§ 1. Short Title

This Act shall be known, and may be cited, as the "Texas Probate Code."

§ 2. Effective Date and Application

(a) Effective Date. This Code shall take effect and be in force on and after January 1, 1956. The procedure herein prescribed shall govern all probate proceedings in county and probate courts brought after the effective date of this Act, and also all further procedure in proceedings in probate then pending, except to the extent that in the opinion of the court, with respect to proceedings in probate then pending, its application in particular proceedings or parts thereof would not be feasible or would work injustice, in which event the former procedure shall apply.

(b) Rights Not Affected. No act done in any proceeding commenced before this Code takes effect, and no accrued right, shall be impaired by the provisions of this Code. When a right is acquired, extinguished, or barred upon the expiration of a prescribed period of time which has commenced to run by the provision of any statute in force before this Code takes effect, such provision shall remain in force and be deemed a part of this Code with respect to such right. All things properly done under any previously existing statute prior to the taking effect of this Code shall be treated as valid. Where citation or other process or notice is issued and served in compliance with existing statutes prior to the taking effect of this Code, the party upon whom such citation or other process has been served shall have the time provided for under such previously existing statutes in which to comply therewith.

(c) Subdivisions Have No Legal Effect. The division of this Code into Chapters, Parts, Sections, Subsections, and Paragraphs is solely for convenience and shall have no legal effect.

(d) Severability. If any provision of this Code, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Code which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Code are declared to be severable, and the Legislature hereby states that it would have enacted such portions of the Code which can lawfully be given effect regardless of the possible invalidity of other provisions of the Code.

(e) Nature of Proceeding. The administration of the estate of a decedent or ward, from the filing of the application for probate and administration, or for administration, until the decree of final distribution and the discharge of the last personal representative, shall be considered as one proceeding for purposes of jurisdiction. The entire proceeding is a proceeding in rem.

When such notice is filed with the clerk, a copy of the interrogatories shall also be filed, and at the expiration of ten days, commission may issue for taking the depositions, and the judge may file cross-interrogatories where no one appears, if he so desires.

§ 23. Decrees and Signing of Minutes

All decisions, orders, decrees, and judgments of the county court in probate matters shall be rendered in open court except in cases where it is otherwise specially provided. The probate minutes shall be approved and signed by the judge on the first day of each month, except, however, that if the first day of the month falls on a Sunday, such approval shall be entered on the preceding or succeeding day.

No such writ shall issue unless the complainant shall give bond, in such sum as the judge shall require, payable to the

Such bond or other written agreement shall be filed with such complaint, or good cause shown under oath why the same cannot be filed; and if it cannot be so filed, the same or the substance thereof shall be set forth in the complaint. After the service of the citation, the court shall hear such complaint and the evidence thereon, and, if satisfied from the proof that such bond or written agreement was legally executed by the testator or intestate, and that the complainant has a right to demand specific performance thereof, a decree shall be made ordering the personal representative to make title to the property, according to the tenor of the obligation, fully describing the property in such decree. When a conveyance is made under the provisions of this Section, it shall refer to and identify the decree of the court authorizing it, and, when delivered, shall vest in the person to whom made all the right and title which the testator or intestate had to the property conveyed; and such conveyance shall be prima facie evidence that all requirements of the law have been complied with in obtaining the same.

If on appeal from the county court, a different administrator or guardian is appointed, he shall be substituted in such suits.

§ 29. Appeal Bonds of Personal Representatives

(a) When Citation or Notice Necessary. No person need be cited or otherwise given notice except in situations in which this Code expressly provides for citation or the giving of notice; provided, however, that even though this Code does not expressly provide for citation, or the issuance or return of notice in any probate matter, the court may, in its discretion, require that notice be given, and prescribe the form and manner of service and return thereof.

(b) Issuance by the Clerk or by Personal Representative. The county clerk shall issue necessary citations, writs, and process in probate matters, and all notices not required to be issued by personal representatives, without any order from the court, unless such order is required by a provision of this Code.

(c) Contents of Citation, Writ, and Notice. Citation and notices issued by the clerk shall be signed and sealed by him, and shall be styled "The State of Texas." Notices required to be given by a personal representative shall be in writing and shall be signed by the representative in his official capacity. All citations and notices shall be directed to the person or persons to be cited or notified, shall be dated, and shall state the style and number of the proceeding, the court in which it is pending, and shall describe generally the nature of the proceeding or matter to which the citation or notice relates. No precept directed to an officer is necessary. A citation or notice shall direct the person or persons cited or notified to appear by filing a written contest or answer, or to perform other acts required of him or them and shall state when and where such appearance or performance is required. No citation or notice shall be held to be defective because it contains a precept directed to an officer authorized to serve it. All writs and other process except citations and notices shall be directed "To any sheriff or constable within the State of Texas," but shall not be held defective because directed to the sheriff or any constable of a specific county if properly served within the named county by such officer.

(d) Where No Specific Form of Notice, Service, or Return is Prescribed, or When Provisions Are Insufficient or Inadequate. In all situations in which this Code requires that notice be given, or that a person be cited, and in which a specific method of giving such notice or of citing such person, or a specific method of service and return of such citation or notice is not given, or an insufficient or inadequate provision appears with respect to any of such matters, or when any interested person so requests, such notice or citation shall be issued, served, and returned in such manner as the court, by written order, shall direct in accordance with this Code and the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall have the same force and effect as if the manner of service and return had been specified in this Code.

(e) Service of Citation or Notice Upon Personal Representatives. Except in instances in which this Code expressly provides another method of service, any notice or citation required to be served upon any personal representative or receiver shall be served by the clerk issuing such citation or notice. The clerk shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail to the attorney of record for the personal representative or receiver, but if there is no attorney of record, to the personal representative or receiver.

(f) Methods of Serving Citations and Notices.

(1) Personal Service. Where it is provided that personal service shall be had with respect to a citation or notice, any such citation or notice must be served upon the attorney of record for the person to be cited. Notwithstanding the requirement of personal service, service may be made upon such attorney by any of the methods hereinafter specified for service upon an attorney. If there is no attorney of record in the proceeding for such person, or if an attempt to make service upon the attorney was unsuccessful, a citation or notice directed to a person within this State must be served by the sheriff or constable upon the person to be cited or notified, in person, by delivering to him a true copy of such citation or notice at least ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of service. Where the person to be cited or notified is absent from the State, or is a nonresident, such citation or notice may be served by any disinterested person competent to make oath of the fact. Said citation or notice shall be returnable at least ten (10) days after the date of service, exclusive of the date of service. The return of the person serving the citation or notice shall be endorsed on or attached to same; it shall show the time and place of service, certify that a true copy of the citation or notice was delivered to the person directed to be served, be subscribed and sworn to before some officer authorized by the laws of this State to take affidavits, under the hand and official seal of such officer, and returned to the county clerk who issued same. If in either case such citation or notice is returned with the notation that the person sought to be served, whether within or without this State, cannot be found, the clerk shall issue a new citation or notice directed to the person or persons sought to be served and service shall be by publication.

(2) Posting. When citation or notice is required to be posted, it shall be posted by the sheriff or constable at the courthouse door of the county in which the proceedings are pending, or at the place in or near the courthouse where public notices customarily are posted, for not less than ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of posting. The clerk shall deliver the original and a copy of such citation or notice to the sheriff or any constable of the proper county, who shall post said copy as herein prescribed and return the original to the clerk, stating in a written return thereon the time when and the place where he posted such copy. The date of posting shall be the date of service. When posting of notice by a personal representative is authorized or required, the method herein prescribed shall be followed, such notices to be issued in the name of the representative, addressed and delivered to, posted and returned by, the proper officer, and filed with the clerk.

(3) Publication. When a person is to be cited or notified by publication, the citation or notice shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proceedings are pending, and said publication shall be not less than ten (10) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of publication. The date of publication which said newspaper bears shall be the date of service. If no newspaper is published, printed, or of general circulation, in the county where citation or notice is to be had, service of such citation or notice shall be by posting.

(4) Mailing.

(A) When any citation or notice is required or permitted to be served by registered or certified mail, other than notices required to be given by personal representatives, the clerk shall issue such citation or notice and shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail. Any notice required to be given by a personal representative by registered or certified mail shall be issued by him, and he shall serve the same by sending the original thereof by registered or certified mail. In either case the citation or notice shall be mailed with instructions to deliver to the addressee only, and with return receipt requested. The envelope containing such citation or notice shall be addressed to the attorney of record in the proceeding for the person to be cited or notified, but if there is none, or if returned undelivered, then to the person to be cited or notified. A copy of such citation or notice, together with the certificate of the clerk, or of the personal representative, as the case may be, showing the fact and date of mailing, shall be filed and recorded. If a receipt is returned, it shall be attached to the certificate.

(B) When any citation or notice is required or permitted to be served by ordinary mail, the clerk, or the personal representative when required by statute or by order of the court, shall serve the same by mailing the original to the person to be cited or notified. A copy of such citation or notice, together with a certificate of the person serving the same showing the fact and time of mailing, shall be filed and recorded.

(C) When service is made by mail, the date of mailing shall be the date of service. Service by mail shall be made not less than twenty (20) days before the return day thereof, exclusive of the date of service.

(D) If a citation or notice served by mailing is returned undelivered, a new citation or notice shall be issued, and such citation or notice shall be served by posting.

(g) Return of Citation or Notice. All citations and notices issued by the clerk and served by personal service, by mail, by posting, or by publication, shall be returnable to the court from which issued on the first Monday after the service is perfected.

(h) Sufficiency of Return in Cases of Posting. In any probate matter where citation or notice is required to be served by posting, and such citation or notice is issued in conformity with the applicable provision of this Code, the citation or notice and the service and return thereof shall be sufficient and valid if any sheriff or constable posts a copy or copies of such citation or notice at the place or places prescribed by this Code on a day which is sufficiently prior to the return day named in such citation or notice for the period of time for which such citation or notice is required to be posted to elapse before the return day of such citation or notice, and the fact that such sheriff or constable makes his return on such citation or notice and returns same into court before the period of time elapses for which such citation or notice is required to be posted, shall not affect the sufficiency or validity of such citation or notice or the service or return thereof, even though such return is made, and such citation or notice is returned into court, on the same day it is issued.

(i) Proof of Service. Proof of service in all cases requiring notice or citation, whether by publication, posting, mailing, or otherwise, shall be filed before the hearing. Proof of service made by a sheriff or constable shall be made by the return of service. Service made by a private person shall be proved by the affidavit of the person. Proof of service by publication shall be made by the affidavit of the publisher or that of an employee of the publisher, which affidavit shall show the date the issue of the newspaper bore, and have attached to or embodied in it a copy of the published notice or citation. In the case of service by mail, proof shall be made by the certificate of the clerk, or the affidavit of the personal representative or other person making such service, stating the fact and time of mailing. In the case of service by registered or certified mail, the return receipt shall be attached to the certificate, if a receipt has been returned.

(j) Request for Notice. At any time after an application is filed for the purpose of commencing any proceeding in probate, including, but not limited to, a proceeding for the probate of a will, grant of letters testamentary or of administration, determination of heirship, and the grant of letters of guardianship, any person interested in the estate or welfare of a ward, may file with the clerk a request in writing that he be notified of any and all, or of any specifically designated, motions, applications, or pleadings filed by any person, or by any particular persons specifically designated in the request. The fees and costs for such notices shall be borne by the person requesting them, and the clerk may require a deposit to cover the estimated costs of furnishing such person with the notice or notices requested. The clerk shall thereafter send to such person by ordinary mail copies of any of the documents specified in the request. Failure of the clerk to comply with the request shall not invalidate any proceeding. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 53, ch. 31, § 1, eff. Aug. 22, 1957; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 967, ch. 173, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 967, ch. 173, § 1, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.]

§ 34. Service on Attorney

If any attorney shall have entered his appearance of record for any party in any proceeding in probate, all citations and notices required to be served on the party in such proceeding shall be served on the attorney, and such service shall be in lieu of service upon the party for whom the attorney appears. All notices served on attorneys in accordance with this section may be served by registered or certified mail or by delivery to the attorney in person. They may be served by a party to the proceeding or his attorney of record, or by the proper sheriff or constable, or by any other person competent to testify. A written statement by an attorney of record, or the return of the officer, or the affidavit of any other person showing service shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of service.

§ 35. Waiver of Notice

Any person legally competent who is interested in any hearing in a proceeding in probate may, in person or by attorney, waive in writing notice of such hearing. A guardian of the estate or a guardian ad litem may make such a waiver on behalf of his ward, and a trustee may make such a waiver on behalf of the beneficiary of his trust. A consul or other representative of a foreign government, whose appearance has been entered as provided by law on behalf of any person residing in a foreign country, may make such waiver of notice on behalf of such person. Any person who submits to the jurisdiction of the court in any hearing shall be deemed to have waived notice thereof.

§ 36. Duty and Responsibility of Judge

It shall be the duty of the judge of each county court to use reasonable diligence to see that personal representatives of estates being administered under orders of the court, guardians of the persons of wards, and other officers of the court, perform the duties enjoined upon them by law pertaining to such estates and wards. The judge shall annually examine into the condition of each of said estates, the well-being of each ward of the court, and the solvency of the bonds of personal representatives of estates and guardians of persons. He shall require such representatives or guardians, at any time he shall find that their bonds are not sufficient to protect such estate or wards, to execute new bonds in accordance with law. In each such case, he shall notify the personal representative or guardian, and the sureties on the bond, as provided by law; and should damage or loss result to estates or wards through the failure of the judge to use reasonable diligence in the performance of his duties, he shall be liable on his official bond to those damaged by such neglect.

§ 36A. When Power of Attorney not Terminated by Disability

When a principal designates another his attorney in fact or agent by power of attorney in writing and the writing contains the words "this power of attorney shall not terminate on disability of the principal" or similar words showing the intent of the principal that the power shall not terminate on his disability, then the powers of the attorney in fact or agent shall be exercisable by him on behalf of the principal notwithstanding later disability or incompetence of the principal. All acts done by the attorney in fact or agent, pursuant to the power, during any period of disability or incompetence of the principal, shall have the same effect and shall inure to the benefit of and bind the principal as if the principal were not disabled or incompetent. If a guardian shall thereafter be appointed for the principal, the powers of the attorney in fact or agent shall terminate upon the qualification of the guardian, and the attorney in fact or agent shall deliver to the guardian all assets of the estate of the ward in his possession and shall account to the guardian as he would to his principal had the principal himself terminated his powers.

§ 37A. Means of Evidencing Disclaimer or Renunciation of Property or Interest Receivable from a Decedent Under a Will or by Inheritance by a Person Who is Competent

Any person who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent and who intends to effect disclaimer irrevocably of the whole or any part of such property shall evidence same as herein provided. A disclaimer evidenced as provided herein, shall be effective as of the death of decedent and the property subject thereof shall pass as if the person disclaiming had predeceased the decedent unless decedent's will provides otherwise. Failure to comply with the provisions hereof shall render such disclaimer ineffective except as an assignment of such property to those who would have received same had the person attempting the disclaimer died prior to the decedent. The term "property" as used in this section shall include all legal and equitable interests, powers, and property, whether present or future, whether vested or contingent, and whether beneficial or burdensome, in whole or in part. The term "disclaimer" as used in this section shall include "renunciation."

The following shall apply to such disclaimers:

(a) Written Memorandum of Disclaimer and Filing Thereof. In the case of property receivable under a will or by inheritance, the disclaimer shall be evidenced by a written memorandum, acknowledged before a notary public or other person authorized to take acknowledgments of conveyances of real estate and filed not later than six months after death of decedent in the probate court in which decedent's will has been probated or in which administration of decedent's estate is pending or which has before it an application for either of same; provided, however, if there has been no will of decedent probated or filed for probate nor any administration or application for administration of decedent's estate within six months of decedent's death, such disclaimer shall be filed with the county clerk of the county of decedent's residence, if decedent be a resident of this state, or in a county in which decedent owned real property at the time of death, if decedent was not a resident of this state, and recorded by such county clerk in the deed records of that county. The time to file and serve a disclaimer may be extended by order entered at the discretion of the probate court having jurisdiction over the estate of the decedent on a petition to such probate court by the person so disclaiming filed before or after the expiration of six months after death showing to the satisfaction of such court reasonable cause for such extension and on notice to such persons and in such manner as the probate court may direct, but in no event may such petition be filed after the expiration of nine months from the death of decedent.

(b) Notice of Disclaimer. In the event that a personal representative of a decedent is qualified and acting, copies of any written memorandum of disclaimer shall be served by registered or certified mail or in such other manner as the probate court may direct: (1) upon any qualified and acting personal representative of decedent or, if none, but application for appointment of such a representative be pending, upon any applicant seeking probate of decedent's will or administration of decedent's estate; and (2) upon all legatees, devisees, beneficiaries and heirs-at-law of decedent other than the person disclaiming whose names and addresses are set forth in the petition for letters testamentary or letters of administration or, if no application be filed, whose names and addresses are known to or are by reasonable inquiry ascertainable by the person disclaiming, but service of such written memorandum shall not be required upon more than four of such persons in any event.

(c) Power of Testator to Provide for Disclaimer. Nothing herein shall prevent a testator from providing in a will for the making of disclaimers by legatees, devisees and beneficiaries and for the disposition of disclaimed property in a manner different from the provisions hereof.

(d) Revocation of Disclaimer. Any disclaimer filed and served under this section may be revoked by the person who has so disclaimed only when permitted by order entered by the probate court having jurisdiction over the estate of the decedent. An application for such revocation shall be made to such probate court on a petition by the disclaiming person, or, if the person having disclaimed has since died or become incompetent, then by the duly appointed and qualified personal representative of such person when so authorized by the court having jurisdiction of the estate of the incompetent or person who has died after such disclaimer. Applicant shall show such probate court reasonable cause for the revocation at a hearing held after notice to such persons and in such manner as the probate court may direct. Any petition for revocation shall be filed within nine months after decedent's death and not thereafter.

(e) Partial Disclaimer. Any person who may be entitled to receive any property under any will of or by inheritance from a decedent may disclaim such property in whole or in part, and a partial disclaimer or renunciation, in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be effective whether the property so renounced or disclaimed constitutes a portion of a single, aggregate gift or constitutes part or all of a separate, independent gift; provided, however, that a partial disclaimer shall be effective only with respect to property expressly described or referred to by category in such disclaimer, and provided further, that a partial disclaimer of property which is subject to a burdensome interest created by the decedent's will shall not be effective unless such property constitutes a gift which is separate and distinct from undisclaimed gifts.

(f) Disclaimer After Acceptance. No disclaimer shall be effective after the acceptance of the property by the heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary. For the purpose of this section, acceptance shall occur only if the person making such disclaimer has previously taken possession or exercised dominion and control of such property in the capacity of heir, legatee, devisee, or beneficiary.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2954, ch. 979, § 1, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

§ 38. Persons Who Take Upon Intestacy

(a) Intestate Leaving No Husband or Wife. Where any person, having title to any estate, real, personal or mixed, shall die intestate, leaving no husband or wife, it shall descend and pass in parcenary to his kindred, male and female, in the following course:

1. To his children and their descendants.
2. If there be no children nor their descendants, then to his father and mother, in equal portions. But if only the father or mother survive the intestate, then his estate shall be divided into two equal portions, one of which shall pass to such survivor, and the other half shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the deceased, and to their descendants; but if there be none such, then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving father or mother.
3. If there be neither father nor mother, then the whole of such estate shall pass to the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and to their descendants.
4. If there be none of the kindred aforesaid, then the inheritance shall be divided into two moieties, one of which shall go to the paternal and the other to the maternal kindred, in the following course: To the grandfather and grandmother in equal portions, but if only one of these be living, then the estate shall be divided into two equal parts, one of which shall go to such survivor, and the other shall go to the descendant or descendants of such deceased grandfather or grandmother. If there be no such descendants, then the whole estate shall be inherited by the surviving grandfather or grandmother. If there be no surviving grandfather or grandmother, then the whole of such estate shall go to their descendants, and so on without end, passing in like manner to the nearest lineal ancestors and their descendants.

(b) Intestate Leaving Husband or Wife. Where any person having title to any estate, real, personal or mixed, other than a community estate, shall die intestate as to such estate, and shall leave a surviving husband or wife, such estate of such intestate shall descend and pass as follows:

1. If the deceased have a child or children, or their descendants, the surviving husband or wife shall take one-third of the personal estate, and the balance of such personal estate shall go to the child or children of the deceased and their descendants. The surviving husband or wife shall also be entitled to an estate for life, in one-third of the land of the intestate, with remainder to the child or children of the intestate and their descendants.

2. If the deceased have no child or children, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to all the personal estate, and to one-half of the lands of the intestate, without remainder to any person, and the other half shall pass and be inherited according to the rules of descent and distribution; provided, however, that if the deceased has neither surviving father nor mother nor surviving brothers or sisters, or their descendants, then the surviving husband or wife shall be entitled to the whole of the estate of such intestate.

§ 39. No Distinction Because of Property's Source

There shall be no distinction in regulating the descent and distribution of the estate of a person dying intestate between property which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the father, and that which may have been derived by gift, devise or descent from the mother; and all the estate to which such intestate may have had title at the time of death shall descend and vest in the heirs of such person in the same manner as if he had been the original purchaser thereof.

§ 40. Inheritance By and From an Adopted Child

For purposes of inheritance under the laws of descent and distribution, an adopted child shall be regarded as the child of the parent or parents by adoption, such adopted child and its descendants inheriting from and through the parent or parents by adoption and their kin the same as if such child were the natural legitimate child of such parent or parents by adoption, and such parent or parents by adoption and their kin inheriting from and through such adopted child the same as if such child were the natural legitimate child of such parent or parents by adoption. The natural parent or parents of such child and their kin shall not inherit from or through said child, but said child shall inherit from and through its natural parent or parents. Nothing herein shall prevent any parent by adoption from disposing of his property by will according to law. The presence of this Section specifically relating to the rights of adopted children shall in no way diminish the rights of such children, under the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise, which they acquire by virtue of their inclusion in the definition of "child" which is contained in this Code.

§ 41. Matters Affecting and Not Affecting the Right to Inherit

(a) Persons Not in Being. No right of inheritance shall accrue to any persons other than to children or lineal descendants of the intestate, unless they are in being and capable in law to take as heirs at the time of the death of the intestate.

(b) Heirs of Whole and Half Blood. In situations where the inheritance passes to the collateral kindred of the intestate, if part of such collateral be of the whole blood, and the other part be of the half blood only, of the intestate, each of those of half blood shall inherit only half so much as each of those of the whole blood; but if all be of the half blood, they shall have whole portions.

(c) Alienage. No person is disqualified to take as an heir because he or a person through whom he claims is or has been an alien.

(d) Convicted Persons and Suicides. No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate, except in the case of a beneficiary in a life insurance policy or contract who is convicted and sentenced as a principal or accomplice in wilfully bringing about the death of the insured, in which case the proceeds of such insurance policy or contract shall be paid as provided in the Insurance Code of this State, as same now exists or is hereafter amended; nor shall there be any forfeiture by reason of death by casualty; and the estates of those who destroy their own lives shall descend or vest as in the case of natural death.

§ 42. Inheritance Rights of Illegitimate Children

For the purpose of inheritance to, through, and from an illegitimate child, such child shall be treated the same as if he were the legitimate child of his mother, so that he and his issue shall inherit from his mother and from his maternal kindred, both descendants, ascendants, and collaterals in all degrees, and they may inherit from him. Such child shall also be treated the same as if he were a legitimate child of his mother for the purpose of determining homestead rights, the distribution of exempt property, and the making of family allowances. Where a man, having by a woman a child or children shall afterwards intermarry with such woman, such child or children shall thereby be legitimated and made capable of inheriting his estate. The issue also of marriages deemed null in law shall nevertheless be legitimate.

§ 43. Determination of Per Capita and Per Stirpes Distribution

When the intestate's children, or brothers, sisters, uncles, and aunts, or any other relatives of the deceased standing in the first or same degree alone come into the distribution upon intestacy, they shall take per capita, namely: by persons; and, when a part of them being dead and a part living, the descendants of those dead shall have right to distribution upon intestacy, such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive.

§ 44. Advancement Brought Into Hotchpotch

Where any of the heirs of a person dying intestate shall have received from such intestate in his lifetime any real, personal or mixed estate by way of advancement, and shall choose to come into the partition and distribution of the estate with the other distributees, such advancement shall be brought into hotch-potch with the whole estate, and such party returning such advancement shall thereupon be entitled to his proper portion of the whole estate; provided that it shall be sufficient to account for the value of the property so brought into hotch-potch at the time it was advanced. Every gratuitous inter vivos transfer is deemed to be an absolute gift and not an advancement unless proved to be an advancement. If an advancee dies before the intestate, leaving a lineal heir who takes from the intestate, the advancement shall be taken into account in the same manner as if it had been directly to such heir. If such heir is entitled to a lesser share in the estate than the advancee would have been entitled to had he survived the intestate, then the heir shall be charged only with such portion of the advancement as the amount he would have inherited, had there been no advancement, bears to the amount which the advancee would have inherited had there been no advancement.

§ 45. Community Estate

Upon the dissolution of the marriage relation by death, all property belonging to the community estate of the husband and wife shall go to the survivor, if there be no child or children of the deceased or their descendants; but if there be a child or children of the deceased, or descendants of such child or children, then the survivor shall be entitled to one-half of said property, and the other half shall pass to such child or children, or their descendants. But such descendants shall inherit only such portion of said property as the parent through whom they inherit would be entitled to if alive. In every case, the community estate passes charged with the debts against it.

§ 46. Joint Tenancies Abolished

Where two (2) or more persons hold an estate, real, personal, or mixed, jointly, and one (1) joint owner dies before severance, his interest in said joint estate shall not survive to the remaining joint owner or joint owners, but shall descend to, and be vested in, the heirs or legal representatives of such deceased joint owner in the same manner as if his interest had been severed and ascertained. Provided, however, that by an agreement in writing of joint owners of property the interest of any joint owner who dies may be made to survive to the surviving joint owner or joint owners, but no such agreement shall be inferred from the mere fact that the property is held in joint ownership.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 233, ch. 120, § 1, eff. May 15, 1961; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1922, ch. 641, § 3, eff. June 12, 1969.]

§ 47. Passage of Title Upon Simultaneous Death

(a) When Property Disposed of as if Each Survived. When the title to property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no direct evidence that persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise in this Section.

(b) Disposal of Community Property. When a husband and wife have died, leaving community property, and there is no direct evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, one-half of all community property shall be distributed as if the husband had survived, and the other one-half thereof shall be distributed as if the wife had survived. The provisions of this subsection apply to proceeds of life or accident insurance which are community property and become payable to the estate of either the husband or the wife, as well as to other kinds of community property.

(c) Survival of Beneficiaries. If property is so disposed of that the right of a beneficiary to succeed to any interest therein is conditional upon his surviving another person, and there is no direct evidence that the two have died otherwise than simultaneously, the beneficiary shall be deemed not to have survived. Provided, however, if any interest in property is given alternatively to one of two or more beneficiaries, with the right of each to take being dependent upon his surviving the other or others, and all shall die, and there is no direct evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are beneficiaries, and those portions shall be distributed respectively to those who would have taken in the event that each beneficiary had survived.

(d) Joint Owners. If any stocks, bonds, bank deposits, or other intangible property shall be so owned that one of two joint owners is entitled to the whole on the death of the other, and there is no direct evidence that the joint owners shall have died otherwise than simultaneously, these assets shall be distributed one-half as if one joint owner had survived and the other one-half as if the other joint owner had survived. If there are more than two joint owners and there is no direct evidence that all have died otherwise than simultaneously, these assets shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are joint owners and these portions shall be distributed respectively to those who would have taken in the event that each joint owner survived.

(e) Insured and Beneficiary. When the insured and a beneficiary in a policy of life or accident insurance have died and there is no direct evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the insured shall be deemed to have survived the beneficiary for the purpose of determining the rights under the policy of the beneficiary or beneficiaries as such. The provisions of this subsection shall not prevent the application of subsection (b) above to the proceeds of life or accident insurance which are community property.

(f) Instruments Providing Different Disposition. When provision has been made in the case of wills, living trusts, deeds, or contracts of insurance, or any other situation, for disposition of property different from the provisions of this Section, this Section shall not apply.

§ 48. Proceedings to Declare Heirship. When and Where Instituted

(a) When a person dies intestate owning or entitled to real or personal property in Texas, and there shall have been no administration in this State upon his estate; or when there has been a will probated in this State or elsewhere, or an administration in this State upon the estate of such decedent, and any real or personal property in this State has been omitted from such will or from such administration, or no final disposition thereof has been made in such administration, the court of the county in which such proceedings were last pending, or in the event no will of such decedent has been admitted to probate in this State, and no administration has been granted in this State upon the estate of such decedent, then the court of the county in which any of the real property belonging to such estate is situated, or if there is no such real estate, then of the county in which any personal property belonging to such estate is found, may determine and declare in the manner hereinafter provided who are the heirs and only heirs of such decedent, and their respective shares and interests, under the laws of this State, in the estate of such decedent, and proceedings therefor shall be known as proceedings to declare heirship.

(b) If an application for determination of heirship is filed within four (4) years from the date of the death of the decedent, the applicant may request that the court determine whether a necessity for administration exists. The court shall hear evidence upon the issue and make a determination thereof in its judgment.

§ 49. Who May Institute Proceedings to Declare Heirship

Such proceedings may be instituted and maintained in any of the instances enumerated above by any person or persons claiming to be the owner of the whole or a part of the estate of such decedent. In such a case an application shall be filed in a proper court stating the name, time, and place of death and the names and residences of the heirs of the decedent, if known to the applicant, and, if the time and place of death or the names and residences of all of the heirs of such decedent be not definitely known to such applicant, then the application shall set forth all of the material facts and circumstances within the knowledge or information of such applicant, as may reasonably tend to show the time and place of death of the decedent, and the names and places of residence of the heirs, and the true share and interest of each applicant, and of each heir, in the estate of such decedent. Such application shall, so far as is known to any of the applicants, contain a general description of all the real property of the decedent and a general description of all the personal property belonging to the estate of the decedent. If any of the foregoing information is not set out in the application, the reason for the omission shall be stated. Such application shall be supported by the affidavit of each applicant to the effect that, insofar as is known to such applicant, all the allegations of such application are true in substance and in fact and that no such material fact or circumstance has, within the affiant's knowledge, been omitted from such application. The unknown heirs of such decedent, all persons who are named in the application as heirs of such decedent, and all persons who are, at the date of the filing of the application, shown by the deed records of the county in which any of the real property described in such application is situated to own any share or interest in any such real property, shall be made parties in such proceeding.

§ 50. Notice.

Citation shall be served by registered or certified mail upon all defendants whose names and addresses are known, or whose names and addresses can be learned through the exercise of reasonable diligence, provided that the court may in its discretion require that service of citation shall be made by personal service upon some or all of those named as defendants in the application. Unknown heirs, and known heirs whose addresses cannot be ascertained, shall be served by publication in the county in which the proceedings are commenced, and if the decedent resided in another county, then a citation shall also be published in the county of his last residence. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 971, ch. 173, § 4, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.]

§ 51. Transfer of Proceeding When Will Probated or Administration Granted

If an administration upon the estate of any such decedent shall be granted in the State, or if the will of such decedent shall be admitted to probate in this State, after the institution of a proceeding to declare heirship, the court in which such proceeding is pending shall, by an order entered of record therein, transfer the cause to the court of the county in which such administration shall have been granted, or such will shall have been probated, and thereupon the clerk of the court in which such proceeding was originally filed shall send to the clerk of the court named in such order, a certified transcript of all pleadings, docket entries, and orders of the court in such cause. The clerk of the court to which such cause shall be transferred shall file the transcript and record the same in the minutes of the court and shall docket such cause, and the same shall thereafter proceed as though originally filed in that court. The court, in its discretion, may consolidate the cause so transferred with the pending proceeding. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 971, ch. 173, § 4, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.]

§ 52. Recorded Instruments as Prima Facie Evidence

Any statement of facts concerning the family history, genealogy, marital status, or the identity of the heirs of a decedent shall be received in a proceeding to declare heirship, or in any suit involving title to real or personal property, as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, when such statement is contained in either an affidavit or any other instrument legally executed and acknowledged, or any judgment of a court of record, if such affidavit or instrument has been of record for five years or more in the deed records of any county in this state in which such real or personal property is located at the time the suit is instituted, or in the deed records of any county of this state in which the decedent had his domicile or fixed place of residence at the time of his death. If there is any error in the statement of facts in such recorded affidavit or instrument, the true facts may be proved by anyone interested in the proceeding in which said affidavit or instrument is offered in evidence. This statute shall be cumulative of all other statutes on the same subject, and shall not be construed as abrogating any right to present evidence conferred by any other statute or rule of law.

§ 53. Evidence; Unknown Parties

(a) The court in its discretion may require all or any part of the evidence admitted in a proceeding to declare heirship to be reduced to writing, and subscribed and sworn to by the witnesses, respectively, and filed in the cause, and recorded in the minutes of the court.

(b) If it appears to the court that there are or may be living heirs whose names or whereabouts are unknown, or that any defendant is a minor or an incompetent, the court may, in its discretion, appoint an attorney to represent the interests of any such persons, but no attorney shall be appointed except when the court finds that such appointment is necessary to protect the interests of the persons for whom the attorney is appointed.

§ 54. Judgment

The judgment of the court in a proceeding to declare heirship shall declare the names and places of residence of the heirs of the decedent, and their respective shares and interests in the real and personal property of such decedent. If the proof is in any respect deficient, the judgment shall so state.

§ 55. Effect of Judgment

(a) Such judgment shall be a final judgment, and may be appealed or reviewed within the same time limits and in the same manner as may other judgments in probate matters at the instance of any interested person. If any person who is an heir of the decedent is not served with citation by registered or certified mail, or by personal service, he may at any time within four years from the date of such judgment have the same corrected by writ of certiorari or bill of review, or upon proof of actual fraud, after the passage of any length of time, and may recover from the heirs named in the judgment, and those claiming under them who are not bona fide purchasers for value, his just share of the property or its value.

(b) Although such judgment may later be modified, set aside, or nullified, it shall nevertheless be conclusive in any suit between any heir omitted from the judgment and a bona fide purchaser for value who has purchased real or personal property after entry of the judgment without actual notice of the claim of the omitted heir. Similarly, any person who has delivered funds or property of the decedent to the persons declared to be heirs in the judgment, or has engaged in any other transaction with them, in good faith, after entry of such judgment, shall not be liable therefor to any person.

(c) If the court states in its judgment that there is no necessity for administration on the estate, such recital shall constitute authorization to all persons owing any money to the estate of the decedent, or having custody of any property of such estate, or acting as registrar or transfer agent of any evidence of interest, indebtedness, property, or right belonging to the estate, and to persons purchasing from or otherwise dealing with the heirs as determined in the judgment, to pay, deliver, or transfer such property or evidence of property rights to such heirs, or to purchase property from such heirs, without liability to any creditor of the estate or other person. Such heirs shall be entitled to enforce their right to payment, delivery, or transfer by suit. Nothing in this chapter shall affect the rights or remedies of the creditors of the decedent except as provided in this subsection.

§ 56. Filing of Certified Copy of Judgment

A certified copy of such judgment may be filed for record in the office of the county clerk of the county in which any of the real property described in such judgment is situated, and recorded in the deed records of such county, and indexed in the name of such decedent as grantor and of the heirs named in such judgment as grantees; and, from and after such filing, such judgment shall constitute constructive notice of the facts set forth therein.

Every person who has attained the age of eighteen years, or who is or has been lawfully married, or who is a member of the armed forces of the United States or of the auxiliaries thereof or of the maritime service at the time the will is made, being of sound mind, shall have the right and power to make a last will and testament, under the rules and limitations prescribed by law.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 801, ch. 334, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967, 90 days after date of adjournment.]

§ 58. Interests Which May Pass Under a Will

Every person competent to make a last will and testament may thereby devise and bequeath all the estate, right, title, and interest in possession, expectancy, reversion, or remainder, which he has, or at the time of his death shall have, of, in or to any lands, tenements, hereditaments, or rents charged upon or issuing out of them, or shall have of, in or to any personal property whatever, including choses in action, subject to the limitations prescribed by law.

§ 58a. Devises or Bequests to Trustees

By a will duly executed pursuant to the provisions of this Code, a testator may devise or bequeath property to the trustee of any trust (including an unfunded life insurance trust, even though the trustor has reserved any or all rights of ownership in the insurance contracts) the terms of which are evidenced by a written instrument in existence before or concurrently with the execution of such will and which is identified in such will, even though such trust is subject to amendment, modification, revocation or termination. The property so devised or bequeathed shall be added to the corpus of such trust to be administered as a part thereof and shall thereafter be governed by the terms and provisions of the instrument establishing such trust, including written amendments or modifications thereto made before the death of the testator. An entire revocation of the trust prior to the testator's death shall cause the devise or bequest to lapse.

§ 59. Requisites of a Will

Every last will and testament, except where otherwise provided by law, shall be in writing and signed by the testator in person or by another person for him by his direction and in his presence, and shall, if not wholly in the handwriting of the testator, be attested by two (2) or more credible witnesses above the age of fourteen (14) years who shall subscribe their names thereto in their own handwriting in the presence of the testator. Such a will or testament may, at the time of its execution or at any subsequent date during the lifetime of the testator and the witnesses, be made self-proved, and the testimony of the witnesses in the probate thereof may be made unnecessary, by the affidavits of the testator and the attesting witnesses, made before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments to deeds of conveyance and to administer oaths under the laws of this State. Provided that nothing shall require an affidavit, acknowledgment or certificate of any testator or testatrix as a prerequisite to self-proof of a will or testament other than the certificate set out below. The affidavits shall be evidenced by a certificate, with official seal affixed, of such officer attached or annexed to such will or testament in form and contents substantially as follows:

THE STATE OF TEXAS

 (Official Capacity of Officer)

A self-proved will may be admitted to probate without the testimony of any subscribing witness, but otherwise it shall be treated no differently than a will not self-proved. In particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a self-proved will may be contested, or revoked or amended by a codicil in exactly the same fashion as a will not self-proved.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 936, ch. 412, § 1, eff. June 17, 1961; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1922, ch. 641, § 5, eff. June 12, 1969; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 974, ch. 173, § 5, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.]

Section 2 of Acts 1961, 57th Leg., ch. 412 provided: "All wills self-proved prior to the passage of this Act which were executed in compliance with Section 59, of the Texas Probate Code are in all things relating to self-proving hereby ratified."

§ 60. Exception Pertaining to Holographic Wills

Where the will is written wholly in the handwriting of the testator, the attestation of the subscribing witnesses may be dispensed with. Such a will may be made self-proved at any time during the testator's lifetime by the attachment or annexation thereto of an affidavit by the testator to the effect that the instrument is his last will; that he was at least eighteen years of age when he executed it (or, if under such age, was or had been lawfully married, or was then a member of the armed forces of the United States or of an auxiliary thereof or of the Maritime Service); that he was of sound mind; and that he has not revoked such instrument.

§ 61. Bequest to Witness

Should any person be a subscribing witness to a will, and also be a legatee or devisee therein, if the will cannot be otherwise established, such bequest shall be void, and such witness shall be allowed and compelled to appear and give his testimony in like manner as if no such bequest had been made. But, if in such case the witness would have been entitled to a share of the estate of the testator had there been no will, he shall be entitled to as much of such share as shall not exceed the value of the bequest to him in the will.

§ 62. Corroboration of Testimony of Interested Witness

In the situation covered by the preceding Section, the bequest to the subscribing witness shall not be void if his testimony proving the will is corroborated by one or more disinterested and credible persons who testify that the testimony of the subscribing witness is true and correct, and such subscribing witness shall not be regarded as an incompetent or non-credible witness under Section 59 of this Code.

§ 63. Revocation of Wills

No will in writing, and no clause thereof or devise therein, shall be revoked, except by a subsequent will, codicil, or declaration in writing, executed with like formalities, or by the testator destroying or canceling the same, or causing it to be done in his presence.

§ 64. Capacity to Make a Nuncupative Will

Any person who is competent to make a last will and testament may dispose of his personal property by a nuncupative will made under the conditions and limitations prescribed in this Code.

§ 65. Requisites of a Nuncupative Will

No nuncupative will shall be established unless it be made in the time of the last sickness of the deceased, at his home or where he has resided for ten days or more next preceding the date of such will, except when the deceased is taken sick away from home and dies before he returns to such home; nor when the value exceeds Thirty Dollars, unless it be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on a person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

§ 66. Posthumous Children

When a testator shall have children born and his wife is enceinte, the posthumous child, if unprovided for by settlement and pretermitted by his last will and testament, shall succeed to the same portion of the father's estate as such child would have been entitled to if the father had died intestate; toward which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament; provided, however, that where the surviving wife is the mother of all of the testator's children and said surviving wife is the principal beneficiary in said testator's last will and testament to the entire exclusion, by silence or otherwise, of all of said testator's children, then and in that event the foregoing provisions shall not apply or be considered in the construction of said last will and testament.

§ 67. After-Born or After-Adopted Children

(a) Where a Child Was Living When Will Was Executed. If a testator having a child or children born or adopted at the time of making his last will and testament shall, at his death, leave a child or children born or adopted after the making of such last will and testament, the child or children so after-born or after-adopted and pretermitted shall, unless provided for by settlement, succeed to the same portion of the testator's estate as they would have been entitled to if the testator had died intestate; toward raising which portion the devisees and legatees shall contribute proportionately out of the parts devised and bequeathed to them by such last will and testament; provided, however, that where the surviving husband or wife is the father or mother of all of testator's children, exclusive of adopted children, and said surviving husband or wife is the principal beneficiary in said testator's last will and testament, to the entire exclusion, by silence or otherwise, of all of said testator's children, then and in that event the foregoing provisions of this Section shall not apply or be considered in the construction of said last will and testament.

(b) Where No Child Was Living When Will Was Executed. Every last will and testament made when the testator had no child living, wherein any child he might have is not provided for or mentioned, if at the time of his death he shall leave a child, either born to him or adopted by him, or shall leave his wife enceinte of a child which shall be born, shall have no effect during the life of such after-born or after-adopted child, and shall be void, unless such child dies within one year after the death of the testator; provided, however, that where a surviving husband or wife is the father or mother of all of the testator's children, exclusive of adopted children, and said surviving husband or wife is the principal beneficiary in said testator's last will and testament, to the entire exclusion, by silence or otherwise, of all of said testator's children, then and in that event the foregoing provisions of this Section shall not apply or be considered in the construction of said last will and testament.

(c) Definition of "Children." As used in this Section and in the preceding Section, the term "children" includes descendants of whatever degree they may be, it being understood that they are counted only for the child they represent.

§ 68. Prior Death of Legatee

Where a testator shall devise or bequeath an estate or interest of any kind by will to a child or other descendant of such testator, should such devisee or legatee, during the lifetime of such testator, die leaving children or descendants who shall survive such testator, such devise or legacy shall not lapse by reason of such death, but the estate so devised or bequeathed shall vest in the children or descendants of such legatee or devisee in the same manner as if he had survived the testator and died intestate.

§ 69. Voidness Arising From Divorce

If the testator is divorced after making a will, all provisions in the will in favor of the testator's spouse so divorced, or appointing such spouse to any fiduciary capacity under the will or with respect to the estate or person of the testator's children, shall be null and void and of no effect.

§ 70. Provision in Will for Management of Separate Property

The husband or wife may, by last will and testament, give to the survivor of the marriage the power to keep testator's separate property together until each of the several distributees shall become of lawful age, and to manage and control the same under the provisions of law relating to community property, and subject to such other restrictions as are imposed by such will; provided, that any child or distributee entitled to any part of said property shall, at any time upon becoming of age, be entitled to receive his distributive portion of said estate.

§ 71. Deposit of Will With Court During Testator's Lifetime

(a) Deposit of Will. A will may be deposited by the person making it, or by another person for him, with the county clerk of the county of the testator's residence. Before accepting any will for deposit, the clerk may require such proof as shall be satisfactory to him concerning the testator's identity and residence. The clerk, on being paid a fee of Three Dollars therefor, shall receive and keep the will, and shall give a certificate of deposit for it. All wills so filed shall be numbered by the clerk in consecutive order, and all certificates of deposit shall bear like numbers respectively.

(b) How Will Shall Be Enclosed. Every will intended to be deposited with a county clerk shall be enclosed in a sealed wrapper, which shall have indorsed thereon "Will of," followed by the name, address and signature of the testator. The wrapper must also be indorsed with the name and current address of each person who shall be notified of the deposit of the will after the death of the testator.

(c) Index To Be Kept of All Wills Deposited. Each county clerk shall keep an index of all wills so deposited with him.

(d) To Whom Will Shall Be Delivered. During the lifetime of the testator, a will so deposited shall be delivered only to the testator, or to another person authorized by him by a sworn written order. Upon delivery of the will to the testator or to a person so authorized by him, the certificate of deposit issued for the will shall be surrendered by the person to whom delivery of the will is made; provided, however, that in lieu of the surrender of such certificate, the clerk may, in his discretion, accept and file an affidavit by the testator to the effect that the certificate of deposit has been lost, stolen, or destroyed.

(e) Proceedings Upon Death of Testator. If there shall be submitted to the clerk an affidavit to the effect that the testator of any will deposited with the clerk has died, or if the clerk shall receive any other notice or proof of the death of such testator which shall suffice to convince him that the testator is deceased, the clerk shall notify by registered mail with return receipt requested the person or persons named on the indorsement of the wrapper of the will that the will is on deposit in his office, and, upon request, he shall deliver the will to such person or persons, taking a receipt therefor. If the notice by registered mail is returned undelivered, or if a clerk has accepted a will which does not specify on the wrapper the person or persons to whom it shall be delivered, the clerk shall open the wrapper and inspect the will. If an executor is named in the will, he shall be notified by registered mail, with return receipt requested, that the will is on deposit, and, upon request, the clerk shall deliver the will to the person so named as executor. If no executor is named in the will, or if the person so named is deceased, or fails to take the will within thirty days after the clerk's notice to him is mailed, or if notice to the person so named is returned undelivered, the clerk shall give notice by registered mail, with return receipt requested, to the devisees and legatees named in the will that the will is on deposit, and, upon request, the clerk shall deliver the will to any or all of such devisees and legatees.

(f) Depositing Has No Legal Significance. These provisions for the depositing of a will during the lifetime of a testator are solely for the purpose of providing a safe and convenient repository for such a will, and no will which has been so deposited shall be treated for purposes of probate any differently than any will which has not been so deposited. In particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a will which is not deposited shall be admitted to probate upon proof that it is the last will and testament of the testator, notwithstanding the fact that the same testator has on deposit with the court a prior will which has been deposited in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

(g) Depositing Does Not Constitute Notice. The fact that a will has been deposited as provided herein shall not constitute notice of any character, constructive or otherwise, to any person as to the existence of such will or as to the contents thereof. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

PART 1. ESTATES OF DECEDENTS

§ 72. Proceedings Before Death; Administration in Absence of Direct Evidence of Death; Distribution; Limitation of Liability; Restoration of Estate; Validation of Proceedings

(a) The probate of a will or administration of an estate of a living person shall be void; provided, however, that the court shall have jurisdiction to determine the fact, time and place of death, and where application is made for the grant of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of a person believed to be dead and there is no direct evidence that such person is dead but the death of such person shall be proved by circumstantial evidence to the satisfaction of the court, such letters shall be granted. Distribution of the estate to the persons entitled thereto shall not be made by the personal representative until after the expiration of three (3) years from the date such letters are granted. If in a subsequent action such person shall be proved by direct evidence to have been living at any time subsequent to the date of grant of such letters, neither the personal representative nor anyone who shall deliver said estate or any part thereof to another under orders of the court shall be liable therefor; and provided further, that such person shall be entitled to restoration of said estate or the residue thereof with the rents and profits therefrom, except real or personal property sold by the personal representative or any distributee, his successors or assigns, to bona fide purchasers for value, in which case the right of such person to the restoration shall be limited to the proceeds of such sale or the residue thereof with the increase thereof. In no event shall the bonds of such personal representative be void provided, however, that the surety shall have no liability for any acts of the personal representative which were done in compliance with or approved by an order of the court. Probate proceedings upon estates of persons believed to be dead brought prior to the effective date of this Act and all such probate proceedings then pending, except such probate proceedings contested in any litigation pending on the effective date of this Act, are hereby validated insofar as the court's finding of death of such person is concerned.

(b) In any case in which the fact of death must be proved by circumstantial evidence, the court, at the request of any interested person, may direct that citation be issued to the person supposed to be dead, and served upon him by publication and by posting, and by such additional means as the court may by its order direct. After letters testamentary or of administration have been issued, the court may also direct the personal representative to make a search for the person supposed to be dead by notifying law enforcement agencies and public welfare agencies in appropriate locations that such person has disappeared, and may further direct that the applicant engage the services of an investigative agency to make a search for such person. The expenses of search and notices shall be taxed as costs and shall be paid out of the property of the estate.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 950, ch. 442, § 1, eff. May 30, 1959; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 975, ch. 173, § 7, eff. Jan. 1, 1972.]

§ 73. Period for Probate

(a) No will shall be admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator unless it be shown by proof that the party applying for such probate was not in default in failing to present the same for probate within the four years aforesaid; and in no case shall letters testamentary be issued where a will is admitted to probate after the lapse of four years from the death of the testator.

(b) If any person shall purchase real or personal property from the heirs of a decedent more than four years from the date of the death of the decedent, for value, in good faith, and without knowledge of the existence of a will, such purchaser shall be held to have good title to the interest which such heir or heirs would have had in the absence of a will, as against the claims of any devisees or legatees under any will which may thereafter be offered for probate.

§ 74. Time to File Application for Letters Testamentary or Administration

All applications for the grant of letters testamentary or of administration upon an estate must be filed within four years after the death of the testator or intestate; provided, that this section shall not apply in any case where administration is necessary in order to receive or recover funds or other property due to the estate of the decedent.

§ 75. Duty and Liability of Custodian of Will

Upon receiving notice of the death of a testator, the person having custody of the testator's will shall deliver it to the clerk of the court which has jurisdiction of the estate. On sworn written complaint that any person has the last will of any testator, or any papers belonging to the estate of a testator or intestate, the county judge shall cause said person to be cited by personal service to appear before him and show cause why he should not deliver such will to the court for probate, or why he should not deliver such papers to the executor or administrator. Upon the return of such citation served, unless delivery is made or good cause shown, if satisfied that such person had such will or papers at the time of filing the complaint, such judge may cause him to be arrested and imprisoned until he shall so deliver them. Any person refusing to deliver such will or papers shall also be liable to any person aggrieved for all damages sustained as a result of such refusal, which damages may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 76. Persons Who May Make Application

An executor named in a will or any interested person may make application to the court of a proper county:

(a) For an order admitting a will to probate, whether the same is written or unwritten, in his possession or not, is lost, is destroyed, or is out of the State.

(b) For the appointment of the executor named in the will.

(c) For the appointment of an administrator, if no executor is designated in the will, or if the person so named is disqualified, or refuses to serve, or is dead, or resigns, or if there is no will. An application for probate may be combined with an application for the appointment of an executor or administrator; and a person interested in either the probate of the will or the appointment of a personal representative may apply for both.

§ 77. Order of Persons Qualified to Serve

Letters testamentary or of administration shall be granted to persons who are qualified to act, in the following order:

(b) To the surviving husband or wife.

(c) To the principal devisee or legatee of the testator.

(d) To any devisee or legatee of the testator.

(e) To the next of kin of the deceased, the nearest in order of descent first, and so on.

(f) To a creditor of the deceased.

(g) To any person of good character residing in the county who applies therefor.

(h) To any other person not disqualified under the following Section. When applicants are equally entitled, letters shall be granted to the applicant who, in the judgment of the court, is most likely to administer the estate advantageously, or they may be granted to any two or more of such applicants.

§ 78. Persons Disqualified to Serve as Executor or Administrator

No person is qualified to serve as an executor or administrator who is:

(a) A minor; or

(b) An incompetent; or

(f) A person whom the court finds unsuitable.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 53, ch. 31, § 2a, eff. Aug. 22, 1957; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1922, ch. 641, § 7, eff. June 12, 1969.]

§ 79. Waiver of Right to Serve

The surviving husband or wife, or, if there be none, the heirs or any one of the heirs of the deceased to the exclusion of any person not equally entitled, may, in open court, or by power of attorney duly authenticated and filed with the county clerk of the county where the application is filed, renounce his right to letters testamentary or of administration in favor of another qualified person, and thereupon the court may grant letters to such person.

§ 80. Prevention of Administration

(a) Method of Prevention. When application is made for letters of administration upon an estate by a creditor, and other interested persons do not desire an administration thereupon, they can defeat such application:

(1) By the payment of the claim of such creditor; or

(2) By proof to the satisfaction of the court that such claim is fictitious, fraudulent, illegal, or barred by limitation; or

(3) By executing a bond payable to, and to be approved by, the judge in double the amount of such creditor's debt, conditioned that the obligors will pay the debt of such applicant upon the establishment thereof by suit in any court in the county having jurisdiction of the amount.

(b) Filing of Bond. The bond provided for, when given and approved, shall be filed with the county clerk, and any creditor for whose protection it was executed may sue thereon in his own name for the recovery of his debt.

(c) Bond Secured by Lien. A lien shall exist on all of the estate in the hands of the distributees of such estate, and those claiming under them with notice of such lien, to secure the ultimate payment of the bond provided for herein.

§ 81. Contents of Application for Letters Testamentary

(a) For Probate of a Written Will. A written will shall, if within the control of the applicant, be filed with the application for its probate, and shall remain in the custody of the county clerk unless removed therefrom by order of a proper court. An application for probate of a written will shall state:

(2) The name, age if known, and domicile of the decedent, and the fact, time, and place of death.

