PREFACE

These volumes of West's Texas Statutes and Codes include, in compact and convenient form, the text of all the general and permanent laws of the State of Texas enacted through the Regular Session and First Called Session of the 63rd Legislature, and the Texas Constitution, as amended through November 6, 1973.

The laws in West's Texas Statutes and Codes are under the same classification as Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes and Vernon's Texas Codes Annotated. Therefore, the user of this edition may go from any article or section herein to the same article or section in the annotated editions, where the complete constructions of the laws by the state and federal courts, historical data relative to the origin and development of the law, and other helpful research aids, are conveniently available.

Scope of Volumes

Volume 1 contains the Constitution of the State of Texas; the Business and Commerce Code; the Education Code; the Family Code; the Penal Code; Penal Auxiliary Laws (Liquor Control Act; Game, Fish and Oysters); the Code of Criminal Procedure; and the Water Code. The Business and Commerce, Education, Family, Penal and Water Codes are units of the Texas Legislative Council's on-going statutory revision program, authorized by Civil Statutes, Art. 5429b-1.

Volume 2 contains the Business Corporation Act; Title 32, Corporations, of the Civil Statutes; the Election Code; the Insurance Code; Title 78, Insurance, of the Civil Statutes; the Probate Code; and Title 122, Taxation, and Title 122A, Taxation-General, of the Civil Statutes.

Volumes 3 to 5 contain the balance of the text of the Civil Statutes.

Tables

Disposition Tables are provided following each Code and throughout the Civil Statutes, providing a means of tracing repealed subject matter to parallel provisions.

Special laws pertaining to education and water, which were neither repealed by, nor incorporated into, the Education and Water Codes, are tabulated following the respective Codes.

Additionally, Disposition Table 2 of the Penal Code shows the new official citations or classifications of unrepealed articles of the Texas Penal Code of 1925.

Indexes

A separate detailed descriptive word Index follows the Constitution, each Code and the Penal Auxiliary Laws to facilitate the search for specific provisions found therein. Laws in the Civil Statutes may be located by means of the Topical Index at the end of Volume 5.

PART ONE

Art. 1.01. Short Title, Captions, Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs

A. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Business Corporation Act."

B. The Division of this Act into Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

C. This Act has been organized and subdivided in the following manner:

(1) The Act is divided into Parts, containing groups of related Articles. Parts are numbered consecutively with cardinal numbers.

(2) The Act is also divided into Articles, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.

(3) Articles are divided into Sections. The Sections within each Article are numbered consecutively with capital letters.

(4) Sections are divided into subsections. The subsections within each Section are numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses.

(5) Subsections are divided into paragraphs. The paragraphs within each subsection are numbered consecutively with lower case letters enclosed in parentheses.

Art. 1.02. Definitions

A. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation for profit subject to the provisions of this Act, except a foreign corporation.

(2) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation for profit organized under laws other than the laws of this State.

(3) "Articles of incorporation" means the original or restated Articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

(4) "Shares" means the units into which the proprietary interests in a corporation are divided.

(5) "Subscription" means a memorandum in writing, executed before or after incorporation, wherein an offer is made to purchase and pay for a specified number of theretofore unissued shares of a corporation.

(6) "Subscriber" means the offeror in a subscription.

(7) "Cancel" means to restore issued shares to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

(8) "Authorized shares" means the shares of all classes which the corporation is authorized to issue.

(9) "Treasury shares" means shares of a corporation which have been issued, have been subsequently acquired by and belong to the corporation, and have not been cancelled or restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares. Treasury shares shall be deemed to be "issued" shares but not "outstanding" shares.

(10) "Net assets" means the amount by which the total assets of a corporation exceed the total debts of the corporation.

(11) "Stated capital" means, at any particular time, the sum of:

(a) the par value of all shares of the corporation having a par value that have been issued,

(b) the consideration fixed by the corporation in the manner provided by law for all shares of the corporation without par value that have been issued, except such part of the consideration actually received therefor as may have been allocated to capital surplus in a manner permitted by law, and

(c) such amounts not included in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection as have been transferred to stated capital of the corporation, whether upon the issue of shares as a share dividend or otherwise, minus all reductions from such sum as have been effected in a manner permitted by law.

(12) "Surplus" means the excess of the net assets of a corporation over its stated capital.

(13) "Earned surplus" means the portion of the surplus of a corporation equal to the balance of its net profits, income, gains and losses from the date of incorporation, or from the latest date when a deficit was eliminated by an application of its capital surplus or stated capital or otherwise, after deducting subsequent distributions to shareholders and transfers to stated capital and capital surplus to the extent such distributions and transfers are made out of earned surplus. Earned surplus shall include also any portion of surplus allocated to earned surplus in mergers, consolidations or acquisitions of all or substantially all of the outstanding shares or of the property and assets of another corporation, domestic or foreign.

(14) "Reduction surplus" means the surplus, if any, created by or arising out of a reduction of stated capital by any of the methods authorized by this Act.

(15) "Capital surplus" means the entire surplus of a corporation other than its earned surplus and its reduction surplus.

(16) "Insolvency" means inability of a corporation to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its business.

(17) "Consuming assets corporation" means a corporation which is engaged in the business of exploiting assets subject to depletion or amortization and which elects to state in its Articles of incorporation that it is a consuming assets corporation and includes as a part of its official corporate name the phrase "a consuming assets corporation," giving such phrase equal prominence with the rest of the corporate name on its financial statements and certificates representing shares. All its certificates representing shares shall also contain a further sentence: "This corporation is permitted by law to pay dividends out of reserves which may impair its stated capital."

(18) "Verified" means subscribed and sworn to under the sanction of an oath, or such affirmation as is by law equivalent to an oath, made before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

PART TWO

Art. 2.01. Purposes

A. Except as hereinafter in this Article excluded herefrom, corporations for profit may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose or purposes. Corporations for the purpose of operating non-profit institutions, including but not limited to those devoted to charitable, benevolent, religious, patriotic, civic, cultural, missionary, educational, scientific, social, fraternal, athletic, or aesthetic purposes, may not adopt or be organized under this Act.

B. No corporation may adopt this Act or be organized under this Act or obtain authority to transact business in this State under this Act:

(1) If any one or more of its purposes for the transaction of business in this State is expressly prohibited by any law of this State.

(2) If any one or more of its purposes for the transaction of business in this State is to engage in any activity which cannot lawfully be engaged in without first obtaining a license under the authority of the laws of this State to engage in such activity and such a license cannot lawfully be granted to a corporation.

(3) If among its purposes for the transaction of business in this State, there is included, however worded, a combination of the two businesses listed in either of the following:

(a) The business of raising cattle and owning land therefor, and the business of operating stockyards and of slaughtering, refrigerating, canning, curing or packing meat. Owning and operating feed lots and feeding cattle shall not be considered as engaging in "the business of raising cattle and owning land therefor" within the purview of this paragraph of this subsection.

(b) The business of engaging in the petroleum oil producing business in this State and the business of engaging directly in the oil pipe line business in this State: provided, however, that a corporation engaged in the oil producing business in this State which owns or operates private pipe lines in and about its refineries, fields or stations or which owns stock of corporations engaged in the oil pipe line business shall not be deemed to be engaging directly in the oil pipe line business in this State; and provided that any corporation engaged as a common carrier in the pipe line business for transporting oil, oil products, gas, salt brine, fuller's earth, sand, clay, liquefied minerals or other mineral solutions, shall have all of the rights and powers conferred by Articles 6020 and 6022, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925.<sup>1</sup>

(4) If any one or more of its purposes is to operate any of the following:

(a) Banks, (b) trust companies, (c) building and loan associations or companies, (d) insurance companies of every type and character that operate under the insurance laws of this State, and corporate attorneys in fact for reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges, (e) railroad companies, (f) cemetery companies, (g) cooperatives or limited cooperative associations, (h) labor unions, (i) abstract and title insurance companies whose purposes are provided for and whose powers are prescribed by Chapter 9 of the Insurance Code of this State.

Art. 2.02. General Powers

A. Subject to the provisions of Sections B and C of this Article, each corporation shall have power:

(1) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.

(2) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

(3) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed on, affixed to, or in any manner reproduced upon, instruments of any nature required to be executed by its proper officers.

(4) To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated, as the purposes of the corporation shall require.

(5) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(6) To lend money to, and otherwise assist, its employees, but not to its officers and directors.

(7) To purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, mortgage, lend, pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, government district, or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.

(8) When permitted by the other provisions of this Act, to purchase or otherwise acquire its own bonds, debentures, or other evidences of its indebtedness or obligations, and, to purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares, and to redeem or purchase shares made redeemable by the provisions of its articles of incorporation.

(9) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(10) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(11) To conduct its business, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this Act, within or without this State.

(12) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation for such period of time as the corporation may determine, and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(13) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this State, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(14) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes.

(15) To transact any lawful business which the board of directors shall find will be in aid of government policy.

(16) To indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation in which it owns shares of capital stock or of which it is a creditor, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit, or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in performance of duty, but such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of shareholders, or otherwise.

A corporation shall have power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

(17) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, and other incentive plans for all of, or class, or classes of its officers and employees, or its officers or its employees.

(18) To be an organizer, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, or other enterprise, and to the extent permitted in any other jurisdiction to be an incorporator of any other corporation of any type or kind.

(19) To cease its corporate activities and terminate its existence by voluntary dissolution.

(20) Whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

B. Nothing in this Article grants any authority to officers or directors of a corporation for the exercise of any of the foregoing powers, inconsistent with limitations on any of the same which may be expressly set forth in this Act or in the articles of incorporation or in any other laws of this State. Authority of officers and directors to act beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of a corporation is not granted by any provision of this Article.

C. Nothing contained in this Article shall be deemed to authorize any action in violation of the Anti-Trust Laws of this State or of any of the provisions of Part Four of the Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Art. 2.03. Right of Corporation to Acquire and Dispose of Its Own Shares

A. A corporation shall not purchase directly or indirectly any of its own shares unless such purchase is authorized by this Article and not prohibited by its articles of incorporation.

B. A corporation may purchase its own shares to the extent of the aggregate of any unrestricted surplus available therefor and its stated capital when the purchase is authorized by the directors, acting in good faith to accomplish any of the following purposes:

(1) To eliminate fractional shares.

(2) To collect or compromise indebtedness owed by or to the corporation.

(3) To pay dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of this Act.

(4) To effect the purchase or redemption of its redeemable shares in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

C. Upon resolution of its board of directors authorizing the purchase and upon compliance with any other requirements of its articles of incorporation, a corporation may purchase its own shares to the extent of unrestricted earned surplus available therefor if accrued cumulative preferential dividends and other current preferential dividends have been fully paid at the time of purchase.

D. If the articles of incorporation so permit, or upon resolution of its board of directors and vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of all shares, entitled to vote thereon, a corporation may purchase, directly or indirectly, its own shares to the extent of the aggregate of unrestricted capital surplus available therefor and unrestricted reduction surplus available therefor.

E. To the extent that earned surplus, capital surplus or reduction surplus is used as the measure of the corporation's right to purchase its own shares, such surplus shall be restricted so long as such shares are held as treasury shares, and upon the disposition or cancellation of any such shares the restriction shall be removed pro tanto as to all of such restricted surplus not eliminated thereby.

F. In no case shall a corporation purchase or make payment, directly or indirectly, for its own shares when there is reasonable ground for believing that the corporation is insolvent, or will be rendered insolvent by such purchase or payment, or when, after such purchase, or payment, the fair value of its total assets will be less than the total amount of its debts.

G. An open-end investment company, registered as such under the Federal Investment Company Act of 1940, as heretofore or hereafter amended, if its articles of incorporation shall so provide, may purchase, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, transfer, or otherwise dispose of its own shares, out of stated capital or any unrestricted surplus.

Art. 2.04. Defense of Ultra Vires

A. Lack of capacity of a corporation shall never be made the basis of any claim or defense at law or in equity.

B. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that such act, conveyance or transfer was beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation or by reason of limitations on authority of its officers and directors to exercise any statutory power of the corporation, as such limitations are expressed in the articles of incorporation, but that such act, conveyance or transfer was, or is, beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation or inconsistent with any such expressed limitations of authority, may be asserted:

(1) In a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized act or transfer sought to be enjoined is being, or is to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceeding and if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as a part of loss or damage sustained.

(2) In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, or through shareholders in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation for exceeding their authority.

(3) In a proceeding by the Attorney General, as provided in this Act, to dissolve the corporation, or in a proceeding by the Attorney General to enjoin the corporation from transacting unauthorized business, or to enforce divestment of real property acquired or held contrary to the laws of this State.

Art. 2.05. Corporate Name; Use of Assumed Names

A. The Corporate name shall conform to the following requirements:

(1) It shall contain the word "corporation," "company," or "incorporated," or shall contain an abbreviation of one of such words, and shall contain such additional words as may be required by law.

(2) It shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(3) It shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this State, or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided in this Act, or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in this Act; provided that a name may be similar if written consent is obtained from the existing corporation having the name deemed to be similar or the person, or corporation, for whom the name deemed to be similar is reserved in the office of the Secretary of State.

B. Any domestic or foreign corporation having authority to transact business in this State, may do so under an assumed name, by filing an assumed name certificate in the manner prescribed by law. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 2.06. Reserved Name

A. The exclusive right to the use of a corporate name may be reserved by:

(1) Any person intending to organize a corporation under this Act.

(2) Any domestic corporation intending to change its name.

(3) Any foreign corporation intending to make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this State.

(4) Any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State and intending to change its name.

(5) Any person intending to organize a foreign corporation and intending to have such corporation make application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this State.

B. The reservation shall be made by filing with the Secretary of State an application to reserve a specified corporate name, executed by the applicant or the attorney or agent thereof. If the Secretary of State finds that the name is available for corporate use, he shall reserve the same for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of one hundred and twenty (120) days.

C. The right to the exclusive use of a specified corporate name so reserved may be transferred to any other person or corporation by filing in the office of the Secretary of State a notice of such transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved, and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

Art. 2.07. Registered Name

A. Any foreign corporation not authorized to transact business in this State may register its corporate name under this Act, provided its corporate name is not the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this State or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State or any corporate name reserved or registered under this Act.

B. Such registration shall be made by:

(1) Filing with the Secretary of State:

(a) An application for registration executed by the corporation by an officer thereof, setting forth the name of the corporation, the state or territory under the laws of which it is incorporated, the date of its incorporation, a statement that it is carrying on or doing business, and a brief statement of the business in which it is engaged, and

(b) A certificate setting forth that such corporation is in good standing under the laws of the state or territory wherein it is organized, executed by the Secretary of State of such state or territory or by such other official as may have custody of the records pertaining to corporations, and

(2) Paying to the Secretary of State the required registration fee.

C. Such registration shall be effective for a period of one year from the date on which the application for registration is filed, unless voluntarily withdrawn by the filing of a written notice thereof with the Secretary of State.

Art. 2.08. Renewal of Registered Name

A. A corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name may renew such registration from year to year by filing annually an application for renewal in the manner prescribed for the filing of an original application. Such renewal application shall be filed during the ninety (90) days preceding the expiration date of the then current registration.

Art. 2.09. Registered Office and Registered Agent

A. Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State which has a business office identical with such registered office.

Art. 2.10. Change of Registered Office or Registered Agent

A. A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The post-office address of its then registered office.

(3) If the post-office address of its registered office is to be changed, the post-office address to which the registered office is to be changed.

(4) The name of its then registered agent.

(5) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(6) That the post-office address of its registered office and the post-office address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(7) That such change was authorized by its Board of Directors or by an officer of the corporation so authorized by the Board of Directors.

B. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president, and verified by him and delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as prescribed by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word, "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

C. Upon such filing, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

D. Any registered agent of a corporation may resign

(1) by giving written notice to the corporation at its last known address

(2) and by giving written notice, in triplicate, to the Secretary of State within ten days after mailing or delivery of said notice to the corporation. Such notice shall include the last known address of the corporation and shall include the statement that written notice of resignation has been given to the corporation and the date thereof. Upon compliance with the requirements as to written notice, the appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice by the Secretary of State.

If the Secretary of State finds that such written notice conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) Endorse on each of such originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such originals in his office.

(3) Return one original to such resigning registered agent.

(4) Return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the corporation as shown in such written notice.

Art. 2.10-1. Change of Address of Registered Agent

A. The location of the business office of any registered office in Texas for a corporation, domestic or foreign, may be changed from one address to another within the same County upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

(1) The name and last known address of the principal place of business of the corporation represented by such registered agent.

(2) The post office address at which such registered agent has maintained the registered office for said corporation.

(3) The new post office address at which such registered agent will thereafter maintain the registered office for said corporation, which shall be identical with the location of the business office of such registered agent.

(4) A statement that notice of the change has been given to said corporation in writing at least ten (10) days prior to such filing.

B. Triplicate originals of such statement shall be signed and verified by the registered agent, or, if said agent is a corporation, by the president or vice-president of such corporate agent, and delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) Endorse on each of such originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such originals in his office.

(3) Return one original to such registered agent.

(4) Return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the principal place of business of the corporation as shown in such statement.

C. The registered office of the corporation named in such statement shall be changed to the new address of the registered agent upon the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State.

Art. 2.11. Service of Process on Corporation

A. The president and all vice presidents of the corporation and the registered agent of the corporation shall be agents of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

B. Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the Secretary of State of any process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with the Assistant Secretary of State, or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand. In the event any such process, notice, or demand is served on the Secretary of State, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service so had on the Secretary of State shall be returnable in not less than thirty (30) days.

C. The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this Article, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 2.12. Authorized Shares

A. Each corporation may issue the number of shares stated in its articles of incorporation. Such shares may be divided into one or more classes, any or all of which classes may consist of shares with par value or shares without par value, with such designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights as shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. The articles of incorporation may limit or deny the voting rights of the shares of any class to the extent that such limitation or denial is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

B. Without being limited to the authority herein contained, a corporation, when so provided in its articles of incorporation, may issue shares of preferred or special classes:

(1) Subject to the right of the corporation to redeem any shares having a liquidation preference at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the redemption thereof.

(2) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative dividends.

(3) Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends.

(4) Having preference in the assets of the corporation over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the corporation.

(5) Convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation, but shares without par value shall not be converted into shares with par value unless that part of the stated capital of the corporation represented by such shares without par value is, at the time of conversion, at least equal to the aggregate par value of the shares into which shares without par value are to be converted or the amount of any such deficiency is transferred from surplus to stated capital.

Art. 2.13. Issuance of Shares of Preferred or Special Classes in Series

A. If the articles of incorporation so provide, the shares of any preferred or special class may be divided into and issued in series. If the shares of any such class are to be issued in series, then each series shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Any or all of the series of any such class and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between different series may be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation, but all shares of the same class shall be identical except as to the following relative rights and preferences, as to which there may be variations between different series:

- (1) The rate of dividend.
- (2) The price at and the terms and conditions on which shares may be redeemed.
- (3) The amount payable upon shares in event of involuntary liquidation.
- (4) The amount payable upon shares in event of voluntary liquidation.
- (5) Sinking fund provisions for the redemption or purchase of shares.
- (6) The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion.
- (7) Voting rights.

B. If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors shall have authority to divide any or all of such classes into series and, within the limitations set forth in this Article and in the articles of incorporation, to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

C. In order to establish a series, where authority so to do is contained in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as shall not be fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

D. Prior to the issuance of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof.
- (3) The date of adoption of such resolution.
- (4) That such resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

E. Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all franchise taxes and fees have been paid as prescribed by law:

- (1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.
- (2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.
- (3) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

F. Upon the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become an amendment of the articles of incorporation.

Art. 2.14. Subscription for Shares

A. Unless otherwise provided therein, a subscription for shares of a corporation to be organized may not be revoked within six (6) months, except with the consent of all other subscribers.

B. In the case of a corporation to be organized, the filing of the articles of incorporation by the Secretary of State shall constitute acceptance by the corporation of all subscriptions which are contained in a list of subscriptions filed with the articles of incorporation. Such list of subscriptions shall contain the name, post office address, number of shares, and amount paid by each subscriber. Failure to include a subscription in the list of subscriptions shall constitute a rejection of the offer.

C. In the case of an existing corporation, acceptance shall be effected by a resolution of acceptance by the board of directors or by a written memorandum of acceptance executed by one authorized by the board of directors and delivered to the subscriber or his assignee.

D. Subscriptions for shares, whether made before or after the organization of a corporation, shall be paid in full at such time, or in such installments and at such times, as shall be determined by the board of directors. Any call made by the board of directors for payment on subscriptions shall be uniform as to all shares of the same class or as to all shares of the same series, as the case may be. In case of default in the payment of any installment or call when such payment is due, the corporation may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as any debt due the corporation. The bylaws may prescribe other penalties for failure to pay installments or calls that may become due, but no penalty working a forfeiture of a subscription, or of the amounts paid thereon, shall be declared against any subscriber unless the amount due thereon shall remain unpaid for a period of twenty (20) days after written demand has been made therefor. If mailed, such written demand shall be deemed to be made when deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope addressed to the subscriber at his last post office address known to the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. If the demand remains unsatisfied for a period of twenty (20) days, and if the corporation is solvent, the corporation may declare the subscription to be forfeited. The effect of such declaration of forfeiture shall be to terminate all the rights and obligations of the subscriber as such. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 2.14-1. Stock Rights, Options, and Convertible Indebtedness

A. Subject to any limitations in its articles of incorporation, a corporation may create and issue, whether or not in connection with the issuance and sale of any of its shares or other securities, (1) rights or options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation any of its shares of any class or classes or other securities and (2) indebtedness convertible into any of its shares of any class or classes or other securities. Such rights, options or indebtedness shall be evidenced in such manner as the board of directors shall approve and, subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, shall set forth (a) in the case of rights or options, the terms upon which, the time or times within which, and the price or prices at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of any such right or option, or (b) in the case of convertible indebtedness, the terms and conditions upon which, the time or times within which, and the conversion ratio or ratios at which such indebtedness may be converted into such shares. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors as to the adequacy of the consideration received for such rights, options, or indebtedness shall be conclusive. The price or prices to be received for any shares having a par value, other than treasury shares, to be issued upon the exercise of such rights or options shall not be less than the par value thereof. No privilege of conversion shall be conferred upon, or altered in respect to, any indebtedness that would result in receipt by the corporation of less than the minimum consideration required to be received upon issuance of the shares. The consideration for shares issued upon the exercise of convertible indebtedness shall be that provided in Article 2.15 of this Act.

Art. 2.15. Consideration for Shares

A. Shares having a par value may be issued for such consideration, expressed in dollars, not less than the par value thereof, as shall be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

B. Shares without par value may be issued for such consideration, expressed in dollars, as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors, unless the articles of incorporation reserve to the shareholders the right to fix the consideration. In the event that such right be reserved as to any shares, the shareholders shall, prior to the issuance of such shares, fix the consideration to be received for such shares, by a vote of the holders of a majority of all shares entitled to vote thereon.

C. Treasury shares may be disposed of by the corporation for such consideration as may be fixed from time to time by the board of directors.

D. That part of the surplus of a corporation which is transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares as a share dividend shall be deemed to be the consideration for the issuance of such shares.

E. In the event of the issuance of shares by a corporation upon the conversion or exchange of its indebtedness or shares, the consideration for the shares so issued shall be:

(1) The principal sum of, and accrued interest on, the indebtedness so exchanged or converted, or the stated capital then represented by the shares so exchanged or converted, and

(2) That part of surplus, if any, transferred to stated capital upon the issuance of shares for the shares so exchanged or converted, and

(3) Any additional consideration paid to the corporation upon the issuance of shares for the indebtedness or shares so exchanged or converted.

Art. 2.16. Payment for Shares

A. The consideration paid for the issuance of shares shall consist of money paid, labor done, or property actually received. Shares may not be issued until the full amount of the consideration, fixed as provided by law, has been paid. When such consideration shall have been paid to the corporation or to a corporation of which all of the outstanding shares of each class are owned by the corporation, the shares shall be deemed to have been issued and the subscriber or shareholder entitled to receive such issue shall be a shareholder with respect to such shares, and the shares shall be considered fully paid and non-assessable.

B. Neither promissory notes nor the promise of future services shall constitute payment or part payment for shares of a corporation.

C. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for shares shall be conclusive. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1173, ch. 276, § 1, eff. May 19, 1971.]

Art. 2.17. Determination of Amount of Stated Capital

A. In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares having a par value, the consideration received therefor shall constitute stated capital to the extent of the par value of such shares, and the excess, if any, of such consideration shall constitute capital surplus.

B. In case of the issuance by a corporation of shares without par value, the consideration fixed by the corporation in the manner provided by law shall constitute stated capital, unless the corporation shall determine as provided in this section that only a part thereof shall be stated capital. Within a period of sixty (60) days after the issuance of any shares without par value, the board of directors may allocate to capital surplus not more than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the consideration received for the issuance of such shares. No such allocation shall be made of any portion of the consideration received for shares without par value having a preference in the assets of the corporation in the event of voluntary liquidation except the amount, if any, of such consideration in excess of such preference.

C. The stated capital of a corporation may be increased from time to time by resolution of the board of directors directing that all or part of the surplus of the corporation be transferred to stated capital.

D. If shares have been or shall be issued by a corporation in merger or consolidation or in acquisition of all or substantially all of the outstanding shares or of the property and assets of another corporation, whether domestic or foreign, any amount that would otherwise constitute capital surplus under the foregoing provisions of this Article may instead be allocated to earned surplus by the Board of Directors of the issuing corporation except that its aggregate earned surplus shall not exceed the sum of the earned surpluses as defined in this Act of the issuing corporation and of all other corporations, domestic or foreign, that were merged or consolidated or of which the shares or assets were acquired.

Art. 2.18. Expenses of Organization, Reorganization, and Financing

A. The reasonable charges and expenses of organization or reorganization of a corporation, and the reasonable expenses of and compensation for the sale or underwriting of its shares, may be paid or allowed by such corporation out of the consideration received by it in payment for its shares without thereby rendering such shares not fully paid and nonassessable.

Art. 2.19. Certificates Representing Shares

A. A corporation shall deliver certificates representing all shares to which shareholders are entitled; and such certificates shall be signed by the president or a vice president and either the secretary or assistant secretary or such officer or officers as the by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe, and may be sealed with the seal of the corporation or a facsimile thereof. The signatures of the president or vice president, secretary or assistant secretary or such officer or officers as the by-laws of the corporation shall prescribe upon a certificate may be facsimiles, if the certificate is countersigned by a transfer agent or registered by a registrar, either of which is other than the corporation itself or an employee of the corporation. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed upon such certificate shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate is issued, it may be issued by the corporation with the same effect as if he were such officer at the date of its issuance.

B. Every certificate representing shares (1) issued by a corporation which is authorized to issue shares of more than one class shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state on the face or back of the certificate (a) that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office and (b) that there is on file in the office of the Secretary of State, (i) a full statement of all of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of the shares of each class authorized to be issued and, (ii) if the corporation is authorized to issue any preferred or special class in series, the variations in the relative rights and preferences of the shares of each such series so far as the same have been fixed and determined and the authority of the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent series; or (2) issued by a corporation which has by its articles of incorporation limited or denied the preemptive right of shareholders to acquire unissued or treasury shares of the corporation shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state (a) that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office and (b) that there is on file in the office of the Secretary of State a full statement of the limitation or denial of preemptive rights contained in the articles of incorporation.

C. Each certificate representing shares shall state upon the face thereof:

(1) That the corporation is organized under the laws of this State.

(2) The name of the person to whom issued.

(3) The number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, which such certificate represents.

(4) The par value of each share represented by such certificate, or a statement that the shares are without par value.

D. No certificate shall be issued for any share until the consideration therefor, fixed as provided by law, has been fully paid.

E. No requirement of this Act with respect to matters to be set forth on certificates representing shares of a corporation shall apply to or affect certificates outstanding, when such requirement first becomes applicable to such certificates; but such requirements shall apply to all certificates thereafter issued whether in connection with an original issue of shares, a transfer of shares or otherwise. No certificate representing shares in which any provision of the articles of incorporation, or by-laws, or resolution, or agreement restricting the transfer of shares, shall have been incorporated by reference pursuant to the provisions of Section F of this Article prior to its amendment shall be invalidated or affected by such amendment; but such incorporation by reference shall not be used on certificates hereafter issued whether in connection with an original issue of shares, a transfer of shares, or otherwise.

F. A corporation which has adopted a by-law or is a party to an agreement restricting the transfer of its shares may incorporate such by-law or agreement by reference into its articles of incorporation or incorporate such agreement by reference into its by-laws, provided that the provisions of this Act for amendment of the articles of incorporation or by-laws have been complied with and that such by-law or agreement shall have theretofore been filed as follows:

(1) The corporation shall file a copy of the by-law or agreement in the office of the Secretary of State together with an attached statement setting forth:

(a) The name of the corporation;

(b) That the copy of the by-law or agreement restricting the transfer of shares is a true and correct copy of the same;

(c) That incorporation by reference of such by-law or agreement restricting the transfer of shares has been duly authorized by the board of directors of the corporation and that the provisions of this Act for amendment of the articles of incorporation or by-laws have been complied with.

(2) Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall be delivered to the Secretary of State with the copies of such by-law or agreement restricting the transfer of shares attached thereto. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all franchise taxes and fees have been paid as prescribed by law:

(a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof;

(b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office;

(c) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(3) After the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State, any by-law or agreement restricting the transfer of shares, a copy of which is attached to such statement, referred to in another document as hereinabove provided shall be deemed to be incorporated in such other document by such reference to the same effect as if set forth at length in such document, whether the document containing such reference was issued or otherwise became effective before or after the filing of such statement, and whether or not such reference is accompanied by language purporting to set forth at length or to summarize the terms and provisions or some of the terms and provisions of such by-law or agreement restricting the transfer of shares.

(4) The provisions of this Section F of this Article shall not be construed to require that any such by-law or agreement be set forth in or incorporated by reference into the articles of incorporation of the corporation, or that any such agreement be set forth in or incorporated by reference into the by-laws of the corporation.

G. In the event any restriction on the transfer, or registration of the transfer of shares, shall be imposed or agreed to, by the corporation, as permitted by this Act, each certificate representing shares so restricted (1) shall conspicuously set forth a full or summary statement of the restriction on the face of the certificate, or (2) shall set forth such statement on the back of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate, or (3) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such a restriction exists pursuant to a specified document and that the corporation will furnish to the holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of the specified document. A corporation which fails within a reasonable time to furnish the holder of a certificate upon such request and without charge a copy of the specified document shall not be permitted thereafter to enforce its rights under the restriction imposed on the shares represented by such certificate.

H. As used in this Article and Article 2.22 of this Act, the term "conspicuous" or "conspicuously" when prescribed for information appearing on a certificate for shares or other securities means the use of type of sufficient size, color, or character that a reasonable person against whom such information may operate should notice it. For example, a printed or typed statement in capitals, or bold-face or underlined type, or in type that is larger than or that contrasts in color with that used for other statements on the same certificate is "conspicuous." [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 111, ch. 54, § 2; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1490, ch. 545, § 10, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Art. 2.20. Issuance of Fractional Shares or Scrip

A. A corporation may (1) issue fractions of a share, (2) arrange for the disposition of fractional interests by those entitled thereto, (3) pay in cash the fair value of fractions of a share as of the time when those entitled to receive such fractions are determined, or (4) issue scrip in registered or bearer form which shall entitle the holder to receive a certificate for a full share upon the surrender of such scrip aggregating a full share. A certificate for a fractional share shall, but scrip shall not unless otherwise provided therein, entitle the holder to exercise voting rights, to receive dividends thereon, and to participate in any of the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation. The board of directors may cause scrip to be issued subject to the condition that it shall become void if not exchanged for certificates representing full shares before a specified date, or subject to the condition that the shares for which such scrip is exchangeable may be sold by the corporation and the proceeds thereof distributed to the holders of scrip, or subject to any other conditions which the board of directors may determine advisable.

Art. 2.21. Liability of Subscribers and Shareholders

A. A holder of a certificate of shares or a subscriber whose subscription has been accepted shall be under no obligation to the corporation or to its creditors with respect to such shares other than the obligation to pay to the corporation the full amount of the consideration, fixed as provided by law, for which such shares were issued or to be issued.

B. Any person becoming an assignee or transferee of a certificate of shares or of a subscription for shares in good faith and without knowledge or notice that the full consideration therefor has not been paid shall not be personally liable to the corporation or its creditors for any unpaid portion of such consideration.

C. An executor, administrator, conservator, guardian, trustee, assignee for the benefit of creditors, or receiver shall not be personally liable as a holder of or subscriber to shares of a corporation, but the estate and funds in his hands shall be so liable.

D. No pledgee or other holder of shares as collateral security shall be personally liable as a shareholder.

Art. 2.22. Transfer of Shares and Other Securities and Restrictions on Transfer

A. The shares and other securities of a corporation shall be personal property for all purposes and shall be transferable in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8—Investment Securities—of the Business & Commerce Code, as amended,<sup>1</sup> except as otherwise provided in this Act.

B. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of a security may be imposed by the articles of incorporation, or by-laws, or a written agreement among any number of the holders of such securities, or a written agreement among any number of the holders and the corporation provided a counterpart of such agreement shall be placed on file by the corporation at its principal place of business and its registered office and shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent, attorney or accountant, as are the books and records of the corporation. No restriction so imposed shall be valid with respect to any security issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the holder of the security voted in favor of the restriction or is a party to the agreement imposing it.

C. Any restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of a security of a corporation, if reasonable and noted conspicuously (as such term is defined in Article 2.19) on the security may be enforced against the holder of the restricted security or any successor or transferee of the holder including an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary entrusted with like responsibility for the person or estate of the holder. Unless noted conspicuously on the security, a restriction, even though otherwise enforceable, is ineffective except against a person with actual knowledge of the restriction.

D. In particular and without limiting the general power granted in Sections B and C of this Article to impose reasonable restrictions, a restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of securities of a corporation shall be valid if it reasonably:

(1) Obligates the holders of the restricted securities to offer to the corporation or to any other holders of securities of the corporation or to any other person or to any combination of the foregoing, a prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the restricted securities; or

(2) Obligates the corporation to the extent permitted by this Act or any holder of securities of the corporation or any other person, or any combination of the foregoing, to purchase the securities which are the subject of an agreement respecting the purchase and sale of the restricted securities; or

(3) Requires the corporation or the holders of any class of securities of the corporation to consent to any proposed transfer of the restricted securities or to approve the proposed transferee of the restricted securities for the purpose of preventing violations of federal or state laws; or

(4) Prohibits the transfer of the restricted securities to designated persons or classes of persons, and such designation is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(5) Maintains the status of the corporation as an electing small business corporation under Subchapter S of the United States Internal Revenue Code<sup>2</sup> or as a close corporation under this Act.

Art. 2.22-1. Shareholders' Preemptive Rights

A. The shareholders of a corporation shall have a preemptive right to acquire additional, unissued, or treasury shares of the corporation, or securities of the corporation convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares, except to the extent limited or denied by this Article or by the articles of incorporation.

B. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation,

(1) No preemptive right shall exist:

(a) to acquire any shares issued to employees pursuant to approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote thereon or when authorized by and consistent with a plan theretofore approved by such a vote of shareholders; or

(b) to acquire any shares sold otherwise than for cash.

(2) Holders of shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets shall not be entitled to any preemptive right.

(3) Holders of shares of common stock shall not be entitled to any preemptive right to shares of any class that is preferred or limited as to dividends or assets or to any obligations, unless convertible into shares of common stock or carrying a right to subscribe to or acquire shares of common stock.

(4) Holders of common stock without voting power shall have no preemptive right to shares of common stock with voting power.

(5) The preemptive right shall be only an opportunity to acquire shares or other securities under such terms and conditions as the board of directors may fix for the purpose of providing a fair and reasonable opportunity for the exercise of such right.

Art. 2.23. Bylaws

A. The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws, subject to repeal or change by action of the shareholders, shall be vested in the board of directors unless reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

Art. 2.24. Meetings of Shareholders

A. Meetings of shareholders may be held at such place within or without this State as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If no other place is so stated or fixed, meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation.

B. An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held at such time as may be stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If the annual meeting is not held within any 13-month period, any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located may, on the application of any shareholder, summarily order a meeting to be held. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the corporation.

C. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called by the president, the board of directors, the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the shares entitled to vote at the meetings, or such other persons as may be authorized in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Art. 2.25. Notice of Shareholders' Meetings

A. Written or printed notice stating the place, day and hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, the secretary, or the officer or person calling the meeting, to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer books of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

Art. 2.26. Closing of Transfer Books and Fixing Record Date

A. For the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of shareholders or any adjournment thereof, or entitled to receive payment of any dividend, or in order to make a determination of shareholders for any other proper purpose, the board of directors of a corporation may provide that the stock transfer books shall be closed for a stated period but not to exceed, in any case, fifty (50) days. If the stock transfer books shall be closed for the purpose of determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, such books shall be closed for at least ten (10) days immediately preceding such meeting. In lieu of closing the stock transfer books, the bylaws, or in the absence of an applicable bylaw the board of directors, may fix in advance a date as the record date for any such determination of shareholders, such date in any case to be not more than fifty (50) days and, in case of a meeting of shareholders, not less than ten (10) days prior to the date on which the particular action, requiring such determination of shareholders is to be taken. If the stock transfer books are not closed and no record date is fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders, or shareholders entitled to receive payment of a dividend, the date on which notice of the meeting is mailed or the date on which the resolution of the board of directors declaring such dividend is adopted, as the case may be, shall be the record date for such determination of shareholders. When a determination of shareholders entitled to vote at any meeting of shareholders has been made as provided in this Article, such determination shall apply to any adjournment thereof except where the determination has been made through the closing of stock transfer books and the stated period of closing has expired. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 2.27. Voting List

A. The officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books for shares of a corporation shall make, at least ten (10) days before each meeting of shareholders, a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting or any adjournment thereof, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each, which list, for a period of ten (10) days prior to such meeting, shall be kept on file at the registered office of the corporation and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder at any time during usual business hours. Such list shall also be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting. The original stock transfer books shall be prima-facie evidence as to who are the shareholders entitled to examine such list or transfer books or to vote at any meeting of shareholders.

B. Failure to comply with the requirements of this Article shall not affect the validity of any action taken at such meeting.

C. An officer or agent having charge of the stock transfer books who shall fail to prepare the list of shareholders or keep the same on file for a period of ten (10) days, or produce and keep it open for inspection at the meeting, as provided in this Article, shall be liable to any shareholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage. In the event that such officer or agent does not receive notice of a meeting of shareholders sufficiently in advance of the date of such meeting reasonably to enable him to comply with the duties prescribed by this Article, the corporation, but not such officer or agent, shall be liable to any shareholder suffering damage on account of such failure, to the extent of such damage.

Art. 2.28. Quorum of Shareholders

A. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at a meeting of shareholders, but in no event shall a quorum consist of the holders of less than one-third ( $\frac{1}{3}$ ) of the shares entitled to vote and thus represented at such meeting. The vote of the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote and thus represented at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the shareholders' meeting, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law, the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

Art. 2.29. Voting of Shares

A. (1) Each outstanding share, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, except:

(a) To the extent that the articles of incorporation provide for more or less than one vote per share or (if and to the extent permitted by this Act) limit or deny voting rights to the holders of the shares of any class or series, or

(b) As otherwise provided by this Act.

(2) If the articles of incorporation provide for more or less than one vote per share for all the outstanding shares or for the shares of any class or any series on any matter, every reference in this Act (or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, unless expressly stated otherwise therein), in connection with such matter, to a specified portion of such shares shall mean such portion of the votes entitled to be cast in respect of such shares by virtue of the provisions of such articles of incorporation.

B. Treasury shares, shares of its own stock owned by another corporation the majority of the voting stock of which is owned or controlled by it, and shares of its own stock held by a corporation in a fiduciary capacity shall not be voted, directly or indirectly, at any meeting, and shall not be counted in determining the total number of outstanding shares at any given time.

C. A shareholder may vote either in person or by proxy executed in writing by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution unless otherwise provided in the proxy. A proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable and unless otherwise made irrevocable by law.

D. (1) At each election for directors every shareholder entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by him for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or unless expressly prohibited by the articles of incorporation to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by his shares shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates.

(2) Any shareholder who intends to cumulate his votes as herein authorized shall give written notice of such intention to the secretary of the corporation on or before the day preceding the election at which such shareholder intends to cumulate his votes. All shareholders may cumulate their votes if any shareholder gives the written notice provided for herein.

E. Shares standing in the name of another corporation, domestic or foreign, may be voted by such officer, agent, or proxy as the bylaws of such corporation may authorize or, in the absence of such authorization, as the board of directors of such corporation may determine; provided, however, that when any foreign corporation without a permit to do business in this State lawfully owns or may lawfully own or acquire stock in Texas corporation, it shall not be unlawful for such foreign corporation to vote said stock and participate in the management and control of the business and affairs of such Texas corporation, as other stockholders, subject to all laws, rules and regulations governing Texas corporations and especially subject to the provisions of the Anti-Trust laws of the State of Texas.

F. Shares held by an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator may be voted by him so long as such shares forming a part of an estate are in the possession and forming a part of the estate being served by him, either in person or by proxy, without a transfer of such shares into his name. Shares standing in the name of a trustee may be voted by him, either in person or by proxy, but no trustee shall be entitled to vote shares held by him without a transfer of such shares into his name as trustee.

G. Shares standing in the name of a receiver may be voted by such a receiver, and shares held by or under the control of a receiver may be voted by such receiver without the transfer thereof into his name if authority so to do be contained in an appropriate order of the court by which such receiver was appointed.

H. A shareholder whose shares are pledged shall be entitled to vote such shares until the shares have been transferred into the name of the pledgee, and thereafter the pledgee shall be entitled to vote the shares so transferred.

Art. 2.30. Voting Trusts and Voting Agreements

A. Any number of shareholders of a corporation may create a voting trust for the purpose of conferring upon a trustee or trustees the right to vote or otherwise represent their shares, for a period of not to exceed ten (10) years, by entering into a written voting trust agreement specifying the terms and conditions of the voting trust, by depositing a counterpart of the agreement with the corporation at its registered office, and by transferring their shares to such trustee or trustees for the purposes of the agreement. The counterpart of the voting trust agreement so deposited with the corporation shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and shall be subject to examination by any holder of a beneficial interest in the voting trust, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose.

B. Any number of shareholders may enter into a voting agreement in writing for the purpose of voting their shares as a unit, in the manner prescribed in the agreement, on any matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders for a period not exceeding ten (10) years from the date of the execution of the agreement. A counterpart of the agreement shall be deposited with the corporation at its principal office and shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation. Each certificate representing shares held by the parties to the agreement shall contain a statement that the shares represented by the certificate are subject to the provisions of a voting agreement, a counterpart of which has been deposited with the corporation at its principal office. Upon such deposit of the counterpart of the agreement and endorsement of the prescribed statement upon the certificates representing shares, the agreement shall be specifically enforceable in accordance with the principles of equity. [Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 423, ch. 206, § 2.]

Art. 2.30-1. Management of Close Corporation

A. A "close corporation" as used in this Article and in Articles 2.30-2 through 2.30-5 means a domestic corporation (1) which, at any given time, has no more than 15 shareholders of record of all classes of shares, whether or not entitled to vote; (2) whose issued shares of all classes shall be subject to one or more of the restrictions on transfer permitted by Article 2.22 of this Act; and (3) whose shares shall have been issued to its shareholders without any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement. For purposes of determining the number of holders of record of shares of stock in a close corporation as defined in this Article, shares which are held (1) by husband and wife as (a) community property, (b) joint tenants (with or without right of survivorship), or (c) tenants by the entirety, (2) by an estate of a decedent or an incompetent, or (3) by a trust, partnership, or corporation created or organized and existing other than for the primary purpose of holding shares in a close corporation, shall be treated as held by one person. Nothing in this definition shall be deemed to affect the right of any corporation which is not a close corporation as defined herein or its shareholders or directors to provide for the management of its business and affairs by its shareholders, directors, or officers or to impose restrictions on the transfer of its shares or other securities or to seek any remedy, or to exercise any other power or right, granted or permitted by other provisions of this Act. To the extent not inconsistent with this Article and Articles 2.30-2 and 2.30-3 of this Act, all other provisions of this Act shall apply to a close corporation as defined herein.

B. If the articles of incorporation of a close corporation expressly so state and if each certificate representing its issued and outstanding shares so conspicuously (as defined in Article 2.19 of this Act) states, the business and affairs of such close corporation shall be managed by the shareholders of the close corporation rather than by a board of directors, and the following provisions shall apply:

(1) Whenever the context requires, the shareholders of such close corporation shall be deemed directors of such corporation for purposes of applying any of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The shareholders of such close corporation shall be subject to the liabilities imposed by this Act or by law for any action taken or neglected to be taken by directors of a corporation.

(3) Any action required or permitted by this Act to be taken by the board of directors of a corporation shall or may be taken by action of the shareholders of such close corporation at a meeting thereof or in the manner permitted by this Act without a meeting. In addition, in the event of any action taken by the shareholders, the consent of all the shareholders shall be binding upon the corporation. Such consent may be evidenced (i) by the full knowledge of such action by all the shareholders and their failure to object thereto in a timely manner or (ii) by a writing executed by or on behalf of all the shareholders or (iii) by any other means reasonably evidencing such consent.

C. If a close corporation ceases to meet the definition of a close corporation as set forth herein by reason of having more than fifteen (15) shareholders entitled to hold shares in the corporation in accordance with any restriction on the transfer of shares permitted by Article 2.22 of this Act or any provision of an agreement among shareholders of a close corporation permitted by Article 2.30-2 of this Act, whether or not all such shareholders are entitled to vote, the president shall call a special meeting of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon to elect a board of directors; and if he fails to call such a special meeting within four (4) months from the date when the corporation ceases to qualify as a "close corporation," any shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, may call such special meeting, with the same rights and powers as are provided in this Act for the call of a substitute annual meeting by a shareholder. At such special meeting, there shall be elected such number of directors as have been specified in the articles or the bylaws, if the articles or bylaws provided for the possibility of the corporation ceasing to qualify as a close corporation; and if no such number is specified, three (3) directors shall be elected.

Art. 2.30-2. Agreements Among Shareholders of a Close Corporation

A. The shareholders of a close corporation may, by an agreement to which all the shareholders of the corporation, whether or not entitled to vote, have actually assented, regulate any phase of the business and affairs of the corporation or the relations of the shareholders, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Management of the business and affairs of the corporation whether by the board of directors or one or more of the shareholders or one or more other parties to be selected by the shareholders;

(2) Restrictions on the transfer of shares or other securities;

(3) Exercise or division of voting requirements or power;

(4) Terms and conditions of employment of any shareholder, director, officer, or employee regardless of the length of time of such employment;

(5) Persons who shall be directors and officers of the corporation;

(6) Declaration and payment of dividends or division of profits;

(7) Arbitration of issues as to which the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power or as to which the directors or other parties managing the corporation are deadlocked in the event the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock; or

(8) Treatment of the business and affairs of the corporation as if it were a partnership or arrangement of the relations among the shareholders or between the shareholders and the corporation in a manner that would otherwise be appropriate only among partners.

B. To be valid, such shareholders' agreement either (1) shall be set forth in full in the articles of incorporation of the close corporation or incorporated by reference therein by following the procedure prescribed in Section F, Article 2.19, of this Act, for incorporation by reference of restrictions on the transferability of shares; or (2) shall be set forth in the bylaws of the corporation or incorporated by reference therein, provided such bylaws and a counterpart of the agreement be placed on file by the corporation at its principal place of business and its registered office and shall be subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of the corporation, in person, or by agent, attorney, or accountant, as are the books and records of the corporation. If the agreement is set forth or referred to in the original articles of incorporation, all the parties to the agreement shall serve as incorporators of the close corporation. If set forth or referred to in an amendment to the articles of incorporation, such amendment shall have been adopted by a vote of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation. If set forth or referred to in the bylaws of the corporation either when originally adopted or later amended, such provision of the bylaws shall have been adopted, amended, or ratified by a unanimous vote of the holders of all outstanding shares, whether or not entitled to vote by the articles of incorporation.

C. Each certificate representing shares of stock issued by a close corporation whose shareholders have entered into an agreement permitted by this Article shall (1) set forth conspicuously a full or summary statement of such agreement on the face of the certificate; or (2) set forth such statement on the back of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate; or (3) if the agreement has been set forth in full in the articles of incorporation or incorporated by reference therein, conspicuously state on the face or back of the stock certificate that such shares are subject to an agreement among all the shareholders of the close corporation and that the corporation will furnish to the holder of the certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of such agreement and that the provisions of such agreement are on file in the office of the Secretary of State; or (4) if the agreement has been set forth in full or incorporated by reference in the bylaws and a counterpart of the agreement placed on file by the corporation at its principal place of business and its registered office, conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that such shares are subject to an agreement among all the shareholders of the close corporation and that the corporation will furnish to the holder of a certificate without charge upon written request to the corporation at its principal place of business or registered office a copy of such bylaw or agreement. Unless noted conspicuously on the stock certificates in the manner prescribed above, such agreement even though otherwise enforceable among the parties thereto shall not be binding upon a transferee of such shares unless such transferee is a person with actual notice of the existence of the agreement, or such transferee acquired his shares by gift or bequest from a person who was a party to such agreement in which case such transferee shall be deemed to have actual notice thereof.

D. To the extent that it contains any provisions which would not be valid but for Section A of this Article, an agreement authorized by this Article shall be valid only so long as (1) no shares of the corporation shall have been issued by the corporation through any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement; and (2) the corporation maintains its status as a close corporation as defined in Article 2.30-1 of this Act.

E. In the event a close corporation shall have a board of directors, the effect of an agreement authorized by this Article shall be to relieve the director or directors of, and to impose upon the shareholders who are parties to or are bound by the agreement and who voted for or assented to the transaction in question, the liabilities imposed by this Act or by law for action taken or neglected to be taken by directors to the extent that and so long as the discretion or powers of the directors in their management of corporate affairs is controlled by any such provision. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1497, ch. 545, § 19, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Art. 2.30-3. Proceedings to Prevent Loss of Close Corporation Status or to Enforce Agreements Among Shareholders of a Close Corporation

A. Any close corporation as defined in this Act, a shareholder of such corporation, or a person who is party to or is bound by an agreement among shareholders of a close corporation, may file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the close corporation has its principal place of business, to have the court, if it shall deem the same equitable, issue all orders necessary to prevent the corporation from losing its status as a close corporation; or to restore its status as a close corporation by enjoining or setting aside any act or threatened act on the part of the corporation or a shareholder or any other person which would be inconsistent with its status as a close corporation; or to enforce by injunction, specific performance, or such other relief as the court may determine to be fair and appropriate in such circumstances an agreement among shareholders of a close corporation permitted by Article 2.30-2 of this Act.

B. As an alternative to the granting of an injunction, specific performance or other equitable or legal relief in any proceeding brought under Section A, of this Article, the court may, upon the motion of a party to the proceeding, order the appointment of a receiver for specific assets of the close corporation or to rehabilitate the close corporation, or order the liquidation of the assets and business of the close corporation, and decree its involuntary dissolution, as permitted by this Act, but only if the court shall find that the grounds for such receivership or liquidation and involuntary dissolution provided for in this Act exist.

C. Any court of competent jurisdiction in which a proceeding provided for in Section A of this Article may be brought may enjoin or set aside any transfer or threatened transfer of shares of stock of a close corporation which will adversely affect its status as a close corporation, or which is contrary to restrictions on the transfer of shares of such stock permitted by Article 2.22 of this Act, and may enjoin any public offering, solicitation, or advertisement of shares of stock of the close corporation.

D. Nothing contained in this Article shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction in any proceeding properly brought before it to enforce any restriction on the transfer of shares or other securities permitted by Article 2.22 of this Act or any agreement among any number of holders of the securities of a corporation or any number of the holders of such securities and the corporation not provided for in Article 2.30-2 of this Act and to grant whatever remedies may be properly available in such proceedings.

Art. 2.30-4. Appointment of a Provisional Director for a Close Corporation in Certain Cases

A. Notwithstanding any contrary provision in the articles of incorporation, or bylaws, or agreement among shareholders of a close corporation, any close corporation, a shareholder of such corporation, or a person who is party to or who is bound by an agreement among shareholders of a close corporation, may file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the corporation has its principal place of business to have the court appoint a provisional director for the close corporation when it is established that the directors, or the shareholders if they have been empowered to manage the business and affairs of the close corporation as permitted by this Act, are so divided respecting the management of the corporation's business and affairs that the votes required for action by the board of directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, cannot be obtained with the consequence that the business and affairs of the close corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally.

B. A provisional director shall be an impartial person who is neither a shareholder nor a creditor of the corporation or of any subsidiary or affiliate of the corporation, and whose further qualifications, if any, may be determined by the court. A provisional director is not a receiver of the close corporation and does not have the powers and duties of receivers appointed under Articles 7.04-7.07 of this Act. A provisional director shall have all the rights and powers of a duly elected director of the close corporation, or the rights and powers of vote of a shareholder if management of the business and affairs of the close corporation has been vested in its shareholders as permitted by this Act, including the right to notice of and to vote at meetings of directors or shareholders, as the case may be. A provisional director shall serve until removed by order of the court or by a vote of a majority of the directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, or if the articles of incorporation require the concurrence of a greater majority for action by the directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, then by that majority. The compensation of a provisional director shall be determined by an agreement between him and the close corporation subject to the approval of the court, which may fix his compensation in the absence of an agreement or in the event of a disagreement between the provisional director and the close corporation.

Art. 2.30-5. Shareholder's Option to Dissolve Close Corporation

A. The articles of incorporation of a close corporation may include a provision granting to any shareholder, or to the holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of stock, an option to have the close corporation dissolved at will or upon the occurrence of any specified event or contingency. Whenever any such option to dissolve is exercised, the shareholders exercising the option shall give written notice thereof to all other shareholders. After the expiration of thirty (30) days following the sending of such notice, the dissolution of the close corporation shall proceed as if all its shareholders had consented in writing to dissolution of the corporation as provided in Article 6.02 of this Act.

B. Each certificate of shares of a close corporation whose articles of incorporation authorizes dissolution as permitted by this article shall (1) set forth conspicuously a full or summary statement of such provision on the face of the certificate, or (2) set forth such statement on the back of the certificate and conspicuously refer to the same on the face of the certificate, or (3) shall conspicuously state on the face or back of the certificate that the corporation will furnish to any shareholder without charge upon written request to the close corporation at its principal place of business or registered office and that there is on file in the office of the Secretary of State a full statement of the provision giving shareholders the option to dissolve the close corporation.

Art. 2.31. Board of Directors

A. The business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors. Directors need not be residents of this State or shareholders of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws so require. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

Art. 2.32. Number and Election of Directors

A. The board of directors of a corporation shall consist of one or more members. The number of directors shall be fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw providing for the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that provided for in the articles of incorporation. The names and addresses of the members of the initial board of directors shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. Unless removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws or the articles of incorporation, such persons shall hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders, and until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. At the first annual meeting of shareholders and at each annual meeting thereafter the shareholders shall elect directors to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting, except in case of the classification of directors as permitted by this Act. Unless removed in accordance with provisions of the bylaws or the articles of incorporation, each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. The bylaws or the articles of incorporation may provide that at any meeting of shareholders called expressly for that purpose any director or the entire board of directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, subject to any further restrictions on removal which may be contained in the bylaws. In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against his removal would be sufficient to elect him if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he is a part.

Art. 2.33. Classification of Directors

A. When the board of directors shall consist of nine or more members, in lieu of electing the whole number of directors annually, the bylaws may provide that the directors be divided into either two or three classes, each class to be as nearly equal in number as possible, the terms of office of directors of the first class to expire at the first annual meeting of shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three classes. No classification of directors shall be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders.

Art. 2.34. Vacancies

A. Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of shareholders called for that purpose.

Art. 2.35. Quorum of Directors

A. A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or in the manner provided in, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by law or the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by law or the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

Art. 2.36. Executive and Other Committees

A. If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the full board of directors, may designate from among its members an executive committee and one or more other committees, each of which, to the extent provided in such resolution or in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the board of directors, except that no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending the articles of incorporation, approving a plan of merger or consolidation, recommending to the shareholders the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation otherwise than in the usual and regular course of its business, recommending to the shareholders a voluntary dissolution of the corporation or a revocation thereof, amending, altering, or repealing the bylaws of the corporation or adopting new bylaws for the corporation, filling vacancies in or removing members of the board of directors or any such committee, fixing the compensation of any member of such committee, or altering or repealing any resolution of the board of directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be so amendable or repealable; and, unless such resolution, the articles of incorporation, or the bylaws of the corporation expressly so provide, no such committee shall have the power or authority to declare a dividend or to authorize the issuance of shares of the corporation. The designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed by law.

Art. 2.37. Place and Notice of Directors' Meetings

A. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this State.

B. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless required by the bylaws.

Art. 2.38. Dividends

A. The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, declare, and the corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash, in property, or in its own shares, except when the corporation is insolvent or when the payment thereof would render the corporation insolvent or when the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, subject to the following provisions:

(1) Dividends may be declared and paid in cash or property only out of the unreserved and unrestricted earned surplus of the corporation, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

(2) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own shares out of any treasury shares that have been reacquired out of surplus of the corporation.

(3) Dividends may be declared and paid in its own authorized but unissued shares out of unrestricted surplus of the corporation upon the following conditions:

(a) If a dividend is payable in its own shares having a par value, such shares shall be issued at the par value thereof and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate par value of the shares to be issued as a dividend.

(b) If a dividend is payable in its own shares without par value, such shares shall be issued at such value as shall be fixed by the board of directors by resolution adopted at the time such dividend is declared, and there shall be transferred to stated capital at the time such dividend is paid an amount of surplus equal to the aggregate value so fixed in respect of such shares; and the amount per share so transferred to stated capital shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving such dividend concurrently with the payment thereof.

(4) No dividend payable in shares of any class shall be paid to the holders of shares of any other class unless the articles of incorporation so provide or unless such payment is authorized by the affirmative vote or the written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of the class in which the payment is to be made.

B. A split-up or division of the issued shares of any class into a greater number of shares of the same class without increasing the stated capital of the corporation shall not be construed to be a share dividend within the meaning of this Article.

C. The board of directors must, when requested by the holders of at least one third of the outstanding shares of the corporation, present written reports of the situation and amount of business of the corporation and, subject to limitations on the authority of the board of directors by provisions of law, or the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, the board shall declare and provide for payment of such dividends of the profits from the business of the corporation as such board shall deem expedient.

Art. 2.39. Dividends of Consuming Assets Corporation

A. In addition to dividends otherwise authorized by law, the board of directors of a consuming assets corporation may declare, and the corporation may pay, dividends on its outstanding shares in cash or in property in an amount not exceeding the total amount of the depletion and amortization reserves created by the corporation, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) No dividend shall be declared or paid by authority of this Article if the declaration or payment thereof would be contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, or if the corporation is insolvent, or if such dividend would render the corporation insolvent, or if, after payment of the dividend and after such provision is made for depletion and amortization as would fairly reflect the decrease in value of the corporate assets, the assets of the corporation would not exceed its liabilities.

(2) No such dividend shall be paid to the holders of any class of shares unless all cumulative dividends accrued on all preferred or special classes of shares entitled to preferential dividends shall have been fully paid.

(3) No such dividend shall be paid to the holders of any class of shares which would reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation, after such provision for depletion and amortization reserves is made as will fairly reflect the decrease in value of corporate assets, below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

(4) When any dividend is paid in whole or in part by authority of this Article, all notices, reports, financial statements, and other official corporate references to such dividend shall clearly indicate what part of such dividend is so paid.

(5) Any such dividend shall be carried on the accounting records of the corporation in a separate account or accounts, which shall be appropriately entitled and shown on all corporate financial statements as a deduction from the respective reserve accounts on the basis of which the dividend was paid.

Art. 2.40. Distributions in Partial Liquidation

A. The board of directors of a corporation may, from time to time, distribute to its shareholders in partial liquidation, out of capital surplus or reduction surplus of the corporation, a portion of its assets, in cash or property, subject to the following provisions:

(1) No such distribution shall be made at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such distribution would render the corporation insolvent. No such distribution shall be made in an amount that would impair the ability of the corporation to carry on the business of the corporation to the extent contemplated by its board of directors if any subsequent operations by the corporation are so contemplated.

(2) No such distribution out of reduction surplus shall be made unless such distribution is authorized by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

(3) No such distribution shall be made to the holders of any class of shares unless all cumulative dividends accrued on all preferred or special classes of shares entitled to preferential dividends shall have been fully paid.

(4) No such distribution shall be made to the holders of any class of shares which would reduce the remaining net assets of the corporation below the aggregate preferential amount payable in the event of voluntary liquidation to the holders of shares having preferential rights to the assets of the corporation in the event of liquidation.

(5) Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a distribution in partial liquidation, and the amount per share shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof, and if such distribution is made, wholly or in part, out of reduction surplus, the amount per share which is paid out of reduction surplus shall be disclosed to the shareholders receiving the same concurrently with the distribution thereof.

B. The board of directors of a corporation may also, from time to time, distribute to the holders of its outstanding shares having a cumulative preferential right to receive dividends, in discharge of their cumulative dividend rights, cash payments out of the unrestricted capital surplus of the corporation, if at the time the corporation has no earned surplus and is not insolvent, and would not thereby be rendered insolvent. Each such distribution, when made, shall be identified as a payment of cumulative dividends out of capital surplus.

Art. 2.41. Liability of Directors and Shareholders in Certain Cases

A. In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors of a corporation:

(1) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the declaration of any dividend or other distribution of the assets of a corporation to its shareholders contrary to the provisions of this Act, or contrary to any restrictions contained in the articles of incorporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such dividend which is paid, or the value of such assets which are distributed in excess of the amount of such dividends or distribution which could have been paid or distributed without violating the provisions of this Act or the restrictions in the articles of incorporation.

(2) Directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the purchase of its own shares contrary to the provisions of this Act shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of consideration paid for such shares which is in excess of the maximum amount which could have been paid therefor without violating the provisions of this Act.

(3) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets of a corporation to its shareholders during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of, or making adequate provision for, all known debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of such assets which are distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

(4) The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of a loan to an officer or director of the corporation, or the making of any loan secured by shares of the corporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such loan until the repayment thereof.

(5) If the corporation shall commence business before it has received for the issuance of shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), consisting of money, labor done, or property actually received, the directors who assent thereto shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for such part of the required consideration as shall not have been received before commencing business, but such liability shall be terminated when the corporation has actually received the required consideration for the issuance of shares.

(6) In the event of the insolvency of a corporation, directors who have voted for or assented to any payments out of the reduction surplus of the corporation, whether in the course of a distribution in partial liquidation or as the purchase price of shares issued by the corporation and later purchased by it, shall be liable to the corporation, or to its receiver or trustee in bankruptcy, to the extent of the amount of such payments made, for the purpose of discharging creditor claims against the corporation which existed at the time such payments were made or which were incurred within thirty (30) days after notice of the reduction of stated capital had been filed, but such liability shall be imposed only to the extent that such creditor claims have not been fully paid after such creditors have shared with other creditors in the assets of the corporation. Any director against whom a claim shall be asserted under this subsection, and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received such payments out of reduction surplus, to the extent of the amounts of such payments received by them, respectively.

B. A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

C. A director shall not be liable under subsections (1), (2) or (3) of Section A of this Article if, in the exercise of ordinary care, he relied and acted in good faith upon written financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by the president or by the officer of such corporation having charge of its books of account, or certified by an independent public or certified public accountant or firm of such accountants fairly to reflect the financial condition of such corporation, nor shall he be so liable if, in the exercise of ordinary care and in good faith, in determining the amount available for any such dividend or distribution, he considered the assets to be of their book value.

D. A director shall not be liable for any claims or damages that may result from his acts in the discharge of any duty imposed or power conferred upon him by the corporation if, in the exercise of ordinary care, he acted in good faith and in reliance upon the written opinion of an attorney for the corporation.

E. A director against whom a claim shall be asserted under this Article for the payment of a dividend or other distribution of assets of a corporation, and who shall be held liable thereon, shall be entitled to contribution from the shareholders who accepted or received such dividend or assets knowing such dividend or distribution to have been made in violation of this Article, in proportion to the amounts received by them, respectively.

F. A director against whom a claim shall be asserted under this Article shall be entitled to contribution from the other directors who voted for or assented to the action upon which the claim is asserted.

Art. 2.42. Officers

A. The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents as may be prescribed by the bylaws, a secretary, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected by the board of directors at such time and in such manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Such other officers and assistant officers and agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the bylaws. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person, except that the president and secretary shall not be the same person.

B. All officers and agents of the corporation, as between themselves and the corporation, shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the corporation as may be provided in the bylaws, or as may be determined by resolution of the board of directors not inconsistent with the bylaws.

Art. 2.43. Removal of Officers

A. Any officer or agent or member of the executive committee elected or appointed by the board of directors may be removed by the board of directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Art. 2.44. Books and Records

A. Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders and board of directors and shall keep at its registered office or principal place of business, or at the office of its transfer agent or registrar, a record of its shareholders, giving the names and addresses of all shareholders and the number and class of the shares held by each. Any books, records, and minutes may be in written form or in any other form capable of being converted into written form within a reasonable time.

B. Any person who shall have been a holder of record of shares for at least six (6) months immediately preceding his demand, or shall be the holder of record of at least five per cent (5%) of all the outstanding shares of a corporation, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, shall have the right to examine, in person or by agent, accountant, or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, its relevant books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders, and to make extracts therefrom.

C. Any corporation which shall refuse to allow any such shareholder or his agent, accountant or attorney, so to examine and make extracts from its books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to such shareholder for all costs and expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred in enforcing his rights under this Article in addition to any other damages or remedy afforded him by law. It shall be a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has within two (2) years sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation or has aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for any such purpose, or has improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of the books and records of account, or minutes, or record of shareholders or of holders of voting trust certificates for shares of such corporation or any other corporation, or was not acting in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his demand.

D. Nothing herein contained shall impair the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof of proper purpose by a beneficial or record holder of shares, irrespective of the period of time during which such holder shall have been a beneficial or record holder and irrespective of the number of shares held by him, to compel the production for examination by such holder of the books and records of account, minutes, and record of shareholders of a corporation.

E. Upon the written request of any holder of record of shares of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to such holder its annual statements for its last fiscal year showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations and the most recent interim statements, if any, which have been filed in a public record or otherwise published. The corporation shall be allowed a reasonable time to prepare such annual statements.

F. A holder of a beneficial interest in a voting trust complying with this Act shall be regarded as a holder of record of shares with respect to the shares represented by such beneficial interest for the purposes of this Article.

PART THREE

Art. 3.01. Incorporators

A. Three (3) or more natural persons, two (2) of whom must be citizens of the State of Texas, of the age of twenty-one (21) years or more may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the Secretary of State articles of incorporation for such corporation.

Art. 3.02. Articles of Incorporation

A. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation;
- (2) The period of duration, which may be perpetual;
- (3) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized which may be stated to be, or to include, the transaction of any or all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under this Act;
- (4) The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have authority to issue; if such shares are to consist of one class only, the par value of each of such shares, or a statement that all of such shares are without par value; or, if such shares are to be divided into classes, the number of shares of each class, and a statement of the par value of the shares of each class or that such shares are to be without par value;
- (5) If the shares are to be divided into classes, the designation of each class and statement of the preferences, limitations, and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class;
- (6) If the corporation is to issue the shares of any preferred or special class in series, then the designation of each series and a statement of the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series insofar as the same are to be fixed in the articles of incorporation, and a statement of any authority to be vested in the board of directors to establish series and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series;

(7) A statement that the corporation will not commence business until it has received for the issuance of shares consideration of the value of a stated sum which shall be at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), consisting of money, labor done, or property actually received;

(8) Any provision limiting or denying to shareholders the preemptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation;

(9) Any provision permitting a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act to have its business and affairs managed by its shareholders rather than by a board of directors, or granting to any shareholder or to the holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of shares of a close corporation an option to have the close corporation dissolved as permitted by this Act;

(10) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation;

(11) The street address of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such address;

(12) The number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as directors until the first annual meeting of shareholders or until their successors be elected and qualify;

(13) The name and address of each incorporator.

B. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act.

Art. 3.03. Filing of Articles of Incorporation

A. Duplicate originals of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of incorporation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives.

Art. 3.04. Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this Act, except as against the State in a proceeding for involuntary dissolution.

Art. 3.05. Requirement Before Commencing Business

A. A corporation shall not transact any business or incur any indebtedness, except such as shall be incidental to its organization or to obtaining subscriptions to or payment for its shares, until it has received for the issuance of shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00), consisting of money, labor done, or property actually received.

Art. 3.06. Organization Meeting of Directors

A. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the initial board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this State, at the call of a majority of the directors named in the articles of incorporation, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers, and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. The directors calling the meeting shall give at least three (3) days notice thereof by mail to each director so named, stating the time and place of the meeting.

PART FOUR

Art. 4.01. Right to Amend Articles of Incorporation

A. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation, from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment, and, if a change in shares or the rights of shareholders, or an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of shares or rights of shareholders is to be made, such provisions as may be necessary to effect such change, exchange, reclassification, or cancellation.

B. In particular, and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, a corporation may amend its articles of incorporation, from time to time so as:

- (1) To change its corporate name.
- (2) To change its period of duration.
- (3) To change, enlarge, or diminish its corporate purposes.
- (4) To increase or decrease the aggregate number of shares of any class which the corporation has authority to issue.
- (5) To increase or decrease the par value of the authorized shares of any class having a par value, whether issued or unissued.
- (6) To exchange, classify, or reclassify all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued or to cancel all or any part of its outstanding shares.
- (7) To change the designation of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued, and to change the preferences, limitations, and relative rights in respect of all or any part of its shares, whether issued or unissued.
- (8) To change shares having a par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares without par value, and to change shares without par value, whether issued or unissued, into the same or a different number of shares having a par value.
- (9) To change the shares of any class, whether issued or unissued, and whether with or without par value, into a different number of shares of the same class or into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of other classes.
- (10) To create new classes of shares having rights and preferences either prior and superior or subordinate and inferior to the shares of any class then authorized, whether issued or unissued.
- (11) To cancel or otherwise affect the right of the holders of the shares of any class to receive dividends which have accrued but have not been declared.
- (12) To divide any preferred or special class of shares, whether issued or unissued, into series and fix and determine the designations of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between the shares of such series.
- (13) To authorize the board of directors to establish, out of authorized but unissued shares, series of any preferred or special class of shares and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.
- (14) To authorize the board of directors to fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the authorized but unissued shares of series theretofore established in respect of which either the relative rights and preferences have not been fixed and determined or the relative rights and preferences theretofore fixed and determined are to be changed.

(15) To revoke, diminish, or enlarge the authority of the board of directors to establish series out of authorized but unissued shares of any preferred or special class and fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(16) To limit, deny, or grant to shareholders of any class the preemptive right to acquire additional or treasury shares of the corporation, whether then or thereafter authorized.

(17) To become a consuming-assets corporation as defined and governed by this Act.

(18) To permit a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act to have its business and affairs managed by its shareholders rather than by a board of directors.

(19) To permit a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act whose business and affairs are managed by its shareholders as permitted by this Act to have its business and affairs managed by a board of directors.

(20) To adopt or remove a provision granting to any shareholder of a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act, or to the holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of shares of such corporation, an option to have the close corporation dissolved as permitted by this Act.

C. The articles of incorporation shall not be amended so as to reduce the aggregate stated capital of the corporation to a sum less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

Art. 4.02. Procedure to Amend Articles of Incorporation

A. The articles of incorporation may be amended in the following manner:

- (1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and, if shares have been issued, directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. If no shares have been issued, the amendment shall be adopted by resolution of the board of directors and the provisions for adoption by shareholders shall not apply. The resolution may incorporate the proposed amendment in restated articles of incorporation which contain a statement that except for the designated amendment the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the corresponding provisions of the articles of incorporation as heretofore amended, and that the restated articles of incorporation together with the designated amendment supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

(2) Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders. If the meeting be an annual meeting, the proposed amendment or such summary may be included in the notice of such annual meeting.

(3) At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon shall be taken on the proposed amendment. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares within each class of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon as a class and of at least two-thirds of the total outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon.

B. Any number of amendments may be submitted to the shareholders, and voted upon by them, at one meeting.

C. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1507, ch. 545, § 32.

Art. 4.03. Class Voting on Amendments

A. The holders of the outstanding shares of any class entitled to vote upon a proposed amendment by the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall be entitled to vote as a class thereon if the amendment would change the shares of any class having a par value into the same or a different number of shares without par value, or would change the shares of any class without par value into the same or a different number of shares having a par value, or would change the shares of any class, whether with or without par value, into a different number of shares of the same class.

B. The holders of the outstanding shares of a class shall be entitled to vote as a class upon a proposed amendment, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, if the amendment would:

- (1) Increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of such class.
- (2) Increase or decrease the par value of the shares of such class.
- (3) Effect an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of all or part of the shares of such class.

(4) Effect an exchange, or create a right of exchange, of all or any part of the shares of another class into the shares of such class.

(5) Change the designations, preferences, limitations, or relative rights of the shares of such class.

(6) Change the shares of such class, whether with or without par value, into the same or a different number of shares, either with or without par value, of the same class or another class or classes.

(7) Create a new class of shares having rights and preferences equal, prior, or superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights and preferences equal, prior, or superior to the shares of such class, or increase the rights and preferences of any class having rights or preferences later or inferior to the shares of such class in such a manner as to become equal, prior, or superior to the shares of such class.

(8) In case of a preferred or special class of shares, divide the shares of such class into series and fix and determine the designation of such series and the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the shares of such series.

(9) Limit or deny the existing preemptive rights of the shares of such class.

(10) Cancel or otherwise affect dividends on the shares of such class which had accrued but had not been declared.

(11) Permit a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act to have its business and affairs managed by its shareholders rather than by a board of directors.

(12) Permit a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act whose business and affairs are managed by its shareholders as permitted by this Act to have its business and affairs managed by a board of directors.

(13) To adopt or remove any provision granting to any shareholder of a close corporation as defined and governed by this Act, or to the holders of any specified number or percentage of shares of any class of shares of such corporation, an option to have the close corporation dissolved as permitted by this Act.

C. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1507, ch. 545, § 32.

Art. 4.04. Articles of Amendment

A. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) If the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added.

(3) The date of the adoption of the amendment by the shareholders, or by the board of directors where no shares have been issued.

(4) The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote on the amendment, and if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon of each such class.

(5) The number of shares voted for and against the amendment, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote thereon as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the amendment, respectively, or if no shares have been issued a statement to that effect.

(6) If the amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification or cancellation of issued shares, and if the manner in which the same shall be effected is not set forth in the amendment, then a statement of the manner in which the same shall be effected.

(7) If the amendment effects a change in the amount of stated capital, then a statement of the manner in which the same is effected and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital as changed by the amendment.

B. Repealed by Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1507, ch. 545, § 34.

Art. 4.05. Filing of Articles of Amendment

A. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of amendment, together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 4.06. Effect of Certificate of Amendment

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Secretary of State, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

B. No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Art. 4.07. Restated Articles of Incorporation

A. A corporation may, by following the procedure to amend the articles of incorporation provided by this Act (except that no shareholder approval shall be required where no amendment is made), authorize, execute, and file restated articles of incorporation which may restate either:

(1) The entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State; or

(2) The entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State, and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation.

B. If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendments previously issued by the Secretary of State, without making any further amendment thereof, the introductory paragraph shall contain a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and that the instrument contains no change in any provision thereof; provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the name and address of each incorporator may be omitted.

C. If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendments previously issued by the Secretary of State, and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation, the instrument containing such articles shall:

(1) Set forth, for any amendment made by such restated articles of incorporation, a statement that each such amendment has been ef-fectured in conformity with the provisions of this Act, and shall further set forth the statements required by this Act to be contained in articles of amendment.

(2) Contains a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation and that the instrument contains no other change in any provision thereof; provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of each incorporator may be omitted.

(3) Restate the text of the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State and as further amended by the restated articles of incorporation.

D. Such restated articles of incorporation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles. Duplicate originals of the restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the restated articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a restated certificate of incorporation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

E. The restated certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the restated articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

F. Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the Secretary of State, the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto shall be superseded and the restated articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the corporation.

Art. 4.08. Procedure for Redemption

A. A corporation may at any time, subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, proceed, by resolution of its board of directors, to redeem any or all outstanding shares subject to redemption. If less than all such shares are to be redeemed, the shares to be redeemed shall be selected for redemption in accordance with the provisions in the articles of incorporation, or, in the absence of such provisions therein, may be selected ratably or by lot in such manner as may be prescribed by resolution of the board of directors. Such redemption shall be effected by call and written or printed notice in the following manner:

(1) The notice of redemption of such shares shall set forth:

(a) The class or series of shares or part of any class or series of shares to be redeemed.

(b) The date fixed for redemption.

(c) The redemptive price.

(d) The place at which the shareholders may obtain payment of the redemptive price upon surrender of their respective share certificates.

(2) The notice shall be given to each holder of redeemable shares being called, either personally or by mail, not less than twenty (20) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date fixed for redemption. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the shareholder at his address as it appears on the stock transfer book of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

B. A corporation may, on or prior to the date fixed for redemption of redeemable shares, deposit with any bank or trust company in this State, or any bank or trust company in the United States duly appointed and acting as transfer agent for such corporation, as a trust fund, a sum sufficient to redeem shares called for redemption, with irrevocable instructions and authority to such bank or trust company to give or complete the notice of redemption thereof and to pay, on or after the date fixed for such redemption, to the respective holders of shares, as evidenced by a list of holders of such shares certified by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, the redemptive price upon the surrender of their respective share certificates. Thereafter, from and after the date fixed for redemption, such shares shall be deemed to be redeemed and dividends thereon shall cease to accrue after such date fixed for redemption. Such deposit shall be deemed to constitute full payment of such shares to their holders. Thereafter, such shares shall no longer be deemed to be outstanding, and the holders thereof shall cease to be shareholders with respect to such shares, and shall have no rights with respect thereto except the right to receive from the bank or trust company payment of the redemptive price of such shares without interest, upon the surrender of their respective certificates therefor, and any right to convert such shares which may exist. In case the holders of such shares shall not, within six (6) years after such deposit, claim the amount deposited for redemption thereof, such bank or trust company shall upon demand pay over to the corporation the balance of such amount so deposited to be held in trust and such bank or trust company shall thereupon be relieved of all responsibility to the holders thereof.

Art. 4.09. Restrictions on Redemption or Purchase of Redeemable Shares

A. Irrespective of any provisions in the articles of incorporation of a corporation respecting the purchase or redemption of redeemable shares, shares shall be redeemable only if they have a liquidation preference, and no redemption or purchase of redeemable shares shall be made by a corporation:

(1) At a price exceeding the redemptive price thereof.

(2) When there is a reasonable ground for believing that such redemption or purchase will render the corporation unable to satisfy its debts and liabilities when they fall due.

(3) Which would reduce the net assets below the aggregate amount payable to the holders of shares having prior or equal rights to the assets of the corporation upon voluntary dissolution.

(4) Which would involve paying any shareholder more than the stated capital represented by the shares redeemed, unless the excess shall be paid out of a surplus of the corporation.

(5) Which would reduce the aggregate stated capital to a sum less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

Art. 4.10. Reduction of Stated Capital by Redemption or Purchase of Redeemable Shares

A. When redeemable shares of a corporation are redeemed or purchased by the corporation, the redemption or purchase shall effect a cancellation of such shares, and a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this Article. Thereupon such shares shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares, unless the articles of incorporation provide that such shares when redeemed or purchased shall not be reissued, in which case the filing of the statement of cancellation shall operate as an amendment to the articles of incorporation and shall reduce the number of shares of the class so cancelled which the corporation is authorized to issue by the number of shares so cancelled. If the shares so redeemed and purchased constitute all the outstanding shares of any particular class of shares and if the articles of incorporation provide that the shares of such class when redeemed and repurchased shall not be reissued, the filing of the statement of cancellation shall operate as an amendment to the articles of incorporation by eliminating therefrom all reference to such class of shares and shall reduce the classes of shares which the corporation is authorized to issue accordingly.

B. The statement of cancellation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The number of redeemable shares cancelled through the redemption or purchase, itemized by classes and series.

(3) The aggregate number of issued shares, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.

(4) The amount, expressed in dollars, of the stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such cancellation.

(5) If the articles of incorporation provide that the cancelled shares shall not be reissued, then the number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes and series, after giving effect to such cancellation.

C. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

D. The filing of the statement of cancellation shall effect a reduction of the stated capital of the corporation by an amount equal to that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of the cancellation, represented by the shares so cancelled.

E. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to forbid a cancellation of shares or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by law.

Art. 4.11. Cancellation of Treasury Shares

A. A corporation may, at any time, by resolution of its board of directors, cancel all or any part of its treasury shares, and in such event a statement of cancellation shall be filed as provided in this Article.

B. The statement of cancellation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, shall be verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) A statement that a resolution has been duly adopted by the board of directors authorizing the cancellation, the date of adoption of such resolution, and a summary of its contents, including a statement of the number of treasury shares to be cancelled, itemized by classes and series, and the amount of stated capital represented by the shares to be cancelled.

(3) The aggregate number of shares, itemized by classes and series and par value, if any, which are to retain the status of issued shares after the cancellation becomes effective.

(4) The amount, expressed in dollars, which is to constitute the stated capital of the corporation after the cancellation becomes effective.

C. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

D. Upon the filing of such statement of cancellation, the stated capital of the corporation shall be deemed to be reduced by that part of the stated capital which was, at the time of such cancellation, represented by the shares so cancelled, and the shares so cancelled shall be restored to the status of authorized but unissued shares.

E. Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to forbid a cancellation of shares or a reduction of stated capital in any other manner permitted by law.

Art. 4.12. Reduction of Stated Capital without Amendment of Articles and without Cancellation of Shares

A. If all or part of the stated capital of a corporation is represented by shares without par value, the stated capital of the corporation may be reduced in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the amount of the proposed reduction and the manner in which the reduction shall be effected, and directing that the question of such reduction be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice, stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the question of reducing the stated capital of the corporation in the amount and manner proposed by the board of directors, shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote thereon within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders.

(3) At the meeting for which such notice has been given, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the shares entitled to vote on the question shall be required for approval of the resolution proposing the reduction of stated capital.

B. When a reduction of the stated capital of a corporation has been approved as provided in this Article, a statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) A copy of the resolution of the shareholders approving such reduction, and the date of its adoption.

(3) The number of shares outstanding, and the number of shares entitled to vote on the resolution.

(4) The number of shares voted for and against such reduction, respectively.

(5) A statement of the manner in which such reduction is effected, and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation after giving effect to such reduction.

C. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other duplicate original to the Corporation or its representative.

D. Upon the filing of such statement, the stated capital of the corporation shall be reduced as therein set forth.

E. No reduction of stated capital shall be made under the provisions of this Article which would reduce the amount of the aggregate stated capital of the corporation to an amount equal to or less than the aggregate preferential amounts payable upon all issued shares having a preferential right in the assets of the corporation in the event of voluntary liquidation, plus the aggregate par value of all issued shares having a par value but no preferential right in the assets of the corporation in the event of voluntary liquidation. In no event shall the aggregate stated capital of the corporation be reduced to a sum less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00). [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 4.13. Special Provisions Relating to Surplus and Reserves

A. The surplus created by any reduction of the stated capital of a corporation, such reduction being accomplished by any of the methods permitted by this Act, shall be deemed to be reduction surplus.

B. A corporation may, by resolution of the board of directors, apply any part or all of its capital surplus or reduction surplus to the reduction or elimination of any deficit arising from losses, however incurred, but only after first eliminating the earned surplus, if any, of the corporation by applying such losses against earned surplus and only to the extent that such losses exceed the earned surplus, if any. Each such application of capital surplus or reduction surplus shall, to the extent thereof, effect a reduction of such surplus.

C. A corporation may, by resolution of its board of directors, create a reserve or reserves out of its earned surplus for any proper purpose or purposes, and may abolish any such reserve in the same manner. Earned surplus of the corporation to the extent so reserved shall not be available for the payment of dividends or other distributions by the corporation except as expressly permitted by law.

Art. 4.14. Amendment of Articles of Incorporation in Reorganization Proceedings

A. Whenever a plan of reorganization of a corporation has been confirmed by decree or order of a court of competent jurisdiction in proceedings for the reorganization of such corporation, pursuant to the provisions of any applicable statute of the United States relating to reorganizations of corporations, the articles of incorporation of the corporation may be amended, in the manner provided in this Article, in as many respects as may be necessary to carry out the plan and put it into effect, so long as the articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as might be lawfully contained in original articles of incorporation at the time of making such amendment.

B. In particular, and without limitation upon such general power of amendment, the articles of incorporation may be amended for such purpose so as to:

- (1) Change the corporate name, period of duration, or corporate purposes of the corporation.
- (2) Repeal, alter, or amend the bylaws of the corporation.
- (3) Change the aggregate number of shares, or shares of any class, which the corporation has authority to issue.
- (4) Change the preferences, limitations, and relative rights in respect of all or any part of the shares of the corporation, and classify, reclassify, or cancel all or any part thereof, whether issued or unissued.
- (5) Authorize the issuance of bonds, debentures, or other obligations of the corporation, whether or not convertible into shares of any class or bearing warrants or other evidences of optional rights to purchase or subscribe for shares of any class, and fix the terms and conditions thereof.

(6) Constitute or reconstitute and classify or reclassify the board of directors and officers in place of or in addition to all or any of the directors or officers then in office.

C. Amendments to the articles of incorporation pursuant to this Article shall be made in the following manner:

(1) Articles of amendment approved by decree or order of such court shall be executed and verified in duplicate by such person or persons as the court shall designate or appoint for the purpose, and shall set forth the name of the corporation, the amendments of the articles of incorporation approved by the court, the date of the decree or order approving the articles of amendment, the title of the proceedings in which the decree or order was entered, and a statement that such decree or order was entered by a court having jurisdiction of the proceedings for the reorganization of the corporation pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute of the United States.

(2) Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as prescribed by law:

(a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(c) Issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(3) The certificate of amendment, together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

D. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Secretary of State, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly, without any action thereon by the directors or shareholders of the corporation and with the same effect as if the amendments had been adopted by unanimous action of the directors and shareholders of the corporation.

PART FIVE

Art. 5.01. Procedure for Merger of Domestic Corporations

A. Any two or more domestic corporations may merge into one of such corporations pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner provided in this Act.

B. The board of directors of each corporation shall, by resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of merger setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporations proposing to merge.

(2) The name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

(3) The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

(4) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each merging corporation into shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation, and, if any shares of either merging corporation are not to be converted solely into shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation, the cash, property, shares, rights, other securities or obligations of any other corporation which the holders of such shares are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of, such shares and the surrender of the certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, shares, rights, other securities or obligations of any other corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the surviving corporation.

(5) A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

(6) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Art. 5.02. Procedure for Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this Act.

B. The board of directors of each corporation shall, by a resolution adopted by each such board, approve a plan of consolidation setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate.

(2) The name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.

(3) The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

(4) The manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the new corporation, and, if any shares of either corporation are not to be converted solely into shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the new corporation, the cash, property, shares, rights, other securities or obligations of any other corporation which the holders of such shares are to receive in exchange for, or upon conversion of, such shares and the surrender of the certificates evidencing them, which cash, property, shares, rights, other securities or obligations of any other corporation may be in addition to or in lieu of shares, rights, other securities or obligations of the new corporation.

(5) With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this Act.

(6) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Art. 5.03. Approval by Shareholders of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. The board of directors of each domestic corporation, upon approving a plan of merger or plan of consolidation, shall, by resolution, direct that the plan be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, not less than twenty (20) days before such meeting, in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and shall state the purpose of the meeting whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting. A copy or a summary of the plan of merger or plan of consolidation, as the case may be, shall be included in or enclosed with such notice.

B. At each such meeting, a vote of the shareholders shall be taken on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation. Each outstanding share of each such corporation shall be entitled to vote on the proposed plan of merger or consolidation, whether or not such share has voting rights under the provisions of the articles of incorporation of such corporation. The plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each such corporation, unless any class of shares of any such corporation is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event, as to such corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be approved upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares within each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon as well as of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares. Any class of shares of any such corporation shall be entitled to vote as a class if the plan of merger or consolidation, as the case may be, contains any provision which, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would entitle such class of shares to vote as a class.

C. After such approval by vote of the shareholders of each corporation, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of the merger or consolidation.

Art. 5.04. Articles of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Upon the required approval by the shareholders of two or more corporations of a plan of merger or consolidation, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed in duplicate by each corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, verified by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.

(2) As to each corporation, the number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

(3) As to each corporation, the number of shares voted for and against such plan, respectively, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against such plan, respectively.

B. Duplicate originals of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one (1) of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

C. The certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, or its representative.

Art. 5.05. Effective Date of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the Secretary of State, the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations shall be effected.

Art. 5.06. Effect of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. When such merger or consolidation of domestic corporations has been effected:

(1) The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of a consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

(2) The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

(3) Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities, and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this Act.

(4) Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, including subscriptions to shares, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed.

(5) Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporations shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

(6) In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or are permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this Act shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

(7) Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1729, ch. 657, § 19, eff. June 17, 1967.

Art. 5.07. Merger or Consolidation of Domestic and Foreign Corporations

A. One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the State under which each such foreign corporation is organized. In the case of merger, the surviving corporation may be any one of the constituent corporations and shall be deemed to continue to exist under the laws of the state of its incorporation. In the case of consolidation, the new corporation may be a corporation organized under the laws of any state under which any of the constituent corporations was organized.

B. Such merger or consolidation shall be carried out in the following manner:

(1) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations, except that if the surviving or new corporation is to be a foreign corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall specify the state under whose laws such surviving or new corporation is to be governed and the address, including street and number, if any, of the registered or principal office of such surviving or new corporation in the state under whose laws it is to be governed; provided that no domestic corporation shall be merged or consolidated with a foreign corporation unless and until a resolution authorizing such merger or consolidation shall be adopted upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the domestic corporation cast at a meeting called and conducted in the same manner as provided by Article 5.03 of this Act.

(2) Each foreign corporation, if it is to transact business in this State, shall file with the Secretary of State of this State within thirty (30) days after the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, shall become effective, a copy of the plan, articles, or other document filed in the State of its incorporation for the purpose of effecting the merger or consolidation, certified by the public officer having custody of the original.

(3) If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is a foreign corporation, it shall comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this State, and in every case it shall file with the Secretary of State of this State:

(a) An agreement that it may be served with process in this State in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which was a party to such merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights of a dissenting shareholder of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation.

(b) An irrevocable appointment of the Secretary of State of this State as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding.

(c) An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this Act with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders.

(4) Upon compliance by each domestic and foreign corporation which is a party to the merger or consolidation with the provisions of this Act with respect to merger or consolidation, and upon issuance by the Secretary of State of this State of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation provided for in this Act, the merger or consolidation shall be effected in this State.

C. The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is a domestic corporation. If the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except in so far as the laws of such other state provide otherwise. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1720, ch. 657, § 10, eff. June 17, 1967.]

Art. 5.08. Conveyance by Corporation

A. Any corporation may convey land by deed, with or without the seal of the corporation, signed by the president or a vice president or attorney in fact of the corporation when authorized by appropriate resolution of the board of directors or shareholders. Such deed, when acknowledged by such officer or attorney in fact to be the act of the corporation, or proved in the manner prescribed for other conveyances of lands, may be recorded in like manner and with the same effect as other deeds. Any such deed when recorded, if signed by the president or any vice president of the corporation, shall constitute prima facie evidence that such resolution of the board of directors or shareholders was duly adopted. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 5.09. Disposition of Assets Authorized by Board of Directors

A. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation and except as provided in the next sentence of this section, the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, when made in the usual and regular course of the business of the corporation, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such considerations, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors, without authorization or consent of the shareholders. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors may authorize any pledge, mortgage, deed of trust or trust indenture and no authorization or consent of the shareholders shall be required for the validity thereof or for any sale pursuant to the terms thereof.

Art. 5.10. Disposition of Assets Requiring Special Authorization of Shareholders

A. A sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition (not including any pledge, mortgage, deed of trust or trust indenture unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation) of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without the good will of a corporation, if not made in the usual and regular course of its business, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any corporation, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided for in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or a special meeting shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition.

(3) At such meeting, the shareholders may authorize such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation. Such authorization shall require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, and, in the event any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, such authorization shall require in addition the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon.

(4) After such authorization by vote of shareholders, the board of directors, nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by shareholders.

Art. 5.11. Rights of Dissenting Shareholders in the Event of Certain Corporate Actions

A. Any shareholder of a domestic corporation shall have the right to dissent from any of the following actions:

(1) Any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party;

(2) Any sale, lease, exchange or other disposition (not including any pledge, mortgage, deed of trust or trust indenture unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation) of all, or substantially all, the property and assets, with or without good will, of a corporation requiring the special authorization of the shareholders as provided by this Act.

Art. 5.12. Procedure for Dissent by Shareholders as to Said Corporate Actions

A. In case any shareholder of any domestic corporation lawfully elects to exercise his right to dissent from any of the corporate actions referred to in the last preceding Article hereof, the following procedure shall be followed:

(1) Such shareholder shall file with the corporation, prior to the taking of the vote of shareholders on the proposed corporate action, a written objection to such proposed corporate action, setting out that his right to dissent will be exercised if such action is effective and giving his address, to which notice thereof shall be delivered or mailed in such event. If such corporate action be effected and such shareholder shall not have voted in favor thereof, the corporation shall, within ten (10) days after such corporate action is effected deliver or mail to such shareholder written notice thereof, and such shareholder may, within ten (10) days from the delivery or mailing of such notice, make written demand on the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of his shares. The fair value of such shares shall be the value thereof as of the day before the vote was taken authorizing such corporate action, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such proposed act. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by the dissenting shareholder and the fair value of such shares as estimated by him. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the ten (10) day period shall be bound by such corporate action.

(2) Within twenty (20) days after receipt by the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, of a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares made by such dissenting shareholder in accordance with Subsection (1) hereof, such corporation shall deliver or mail to such dissenting shareholder a written notice which shall either set out that the corporation accepts the amount claimed in such demand and agrees to pay such amount within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed, or shall contain an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of such shares, together with an offer to pay the amount of such estimate within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon receipt of notice within sixty (60) days after such date from such shareholder that he agrees to accept such amount upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed.

(3) If, within sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, payment therefor shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

B. If, within such period of sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, the shareholder and the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder or the corporation may, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares. Upon the filing of any such petition by a shareholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the corporation, which shall, within ten (10) days after such service, file in the office of the clerk of the court in which such petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all shareholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The clerk of the court shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered mail to the corporation and to the shareholders shown upon such list at the addresses therein stated. The forms of the notices by mail shall be approved by the court. All shareholders thus notified and the corporation shall thereafter be bound by the final judgment of the court.

C. After the hearing of such petition, the court shall determine the shareholders who have complied with the provisions of this Article and have become entitled to the valuation of and payment for their shares, and shall appoint one or more qualified appraisers to determine such value. Such appraisers shall have power to examine any of the books and records of the corporation the shares of which they are charged with the duty of valuing, and they shall make a determination of the fair value of the shares upon such investigation as to them may seem proper. The appraisers shall also afford a reasonable opportunity to the parties interested to submit to them pertinent evidence as to the value of the shares. The appraisers shall also have such power and authority as may be conferred on Masters in Chancery by the Rules of Civil Procedure or by the order of their appointment.

D. The appraisers shall determine the fair value of the shares of the shareholders adjudged by the court to be entitled to payment therefor and shall file their report respecting such value in the office of the clerk of the court, and notice of the filing of such report shall be given by the clerk to the parties in interest. Such report shall be subject to exceptions to be heard before the court both upon the law and the facts. The court shall by its judgment determine the fair value of the shares of the shareholders entitled to payment therefor and shall direct the payment of such value by the existing, surviving, or new corporation, together with interest thereon, to the date of such judgment, to the shareholders entitled thereto. The judgment shall be payable only upon, and simultaneously with, the surrender to the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, of the certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholders shall cease to have any interest in such shares, or in the corporation. The court shall allow the appraisers a reasonable fee as court costs and all court costs shall be allotted between the parties in such manner as the court shall determine to be fair and equitable.

E. Shares acquired by the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, pursuant to the payment of the agreed value thereof or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this Article provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares.

F. The provisions of this Article shall not apply to a merger if, on the date of the filing of the articles of merger, the surviving corporation is the owner of all the outstanding shares of the other corporations, domestic or foreign, that are parties to the merger.

G. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the remedy provided by this Article to a shareholder objecting to any corporate action referred to in Article 5.11 of this Act is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action; and if the existing, surviving, or new corporation, as the case may be, complies with the requirements of this Article, any such shareholder who fails to comply with the requirements of this Article shall not be entitled to bring suit for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action.

Art. 5.13. Provisions Affecting Remedies of Dissenting Shareholders

A. Any shareholder who has demanded payment for his shares in accordance with Article 5.12 shall not thereafter be entitled to vote or exercise any other rights of a shareholder except the right to receive payment for his shares pursuant to the provisions of said Article 5.12 and the right to maintain an appropriate action to obtain relief on the ground that the corporate action would be or was fraudulent, and the respective shares for which payment has been demanded shall not thereafter be considered outstanding for the purposes of any subsequent vote of shareholders.

B. Within twenty (20) days after demanding payment for his shares in accordance with Article 5.12, each shareholder so demanding payment shall submit the certificate or certificates representing his shares to the corporation for notation thereon that such demand has been made. His failure so to do shall, at the option of the corporation, terminate his rights under Article 5.12 unless a court of competent jurisdiction for good and sufficient cause shown shall otherwise direct. If shares represented by a certificate on which notation has been so made shall be transferred, each new certificate issued therefor shall bear similar notation together with the name of the original dissenting holder of such shares and a transferee of such shares shall acquire by such transfer no rights in the corporation other than those which the original dissenting shareholder had after making demand for payment of the fair value thereof.

C. Any shareholder who has demanded payment for his shares in accordance with Article 5.12 may withdraw such demand at any time before payment for his shares or before any petition has been filed pursuant to Article 5.12 asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares, but no such demand may be withdrawn after such payment has been made or, unless the corporation shall consent thereto, after any such petition has been filed. If, however, such demand shall be withdrawn as hereinbefore provided, or if pursuant to Section B of this Article the corporation shall terminate the shareholder's rights under Article 5.12, or if no petition asking for a finding and determination of fair value of such shares by a court shall have been filed within the time provided in Article 5.12, or if after the hearing of a petition filed pursuant to Article 5.12, the court shall determine that such shareholder is not entitled to the relief provided by Article 5.12, then, in any such case, such shareholder and all persons claiming under him shall be conclusively presumed to have approved and ratified the corporate action from which he dissented and shall be bound thereby, the right of such shareholder to be paid the fair value of his shares shall cease, and his status as a shareholder shall be restored without prejudice to any corporate proceedings which may have been taken during the interim, and such shareholder shall be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions made to shareholders in the interim.

Art. 5.14. Derivative Suits

Definitions

A. In this Article:

(1) A "derivative suit" is a suit brought in the right of a domestic or foreign corporation.

(2) "Expenses" are reasonable expenses, incurred in the defense of a derivative suit, including:

(a) Fees of attorneys, and

(b) Expenses for which a corporate defendant may be required to indemnify another defendant.

Prerequisites

B. A derivative suit may be brought in this State only if:

(1) The plaintiff was a record or beneficial owner of shares, or of an interest in a voting trust for shares, at the time of the transaction of which he complains, or his shares or interest thereafter devolved upon him by operation of law from a person who was such an owner at that time, and

(2) The initial pleading in the suit states:

(a) The ownership required by Subsection (1), and

(b) With particularity, the efforts of the plaintiff to have suit brought for the corporation by the board of directors, or the reasons for not making any such efforts.

Security for expenses

C. The court having jurisdiction in a derivative suit may, in its discretion, require the plaintiff or plaintiffs to give security for the expenses incurred or expected to be incurred by one or more of the defendants. The court may, in its discretion, at any time increase or decrease the amount of the security on a showing that the security provided is then inadequate or excessive.

Inability to give security

D. If plaintiff is unable to give security, he may file an affidavit in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and those rules shall control.

Failure to give security

E. If plaintiff fails to give the security within a reasonable time set by the court, the court shall (except as provided in Section D of this Article) dismiss the suit without prejudice.

Judgment for expenses

F. The court having jurisdiction in a derivative suit may, upon final judgment for one or more defendants and a finding that the suit was brought without reasonable cause against such defendants, require the plaintiff to pay expenses to such defendants, whether or not security has been required. Art. 5.16. Merger of Subsidiary or Subsidiaries into Parent Corporation

Qualifications

A. In any case in which at least ninety (90%) percent of the outstanding shares of each class of a corporation or corporations is owned by another corporation, and one of such corporations is a domestic corporation and the other or others are domestic corporations or foreign corporations organized under the laws of a jurisdiction which permit such a merger, the corporation having such share ownership may merge such other corporation or corporations into itself by executing, verifying and filing articles of merger in accordance with Section B of this Article.

Execution of articles; contents

B. The articles of merger shall be executed in duplicate by the parent corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the parent corporation, and the name or names of the subsidiary corporations and the respective jurisdiction under which each such corporation is organized.

(2) The number of outstanding shares of each class of each subsidiary corporation and the number of such shares of each class owned by the parent corporation.

(3) A copy of the resolution adopted by the board of directors of the parent corporation to so merge and the date of the adoption thereof. If the parent corporation does not own all the outstanding shares of each class of each subsidiary corporation party to the merger, the resolution shall state the terms and conditions of the merger, including the securities, cash or other property to be used, paid or delivered by the surviving corporation upon surrender of each share of the subsidiary corporation or corporations not owned by the parent corporation.

(4) If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation, the address, including street number if any, of its registered or principal office in the jurisdiction under whose laws it is governed. It shall comply also with the provisions of Article 5.07B(3) of this Act.

Delivery to secretary of state; duties

C. Duplicate originals of the articles of merger shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one (1) of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of merger to which he shall affix the other duplicate original and deliver them to the surviving corporation or its representative.

Effective date and effect

D. The effective date and the effect of such merger shall be the same as provided in Articles 5.05 and 5.06 of this Act if the surviving corporation is a domestic corporation. If the surviving corporation is a foreign corporation, the effective date and the effect of such merger shall be the same as in the case of the merger of domestic corporations except in so far as the laws of such other jurisdiction provide otherwise.

Remedy of minority shareholders

E. In the event all of the shares of a subsidiary domestic corporation party to a merger effected under this Article are not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, the surviving corporation shall, within ten (10) days after the effective date of the merger, mail to each shareholder of record of such subsidiary domestic corporation a copy of the articles of merger and notify him that the merger has become effective. In case any such shareholder elects to demand payment for his shares, the following procedure shall be followed:

(1) Such shareholder shall within twenty (20) days after the mailing of the notice and copy of the articles of merger make written demand on the surviving corporation, domestic or foreign, for payment of the fair value of his shares. The fair value of such shares shall be the value thereof as of the day before the effective date of the merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of such proposed act. Such demand shall state the number and class of the shares owned by the dissenting shareholder and the fair value of such shares as estimated by him. Any shareholder failing to make demand within the twenty (20) day period shall be bound by such corporate action.

(2) Within ten (10) days after receipt by the surviving corporation of a demand for payment of the fair value of his shares made by such dissenting shareholder in accordance with Subsection (1) hereof, such corporation shall deliver or mail to such dissenting shareholder a written notice which shall either set out that the corporation accepts the amount claimed in such demand and agrees to pay such amount within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed, or shall contain an estimate by the corporation of the fair value of such shares, together with an offer to pay the amount of such estimate within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporation action was effected, upon receipt of notice within sixty (60) days after such date from such shareholder that he agrees to accept such amount upon the surrender of the share certificates duly endorsed.

(3) If, within sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected the value of such shares is agreed upon between the dissenting shareholder and the surviving corporation, payment therefor shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, upon surrender of his certificate or certificates representing such shares. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder shall cease to have any interest in such shares or in the corporation.

(4) If, within such period of sixty (60) days after the date on which such corporate action was effected, the shareholder and the surviving corporation do not so agree, then the dissenting shareholder or the corporation may, within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the sixty (60) day period, file a petition in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the corporation is located, asking for a finding and determination of the fair value of such shares as provided in Section B of Article 5.12 of this Act and thereupon the parties shall have the rights and duties and follow the procedure set forth in Sections B to D inclusive of Article 5.12 and set forth in Article 5.14.

(5) In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the remedy provided by this Article to a shareholder objecting to such corporate action is the exclusive remedy for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action; and if the surviving corporation complies with the requirements of this Article, any such shareholder who fails to comply with the requirements of this Article shall not be entitled to bring suit for the recovery of the value of his shares or money damages to such shareholder with respect to such corporate action.

Exemption from other articles

F. Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the provisions of Articles 5.11, 5.12 and 5.13 of this Act shall not be applicable to a merger effected under the provisions of this Article.
[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 844, ch. 280, § 1, eff. May 22, 1969.]

PART SIX

Art. 6.01. Voluntary Dissolution by Incorporators or Directors

A. A corporation which has not commenced business and which has not issued any shares, may be voluntarily dissolved by its incorporators or its directors at any time in the following manner:

(1) Articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by a majority of the incorporators or directors, and verified by them, and shall set forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation.
- (b) The date of issuance of its certificate of incorporation.
- (c) That none of its shares has been issued.
- (d) That the corporation has not commenced business.
- (e) That the amount, if any, actually paid on subscriptions for its shares, less any part thereof disbursed for necessary expenses, has been returned to those entitled thereto.
- (f) That no debts of the corporation remain unpaid.
- (g) That a majority of the incorporators elect that the corporation be dissolved.

(2) Duplicate originals of the articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, along with a certificate from the Comptroller of Public Accounts that all franchise taxes have been paid. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

- (a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.
- (b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(c) Issue a certificate of dissolution, to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(3) The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, the existence of the corporation shall cease.

Art. 6.02. Voluntary Dissolution by Consent of Shareholders

A. A corporation may be voluntarily dissolved by the written consent of all of its shareholders.

B. Upon the execution of such written consent and after compliance with other provisions of this Act, the corporation shall file articles of dissolution as provided in this Act.

Art. 6.03. Voluntary Dissolution by Act of Corporation

A. A corporation may be dissolved by the act of the corporation when authorized in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of shareholders, which may be either an annual or a special meeting.

(2) Written or printed notice shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of shareholders, and, whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation.

(3) At such meeting a vote of shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on a resolution to dissolve the corporation. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote as a class thereon, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon, as well as the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the total outstanding shares.

B. Upon the adoption of such resolution and after compliance with other provisions of this Act, the corporation shall file articles of dissolution as provided in this Act.

Art. 6.04. Procedure Before Filing Articles of Dissolution

A. Before filing articles of dissolution:

(1) The corporation shall cease to carry on its business, except insofar as may be necessary for the winding up thereof.

(2) The corporation shall cause written notice by registered mail of its intention to dissolve to be mailed to each known creditor of and claimant against the corporation.

(3) The corporation shall proceed to collect its assets, convey and dispose of such of its properties as are not to be distributed in kind to its shareholders, pay, satisfy, or discharge its liabilities and obligations, or make adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof, and do all other acts required to liquidate its business and affairs; in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy or discharge all the corporation's liabilities and obligations, the corporation shall apply them so far as they will go to the just and equitable payment of the liabilities and obligations. After paying or discharging all its obligations, or making adequate provision for payment and discharge thereof, the corporation shall then distribute the remainder of its assets, either in cash or in kind, among its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests.

(4) The corporation, at any time during the liquidation of its business and affairs, may make application to any district court of this State in the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated to have the liquidation continued under the supervision of such court as provided in this Act.

Art. 6.05. Revocation of Voluntary Dissolution Proceedings

A. At any time prior to the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, a corporation may revoke voluntary dissolution proceedings:

(1) By the written consent of all of its shareholders.

(2) By the act of the corporation in the following manner:

(a) The board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the question of such revocation be submitted to a vote at a special meeting of shareholders.

(b) Written or printed notice, stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings, shall be given to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of special meetings of shareholders.

(c) At such meeting a vote of the shareholders entitled to vote thereat shall be taken on a resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings. Each outstanding share of the corporation shall be entitled to vote thereon, whether or not entitled to vote thereon by the provisions of the articles of incorporation. Such resolution shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation, unless any class of shares is entitled to vote thereon as a class, in which event the resolution shall require for its adoption the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of each class of shares entitled to vote as a class thereon, as well as two-thirds of the total outstanding shares.

B. Upon the revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings, whether by consent of shareholders or by act of the corporation, the corporation may again carry on its business.

Art. 6.06. Articles of Dissolution

A. If voluntary dissolution proceedings have not been revoked, then, when all liabilities and obligations of the corporation have been paid or discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, or in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the corporation's liabilities and obligations, then when all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to the just and equitable payment of the corporation's liabilities and obligations, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed to its shareholders according to their respective rights and interests, articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The names and respective addresses of its officers.
- (3) The names and respective addresses of its directors.
- (4) That all debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation have been paid or discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor, or, in case the corporation's property and assets were not sufficient to satisfy and discharge all its liabilities and obligations, that all property and assets have been applied so far as they would go to the payment thereof in a just and equitable manner and that no property or assets remained available for distribution among its shareholders.

(5) That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been distributed among its shareholders in accordance with their respective rights and interests or that no property remained for distribution to shareholders after applying it as far as it would go to the just and equitable payment of the liabilities and obligations of the corporation.

(6) That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order, or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit.

(7) If the corporation elected to dissolve by written consent of all shareholders:

(a) A copy of the written consent to dissolve, and a statement that such written consent has been signed by all shareholders of the corporation or signed in their names by their attorneys thereunto duly authorized.

(8) If the corporation elected to dissolve by act of the corporation:

(a) A copy of the resolution to dissolve, and a statement that such resolution was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation and the date of the adoption thereof.

(b) The number of shares outstanding, and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the designation and number of outstanding shares of each such class.

(c) The number of shares voted for and against such resolution respectively and, if the shares of any class are entitled to vote as a class, the number of shares of each such class voted for and against the resolution respectively.

Art. 6.07. Filing Articles of Dissolution

A. Duplicate originals of such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, along with a certificate from the Comptroller of Public Accounts that all franchise taxes have been paid. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

- (1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of dissolution to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the representative of the dissolved corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by shareholders, directors and officers as provided by the laws of this State.

Arts. 6.08 to 6.12. Omitted

Part 6 of the Texas Business Corporation Act, Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64, consisting of articles 6.01 to 6.12 was amended by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1727, ch. 657, § 14 to consist of articles 6.01 to 6.07, as set out, ante.

PART SEVEN

Art. 7.01. Involuntary Dissolution

A. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated or of any district court in Travis County in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation or its incorporators have failed to comply with a condition precedent to incorporation; or

(2) The original articles of incorporation or any amendments thereof were procured through fraud; or

(3) The corporation has continued to transact business beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation; or

(4) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this Act.

B. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the Secretary of State when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation has failed to file any report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, franchise taxes or penalties prescribed by law when the same have become due and payable; or

(2) The corporation has failed to maintain a registered agent in this state as required by law.

C. No corporation shall be involuntarily dissolved under Section B hereof unless the Secretary of State, or other state agency with which such report, fees, taxes, or penalties is required to be made, gives the corporation not less than 90 days notice of its neglect, delinquency, or omission by certified mail addressed to its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation, and the corporation has failed prior to such involuntary dissolution to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency.

D. Whenever a corporation has given cause for involuntary dissolution and has failed to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency as provided in Sections B and C, the Secretary of State shall thereupon dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of involuntary dissolution, which shall include the fact of such involuntary dissolution and the date and cause thereof. The original of such certificate shall be placed in his office and a copy thereof mailed to the corporation at its registered office, or to its principal place of business, or the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of involuntary dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for purposes otherwise provided by law.

E. Any corporation dissolved by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Section B of this article may be reinstated by the Secretary of State at any time within a period of 12 months from the date of such dissolution, upon approval of an application for reinstatement signed by an officer or director of the dissolved corporation. Such application shall be filed by the Secretary of State whenever it is established to his satisfaction that in fact there was no cause for the dissolution, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in dissolution has been corrected and payment of all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the dissolution plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of dissolution to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation not been dissolved. A reinstatement filing fee of $50 shall accompany the application for reinstatement.

Reinstatement shall not be authorized if the corporate name is the same as or deceptively similar to a corporate name already on file or reserved or registered, unless the corporation being reinstated contemporaneously amends the articles of incorporation to change its name.

When the application for reinstatement is approved and filed by the Secretary of State, the corporate existence shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from the date of dissolution except the reinstatement shall have no effect upon any issue of personal liability of the directors, officers, or agents of the corporation during the period between dissolution and reinstatement.

F. When a corporation is convicted of a felony or when a high managerial agent is convicted of a felony in the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, the Attorney General may file an action to involuntarily dissolve the corporation in a district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated or in a district court of Travis County. The court may dissolve the corporation involuntarily if it is established that:

(1) The corporation, or a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the corporation, has engaged in a persistent course of felonious conduct; and

(2) To prevent future felonious conduct of the same character, the public interest requires such dissolution.

G. Article 7.02 of this Act does not apply to Section F of this article.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2484, ch. 835, § 3, eff. June 18, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 989, ch. 399, § 2(K), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 7.02. Notification to Attorney General, Notice to Corporation and Opportunity of Corporation to Cure Default

A. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Attorney General, from time to time, the names of all corporations which have given cause for judicial dissolution of their charters or revocation of their certificates of authority as provided in this Act, together with the facts pertinent thereto. Every such certificate from the Secretary of State to the Attorney General shall be taken and received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

B. Whenever the Secretary of State shall certify the name of any such corporation to the Attorney General as having given any cause for dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority, the Secretary of State shall concurrently mail to such corporation at its registered office in this State a notice that such certification has been made and the grounds therefor. A record of the date of mailing such notice shall be kept in the office of the Secretary of State, and a certificate by the Secretary of State that such notice was mailed as indicated by such record shall be taken and received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

C. If at the expiration of thirty (30) days after the date of such mailing the corporation has not cured the defaults so certified by the Secretary of State, the Attorney General shall then file an action in the name of the State against such corporation for its dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority, as the case may be.

D. If, after any such action is filed but before judgment is pronounced in the district court, the corporation against whom such action has been filed shall cure its default and pay the costs of such action, the action shall abate.

E. If, after the issues made in any such action have been heard by the court trying same and it is found that the corporate defendant has been guilty of any default of such nature as to justify its dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority as provided in this Act, the court shall, without rendering or entering any judgment for a period of five (5) days pending the filing of an action upon a sworn application for stay of judgment as hereinafter provided, promptly pronounce its findings to such effect. If the corporation has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the defaults of which the corporation has been found guilty were neither willful nor the result of failure to take reasonable precautions and has procured a finding to such effect it may promptly make sworn application to the court for a stay of entry of judgment in order to allow the corporation reasonable opportunity to cure the defaults of which it has been found guilty. If the court is reasonably satisfied on the basis of the corporation's sworn application and any evidence heard in support of or opposed to the application that the corporation is able and intends in good faith to cure the defaults of which it has been found guilty and that such stay is not applied for without just cause, the court shall grant such application and stay entry of judgment for such time as in the discretion of the court is reasonably necessary to afford the corporation opportunity to cure such defaults if it acts with reasonable diligence, but in no event shall such stay be for more than sixty (60) days after the date of the pronouncement of the court's findings. If during such period of time as shall be allowed by the court the corporation shall cure its defaults and pay the costs of such action, the court shall then enter judgment dismissing the action. If the corporation does not satisfy the court that it has cured its default within said period of time, the court shall enter final judgment at the expiration thereof.

F. If the corporation does not make application for stay of such judgment but does appeal therefrom and the trial court's judgment is affirmed and if the appellate court is satisfied that the appeal was taken in good faith and not for purpose of delay or with no sufficient cause and further finds that the defaults of which the corporation has been adjudged guilty are capable of being cured, it shall, if the appealing corporation has so prayed, remand the case to the trial court with instructions to grant the corporation opportunity to cure such defaults, such cure to be accomplished within such time after issuance of the mandate as the appellate court shall determine but in no event more than sixty (60) days thereafter. If during such period of time as shall have been so allowed the corporation shall cure such defaults and pay all costs accrued in such action, the trial court shall then enter judgment dismissing such action. If the corporation does not satisfy the trial court that it has cured its defaults within such period of time, the judgment shall thereupon become final.

Art. 7.03. Venue and Process

A. Every action for the involuntary dissolution of a domestic corporation or revocation of the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be commenced by the Attorney General either in the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation in this State is situated, or in any district court of Travis County. Citation shall issue and be served as provided by law. If process is returned not found, the Attorney General shall cause publication to be made as in other civil cases in some newspaper published in the county where the registered office of the corporation in this State is situated, containing a notice of the pendency of such action, the title of the court, the title of the action, and the date on or after which default judgment may be entered. The Attorney General may include in one notice the name of any number of such corporations against which such actions are then pending in the same court. The Attorney General shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed to the corporation at its registered office in this State within ten days after the first publication thereof. The certificate of the Attorney General of the mailing of such notice shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Such notice shall be published at least once a week for two successive weeks, and the first publication thereof may begin at any time after the citation has been returned. Unless a corporation shall have been served with citation, no default judgment shall be taken against it earlier than thirty days after the first publication of such notice. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 7.04. Appointment of Receiver for Specific Corporate Assets

A. A receiver may be appointed by any court having jurisdiction of the subject matter for specific corporate assets located within the State, whether owned by a domestic or a foreign corporation, which are involved in litigation, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of a receiver to conserve such assets and to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if other remedies available either at law or in equity are determined by the court to be inadequate and only in the following instances:

(1) In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured.

(2) In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

(3) In any other actions where receivers for specific assets have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

B. The court appointing such receiver shall have and retain exclusive jurisdiction over the specific assets placed in receivership and shall determine the rights of the parties in these assets or their proceeds. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 239, ch. 64.]

Art. 7.05. Appointment of Receiver to Rehabilitate Corporation

A. A receiver may be appointed for the assets and business of a corporation by the district court for the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of a receiver to conserve the assets and business of the corporation and to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if all other remedies available either at law or in equity, including the appointment of a receiver for specific assets of the corporation, are determined by the court to be inadequate, and only in the following instances:

(1) In an action by a shareholder when it is established:

(a) That the corporation is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency; or

(b) That the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof; or

(c) That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; or

(d) That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

(e) That the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power, and have failed, for a period which includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired or would have expired upon the election and qualification of their successors.

(2) In an action by a creditor when it is established:

(a) That the corporation is insolvent and the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon returned unsatisfied; or

(b) That the corporation is insolvent and the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing.

