a warehouse receipt if he knows at the time of issuance that the goods described in the warehouse receipt are not under his actual control.

(b) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1018.)

§ 35.31. Warehouseman Issuing Duplicate Warehouse Receipt

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not issue a duplicate or additional negotiable warehouse receipt for goods if he knows at the time of issuance that a previously issued negotiable warehouse receipt describing those goods is outstanding and uncanceled.

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if

(1) the word "Duplicate" is plainly placed on the duplicate or additional negotiable warehouse receipt; or (P.C. Art. 1020 (part).)

(2) goods described in the outstanding and uncanceled negotiable warehouse receipt were delivered pursuant to court order on proof that the receipt was lost or destroyed. (P.C. Art. 1021.)

(c) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than five years or by a fine of not more than $5,000 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1020 (part).)

§ 35.32. Warehouseman Wrongfully Delivering Goods

(a) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, may not knowingly deliver goods described in a negotiable warehouse receipt and stored with him unless the receipt is surrendered to him at or before the time he delivers the goods. (P.C. Art. 1023 (part).)

(b) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if the goods are

- (1) delivered pursuant to court order on proof that the negotiable warehouse receipt describing them was lost or destroyed;
- (2) lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien; or
- (3) disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature. (P.C. Art. 1024.)

(c) A warehouseman, his officer, agent, or employee, who violates Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1023 (part).)

§ 35.33. Failing to Disclose Ownership of Goods

(a) A person who obtains a negotiable warehouse receipt describing goods he does not own, or goods subject to a lien, may not with intent to defraud negotiate the receipt for value without disclosing his lack of ownership or the lien's existence.

(b) A person who violates a provision of Subsection (a) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than $1,000 or by both. (P.C. Art. 1025.)

[Sections 35.34–35.38 reserved for expansion]

SUBCHAPTER D. MISCELLANEOUS

§ 35.39. Damages on Protested, Out-of-State Draft

The holder of a protested draft is entitled to damages equalling 10 percent of the amount of the draft, plus interest and costs of suit, if the

- (1) draft was drawn by a merchant in this state on his agent or factor outside this state; and
- (2) drawer's or indorser's liability on the draft has been fixed. (R.S. Art. 577.)

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE § 35.40
For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

§ 35.40. Identification of Patent Right Note or Lien

(a) A note or lien evidencing or securing the purchase price for a patent right or patent right territory must contain on its face a statement that it was given for a patent right or patent right territory.

(b) The statement required by Subsection (a) of this section

(1) is notice to a subsequent purchaser of the note or lien of all equities between the original parties to the note or lien; and

(2) subjects a subsequent holder of the note or lien to all defenses available against the original parties to the note or lien. (R. S. Art. 578.)

(c) A person selling a patent right or patent right territory may not take a note or lien evidencing or securing the purchase price for it without placing on the face of the note or lien the statement required by Subsection (a) of this section.

(d) A person who violates Subsection (c) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $200. (P.C. Art. 1130.)

Sec. 2. PURPOSE OF CODE. (a) The Business & Commerce Code is a formal, as distinguished from substantive, revision and codification of the statutes of a commercial nature which the code disposes of. The code reorganizes these statutes into a more logical arrangement with a uniform format designed to make the statutes more accessible and to facilitate simple citation and future expansion. Repealed, duplicative, unconstitutional, expired, and other ineffective provisions are eliminated and the statutes are restated in modern American English to the greatest extent possible.

(b) The code is not intended to change the legislative purpose expressed by any statute it disposes of and carefully preserves in each restatement of a statute the statute's meaning.

Sec. 3. EFFECTIVE DATE. This Act takes effect on September 1, 1967.

Sec. 4. REPEALER. (a) The following articles of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, are repealed: 261 through 274; 577 and 578; 843, as amended by Section 18, Chapter 24, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 1962; 899; 3995; 3996, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 30, Acts of the 40th Legislature, Regular Session, 1927; 3997 through 3999; 4004; 6244 and 6245; 6247 through 6250; 6252; 7426 and 7427; 7428, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 310, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947; 7428-1 through 7436; and 7436a through 7447.

(b) The following articles of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, are repealed: 150 and 151; 1018 through 1025; 1058, as amended by Section 17, Chapter 24, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 1962; 1059 and 1060; 1063, 1064, and 1065, as amended by Sections 1, 2, and 3, respectively, Chapter 218, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937; 1113 through 1115; 1130; 1554; 1557, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 102, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929; 1558, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 48, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1929; 1632 and 1633; 1634, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 309, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947; 1635 through 1643; 1644, as amended by Section 2, Chapter 309, Acts of the 50th Legislature, 1947; and 1674 through 1683.

(c) The following Acts are repealed: Chapter 44, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1931 (Article 7439a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 226, General Laws, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1933 (Article 1066a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); Chapter 53, General Laws, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933 (Article 7438a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 44, General Laws, Acts of the 44th Legislature, Regular Session, 1935 (Article 7428a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 1, page 333, General Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, Regular Session, 1939 (Article 3995a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 314, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941 (Articles 1137L through 1137L-7, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); Chapter 195, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, 1951, as amended by Section 10-104(4), Chapter 721, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 1438a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 494, Acts of the 52nd Legislature, 1951 (Article 7428-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 350, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955 (Article 157a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); Section 2, Chapter 107, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955, as amended by Chapter 453, Acts of the 54th Legislature, 1955 (Article 527a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); Chapter 479, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 7436a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 234, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959 (Article 1554a, Vernon's Texas Penal Code); Chapter 358, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 37, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963 (Article 582-1 Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); Chapter 24, Acts of the 57th Legislature, 3rd Called Session, 1962 (Article 851-C, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and Chapter 721, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Uniform Commercial Code).

Sec. 5. SAVING PROVISIONS. (a) The repeal of a statute by this Act does not affect

- (1) the prior operation of the statute or any prior action taken under it;
- (2) any validation, cure, right, privilege, obligation, or liability previously acquired, accrued, accorded, or incurred under it;

BUSINESS AND COMMERCE CODE

For Annotations and Historical Notes, see V.A.T.S.

- (3) any violation of the statute, or any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred in respect to it, prior to the amendment or repeal; or
- (4) any investigation, proceeding, or remedy in respect to any privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture, or punishment; and the investigation, proceeding, or remedy may be instituted, continued, or enforced, and the penalty, forfeiture, or punishment imposed, as if the statute had not been repealed or amended.

(b) The repeal of a statute by this Act does not affect an amendment, revision, or reenactment of the statute by the 60th Legislature. The amendment, revision, or reenactment is preserved and given effect as part of the code provision which revised the statute so amended, revised, or reenacted.

(c) If any provision of the Business & Commerce Code conflicts with an Act enacted by the 60th Legislature, the Act controls.

Sec. 6. EMERGENCY. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendars in both houses create an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each house be suspended, and this Rule is hereby suspended.

Passed by the House on May 1, 1967, by a non-record vote; and the House concurred in Senate amendments on May 25, 1967, by a non-record vote; passed by the Senate, as amended, on May 24, 1967, by a viva-voce vote.

Approved June 14, 1967.

Effective September 1, 1967.