(3) Facts showing that the court has venue.

(4) That the decedent owned real or personal property, or both, describing the same generally, and stating its probable value.

(5) The date of the will, the name and residence of the executor named therein, if any, and if none be named, then the name and residence of the person to whom it is desired that letters be issued, and also the names and residences of the subscribing witnesses, if any.

(6) Whether a child or children born or adopted after the making of such will survived the decedent, and the name of each such survivor, if any.

(7) That such executor or applicant, or other person to whom it is desired that letters be issued, is not disqualified by law from accepting letters.

(8) Whether the decedent was ever divorced, and if so, when and from whom.

The foregoing matters shall be stated and averred in the application to the extent that they are known to the applicant, or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained by him, and if any of such matters is not stated or averred in the application, the application shall set forth the reason why such matter is not so stated and averred.

(b) For Probate of Written Will Not Produced. When a written will cannot be produced in court, in addition to the requirements of Subsection (a) hereof, the application shall state:

(1) The reason why such will cannot be produced.

(c) Nuncupative Wills. An application for probate of a nuncupative will shall contain all applicable statements required with respect to written wills in the foregoing subsections and also:

(1) The substance of testamentary words spoken.

(2) The names and residences of the witnesses thereto.

§ 82. Contents of Application for Letters of Administration

(c) Facts necessary to show venue in the court to which the application is made.

(d) The nature and probable value of the estate.

(e) That a necessity exists for administration of the estate, alleging the facts which show such necessity.

§ 83. Procedure Pertaining to a Second Application

(a) Where Original Application Has Not Been Heard. If, after an application for the probate of a will or for the appointment of a general personal representative has been filed, and before such application has been heard, an application for the probate of a will of the decedent, not theretofore presented for probate, is filed, the court shall hear both applications together and determine what instrument, if any, should be admitted to probate, or whether the decedent died intestate.

(b) Where First Will Has Been Admitted to Probate. If, after a will has been admitted to probate, an application for the probate of a will of the decedent, not theretofore presented for probate, is filed, the court shall determine whether the former probate should be set aside, and whether such other will should be admitted to probate, or whether the decedent died intestate.

(c) Where Letters of Administration Have Been Granted. Whenever letters of administration shall have been granted upon an estate, and it shall afterwards be discovered that the deceased left a lawful will, such will may be proved in the manner provided for the proof of wills; and, if an executor is named in such will, and he is not disqualified, he shall be allowed to qualify and accept as such executor, and the letters previously granted shall be revoked; but, if no such executor be named in the will, or if the executor named be disqualified, be dead, or shall renounce the executorship, or shall neglect or otherwise fail or be unable to accept and qualify within twenty days after the date of the probate of the will, or shall neglect for a period of thirty days after the discovery of such will to present it for probate, then administration with the will annexed of the estate of such testator shall be granted as in other cases. All acts done by the first administrator, prior to the qualification of the executor or of the administrator with the will annexed, shall be as valid as if no such will had been discovered.

§ 84. Proof of Written Will Produced in Court

(a) Self-Proved Will. If a will is self-proved as provided in this Code, no further proof of its execution with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required to make it a valid will shall be necessary.

(b) Attested Written Will. If not self-proved as provided in this Code, an attested written will produced in court may be proved:

(1) By the sworn testimony or affidavit of one or more of the subscribing witnesses thereto, taken in open court.

(2) If all the witnesses are non-residents of the county, or those who are residents are unable to attend court, by the sworn testimony of any one or more of them by deposition, either written or oral, taken in the same manner and under the same rules as depositions taken in other civil actions; or, if no opposition in writing to such will is filed on or before the date set for hearing thereon, then by the sworn testimony or affidavit of two witnesses taken in open court, or by deposition in the manner provided herein, to the signature or the handwriting evidenced thereby of one or more of the attesting witnesses, or of the testator, if he signed the will; or, if it be shown under oath to the satisfaction of the court that, diligent search having been made, only one witness can be found who can make the required proof, then by the sworn testimony or affidavit of such one taken in open court, or by deposition in the manner provided herein, to such signatures or handwriting.

(3) If none of the witnesses is living, or if all of such witnesses are members of the armed forces of the United States of America or of any auxiliary thereof, or of the armed forces reserve of the United States of America or of any auxiliary thereof, or of the Maritime Service, and are beyond the jurisdiction of the court, by two witnesses to the handwriting of one or both of the subscribing witnesses thereto, or of the testator, if signed by him, and such proof may be either by sworn testimony or affidavit taken in open court, or by deposition, either written or oral, taken in the same manner and under the same rules as depositions taken in other civil actions; or, if it be shown under oath to the satisfaction of the court that, diligent search having been made, only one witness can be found who can make the required proof, then by the sworn testimony or affidavit of such one taken in open court, or by deposition in the manner provided herein, to such signatures or handwriting.

(b) Holographic Will. If not self-proved as provided in this Code, a will wholly in the handwriting of the testator may be proved by two witnesses to his handwriting, which evidence may be by sworn testimony or affidavit taken in open court, or, if such witnesses are non-residents of the county or are residents who are unable to attend court, by deposition, either written or oral, taken in the same manner and under the same rules as depositions taken in other civil actions.

(c) Depositions if No Contest Filed. If no contest has been filed, depositions for the purpose of establishing a will may be taken in the same manner as provided in this Code for the taking of depositions where there is no opposing party or attorney of record upon whom notice and copies of interrogatories may be served; and, in such event, this Subsection, rather than the preceding portions of this Section which provide for the taking of depositions under the same rules as depositions in other civil actions, shall be applicable.

§ 85. Proof of Written Will Not Produced in Court

A written will which cannot be produced in court shall be proved in the same manner as provided in the preceding Section for an attested written will or an holographic will, as the case may be, and the same amount and character of testimony shall be required to prove such will as is required to prove a written will produced in court; but, in addition thereto, the cause of its non-production must be proved, and such cause must be sufficient to satisfy the court that it cannot by any reasonable diligence be produced, and the contents of such will must be substantially proved by the testimony of a credible witness who has read it or heard it read.

§ 86. Proof of Nuncupative Will

(a) Notice and Proof of Nuncupative Will. No nuncupative will shall be proved within fourteen days after the death of the testator, or until those who would have been entitled by inheritance, had there been no will, have been summoned to contest the same, if they desire to do so.

(b) Testimony Pertaining to Nuncupative Wills. After six months have elapsed from the time of speaking the alleged testamentary words, no testimony shall be received to prove a nuncupative will, unless the testimony or the substance thereof shall have been committed to writing within six days after making the will.

(c) When Value of Estate Exceeds Thirty Dollars. When the value of the estate exceeds Thirty Dollars, a nuncupative will must be proved by three credible witnesses that the testator called on a person to take notice or bear testimony that such is his will, or words of like import.

§ 87. Testimony to Be Committed to Writing

All testimony taken in open court upon the hearing of an application to probate a will shall be committed to writing at the time it is taken, and subscribed, and sworn to in open court by the witness or witnesses, and filed by the clerk; provided, however, that in any contested case, the court may, upon agreement of the parties, and in the event of no agreement on its own motion, dismiss this requirement.

§ 88. Proof Required for Probate and Issuance of Letters Testamentary or of Administration

(a) General Proof. Whenever an applicant seeks to probate a will or to obtain issuance of letters testamentary or of administration, he must first prove to the satisfaction of the court:

(1) That the person is dead, and that four years have not elapsed since his decease and prior to the application; and

(2) That the court has jurisdiction and venue over the estate; and

(3) That citation has been served and returned in the manner and for the length of time required by this Code; and

(4) That the person for whom letters testamentary or of administration are sought is entitled thereto by law and is not disqualified.

(b) Additional Proof for Probate of Will. To obtain probate of a will, the applicant must also prove to the satisfaction of the court:

(1) If the will is not self-proved as provided by this Code, that the testator, at the time of executing the will, was at least eighteen years of age, or was or had been lawfully married, or was a member of the armed forces of the United States or of the auxiliaries thereof, or of the Maritime Service of the United States, and was of sound mind; and

(2) If the will is not self-proved as provided by this Code, that the testator executed the will with the formalities and solemnities and under the circumstances required by law to make it a valid will; and

(3) That such will was not revoked by the testator.

(c) Additional Proof for Issuance of Letters Testamentary. If letters testamentary are to be granted, it must appear to the court that proof required for the probate of the will has been made, and, in addition, that the person to whom the letters are to be granted is named as executor in the will.

(d) Additional Proof for Issuance of Letters of Administration. If letters of administration are to be granted, the applicant must also prove to the satisfaction of the court that there exists a necessity for an administration upon such estate.

(e) Proof Required Where Prior Letters Have Been Granted. If letters testamentary or of administration have previously been granted upon the estate, the applicant need show only that the person for whom letters are sought is entitled thereto by law and is not disqualified.

§ 89. Action of Court on Probated Will

Upon the completion of hearing of an application for the probate of a will, if the Court be satisfied that such will should be admitted to probate, an order to that effect shall be entered. Certified copies of such will and the probate of the same, or of the record thereof, and the record of testimony, may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence, as the original might be, on the trial of the same matter in any other court, when taken there by appeal or otherwise.

Probate of Wills as Muniments of Title. In each instance where the Court is satisfied that a will should be admitted to probate, and where the Court is further satisfied that there are no unpaid debts owing by the estate of the testator, excluding debts secured by liens on real estate, or for other reason finds that there is no necessity for administration upon such estate, the Court may admit such will to probate as a Muniment of Title.

The order admitting a will to probate as a Muniment of Title shall constitute sufficient legal authority to all persons owing any money, having custody of any property, or acting as registrar or transfer agent of any evidence of interest, indebtedness, property, or right belonging to the estate, and to persons purchasing from or otherwise dealing with the estate, for payment or transfer to the persons described in such will as entitled to receive the particular asset without administration. The person or persons entitled to property under the provisions of such wills shall be entitled to deal and treat with the properties to which they are so entitled in the same manner as if the record of title thereof were vested in their names.

§ 90. Custody of Probated Wills

All original wills, together with the probate thereof, shall be deposited in the office of the county clerk of the county wherein the same shall have been probated, and shall there remain, except during such time as they may be removed for inspection to another place upon order by the court where probated. If the court shall order an original will to be removed to another place for inspection, the person removing such original will shall give a receipt therefor, and the clerk of the court shall make and retain a copy of such original will.

§ 91. When Will Not in Custody of Court, or Oral

If for any reason a written will is not in the custody of the court, or if the will is oral, the court shall find the contents thereof by written order, and certified copies of same as so established by the court may be recorded in other counties, and may be used in evidence, as in the case of certified copies of written wills in the custody of the court.

§ 92. Period for Probate Does Not Affect Settlement

Where letters testamentary or of administration shall have once been granted, any person interested in the administration of the estate may proceed, after any lapse of time, to compel settlement of the estate when it does not appear from the record that the administration thereof has been closed.

§ 93. Period for Contesting Probate

After a will has been admitted to probate, any interested person may institute suit in the proper court to contest the validity thereof, within two years after such will shall have been admitted to probate, and not afterward, except that any interested person may institute suit in the proper court to cancel a will for forgery or other fraud within two years after the discovery of such forgery or fraud, and not afterward. Provided, however, that persons non compos mentis and minors shall have two years after the removal of their respective disabilities within which to institute such contest.

§ 94. No Will Effectual Until Probated

Except as hereinafter provided with respect to foreign wills, no will shall be effectual for the purpose of proving title to, or the right to the possession of, any real or personal property disposed of by the will, until such will has been admitted to probate. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

PART 2. PROCEDURE PERTAINING TO FOREIGN WILLS

§ 95. Probate of Foreign Will Accomplished by Filing and Recording

(a) Foreign Will May Be Probated. The written will of a testator who was not domiciled in Texas at the time of his death which would affect any real or personal property in this State, may be admitted to probate upon proof that it stands probated or established in any of the United States, its territories, the District of Columbia, or any foreign nation.

(b) Application and Citation.

(1) Will probated in domiciliary jurisdiction.

If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, the application need state only that probate is requested on the basis of the authenticated copy of the foreign proceedings in which the will was probated or established. No citation or notice is required.

(2) Will probated in non-domiciliary jurisdiction.

If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in any jurisdiction other than the domicile of the testator at the time of his death, the application for its probate shall contain all of the information required in an application for the probate of a domestic will, and shall also set out the name and address of each devisee and each person who will be entitled to a portion of the estate as an heir in the absence of a will. Citations shall be issued and served on each such devisee and heir by registered or certified mail.

(c) Copy of Will and Proceedings To Be Filed. A copy of the will and of the judgment, order, or decree by which it was admitted to probate or otherwise established, attested by the clerk of the court or by such other official as has custody of such will or is in charge of probate records, with the seal of the court affixed, if there is a seal, together with a certificate of the judge or presiding magistrate of such court that the said attestation is in due form, shall be filed with the application.

(d) Probate Accomplished by Recording.

(1) Will admitted in domiciliary jurisdiction.

If the will has been probated or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, it shall be the ministerial duty of the clerk to record such will and the evidence of its probate or establishment in the minutes of the court. No order of the court is necessary. When so filed and recorded, the will shall be deemed to be admitted to probate, and shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if the original will had been probated by order of the court, subject to contest in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided.

(2) Will admitted in non-domiciliary jurisdiction. If the will has been probated or established in another jurisdiction not the domicile of the testator, its probate in this State may be contested in the same manner as if the testator had been domiciled in this State at the time of his death. If no contest is filed, the clerk shall record such will and the evidence of its probate or establishment in the minutes of the court, and no order of the court shall be necessary. When so filed and recorded, it shall be deemed to be admitted to probate, and shall have the same force and effect for all purposes as if the original will had been probated by order of the court, subject to contest in the manner and to the extent hereafter provided.

(e) Effect of Foreign Will on Local Property. If a foreign will has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, such will, when probated as herein provided, shall be effectual to dispose of both real and personal property in this State irrespective of whether such will was executed with the formalities required by this Code.

(f) Protection of Purchasers. When a foreign will has been probated in this State in accordance with the procedure prescribed in this section for a will that has been admitted to probate in the domicile of the testator, and it is later proved in a proceeding brought for that purpose that the foreign jurisdiction in which the will was admitted to probate was not in fact the domicile of the testator, the probate in this State shall be set aside. If any person has purchased property from the personal representative or any legatee or devisee, in good faith and for value, or otherwise dealt with any of them in good faith, prior to the commencement of the proceeding, his title or rights shall not be affected by the fact that the probate in this State is subsequently set aside.

§ 96. Filing and Recording Foreign Will in Deed Records

When any will or testamentary instrument conveying or in any manner disposing of land in this State has been duly probated according to the laws of any of the United States, or territories thereof, or the District of Columbia, or of any country out of the limits of the United States, a copy thereof and of its probate which bears the attestation, seal and certificate required by the preceding Section, may be filed and recorded in the deed records in any county of this State in which said real estate is situated, in the same manner as deeds and conveyances are required to be recorded under the laws of this State, and without further proof or authentication; provided that the validity of such a will or testamentary instrument filed under this Section may be contested in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided.

§ 97. Proof Required for Recording in Deed Records

A copy of such foreign will or testamentary instrument, and of its probate attested as provided above, together with the certificate that said attestation is in due form, shall be prima facie evidence that said will or testamentary instrument has been duly admitted to probate, according to the laws of the state, territory, district, or country wherein it has allegedly been admitted to probate, and shall be sufficient to authorize the same to be recorded in the deed records in the proper county or counties in this State.

§ 98. Effect of Recording Copy of Will in Deed Records

Every such foreign will, or testamentary instrument, and the record of its probate, which shall be attested and proved, as hereinabove provided, and delivered to the county clerk of the proper county in this State to be recorded in the deed records, shall take effect and be valid and effectual as a deed of conveyance of all property in this State covered by said foreign will or testamentary instrument; and the record thereof shall have the same force and effect as the record of deeds or other conveyances of land from the time when such instrument is delivered to the clerk to be recorded, and from that time only.

§ 99. Recording in Deed Records Serves as Notice of Title

The record of any such foreign will, or testamentary instrument, and of its probate, duly attested and proved and filed for recording in the deed records of the proper county, shall be notice to all persons of the existence of such will or testamentary instrument, and of the title or titles conferred thereby.

§ 100. Contest of Foreign Wills

(a) Will Admitted in Domiciliary Jurisdiction. A foreign will that has been admitted to probate or established in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled at the time of his death, and either admitted to probate in this State or filed in the deed records of any county of this State, may be contested by any interested person but only upon the following grounds:

(1) That the foreign proceedings were not authenticated in the manner required for ancillary probate or recording in the deed records.

(2) That the will has been finally rejected for probate in this State in another proceeding.

(3) That the probate of the will has been set aside in the jurisdiction in which the testator died domiciled.

(b) Will Probated in Non-Domiciliary Jurisdiction. A foreign will that has been admitted to probate or established in any jurisdiction other than that of the testator's domicile at the time of his death may be contested on any grounds that are the basis for the contest of a domestic will. If a will has been probated in this State in accordance with the procedure applicable for the probate of a will that has been admitted in the state of domicile, without the service of citation required for a will admitted in another jurisdiction that is not the domicile of the testator, and it is proved that the foreign jurisdiction in which the will was probated was not in fact the domicile of the testator, the probate in this State shall be set aside. If otherwise entitled, the will may be reprobated in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the probate of a will admitted in a non-domiciliary jurisdiction, or it may be admitted to original probate in this State in the same or a subsequent proceeding.

(c) Time and Method. A foreign will that has been admitted to ancillary probate in this State or filed in the deed records in this State may be contested by the same procedures, and within the same time limits, as wills admitted to probate in this State in original proceedings.

§ 101. Notice of Contest of Foreign Will

Within the time permitted for the contest of a foreign will in this State, verified notice may be filed and recorded in the minutes of the court in this State in which the will was probated, or the deed records of any county in this State in which such will was recorded, that proceedings have been instituted to contest the will in the foreign jurisdiction where it was probated or established. Upon such filing and recording, the force and effect of the probate or recording of the will shall cease until verified proof is filed and recorded that the foreign proceedings have been terminated in favor of the will, or that such proceedings were never actually instituted.

§ 102. Effect of Rejection of Will in Domiciliary Proceedings

Final rejection of a will or other testamentary instrument from probate or establishment in the jurisdiction in which the testator was domiciled shall be conclusive in this State, except where the will or other testamentary instrument has been rejected solely for a cause which is not ground for rejection of a will of a testator who died domiciled in this State, in which case the will or testamentary instrument may nevertheless be admitted to probate or continue to be effective in this State.

§ 103. Original Probate of Foreign Will in This State

Original probate of the will of a testator who died domiciled outside this State which, upon probate, may operate upon any property in this State, and which is valid under the laws of this State, may be granted in the same manner as the probate of other wills is granted under this Code, if the will does not stand rejected from probate or establishment in the jurisdiction where the testator died domiciled, or if it stands rejected from probate or establishment in the jurisdiction where the testator died domiciled solely for a cause which is not ground for rejection of a will of a testator who died domiciled in this State. The court may delay passing on the application for probate of a foreign will pending the result of probate or establishment, or of a contest thereof, at the domicile of the testator.

§ 104. Proof of Foreign Will in Original Probate Proceeding

If a testator dies domiciled outside this State, a copy of his will, authenticated in the manner required by this Code, shall be sufficient proof of the contents of the will to admit it to probate in an original proceeding in this State if no objection is made thereto. This Section does not authorize the probate of any will which would not otherwise be admissible to probate, or, in case objection is made to the will, relieve the proponent from offering proof of the contents and legal sufficiency of the will as otherwise required, except that the original will need not be produced unless the court so orders.

§ 105. Executors of Will Probated in Another Jurisdiction

When a foreign will is admitted to ancillary probate in accordance with Section 95 of this Code, the executor named in such will shall be entitled to receive, upon application, letters testamentary upon proof that he has qualified as such in the jurisdiction in which the will was admitted to probate, and that he is not disqualified to serve as executor in this State. After such proof is made, the court shall enter an order directing that ancillary letters testamentary be issued to him. If letters of administration have previously been granted by such court in this State to any other person, such letters shall be revoked upon the application of the executor after personal service of citation upon the person to whom such letters were granted.

(a) Any bank or trust company organized under the laws of, and having its principal office in, the District of Columbia or any territory or state of the United States of America, other than the State of Texas, and any national bank having its principal office in the District of Columbia or such territory or other state (all such banks or trust companies being hereinafter sometimes called "foreign banks or trust companies"), having the corporate power to so act, may be appointed and may serve in the State of Texas as trustee (whether of a personal or corporate trust), executor, administrator, guardian of the estate, or in any other fiduciary capacity, whether the appointment be by will, deed, agreement, declaration, indenture, court order or decree, or otherwise, when and to the extent that the District of Columbia or territory or other state in which such foreign bank or trust company is organized and has its principal office grants authority to serve in like fiduciary capacity to a bank or trust company organized under the laws of, and having its principal office in, the State of Texas, or to a national bank having its principal office in the State of Texas.

Upon receipt of such notice or process, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State forthwith to forward same by registered or certified mail to the officer, agent or other person so designated. Service of notice or process upon the Secretary of State as agent for such a foreign bank or trust company shall in all ways and for all purposes have the same effect as if personal service had been had within this state upon such foreign bank or trust company.

(c) No foreign bank or trust company shall establish or maintain any branch office, agency or other place of business within this state, or shall in any way solicit, directly or indirectly, any fiduciary business in this state of the types embraced by subdivision (a) hereof. Except as authorized herein or as may otherwise be authorized by the laws of this state, no foreign bank or trust company shall act in a fiduciary capacity in this state. Nothing in this Section shall be construed to authorize foreign banks and trust companies to issue or to sell or otherwise market or distribute in this state any investment certificates, trust certificates, or other types of securities (including without limiting the generality of the foregoing any securities of the types authorized by Chapter 7 of the Insurance Code of 1951 prior to the repeal thereof), or to conduct any activities or exercise any powers of the type embraced and regulated by the Texas Banking Code of 1943 other than those conducted and exercised in a fiduciary capacity under the terms and conditions hereof.

(d) Any foreign bank or trust company acting in a fiduciary capacity in this state in strict accordance with the provisions of this Section shall not be deemed to be doing business in the State of Texas within the meaning of Article 8.01 of the Texas Business Corporation Act; shall be deemed qualified to serve in such capacity under the provisions of Section 105 of this Code; and shall not be prohibited by the provisions of Chapter 137, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, amending Article 342-902 of the Texas Banking Code of 1943, from using in its name and stationery the terms "bank," "trust," or "bank and trust."

§ 106. When Foreign Executor to Give Bond

A foreign executor shall not be required to give bond if the will appointing him so provides. If the will does not exempt him from giving bond, the provisions of this Code with respect to the bonds of domestic representatives shall be applicable.

§ 107. Power of Sale of Foreign Executor or Trustee

When by any foreign will recorded in the deed records of any county in this state in the manner provided herein, power is given an executor or trustee to sell any real or personal property situated in this state, no order of a court of this state shall be necessary to authorize such executor or trustee to make such sale and execute proper conveyance, and whenever any particular directions are given by a testator in any such will respecting the sale of any such property situated in this state, belonging to his estate, the same shall be followed unless such directions have been annulled or suspended by order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

PART 3. ESTATES OF MINORS AND INCOMPETENTS

§ 108. Laws Applicable to Guardianships

The provisions, rules, and regulations which govern estates of decedents shall apply to and govern guardianships, whenever the same are applicable and are not inconsistent with any provision of this Code.

§ 109. Persons Qualified to Serve as Guardians

(a) Natural Guardians. If the parents live together, the father is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children by the marriage, and one of the parents, which may be either the father or the mother, is entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates. In event of disagreement as to which parent shall be appointed, the court shall make the appointment on the basis of which one is the better qualified to serve in that capacity. If one parent is dead, the survivor is the natural guardian of the person of the minor children, and is entitled to be appointed guardian of their estates. The rights of parents who do not live together are equal; the guardianship of their minor children shall be assigned to one or the other, the interest of the children alone being considered.

(b) Guardians of Orphans. These rules shall govern as to orphans who are minors:

(1) If the last surviving parent has appointed no guardian, the nearest ascendant in the direct line of such minor is entitled to guardianship of both the person and estate of such minor.

(2) If there be more than one ascendant in the same degree in the direct line, they are equally entitled. The guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, only the best interest of the orphan being considered.

(3) If the orphan has no ascendant in the direct line, the guardianship shall be given to the nearest of kin. If there be two or more in the same degree, the guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to circumstances, only the best interest of the orphan being considered.

(4) If there be no relative of the minor qualified to take the guardianship, or if no person entitled to such guardianship applies therefor, the court shall appoint a qualified person to be such guardian.

(c) Guardians for Persons Other Than Minors. If a person is an incompetent, or one for whom it is necessary that a guardian be appointed to receive funds due from any governmental source, these rules shall govern:

(1) If such person has a spouse who is not disqualified, such spouse shall be entitled to the guardianship in preference to any other person.

(2) If there be no qualified spouse, the nearest of kin to such person, who is not disqualified, or in case of refusal by such spouse or nearest of kin to serve, then any other qualified person shall be entitled to the guardianship.

(3) Where two or more persons are equally entitled, the guardianship shall be given to one or the other, according to the circumstances, only the best interest of the ward being considered.

§ 110. Persons Disqualified to Serve as Guardians

The following persons shall not be appointed guardians:

(a) Minors.

(b) Persons whose conduct is notoriously bad.

(c) Incompetents.

(d) Those who are themselves parties, or whose father or mother is a party to a lawsuit on the result of which the welfare of the person for whom, or for whose estate, a guardian is to be appointed, may depend.

(e) Those who are indebted to the person for whom or for whose estate a guardian is to be appointed, unless they pay the debt prior to the appointment, or who are asserting any claim to any property, real or personal, adverse to the person for whom, or for whose estate, the appointment is sought.

(f) Those who are unable to read and write the English language.

(g) Those who by reason of inexperience or lack of education, or for other good reason, are shown to be incapable of properly and prudently managing and controlling the ward or his estate.

§ 111. Application for Appointment of Permanent Guardian

A proceeding for the appointment of a guardian shall be begun by written application filed in the court of the county having venue thereof. Any person may make such application. Such application shall state:

(a) The name, sex, date of birth if a minor, and residence, of the person for whom the appointment of a guardian is sought; and

(b) If a minor, the names of the parents and next of kin of such persons, and whether either or both of the parents are deceased; and

(c) A general description of the property comprising such person's estate, if guardianship of the estate is sought; and

(d) The facts which require that a guardian be appointed; and

(e) The name, relationship, and address of the person whom the applicant desires to have appointed as guardian; and

(f) Whether guardianship of the person and estate, or of the person or of the estate, is sought; and

(g) Such other facts as show that the court has venue over the proceeding.

§ 112. Judge May Cause Application to be Filed

Whenever it comes to the knowledge of the county judge that any person whose legal domicile is in his county, or who is found therein, is a minor, a person of unsound mind, or an habitual drunkard, and is without a guardian of his person or of his estate within this State, and that there is probable cause for the exercise of his jurisdiction, he may cause proper proceedings to be commenced and application to be made as provided in the preceding Section for the appointment of a guardian of the person and of the estate of such person, or of either. Upon the filing of such application, process shall be issued and served as hereinafter provided.

§ 113. Contest of Proceedings

Any person has the right to appear and contest the appointment of a particular person as guardian, or to contest any proceeding which he deems to be injurious to the ward, or to commence any proceeding which he deems beneficial to the ward.

§ 114. Facts Which Must Be Proved

Before appointing a guardian, the court must find:

(a) That the person for whom a guardian is to be appointed is either a minor, a person of unsound mind, an habitual drunkard, or a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive funds due such person from any governmental source. In the last case, a certificate of the executive head, or his representative, of the bureau, department, or agency of the government through which such funds are to be paid, to the effect that the appointment of a guardian is a condition precedent to the payment of any funds due such person, shall be prima facie evidence of the necessity for such appointment.

(b) That the court has venue of the case.

(c) That the person to be appointed guardian is not disqualified to act as such and is entitled to be appointed; or, in case no person who is entitled to appointment applies for it, that the person appointed is a proper person to act as such guardian.

(d) That the rights of persons or property will be protected by the appointment of a guardian.

§ 115. Jury Trial Not Prerequisite

A jury trial, verdict, and judgment that a person is of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard shall not be prerequisite to an appropriate finding and adjudication by the court and appointment of a guardian for the person alleged to be of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard; nor shall it be necessary that such person be present at the trial.

§ 116. Only One Person to Be Appointed Guardian

Only one person can be appointed as guardian of the person or estate; but one person may be appointed guardian of the person, and another of the estate, whenever the court shall be satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the ward to do so; but nothing herein shall be held to prohibit the joint appointment of a husband and wife, or of co-guardians duly appointed under the laws of another state, territory, or country, or of the District of Columbia.

§ 117. Appointment of Guardian by Will

The surviving parent of a minor may, by will or written declaration, appoint any qualified person to be guardian of the person of his or her children after the death of such parent; and, if not disqualified, such person shall also be entitled to be appointed guardian of their estate after the death of such parent, upon compliance with the provisions of this Code.

§ 118. Selection of Guardian by Minor

(a) When No Other Guardian Has Been Appointed. When an application has been filed for the guardianship of the person or estate, or of both, of a minor who has attained the age of fourteen years, such minor may, by writing filed with the clerk, make choice of the guardian, subject to the court's approval of such choice.

(b) When Another Guardian Has Been Appointed. A minor upon attaining the age of fourteen years may select another guardian either of his person or estate, or both, if such minor has a guardian appointed by the court, or if, having a guardian appointed by will or written declaration of the parent of such minor, such last named guardian dies, resigns, or is removed from guardianship; and the court shall, if satisfied that the person selected is suitable and competent, make such appointment and revoke the letters of guardianship to the former guardian. Such selection shall be made in open court, in person or by attorney, by making application therefor.

§ 119. Failure of Guardian to Qualify

If a person appointed guardian fails to qualify as such according to law, or dies, resigns, or is removed, the court shall appoint another guardian in his stead, upon application, but without further notice or citation.

§ 120. Term of Appointment of Guardian

Unless sooner discharged according to law, a guardian remains in office until the estate is closed in accordance with the provisions of this Code, as hereinafter set out.

§ 121. Removal of Guardianship to Another County May Be Had

(a) Application for Removal of Guardianship.

When a guardian, or any other person, desires to remove the transaction of the business of the guardianship from one county to another, he shall file in the court where such guardianship is pending a written application asking authority to do so, and shall state in such application his reason for desiring such removal.

(b) Sureties on Bond to Be Cited. Upon the filing of such application, the sureties upon the bond of such guardian shall be cited by personal service to appear and show cause why such application should not be granted.

(c) When Guardian Shall Be Cited. If the application for removal is filed by any person other than the guardian, the guardian also shall be cited by personal service to appear and show cause why such application should not be granted.

(d) Action of the Court. Upon the hearing of the application, if no good cause be shown to the contrary, and if it appears that the removal of the guardianship would be to the best interest of the ward, the court shall enter an order authorizing such removal upon the payment on behalf of the estate of all costs that have accrued.

(e) Transcript of Record. When such order of removal has been made, the clerk shall record all papers of the guardianship required to be recorded that have not already been recorded, and shall make out a full and complete certified transcript of all the orders, decrees, judgments, and proceedings in such guardianship; and, upon the payment of his fees therefor, shall transmit such transcript, together with all the original papers in the case, to the county clerk of the county to which such guardianship has been ordered removed.

(f) When Removal Shall Become Effective. The order removing a guardianship shall not take effect until such transcript has been filed in the office of the county clerk of the county to which such guardianship has been ordered removed, and until a certificate of such fact from the clerk filing the same, under his official seal, has been filed in the court making such order of removal.

§ 122. Continuation of Guardianship

When a guardianship has been removed from one county to another in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Code, it shall be proceeded with in the court to which it has been removed as if it had been originally commenced in said court; but it shall not be necessary to record any of the papers in the case that have been recorded in the court from which the same has been removed.

§ 123. New Guardian May Be Appointed Upon Removal

If it appears to the court that the removal of the guardianship would be to the best interest of the ward, but that, by virtue of such removal, it will be unduly expensive to the estate, or unduly inconvenient, for the guardian of the estate to continue to serve in such capacity, the court may in its order of removal, revoke the letters of guardianship and appoint a new guardian. In such event, the former guardian shall account for and deliver the estate as is provided in this Code in cases where guardians resign.

§ 124. Nonresidents, Appointment of Guardians for

(a) Appointment of Non-Resident Guardian

A non-resident or non-residents of Texas, being natural persons or corporations, resident of another state or of the District of Columbia, or of any territory, or of any other nation or country, may be appointed and qualified as guardian, or co-guardian of his or its or their non-resident ward's estate situated in Texas in the same manner and by the same procedure provided in this Code for the appointment and qualification of a resident of this State as guardian of the estates of minors, persons of unsound mind, or habitual drunkards; provided that, by proceedings in and decree or decrees of a court of competent jurisdiction in another state, the District of Columbia, a territory, or another nation or country, of his or its or their residence, such non-resident applicant or applicants shall have been previously duly appointed and are still qualified as guardian, co-guardians, tutor, curator, committee, or fiduciary legal representative by whatever name known in such foreign jurisdiction, of the property or estate of his or its or their ward situated within the jurisdiction of such foreign court, whether such ward be a minor, a person of unsound mind, or an habitual drunkard; and provided further that, with his or its or their written application for appointment in the county court of any county in this state where all or part of such ward's estate is situated in this state, such non-resident applicant or applicants file also a full and complete transcript of the proceedings from the records of the court in which he or it or they were appointed in the jurisdiction of his or its or their residence, evidencing his or its or their due appointment and qualification as such guardian, co-guardians, tutor, curator, committee, or other fiduciary legal representative, of his or its or their ward's property or estate, which transcript shall be certified to and attested by the clerk of such foreign court, if there be a clerk, and, if there be no clerk, then by the officer of said court charged by law with the custody of the records thereof, under the seal of such court, if there be a seal, to which transcript shall be attached the certificate of the judge, chief justice or presiding magistrate, as the case may be, of such foreign court to the effect that the said attestation of such transcript by the clerk or legal custodian of the court records is in due form; and provided further that, without the necessity of notice or citation of any character, an order of appointment be made and entered and that such non-resident applicant or applicants thus appointed, qualify by making and filing oath and bond, subject to the court's approval in all respects the same as required of residents thus appointed, and file with the court a power of attorney appointing a resident agent to accept service of process in all actions or proceedings with respect to the estate, whereupon the clerk shall issue the letters of guardianship to such non-resident guardian or co-guardians. Guardians so qualified shall file inventory and appraisal of the estate of the ward in this State subject to the jurisdiction of the court, as in ordinary cases, and shall be subject to and controlled by all applicable provisions of this Code with respect to the handling and settlement of estates by domestic guardians.

(b) Domestic Guardian of Non-Resident

When a non-resident minor or incompetent owns property in this State, guardianship of such estate may be granted when it is made to appear that a necessity exists therefor, in like manner as if such minor or incompetent resided in this State. The court making the grant of such guardianship shall be in the county in which the principal estate of the ward is situated, and said court shall take all such action and make all such orders with respect to the estate of the ward, for the maintenance, support and care, or the education, if necessary, of the ward, out of the proceeds of such ward's estate, in like manner as if the ward were a resident of this State, and guardianship of the person and estate of the ward had been granted by said court, and the ward had been sent abroad by the court for education or treatment. In the event there be a qualified non-resident guardian of such estate, who later desires to qualify in this State, as hereinabove set out, such non-resident guardian may do so, and it shall be grounds for closing the resident guardianship.

§ 125. Validation of Certain Letters of Guardianship Heretofore Issued

All present existing letters of guardianship heretofore issued to non-resident guardians with or without the procedure, in whole or in part, and with or without notices and citations required in cases of resident guardians, are hereby validated as of their respective dates, in so far as the absence of such procedure, notices, and citations are concerned, as are also all otherwise valid conveyances, mineral leases, and other acts of such guardians so qualified and acting in connection therewith under supporting orders of county and probate courts of this state; provided, however, that this provision shall not be applicable to any letters, conveyance, lease, or other act of such guardian which is involved in any lawsuit pending in this state on the effective date of this Code wherein the absence of such procedure or of such notices or citations is an issue.

§ 126. Removal of Ward's Property from the State

Upon the recovery of the property of the ward, if it be personal property, any non-resident guardian, whether qualified under provisions of this Code or not, may remove the same out of the state, unless such removal would conflict with the tenure of such property, or with the terms and limitations under which it is held; but there shall be no removal from the state of any of such property until all debts known to exist against the estate in this state have been paid, or until the payment of such debts has been secured by bond payable to and approved by the judge of the court in which the proceedings are pending in this state.

§ 127. Delivery of Property

Any resident executor, administrator, or guardian, having any of the estate of a ward, may be ordered by the court to deliver the same to a duly qualified and acting non-resident guardian of such ward.

PART 4. CITATIONS AND NOTICES

§ 128. Citations With Respect to Applications for Probate or for Issuance of Letters

(a) Where Application Is for Probate of a Written Will Produced in Court or for Letters of Administration. When an application for the probate of a written will produced in court, or for letters of administration, is filed with the clerk, he shall issue a citation to all parties interested in such estate, which citation shall be served by posting and shall state:

- (1) That such application has been filed, and the nature of it.

(b) Where Application Is for Probate of a Written Will Not Produced or of a Nuncupative Will.

When the application is for the probate of a nuncupative will, or of a written will which cannot be produced in court, the clerk shall issue a citation to all parties interested in such estate, which citation shall contain substantially the statements made in the application for probate, and the time when, place where, and the court before which such application will be acted upon. If the heirs of the testator be residents of this state, and their residence be known, the citation shall be served upon them by personal service. Service of such citation may be made by publication in the following cases:

- (1) When the heirs are non-residents of this state; or
- (2) When their names or their residences are unknown; or
- (3) When they are transient persons.

(c) No Action Until Service Is Had. No application for the probate of a will or for the issuance of letters shall be acted upon until service of citation has been made in the manner provided herein.

§ 129. Validation of Prior Modes of Service of Citation

(a) In all cases where written wills produced in court have been probated prior to June 14, 1927, after publication of citation as provided by the then Article 28 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (1925), without service of citation, the action of the courts in admitting said wills to probate is hereby validated in so far as service of citation is concerned.

(b) In all cases where written wills produced in court have been probated or letters of administration have been granted prior to May 18, 1939, after citation, as provided by the then Article 3334, Title 54, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (1925), without service of citation as provided for in the then Article 3336, Title 54, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (1925) as amended by Acts 1935, 44th Legislature, page 659, Chapter 273, Section 1, such service of citation and the action of the court in admitting said wills to probate and granting administration upon estates, are hereby validated in so far as service of citation is concerned.

(c) In all cases where written wills have been probated or letters of administration granted, prior to June 12, 1941, upon citation or notice duly issued by the clerk in conformance with the requirements of the then Article 3333 of Title 54 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas (1925), as amended, but not directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county wherein the proceeding was pending, and such citation or notice having been duly posted by the sheriff or any constable of said county and returned for or in the time, manner, and form required by law, such citation or notice and return thereof and the action of the court in admitting said wills to probate or granting letters of administration upon estates, are hereby validated in so far as said citation or notice, and the issuance, service and return thereof are concerned.

§ 130. Notice and Citation, Estates of Minors and Incompetents

(a) When Notice Issued. Upon the filing of an application for appointment of a guardian, the clerk shall issue a notice setting forth that such application has been filed for the guardianship of the person or estate, or both, as the case may be, of the person for whom such guardian is sought, naming such person, and stating the nature of the disability, and by whom the application is made; which notice shall cite all persons interested in the welfare of such person to appear at the time and place stated therein, and contest such application, if they so desire.

(b) Service of Notice. The notice shall be served by posting, and the sheriff or other officer posting the same shall return the original, signed officially, stating thereon in writing the time and place when and where he posted said copy.

(c) Service of Citation. Except as hereinafter provided, minors who have attained the age of fourteen years, persons alleged to be of unsound mind or habitual drunkards, and persons for whom it is alleged to be necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive funds from any governmental source or agency shall be personally served with citation to appear and answer the application for the appointment of a guardian.

(d) When Service of Citation Not Required. Minors who have attained the age of fourteen years may, in person or by attorney, by writing filed with the clerk, waive the issuance and personal service of such citation. No citation need be issued or served if it is represented under oath in the application that, within six months prior to filing such application, the person for whom or for whose estate such guardian is sought has been adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction in this State, after due notice, to be a person of unsound mind or an habitual drunkard.

PART 1. TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATION IN THE INTEREST OF (A) ESTATES OF DECEDENTS, AND (B) PERSONS OR ES-TATES OF MINORS AND INCOMPETENTS

§ 131. Procedure

(a) Necessity of Appointment. Whenever it appears to the county judge that the interest of a decedent's estate, or the interest of any minor, person of unsound mind, or common or habitual drunkard, and his or her estate, or either of them, requires immediate appointment of a personal representative, he shall, by written order, appoint a suitable temporary representative, with such limited powers as the circumstances of the case require, and such appointment may be made permanent, as herein provided.

(b) Manner of Appointment. Such appointment may be made with or without written application and without notice or citation. The order shall designate the appointee appropriately, as "temporary administrator" of the decedent's estate, or as "temporary guardian" of the person or of the estate, or both, of such minor, person of unsound mind, or common or habitual drunkard, fix the bond to be given and define the powers conferred on the appointee. When any such appointee has taken and filed his oath and filed with the county clerk a bond approved by the court, the clerk shall issue to the appointee letters which shall set forth the powers to be exercised by the appointee.

(c) Perpetuation of Appointment. The order making the appointment shall state that, unless the same is contested after service of citation, it shall be continued in force for such period of time as the court shall deem in the interest of the estate or person involved, or it shall be made permanent, if found by the court to be necessary.

(d) Citation Relative to Perpetuation. Immediately after such appointment the clerk shall issue and cause to be posted a notice, and if necessary issue citations, to all interested persons to appear at the time stated in such writ and contest said appointment if they so desire; and such notice or citation shall state that, if no contest is made, the appointment will be continued for such time as appears to the interest of the estate or person involved, or that, if found necessary by the court, it shall be made permanent.

(e) Contest. If the appointment is contested, the court shall hear and determine the same, and, during the pendency of such contest, the temporary appointee shall continue to act as such. If the appointment is set aside, the court shall require the appointee to prepare and file, under oath, a complete exhibit of the condition of the estate which has come into his possession, and show what disposition he has made of the same or any portion thereof.

§ 132. Temporary Administration Pending Contest of a Will or Administration

(a) Appointment of Temporary Administrator. Pending a contest relative to the probate of a will or the granting of letters of administration, the court may appoint a temporary administrator, with such limited powers as the circumstances of the case require; and such appointment may continue in force until the termination of the contest and the appointment of an executor or administrator with full powers.

(b) Additional Powers Relative to Claims. When temporary administration has been granted pending a will contest, or pending a contest on an application for letters of administration, the court may, at any time during the pendency of the contest, confer upon the temporary administrator all the power and authority of a permanent administrator with respect to claims against the estate, and in such case the court and the temporary administrator shall act in the same manner as in permanent administration in connection with such matters as the approval or disapproval of claims, the payment of claims, and the making of sales of real or personal property for the payment of claims; provided, however, that in the event such power and authority is conferred upon a temporary administrator, he shall be required to give bond in the full amount required of a permanent administrator. The provisions of this Subsection are cumulative and shall not be construed to exclude the right of the court to order a temporary administrator to do any and all of the things covered by this Subsection in other cases where the doing of such things shall be necessary or expedient to preserve the estate pending final determination of the contest.

§ 133. Powers of Temporary Appointees

(a) Temporary Administrators. Temporary administrators shall have and exercise only such rights and powers as are specifically expressed in the order of the court appointing them, and as may be expressed in subsequent orders of the court. Where a court, by a subsequent order, extends the rights and powers of a temporary administrator, it may require additional bond commensurate with such extension. Any acts performed by temporary administrators that are not so expressly authorized shall be void.

(b) Temporary Guardianships. All the provisions of this Code relating to the guardianship of persons and estates of minors, persons of unsound mind, and habitual drunkards shall apply to temporary guardianship of the persons and estates of such persons, in so far as the same are applicable.

§ 134. Accounting

At the expiration of a temporary appointment, the appointee shall file with the clerk of the court a sworn list of all property of the estate which has come into his hands, a return of all sales made by him, and a full exhibit and account of all his acts as such appointee.

§ 135. Closing Temporary Administration or Guardianship

The list, return, exhibit, and account so filed shall be acted upon by the court and, whenever temporary letters shall expire or cease to be of effect for any cause, the court shall immediately enter an order requiring such temporary appointee forthwith to deliver the estate remaining in his possession to the person or persons legally entitled to its possession. Upon proof of such delivery, the appointee shall be discharged and the sureties on his bond released as to any future liability.

PART 2. RECEIVERSHIP FOR MINORS AND INCOMPETENTS

§ 136. Receivership

(a) Appointment of Receiver. When from any cause the estate of a minor or an incompetent, or any portion thereof, appears in danger of injury, loss, or waste, and in need of a representative, there being no guardian of such estate qualified in this state and no necessity for one, the county judge of the county where such minor or incompetent resides, or where the endangered estate is situated, shall by order, with or without application, appoint a suitable person as receiver to take charge of such endangered estate, requiring bond of such person as in ordinary receiverships in such sum as the judge deems necessary to protect the estate, and specifying such duties and powers of the receiver as the judge deems necessary for the protection, conservation, and preservation of the estate. The clerk shall forthwith enter such order upon the minutes of the court; and the person so appointed shall forthwith make his bond, submit same to the judge for approval, file same, when approved, with the clerk, and proceed to take charge of such endangered estate pursuant to the duties and powers vested in him by the order of appointment and by such subsequent orders as the judge shall make from time to time.

(b) Expenditures by the Receiver. Whenever, during the pendency of such receivership, the needs of the minor or incompetent shall require the use of the income or corpus of the estate for the education, clothing, or subsistence of the minor or incompetent, the judge shall, with or without application, by order entered upon the minutes of his court, appropriate an amount of such income or corpus sufficient for such purpose; and the same shall be used by the receiver to pay such claims for such education, clothing, or subsistence as are presented to the judge and approved and ordered by him to be paid.

(c) Investments, Loans and Contributions by the Receiver. Whenever, during the pendency of such receivership, the receiver shall have on hand an amount of money belonging to such minor or incompetent in excess of the amount needed for current necessities and expenses, he may, under direction of the judge, invest, lend, or contribute such excess money or any portion or portions thereof in the manner, for the security, and on the terms and conditions provided in this Code for investments, loans, or contributions by guardians, and he shall report to the judge all such transactions in the manner that reports are required of guardians.

(d) Receiver's Expenses, Account, and Compensation. All necessary expenses incurred by the receiver in administering the estate may be rendered monthly to the judge in the form of a sworn statement of account, including a report of the receiver's acts, the condition of the estate, the status of the threatened danger to the estate, and the progress made toward abatement of such danger. If the judge is satisfied that such statement is correct and reasonable in all respects, he shall promptly enter his order approving the same and authorizing the receiver to reimburse himself out of the funds of the estate in his hands. For his official services rendered, the receiver shall be compensated in the same manner and amount as provided by this Code for similar services rendered by guardians of estates.

(e) Closing Receivership. When the threatened danger has abated and the estate is no longer liable to injury, loss, or waste for want of a representative, the receiver shall so report to the judge, filing with the clerk a full and final sworn account of all estate received into his hands, all sums paid out, all acts performed by him with respect to such estate, and all estate remaining in his hands; whereupon the clerk shall issue and cause to be posted a notice to all persons interested in the welfare of such minor or incompetent, and shall give personal notice to the person having custody of such minor or incompetent, to appear before the judge at a time and place specified in such notices and contest such report and account if they so desire.

(f) Action of the Judge. If upon hearing such report and account, the judge is satisfied that the danger of injury, loss, or waste has abated and that said report and account are correct, he shall enter an order so finding and shall direct the receiver to deliver said estate to the person from whom he took possession as receiver, or to the person having custody of the minor or incompetent, or to such other person as the judge may find to be entitled to possession of the estate, which person in turn shall execute and file with the clerk an appropriate receipt for the estate thus delivered. The order of the judge shall discharge the receiver and his sureties. If the judge is not satisfied that the danger has abated, or if he is not satisfied with the report and account, he shall enter an order continuing the receivership in effect until he is so satisfied.

(g) Recordation of Proceedings. All orders, bonds, reports, accounts, and notices in the receivership proceedings shall be recorded in the minutes of the court.

PART 3. SMALL ESTATES

§ 137. Collection of Small Estates Upon Affidavit

The distributees of an estate shall be entitled thereto, to the extent that the assets, exclusive of homestead and exempt property, exceed the known liabilities of said estate, without awaiting the appointment of a personal representative when:

(a) No petition for the appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted; and

(b) Thirty days have elapsed since the death of the decedent; and

(c) The value of the entire assets of the estate, not including homestead and exempt property, does not exceed Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars; and

(d) There is filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction and venue an affidavit sworn to by such distributees as have legal capacity, and, if the facts warrant, by the natural guardian or next of kin of any minor or incompetent who is also a distributee, which affidavit shall be approved by the judge of the court having jurisdiction and venue, to be recorded in "Small Estates" records by the clerk, showing the existence of the foregoing conditions, the names and addresses of the distributees, and their right to receive the money or property of the estate, or to have such evidences of money, property or other rights of the estate as found to exist transferred to them, being heirs, devisees, or assignees, and listing all assets and known liabilities of the estates; and

(e) A copy of such affidavit, certified to by said clerk, is furnished by the distributees of the estate to the person or persons owing money to the estate, having custody or possession of property of the estate, or acting as registrar, fiduciary or transfer agent of or for evidences of interest, indebtedness, property or other right belonging to said estate.

Henceforth the county clerk of every county in this state shall provide and keep in his office an appropriate book labeled "Small Estates," with accurate index, in which he shall record every such affidavit so filed, upon being paid his legal recording fee, said index to show the name of decedent and reference to land, if any, involved.

Repeal

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2722, ch. 886, effective June 14, 1971, relating to the microfilming of records by counties, and classified as Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 1941(a), provided in section 2 that all laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent of conflict only, including but not limited to subsections (d) and (e) of this section.

§ 138. Effect of Affidavit

The person making payment, delivery, transfer or issuance pursuant to the affidavit described in the preceding Section shall be released to the same extent as if made to a personal representative of the decedent, and he shall not be required to see to the application thereof or to inquire into the truth of any statement in the affidavit, but the distributees to whom payment, delivery, transfer, or issuance is made shall be answerable therefor to any person having a prior right and be accountable to any personal representative thereafter appointed. In addition, the person or persons who execute the affidavit shall be liable for any damage or loss to any person which arises from any payment, delivery, transfer, or issuance made in reliance on such affidavit. If the person to whom such affidavit is delivered refuses to pay, deliver, transfer, or issue the property as above provided, such property may be recovered in an action brought for such purpose by or on behalf of the distributees entitled thereto, upon proof of the facts required to be stated in the affidavit.

§ 139. Application for Order of No Administration

If the value of the entire assets of an estate, not including homestead and exempt property, does not exceed the amount to which the surviving spouse and minor children of the decedent are entitled as a family allowance, there may be filed by or on behalf of the surviving spouse or minor children an application in any court of proper venue for administration, or, if an application for the appointment of a personal representative has been filed but not yet granted, then in the court where such application has been filed, requesting the court to make a family allowance and to enter an order that no administration shall be necessary. The application shall state the names of the heirs or devisees, a list of creditors of the estate together with the amounts of the claims so far as the same are known, and a description of all real and personal property belonging to the estate, together with the estimated value thereof according to the best knowledge and information of the applicant, and the liens and encumbrances thereon, with a prayer that the court make a family allowance and that, if the entire assets of the estate, not including homestead and exempt property, are thereby exhausted, the same be set aside to the surviving spouse and minor children, as in the case of other family allowances provided for by this Code.

§ 140. Hearing and Order Upon the Application

Upon the filing of an application for no administration such as that provided for in the preceding Section, the court may hear the same forthwith without notice, or at such time and upon such notice as the court requires. Upon the hearing of the application, if the court finds that the facts contained therein are true and that the expenses of last illness, funeral charges, and expenses of the proceeding have been paid or secured, the court shall make a family allowance and, if the entire assets of the estate, not including homestead and exempt property, are thereby exhausted, shall order that no administration be had of the estate and shall assign to the surviving spouse and minor children the whole of the estate, in the same manner and with the same effect as provided in this Code for the making of family allowances to the surviving spouse and minor children.

§ 141. Effect of Order

The order that no administration be had on the estate shall constitute sufficient legal authority to all persons owing any money, having custody of any property, or acting as registrar or transfer agent of any evidence of interest, indebtedness, property, or right, belonging to the estate, and to persons purchasing from or otherwise dealing with the estate, for payment or transfer to the persons described in the order as entitled to receive the estate without administration, and the persons so described in the order shall be entitled to enforce their right to such payment or transfer by suit.

§ 142. Proceeding to Revoke Order

At any time within one year after the entry of an order of no administration, and not thereafter, any interested person may file an application to revoke the same, alleging that other property has been discovered, or that property belonging to the estate was not included in the application for no administration, or that the property described in the application was incorrectly valued, and that if said property were added, included, or correctly valued, as the case may be, the total value of the property would exceed that necessary to justify the court in ordering no administration. Upon proof of any of such grounds, the court shall revoke the order of no administration. In case of any contest as to the value of any property, the court may appoint two appraisers to appraise the same in accordance with the procedure hereinafter provided for inventories and appraisements, and the appraisal of such appraisers shall be received in evidence but shall not be conclusive.