(3) In any other actions where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

B. In the event that the condition of the corporation necessitating such an appointment of a receiver is remedied, the receivership shall be terminated forthwith and the management of the corporation shall be restored to the directors and officers, the receiver being directed to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining properties and assets.

Section 2 of the Act 1961, 57th Leg., p. 319, ch. 169 provides: "The fact that the present law in this state authorizing the appointment of receivers where the shareholders of a corporation are deadlocked in voting power and are unable to elect directors is vague, uncertain and indefinite; and the fact that the foregoing amendment would correct such situation by bringing the Texas Business Corporation Act into conformity with the modern business corporation acts of other states as well as the Model Business Corporation Act promulgated by the Committee on Corporate Laws of the American Bar Association, upon which Model Business Corporation Act, the Texas Business Corporation Act is largely patterned, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring that bills be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and said Rule is hereby suspended; and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Art. 7.06. Jurisdiction of Court to Liquidate Assets and Business of Corporation and Receiverships Therefor

A. The district court for the county in which the registered office of a corporation is located may order the liquidation of the assets and business of the corporation and may appoint a receiver to effect such liquidation, whenever circumstances demand liquidation in order to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if all other remedies available either at law or in equity, including the appointment of a receiver of specific assets of the corporation and appointment of a receiver to rehabilitate the corporation, are determined by the court to be inadequate and only in the following instances:

(1) When an action has been filed by the Attorney General, as provided in this Act, to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its business and affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

(2) Upon application by a corporation to have its liquidation continued under the supervision of the court.

(3) If the corporation is in receivership and no plan for remedying the condition of the corporation requiring appointment of the receiver, which the court finds to be feasible, has been presented within twelve (12) months after the appointment of the receiver.

(4) Upon application of any creditor if it is established that irreparable damage will ensue to the unsecured creditors of the corporation, generally, as a class, unless there be an immediate liquidation of the assets of the corporation.

B. In the event the condition of the corporation necessitating the appointment of a receiver is remedied, the receivership shall be terminated forthwith and the management of the corporation shall be restored to the directors and officers, the receiver being directed to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining properties and assets.

Art. 7.07. Qualifications, Powers, and Duties of Receivers; Other Provisions Relating to Receiverships

A. No receiver shall be appointed for any corporation to which this Act applies or for any of its assets or for its business except as provided for and on the conditions set forth in this Act. A receiver shall in all cases be a citizen of the United States or a corporation authorized to act as receiver, which corporation may be a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, and shall in all cases give such bond as the court may direct with such sureties as the court may require.

B. A receiver appointed by authority of this Act shall have authority to sue and be sued in all courts in his own name and shall have those powers and duties provided by laws of general applicability relating to receivers and in addition thereto may be accorded such other powers and duties as the court shall deem appropriate to accomplish the objectives for which the receiver was appointed. Such additional and unusual powers and duties shall be stated in the order appointing the receiver and may be increased or diminished at any time during the proceedings.

C. In proceedings involving any receivership of the assets or business of a corporation, the court may require all creditors of the corporation to file with the clerk of the court or with the receiver, in such form as the court may prescribe, proofs of their respective claims under oath. If the court requires the filing of claims, it shall fix a date as the last day for the filing thereof, which shall be not less than four months from the date of the order, and shall prescribe the notice that shall be given to creditors and claimants of the date so fixed. Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file proofs of claim on or before the date fixed therefor may be barred, by order of court (unless presenting to the court a justifiable excuse for delay in the filing), from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation; but no discharge shall be decreed or effected.

D. The court shall have power from time to time to make allowances to the receiver or receivers and to attorneys in the proceeding, and to direct the payment thereof out of the assets of the corporation within the scope of the receivership or the proceeds of any sale or disposition of such assets.

E. A court authorized to appoint a receiver for a corporation to which this Act applies, and no other court in this State, shall be authorized to appoint a receiver for the corporation or its assets and business; when such a court does appoint a receiver, as authorized by this Act, for the corporation or its assets and business, that court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and all its properties, wherever situated.

F. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article or in this Act to the contrary, the district court for the county in which the registered office of any foreign corporation doing business in this State is located shall have jurisdiction to appoint an ancillary receiver for the assets and business of such corporation, to serve ancillary to the receiver for the assets and business of the corporation acting under orders of a court having jurisdiction to appoint such a receiver for the corporation, located in any other state, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of such ancillary receiver. Moreover, such district court, whenever circumstances exist deemed by it to require the appointment of a receiver for all the assets in and out of this State, and the business, of a foreign corporation doing business in this State, in accordance with the ordinary usages of equity, may appoint such a receiver for all its assets in and out of this State, and its business, even though no receiver has been appointed elsewhere; such receivership shall be converted into an ancillary receivership when deemed appropriate by such district court in the light of orders entered by a court of competent jurisdiction in some other State, providing for a receivership of all assets and business of such corporation.

Art. 7.08. Shareholders Not Necessary Parties Defendant to Receivership or Liquidation Proceedings

A. It shall not be necessary to make shareholders parties to any action or proceeding for a receivership or liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation unless relief is sought against them personally.

Art. 7.09. Decree of Involuntary Dissolution

A. In proceedings to liquidate the assets and business of a corporation, when the costs and expenses of such proceedings and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged and all of its remaining property and assets distributed to its shareholders, or, in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge such costs, expenses, debts, and obligations, when all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation, whereupon the existence of the corporation shall cease.

Art. 7.10. Filing of Decree of Dissolution

A. In any case in which the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the Secretary of State. No fee shall be charged by the Secretary of State for the filing thereof.

Art. 7.11. Deposit with State Treasurer of Amount Due Certain Shareholders and Creditors

A. Upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation, the portion of the assets distributable to a creditor or shareholder who is unknown or cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the State Treasurer, together with a statement giving the name of the person, if known, entitled to such fund, his last known address, the amount of his distributive portion, and such other information about such person as the State Treasurer may reasonably require, whereupon the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets shall be released and discharged from any further liability with respect to the funds so deposited. The State Treasurer shall issue his receipt for such fund and shall deposit same in a special account to be maintained by him.

B. On receipt of satisfactory written and verified proof of ownership or of right to such fund within seven (7) years from the date such fund was so deposited, the State Treasurer shall certify such fact to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, who shall issue proper warrant therefor drawn on the State Treasurer in favor of the person or persons then entitled thereto. If no claimant has made satisfactory proof of right to such fund within seven (7) years from the time of such deposit the State Treasurer shall then cause to be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County, Texas, a notice of the proposed escheat of such fund, giving the name of the creditor or shareholder apparently entitled thereto, his last known address, if any, the amount of the fund so deposited, and the name of the dissolved corporation from whose assets such fund was derived. If no claimant makes satisfactory proof of right to such fund within two months from the time of such publication, the fund so unclaimed shall thereupon automatically escheat to and become the property of the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas.

Art. 7.12. Survival of Remedy after Dissolution

A. The dissolution of a corporation either (1) by the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, or (2) by a decree of court when the court has not liquidated the assets and business of the corporation as provided in this Act, or (3) by expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its officers, directors, or shareholders, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within three years after the date of such dissolution. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors, and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right, or claim. If such corporation was dissolved by the expiration of its period of duration, such corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time during such period of three years so as to extend its period of duration.

PART EIGHT

Art. 8.01. Admission of Foreign Corporation

A. No foreign corporation shall have the right to transact business in this State until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the Secretary of State. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this Act to transact in this State any business which a corporation organized under this Act is not permitted to transact. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the State or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this State, and nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize this State to regulate the organization of such corporation, or its internal affairs not intrastate in Texas.

B. Without excluding other activities which may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be transacting business in this state, for the purposes of this Act, by reason of carrying on in this state any one (1) or more of the following activities:

- (1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceedings, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes to which it is a party;
- (2) Holding meetings of its directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs;
- (3) Maintaining bank accounts;
- (4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of securities issued by it, or appointing and maintaining trustees or depositaries with relation to its securities;
- (5) Voting the stock of any corporation which it has lawfully acquired;
- (6) Effecting sales through independent contractors;
- (7) Creating evidences of debt, mortgages, or liens on real or personal property;

(8) Securing or collecting debts due to it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same;

(9) Transacting any business in interstate commerce;

(10) Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty (30) days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature;

(11) Exercising the powers of executor or administrator of the estate of a non-resident decedent under ancillary letters issued by a court of this state, or exercising the powers of a trustee under the will of a non-resident decedent, or under a trust created by one or more non-residents of this state, or by one or more foreign corporations, if the exercise of such powers, in any such case, will not involve activities which would be deemed to constitute the transacting of business in this state in the case of a foreign corporation acting in its own right;

(12) Acquiring, in transactions outside Texas, or in interstate commerce, of debts secured by mortgages or liens on real or personal property in Texas, collecting or adjusting of principal and interest payments thereon, enforcing or adjusting any rights and property securing said debts, taking any actions necessary to preserve and protect the interest of the mortgagee in said security, or any combination of such transactions;

(13) Investing in or acquiring, in transactions outside of Texas, royalties and other non-operating mineral interests, and the execution of division orders, contracts of sale and other instruments incidental to the ownership of such non-operating mineral interests.

Art. 8.02. Powers of Foreign Corporation

A. A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this Act shall, for a period of ten (10) years from the granting of such certificate or a renewal thereof, or until its certificate of authority shall have been revoked in accordance with the provisions of this Act or until a certificate of withdrawal shall have been issued by the Secretary of State as provided in this Act, enjoy the same, but no greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authority is issued; and, as to all matters affecting the transaction of intrastate business in this State, it and its officers and directors shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a domestic corporation of like character and its officers and directors.

Art. 8.03. Corporate Name of Foreign Corporation

A. No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation unless the corporate name of such corporation:

(1) Shall contain the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated," or "limited," or shall contain an abbreviation of one (1) of such words, or such corporation shall, for use in this state, add at the end of its name one (1) of such words or an abbreviation thereof.

(2) Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved or registered in the manner provided in this Act; provided that a name may be similar if written consent is obtained from the existing corporation having the name deemed to be similar or the person, or corporation, for whom the name deemed to be similar is reserved or registered in the office of the Secretary of State. In the event that such consent is not given, a certificate of authority shall be issued as provided in this Act to any foreign corporation having a name the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state or of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved or registered in accordance with this Act, provided such foreign corporation files an assumed name certificate, setting forth a different name, with the Secretary of State and with county clerks as provided by Article 5924, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and provided further, that no such foreign corporation shall transact or conduct any business in this state except under such assumed name.

Art. 8.04. Change of Name by Foreign Corporation

A. Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to transact business in this State shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall be suspended and it shall not thereafter transact any business in this State until it has changed its name to a name which is available to it under the laws of this State or has otherwise complied with the provisions of this Act.

Former article 8.04 was repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1729, ch. 657, § 20, eff. June 17, 1967.

2 West's Tex.Stats. & Codes—4

Art. 8.05. Application for Certificate of Authority

A. In order to procure a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, a foreign corporation shall make application therefor to the Secretary of State, which application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the State or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) If the name of the corporation does not contain the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated," or "limited," and does not contain an abbreviation of one (1) of such words, then the name of the corporation with the word or abbreviation which it elects to add thereto for use in this State.

(3) The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.

(4) The address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(5) The address of the registered office of the corporation in this State, and the name of its registered agent in this State at such address.

(6) The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in the transaction of business in this State.

(7) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

(8) A statement of the aggregate number of shares which the corporation has authority to issue, itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.

(9) A statement of the aggregate number of issued shares itemized by classes, par value of shares, shares without par value, and series, if any, within a class.

(10) A statement, expressed in dollars, of the amount of stated capital of the corporation, as defined in this Act.

(11) A statement that consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) has been paid for the issuance of shares.

B. Such application shall be made on forms promulgated by the Secretary of State and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such application.

Art. 8.06. Filing of Application for Certificate of Authority

A. Duplicate originals of the application of the corporation for a certificate of authority, shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, together with a copy of its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. If the Secretary of State finds that the application conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File in his office one of such duplicate originals of the application and the copy of the articles of incorporation and amendments thereto.

(3) Issue a certificate of authority to transact business in this State to which he shall affix the other duplicate original application.

B. The certificate of authority, together with the duplicate original of the application affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

Art. 8.07. Effect of Certificate of Authority

A. Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the Secretary of State, the corporation shall be authorized to transact business in this State for those purposes set forth in its application, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such right of the corporation to transact business in this State for such purposes, except as against this State in a proceeding to revoke such certificate.

Art. 8.08. Registered Office and Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation

A. Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its place of business in this State.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, having a business office identical with such registered office.

Art. 8.09. Change of Registered Office or Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation

A. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change its registered office or its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The post-office address of its then registered office.

(3) If the post-office address of its registered office is to be changed, the post-office address to which the registered office is to be changed.

(4) The name of its then registered agent.

(5) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(6) That the post-office address of its registered office and the post-office address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(7) That such change was authorized by its Board of Directors or by an officer of the corporation so authorized by the Board of Directors.

B. Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other of such duplicate originals to the corporation or its representative.

C. Upon the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

D. Any registered agent of a corporation may resign

(1) by giving written notice to the corporation at its last known address

(2) and by giving written notice, in triplicate, to the Secretary of State within ten days after mailing or delivery of said notice to the corporation. Such notice shall include the last known address of the corporation and shall include the statement that written notice of resignation has been given to the corporation and the date thereof.

Upon compliance with the requirements as to written notice, the appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice by the Secretary of State.

If the Secretary of State finds that such written notice conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) Endorse on each of such originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such originals in his office.

(3) Return one original to such resigning registered agent.

(4) Return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the corporation as shown in such written notice.

Art. 8.10. Service of Process on Foreign Corporation

A. The president and all vice presidents of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State and the registered agent so appointed by a foreign corporation shall be agents of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

B. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, or whenever the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the Secretary of State of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with the Assistant Secretary of State, or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the Secretary of State, he shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. Any service so had on the Secretary of State shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

C. The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this Article, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

D. Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a foreign corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Art. 8.11. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation of Foreign Corporation

A. Whenever the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State are amended, such foreign corporation shall, within thirty days after such amendment becomes effective, file in the office of the Secretary of State a copy of such amendment duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated; but the filing thereof shall not of itself enlarge or alter the purpose or purposes which such corporation is authorized to pursue in the transaction of business in this State, nor authorize such corporation to transact business in this State under any other name than the name set forth in its certificate of authority.

Art. 8.12. Merger of Foreign Corporation Authorized to Transact Business in this State

A. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, no domestic corporation being a party to such merger, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall, within thirty days after such merger becomes effective, file with the Secretary of State a copy of the articles of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected; and it shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to transact business in this State unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this State a purpose or purposes other than those authorized by its existing certificate of authority.

Art. 8.13. Amended Certificate of Authority

A. In the event a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State shall change its corporate name, or in the event such corporation desires to pursue in this State purposes other than, or in addition to, those authorized by its existing certificate of authority, it shall procure an amended certificate of authority by making application therefor to the Secretary of State.

B. The requirements in respect to the form and contents of such application, the manner of its execution, the filing of duplicate originals thereof with the Secretary of State, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority.

Art. 8.14. Withdrawal of Foreign Corporation

A. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may withdraw from this state upon procuring from the Secretary of State a certificate of withdrawal: In order to procure such certificate of withdrawal, such foreign corporation shall deliver to the Secretary of State an application for withdrawal, which shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated;

(2) That the corporation is not transacting business in this state;

(3) That the corporation surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(4) That the corporation revokes the authority of its registered agent in this state to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action, suit, or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this state during the time the corporation was authorized to transact business in this state may thereafter be made on such corporation by service thereof on the Secretary of State;

(5) A post office address to which the Secretary of State may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on him;

(6) A statement that all sums due, or accrued, to this state have been paid, or that adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof;

(7) A statement that all known creditors or claimants have been paid or provided for and that the corporation is not involved in or threatened with litigation in any court in this state.

B. The application for withdrawal may be made on forms promulgated by the Secretary of State and shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing the application.

Art. 8.15. Filing of Application for Withdrawal

A. Duplicate originals of such application for withdrawal shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such application conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to transact business in this State shall cease.

Art. 8.16. Revocation of Certificate of Authority

A. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state may be revoked by a decree of the district court for the county in which the registered office of the corporation in this state is situated or of any district court in Travis County in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that:

(1) The corporation has failed to comply with a condition precedent to the issuance of its certificate of authority or a renewal or amendment thereof; or

(2) The certificate of authority to transact business in this state or any amendment thereof was procured through fraud; or

(3) The corporation has continued to transact business beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes expressed in its certificate of authority to transact business in this state; or

(4) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation as required by law.

B. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state may be revoked by order of the Secretary of State when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, franchise taxes, or penalties prescribed by law when the same have become due and payable; or

(2) The corporation has failed to maintain a registered agent in this state as required by law; or

(3) The corporation has failed to file in the office of the Secretary of State any amendment to its articles of incorporation or any articles of merger or consolidation within the time prescribed by this Act; or

(4) The corporation has changed its corporate name and has failed to file with the Secretary of State within thirty days after such change of name became effective, an application for an amended certificate of authority, or that the corporation has changed its corporate name and that the newly adopted name is not available for use in this state.

C. No foreign corporation shall have its certificate of authority to transact business in this state revoked under Section B hereof unless the Secretary of State, or other state agency to which such report, taxes, fees, penalties is required to be made, gives the corporation not less than 90 days notice of its neglect, delinquency, or omission by certified mail addressed to its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation, and the corporation has failed prior to such revocation to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency.

D. Whenever a corporation has given cause for revocation of its certificate of authority and has failed to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency as provided in Sections B and C, the Secretary of State shall thereupon revoke the certificate of authority of the corporation by issuing a certificate of revocation which shall include the fact of such revocation and the date and cause thereof. The original of such certificate shall be placed in his office and a copy thereof mailed to the corporation at its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of revocation, the authority to transact business in this state shall cease.

E. Any corporation whose certificate of authority has been revoked by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Section B of this article may be reinstated by the Secretary of State at any time within a period of 12 months from the date of dissolution, upon approval of an application for reinstatement signed by an officer or director of the corporation. Such application shall be filed by the Secretary of State whenever it is established to his satisfaction that in fact there was no cause for the revocation, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in revocation has been corrected and payment made of all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the revocation plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of revocation to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation's certificate not been revoked. A reinstatement filing fee of $50 shall accompany the application for reinstatement.

Reinstatement shall not be authorized if the corporate name is the same as or deceptively similar to a corporate name already on file or reserved or registered, unless the corporation being reinstated contemporaneously amends its certificate of authority to change its name.

When the application for reinstatement is approved and filed by the Secretary of State, the corporate authority to do business in Texas shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from the date of revocation, except that reinstatement shall have no effect upon any issue of personal liability of the directors, officers, or agents of the corporation during the period between revocation and reinstatement.

F. When a foreign corporation is convicted of a felony, or when a high managerial agent is convicted of a felony committed in the conduct of the affairs of the foreign corporation, the Attorney General may file an action to revoke the certificate of authority of the foreign corporation to transact business in this State in a district court of the county in which the registered office of the foreign corporation in this State is situated or in a district court of Travis County. The court may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority if it is established that:

(1) The foreign corporation, or a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the foreign corporation, has engaged in a persistent course of felonious conduct; and

(2) To prevent future felonious conduct of the same character, the public interest requires such revocation.

G. Article 7.02 of this Act does not apply to Section F of this article.

Art. 8.17. Filing of Decree of Revocation

A. In case the court shall enter a decree revoking the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this State, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the Secretary of State. No fee shall be charged by the Secretary of State for the filing thereof.

Art. 8.18. Transacting Business Without Certificate of Authority

A. No foreign corporation which is transacting, or has transacted, business in this State without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit, or proceeding in any court of this State (whether brought directly by the corporation or in the form of a derivative action by a shareholder) on any cause of action arising out of the transaction of business in this State, until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority. Nor shall any action, suit, or proceeding on any such cause of action be maintained in any court of this State by any successor, assignee, or legal representative of such foreign corporation, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a foreign corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets. It is expressly provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall not affect the rights of any assignee of the foreign corporation as the holder in due course of a negotiable promissory note, check, or bill of exchange, or as the bona fide purchaser for value of a warehouse receipt, stock certificate, or other instrument made negotiable by law.

B. The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business in this State shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this State.

C. A foreign corporation which transacts business in this State without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this State, for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this State without a certificate of authority, in an amount equal to all fees and franchise taxes which would have been imposed by law upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to transact business in this State as required by law and thereafter filed all reports required by law, plus all penalties imposed by law for failure to pay such fees and franchise taxes. In addition to the penalties and payments thus prescribed, such corporation shall forfeit to this State an amount not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) for each month or fraction thereof it shall have transacted business in this State without a certificate. The Attorney General shall bring suit to recover all amounts due this State under the provisions of this section.

PART NINE

Art. 9.01. Interrogatories by Secretary of State

A. The Secretary of State may propound to any corporation, domestic or foreign, subject to the provisions of this Act, and to any officer or director thereof, such interrogatories as may be reasonably necessary and proper to enable him to ascertain whether such corporation has complied with all the provisions of this Act. Such interrogatories shall be answered within thirty days after the mailing thereof, or within such additional time as shall be fixed by the Secretary of State, and the answers thereto shall be full and complete and shall be made in writing and under oath. If such interrogatories be directed to an individual, they shall be answered by him, and if directed to a corporation, they shall be answered by the president, vice president, secretary or assistant secretary thereof. The Secretary of State need not file any document to which such interrogatories relate until such interrogatories be answered as herein provided, and not then if the answers thereto disclose that such document is not in conformity with the provisions of this Act. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Attorney General, for such action as the Attorney General may deem appropriate, all interrogatories and answers thereto which disclose a violation of the provisions of this Act.

Art. 9.02. Information Disclosed by Interrogatories

A. Interrogatories propounded by the Secretary of State and the answers thereto shall not be open to public inspection nor shall the Secretary of State disclose any facts or information obtained therefrom except insofar as his official duty may require the same to be made public or in the event such interrogatories or the answers thereto are required for evidence in any criminal proceedings or in any other action by this State.

Art. 9.03. Powers of Secretary of State

A. The Secretary of State shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable him to administer this Act efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon him.

Art. 9.04. Appeals from Secretary of State

A. If the Secretary of State shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, application for certificate of authority to transact business in this State, amendment, merger, consolidation, or dissolution, or any other document required by this Act to be approved by the Secretary of State before the same shall be filed in his office, he shall, within ten days after the delivery thereof to him, give written notice of his disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying in such notice the reasons therefor. From such disapproval such person or corporation may appeal to any district court of Travis County by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the articles or other document sought to be filed and a copy of the written disapproval thereof by the Secretary of State; whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the court, and the court shall either sustain the action of the Secretary of State or direct him to take such action as the court may deem proper.

B. Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the district court under this Article in review of any ruling or decision of the Secretary of State may be taken as in other civil actions.

Art. 9.05. Certificates and Certified Copies to be Received in Evidence

A. All certificates issued by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and all copies of documents filed in his office in accordance with the provisions of this Act, when certified by him, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, and shall be subject to recordation. A certificate by the Secretary of State, under the great seal of this State, as to the existence or non-existence of the facts relating to corporations which would not appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing documents or certificates shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the existence or non-existence of the facts therein stated.

Art. 9.06. Forms to be Promulgated by Secretary of State

A. Forms may be promulgated by the Secretary of State for all reports and all other documents required to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The use of such forms, however, shall not be mandatory, except in instances in which the law may specifically so provide.

Art. 9.07. Time for Filing Documents in the Office of the Secretary of State

A. Whenever any document is required to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State by any provision of this Act, the requirement of the statute shall be construed to involve the requirement that same be so filed with reasonable promptness.

Art. 9.08. Greater or Lesser Voting Requirements for Certain Corporate Actions

A. Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the shareholders of a corporation, the articles of incorporation require the vote or concurrence of the holders of a greater or lesser number of shares, or of any class or series thereof, than is required by this Act with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall control, provided the lesser number constitutes a majority or more.

Art. 9.09. Waiver of Notice

A. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any shareholder or director of a corporation under the provisions of this Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Art. 9.10. Actions Without a Meeting; Telephone Meetings

A. Any action required by this Act to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, and such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders, and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the Secretary of State.

B. Unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or by-laws, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any committee may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all the members of the board of directors or committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting, and may be stated as such in any document or instrument filed with the Secretary of State.

C. Subject to the provisions required or permitted by this Act for notice of meetings, unless otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or by-laws, shareholders, members of the board of directors, or members of any committee designated by such board, may participate in and hold a meeting of such shareholders, board, or committee by means of conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and participation in a meeting pursuant to this Section shall constitute presence in person at such meeting, except where a person participates in the meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Art. 9.11. Application to Foreign and Interstate Commerce

A. The provisions of this Act shall apply to commerce with foreign nations and among the several states only in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

Art. 9.12. Reservation of Power

A. The Legislature shall at all times have power to prescribe such regulations, provisions, and limitations as it may deem advisable, which regulations, provisions, and limitations shall be binding upon any and all corporations subject to the provisions of this Act, and the Legislature shall have power to amend, repeal, or modify this Act.

Art. 9.13. Effect of Invalidity of Part of This Act

A. If a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge to be invalid or unconstitutional any clause, sentence, subsection, section, or Article of this Act, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, invalidate, or nullify the remainder of this Act, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, subsection, section, or Article of this Act so adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Art. 9.14. To What Corporations This Act Applies; Procedure for Adoption of Act by Existing Corporations

A. This Act does not apply to domestic corporations organized for the purpose of operating banks, trust companies, building and loan associations or companies, insurance companies of every type or character that operate under insurance laws of this State and corporate attorneys in fact for reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges, railroad companies, cemetery companies, cooperatives or limited cooperative associations, labor unions, or abstract and title insurance companies whose purposes are provided for and powers are prescribed by Chapter 9 of the Insurance Code of this State,<sup>1</sup> or to domestic or foreign corporations organized for the purpose of operating nonprofit institutions, including but not limited to those devoted to charitable, benevolent, religious, patriotic, civic, cultural, missionary, educational, scientific, social, fraternal, athletic, or aesthetic purposes, or to any foreign corporations which are granted authority to transact business within this State under any special statutes; provided, however, that if any of said excepted domestic corporations were heretofore or are hereafter organized under special statutes which contain no provisions in regard to some of the matters provided for in this Act, or any such excepted foreign corporations were heretofore or are hereafter granted authority to transact business within this State under any special statute which contains no provisions in regard to some of the matters provided for in this Act in respect of foreign corporations, or if such special statutes specifically provide that the general laws for incorporation or for the granting of a certificate of authority to transact business in this State, as the case may be, shall supplement the provisions of such statutes, then the provisions of this Act shall apply to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of such special statutes.

B. For a period of five (5) years from and after the effective date of this Act, it shall not apply to any domestic corporation duly chartered or existing on said effective date or to any foreign corporation holding, on that date, a valid permit to do business in this State, unless such domestic or foreign corporation shall, during such period of five (5) years, voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this Act and shall comply with the procedure prescribed by Section C of this Article.

C. During the period of five (5) years from and after the effective date of this Act, any domestic corporation duly chartered or existing prior to said effective date and any foreign corporation holding a valid permit to do business in this State, prior to the effective date of this Act, may voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this Act and may become subject to its provisions by taking the following steps:

(1) As to domestic corporations, a resolution reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this Act shall be adopted by the board of directors and shareholders by the procedure prescribed by this Act for the amendment of articles of incorporation. As to foreign corporations, a resolution shall be adopted by the board of directors, reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this Act.

(2) Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which shall set forth:

(a) The name of the corporation.

(b) Each resolution adopted by the corporation.

(c) The date of the adoption of each resolution.

(d) The post office address of its initial registered office, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address.

(3) Duplicate originals of such document shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such document conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as prescribed by law:

(a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(c) Deliver the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(4) Upon the filing of such document, all provisions of this Act shall thereafter apply to the corporation.

D. Except for the exceptions and limitations of Section A of this Article, this Act shall apply to all domestic corporations organized after the date on which this Act becomes effective and to all foreign corporations transacting, or seeking to transact, business within this State and not holding, on the effective date of this Act, a valid permit so to do, and to all domestic and foreign corporations electing within five (5) years to adopt this Act and manifesting their election in the manner provided in Section C of this Article.

E. Effective September 6, 1960, this Act shall apply to all domestic corporations and to all foreign corporations transacting or seeking to transact business in this State, except for the exceptions and limitations of Section A of this Article and with the further exception that no domestic corporation existing at the time that this Act becomes effective and no foreign corporation holding a valid permit to do business in this State at the time this Act becomes effective, which has not adopted this Act prior to September 6, 1960 by complying with Section C of this Article and which has not amended its articles of incorporation or its certificate of authority, as the case may be, after this Act becomes applicable thereto, shall be deemed to have failed to comply with the provisions of this Act by reason of the fact that:

(1) The name of such corporation does not conform with the provisions of Articles 2.05A(1) and 8.03A(1) of this Act provided such name does conform with the other provisions of this Act and all other laws of this State.

(2) Such corporation has never received for the issuance of shares consideration of the value of at least One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) in conformity with the minimum requirements of this Act.

If any such corporation should amend its articles of incorporation or its certificate of authority, as the case may be, after this Act becomes applicable thereto, such corporation must, simultaneously with or prior to filing such amendment with the Secretary of State, take such action as may be necessary to bring such corporation into conformity with the provisions of this Act.

F. Except for domestic and foreign corporations organized for the purposes set forth in Section A above, each domestic corporation existing on September 6, 1955 which meanwhile has not been dissolved nor adopted this Act by complying with Section C of this Article and each foreign corporation holding a valid permit to do business in this State on September 6, 1955 which meanwhile has not surrendered its permit nor adopted this Act by complying with Section C of this Article, shall execute and file, as a part of its annual report required to be filed for franchise tax purposes under Article 7089 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas between January 1 and March 15, 1960, the following described statement:

(1) Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by the president or a vice-president and by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the corporation, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, and shall set forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation;
- (b) The post office address of its initial registered office, and the name of its initial registered agent at such address;
- (c) That such designation and appointment was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

(2) Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to law, he shall when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as prescribed by law:

- (a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof;
- (b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office;
- (c) Deliver the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(3) No fee shall be charged for the filing of such statement.

(4) Such statement shall not become effective until September 6, 1960, and the registered office and registered agent designated therein may be changed at any time in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) Such statement shall be deemed to be a part of the annual report for franchise tax purposes, and failure to file such statement shall subject the corporation to the penalties set forth in Articles 7089 et seq. of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas for failure to file an annual report.

Art. 9.15. Extent to Which Existing Laws Shall Remain Applicable to Corporations

A. Except as provided in the last preceding Article, existing corporations shall continue to be governed by the laws heretofore applicable thereto.

B. Except as provided in Section B of Article 9.16 of this Act, any special limitations, obligations, liabilities, and powers, applicable to a particular kind of corporation for which special provision is made by the laws of this State, including, (but not excluding other corporations) those corporations subject to supervision under Article 1524a of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas,<sup>1</sup> shall continue to be applicable to any such corporation, and this Act is not intended to repeal and does not repeal the statutory provisions providing for these special limitations, obligations, liabilities, and powers.

C. Provided that nothing in this Act shall in anywise affect or nullify the Antitrust Laws of this State.

Art. 9.16. Repeal of Existing Laws; Extent and Effect Thereof

A. Subject to the provisions of the two last preceding Articles of this Act and of Section C of Article 2.02 of this Act and Section B of this Article, and excluding any existing general act not inconsistent with any provision of this Act, no law of this State pertaining to private corporations, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter apply to corporations organized under this Act, or which obtain authority to transact business in this State under this Act, or to existing corporations which adopt this Act.

B. Chapter 15 of Title 32, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,<sup>1</sup> is hereby repealed effective five (5) years after the date on which this Act becomes effective; provided that such Chapter 15, Title 32, shall not hereafter apply to corporations organized under this Act, or which obtain authority to transact business in this State under this Act, or to existing corporations which adopt this Act.

C. The repeal of a prior act by this Act shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such Act, prior to the repeal thereof.

PART ELEVEN

Art. 11.01. Emergency Clause

A. The fact that existing laws of the State of Texas have been amended from time to time over a period of some seventy (70) years and more without any adoption meanwhile of a complete Act relating to business corporations generally, the provisions of which are consistent with one another; the fact that with so many amendments of the corporation laws applicable to business corporations generally over so many years there have developed many uncertainties in the corporation laws of this State and with the result that there is now an imperative need for clarification of certain provisions of the existing laws; the fact that all of the other states than Texas in which large and important business is transacted have adopted in recent years modern corporation laws and with the result that Texas citizens are increasingly prone to organize their corporate ventures under the laws of other states than the laws of Texas because Texas does not have such a modern act; and the fact that Texas in such connection is losing a substantial volume of corporate enterprise which it should otherwise gain from and after the time that a modern business corporation Act becomes effective in Texas and is losing tax income from ad valorem taxes, filing fees and otherwise meanwhile; all such facts create an emergency and public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each House be suspended and said Rule is hereby suspended; and require that this Act take effect and be in force from and after the date of its enactment, and it is so enacted.

PART ONE

Art. 1302-1.01. Short Title, Captions, Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs

A. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Miscellaneous Corporation Laws Act."

B. The division of this Act into Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections and Paragraphs and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

C. This Act has been organized and subdivided in the following manner:

(1) The Act is divided into Parts, containing groups of related Articles. Parts are numbered consecutively with cardinal numbers.

(2) The Act is also divided into Articles, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.

(3) Articles are divided into Sections. The Sections within each Article are numbered consecutively with capital letters.

(4) Sections are divided into Subsections. The Subsections within each Section are numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses.

(5) Subsections are divided into paragraphs. The Paragraphs within each Subsection are numbered consecutively with lower case letters enclosed in parentheses.

Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 408, ch. 205, § 2 provided:

"Sec. 2. The following Statutes and Laws contained in Title 32 of the Texas Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, as amended, or contained in legislative acts subsequent to such revision and codified in Title 32, also as amended, are supplanted by the provisions of this Act and are hereby repealed:

"Acts 1943, Forty-eighth Legislature, page 722, Chapter 397 (Articles 1358-1 through 28);

"Article 1531."

Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 408, ch. 205, § 3, provided that, "The repeal of a prior act by this Act shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred under the provisions of such act, prior to the repeal hereof."

Art. 1302-1.02. Synonymous Terms

A. Whether used in this Act or in other Acts and statutes applicable to private corporations:

(1) "Charter" has the same meaning as "articles of incorporation."

(2) "Paid-up capital" has the same meaning as "stated capital."

(3) "Capital stock" may mean, depending on the context, "stated capital," "authorized shares," "authorized and issued shares," or "issued shares."

(4) "Permit to do business" and "certificate of authority" have the same meaning.

(5) "Stockholder" and "shareholder" have the same meaning.

(6) "Stock" and "shares of stock" have the same meaning as "shares."

(7) "Authorized capital stock" has the same meaning as "authorized shares."

(8) "No par shares" means the same as "shares without par value."

Art. 1302-1.03. Applicability of Business Corporation Act, Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, and this Act

A. All corporations shall, to the extent not inconsistent with any special statute pertaining to a particular corporation, be governed

(1) by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as amended, if organized for profit, and

(2) by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended, if organized not for profit.

B. This Act shall govern all foreign and domestic corporations including but without being limited to those corporations heretofore or hereafter organized or granted a permit to do business under any Statute of the State, including the Texas Business Corporation Act, or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, except to the extent that any provisions of this Act are expressly made inapplicable by any provision of the Texas Business Corporation Act, the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, or any special Statute of this State pertaining to a particular type of corporation.

PART TWO

Art. 1302-2.01. Married Women

A. Married women may be shareholders, officers, and directors of a corporation and may sign articles of incorporation and all other corporate instruments. Their acts, contracts, and deeds as such shareholders, officers, and directors shall be as binding and effective for all purposes of the corporation as if they were males. The joinder and consent of the husband and privy examinations separate and apart from him shall not be required.

Art. 1302-2.02. Notice by Firm

A. Whenever any banking, mercantile or other business firm desires to become incorporated without a change of firm name, such firm shall, in addition to the notice of dissolution required at Common Law, give notice of such intention to become incorporated for at least four (4) consecutive weeks in some newspaper published at the seat of State Government, and in the county in which such firm has its principal business office, if there be a newspaper in such county; and, if not, then in some newspaper published in some adjoining county; provided, however, that such notice shall only be published one (1) day in each week during the said four (4) weeks. Until such notice has been so published for the full period above-named, no change shall take place in the liability of such firm or the members thereof.

Art. 1302-2.03. Ostensible Corporation; Debt

A. No person who assumes an obligation to an ostensible corporation as such, shall resist the enforcement of such obligation, on the ground that there was in fact no such corporation, until that fact shall have been adjudged in a direct proceeding had for that purpose.

Art. 1302-2.04. Construction of Provision as Exclusive Right of Trustee to Sue

A. Provisions in deeds of trust, indentures, mortgages, assignments, and transfers of property executed to secure the payment of bonds, debentures, or other obligations, issued thereunder, vesting in the trustees named therein the exclusive right to institute any and all suits, at law or in equity, necessary or proper to enforce the covenants and agreements therein made, or to liquidate the trust therein created, and denying to the holders of such bonds, debentures, and obligations the right to institute or prosecute such suit or suits, or to liquidate such trust until after a failure or refusal of such trustee so to do, upon request made in the manner provided for therein, shall not be construed as agreements to oust the courts of this State of their rightful jurisdiction, nor as agreements against the public policy of this State.

Art. 1302-2.05. Bonds, Debentures and Other Evidence of Indebtedness; Manner of Issuance; Facsimile Signatures and Seal

A. Where any private corporation organized under the laws of this State hereafter issues any bond, debenture, or other evidence of indebtedness, the seal of the corporation thereon may be facsimile, engraved, or printed, and where any such bond, debenture, or other evidence of indebtedness is authenticated with the manual signature of any authorized officer of the corporation or other trustee appointed or named by an indenture of trust or other agreement under which such security is issued, the signature of any of the corporation's officers authorized to execute such security may be facsimile. In case any officer who signed, or whose facsimile signature has been used on any such bond, debenture, or other evidence of indebtedness shall cease to be an officer of the corporation for any reason before the same has been delivered by the corporation, such bond, debenture, or other evidence of indebtedness may nevertheless be adopted by the corporation and issued and delivered as though the person who signed it or whose facsimile signature has been used thereon had not ceased to be such officer.

Art. 1302-2.06. Consideration for Indebtedness; Guaranties

A. No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall create any indebtedness whatever except for money paid, labor done, which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received, reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, subject to the provisions of Section B below. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors or the shareholders, as the case may be, as to the value of the consideration received for any such indebtedness shall be conclusive.

B. Notwithstanding Section A of this Article, any corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this state shall have the power to make a guaranty respecting the contracts, securities, or other obligations of any person (including, but not limited to, any domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, association, joint venture, or trust, but excluding any officer or director of such guarantor corporation) if such guaranty may reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation. The decision of the Board of Directors that the guaranty may reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation shall be binding upon the guarantor corporation, and no guaranty made by a corporation in accordance with the provisions of this Section B shall be invalid or unenforceable as against such corporation, unless such guaranty is sought to be enforced by a person who participated in a fraud on the guarantor corporation resulting in the making of the guaranty or by a person who had notice of such fraud before he acquired his rights under the guaranty. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a suit (1) prior to the making of a guaranty by a corporation, by a shareholder in a representative suit against the guarantor corporation, to enjoin the making of such guaranty on the ground that such guaranty could not reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation, or (2) after the making of a guaranty by a corporation, by the guarantor corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative or through a shareholder in a representative suit, against the directors who voted for or assented to the making of such guaranty for damages or other appropriate relief on the ground that such guaranty could not reasonably have been expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation, but such directors shall be entitled to assert any defenses which they may have under any other laws of the State of Texas.

Nothing in this Section B is intended or shall be construed to limit or deny to any corporation, domestic or foreign, the right or power to do or perform any act which it is or may be empowered or authorized to do or perform under any other laws of the State of Texas now in force or hereafter enacted. Provided, however, this Section B shall not apply to nor enlarge the powers of any corporation, domestic, foreign, or alien, that does business pursuant to any provision of the Insurance Code of Texas, whether licensed in Texas or not, nor shall it allow or permit any corporation, not licensed under the Insurance Code of Texas, to engage in any character, type, class, or kind of fidelity, surety, or guaranty business or transaction subject to regulation under the Insurance Code.

Art. 1302-2.07. Limited Survival after Dissolution

A. A corporation dissolved (1) by the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, or (2) by a decree of court when the court has not liquidated all the assets and business of the corporation as provided in the Texas Business Corporation Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as the case may be, or (3) by expiration of its period of duration, shall continue its corporate existence for a period of three (3) years from the date of dissolution, for the following purposes:

(1) prosecuting or defending in its corporate name any action or proceeding by or against the corporation;

(2) permitting the survival of any remedy not otherwise barred by limitations available to or against such corporations, its officers, directors, shareholders, members, or creditors, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution;

(3) holding title to and liquidating any assets or property inadvertently or otherwise omitted from any prior distributions in liquidation to the shareholders or so omitted from prior distributions made by a non-profit corporation in accordance with a plan of distribution during the period of liquidation prior to dissolution, and distributing them to any shareholders, members, or other persons entitled thereto; and

(4) settling any other affairs not completed prior to its dissolution.

However, such corporation shall not continue its corporate existence for the purpose of continuing the business or affairs for which the corporation was organized, except in the case of a corporation whose period of duration has expired and which has chosen to revive its existence as provided in the Texas Business Corporation Act or the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as the case may be.

B. During such period, the board of directors serving at the time of dissolution or the majority of them then living, however reduced in number, or their successors selected by them, shall continue to manage the affairs of the corporation for the limited purpose or purposes specified in this Article, and shall have whatever powers may be necessary to accomplish such purposes, including the power to prosecute, pay, compromise, defend, and satisfy any action, claim, demand, or judgment by or against the corporation, and to administer, sell, and distribute in final liquidation any property or assets still remaining. In the exercise of such powers, the directors and officers shall be trustees for the benefit of creditors, shareholders, members, or other distributees of the corporation and shall be jointly and severally liable to such persons to the extent of the corporate property and assets that shall have come into their hands.

C. If after the expiration of the three-year period there still remains unresolved any action or proceeding not otherwise barred by limitations commenced by or against the corporation prior to its dissolution or within three (3) years after the date of its dissolution, the corporation shall continue to survive only for the purpose of such action or proceeding, until any judgment, orders, or decrees therein shall be fully executed.

D. A corporation dissolved by the expiration of the period of its duration may, during such three-year period, amend its articles of incorporation by following the procedure prescribed in the Texas Business Corporation Act or in the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as the case may be, so as to extend or perpetuate its period of existence. Such expiration shall not of itself create any vested right on the part of any shareholder, member, or creditor to prevent such action. No acts or contracts of a corporation during a period within which it could have extended its existence as permitted by this Article, whether or not it has taken action so to extend its existence, shall be in any degree invalidated by the expiration of its period of duration.

Art. 1302-2.08. Affidavit of a Foreign Corporation

A. As a part of the application of a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, for a certificate of authority, its president, vice president, secretary or treasurer, or two of the directors thereof, shall make and file in the office of the Secretary of State an affidavit stating that such corporation is not a trust or organization in restraint of trade in violation of the laws of this State, has not within twelve (12) months next preceding the making of such affidavit, become or been a part to any trust agreement of any kind which would constitute a violation of any antitrust law of Texas existing at the date of such affidavit, and has not within that time, entered into or been in any wise a party to, any combination in restraint of trade within the United States, and that no officer of such corporation has, within the knowledge of affiant, within such time and on behalf of such corporation or for its benefit, made any such contract, or entered into or become a party to any such combination in restraint of trade. The jurat of the officer making such affidavit shall be attested by his official signature and seal of office.

Art. 1302-2.09. Authority of Certain Corporations to Borrow Money

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, corporations, domestic or foreign, may agree to and stipulate for any rate of interest as such corporation may determine, not to exceed one and one-half percent (1½%) per month, on any bond, note, debt, contract or other obligation of such corporation under which the original principal amount is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or more, or on any series of advances of money pursuant thereto if the aggregate of sums advanced or originally proposed to be advanced shall exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or on any extension or renewal thereof, and in such instances, the claim or defense of usury by such corporation, its successors, guarantors, assigns or anyone on its behalf is prohibited; however, nothing contained herein shall prevent any charitable or religious corporation from asserting the claim or interposing the defense of usury in any action or proceeding.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 713, ch. 296, §§ 2, 3 provided:

"Sec. 2. If any section, provision, sentence or phrase of this Act shall be declared unconstitutional, or void for any other reason, such adjudication shall not affect the other sections and provisions hereof, but same shall be preserved, and the remainder thereof shall be left intact and valid.

"Sec. 3. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of any such conflict only."

PART THREE

Art. 1302-3.01. Veteran Corporations; Use of Name; Forfeiture of Charter

A. The Secretary of State shall not hereafter issue to any corporation any charter using in the name thereof any of the following words either in the singular or the plural: "Veteran," "Legion," "Foreign," "Spanish," "Disabled," "War," "World War," or any abbreviation of such word or words, or words of the same or similar meanings, without the written approval filed with the application for charter of some Congressionally recognized Veterans' organization, in whose name any such quoted word appears, and if there be no Congressionally recognized organization in whose name the prohibited word appears, then it shall be necessary to secure the written permission of either the State Commander of the American Legion, or Disabled American Veterans of the World War, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, or the United Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars, or Veterans of the Spanish-American War.

Art. 1302-3.02. Educational Corporations

A. The president, professors or principals shall constitute the faculty in academy, college, or university corporations, and shall have power to enforce the rules and regulations enacted by the directors or trustees for the government and discipline of the students, and to suspend and expel offenders, as may be deemed necessary.

B. The directors or trustees named in the charter of any college, academy, university, or other corporation to promote education, and their successors, may make all necessary bylaws, elect and employ officers, provide for filling vacancies, appoint and remove professors, teachers, agents, etc., and fix their compensation, confer degrees, and do and perform all necessary acts to carry into effect the objects of the corporation.

Art. 1302-3.03. Cemeteries

A. Corporations organized under Acts, 1945, Forty-ninth Legislature, page 559, Chapter 340, as amended, shall, to the extent not inconsistent therewith, be governed by the Texas Business Corporation Act, as amended, if organized for profit, and by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, as amended, if organized not for profit.

Art. 1302-3.04. Detective Agencies; Bond Required

A. Before a certificate of incorporation or a certificate of authority to transact business in this State shall be issued to any corporation organized or sought to be organized for any purpose or purposes which include the operation of a detective agency, its incorporators or its officer, as the case may be, shall have executed a good and sufficient surety bond or insurance policy (in the event of a bond to be signed by some good solvent bonding company authorized to do business in this State, and in the event of an insurance policy to be executed by some good solvent insurance company authorized to do business in this State) and deliver the same to the Secretary of State. Said surety bond or insurance policy shall be in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) and shall be conditioned that the obligor therein will pay to the extent of the face amount of such surety bond or insurance policy all judgments which may be recovered against said detective agency by reason of the wrongful or illegal acts of its servants, officers, agents, or employees, committed by them in the course of their employment. Said surety bond or insurance policy shall further be conditioned that such person so injured shall have the right to sue directly upon such surety bond or insurance policy in their own name, and the same shall be subject to successive suits for recovery until a complete exhaustion of the face amount thereof. Each such detective agency shall on or before the date of the expiration of the terms of any surety bond or insurance policy so filed by such agency file a renewal thereof, or a new surety bond or insurance policy containing the same terms or obligations of the preceding surety bond or policy, and shall each year thereafter, on or before the expiration date of the existing surety bond or insurance policy, file such renewal surety bond or insurance policy so as to provide continuous security to persons so injured, and in the event any such detective agency fails to execute any surety bond or insurance policy in the first instance, or to execute any renewal surety bond or insurance policy, or to file the same with the Secretary of State as provided herein, it shall constitute grounds for the forfeiture of the articles of incorporation of a domestic corporation and of the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation in a suit to be instituted at the instance of the Attorney General. Nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the agents, servants, officers, or employees of such corporation to have the power of peace officers in this State unless such powers be conferred thereon under the provisions of some other law of this State.

Art. 1302-3.05. Certain Railroads

A. Corporations for profit may be organized for the following purposes:

(1) To construct or acquire with power to maintain and operate street railways and suburban railways and belt lines of railways within and near cities and towns, for the transportation of freight and passengers, with power also to construct, own and operate union depots, and to buy, sell and convey right-of-way upon which to construct railroads.

(2) To construct, acquire, maintain and operate lines of electric, gas, or gasoline, denatured alcohol, or naphtha motor railways within and between any cities or towns, and any interurban railways within and between cities and towns, in this State, for the transportation of freight or passengers, or both.

(3) To build, maintain and operate a line of railroads to mines, gins, quarries, manufacturing plants, or mills.

(4) The construction, operation and maintenance of terminal railways.

Art. 1302-4.01. Conditions of Purchase of Lands

A. No private corporation shall be permitted to purchase any lands under any provision of this Part, unless the lands so purchased are necessary to enable such corporation to do business in this State, or except where such land is purchased in due course of business to secure the payment of debt.

Art. 1302-4.02. Sale of Surplus Lands

A. All private corporations authorized by the laws of Texas to do business in this State, whose main purpose is not the acquisition or ownership of lands, which have or may acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise, more land than is necessary to enable them to carry on their business, shall within fifteen (15) years from the date said land may be acquired, in good faith, sell and convey in fee simple all lands so acquired which are not necessary for the transaction of the business. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Part, it shall be lawful for such surplus lands to be conveyed and acquired by another corporation which may have among its purposes the acquisition, development and sale of such surplus lands, provided, however, that any such acquiring corporation shall in good faith sell and convey any such land on or before the expiration of the aforesaid fifteen-year period just as the conveying corporation would have had to do if it had not conveyed such land to such acquiring corporation, and if such acquiring corporation does not so convey such land on or before such time, it shall thereafter hold the same subject to the same forfeiture and escheat provisions provided for in this Part as though such lands were still held by the conveying corporation.

Art. 1302-4.03. Liquidation of Land Acquired in Payment of Debts

A. Any lands acquired by corporations in payment of debts due such corporations shall be sold and conveyed as provided in this Part within fifteen (15) years from the date of the acquisition of such land.

Art. 1302-4.04. Corporations Prohibited

A. No private corporation heretofore or hereafter chartered or created whose main purpose of business is the acquisition or ownership of land by purchase, lease or otherwise, shall hereafter be permitted to acquire any land within this State by purchase, lease, or otherwise.

Art. 1302-4.05. Town Lot Corporations

A. Nothing in this Part shall be construed to prohibit the lease, purchase, sale or subdivision of real property within incorporated towns, cities, or villages, and their suburbs not extending more than two (2) miles beyond their corporate limits, by corporations whose charters authorize them to lease, purchase, sell and subdivide real estate, within towns, cities and villages, and their suburbs, whether the suburbs be stated to be measured from the limits merely, or the corporate limits, of such towns, cities and villages. All such corporations now existing, or which may hereafter be created shall be authorized to lease, sell or subdivide real property in any unincorporated city, town, or village, or the suburbs thereof, within this State, not exceeding two (2) miles in any direction from the courthouse, or depot nearest the center of such city, town, or village, or from the center thereof, if there be no courthouse or depot.

Art. 1302-4.06. Escheat Proceedings

A. All corporations holding lands contrary to the provisions of this Part shall hold the same subject to forfeiture and escheat proceedings. The Attorney General, or any district or county attorney, when either of them has reason to believe that any corporation is holding lands in violation of this Part, shall institute suit in the name of the State of Texas, in Travis County, or in any county in Texas where such corporation may have an agent, or in any county where any part of the land may be situated, against such corporation, as is provided for the escheat of estates of deceased persons without devise thereof and having no heirs.

Art. 1302-4.07. Disposition of Penalties

A. If it be determined upon the trial of said suit that lands are held contrary to this Part, the court trying said cause shall enter judgment condemning such lands and ordering them to be sold as under execution, the proceeds of such sale to be first applied to the payment of costs of such suit, and the balance to be paid into the State Treasury subject to be paid to the stockholders or person entitled to receive the same as owners, upon proper proof made within twelve (12) months from date of sale. If the legal representatives of such corporation fail to claim the said balance of money realized on sale of said land, then it shall escheat to the State and be applied to the Available School Fund. The court trying said cause shall allow the attorney representing the State a reasonable fee, to be taxed as cost in the suit. In no case shall the State be liable for costs or fees unless it is successful in said suit. [Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 408, ch. 205, § 1.]

PART FIVE*Art. 1302-5.01. Authority of Attorney General to Examine Books, Records, etc.

A. Every corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in Texas, shall permit the Attorney General or any of his authorized assistants or representatives, to make examination of all the books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and bylaws, and other records of said corporation as he may deem necessary.

Art. 1302-5.02. Request to Examine

A. A written request shall be made to the president or other officer of said corporation at the time the Attorney General or his assistants desire to examine the business of said corporation. It shall be the duty of the officer or agent of any corporation to whom said request is presented to immediately permit the Attorney General, or his authorized assistant or representative, to inspect and examine all the said books, records, and other documents of said corporation.

Art. 1302-5.03. Authority to Examine Management, etc., of Corporation

A. The Attorney General, or any of his assistants or representatives, when authorized by the Attorney General, has the power and authority to make investigation into the organization, conduct and management of any corporation authorized to do business within this State, and has authority to inspect and examine any of its said books, records, and other documents, and take such copies thereof as in his judgment may show or tend to show said corporation has been or is engaged in acts or conduct in violation of its charter rights and privileges, or in violation of any law of this State.

Art. 1302-5.04. Authority to Disclose

A. The Attorney General, or his authorized assistants or representatives, shall not make public, or use said copies or any information derived in the course of said examination of said records or documents, except in the course of some judicial proceedings in which the State is a party, or in a suit by the State to cancel the permit or forfeit the charter of such corporation, or to collect penalties for a violation of the laws of this State, or for information of any officer of this State charged with the enforcement of its laws.

Art. 1302-5.05. Penalty

A. Any foreign corporation doing business in Texas under a permit granted under the laws of this State, or any officer or agent thereof, or any domestic corporation which shall fail or refuse to permit the Attorney General, or his authorized representative or representatives, to examine or take copies of any of its said books, records and other documents whether the same be situated within this or any other state within the United States, shall thereby forfeit its right to do business in this State; and its permit or charter shall be canceled or forfeited.

B. If any president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary, manager, agent or other officer of any corporation doing business under permit or charter from this State shall fail or refuse to permit the Attorney General or any of his assistants or representatives who may be authorized in writing by the Attorney General to make such examination, to examine or to take copies of any or all of the books, accounts, records, minutes, letters, memoranda, documents, checks, vouchers, telegrams, constitution and by-laws and other records of said corporation, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in jail not less than thirty nor more than one hundred days. Each day of such failure or refusal shall be a separate offense.

Art. 1302-5.06. Provisions Cumulative

A. The provisions of Articles 5.01, 5.02, 5.03, 5.04, and 5.05 of this Part shall be cumulative of all other laws now in force in this State, and shall not be construed as repealing any other means afforded by law for securing testimony or inquiring into the charter rights and privileges of corporations.

Art. 1302-5.07. Lien for Law Violations

A. Whenever any domestic or foreign corporation in this State shall violate any law of this State, including the law against trusts, monopolies and conspiracies or combinations or contracts in restraint of trade, for the violation of which fines or penalties or forfeitures are provided, all property of such corporation within this State at the time of such violation, or which may thereafter come within this State, shall, by reason of such violation, become liable for such fines or penalties and for costs of suit and costs of collection.

Art. 1302-5.08. Date of Lien and Notice

A. The State of Texas shall have a lien on all such property from the date that suit shall be instituted by the Attorney General or district or county attorney acting under his direction, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, for the purpose of forfeiting the charter or canceling the permit of such corporation, or for such fines or penalties. The institution of such suit for such fine, penalties or forfeiture, shall constitute notice of such lien.

Art. 1302-5.09. Abatement of Suit

A. Any action or cause of action for any fine, forfeiture or penalty that the State of Texas has, or may have, against any corporation chartered under the laws of this or any other State, territory or nation, shall not abate or become abated by reason of the dissolution of such corporation, whether voluntary or otherwise, or by the forfeiture of its charter or permit.

Art. 1302-5.10. Receiver

A. Whenever a corporation, against which the State has instituted suit for forfeiture of its charter or cancellation of its permit or for fines or penalties, shall dissolve in this or any other state, or shall have a judgment rendered against it in this or any other state for the forfeiture of its charter, the court in this State in which such suit is pending shall appoint a receiver for the property and business of such corporation within this State, or that may come or be brought within this State during such receivership; or the court may, in any case wherein the State is suing any such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter, or of its permit to do business in this State, or for fines or penalties, appoint a receiver for such corporation whenever the interest of the State may seem to require such action.

Art. 1302-5.11. Rights of State

A. The State shall have the right to writs of attachment, garnishment, sequestration or injunction, without bond, to aid in the enforcement of its rights created by Articles 5.07, 5.08, 5.09, and 5.10 of this Part; and all property not otherwise exempt by law that may come into the possession of any receiver appointed under any provision of such Articles, shall be subject to the lien herein created, and for the payment of any such fine or penalty.

Art. 1302-5.12. Foreclosure

A. The Attorney General or any district or county attorney acting under his direction, may bring suit in the name of this State for foreclosure of such lien. In case the suit for foreclosure is brought against any corporation which has dissolved or had a judgment for the forfeiture of its charter or the cancellation of its permit rendered against it, pending any suit by the State of Texas against such corporation for the forfeiture of its charter or cancellation of its permit or for penalties or fines, service may be had upon any person within this State who acted and was acting as agent of any such corporation in this State at the time of such dissolution or forfeiture of charter or cancellation of permit.

Art. 1302-5.13. Law Cumulative

A. The rights and remedies given by Articles 5.07, 5.08, 5.09, 5.10, 5.11, and 5.12 of this Part shall be construed as cumulative of all other laws in force in this State, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, penalties and forfeitures.

Art. 1302-5.14. Authority of Attorney General to Proceed Against an Insolvent Corporation

A. The Attorney General, when convinced that any corporation is insolvent, shall institute quo warranto or other appropriate proceedings to forfeit its charter or cancel its permit.

Art. 1302-5.15. Liquidation

A. Each district and county attorney shall bring and prosecute the proceedings mentioned in the preceding Article whenever directed to do so by the Attorney General. The court trying said cause, after the corporation has been shown to be insolvent, may, in its discretion, appoint a receiver or receivers for said corporation and all its properties, with full power to settle its affairs, collect its outstanding debts and divide the moneys and other properties belonging to said company among the stockholders thereof, after paying the debts due and owing by such corporation, and all expenses incident to the judicial proceedings and receivership. The court may continue the existence of such corporation for three (3) years, and for such further reasonable time as may be necessary to accomplish the objects and purposes of this law.

Art. 1302-5.16. May Dismiss Action

A. If any suit authorized by Articles 5.14 and 5.15 of this Part has been instituted, the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant; or, if not instituted, the same shall not be begun, if the defendant corporation, through its stockholders, shall pay off its indebtedness or reduce the same by paying, so that it is relieved of insolvency.

Art. 1302-5.17. Permission to Sue

A. Before such petition is filed by the Attorney General, or under his authority, as provided in Articles 5.14 and 5.15 of this Part, leave therefor shall first be granted by the judge of the court in which the proceeding is to be instituted.

Art. 1302-5.18. Examination and Notice

A. On presentation of such petition, before granting leave to sue, the judge shall carefully examine the same; and he may also require an examination into the facts; and if it shall be made to appear with reasonable certainty from said petition, or from the petition and facts, that the relief sought should be granted, the judge may grant such relief. On an application for the appointment of a receiver, the corporation proceeded against shall have ten full days' notice prior to the day set for the hearing.

Art. 1302-5.19. Provisions Cumulative

A. The rights and remedies given by Articles 5.14, 5.15, 5.16, 5.17, and 5.18 of this Part are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 408, ch. 205, § 1.]

PART SIX

Arts. 1302-6.01 to 1302-6.24. Repealed by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, § 10-102, eff. June 30, 1966

Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721, enacting the Uniform Commercial Code, repealed article 1302-6.01 effective June 30, 1966. Acts 1965, 59th Leg., vol. 2, p. 1, ch. 721 was itself repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopting the Business & Commerce Code effective September 1, 1967. However, the latter Act specifically provided that the repeal did not affect the prior operation of the 1965 Act or any prior action taken under it.

See, now, Business and Commerce Code, § 8.101 et seq.

Art. 1302-6.25. Prior Certificates not Affected

A. The provisions of this Part apply only to certificates issued after the taking effect of Acts, 1943, Forty-eighth Legislature, page 722, Chapter 397.

Art. 1302-6.26. Partial Invalidity

A. If any part, section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Part shall be held by any court to be unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Part, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 1349. Acts Prohibited

No corporation, domestic or foreign, doing business in this State, shall employ or use its stock, means, assets or other property, directly or indirectly for any purpose whatever other than to accomplish the legitimate business of its creation, or those purposes otherwise permitted by law; provided that nothing in this Article shall be held to inhibit corporations from contributing to any bona fide association, incorporated or unincorporated, organized for purely religious, charitable or eleemosynary activities, or to commercial or industrial clubs or associations or other civic enterprises or organizations not in any manner nor to any extent directly or indirectly engaged in furthering the cause of any political party, or aiding in the election or defeat of any candidate for office, or aiding in defraying the expenses of any candidate for office, or defraying or aiding in defraying the expenses of any political campaign, or political headquarters, or aiding or assisting the success or defeat of any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State or any subdivision thereof.

Art. 1351. Penalty

Any corporation which shall violate any provision of Article 1348 or Article 1349, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall on proof thereof in any Court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from or by virtue of the laws of this State.

Whenever it appears that the money, assets, property, or funds of a corporation have been issued, paid out, or used, in violation of any provision of said Articles 1348 or 1349, by any agent, attorney, director or officer of such corporation, it shall be considered the act of the corporation, unless, within one year from the date of such violation it has caused to be entered, through its board of directors on its records in this State, an order repudiating the wrong and permanently dismissing from its service all persons directly or indirectly connected with such violations.

Art. 1353. Watering Stock

No corporation shall issue any stock whatever, except for money paid, labor done which is reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the corporation, or property actually received reasonably worth at least the sum at which it was taken by the company. Any corporation which violates any provision of this article shall, on proof thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction, forfeit its charter, permit or license, as the case may be, and all rights and franchises which it holds under, from, or by virtue of the laws of this State.

Art. 1354. Suit

When any corporation has issued and has outstanding any stocks or bonds given or issued for any purpose, other than money paid to, labor done for, or property actually received by the corporation, the Attorney General when convinced that the facts exist which authorize the action, shall institute quo warranto or other appropriate judicial proceedings in Travis County or in any other county of this State where such corporation may be sued, to have such stocks or bonds issued in violation of the Constitution or laws of Texas, cancelled, expunged, and held for naught.

Within the meaning of the above, is included any bond or stock given in renewal, or in lieu of, any originally issued for purposes other than those mentioned above, also any issued by any corporation with which the corporation originally issuing any such stock or bonds has merged or been consolidated and given by said issuing corporation in the place of those originally issued for purposes other than as mentioned above.

Art. 1355. Avoidance of Suit

If any suit authorized under the preceding article has been instituted, the same shall be dismissed at the cost of the defendant, or if not instituted, no action shall be brought, if the defendant corporation shall surrender, or cause to be surrendered, to the court, or to the Railroad Commission of Texas, for destruction, all such illegal stocks and bonds complained of, with proper and legal releases thereof, suitably executed for record, with such other written evidences and documents as may be necessary to show that such stocks or bonds are no longer outstanding against the corporation.

Art. 1356. Remedies Cumulative

The rights and remedies given by the two preceding articles are cumulative, and shall not affect, change or repeal any other remedies or rights now existing in this State for the enforcement, payment, or collection of fines, forfeitures and penalties.

Arts. 1357, 1358. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 458, ch. 229, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1961

Arts. 1358-1 to 1358-26. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 408, ch. 205, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1961

Art. 1358a. Distribution to Shareholders of Cash or Property Held in Suspense, Escrow or Trust

This Section shall apply to all distributions of cash or property, tangible or intangible, made or payable, by any corporation, joint stock company or business trust having transferable shares or certificates of beneficial interest, organized under the laws of this state or substantially all of whose capital or assets consisted of property located in this state at the time of organization, to persons registered on its books as the owners of shares or certificates, whether in liquidation or from earnings, profits, assets or capital, and including all such distributions heretofore payable which were not paid to the person registered as the owner of the shares or interest on the records of such organization at the time such distributions were payable, or to the heirs, successors or assigns of such person, but which are now being held in suspense by such organization or which were paid or delivered by it into an escrow account or to a trustee or custodian. All such distributions or the avails thereof shall, subject to the provisions of this Section, be payable by such organization, escrow agent, trustee or custodian to such registered person, his heirs, successors or assigns, from and after the effective date of this Act. The person in whose name such shares or certificates are or were registered on the records of any such organization at the time such distributions are or were payable shall be presumed to be or to have been the owner of the shares or certificates so registered in his name at that time, and this presumption shall be rebuttable only by proof of an actual transfer having been made by such registered owner prior to that time to some known and identifiable person or persons. No such organization nor its trustees, officers, directors, or agents shall be under any liability whatever for making such distributions to a person in whose name shares or certificates were registered on its records at the time such distribution was payable to such person, or to the heirs, successors or assigns of such person, even though such person, or his heirs, successors or assigns, may not have a certificate for shares or of beneficial interest in his or their possession, unless, prior to the date any such distribution is or was payable, written notice shall have been given to such organization by a third party that he is the true beneficial owner of the shares or interest registered on its books in the name of another, and such person shall, thereafter, supply such organization with satisfactory proof of his ownership or, in the absence of such proof, shall thereafter establish by final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction that he is the unregistered owner of such shares or interest entitled to receive such distribution thereon.

Any claim that may be asserted under the provisions hereof by any person, other than the person in whose name the transferable shares or interest were registered on the records of such organization at the time such distribution was payable, for any such distribution on shares of or beneficial interest in such organization shall not be enforceable against such organization, its trustees, officers, directors, or agents, or against the person, his heirs, successors or assigns, in whose name the shares or interest were registered and to whom distribution was made, except by a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction commenced within four years from the time that such distribution was originally payable by such organization establishing by a final judgment that the claimant was entitled to receive such distribution, provided that as to any aforesaid cause of action heretofore accrued, the limitation period applicable thereto shall be either one year from the effective date of this Act or four years from the time such distribution was originally payable, whichever is longer.

Art. 1358b. Shares on Books of Corporations in Names of Joint Owners with Right of Survivorship

Whenever shares are registered on the books of a corporation in the names of two or more persons as joint owners with the right of survivorship, upon the death of any such joint owner, the surviving joint owner or owners shall have the power to transfer full legal and equitable title to such shares to any person, firm or corporation and may receive any dividends declared upon said shares as if such surviving joint owner or owners were the absolute owners of such shares prior to such time as the corporation receives actual written notice that parties other than such surviving joint owner or owners claim an interest in such shares or dividends, and the corporation permitting such transfer by and paying such dividends to such surviving joint owner or owners prior to the receipt of such written notice from other parties claiming an interest in such shares or dividends shall be discharged from all liability for the transfer or payment so made; provided, however, that the discharge of such corporation from liability and the transfer of full legal and equitable title of the shares shall in no way affect, reduce or limit any cause of action existing in favor of any owner of an interest in such shares or dividends against such surviving joint owner or owners.

1. TEXAS NON-PROFIT CORPORATION ACT

Art. 1396-1.01. Short Title, Captions, Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections and Paragraphs

A. This Act shall be known and may be cited as the "Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act."

B. The division of this Act into Parts, Articles, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

C. This Act has been organized and subdivided in the following manner:

(1) The Act is divided into Parts, containing groups of related Articles. Parts are numbered consecutively with cardinal numbers.

(2) The Act is also divided into Articles, numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals.

(3) Articles are divided into Sections. The Sections within each Article are numbered consecutively with capital letters.

(4) Sections are divided into Subsections. The Subsections within each Section are numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals enclosed in parentheses.

(5) Subsections are divided into Paragraphs. The Paragraphs within each Subsection are numbered consecutively with lower case letters enclosed in parentheses.

Art. 1396-1.02. Definitions

A. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation not for profit subject to the provisions of this Act, except a foreign corporation.

(2) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation not for profit organized under laws other than the laws of this State.

(3) "Non-Profit Corporation" is the equivalent of "not for profit corporation" and means a corporation no part of the income of which is distributable to its members, directors, or officers.

(4) "Articles of incorporation" means the original or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

(5) "By-laws" means the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the corporation, irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated.

(6) "Member" means one having membership rights in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles of incorporation or its by-laws.

(7) "Board of Directors" means the group of persons vested with the management of the affairs of the corporation, irrespective of the name by which such group is designated.

(8) "President" means that officer designated as "president" in the articles of incorporation or by-laws of a corporation, or that officer authorized, in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws, or otherwise, to perform the functions of the principal executive officer, irrespective of the name by which he may be designated, or that committee of persons authorized, in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws, or otherwise, to perform the functions of the principal executive officer.

(9) "Vice-president" means that officer designated as "vice-president" in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of a corporation, or that officer or committee of persons authorized, in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws, or otherwise, to perform the duties of the president upon the death, absence, or resignation of the president or upon his inability to perform the duties of his office, irrespective of the name by which he, or they, may be designated.

(10) "Secretary" means that officer designated as "secretary" in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of a corporation, or that officer or committee of persons authorized, in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws, or otherwise, to perform the functions of secretary, irrespective of the name by which he, or they, may be designated.

(11) "Treasurer" means that officer designated as "treasurer" in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of a corporation, or that officer or committee of persons authorized, in the articles of incorporation, the by-laws, or otherwise, to perform the functions of a treasurer, irrespective of the name by which he, or they, may be designated.

(12) "Insolvency" means inability of a corporation to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its affairs.

(13) "Verified" means subscribed and sworn to under the sanction of an oath, or such affirmation as is by law equivalent to an oath, made before an officer authorized to administer oaths.

Art. 1396-2.01. Purposes

A. Except as hereinafter in this Article expressly excluded herefrom, non-profit corporations may be organized under this Act for any lawful purpose or purposes, which purposes shall be fully stated in the articles of incorporation. Such purpose or purposes may include, without being limited to, any one or more of the following: charitable, benevolent, religious, eleemosynary, patriotic, civic, missionary, educational, scientific, social, fraternal, athletic, aesthetic, agricultural and horticultural; and the conduct of professional, commercial, industrial, or trade associations; and animal husbandry. Subject to the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 83, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and of such Chapter or any part thereof as it may hereafter be amended, a corporation may be organized under this Act if any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to organize laborers, working men, or wage earners to protect themselves in their various pursuits. Provided, however, that no articles of incorporation shall be issued hereafter to laborers, working men or wage earners, or amendment granted to a charter or articles of incorporation of a corporation previously created to organize laborers, working men or wage earners, or that may be created hereafter under this Act to organize laborers, working men or wage earners, by the Secretary of State to any person, association or corporation for such purposes without an investigation first having been made by the Labor Commissioner concerning such application and a favorable recommendation made thereon by said Labor Commissioner to the Secretary of State. No investigation or recommendation by the Labor Commissioner shall be required or made of applications from farmers for articles of incorporation.

(1) Charitable corporations may be formed for the purpose of operating a Dental Health Service Corporation which service corporation will manage and coordinate the relationship between the contracting dentist, who will perform the dental services, and the patient who will receive such services where such patient is a member of a group which has contracted with the Dental Health Service Corporation to provide dental care to members of that group. An application for a charter under this Section shall have attached as exhibits (1) an affidavit by the applicants that not less than thirty percent (30%) of the dentists legally engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state together with their names and addresses have signed contracts to perform the required dental services for a period of not less than one (1) year, after incorporation, and

(2) a certification by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners that the applicant incorporators are reputable citizens of the State of Texas and are of good moral character and that the corporation sought to be formed will be in the best interest of the public health. A corporation formed hereunder shall have not less than twelve (12) directors, nine (9) of whom shall be dentists licensed by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners to practice dentistry in this state and be actively engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state. A corporation formed hereunder shall maintain not less than thirty percent (30%) of the number of dentists actually engaged in the practice of dentistry in this state as participating or contracting dentists, and shall file with the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners each September the names and addresses of all contracting or participating dentists.

B. This Act shall not apply to any corporation, nor may any corporation be organized under this Act or obtain authority to conduct its affairs in this State under this Act:

(1) If any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is expressly forbidden by any law of this State.

(2) If any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to engage in any activity which cannot lawfully be engaged in without first obtaining a license under the authority of the laws of this State to engage in such activity and such license cannot lawfully be granted to a corporation.

(3) If any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to organize Group Hospital Service, Rural Credit Unions, Agricultural and Livestock Pools, Mutual Loan Corporations, Co-operative Credit Associations, Farmers' Co-operative Societies, Co-operative Marketing Act Corporations, Rural Electric Co-operative Corporations, Telephone Co-operative Corporations, or fraternal organizations operating under the lodge system and heretofore or hereafter incorporated under Articles 1399 through 1407, both inclusive, of Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

(4) If any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to operate a bank under the banking laws of this State or to operate an insurance company of any type or character that operates under the insurance laws of this State.

(5) If any one or more of its purposes for the conduct of its affairs in this State is to engage in water or sewer service and it has heretofore or is hereafter incorporated under the Acts of 1933, Forty-third Legislature, First Called Session, Chapter 76, as amended, Acts of 1941, Forty-seventh Legislature, page 666, Chapter 407, being presently identified as Article 1434(a), Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Art. 1396-2.02. General Powers

A. Subject to the provisions of Sections B and C of this Article, each corporation shall have power:

(1) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name, unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.

(2) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

(3) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed on, affixed to, or in any manner reproduced upon, instruments of any nature required to be executed by its proper officers.

(4) To purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use, or otherwise deal in and with, real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated, as the purposes of the corporation shall require.

(5) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(6) To lend money to, and otherwise assist, its employees, but not its officers and directors.

(7) To purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, mortgage, lend, pledge, sell or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships, or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States or of any other government, state, territory, government district, or municipality, or of any instrumentality thereof.

(8) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises, and income.

(9) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(10) To conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have officers and exercise the powers granted by this Act in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or any foreign country.

(11) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation for such period of time as the corporation may determine and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(12) To make and alter by-laws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this State, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(13) To make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes and in time of war to make donations in aid of war activities.

(14) To cease its corporate activities and terminate its existence by voluntary dissolution.

(15) Whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

(16) Any religious, charitable, educational, or eleemosynary institution organized under the laws of this State may acquire, own, hold, mortgage, and dispose of and invest its funds in real and personal property for the use and benefit and under the discretion of, and in trust for any convention, conference or association organized under the laws of this State or another state with which it is affiliated, or which elects its board of directors, or which controls it, in furtherance of the purposes of the member institution.

(17) To pay pensions and establish pension plans and pension trusts for all of, or class, or classes of its officer and employees, or its officers or its employees.

B. Nothing in this Article grants any authority to officers or directors of a corporation for the exercise of any of the foregoing powers, inconsistent with limitations on any of the same which may be expressly set forth in this Act or in the articles of incorporation or by-laws or in any other laws of this State. Authority of officers and directors to act beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of a corporation is not granted by any provisions of this Article.

C. Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to authorize any action in violation of the Anti-Trust Laws of this State or of any of the provisions of Chapter 4 of Title 32 of Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as now existing or hereafter amended. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 2.02.]

Art. 1396-2.03. Defense of Ultra Vires

A. Lack of capacity of a corporation shall never be made the basis of any claim or defense at law or in equity.

B. No act of a corporation and no conveyance or transfer of real or personal property to or by a corporation shall be invalid by reason of the fact that such act, conveyance or transfer was beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation or by reason of limitations on authority of its officers and directors to exercise any statutory power of the corporation, as such limitations are expressed in the articles of incorporation, but that such act, conveyance or transfer was, or is, beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation or inconsistent with any such expressed limitations of authority, may be asserted:

(1) In a proceeding by a member against the corporation to enjoin the doing of any act or acts or the transfer of real or personal property by or to the corporation. If the unauthorized act or transfer sought to be enjoined is being, or is to be, performed or made pursuant to any contract to which the corporation is a party, the court may, if all of the parties to the contract are parties to the proceedings and if it deems the same to be equitable, set aside and enjoin the performance of such contract, and in so doing may allow to the corporation or to the other parties to the contract, as the case may be, compensation for the loss or damage sustained by either of them which may result from the action of the court in setting aside and enjoining the performance of such contract, but anticipated profits to be derived from the performance of the contract shall not be awarded by the court as part of the loss or damage sustained.

(2) In a proceeding by the corporation, whether acting directly or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, or through members in a representative suit, against the incumbent or former officers or directors of the corporation for exceeding their authority.

(3) In a proceeding by the Attorney General, as provided in this Act, to dissolve the corporation, or in a proceeding by the Attorney General to enjoin the corporation from performing unauthorized acts, or to enforce divestment of real property acquired or held contrary to the laws of this State.

Art. 1396-2.04. Corporate Name

A. The corporate name shall conform to the following requirements:

(1) It shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(2) It shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under the laws of this State, or the name of any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this State, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time, reserved in the manner provided by the Texas Business Corporation Act,<sup>1</sup> or the name of a corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name as provided in the Texas Business Corporation Act; provided that a name may be similar if written consent is obtained from the existing corporation having the name deemed to be similar, or the person, or corporation, for whom the name deemed to be similar is reserved or registered in the office of the Secretary of State.

Art. 1396-2.05. Registered Office and Registered Agent

A. Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or to conduct its affairs in this State which has a principal or business office identical with such registered office.

B. On or before the 15th day of November, 1961, each not for profit corporation organized under the laws of this State prior to the effective date of this Act shall designate its registered office and appoint its registered agent by filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) The street address of its registered office.

(3) The name of its registered agent.

(4) The street address of its registered agent.

(5) That the street address of its registered office and the street address of its registered agent are the same.

(6) That such designation and appointment were authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors or, if the management of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> by the members.

C. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or a vice-president, and verified by him and delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees have been paid as prescribed by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Deliver the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

D. Upon such filing the designation of the registered office and the appointment of the registered agent shall become effective.

Art. 1396-2.06. Change of Registered Office or Agent

A. A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) The post-office address of its then registered office.
- (3) If the post-office address of its registered office is to be changed, the post-office address to which the registered office is to be changed.
- (4) The name of its then registered agent.
- (5) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.
- (6) That the post-office address of its registered office and the post-office address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.
- (7) That such change was authorized by its Board of Directors or by an officer of the corporation so authorized by the Board of Directors, or if the management of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> by the members.

B. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be executed by the corporation by its president or vice-president, and verified by him and delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees have been paid as prescribed by law:

- (1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed" and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.
- (2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.
- (3) Return the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

C. Upon such filing, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

D. Any registered agent of a corporation may resign

- (1) by giving written notice to the corporation at its last known address
- (2) and by giving written notice, in triplicate, to the Secretary of State within ten days after mailing or delivery of said notice to the corporation. Such notice shall include the last known address of the corporation and shall include the statement that written notice of resignation has been given to the corporation and the date thereof. Upon compliance with the requirements as to written notice, the appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice by the Secretary of State.

If the Secretary of State finds that such written notice conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

- (1) Endorse on each of such originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.
- (2) File one of such originals in his office.
- (3) Return one original to such resigning registered agent.
- (4) Return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the corporation as shown in such written notice.

Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2477, ch. 834, which amended this article and arts. 1396-7.01, 1396-7.02, 1396-8.08, and 1396-8.15, also provided:

"Sec. 9. Validation. Nothing in this Act shall invalidate any of the procedures hereby changed by this Act which have been initiated prior to the effective date of this Act, and under such circumstances and the Secretary of State and any other state agency affected is authorized to proceed under the appropriate procedures authorized prior to this Act or as changed by this Act.

"Sec. 10. Severability. The provisions of this Act are severable. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstance shall not be affected thereby."

Art. 1396-2.07. Service of Process on Corporation

A. The president and all vice-presidents of the corporation and the registered agent of the corporation shall be agents of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served. Where the chief executive function of a corporation is authorized to be performed by a committee, service on any member of such committee shall be deemed to be service on the president.

B. Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the Secretary of State of any process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with the Assistant Secretary of State, or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand. In the event any such process, notice, or demand is served on the Secretary of State, he shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service so had on the Secretary of State shall be returnable in not less than thirty (30) days.

C. The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices, and demands served upon him under this Article, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 2.07.]

Art. 1396-2.08. Members

A. A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members.

B. If the corporation has one or more classes of members, the designation of such class or classes, the manner of election or appointment, and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

C. If the corporation is to have no members, that fact shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation.

D. A corporation may issue certificates, or cards, or other instruments evidencing membership rights, voting rights or ownership rights as may be authorized in the articles of incorporation or in the by-laws.

E. The members of a non-profit corporation shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

Art. 1396-2.09. By-Laws

A. The initial by-laws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors or, if the management of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> by the members. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the by-laws or to adopt new by-laws shall be vested in the members, if any, but such power may be delegated by the members to the board of directors. In the event the corporation has no members, the power to alter, amend, or repeal the by-laws or to adopt new by-laws shall be vested in the board of directors. The by-laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of a corporation not inconsistent with law or with the articles of incorporation.

Art. 1396-2.10. Meetings of Members

A. If a corporation has members:

(1) Meetings of members shall be held at such place, either within or without this State, as may be provided in the by-laws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation in this State.

(2) An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such times as may be provided in the by-laws, except that where the by-laws of a corporation provide for more than one regular meeting of members each year, an annual meeting shall not be required, and directors may be elected at such meetings as the by-laws may provide. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a dissolution of the corporation. In the event the board of directors fails to call the annual meeting at the designated time, any member may make demand that such meeting be held within a reasonable time, such demand to be made in writing by registered mail directed to any officer of the corporation. If the annual meeting of members is not called within sixty (60) days following such demand, any member may compel the holding of such annual meeting by legal action directed against said board, and all of the extraordinary writs of common law and of courts of equity shall be available to such member to compel the holding of such annual meeting. Each and every member is hereby declared to have a justiciable interest sufficient to enable him to institute and prosecute such legal proceedings.

(3) Special meetings of the members may be called by the president, the board of directors, by members having not less than one-tenth ( $\frac{1}{10}$ ) of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting, or such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.11. Notice of Members' Meetings

A. In the case of a corporation other than a church, written or printed notice stating the place, day or hour of the meeting and, in case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than fifty (50) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president, or the secretary, or the officers or persons calling the meeting, to each member entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon paid.

B. In the case of a corporation which is a church, notice of meetings of members will be deemed sufficient if made by oral announcement at a regularly scheduled worship service prior to such meeting, or as otherwise provided in its articles of incorporation or its by-laws.

C. The by-laws may provide that no notice of annual or regular meetings shall be required.

D. If its by-laws so provide, a corporation having more than one thousand (1,000) members at the time a meeting is scheduled or called may give notice of such meeting by publication in any newspaper of general circulation in the community in which the principal office of such corporation is located.

Art. 1396-2.12. Quorum of Members

A. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or in the by-laws, members holding one-tenth of the votes entitled to be cast, represented in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. The vote of the majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the members present, or represented by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the members meeting, unless the vote of a greater number is required by law, the articles of incorporation, or the by-laws.

B. In the absence of an express provision to the contrary in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, a church incorporated prior to the effective date of this Act shall be deemed to have provided in its articles of incorporation or its by-laws that members present at a meeting, notice for which shall have been duly given, shall constitute a quorum. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 2.12.]

Art. 1396-2.13. Voting of Members

A. Each member, regardless of class, shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, except to the extent that the voting rights of members of any class or classes are limited, enlarged, or denied by the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

B. A member may vote in person or, unless the articles of incorporation or the by-laws otherwise provide, may vote by proxy executed in writing by the member or by his duly authorized attorney-in-fact. No proxy shall be valid after eleven (11) months from the date of its execution, unless otherwise provided in the proxy; provided, however, proxies executed before and in existence on the effective date of this Act shall continue in and have such effect as they then have in accordance with whatever may then be their terms. Each proxy shall be irrevocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable, and in no event shall it remain irrevocable for more than eleven (11) months. Where directors or officers are to be elected by members, the by-laws may provide that such elections may be conducted by mail.

C. At each election for directors every member entitled to vote at such election shall have the right to vote, in person or by proxy, for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or, if expressly authorized by the articles of incorporation, to cumulate his vote by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by his vote shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principle among any number of such candidates. Any member who intends to cumulate his votes as herein authorized shall give written notice of such intention to the secretary of the corporation on or before the day preceding the election at which such member intends to cumulate his votes.

Art. 1396-2.14. Board of Directors or Trustees

A. The affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a board of directors, or trustees. Directors or trustees need not be residents of this State or members of the corporation unless the articles of incorporation or the by-laws so require. The articles of incorporation or the by-laws may prescribe other qualifications for directors or trustees.

B. Boards of directors or trustees of religious, charitable, educational, or eleemosynary institutions may be affiliated with, elected and controlled by a convention, conference or association organized under the laws of this State or another state, whether incorporated or unincorporated, whose membership is composed of representatives, delegates, or messengers from any church or other religious association.

C. The articles of incorporation of a church may vest the management of the affairs of the corporation in its members. If the church has a board of directors or similar body, it may limit the authority of such board to whatever extent as may be set forth in the articles of incorporation or by-laws. A church organized and operating under a congregational system and incorporated prior to the effective date of this Act shall be deemed to have vested the management of the affairs of the corporation in its members in the absence of an express provision to the contrary in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

D. In the case of a corporation which is a church, the Board may be designated by any name appropriate to the customs, usages, or tenets of the church.

E. The board of directors or trustees of a non-profit corporation may be elected (in whole or in part) by another non-profit corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, if (1) the articles of incorporation or the by-laws of the former corporation so provide, and (2) the former has no members with voting rights.

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1716, ch. 656, §§ 2 and 3 amended articles 1396-2.17 and 1397-2.18, § A; section 4 of the act provided:

"Sec. 4. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 1396-2.15. Number, Election, Classification, and Removal of Directors

A. The number of directors of a corporation shall be not less than three (3). Subject to such limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the by-laws, except as to the number of the first board of directors which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the by-laws, unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the articles of incorporation. No decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a by-law fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the articles of incorporation.

B. The directors constituting the first board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation and shall hold office until the first annual election of directors or for such other period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. Thereafter, directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. In the absence of a provision fixing the term of office, the term of office of a director shall be one (1) year.

C. Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified.

D. A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.16. Vacancies

A. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, any vacancy occurring in the board of directors shall be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors though less than a quorum of the board of directors. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

B. Any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors shall be filled by election at an annual meeting or at a special meeting of members called for that purpose. If a corporation has no members, or no members having the right to vote thereon, such directorship shall be filled as provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.17. Quorum and Voting Directors

A. A quorum for the transaction of business by the board of directors shall be whichever is less:

(1) A majority of the number of directors fixed by the by-laws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, a majority of the number of directors stated in the articles of incorporation, or

(2) Any number, not less than three, fixed as a quorum by the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

B. Directors present by proxy may not be counted toward a quorum.

C. The act of the majority of the directors present in person or by proxy at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

D. A director may vote in person or (if the articles of incorporation or the by-laws so provide) by proxy executed in writing by the director. No proxy shall be valid after three months from the date of its execution. Each proxy shall be revocable unless expressly provided therein to be irrevocable, and unless otherwise made irrevocable by law.

Art. 1396-2.18. Committees

A. If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate one or more committees, which, to the extent provided in such resolution, in the articles of incorporation, or in the bylaws, shall have and exercise the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation. Each such committee shall consist of two or more persons, a majority of whom are directors; the remainder, if the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, need not be directors. The designation of such committees and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any individual director, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law. Any non-director who becomes a member of any such committee shall have the same responsibility with respect to such committee as a director who is a member thereof.

B. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation may be designated and appointed by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors at a meeting at which a quorum is present, or by the president thereunto authorized by a like resolution of the board of directors or by the articles of incorporation or by the bylaws. Membership on such committees may, but need not be, limited to directors.

Art. 1396-2.19. Place and Notice of Directors' Meetings

A. Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this State.

B. Regular meetings of the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the by-laws. Special meetings of the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the by-laws. Attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the ground that the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting, unless required by the by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.20. Officers

A. The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice-presidents, a secretary, a treasurer, and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary, each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms not exceeding three (3) years as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. In the absence of any such provisions, all officers shall be elected or appointed annually by the board of directors, or, if the management of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> by the members. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. A committee duly designated may perform the functions of any officer and the functions of any two or more officers may be performed by a single committee, including the functions of both president and secretary.

B. The articles of incorporation or the by-laws may provide that any one or more officers of the corporation shall be ex-officio members of the board of directors.

C. The officers of a corporation may be designated by such other or additional titles as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

D. In the case of a corporation which is a church, it shall not be necessary that there be officers as provided herein, but such duties and responsibilities may be vested in the board of trustees or other designated body in any manner provided for in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

Art. 1396-2.21. Removal of Officers

A. Any officer elected or appointed may be removed by the persons authorized to elect or appoint such officer whenever in their judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served thereby. The removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the officer so removed. Election or appointment of an officer or agent shall not of itself create contract rights.

Art. 1396-2.22. Indemnification of Officers and Directors in Certain Cases

A. The corporation shall have the power to indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer of the corporation for expenses and costs (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with any claim asserted against him, by action in court or otherwise, by reason of his being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall have been guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

B. If the corporation has not fully indemnified him, the court in the proceeding in which any claim against such director or officer has been asserted, or any court having the requisite jurisdiction of an action instituted by such director or officer on his claim for indemnity, may assess indemnity against the corporation, its receiver, or trustee, for the amount paid by such director or officer in satisfaction of any judgment or in compromise of any such claim (exclusive in either case of any amount paid to the corporation), and any expenses and costs (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection therewith to the extent that the court shall deem reasonable and equitable, provided, nevertheless, that indemnity may be assessed under this Section only if the court finds that the person indemnified was not guilty of negligence or misconduct in respect of the matter in which indemnity is sought.

Art. 1396-2.23. Books and Records

A. Each corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, board of directors, and committees having any authority of the board of directors and shall keep at its registered office or principal office in this State a record of the names and addresses of its members entitled to vote.

B. All books and records of a corporation may be inspected by any member, or his agent or attorney, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time.

Art. 1396-2.24. Dividends Prohibited

A. No dividend shall be paid and no part of the income of a corporation shall be distributed to its members, directors, or officers. A corporation may pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors, or officers for services rendered, may confer benefits upon its members in conformity with its purposes, and upon dissolution or final liquidation may make distributions to its members, but only as permitted by this Act.

Art. 1396-2.25. Loans to Directors and Officers Prohibited

A. No loans shall be made by a corporation to its directors or officers.

B. The directors of a corporation who vote for or assent to the making of a loan to a director or officer of the corporation, and any officer or officers participating in the making of such loan, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the amount of such loan until repayment thereof.

Art. 1396-2.26. Liability of Directors and Other Persons for Wrongful Distribution of Assets

A. In addition to any other liabilities imposed by law upon directors of a corporation, the directors who vote for or assent to any distribution of assets other than in payment of its debts, when the corporation is insolvent or when such distribution would render the corporation insolvent, or during the liquidation of the corporation without the payment and discharge of or making adequate provisions for all known debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation, shall be jointly and severally liable to the corporation for the value of such assets which are thus distributed, to the extent that such debts, obligations and liabilities of the corporation are not thereafter paid and discharged.

B. A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action was taken on such corporate matter shall be presumed to have assented to such action unless his dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he shall file his written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of the action.

C. A director shall not be liable under this Article if, in the exercise of ordinary care, he relied and acted in good faith upon written financial statements of the corporation represented to him to be correct by the president or by the officer of such corporation having charge of its books of account, or certified by an independent public or certified public accountant or firm of such accountants fairly to reflect the financial condition of such corporation, nor shall he be so liable if, in the exercise of ordinary care and good faith, in determining the amount available for such distribution, he considered the assets to be of their book value.

D. A director shall not be liable under this Article if, in the exercise of ordinary care, he acted in good faith and in reliance upon the written opinion of an attorney for the corporation.

E. A director against whom a claim shall be asserted under this Article and who shall be held liable thereon shall be entitled to contribution from persons who accepted or received such distribution knowing such distribution to have been made in violation of this Article, in proportion to the amounts received by them respectively.

Art. 1396-2.27. Charitable Corporations

A. Notwithstanding any provision in this Act or in the articles of incorporation to the contrary (except as provided in Section B), the articles of incorporation of each corporation which is a private foundation described in Section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954<sup>1</sup> shall be deemed to contain the following provisions: "The corporation shall make distributions at such time and in such manner as not to subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954;<sup>2</sup> the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing which would be subject to tax under Section 4941 of the Code;<sup>3</sup> the corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings which would subject it to tax under Section 4943 of the Code;<sup>4</sup> the corporation shall not make any investments which would subject it to tax under Section 4944 of the Code;<sup>5</sup> and the corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures which would subject it to tax under Section 4945 of the Code."<sup>6</sup> With respect to any such corporation organized prior to January 1, 1970, this Section A shall apply only for its taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1972.

B. The articles of incorporation of any corporation described in Section A may be amended to expressly exclude the application of Section A, and in the event of such amendment, Section A shall not apply to such corporation.

C. All references in this Article to "the Code" are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, and all references in this Article to specific sections of the Code include corresponding provisions of any subsequent Federal tax laws.

Section 2 of the 1971 Act provided: "If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of this Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the Legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion or provision. All of the terms and provisions of this Act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes, powers, rights, functions and authorities herein set forth."

Art. 1396-3.01. Incorporators

A. Three (3) or more natural persons, two (2) of whom must be citizens of the State of Texas, of the age of twenty-one (21) years or more may act as incorporators of a corporation by signing, verifying, and delivering in duplicate to the Secretary of State articles of incorporation for such corporation.

B. Any religious society, charitable, benevolent, literary, or social association, or church may incorporate under this Act with the consent of a majority of its members, who shall authorize the incorporators to execute the articles of incorporation.

Art. 1396-3.02. Articles of Incorporation

A. The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation.
- (2) A statement that the corporation is a non-profit corporation.
- (3) The period of duration, which may be perpetual.
- (4) The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized.
- (5) If the corporation is to have no members, a statement to that effect.
- (6) If the corporation is a church and the management of its affairs is to be vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> a statement to that effect.

(7) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, including any provision which under this Act is required or permitted to be set forth in the by-laws, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation.

(8) The street address of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such street address.

(9) The number of directors or trustees constituting the initial board of directors or trustees, and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors or trustees. A church vesting management of its affairs in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act may, in lieu of providing for a board of directors or trustees, set forth in the articles of incorporation the officers or other body designated pursuant to Article 2.20 D of this Act.

(10) The name and street address of each incorporator.

B. Provided that charters or articles of incorporation of corporations existing on the effective date of this Act which do not contain one or more of the requirements listed in the foregoing Section need not be amended for the purpose of meeting such requirements. Any subsequent amendment or restatement of the articles of incorporation of such corporation shall include such requirements, except that it shall not be necessary, in such amended or restated articles, to include the information required in Subsections (8), (9), and (10) of Section A.

C. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act.

D. Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors or trustees shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors or trustees made by amendment to the by-laws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a by-law, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

Art. 1396-3.03. Filing of Articles of Incorporation

A. Duplicate originals of the articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each duplicate original the word "Filed", and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of incorporation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State shall be delivered to the incorporators or their representatives.

Art. 1396-3.04. Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Incorporation

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with, and that the corporation has been incorporated under this Act, except as against the State in a proceeding for involuntary dissolution.

Art. 1396-3.05. Organization Meeting

A. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this State, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting by-laws, electing officers, and for such other purposes as may come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three (3) days' notice thereof by mail to each director named in the articles of incorporation, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting.

B. A first meeting of the members may be held at the call of the directors, or a majority of them, upon at least three (3) days' notice, for such purposes as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting.

C. If the management of a church is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> the organization meeting shall be held by the members upon the call of a majority of the incorporators. The incorporators calling the meeting shall (a) give at least three (3) days' notice by mail to each member stating the time and place of the meeting, or shall (b) make an oral announcement of the time and place of meeting at a regularly scheduled worship service prior to such meeting, or shall (c) give such notice of the meeting as may be provided for in the articles of incorporation.

Art. 1396-4.01. Right to Amend Articles of Incorporation

A. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation from time to time, in any and as many respects as may be desired, so long as its articles of incorporation as amended contain only such provisions as are lawful under this Act.

Art. 1396-4.02. Procedure to Amend Articles of Incorporation

A. Amendments to the articles of incorporation may be made in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, in which event the proposed amendment shall not be adopted unless it also receives at least two-thirds of the votes which the members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, an amendment shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of the corporation is vested in the members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> the proposed amendment shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to the members within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes of members present at such meeting.

B. Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting.

Art. 1396-4.03. Articles of Amendment

A. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) If the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added.

(3) Where there are members having voting rights, (1) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the amendment was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such amendment received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, as well as, in the case of any class entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, at least two-thirds of the votes which members of any such class who were present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, or (2) a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.

(4) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the amendment was adopted, and a statement of the fact that such amendment received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Art. 1396-4.04. Filing of Articles of Amendment

A. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this Act prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of amendment, together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

Art. 1396-4.05. Effect of Certificate of Amendment

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Secretary of State, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

B. No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending suit to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Art. 1396-4.06. Restated Articles of Incorporation

A. A corporation may, by following the procedure to amend the articles of incorporation provided by this Act, authorize, execute and file restated articles of incorporation which may restate either:

(1) The entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State; or

(2) The entire text of the articles of incorporation as amended or supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State, and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation.

B. If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State, without making any further amendment thereof, the introductory paragraph shall contain a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and that the instrument contains no change in the provisions thereof, provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the name and address of each incorporator may be omitted; and provided further that, if the management of a church is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act<sup>1</sup> and if, under that Article, original articles of incorporation are not required to contain a statement to that effect, any restatement of the articles of incorporation shall contain a statement to that effect.

C. If the restated articles of incorporation restate the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State, and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation, the instrument containing such articles shall:

(1) Set forth, for any amendment made by such restated articles of incorporation, a statement that each such amendment has been effected in conformity with the provisions of this Act, and shall further set forth the statements required by this act to be contained in articles of amendment, provided that the full text of such amendments need not be set forth except in the restated articles of incorporation as so amended.

(2) Contain a statement that the instrument accurately copies the articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto that are in effect to date and as further amended by such restated articles of incorporation and that the instrument contains no other change in any provision thereof; provided that the number of directors then constituting the board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons then serving as directors may be inserted in lieu of similar information concerning the initial board of directors, and the names and addresses of each incorporator may be omitted; and provided further that, if the management of a church is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act, and if, under that Article, original articles of incorporation are not required to contain a statement to that effect, any restatement of the articles of incorporation shall contain a statement to that effect.

(3) Restate the text of the entire articles of incorporation as amended and supplemented by all certificates of amendment previously issued by the Secretary of State and as further amended by the restated articles of incorporation.

D. Such restated articles of incorporation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles. Duplicate originals of the restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the restated articles of incorporation conform to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a restated certificate of incorporation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

E. The restated certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the restated articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

F. Upon the issuance of the restated certificate of incorporation by the Secretary of State, the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto shall be superseded and the restated articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be articles of incorporation of the corporation.

Art. 1396-5.01. Procedure for Merger of Domestic Corporations

A. Any two or more domestic corporations may merge into one of such corporations pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner provided in this Act.

B. Each corporation shall adopt a plan of merger setting forth:

- (1) The name of the corporation proposing to merge.
- (2) The name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.
- (3) The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.
- (4) A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be affected by such merger.
- (5) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Art. 1396-5.02. Procedure for Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Any two or more domestic corporations may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this Act.

B. Each corporation shall adopt a plan of consolidation setting forth:

- (1) The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate.
- (2) The name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.
- (3) The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.
- (4) With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this Act.
- (5) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Art. 1396-5.03. Approval of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. A plan of merger or consolidation of domestic corporations shall be adopted in the following manner:

- (1) Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation have voting rights, the board of directors of such corporations shall adopt a resolution approving the proposed plan and directing that it be submitted to a vote at the meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed plan or a summary thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed plan shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, in which event as to such corporations the proposed plan shall not be adopted unless it also receives at least two-thirds of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members having voting rights, a plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of such corporation upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of any merging or consolidating corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> the proposed plan shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members, which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice setting forth the proposed plan or a summary thereof shall be given to the members within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed plan shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes of the members present at such meeting.

B. After such approval, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

Art. 1396-5.04. Articles of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed in duplicate by each corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers of each corporation signing such articles, and shall set forth:

- (1) The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation.
- (2) Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation have voting rights, then as to each corporation (a) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the plan was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such plan received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, as well as, in the case of any class entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, at least two-thirds of the votes which members of any such class who were present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, or (b) a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.

(3) Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members having voting rights, then as to each such corporation a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was adopted and a statement of the fact that such plan received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

B. Duplicate originals of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this Act prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

C. The certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be returned to the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, or its representative.

Art. 1396-5.05. Effective Date of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. Upon the issuance of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation by the Secretary of State, the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations shall be effected.

Art. 1396-5.06. Effect of Merger or Consolidation of Domestic Corporations

A. When such merger or consolidation of domestic corporations has been effected:

(1) The several corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation shall be a single corporation, which, in the case of a merger, shall be that corporation designated in the plan of merger as the surviving corporation, and, in the case of consolidation, shall be the new corporation provided for in the plan of consolidation.

(2) The separate existence of all corporations parties to the plan of merger or consolidation, except the surviving or new corporation, shall cease.

(3) Such surviving or new corporation shall have all the rights, privileges, immunities and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of a corporation organized under this Act.

(4) Such surviving or new corporation shall thereupon and thereafter possess all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises, as well of a public as of a private nature, of each of the merging or consolidating corporations; and all property, real, personal and mixed, and all debts due on whatever account, and all other choses in action, and all and every other interest, of or belonging to or due to each of the corporations so merged or consolidated, shall be taken and deemed to be transferred to and vested in such single corporation without further act or deed.

(5) Such surviving or new corporation shall thenceforth be responsible and liable for all the liabilities and obligations of each of the corporations so merged or consolidated; and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against any of such corporations may be prosecuted as if such merger or consolidation had not taken place, or such surviving or new corporation may be substituted in its place. Neither the rights of creditors nor any liens upon the property of any such corporations shall be impaired by such merger or consolidation.

(6) In the case of a merger, the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation shall be deemed to be amended to the extent, if any, that changes in its articles of incorporation are stated in the plan of merger; and, in the case of a consolidation, the statements set forth in the articles of consolidation and which are required or are permitted to be set forth in the articles of incorporation of corporations organized under this Act shall be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of the new corporation.

Art. 1396-5.07. Merger or Consolidation of Domestic and Foreign Corporations

A. One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated, if such merger or consolidation is permitted by the laws of the State under which each such foreign corporation is organized. In the case of merger, the surviving corporation may be any one of the constituent corporations and shall be deemed to continue to exist under the laws of the state of its incorporation. In the case of consolidation, the new corporation may be a corporation organized under the laws of any state under which any of the constituent corporations was organized.

B. Such merger or consolidation shall be carried out in the following manner:

(1) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to merger or consolidation, as the case may be, of domestic corporations, except that if the surviving or new corporation is to be a foreign corporation, the plan of merger or consolidation shall specify the state under whose laws such surviving or new corporation is to be governed and the post office address of the registered or principal office of such surviving or new corporation in the state under whose laws it is to be governed; provided, however, that no domestic corporation shall be merged or consolidated with a foreign corporation unless and until a resolution authorizing such merger or consolidation shall receive, at a meeting of members of the domestic corporation, called and conducted in the same manner as provided by Article 5.03 of this Act,<sup>1</sup> at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, and provided further that if any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, as to such corporation the resolution shall not be adopted unless it shall also receive at least two-thirds of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, and provided further that if such a domestic corporation has no members, or no members having voting rights, the plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of such corporation upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(2) Each foreign corporation, if it is to transact business in this State, shall file with the Secretary of State of this State within thirty (30) days after the merger or consolidation, as the case may be, shall become effective, a copy of the plan, articles, or other document filed in the state of its incorporation for the purpose of effecting the merger or consolidation, certified by the public officer having custody of the original.

(3) If the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, is a foreign corporation, it shall comply with the provisions of this Act with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this State, and in every case it shall file with the Secretary of State of this State:

(a) An agreement that it may be served with process in this State in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which was a party to such merger or consolidation.

(b) An irrevocable appointment of the Secretary of State of this State as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding.

(4) Upon compliance by each domestic and foreign corporation which is a party to the merger or consolidation with the provisions of this Act with respect to merger or consolidation, and upon issuance by the Secretary of State of this State of the certificate of merger or the certificate of consolidation provided for in this Act, the merger or consolidation shall be effected in this State.

C. The effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is a domestic corporation. If the surviving or new corporation is a foreign corporation, the effect of such merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except in so far as the laws of such other state provide otherwise. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 5.07.]

Art. 1396-5.08. Conveyance by Corporation

A. Any corporation may convey land by deed, with or without the seal of the corporation, signed by the president or vice-president or attorney in fact of the corporation when authorized by appropriate resolution of the board of directors or members. Such deed, when acknowledged by such officer or attorney in fact to be the act of the corporation, or proved in the manner prescribed for other conveyances of lands, may be recorded in like manner and with the same effect as other deeds. Any such deed when recorded, if signed by the president or any vice-president of the corporation, shall constitute prima facie evidence that such resolution of the board of directors or members was duly adopted. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 5.08.]

Art. 1396-5.09. Sale, Lease or Exchange of Assets

A. A sale, lease or exchange of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any corporation for profit, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, or exchange, and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the sale, lease, or exchange of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of the corporation shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided by this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. At such meeting the members may authorize such sale, lease, or exchange, and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws in which event such authorization shall also require at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast. After such authorization by vote of members, the board of directors, nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, or exchange of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by members.

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, a sale, lease, or exchange of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation shall be authorized upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of a corporation vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> a resolution authorizing such sale, lease, or exchange shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members, which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the sale, lease, or exchange of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of the corporation shall be given to the members, within the time and in the manner provided by this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. At such meeting, the members may authorize such sale, lease, or exchange, and may fix, or authorize one or more of its members to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require at least two-thirds of the votes of the members present at such meeting.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, the board of directors may authorize any pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, or trust indenture and no authorization or consent of members shall be required for the validity thereof or for any sale pursuant to the terms thereof; provided that where the management of the affairs of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act, the members may authorize any pledge, mortgage, deed of trust, or trust indenture in the same manner as provided in Subsection (3) of this Section, and no authorization by the board of directors shall be required for the validity thereof or for any sale pursuant to the terms thereof.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection (1) of this Section, when the corporation is insolvent, a sale, lease, or exchange of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation shall be authorized upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Art. 1396-6.01. Voluntary Dissolution

A. A corporation may dissolve and wind up its affairs in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation, shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to dissolve the corporation shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, in which event the resolution shall not be adopted unless it also receives at least two-thirds of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, the dissolution of the corporation shall be authorized at a meeting of the board of directors upon the adoption of a resolution to dissolve by the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of the corporation is vested in the members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> a resolution that the corporation be dissolved shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice stating that the purpose or one of the purposes of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation shall be given to the members, within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to dissolve the corporation shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes of members present at such meeting.

B. Upon the adoption of such resolution by the members, or by the board of directors where there are no members or no members having voting rights, the corporation shall cease to conduct its affairs except in so far as may be necessary for the winding up thereof, shall immediately cause a notice of the proposed dissolution to be mailed to each known creditor of and claimant against the corporation, and shall proceed to collect its assets and apply and distribute them as provided in this Act.

Art. 1396-6.02. Application and Distribution of Assets

A. The assets of a corporation in the process of dissolution shall be applied and distributed as follows:

(1) All liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid, satisfied and discharged; in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy or discharge all the corporation's liabilities and obligations, the corporation shall apply them so far as they will go to the just and equitable payment of the liabilities and obligations.

(2) Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements.

(3) Assets received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution, together with any income earned thereon shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the dissolving corporation, pursuant to a plan of distribution adopted as provided in this Act.

(4) Other assets, if any, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the by-laws to the extent that the articles of incorporation or by-laws determine the distributive rights of members, or any class or classes of members, or provide for distribution to others.

(5) Any remaining assets may be distributed to such persons, societies, organizations or domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, as may be specified in a plan of distribution adopted as provided in this Act.

Art. 1396-6.03. Plan of Distribution

A. A plan providing for the distribution of assets, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, may be adopted by a corporation in the process of dissolution and shall be adopted by a corporation for the purpose of authorizing any transfer or conveyance of assets for which this Act requires a plan of distribution, in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending a plan of distribution and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed plan of distribution or a summary thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. Such plan of distribution shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, in which event the proposed plan shall not be adopted unless it also receives at least two-thirds of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, a plan of distribution shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> a proposed plan of distribution shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members, which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice setting forth the proposed plan of distribution or a summary thereof shall be given to the members within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. Such plan of distribution shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes of the members present at such meeting.

Art. 1396-6.04. Revocation of Voluntary Dissolution Proceedings

A. A corporation may, at any time prior to the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, revoke the action theretofore taken to dissolve the corporation, in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the voluntary dissolution proceedings be revoked, and directing that the question of such revocation be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings, shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast, unless any class of members is entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, in which event the proposed resolution shall not be adopted unless it also receives at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members of each such class who are present at such meeting in person or by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, a resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(3) Where the management of the affairs of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act,<sup>1</sup> a resolution that the voluntary dissolution proceedings be revoked shall be submitted to a vote at a meeting of the members, which may be an annual, a regular, or a special meeting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws, notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of revoking the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be given to the members, within the time and in the manner provided in this Act for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to revoke the voluntary dissolution proceedings shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes of the members present at such meeting.

B. Upon the adoption of such resolution by the members, or by the board of directors where there are no members or no members having voting rights, the corporation may thereupon again conduct its affairs.

Art. 1396-6.05. Article of Dissolution

A. If voluntary dissolution proceedings<sup>1</sup> have not been revoked, then when all debts, liabilities and obligations of the corporation have been paid and discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, or, in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge all the corporation's liabilities and obligations, then when all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to the just and equitable payment of the corporation's liabilities and obligations, and all of the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been transferred, conveyed or distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president, and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which statement shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) Where there are members having voting rights, (a) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the resolution to dissolve was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such resolution received at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, as well as, in the case of any class entitled to vote as a class thereon by the terms of the articles of incorporation or of the by-laws, at least two thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the votes which members of any such class who were present at such meeting in person or by proxy were entitled to cast, or (b) a statement that such resolution was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto.

(3) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the resolution to dissolve was adopted and a statement of the fact that such resolution received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(4) That all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation have been paid and discharged or that adequate provision has been made therefor, or, in case the corporation's property and assets were not sufficient to satisfy and discharge all its liabilities and obligations, that all the property and assets have been applied so far as they would go to the payment thereof in a just and equitable manner and that no property or assets remained available for distribution among its members.

(5) That all the remaining property and assets of the corporation have been transferred, conveyed or distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Act; provided, however, that if assets were received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution, there shall also be set forth a copy of the plan of distribution adopted as provided in this Act for the distribution of such assets, and a statement that distribution has been effected in accordance with such plan.

(6) That there are no suits pending against the corporation in any court, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suit.

Art. 1396-6.06. Filing of Articles of Dissolution

A. Duplicate originals of such articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this Act prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of dissolution to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be returned to the representative of the dissolved corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of dissolution the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and appropriate corporate action by members, directors and officers as provided in this Act.

Art. 1396-7.01. Involuntary Dissolution; Reinstatement

A. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by a decree of the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated or of any district court in Travis County in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation or its incorporators have failed to comply with a condition precedent to incorporation; or

(2) The original articles of incorporation or any amendments thereof were procured through fraud; or

(3) The corporation has continued to transact business beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes of the corporation as expressed in its articles of incorporation; or

(4) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this Act.

B. A corporation may be dissolved involuntarily by order of the Secretary of State when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation has failed to file any report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, franchise taxes or penalties prescribed by law when the same have become due and payable; or

(2) The corporation has failed to maintain a registered agent in this state as required by law.

C. No corporation shall be involuntarily dissolved under Section B hereof unless the Secretary of State, or other state agency with which such report, fees, taxes or penalties is required to be made, gives the corporation not less than 90 days notice of its neglect, delinquency, or omission by certified mail addressed to its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation, and the corporation has failed prior to such involuntary dissolution to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency.

D. Whenever a corporation has given cause for involuntary dissolution and has failed to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency as provided in Sections B and C, the Secretary of State shall thereupon dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of involuntary dissolution, which shall include the fact of such involuntary dissolution and the date and cause thereof. The original of such certificate shall be placed in his office and a copy thereof mailed to the corporation at its registered office, or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of involuntary dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except for purposes otherwise provided by law.

E. Any corporation dissolved by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Section B of this article may be reinstated by the Secretary of State at any time within a period of 12 months from the date of such dissolution, upon approval of an application for reinstatement signed by an officer or director of the dissolved corporation. Such application shall be filed by the Secretary of State whenever it is established to his satisfaction that in fact there was no cause for the dissolution, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in dissolution has been corrected and payment made of all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the dissolution plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of dissolution to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation not been dissolved. A reinstatement filing fee of $25.00 shall accompany the application for reinstatement.

Reinstatement shall not be authorized if the corporate name is the same as or deceptively similar to a corporate name already on file or reserved or registered, unless the corporation being reinstated contemporaneously amends the articles of incorporation to change its name.

When the application for reinstatement is approved and filed by the Secretary of State, the corporate existence shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from the date of dissolution except the reinstatement shall have no effect upon any issue of personal liability of the directors, officers, or agents of the corporation during the period between dissolution and reinstatement.

F. When a corporation is convicted of a felony, or when a high managerial agent is convicted of a felony in the conduct of the affairs of the corporation, the Attorney General may file an action to involuntarily dissolve the corporation in a district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation is situated or in a district court of Travis County. The court may dissolve the corporation involuntarily if it is established that:

(1) The corporation, or a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the corporation, has engaged in a persistent course of felonious conduct; and

(2) To prevent future felonious conduct of the same character, the public interest requires such dissolution.

G. Article 7.02 of this Act does not apply to Section F of this article.

Art. 1396-7.02. Notification to Attorney General, Notice to Corporation and Opportunity to Cure Default

A. The Secretary of State shall certify to the Attorney General, from time to time, the names of all corporations which have given cause for judicial dissolution of their charters or revocation of their certificates of authority as provided in this Act, together with the facts pertinent thereto. Every such certificate from the Secretary of State to the Attorney General shall be taken and received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

B. Whenever the Secretary of State shall certify the name of any such corporation to the Attorney General as having given any cause for dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority, the Secretary of State shall concurrently mail to such corporation at its registered office in this State a notice that such certification has been made and the grounds therefor. A record of the date of mailing such notice shall be kept in the office of the Secretary of State, and a certificate by the Secretary of State that such notice was mailed as indicated by such record shall be taken and received in all courts as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated.

C. If at the expiration of thirty (30) days after the date of such mailing the corporation has not cured the defaults so certified by the Secretary of State, the Attorney General may then file an action in the name of the State against such corporation for its dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority, as the case may be.

D. If, after any such action is filed but before judgment is pronounced in the district court, the corporation against whom such action has been filed shall cure its default and pay the costs of such action, the action shall abate.

E. If, after the issues made in any such action have been heard by the court trying same and it is found that the corporate defendant has been guilty of any default of such nature as to justify its dissolution or revocation of its certificate of authority as provided in this Act, the court shall without rendering or entering any judgment for a period of five (5) days pending the filing of an action upon a sworn application for stay of judgment as hereinafter provided, promptly pronounce its findings to such effect. If the corporation has proved by a preponderance of the evidence that the defaults of which the corporation has been found guilty were neither willful nor the result of failure to take reasonable precautions and has procured a finding to such effect it may promptly make sworn application to the court for a stay of entry of judgment in order to allow the corporation reasonable opportunity to cure the defaults of which it has been found guilty. If the court is reasonably satisfied on the basis of the corporation's sworn application and any evidence heard in support of or opposed to the application that the corporation is able and intends in good faith to cure the defaults of which it has been found guilty and that such stay is not applied for without just cause, the court shall grant such application and stay entry of judgment for such time as in the discretion of the court is reasonably necessary to afford the corporation opportunity to cure such defaults if it acts with reasonable diligence, but in no event shall such stay be for more than sixty (60) days after the date of the pronouncement of the court's findings. If during such period of time as shall be allowed by the court the corporation shall cure its defaults and pay the costs of such action, the court shall then enter judgment dismissing the action. If the corporation does not satisfy the court that it has cured its default within said period of time, the court shall enter final judgment at the expiration thereof.

F. If the corporation does not make application for stay of such judgment but does appeal therefrom and the trial court's judgment is affirmed and if the appellate court is satisfied that the appeal was taken in good faith and not for purpose of delay or with no sufficient cause and further finds that the defaults of which the corporation has been adjudged guilty are capable of being cured, it shall, if the appealing corporation has so prayed, remand the case to the trial court with instructions to grant the corporation opportunity to cure such defaults, such cure to be accomplished within such time after issuance of the mandate as the appellate court shall determine but in no event more than sixty (60) days thereafter. If during such period of time as shall have been so allowed the corporation shall cure such defaults and pay all costs accrued in such action, the trial court shall then enter judgment dismissing such action. If the corporation does not satisfy the trial court that it has cured its defaults within such period of time, the judgment shall thereupon become final.

Art. 1396-7.03. Venue and Process

A. Every action for the involuntary dissolution of a domestic corporation or revocation of the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be commenced by the Attorney General either in the district court of the county in which the registered office of the corporation in this State is situated, or in any district court of Travis County. Citation shall issue and be served as provided by law. If process is returned not found, the Attorney General shall cause publication to be made as in other civil cases in some newspaper published in the county where the registered office of the corporation in this State is situated, containing a notice of the pendency of such action, the title of the court, the title of the action, and the date on or after which default judgment may be entered. The Attorney General may include in one notice the name of any number of such corporations against which such actions are then pending in the same court. The Attorney General shall cause a copy of such notice to be mailed to the corporation at its registered office in this State within ten days after the first publication thereof. The certificate of the Attorney General of the mailing of such notice shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Such notice shall be published at least once a week for two consecutive weeks, and the first publication thereof may begin at any time after the citation has been returned. Unless a corporation shall have been served with citation, no default judgment shall be taken against it earlier than thirty days after the first publication of such notice. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 7.03.]

Art. 1396-7.04. Appointment of Receiver for Specific Corporate Assets

A. A receiver may be appointed by any court having jurisdiction of the subject matter for specific corporate assets located within the State, whether owned by a domestic or a foreign corporation, which are involved in litigation, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of a receiver to conserve such assets and to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if other remedies available either at law or in equity are determined by the court to be inadequate and only in the following instances:

(1) In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property; or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim; or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff or any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund or the proceeds thereof is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured.

(2) In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured, or that the condition to the mortgage has not been performed and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt.

(3) In any other actions where receivers for specific assets have heretofore been appointed by the usage of the court of equity.

B. The court appointing such receiver shall have and retain exclusive jurisdiction over the specific assets placed in receivership and shall determine the rights of the parties in these assets or their proceeds. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 7.04.]

Art. 1396-7.05. Appointment of Receiver to Rehabilitate Corporation

A. A receiver may be appointed for the assets and business of a corporation by the district court for the county in which the registered office of the corporation is located, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of a receiver to conserve the assets and affairs of the corporation and to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if all other remedies available either at law or in equity, including the appointment of a receiver for specific assets of the corporation, are determined by the court to be inadequate, and only in the following instances:

(1) In an action by a member when it is established:

(a) That the corporation is insolvent or in imminent danger of insolvency; or

(b) That the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the members are unable to break the deadlock, and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof; or

(c) That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; or

(d) That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted.

(2) In an action by a creditor when it is established:

(a) That the corporation is insolvent and the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon returned unsatisfied; or

(b) That the corporation is insolvent and the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing.

(3) In any other actions where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of the court of equity.

B. In the event that the condition of the corporation necessitating such an appointment of a receiver is remedied, the receivership shall be terminated forthwith and the management of the corporation shall be restored to the directors and officers, the receiver being directed to redeliver to the corporation all its remaining properties and assets.

Art. 1396-7.06. Jurisdiction of Court to Liquidate Assets and Affairs of Corporation and Receiverships Therefor

A. The district court for the county in which the registered office of a corporation is located may order the liquidation of the assets and affairs of the corporation and may appoint a receiver to effect such liquidation, whenever circumstances demand liquidation in order to avoid damage to parties at interest, but only if all other requirements of law are complied with and if all other remedies available either at law or in equity, including the appointment of a receiver of specific assets of the corporation and appointment of a receiver to rehabilitate the corporation, are determined by the court to be inadequate and only in the following instances:

(1) When an action has been filed by the Attorney General, as provided in this Act, to dissolve a corporation and it is established that liquidation of its affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

(2) Upon application by a corporation to have its liquidation continued under the supervision of the court.

(3) If the corporation is in receivership and no plan for remedying the condition of the corporation requiring appointment of the receiver, which the court finds to be feasible, has been presented within twelve (12) months after the appointment of the receiver.

(4) Upon application of any creditor if it is established that irreparable damage will ensue to the unsecured creditors of the corporation, generally, as a class, unless there be an immediate liquidation of the assets of the corporation.

(5) Upon application by a member or director when it is made to appear that the corporation is unable to carry out its purposes.

B. The assets of the corporation or the proceeds resulting from a sale, conveyance, or other disposition thereof shall be applied and distributed as follows:

(1) All costs and expenses of the court proceedings and all liabilities and obligations of the corporation shall be paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provision shall be made therefor;

(2) Assets held by the corporation upon condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance, which condition occurs by reason of the dissolution or liquidation, shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with such requirements;

(3) Assets received and held by the corporation subject to limitations permitting their use only for charitable, religious, eleemosynary, benevolent, educational or similar purposes, but not held upon a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance by reason of the dissolution or liquidation, shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the dissolving or liquidating corporation as the court may direct;

(4) Other assets, if any, shall be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation or the by-laws to the extent that the articles of incorporation or by-laws determine the distributive rights of members, or any class or classes of members, or provide for distribution to others;

(5) Any remaining assets may be distributed to such persons, societies, organizations or domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, specified in the plan of distribution adopted as provided in this Act, or where no plan of distribution has been adopted, as the court may direct.

C. In the event the condition of the corporation necessitating the appointment of a receiver is remedied, the receivership shall be terminated forthwith and the management of the corporation shall be restored to the directors and the officers, the receiver being directed to re-deliver to the corporation all its remaining properties and assets.

Art. 1396-7.07. Qualification, Powers, and Duties of Receivers; Other Provisions Relating to Receiverships

A. No receiver shall be appointed for any corporation in which this Act applies or for any of its assets or for its business except as provided for and on the conditions set forth in this Act. A receiver shall in all cases be a citizen of the United States or a corporation authorized to act as receiver, which corporation may be a domestic corporation or a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this State, and shall in all cases give such bond as the court may direct with such sureties as the court may require.

B. A receiver appointed by authority of this Act shall have authority to sue and be sued in all courts in his own name and shall have those powers and duties provided by laws of general applicability relating to receivers and in addition thereto may be accorded such other powers and duties as the court shall deem appropriate to accomplish the objectives for which the receiver was appointed. Such additional and unusual powers and duties shall be stated in the order appointing the receiver and may be increased or diminished at any time during the proceedings.

C. In proceedings involving any receivership of the assets or business of a corporation, the court may require all creditors of the corporation to file with the clerk of the court or with the receiver, in such form as the court may prescribe, proofs of their respective claims under oath. If the court requires the filing of claims, it shall fix a date as the last day for the filing thereof, which shall be not less than four months from the date of the order, and shall prescribe the notice that shall be given to creditors and claimants of the date so fixed. Prior to the date so fixed, the court may extend the time for the filing of claims. Creditors and claimants failing to file proofs of claim on or before the date fixed therefor may be barred, by order of court (unless presenting to the court a justifiable excuse for delay in the filing), from participating in the distribution of the assets of the corporation but no discharge shall be decreed or effected.

D. The court shall have power from time to time to make allowances to the receiver or receivers and to attorneys in the proceeding, and to direct the payment thereof out of the assets of the corporation within the scope of the receivership or the proceeds of any sale or disposition of such assets.

E. A court authorized to appoint a receiver for a corporation to which this Act applies, and no other court in this State, shall be authorized to appoint a receiver for the corporation or its assets and business; when such a court does appoint a receiver, as authorized by this Act, for the corporation or its assets and business, that court shall have exclusive jurisdiction of the corporation and all its properties, wherever situated.

F. Notwithstanding any provision of this Article or in this Act to the contrary, the district court for the county in which the registered office of any foreign corporation doing business in this State is located shall have jurisdiction to appoint an ancillary receiver for the assets and business of such corporation, to serve ancillary to the receiver for the assets and business of the corporation acting under orders of a court having jurisdiction to appoint such a receiver for the corporation, located in any other state, whenever circumstances exist deemed by the court to require the appointment of such ancillary receiver. Moreover, such district court, whenever circumstances exist deemed by it to require the appointment of a receiver for all the assets in and out of this State, and the business of a foreign corporation doing business in this State, in accordance with the ordinary usages of equity, may appoint such a receiver for all its assets in and out of this State, and its business, even though no receiver has been appointed elsewhere; such receivership shall be converted into an ancillary receivership when deemed appropriate by such district court in the light of orders entered by a court of competent jurisdiction in some other state, providing for a receivership of all assets and business of such corporation.

Art. 1396-7.08. Directors and Members not Necessary Parties Defendant to Receivership or Liquidation Proceedings

A. It shall not be necessary to make directors or members parties to any action or proceeding for involuntary dissolution, receivership or liquidation of the assets and business of a corporation unless relief is sought against them personally.

Art. 1396-7.09. Decree of Involuntary Dissolution

A. In proceedings to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation, when the costs and expenses of such proceedings and all debts, obligations, and liabilities of the corporation shall have been paid and discharged and all of its remaining property and assets distributed in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or in case its property and assets are not sufficient to satisfy and discharge such costs, expenses, debts, and obligations, when all the property and assets have been applied so far as they will go to their payment, the court shall enter a decree dissolving the corporation, whereupon the existence of the corporation shall cease.

Art. 1396-7.10. Filing of Decree of Dissolution

A. In any case in which the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the Secretary of State. No fee shall be charged by the Secretary of State for the filing thereof.

Art. 1396-7.11. Deposit with State Treasurer of Amount Due Certain Persons

A. Upon the voluntary or involuntary dissolution of a corporation, the portion of the assets distributable to a creditor or member or other person who is unknown or cannot be found after the exercise of reasonable diligence by the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets shall be reduced to cash and deposited with the State Treasurer, together with a statement giving the name of the person, if known, entitled to such fund, his last known address, the amount of his distributive portion, and such other information about such person as the State Treasurer may reasonably require, whereupon the person or persons responsible for the distribution in liquidation of the corporation's assets shall be released and discharged from any further liability with respect to the funds so deposited. The State Treasurer shall issue his receipt for such fund and shall deposit same in a special account to be maintained by him.

B. On receipt of satisfactory written and verified proof of ownership or of right to such fund within seven (7) years from the date such fund was so deposited, the State Treasurer shall certify such fact to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, who shall issue proper warrant therefor drawn on the State Treasurer in favor of the person or persons then entitled thereto. If no claimant has made satisfactory proof of rights to such fund within seven (7) years from the time of such deposit the State Treasurer shall then cause to be published in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County, Texas, a notice of the proposed escheat of such fund, giving the name of the creditor or shareholder apparently entitled thereto, his last known address, if any, the amount of the fund so deposited, and the name of the dissolved corporation from whose assets such fund was derived. If no claimant makes satisfactory proof of right to such fund within two months from the time of such publication, the fund so unclaimed shall thereupon automatically escheat to and become the property of the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas.

Art. 1396-7.12. Survival of Remedy After Dissolution

A. The dissolution of a corporation either (1) by the issuance of a certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, or (2) by a decree of court when the court has not liquidated the assets and affairs of the corporation as provided in this Act, or (3) by expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers, or members, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within three (3) years after the date of such dissolution. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The members, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If such corporation was dissolved by the expiration of its period of duration, such corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time during such period of three (3) years so as to extend its period of duration.

Provided, however, any non-profit cemetery association whose charter expired prior to 1955 shall have until January 1, 1968 to amend its articles of incorporation so as to extend its period of duration. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 7.12; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1824, ch. 704, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1396-8.01. Admission of Foreign Corporations

A. No foreign corporation shall have the right to conduct affairs in this State until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the Secretary of State. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this Act to conduct in this State any affairs which a corporation organized under the laws of this State is not permitted to conduct. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this State, and nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize this State to regulate the organization of such corporation, or its internal affairs not intrastate in Texas.

B. Without excluding other activities which may not constitute conducting affairs in this State, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be conducting affairs in this State, for the purposes of this Act, by reason of carrying on in this State any one (1) or more of the following activities:

- (1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administration or arbitration proceedings, or affecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes to which it is a party.
- (2) Holding meetings of its directors or members or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.
- (3) Maintaining bank accounts.
- (4) Voting the stock of any corporation which it has lawfully acquired.
- (5) Effecting sales through independent contractors.
- (6) Creating evidence of debt, mortgages, or liens on real or personal property.
- (7) Securing or collecting debts due to it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.
- (8) Conducting any affairs in interstate commerce.
- (9) Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty (30) days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.
- (10) Exercising the powers of executor or administrator of the estate of a non-resident decedent under ancillary letters issued by a court of this State, or exercising the powers of a trustee under the will of a non-resident decedent, or under a trust created by a person, corporation or association, non-resident of this State, if the exercise of such powers in such case will not involve activities which would be deemed to constitute the transacting of business in this State in the case of a foreign corporation acting in its own right.

(11) Acquiring, in transactions outside Texas, or in interstate commerce, of debts secured by mortgages or liens on real or personal property in Texas, collecting or adjusting of principal and interest payments thereon, enforcing or adjusting any rights and property securing said debts, taking any actions necessary to preserve and protect the interest of the mortgagee in said security, or any combinations of such transactions.

(12) Investing in or acquiring, in transactions outside of Texas, royalties and other non-operating mineral interests, and the execution of division orders, contracts of sale and other instruments incidental to the ownership of such non-operating mineral interests.

Art. 1396-8.02. Powers of Foreign Corporations

A. A foreign corporation which shall have received a certificate of authority under this Act, shall, until its certificate of authority shall have been revoked in accordance with the provisions of this Act or until a certificate of withdrawal shall have been issued by the Secretary of State as provided in this Act, enjoy the same, but no greater, rights and privileges as a domestic corporation organized for the purposes set forth in the application pursuant to which such certificate of authority is issued; and, as to all matters affecting the conduct of intrastate affairs in this State, it and its officers and directors shall be subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or hereafter imposed upon a domestic corporation of like character and its officers and directors.

Art. 1396-8.03. Corporate Name of Foreign Corporation

A. No certificate of authority shall be issued to a foreign corporation if the corporate name of such corporation:

(1) Contains any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(2) Is the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under any Act of this State, or any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this State, or a corporate name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this State.

Art. 1396-8.04. Application for Certificate of Authority

A. A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State, shall make application therefor to the Secretary of State, which application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) A statement that the corporation is a non-profit corporation.

(3) The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.

(4) The address of the principal office of the corporation in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(5) The address of the proposed registered office of the corporation in this State, and the name of its proposed registered agent in this State at such address.

(6) The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in conducting its affairs in this State.

(7) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

(8) Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the Secretary of State to determine whether such corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State.

B. Such application shall be made on forms promulgated by the Secretary of State and shall be executed in duplicate by any authorized officer of the corporation and verified by such officer. The verification shall include a statement that the officer executing the application is duly authorized to do so on behalf of the corporation.

Art. 1396-8.05. Filing of Application for Certificate of Authority

A. Duplicate originals of the application of the corporation for a certificate of authority shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, together with a copy of its articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or county under the laws of which it is incorporated. If the Secretary of State finds that such application conforms to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this Act prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File in his office one of such duplicate originals of the application and the copy of the articles of incorporation and amendments thereto.

(3) Issue a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State to which he shall affix the other duplicate original application.

B. The certificate of authority, together with the duplicate original of the application affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the corporation or its representative.

Art. 1396-8.06. Effect of Certificate of Authority

A. Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority by the Secretary of State, the corporation shall be authorized to conduct affairs in this State for those purposes set forth in its application, subject, however, to the right of this State to revoke such authority as provided in this Act.

Art. 1396-8.07. Registered Office and Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation

A. Each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State shall have and continuously maintain in this State:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this State whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this State, having an office identical with such registered office.

Art. 1396-8.08. Change of Registered Office or Registered Agent of Foreign Corporation

A. A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the Secretary of State a statement setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.
 (2) The post-office address of its then registered office.

(3) If the post-office address of its registered office is to be changed, the post-office address to which the registered office is to be changed.

(4) The name of its then registered agent.

(5) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(6) That the post-office address of its registered office and the post-office address of the business office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(7) That such change was authorized by its Board of Directors or by an officer of the corporation so authorized by the Board of Directors, or if the management of the corporation is vested in its members pursuant to Article 2.14 C of this Act, by the members.

B. Such statement shall be executed in duplicate by any authorized officer of the corporation, and verified by such officer. The verification shall include a statement that the officer executing the statement is duly authorized to do so on behalf of the corporation. Duplicate originals of such statement shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Return the other of such duplicate originals to the corporation or its representative.

C. Upon the filing of such statement by the Secretary of State, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective.

D. Any registered agent of a corporation may resign

(1) by giving written notice to the corporation at its last known address

(2) and by giving written notice, in triplicate, to the Secretary of State within ten days after mailing or delivery of said notice to the corporation. Such notice shall include the last known address of the corporation and shall include the statement that written notice of resignation has been given to the corporation and the date thereof.

Upon compliance with the requirements as to written notice, the appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice by the Secretary of State.

If the Secretary of State finds that such written notice conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) Endorse on each of such originals the word "filed" and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such originals in his office.

(3) Return one original to such resigning registered agent.

(4) Return one original to the corporation at the last known address of the corporation as shown in such written notice.

Art. 1396-8.09. Service of Process on Foreign Corporation

A. The president and all vice-presidents of a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State and the registered agent so appointed by a foreign corporation shall be agents of such corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served. Where the chief executive function is performed by a committee, service may be had on any member thereof.

B. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this State, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, or whenever the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked, then the Secretary of State shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the Secretary of State of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with him, or with the Assistant Secretary of State, or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his office, duplicate copies of such process, notice, or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the Secretary of State, he shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by registered mail, addressed to the corporation at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated. Any service so had on the Secretary of State shall be returnable in not less than thirty (30) days.

C. The Secretary of State shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon him under this Article, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

D. Provisions of Article 2031A of Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended shall not apply to any corporation to which this Act applies.

Art. 1396-8.10. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation of Foreign Corporation

A. Whenever the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State are amended such foreign corporation shall, within thirty (30) days after such amendment becomes effective, file in the office of the Secretary of State a copy of such amendment duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated; but the filing thereof shall not of itself enlarge or alter the purpose or purposes which such corporation is authorized to pursue in conducting its affairs in this State, nor authorize such corporation to conduct affairs in this State under any other name than the name set forth in its certificate of authority.

Art. 1396-8.11. Merger of Foreign Corporation Authorized to Conduct Affairs in this State

A. Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall, within thirty (30) days after such merger becomes effective, file with the Secretary of State a copy of the articles of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected; and it shall not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this State other or additional purposes than those which it is then authorized to pursue in this State.

Art. 1396-8.12. Amended Certificate of Authority

A. A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State shall procure an amended certificate of authority in the event it changes its corporate name, or desires to pursue in this State other or additional purposes than those set forth in its prior application for a certificate of authority, by making application therefor to the Secretary of State.

B. The requirements in respect to the form and contents of such application, the manner of its execution, the filing of duplicate originals thereof with the Secretary of State, the issuance of an amended certificate of authority and the effect thereof, shall be the same as in the case of an original application for a certificate of authority.

Art. 1396-8.13. Withdrawal of Foreign Corporation

A. A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State may withdraw from this State upon procuring from the Secretary of State a certificate of withdrawal. In order to procure such certificate of withdrawal, such foreign corporation shall deliver to the Secretary of State an application for withdrawal, which shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) That the corporation is not conducting affairs in this State.

(3) That the corporation surrenders its authority to conduct affairs in this State.

(4) That the corporation revokes the authority of its registered agent in this State to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action, suit or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this State during the time the corporation was authorized to conduct affairs in this State may thereafter be made on such corporation by service thereof on the Secretary of State.

(5) A post office address to which the Secretary of State may mail a copy of any process against the corporation that may be served on him.

(6) A statement that all sums due, or accrued, to this State have been paid, or that adequate provision has been made for the payment thereof.

(7) A statement that all known creditors or claimants have been paid or provided for and that the corporation is not involved in or threatened with litigation in any court in this State, or that adequate provision has been made for the satisfaction of any judgment, order or decree which may be entered against it in any pending suits.

B. The application for withdrawal shall be made on forms promulgated by the Secretary of State and shall be executed by any authorized officer of the corporation and verified by such officer, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, it shall be executed and verified on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee. The verification shall include a statement that the officer executing the application is duly authorized to do so on behalf of the corporation.

Art. 1396-8.14. Filing of Application for Withdrawal

A. Duplicate originals of such application for withdrawal shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such application conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall, when all fees have been paid as in this Act prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed", and the month, day and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of withdrawal to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

B. The certificate of withdrawal, together with the duplicate original of the application for withdrawal affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative. Upon the issuance of such certificate of withdrawal, the authority of the corporation to conduct affairs in this State shall cease.

Art. 1396-8.15. Revocation of Certificate of Authority

A. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state may be revoked by a decree of the district court for the county in which the registered office of the corporation in this state is situated or of any district court in Travis County in an action filed by the Attorney General when it is established that:

(1) The corporation has failed to comply with a condition precedent to the issuance of its certificate of authority or a renewal or amendment thereof; or

(2) The certificate of authority to transact business in this state or any amendment thereof was procured through fraud; or

(3) The corporation has continued to conduct affairs beyond the scope of the purpose or purposes expressed in its certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state; or

(4) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation as required by law.

B. The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state may be revoked by order of the Secretary of State when it is established that it is in default in any of the following particulars:

(1) The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by law, or has failed to pay any fees, franchise taxes, or penalties prescribed by law when the same have become due and payable; or

(2) The corporation has failed to maintain a registered agent in this state as required by law; or

(3) The corporation has failed to file in the office of the Secretary of State any amendment to its articles of incorporation or any articles of merger or consolidation within the time prescribed by this Act; or

(4) The corporation has changed its corporate name and has failed to file with the Secretary of State within thirty days after such change of name became effective, an application for an amended certificate of authority, or that the corporation has changed its corporate name and that the newly adopted name is not available for use in this state.

C. No foreign corporation shall have its certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state revoked under Section B hereof unless the Secretary of State, or other state agency to which such report, taxes, fees or penalties is required to be made, gives the corporation not less than 90 days notice of its neglect, delinquency, or omission by certified mail addressed to its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation, and the corporation has failed prior to such revocation to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency.

D. Whenever a corporation has given cause for revocation of its certificate of authority and has failed to correct the neglect, omission or delinquency as provided in Sections B and C, the Secretary of State shall thereupon revoke the certificate of authority of the corporation by issuing a certificate of revocation which shall include the fact of such revocation and the date and cause thereof. The original of such certificate shall be placed in his office and a copy thereof mailed to the corporation at its registered office or to its principal place of business, or to the last known address of one of its officers or directors, or to any other known place of business of said corporation. Upon the issuance of such certificate of revocation, the authority to conduct affairs in this state shall cease.

E. Any corporation whose certificate of authority has been revoked by the Secretary of State under the provisions of Section B of this article may be reinstated by the Secretary of State at any time within a period of 12 months from the date of such dissolution, upon approval of an application for reinstatement signed by an officer or director of the corporation. Such application shall be filed by the Secretary of State whenever it is established to his satisfaction that in fact there was no cause for the revocation, or whenever the neglect, omission or delinquency resulting in revocation has been corrected and payment made of all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the revocation plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of revocation to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation's certificate not been revoked. A reinstatement filing fee of $25.00 shall accompany the application for reinstatement.

Reinstatement shall not be authorized if the corporate name is the same as or deceptively similar to a corporate name already on file or reserved or registered, unless the corporation being reinstated contemporaneously amends its certificate of authority to change its name.

When the application for reinstatement is approved and filed by the Secretary of State, the corporate authority to do business in Texas shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from the date of revocation, except that reinstatement shall have no effect upon any issue of personal liability of the directors, officers, or agents of the corporation during the period between revocation and reinstatement.

F. When a foreign corporation is convicted of a felony, or when a high managerial agent is convicted of a felony committed in the conduct of the affairs of the foreign corporation, the Attorney General may file an action to revoke the certificate of authority of the foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state in a district court of the county in which the registered office of the foreign corporation in this state is situated or in a district court of Travis County. The court may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority if it is established that:

(1) The foreign corporation, or a high managerial agent acting in behalf of the foreign corporation, has engaged in a persistent course of felonious conduct; and

(2) To prevent future felonious conduct of the same character, the public interest requires such revocation.

G. Article 7.02 of this Act does not apply to Section F of this article.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 286, ch. 162, art. 8.15; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 533, ch. 276, §§ 4, 5, eff. Aug. 30, 1965; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2477, ch. 834, § 7, eff. June 18, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 990, ch. 399, § 2(N), eff. Jan. 1, 1974.]

Art. 1396-8.16. Filing of Decree of Revocation

A. In case the court shall enter a decree revoking the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this State, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the Secretary of State. No fee shall be charged by the Secretary of State for the filing thereof.

Art. 1396-8.17. Conducting Affairs without Certificate of Authority

A. No foreign corporation which is conducting affairs in this State without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this State until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority. Nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this State by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the conduct of affairs by such corporation in this State, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets. It is expressly provided, however, that the provisions of this Article shall not affect the rights of any assignee of the foreign corporation as the holder in due course of a negotiable promissory note, check or bill of exchange, or as the bona-fide purchaser for value of a warehouse receipt, stock certificate, or other instrument made negotiable by law.

B. The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this State.

Art. 1396-9.01. Report of Domestic and Foreign Corporations

A. The Secretary of State is authorized to require each domestic corporation and each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this State to file, not more often than once every four (4) years for any corporation, a report setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) The address of the registered office of the corporation in this State, and the name of its registered agent in this State at such address, and, in the case of a foreign corporation, the address of its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(3) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

B. Such report shall be made on forms promulgated by the Secretary of State, and the information contained shall be given as of the date of the execution of the report. It shall be executed by any authorized officer of the corporation and verified by such officer; or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, it shall be executed and verified on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee. The verification shall include a statement that the officer executing the report is duly authorized to do so on behalf of the corporation.

C. Such report shall be delivered to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) days of the mailing of notice by the Secretary of State to the corporation that such report is due. Such notice may be either written or printed and shall be addressed to such corporation and mailed to the address named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to its registered agent, or to the last address of the corporation as it appears on record in the office of the Secretary of State, or to any other known place of business of such corporation.

D. Along with the notice that such report is due, the Secretary of State shall mail to the corporation two (2) copies of a report form which shall be prepared and filed as herein provided.

E. One (1) copy of such report shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such report conforms to the provisions of this Act, he shall:

(1) Endorse on such report the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) Notify the corporation of the filing of such report.

F. Within two (2) years after September 1, 1961, the Secretary of State shall mail such notice to each non-profit corporation organized under the laws of this State prior to the effective date of this Act and subject to the provisions of this Act, and such report shall thereafter be filed as provided herein.

A. Any domestic or foreign corporation which shall fail to file the report provided for in Article 9.01 of this Act,<sup>1</sup> when the same shall become due, shall, for such default, forfeit its right to conduct affairs in this State.

B. Such forfeiture shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment by the Secretary of State entering upon the margin of the record kept in his office relating to such corporation the words "right to conduct affairs forfeited," together with the date of such forfeiture. Notice of such forfeiture shall thereupon be mailed to the corporation to the address named in its articles of incorporation as its principal place of business, or to its registered agent, or to the last address of the corporation as it appears on record in the office of the Secretary of State; or to any other known place of business of such corporation. Until the right of such corporation to conduct affairs in this State shall be revived in accordance with Sections C and D of this Article, it shall not be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this State. Nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this State by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim, or demand arising out of the conduct of affairs by such corporation in this State, until the right of such corporation to conduct affairs in this State shall have been revived in accordance with Sections C and D of this Article. It is expressly provided, however, that the provisions of this Article shall not affect the rights of any assignee of the corporation as the holder in due course of a negotiable promissory note, check, or bill of exchange, or as the bona fide purchaser for value of a warehouse receipt, stock certificate, or other instrument negotiable by law. The forfeiture of the right to conduct affairs in this State shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit, or proceeding in any court of this State.

C. Any corporation whose right to conduct affairs may have been forfeited as provided in this Act, shall be relieved from such forfeiture by filing the required report with the Secretary of State within 120 days of the date of mailing such notice of forfeiture, together with a late filing fee of One Dollar ($1) for each month, or fractional part thereof, which shall have elapsed after such forfeiture of its right to conduct affairs; provided, that such amount shall in no case be less than Five Dollars ($5) nor more than Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

D. When such report shall be filed and the revival fee shall be paid to the Secretary of State, he shall revive the right of the corporation to conduct affairs in this State, cancelling the words "right to conduct affairs forfeited" upon his record, and endorsing thereon the word "Revived" and the date of such revival.

E. If any corporation whose right to conduct affairs within this State shall hereafter be forfeited under the provisions of this Act shall fail to file such report and pay to the Secretary of State the required revival fee within one hundred and twenty (120) days after the date of mailing of the notice of such forfeiture, such failure shall constitute sufficient ground for the involuntary dissolution of the corporation or the revocation of its certificate of authority, which dissolution or revocation shall be consummated without judicial ascertainment, by the Secretary of State entering upon the record of such corporation filed in his office, the word "Forfeited" giving the date thereof and citing this Act as authority therefor.

F. Any corporation which is involuntarily dissolved or whose certificate of authority is revoked without judicial ascertainment, as provided in Section E hereof, and which has paid all fees, taxes, penalties and interest due thereon which accrued before the dissolution or revocation plus an amount equal to the total taxes from the date of dissolution or revocation to the date of reinstatement which would have been payable had the corporation not been dissolved or its certificate revoked may be relieved from such dissolution or revocation by filing the required report with the Secretary of State together with a filing fee of Twenty-five ($25.00) Dollars.

G. When such report shall be filed and the revival fee shall be paid to the Secretary of State, he shall reinstate the certificate of incorporation or charter or certificate of authority without judicial ascertainment, cancelling the word "Forfeited" upon his record, and endorsing thereon the words "Set Aside" and the date of such reinstatement; provided, if such dissolution or revocation is to be set aside, the corporation shall ascertain from the Secretary of State whether the name of the corporation is available; and if not available, amend its corporate name pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Art. 1396-9.03. Fees for Filing Documents and Issuing Certificates

A. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect for:

- (1) Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, Twenty-five Dollars ($25); provided that the filing fee in the case of a church shall be Ten Dollars ($10).
- (2) Filing articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment, Twenty-five Dollars ($25); provided that the filing fee in the case of a church shall be Ten Dollars ($10).
- (3) Filing articles of merger or consolidation and issuing a certificate of merger or consolidation, Fifty Dollars ($50).

(4) Filing a statement of change of address of registered office or change of registered agent, or both, Five Dollars ($5).

(5) Filing articles of dissolution, Five Dollars ($5).

(6) Filing an application of a foreign corporation for a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing a certificate of authority, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(7) Filing an application of a foreign corporation for an amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing an amended certificate of authority, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(8) Filing a copy of an amendment to the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(9) Filing a copy of articles of merger of a foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, Fifty Dollars ($50).

(10) Filing an application for withdrawal of a foreign corporation and issuing a certificate of withdrawal, Five Dollars ($5).

(11) Filing any other statement or report of a domestic or foreign corporation, Five Dollars ($5).

(12) Filing restatement of articles of incorporation, Fifty Dollars ($50); provided that the filing fee in the case of a church shall be Twenty Dollars ($20).

Art. 1396-9.04. Powers of Secretary of State

A. The Secretary of State shall have the power and authority reasonably necessary to enable him to administer this Act efficiently and to perform the duties therein imposed upon him.

Art. 1396-9.05. Appeals from Secretary of State

A. If the Secretary of State shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, application for certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this State, amendment, merger, consolidation, or dissolution, or any other document required by this Act to be approved by the Secretary of State before the same shall be filed in his office, he shall, within ten (10) days after the delivery thereof to him, give written notice of his disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying in such notice the reasons therefor. From such disapproval such person or corporation may appeal to any district court of Travis County by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the articles or other document sought to be filed and a copy of the written disapproval thereof by the Secretary of State; whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the court, and the court shall either sustain the action of the Secretary of State or direct him to take such action as the court may deem proper.

B. Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the district court under this Article in review of any ruling or decision of the Secretary of State may be taken as in other civil actions.

Art. 1396-9.06. Certificates and Certified Copies to be Received in Evidence

A. All certificates issued by the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and all copies of documents filed in his office, in accordance with the provisions of this Act when certified by him, shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and may be officially recorded. A certificate by the Secretary of State under the great seal of this State, as to the existence or non-existence of the facts relating to corporations which would not appear from a certified copy of any of the foregoing documents or certificates shall be taken and received in all courts, public offices, and official bodies as prima facie evidence of the existence or non-existence of the facts therein stated.

Art. 1396-9.07. Forms to be Promulgated by Secretary of State

A. Forms may be promulgated by the Secretary of State for all reports and all other documents required to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State. The use of such forms, however, shall not be mandatory, except in instances in which the law may specifically so provide.

Art. 1396-9.08. Greater Voting Requirements

A. Whenever, with respect to any action to be taken by the members or directors of a corporation, the articles of incorporation require the vote or concurrence of a greater proportion of the members or directors, as the case may be, then required by this Act with respect to such action, the provisions of the articles of incorporation shall control.

Art. 1396-9.09. Waiver of Notice

A. Whenever any notice is required to be given to any member or director of a corporation under the provisions of this Act or under the provisions of the articles of incorporation or by-laws of the corporation, a waiver thereof in writing signed by the person or persons entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time stated therein, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.

Art. 1396-9.10. Action Without a Meeting by Members, Directors or Committees

A. Any action required by this Act to be taken at a meeting of the members or directors of a corporation, or any action which may be taken at a meeting of the members or directors or of any committee, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by all the members entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof, or all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be.

B. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote, and may be stated as such in any articles or document filed with the Secretary of State under this Act.

Art. 1396-10.01. Application to Foreign and Interstate Affairs

A. The provisions of this Act shall apply to the conduct of affairs with foreign nations and among the several states only in so far as the same may be permitted under the provisions of the Constitution of the United States.

Art. 1396-10.02. Reservation of Power

A. The Legislature shall at all times have power to prescribe such regulations, provisions, and limitations as it may deem advisable, which regulations, provisions, and limitations shall be binding upon any and all corporations subject to the provisions of this Act, and the Legislature shall have power to amend, repeal, or modify this Act.

Art. 1396-10.03. Effect of Invalidity of Part of This Act

A. If a court of competent jurisdiction shall adjudge to be invalid or unconstitutional any clause, sentence, subsection, section, or Article of this Act, such judgment or decree shall not affect, impair, invalidate, or nullify the remainder of this Act, but the effect thereof shall be confined to the clause, sentence, subsection, section, or Article of this Act so adjudged to be invalid or unconstitutional.

Art. 1396-10.04. To What Corporations This Act Applies; Procedure for Adoption of Act by Existing Corporation

A. Until September 1, 1961, this Act shall not apply to any domestic corporation duly chartered and existing on the effective date of this Act, or to any foreign corporation, unless such domestic corporation shall voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this Act and shall comply with the procedure prescribed by Section B of this Article, and unless such foreign corporation shall procure a certificate of authority pursuant to Part Eight of this Act.<sup>1</sup>

B. From and after the effective date of this Act and prior to September 1, 1961, any domestic corporation duly chartered and existing on the effective date of this Act may voluntarily elect to adopt the provisions of this Act and may become subject to its provisions by taking the following steps:

(1) A resolution reciting that the corporation voluntarily adopts this Act shall be adopted by the board of directors and/or the members in accordance with the procedure prescribed by this Act for the amendment of articles of incorporation of such corporation.

(2) Upon adoption of the required resolution or resolutions, an instrument shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such statement, which shall set forth:

- (a) The name of the corporation.
- (b) Each resolution adopted by the corporation.
- (c) The date of the adoption of each resolution.
- (d) The street address of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such address.

(3) Duplicate originals of such document shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that such document conforms to law, he shall, when all fees and franchise taxes have been paid as prescribed by law:

- (a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.
- (b) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.
- (c) Deliver the other duplicate original to the corporation or its representative.

(4) Upon the filing of such document, all provisions of this Act shall thereafter apply to the corporation; provided, however, that such delivery to and filing by the Secretary of State need not precede action by the directors and/or the members of a corporation in connection with amendments to its articles of incorporation or its by-laws under this Act so long as (a) such amendments do not become effective until after the Secretary of State has filed the document whereby such corporation adopts this Act and (b) the procedures and requirements of this Act for the adoption of such amendments, including requirements as to notice, shall have been complied with and satisfied.

C. Except for the exceptions and limitations of Section A of this Article, this Act shall apply to all domestic corporations organized after the date on which this Act becomes effective and to all domestic corporations electing to adopt this Act and manifesting their election in the manner provided in Section B of this Article, prior to September 1, 1961.

D. From and after September 1, 1961, this Act shall apply to all domestic corporations and to all foreign corporations conducting or seeking to conduct affairs within this State. Those domestic corporations existing at the time that this Act becomes effective which have not meanwhile adopted this Act by complying with Section B of this Article shall, on September 1, 1961, be deemed to have elected to adopt this Act by not voluntarily dissolving.

E. No foreign corporation shall conduct affairs in this State after September 1, 1961, unless and until it shall have procured a certificate of authority in accordance with the requirements of Part Eight of this Act. Such certificates may be applied for and issued at any time after the effective date of this Act and this Act shall thereafter apply to such corporation from the date of the issuance of its certificate of authority; provided, however, that if such corporation expressly so requests in its application, the effective date of its certificate may be delayed until September 1, 1961, even though issued prior to such date.

F. In so far as the same are not inconsistent with or contrary to any applicable provision of the Insurance Code of Texas, or any amendment thereto, the provisions of this Act shall apply to and govern burial associations as defined in Article 14.37, Texas Insurance Code local mutual aid associations, statewide mutual assessment corporations, and county mutual insurance companies; provided however, (a) that any such mutual insurance associations or companies may, upon advance approval of the Commissioner of Insurance, pay dividends to its members, and (b) that wherever in this Act some duty, responsibility, power, authority, or act is vested in, required of, or to be performed by the Secretary of State, such is to be vested in, required of, or performed by the Commissioner of Insurance in so far as such mutual insurance companies or associations are concerned.

G. This Act shall not apply to those corporations excepted under Article 2.01 B, Subsections (3), (4), and (5) of this Act;<sup>2</sup> provided however, that if any of said excepted domestic corporations were heretofore or are hereafter organized not for profit under special statutes which contain no provisions in regard to some of the matters provided for in this Act, or if such special statutes specifically applicable provide that the general laws for incorporation shall supplement the provisions of such statutes, then the provisions of this Act shall apply to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of such special statutes.

A. Except as provided in the last preceding Article,<sup>1</sup> existing corporations shall continue to be governed by the laws heretofore applicable thereto, until September 1, 1961.

B. Except as provided in Article 10.06 of this Act,<sup>2</sup> any limitations, obligations, liabilities and powers applicable to a particular kind of corporation, for which special provision is made by the laws of this State, shall continue to be applicable to any such corporation, and this Act is not intended to repeal and does not repeal the statutory provisions providing for these special limitations, obligations, liabilities and powers.

C. Provided that nothing in this Act shall in any wise affect or nullify the Anti-Trust laws of this State.

Art. 1396-10.06. Repeal of Existing Laws; Extent and Effect Thereof

A. Subject to the provisions of the last two (2) preceding Articles of this Act<sup>1</sup> and of Section B of Article 2.01 of this Act,<sup>2</sup> and excluding any existing general Act not inconsistent with any provisions of this Act, no law of this State pertaining to private corporations, domestic or foreign, shall hereafter apply to corporations organized under this Act, or which obtain authority to conduct affairs in this State under this Act, or to existing corporations which adopt this Act.

B. The repeal of a prior Act by this Act shall not affect any right accrued or established, or any liability or penalty incurred, under the provisions of such Act prior to the repeal thereof.

Art. 1396-11.01. Emergency Clause

A. The fact that existing laws of the State of Texas have been amended from time to time over a period of some seventy (70) years and more without any adoption meanwhile of a complete Act relating to non-profit corporations generally, the provisions of which are consistent with one another; the fact that with so many amendments of the corporation laws applicable to non-profit corporations generally over so many years there have developed many uncertainties in the corporation laws of this State and with the result that there is now an imperative need for clarification of certain provisions of the existing laws; the fact that existing Texas laws are incomplete and that there are no existing Texas laws for many aspects of the non-profit corporation; all such facts create an emergency and public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three separate days in each House be suspended and said Rule is hereby suspended; and require that this Act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

2. RELIGIOUS AND CHARITABLE

Arts. 1396 to 1398. Repealed by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 458, ch. 229, § 1

Art. 1399. Lodges

The grand lodge of Texas, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons, the Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Texas, the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars of Texas (Masonic); the grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Texas, and other like institutions and orders organized for charitable or benevolent purposes may, by the consent of their respective bodies expressed by a resolution or otherwise, become bodies corporate under this title.

Art. 1400. Lodges: Charter

The incorporation of any such grand lodge shall include all of its subordinate lodges, or bodies holding warrant or charter under such grand body, and each of such subordinate bodies shall have all the rights of other corporations under and by the name given it in such warrant or charter issued by the grand body to which it is attached, such rights being provided for in the charter of the grand body. Such subordinate bodies shall, at all times, be subject to the jurisdiction and control of their respective grand bodies, and subject to have their warrants or charters revoked by such grand body.

Art. 1401. Lodges: Trustees

Such grand bodies and their subordinates may elect their own trustees or directors, or name certain of their officers as such, and perform such other acts as are directed or provided by law in the case of other corporations, and shall have power to make constitutions and by-laws for the government of their affairs.

Art. 1402. Lodges: Property

Such orders, grand and subordinate, shall have the right to acquire and hold such lands and personalty as may be necessary or convenient for sites upon which to erect buildings for their use and occupancy, and for homes and schools for their widows, orphans or aged or decrepit or indigent members, and to sell or mortgage the same, such conveyances to be executed by the presiding officer, attested by the secretary with the seal. The power and authority of such subordinate bodies to sell or to mortgage shall be subject to such conditions as may be from time to time prescribed or established by the grand body to which the subordinate is attached.

Art. 1403. Lodges: Demise

Upon the demise of any subordinate body so incorporated, all property and rights existing in such subordinate body shall pass to, and vest in, the grand body to which it was attached, subject to the payment of all debts due by such subordinate body; but the grand body shall never be liable for any sum greater than the actual cash value of the effects of such subordinate actually received by it, or its authority.

Art. 1404. Lodges: Loans

Any grand body incorporated under this subdivision shall have the right and authority to loan any funds held and owned by it for charitable purposes, for the endowment of any of its institutions, or otherwise, and may secure such loans by taking and receiving liens on real estate, or in such other manner as it may elect. Upon sale of any real estate under such lien, such grand body may become the purchaser thereof, and hold title thereto.

Art. 1405. Lodges: Duration

Any grand body incorporating under this subdivision may provide in its charter for the expiration of its corporate powers at the end of any given number of years; or it may provide in its charter for its perpetual existence, and by its corporate name have perpetual succession of the officers and members.

Art. 1406. Existing Lodge

Any such grand body or subordinate body now having a valid chartered existence may continue under its present charter, or reincorporate under this subdivision.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1407. Lodges: Tax

Bodies incorporated under this subdivision shall not be subject to, or required to pay a franchise tax.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

1. TELEGRAPH

Art. 1416. Public Ways: Use

Corporations created for the purpose of constructing and maintaining magnetic telegraph lines, are authorized to set their poles, piers, abutments, wires and other fixtures along, upon and across any of the public roads, streets and waters of this State, in such manner as not to incommode the public in the use of such roads, streets and waters.

Art. 1417. Right of Way

They may also enter upon any lands owned by private persons or by a corporation, in fee or less estate, for the purpose of making preliminary surveys and examinations with a view to the erection of any telegraph line, and from time to time appropriate so much of said lands as may be necessary to erect such poles, piers, abutments, wires and other necessary fixtures for a magnetic telegraph, and to make such changes of location of any part of said lines as may from time to time be deemed necessary, and shall have a right of access to construct said line, and when erected, from time to time as may be required, to repair the same, and shall have the right of eminent domain to obtain the right of way and condemn lands for the use of the corporation.

Art. 1418. Competitor: Rights

No corporation shall have power to contract with any owner of land for the right to erect and maintain a telegraph line over his lands to the exclusion of the lines of other companies.

Art. 1419. Interstate Lines

Any corporation created as herein provided may construct, own, use and maintain any line or lines of telegraph, whether wholly within, or wholly or partly beyond, the limits of this State.

Art. 1420. Consolidations

They shall have power to lease or attach to their line or lines other telegraph lines, by lease or purchase, and may join with any other corporation or association in constructing, leasing, owning, using or maintaining their line or lines, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the directors or managers of the respective corporations, and may own and hold any interest in such line or lines, or may become lessees thereof on such terms as the respective corporations may agree.

Art. 1421. Consolidation: Powers

Any telegraph company organized under the laws of this State may, at any regular meeting of the stockholders thereof, by vote of persons holding a majority of shares of the stock of such company, unite or consolidate with any other company or companies organized under the laws of the United States or of any State or territory, by the consent of the company with which it may consolidate or unite; and such company so formed may hold, use and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of Texas on companies separately organized under the provisions of this title, and be subject to the same liabilities.

Art. 1422. Municipal Regulation

The corporate authorities of any city, town or village through which the line of any telegraph corporation is to pass, may, by ordinance or otherwise, specify where the posts, piers or abutments shall be located, the kind of posts that shall be used, the height at which the wires shall be run; and such company shall be governed by the regulations thus prescribed. After the erection of said telegraph lines, the corporate authorities of any city, town or village shall have power to direct any alteration in the erection or location of said posts, piers or abutments, and also in the height at which the wires shall run, having first given such company or its agents opportunity to be heard in regard to such alteration.

2. TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH

Art. 1423. Consolidations

Any person, firm or corporation organized under the laws of Texas owning a local telephone exchange, whether wholly within or partly beyond the State limits, shall have power to purchase and may join with any other individual, firm or corporation in constructing, leasing, owning, using or maintaining any other local telephone exchange, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between such persons, or the directors or managers of the respective corporations, and may own and hold any interest in such local telephone exchange or may become lessees thereof on such terms as the respective persons, firms or corporations may agree. In case of the purchase, lease or acquisition of one local telephone exchange by a company owning another when both systems are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the consent of such city or town shall be secured.

Art. 1424. Consolidation: Mode

Any telephone company organized under the laws of Texas owning a local telephone exchange may at any regular meeting of the stockholders thereof by vote of persons holding a majority of shares of the stock of such company, unite or consolidate such local exchange with the local exchange of any other company or companies organized under the laws of the United States, or of any State or territory, by the consent of the company with which it may so consolidate or unite. Such company so formed may hold, use and enjoy all the rights and privileges conferred by the laws of Texas on companies separately organized under the provisions of this title, and be subject to the same liabilities. Where two or more local exchanges are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the consent of such city or town shall be secured for such consolidation.

Art. 1425. Consolidation: Rates

In case of the purchase, lease, acquisition or consolidation of one local telephone exchange with another, when both systems are operating in the same incorporated city or town, the rates charged for local telephone service after such consolidation shall not exceed the rate charged by the company charging the lowest rates in such city or town at the time of such purchase, lease, acquisition or consolidation, unless authorized by such city or town.

Art. 1426. Transfer of Messages

All companies and corporations that own or operate telephone or telegraph lines for the purpose of transmitting messages from one point to another, are hereby required to arrange for conversations or transfer of messages as hereinafter provided.

Art. 1427. Telephone Connections

All persons, companies, firms or corporations doing a telephone business in this State shall be compelled to make physical connections between their toll line at common points, for the transmission of messages or conversations from one line to another. Such connection shall be made through the switchboard of such persons, companies, firms or corporations, if any is maintained at such points, so that persons so desiring may converse from points on one of such lines to points on another.

Art. 1428. Telegraph Connections

Each telegraph company or person, firm, corporation or association engaged in the business of accepting and transmitting messages to and from different points in this State, where the use of a telegraph instrument or instruments is necessary in the conduct of such business, shall, if there be any other persons, firm, corporation or association engaged in such business at the same point or in the same town, city or village, provide means whereby all messages conveyed to such points over the lines of any such companies shall be transferred to the lines of either or all other such companies engaged in such business at such common points, and transmitted to their final destination; and such facilities shall be provided as will guarantee the transfer of such messages in compliance with the provisions of this subdivision.

Art. 1429. Transfers Excepted

In no case shall any message be transferred from one line to another against the will of the company first handling the same, when it is possible for such company to deliver said message direct to the party for whom it is intended by way of the line or lines operated and owned by said company. No telegraph or telephone company shall, under the provisions of this subdivision be compelled to receive from the wires or lines of any other telegraph or telephone company and convey to its final destination any message originating at any point on its own lines.

Art. 1430. Transfer Hearing

The city council in incorporated cities, and the commissioners court at points where there is no city council, shall on application of one hundred resident citizens, or upon its own motion, hear such evidence as they think necessary, and upon a final hearing they shall determine whether or not it would be necessary for public convenience, and just to the telephone or telegraph companies, to make such connection or arrange for the transfer of messages; whereupon they shall enter of record their findings, and shall also set out in their order the conditions upon which such arrangements for conversation or transfer of messages shall be made, and shall decide what proportion of expense shall be paid by each of said connecting lines.

Art. 1431. Penalty

Whenever the city council or commissioners court shall enter an order in compliance with Arts. 1428 and 1429 requiring telephone or telegraph companies to arrange for conversation or transfer of messages, it shall be compulsory on said company to arrange for such conversation or transfer of messages, and failing to do so, they shall forfeit to the State of Texas on suit by the county or district attorney, the sum of ten dollars for each day they so neglect. The penalty herein assessed shall not be operative against a company which is prevented from making connections as herein required, through the fault or omission of another company, so long as such fault or omission shall cause such failure on its part to so connect.

Art. 1432. Appeals

Any company ordered to arrange for conversations or to transfer messages between its line and another line as herein provided, shall have the right to appeal from such order to the court having jurisdiction over said matter, and the court shall, if it shall find that appellant had reasonable grounds for prosecuting such appeal, suspend the penalty herein provided for until such appeal is finally determined.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1432a. Obstruction or Falsification of Emergency Telephone Calls; Penalty

Sec. 1. Any person who shall wilfully refuse to immediately relinquish a party line when such line is needed for an emergency call to a fire department, or police department, or for medical aid or ambulance service, after having been informed that the line is needed for such emergency call, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or shall be confined in the county jail for not more than one month, or both such fine and confinement.

Sec. 2. Any person who shall secure the use of a party line by falsely stating that such line is needed for an emergency call to a fire department or police station or for medical aid or ambulance service shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or shall be confined in the county jail for not more than one month, or both such fine and confinement.

Sec. 3. "Party line" as used in this Section means a subscriber's telephone circuit, consisting of two (2) or more main telephone stations connected therewith, each station with a distinctive ring or telephone number. "Emergency" as used in this Section, means a situation in which property or human life are in jeopardy and the prompt summoning of aid is essential.

Sec. 4. Every telephone directory hereafter distributed to the members of the general public in this state or in any portion thereof which lists the calling numbers of telephones of any telephone exchange located in this state shall contain a notice which explains the offense provided for in Sections 1 and 2 of this Act, such notice to be printed in type which is not smaller than the smallest type on the same page and to be preceded by the word "warning" printed in type at least as large as the largest type on the same page; provided, that the provisions of this Section shall not apply to those directories distributed solely for business advertising purposes, commonly known as classified directories, nor to any telephone directory heretofore printed or distributed to the general public. Once each year there must be enclosed in each telephone bill mailed to persons using party line telephones a notice of substance of the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this Act. Any person, firm or corporation providing telephone service which distributes or causes to be distributed in this state copies of a telephone directory which is subject to the provisions of this Section and from which the notice herein provided is wilfully omitted or who wilfully fails to enclose the notice required to be enclosed in bills by this Section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

3. WATER

Art. 1433. Privileges

Any water corporation shall have the power to sell and furnish such quantities of water as may be required by the city, town or village where located for public or private buildings or for other purposes; and such corporations shall have the power to lay pipes, mains and conductors for conducting water through the streets, alleys, lanes and squares of any such city, town or village, with the consent of the governing body thereof, and under such regulations as it may prescribe. Such corporation is further authorized to lay its pipes, mains and conductors and other fixtures for conducting water through, under, along, across and over all public roads, streets and waters lying and situated outside the territorial limits of any such city, town, or village in such manner as not to incommode the public in the use of such roads, streets and waters. Any such corporation shall notify the State Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court having jurisdiction, as the case may be, when it proposes to build lines along the right of way of any State Highway, or county road, outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, whereupon the Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court may, if it so desires, designate the place along the right of way where such lines shall be constructed. The public agency having jurisdiction or control of a highway or county road, that is, the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, may require any such corporation, at its own expense, to relocate its lines on a State Highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, so as to permit the widening or changing of traffic lanes, by giving thirty (30) days written notice to such corporation and specifying the line or lines to be moved, and indicating the place on the new right of way where such line or lines may be placed. When deemed necessary to preserve the public health, any company or corporation chartered under the laws of this State for the purpose of constructing waterworks or furnishing water supply to any city or town, shall have the right of eminent domain to condemn private property necessary for the construction of supply reservoirs or standpipes for water work.

Art. 1433a. City or Town Laying Pipes, Etc., Outside Its Limits

Any incorporated city or town, in addition to powers otherwise existing, is authorized to lay its pipes, mains and conductors and other fixtures for conducting water through, under, along, across and over all public roads and waters lying and situated outside the territorial limits of such city or town in such manner as not to incommode the public in the use of such roads. Any such city or town shall notify the State Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court having jurisdiction, as the case may be, when it proposes to build lines along the right of way of any State Highway, or county road, outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, whereupon the Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court may, if it so desires, designate the place along the right of way where such lines shall be constructed. The public agency having jurisdiction or control of a highway or county road, that is, the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, may require any such city or town, at its own expense, to relocate its lines on a State Highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, so as to permit the widening or changing of traffic lanes, by giving thirty (30) days written notice to such city or town and specifying the line or lines to be moved, and indicating the place on the new right of way where such line or lines may be placed.

Art. 1434. Contracts

The governing body of any city, town or village in which any water corporation shall exist, is hereby authorized to contract with any such corporation for supplying with water the streets, alleys, lots, squares and public places in any such city, town or village.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1434a. Water Supply or Sewer Service Corporations

Formation of Corporation

Sec. 1. On and after the passage of this Act, three or more persons who are citizens of the State of Texas, may form a corporation for the purpose of furnishing a water supply or sewer service, or both, to towns, cities, private corporations, individuals, and military camps and bases, and may provide in the charter of such corporation that no dividends shall ever be paid upon the stock and that all profits arising from the operation of such business shall be annually paid out to cities, towns, corporations, and other persons who have during the past year transacted business with such corporation, in direct proportion to the amount of business so transacted, provided that no such dividends shall ever be paid while any indebtedness of the corporation remains unpaid and, provided also, that the Directors of such corporation may allocate to a sinking fund such amount of the annual profits as they deem necessary for maintenance, upkeep, operation, and replacements.

Withdrawal of Water from Guadalupe or Comal Rivers, or Tributaries or Springs

Sec. 1-a. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, association, or corporation to withdraw any water from the Guadalupe River or Comal River or any tributaries of such rivers or springs emptying into such rivers, or either of them, for the purpose of transporting such water to any point or points located outside of the natural watersheds of such rivers.

Any such withdrawal or attempted withdrawal of water from said rivers, springs, and/or tributaries may be enjoined in a suit for injunction brought by any person, municipality, or corporation owning riparian rights in or along said rivers. The venue of such suits shall be in the District Court of the county where such withdrawal or attempted withdrawal occurred.

Contracts with Federal Agencies

Sec. 2. The said corporation is hereby vested with power to negotiate and contract with any and all Federal Government agencies including, without exclusion because of enumeration, the Emergency Conservation Acts, Public Works Acts, Self-Liquidating Acts, Housing Unit Acts, Colonization Acts, Conservation Acts, Emergency Relief and Reconstruction Acts, and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act of January 22, 1932, Acts of the Seventy-second Congress of the United States of America, First Session, and with others, for the acquisition, construction, and/or maintenance of such project and improvements; to obtain money from such Federal Government agency or other sources for the purpose of financing said acquisition, and encumber the properties so acquired or constructed and the income, fees, rents, and other charges thereafter accruing to the said corporation in the operation of said properties; and to evidence the transaction by the issuance of bonds, notes, or warrants to secure the funds so obtained. But it is hereby expressly provided that the bonds, notes, and/or warrants so issued shall not constitute general obligation or indebtedness of the said corporation, but shall represent solely a charge upon specifically encumbered properties and the revenue therefrom, as herein provided.

Application for Charter to Secretary of State; Board of Directors

Sec. 3. (a) The persons applying for a charter for such corporation shall make application to the Secretary of State in the manner now provided by law for private corporations and in the name designated for such corporation shall use the words "Water Supply Corporation." The application for charter shall name all the members of the board of directors. The number of directors may be increased from time to time by amendment to the by-laws but there shall never be more than twenty-one (21) members of said board.

(b) The by-laws of the Corporation may provide that the directors be divided into either two (2) or three (3) classes, each class to be as near equal in number as possible, the terms of office of directors of the first class to expire at the annual meeting of the shareholders after their election, that of the second class to expire at the second annual meeting after their election, and that of the third class, if any, to expire at the third annual meeting after their election. At each annual meeting after such classification the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the second succeeding annual meeting, if there be two (2) classes, or until the third succeeding annual meeting, if there be three (3) classes. No classification of directors shall be effective prior to the first annual meeting of shareholders.

Acquisition of Water Supply; Operation of Plants and Equipment; Eminent Domain

Sec. 4. Such Water Supply Corporations shall have the right to purchase, own, hold and lease and otherwise acquire water wells, springs and other sources of water supply, to build, operate and maintain pipe lines for the transportation of water, to build and operate plants and equipment necessary for the distribution of water and to sell water to towns, cities and other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, to private corporations and to individuals. Such corporations shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire rights-of-way and shall have the right to use the rights-of-way of the public highways of the State for the laying of pipe lines under supervision of the State Highway Commission.

Annual Election of Officers and Board Meetings; Salaries

Sec. 5. After the issuance of a charter and annually thereafter following the annual membership or stockholders meeting, the board of directors shall elect a president, a vice president, and a secretary-treasurer and may require of such officers bonds for the faithful performance of their duties. The annual meeting of the members or stockholders of the corporation shall be held at any time between January 1 and May 1 of each year, at such time as shall be specified by the by-laws or the board of directors of the corporation. The salaries of all the officers of said corporation except that of the secretary-treasurer and of the manager whose salary is hereinafter referred to, shall not exceed Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) per year. The salary of the secretary-treasurer shall be fixed by the board of directors at a sum commensurate with the duties required of him.

Manager Elected by Board of Directors

Sec. 6. The business of the corporation may be handled under the direction of the board of directors, by a manager to be elected by a majority vote of the board and he shall be employed at a salary to be fixed by the board of directors.

Board of Directors may Employ Counsel

Sec. 7. The Board of Directors may employ counsel to represent said corporation and may by agreement with him fix an annual retainer and the fees to be paid for his services and said Board of Directors may if they deem it necessary employ additional counsel from time to time.

Depository for Funds

Sec. 8. The Board of Directors shall select as depository for the funds of said corporation, a National Bank or State Bank within the State of Texas and shall require of said depository such bond as the Board deems necessary for the protection of said corporation; and such funds as the Board of Directors may from time to time allocate to a sinking fund for replacement, amortization of debts and the payment of interest which shall not be required to be expended within the year in which the same is deposited, shall be invested in bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of the United States of America or deposited at interest in such National Bank or State Bank in a savings account, or in shares or share accounts of Building and Loan Associations and Savings and Loan Associations doing business in this State when such shares are insured under and by virtue of the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

[Amendment by Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 192, ch. 54, § 1, see § 8, post.]

Sec. 8. The board of directors shall select as depository for the funds of said corporation, a bank within the State of Texas which is insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and shall require of said depository such bond as the board deems necessary for the protection of said corporation; and such funds as the board of directors may from time to time allocate to a sinking fund for replacement, amortization of debts and the payment of interest which shall not be required to be expended within the year in which the same is deposited shall be invested in bonds or other evidence of indebtedness of the United States of America or deposited at interest in such bank within the State of Texas which is insured with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in a savings account.

Exemption from Texas Securities Act

Sec. 9. The provisions of the Texas Securities Act<sup>1</sup> shall not apply to any note, bond, or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act, to the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or to any mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument executed to secure the same. The provisions of said Securities Act shall not apply to the issuance of membership certificates or stock certificates of any corporation organized under the provisions of this Act.

4. GAS AND LIGHT

Art. 1435. Powers

Gas, electric current and power corporations shall have power to generate, make and manufacture, transport and sell gas, electric current and power to individuals, the public and municipalities for light, heat, power and other purposes, and to make reasonable charges therefor; to construct, maintain and operate power plants and substations and such machinery, apparatus, pipes, poles, wires, devices and arrangements as may be necessary to operate such lines at and between different points in this State; to own, hold and use such lands, right of way, easements, franchises, buildings and structures as may be necessary for the purpose of such corporation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1435a. Cooperation by Entities in Electric Facilities Construction, Financing, Etc.

Purpose of Act

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to clarify and make definite and secure the right and authority of entities, either public or private, which are engaged in the generation, transmission, or distribution of electric energy, to join together as cotenants or co-owners in the planning, financing, acquisition, construction, ownership, operation, and maintenance of electric generating units and plants, electric transmission lines, and other electric facilities to the end that each public entity or private entity will owe all of the duties and will have and be secure in all of the rights, powers, and liabilities and shall be entitled to all of the privileges and exemptions attributable to its undivided interest as provided by law with respect to an entire interest in electric facilities planned, financed, acquired, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained by it alone, as one means of achieving economies of scale in providing electric energy to the public and promoting the economic development of the state and its natural resources and to meet the future power needs of the state and its inhabitants. The provisions of this Act shall be construed to effectuate said purposes, but shall not be construed to otherwise enlarge, change, or modify in any way the rights, powers, or authorities of any entity under existing law with reference to the generation, transmission, distribution, or sale of electric power and energy. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to alter, change, abrogate, or otherwise affect existing contracts in force at the time this Act takes effect.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Entity" means any public or private corporation, association, or other legal entity, including cities and towns of every class, electric cooperative corporations, and conservation and reclamation districts, authorized to and engaged in the generation, transmission, or distribution of electric energy for sale to the public.

(2) "Public entity" means any entity which is an agency or subdivision of this state.

(3) "Private entity" means any entity not a public entity.

(4) "Electric facilities" means any facilities necessary or incidental to the generation of electric power and energy or the transmission thereof, including electric generating units, electric generating plants, electric transmission lines, plant sites, rights-of-way, and real and personal property and equipment and rights of every kind useful in connection therewith.

Agreements by Entities

Sec. 3. Any two or more entities shall have authority to enter into agreements for the planning, financing, acquisition, construction, ownership, operation, and maintenance of jointly owned and operated electric facilities and in connection therewith to construct, acquire, own, operate, and maintain electric facilities, and each public entity or private entity shall owe all of the duties and shall have and be entitled to all of the rights, powers, and liabilities and shall be entitled to all of the privileges and exemptions attributable to its undivided interest which it would have with respect to an entire interest in electric facilities planned, financed, acquired, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained by it alone.

Rights and Powers of Participating Entities

Sec. 4. Without limiting the general scope and application of Section 3 of this Act:

(1) Each participating entity shall have the right and power to use its means and assets in planning, acquiring, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining its undivided interest and share in electric facilities, and to issue bonds and other securities to raise funds for those purposes in the same way and to the same extent and subject to all of the conditions which would apply if the undivided interest of the entity were an entire interest in electric facilities.

(2) Each participating public entity and each participating private entity shall have the right and power to acquire, for the use and benefit of all participating entities, by purchase or through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, lands, easements, and properties for the purpose of jointly owned electric facilities, and shall have the power to transfer or convey such lands, easements, and properties, or interests therein, or otherwise to cause such lands, easements, and properties, or interests therein, to become vested in other participating entities to the extent and in the manner agreed between the participating entities. In all cases in which a participating entity exercises the right and power of eminent domain conferred hereby, it shall be controlled by the law governing the condemnation of property by incorporated cities and towns in this state, and the right and power of eminent domain hereby conferred shall include the right and power to take the fee title in land so condemned, except that no participating entity has the right or power to take by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any electric facilities, or interest therein, belonging to any other entity.

(3) Each participating private entity shall render for ad valorem taxation its undivided fractional interest in the jointly owned electric facilities, and all ad valorem taxes and similar taxes shall be levied and assessed separately against the undivided interest of each participating private entity. All taxes or assessments (including but not limited to excise taxes and taxes on the sale, lease, or use of properties or services) attributable to any property or service bought, sold, leased, or used in connection with the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the jointly owned electric facilities shall be levied, imposed, and collected as if the property or service had been bought, sold, leased, or used separately to or by each participating entity in proportion to the entity's respective undivided interest in the jointly owned electric facilities. No participating entity shall be liable for ad valorem taxes attributable to another participating entity's interest in the joint electric facilities or for any other taxes attributable to any property or service which is owned or is bought, sold, leased, or used by any other participating entity in connection with the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the jointly owned electric facilities. Each participating entity shall be entitled to the same constitutional and statutory exemption from ad valorem taxes and all other taxes (including but not limited to excise, sales and use taxes) attributable to the participating entity's interest in the ownership of the jointly owned electric facilities and the purchase, sale, lease, or use of properties or services in connection with the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the jointly owned electric facilities to the extent that the entity would have been exempt from the tax if its undivided interest were an entire interest in electric facilities and in property and services used or acquired in connection therewith. Each exempt entity shall be entitled to exemption certificates and other certificates and statements as provided by law to evidence or make effective the exemption.

(4) Each participating entity shall have the right and power to enter into contracts for specialized insurance appertaining to property and risks in connection with and incident to the ownership, operation, and maintenance of electric facilities, in addition to the usual forms of available insurance. Each participating entity shall be authorized to enter into contracts for insurance for the use and benefit of each of the other participating entities as though the insurance were for its sole benefit and to cause the rights of the other participating entities to be protected under the contracts according to their respective undivided interests or entitlements under applicable agreements between the participating entities.

Construction of Act

Sec. 5. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, nothing herein shall have the effect of, or be construed as, altering, amending, or repealing the statutory purposes provided for by any statute enacted by the legislature of Texas pertaining to the creation, establishment, or operation of an entity which becomes a co-owner under the provisions of this Act.

Severability

Sec. 6. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Art. 1436. Right of Way

Such corporation shall have the right and power to enter upon, condemn and appropriate the lands, right-of-way, easements and property of any person or corporation, and shall have the right to erect its lines over and across any public road, railroad, railroad right-of-way, interurban railroad, street railroad, canal or stream in this State, any street or alley of any incorporated city or town in this State with the consent and under the direction of the governing body of such city or town. Such lines shall be constructed upon suitable poles in the most approved manner, or pipes may be placed under the ground, as the exigencies of the case may require. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 730, ch. 306, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1436a. Construction of Lines on and across Roads and Streets

Corporations

Sec. 1. Corporations organized under the Electric Cooperative Corporation Act<sup>1</sup> of this State, and all other corporations (including River Authorities created by the Legislature of this State) engaged in the generation, transmission and/or the distribution of electric energy in Texas and whose operations are subject to the Judicial and Legislative processes of this State, shall have the right to erect, construct, maintain and operate lines over, under, across, upon and along any State highway or county road in this State, except within the limits of an incorporated city or town; and to maintain and operate existing lines located on such highways and county roads; and to erect, maintain and operate lines over, across and along the streets, alleys and other public property in any incorporated city or town in this State, with the consent and under the direction of the governing body of such city or town. Except as modified or changed by ordinance or regulation in incorporated cities and towns, all lines for the transmission and distribution of electric energy, whether along highways or elsewhere, shall be constructed, operated and maintained, as to clearances, in accordance with the National Electrical Safety Code, as published in March, 1948, by the National Bureau of Standards, Handbook 30, as revised by Handbook 81, published by the National Bureau of Standards in November, 1961, provided that lines along highways and county roads shall be single pole construction, and provided that at any place where a transmission line crosses a highway or road it shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet above the surface of the traffic lane, and further provided that all lines shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet above the surface of any railroad track or railroad siding. Any such corporation shall notify the State Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court having jurisdiction, as the case may be, when it proposes to build lines along the right-of-way of any State highway, or county road, outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, whereupon the Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court, may, if it so desires, designate the place along the right-of-way where such lines shall be constructed. The public agency having jurisdiction or control of a highway or county road, that is, the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, may require any such corporation, at its own expense, to re-locate its lines on a State highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, so as to permit the widening of the right-of-way, changing of traffic lanes, improvement of the road bed, or improvement of drainage ditches located on such right-of-way by giving thirty (30) days' written notice to such corporation and specifying the line or lines to be moved, and indicating the place on the new right-of-way where such line or lines may be placed. In the event a State highway or county road on which lines have been built passes through or into an unincorporated city or town, which thereafter becomes an incorporated city or town, the corporation owning such lines shall continue to have the right to build, maintain and operate its lines along, across, upon and over the roads and streets within the corporate limits of such city or town for a period of ten (10) years from and after the date of such incorporation, but thereafter only with the consent of the governing body of such city or town, but this provision shall not be construed as prohibiting such city or town from levying taxes and such special charges for the use of the streets as are authorized by Article 7060, Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas; and the governing body of such city or town may require any such corporation, at its own expense, to re-locate its poles and lines so as to permit the widening or straightening of streets, by giving to such corporation thirty (30) days' notice and specifying the new location for such poles and lines along the right-of-way of such street or streets.

Municipal Plants and Systems

Sec. 1a. Any incorporated city or town in this State which owns and operates an electric generating plant or operates transmission lines and/or distribution system or systems shall have the right to erect, construct, maintain and operate lines over, under, across, upon and along any state highway or county road in this State, except within the limits of another incorporated city or town; and to maintain and operate existing lines located on such highways and county roads; and to erect, maintain and operate lines over, across and along the streets, alleys and other public property in any other incorporated city or town in this State with the acquiescence or consent and under the regulations of the governing body of such city or town. Except as modified or changed by ordinance or regulation in incorporated cities and towns, all lines for the transmission and distribution of electric energy, whether along highways or elsewhere, shall be constructed, operated and maintained in accordance with the National Electrical Safety Code, as published in March, 1948, by the National Bureau of Standards, Handbook 30, as revised by Handbook 81, published by the National Bureau of Standards in November, 1961, provided that lines along highways and county roads shall be single pole construction, and provided that at any place where a transmission line crosses a highway or road it shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet above the surface of the traffic lane, and further provided that all lines shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet above the surface of any railroad track or railroad siding. Any such incorporated city or town authorized to build lines along highways and public roads under this Section shall notify the State Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court having jurisdiction, as the case may be, when it proposes to build lines along the right-of-way of any state highway, or county road, outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, whereupon the Highway Commission, or the Commissioners Court, may, if it so desires, designate the place along the right-of-way where such lines shall be constructed. The public agency having jurisdiction or control of a highway or county road, that is, the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, may require any such municipal corporation, at its own expense, to re-locate its lines on a State highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or town, so as to permit the widening of the right-of-way, changing of traffic lanes, improvement of the road bed, or improvement of drainage ditches located on such right-of-way, by giving thirty (30) days' written notice to such municipal corporation owning such lines, and specifying the line or lines to be moved, and indicating the place on the new right-of-way where such line or lines may be placed. In the event a State highway or county road on which lines have been built passes through or into an unincorporated city or town, which thereafter becomes an incorporated city or town, the municipal corporation owning such lines shall continue to have the right to build, maintain and operate its lines along, across, upon and over the roads and streets within the corporate limits of such city or town for a period of ten (10) years from and after the date of such incorporation, but thereafter only with the consent of the governing body of such city or town; and the governing body of such city or town may require the municipal corporation owning such lines, at its own expense, to relocate its poles and lines so as to permit the widening or straightening of streets, by giving to the municipal corporation owning such lines thirty (30) days' notice and specifying the new location for such poles and lines along the right-of-way of such street or streets. Nothing herein shall be construed as granting the right to such municipal corporation to maintain existing lines in any area, which is included within the corporate limits of another city or town prior to the effective date of this Act, without the consent of the governing body of such other city or town.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 3. If any section, sentence, phrase, clause, or any part of any section, sentence, phrase or clause of this Act shall, for any reason, be held invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act and it is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature to have passed each section, sentence, phrase, clause or part thereof irrespective of the fact that any other section, sentence, phrase or clause or part thereof may be declared invalid.

Section 1 of the act of 1967 amended article 1436; sections 3 and 4 provided:

"Sec. 3. All other statutes, or parts of statutes, in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed; provided, however, that this Act does not amend, repeal or alter Chapter 300, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957 (Article 6674w-1 through Article 6674w-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and provided further, this section shall not change, modify or limit the rights granted corporations, cities and towns in Section 2 of this Act.

"Sec. 4. If any section, sentence, phrase, clause, or any part of any section, sentence, phrase or clause of this Act shall, for any reason, be held invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature to have passed each section, sentence, phrase, clause, or part thereof irrespective of the fact that any other section, sentence, phrase or clause or part thereof may be declared invalid."

Section 2 of the act of 1949 provided that all statutes or parts of statutes in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed.

Section 4, declaring an emergency, recites that the distribution of electric energy has been based on the legal concept that Commissioners Courts had authority to grant franchises for the use of roads and highways, but that the Supreme Court has held that Commissioners Courts have no such authority.

Art. 1436b. Use of Roads and Streets in Distribution of Gas

Sec. 1. Any person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town engaged in the business of transporting or distributing gas for public consumption shall have the power to lay and maintain pipes, mains, conductors and other facilities used for conducting gas through, under, along, across and over all public highways, public roads, public streets and alleys, and public waters within this State; provided that within the corporate limits of an incorporated city or incorporated town such right shall be dependent upon the consent and subject to the direction of its governing body. Any such person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town shall notify the State Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court having jurisdiction, as the case may be, when it proposes to lay any such pipes, mains, conductors and other fixtures for conducting gas within the right-of-way of any state highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or incorporated town, whereupon the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, if it so desires, may designate the place upon the right-of-way where the same shall be laid. The public agency having jurisdiction or control of a highway or county road, that is, the Highway Commission or the Commissioners Court, as the case may be, may require any such person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town at its own expense to relocate its pipes, mains, conductors or other fixtures for conducting gas on a state highway or county road outside the limits of an incorporated city or incorporated town so as to permit the widening or changing of traffic lanes, by giving thirty (30) days written notice to such person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town and specifying the facility or facilities to be moved and indicating the place on the new right-of-way where such facility or facilities may be placed. Such person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town shall replace the grade and surface of such road or highway at its own expense.

Sec. 2. If after the effective date of this Act an unincorporated area becomes incorporated, any person, firm or corporation or incorporated city or town which, at the date of such incorporation, has pipes, mains, conductors or other facilities within such area so incorporated, may continue to exercise the rights conferred by Section 1 hereof for ten (10) years after the date of such incorporation without consent but subject to the direction of the governing body.

Sec. 3. [General repealer.]

Sec. 4. If any section, sentence, phrase, clause or any part of any section, sentence, phrase or clause of this Act shall for any reason be held invalid, such decision shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act; and it is hereby declared to be the intention of this Legislature to have passed each section, sentence, phrase, clause, or part thereof, irrespective of the fact that any other section, sentence, phrase or clause or part thereof may be declared invalid. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 829, ch. 470.]

Art. 1436c. Safety of Persons Engaged in Activities in Proximity of High Voltage Electric Lines; Restrictions

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "High voltage" means voltage in excess of 600 volts measured between conductors or measured between a conductor and the ground.

(2) "Overhead line" means all bare or insulated electrical conductors installed above ground except those conductors that are de-energized and grounded or that are enclosed in rigid metallic conduit.

(3) "Authorized person" means:

(A) employees of a light and power company with respect to the electrical system of such company, employees of an electric cooperative with respect to the electrical system of such cooperative, employees of a city with respect to the electrical system of such city, and the employees of a transportation system with respect to the electrical circuits of such system;

(B) employees of communication utilities, or state and county or municipal agencies having authorized circuit construction on the poles or the structures of an electric power company, an electric cooperative, a city or transportation system or communication system;

(C) employees of an industrial plant with respect to the electrical system of such plant;

(D) employees of any electrical or communications contractor with respect to work under his supervision.

(4) "Warning sign" means a weather-resistant sign of not less than five inches by seven inches with a yellow background and black lettering reading as follows: "WARNING—UNLAWFUL TO OPERATE THIS EQUIPMENT WITHIN SIX FEET OF HIGH VOLTAGE LINES."

Exceptions

Sec. 2. This Act does not apply to the construction, reconstruction, operation, and maintenance of overhead electrical or communication circuits or conductors and their supporting structures and associated equipment of rail transportation systems, electrical generating, transmission or distribution systems, or communication systems by an authorized person.

Six-foot Restriction; Functions or Activities of Employees

Sec. 3. Unless danger against contact with high voltage overhead lines has been effectively guarded against pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of this Act, no person, firm, corporation, or association shall require any employee to perform and no person, firm, corporation, or association shall, individually or through an agent or employee, perform any function or activity upon any land, building, highway, or other premises if at any time during the performance of any function or activity, it is possible that the person performing the function or activity shall move or be placed within six feet of any high voltage overhead line or if it is possible for any part of any tool, equipment, machinery, or material used by such person to be brought within six feet of any high voltage overhead line during the performance of any such function or activity.

Six-foot Restriction; Operation of Machinery, Etc.

Sec. 4. Unless danger against contact with high voltage overhead lines has been effectively guarded against pursuant to the provision of Section 6 of this Act, no person, firm, corporation, or association shall, individually or through an agent or employee, erect, install, operate, move, transport, handle, or store any tool, machinery, equipment, supplies, materials, house, or other building or structure or any part thereof within six feet of any high voltage overhead line.

Posting of Warning Signs, Insulated Guards

Sec. 5. No person, firm, corporation, or association shall, individually or through an agent or employee, or as an agent or employee, operate any crane, derrick, power shovel, drilling rig, hayloader, haystacker, mechanical cotton picker, pile driver, hoisting equipment, or similar apparatus, any part of which is capable of vertical, lateral, or swinging motion, unless:

(1) there is posted and maintained a warning sign, as herein defined, legible at 12 feet and placed as follows:

(A) within the equipment readily visible to the operator of such equipment when at the controls of such equipment; and

(B) on the outside of equipment in such number and location as to be readily visible to mechanics or other persons engaged in the work operations; and

(2) there shall be installed an insulated cage-type guard or protective device about the boom or arm of all equipment, except backhoes or dippers and, where the equipment includes a lifting hook device, all lifting lines are equipped with insulator links on the lift hook connection.

Ten-foot Restriction; Operation of Equipment

Sec. 5A. In addition to the minimum distances prescribed in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act, the operation of equipment or machines described in Section 5 or any part of such equipment or machines within 10 feet of any high voltage overhead line shall be unlawful unless danger against contact with high voltage overhead lines has been effectively guarded against pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 of this Act.

Temporary Clearance of Lines

Sec. 6. When any person, firm, or corporation desires to temporarily carry on any function, activity, work, or operation in closer proximity to any high voltage overhead line than permitted by this Act, the person or persons responsible for the work to be done shall promptly notify the operator of the high voltage line. The work shall be performed only after satisfactory mutual arrangements have been negotiated between the owner or the operator of the lines or both and the person or persons responsible for the work to be done for temporary mechanical barriers separating and preventing contact between material, equipment, or persons and high voltage electric lines, temporary de-energization and grounding, or temporary relocation or raising of the lines. The actual expense incurred by any operator of high voltage lines in providing clearances as above set out shall be paid by the person or persons responsible for the work to be done in the vicinity thereof and the operator of the lines may require such payment in advance, such operator being without obligation to provide such clearance until such payment shall have been made. Should the actual expense be less than the payment made the difference shall be refunded. The operator of the lines shall be given not less than 48 hours' advance notice to arrange for such temporary clearances.

Violations and Penalties

Sec. 7. (a) Every person, firm, corporation, or association and every agent or employee of such person, firm, corporation, or association who violates any of the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than $100, nor more than $1,000 or confined in jail for not more than one year or both.

(b) If a violation of this Act results in physical or electrical contact with any high voltage overhead line, the person, firm, corporation, or association violating the provisions of this Act shall be liable to the owner or operator of such high voltage line for all damage to such facilities and for all liability incurred by such owner or operator as a result of any such contact.

Art. 1437. Finances

Such corporation shall have the right to borrow money, to issue stock and preferred stock, to mortgage its franchises and property to secure the payment of any debt contracted for any of the purposes of such corporation, and shall possess all the rights and powers of corporations for profit in this State, whenever the same may be applicable.

Art. 1438. Discrimination

It shall be unlawful for any such corporation to discriminate against any person, corporation, firm, association or place, in the charge for such gas, electric current or power, or in the service rendered under similar and like circumstances.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 829, ch. 470.]

Art. 1438a. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1967

Acts 1967, 60th Leg., vol. 2, p. 2343, ch. 785, adopting the Business & Commerce Code, repealed article 1438a effective September 1, 1967.

5. SEWERAGE

Art. 1439. Eminent Domain

Every company or corporation incorporated under the laws of this State for the purpose of owning, constructing or maintaining a system of sewerage in any city or town in this State, shall be empowered by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, to condemn private property through which to lay, construct and maintain sewer pipes, mains and laterals, and connections, and also private property upon which to maintain vats, filtration pipes and other pipes, such property to be used and occupied as a place for ultimate disposition of sewage, in or out of the town or city limits, whenever it be made to appear that the use of any such private property is necessary for the successful operation of such sewer system, and when it also be made to appear that such sewer system is beneficial to the public use, health or convenience. The right of condemnation herein permitted shall not be invoked nor exercised within the corporate limits of the city or town, except as permitted or required by the city or town granting franchise to the company or corporation seeking the right of condemnation.

6. DEPOSITS

Art. 1440. Deposit for Installing Service

Every person, firm, company, corporation, receiver or trustee engaged in the furnishing of water, light, gas or telephone service which requires the payment on the part of the user of such service a deposit of money as a condition precedent to furnishing the same, shall pay six per cent (6%) interest per annum on such deposit to the one making same, or to his heirs or assigns, from the time of such deposit, the same to be paid annually on demand or sooner if such service be discontinued. When such service is discontinued, such deposit, together with any unpaid interest thereon, or such part of such deposit and unpaid interest, not consumed in bills due for such service, shall be returned to such depositor, his heirs or legal representatives.

Art. 1440a. Deposit for Installing Service

Every person, firm, company, corporation, receiver or trustee engaged in the furnishing of water, light, gas or telephone service which requires the payment on the part of the user of such service a deposit of money as a condition precedent to furnishing any such service, shall pay six per cent (6%) interest per annum on such deposit to the one making same, or to his heirs or assigns, from the time of such deposit, the same to be paid annually on demand, or sooner if such service be discontinued. When such service is discontinued, such deposit, together with any unpaid interest thereon, or such part of such deposit and unpaid interest not consumed in bills due for such service, shall be returned to such depositor, his heirs or legal representatives. Whoever violates any provision of this Article shall be fined not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200), or be confined in jail not less than six (6) months nor more than one year, or both.

7. REPORTS

Art. 1441. Corporations Subject

Every corporation within this State owning, leasing or operating in this State, in cities or towns of over twenty-five hundred population according to the preceding Federal census, a street railway, electric light or power plant furnishing light or power to the public, gas plant furnishing gas to the public, water plant furnishing water to the public, and sewerage company furnishing sewerage to the public, shall annually on or before the first day of March, file the report hereinafter provided with the Secretary of State, upon blank forms to be furnished by said officer.

Art. 1442. Report

The report shall show the following facts:

1. The authorized capital stock of such corporation, the amount of such stock that has actually been issued, and how much of such stock actually issued is common, and how much preferred, and how much is due upon unpaid stock.

2. The bonded indebtedness of such corporation, and how many bonds have been actually sold, and the price of such sale, the rate of interest upon such bonds, and when such bonds mature.

3. Any other fixed lien or mortgage upon such property, and the amount thereof.

4. The floating indebtedness of such corporation, including all bills payable of whatever nature.

5. The value of the visible tangible property of such corporation, giving separate values of lands, machinery, buildings, tracks and equipment, and in gross, all bills receivable and cash on hand.

6. The annual cost of operating such corporation, showing under separate items:

- (a) amount paid for salaries;
- (b) amount paid for labor;
- (c) fixed charges including interest, taxes and insurance, giving each separately;
- (d) amount paid for fuel;
- (e) amount paid for extensions, repairs and maintenance, giving each separately;
- (f) amount paid for claims or suits for damages;
- (g) amount paid for miscellaneous expenses.

7. The annual gross earnings of such corporation, including revenues from every source, showing by separate items amount received by departments, such as amount received for light, sewerage, power, water, gas, street railway fares and tickets.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1443. Additional Reports

Such corporations shall also make to the Secretary of State, upon blanks furnished by him, reports as to the price charged the public for sewerage, gas, water, light, power, and the price charged per passenger upon street railways, and if such corporations have contracts with cities or towns for furnishing water or light, then, the amount of such charge. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1444. Sworn Reports

All reports provided for in this subdivision shall be under oath, and shall be made by any officer of the corporation having knowledge of the facts, or its general manager or superintendent.

Art. 1445. Registration

A true sworn copy of the reports required by this subdivision shall be filed annually on or before the first day of March with the Mayor of the city or town where the corporation has its principal place of business; and there shall also be filed at the same time a true sworn copy of said reports with the county clerk of the county in which such corporation has its principal place of business; and the same shall be by said clerk delivered to the commissioners court. Such reports shall be recorded in a properly indexed book, to be kept for that purpose, and open to the inspection of the public at all times.

Art. 1446. Penalty

Any corporation which shall for thirty days willfully fail or refuse to file such reports in the manner provided by this subdivision shall forfeit and pay to the State one hundred dollars for each day during which it shall continue in default; which shall be recovered by suit by the Attorney General.

8. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Art. 1446a. Disruption of Gas, Electric or Water Service by Picketing, Threats or Intimidation

Policy and Purpose

Sec. 1. It is hereby declared the policy of this state that continuous service by public utilities furnishing electric energy, natural or artificial gas, or water to the public is absolutely essential to the life, health and safety of all of the people, and that the wilful interruption or stoppage of such services by any person or group of persons is a public calamity which cannot be endured. "Utilities" as herein defined are dedicated to the service of the public, and the primary duty of such a utility, its management and employees, is the maintenance of continuous and adequate service at all times in order that the safety and health of the people may be protected against the danger inherent in the disruption or cessation of such service. All courts and all administrative agencies of this state are enjoined to recognize this policy and in particular, to interpret and to apply this Act in accordance with such policy.

Definitions

Sec. 2. When used in this Act, the term "public utility" or "utility" shall mean and include the following:

(a) Any private corporation doing business in Texas, and having the right of eminent domain, and engaged in the business of generating, transmitting or distributing electric energy to the public; or

(b) Any private corporation doing business in Texas, and having the right of eminent domain, and engaged in the business of producing, transmitting, or distributing natural or artificial gas to the public; or

(c) Any private corporation doing business in Texas, and having the right of eminent domain, and engaged in the business of furnishing water to the public; or

(d) Any state agency, authority, subdivision or municipality engaged in the business of furnishing any of the above described services to the public.

Unlawful Picketing, Threats or Intimidation

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to picket the plant, premises or any part of the property of a public utility, as defined herein, with the intent to disrupt the service of such utility or to prevent the maintenance thereof, or if such picketing has the effect of disrupting the service or preventing the maintenance thereof. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to intimidate, threaten or harass any employee of such utility with the intention of disrupting its service or preventing the maintenance thereof, or if such intimidation, threats or harassment has the effect of disrupting the service of such utility, or preventing the maintenance thereof.

Restraining Order; Venue

Sec. 4. When any utility, as defined herein, shall present a verified petition to the Judge of any District Court, alleging that within such judicial district a person or persons are violating the provisions of Section 3 of this Act, or are threatening to violate said provisions, and that such violation or threatened violation will prevent or interfere with the maintenance of adequate water service or electric or gas service, and describes the acts done or committed which are in violation of said Section 3, or the threatened acts which, if committed, will violate the provisions thereof, it shall be the duty of the Judge to forthwith inquire into the matter, and if it appears that the provisions of Section 3 are being violated, or that there is a threat to violate said provisions, he shall immediately issue an order restraining such person or persons, their agents, and all parties acting with them from committing any acts or doing any of the things prohibited by the provisions of Section 3 hereof, said restraining order to become effective when the plaintiff shall have filed with the clerk of said court a good and sufficient bond to cover such court costs as may reasonably accrue in connection with the case, the amount of which cost bond shall be fixed by the court. The cause shall be docketed and tried as in the case of other suits for writs of injunction, except that no judgment rendered therein shall be superseded pending appeal. The venue of suits of this character shall be in any District Court in any judicial district in which the violation or threat to violate the provisions of Section 3 hereof may occur, and the various District Judges shall have full authority to enforce all orders and writs of injunction issued to protect the life, health and safety of the public.

Sabotage; Penalty

Sec. 5. Any person who shall wilfully damage or destroy any building, equipment, machinery or facility used in furnishing utility service by any utility as defined in Section 2 hereof, or who interferes with, or commits any act of sabotage affecting any machinery, equipment, or facilities of any such utility for the purpose of disrupting the service provided by such utility, or for the purpose of preventing the maintenance of such service, shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than two (2) years, nor more than five (5) years.

The word "sabotage" as used in this Act shall be construed to include any intentional tampering with, obstructing, breaking, damaging, changing or in any way interfering with any building, machinery, structure, wires, poles, towers, pumps, pipe lines, meters, switches, transformers, or any other equipment or property of any sort used by a utility as defined herein in furnishing water, gas, or electric service.

Conspiracy; Penalty

Sec. 5-a. If any two or more persons shall enter into any agreement, compact, or plan to violate any of the provisions of Section 5 of this Act, or any agreement, compact, or plan to persuade, induce or employ some person to violate the provisions of said section, every person participating in such agreement, compact or plan shall be guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) years. In order that such offense be complete, it shall not be necessary that an overt act be committed pursuant to such agreement, compact or plan. The provisions of this section shall be cumulative of other statutes relating to conspiracy.

Enforcement by Executive Department

Sec. 6. In accordance with the declared policy of this state, as set out in Section 1 hereof, it shall be the duty of the Governor, and of the Executive Department under his direction, to exercise all of the powers available under the constitution and laws of the state to protect the public from the dangers incident to stoppage or interruption in water, electric or gas utility service in any place in Texas, because of a violation of any of the provisions of this Act.

Rights of Employees

Sec. 7. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as a limitation upon the right of any employee of a public utility to quit work and to leave the premises of his employer at any time he chooses so to do, or to refuse to report for work when he so desires.

Severability

Sec. 8. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence or clause of this Act shall be held invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative, such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Act; but the remainder of the Act shall be given effect as if such invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative portion had not been included, and the Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed the remainder of the Act regardless of the inclusion or exclusion of such portion.

[Acts 1947, 50th Leg., p. 142, ch. 84.]

Art. 1446b. Fraudulently Obtaining Telecommunications Services

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Telecommunications service" means the transmission of a message or other information by a public utility, including a telephone or telegraph company.

(2) "Publish" means the communication or dissemination of information to another by any means.

Sec. 2. (a) A person commits an offense if he:

(1) publishes an existing, cancelled, revoked, or nonexistent telephone number, a credit number or other credit device, or a method of numbering or coding that is used in the issuance of telephone numbers or credit numbers or other credit devices knowing that other persons will use the published information to avoid payment of a charge for telecommunication service;

(2) makes or possesses any equipment specifically designed to be used to fraudulently avoid charges for telecommunications services.

(b) A violation of this section is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $500, by imprisonment in jail for not more than sixty days, or by both, unless the person has been previously convicted of a violation of this section, in which event it is a felony punishable by a fine of not more than $5,000, by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than two years or more than five years, or by both.

Sec. 3. Equipment described in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a), Section 2, may be seized by a peace officer under warrant or incident to a lawful arrest.

On conviction of the person who possessed the equipment of a violation of this Act, the court shall order the sheriff to destroy the equipment.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act do not apply to an employee of a public utility that provides telecommunications service while acting in the course of his employment.

9. TRADE ZONES

Art. 1446.1. Laredo Trade Zone Corporation

The Laredo Trade Zone Corporation, organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, with offices at San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas, is authorized to apply for and accept a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone at the Laredo Port of Entry, and other sub-zones, subject to the requirements of federal law and regulations of the Foreign Trade Zones Board. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 236, ch. 102, eff. April 27, 1965.]

Art. 1446.2. McAllen Trade Zone Corporation

The McAllen Trade Zone, Inc., organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, with offices at McAllen, Hidalgo County, Texas, is authorized to apply for and accept a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone at the McAllen Port of Entry, and other sub-zones, subject to the requirements of federal law and regulations of the Foreign Trade Zones Board.

Art. 1446.3. Harlingen Trade Zone Corporation

The Harlingen Trade Zone, Inc., organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, with offices at or near Harlingen, Cameron County, Texas, is authorized to apply for and accept a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone adjacent to any port of entry in Cameron County, Texas, and other sub-zones, subject to the requirements of federal law and regulations of the Foreign Trade Zones Board.

Art. 1446.4. San Angelo Trade Zone Corporation

Sec. 1. The San Angelo Trade Zone, Inc., organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, with offices at San Angelo, Tom Green County, Texas, is authorized to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone at San Angelo, Tom Green County, Texas, and other sub-zones.

Sec. 2. The San Angelo Trade Zone, Inc., is authorized to apply for and accept a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone at the San Angelo Port of Entry, and other sub-zones, subject to the requirements of Public Law No. 397, as amended by Public Law 566, 81st Congress (Ch. 1A, Title 19, Sections 81a-81u, United States Code Annotated), and regulations of the Foreign Trade Zones Board.

Art. 1447. Charter

The charter of a road company, in addition to the information required by article 1304,<sup>1</sup> shall state: First, the kind of road intended to be constructed: Second, the places from and to which the road is intended to be run: Third, the counties through which it is intended to be run: Fourth, the estimated length of the road.

TOLL ROADS

Art. 1448. Toll Road: Incorporation

Any number of persons, not less than five, being subscribers to the stock, may organize themselves into a corporation for the purpose of constructing, building, acquiring, owning, operating and maintaining toll roads within this State by complying with the requirements of this subdivision. No corporation, except one chartered under the laws of this State, shall be authorized or permitted to construct, build, operate, acquire, own or maintain any toll road within this State.

Art. 1449. Charter

The persons proposing to form a toll road corporation shall adopt and sign articles of incorporation, which shall contain, in addition to the general requirements, the following:

1. The terminal points, and the intermediate counties through which it is intended to construct the toll road;
2. The names and places of residence of the several persons forming the association for incorporation; and

3. In what officers the management and control of the corporation shall be vested.

Art. 1450. Examination

The articles of incorporation, when so prepared, adopted and signed, shall be submitted to the Attorney General, who shall carefully examine the same; and, if he finds them to be in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision, and not in conflict with the laws of the United States or of this State, he shall attach thereto a certificate to that effect.

Art. 1451. Registration

When said articles have been examined and certified, the same shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, accompanied by the affidavit of at least three of the directors named in such articles. Such affidavit shall state that the entire amount of the capital stock of such proposed corporation has been in good faith subscribed, and that fifty per cent of the amount subscribed has been actually paid to the directors named in such articles; and the Secretary of State shall cause such affidavit and articles to be recorded in his office, and shall attach a certificate of the fact of such record to said articles, and return the same to such corporation.

Art. 1452. Duration

No toll road corporation shall be formed to continue more than fifty years in the first instance, but such corporation may be renewed from time to time, for periods not longer than fifty years, in the manner provided for the renewal of railroad corporations.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1453. Charter Amendments

Any toll road corporation may amend or change its articles of incorporation in the manner provided by law for railroad corporations.

Art. 1454. Powers

Every toll road corporation organized hereunder shall have the right to construct, build, acquire, own, operate and maintain toll roads between any points within this State.

Art. 1455. Use of State Lands

Every such corporation shall have the right of way for its line of road through and over any land belonging to this State, and to use any earth, timber, stone or other material upon any such land necessary to the construction and operation of its road through or over said land.

Art. 1456. Private Lands

Every toll road corporation shall have the right to cause such examination and survey for its proposed road to be made as may be necessary to the selection of the most advantageous route, and for such purposes may enter upon the lands or waters of any person or corporation, but subject to responsibility for all damage that may be occasioned thereby. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1457. Road Construction

Every such corporation shall have the right to lay out its road, not exceeding two hundred feet in width, and to construct the same; and for the purpose of cuttings and embankments, to take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of its road, and to cut down any standing trees that may be in danger of falling upon or obstructing such road, making compensation in the manner provided by law. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1458. Railroad Crossings

Every such corporation shall have the right to construct its road across any railroad, street railroad or interurban line within this State, which it may intersect or touch; provided that it shall properly fence such crossings, and restore, in other respects, the property thus intercepted or crossed, to its former state. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1459. Public Way Crossings

Every such corporation shall have the right to construct its own road across any stream of water, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal, which the route of said road shall intersect or touch; but such corporation shall restore the stream, water course, street, highway, plank road, turnpike or canal thus intersected or touched, to its former state, or to such state as not to unnecessarily impair its usefulness, and shall keep such crossings in repair. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1460. Openings

Every such corporation which may fence its right of way, may be required to make openings or crossings through its fence and over its roadbed every five miles thereof, in the manner provided by law with reference to railroad corporations. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1461. Culverts, Etc.

In no case shall any toll road corporation construct its road without first constructing the necessary culverts or sluices, as the natural lay of the land requires, for the necessary drainage thereof. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1462. Obstruction of Streams

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the erection of any bridge or any other obstruction across or over any stream of water navigable by steamboats or sail vessels at the place where any bridge or other obstruction may be proposed to be placed, so as to prevent the navigation of such stream of water. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1463. Eminent Domain

Every toll road corporation shall have and enjoy all of the rights, privileges and immunities conferred by and be subject to each provision of the law relating to the exercise of the right of eminent domain. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1464. Rules and Rates

Every toll road corporation shall have the power to promulgate, by its board of directors, all necessary and reasonable rules and regulations relating to the manner in which traffic shall move over any toll road operated by it, and to refuse the use of such road to any person who shall fail or refuse to abide by such rules and regulations; and shall be empowered to fix and charge tolls for the use of such roads; provided, that such rules and regulations shall not be contrary to law, and that the rate to be charged for each class of vehicle shall be the same to all in each of such classes. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1465. Use of Road

No such corporation shall have the right arbitrarily to refuse the use of such road to any person who shall offer to pay the regular toll therefor, except that such corporation shall be authorized to refuse to permit such road to be used by any vehicle which shall render the same unduly hazardous to the patrons of said road or damaging to the surface thereof, or to any person who shall fail or refuse to abide by the reasonable and necessary traffic regulations promulgated by such corporation. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

1. CAUSEWAYS

Art. 1466. Authority to Build

Any person, corporation or association of persons, hereinafter called the owner, may purchase, build, construct, own, maintain and operate a combination bridge, dam, dike, causeway and roadway across any arm of the Gulf of Mexico or inlet thereof, or any of the saltwater bays, wholly within the limits of this State, to provide a causeway, roadway or highway for vehicles, teams, pedestrians, railroads, and for every character of inland transportation.

Art. 1467. Statement of Location

Within ninety days after the commencement of construction of such structure, said owner shall file for record with the clerk of the county where the greater part of such structure is situated, a sworn statement showing the location of said proposed structure, the name of the same, the size of the same, the name of the stream, bay or arm of the gulf or inlet thereof, or salt water bay over which it is to be built, the time when the work was commenced and the name of the owner, together with a map showing the location of said structure.

Art. 1468. Priority

The claimant's right to build said structure will relate back to the time of so filing said statement and map, and the first in time shall be the first in right. The filing of said statement and map shall be considered as taking "formal action."
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1469. Condemnation of Approaches

Said claimant may acquire by purchase or by the exercise of the right of eminent domain, all necessary approaches to said structure that said claimant deems necessary.

Art. 1470. Land Under Water

The land under water to be occupied by such structure and approaches thereto is hereby granted absolutely to said claimant, and five hundred feet more on each side of such structure is also granted with the right only to dredge therefrom or beyond same for material for causeways if required in construction and maintenance.

Art. 1471. Lease of Right of Way

Such owner may lease the right of way over said structure to cities and towns for public utilities owned and operated by them, and to corporations for the constructions by such corporations of railroad tracks over which steam and electric trains and cars may be operated for the transportation of freight and passengers; such right not to be granted in such way as to obstruct or interfere with the use of such structure for pedestrians, teams and vehicles, or to permit a monopoly. Said lease to railroad corporations shall be for such time and on such terms and conditions as the Railroad Commission of Texas may prescribe. Said railroad companies shall only charge for the use of said tracks as a part of the mileage according to statutory rates and the general laws of Texas.

Art. 1472. Lessee May Issue Bonds

Any corporation so contracting for the right of way over any part of said structure shall have the right to make and enter into any contract with said owner subject to the approval of the Railroad Commission, for the payment to said owner of all sums of money due thereunder, and for this purpose may issue and sell its bonds to the extent of the amount of such corporation's obligations to the said owner. No such bonds shall be issued by any railroad company or other corporation without first obtaining the permission, order and approval of the Railroad Commission.

Art. 1473. Causeway Corporations

Corporations may be formed and chartered under the provisions of this law and of this title for the purposes stated in article 1466 hereof. All such corporations shall have full power and authority to make contracts with other persons or corporations conveying to said persons or corporations the right of easement or user of any portion of any such structure, and shall have full power and authority to charge, demand and receive reasonable and just tolls and charges for the use of said portions of said bridge, causeway or roadway, and the same shall be equal, just and uniform to all persons, corporations, cities and towns as herein provided, without discrimination as to the amount charged or delay in handling same. Any such corporation shall be subject to the regulation and control of the Railroad Commission as to all the powers and provisions of this law.

2. BRIDGES AND FERRIES

Art. 1474. Bridge Charter

The charter of a bridge or ferry company, in addition to the general information required by law, shall state the stream intended to be crossed by the bridge or ferry.

Art. 1475. Rights of Corporation

Whenever any person shall file with the Secretary of State any article of association for the erection and maintenance of a bridge or ferry, it shall not be lawful for any other toll-bridge or toll-ferry, to be established on the same stream within the limits specified in said article; provided, that said limits shall not extend more than three miles above and three miles below said bridge or ferry. This article shall not be construed to prohibit bridges and ferries at the crossings of any road on such stream within such limits, declared, either before or after the erection of such bridge or ferry, to be a public road by the commissioners court of the county in which such crossing is situated.

Art. 1476. Toll Rate

All charges or tolls for crossing any bridge or ferry shall be regulated by the commissioners court by an order made at a regular term, and spread upon the minutes of said court, as provided in the case of other bridges and ferries.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1477. Owner's Liability

All persons or corporate companies owning any toll bridge or ferry shall be liable for all damages caused by neglect, delay or the insufficiency of their bridge or ferry boat, which damages may be recovered by suit therefor.

Art. 1508. Purposes

Corporations may be created for the purpose of gathering, storing, and impounding water containing salt or other substances [produced] in the drilling and operation of oil and other wells, and to prevent the flow thereof into streams at times when the latter may be used for irrigation.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1509. Powers

Such corporations, in addition to the general powers conferred by law upon private corporations, may acquire, own, and operate ditches, canals, pipe lines, levees, reservoirs, and their appliances appropriate for the gathering, impounding or storage of such water and for the protection of such reservoirs from inflow or damage by surface waters.

Art. 1510. Condemnation

Such corporation shall have power to condemn lands and rights necessary for the purposes of such corporation; and also to cross with their ditches, canals, and pipe lines under any highways, canals, pipe lines, railroads, and tram or logging roads; conditioned that the use thereof be not impaired longer than essential to the making of such crossings. No right is conferred to pass through any cemetery or under any residence, school house or other public building, nor to cross any street or alley of any incorporated city or town without the consent of the authorities thereof.

Art. 1511. Services

In the localities in which they operate and to the extent of the facilities provided, such corporations shall serve all producers of such waters in the gathering, impounding, and storage of such waters, in proportion to the needs of such producers at fair and reasonable charges, and without discrimination between such producers under like conditions.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1512. Ownership of Stock

Corporations interested in the proper disposition of such waters may subscribe for, own, and vote stock in the corporations which may be created hereunder.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1513a. Creation of Trust Company; Purposes

Creation; Purposes

Sec. 1. Trust companies may be created, and any corporation, however created, may amend its charter in compliance herewith, or a foreign corporation may obtain a certificate of authority to do business in Texas for the following purpose: to act as trustee, executor, administrator, or guardian when designated by any person, corporation, or court to do so, and as agent for the performance of any lawful act, including the right to receive deposits made by agencies of the United States of America for the authorized account of any individual, and to act as attorney-in-fact for reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange, and to lend and accumulate money without banking privileges, when licensed under the provisions of Subtitle II of Title 79, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.<sup>1</sup>

Supervision of Banking Commissioner; Annual Statement; Examination of Trust Companies; Penalties

Sec. 2. (a) Such corporations shall be subject to supervision by the Banking Commissioner of Texas and shall file with the Banking Commissioner of Texas on or before February 1 of each year a statement of its condition on the previous December 31, in such form as may be required by the Banking Commissioner, showing under oath its assets and liabilities, together with a fee of $25 for filing; which statement when so filed shall not be open to the public but shall be for the information of the Banking Commissioner and his employees. The Banking Commissioner may, for good cause shown, extend the time for filing such statement for not more than 60 days. The Banking Commissioner, or his authorized assistants or representative, shall not make public the contents of said statement, or any information derived therefrom, except in the course of some judicial proceeding in this state.

(b) The Banking Commissioner of Texas shall have authority to examine or cause to be examined each such corporation annually or more often if he deems it necessary. Such corporation shall pay the actual traveling expenses, hotel bills, and all other actual expenses incident to such examination and a fee not exceeding $25 per day per person engaged in such examination. If such corporation has not sold in Texas, and does not offer for sale or sell in Texas, any of its securities which have been registered or with respect to which a permit authorizing their sale has been issued under the Securities Act, as presently in force or hereafter amended, the Banking Commissioner of Texas, in lieu of an examination, shall accept the financial statement filed by such corporation pursuant to the first paragraph of this Section. Such fees, together with all other fees, penalties and revenues collected by the Banking Department, shall be retained by the department and shall be expended only for the expenses of the department.

(c) If any such corporation shall fail to comply with the requirements of the first paragraph of this Section in the manner and within the time required, such failure shall subject such corporation to a penalty of not less than $200 nor more than $1,000, which shall be collected at the suit of the Attorney General if not paid within 30 days after February 1 of each year. A second failure to file such statement, as so required, shall be grounds for forfeiture of the charter of such corporation at the suit of the Attorney General upon request of the Banking Commissioner of Texas.

(d) Refusal on the part of any such corporation to submit to an examination by the Banking Commissioner of Texas, or his representatives, or the withholding of information from the Banking Commissioner of Texas, or his representatives, shall constitute grounds for forfeiture of the charter of such corporation at the suit of the Attorney General upon the request of the Banking Commissioner of Texas.

Compliance with Securities Act

Sec. 3. Any securities issued or sold by such companies shall be issued and sold in compliance with all of the provisions of the Securities Act, as amended, as it now exists or may hereafter be amended.

Paid-in Capital

Sec. 4. Any such company must have a fully paid-in capital of not less than $500,000.

Demand or Time Deposits

Sec. 5. Any such company shall not accept demand or time deposits, except as hereinabove provided.

Foreign Corporations

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall apply to foreign corporations which have heretofore been authorized and which may hereafter be authorized to transact business in this state under a certificate of authority which authorizes such corporation to exercise in this state all or any of the purposes, powers or authorities referred to in Section 1 hereof. Every such foreign corporation authorized to transact business in the state shall be subject to the examination of the Banking Commissioner of Texas in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions as are domestic corporations. In lieu of such examinations, the Banking Commissioner of Texas may, in his discretion, accept reports of examination made by the supervising authority of the state in which the home office of such foreign corporation is domiciled. Failure to comply with this Act shall constitute grounds for revocation of the certificate of authority of such foreign corporation to transact business in this state in an action filed by the Attorney General upon the request of the Banking Commissioner of Texas.

Supplementary Laws; Antitrust Laws

Sec. 7. The General Laws for incorporation and governing of corporations and the provisions of Article 1513, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, and the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act shall supplement the provisions of this Act and shall apply to such trust companies to the extent that they are not inconsistent herewith; provided, the provisions of Article 2.01A permitting a corporation to have more than one purpose shall not apply. The power and authority herein conferred shall in no way affect any of the provisions of the antitrust laws of this state.

Sections 2 and 3 of the 1967 amendatory act provided:

"Sec. 2. Chapter 165, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 1524a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

"Sec. 3. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence or Section of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

AGRICULTURAL FINANCE CORPORATIONS

Art. 1514. Purposes

This subdivision embraces private corporations formed for the purpose of dealing in acceptances and other receipts growing out, or to be used in aid, of the transportation, warehousing, distribution, or financing, in either domestic or foreign trade, of readily marketable, staple, non-perishable, agricultural products; and for dealing in acceptances of banking corporations not secured upon nor representing any such products.

Art. 1515. "Agricultural Products"

By ready marketable, staple, non-perishable agricultural products are meant those classes of agricultural products which are subject to such constant dealing in ready markets as to make their values easily and definitely ascertainable and realizable on short notice, and which are not ordinarily subject to substantial depreciation in quality within the period of immaturity of the obligations which they secure, or by which they are represented.

Art. 1516. Assets and Liabilities

The total liabilities to any corporation chartered under this law of any such banking corporation, on account of any such unsecured acceptances, shall at no time be permitted to exceed ten per cent of the unimpaired capital of such corporation. Each such corporation shall invest and keep invested in obligations of the United States, Texas, or political subdivisions or incorporated cities of Texas, not less than one-half of its paid in capital. Such corporation shall have an unauthorized<sup>1</sup> capital stock of not less than five hundred thousand dollars which shall not be reduced by amendment to less than such sum.

Art. 1517. Limit of Indebtedness

No such corporation shall enter into any contract or contracts of acceptances, guaranty, indorsement or suretyship when its obligation thereon in connection with its entire existing obligations and indebtedness primary or secondary, fixed or contingent, shall exceed five times its then unimpaired capital and surplus, unless previously authorized in writing by the Banking Commissioner so to do, in which case it may enter into such contract not to exceed the limit so fixed by such Commissioner, in no case to exceed ten times its said capital and surplus. Those obligations, to pay which at maturity, any such corporation has been furnished funds by other parties liable thereon, need not be considered in determining the amount of its existing obligations and indebtedness hereunder. All such contracts and obligations entered into in violation of this article shall be unenforceable against such corporation. Nothing herein shall prevent the enforcement of any such prohibited obligations by any holder who has acquired the same in due course, for value, before maturity, and without notice of its infirmity.

Art. 1518. Ownership of Stock

Any private corporation formed under this title, and any banking corporation or trust company, except savings banks, may hold stock in corporations created hereunder, and in corporations chartered under the laws of the United States or in any State thereof, and principally engaged in financing domestic or foreign trade in any such agricultural products, in amounts not to exceed in the aggregate, ten per cent of the capital and surplus of such private corporation, banking or trust company, nor to exceed ten per cent of the capital stock of such corporation in which such stock is to be held. No banking corporation or trust company shall acquire stock in such corporation without express written authorization therefor from the Banking Commissioner, under such rules and regulations as he may provide, except in payment of debt. If it shall acquire same in payment of debt, it shall promptly dispose of same unless expressly permitted to retain same by such commissioner.

Art. 1519. Regulation

Such corporations shall be subject at all times to the supervision and control of the Banking Commissioner, and shall conform to all lawful regulations of such Commissioner. No such corporation shall begin business until authorized to do so by such Commissioner after satisfactory showing made that such corporation has complied with the law, and thereafter it shall make reports to such Commissioner and be subject to such periodical visitations and examinations under his direction, and shall pay fees therefor, all as in the case of State banking corporations. Said Commissioner shall have such powers with reference to taking charge of such corporations, liquidating same, and for like causes as are possessed by him with reference to State banks.

Art. 1524b. Housing Corporations Authorized

Corporations may be formed wholly for the purpose of providing housing for families of low income and/or for reconstruction of slum areas, provided such corporations are regulated by state or municipal law, as hereinafter provided as to rents, charges, capital structure, rate of return and areas and methods of operation.

Art. 1524c. Application for Incorporation

Applications for charters for corporations, the creation of which are authorized under the provisions of this Act, in addition to requirements now prescribed by law, must be accompanied by a certificate executed by the officials of the governing body of the municipality in which said corporation contemplate owning or operating any properties certifying that the capital structure thereof and the plans and specifications of the proposed building has the approval of such governing body, provided, that where said corporation contemplates the owning or operating of properties situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village, then the certification herein referred to shall be executed by the Commissioners' Court of any county in which it is contemplated to own and/or operate properties within the scope of this Act. Such certificate shall not be binding upon the Secretary of State who shall proceed to file or refuse to file the charter in accordance with the provisions of existing laws.

Art. 1524d. Powers; Fees and Taxes

Any corporation organized under the provisions of this Act shall have, except as herein provided, all the powers of private domestic corporations which have been heretofore organized under the provisions of the laws of the State of Texas, and shall pay all fees and taxes which are required to be paid by private domestic corporations organized and/or existing under the laws of the State of Texas.

Art. 1524e. Regulation by Municipalities or Counties

The rents, charges, capital structure, rate of return and areas and method of operation of any corporation organized under the provisions of Section 1 hereof shall be regulated, as hereinafter provided, by the governing body of any municipality or county where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village in which said corporation owns and operates any property. Should any such corporation own and operate properties in more than one municipality, the governing body of each municipality or county, where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village in which property of the corporation is situated, shall regulate in the manner prescribed by this Act the rents, charges, rate of return and area and method of operation of the property located within the territorial limits of such municipality or county, where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village, provided the governing body of a county shall not have the jurisdiction of regulation of property of such corporation situated within the corporate limits of a town, village, or city.

Art. 1524f. Rate of Return Restricted

The governing body fixing the rate of return for a corporation organized under the provisions of Section 1 of this Act shall not fix such rates of return to yield a net amount in excess of eight (8%) per cent upon the invested capital of such corporation.

[Acts 1932, 42nd Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 107, ch. 42, § 5.]

Art. 1524g. Rules and Regulations to be Prescribed and Plans Approved

Such governing body may establish rules and regulations governing its procedure for hearings in fixing or amending orders or ordinances fixing the rents, charges, rate of return and areas and methods of corporations organized under the provisions of Section 1 hereof, and before any building is erected by such corporation, the detailed plans and specifications thereof, must be approved by the governing body of the municipality or county, where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village in which such building is to be erected.

Art. 1524h. Appeal from Order Fixing Rate of Return

Any corporation organized and existing under and by virtue of provisions of Section 1 hereof, which shall be dissatisfied with any rents, charges, rate of return and area and method of operation which is fixed or may be fixed or may be changed by any governing body, may, by giving to such governing body ten (10) days notice by registered mail of its intention thereof, appeal to any district court of the county wherein the property which is affected is situated. The appeal shall be perfected by filing suit in the district court of the county in which the property is situated within ten (10) days after the giving of such notice, and the filing of such suit shall suspend the order, rule, regulation, or ordinance from which the appeal is perfected. The municipality or county, where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village shall be defendant in said suit. The trial shall be de novo, and Court, upon a hearing, shall, by its judgment, regulate the rents, charges, rate of return, areas and method of operation of the corporation.

Art. 1524j. Anti-trust Laws not Affected

Provided that nothing in this Act shall in anywise affect or nullify the Anti-trust laws of this State.
[Acts 1932, 42nd Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 107, ch. 42, § 9.]

Art. 1524k. Restraining Violation of Orders, Rules or Regulations; Punishment for Violation of Injunction

If any agent, servant, officer or employee of any corporation created under the provisions of this Act shall wilfully violate any order, rule, regulation or ordinance fixing rents, charges, rate of return, areas and method of operation, the District Court of the County in which the property of such corporation is situated, upon application of the governing body of the municipality or county, where the properties to be owned or operated are situated outside the corporate limits of any organized town, city or village wherein the corporation owns property or upon application of any Labor Inspector employed by the State of Texas when authorized to so act by the Commissioner of Labor Statistics of the State of Texas, may issue during its term or in vacation a temporary writ of injunction restraining such agents, servants, officers or employees from any violation of such order, rule, regulation or ordinance and which temporary writ of injunction may be made permanent upon notice and hearing in the manner now provided by law. No bond shall be required before issuing any such temporary or permanent injunction and if any such injunction is violated by the agents, servants, officers or employees of said corporation, the Court, in addition to its power to punish for contempt, may order that the building of such corporation shall not be used or occupied for any period not to exceed one year but the Court shall permit said building to be occupied or used if the owner, lessee, tenant or occupant thereof shall give bond with sufficient surety to be provided by the Court in the sum of not less than Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars nor more than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, payable to the Judge of said Court, conditioned that said corporation, its agents, servants, officers or employees will thereafter comply with the orders, rules, regulations or ordinances which have been or may be promulgated, fixing the rents, charges, or rate of return, areas and methods of operation of said corporation and that it will pay all fines and costs that may be assessed in contempt proceedings against its agents, servants, officers and employees for the violation of any writ of injunction existing, or which may thereafter be issued.

Such corporations shall have power to charter, lease, construct or purchase necessary vessels, ships, docks, wharves, and warehouses for the conduct of their business; to pool products of the farm in the sale of same; to hypothecate or pledge the credit of such corporations for the products so received under contract for the necessary funds with which to market same; to borrow money as other business corporations and to lend the same upon products that they may be engaged in the sale of, either as owner, agent, consignee, or commission merchant. They shall have generally and specially all the rights, powers and privileges belonging to a corporation engaging in international trading. Such corporations shall have authority to receive in payment of capital stock, manufacturing establishments, and the stocks and bonds of same at a fair and just valuation, and to so receive the products of the farm, ranch and orchard. Whenever property is received in payment for capital stock, the Secretary of State shall appoint a board of appraisers who are familiar with the valuations of such property so taken in payment for capital stock to appraise same and furnish him with a sworn statement of the valuations of the property so taken in payment for capital stock. On receipt of same he shall approve, file and record the charter of such corporation. A majority of the stock shall in all instances be owned by citizens of the United States, and a majority of the officers and directors thereof shall in all instances be citizens of the United States and of this State. Nothing in this article shall prevent citizens of foreign countries from becoming stockholders in such corporations, but the control of such corporations shall never in any instance be vested in citizens of other countries than the United States. Violation of any provision herein as to the control of stock of such corporation shall be sufficient for the Secretary of State to cancel the charter of said corporation and same shall be placed in the hands of a receiver as provided by law.

Art. 1527a. International Commerce Development Corporation; Foreign Trade Zone

The International Commerce Development Corporation, organized and incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, with offices at Fort Worth, Tarrant County, Texas, is authorized to apply for and accept a grant to establish, operate and maintain a foreign trade zone at the Fort Worth Port of Entry, and other sub-zones, subject to the requirements of federal law and regulations of the Foreign Trade Zones Board.

Art. 1528. Ice Companies

Corporations organized or chartered under the laws of this State for the manufacture of ice shall also be authorized to engage in and transact the business of buying, selling and refrigerating poultry and poultry products, and buying, selling, canning and refrigerating fruits, produce and dairy products.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 1528a. State Housing Law

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known as the "State Housing Law."

State Agencies and Instrumentalities

Sec. 2. It is hereby declared that it is necessary in the public interest to make provision for housing for families of low income, and that, the providing of such housing being now otherwise impossible, it is essential that provision be made for the investment of private and public funds at low interest rates, the acquisition at fair prices of adequate parcels of land and the construction of new housing facilities under public supervision in accord with proper standards of sanitation and safety, at a cost which will permit their rental or sale at prices which families of low income can afford to pay. Therefore, there are created and established the agencies and instrumentalities hereinafter prescribed which are declared to be the agencies and instrumentalities of the state for the purpose of attaining the ends herein recited, and their necessity in the public interest is hereby declared a matter of legislative determination.

State Housing Board

Sec. 3. There is hereby created a State Board of Housing of the State of Texas. The Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission is hereby designated as the State Housing Board of the State of Texas, and shall perform all duties imposed by the Legislature as hereinafter provided: and insofar as its responsibilities and duties have to do with the State Housing Law the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission shall continue to exist as the State Housing Board until its duties and obligations shall have ceased to exist.