§ 143. Summary Proceedings for Small Estates After Personal Representative Appointed

Whenever, after the inventory, appraisal, and list of claims has been filed by a personal representative, it is established that the estate of a decedent, exclusive of the homestead and exempt property and family allowance to the surviving spouse and minor children, does not exceed the amount sufficient to pay the claims of Classes One to Four, inclusive, as claims are hereinafter classified, the personal representative shall, upon order of the court, pay the claims in the order provided and to the extent permitted by the assets of the estate subject to the payment of such claims, and thereafter present his account with an application for the settlement and allowance thereof. Thereupon the court, with or without notice, may adjust, correct, settle, allow or disallow such account, and, if the account is settled and allowed, may decree final distribution, discharge the personal representative, and close the administration.

§ 144. Payment of Small Claims Without Guardianship

(a) To Residents. Whenever a resident minor, or whenever a resident person legally adjudged to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual or common drunkard sometimes referred to in this Section as "creditor," being without a legal guardian of his person or estate, shall be entitled to money in an amount not exceeding One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars, the right to which is liquidated and is uncontested in any pending lawsuit, the debtor may pay same to the County Clerk of the county in which such creditor resides in this state, for the account of such creditor, giving his name, the nature of his disability, and if a minor his age, and his post-office address, and the receipt for such money signed by the clerk shall be forever binding on such creditor as of the date and to the extent of such payment. Upon receipt of such payment by the clerk, he shall forthwith call same to the attention of the court and shall invest such money as authorized by the Probate Code pursuant to the orders of the court in the name and for the account of such minor or other person entitled to same, and by letter mailed to the address given by the debtor, shall apprise such creditor of the fact that such deposit has been made. Any increase, dividend or income from such investments shall be credited to the account of such minor or other person entitled to such investment. Any money heretofore deposited under the terms of this section which has not been paid out shall within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act be subject to the provisions of this Act as amended.

Within sixty (60) days from the first day of each calendar year the clerk of the court shall make a report to the court in writing of the status of such investments. Such report shall contain the following:

- (1) The amount of the original investment or the amount of the investment at the last annual report, whichever is later.
- (2) Any increase, dividend or income from such investment since the last annual report.
- (3) The total amount of the investment and all increases, dividends or income at the date of the report.
- (4) The name of the depository or the type of investment.

The father or mother or unestranged spouse of such creditor, priority being given to such spouse, residing in this state or if there be no such spouse and both father and mother be dead or nonresidents of this state, then the person residing in this state who has actual custody of such creditor, may as custodian, upon filing with such clerk written application and bond approved by the County Judge of such county, withdraw such money from the clerk for the use and benefit of such creditor, such bond to be in double the amount of said money and to be payable to the judge or his successors in office and to be conditioned that such custodian will use said money for the benefit of such creditor under directions of the court and that he will, when legally called upon to do so, faithfully account to such creditor, his heirs or legal representatives for such money and any increase thereof upon removal of the disability to which such creditor is subject, or upon his death or the appointment of a guardian. No fees or commissions shall be allowed to such custodian for taking care of, handling or expending such money so withdrawn by him.

When such custodian shall have expended such money in accordance with directions of the court or shall have otherwise complied with the terms of his bond by accounting for said money and any increase, he shall file with the County Clerk of said county his sworn report of his accounting, the filing of which report, when approved by the court shall operate as a discharge of said person as custodian and his sureties from all further liability under said bond. The court shall satisfy itself that the report is true and correct and may require proof as in other cases.

(b) To Non-Resident. Whenever a non-resident minor or whenever a non-resident person duly adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual drunkard, having no legal guardian qualified in this state, is entitled to money in an amount, not exceeding Three Thousand Dollars owing as a result of transactions within this state, the right to which is liquidated and is uncontested in any pending lawsuit in this state, the debtor in this state may pay such money to the guardian of such creditor duly qualified in his domiciliary jurisdiction or to the county clerk of any county in this state in which real property owned by such non-resident person is situated. If such person is not known to own any real property in any county in this state such debtor shall have the right to pay such money to the county clerk of the county of this state in which the debtor resides. In either case, such payment to the clerk shall be for the use and benefit and for the account of such non-resident creditor, and the receipt for such payment signed by the clerk, reciting the name of such creditor and his post-office address, if known, shall be forever binding against such creditor as of the date and to the extent of such payment. Such money so paid to such clerk shall be handled by him in the same manner as above provided for in cases of payments to the clerk for the accounts of residents of this state, and all applicable provisions of Subsection (a) above shall apply to the handling and disposition of money or any increase, dividend, or income herefrom so paid to the clerk for the use, benefit, and account of such non-resident creditor.

(c) When the Deposit Is Not Withdrawn by Another Person. If no person authorized hereunder withdraws such money from the clerk as provided for in this Section, then the creditor himself, after termination of his disability, or his subsequent personal representatives or heirs, as the case may be, may at any time, without special bond for the purpose, withdraw such money upon simply exhibiting to the clerk an order of the county or probate court of the county where such money is held by the clerk, directing the clerk to deliver such money to such creditor or to his personal representative or heirs named in such order, the identity of such persons and their credentials being first proved to the satisfaction of the court.

(d) Money in the Registry of a Court and Belonging to an Inmate of a State Eleemosynary Institution. Whenever it is made to appear to the judge of a county court, district court, or other court of the State of Texas, by an affidavit executed by the superintendent, business manager or field representative of any eleemosynary institution of the State of Texas, that a certain inmate therein is a lunatic, idiot, person of unsound mind or a person whose mental illness or mental incapacity, or both, renders him incapable of caring for himself and managing his property and financial affairs, and there is no known legal guardian appointed for the estate of such inmate, and that there is on deposit in the registry of the court a certain sum of money belonging to the inmate and not exceeding the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), the judge of the court may order the disposition of the funds as herein provided. The judge of the court, upon satisfactory proof by affidavit or otherwise, that the inmate is a lunatic, idiot, person of unsound mind, or a person whose mental illness or mental incapacity, or both, renders him incapable of caring for himself and managing his property and financial affairs, without a legally appointed guardian of his estate, may by order direct the clerk of the court to pay the money to the institution for the use and benefit of the inmate. The State institution to which the payment is made shall not be required to give bond or security for receiving the fund from the registry of the court, and the receipt from the State institution for such payment, or the cancelled check or warrant by which the payment was made, shall be sufficient evidence of the disposition thereof and the clerk of the court shall be relieved of further responsibility therefor. Upon receipt of the money the institution shall deposit all of the amount received to the trust account of the inmate, to be used by or for the personal use of the owner thereof under the regulations or custom of the institution in the expenditure of such funds by the inmate or for the use and benefit of the inmate by the responsible officer of the institution. The provisions of this subdivision shall be cumulative of all other laws affecting the rights of lunatics, idiots, persons of unsound mind or of mental illness, and moneys belonging to such persons as inmates of a state eleemosynary institution.

Should such inmate become deceased leaving a balance in his trust account, such balance may be applied on the burial expenses of said inmate, or applied on his care, support and treatment account at said institution. After the expenditure of all funds in such trust account or after the death of such inmate the responsible officer shall furnish a statement of expenditures of such funds to nearest relative entitled to such statement; and, a copy of such statement shall be filed with the court which first granted the order to dispose of the funds in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

§ 145. Independent Administration

Any person capable of making a will may provide in his will that no other action shall be had in the county court in relation to the settlement of his estate than the probating and recording of his will, and the return of an inventory, appraisal, and list of claims of his estate. When such will has been probated, and the inventory, appraisal, and list aforesaid has been filed by the executor and approved by the court, as long as the estate is represented by an independent executor, further action of any nature shall not be had in the court except where this Code specifically and explicitly provides for some action in the court.

§ 146. Payment of Claims and Delivery of Exemptions and Allowances

An independent executor, in his administration of an estate, although free from the control of the court, shall nevertheless, independently of and without application to, or any action in or by the court, receive presentation of and classify, allow, and pay, or reject, claims against the estate in the same order of priority, classification, and proration prescribed in this Code, and set aside and deliver to those entitled thereto exempt property and allowances for support, and in lieu of homestead, as prescribed in this Code, to the same extent and result as if his actions had been accomplished in, and under orders of, the court.

§ 147. Enforcement of Claims by Suit

Any person having a debt or claim against the estate may enforce the payment of the same by suit against the independent executor; and, when judgment is recovered against the independent executor, the execution shall run against the estate of the testator in the hands of the independent executor which is subject to such debt. The independent executor shall not be required to plead to any suit brought against him for money until after one year from the date of the probate of the will appointing him.

§ 148. Requiring Heirs to Give Bond

When it is provided in a will that no action shall be had in court in relation to the settlement of the estate, except to probate and record the will and return an inventory of the estate, any person having a debt against such estate may, by written complaint filed in the court where such will was probated, cause all heirs at law and other persons entitled to any portion of such estate under the will to be cited by personal service to appear before such court and execute a bond for an amount equal to the full value of such estate, as shown by the inventory and list of claims, such bond to be payable to the judge, and his successors, and to be approved by said judge, and conditioned that all obligors shall pay all debts that shall be established against such estate in the manner provided by law. Upon the return of the citation served, unless such person so entitled to any portion of the estate, or some of them, or some other person for them, shall execute such bond to the satisfaction of the court, such estate shall thereafter be administered and settled under the direction of the court as other estates are required to be settled. If the bond is executed and approved, the independent administration shall proceed. Creditors of the estate may sue on such bond, and shall be entitled to judgment thereon for the amount of their debt, or they may have their action against those in possession of the estate.

§ 149. Requiring Independent Executor to Give Bond

When it has been provided by will, regularly probated, that an independent executor appointed by such will shall not be required to give bond for the management of the estate devised by such will, the direction shall be observed, unless it be made to appear at any time that such independent executor is mismanaging the property, or has betrayed or is about to betray his trust, or has in some other way become disqualified, in which case, upon proper proceedings had for that purpose, as in the case of executors or administrators acting under orders of the court, such executor may be required to give bond.

§ 149A. Accounting

(a) Interested Person May Demand Accounting. At any time after the expiration of fifteen months from the date a will appointing an independent executor is admitted to probate, any person interested in the estate may demand an accounting from the independent executor. The independent executor shall thereupon furnish to the person or persons making the demand an exhibit in writing, sworn and subscribed by the independent executor, setting forth in detail:

1. The property belonging to the estate which has come into his hands as executor.
2. The disposition that has been made of such property.
3. The debts that have been paid.
4. The debts and expenses, if any, still owing by the estate.
5. The property of the estate, if any, still remaining in his hands.

6. Such other facts as may be necessary to a full and definite understanding of the exact condition of the estate.

7. Such facts, if any, that show why the administration should not be closed and the estate distributed.

Any other interested person shall, upon demand, be entitled to a copy of any exhibit or accounting that has been made by an independent executor in compliance with this section.

(b) Enforcement of Demand. Should the independent executor not comply with a demand for an accounting authorized by this section within sixty days after receipt of the demand, the person making the demand may compel compliance by an action in the probate court or by a suit in the district court. After a hearing, the court shall enter an order requiring the accounting to be made at such time as it deems proper under the circumstances.

(c) Subsequent Demands. After an initial accounting has been given by an independent executor, any person interested in an estate may demand subsequent periodic accountings at intervals of not less than twelve months, and such subsequent demands may be enforced in the same manner as an initial demand.

(d) Remedies Cumulative. The right to an accounting accorded by this section is cumulative of any other remedies which persons interested in an estate may have against the independent executor thereof.

[Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 980, ch. 173, § 10, eff. Jan. 1, 1972; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 412, ch. 184, § 1, eff. May 25, 1973.]

§ 150. Partition and Distribution

If the will does not distribute the entire estate of the testator, or provide a means for partition of said estate, the independent executor may file his final account in the court in which the will was probated, and ask for partition and distribution of the estate; and the same shall be partitioned and distributed in the manner provided for the partition and distribution of estates administered under the direction of the court.

§ 151. Closing Independent Administration by Affidavit

(a) Filing of Affidavit. When all of the debts known to exist against the estate have been paid, or when they have been paid so far as the assets in the hands of the independent executor will permit, and when the independent executor has distributed to the persons entitled thereto all assets of the estate, if any, remaining after payment of debts, the independent executor may file with the court a final account verified by affidavit. Such account shall show:

- (1) The property of the estate which came into the hands of the independent executor; and
- (2) The debts that have been paid; and

(3) The debts, if any, still owing by the estate; and

(4) The property of the estate, if any, remaining on hand after payment of debts; and

(5) The names and residences of the persons to whom the property of the estate, if any, remaining on hand after payment of debts has been distributed.

(b) Effect of Filing the Affidavit. The filing of such an affidavit shall terminate the independent administration and the power and authority of the independent executor, but shall not relieve the independent executor from liability for any mismanagement of the estate or from liability for any false statements contained in the affidavit. When such an affidavit has been filed, persons dealing with properties of the estate, or with claims against the estate, shall deal directly with the distributees of the estate; and the acts of such distributees with respect to such properties or claims shall in all ways be valid and binding as regards the persons with whom they deal, notwithstanding any false statements made by the independent executor in such affidavit. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

§ 152. Closing Independent Administration Upon Application by Distributee

At any time after an estate has been fully administered and there is no further need for an independent administration of such estate, any distributee may file an application to close the administration; and, after citation upon the independent executor, and upon hearing, the court may enter an order closing the administration and terminating the power of the independent executor to act as such.

§ 153. Issuance of Letters

At any time before the authority of an independent executor has been terminated in the manner set forth in the preceding Sections, the clerk shall issue such number of letters testamentary as the independent executor shall request.

§ 154. Powers of an Administrator Who Succeeds an Independent Executor

(a) Grant of Powers by Court. Whenever a person has died, or shall die, testate, owning property in Texas, and such person's will has been or shall be admitted to probate by the proper court, and such probated will names an independent executor or executors, or trustees acting in the capacity of independent executors, to execute the terms and provisions of said will, and such will grants to such independent executor, or executors, or trustees acting in the capacity of independent executors, the power to raise or borrow money and to mortgage, and such independent executor, or executors, or trustees, have died or shall die, resign, fail to qualify, or be removed from office, leaving unexecuted parts or portions of the will of the testator, and an administrator with the will annexed is appointed by the court having jurisdiction of the estate, and an administrator's bond is filed and approved by the court, then in all such cases, the court may, in addition to the powers conferred upon such administrator under other provisions of the laws of Texas, authorize, direct, and empower such administrator to do and perform the acts and deeds, clothed with the rights, powers, authorities, and privileges, and subject to the limitations, set forth in the subsequent portions of this Section.

(b) Power to Borrow Money and Mortgage or Pledge Property. The court, upon application, citation, and hearing, may, by its order, authorize, direct, and empower such administrator to raise or borrow such sums of money and incur such obligations and debts as the court shall, in its said order, direct, and to renew and extend same from time to time, as the court, upon application and order, shall provide; and, if authorized by the court's order, to secure such loans, obligations, and debts, by pledge or mortgage upon property or assets of the estate, real, personal, or mixed, upon such terms and conditions, and for such duration of time, as the court shall deem to be to the best interest of the estate, and by its order shall prescribe; and all such loans, obligations, debts, pledges, and mortgages shall be valid and enforceable against the estate and against such administrator in his official capacity.

(c) Powers Limited to Those Granted by the Will. The court may order and authorize such administrator to have and exercise the powers and privileges set forth in the preceding Subsections hereof only to the extent that same are granted to or possessed by the independent executor, or executors, or trustees acting in the capacity of independent executors, under the terms of the probated will of such deceased person, and then only in such cases as it appears, at the hearing of the application, that at the time of the appointment of such administrator, there are outstanding and unpaid obligations and debts of the estate, or of the independent executor, or executors, or trustees, chargeable against the estate, or unpaid expenses of administration, or when the court appointing such administrator orders the business of such estate to be carried on and it becomes necessary, from time to time, under orders of the court, for such administrator to borrow money and incur obligations and indebtedness in order to protect and preserve the estate.

(d) Powers Other Than Those Relating to Borrowing Money and Mortgaging or Pledging Property. The court, in addition, may, upon application, citation, and hearing, order, authorize and empower such administrator to assume, exercise, and discharge, under the orders and directions of said court, made from time to time, all or such part of the rights, powers, and authorities vested in and delegated to, or possessed by, the independent executor, or executors, or trustees acting in the capacity of independent executors, under the terms of the will of such deceased person, as the court finds to be to the best interest of the estate and shall, from time to time, order and direct.

(e) Application for Grant of Powers. The granting to such administrator by the court of some, or all, of the powers and authorities set forth in this Section shall be upon application filed by such administrator with the county clerk, setting forth such facts as, in the judgment of the administrator, require the granting of the power or authority requested.

(f) Citation. Upon the filing of such application, the clerk shall issue citation to all persons interested in the estate, stating the nature of the application, and requiring such persons to appear on the return day named in such citation and show cause why such application should not be granted, should they choose to do so. Such citation shall be served by posting.

(g) Hearing and Order. The court shall hear such application and evidence thereon, upon the return day named in the citation, or thereafter, and, if satisfied a necessity exists and that it would be to the best interest of the estate to grant said application in whole or in part, the court shall so order; otherwise, the court shall refuse said application. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

PART 5. ADMINISTRATION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY

§ 155. Administration of Community Property

When a husband or wife dies intestate and the community property passes to the survivor, no administration thereon, community or otherwise, shall be necessary.

§ 156. Liability of Community Property for Debts

The community property subject to the sole or joint management, control, and disposition of a spouse during marriage continues to be subject to the liabilities of that spouse upon death. In addition, the interest that the deceased spouse owned in any other nonexempt community property passes to his or her heirs or devisees charged with the debts which were enforceable against such deceased spouse prior to his or her death. In the administration of community estates, the survivor or personal representative shall keep a separate, distinct account of all community debts allowed or paid in the administration and settlement of such estate.

§ 157. When Spouse Incompetent

Whenever a husband or wife is judicially declared to be incompetent, the other spouse, in the capacity of surviving partner of the marital partnership, thereupon acquires full power to manage, control, and dispose of the entire community estate, including the part which the incompetent spouse would legally have power to manage in the absence of such incompetency, and no administration, community or otherwise, shall be necessary. Guardianship of the estate of the incompetent spouse shall not be necessary when the other spouse is competent unless the incompetent spouse owns separate property, and then as to such separate property only. The qualification of a guardian of the estate of an incompetent spouse does not deprive the competent spouse of the right to manage, control, and dispose of the entire community estate as provided in this Code.

§ 158. Duty of Guardians

A guardian of the estate of an incompetent married person who, as guardian, is administering community property as part of the estate of such ward, shall forthwith deliver such community property to the sane spouse upon demand.

§ 159. Recovery of Competency

The special powers of management, control, and disposition vested in the sane spouse by this Code shall terminate whenever the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction finds that the mental competency of the other spouse has been recovered.

§ 160. Powers of Surviving Spouse When No Administration Is Pending

When no one has qualified as executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased spouse, the surviving spouse, whether the husband or wife, as the surviving partner of the marital partnership, without qualifying as community administrator as hereinafter provided, has power to sue and be sued for the recovery of community property; to sell, mortgage, lease, and otherwise dispose of community property for the purpose of paying community debts; to collect claims due to the community estate; and has such other powers as shall be necessary to preserve the community property, discharge community obligations, and wind up community affairs.

§ 161. Community Administration

Whenever an interest in community property passes to someone other than the surviving spouse, the surviving spouse may qualify as community administrator in the manner hereinafter provided if

(a) The deceased spouse failed to name an executor in his will, or

(b) If the executor named in the will of the deceased spouse is for any reason unable or unwilling to qualify as such, or

(c) If the deceased spouse died intestate.

§ 162. Application for Community Administration

A surviving spouse who desires to qualify as a community administrator shall, within four years after the death of the other spouse, file a written application in the court having venue over the estate of the deceased spouse, stating:

- (a) That the other spouse is dead, setting forth the time and place of such death; and
- (b) The name and residence of each person to whom an interest in community property has passed by the will of the decedent or by intestacy; and
- (c) That there is a community estate between the deceased spouse and the applicant, and the facts that authorize the applicant to be appointed as community administrator; and
- (d) That, by virtue of facts set forth in the application, the court has venue over the estate of the deceased spouse; and
- (e) If the applicant desires that appraisers be appointed, that not less than one nor more than three appraisers should be appointed to appraise such estate.

§ 163. Appointment of Appraisers

If the appointment of appraisers is requested by the applicant, or by any interested person, the judge shall, without notice or citation, enter an order appointing appraisers to appraise such estate as in other administrations.

§ 164. Inventory, Appraisal, and List of Claims

The surviving spouse, with the assistance of the appraisers, if any be appointed, shall make out a full, fair, and complete inventory, appraisal, and list of claims of the community estate as in other administrations, shall attach thereto a list of all indebtedness owing by said community estate to other parties, giving the amount of each debt and the name of the party or parties to whom it is owing, and his or their postoffice address, and shall return same to the court within ninety (90) days after the date of the order appointing appraisers, if any be appointed, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court. If no appraisers be appointed, such return shall be made within ninety (90) days after the date of the application for community administration, unless a longer time shall be granted by the court. In either event, the court may, for good cause shown, require the filing of the inventory and appraisal within a shorter period of time. Such inventory, list of claims, and list of indebtedness of such community estate shall be sworn to by said surviving spouse, and said inventory, appraisal, and list of claims owing said community estate shall be sworn to by said appraisers, if any appraisers have been appointed.

§ 165. Bond of Community Administrator

The community administrator shall at the time the inventory, appraisal, and list of claims are returned, present to the court a bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties, payable to and to be approved by the judge and his successors in a sum as is found by the judge to be adequate under all the circumstances, or a bond with one surety in a sum as is found by the judge to be adequate under all the circumstances, if the surety is an authorized corporate surety. The condition of the bond shall be that such surviving spouse will faithfully administer such community estate and will, after the payment of debts with which such property is properly chargeable, deliver to such person or persons as shall be entitled to receive the same the portion of the community estate devised or bequeathed to them under the terms of the will of the deceased spouse, or which passes to them under the laws of descent and distribution. Either spouse may by will apportion community indebtedness as between the devisees and legatees of such testator and the surviving spouse, but this shall not include the power to charge the community share of the surviving spouse with more than the portion of the community debts for which it would otherwise be liable.

§ 166. Order of the Court

When such inventory, appraisal, list of claims, and bond are returned to the judge, he shall examine the same and approve or disapprove them by an order to that effect and, when approved, the order approving them shall also authorize the survivor as community administrator to control, manage, and dispose of the community property in accordance with the provisions of this Code.

§ 167. Powers of Community Administrator

When the order mentioned in the preceding section has been entered, the survivor, without any further action in the court, shall have the power to control, manage, and dispose of the community property, as provided in this Code, as fully and completely as if he or she were the sole owner thereof, and to sue and be sued with regard to the same; and a certified copy of the order of the court shall be evidence of the qualification and right of such survivor. After paying community debts outstanding at the death of the deceased spouse, the qualified community administrator may carry on as statutory trustee for the owners of the community estate, investing and reinvesting the funds of the estate and continuing the operation of community enterprises until the termination of the trust as provided in this Code. The qualified community administrator is not entitled to mortgage community property to secure debts incurred for his individual benefit, or otherwise to appropriate the community estate to his individual benefit; but he may transfer or encumber his individual interest in the community estate.

§ 168. Accounting by Survivor

The survivor, whether qualified as community administrator or not, shall keep a fair and full account and statement of all community debts and expenses paid by him, and of the disposition made of the community property; and, upon final partition of such estate, shall deliver to the heirs, devisees or legatees of the deceased spouse their interest in such estate, and the increase and profits of the same, after deducting therefrom the proportion of the community debts chargeable thereto, unavoidable losses, necessary and reasonable expenses, and a reasonable commission for the management of the same. Neither the survivor nor his bondsmen shall be liable for losses sustained by the estate, except when the survivor has been guilty of gross negligence or bad faith.

§ 169. Payment of Debts

The community administrator shall pay all just and legal community debts within the time, and according to the classification, and in the order prescribed for the payment of debts in other administrations. Where there is a deficiency of assets to pay all claims of the same class, such claims shall be paid pro rata.

§ 170. New Appraisalment or New Bond

Any person interested in a community estate may cause a new appraisalment to be made of the same, or may cause a new bond to be required of the survivor, for the same causes and in like manner as provided in other administrations.

§ 171. Creditor May Require Exhibit

Any creditor of the community estate whose claim has not been paid in full, after the lapse of one year from the filing of the inventory, appraisalment, list of claims, and bond by the survivor, may by written application to the court cause such survivor to be cited by personal service to appear and make an exhibit to the court in writing and under oath, showing fully and specifically:

(a) The debts that have been presented to him against such community estate and their class; and

(b) The debts that have been paid by him and those that remain unpaid, and the class of each; and

(c) The property that has been disposed of by him, and the amount received therefor; and

(d) The property remaining on hand; and

(e) An account of losses, expenses, and commissions.

§ 172. Action of Court Upon Exhibit

When such exhibit has been returned to the court and filed, the court shall examine the same and hear exceptions and objections thereto, and evidence in support of or against same. Should it appear to the court from such exhibit or from other evidence that such community estate has been improperly administered, or that there are still assets of said estate that are liable for the payment of the applicant's debt, or any part thereof, the court shall enter an order requiring the survivor to pay such debt, or a part thereof, as the evidence may show to be proper; and, should he neglect the same for thirty days after the date of such order, the following proceedings shall be had:

(a) If said debt be for the amount of One Thousand Dollars or less, exclusive of interest, the court shall order citation to issue for the sureties upon the bond of such survivor, citing them by personal service to appear before such court at a regular term thereof, and show cause why judgment should not be rendered against them for such debt and costs, which citation shall be returnable as in other civil suits; and the proceedings in such case shall be the same as in other civil suits in said court.

(b) If the amount due and payable to such creditor exceeds One Thousand Dollars, exclusive of interest, the creditor may have his action against such survivor and the sureties upon his bond in the District Court of the county where the survivor's bond is filed.

§ 173. Approval of Exhibit

If, after examining the exhibit and after receiving evidence in support of or against the same, the court is satisfied that the estate has been fairly administered in conformity to law, and that there remains no further property of such estate for the payment of debts, the court shall enter an order approving such exhibit and directing the same to be recorded, and shall also in such order declare the community administration closed.

§ 174. Failure to File Exhibit

Should the survivor, after being duly cited, fail to file an exhibit as required, the court shall proceed as if the creditor's right to the payment of his claim had been fully established.

§ 175. Termination of Community Administration

After the lapse of twelve months from the filing of the bond of the survivor, the community administration may be terminated whenever termination is desired by either the survivor or the persons entitled to the share of the deceased spouse, or to any portion thereof. Partition and distribution of the community estate may be had and the administration closed either by proceedings as in other independent administration or by proceedings in the appropriate District Court. When the community administration is closed, the community administrator shall be discharged and his bondsmen released from further liability.

§ 176. Remarriage of Surviving Wife

The remarriage of a surviving wife shall not terminate her powers or liabilities as a qualified community administratrix; nor shall it terminate her powers as a surviving partner.

§ 177. Distribution of Powers Among Personal Representatives and Surviving Spouse

(a) When Community Administrator Has Qualified. The qualified community administrator is entitled to administer the entire community estate, including the part which was by law under the management of the deceased spouse during the continuance of the marriage.

(b) When No Community Administrator Has Qualified. When an executor of the estate of a deceased spouse has duly qualified, such executor is authorized to administer, not only the separate property of the deceased spouse, but also the community property which was by law under the management of the deceased spouse during the continuance of the marriage and all of the community property that was by law under the joint control of the spouses during the continuance of the marriage. The surviving spouse, as surviving partner of the marital partnership, is entitled to retain possession and control of all community property which was legally under the sole management of the surviving spouse during the continuance of the marriage and to exercise over that property all the powers elsewhere in this part of this Code authorized to be exercised by the surviving spouse when there is no administration pending on the estate of the deceased spouse. The surviving spouse may by written instrument filed with the clerk waive any right to exercise powers as community survivor, and in such event the executor or administrator of the deceased spouse shall be authorized to administer upon the entire community estate.

PART 1. APPOINTMENT AND ISSUANCE OF LETTERS

§ 178. When Letters Testamentary or of Administration Shall Be Granted

(a) Letters Testamentary. When a will has been probated, the court shall, within twenty days thereafter, grant letters testamentary, if permitted by law, to the executor or executors appointed by such will, if any there be, or to such of them as are not disqualified, and are willing to accept the trust and qualify according to law.

(b) Letters of Administration. When a person shall die intestate, or where no executor is named in a will, or where the executor is dead or shall fail or neglect to accept and qualify within twenty days after the probate of the will, or shall neglect for a period of thirty days after the death of the testator to present the will for probate, then administration of the estate of such intestate, or administration with the will annexed of the estate of such testator, shall be granted, should administration appear to be necessary. No administration of any estate shall be granted unless there exists a necessity therefor, such necessity to be determined by the court hearing the application. Such necessity shall be deemed to exist if two or more debts exist against the estate, or if or when it is desired to have the county court partition the estate among the distributees, but mention of these two instances of necessity for administration shall not prevent the court from finding other instances of necessity upon proof before it.

(c) Failure to Issue Letters Within Prescribed Time. Failure of a court to issue letters testamentary within the twenty day period prescribed by this Section shall not affect the validity of any letters testamentary which are issued subsequent to such period, in accordance with law.

§ 179. Opposition to Grant of Letters of Administration

When application is made for letters of administration, any person may at any time before the application is granted, file his opposition thereto in writing, and may apply for the grant of letters to himself or to any other person; and, upon the trial, the court shall grant letters to the person that may seem best entitled to them, having regard to applicable provisions of this Code, without further notice than that of the original application.

§ 180. Effect of Finding That No Necessity for Administration Exists

When application is filed for letters of administration and the court finds that there exists no necessity for administration of the estate, the court shall recite in its order refusing the application that no necessity for administration exists. An order of the court containing such recital shall constitute sufficient legal authority to all persons owing any money, having custody of any property, or acting as registrar or transfer agent of any evidence of interest, indebtedness, property, or right belonging to the estate, and to persons purchasing or otherwise dealing with the estate, for payment or transfer to the distributees of the decedent, and such distributees shall be entitled to enforce their right to such payment or transfer by suit.

§ 181. Orders Granting Letters Testamentary or of Administration

When letters testamentary or of administration are granted, the court shall make an order to that effect, which shall specify:

(a) The name of the testator or intestate; and

(b) The name of the person to whom the grant of letters is made; and

(c) If bond is required, the amount thereof; and

(d) If any interested person shall apply to the court for the appointment of an appraiser or appraisers, or if the court deems an appraisal necessary, the name of not less than one nor more than three disinterested persons appointed to appraise the estate and return such appraisal to the court; and

(e) That the clerk shall issue letters in accordance with said order when the person to whom said letters are granted shall have qualified according to law.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1815, ch. 697, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 1922, ch. 641, § 10, eff. June 12, 1969.]

§ 182. When Clerk Shall Issue Letters

Whenever an executor or administrator has been qualified in the manner required by law, the clerk of the court granting the letters testamentary or of administration shall forthwith issue and deliver the letters to such executor or administrator. When two or more persons qualify as executors or administrators, letters shall be issued to each of them so qualifying.

§ 183. What Constitutes Letters

Letters testamentary or of administration shall be a certificate of the clerk of the court granting the same, attested by the seal of such court, and stating that the executor or administrator, as the case may be, has duly qualified as such as the law requires, the date of such qualification, and the name of the deceased.

§ 184. Order Appointing Guardian

The order of the court appointing a guardian shall specify:

- (a) The name of the person appointed.
- (b) The name of the ward.
- (c) Whether the guardian is of the person, or the estate, or of both the person and estate, of such ward, or of a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive money or funds from a governmental source.
- (d) The amount of bond required, if any; and
- (e) If it be the guardianship of the estate, and if the court deems an appraisal necessary, the order shall also appoint not less than one nor more than three disinterested persons to appraise such estate, and to return such appraisal to the Court.

(f) That the clerk shall issue letters of guardianship to the person appointed when such person has qualified according to law.

§ 185. Issuance of Letters of Guardianship

When a person appointed guardian has qualified as such, by taking the oath and giving the bond required by law, if bond be required, the clerk shall issue to him a certificate under seal, stating the fact of such appointment and qualification and the date thereof, which certificate shall constitute letters of guardianship, and be evidence of the authority of such person to act as guardian.

§ 186. Letters or Certificate Made Evidence

Letters testamentary, of administration, or of guardianship, or a certificate of the clerk of the court which granted the same, under the seal of such court, that said letters have been issued, shall be sufficient evidence of the appointment and qualification of the personal representative of an estate or ward and of the date of qualification.

§ 187. Issuance of Other Letters

When letters have been destroyed or lost, the clerk shall issue other letters in their stead, which shall have the same force and effect as the original letters. The clerk shall also issue any number of letters as and when requested by the person or persons who hold such letters.

§ 188. Rights of Third Persons Dealing With Executors or Administrators

When an executor or administrator, legally qualified as such, has performed any acts as such executor or administrator in conformity with his authority and the law, such acts shall continue to be valid to all intents and purposes, so far as regards the rights of innocent purchasers of any of the property of the estate from such executor or administrator, for a valuable consideration, in good faith, and without notice of any illegality in the title to the same, notwithstanding such acts or the authority under which they were performed may afterward be set aside, annulled, and declared invalid.

PART 2. OATHS AND BONDS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 189. How Executors, Administrators, and Guardians Shall Qualify

A personal representative shall be deemed to have duly qualified when he shall have taken and filed his oath and made the required bond, had the same approved by the judge, and filed it with the clerk. In case of an executor or guardian who is not required to make bond, he shall be deemed to have duly qualified when he shall have taken and filed his oath required by law.

§ 190. Oaths of Executors and Administrators

(a) Executor, or Administrator With Will Annexed. Before the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration with the will annexed, the person named as executor, or appointed administrator with the will annexed, shall take and subscribe an oath in form substantially as follows: "I do solemnly swear that the writing which has been offered for probate is the last will of _____, so far as I know or believe, and that I will well and truly perform all the duties of executor of said will (or of administrator with the will annexed, as the case may be) of the estate of said _____."

(b) Administrator. Before the issuance of letters of administration, the person appointed administrator shall take and subscribe an oath in form substantially as follows: "I do solemnly swear that _____, deceased, died without leaving any lawful will (or that the named executor in any such will is dead or has failed or neglected to offer the same for probate, or to accept and qualify as executor, within the time required, as the case may be), so far as I know or believe, and that I will well and truly perform all the duties of administrator of the estate of said deceased."

(c) Temporary Administrator. Before the issuance of temporary letters of administration, the person appointed temporary administrator shall take and subscribe an oath in form substantially as follows: "I do solemnly swear that I will well and truly perform the duties of temporary administrator of the estate of _____, deceased, in accordance with the law, and with the order of the court appointing me such administrator.”

(d) Filing and Recording of Oaths. All such oaths may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths, and shall be filed with the clerk of the court granting the letters, and shall be recorded in the minutes of such court.

§ 191. Oath of Guardian

The guardian shall take an oath to discharge faithfully the duties of guardian of the person, or of the estate, or of the person and estate, of the ward or of a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian to receive funds or money from a governmental source, as the case may be, according to law.

§ 192. Time for Taking Oath and Giving Bond

The oath of a personal representative may be taken and subscribed, or his bond may be given and approved, at any time before the expiration of twenty days after the date of the order granting letters testamentary or of administration or of guardianship, as the case may be, or before such letters shall have been revoked for a failure to qualify within the time allowed. All such oaths may be taken before any person authorized to administer oaths under the laws of this State.

§ 193. Bond of Guardian of Person

The bond of a guardian of the person shall be in an amount to be fixed by the Court granting such guardianship, not to exceed One Thousand Dollars ($1000), shall be payable to the county or probate judge, and to his successors in office, in the county in which the proceedings are pending, and may be approved by either of such judges in his official capacity. The bond shall be conditioned that the guardian will faithfully discharge the duties of guardian of the person of his ward.

§ 194. Bonds of Personal Representatives of Estates

Except when bond is not required under the provisions of this Code, before the issuance of letters testamentary, or of administration or guardianship of estates, the recipient of letters shall enter into bond conditioned as required by law, payable to the county judge or probate judge of the county in which the probate proceedings are pending and to his successors in office. Such bonds shall bear the written approval of either of such judges in his official capacity, and shall be executed and approved in accordance with the following rules:

1. Court to Fix Penalty.

The penalty of the bond shall be fixed by the judge, in an amount deemed sufficient to protect the estate and its creditors, as hereinafter provided.

2. Bond to Protect Creditors Only, When.

If the person to whom letters testamentary or of administration is granted is also entitled to all of the decedent's estate, after payment of debts, the bond shall be in an amount sufficient to protect creditors only, notwithstanding the rules applicable generally to bonds of personal representatives of estates.

3. Before Fixing Penalty, Court to Hear Evidence.

In any case where a bond is, or shall be, required of a personal representative of an estate, the court shall, before fixing the penalty of the bond, hear evidence and determine:

(a) The amount of cash on hand and where deposited, and the amount of cash estimated to be needed for administrative purposes, including operation of a business, factory, farm or ranch owned by the estate, and expenses of administration for one (1) year; and

(b) The revenue anticipated to be received in the succeeding twelve (12) months from dividends, interest, rentals, or use of real or personal property belonging to the estate and the aggregate amount of any installments or periodical payments to be collected; and

(c) The estimated value of certificates of stock, bonds, notes, or securities of the estate or ward, the name of the depository, if any, in which said assets are held for safekeeping, the face value of life insurance or other policies payable to the person on whose estate administration is sought, or to such estate, and such other personal property as is owned by the estate, or by one under disability; and

(d) The estimated amount of debts due and owing by the estate or ward.

4. Penalty of Bond.

The penalty of the bond shall be fixed by the judge in an amount equal to the estimated value of all personal property belonging to the estate, or to the person under disability, together with an additional amount to cover revenue anticipated to be derived during the succeeding twelve (12) months from interest, dividends, collectible claims, the aggregate amount of any installments or periodical payments, and rentals for use of real and personal property; provided, that the penalty of the original bond shall be reduced in proportion to the amount of cash or value of securities or other assets authorized or required to be deposited or placed in safekeeping by order of court, or voluntarily made by the representative or by his sureties as hereinafter provided in Subdivisions 6 and 7 hereof.

5. Agreement as to Deposit of Assets.

It shall be lawful, and the court may require such action when deemed in the best interest of an estate or ward, for a personal representative to agree with the surety or sureties, either corporate or personal, for the deposit of any or all cash, and safekeeping of other assets of the estate in a domestic state or national bank, trust company, savings and loan association, or other domestic corporate depository, duly incorporated and qualified to act as such under the laws of this State or of the United States, if such deposit is otherwise proper, in such manner as to prevent the withdrawal of such moneys or other assets without the written consent of the surety, or an order of the court made on such notice to the surety as the court shall direct. No such agreement shall in any manner release from or change the liability of the principal or sureties as established by the terms of the bond.

6. Deposits Authorized or Required, When.

Cash or securities or other personal assets of an estate or ward or which an estate or ward is entitled to receive may, and if deemed by the court in the best interest of such estate or ward shall, be deposited or placed in safekeeping as the case may be, in one or more of the depositories hereinabove described upon such terms as shall be prescribed by the court. The court in which the proceedings are pending, upon its own motion, or upon written application of the representative or of any other person interested in the estate or ward may authorize or require additional assets of the estate then on hand or as they accrue during the pendency of the probate proceedings to be deposited or held in safekeeping as provided above. The amount of the bond of the personal representative shall be reduced in proportion to the cash so deposited, or the value of the securities or other assets placed in safekeeping. Such cash so deposited, or securities or other assets held in safekeeping, or portions thereof, may be withdrawn from a depository only upon order of the court, and the bond of the personal representative shall be increased in proportion to the amount of cash or the value of securities or other assets so authorized to be withdrawn.

7. Representative May Deposit Cash or Securities of His Own in Lieu of Bond.

It shall be lawful for the personal representative of an estate, in lieu of giving surety or sureties on any bond which shall be required of him, or for the purpose of reducing the amount of such bond, to deposit out of his own assets cash or securities acceptable to the court, with a depository such as named above or with any other corporate depository approved by the court, if such deposit is otherwise proper, said deposit to be equal in amount or value to the amount of the bond required, or the bond reduced by the value of assets so deposited.

8. Rules Applicable to Making and Handling Deposits in Lieu of Bond or to Reduce Penal Sum of Bond.

(a) A receipt for a deposit in lieu of surety or sureties shall be issued by the depository, showing the amount of cash or, if securities, the amount and description thereof, and agreeing not to disburse or deliver the same except upon receipt of a certified copy of an order of the court in which the proceedings are pending, and such receipt shall be attached to the representative's bond and be delivered to and filed by the county clerk after approval by the judge.

(b) The amount of cash or securities on deposit may be increased or decreased, by order of the court from time to time, as the interest of the estate shall require.

(c) Deposits in lieu of sureties on bonds, whether of cash or securities, may be withdrawn or released only on order of a court having jurisdiction.

(d) Creditors shall have the same rights against the representative and such deposits as are provided for recovery against sureties on a bond.

(e) The court may on its own motion, or upon written application by the representative or by any other person interested in the estate, require that adequate bond be given by the representative in lieu of such deposit, or authorize withdrawal of the deposit and substitution of a bond with sureties therefor. In either case, the representative shall file a sworn statement showing the condition of the estate, and unless the same be filed within twenty (20) days after being personally served with notice of the filing of an application by another, or entry of the court's motion, he shall be subject to removal as in other cases. The deposit may not be released or withdrawn until the court has been satisfied as to the condition of the estate, has determined the amount of bond, and has received and approved the bond.

9. Withdrawal of Deposits when Estate Closed.

Upon the closing of an estate, any such deposit or portion thereof remaining on hand, whether of the assets of the representative, or of the assets of the estate, or of the surety, shall be released by order of court and paid over to the person or persons entitled thereto. No writ of attachment or garnishment shall lie against the deposit, except as to claims of creditors of the estate being administered, or persons interested therein, including distributees and wards, and then only in the event distribution has been ordered by the court, and to the extent only of such distribution as shall have been ordered.

10. Who May Act as Sureties.

The surety or sureties on said bonds may be authorized corporate sureties, or personal sureties.

11. Procedure When Bond Exceeds Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000).

When any such bond shall exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) in penal sum, the court may require that such bond be signed by two (2) or more authorized corporate sureties, or by one such surety and two (2) or more good and sufficient personal sureties. The estate shall pay the cost of a bond with corporate sureties.

12. Qualifications of Personal Sureties.

If the sureties be natural persons, there shall not be less than two (2), each of whom shall make affidavit in the manner prescribed in this Code, and the judge shall be satisfied that he owns property within this State, over and above that exempt by law, sufficient to qualify as a surety as required by law. Except as provided by law, only one surety is required if the surety is an authorized corporate surety; provided, a personal surety, instead of making affidavit, or creating a lien on specific real estate when such is required, may, in the same manner as a personal representative, deposit his own cash or securities, in lieu of pledging real property as security, subject, so far as applicable, to the provisions covering such deposits when made by personal representatives.

13. Bonds of Temporary Appointees.

In case of a temporary administrator or guardian, the bond shall be in such sum as the judge shall direct.

14. Only One Bond for Guardian of Person and Estate.

Where one person is appointed guardian of both the person and estate of a ward, only one bond shall be given by the guardian, in the same amount that would be required from a guardian of the estate only.

15. Increased or Additional Bonds When Property Sold, Rented, Leased for Mineral Development, or Money Borrowed or Invested.

The provisions in this Section with respect to deposit of cash and safekeeping of securities shall cover, so far as they may be applicable, the orders to be entered by the court when real or personal property of an estate has been authorized to be sold or rented, or money borrowed thereon, or when real property, or an interest therein, has been authorized to be leased for mineral development or subjected to unitization, the general bond having been found insufficient, or when money is borrowed or invested on behalf of a ward.

(b) Lien on Specific Property, When Required. If the judge finds that the estimated value of personal property of the estate which cannot be deposited or held in safekeeping as hereinabove provided is such that personal sureties cannot be accepted without the creation of a specific lien on real property of such sureties, he shall enter an order requiring that each surety designate real property owned by him within this State subject to execution, of a value over and above all liens and unpaid taxes, equal at least to the amount of the bond, giving an adequate legal description of such property, all of which shall be incorporated in an affidavit by the surety, approved by the judge, and be attached to and form part of the bond. If compliance with such order is not had, the judge may in his discretion require that the bond be signed by an authorized corporate surety, or by such corporate surety and two (2) or more personal sureties.

(c) Subordination of Lien Authorized. If a personal surety who has been required to create a lien on specific real estate desires to lease such property for mineral development, he may file his written application in the court in which the proceedings are pending, requesting subordination of such lien to the proposed lease, and the judge of such court may, in his discretion, enter an order granting such application. A certified copy of such order, filed and recorded in the deed records of the proper county, shall be sufficient to subordinate such lien to the rights of a lessee, in the proposed lease. The county clerk to whom such statement is sent shall record the same in the deed records of the county. All such recorded statements shall be duly indexed in such manner that the existence and character of the liens may conveniently be determined, and such recording and indexing of such statement shall constitute and be constructive notice to all persons of the existence of such lien on such real property situated in such county, effective as of date of such indexing.

The judge, in his discretion, upon the submission of proof that a smaller bond than the one in effect will be adequate to meet the requirements of the law and protect the estate, and upon the approval of an accounting filed at the time of the application, may permit the filing of a new bond in a reduced amount.

If a personal surety who has given a lien on specific real property as security applies to the court to have the lien released, the court shall order the release requested, if the court is satisfied that the bond is sufficient without the lien on such property, or if sufficient other real or personal property of the surety is substituted on the same terms and conditions required for the lien which is to be released. If such personal surety who requests the release of the lien does not offer a lien on other real or personal property, and if the court is not satisfied of the sufficiency of the bond without the substitution of other property, the court shall order the personal representative to appear and give a new bond.

Upon hearing such complaint, if it appears to the court that such executor or guardian is wasting, mismanaging, or misapplying such estate, and that thereby a creditor may probably lose his debt, or that thereby some person's interest in the estate may be diminished or lost, the court shall enter an order requiring such executor or guardian to give bond within ten days from the date of such order.

The clerk shall then issue a citation to all interested persons, showing that proper application has been filed, and the time and place set for hearing, at which time said persons may appear and contest the exhibit and account. The citation shall be posted, unless the court directs that it be published.

(d) Hearing. At the time set for hearing, unless it has been continued by the court, if the court finds that citation has been duly issued and served, he shall proceed to examine such exhibit and account, and hear all evidence for and against the same, and shall, if necessary, restate, and audit and settle the same. If the court is satisfied that the matters entrusted to the applicant have been handled and accounted for in accordance with law, he shall enter an order of approval, and require that the estate remaining in the possession of the applicant, if any, be delivered to the person or persons entitled by law to receive it. Whenever any estate is unrepresented by reason of the death, removal, or resignation of the personal representative of such estate, the court shall grant further administration of the estate when necessary, and with the will annexed where there is a will, upon application therefor by a qualified person interested in the estate. Such appointments shall be made on notice and after hearing, as in case of original appointments, except that when the court finds that there is a necessity for the immediate appointment of a successor representative, such successor may be appointed upon application but without citation or notice.

§ 224. Successors Succeed to Prior Rights, Powers, and Duties

When a representative of the estate not administered succeeds another, he shall be clothed with all rights, powers, and duties of his predecessor, except such rights and powers conferred on the predecessor by will which are different from those conferred by this Code on personal representatives generally. Subject to this exception, the successor shall proceed to administer such estate in like manner as if his administration were a continuation of the former one. He shall be required to account for all the estate which came into the hands of his predecessor and shall be entitled to any order or remedy which the court has power to give in order to enforce the delivery of the estate and the liability of the sureties of his predecessor for so much as is not delivered. He shall be excused from accounting for such of the estate as he has failed to recover after due diligence. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

§ 225. Additional Powers of Successor Appointee

In addition, such appointee may make himself, and may be made, a party to suits prosecuted by or against his predecessors. He may settle with the predecessor, and receive and receipt for all such portion of the estate as remains in his hands. He may bring suit on the bond or bonds of the predecessor in his own name and capacity, for all the estate that came into the hands of the predecessor and has not been accounted for by him.

§ 226. Subsequent Executors and Guardians Also Succeed to Prior Rights and Duties

Whenever an executor or guardian shall accept and qualify after letters of administration shall have been granted upon the estate, such executor or guardian shall, in like manner, succeed to the previous administrator, and he shall administer the estate in like manner as if his administration were a continuation of the former one, subject, however, to any legal directions of the testator contained in the will in relation to the estate.

§ 227. Successors Return of Inventory, Appraisal, and List of Claims

An appointee who has been qualified to succeed to a prior personal representative shall make and return to the court an inventory, appraisal, and list of claims of the estate, within ninety days after being qualified, in like manner as is required of original appointees; and he shall also in like manner return additional inventories, appraisements, and lists of claims. In all orders appointing successor representatives of estates, the court shall appoint appraisers as in original appointments upon the application of any person interested in the estate.

PART 5. GENERAL POWERS OF PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES

§ 228. Powers, Duties, and Obligations of Guardian of Person Entitled to Governmental Funds

(a) A guardian of the estate of a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive funds from a governmental agency shall have the power to administer only the funds so received from such governmental agency, and all earnings, interest, or profits derived therefrom and all property acquired therewith, and shall not be considered as a general guardian of the estate of such ward. Such guardian shall have the power to receive and receipt for such funds, to pay out under appropriate order of the court the expenses of administering the estate and for the support, maintenance, and education of the ward and his dependents, and to invest under the order of the court the surplus funds as they accumulate in the estate, as authorized by Part 10 of Chapter 8 of this Code. The procedural, administrative, and penal provisions of this Code shall be binding upon the guardian in his original appointment and in the administration of the estate of such ward.

(b) All acts heretofore performed by guardians of the estate of a person for whom it is necessary to have a guardian appointed to receive and disburse funds due such person from a governmental source or agency, performed in conformance with orders of a county or probate court having venue with respect to the support, maintenance, and education of the ward and his dependents, and the investment of surplus funds of the ward under the general guardianship laws of this State, which acts are not in issue as to legality in any probate proceeding or civil suit pending on the effective date of this Act, are hereby validated.

§ 229. Guardians of the Person

The guardian of the person is entitled to the charge and control of the person of the ward, and the care of his support and education, and his duties shall correspond with his rights. It is the duty of the guardian of the person of a minor to take care of the person of such minor, to treat him humanely, and to see that he is properly educated; and, if necessary for his support, to see that he learns a trade or adopts a useful profession.

§ 230. Care of Property of Estates

(a) Estates of Decedents. The executor or administrator shall take care of the property of the estate of his testator or intestate as a prudent man would take of his own property, and if there be any buildings belonging to the estate, he shall keep the same in good repair, extraordinary casualties excepted, unless directed not to do so by an order of the court.

(b) Estates of Wards. The guardian of the estate of a ward is entitled to the possession and management of all properties belonging to the ward, to collect all debts, rentals, or claims due such ward, to enforce all obligations in his favor, and to bring and defend suits by or against him; but, in the management of the estate, the guardian shall be governed by the provisions of this Code. It is the duty of the guardian of the estate to take care of and manage such estate as a prudent man would manage his own property. He shall account for all rents, profits, and revenues that the estate would have produced by such prudent management.

§ 231. Summary of Powers of Guardians of Person and Estate

The guardian of both person and estate has all the rights and powers, and shall perform all the duties, of the guardian of the person and of the guardian of the estate.

§ 232. Representative of Estate Shall Take Possession of Personal Property and Records

The personal representative of an estate, immediately after receiving letters, shall collect and take into possession the personal property, record books, title papers, and other business papers of the estate, and all such in his possession shall be delivered to the person or persons legally entitled thereto when the administration has been closed or a successor has received letters.

§ 233. Collection of Claims and Recovery of Property

Every personal representative of an estate shall use ordinary diligence to collect all claims and debts due the estate and to recover possession of all property of the estate to which its owners have claim or title, provided there is a reasonable prospect of collecting such claims or of recovering such property. If he wilfully neglects to use such diligence, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable, at the suit of any person interested in the estate, for the use of the estate, for the amount of such claims or the value of such property as has been lost by such neglect. Such representatives may enter into contract to convey, or may convey, a contingent interest in any property sought to be recovered, not exceeding one-third thereof, for services of attorneys and incidental expenses, subject only to approval of the court in which the estate is being administered.

§ 234. Exercise of Powers With and Without Court Order

(a) Powers To Be Exercised Under Order of the Court. The personal representative of the estate of any person may, upon application and order authorizing same, renew or extend any obligation owing by or to such estate. When a personal representative deems it for the interest of the estate, he may, upon written application to the court, and by order granting authority:

- (1) Purchase or exchange property;
- (2) Take claims or property for the use and benefit of the estate in payment of any debt due or owing to the estate;
- (3) Compound bad or doubtful debts due or owing to the estate;
- (4) Make compromises or settlements in relation to property or claims in dispute or litigation;
- (5) Compromise or pay in full any secured claim which has been allowed and approved as required by law against the estate by conveying to the holder of such claim the real estate or personalty securing the same, in full payment, liquidation, and satisfaction thereof, and in consideration of cancellation of notes, deeds of trust, mortgages, chattel mortgages, or other evidences of liens securing the payment of such claim.