Definition

Sec. 4. Definition: The term board as used in this Act shall mean the Texas Rehabilitation and Relief Commission.

Conditions of Approval of Housing Projects by Board

Sec. 5. No housing project proposed by a limited dividend housing corporation incorporated under this Act shall be undertaken, and no building or other construction shall be placed under contract or started without the approval of the board. No housing project shall be approved by the board unless:

(a) It shall appear practicable to rent or sell the housing accommodations to be created at prices not exceeding those prescribed by the board. No such project shall be approved in contravention of any zoning or building ordinance in effect in the locality in which designated areas are located.

(b) There shall be submitted to the board a financial plan in such form and with such assurances as the board may prescribe to raise the actual cost of the lands and projected improvements by subscriptions to or the sale of the stock, income debentures and mortgage bonds of such corporation. Whenever reference is made in this Act to cost of projects or of buildings and improvements in projects, such cost shall include charges for financing and supervision approved by the board and carrying charges during construction required in the project including interest on borrowed, and, where approved by the board, on invested capital.

(c) There shall be such plans of site development and buildings as show conformity to reasonable standards of health, sanitation, safety and provisions for light and air, accompanied by proper specifications and estimates of cost. Such plans and specifications shall not in any case fall below the requirements of the health, sanitation, safety and housing laws of the state and shall meet superior requirements if prescribed by local laws and ordinances.

(d) The corporation agrees to accept a designee of the board of housing as a member of the board of directors of said corporation.

(e) If required by the board, the corporation shall deposit all moneys received by it as proceeds of its mortgage bonds, notes, income debentures, or stock, with a trustee which shall be a banking corporation authorized to do business in the State of Texas and to perform trust functions, and such trustee shall receive such moneys and make payment therefrom for the acquisition of land, the construction of improvements and other items entering into cost of land improvements upon presentation of draft, check or order signed by a proper officer of the corporation and, if required by the board, countersigned by the said board or a person designated by it for said purpose. Any funds remaining in the custody of said trustee after the completion of the said project and payment or arrangement in a manner satisfactory to the board for payment in full thereof shall be paid to the corporation.

Investigation of Housing Companies

Sec. 6. The board shall have power to investigate into the affairs of limited dividend housing companies, incorporated under this Act, and into the dealings, transactions or relationships of such companies with other persons. Any of the investigations provided for in this Act may be conducted by the board or by a committee to be appointed by the board consisting of one or more members of the board. Each member of the board or a committee thereof shall have power to administer oaths, take affidavits and to make personal inspections of all places to which their duties relate. The board or a committee thereof shall have power to subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers relating to the investigations and inquiries authorized in this Act, and to examine them in relation to any matter it has power to investigate, and to issue commissions for the examination of witnesses who are out of the state or unable to attend before the board or excused from attendance.

Powers of Board

Sec. 7. The board is hereby empowered to

(a) study housing conditions and needs throughout the state to determine in what areas congested and unsanitary housing conditions constitute a menace to the health, safety, morals, welfare and reasonable comfort of the citizens of the state,

(b) prepare programs for correcting such conditions,

(c) collect and distribute information relating to housing,

(d) investigate all matters affecting the cost of construction or production of dwellings,

(e) study means of securing economy in the construction and arrangement of buildings,

(f) recommend and approve the areas within which or adjacent to which the construction of housing projects by limited dividend housing companies may be undertaken, and

(g) cooperate with local housing officials and planning commissions or similar bodies in cities and other localities in developments of projects they at any time may have under consideration.

Consolidation of Projects

Sec. 8. The board may permit the consolidation of two or more approved projects or the extension or amendment of any approved project or the consolidation of any approved project with a proposed project. In any of these events, the consolidation project shall be treated as an original project, and an application shall be submitted as in the case of an original project and rents may be averaged throughout the consolidated or extended project. The board may likewise permit or decline to permit any limited dividend corporation to organize and operate more than one project or to take over any project heretofore approved by the board and to operate it independently of other projects of the corporation.

Supervision and Regulation of Operation of Housing Companies

Sec. 9. In pursuance of its power and authority to supervise and regulate the operations of limited dividend housing companies incorporated under this Act the board may:

(a) Order any such corporation to make, at its expense, such repairs and improvements as will preserve or promote the health and safety of the occupants of buildings and structures owned or operated by such corporations.

(b) Order all such corporations to do such acts as may be necessary to comply with the provisions of the law, the rules and regulations adopted by the board or by the terms of any project approved by the board, or to refrain from doing any acts in violation thereof.

(c) Examine all such corporations and keep informed as to their general condition, their capitalization and the manner in which their property is constructed, leased, operated or managed.

(d) Either through its members or agents duly authorized by it, enter in or upon and inspect the property, equipment, buildings, plants, offices, apparatus and devices of any such corporation, examine all books, contracts, records, documents and papers of any such corporation and by subpoena duces tecum compel the production thereof.

(e) In its discretion prescribe uniform methods and forms of keeping accounts, records and books to be observed by such companies and to prescribe by order accounts in which particular outlays and receipts shall be entered, charged or credited.

(f) Require every such corporation to file with the board an annual report setting forth such information as the board may require verified by the oath of the President and General Manager or Receiver if any thereof or by the person required to file the same. Such report shall be in the form, cover the period and be filed at the time prescribed by the board. The board may further require specific answers to questions upon which the board may desire information and may also require such corporations to file periodic reports in the form covering the period and at the time prescribed by the board.

(g) From time to time make, amend and repeal rules and regulations for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

Maximum Rentals or Purchase Price

Sec. 10. The board shall fix the maximum rental or purchase price to be charged for the housing accommodations furnished by such corporation. Such maximum rental or purchase price shall be determined upon the basis of the actual final cost of the project so as to secure, together with all other income of the corporation, a sufficient income to meet all necessary payments to be made by said corporations, as hereinafter prescribed, and such rental or purchase price shall be subject to revision by the board from time to time. The payments to be made by such corporation shall be

(a) all fixed charges, and all operating and maintenance charges and expenses which shall include taxes, assessments, insurance, amortization charges in amounts approved by the board to amortize the mortgage indebtedness in whole or in part, depreciation charges if, when and to the extent deemed necessary by the board; reserves, sinking funds and corporate expenses essential to operation and management of the project in amounts approved by the board.

(b) A dividend not exceeding the maximum fixed by this act upon the stock of the corporation allotted to the project by the board.

(c) Where feasible in the discretion of the board, a sinking fund in an amount to be fixed by the board for the gradual retirement of the stock, and income debentures of the corporation to the extent permitted by this Act.

Letting, subletting or assignment of leases of apartments in such buildings or structures at greater rentals than prescribed by the order of the board are prohibited and all such leases will be void for all purposes.

Reorganization of Companies

Sec. 11. (1) Reorganization of limited dividend housing companies shall be subject to the supervision and control of the board and no such reorganization shall be had without the authorization of such board.

(2) Upon all such reorganizations the amount of capitalization, including therein all stocks, income debentures and bonds and other evidence of indebtedness shall be such as is authorized by the board which, in making its determination, shall not exceed the fair value of the property involved.

Actions by Board against Housing Companies

Sec. 12. Whenever the board shall be of the opinion that any such limited dividend housing company is failing or omitting, or about to fail or omit to do anything required of it by law or by order of the board and is doing or about to do anything, or permitting anything or about to permit anything to be done, contrary to or in violation of law or of any order of the board, or which is improvident or prejudicial to the interests of the public, the lienholders or the stockholders, it may commence an action or proceeding in the District Court of the county in which the said company is located, in the name of the board for the purpose of having such violations or threatened violations stopped and prevented by mandatory injunction. The board shall begin such action or proceeding by a petition and complaint to the said District Court, alleging the violation complained of and praying for appropriate relief by way of mandatory injunction. It shall thereupon be the duty of the court to specify the time, not exceeding twenty days after service of a copy of the petition and complaint, within which the corporation complained of must answer the petition and complaint.

In case of default in answer or after answer the court shall immediately inquire into the facts and circumstances in such manner as the court shall direct without other or formal pleadings, and without respect to any technical requirements. Such other persons or corporations as it shall seem to the court necessary or proper to join as parties in order to make its order or judgment effective, may be joined as parties. The final judgment in any such action or proceeding shall either dismiss the action or proceeding or direct that a mandatory injunction be issued as prayed for in the petition and complaint or in such modified or other form as the court may determine will afford appropriate relief.

Acquisition of Property for Projects

Sec. 13. When the board shall have approved a project for the construction of housing accommodations presented to it by a limited dividend housing company, such company may undertake the acquisition of the property needed for said project. Such property may be acquired by gift, bequest or purchase or, in the case of limited dividend housing companies.

The board may expressly except from its certificate hereunder any part of the property proposed to be acquired as unnecessary to the plan. The approval by the board of the project shall be deemed in any proceeding to acquire land by appropriation as sufficient evidence of the necessity of the appropriation and a duly certified copy of the certificate of the board shall be conclusive evidence as to the matters lawfully certified therein in any appropriation proceeding.

Incorporation

Sec. 14. Any number of natural persons, not less than three, a majority of whom are citizens of the United States, may become a corporation by subscribing, acknowledging and filing in the office of the Secretary of State, articles of incorporation, hereinafter called "articles," setting forth the information required by the general corporation act of the state, except as herein modified or changed.

(a) The purposes for which a limited dividend housing company is to be formed shall be as follows: To acquire, construct, maintain and operate housing projects when authorized by and subject to the supervision of the board of housing.

(b) The shares of which the capital shall consist shall have a par value.

(c) Articles of incorporation shall contain a declaration that the corporation has been organized to serve a public purpose and that it shall remain at all times subject to the supervision and control of the board or of other appropriate state authority; that all real estate acquired by it and all structures erected by it, shall be deemed to be acquired for the purpose of promoting the public health and safety and subject to the provisions of the state housing law and that the stockholders of this corporation shall be deemed, when they subscribe to and receive the stock thereof, to have agreed that they shall at no time receive or accept from the company, in repayment of their investment in its stock, any sums in excess of the par value of the stock, together with cumulative dividends at the rate of six (6%) per centum per annum, and that any surplus in excess of such amount if said company shall be dissolved, shall revert to the State of Texas.

(d) The provisions of the general corporation act, as hereafter from time to time amended, shall apply to limited dividend housing companies, except where such provisions are in conflict therewith.

Dividend Rate

Sec. 15. No stockholder in any company formed hereunder shall receive any dividend, or other distribution based on stock ownership, in any one year in excess of six (6%) per centum per annum except that when in any preceding year dividends in the amount prescribed in the articles of incorporation shall not have been paid on the said stock, the stockholders may be paid such deficiency without interest out of any surplus earned in any succeeding years.

Stock and Bond Issues for Property or Money actually Received

Sec. 16. No limited dividend housing company incorporated under this act shall issue stock, bonds or income debentures, except for money, services or property actually received for the use and lawful purpose of the corporation. No stock, bonds or income debentures shall be issued for property or services except upon a valuation approved by the board of housing and such valuation shall be used in computing actual or estimated cost.

Income Debenture Certificates

Sec. 17. The articles of incorporation may authorize the issuance of income debenture certificates bearing no greater interest than six (6%) per centum per annum. After the incorporation of a limited dividend housing company, the directors thereof may, with the consent of two-thirds of the holders of any preferred stock that may be issued and outstanding, offer to the stockholders of the company the privilege of exchanging their preferred and common stock in such quantities and at such times as may be approved by the board of housing for such income debenture certificates, whose face value shall not exceed the par value of the stock exchanged therefor.

Limitation of Powers

Sec. 18. No limited dividend housing company incorporated shall under this Act:

(1) Acquire any real property or interest therein unless it shall first have obtained from the board a certificate that such acquisition is necessary or convenient for the public purpose defined in this Act.

(2) Sell, transfer, assign or lease any real property without first having obtained the consent of the board, provided, however, that leases conforming to the regulations and rules of the board and for actual occupancy by the lessees may be made without the consent of the board. Any conveyance, incumbrance, lease or sublease made in violation of the provisions of this section and any transfer or assignment thereof shall be void.

(3) Pay interest returns on its mortgage indebtedness and its income debenture certificates at a higher rate than six (6%) per centum per annum.

(4) Issue its stock, debentures and bonds covering any project undertaken by it in an amount greater in the aggregate than the total actual final cost of such project, including the lands, improvements, charges for financing and supervision approved by the board and interest and other carrying charges during construction.

(5) Mortgage any real property without first having obtained the consent of the board.

(6) Issue any securities or evidences of indebtedness without first having obtained the approval of the board.

(7) Use any building erected or acquired by it for other than housing purposes, except that when permitted by law the story of the building above the cellar or basement and the space below such story may be used for stores, commercial, cooperative or community purposes, and when permitted by law the roof may be used for cooperative or community purposes.

(8) Charge or accept any rental, purchase price or other charge in excess of the amounts prescribed by the board.

(9) Enter into contracts for the construction of housing projects, or for the payments of salaries to officers or employees except subject to the inspection and revision of the board and under such regulations as the board from time to time may prescribe.

(10) Voluntarily dissolve without first having obtained the consent of the board.

(11) Make any guaranty without the approval of the board.

Bonds and Mortgages subject to Board's Approval

Sec. 19. Any company formed under this act may, subject to the approval of the board, borrow funds and secure the repayment thereof by bonds and mortgage or by an issue of bonds under trust indenture. The bonds so issued and secured and the mortgage or trust indentures relating thereto, may create a first or senior lien and a second or junior lien upon the real property embraced in any project. Such bonds and mortgages may contain such other clauses and provisions as shall be approved by the board, including the right to assignment of rents and entry into possession in case of default; but the operation of the housing projects in the event of such entry by mortgagee or receiver shall be subject to the regulations of the board under this act. Provisions for the amortization of the bonded indebtedness of companies formed under this act shall be subject to the approval of the board.

Surplus Earnings

Sec. 20. The amount of net earnings transferable to surplus in any year after making or providing for the payments specified in subdivisions (a), (b) and (c) of Section 10 of this act shall be subject to the approval of the board. The amount of such surplus shall not exceed fifteen (15%) per centum of the outstanding capital stock and income debentures of the corporation, but the surplus so limited shall not be deemed to include any increase in assets due to the reduction of mortgage or amortization or similar payments. On dissolution of any limited dividend housing company, the stockholders and income debenture certificate holders shall in no event receive more than the par value of their stock and debentures plus accumulated, accrued and unpaid dividends of interest, less any payment or distributions theretofore made other than by dividends provided in Section 15, and any remaining surplus or other undistributed earnings shall be paid into the general fund of the State of Texas, or shall be disposed of in such other manner as the board may direct and the Governor may approve.

Rentals Reduced after Payments of Charges

Sec. 21. If in any calendar or fiscal year the gross receipts of any company formed hereunder should exceed the payments or charges specified in Section 10, the sums necessary to pay dividends, interest accrued or unpaid on any stock or income debentures, and the authorized transfer to surplus, the balance shall, unless the board of directors with the approval of the board of housing shall deem such balance too small for the purposes, be applied to the reduction of rentals.

Board as Party in Foreclosures

Sec. 22. (1) In any foreclosure action the board shall be made a party defendant; and such board shall take all steps in such action necessary to protect the interest of the public therein, and no costs shall be awarded against the board. Foreclosure shall not be decreed unless the court to which application therefor is made shall be satisfied that the interests of the lienholder or holders cannot be adequately secured or safeguarded except by the sale of the property. In any such proceeding, the court shall be authorized to make an order increasing the rental to be charged for the housing accommodations in the project involved in such foreclosure, or appoint a receiver of the property or grant such other and further relief as may be reasonable and proper. In the event of a foreclosure sale or other judicial sale, the property shall, except as provided in the next succeeding paragraph of this section, be sold to a limited dividend housing corporation organized under this act, provided such corporation shall bid and pay a price for the property sufficient to pay court costs and all liens on the property with interest. Otherwise the property shall be sold free of all restrictions imposed by this act.

(2) Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of this section, wherever it shall appear that a corporation, subject to the supervision either of the state insurance department or state banking department, or the federal government or any agency or department of the federal government, shall have loaned on a mortgage which is a lien upon any such property such corporation shall have all the remedies available to a mortgagee under the laws of the State of Texas, free from any restrictions contained in this section, except that the board shall be made a party defendant and that such board shall take all steps necessary to protect the interests of the public and no costs shall be awarded against it.

Purchase of Property of Other Housing Corporations

Sec. 23. Before any limited dividend housing corporation incorporated under this act shall purchase the property of any other limited dividend housing corporation, it shall file an application with the board in the manner hereinbefore provided as for a new project and shall obtain the consent of the board to the purchase and agree to be bound by the provisions of this act, and the board shall not give its consent unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the board that the project is one that can be successfully operated according to the provisions of this act.

Notice to Board of Sales under Judgments

Sec. 24. In the event of a judgment against a limited dividend housing corporation in any action not pertaining to the collection of a mortgage indebtedness, there shall be no sale of any of the real property of such corporation except upon sixty days' written notice to the board. Upon receipt of such notice the board shall take such steps as in its judgment may be necessary to protect the rights of all parties.

Fees of Board

Sec. 25. The board may charge and collect for a limited dividend housing corporation, incorporated under this act, reasonable fees in accordance with rates to be established by the rules of the board for the examination of plans and specifications and the supervision of construction in an amount not to exceed one-half of one per cent of the cost of the project; for the holding of a public hearing upon application of a housing corporation an amount sufficient to meet the reasonable cost of advertising the notice thereof and of the transcript of testimony taken thereat; for any examination or investigation made upon application of a housing corporation and for any act done by the board, or any of its employees, in performance of their duties under this act an amount reasonably calculated to meet the expense of the board incurred in connection therewith. In no event shall any part of the expenses of the board ever be paid out of the state treasury. The board may authorize a housing corporation to include such fees as part of the cost of a project, or as part of the charges specified in Section 10 of this act pursuant to rules to be established by the board.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 26. The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provision not been included therein.

Corporate Existence

Sec. 27. The corporate existence of any corporation authorized hereunder shall not extend beyond twenty-five years from the date of incorporation, and promptly upon such termination the corporation shall be liquidated and its assets distributed as provided herein, unless the Incorporation Board, by approval of the State Board of Housing, should grant an extension for an additional period of time. [Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 751, ch. 223.]

Art. 1528b. Electric Cooperative Corporation Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Electric Cooperative Corporation Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Corporation" means a corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act;

(2) "Board" means a board of directors of a corporation organized under this Act;

(3) "Member" means the incorporators of a corporation and each person thereafter lawfully admitted to membership therein;

(4) "Federal agency" includes the United States of America and any department, administration, commission, board, bureau, office, establishment, agency, authority, or instrumentality of the United States of America heretofore or hereafter created;

(5) "Person" includes any natural person, firm, association, corporation, business trust, partnership, Federal agency, State or political subdivision thereof or any body politic;

(6) "Acquire" means and includes construct, acquire by purchase, lease, devise, gift, or other mode of acquisition;

(7) "Obligations" include bonds, notes, debentures, interim certificates or receipts, and all other evidences of indebtedness issued by a corporation;

(8) "Rural area" means any area not included within the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town, village, or borough, having a population in excess of fifteen hundred (1,500) inhabitants, and includes both the farm and non-farm population thereof.

Purpose

Sec. 3. Co-operative, non-profit, membership corporations heretofore or hereafter organized under this Act are authorized to engage in rural electrification by any one or more of the following methods:

(1) The furnishing of electric energy to any person, for delivery to any dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery which is located in a rural area, and which is not receiving central station service, notwithstanding the fact that such person may be receiving central station service at other points of delivery in a rural or nonrural area.

(2) If any area in which such corporation is furnishing electric service to its members is annexed by an incorporated city or town (whether rural or nonrural as defined in this Act) in which central station service is supplied by such city or town or by a public utility corporation, the co-operative corporation is authorized to continue to furnish electric energy to any dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery to which the co-operative corporation was delivering electric energy on the date of such annexation and if any person desires electric service in such annexed area for any dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery which was not being served by the co-operative corporation on the date the area became annexed and to which central station service is not available from the city or town or a public utility corporation, the co-operative corporation may thereafter furnish electric energy to such dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery.

(3) The furnishing of electric energy to persons desiring such service in any incorporated or unincorporated city or town (rural or nonrural) served by such corporation, and in which no central station service was available at the time such corporation began furnishing electric energy to the citizens thereof.

(4) The furnishing of electric energy to persons in rural areas who are not receiving central station service.

(5) The words "central station service" as used in this Act refer to electric service provided by a municipally owned electric system or by a public utility corporation, as described in Article 1435, Vernon's Revised Statutes of Texas.

(6) Assisting in the wiring of the premises of persons in rural areas or the acquisition, supply or installation of electrical or plumbing equipment.

(7) The furnishing of electric energy, wiring facilities, electrical or plumbing equipment or service to any other corporation organized under this Act or to the members thereof.

Powers of Corporation

Sec. 4. Each corporation shall have power:

(1) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

(2) To have perpetual succession unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation;

(3) To adopt a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use it, or a facsimile thereof, as required by law;

(4) To generate, manufacture, purchase, acquire, and accumulate electric energy and to transmit, distribute, sell, furnish, and dispose of such electric energy to its members only, and to construct, erect, purchase, lease as lessee and in any manner acquire, own, hold, maintain, operate, sell, dispose of, lease as lessor, exchange, and mortgage plants, buildings, works, machinery, supplies, equipment, apparatus, and transmission and distribution lines or systems necessary, convenient, or useful;

(5) To assist its members only to wire their premises and install therein electrical and plumbing fixtures, machinery, supplies, apparatus, and equipment of any and all kinds and character, and in connection therewith and for such purposes, to purchase, acquire, lease, sell, distribute, install, and repair electrical and plumbing fixtures, machinery, supplies, apparatus, and equipment of any and all kinds and character and to receive, acquire, endorse, pledge, hypothecate, and dispose of notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness;

(6) To furnish to other corporations organized under this Act, or to the members thereof, electric energy, wiring facilities, electrical and plumbing equipment, and services convenient or useful;

(7) To acquire, own, hold, use, exercise, and, to the extent permitted by law, to sell, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, and in any manner dispose of franchises, rights, privileges, licenses, rights of way, and easements necessary, useful, or appropriate;

(8) To purchase, receive, lease as lessee, or in any other manner acquire, own, hold, maintain, sell, exchange, and use any and all real and personal property or any interest therein;

(9) To borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness, to issue its obligations therefor, and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust of all or any of its property, assets, franchises, revenues, or income;

(10) To sell and convey, mortgage, pledge, lease as lessor, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets;

(11) To have and exercise the power of eminent domain for the purpose and in the manner provided by the condemnation laws of this State for acquiring private property for public use, such right to be paramount except as to property of the State, or of any political subdivision thereof;

(12) To accept gifts or grants of money, services, or property, real or personal;

(13) To make any and all contracts necessary or convenient for the exercise of the powers granted in this Act;

(14) To fix, regulate, and collect rates, fees, rents, or other charges for electric energy and any other facilities, supplies, equipment, or services furnished by the corporation;

(15) To conduct its business, and have offices within or without this State;

(16) To elect or appoint officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, and to define their duties and fix their compensation;

(17) To make and alter by-laws, not inconsistent with the articles of incorporation or with the laws of this State for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation;

(18) To do and perform, either for itself or its members, or for any other corporation organized under this Act, or for the members thereof, any and all acts and things, and to have and exercise any and all powers as may be necessary, convenient, or appropriate to effectuate the purpose for which the corporation is organized.

Incorporators

Sec. 5. Any three or more natural persons of the age of twenty-one (21) years or more, residents of this State, may act as incorporators of a corporation to be organized under this Act by executing articles of incorporation as hereinafter provided in this Act.

Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 6. (a) The articles of incorporation shall state:

(1) The name of the corporation, which name shall include the words "Electric Cooperative" and the word "Corporation," "Incorporated," "Inc.," "Association," or "Company" and the name shall be such as to distinguish it from any other corporation organized and existing under the laws of this State;

(2) The purpose for which the corporation is formed;

(3) The names and addresses of the incorporators who shall serve as directors and manage the affairs of the corporation until its first annual meeting of members, or until their successors are elected and qualify;

(4) The number of directors, not less than three (3), to be elected at the annual meetings of members;

(5) The address of its principal office and the name and address of its agent upon whom process may be served;

(6) The period of duration of the corporation, which may be perpetual;

(7) The terms and conditions upon which persons shall be admitted to membership and retain membership in the corporation, but if expressly so stated the determination of such matters may be reserved to the directors by the by-laws;

(8) Any provisions, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators may choose to insert, for the regulation of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

(b) It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act.

Prohibition on use of words "Electric Cooperative"

Sec. 7. The words "Electric Cooperative" shall not be used in the corporate name of corporations organized under the laws of this State, or authorized to do business herein, other than those organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

Execution, Filing, and Recording of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 8. When the incorporators of any corporation shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the Secretary of State of a compliance with the provisions of this Act, said officer shall receive, file, and record the articles of incorporation of such corporation in his office, upon application and payment of all fees therefor, and give a certificate showing the recording of such articles and authority to do business thereunder. The articles shall thereupon be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall record same at length in a book to be kept for that purpose, and retain the original on file in his office. A copy of the articles, or of the record thereof, certified under the Great Seal of the State, shall be evidence of the creation of the corporation. The existence of the corporation shall date from the filing of the articles in the office of the Secretary of State. The certificate of the Secretary of State shall be evidence of such filing.

Renewal of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 9. Any corporation organized under this Act, whose articles of incorporation have expired by limitation, may revive such articles with all the privileges and immunities and rights of property, real and personal, exercised and held by it at the time of the expiration of its said articles, by filing with the consent of a majority of its members, new articles of incorporation under the provisions of this Act, reciting therein such original privileges, immunities, and rights of property, and by filing therewith a certified copy of such original expired articles.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 10. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting shall be held, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting by-laws and electing officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three (3) days' notice thereof by mail to each incorporator, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting but such notice may be waived in writing.

By-laws

Sec. 11. The power to make, alter, amend, or repeal the by-laws of the corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The by-laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

Qualification of Members

Sec. 12. All persons having any dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery in rural areas (or in areas provided for in Subdivisions (1) to (4) of Section 3 of this Act) proposed to be served by a corporation who are not receiving central station service at such dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery, shall be eligible to membership in a corporation with respect to such dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery. No person other than the incorporators shall be, become, or remain a member of a corporation unless such person shall use or agree to use electric energy or, as the case may be, the facilities, supplies, equipment, and services furnished by the corporation at the dwelling, structure, apparatus or point of delivery on which the membership is based. A corporation organized under this Act may become a member of another such corporation and may avail itself fully of the facilities and service thereof.

Meetings of Members

Sec. 13. (a) Meetings of members may be held at such place as may be provided in the by-laws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held in the principal office of the corporation in this State.

(b) An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time as may be provided in the by-laws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

(c) Special meetings of the members may be called by the president, by the Board of Directors, or a majority thereof, by a petition signed by not less than one-tenth of all the members or by such other officers or persons as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

Notice of Members' Meetings

Sec. 14. Written or printed notice stating the place, day, and hour of the meeting of members and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be delivered not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30) days before the date of the meeting, either personally or by mail, by or at the direction of the president or the secretary, or the officers or persons calling the meeting, to each member of record entitled to vote at such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mails in a sealed envelope addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Notice of meetings of members may be waived in writing.

Voting by Members

Sec. 15. Each member present shall be entitled to one and only one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, but voting by proxy or by mail may be provided for in the by-laws.

Certificate of Membership

Sec. 16. When a member of a corporation has paid the membership fee in full, a certificate of membership shall be issued to such member. Memberships in the corporation and the certificates shall be non-transferable. The certificate of membership shall be surrendered to the corporation upon the resignation, expulsion, or death of the member. Except for debts lawfully contracted between him and the corporation, no member shall be liable for the debts of the corporation to an amount exceeding the sum remaining unpaid on his membership fee.

Quorum of Members

Sec. 17. Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a majority of the members present, in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of members, but if voting by mail is provided for in the by-laws, members so voting shall be counted as if present.

Board of Directors

Sec. 18. The business and affairs of a corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, not less than three (3) in number, which shall exercise all the powers of the corporation except such as are conferred upon the members by this Act, by the articles of incorporation or by the by-laws of the corporation. The by-laws may prescribe qualifications for directors.

Election, Qualification, and Compensation of Directors

Sec. 19. The directors, other than those named in the certificate of incorporation to serve until the first annual meeting of members, shall be elected annually, or as otherwise provided in the by-laws, by the members. The directors shall be members of the corporation and shall be entitled to such compensation and reimbursement for expenses actually and necessarily incurred by them as may be provided in the by-laws.

Vacancies

Sec. 20. Any vacancy occurring in the Board and any directorship to be filled, shall be filled as provided in the by-laws by persons who shall serve until directors may be regularly elected as provided for in this Act.

Quorum of Directors

Sec. 21. A majority of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business unless a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the by-laws. The act of the majority of the directors, present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be the act of the Board, unless the act of a greater number is required by the articles of incorporation or the by-laws.

Directors' Meetings

Sec. 22. Meetings of the Board, regular or special, shall be held at such place and upon such notice as the by-laws may prescribe. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting.

Officers, Agents, and Employees

Sec. 23. (a) The Board shall elect from its number a president, a vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer, but the same person may be elected to the office of secretary and treasurer. The powers and duties of the foregoing officers, as well as their term of office and compensation shall be provided for in the by-laws.

(b) The Board shall appoint such other officers, agents, and employees as it deems necessary and fix their powers, duties, and compensation.

(c) Any officer, agent, or employee elected or appointed by the Board, may be removed by it whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation will be served.

Executive Committee

Sec. 24. Any corporation may, by its by-laws, provide for an executive committee to be elected from and by its Board of Directors. To such committee may be delegated the management of the current and ordinary business of the corporation, and such other duties as the by-laws may prescribe, but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by this Act.

Non-profit Operation

Sec. 25. (a) Each corporation shall be operated without profit to its members but the rates, fees, rents, or other charges for electric energy and any other facilities, supplies, equipment, or services furnished by the corporation shall be sufficient at all times.

(1) To pay all operating and maintenance expenses necessary or desirable for the prudent conduct of its business and the principal of and interest on the obligations issued or assumed by the corporation in the performance of the purpose for which it was organized, and

(2) For the creation of reserves.

(b) The revenues of the corporation shall be devoted first to the payment of operating and maintenance expenses and the principal and interest on outstanding obligations, and thereafter to such reserves for improvement, new construction, depreciation, and contingencies as the Board may from time to time prescribe.

(c) Revenues not required for the purposes set forth in Subsection (b) of this Section shall be returned from time to time to the members on a pro rata basis according to the amount of business done with each during the period, either in cash, in abatement of current charges for electric energy, or otherwise as the Board determines; but such return may be made by way of general rate reduction to members, if the Board so elects.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 26. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation by an affirmative vote of a majority of the members who are present in person or by proxy at any regular meeting of such members, or at any special meeting that has been called for that purpose in the manner provided by the by-laws of such corporation. Notice to the members of such regular or special meeting shall state the general nature of each proposed amendment to be presented and voted upon at the meeting. No valid action shall be had or taken at any such regular or special meeting unless such regular or special meeting is attended by not less than five per cent (5%) of the members either in person or by proxy. The power to amend shall include the power to accomplish any desired change in the provisions of its articles of incorporation and to include any purpose, power, or provision which would be authorized to be included in original articles of incorporation if executed at the time the amendment is made. Articles of amendment signed by the president or vice-president, and attested by the secretary, certifying to such amendment and its lawful adoption shall be executed, acknowledged, filed and recorded in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act; and as soon as the Secretary of State shall have accepted the articles of amendment for filing and recording, and issued a certificate of amendment, the amendment or amendments shall be in effect, and the certificate of the Secretary of State shall be evidence of such filing.

Consolidation

Sec. 27. (a) Any two or more corporations may enter into an agreement for the consolidation of such corporations. The agreement shall set forth the terms and conditions of the consolidation, the name of the proposed consolidated corporation, the number of its directors, not less than three (3), the time of the annual meeting and election, and the name of at least three (3) persons to be directors until the first annual meeting. If such agreement is approved by the votes of a majority of the members of each corporation, present in person or by proxy at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting, of its members called for that purpose, the directors named in the agreement shall sign and acknowledge as incorporators articles of consolidation conforming substantially to original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act.

(b) The articles of consolidation shall be executed, acknowledged, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act. As soon as the Secretary of State shall have accepted the articles of consolidation for filing and recording and issued a certificate of consolidation, the proposed consolidated corporation, described in the articles under its designated name, shall be and become a body corporate, with all of the powers of a corporation as originally organized hereunder.

Dissolution

Sec. 28. (a) Any corporation may dissolve by majority vote of the members, present in person or by proxy at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting, of its members called for that purpose. A certificate of dissolution shall be signed by the president or vice-president and attested by the secretary, certifying to such dissolution and stating that they have been authorized to execute and file such certificate by votes cast in person or by proxy by a majority of the members of the corporation. A certificate of dissolution shall be executed, acknowledged, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act and as soon as the Secretary of State shall have accepted the certificate of dissolution for filing and recording and issued a certificate of dissolution, the corporation shall be deemed to be dissolved.

(b) Such corporation shall, however, continue for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations and collecting or liquidating its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name. Any assets remaining after all liabilities or obligations of the corporation have been satisfied or discharged shall be distributed pro rata among the members of the corporation at the time of the filing of the certificate of dissolution.

(c) Any corporation which purports to have been incorporated or re-incorporated under this Act but which has not complied with all of the requirements for legal corporate existence may nevertheless file a certificate of dissolution in the same manner as a validly existing corporation. The certificate of dissolution, in such case, may be authorized by a majority of the incorporators or directors at a meeting called by any incorporator upon ten (10) days' notice mailed to the last known postoffice address of each incorporator or director, and held at the principal office of the corporation named in the articles of incorporation.

Fees

Sec. 29. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect for:

- (1) Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, Ten Dollars ($10).
- (2) Filing of articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50).
- (3) Filing articles of consolidation and issuing a certificate with respect thereto, Ten Dollars ($10).
- (4) Filing articles of dissolution, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50).

Exemption from Excise Taxes—License Fee

Sec. 30. Corporations formed hereunder shall pay annually, on or before May first, to the Secretary of State, a license fee of Ten Dollars ($10) and such corporations shall be exempt from all other excise taxes of whatsoever kind or nature.

Limited Exemption from Securities Act

Sec. 31. Whenever any corporation organized under this Act shall have borrowed money from any Federal agency, the obligations issued to secure the payment of such money shall be exempt from the provisions of the Texas Securities Act (Chapter 100, Acts of the Forty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session), or any Acts amendatory thereof, nor shall the provisions of said Act apply to the issuance of membership certificates.

Defectively Organized Corporations

Sec. 32. In the event any corporation has filed defective articles of incorporation or has failed to do all things necessary to perfect its corporate organization, it may, nevertheless, file corrected articles of incorporation or amend the original articles and do and perform all acts and things necessary in the premises for the correction of such defects. The action so taken shall be valid and binding upon all persons concerned and the capacity of such corporation to file corrected articles of incorporation or amendments to the original articles, or to do and perform all acts and things necessary in the premises shall not be questioned.

Act Extended to Existing Corporations

Sec. 33. Any existing cooperative or nonprofit corporation or association, organized under any other law of this State, for the purpose of engaging in rural electrification, may, by a majority vote of the members present in person or by proxy at a meeting called for that purpose, amend its articles of incorporation so as to comply with this Act.

Construction of Act

Sec. 34. This Act shall be construed liberally. The enumeration of any object, purpose, power, manner, method, or thing shall not be deemed to exclude like or similar objects, purposes, powers, manners, methods, or things.

Separability of Provisions

Sec. 35. If any provision of this Act, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Act complete in itself

Sec. 36. This Act is complete in itself and shall be controlling. The provisions of any other law of this State, except as provided in this Act, shall not apply to a corporation organized, or in process of organization, under this Act.

Art. 1528c. Telephone Cooperative Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the "Telephone Cooperative Act."

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Corporation" means any corporation organized under this Act or which becomes subject to this Act in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) "Member" means the incorporators of a corporation and each person thereafter lawfully admitted to membership therein.

(3) "Board" means a Board of Directors of a corporation organized under this Act.

(4) "Federal Agency" includes the United States of America and any department, administration, commission, board, bureau, office, establishment, agency, authority, or instrumentality of the United States of America heretofore or hereafter created.

(5) "Person" includes any natural person, firm, association, corporation, business trust, partnership, Federal agency, State or political subdivision thereof or any body politic.

(6) "Telephone service" means any communication service whereby voice communication through the use of electricity is the principal intended use thereof, and shall include all telephone lines, facilities or systems used in the rendition of such service.

(7) "Rural area" is defined to mean any area in this State which is located outside the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, or determined to have less than one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants as provided by Subsection (4) of Section 4 of this Act.

Purpose

Sec. 3. Cooperative, non-profit corporations may be organized under this Act for the purpose of furnishing telephone service in rural areas to the widest practicable number of users of such service; provided, there shall be no duplication of service where reasonable adequate telephone service is available.

Powers of Corporation

Sec. 4. Each corporation shall have power:

(1) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name;

(2) To have perpetual succession unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation;

(3) To adopt a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use it, or a facsimile thereof, as required by law;

(4) To furnish, improve and expand telephone service to its members, to governmental agencies and political subdivisions, and to other persons not in excess of ten per centum (10%) of the number of its members, provided, however, that, without regard to said ten per centum (10%) limitation, telephone service may be made available by a corporation through interconnection of facilities to any number of subscribers of other telephone systems, and through pay stations to any number of users; and provided, further, that a corporation which acquires existing telephone facilities may continue service to persons, not in excess of forty per centum (40%) of the number of its members, who are already receiving service from such facilities without requiring such persons to become members but such persons may become members upon such terms as may be prescribed in the by-laws; provided there shall be no duplication of services where reasonably adequate telephone services are available;

(5) To construct, purchase, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire, and to improve, expand, install, equip, maintain, and operate, and to sell, assign, convey, lease as lessor, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of or encumber, telephone lines, facilities or systems, lands, buildings, structures, plants and equipment, exchanges, and any other real or personal property, tangible or intangible, which shall be deemed necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the corporation is organized; provided that no cooperative shall furnish local telephone exchange service within the boundaries of any incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village within this State having a population in excess of one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants according to the last preceding Federal Census, except where the governing body (the City Council of an incorporated area and Commissioners Court in an unincorporated area) after published notice and public hearing determines the population of such incorporated or unincorporated city, town or village has decreased below one thousand five hundred (1,500) inhabitants since taking and publishing the last preceding Federal Census, which order shall be entered of record in the official minutes of said governing body and shall be accepted as a true and correct determination of such population for all purposes hereunder unless contest thereof be filed within sixty (60) days from date of such order, or the official entry thereof, by any company or person at interest or living in the affected area, in a court of competent jurisdiction, in which event the question shall abide the result of such contest; and provided further that this Subsection shall not be considered as a limitation or expansion of the provisions of Subsection (4) of Section 4;

(6) To connect and interconnect its telephone lines, facilities or systems with other telephone lines, facilities or systems;

(7) To make its facilities available to persons furnishing telephone service within or without this State;

(8) To purchase, lease as lessee, or otherwise acquire, and to use, and exercise and to sell, assign, convey, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of or encumber, franchises, rights, privileges, licenses and easements;

(9) To issue membership certificates as hereinafter provided;

(10) To borrow money and otherwise contract indebtedness, and to issue or guarantee notes, bonds, and other evidences of indebtedness, and to secure the payment thereof by mortgage, pledge, or deed of trust of, or any other encumbrance upon, any or all of its real or personal property, assets, franchises, or revenues;

(11) To construct, maintain and operate telephone lines along, upon, under and across publicly owned lands and public thoroughfares, including all roads, highways, streets, alleys, bridges and causeways, subject, however, to the same restrictions and obligations required of electric transmission cooperatives in House Bill No. 393, Acts of the Fifty-first Legislature, Regular Session;

(12) To exercise the power of eminent domain in the manner provided by the laws of this State for the exercise of such power by other corporations constructing or operating telephone lines, facilities or systems;

(13) To conduct its business and exercise its powers within or without this State;

(14) To adopt, amend and repeal by-laws;

(15) To make any and all contracts necessary, convenient or appropriate for the full exercise of the powers herein granted; and

(16) To do and perform any other acts and things, and to have and exercise any other powers which may be necessary, convenient or appropriate to accomplish the purpose for which the corporation is organized.

Incorporators

Sec. 5. Any three or more natural persons of the age of twenty-one (21) years or more, residents of this State, may act as incorporators of a corporation to be organized under this Act by executing articles of incorporation as hereinafter provided in this Act.

Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 6. (a) The articles of incorporation shall recite that they are executed pursuant to this Act and such articles shall be signed by each incorporator and acknowledged by at least two (2) of the incorporators, or on their behalf, if they are cooperatives, and shall state:

(1) The name of the corporation, which name shall include the words "Telephone" and "Cooperative," and the abbreviation "Inc." The name of a corporation shall be distinct from the name of any other corporation organized under the laws of, or authorized to do business in, this State. The words "Telephone Cooperative" shall not be used in the corporate name of corporations organized under the laws of this State, or authorized to do business herein, other than those organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act;

(2) The purpose for which the corporation is formed;

(3) The names and addresses of the incorporators who shall serve as directors and manage the affairs of the corporation until its first annual meeting of members, or until their successors are elected and qualify;

(4) The number of directors, not less than five (5), to be elected at the annual meetings of members;

(5) The address of its principal office and the name and address of its agent upon whom process may be served;

(6) The period of duration of the corporation, which may be perpetual;

(7) The terms and conditions upon which persons shall be admitted to membership and retain membership in the corporation, but if expressly so stated the determination of such matters may be reserved to the directors by the by-laws; and

(8) Any provisions, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators may choose to insert, for the regulation of the business and the conduct of the affairs of the corporation.

(b) It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act.

Execution, Filing, and Recording of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 7. When the incorporators of any corporation shall furnish satisfactory evidence to the Secretary of State of a compliance with the provisions of this Act, said officer shall receive, file, and record the articles of incorporation of such corporation in his office, upon application and payment of all fees therefor, and give a certificate showing the recording of such articles and authority to do business thereunder. The articles shall thereupon be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, who shall record same at length in a book to be kept for that purpose, and retain the original on file in his office. A copy of the articles, or of the record thereof, certified under the Great Seal of the State, shall be evidence of the creation of the corporation. The existence of the corporation shall date from the filing of the articles in the office of the Secretary of State. The certificate of the Secretary of State shall be evidence of such filing.

Renewal of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 8. Any corporation organized under this Act, whose articles of incorporation have expired by limitation, may revive such articles with all the privileges and immunities and rights of property, real and personal, exercised and held by it at the time of the expiration of its said articles, by filing with the consent of a majority of its members, new articles of incorporation under the provisions of this Act, reciting therein such original privileges, immunities, and rights of property, and by filing therewith a certified copy of such original expired articles.

Organization Meeting

Sec. 9. After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, an organization meeting shall be held, at the call of a majority of the incorporators, for the purpose of adopting by-laws and electing officers and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting. The incorporators calling the meeting shall give at least three (3) days' notice thereof by mail to each incorporator, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting but such notice may be waived in writing.

By-laws

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors shall adopt the first by-laws of a corporation to be adopted following an incorporation, consolidation or amendment by an existing corporation of the Articles of Incorporation pursuant to Section 33 of this Act. Thereafter, the members shall adopt, amend or repeal the by-laws by the affirmative vote of a majority of those members voting thereon at a meeting of the members. The by-laws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

Qualification of Members

Sec. 11. Each incorporator of a cooperative shall be a member thereof but no other person may become a member thereof unless such other person agrees to use telephone service furnished by the corporation when it is made available through its facilities. Membership in a corporation shall be evidenced by a certificate of membership which shall not be transferable, except as provided in the by-laws. The by-laws may prescribe additional qualifications and limitations in respect to membership. Membership certificates shall contain such provisions, consistent with this Act and the articles of incorporation of the corporation, as shall be prescribed by its by-laws. A corporation organized under this Act may become a member of another such corporation and may avail itself fully of the facilities and services thereof.

Meetings of Members

Sec. 12. (a) An annual meeting of the members of a corporation shall be held at such time and place as shall be provided in the by-laws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

(b) Special meetings of the members may be called by the president, by the Board of Directors, by any three (3) directors, or by not less than two hundred (200) members or ten per centum (10%) of all members, whichever shall be the lesser.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, written or printed notice stating the time and place of each meeting of the members and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to each member, either personally or by mail, not less than ten (10) days nor more than twenty-five (25) days before the date of the meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail with postage prepaid addressed to the member at his address as it appears on the records of the corporation.

(d) Unless the by-laws prescribe the presence of a greater percentage or number of the members for a quorum, a quorum for the transaction of business at all meetings of the members of a corporation having not more than five hundred (500) members, shall be ten per centum (10%) of all members, present in person, and of a corporation having more than five hundred (500) members, shall be fifty (50) members or two per centum (2%) of all members, whichever is greater, present in person. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time without further notice.

(e) Each member present shall be entitled to one and only one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members, and voting shall be in person, but, if the by-laws so provide, may also be by mail.

Waiver of Notice

Sec. 13. Any person entitled to notice of a meeting may waive such notice in writing either before or after such meeting. If any such person shall attend such meeting, such attendance shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, unless such person participates therein solely to object to the transaction of any business because the meeting has not been legally called or convened.

Board of Directors

Sec. 14. (a) The business of a corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than five (5) directors, each of whom shall be a member of the corporation. The by-laws shall prescribe the number of directors, their qualifications, other than those prescribed in this Act, the manner of holding meetings of the Board of Directors and of electing successors to directors who shall resign, die, or otherwise be incapable of acting. The by-laws may also provide for the removal of directors from office and for the election of their successors. Directors shall not receive any salaries for their services as directors and, except in emergencies, shall not receive any salaries for their services in any other capacity without the approval of the members. The by-laws may, however, prescribe a fixed fee for attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and may provide for reimbursement of actual expenses of attendance.

(b) The directors of a corporation named in any articles of incorporation shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the members and until their successors are elected and qualify. At each annual meeting or, in the case of failure to hold the annual meeting as specified in the by-laws, at a special meeting called for that purpose, the members shall elect directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of the members, except as otherwise provided in this Act. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected and until his successor is elected and qualifies.

(c) Instead of electing all the directors annually, the by-laws may provide that half of them, or a number as near thereto as possible, shall be elected to serve until the next annual meeting of the members and that the remaining directors shall be elected to serve until the second succeeding annual meeting. Thereafter, as directors' terms expire, the members shall elect their successors to serve until the second succeeding annual meeting after their election.

(d) A majority of the Board of Directors shall constitute a quorum.

(e) The Board of Directors may exercise all of the powers of a corporation not conferred upon the members by this Act, or its articles of incorporation or by-laws.

Districts

Sec. 15. The by-laws may provide for the division of the territory served or to be served by a corporation into two (2) or more districts for any purpose, including, without limitation, the nomination and election of directors and the election and functioning of district delegates. Such delegates, who shall be members, may nominate and elect directors. The by-laws shall prescribe the boundaries of the districts, or the manner of establishing such boundaries, and the manner of changing such boundaries, and the manner in which such districts shall function. No member at any district meeting and no district delegate at any meeting shall vote by proxy or by mail.

Officers

Sec. 16. The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually by and from the Board of Directors. When a person holding any such office ceases to be a director, he shall cease to hold such office. The offices of secretary and of treasurer may be held by the same person. The Board of Directors may also elect or appoint such other officers, agents, or employees as it deems necessary or advisable and shall prescribe their powers and duties. Any officer may be removed from office and his successor elected in the manner prescribed in the by-laws.

Executive Committee

Sec. 17. Any corporation may, by its by-laws, provide for an executive committee to be elected from and by its Board of Directors. To such committee may be delegated the management of the current and ordinary business of the corporation, and such other duties as the by-laws may prescribe, but the designation of such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors, or any member thereof, of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by this Act.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 18. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation by complying with the following requirements, provided however, that a change of location of principal office may be effected in the manner set forth in Section 19 of this Act: The proposed amendment shall be presented to a meeting of the members, the notice of which shall set forth or have attached thereto the proposed amendment. If the proposed amendment, with any changes, is approved by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of those members voting hereon at such meeting, articles of amendment shall be executed and acknowledged on behalf of the corporation by its president or vice-president and its seal shall be affixed thereto and attested by its secretary. The articles of amendment shall recite that they are executed pursuant to this Act and shall state:

- (1) the name of the corporation;
- (2) the address of its principal office; and
- (3) the amendment to its articles of incorporation.

The president or vice-president executing such articles of amendment shall make and annex thereto an affidavit stating that the provisions of this Section in respect of the amendment set forth in such articles were duly complied with. The articles of amendment shall be filed with the Secretary of State in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation, as provided in this Act.

Change of the Location of Principal Office

Sec. 19. A corporation may, upon authorization of its Board of Directors or its members, change the location of its principal office by filing a certificate reciting such change of principal office, executed and acknowledged by its president or vice-president under its seal attested to by its secretary, in the office of the Secretary of State.

Consolidation

Sec. 20. (a) Any two or more corporations may enter into an agreement for the consolidation of such corporations. The agreement shall set forth the terms and conditions of the consolidation, the name of the proposed consolidated corporation, the number of its directors, not less than five (5), the time of the annual meeting and election, and the name of at least five (5) persons to be directors until the first annual meeting. If such agreement is approved by the votes of a majority of the members of each corporation at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting of its members called for that purpose, the directors named in the agreement shall sign and acknowledge as incorporators articles of consolidation conforming substantially to original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act.

(b) The articles of consolidation shall be executed, acknowledged, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act. As soon as the Secretary of State shall have accepted the articles of consolidation for filing and recording and issued a certificate of consolidation, the proposed consolidated corporation, described in the articles under its designated name, shall be and become a body corporate, with all the powers of a corporation as originally organized hereunder. Provided that no consolidation shall be made for the purpose of duplicating the facilities of any other telephone company where such other telephone company is giving or is willing to give reasonable adequate telephone service.

Dissolution

Sec. 21. (a) Any corporation may be dissolved by majority vote of the members at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting of its members called for that purpose. A certificate of dissolution shall be signed by the president or vice-president and attested by the secretary, certifying to such dissolution and stating that they have been authorized to execute and file such certificate by votes cast in person or by proxy by a majority of the members of the corporation. A certificate of dissolution shall be executed, acknowledged, filed, and recorded in the same manner as the original articles of incorporation of a corporation organized under this Act and as soon as the Secretary of State shall have accepted the certificate of dissolution for filing and recording and issued a certificate of dissolution, the corporation shall be deemed to be dissolved.

(b) Such corporation shall, however, continue for the purpose of paying, satisfying, and discharging any existing liabilities or obligations and collecting or liquidating its assets, and doing all other acts required to adjust and wind up its business and affairs, and may sue and be sued in its corporate name. Any assets remaining after all liabilities or obligations of the corporation have been satisfied or discharged shall be distributed, first, to patrons for the pro rata return of all amounts standing to their credit by reason of their patronage, and, second, to members for the pro rata repayment of membership fees.

(c) Any corporation which purports to have been incorporated or reincorporated under this Act but which has not complied with all of the requirements for legal corporate existence may nevertheless file a certificate of dissolution in the same manner as a validly existing corporation. The certificate of dissolution, in such case, may be authorized by a majority of the incorporators or directors at a meeting called by any incorporator upon ten (10) days' notice mailed to the last known post office address of each incorporator or director, and held at the principal office of the corporation named in the articles of incorporation.

Non-profit Operation

Sec. 22. A corporation shall be operated on a non-profit basis for the mutual benefit of its members and patrons. The by-laws of a corporation or its contracts with members and patrons shall contain such provision relative to the disposition of revenues and receipts as may be necessary and appropriate to establish and maintain its non-profit and cooperative character.

Disposition of Property

Sec. 23. (a) The Board of Directors of a corporation shall have full power and authority, without authorization by the members thereof, to authorize the execution and delivery of a mortgage or mortgages or a deed or deeds of trust of, or the pledging or encumbering of, any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises and permits of the corporation, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, as well as the revenues therefrom, all upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall determine, to secure any indebtedness of the corporation to the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof. Any such mortgage or mortgages or deed or deeds of trust shall be exempt from mortgages recordation tax.

(b) A corporation may not otherwise sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of or encumber all or a substantial portion of its property unless such sale, mortgage, lease or other disposition or encumbrance is authorized by the affirmative vote of not less than two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of all the members of the corporation; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, or any other provision of law, the Board of Directors may, upon the authorization of a majority of those members of the corporation present at a meeting of the members thereof, the notice of which shall have set forth the proposed action, sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or a substantial portion of its property to another corporation or a foreign corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act or to the holder or holders of any notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued to the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

Non-liability of Members for Debts of Corporation

Sec. 24. No member shall be liable or responsible for any debts of the corporation and the property of the members and shareholders shall not be subject to execution therefor.

Recordation of Mortgages—Effect Thereof

Sec. 25. Any mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument executed by a corporation or foreign corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act, which affects real and personal property and which is recorded in the real property records in any county in which such property is located or is to be located, shall have the same force and effect as if the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument were also recorded, filed or indexed as provided by law in the proper office in such county as a mortgage of personal property. All after-acquired property of such corporation or foreign corporation described or referred to as being mortgaged or pledged in any such mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument, shall become subject to the lien thereof immediately upon the acquisition of such property by such corporation or foreign corporation, whether or not such property was in existence at the time of the execution of such mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument shall constitute notice and otherwise have the same effect with respect to such after-acquired property as it has under the laws relating to recordation, with respect to property owned by such corporation or foreign corporation at the time of the execution of such mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument and therein described or referred to as being mortgaged or pledged thereby. The lien upon personal property of any such mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument shall, after recordation thereof, continue in existence and of record for the period of time specified therein without the refiling thereof or the filing of any renewal certificate, affidavit or other supplemental information required by the laws relating to the renewal, maintenance or extension of liens upon personal property.

Construction Standards

Sec. 26. Construction of telephone lines and facilities by a corporation shall, as a minimum requirement, comply with the standards of the National Electrical Safety Code in effect at the time of such construction.

Directors, Officers or Members—Notaries

Sec. 27. No person who is authorized to take acknowledgments under the laws of this State shall be disqualified from taking acknowledgments of instruments executed in favor of a corporation or to which it is a party, by reason of being an officer, director, or member of such corporation.

Fees

Sec. 28. The Secretary of State shall charge and collect for:

- (a) Filing articles of incorporation, Ten Dollars ($10);
- (b) Filing articles of amendment, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50);
- (c) Filing articles of consolidation, Ten Dollars ($10);
- (d) Filing certificate of election to dissolve, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50);
- (e) Filing articles of dissolution, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50);
- (f) Filing certificate of change of principal office, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents ($2.50).

Exemption from Excise Taxes—License Fee

Sec. 29. Each corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act shall pay annually on or before the first day of July to the Secretary of State a fee of Ten Dollars ($10), but shall be exempt from all other excise taxes.

Connection and Interconnection of Facilities

Sec. 30. Any corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act (such corporation being designated in this section as "applicant") shall have the right to require any person furnishing telephone service to the public in this State (such person being designated in this section as "company") to interconnect the company's lines, facilities or systems with, or otherwise make available such lines, facilities or systems to, the applicant's telephone lines, facilities or systems, in order to provide a continuous line of communication for the applicant's subscribers. The provisions of Articles 1426, 1427, 1430, 1431, and 1432 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925 may be enforced by or against any corporation created by virtue of this Act.

Securities Act Exemption

Sec. 31. The provisions of the Texas Securities Act (Chapter 100, Acts, Forty-fourth Legislature, Regular Session)<sup>1</sup> shall not apply to any note, bond or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation doing business in this State pursuant to this Act, to the United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or to any mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument executed to secure the same. The provisions of said Securities Act shall not apply to the issuance of membership certificates by any corporation or any such foreign corporation.

Defectively Organized Corporations

Sec. 32. In the event any corporation has filed defective articles of incorporation or has failed to do all things necessary to perfect its corporate organization, it may, nevertheless, file corrected articles of incorporation or amend the original articles and do and perform all acts and things necessary in the premises for the correction of such defects. The action so taken shall be valid and binding upon all persons concerned and the capacity of such corporation to file corrected articles of incorporation or amendments to the original articles, or to do and perform all acts and things necessary in the premises shall not be questioned.

Act Extended to Existing Corporations

Sec. 33. Any existing cooperative or non-profit corporation or association, organized under any other law of this State, for the purpose of engaging in furnishing rural telephone service, may, by a majority vote of the members present in person or by proxy at a meeting called for that purpose, amend its articles of incorporation so as to comply with this Act.

Separability of Provisions

Sec. 34. If any provision of this Act, or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the Act and the application of such provisions to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Art. 1528d. Automobile Club Services Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and cited as the Automobile Club Services Act.

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) "Automobile Club" shall mean any person who in consideration of dues, assessments, or periodic payments of money, promises its members or subscribers to assist them in matters relating to travel and the operation, use or maintenance of a motor vehicle in the supplying of services which by way of illustration and not by way of limitation may include such services as community traffic safety service, travel and touring service, theft or reward service, map service, towing service, emergency road service, bail bond service and legal fee reimbursement service in the defense of traffic offenses, and the purchase of accidental injury and death benefits insurance coverage from a duly authorized insurance company.

(b) "Person" shall mean any person, firm, partnership, corporation or association which conducts an Automobile Club Service business in this State.

Certificate of Authority Required

Sec. 3. From and after the effective date of this Act, it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in the business of an Automobile Club as herein defined, without having first met the requirements and obtained a certificate of authority from the Secretary of State as hereinafter provided for. The Secretary of State shall promulgate, prescribe and furnish such forms as may be necessary for any applicant to meet the requirements of this Act and shall furnish such forms, upon request, to those applicants requesting such forms; provided, however, nothing herein shall relieve any Automobile Club from the obligation to furnish services under such contracts or membership agreements that have been entered into prior to the effective date of this Act.

Application for Certificate of Authority and Deposit of Security

Sec. 4. The application for a certificate of authority as an Automobile Club to be filed with the Secretary of State shall be in such form and detail as the Secretary of State may require and shall be executed under oath by such Club's president or other principal officer and there shall be filed with the application the following:

(a) If such Club is a corporation, a certificate from the Secretary of State that it has complied with the corporation laws of this State.

(b) If not incorporated, a list of all persons owning an interest in the Automobile Club, the officers thereof and the parties to any operating agreement or management agreement affecting the Automobile Club together with a copy of any such agreement.

(c) The first year's annual license fee in the amount of One Hundred Dollars ($100) shall accompany such application.

(d) Proof of security having been deposited with the State or pledged by the Club in such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe in any of the following ways: The sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in cash or Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in securities approved by the Secretary of State or in lieu thereof, a bond in such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe in the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) to the State of Texas and executed by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the State of Texas and conditioned upon the faithful performance in the selling or rendering of Automobile Club service and payment of any fines or penalties levied against it for failure to comply with the provisions of this Act; provided however, that the aggregate liability of the surety for all breaches of the conditions of the bond and for the payment of all fines and penalties shall, in no event, exceed the amount of said bond.

Upon filing of the application, certificates or security as above provided for, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State within fifteen (15) days thereafter to issue or deny a certificate of authority to said Automobile Club. Failure of the Secretary of State to issue such certificate within said fifteen (15) day period shall entitle the applicant to a refund of all moneys and security deposited with the application.

The deposit herein provided for shall thereafter be maintained so long as said Club shall have outstanding any liability or obligation in this State. Upon proper showing, to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, that the Club has ceased to do business and that all liabilities and obligations of the Club have been satisfied, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to return the security to the Club or to deliver the security in accordance with any order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Certificate of Authority—Annual Renewal Required

Sec. 5. Every certificate of authority issued hereunder shall expire annually on August 31, of each year unless sooner revoked or suspended as hereinafter provided and application for renewal of such certificate of authority shall be filed upon such forms as are provided by the Secretary of State and shall contain such information as the Secretary of State may prescribe. The annual license fee for renewal of such certificate of authority shall be One Hundred Dollars ($100).

Registration of Salesmen or Agents

Sec. 6. Each and every Automobile Club operating in this State pursuant to a certificate of authority issued hereunder shall within thirty (30) days of the date of employment, file with the Secretary of State a notice of appointment of salesmen or agents by an Automobile Club to sell memberships in the Automobile Club to the public. This notification shall be upon such form as the Secretary of State may prescribe and shall contain the name, address, age, sex and social security number of such salesman or agent, and also contain proof satisfactory to the Secretary of State that such applicant is of good moral character. Upon termination of any salesman's or agent's employment by an Automobile Club, such Automobile Club shall within thirty (30) days thereafter notify the Secretary of State of such termination. The registration fee for salesmen or agents of Automobile Clubs shall be Three Dollars ($3) annually and shall be renewed each twelve (12) months after its issuance.

Revocation or Suspension of Certificate

Sec. 7. If the Secretary of State at any time for good cause shown, and after public hearing, shall determine that an Automobile Club has violated a provision of this Act, that it is not operating an Automobile Club as defined herein, that it is insolvent; that its assets are less than its liabilities, that it refuses to submit to an examination by the Secretary of State, that it is transacting business fraudulently, or that any owner, officer or operating manager is not of good moral character, he shall thereupon revoke or suspend its certificate of authority and shall give notice thereof to the public in such manner as he shall deem proper; provided however, that any person aggrieved by any decision of the Secretary of State shall have the right to appeal such decision to the District Court in the county of the aggrieved person's residence within sixty (60) days after the date of notice by registered mail of such decision but not thereafter.

Advertising Limitation—Exemptions

Sec. 8. (a) Automobile Clubs operating hereunder shall make no reference to their certificate of authority or approval from the Secretary of State in any advertising, circular, contract or membership card nor shall such Automobile Clubs advertise or describe their services in such a manner as would lead the public to believe such services include automobile insurance.

(b) All Automobile Clubs operating pursuant to a certificate of authority issued hereunder shall be exempt from the operation of all insurance laws of this State, except that accidental injury and death benefits furnished members of such Automobile Clubs shall be covered under a group policy issued to the Automobile Club for the benefit of its members and such policy shall be issued by a company licensed to write such insurance in this State. Any such group policy issued to the Automobile Club shall be evidenced to the membership of said Club by a certificate of participation in said group policy that shall state on the face of said certificate in at least fourteen-point black bold-face type that the certificate is only a "certificate of participation in an accidental injury and death group policy and is not automobile liability insurance coverage."

Members to be Furnished Description of Services

Sec. 9. Every Automobile Club operating under the provisions of this Act shall furnish to its members a service contract or membership card together with the following information:

- (a) The exact name of the Automobile Club.
- (b) The exact location of the Automobile Club's home office, and of its usual place of business in this State, giving street, number and city.
- (c) A description of the services or benefits to which the member is entitled.
- (d) The completed application and the description of services shall constitute the service contract.

Secretary of State to be Furnished Service Contract

Sec. 10. Every Automobile Club operating under the provisions of this Act shall furnish to the Secretary of State a certified copy of the service contract and if said Club provides participation in a group accidental injury or death policy, then a copy of the certificate of participation furnished the member shall be filed with the certified copy of the service contract together with the following information:

- (a) The exact name of the Automobile Club.
- (b) The exact location of the Automobile Club's home office, and of its usual place of business in this State, giving street, number and city.
- (c) Any change, addition or supplement to the service contract, change of office location or change of name shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Fees

Sec. 11. All fees collected hereunder by the Secretary of State shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Solicitation for Unauthorized Automobile Clubs Prohibited

Sec. 12. No person shall solicit, or aid in the solicitation of, another person to purchase a service contract or membership issued by an Automobile Club not holding a valid certificate of authority under the terms of this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 13. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six (6) months.

Severability Clause

Sec. 14. If any word, phrase, sentence or provision of this Act is determined to be invalid, such invalidity shall not affect the other provisions of this Act and they shall be given effect without the invalid provision, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Effective Date

Sec. 15. This Act shall become effective from and after September 1, 1963.
[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 678, ch. 250.]

Art. 1528e. Professional Corporations Act

Title

Sec. 1. This Act shall be known and may be cited as "The Texas Professional Corporation Act."

Sections, Subsections and Captions

Sec. 2. The division of this Act into sections and subsections and the use of captions in connection therewith are solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect in construing the provisions of this Act.

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(a) "Professional Service" means any type of personal service which requires as a condition precedent to the rendering of such service, the obtaining of a license, permit, certificate of registration or other legal authorization, and which prior to the passage of this Act and by reason of law, could not be performed by a corporation, including by way of example and not in limitation of the generality of the foregoing provisions of this definition, the personal services rendered by architects; attorneys-at-law, certified public accountants, dentists, public accountants, and veterinarians; provided, however, that physicians, surgeons and other doctors of medicine are specifically excluded from the operations of this Act, since there are established precedents allowing them to associate for the practice of medicine in joint stock companies.

(b) "Professional Corporation" means a corporation organized under this Act for the sole and specific purpose of rendering professional service and which has as its shareholders only individuals who themselves are duly licensed or otherwise duly authorized within this state to render the same professional service as the corporation.

Articles of Incorporation

Sec. 4. One or more individuals, each of whom is licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same kind of professional service within this state, may incorporate a professional corporation by filing, in duplicate originals, Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of State. No professional corporation organized under this Act shall render more than one kind of professional service. The Articles of Incorporation shall set forth:

(a) The purpose for which the corporation is organized, including a statement of the one specific kind of professional service to be rendered by the corporation.

(b) The name of the corporation.

(c) The names and addresses of the individuals who are to be the shareholders of the corporation.

(d) The number of directors constituting the initial Board of Directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors.

(e) The address of the principal office of the corporation.

(f) If the duration of the corporation is not to be perpetual, the period of its duration.

(g) The names and addresses of the Incorporators, each of whom must be duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render in this state the specific kind of professional service to be rendered by the corporation.

(h) Such other provisions, not inconsistent with law, which the shareholders may elect to set forth for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation.

Applicability of Texas Business Corporation Act

Sec. 5. The Texas Business Corporation Act shall be applicable to professional corporations, except to the extent that the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act conflict with the provisions of this Act; and professional corporations shall enjoy the powers and privileges and be subject to the duties, restrictions and liabilities of other business corporations except insofar as the same may be limited or enlarged by this Act. This Act shall take precedence in the event of any conflict with the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act or the law.

Purpose

Sec. 6. A professional corporation may be organized under this Act only for the purpose of rendering one specific type of professional service and services ancillary thereto.

Powers

Sec. 7. A professional corporation organized under this Act shall have power:

(a) To have perpetual succession.

(b) To sue and be sued in its corporate name.

(c) To acquire, own, improve, use and otherwise deal with real or personal property in its own name.

(d) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(e) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as its Board of Directors may determine, issue its notes, bonds and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by a mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property and income.

(f) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans and trusts, health, accident and hospitalization plans, and other deferred compensation and incentive plans for its employees.

(g) To insure the life of any shareholder, director, officer, agent or employee, and to continue such insurance after the relationship terminates.

(h) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Name

Sec. 8. A professional corporation may adopt any name that is not contrary to the law or ethics regulating the practice of the professional service rendered through the professional corporation.

Board of Directors

Sec. 9. A professional corporation shall be governed by a Board of two or more Directors, which shall have the power to manage the business and affairs of the corporation, and the continuing authority to make management decisions on its behalf. No person not duly licensed or otherwise duly authorized to render the professional service of the corporation shall be a member of the Board of Directors. The number of directors shall be not less than two; but subject to this limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws of the professional corporation or by the Articles of Incorporation if such articles specifically prescribe the number of directors.

Officers

Sec. 10. The Board of Directors shall elect a President and a Secretary and such other officers as it may deem desirable to have to conduct the affairs of the professional corporation. No person not duly licensed or otherwise duly authorized to render the professional service of the professional corporation may hold an office.

Bylaws

Sec. 11. The shareholders may adopt bylaws for the regulation of the affairs of the professional corporation, or if such authority is given by the Articles of Incorporation, the shareholders may delegate to the Board of Directors the power to make and amend bylaws. The bylaws shall contain such provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the professional corporation as are not inconsistent with law and the Articles of Incorporation.

Issuance and Transfer of Shares

Sec. 12. A professional corporation may issue shares representing ownership of the capital of the professional corporation only to individuals who are duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same type of professional service as that for which the corporation was organized. Except to the extent provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement, shares representing ownership of professional corporation capital shall be freely transferable by any shareholder to any other shareholder, or to the professional corporation which issued such shares or to any person who is not a shareholder, provided such person is duly licensed or qualified under the laws of this state to render the same type of professional service which the corporation was organized to render, and such transferee shall thereupon become a shareholder and be entitled to participate in the management, affairs, and profits of the professional corporation. Any restriction on the transfer of shares imposed by the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any stock purchase or redemption agreement shall be written or printed on all certificates representing shares issued to shareholders, unless such restrictions are incorporated by reference pursuant to the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act.

Redemption of Shares

Sec. 13. A professional corporation shall have the power to redeem the shares of any shareholder, or the shares of a deceased shareholder, upon such terms as may be agreed upon by the Board of Directors and such shareholder or his personal representative, or at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws, or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement.

Legal Disqualification

Sec. 14. If any shareholder, officer or director of a professional corporation, or any agent or employee thereof who has been rendering professional service for or with it of the same type which such professional corporation was organized to render, becomes legally disqualified to render such professional service, he shall sever all employment with such professional corporation and shall terminate all financial interest therein forthwith; and such corporation shall thereupon purchase or cause to be purchased from him all shares owned by him in such professional corporation, at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement. Likewise, if any person who is not licensed or duly authorized to render the professional service which a professional corporation was organized to render should succeed to the interest of any shareholder of such professional corporation, the person holding such interest shall terminate all financial interest in such professional corporation forthwith; and such corporation shall thereupon purchase or cause to be purchased from such person all shares owned by such person in such professional corporation, at such price and upon such terms as may be provided in the Articles of Incorporation, the bylaws or any applicable stock purchase or redemption agreement.

Rendition of Professional Services

Sec. 15. A professional corporation may render professional service only through its officers, employees and agents who are duly licensed to render such professional service in this state; provided, however, that this provision shall not be interpreted to include within such prohibition employees such as clerks, secretaries, bookkeepers, technicians, nurses, assistants and other individuals who are not usually and ordinarily considered by custom and practice to be rendering professional service for which a license or other legal authorization is required; and further provided, that no person shall, under the guise of employment, practice a profession unless duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to practice that profession under the laws of this state.

Professional Relationships not Affected

Sec. 16. The provisions of this Act shall not be construed to alter or affect the professional relationship between a person furnishing professional service and a person receiving such service, and all such confidential relationships enjoyed under this state shall remain unchanged. Nothing in this Act shall remove or diminish any rights at law which a person receiving professional services shall have against a person furnishing professional services for errors, omissions, negligence, incompetence, or malfeasance. The corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for such professional errors, omissions, negligence, incompetence, or malfeasance on the part of any officer or employee thereof.

Continuity of Existence

Sec. 17. Unless the Articles of Incorporation expressly provide otherwise, a professional corporation shall continue as a separate entity for all purposes and for such period of time as is provided in the Articles of Incorporation until dissolved by a vote of its shareholders. A professional corporation shall continue to exist regardless of the death, incompetency, bankruptcy, resignation, withdrawal, retirement or expulsion of any one or more of its shareholders or the transfer of any of its shares to any new holder or the happening of any other event which under the laws of this state and under like circumstances would cause a dissolution of a partnership, it being the intent of this Section that such professional corporation shall have continuity of life independent of the life or status of its shareholders. No shareholder shall have power to dissolve the professional corporation by his independent act of any kind.

Dissolution

Sec. 18. A professional corporation may be dissolved at any time by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of the corporation by a meeting called and held in accordance with the bylaws or by unanimous written consent of all shareholders without the necessity of a meeting. A copy of such resolution (noting the shares voting for and against such resolution) or of such written consent, certified by the President or a Vice-President, or the Secretary of the corporation, shall be filed in duplicate originals in the office of the Secretary of State and the dissolution shall be effective from the time of such filing. In the event of a dissolution of a professional corporation, the Board of Directors, as Trustees of the property and assets of the corporation, shall apply the assets first to the payment of debts of the corporation and second, to or among the shareholders, as the Articles of Incorporation shall provide.

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 19. The sale, issuance or offering of any capital stock of a professional corporation to persons permitted by the provisions of this Act to own such capital stock are hereby exempted from all provisions of the laws of this state, other than this Act, which provide for supervision, registration or regulation in connection with the sale, issuance or offering of securities; and the sale, issuance or offering of any such capital stock to such persons shall be legal without any action or approval whatsoever on the part of any official or state regulatory agency authorized to license, regulate, or supervise the sale, issuance or offering of securities.

Effective Date

Sec. 20. This Act shall be effective on and after January 1, 1970.
[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2304, ch. 779, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

Art. 1528f. Professional Associations Act

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Professional Association Act.

Authority

Sec. 2. (A) Formation. Any one or more persons duly licensed to practice a profession under the laws of this state may, by complying with this Act, form a professional association, as distinguished from either a partnership or a corporation, by associating themselves for the purpose of performing professional services and dividing the gains therefrom as stated in articles of association or bylaws.

(B) Licenses. All members of the association shall be licensed to perform the type of professional service for which the association is formed.

Definitions

Sec. 3. As used in this Act, the term "professional service" means any type of personal service to the public which requires as a condition precedent to the rendering of such service the obtaining of a license, and which service by law cannot be performed by a corporation. The term "license" includes a license, certificate of registration or any other evidence of the satisfaction of state requirements.

Name

Sec. 4. A professional association shall adopt a name which shall be followed by the word or words "Associated," "Association," "Professional Association," "and Associates," or the abbreviation "Assoc." or "P.A."; provided, and except, however, a professional association shall not adopt or make use of any name which is contrary to or in conflict with any law or ethics regulating the practice or practitioners of any professional service rendered through or in connection with the professional association.

Powers Concerning Property and Suits

Sec. 5. (A) Property. A professional association may in its own name invest its funds in real estate, mortgages, stocks, bonds, or any other type of investment, and may own real or personal property necessary or appropriate for rendering its professional service. Any investment or property so owned may be transferred in the association name by action of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee.

(B) Suits. An association shall have power to sue and be sued, complain and defend in its association name.

Licensed Individuals as Employees of Association—Prohibition

Sec. 6. Each individual licensed in this state to perform professional services who is employed by a professional association shall remain subject to reprimand or discipline for his conduct under the provisions of the licensing statute pursuant to which he is licensed.

Professional Relations

Sec. 7. This Act does not alter any law applicable to the relationship between a person furnishing professional service and a person receiving such professional service including liability arising out of such professional service.

Articles of Association

Sec. 8. (A) Required provisions. The articles of association shall set forth:

- (1) The name and address of the association
- (2) The period of duration
- (3) The type of professional service to be performed
- (4) The names and addresses of each of the original members
- (5) A statement that each of the original members is licensed to perform the type of professional service for which the association is formed.

(B) Continuity. Articles of association may provide that a professional association

- (1) shall continue as a separate entity independent of its members, for all purposes, for such period of time as provided in the articles, or until dissolved by a vote of two-thirds of the members, and

(2) shall continue notwithstanding the death, insanity, incompetency, conviction for felony, resignation, withdrawal, transfer of membership, retirement, or expulsion of any one or more of the members (except the last surviving member), the admission of or transfer of membership to any new member or members, or the happening of any other event, which under the law of this state and under like circumstances, would work a dissolution of a partnership.

(C) Power to dissolve. The articles shall provide that no member of a professional association shall have the power to dissolve the association by his independent act of any kind.

(D) Optional provisions. The articles of association may set forth any other provision, not inconsistent with the law, which the members elect to set forth for the regulation of the internal affairs of the association.

(E) Execution. The articles of association shall be signed and verified by each of the members.

Governing Body; Officers

Sec. 9. (A) Board or committee. A professional association organized pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be governed by a Board of Directors or an Executive Committee elected by the members, and represented by officers elected by the Board of Directors or Executive Committee, so that centralization of management will be assured.

(B) Member's power to bind. No member shall have the power to bind the association within the scope of the association's business or profession merely by virtue of his being a member of the association.

(C) Qualification of officers and board or committee members. Officers and members of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee shall be members of the professional association. Officers need not be members of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee except that the President shall be a member of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee.

(D) Bylaws. The members may adopt such bylaws as they may deem proper, or the power to promulgate bylaws of the association may be delegated by the articles of association to the Board of Directors or Executive Committee, as the members may decide.

(E) Members' voting rights. Each member shall have power to cast such vote or votes at the meeting of the members as the articles of association shall provide.

(F) Agents and employees. The officers of the professional association may employ such agents or employees of the association as they may deem advisable.

(G) Officers. The officers of the association shall include a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and such other officers as the Board of Directors or Executive Committee may determine. Any one person may serve in more than one office provided that the President and the Secretary of the professional association shall not be the same person unless the association has only one member.

Shares or Units of Ownership—Transfer

Sec. 10. Shares or units of ownership in a professional association shall be transferable to persons licensed to perform the same type of professional service as that for which the professional association was formed.

Regulation of Practice of Law

Sec. 11. The manner in which lawyers practice law under this Act is subject to the powers of the Supreme Court to regulate the practice of law.

Filing of Articles of Association

Sec. 12. (A) Duplicate originals of the articles of association shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of association conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of association to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(B) The certificate of association, together with the duplicate original of the articles of association affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the members or their representatives.

Effect of Issuance of Certificate of Association

Sec. 13. Upon the issuance of the certificate of association, the association's existence shall begin.

Amendment of Articles of Association

Sec. 14. (A) Authority to amend. A professional association may amend its articles of association, from time to time, in accordance with the procedure for amendment stated therein or if none is stated therein, by two-thirds vote of its members.

(B) Acts not requiring amendment. Changes in membership or transfer of shares or units of ownership shall not require amendment.

Articles of Amendment

Sec. 15. The Articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the association by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and certified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

- (1) The name and address of the association
- (2) If the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of association, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of association, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added

(3) The date of the adoption of the amendment

(4) A statement that the amendment was adopted in accordance with the procedure for amendment stated in the articles of association, or, if none is stated therein, a statement that the amendment was adopted by two-thirds vote of its members.

Filing of Articles of Amendment

Sec. 16. (A) Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of amendment to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(B) The certificate of amendment, together with the duplicate original of the articles of amendment affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the association or its representatives.

Effect of Certificate of Amendment

Sec. 17. (A) Issuance. Upon the issuance of the certificate of amendment by the Secretary of State, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of association shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

(B) Prior rights. No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against the association, or any pending suit to which the association shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members. If the association name is changed by amendment, no suit brought by or against the association under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Articles of Dissolution

Sec. 18. The articles of dissolution shall be executed in duplicate by the association by its president or a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, and verified by one of the officers signing such articles. If there are no living officers of the association, the articles shall be executed by the legal representative of the last surviving officer. The articles of dissolution shall set forth:

- (1) The name and address of the association
- (2) The names and respective addresses of its officers

(3) The names and respective addresses of the members of its Board of Directors or Executive Committee

(4) A statement that the association is dissolving in accordance with its articles of association or, if there is no dissolution provision in the articles, by two-thirds vote of its members.

Filing of Articles of Dissolution

Sec. 19. (A) Duplicate originals of the articles of dissolution shall be delivered to the Secretary of State. If the Secretary of State finds that the articles of dissolution conform to law, he shall, when all fees have been paid as required by law:

(1) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals in his office.

(3) Issue a certificate of dissolution to which he shall affix the other duplicate original.

(B) The certificate of dissolution, together with the duplicate original of the articles of dissolution affixed thereto by the Secretary of State, shall be delivered to the association or its representatives.

Effect of Certificate of Dissolution

Sec. 20. Upon the issuance of the certificate of dissolution by the Secretary of State, the dissolution shall become effective and the existence of the association shall cease except for the purpose of suits, other proceedings and acts necessary for the winding up of the association.

Annual Statement

Sec. 21. A professional association shall in June of each year file with the Secretary of State a statement showing the name and address of the association; the names and addresses of all members of the association, and all officers and all members of the Board of Directors or Executive Committee; and shall certify that all members are licensed to perform the type of professional service for which the association is formed. The statement shall be on such form as the Secretary of State shall prescribe and furnish. It shall be signed by the president or a vice-president and by the secretary or an assistant secretary of the association, and verified by one of the officers signing the statement.

Fees

Sec. 22. The Secretary of State is authorized and required to collect for the use of the state the following fees:

(1) Filing articles of association and issuing a certificate of association, Fifty Dollars ($50.00)

(2) Filing articles of amendment and issuing a certificate of amendment, Fifty Dollars ($50.00)

(3) Filing articles of dissolution and issuing a certificate of dissolution, Five Dollars ($5.00)

(4) Filing annual statement, Ten Dollars ($10.00).

Existing Associations

Sec. 23. Any existing association may become subject to this Act by complying with its terms and filing requirements.

Association Liability

Sec. 24. Nothing in this Act shall remove or diminish any rights at law which a person receiving professional services shall have against a person furnishing professional services for errors, omissions, negligence, incompetency or malfeasance. The association (but not the individual members) shall be jointly and severally liable for such professional errors, omissions, negligence, incompetency, or malfeasance on the part of any officer or employee thereof when such officer or employee is in the course of his employment for the association.

Applicability of Business Corporation Act

Sec. 25. The Texas Business Corporation Act shall be applicable to professional associations, except to the extent that the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act conflict with the provisions of this Act; and professional associations shall enjoy the powers and privileges and be subject to the duties, restrictions and liabilities of business corporations except insofar as the same may be limited or enlarged by this Act. This Act shall take precedence in the event of any conflict with the provisions of the Texas Business Corporation Act or the law.

Art. 1528g. Business Development Corporations

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act, unless the context requires a different definition:

(1) "Corporation" means a business development corporation created under the terms of this Act.

(2) "Board of directors" means the board of directors of a business development corporation.

(3) "Financial institution" means any banking corporation or trust company, building and loan association, governmental agency, insurance company, or related corporation, partnership, foundation, or other institution engaged primarily in lending or investing funds.

(4) "Member" means any financial institution authorized to do business in this state which shall undertake to lend money to a corporation created under the terms of this Act.

(5) "Loan limit" means the maximum amount permitted to be outstanding at one time on loans by a member to a business development corporation.

Incorporation

Sec. 2. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Texas Securities Act,<sup>1</sup> 25 or more persons, a majority of whom shall be residents of this state, may form a business development corporation for the purpose of promoting, developing, and advancing the prosperity and economic welfare of this state.

(b) The corporation may be organized either as a profit making corporation under the Texas Business Corporation Act, or as a nonprofit corporation under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act.<sup>2</sup>

(c) The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation, which shall include the words "Business Development Corporation";

(2) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized, which shall include the following:

The purposes of the corporation shall be to promote, stimulate, develop, and advance the business prosperity and economic welfare of this state and its citizens; to encourage and assist through loans, investments, or other business transactions, in the location of new business and industry in this state and to rehabilitate and assist existing industry; and so to stimulate and assist in the expansion of all kinds of business activity which will tend to promote the business development and maintain the economic stability of this state, provide maximum opportunities for employment, encourage thrift, and improve the standard of living of the citizens of this state; similarly, to cooperate and act in conjunction with other organizations, public or private, in the promotion and advancement of industrial, commercial, agricultural, and recreational developments in this state; and to provide financing for the promotion, development, and conduct of all kinds of business activity in this state"; and

(3) any other information required by the Texas Business Corporation Act, if the corporation is organized as a profit making corporation, or by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, if the corporation is organized as a nonprofit corporation.

Powers

Sec. 3. (a) In addition to the powers conferred on business corporations generally by the Texas Business Corporation Act, or if the corporation is organized as a nonprofit corporation, by the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act, the corporation has the following powers:

(1) to elect, appoint, and employ officers, agents, and employees; to make contracts and incur liabilities for any of the purposes of the corporation;

(2) to borrow money on a secured or unsecured basis to carry out any of the purposes of the corporation; to issue therefor its bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness, whether secured or unsecured, and to secure any evidence of indebtedness by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien on its property, franchises, rights, and privileges of every kind and nature, or any part thereof or interest therein, without securing stockholder or member approval;

(3) to make secured or unsecured loans and to establish and regulate the terms and conditions of these loans and the charges for interest or service connected therewith; however, the corporation shall not approve any application for a loan unless and until the person applying for the loan demonstrates that he has applied for the loan through ordinary banking channels and that the loan has been refused by at least two banks or other financial institutions; it is the intention of the Legislature not to take from the lending institutions of this state any loans desired by these institutions generally in the course of their business;

(4) to purchase, receive, hold, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of real and personal property, together with such rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto and the use thereof, including, but not restricted to, any real or personal property acquired by the corporation from time to time in the satisfaction of debts or enforcement of obligations;

(5) to acquire improved or unimproved real estate for the purpose of constructing industrial plants or other business establishments thereon or for the purpose of disposing of such real estate to others for the construction of industrial plants or other business establishments; and to acquire, construct or reconstruct, alter, repair, maintain, operate, sell, convey, transfer, lease, or otherwise dispose of industrial plants or business establishments;

(6) to protect its position as creditor by acquiring the goodwill, business, rights, real and personal property including stock, shares, bonds, debentures, notes, and other evidences of indebtedness, and other assets or any part thereof or interest therein, of any persons, firms, corporations, joint-stock companies, associations, or trusts to whom or to which the corporation has loaned money, and to assume, undertake, or pay the obligations, debts, and liabilities of any such person, firm, corporation, joint-stock company, or trust;

(7) to mortgage, pledge, or otherwise encumber any property, right, or thing of value, acquired pursuant to the powers contained in paragraphs (4), (5), or (6), as security for the payment of any part of the purchase price thereof;

(8) to promote the establishment of local development corporations in the various communities of this state; to enter into agreements with them; and to cooperate with, assist, and otherwise encourage such local foundations;

(9) to participate with any duly authorized federal lending agency in the making of loans.

(b) Any corporation organized under the provisions of this Act shall be a state development company as defined in the Small Business Investment Act of 1958, as amended, Public Law 85-699, 85th Congress,<sup>3</sup> or any other similar Federal legislation, and shall be authorized to operate on a statewide basis.

Participation

Sec. 4. All natural persons and corporations authorized to conduct business in this state, including without any implied limitation public utility companies, insurance and casualty companies, and foreign corporations licensed to do business in this state, and all trusts, may acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of capital stock of, the corporation, and while owners of the stock, may exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon.

Membership

Sec. 5. (a) Any financial institution may become a member of the corporation and may make loans to the corporation as provided by this Act.

(b) Any financial institution may request membership in the corporation by making application to the board of directors in a manner prescribed by the board of directors, and membership shall be effective upon acceptance of the application by the board of directors.

(c) Any financial institution which becomes a member of the corporation may acquire, purchase, hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, any bonds, securities, or other evidences of indebtedness created by, or the shares of the capital stock of, the corporation, and while owner of the stock may exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon. However, no member may acquire capital stock in an amount greater than 10 percent of the loan limit of that member. The amount of capital stock of the corporation which a member may acquire is in addition to the amount of capital stock in corporations which the member may otherwise acquire.

(d) A financial institution which is not a member of the corporation may not acquire any shares of the capital stock of the corporation.

Loans to the Corporation

Sec. 6. (a) Each member of the corporation shall make loans to the corporation when called upon by it to do so on such terms and conditions as shall be approved from time to time by the board of directors.

(b) All loan limits shall be established at the thousand-dollar amount nearest to the amount computed in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(c) No loan to the corporation may be made if immediately thereafter the total amount of the obligations of the corporation would exceed 50 times the capital of the corporation. For the purposes of this subsection, the capital of the corporation includes the amount of the outstanding capital stock of the corporation, whether common or preferred, and the earned or paid-in surplus of the corporation.

(d) The total amount outstanding on loans to the corporation made by any member at any one time, when added to the amount of the investment in the capital stock of the corporation then held by the member, shall not exceed:

(1) twenty percent of the total amount then outstanding on loans to the corporation by all members, including outstanding amounts validly called for loan but not yet loaned;

(2) the following limit, to be determined as of the time such member becomes a member or at any time requested by a member on the basis of the audited balance sheet of such member at the close of its fiscal year immediately preceding its application for membership, or, in the case of an insurance company, its last annual statement to the State Board of Insurance: an amount of two percent of the capital and surplus of commercial banks and trust companies or $750,000, whichever is the lesser amount; an amount of one percent of the total outstanding loans made by a building and loan or savings and loan association; an amount of one percent of the capital and unassigned surplus of stock insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; an amount of one percent of the unassigned surplus of mutual insurance companies, except fire insurance companies; an amount of one-tenth of one percent of the assets of fire insurance companies; and such limits as may be approved by the board of directors of the corporation for any government pension fund or for other financial institutions.

(e) Subject to Subsection (d) of this section, each call made by the corporation shall be prorated among the members of the corporation in substantially the same proportion that the adjusted loan limit of each member bears to the aggregate of the adjusted loan limits of all members. The adjusted loan limit of a member shall be the amount of such member's loan limit, reduced by the balance of outstanding loans made by such member to the corporation and the investment in capital stock of the corporation held by such member at the time of such call.

(f) All loans to the corporation by members shall be evidenced by bonds, debentures, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the corporation, which shall be freely transferable at all times, and which shall bear interest at a rate of not less than one-quarter of one percent in excess of the rate of interest determined by the board of directors to be the prime rate prevailing at the date of issuance thereof on unsecured commercial loans.

Withdrawal

Sec. 7. Upon written notice to the board of directors six months in advance, a member may withdraw from the corporation at the expiration date of the notice. A member is not obligated to make any loans to the corporation pursuant to calls made subsequent to the expiration date, but a member shall fulfill any obligations which have accrued or for which commitments have been made before the expiration date.

Powers of Members and Stockholders; Voting

Sec. 8. (a) The stockholders and the members of the corporation shall have the following powers:

- (1) to determine the number of and elect the directors as provided by Section 9 of this Act;
- (2) to make, amend, and repeal bylaws of the corporation; and
- (3) to exercise any other powers of the corporation which may be conferred on the stockholders and the members by the bylaws.

(b) Each stockholder has one vote, in person or by proxy, for each share of capital stock held by the stockholder, and each member has one vote, in person or by proxy; however, any member with a loan limit greater than $1,000 has one additional vote, in person or by proxy, for each additional $1,000 which the member may have outstanding on loans to the corporation at any one time as determined under the provisions of Section 6 of this Act.

Officers and Directors

Sec. 9. (a) The organization, control, and management of the corporation are vested in a board of not less than 15 nor more than 21 directors.

(b) The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the corporation except those conferred upon the stockholders or members by law or by the bylaws of the corporation.

(c) The board of directors shall choose and appoint a president, a treasurer, and all other agents and officers of the corporation and shall fill all vacancies except vacancies in the board of directors, which shall be filled as provided by Subsection (g) of this section.

(d) The board of directors shall be named in the first instance by the incorporators and shall be elected thereafter at each annual meeting of the corporation, or if no annual meeting is held at the time fixed by the bylaws, at a special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting.

(e) At any annual meeting or special meeting held in lieu of the annual meeting, the members of the corporation shall elect two-thirds of the directors, and the stockholders shall elect the remaining directors.

(f) The directors shall hold office until the next annual meeting or special meeting of the corporation held in lieu of the annual meeting after their election and until their successors are elected and have qualified, unless sooner removed in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws.

(g) Any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the members shall be filled by the directors elected by the members, and any vacancy in the office of a director elected by the stockholders shall be filled by the directors elected by the stockholders.

Surplus

Sec. 10. (a) The corporation shall set apart as earned surplus not less than 10 percent of its net earnings each year, until such surplus, with any unimpaired surplus paid in, is equal to one-half of the amount paid in on the capital stock then outstanding. The surplus shall be kept to secure against losses and contingencies, and whenever it becomes impaired, it shall be reimbursed in the manner provided for its accumulation.

(b) Net earnings and surplus shall be determined by the board of directors after providing for the required reserves as the directors deem advisable, and the determination of the directors made in good faith shall be conclusive on all persons.

Depositories

Sec. 11. (a) The corporation may deposit any of its funds in any banking institution which has been designated as a depository by a vote of the majority of the directors present at an authorized meeting of the board of directors, exclusive of any director who is an officer or director of the depository so designated.

(b) The corporation may not receive money on deposit.

Report of Condition

Sec. 12. The corporation shall make annual reports of its condition to the banking commission and the State Board of Insurance, and the corp tion shall furnish any information which may from time to time be required by the secretary of state. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2601, ch. 853, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 1.01. Design of the Code

The aim in adopting this Code is to state in plain language the laws governing the nomination and election of officers and of holding other elections, to simplify, clarify and harmonize the existing laws in regard to parties, suffrage, nominations, and elections, and to safeguard the purity of the ballot box against error, fraud, mistake and corruption, to the end that the will of the people shall prevail and that true democracy shall not perish from the Lone Star State. To that end the provisions of this Code shall apply to all elections and primaries held in this State, except as otherwise provided herein.

Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 492, enacting the Texas Election Code of 1951, provided in section 2 for the repeal of all laws relating to elections, suffrage and parties, as found in Title 50 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925.

Article 14.11 of the Election Code of 1951 repealed conflicting laws but preserved from such repeal any Act passed at the Regular Session of the Fifty-second Legislature, 1951. The Acts thus saved from repeal included—

Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 313, § 1, amending Art. 2943 of the Civil Statutes, subsequently repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., ch. 424, § 121(c).

Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 333, § 1, amending Art. 3026a of the Civil Statutes, subsequently repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., ch. 424, § 121(c).

Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 327, § 1, originally incorporated in the Civil Statutes as Art. 3116g but subsequently repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., ch. 424, § 121(c).

Article 14.12 of the Election Code of 1951 includes a provision that nothing in the Act shall in anywise alter, amend or repeal Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 71, ch. 44, which added Article 3154(a) to the Civil Statutes (text set out following Article 13.34), and enacted the provisions originally incorporated in Article 3158a of the Civil Statutes (text set out following Article 13.34).

Art. 1.01a. Definitions

(a) As used in this code, the term "qualified voter" or "qualified elector" means a person who meets all qualifications and requirements for voting as prescribed in Section 34 of this code.<sup>1</sup>

(b) As used in this Code, the terms "watcher," "poll watcher," and "supervisor" are synonymous. Wherever the term "supervisor" is used, it shall be construed to mean a watcher appointed in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

(c) The United States decennial census of date immediately preceding the action in question shall be the basis for determining population under any provision of this Code.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 2; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1860, ch. 723, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1.02. County Judge Failing to Act

Whenever, by this title, any duty is devolved upon a county judge, and that office is vacant, or such officer from any cause fails to perform such duty, any two (2) or more of the county commissioners of the county may and shall perform such duty.

Art. 1.03. Secretary of State as Chief Election Officer

Subd. 1. The Secretary of State shall be the chief election officer of this state, and it shall be his responsibility to obtain and maintain uniformity in the application, operation and interpretation of the election laws. In carrying out this responsibility, he shall cause to be prepared and distributed to each county judge, county tax assessor-collector, and county clerk, and to each county chairman of a political party which is required to hold primary elections, detailed and comprehensive written directives and instructions relating to and based upon the election laws as they apply to elections, registration of electors and voting procedures which by law are under the direction and control of each such respective officer. Such directives and instructions shall include sample forms of ballots, papers, documents, records and other materials and supplies required by such election laws. He shall assist and advise all election officers of the state with regard to the application, operation and interpretation of the election laws.

Subd. 2. At least thirty days before each general election, the Secretary of State shall prescribe forms of all blanks necessary under this code and shall furnish same to each county clerk. The Secretary of State shall at the same time certify to each county clerk a list of all the candidates who have been nominated for state and district offices and all other candidates whose names have been certified to the Secretary of State to be placed on the general election ballot.

Art. 1.04. To Certify Death of Officer

When any state or district officer, member of Congress, or member of the Legislature shall die, the county judge of the county where such death occurs or of the county where such officer resided, shall immediately certify the fact of the death of such officer to the Secretary of State.

Art. 1.05. Ineligibility

No person shall be eligible to be a candidate for, or to be elected or appointed to, any public office in this state unless he is a citizen of the United States eligible to hold such office under the Constitution and laws of this state and is under none of the disabilities for voting which are stated in Article VI, Section 1 of the Constitution of Texas on the date of his appointment or of the election at which he is elected, and unless he will have resided in this state for a period of twelve months next preceding the applicable date specified below, and for any public office which is less than statewide, shall have resided for six months next preceding such date in the district, county, precinct, municipality or other political subdivision for which the office is to be filled:

(1) For a candidate whose name is printed on the ballot for a general (first) primary election, the applicable date is the last day on which any candidate for the office involved could file his application to have his name printed on the ballot for that primary election.

(2) For an independent or nonpartisan candidate in a general or special election, the applicable date is the last day on which the candidate's application for a place on the ballot could be delivered to the appropriate officer for receiving the application.

(3) For a write-in candidate, the applicable date is the day of the election at which the candidate's name is written in.

(4) For a party nominee who is nominated by any method other than by primary election, the applicable date is the day on which the nomination is made.

(5) For an appointee to an office, the applicable date is the day on which the appointment is made.

The foregoing requirements shall not apply to any office for which the Constitution or statutes of the United States or of this state prescribe qualifications in conflict herewith, and in case of conflict the provisions of such other laws shall control.

Except as provided in Section 104 of this code,<sup>1</sup> no ineligible candidate shall ever have his name placed upon the ballot at any primary, general or special election. No ineligible candidate shall ever be voted upon nor have votes counted for him at any such primary, general or special election for the purpose of nominating or electing him, but votes cast for an ineligible candidate shall be taken into account in determining whether any other candidate received the necessary vote for nomination or election. No person who advocates the overthrow by force or violence or change by unconstitutional means of the present constitutional form of government of the United States or of this state, shall be eligible to have his name printed on any official ballot in any general, special or primary election in this state. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 5; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 4; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1861, ch. 723, § 4, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1.05-1. Eligibility of Candidates for City Office

No person shall be ineligible to be a candidate for any elected public office of any city, regardless of its class, by virtue of his age or length of residency within the city, who is above the age of twenty-one (21), is a qualified elector, and has resided twelve (12) months next preceding the election within the city limits of such city.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2453, ch. 793, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Article 1.05-1 was not enacted as part of the Election Code of 1951.

Art. 1.06. Ineligibility Bars

Neither the Secretary of State nor any county judge of this state, nor any other authority authorized to issue certificates, shall issue any certificate of election or appointment to any person elected or appointed to any office in this state, who is ineligible to hold such office under the Constitution of this state or under Section 5 of this code<sup>1</sup> or any other applicable statute.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 6; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1862, ch. 723, § 4a, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1.07. Injunction May Issue

The district court shall have authority to issue writs of injunction and all other necessary process at the suit of any interested party, or of any voter, to enforce the provisions of the above two sections and to protect thereunder the rights of all parties and the public; for such purpose, jurisdiction and authority is conferred upon all district courts of this state and all cases filed hereunder shall have first right of precedence upon trial and appeal.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 7; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1862, ch. 723, § 5, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 1.08. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, §§ 5, 121(a), eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 2.01. Time and Place

A general election shall be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1964, and every two years thereafter, at such places as may be prescribed by law after notice as prescribed by law. Special elections shall be held at such times and places as may be fixed by law providing therefor. In all elections, general, special, or primary, the polls shall be open from seven o'clock a. m. to seven o'clock p. m.; provided, however, that in any county having a population of less than one hundred thousand, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour later at eight o'clock a. m. on order of the commissioners court of such county duly entered in the minutes thereof; and provided, further, that in any county having a population of one million or more, according to the last preceding federal census, the polls may be opened one hour earlier at six o'clock a. m. on order of the commissioners court of such county entered in the minutes thereof. The foregoing authority of the commissioners court shall extend to all elections held within the county, by whatever authority the election may be ordered, but the court may exercise this authority with respect to such elections as it deems necessary or desirable without advancing or retarding the opening hour for other elections, subject to the requirement that the court's order must apply uniformly to comparable types of elections held on the same day; and the order shall specify the elections to which it applies. The election shall be held for one day only.

All persons who are within the polling place and all persons who are waiting to enter the polling place at seven o'clock p. m. shall be allowed an opportunity to present themselves for voting in the same manner as if they had appeared and offered themselves for voting during regular voting hours. The presiding judge shall take necessary precautions to prevent voting by any person not present and waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls. If feasible, all persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls shall be required to enter the polling place, and the door to the polling place shall be closed and locked, and each such person shall remain inside the polling place until he has voted. If such procedure is not feasible, numbered identification cards or tokens shall be distributed to identify those persons waiting to vote at the time for official closing of the polls.

Art. 2.01a. Other Elections on a Primary Election Day Prohibited

No general or special election of any nature may be held on the same day as a primary election provided for in Section 181 of this code.<sup>1</sup>

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 2.02. Formation of Election Precincts; Consolidation for Certain Elections

Unless a specific statute provides otherwise, the following rules shall govern the establishment of election precincts and the designation of polling places for the conduct of the various kinds of elections held within this state.

(a) County-wide elections held at the expense of the county. In general elections for state and county officers, special elections called by the Governor (including both county-wide elections and elections to fill vacancies in offices elected by districts which are less than county-wide), and all other county-wide elections held at the expense of the county, the election precincts shall be the regular election precincts established by the commissioners court pursuant to Section 12 of this Code.<sup>1</sup>

(b) Municipal elections. The governing body of each incorporated city or town shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places for elections held by such city or town, in accordance with the provisions of Section 13 of this Code.<sup>2</sup>

(c) Elections held by other political subdivisions. In elections held by other political subdivisions (including but not limited to school districts, junior college districts, districts created pursuant to Article III, Section 52 or Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas, and other similar districts), the governing body of the political subdivision shall establish the election precincts and designate the polling places for elections held by such subdivision.

(d) Elections held by the county, which affect another political subdivision. In any election called by the commissioners court or the county judge in connection with or relating to the creation, organization, reorganization, functioning or existence of a municipality or of a political subdivision described in Paragraph (c) of this section, the authority calling the election shall designate the election precincts and the polling place in each precinct for such election.

(e) Other elections held by the county. In any other special election called by the commissioners court or the county judge which is ordered for only part of the county, the authority calling the election shall designate the election precincts and the polling place in each precinct for such election.

(f) Primary elections. In all primary elections held by political parties for nominating candidates to be voted on at general and special elections held at the expense of the county, the election precincts shall be the county election precincts established by the commissioners court pursuant to Section 12 of this Code.

(g) In any election for which the election precincts are required to be those formed under the provisions of Section 12 of this code, if in any county there is no local office or proposition to be voted on by the voters of only that county or a part of that county, the authority holding the election may combine any two or more regular election precincts into consolidated precincts for such election in that part of the county having no such local office or proposition to be voted on if it appears that the voters included within each consolidated precinct can be adequately and conveniently served at one polling place; provided, however, that there shall always be at least one consolidated precinct wholly within each commissioners precinct of the county.

(h) All election precincts, by whatever authority established, shall be described by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines, and shall be designated by name or number. There shall be one polling place, and no more, for each election precinct, and the notice of the election shall state the location of the polling place in each precinct.

Art. 2.03. Held in Public Buildings

(a) In all cases where it is practicable to do so, all elections—general, special, or primary—shall be held in some schoolhouse, fire station, or other public building within the limits of the election precinct in which such election is being held. No charge shall be made for the use of such building, except that any additional expense actually incurred by the authorities in charge of the building on account of the holding of the election therein shall be repaid to them by the authority liable for the expenses of holding the election under the existing law. The authority liable for the expenses of the election may demand an itemized statement of the additional expense incurred for use of the building before making its remittance for such expense. If no public building is available, the election may be held in some other building, and any charge for its use shall be paid as an expense of the election.

(b) The commissioners court of any county in this state is authorized to make the necessary expenditure from the permanent improvement fund of the county to construct or purchase a suitable building for holding elections in each precinct formed by the commissioners court for which no other public building is available. The building shall be made available without cost for the holding of any general, special, or primary election held within territory embracing the location of the building upon the request of the authority conducting the election, except that the county shall be reimbursed for any additional expense actually incurred on account of holding the election therein. If more than one authority requests the use of the building for the same day, the commissioners court shall determine within its discretion which authority shall be permitted to use it if all elections for which its use is requested for the same day cannot be held in the building simultaneously. The commissioners court may permit the building to be used for purposes other than the holding of elections, either with or without charge, when it is not being used for that purpose. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 11; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1314, ch. 603, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1862, ch. 723, § 6a, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 2.04. County Election Precincts Formed by Commissioners Court

(a) Each county shall be divided into convenient election precincts by the Commissioners Court of the county, each of which precincts shall be differently numbered and described by natural or artificial boundaries or survey lines by an order entered upon the minutes of the Court. At any July or August term, the Court may make such changes in the election precincts as they deem proper, by such order entered upon the minutes of the Court. When such an order is entered, they shall immediately thereafter publish in some newspaper in the county for three consecutive weeks a notice of the entry of such order, giving a brief description in general terms of the changes made, without the necessity of including in such notice the field notes or other detailed description of the precinct boundaries. If there be no newspaper in the county, then a copy of such order shall be posted in some public place in each election precinct in the county which is affected by the order.

(b) No election precinct shall be formed out of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts, nor out of the parts of two or more justice precincts or commissioners precincts; and no election precinct shall be formed out of two or more congressional districts or state senatorial districts or state representative districts, nor out of the parts of two or more such districts. If in September of any year there exists any election precinct in the county which does not comply with the foregoing requirements, the commissioners court shall make the necessary changes before the first day of October, either at a regular meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose; and the order shall be published as provided in Paragraph (a) of this section. Subject to the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph, no election precinct shall have resident therein less than 100 nor more than 2000 voters as ascertained by the number of registered voters for the last preceding presidential general election year; provided, however, that in precincts in which voting machines or devices have been adopted for use in accordance with Section 79 or Section 80 of this Code,<sup>1</sup> the maximum number of voters shall be 3000. There shall be a minimum of one election precinct wholly contained within each commissioners precinct.

(c) In cities and towns having ten thousand or more inhabitants, each ward shall constitute an election precinct unless there shall reside in said ward more than two thousand qualified voters. In such cities and towns, no precinct shall be made out of parts of two wards; and no precinct shall include territory outside the corporate limits of the city or town unless the Commissioners Court finds that adjacent unincorporated territory is so situated that it cannot be formed into or included within an election precinct wholly outside the city, of suitable size and shape and containing a suitable number of voters. If the Commissioners Court finds this condition to exist, it may include such territory in a precinct or precincts formed within the city or town, and the finding of the Commissioners Court shall be conclusive.

(d) In cities, towns and villages of less than ten thousand inhabitants, election precincts may be formed without regard to the wards or the corporate limits of the city, town or village.

(e) Changes in election precincts shall not become operative in the holding of elections until the beginning of the following voting year. The Commissioners Court shall cause to be made out and delivered to the County Tax Collector before the first day of each September a certified copy of such last order for the year following; provided, however, that any order entered during the month of September, as provided in Paragraph (b) of this Section, shall be delivered to the Tax Collector forthwith.

Art. 2.04a. County Election Precinct Maps Furnished to Secretary of State

Subd. 1. Between September 1, 1971, and January 1, 1972, each county clerk in the State shall furnish to the Secretary of State a map of his county showing the boundaries of the county election precincts as they exist under the most recent orders of the County Commissioners Court, if such a map is available. The map may be in multiple sections. It shall show roads, streets, streams, city boundaries, and other natural or artificial landmarks which are used as boundary lines for the precincts, in sufficient detail and with sufficient designation by number, name, or other means of identification to depict the precinct boundaries in an accurate and understandable manner.

Subd. 2. When the Commissioners Court makes any changes in the county election precincts by order entered on or after September 1, 1971, within four months after the entry of the order the county clerk shall furnish to the Secretary of State a map depicting the changes in the manner described in Subdivision 1 of this section, where such a map is available.

Subd. 3. The Secretary of State shall file and preserve as a public record each map received under the provisions of this section for a period of 10 years from the date on which it is filed, after which time it may be transferred to the records management division of the State Library for further retention for a period of 20 years. At the expiration of 30 years from the date of filing by the Secretary of State, the State Librarian may dispose of the maps in accordance with the procedure outlined in Chapter 494, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959. [Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 46, ch. 24, § 1, eff. March 18, 1971.]

Art. 2.05. Election Precincts for Municipal Elections

The election precincts for municipal elections and the location of the polling place in each precinct shall be designated by the governing body of the municipality. The governing body may combine two or more county election precincts into one municipal precinct, but shall not include parts of one county precinct in more than one municipal precinct. The certified list of qualified voters for all county election precincts in which voters reside who are to vote at a polling place designated by the governing body shall be used at such polling place. In all cities and towns in which the number of voters at the last general municipal election does not exceed four hundred in number, only one polling place shall be opened at any municipal election; and all officers of such cities and towns to be elected shall be voted for at such polling place.

Art. 2.06. Where to Vote

Except as permitted in Sections 48a and 50a of this code,<sup>1</sup> all voters shall vote in the election precinct in which they reside.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 14; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2509, ch. 827, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 2.06-1. Municipal and School District Election Dates for 1973

All municipal and school district elections in which candidates are to be running for office, including without limitation elections in home rule cities and independent, municipal, and county school districts, scheduled on the date of passage of this Act to be held within 14 days of November 6, 1973, may be held on November 6, 1973, if the governing body of the municipality or school district so decides. If the governing body changes the date of the election as authorized by this Act, it may set the date of any second or runoff election which may be necessary for any date not earlier than the 14th day after the first election and not later than the latest date which would have been permissible if the date of the first election had not been changed. This Act shall make no change in the term of office or commencement thereof in any election affected hereby. The terms of this Act shall apply to 1973 elections only, and shall have no effect on elections in any subsequent year.

Art. 3.01. Appointment of Election Officers

(a) For county elections. The commissioners court at its July term shall appoint from among the citizens of each election precinct one qualified voter as presiding judge of elections held at the expense of the county in that precinct and one qualified voter as alternate presiding judge, each of whom shall continue to act until his successor is appointed. Whenever a vacancy arises in either of such offices, the commissioners court may fill the vacancy at any regular or special term of court. All orders appointing judges and alternates shall be entered of record. Each presiding judge shall appoint two qualified voters, who are residents of the precinct, to serve as election clerks, and shall appoint for each election as many additional clerks as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election, not to exceed the maximum number authorized by the commissioners court. The commissioners court shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed for each precinct, and may fix different maximums depending on the type of election. The clerks shall be selected from different political parties, when practicable. The chairman of the county executive committee of each of the two parties whose candidate for Governor received the most votes for Governor in the last prior general election may submit a list of not less than two qualified nominees who are members of that party to each election judge at least 30 days prior to the date of a general election or 10 days prior to the date of a special election. If any such list is submitted to him, the election judge shall appoint at least one clerk from each list submitted. For the purpose of this section, the term "members of that party" means persons who affiliated with the party in the manner prescribed in Section 179a of this code<sup>1</sup> during the last preceding set of primary elections and conventions.

(b) For municipal elections. If a city charter provides the method for appointing election officers for elections held by the city, its provisions shall control, but there shall be at least three election officers at each polling place. Unless a different method is prescribed by the city charter, the mayor, or if he fails to do so, then the governing body of the municipality, shall appoint for each municipal election precinct a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for elections held by such municipality and shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed to serve in each precinct, which shall be not less than two, and the presiding judge for each precinct shall appoint two clerks, and as many additional clerks within the authorized limit as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election. In any city in which political parties nominate candidates for municipal offices, the election officers shall be selected from different political parties when practicable.

(c) For elections held by other political subdivisions. In any election held by a political subdivision other than a city or a county, the statutes pertaining to the particular type of election shall govern the appointment of election officers if such statutes provide for their appointment. In the absence of such provisions, the governing body of the subdivision shall appoint a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for each election precinct of the subdivision and shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed to serve in each precinct, which shall be not less than two; and the presiding judge for each precinct shall appoint two clerks and as many additional clerks within the authorized limit as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election.

(d) For primary elections. The primary elections of a political party shall be conducted in each precinct by a presiding judge, to be appointed by the chairman of the county executive committee of the party, with the assistance and approval of a majority of the members of the county executive committee.

The presiding judge shall select two clerks to assist in conducting the election; and additional clerks may be appointed under such rules as may be made by the county executive committee. An alternate presiding judge shall be appointed for each precinct in like manner as the presiding judge.

(e) Alternate judge to preside. Whenever the regularly appointed presiding judge is unable to serve at an election, the alternate presiding judge shall serve as the presiding judge for that election. In any election conducted by the regularly appointed presiding judge, he shall appoint the alternate presiding judge as one of the clerks to serve at such election.

(f) Appointment of election officers for certain elections ordered by county officers. The election judges appointed under Paragraph (a) of this Section shall hold all elections ordered by the Governor or by the County Judge, county Commissioners Court, or other county authority, which are required to be held in the regular county election precincts established pursuant to Section 12 of this Code.<sup>2</sup> In any election ordered by the Commissioners Court, the County Judge, the county board of school trustees, or other county authority, which are not required to be held in the regular county election precincts or for which other election precincts may be designated under the provisions of Section 10 of this Code, the statutes pertaining to the particular type of election shall govern the appointment of election officers if such statutes provide for their appointment. In the absence of such provisions, the authority calling the election shall appoint a presiding judge and an alternate presiding judge for each election precinct and shall fix the maximum number of clerks which may be appointed to serve in each precinct, which shall not be less than two; and the presiding judge for each precinct shall appoint two clerks and as many additional clerks within the authorized limit as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the election.

Art. 3.02. Duties and Working Hours of Clerks

In all elections, general, special, or primary, the presiding judge shall be in charge of the management of the polling place and the conduct of the election. He shall designate the working hours and assign the duties to be performed by the clerks. Clerks may be assigned to work for different lengths of time and to begin work at different hours during the day while the polls are open or during the time necessary for counting the ballots after the polls are closed. Clerks who begin work at any time before closing of the polls shall remain on duty without leaving the polling place while the polls are open, except for such periods of absence for meals and other necessary reasons as may be permitted by the presiding judge.

One or more clerks shall be assigned to assist in checking the names of voters on the list of qualified voters, keeping the poll list, and performing such other duties as are necessary in receiving the voters and supervising the deposit of the voted ballots. At every election there shall be kept a poll list in the number of copies required by law, consisting of one original and carbon copies thereof, on which an election officer shall enter the name of each voter at the time he votes.

In elections where paper ballots are used, the ballots shall be counted by one or more sets of counting officers, each set to consist of one judge or clerk who shall read the ballots, and one or more clerks who shall enter the votes on tally lists prepared for the election. As a safeguard in the accuracy of the tallying, the votes shall be entered on three original tally lists, and during the progress of the counting the lists shall be compared and errors and discrepancies shall be corrected, and at the close of the counting the tally clerks shall certify officially to the correctness of the lists.

The clerks may be assigned to perform such other duties as the presiding judge shall direct.

Art. 3.03. Qualifications of Judges, Clerks and Watchers

(a) All judges and clerks of any general, special, or primary election shall be qualified voters of the election precinct in which they are named to serve. Unless otherwise provided in a statute pertaining to the specific type of election being held, in any general, special, or primary election all watchers shall be qualified voters of the county if the election is countywide, and shall be qualified voters of the city or other political subdivision in which the election is held if less than countywide, but it shall not be necessary that they reside within the election precinct in which they are named to serve.

(b) No person shall serve as a judge or a clerk in any general, special, or primary election who is employed by any candidate whose name appears on the ballot in that election either for a public office or for the party office of county chairman, or who is related to such candidate within the third degree either by affinity or consanguinity. Within the meaning of this section, a governmental employee is employed by the officer or officers who head the department or agency in which he is employed.

(c) No watcher shall be an employee or employer of any election judge or clerk in the election precinct in which he is named to serve or related to any such election officer within the third degree either by affinity or consanguinity.

Art. 3.04. Disqualifications

Subd. 1. Except as otherwise provided herein, no one who holds an office of profit or trust under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state, or within 30 days after resigning or being dismissed from any such office, except a notary public, or who is a candidate for public office, or who is not a qualified voter, shall act as judge, clerk, or watcher of any election, general, special, or primary. The holding of a nonlucrative office does not disqualify a person to act as a judge, clerk, or watcher in any election other than an election held by a county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of which he is an officer. The holding of a lucrative office, except notary public, disqualifies the holder to act as a clerk or watcher in any election held by a county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of which he is an officer or in a primary election at which nominations for offices of that political subdivision are to be made, but does not disqualify him to serve in any other election. As used in this subdivision, the term "officer of a county" includes only those officers who serve a county or one of its precincts in its capacity as a political subdivision.

Subd. 2. The offices referred to in Subdivision 1 of this section do not include offices of a political party, and no one shall be disqualified to act as judge, clerk, or watcher at an election by reason of his holding or being a candidate for the office of county chairman or precinct chairman or other office of a political party.

Subd. 3. No one shall act as chairman or as member of any district, county, or city executive committee of a political party who is not a qualified voter, or who is a candidate for public office, or who holds any office of profit or trust, either under the United States or this state, or any city or town in this state.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 18; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 9; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 3.05. Appointment of Watchers

(a) By political parties. The chairman of the county executive committee for each political party that has a nominee or nominees on the official ballot at any general or special election, or, if the chairman failed to act, any three members of such committee, may appoint one watcher for each election precinct by delivering to the watcher, prior to the day of the election, a written certificate of his appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall bear the signature of the chairman or committee members making the appointment together with the signature of the appointee.

(b) By candidates. Any candidate whose name appears on the official ballot of any general, special, or primary election for any public office may appoint two watchers for each election precinct and place of absentee voting in which the name of such candidate appears on the ballot, by delivering to each such watcher appointed by him, a certificate of his appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall be signed personally by the candidate making the appointment and shall also bear the signature of the appointee. The assistant campaign manager of any candidate for state or district office, designated in accordance with Section 238 of this Code,<sup>1</sup> may act on behalf of the candidate he represents in the appointment of watchers in the county for which he has been named assistant campaign manager, and certificates executed by him shall bear his signature as agent for the candidate, in lieu of the candidate's signature.

(c) By voters. In any general, special, or primary election, the qualified voters in an election precinct may appoint two watchers for that precinct on behalf of any announced candidate who does not appoint or join in the appointment of a watcher or watchers for such precinct under the provisions of Paragraph (b) of this section, by delivering to each watcher appointed by them, prior to the day of the election, a certificate of appointment setting forth the name of the person appointed, the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve, and the name of the candidate on whose behalf the appointment is made. The certificate shall be signed by fifty qualified voters or five per cent of the qualified voters of the precinct as determined by the number of voters appearing on the list of qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number, and shall also bear the signature of the appointee; and the candidate, or his assistant campaign manager for the county in which the precinct is located if he be a candidate for a state or district office, shall endorse thereon a signed statement that the appointment is made with his consent. To every voter who signs such certificate shall be administered an oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to or made a part of the certificate, that the signer is a qualified voter at the election and in the precinct for which the appointment is made. One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered.