(b) Powers To Be Exercised Without Court Order. The personal representative of the estate of any person may, without application to or order of the court, exercise the powers listed below, provided, however, that a personal representative under court control may apply and obtain an order if doubtful of the propriety of the exercise of any such powers:

- (1) Release liens upon payment at maturity of the debt secured thereby;
- (2) Vote stocks by limited or general proxy;
- (3) Pay calls and assessments;
- (4) Insure the estate against liability in appropriate cases;
- (5) Insure property of the estate against fire, theft, and other hazards;
- (6) Pay taxes, court costs, bond premiums.

§ 235. Possession of Property Held in Common Ownership

If the estate holds or owns any property in common, or as part owner with another, the representative of the estate shall be entitled to possession thereof in common with the other part owner or owners in the same manner as other owners in common or joint owners would be entitled.

§ 236. Sums Allowable for Education and Maintenance of Ward

(a) Expenditures Directed by the Court

The Court may direct the guardian of the person to expend, for the education and maintenance of his ward, a sum in excess of the income of the ward's estate; otherwise, the guardian shall not be allowed, for the education and maintenance of the ward, more than the net income of the estate. When different persons have the guardianship of the person and estate of a ward, the guardian of the estate shall pay to the guardian of the person such sums as shall be fixed by the Court, at times specified by the Court, for the education and maintenance of the ward, and, on failure to do so, shall be compelled to make such payment by order of the Court, after being duly cited.

(b) Court Approval of Previous Expenditures

When a guardian has in good faith expended funds from the corpus of his ward's estate for support and maintenance for emergency purposes, and when it is not convenient or possible to first secure approval of the Court, if the proof is clear and convincing that such expenditures were reasonable and proper and such that the Court would have granted authority to make the expenditures out of the corpus, and that the ward received the benefits of such expenditures, the judge, in the exercise of his sound discretion, may approve such expenditures in the same manner as if such expenditures were made by the guardian out of the income from the ward's estate. Provided, however, such expenditures may not exceed the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

§ 237. Title of Wards Not to Be Disputed

Neither the guardian nor his heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns shall dispute the right of the ward to any property that came into the possession of such guardian as guardian, except such property as shall have been recovered from the guardian, or except property on account of which there is a personal action pending.

§ 238. Operation of Farm, Ranch, Factory, or Other Business

If the estate owns a farm, ranch, factory, or other business, the disposition of which has not been specifically directed by will, and if the same be not required to be sold at once for the payment of debts or other lawful purposes, the representative, upon order of the court, shall carry on the operation of such farm, ranch, factory, or other business, or cause the same to be done, or rent the same, as shall appear to be for the best interest of the estate. In deciding, the court shall consider the condition of the estate, and the necessity that may exist for future sale of such property or business for the payment of debts, claims, or other lawful expenditures, and shall not extend the time of renting any of the property beyond what appears consistent with the speedy settlement of the estate of a deceased person, or the maintenance and education of a ward or the settlement of his estate.

§ 239. Payment or Credit of Income

In all cases where the estate of a deceased person is being administered under the direction, control, and orders of a court in the exercise of its probate jurisdiction, upon the application of the executor or administrator of said estate, or of any interested party, after notice thereof has been given by posting, if it appears from evidence introduced at the hearing upon said application, and the court finds, that the reasonable market value of the assets of the estate then on hand, exclusive of the annual income therefrom, is at least twice the aggregate amount of all unpaid debts, administration expenses, and legacies, and that no creditor or legatee of the estate has then appeared and objected, the court may order and direct the executor or administrator to pay to, or credit to the account of, those persons who the court finds will own the assets of the estate when the administration thereon is completed, and in the same proportions, such part of the annual net income received by or accruing to said estate, as the court believes and finds can conveniently be paid to such owners without prejudice to the rights of creditors, legatees, or other interested parties. Nothing herein contained shall authorize the court to order paid over to such owners of the estate any part of the corpus or principal of the estate, except as otherwise provided by sections of this Code; provided, however, in this connection, bonuses, rentals, and royalties received for, or from, an oil, gas, or other mineral lease shall be treated and regarded as income, and not as corpus or principal.

§ 240. Joint Executors or Administrators

Should there be more than one executor or administrator of the same estate at the same time, the acts of one of them as such executor or administrator shall be as valid as if all had acted jointly; and, in case of the death, resignation or removal of an executor or administrator, if there be a co-executor or co-administrator of such estate, he shall proceed with the administration as if no such death, resignation or removal had occurred. Provided, however, that this Section shall not be construed to authorize one of several executors or administrators to convey real estate, but in such case all the executors or administrators who have qualified as such and are acting as such shall join in the conveyance, unless the court, after due hearing, authorizes less than all to act.

PART 6. COMPENSATION, EXPENSES, AND COURT COSTS

§ 241. Compensation of Personal Representatives

(a) Compensation of Executors and Administrators. Executors and administrators shall be entitled to receive, and may retain in their hands, a commission of five per cent (5%) on all sums they may actually receive in cash, and the same per cent on all sums they may actually pay out in cash, in the administration of the estate; provided, no commission shall be allowed for receiving cash belonging to the testator or intestate which was on hand or on deposit to his credit in a bank at the time of his death, nor for paying out cash to the heirs or legatees as such; provided, further, however, that in no event shall the executor or administrator be entitled in the aggregate to more than five per cent (5%) of the gross fair market value of the estate subject to administration. If the executor or administrator manages a farm, ranch, factory, or other business of the estate, or if the compensation as calculated above is unreasonably low, the court may allow him reasonable compensation for his services. For this purpose, the county court shall have jurisdiction to receive, consider, and act on applications from independent executors.

(b) Compensation of Guardians. A guardian of the person alone is entitled to no compensation. The guardian of the estate, or of the person and estate, shall not be entitled to, or receive, any fee or commission on the estate of the ward when it is first delivered to him; but shall be entitled to a fee of five per cent (5%) on the gross income of the ward's estate and five per cent (5%) on all money paid out. The term "money paid out" shall not be construed to include any money loaned or invested or paid over on the settlement of the guardianship. If the guardian manages a farm, ranch, factory, or other business of his ward, or if the compensation as calculated above is unreasonably low, the court may allow him reasonable compensation for his services. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1957, 55th Leg., p. 53, ch. 31, § 8.]

§ 242. Expenses Allowed

Personal representatives of estates shall also be entitled to all necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by them in the preservation, safekeeping, and management of the estate, and in collecting or attempting to collect claims or debts, and in recovering or attempting to recover property to which the estate has a title or claim, and all reasonable attorney's fees, necessarily incurred in connection with the proceedings and management of such estate, on satisfactory proof to the court.

§ 243. Allowance for Defending Will

When any person designated as executor in a will, or as administrator with the will annexed, defends it or prosecutes any proceeding in good faith, and with just cause, for the purpose of having the will admitted to probate, whether successful or not, he shall be allowed out of the estate his necessary expenses and disbursements, including reasonable attorney's fees, in such proceedings.

§ 244. Expense Accounts

All expense charges shall be made in writing, showing specifically each item of expense and the date thereof, and shall be verified by affidavit of the representative, filed with the clerk and entered on the claim docket, and shall be acted on by the court in like manner as other claims against the estate.

§ 245. When Costs Are Adjudged Against Representative

When the personal representative of an estate or person neglects the performance of any duty required of him, and any costs are incurred thereby, or if he is removed for cause, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable for all costs so incurred.

§ 246. Exemption From Fees and Costs in Guardianships for Reception of Governmental Funds

Whenever a guardian is appointed for the purpose of enabling a person to receive public assistance which is contingent upon need, from the State or Federal Government, the court may, in its discretion, order that no costs or fees be charged in connection with the proceeding.

§ 247. Costs Against Estates of Incompetents

When any person is found to be of unsound mind or to be an habitual drunkard, the cost of the proceeding shall be paid out of his estate, or, if his estate be insufficient to pay the same, such costs shall be paid out of the county treasury, and the judgment of the court shall be accordingly.

Section 7 of the 1967 Act provided that "The repeal of any law by this Act shall not affect or impair any act done, obligation or right accrued or existing under the authority of the act repealed; and such law shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper action, obligation or right."

§ 255. Action by the Court

Upon return of the inventory, appraisal, and list of claims, the judge shall examine and approve, or disapprove, them, as follows:

After hearing such complaint, and being satisfied of the truth thereof, the court shall enter its order requiring such additional inventory or list of claims, or both, to be made and returned in like manner as original inventories, and within such time, not to exceed twenty days, from the date of said order, as may be fixed by the court, but to include only property or claims theretofore not inventoried or listed.

(c) When No Newspaper Printed in the County. When no newspaper is printed in the county, the notice shall be posted and the return made and filed as required by this Code.

§ 295. Notice to Holders of Recorded Claims

(a) When Notice Required. Within four months after receiving letters, the representative of an estate shall give notice of the issuance of such letters to each and every person having a claim for money against the estate of a decedent, or ward, as the case may be, provided:

(1) That such claim is secured by a deed of trust, mortgage, vendor's, mechanic's or other contractor's lien upon real estate belonging to such estate; and

(2) That the instrument creating, extending, or transferring such lien was duly recorded prior to the death of a testator or intestate in the county in which the real estate covered by such lien is situated, or prior to the time at which title vested in an heir or devisee.

(b) How Notice Shall Be Given. The notice stating the original grant of letters shall be given by mailing same by registered letter, with return receipt requested, addressed to the record holder of such indebtedness or claim at his last known postoffice address.

(c) Proof of Service of Notice. A copy of such notice, together with the return receipt and an affidavit of the representative, stating that said notice was mailed as required by law, giving the name of the person to whom the notice was mailed, if not shown on the notice or receipt, shall be filed in the court from which letters were issued.

§ 296. One Notice Sufficient

If the notices required by the two preceding Sections have been given by a former representative, or by one where several are acting, that shall be sufficient, and need not be repeated by any successor or co-representative.

§ 297. Penalty for Failure to Give Notice

If the representative fails to give the notices required in preceding Sections, or to cause such notices to be given, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable for any damage which any person suffers by reason of such neglect, unless it appears that such person had notice otherwise.

§ 298. Claims Against Estates of Decedents and Wards

(a) Claims Against Decedent's Estate Postponed if not Presented in Six Months. All claims for money against a testator or intestate shall be presented to the executor or administrator within six months after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration; otherwise the payment thereof shall be postponed until the claims which have been presented within six months and allowed by the executor or administrator and approved by the court have been first entirely paid; provided, however, that the failure of the holder of a secured claim to present his claim within said six month period shall not cause his claim to be postponed, but it shall be treated as a claim to be paid in accordance with subsequent provisions of this Code.

(b) Time for Presentation of Claims to Guardians. Claims may be presented to the guardian at any time when the estate is not closed and when suit on such claims has not been barred by the general statutes of limitation.

(c) Claims Barred by Limitation Not to Be Allowed or Approved. No claims against a decedent or ward, or against the estate of either, on which a suit is barred by a general statute of limitation applicable thereto shall be allowed by a personal representative. If allowed by the representative and the court is satisfied that limitation has run, the claim shall be disapproved.

§ 299. Tolling of General Statutes of Limitation

The general statutes of limitation are tolled:

(a) By filing a claim which is legally allowed and approved; or

(b) By bringing a suit upon a rejected and disapproved claim within ninety days after such rejection or disapproval.

§ 300. Claims for Expenses of Funeral and Last Illness

Claims for funeral expenses and expenses of the last sickness of the deceased shall be presented within sixty days after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, and, if they are not presented within such time, the exempted property set apart to the widow and children, and any allowances made to them under the provisions of this Code, shall no longer be liable for the payment of such claims or any part thereof.

§ 301. Claims Must Be Authenticated

Except as hereinafter provided with respect to the payment of unauthenticated claims by guardians, no personal representative of a decedent's estate or of the estate of a ward shall allow, and the court shall not approve, a claim for money against such estate, unless such claim be supported by an affidavit that the claim is just and that all legal offsets, payments, and credits known to the affiant have been allowed. If the claim is not founded on a written instrument or account, the affidavit shall also state the facts upon which the claim is founded. A photostatic copy of any exhibit or voucher necessary to prove a claim may be offered with and attached to the claim in lieu of the original.

§ 302. When Defects of Form Are Waived

Any defect of form, or claim of insufficiency of exhibits or vouchers presented, shall be deemed waived by the personal representative unless written objection thereto has been made within thirty days after presentment of the claim, and filed with the county clerk.

§ 303. Evidence Concerning Lost or Destroyed Claims

If evidence of a claim is lost or destroyed, the claimant, or someone for him, may make affidavit to the fact of such loss or destruction, stating the amount, date, and nature of the claim and when due, and that the same is just, and that all legal offsets, payments and credits known to the affiant have been allowed, and that the claimant is still the owner of the claim; and the claim must be proved by disinterested testimony taken in open court, or by oral or written deposition, before the claim is approved. If such claim is allowed or approved without such affidavit, or if it is approved without satisfactory proof, such allowance or approval shall be void.

§ 304. Authentication of Claim by Others Than Individual Owners

The cashier, treasurer, or managing official of a corporation shall make the affidavit required to authenticate a claim of such corporation. When an affidavit is made by an officer of a corporation, or by an executor, administrator, guardian, trustee, assignee, agent, or attorney, it shall be sufficient to state in such affidavit that the person making it has made diligent inquiry and examination, and that he believes that the claim is just and that all legal offsets, payments, and credits made known to the affiant have been allowed.

§ 305. Guardian's Payment of Unauthenticated Claims

A guardian may pay an unauthenticated claim against the estate of his ward which he believes to be just, but he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable for the amount of any such payment in the event the court should find that such claim is not just.

§ 306. Method of Handling Secured Claims

(a) Specifications of Claim. When a secured claim against an estate is presented, the claimant shall specify therein, in addition to all other matters required to be specified in claims:

(1) Whether it is desired to have the claim allowed and approved as a matured secured claim to be paid in due course of administration, in which event it shall be so paid if allowed and approved; or

(2) Whether it is desired to have the claim allowed, approved, and fixed as a preferred debt and lien against the specific property securing the indebtedness and paid according to the terms of the contract which secured the lien, in which event it shall be so allowed and approved if it is a valid lien; provided, however, that the personal representative may pay said claim prior to maturity if it is for the best interest of the estate to do so.

(b) Handling of Secured Claims Not Presented in Time. If a secured claim is not presented within the time provided by law, it shall be treated as a claim to be paid in accordance with Paragraph (2) of Subsection (a) hereof.

(c) Approved Claim as Preferred Lien Against Property. When an indebtedness has been allowed and approved under Paragraph (2) of Subsection (a) hereof, no further claim shall be made against other assets of the estate by reason thereof, but the same thereafter shall remain a preferred lien against the property securing same, and the property shall remain security for the debt in any distribution or sale thereof prior to final maturity and payment of the debt.

(d) Payment of Maturities on Secured Claims. If property securing a claim allowed, approved, and fixed under Paragraph (2) of Subsection (a) hereof is not sold or distributed within twelve months from the date letters testamentary or of administration or guardianship are granted, the representative of the estate shall promptly pay all maturities which have accrued on the debt according to the terms thereof, and shall perform all the terms of any contract securing same. If the representative defaults in such payment or performance, on motion of the claimholder, the court shall require the sale of said property subject to the unmaturing part of such debt and apply the proceeds of the sale to the liquidation of the maturities, or, at the option of the claimholder, a motion may be made in a like manner to require the sale of said property free of such lien and to apply the proceeds to the payment of the whole debt.

§ 307. Claims Providing for Attorney's Fees

If the instrument evidencing or supporting a claim provides for attorney's fees, then the claimant may include as a part of the claim the portion of such fee that he has paid or contracted to pay to an attorney to prepare, present, and collect such claim.

§ 308. Depositing Claims With Clerk

Claims may also be presented by depositing same, with vouchers and necessary exhibits and affidavit attached, with the clerk, who, upon receiving same, shall advise the representative of the estate, or his attorney, by letter mailed to his last known address, of the deposit of same. Should the representative fail to act on said claim within thirty days after it is filed, then it shall be presumed to be rejected. Failure of the clerk to give notice as required herein shall not affect the validity of the presentment or the presumption of rejection because not acted upon within said thirty day period.

§ 309. Memorandum of Allowance or Rejection of Claim

When a duly authenticated claim against an estate is presented to the representative, or filed with the clerk as heretofore provided, he shall, within thirty days after the claim is presented or filed, endorse thereon, or annex thereto, a memorandum signed by him, stating the time of presentation or filing of the claim, and that he allows or rejects it, or what portion thereof he allows or rejects.

§ 310. Failure to Endorse or Annex Memorandum

The failure of a representative of an estate to endorse on, or annex to, a claim presented to him, his allowance or rejection thereof within thirty days after the claim was presented, shall constitute a rejection of the claim. If the claim is thereafter established by suit, the costs shall be taxed against the representative, individually, or he may be removed on the written complaint of any person interested in the claim, after personal service of citation, hearing, and proof, as in other cases of removal.

§ 311. When Claims Entered in Docket

(a) Claims Against Estates of Decedents. If a claim against the estate of a decedent has been presented within six months after the issuance of original testamentary letters or of administration, and all or part of such claim is allowed by the executor or administrator, the claim shall forthwith be filed with the county clerk of the proper county, who shall enter the same in its proper place upon the claim docket. If such claim is not so presented within such time, the payment thereof, should it be approved in whole or in part, shall be postponed until all other claims which have been presented, allowed, and approved within the time prescribed have been first entirely paid.

(b) Claims Against Estates of Wards. After a claim against a ward's estate has been presented to and allowed by the guardian, either in whole or in part, the claim shall forthwith be filed with the county clerk of the proper county, who shall enter it on the claim docket.

§ 312. Contest of Claims, Action by Court, and Appeals

(a) Contest of Claims. Any person interested in an estate or ward may, at any time before the court has acted upon a claim, appear and object in writing to the approval of the same, or any part thereof, and in such case the parties shall be entitled to process for witnesses, and the court shall hear proof and render judgment as in ordinary suits.

(b) Court's Action Upon Claims. All claims which have been allowed and entered upon the claim docket for a period of ten days shall be acted upon by the court and be either approved in whole or in part or rejected, and they shall also at the same time be classified by the court.

(c) Hearing on Claims. Although a claim may be properly authenticated and allowed, if the court is not satisfied that it is just, he shall examine the claimant and the personal representative under oath, and hear other evidence necessary to determine the issue. If not then convinced that the claim is just, he shall disapprove it.

(d) Order of the Court. When the court has acted upon a claim, he shall also endorse thereon, or annex thereto, a written memorandum dated and signed officially, stating the exact action taken upon such claim, whether approved or disapproved, or approved in part or rejected in part, and stating the classification of the claim. Such orders shall have the force and effect of final judgments.

(e) Appeal. When a claimant or any person interested in an estate or ward shall be dissatisfied with the action of the court upon a claim, he may appeal therefrom to the district court, as from other judgments of the county court in probate matters.

§ 313. Suit on Rejected Claim

When a claim or a part thereof has been rejected by the representative, the claimant shall institute suit thereon within ninety days after such rejection, or the claim shall be barred. When a rejected claim is sued on, the endorsement made on or annexed thereto shall be taken to be true without further proof, unless denied under oath. When a rejected claim or part thereof has been established by suit, no execution shall issue, but the judgment shall be certified within thirty days after rendition and filed in the court in which the cause is pending, entered upon the claim docket, classified by the court, and handled as if originally allowed and approved in due course of administration.

§ 314. Presentation of Claims a Prerequisite for Judgment

No judgment shall be rendered in favor of a claimant upon any claim for money which has not been legally presented to the representative of an estate or ward, and rejected by him or by the court, in whole or in part.

§ 315. Costs of Suit With Respect to Claims

All costs incurred in the probate court with respect to claims shall be taxed as follows:

(a) If allowed and approved, the estate shall pay the costs.

(b) If allowed, but disapproved, the claimant shall pay the costs.

(c) If rejected, but established by suit, the estate shall pay the costs.

(d) If rejected, but not established by suit, the claimant shall pay the costs.

(e) In suits to establish a claim after rejection in part, if the claimant fails to recover judgment for a greater amount than was allowed or approved, he shall pay all costs.

§ 316. Claims Against Executors or Administrators

The naming of an executor in a will shall not operate to extinguish any just claim which the deceased had against him; and, in all cases where an executor or administrator is indebted to his testator or intestate, he shall account for the debt in the same manner as if it were cash in his hands; provided, however, that if said debt was not due at the time of receiving letters, he shall be required to account for it only from the date when it becomes due.

§ 317. Claims by Personal Representatives

(a) By Executors or Administrators. The foregoing provisions of this Code relative to the presentation of claims against an estate shall not be construed to apply to any claim of the executor or administrator against his testator or intestate; but an executor or administrator holding such claim shall file the same in the court granting his letters, verified by affidavit as required in other cases, within six months after he has qualified, or such claim shall be barred.

(b) By Guardians. A claim which the guardian held against the ward or his estate at the time of his appointment, or which has since accrued, shall be verified by affidavit as required in other cases, and presented to the clerk of the court in which the guardianship is pending, who shall enter it upon the claim docket, after which it shall take the same course as other claims.

(c) Action on Such Claims. When a claim by an executor, administrator, or guardian has been filed with the court within the required time, such claim shall be entered upon the claim docket and acted upon by the court in the same manner as in other cases, and, when the claim has been acted upon by the court, an appeal from the judgment of the court may be taken as in other cases.

(d) Provisions Not Applicable to Certain Claims. The foregoing provisions relative to the presentment of claims shall not be so construed as to apply to the claim of any heir, devisee, or legatee who claims in such capacity, or to any claim that accrues against the estate after the granting of letters for which the representative of the estate has contracted.

§ 318. Claims Not Allowed After Order for Partition and Distribution

No claim for money against his testator or intestate shall be allowed by an executor or administrator and no suit shall be instituted against him on any such claim, after an order for partition and distribution has been made; but, after such an order has been made, the owner of any claim not barred by the laws of limitation shall have his action thereon against the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the estate, limited to the value of the property received by them in such partition and distribution.

§ 319. Claims Not to Be Paid Unless Approved

Except as provided for payment at his own risk by a guardian of an unauthenticated claim, no claim for money against the estate of a decedent or ward, or any part thereof, shall be paid until it has been approved by the court or established by the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 320. Order of Payment of Claims

(a) Estates of Decedents. Executors and administrators, when they have funds in their hands belonging to the estate, shall pay in the following order:

(1) Funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness, in an amount not to exceed One Thousand Dollars, if the claims therefor have been presented within sixty days from the original grant of letters testamentary or administration, but if not presented within such time, their payment shall be postponed until the allowances made to the widow and children, or to either, are paid.

(2) Allowances made to the widow and children, or to either.

(3) Expenses of administration and the expenses incurred in the preservation, safe-keeping, and management of the estate.

(4) Other claims against the estate in the order of their classification.

(b) Estates of Wards. The guardian shall pay all claims against the estate of his ward that have been allowed or approved, or established by suit, as soon as practicable.

§ 320A. Funeral Expenses

When executors, independent executors and administrators pay claims for funeral expenses and for items incident thereto, such as tombstones, grave markers, crypts or burial plots, they shall charge the whole of such claims to the decedent's estate and shall charge no part thereof to the community share of a surviving spouse.

§ 321. Deficiency of Assets

When there is a deficiency of assets to pay all claims of the same class, the claims in such class shall be paid pro rata, as directed by the court, and in the order directed. No executor, administrator, or guardian shall be allowed to pay any claims, whether the estate is solvent or insolvent, except with the pro rata amount of the funds of the estate that have come to hand.

§ 322. Classification of Claims Against Estates of Decedents

Claims against an estate of a decedent shall be classed and have priority of payment, as follows:

Class 1. Funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness for a reasonable amount to be approved by the court, not to exceed One Thousand Dollars, any excess to be classified and paid as other unsecured claims.

Class 2. Expenses of administration and expenses incurred in the preservation, safe-keeping, and management of the estate.

Class 3. Claims secured by mortgage or other liens so far as the same can be paid out of the proceeds of the property subject to such mortgage or other lien, and when more than one mortgage or lien shall exist upon the same property, the oldest shall be first paid; but no preference shall be given to such mortgage or lien.

Class 4. All other claims legally exhibited within six months after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration.

Class 5. All claims legally exhibited after the lapse of six months from the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration.

§ 323. Joint Obligation

When two or more persons are jointly bound for the payment of a debt, or for any other purpose, upon the death of any of the persons so bound, his estate shall be charged by virtue of such obligation in the same manner as if the obligors had been bound severally as well as jointly.

§ 324. Representatives Not to Purchase Claims

It shall be unlawful, and cause for removal, for an executor, administrator, or guardian, whether acting under appointment by will or under orders of the court, to purchase for his own use or for any purposes whatsoever, any claim against the estate he represents. Upon written complaint by any person interested in the estate, and satisfactory proof of violation of this provision, after citation and hearing, the court shall enter its order cancelling the claim, and no part thereof shall be paid out of the estate; and the judge may, in his discretion, remove such representative.

§ 325. Proceeds of Sale of Mortgaged Property

Whenever a personal representative has in his hands the proceeds of a sale that has been made for the satisfaction of a mortgage or other lien, and such proceeds, or any part thereof, are not required for the payment of any debts against the estate that have a preference over such mortgage or other lien, he shall pay such proceeds to the holder or holders of such mortgage or other liens; and, if he shall fail to do so, such holder or holders, upon proof thereof, may obtain an order from the court directing such payment to be made.

§ 326. Owner May Obtain Order for Payment

Any creditor of an estate of a decedent whose claim, or part thereof, has been approved by the court or established by suit, may, at any time after twelve months from the granting of letters testamentary, upon written application and proof showing that the estate has on hand sufficient available funds, obtain an order directing that payment be made; or, if there are no available funds, and if to await the receipt of funds from other sources would unreasonably delay payment, the court shall then order sale of property of the estate sufficient to pay the claim; provided, the representative of the estate shall have first been cited on such written complaint to appear and show cause why such order should not be made.

§ 327. Claims Presented Against Estate of Decedent After Six Months

Unsecured claims against the estate presented to an executor or administrator after the expiration of six months from the original grant of letters, and allowed and approved or established by judgment, shall be paid by the executor or administrator at any time before the estate is finally closed, when he has funds of the estate in his hands over and above what is sufficient to pay all debts of every kind against the estate that were presented within the six months and allowed and approved or established by judgment, or that shall be so established; and an order for the payment of any such claim may be obtained from the court, upon proof that the executor or administrator has such funds, in like manner as is provided in this Code for other creditors to obtain payment.

§ 328. Liability for Nonpayment of Claims

(a) Procedure to Force Payment. If any representative of an estate shall fail to pay on demand any money ordered by the court to be paid to any person, except to the State Treasury, when there are funds of the estate available, the person or claimant entitled to such payment, upon affidavit of the demand and failure to pay, shall be authorized to have execution issued against the property of the estate for the amount due, with interest and costs; or

(b) Penalty Against Representative. Upon return of the execution not satisfied, or merely upon the affidavit of demand and failure to pay, the court may cite the representative and the sureties on his bond to show cause why they should not be held liable for such debt, interest, costs, and damages. Upon return of citation duly served, if good cause to the contrary be not shown, the court shall render judgment against the representative and sureties so cited, in favor of the holder of such claim, for the amount theretofore ordered to be paid or established by suit, and remaining unpaid, together with interest and costs, and also for damages upon the amount neglected to be paid, at the rate of five per cent per month for each month, or fraction thereof, that the payment was neglected to be paid after demand made therefor, which damages may be collected in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 329. Borrowing Money

(a) Circumstances Under Which Money May Be Borrowed. Any real or personal property of an estate may be mortgaged or pledged by deed of trust or otherwise as security for an indebtedness, under order of the court, when necessary for any of the following purposes:

(1) For the payment of any ad valorem, income, gift, estate, inheritance, or transfer taxes upon the transfer of an estate or due from a decedent or ward or his estate, regardless of whether such taxes are assessed by a state, or any of its political subdivisions, or by the federal government or by a foreign country; or

(2) For payment of expenses of administration, including sums necessary for operation of a business, farm, or ranch owned by the estate; or

(3) For payment of claims allowed and approved, or established by suit, against the estate; or

(4) To renew and extend a valid, existing lien; or

(5) In the case of guardians of estates, if the real estate of the ward is not revenue producing but could be made revenue producing by certain improvements and repairs, or if the revenue therefrom could be increased by making such improvements or repairs thereon, to make such improvements or repairs; or

(6) In the case of guardians of estates, the probate court in its discretion may authorize the borrowing of money where it is in the best interest of and for the protection of the estate of the ward.

(b) Procedure for Borrowing Money. When it is necessary to borrow money for any of the aforementioned purposes, or to create or extend a lien upon property of the estate as security, a sworn application for such authority shall be filed with the court, stating fully and in detail the circumstances which the representative of the estate believes make necessary the granting of such authority. Thereupon, the clerk shall issue and cause to be posted a citation to all interested persons, stating the nature of the application and requiring such persons, if they choose so to do, to appear and show cause, if any, why such application should not be granted.

(c) Order Authorizing Such Borrowing, or Extension of Lien. The court, if satisfied by the evidence adduced at the hearing upon said application that it is to the interest of the estate to borrow money, or to extend and renew an existing lien, shall issue its order to that effect, setting out the terms and conditions of the authority granted; provided, however: (1) that as to the estate of a decedent, the loan or renewal shall not be for a term longer than three years from the granting of original letters to the representative of such estate, but the court may authorize an extension of such lien for not more than one additional year without further citation or notice; and (2) that as to the estate of a ward, the term of the loan or renewal shall be for such length of time as the court shall determine to be for the best interest of such estate. If a new lien is created upon property of an estate, the court may require that the representative's general bond be increased, or an additional bond given, for the protection of the estate and its creditors, as for the sale of real property belonging to the estate.

§ 330. Notices to Veterans Administration by Guardians

Whenever an annual or other account, or an application for the expenditure of funds or for the investment of funds is filed by any guardian whose ward is a beneficiary of the Veterans Administration, or when a claim against the estate of such a ward shall be filed, the court shall thereupon fix a date for the hearing of such account, application, petition, or claim, as the case may be, not less than twenty days from the date of the filing thereof. The clerk of the court in which such account, application, petition, or claim shall be filed shall give notice thereof not less than fifteen days prior to the date fixed for such hearing to the Veterans Administration in whose territory the court is located by mailing a certified copy of such account, application, petition, or claim to said office of the Veterans Administration; provided that said Administration may through its attorney waive the service of such notice and also the time within which a hearing may be had in such cases. Such account, application, petition, or claim shall be filed in duplicate, and the clerk of the court shall be entitled to a fee of Twenty-five Cents, taxable against the estate, for certifying to the copy thereof, which he shall forthwith mail to said Administration as provided herein. If not filed in duplicate, the clerk shall be entitled to a further fee of Fifteen Cents per one hundred words for making a copy thereof. Such additional costs of copying shall be taxed and collected from the guardian individually, and shall not be chargeable to the ward's estate.

PART 5. SALES

§ 331. Court Must Order Sales

Except as hereinafter provided, no sale of any property of an estate shall be made without an order of court authorizing the same. The court may order property sold for cash or on credit, at public auction or privately, as it may consider most to the advantage of the estate, except when otherwise specially provided herein.

§ 332. Sales Authorized by Will

Whenever by the terms of a will an executor is authorized to sell any property of the testator, no order of court shall be necessary to authorize the executor to make such sale, and the sale may be made at public auction or privately as the executor deems to be in the best interest of the estate and may be made for cash or upon such credit terms as the executor shall determine; provided, that when particular directions are given by a testator in his will respecting the sale of any property belonging to his estate, the same shall be followed, unless such directions have been annulled or suspended by order of the court.

§ 333. Certain Personal Property to Be Sold

The representative of an estate, after approval of inventory and appraisal, shall promptly apply for an order of the court to sell at public auction or privately, for cash or on credit not exceeding six months, all of the estate that is liable to perish, waste, or deteriorate in value, or that will be an expense or disadvantage to the estate if kept. Bonds, securities, or other personal property deemed by the court not to be so liable, property exempt from forced sale, specific legacies, and personal property necessary to carry on a farm, ranch, factory, or any other business which it is thought best to operate, shall not be included in such sales.

§ 334. Sales of Other Personal Property

Upon application by the personal representative of the estate or by any interested person, the court may order the sale of any personal property of the estate not required to be sold by the preceding Section, including growing or harvested crops or livestock, but not including exempt property or specific legacies, if the court finds that so to do would be in the best interest of the estate in order to pay expenses of administration, funeral expenses, expenses of last illness, allowances, or claims against the estate, from the proceeds of the sale of such property. In so far as possible, applications and orders for the sale of personal property shall conform to the requirements hereinafter set forth for applications and orders for the sale of real estate.

§ 335. Special Provisions Pertaining to Livestock

When the personal representative of an estate has in his possession any livestock which he deems necessary or to the advantage of the estate to sell, he may, in addition to any other method provided by law for the sale of personal property, obtain authority from the court in which the estate is pending to sell such livestock through a bonded livestock commission merchant, or a bonded livestock auction commission merchant. Such authority may be granted by the court upon written and sworn application by the personal representative, or by any person interested in the estate, describing the livestock sought to be sold, and setting out the reasons why it is deemed necessary or to the advantage of the estate that the application be granted. The court shall forthwith consider any such application, and may, in its discretion, hear evidence for or against the same, with or without notice, as the facts warrant. If the application be granted, the court shall enter its order to that effect, and shall authorize delivery of the livestock to any bonded livestock commission merchant or bonded livestock auction commission merchant for sale in the regular course of business. The commission merchant shall be paid his usual and customary charges, not to exceed three per cent of the sale price, for the sale of such livestock. A report of such sale, supported by a verified copy of the merchant's account of sale, shall be made promptly by the personal representative to the court, but no order of confirmation by the court is required to pass title to the purchaser of such livestock.

§ 336. Sales of Personal Property at Public Auction

All sales of personal property at public auction shall be made after notice has been issued by the representative of the estate and posted as in case of posting for original proceedings in probate, unless the court shall otherwise direct.

§ 337. Sales of Personal Property on Credit

No more than six months credit may be allowed when personal property is sold at public auction, based upon the date of such sale. The purchaser shall be required to give his note for the amount due, with good and solvent personal security, before delivery of such property can be made to him, but security may be waived if delivery is not to be made until the note, with interest, has been paid.

§ 338. Sale of Mortgaged Property

Any creditor holding a claim secured by a valid mortgage or other lien, which has been allowed and approved or established by suit, may obtain from the court in which the estate is pending an order that said property, or so much thereof as necessary to satisfy his claim, shall be sold, by filing his written application therefor. Upon the filing of such application, the clerk shall issue citation requiring the representative of the estate to appear and show cause why such application should not be granted. If it appears to the court that it would be advisable to discharge the lien out of the general assets of the estate or that it be refinanced, he may so order; otherwise, he shall grant the application and order that the property be sold at public or private sale, as deemed best, as in ordinary cases of sales of real estate.

§ 339. Sales of Personal Property to Be Reported; Decree Vests Title

All sales of personal property shall be reported to the court, and the laws regulating sales of real estate as to confirmation or disapproval of sales shall apply, but no conveyance shall be necessary. The decree confirming the sale of personal property shall vest the right and title of the estate of the intestate or ward in the purchaser who has complied with the terms of the sale, and shall be prima facie evidence that all requirements of the law in making the sale have been met. The representative of an estate may, upon request, issue a bill of sale without warranty to the purchaser as evidence of title, the expense thereof to be borne by the purchaser.

§ 340. Selection of Real Property to Be Sold for Payment of Debts

Real property of the estate which is selected to be sold for the payment of expenses or claims shall be that which the court deems most advantageous to the estate to be sold.

§ 341. Application for Sale of Real Estate

(a) Application may be made to the court for an order to sell property of the estate when it appears necessary or advisable in order to:

(1) Pay expenses of administration, funeral expenses and expenses of last sickness of decedents, and allowances and claims against the estates of decedents and wards.

(2) Make up the deficiency when the income of a ward's estate, and the personal property thereof, and the proceeds of previous sales, are insufficient for the education and maintenance of the ward, or to pay debts against the estate.

(3) Dispose of property of the estate of a ward which consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(4) Dispose of real estate of a ward, any part of which is nonproductive or does not produce sufficient revenue to make a fair return upon the value of such real estate, when the improvement of same with a view to making it productive is not deemed advantageous or advisable, and it appears that the sale of such real estate and the investment of the money derived therefrom would be to the best interest of the estate.

(5) Conserve the estate of a ward by selling mineral interest and/or royalties on minerals in place owned by a ward.

(6) Dispose of property of the estate of a decedent which consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real estate, when it is deemed to the best interest of the estate to sell such interest.

(b) Any natural or adoptive parent of a minor who is not a ward may apply to the court for an order to sell property of a minor without being appointed guardian, when the value of the property does not exceed $1,500. A sale of property pursuant to an order of the court under the subsection is not subject to disaffirmance by the minor.

(c) Such parent shall make application to the court for the sale of such property. The application shall contain the following information:

(1) A legal description of the property.

(2) The name of the minor, or minors and his interest in the property.

(3) The name of the purchaser.

(4) That such sale of the minor's interest is for cash.

(5) That all funds received by the parent shall be used for the use and benefit of such minor.

(d) The court shall upon receipt of such application set the same for hearing at a date not less than five days from date of filing of such application, and if it deems necessary may cause citation to be issued.

(e) At the time of the hearing of said application, the court shall order the sale of such property, if it is satisfied from the evidence that the sale is in the best interest of said minor.

(f) When the order of sale has been entered by the court, the purchaser of such property shall pay the proceeds of such sale belonging to said minor or minors into the registry of the court.

(g) Nothing in this section shall prevent the proceeds so deposited from being withdrawn from the registry of the court under Section 144 of the Texas Probate Code.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan., 1, 1956; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2030, ch. 695, § 1, eff. June 12, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 408, ch. 182, § 4, eff. May 25, 1973.]

§ 342. Contents of Application for Sale of Real Estate

An application for the sale of real estate shall be in writing, shall describe the real estate or interest in or part thereof sought to be sold, and shall be accompanied by an exhibit, verified by affidavit, showing fully and in detail the condition of the estate, the charges and claims that have been approved or established by suit, or that have been rejected and may yet be established, the amount of each such claim, the property of the estate remaining on hand liable for the payment of such claims, and any other facts tending to show the necessity or advisability of such sale.

§ 343. Setting of Hearing on Application

Whenever an application for the sale of real estate is filed, it shall immediately be called to the attention of the judge by the clerk, and the judge shall designate a day for hearing said application, any opposition thereto, and any application for the sale of other land, together with the evidence pertaining thereto. The judge may, by entries on the docket, continue such hearing from time to time until he is satisfied concerning the application.

§ 344. Citation and Return on Application

Upon the filing of such application and exhibit, the clerk shall issue a citation to all persons interested in the estate, describing the land or interest or part thereof sought to be sold, requiring them to appear at the time set by the court as shown in the citation and show cause why the sale should not be made, if they so elect. Service of such citation shall be by posting.

§ 345. Opposition to Application

When an application for an order of sale is made, any person interested in the estate may, before an order is made thereon, file his opposition to the sale, in writing, or may make application for the sale of other property of the estate.

§ 346. Order of Sale

If satisfied upon hearing that the sale of the property of the estate described in the application is necessary or advisable, the court shall order the sale to be made; otherwise, the court may deny the application and may, if it deems best, order the sale of other property the sale of which would be more advantageous to the estate. An order for the sale of real estate shall specify:

(a) The property to be sold, giving such description as will identify it; and

(b) Whether the property is to be sold at public auction or at private sale, and, if at public auction, the time and place of such sale; and

(c) The necessity or advisability of the sale and its purpose; and

(d) Except in cases in which no general bond is required, that, having examined the general bond of the representative of the estate, the court finds it to be sufficient as required by law, or finds the same to be insufficient and specifies the necessary or increased bond, as the case may be; and

(e) That the sale shall be made and the report returned in accordance with law; and

(f) The terms of the sale.

§ 347. Procedure When Representative Neglects to Apply for Sale

When the representative of an estate neglects to apply for an order to sell sufficient property to pay the charges and claims against the estate that have been allowed and approved, or established by suit, any interested person may, upon written application, cause such representative to be cited to appear and make a full exhibit of the condition of such estate, and show cause why a sale of the property should not be ordered. Upon hearing such application, if the court is satisfied that a sale of the property is necessary or advisable in order to satisfy such claims, it shall enter an order of sale as provided in the preceding Section.

§ 348. Permissible Terms of Sale of Real Estate

(a) For Cash or Credit. The real estate may be sold for cash, or for part cash and part credit, or the equity in land securing an indebtedness may be sold subject to such indebtedness, or with an assumption of such indebtedness, at public or private sale, as appears to the court to be for the best interest of the estate. When real estate is sold partly on credit, the cash payment shall not be less than one-fifth of the purchase price, and the purchaser shall execute a note for the deferred payments payable in monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual installments, of such amounts as appears to the court to be for the best interest of the estate, to bear interest from date at a rate of not less than four percent (4%) per annum, payable as provided in such note. Default in the payment of principal or interest, or any part thereof when due, shall, at the election of the holder of such note, mature the whole debt. Such note shall be secured by vendor's lien retained in the deed and in the note upon the property sold, and be further secured by deed of trust upon the property sold, with the usual provisions for foreclosure and sale upon failure to make the payments provided in the deed and notes.

(b) Reconveyance Upon Redemption. When an estate owning real estate by virtue of foreclosure of vendor's lien or mortgage belonging to the estate, either by judicial sale or by a foreclosure suit or through sale under deed of trust or by acceptance of a deed in cancellation of a lien or mortgage owned by the estate, and it appears to the court that an application to redeem the property foreclosed upon has been made by the former owner of the real estate to any corporation or agency now created or hereafter to be created by any Act or Acts of the Congress of the United States or of the State of Texas in connection with legislation for the relief of owners of mortgaged or encumbered homes, farms, ranches, or other real estate, and it further appears to the court that it would be to the best interest of the estate to own bonds of one of the above named federal or state corporations or agencies instead of the real estate, then upon proper application and proof, the court may dispense with the provisions of credit sales as provided above, and may order reconveyance of the property to the former mortgage debtor, or former owner, reserving vendor's lien notes for the total amount of the indebtedness due or for the total amount of bonds which the corporation or agency above named is under its rules and regulations allowed to advance, and, upon obtaining such an order, it shall be proper for the representative to indorse and assign the notes so obtained over to any one of the corporations or agencies above named in exchange for bonds of that corporation or agency.

§ 349. Public Sales of Real Estate

(a) Notice of Sale. Except as hereinafter provided, all public sales of real estate shall be advertised by the representative of the estate by a notice published in the county in which the estate is pending, as provided in this Code for publication of notices or citations. Reference shall be made to the order of sale, the time, place, and the required terms of sale, and a brief description of the property to be sold shall be given. It need not contain field notes, but if rural property, the name of the original survey, the number of acres, its locality in the county, and the name by which the land is generally known, if any, shall be given.

(b) Method of Sale. All public sales of real estate shall be made at public auction to the highest bidder.

(c) Time and Place of Sale. All such sales shall be made in the county in which the proceedings are pending, at the courthouse door of said county, or other place in such county where sales of real estate are specifically authorized to be made, on the first Tuesday of the month after publication of notice shall have been completed, between the hours of ten o'clock A.M. and four o'clock P.M., provided, that if deemed advisable by the court, he may order such sale to be made in the county in which the land is situated, in which event notice shall be published both in such county and in the county where the proceedings are pending.

(d) Continuance of Sales. If sales are not completed on the day advertised, they may be continued from day to day by making public announcement verbally of such continuance at the conclusion of the sale each day, such continued sales to be within the same hours as hereinbefore prescribed. If sales are so continued, the fact shall be shown in the report of sale made to the court.

(e) Failure of Bidder to Comply. When any person shall bid off property of an estate offered for sale at public auction, and shall fail to comply with the terms of sale, such property shall be readvertised and sold without any further order; and the person so defaulting shall be liable to pay to the representative of the estate, for its benefit, ten per cent of the amount of his bid, and also any deficiency in price on the second sale, such amounts to be recovered by such representative by suit in any court having jurisdiction of the amount claimed, in the county in which the sale was made.

§ 350. Private Sales of Real Estate

All private sales of real estate shall be made in such manner as the court directs in its order of sale, and no advertising, notice, or citation concerning such sale shall be required, unless the court shall direct otherwise.

§ 351. Sales of Easements and Right of Ways

It shall be lawful to sell and convey easements and rights of ways on, under, and over the lands of an estate being administered under orders of a court, regardless of whether the proceeds of such a sale are required for payment of charges or claims against the estate, or for other lawful purposes. The procedure for such sales shall be the same as now or hereafter provided by law for sales of real property of estates of decedents or wards at private sale.

§ 352. Representative Not to Purchase Property of the Estate

The personal representative of an estate shall not become the purchaser, directly or indirectly, of any property of the estate sold by him, or by any co-representative if one be acting. If any such purchase is made, any person interested in the estate may file a written complaint with the court in which the proceedings are pending, and upon service of citation upon the representative, after hearing and proof, such sale shall be by the court declared void, and shall be set aside by the court and the property ordered to be reconveyed to the estate. All costs of the sale, protest, and suit, if found necessary, shall be adjudged against the representative.

§ 353. Reports of Sale

All sales of real property of an estate shall be reported to the court ordering the same within thirty days after the sales are made. Reports shall be in writing, sworn to, and filed with the clerk, and noted on the probate docket. They shall show:

- (a) The date of the order of sale.
- (b) The property sold, describing it.
- (c) The time and place of sale.
- (d) The name of the purchaser.
- (e) The amount for which each parcel of property or interest therein was sold.
- (f) The terms of the sale, and whether made at public auction or privately.
- (g) Whether the purchaser is ready to comply with the order of sale.

§ 354. Bond on Sale of Real Estate

If the personal representative of the estate is not required by this Code to furnish a general bond, the sale may be confirmed by the court if found to be satisfactory and in accordance with law. Otherwise, before any sale of real estate is confirmed, the court shall determine whether the general bond of said representative is sufficient to protect the estate after the proceeds of the sale are received. If the court so finds, the sale may be confirmed. If the general bond be found insufficient, the sale shall not be confirmed until and unless the general bond be increased to the amount required by the court, or an additional bond given, and approved by the court. The increase, or the additional bond, shall be equal to the amount for which such real estate is sold, plus, in either instance, such additional sum as the court shall find necessary and fix for the protection of the estate; provided, that where the real estate sold is encumbered by a lien to secure a claim against the estate and is sold to the owner or holder of such secured claim and is in full payment, liquidation, and satisfaction thereof, no increased general bond or additional bond shall be required except for the amount of cash, if any, actually paid to the representative of the estate in excess of the amount necessary to pay, liquidate, and satisfy such claim in full.

§ 355. Action of Court on Report of Sale

After the expiration of five days from the filing of a report of sale, the court shall inquire into the manner in which the sale was made, hear evidence in support of or against such report, and determine the sufficiency or insufficiency of the representative's general bond, if any has been required and given; and, if he is satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made and in conformity with law, and has approved any increased or additional bond which may have been found necessary to protect the estate, the court shall enter a decree confirming such sale, showing conformity with the foregoing provisions of the Code, and authorizing the conveyance of the property to be made by the representative of the estate upon compliance by the purchaser with the terms of the sale, detailing such terms. If the court is not satisfied that the sale was for a fair price, was properly made, and in conformity with law, an order shall be made setting the same aside and ordering a new sale to be made, if necessary. The action of the court in confirming or disapproving a report of sale shall have the force and effect of a final judgment; and any person interested in the estate or in the sale shall have the right to have such decrees reviewed by the District Court, as in other final judgments in probate proceedings.

§ 356. Deed Conveys Title to Real Estate

When real estate is sold, the conveyance shall be by proper deed which shall refer to and identify the decree of the court confirming the sale. Such deed shall vest in the purchaser all right, title, and interest of the estate to such property, and shall be prima facie evidence that said sale has met all applicable requirements of the law.

§ 357. Delivery of Deed, Vendor's and Deed of Trust Lien

After a sale is confirmed by the court and the terms of sale have been complied with by the purchaser, the representative of the estate shall forthwith execute and deliver to the purchaser a proper deed conveying the property. If the sale is made partly on credit, the vendor's lien securing the purchase money note or notes shall be expressly retained in said deed, and in no event waived, and before actual delivery of said deed to purchaser, he shall execute and deliver to the representative of the estate a vendor's lien note or notes, with or without personal sureties as the court shall have ordered, and also a deed of trust or mortgage on the property as further security for the payment of said note or notes. Upon completion of the transaction, the personal representative shall promptly file or cause to be filed and recorded in the appropriate records in the county where the land is situated said deed of trust or mortgage.

§ 358. Penalty for Neglect

Should the representative of an estate neglect to comply with the preceding Section, or to file the deed of trust securing such lien in the proper county, he and the sureties on his bond shall, after complaint and citation, be held liable for the use of the estate, for all damages resulting from such neglect, which damages may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, and he may be removed by the court.

PART 6. HIRING AND RENTING

§ 359. Hiring or Renting Without Order of Court

The personal representative of an estate may, without order of court, rent any of its real property or hire out any of its personal property, either at public auction or privately, as may be deemed in the best interest of the estate, for a period not to exceed one year.

§ 360. Liability of Personal Representative

If property of the estate is hired or rented without an order of court, the personal representative shall be required to account to the estate for the reasonable value of the hire or rent of such property, to be ascertained by the court upon satisfactory evidence, upon sworn complaint of any person interested in the estate.

§ 361. Order to Hire or Rent

Representatives of estates, if they prefer, may, and, if the proposed rental period exceeds one year, shall, file a written application with the court setting forth the property sought to be hired or rented. If the court finds that it would be to the interest of the estate, he shall grant the application and issue an order which shall describe the property to be hired or rented, state whether such hiring or renting shall be at public auction or privately, whether for cash or on credit, and, if on credit, the extent of same and the period for which the property may be rented. If to be hired or rented at public auction, the court shall also prescribe whether notice thereof shall be published or posted.

§ 362. Procedure in Case of Neglect to Rent Property

Any person interested in an estate may file his written and sworn complaint in a court where such estate is pending, and cause the personal representative of such estate to be cited to appear and show cause why he did not hire or rent any property of the estate, and the court, upon hearing such complaint, shall make such order as seems for the best interest of the estate.

§ 363. When Property is Hired or Rented on Credit

When property is hired or rented on credit, possession thereof shall not be delivered until the hirer or renter has executed and delivered to the representative of the estate a note with good personal security for the amount of such hire or rent; and, if any such property so hired or rented is delivered without receiving such security, the representative and the sureties on his bond shall be liable for the full amount of such hire or rent; provided, that when the hire or rental is payable in installments, in advance of the period of time to which they relate, this Section shall not apply.

§ 364. Property Hired or Rented to Be Returned in Good Condition

All property hired or rented, with or without an order of court, shall be returned to the possession of the estate in as good condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted, as when hired or rented, and it shall be the duty and responsibility of the representative of the estate to see that this is done, to report to the court any loss, damage or destruction of property hired or rented, and to ask for authority to take such action as is necessary; failing so to do, he and the sureties on his bond shall be liable to the estate for any loss or damage suffered through such fault.

§ 365. Report of Hiring or Renting

(a) When any property of the estate with an appraised value of Three Thousand Dollars or more has been hired or rented, the representative shall, within thirty days thereafter, file with the court a sworn and written report, stating:

- (1) The property involved and its appraised value.
- (2) The date of hiring or renting, and whether at public auction or privately.
- (3) The name of the person or persons hiring or renting such property.
- (4) The amount of such hiring or rental.
- (5) Whether the hiring or rental was for cash or on credit, and, if on credit, the length of time, the terms, and the security taken therefor.

(b) When the value of the property involved is less than Three Thousand Dollars, the hiring or renting thereof may be reported upon in the next annual or final account which shall be filed as required by law.

§ 366. Action of Court on Report

At any time after five days from the time such report of hiring or renting is filed, it shall be examined by the court and approved and confirmed by order of the court if found just and reasonable; but, if disapproved, the estate shall not be bound and the court may order another offering of the property for hire or rent, in the same manner and subject to the same rules heretofore provided. If the report has been approved and it later appears that, by reason of any fault of the representative of the estate, the property has not been hired or rented for its reasonable value, the court shall cause the representative of the estate and his sureties to appear and show cause why the reasonable value of hire or rent of such property shall not be adjudged against him.

PART 7. MINERAL LEASES, POOLING OR UNITIZATION AGREEMENTS, AND OTHER MATTERS RELATING TO MINERAL PROPERTIES

§ 367. Mineral Leases After Public Notice

(a) Certain Words and Terms Defined. As used throughout in this Part of this Chapter, the words

"land" or "interest in land" include minerals or any interest in any of such minerals in place. The word "property" includes land, minerals in place, whether solid, liquid or gaseous, as well as an interest of any kind in such property, including royalty, owned by the estate. "Mineral development" includes exploration, by geophysical or by any other means, drilling, mining, developing, and operating, and producing and saving oil, other liquid hydrocarbons, gas (including all liquid hydrocarbons in the gaseous phase in the reservoir), gaseous elements, sulphur, metals, and all other minerals, solid or otherwise.

(b) Mineral Leases, With or Without Pooling or Unitization. Personal representatives of the estates of decedents, minors, and incompetents, appointed and qualified under the laws of this State, and acting solely under orders of court, may be authorized by the court in which the probate proceedings on such estates are pending to make, execute, and deliver leases, with or without unitization clauses or pooling provisions, providing for the exploration for, and development and production of, oil, other liquid hydrocarbons, gas (including all liquid hydrocarbons in the gaseous phase), metals, and other solid minerals, and other minerals, or any of such minerals in place, belonging to such estates.

(c) Rules Concerning Applications, Orders, Notices, and Other Essential Matters. All such leases, with or without pooling provisions or unitization clauses, shall be made and entered into pursuant to and in conformity with the following rules:

1. Contents of Application. The representative of the estate shall file with the county clerk of the county where the probate proceeding is pending his written application, addressed to the court or the judge of such court, asking for authority to lease property of the estate for mineral exploration and development, with or without pooling provisions or unitization clauses. The application shall (a) describe the property fully enough by reference to the amount of acreage, the survey name or number, or abstract number, or other description adequately identifying the property and its location in the county in which situated; (b) specify the interest thought to be owned by the estate, if less than the whole, but asking for authority to include all interest owned by the estate, if that be the intention; and (c) set out the reasons why such particular property of the estate should be leased. Neither the name of any proposed lessee, nor the terms, provisions, or form of any desired lease, need be set out or suggested in any such application for authority to lease for mineral development.

2. Order Designating Time and Place for Hearing Application.

(a) Duties of Clerk and Judge. When an application to lease, as above prescribed, is filed, the county clerk shall immediately call the filing of such application to the attention of the court, and the judge shall promptly make and enter a brief order designating the time and place for the hearing of such application.

(b) Continuance of Hearing. If the hearing is not had at the time originally designated by the court or by timely order or orders of continuance duly entered, then, in such event, the hearing shall be automatically continued, without further notice, to the same hour or time the following day (except Sundays and holidays on which the county courthouse is officially closed to business) and from day to day until the application is finally acted upon and disposed of by order of the court. No notice of such automatic continuance shall be required.

3. Notice of Application to Lease, Service of Notice, and Proof of Service.

(a) Notice and Its Contents. The personal representative, and not the county clerk, shall give notice in writing of the time designated by the judge for the hearing on the application to lease. The notice shall be directed to all persons interested in the estate. It shall state the date on which the application was filed, describe briefly the property sought to be leased, specifying the fractional interest sought to be leased if less than the entire interest in the tract or tracts identified, state the time and place designated by the judge for the hearing, and be dated.

(b) Service of Notice. The personal representative shall give at least ten days notice, exclusive of the date of notice and of the date set for hearing, by publication in one issue of a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the proceeding is pending, or, if there be no such newspaper, then by posting by the personal representative or at his instance. The date of notice when published shall be the date the newspaper bears.

4. Preceding Requirements Mandatory. In the absence of: (a) a written order originally designating a time and place for hearing; (b) a notice issued by the personal representative of the estate in compliance with such order; and (c) proof of publication or posting of such notice as required, any order of the judge or court authorizing any acts to be performed pursuant to said application shall be null and void.

5. Hearing on Application to Lease and Order Thereon. At the time and place designated for the hearing, or at any time to which it shall have been continued as hereinabove provided, the judge shall hear such application, requiring proof as to the necessity or advisability of leasing for mineral development the property described in the application and in the notice; and, if he is satisfied that the application is in due form, that notice has been duly given in the manner and for the time required by law, that the proof of necessity or advisability of leasing is sufficient, and that the application should be granted, then an order shall be entered so finding, and authorizing the making of one or more leases, with or without pooling provisions or unitization clauses (with or without cash consideration if deemed by the court to be in the best interest of the estate) affecting and covering the property, or portions thereof, described in the application. Said order authorizing leasing shall also set out the following mandatory contents:

- (a) The name of the lessee.
- (b) The actual cash consideration, if any, to be paid by the lessee.
- (c) Finding that the personal representative is exempted by law from giving bond, if that be a fact and if not a fact, then a finding as to whether or not the representative's general bond on file is sufficient to protect the personal property on hand, inclusive of any cash bonus to be paid, if any. If the court finds the general bond insufficient to meet these requirements, the order shall show the amount of increased or additional bond required to cover the deficiency.

(d) A complete exhibit copy, either written or printed, of each lease thus authorized to be made, shall either be set out in the order or attached thereto and incorporated by reference in said order and made a part thereof. It shall show the name of the lessee, the date of the lease, an adequate description of the property being leased, the delay rental, if any, to be paid to defer commencement of operations, and all other terms and provisions authorized; provided, that if no date of the lease appears in such exhibit copy, or in the court's order, then the date of the court's order shall be considered for all purposes as the date of the authorized lease, and if the name and address of the depository bank, or either of them, for receiving rental is not shown in said exhibit copy, the same may be inserted or caused to be inserted in the lease by the estate's personal representative at the time of its execution, or at any other time agreeable to the lessee, his successors, or assigns.

6. Conditional Validity of Lease; Bond; Time of Execution; Confirmation Not Needed. If, upon the hearing of an application for authority to lease, the court shall grant the same as above provided, the personal representative of the estate shall then be fully authorized to make, within thirty days after date of the judge's order, but not afterwards unless an extension be granted by the court upon sworn application showing good cause, the lease or leases as evidenced by the aforesaid true exhibit copies, in accordance with said order; but, unless the personal representative is not required to give a general bond, no such lease, for which a cash consideration is required, though ordered, executed, and delivered, shall be valid unless the order authorizing same actually makes findings with respect to the general bond, and, in case such bond has been found insufficient, then unless and until the bond has been increased, or an additional bond given, as required by the court's order, with the sureties required by law, has been approved by the judge and filed with the clerk of the court in which the proceedings are pending. In the event two or more leases on different lands are authorized by the same order, the general bond shall be increased, or additional bonds given, to cover all. It shall not be necessary for the judge to make any order confirming such leases.

7. Term of Lease Binding. Every such lease, when executed and delivered in compliance with the rules hereinabove set out, shall be valid and binding upon the property or interest therein owned by the estate and covered by the lease for the full duration of the term as provided therein, subject only to its terms and conditions, even though the primary term shall extend beyond the date when the estate shall have been closed in accordance with law; provided the authorized primary term shall not exceed five (5) years, subject to terms and provisions of the lease extending it beyond the primary term by paying production, by bona fide drilling or reworking operations, whether in or on the same or additional well or wells, with no cessation of operations of more than sixty (60) consecutive days before production has been restored or obtained, or by the provisions of the lease relating to a shut-in gas well.

7(a). Validation of Certain Provisions of Leases Heretofore Executed by Personal Representatives. As to any valid mineral lease heretofore executed and delivered in compliance with the provisions of the Texas Probate Code and which lease is still in force, any provisions of any such lease continuing such lease in force after its five (5) year primary term by a shut-in gas well are hereby validated; provided, however, that this provision shall not be applicable to any such provision of any such lease which is involved in any lawsuit pending in this state on the effective date of this Act wherein the validity of such provision is an issue.

8. Amendment of Leases. Any oil, gas, and mineral lease heretofore or hereafter executed by a personal representative pursuant to the Texas Probate Code may be amended by an instrument which provides that a shut-in gas well on the land covered by the lease or on land pooled with all or some part thereof shall continue such lease in force after its five (5) year primary term. Such instrument shall be executed by the personal representative, with the approval of the court, and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed therein.

§ 368. Mineral Leases at Private Sale

(a) Authorization Allowed. Notwithstanding the preceding mandatory requirements for setting a time and place for hearing of an application to lease and the issuance, service, and return of notice, the court may authorize the making of oil, gas, and mineral leases at private sale (without public notice or advertising) if, in the opinion of the court, sufficient facts are set out in the application required above to show that it would be more advantageous to the estate that a lease be made privately and without compliance with said mandatory requirements mentioned above. Leases so authorized may include pooling provisions or unitization clauses as in other cases.

(b) Action of the Court When Public Advertising Not Required. At any time after the expiration of five (5) days and prior to the expiration of ten (10) days from the date of filing and without an order setting time and place of hearing, the court shall hear the application to lease at private sale and shall inquire into the manner in which the proposed lease has been or will be made, and shall hear evidence for or against the same; and, if satisfied that the lease has been or will be made for a fair and sufficient consideration and on fair terms, and has been or will be properly made in conformity with law, the court shall enter an order authorizing the execution of such lease without the necessity of advertising, notice, or citation, said order complying in all other respects with the requirements essential to the validity of mineral leases as hereinabove set out, as if advertising or notice were required. No order confirming a lease or leases made at private sale need be issued, but no such lease shall be valid until the increased or additional bond required by the court, if any, has been approved by the court and filed with the clerk of the court.

§ 369. Pooling or Unitization of Royalty or Minerals

(a) Authorization for Pooling or Unitization. When an existing lease or leases on property owned by the estate does not adequately provide for pooling or unitization, the court may authorize the commitment of royalty or mineral interests in oil, liquid hydrocarbons, gas (including all liquid hydrocarbons in the gaseous phase in the reservoir), gaseous elements, and other minerals, or any one or more of them, owned by the estate being administered, to agreements that provide for the operation of areas as a pool or unit for the exploration, development, and production of all such minerals, where the court finds that the pool or unit to which the agreement relates will be operated in such a manner as to protect correlative rights, or to prevent the physical or economic waste of oil, liquid hydrocarbons, gas (including all liquid hydrocarbons in the gaseous phase in the reservoir), gaseous elements, or other mineral subject thereto, and that it is to the best interest of the estate to execute the agreement. Any agreement so authorized to be executed may, among other things, provide:

(1) That operations incident to the drilling of or production from a well upon any portion of a pool or unit shall be deemed for all purposes to be the conduct of operations upon or production from each separately owned tract in the pool or unit.

(2) That any lease covering any part of the area committed to a pool or unit shall continue in force in its entirety as long as oil, gas, or other mineral subject to the agreement is produced in paying quantities from any part of the pooled or unitized area, or as long as operations are conducted as provided in the lease on any part of the pooled or unitized area, or as long as there is a shut-in gas well on any part of the pooled or unitized area, if the presence of such shut-in gas well is a ground for continuation of the lease by the terms of said lease.

(3) That the production allocated by the agreement to each tract included in a pool or unit shall, when produced, be deemed for all purposes to have been produced from such tract by a well drilled thereon.

(4) That the royalties provided for on production from any tract or portion thereof within the pool or unit shall be paid only on that portion of the production allocated to the tract in accordance with the agreement.

(5) That the dry gas, before or after extraction of hydrocarbons, may be returned to a formation underlying any lands or leases committed to the agreement, and that no royalties are required to be paid on the gas so returned.

(6) That gas obtained from other sources or other lands may be injected into a formation underlying any lands or leases committed to the agreement, and that no royalties are required to be paid on the gas so injected when same is produced from the unit.

(b) Procedure for Authorizing Pooling or Unitization. Pooling or unitization, when not adequately provided for by an existing lease or leases on property owned by the estate, may be authorized by the court in which the proceedings are pending pursuant to and in conformity with the following rules:

(1) Contents of Application. The personal representative of the estate shall file with the county clerk of the county where the probate proceeding is pending his written application for authority (a) to enter into pooling or unitization agreements supplementing, amending, or otherwise relating to, any existing lease or leases covering property owned by the estate, or (b) to commit royalties or other interest in minerals, whether subject to lease or not, to a pooling or unitization agreement. The application shall also (c) describe the property sufficiently, as required in original application to lease, (d) describe briefly the lease or leases, if any, to which the interest of the estate is subject, and (e) set out the reasons why the proposed agreement concerning such property should be made. A true copy of the proposed agreement shall be attached to the application and by reference made a part thereof, but the agreement shall not be recorded in the minutes. The clerk shall immediately, after such application is filed, call it to the attention of the judge.

(2) Notice Not Necessary. No notice of the filing of such application by advertising, citation, or otherwise, is required.

(3) Hearing of Application. A hearing on such application may be held by the judge at any time agreeable to the parties to the proposed agreement, and the judge shall hear proof and satisfy himself as to whether or not it is to the best interest of the estate that the proposed agreement be authorized. The hearing may be continued from day to day and from time to time as the court finds to be necessary.

(4) Action of Court and Contents of Order. If the court finds that the pool or unit to which the agreement relates will be operated in such a manner as to protect correlative rights or to prevent the physical or economic waste of oil, liquid hydrocarbons, gas (including all liquid hydrocarbons in the gaseous phase in the reservoir), gaseous elements, or other mineral subject thereto; that it is to the best interest of the estate that the agreement be executed; and that the agreement conforms substantially with the permissible provisions of Subsection (a) hereof, he shall enter an order setting out the findings made by him, authorizing execution of the agreement (with or without payment of cash consideration according to the agreement). If cash consideration is to be paid for the agreement, findings as to the necessity of increased or additional bond, as in making of leases upon payment of the cash bonus therefor, shall also be made, and no such agreement shall be valid until the increased or additional bond required by the court, if any, has been approved by the judge and filed with the clerk. The date of the court's order shall be the effective date of the agreement, if not stipulated in such agreement.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 441, ch. 215, § 4, eff. May 25, 1961.]

§ 370. Special Ancillary Instruments Which May Be Executed Without Court Order

As to any valid mineral lease or pooling or unitization agreement, executed on behalf of the estate prior to the effective date of this Code, or pursuant to its provisions, or by a former owner of land, minerals, or royalty affected thereby, the personal representative of the estate which is being administered may, without further order of the court, and without consideration, execute division orders, transfer orders, instruments of correction, instruments designating depository banks for the reception of delay rentals or shut-in gas well royalty to accrue or become payable under the terms of any such lease or leases, and similar instruments pertaining to any such lease or agreement and the property covered thereby.

§ 371. Procedure When Representative of Estate Neglects to Apply for Authority

When the personal representative of an estate shall neglect to apply for authority to subject property of the estate to a lease for mineral development, pooling or unitization, or to commit royalty or other interest in minerals to pooling or unitization, any person interested in the estate may, upon written application filed with the county clerk, cause such representative to be cited to show cause why it is not for the best interest of the estate for such a lease to be made, or such an agreement entered into. The clerk shall immediately call the filing of such application to the attention of the judge of the court in which the probate proceedings are pending, and the judge shall set a time and place for a hearing on the application, and the representative of the estate shall be cited to appear and show cause why the execution of such lease or agreement should not be ordered. Upon hearing, if satisfied from the proof that it would be in the best interest of the estate, the court shall enter an order requiring the personal representative forthwith to file his application to subject such property of the estate to a lease for mineral development, with or without pooling or unitization provisions, or to commit royalty or other minerals to unitization, as the case may be. The procedure prescribed with respect to original application to lease, or with respect to original application for authority to commit royalty or minerals to pooling or unitization, whichever is appropriate, shall then be followed.

§ 372. Validation of Certain Leases and Pooling or Unitization Agreements Based on Previous Statutes

All presently existing leases on the oil, gas, or other minerals, or one or more of them, belonging to the estates of decedents, minors, persons of unsound mind, or habitual drunkards, and all agreements with respect to pooling, or unitization thereof, or one or more of them, or any interest therein, with like properties of others, including agreements contemplated or authorized to be made under the terms of Section 3, Article 6008-b, Vernon's Texas Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, having been authorized by the court having venue, and executed and delivered by the executors, administrators, guardians, or other fiduciaries of their estates in substantial conformity to the rules set forth in statutes heretofore existing, providing for only seven days notice in some instances, and also for a brief order designating a time and place for hearing, are hereby validated in so far as said period of notice is concerned, and in so far as the absence of any order setting a time and place for hearing is concerned; provided, this shall not apply to any lease or pooling or unitization agreement involved in any suit pending on the effective date of this Code wherein either the length of time of said notice or the absence of such order is in issue.

PART 8. PARTITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATES OF DECEDENTS

§ 373. Application for Partition and Distribution of Estates of Decedents

(a) Who May Apply. At any time after the expiration of twelve months after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, the executor or administrator, or the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the estate, or any of them, may, by written application filed in the court in which the estate is pending, request the partition and distribution of the estate.

(b) Contents of Application. The application shall state:

(1) The name of the person whose estate is sought to be partitioned and distributed; and

(2) The names and residences of all persons entitled to shares of such estate, and whether adults or minors; and, if these facts be unknown to the applicant, it shall be so stated in the application; and

(3) The reasons why partition and distribution should be had.

(c) Partial Distribution. At any time after the original grant of letters testamentary or of administration, and the filing and approval of the inventory, the executor or administrator, or the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the estate, or any of them, may, by written application filed in the court in which the estate is pending, request a distribution of any portion of the estate. All interested parties shall be personally cited, as in other distributions, including known creditors. The court may upon proper citation and hearing distribute any portion of the estate it deems advisable. In the event a distribution is to be made to one or more heirs or devisees, and not to all the heirs or devisees, the court shall require a refunding bond in an amount to be determined by the court to be filed with the court and, upon its approval, the court shall order the distribution of that portion of the estate, unless such requirement is waived in writing and the waiver is filed with the court by all interested parties. This section shall apply to corpus as well as income, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Code.

§ 374. Citation of Interested Persons

Upon the filing of such application, the clerk shall issue a citation which shall state the name of the person whose estate is sought to be partitioned and distributed, and the date upon which the court will hear the application, and the citation shall require all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause why such partition and distribution should not be made. Such citation shall be personally served upon each person residing in the state entitled to a share of the estate whose address is known; and, if there be any such persons whose identities or addresses are not known, or who are not residents of this state, or are residents of but absent from this state, such citation shall be served by publication.

§ 375. Citation of Executor or Administrator

When application for partition and distribution is made by any person other than the executor or administrator, such representative shall also be cited to appear and answer the application and to file in court a verified exhibit and account of the condition of the estate, as in the case of final settlements.

§ 376. Guardians Ad Litem to Be Appointed in Certain Cases

Where there are minors, or persons of unsound mind, having no guardian in this state, who are entitled to a portion of an estate, or whose guardians also have an interest in the estate, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent such minors, or persons of unsound minds and the court shall appoint an attorney to represent non-residents and unknown parties having an interest in the estate, if there be any. If a guardian ad litem or attorney so appointed shall neglect to attend to the duties of such appointment, the court shall appoint others in their places; and such guardian ad litem and attorney shall be allowed by the court a reasonable compensation for their services, to be paid out of the estate of the person they represent, and if such an allowance is not paid, an execution may issue therefor in the name of the person entitled thereto.

§ 377. Facts to Be Ascertained Upon Hearing

At the hearing upon the application for partition and distribution, the court shall ascertain:

(a) The residue of the estate subject to partition and distribution, which shall be ascertained by deducting from the entire assets of such estate remaining on hand the amount of all debts and expenses of every kind which have been approved or established by judgment, but not paid, or which may yet be established by judgment, and also the probable future expenses of administration.

(b) The persons who are by law entitled to partition and distribution, and their respective shares.

(c) Whether advancements have been made to any of the persons so entitled and their nature and value. If advancements have been made, the court shall require the same to be placed in hotchpotch as required by the law governing intestate succession.

§ 378. Decree of the Court

If the court is of the opinion that the estate should be partitioned and distributed, it shall enter a decree which shall state:

(a) The name and address, if known, of each person entitled to a share of the estate, specifying those who are known to be minors, and the names of their guardians, or the guardians ad litem, and the name of the attorney appointed to represent those who are unknown or who are not residents of the state.

(b) The proportional part of the estate to which each is entitled.

(c) A full description of all the estate to be distributed.

(d) That the executor or administrator retain in his hands for the payment of all debts, taxes, and expenses of administration a sufficient amount of money or property for that purpose, specifying the amount of money or the property to be so retained.

§ 379. Partition When Estate Consists of Money or Debts Only

If the estate to be distributed shall consist only of money or debts due the estate, or both, the court shall fix the amount to which each distributee is entitled, and shall order the payment and delivery thereof by the executor or administrator.

§ 380. Partition and Distribution When Property is Capable of Division

(a) Appointment of Commissioners. If the estate does not consist entirely of money or debts due the estate, or both, the court shall appoint three or more discreet and disinterested persons as commissioners, to make a partition and distribution of the estate, unless the court has already determined that the estate is incapable of partition.

(b) Writ of Partition and Service Thereof. When commissioners are appointed, the clerk shall issue a writ of partition directed to the commissioners appointed, commanding them to proceed forthwith to make partition and distribution in accordance with the decree of the court, a copy of which decree shall accompany the writ, and also command them to make due return of said writ, with their proceedings under it, on a date named in the writ. Such writ shall be served by delivering the same and the accompanying copy of the decree of partition to any one of the commissioners appointed, and by notifying the other commissioners, verbally or otherwise, of their appointment, and such service may be made by any person.

(c) Partition by Commissioners. The commissioners shall make a fair, just, and impartial partition and distribution of the estate in the following order:

(1) Of the land or other property, by allotting to each distributee a share in each parcel or shares in one or more parcels, or one or more parcels separately, either with or without the addition of a share or shares of other parcels, as shall be most for the interest of the distributees; provided, the real estate is capable of being divided without manifest injury to all or any of the distributees.

(2) If the real estate is not capable of a fair, just and equal division in kind, but may be made so by allotting to one or more of the distributees a proportion of the money or other personal property to supply the deficiency or deficiencies, the commissioners shall have power to make, as nearly as may be, an equal division of the real estate and supply the deficiency of any share or shares from the money or other property.

(3) The commissioners shall proceed to make a like division in kind, as nearly as may be, of the money and other personal property, and shall determine by lot, among equal shares, to whom each particular share shall belong.

(d) Report of Commissioners. The commissioners, having divided the whole or any part of the estate, shall make to the court a written sworn report containing a statement of the property divided by them, and also a particular description of the property allotted to each distributee, and its value. If it be real estate that has been divided, the report shall contain a general plat of said land with the division lines plainly set down and with the number of acres in each share. The report of a majority of the commissioners shall be sufficient.

(e) Action of the Court. Upon the return of such report, the court shall examine the same carefully and hear all exceptions and objections thereto, and evidence in favor of or against the same, and if it be informal, shall cause said informality to be corrected. If such division shall appear to have been fairly made according to law, and no valid exceptions are taken to it, the court shall approve it, and shall enter a decree vesting title in the distributees of their respective shares or portions of the property as set apart to them by the commissioners; otherwise, the court may set aside said report and division and order a new partition to be made.

(f) Delivery of Property. When the report of commissioners to make partition has been approved and ordered to be recorded, the court shall order the executor or administrator to deliver to the distributees their respective shares of the estate on demand, including all the title deeds and papers belonging to the same.

(g) Fees of Commissioners. Commissioners thus appointed who actually serve in partitioning and distributing an estate shall be entitled to receive Five Dollars each for every day that they are necessarily engaged in the performance of their duties as such commissioners, to be taxed and paid as other costs in cases of partition.

§ 381. Partition and Distribution When Property of an Estate Is Incapable of Division

(a) Finding by the Court. When, in the opinion of the court, the whole or any portion of an estate is not capable of a fair and equal partition and distribution, the court shall make a special finding in writing, specifying therein the property incapable of division.

(b) Order of Sale. When the court has found that the whole or any portion of the estate is not capable of fair and equal division, it shall order a sale of all property which it has found not to be capable of such division. Such sale shall be made by the executor or administrator in the same manner as when sales of real estate are made for the purpose of satisfying debts of the estate, and the proceeds of such sale, when collected, shall be distributed by the court among those entitled thereto.

(c) Purchase by Distributee. At such sale, if any distributee shall buy any of the property, he shall be required to pay or secure only such amount of his bid as exceeds the amount of his share of such property.

(d) Applicability of Provisions Relating to Sales of Real Estate. The provisions of this Code relative to reports of sales of real estate, the giving of an increased general or additional bond upon sales of real estate, and to the vesting of title to the property sold by decree or by deed, shall also apply to sales made under this Section.

§ 382. Property Located in Another County

(a) Court May Order Sale. When any portion of the estate to be partitioned lies in another county and cannot be fairly partitioned without prejudice to the interests of the distributees, the commissioners may report such facts to the court in writing; whereupon, if satisfied that the said property cannot be fairly divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, the court may order a sale thereof, which sale shall be conducted in the same manner as is provided in this Code for the sale of property which is not capable of fair and equal division.

(b) Court May Appoint Additional Commissioners. If the court is not satisfied that such property cannot be fairly and advantageously divided, or that its sale would be more advantageous to the distributees, three or more commissioners may be appointed in each county where any portion of the estate so reported is situated, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as are provided in this Code for commissioners to make partition.

§ 383. To Whom Property of a Minor Shall Be Delivered

If any distributee be a minor, his share of the estate shall be delivered to his guardian. If he has no guardian and is a resident of this state, the executor or administrator shall retain his share until a guardian is appointed or the disability of minority is terminated. If a distributee is a minor and resides out of this state, and has a foreign guardian, the executor or administrator in this state shall settle with and pay or deliver the estate of the minor to such guardian. Said guardian, before he receives such estate, shall have made a bond still in force as guardian in the matter of the guardianship so pending, conditioned and for the amount prescribed by the court having jurisdiction of such guardianship; and he shall produce to the court wherein the administration is pending in this state a certified copy of the bond and of the record of his appointment as guardian, with certificates from the clerk and judge of the court in which said guardianship is pending that said appointment and bond are in due and legal form and in force and effect under the laws of said state; and, if the court shall be satisfied that said guardian has been legally appointed and has otherwise complied with the requirements herein, the court shall order all instruments submitted to it pursuant to the provisions of this Section to be recorded in the office of the county clerk, whereupon the guardian shall settle for the amount due his ward.

§ 384. Damages for Neglect to Deliver Property

If any executor or administrator shall neglect to deliver to the person entitled thereto, when demanded, any portion of an estate ordered to be delivered, such person may file with the clerk of the court his written complaint alleging the fact of such neglect, the date of his demand, and other relevant facts, whereupon the clerk shall issue a citation to be served personally on such representative, apprising him of the complaint and citing him to appear before the court and answer, if he so desires, at the time designated in the citation. If at the hearing the court finds that the citation was duly served and returned and that the representative is guilty of such neglect, the court shall enter an order to that effect, and the representative shall be liable to such complainant in damages at the rate of ten per cent of the amount or appraised value of the share so withheld, per month, for each and every month or fraction thereof that the share is and/or has been so withheld after date of demand, which damages may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 385. Partition of Community Property

(a) Application for Partition. When a husband or wife shall die leaving any community property, the survivor may, at any time after letters testamentary or of administration have been granted, and an inventory, appraisal, and list of the claims of the estate have been returned, make application in writing to the court which granted such letters for a partition of such community property.

(b) Bond and Action of the Court. The survivor shall execute and deliver to the judge of said court a bond with a corporate surety or two or more good and sufficient personal sureties, payable to and approved by said judge, for an amount equal to the value of the survivor's interest in such community property, conditioned for the payment of one-half of all debts existing against such community property, and the court shall proceed to make a partition of said community property into two equal moieties, one to be delivered to the survivor and the other to the executor or administrator of the deceased. The provisions of this Code respecting the partition and distribution of estates shall apply to such partition so far as the same are applicable.

(c) Lien Upon Property Delivered. Whenever such partition is made, a lien shall exist upon the property delivered to the survivor to secure the payment of the aforementioned bond; and any creditor of said community estate may sue in his own name on such bond, and shall have judgment thereon for one-half of such debt as he shall establish, and for the other one-half he shall be entitled to be paid by the executor or administrator of the deceased. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

§ 386. Partition of Property Jointly Owned

Any person having a joint interest with the estate of a decedent in any property, real or personal, may make application to the court from which letters testamentary or of administration have been granted thereon to have a partition thereof, whereupon the court shall make a partition of said property between the applicant and the estate of the deceased; and all the provisions of this Code in relation to the partition and distribution of estates shall govern partition hereunder, so far as the same are applicable.

§ 387. Expense of Partition

Expense of partition of the estate of a decedent shall be paid by the distributees pro rata. The portion of the estate allotted each distributee shall be liable for his portion of such expense, and, if not paid, the court may order execution therefor in the names of the persons entitled thereto.

PART 9. PARTITION OF WARD'S ESTATE IN REALTY

§ 388. Partition of Ward's Interest in Realty

(a) Agreement upon Partition. If the estate of a ward owns an interest in real estate in common with other part owner or owners, and if, in the opinion of the guardian, it is to the best interest of such ward's estate that said real estate be partitioned, the guardian may agree upon a partition with the other part owner or owners, subject to the approval of the court in which the guardianship proceedings are pending.

(b) Application for Approval of Agreement. When a guardian has reached an agreement with the other part owner or owners as to how said real estate is to be partitioned, he shall file with the court an application to have such agreement approved. The application shall describe the land to be divided and shall state why it is to the best interest of the ward's estate that said real estate be partitioned, and shall show that the proposed partition agreement is fair and just to the ward's estate.

(c) Hearing on Application. When such application is filed, the county clerk shall immediately call the attention of the judge of the court in which such guardianship is pending to the filing of the application, and the judge shall designate a day to hear such application, provided such application shall remain on file at least ten days before any orders are made, and the judge may continue such hearing from time to time until he is satisfied concerning the application.

(d) Approval of Agreed Partition. If the judge is satisfied that the proposed partition is for the best interest of the ward's estate, the court shall enter an order approving partition and directing the guardian to execute the necessary agreement, or agreements, for the purpose of carrying such order and partition into effect.

(e) Ratification of Partition Agreements. Whenever a guardian has heretofore executed agreements, or hereafter shall execute agreements, as to the partition of any lands in which the ward has an interest, without having first secured the approval of the court as provided herein, such guardian may file with the court in which the guardianship proceedings are pending, an application for the approval and ratification of said partition agreements. The application shall refer to said agreements in such manner that the court or judge can fully understand the nature of the partition and the lands divided. It shall also state that, in the opinion of the guardian, said agreement or agreements are fair and just to the ward's estate and are for the best interest of such estate. When such application is filed a hearing shall be had thereon as provided by Subsection (c) hereof, and, if the court is of the opinion that such partition is fairly made and that the same is for the best interest of the ward's estate, an order shall be entered ratifying and approving such partition agreement or agreements, and when so ratified and approved, such partition shall be effective and binding as if originally executed after an order of the court.

(f) Judicial Proceeding to Secure Partition. If the guardian of the estate of a ward is of the opinion that it is for the best interest of said ward's estate that any real estate which said ward owns in common with other part owner or owners should be partitioned, he may apply to the court in which guardianship proceedings are pending for authority to bring suit in the District Court of the proper county against the other part owners for the partition of such real estate; and, if the court hearing such application is of the opinion that such real estate should be partitioned, it shall enter an order authorizing suit to be brought for such purpose. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

PART 10. INVESTMENTS, LOANS, AND CONTRIBUTIONS OF ESTATES OF WARDS

§ 389. Investments

If, at any time, the guardian of the estate shall have on hand money belonging to the ward beyond that which may be necessary for the education and maintenance of such ward or wards, he shall invest such money as follows:

(a) In bonds or other obligations of the United States; or

(b) In tax-supported bonds of the State of Texas; or

(c) In tax-supported bonds of any county, district, political subdivision, or incorporated city or town in the State of Texas; provided, that the bonds of counties, districts, subdivisions, cities, and towns may be purchased only subject to the following restrictions: the net funded debt of said issuing unit shall not exceed ten per cent of the assessed value of taxable property therein, "net funded debt" meaning the total funded debt less sinking funds on hand; and further, in the case of cities or towns, less that part of the debt incurred for acquisition or improvement of revenue-producing utilities, the revenues of which are not pledged to support other obligations; provided, however, that these restrictions shall not apply to bonds issued for road purposes in this state under authority of Section 52 of Article III of the Constitution of Texas, which bonds are supported by a tax unlimited as to rate or amount; or

(d) In shares or share accounts of any building and loan association organized under the laws of this state, provided the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(e) In the shares or share accounts of any federal savings and loan association domiciled in this state, where the payment of such shares or share accounts is insured by the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation; or

(f) In collateral bonds of companies incorporated under the laws of the State of Texas, having a paid-in capital of One Million Dollars or more, when such bonds are a direct obligation of the company issuing them, and are specifically secured by first mortgage real estate notes or other securities pledged with a trustee.

(g) In interest-bearing time deposits which may be withdrawn on or before one year after demand in any bank doing business in Texas where the payment of such time deposits is insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 42, ch. 28, § 1, eff. March 25, 1961.]

§ 389A. Other Investments

(a) Application to Invest or Sell. When a corporate guardian of an estate shall deem it to be in the best interest of its ward to invest in or sell any property or security in which a trustee is authorized to invest by either Article 7425b-46 V.A.T.S. (the Texas Trust Act) or Article 7425b-48 V.A.T.S. (the Uniform Common Trust Fund Act), and such investment or sale is not expressly permitted by other Sections of this Code, the guardian may file a written application in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order authorizing it to make such desired investment or sale and stating the reason why the guardian is of the opinion that such investment or sale would be beneficial to the ward. No citation or notice is necessary unless ordered by the court.

(b) Action of the Court. Upon the hearing of the application if the court is satisfied that such investment or sale will be beneficial to the ward, an order authorizing the same shall be made. Such order shall specify the investment or sale to be made, and shall contain such other directions as the court finds advisable.

(c) Applicability. The procedure specified in this Section need not be followed in making investments or sales specifically authorized by other statutes and is inapplicable when a different procedure is prescribed for an investment or sale by a guardian. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2052, ch. 707, § 1, eff. June 12, 1969; Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 422, ch. 187, § 1, eff. May 25, 1973.]

§ 390. Investment in Life Insurance or Annuities

(a) Life Insurance Company Defined. By the term "life insurance company" as used herein, is meant any stock or mutual legal reserve life insurance company that maintains the full legal reserves required under the laws of this state, and that is licensed by the State Board of Insurance to transact the business of life insurance in this state.

(b) New Insurance and Annuities. The guardian of the estate may invest in policies of life, term, or endowment insurance, or in annuity contracts, or both, issued by a life insurance company as herein defined, or administered by the Veterans Administration, subject, however, to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The guardian shall first apply to the court for an order authorizing the guardian to make such investment. The application shall include a report showing in detail the financial condition of the estate at the time such application is made; the name and address of the life insurance company from which the policy or annuity contract is to be purchased and that such company is then licensed by the State Board of Insurance to transact such business in this state, or that the policy or contract is administered by the Veterans Administration; a statement of the face amount and plan of the policy of insurance sought to be purchased and of the amount, frequency and duration of the annuity payments to be provided by the annuity contract sought to be purchased; a statement of the amount, frequency and duration of the premiums required by the policy or annuity contract; and a statement of the cash value of the policy or annuity contract at its anniversary nearest the twenty-first birthday of the ward, assuming that all premiums to such anniversary are paid and that there is no indebtedness against the policy or contract incurred in accordance with its terms.

(2) The policy or policies of insurance shall be on the life of the ward, his father, mother, spouse, child, brother, sister, grandfather, grandmother, or a person in whose life the ward may have an insurable interest.

(3) The ward, his or her estate, father, mother, spouse, child, brother, sister, grandfather or grandmother, and none other, shall be the beneficiary or beneficiaries of any such policy of insurance and of the death benefit of any such annuity contract, and the ward, and none other, shall be the annuitant in any such annuity contract.

(4) The control of any such policy or annuity contracts, and of the incidents of ownership therein, shall be vested in the guardian during the life and disability of the ward.

(5) The policy or annuity contract shall not be amended or changed during the life and disability of the ward except upon application to and order of the court.

(c) Old or Existing Insurance or Annuities. If a policy of life, term or endowment insurance or a contract of annuity is owned by the ward when a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian is begun, and it is made to appear that the company issuing such policy or contract of annuity is a life insurance company as herein defined, or the policy or contract is administered by the Veterans Administration, it shall be lawful to continue such policy or contract in full force and effect. All future premiums may be paid out of surplus funds of said ward. Provided, however, that the guardian shall apply to the court for an order to continue said policy or contract, or both, according to their existing terms or to modify the same to fit any new developments affecting the welfare of the ward, and provided further, that before any such application is granted the guardian shall file a report in said court showing in detail the financial condition of the estate of the ward at the time the application is filed.

(d) Order on Application. The court, if satisfied by the application and the evidence adduced at the hearing that it is to the interest of the ward to grant such application, shall enter its order granting same.

(e) Exclusive Property of Ward on Termination of Guardianship. Each and every right, benefit, and interest accruing under any contract for insurance or annuity coming under the provisions hereof shall become the exclusive property of said ward or wards when disability has been terminated.

[Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956; Acts 1959, 56th Leg., p. 642, ch. 296, § 1; Acts 1965, 59th Leg., p. 527, ch. 271, § 1.]

§ 391. Loans and Security Therefor

If, at any time, the guardian of the estate shall have on hand money belonging to the ward or wards beyond that which may be necessary for the education and maintenance of such ward or wards, he may lend the same for the highest rate of interest that can be obtained therefor. The guardian shall take the note of the borrower for money lent, secured by mortgage with power of sale on unencumbered real estate situated in this state, worth at least twice the amount of such note; or by collateral notes secured by vendor's lien notes, as collateral; or he may purchase vendor's lien notes, provided that at least one-half has been paid in cash or its equivalent on the land for which said notes were given.

§ 392. Guardian's Liability for Loans

The guardian shall not be personally responsible for money lent under the direction of the court, on security approved by the court, when the borrower is unable to pay the same, or because of failure of the security, unless such guardian has been guilty of fraud or negligence with respect to such loan or the collection of the same, in which case, he and the sureties upon his bond shall be liable for whatever loss his ward sustains by reason of such fraud or negligence.

§ 393. Guardian's Investments in Real Estate

(a) Application to Invest in Real Estate. When the guardian thinks it best for his ward who has a surplus of money on hand to invest in real estate, he shall file a written application in the court where the guardianship is pending, asking for an order of such court authorizing him to make such desired investment, and stating the reasons why the guardian is of the opinion that such investment would be for the benefit of the ward.

(b) Action of the Court. When such application is filed, the attention of the judge of the court shall be called thereto, and he shall make such investigation as necessary to obtain all the facts concerning the investment; but he shall not render an opinion or make any order on the application until after the expiration of ten days from date of filing. Upon the hearing of such application, if the court is satisfied that such investment will be beneficial to the ward, an order authorizing the same shall be made. Such order shall specify the investment to be made, and shall contain such other directions as the court thinks advisable.

(c) Approval of Contract for Purchase of Real Estate. When any contract has been made for the investment of money in real estate under order of the court, such contract shall be reported in writing to the court by the guardian, and the court shall inquire fully into the same, and, if satisfied that such investment will benefit the estate of the ward, and that the title of such real estate is valid and unencumbered, the court may approve the contract and authorize the guardian to pay over the money in performance of the same; but no money shall be paid out by the guardian on any such contract until said contract has been approved by the court by an order to that effect.

(d) Title to Real Estate. When the money of the ward has been invested in real estate, the title to such real estate shall be made to such ward; and such real estate shall be inventoried, appraised, managed, and accounted for by the guardian as other real estate of the ward.

§ 394. Securing Opinion of Attorney With Respect to Loans and Investments

When the guardian lends or invests the money of his ward, he shall not pay over or transfer any money in consummation of such loan or investment until he shall have submitted all bonds, notes, mortgages, documents, abstracts, and other papers pertaining to such loan or investment to a reputable attorney for examination, and shall have received a written opinion from such attorney to the effect that all papers pertaining to such loan or investment are regular, and that the title to such bonds, notes, or real estate is good. The attorney making such examination shall be paid a reasonable fee, not to exceed one per cent of the amount so invested (unless one per cent of such amount is less than Twenty-five Dollars, in which event the fee shall be Twenty-five Dollars), which shall be paid by the guardian out of the funds of the ward. On loans, the attorney's fee shall be paid by the borrower. Provided, however, that in connection with any loan on real estate the guardian may, in his discretion, obtain a mortgagee's title insurance policy in lieu of an abstract and attorney's opinion.

§ 395. Report of Investment and Loans

The guardian shall report to the court in writing, verified by his affidavit, the investment or lending of money belonging to the estate, within thirty days after such transaction, stating fully the facts thereof, unless the investment or loan was made pursuant to order of the court.

§ 396. Liability of Guardian for Failure to Lend or Invest Funds

If the guardian neglects to invest or lend surplus money on hand at interest when he can do so by the use of reasonable diligence, he shall be liable for the principal, and also for the highest legal rate of interest upon such principal for the time he so neglects to invest or lend the same, which amounts may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

§ 397. Requiring Guardian to Invest or Lend Surplus Funds

When there is any surplus money of the estate in the hands of the guardian, the court, on its own motion or upon written complaint filed by any person, may cause such guardian to be cited to appear and show cause why such surplus money should not be invested or lent at interest. Upon the hearing of such complaint, the court shall enter such order as the law and the facts require.

§ 398. Contributions

(a) Application. The guardian may at any time file his sworn application in writing with the county clerk, requesting the court in which the guardianship is pending to enter an order authorizing the guardian to contribute from the income of the ward's estate a specific amount of money, stated in said application, to one or more designated corporations, trusts, or community chests, funds, or foundations, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or to some one or more designated non-profit federal, state, county, or municipal projects operated exclusively for public health or welfare.

(b) Setting Hearing on Application. When such an application is filed, the county clerk shall immediately call the same to the attention of the judge of the court, and the judge shall, by written order filed with said clerk, designate a day to hear such application; provided that such application shall remain on file at least ten days before such hearing is held. The judge may postpone or continue such hearing from time to time until he is satisfied concerning such application.

(c) Action of the Court. Upon the conclusion of such hearing, if the court is satisfied and finds from the evidence that the amount of the proposed contribution stated in the application will probably not exceed twenty per cent of the net income of the ward's estate for the current calendar year, and that the net income of the ward's estate for such year exceeds, or probably will exceed, Twenty-five Thousand Dollars, and that the full amount of such contribution, if made, will probably be deductible from the ward's gross income, in determining the net income of the ward under the applicable income tax laws, rules, and regulations of the United States of America, and that the condition of the ward's estate is such as to justify a contribution in said amount, and that the proposed contribution is reasonable in amount and is for a worthy cause, the court in its discretion may enter an order authorizing the guardian to make such contribution from income of the ward's estate to the particular donee designated in said application and order. When such order has been entered and filed with the county clerk, the guardian shall be entitled to make such contribution, but he shall not be entitled to any commission or compensation by reason thereof or in connection therewith.

(d) Consent of Certain Wards to Contributions. If at the time of the hearing, the ward be fourteen years or more of age and be of sound mind and not an habitual drunkard, no order authorizing such a contribution shall be entered unless there shall have been first filed with the county clerk in said proceedings, the ward's sworn written request that the guardian's said application be granted, and that such particular contribution in the designated amount be authorized by the court, and unless such request be affirmed by personal appearance of the ward before the judge of said court at said hearing.

PART 10A. STOCKS, BONDS AND OTHER PERSONAL PROPERTY

§ 398A. Holding of Stocks, Bonds and Other Personal Property by Personal Representatives in Name of Nominee

Unless otherwise provided by will, a personal representative may cause stocks, bonds, and other personal property of an estate to be registered and held in the name of a nominee without mention of the fiduciary relationship in any instrument or record constituting or evidencing title thereto. The personal representative is liable for the acts of the nominee with respect to any property so registered. The records of the personal representative shall at all times show the ownership of the property. Any property so registered shall be in the possession and control of the personal representative at all times and be kept separate from his individual property. [Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2106, ch. 719, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1969.]

PART 11. ANNUAL ACCOUNTS AND OTHER EXHIBITS

§ 399. Annual Accounts Required

(a) Estates of Decedents and Wards Being Administered Under Order of Court. The personal representative of the estate of a decedent or ward being administered under order of court shall, upon the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of qualification and receipt of letters, return to the court an exhibit in writing under oath setting forth a list of all claims against the estate that were presented to him within the period covered by the account, specifying which have been allowed by him, which have been paid, which have been rejected and the date when rejected, which have been sued upon, and the condition of the suit, and show:

(1) All property that has come to his knowledge or into his possession not previously listed or inventoried as property of the estate or ward, as the case may be.

(2) Any changes in the property of the estate or ward which have not been previously reported.

(3) A complete account of receipts and disbursements for the period covered by the account, and the source and nature thereof, with receipts of principal and income to be shown separately.

(4) A complete, accurate and detailed description of the property being administered, the condition of the property and the use being made thereof, and, if rented, the terms upon and the price for which rented.

(5) The cash balance on hand and the name and location of the depository wherein such balance is kept; also, any other sums of cash in savings accounts or other form, deposited subject to court order, and the name and location of the depository thereof.

(6) A detailed description of personal property of the estate, which shall, with respect to bonds, notes, and other securities, include the names of obligor and obligee, or if payable to bearer, so state; the date of issue and maturity; the rate of interest; serial or other identifying numbers; in what manner the property is secured; and other data necessary to identify the same fully, and how and where held for safe-keeping.

(b) Annual Reports Continue Until Estate Closed. Each personal representative of the estate of a decedent or ward shall continue to file annual accounts conforming to the essential requirements of those in Subsection (a) hereof as to changes in the assets of the estate after rendition of the former account so that the true condition of the estate, with respect to money, securities, and other property, can be ascertained by the court or by any interested person, by adding to the balances forward the receipts, and then subtracting the disbursements. The description of property sufficiently described in an inventory or previous account may be by reference thereto.

(c) Guardians of the Person. The guardian of the person, when there is a separate guardian of the estate, shall at the expiration of twelve (12) months from the date of his qualification and receipt of letters, and annually thereafter, return to the court his sworn account showing each item of receipts and disbursements for the support and maintenance of the ward, his education when necessary, and support and maintenance of the ward's dependents, when authorized by order of court. All who are guardians of the person shall include in their reports facts concerning each ward's physical welfare, his well-being, and his progress in education, if the latter be pertinent. Unless the judge is satisfied that the facts stated are true, he shall issue such orders as are necessary for the best interest of the ward.

(d) Supporting Vouchers, etc., Attached to Accounts. Annexed to all annual accounts of representatives of estates and wards, and, so far as applicable, accounts of guardians of the persons of wards and guardians of those wards entitled to receive governmental funds, required by this Section, shall be:

The court may require additional evidence as to the existence and custody of such securities and other personal property as in his discretion he shall deem proper; and may require the representative to exhibit them to the court, or any person designated by him, at any time at the place where held for safekeeping.

(e) Verification of Account. The representative filing the account shall attach thereto his affidavit that it contains a correct and complete statement of the matters to which it relates.

If it shall appear from the exhibit, or from other evidence, that the estate is wholly solvent, and that the representative has in his hands sufficient funds for the payment of every character of claims against the estate, the court shall order immediate payment to be made of all claims allowed and approved or established by judgment.

(2) Order for Pro Rata Payment of Claims. If it shall appear from the account, or from other evidence, that the funds on hand are not sufficient for the payment of all the said claims, or if the estate is insolvent and the personal representative has any funds on hand, the court shall order such funds to be applied to the payment of all claims having a preference in the order of their priority if they, or any of them, be still unpaid, and then to the payment pro rata of the other claims allowed and approved or established by final judgment, taking into consideration also the claims that were presented within twelve (12) months after the granting of administration, and those which are in suit or on which suit may yet be instituted.

If at the hearing the court finds that the citation was duly served and returned and that the representative is guilty of the neglect charged, the court shall enter an order to that effect, and the representative shall be liable to such person in damages at the rate of ten per cent of the amount or appraised value of the money or estate so withheld, per month, for each and every month or fraction thereof that said estate or money or funds is and/or

§ 432. State Treasurer May Enforce Payment and Collect Damages

The State Treasurer shall have the right in the name of the state to apply to the court in which the order for payment was made to enforce the payment of funds which the executor or administrator has failed to pay to him pursuant to order of court, together with the payment of any damages that shall have accrued under the provisions of the preceding Section of this Code, and the court shall enforce such payment in like manner as other orders of payment are required to be enforced. The State Treasurer shall also have the right to institute suit in the name of the state against such executor or administrator, and the sureties on his bond, for the recovery of the funds so ordered to be paid and such damages as have accrued. The county or district attorney, as the case may be, shall represent the State Treasurer in all such proceedings, and shall also represent the interests of the state in all other matters arising under any provisions of this Code. [Acts 1955, 54th Leg., p. 88, ch. 55, eff. Jan. 1, 1956.]

§ 433. Suit for the Recovery of Funds Paid to the State Treasurer

(a) Mode of Recovery. When funds of an estate have been paid to the State Treasurer, any heir, devisee, or legatee of the estate, or their assigns, or any of them, may recover the portion of such funds to which he, she, or they are entitled. The person claiming such funds shall institute suit therefor, by petition filed in the court in which the estate was administered, against the State Treasurer, setting forth the plaintiff's right to such funds, and the amount claimed by him.

(b) Citation. Upon the filing of such petition, the clerk shall issue a citation for the county attorney of the county or the district attorney of the district, to be served by personal service, to appear and represent the interest of the state in such suit, and it shall be the duty of such county or district attorney to do so.

(c) Procedure. The proceedings in such suit shall be governed by the rules for other civil suits; and, should the plaintiff establish his right to the funds claimed, he shall have a judgment therefor, which shall specify the amount to which he is entitled; and a certified copy of such judgment shall be sufficient authority for the State Treasurer to pay the same.

(d) Costs. The costs of any such suit shall in all cases be adjudged against the plaintiff, and he may be required to secure the costs.

Art. 7041. Board Constituted

The Governor, Comptroller and State Treasurer are constituted a board to calculate the ad valorem tax to be levied and collected each year for State and public free school purposes.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7042. Certificate to Comptroller

Each tax assessor shall make a statement to the Comptroller on or before July 15th of each year showing as nearly as can be ascertained from his inventories or assessments the total amount of property in each county subject to taxation; provided, that the tax for State and public free school purposes shall not be calculated and carried out upon said rolls.

Art. 7043. Ascertaining Tax Rate; Formula

Within five (5) days after the Comptroller has received such certified statements from every Assessor within this State, said Board shall meet for the purpose of calculating the ad valorem rate of taxes to be collected for the State and public free school purposes. In calculating said rates the Board shall calculate the same by the following rules and upon the following basis: they shall find, by adding together all the property subject to taxation in all counties as shown by the certified statements returned by the Assessors, the total valuation of all property within this State subject to ad valorem taxes. They shall find, by adding together the sums appropriated by the Legislature, which will or which may become due by the State, during the following fiscal year, the amount fixed by the Board of Education for public free school purposes, as the State apportionment, the total sum of which will or which may become due by the State, during the following fiscal year. They shall find, by adding all sums paid into the State Treasury as delinquent ad valorem taxes and interest and penalties thereon during the first half of the current calendar year and latter half of the preceding calendar year and all sums which may be expected to be paid as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than ad valorem taxes, the total sum expected to be collected from all said sources. They shall find, by subtracting from the total sum which will or which may become due by the State during the succeeding fiscal year, the total sum which may be expected to be paid as taxes for State purposes from all sources other than current ad valorem taxes, the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by current ad valorem taxes. They shall add to such remainder twenty (20) per cent of said remainder. They shall add the total sum for State purposes which must be collected by ad valorem taxes added to twenty (20) per cent of such total sum by the quotient of the total valuation of all property within this State divided by one hundred (100). The quotient shall be the number of cents on the one hundred dollars valuation to be collected for the current year for State purposes; provided that said quotient shall not be run to more than three (3) decimals. The rate for State purposes shall never exceed the rate fixed by law on the one hundred dollars valuation of property. In calculating the rate to be collected for public free school purposes, said Board shall take into consideration the number of children in the State within the scholastic age, to be determined from the most recent official school census; in arriving at the rate that shall be fixed for public free school purposes, said Board shall set the rate so that it will yield the amount per student that has been previously fixed by the Board of Education, provided the rate so fixed for any year shall not exceed the rate fixed by law.

After he has so completed the said copies of the tax rolls, he shall return to the Comptroller a copy of the same.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Sec. 8. The County Judge shall cause notice of said election to be posted at a public place in each voting precinct in said county not less than fourteen (14) days next before said election and to be published on the same day in each of two (2) successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published within said county, the date of the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the date set for the election, which notice shall be a substantial copy of the election order, and only those shall be entitled to vote at said election who are qualified, property taxpaying voters in said county, and who have duly rendered the same for taxation.

State Tax in Counties, Etc., where Tax Donated

Sec. 10(a). (1) Beginning in the year 1951 and each year thereafter the State Automatic Tax Board created by Article 7041 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, shall cause to be levied annually in each county, political subdivision or other defined area, the full thirty cents (30¢) State ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes, the proceeds of which heretofore were donated and granted by the Legislature to certain counties, political subdivisions or other defined areas for the purpose of carrying out and performing actions of preventing calamities, improving, protecting and reclaiming certain areas for and on behalf of the State as more fully declared in each applicable law or laws making such donation or grant and said Board shall continue to levy such tax at said rate in each such designated area until the bonds or other obligations of said areas authorized or incurred in connection with the performance of such action on behalf of the State shall have been fully paid or discharged or until the expiration date of such donation or grant as may be determined from the law or laws making such grant or donation, whichever shall first occur.

(2) The provisions of Article 7043, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended setting up a formula to govern said Board in ascertaining the rate of tax to be levied for state general revenue purposes shall not apply from and after January 1, 1951. The rate of tax to be levied after said date shall be thirty cents (30¢) on each One Hundred Dollars ($100) valuation as fixed by the amendment to Section 1-A, Article 8 of the Constitution, as adopted November 2, 1948.

(3) The tax assessors and collectors in each of such Counties shall continue to assess and collect such tax and make the proceeds thereof available to the donees or grantees in the manner provided by the law or laws making each such grant or donation. The moneys thus collected by said tax assessors and collectors and received by such grantees or donees shall be used and accounted for annually as prescribed by the law or laws making such grant or donation.