Art. 3.06. Watchers at Elections on Questions or Propositions

Whenever any question or proposition is to be voted on at any election in this state, voters favoring the proposition may procure the appointment of two watchers, and voters opposing the proposition may procure the appointment of two watchers, for each election precinct in which the proposition is to be voted on, by complying with the procedure set forth in this section. A petition signed by fifty qualified voters or five per cent of the qualified voters of the precinct as determined by the number of voters appearing on the list of qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number, shall state whether the signers favor or oppose adoption of the proposition, and shall state the name and address of the person or persons whom they wish to be appointed. To every voter who signs the petition shall be administered an oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to or made a part of the petition, that the signer is a qualified voter at the election and in the precinct for which the appointment is requested. One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered.

In state-wide elections, and in all elections ordered by the commissioners court or the county judge, the petition shall be presented to the county judge. In municipal elections, it shall be presented to the mayor, and in all other elections it shall be presented to the presiding officer of the board or body ordering the election. The petition shall be presented to the proper officer not later than the third day prior to election day. If the officer to whom the petition is presented finds that it complies with the foregoing requirements, that the signers of the petition are good-faith representatives of the side of the issue which they purport to represent, and that the person or persons whose appointment is requested are qualified to serve as watchers, he shall issue a certificate of appointment to each of the persons whose appointment is requested, setting forth the name of the person appointed and the number of the precinct where such watcher is to serve. The certificate shall bear the signature of the appointing officer together with the signature of the appointee.

Not more than two watchers representing the same side of a question or proposition shall be appointed in a precinct. If more than one petition is filed by voters representing the same side of the issue, preference shall be given in accordance with the order of filing.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to referendum propositions submitted at party primary elections.

Art. 3.07. Service, Duties, and Privileges of Watchers

(a) Each watcher shall be present at the polling place on election day when the polls are opened, and shall remain on duty without leaving the polling place until the polls are closed, except for such periods of absence for meals or other necessary reasons as may be permitted by the presiding judge. If the presiding judge permits the clerks to leave the polling place for meals or other necessary reasons during the time the polls are open, he must accord the same privilege to watchers. If the presiding judge adopts a general rule for the clerks and watchers which would prevent a watcher who is a resident of some other election precinct from leaving the polling place in order to vote in the precinct of which he is a resident, the presiding judge nevertheless must permit such watcher to leave the polling place, at some time within the first two hours after the polls open, for a sufficient length of time to enable him to vote in the precinct in which he resides. A watcher who leaves the polling place without proper authorization while the polls are open shall not be permitted to resume service. A watcher who leaves the polling place after the polls are closed shall be permitted to resume his service at any time thereafter until the election officers have completed their duties.

(b) On election day, the watcher shall present his certificate of appointment to the presiding judge of the precinct where he is to serve, and the presiding judge shall require the watcher to countersign the certificate to make certain he is the identical person referred to in the certificate. The presiding judge shall preserve the certificate and deliver it with other records of the election to the officer who has custody of the voted ballots, to be preserved by him for the length of time provided by law for preservation of the voted ballots.

(c) Before commencing his services, each watcher shall take an oath to be administered by the presiding judge, that he will mention and note any errors he may see in testing the voters, or counting the votes, or making out the returns, that he will well and truly discharge his duties as watcher impartially, and will report in writing all violations of the law and unrectified irregularities that he may observe to the authority which canvasses the returns of the election, and, if he deems it desirable, to the next grand jury.

(d) Each watcher appointed in accordance with this code shall be permitted to sit conveniently near the judges or clerks so that he can observe the conduct of the election, including but not limited to the reading of the ballots, the tallying and counting of the votes, the making out of the returns, the locking of the ballot boxes, their custody and safe return. He shall also be permitted to be present when assistance is given by any election judge in the marking of the ballot of any voter not able to mark his own ballot, to see that the ballot is marked in accordance with the wishes of the voter, but he must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law. He shall not be permitted to enter into any conversation with the judges or clerks regarding the election while it is progressing, except to call the attention of the judges or clerks to any irregularity or violation of the law that he may observe. The watcher shall call the attention of officers holding the election to any fraud, irregularity or mistake, illegal voting attempted, or other failure to comply with the laws governing such election at the time it occurs, if practicable and if he has knowledge thereof at the time, and such complaint shall be reduced to writing and a copy delivered to the election judge.

(e) No watcher shall give any advice of any kind to any voter, or hold any conversation or discussion with any voter, or communicate with or signal to any voter in any manner, or interfere with any voter in any manner whatsoever.

(f) In addition to the foregoing duties and privileges, each watcher serving at an election where voting machines are used shall also have the duties and privileges of watchers as set forth in Section 79 of this code.<sup>1</sup>

(g) Watchers appointed to observe absentee voting may be appointed in the same manner as watchers appointed to serve at regular polling places, and may serve at such hours as they desire.

(h) The authority holding the election shall not pay for the services of watchers, but they may be paid by the interest they represent.

Art. 3.08. Pay of Judges and Clerks

(a) In all elections, general, special, or primary, by whatever authority conducted, the rate of pay for judges and clerks of the election shall be determined by the appropriate authority, but shall not exceed two dollars per hour for each judge or clerk. No judge or clerk shall be paid for more than one hour of work before the polls open. In precincts where voting machines are used, no judge or clerk shall be paid for any period of time subsequent to two hours after the official time for closing the polls or subsequent to two hours after voting is concluded by all voters offering themselves for voting during regular voting hours, whichever is the later. The judge who delivers the returns of election may be paid an amount not to exceed five dollars for that service; provided, also, he shall make returns of ballots, ballot boxes, and election supplies not used when he makes returns of the election.

(b) In elections held at the expense of a county, the rate of pay shall be determined by the commissioners court of the county where such services are rendered. In elections held at the expense of a city, school district, or other political subdivision, the governing body of the city, district or political subdivision shall determine the rate. In primary elections, the rate shall be determined by the county executive committee of the party conducting the primary election.

(c) The compensation of judges and clerks of general and special elections shall be paid by the authority responsible for the expenses of the election, upon presentation of claims for such services approved in the manner required for other claims against its funds. In a joint election, the total pay for the judges and clerks may not exceed the maximum specified in Subsection (a) of this section. However, if the election judge delivers the returns of election and the election supplies to different locations for the different election authorities, he shall be paid by each election authority for each delivery the amount specified in Subsection (a) of this section.

(d) The provisions of this section shall control over all other statutes relating to pay of election judges and clerks in any type of election whatsoever, and all other statutes are hereby repealed to the extent of any conflict with this section.

Art. 3.09. Precinct Judges Served

Precinct judges for all general elections shall be served with copies of the order of the Commissioners Court properly certified to by the clerk of the said court, designating the number, name and bounds of the election precinct and of their appointment as judges. Such service shall be made by the clerk of said court by registered mail within twenty (20) days after the entry of the order.

Art. 3.09a. School of Instruction for Election Officers

(a) Prior to each general election, or at such other time or times as may be deemed desirable, the county clerk of each county of the state is authorized to conduct, with the approval of the county judge, a school or schools of instruction for the election judges and clerks appointed to serve in elections held by the county; and upon direction by the commissioners court, the county clerk shall be required to conduct such school. Persons appointed to serve as watchers at the election and any other interested members of the public shall also be permitted to attend the school. When such a school is held, the county clerk shall notify each presiding judge of the time and place at which it will be held, and it shall be the duty of the presiding judge to give like notice to those persons who will serve as clerks at the election in his precinct. The county clerk shall also notify the county chairman of each political party in the county, so that the county chairman may have an opportunity to notify persons who will serve as watchers for the party.

(b) Upon request, the Secretary of State and the Attorney General are authorized to cooperate with the county clerk in furnishing the clerk with any informational or instructional material which they are able to supply, for use in conducting the school.

(c) The provisions of this section are cumulative of the provision in Section 79 of this code<sup>1</sup> which requires a school of instruction to be held for election officers before each election at which voting machines are to be used, and nothing in this section shall be construed to alter or amend Section 79 of this code.<sup>1</sup>

- 4.10. Vacancy: Application to Get on Ballot.
- 4.11. Special Elections for United States Representative.
- 4.12. Special Elections for Members of the Legislature.

Art. 4.01. Proclamation by Governor

Notice shall be given to the people of all elections for State and district officers, electors for President and Vice-president of the United States, members of Congress, members of the Legislature, and all officers who are elective every two (2) years. Such notices shall be by proclamation by the Governor ordering the election, not less than thirty-five (35) days before the election, issued and mailed to the several county judges.

Art. 4.02. Order by County Judge

The county judge, or if his office is vacant or if he fails to act, then two (2) of the county commissioners, shall order an election for county and precinct officers, and all other elections which under the law the county judge may be authorized to order. The county judge or county commissioners, as the case may be, shall issue writs of election ordered by him or them, in which shall be stated the day of election, the office or offices to be filled by the election or the question to be voted on, or both, as the case may be.

Art. 4.03. Writs of Election

Not less than 15 days before any general or special election, the county judge shall mail or deliver a copy of the writ of election to the presiding judge of each election precinct in which the election is ordered to be held, and shall notify him in writing of his duty to hold the election in that precinct and of the location of the polling place and the hours during which the polls shall be kept open.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 26; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 4.04. Failure to Order

A failure from any cause, on the part of the Governor, or the county judge or commissioners court, or of both, to order or give notice of any general election shall not invalidate the same if otherwise legal and regular.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 27.]

Art. 4.05. Notice of Election

Subd. 1. The county judge shall cause notice of each general or special election ordered by him or by the commissioners court to be given in at least one of the following manners:

(1) by posting a notice of the election in each precinct in which the election is to be held at least 20 days before the election; or

(2) by publishing the notice at least one time, not more than 25 days nor less than 10 days before the election, in at least one daily newspaper published in the county (in the political subdivision or territory in which the election is to be held if the election is less than county-wide), or if there is no daily newspaper published therein, then in a weekly newspaper published therein; or

(3) if there are one or more newspapers published in the county, by issuing the notice in the form of a news release sent to each newspaper published in the county, not more than 25 days nor less than 10 days before the election.

In all cases, a copy of the notice shall also be filed with the county clerk and another copy shall be posted on a bulletin board in the office of the county clerk, at least 20 days before the election. As used herein, the term "newspaper" has the meaning defined in Section 1, Chapter 84, Acts of the 43rd Legislature, 1st Called Session, 1933, as amended (Article 28a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Subd. 2. The notice of each general or special election shall state the nature and date of the election, the hours during which the polls will be open, and the location of the polling place or places. A notice given in the first manner listed in Subdivision 1 of this section shall state the location of the polling place in the precinct where the notice is posted; all other notices shall state the location of the polling places in all the precincts in which the election is to be held. The notice of a special election shall also state the office or offices to be filled, or the question or questions to be voted on; provided, however, that in the case of an election on proposed constitutional amendments, publication of which amendments is required by Article XVII, Texas Constitution, the notice required by this section need not state the propositions which are to appear on the ballot.

Subd. 3. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, where the manner of giving notice for a local option, stock law, bond or tax election, or any other special election is specially provided for by the laws of this state, the notices of election shall be given in compliance with the laws governing each respective election.

Subd. 4. Where notice is given in the first manner listed in Subdivision 1 of this section, the sheriff or a constable shall post the notice and shall make a return on a copy of the notice, showing how and when he executed the notice. Where notice is given in the second manner, the county judge shall file with the county clerk a copy of the notice as published, together with the name of the newspaper or newspapers and the date or dates of publication.

Where notice is given in the third manner, the county judge shall file with the county clerk a copy of the news release together with a list of the newspapers to which it was sent and the date of mailing.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 28; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 5, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 4.06. Municipal Elections

In all city, town and village elections, the mayor, or if he fails to do so, then the governing body shall order elections pertaining alone to municipal affairs, give notice and appoint election officers to hold the election, unless a different method be prescribed by the charter of such city, town or village; but, in all cases, supervisors may be selected as in general elections, and judges and clerks shall each be selected from different political parties when practicable. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 29.]

Art. 4.08. In Case of a Tie

(a) At any election, general or special, if there be an equal number of votes given to two or more persons for the same office, except executive offices as provided in the Constitution, and no one elected thereto, the officer to whom the returns are made shall declare such election void as to such office only, and shall immediately order another election to fill such office, which shall be held not less than twenty nor more than thirty days after the canvass of the election which is declared void. Except as otherwise provided in this section, notice of such other election shall be given and the election shall be held in the same manner as the general or special election in which the tie vote occurred. At such election, only the names of the tying candidates shall be printed on the ballot, and any write-in votes cast for any other person shall be void and shall not be counted for any purpose.

(b) If the tying candidates agree in writing, filed with the returning officer, upon a different method of deciding which of them shall be declared elected, the decision shall be made in that manner and the new election not ordered.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not apply: (1) to any general or special election at which a majority vote is required for election, and for which a runoff election is required when no candidate receives a majority of the votes at the first election, or (2) to any general or special election for which resolution of a tie vote is governed by some other law.

Art. 4.09. Special Elections to Fill Vacancies in Public Offices

Sec. 1. Where special elections are authorized by this Act, the officer authorized by law to order elections shall make such order, fixing the time of the election not less than twenty (20) nor more than ninety (90) days after the first public notice of such order.

Sec. 2. Election to fill unexpired term. Where vacancies which are to be filled by election occur in a civil office, an election shall immediately be ordered to fill the unexpired term.

Sec. 3. Election to unexpired term and to fill term succeeding unexpired term. Where an officer, holding an office the vacancy of which is to be filled by election, is re-elected to a term of office succeeding that of which he is the incumbent, and where, after the re-election of said officer, by reasons of the death or resignation of the officer or otherwise, there is no person legally entitled to fill the office for the unexpired term or to fill the office for the succeeding term to which the former officer was elected to succeed himself, an election shall be immediately ordered to elect a person to fill the unexpired term in said office and to elect a person to fill the term of office succeeding the unexpired term.

Sec. 4. Election on resignation of incumbent of unexpired term. When the incumbent of an office, the vacancy of which is to be filled by election, tenders to the officer authorized by law to receive same a written resignation effective at a future date, an election shall be ordered immediately after acceptance of the resignation to elect a successor to the incumbent to fill the term of office unexpired from and after the effective date of the resignation.

Sec. 5. Election on resignation of officer-elect. When an officer-elect to an office a vacancy in which must be filled by election, tenders to the officer authorized by law to receive the resignation of an incumbent of the office to which said officer-elect was elected, a declaration in writing of his intention not to qualify for the office to which he was elected, an election shall be ordered immediately upon receipt of said written declaration to elect a successor to the incumbent of the office.

Sec. 6. Election on death of officer-elect. When the officer-elect to an office which must be filled by election dies or becomes ineligible to qualify for the office to which he was elected, the proper officer shall immediately order an election to elect a successor to the incumbent of the office.

Sec. 7. Governor may accept resignations. Where no officer is otherwise authorized by law to receive and accept the resignation of an officer, the Governor is hereby designated as the officer to do so, and he is hereby empowered and authorized to receive and accept the resignation of all such officers.

Sec. 8. Poll tax lists delivered by tax collector to board. Whenever a special election or special primary as herein provided or otherwise provided by law shall be called between February 1st and April 1st, the tax collectors of the counties in which such election or primary is to be held shall make up and deliver to the board charged with the duty of furnishing election supplies separate certified lists of the citizens in each precinct who have paid their poll tax or have received their certificates of exemption in the form now provided by law, on or before February 20th.

Art. 4.10. Vacancy; Application to Get on Ballot

Sec. 1. Any person desiring his name to appear upon the official ballot at any special election held for the purpose of filling a vacancy, when no party primary has been held, may do so by presenting his application to the proper authority. Such application shall set forth:

- (a) The name of the office sought;
- (b) His occupation, his postoffice address, and the county of his residence;
- (c) His age, place of birth, kind of citizenship, and length of residence in the county and state.

Sec. 2. Such application must be filed not later than 6 p. m. of the 31st day before any such special election, and shall not be considered filed unless it has actually been received by the officer with whom it is to be filed. The application must be accompanied with a fee of $1,000 for a statewide office, including without limitation the offices of United States Senator and United States Congressman-at-Large, a fee of $500 for the district office of United States Representative, a fee of $150 for the district office of State Senator or State Representative, and a fee of $10 for a city office. Such fees shall be deposited in the general fund of the state or city, as the case may be.

Sec. 3. The application must be filed with the Secretary of State in the case of a state or district special election and with the City Secretary in the case of a municipal election. The Secretary of State shall upon receipt of the application which conforms to the above requirements, issue his instruction to the county clerks of this state, or of the district in the case of the district vacancy, directing that the name of the applicant shall be printed on the official ballot in the column under the title of the office for which he is a candidate.

Sec. 4. The ballot in such special elections shall not bear any party designations but shall be printed otherwise as indicated in Section 61, and shall be marked as indicated in Section 62.<sup>1</sup>

Art. 4.11. Special Elections for United States Representative

Subd. 1. In any special election called to fill a vacancy in the office of United States representative in any congressional district of the state, a majority vote of the electors participating in the election shall be necessary for election. In the event no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast at the first election, the Governor shall, within five days after the results of the election are officially declared, call a second election to be held on a specified day which shall be not less than thirty nor more than forty days after the date of the proclamation or order calling the election. In the second special election the candidates shall be limited to the participants in the first election who received the largest and next largest number of votes at the first election.

Subd. 2. In any special election called to fill a vacancy in the office of United States representative in any congressional district of the state, the filing fee shall be five hundred dollars.

Subd. 3. Whenever there shall be held a special election in any congressional district in this state for the election of United States representative, the commissioners court of each county in such district shall meet within three days after such election is held and canvass the returns thereof.

Subd. 4. When a special election shall have been held for United States representative in any district, the county judge of each county in which such election was held shall, within twenty-four hours after the commissioners court opens the returns and canvasses the result, as provided in Subdivision 3 of this section, make out duplicate returns of the election, one of which he shall immediately transmit to the seat of government of the state, sealed in an envelope, directed to the Secretary of State, and endorsed "Election Returns for _____ County, for United States Representative, District _____" (filling the first blank with the name of the county and the other blank with the number of the district for which the election was held); and the other of such returns shall be deposited in the office of the county clerk of the county where such election was held. Not later than the seventh day after the election, the day of the election excluded, the Secretary of State, in the presence of the Governor and the citizen appointed under Section 120 of this code,<sup>1</sup> shall open and canvass the returns of the election and declare the results thereof. If any person received a majority of the votes cast at the election, the Governor shall immediately make out, sign and deliver a certificate of election to such person for the unexpired term of the office for which he was a candidate. In the event no candidate received a majority of the votes cast at the election, the Governor shall call a second election as provided in Subdivision 1 of this section; and the Secretary of State shall within five days after the results of the first election are officially declared, certify to the county clerk of each county in the district the names of the two candidates who are eligible to participate in the second election and the clerks shall make up the ballot for election according to the certificate. The results of the second election shall be canvassed and the results declared in the same manner as herein provided for the first election, and the Governor shall issue to the candidate who receives the largest number of votes in the second election a certificate of election to the unexpired term of the office for which he was a candidate.

Subd. 5. The provisions of this section shall not apply to special elections for the office of congressman-at-large called and held in accordance with Section 177 of this code.<sup>2</sup>

Subd. 6. All special elections called for the purpose of filling vacancies in the offices to which this section applies shall be conducted according to existing law as supplemented by this section, but if there is a conflict between this section and the existing law, the provisions of this section shall prevail.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 512, ch. 2, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1867, ch. 723, § 14, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 4.12. Special Elections for Members of the Legislature

Subd. 1. Whenever there is a special election in any representative or senatorial district in this state for the election of any member of the Legislature, a majority vote of the electors participating in the election shall be necessary for election. If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast at the first election, the Governor shall, within five days after the results of the election are officially declared, call a second election to be held not less than fifteen nor more than twenty-five days after the date of the proclamation or order calling the election. In the second special election the candidates shall be limited to the participants in the first election who received the largest and next largest number of votes at the first election.

Subd. 2. Whenever there is a special election in any representative or senatorial district in this state for the election of any member of the Legislature, the commissioners court of each county in the district shall meet within three days after the election is held and canvass the returns. The county judge of each county in which the election was held shall, within twenty-four hours after the commissioners court canvasses the result, make out duplicate returns of the election, one of which he shall immediately transmit to the seat of government of the state, sealed in an envelope, directed to the Secretary of State, and endorsed "Election Returns for _____ County, for _____" (filling the first blank with the name of the county and the other blank with the name of the office for which the election was held); and the other of the returns shall be deposited in the office of the county clerk where the election was held.

Subd. 3. Not later than the seventh day after the election, the day of the election excluded, the Secretary of State in the presence of the Governor and the citizen appointed under Section 120 of this code<sup>1</sup> shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results. If one person has received a majority of the votes cast at the election, the Secretary of State shall immediately make out, sign, and deliver a certificate of election to him for the unexpired term of the office for which he was a candidate. If no candidate has received a majority of the votes cast at the election, the Governor shall call a second election as provided in Subdivision 1 of this section; and the Secretary of State shall within five days after the results of the first election are officially declared, certify to the county clerk of each county in the district the names of the two candidates who are eligible to participate in the second election, and the clerks shall make up the ballot for election according to the certificate. Notice of the second election shall be given in the manner provided by law but ten days notice shall be sufficient, and the county judge shall, not later than ten days prior to the election, notify each presiding judge of his duty to hold the election. The returns of the second election shall be canvassed and the results declared in the same manner as provided for the first election, and the Secretary of State shall issue to the candidate who receives the largest number of votes in the second election a certificate of election to the unexpired term of the office for which he was a candidate.

Subd. 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this code, whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of state representative or state senator in any representative or senatorial district in this state during a regular session of the Legislature and more than twenty-five days before the final date permitted by law for the continuation of the session, or within a period of sixty days prior to the convening of any session of the Legislature, the time intervals specified in this subdivision shall control the election. The proclamation of the Governor ordering the election shall be issued and mailed to the appropriate county judge or judges not less than twenty-one days before the election. If the election is called for a date less than thirty-five days after the date of the order, the application of any person desiring his name to appear on the official ballot at the election must be filed not later than five days after the date of the order, which shall state the deadline for filing applications. If a second election is necessary, it shall be called for a date not less than seven nor more than twenty-five days after the date of the order calling the election. If the first election is called for a date less than thirty days after the date of the election order, fifteen days notice of the election and fifteen days notification to the presiding judges shall be sufficient for that election. In a runoff election, six days notice and notification shall be sufficient. If ballots for absentee voting in either election cannot be made available by the twentieth day preceding the date of the election, absentee voting shall begin as soon after the twentieth day as the ballots are available, and in all events must begin not later than the third day after the date of the Secretary of State's certification of the names of the candidates to be placed on the ballot or after the date of the order calling the election, whichever is the later, if such third day is less than twenty days prior to the election. Except as modified herein, the election shall be held in accordance with provisions regulating other special elections for the Legislature.

Subd. 5. All special elections called for the purpose of filling vacancies in the offices to which this section applies shall be conducted according to existing law as supplemented by this section, but if there is a conflict between this section and the existing law, the provisions of this section shall prevail. [Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 777, ch. 368, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1868, ch. 723, § 14a, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 5.01. Classes of Persons Not Qualified to Vote

The following classes of persons shall not be allowed to vote in this state:

1. Persons under twenty-one years of age.
2. Idiots and lunatics.
3. All paupers supported by the county.
4. All persons convicted of any felony except those restored to full citizenship and right of suffrage or pardoned.

Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1722, ch. 626 [Article 5923b of the Civil Statutes] provided that a person who is at least 18 years of age has all the rights, privileges and obligations of a person who is 21 years of age.

Art. 5.02. Qualification and Requirements for Voting

Every person subject to none of the foregoing disqualifications who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years and who shall be a citizen of the United States and who shall have resided in this state one year next preceding an election and the last six months within the district or county in which such person offers to vote, and who shall have registered as a voter, shall be deemed a qualified elector. No person shall be permitted to vote unless he has registered in accordance with the provisions of this code. The provisions of this section, as modified by Sections 35 and 39 of this code,<sup>1</sup> shall apply to all elections, including general, special, and primary elections, whether held by the state, by a county, municipality, or other political subdivision of the state, or by a political party.

Art. 5.03. Qualifications for Voting for Bond Issues, Lending Credit, Expending Money, or Assuming Debt

When an election is held by any county, or any number of counties, or any political subdivision of the state, or any political subdivision of a county or any defined district now or hereafter to be described and defined within the state, and which may or may not include towns, villages, or municipal corporations, or any city, town, or village, for the purpose of issuing bonds or otherwise lending credit, or expending money or assuming any debt, only qualified electors who own taxable property in the state, county, political subdivision, district, city, town, or village where such election is held, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be qualified to vote and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence. Property shall be deemed to have been duly rendered for taxation, for the purpose of determining eligibility to vote in an election as provided in this code and in Article VI, Section 3a, of the Texas Constitution, only if the property was rendered to the county, city, district, or other political subdivision holding the election within the period of time fixed by law for such rendition, or was placed on the tax rolls by the tax assessor prior to the date on which the election was ordered, if the regular rendition period expired before that date. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 35; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 99, ch. 48, § 1; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 7, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 5.04. Affidavit of Voter in Bond Election, Etc.

(a) Before any person is allowed to vote in an election for the purpose of issuing bonds or otherwise lending credit, or expending money or assuming any debt, he shall sign and swear to an affidavit to the effect that he owns property, giving a description of one item, which has been duly rendered for taxation to the political subdivision holding the election at a time and in a manner which entitles him to vote in the election, as provided in Section 35 (Article 5.03) of this code. The voter's registration certificate number shall be shown on the affidavit, and it shall contain a statement that the affiant understands that the giving of false information in the affidavit is a felony punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000 or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) The secretary of state shall prescribe the form of the affidavit, and may prescribe instructions to accompany the affidavit. A form for multiple signatures of voters may be used for voting at regular polling places and for absentee voting by personal appearance where the absentee ballots are cast on a voting machine or are counted by a special canvassing board.

Each person voting an absentee ballot by mail or voting by personal appearance in elections where the ballots are to be sent to regular polling places for counting shall be furnished an individual affidavit form, which shall be signed and sworn to at the time the voter marks his ballot. After the voter seals the ballot envelope, he shall place the affidavit into the carrier envelope along with the ballot envelope and the ballot stub. The election officers shall ascertain that the affidavit is properly executed before opening the ballot envelope, and if it is not properly executed, the ballot shall be rejected.

Voters voting at regular polling places or voting absentee by personal appearance shall swear to the affidavit before an officer of the election, and all clerks and deputy clerks for absentee voting and all election judges and clerks at regular polling places shall have authority to administer the oath required of the voter.

(c) The description of a specific item of property which is required on the affidavit shall be sufficient as to personal property if it identifies the property by a general statement of its nature, as, for example, household furniture, automobile, livestock, jewelry, stock of merchandise, corporate securities, etc. For real property, a description of the property by abstract, survey, patent, subdivision, block, lot, or other legal description shall not be necessary. If the real property is located in an incorporated city, town, or village, a statement of the location of the property by street and number shall be sufficient; and if it is located in an unincorporated town or village, it shall be sufficient to identify the property by general description as so located, as, for example, "house and lot in the town of _____." It shall be sufficient to describe a farm, ranch, or other rural property by a statement of its location with reference to a town, community, or other well-known landmark, as, for example, "farm near _____." Upon request of the voter, the election officer attending him shall inform him as to what will be a sufficient description on the affidavit for the specific item of property which he wishes to list.

(d) The ballot of a voter who has been accepted by the election officer as eligible to vote at the election shall never be declared void for any defect or insufficiency in the affidavit or for any misstatement as to property asserted to have been rendered, if the voter in fact is the owner of any property which has been duly rendered for taxation to the subdivision holding the election.

(e) After voting is concluded, an officer of the election shall place all the affidavits in an envelope or other container which shall be securely fastened and marked to identify its contents, and the presiding judge shall deliver the affidavits to the officer having custody of the ballots voted at the election at the same time that he delivers the returns, and the affidavits shall be preserved by such officer under the same regulations applicable to preservation of ballots. The affidavits shall be open to public inspection, but the inspection must be in the presence of the custodial officer or a duly authorized deputy.

(f) A person who knowingly gives false information or makes any false statement in the affidavit required by this section is guilty of a felony punishable by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the penitentiary not to exceed five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 36; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1870, ch. 723, § 15, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 8, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 5.05. Absentee Voting*Who May Vote Absentee

Subd. 1. Any qualified voter of this state who expects to be absent from the county of his residence on the day of the election, or who because of sickness, physical disability, or religious belief cannot appear at the polling place in the election precinct of his residence on the day of the election, may nevertheless cause his vote to be cast at any election held in this state by compliance with the applicable method herein provided for absentee voting. If a voter's religious belief prohibits him from voting during any part of the time during which the polls are open on the day of the election, he shall nevertheless be entitled to vote absentee even though the prohibition does not operate throughout the entire time that the polls are open.

Absentee voting shall be conducted by two methods:

- (1) voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, and
- (2) voting by mail.

All voters coming within the foregoing provisions of this subdivision may vote by personal appearance at the clerk's office if they are able to make such appearance within the period for absentee voting. The following persons, and no other, may vote by mail:

(i) Qualified voters who because of sickness or physical disability, or because of religious beliefs, cannot appear at the polling place on the day of the election. The application for an absentee ballot shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election. It must be mailed to the clerk, and the clerk shall preserve the envelope in which it is received. If the application is delivered to the clerk by any method other than by mailing it to him, the ballot shall be void and shall not be counted. The voter shall state in his application the address to which the ballot is to be mailed to him, which must be either his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living. If the ballot is furnished to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him, or if it is mailed to any address other than one of the foregoing, it shall be void and shall not be counted. The marked ballot must be mailed to the clerk, and if returned in any other manner it shall be void and shall not be counted.

(ii) Qualified voters who, before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, make application for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county of their residence on election day, and who expect to be absent from the county during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period of absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he expects to be absent from the county of his residence on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the entire period for absentee voting. The application shall be made not more than sixty days before the day of the election, and may be mailed to the clerk or delivered to him by the voter in person, but the clerk shall not furnish a ballot to the voter by any method other than by mailing it to him. Applications made under this paragraph may be mailed either from within or without the county of the voter's residence, but in every case the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk is postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

(iii) Qualified voters who, after the beginning of the period for absentee voting, apply for an absentee ballot on the ground of expected absence from the county and who are absent from such county at the time of applying for an absentee ballot and expect to be absent from such county during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The voter must state in his application that he is absent from the county at the time of making the application and expects to be absent on election day and during the clerk's regular office hours for the remainder of the period for absentee voting. The clerk shall not mail a ballot to any such voter unless the envelope in which the application received is postmarked from a point outside the county, and the ballot must be mailed to the voter at an address outside the county. The ballot shall not be counted unless the envelope in which the application is received and the carrier envelope in which the ballot is returned to the clerk are each postmarked from a point outside the county and the affidavit on the carrier envelope is certified by an officer other than an officer of the county of the voter's residence.

An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail shall state the applicant's permanent address and the address to which the absentee ballot is to be mailed to the applicant, and shall also state the address to which his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate is to be mailed back to him.

Elections to which Applicable; Officer to Conduct Absentee Voting

Subd. 1a. (1) General provisions. Absentee voting shall be conducted in all elections, general, special, or primary, and in each election it shall be conducted by the officer designated or appointed in accordance with the applicable provision of this subdivision. In every election, the absentee voting shall be conducted under the same rules and in the same manner provided in this Section for absentee voting conducted by the County Clerk, and all references in other subdivisions of this Section to the County Clerk shall be deemed to mean the appropriate officer for conducting the absentee voting in that election unless the context requires a different construction.

(2) County-wide elections held at the expense of the county. In general elections for State and County officers, in special elections called by the Governor (including both county-wide elections and elections to fill vacancies in offices elected by districts which are less than county-wide), in all other county-wide elections held at the expense of the county, and in any other elections held at the expense of the county where a specific statute expressly requires it, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the County Clerk.

(3) Elections less than county-wide which are ordered by county authority. In elections less than county-wide which are ordered by the county Commissioners Court, the County Judge, the county board of school trustees, or other county authority, the authority calling the election shall appoint a clerk for absentee voting and shall designate the place for conducting the absentee voting. If the election is held at the expense of the county, the absentee voting clerk may be either the County Clerk or any qualified voter of the county. If the county clerk is appointed, the place for conducting the absentee voting by mail shall be at the office of the clerk, but the place for absentee voting by personal appearance may be either at the office of the clerk, regardless of whether it is situated within the territory covered by the election, or may be at some other public place which shall be within the boundaries of the territory covered by the election. If the expenses of the election are not paid out of county funds, the person appointed to conduct the absentee voting shall be a qualified voter of the county, and the place designated for conducting the absentee voting, both by mail and by personal appearance, shall be within the boundaries of the territory covered by the election. The County Clerk may delegate to one or more of his deputies any duty devolving upon him under this subdivision. Where some person other than the County Clerk is appointed, the authority calling the election may also appoint such number of deputy clerks, who shall be qualified voters of the county, as it deems necessary to assist in the conduct of the absentee voting. In any election ordered by county authority, or by any other authority, which election involves the creation, organization, reorganization, functioning or existence of one or more municipalities or other political subdivisions, only one clerk for absentee voting shall be appointed if only one political subdivision is affected by the election; but where more than one political subdivision is affected, the authority calling the election may appoint more than one clerk for absentee voting, and if more than one is appointed, the authority shall designate the political subdivision or subdivisions to be served by each clerk and the location at which he is to serve. No territory shall be served by more than one clerk.

(4) Municipal elections. In all elections held by a city or town, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the city secretary or city clerk.

(5) Primary elections. In primary elections held by political parties for nominating candidates to be voted on at general and special elections held at the expense of the county, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the County Clerk. In primary elections for nominating candidates for city offices, the absentee voting shall be conducted by the city secretary or city clerk.

(6) Elections held by other political subdivisions. In elections held by any school district, conservation district, or other defined district or political subdivision authorized to hold elections in this State, the absentee voting shall be conducted by a clerk for absentee voting, to be appointed by the governing board or other authority of the political subdivision empowered to call the election, which may also appoint such number of deputy clerks as it deems necessary to assist in the conduct of the absentee voting. Each clerk or deputy clerk shall be a qualified voter in the subdivision; provided, however, that if the election affects more than one political subdivision, residence anywhere within the territory covered by the election shall be sufficient. Persons in the employment of the political subdivision shall be eligible for appointment if otherwise qualified.

(7) Places and hours for absentee voting. Where the absentee voting is conducted at the regular office of the County Clerk or city secretary or city clerk, the provisions of Subdivision 3 of this Section relating to the days and hours for voting, as modified by Subdivision 3d, shall apply. Where the voting is conducted at some other place, either by the County Clerk or by a clerk specially appointed for that purpose, the authority calling the election shall designate the hours during which the clerk for absentee voting shall keep his office open, which for the purposes of this Section shall constitute the clerk's regular working hours, and shall require that the office remain open for at least eight hours on each day for absentee voting which is not a Saturday, a Sunday, or an official State holiday. Except in elections for which absentee voting is required by law to be conducted by the County Clerk or city secretary or city clerk, the place or places and hours for absentee voting shall be stated in the order calling the election and in the election notice, which shall also state the clerk's mailing address to which ballot applications and ballots voted by mail may be sent.

(8) Compensation of clerk for absentee voting. Neither the County Clerk nor the city secretary or city clerk shall receive any additional compensation for performing the duties devolving upon him under this Section, but additional deputies necessitated thereby may be appointed and compensated under the General Law pertaining to appointment of deputies. Except as herein required or expressly authorized, the County Clerk shall not conduct absentee voting in any election. In all elections where some person other than the County Clerk or city secretary or city clerk conducts the absentee voting; the authority calling the election shall fix the compensation of such person and his deputies, if any, which shall be paid out of the same fund as other expenses of the election are paid. Employees of the authority calling the election or employees of any political subdivision of the State which is affected by the election, with the permission of its governing board, may be appointed to serve as clerk or deputy clerk for absentee voting without additional compensation.

Application for Ballot

Subd. 2. A voter desiring to vote absentee shall make written application for an official ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence, which application shall be signed by the voter, or by a witness at the direction of the voter in the case of the latter's inability to make such application because of physical disability. The application shall state the ground on which the applicant is entitled to vote absentee, and in case of an application by mail, it shall also state the additional information required by Subdivision 1 of this section. In case of an application to vote absentee by personal appearance, except where the voted ballot is to be placed in a carrier envelope, the application shall contain or have attached thereto an affidavit signed by the applicant, in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. _____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the _____ day of _____, 19____, and that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of the election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, expected absence from county, or religious belief).

_____
(Signature of Voter)

By: _____
(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

The application shall be accompanied by the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate of the voter, or in lieu thereof, his affidavit in writing that same has been lost or mislaid or has been used for applying for an absentee ballot in another election (stating the nature and date of the election) and has not been returned to him. If the ground of application is sickness or physical disability by reason of which the voter cannot appear at the polling place on election day, a certificate of a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner certifying to such sickness or physical disability shall accompany the application, which certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

This is to certify that I have personal knowledge of the physical condition of _____, and that because of sickness or physical disability he (she) will be unable to appear at the polling place for an election to be held on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

Witness my hand at _____, Texas, this _____ day of _____, 19____.

_____

Expected or likely confinement for childbirth on election day shall be sufficient to entitle a voter to vote absentee on the ground of sickness or physical disability, and a physician executing a certificate for a pregnant woman may state in the certificate that because of pregnancy and possible delivery she will be or may be unable to appear at the polling place on election day.

Any person who requests a physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner to execute a certificate for another person without having been directed by such other person to do so, and any physician, chiropractor, or Christian Science practitioner who knowingly executes a certificate except upon the request of the voter named therein or upon request of someone at the voter's direction, or who knowingly delivers a certificate except by delivering it to the voter in person or by mailing it to the voter at his permanent residence address or the address at which he is temporarily living, or who knowingly falsifies a certificate, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned.

Absentee Voting by Members of the Armed Forces, Etc.

Subd. 2a. (a) Notwithstanding any provision of Subdivision 1 or Subdivision 2 of this section, any qualified voter within any of the following categories shall be entitled to vote absentee by mail upon making a sworn application by mail for an absentee ballot on an official federal post card application for absentee ballot, and no further statement of his eligibility to vote absentee by mail shall be required of him, provided the application is mailed from outside the county and the ballot is to be mailed to an official address outside the county:

(1) a member of the armed forces of the United States while in the active service, his spouse and dependents;

(2) a member of the merchant marine of the United States, his spouse and dependents; and

(3) a citizen of the United States domiciled in this state but temporarily living outside the territorial limits of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(b) Application for an absentee ballot made on a federal post card application form by a voter coming within either of the categories listed in Paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not be subject to the provisions of Paragraph (ii) of Subdivision 1 of this section which requires that the application be made not more than 60 days before the day of the election; and an application received at any time within either the calendar year or the voting year during which the election is held shall be accepted. The voter may apply on one application form for a ballot for more than one election. Every application for a primary election ballot shall be treated as an application for both the first primary election and the second primary election of the political party indicated on the application. If the application does not indicate the election or elections for which application is made, the clerk shall treat it as an application for each general election for which he will conduct the absentee voting during that calendar year, and in the case of an application made to a county clerk, he shall also treat it as an application for both the first and the second primary election of the political party indicated if a party preference is indicated on the application.

(c) The applicant need not be registered as a voter, and, if registered, he need not accompany his application with his voter registration certificate or an affidavit of its loss. Before mailing a ballot in response to an application, the clerk shall ascertain whether the applicant's name is listed on the current list of registered voters for the precinct of his residence, and if it is not so listed, the application shall also be treated as an application for registration for all elections for which the applicant is applying for an absentee ballot.

(d) If the applicant is not currently registered through the registrar of voters, the clerk shall examine the information on the federal post card application, and if it shows that the applicant possesses the qualifications for voting at that election in the precinct of his residence, the clerk shall enter his name on a list headed "Absentee voters registering by FPCA for the _____ election held on _____" and shall also enter thereon the voter's local permanent address and election precinct number, the address to which the ballot is mailed, and the date on which it is mailed. The list shall be made up in duplicate and shall be kept up from day to day. One copy shall be posted in the clerk's office, which shall serve to fulfill the requirement of Subdivision 11 of this section. After the election is held, this copy shall be filed as a record of the clerk's office if the clerk conducting the absentee voting is a county clerk or a city secretary or city clerk, and as a record of the authority which appointed the clerk for absentee voting in other instances, to be preserved for a period of two years, after which it may be destroyed. The other copy shall be placed with the records of the election which are delivered into the custody of the officer designated in Paragraph (a)(2) of Section 111b of this code,<sup>1</sup> to be subject to the same regulations as those records.

(e) The clerk shall mail a ballot and the other balloting supplies to each voter in an envelope endorsed "Official Election Balloting Material—via Air Mail" or similar language, with the words "Free of U. S. Postage, Including Air Mail" printed in a box in the upper right corner of the envelope, in conformity with the specifications contained in the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955, as amended.<sup>2</sup> The carrier envelope included in the balloting supplies mailed to the voter shall be similarly endorsed. The secretary of state shall prescribe forms and furnish instructions for the preparation of envelopes to comply with these provisions.

(f) The names of regularly registered voters who apply for absentee ballots on federal post card application forms shall be included on the lists of absentee voters which the clerk sends to the presiding judges of the election, but the names of absentee voters who register under this subdivision shall not be sent to the presiding judges.

(g) Oaths and affirmations required for application for and the voting and returning of absentee ballots by voters using the federal post card application forms may be administered and attested by any commissioned officer in the active service of the armed forces or by any civilian official empowered by state or federal law to administer oaths.

(h) Words and phrases used in this subdivision shall be construed to have meanings in harmony with the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955, as amended.

Ballots for Absentee Voting

Subd. 2b. Before the beginning of the period for absentee voting, the authority charged with the duty of furnishing the supplies for the election shall furnish to the clerk a supply of official ballots for use in absentee voting. Before mailing or delivering a ballot to a voter, the clerk shall cause his signature to be placed on the back of the ballot. The absentee ballots may be signed by the clerk in his own handwriting, or they may be stamped with a facsimile of his signature by the clerk or by a deputy under his direction. Where a stamp is used, the clerk shall take the necessary precaution to see that the stamp is properly safeguarded at all times so that no unauthorized use may be made of it.

Comparison of Signatures

Subd. 2c. Before furnishing a ballot to an absentee voter who presents his registration certificate with his application, the clerk shall compare the signature on the application with the signature on the certificate. If he finds that the signatures do not correspond, he shall not furnish a ballot to the voter unless the voter complies with the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this code<sup>1</sup> for acceptance of a challenged voter. In each instance, both on applications made by mail as well as those made by personal appearance, the clerk shall inform the voter of the ground of the challenge and the procedure necessary to enable the voter to obtain a ballot. Where application is by mail, the clerk shall mail a notice to the voter on the same day that the comparison is made.

Certificate of Permanent Disability

Subd. 2d. (a) A voter having an ailment or physical disability which renders him permanently unable to appear at the polling place is not required to accompany his application for an absentee ballot with the certificate of sickness or physical disability referred to in Subdivision 2 of this section if he files a certificate of permanent disability with the registrar of voters as provided in this subdivision. A certificate of permanent disability must be signed by a duly licensed physician or chiropractor or accredited Christian Science practitioner and must certify that the person signing it has personal knowledge of the voter's physical condition; that the voter has an ailment or physical disability of a continuing nature which renders him unable to appear at the polling place for voting; or that the voter is in continuous residence at a duly licensed nursing or custodial home because of sickness or physical disability; and that it is the signer's opinion that the voter will be permanently unable to appear at the polling place for any election held in the future. The criminal penalties stated in Subdivision 2 of this section in regard to certificates of sickness or physical disability executed under that subdivision also apply to certificates of permanent disability executed under this subdivision.

(b) A certificate of permanent disability which complies with the requirements of this subdivision becomes effective for absentee voting in all elections held on or after the 31st day after the date on which the registrar receives it.

(c) When the registrar receives a certificate of permanent disability which complies with the requirements of this subdivision, he shall take the necessary steps to have the notation of permanent disability added on the list of registered voters, as provided in Paragraph (e) of this subdivision, and shall then attach the certificate to the voter's application for registration.

(d) If, after filing a certificate of permanent disability, a voter later becomes able to appear at the polling place, it is his duty to notify the registrar to that effect, whereupon the registrar shall cancel the certificate. The registrar shall investigate any report or any information furnished to him which indicates that a voter who has filed a certificate of permanent disability is presently able to appear at the polling place, and if he has reason to believe that this is true, he shall notify the voter by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, that the voter's status as a permanently disabled absentee voter will be cancelled unless he furnishes the registrar with a new certificate of permanent disability within 60 days after the date of the notice. The registrar shall cancel the certificate if the voter does not comply.

(e) Whenever the registrar makes up a list of registered voters under the provisions of Section 51a of this code,<sup>1</sup> he shall mark the name of each voter who has on file a currently active certificate of permanent disability in a manner to indicate that status. This may be done by placing a symbol by the voter's name with an appropriate explanatory footnote in the words "certificate of permanent disability for absentee voting is on file" or words of similar import, or in any other manner which is approved by the Secretary of State. Also, at the time the registrar prepares any supplemental list of registered voters which will be used in the conduct of absentee voting for an election, he shall make up and furnish to the absentee voting clerk a list of voters, arranged alphabetically by election precinct, who have filed certificates of permanent disability since preparation of the original lists of registered voters for the current voting year and who are not shown to be in that status on the original or supplemental list on which the voter's name appears. The registrar shall also prepare for the absentee voting clerk lists of voters whose certificates of permanent disability have been cancelled since preparations of the list of registered voters on which the voter's name appears.

(f) The Secretary of State shall prescribe a form for the certificate of permanent disability, and each registrar of voters shall keep a supply of the forms on hand. However, a certificate in any other form is also acceptable if it satisfies the requirements of Paragraph (a) of this subdivision.

(g) The instructions on the blank application form which the absentee voting clerk furnishes to voters who wish to apply for an absentee mail ballot shall carry the information that a certificate of sickness or disability need not accompany the application of a permanently disabled voter who has filed a certificate of permanent disability with the registrar of voters more than 30 days before the election for which he is applying for a ballot. The form shall contain a space for the voter to so indicate if he is applying as a permanently disabled voter who has filed the certificate.

Period for Voting by Personal Appearance

Subd. 3. (a) The period for absentee voting by personal appearance shall begin on the twentieth day and shall continue through the fourth day preceding the date of the election; provided, however, that when the twentieth day falls on a day which is not a regular working day for the clerk's office, the absentee voting by personal appearance shall begin on the next succeeding regular working day. Except as authorized in Subdivision 3d of this section, the clerk shall not permit anyone to vote absentee by personal appearance on any day which is not a regular working day for the clerk's office, and under no circumstances shall he permit anyone to vote absentee by personal appearance at any time when his office is not open to the public.

(b) At any time within the period for absentee voting, a voter who is eligible to vote absentee may do so by making his personal appearance before the county clerk of the county of his residence at the office of the clerk and delivering to such clerk his application aforesaid.

(c) Watchers, as provided for in Sections 19, 20, and 21 of this Code,<sup>1</sup> may be appointed to observe the conduct of absentee voting in the clerk's office. An appointing authority may appoint different watchers to serve on different days of the absentee voting period. The certificate of appointment need not designate the specific dates on which each watcher will serve, and all of them may be appointed for the entire period, but the total number of watchers appointed by the same authority under Section 19, or appointed upon the same petition under Section 20, shall not exceed seven, of which number not more than two shall be on duty at the same time.

Voting by Personal Appearance in County-wide Elections

Subd. 3a. In a county-wide election, or in an election less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee voting by personal appearance shall be conducted on a voting machine or that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, if the clerk is satisfied as to the right of the applicant to vote, the clerk shall place a notation on the list of qualified voters showing that the particular person has voted absentee and shall enter the voter's name on a poll list of absentee voters. He shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that the voter has voted absentee in the election, shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall return the receipt or certificate to the voter. The application shall be preserved in the clerk's office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots.

In the conduct of absentee voting under this subdivision, the clerk shall possess the same power as a presiding judge with respect to examination and acceptance of a voter. If the right of an applicant to vote is challenged, the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this Code<sup>1</sup> shall be followed.

Where paper ballots are used for absentee voting, after a voter has been accepted, the clerk shall furnish the voter with an official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election. The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark his ballot and detach and sign the ballot stub, and shall deposit the ballot in a ballot box and the stub in a stub box in the manner provided in Section 97 of this Code.<sup>2</sup> The ballots shall be deposited in a ballot box locked with two locks, the keys of one of which shall be kept during the period for absentee voting by the sheriff and the keys of the other by the county clerk. The stubs shall be deposited in a stub box prepared in accordance with Section 97 of this Code.

Where a voting machine is used for absentee voting by personal appearance, after a voter has been accepted, he shall then be permitted to cast his ballot on the voting machine. Returns of absentee votes cast on a voting machine shall be made under the appropriate provision of Section 79 of this Code.<sup>3</sup>

Voting by Personal Appearance in Election less than County-wide

Subd. 3b. In an election less than county-wide in which absentee paper ballots are to be sent to the regular polling places for counting, upon receipt of an application of an absentee ballot to be voted by personal appearance, the clerk shall thereupon furnish to the voter the following absentee voting supplies:

(1) One official ballot which has been prepared in accordance with law for use in such election.

(2) One ballot envelope, which shall be a plain envelope, without any markings except the words "Ballot Envelope" printed on the face thereof, followed by the instructions contained in this subdivision and Subdivision 4 for marking the ballot, for placing it in the carrier envelope, and for returning a ballot to be voted by mail, together with a statement of the deadline for placing the ballot in the mail and for delivery to the clerk's office in that election.

(3) One carrier envelope, upon the face of which there shall appear the words "Carrier Envelope for Absentee Ballot" and the name, official title, and post-office address of the county clerk, and upon the other side a printed affidavit in substantially the following form:

I, _____, do solemnly swear that I am a resident of Precinct No. _____, in _____ County, and am lawfully entitled to vote at the _____ election to be held in said precinct on the _____ day of _____, 19____; that I am prevented from appearing at the polling place in said precinct on the date of such election because of _____ (voter to signify sickness, physical disability, expected absence from county, or religious belief); that the enclosed ballot expresses my wishes, independent of any dictation or undue persuasion of any person; and that I did not use any memorandum or device to aid me in the marking of said ballot.

_____
(Signature of voter)

By: _____
(Signature of witness who assisted voter in event of physical disability)

The voter shall then and there, in the office of the clerk, mark the ballot in the presence of the clerk, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign and swear to the affidavit on the carrier envelope, and deliver the carrier envelope to the clerk, who shall certify to the affidavit. The clerk shall, when requested, also take any other affidavits for a voter which are required by this Code, for which service no fee shall be charged. The clerk shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that he has voted absentee in the election, shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall return the receipt or certificate to the voter.

Voting on Election Day by Disabled Voter in Voting Machine Counties

Subd. 3c. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply only to county-wide elections and to elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, and shall apply only to voters residing in election precincts in which voting at the regular polling place on election day is being conducted by use of a voting machine or machines. Under these stated conditions, a voter may vote as herein provided if he is ill or disabled and thus cannot, without injury to his health or without personal assistance, cast his vote in the regular manner. A voter complying with these requirements may be voted in an ambulance or other conveyance at the entrance to the place in which absentee voting by mail was conducted for the election, between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 2:00 p. m. on the day of the election, by the clerk who conducted the absentee voting for the election, using an absentee-by-mail ballot. Poll watchers appointed to observe absentee voting for the election shall be entitled to be present at the voting. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the voting procedure shall be the same as for absentee voting by personal appearance in the clerk's office under the provisions of Subdivision 3b of this Section.

The application to vote under the provisions of this subdivision shall be in the form of an affidavit substantially as follows:

"AFFIDAVIT FOR VOTING AT ABSENTEE VOTING PLACE ON ELECTION DAY

"I, the undersigned, do solemnly swear that:

- (a) My name is _____.
- (b) My home address is _____.
- (c) I am a voter in Precinct _____.
- (d) My current poll tax receipt or exemption certificate number is _____.
- (e) I am ill or disabled and thus cannot, without injury to my health or without personal assistance, cast my vote in the regular manner, and I have not previously voted in the election being held today.

Date _____ (Signature of voter)

(Jurat of officer administering the oath.)"

The voter shall not be required to fill out the affidavit on the carrier envelope. The clerk shall place the application and the carrier envelope containing the voted ballot into a jacket envelope and shall deliver the jacket envelope to the special canvassing board for counting absentee ballots. Thereafter, the ballot shall be handled in the same manner as an absentee ballot voted by mail, with such modifications as are necessary to fit the circumstances.

Voting Absentee in Person on Last Saturday and Sunday of the Absentee Voting Period before an Election

Subd. 3d. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary written elsewhere in this Code, absentee voting in person may be conducted in the office of the County Clerk or city secretary or clerk between 2:00 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. on the last Saturday, Sunday, or Saturday and Sunday of the absentee voting period before any general, special, or primary election for which such officer is required to conduct the absentee voting under the provisions of Paragraph (2), (4), or (5) of Subdivision 1a of this Section. The officer conducting the absentee voting shall have the authority to decide whether to keep his office open during any or all of the hours herein permitted; provided, however, that if he keeps his office open during any of these hours, he shall give notice of such hours during which voting will be conducted by posting a notice at each entrance to his office at least ten days before said Saturday or Sunday.

The foregoing provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to any elections other than those stated in the first paragraph. However, nothing in this subdivision or in Subdivision 1a or Subdivision 3 of this Code shall prevent the authority calling any other type of election from requiring the clerk appointed to conduct the absentee voting to keep his office open during the hours stated in the first paragraph of this subdivision.

Voting by Mail

Subd. 4. The period for absentee voting by mail shall begin on the twentieth day preceding the date of the election. An application for an absentee ballot to be voted by mail must be received in the clerk's office not later than the close of business on the fourth day preceding election day. In county-wide elections and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, the marked ballot must be mailed back to the clerk in an envelope postmarked not later than midnight of the day preceding election day, and must be received in the clerk's office before one o'clock p. m. on election day. In all other elections which are less than county-wide, the marked ballot must be mailed back to the clerk in an envelope postmarked not later than midnight of the third day preceding election day and must be received in the clerk's office before ten o'clock a. m. on the second day preceding election day. The ballot may be marked by the voter at any time after he receives it and prior to the deadline for placing the marked ballot in the mail.

On the twentieth day preceding election day, or as soon thereafter as possible, the clerk shall mail an official ballot, ballot envelope, and carrier envelope, as described in Subdivision 3b of this section, to each voter who has theretofore made application for a ballot in compliance with this section. On applications which are received between the twentieth day and the fourth day preceding election day, the clerk shall forthwith mail the absentee voting supplies to the voter.

The voter shall mark the ballot before a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths, sign his name on the back of the ballot stub, detach the stub from the ballot, fold the ballot, and place it in the envelope marked "Ballot Envelope" and seal the same. The voter shall then place the stub and the ballot envelope in the carrier envelope, seal the same and sign and swear to the affidavit on the carrier envelope, which shall be certified by the notary public or other officer before whom the ballot is marked. The carrier envelope shall then be mailed, postage prepaid, to the county clerk.

As soon as practicable after receipt of the carrier envelope containing the marked ballot, the clerk shall make a notation on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate that he has voted absentee in the election (or that the ballot was received after the deadline for returning ballots, in the case of late ballots), shall note the number of the receipt or certificate on the application, and shall mail the receipt or certificate to the voter at the address given in the application for returning the receipt or certificate to the voter, or if no such address is given, to the voter's permanent address.

Period for Absentee Voting in Special Run-off Elections Held for Members of the Legislature

Subd. 4a. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this Article, absentee voting in special run-off election held for the election of Members of the Legislature begins on the 10th day preceding the date of the election, and the period for absentee voting by mail in such election begins not later than the 10th day preceding the date of the election. Ballots to be voted by mail may be mailed to voters and may be marked and mailed back to the clerk before the 10th day, if the ballots are available before that date. In all other respects the procedure for absentee voting in the special run-off election is the same as in other elections.

Period for Absentee Voting in Second Primary

Subd. 4b. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this Section, the period for absentee voting by personal appearance in each second (runoff) primary election held under the provisions of Section 181 of this Code<sup>1</sup> shall begin on the tenth day preceding the date of the election, and the period for absentee voting by mail in such election shall begin not later than the tenth day preceding the date of the election. Ballots to be voted by mail may be mailed to voters and may be marked and mailed back to the clerk before the tenth day, if the ballots are available before that date. In all other respects the procedure for absentee voting in the second primary shall be the same as in other elections.

Period for Absentee Voting in Certain other Elections

Subd. 4c. Whenever any election is lawfully called for a date which does not permit the full period for absentee voting, the voting shall begin as soon as possible after the ballots become available, provided, however, that the voting shall begin not later than the tenth day before the election.

Voting Upon Return to County after Applying for Absentee Ballot by Mail

Subd. 4d. If a voter to whom an absentee ballot has been mailed returns to the county of his residence before receiving or returning the ballot and will be present in the county on the day of the election, he may vote on election day at the regular polling place in the precinct of his residence after notifying the clerk in writing to void his application for an absentee ballot. Upon receiving the notification, the clerk shall remove his name from the list of absentee voters. If the voter will not be present in the county on the day of the election, he may vote an absentee ballot by personal appearance in the clerk's office at any time during the period for absentee voting by personal appearance after notifying the clerk to void his application for an absentee ballot by mail. The clerk shall make the necessary notations on his records to insure that the absentee ballot mailed to the voter will not be counted if it is returned to his office.

Period for Mailing Ballot to Voter Outside the United States, Etc.

Subd. 4e. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivision 4 of this section, the clerk shall mail a ballot to an absentee voter as soon as possible after the ballots become available, but not earlier than 30 days before the election, if the ballot is to be mailed to one of the following: (1) an address outside the United States; (2) an address in the United States for forwarding to the voter at a location outside the United States; (3) an Army Post Office (APO) or a Fleet Post Office (FPO) address; or (4) an address in the United States for delivery or forwarding to a member of the merchant marine. If, after an absentee ballot is mailed to a voter, any change is made in the official ballot due to the death of a candidate or for any other reason except to correct an error, the clerk shall not mail another ballot to the voter, and the votes cast for that office on ballots mailed before the change is made shall not be counted.

Delivery of Ballots to Election Judges; Late Ballots

Subd. 5. Upon receipt of a ballot sealed in a carrier envelope, including those ballots which have been marked in the clerk's office and those which have been returned by mail, the clerk shall keep the same unopened and shall deliver it to the proper canvassing board or election judge as hereinafter provided. Prior to delivering the carrier envelope the clerk shall enclose the same together with the voter's application and accompanying papers, including the envelope in which any application by mail was received, in a larger jacket envelope.

Ballots not received back by the clerk before the deadline for returning ballots as stated in Subdivision 4 shall not be delivered to the judges and shall not be voted. The unopened carrier envelopes containing late ballots and the corresponding applications shall remain in the custody of the clerk for the period during which a contest of the election may be filed, and shall then be destroyed if no contest arose.

Counting of Ballots in County-wide Elections

Subd. 6. (a) In all county-wide elections, and in elections less than county-wide where the authority holding the election has provided that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, on the day of the election the ballot box and stub box used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the keys to the ballot box, the jacket envelopes containing the ballots voted by mail and accompanying papers, the poll list for absentee voting on which the clerk has entered the names of persons voting by personal appearance, and the list of registered voters used by the county clerk, shall be delivered to a special canvassing board consisting of a presiding judge and two or more election clerks appointed in the same manner as provided for appointment of the election officers for regular polling places at that election. The county clerk shall deliver the ballots to the canvassing board at such hour as the presiding judge shall direct, but not earlier than the hour at which the polls are opened and not later than one o'clock p. m. If delivered before one o'clock p. m., the clerk shall deliver in like manner to the board, at one o'clock p. m., all ballots received by mail before one o'clock p. m. of the day of the election which have not previously been delivered to the board.

(b) This special canvassing board shall open the jacket envelopes, announce the voter's name and ascertain in each case if he is qualified to vote at that election and if he has complied with all applicable provisions of this section to entitle his ballot to be cast. The board shall compare the signatures on the application and upon the affidavit on the carrier envelope, and in case the board finds that the signatures correspond, that the application and the affidavit are duly executed, that the voter is a qualified elector, and that he has voted in a manner authorized in this section, they shall enter his name on the official poll list (on which voters voting by mail shall be listed separately from those who have voted by personal appearance) and shall open the carrier envelope so as not to deface the affidavit thereon, and shall place the sealed ballot envelope in the ballot box and the stub in the stub box. The carrier envelope, application and accompanying papers shall be replaced in the jacket envelope and returned to the county clerk at the same time the voted ballots are returned, and shall be preserved for the length of time provided by law for the preservation of the voted ballots.

(c) If the ballot be challenged by an election officer, watcher, or other person, the grounds of challenge shall be heard and decided according to law, including the consideration of any affidavits submitted in support of or against such challenge. If the ballot be not admitted, there shall be endorsed on the face of the carrier envelope and the jacket envelope the word "rejected." The carrier envelopes containing rejected ballots shall be enclosed, securely sealed, in an envelope on which the words "rejected absentee ballots" have been written, together with a statement of the nature and date of the election, signed by the presiding judge, and shall be returned and preserved in the same manner as provided for return and preservation of official ballots voted at the election. The corresponding jacket envelopes containing the applications and accompanying papers shall also be returned to the clerk, and preserved for the length of time provided by law for preservation of the voted ballots.

(d) At such time as the presiding judge shall direct, the election officers whose duty it is to count the ballots shall open the absentee ballot box, remove the ballots from the sealed ballot envelopes, and proceed to count and make out returns of all ballots cast absentee, including the ballots voted by personal appearance, in the same way as is done at a regular polling place. The ballot envelopes for the ballots voted by mail may be discarded or destroyed.

(e) The special canvassing board, watchers, and all others connected with the conduct of absentee voting shall be subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this code<sup>1</sup> with respect to revealing information as to the results of the election.

(f) The special canvassing board shall possess the same qualifications, be subject to the same laws and penalties, and be paid the same wage as regular election judges; provided, however, that each member may be paid an amount not to exceed the compensation payable for ten hours of work if the time spent by the board in performing its duties is less than ten hours. Watchers may be appointed as for regular polling places.

Counting of Ballots in Elections less than County-wide

Subd. 7. In all elections which are less than county-wide, the authority holding the election may provide, by proper resolution, that the absentee ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board, in which event the procedure set out in Subdivision 6 of this section shall be followed. If the authority holding the election does not so provide, the clerk shall keep the carrier envelopes received by him until the second day prior to the election and shall then mail or deliver them as provided in Subdivision 8 of this section, and the ballots shall be counted as provided in Subdivision 9.

Delivery of Ballots in Elections less than County-wide

Subd. 8. Upon the second day prior to the election, the clerk shall enclose each carrier envelope received by him before ten o'clock a. m. of that day, together with the voter's application and accompanying papers, in a larger jacket envelope, which shall be securely sealed and endorsed with the name and official title of such clerk, and the words "This envelope contains an absentee ballot and must be opened only at the polls on election day," and the clerk shall forthwith mail same, or deliver it in person, to the presiding judge of the election in the precinct of the voter's residence.

Opening of Ballots in Elections less than County-wide

Subd. 9. On the day of such election the absentee votes cast in elections less than county-wide shall be opened by the election judges of the precinct holding said election in accordance with the provisions set out in Subdivision 6 above. Except as herein provided wherever applicable the provision set out in this Code for the regulation and carrying on of State-wide elections shall apply to elections less than county-wide.

Deceased Voter

Subd. 10. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the canvassing board that any elector whose ballot has been marked and forwarded as hereinbefore provided, has since died, then the ballot of such deceased voter shall not be counted; provided however, the casting of the ballot of a deceased voter shall not invalidate the election.

Posting List of Absentee Voters; Inspection of Applications, Etc.

Subd. 11. The county clerk shall post at a conspicuous place in his main office, and each other clerk for absentee voting designated in accordance with Subdivision 1a of this Section shall post at a conspicuous place in his office, for public inspection, a complete list of those to whom ballots have been delivered or sent out under this section, stating thereon the elector's name, address, precinct of residence and voter registration certificate number, and the date on which the ballot was delivered or mailed, which list shall be kept up from day to day. The applications and accompanying papers shall also be open to public inspection at regular office hours, but under such reasonable rules and regulations as the county clerk may adopt to safeguard the same and to reasonably economize his own time while they are in his keeping. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to deliver before the opening of the polls to each presiding judge, in person or by mail, the names of those who have voted absentee or made application to vote absentee for that election for that precinct.

Deputies Acting for County Clerk

Subd. 12. Any of the duties by this Section [this article] committed to the county clerk may be performed at the county clerk's office by one (1) or more deputies specially designated in writing by the county clerk to act in connection with the election stated in the appointment.

Applicability of Penal Code to County Clerks, Etc.

Subd. 13. The county clerks, their deputies and officers acting under this Section shall be considered as judges or officers of election within the scope of Articles 215 to 231, inclusive, of the Penal Code of Texas, and all amendments hereto,<sup>1</sup> and be punishable as in said Articles respectively, provided in the case of judges or officers of election.

Branch Offices for Absentee Voting by Personal Appearance

Subd. 14. (a) Absentee voting by personal appearance shall be conducted at each branch office of the county clerk which is regularly maintained for the performance of general clerical duties, during the full period of time for which absentee voting by personal appearance is conducted at the main office.

(b) Upon authorization of the commissioners court in elections in which the county clerk conducts the absentee voting, and upon authorization of the governing body of the political subdivision holding the election in all other elections, the clerk for absentee voting shall maintain such temporary branch offices for conducting absentee voting by personal appearance as the governing body authorizes, and shall station one or more deputies at each branch office to conduct the voting. A branch office which is established in a city having more than 4,000 inhabitants who reside within the county or other political subdivision for which the absentee voting is conducted shall be kept open during the full period for absentee voting by personal appearance and during the regular working hours for the clerk at his main office. A schedule of the days and hours during which any branch office outside a city of more than 4,000 inhabitants will be open shall be prepared by the clerk and approved by the governing body. Not later than the 10th day before the beginning of the absentee voting period, the clerk shall make up and post in his main office a full schedule of the approved locations of all branch offices and the days and hours on which each office will be open, and shall make copies of the schedule available to all interested persons from that date forward until the close of the absentee voting period. Vehicles such as trucks, house trailers, campers, and other suitable movable structures may be used as temporary branch offices.

(c) Any voter eligible to vote absentee by personal appearance in the main office of the clerk may vote in any branch office. The deputy clerk in charge of absentee voting at each branch office shall transmit to the clerk at the close of each day of absentee voting the names of all persons who have voted absentee in the branch office on that day, together with other necessary information as provided in Subdivision 11, for inclusion on the list of absentee voters posted in the main office. During the period for absentee voting by personal appearance, the applications and ballots of persons who have voted absentee may be retained in the branch office or may be delivered to the main office from time to time, but all applications and ballots shall be delivered to the main office not later than one o'clock p. m. on the third day prior to election day. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, the voting in a branch office shall be subject to the same regulations as the voting in the main office.

Branch Offices for Absentee Voting by Personal Appearance in Counties having a Population of more than 1,500,000

Subd. 14a. (a) Upon authorization of the Commissioners Court of a county having a population of more than 1,500,000, the county clerk of such county shall conduct absentee voting by personal appearance at a suitable location in each justice precinct in the county in elections in which the county clerk is the officer for conducting the absentee voting. This subdivision does not apply to elections in which the absentee voting is conducted by any officer other than the county clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subdivision 14 of this section, if suboffices are established under this Subdivision 14-a, the county clerk shall not conduct absentee voting at any location other than his main office and the suboffices authorized by this subdivision. Such voting in each election suboffice shall be for the full period of time, and for the same hours, for which absentee voting is conducted at the main office.

(b) Any voter who is eligible to vote absentee by personal appearance in the main office of the county clerk shall be eligible to vote absentee by personal appearance either in the main office of the county clerk or in the election suboffice of the county clerk in the justice precinct in which is located the election precinct of the voter's residence.

(c) The list of voters who vote absentee in each election suboffice each day shall be posted the next day both in the election suboffice in which the voter voted and in the main office, with the list of each election suboffice being posted in the main office separate and apart from the lists of the other election suboffices. Each such list of voters shall be compiled in accordance with statutory requirements.

(d) All applications and all records of persons who have voted absentee both in all election suboffices and in the main office each day shall be available for public inspection the next day in the main office.

(e) Except as otherwise provided herein, the voting in each election suboffice shall be subject to the same statutes, rules, and regulations as the voting in the main office.

Assistance to Voter; Use of English Language

Subd. 15. If a voter is unable to sign his name because of illiteracy, any signature of the voter required by this section shall be made by the voter's affixing his mark, attested by two witnesses, but no voter shall be entitled to any assistance in the marking of his ballot on the ground of illiteracy.

No assistance shall be given a voter in marking his absentee ballot except where the voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity, such as renders him physically unable to write or to see. If the voter is entitled to assistance, he may be assisted by the clerk, notary public, or other officer before whom the ballot is marked, or by some other person, acting as the witness to assist the voter in event of physical disability, but the person assisting the voter shall not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote, and shall confine his assistance to answering the voter's questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming the candidates and the political parties to which they belong, and he shall prepare the ballot as the voter himself shall direct. Where any assistance is rendered in marking an absentee ballot other than as allowed in this subdivision, the ballot shall not be counted but shall be void for all purposes.

In absentee voting by personal appearance at the clerk's office, any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the clerk in some other language, and if the clerk is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the county. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the clerk: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by the clerk and each question, answer, or statement addressed to the clerk by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by the clerk, any watcher present shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in some other language.

Subd. 16. Renumbered subdivision 4b by Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 1552, ch. 678, § 9, eff. June 18, 1965.

Allocation of Absentee Votes for Determining Precinct Representation in County Conventions

Subd. 17. The county clerk shall preserve on file in his office for a period of two years a copy of the precinct lists of absentee voters and persons voting a limited ballot under Section 37c of this code<sup>1</sup> prepared in accordance with Subdivision 11 of this section and Section 37d of this code,<sup>2</sup> for each biennial general election for state and county officers. For the purpose of computing the number of delegates to which each election precinct is entitled in the county convention of a political party whose conventions are governed by Section 212 of this code,<sup>3</sup> there shall be added to the number of votes cast for the party's candidate for Governor, as shown on the election return for that precinct, a percentage of the votes cast by residents of that precinct by absentee ballot and limited ballot, using the number of voters shown on the aforesaid precinct lists as the basis of allocation, which percentage shall be the same as the percentage which the party's candidate for Governor received of the total votes for Governor cast at the precinct polling place, as shown on the return for that precinct. If the total number of votes actually counted by the absentee canvassing board differs from the number of votes shown on the precinct lists, the number on the precinct lists nevertheless shall be used as the basis of allocation under this subdivision.

Electioneering near Absentee Voting Place

Subd. 18. During the hours that the clerk's office is open while absentee voting is in progress, the clerk shall prevent electioneering within the room or designated place where the absentee voting is being conducted and in any corridor of the same building, within thirty feet of the entrance to such room or place. During the period for absentee voting, he shall keep posted at the entrance to such room or place a sign on which shall be printed in large letters the words, "Place for Absentee Voting," and he shall keep posted in each corridor at a distance of thirty feet from the entrance a distance marker on which shall be printed in large letters the words, "Distance marker for absentee voting. No electioneering between this point and the entrance to the place for absentee voting." Any person who electioneers within the room or place for absentee voting or in any corridor within thirty feet of the entrance, during the period for absentee voting and while the clerk's office is open, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 5.05a. Voting by New Residents of State in Presidential Elections

New Residents Eligible to Vote

Subd. 1. A person who has been a resident of this state for more than sixty days but less than one year prior to the date of a presidential election shall be entitled to vote for presidential and vice presidential electors in such election, but for no other offices, if

(1) he was either a qualified elector in another state immediately prior to his removal to this state or would have been eligible to vote in such other state had he remained there until such election, and

(2) he otherwise possesses the substantive qualifications of an elector in this state, as defined in Section 34 of this code,<sup>1</sup> except the requirements of residence and registration, and

(3) he complies with the provisions of this section.

Application for Presidential Ballot

Subd. 2. A person desiring to qualify to vote for presidential and vice presidential electors under this section is not required to register under the general voter registration laws of this state, but between the 60th day and the 45th day preceding the election, both dates included, he shall register by making an application to the county clerk of the county of his residence at the main office of the clerk or at any regularly maintained general branch office, in the form of an affidavit executed in duplicate in the presence of the county clerk or a duly authorized deputy, in substantially the following form:

State of Texas }
 County of _____ }

I, _____, do solemnly swear that:

1. I am a citizen of the United States.
2. Before becoming a resident of this state, my legal residence was in the _____ precinct of the city of _____, county of _____, state of _____, and my local residence address was _____ street (post office address if no street address). I was a qualified elector in that state immediately prior to my removal to this state, or would have been eligible to vote in that state had I remained there until the next presidential election.
3. On the day of the next presidential election, I shall be at least 21 years of age. I have been a resident of Texas since _____, 19____, now residing at _____, street (post office address if no street address), in the city of _____, _____ County.
4. Pursuant to Section 37a (Article 5.05a) of the Texas Election Code, I am qualified to vote for President and Vice President at the election to be held November _____, 19____, and I hereby make application for a presidential and vice presidential ballot. I have not voted and will not vote otherwise than by this ballot at that election.

Signed _____
 (Applicant)

Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____, 19____.

Signed _____,
 County Clerk of _____ County
 By _____, Deputy

Proof of Qualification in State of Former Residence

Subd. 3. Subject to the provisions of Subdivision 4 of this section, upon receipt of an application, the county clerk shall immediately forward the duplicate of the application to the registrar of voters, or equivalent official, of the county and state of the applicant's former residence, together with a request for proof that the applicant was a qualified voter in the state of his former residence immediately prior to his removal to Texas, or that he would have been eligible to vote in that state at the forthcoming presidential election had he remained there until such election and complied with the state's legal requirements for voting. The request shall include a form of certificate of proof. The forms of request for proof and certificate of proof to be sent to the official of the applicant's former residence shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall also furnish to each county clerk in this state the necessary information as to the appropriate official in each of the other states to whom the request for proof should be sent.

Alternate Method of Proof

Subd. 4. If the applicant delivers to the county clerk an official voter registration certificate, voter identification card, or other similar document from the state of his former residence showing that he was registered as a voter in that state at the time of his removal therefrom, the county clerk shall not be required to obtain the certificate of proof required by Subdivision 3 of this section. The document evidencing the applicant's qualification in the state of his former residence shall be retained by the county clerk and attached to the application.

Notification of Acceptance of Application

Subd. 5. If from the certificate of proof required in Subdivision 3 or a document meeting the requirements of Subdivision 4, and from the information on the application it appears that the applicant satisfies the conditions of Subdivision 1 of this section, the county clerk shall notify the applicant, in writing, that satisfactory proof of eligibility has been received and that he is entitled to vote in person for the offices of President and Vice President not sooner than the fifteenth day nor later than the fourth day prior to the forthcoming presidential election.

Procedure for Voting

Subd. 6. Within the period specified in Subdivision 5, the applicant shall appear personally at the office of the county clerk or at a branch office for absentee voting and shall present his notification of eligibility, whereupon he shall be permitted to vote. The clerk may furnish the applicant with either a specially printed ballot on which no offices other than President and Vice President are printed, or he may use the regular official ballot from which all other offices and all propositions are stricken, or on which it is otherwise shown that the voter was not entitled to vote on such other offices and propositions, before the voter receives the ballot. If absentee voting is being conducted on a voting machine, the voter may be allowed to cast his vote for President and Vice President on a voting machine, on which all other races are locked out before the voter enters the machine. The procedure for absentee voting by personal appearance in a countywide election shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. The ballots and ballot stubs shall be deposited in the same boxes as the ballots and stubs of persons voting absentee by personal appearance, and the ballots shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the absentee ballots.

Notation on List of Applicants

Subd. 7. When an applicant has been permitted to vote, the clerk shall note the fact on the applicant's notification of eligibility and shall file it with his application. He shall also enter on the posted list of applicants, required by Section 37d of this code,<sup>2</sup> a notation of the fact that the applicant has voted, with the date on which he voted.

Definition of Word "State"

Subd. 8. As used in this section and Section 37b of this code,<sup>3</sup> the word "state" includes the District of Columbia.

Art. 5.05b. Voting by Former Residents of State in Presidential Elections

Former Residents Eligible to Vote

Subd. 1. A former resident of this state who has become a legal resident of another state of the United States may vote for presidential and vice presidential electors by absentee ballot in the county of his former residence if:

(1) on the day of the election he will not have resided in the state of his present residence a sufficient length of time to meet the residence requirements of that state for voting for presidential and vice presidential electors, and

(2) the period of time since he ceased to be a resident of this state is less than 24 months, and

(3) he otherwise possesses the substantive qualifications of an elector in this state, as defined in Section 34 of this code,<sup>1</sup> except the requirements of residence and registration, and

(4) at the time of his removal he was registered as a voter in this state, if he was then eligible to register, and

(5) he complies with the provisions of this section.

Application for Presidential Ballot

Subd. 2. A person desiring to vote under the provisions of this section shall register by making a written, sworn application to the county clerk of the county of his former residence for an absentee ballot for President and Vice President only, on a form to be prescribed by the Secretary of State and furnished by the county clerk. The application shall be made under the same rules as apply to regular absentee ballots, insofar as they can be made applicable and are not inconsistent with this section, except that it shall not be necessary that the application be accompanied by the applicant's voter registration certificate. However, if the application is not accompanied by a voter registration certificate which was current at the time of the applicant's removal from this state and the applicant was eligible to register at the time of his removal, the county clerk shall ascertain that the applicant's name was on the list of registered voters for the voting year in which he changed his residence before furnishing him with a ballot. If from the information contained on the application it appears that the applicant was not eligible to register as a voter at the time of his removal from this state but would have been eligible to register for the current voting year and to vote in the forthcoming presidential election if he had continued to reside in this state, no former registration shall be required of the applicant.

Secretary of State to Furnish Information

Subd. 3. The Secretary of State shall furnish to each county clerk in the state the necessary information to enable the county clerk to determine from such information and the information supplied by the applicant on his application form whether the applicant has resided in the state of his present residence a sufficient length of time to qualify to vote for presidential and vice presidential electors in that state.

Procedure for Voting

Subd. 4. Upon ascertaining that an applicant is entitled to vote under this section, the county clerk shall mail to him a ballot prepared in either of the manners specified in Subdivision 6 of Section 37a of this code,<sup>2</sup> together with a ballot envelope containing such markings and instructions as the Secretary of State prescribes, and a carrier envelope containing an appropriate affidavit, the form of which shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State, of the voter's eligibility to cast the ballot under this section. The procedure for absentee voting by mail shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. The ballots shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same form as the other absentee ballots.

Notices of Applications Received from Other States

Subd. 5. All notices of applications of former residents of this state to vote for presidential electors as new residents of the state of their present residence, which are received by any other state or county officer of Texas, shall be forwarded by such officer to the county clerk of the county of the applicant's former residence in Texas. The county clerk shall file each notice received by him from another state indicating that a former resident of this state has made application to vote at a presidential election in another state and shall maintain an alphabetical index thereof, for a period of six months after the election.

Art. 5.05c. Voting by Persons Having Less than Six Months' Residence in County

Persons Eligible to Vote

Subd. 1. A person who is a qualified elector as defined in Section 34 of this code<sup>1</sup> except for the requirement of six months' residence in the county immediately preceding the election shall nevertheless be entitled to vote on all offices, questions or propositions to be voted on by electors throughout the state, including electors for President and Vice President of the United States, for which the person would be eligible to vote if he fulfilled the county residence requirement. A person having less than six months' residence in the county, if otherwise eligible, shall be entitled to vote for any district office or at any other election of a district composed of territory situated in more than one county if he has resided in the district for the last six months preceding the election. Where a district consists of only a part of one county or where a part of a county is joined with territory situated in another county or counties to form a district, a person who has resided in the county for the last six months and is a resident of the district on the date of the election fulfills the local residence requirement for voting in a district election.

Registration; Transfer of Registration

Subd. 2. No person shall be eligible to vote under this section unless he is registered as a voter under the general voter registration laws of this state for the year in which the election is held or is eligible to vote under the special registration provisions applicable to persons entitled to use the federal post card application for absentee ballot. A voter who has changed the county of his residence since receiving his registration certificate need not comply with the provisions of this code on transfer of registration before being permitted to vote.

Application for Limited Ballot; Procedure for Voting

Subd. 3. A person having less than six months' residence in the county who is entitled to vote a limited ballot as stated in Subdivision 1 of this section shall be permitted to vote upon making a written, signed application for a limited ballot to the county clerk of the county of his residence at the time of the election, upon an official application form to be prescribed by the Secretary of State and furnished by the county clerk. The procedure for voting a limited ballot shall be similar to the procedure for absentee voting. If the voter meets the requirements of Section 37 of this code<sup>2</sup> for voting an absentee ballot by mail, he shall be permitted to vote the limited ballot by mail under the procedure for absentee voting by mail upon submitting both an application for a limited ballot and an application for an absentee ballot. Otherwise, he shall vote by personal appearance during the period for absentee voting by personal appearance and under the procedure for voting by personal appearance in county-wide elections insofar as it can be made applicable and is not inconsistent with this section. Ballots cast under this section shall be counted and return made thereof along with and on the same forms as the absentee ballots.

Ballot Form

Subd. 4. When paper ballots are used, the voter shall be furnished a regular official ballot for the election, from which all offices and propositions on which the voter is not entitled to vote have been stricken; and when a voting machine is used, all offices and propositions on which the voter is not entitled to vote shall be locked out before the voter is permitted to cast his ballot. When absentee voting by personal appearance is being conducted on a voting machine, the clerk may permit persons voting under this section by personal appearance to cast their ballots on the voting machine or he may furnish them with paper ballots, at his option.

Record of District Offices Voted On

Subd. 5. The Secretary of State shall furnish to each county clerk the necessary information on the composition of the various districts to enable the clerk to determine whether a person entitled to vote a limited ballot for statewide offices is also entitled to vote for any district offices. The clerk shall note on each voter's application a list of all district offices for which he is permitted to vote.

Art. 5.05d. General Provisions on Voting by Persons not Meeting Full Residence Requirements

Lists of Applicants to be Posted

Subd. 1. The county clerk shall post at a conspicuous place in his office, for public inspection, a complete list of persons who have applied for a ballot under Section 37a, 37b, or 37c of this code,<sup>1</sup> stating thereon the applicant's name, address, precinct of residence, the section of this code under which the application was made, and the date on which the ballot was delivered or mailed, which list shall be kept up from day to day. The names of persons applying for ballots under Section 37c shall be included on the precinct lists of absentee voters which the clerk furnishes to the presiding judges of the election, as provided in Subdivision 11 of Section 37 of this code.<sup>2</sup>

Preservation of Applications; Inspection

Subd. 2. Applications and accompanying papers received pursuant to Sections 37a, 37b, and 37c of this code shall be preserved in the clerk's office for the length of time provided by law for preservation of voted ballots and shall be open to public inspection under the same rules as apply to applications for absentee ballots.

Art. 5.06. Absentee Ballots

The ballot used in absentee voting, except where absentee voting is conducted on voting machines, shall be the stub ballot provided for elsewhere in this Code. If the name of the elector does not appear on the reverse side of the stub, an election judge shall write the name of the elector on the back of said stub, together with his own signature, before depositing same in the stub box. The stub box shall be delivered by the canvassers after the votes are counted to the district clerk, the ballot box to the county clerk and the returns to the proper official as provided by law for regular polling places.

Art. 5.07. To Vote in City Elections

All qualified electors of this State, as described in the two preceding Sections [Arts. 5.05, 5.06] who shall have resided for six (6) months immediately preceding an election within the limits of any city or incorporated town shall have a right to vote for mayor and all other elective officers; but in all elections to determine the expenditure of money or assumption of debt, or issuance of bonds, only those shall be qualified to vote who own taxable property in the city or town where such election is held and who have duly rendered the same for taxation; and all electors shall vote in the election precinct of their residence.

Art. 5.08. Rules for Determining Residence

(a) As used in this code, the word "residence" means domicile; i. e., one's home and fixed place of habitation to which he intends to return after any temporary absence.

(b) For the purpose of voting, residence shall be determined in accordance with the common law rules as enunciated by the courts of this state and the following statutory rules; but in case of a conflict, the statutory rules shall control.

(c) A person shall not be considered to have lost his residence by leaving his home to go to another place for temporary purposes only.

(d) A person shall not be considered to have gained a residence in any place to which he has come for temporary purposes only, without the intention of making such place his home.

(e) The residence of a single person; or of a married person permanently separated from his or her spouse, is considered to be where such person usually sleeps at night, but if it be a temporary establishment, or for a transient purpose, it shall not be so considered.

(f) For a married man not permanently separated from his wife, the place where his family lives shall be considered his residence, but if it be a temporary establishment for his family, or for transient purposes, it shall not be so considered.

(g) If a married man has his family living in one place and he does business in another, the former shall be considered his residence, but when a man has taken up his abode at any place with the intention of remaining there and making it his home, and his family refuses to reside with him, then such place shall be considered his residence.

(h) The residence of a married woman not permanently separated from her husband is considered to be the place where her husband has his residence, but a married woman not living in a household with her husband may establish a separate voting residence from that of her husband.

(i) The residence of one who is an officer or employee of the government of this state or of the United States shall be construed to be where his home was before he became such officer or employee unless he has become a bona fide resident of the place where he is in government service or of some other place. For the purpose of this section, teachers and other professional personnel employed in the public free school system of this state shall be considered to be employees of the government of this state.

(j) No person in the military service of the United States shall acquire a residence in this state while he is living on a military post in quarters which he is required to occupy. A person in military service who is permitted to choose his place of abode shall not be considered to have acquired a residence merely in consequence of his presence at the place where he lives while performing his military duties; and such person shall not be considered to have acquired a residence unless he intends to remain there and to make that place his home indefinitely, both during the remainder of his military service whenever military duties do not require his presence elsewhere, and after his military service is terminated.

(k) The residence of a student in a school, college, or university shall be construed to be where his home was before he became such student unless he has become a bona fide resident of the place where he is living while attending school or of some other place. A student shall not be considered to have acquired a residence at the place where he lives while attending school unless he intends to remain there and to make that place his home indefinitely after he ceases to be a student.

(l) The residence of an inmate of a public eleemosynary institution shall be construed to be where his home was before he became such inmate unless he has become a bona fide resident of the place where the institution is located or of some other place. No person who is an inmate of a prison or who is an involuntary inmate of any hospital or other eleemosynary institution shall acquire a residence, while he is an inmate, at the place where the institution is located.

(m) The residence of a person under 21 years of age who is not married or has not been married or has not had the disabilities of minority removed through a proceeding in a court of competent jurisdiction is at the place of residence of the parent or parents, or other person standing in loco parentis, having custody of the minor. The residence of a person under 21 years of age who is married or has been married or has been emancipated from the disabilities of minority by court order is determined in accordance with the rules applying to persons of full age.

Art. 5.09a. Registrar of Voters

The county tax assessor-collector of each county in this State shall be the registrar of voters in that county; and as used in this Code, the term "registrar of voters" or "registrar" means the county tax assessor-collector. He shall be responsible for the registration of voters, keeping of records, preparation of lists of registered voters, and such other duties incident to voter registration as are placed upon him by law. The duties here imposed on the county tax assessor-collector are in addition to his other duties imposed by law, and the expenses of his office incident to the performance of these duties shall be borne by the county. Any of these duties, except the hearing of appeals on denial of registration and the hearing of challenges of registration, may be performed through a deputy or deputies. The assessor-collector shall not make any charge against a voter for performing any duty incident to voter registration. The tax assessor-collector is authorized to administer oaths and certify thereto under the seal of his office in every case where an oath is required in complying with any portion of this Code connected with his official duties. The registration records, the applications for registration, and the duplicate registration certificates on file in the tax assessor-collector's office shall be open for public inspection at all times when the office is open. [Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 2.]

Art. 5.10. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967

Art. 5.10a. Persons Entitled to Register

A person is entitled to register as a voter in the precinct in which he has his legal residence (i. e., domicile), as defined in Section 40 of this code,<sup>1</sup> if:

(1) on the date of applying for registration he is a citizen of the United States and is subject to none of the disqualifications, other than nonage, stated in Section 33 of this code;<sup>2</sup> and

(2) within 30 days after applying for registration he will be 18 years of age or older and will have resided in the State for one year.

However, no person may vote at any election unless he fulfills all the qualifications of an elector for that election.

[Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 2; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2509, ch. 827, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 5.11. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967

Art. 5.11a. Period for Registration; Period for which Registration is Effective

Subd. 1. A "voting year" is a period of one year beginning on March 1 of each calendar year. Normally, a registration is effective for three successive voting years, as more fully stated in Subdivisions 2 and 3 of this section, subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code.<sup>1</sup>

Subd. 2. The first voting year under this law begins on March 1, 1972. An initial registration period under this law begins on October 1, 1971, and continues through January 31, 1972. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 42a of this code,<sup>2</sup> a person may register at any time during this period if he has already attained the qualifications required by Section 42a or will attain them before April 1, 1972. A registration during this period becomes effective on March 1, 1972, and continues in effect for the 1972, 1973, and 1974 voting years, subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code. On applications mailed to the registrar on or before January 31 but not received by the registrar until after that date, the registrar shall treat each application as having been made in accordance with Subdivision 3 of this section, with registration to become effective on the 31st day following its receipt.

Subd. 3. Beginning on February 1 after the close of the registration period provided for in Subdivision 2 of this section, registration shall be conducted at all times that the registrar's office is open for business. A registration on or after that date becomes effective on the 31st day following and is effective for the voting year in which that date falls and the succeeding two voting years, except that a registration on or after the first day of October and more than 30 days before the end of the voting year is effective for the remainder of that voting year and for the succeeding three voting years. Each registration is subject to extension or renewal as provided in Section 50b of this code. A person is deemed to have registered on the date that his application is received by the registrar.

Subd. 4. This subdivision states an exception to the rule stated in Subdivision 3 of this section in regard to the effective date of a registration. Any person who, at the time of applying for registration, comes within a category of persons eligible to vote by absentee ballot without regular registration through use of the federal post card application for absentee ballot, as provided in Subdivision 2a of Section 37 of this code,<sup>3</sup> or who came within such a category at any time within six months before the date of his application, may register at any time, and the registration becomes effective for voting on the fifth day following issuance of the registration certificate if the registrant is otherwise qualified to vote on that date.

Art. 5.11a-1. Expired

This article, enacted by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1, ch. 1, § 1, provided for registration for run-off elections held during February, 1967.

Art. 5.11b. Registration for First Voting Year

(1) Subject to the exception stated in subsection (2) of this Section, the registration certificate form to be used for registering persons to vote during the first voting year beginning on the first day of February immediately following the effective date of this Section shall be the certificate form prescribed in Section 46a of this Code,<sup>1</sup> except that the heading shall be "Voter Registration Certificate for the Period Beginning February 1, 19__ and Ending February __, 19__" (the proper dates to be filled in).

(2) If this Section becomes effective by virtue of a proclamation of the Governor issued subsequent to June 30, 1966, resulting from court invalidation of the requirement for payment of the poll tax as a condition for voting, the registration certificate form to be used for registering persons to vote during the voting year beginning on the first day of February immediately following the effective date of this Section shall be the poll tax receipt form prescribed by Section 46 of this Code<sup>2</sup> or the exemption certificate form prescribed by Section 48 of this Code.<sup>3</sup> The poll tax receipt form shall be used for persons subject to payment of the tax, and the exemption certificate form shall be used for persons exempt from its payment; provided, however, that a registration shall not be rendered invalid by use of the form not prescribed for the particular registrant. If at the time of registering the registrant pays the poll tax levied against him, the poll tax receipt form shall serve both as a receipt for payment and as a record of registration. If a poll tax is not collected from the registrant, the registrar shall issue a receipt on which the words "Poll tax not paid" have been stamped, written or printed. The original of the poll tax receipt or exemption certificate shall be issued to the registrant to identify him in voting, and the duplicate shall be retained by the registrar as his record of the registration.

All persons who were issued poll tax receipts or exemption certificates prior to the effective date of this Section, for use in voting during the ensuing voting year, and whose names would have been placed on either the regular list of qualified voters or the list of voters qualified to vote in federal elections only, if Sections 34a and 54 of this Code<sup>4</sup> had not been repealed, shall be deemed to have registered in accordance with the requirements of this registration law, and the registrar shall include the names of such persons on the list of registered voters for the voting year beginning on the first day of February immediately following the effective date of this registration law.

(3) This Section shall apply only to elections held during the first voting year under this registration law, and shall expire on the first day of March following the close of that voting year.

Art. 5.13a. Mode of Applying for Registration

Subd. 1. A person may apply for registration in person or by mail. Each applicant shall submit to the registrar of the county in which he resides a written application which supplies all the information required by Section 45b of this code.<sup>1</sup> The Secretary of State shall prescribe the application form. He may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing voter registration certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods, but the registrar in each county shall accept any application made upon any form prescribed by the Secretary of State which supplies all the necessary information for registration. In addition to other requirements, the application form shall contain the following statement: "I understand that the giving of false information to procure the registration of a voter is a felony." It shall also contain a space for recording the number of the voter's registration certificate.

Subd. 2. The application shall be signed by the applicant or his agent. However, if the person making the application is unable to sign his name either because of physical disability or illiteracy, he shall affix his mark, if able to do so, which shall be attested by a witness, whose signature and address shall be shown on the application. If a person making the application is physically unable to make a mark, the witness shall so state on the application.

Subd. 3. When a properly executed application is received by the registrar, he shall make out a registration certificate and shall either deliver the original certificate to the voter or his agent in person or shall mail it to the voter at his permanent address; or if the voter is temporarily living outside the county and requests that the certificate be mailed to the temporary address, the registrar shall mail it to the temporary address. When application is made in person, the registrar may make out and deliver the certificate immediately or he may defer preparation of the certificate until a later time, to be mailed to the voter or held for delivery in person if the applicant so directs. If the certificate is mailed to the voter, the registrar shall mail it in time for the voter to receive it before the date on which it becomes effective for voting.

Subd. 4. The husband, wife, father, mother, son, or daughter of a person entitled to register may act as agent for such person in applying for registration, without the necessity of written authorization therefor, may sign for the applicant, and may receive the registration certificate. However, none of these persons may act as agent unless he is a qualified elector of the county. No person other than those mentioned in this subdivision may act as agent for a person in applying for registration. Except as permitted in this subdivision, a person who wilfully acts as agent for another in applying for registration or in obtaining a registration certificate is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 5. A registrar of voters who knowingly issues a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant or his lawful agent, or who knowingly mails or delivers a registration certificate to a person other than the applicant or his lawful agent, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Art. 5.13b. Information Required on Application

An application for a voter registration certificate shall show the following information:

1. The applicant's name, sex, and post-office address (or if living in an incorporated city or town, his street address).

2. A statement of the applicant's age. If the applicant has not attained 21 years of age, the application shall show his date of birth by month, day and year. If the applicant has already attained the age of 21 years, it is sufficient for the applicant to state that he is over that age. In lieu of showing the applicant's age in terms of a number of years, age may be shown by stating the date of birth; and in case that form of statement is called for on the application, it is sufficient for an applicant who has attained 21 years of age to state the year of his birth without giving the month and day, or to state that he was born prior to a certain year which shows him to be over that age.

3. If the applicant is under 21 years of age, whether the applicant is or has been married or has had the disabilities of minority removed by court action; and if not, the name and address of the applicant's parents or other person standing in loco parentis.

4. The applicant's occupation. The application form shall also contain a space for the applicant to check the appropriate item of information if he is in active military service or is enrolled as a student in a school, college, or university.

5. A statement that the applicant has resided in the State more than one year, in the county more than six months, and in the city or town (if a resident of an incorporated city or town) more than six months immediately preceding the date of application; or if not a resident for such length of time, a statement of the date on which he became a resident of the State, county, or city, as the case may be.

6. A statement that the applicant is a citizen of the United States.

7. If the applicant was registered in any other county of this State within the preceding three years, the name of the county in which he was registered and his last residence address in that county.

8. If the application is made by an agent, a statement of the agent's relationship to the applicant.

The application form shall contain a space for showing the address to which the certificate is to be mailed, if it is to be mailed to a temporary address. It shall also contain a space for showing the election precinct in which the applicant resides, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list the number or name of the precinct or for listing an incorrect number or name where the applicant's correct address is given. It may also contain a space for the applicant's social security number and telephone number, but an application shall not be deficient for failure to list these numbers.

Art. 5.14a. Registration Certificate Forms; Information Required on Certificate

Subd. 1. Upon receiving the application of a voter who is entitled to register, the registrar shall prepare a voter registration certificate for the voter on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State may prescribe one or more forms for use in counties using electronic data processing methods for issuing certificates and a different form for use in counties not using those methods. The form shall be prepared in duplicate. The original shall be issued to the voter and the duplicate copy shall be retained by the registrar for his use in making up the list of registered voters and in maintaining a numerical record of the certificates issued.

Subd. 2. The registration certificates for each county shall be serially numbered, beginning with No. 1 for registrations for each voting year, and the numbers shall be preceded by a letter or combination of letters to indicate the voting year, beginning with the letter A and proceeding in alphabetical order for each new voting year (i. e., the numbering shall begin with No. A-1 for the first year, with No. B-1 for the second year, No. AA-1 for the 27th year, and so on). The date on which the certificate is issued shall be shown on the certificate, but no date indicating the duration of its effectiveness shall be shown.

Subd. 3. Each certificate shall show the voter's name, age, address, election precinct number, a place for the voter's signature, and the date on which the certificate is issued. The certificate may also show other information which is furnished on the application, at the option of the registrar. It shall contain or be accompanied by a written instruction to the voter that the certificate is to be signed by the voter personally immediately upon receipt, if the voter is able to write his name.

Subd. 4. At the time he prepares the registration certificate, the registrar shall enter the registration certificate number in the appropriate space on the voter's application for registration.

Subd. 5. When under any provision of this code the registrar is directed to make a change or correction on a registration certificate, in his discretion he may issue a replacement certificate to the voter instead of making the change or correction on the existing certificate.

[Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 2; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2512, ch. 827, § 6, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 5.15. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967

Art. 5.15a. Registration Record Sheets; Registration Files

Subd. 1. As soon as practicable after a registration certificate is issued, the registrar shall make up for the voter a registration record sheet, on a form prescribed by the Secretary of State. The record sheet shall bear the same serial number as the registration certificate and shall show the voter's name, permanent residence address, and election precinct number, and optionally the voter's social security number and telephone number. It shall also show the voter's temporary address if one is shown on his application. The form shall contain suitable space for recording change of residence, transfer of registration to another election precinct, a record of the elections at which the voter votes, and information pertinent to cancellation of registration.

Subd. 2. (a) As they are made up, the registration record sheets shall be filed alphabetically by election precincts in an active registration record file, and they shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive registration record file, which shall be arranged in alphabetical order for the entire county. The registrar shall place into this file the record sheet for each voter whose registration is cancelled. When a registration is cancelled, the registrar shall enter on the record sheet the date of cancellation and the reason. The record sheet shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subd. 3. (a) The applications on which registration certificates are issued shall be filed alphabetically for the entire county in an active application file and shall remain in that file as long as the registration continues in effect.

(b) The registrar shall also maintain an inactive application file, which shall be arranged in alphabetical order for the entire county. The registrar shall place into this file all applications which are rejected. He shall also transfer to the inactive file the application of each voter whose registration is cancelled. The registrar shall enter on the application form the date on which the registration is rejected or the date on which the registration is cancelled before filing an application in the inactive file. The application shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of rejection or cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subd. 4. (a) After the registrar adds a voter's name to the list of registered voters from the duplicate registration certificate, he shall file the duplicate in an active duplicate registration certificate file. An active file for each voting year shall be maintained in numerical order for the entire county.

(b) When a registration is cancelled, the registrar shall enter the date of cancellation on the duplicate certificate and shall transfer it to an inactive file arranged numerically for each voting year. The duplicate shall be kept in the inactive file for a period of two years from the date of cancellation, after which it may be destroyed.

Subd. 5. Applications and duplicate registration certificates may be removed from the registrar's office temporarily, under proper safeguards, for use in preparing registration certificates, lists of registered voters, and other registration papers by electronic data processing methods, but they may not be removed for any other purpose. Except as permitted in the preceding sentence, the applications, the duplicate registration certificates, and the registration record sheets shall be kept in the registrar's office at all times in a place and in such a manner as to be properly safeguarded. The files shall be open to public inspection at all times during regular office hours of the registrar, subject to reasonable regulations and to proper safeguards against alteration, mutilation, or removal.

Art. 5.16. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967

Art. 5.16a. Correction of Errors on Certificates; Lost Certificates

Subd. 1. Correction of error. When after issuance of a registration certificate it is discovered that an error has been made in filling out the blanks on the certificate through mistake of the registrar or through mistake of the voter in supplying the information, the voter may present the certificate to the registrar for correction and the registrar shall correct the information on the original certificate and on the registration records on file in his office.

Subd. 2. Error in election precinct. Except as permitted in Section 50a of this code,<sup>1</sup> no person is entitled to vote in a precinct of which he is not a resident and an election officer shall not knowingly permit a voter to do so. However, where a voter is erroneously registered in a precinct in which he does not reside and the election officer permits him to vote without knowing of the erroneous registration, in an election contest a ballot cast in that precinct shall be given effect as to any offices or propositions on which the voter would have been entitled to vote in the precinct in which he resides unless it is proved that the voter intentionally gave false information to procure his registration in the wrong precinct, in which event the ballot is void for all purposes.

If an error in the election precinct has not been corrected on the certificate at the time the voter offers to vote at an election, he may vote in the precinct of his residence, if otherwise qualified, by making and leaving with the presiding judge of the election an affidavit that he is a bona fide resident of that precinct and qualified to vote at that election, and that the error on the certificate was not caused by an intentional misrepresentation on his part.

Subd. 3. Name omitted from list of registered voters. Where a voter's name is not shown on the precinct list of registered voters but the voter presents his registration certificate showing him to be registered in that precinct, the election officers shall permit him to vote and shall add his name, address, and registration certificate number to the list.

Subd. 4. Challenge of voter. Where a voter who does not present his registration certificate to the election officers claims to be registered in the precinct where he offers to vote, or claims to be erroneously registered in some other precinct, the presiding judge, if not satisfied as to his right to vote, may refuse to accept him unless he complies with the provisions of this code relative to challenge of a voter at the polling place. Where a voter claiming to be registered in the precinct is accepted, the presiding judge shall add the voter's name and address to the list of registered voters, with the notation that he voted on an affidavit of a lost certificate.

Subd. 5. Correction of registration records. Within 10 days after the election, the officer to whom the list of registered voters is returned shall notify the registrar of any additions which the election officers made to the list of registered voters. Within the same period, the officer to whom the affidavit of erroneous election precinct is returned shall notify the registrar of the names and other information contained on the affidavits used in the election. The registrar shall take the necessary steps to verify and correct the registration records, including a recall of the original registration certificates for correction where necessary. If the registrar finds that a person who voted is not registered, he shall report the matter to the prosecuting attorney.

Subd. 6. Replacement of lost certificate. If a voter to whom a registration certificate has been issued presents to the registrar his affidavit that the certificate has been lost or destroyed, the registrar shall issue to the voter a replacement certificate as a single-copy document, showing the same registration number and the same information as shown on the original certificate. The registrar shall make a notation on the face of the certificate showing it to be a replacement. He shall attach the affidavit to the voter's application.

A person who makes an affidavit that a registration certificate has been lost or destroyed, knowing the affidavit to be false, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Subd. 7. Voting on affidavit of lost certificate. Notwithstanding Subdivision 6 of this section, a voter whose registration certificate has been lost or destroyed may vote without obtaining a replacement, upon making and leaving with the election officers an affidavit of loss as provided elsewhere in this code.

Art. 5.16b. Abolition of Precinct or Alteration of Boundary

In the event the precinct in which a registered voter resides is abolished or has its boundary altered, the registrar shall change the voter's registration records to show him to be registered in the proper precinct and shall mail a notice of the change to each voter affected, instructing him to make the change on his registration certificate. If the registrar is unable to determine the proper precinct of a voter from the information on the application, he shall mail a request to the voter for such additional information as will enable him to determine the proper precinct, and until the information is received he shall not place the voter's name on the list of registered voters for any precinct.

Art. 5.17. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967

Art. 5.17a. Challenge of Registration; Appeal

(1) Challenge of applicant. Any person applying for registration may be challenged by the registrar or deputy taking his application or by any registered voter of the county. If after hearing and considering the challenge the officer taking the application is satisfied as to the applicant's entitlement to registration, he shall register the applicant, but if not so satisfied, he shall refuse to register the applicant. If refusal has been by a deputy registrar, the applicant may appeal to the registrar, who shall decide the challenge within seven days. When the registrar refuses to register an applicant, the applicant may appeal from the decision of the registrar to a district court of the county within thirty days after the registrar's decision, and the decision of the district court shall be final.

(2) Challenge of registered voter. Any registered voter shall have the right to challenge the registration of any other registered voter in his county by filing with the registrar of voters a sworn statement setting out the grounds for such challenge. The registrar shall give notice to the person whose registration has been challenged, and a hearing shall be held and a ruling made thereon. Either party to the controversy may appeal from the decision of the registrar to a district court of the county of registration within thirty days after the registrar's decision, and the decision of the district court shall be final. A challenged voter may continue to vote until a final decision is made canceling his registration.

(3) Jurisdiction of district court; trial of appeal. The district courts of this State shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from decisions of the registrar refusing an application for registration and from decisions of the registrar either canceling or refusing to cancel a registration. The trial in the district court shall be de novo. The court shall give priority to the appeal if an election is pending within sixty days.

Art. 5.18. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967.

Art. 5.18a. Change of Residence; Cancellation or Transfer of Registration

Subd. 1. Change of residence within precinct. A registered voter who changes his place of residence within the election precinct shall give written notice to the registrar of the change of address and present his registration certificate to the registrar. The registrar shall make the necessary change on the certificate and on the registration records in his office and shall return the certificate to the voter. He shall attach the notice to the voter's application, and shall change the address on the list of registered voters when he prepares the next annual list.

Subd. 2. Change of residence to another precinct within county. A registered voter who changes his residence to another election precinct within the county may vote in the precinct of his former residence, if otherwise qualified, during the first 30 days after the removal, but not thereafter, in any election other than an election which is subject to Section 35 of this code.<sup>1</sup> If he obtains a transfer of his registration to the precinct of his new residence during the 30-day period, he may vote only in the precinct of his new residence after the fourth day following the transfer. He may not vote in the precinct of his new residence before the fifth day following the transfer.

To obtain a transfer of his registration, the voter shall present his registration certificate to the registrar with a written, signed request that his registration be transferred to the precinct of his new residence. Upon receiving a request for transfer, the registrar shall make the necessary changes on the registration certificate and on the registration records in his office and shall return the certificate to the voter. He shall attach the request to the application and shall transfer the registration record sheet to the file for the precinct of the voter's new residence.

Subd. 3. Change of residence to another county. A registered voter who moves from one county to another within the State must re-register in the county of his new residence in the same manner as an initial registrant. However, during the first six months after removal the voter may vote a limited ballot, as provided in Section 37c of this code,<sup>2</sup> by either presenting a current registration certificate issued in the county of his former residence or making an affidavit that it has been lost or misplaced.

Subd. 4. Notification to registrar in county of former residence. Between March 1, 1972, and February 28, 1975, when the registrar receives an application for registration of a voter who was registered in some other county for any period of time after March 1, 1972, he shall notify the registrar of that county, giving him the voter's name, former residence address, and present residence address. Thereafter, when the registrar receives an application of a voter who was registered in some other county within the preceding three years, he shall notify the registrar of that county. Upon receipt of the notice, the registrar of the county wherein the voter was formerly registered shall cancel the registration in that county.

Subd. 5. (a) Before March 1, 1972, the registrar in each county shall take the necessary steps to have each postmaster in his county furnish him with the residential change-of-address information service available to election boards and registration commissions under United States Post Office Department regulations. The registrar shall request the information on all residential mail patrons within the county, retroactive to the date which the registrar deems suitable, but not earlier than October 1, 1971, to enable him to correct the registration records on voters who have moved after registering for the voting period which begins on March 1, 1972. He shall request that the information thereafter be furnished on a monthly basis, and from time to time he shall take whatever action is necessary to keep the request for this service in an active status at all times. Immediately after this section takes effect, the Secretary of State shall issue instructions to each registrar on how to proceed to obtain the service.

(b) Except as provided in Paragraph (c) of this subdivision, the registrar and his employees may not use or permit any other person to use the information received from the post office for any purpose other than correcting the registration records and lists of registered voters maintained in his office. A violation of this provision is a misdemeanor.

(c) Where a post office serves patrons living in more than one county, the postmaster and the registrars of the different counties shall agree upon an arrangement for furnishing all the change-of-address cards to one or the other of the registrars or for separating the cards and furnishing them to the several registrars in accordance with a stipulated plan. Within 30 days after a registrar receives the cards from the post office, he shall transcribe the information with respect to each person who resides in a different county onto a form prescribed by the Secretary of State, or shall duplicate or reproduce the information in some other manner agreeable to the postmaster and approved by the Secretary of State, and shall forward it to the registrar of the county in which the person resides. Each registrar shall assemble the necessary data to enable him to determine with reasonable accuracy in which county a person lives from his street address or rural route address. Where the patron was receiving his mail at a post-office box, the registrar receiving the information initially shall check his files to identify the patron as a registered voter insofar as he is able to do so, and shall forward the change-of-address information on all unidentified patrons to the registrar of the other county. He shall also follow this procedure in other doubtful cases.

(d) If a person requesting a permanent change of address is registered as a voter, or where the change of address is requested for an entire family, if any other person having the same surname and address is registered, the registrar shall send a notice to each such person at the address on the registration record and at the new address furnished on the change-of-address form, requesting him to verify his current residence address and informing him of the necessity for changing the registration records if there has been a change in his legal residence. The notice shall state that the voter's registration will be cancelled if the registrar does not receive a reply within 30 days from the date on which the notice is mailed. If the voter replies to the notice, the registrar shall take the appropriate action indicated by the reply. If no reply is received, the registrar shall cancel the registration and shall notify the voter of the cancellation by registered or certified mail at the address given on the change-of-address form with a return receipt requested. The registrar shall reinstate the registration if within 30 days after the cancellation the voter furnishes information showing that he is still eligible for registration in that county. The notice of cancellation shall inform the voter of this right to reinstatement.

(e) Where a postal patron was receiving his mail at a post-office box rather than a street address or a rural route address, the registrar shall undertake to identify the patron as a registered voter by checking the alphabetical precinct or county files for the same or a similar name. Where more than one person of the same or similar name is registered, the registrar shall use his discretion in pursuing his effort to identify the patron.

(f) The Secretary of State shall keep the registrars informed of any changes in postal regulations which affect the procedures for utilizing the change-of-address service as a means for updating the registration records. If a change in postal regulations makes any of the procedures outlined in this subdivision impracticable, the Secretary of State is authorized to devise new procedures and to issue directives putting them into effect, with a view to utilizing the service in the most effective manner to obtain the full benefit of the information furnished.

Subd. 6. The Secretary of State shall prescribe forms for the various documents required by this section. However, the registrar may also accept and use forms other than those prescribed by the Secretary of State.

Art. 5.18b. Extension or Renewal of Registration by Voting or by Request for Renewal; Cancellation for Failure to Renew

Subd. 1. Beginning with the elections held during the 1972 voting year, whenever a registered voter votes in a primary or general election for nomination or election of State and county officers, his registration is automatically extended or renewed for the succeeding three voting years unless, prior to the beginning of the first succeeding year, the registration is cancelled under some provision of this code.

Within 30 days after each second (runoff) primary for nomination of State and county officers, the presiding officer of the county committee, board, or other body which is responsible for furnishing supplies for the primary elections of each political party shall deliver to the registrar the lists of registered voters used at the party's general primary and runoff primary in each election precinct in the county, marked to show the names of persons who voted at the election as provided elsewhere in this code. Within 30 days after the date of each general election for State and county officers, the county clerk shall deliver to the registrar the lists of registered voters used at the general election, marked to show the names of persons who voted at the election. From these lists, the registrar shall make a record on the registration record sheets of the voters who voted at these elections and shall extend or renew their registrations for the succeeding three voting years. The registrar shall preserve the lists for a period of four years following the close of the voting year in which the election occurred.

Subd. 2. Before the first day of January each year, the registrar shall examine the registration records to determine which registrations expire at the end of that voting year. Not earlier than November 15 and not later than January 15, he shall mail to each person whose registration is expiring, at the permanent address shown on the registration record and also at the temporary address if one is shown, a notice that it will be necessary for him to reregister if he wishes to vote at elections to be held on or after the following March 1, but that he may reregister for the succeeding three voting years by returning the notice to the registrar, with his signed statement thereon that he is still a qualified elector of the county, together with any change of address or other information necessary to bring his registration record up-to-date. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the form of the notices and request for reregistration referred to in this section.

Subd. 3. The notice referred to in Subdivision 2 of this section shall be marked with a direction to the postal authorities not to forward it to any other address and to return it to the registrar if the addressee is no longer at that address, with the reason for nondelivery and address correction information to be furnished to the registrar. The registrar may make whatever arrangements with the postal authorities which he deems suitable for handling the payment for the address correction service. When a notice is returned undelivered, with information that the voter has moved to a new address, the registrar shall send the registrant another notice by nonforwardable mail to the new address, if it is within the county, informing him that he may reregister by returning the notice, as stated in Subdivision 2 of this section. If the new address is outside the county, the registrar shall send the registrant another notice by nonforwardable mail to the new address, informing him that his registration will be cancelled unless he furnishes the registrar with information showing that he is still entitled to registration in the county but that he may reregister by returning the notice if he is still entitled to registration in the county.

Subd. 4. If the registrar receives a request for reregistration on or before the 31st day preceding the beginning of the succeeding voting year, he shall renew the registration effective on March 1 for the succeeding three voting years. On requests received after that date, the reregistration becomes effective on the 31st day after receipt. The registrar shall make a notation of the reregistration on the voter's registration record sheet and shall attach the request to the voter's application.

Subd. 5. Immediately after the 31st day preceding the end of each voting year, the registrar shall place into a suspense file the applications and registration record sheets of the voters whose registration expires at the end of that year and who have not returned a request for reregistration. Where a request is received after that date, the registrar shall return the application and record sheet to the active file. During the month of January in the following year, the registrar shall close out the suspense file. He shall cancel the registration of each person whose records are in the file and shall send him a notice of the cancellation.

Subd. 6. Except where reinstatement of a cancelled registration is expressly provided for, a voter whose registration is cancelled must reregister in the same manner as an initial registrant.

[Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 39, eff. Sept. 1, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2518, ch. 827, § 11, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

A former article 5.18b, relating to absentee registration by persons in military service and other categories stationed outside the state, was derived from Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 939, ch. 414, § 6 and repealed by Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 39.

Art. 5.18c. Cancellation of Registration upon Death or Judicial Determination of Disqualification

Subd. 1. Not later than the 10th day of each month, each local registrar of deaths in this State shall furnish to the registrar of voters of the county of residence of the decedent an abstract of the death certificate of each decedent over the minimum voting age who was a resident of this State at the time of his death. The abstract shall show the name, age, sex, place of residence, and date and place of death of the decedent. Upon receipt of an abstract, the registrar of voters shall determine if the decedent was a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration.

Subd. 2. Not later than the 10th day of each month, the clerk of each county court or probate court in this State shall furnish to the registrar of voters of the county of residence of the person so adjudged, an abstract of each final judgment adjudging a person over the minimum voting age and resident within this State to be mentally incompetent or to be mentally competent. The abstract shall show the person's name and permanent address and any other available information which will assist in identifying the person in the voter registration files. Upon receipt of an abstract of an adjudgment of mental incompetence, the registrar shall determine if the person is a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration. Upon receipt of an abstract of an adjudgment of mental competence, the registrar shall examine the extant cancelled registration files to ascertain whether the person was previously registered and whether his registration would still be current except for the cancellation upon his being adjudged incompetent, and if so, the registrar shall reinstate the registration.

Subd. 3. Not later than the 10th day of each month, the clerk of each court having jurisdiction of the trial of felony crimes shall furnish to the registrar an abstract of each unappealed conviction for a felony crime and of each final conviction in appealed cases. The registrar shall determine if the person convicted is a registered voter and, if so, shall cancel his registration.

Subd. 4. The reports required under Subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 of this section apply to deaths occurring, judgments of mental competency or incompetency entered, and felony convictions returned on and after October 1, 1972. The Secretary of State shall prescribe the forms for the abstracts required by Subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 of this section. The registrar of voters shall keep a supply of the forms on hand and upon request shall furnish blank forms to the officers in his county who are required to use them.

Subd. 5. Upon receipt of a certified copy of a final judgment in an election contest proceeding adjudging a registrant not to be a qualified voter, the registrar shall cancel his registration.

Subd. 6. Whenever a registration is cancelled under Subdivision 2, 3, or 5 of this section, the registrar shall immediately mail a notice of the cancellation to the registrant at the permanent address shown on his registration record and also at the temporary address if one is shown. If subsequent to the cancellation of a registration under any provision of this section it is ascertained that the registration should not have been cancelled, the registrar shall reinstate it.

Art. 5.18d. Change of Name

Subd. 1. A registered voter who changes his name through marriage or judgment of a court shall present his registration certificate to the registrar, with a signed request that his name be changed on the registration records. The registrar shall issue a new certificate to the voter under his new name and shall transfer the duplicate of the old certificate to the inactive file. He shall change the registration record sheet to show the new name and certificate number and shall file it under the new name. He shall attach the request to the voter's application and enter the number of the new certificate on the application, and shall file both documents under the new name. He shall make a notation of the former name on the duplicate certificate and shall delete it from the list of registered voters when he adds the new name.

Subd. 2. If otherwise qualified, a voter whose name is changed is eligible to vote under the new registration at any election held more than four days after the registrar makes the change on the registration records. He may vote under the former registration at any election held within four days after the new registration, upon making an affidavit that his certificate of registration under the former name has been surrendered to the registrar. The voter shall sign the form for the affidavit of a lost certificate, and the election officer shall add a notation in explanation of the circumstances.