(4) In those instances where less than the full State general ad valorem tax was granted or donated, the portion of the money collected in excess of the amount donated or granted shall be retained by or paid over to the governing body of the county or political subdivision from which such tax is collected; and in the event that the amount of State general ad valorem tax granted, donated and collected is in excess of the amount needed to pay off and fully discharge all legal obligations authorized by law and which were incurred prior to the adoption of Section 1-a of Article VIII of the Constitution of Texas, then such excess shall be retained by or paid over to the governing body of the county or political subdivision from which such tax is collected; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to limit or impair the right of the Upper Colorado River Authority to receive and fully utilize the full amount of moneys heretofore donated and granted said Authority; and provided further, that nothing in this Act shall apply to, nor in anywise affect, the State general ad valorem tax heretofore granted or donated to the Central Colorado River Authority, the boundary of which is co-extensive with that of Coleman County; and provided further, that nothing contained herein shall be construed to diminish or affect any right or authority of the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District to receive, obligate or expend the full amount of Three Hundred Nine Thousand ($309,000.00) Dollars each year heretofore donated for the full period of the donation. In the discretion of said governing body such excess shall be used either for the construction and maintenance of farm-to-market roads, or for flood control, only within the county, political subdivision, or defined area from which such tax is collected. The moneys thus retained or paid over shall be fully reported each year to the Comptroller of Public Accounts at the same time such Assessor-Collector makes his annual report as required by law, and the governing body of the county, political subdivision, or defined area thus retaining or being paid such excess money shall likewise report annually to the Comptroller of Public Accounts the sum thus retained or held and the purpose for which it was used. The moneys thus retained or held or declared to be trust funds to be used only for the purpose herein named, and the use thereof for any other purpose shall constitute a misapplication of public money and the person or persons so offending shall be punished as provided for in Article 86 of the Penal Code of the State of Texas.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 11. Should any Section of this Act, or any part of any Section hereof, be held invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative, no other part or parts thereof shall be held affected thereby and the remaining provisions shall nevertheless stand effective and valid as if this Act had been enacted without such part or parts held to be invalid, unconstitutional or inoperative.

Arts. 7057, 7057a. Repealed by Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1, § 7

Art. 7057b. Payment of License or Privilege Taxes Under Protest*Protest

Sec. 1. Any person, firm or corporation who may be required to pay to the head of any department of the State Government any occupation, gross receipt, franchise, license or other privilege tax or fee, and who believes or contends that the same is unlawful and that such public official is not lawfully entitled to demand or collect the same shall, nevertheless, be required to pay such amount as such public official charged with the collection thereof may deem to be due the State, and shall be entitled to accompany such payment with a written protest, setting out fully and in detail each and every ground or reason why it is contended that such demand is unlawful or unauthorized.

Suits for Recovery of Taxes or Fees

Sec. 2. Upon the payment of such taxes or fees, accompanied by such written protest, the tax-payer shall have ninety (90) days from said date within which to file suit for the recovery thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County,

Texas, and none other. Such suit shall be brought against the public official charged with the duty of collecting such tax or fees, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issues to be determined in such suit shall be only those arising out of the grounds or reasons set forth in such written protest as originally filed. The right of appeal shall exist as in other cases provided by law. Provided, however, where a class action is brought by any tax-payer all other tax-payers belonging to the class and represented in such class action who have properly protested as herein provided shall not be required to file separate suits but shall be entitled to and governed by the decision rendered in such class action. Payment of Additional Taxes Under Protest after Filing Suit; Amendment of Petition; Jurisdictional Amount

Sec. 2a. After such suit is filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, and before such suit is tried by said court, said taxpayer pays additional taxes under protest, the grounds of protest being the same as in the original petition filed in said court, and the total of said taxes exceeds the jurisdiction of said court, then the taxpayer will be authorized to file suit within ninety (90) days after the payment of such additional taxes in a court in Travis County which has jurisdiction of the total amount of said taxes paid under protest, and when such suit is filed it shall be deemed to have been filed in conformity with the provisions of this Act. After any original petition has been filed in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking a refund of any taxes paid under protest it will not be necessary to amend such original petition to include further payments made under protest until five (5) days before such suit is ready for trial, on or before which time such petition shall be amended so as to include all payments made under protest after the filing of the original petition. This provision shall not be construed as dispensing with the necessity of paying said taxes as they become due and accompanying such payment with the written grounds of protest. Provided further, that if an appeal is taken from the final judgment rendered in such suit, the taxpayer will not be relieved of the duty of continuing paying said taxes under protest pending the appeal of said case; however, it will not be necessary for such taxpayer to file suit within ninety (90) days after the payment of such taxes, but the disposition of such taxes shall be governed by the outcome of the original suit.

Application of Amendatory Act

Sec. 2b. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all taxes paid under protest, and which taxes have not been finally determined to belong to the State.

Lists Remitted to State Treasurer

Sec. 3. It shall be the duty of such public official to transmit daily to the State Treasurer all money so received, with a detailed list of all those remitting same, and he shall inform the State Treasurer in writing that such money was paid under protest as hereinabove provided. A deposit receipt shall be issued by the Comptroller for the daily total of such remittances from each department; and the cashier of the Treasury Department shall keep a cash book to be called "Suspense Cash Book," in which to enter such deposit receipts. Upon the receipt of such money by the State Treasurer it shall be his duty and he is hereby required to immediately and forthwith place the same in State depositories bearing interest in the same manner as any other funds of the State required to be placed in such depositories at interest, and the State Treasurer shall further be required to allocate whatever interest is earned on such funds and to credit the amount thereof to such suspense account until the status of such money is finally determined as herein provided.

Refunds and Warrants

Sec. 4. If suit is not brought within the time and within the manner herein provided, or in the event it finally be determined in such suit that the sums of money so paid or any portion thereof, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon, belong to the State, then and in that event it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to transfer such money from the suspense account to the proper fund of the State by placing the portion thereof belonging to the State in such fund by the issuance of a deposit warrant. When such deposit warrant or warrants are issued, they shall be entered in the cash book, and the proper fund to which such money is so transferred shall be properly credited therewith. In the event, however, that suit is brought by such taxpayer within the time and within the manner hereinabove provided, and it be finally determined that such money so paid by such taxpayer, or any part thereof, was unlawfully demanded by such public official and that the same belongs to such taxpayer, then and in that event it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to refund such amount, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon, to such taxpayer by the issuance of a refund warrant, the same to be issued in separate series and to be used for making such refunds, to be styled and designated "Tax Refund Warrants" and such warrants shall be written and signed by the Comptroller and countersigned by the State Treasurer and charged against the suspense account, as hereinabove provided, and shall then be returned to the Comptroller and delivered by him to the persons entitled to receive the same.

Extension to Prior Taxpayers

Sec. 5. Any taxpayer who has heretofore paid any taxes or fees of the character embraced herein to such public official, accompanied by some form of protest, and which moneys are now being held in the suspense account, and who has not brought suit under the suspense account law for the recovery of same, and who is not embraced within or protected by any action which may now be pending for the recovery of same, shall have ninety (90) days from the effective date of this Act within which to bring suit in the manner hereinabove provided. It is further provided and so directed that the head of department having heretofore received any such sums of money under protest which have not been disposed of, shall immediately, upon this law become<sup>1</sup> effective, notify said corporation having paid the same of the provisions of this law by mailing a copy of the same to such corporation or corporations.

Application to Moneys in Suspense Account

Sec. 6. The provisions of this law directing the State Treasurer to place in the State depositories any taxes or fees paid under the provisions hereof and authorizing the State Treasurer to refund the principal, together with pro rata interest earned thereon, to any taxpayer who may be successful in recovering any sum of money in a suit as hereinabove provided, shall apply to such sums of money as have heretofore been paid by such taxpayer to the State Treasurer and which are now being held in the suspense account, where such taxpayer has brought suit or may bring suit as provided in Section 5 hereof or is embraced within and protected by any suit or cause of action which may now be pending for the recovery thereof, and in the event any such taxpayer should be successful in any such litigation, then and in that event the State Treasurer shall be required to return to such taxpayer the principal amount so recovered, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon from the effective date of this law; and provided further that such taxpayer who is successful in such suit and who has heretofore paid any such taxes or fees which are now held in the suspense account shall be entitled to the principal sum of the amount awarded to him by the court, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon, from the date of the deposit of such principal sum of money to the effective date of this law, and there is hereby appropriated out of any interest earned from the General State Depository Funds a sum of money which shall be sufficient to pay the pro rata amount of interest earned on the taxes or fees so recovered and it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to allocate to and pay from the interest earned upon the General State Depository Funds such amount of interest as shall have been earned thereon.

Sec. 6a. Repealed by Acts 1934, 43rd Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 163, ch. 68, § 1.

Law as Cumulative

Sec. 7. The provisions of this law shall be cumulative of all laws relating to the payments of taxes or fees of undetermined status and for the holding thereof in the suspense account fund of the State Treasurer.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 8. The provisions of this law are severable and if any part thereof should be declared unconstitutional it shall not affect the remaining part or parts thereof, which shall remain in full force and effect, notwithstanding such invalid part or parts.

Wholesalers' Statement to Comptroller

Sec. 2. That in addition to the taxes now provided for by law, each and every wholesaler, as defined in this Act, who is now engaged or may be hereafter engaged in his own name, or in the name of others, or in the name of representatives or agents in this state, in the sale of oleomargarine as herein defined, containing any fat and/or oil ingredient other than oleo oil from cattle, oleo stock from cattle, oleo stearine from cattle, neutral lard from hogs, cottonseed oil, peanut oil, corn oil, soya bean oil, milk fat, safflower, milo, and/or any other vegetable oil, shall not later than the fifteenth day of each calendar month render sworn statements to the State Comptroller of all such oleomargarine sold by such wholesaler in the State of Texas during the preceding calendar month, and pay an excise tax of Ten Cents (10¢) per pound on all such oleomargarine so sold as shown by such statement in the manner and within the time hereinafter provided.

Certificates to be Filed

Sec. 3. All wholesalers of such taxable oleomargarine in the State of Texas shall file a duly acknowledged certificate with the State Comptroller on forms prescribed, prepared and furnished by him, which shall contain the name under which such wholesaler is transacting business within the State of Texas; such certificate shall state the place or places of business and location of distributing stations of such wholesaler in the State of Texas, the name and address of the manufacturing agent, the names and addresses of the several persons constituting the firm or partnership, and if a corporation, the corporate name under which it is authorized to transact business, and the names and addresses of its principal officers, resident general manager and attorney-in-fact. No wholesaler, as herein defined, shall after the law goes into effect, sell any taxable oleomargarine until such certificate is furnished, as required by this Act.

Statement as to Number of Pounds Sold

Sec. 4. Every wholesaler of such oleomargarine taxed by this Act shall render to the State Comptroller, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, on form prescribed, prepared and furnished by said Comptroller, a sworn statement of the number of pounds of taxable oleomargarine sold during the preceding calendar month, which statement shall be sworn to by one of the principal officers in case of a domestic corporation or by the resident general manager or attorney-in-fact in case of a foreign corporation, or by the managing agent or owner in case of a firm or association, and shall contain a statement of the quantities in pounds of taxable oleomargarine sold. Bills shall be rendered to dealers in taxable oleomargarine as herein defined. Said bills shall contain a statement printed thereon in a conspicuous place that the wholesaler of such oleomargarine has assumed the liability to the State for the tax therein imposed and that said wholesaler will pay said tax on or before the fifteenth day of the following month.

Date of Payment of Tax

Sec. 5. Said excise tax shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of each month to the State Comptroller, who shall receipt the wholesaler therefor and place the same in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Fund of the State of Texas.

Records

Sec. 6. Every wholesaler of such taxable oleomargarine shall keep a record in such forms as may be prescribed by the State Comptroller of all purchases, receipts, sales and distributions of such oleomargarine and such record shall at all times during the business hours of the day be subject to inspection and examination by the State Comptroller or his deputies, or such other officers as may be provided by law.

Sticker Tags on Containers, Packages, Etc.

Sec. 7. All such taxable oleomargarine sold in containers, packages, or cases shall bear a sticker tag showing the date of invoice upon which the same was delivered, the name of the wholesaler of such oleomargarine, and shall contain a statement that the liability for the tax thereon has been assumed by such wholesaler.

Unlawful Sale

Sec. 8. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation dealing in taxable oleomargarine to receive or accept any delivery or shipment of such oleomargarine from any wholesaler or to pay for the same, or to sell or offer the same for sale, unless the statement provided for in Section 7 appears upon the container and upon all invoices for such oleomargarine. If any shipment of such taxable oleomargarine is received by any person, firm or corporation from any wholesaler, or is sold or offered for sale by him or them, upon which the requirements of Sections 4 and 7 of this Act are not complied with, such person, firm, or corporation shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punishable as hereinafter provided.

Exemption on Export Sales

Sec. 10. Said excise tax shall not be imposed on oleomargarine when sold for exportation from the State of Texas to any other State, territory or nation; provided, however, the wholesaler or exporting agent shall make a statement each month to the State Comptroller showing the amount of taxable oleomargarine exported.

Persons Considered as Wholesalers

Sec. 11. If any person shall receive such taxable oleomargarine in such form and under such circumstances as shall preclude the collection of this tax from the wholesaler by reason of the provisions of the Constitution and laws of the United States, and shall thereafter sell such oleomargarine in such manner and under such circumstances as may subject such sale to the taxing power of the State, such person shall be considered a wholesaler and shall make the same reports, pay the same taxes and be subject to all the provisions of this Act relating to wholesalers of taxable oleomargarine.

Packages Marked "Oleomargarine"

Sec. 12. On and after January 1, 1935, no person shall sell, expose or offer for sale or exchange, or have in his possession with the intent to sell or exchange, any oleomargarine unless each and every vessel, package, roll, carton or parcel of such substance has distinctly and durably printed, stamped or stenciled thereon, the name "oleomargarine" in plain Gothic letters of not less than eighteen (18) point type so displayed as to be directly visible at all times to the purchaser, and unless such person shall have printed on the container or inside wrapper in plain Gothic letters of not less than ten (10) point type the name of each ingredient contained in the package, roll, carton or parcel of oleomargarine.

Penalties

Sec. 13. Every person who shall sell, or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, oleomargarine taxable under this Act upon which the tax has not been paid; or shall fail to keep any record required to be kept by this Act; or who shall in any other respect violate any of the provisions of this Act, or any of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Comptroller, shall for every offense forfeit and pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) which shall be recoverable with the costs, including the expense of analysis, by any person in the name of the State in any Court of competent jurisdiction within the State. All penalties and costs imposed and recovered upon the conviction for a violation of any provisions of this Act shall be paid to the State Comptroller, and by him immediately paid into the General Revenue Fund of the State.

Provided, that in case of an appeal from a conviction secured under this Act, the State Comptroller, or any other person suing in the name of the State by setting forth the facts, may ask the Court to command and restrain the person prosecuted from further violation of this Act until final determination is made of the pending case, and that in bringing such action for a restraining order, no bond or other security shall be required of such State Comptroller, his agent, or attorney, the Attorney General, or the County or District Attorney, but bond shall be required of all other persons the same as in other injunction cases.

Additional Penalties

Sec. 14. In addition to the above forfeiture, every person, firm, or corporation, and every officer, agent, servant, or employee of such person, firm or corporation, who violates any of the provisions of this Act or any of the rules and regulations adopted by the State Comptroller, shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor; and upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 15. If any section, subdivision, sentence or clause of this Act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portion of the Act.

Art. 7057f. Occupation Tax on Business of Gathering Gas

Definitions

Sec. 1. The provisions of Texas Revised Civil Statutes (1925) Articles 10, 11, 12, 14, 22, and 23 and Texas Laws 1947, Chapter 359,<sup>1</sup> on the interpretation of Statutes shall apply specifically to this Section. In addition to these standard definitions, in this Section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Gas" means natural and casing-head gas or other gas taken from the earth or waters, regardless of whether produced from a gas well or from a well also productive of oil, distillate, condensate or other product.

(b) "Casing-head gas" means any gas or vapor indigenous to an oil stratum and produced from such stratum with oil.

(c) "Gathering gas" means the first taking or the first retaining of possession of gas produced in Texas for transmission whether through a pipe line, either common carrier or private, or otherwise after severance of such gas, and after the passage of such gas through any separator, drip, trap, meter or other method designed to separate the oil therefrom. In the case of gas containing gasoline or liquid hydrocarbons that are removed or extracted at a plant within the State by scrubbing, absorption, compression or any other process, the term "gathering gas" means the first taking or the first retaining of possession of such gas for other processing or transmission whether through a pipe line, either common carrier or private, or otherwise after such gas has passed through the outlet of such plant.

(d) "Gatherer" means any person engaged in the gathering of gas.

(e) "Person" means and includes any person, firm, concern, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, agent, institution, association, partnership, company, corporation, and persons acting under declarations of trust, as well as trustees acting under declarations of trusts.

(f) "Cubic foot of gas" or "standard cubic foot of gas" shall have the definition ascribed thereto by Texas Laws, 1949, Chapter 519, Section 4, Texas Revised Civil Statutes (Vernon, 1948), Article 7047b, Section 2(12).

Imposition of Tax; Amount; Calculation

Sec. 2. In addition to all other licenses and taxes levied and assessed in the State of Texas, there is hereby levied upon every person engaged in gathering gas produced in this State, an occupation tax for the privilege of engaging in such business, at the rate of  $\frac{1}{20}$  of one cent per thousand (1,000) cubic feet of gas gathered.

In determining the quantity of the gas for the purposes of calculating such tax, there shall be excluded (a) gas produced and then lawfully injected into the earth of this State; (b) gas used for fuel in connection with lease or field operations; (c) gas lawfully vented or flared; and (d) gas used in the manufacturing of carbon black.

Payment; Penalty for Delay

Sec. 3. The tax levied hereby shall be paid by the gatherers on the 25th day of each month on all gas gathered in the State during the next preceding thirty (30) days prior to the first day of the month in which payment is required to be made. If such payment is not made within the time above prescribed, the amount due shall become delinquent and a penalty of ten per cent (10%) of the amount of the tax shall be added and such tax and penalty shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from date due until paid.

Unlawful to Require Producer to Pay

Sec. 4. The tax imposed by this Act is a tax on the occupation of gathering gas and not on the production of gas; therefore, it shall be unlawful for any gas gatherer to require any producer to pay the tax imposed under this Act under any contract provision between the producer and the gas gatherer allowing the gatherer to deduct from sums owed the producer amounts paid by the gatherer by reason of the imposition of a tax on production.

Records and Reports; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of each gatherer of gas in this State to keep accurate records within this

State of all gas gathered and showing also what disposition is made of same, and to make reports to the Comptroller of Public Accounts of gas gathered upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. The Comptroller shall prescribe forms of reports to be made by such gatherers and to require that such reports be made on officially prescribed forms.

The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall have the power to prescribe such rules and regulations, and require such records and reports as may be needed to aid in the administration and enforcement of the Act.

Examinations and Investigations; Appropriation for Administration and Enforcement

Sec. 6. The Comptroller shall employ auditors and technical assistants for the purpose of verifying reports and investigating the affairs of gatherers to determine whether the tax is being properly reported and paid. He shall have the power to enter upon the premises of any taxpayer liable for a tax under this Act, and any other premises necessary in determining the correct tax liability, and to examine, or cause to be examined, any books, or records, of any person, subject to a tax under this Act, and to secure any other information directly or indirectly concerned in the enforcement of this Act, and to promulgate and enforce, according to law, rules and regulations pertinent to the enforcement of this Act, which shall have the full force and effect of law. Before any division or allotment of the occupation tax collected under the provisions of this Act is made, one fifth ( $\frac{1}{5}$ ) of one per cent (1%) of the occupation tax paid monthly as may be needed in such administration and such enforcement is hereby appropriated for such purpose.

Delinquency; Injunction

Sec. 7. In the event any gas gatherer in this State shall become delinquent in the payment of the proper taxes herein imposed, or fails to file required reports with the Comptroller, the Attorney General by a suit in the name of the State of Texas shall have the right to enjoin such person from gathering gas until the delinquent tax is paid or said reports are filed, and the venue of any such suit for injunction is hereby fixed in the county where the offense occurs.

Violations; Lien; Ascertainment of Amount Due; Gas Audit Fund; Suits

Sec. 8. If any person shall violate any of the provisions hereof, he shall forfeit to the State of Texas as a penalty not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) for each violation and each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense. The State shall have a prior lien for all delinquent taxes, penalties, and interest on all property and equipment used by the gatherer of gas in his business of gathering gas, and if any gatherer of gas shall fail to remit the proper taxes, penalties, and interest due, or any of them, the Comptroller may employ auditors or other persons to ascertain the correct amount due, and the gatherer of gas shall be liable, as an additional penalty, for the reasonable expenses or the reasonable value of such services of representatives of the Comptroller, incurred in such investigation and audit; provided, that funds collected for audits and examinations shall be placed in a gas audit fund in the Treasury and shall constitute a revolving fund which may be used from time to time by the Comptroller in making such audits in addition to the general appropriation made for such purpose, and all of said funds to be placed in said gas audit fund are hereby appropriated for such purpose. The Attorney General shall file suit in the name of the State of Texas for all delinquent taxes, penalties, and other amount due, and for the enforcement of all liens under this law; and the venue of any such suit is hereby fixed in Travis County.

Reports and Audits as Evidence; Sale or Transfer of Agreements

Sec. 9. (a) If any person liable for the payment of the tax hereby levied, or required to remit the same to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, fails or refuses to pay any tax, penalty, or interest within the time and manner provided by the Act and it becomes necessary to bring suit or to intervene in any manner for the establishment or collection of said claim in any judicial proceedings, any report filed in the office of the Comptroller by such gatherer or representative of said gatherer or a certified copy thereof certified to by the Comptroller showing the amount of gas gathered on which tax, penalties or interest have not been paid, or any audit made by the Comptroller or his representative from the books of said gatherer when filed and sworn to by such representative as being made from the records of said gatherer, such report or audit shall be admissible in evidence in such proceedings and shall be prima-facie evidence of the contents thereof; provided, however, that the incorrectness of said report or audit may be submitted in evidence only against the party by or from whom it was made.

(b) In the event the Attorney General shall file suit of claim for taxes, provided for in the foregoing, and attach or file as an exhibit any report or audit of said gatherer, and an affidavit made by the Comptroller or his representative that the taxes shown to be due by said report or audit are past due and unpaid and that all payments and credits have been allowed, then unless the party resisting the same shall file an answer in the same form and manner as required by Article 3736, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended by Chapter 239, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature, said audit or report shall be taken as prima-facie evidence thereof, and the proceedings of said Article are hereby made applicable to suits to collect taxes hereunder.

(c) When any contract or agreement of gathering gas changes hands, the old gas gatherer shall note on his last report that said contract, or agreement has been sold or transferred, showing the effective date of said change and the name and address of the person who will gather gas under said contract, or agreement and be responsible for the filing of reports provided for in this Act, and the new gas gatherer shall note on his first report that said contract, or agreement has been acquired, showing the effective date of said change and the name and address of the person formerly gathering gas under said contract, or agreement.

Disposition of Collections

Sec. 10. All moneys derived from and collected by the State of Texas, under the provisions of this Act, less one-fifth ( $\frac{1}{5}$ ) of one per cent (1%) as provided for in Section 6 hereof, shall be deposited in the State Treasury, in the proportion as follows: one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the same shall go to and be placed to the credit of the Available Free School Fund; the remaining three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) shall go to and be placed to the credit of the General Revenue Fund.

Invalidity as to Interstate Transmission; Effect

Sec. 11. In the event the tax levied by this Section is declared unconstitutional or invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction as to gas gathered for interstate transmission, the tax shall not be levied as to gas gathered for intrastate consumption.

Every insurance corporation, Lloyd's or reciprocals, and any other organization or concern transacting the business of fire, marine, marine inland, accident, credit, title, livestock, fidelity, guaranty, surety, casualty, workmen's compensation, employers' liability, or any other kind or character of insurance business, other than the business of life insurance, personal accident insurance, life and accident insurance, or health and accident insurance for profit, written by a life insurance company, life and accident insurance company or health and accident insurance company, or for mutual benefit or protection in this State and other than fraternal benefit associations or societies in this State, and other than non-profit group hospital service plans, at the time of filing its annual statement, shall report to the Board of Insurance Commissioners the gross amount of premiums received upon property located in this State or on risks located in this State during the preceding year, and each of such insurance carriers shall pay an annual tax upon such gross premium receipts of 3.85%, provided that any such insurance carriers doing two (2) or more kinds of insurance businesses herein referred to shall pay the tax herein levied upon its gross premiums received from each of said kinds of business; and the gross premium receipts where referred to in this law shall be the total gross amount of premiums received on each and every kind of insurance or risk written, except premiums received from other licensed companies for reinsurance, less return premiums and dividends paid policyholders, but there shall be no deduction for premiums paid for reinsurance. The gross premium receipts, as above defined, shall be reported and shown as the premium receipts in the report to the Board of Insurance Commissioners by the insurance carriers, upon the sworn statements of two (2) principal officers of such carriers. Upon receipt by the Board of Insurance Commissioners of the sworn statements, showing the gross premium receipts by such insurance carriers, the Board of Insurance Commissioners shall certify to the State Treasurer the amount of taxes due by each insurance carrier which tax shall be paid to the State Treasurer on or before the first day of March following, and the Treasurer shall issue his receipt to such carrier, which shall be evidence of the payment of such taxes. No such insurance carrier shall receive a permit to do business in this State until all such taxes are paid.

Each such insurance organization shall also report to the Board of Insurance Commissioners on or before the first day of March of each year, the amount that it had invested on the 31st of December, preceding, in Texas securities as defined herein and the amount that it had invested on said date in similar securities in the State in which it had its highest percentage of admitted assets invested, and in computing the amount of such investments in such other State, it shall include as a part thereof that percentage of its investments in bonds of the United States of America purchased between December 8, 1941, and the termination of the war in which the United States is now engaged that its reserves for unearned premiums and loss reserves, as required in such other state, are of its total reserves. If the report of such insurance organization as of December 31st preceding, shows that such organization had invested in Texas securities, as herein defined, an amount which is not less than seventy-five per cent (75%) nor more than eighty per cent (80%) of the amount that it had invested in similar securities in the state in which it then had the highest percentage of its admitted assets invested, its tax shall be 3.025% of such gross premium receipts; if the report shows such insurance organization had invested in such Texas securities on such date an amount which is in excess of eighty per cent (80%) and not more than eighty-five per cent (85%) of the amount that it had invested in similar securities in the state in which it then had the highest percentage of its admitted assets invested, its tax shall be 2.75% of such gross premium receipts; if the report shows such insurance organization had invested in such Texas securities on such date an amount which is in excess of eighty-five per cent (85%) and not more than eighty-eight per cent (88%) of the amount that it had invested in similar securities in the state in which it then had the highest percentage of its admitted assets invested, its tax shall be 2.2% of its gross premium receipts; if the report shows such insurance organization had invested in such Texas securities on such date an amount which is in excess of eighty-eight per cent (88%) and not more than ninety per cent (90%) of the amount that it had invested in similar securities in the state in which it then had the highest percentage of its admitted assets invested, its tax shall be 1.65% of such gross premium receipts; if the report shows such insurance organization had invested in such Texas securities on such date an amount which is in excess of ninety per cent (90%) of the amount that it had invested in similar securities in the State in which it then had the highest percentage of its admitted assets invested, its tax shall be 1.1% of such gross premium receipts. Provided, further, that the amount of all examination and valuation fees paid in each taxable year to or for the use of the State of Texas by any insurance organization hereby affected shall be allowed as a credit on the amount of premium taxes to be paid by any such insurance organization for such taxable year.

For the purposes of this Act, Texas securities are defined as real estate in this State; bonds of the State of Texas; bonds or interest bearing warrants of any county, city, town, school district or any municipality or subdivision thereof which is now or may hereafter be constituted or organized and authorized to issue bonds or warrants under the Constitution and laws of this State; notes or bonds secured by mortgage or trust deed on property in this State insured by the Federal Housing Administrator; the cash deposits in regularly established national or state banks or trust companies in this State on the basis of average monthly balances throughout the calendar year; that percentage of such insurance company's investments in the bonds of the United States of America, that its Texas reserves for the unearned premiums and loss reserves as may be required by the Board of Insurance Commissioners, are of its total reserves; but this provision shall apply only to United States Government bonds purchased between December 8, 1941, and the termination of the war in which the United States is now engaged; in any other property in this State in which by law such insurance carriers may invest their funds.

No occupation tax shall be levied on insurance companies herein subjected to the gross premium receipt tax by any county, city or town. All mutual fraternal benevolent associations now or hereafter doing business in this State under the lodge system and representative form of government, whether organized under the laws of this State or a foreign state or country, are exempt from the provisions of this Article. The taxes aforesaid shall constitute all taxes collectible under the laws of this State against any such insurance carriers except maintenance taxes specially levied under the laws of this State and assessed by the Board of Insurance Commissioners to support the various activities of the divisions of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, and except if any such carrier is writing personal accident or health and accident insurance other than workman's compensation, it shall be taxed as otherwise provided by law on account of such business; and except unemployment compensation taxes levied under Senate Bill No. 5, passed by Third Called Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature and amendments thereto.<sup>1</sup> No other tax shall be levied or collected from any insurance carrier by the state, county, city or any town, but this law shall not be construed to prohibit the levy and collection of state, county and municipal taxes upon the real and personal property of such carrier. Purely cooperative or mutual fire insurance companies carried on by the members thereof solely for the protection of their own property, and not for profit, shall be exempt from the provisions of this law. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws and shall repeal Article 4758, Revised Civil Statutes of 1925, as amended, and all other laws only in so far as they levy any tax on any of the organizations affected by this Act or otherwise conflict with this Act, except as provided above. Art. 7083a. Allocation of Revenue Derived from Certain Occupations and Gross Receipts Taxes; Appropriations and Allocations for Certain Funds

Sec. 1. All revenue, other than that part allocated for enforcement purposes, derived and collected from the taxes levied by Chapter 241, Acts of the Regular Session, Forty-fourth Legislature,<sup>1</sup> and any amendments thereof or thereto, shall be hereafter and is hereby allocated as follows: one fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) to the Available School Fund of the State of Texas and three fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) into the Clearance Fund provided by this Act. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with this section are repealed to the extent of such conflict only.

Sec. 2. All revenue derived from and collected under Article VIII of this Act<sup>2</sup> shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas. All revenue derived from and collected under Article XIII of this Act<sup>3</sup> shall be and is allocated as now provided by law. All revenue derived from and collected under Article XVII of this Act<sup>4</sup> shall be allocated as provided in Section 25 of said Article.<sup>5</sup>

From all revenue derived and collected under the provisions of Articles I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII,<sup>6</sup> (subdivision a), IX, X, XI, XII, XIV, XV, XVI, and XVIII of this Act after deduction of that portion provided for enforcement purposes, there shall be allocated to the Available School Fund one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the total sum collected thereunder and same shall be deposited and credited to the Available School Fund in the State Treasury.

After deduction of the allocation provided in the next preceding paragraph to be apportioned to the Available School Fund, the balance of the funds collected under Articles I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII (subdivision a), IX, X, XI, XII, XIV, XV, XVI, and XVII of this Act shall be deposited in a Clearance Fund in the Treasury, and from such fund the revenues so derived and collected shall be transferred and allocated by the State Treasurer as follows:

(1) There shall be allocated, transferred and credited to the Special Fund in the Treasury known as the "Blind Assistance Fund" for the purpose of providing assistance to the blind in the manner as authorized by Senate Bill No. 36, Acts of the Regular Session, 46th Legislature, 1939, and any amendments thereto,<sup>7</sup> an amount out of state funds for each fiscal year which will provide funds in amounts equivalent to the funds appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes, said allocation to be provided for on a basis of equal monthly payments payable on the first day of each calendar month.

(2) There shall be allocated, transferred and credited to the Special Fund in the Treasury known as the "Children's Assistance Fund" for the purpose of providing assistance on behalf of dependent children in the manner as authorized by Senate Bill No. 36, Acts of the Regular Session, 46th Legislature, 1939, and any amendments thereto, an amount out of state funds for each fiscal year which will provide funds in amounts equivalent to the funds appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes, said amount to be provided on the basis of equal monthly payments payable on the first day of each calendar month.

(3) Beginning with the fiscal year starting on September 1, 1959, and annually thereafter, there is hereby allocated and appropriated to the Teacher Retirement System of Texas in accordance with the provisions of Senate Bill No. 47, Acts of the Regular Session, Forty-fifth Legislature, 1937, and any amendments thereto,<sup>8</sup> a sum each year equivalent to the contributions of the members of the Teacher Retirement System during said year. Said annual allocated and appropriated amounts shall be paid to the Teacher Retirement System in equal installments during the months of November, December, March, April, June and July of each fiscal year beginning with the year starting September 1, 1959, based upon the annual estimate by the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System of the contributions to be received from the members of said System during each such fiscal year; provided further, that in the event said estimate of the contributions of the members of the System shall vary from the actual amount of the teachers' contributions during the year, then such adjustments as may be required shall be made on the first day of the following fiscal year with any moneys in or due the General Revenue Fund.

(3A) [Expired; see note following this article]

(4) After the above allocations and payments have been made from such "Clearance Fund" there shall be allocated, transferred and credited to the Special Fund in the Treasury known as the "Old Age Assistance Fund" for the purpose of providing assistance to the needy aged in the manner as authorized by Senate Bill No. 36, Acts of the Regular Session, 46th Legislature, 1939, and any amendments thereto, an amount out of state funds, when taken together with any other funds received from any other sources by reason of other state laws still in effect, for each fiscal year which will provide funds in amounts equivalent to the funds appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes, said allocation to be provided in monthly installments, one installment being payable on the first day of each calendar month.

If, on the first day of any calendar month, the amount on that day transferred from the "Clearance Fund" to the "Blind Assistance Fund," the "Children's Assistance Fund," and the "Old Age Assistance Fund" is not sufficient to provide the allocation from state funds as herein provided for that month, then in that event, there shall be deposited to the credit of the "Blind Assistance Fund," the "Children's Assistance Fund," or the "Old Age Assistance Fund" from the first revenues collected after the first day of the month, which would otherwise go into the General Revenue Fund, such sum, as with the balance on hand in the fund plus the payment from the "Clearance Fund" will make available in the various funds the total amount of state funds for that month as is herein provided.

The allocations shall be and are in lieu of all other state allocations for aid to the blind, aid to dependent children, and old age assistance, and such allocations and appropriations shall not include any funds received from the Federal Government.

None of the money herein allocated for old age assistance payments, aid to the blind payments, or aid on behalf of needy children shall be used for the purpose of paying assistance to any person who disposes of property, either personal or real, for the purpose of qualifying or increasing need for assistance, provided that the property, if still available, would affect either eligibility or the amount of assistance payment.

(4-a) After the above allocations and payments have been made from such Clearance Fund, except that the allocations in Section 4-b of this Act, as provided for in Senate Bill No. 287, Acts of the 51st Legislature, shall be made before those provided for in this section, beginning with the fiscal year, September 1, 1949, and annually thereafter, there is hereby appropriated, allocated, transferred and credited to a special fund to be known as the Foundation School Fund, such an amount as is determined by the Foundation School Fund Budget Committee, which is hereby created. The membership of said Committee shall be composed of the State Commissioner of Education, State Auditor and State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

On or before the first day of November, next preceding each Regular Session of the Legislature, said Committee shall determine and certify to the State Comptroller of Public Accounts the calculated amount to be placed in the Foundation School Fund for the ensuing biennium for the purpose of financing a foundation school program as defined in the Foundation School Program Act, except that for the biennium beginning September 1, 1949, said Committee shall make such certification to the State Comptroller within thirty (30) days after the effective date of this Act. All monies allocated and appropriated from the Clearance Fund to the Foundation School Fund shall be paid into said Fund in installments, such installments to be monthly during the first nine (9) months of each fiscal year, so that the total amount or approximately the total amount shall be paid into said Fund by May 1st of each fiscal year; provided that in addition to the funds transferred from the Clearance Fund to the Foundation School Fund, there shall also be deposited to the credit of the Foundation School Fund all money received from the Federal Government as reimbursement for expenditures already incurred, or any other agency, which is to be used in supplementing the salaries of vocational and special service public school personnel.

Said Foundation School Fund Budget Committee is authorized to modify from time to time during the biennium, the estimate of the funds required for the Foundation School Fund, and in the light of any revised estimate or estimates made by said Committee during the biennium, the State Comptroller shall increase, diminish or suspend the further payment or payments from the Clearance Fund to the Foundation School Fund, provided that, by the close of each fiscal year there shall have been paid from the Clearance Fund to the Foundation School Fund such an amount as may be needed to pay all approved grants in full. Warrants for all money expended from the Foundation School Fund shall be approved by the State Commissioner of Education and transmitted by him to the treasurers of depositories of school districts to which grants are made in the same manner as warrants for state apportionment are now transmitted. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect allocation of funds for Vocational Education, as provided by statutes now in effect, from the Federal Government to the State. Provided that no provision of this Act shall be interpreted inimically to the status that was heretofore enjoyed by the private or parochial schools operating in the State of Texas that they, the graduates and staff, shall receive credit as in the past upon their capacities to meet the requirements of the high school.

(4-b) After the above allocations and payments have been made from such Clearance Fund, beginning with the fiscal year September 1, 1959, and annually thereafter, there is hereby appropriated, allocated, transferred and credited, to a fund to be known as the Farm-to-Market Road Fund of the State Highway Department of the State of Texas the sum of Fifteen Million Dollars ($15,000,000.00) per year for the construction of Farm-to-Market Roads by the State Highway Department within the State of Texas. The transfer, allocation and payment herein provided shall be made in equal installments during the months of April, May, June, July, and August of each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year starting September 1, 1959, or as funds therefor become available.

The State Highway Department shall use the funds herein made available in conjunction with other funds available for such purposes so that not less than Twenty-Three Million Dollars ($23,000,000.00) per year shall be used for the construction of additional miles of newly designated Farm-to-Market Roads, meaning roads in rural areas including feeder roads, secondary roads, school bus routes, rural mail routes, milk routes, etc., and not a part of the designated State Highway System or the designated Primary Federal Aid Highway System.

These funds shall be expended on a system of road selected by the State Highway Department after consultation with the County Commissioners Courts of the counties of Texas relative to the most needed unimproved rural roads in the counties involved. The selections shall be made in a manner to insure equitable and judicious distribution of funds and work among the several counties of the state.

The general characteristics of the roads to be selected are as follows:

a. The roads shall not be potential additions to the Federal Aid Primary Highway System;

b. The roads shall serve rural areas primarily and shall connect farms, ranches, rural homes and sources of natural resources such as oil, mines, timber, etc., and/or water loading points, schools, churches and points of public congregation, including community developments and villages;

c. The roads shall be capable of assisting in the creation of economic values in the areas served;

d. The roads shall preferably serve as public school bus routes, or rural free delivery postal routes, or both;

e. The roads shall be capable of early integration with the previously improved Texas Road System and at least one end should connect with a road already or soon to be improved on the State System of Roads.

The above allocation shall be made irrespective of any other subsection of this Section of this Article and Subsection (5) of Section 2 of this Article shall not be applicable to the Farm-to-Market Road Fund.

(4-c) The allocations provided for in Section 2 of Article 7083a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, (Annotated), shall be made in the following manner:

A. Of the amount in the Clearance Fund the following allocations shall be made on the first of each month, after the amounts for enforcement and the one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) to the Available School Fund are taken out:

First. Section 2. (1) Blind Assistance Fund;

Second. Section 2. (2) Children Assistance Fund;

Third. Section 2. (4) Old Age Assistance Fund;

Fourth. Section 2. (6) Disabled Assistance Fund.

Provided, however, that in the months of April, May, June, July, and August of each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year starting September 1, 1959, the transfer, allocation, and payment of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) to the Farm-to-Market Road Fund of the State Highway Department shall be made on or before the fifth working day of such months and shall constitute a prior claim on the amount in the Clearance Fund described in this paragraph A. If for any of such months the amount remaining in the Clearance Fund is insufficient to provide for the full allocation due to the Farm-to-Market Road Fund of the State Highway Department, then and in that event, the balance of the amount needed for such full allocation or payment to such Fund shall be transferred and paid from any moneys in or otherwise due the General Revenue Fund.

It is further provided that during the months of November, December, March, April, June and July of each fiscal year beginning with the fiscal year starting September 1, 1959, one-sixth ( $\frac{1}{6}$ ) of the annual allocation and appropriation to the Teacher Retirement System shall be made during each of such months, and during such months such allocations or payments shall represent the sixth priority claim on the amount in the Clearance Fund described in this paragraph A. If for any of such months the amount remaining in the Clearance Fund is insufficient to provide for the full allocation due to the Teacher Retirement System, then and in that event, the balance of the amount needed for such full allocation or payment to such System shall be transferred and paid from any moneys in or otherwise due the General Revenue Fund.

It is also provided that such adjustments as may be required by any variance between estimated and actual contributions by the members of such System, shall be made on the first day of the following fiscal year in the State's allocations or payments with any moneys in or otherwise due the General Revenue Fund.

B. The cash balance in the Clearance Fund remaining after the amounts for enforcements and the one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) to the Available School Fund are taken out, and after the allocations described in paragraph A above have been made to the funds and for the purposes therein specified, shall be allocated on the fifth working day as follows:

First. Section 2. (4-a) Foundation School Fund;

Second. Balance to General Revenue Fund.

C. Out of any and all receipts accruing to the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund in August of each fiscal year, between the fifth working day in the month and the 31st of the month, after the amounts for enforcement and the one-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) due the Available School Fund are taken out, the Comptroller is authorized and directed to calculate the next month's allocations due and payable under this Act to the Blind Assistance Fund, the Children's Assistance Fund, the Old Age Assistance Fund, and the Disabled Assistance Fund, in order to determine the residue of such receipts which could be credited to the General Revenue Fund; and the amount of such residue shall be credited to the General Revenue Fund as of August 31st of each such fiscal year.

D. All receipts due the Available School Fund deposited in the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund in August of each fiscal year between the fifth working day in the month and the 31st day of the month shall be credited to the Available School Fund on August 31st of each fiscal year.

(5) All other revenue or money of any kind or character remaining in such Clearance Fund shall be paid into the General Revenue Fund of the State of Texas, and any money or revenue in excess of current biennial appropriations remaining in the special funds to which allocations are made from the Clearance Fund after the fifth working day of each month shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund.

(6) There shall be allocated, transferred, and credited to the Special Fund in the Treasury known as the "Disabled Assistance Fund" for the purpose of providing assistance to the permanently and totally disabled in the manner as authorized by law or as hereafter may be authorized by law, an amount out of State funds for each fiscal year which will provide funds in amounts equivalent to the funds appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes, said amount to be provided for on the basis of equal monthly payments payable on the first day of each calendar month.

If, on the first day of any calendar month, the amount on that day transferred from the "Clearance Fund" to the "Disabled Assistance Fund" is not sufficient to provide the allocation from State funds as herein provided for that month, then in that event, there shall be deposited to the credit of the "Disabled Assistance Fund" from the first revenues collected after the first day of the month, which would otherwise go into the General Revenue Fund, after deposit of such revenues as provided in Subsection (4) of this Section, such sum, as with the balance on hand in the Fund plus the payment from the "Clearance Fund," will make available in the "Disabled Assistance Fund" the total amount of State funds for that month as is herein provided.

The allocation shall be and is in lieu of all other State allocations for permanently and totally disabled assistance and such allocation and appropriation shall not include any funds received from the Federal Government.

(7) There shall be allocated, transferred, and credited to the special fund in the Treasury known as the "Medical Assistance Fund" for the purpose of providing Medical Assistance on behalf of recipients of public assistance and other groups of needy individuals in the manner as authorized by law or as hereafter may be authorized by law, an amount out of state funds for each fiscal year which will provide funds in amounts equivalent to the funds appropriated by the Legislature for such purposes; and such allocations to the "Medical Assistance Fund" shall represent and constitute the fifth priority claim on the amount in the "Clearance Fund," after the Constitutional allocation is made to the Available School Fund, in accordance with the priorities as established in the law as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended.

(8) There shall be created in the State Treasury a Special Fund known as the "Economic Opportunity Fund—Welfare," and all funds received from the Federal Government and/or from any other source for the purpose of paying the cost and the administrative expenses incident to the projects or programs coming within the scope of this Act shall be deposited in said Special Fund in the Treasury subject to withdrawals upon authorization by the Commissioner of Public Welfare.

(9) There shall be allocated, transferred, and credited to a special fund in the State Treasury, to be known as the Temporary Welfare Administration Fund, the sum of $625,708. The allocation provided herein shall be made in one payment in the month of April, 1971, and shall be the first priority allocation after the allocation to the Farm-to-Market Road Fund for that month only.

Said board shall thereupon carefully examine and consider the said statements, facts and information; and, if they deem it advisable to do so, shall hear evidence, and shall require such individual, company, corporation or association to make such additional reports, if any, as such board may deem proper, and shall otherwise secure further additional information so far as may be in its power, to show the true value of the properties aforesaid, and the true value of that portion of every such property which is situated within the State and within the respective counties thereof, sufficient to enable said board to make the preliminary estimate herein provided for; and, for that purpose as well as for the purpose of carrying into effect any provision of this chapter, said board, and each member thereof, may require and compel, any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, and the officers and agents thereof, and such receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, assignees and bailees, to appear before such board at a time or times to be designated by said board, with any and all such books, papers, documents and information as said board may require, and to submit themselves to examination by said board. Upon consideration of such statements and information and such additional evidence, books, papers, documents and information, if any, said board shall make in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, a preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment of the true value of the intangible property within this State, of each of said individuals, companies, corporations, or associations, and shall, on or before the thirty-first day of May of each year, by registered mail, notify each and every such individual, company, corporation or association, receiver or assignee, trustee in bankruptcy, or other person holding such property for the benefit of creditors, of such preliminary estimate, valuation and apportionment, and the amounts thereof; and all such individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other persons shall have fifteen days from the time of mailing such notice by registered mail to appear before such board, at Austin, on a date to be fixed by such board, and request of such board a change or changes in such valuation and apportionment, or cancellation of such valuation and apportionment; and said individuals, companies, corporations, associations, receivers, assignees, trustees, and other persons may appear before such board, in person or by attorney, or in person and by attorney, and introduce evidence. Said board may, upon its own motion, or upon the written request of any interested party, and each member of said board, may summon, swear and examine witnesses under the same rules which govern the summoning, swearing and examination of witnesses in the district courts of this State; and, such board shall have the same jurisdiction, authority and power, under the same penalties, to require the production and to secure the examination of any and all books, documents and papers of such individuals, companies, corporations and associations, receivers, assignees, trustees and other per-

Upon or after such hearing, said board may change such valuation and apportionment, or either, or cancel such valuation and apportionment, as said board may deem just and proper in the premises. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7111. Other Duties Regarding Statement

In so far as the other evidence and information adduced before said board does not make it appear to the members of said board to be improper or unjust to do so, said board shall, in fixing the true value of the entire property of such individual, company, corporation or association embraced within the provisions of this chapter, take as a basis therefor the aggregate market or true value of all its shares of stock, adding thereto the aggregate market or true value of all indebtedness secured by any mortgage, lien or other charge upon its property or assets, and the sum so produced shall be deemed and treated as the true value of said entire property. And where the individual, company, corporation or association does business and has property, both within this State and outside of it, in ascertaining the true value of its property within this State, said board shall next ascertain from said statements, reports and evidence, if any, or otherwise, the true value, in the locality where the same is situated, of each such several pieces of real estate situated outside of this State, and of its other properties, if any, outside thereof, and not specifically used in the business of said individual, company, corporation or association, and the aggregate of said value shall be deducted from the gross value of the property as above ascertained; and the result of the said deduction and the sum or value thereby obtained shall be deemed and treated as the true value of all property of such individual, company, corporation or association in actual use in its business. Said board shall then fix the true value of the property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, using as a basis and being guided so far as it shall not believe it unjust to do so, by the proportion which it finds to exist between the total lines or total receipts within this State and outside of it, and lines controlled or operated, or the receipts obtained, entirely within this State, so that there shall be apportioned to this State, as the true value of the property within its borders of each individual, company, corporation and association doing business within and outside of its limits, such proportion of the true value of all the property of such individual, company, corporation or association which is specifically used in its business, as is borne by its total lines or total receipts within this State when compared with the total lines or total receipts both inside and outside of the State of Texas. From the entire value of the property within this State, when ascertained as directed by this chapter, said board shall deduct the true value of all the tangible property of such individual, company, corporation or association within this State, as so ascertained by said board, and the residue and remainder of value shall be by said board fixed, determined and declared as the true value of the intangible properties owned and held by such individual, company, corporation or association within this State. Said board shall apportion the sum of the said total taxable values within this State to the counties in which such individual, company, corporation or association does business, in proportion to the amount of business done in and the receipts derived from each such company, except that, in case of a railroad company, the apportionment to each county shall be in proportion to the line or lines of such individual, company, corporation or association therein. In apportioning the value of the aforesaid properties, said board shall consider all evidence which may be put before it and all material facts at its command; and, if it shall believe that some method of calculation other than that specifically prescribed in this chapter is necessary in order to produce just and lawful results, said board shall follow that method of calculation which it believes best calculated, under all circumstances, to bring about a just, fair, equitable and lawful valuation and apportionment of such property. Such county tax assessor shall extend and prorate upon said rolls the State and county taxes upon all such intangible assets in the same manner as taxes upon other property are extended and prorated. Said assessment, valuation and apportionment of such intangible assets so fixed, determined, declared and certified by such board shall not be subject to review, modification or change by the tax assessor of such county, nor by the board of equalization of such county; and the State and county taxes thereon shall be collected by the tax collector of such county and accounted for by him in the same manner and under the same penalties as taxes upon other property. All State and county ad valorem taxes upon all intangible property in this State belonging to any individual, company, corporation or association embraced by this chapter, shall be assessed under its provisions and not otherwise; but ad valorem taxes upon all other property of any and all such individuals, companies, corporations and associations shall be assessed as is or as may be provided by law. In determining the true and full value of real and personal property the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation, nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which such property would sell at auction or a forced sale or in the aggregate with all the property in his county; but he shall value each tract or lot by itself, and at such sum and price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made.

In valuing any real property on which there is a coal or other mine, or stone or other quarry, or springs possessing medicinal properties, the same shall be valued at such price as such property, including a mine, or quarry or spring, would probably sell at a fair voluntary sale for cash.

Taxable leasehold estates on non-exempt property shall be valued at such price as such leasehold estates would bring at a voluntary sale for cash, and taxable leasehold estates on exempt property shall be valued at such price as such leasehold estates would bring at a voluntary sale thereof for cash, based upon the value of a comparable improvement if located on non-exempt property, with reductions for reversionary interests, restrictions on use, and credit for normal rental.

Personal property of every description shall be valued at its true and full value in money.

Money, whether in possession or on deposit, or in the hands of any member of the family, or any person whatsoever, shall be entered in the statement at the full amount thereof.

If, in passing upon the value of any property by a commissioners court sitting as a board of equalization in this State, the court shall fix a value upon any property for the purpose of taxation and a minority of said court do not concur in the judgment of the court, the clerk shall record in the minutes of the court the names of the members, including the county judge, who do not concur in fixing such values (if the county judge shall cast the deciding vote in such matter); and, if any tax assessor or member of any commissioners court shall knowingly fail or refuse to fix the value of property rendered for taxes in compliance with this chapter, and all other laws of this State, such failure, neglect or refusal shall constitute malfeasance in office on the part of such assessor or member or members of said court, and such failure, neglect or refusal shall be cause for his or their removal from office. Whenever the fact is brought to the knowledge of the Attorney General that any tax assessor, deputy tax assessor, county judge, or member of the commissioners court, has failed, refused or neglected to comply with the provisions of this chapter, he shall at once file suit for the removal from office of such officer thus offending. Such proceedings for the removal of such officer or officers herein provided for shall be brought in the district court of the county of such officer's residence; and such suit shall be brought by or under the direction of the Attorney General.

He shall also prepare a roll or book, and two exact copies thereof, to be distributed, the first to the collector of taxes, the second to the Comptroller, the third to be filed in the county clerk's office, of all the real and personal property which has not been listed to him.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7222. Return and Oath

The assessor of taxes shall, on or before the first day of August of each year for which the assessment is made, return his rolls or assessment books of the taxable property rendered to him or listed by him for that year, after they have been made in accordance with the provisions of this title, to the county board of equalization, verified by his affidavit, substantially on the following form:

The State of Texas,
..... County.

I, ....., assessor of ..... county, do solemnly swear that the rolls (or books) to which this is attached contain a correct and full list of the real and personal property subject to taxation in ..... county, so far as I have been able to ascertain the same; that I have sworn every person listing property to me in the county, or caused the same to be done in manner and form as provided by law, and that the assessed value set down in the proper column opposite the several kinds and descriptions of property is the true and correct valuation thereof as ascertained by law, and the footings of the several columns in said books and the tabular statement returned is correct, as I verily believe.

Art. 7223. Lists, etc., Filed

The assessor of taxes shall at the same time deliver to the board of equalization all the lists, statements of all property which shall have been made out or received by him, and arranged in alphabetical order, together with the roll withdrawn to aid him in the past assessment. The lists and statements shall be filed in the county clerk's office, and remain there for the inspection of the public.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7224. Rolls, How Distributed

After the board of equalization shall have examined the rolls or assessment books and made all corrections, if any be necessary, the assessor shall send one copy of each to the Comptroller, one copy of each to the collector of his county, and he shall file the other copies in the county clerk's office until the next assessment, when the assessor shall have the right to withdraw them and use as provided in this title.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7225. Penalties for Neglect of Duty

Should any assessor of taxes fail or neglect to make out and return his rolls or books to the com-

Such person so employed by the commissioners shall be entitled to such part of the commissions to which such assessor is entitled as the court may allow; and said court shall so certify to the Comptroller, who shall pay such person in the same manner as the assessor of taxes is paid; and the amount so paid shall be deducted by the Comptroller from the commissions of the assessor of taxes, whose duty it was to have performed such work.
[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7226. Lands of Non-Residents in Unorganized Counties, etc.

When such application is made by the owner or owners of such land, and it is shown that a cancellation of such subdivisions, or portion thereof, will not interfere with the established rights of any purchaser owning any portion of such subdivisions, or if it be shown that said person or persons agreed to such cancellation, said commissioners court shall enter an order, which order canceling said subdivision shall be spread upon the minutes of such court, authorizing such owner or owners of such lands to cancel the same by written instrument describing such subdivisions, or portions thereof, so cancelled as designated by said court. When such cancellation is filed and recorded in the deed records of such county, the tax assessor of such county shall assess such property as though it had never been subdivided. When such application is so filed, said court shall cause notice to be given of such application by publishing such application in some newspaper, published in the English language, in such county for at least three weeks prior to action thereon by said court, and action shall be taken on such petition or petitions at a regular term of said court. Such notice, in addition to said publication, shall command any person interested in such lands to appear at the time specified in such notice to protest if desired against such action. If such lands are delinquent for taxes for any preceding year, or years, and such application is granted as hereinbefore provided, the owner or owners of said land shall be permitted to pay such delinquent taxes upon an acreage basis, the same as if said lands had not been subdivided, and for the purpose of assessing lands for such preceding years the county assessor of taxes shall back assess such lands upon an acreage basis. Every receipt for the payment of taxes on property, real, personal or mixed, hereafter paid, as well as those heretofore paid, collected by State, county or municipal officers, may be recorded in the office of the county clerk of the county where the property is situated. On presentation of a tax receipt to the county clerk he shall immediately file the same in the same manner of filing a deed to land, and enter and record such receipt in full in a record book kept

The repealed article, derived from Acts 1929, 41st Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 153, ch. 77; Acts 1953, 53rd Leg., p. 1052, ch. 436, § 1, read:

On and after October 1, 1953, the Tax Collector or his deputy of any county in this State, or any city or political subdivision or tax assessing district within any such county shall, upon request, issue a certificate showing the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs due, if any, on the property described in said certificate. A charge of not to exceed One Dollar ($1) may be made for each such certificate issued. When any certificate so issued shows all taxes, interest, penalty and costs on the property therein described to be paid in full to and including the year therein stated, the said certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the full payment of all taxes, interest, penalty and costs due on the property described in said certificate for all years to and including the year stated therein. Said certificate showing all taxes paid shall be admissible in evidence on the trial of any case involving taxes for any year or years covered by such certificate, and the introduction of the same shall be conclusive proof of the payment in full of all taxes, interest, penalty and costs covered by the same.

"Sec. 1(a). The provisions of this Act shall be applicable only in suits where the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof sues for unpaid taxes. Such certificate shall not be conclusive in suits in which the title for land is involved in any manner in suits between private citizens.

"Sec. 2. If any such certificate is issued or secured through fraud or collusion, the same shall be void and of no force and effect, and any such Tax Collector or his deputy shall be liable upon his official bond for any loss resulting to any such County or city or political subdivision or tax assessing district or the State of Texas, through the fraudulent or collusive or negligent issuance of any such certificate."

See, now, article 7258b.

Art. 7258b. Tax Certificate; Cancellation Certificate; Evidence

Sec. 1. The tax collector or his deputy of any county in this state, or of any city or political subdivision or tax assessing district within any such county shall, upon request, issue a certificate showing the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs due, if any, on the property described in said certificate. This certificate shall contain a certification by the tax collector that he has checked each delinquent tax report, supplemental delinquent tax record and recompiled delinquent tax report from the last tax cancellation date, or to the extent of his records, up to and including the records in present use. A charge of not to exceed $2 may be made for each such certificate issued.

Sec. 2. (a) When any such certificate so issued shows all taxes, interest, penalty and costs on the property therein described to be paid in full to and including the year therein stated, the said certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the full payment of all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs due on the property described in said certificate for all years to and including the year stated therein. Said certificate showing all taxes paid shall be admissible in evidence on the trial of any case involving taxes for any year or years covered by such certificate, and the introduction of the same shall be conclusive proof of the payment in full of all taxes, interest, penalty, and costs covered by the same.

(b) The provisions of this Act shall be applicable only in suits where the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof sues for unpaid taxes. Such certificate shall not be conclusive in suits in which the title for land is involved in any manner in suits between private citizens.

Sec. 3. In the event a tax certificate is issued showing no taxes, interest, penalty, and costs due, when in fact taxes, interest, or penalties were due, and the owner of the land is not that person under whom the taxes, interest, penalty, and costs became delinquent, the tax collector may issue, on request, a certificate relieving the property from liability and stipulating that the delinquent taxes, interest, penalty, and costs are thereafter the personal liability of the person under whom the taxes became delinquent. This cancellation certificate plus a copy of the tax certificate and an affidavit stating that an error was made and that no fraud or collusion existed shall be submitted to the commissioners court. Thereafter, this cancellation certificate shall be conclusive proof for all purposes that neither the land nor the present owner is liable for the delinquent taxes, interest, penalty, and costs.

Sec. 4. If either a tax certificate or a cancellation certificate is issued or secured through fraud or collusion, the same shall be void and of no force and effect, and any such tax collector or his deputy shall be liable on his official bond for any loss resulting to any such county or city or political subdivision or tax assessing district or the State of Texas, through the fraudulent or collusive or negligent issuance of any such certificate.

Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 6. This Act does not apply to litigation pending as of the effective date of this Act.

Sec. 7. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of such conflict only. Chapter 77, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 2nd Called Session, 1929, as amended (Article 7258a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is specifically repealed.

Art. 7259. Record Books Furnished

Each commissioners court shall furnish the county clerk tax receipt record books which may be made in form as books for recording deeds or in form with printed blanks conforming to the form of the tax receipts as provided by law for tax collectors, or in any form suitable to the purposes of this law, in the discretion of said court, with the name "Tax Receipt Record" indorsed on the same, with successive numbers on each separate volume, and said clerk shall properly index said record alphabetically in the name of the holder of the tax receipt.

Art. 7260. Monthly Reports

1. At the end of each month the Tax Collector shall, on forms to be furnished by the Comptroller, make an itemized report under oath to the Comptroller, showing each and every item of ad valorem, poll and occupation taxes collected by him during said month, accompanied by a summarized statement showing full disposition of all State taxes collected, provided that said itemized reports for the months of December and January of each year may not be made for twenty-five (25) days after the end of such months if same cannot be completed by the end of such respective months.

2. He shall present such report, together with the tax receipt stubs to the County Clerk, who shall within two (2) days compare said report with said stubs, and if same agree in every particular as regards names, dates and amounts, he shall certify to its correctness, for which examination and certificate said Clerk shall be paid by the Commissioners Court twenty-five (25) cents for each certificate and twenty-five (25) cents for each two hundred (200) taxpayers on said report; provided that in counties having a County Auditor the work mentioned in this paragraph shall be done by the County Auditor rather than the County Clerk.

3. The Tax Collector shall then immediately forward his reports so certified to the Comptroller, and shall pay over to the State Treasurer all moneys collected by him for the State during said month, excepting such amounts as he is allowed by law to pay in his county, reserving only his commissions on the total amount collected, and to enable him to do so, he may, at his own risk, send the same to the State Treasurer at the least cost to the State, on which he shall be allowed credit by the Comptroller upon filing receipt showing actual amount of exchange paid. The Tax Collector may, in making remittance of funds to the State Treasurer or any other State officer, board, commission or employe of the State, make the same by sending cash or a check on the county depository, if the funds are in the county depository, or if the same, in due course, are required to be in such depository. No State or County funds shall be used to pay exchange on, or expense of transmitting or collecting money by, any check or exchange or draft which may be used to make any such remittances. If such funds are sent in cash, by registered letter, by Post Office Money Order, express money order or by bank draft or bank check or depository check, in such event the liability of the persons sending the same shall not cease until the same money is actually received by the State Treasurer or the duly authorized State depository or other authorized officer in due course of business. The State Treasurer, whenever he may receive a remittance from a Tax Collector, shall promptly pay the money so remitted to the State Treasury, on the deposit warrant of the Comptroller, and the money when so deposited shall be a credit to the said Tax Collector.

4. The Tax Collector shall pay over to the State Treasurer all balances in his hands belonging to the State, and finally adjust and settle his account with the Comptroller on or before the first day of May of each year, and to enable him to do so, the Commissioners Court shall convene on or before the third Monday in April for the purpose of examining and approving his final settlement papers.

5. The allowance to a Tax Collector of credit for the unpaid taxes shown on his delinquent and insolvent lists prepared under Articles 7263 and 7336 shall not absolve any taxpayer or property appearing upon either of said lists from liability for and payment of such taxes, nor absolve the Tax Collector from the duty of collecting same, and the provisions of Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274 and 7336 pertaining to the levy upon and seizure and sale by the Tax Collector of personal property to enforce the payment of taxes shall be applicable to the enforced collection of such taxes. As such taxes are collected, the Tax Collector shall issue special tax receipts therefor to be furnished by the Comptroller, which blank receipts shall be numbered and charged to the Tax Collector, who shall account for same at his next annual settlement in the same manner as occupation tax receipts. The Tax Collector shall make in triplicate itemized monthly reports of all such collections, using blanks for that purpose furnished by the Comptroller. One of said triplicates shall be retained by the Tax Collector as a record of his office, one shall be filed with and preserved by the County Clerk as a record of his office, and one shall be sent to the Comptroller and preserved as a record of his office. There shall be entered upon or attached to each copy of said reports the affidavit of the Tax Collector that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources authorized and provided by law for the seizure and sale of personal property for the collection of all unpaid taxes shown upon the delinquent and insolvent lists of his county, and that he does not know of any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes remain unpaid that he is authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof.

6. The Comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the forms to be used by the Collector of Taxes, and the mode and manner of keeping and stating their accounts, and shall adopt such regulations as he may deem necessary in regard thereto. He shall enforce a strict observance of each provision of these articles.

7. The Comptroller shall notify the District Attorney of the district or the County Attorney of the county in which the collector resides, and the sureties on the bond of the collector, of any failure to comply with any provisions of this article.

8. The Tax Collector shall be entitled to deduct amounts of double payments and homestead exemptions claimed, if paid in error in prior months of the current tax year, from the amounts of taxes due the State of Texas; and same shall be by him refunded to claimants; and the State Comptroller shall honor such deductions the same as if made in the month in which the payment was actually made, so long as such deductions are made prior to June 30th of the year when current taxpaying ends.

Section 2 of the Act of 1961 provided: "This law is to be cumulative with all other provisions of Article 7260, except insofar as they conflict with remittances of these particular collections to the State, and the approval by the Comptroller."

Art. 7261. Duties of Clerk and Collector

1. The Tax Collector shall at the end of each month make like reports to the Commissioners Court of all the collections made for the county, conforming as far as applicable and in like manner to the requirements as to the collection and report of taxes collected for the State. The County Clerk shall likewise, within two (2) days after the presentation of said report by the Collector, examine said report and stubs and certify to their correctness as regards names, dates, and amounts; for which examination and certificate he shall be paid by the Collector Fifty (50) Cents each month, which amount shall be allowed to the Collector by the Commissioners Court; provided that in counties having a County Auditor the work mentioned in this paragraph shall be done by the County Auditor rather than the County Clerk.

2. The Clerk shall file said report intended for the Commissioners Court, together with the tax receipt stubs, in his office for the next regular meeting of the Commissioners Court.

3. The Tax Collector shall immediately pay over to the County Treasurer all taxes collected for the county during said month, after reserving his commissions for collecting the same, and take receipts therefor, and file with the County Clerk.

4. At the next regular meeting of the Commissioners Court, the Tax Collector shall appear before said Court and make a summarized statement, showing the disposition of all moneys, both of the State and county, collected by him during the previous three (3) months. Said statement must show that all taxes due the State have been promptly remitted to the State Treasury at the end of each month, and all taxes due the county have been paid over promptly to the County Treasurer and shall file proper vouchers and receipts showing same.

5. The Commissioners Court shall examine such statement and vouchers, together with an itemized report and tax receipt stubs filed each month, and shall compare the same with the tax rolls and tax receipt stubs. If found correct in every particular, and if the Tax Collector has properly accounted for all taxes collected, as provided above, the Commissioners Court shall enter an order approving said report, and the order approving same shall be recorded in the minutes.

6. The Tax Collector shall finally adjust and settle his account with the Commissioners Court for the county taxes collected, at the same time and in the same manner as is provided in the foregoing Article in his settlement with the State.

Art. 7262. Report Not Approved, Unless

If any tax collector shall have failed at the end of each month, or within three days thereof, to promptly remit to the State Treasurer the amount due by him to the State, or pay over to the county treasurer the amount due by him to the county, the commissioners court, at the next regular meeting, shall ascertain the facts; and if the tax collector fails or refuses to pay or remit the same and file proper vouchers therefor, as provided in the foregoing article, the commissioners court shall not approve his reports and accounts, but shall ascertain the amounts due by him, both to the State and county, and enter an order requiring him to pay the same to the proper treasurers, as is provided in Articles 7294 and 7295, and notify such collector, as is provided for in Article 7296 under penalty for failure to do so. Whenever the tax collector shall fail or refuse to remit to the State Treasurer the amounts due the State, when requested, the Comptroller shall notify him.

Art. 7263. List of Delinquents and Insolvents

The tax collector shall make out on forms to be furnished for that purpose by the Comptroller, between April first and the fifteenth of each year, list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers, the caption of which shall be, the "list of delinquent or insolvent taxpayers." In this list he shall give the name of the person, firm, company, or corporation from whom the taxes are due, in separate columns; and he shall post one copy of these delinquent or insolvent lists at the courthouse door of the county, and one list at the courthouse door, or where court is usually held, in each justice precinct in his county; and the tax collector, upon the certificate of the commissioners court that the persons appearing on the insolvent or delinquent lists have no property out of which to make the taxes assessed against them, or that they have moved out of the county, and that no property can be found in the county belonging to such persons, out of which to make the taxes due, shall be entitled to a credit on final settlement of his accounts for the amounts due by the persons, firms, companies, or corporations certified to by the commissioners court, as above provided for.

Art. 7264. To Collect Delinquent List

The allowance of an insolvent list to the collector in accordance with the provisions of the preceding article shall not absolve any taxpayer or property thereon from the payment of taxes; but the collector shall use all necessary diligence to collect the amounts due on the insolvent list after it is allowed, and report and pay over to the proper officers all amounts collected on the same.

Art. 7264a. Adjustment of Delinquent Taxes and Collection Thereof

Sec. 1. It is hereby declared the Policy of the State to adjust delinquent taxes, correct errors, to eliminate conflicts in surveys of land, and to collect the delinquent, occupation, franchise and Ad Valorem Taxes, in order to clear this State of such taxes, errors and conflicts at the earliest date possible, and to provide a system for assessors, in order to eliminate the numerous errors that now appear on the tax rolls each recurring year.

Sec. 2. Cost of collecting delinquent taxes shall not exceed the amount of the penalty and interest, or an amount equal to such penalty and interest of all delinquent taxes collected. Any county desiring to install a tax or plat system and clear the county of errors, conflicts and unknown owners, may do so by paying not to exceed 15% of the delinquent taxes collected, which payment shall cover the cost of records and installing same.

Sec. 3. In order to speedily carry out the provisions of this Act, the State Comptroller and the Commissioners' Court of each of the several counties may employ competent persons to do the work and to furnish the Comptroller and the Commissioners' Courts all cases where adjustment is necessary; and in all such cases the Commissioners' Court shall make proper settlement or adjustment.

Sec. 4. This Act is not intended to change any law now in effect regarding the collection of delinquent taxes, but to be an aid to the officials in the discharge of their duties, and when the delinquent taxes in a county are adjusted, corrected and collected, the Comptroller shall take necessary steps to see that all delinquent taxes are collected within a reasonable time after they become delinquent, in order to avoid the necessity of again employing additional help.

[Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., p. 383, ch. 229.]

Non-residents of counties, owing State or county taxes, are hereby authorized to pay the same to the Comptroller; provided, that all taxes due by said non-residents shall be paid at the Comptroller's office on or before the first day of January next after the assessment of such taxes. The tax collectors shall be entitled to the commissions on all moneys paid by non-residents to the Comptroller, due their counties respectively.

Art. 7266. Forced Collections to Begin

If any person shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes imposed upon him or his property by law, until the first day of January next succeeding the return of the assessment roll of the county to the Comptroller, the tax collector shall, by virtue of his tax roll, seize and levy upon and sell so much personal property belonging to such person as may be sufficient to pay his taxes, together with all costs accruing thereon; provided, there shall be no levy on property when the owner thereof has the right to pay at the Comptroller's office, until a list of the persons who have paid their taxes at said office has been furnished the tax collector by the Comptroller. The Comptroller shall forward said list of paid taxes on or before the first day of February of each year; and the tax collector shall, immediately on receipt of said list from the Comptroller, levy on and sell the property of such non-residents as have not paid their taxes, in accordance with the law regulating the sale of property for taxes.

Art. 7267. Personal Property Pointed Out

Art. 7268. Property About to be Removed

Such unpaid taxes shall be paid by the assignee, when said property has been seized by the sheriff, out of the proceeds of sale in case such property has been seized under attachment or other writ, and by the administrator or other legal representative of decedents; and, if said taxes shall not be paid, all said property may be levied on by the tax collector and sold for such taxes in whomsoever's hands it may be found.

Whenever it shall appear to any tax collector that any person who is delinquent in the payment of his or her taxes has no property in his county out of which said amount of taxes can be collected, such collector shall make out from the assessment list a true and complete list or schedule of the taxes due by said delinquent, which shall be certified to under the official seal and signature of said collector, and forward the same to the tax collector of any county or counties where he shall have reason to believe said delinquent has property of any description, and if said property is in any of the unorganized counties of this State, then to the collector of the county to which said unorganized county is attached for judicial purposes; and, when received by said collector, he shall at once proceed to the collection of said tax by seizure and sale in the same manner as if said taxes were originally assessed and due in his said county, and shall report to the collector from whom said list was received the taxes so collected by him. #### Art. 7271. Credit for Delinquent Taxes

The provisions of this chapter pertaining to the duty of tax collectors in the matter of the collection of delinquent and insolvent taxes shall apply as well to taxes owing by persons who own real property as to those who do not own real property, and no tax collector in this State shall be entitled to or be allowed either by the county or by the Comptroller credit as approved by Article 7263 for any taxes reported or returned as either delinquent or insolvent under Article 7263 or 7336 until he makes affidavit entered upon or attached to both his lists of insolvent taxpayers prepared under said Article 7263 and his lists of delinquent lands prepared under Article 7336, that said lists are true and correct and that he has fully complied with and exhausted all resources to collect such taxes as authorized and required by Articles 7264, 7266, 7267, 7268, 7269, 7270, 7272, 7273, 7274, and 7336, and does not know of, and has made diligent inquiry and has been unable to learn of, any personal property belonging to any person or persons against whom such taxes are shown on said lists to be unpaid that he was authorized by law to seize, levy upon and sell for the purpose of enforcing the payment of such taxes or any part thereof, nor until the commissioners court of his county, after full consideration and investigation, has entered upon or attached to both the insolvent lists and lists of delinquent lands the certificate required by said Article 7263, and no compensation that at the time, or at any time thereafter, may be due or owing to the tax collector, either by the State or county, shall be retained by or paid to the tax collector until he has made the affidavits as provided by this article. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7272. All Property Liable for Taxes

All real and personal property held or owned by any person in this State shall be liable for all State and County Taxes due by the owner thereof, including tax on real estate, personal property and poll tax; and the Tax Collector shall levy on any personal or real property to be found in his county to satisfy all delinquent taxes, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, however, that any person, including a lienholder, having an interest in property against which there are taxes which has been included in an assessment with other property may pay the proportionate part of the taxes against his property without being required to pay any other taxes included in the assessment. If the parties at interest cannot agree with the Tax Collector upon the amount of taxes to be apportioned to each piece of property then the Commissioners' Court shall make a fair apportionment of the taxes, and the payment of the taxes on a part of the property according to such apportionment will relieve it from liability for the payment of any of the other taxes included in the assessment; and further providing, however, that the provision herein, whereby the taxes against a piece of property may be apportioned, shall apply to taxes due any district, municipality or other subdivision of the State, and in the event the parties at interest cannot agree to an apportionment of the taxes then the Board of Commissioners having authority over the assessment and equalization of such taxes, shall make the apportionment in the manner herein provided.

Art. 7274. If Property is Insufficient

If personal property levied upon prove insufficient to satisfy the taxes and penalties due and costs accrued thereon, the collector shall levy upon and sell so much other personal taxable property belonging to the person as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes, penalties and costs in the same manner as an original levy and sale, and, in all cases of sales for taxes, if there be an excess remaining in the hands of the collector, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs, the same shall be paid over to the original owner by the collector, or deposited in the hands of the county treasurer subject to the order of such owner.

Art. 7275. Sales of Real Property

If the delinquent is not possessed of a sufficiency of personal property in the county subject to seizure and sale to satisfy all taxes due by him, the tax collector shall seize so much of the real estate of such delinquent, situated in the county, as will be sufficient to satisfy such taxes and all costs, and sell the same in accordance with the provisions of the succeeding article.

Art. 7276. Advertisement of Real Property for Sale

In making sales of real property for taxes, the Collector shall advertise the same for sale in some newspaper published in the county where the land is to be sold, for three successive weeks, if there be one; and the publisher of such newspaper shall receive as compensation the legal rate of Two (2) Cents per word for the first insertion of such publication and One Cent per word for each subsequent insertion or such newspaper shall be entitled to charge for such publication at a rate equal to but not in excess of the lowest published word or line rate of that newspaper for classified advertising, and such fee shall be taxed as other costs of sale against such land, and the Comptroller shall allow the Collector such fee to be paid by the Collector to the newspaper publisher in each case where the land is bid in and sold to the State. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84; Acts 1941, 47th Leg., p. 480, ch. 303, § 4.]

Art. 7277. List Posted

Prior to the sale of any real property for taxes in any county in this State, the tax collector shall advertise the same by posting a list of the names of the delinquents for thirty days as follows: one copy at the courthouse door of the county, and a copy at two other public places in the county where the lands or lots are situated.

Should a less amount of said real estate than the whole tract or parcel of said real estate levied upon be sold for the taxes and penalties due and all costs of sale and execution and deed, the collector shall, in making his deed to the purchaser begin at some corner of said tract or parcel of land or town lot and designate the same in a square as near as practicable.

Art. 7299. Back Taxes on Unrendered Lands

In all cases where lands or real estate have not been assessed for taxation for any year since the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, the same shall be assessed and the taxes thereon collected in the mode prescribed in this chapter.

Art. 7300. Annual List

On the first day of July of each year, the Comptroller shall cause to be prepared a list of all unrendered lands in each county subject to taxation and not assessed, in which shall be specified the name of the original grantee, the abstract number, the number of acres, the year for which such lands were unrendered, and the rate of State and county taxes for such year.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7301. List Forwarded

Upon completion of such lists, the Comptroller shall forward the same to the board of equalization of the respective counties, with the verification that the said list is a true and correct statement of all the unrendered land and real estate in _____ county for the year _____, as shown by the records of his office.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7302. Board to Value Such Lands

Upon receipt of such list or lists by the board of equalization of such county, they shall value each tract of land or parcel of real estate so mentioned and described in the said lists at their true and full value, as near as can be ascertained, for the year it was omitted to have been rendered.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7303. Making of Rolls

When the board of equalization completes the valuation, they shall cause to be made out three separate rolls, in such manner as the Comptroller may prescribe; they shall place one in the hands of the tax collector, forward one to the Comptroller, and file one in the office of the county clerk for the inspection of the public.

Art. 7304. Collector to Give Notice

Upon receipt of the rolls by the tax collector, he shall advertise in some weekly newspaper published in his county, and, if no paper is published in his county, by posting printed circulars in not less than eight public places in his county, for four consecutive weeks, that the rolls for the collection of taxes on unrendered land and real estate have been placed in his hands, and that unless the taxes are paid within sixty days after the date of said notice he will proceed to collect the same as provided by law for the collection of delinquent taxes.

Art. 7305. Collections Enforced

After the expiration of said sixty days, if the taxes on any such lands are not paid, the tax collector shall proceed to enforce the collection of said taxes in the mode provided in this title for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes; and he shall be entitled to the same fees and penalties as are allowed him for the collection of other delinquent taxes.

Art. 7306. List of Lands Sold to State

The Comptroller on or before the first day of each year, shall make out and forward to the tax collector of each county a full and complete list of all real estate situated in said county that has been previously, at tax sales, bid off to the State for taxes assessed in the county where the land is situated, since the thirty-first day of December, 1876, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same within two years from the date of said sale by payment or tender of payment to the proper officer of double the amount of taxes and costs for which said real estate was bid off to the State, together with all subsequent taxes that have become due on the same from the date of sale to the last date on which the same could have been redeemed.

Art. 7307. Sale

Each tax collector, within ninety days after receipt of said list, shall call to his aid the county surveyor of his county, and, as near as may be, ascertain if any lands contained in said list do not in fact exist in said county, or are embraced in other surveys conflicting therewith, and upon which the taxes have been paid; and, after deducting the same from said list, he shall proceed to sell each tract of land therein described, whether belonging to residents or non-residents, for the payment of such sums of money as may be designated on said list as due thereon, together with all costs that may accrue in advertising and selling the same as herein provided.

Art. 7308. Advertisement and Redemption

The tax collector shall, prior to the sale of any real estate that has been previously bid off to the State at tax sales, the owners of which have failed to redeem the same, advertise the real estate to be sold in some newspaper published in the county for six successive weeks, if there be such newspaper published therein, otherwise he shall post advertisements of said sale at the courthouse door and at one public place in each justice's precinct of his county for at least six weeks, giving in said advertisement, whether published or posted, such description of the lands to be sold as shall be given on the Comptroller's list, and stating the time, place and terms of sale, which shall be between legal hours on the first Tuesday of some specified month at the courthouse door at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash; provided, that no real estate shall in any case be sold for less than the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon, together with all costs of advertisements and sale. The former owner of any such real estate, his heirs or assigns, may redeem the same at any time prior to the sale thereof, by the payment to the collector of the county in which such real estate is situated, or to the Comptroller, if in an unorganized county, of the amount designated by the Comptroller as due thereon, with costs of advertisement. If it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that any land has been sold to the State for taxes which have been paid, or that the sale has not been made in accordance with the law authorizing the sale of land for taxes, he shall, upon the payment of the amount that may be due thereon, cancel such sale; and in all cases he shall deliver to the owner of the land, or his agent, a certificate under the seal of his department, setting forth the fact that such land has been redeemed, or that such sale has been canceled, which certificate shall release the interest of the State, and the same may be recorded in the proper county as other conveyances of real estate are recorded.

Art. 7309. Land Sold, How

At the time and place appointed for said sale, the tax collector shall offer for sale each separate parcel of the real estate advertised, and shall sell the same to the bidder who will offer the largest amount of money therefor.

Art. 7310. Sale May be Continued

If the sale of the real estate advertised as provided herein shall not be completed on the day it is commenced, said sale may be continued for ten consecutive days, from day to day, by announcement of the tax collector to that effect; and the said collector may, if there be on any day a less number than three bidders present, adjourn said sale to the first Tuesday in the following month.

Art. 7311. Deed Executed

When a sale has been made of any real estate as herein provided, the tax collector, upon payment of the amount bid for the same, shall make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed for such real estate, specifying in said deed the cause and date of sale, the number of acres sold if the same can be ascertained, the name of the person, firm, corporation or company in whose name the land was assessed, and all such descriptive information as may be necessary to identify the property conveyed; provided, that the purchaser may, after payment, as described in this article, ask a delay of sixty days within which to have said real estate surveyed by the county surveyor, said survey to be made at the expense of the purchaser, and, upon a certificate from the collector directed to the surveyor, that the person named in the certificate has purchased and paid for the same, not to exceed one dollar for each survey, to be paid for out of the sale of such survey.

Art. 7312. Execution of Deed

When a survey has been made, as provided in the preceding article, and a copy of the field notes, certified to as true and correct by the county surveyor, filed with the tax collector, the said collector shall thereupon make, execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed to said real estate, which deed shall, in addition to the requisite hereinabove named, contain the field notes certified by the county surveyor.

Art. 7313. Effect of Deed

Deeds made, executed and delivered by tax collectors under the authority of this chapter shall be held to vest a good and perfect title to the real estate therein described in the purchaser, and may be impeached only for fraud; provided, that the former owner shall have two years from the date of said deed to redeem the same by paying to the purchaser double the amount paid for said land by the purchaser at such sale, together with all subsequent taxes paid by the purchaser, with eight per cent interest on the amount of such subsequent taxes.

Art. 7314. Report of Sales

Within thirty days after sales made under the provisions of this chapter, the tax collector shall make a report to the commissioners court of his county, and also to the Comptroller, giving in said reports such description of the real estate sold as is given in the Comptroller's list, and stating the amounts due the State, county and collector respectively, and the amount for which said land was sold, and the name of the party to whom each tract was sold.

Art. 7315. Proceeds of Sale

Tax collectors shall, within sixty days after payments for real estate sold under the provisions of this chapter, after deducting from the proceeds of sale all costs due to them or their predecessors in said office, pay into the county treasury of the county in which said real estate is situated the amount of taxes shown by the Comptroller's list to be due to said county, and the balance of said proceeds shall be paid by him into the State Treasury within the said sixty days, in such manner as may be directed by the Comptroller.

Art. 7316. Collections Applied

Taxes collected by the State or county, by sales made under the provisions of this chapter, shall be placed to the credit of the different funds for which originally assessed under the direction respectively of the Comptroller and the commissioners court of the county in which the sale is made; the balance of the proceeds, after satisfying all taxes, penalties and costs accrued, shall, under the direction of the Comptroller, be placed in the State Treasury, subject to be reclaimed by the owner of the land on proof as required in case of escheated estates. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7317. Costs Deducted

The tax collector shall be entitled to deduct and retain out of the proceeds of sale of each separate parcel of real estate sold, as hereinbefore provided:

1. Such amount as may be designated in the Comptroller's list as costs due thereon to the collector.

2. If the advertisement of sale is published in a newspaper, such a proportion of the actual amount paid for advertising as the number of acres in such separate parcel sold bears to the whole number of acres advertised; or, if the advertisements are posted, the sum of one dollar.

3. Two dollars for every deed made, executed, and delivered under the provisions of this chapter.

Art. 7318. Unsold Land Reported

If, after the expiration of ninety days after the receipt by the tax collector of the Comptroller's list, any real estate described in said list shall remain unsold, the said collector shall make separate reports of such fact to the commissioners court of his county and the Comptroller respectively; and the said parcels of real estate shall be embraced in the next list furnished by the Comptroller to the tax collector. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7319. "Real Property"

For the purpose of taxation, real property shall include all lands within this State, and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appertaining thereto, except such as are expressly exempted by law. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7320. A Lien on Land

All lands or lots which have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, for taxes due thereon since the first day of January, 1885, or which may hereafter be returned delinquent or reported sold to the State, or to any city or town, shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and said taxes shall remain a lien upon the said land, although the owner be unknown, or though it be listed in the name of a person not the actual owner; and though the ownership be changed, the land may be sold under the judgment of the court for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs shown to be due by such assessment for any preceding year. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7321. Listed by Tax Collector

The commissioners court of each county shall cause to be prepared by the tax collector, at the expense of the county (the compensation for making out the delinquent tax record to be fixed by the commissioners court) a list of all lands, lots or parts of lots sold to the State for taxes since the first day of January, 1885, and which have not been redeemed in their respective counties and unorganized counties attached thereto, and have such lists recorded in books to be called the "Delinquent Tax Record," showing when the lands or lots were reported delinquent or sold to the State for taxes, also the name of the owner at the time of such sale or delinquency, if known, the number of acres, the amount of taxes due when first sold, and the amount of all taxes assessed against the owner thereof and returned delinquent for each year as shown by the records of the tax collector's office; and, in making up the list or lists contemplated by this chapter, corrections and omissions in the description of any real estate embraced in such list or lists shall be made, so that when the corrections are made and the omissions supplied, the description will be such as is given in the abstracts of all the titled and patented lands in the State of Texas, or such as may be furnished by the Land Commissioner, and it shall be required, in bulk assessments, to apportion to each tract or lot of land separately, its pro rata share of the entire tax, penalty and cost. The list for each county, when certified to by the county judge, and the assessment rolls and books on file in the tax collector's office, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers charged with any duty thereunder, as to the regularity of listing, assessing, levying of all taxes therein mentioned, and reporting as delinquent or sold to the State any real estate whatsoever, and that the amount alleged against said real estate is a true and correct charge; and, in case the description of the property in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to properly identify the same, and of which property there is sufficient description in the inventories in the assessor's office, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property. This delinquent tax record for each county shall be delivered to and preserved by the county clerk in his office; and the commissioners court shall cause a duplicate of same to be sent to the Comptroller; provided, where the records are incomplete in any county, the Comptroller shall furnish such county with a certified copy of the delinquent list for any year or years.

Art. 7321a. Counties of 500,000 Population; Compilation of Delinquent Tax Record

In all counties in this State having a population of five hundred thousand (500,000) or more according to the last preceding Federal Census, or any future Federal Census, the County Tax Collector may cause to be compiled a delinquent tax record of delinquent taxes not barred, where such county has as many as two (2) years delinquency, and the compiled delinquent records shall be examined by the Commissioners Court and Comptroller or Governing Body. The payment for the compilation of such delinquent tax records shall be authorized at actual cost to the Tax Collector, proportionately from each the State and county taxes, or municipal fees collected from such record, such cost in no case to exceed a sum equal to Eight Cents (8¢) per item or written line on the original copy of such record, and in no instance is any compiling cost to be charged to the taxpayer, such cost per item or written line to include all corrections that are ordered made by the Commissioners Court and the Comptroller or Governing Body, and when found correct, the delinquent tax record shall be approved by them. When there are as many as two (2) years of delinquency accumulated taxes which are not shown on the tax record, a recompilation or a two (2) year supplement thereto shall then be made. The Tax Collector shall cause to be compiled like records of taxes delinquent due any district for which they collect from tax rolls other than the State and county rolls and when approved by the Governing Body of the district, the cost of same shall be allowed in the manner herein provided for compiling of records of delinquent State and county taxes. Such delinquent tax records, when approved, shall be prima-facie evidence of the delinquency shown thereon.

Art. 7322. Delinquent Tax Record

On receipt of such delinquent tax record the county clerk of each of the counties of this State, respectively, shall certify the same to the commissioners court for examination and correction, and he shall thereafter cause the same to be recorded in a book labeled the "Delinquent Tax Record of . . . . . County." The delinquent tax record shall be arranged numerically as to abstract numbers, and shall be accompanied by an index showing the names of delinquents in alphabetical order.

Art. 7323. Delinquent Tax List Published

Upon the completion of said delinquent tax record by any county in this State the commissioners court may, in their discretion, cause the same to be published in some newspaper published in the county once each week for three consecutive weeks, but if no newspaper is published in the county, such list may be published in a newspaper outside the county to be designated by the commissioners court, by contract duly entered into, and a publisher's fee of twenty-five cents shall be taxed against each such tract or parcel of land so advertised, which fee, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury; and the commissioners court of said county shall not allow for said publication a greater amount than twenty-five cents for each tract of land so advertised and such publication and any other publication in a newspaper provided for in this chapter may be proved by affidavit of the printer of the newspaper in which the publication was made, his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the publication, specifying the times when and the paper in which publication was made. All corrections made in said record under this article shall be noted in the minutes of the commissioners court, and shall be certified by the county clerk to the Comptroller, who shall note the same upon his delinquent tax record. If such delinquent tax record be not published correctly, in accordance with the copy furnished such newspaper, then no compensation shall be allowed for such publication, but failure to so publish such list shall be no defense to a suit for taxes due. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7324. Notice to Owners of Delinquency

During the month of July each year, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the collector of taxes in each county of this State shall mail to the tax roll address of each owner of any lands or lots situated in the county a notice showing the amount of taxes delinquent or past due and unpaid against all such lands and lots as shown by the delinquent tax record of the county on file in the office of the tax collector, a duplicate of which shall also have been filed in the office of the Comptroller of the State and approved by such office, but failure to send or receive such notice shall be no defense to a suit brought for taxes. Such notice shall also contain a brief description of the lands and lots appearing delinquent and the various sums or amounts due against such lands and lots for each year as they appear to be delinquent, according to such records, and it shall also recite that unless the owner of such lots or land described therein shall pay to the tax collector the amount of taxes, interest, penalties and costs set forth in such notice within thirty days from the date of notice, that the county or district attorney will institute suits for the collection of such moneys and for the foreclosure of the constitutional lien against such lands and lots. Each tax collector, as soon after mailing such notice as practicable, shall furnish to the County or District Attorney duplicates of all such notices mailed to the taxpayers in accordance with the provisions of this law, and also, lists of lands and lots located in the county appearing on the delinquent tax records in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owners," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector is unable by the use of diligence to discover or ascertain, against which taxes are delinquent, past due, and unpaid, and such lists or statements shall show the amount of State and County taxes delinquent, past due, and unpaid against each such tract or lot of land for each year they appear to be delinquent according to the delinquent tax records of the county, and shall likewise contain a brief description of all such lands and lots. The tax collector shall furnish on demand of any person, firm or corporation like statements with reference to any particular lot or tract of land for whatever purpose desired, which shall be in all instances certified by him with the seal of his office attached. Whenever any person, or persons, firm or corporation shall pay to the tax collector all the taxes, interest, penalties and costs shown by the delinquent tax records of the county to be due and unpaid against any tract, lot or parcel of land for all the years for which taxes may be shown to be due and unpaid, prior to the institution of suit for the collection thereof, the tax collector shall issue to such person or persons, firm or corporation, a receipt covering such payment as is now required by law.

Provided that if the House Bill No. 331,<sup>1</sup> pending in the Senate, becomes a law, then the provisions of this Article 7324, so far as they may conflict with said law, shall be controlled by the provisions of said law.

Art. 7325. Notice, How Made Up

In making up the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article, each tax collector shall rely upon the delinquent tax records compiled as required by law, approved by the commissioners court, and a duplicate of which has been filed in the office of the Comptroller, and which has or may be approved by the Comptroller. The tax collector, whenever there shall be one year or more of back taxes that have not been included in such delinquent tax records, shall prepare or cause to be prepared a supplement to such records which shall be prepared in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the county clerk and one copy thereof to be furnished to the Comptroller subject to his approval; and whenever said supplement shall have been approved by the commissioners court and by the Comptroller, the tax collector shall rely thereon for the data covering delinquent taxes for said years in making out the notices or statements provided for in the preceding article. Said tax collector, in making up said delinquent tax record and supplement, shall examine the records of the district court and county clerk's office of his county, and no tract of land shall be shown delinquent on any delinquent tax record for any year where the records of the district court or the county clerk's office show that the taxes for said year have been paid. It shall be the duty of each tax assessor to enter the post-office address of each and every tax-payer after his name on the tax rolls, and the Comptroller shall provide a column for the entry of such addresses on the sheets furnished the assessors for making up the tax rolls.

Art. 7326. Suits to Foreclose Tax Lien

Whenever any taxes on real estate have become delinquent it shall be the duty of the county attorney upon the expiration of the thirty days notice provided for in the two preceding articles or as soon thereafter as practicable, to file suit in the name of the State of Texas in the district court of the county where such real estate is situated, for the total amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs that have remained unpaid for all years since the thirty-first day of December, 1908, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for the trial thereof at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the payment of the several amounts so specified therein and shown to be due and unpaid by the delinquent tax records of said county; and also that such land be sold to satisfy said judgment for all taxes, interest, penalty and costs, and for such other relief as the State may be entitled to under the law and facts. All suits to enforce the collection of taxes as provided in this law shall include all lands in the county where the suit is brought, owned by the same person on which delinquent taxes are due, and shall take precedence over all other suits pending in said district court. If through mistake, oversight or otherwise any tax due on any land owned by the defendant is omitted from such suit, such omission shall not be any defense against the collection of the tax due and sued for. All delinquent tax records of said county in any county where such suit is brought shall be prima facie evidence of the true and correct amount of taxes and costs due by the defendant or defendants in such suit, and the same or certified copies thereof shall be admissible in the trial of such suit as evidence thereof. Such suit shall be brought as an ordinary foreclosure for debt, with averments as to the existence of a lien upon such land for such taxes, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, and shall pray for judgment for the foreclosure of the said lien and sale of said lands as under ordinary execution. The county attorney, or the attorney employed by the commissioners court, shall sign such petition as attorney for plaintiff. The county tax collector and county tax assessor shall furnish all affidavits, certified copies of the records of their respective offices and such other evidence as may be in their possession by virtue of such office as may be applied for by the proper attorney prosecuting such suit, and shall be allowed a fee of fifty cents for each certified copy furnished upon such application. If the amount of taxes delinquent is not more than five dollars the commissioners court may have such suit for five dollars or less instituted or not as said court may deem to be for the best interests of the county.

Art. 7326a. All Taxes, Penalties and Interest to be Included

In all suits to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes brought by any duly authorized and constituted taxing authority, in addition to all delinquent taxes which may then be due, all other taxes, plus interest and penalties thereon, as provided in Section (a), Article 7336 shall be computed and prorated by the tax collector and assessor of such taxing authority up to and including the date on which judgment is rendered in such suit, so as to cover all taxes, interest and penalties which would become payable on the lands on which such suit has been brought. Proration of taxes on the current year shall be based on the tax for the preceding year, unless the tax for the current year shall have been by then determined and set, in which event the proration shall be based on the new assessment and rate, and such proration made to the date on which judgment is given.

Art. 7327. Unknown Owner

In respect to lands and lots appearing on lists furnished by the tax collector to the county or district attorney in accordance with the provisions of this law, as lands and lots located in the county which appear on the delinquent tax record in the name of "unknown" or "unknown owner," or in the name of persons whose correct address or place of residence in or out of the county said collector has been unable, by due diligence to discover or ascertain, the county attorney or in the counties having no county attorney, the district attorney, immediately after the lists of such lands have been furnished him by the collector shall proceed to collect all taxes, penalty, interest and costs then due against the same in the manner prescribed in this chapter.

Art. 7328. Proceedings in Tax Suits

The proper persons, including all record lien holders, shall be made parties defendant in such suit, and shall be served with process and other proceedings had therein as provided by law in ordinary foreclosure suits in the district courts of this state; and in case of foreclosure an order of sale shall issue and the land sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure; but if the defendant or his attorney shall, at any time before the sale, file with the officer in whose hands any such order of sale shall be placed, a written request that the property described therein shall be divided and sold in smaller tracts than the whole, together with the description of such smaller tracts, then such officer shall sell the lands in such subdivisions as defendant may request, and in such case shall sell only as many subdivisions, as near as may be, as are necessary to satisfy the judgment, interest, penalty and costs and after the payment of the taxes, interest, penalty and costs adjudged against it, the remainder of the purchase price, if any, shall be paid by the sheriff to the clerk of the court out of which said execution or other final process issued to be retained by him subject to the order of the court for a period of two years, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time the court may order the same to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed; provided, any one claiming the same shall make proof of his claim to the satisfaction of the State Treasurer within three years after the sale of said land or lots, after which the same shall be governed by the law regulating escheat. If there shall be no bidder for such land the county attorney, sheriff or other officer selling the same, shall bid said property off to the State for the amount of all taxes, penalty, interest and costs adjudged against such property, and the district clerk shall immediately make report of such sale in duplicate, one to the Comptroller and one to the Commissioners' Court, on blanks to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller. Where the property is bid off to the State, the sheriff shall make and execute a deed to the State, using forms to be prescribed and furnished by the Comptroller, showing in each case, the amount of taxes, interest, penalty and costs for which sold, and the clerk's fees for recording deeds. He shall cause such deeds to be recorded in the record of deeds by the county clerk in his county, and when so recorded, shall forward the same to the Comptroller. The county clerk shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for recording each such deed to the State, to be taxed as other costs. When land thus sold to the State shall be redeemed the tax collector shall make the proper distribution of the moneys received by him in such redemption, paying to each officer the amount of costs found to be due, and to the State and county the taxes, interest and penalty found to be due each respectively. If any of the land thus sold to the State is not redeemed within the time prescribed by this law, the sheriff shall sell the same at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the principal entrance to the court house in the county wherein the land lies, after giving notice of sale in the manner now prescribed for sale of real estate under execution, provided when notice is given by posting notices, one of the said notices shall be posted in a conspicuous place upon the land to be sold. Said notice shall contain a legal description of the land to be sold; the date of its purchase by the State, the price for which the land was sold to the State; that it will be sold at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash, date and place of sale. All sales contemplated herein shall be made in the manner prescribed for the sale of real estate under execution, and the sheriff is hereby authorized, and it is hereby made his duty to reject any and all bids for said land when in his judgment the amount bid is insufficient or inadequate, and in event said bid or bids are rejected the land shall be re-advertised and offered for sale as provided for herein, but the acceptance by the sheriff of the bid shall be conclusive and binding on the question of the sufficiency of the bid, and no action shall be sustained in any court of this State to set aside said sale on grounds of the insufficiency of the amount bid and accepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting the State, acting through the county attorney of the county wherein the land lies, or its Attorney General, from instituting an action to set aside the said sale on the grounds of fraud or collusion between the officer making the sale and the purchaser. The sheriff shall send the amount received from such sale to the State Treasurer after deducting the amount of the county taxes, interest and penalty of the county tax which he shall pay to the county treasurer. The sheriff, in behalf of the State, shall execute a deed conveying title to said property when sold and paid for.

Art. 7336. Penalty

(a) If any person shall pay, on or before November thirtieth of the year for which their assessment is made, one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the taxes imposed by law on him or his property, then he shall have until and including the thirtieth day of the succeeding June, within which to pay the other one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of his said taxes without penalty or interest thereon.

If said taxpayer, after paying said one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of his taxes on or before November thirtieth, as hereinbefore provided, shall fail or refuse to pay, on or before June thirtieth next succeeding said November, the other one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of his said taxes, a penalty of eight (8%) per cent of the amount of said unpaid taxes shall accrue thereon.

If any person fails to pay one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of the taxes, imposed by law upon him or his property, on or before the thirtieth day of November of the year for which the assessment is made, then unless he pays all of the taxes (imposed by law on him or his property), on or before the thirty-first day of the succeeding January, the following penalty shall be payable thereon, to-wit: During the month of February, one (1%) per cent; during the month of March, two (2%) per cent; during the month of April, three (3%) per cent; during the month of May, four (4%) per cent; during the month of June, five (5%) per cent; and on and after the first day of July, eight (8%) per cent.

(b) All poll taxes and all ad valorem taxes, unless one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) thereof have been paid on or before November thirtieth as hereinabove provided, shall become delinquent if not paid prior to February first of the year next succeeding the year for which the return of the assessment rolls of the county are made to the Comptroller of Public Accounts. If one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of said ad valorem taxes have been paid on or before the thirtieth day of November as herein provided, the remaining one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of such taxes shall be delinquent if not paid before the first day of July of the year next succeeding the year for which the return of the assessment rolls of the county are made to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

(c) If one-half ( $\frac{1}{2}$ ) of such ad valorem taxes have been paid on or before November thirtieth of the year in which the same are assessed, the discounts herein provided for shall be effective and shall apply to the last half of the ad valorem taxes if paid ninety (90), sixty (60), and thirty (30) days, respectively, prior to the first day of July, when the same become delinquent as herein provided; but such discount shall not apply to the first half of such taxes if the same have been paid on or before November thirtieth of the year in which such assessment is made.

(d) All delinquent taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six (6%) per cent per annum from the date of their delinquency. All penalties and interest provided for in this Act shall, when collected, be paid to the State, counties, and districts, if any, in proportion to the taxes upon which the penalty and interest are collected. All discounts provided for in this Act shall, when allowed, be charged to the State, counties, and districts, if any, in proportion to the taxes upon which such discounts are allowed.

(e) The Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall, as of the first day of July of each year for which any State, county and district taxes for the preceding year remain unpaid, make up a list of the lands and lots and/or property on which any taxes for such preceding year are delinquent, charging against the same all unpaid taxes assessed against the owner thereof on the rolls for said year.

Penalties, interest and costs accrued against any land, lots and/or property need not be entered by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes on said list, but in each and every instance all such penalties, interest and costs shall be and remain a statutory charge with the same force and effect as if entered on said list, and the Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall calculate and charge all such penalties, interest and costs on all delinquent tax statements or delinquent tax receipts issued by him.

Said list shall be made in triplicate and presented to the Commissioners' Court for examination and correction, and after being so examined and corrected said list in triplicate shall be approved by said Court. One copy thereof shall be filed with the County Clerk or Auditor, one copy retained and filed by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, and one copy forwarded to the Comptroller with the annual settlement report of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes. Said list, as compiled by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, and corrected by the Commissioners' Court, or the rolls or books on file in the office of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, shall be prima facie evidence that all the requirements of the law have been complied with by the officers of courts charged with any duty thereunder, as to regularity of listing, assessing, and levying all taxes therein set out, and that the amount assessed against said real estate is a true and correct charge. If the description of the real estate in said list or assessment rolls or books is not sufficient to identify the same, but there is a sufficient description of the inventories in the office of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, then said inventories shall be admissible as evidence of the description of said property.

The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall prescribe suitable forms to be used by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes for noting thereon the payment of taxes in semi-annual installments. He shall also prescribe suitable forms for receipts, reports and for any other purpose necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

This provision is cumulative of all other provisions of the Statutes of the State prescribing the duties of the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Sec. 1. In any county, city, or district in which the tax assessor-collector fails to issue notices of the amount of the tax due before the first day of February of the year following the tax year, penalties for delinquent taxes shall be assessed as prescribed by Chapter 221, Acts of the 62nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1971, as amended (Article 7100, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925), and Article 7336, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Sec. 2. When determining the amount of the tax due for a tax year within two years immediately following the tax year for which the assessor-collector failed to issue timely notice, the assessor-collector shall allow a tax credit equal to the amount of the penalty assessed, provided that:

(2) the property for which the credit is given is legally identical to the property on which the taxes and penalties were paid. "Legally identical" refers to property having the same legal description in terms of metes and bounds, lot and block number, or other description appearing on the tax notice, but does not refer to any change in the record owner of the property.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any penalties accruing on taxes which became delinquent after January 31, 1973, or prior to January 31, 1970. [Acts 1973, 63rd Leg., p. 17, ch. 13, eff. March 22, 1973.]

Art. 7338. Exemptions From This Chapter

Real estate which may have been rendered for taxes and paid under erroneous description given in assessment rolls, or lands that may have been duly assessed and taxes paid on one assessment, or lands which may have been assessed and taxes paid thereon in a county other than the one in which they are located, or lands which may have been sold to the State and upon which taxes have been paid and through error not credited in the assessment rolls, shall not be deemed subject to the provisions of this chapter. When called upon, the Land Commissioner shall furnish the county judge of any county compiling its own delinquent tax record with such information as may enable him to determine the validity or locality of such surveys and grants as have not been shown by the printed abstracts of the Land Office. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7339. May Redeem Before Sale

Any delinquent taxpayer whose lands have been returned delinquent or reported sold to the State for taxes due thereon, or any one having an interest therein, may redeem the same at any time before his lands are sold under the provisions of this chapter, by paying to the collector the taxes due thereon since January first, 1885, with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and all costs and the penalty of ten per cent.

Art. 7340. May Redeem From State

evidence of ownership to entitle the party so claiming ownership to the right to redeem such land; and he shall not be required to deraign title from the sovereignty, or shall any hiatus or defect in his chain of title defeat the offered redemption. Nothing herein shall be held to limit the right of one offering to redeem to prove ownership otherwise than herein provided, nor prevent any one having the superior title from redeeming such land within two years from the date of the tax sale by paying to the person who has previously redeemed such lands the amounts provided by law.

If there is no newspaper published in the county, then notice may be given by publication in a paper in an adjoining county. A maximum fee of Two (2) Cents per word for the first insertion of such publication and One Cent per word for each subsequent insertion, or not more than the lowest published word or line rate of such newspaper shall be taxed as costs in such cases and shall be paid to the newspaper publishing said citation. If the State bids the land in at such sale, the Comptroller shall allow the Collector the amount of such publisher's fee to be paid by the Collector to the publisher. If the publication of such citation cannot be had for such fee, then publication of the citation herein provided may be made by posting a copy at three different places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door. It shall be lawful in all cases to set forth in the petition the names of all parties interested as far as ascertained, and make them parties, and also to join and make defendants all persons having or claiming any legal or equitable interest in the land described in the petition. #### Art. 7343. Similar Proceedings by Cities and Independent School Districts

In any incorporated city or town in which any tracts, lots, outlots or blocks of land, situated within the corporate limits of said city or town have been returned delinquent, or reported sold to said city or town for the taxes due thereon, the governing body may prepare or cause to be prepared lists of delinquents in the same manner as provided in this chapter, and such lists shall be certified to as correct by the mayor of said city or town, if any, and if said city or town has no mayor, by the presiding officer of the governing body. After said lists have been properly certified to, the governing body of the city may cause lists of delinquents to be published in a newspaper as provided for State and county delinquent taxes in this law. When twenty days from the date of last publication of said list or lists of delinquents has elapsed, the governing body of the city or town may direct the city attorney to file suits for collection of said taxes, or said governing body may employ some other attorney of the county to file suits and the city attorney or other attorney filing said suits shall be entitled to the same fees as allowed the county attorney or district attorney in suits for collection of State and county taxes, to be taxed as costs in the suit. Independent school districts may collect their delinquent taxes as above provided for cities and towns, the school board performing the duties above described for the governing body of cities, and the president of the school board performing the duties above prescribed for the mayor or other presiding officer. The school board may, when the delinquent tax lists and records are properly prepared and ready for suits to be filed, instruct the county attorney to file said suits. If the school board instructs the county attorney to file said suits and he fails or refuses to do so within sixty days the school board may employ some other attorney of the county to file suit. The county attorney, or other attorney, filing tax suits for independent school districts, shall be entitled to the same fees as provided by law in suits for State and county taxes. No other county officer shall receive any fees unless services are actually performed, and in that event he shall only receive such fees as are now allowed him by law for similar services in civil suits. The employment of an attorney to file suit for taxes for cities, towns or independent school districts shall authorize said attorney to file said suits, swear to the petitions and perform such other acts as are necessary in the collection of said taxes.