Art. 5.19. Repealed by Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 4, eff. Feb. 1, 1967*Art. 5.19a. List of Registered Voters

(1) Before the first day of March each year, the registrar shall prepare for each election precinct of the county a certified list of registered voters who, as of the 31st day before March 1 (as of January 31, 1972, for the list prepared in 1972), are entitled to registration for the voting year in which March 1 falls. Each precinct list shall be prepared in two parts, each arranged alphabetically by the names of the voters and showing each voter's name, age, address, and registration number, and optionally his telephone number. On the first part of the original list shall be shown the names of voters who are qualified to vote in all elections as of March 1. On the second part shall be shown the names of voters who are not yet qualified to vote in all elections as of March 1. This list shall contain four columns, headed as follows:

Not eligible to vote before date shown
U.S. Representative	State	County	City
_____	_____	_____	_____

For the various types of elections in which the voter is not yet eligible to vote, the registrar shall show the date on which he will become eligible. The registrar shall deliver to each board, executive committee, or other authority having the duty of furnishing supplies for any general, special, or primary election to be held within the county during the voting year for which the list is prepared, one set of such lists for all precincts in the county if any election which may be held by such authority is countywide, and one set of such lists for all precincts wholly or partially within the boundaries of the particular political subdivision if all elections which may be held by such authority are less than countywide. The registrar shall also furnish to each such authority, not less than 20 days before each election, an updated consolidated list of the voters in each precinct who will have been registered for 30 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list. When a runoff election is held, before the first day of absentee voting in the runoff election the registrar shall prepare a consolidated list of the voters who will have been registered for 30 days on the day of the election and whose names do not appear on the original list or the supplemental list prepared for the first election. Between the fourth day before the election and election day in each election, he shall furnish a separate list of the voters who transfer their registration more than four days before the election and who are not included in a previous list. The supplemental lists shall be prepared in two parts, in the same form as the original lists. With each supplemental list the registrar shall also furnish a list of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct since preparation of the last set of lists. The authority shall furnish to the presiding judge in each precinct the original and supplemental lists of voters in his precinct at the time it furnishes other election supplies. Prior to the opening of the polls, the presiding judge shall strike from the registration list the names of persons whose registration has been cancelled or transferred to another precinct.

(2) The registrar shall furnish without charge to each clerk having the duty of conducting absentee voting in any election the appropriate lists for use in the conduct of absentee voting for the election. He shall also furnish to the county clerk one set of the original lists and one set of the supplemental lists prepared for each county-wide election, which shall be public records available for public inspection at all times that his office is open.

(3) No charge shall be made for lists furnished for use in elections held at the expense of the county or any city or other political subdivision. For each set of original and supplemental lists which the registrar is required to furnish to the executive committee of a political party for use in its primary elections, the registrar shall be permitted to charge not more than Five Dollars ($5), to be paid by the party or the chairman so ordering the lists, which charge shall be in full for both the original lists and the supplemental lists. The registrar shall also furnish to the county executive committee of each political party, for any year in which such party is holding precinct conventions, one set of the original and supplemental lists for use in qualifying persons to participate in such conventions, for which the registrar shall be permitted to charge not more than Five Dollars ($5).

(4) In addition to the copies of the lists of registered voters which the registrar is required to furnish under Subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, he shall furnish a copy to any person requesting it, for which he shall make a reasonable charge. In any county where the voter registration lists are recorded on magnetic tape, the registrar shall furnish a copy of the tape to any person requesting it, for which he shall make a reasonable charge. The registrar shall exact a uniform charge against all persons to whom he furnishes copies of the lists other than the copies which he is required to furnish under Subsections (1), (2), and (3) of this section, and he shall exact a uniform charge against all persons to whom he furnishes copies of the tape. The charge shall not be greater than an amount deemed sufficient to reasonably reimburse the registrar for his actual expense in furnishing the copy. Costs incurred in registering the voters or in making up the certified lists from which the copy is taken shall not be included in the charge. All money collected under this section shall be accounted for as official fees of office.

(5) Where the lists of registered voters for a county are prepared by a computer service company or other private business entity under a contract with the county, one of the terms of the contract shall be that the company will supply copies of the lists to the registrar in the number ordered, and also copies of the tape in the number ordered where the lists are made up on magnetic tape, within 15 days from the date on which the company receives the order or from the date on which the company completes the preparation of the lists, whichever is the later.

Art. 5.19b. Reimbursement of County by State

Subd. 1. Before April 1 of each year, the registrar shall submit to the Comptroller of Public Accounts a certified statement of the total number of registered voters shown on the precinct registration lists as of March 1 of that year, together with the total number of registration certificates which were issued during the 12-month period ending January 31 of the year in which the statement is submitted.

Subd. 2. Before June 1 of the year in which the statement is submitted, the Comptroller shall issue a warrant to each county in the aggregate of the following amounts:

(1) 40 cents multiplied by the total number of new certificates, and

(2) 20 cents multiplied by the difference between the total number of registered voters and the total number of new certificates issued, as shown by the certified statement required by Subdivision 1 of this section. However, before issuing a warrant the Comptroller may require additional proof to substantiate the statement.

Subd. 3. The disbursements prescribed by this section shall be made from the general revenue fund as provided by legislative appropriations. All money received by a county under this section shall be deposited in the county treasury in a special fund to be used for defraying expenses of the registrar's office in the registration of voters. None of the money shall be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the registrar as fees in counties where the registrar is compensated on a fee basis.

Art. 5.20a. Deputy Registrars

Subd. 1. The registrar may have such number of duly authorized and sworn deputies as he deems necessary to assist in the registration of voters. However, no deputy may be paid for his services except with the approval of the Commissioners Court. An unpaid deputy shall not be required to give a bond in connection with his services.

Subd. 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that the registrar shall establish a sufficient number of registration places throughout the county, and outside the county courthouse, for the convenience of persons desiring to register, to the end that registration may be maintained at a high level.

Subd. 3. Where the performance of the services is not contrary to some other provision of law, the head of any department of the State government, with the approval of the governing board where one exists, any county officer, and the head of any department of a city, town, or village, with the approval of the municipal governing board, may permit any of the officers and employees under his control to become deputy registrars of voters and to register persons on any premises and facilities under his control during the regular working hours of the deputized officer or employee.

Subd. 4. It is also the intent of the Legislature that the registrar, in order to promote and encourage voter registrations, shall enlist the support and cooperation of interested citizens and organizations, and shall deputize as registrars qualified citizens in such a way as to cover most effectively every section of the county. The persons so deputized shall be permitted to register voters anywhere within the county and to secure registrations at the places of residence of the persons to be registered, and the registrar shall not deny deputy registrars the right to register voters in accordance with this authorization.

Subd. 5. No voter registrar shall refuse to deputize any person to register voters because of race, creed, color, or national origin or ancestry. No bona vide resident of the county of good moral character shall be excluded from serving as deputy by the registrar.

[Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 2; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2522, ch. 827, § 14, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 5.21a. Statement of Registrations

On or before March 5 of each year, the registrar shall make a statement to the Secretary of State and to the county clerk of the number of registered voters in each precinct as shown by the list of registered voters on March 1. The statement shall become a record of the officer to whom the statement is made.

[Acts 1966, 59th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 1, ch. 1, § 2; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2523, ch. 827, § 15, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 6.01. Official Ballot

In all elections by the people, the vote shall be by official ballot, which shall be numbered and elections so guarded and conducted as to detect fraud and preserve the purity of the ballot. No ballot shall be used in voting at any general, primary or special election held to elect public officers, select candidates for office or determine questions submitted to a vote of the people, except the official ballot, unless otherwise authorized by law. At the top of the official ballot shall be printed in large letters the words "Official Ballot." It shall contain the printed names of all candidates whose nominations for an elective office have been duly made and properly certified. The names shall appear on the ballot under the head of the party that nominates them, except as otherwise provided by this Code. No name shall appear on the official ballot except that of a candidate who was actually nominated (either as a party nominee or as a non-partisan or independent candidate) in accordance with the provisions of this Code. The name of no candidate shall appear more than once upon the official ballot, except (a) as a candidate for two (2) or more offices permitted by the Constitution to be held by the same person; or (b) when a candidate has been duly nominated for the office of President or Vice-President of the United States and also for an office requiring a state-wide vote for election. The name of no candidate of any political party that cast two hundred thousand (200,000) votes or more for its candidate for governor at the last preceding general election shall be printed on any official ballot for a general election, unless nominated by primary election, on primary election day, except as herein otherwise provided.

Art. 6.01a. Use of Nicknames and Titles

Subject to the prohibitions of this section, the name of each candidate on any general, special, or primary election ballot shall be printed on the ballot in the form designated by the candidate. In lieu of his full legal name, the candidate may use in combination with his surname any of his given names or initials or contraction of such names by which he is commonly known, and as a part of his name he may use a bona fide nickname of one unhyphenated word of not more than ten letters, by which he is commonly known and has been so known for at least two years preceding the election. No nickname shall be placed on the ballot unless it meets the foregoing requirements, and in no event shall there be placed on the ballot any nickname indicating any political, economic, social, or religious view or affiliation. The suffix "Sr.," "Jr.," "2nd," or a word or abbreviation of similar import may be used as part of the candidate's name.

A married woman or widow may use in combination with her surname the given name or initials of her husband or deceased husband with the prefix "Mrs." In the event two or more candidates for the same office have the same or similar surnames, each such candidate may have printed after his name a descriptive statement, not to exceed four words, which will distinguish him from the other. The descriptive words must refer to his place of residence or to his present or former profession, occupation or position (which may be by title or other method), and no other kind of descriptive matter shall be used. Except as herein permitted, no title or other designation of status, office, position, or attainment shall be affixed to any candidate's name. [Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 31.]

Art. 6.02. Loyalty Affidavits

(a) No person shall be permitted to have his name appear upon the official ballot as a candidate or nominee for any public office, as hereinafter stated, at any general, special, or primary election in this state, unless and until he shall have filed a loyalty affidavit as required by this section. The provisions of this section shall apply to candidates for all elective state, district, county, and precinct offices, including the offices of United States Senator and United States Representative, and to all elective offices of cities, school districts, conservation districts, and other political subdivisions of the state, except candidates for President or Vice-President of the United States and presidential elector candidates.

(b) A candidate whose name is to appear on the ballot in any general primary (first primary) election shall file the affidavit with the chairman of the executive committee with whom the request to have his name placed on the ballot is filed, or if filed with more than one, with each chairman. The affidavit must be filed before the deadline for filing applications for that election. Before the name of a write-in candidate in a first primary election is ordered placed on the ballot for a second or runoff primary election or is certified to be placed on the ballot for a general or special election as the party nominee, he shall file the affidavit with the chairman of the state executive committee in the case of a district or state-wide office and with the chairman of the county executive committee in the case of a county or precinct office. A candidate nominated by a party convention or a party executive committee shall file the affidavit with the committee chairman who certifies his nomination, and the affidavit must be filed before his name is certified. An independent or nonpartisan candidate shall file the affidavit with the officer with whom his petition or application for a place on the ballot is filed, and the affidavit must be filed before the deadline for filing applications for a place on the ballot at that election.

(c) The affidavit shall be in the following form:

I _____, of the County of _____, State of Texas, being a candidate for the office of _____ do solemnly swear that I believe in and approve of our present representative form of government, and, if elected, I will support and defend our present representative form of government and will resist any effort or movement from any source which seeks to subvert or destroy the same or any part thereof, and I will support and defend the Constitution and laws of the United States and of the State of Texas.

(d) The name of no candidate or nominee of any political party whose principles include any thought or purpose of setting aside representative form of government and substituting therefor any other form of government shall be permitted on the official ballot. It is specifically provided that no candidate or nominee of the Communist Party or the Fascist Party or the Nazi Party shall ever be allowed a place on the official ballot at any election in this state.

(e) The certification of a candidate as the nominee of a political party shall be sufficient evidence of the filing of the affidavit with the proper party chairman to permit the officer to whom the certification is made to place the candidate's name on the general or special election ballot, and it shall not be necessary for the candidate to file an affidavit with any other officer in connection with his candidacy, nor shall it be necessary for the certificate to state that the affidavit has been filed.

(f) If any officer with whom the loyalty affidavit as prescribed herein is required to be filed, fails or refuses to require the affidavit before ordering or certifying the candidate's name for a place on the ballot, he is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 6.03. Certain Political Parties Not Permitted on Ballot

Any political party whose members believe in or advocate the principles and teachings of Communism, or who propose or advocate the overthrow of the Constitutional Government of the United States by force, shall not be permitted to have the name of any such party printed or placed on the official ballot at any General Election hereafter to be held in this State.

Art. 6.04. Death or Declination; Placing Name of Substitute Nominee on Ballot

If a nominee dies or declines his nomination, and the vacancy so created shall have been filled, and such facts shall have been duly certified in accordance with the provisions of this Code, the officer to whom certification of the substitute nomination is made shall promptly notify the official board created by this law to furnish election supplies that such vacancy has occurred and the name of the new nominee shall then be printed upon the official ballot, if the ballots are not already printed. If such declination or death occurs after the ballots are printed, or due notice of the name of the new nominee is received after such printing, the official board charged with the duty of furnishing election supplies shall prepare as many pasters bearing the name of the new nominee as there are official ballots, which shall be pasted over the name of the former nominee on the official ballot before the presiding judge of the precinct indorses his name on the ballot for identification, or before opening of the polls where the voting is by use of a voting machine. In place of the pasters the official board may have the ballots reprinted, blotting out the name and printing above it the name of the new nominee, thus:

Art. 6.05. Form of the Ballot

Subd. 1. All official paper ballots for any general, special, or primary election shall be printed on white paper of uniform style and of sufficient thickness to prevent the marks thereon to be seen through the paper. A suitable number of sample ballots may be printed on yellow paper for any election, but no ballot on yellow paper may be cast or counted.

Subd. 2. Upon each official ballot in every general, special, or primary election there shall be in the top right-hand corner a detachable stub formed by a perforated line which shall start two inches below the top right-hand corner of the ballot and shall extend two inches to the left and thence to the top edge of the ballot. Upon the stub thus formed there shall be no printing or writing except the number of such ballot and the date and designation of the election, and the words, "NOTE: VOTER'S SIGNATURE TO BE AFFIXED ON THE REVERSE SIDE." All ballots prepared for an election shall be numbered consecutively beginning with No. 1 in each county if the election is to be held in a single county or part thereof, or is to be held in more than one county or part thereof and the result in each county is to be canvassed separately prior to the final canvass. In elections held by a city or other political subdivision of the State, all ballots for the election shall be numbered consecutively beginning with No. 1. The number that appears on the stub shall also appear in the top left-hand corner of the ballot. The numbers shall be printed or stamped in consecutive order on all the ballots prepared for any election, with a separate number for each ballot, at the time of printing and before they are divided up and delivered to the election judges.

Subd. 3. In any general or special election at which the name of any candidate is to be printed on the ballot as the nominee of a political party, the tickets of the political parties which have nominated a candidate or candidates shall be arranged side by side in vertical columns of uniform width separated by a parallel rule. The first vertical column on the left-hand side of the ballot shall be used for printing the titles of the offices to be voted on, with the words "Candidates for:" being printed at the top of the column, and thereunder shall be listed the titles of the offices. In the top space in the second and succeeding vertical columns shall be printed the names of the political parties having nominees on the ballot, in the sequence specified by law. Listed under each party name and opposite each office title shall be printed the name of the party's candidate for the office. If the name of any independent or nonpartisan candidate is to be printed on the ballot, the next succeeding column shall be headed "Independent" and shall contain the names of the independent candidates opposite the appropriate office titles. The last column shall be headed "Write-In." The office titles shall be separated from each other by parallel horizontal lines extending across the ballot, through the party columns, the column for independent candidates, and the column for write-in candidates.

Subd. 4. When presidential electors are to be voted upon, their names shall not appear on the official ballot, but the names of the candidates for president and vice-president, respectively, of the political parties shall appear at the head of their respective tickets, printed as one race, and the votes for presidential electors of the various parties shall be canvassed, counted, and returns made in accordance with Section 171 and Section 172 of this Code.<sup>1</sup>

Subd. 5. In any general or special election for which no party nomination has been made, the titles of the offices to be voted on shall be arranged in a vertical column, and beneath the title of each office the names of the candidates shall be arranged in the order specified by law. In any election for which write-in votes are permitted, beneath the names of the candidates under each office there shall be a blank space with either a broken or a solid line underneath, as the space for a write-in vote, and when more than one candidate is to be elected for an office, the number of write-in spaces shall correspond to the number of candidates to be elected. If the over-all size of the ballot, arranged as one column, exceeds 18 inches in length, the office titles may be arranged in parallel vertical columns, all except the last of which shall be at least 16 inches in length.

Subd. 6. On all official ballots for an election, the type for all office titles shall be of uniform style and size; the type for all column headings shall be of uniform style and size; and the type for the names of all candidates shall be of uniform style and size.

Subd. 7. On each official ballot where officers are to be elected or nominated, there shall be printed on the left-hand side of the name of each candidate a square, [ ], and there shall be printed immediately below the words "Official Ballot" the following instruction note: "Vote for the candidate of your choice in each race by placing an 'X' in the square beside the candidate's name." On each official ballot on which party columns appear, a larger square shall be printed on the left-hand side of the name of the party, at the head of each party ticket, and the following shall be added to the instruction note: "You may vote a straight ticket by placing an 'X' in the square beside the name of the party of your choice at the head of the party column." Appropriate changes in the instruction note shall be made where only one race is listed on the ballot or where more than one person is to be elected in any given race.

Subd. 8. When constitutional amendments or other propositions are to be voted on, they shall appear once on each ballot in uniform style and type. Each proposition shall be submitted by printing the word "FOR" and beneath it the word "AGAINST" on the left-hand side of a single statement of the proposition, with a brace or parallel horizontal lines or other suitable device to show clearly to which proposition each "FOR" and "AGAINST" belongs. A square shall be printed on the left-hand side of the word "FOR" and of the word "AGAINST" in the statements submitting each proposition, and the following instruction note shall be printed immediately above the propositions: "Place an 'X' in the square beside the statement indicating the way you wish to vote." The provisions of this subdivision shall supersede all existing statutes on the form in which propositions are to be submitted in all elections where paper ballots are used except local option elections held under the provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act, and shall also supersede any conflicting enactment passed by the 60th Legislature at its regular session unless such enactment expressly excepts it from the operation of this subdivision. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 61; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 802, ch. 338, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1026, ch. 452, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 6.05a. Ballots for Elections Involving Precinct Offices

For any election, general or primary, at which the district office of United States Representative, State Senator, or State Representative, or the precinct office of county commissioner, justice of the peace, constable, public weigher, or precinct chairman of a political party is to be voted on, different ballots shall be prepared for the various districts or precincts involved in the election, to differ with respect to the district or precinct offices to be voted on. The election officers for each election precinct shall be furnished official ballots listing the district and precinct offices and candidates which are to be voted on by the voters in the particular election precinct, and no other district or precinct office shall be listed thereon, so that no voter shall receive a ballot listing any district or precinct office on which he is not entitled to vote. In furnishing ballots to absentee voters, the County Clerk shall furnish the voter with the ballot prepared for use in the election precinct in which he resides.

Art. 6.05b. Order of Party Columns on the Ballot

In any election held at the expense of the county, in which party columns appear on the official ballot, the columns shall be arranged in the following order, beginning on the left-hand side of the ballot:

(1) columns of parties with state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election, arranged in the order of the number of votes cast for each party's candidate for Governor at the preceding general election, with the party whose candidate for Governor received the highest vote being placed in the first column;

(2) columns of parties without state organization which have nominated candidates to be voted on at the election;

- (3) a column for independent candidates;
- (4) a column for write-in candidates.

If there is no independent or nonpartisan candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, the column for independent candidates shall be omitted.

Where voting machines are used in the election and the columns on the ballot are arranged horizontally, the columns shall appear on the ballot in the order herein provided, beginning at the top of the ballot instead of on the left-hand side.

[Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 35.]

Art. 6.05c. Order of Offices and Names of Candidates

Order of State, District, County, and Precinct Offices

Subd. 1. (a) Whenever there are to appear on the ballot for any general, special, or primary election, two or more office titles of offices which are regularly filled at the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code,<sup>1</sup> they shall be listed on the ballot in the following relative order:

Federal offices:

- President and Vice President
- United States Senator
- Congressman-at-Large
- United States Representative (district office)

State offices:

- (1) Statewide offices
  - Governor
  - Lieutenant Governor
  - Attorney General
  - Comptroller of Public Accounts
  - State Treasurer
  - Commissioner of General Land Office
  - Commissioner of Agriculture
  - Railroad Commissioner
  - Chief Justice, Supreme Court
  - Associate Justice, Supreme Court
  - Presiding Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals
  - Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals

(2) District offices

- State Senator
- State Representative
- Member, State Board of Education
- Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals
- Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals
- District Judge
- Criminal District Judge
- Judge, Domestic Relations Court
- Judge, Juvenile Court
- District Attorney
- Criminal District Attorney

(3) County offices

- County Judge
- Judge, County Court-at-Law
- Judge, County Criminal Court
- Judge, County Probate Court
- County Attorney
- District Clerk
- District and County Clerk
- County Clerk
- Sheriff
- Sheriff and Tax Assessor-Collector
- County Tax Assessor-Collector
- County Treasurer
- County School Superintendent
- County Surveyor
- Inspector of Hides and Animals

(4) Precinct offices

- County Commissioner
- Justice of the Peace
- Constable
- Public Weigher.

The headings "federal offices" and "state offices" and the subheadings under "state offices" shall not be printed on the ballot.

(b) Whenever any new office within either of the above categories is created, the Secretary of State shall issue a directive designating its relative position on the ballot.

(c) Whenever the titles of party offices are to appear on the ballot for a primary election, they shall be listed following the public offices, in the order of "County Chairman" and "Precinct Chairman".

(d) Whenever any provision of this code authorizes or permits certain offices to be grouped and placed on a separate ballot or in a special column or section on the main ballot, the relative order as prescribed in Paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be observed in listing such offices on the separate ballot or in the special column on the main ballot.

Elections Held by Other Political Subdivisions

Subd. 2. In elections held by municipalities, the office titles shall be listed on the ballot in the relative positions in which the offices are listed in the order calling the election, unless otherwise provided by charter or ordinance. In elections held by other political subdivisions, the authority calling the election shall determine the order of the offices on the ballot.

Order of Names of Candidates

Subd. 3. (a) In any general or special election in which the names of more than one candidate for the same office are to be printed on the ballot in an independent or nonpartisan column or are to be printed on the ballot without party designation, the order in which the names of such candidates are to be printed on the ballot shall be determined by a drawing, to be conducted by the county clerk in elections held at the expense of the county, by the city secretary in city elections, and by the officer with whom the applications for a place on the ballot are filed in elections held by other political subdivisions. The officer conducting the drawing shall post a notice in his office, at least three days prior to the date on which the drawing is to be held, of the time and place of the drawing, and shall also give personal notice to any candidate who makes written request for such notice and furnishes to the officer a self-addressed, stamped envelope; and each candidate involved in the drawing or a representative designated by him shall have a right to be present and observe the drawing.

(b) In primary elections, the order in which the names of the candidates appear on the ballot shall be determined in the manner provided in Section 195 of this code.<sup>2</sup>

Art. 6.05d. Election for Unexpired Term

Whenever, in any general election or in any primary election for making nominations for a general election, an election is to be held for an unexpired term in an office, the words "unexpired term" shall be printed after the office title on the official ballot. [Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 37.]

Art. 6.05e. Correction of Errors on Ballot; Use of Pastors

If an error is made in printing the name of a candidate on the ballot, it may be corrected by use of a printed sticker or paster, which shall be printed on the same kind of paper and in the same style of type as used on the ballot. Any other error may be corrected in like manner if it can be done without disturbing the regularity of the ballot form. No sticker or paster shall be used on a ballot except as authorized in this section or in Section 60 of this Code, and if otherwise used the names pasted shall not be counted.

Art. 6.06. How to Mark Ballot

In all elections, general, special, or primary, the voter shall place an "X" in the square beside the name of each candidate for whom he wishes to vote; provided, however, that if the voter places a plus sign (+) or a check mark (✓) or any other mark that clearly shows his intention, in such space, it shall be counted as a vote for that candidate, provided that no more names are thus marked than there are places to be filled. When party columns appear on the ballot, a voter desiring to vote a straight ticket may do so by placing an "X" or other clear mark in the square at the head of the column of the party for which he wishes to vote. If the name of the person for whom the voter wishes to vote is not printed on the ballot, the voter shall write in the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote, in the write-in column under the appropriate office title in elections where party columns appear on the ballot, and in an appropriate space under the title of the office in other elections; provided, however, that a voter shall not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any runoff election for nominating candidates or electing officers, and a space for write-in votes shall not be provided on the ballot for such elections. A voter shall also not be entitled to vote for any candidate whose name is not printed on the ballot in any other type of election where the law expressly prohibits votes for write-in candidates. In all elections where questions or propositions are to be voted on except local option elections held under the provisions of the Texas Liquor Control Act, the voter shall place an "X" or other clear mark in the square beside the statement indicating the way he wishes to vote on each proposition. The failure of a voter to mark his ballot in strict conformity with these directions or failure to vote a full ballot shall not invalidate the ballot, and a ballot shall be counted on all races and propositions wherein the intention of the voter is clearly ascertainable, except where the law expressly prohibits the counting of the ballot. It is specifically provided that the election officers shall not refuse to count a ballot because of the voter's having marked his ballot by scratching out the names of candidates for whom or the statement of propositions for which he does not wish to vote.

Art. 6.06a. Write-in Votes when Office Title is Not on Ballot

Whenever at any general election there is no candidate whose name is to be printed in the ballot for an office subject to being filled at that election and the officer making up the official ballot fails to list the title of the office thereon, no person shall be declared elected to the office by virtue of write-in votes cast by writing in the title of the office and the name of the candidate unless the total number of votes cast for all write-in candidates for that office exceeds fifty percent of the total number of voters participating in the election who are eligible to vote for the office.

Art. 6.07. Constitutional Amendments and Other Questions

Subd. 1. When a proposed constitutional amendment or other question submitted by the Legislature is to be voted on, the form in which it is submitted if the Legislature has failed to prescribe the same, shall be prescribed by the Governor in his proclamation, describing the same in such terms as give a clear idea of the scope and character of the amendment in question. When more than one (1) proposed constitutional amendment or other question is submitted by the Legislature at one (1) election, the Secretary of State shall give to each such proposition and question a separate number, and shall certify the same together with its separate number to the county clerk of each county in the State. The number given to each such proposition, question or proposed amendment shall be determined by lot. The Secretary of State shall hold such drawing at a time and place designated by him and such drawing shall be open to the public. The propositions and questions so submitted shall be printed and numbered on the official ballot in the serial order in which they are numbered by the Secretary of State.

Subd. 2. Such constitutional amendments shall be published, under the authority of the Secretary of State as required by the Constitution. The Secretary of State shall apportion the amendments to the contracting newspapers; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to be executed by the owner, editor or publisher of the newspaper, when four (4) publications shall have been made; shall furnish one (1) approved copy of each executed affidavit to the Comptroller, who shall then authorize the Treasurer to issue warrant in the amount specified. Executed affidavits must be returned from the owner, editor or publisher of the newspaper, to the Secretary of State within thirty (30) days from the date of the last publication; unless this time limit is observed, the Secretary of State shall refrain from approving affidavits for payment. Provided, however, if the Secretary of State shall deem it more expeditious or economical he may apportion such amendments and make a written contract with any state-wide association of daily and weekly newspapers in Texas for the publication of such constitutional amendments in newspapers designated by him. Such association shall cause such amendments to be published in said newspapers in the manner required by the Constitution; shall furnish such materials as are necessary for a correct and uniform publication of such amendments in said newspapers; shall furnish affidavit forms, in duplicate, to such newspapers, to be executed by the owner, editor, or publisher thereof, when four (4) publications shall have been made; shall make an itemized report to the Secretary of State showing the names of all the newspapers in which such amendments were published, the number of column inches submitted to each publication, the cost of publication in each newspaper, together with a clipping for such newspaper, and any other information desired by the Secretary of State pertaining to such task; shall return within thirty (30) days from the date of the last publication all affidavits executed by the owner, editor, or publisher of such newspapers, together with an affidavit executed in duplicate by the general manager of such association that the amendments have been published by said newspapers as required by the Constitution, to the Secretary of State, who shall, after satisfying himself as to the proper publication of such amendments, furnish one (1) approved copy of the executed affidavit of the general manager of the association to the Comptroller, who shall authorize the Treasurer to issue warrant in the amount specified to the association. The Comptroller and Treasurer shall forthwith perform their duties in this connection, so that undue length of time shall not elapse between publication and payment therefor. The Legislature shall appropriate a sufficient fund for such publication, such fund to be estimated by the Secretary of State.

Subd. 2a. The publication of each constitutional amendment shall be limited to the text of the joint resolution below the resolving clause.

Subd. 3. The form in which any proposition or question to be voted on by the people of any city, county or other subdivision of the State shall be submitted, unless prescribed by statute, city charter or ordinance, shall be prescribed by the local or municipal authorities submitting it.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 63; Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 907, ch. 357, § 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1029, ch. 452, § 3, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1617, ch. 498, § 1, eff. June 10, 1969.]

Art. 6.09. Ballots Furnished

For each voting precinct, there shall be furnished at least as many official ballots plus ten per cent (10%) as there are qualified voters in the precinct, as shown by the list required to be furnished by the tax collector to precinct judges. The official ballots to be counted before delivery and sealed up and together with the instruction cards, with poll lists, tally sheets, distance markers, returning blanks and stationery, shall be delivered to the precinct judges, and the number of each endorsed on the package, and entered of record by the county clerk in the minutes of the Commissioners Court. In like manner, shall be sent the list of qualified voters for the precinct certified to by the collector.

Art. 6.10. Voters Provide Form

If, from any cause, the official ballots furnished for an election precinct have been exhausted or not delivered to the precinct judges, the voters may provide their own ballot after the style of the official ballot described in this title.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 65.]

Art. 7.01. Voting Booths

Voting booths shall be furnished and used at elections at each voting precinct in towns or cities of ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants or more. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 66.]

Art. 7.02. Booths and Guard Rails

There shall be one voting booth or place for every seventy citizens who reside in the voting precinct and who at the last general election paid their poll tax or obtained certificates of exemption from its payment, provided, the judges of the election may provide as many more booths and places as they deem necessary. Each polling place, whether provided with voting booths or not, shall be provided with a guard rail, so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside of such guard rail can approach the ballot boxes or compartments, places or booths at which the voters are to prepare their votes, and that no person outside of the guard rail can approach nearer than six (6) feet of the place where the voter prepares his ballot. The arrangement shall be such that neither the ballot boxes nor the voting booths nor the voters while preparing their ballots shall be hidden from view of those outside the guard rail, or from the judges, and yet the same shall be far enough removed and so arranged that the voter may conveniently prepare his ballot for voting in secrecy. Where voting booths are required they shall have three (3) sides closed and the front side open, shall be twenty-two (22) inches wide on the inside, thirty-two (32) inches deep and six (6) feet four (4) inches high, contain a shelf for the convenience of the voter in preparing his ballot; and shall be so constructed with hinges that they can be folded up for storage when not in use. The voting booths shall be so arranged that there shall be no access to them through any doors, window or opening except through the front of the booth; and the same care shall be observed in precincts where there are no booths in protecting the voter from intrusion while he is preparing his ballot. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 67.]

Art. 7.03. Open to View

All booths and voting places shall be properly lighted. Every guard rail shall be provided with a place for entrance and exit. The arrangement of the polling place shall be such that the booths or places prepared for voting can only be reached by passing within the guard rail; and the booths, ballot boxes, election officers and every part of the polling place, except the inside of the booths, shall be in plain view of the election officers and persons outside the guard rail, among whom may be one challenger for each political party and no more. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 68.]

Art. 7.04. When Booth Not Required

When voting booths are not required, a guard rail shall be so placed that no one not authorized can approach nearer than six (6) feet of the voter while he is preparing his ballot; and a shelf for writing shall be prepared for him with black lead pencil, and so screened that no other person can see how he prepares his ballot. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 69.]

Art. 7.05. Ballot Boxes Marked

For each election precinct, there shall be provided four (4) ballot boxes to be marked as follows: "Ballot box No. 1 for election precinct No. _____" (giving name and number of precinct); "Ballot box No. 2 for election precinct No. _____"; "Ballot box No. 3 for election precinct No. _____"; "Ballot box No. 4 for election precinct No. _____." [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 70.]

Art. 7.06. Ballot Boxes

All ballot boxes shall be securely made of a material and construction and in a design approved by the secretary of state. All ballot boxes shall be provided with a lock and key and shall have an opening at the top just large enough to receive a ballot when voted. Whenever the ballots shall have been counted at any election, general, special or primary, the counted ballots shall be locked in one of the ballot boxes of suitable size and delivered to the proper official and the key or keys to the said lock shall be delivered to the proper official to be kept for at least thirty days unless sooner needed for recount or contest as provided by law. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 71; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 40; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 16, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 7.07. County Election Board

In general and special elections for election of officers who are regularly elected at the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code,<sup>1</sup> the county judge, county clerk, sheriff, and county chairman of each political party which is required to nominate candidates by primary election shall constitute a board, a majority of whom shall act to provide the supplies necessary to hold and conduct the election. In all other elections held by the county, the board shall be composed of the county judge, county clerk and sheriff. As used herein, the words "supplies" means all supplies and equipment needed for the election, including, without limitation, ballot boxes, voting booths, guard rails, voting machines, and other voting equipment. The supplies shall be delivered to the presiding judges of the election by the sheriff or any constable of the county, when not called for and obtained in person by the presiding judges, provided, however, that delivery of voting machines shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Section 79 of this code.<sup>2</sup> The board shall file with the commissioners court a written report of their action as to supplies furnished by the county, giving a detailed statement of the expenses incurred in procuring such supplies.

<sup>1</sup> Article 2.01.

Art. 7.08. Supplies Needed

The respective counties shall provide the additional supplies needed to comply with this Act in so far as general and special elections are concerned.

Art. 7.09. Judge to Procure

If from any cause, ballot boxes, voting booths, guard rails or other election supplies have not been received by the presiding judge, he shall procure them, and they shall be paid for as other election supplies. If the certified list of qualified voters is not in his possession at least three (3) days before the election, he shall send for and procure them.

Art. 7.10. Collector's Fee for Poll Taxes

The tax collector shall be paid fifteen cents for each poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption issued by him, to be paid pro-rata by the state and county in proportion to the amount of the poll tax received by the state and the amount of the fee received by the county for collecting the poll tax, and the amount paid to the tax collector shall include compensation for all duties performed by him under the provisions of this Code. Provided, however, that where county tax collectors are compensated on a salary basis the money paid by the state and county for receipts and certificates issued by him shall be deposited in the officers salary fund of the county.

Art. 7.11. Duty of Sheriff and Constable

It shall be the duty of the sheriff or any constable of the county when called upon by the proper authority to serve all process and deliver all election supplies provided for by this Code. No extra compensation shall be allowed the sheriff or constable for the performance of such duties.

Art. 7.12. Expenses for Election Supplies

All expenses incurred in furnishing the supplies, ballots, and booths in any general or special election shall be paid for by the county, except costs in municipal and school elections. All accounts for supplies furnished and services rendered shall first be approved by the Commissioners Court before they are paid by the county.

Art. 7.13. Municipal Elections

The expense of all city and town elections shall be paid by the municipality in which same are held. In all such elections, the mayor, the city secretary, and/or the governing body shall do and perform each act which in other elections are required to be done and performed respectively by the county judge, the county clerk and the Commissioners Court.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 78.]

Art. 7.14. Providing for Voting Machines

Providing for Examination and Approval of Voting Machines by the Secretary of State

Sec. 1. Any person, firm or corporation owning or controlling any voting machine and desiring to have the same adopted for use in the State of Texas, may apply to the Secretary of State to have such machine examined. Before the examination the applicant shall pay to the Secretary of State the sum of Four Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($450). The Secretary of State shall cause said machine to be examined as hereinafter provided and shall make and file and keep on file in the office of the Secretary of State a report of such examination, which shall show whether the kind of machine so examined can safely be used by the voters at an election or primary election, under the conditions hereinafter provided. If the report states that the machine can be so used, it shall be deemed approved, and machines of its kind may be adopted for use at elections and primary elections as herein provided. Before making and filing such report, the Secretary of State shall require such voting machine to be examined by three (3) examiners to be appointed by the Secretary of State for such purpose, one of whom shall be an expert in patent law, and the other two (2) mechanical experts, and shall require of them a written report on such machine, and which reports shall be attached to the Secretary of State's report and kept on file. Each examiner shall receive the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) as his compensation and expenses in making an examination and report as to each voting machine examined by him. Neither the Secretary of State nor any examiner shall have any pecuniary interest in any voting machine. When the machine has been approved, any improvement or change that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency or capacity, shall not make necessary a reexamination or reapproval thereof. Any form of voting machine not approved as herein set out, or which has not been examined by voting machine examiners and reported on pursuant to law and its use specifically authorized by law, cannot be used at any election or primary election in the State of Texas.

Setting Out Requirements of Voting Machines

Sec. 2. A voting machine approved by the Secretary of State must be so constructed as to provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be legally placed on an official ballot at any election in this state. It must also permit a voter in a general election to vote for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate<sup>1</sup> by any party but whose name is legally on the ballot as an independent candidate, and must permit voting in absolute secrecy. It also must be so constructed that a voter cannot vote for a candidate or on a proposition for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote. It also must be so constructed as to prevent voting for more than one person for the same office and at the same time preventing his voting for the same person twice. It must be provided with a lock or locks, by the use of which immediately after the polls are closed or the operation of such machine for such election or primary election is completed, any movement of the voting or registering mechanism is absolutely prevented. The machine shall be equipped with one or more protective counters. The machine may be equipped with a device which prints a copy or copies of the numbers registered on the counters, as registered before the polls open and after the polls close.

Adoption by Commissioners Court

Sec. 3. The commissioners court of any county in the state may adopt for use in elections in at least three of the larger election precincts in voting strength in the county, any kind of voting machine approved by the Secretary of State, and may adopt such voting machine at any time for use in such additional election precincts in the county as it may deem advisable. The court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting voting machines, and may discontinue use of voting machines altogether, but use of voting machines shall be retained in at least three of the larger election precincts if retained for use in any part of the county.

Voting machines shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in all precincts in which they have been adopted by the commissioners court. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting in such precincts for the particular election shall be by use of voting machines or paper ballots, and may provide for use of either voting machines or paper ballots in any or all of the precincts for which voting machines have been adopted. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities or other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the political party in primary elections.

Experimental Use of Voting Machines

Sec. 4. The Commissioners Court of any county in the State of Texas, where not otherwise herein provided, may secure, for experimental use, at an election or primary election, in one or more precincts without a formal adoption thereof; and its use at such election or primary shall be as valid for all purposes as if it had been formally adopted.

Providing Voting Machines

Sec. 5. The commissioners court of a county which had adopted voting machines for that county or any portion thereof, shall as soon as practicable, and in no case later than six months after adoption thereof, provide for each election precinct designated one or more approved voting machines in completed working order, and shall thereafter preserve and keep them in repair.

Payment for Voting Machines

Sec. 6. The County Commissioners Court shall provide for the payment of voting machines to be used in such county in such manner as the Court may deem for the best interest of the county, and for the purpose of paying for voting machines, such Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to issue bonds, and certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations to be used for this purpose and no other, which shall be a charge against the county, such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or other obligations, may be issued with or without interest payable at such time or times as the Commissioners Court may determine, but shall never be issued nor sold for less than par; provided, however, that such Commissioners Court shall issue such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations, to be used for the purpose of payment of voting machines in the same manner and with the same authority as provided for the issuance of warrants, bonds, certificates of indebtedness, or other obligations, by the General Laws of this State. The necessary tax shall be set aside at the time of creating such obligation so as to meet the debt provisions of the Constitution; provided, however, that should the Commissioners Court of any county deem it for the best interest of such county, said Commissioners Court is hereby authorized to contract for the renting of voting machines by such county for use in elections for a term of not more than two (2) years in any one contract of rental. Upon the expiration of such terms of contract of rental such Commissioners Court may renew and/or extend same from time to time. Such contracts shall be made only after advertising for bids in the manner provided by the General Laws controlling the purchases made by such county for county purposes provided and except, however, the Commissioners Court of any county is hereby authorized to accept proposals of rental and/or sale of voting machines after advertising as provided by law wherein the rentals paid by such county for the use of such voting machines or a part thereof may be applied on the purchase price of such machines upon such Commissioners Court determining that it is to the best interest of such counties so to do. Such voting machines shall be the property of the county paying for same and/or renting same, subject to the terms of the rental contract, and when used in any election or primary election, the county is not charged by law with the holding of, such machines shall be leased to the authorities charged with holding such election or primary election, and payment shall be received by the county at such lease price per machine for each election day such machines are used in an election as the Commissioners Court shall fix, but not to exceed ten per cent (10%) of the original cost of such voting machine, as may be required to hold each election or primary election. The term each election or primary election, as herein used, shall mean each election day such machines are used for voting purposes in such elections, and the Commissioners Court in fixing such lease price shall fix a lease price, and payment for same shall be received by the county, for each day such machines are actually used for voting in such election or primary election, and in the event a runoff election or primary runoff election is held, such lease price shall be paid to the county for each whether the same be the first election or primary election or the second and/or runoff election or second and/or runoff primary; and those charged with the holding of such election or primary election shall pay the lease price whether it be a school board, a municipality, a political party, or any other organization or authority.

Absentee Voting

Sec. 7. In any election in which voting machines are to be used in all or part of the election precincts, the authority charged with holding the election shall within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not voting machines shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance at such election. If it be determined by such authority that voting machines shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, a voting machine or machines shall be placed in the office of the clerk who is to conduct the absentee voting for the election, as provided in Section 37 of this Code,<sup>2</sup> with the ballot of the election thereon as regulated by law, and those entitled under the law to vote absentee by personal appearance at the clerk's office shall cast their votes on such machine or machines as the case may be, under the laws applicable to absentee voting, and the clerk shall enter on a poll list the name of each such voter at the time he votes. The clerk shall seal the machine or machines at the close of each day's voting in the presence of authorized watchers, if any, and such seal shall be broken by the clerk in the presence of such authorized watchers, if any, the following morning when voting begins. When absentee voting by personal appearance is legally concluded at the election, the clerk shall lock and seal such machine or machines in the manner prescribed for election precincts, to be kept intact until the day of the election. Before seven o'clock p. m. on the day of the election, the machine or machines shall be opened and the vote canvassed, in the manner provided for regular polling places, by the clerk who conducted the absentee voting and two other officers as follows: if an election held by the county, by the county judge and the sheriff; if a city election, by the mayor and one other member of the city governing body, to be designated by the governing body; if an election held by some other political subdivision, by the presiding officer and one other member of the governing body of the subdivision, to be designated by the governing body; and if a primary election, by the chairman and secretary of the executive committee of the political party holding the election; provided, however, that where the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted by a special canvassing board as hereinafter authorized, the special canvassing board shall canvass the absentee votes cast on voting machines. After the canvass has been made, the machine or machines shall be locked and sealed and shall remain locked against voting for the same period as required for other machines used in the election. The results of such canvass shall be returned by sealing and delivering, same to the proper authority as provided by law and such results shall be tabulated and canvassed in the same manner and together with the tabulation and canvassing of the returns for other election precincts. The results of such absentee votes shall not be announced or made public until after seven o'clock p. m. of the day of the election, when such results shall be announced and made public together with the general results of the election by proclamation of same as provided by law.

In all elections, absentee voting by mail shall be conducted by use of paper ballots, and the authority holding the election shall provide official paper ballots for the casting of absentee ballots by mail as prescribed and provided by the general laws applicable to absentee voting. Should the authority determine by such resolution as above provided that paper ballots are to be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, a sufficient supply of paper ballots shall be provided for absentee voting by personal appearance as well as by mail. The absentee voting by use of paper ballots shall be conducted as prescribed by the general laws applicable to absentee voting, except as otherwise provided herein. If the authority holding the election determines that absentee paper ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as hereinafter authorized, the ballots shall be counted and returns made in the manner prescribed. If the ballots are not to be counted by a special canvassing board, they shall be sent to the precinct polling places for counting. On the second day prior to the election, the clerk shall mail or deliver to the presiding judge in the precinct of the voter's residence each absentee ballot which has been lawfully returned to him, in the manner provided in Subdivision 8 of Section 37 of this Code.<sup>3</sup> In county-wide elections, the authority holding the election shall be responsible for delivering to the precinct polling places the absentee ballots voted by mail which are received by the clerk between the second day prior to the election and one o'clock p. m. on election day. On election day, the precinct election officers shall test and qualify the absentee ballots in the manner provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this Code,<sup>4</sup> and the name of each elector whose absentee ballot is accepted shall be entered on the regular poll list with the words "absentee voter" set down opposite the voter's name.

In election precincts where paper ballots are used, the ballot stubs for the accepted ballots shall be placed in the regular stub box prepared for the precinct, and the ballot envelopes shall be placed in a box for absentee ballots. Between the hours of 2:00 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. on the day of the election, the ballot envelopes shall be opened and the ballots shall be counted and tallied in the same manner as other ballots cast at the election and shall then be placed in ballot box No. 3 for counted ballots.

In election precincts where voting machines are used, the stubs shall be placed in a stub box prepared for absentee ballots for that precinct, and the ballot envelopes shall be placed in a box for absentee ballots. Between the hours of 2:00 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. on the day of the election, the ballot envelopes shall be opened and, under the supervision of the presiding officer and in the presence of two clerks and of the watchers, if any, the ballots shall be registered on the voting machine the same as if the absent voter had been present and voted in person, and the voted paper ballots shall then be placed in a ballot box which shall be locked and returned to the officer having custody of the voted ballots for that election.

All rejected absentee ballots and the applications and accompanying papers on all absentee ballots shall be handled and returned in the manner provided by general law for absentee voting.

Special Canvassing Board

Sec. 7a. In all elections in which voting machines are used for voting at regular polling places, both county-wide and less than county-wide, the authority charged with holding the election may in its discretion determine by proper resolution to have absentee paper ballots counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this Code.<sup>5</sup> The special canvassing board shall count the absentee paper ballots and make return thereof in the same way as prescribed for county-wide elections in Sections 37 and 38 of this Code, and all laws applicable to absentee voting in county-wide elections, including the period for absentee voting by mail, shall apply. The board shall be appointed and compensated as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37. If absentee voting by personal appearance has been conducted by use of voting machines, the special canvassing board shall also canvass and record the votes cast on the voting machine or machines and make return thereof.

Absentee Voting by Paper Ballots for Precinct Offices

Sec. 7b. Whenever, at any election where precinct offices are to be voted on, the authority charged with holding the election determines to use voting machines for conducting absentee voting by personal appearance in the clerk's office and the number of separate precinct offices makes it impossible to place the entire ballot on one voting machine, the authority charged with holding the election may in its discretion further determine by proper resolution or order to use paper ballots for absentee voting by personal appearance for any or all of the precinct offices to be voted on, and to use a voting machine or machines for all other offices to be voted on at the election. The paper ballot used for precinct offices shall conform to all requirements for official ballots as provided elsewhere in this Code, except that there shall be listed thereon only the precinct offices for which the authority holding the election has determined to use paper ballots. Each voter making his personal appearance in the clerk's office shall be furnished with a paper ballot containing the precinct offices for which he is entitled to vote, and he shall cast his vote for offices listed on the paper ballot in accordance with the procedure for casting absentee ballots voted by personal appearance as provided in Sections 37 and 38 of this Code.

Absentee voting by mail shall be conducted by use of an official paper ballot for all offices to be voted on at the election, in the manner provided in Sections 37 and 38 of this Code.

A special canvassing board, which shall be appointed and compensated as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this Code, shall count and make return of the paper ballots cast for precinct offices, as well as the absentee ballots cast by mail, in the manner prescribed in Subdivision 6 of Section 37. The votes cast on the voting machine or machines shall be canvassed and recorded and return thereof made in the manner prescribed for absentee votes cast on voting machines in Section 7 of Section 79 of this Code.

The provisions of this Subsection are cumulative of all other provisions relating to absentee voting.

Form of Ballots on Voting Machines

Sec. 8. All ballots shall be printed in black ink on white clear material, of such size as will fit in the ballot frame, and in as plain, clear type as the space will reasonably permit. In all elections, general, special, or primary, a designating letter and number may be affixed to the name of each candidate. In general elections, the party name may be affixed to the name of each candidate, and the names of all candidates of one political party shall be so arranged that a voter may be able to cast his ballot for such candidates as he may desire or to cast one ballot for all the candidates of that political party. In primary elections, however, the ballot shall be so arranged and the lever so locked as to prevent the voting of straight tickets. Should there be so many candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election as to exceed the capacity of one machine, more than one machine shall be provided for each polling place, but in all cases where more than one machine is necessary to list the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on one machine. In lieu of using an additional machine for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be placed in a separate column headed "Uncontested Races," with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one at which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word "Independent" if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate's name; and all such uncontested races shall be voted on as a block, and the requirement of this section that the ballot in general elections be so arranged that the voter may be able to vote a straight ticket for all candidates of one political party shall not apply to candidates appearing in the uncontested column. However, in no election may the ballot be so arranged that a voter is able to vote as a block on propositions.

If the authorities charged with holding the election determine, in their discretion, that more than one voting machine is necessary to accommodate the number of voters voting in an election precinct, then as many voting machines shall be used for each precinct as such authorities deem necessary, and the same form of ballot containing the names of all candidates and/or propositions arranged in the same manner shall be provided for each machine.

Color of Ink for Ballots on Voting Machines in Large Counties

Sec. 8a. In counties having a population in excess of one million, five hundred thousand (1,500,000) inhabitants according to the last preceding federal census, the ballots may be printed in one or more colors of ink; however, the names of all the candidates for any one office shall be printed in the same color.

Sample Ballots

Sec. 9. The authorities charged with holding the election or primary election may provide for each precinct two (2) sample ballots and one model arranged in the form of a diagram showing such part of the face of the voting machine as shall be in use in that election or primary election. Such sample ballots and model shall be on display in each precinct voting place throughout the time the polls are open and attention shall be especially called to them before each voter uses machine.

Preparation of Voting Machines

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of the appropriate officer of the authority holding the election (the county clerk in elections held at the expense of the county, the city secretary in city elections, the presiding officer of the governing body of the political subdivision in elections held by other political subdivisions, and the chairman of the county executive committee in primary elections) to cause the proper ballot labels to be placed on voting machines, to cause the machines to be placed in proper order for voting, and to examine all voting machines in the presence of authorized watchers for any interested persons, before they are sent out to the polling places, to see that all the registering counters are set at zero (000), to lock, in the presence of authorized watchers, all voting machines so that the counting machinery cannot be operated and to seal each one with a numbered seal. A list of the numbered seals and the number on the protective counters, together with the number of the precinct to which each machine was sent, shall be kept as a record open to any citizen, in the records of the officer making the examination, for the length of time required by law for preservation of the returns of the election. Such inspection and sealing of voting machines shall begin within five days before the day of the election at which such machines are to be used, and shall continue until all such machines are sealed. When all machines are locked and sealed, the key to each machine shall be placed in an envelope and sealed, the signature of the inspecting officer and the signatures of two watchers of opposed interest, if there be such, placed across the seal, and on the envelope shall be written the number then on the protective counter and the number of the seal of the voting machine, such envelope to be delivered to the presiding judge of each precinct.

It shall be the duty of the sheriff in an election held at the expense of the county, the duty of the mayor in a city election, the duty of the presiding officer of the governing body of the political subdivision in an election held by any other political subdivision, and the duty of the county chairman in a primary election, to have a voting machine or machines delivered to each of the polling places where voting machines are to be used, at least one hour before the time set for the opening of the polls in such voting precinct. After the machine has been delivered, the same authority shall cause the machine to be set up in the proper manner and shall cause protection to be given so that the machine shall be free from molestation and injury. The same authority shall cause to be delivered with each machine an auxiliary light where necessary, properly prepared to be lighted in emergency, so arranged that the light will illuminate the face of the machine sufficiently that a voter may be able to read all the names on the machine, and suitable for officers in examining counters. The protective hood and screen of the machine shall be examined to see that they properly conceal all the actions of the voter while the voter is operating the machine. All poll lists and necessary supplies shall be delivered to the presiding judge at the same time the key or keys to the machine are delivered.

Certificate of Convenience to Transport Voting Machines not Required

Sec. 10a. No necessity shall exist for the issuance of a certificate of convenience as provided by Article 911b, Section 5a, Revised Civil Statutes, for the transporting of voting machines within the county. Such transporting of said voting machines is exempted from Article 1690b(a) of the Penal Code of the State of Texas.

Instruction of Election Officers

Sec. 11. Not less than three (3) days before an election or primary election, the authority charged with holding the same, shall cause to be held a public school of instruction for those who will actually conduct the election or primary election at the polling places, such school to be open to any interested person and notice of such meeting being given to the public press at least forty-eight (48) hours before same is to be held.

Preliminaries of Opening the Polls

Sec. 12. The key or keys to the voting machine or machines shall be delivered to the presiding judge of each precinct at least thirty minutes before time for the opening of the polls, the seal of the envelope containing the same to be unbroken, and the seal shall be broken by the presiding judge only in the presence of at least two authorized watchers for opposing interest (if there be such), and shall only be broken after comparison shows that the number written on the envelope and the number shown on the protective counter are identical. If these numbers are found not to be the same, the seal shall not be broken until the officer who prepared the machine or his representative shall arrive and deliver the correct keys or until another and properly sealed machine is delivered. If the numbers written on the envelope and the numbers on the seal of the machine are not identical, then the envelope shall not be opened and the same procedure as above set out shall govern. But if the numbers written on the envelope and the respective numbers on the seal and on the protective counter are found to be the same, the presiding judge shall open the doors concealing the counters, and before the polls are declared open, the election officers and each authorized watcher for any person interested shall carefully examine each counter and see that it registers zero (000). All of those last enumerated then shall examine the ballots and satisfy themselves they are in their proper places on the machine. If the machine is equipped with a device which produces a printed record of the register shown on the counters, the presiding judge shall verify that the printed form is correctly made up and shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine, and all the persons authorized to be in the polls shall satisfy themselves that the printed record is correct. The election officers shall cause to be conspicuously placed the sample ballots and model for the guidance of the voters. All the persons authorized to be in the polls shall satisfy themselves that the voting machine is properly placed, being at least three feet from any wall or partition or any other obstruction, and that the face of the machine is turned toward where the election officers and the public may obtain a clear and unobstructed view of the same at all times, except when the curtain on the machine is closed for the casting of the ballot. The election officers and at least two watchers of opposing interest (if there be such) shall then sign a certificate setting out that the keys were delivered intact, that the numbers on the protective counter and the seal correspond with those on the envelope, that all the counters were set at zero (000) and that the ballot labels were in their proper places. If any counter shall be found not to register zero (000), the presiding judge shall write out a statement to that effect and keep the same prominently posted throughout the day showing the number that counter was found to register, and in filling out the statement of canvass he shall subtract such number from the number found to register on that counter when the polls close. The machine shall then be opened for voting.

Conduct of the Voting

Sec. 13. The presiding judge shall be in general charge of the poll and shall see that a clerk of the election properly checks off the name of each voter from the list of qualified voters and enters his name on the poll list before the voter casts his ballot, and stamps or writes "voted" with a rubber stamp or with pen and ink, together with the date of the particular election, on the voter's poll tax receipt or exemption certificate. It shall further be the duty of one of the clerks to see that the voting machine is not tampered with and to attend the machine at all times. He shall inspect the ballot labels after each voter leaves the machine to see that none has been tampered with and to see that the machine has not been injured. He shall see that the coverings of the counter compartments of the machine are never unlocked nor opened so the counters are exposed during voting except for good and sufficient reasons, a statement of which shall be made and signed by all election officers and watchers in the polling place and attached to the returns.

Instructions for Voters in the Polls

Sec. 14. In addition to the sample ballots and model hereinbefore mentioned, which shall be prominently displayed and the particular attention of each voter thereto called by the presiding officer, if any voter after entering the machine, but before the curtains thereof are closed, shall desire further instructions, an election officer shall give such instruction without asking, persuading, or otherwise trying to induce such voter to vote for or against any ticket, candidate, amendment, question, or proposition, and watchers may be present while such instruction is being given. Finishing instructions, the election officer and watchers shall retire, whereupon such voter shall close the curtain and vote as in the case of an unassisted voter.

Manner of Voting

Sec. 15. But one voter shall be admitted at a time, and no voter shall be permitted to keep the curtain of the machine closed longer than two (2) minutes. However, if because of some bodily infirmity a voter is physically unable to operate the machine or to see, he may be assisted by two (2) election officials, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall operate the machine so as to vote the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes, and shall be permitted to keep the curtain of the machine closed no longer than five (5) minutes. The provisions of Section 95 of this Code shall govern the assistance rendered under this section in so far as they can be made applicable.

Voting for Person whose Name Does Not Appear on the Ballot

Sec. 16. Ballots voted for any person whose name does not appear on the ballot shall be designated "irregular" ballots, but such ballots shall be valid and shall be counted as though they had been voted on the voting machine. Should a voter desire to vote for some person for an office whose name does not appear on the ballot, such person shall write the name of the person for whom he desires to vote on the roll of paper provided and designated for such purpose and such ballot shall be counted and included in the canvass officially made from that precinct, but no irregular ballot shall be cast or counted for any person whose name shall appear on the voting machine.

Arrangement of Ballot and Write-in Vote in Certain Counties

Sec. 16a. (a) In any county of this State where voting machines are used and the number of offices to be filled in the election exceeds the number of spaces available on the voting machines when the names of the offices and names of candidates are arranged on the ballot horizontally, the election authorities may use the available spaces on the voting machine in any good and proper manner which will not be confusing to the voter and which will enable the election authorities to conduct the election in an orderly and efficient manner.

(b) In any county, as defined in paragraph (a) hereof, any voter desiring to cast a write-in vote for any person whose name does not appear on the ballot on the voting machine may request a write-in ballot from the presiding official of the election or his clerk. Such write-in ballot shall be substantially in the following form:

NO. _____	FOR: _____
Write-In	Name of Write-In
Ballot Stub	Candidate
_____ Election	For the office of:
Date: _____	_____
For: _____	Title of Office
Name of Office

After filling in the write-in ballot, said voter shall affix his signature upon the reverse side of the write-in ballot stub and shall detach the stub and place it in a sealed stub box prepared in the manner provided in Article 97 of the Election Code. The voter shall then deposit his write-in ballot in a ballot box prepared as all other boxes for election. No write-in ballot shall be cast or counted for any person whose name shall appear on the ballot on the voting machine.

Provided however, that the following affidavit shall be and appear on the reverse side of the left hand portion of such write-in ballot.

STATE OF TEXAS
COUNTY OF _____

Before me, the undersigned authority, on this day personally appeared _____, who, having been by me first duly sworn, upon his oath, did depose and say:

That I have not and will not cast a vote on the voting machine for the office of _____

for which I have cast a ballot herewith by way of a write-in.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this the _____ day of _____ A.D. 195____.

Presiding officer, Precinct _____, _____ County, Texas.

And provided further that all of the provisions of Chapter 492, Acts of the Fifty-second Legislature, 1951, relating to the casting of write-in ballots shall be in full force and effect, except as herein provided.

Unofficial Ballot; Repair and Substitution of Machines

Sec. 17. If the official ballots for any precinct where voting machines are to be used are not delivered at the time required, or if after delivery they are lost, destroyed or stolen, the authority charged with the duty of furnishing the ballots for the election or the presiding judge of that precinct shall cause other ballots to be prepared, printed or written, as nearly in the form of the official ballots as practicable, and shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used in the same manner, as near as may be, as the official ballots. Such ballots shall be known as unofficial ballots, and a certificate setting out the circumstances of the use shall be made out by the presiding judge and signed by such officer together with every person legally serving in such poll, such certificate to be attached to the canvass from the precinct. Should any voting machine become out of order while being used, it shall, if possible, be repaired or another machine substituted in its place as promptly as possible, and the Commissioners Court of any county in which voting machines have been adopted either in whole or in part, for use in elections, is authorized and empowered to appropriate funds for servicing, repairing or substituting any such voting machines, on a per diem or on such other basis as to said court may appear just and proper.

Making Out the Returns and Proclamation of the Result

Sec. 18. (a) Prior to the day of election, the authority charged with furnishing the supplies for the election shall cause to be prepared the necessary blanks for the statement of canvass mentioned herein, which shall be delivered to the presiding judge with other supplies for the election. The statement of canvass shall be of a form to be approved by the Secretary of State and shall conform with the type of voting machine to be used, and the designating number and letter of each candidate or proposition shall be printed next to the candidate's name or the proposition on the statement of canvass.

(b) As soon as the polls are closed, the election officers shall immediately lock the machine against voting. They then shall sign a certificate stating that the machine was locked and sealed, giving the exact time, and giving the number of voters shown on the public counters, which shall be the total number of votes cast on such machine in that precinct, the number on the seal, and the number registered on the protective counter. (This also shall be the procedure at the close of absentee voting when the machines are used for absentee voting by personal appearance.) They then shall open the counting compartment in the presence of the watchers, giving full view of all the counter numbers. The presiding judge shall, under the scrutiny of the watchers, in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machines read and announce in distinct tones the designating number and letter on each counter for each candidate's name, and the result as shown by the counter numbers, and shall then read the votes recorded for each office on the irregular ballots. He shall also in the same manner announce the result of each proposition voted on. The vote as registered shall be entered on the statements of canvass in ink by two clerks and verified by the three election officers and by two watchers of opposing interest (if there be such), the entries to be made in the same order on the space which has the same designating number and letter, after which the figures shall again be verified by being called off in the same manner from the counters of the machines by watchers of opposed interest (if there be such). The returns of the canvass as required by law shall then be filled out and verified, and shall show the number of votes cast for each candidate and the number of votes cast for and against any proposition submitted, and shall be signed by the three election officers and at least two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be). The counter compartments of the voting machine shall remain open throughout the time of making of all statements and certificates and the official returns and until they have been fully verified, and during such time any candidate or his representative or any representative of any newspaper or press association shall be admitted. The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be deliberately announced in a distinct voice by the presiding judge, who shall read the names of each candidate, with the designating number and letter of his counter, and the vote registered on such counter, and also the vote cast for or against any proposition submitted. During such proclamation ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully entitled to be in the polling place to compare the results announced with the counter dials of the machine, and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made, after which the doors of the voting machine shall be locked and sealed with the seal provided, so sealing the operating lever of the machine that operation of the voting and counting mechanism will be prevented.

(c) If the machine is provided with a device which produces a printed record of the numbers registered on the counters, the procedure outlined herein shall be followed in lieu of the procedure set out above for preparation of the statements of canvass. After preparation of the certificate giving the number of voters shown on the public counters and the other information as provided for in the preceding paragraph, the presiding judge, in the presence of at least two clerks and two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) and of any other person lawfully present who wishes to observe, shall take the necessary steps to secure a printed record from each machine. The election officers shall then open the counter compartments and shall compare the printed record with the counters, verifying that the printed record correctly shows the designating number and letter on each counter and the result as shown by the counter numbers. Ample opportunity shall be given to all persons lawfully entitled to be present at the polling place to examine the printed record and compare it with the machine. The printed record shall then be signed by the presiding judge and two clerks and by two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be), certifying that the printed record was obtained from the machine designated thereon and that the printed record was compared with the machine and correctly records the results as shown on the counter dials, and the certified printed record shall constitute the official statement of canvass for that machine. The returns of the canvass shall then be filled out, verified, and signed as provided in the preceding paragraph.

(d) After the making out of the returns has been completed, the presiding judge shall deliver immediately, and in no event later than five hours after the closing of the polls, the statement of canvass and the returns to the proper authorities as provided by law. Irregular ballots, properly sealed and signed, shall be delivered to the officer designated by law as the custodian of voted paper ballots, and shall be preserved in the same manner and for the same length of time as provided by law for other ballots. The presiding judge shall deliver to the county clerk the keys of the voting machine enclosed in a sealed envelope, across the seal of which shall be written his own name together with that of at least two watchers of opposed interest (if such there be) or of two other election officers, and on the envelope shall be recorded the date of the election, the number of the precinct, the number of the seal with which the machine was sealed, the number of the public counter and the number of the protective counter.

Canvass of the Returns; Recheck and Comparison

Sec. 19. The returns shall be canvassed in the same manner as returns from precincts where paper ballots are used; provided, however, that at the time of the making of the official canvass, where voting machines are used in an election, at the written request of any candidate whose name appears on the ballot or on the written petition of twenty-five voters of the county, city or other subdivision for which the election was held, the authority charged with the duty of canvassing the returns shall make, in the presence of a district judge and the county judge of the county in which the election was held, a recheck and comparison of the results shown on the official returns then in process of being canvassed, with the results appearing and registered on the counter dials of each voting machine used in the election for which a request for a recheck has been made. To enable the canvassing authority to make such recheck and comparison, it shall be authorized and empowered to break the seals on each such voting machine. At the conclusion of the recheck and comparison, the voting machine shall again be sealed up, the necessary corrections, if any, shall be made on the returns, and the result of the election shall be declared as shown by the recheck and comparison of the returns of election with counter dials of the voting machines. If voting machines were used which produced a printed record of the votes cast on such machine, candidates and voters shall have the right under the procedure heretofore detailed to have such printed record compared with the counters on the machine from which such printed record was obtained.

Payment for Recheck and Comparison

Sec. 19a. A request for a recheck of voting machines used in an election shall be accompanied with a deposit of $3 for each precinct to be rechecked. If the request is made by a person or persons other than a candidate at the election, it shall state what interest they represent. If the recheck results in a change in the outcome of the election favorable to the person or persons making the request, the amount of the deposit shall be refunded to the payor; otherwise, it shall be applied to the payment of any expenses incident to the recheck, and any amount remaining after payment of expenses shall be turned over to the county treasurer for deposit in the general fund of the county.

Preservation of Ballots and Records of Voting Machines

Sec. 20. The voting machine shall remain locked against voting for a period of ten days from the day of the election, provided that where a second election occurs within such ten-day period, then the voting machine shall remain locked against voting until the returns of the election are officially canvassed or until the expiration of five days from the day of the election, whichever is the later to occur, and then shall have the seal broken only on the order of a district judge having jurisdiction in that county, such order to be entered on the minutes of the district court of that county, and if in the opinion of such district judge, contest is likely to develop, shall remain locked for such time as the district judge may direct; provided, however, such time shall not be for a period of time that will interfere with or prohibit the use of such machines in a subsequent election. On the order of any court of competent jurisdiction, the seal may be broken for the purpose of proper investigation, and when such investigation is completed, the machine shall again be sealed and across the envelope containing the keys shall be written the signature of the person or persons having broken same.

Custody of Voting Machines and the Keys Thereof

Sec. 21. The County Commissioners of a county in which voting machines are used shall have general custody and care and repair of such machines, but the County Clerk is charged with the care and custody of the keys and seals for the same. The same authority that caused the delivery of the voting machines shall be charged with the transportation of such machines back into the custody of the County Commissioners and shall furnish all necessary protection to see that such machines are not molested nor injured from the time such machines leave the place where they are regularly stored until they are turned into the custody of the officials of a precinct and from the time that custody ceases on the part of the precinct officials and the machines are returned to the place of regular storage.

Sec. 22. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a).

Application of Other Laws; Fraud and Perjury

Sec. 23. The provisions of all other laws relating to the conduct of elections or primary elections, shall so far as practicable, apply to the conduct of elections and primary elections where voting machines are used, unless herein otherwise provided; provided, however, it is declared to be the public policy of this State that the provisions herein, providing for the use of voting machines at elections, are regulations to detect and punish fraud, and to preserve the purity of the ballot box; and any voter who fraudulently or illegally casts a ballot, or who casts a fraudulent or illegal ballot upon a voting machine, at any election (after the casting of such fraudulent or illegal ballot, or such fraudulent or illegal casting of a ballot has been established by final adjudication before a court of competent jurisdiction and by competent evidence), shall be compelled and required to disclose the names of the candidate or candidates for whom he cast such ballot at such election, and the ballot cast by him upon any question or questions at such election in any proceedings instituted under the laws of this State in any court of competent jurisdiction, and whoever in such proceedings shall swear and/or testify falsely, shall be deemed guilty of the offense of perjury, and shall be subject to the penalties provided for such offense by the laws of this State.

Appointment and Compensation of Election Officers; Watchers

Sec. 24. The appointment and compensation of the presiding judges and clerks for precincts where voting machines are used shall be governed by the provisions of Sections 15 and 22 of this Code,<sup>5</sup> and their service and duties shall be governed by the general provisions of this Code, except as otherwise provided herein.

The general provisions of this Code, as supplemented herein, shall govern the qualifications, appointment, and service of watchers for precincts where voting machines are used.

Definitions

Sec. 25. The list of candidates and offices and/or propositions to be voted on, used or to be used on the front of the voting machine, shall be deemed official ballots for the purpose of precincts using voting machines.

The word "ballot" as used herein means that portion of the cardboard or other material within the ballot frames containing the names of the candidates and the offices, or the statements of propositions to be voted on, except when referring to irregular or unofficial ballots and except where such word is used in connection with the casting of a vote by a voter, in which event the word "ballot" is defined as the casting of a secret vote.

The terms "protective numbering counter" and "protective counter" mean a separate counter built into the machine which cannot be reset and which records the total number of movements of the operating lever.

The terms "public numbering counter"<sup>7</sup> and "public counter" mean a device in full view of the election officers except while the voter is voting, which records the number of the voter's vote and is cumulative of the number of voters casting votes on the machine at the election being held.

Art. 7.15. Providing for Electronic Voting Systems

Purpose

Subd. 1. The purpose of this section is to authorize the use of electronic voting systems in which the voter records his votes by marking or punching a ballot which is so designed that votes may be counted by data processing machines.

Definitions

Subd. 2. As used in this section, unless otherwise specified:

(a) "Electronic voting system" means a system of voting in which voted ballots are counted and tabulated by automatic tabulating equipment.

(b) "Automatic tabulating equipment" means any apparatus which automatically examines and counts voted ballots and tabulates the results.

(c) "Voting equipment" means any kind of equipment used in connection with an electronic voting system other than automatic tabulating equipment.

(d) "Ballot card" means a card which is placed upon or inserted in a voting device and which is marked or pierced by the voter in the process of voting.

(e) "Ballot labels" means card, papers, booklet, pages, or other material attached to a voting device containing the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on.

(f) "Ballot" may refer to paper ballots, ballot cards, ballot labels, or combinations of ballot cards and ballot labels depending on the context.

(g) "Central counting station" means one or more locations selected by the proper public official for the automatic counting and tabulating of ballots.

Examination and Approval of Electronic Voting Systems

Subd. 3. (a) Any person, firm, or corporation desiring to have an electronic voting system adopted for use in this state may apply to the Secretary of State to have such system examined. Before the examination the applicant shall pay to the Secretary of State the sum of $450. The Secretary of State shall cause such system to be examined as hereinafter provided and shall make and file and keep on file in his office a report of such examination, which shall show whether the system so examined meets the requirements set forth in Subdivision 4 of this section. If the report states that the system meets those requirements, it shall be approved, and the system may be adopted for use at elections as provided in this section.

(b) Before making and filing his report, the Secretary of State shall require the system to be examined by three examiners to be appointed by the Secretary of State for such purpose, one of whom shall be expert in patent law, one of whom shall be expert in electronic data processing, and one of whom shall be expert in election law and procedure, and shall require from them a written report on their examination, which shall be attached to the Secretary of State's report and kept on file. Each examiner shall receive one hundred and fifty dollars as his compensation and expenses in making the examination and report. Neither the Secretary of State nor any examiner shall have any pecuniary interest in any electronic voting system. When a system has been approved, any improvement or change that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency, or capacity shall not make necessary a reexamination or reapproval thereof. Any electronic voting system not approved as herein provided cannot be used at any election in this state.

Requirements for Electronic Voting Systems

Subd. 4. (a) Any electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State must meet the following requirements:

(1) It must permit voting in absolute secrecy, except in the case of voters who have received assistance as provided in this code.

(2) It shall permit each voter:

(A) to vote at any election for all persons and offices for whom and for which he is lawfully entitled to vote, and no others;

(B) to vote, in a general election, for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate by any party but whose name is legally on the ballot as an independent candidate;

(C) to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot, in any election and for any office where write-in votes are permitted by law;

(D) to have his vote counted for no more than one person for the same office, unless permitted by law, and at the same time prevent his vote from being counted more than once for the same person for the same office;

(E) to vote for or against any question upon which he is entitled to vote;

(F) to vote, by means of a single mark or punch, for all candidates of one party or to vote a split ticket as he desires.

(b) No electronic voting system shall be approved by the Secretary of State unless he finds that it is suitable for the purpose for which it is intended, and that it will operate efficiently and accurately and provide adequate safeguards against fraudulent manipulation under the conditions under which it is intended to be used.

(c) In his certification of approval of any electronic voting system, the Secretary of State shall certify whether in cases where a voter splits a straight party vote, the system is capable of counting the straight party vote only for the candidates of that party for offices as to which the voter has not voted for individual candidates and of counting the votes cast for individual candidates. If the system is so certified, the voting of a split ticket in that manner shall be allowed in elections using that system.

Adoption by Commissioners Court

Subd. 5. (a) The commissioners court of any county in the state may adopt one or more kinds of approved electronic voting systems for use in elections in part or all of the election precincts in the county. If a particular system is not adopted for use throughout the county, the commissioners court shall designate the precincts, which shall be not less than three in number, in which such system is to be used, and any other authorized method of voting may be used in the remaining precincts. The court may provide that in any precinct designated for use of a particular electronic voting system the voting in that precinct may be supplemented by use of some other authorized method of voting when in any election it appears that the number of available units of the system designated for use in that precinct is inadequate for that election; and the officer or board charged with the duty of furnishing supplies of the election may make such supplementation under those conditions.

(b) The commissioners court at any time may rescind or modify its previous order or orders adopting any electronic voting system and may discontinue use of the system altogether, but use of the system shall be retained in at least three of the voting precincts if retained for use in any part of the county.

(c) The electronic voting system adopted by the commissioners court shall be used at the biennial general elections for state and county officers in all precincts designated by the court for use of such system. In all other elections, general, special, or primary, the authority holding the election shall determine within its discretion whether the voting in such precincts for the particular election shall be by use of such system or by some other authorized method of voting in any or all of the precincts for which the system has been adopted. The determination shall be made by the commissioners court in elections held at the expense of the county, by the governing body of the municipality or political subdivision in elections held by municipalities and other political subdivisions, and by the county executive committee of the party holding the election in primary elections of political parties.

(d) Whenever a municipality or other political subdivision is situated in more than one county, any election held by such political subdivision may be conducted by use of any authorized method of voting which has been adopted by the commissioners court of either such county for use in precincts lying within such political subdivision, regardless of whether that method had been adopted in the other county or counties in which the political subdivision is situated. The governing body of the municipality or other political subdivision shall make the determination as to the method to be used.

Experimental Use of Electronic Voting Systems

Subd. 6. The commissioners court of any county in the state may secure, for experimental use at elections in one or more precincts, without formal adoption thereof, any kind of electronic voting system approved by the Secretary of State, and its use at any election in such precinct within the period specified by the commissioners court for experimental use of such electronic voting system shall be as valid for all purposes as if it has been formally adopted; provided, however, that the period for experimental use shall not exceed two years from the date of the order authorizing its use.

Providing Voting Equipment

Subd. 7. The commissioners court of a county which has adopted an electronic voting system for that county or any portion thereof, shall as soon as practicable and in no case later than six months after adoption thereof, provide for each election precinct designated the voting equipment which the court deems necessary for accommodation of voters in the general election for state and county officers, and shall thereafter preserve and keep such equipment in repair. The commissioners court may also, if it deems such action in the best interests of the county, provide for the county a suitable number of pieces of automatic tabulating equipment for use in the central counting stations in the county.

Payment for Voting Equipment and Automatic Tabulating Equipment

Subd. 8. (a) The commissioners court shall provide for the payment for voting equipment and automatic tabulating equipment to be used in such county in such manner as the court may deem for the best interests of the county, and for the purpose of paying for such voting equipment or automatic tabulating equipment, or both, the commissioners court is hereby authorized to issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations to be used for this purpose and no other, which shall be a charge against the general revenue fund of the county. Such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations may be issued with or without interest payable at such time or times as the commissioners court may determine, but shall never be issued or sold for less than par. The commissioners court shall issue such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations in the same manner and with the same authority as provided for the issuance of bonds, certificates of indebtedness, warrants, or other obligations by the general laws of this state. The necessary tax shall be set aside at the time of creating such obligation so as to meet the debt provisions of the Constitution.

(b) If the commissioners court of any county deems it for the best interests of such county, the court is hereby authorized to contract for the renting of an electronic voting system or any portion thereof by such county for use in elections for a term of not more than five years in any one contract of rental. Upon expiration of such terms of contract of rental, the commissioners court may renew or extend the contract from time to time. The commissioners court of any county is also authorized to accept proposals of rental and/or sale of electronic voting systems or any part thereof wherein the rentals paid by such county for the use of such an electronic voting system or a part of the rentals may be applied on the purchase price of such system if the commissioners court determines that it is to the best interest of the county to do so.

(c) The voting equipment and automatic tabulating equipment shall be the property of the county paying for or renting it, subject to the terms of the rental contract. When used in any election not held at the expense of the county, the voting equipment and county-owned tabulating equipment so used shall be leased to the authority holding the election, and payment shall be received by the county at such lease price as the commissioners court shall fix for each piece of voting equipment or tabulating equipment used, but not to exceed ten percent of the original cost of the unit for each election day such equipment is used; and the authority charged with the expense of holding the election shall pay the lease price, whether it be a municipality or other political subdivision, a political party, or any other organization or authority.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subdivision, the commissioners court may enter into agreements with the owners or lessees of automatic tabulating equipment located at central counting stations designated by the court pursuant to this section, under which the authority holding the election will pay to such owner or lessee a stipulated charge for use of the equipment under such terms as may be agreed upon. Any such agreement shall be for a term of not more than two years, but it may be renewed or extended from time to time.

Absentee Voting

Subd. 9. (a) In any election in which an electronic voting system is to be used in all or part of the voting precincts, the authority charged with holding the election shall within its discretion determine by proper resolution or order whether or not an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance at such election. If the electronic voting system is to be used for such absentee voting and more than one kind of system has been adopted by the commissioners court, the authority shall specify what kind is to be used.

(b) If the authority holding the election determines that an electronic voting system shall be used for absentee voting by personal appearance, the necessary ballots and voting equipment shall be provided in the clerk's office. The procedure for absentee voting by personal appearance where paper ballots are used shall be followed insofar as it can be made applicable. The clerk shall enter on a poll list the name of each such voter at the time he votes. If an electronic voting system is used for voting by personal appearance and the absentee ballots voted by mail are counted manually, such ballots shall be counted by a special canvassing board as provided in Subdivision 6 of Section 37 of this code.<sup>1</sup> The board shall also prepare the voted electronic voting system ballots for delivery to the central counting station in the manner provided in Subdivision 19 of this section, and such ballots shall be delivered to the central counting station and there tabulated, as provided in Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. The presiding judge shall add the results of any manually counted ballots and the results of any write-in votes to the tabulation made on the automatic tabulating equipment, and shall make returns showing the totals thus obtained.

(c) When absentee ballots voted by personal appearance are to be marked with an ordinary pen or pencil in the manner that ordinary paper ballots are marked, and the absentee ballots are to be counted manually, the ballots shall be handled in the manner provided in Section 37 of this code for the handling of absentee paper ballots, and shall be counted and tallied by a central canvassing board or by the precinct election officers, as the case may be, in the same way that paper ballots are tallied. Absentee ballots sent to precinct polling places for counting shall be added to the results for ballots cast at the polling place.

(d) When absentee voting is conducted by paper ballots, the ballots prepared for use in the electronic voting system may be used, if practicable, in the absentee voting both by personal appearance and by mail; otherwise, the ballots shall be prepared as ordinary paper ballots provided for in this code.

(e) The authority holding the election may authorize true copies of paper absentee ballots voted by personal appearance or by mail to be made on electronic voting system ballots in the presence of watchers and the ballots counted and tabulated in the manner provided in Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. Both the original ballot and the duplicate shall be preserved. Each duplicate ballot shall be clearly labeled by the word "Duplicate" and shall bear a serial number, which shall also be recorded on the original ballot.

Instruction of Election Officers

Subd. 10. Not less than three days before an election, the authority holding the election shall cause to be held a public school of instruction on the use of the electronic voting system for those who will conduct the election at the polling places and those who will be at the central counting stations, such school to be open to any interested person. Notice of the meeting shall be given to the public press at least 48 hours before it is to be held.

Watchers at Central Counting Station

Subd. 10a. Watchers may be appointed to observe activities at the central counting station in the same manner as watchers are appointed to serve at regular polling places. The watchers need not be present at the time the central counting station opens, and they may begin service at any time they desire. If the counting of ballots is begun before the official time for closing the polls, any watcher who is on duty after the counting is begun shall remain on duty until the time for closing the polls except for such periods of absence as permitted by the presiding judge of the central counting station. With this exception, a watcher may leave the central counting station and may resume his service at any time until the election officers have completed their duties. A watcher appointed for a regular polling place may also be appointed to serve at the central counting station after the official time for closing the polls. This subdivision does not affect the right of watchers from the polling places to accompany the election officials to the central counting station, as provided in Subdivision 19 of this section.

Form of the Ballot

Subd. 11. (a) Except as otherwise provided herein, the ballot for electronic voting systems shall conform to the applicable provisions of this code governing voting by ordinary paper ballots to the extent that they are consistent with the use of electronic voting systems.

(b) This paragraph (b) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the voter records his votes on a ballot on which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth in a manner similar to ordinary paper ballots.

(1) Ballots may be of such size, composition, texture, and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only), and may be printed in any type of ink or combination of inks that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Printing on the ballots shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

(2) The ballots may contain printed code marks or prepunched holes necessary for placing the ballots in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or prepunched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

(3) The ballot may be divided into parts and printed upon two or more pages. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot be placed on the same face of the same page, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other party columns appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one page, different tints of paper other than yellow, or some other suitable means may be used to facilitate the sorting of ballots. Each page shall bear the ballot number, and other appropriate provision may be made for identifying the related parts of the ballot. When party columns appear on the ballot, there shall be printed at the head of the ballot the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight party ticket.

(4) Each ballot shall have attached at the top a detachable stub of such size and placement on the ballot as is appropriate for the tabulating equipment to be used for counting the ballots. The stub shall contain the printing specified in Section 61 of this code,<sup>2</sup> and shall contain no other printing or writing, except that it may contain the instructions for marking the ballot.

(c) This subparagraph (c) shall govern the form of the ballot to be used with electronic voting systems in which the names of offices, candidates and parties and statements of measures to be voted on are set forth on ballot labels attached to a voting device and the voter records his vote by marking or punching a ballot card which is placed upon or inserted in the voting device.

(1) Ballot cards may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow, which shall be used for sample ballots only) and may be printed in any type of ink or combinations of ink that will be suitable for use in the automatic tabulating equipment in which they are intended to be placed. Ballot labels may be of such size, composition, texture and color (other than yellow) that will be suitable for use on the voting device on which they are placed. Printing on the ballot label shall be of such size that it will be clearly legible when read by the voter in the manner contemplated by the voting system being used.

(2) Ballot cards may contain printed code marks or prepunched holes to assure that the card is properly positioned in the voting device or to assure that the card is placed in correct reading position in the tabulating equipment, but the code marks or prepunched holes shall not be used in any way that will reveal the identity of the voters voting the ballots.

(3) The names of candidates, offices, parties and statements of issues to be voted on may be printed on two or more ballot labels placed on the voting device. Where all candidates for the same office or all party columns cannot conveniently be placed on the same face of the same label, the candidates or columns may be carried on more than one page, but in such event the first page of the sequence shall contain a statement that the names of other candidates or other parties appear on the following page or pages. If the ballot is printed on more than one ballot label, different tints of paper, other than yellow, may be used for different pages of the ballot labels, and other suitable means may be adopted to facilitate the use of the ballot labels with the ballot card. When party columns appear on the ballot there shall be printed at the head of the ballot the names of the parties and a space for voting a straight ticket.

(4) In elections in which party columns appear on the ordinary paper ballot, the following method of showing party affiliations may be used in lieu of party columns. The title of each office shall be printed on the party labels followed by the names of the candidates for that office and their party affiliations, if any. Provision shall be made on the first page of the ballot labels for voting a straight party ticket, and the candidate of the party which is printed in the first party column on paper ballots shall be printed in the first position under the office title, the candidate of the party which is printed in the second column on paper ballots shall be printed in the second position, and so on. Uncontested races may be listed separately from contested races under the heading "Uncontested Races."

(5) Each ballot card shall have attached at the top a detachable stub of such size and placement on the card as is appropriate for the tabulating equipment to be used for counting the ballots. The stub shall contain the printing specified in Section 61 of this code,<sup>2</sup> and shall contain no other printing or writing, except that it may contain the instructions for marking the ballot.

(6) If the number of candidates and/or propositions to be voted upon in any election exceeds the capacity of one voting device, the ballot may be divided into parts and a different voting device used for each of the separate parts. A separate voting device shall be provided for each part at each polling place, but in all cases where more than one device is necessary to list the entire ballot, the names of all candidates for any particular office shall be placed on one device. Each ballot card shall bear the ballot number, and other appropriate provision may be made for identifying the related ballot cards. In lieu of using an additional voting device for listing the ballot, uncontested races may be listed separately under the heading "Uncontested Races," with the name of each candidate appearing under the title of the office for which he is a candidate, and if the election is one in which party columns appear on the ballot, the party affiliation of the candidate shall be indicated by printing the name of the party which nominated him (or the word "Independent" if he is an independent candidate) after the candidate's name; and all such uncontested races may be voted on as a bloc.

(7) If the authorities holding the election determine, in their discretion, that more than one voting device is necessary to accommodate the number of voters in an election precinct, as many voting devices shall be used for each precinct as such authorities deem necessary, and the same form of ballot containing the names of all candidates and/or propositions arranged in the same manner shall be provided for each device.

(8) A separate write-in ballot, which may be in the form of an envelope in which the voter places his ballot or ballot card after voting, shall be provided to permit voters to vote for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot.

(d) This subparagraph (d) shall apply to the form of the ballot for all electronic voting systems.

(1) Where officers are to be elected or nominated, there shall be printed on each ballot the following instruction note: "Vote for the candidate of your choice in each race by placing a punch hole in the space provided adjacent to the name of that candidate." Where the ballot is to be marked with a marking device using ink or other substance, the word "mark" shall be substituted for "punch hole." Appropriate changes in the instruction note shall be made where only one race is listed on the ballot or where more than one person is to be elected in any given race. Where measures or propositions are to be voted on, the instruction note shall be: "Place a punch hole (mark) in the space provided beside the statement indicating the way you wish to vote." The ballots shall also contain instructions on how to vote a straight ticket, how to vote a split ticket, and how to vote for a candidate whose name is not on the ballot. The wording of the instructions shall be prescribed by the Secretary of State.

(2) The statement of propositions and measures submitted to the voters may be abbreviated on the ballot if necessary, provided there is displayed in each voting booth or place prepared for the voter to mark his ballot the verbatim statement on each proposition or measure as it appears on paper ballots. Abbreviation of matter to be voted on throughout the state shall be done by the Secretary of State.

Preparation of Ballot and Program

Subd. 11a. The ballots to be used at an election shall be prepared and procured under the same regulations as ordinary paper ballots, except that the officer making up the ballot shall confer with the programmer for that election before ordering the ballots printed, to make sure that the ballot is properly prepared for counting by means of the electronic tabulating equipment which will be used.

The authority charged with the duty to provide ballots shall select a competent person to prepare the program for the electronic tabulating equipment. The programmer may be one of the persons appointed or approved by the commissioners court under Paragraph (b), Subdivision 20 of this section or some other person, but if the program is prepared by anyone other than the tabulation supervisor, it must be submitted to the tabulation supervisor for his approval at least three days before the election.

Sample Ballots and Instruction Cards

Subd. 12. The authority charged with providing ballots for an election where an electronic voting system is used shall provide sample ballots and printed instruction cards for voting. Without limitation on other instructions which may be included, the instruction card shall include instructions on how to mark the ballot, how to vote for a person whose name is not printed on the ballot, how to vote a straight ticket or a split ticket where party columns or party affiliations are on the ballot, and how to secure an additional ballot if the ballot is spoiled or marked erroneously. Throughout the time the polls are open, a sample ballot and instruction card shall be posted in each booth or place prepared for the voter to mark his ballot. Extra voting equipment for demonstration purposes may be placed in the polling place.

Instructions to Voters

Subd. 13. In addition to the sample ballots and instruction cards hereinbefore mentioned, if any voter desires further instructions, an election officer shall give such instruction without asking, persuading, or otherwise trying to induce such voter to vote for or against any ticket, candidate, or measure, and watchers may be present while such instruction is being given. Finishing instructions, the election officer and watchers shall retire and the voter shall proceed to mark his ballot.

Assistance to Voter

Subd. 14. If because of some bodily infirmity a voter is physically unable to operate the voting equipment or to see, he may be assisted by two election officers, or by a person selected by the voter, who shall mark the ballot in accordance with the voter's wishes. The provisions of Section 95 of this code<sup>3</sup> govern the assistance rendered insofar as they can be made applicable.

Ballot Box and Stub Box

Subd. 15. For each polling place where an electronic voting system is used, there shall be supplied two ballot boxes for the deposit of voted ballots, which shall be of suitable design and with a suitable opening for placing the ballots therein in such manner that the ballots will not be damaged or rendered unfit for counting on the tabulating equipment. There shall be supplied a stub box prepared in the manner prescribed in Section 97 of this code,<sup>4</sup> except that the opening thereof shall be of such size as necessary, but no larger, to permit the convenient deposit of the ballot stubs used at the election. There shall also be supplied suitable containers for transporting the voted ballots to the central counting station.

Preliminaries of Opening the Polls

Subd. 16. There shall be provided for each polling place sufficient voting equipment to accommodate the voters at the election. Before the time set for opening the polls, the presiding judge shall inspect the equipment to ascertain whether it is in good working condition. Each voting booth shall be so placed that it will be in full view of all election officers and watchers at the polling place but will permit a voter to mark his ballot in secret.

Conduct of the Voting

Subd. 17. (a) The procedure at the polls where voting is by use of an electronic voting system shall be the same as at polling places where paper ballots are used, except as provided in this section. Where the portion of the ballot to be marked by the voter consists of more than one page or ballot card, the related parts may be placed in an envelope or otherwise secured so that the parts will not become separated before delivery to the voter. When a voter selects his ballot, he shall be instructed to use only the voting equipment provided for marking the ballot and that he is not to mark his ballot in any other way and is not to place any other marks thereon, except for write-ins. After a voter has marked his ballot, he shall follow the procedure prescribed in Section 97 of this code<sup>5</sup> for signing and detaching the ballot stub and for deposit of the ballot and stub.

(b) The election officers shall inspect the voting equipment from time to time while voting is in progress to ascertain that it has not been injured or tampered with and is in proper working order. If any equipment becomes out of order at an election, it shall be repaired or replaced as promptly as possible. If repair or replacement cannot be made, the ballots may be marked with a pencil and counted manually in the same manner that paper ballots are counted.

Procedure while Polls are Open

Subd. 18. At any time after the expiration of one hour after the voting has begun, the presiding judge may direct the receiving officers to deliver ballot box No. 1 to the counting officers, who shall immediately deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and until the boxes are again interchanged, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. In this manner, ballot boxes No. 1 and No. 2 may be interchanged periodically as directed by the presiding judge, but the box for receiving the ballots shall not be delivered to the counting officers and the ballots shall not be removed from it at any time before the polls are closed unless there are more than ten ballots in the box. Once the box for receiving the ballots is delivered to the counting officers, they shall remove the voted ballots from the ballot box and carry out the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 19 of this section preparatory to making the ballots, envelopes, and other materials ready for delivery to the central counting station. The authority holding the election may in its discretion also provide that voted ballots of designated precincts shall be delivered by authorized election officials, in the presence of watchers, to a central counting station at stated intervals during the day and that the processing of such ballots in accordance with the procedures prescribed in Subdivision 20 may begin prior to the close of the polls. Such processing may be limited by the authority holding the election to procedures preparatory to the counting and tabulating of ballots, or the authority holding the election may also permit the preliminary counting and tabulating of ballots with automatic tabulating equipment; but in no event shall any results be disclosed prior to the close of the polls, and all persons connected with the handling and tabulating of the ballots shall be subject to the provisions of Section 105 of this code<sup>6</sup> with respect to revealing information as to the results of the election.

Procedure after Polls are Closed

Subd. 19. (a) As soon as the polls are closed and the last ballot has been deposited in the ballot box, the election officers shall immediately secure or inactivate all voting equipment in the polling place so that no equipment may be used or operated by any unauthorized person. They shall then remove from the ballot box all voted ballots not theretofore removed in accordance with Subdivision 18 of this section. They shall examine the ballots for write-in votes and count the votes cast for candidates whose names have been written in; provided, however, that if the voting system is such that write-in votes can be detected and segregated by the tabulating equipment, the counting of write-in votes may be done at the central counting station. Before any write-in vote is counted, the election officers shall examine the ballot to ascertain whether the write-in vote is valid, and count it only if it is found to be valid. A notation shall be made on the invalid portion of a ballot and it shall be segregated from other ballots and placed in the container provided for that purpose. Write-in votes shall be added to the results of the count of the ballots at the central counting station and be included in the official returns for the precinct. If the ballot consists of more than one part, the precinct election officials, after checking for write-in votes, shall then sort the ballots according to types or parts.

(b) All ballots not voted shall be handled in the manner provided in Section 100 of this code.<sup>7</sup> The presiding judge shall make out and sign a statement accounting for all ballots delivered to him, as provided in Section 100.

(c) The authority holding the election shall provide ballot containers made of metal, wood, or some other material approved by the secretary of state, with numbered metal seals, for use in delivering voted ballots from the polling place to the central counting station. A record of the serial numbers of the seal shall be preserved, and a copy of such records shall be furnished the central counting station. All voted ballots which are to be counted by automatic tabulating equipment shall be placed in a ballot container at the polling place for delivery to the central counting station. The poll lists and tally sheets for write-in votes shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and placed in the container with the voted ballots. Before sealing the ballot container, the election judge shall execute a certificate in triplicate recording the number of ballots placed in the container and the serial number of the seal. The certificate shall also be signed by an election clerk as witness and by at least two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The original of the certificate shall be placed in the container with the ballots, and the container shall then be sealed so that no additional ballots may be deposited and no ballots may be removed without breaking the seal. One copy of the certificate shall be immediately mailed to the authority holding the election in a pre-addressed stamped envelope at the nearest post office or postbox by an election officer other than those who deliver the ballot container to the counting station. The other copy of the certificate shall be retained with the election records at the polling place.

(d) After the ballot container is sealed, two authorized election officers shall immediately deliver the ballot container to the central counting station, and watchers shall have the privilege of accompanying them. They shall deliver the container to the presiding judge of the central counting station or his designated representative, who shall give them signed receipts for the container, in a form specified by the secretary of state. The container shall be opened only by the presiding judge of the central counting station or his designated representative, who shall inspect the container and the seal and shall verify the serial number on the seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the authority holding the election and with the original certificate enclosed in the container. Any irregularities shall be reported to the presiding judge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. After the container has been opened and the ballots removed, the original certificate and the broken seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station.

(e) As an alternative to the procedure provided above, the authority holding the election may in its discretion provide prelocked and presealed ballot boxes for use in designated precincts and require that ballot boxes be delivered to the central counting station in their locked and sealed condition and that the processing of voted ballots required to be performed at the polling place by the above provisions be performed at the central counting station. In that event, the authority holding the election shall provide an adequate number of ballot boxes for each polling place, which shall be locked and sealed prior to delivery. Each ballot box shall be locked in such a way that it may not be opened except with a key of which only the election authority has possession and sealed with a numbered metal seal in such a way that the ballot box may not be opened without breaking the seal. A record of the serial numbers of the seals shall be preserved, and a copy of such record and the keys to the ballot box locks shall be furnished the central counting station. Upon completion of the voting at the polling place, or whenever a ballot box has been inactivated, the ballot box slot through which ballots are inserted shall be closed with a paper seal signed by the election judge, an election clerk, and two watchers of opposed interests if such there be. The ballot box containing the voted ballots shall then be delivered to the central counting station by the election officers in its locked and sealed condition under the same security measures as are provided in Paragraph (d) above for ballot containers. All procedures provided above to be performed at the polling place other than the processing of voted ballots shall be performed by the election officers at the polling place, and copies of all poll lists and reports shall be enclosed in envelopes provided for that purpose and inserted in the final ballot box to be delivered to the central counting station before the ballot box slot is sealed. The ballot box shall be opened at the central counting station only by the presiding judge of the counting station or his designated representative, who shall inspect the ballot box, the metal seal and the paper seal and shall verify the serial number on the metal seal with the record of serial numbers provided by the election authority. Any irregularities shall be reported to the presiding judge of the counting station, who shall take appropriate action. The presiding judge or his authorized representative shall give the two election officers who deliver the ballot box receipts in a form specified by the secretary of state. The broken metal and paper seal shall be preserved with the other permanent election records of the central counting station. After the ballot box has been opened, the voted ballots shall be processed in the manner provided in Paragraph (a) above by authorized central counting station election officers. In the event the election authority permits early processing of ballots at the central counting station as provided in Subdivision 18, emptied ballot boxes may be relocked and resealed at the central counting station by representatives of the election authority for further use at polling places.

(f) After the election officers at the polling place have delivered all ballots to the central counting station, the stub box, the ballot label assemblies, and all other election supplies and records, including all duplicate certificates and unused seals, shall be delivered to the proper authority designated by law to receive them.

Procedure at Central Counting Station

Subd. 20. (a) The commissioners court shall establish one or more central counting stations to receive and tabulate voted ballots. The commissioners court shall appoint a competent person with experience in the conduct of an election under the system in use (herein called the manager of the central counting station), who shall be in charge of the overall processing of the ballots at the central counting station. He shall be responsible for setting up a plan for the orderly performance of the various duties required at the counting station and for making the necessary arrangements for the orderly handling of the ballots and other records after they are delivered to the counting station. Except as provided in Paragraph (e) of this subdivision, he shall assign the specific duties to be performed by the clerks employed at the counting station, and shall be responsible for the proper instruction of the clerks in the performance of their duties.

(b) The commissioners court shall appoint a competent person trained in the operation of the electronic tabulating equipment to be used (herein called the tabulation supervisor), who shall be in charge of the operation of the electronic equipment. The tabulation supervisor shall select the necessary personnel to assist him in the operation of the electronic equipment, and all persons selected by him shall be subject to the approval of the commissioners court as an assurance that they will possess the necessary competence, training, and experience to perform their duties satisfactorily. No person except one selected and appointed in accordance with these provisions shall operate any of the electronic equipment or handle the ballots from the time they have been turned over to the tabulation supervisor for counting until the counting is completed.

(c) The service of the trained personnel provided for in Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision is deemed essential to the successful operation of an electronic voting system, and the personnel provided for therein shall be employed in every election in which the system is used, by whatever authority conducted. The commissioners court shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid to them. The manager of the counting station must be a resident qualified voter of the county, except that during the first year after adoption of a system in a county, a nonresident may be appointed. Persons employed to operate the electronic equipment need not be residents or qualified voters of the county. Officers and employees of the county are eligible for appointment under both Paragraphs (a) and (b), and may be paid additional compensation for their services. Except as provided herein, persons employed under these two paragraphs are not subject to the qualifications and disqualifications for election judges and clerks as stated in Sections 17 and 18 of this code.<sup>8</sup>

(d) The board or body having authority to name the presiding judges for the election shall appoint a presiding judge for the central counting station, who shall be a qualified voter of the county if the election is countywide, and of the political subdivision in which the election is held if it is less than countywide. In other respects he shall be subject to the same qualifications and disqualifications as the other presiding judges of the election. He shall perform the duties imposed on him by Subdivisions 19 and 20 of this section. He may be present at any time and at any place within the counting station and may make suggestions to and counsel with the manager and tabulation supervisor concerning any and all phases of the election. He shall possess the power given to a presiding judge by Section 87 of this code and shall be responsible for maintaining order at the counting station. He shall also supervise the service of the watchers, if any, and shall supervise the absences of all central counting station personnel, under the rules applicable to election clerks at regular polling places as stated in Section 16 of this code, between the time that actual counting of the ballots is begun and the time for official closing of the polls if counting is begun before the polls are closed. He shall be paid at the same rate and in the same manner as the other presiding judges of that election, except that he shall be entitled to a minimum of $10 regardless of the number of hours worked.

(e) The manager and presiding judge of the central counting station shall appoint the clerks to serve at the counting station. The presiding judge may designate one or more clerks of his selection to assist in receiving the ballots and other records from the polling places and in performing the duties imposed on him after the ballots are counted. The manager shall select the clerks to assist in preparing the ballots for counting. Each clerk shall be a resident of the county but need not be a resident of the political subdivision holding the election if it is less than countywide. In other respects the clerks shall be subject to the same qualifications and disqualifications as the clerks serving at the polling places for the election and they shall be compensated under the same regulations as the other clerks; provided, however, that each clerk who serves for the full time that the counting station is in operation shall be entitled to a minimum of three hours' pay regardless of the number of hours worked.

(f) Prior to the start of the count of the ballots, the authority in charge of holding the election shall have the automatic tabulating equipment tested to ascertain that it will accurately count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures. Public notice of the time and place of the test shall be given at least 48 hours prior thereto by publication once in one or more daily or weekly newspapers published in the county, city or other political subdivision where such equipment is used, if a newspaper is published therein, otherwise in a newspaper of general circulation therein. The test shall be conducted by processing a pre-audited group of ballots marked or punched so as to record a predetermined number of valid votes for each candidate and on each measure, and shall include for each office one or more ballots which have votes in excess of the number allowed by law in order to test the ability of the automatic tabulating equipment to reject such votes. The programmer, the tabulation supervisor, and the manager and presiding judge of the counting station shall be jointly responsible for preparing the test materials. In such test a different number of valid votes shall be assigned to each candidate for an office, and for and against each measure. If any error is detected, the cause therefor shall be ascertained and corrected and an errorless count shall be made and certified to by the presiding judge of the counting station before the count of the official ballots is started. The tabulating equipment shall pass the same test at the conclusion of the count before the election returns are approved as official. On completion of the test count made before the start of the count of the ballots, the test materials shall be sealed in a suitable container, using a paper seal signed by the tabulation supervisor, the manager, and the presiding judge of the counting station, and by at least two watchers of opposed interests if such are present at the test. The presiding judge shall have custody of the materials until the test is made at the conclusion of the count. On completion of that test count, the programs and test materials shall be sealed and retained as provided for paper ballots.

(g) The ballots for the various election precincts shall be separately tabulated by precincts. The ballots for a precinct shall be removed from their containers and prepared for processing by the automatic tabulating equipment. They shall be checked to ascertain that they are properly grouped and arranged so that all similar ballots from the precinct are together.

(h) The valid portion of a ballot which has been invalidated in part by the election officers as provided in Subdivision 19 of this section may be duplicated in the presence of watchers and substituted for the partially invalidated ballot, which shall be preserved, or such partially invalidated ballots may be counted manually.

(i) If it appears that a ballot cannot be counted by the automatic tabulating equipment, it may be counted manually or the manager of the counting station may cause a duplicate ballot to be made in the presence of the watchers and substituted for the original ballot, which shall be preserved. Each duplicate ballot prepared under either this paragraph or the preceding paragraph shall be clearly labeled with the word "Duplicate" and shall bear a serial number, which shall also be recorded on the original ballot.

(j) The manager shall be in charge of preparing the ballots for counting, and ballots shall not be turned over to the tabulation supervisor for counting until the manager or his designated representative has approved them as ready for counting.

(k) Upon completion of the count for each precinct, the presiding judge of the counting station shall add to the results as so determined the results of the write-in votes as counted and tallied by the precinct election officers and shall thereupon make a written return of the election in the number of copies required for elections where paper ballots are used. The ballots, together with one copy of the returns, the poll list, and the tally list for write-in votes, shall be placed in a box made of metal, wood, or some other material approved by the secretary of state, which shall be securely locked. The voted ballots and all records of the election shall be delivered to the proper authorities as provided for election precincts where paper ballots are used. The presiding judge shall be responsible for the performance of the duties imposed by this paragraph.

(l) If for any reason it becomes impracticable to count all or a part of the ballots or ballot cards with tabulating equipment, the authority holding the election may direct that they be counted manually, following as far as practicable the provisions governing the counting of paper ballots.

(m) If the automatic tabulating equipment used with any electronic voting system produces a printed record of the votes tabulated by such equipment, such printed record to which have been added the write-in and absentee votes shall, after being duly certified, constitute the official return for that precinct.

Applicability of Other Laws

Subd. 21. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the provisions of all other laws relating to the conduct of elections shall apply, so far as practicable, to the conduct of elections where electronic voting systems are used.

Preservation of Ballot Labels

Subd. 22. Where voting devices with ballot labels attached are used for voting, the ballot label assemblies, including the plastic ballot mask, shall be delivered to the same person, and kept intact for the same length of time, as are voting machines under Section 20 of Section 79 of this code.<sup>9</sup>

Post-Election Examination of Program and Other Materials; Recount

Subd. 23. At the time of making the official canvass, where an electronic voting system is used, upon the written request of any candidate whose name appears on the ballot or upon the written request of 25 voters of the county, city, or other subdivision for which the election was held (hereinafter called the petitioner), the authority charged with the duty of canvassing the returns shall defer a canvass on the office or proposition identified in the request until the procedure outlined in this subdivision has been completed. The request shall be directed to a district judge, with a copy to the presiding officer of the canvassing board. The request may ask for any one or more of the following, and it may be amended to include additional items at any time not later than 48 hours after completion of the procedures originally requested:

- (1) Permission to examine the program used in counting the ballots.
- (2) Permission to examine the materials used in making the test counts.

(3) Permission to examine the ballot assemblies for all or part of the voting devices, where a punch-card ballot is used.

(4) Permission to make a recount of the test count, using the program and the test materials.

(5) A recount of the ballots for all or part of the election precincts, using the same methods and materials as in the original count. A recount under this paragraph, or a recount of the test count, shall be made by a person selected and compensated by the petitioner, subject to approval by the district judge as to his competence to operate the electronic tabulating equipment. The recount may be made either on the equipment which was used for the official count at the central counting station or on any tabulating equipment located within the county which is capable of counting the ballots. If it is made on the equipment at the central counting station, the person in charge of the equipment must make the equipment available at a reasonable rate of compensation, to be paid by the petitioner. The petitioner shall also be responsible for any expense involved in using any other equipment. A return of the results of the recount shall be made and certified by the person making the recount, and shall be attested by the manager and tabulation supervisor of the central counting station.

(6) A manual recount of the votes cast on the office or proposition identified in the request. The recount shall be made by a committee of two or more persons appointed by the district judge, and they shall be compensated at the same rate as the election judges and clerks for the election. The district judge shall make a preliminary estimate of the cost and shall require the petitioner to make a deposit in that amount before the recount is ordered. A return of the results of the recount shall be made and certified by the committee.

(7) A recount of the ballot for all or part of the election precincts, using corrected materials as detailed herein. If an examination or utilization of the program, the ballot assemblies, or the test count materials reveals an apparent error in the preparation or use of the materials or a defect in the functioning of the equipment which affected the outcome of the election, the petitioner shall make a written report to the district judge, copies of which shall be furnished to the presiding officer of the canvassing authority, the programmer for the election, and the manager, tabulation supervisor, and presiding judge of the central counting station. If the programmer, manager, and tabulation supervisor unanimously agree that the error or defect does exist and that it can be remedied so that the true results of the election can be ascertained, the correction shall be made under supervision of the district judge; and the manager, tabulation supervisor, and presiding judge shall recount the ballots and prepare corrected returns in the same manner as for the original count. Any other relief incident to an examination of materials and request for a recount under this paragraph must be obtained through an election contest filed in a district court.

Upon presentation of an order signed by the district judge, the custodian of the election records shall deliver them into the custody of the person designated in the order to be responsible for their safekeeping while they are being used. After the use is completed, they shall be returned to the original custodian for safekeeping in the same manner as when they were originally delivered to him. The district judge or someone designated by him to serve in his place and the manager and the tabulation supervisor of the central counting station where the ballots were counted shall be present at all times while the election records are being used. The manager and tabulation supervisor shall be paid at a reasonable rate of compensation for time spent in performing the duties imposed by this subdivision, except that the authority responsible for the expenses of the election shall determine what compensation, if any, they shall receive for making a corrected recount as outlined in numbered Paragraph (7) of this subdivision. Except for their services in that capacity, the district judge shall require the petitioner to make a deposit to cover estimated costs for their services.

Whenever a recount is ordered, by whatever method it is to be made, each opposing candidate must be given notice of the time and place for making the recount and may be present or have a representative present to observe the proceeding. If the recount is for an election on an issue or proposition, the district judge may order that notice be given to such persons or groups as he deems desirable to provide representation for the opposing interest. The returns made on the recount shall be used in lieu of the original returns in the official canvass of the election for the office or proposition identified in the request; provided, however, that if any write-in ballots, absentee ballots, or other ballots were not recounted, the original returns shall be used as to those ballots.

If as a result of the recount the outcome of the election is changed favorable to the petitioner, any deposit for costs which the petitioner has made shall be returned to him, and the authority responsible for the expenses of the election shall pay the costs of the recount and shall reimburse the petitioner for any expenditure he has made for equipment and personnel in having the recount made; provided, however, that if the central counting station equipment and personnel were not used, the amount of reimbursement shall not exceed the amount which use of that equipment and personnel would have cost. If the recount does not change the outcome, the petitioner shall pay all costs. A change in the outcome of the election favorable to the petitioner means that as a result of the recount the proposition identified in the request carries, or the candidate identified in the request is declared to have been nominated or elected to the office, or to have become entitled to be a candidate in a runoff election, or to have tied with another candidate between the two of whom the right of nomination, election, or a place on a runoff ballot is to be decided.

Penal Provisions

Subd. 24. (a) No person may:

(1) wilfully tamper with or damage any voting equipment, as defined in Subdivision 1 of this section, or any automatic tabulating equipment, to be used or being used in any election;

(2) wilfully prevent or attempt to prevent the correct operation of any voting equipment or automatic tabulating equipment;

(3) wilfully program or attempt to program any automatic tabulating equipment so as to produce an inaccurate count in an election; or

(4) intentionally repunch a ballot card to reflect a vote contrary to the intent of the voter.

(b) A person who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a felony, and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than three nor more than five years, or by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $1,000, or by both.

(c) Except as they conflict with the provisions of this section, the provisions of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to paper ballots, apply also to ballot cards.

Art. 7.16. Runoff Elections in Cities and Towns of over 200,000; Voting Machines; Ballot

Sec. 1. In all cities and towns in this State, whether incorporated under General or Special Law, (including home rule cities) having a population in excess of two hundred thousand (200,000) inhabitants, according to the last preceding or future Federal Census the election of candidates for all municipal offices shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) Election by majority vote. Any candidate for office in any duly held municipal election receiving a majority of all the votes cast for the office for which he is a candidate shall be elected to such office.

(b) In the event any candidate for either of said offices fails to receive a majority of all votes cast for all the candidates for such office at such election the Mayor of said city shall, on the first day following the completion of the official count of the ballots cast at said first election, issue a call for a second election to be held in said city on the second Tuesday following the issuance of such call, at which said second election the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes for any such office in the first election at which no one was elected at said first election by receiving a majority of all votes cast for all candidates for such office, shall again be voted for. The official ballot to be used at said second election shall be prepared by the City Clerk or City Secretary and the name of no person shall appear thereon unless he was a candidate for the office designated at said first election, and the two (2) persons receiving at said first election the first and second highest number of votes cast for candidates for such office at such first election shall be entitled to have their names printed on said official ballot in the order of their standing in the computation of the votes cast for such candidates at said first election as candidates at said second election for such office; provided, however, that in the event any person who was a candidate at said first election and who shall be entitled to become a candidate at such second election shall fail to request that his name shall appear on the official ballot therefor at such second election as herein provided, the candidate for such office standing next highest in the computation of votes shall succeed to the rights of such candidate who failed to request that his name appear upon the ballot at said second election; provided further, that two (2) candidates for such office at said first election shall be entitled to become candidates therefor at said second election, which two (2) candidates shall be those two (2) among such candidates as shall stand highest respectively in the computation of all votes cast for all the candidates for such office at said first election as shall file written request to be placed on the official ballot as candidates for such office at said second election. In the event of a tie in the vote for the two (2) leading candidates for any office at said first election, said office shall be filled at a second election as herein provided for, at which such candidates so tied in said first election may again become candidates. In the event such candidates who tied in said first election, or either of them, shall fail so to do, the two (2) candidates for such office who are next highest in the computation of votes therefor and who desire to become candidates therefor at said second election shall be entitled so to do in order of the number of votes they respectively received at said first election. In the event of a tie between the two (2) candidates for any office at said second election, they shall cast lots to determine who shall be elected to such office.

Sec. 2. This law shall not apply to any city whose charter now, or hereafter, provides for the selection of its officers by means of a preferential type of ballot; provided that such city does not use voting machines as the legal method of voting.

Sec. 3. The procedure provided in Section 1 hereof shall apply whether voting machines are used or not, but if voting machines are used, and a second election is called for any purpose so soon after a preceding election that the use of voting machines in the second election would be impracticable, then the authority calling the second election may authorize the use of paper ballots in such second election, and the general laws regarding paper ballots provided in this Code shall apply.

Art. 7.17. Inapplication to Elections in which Voting Machines Used

The provisions of Articles 38, 61, 73, 93, 187, and 200, relating to the use of the stub ballot, shall not apply to elections in which voting machines are used as provided elsewhere in this Code.

Art. 8.01. Officers of Election Sworn

Before opening the polls, the presiding judge of election and each of the other judges (if any) and clerks who are present at the opening of the polls shall repeat in an audible voice: "I solemnly swear that I will not in any manner request or seek to persuade or induce any voter to vote for or against any candidate or candidates, or for or against any proposition to be voted on; and that I will faithfully perform this day my duty as officer of the election, and guard as far as I am able, the purity of the ballot box, so help me God." Each clerk who commences his service at any time thereafter shall also repeat the oath before performing any of his duties as an election officer.

Art. 8.02. Preliminary Arrangements

The presiding judge and such clerks as he designates shall meet at the polling place in sufficient time before opening of the polls to complete the preliminary arrangements required by this section. However, no judge or clerk shall be paid for more than one hour of work before the polls open. Watchers may be present during any or all of the time that the preliminary arrangements are being made. Before opening of the polls, the election officers shall arrange the guard rail, the space within the guard rail, the voting booths, if any, and the furniture for the orderly and legal conduct of the election. The election officers shall then examine the ballot boxes and the blank official ballots to see that they are properly printed and numbered, removing any unnumbered or otherwise defectively printed ballots, and shall deposit such ballots as are found to be defective in printing in ballot box No. 4, for defective, mutilated, and unused ballots. They shall examine the sample ballots, instruction cards, distance markers, tally sheets, return sheets, certified list of voters, rubber stamps and all things required for the election. The package of official ballots shall remain in the custody of the presiding judge and shall not be opened until the morning of the election and at the polling place. The presiding judge shall cause to be placed, at the outer limits of the area prescribed in Section 109<sup>1</sup> within which loitering and electioneering are prohibited, visible distance markers in each direction of approaches to the polls, on each of which shall be printed in large letters the words: "Distance marker. No electioneering or loitering between this point and the entrance to the polls." The election officers shall examine the ballot boxes and then relock them, after all present can see that they are empty. The ballot clerks with official ballots, the presiding officer of the election, the poll clerk, the election supplies and the certified lists of registered voters for the precinct shall be as conveniently near each other as practicable within the polling place.

Art. 8.03. Instruction Card Posted

Before the election begins, one instruction card shall be posted conspicuously near each distance marker and one posted up in each voting booth where it can be read. When there are no voting booths, one shall be posted up in plain view at the place prepared for the voter to make out his ballot. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 85.]

Art. 8.04. Presiding Judge Absent

If no presiding judge was appointed or fails to act or fails to attend on election day, the voters present may appoint their own presiding officer, who is a qualified voter, and they may also appoint the necessary assistant judges of election. When a presiding officer who has been appointed by a Commissioners Court fails to act in conducting an election, and one is selected by the voters present, the judges and clerks at such election shall, in making their returns of election, certify to that fact, and state that the acting judges were appointed by the voters present. When an assistant judge or clerk having been appointed fails to act at the opening of the polls or during the election, the presiding judge shall appoint in his place another with the same qualifications, and return a certificate of such appointment with each election return.

Art. 8.05. Power of Presiding Judge

Judges of election are authorized to administer oaths to ascertain all facts necessary to a fair and impartial election. The presiding judge of election, while in the discharge of his duties as such, shall have the power of the district judge to enforce order and keep the peace. He may appoint special peace officers to act as such during the election and may issue warrants of arrest for felony, misdemeanor or breach of peace committed at such election, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county, or such special peace officer, who shall forthwith execute any such warrants, and, if so ordered by the presiding judge, confine the party arrested in jail during the election or until the day after the election, when his case may be examined into before some magistrate, to whom the presiding judge shall report it; but the party arrested shall first be permitted to vote, if entitled to do so unless he is drunk from the use of intoxicating liquor, then he shall not be permitted to vote until he is sober.

Art. 8.06. To Inspect Ballot Boxes

Before the balloting begins, the presiding judge shall unlock ballot box No. 1, and after all the officers of the election and supervisors have inspected the same to see that it is empty relock it and place it within view, where it shall remain until removed to make room for ballot box No. 2. A like examination shall be made of ballot box No. 2. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 88.]

Art. 8.07. Present Poll Tax Receipt

No citizen shall be permitted to vote, except as provided in the Constitution of Texas unless he first presents to the judge of election his poll tax receipt or certificate unless the same has been lost or mislaid, or left at home, in which event he shall make an affidavit of that fact, which shall be left with the judges and sent by them with the returns of the election; provided, that, if since he obtained his receipt or certificate he removes from the precinct or county of his residence, he may vote on complying with other provisions of this Code.

Art. 8.08. Procedure for Accepting Voter; Signature Roster

Subd. 1. An election officer shall receive from the voter his registration certificate, when he presents himself to vote. If the voter has lost or mislaid his certificate or left it at home, he shall make an affidavit of that fact. The election officer shall announce the voter's name in an audible voice and shall ascertain that his name appears on the list of registered voters or shall satisfy himself, in the manner stated in Section 48a of this code,<sup>1</sup> that the voter is a registered voter and is entitled to vote in that precinct. He shall then require the voter to sign the signature roster provided for in Subdivision 3 of this section. If the voter has presented his registration certificate, the election officer shall compare the signature on the roster with the signature on the certificate to see that it is the same. If he finds that the signatures do not correspond, he shall not allow the voter to vote unless the voter complies with the procedure prescribed in Section 91 of this code<sup>2</sup> for acceptance of a challenged voter.

Subd. 2. When a voter is accepted for voting, the election officer shall place a notation on the list of registered voters showing that he has voted and shall enter the voter's name on the poll list. The names on the poll list shall be entered in the same order as the names on the signature roster. The officer shall return the registration certificate to the voter and shall allow him to select his ballot. The voter shall then immediately retire to a voting booth or a place prepared for voting by the election officers, and there prepare his ballot in the manner provided by law.

Subd. 3. There shall be kept at each polling place a signature roster of persons offering to vote at the election. Each person offering to vote shall sign the roster if he is able to do so. If a voter is unable to sign his name, an election officer shall enter the voter's name on the roster and shall make a notation of whether the voter is unable to sign because of physical disability, blindness, or illiteracy. If a person is rejected for voting after signing the roster, the presiding judge shall make a notation of that fact by the person's name, stating the reason for the rejection. After the election is over, the signature roster shall be returned with the copy of the poll list which is intended for public inspection and shall be preserved under the same rules as the poll list. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 90; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2523, ch. 827, § 17, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Art. 8.09. Vote Challenged

When a person offering to vote at any general, special, or primary election shall be objected to by an election judge or clerk, a poll watcher, or any other person, the presiding judge shall examine him upon oath touching the points of such objection, and if such person establishes his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, he shall be permitted to vote, and the word "sworn" shall be written upon the poll list opposite the name of the voter. If upon his own oath the person fails to establish his right to vote to the satisfaction of the presiding judge, his vote shall not be accepted unless in addition to his own oath he submits proof by the oath of one well-known resident of the precinct that he is a qualified voter at such election and in such precinct. When such proof is submitted, his vote shall be accepted, and the word "challenged" and the name and address of the person testifying under oath as to the voter's qualifications shall be written on the poll list opposite the name of the voter.

Art. 8.10. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a), eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 8.11. Delivery of Ballot

Subd. 1. After all defectively printed ballots have been removed, the presiding judge shall cause his signature to be placed on the back of each ballot to be used at the election. The ballots may be signed by the presiding judge in his own handwriting, or they may be stamped with a facsimile of his signature by the presiding judge or by another election officer under his direction. Where a stamp is used, the presiding judge shall take the necessary precaution to see that the stamp is properly safeguarded at all times so that no unauthorized use may be made of it.

Subd. 2. After the signature of the presiding judge is placed on the back of the ballots, one of the election officers shall thoroughly disarrange and mix the ballots so that they no longer are in consecutive numbered sequence or in any sequence of arithmetic or geometric progression, and then place the ballots face down in a stack or stacks from which each voter shall be allowed to take his own ballot without the number being known to or written down in any manner by an election officer.

Art. 8.12. Marked Ballot

At either a general, special or primary election, any judge may require a citizen to answer under oath before he secures an official ballot whether he has been furnished with any paper or ballot on which is marked the names of any one for whom he has agreed or promised to vote or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper or marked ballot in his possession, and he shall not be furnished with an official ballot until he has delivered to the judge such marked ballot on paper, if he has one. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 94.]

Art. 8.13. Aid to Voter

Not more than one person at the same time shall be permitted to occupy any one compartment, voting booth or place prepared for a voter, nor shall any assistance be given a voter in preparing his ballot, except when a voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity, such as renders him physically unable to write or to see, in which case two officers of such election shall assist him, they having first sworn that they will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how such voter shall vote; that they will confine their assistance to answering his questions, to stating the propositions to be voted on, and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and that they will prepare his ballot as such voter himself shall direct. If the election is a general election, the election officers who assist such voters shall be of different political parties, if there be such officers present. One or more watchers may be present when the assistance herein permitted is being given, but each watcher must remain silent except in cases of irregularity or violation of the law.

"Instead of being assisted by two election officers as hereinabove provided, a voter who is entitled to assistance may select any qualified voter residing in the precinct to assist him, and no other person shall be permitted to be present while the ballot is being prepared. Before assisting the voter, the person selected shall take the following oath, which shall be administered by one of the election officers: "I solemnly swear that I will not suggest, by word or sign or gesture, how the voter shall vote; I will confine my assistance to answering his questions, to stating propositions to be voted on and to naming candidates and the political parties to which they belong; and I will prepare his ballot as the voter himself shall direct."

Where any assistance is rendered in preparing a ballot other than as herein allowed, the ballot shall not be counted, but shall be void for all purposes. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 95; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 338, ch. 153, § 1; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 59.]

Art. 8.13a. Use of English Language; Interpreter

No election judge or clerk shall use any language other than the English language in performing any duty as such judge or clerk of the election, except that it shall be permissible for him to use some other language when examining, aiding, or giving instructions to a voter who does not understand the English language. Any voter unable to speak or understand the English language may communicate with the election officer in some other language, and if the election officer is unable to speak or understand the language used by the voter or if he requests that the voter communicate through an interpreter, the voter shall be entitled to communicate through an interpreter of his choice, who shall be a qualified voter in the precinct. Before acting as interpreter, the person chosen by the voter shall take the following oath, to be administered by the presiding judge: "I solemnly swear that I will correctly interpret and translate each question, answer, or statement addressed to the voter by any election officer and each question, answer, or statement addressed to any election officer by the voter." When any language other than the English language is used either by the voter or by an election officer, any election officer or any watcher shall be entitled to request and receive a translation into the English language of anything spoken in another language.

Art. 8.14. Officers not to Electioneer

No election judge, clerk or other person connected with the holding of an election, shall on election day, indicate by words, sign, symbol or writing to any citizen, how he shall or should not vote; provided, nothing herein shall interfere with the operation of the preceding Section [art. 8.13].

Art. 8.15. Stub Box

Subd. 1. Preparation of stub box. In every general, special, or primary election, the authority charged with the duty of furnishing supplies for the election shall cause to be prepared for each polling place a stub box, as other boxes of the election, except that the opening thereof shall not exceed one-sixteenth of an inch in width and two and one-fourth inches in length. The stub box shall be submitted to the district clerk of the county, who shall seal it by placing a short ribbon through the hasp on the box and securing the ends of the ribbon with two gummed seals, which shall be sealed together by affixing thereto the seal of the court, so as to make it impossible to open the box without breaking the seal. The district clerk further shall prepare in triplicate a certificate showing the number of the box, the date of the election, and the nature of the election. He shall then place one copy of the certificate in the box before sealing it, shall attach one copy to the outside of the box, and shall retain one copy in his files. The stub box shall be delivered to the election judge at the same time the regular ballot boxes are distributed, and the election judge shall return the box to the district clerk at the time he delivers the regular ballot boxes to the designated place.

Subd. 2. Custody of stub box. Upon the return of the stub box, the district clerk shall keep the box secure, as other papers of the district court, and shall allow no one to open the box except by order of the district court, upon the trial of an election contest involving the contents of the box or in connection with a criminal investigation. The box shall be treated as other papers of the district court with the exception that it shall not be opened except by order of the court, and the court further shall have the power to punish anyone found guilty of violating the provisions of this subdivision as contempt of court. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of the election within sixty days after the day of the election, the district clerk shall deliver the ballot box to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand the box. If no contest or criminal investigation arose out of the election within sixty days after the day of the election, the contents of the box shall be destroyed by fire under the direction of the district judge and in the presence of the county judge and district clerk; provided, that the district judge upon his own motion or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of the contents of the box for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court.

Subd. 3. Depositing ballots. When a voter who is voting in person shall have prepared his ballot, he shall immediately detach therefrom the perforated stub and affix his signature to the back of the same and deposit it in the stub box before depositing his ballot and without disclosing to anyone the number of his stub. Should the voter be unable to sign his name, he shall place the stub face down so as not to expose the number of his stub and he shall sign the same with an "X" with the election judge placing the voter's name in the election judge's own handwriting, and the voter shall then drop the stub in the stub box before the voter deposits his ballot. The voter shall then fold the ballot so as to conceal the printing thereon, and so as to expose the signature of the presiding judge on the back of the ballot, then deposit the ballot in the proper ballot box. If a voter signs the stub but fails to detach it before depositing the ballot in the ballot box, the counting officer shall detach the stub and deposit it in the stub box without examining the ballot, and the ballot shall be counted. If a ballot with an unsigned, undetached stub is deposited in the ballot box, the ballot with stub attached shall be placed in ballot No. 3 for voted ballots but shall not be counted.

Art. 8.16. Mutilated Ballots

At any general or primary election no voter shall be entitled to receive a new ballot in lieu of one mutilated and defaced, until he first return such ballot. No one shall be supplied with more than three (3) ballots in succession, when they are mutilated or defaced. A register shall be kept by the clerks as the voting progresses of the mutilated or defaced ballots which shall be deposited in box No. 4. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 98.]

Art. 8.17. Bystanders Excluded

From the time of opening the polls until the announcement of the results of the canvass of votes cast and the signing of the official returns, the boxes and official ballots shall be kept at the polling place in the presence of one or more of the judges, and supervisors, if any. No person, except those admitted to vote, shall be admitted within the room where the election is being held, except the judges, clerks, persons admitted by the presiding judge to preserve order, and supervisors of election.

Art. 8.18. Defective, Mutilated, and Unused Ballots in Box No. 4

In any general, special, or primary election, there shall be deposited in ballot box No. 4, in addition to ballots defectively printed, all defaced and mutilated ballots, and, when the polls are closed, all the ballots that have not been voted. The term "defaced and mutilated ballot" as used in this article means a ballot which has been returned by the voter as provided in Section 98 of this code.<sup>1</sup> It does not include any ballot which a voter has deposited in the ballot box containing ballots to be counted, and the election officers shall place in ballot box No. 3 with other voted ballots any ballot which has been voted but which they refuse to count by reason of its being marked in an unintelligible manner or for any other reason. Ballot box No. 4 shall be locked and shall be delivered to the county judge or other officer receiving the returns for use in the official canvass, at the same time that the returns are delivered, with a statement which shall be placed therein, signed by the presiding judge, of the number of ballots received by him, the number of mutilated or defaced ballots that the box contains, and also the number of ballots not given to voters, as well as those defectively printed, so that, after adding such numbers, all ballots delivered to the election officers may be accounted for. When the returns of votes cast are canvassed by the commissioners court or other authority as provided for by law, such ballot box shall be opened, the ballots counted, and a record made of what they found the contents to be. The box shall then be relocked and delivered to the county clerk or other officer having custody of the voted ballots, and shall be preserved by him until expiration of the period for contesting the election. If no contest has arisen, the custodian of the box may then destroy or otherwise dispose of the contents as he sees fit. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 100; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 62; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 23, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 8.19. Deposit and Count

In all elections, general, special, or primary, at the expiration of one hour after voting has begun, the receiving officers shall deliver ballot box No. 1 to the counting officers, who shall at once deliver in its place ballot box No. 2, which shall again be opened and examined and securely closed and locked; and until the ballots in box No. 1 have been counted, the voters shall deposit their ballots in box No. 2. Ballot box No. 1 shall, upon its receipt by the counting officers, be immediately opened and the ballots taken out by one of them, who shall read and distinctly announce while the ballot remains in his hand, the name of each candidate voted for thereon, which shall be noted on the tally sheet. The ballot shall then be placed in box No. 3, which shall remain locked and in view until the counting is finished, when the box shall be returned, locked and sealed, to the county clerk or other officer as provided by law. Ballot boxes No. 1 and 2 shall be used by the receiving officers and the counting officers alternately, as above provided, as often as the counting officers have counted and exhausted the ballots in either box. It is provided, however, that the box for receiving the ballots shall not be delivered to the counting officers and the ballots shall not be removed therefrom at any time before the polls are closed unless there are more than ten ballots in the box. After the polls have closed, the counting of votes shall proceed continuously until all of the votes are counted and the returns are properly certified and signed.

Art. 8.19a. Counting Straight-ticket Ballots

In an election where party columns appear on the official ballot, the tally sheets for the election shall be prepared with appropriate spaces for tallying straight-ticket ballots. Each straight-ticket ballot voted shall be tallied for the party receiving the vote instead of being tallied for the individual candidates of the party. When the presiding judge makes out the returns for the election, to the number of votes tallied for each party nominee individually there shall be added the number of straight-ticket votes tallied for the party which nominated the candidate. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 24, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Art. 8.20. Examining Ballots

No officer of election shall unfold or examine the face of a ballot when received from an elector, nor the endorsement on the ballot, except the signature of the judge, or the words stamped thereon, nor shall he permit the same to be done; nor shall he examine or permit to be examined the ballots after they are deposited in a ballot box, except as herein provided for in canvassing the votes, or in cases especially provided by law. No official of the election shall make any note of the number of the ballot or any note that would make possible for the identification of a ballot delivered to a voter. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 102.]

Art. 8.21. Ballots Not Counted

The counting judges and clerks shall familiarize themselves with the signature of the judge who writes his name on each ballot that is voted, shall count no ballot where two (2) or more are folded together, or is unnumbered. If the names of two (2) or more persons are upon a ballot for the same office, when but one person is to be elected to that office, such ballot shall not be counted for either of such persons. Likewise no ballot shall be counted if it is found to be fraudulent, but in the absence of a showing of fraud the mere failure of the presiding judge to sign the ballot shall not make any such ballot illegal.

Art. 8.22. Death, Declination, Withdrawal or Ineligibility of Candidate before Election

(a) If a nominee dies or declines the nomination before the election, or is declared ineligible to be elected to or to hold the office for which he is a candidate, and no one is nominated to take his place, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and return made thereof; and, if he shall have received a plurality of the votes cast for the office, the vacancy shall be filled as in case of a vacancy occurring after the election.

(b) If after the 30th day preceding the first primary election, an opposed candidate in that primary dies or an opposed candidate who is seeking nomination to an office he then holds withdraws his candidacy or is declared ineligible to be elected to the office, his name shall be printed on the first primary ballot and the ballots cast for him shall be counted and a return made thereof. If such a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate receives a majority of the votes, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code,<sup>1</sup> to be printed on the general election ballot. If such a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate is one of the two highest candidates in that race in the first primary and if no one has a majority vote, the two candidates with the highest votes, other than the deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate, shall be certified to have their names printed on the second primary ballot. If an unopposed candidate in the first primary dies, withdraws, or is declared ineligible after the 30th day preceding the first primary, neither the office title nor the name of the candidate shall be printed on the primary ballot, and the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify such name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. If a candidate whose name is to appear on the second primary ballot dies between the dates of the first and second primaries, his name shall be printed on the second primary ballot and the votes cast for him shall be counted and returned for him; and if such a deceased candidate receives a majority of the votes in the second primary, the proper executive committee shall choose a nominee and certify his name to the proper officer, as provided in Section 233 of this code, to be printed on the general election ballot. Withdrawal of a candidate in the second primary is regulated by Section 204a of this code.<sup>2</sup>

Art. 8.23. Revealing Information before Polls are Closed

It shall not be unlawful for any presiding judge of an election to reveal at any time the number of votes that have been cast up to that time, but it shall be unlawful for any judge, clerk, watcher, or other person connected with the holding of an election, before the hour for closing the polls, to reveal any information as to the names of persons who have or have not voted at the election, or as to the votes that have been received for or against any proposition or candidate, or as to the candidate who is leading or trailing in the tabulation of the votes. Anyone who violates any provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 8.24. Status of Count Announced

Immediately upon the closing of the polls, and at intervals of two (2) hours thereafter, one of the judges of election shall make a correct but unofficial memorandum of the total number of votes counted for each candidate at that time, such memorandum being in the order in which the names of the candidates appear upon the official ballot; and thereupon he shall publicly announce from such memorandum, the status of the count at the door of the building where the counting is in progress. This memorandum shall thereafter be accessible to the public, and especially to newspaper reporters who may call for information; and the presiding judge and associate judge may furnish reporters information concerning the status of the count at other times after the polls have been closed. The announcement of the status of the count shall continue, as aforesaid, until the count has been completed, when a correct but unofficial announcement of the total number of votes received by each candidate shall be made as above provided. In all general, special or primary elections, the presiding judge of election shall, upon the completion of the count, immediately transmit by telephone or by more expeditious means, if available, to the office of the county clerk if the election be a general or special election, or to the county chairman, if a primary election, an unofficial but complete report of the number of votes cast for each candidate, and/or cast for or against each proposition submitted to the voters for determination. No judge, clerk, supervisor or other officer of election shall make any statement, or give any information in any manner, of the number of votes cast for or against any candidate or for or against any proposition submitted to the people, or convey to any person his opinion regarding the state of the polls until after the closing thereof, and then only as herein expressly permitted. The provisions of this Section shall apply to all elections, general, special or primary.

Art. 8.25. Tabulation of Unofficial Returns

Sec. 1. The county clerk in case of general or special election, or the county chairman if a primary election, shall tabulate such unofficial returns when received, and at convenient intervals until midnight of election day shall announce or have announced at the courthouse door, or some other designated place, the total number of votes, as far as tabulated at the time, counted for each candidate, and/or for or against each proposition submitted to the voters for determination. When returns from each precinct of the county shall have been tabulated the county clerk or county chairman shall immediately prepare an unofficial memorandum of the total number of votes received by each candidate, and/or cast for or against each proposition submitted to the people, and shall post a copy of the same at the courthouse door or at some other designated public place in the county.

Sec. 2. For receiving unofficial returns by telephone and tabulating them as herein provided, the county clerk or county chairman and assistants employed in the work shall receive the same compensation per hour as allowed precinct judges of election.

Sec. 3. Charges for telephone or other service in transmitting unofficial returns to the county clerk in general or special elections shall be payable out of the general fund of the county. Charges for such services in primary elections shall be payable out of the funds of the political parties holding such elections.

Sec. 4. The tabulation of unofficial returns shall be preserved for public inspection until such time as official returns shall have been tabulated; thereafter, the unofficial tabulation may be destroyed.

Sec. 5. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a).

Art. 8.26. Privilege from Arrest

In all cases except treason, felony or breach of peace, voters shall be privileged from arrest during their attendance at elections, and in going to and returning therefrom.

Art. 8.27. Electioneering or Loitering near Polls

(a) It shall be unlawful for any sound truck to approach within one thousand feet of a polling place during the hours the polls are open for the purpose of making any political speeches or electioneering for or against any proposition or candidate.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to do any electioneering or loitering while the polls are open within one hundred feet of any outside door through which a voter may enter the building in which a polling place is located. The presiding judge shall prevent unlawful electioneering or loitering, and for this purpose he may appoint a special peace officer to enforce this authority upon approval of the appointment by the presiding officer of the canvassing authority for the election. Notwithstanding the general authority granted to election judges in Section 87 of this code,<sup>1</sup> a special peace officer appointed by the presiding judge shall not undertake to enforce the provisions of this section unless his appointment has been approved as required herein.

(c) Any person who operates a sound truck, either as the driver of the vehicle or as the speaker or operator of the sound equipment, in violation of this section, or who does any electioneering or loitering in violation of this section, is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 8.28. Disabled Voter

If any voter is physically unable to enter the polling place without assistance, two (2) of the judges of the election or primary may deliver an official ballot to him at the entrance of the polling place and permit him to make out his ballot and cast it for him.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 110.]

Art. 8.29. Returns of Elections held by the County

When the ballots have all been counted, the presiding judge of the election in person shall make out returns of the same certified to be correct and signed by him officially, showing:

- (1) the total number of votes polled at such polling place, and
- (2) the total number of votes polled for each candidate and/or the number polled for or against any proposition voted on.

One of the returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be sealed up in an envelope and delivered by the presiding judge to the county judge of the county for use in the official canvass of the result. Another of said returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be delivered to the county clerk of the county to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election. Another of said returns, together with a poll list and tally list, shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots; and the other of said returns, together with a poll list, shall be retained by the presiding judge of the election for sixty days from the day of the election. In case of vacancy in the office of county judge, or the absence, failure or inability of that officer to act, the election returns for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the county clerk of the county, who shall safely keep the same in his office, and he, or the county judge, shall deliver the same to the Commissioners Court on the day appointed by law to open and canvass the returns of the election.

Art. 8.29a. Returns of Other Elections

When some other statute regulating the conduct of a specific type of election provides the procedure for making returns of the election, for canvass of the returns, or for custody and disposition of the voted ballots, those provisions shall govern such matters in the conduct of the election. In the absence of such other law, the provisions of this Code applicable to elections held by the county, as modified by this section, shall govern such matters for all elections held by cities, school districts, and other political subdivisions of this state, insofar as these provisions can be made applicable, and references in this Code to the county judge, commissioners court, and the county clerk shall be deemed to mean the appropriate officer or board, as herein provided, for the type of election involved.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns of all elections held at the expense of the county shall be canvassed by the Commissioners Court, and the copy of the precinct returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the county judge. The county clerk shall have custody of the voted ballots; the copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the county clerk; and the keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the sheriff.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns for all municipal elections shall be canvassed by the city governing body and the copy of the precinct returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the mayor. The city secretary or clerk shall have custody of the voted ballots; the copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the city secretary or clerk; and the keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the city marshal or chief police officer. If the city has no city marshal or chief police officer, or if such office is vacant, the keys shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which the city is located, and if located in more than one county, to the sheriff of the county in which the office of the mayor is maintained.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the returns of all elections held by school districts, conservation districts, and other political subdivisions shall be canvassed by the governing board of the subdivision holding the election, and the copy of the returns and accompanying records for use in the official canvass shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the governing board. The governing board shall make proper provision for custody, storage, and safekeeping of the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots, which shall be delivered to the presiding officer or to such other person as the governing board shall direct. The copy of the returns and accompanying records for public inspection shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the governing board. The keys to the ballot boxes containing the voted ballots shall be delivered to the constable of the justice precinct in which the office of the governing board of the subdivision is maintained. If the office of constable is vacant, the keys shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county in which the office of the governing board of the subdivision is maintained.

Art. 8.29b. Copies of Returns, Poll Lists, and Tally Lists; Distribution

(a) In precincts using paper ballots. In all general, special, and primary elections, the number of copies of the returns, poll list, and tally list required for each precinct in which paper ballots are used shall be as follows: four copies of the returns, four copies of the poll list, and three copies of the tally list. These records shall be distributed as follows:

- (1) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the presiding officer of the authority which canvasses the returns (the county judge in elections held by the county; the mayor in city elections; the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions; and the chairman of the county executive committee in county primary elections) and shall be preserved by the canvassing authority for sixty days from the day of the election.

(2) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be delivered to the proper officer (the county clerk in elections held by the county and in county primary elections; the city secretary or clerk in municipal elections; and the presiding officer of the governing board in elections held by other political subdivisions), to be kept by him in his office open to inspection by the public for sixty days from the day of the election.

(3) One copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list shall be placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots.

(4) The presiding judge shall retain in his custody one copy of the returns and one copy of the poll list of the election, and shall keep the same for sixty days after the day of the election, subject to the inspection of anyone interested in such election.

(b) In precincts using voting machines. In all general, special, and primary elections, there shall be made out, for each precinct in which voting machines are used, three copies of the poll list and three copies of the returns. These records shall be distributed and preserved as provided in Paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of Subdivision (a) of this section, and shall be subject to the provisions of Subdivision (c) of this section.

(c) Destruction of records. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of an election within sixty days after the day of the election any officer having custody of records of the election shall deliver such records to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand them. If no contest or criminal investigation arose within sixty days after the day of the election, the records referred to in Paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of Subdivision (a) of this section may be destroyed after the expiration of the sixty-day period; provided, however, that no record shall be destroyed until all laws providing for recordation of any information contained therein have been complied with; and provided further, that the district judge, upon his own motion, or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of any election record for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court. The records referred to in Paragraph (3) of Subdivision (a) of this section, which are placed in the ballot box containing the voted ballots, shall be destroyed at the same time that the voted ballots are destroyed, as provided elsewhere in this Code.

Art. 8.30. Time for Report by Election Judges

The presiding judges in the several precincts in this state, in general and special elections, shall deliver the written returns of the election to the county judge of their respective counties immediately after all votes have been counted and tabulated, and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls. Within forty-eight hours after the returns have been canvassed by the commissioners court, as provided by law, the county judges shall forward by mail to the Secretary of State complete returns of the general and special elections in their respective counties. If a county judge fails or neglects to make such report the county clerk is hereby authorized to forward by mail to the Secretary of State complete returns of the general and special elections in their respective counties and if both the county judge and the county clerk neglect or fail to make such report, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to request by mail, telephone or telegraph that the report be forwarded to him immediately. In case no report is had from such county within ten days from the day of the election, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to send a special messenger to such county to obtain from the proper officers a complete return of such election, and the expense of such messenger shall be paid from the general fund of such county. This section shall in no wise be construed as repealing Section 122 of this Code.<sup>1</sup>

Art. 8.31. Return of Election Supplies

The presiding judge shall deliver the certified lists of qualified voters and all stationery, rubber stamps, blank forms, and other election supplies not used, to the county clerk at the same time that he delivers the returns of the election, and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls. He shall provide for the safe storage of the voting booths in some place and notify the county clerk.

Art. 8.32. Ballots and Copy of Returns Delivered to County Clerk

Immediately after the counting of the ballots is completed, the presiding judge shall place all the ballots voted, together with one copy of the returns, poll list, and tally list, into a wooden or metallic box or any approved ballot box, and shall securely fasten the box with nails, screws, or locks, and he shall immediately, and in no case later than 24 hours after the closing of the polls, deliver the box to the county clerk of his county. He shall deliver the key or keys to the sheriff, who shall keep the same for 30 days. It shall be the duty of the county clerk to keep the box securely, and it shall be unlawful for the county clerk or anyone else to burn or otherwise destroy these ballots and records, or permit it to be done, except where provided for by the law; and anyone violating this provision of this section upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed $1,000. Also, the presiding judge shall deliver a copy of the returns, together with a copy of the poll list and tally list, to the county clerk at the same time that he delivers that ballot box, and the clerk shall immediately announce the returns of the election in the precinct reporting, and shall post the returns on a bulletin board within his office. In event of any contest or criminal investigation growing out of the election within 60 days after the day of the election, the county clerk shall deliver the ballot box to any competent officer having process therefor, for any tribunal or authority authorized by law to demand such box. If no contest or criminal investigation arose out of the election within 60 days after the day of such election, the clerk shall destroy the contents of the ballot box by burning or shredding same; provided, that the district judge, upon his own motion or upon the request of the county or district attorney, may, by an order entered on the minutes of the district court, defer the destruction of the contents of the ballot box for such period as he deems necessary, subject to further orders of the court.

Art. 8.33. Repealed by Act 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1077, ch. 424, § 121(a), eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 8.34. Commissioners to Open Returns

On the Monday next following the day of election or sooner, the Commissioners Court shall open the election returns and canvass the result, recording the state of the polls in each precinct in a book to be kept for that purpose; provided, that, in the event of a failure from any cause of the Commissioners Court to convene on the Monday following the election to compute the votes, then said court shall be convened for that purpose upon the earliest day practicable thereafter.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 116.]

Art. 8.35. Returns Not Canvassed

No election returns shall be opened or canvassed unless the same have been returned in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 117.]

Art. 8.36. Certificates of Election

After the canvass of the result of the election has been made, the county judge shall deliver to the candidate or candidates for whom the greatest number of votes have been polled for county and precinct officers a certificate of election, naming therein the office to which such candidate has been elected, the number of votes polled for him, and the day on which such election was held, and shall sign the same and cause the seal of the county court to be impressed thereon.

Art. 8.37. Returns for State and District Officers

In all elections for state or district officers, including presidential electors, or for voting on proposed amendments to the constitution, the county clerk shall, within 48 hours after the commissioners court has opened the returns and canvassed the result, as provided in Section 116,<sup>1</sup> certify and transmit returns of the election to the seat of government of the state, sealed in an envelope directed to the secretary of state and endorsed "Election Returns for _____ County, for _____" (filling the first blank with the name of the county and the other blank with the designation of the election). The secretary of state shall prescribe the necessary forms and instructions for the use and guidance of the county clerk in forwarding the returns under this section and Section 122.<sup>2</sup>

Art. 8.38. Such Returns Counted

On the seventeenth day after the election, the day of election excluded, and not before, the Secretary of State in the presence of the Governor and one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, or in case of vacancy or of inability or failure of either to act, then in the presence of either one (1) of them, shall open and count the returns of the elections.

Art. 8.39. Governor to Give Certificate

When the returns have been counted, the Governor shall immediately make out, sign and deliver a certificate of election, with the seal of the State thereto affixed, to the person or persons who shall have received the highest number of votes for each or any of said offices.

Art. 8.40. Returns for Governor and Lieutenant Governor

Each county clerk shall promptly certify and transmit returns of the election for governor and lieutenant governor to the seat of government of the state, sealed in an envelope directed to the speaker of the House of Representatives in care of the secretary of state and endorsed as provided in Section 119.<sup>1</sup> The secretary of state shall keep the returns, with the seal of the envelope to remain unbroken, until the organization of the next Legislature, when he shall, on the first day thereof, deliver them to the speaker of the House of Representatives.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 122; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 28, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

Saved From Repeal

Article 8.30, requiring election judges to deliver written returns to the county judges immediately after all votes have been counted and tabulated, provides in the last sentence that it should in no wise be construed as repealing this article.

Art. 8.41. Repealed by Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1158, ch. 514, § 2, eff. Aug. 28, 1967

See, now, art. 8.37.

Art. 8.42. Returns for Members of the Legislature in Special Elections

Whenever a special election is held in any representative or senatorial district in this State for the election of any Member of the Legislature, the returns shall be canvassed and the results declared in accordance with Article 32c of this Code.<sup>1</sup>

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 124; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 74; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 777, ch. 368, § 2.]

Art. 8.43. County Clerk to Certify to Secretary of State

On or immediately after January 1, next following a general election, each county clerk shall make out and certify to the Secretary of State a tabular statement showing who were elected, and to what office and the date of qualification, and giving the number of the precinct officers; together with the statutory fees, for issuance of each commission.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 125; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1902, ch. 723, § 36, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 8.43a. Precinct Returns Forwarded to Secretary of State

Subd. 1. Within 70 days after each general election, and within 30 days after each special election at which a statewide office is voted on, the county clerk shall forward to the Secretary of State a report of the number of votes cast for each candidate for a statewide office in each precinct of the county. In a presidential election year the report shall include the votes cast for each party's candidates for president and vice-president. The report may be in the form of either transcribed or photographic copies of the precinct returns for the statewide offices as made by the presiding judges of the election, or in the form of a tabulated statement compiled from the official canvass by the Commissioners Court, or in such other form as the Secretary of State approves for reporting the information to him.

Subd. 2. The Secretary of State shall preserve all information received under the provisions of Subdivision 1 of this section as public records of his office, either in the form in which the information is reported to him or in the form of a tabulated statement prepared by him from the reports received from the county clerk, for a period of 10 years, after which time he may transfer the records to the records management division of the State Library for further retention for a period of 20 years. At the expiration of 30 years from the date of the election, the State Librarian may dispose of the records in accordance with the procedure outlined in Chapter 494, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959.

Where the Secretary of State prepares a tabulated statement from reports furnished to him by the county clerk, he shall preserve the reports for a period of two years, after which time he may transfer them to the records management division of the State Library, and the State Librarian may dispose of them in accordance with the procedure outlined in Chapter 494, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959.

Art. 8.44. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a), eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 8.45. Commission to Officers

The Governor shall commission all officers except Governor, members of Congress, electors for President and Vice-President, of the United States, members of the Legislature and municipal officers.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 127.]

Art. 8.46. Death of Governor-elect or Death or Incapacity of Governor-elect and Lieutenant Governor-elect

Pursuant to the provisions as set forth in House Joint Resolution No. 7 [Const. art. IV, § 3a] which was approved and passed by the people of the State of Texas on November 2, 1948, and thereby becoming a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas, the successor to the office of Governor shall be as follows:

If, at the time the Legislature shall canvass the election returns for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the person receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Governor, as declared by the Speaker, has died, then the person having the highest number of votes for the office of Lieutenant Governor shall act as Governor until after the next general election.

It is further provided that in the event that both the Governor-elect and the Lieutenant Governor-elect die or have become permanently incapacitated to take their oaths of office at the time when the Legislature shall canvass the election returns for the offices of Governor and Lieutenant Governor, and the Legislature finds that neither the Governor-elect nor the Lieutenant Governor-elect are able to take the oath of office and fulfill the duties thereof, then the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tem of the Senate will call a joint session of the House of Representatives and Senate for the purpose of electing a Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

The person receiving the highest number of votes cast by the Members of the Legislature for the office of Governor shall become the Governor and hold that office for the constitutional term of two (2) years. The person receiving the highest number of votes for the office of Lieutenant Governor cast by the Members of the Legislature, shall become Lieutenant Governor and hold that office for the constitutional term of two (2) years.

Art. 9.01. District Court, Jurisdiction and Venue

The district court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all contests of elections, general or special, for all school, municipal, precinct, county, district, state offices, or federal offices, except elections for the offices of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Treasurer, Commissioner of the General Land Office, Attorney General, and Members of the Legislature.

The venue of suits or contests between candidates for any office to be filled by the choice of voters of the entire state shall be in Travis County. The venue of suits or contests between candidates for any justice of any Court of Civil Appeals shall be in the county where said Court of Civil Appeals has its sittings.

The venue in all other election contests between candidates shall be in the county where the candidate receiving the certificate of election resides. If there is but one district court in the county in which venue is placed by this law and the judge of said court is disqualified to hear any contest, said judge shall be replaced for purposes of said contest in the manner provided by law for civil suits.

Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the district court in the county where any such contest may be filed from changing the venue to some adjacent county, upon showing of adequate cause.

Art. 9.02. Contest or Prosecution by Attorney General

(1) In any special, general, or primary election in this State for any office, national, state, district, county, precinct, school, or municipal, or any election on any proposition, the Attorney General of Texas, in the case of elections involving two (2) or more counties, and the district and county attorneys, in the case of elections involving less than two (2) counties, may on their own motion, and shall when allegations of election frauds are presented to them by written affidavit of two (2) or more reputable citizens, investigate the conduct of such election and the making, canvassing, and reporting of returns. To make effective the power of such officers to investigate, the Attorney General, in elections involving two (2) or more counties, and the district and county attorneys in all other elections, are hereby authorized to impound all of the election records in the hands of any county clerk, district clerk, or any other election official by applying for and obtaining an order of a district court placing such records in the custody of the court to be examined by such officers in the presence of the district judge or a grand jury. All of such records, except the stub box, shall be subject to inspection and examination by the attorneys for the State in the cases hereby placed within their respective jurisdictions. The stub box containing identification of the individual voters shall not be opened or inspected by anyone except as otherwise provided in this Act with reference to election contests and in a grand jury room when alleged violations involve the contents of said box.

The application for impoundment and inspection of records shall be filed with the district court of a county in which the election was held, or an adjoining county, or Travis County in the case of statewide elections, and the judge of said court shall immediately issue an order impounding such records in a vault or other secure place under such terms and conditions as will keep the records under his custody and control during the entire examination and inspection proceeding and for such additional time as he may direct. The ex parte proceeding herein provided for inspection in the presence of the judge shall be conducted in the usual manner as a court of inquiry, and the court shall issue such processes for witnesses and records relevant to the conduct of such election as may be requested by the appropriate attorney for the State, and disregard of subpoenas or other processes or refusal to testify at such hearing shall be punished by the court as in civil cases.

(2) The summary court proceeding and venue set out in subsection (1) above may be followed in the investigation and development of evidence relating to all other alleged violations of the Texas election laws. The Attorney General of Texas is hereby authorized to appear before a grand jury and prosecute any violation of the election laws of this State by any candidate, election official, or any other person, in state-wide elections, or elections involving two (2) or more counties. He may institute and maintain such prosecution alone or in conjunction with the county or district attorney of the county where such prosecution is instituted. He may call upon and direct county and district attorneys to handle the investigations and prosecutions provided for above or to assist him in such procedures. This Section is intended to be cumulative and in addition to all other prosecutions authorized by other Sections hereof and other statutes. Concurrent venue for indictments and prosecutions under this Section shall be in the county where the election law violation occurred, or an adjoining county, or in Travis County if the violation involves or relates to a state-wide election for any State or national office or any proposition submitted to the people.

(3) Any subpoena or subpoena duces tecum issued by the clerk of any district court for any hearing, election contest, or election law violation shall be effective if served anywhere within this State, provided, however, no witness shall be punished for failure to comply with such subpoena or subpoena duces tecum unless the fees provided by law are tendered him as required by statute or court rule. When called upon by the Attorney General, the Department of Public Safety and Texas Rangers shall serve any subpoenas and assist in any investigations which may be necessary.

(4) The expense of any investigation on the part of the Attorney General of an election law violation shall be paid by the State of Texas. There is hereby appropriated for the biennium of 1951-52 the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) out of funds not otherwise appropriated from which such expenses may be paid.

Art. 9.03. Notice of Contest

Any person intending to contest the election of any one holding a certificate of election for any office mentioned in this law, shall, within thirty (30) days after the return day of election, give him a notice thereof in writing and deliver to him, his agent or attorney, a written statement of the ground on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest. By the "return day" is meant the day on which the votes cast in said election are counted and the official result thereof declared.

Art. 9.04. Reply to Notice of Contest

The person holding such certificate shall, within ten (10) days after receiving such notice and statement, deliver, or cause to be delivered, to said contestant, his agent or attorney, a reply thereto in writing.

Art. 9.05. Service of Notice

The notice, statement and reply required by the two preceding articles may and shall be served by any person competent to testify, and shall be served by delivering the same to the party for whom they are intended in person, if he can be found in the county, if not found, then upon the agent or attorney of such person, or by leaving the same with some person over the age of sixteen (16) years at the usual place of abode or business of such person.

Art. 9.06. Where to File Papers

If the contest be for the validity of an election for any State office, except the offices provided for in Section 155 [art. 9.27], or for any district office, except Members of the Legislature, or for any county office, a copy of the notice and statement of the contestant and of the reply thereto of the contestee served on the parties shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the case.

Art. 9.07. Cause to Have Precedence

When the notice, statement and reply have been filed with the clerk of the court, he shall docket the same as in other causes, and the said contest shall have precedence over all other causes. If the office contested for be that of district clerk, then a clerk pro tem shall be appointed as is provided by law in suits where the clerk is a party to the suit.

Art. 9.08. Evidence and Procedure

In trials of all contests of election, the evidence shall be confined to the issues made by the statement and reply thereto, which statement and reply may be amended as in civil cases. As to the admission and exclusion of evidence, the trial shall be conducted under the rules governing proceedings in civil causes.

Art. 9.09. To Execute Bond

Whenever the validity of any election for an officer other than for Members of the Legislature is contested, the contestee shall, within twenty (20) days after the service of said notice and statement of such contest upon him, file with the clerk of the court in which such contest is pending a bond with two (2) or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to the contestant, to be approved by said clerk, in an amount to be fixed by said clerk, and not less than double the probable amount of salary or fees or both, as the case may be, to be realized from the office being contested for a period of two (2) years; conditioned that, in the event the decision of the contest shall be against such contestee and in favor of the contestant, such contestee will pay over to such contestant whatever sum may be adjudged against him by a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such bond.

Art. 9.10. Failure to File Bond

If the contestee fails to file the bond as required in the preceding Section [art. 9.09], and within the time therein prescribed, said clerk shall notify the contestant immediately of such failure; and such contestant shall have the right within ten (10) days after such notice, to file a like bond payable to the contestee, conditioned that, in the event the decision of the contest is against him and in favor of the contestee, he will pay over to such contestee whatever sum may be adjudged against him, the said contestant, by a court having jurisdiction of the subject matter of such bond.

Art. 9.11. Execution of Bond by Contestant Certified

Immediately upon the filing of said bond by the contestant, the clerk shall certify in writing, and under his official seal, to the Governor, that the contestee failed to give the required bond, and that the contestant has given such bond in accordance with law.

Art. 9.12. To Commission Contestant

Upon receiving such certificate from the clerk, the Governor shall issue a commission to the said contestant for the office in controversy pending such contest; and thereupon the contestant, upon qualifying in said office as required by law, shall exercise all the rights and powers and perform all the duties of said office for the full term thereof unless it shall otherwise be determined and ordered by the court upon the trial of such contest.

Art. 9.13. Failure of Contestant to Execute Bond

The Governor shall issue the commission to the contestee at the time provided by law as in other cases, unless he has been notified of the failure of such contestee to file the bond required by Section 137 [art. 9.09], in which event the Governor shall withhold the issuance of such commission until after the time allowed the contestant to file such bond has elapsed; but, if the said contestant shall also fail to file bond as provided in Section 138 [art. 9.10], and within the time therein required, the clerk shall certify all the facts in the case, under his official seal to the Governor, who shall thereupon issue the commission to the contestee.

Art. 9.14. Fraudulent Vote Not Counted

If any vote or votes are found upon the trial of any contested election to be illegal or fraudulent, the trial court shall subtract such vote or votes from the poll of the candidate who received the same, and after a full and fair investigation of the evidence shall decide to which of the contesting parties the office belongs.

Art. 9.15. Election Declared Void

If it appears on the trial of any contest provided for in Section 134 [art. 9.06] that it is impossible to ascertain the true result of the election as to the office about which the contest is made, either from the returns of the election or from any evidence within reach or from the returns considered in connection with other evidence, or should it appear from the evidence that such a number of legal voters were, by the officers or managers of the election, denied the privilege of voting as, had they been allowed to vote, would have materially changed the result, the court shall adjudge such election void, and direct the proper officers to order another election to fill said office; which election shall be ordered and held and returns thereof made in all respects as required by the general election laws of the State.

Art. 9.16. Bonds Subject to Suit

The bonds required to be filed by the contestant and contestee under the provisions of this chapter [arts. 9.01-9.38] shall remain on file in the office of the clerk where filed, and may be sued upon as other bonds.

Art. 9.17. Appeal Available

Either the contestant or contestee may appeal from the judgment of the district court to the Court of Civil Appeals, under the same rules and regulations as are provided for appeals in civil cases; and such cases shall have precedence in the Court of Civil Appeals over all other cases. In cases of appeal as provided for in this Section [this article], the clerk shall, without delay, make up the transcript and forward the same to the clerk of the Court of Civil Appeals for that district.

Art. 9.18. Taxing Costs

The costs in all contested election cases shall be taxed according to the laws governing costs in civil cases, except when otherwise specially provided, and bond for cost may be required as in civil suits.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 146.]

Art. 9.19. Measure of Damages

Where the contest shall have been decided against one of the parties and the other party shall have filed a bond and performed the duties of the office under the provisions of this chapter [arts. 9.01–9.38], the bond so filed shall inure to the benefit of the successful party in any suit thereon in a court having jurisdiction of the amount in controversy; and the measure of damages recoverable, besides cost of suit, shall be the salary, fees, and emoluments of office of which he has been deprived, less such reasonable expenses as the party holding the office shall have incurred in executing the duties of the office; provided that he shall have acted in good faith in receiving the certificate of election or commission for the office.

Art. 9.20. For Legislature

Initiation of Election Contest

Sec. 1. A candidate for State Senator or Representative may initiate election contest proceedings at any time after the returns have been deposited in the office of the county clerk of every county comprising the district as provided in Articles 119, 123, and 124 of this code, but not later than 30 days after the date of the election.

Notice and Statement

Sec. 2. The contestant initiates election contest proceedings by giving notice in writing to the candidate who is shown by the returns to have the greatest number of votes when the returns of all counties are totaled, and by delivering to him, his agent or attorney, a written statement of the grounds on which the election is contested. Within the same period of time, the contestant shall mail a certified copy of the notice and statement to the President of the Senate or to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, in care of the Secretary of State.

Reply

Sec. 3. The candidate who receives the notice and statement shall cause a reply in writing to be delivered to the contestant, his agent or attorney, within 10 days after receiving the notice and statement; and within the same period of time he shall mail a certified copy of the reply to the President of the Senate or to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, in care of the Secretary of State.

Service; Use of Certified Mail

Sec. 4. (a) The notice, statement, and reply may be served as provided in Article 133 of this code, or by certified mail with return receipt requested.

(b) When certified mail is used for service or to transmit a copy of the notice, statement, or reply to the Secretary of State, the fact and date of sending and the fact and date of receipt may be proven with window receipts and return receipts for certified mail.

Duty of Secretary of State

Sec. 5. (a) If the contest involves the result of a general election, the Secretary of State shall submit the papers of the case to the President of the Senate or to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, on the second Tuesday in January following the election. The papers of the case consist of the copies of the notice, statement, reply, and the Secretary of State's certified statement of the total votes cast for each candidate for the office as shown by the official canvass of the returns.

(b) If the contest involves the result of a special election, and the Legislature is not in session when he receives the notice, statement, and reply, the Secretary of State shall submit the papers on the opening day of the first legislative session to be convened after the date of the election; and if the Legislature is in session when he receives the notice, statement, or reply, he shall submit the papers within three days after the day he receives the copy of the reply.

Art. 9.21. Depositions Taken

At any time after filing said papers with said returning officer, either party to said contest may proceed, at his own expense, to take such written testimony as he may deem proper, having first served the opposite party, his agent or attorney, with a copy of the interrogatories he intends to propound to each witness, and the name of the officer before whom the same will be answered as well as the time and place of taking such testimony. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 149.]

Art. 9.22. Who May Take such Depositions

Any officer authorized by the law of this State to administer oaths, upon being satisfied as to any costs, including his own fees, that may accrue in the taking of such testimony, shall proceed upon the application of the party desiring it, to summon the witness or witnesses named in the interrogatories and take his or their answers in writing and under oath to such interrogatories and cross interrogatories as may be propounded in writing. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 150.]

Art. 9.23. How Depositions May be Returned

The answers of each witness shall be reduced to writing and signed by such witness, and sworn to by such witness before the officer taking the same, and shall be certified to by such officer and sealed in an envelope; and the name of said officer shall be written by him across the seals; and he shall forward the same without delay by mail or other safe conveyance to the President of the Senate or Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, to the care of the Secretary of State, at the seat of government.

Art. 9.24. Referred to Committee

The notice and statement of contest and the other papers pertaining thereto shall immediately after the organization of the Legislature be opened by the President of the Senate or by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, as the case may be; and the same shall be referred to the committee on privileges and elections of the House in which the contest is pending, which committee shall proceed without delay to fix a time for the hearing of said case, and, after due notice to the parties thereto shall investigate the issues between said parties, hearing all the legal evidence that may be presented to said committee, and shall as soon thereafter as practicable report their conclusions of law and fact in respect to said case to the House by which said committee was appointed, accompanied by all the papers in the cause, and the evidence taken therein, with such recommendations as may to them seem proper. Any one or more of the committee dissenting from the views of the majority may present a minority report.

Art. 9.25. Hearing by Committee

The rules of evidence and the laws in force respecting the admissibility of evidence, the taking of depositions and the issuance and service of process in the district courts of this State shall be observed by said committee, so far as the same may be applicable. Said committee shall have the power to send for persons and papers, and the chairman of said committees shall have the power to issue all process necessary to secure the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, ballot boxes and other documents before said committee and such process shall be executed by the sergeant-at-arms of the House in which the contest is pending, or by such other person as the presiding officer of said House may designate.

Art. 9.26. Procedure by House

The House in which the contest is pending shall, as soon as practicable after the report of the committee has been received, fix a day for the trial of the contest, and shall proceed to determine whether the contestant or contestee, or either of them, is entitled to the contestant's seat; provided, the said House may hold the election void after full consideration of all the evidence and for the reasons prescribed in Section 143 [art. 9.15] and in such case the Governor shall at once be notified of the vacancy. Such fees shall be paid to the witnesses and the officers serving the process as shall be prescribed by the rules of the House in which said contest is pending, and no mileage or per diem shall be paid to either of the parties to said contest until said case is determined, and in no case shall any mileage or per diem be paid to any party against whom any contest is decided.

Art. 9.27. Contest for State Office

If the contest be for the validity of any election for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Comptroller, State Treasurer, Land Commissioner or Attorney General, the same shall be tried and determined by both Houses of the Legislature in joint session, and the provisions of this chapter [arts. 9.01-9.38] governing in case of a contest for the validity of an election for members of the Legislature shall apply to and govern in a contest for the office above named, as far as applicable.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 155.]

Art. 9.28. United States Senator

If the nomination of any candidates for United States Senator be contested, the same shall be conducted under the provisions of the law regulating contests for Governor.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 156.]

Art. 9.29. For Presidential Electors

Any person intending to contest the election of any or all of the persons duly declared elected as electors of president and vice-president, shall within ten (10) days from the said fourth Monday in November, file with the Secretary of State a written statement of the ground on which such contestant relies to sustain such contest, and shall within such time, notify the contestee thereof in writing, and deliver to him, his agent or attorney, a copy of said statement. The contestee shall, within eight (8) days after receiving such notice, file with the Secretary of State his reply thereto in writing. The contest shall, as soon thereafter as possible, be tried and determined by the State Board of Canvassers, consisting of the Governor, one (1) citizen of the state, appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate, who shall serve for a term of two (2) years, and Secretary of State, or any two (2) of them; and their decision shall be rendered at least two (2) days before the time fixed by law for the meetings of the electors. Such decision, in which two (2) at least of such Board shall join, shall be final, and certificates of election, in accordance therewith shall at once be issued by the Secretary of State to the proper parties. Where not otherwise herein provided, the provisions of law relating to contests for the validity of an election for members of the Legislature shall apply to such contests for presidential electors.

Art. 9.30. Other Contested Elections

If the contest be for the validity of an election held for any other purpose than the election of an officer or officers in any county or part of a county or precinct of a county, or in any incorporated city, town, or village, any resident of such county, precinct, city, town, or village, or any number of such residents, may contest such election in the district court of such county in the same manner and under the same rules, as far as applicable, as are prescribed in this chapter [arts. 9.01-9.38] for contesting the validity of an election for a county office. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 158.]

Art. 9.31. Parties Defendant

In any case provided for in the preceding Section [art. 9.30], the county attorney of the county, or if there is no county attorney, the district attorney of the district, or the mayor of the city, town or village, or the officer who declared the official result of said election, or one of them, as the case may be, shall be made the contestee, and shall be served with notice and statement, and shall file his reply thereto as in the case of a contest for office; but in no case shall the costs of such contest be adjudged against such contestee, or against the county, city, town, or village which they may represent, nor shall such contestee be required to give bond upon an appeal. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 159.]

Art. 9.32. Constitutional Amendment

Within sixty (60) days from the date of any election upon any proposed amendment to the Constitution, and not thereafter, any citizen of this State who is a qualified voter, shall have the right to contest said election by filing his petition in a district court of Travis County, fully stating his grounds for contest, naming the Secretary of State as contestee; and thereupon the district judge, in whose court the contest is filed, shall make an order for the issuance, and the clerk of said court or the judge thereof, shall issue a writ of injunction enjoining the Secretary of State from tabulating, estimating or canvassing the returns of said election and from ascertaining or declaring the result of said election until said contest is finally determined. Citation shall be issued and served upon the Secretary of State as in other Civil cases. At the time of filing such petition, contestant shall cause to be published in a daily newspaper printed in Texas, for at least ten (10) days before appearance day, a brief notice to all parties interested that such suit has been filed. The Secretary of State shall within twenty (20) days from service of citation file a formal answer but shall not be liable for any costs. Any qualified citizen or citizens adversely interested in such contest may appear by counsel of their own choosing upon either side of the contest, but opponents of the contest shall have the right to direct and control the pleadings of the Secretary of State and the conduct of the contest upon the part of the contestees; and contestants shall jointly and not severally plead in the cases. The said court shall cause the party contesting the result of said election and the parties adversely interested to form issues and shall as near as may be conform the hearing and determination of such contest to the proceedings usual in courts in contested election cases. The court shall permit contestants to amend their petition, include therein allegations charging fraud, irregularities or mistakes, upon such terms as to the court may seem just, and likewise the contestees shall have the right both to contest the charges made by the contestant and to make counter charges, but the court shall bring the parties to issue with all possible dispatch.

Said contestant shall be required to give a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the clerk of the court wherein said contest is filed, conditioned that the said contestant will pay, in the event he is defeated in said contest, all the costs that may be incurred in the trial of said contest. He shall not be permitted to file any such contest and give in lieu of the bond herein provided for any affidavit of inability to pay the costs as provided for by law. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 160.]

Art. 9.33. Power of Court

The said court shall have the power to appoint commissioners to sit at such places as the court may designate for the purpose of hearing testimony, reducing same to writing and reporting same to said court, said court shall also have the power to issue all orders that may be necessary or proper to compel the production before said court or any commissioner appointed by said court of all ballot boxes and instrumentalities used in connection with said election that may be necessary or proper to determine the issues raised by such contest, and to send by proper process to any county in the State, for the officers of the election or the custodians of ballot boxes for the purpose of aiding in, ascertaining and determining any matter or thing necessary or proper in connection with the trial of said contest. The said court may proceed to the trial of said issue raised by said contest after having given the contestants and the contestees full and fair opportunity to produce before said court the evidence upon such issues. The court may adjourn the said hearing from time to time and may, before the final determination of said cause, make such orders and decrees as to the court may seem just and proper, requiring any election officers to make such certificate of the result of such election as in the judgment of the court such officers should have made in making the returns of such election. Upon the trial of said cause, the court shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all matters and things necessary or proper to the determination of the question whether a majority of the legal votes cast in said election, either in favor of or against said proposed amendment, including the manner of holding the election, any frauds or irregularities in the conduct thereof, or in the making of the returns thereof illegal votes cast at said election or legal votes prevented from being cast, false calculations, certificates or returns, and to exercise all powers of the court, in order to fully inquire into and ascertain the true and correct result of such election, free from any fraud, irregularity or mistake. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 161.]

Art. 9.34. To Compel Returns

The said court shall have full authority when the result of such election in any voting precinct box shall have been ascertained and determined, to order and compel the proper officers thereof to make true and correct returns of such election in such voting box as finally determined by said court, to the proper officers of such county and when the result in any county shall have been ascertained and determined by said court, to order and compel the proper returning officers of such county to make true and correct returns of the result of said election in said county as to said amendment as ascertained by said court to the Secretary of State, and to order the Secretary of State to make his returns, tabulations, canvassings, countings and certificates in accordance with the result of such election as finally ascertained and determined by the court.

Art. 9.35. Decree

The said contest shall have precedence in said court over all causes pending therein. Either party may appeal as in other civil cases and the same shall have precedence over all other causes pending in the appellate courts to which the appeal or writ of error is taken, except such cases as may be entitled to precedence over said cause by virtue of some provision of the Constitution of this State. Upon final judgment in said appellate court, it shall enter a decree ordering and directing the Secretary of State to declare the true result of said election as judicially determined and ascertained by said court, and the Secretary of State shall make his tabulations, canvassings and certificates of the results of such election in accordance with the final judgment of said court, and said amendment shall be adopted or rejected in accordance with the final result of said election as finally determined by the judgment of said court.

Art. 9.36. Result Final

The result of said contest shall finally settle all questions relating to the validity of said election, and it shall not be permissible to again call the legality of said election in question in any other suit or proceeding. If no contest of said election is filed and prosecuted in the manner and within the time herein provided for, it shall be conclusively presumed that said election as held and the result thereof as declared are in all respects valid and binding upon all courts, provided, that pending such contest the enforcement of all laws in relation to the subject matter of such contest shall not be suspended, but shall remain in full force and effect.

Art. 9.37. To Examine the Ballots

At any time when the grand jury is making an investigation of any criminal violation of the election laws, and finds probable cause, a request may be made to a district judge of that county for an order directed to the County Clerk to permit the grand jury to examine the ballot box and ballots therein in so far as may be necessary to determine the issue at stake. Such order may be issued by the district judge in his sound discretion. In that case, the grand jury shall make such examination in secret before a quorum of the grand jury and only then; when such examination is complete the boxes shall be relocked and returned to the custody of the County Clerk.

Art. 9.38. Best Evidence

In case the ballots or ballot have been illegally destroyed before the time allowed by the law for their destruction, a person in a court of law may testify as to how he voted in any primary or election in this State.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 166.]

Art. 9.38a. Recount of Paper Ballots

Grounds for Recount

Subd. 1. (a) A candidate for nomination or election to any public office or to the party office of county chairman or precinct committeeman may obtain a recount of the votes cast for the office on manually counted paper ballots, in the manner outlined in this section:

(1) if the difference in the number of votes received by him and the next highest candidate above him is less than five percent of the number of votes received by such next highest candidate, as shown by the returns of the election officers, and the candidate seeking the recount would gain the election or nomination or a place on a runoff election ballot if the recount showed him to have received a greater number of votes than that opponent, or

(2) if one or more judges of the election make an uncontradicted affidavit stating that certain ballots cast for the office were counted or were not counted, as the case may be, and the Secretary of State certifies that, on the basis of the statements in the affidavit, the election officers were in error in either counting or failing to count the ballots, as the case may be, and further certifies that from the affidavit or affidavits submitted to him and on the basis of the unofficial returns it appears likely that the number of miscounted ballots were of sufficient number to change the result of the election in that race as it affects the candidate seeking the recount.

(b) If the ground of the application for a recount is that the difference in votes is less than five percent, the request must be for a recount of all the ballots cast for the office in each and every election precinct, including the absentee ballots cast for the office; and the canvassing board shall order a complete recount.

(c) If the ground of the application is that election officers erroneously counted or failed to count certain ballots, the candidate at his option may request a recount of all the ballots cast in the election or only the ballots cast in the election precincts in which the miscounting is alleged to have occurred; and if only a partial recount is requested, the canvassing board shall order a recount only of all the ballots cast in those precincts in which the Secretary of State certifies that ballots were erroneously counted or not counted.

Procedure for Requesting Recount; General Provisions

Subd. 2. (a) A candidate desiring a recount must file a written, signed application with the presiding officer of the body which canvasses the returns of the election and makes the official declaration of the result (hereinafter called "canvassing board"). The application may be presented for filing at any time after the returns from all election precincts involved have been received from the presiding judges of the election, and it must be presented not later than the second day after the official declaration of the result; provided, however, that if the application is for a partial recount in any election wherein the unofficial returns show that a runoff election for the office involved will be necessary or wherein a runoff would be necessary if the recount changed the result of the election, the application must be filed not later than the fifth day after the day of the election. If the chairman of a state executive committee receives an application under the first ground stated in Subdivision 1 of this section, or receives the certification for a recount from the Secretary of State upon an application filed under the second ground, more than three days before the next scheduled meeting of the state committee, he may direct the county executive committee in each county involved to conduct the recount and to report the result to the state committee; and if the application is for a recount in a first primary election, which recount might affect a runoff election in the second primary, in the stated circumstances the state chairman shall direct the county committee in each county involved to proceed immediately with the recount.

(b) In addition to other requirements stated in this section, each application must show the name and address of each opposing candidate, and the name and address of the presiding judge of each election precinct for which a recount is requested. On the same day that a candidate delivers or mails his application to the presiding officer of the canvassing board, he must deliver in person or mail by certified or registered mail, with return receipt requested, a copy of the application and any supporting papers to each opposing candidate at the election.

Procedure Where Ground for Recount is Alleged Error in Counting or Failing to Count Ballots

Subd. 3. A candidate requesting a recount under the second ground stated in Subdivision 1 of this section must attach to his application a supporting affidavit or affidavits showing that the conditions for requesting the recount are met. On the same day that he delivers or mails his application to the presiding officer of the canvassing board, he must deliver or mail a copy of the application, together with a copy of each supporting affidavit, executed as an original, to the Secretary of State with the request that the Secretary of State make the certification described in Subdivision 4 of this section. Any opposing candidate shall be entitled to file with the Secretary of State a controverting affidavit or affidavits in denial of statements made in the supporting papers filed by the candidate requesting the recount, within three days after the date on which the application was delivered in person or mailed to him.

Action by Secretary of State on Request for Certification

Subd. 4. Not sooner than three days nor later than five days after receipt of a request for certification under Subdivision 3 of this section, the Secretary of State shall consider the request and take action thereon. If from uncontroverted statements in the supporting papers it clearly appears, on the basis of the statutes and court decisions of this state, that the election officers were in error in counting or failing to count certain ballots and that the error likely affected the outcome of the race, he shall so certify. If the facts alleged fail to show a clear case of error or raise an unresolved legal question as to whether an error was committed with respect to certain ballots, the Secretary of State shall so find, and he shall not undertake to make a ruling on disputed facts or unresolved legal questions. Within the time stated above, the Secretary of State shall certify his findings and conclusions to the candidate making the request, with a copy to the presiding officer of the canvassing board and to each opposing candidate.

Deposit to Cover Costs of Recount

Subd. 5. A candidate requesting a recount shall deposit with the presiding officer of the canvassing board either cash, a cashier's check, a certified check, or a surety bond of an authorized corporate surety, in the amount of ten dollars for each election precinct in which a recount is to be made pursuant to his request, or in the amount of fifty dollars, whichever amount is the greater. If the application is filed under the first ground stated in Subdivision 1 of this section, the deposit must accompany the application; if the application is filed under the second ground, the deposit must be made within three days after the date on which the Secretary of State certifies that error which likely affected the outcome of the race was committed in one or more of the election precincts. For the purpose of this section, absentee ballots counted by a special board of election officers constitute ballots for a separate election precinct.

Right of Opposing Candidate to Obtain Full Recount

Subd. 6. If a candidate is granted a partial recount under Subdivisions 3 and 4 of this section, any opposing candidate may obtain a recount of all ballots in all precincts by filing a request for a full recount with the chairman of the canvassing board within three days after the date on which the Secretary of State makes his certification, and by accompanying the request with either cash, a cashier's check, a certified check, or a surety bond of an authorized corporation surety, in the amount of ten dollars for each additional election precinct for which a recount will be made as a result of his request. On the same day that he delivers or mails his request, the opposing candidate must deliver in person or mail by registered or certified mail, with return receipt requested, a copy of the request to the original applicant. Within two days thereafter, the original applicant must make a similar deposit covering the additional precincts to be recounted.

Procedure for Ordering Recount

Subd. 7. (a) Where a candidate has complied with all conditions for obtaining a recount, as soon as practicable the canvassing board conducting the recount shall set a date on which the recount is to begin and shall notify by mail each opposing candidate of the place or places where the recount will be conducted and the exact time when it will begin. The time for commencing the recount shall not be sooner than two days nor later than four days after the date of the notification. The recount shall be conducted in the office of the officer having custody of the voted ballots, who shall be entitled to be present or to have a representative designated by him present while the recount is in progress.

(b) The canvassing board shall appoint a committee of three disinterested registered voters of the political subdivision in which the ballots were cast, who shall make the recount. The board shall designate one member of the recount committee to serve as its chairman. Where ballots to be recounted are in the custody of different officers at more than one location, a committee shall be appointed for each location. No person who served as an election judge, clerk, or watcher in any precinct for which ballots are to be recounted shall be eligible for appointment to a recount committee. The committee shall permit any affected candidate or one person authorized in writing by such candidate to be present to watch the recount, to inspect the ballots, to observe the tallying of the votes, and to observe all other actions of the committee in connection with the recount.

Procedure for Making the Recount

Subd. 8. (a) The canvassing board shall issue an order to the officer having custody of the voted ballots, stating the names of the recount committee and the time at which the recount is to begin, and directing him to deliver to the chairman of the committee the ballot box or boxes containing the ballots to be recounted. A similar order for delivery of the keys to the ballot boxes shall be issued to the officer having custody of the keys. A copy of each order shall be delivered to the chairman of the committee, who shall present it, as proof of his identity, to the officer named in the order.

(b) The committee shall proceed to make the recount as directed, working for at least seven hours each day on every day that is not a Sunday or a legal holiday until the recount is completed. During the time that the recount is not actually in progress, the ballot boxes shall be relocked and returned to the custody of the officer who delivered them to the committee, and the keys shall be retained in the custody of the chairman of the committee.

(c) After the recount is completed, the committee shall make out its report and deliver it to the presiding officer of the canvassing board. The chairman of the committee shall deliver the locked ballot boxes with the original contents intact and the ballot box keys to the respective officers who originally had custody of the boxes and the keys.

Action by Canvassing Board Following Recount

Subd. 9. As soon as practicable, and not later than two days after receiving all the committee reports, the presiding officer of the canvassing board shall convene the board, which at such meeting shall declare the result of the election for the office involved on the basis of the revised returns. The board and its presiding officer shall take such further actions as may be necessary in the same manner as for an original canvass.

Costs of Recount

Subd. 10. (a) The members of the recount committee shall be paid an amount to be fixed by the canvassing board, but not to exceed the maximum hourly rate payable to election judges and clerks, which shall be charged as costs. Expenses incurred by the canvassing board or its chairman in giving the notices required by this section shall also be charged as costs.

(b) If the recount shows that the applicant received a greater number of votes than shown by the returns of the election judges, and if as a result of the recount the applicant is declared to have been nominated or elected to the office, or to have become entitled to be a candidate in a runoff election, or to have tied with another candidate between the two of whom the right of nomination, election, or a place on a runoff ballot is to be decided, the cost of the recount shall be paid by the authority charged with the duty of paying the expenses of the election for which the recount was made, and the amount deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him; provided, however, that if the original application was for a partial recount and the results of the election would have been changed in either of the foregoing manners on the basis of the partial recount only, the costs of the recount in additional precincts as the result of a request by an opposing candidate for a full recount shall be borne by the opposing candidate making the request. Otherwise, the cost of the recount shall be paid by the applicant, and any amount remaining from the deposit shall be returned to him. Any costs over the amount of the deposit shall be paid by the applicant if he is charged with the cost of the recount; and any costs of a recount in additional precincts over the amount of the deposit made by the opposing candidate requesting the full recount shall be paid by such candidate if he is charged with the costs in those precincts.

Application for a Full Recount Following a Partial Recount

Subd. 11. (a) Whenever there has been only a partial recount in which less than fifty percent of the total votes cast for the office, as shown by the original returns, were recounted, and as a result of the partial recount the number of votes received by any candidate is changed in such a manner that he would be entitled to request a recount under the first ground stated in Subdivision 1 of this section, but he had not been entitled to a recount on that ground on the basis of the original returns, he may obtain a recount in all additional precincts by following the procedure outlined in this subdivision.

(b) Whenever there has been a partial recount of more than fifty percent but less than seventy-five percent of the total votes cast, any candidate may obtain a recount in all additional precincts if he was not entitled to a recount on the first ground on the basis of the original returns, but as a result of the recount the difference in the number of votes received by him and the next highest candidate above him is less than two percent of the number of votes received by such next highest candidate, as shown by the revised returns, and he would gain the election or nomination or a place on a runoff election ballot if the full recount showed him to have received a greater number of votes than that opponent.

(c) An application under this subdivision for a recount in all additional precincts shall be made in the same manner and shall be treated in all other respects as an original application for a full recount, except that it covers only the additional precincts. The application may be made at any time after every recount committee involved in the partial recount has made its report, and must be filed not later than the second day after the canvassing board declares the result of the election on the basis of the revised returns following the partial recount. If as a result of the recount in the additional precincts the applicant therefor is declared to have been nominated or elected to the office, or to have become entitled to be a candidate in a runoff election, or to have tied with another candidate between the two of whom the right of nomination, election, or a place on a runoff ballot is to be decided, the cost of the recount in the additional precincts shall be paid by the authority charged with the duty of paying the expenses of the election, and the amount deposited by the applicant shall be returned to him. Otherwise, the cost of the recount in the additional pre-incts shall be paid by the applicant therefor, and any amount remaining from the deposit shall be returned to him. Any costs for the recount in the additional precincts over the amount of the deposit shall be paid by the applicant therefor if he is charged with the cost of the recount.

Effect of Recount on an Election Contest

Subd. 12. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the filing of an election contest in a district court or to prevent the ordering of a recount in an election contest or to compel the court hearing the election contest to accept a recount under this section as conclusive of the results of the election. [Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1903, ch. 723, § 37, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 2, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

CHAPTER TEN. CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Article

- 10.01. Constitutional Amendments.
- 10.02. Duties of Officers.
- 10.03. Convention to Ratify Proposed Amendments to Federal Constitution; Election of Delegates.

Art. 10.01. Constitutional Amendments

The election where Constitutional Amendments are to be voted on shall be held by the general election officials named by the Commissioners Court and if supervisors are desired they shall be named as provided for by the law.

Art. 10.02. Duties of Officers

In holding elections on Constitutional Amendments the judges and clerks shall have the same qualifications, perform the same duties, and receive the same compensation as in general elections. The supervisors shall perform the same duties, be paid in the same manner, take the same oath, and have the same obligations as for general elections.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 168.]

Art. 10.03. Convention to Ratify Proposed Amendments to Federal Constitution; Election of Delegates

Election of Delegates

Sec. 1. Whenever the Congress of the United States shall submit to the respective States a proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and shall propose that it be ratified by conventions in the several States, an election shall be held on the fourth (4th) Saturday in August of the year in which any such amendment is submitted by the Congress of the United States, at which election thirty-one (31) delegates and thirty-one (31) alternates each, such total number of delegates and such total number of alternates to be composed of one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate from each of the several thirty-one (31) Senatorial Districts of the State, shall be elected, provided that the same is submitted to this State within the time necessary to comply with the provisions hereof, otherwise at the succeeding General Election.

Nominating Conventions

Sec. 2. On the sixtieth (60th) day preceding the day of the election those persons, groups and organizations in favor of the ratification of the Amendment, and those persons, groups and organizations against the ratification of the Amendment shall hold separate Conventions in the City of Austin. Any qualified voter of this State shall be entitled to participate and vote in either of said Conventions, but not in both. Ten (10) days prior to the meeting of such Conventions it shall be the duty of the Governor of this State to designate a qualified voter of this State known by him personally to be in favor of the ratification of such Amendment, and it shall be the duty of the person so appointed to select and designate the place in the City of Austin at which the Convention of those persons, groups and organizations favoring the ratification of the Amendment shall convene and hold its meeting and the person so appointed shall preside as president pro tem until the permanent officers of the Convention are elected. The Governor shall likewise appoint a qualified voter of this State, known to him to oppose the ratification of the proposed Amendment, and the person so appointed shall select and designate the place in the City of Austin where the Convention of those persons, groups and organizations opposing the ratification of the proposed Amendment shall convene and hold their meeting, and the person so appointed shall preside and act as president pro tem until the permanent officers of the Convention of those persons opposing the ratification of the Amendment are elected.

Nomination and Qualifications of Delegates and Alternates

Sec. 3. After each such Convention has been organized and its permanent officers elected the same shall proceed to nominate thirty-one (31) delegates and thirty-one (31) alternates each, such total number of delegates and such total number of alternates to be composed of one (1) delegate and one (1) alternate from each of the several thirty-one (31) Senatorial Districts of the State. Candidates for the offices of delegates and alternates to the Convention to pass on the proposed Amendment shall be citizens and residents of this State and duly qualified voters in the Senatorial District from which they offer their candidacy for election, and their names shall be certified by the Chairman and Secretary of the respective Conventions to the Secretary of State within five (5) days after the day of holding the respective Convention. No person shall be eligible as a delegate or alternate of the Convention of those persons opposing the ratification of the Amendment unless he shall make affidavit before some officer authorized to administer oaths that he is opposed to the ratification of the Amendment, and will so cast his vote in Convention, and no person shall be eligible as a delegate or alternate of the Convention favoring the ratification of the proposed Amendment unless he shall make affidavit in writing before some officer authorized to administer oaths that he favors the ratification of the Amendment, and will so cast his vote in Convention, and each such delegate and alternate shall file his affidavit with the Chairman of the Convention of which he is the nominee, or with the Secretary of State, which affidavit shall be filed within fifteen (15) days after the date of the filing of the list of delegates and alternates with the Secretary of State by the respective Chairmen of the Conventions. No nominee of either Convention shall be either a State, District or County office holder. The Chairman of each Convention shall file the affidavit of the respective nominees of each Convention with the Secretary of State, together with the certified list of nominees for said Convention.

Journal of Nominating Conventions

Sec. 4. Each such Convention shall be required to keep a journal of its proceedings and set forth among the minutes thereof the respective names of each delegate and alternate nominated at such Convention, together with the number of votes received by each such nominee, together with all other proceedings that may be had in said Convention. It shall be the duty of the Chairman of each such Convention, upon the adjournment thereof, to deposit each such journal with the Secretary of State where the same shall remain as a permanent public record.

Certification of Nominees by Secretary of State

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State to certify to the County Clerk of each county in this State the names of the persons selected as the nominees of each Convention and to show in his certificate those delegates and alternates in favor of the ratification of the Amendment and those delegates and alternates against the ratification of such Amendment.

General Election Laws Applicable

Sec. 6. All laws pertaining to conducting and holding General Elections and the qualifications of voters shall apply to the holding of the election ordered by the Governor except in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Form of Ballot

Sec. 7. The election shall be by ballot, separate from any ballot to be used at the same election, and shall be prepared as follows: It shall first state the substance of the proposed Amendment. This shall be followed by appropriate instructions to the voter. It shall then contain perpendicular columns of equal width headed respectively, in plain type "FOR ratification of the above Amendment," and "AGAINST ratification of the above Amendment." In the column headed "FOR ratification of the above Amendment" shall be placed the names of the nominees or delegates and alternates nominated as in favor of the ratification; in the column headed "AGAINST ratification of the above Amendment" shall be placed the names of the nominees or delegates and alternates nominated as opposed to the ratification. The voter shall be entitled to vote for any number of candidates whose names appear on such ballot, not to exceed thirty-one (31) delegates and thirty-one (31) alternates. Such voter shall indicate his choice by drawing a line through or striking out all the names of such candidates other than the ones for whom he desires to cast his vote.

The ballot shall be substantially in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

The Congress has proposed an amendment to the Constitution of the United States which reads as follows:

(Here insert the proposed amendment)

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

FOR the ratification of the above amendment. (Insert names of delegates and then alternates in alphabetical order favoring the ratification of the amendment.)

AGAINST the ratification of the above amendment. (Insert names of delegates and then alternates in alphabetical order against the ratification of the amendment.)

Form of Ballot in Case of Proposed Repealing Amendment

Sec. 7a. Provided, however, that if such proposed amendment, is one which repeals another amendment to the Constitution of the United States then it shall not be necessary to state the substance of the proposed amendment; and in lieu of the words "FOR ratification of the above amendment," and "AGAINST ratification of the above amendment" at the top of the two perpendicular columns, there shall be inserted the words "FOR repeal of the _____ amendment," and the words "AGAINST repeal of the _____ amendment," respectively; the number of such amendment which it is proposed to repeal to be inserted in the blank space above, as e. g. "FOR repeal of the Eighteenth (18th) Amendment," and "AGAINST repeal of the Eighteenth (18th) Amendment." In such instances the ballot shall be substantially in the following form:

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE VOTER

FOR the repeal of the _____ amendment. (Inserting in the blank the number of the amendment proposed to be repealed.) (Insert names of delegates and then alternates in alphabetical order favoring the repeal of the amendment.)

AGAINST the repeal of the _____ amendment. (Inserting in blank the number of the amendment proposed to be repealed.) (Insert names of delegates and then alternates in alphabetical order against the repeal of the amendment.)

Voting and Marking Ballots

Sec. 7b. The voter shall be entitled to vote for not more than thirty-one (31) delegates (candidates) and thirty-one (31) alternates (candidates) and shall indicate his choice by drawing a line through or marking out all the names of such delegates (candidates) and alternates (candidates) other than the ones for whom he desires to cast his vote.

Making and Canvassing Returns

Sec. 8. Returns shall be made of the election in the same manner and by the same officers as is provided by law for the making of returns of elections for Railroad Commissioners. On the thirtieth (30th) day following the day of the election and not before, the Secretary of State, in the presence of the Governor and the Attorney General, or either of them, shall open and canvass the returns of the election.

Certificates of Election

Sec. 9. The thirty-one (31) delegates and the thirty-one (31) alternates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected and the Governor shall issue to each of those persons a certificate of election which shall be signed by the Governor and attested by the Secretary of State.

Time of Convening of Ratification Convention

Sec. 10. On the ninetieth (90th) day following the day of the election the thirty-one (31) delegates and thirty-one (31) alternates elected at the said election and commissioned by the Governor shall convene in the City of Austin at 10 o'clock A.M., and shall thereupon constitute a convention to pass upon the question of whether or not the proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be ratified.

Quorum: Alternates

Sec. 11. A majority of the delegates so elected shall constitute a quorum at such convention for the purpose of transacting business. A majority of the quorum present and voting may act for the convention. In the event any delegate to such conventions, after he has been duly elected, shall die, resign, become incapacitated or fail to attend such convention, then and in any such event the alternate of such delegate shall act in the stead of said delegate with the full and complete powers of said delegate.

Journal of Ratification Convention

Sec. 12. The convention shall keep a journal of its proceedings in which shall be recorded the vote of each delegate on the question of the ratification of the proposed Amendment, and upon final adjournment the journal reflecting the vote of the delegates, together with the minutes of the convention, shall be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Texas where it shall remain on file as a public record.

Certificate of Ratification

Sec. 13. If the convention shall agree to the ratification of the proposed Amendment, a certificate to that effect shall be executed by the President and Secretary of the Convention and transmitted to the Secretary of State of this State and to the Secretary of State of the United States. The Secretary of State shall in turn transmit such certificate under the great Seal of the Sovereign State of Texas to the Secretary of State of the United States.

Election Expenses; Duties of Public Officials

Sec. 14. The expenses necessary to conduct such election shall be paid for by the respective counties of this State in the same manner as is now provided by law with reference to any other general or special Statewide election and the duties of all public officials with reference to providing for such election shall be the same as is now prescribed by law with reference to other elections except as herein provided.

Appointment of County Chairman and Vice-Chairman

Sec. 15. The permanent chairman of each Convention provided for in Section 2 hereof is hereby empowered to appoint a chairman and vice-chairman for each county. The chairman in each county (or the vice-chairman in the event of failure or inability of the chairman) is hereby empowered to appoint one assistant election judge and one clerk for each voting precinct for the purpose of assisting in holding the election provided for by this Act. Should a chairman or vice-chairman fail to make such appointments, then the presiding judge of each precinct is hereby empowered to appoint such assistants, in the manner now provided by statute, the appointees, however, shall be selected to equally represent both sides of the question; otherwise the said election, manner of conducting the same and the returns thereof, shall be in all things held as is now provided by statute for the holding of general elections. None of the expenses arising or accruing because of the appointment of or the services rendered by the officials provided for in this Section shall be borne by the State or any county thereof; provided, however, any other usual, customary election expenses for officials to hold said election and for other election expenses shall be paid as is now provided by law for general elections.

Expenses of Delegates

Sec. 16. The delegates elected to such Convention shall defray their own expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Conflicting Statute or Resolution of Congress

Sec. 17. If Congress should, at any time, either by Resolution or by Statute, prescribe the method and manner in which the Convention shall be constituted, and shall not except from the provisions of such Statute or Resolution such States as may have theretofore provided for constituting such conventions, the provisions of this Act shall be inoperative in so far as the same shall operate as to conflict with such Resolution or Act of Congress.

- 11.02. Effect of Votes for Candidates of Political Parties.
- 11.03. Canvass of Votes and Returns.
- 11.04. Certification of Candidates.
- 11.05. Electors to Convene.
- 11.06. Pay of Electors.

Art. 11.01. Time of Election

On the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A.D. 1952, and on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, every four years thereafter, or at such other times as the Congress of the United States may direct, there shall be elected by the voters of the State as many electors for President and Vice-President of the United States as the State of Texas may at that time be entitled to elect, no one of whom shall be a person holding the office of Senator or Representative in Congress, or any office of trust or profit under the United States.

Art. 11.01a. Parties Entitled to Nominate Presidential Elector Candidates

Any political party entitled to have the names of its nominees printed on the ballot for the general election provided for in Section 9 of this code<sup>1</sup> may nominate candidates for presidential electors and have the names of its candidates for President and Vice President printed on the ballot.

[Acts 1965, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 75; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1907, ch. 723, § 38, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 11.02. Effect of Votes for Candidates of Political Parties

A vote for the candidates of any political party for both President and Vice-President of the United States shall be conclusively deemed to be a vote for candidates for the same party for presidential electors, and shall be so counted and recorded for such electors as the state shall be empowered to elect. No vote shall be counted unless the voter has cast his vote for both the candidate for President and the candidate for Vice-President of the same political party.

Art. 11.03. Canvass of Votes and Returns

The canvass of the votes for candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States and the returns thereof shall be a canvass and return of the votes cast for the electors of the same party, respectively, and the certificate of such election made by the Governor shall be in accord with such return.

Art. 11.04. Certification of Candidates

The names of the candidates for President and Vice-President and for presidential electors, respectively, of a political party as defined in the law shall be certified to the Secretary of State by the chairman and secretary of the state committee of the party at least thirty-five days prior to the election. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 173; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 77.]

Art. 11.05. Electors to Convene

On or before the meeting of the electors, the Governor shall cause three (3) lists of names of such electors to be made out and delivered to them as required by Act of Congress. The electors so chosen shall convene in the Capitol at Austin on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December next after their election and vote for President and Vice-President of the United States and make such return thereof as is or may be required by the laws of the United States. If any person so chosen elector shall, by death or disabling cause, fail to attend by the hour of two o'clock in the afternoon on the day fixed by law, and vote as required by law or if any such person shall be legally disqualified to serve as elector, a majority of the qualified electors present, after having convened, may appoint some other person to act as elector in place of any such absent or disqualified person, and shall immediately report their action to the Secretary of State. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 174.]

Art. 11.06. Pay of Electors

Such electors shall receive the same pay for mileage in traveling to and from Austin and twice the pay daily while engaged there in the duties required of them by law, as that allowed by law to the Members of the Legislature. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 175.]

CHAPTER TWELVE. UNITED STATES SENATORS

Article

- 12.01. United States Senators.
- 12.02. Vacancy in Office of United States Senator or Congressman-at-Large.
- 12.03. If Two Senators.

Art. 12.01. United States Senators

As to the nomination and election of United States Senators all the applicable laws of this code for the nomination and election of the Governor shall govern in the nomination and election of United States Senators. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 176.]

Art. 12.02. Vacancy in Office of United States Senator or Congressman-at-Large

1. When a vacancy occurs in the representation of this State in the United States Senate or in the representation of this State in the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States by a Congressman elected by the people at large, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the manners herein provided.

2. If a vacancy exists in the representation of this State in the Senate of the United States at a time when the Congress is in session, the Governor shall forthwith make a temporary appointment of a suitable and qualified person to represent this State in the Senate of the United States until a senator is elected and shall have qualified.

3. If a vacancy occurs in the office of a United States Senator or a Congressman-at-Large during the year in which a general election is held in this state and prior to the tenth day of March of said year, the Governor shall, within five days after the vacancy occurs, issue writs of election directing that the nomination and election of a United States Senator or of a Congressman-at-Large to fill such vacancy shall be accomplished in the manner provided by law for the nomination and election of the Governor; provided that when a vacancy in either or both of said offices is to be filled in this manner, a candidate for nomination by any political party holding a primary election in that year shall have until the first day of April of the election year to make application to have his name placed on the official ballot to be used in the primary election held by said political party for choosing its nominee for said office to run in the general election.

4. If such vacancy occurs in either or both of the aforesaid offices during a year in which no general election is to be held or after the ninth day of March of a general election year, the vacancy shall be filled at a special election or special elections, the first of which shall be called by writ of election, issued by the Governor within five days after the vacancy occurs, directing that a special election be held throughout the state on a specified day, which shall be not less than sixty days nor more than ninety days after the date of the writ, for the purpose of electing a United States Senator or a Congressman-at-Large to fill the existing vacancy and to serve for the unexpired term of the then vacant office.

5. In all special elections called to fill a vacancy in the office of United States Senator or in the office of Congressman-at-Large a majority vote of the electors participating in said elections shall be necessary for election. In event no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast at the first election, the Governor shall, within five (5) days after the results of said election were officially declared, call a second election to be held throughout the State on a specified day which shall be not less than thirty (30) nor more than forty (40) days after the date of the writs issued by the Governor. In the second special election the candidates shall be limited to the participants in the first election who received the largest and next largest number of votes at the first election. The Secretary of State shall, within five (5) days after the results of the first election are officially declared, certify to the County Clerk of each County in the State the names of the said two (2) candidates who are eligible to participate in the second election and the Clerks will make up the ballot for said election according to said certificate. The candidate who receives the largest number of votes in the second election shall receive a Certificate of Election to the unexpired term of the office for which he was a candidate.

6. All special elections called for the purpose of filling vacancies in the two (2) offices mentioned in this Section shall be conducted according to existing law as supplemented by this Section, but if there is a conflict between this Section and the existing law, the provisions of this Section shall prevail.

Art. 12.03. If Two Senators

When there are two (2) Senators to be elected from Texas to Congress, each candidate offering his name for election shall designate in his application for a position on the ticket whether in a general or special election or primary, whether he is a candidate for the short term or long term.

Art. 13.01. Primary Election

The term "primary election," as used in this chapter [arts. 13.01-13.59], means an election held by the members of an organized political party for the purpose of nominating the candidates of such party to be voted for at a general or special election, or to nominate the county executive officers of a party. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 179.]

Art. 13.01a. Who Are Members of Organized Party

(1) The members of an organized political party who shall be permitted to participate in its convention procedure as set forth in this code shall be only those persons who have become qualified as members of the party by voting in the elections of the party or have otherwise qualified as provided in this section. Having once become a qualified member of a party, a person shall remain a qualified member of that party for the duration of that voting year.

(2) The election and convention procedure of the party shall include the general primary election and the second primary election provided for in Section 181 of this code,<sup>1</sup> and shall include the conventions of the party at precinct, county and state level in both its state convention procedure and its national convention procedure insofar as they apply herein.

(3) Persons who have not qualified as members of a political party as required by this section shall be disqualified to participate in the convention procedure of the political parties and shall also be disqualified to be selected or to hold the position of executive committee member, precinct judge or chairman, delegate to any convention of a party, national committeeman, committeewoman or presidential elector of the party.

(4) An applicant for party affiliation shall become a qualified member of a political party which is holding primary elections when he has voted within that party's primary or has taken part in a convention of that party prior to a primary. At the head of the signature roster for each primary election there shall be printed the following statement: "I swear that I have not voted at a primary election or participated in a convention of any other political party during this voting year." The presiding judge or another election officer designated by him shall place each voter under oath and require him to swear to this statement before he signs the roster. The presiding judge shall issue to each voter in a general primary election, and to each voter in a second primary election who requests it, a certificate in the following form:

_____ has voted on this date in the (Name of Voter)
primary election of the _____ Party.

_____
Presiding Judge, Precinct No. _____, _____ County, Texas.

The county clerk shall furnish to each absentee voter in a general primary election, and to each absentee voter in a second primary election who requests it, a certificate in the form prescribed above, substituting the clerk's title for that of the presiding judge of the election precinct.

(5) To become qualified to participate in any party convention of a party which does not hold a primary or to become qualified for party membership for any party convention held prior to a primary, each voter who desires to participate in the convention shall state and sign an affidavit under oath to the precinct chairman that he has not participated in the primary or convention of any other party during that voting year. Thereupon, the precinct chairman shall issue to the voter a certificate in the following form:

Date _____

_____ has affiliated with
(Name of Voter)
the _____ Party for the current year.

_____
Precinct Chairman, Precinct No. _____, _____ County, Texas.

Each precinct chairman is authorized to administer the oath required by this subsection. Within 10 days after the precinct convention, he shall arrange the affidavits in alphabetical order and deliver them to the county clerk. If he receives an affidavit after the date of the precinct convention, he shall deliver it to the county clerk within 10 days after he receives it. The county clerk shall keep the affidavits on file in alphabetical order within each precinct for a period of two years after the end of the voting year in which they are filed. The county clerk shall maintain a separate file for each political party.

(6) A certificate issued by the presiding election judge, the county clerk, or the precinct chairman as provided in this section shall serve as evidence that the person whose name appears on the certificate is affiliated with the party designated on the certificate and is therefore eligible to participate in that party's conventions.

(7) No person who participates in the primary or convention of any political party during a voting year shall participate in any subsequent primary or convention of any other party during that same voting year. Any vote cast in a primary election in violation of this prohibition shall be void and shall not be counted for any purpose, and the violator shall be punishable as provided in Article 240 of the Texas Penal Code.

(8) Any person who participates or attempts to participate in a party convention held by a political party on a certification of qualifications other than one prescribed in this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not to exceed one thousand dollars.

Art. 13.02. Nominated at Primary

On primary election day in 1974 and every two years thereafter, candidates for all state offices to be chosen, and candidates for Congress and all District offices to be chosen by the vote of any district comprising more than one county, to be nominated by each organized political party that casts twenty percent (20%) or more of the votes for Governor at the last general election for that office, shall, together with all candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of a county, or of a portion of a county, be nominated in primary elections by the qualified voters of such party.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 180; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1409, ch. 542, § 5, eff. Aug. 27, 1973.]

Art. 13.03. Date of Primary

The first Saturday in May of 1960, and every two (2) years thereafter shall be general primary election day, and primary elections to nominate candidates for a general election shall be held on no other day, except when specially authorized. No person shall be declared the nominee of any political party at any primary election for any office unless he has complied with every requirement of all laws applicable to primary and other elections, and has received a majority of all the votes cast at such primary elections for all candidates for such office. If at the general primary election for any political party, no candidate becomes the nominee for any office under this Article, a second primary election shall be held by such political party on the first Saturday in June succeeding such general primary election, and only the name of the two (2) candidates who received the highest number of votes for any office for which nomination was made at the general election shall be placed on the official ballot as candidates for such office at such second primary, except as herein stated, provided that in case no one received a majority in the first primary and if the second and third highest candidates in that race shall be tied these two (2) shall cast lots under the direction of the county chairman or state chairman as the case may be to see which of the two (2) shall have his name printed on the second primary ballots. The second primary election shall be conducted according to the law prescribed for conducting the general primary election and the candidates receiving a majority of all votes cast for the office to which they aspire shall be declared the nominee for their respective offices. Nominations of candidates to be voted for at any special election shall be made at a primary election at such time as the party executive committee shall determine, but no such committee shall ever have the power to make such nominations, except where provided for by law. All precincts in the same county and all counties in the same district shall vote on the same day. Nominations of party candidates for offices to be filled in a city or town shall be made not less than thirty (30) days prior to the city or town election at which they are to be chosen, in such manner as the party executive committee for such city or town shall direct, and all laws prescribing the method for conducting county primary elections shall apply to them.

Art. 13.04. Voting Places of Political Parties

Subd. 1. The chairman of the county executive committee of each party holding a primary shall designate the polling place in each precinct where voting in the primary of that party will be held.

Subd. 2. Each political party holding a primary shall have a sign, showing the party name, prominently displayed immediately above each entrance to each of the party's precinct polling places.

Subd. 3. The primary election or convention of a political party may be held in the same building as the primary or convention of a different party or parties, but each party shall hold its primary or convention in a separate room from any other party, and the room shall be specifically designated as to political party by a sign in 160-point type or larger, prominently displayed above each entrance to the room. If such primary elections or conventions are held in adjoining rooms, there shall be no avenue of communication from one such room to the other. The voting machines, ballots, election supplies, and election officers of one primary election or convention shall not be used in the election or convention of another political party.

Judges of primary elections have the authority, and it shall be their duty, to administer oaths, to preserve order at the election, to appoint special officers to enforce the observance of order and to make arrests, as judges of general elections are authorized and required to do.

Art. 13.07. Nominations by Majority

In all nominations by political parties holding primary elections as provided in Chapter 13 of this Code [arts. 13.01–13.59], and amendments thereto, the candidates for County and precinct offices shall be nominated by a majority vote of the electors voting in such primary; provided that if no candidate received a majority of the votes cast for the candidates for the office for which he is a candidate, the County Executive Committee, after canvassing the results of such primary as provided by law shall cause the names of the two (2) candidates receiving the highest number of votes to be placed on the ballot to be voted upon at the second primary at the time and in the manner provided by law for such second primary. If all candidates for County and precinct offices are nominated within the County at the first primary election, it shall still be the duty of the County Executive Committee to hold a second primary election for the purpose of nominating District and State candidates.

Art. 13.07a. Deposit to Accompany Application for Place on Ballot

(1) Every candidate for public office who is subject to assessment by the county executive committee for a portion of the expenses of holding the primary election, except candidates for the Legislature and for the State Board of Education, shall pay to the county chairman, at the time of filing his application for a place on the ballot, a deposit of fifty dollars. In case of district offices in districts containing more than one county or part thereof, the candidate shall pay a deposit of fifty dollars to each county chairman with whom his application is filed. A candidate for the Legislature shall pay to the county chairman, at the time of filing his application, a deposit in the amount of the maximum amount which he may be assessed in that county, or the amount of the filing fee in that county in cases where a fixed fee is prescribed. A candidate for the State Board of Education shall pay to each county chairman, at the time of filing his application, the quotient obtained upon dividing fifty dollars by the number of counties in the district in which he is a candidate. The fees and deposits accompanying the applications shall become a part of the primary fund.

(2) After the county executive committee makes the assessments provided for in Section 186 of this code,<sup>1</sup> it shall refund to each candidate within thirty days thereafter the amount of the payment in excess of the assessment against the candidate if the deposit exceeds the assessment. If the deposit does not exceed the assessment, the balance due on the assessment shall be paid as provided in Section 186.<sup>1</sup> [Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 80; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1909, ch. 723, § 41, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 13.08. Expenses of Primary

(1) Prior to the assessment of the candidates, the county committee shall carefully estimate the cost of printing the official ballots, renting polling places where same may be found necessary, providing and distributing all necessary poll books, blank stationery and voting booths required, compensation of election officers and clerks, and all other necessary expenses of holding the general primary and second primary in such county and on the second Monday in February preceding each primary, shall apportion such cost in such manner as in their judgment is just and equitable among the various candidates for nomination for district, county, and precinct offices only as herein defined, except the offices of Justice of the Court of Civil Appeals and member of the State Board of Education, and except the office of state senator and state representative if the assessment or fee payable to the county chairman is fixed at a definite amount, but taking into account the assessments and filing fees received from candidates for the Legislature and the State Board of Education. Where a district office covers more than one county, the assessment of such candidate by the county shall be not more than a sum which is the quotient of the amount which he would be assessed if he represented only one county determined by the formula used to assess county candidates, when divided by the number of counties in his district. In making the assessment upon any candidate the committee shall give due consideration to the importance, emolument, and term of office for which the nomination is to be made. Within 24 hours after adjournment of the meeting, the chairman shall mail to each person against whom an assessment is made a notice stating the amount of such expenses apportioned to him and informing him that the difference between the amount of the assessment and the amount of the deposit which accompanied the candidate's application must be paid to the chairman on or before the fourth Monday in February; and no person's name shall be placed on the ballot unless he pays the assessment within the prescribed time. The notices shall be sent to the candidates by registered or certified mail, and the chairman shall obtain a receipt for each letter, postmarked by the post office at which the letter is mailed, as evidence of the mailing, and shall preserve the receipts for a period of three months.

(2) A candidate filing after the date of the aforesaid meeting shall not be required to accompany his application with the deposit provided for in Section 185a of this code,<sup>1</sup> but shall pay the full amount assessed against him by the county executive committee within one week from the date on which his application is filed; provided, however, that where a fixed filing fee is required for an office included in this section, the amount of the fee must accompany the application.

(3) It shall be sufficient to meet the requirements of this law to mail by registered or certified letter to the chairman before the deadline herein provided, as shown by the postmark on the letter, a money order, a certified check, or a cashier's check; but it shall not be sufficient to make the payment by any other type of mail unless it is delivered before the deadline.

(4) A candidate for the State Board of Education shall pay a filing fee of fifty dollars, which shall be prorated equally among the counties comprising the district in which he is a candidate, and the prorated amount shall be paid to each county chairman at the time the candidate files his application for a place on the ballot.

Art. 13.08a. Assessment of Candidates in Counties having Certain Populations

Candidates for any precinct, county or district office and the office of Congress in counties which have a population of one million (1,000,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, except candidates for the State Legislature and State Board of Education, shall not be assessed a sum in excess of ten percent (10%) of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of two-year terms, and fifteen percent (15%) of the aggregate annual salary provided for any office of four-year terms, to have their names placed on the ballot in any primary election. Candidates for the State Board of Education shall not be assessed a sum in excess of the amount stated in Section 186 of this Code.<sup>1</sup>

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of one million (1,000,000) or more, according to the last preceding Federal Census, may require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars ($500) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election. A candidate for nomination for State Senator shall pay the full amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) as filing fee for office of State Senator to have his name placed upon the ballot in a primary election at the time he files his application for a place on the ballot. The payment must accompany the application and must be in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check or certified check. The application and payment must be delivered to the proper party chairman or secretary by the deadline for making application for a place on the ballot, and it shall not be sufficient for the application and payment to have been mailed before the deadline unless they are actually delivered by the deadline. After the county executive committee makes the assessments as provided in Section 186 of this Code, it shall refund to each candidate within thirty (30) days thereafter the amount of the payment in excess of the assessment against the candidate.

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of nine hundred thousand (900,000) to one million (1,000,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator or State Representative to pay the amount of Three Hundred Dollars ($300) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election.

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of six hundred fifty thousand (650,000) to nine hundred thousand (900,000), according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator to pay the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and candidates for State Representative to pay the amount of Six Hundred Dollars ($600) respectively to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election; however, if part of such a county is joined to two (2) or more other counties to comprise a senatorial district, the county executive committee shall require candidates for State Senator of that senatorial district to pay the amount of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250) to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election; and such payment must accompany the application and must be in the form of cash, money order, cashier's check, or certified check and which shall in no event be refunded in whole or in part except in case of the death of the applicant before the primary election. Any person making a refund or participating in making a refund in violation of the provisions of this paragraph is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety (90) days or by a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or by both.

In any State Representative District consisting of eight (8) and not more than nine (9) counties, the chairmen of the county executive committees shall require candidates for State Representative to pay an amount of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each of the counties in said Representative District, to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election.

Art. 13.08a-1. Assessment of Candidates in Counties having Certain Populations

Notwithstanding other provisions of law, the county executive committee in any county which has a population of 350,000 to 640,000, according to the last preceding Federal Census, shall require candidates for State Senator or State Representative to pay the amount of $300 to have their names placed upon the ballot in a primary election.

Art. 13.08b. Refund upon Death of Candidate

If before the first primary a candidate dies or is declared ineligible to be a candidate for the office, all fees and assessments paid by the candidate, including the deposit which accompanied his application, shall be refunded to the candidate or to his estate, as the case may be. No refund shall be made upon the death or ineligibility of a nominee or of a candidate in the second primary, and no refund shall be made to a candidate who withdraws or who declines a nomination, with the exception that in the event a candidate who is subject to assessment by the county executive committee withdraws before the assessments are made, the committee shall determine the amount which would have been assessed against him if he had remained a candidate, and if the amount of the deposit made by the candidate exceeds that amount, the committee shall refund the difference to him; and with the further exception that a withdrawing, declining, or ineligible candidate and the estate of a deceased candidate shall be entitled to share in the distribution of the surplus in the primary fund the same as if he had not died, withdrawn, declined, or been declared ineligible for the nomination.

Art. 13.08c. Superseded

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., 1st C.S., p. 33, ch. 11, § 4, adding a section 186c to the Election Code, classified as article 13.08c, authorized a petition of voters in lieu of payment of assessment or fee. Said Act was superseded by Acts 1972, 62nd Leg., 2nd C.S., ch. 2, classified as article 13.08c-1, post.

Art. 13.08c-1. Expired

This article, titled the McKool-Stroud Primary Financing Law of 1972, was enacted by Acts 1972, 62nd Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 7, ch. 2, §§ 1 to 4-A. The conduct and financing of the 1974 primary elections is governed by arts. 13.08c-2 to 13.08c-4.

PRIMARY CONDUCT AND FINANCING LAW OF 1974

Art. 13.08c-2. Conduct of the Primary Elections

(a) Nominations for the general election to be held on November 5, 1974, shall be made in the manner provided in the Texas Election Code, as amended. The primary elections held by a political party pursuant to Sections 180 and 181, Texas Election Code (Articles 13.02 and 13.03, Vernon's Texas Election Code), shall be conducted through the party's state executive committee and county executive committees in accordance with the procedures detailed in the Texas Election Code, as amended, with the following modifications and clarifications:

(b) In order for a candidate to have his name placed on the ballot for the general primary election, he must have either paid a filing fee or filed a nominating petition in compliance with Section 1(c) of this Act.

(c) Payment of filing fee:

Every candidate for public office shall accompany his application for a place on the general primary ballot with a filing fee in the amount prescribed in this section, unless he uses a nominating petition prescribed by this section. The schedule of fees is as follows:

1. All statewide offices .....	$1000
2. United States representative .....	500
3. State senator .....	400
4. State representative .....	200
5. Member, State Board of Education .....	50
6. Chief Justice or Associate Justice, Court of Civil Appeals .....	400
7. District judge or judge of any other court having status of district office as classified in Section 61c, Texas Election Code .....	400
8. District attorney or criminal district attorney .....	400
9. All county offices, as classified in Section 61c, Texas Election Code, except county surveyor or inspector of hides and animals .....	150
10. County surveyor or inspector of hides and animals .....	50
11. County commissioner .....	100
12. Justice of the peace or constable, for counties above 200,000 population .....	100 for counties under 200,000 population ...	50
13. Public weigher .....	50

In lieu of payment of a filing fee, a candidate may file a nominating petition which must be signed by the qualified voters eligible to vote for the office for which the candidate is running as follows:

For statewide offices, 5,000 signatures.

For district, county, precinct, or other political subdivisions, equal in number to at least two percent of the entire vote cast for that party's candidate for governor in the last preceding general election in the territory. In no event shall the number of signatures required be less than 25 nor more than 500.

No person shall sign more than one nominating petition for the same office. Signing two petitions makes both signatures void.

The nominating petitions must be submitted to the appropriate official with the candidate's application for a place on the general primary ballot.

(d) The fees paid to the county chairman pursuant to Section 1(c) of this Act and any contributions made to the county chairman or the county executive committee for the specific purpose of helping defray the costs of the primary elections shall be deposited to the credit of the primary fund referred to in Section 196 of the Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 13.18, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and shall be applied to payment of the costs of the primary elections. The county chairman and the committee may also use any other available funds toward defraying the costs. The remaining costs incurred shall be borne by the state in accordance with the procedures outlined in Section 2 of this Act. Within five days after the regular filing deadline, the chairman of the state executive committee shall forward to the secretary of state all filing fees collected pursuant to Section 1(c) of this Act and an itemized listing of these fees. The secretary of state shall deposit these fees in a suspense account with the state treasury. The secretary of state is authorized to make any refunds pursuant to Section 186b, Texas Election Code, from this fund. The fees collected under any extended deadline shall be sent to the secretary of state before the date of the general primary election. Within five days after the date of the general primary election, the balance remaining in the suspense account shall be deposited to the general revenue fund.

(e) In each county in which voting machines or an electronic voting system has been adopted, the county commissioners court shall permit the county-owned voting machines or voting equipment to be used for the primary elections, including the conduct of absentee voting for the elections, at a charge for use at each election not exceeding $16 per unit for voting machines adopted under Section 79 of the Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 7.14, Vernon's Texas Election Code), and not exceeding $3 per unit for voting equipment adopted under Section 80 of the Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 7.15, Vernon's Texas Election Code). The maximum amount fixed in this Act includes the least price for use of the unit, and also the charge for its preparation and maintenance if the county provides these services. The county is entitled to reimbursement for the cost of transporting the machines or equipment to and from the polling places if the county provides this service. Where voting is by an electronic voting system, the county may not charge for use of county-owned automatic tabulating equipment at the central counting station, but all actual expenditures incidental to operation of the central counting station in counting the ballots are payable out of the primary fund.

(f) All expenses of the county clerk in conducting absentee voting in the primary elections, including the employment of additional deputies where necessary, shall be paid by the county. A county is not entitled to reimbursement for any expenditure of county funds in connection with the conduct of absentee voting or any other services rendered by the county clerk in the primary elections, except for voting machines and/or punchcard units used in conducting the absentee voting.

(g) The total combined compensation paid to the county chairman and the secretary of the county executive committee (where the committee has named a secretary) and to any office personnel employed to assist in the performance of the duties placed upon the chairman, the secretary, and the members of the county executive committee shall not exceed five percent of the amount actually spent in holding the primary elections for the year, exclusive of the compensation paid to these officers and employees.

(h) Charges for office expenses shall not be allowed for a period extending beyond the 10th day after the date of the last primary held by the party nor more than 30 days before the filing deadline.

(i) The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate rules in regard to the maximum number of election clerks who may be compensated for their services at a polling place, taking into account the number of registered voters in the election precinct, the number of votes cast in the precinct in the party's primary elections in 1972, the method of voting, and other relevant factors. The secretary of state must allow compensation for the presiding judge, alternate judge, and at least one clerk for each precinct. The secretary of state may allow compensation for clerks employed in excess of the applicable limit set by the rules if he finds that employment of additional clerks was justified by special circumstances existing in the precinct. The secretary of state is authorized to promulgate any other reasonable rules which will minimize the costs of the primary elections. The secretary of state shall furnish a copy of all rules promulgated pursuant to this section to each county chairman at least 10 days before the election to which the rules apply.

(j) The county chairman is not required to file the financial report provided for in Subdivision 5 of Section 196 of the Texas Election Code, as amended (Article 13.18, Vernon's Texas Election Code), but he shall account for the primary fund in the manner provided in Section 2 of this Act.

(k) The secretary of state shall not approve any expenditure of state funds to any county organization that practices discrimination based on race, sex, age, creed, or national origin. The state attorney general shall be specifically responsible for the enforcement of this section.

(l) In the event a court of competent jurisdiction declares any portion of this section to be invalid, and by the 60th day before the filing deadline for a general primary election the judgment has become final or enforcement of the judgment has not been suspended, and the legislature has not corrected the invalidity (or in the event these circumstances arise subsequent to the 60th day before the filing deadline), the secretary of state shall promulgate a schedule of fees consistent with the court's judgment and the valid portions of this section; and that schedule shall be substituted for the statutory schedule until the legislature enacts a new schedule.

Art. 13.08c-3. State Financing

(a) Each county chairman of each political party in the state which is holding primary elections in 1974 shall submit to the secretary of state at least 30 days before the first primary election a sworn itemized estimate of the costs for conducting the first primary election in his county, together with a sworn statement of the filing fees and contributions received by the chairman, for such primary election to and including the date of such sworn statement. The secretary of state shall review the estimate and shall notify the chairman of any items which he has disallowed as unauthorized or excessive expenditures. Expenditures may be allowed only for those purposes which are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law as established by the statutes and court decisions of this state. The secretary of state shall subtract from the approved estimate any amount of the fees and contributions received by the chairman remaining over and above legitimate expenses incurred for the conduct and financing of the primary elections for the year 1974, and shall certify to the comptroller of public accounts the net estimated amount which is payable out of the state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount. The comptroller forthwith shall issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(b) In each county in which a runoff primary is necessary, within 10 days after the first primary the county chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized estimate of the costs of the runoff primary. As in the case of the first primary, the secretary of state shall notify the chairman of items which he disallows, and shall certify to the comptroller the approved estimated amount which is payable out of state funds, together with the secretary of state's calculation of three-fourths of that amount; and the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the chairman for three-fourths of the certified amount.

(c) Within 20 days after the date of the runoff primary, the county chairman shall submit to the secretary of state a sworn itemized report of the actual costs, filing fees collected and contributions received for the primary election or elections (as the case may be) held by his party in his county. If the actual expenditure for an item exceeded the estimated amount, the chairman shall submit an explanation of the reason for the increased expenditure, and the secretary of state shall allow the increase if good cause is shown. The secretary of state shall certify to the comptroller the difference between the total amount payable out of state funds and the amount which has already been transmitted to the chairman, and the comptroller shall issue a warrant to the chairman in the amount certified. If the total amount of the fees and contributions and the payments from the state exceeds the actual expenditures incurred, the chairman shall refund the difference to the state, in the form of a check made payable to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall deposit the check in the state treasury to the credit of the appropriation from which payments to the county chairman were made by the secretary of state.

(d) Each county chairman shall deposit to the credit of the primary fund all warrants received by him under this section. Expenses incurred by or on behalf of the county executive committee for the conduct of the primary elections shall be paid from the primary fund, in the manner authorized by the committee.

(e) The county chairman is responsible for payment of claims for primary election expenses, and the state is not liable to any claimant for failure of the county chairman to pay a claim. No county chairman shall be personally liable, nor shall a county executive committee be liable, for any debts legally incurred in the implementation of this Act but unpaid because the appropriation provided by the legislature for the implementation of this Act was not sufficient to cover the actual expenditures made.

(f) The secretary of state shall prescribe and shall furnish to the county chairmen the forms which they are to use in submitting their statements and reports to him.

(g) Wherever the word "county chairman" is used in this Act, it shall apply to the county chairman or his successor in office, and such county chairman shall not be personally liable except for the misapplication of funds.

(h) In any case in which the secretary of state disallows an item of expenditure under Subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or refuses to allow an increase under Subsection (c) of this section, the county chairman may appeal to a district court of Travis County by filing a petition within 20 days after the date the notification is received from the secretary of state, and the district court shall allow such expenditures as are properly payable out of the primary fund under existing law. Any item not certified to the comptroller of public accounts for payment within 10 days after its submission to the secretary of state may be considered disallowed for this purpose. Judicial review shall be by trial de novo as are appeals from the justice court to the county court.

Art. 13.08c-4. Funding

Funds for the administration of this Act shall be supplied from the general revenue fund by the General Appropriations Act. The secretary of state is authorized to expend funds appropriated in the General Appropriations Act for the administration of this Act for seasonal and part-time help, consumable supplies and materials and current and recurring operating expenses in an amount not to exceed $30,000.

Art. 13.09. Balloting at Primaries: Write-in Votes Permitted for Party Offices Only

(a) The vote at all primary elections shall be by official ballot, which shall have a detachable stub as described in Section 61 of this code. The name of the party shall be printed at the head of the ballot, and under such head shall be printed the names of all candidates, those for each nomination being arranged in the order determined by the county executive committee as herein provided for, beneath the title of the office for which the nomination is sought. The ballot shall also contain the instruction note prescribed in Section 61 of this code.<sup>1</sup>

(b) Write-in votes shall not be permitted in primary elections for any office other than the party offices of county chairman and precinct chairman, and a write-in vote for any other office shall be void and shall not be counted for any purpose. Write-in votes for the party offices of county chairman and precinct chairman shall be permitted in the general primary election but shall not be permitted in the second (runoff) primary. On the general primary ballot, an appropriate space for a write-in candidate shall be provided under the title of each of these two party offices, following the names of the candidates; and if for either office there is no candidate whose name is to be printed on the ballot, the title of the office shall nevertheless be printed on the ballot with a space for a write-in candidate provided thereunder.

(c) The official ballot shall be printed in black ink upon white paper. The ballot shall be printed by the county committee in each county, which shall furnish to the presiding judge of the general primary for each voting precinct at least as many of such official ballots as the county election board determines is necessary for each party based upon the votes cast in the area in the last preceding presidential general election.

(d) Where two or more candidates are to be nominated for the same office, to be voted for by the qualified voters of the same district, county, or justice precinct, such candidates shall be voted for and nominations made separately, and all such nominations shall be separately designated on the official ballots by numbering the same "Place No. 1," "Place No. 2," etc. Each candidate for such nominations shall designate in the announcement of his candidacy, and in his request to have his name placed on the official ballot, the number of the nomination for which he desires to become a candidate, and the names of all candidates so requesting shall have their names printed beneath the title of the office and the number so designated. Each voter shall vote for only one candidate for each nomination. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 187; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 802, ch. 338, § 3; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 85; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1911, ch. 723, § 44, eff. Art. 13.10. Repealed by Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 121(a), eff. Aug. 23, 1963

Art. 13.11. Test on Ballot

No official ballot for primary election shall have on it any symbol or device or any printed matter, except a uniform primary test, reading as follows: "I am a _____ (inserting name of political party or organization of which the voter is a member) and pledge myself to support the nominee of this primary"; and any ballot which shall not contain such printed test above the names of the candidates thereon, shall be void and shall not be counted. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 189.]

Art. 13.11a. Ineligibility to Become Opposing Candidate

Any person who has participated as a voter or as a candidate in either the first primary election or the runoff primary election of a political party shall be ineligible to have his name printed on the ballot at the succeeding general or special election as an independent candidate for any office for which a nomination was made by such party at either such primary election, and shall be ineligible to have his name printed on the ballot as the nominee of any other party for any office to be voted on at the general or special election. [Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 86.]

Art. 13.12. Application for Place on Ballot; Filing; Deadline; Extension; Withdrawal; Notice

The application to have the name of any person affiliating with any party placed on the official ballot for a general primary as a candidate for the nomination of such party for any office for which a nomination may be made at such primary shall be governed by the following:

1. Such application shall be in writing, indicating the office for which nomination is sought and whether for a full term or for an unexpired term, signed and duly acknowledged by the person desiring such nomination, or by twenty-five qualified voters. It shall state the occupation, county of residence, and post-office address of such person, and if made by him shall also state his age. If the application is made by qualified voters, there shall be endorsed on the application or filed in a separate instrument, before the deadline for filing applications, a statement signed by the candidate showing his consent to such candidacy.

2. The application shall be filed with the state chairman in the case of all statewide offices and all district offices which are filled by the choice of voters residing in more than one county. It shall be filed with the county chairman of the particular county in the case of county and precinct offices and district offices which are filled by the choice of voters residing in only one county or less than one county. Except as provided in Paragraph 2a of this section, the application shall be filed not later than 6 p. m. on the first Monday in February preceding such primary.

2a. The filing deadline stated in Paragraph 2 of this section shall be extended for the particular party primary and office involved, as provided in this paragraph:

(i) if between the fifth day preceding the first Monday in February and the 30th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, any candidate for an office dies, if the candidate had complied with all prerequisites for having his name placed on the ballot which he was required to perform by the date of his death;

(ii) if between the first Monday in February and the 30th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, any candidate who is seeking nomination to an office which he then holds withdraws or is declared ineligible for election to that office; or

(iii) if between the first Monday in February and the 30th day preceding the general primary, both dates included, the only candidate who has filed for a particular office in the primary of that party withdraws or is declared ineligible.

In the enumerated circumstances, the name of the deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate shall not be printed on the ballot, and applications for that party's nomination for that office may be filed not later than 6 p. m. on the 15th day following the death, withdrawal, or declaration of ineligibility of the candidate; provided, however, that where the death, withdrawal, or declaration of ineligibility occurs less than 15 days before the 25th day preceding the primary, the deadline for filing shall be 6 p. m. on the 25th day preceding the primary. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2b of this section, an application which is not received by the chairman until after 6 p. m. on the 25th day shall not be timely, and applications mailed but not actually received by that time shall not be accepted for filing. Further, notwithstanding the provisions of Section 186<sup>1</sup> or any other provision of this code, the full amount of the assessment or filing fee must be received by the chairman not later than 6 p. m. on the 25th day.

2b. Except as otherwise provided in Paragraph 2a, an application filed under either Paragraph 2 or Paragraph 2a of this section shall be considered filed if sent to the proper chairman at his post-office address by registered or certified mail from any point in this state not later than the day before the filing deadline, as shown by the postmark. Any application not received by the chairman before the deadline does not comply with this law unless it has been mailed by registered or certified mail as herein provided, and it shall not be sufficient to send the application by any other type of mail unless it is delivered before the deadline.

2c. A candidate may withdraw by filing with the chairman or chairmen with whom his application was filed, a signed request, duly acknowledged by him, that his name not be printed on the primary ballot. Whenever a filing period is extended by the death, withdrawal, or ineligibility of a candidate, each county chairman with whom the candidate's application was filed shall give notice of the opening of the filing and of the deadline to file by mailing or delivering a news release within 48 hours after his first knowledge of the death, withdrawal, or ineligibility, to each newspaper, as defined in Article 28a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, as amended, which is published in the county. Where the application was filed with the state chairman, he shall give notice in like manner by mailing or delivering the release to at least three daily newspapers which maintain news representatives in the State Capitol. The failure of a county chairman or state chairman to comply with this requirement shall be ground for his removal from office by the committee of which he is chairman.

2d. A candidate shall not be permitted to withdraw during the period of 20 days preceding the general primary. If after the 30th day preceding the general primary a candidate dies or an incumbent or an unopposed candidate withdraws or is declared ineligible, the procedure detailed in Section 104 of this code<sup>2</sup> shall be followed. Except as provided in that section, the name of a deceased, withdrawn, or ineligible candidate shall not be printed on the ballot.

3. Within ten days after the first Monday in February, the state chairman shall file with the Secretary of State, and each county chairman shall file with the county clerk of his county a list of the names of all candidates, arranged by office for which nomination is sought, whose applications have been timely received. In like manner each chairman shall file, within three days after any extended filing deadline under Paragraph 2a of this section, a supplemental list of candidates whose applications were timely received after the original list was prepared. Each county chairman shall forward to the chairman of the state executive committee a copy of each list which he files with the county clerk.

4. On the second Monday in March preceding each general primary, the state committee shall meet at some place to be designated by its chairman, who shall not less than three days prior to such meeting notify by mail all members of the committee and all persons whose names have been requested to be placed upon the official ballot of such designation. Such committee at this meeting by resolution shall direct their chairman to certify to each county chairman the names and county of residence of such candidates as shown by the applications received by him. Copies of such certificates shall be immediately furnished to each newspaper in the state desiring to publish same, and one copy shall at once be mailed to the chairman of the executive committee of each county.

5. The terms of this law shall apply to the county chairman and precinct committeemen, and the names of such candidates shall not be printed on the primary ballot unless such application shall have been filed as provided herein.

Art. 13.12a. Nomination and Election to Fill Unexpired Term

(1) Offices to which applicable; occurrence of vacancy. The provisions of this section shall govern nomination for and election to unexpired terms which are to be filled by election at the general election, in state, district, county and precinct offices where the vacancy occurs by reason of the creation of a new office or the death, resignation, or removal from office of the incumbent in an existing office, and the length of the unexpired term to be filled at the election extends beyond the first day of January following the election. This section does not apply to offices, vacancies which are to be filled by special election, nor does it apply to the office of United States Senator, which is governed by Section 177 of this code.<sup>1</sup> For the purpose of this section, where a new office is created to come into existence at a date subsequent to the effective date of the statute or date of entry of the order creating it, the vacancy shall be deemed to occur as of the effective date of the statute or date of entry of the order, and where the incumbent of an office has submitted a resignation to become effective at a future date, the vacancy shall be deemed to occur upon acceptance of the resignation.

(2) Nominations by parties holding primary elections. For any party holding primary elections for nominating candidates for the ensuing general election, nominations for unexpired terms shall be made in accordance with the following provisions.

(i) If the vacancy occurs more than five days prior to the regular deadline for filing an application for a place on the general primary ballot, as provided in Section 190 of this Code,<sup>2</sup> nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election in the same manner and under the same rules applicable to nominations for full terms.

(ii) If the vacancy occurs on or after the fifth day preceding the regular filing deadline and more than thirty days before the day of the general primary election, nomination for the unexpired term shall be made by primary election, and candidates shall have until the end of the twenty-fifth day preceding the day of the general primary in which to file applications for a place on the primary ballot. The application must be received and filed in the office of the proper chairman before the deadline, and applications mailed but not actually received before the deadline shall not be accepted for filing. Except as otherwise provided herein, the application shall conform to the requirements of Section 190 of this Code. A candidate for an office for which a fixed filing fee is prescribed by this Code shall pay the fee within three days after he files his application for a place on the ballot; provided, however, that in every case the payment must be received by the chairman before the deadline for filing applications under this paragraph. A candidate for an office which is subject to assessment by the county executive committee shall accompany his application with the deposit required by Section 185a of this Code.<sup>3</sup> The county executive committee shall fix the amount of the assessment and the county chairman shall mail to each candidate a statement of the amount assessed against him, and the candidate shall pay the balance of the assessment within five days after the date on which the statement is mailed. Immediately following the deadline for filing applications, the state chairman shall certify to the county chairman the names of candidates, if any, who have filed applications with him and have paid their filing fee in accordance with this paragraph. Whenever the name of more than one candidate for the same office is to be placed on the ballot pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, the county chairman shall call a meeting of the primary committee, in time to allow printing of the ballots before commencement of absentee voting in the general primary, and the primary committee shall determine by lot, in open meeting, the order in which the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballot. If there is not more than one candidate for the same office, the county chairman shall be authorized to make any necessary changes in the ballot as previously made up by the primary committee.

(iii) If the vacancy occurs on or after the thirtieth day preceding the day of the general primary and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the state executive committee in the case of state offices, the appropriate district executive committee in the case of district offices, the county executive committee in the case of county offices, and the appropriate precinct committee in the case of precinct offices, shall have the power to name a nominee for such office, and a nomination shall not be made by any other method; provided, however, that in any case where a district committee empowered to name a nominee fails to do so because it is unable to agree upon a nominee by majority vote, the state executive committee of that political party may name a candidate for such office and certify the name of the nominee to the proper officer.

(3) Nominations by parties not holding primary elections. For any party which is authorized to make nominations by party conventions, as provided in this Code, a nomination for the unexpired term shall be made at the appropriate party convention having power to make nominations for the particular office if the vacancy occurs more than two days prior to the date on which the convention is held. If the vacancy occurs on or after the second day preceding the convention and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the appropriate executive committee of the party shall have the power to name a nominee, and a nomination shall not be made by any other method.

(4) Nominations by executive committees. If the vacancy occurs more than forty days before the day of the general election, the nomination must be made and certified to the proper officer not later than thirty-five days before the day of the general election, except that where a district committee has been unable to agree upon a nominee for a district office due to a tie vote, a nomination by the state executive committee shall be made and certified not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. For subsequent vacancies, the nomination shall be made and certified not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. Nominations for state offices and for district offices (including districts composed of only one county or part of one county) shall be certified to the Secretary of State, and nominations for county and precinct offices shall be certified to the county clerk. The certificate of nomination shall be signed and acknowledged by the chairman of the committee making the nomination, and shall set forth the name of the nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how the nomination was made.

(5) Independent and nonpartisan candidates. If the vacancy occurs on or before the date of the second primary election, applications of independent or nonpartisan candidates must be filed in accordance with the provisions of Section 227 of this Code,<sup>4</sup> not later than thirty days after the second primary election day. If the vacancy occurs after the second primary election day, and more than twenty days before the day of the general election, independent or nonpartisan candidates may file applications in the manner provided in Section 227, except that the application shall be filed not later than thirty-five days before the day of the general election if the vacancy occurred more than forty days before the day of the general election, and for subsequent vacancies, the application shall be filed not later than twenty days before the day of the general election. No person shall sign an application prior to the occurrence of the vacancy, and any signature before that time shall be void.

(6) Write-in candidates. If the vacancy occurs more than twenty days before the day of the general election, the title of the office shall be printed on the ballot for the general election regardless of whether any nominations have been made for the unexpired term, and each voter may write in the name of the candidate of his choice.

(7) When election not to be held. If a vacancy occurs within twenty days before the day of the general election, no one shall be elected to the unexpired term at that election, and the person appointed to fill the vacancy shall continue to hold office until the next succeeding general election and until a successor has been elected and has qualified.

(8) In all nominations made by an executive committee under this section or under Section 233 of this code,<sup>5</sup> or under any other provision of law, a majority of the members of the committee must participate in making the nomination, and all nominations must be made by a majority vote of those members participating in the nomination.

Art. 13.14. Primary Committee

Subject to the approval of the committee, the county chairman shall appoint a subcommittee of five (5) members to be known as the primary committee, of which he shall be ex-officio chairman. This subcommittee shall meet on the fourth Monday in March and make up the official ballot for such general primary in such county, in accordance with the certificates of the State and district chairman and the request filed with the county chairman, and place the names of the candidates for nomination for State, district, county and precinct offices thereon in the order determined by the county executive committee as herein provided.

Art. 13.15. Filing Fees for Certain Offices

Candidates for United States Senator and all those who are candidates for state offices to be voted upon by the qualified voters of the whole state shall pay to the chairman of the state executive committee $1,000. Candidates for Congressman-at-large or for justice of the court of civil appeals shall pay to the chairman of the state executive committee five percent of one year's salary. A candidate who is required to pay a filing fee as herein provided shall not be required to pay any other sum to any other person or committee to have his name placed on the ballot as such candidate. Payment of the fee herein required must be made at the time the candidate files his application for a place on the ballot, and the name of no person who is required to pay a filing fee in any place or to the chairman of the state executive committee shall be placed on the ballot unless he has paid the fee in accordance with these provisions.

Art. 13.16. Payments by Candidates for State Senator or Representative

Subd. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this code, no candidate for nomination for state senator shall be required to pay to the county executive committee to have his name placed on the primary ballot more than the following amounts:

1. One dollar per county for counties having a population of less than 5,000.

2. Five dollars per county for counties having a population of 5,000 and not more than 10,000.

3. Ten dollars per county for counties having a population of more than 10,000 and less than 40,000.

4. Fifty dollars per county for counties having a population of 40,000 and not more than 125,000.

5. Seventy-five dollars per county for counties having a population of more than 125,000 and not more than 200,000.

6. One hundred dollars per county for counties having a population of more than 200,000.

7. One hundred dollars per county for all senatorial districts composed of no more and no less than two counties, regardless of the population of such counties.

The population in each case is to be determined by the last preceding federal census.

Subd. 2. Except as otherwise provided in this code, each candidate for nomination for state representative shall pay a filing fee of $150. In districts containing all or part of more than one county, the filing fee shall be prorated among the counties comprising the district on the basis of the percentage of the population of the district residing in each county, as determined by the last preceding federal census. The chairman of the state executive committee of each political party which is holding a primary election shall compute the prorations and shall forward to the chairman of each county executive committee of that party the pertinent information for his county not later than the first day of December preceding the election year.

Subd. 3. Where some other section of this code provides for an assessment or filing fee at variance with this section, the special provision of the other section shall control.

Art. 13.17. Order of Offices and Names on Ballot

(a) The various county committees of any political party, on the third Monday in March preceding each general primary, shall meet at the county seat and determine by lot, in open meeting, the order in which the names of all candidates for all offices, including statewide races, requested to be printed on the official general primary ballot shall be printed thereon.

(b) At the meeting of the county executive committee for canvassing the returns of the general primary, as provided for in Section 202 of this code,<sup>1</sup> the committee shall determine in like manner the order in which the names of candidates for county and precinct offices shall be printed on the ballot in those races for which a runoff election is necessary. Upon receipt from the state chairman of the names of candidates for state and district offices which are to be printed on the second primary ballot, the chairman of the county executive committee shall immediately convene the primary committee, which shall determine by lot in open meeting the order in which the names of the candidates for state and district offices shall be printed on the second primary ballot and shall make up the official ballot for such election.

Art. 13.18. County Executive Committees

Subd. 1. There shall be for each political party required by law to hold primary elections for nomination of its candidates, a county executive committee in each county, to be composed of a county chairman and one member from each election precinct in such county. Each committeeman shall be chairman of his election precinct. The county chairman and the committeeman shall be elected by majority vote at the primary elections every two years, the county chairman by the qualified voters of the whole county, and the precinct chairman by the qualified voters of their respective election precincts. If in any race no candidate receives a majority of the votes at the general primary, a runoff election for the office shall be held at the second primary election. The county chairman and the precinct chairmen shall assume the duties of their respective offices on Saturday following the runoff primary immediately after the committee has declared the results of the runoff primary election. The list of precinct chairmen and the county chairman so elected shall be certified by the chairman of the county committee to the county clerk, along with the nominees of the party.

Subd. 2. No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at meetings of the county executive committee. Any vacancy in the office of county chairman or precinct chairman shall be filled by the committee. A majority of the total membership of the committee must participate in filling a vacancy, and the person selected must receive a majority vote of those members participating in the selection. Each precinct chairman shall be a resident of the precinct which he represents, and the office shall become vacant if he changes his residence to a place outside the precinct. Where the boundaries of election precincts are changed by the commissioners court, existing precincts altered, new precincts formed, or former precincts abolished, if only one previously elected or appointed precinct chairman resides within a precinct as so changed, he shall continue in office as chairman of that precinct until his successor is elected and assumes office. If more than one precinct chairman resides within a precinct as so changed, or if none resides therein, the office shall become vacant and the vacancy shall be filled as other vacancies. Changes in precinct boundaries made by the commissioners court shall not become effective to alter or affect the membership of the county executive committee until the first day of February following the entry of the order making the change.

Subd. 3. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the office of county chairman, the secretary of the county executive committee may call a meeting of the committee for the purpose of filling the vacancy at any time after the vacancy occurs, and upon the written request of any member of the committee, the secretary shall call the meeting for a date not more than 20 days after he receives the request, giving notice to each member of the time and place where the meeting will be held and the purpose of the meeting. If the county committee does not have a secretary, or if the secretary fails to call a meeting as herein provided upon being requested to do so, the chairman of the state executive committee shall call the meeting in like manner upon written request of any member of the county committee. The officer who calls the meeting shall designate one member to act as temporary chairman, who shall call the meeting to order and preside until the committee elects its own chairman.

Subd. 4. The county executive committee may name a secretary, who may be either a member of the committee or such other person as the committee may select, and the secretary is hereby authorized to receive applications for a place on the primary ballot and when so received the application shall be officially filed. The combined compensation allowed the secretary and the chairman for their services shall in no case exceed five percent of the amount actually spent for necessary expenses in holding the primary election for that year, exclusive of the compensation allowed to the chairman and secretary.

Subd. 5. The funds received by the county executive committee from fees and assessments paid by candidates shall constitute the primary fund, and any surplus remaining in the fund after payment of the necessary expenses for holding the primary elections for that year shall be distributed pro-rata to the candidates not later than the first day of November of the year in which the primaries were held. The county chairman shall make or have made a detailed financial report or audit of all moneys received, expended, and on hand, and such audit or financial statement shall be sworn to by the county chairman as to its accuracy and shall be filed with the county clerk not later than the first day of November of that year. Such audit or financial statement shall be open to public inspection.

Art. 13.18a. District and Precinct Executive Committees

(1) For a district composed of more than one county or part thereof, the county chairman of each county wholly within the district shall be ex officio a member of the district executive committee for each such district of which his county is a part. When a part of a county is joined with one or more other counties or parts of counties to form a district, at the meeting of the county executive committee provided for in Section 186 of this code<sup>1</sup> the precinct chairman of the election precincts included within such part of the county shall elect one of their number to serve as district committeeman; and a district committeeman shall be selected in this manner for each type of district and for each district for which any part of the county less than the whole county is joined with territory in another county or counties. The district committee thus formed shall elect its own chairman. Whenever a vacancy occurs in a district office or in the nomination for a district office and the district committee is empowered to name a nominee or a substitute nominee, or whenever for any other reason it becomes necessary for the district committee to meet and organize, the chairman of the state executive committee shall call a meeting of the district committee by giving notice to each member of the time and place where such meeting will be held and of the purpose of the meeting. The state chairman shall designate one member as temporary chairman, who shall call the meeting to order and preside until the committee elects its own chairman. The chairman elected by the committee shall continue to act as chairman during the remainder of that term of office, and shall call any subsequent meetings of the committee which are held during that time.

(2) For a district composed of only one county, the county executive committee shall constitute the district executive committee for that district, and the county chairman shall be chairman of the district executive committee.

(3) For a district composed of only a part of one county, the precinct chairmen of the election precincts included within the district shall constitute the district executive committee. At the meeting of the county executive committee provided for in Section 186 of this code,<sup>1</sup> the precinct chairmen within the district shall elect one of their number to serve as chairman of the district executive committee; and a chairman shall be selected in this manner for each type of district and for each district composed of only a part of the county.

(4) Within three days after the aforesaid meeting of the county executive committee, the county chairman shall forward to the state chairman the names of the district committeemen and of the chairmen of the district committees who were selected at the meeting.

(5) At this same meeting of the county committee, the precinct chairmen in each commissioners precinct and justice precinct shall select one of their number to serve as chairman of the precinct executive committee for each respective commissioners precinct and justice precinct. The precinct chairmen of the election precincts within the commissioners precinct or justice precinct shall constitute the precinct committee.

Art. 13.18b. Names of Elected Party Officers to be Recorded

In certifying the names of the elected county chairman and precinct chairmen to the county clerk, as required by Section 196 of this code, the county chairman shall enter the names on a separate list from the list of party nominees certified by him. In the list he shall include the addresses and precinct numbers of the precinct chairmen and the address of the county chairman. He shall mail a copy of the list to the chairman of the state executive committee of the party. The county clerk shall record the names of the elected party officers, designating the office to which each person was elected, in the book provided for in Section 116 of this code.<sup>1</sup> The purpose of requiring certification of the names of the elected party officers is to provide a public record thereof, and the titles of the party offices and the names of the persons elected thereto shall not be placed on the general election ballot.

Art. 13.19. Supplies

The executive committee shall have a general supervision of the primary in such county, and shall be charged with the full responsibility for the distribution to the presiding judge of all supplies necessary for holding same in each precinct. If the duly appointed presiding officer shall fail to obtain from the executive committee the supplies for holding such election, such committee shall deliver the same to the precinct chairman for such precinct, and, if unable to deliver the same to such presiding officer or precinct chairman not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the time of opening the polls for such primary, such committee shall deliver the same to any qualified voter of the party residing in such precinct, taking his receipt therefor, and appointing him to hold such election in case such presiding officer or precinct chairman shall fail to appear at the time prescribed for opening the polls.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 197.]

Art. 13.20. Booths Used for Primary

The voting booths, ballot boxes and guard rails, prepared for a general election, may be used for the organized political party nominating by primary election.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 198.]

Art. 13.21. Lists of Voters

The county tax collector shall deliver to the chairman of the county executive committee of each political party, for its use in primary elections, original and supplemental lists of the qualified voters of each precinct in the county, and such chairman shall place the same for reference in the hands of the election officers of each election precinct before the polls are open. No primary election shall be legal unless such lists are obtained and used for reference during the election. Opposite the name of every voter on said list shall be stamped or written with pen and ink, when his vote is cast, the words "primary-voted," with the date of such primary under the same.

Art. 13.22. Precaution Against Fraud

The same precautions required by law to secure the purity of a ballot box in general elections, in regard to the ballot boxes, locking the ballot boxes, sealing the same, watchful care of them, the secrecy in preparing the ballot in the booth or place prepared for voting and the procedure involving the removal of the detachable stub and the depositing of the ballot and the stub in the proper boxes shall be observed in all primary elections.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 200.]

Art. 13.23. Ballots Delivered to County Clerk

Immediately after the counting of the ballots is completed as required in Section 101 of this code,<sup>1</sup> and not later than twenty-four hours after closing of the polls, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall deliver to the county clerk the ballot box containing ballots voted, in the manner prescribed in Section 114 of this code;<sup>2</sup> and all other provisions of Section 114 shall also apply to primary elections. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 201; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 92; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1915, ch. 723, § 52, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 13.24. Returns and Canvass

Immediately upon completion of counting of the ballots, as required in Section 101 of this code,<sup>1</sup> the presiding judge of each election precinct shall notify the chairman of the county executive committee either personally or by telephone of the results. He shall immediately thereafter make out returns of the same in the manner prescribed in Section 111 of this code<sup>2</sup> and shall immediately and not later than twenty-four hours after the closing of the polls, make the proper distribution of the returns and other records of the election as provided in Section 111b of this code.<sup>3</sup>

Upon receiving returns from each election precinct in the county, the chairman of the county executive committee shall order the members of the county executive committee to convene at the county seat of the county on the following Tuesday succeeding the day of such primary election, and the returns shall be opened by the committee in executive session and shall be canvassed by them. The results recording the state of the polls in each precinct shall be entered in the book provided for in Section 116 of this code<sup>4</sup> by the county clerk, and the chairman of the county executive committee shall furnish to the county clerk the necessary information for compliance with this provision. Upon relation of the county chairman, the county attorney shall immediately institute mandamus proceedings in the proper court to compel delinquent returning officers to make proper returns as required by law, and it shall be the duty of the county chairman and county clerk to notify the county attorney of the delinquency.

Art. 13.24a. Precinct Returns Forwarded to Secretary of State

Subd. 1. Within 30 days after each primary election, the chairman of the county executive committee shall forward to the Secretary of State a report of the number of votes cast for each candidate for a statewide office in each precinct of the county. The report may be in the form of either transcribed or photographic copies of the precinct returns for the statewide offices as made by the presiding judges of the election, or in the form of a tabulated statement compiled from the official canvass by the county executive committee, or in such other form as the Secretary of State approves for reporting the information to him.

Subd. 2. The Secretary of State shall preserve all information received under the provisions of Subdivision 1 of this section as public records of his office, either in the form in which the information is reported to him or in the form of a tabulated statement prepared by him from the reports received from the county chairman, for a period of 10 years, after which time he may transfer the records to the records management division of the State Library for further retention for a period of 20 years. At the expiration of 30 years from the date of the election, the State Librarian may dispose of the records in accordance with the procedure outlined in Chapter 494, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959.

Where the Secretary of State prepares a tabulated statement from reports furnished to him by the county chairman, he shall preserve the reports for a period of five years, after which time he may transfer them to the records management division of the State Library, and the State Librarian may dispose of them in accordance with the procedure outlined in Chapter 494, Acts of the 56th Legislature, Regular Session, 1959.

Art. 13.25. Canvass by Committee

At the meeting of the county executive committee provided for in the preceding section, returns from the election precincts of the county shall be canvassed by the committee in accordance with the provisions of this section. Such canvass shall include an actual checking and comparison of the poll lists with the tally lists and return sheets, and a mere tabulation of votes as shown by the return sheets shall not be deemed a compliance with this provision. All discovered errors in the returns shall be corrected before the results of the election are certified, and upon the sworn statement of any candidate filed with the committee within seven days after the date of canvass, setting out any alleged error in the primary election returns as certified by the chairman of the committee, the committee shall be reconvened for the investigation and consideration of such alleged error, which provision is hereby declared to be mandatory and may be enforced by writ of mandamus. When the votes have been canvassed in accordance with the foregoing provisions and the result thereof declared by the committee, the chairman of the committee shall make a list of the candidates for county and precinct offices who received the necessary vote to nominate and shall certify the same and deliver it to the county clerk of the county. At the meeting of the committee after the general primary, in case no candidate received a majority of the votes the county executive committee shall determine the two candidates who received the highest number of votes cast for all candidates for the particular office and order their names printed on the ballot for the second primary.

Art. 13.26. Tie in Primary

If, upon a canvass of the returns of the first primary election, it appears that for a county or precinct office, the two (2) highest candidates have received an equal number of votes, then the names of such two (2) highest candidates shall be certified for places on the ballot of the second primary, unless the said candidates shall agree in writing to cast lots for such nomination. In case the second and third highest candidates in that race shall be tied and no one has a majority the provisions of Section 181 [art. 13.03] shall govern. Should a tie vote result from any contest in the second primary election, then the executive committee shall provide for the casting of lots in the presence of said candidates, and that candidate who shall be successful by lot shall be certified as the nominee for such office.

Art. 13.26a. Withdrawal of Candidate in Second Primary

Any candidate whose name is to appear on a second primary ballot may withdraw as a candidate by filing with the chairman of the state executive committee in the case of a state or district office, and with the chairman of the county executive committee in the case of a county or precinct office, not later than twenty days prior to the day of the election, a signed request, duly acknowledged by him, that his name not be printed on the ballot at such election. If one of the candidates withdraws, the remaining of the two highest candidates shall be certified as the nominee and a runoff election for nomination to that office shall not be held.

Art. 13.27. Canvass by State Executive Committee

(a) The chairman of the executive committee for each county shall immediately prepare, within twenty-four hours after the vote in the primary election has been canvassed by the county executive committee as provided in Section 202 of this code,<sup>1</sup> a tabulated statement of the votes cast in his county for each candidate for each nomination for a state, district, county or precinct office, and of those cast for county chairman and precinct chairman, and within that twenty-four-hour period mail such statement as to a state or district office, in a sealed envelope by registered or certified letter to the chairman of the state executive committee, who shall present the same to the state executive committee as herein provided.

(b) On the second Tuesday following the day of the general primary in May, the state executive committee shall meet at a place selected at the meeting held on the second Monday in March preceding, and shall open and canvass the returns of the election as to candidates for state and district offices, as certified by the various county chairmen, and shall prepare a tabulated statement showing the number of votes received by each such candidate in each county, which statement shall be approved by the state committee and certified by its chairman. In the event any candidate for a district office received in the general primary the necessary vote to nominate, within twenty days after the canvass the chairman of the state executive committee shall certify the name of such candidate to the Secretary of State, to be printed upon the official ballot for the general election as a candidate of the party for the office to which he was nominated. If such returns show that for any state or district office no candidate received a majority of all the votes cast for all candidates for such office, the committee shall prepare a list of the two candidates receiving the highest vote for each office for which no candidate received a majority and shall certify same to the county chairmen of the several counties to be placed upon the official ballot as candidates for office at the second primary election to be held on the first Saturday in June thereafter.

(c) Not later than the third Saturday in June of each election year, the state executive committee shall meet at the call of the chairman fixing the date of the meeting, at a place selected at the meeting held on the second Tuesday following the day of the general primary, and shall open and canvass the returns of the second primary election as to candidates for state and district offices as certified by the various county chairmen to the state chairman, and shall prepare a tabulated statement showing the number of votes received by each such candidate in each county, which statement shall be approved by the state committee and certified by its chairman. Within twenty days thereafter, the chairman of the state executive committee shall certify to the Secretary of State, the names of the district candidates receiving the highest vote, to be placed on the general election ballot.

(d) Within twenty days after the date of each canvass, the chairman of the state executive committee shall forward a copy of the tabulated statement prepared by the committee to the Secretary of State, who shall file such statement in the records of his office.

Art. 13.29. To Publish Nominees

The County Clerk, under his official hand and seal, shall cause the names of the candidates who have received the necessary vote to nominate as directed by the county executive committee and as certified by the chairman of said committee, for each office, to be published in some newspaper published in the county, if any there be, but if there be no newspaper published in the county, then he shall post a list of such names in at least five (5) public places in the county, one (1) of which notices shall be posted at the courthouse door. Provided, that if a contest for the nomination for any county or precinct office in the county be pending, posting and/or publication as to that office shall be deferred until the contest is finally determined after which, he shall post or publish as to that particular office as hereinabove set out.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 207.]

Art. 13.30. Contest of Primary Nominations

(1) The district court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all contests for nominations growing out of primary elections.

(2) The venue of suits or contests between candidates for nomination for State office and United States Senator and Congressman-at-large is hereby fixed in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, unless the parties shall agree upon some other county. The venue of suits between candidates involving party nomination for district offices and United States Congressman shall be in the county in which the fraud or illegality is alleged to have occurred, or in the county that may be agreed upon by the parties. The venue of suits involving party nominations for precinct or county offices shall be fixed as in the county where such cause of action originated. Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the district court in the county where any such contest may be filed from changing the venue to some other adjacent county, upon showing of adequate cause, and in the event of any such change of venue, the district court of the county to which such contest is transferred shall be governed by all the provisions of this Act.

(3) Any candidate desiring to contest the result of any primary election in which he was a candidate shall file his suit in the district court within ten days from the date of canvass of the results of the election by the state executive committee in the case of a state-wide office or a district office in a district which includes territory situated in more than one county, and within ten days from the date of canvass by the county executive committee in the case of a county or precinct office or a district office in a district which consists of only one county or part of one county. Process with a true copy of the petition or complaint attached thereto shall be served upon the opposite party as in other civil suits, except that the return day thereof shall be fixed by the district judge. If the contestee cannot be found within the county in which the contest is filed, service may be had upon the agent or attorney of the contestee, or by leaving the process with some person over the age of sixteen years at the usual place of abode or business of the contestee, or his last address. If service cannot be effected within three days in any of the above methods, service upon the contestee may be had by serving the county clerk in the county where suit is filed, and any candidate who files for a place on the ballot in the primary election shall thereby appoint such county clerk as his agent to receive service for him under the circumstances above set forth. If a candidate for a district office in a district which includes territory situated in more than one county files a contest in one or more counties without filing a contest in every county having territory within the district, the contestee shall have five days from the date of first service of process on him in the suit or suits filed by the contestant, in which to file a contest in such other counties of the district as he may desire to do. In a suit filed by a contestee under the authorization of the preceding sentence, the parties shall be designated, and the suit shall proceed, in the same manner as original contests filed under this Section. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the contestee in a pending suit from himself filing a contest as a contestant, within ten days from the applicable date of canvass, in the district court of any county having venue of the contest preceding.

(4) The filing of the suit shall be immediately called to the attention of the district judge by the clerk of said court. If the district court be then in session, the judge thereof shall set the said contest for trial at a date not more than ten (10) days from the date of the filing of said contest. If the district court be not in session at said time, the judge thereof shall order a special term of said court to be convened not later than ten (10) days from the filing of such contest for the hearing of same, and in either case, the said contest shall have precedence over all other matters.

(5) For good cause shown, supported by affidavit of either party, the trial of said contest, in the discretion of the court, may be postponed one (1) time for not exceeding five (5) days.

(6) The contestee shall file his answer within five (5) days from the filing of such suit, but either party, or both, shall have the right to amend before announcing ready for trial and set up additional causes of action or matters of defense, as the case may be. Any further changes in the pleadings shall be within the sound discretion of the court.

(7) In the trial of such cause the trial judge shall have wide discretion as to matters of pleading, procedure and admissibility of evidence, the purpose of this Section being to subserve the ends of justice, rather than strict compliance with technical rules of pleading, procedure, and evidence.

(8) The said court shall have the power to appoint commissioners to sit at such places as the court may designate for the purpose of hearing testimony, reducing same to writing and reporting same to said court, said court shall also have the power to issue all orders that may be necessary or proper to compel the production before said court or any commissioner appointed by said court of all ballot boxes and instrumentalities proper to determine the issue raised by such contest, and to send by proper process to any county in the State, for the officers of the election or the custodians of ballot boxes for the purpose of aiding in, ascertaining and determining any matter or thing necessary or proper in connection with the trial of said contest.

(9) Upon the trial of said cause, the court shall have full power and authority to hear and determine all matters and things necessary or proper to the determination of such election contest, including the manner of holding the election, any frauds or irregularities in the conduct thereof, or in the making of the returns thereof, illegal votes cast at said election or legal votes prevented from being cast, false calculations, certificates or returns, and to exercise all powers of the court, in order to fully inquire into and ascertain the true and correct result of such election, free from any fraud, irregularity or mistake.

(10) In addition to the powers and authority heretofore granted to the district courts, where fraud or illegality is charged, if such charges of fraud or illegality be supported by some evidence, or by affidavit of reputable persons, and the ends of justice seem to require it, the court shall have authority to unseal and reopen the ballot boxes to determine controverted issues, and the court may recount, or under its direction cause to be recounted, the ballots cast in any or all precincts of the county to determine the true result of such election. In all such cases in which a reopening of ballot boxes is ordered, the court shall exercise all due diligence to preserve the secrecy of the ballots, and upon completion of such recount, the said ballot boxes with their original contents shall be resealed and redelivered to the county clerk.

(11) When the District Court shall have decided the contest, unless notice of appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals be given and an appeal bond filed within five (5) days, the said Court shall certify its findings to the officers charged with the duty of providing the official ballot for the ensuing election for observance in the preparation of the ballot for that particular party. The trial Court shall further fix a time within which the record in the trial Court shall be filed in the appellate Court, and make all such other orders in the cause as in his discretion may be necessary and expedient in order to expedite such appeal.

(12) In all contests for party nominations filed in the district courts under authority of this Act, either party thereto may appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals for that particular Supreme Judicial district, which appeal shall be advanced upon the docket of said court and shall have precedence over all other cases. Provided, that no appeal in such cases shall be dismissed as moot merely because of possible interference with the printing of the official ballot unless the appellant has been guilty of negligence in perfecting and prosecuting such appeal, but such appellate court shall retain jurisdiction of such appeal and expeditiously dispose of same. Upon decision of the appeal by the Court of Civil Appeals no motion for rehearing shall be filed except with approval of the court given within three (3) days after such decision. The Supreme Court of Texas shall have no jurisdiction to review any election contest filed under this Act by writ of error, certified question, or any other manner.

Art. 13.31. Name Printed on Ballot

After the names of the successful candidates have been published or posted in compliance with Section 207 [art. 13.29], and all contests, if any, have been determined, the county clerk shall cause the names of all the nominees to be printed on the official ballot in the column for the ticket of that party. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 209.]

Art. 13.32. To Post Names of Candidates

Each county clerk shall post in a conspicuous place in his office, for the inspection of the public the names of all candidates that have been lawfully certified to him to be printed on the official ballot, for at least ten (10) days before he orders the same to be printed on said ballot; and he shall order all the names of the candidates so certified printed on the official ballot as otherwise provided in this title. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 210.]

Art. 13.33. Referendum on Platform Demands

No political party in this state which is required to nominate its candidates by primary election shall, in convention assembled, place in the platform or resolutions of the party any demand for specific legislation on any subject, unless the demand for such specific legislation shall have been submitted to a direct vote at the general primary election of such party next preceding the state convention and shall have been endorsed by a majority of all the votes cast in such primary election. The state executive committee may submit, at the general primary election, any demand for specific legislation on any subject, or any other matter, which may be proposed for inclusion in the platform or resolutions of the party, and upon petition of five per cent of the voters of the party, as shown by the total number of votes cast for Governor at the last preceding general primary, the state executive committee shall submit any such question or questions to the voters at the next general primary.

Art. 13.34. Precinct, County, and Senatorial District Conventions

(a) On the first Saturday after the general primary election day in each election year, there shall be held in each county a county convention of each party holding primary elections; provided, however, that except as provided in the last sentence of this subsection, whenever the territory of a county forms all or part of more than one state senatorial district, in lieu of the county convention in such county there shall be held on the day stated above a convention (hereinafter called senatorial district convention) in each part of the county constituting all or part of each of such senatorial districts. Each county convention or senatorial district convention shall be composed of one delegate from each election precinct in such county or senatorial district or part thereof for each twenty-five votes, or major fraction thereof, cast for the party's candidate for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding general election, which delegate or delegates shall be elected by the qualified members of the party in each precinct at precinct conventions to be held on the general primary election day. In case at the preceding general election there were cast for such candidate for Governor less than twenty-five votes in any precinct, then all such precincts shall elect one delegate. Where the boundaries of an election precinct have been changed or a new precinct formed since the last general election, the county executive committee shall allocate to each such precinct the number of delegates to be elected in that precinct, and may use any fair and reasonable method for making the allocation. However, notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, in any county which forms all or part of two senatorial districts, the less populous of which has a population of less than 50,000 persons, according to the last preceding federal census, there shall be held one county convention in lieu of the two senatorial district conventions which would otherwise be required by this subsection.

(b) At the meeting of the state executive committee provided for in Section 190 of this code,<sup>1</sup> the committee shall set the ratio for the selection of delegates to the state conventions of that party for that election year, which ratio shall be one delegate for not less than each three hundred votes and not more than each six hundred votes cast for the party's candidate for Governor in each county or in each part of a county forming all or part of a state senatorial district; and the state chairman shall notify the county chairman of each county and the temporary chairman of each senatorial district convention of the ratio set for that year's conventions within ten days after the date of such meeting. Each county convention or senatorial district convention shall elect one delegate for each such number of votes, or major fraction thereof, as set by the state committee. If at the preceding general election there were cast for the party's candidate for Governor in the territory represented at the convention less than the number set by the state committee, then the convention shall elect one delegate. In the state conventions each county or each part of a county which holds a senatorial district convention shall be entitled to one vote for each delegate which it is entitled to elect.

The delegates so elected shall be delegates for all state conventions held throughout the remainder of the year and such of them as may attend such state conventions shall cast the votes for the territory which they represent in such conventions.

(c) The qualified members of the party in each election precinct of the county shall assemble on the date named and shall be called to order by the precinct chairman, or in his absence by any qualified member of the party residing within the precinct. Before transacting any business, the precinct chairman shall cause to be made a list of all qualified members of the party present. The name of no person shall be entered upon the list nor shall he be permitted to vote, be present at, or participate in the business of the convention until it is made to appear that he is a qualified voter in the precinct, from a certified list of the qualified voters, the same as is required in conducting a general election, and that he has qualified as a member of the party as provided in Section 179a of this code.<sup>2</sup> The precinct convention shall elect from among those present and qualified a permanent chairman and such other officers as may be necessary to conduct its business. The chairman of the convention shall possess all the power and authority that is given to election judges by the provisions of this code. After the convention is organized it shall elect its delegates to the county convention or senatorial district convention, as the case may be, and transact such other business as may properly come before it. The only qualifications for serving as a delegate to a county or senatorial district convention, or to a state convention, are that the person shall be a qualified voter residing within the territory which he is selected to represent and shall be affiliated with the party as prescribed in Section 179a of this code. Such of the delegates selected at the precinct convention as may attend the county or senatorial district convention shall cast the number of votes equal to the full delegate strength of the precinct. The officers of the precinct convention shall keep a written record of its proceedings, including the list of persons present and a list of delegates elected to the county or senatorial district convention, with the residence address of each delegate shown thereon, which shall constitute the returns from the convention. The record, and a copy thereof, shall be signed officially, sealed up and safely transmitted in person or by registered mail by the permanent chairman of the precinct convention within three days after the precinct convention to the county clerk of the county, who shall affix his file mark thereto and who shall promptly deliver the original copy of such return to the chairman of the county executive committee, and the return filed with the county clerk shall be open to public inspection during the regular office hours.

(d) The chairman of the county executive committee shall deliver the lists of delegates named by the precinct conventions in the county to the county convention, or shall deliver the appropriate precinct lists to each of the temporary chairmen of the senatorial district conventions to be held within the county, as the case may be, and these lists shall constitute the temporary roll of those selected as delegates to the county convention or senatorial district conventions and only delegates on such temporary roll shall be permitted to vote in the temporary organization of the convention. No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at a county convention or senatorial district convention. The county chairman shall be the temporary chairman of the county convention. The senatorial district committeeman selected as provided in Section 196a of this code shall be the temporary chairman of the senatorial district convention for a part of a county which is joined with other territory in a senatorial district, and the chairman of the district executive committee selected as provided in Section 196a of this code<sup>3</sup> shall be the temporary chairman in a district composed of only a part of one county. After being called to order by the temporary chairman, the convention shall elect a permanent chairman and such other officers as may be necessary to conduct its business. Immediately upon the adjournment of each such county or senatorial district convention, the permanent chairman thereof shall make out a certified list of the delegates chosen, together with a copy of all resolutions adopted by the convention, and shall sign the same, the permanent secretary of such convention attesting his signature, and within five days after the convention shall forward such certified list, resolutions and copies of each thereof by sealed registered or certified letter to the Secretary of State in Austin, Texas, who shall affix his file mark thereon and who shall deliver the originals thereof to the chairman of the state executive committee, prior to any state convention. The state chairman shall call a meeting of the state executive committee, which shall, at the meeting, prepare a complete list of the delegates elected to the state conventions by each county convention or senatorial district convention as certified by the Secretary of State. The chairman shall then present the certified list to any state convention, at any time prior to its beginning, and such lists shall constitute the temporary roll of those selected as delegates to such conventions, and only delegates on such temporary roll shall be permitted to vote in the temporary organization of any such state convention. No person shall be permitted to hold a proxy or vote a proxy at a state convention from more than one county.

(e) The county executive committee in its meeting on the third Monday in March preceding the general primary, provided for in Section 195 of this code,<sup>4</sup> or, upon its failure to act, the county chairman shall determine the hour and place at which the precinct conventions shall be held on primary election day. The time for convening of the precinct convention in each precinct must be set between the hours of two o'clock p. m. and nine o'clock p. m. The county chairman shall then be required to post a copy of this order on a bulletin board at the county courthouse and file a copy of the same in the office of the county clerk, where it shall be open to public inspection. This notice shall be posted and filed by the county chairman at least ten days prior to the holding of the precinct conventions. Also at this meeting the county executive committee, or, upon its failure to act, the county chairman, shall decide the hour and place at which the county convention shall be held, and the county chairman shall post this order on the bulletin board at the county courthouse and also file a copy of this notice with the county clerk, at least ten days prior to the date of the county convention. When senatorial district conventions are to be held in a county in lieu of the county convention, at this meeting the precinct chairmen for the election precincts which will select delegates to each senatorial district convention, or upon their failure to act, the temporary chairman of the convention, shall decide the hour and place at which each respective senatorial district convention shall be held, and each temporary chairman shall post this order on the bulletin board at the county courthouse and also file a copy of this notice with the county clerk, at least ten days prior to the date of the convention. Should the above-designated persons fail to post such orders and file such notices, then any member of the county executive committee who was entitled to participate in the decision may post such orders and file such notices and such shall constitute the orders and notices required herein. Should more than one member of the county executive committee post such orders and file such notices, then the first posting and filing in point of time shall prevail.

(f) Representatives of newspapers, wire news services, and radio and television stations shall have the right to attend the precinct conventions, the county conventions, the senatorial district conventions, and the state conventions for the purpose of reporting the proceedings thereof.

(g) All nominees for the Legislature or the United States Congress and all state representatives, state senators and members of Congress shall be entitled to admission to the state conventions of their party, but unless elected as a delegate they shall not be entitled to vote or otherwise participate in the affairs of the convention.

(h) No person shall be ineligible to serve as a delegate to any county, senatorial district, state or national convention of any political party by reason of his holding any public office.

Art. 13.34a. Refusing Employee Privilege of Attending Precinct Convention

It shall be unlawful for any employer to refuse to an employee the privilege of attending a precinct convention of a political party with which the employee is affiliated or is eligible to affiliate. An employer shall not be required to compensate an employee for the time the employee is absent for the purpose of attending a precinct convention, but the employee shall not be subjected to any other penalty or deduction of wages because of the exercise of such privilege. Any employer who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Art. 13.35. Place for State Convention

At the meeting of the State Executive Committee held on the second Monday in March preceding each general primary election the said committee shall decide upon the hour and place where the State convention of the party shall be held on the third Tuesday in September, 1960, and each two (2) years thereafter. The chairman of the State executive committee shall file with the Secretary of State a notice of the hour and place of holding the State convention and a copy of such notice shall be mailed to the county chairman of that party in each county in the State at least ten (10) days before the convention is held.

Art. 13.37. State Convention to Canvass

The State convention shall canvass the vote cast in the entire State for each candidate for each State office as shown by the statement thereof presented to it by the State committee, and shall declare the candidate for each State office who has received a majority of votes cast for all candidates for such office in the first primary election, if any candidate receives a majority of all the votes cast for all the candidates for such office at said primary election, and if no candidate received such majority, then it shall declare the candidate who received a majority of all votes cast for such office at the second primary election, the nominee of the party for such office; and the chairman and the secretary of the State convention shall forthwith certify all such nominations to the Secretary of State. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 215.]

Art. 13.38. State Convention

The state convention to announce a platform of principles and to announce nominations for Governor and other state offices, held by a political party making nominations by primary election, shall meet on the third Tuesday in September of each even-numbered year at such place as may be determined by the state executive committee as provided in Section 213 of this Code,<sup>1</sup> and shall remain in session from day to day until all nominations are announced and the work of the convention is finished. The convention shall elect a chairman and a vice-chairman of the state executive committee, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, and sixty-two members thereof, two from each senatorial district of the state, one of whom shall be a man and the other a woman, the members of the committee to be those who shall be recommended by the delegates representing the counties composing the senatorial districts respectively, each county voting its convention strength, each of whom shall hold office until his successor is elected; and, in case of a vacancy, a majority of the members of the committee shall fill the vacancy by electing some eligible person thereto, but such person shall be of the same sex as the vacating member and from the same senatorial district.

At any meeting of the state executive committee a person cannot hold a proxy or participate in such meeting unless he is a resident of the same senatorial district as the member giving the proxy, and no person shall be permitted to hold or vote more than one proxy.

Art. 13.41. Mandamus

Any executive committee or committeeman or primary officer or other person charged under any provision of this code with any duty relative to the holding of the primary election, or the canvassing, determination or declaration of the result thereof, or the holding of any party convention, may be compelled by mandamus to perform the same in accordance with the provisions of this code.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 218; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1921, ch. 723, § 58, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 13.42. Spirit of Law

No immaterial error made by any officer of a primary election, or any immaterial violation of the primary election laws by an elector, shall vitiate any election held under this title, nor be the cause of throwing out the vote of any election precinct.

Art. 13.43. Contest of primary

Except for a place on party tickets for public elective offices, all contests within a political party shall be decided by the State, district, or county executive committee, as the nature of the office may require each such committee to retain all such powers and authority now conferred by law.

Art. 13.43a. Contests for Office of Precinct Chairman or County Chairman

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Code, and particularly notwithstanding Section 220<sup>1</sup> thereof, the district courts of this state are vested hereby with jurisdiction to hear and determine election contests relative to the party offices of precinct chairman and county chairman, the same as though it were a contest for a place on a party ticket for public office.

Art. 13.43b. Party Rules

Subd. 1. On a date no later than 30 days prior to the first precinct convention to be held in 1972, each political party with a State-wide organization which made any nomination for the 1970 general election or plans to make any nomination for the 1972 general election shall file with the Secretary of State a set of specific, detailed, and written party rules for the conduct of its conventions, executive meetings, and any other party meetings.

Subd. 2. The rules shall state, or adopt by reference, the rules of parliamentary procedure which govern the conduct of the party's conventions and meetings from the precinct level through the State level, including rules on quorums, methods by which votes shall be cast and counted, the operation of committees, the appointment and duties of convention committees, presentation of delegate nominations, presentation of resolutions and other matters for consideration by a convention, and the method of selecting presidential elector candidates. Further, the rules shall provide for the nomination, election and formulae for representative apportionment within the State of all party officials, convention delegates and alternates, and convention officials, except for those party officials whose election is presently provided by statute. Any formulae for apportionment adopted in the rules of any party must be based upon relative population or party strength within participating units, or both. The rules must provide for the periodic and timely publicizing of such rules, the processes and procedures by which the party rules and procedures must be adopted and amended, and any other matters within the discretion of the party. They may not conflict with any statutory prescription or prohibition, and they need not embrace matters which are regulated by statute.

Subd. 3. The chairman of the State Executive Committee of the party is responsible for filing a copy of the rules with the Secretary of State, but any member of the State Executive Committee may file the rules if the chairman fails to do so. The rules must be certified by the State chairman or by two other members of the State committee as having been adopted at a State Convention of the party, with the date and place of holding the convention shown in the certificate, except that temporary rules for 1972 may be adopted by the State Executive Committee of the party subject to action by the next State Convention as provided in Subdivision 6. These party rules shall be published and made available through State party headquarters to any interested person on request. Such rules may provide for amendment by action of the State Party Executive Committee.

Subd. 4. The rules may be changed only by action of a State Convention. When any change is made, a certified copy of the changes shall be filed with the Secretary of State, in the manner described in Subdivision 3, not later than 30 days following their adoption.

Subd. 5. The rules as filed with the Secretary of State shall govern the conduct of the party's conventions and the meetings of its executive committees. Observance of a rule may be enforced through mandamus proceedings as provided in Section 218 of this code and Chapter 723, Acts of the 60th Legislature, 1967 (Article 1735a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the same as if the rule were embraced in this code.

Subd. 6. If on January 1 of a year in which a general election is held, a party which had nominees on the ballot at either of the last three general elections has not filed a set of rules in accordance with this section, the Secretary of State shall give written notice to the State chairman of the party within 15 days thereafter, informing him that no nominee of the party will be placed on the ballot for the general election that year unless the rules are filed not later than 30 days prior to the first precinct convention to be held that year, provided that for 1972, the State Executive Committee of the party may adopt temporary rules to be ratified in accordance with this subdivision. Any duly constituted, properly representative committee of the party, on authorization of the State chairman or a majority of the State Executive Committee, may draft temporary rules to be put into effect by a majority vote of the State Executive Committee. These temporary rules must be submitted, with advance publicity preceding their presentation, as an item of business on the official agenda of the party's next State Convention for debate, amendment and permanent ratification. The Secretary of State shall notify each county clerk, not later than the date of the general primary election that year, of any such political party which has failed to comply with the requirements of this section. Neither the Secretary of State nor any county clerk may accept a certification of nominations made by a defaulting party for the general election that year, and no nominee of that party may be placed on the ballot for the election.

Art. 13.44. Parties of Ten Thousand (10,000) and Less Than Two Hundred Thousand (200,000)

The provisions of Articles 2980,<sup>1</sup> 3008,<sup>2</sup> and 3012,<sup>3</sup> Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended by this Act, relative to the form, numbering and secrecy of the ballot, as well as the procedure involving the selection of the ballot and the removal of the detachable stub, shall apply to all primary elections as well as those held under or by authority of Chapter 467, Acts, Second Called Session, Forty-fourth Legislature, as amended,<sup>4</sup> except as provided in Section 7 hereof.<sup>5</sup>

Art. 13.45. Nominations by Parties Receiving Less Than 20 Percent of Vote for Governor

Parties Receiving More Than Two Percent of Vote for Governor

Subd. 1. Beginning with the year 1976, any political party whose nominee for Governor in the last preceding gubernatorial general election received as many as two percent but not more than 20 percent of the total votes cast for Governor must nominate its candidates for the general election by conventions as provided in Sections 224 and 225 of this code.<sup>1</sup> In the year 1974, a party whose candidate for Governor received as many as two percent but less than 20 percent of the total votes cast for Governor in the general election held in 1972 may make its nominations by primary elections or by conventions. The state executive committee of a party which has a choice as to the method of nomination in 1974 shall decide, and by resolution declare, whether the party nominations will be made by conventions or by primary elections, and shall certify their decision to the Secretary of State not later than 12 months before the 1974 general election.

Parties Receiving Less Than Two Percent of Vote for Governor

Subd. 2. Any political party whose nominee for governor received less than two percent of the total votes cast for governor in the last preceding general election, or any new party, or any previously existing party which did not have a nominee for governor in the last preceding general election, may also nominate candidates by conventions as provided in Sections 224 and 225,<sup>2</sup> but in order to have the names of its nominees printed on the general election ballot there must be filed with the secretary of state, within 20 days after the date for holding the party's state convention, the list of participants in precinct conventions held by the party in accordance with Sections 222a and 224 of this code,<sup>3</sup> signed and certified by the temporary chairman of each respective precinct convention, listing the names, addresses (including street address or post-office address), and registration certificate numbers of qualified voters attending such precinct conventions in an aggregate number of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last preceding general election; or if the number of qualified voters attending the precinct conventions is less than that number, there must be filed along with the precinct lists a petition requesting that the names of the party's nominees be printed on the general election ballot, signed by a sufficient number of additional qualified voters to make a combined total of at least one percent of the total votes cast for governor at the last general election. The address and registration certificate number of each signer shall be shown on the petition. No person who, during that voting year, has voted at any primary election or participated in any convention of any other party shall be eligible to sign the petition. To each person who signs the petition there shall be administered the following oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to the petition: "I know the contents of the foregoing petition, requesting that the names of the nominees of the _____ Party be printed on the ballot for the next general election. I am a qualified voter at the next general election under the constitution and laws in force, and during the current voting year I have not voted in any primary election or participated in any convention held by any other political party." The petition may be in multiple parts. One certificate of the officer administering the oath may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered. The petition may not be circulated for signatures until after the date set by Section 181<sup>4</sup> of this code for the general primary election. Any signatures obtained on or before that date are void. Any person who signs a petition after having voted in a primary election or participated in a convention of any other party during the same voting year is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $500.

The chairman of the state executive committee shall be responsible for forwarding the precinct lists and petition to the secretary of state.

At the time the secretary of state makes his certifications to the county clerks as provided in Section 3 of this code,<sup>5</sup> he shall also certify to the county clerks the names of parties subject to this subdivision which have complied with its requirements, and the county clerks shall not place on the ballot the names of any nominees of such a party which have been certified directly to them unless the secretary of state certifies that the party has complied with these requirements.

Art. 13.45a. Regulation of Party Affairs and Conventions

Party Holding Primary Elections

Subd. 1. If a political party whose nominee for Governor in the last preceding general election received less than two hundred thousand votes has chosen to make its nominations by the primary election method, the management of its party affairs and the conduct of its conventions during that election year shall be subject to the provisions of this code relating to the affairs and conventions of parties which are required to hold primaries.

Party Not Holding Primary Elections

Subd. 2. The management of party affairs and the conduct of conventions of political parties which are making nominations by the convention method are not subject to the provisions of Sections 196, 196a, 196b, 212, 213, 215, and 216 of this code.<sup>1</sup> Except as to matters regulated in this code by express provisions applying to such parties, each such party has authority to regulate its affairs and convention procedures.

Time and Place of Precinct and County Conventions

Subd. 3. The county executive committee of each political party which is making nominations by the convention method shall determine, at a meeting held at least twenty days before the date of the precinct conventions, the hour and place of holding each precinct convention in such county, as well as the hour and place of holding the county convention. Should the county executive committee fail to do so, it shall be the duty of the county chairman to make such determination. It shall be the duty of the county chairman to post a notice of the hours and places of holding the conventions on a bulletin board at the county courthouse and to file a copy thereof in the office of the county clerk at least ten days prior to the precinct conventions. The notice filed with the county clerk shall be open to inspection by the public during office hours of the clerk. Failure of the county chairman to post or to file the above notice as provided herein shall make such chairman ineligible to be a delegate or alternate delegate, or to hold or vote a proxy at the next succeeding county, district and state conventions of the party.

Should the county chairman fail to file with the county clerk a notice of the hour and place of holding the precinct convention in any precinct, then any qualified voter, resident in such precinct, may file with the county clerk a notice of the hour and place of holding such precinct convention, and such shall constitute the legal hour and place therefor. Should more than one such qualified voter file such notice, then the first filing in point of time shall prevail. A certificate of the county clerk as to the filing or nonfiling of any notice provided in this section shall be conclusive.

Neither the county chairman nor the county executive committee shall appoint any precinct chairman during that period of time subsequent to the posting and filing of notices for the precinct conventions and prior to the time of holding such precinct conventions. Nothing herein, however, shall prevent qualified voters of a precinct having no chairman from meeting, electing their own chairman and holding a precinct convention of such party, but if an hour and place therefor has been designated in either of the methods provided above, then the convention shall be held at such hour and place.

The county convention of any such party shall be held in a public place at the county seat.

Precinct Convention Lists of Certain Parties

Subd. 4. At each precinct convention of a party subject to the provisions of Subdivision 2 of Section 222 of this code,<sup>2</sup> the precinct chairman shall serve as the temporary chairman of the convention until a permanent chairman is elected. The temporary chairman shall cause a list to be made of the names of all persons attending the convention and participating therein, together with the address (including street address or post office address) and registration certificate number of each participant. Within three days after the precinct convention, he shall officially sign and certify to the list and shall transmit one signed, certified copy to the chairman of the state executive committee of the party, and shall file another signed, certified copy in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein the precinct is situated.

Art. 13.46. State Committee to Determine Mode of Nomination

The state committee of a political party which is not required by law to make nominations by primary election shall decide, and by resolution declare, whether the party nominations will be made by conventions or by primary elections, and shall certify their decision to the Secretary of State not later than twelve months before the general election. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 223; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 12; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 102.]

Art. 13.47. Conventions of Parties Not Required to Hold Primary

Political parties which are not required by law to make nominations by primary election may make nominations by conventions as provided herein.

Nominations for statewide offices shall be made at a state convention, which shall be held on the second Saturday in June of the election year, and which shall be composed of delegates selected in the various counties at county conventions held on the second Saturday in May. The county conventions shall be composed of delegates from the general election precincts of such counties elected therein at precinct conventions held in such precincts on the first Saturday in May.

Nominations for district offices of districts composed of more than one county or part thereof shall be made at district conventions held on the third Saturday in May of the election year, composed of delegates elected thereto from the counties having territory within the district, at the county conventions held on the second Saturday in May.

Nominations for county and precinct offices and for district offices of districts composed of only one county or part of one county shall be made at the county conventions held on the second Saturday in May.

The state executive committee of each party shall determine the formula by which the number of delegates to the county, district, and state conventions of that party shall be governed, and shall also formulate such rules as it deems desirable with respect to participation of delegates at a county convention in the nomination of candidates for precinct offices and for district offices of districts composed of only a part of the county, and in the election of delegates to a district convention where only a part of the county is included in the district. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 224; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 13; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 102; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1923, ch. 723, § 61, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 13.47a. Application for Nomination; Affidavit of Intent to Run; Filing

Sec. 1. No person shall be nominated by any state, district, or county convention held pursuant to Articles 222, 223 and 224<sup>1</sup> of this Code unless he has filed with the chairman of the appropriate executive committee an application requesting that his name be placed before the convention as a candidate for nomination. The application shall conform to the requirements of Article 190 of this Code (Article 13.12, Election Code, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and shall be filed in the same manner and within the time prescribed by that Article, except that it shall request that the candidate's name be placed before the convention instead of requesting that his name be placed on the general primary ballot.

Sec. 2. A person who has been nominated by a convention may decline the nomination, but he shall not be eligible for nomination by that party to any other office to be voted on at the same election except as a candidate for an unexpired term where the vacancy in office occurred subsequent to the date of the convention at which he was originally nominated.

Sec. 3. As a condition precedent to having a candidate's name printed on the official ballot under Article 227 or Article 230<sup>2</sup> of this Code, there must, in addition to the requirements of those two (2) Articles, be filed, with the person with whom the written application must, thereunder, be filed, an affidavit, duly acknowledged by the person desiring his name to be placed on the ballot stating his occupation, county of residence, post office address, age, and the office for which he intends to run. The affidavit must be filed at the same time requests under Article 190 of this Code must be filed.

Sec. 4. The requirements of Sections 1 and 3 shall not apply to candidates for unexpired terms where the vacancy in office occurs subsequent to the tenth day preceding the regular deadline for filing applications for a place on a primary election ballot as prescribed in Paragraph 2 of Section 190 of this Code.<sup>3</sup> The requirements of Section 3 shall not apply to independent candidates for any office for which the filing deadline in a primary election is extended under the provisions of Paragraph 2a of Section 190 of this Code.

Art. 13.48. Nominations Certified

Nominations so made by a state convention shall be certified by the chairman of the state executive committee of such party to the Secretary of State. Nominations made by a district convention shall be certified by the chairman of the district executive committee to the Secretary of State. Nominations made by a county convention for county and precinct offices shall be certified by the chairman of the county executive committee to the county clerk, and nominations for district offices shall be certified by said chairman to the Secretary of State. Nominations by party conventions must be certified to the proper officer within twenty days after the date of the convention at which the nomination was made. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 225; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 103.]

Art. 13.49. Illegal Participation

No person shall be allowed to participate in any such convention who has participated in the convention or primary of any other party held on the same day.

Art. 13.50. Non-partisan and Independent Candidates

The name of a nonpartisan or independent candidate may be printed on the official ballot in the column for independent candidates, after a written application signed by qualified voters addressed to the proper officer, as herein provided, and delivered to him within thirty days after the second primary election day, as follows:

If for an office to be voted for throughout the state, the application shall be signed by one per cent of the entire vote of the state cast for Governor at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of more than one county, the application shall be signed by three per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a district office in a district composed of only one county or part of one county, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such district at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the Secretary of State.

If for a county office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such county at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

If for a precinct office, the application shall be signed by five per cent of the entire vote cast for Governor in such precinct at the last preceding general election, and shall be addressed to the county judge.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, the number of signatures required on an application for any district, county, or precinct office need not exceed five hundred.

No application shall contain the name of more than one candidate. No person shall sign the application of more than one candidate for the same office; and if any person signs the application of more than one candidate for the same office, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. No person shall sign such application unless he is a qualified voter, and no person who has voted at either the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party shall sign an application in favor of anyone for an office for which a nomination was made at either such primary election.

The application shall contain the following information with respect to each person signing it: his address and the number of his poll tax receipt or exemption certificate and the county of issuance; or if he is exempt from payment of a poll tax and not required to obtain an exemption certificate, the application shall so state.

Any person signing the application of an independent candidate may withdraw and annul his signature by delivering to the candidate and to the officer with whom the application is filed (or is to be filed, if not then filed), his written request, signed and duly acknowledged by him, that his signature be cancelled and annulled. The request must be delivered before the application is acted on, and not later than the day preceding the last day for filing the application. Upon such withdrawal, the person shall be free to sign the application of another candidate for the same office.

Art. 13.51. Oath to Application

To every citizen who signs such application, there shall be administered the following oath, which shall be reduced to writing and attached to such application: "I know the contents of the foregoing application; I have not participated in the general primary election or the runoff primary election of any party which has nominated, at either such election, a candidate for the office for which I desire _____ (here insert the name of the candidate) to be a candidate; I am a qualified voter at the next general election under the Constitution and laws in force and have signed the above application of my own free will." One certificate of the officer before whom the oath is taken may be so made as to apply to all to whom it was administered.

Art. 13.52. Consent to Run

Upon receipt of an application which conforms to the above requirements, the Secretary of State shall issue his instruction to the county clerks of the state or of the district, as the case may require, and the county judge shall issue his instruction to the county clerk of the county, directing that the name of the candidate in whose favor the application is made shall be printed on the official ballot in the independent column under the title of the office for which he is a candidate; provided, that any candidate who is required by Section 224a of this Code<sup>1</sup> to file a statement of intent to become an independent candidate must have filed such statement in compliance with the provisions of that section, and any candidate not required to file such statement must file with the Secretary of State or the county judge, as the case may be, his written consent to become a candidate, within thirty days after the second primary election day.

Art. 13.53. Independent Candidates at City or Town Election

Independent candidates for office at a city or town election may have their names printed upon the official ballot on application signed by qualified voters addressed to the mayor, such application being in the same form and subject to the same requirements herein prescribed for application to be made to the Secretary of State or the county judge; provided, that in city elections it shall be necessary that the application be signed by qualified voters equaling five per cent of the entire vote cast for mayor at the last municipal election, or by twenty-five qualified voters, whichever is the lesser number; and the application and the candidate's written<sup>1</sup> consent must be filed at least thirty days prior to the election day. Provided further, that if the office is one to which two or more persons are to be elected, the application may be for as many candidates as there are persons to be elected to that office, and a voter may sign applications of candidates for that office in the number that is to be elected; but if he signs the applications of more than the number to be elected, the signature shall be void as to all such applications. And provided further, in elections for a city or town office, it shall not be necessary that independent candidates be nominated, but anyone otherwise qualified may have his name printed upon the official ballot for a particular office by filing his sworn application with the mayor at least thirty days prior to the election day and by paying such filing fees as may be required by statute or by charter provision.

Art. 13.54. By Parties without State Organization

Any political party without a State organization desiring to nominate candidates for county and precinct offices only may nominate such candidates therefor under the provisions of this title by primary elections or by a county convention held on the legal primary election day, which convention shall be composed of delegates from various election precincts in said county, elected therein at primary conventions held in such precincts between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. on the date set by law. All nominations made by any such parties shall be certified to the county clerk by the chairman of the county committee of such party, and, after taking the same course as nominations of other parties so certified, shall be printed on the official ballot in a separate column, headed by the name of the party; provided, a written application for such printing shall have been made to the county judge, signed and sworn to by three per cent (3%) of the entire vote cast in such county at the last general election.

Art. 13.55. For City and Town Elections

Each incorporated city or town in this State, whether incorporated under the general or special laws, may make nominations for office in the following manner: in each of said cities and towns there shall be an executive committee for each political party, consisting of a city chairman and one (1) member for each ward in such city or town, and in case such city or town is not divided into wards, for either political or election purposes, then there shall be selected four (4) members of said committee, in addition to the city chairman. If any city or town shall be divided into wards, for either political or election purposes, or both, then such party executive committee shall consist of one (1) member from each ward and a city chairman of such executive committee. Provided, however, that no city or town in this State shall have a smaller number than four (4) executive committeemen and a chairman of such executive committee. In all cities and towns which now have no executive committee, the county chairman of the party desiring to make nominations in such cities and towns shall appoint an executive committee to serve until the next city election shall be held, and in each city and town in this State in which a political party may desire to make nominations, there shall be held, at least thirty (30) days prior to the regular city election, an election at which there may be nominated by such political party, officers to be elected at the next city election, and at which election there shall be selected the executive committee for such party in said city or town herein provided for, and in all such city primary elections, the provisions of the law relating to primary elections and general elections shall be observed. The executive committee herein provided for may decide whether or not nominations shall be made by such political party in such city or town; provided, that upon petition being made to said city or county chairman, signed by twenty-five per cent (25%) of the voters of the party in such city, as shown by the last general State election, requesting that party nominations be made for city officers, then said city executive committee, through an order of its chairman, shall order a primary election or mass convention of the qualified voters of the party, as may be petitioned for by the voters presenting said petition, and it shall thereupon be the duty of said city executive committee to grant such request as shall be contained in such petition, and such primary election or mass convention shall be ordered, and it shall be mandatory upon such city or county chairman to order such election or mass convention to be held within ten (10) days from the time such petition is presented. At such primary election or mass convention a new executive committee shall be selected to serve during the ensuing terms; provided that this law shall not be construed so as to prevent independent candidates for city offices from having their names upon the official ballot, as provided by law. This section shall not repeal the provisions of any charter heretofore or hereafter specially granted to any city in this State. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 232.]

Art. 13.56. Declination or Death of Nominee; Filling Vacancy in Nomination

(a) A nominee of a political party may decline and annul his nomination by delivering to the officer with whom the certificate of his nomination is filed and to the chairman of the executive committee having the power to fill a vacancy in such nomination, not later than twenty days before the day of the election, a declaration in writing, signed by him and acknowledged before some officer authorized to take acknowledgments.

(b) If prior to the twentieth day before the day of the election, a nominee dies or declines the nomination, or is declared ineligible to be elected to or to hold the office for which he is a candidate, the executive committee of the party for the state, district, county, or precinct, as the office to be nominated may require, may nominate a candidate to supply the vacancy. A certificate of such nomination, signed and duly acknowledged by the chairman of the executive committee, must be filed with the officer with whom the certificate of the original nomination was filed not later than twenty days before election day, which certificate shall set forth the name of the original nominee, the cause of the vacancy, the name of the new nominee, the office for which he was nominated, and when, where, by whom, and how he was nominated. The officer with whom the substitute nomination is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the name of the new nominee to be placed on the ballot.

(c) In any case where a district committee is empowered to name a nominee and fails to do so prior to twenty days before the election because it is unable to agree upon a nominee by majority vote, the state executive committee may name a candidate for such office and certify the name to the proper officer to have the name printed on the official ballot for the general election; provided, however, that the certification must be filed not later than twenty days before election day.

(d) An independent candidate may withdraw his candidacy and cause his name to be kept off the ballot by delivering to the officer with whom the application requesting his name to be placed on the ballot was filed, not later than twenty days before election day, a declaration in writing, signed and duly acknowledged by him, whereupon the officer with whom the declaration is filed shall immediately take the necessary action to cause the candidate's name to be removed from the ballot.

(e) If a party nominee dies or declines the nomination or is declared ineligible to be elected, and no one is nominated to fill the vacancy, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this Code<sup>1</sup> shall be followed.

(f) If an independent candidate dies more than five days before the deadline for filing by independent candidates in that race, his name shall not be printed on the ballot. If he dies after that date, his name shall be printed on the ballot and the procedure set out in Section 104 of this Code shall be followed.

Art. 13.57. Party Name

No new political party shall assume the name of any preexisting party; and the party name printed on the official ballot shall not consist of more than three words. As used in this section, the term "preexisting party" does not include a political party which is no longer in existence.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 234; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 36, eff. Sept. 1., 1969.]

Art. 13.58. National Convention

(a) Any political party holding primary elections in an election year during which it desires to elect delegates to a national convention shall hold a state convention at such hour and place as may be designated by the state executive committee of the party, on the second Tuesday following the second primary election date. Such convention shall be composed of delegates duly elected at the county and senatorial district conventions as provided for in Section 212 of this code.<sup>1</sup> The chairman of the state executive committee shall notify the Secretary of State as to the hour and place at which the state convention will be held and shall also mail a copy of such notice to each county chairman and the temporary chairman of each senatorial district convention in the state at least ten days prior to the date of the state convention.

(b) Any political party not holding primary elections which desires to elect delegates to a national convention shall elect such delegates at the state convention provided for in Section 224 of this code.<sup>2</sup> [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 235; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 335, ch. 165, § 14; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1925, ch. 723, § 63, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 13.59. Nominations for Two (2) or More State Offices of Same Classification

That whenever nominations for two (2) or more state offices of the same classification are to be made at the same primary or general election, each such office shall be separately designated on the official ballot used at such primary or general election by numbering the places as "No. 1," "No. 2," "No. 3," etc., and the candidates for each place shall be separately nominated. Such designations shall be made by the State Committee of the political party holding the election. Each candidate for nomination for such offices shall designate in the announcement of his candidacy, and in his request to have his name placed on the official primary ballot, the number of the nomination or place for which he desires to become a candidate, and the names of all candidates so requesting shall have their names printed beneath the title of the office and the number so designated. No person shall be a candidate for more than one of such places.

Art. 14.01. Definitions

As used in this chapter—

(a) "Broadcasting station" is defined as a station engaging in radio or television communications. More specifically, it has the same meaning as in Section 315(f) of the Federal Communications Act of 1934.<sup>1</sup> The term includes a community antenna television system.

(b) "Candidate" is defined as any person who has knowingly and willingly taken affirmative action for the purpose of seeking nomination for an election to any public office which is required by law to be determined by an election.

(c) "Contribution" is defined as any advance, deposit, or transfer of funds, contract or obligation, whether enforceable or unenforceable, to transfer any funds, goods, services, or any thing of value to any candidate or political committee involved in an election.

(d) "Expenditures" is defined as any payments made or debts and obligations incurred by a candidate or political committee involved in an election.

(e) "Election" is defined as any election held to nominate or elect a candidate to any public office. It shall also include any election at which a measure is submitted to the people.

(f) "Public office" is defined as any office created by or under authority of the laws of the United States or of this state, that is filled by the voters.

(g) "State office" is defined as any office of the federal or state government which is to be filled by the choice of the voters of the entire state, except presidential electors.

(h) "District office" is defined as any office of the federal or state government, less than state-wide, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county.

(i) "County office" is defined as any office of the federal, state, or county government which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county.

(j) "Municipal office" is defined as any office of any incorporated city, town, or village which is to be filled by the choice of the voters.

(k) "Office of a political subdivision" is defined as any office of any political subdivision of this state which is organized as a body politic and has a governing board or body, except counties, cities, towns and villages, which is to be filled by the choice of the voters residing in that subdivision.

(l) "Measure" is defined as any proposal submitted to the people for their approval or rejection at an election, including any proposed law, Act or part of an Act of the legislature, revision of or amendment to the constitution, local, special, or municipal legislation or proposition or ballot question.

(m) "Person" is defined as an individual, corporation, partnership, labor union, or any unincorporated association, firm, committee, club, or other organization or group of persons including any group of persons associated with a political party or element thereof.

(n) "Political committee" is defined as any group of persons formed to collect contributions or make expenditures in support for or in opposition to a candidate or measure to be on a ballot in a public election.

 The 1973 Act, which by §§ 2 to 13 amended various articles of this chapter and art. 3.05(b), provided in §§ 1, 14 to 16:
 "Sec. 1. This Act shall be styled the Campaign Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1973.
 "Sec. 14. Nothing in this Act repeals or otherwise affects Article 5428a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as added by House Bill No. 8, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973.
 "Sec. 15. All laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict only.
 "Sec. 16. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable."

Art. 14.02. Appointment of Campaign Manager

(a) Every candidate for nomination for or election to a state or district office and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a statewide measure shall designate a campaign manager by written appointment filed with the Secretary of State, and may also designate an assistant campaign manager for each county affected by such candidacy by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of said county.

(b) Every candidate for nomination for or election to a county office and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a county measure shall designate a campaign manager by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of such county.

(c) Every candidate for nomination for or election to a municipal office or an office of a political subdivision and every political committee in any such election or in an election involving a measure of a municipality or political subdivision shall designate a campaign manager by written appointment to be filed with the clerk or secretary of the municipality or political subdivision and, if the political subdivision extends beyond the boundaries of one county, may also designate an assistant campaign manager for each county affected by such candidacy by written appointment to be filed with the county clerk of said county.

(d) Any campaign manager or assistant campaign manager designated as provided in this Section may be removed by the candidate or political committee at any time by the written appointment of a successor filed in the manner provided for the original designations.

(e) No contribution shall be accepted nor any expenditure made by a candidate or political committee until the candidate or political committee has filed the name of its campaign manager with the appropriate authority.

(f) It shall be unlawful for any candidate, political committee, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager or any other person to expend funds from any unlawful contributions.

(g) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit a candidate from appointing himself as the campaign manager.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 238; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1102, ch. 423, § 3, eff. June 11, 1973.]

Art. 14.03. Purposes of Expenditures

No candidate, political committee, campaign manager or assistant campaign manager shall himself or by any other person, directly or indirectly, make or authorize any other person to make any campaign expenditure except for the following purposes only, to wit:

(a) For the traveling expenses of the candidate, campaign manager, or assistant campaign managers, or of a secretary for such candidate.

(b) The payment of fees or charges for placing the name of the candidate upon the ballot, and for holding and making returns of the election.

(c) The hire of clerks and stenographers and the cost of clerical and stenographic work.

(d) Telegraph and telephone tolls, postage, freight and express charges.

(e) Printing and stationery.

(f) Procuring and formulating lists of voters, making canvasses of voters, and employing watchers.

(g) Office rent.

(h) Newspaper and other advertising and publicity.

(i) Advertising and holding political meetings, demonstrations, and conventions, and payment of speakers and musicians therefor.

(j) Employing as counsel attorneys licensed in this State and expenses of election contests and recounts.

(k) For the traveling expenses and salaries of all necessary campaign staff in the lawful execution of their duties.

Any campaign expenditure by any candidate or political committee, campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, except for the above purposes is expressly prohibited and declared to be unlawful. [Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 239; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1103, ch. 423, § 4, eff. June 11, 1973.]

Art. 14.04. Campaign Contributions

(a) Except as otherwise prohibited by law, it shall be lawful for any person other than a corporation or a labor union to make campaign contributions to be paid directly to a candidate, political committee, the campaign manager, or assistant campaign manager, such contributions to be used for only those purposes set forth in the Texas Election Code.

(b) It shall be lawful for an individual not acting in concert with any person to expend a sum which shall not in the aggregate exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100) for postage, or telegraph or telephone tolls, or for costs of any correspondence, or any other lawful purpose out of his own funds to aid or defeat any candidate or measure, where the sum is not to be repaid to him.

(c) It shall be lawful for any individual to contribute his own personal services and personal traveling expenses to aid or defeat any candidate or measure only so long as he either is not compensated or reimbursed for doing so or is compensated or reimbursed only by lawful campaign expenditures.

(d) Except as expressly permitted by Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this Section it shall be unlawful for any person, other than a candidate, his campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, or the campaign manager of a political committee, to make or authorize any campaign expenditure. Except as provided in Paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this Section campaign expenditures must be made by the candidate, campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, or the campaign manager of a political committee.

Art. 14.05. Civil Remedy

(a) Any candidate, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or other person, who makes an unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure in support of a candidate shall be civilly liable to each opposing candidate whose name shall appear on the ballot in the next election after such contribution or expenditure is made for double the amount or value of such unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure and reasonable attorneys fees for collecting same.

(b) Any candidate, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or other person, who makes an unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure not expressly supporting any candidate but opposing a particular candidate or candidates shall be civilly liable to each of such opposed candidates for double the amount or value of such unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure and reasonable attorneys fees for collecting same.

(c) Any candidate, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or other person, who makes an unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure shall, in addition to any other penalties, be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of such unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure.

Art. 14.06. Criminal Penalty

Any candidate, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or other person, who makes an unlawful campaign contribution or expenditure in violation of this chapter shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

Art. 14.07. Corporations Not To Contribute

(a) Except to the extent permitted in Article 213 of the Penal Code of Texas, 1925,<sup>1</sup> no corporation shall give, lend or pay any money or other thing of value, or promise to give, lend or pay any money or other thing of value, directly or indirectly, to any candidate, political committee, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or any other person, for the purpose of aiding or defeating the nomination or election of any candidate or of aiding or defeating the approval of any political measure submitted to a vote of the people of this state or any subdivision thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this section or in Article 213 of the Penal Code shall prevent the making of a loan or loans to any candidate for campaign purposes by any corporation which is legally engaged in the business of lending money and which has conducted such business continuously for more than one year prior to the making of such loan, provided the loan is made in due course of business and is not directly or indirectly a contribution.

(b) Any corporation making or promising a gift, loan, or payment to any candidate, political committee, campaign manager, assistant campaign manager, or other person in violation of Subsection (a) of this Section shall be civilly liable for double the amount or value of such loan or gift, promised or made, to each opponent of the candidate or political committee favored by such gift, loan, or payment, or to the particular candidate or candidates, political committee or political committees opposed by such gift, loan, or payment and additionally shall be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of such loan or gift, promised or made.

(c) Any corporation that violates Subsection (a) of this Section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction be fined not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and not more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000).

(d) Every officer or director of any corporation who shall consent to any such unlawful gift, loan, or payment, or such unlawful promise to give, lend, or pay, by the corporation shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or be imprisoned not less than one (1) nor more than five (5) years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

(e) Any candidate, political committee, campaign manager, or assistant campaign manager who knowingly receives such unlawful gift, loan, or payment from a corporation shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or be imprisoned not less than one (1) nor more than five (5) years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

(f) If any officer, agent, or employee of any bona fide association, incorporated or unincorporated, organized for and actively engaged for one (1) year prior to such contribution in purely religious, charitable or eleemosynary activities, or local, district or statewide commercial or industrial clubs, or associations, or other civic enterprises or organizations not in any manner nor to any extent directly or indirectly engaged in furthering the cause of any political party, or aiding in the election or defeat of any candidate for office, or defraying or aiding in defraying the expenses of any political campaign, or political headquarters, or aiding or assisting the success or defeat of any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State or any subdivision thereof, shall use or permit the use of any stock, money, assets or other property contributed to such organization by any corporations or labor unions to further the cause of any political party, or to aid in the election or defeat of any candidate for office, or to pay any part of the expenses of any candidate for office, or part of the expenses of any political campaign, or political headquarters or to aid in the success or defeat of any political question to be voted on by the qualified voters of the State, or any subdivision thereof such officer, agent, or employee, shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one (1) nor more than five (5) years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

Art. 14.08. Records and Sworn Statement

(a) Each candidate and campaign manager of a political committee is hereby required to keep an accurate record of all gifts or loans of money or other things of value received, and of all gifts, loans, and payments made, and of all debts incurred. Such record shall contain all information hereinafter required to be reported by such candidate or political committee.

(b) Each opposed candidate whose name and whose opponent's name are printed on the ballot at an election and each political committee active in an election concerning a candidate or measure shall file a sworn statement at each time required herein.

(c) The statements filed by a candidate shall list all contributions received and all expenditures made by the candidate, his campaign manager, and his assistant campaign managers. The statements filed by the campaign manager of a political committee shall list all contributions received and expenditures made by the committee. Each statement shall include the dates and amounts of all contributions and loans received, and the full name and complete address of each person from whom money or any other thing of value in an aggregate amount of more than $10 has been received or borrowed and the date and amount of each contribution or loan. Each statement shall also include the dates and amounts of all expenditures, loans made, or debts incurred; the full names and complete addresses of all persons to whom any expenditures, or loans made of more than Ten Dollars ($10) was made or debt of more than Ten Dollars ($10) is owed; and the purpose of such expenditures, loans, and debts.

(d) Each political committee receiving contributions or making expenditures on behalf of a candidate shall notify the candidate as to the name and address of the political committee and its campaign manager. The candidate shall include within each statement required by this code a list identifying the name and address of each such political committee and campaign manager.

(e) Such statement shall be accompanied by the following affidavit verified by the candidate or campaign manager of the political committee:

"I do solemnly swear that the foregoing statement, filed herewith, is in all things true and correct, and fully shows all contributions received and expenditures made required to be reported by me pursuant to the Texas Election Code."

(f) Any candidates or political committees involved in any election as defined in Section 237 of this code<sup>1</sup> shall file the statement and oath as follows: for a county office (any office of the federal, state, or county government which is filled by the choice of the voters residing in only one county or less than one county), or a measure submitted at an election called by a county, with the county clerk of the county; for a district office (any office of the federal or state government, less than statewide, which is filled by the choice of the voters residing in more than one county) or a state office, or statewide measure with the secretary of state; for a municipal office, or a measure submitted at an election called by a municipality with the city secretary or city clerk of the municipality; and for an office of a political subdivision, or a measure submitted at an election called by a political subdivision other than a county or municipality, with the secretary of the governing body of the political subdivision. The deadline for filing any statement required under this section is 5 p. m. of the last day designated in the pertinent subsection for filing the statement. When the last day of filing falls on a Saturday or Sunday or an official state holiday enumerated in Article 4591, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, the deadline for filing is extended to 5 p. m. of the next day which is not a Saturday or Sunday or enumerated holiday. A statement shall be deemed to be timely filed if it is placed in the United States Post Office or in the hands of a common or contract carrier properly addressed to the appropriate authority within the time limits applicable to the statement. The postmark or receipt mark (if received by a common or contract carrier) will be prima facie evidence of the date that such statement was deposited with the post office or carrier. The person making the report may show by competent evidence that the actual date of posting was to the contrary.

(g) A candidate or political committee shall not accept a contribution of more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) from a political committee not in this state unless the contribution is accompanied by a written statement which sets forth the full name and complete address of each person who contributed more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) of the contribution and which is certified as true and correct by an officer of the contributing political committee. A correct copy of any such statement shall be included with the statement filed on which the contribution is reported.

(h) (1) Subject to the provisions of Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Subsection, each candidate and political committee shall for all subsequent elections file with the appropriate authority, as designated herein:

(i) Not earlier than the 40th day and not later than the 31st day before the date of an election in which the candidate or political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the candidate or political committee during the period beginning as provided in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection and ending on the 40th day before the date of the election;

(ii) Not earlier than the 10th day and not later than the 7th day before the date of an election in which the candidate or political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the candidate or political committee during the period beginning on the day following the period included in the statement filed under Paragraph (1)(i) or Paragraph (2) of this Subsection and ending on the 10th day before the date of the election; and

(iii) Not later than the 31st day after the date of an election in which the candidate or political committee is involved, a statement of all contributions received and all expenditures made by or on behalf of the candidate or political committee during the period beginning as provided in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection and ending on the 14th day after the election.

(2) Whenever the period for which a statement required by Paragraph (1)(i) of this Subsection begins later than the 40th day before the date of the election, the first statement shall be filed not later than the 14th day before the election and shall include the contributions and expenditures from the beginning of the period through the 21st day before the date of the election.

(3) Whenever a candidate is in a runoff election, not later than the 7th day before the election the candidate or political committee shall file a statement of all previously unreported contributions and expenditures through the 10th day before the runoff election. The statement required by Paragraph (1)(iii) of this Subsection shall be filed not later than the 31st day after the runoff election and shall list all contributions received and all expenditures made during the period beginning as provided in Paragraph (4) of this Subsection and ending on the 14th day after the runoff election.

(4) The period referred to in Paragraph (1)(i) of this Subsection begins:

(i) For a general or special election in which the candidate on whose behalf the statement is required was nominated at a primary election or convention, on the 15th day after the date of the preceding primary election or convention at which the candidate was nominated;

(ii) For any other election, on the day that a campaign manager was first appointed under Section 238 of this code,<sup>2</sup> or for a continuing political committee, on the day following the period included in the last report filed.

(5) If a statement filed under Paragraph (1)(iii) of this Subsection shows an unexpended balance of contributions or an expenditure deficit, the candidate or political committee shall file with the appropriate authority:

(i) Not later than the 31st day after the deadline for filing the statement under Paragraph (1)(iii) or Paragraph (3) of this Subsection, a supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures; and

(ii) Each year after the deadline for filing the first supplemental statement of contributions and expenditures, an additional statement shall be filed until the account shows no unexpended balance of contributions or expenditure deficit. The annual statement shall be filed on or before January 15th following the last filing hereafter required. Provided, however, that no filing will be required under this Subsection if there have been no expenditures or contributions since the last filing. Any candidate who subsequently files for office before completing the requirements of this Subsection may carry the previous deficit or surplus forward into the reporting for the subsequent campaign in lieu of the continuing annual filing.

(i) If any candidate or political committee fails to file such sworn statement at the time provided herein or swears falsely therein, the candidate or the campaign manager of the political committee shall be subject upon conviction to a fine not less than One Hundred Dollars nor more than Five Thousand Dollars, or be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than five years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

(j) Any candidate or campaign manager of a political committee who fails to report in whole or in part any contribution or expenditure as provided in the foregoing provisions of this Section shall be liable for double the amount or value of such unreported contribution or expenditure or unreported portion thereof, to each opposing candidate in any election prior to which same should have been reported. Each of such opposing candidates shall also recover reasonable attorneys' fees for collecting the above liquidated damages.

(k) Any candidate or campaign manager of a political committee who fails to report in whole or in part any contribution or expenditure as provided in this Section, shall be civilly liable to the State of Texas for an amount equal to triple the amount or value of such unreported contribution or unreported expenditure.

(l) It shall be the duty of any person making one or more contributions or loans aggregating more than One Hundred Dollars ($100) to any candidate or political committee for the purpose of any election to ascertain whether the candidate or political committee properly reports such contributions or loans, as provided in this Section. If such contribution or loan is not reported, it shall be the duty of the person making such contribution or loan to report the same under oath to the proper official as provided in this Section. If such contribution or loan is not reported by either the candidate, the political committee, or the person making same, the latter shall be civilly liable to each opponent of the favored candidate for double the amount of such unreported contribution or loan, or part thereof unreported, and for reasonable attorneys' fees for collecting the same.

(m) Statements filed under this Section shall be open to public inspection. They shall be preserved for a period of two years, after which they may be destroyed unless a court of competent jurisdiction has ordered their further preservation.

Art. 14.09. Leave Name Off Ticket

Any candidate who shall knowingly permit or assent to the violation of any provision of this Chapter by any campaign manager or assistant campaign manager, or other person, shall thereby forfeit his right to have his name placed upon the primary ballot, or if nominated in the primary election, to have his name placed on the official ballot at the general election. Provided, no candidate in the general election shall forfeit the right to have his name printed on the ballot for such election if the Constitution of this State prescribes the qualifications of the holder of the office sought by the candidate.

Proceedings by quo warranto to enforce the provisions of this Section [this article], or to determine the right of any candidate alleged to have violated any provision of this Chapter, to have his name placed on the primary ballot, or the right of any nominee alleged to have violated any provision of this Chapter to have his name placed upon the official ballot for the general election, may be instituted at the suit of any citizen in the district court of any county, the citizens of which are entitled to vote for or against any candidate who may be charged in such proceedings with any such violation. All such proceedings so instituted shall be advanced, and summarily heard and disposed of by both the trial and appellate courts.

Art. 14.10. Political Advertising

(a) Anything published in a newspaper, magazine or journal, or any pamphlet, handbill or other printed matter, or anything broadcast over a radio or television station or displayed on a billboard, in favor of or in opposition to any candidate for any public office or office of a political party, or in favor of or in opposition to the success of any public officer, or in favor of or in opposition to any political party, or in favor of or in opposition to any proposition submitted to a vote of the people, in consideration of the receipt or promise of money or other thing of value, shall for the purposes of this section be considered as political advertising. All advertisements of marked ballots, advising or suggesting how voters should mark their ballots, shall be included in the meaning of political advertising.

(b) No political advertising shall be accepted for printing, publication, or broadcasting unless a copy of the matter to be printed or published, signed by the individual contracting therefor and showing his full address and, if he is acting as an agent, showing also the name of the candidate, political committee, or business entity he represents, is deposited with printer, publisher, or broadcaster accepting the advertising. The person accepting the advertising shall preserve the signed copy for a period of one year after the date of the election to which the advertising relates, and shall permit any interested individual to inspect the signed copy at any time during business hours, but only after the advertising has been printed, published, or broadcast. Such advertising shall be labeled as political advertising in the advertisement as printed, published or broadcast. Any printed or published political advertising shall also have printed on it the name and address of the printer or publisher and the person paying for the advertising.

Any individual, firm, or corporation who violates the provisions of this Section shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $100 nor more than $5,000 or be imprisoned not less than one year nor more than five years or be both so fined and imprisoned.

(c) Any advertising medium or any officer or agent thereof who willfully demands or receives for any political advertising any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due for such service at the regular advertising rates of such medium, or any person who pays or offers to pay for such service any money or other thing of value in excess of the sum due at regular advertising rates, or any person who pays or offers to pay any money or other thing of value for the publication or broadcasting of political advertising except as advertising matter, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars.

(d) Either party to a violation of this section may be compelled to testify regarding thereto, but shall not be punished for any act regarding which he may have been required to testify.

Art. 14.11. Repeal of Conflicting Laws

All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are repealed in so far as such laws are in actual conflict with the provisions of this code, and in case of such conflict the provisions of this code shall control and be effective. However, nothing in this Act shall be construed to nullify or repeal any Act of the Legislature passed at the Regular Session of the Fifty-second Legislature.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., p. 1097, ch. 492, art. 247.]

Art. 14.12. Partial Unconstitutionality and Repeals

If any part of this code is held unconstitutional, it shall not void or affect the application of any part of this code which can operate independently of the unconstitutional provision.

Nothing in this Act shall in anywise alter, amend or repeal House Bill No. 43, Acts, Regular Session, Fifty-second Legislature.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Civil Statutes, arts. 3154(a), 3158a.

Art. 14.13. Election Commission

(a) There is hereby established a County Election Commission in each county of the state. The County Election Commission shall consist of the two persons serving as the county chairmen for the two political parties receiving the first and second highest number of votes cast for Governor in the immediately preceding General Election for Governor and the district judge senior in past consecutive service presiding in or over a district court in the county whether or not it be the county of his residence.

(b) The County Election Commission may at its own discretion or shall upon request inspect any campaign contribution and expenditure statement filed with the county clerk of that county or the clerk of any municipality or political subdivision located partially or wholly within that county provided the filing is done within that particular county. The Commission shall immediately notify any candidate or political committee campaign manager required to file a statement if:

(1) It appears that the person has failed to file a statement as required by law or the statement filed by that person does not conform to law; or

(2) A written complaint is filed by any registered voter alleging that a statement filed with the proper authority does not conform to law or that a person has failed to file a statement.

If after proper notification by the Commission a candidate or political committee fails to comply with the provisions of this code, the Commission shall inform the county or district attorney of the violation so that appropriate legal action may be taken.

(c) There is hereby established a State Election Commission to consist of the two persons serving as state chairmen of the executive committees of the two political parties receiving the first and second highest number of votes cast for Governor in the immediately preceding General Election for Governor; the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals; one Justice of a Court of Civil Appeals appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court; one district judge appointed by the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals; two county party chairmen of the executive committees of the two political parties described above; and the Secretary of State.

(d) The State Election Commission may at its own discretion or shall upon request inspect any campaign contribution and expenditure statement filed with the Secretary of State. The Commission shall immediately notify any candidate or political committee campaign manager required to file a statement if:

(1) It appears that the person has failed to file a statement as required by law or that a statement filed by that person does not conform to law; or

(2) A written complaint is filed by any registered voter alleging that a statement filed with the proper authority doesn't conform to law or that a person has failed to file a statement required by law.

If after proper notification by the Commission, a candidate or political committee fails to comply with the provisions of this code, the Commission shall inform the appropriate district attorney of the violation so that appropriate legal action may be taken. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1110, ch. 423, § 11, eff. June 11, 1973.]

Art. 14.14. Injunctions

The district courts of this state shall have jurisdiction to issue injunctions to enforce the provisions of this code upon application by any citizen of this state. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1111, ch. 423, § 12, eff. June 11, 1973.]

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.13. Protecting Ballots, Supplies and Returns

If any person intrusted with the transmission to the precinct election judges of official ballots, poll tax receipts and exemption certificate rolls, sample cards, distance markers and any supplies required to conduct an election wilfully fails to deliver the same within the time required by law, or wilfully does any act to defeat the delivery thereof, or not being a person intrusted therewith, shall do any act to defeat the due delivery thereof, he shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.14. Refusing Employé Privilege of Voting

Whoever refuses to an employé entitled to vote the privilege of attending the polls, or subjects such employé to a penalty or deduction of wages because of the exercise of such privilege, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.15. Certificate of Naturalization

Whoever wilfully procures from any court, clerk or other officer a certificate of naturalization, which has been allowed, signed or sealed in violation of the laws of the United States or of this State, with intent to enable him or any other person to vote at any election, when he or such person is not entitled by the laws of the United States to become a citizen or to exercise the elective franchise, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than five nor more than ten years.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.16. Pay for Editorial Matter

If any editor or manager of a newspaper, magazine or journal, or any person having control thereof, demands or receives any money, thing of value, reward or promise of future benefit for publishing anything as editorial matter in advocacy of or opposition to any candidate, or for or against any proposition submitted to a vote of the people, he, and also the one offering such reward, shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not less than ten days nor more than thirty days. If the offense be committed by the president of any corporation, or by any officer thereof with the knowledge or consent of its president, in addition to punishment of the individual, its charter shall be forfeited. Either party to a violation of this article may be compelled to testify regarding thereto, but shall not be punished for any act regarding which he may have been required to testify.

Art. 15.16a. Political Advertising; Regulations

Sec. 1. No newspaper, magazine, or other publication, published daily, biweekly, weekly, monthly, or at other intervals shall sell, solicit, bargain for, offer, or accept for money, other consideration, or favors, any kind or manner of political advertising from more than one candidate for any or all local, county, State, or Federal offices, unless such publication shall have been published and distributed generally for at least twelve (12) months next preceding the acceptance of the advertising.

Sec. 2. Provided however that this Act shall not apply to publications which have been published and circulated generally for at least twelve (12) months next preceding the acceptance of such advertising, for other than purely political purposes in some locality other than that in which it is located and published at the time of accepting such political advertising from more than one candidate.

Sec. 3. And provided further that Section 1 of this Act shall not apply to publications which have, prior to the acceptance of political advertising from more than one candidate, been published and circulated generally for a period of less than one year immediately preceding the acceptance of such advertising in the event that such publication can show ownership of its physical plant and that its advertising rates are in proportion to the amount and kind of its circulation.

Sec. 4. Whoever violates the provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be imprisoned in jail not less than three (3) months nor more than six (6) months, or both. Each violation of this Act shall be a separate offense.
[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 251.]

Art. 15.17. Corporation Contributing

(a) No corporation, domestic or foreign, and no officer, director, stockholder, employee or agent, acting in behalf of any corporation, shall directly or indirectly give, pay, expend or contribute or promise to give, pay, expend or contribute any money or thing of value in order to aid or hinder the nomination or election of any person to public office in this State or any district, municipality, or political subdivision thereof, or in order to influence or affect the vote on any question to be voted upon by the qualified voters of this State or any district, municipality, or political subdivision thereof, provided, however, that:

(b) In any election in this State or any district, municipality, or political subdivision thereof, wherein the question to be voted upon directly affects the granting, refusing, existence or value of any franchise granted to a corporation which has the right of eminent domain, such corporation may present facts and arguments to the voters bearing upon such question by any lawful means of publicity and pay the expense thereof; provided, however, that all such means of publicity employed shall contain a clear statement that the same are sponsored and paid for by such corporation; and the use of any such means of publicity by such corporation which do not contain such statement shall subject such corporation to the penalties hereinafter provided. Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as permitting any such corporation to directly or indirectly give, pay, expend, or contribute or promise to give, pay, expend, or contribute any money or thing of value in order to aid or hinder the nomination or election of any person to any public office in this State.

(c) If any corporation authorized by Section (b) hereof, or if any person, partnership or association makes any expenditure or incurs any obligation directly or indirectly for the purpose of influencing an election of the character described in Section (b) hereof, it shall be the duty of such corporation, person, partnership or association to file with the governing body of the political subdivision in which such election is held and also with the Secretary of State by mail, not more than ten (10) days nor less than five (5) days before the date of such election and also within ten (10) days after the date of such election, itemized, verified accounts correctly showing as of the date of filing, the amounts of money and description and value of all things given, paid, expended and contributed and the names of the recipients thereof and all amounts of money and description and value of all things promised or obligated to be given, paid, expended, and contributed, and the names of the promisees thereof, by such corporation, person, firm or association, in connection with such election; all such accounts to be verified under oath by an officer of such corporation, or by such person or member of the partnership or association as the case may be; provided, however, that no such corporation, person, partnership or association may give, pay, expend, contribute or promise to give, pay, expend, or contribute money and things of value of the total amount exceeding Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($750), or exceeding Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each one hundred population of the district, municipality or political subdivision according to the last preceding Federal

Census in which such election is held, whichever amount is greater; provided further that such amounts expended may not, in fixing rates to be charged by such corporation, be charged as operating cost or capital. Any corporation, person, partnership or association failing to file the accounts as provided herein or filing an account which is false in any material respect, or violating the limitation or expenditures provided herein, shall be subject to the penalties hereinafter provided, but in no event shall any such corporation be authorized to spend more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000) in any one election.

(d) Any person who violates any provision of this article, or who, as an officer, director or employee of a corporation, or as a member of a partnership or association, authorizes or does any act in violation hereof, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one nor more than five years, or be both so fined and imprisoned.

[1925 P.C.; Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 789, ch. 491, § 4; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 112.]

SUBCHAPTER C. OFFENSES BY OFFICERS OF ELECTION

Art. 15.21. List of Qualified Voters

Any person who being an officer, clerk or employé of the county collector of taxes, precinct judge, or clerk of election who knowingly puts in the certified list of qualified voters of a precinct any other number than that written when the poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption was issued; or who knowingly delivers to or receives from any voter any poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption on which is placed any other name than that first written when it was issued, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Art. 15.22. Permitted Illegal Voting

Any judge of an election or primary who wilfully permits a person to vote, whose name does not appear on the list of qualified voters of the precinct and who fails to present his poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption or make affidavit of its loss or misplacement or inadvertently left at home, except in cases where no certificate of exemption or tax receipt is required, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 15.23. Refusing to Permit Voter to Vote

Any judge of any election who refuses to receive the vote of any voter who, when his vote is objected to, shows by his own oath and the oath of a well-known resident of the precinct that he is entitled to vote at such election and in such precinct, or who refuses to deliver an official ballot to one entitled to vote under the law, or who refuses to permit a voter to deposit his ballot after one entitled to vote has legally folded and returned same, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.

Art. 15.24. Influencing Voter

Any judge, clerk or other person who may be in the room where an election, either primary, special or general, is being held, who there indicates by word or sign how he desires a citizen to vote or not to vote, shall be fined not less than two hundred nor more than five hundred dollars and be confined in jail not less than ten nor more than thirty days. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.25. Illegal Acts of Judge of Election

Any judge of election who wilfully permits the removal of ballots before the closing of the polls or wilfully fails to keep order within the polling place, or permits any person, except the clerks and judges of election or those who enter for the purpose of voting, to come within the guard rail, or knowingly permits anyone to remove, alter or deface a stamp number or signature legally placed on a ballot for future identification shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.26. Intimidation by Election Officer

Any manager, judge or clerk of an election who shall, while in discharge of his duties as such, by violence or threats of violence, attempt to influence the vote of an elector for or against any particular candidate, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.27. Election Officer Opening Ballot

Any manager or other officer of election who shall unfold or examine any ballot, or who shall examine the indorsement on any ballot by comparing it with the list of voters when the votes are counted or being counted, or who shall examine or permit to be examined by any other person the ballots subsequent to their being received into the ballot box, except in the manner prescribed by law, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than one nor more than two years. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.28. Election Officer Divulging Vote

Any presiding officer, judge, clerk, or other officer of any general or primary election who shall from an inspection of the tickets and not in a judicial investigation divulge how any person has voted at such election shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.29. Interfering with Ballot

If any manager, judge or clerk of any election shall put into or permit to be put in the ballot box any ballot not given by a voter, or take out or permit to be taken out of such box any ballot deposited therein except in the manner prescribed by law, or change any ballot given by an elector, he shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.30. Aid to Voter

Any judge or clerk at an election who assists any voter to prepare his ballot except when a voter is unable to prepare the same himself because of some bodily infirmity such as renders him unable to write or to see, or who is assisting a voter in the preparation of his ballot prepares the same otherwise than as the voter directs, or who suggests by word or sign or gesture how such voter shall vote, shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or be confined in jail for not less than two nor more than twelve months, or both. [1925 P.C.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 114, eff. Aug. 23, 1963.]

Art. 15.31. Presiding Officer Failing to Deliver Ballot

Any presiding officer of any election precinct who shall fail, immediately after such election, to securely box, in the mode prescribed by law, all the ballots cast thereat, and within the time provided by law, thereafter to deliver the same to the county clerk of his county, shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and in addition thereto, may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.32. Making False Canvass; Court May Open Ballot Boxes

Any Judge or Clerk of an election, chairman or member of a party executive committee, or officer of a primary, special or general election, who willfully makes any false canvass of the votes cast at such election, or a false statement of the result of a canvass of the ballots cast shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two (2) nor more than five (5) years. In all such cases, the Court shall have authority to unseal and open the ballot boxes, and the Court may count, or cause to be counted under its direction, the ballots cast in any election; however, in so doing the Court shall exercise due diligence to preserve the secrecy of the ballots, and upon completion of such count the said ballot boxes with their original contents shall be resealed and redelivered to the County Clerk who shall keep the same until ordered by the Court to destroy the same. [1925 P.C.; Acts 1943, 48th Leg., p. 438, ch. 296, § 1.]

Art. 15.33. False Certificate by Chairman

Any chairman of a county executive or district or State executive committee who is charged with the duty of certifying the names of the candidates selected by a primary convention or primary election who wilfully omits to certify the name of any candidate legally chosen, or who certifies falsely regarding anyone chosen or defeated, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. [1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.34. Giving False Certificate of Election

If any officer authorized by law to give a certificate of election shall, knowingly and corruptly, give any false certificate thereof, he shall be punished by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, and in addition thereto may be imprisoned in jail not less than one month nor more than one year.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.35. Wilfully Failing or Refusing to Discharge Duty

Any judge, clerk, chairman or member of an executive committee, collector of taxes, county clerk, sheriff, county judge or judge of an election, president or member of a State Convention, or Secretary of State who wilfully fails or refuses to discharge any duty imposed on him under the law, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars, unless the particular act under some other law is made a felony.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.36. "Election" Defined

The term "election" as used in this chapter, means any election, either general, special, or primary, held under authority of law within this State, or within any town, city, district, county, precinct, or any other subdivision within this State for any purpose whatever.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.36a. Election Officers

Any officer, election officer or judge, clerk or supervisor of any primary election who shall violate any provision of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, nor more than One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars, or shall be confined in the county jail for any period not to exceed one year, or shall be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.
[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 762, ch. 225, § 13.]

Art. 15.36b. Failure of Election Judge to Make Returns

Any County Judge, County Chairman or any presiding judge of a precinct election who fails to make the complete official returns as required by this Act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, nor more than Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; provided, however, that the failure of any person named herein to make the election returns within the time prescribed by this Act shall not affect the validity of such returns when made.
[Acts 1933, 43rd Leg., p. 769, ch. 228, § 3.]

SUBCHAPTER D. ILLEGAL VOTING

Art. 15.41. Illegal Voting

If any person knowing himself not to be a qualified voter, shall at any election vote for or against any officer to be then chosen, or for or against any proposition to be determined by said election, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.42. Instigating Illegal Voting

Whoever shall procure, aid, or advise another to give his vote at any election, knowing that the person is not qualified to vote, or shall procure, aid, or advise another to give his vote more than once at such election, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and may in addition thereto be imprisoned in jail not exceeding one month.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.43. False Swearing by Voter

Whoever shall swear falsely as to his own qualifications to vote, or who shall swear falsely as to the qualifications of a person offering to vote who is challenged as unqualified, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.44. Procuring Voter to Swear Falsely

Whoever wilfully and corruptly procures any person to swear falsely, as prescribed in the preceding article, shall be confined in the penitentiary not to exceed three years, or be fined not exceeding three thousand dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.45. Illegal Voting at Primary

Any person voting at any primary election called and held by authority of any political party for the purpose of nominating candidates of such political party for any public office who is not qualified to vote in the election precinct where he offers to vote at the next State, county or municipal election, or who shall vote more than once at the same or different precincts or polls on the same day, or different days in the same primary election, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in jail not exceeding sixty days, or both.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.46. Procuring an Illegal Vote

Whoever shall knowingly procure any illegal vote to be cast at such primary election shall be punished as provided in the preceding article.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.47. Absentee Voting

Any person wishing to vote as an absentee voter who shall vote or offer to vote illegally, or in any case or at any place where he is not entitled to vote, or who shall make false representation in any effort to vote, or who shall attempt to vote on any poll tax receipt issued to a person other than himself, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned in the county jail not more than two years or both so fined and imprisoned. This law applies to any and all elections including general, special and primary elections.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.48. Falsely Personating Another

Whoever attempts to falsely personate at an election another person, and vote or attempt to vote on the authority of a poll tax receipt or certificate of exemption not issued to him by the county tax collector, shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.

Art. 15.49. Participating in Primary Elections or Conventions of More Than One Party

Whoever votes or offers to vote at either a general primary election or a runoff primary election or participates or offers to participate in a convention of a political party, having voted at either a general primary election or a runoff primary election or participated in a convention of any other party during the same voting year, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars. As used in this article, the term "voting year" means the period for which each annual voter registration is effective.
[1925 P.C.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 115, eff. Aug. 23, 1963; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1926, ch. 723, § 69, eff. Aug. 28, 1967.]

Art. 15.50. Voting More Than Once

Whoever at a general, special or primary election votes or attempts to vote more than once shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.51. Using Dummy Ballot

Any judge may require a citizen to answer under oath before he secures an official ballot whether he has been furnished with any paper or ballot on which is marked the names of any one for whom he has agreed to vote, or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper or marked ballot in his possession, and he shall not be furnished with an official ballot until he has delivered to the judge such marked paper or ballot, if he has one. Any person who gives, receives or secures or is interested in giving or receiving an official ballot or any paper whatever, on which is marked, printed or written the name of any person for whom he has agreed to vote, or for whom he has been requested to vote, or has such paper marked, written or printed in his possession as a guide by which he could make out his ticket, shall be fined not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be confined in jail thirty days.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.52. Illegal Acts While Voting

Any voter who shall show his ballot so as to reveal the vote cast by him, or who marks it otherwise than required by law for identification or who after voting delivers to the precinct judge of election any ballot other than the one delivered to him by the judge at the polling place, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

SUBCHAPTER E. OFFENSES AFTER ELECTION

Art. 15.61. Altering or Destroying Ballots, Etc.

If any person shall willfully alter, obliterate, or suppress any ballots, election returns or certificates of election, or shall willfully destroy any ballots or election returns except as permitted by law, he shall be confined in the penitentiary not less than three nor more than five years.
[1925 P.C.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 116, eff. Aug. 23, 1963.]

Art. 15.62. Messenger Tampering with Ballot

Any person legally intrusted with the ballots cast at an election who shall open and read a ballot or permit it to be done before delivering the same to the person directed shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 15.63. Failing to Deliver Returns

If any person intrusted with the transmission of an election return, shall wilfully do any act that shall defeat the delivery thereof or shall wilfully neglect to deliver the same as directed by law, he shall be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.63a. Immediate Delivery of Returns

Any chairman of a political party or other person or officer violating or failing to comply with any provision of this Act<sup>1</sup> shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than $25.00 nor more than $500.00, or be confined in the County jail not to exceed thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Art. 15.64. Preventing Delivery of Returns

Whoever shall take away any election return from any person intrusted therewith, either by force or in any other manner, or wilfully do any act that shall defeat the due delivery thereof, as directed by law, shall be fined not exceeding two thousand dollars.
[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.65. Failure to Keep Ballot Box

Whoever fails to keep securely any ballot box containing ballots voted at an election, when committed to his charge by one having authority over the same, shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.66. County Clerk to Keep Ballot Box

If any county clerk shall fail, neglect or refuse to keep securely any ballot box containing tickets of election committed to his custody by the presiding officer of any election precinct, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and, in addition thereto, he may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 15.67. Destruction of Ballots

If any county clerk or other officer charged with the custody of the ballots cast at an election fails, after the expiration of sixty days from the date of such election, to destroy by burning or shredding all the ballots cast at such election which may have come into his custody, except where a contest or criminal investigation in connection with the election is pending or where ordered by the district court to defer destruction of the ballots, he shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and, in addition thereto, he may be imprisoned in jail not exceeding six months.

[1925 P.C.; Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1017, ch. 424, § 117; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2662, ch. 878, § 38, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

SUBCHAPTER F. MISCONDUCT AT ELECTIONS

Art. 15.71. Hiring Vehicle to Convey Voters; Removing Ballots from Polling Place

Whoever hires any vehicle or hires any person to operate a vehicle for the purpose of conveying voters to the polling place, or rewards any person in money or other thing of value for procuring a vehicle or a driver for such purpose, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars. This article shall not be construed to prohibit a voter from paying for the services of a vehicle or a driver for the purpose of conveying him to the polling place or to prevent him from allowing other voters to ride in the vehicle with him while he is going to the polling place in order to vote or returning therefrom after having voted.

Whoever willfully removes any ballots from the polling place, except as permitted by law, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

Art. 15.72. Defacing Election Booth, Etc.

Any person who, during an election, wilfully defaces or injures an election booth or compartment, or wilfully removes any of the supplies provided for elections, or before the closing of the polls wilfully defaces or destroys any list of candidates to be voted for at an election which has been posted in accordance with law, shall be fined not exceeding five hundred dollars.

[1925 P.C.]

Art. 1.01. Short Title

This Act constitutes and shall be known as the Insurance Code.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 491.]

Art. 1.02. State Board of Insurance

(a) There is hereby created the State Board of Insurance which shall consist of three members, all of whom shall be citizens of Texas. They shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Texas. The term of office of each member shall be as provided in this Code. Each member of the Board shall be a person with at least ten (10) years of successful experience in business, professional or governmental activities, or a total of at least ten (10) years in any combination of two or more of such activities. Each member shall be available at all reasonable times for the discharge of the duties and functions delegated to the members of said Board by this amendatory Act, but the members shall act as a unit, and in no event shall the individual members divide or confine their activities to special fields of insurance regulation or attempt to administer the functions hereinafter assigned to the Commissioner of Insurance.

(b) All of the powers, functions, authorities, prerogatives, duties, obligations and responsibilities, heretofore vested in and devolving upon the Board of Insurance Commissioners as heretofore constituted under prior statutes; the Chairman of said Board; the Life Insurance Commissioner; the Fire Insurance Commissioner; and the Casualty Insurance Commissioner, shall hereafter be vested in the State Board of Insurance as a body, and except as provided herein, they shall be exercised, performed, carried out, and administered by the Commissioner of Insurance as the chief executive and administrative officer of the Board in accordance with the pertinent laws of this state and the rules and regulations for uniform application made by the Board and subject to supervision of the Board. The duties of the State Board of Insurance shall be primarily in a supervisory capacity and the carrying out and administering the details of the Insurance Code shall be primarily the duty and responsibility of the Commissioner of Insurance acting under the supervision of the Board.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, all remaining references in the Insurance Code and other statutes of this state to "Board of Insurance Commissioners," "Board," or individual Commissioners shall mean the "State Board of Insurance" or the "Commissioner of Insurance," consistent with their respective duties and responsibilities under the terms and provisions of this amendatory Act.

(d) Upon the appointment of the members of the State Board of Insurance and on February 10th of each odd-numbered year thereafter, the Governor shall appoint from among the membership a Chairman who shall be known and designated as the Chairman of the State Board of Insurance.

(e) Irrespective of any provisions of the Insurance Code to the contrary, all references to a State official as being "Chairman of the Board of Insurance Commissioners," "Chairman of the State Board of Insurance," "Chairman of the Board," "Chairman of such Board," "Chairman of said Board," and the word "Chairman" in those provisions of the Insurance Code and other statutes of this State having to do with service of process upon an insurer shall be construed to be references to the Commissioner of Insurance and the requirements of such statutes relating to service of process upon insurers shall be satisfied where the service upon and acts to be done by the State official designated by such a statute is had upon and the acts performed by the Commissioner of Insurance.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 491; Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1035, ch. 391, § 1; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1454, ch. 499, § 2; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2829, ch. 924, § 1, eff. June 15, 1971.]

Art. 1.03. Terms of Office

(a) Upon the effective date of this Act amending the Insurance Code, the Governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Texas, three members to the State Board of Insurance. One appointment shall be for a term expiring January 31, 1959; another, for a term expiring January 31, 1961; and a third, for a term expiring January 31, 1963. Thereafter, in each odd-numbered year, the Governor shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Texas, a member for a term of six years which term shall begin on the first day of February of each such year. Each member shall serve until his successor has qualified; provided that the Governor may remove from office any member of the Board who fails for any reason to attend a meeting of the Board for three consecutive months, and he shall remove from office any member of the Board who for any reason fails to attend a meeting of the Board for six months. Such removal shall be by an instrument in writing filed with the Secretary of State and the State Board of Insurance, and the office of the member so removed shall be deemed vacant the same as if the member had died or resigned. The members of the Board of Insurance Commissioners in office immediately prior to the effective date of this Act amending the Code shall serve as interim members of the State Board of Insurance until the members of such Board provided for in this Act shall have been appointed and qualified.

(b) Vacancies occurring in any such office on the Board during any term shall, with the advice and consent of the Senate, be filled by appointment by the Governor, which appointment shall extend only to the end of the unexpired term.

Art. 1.04. Duties and Organization of the State Board of Insurance

(a) The State Board of Insurance shall operate and function as one body or a unit and a majority vote of the members of the Board shall be necessary to transact any of its official business. The Board shall maintain one official set of records of its proceedings and actions.

(b) The State Board of Insurance shall determine policy, rules, rates and appeals but otherwise it shall execute its duties through the Commissioner of Insurance as herein provided for, in accordance with the laws of this state and the rules and regulations for uniform application as made by the Board.

(c) All rules and regulations for the conduct and execution of the duties and functions of the State Board of Insurance shall be rules for general and uniform application and shall be made and published by the Board on the basis of a systematic organization of such rules by their subject matter and content. The Commissioner of Insurance may make recommendations to the Board regarding such rules and regulations, including amendments, changes and additions. Such published rules shall be kept current and shall be available in a form convenient to all interested persons.

(d) Any person or organization, private or public, which is affected by any ruling or action of the Commissioner of Insurance shall have the right to have such ruling or action reviewed by the State Board of Insurance by making an application to the Board. Such application shall state the identities of the parties, the ruling or action complained of, the interests of the parties in such ruling, the grounds of such objection, the action sought of the Board and the reasons and grounds for such action by the Board. The original shall be filed with the Chief Clerk of the Board together with a certification that a true and correct copy of such application has been filed with the Commissioner of Insurance. Within thirty (30) days after the application is filed, and after ten (10) days written notice to all parties of record, the Board shall review the action complained of in a public hearing and render its decision at the earliest possible date thereafter. The Board shall make such other rules and regulations with regard to such applications and their consideration as it deems advisable, not inconsistent with this Article. Said application shall have precedence over all other business of a different nature pending before the Board.

In the public hearing, any and all evidence and matters pertinent to the appeal may be submitted to the Board, whether included in the application or not.

(e) The State Board of Insurance, in any proceedings, alleging violations of the provisions specified in this Code that grant the State Board of Insurance authority to suspend or cancel a license or certificate of authority, may, by alternative order, permit the holder of such license or certificate of authority to elect in writing to pay a specified money penalty, within a specified time, in lieu of the suspension of such license or certificate of authority. If the holder so elects, the sum of money specified shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the credit of the General Revenue Fund. The sum specified shall not exceed $10,000. Should the holder so electing fail to pay the specified sum within the specified time the State Board of Insurance shall, unless its order be lawfully stayed, put in effect the alternative specified in its order.

The authority vested in the State Board of Insurance by this Article shall be additional to and not in lieu of any other authority to enforce any penalties, fines, forfeitures, denials, suspensions, restrictions, or revocations of certificates of authority otherwise authorized by law.

(f) If any insurance company or other party at interest be dissatisfied with any decision, regulation, order, rate, rule, act or administrative ruling adopted by the State Board of Insurance, such dissatisfied company or party at interest after failing to get relief from the State Board of Insurance, may file a petition setting forth the particular objection to such decision, regulation, order, rate, rule, act or administrative ruling, or to either or all of them, in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, against the State Board of Insurance as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply, but such action shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the Justice Court to the County Court. Either party to said action may appeal to the Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said Appellate Court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said Appellate Court over all causes of a different character therein pending.

The Board shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder.

(g) In making examinations of any insurance organization as provided by law, the Board may use its own salaried examiners or may employ any holder of a permit to practice public accountancy in Texas who is engaged as an independent public accountant in the public practice as that term is known and understood in the accounting profession. Such examination shall cover the period of time which the Board shall request. In the event the Board does not specify a longer period of time, such examination shall be from the time of the last examination theretofore made by the Board to December 31st of the year preceding the examination then being made and such public accountants shall so certify the period being examined by him. Any such public accountant shall be paid for such examination at the usual and customary rates charged by public accountants for similar services. Such payment shall be made by the insurance organization being examined and all such examination fees so paid shall be allowed as a credit on the amount of premium or other taxes to be paid by any such insurance organization for the taxable year during which examination fees are paid just as examination fees are credited when the Board uses its own salaried examiners.

[Acts 1951, 52nd Leg., ch. 491; Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 1035, ch. 391, § 3; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 1454, ch. 499, § 2; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 566, ch. 264, § 2; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 1571, ch. 564, § 1, eff. June 15, 1973.]

Art. 1.05. Bond and Compensation

(a) Each of the members of the State Board of Insurance shall, before entering upon the duties of this office, give a bond to the State of Texas, executed by a surety company licensed to do business in the State of Texas, in a sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), to be approved by the Governor, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

(b) The members of the State Board of Insurance shall receive an annual salary of not to exceed Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) payable in monthly installments as provided in the General Appropriation Bill.

Art. 1.06. Ineligibility

No person who is a stockholder, director, officer, attorney, agent, or employee of any insurance company, insurance agent, insurance broker, or insurance adjuster, or who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in any such business, shall be a member of the State Board of Insurance, be Commissioner of Insurance, or be appointed to, or accept, any office or employment under said Board or Commissioner of Insurance; provided, however, that such ineligibility shall not extend or apply to persons who are merely insured by an insurer, or are merely beneficiaries of such insurance; or who, in their official capacity, are appointed as a receiver, liquidator, or conservator for an insurer.

Art. 1.07. Industrial Accident Board

Nothing in this Code shall be construed to in any manner affect the duties now imposed by law on the Industrial Accident Board or to take from said board the performance of the duties now imposed on said board by law.

Art. 1.08. Office of the Clerk

(a) The Board shall appoint a Chief Clerk of the State Board of Insurance. The Chief Clerk shall have the responsibility of keeping and maintaining all records and proceedings of the Board.

(b) The Board may make any appropriate provisions by rules as to method or form by which any records or proceedings are kept and maintained, such as, but not limited to, providing for the mechanical or electrical recording of hearings or meetings in a phonographic transcription form and the photographing or microphotographing of written records or other materials.

Art. 1.09. Commissioner of Insurance

(a) The Board shall appoint a Commissioner of Insurance, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Texas, who shall be its chief executive and administrative officer, who shall be charged with the primary responsibility of administering, enforcing, and carrying out the provisions of the Insurance Code under the supervision of the Board. He shall hold his position at the pleasure of the Board and may be discharged at any time.

(b) The Commissioner of Insurance shall be the State Fire Marshal and shall function as such subject to the rules and regulations of the Board.

(c) The Commissioner of Insurance shall be a resident citizen of Texas, for at least one (1) year prior to his appointment and shall be a competent and experienced administrator who shall be well informed and qualified in the field of insurance and insurance regulation. He shall have had at least ten (10) years of administrative or professional experience, and shall have had training and experience in the field of insurance or insurance regulation. No former or present member of the Board of Insurance Commissioners shall be appointed Commissioner of Insurance.

(d) The Commissioner of Insurance shall first give a bond to the State of Texas, executed by a surety company licensed to do business in the State of Texas, in the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), to be approved by the Board, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of the duties of his office.

(e) Compensation to be paid the Commissioner of Insurance shall be such sum as is provided for by the appropriation Acts.

(f) The Commissioner of Insurance or his representative shall meet with the Board in an advisory capacity and without vote in the proceedings of the Board. He shall submit such reports to the Board as it may request or provide for by its rules and regulations.

(g) The Commissioner of Insurance shall appoint such deputies, assistants, and other personnel as are necessary to carry out the duties and functions devolving upon him and the State Board of Insurance under the Insurance Code of this state, subject to the authorization by the Legislature in its appropriations bills or otherwise, and to the rules of the Board.

Art. 1.09-1. Represented by the Attorney General

(a) The State Board of Insurance, and the Commissioner of Insurance, shall be represented and advised by the Attorney General in all legal matters before them or in which they shall be interested or concerned. The Board and Commissioner of Insurance shall not employ or obtain any other legal services without the written approval of the Attorney General.

(b) In all rate hearings and policy form proceedings before the Board or the Commissioner of Insurance, the Attorney General may intervene in the public interest. The Board shall have and exercise the power of subpoena and subpoena duces tecum for witnesses, documents, and other evidence to the extent of the jurisdiction of this state for such hearings and proceedings on its own motion or upon application of the Attorney General.

Art. 1.09-2. Eligibility to Run for Public Office

(a) The members of the State Board of Insurance and the Commissioner of Insurance shall be ineligible to run for any public office, or to have their names placed on the official ballot for any office in any election in this state, except and unless such Board member or Commissioner of Insurance has resigned and his resignation has been accepted by the Governor.

Art. 1.09-3. Certain Acts Shall be Unlawful

All members of the State Board of Insurance, Commissioner of Insurance, and all employees and agents of the State Board of Insurance shall be subject to the code of ethics and the standard of conduct imposed by Chapter 100, Acts of the Fifty-fifth Legislature, Regular Session, 1957.<sup>1</sup>

Art. 1.10. Duties of the Board

In addition to the other duties required of the Board, it shall perform duties as follows:

Shall Execute the Laws

1. See that all laws respecting insurance and insurance companies are faithfully executed.

File Articles of Incorporation and Other Papers

2. File and preserve in its office all acts or articles of incorporation of insurance companies and all other papers required by law to be deposited with the Board and, upon application of any party interested therein, furnish certified copies thereof upon payment of the fees prescribed by law.

Shall Calculate Reserve

3. For every company transacting any kind of insurance business in this State, for which no basis is prescribed by law, the Board shall calculate the reinsurance reserve upon the same basis prescribed in Article 6.01 of this code as to companies transacting fire insurance business.

To Calculate Re-insurance Reserve