All laws of this State for the purpose of collecting delinquent State and county taxes are by this law made available for, and when invoked shall be applied to, the collection of delinquent taxes of cities and towns and independent school districts in so far as such laws are applicable.

The cost of making said survey and plats shall be defrayed by the county in which said property is situated, and of which said commissioners court ordered the said surveys and plat made and the cost of any map of a town or city shall be paid by such city or town when ordered by the town or city.

The laws governing ordinary foreclosure suits in the District Courts of this State shall control the question of parties, issuance, and service of process and other proceedings in tax suits, save and except as herein otherwise provided. The following special provisions shall apply to and govern the question of parties and issuance and service of process in tax suits:

(a) When the names of the owner or owners of the property against which foreclosure of the tax lien is sought are unknown to the attorney filing the suit for the plaintiff taxing unit, such unknown owner or owners may be made parties and given notice under the designation "unknown owner or owners of the hereinafter described land"; provided, however, that record owners of the property or any interest therein, including record lien holders, shall not be included in the designation of "unknown owners"; and persons within a period of five (5) years next preceding the filing of the suit, shall not be included in the designation of "unknown owners." When the owner of the property is deceased, and the names of the heirs of such former owner are unknown to the attorney filing the suit for the plaintiff taxing unit, such unknown heirs may be made parties and given notice under the designation of "unknown heirs" of such deceased person, subject to the same provisions and restrictions as above set out with reference to making parties under the designation of "unknown owner or owners."

(b) Where any defendant in such suit is a resident of the State of Texas and his residence is known to the attorney filing said suit, process shall issue for service on such defendant and be served and returned as directed by Articles 2021 to 2034, inclusive, of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas. Provided, however, that a statement of the nature of the cause of action conforming to the requirement for notices by publication as hereinafter set forth in paragraph (d) below shall be sufficient in such citation, when required.

(c) Where any defendant in such suit is absent from the State or is a nonresident of the State, it shall be sufficient to serve said defendant with notice accompanied by a certified copy of plaintiff's petition as provided in Article 2037 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, and it shall be sufficient to serve such notice in the manner provided in Article 2038 of the 1925 Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas, or in the alternative, service may be had on such defendant by publication as provided in Section 3(d) hereof.

(d) Where any defendant in such suit is a nonresident of the State, where the names of the owner or owners of said property are unknown to the attorney filing the suit for the plaintiff taxing unit, where the residence of any defendant is unknown to such attorney, and where the names of the defendant heirs of any deceased person are unknown to such attorney, and such facts are recited in the petition, service of notice by publication is hereby authorized in each and all of such cases, and all defendants of classes enumerated just above may be joined in one notice; and where service is had by publication, such notice shall be directed to the defendants by name, or by designation as hereinabove provided, and shall be issued and signed by the clerk. Such notices for publication shall be sufficient if they contain the number and style of the case, the names of all parties plaintiff, intervenors and defendants, the Court in which the suit is pending and when to appear and defend the suit, which shall be the first day of the next term of the Court in which the suit is filed; and, as a statement of the nature of the suit, such notices shall show the amount of the taxes alleged to be due each plaintiff and intervenor, exclusive of interest, penalties, and costs, and shall recite that all interest, penalties, and costs allowed by law are included in the suit, a brief general description of the property, and shall also contain, in substance, a recitation that each party to such suit shall take notice of, and plead and answer to, all claims and pleadings then on file or thereafter filed in said cause by all other parties therein. Such notices shall be published in some newspaper published in the county in which the property is located one time a week for two (2) consecutive weeks, the first publication to be not less than fourteen (14) days prior to the first day of the term of Court to which returnable; and the affidavit of the editor or publisher of the newspaper giving the dates of publication, together with a printed copy of the notice as published, attached to such notice, shall constitute sufficient proof of due publication when returned and filed in Court. If there is no newspaper published in the county, then said publication may be made in a newspaper in an adjoining county. A maximum fee of Two and One-half (2½) Cents per line (6 words to count for a line) for each insertion may be taxed for publishing said notice. If the publication of such notice cannot be had for such fee, then service of the notice herein provided may be made by posting a copy at the Courthouse door of the county in which the suit is pending, such notice to be posted at least fourteen (14) days prior to the first day of the term of Court to which it is returnable. When notice is given as herein provided it shall be sufficient, and no other form of citation or notice shall be necessary on such defendants.

(e) Any process authorized by this Act may issue jointly in behalf of all taxing units who are plaintiffs and/or intervenors in any suit. After citation and/or notice has been given on behalf of any plaintiff and/or intervenor taxing units, the Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the tax claims of all taxing units who are parties plaintiff, intervenor or defendant at the time such process is issued; and any taxing unit that has been made a party defendant to such suit may by answer or intervention set up and have determined its tax claims without the necessity of further citation or notice to any parties to such suit.

Pleading and Answering to Claims Filed

Sec. 4. Each party to such suit shall take notice of, and plead and answer to, all claims and pleadings then on file or thereafter filed in said cause by all other parties therein, and the citation upon each defendant shall so recite.

Proof and Finding of Reasonable and Fair Value; "Adjudged Value," Defined; Burden of Proof

Sec. 5. Upon the trial of said cause the Court shall hear evidence upon the reasonable fair value of the property, and shall incorporate in its judgment a finding of the reasonable fair value thereof, in bulk or in parcels, either or both, as the Court may deem proper, which reasonable fair value so found by the Court is hereafter sometimes styled "adjudged value," which "adjudged value" shall be the value as of the date of the trial and shall not necessarily be the value at the time the assessment of the taxes was made; provided, that the burden of proof shall be on the owner or owners of such property in establishing the "fair value" or adjudged value as provided in this section.

Costs and Expenses; Approval by Court

Sec. 6. All court costs, including costs of serving process, in any suit hereafter brought by or in behalf of any taxing units for delinquent taxes in which suits all other taxing units having a delinquent tax claim against such property of any part thereof, have been impleaded, together with all expenses of foreclosure sale and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be incurred by the interpleaded or intervening taxing units, not exceeding ten per cent (10%) of the amount sued for, such attorney's fees to be subject to the approval of the court together with such reasonable expenses as the taxing units may incur in procuring data and information as to the name, identity and location of necessary parties and in procuring necessary legal descriptions of the property, shall be chargeable as court costs.

Order of Sale on Foreclosure; Sale

Sec. 7. In the case of foreclosure, an order of sale shall issue, and, except as herein otherwise provided, the land shall be sold thereunder as in other cases of foreclosure of tax liens.

Sale for Less Than Adjudged Value or Aggregate of Judgments in Suit to Party other than Taxing Unit Prohibited; Distribution of Proceeds

Sec. 8. No property sold for taxes under decree in such suit shall be sold to the owner of said property, directly or indirectly or to anyone having an interest therein, or to any party other than a taxing unit which is a party to the suit, for less than the amount of the adjudged value aforesaid of said property or the aggregate amount of the judgments against the property in said suit, whichever is lower, and the net proceeds of any sale of such property made under decree of court in said suit to any party other than any such taxing unit shall belong and be distributed to all taxing units which are parties to the suit which by the judgment in said suit have been found to have tax liens against such property, pro rata and in proportion to the amounts of their respective tax liens as established in said judgment, but any excess in the proceeds of sale over and above the amount necessary to defray the costs of suit and sale and other expenses hereinabove made chargeable against such proceeds, and to fully discharge the judgments against said property, shall be paid by the sheriff or constable making the sale to the clerk of the court out of which execution or other final process issued to be retained and disposed of by him as follows:

Such excess funds shall be retained by the clerk of the court for a period of three (3) years from the date received, unless otherwise ordered by the court, after which time he shall forward such excess funds to the State Treasurer, who shall hold the same in trust to be paid to the owner against whom said taxes were assessed or the heirs or legal representative of a deceased owner. The clerk shall note upon the execution docket in each such case the amount of such excess funds, the date received by him, and the date transmitted to the State Treasurer, and shall accompany such remittance with a statement upon a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller showing the style and number of the case, the court from which execution issued, which statement shall be filed and kept by the Treasurer and a duplicate thereof shall be forwarded to the Comptroller, who shall also keep an account of such excess funds transmitted to the Treasury.

At any time within four (4) years from the date such excess funds are forwarded to the State Treasurer by the clerk of the court, anyone claiming the same may file a petition in the case out of which execution or other final process issued, setting forth in said petition the basis upon which claimant claims such excess funds, and the court shall set the same for hearing. A copy of such petition shall be served on the County or District Attorney of the county, at least twenty (20) days prior to the date of hearing, and a copy of such petition shall be forwarded to the State Treasurer and the Comptroller. The County Attorney, or District Attorney if there be no County Attorney, of such county, shall represent the State at such hearing.

If the court shall find that such claimant is entitled to recover such excess funds, it shall make an order directing the Comptroller to issue his warrant on the Treasury against such trust funds for the payment of same, but without interest or cost; a copy of which order under the seal of the court shall be sufficient voucher for issuing such warrant.

After expiration of four (4) years from date such excess funds are received by the Treasurer he shall transfer the same from the trust fund to the general revenue fund unless there is then pending a petition by a claimant of such excess funds not acted upon, and if such claimant has not within four (4) years as herein provided filed a petition for such excess funds, the same shall be forever barred, and no claim shall be thereafter filed or allowed.

This Act shall apply to and govern the handling and disposition of excess funds arising from delinquent tax sales in the hands of the District Clerk or the State Treasurer at the effective date of this Act. The District Clerk shall submit to the State Treasurer all such excess funds which have been in his hands three (3) years or more prior to the effective date of this Act, but the District Clerk shall have thirty (30) days from the effective date of this Act to comply herewith, and such excess funds may be claimed within four (4) years from the effective date of this Act in the same manner as such funds transmitted to the State Treasurer under the terms of this Act after its effective date.

After the expiration of four (4) years from the effective date of this Act such excess funds remaining in the trust fund, unless a petition is then pending claiming such funds, the State Treasurer shall transfer all of such unclaimed funds from the trust fund to the general revenue fund and thereafter the claim for such funds shall be forever barred and no claim shall be thereafter filed or allowed.

Purchasing Taxing Unit to Hold Property for Itself and Other Taxing Units
Adjudged to Have Liens; Sale by Purchasing Taxing Unit; Proceeds;
Failure to Sell Within Six Months after Redemption Period Expires

Sec. 9. If the property be sold to any taxing unit which is a party to the judgment under decree of Court in said suit, the title to said property shall be bid in and held by the taxing unit purchasing same for the use and benefit of itself and all other taxing units which are parties to the suit and which have been adjudged in said suit to have tax liens against such property, pro rata and in proportion to the amount of the tax liens in favor of said respective taxing units as established by the judgment in said suit, and costs and expenses shall not be payable until sale by such taxing unit so purchasing same. The taxing unit may sell and convey said property so purchased by it, or which has heretofore been purchased in the name of any officer thereof, at any time in any manner determined to be most advantageous to said taxing unit or units either at public or private sale, subject to any then existing right of redemption; and the purchaser of the property at any such sale shall receive all of the right, title and interest in said property as was acquired and is then held by said taxing unit under such tax foreclosure sale to it; but such property shall not be sold by the taxing unit purchasing the same, at private sale, for less than the adjudged value thereof, if any, as established in the tax judgment, or the total amount for which such judgment was rendered against the property in said suit, whichever is lower, without the written consent of all taxing units which in said judgment shall have been found to have tax liens against said property. All such consents shall be evidenced by the joinder in the conveyance by the consenting taxing units, acting by the officers herein authorized to give such consents. Consent to such sales in behalf of the State of Texas may be given by the County Tax Collector of the county in which the property is located; and consents on behalf of other taxing units may be given by the presiding officers of their governing bodies. Deeds executed hereunder by taxing units shall be executed in their behalf by the presiding officer of their governing body and whose authority to so act in any given case shall be prima facie presumed. When such property is so sold at public or private sale, the proceeds thereof shall be received by or paid over to the taxing unit which purchased said property at the tax foreclosure sale, for the account of itself and all other taxing units adjudged to have a tax lien against such property, and all taxing units so receiving said proceeds shall first pay out of the same all costs and expenses of Court and of sale, and distribute the remainder among all taxing units for which purchasing taxing unit purchased and held said property, pro rata and in proportion to the amounts of their tax liens against said property as established in said judgment. Public sales hereinabove provided for may either be made by the Sheriff, at the request of the taxing unit purchasing the property at the tax foreclosure sale, or by any Commissioner appointed by such taxing unit by resolution of its governing body. If the State of Texas is the taxing unit which purchased said property at the tax foreclosure sale, the Commissioners Court of the county in which the property is located shall have authority to act for the State of Texas in making private sales and conveyances of said property, as herein provided, or in requesting the Sheriff, or in appointing a Commissioner, to make public sale thereof, and in receiving and distributing the proceeds of such sales; and all sales and conveyances made in behalf of the State of Texas by the Commissioners Court, or made by the Sheriff or any Commissioner appointed by the Commissioners Court, under the provisions hereof, shall operate to transfer to the purchaser at such sale all right, title and interest acquired or held by the State of Texas as purchaser at the tax foreclosure sale. Any taxing unit, Sheriff, or Commissioner appointed by a taxing unit, making any sale under provisions hereof shall execute and deliver to the purchaser at such sale a deed of conveyance, conveying all right, title and interest of all the taxing units interested in the tax foreclosure judgment in and to the property so sold; provided, if the period for the redemption of said property from said tax foreclosure sale has not expired at the time of said sale, said conveyance shall be made expressly subject to the right of redemption provided in Section 12 of said Act.

Provided, however, that the methods of sale above set out shall not be exclusive and that if sale has not been made by, or at the instance of, the purchasing taxing unit within six (6) months after the redemption period has expired, any taxing unit which has obtained judgment in said suit may force the sale of said property by the Sheriff by written request to the Sheriff, and in the event such written request is so made to the Sheriff it shall be his duty to sell said property at public sale as hereinafter provided. All public sales provided for in this Section shall be made in the manner prescribed for the sale of real estate under execution. The notice of the sale shall contain a legal description of the property to be sold, the number and style of the suit under which same was sold at tax foreclosure sale and the date of said tax foreclosure sale; and the Sheriff or other officer making such sale is hereby authorized and it is hereby made his duty, to reject any and all bids for said land when in his judgment the amount bid is insufficient or inadequate, and in the event said bid or bids are rejected, the land shall be readvertised and offered for sale as herein provided, but the acceptance by the Sheriff or other officer authorized to make such sale of a bid for said land shall be conclusive and binding on the question of the sufficiency of the bid, and no action shall be sustained in any Court of this State to set aside said sale on the grounds of the inadequacy of the amount bid and accepted. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any taxing unit participating in said judgment from instituting action to set aside the said sale on the grounds of fraud or collusion between the officer making the sale and the purchaser, provided that such action be brought within two (2) years after such sale is made, and not afterward. The Sheriff or other officer making any such sale shall receive and pay over the proceeds thereof as hereinabove provided, and the same shall be distributed as herein provided.

All sales and conveyances heretofore made by taxing units, or officers thereof, of property purchased by them, or in the name of any officer thereof, at tax foreclosure sales, for the benefit of themselves and all other taxing units interested in the tax judgment, and all sales heretofore made by the Commissioners Courts, or the Attorney General joined by the County Tax Collector, of property purchased by the State of Texas at tax foreclosure sales for the benefit of itself and other taxing units, are hereby in all things confirmed and validated; provided that this validating provision shall in no way apply to or validate any such sale the validity of which is challenged in any now pending litigation; nor shall the same apply to or validate any such sale, in cases where the Sheriff upon written request of any taxing unit, has thereafter made sale of the same property at public outcry and all such so made by the Sheriff as provided in Section 9 of said Act prior to the taking effect of this Amendment, and all such sales so made by the Sheriff are hereby in all things confirmed and validated.

No action attacking the validity of any resale of property purchased by a taxing unit at a tax foreclosure sale, or any of said sale hereafter made in accordance with, or purporting to be made in accordance with, this Section shall be commenced after the expiration of one (1) year from the date of such sale.

Title of Purchaser

Sec. 10. The purchaser of property sold for taxes in such foreclosure suit shall take title free and clear of all liens and claims for ad valorem taxes against such property delinquent at the time of judgment in said suit to any taxing unit which was a party to said suit, or which had been served with citation in said suit as required by this Act. Provided, the term "all liens and claims for ad valorem taxes" shall never be construed to include assessments for maintenance and operation purposes on a pro rata per acre basis against irrigable lands authorized by law to be made by water improvement districts, or water control and improvement districts, and no judgment foreclosing such liens and claims for ad valorem taxes shall ever prejudice the collection of said assessments or the liens securing same.

Subrogation of Purchaser at Void Sale

Sec. 10a. The purchaser at a void or defective tax judicial sale shall be subrogated to the rights of the taxing units in whose favor the judgment was entered, to the same extent and effect as would a purchaser be subrogated to the rights of judgment creditors other than taxing units; and the purchaser at a void or defective judicial tax lien foreclosure sale shall be subrogated to the rights and tax liens of the taxing units in whose favor the judgment was entered, to the same extent and effect as would a purchaser be subrogated to the rights and liens had he purchased at a void or defective mortgage or other lien foreclosure sale, and shall be an assignee of the liens foreclosed, and be entitled to a reforeclosure of the lien or liens to which he was thereby subrogated; provided, however, that such subrogation shall extend only to the amount of the tax actually paid by the purchaser at such void or defective judicial tax lien foreclosure sale.

Suits Entitled to Precedence

Sec. 11. Suits for delinquent taxes shall have precedence and priority in the District Courts of this State, and in the Appellate Courts thereof.

Judgment; Redemption, Right To

Sec. 12. In all suits heretofore or hereafter filed to collect delinquent taxes against property, judgment in said suit shall provide for the issuance of writ of possession within twenty (20) days after the period of redemption shall have expired to the purchaser at foreclosure sale or its or his assigns; but whenever land is sold under judgment in such suit for taxes, the owner of such property, or anyone having an interest therein, or their heirs, assigns or legal representatives, may, within two (2) years from the date of the filing for record of the purchaser's deed and not thereafter, have the right to redeem said property from such purchaser on the following basis, to wit:

(1) Within the first year of the redemption period, upon the payment of the amount of the bid for the property by the purchaser at such sale, including a One Dollar ($1) tax deed recording fee and all taxes, penalties, interest and costs thereafter paid thereon, plus twenty-five per cent (25%) of the aggregate total.

(2) Within the last year of the redemption period, upon the payment of the amount bid for the property at such sale, including a One Dollar ($1) tax deed recording fee and all taxes, penalties, interest and costs thereafter paid thereon, plus fifty per cent (50%) of the aggregate total; and no further or additional amount than herein specified shall be required to be paid to effect any such redemption.

In addition to redeeming direct from the purchaser, as aforesaid, redemption may also be made upon the basis hereinabove defined as provided in Articles 7284 and 7285, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925. The term "purchaser" as used in this Section shall include any taxing unit purchasing property at tax foreclosure sale.

Distribution of Redemption Money

Sec. 12-a. In all cases in which property has been redeemed from a taxing unit, as provided in Section 12 of this Act, while said property is still held by such taxing unit, the taxing unit to whom the redemption money is paid shall distribute and apply said money in the same manner as provided in Section 9 of this Act for the application and distribution of the proceeds of the resale of land; but if the land so redeemed from a taxing unit has been resold during the period of redemption, the redemption money shall be distributed pro tanto by the taxing unit receiving the same, as follows:

(a) If the redemption occurs within one (1) year after the date of the resale of said land, the purchaser at such resale shall receive, out of the redemption money, the amount paid by him for the property at such resale, plus twenty-five per cent (25%) of such amount; or

(b) If said redemption occurs more than one (1) year after the resale of such land, the purchaser at such resale shall receive, out of the redemption money, the amount paid by him for the property at such resale, plus fifty per cent (50%) of such amount; and

(c) The remainder of such redemption money, if any, after payment to the purchaser at the resale as herein provided shall be distributed, pro rata, to the taxing units adjudged in the tax foreclosure judgment to have a tax lien against the property, in the proportions of the amounts for which such liens were established.

Provisions of Act Cumulative; Effect of Conflict with Other Acts

Sec. 13. The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of and in addition to all other rights and remedies to which any taxing unit may be entitled, but as to any proceeding brought under this Act, if any part or portion of this Act be in conflict with any part or portion of any law of the State, the terms and provisions of this Act shall govern as to such proceeding. The provisions of Chapter 10, Title 122 of the Revised Civil Statutes of 1925 shall govern suits brought under this Act except as herein provided.

Partition of Lands Involved in Tax Suits

Sec. 15. Where suits are filed for delinquent taxes under the provisions of this Act, and the land is owned undivided by two (2) or more persons, any one or more persons owning an undivided interest in such land, may have the same partitioned as now provided by law for the partition of real estate by the district courts of this State. When said land has been partitioned and set aside in severalty to the respective owners thereof, the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs shall be apportioned and taxed against the respective owners thereof in proportion to their respective interests in the whole, and upon the payment of taxes, penalties, interest, and costs so apportioned and taxed against such owner, and the land so set aside and partitioned to such owner in severalty, the same shall constitute full and final payment of all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs owing by such owner involved in such suit, and the land so partitioned shall thereafter be free from any further claim or lien for the taxes involved in said suit against said owner.

Provided, however, any owner or owners of a portion thereof so set aside and apportioned to him in such partition proceeding as herein provided shall fail or refuse to pay the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs taxed and apportioned against him and his interest, such suit shall proceed to a conclusion in accordance with all other provisions of this Act as to such owner and land, and the Court shall render judgment accordingly, omitting from said judgment such owner or owners and the land apportioned to such owner or owners in said partition proceeding as the taxes, penalties, interest, and costs have been paid as herein provided.

In addition to the fees now allowed by law to the county, district, or other attorney authorized by law to represent the State and county in suits provided by this Act for delinquent taxes, the judge of the district Court trying the case shall allow such attorney an additional fee for services occasioned by a partition of said land, where a partition is sought, a sum not to exceed Five Dollars ($5) per acre for each separate tract so partitioned, the same to be taxed as part of the costs against the respective owners in proportion to their interest in the whole, the same to constitute a lien against said land until paid, and when paid shall be paid over by the tax collector to the county, district, or other attorney entitled under the law to receive the same.

"Owner" as herein used shall mean any person, male or female, firm or corporation owning an interest in said land.

Art. 7345b-1. Venue of Suits to Collect Delinquent Ad Valorem Taxes

All actions or suits for the collection of delinquent ad valorem taxes on either real or personal property due the State of Texas or any political subdivisions thereof, shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County in which such taxes were levied.

Art. 7345b-2. Payment of Publication Costs

Sec. 1. Whenever costs for publishing citation or any other notice in a newspaper are incurred in a suit brought by any taxing unit for the collection of delinquent taxes, the cost of such publication shall be paid to the newspaper making such publication out of the general funds of the taxing unit as soon as practicable after receipt of the publisher's claim for payment. If more than one taxing unit is a party to the suit, payment of the publication costs shall be made to the newspaper by the taxing unit which filed the suit, and that taxing unit shall be entitled to reimbursement from the other taxing units which are parties to the suit for their pro-rata share of the costs upon satisfaction of the tax indebtedness or any portion thereof, either by voluntary payment of the indebtedness or by sale of property to a purchaser other than a taxing unit which is a party to the suit.

Sec. 2. The cost of publishing notice of sale of real or personal property to be sold under execution to satisfy any claim or judgment in favor of the State or any county, city, school district, or any other political subdivision, shall be paid to the newspaper publishing such notice as soon as practicable after receipt of the publisher's claim for payment. If the property has not yet been sold or proceeds from the sale have not yet been realized, such publication costs shall be paid out of the general funds of the claimant or judgment holder; and after sale and collection of the proceeds thereof the general fund shall be reimbursed for the publication costs before distribution of the proceeds to the proper fund or funds.

Art. 7345c. Partial Payments of Delinquent Taxes

Partial Payments Permitted

Sec. 1. On and after July 1, 1937, taxpayers owing delinquent State and county taxes, covering both real estate and personal property, shall be permitted to pay such delinquent taxes in partial payments under a system which shall be hereinafter provided for.

Partial Payment or Installment Account System to be Created

Sec. 2. The Assessor and Collector of Taxes of each county of this State shall create and establish a partial payment or installment account system whereby all delinquent taxpayers desiring to pay their taxes under the provisions of this Act may do so.

Number of Installments; Time of Payment

Sec. 3. All payments received by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes under the provisions of this Act shall be due and payable within twenty (20) months from the date of July 1, 1937, such payments being due and payable in ten (10) equal installments, provided that the first payment of such partial payments shall be made on or before September 1, 1937.

Default in Paying Installments; Suit for Collection

Sec. 4. If after paying one or more installments, the delinquent taxpayer pays no further installment or installments for a period of four (4) months, all of the remaining installments of said delinquent taxes shall become due and payable, and it will thereupon become the duty of the County Attorney or District Attorney or Criminal District Attorney in counties where there is no County Attorney to institute suit for the collection thereof.

Minimum Payments and Accounts

Sec. 5. The Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall accept partial payments made by a taxpayer in any sum, provided, however, that no payment shall be less than One Dollar ($1), and that no partial payment account will be opened for delinquent taxes which total less than Ten Dollars ($10).

Application of Payments; Redemption Receipts

Sec. 6. When any delinquent taxpayer shall have paid into such installment account a sum of money sufficient to pay the taxes owed by him for the earliest unpaid year upon one of the lots or tracts of land owned by him, together with the amount of penalty and interest then provided by law, the Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall withdraw from the special fund hereinafter provided for such sum and shall apply the same upon payment of said delinquent taxes, penalty, and interest, if any, and issue to such taxpayer a redemption receipt therefor. Thereafter such taxpayer may continue to make equal monthly installments into such trust fund until all of the delinquent taxes owed by him shall have been paid.

Title to Payments

Sec. 7. All of such installments paid by such delinquent taxpayers shall immediately become the property of the State of Texas and the respective county wherein the assessed property is situated or located, in such proportion as is necessary to satisfy the taxes, penalty, and interest delinquent and due to each, and the taxpayer shall in no event be entitled to a refund thereof, or to any portion of the same.

Sale of Property

Sec. 8. In the event the taxpayer for whom the installment or partial payment account was originally opened sells the particular property upon which said installments are to be applied, the Assessor and Collector of Taxes may, in his discretion, immediately apply upon the taxes, penalty, and interest delinquent upon such property, the amount of installments already received.

Payments to be in Escrow

Sec. 9. All funds or moneys covering delinquent State and County taxes, received by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes under the provisions of this Act shall immediately be placed in a special account with the County Treasurer of the respective county involved, and shall be held in escrow in such account until such time as the Assessor and Collector of Taxes shall notify said County Treasurer that at least one year's taxes have been paid on an individual account, thereby permitting said County Treasurer to remit to the Assessor and Collector of Taxes the amount or amounts so specified, said funds then to be distributed to the State and county proportionately in the same manner as all other collections.

Books, Records, and Accounts Subject to Examination

Sec. 10. The books, records, and accounts maintained by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act shall at all reasonable times be subject to examination by the State Comptroller of Public Accounts and the respective County Auditors in their official capacity, in the same manner as all other collection systems now provided for by law.

Act Inapplicable to Certain Taxes

Sec. 11. The provisions of this bill shall not apply to ad valorem or personal property taxes of any city, town, or independent school district, or any political subdivision of the State, unless and until the governing body thereof shall pass an ordinance or resolution providing that the provisions of this bill shall apply to ad valorem taxes of such city, town, or independent school district, or any political subdivision of the State.

Comptroller of Public Accounts to Prescribe Forms

Sec. 12. The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall prescribe suitable forms to be used by the Assessor and Collector of Taxes for noting thereon the payment of taxes in installments. He shall also prescribe suitable forms for passbooks, receipts, reports, and for any other purpose necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

Pending Suits Unaffected

Sec. 12-a. The provisions of this Act shall not affect any delinquent tax suits filed in courts of competent jurisdiction before the effective date of this Act in the counties or other political subdivisions availing themselves of the provisions of this Act.

Repeal of Conflicting Laws

Sec. 13. All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby expressly repealed in so far as the same are in conflict with the provisions hereof.

Partial Invalidity

Sec. 14. It is further provided that in case any section, clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this Act shall for any purpose or reason be adjudged by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this Act, but shall be confined in its operation to the section, clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which said judgment shall have been rendered. [Acts 1937, 45th Leg., p. 923, ch. 442.]

Art. 7345d. Inequitable or Confiscatory Assessments

In all cases where property appearing on the tax rolls, whether rendered or unrendered, current or delinquent, appears to have been assessed at a valuation greater than that placed upon other property in such locality of similar value, or out of proportion to the taxable value of such property; or where by reason of the depreciation in the value of such property an adjustment of assessed value would be equitable and expedient; or where by reason of long delinquency, the accumulated delinquent taxes, with penalties, interest, and cost aggregate such amount as to make their collection inequitable or confiscatory, the Commissioners Court of the county in which such property is situated, upon the application of the owner thereof or his duly authorized agent, shall have the power to reopen and reconsider the original assessments. In all such cases, the Commissioners Court shall hear testimony from competent and disinterested witnesses, and may make such personal and independent investigation as may seem necessary and expedient. If, after such investigation it shall appear to the Commissioners Court that such assessments were discriminatory, or out of proportion to the taxable value of the property, or that by reason of the depreciation of value of same, or that the enforced collection of the accumulated delinquent taxes, penalties, interest, and costs would be inequitable or confiscatory, the Commissioners Court may, under its power as a Board of Equalization, make such adjustments as to assessed values of such property as it may determine to be equitable and just. And any previous fixing of values of such property for the years involved shall not be "res adjudicata" as to the particular case.

Provided, that the State Comptroller shall be furnished with a certified copy of any order passed in pursuance hereof, as shall likewise the County Assessor-Collector of Taxes, who shall make the necessary correction of his rolls. Provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed as authorizing the Commissioners Court to remit any penalty, interest, or costs that have accrued, but all such penalty, interest, and costs shall be collected on the adjusted assessment as may be authorized by existing law. [Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 659, § 1.]

Art. 7345d-1. Application of Act to Particular Taxing Bodies

Incorporated cities and towns, independent school districts having their own Assessor-Collector and Boards of Equalization, irrigation and water improvement districts, and all other governmental agencies having the power to levy and collect taxes, shall have the right by ordinance, order or resolution properly enacted, passed, and entered to avail themselves of this law. Provided, that in such cases, the governing body of such taxing unit, or its duly constituted Board of Equalization, shall perform the functions hereinabove conferred on the Commissioners Court.

[Acts 1939, 46th Leg., p. 659, § 2.]

Art. 7345e. Suits to Collect Delinquent Taxes and Partition Land in Aid Thereof in Certain Counties

Sec. 1. In any county wherein is located one or more tracts of land, or portions thereof, having in excess of one thousand (1,000) acres, which such tracts are owned by twenty (20) or more persons in undivided interests, and on which there are delinquent taxes owed to such county, the Commissioners Court of such county is hereby authorized to institute suits against such owners of undivided interests in such tract or tracts for the purpose of collecting such delinquent taxes, and it is expressly authorized to seek and compel a partition of said tract or tracts between the owners thereof in order to segregate and identify the ownership for the purpose of collecting such delinquent taxes, and to employ attorneys for the purpose of instituting and prosecuting such suit or suits and to pay them such reasonable fees for such services out of the General Fund of such county as said Commissioners Court may deem advisable.

Sec. 2. After the institution of such suits the provisions of Section 15, of Article 7345b, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas as amended by the Acts of the Regular Session of the 49th Legislature, 1945, Chapter 219, shall govern the procedure in such suit, insofar as applicable, and all fees and costs therein provided for shall be in addition to the fees herein authorized for the institution of such suit or suits; provided, however, that where such fees are paid for the institution of such suit or suits the attorneys bringing such suits shall not be entitled to receive any fees under the provisions of Article 7335, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, nor Chapter 8, Acts of the 41st Legislature, 1930, Fourth Called Session, page 9, being Article 7335a, Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes.

Art. 7346. Property Omitted From Rolls

Whenever any commissioners court shall discover through notice from the tax collector or otherwise that any real property has been omitted from the tax rolls for any year or years since 1884, or shall find that any previous assessments on any real property for the years mentioned are invalid, or have been declared invalid for any reason by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes on said properties, they may, at any meeting of the court, order a list of such properties to be made in triplicate and fix a compensation therefor; the said list to show a complete description of such properties and for what years such properties were omitted from the tax rolls, or for what years the assessments are found to be invalid and should be canceled and re-assessed, or to have been declared invalid and thereby canceled by any district court in a suit to enforce the collection of taxes. No re-assessment of any property shall be held against any innocent purchaser of the same if the tax records of any county fail to show any assessment (for any year so re-assessed) by which said property can be identified and that the taxes are unpaid. The above exception, with the same limitation, shall also apply as to all past judgments of district courts canceling invalid assessments.

Art. 7347. Property Listed Assessed

When said list has been so made up the commissioners court may, at any meeting, order a cancellation of such properties in said list that are shown to have been previously assessed, but which assessments are found to be invalid and have not been canceled by any former order of the commissioners court, or by decree of any district court; and shall then refer such list of properties to be assessed or re-assessed to the tax assessor who shall proceed at once to make an assessment of all said properties, from the data given by said list (the certificate of the Comptroller as to assessments or re-assessments made by the tax assessor shall not be necessary as required under Article 7207, but he shall furnish all blank forms needed, that uniformity may be had in all counties), and when completed shall submit the same to the commissioners court, who shall pass upon the valuations fixed by him; and, when approved as to the values, shall cause the taxes to be computed and extended at the tax rate in effect for each separate year mentioned in said list; and, in addition thereto, shall cause to be added a penalty equal in amount to what would be six per cent interest to the date of making said list from the date such properties would have been delinquent had same been properly rendered by the owner thereof at the time and for the years stated in said list; provided, that the certificate of any tax collector given during his term of office that all taxes have been paid to the date of such certificate on any certain piece of property, which is fully described in such certificate, or if the tax rolls of any county fail to show any assessments against such property sufficient to identify it, and that the same was unpaid at the dates such rolls may have been examined to ascertain the condition of any property as to taxes unpaid, this shall be a bar to any re-assessment of such property under this law for any years prior to the date of such certificate, or such examinations; provided, that the property referred to, when re-assessed, shall be held by an innocent purchaser, who has relied upon the correctness of such certificate, or the tax rolls heretofore referred to.

Art. 7348. List to Operate a Lien

The said list, when complete in all respects, and filed with the tax collector, shall constitute a valid lien against all the properties mentioned in said list for the full amount of taxes, penalties, officers costs, advertising and six per cent interest from the date of said list to the date of the payment of the full sum due on each separate piece of property. A copy of said list and all cancellation orders shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and a copy filed with the county clerk.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7349. To be Advertised

The commissioners court shall proceed to have such list of properties advertised in the manner provided in Article 7323 after which, suit may be filed in the same manner as provided by law for the enforced collection of delinquent taxes.

Art. 7350. Assessments Reduced

In all cases of delinquent taxes of unrendered and unknown property, where there appears to be an assessment of the same at a valuation excessive and unreasonable, the commissioners court shall be authorized to correct or reduce such values on the request of the tax collector with a full statement of the facts in each case; which statement and the action had thereon and the name of each commissioner voting for or against the reduction in valuation asked for shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and a certified copy of the action had thereon shall be furnished to the Comptroller, and, when the values are so corrected or reduced, payment of taxes shall be accepted in accordance with such reduction, to which shall be added interest, penalty, advertising and costs as provided by law.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7351. Bulk Assessments Validated

In all suits to enforce the collection of delinquent taxes, where the assessment of any property for any year is invalidated by reason of the failure of the assessor to comply with the provisions of law for the description of any lot, block or tract of land, or to give a separate value on each lot, block or tract of land, known as "bulk assessments" or to enter upon the lists (similar to that used for the listing of rendered property, to be signed by the owner) all items of property assessed to unknown owners, all such assessments are hereby validated and given the same force and effect as if the descriptions, the separate valuations and the listing were in all respects strictly in compliance with law; provided, as to description, that the descriptions given are sufficient to identify the property, as to separate values, that the valuations and the taxes shown upon the tax rolls (in what are called "bulk assessments") can be fairly prorated to each separate lot, block or tract of land; and, as to listing, that the valuation given on the tax rolls upon properties assessed as unknown are found to have been entered upon the assessor's block book as the original assessment, instead of listing as in rendered assessments, and then entering upon the tax rolls.

Art. 7352. Delinquent Tax Record Published

The various counties which have not heretofore made and published a delinquent tax record, under provisions of chapter 103, acts of the regular session of the twenty-fifth legislature, are hereby authorized and it shall be their duty to make and publish the same to date hereof, and, when so done, it shall have the same force and effect as if made and published under that Act; and any county which has heretofore made a delinquent tax record for any number of years is hereby authorized and empowered to re-compile the same to date hereof, and may compile each year thereafter under the provisions of said act.

Art. 7353. Property Listed by Comptroller

Whenever it shall appear to the Comptroller from an inspection of the tax rolls of any county or otherwise, that any lands in such county subject to taxation have not been assessed for taxation for any year since and including the year 1900, he shall make a list of such lands and send the same to the tax assessor of such county by registered letter, accompanying such list with instructions to such tax assessor to assess such lands for taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed as shown by said list.

Art. 7354. List to be Posted

Upon receipt of such list, the tax assessor shall immediately post a copy of such notice and list at the court house door of his county, noting upon such copy the date of such posting; and the owners of the lands embraced in such list shall have the right, at any time within twenty days of such posting, to render the same to the tax assessor for the taxes for the years for which they have not been assessed for taxes, or for any of such years as shown by such notice, in the same manner as is provided for the rendition of other property for taxes under the provisions of the general laws for that purpose. [Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7355. Unrendered Lands Assessed

Should any of the said lands remain unrendered by the owners or owner thereof, under the provisions of the preceding article for any of the years for which the same have not been assessed according to said notice and lists, for twenty days after the date of the posting of such notice, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor, immediately upon expiration of such time, to assess for taxes at their true value such lands so remaining unrendered and unassessed for each of the years since and including the year 1900, and including the year such lists are made up by the Comptroller, listing the same in the name of unknown owners, and charging up to said lands the taxes, State and county, for which they are liable for each of such years, valuing such lands at their true and full value as provided in Article 7174. If any of said lands are lands purchased from the State as belonging to the school fund, the University, or any of the asylums of the State, and held under such contract of purchase upon which a part of the purchase money is still due, such lands being unpatented, no deduction shall be made in the value of said lands for, or on account of, such unpaid purchase money, but they shall be valued at their full and true value as though paid out and patented.

Art. 7356. Duty of Commissioners Court

The tax assessor shall make up lists showing such assessments, and deliver the same to the county judge, who shall at once, unless a regular session is held within ten days thereafter, call a meeting of the commissioners court in special session, as a board of equalization for the purpose of passing upon said assessment lists in the manner provided in case of regular assessments in so far as the provisions of the statute with regard thereto are applicable. The commissioners court without delay shall act upon said supplemented assessment lists, as to the value of the property embraced, and, when said values have been equalized as required by law, approve the same, and approve the rolls made up by the tax assessor in accordance therewith; provided, that the commissioners court shall have no authority to alter said assessment lists, or in any way interfere with such assessments, except as to the values of property embraced therein, in equalizing the same as provided by law, and to strike therefrom any lands that have been already assessed for taxes at their true market value for the years for which they are assessed on said supplemental rolls and such taxes paid.

Art. 7357. Supplemental Tax Rolls

After such supplemental assessment lists have been passed upon by the board of equalization as herein provided, supplemental tax rolls shall be prepared by the tax assessor and approved by the commissioners court as is required by law in case of the regular assessment for taxes; and thereafter the taxes due according to such supplemental rolls shall be collected as in case of other taxes, and, if not paid, such proceedings shall be had for their collection as in case of other taxes.

[Acts 1925, S.B. 84.]

Art. 7358. Fees of Assessor

For making the supplemental assessments provided herein, the tax assessor shall be entitled to the same fees to be paid in the same manner as is provided by law in case of regular assessments.

Art. 7359. City May Use County Officers

Any incorporated city, town or village in this State is hereby authorized by ordinance to authorize the county tax assessor and county tax collector of the county in which said city, town or village is situated, to act as tax assessor and tax collector respectively for said city, town or village. The property in said city, town or village utilizing such county assessor and collector shall be assessed at the same value as it is assessed for county and State purposes. When an ordinance is so passed making available their services, said assessor shall assess the taxes for said city, town or village and perform the duties of tax assessor for said city, town or village according to the ordinances of said city, town or village and according to law; and said collector shall collect the taxes and assessments for said city, town or village and turn over as soon as collected to the city depository of said city or other authority authorized to receive such taxes or assessments, all taxes or money so collected, and shall perform the duties of tax collector of said city, town or village according to the ordinances thereof and according to law, deducting from the taxes so collected his fees provided for herein; and they shall respectively receive for such services one per cent of the taxes so collected.

CHAPTER TWELVE. MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT

Art. 7359a. Multistate Tax Compact

Adoption of Compact

Sec. 1. The Multistate Tax Compact is adopted and entered into with all jurisdictions legally adopting it to read as follows:

MULTISTATE TAX COMPACT

ARTICLE I. PURPOSES.

The purposes of this compact are to:

1. Facilitate proper determination of State and local tax liability of multistate taxpayers, including the equitable apportionment of tax bases and settlement of apportionment disputes.

2. Promote uniformity or compatibility in significant components of tax systems.

3. Facilitate taxpayer convenience and compliance in the filing of tax returns and in other phases of tax administration.

4. Avoid duplicative taxation.

ARTICLE II. DEFINITIONS.

As used in this compact:

1. "State" means a State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or any Territory or Possession of the United States.

2. "Subdivision" means any governmental unit or special district of a State.

3. "Taxpayer" means any corporation, partnership, firm, association, governmental unit or agency or person acting as a business entity in more than one State.

4. "Income tax" means a tax imposed on or measured by net income including any tax imposed on or measured by an amount arrived at by deducting expenses from gross income, one or more forms of which expenses are not specifically and directly related to particular transactions.

5. "Capital stock tax" means a tax measured in any way by the capital of a corporation considered in its entirety.

6. "Gross receipts tax" means a tax, other than a sales tax, which is imposed on or measured by the gross volume of business, in terms of gross receipts or in other terms, and in the determination of which no deduction is allowed which would constitute the tax an income tax.

7. "Sales tax" means a tax imposed with respect to the transfer for a consideration of ownership, possession or custody of tangible personal property or the rendering of services measured by the price of the tangible personal property transferred or services rendered and which is required by State or local law to be separately stated from the sales price by the seller, or which is customarily separately stated from the sales price, but does not include a tax imposed exclusively on the sale of a specifically identified commodity or article or class of commodities or articles.

8. "Use tax" means a nonrecurring tax, other than a sales tax, which (a) is imposed on or with respect to the exercise or enjoyment of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership, possession or custody of that property or the leasing of that property from another including any consumption, keeping, retention, or other use of tangible personal property and (b) is complementary to a sales tax.

9. "Tax" means an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales tax, use tax, and any other tax which has a multistate impact, except that the provisions of Articles III, IV and V of this compact shall apply only to the taxes specifically designated therein and the provisions of Article IX of this compact shall apply only in respect to determinations pursuant to Article IV.

ARTICLE III. ELEMENTS OF INCOME TAX LAWS.

Taxpayer Option, State and Local Taxes.

1. Any taxpayer subject to an income tax whose income is subject to apportionment and allocation for tax purposes pursuant to the laws of a party State or pursuant to the laws of subdivisions in two or more party States may elect to apportion and allocate his income in the manner provided by the laws of such State or by the laws of such States and subdivisions without reference to this compact, or may elect to apportion and allocate in accordance with Article IV. This election for any tax year may be made in all party States or subdivisions thereof or in any one or more of the party States or subdivisions thereof without reference to the election made in the others. For the purposes of this paragraph, taxes imposed by subdivisions shall be considered separately from State taxes and the apportionment and allocation also may be applied to the entire tax base. In no instance wherein Article IV is employed for all subdivisions of a State may the sum of all apportionments and allocations to subdivisions within a State be greater than the apportionment and allocation that would be assignable to that State if the apportionment or allocation were being made with respect to a State income tax.

Taxpayer Option, Short Form.

2. Each party State or any subdivision thereof which imposes an income tax shall provide by law that any taxpayer required to file a return, whose only activities within the taxing jurisdiction consist of sales and do not include owning or renting real estate or tangible personal property, and whose dollar volume of gross sales made during the tax year within the State or subdivision, as the case may be, is not in excess of $100,000 may elect to report and pay any tax due on the basis of a percentage of such volume, and shall adopt rates which shall produce a tax which reasonably approximates the tax otherwise due. The Multistate Tax Commission, not more than once in five years, may adjust the $100,000 figure in order to reflect such changes as may occur in the real value of the dollar, and such adjusted figure, upon adoption by the Commission, shall replace the $100,000 figure specifically provided herein. Each party State and subdivision thereof may make the same election available to taxpayers additional to those specified in this paragraph.

Coverage.

3. Nothing in this Article relates to the reporting or payment of any tax other than an income tax.

ARTICLE IV. DIVISION OF INCOME.

1. As used in this Article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Business income" means income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the taxpayer's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the taxpayer's regular trade or business operations.

(b) "Commercial domicile" means the principal place from which the trade or business of the taxpayer is directed or managed.

(c) "Compensation" means wages, salaries, commissions and any other form of remuneration paid to employees for personal services.

(d) "Financial organization" means any bank, trust company, savings bank, industrial bank, land bank, safe deposit company, private banker, savings and loan association, credit union, cooperative bank, small loan company, sales finance company, investment company, or any type of insurance company.

(e) "Nonbusiness income" means all income other than business income.

(f) "Public utility" means any business entity (1) which owns or operates any plant, equipment, property, franchise, or license for the transmission of communications, transportation of goods or persons, except by pipe line, or the production, transmission, sale, delivery, or furnishing of electricity, water or steam; and (2) whose rates of charges for goods or services have been established or approved by a Federal, State or local government or governmental agency.

(g) "Sales" means all gross receipts of the taxpayer not allocated under paragraphs of this Article.

(h) "State" means any State of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, any Territory or Possession of the United States, and any foreign country or political subdivision thereof.

(i) "This State" means the State in which the relevant tax return is filed or, in the case of application of this Article to the apportionment and allocation of income for local tax purposes, the subdivision or local taxing district in which the relevant tax return is filed.

2. Any taxpayer having income from business activity which is taxable both within and without this State, other than activity as a financial organization or public utility or the rendering of purely personal services by an individual, shall allocate and apportion his net income as provided in this Article. If a taxpayer has income from business activity as a public utility but derives the greater percentage of his income from activities subject to this Article, the taxpayer may elect to allocate and apportion his entire net income as provided in this Article.

3. For purposes of allocation and apportionment of income under this Article, a taxpayer is taxable in another State if (1) in that State he is subject to a net income tax, a franchise tax measured by net income, a franchise tax for the privilege of doing business, or a corporate stock tax, or (2) that State has jurisdiction to subject the taxpayer to a net income tax regardless of whether, in fact, the State does or does not.

4. Rents and royalties from real or tangible personal property, capital gains, interest, dividends or patent or copyright royalties, to the extent that they constitute nonbusiness income, shall be allocated as provided in paragraphs 5 through 8 of this Article.

5. (a) Net rents and royalties from real property located in this State are allocable to this State.

(b) Net rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to this State: (1) if and to the extent that the property is utilized in this State, or (2) in their entirety if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this State and the taxpayer is not organized under the laws of or taxable in the State in which the property is utilized.

(c) The extent of utilization of tangible personal property in a State is determined by multiplying the rents and royalties by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property in the State during the rental or royalty period in the taxable year and the denominator of which is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the taxable year. If the physical location of the property during the rental or royalty period is unknown or unascertainable by the taxpayer, tangible personal property is utilized in the State in which the property was located at the time the rental or royalty payer obtained possession.

6. (a) Capital gains and losses from sales of real property located in this State are allocable to this State.

(b) Capital gains and losses from sales of tangible personal property are allocable to this State if (1) the property had a situs in this State at the time of the sale, or (2) the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this State and the taxpayer is not taxable in the State in which the property had a situs.

(c) Capital gains and losses from sales of intangible personal property are allocable to this State if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this State.

7. Interest and dividends are allocable to this State if the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this State.

8. (a) Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to this State: (1) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in this State, or (2) if and to the extent that the patent or copyright is utilized by the payer in a State in which the taxpayer is not taxable and the taxpayer's commercial domicile is in this State.

(b) A patent is utilized in a State to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in the State or to the extent that a patented product is produced in the State. If the basis of receipts from patent royalties does not permit allocation to States or if the accounting procedures do not reflect States of utilization, the patent is utilized in the State in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

(c) A copyright is utilized in a State to the extent that printing or other publication originates in the State. If the basis of receipts from copyright royalties does not permit allocation to States or if the accounting procedures do not reflect States of utilization, the copyright is utilized in the State in which the taxpayer's commercial domicile is located.

9. All business income shall be apportioned to this State by multiplying the income by a fraction, the numerator of which is the property factor plus the payroll factor plus the sales factor, and the denominator of which is three.

10. The property factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the average value of the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used in this State during the tax period and the denominator of which is the average value of all the taxpayer's real and tangible personal property owned or rented and used during the tax period.

11. Property owned by the taxpayer is valued at its original cost. Property rented by the taxpayer is valued at eight times the net annual rental rate. Net annual rental rate is the annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less any annual rental rate received by the taxpayer from subrentals.

12. The average value of property shall be determined by averaging the values at the beginning and ending of the tax period but the tax administrator may require the averaging of monthly values during the tax period if reasonably required to reflect properly the average value of the taxpayer's property.

13. The payroll factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total amount paid in this State during the tax period by the taxpayer for compensation and the denominator of which is the total compensation paid everywhere during the tax period.

14. Compensation is paid in this State if:

(a) the individual's service is performed entirely within the State;

(b) the individual's service is performed both within and without the State, but the service performed without the State is incidental to the individual's service within the State; or

(c) some of the service is performed in the State and (1) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, the place from which the service is directed or controlled is in the State, or (2) the base of operations or the place from which the service is directed or controlled is not in any State in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this State.

15. The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer in this State during the tax period, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the taxpayer everywhere during the tax period.

16. Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if:

(a) the property is delivered or shipped to a purchaser, other than the United States Government, within this State regardless of the f. o. b. point or other conditions of the sale; or

(b) the property is shipped from an office, store, warehouse, factory, or other place of storage in this State and (1) the purchaser is the United States Government or (2) the taxpayer is not taxable in the State of the purchaser.

17. Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, are in this State if:

(a) the income-producing activity is performed in this State; or

(b) the income-producing activity is performed both in and outside this State and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed in this State than in any other State, based on costs of performance.

18. If the allocation and apportionment provisions of this Article do not fairly represent the extent of the taxpayer's business activity in this State, the taxpayer may petition for or the tax administrator may require, in respect to all or any part of the taxpayer's business activity, if reasonable:

(a) separate accounting;

(b) the exclusion of any one or more of the factors;

(c) the inclusion of one or more additional factors which will fairly represent the taxpayer's business activity in this State; or

(d) the employment of any other method to effectuate an equitable allocation and apportionment of the taxpayer's income.

ARTICLE V. ELEMENTS OF SALES AND USE TAX LAWS.

Tax Credit.

1. Each purchaser liable for a use tax on tangible personal property shall be entitled to full credit for the combined amount or amounts of legally imposed sales or use taxes paid by him with respect to the same property to another State and any subdivision thereof. The credit shall be applied first against the amount of any use tax due the State, and any unused portion of the credit shall then be applied against the amount of any use tax due a subdivision.

Exemption Certificates, Vendors May Rely.

2. Whenever a vendor receives and accepts in good faith from a purchaser a resale or other exemption certificate or other written evidence of exemption authorized by the appropriate State or subdivision taxing authority, the vendor shall be relieved of liability for a sales or use tax with respect to the transaction.

ARTICLE VI. THE COMMISSION.

Organization and Management.

1. (a) The Multistate Tax Commission is hereby established. It shall be composed of one "member" from each party State who shall be the head of the State agency charged with the administration of the types of taxes to which this compact applies. If there is more than one such agency the State shall provide by law for the selection of the Commission member from the heads of the relevant agencies. State law may provide that a member of the Commission be represented by an alternate but only if there is on file with the Commission written notification of the designation and identity of the alternate. The Attorney General of each party State or his designee, or other counsel if the laws of the party State specifically provide, shall be entitled to attend the meetings of the Commission, but shall not vote. Such Attorneys General, designees, or other counsel shall receive all notices of meetings required under paragraph 1(e) of this Article.

(b) Each party State shall provide by law for the selection of representatives from its subdivisions affected by this compact to consult with the Commission member from that State.

(c) Each member shall be entitled to one vote. The Commission shall not act unless a majority of the members are present, and no action shall be binding unless approved by a majority of the total number of members.

(d) The Commission shall adopt an official seal to be used as it may provide.

(e) The Commission shall hold an annual meeting and such other regular meetings as its bylaws may provide and such special meetings as its Executive Committee may determine. The Commission bylaws shall specify the dates of the annual and any other regular meetings, and shall provide for the giving of notice of annual, regular and special meetings. Notices of special meetings shall include the reasons therefor and an agenda of the items to be considered.

(f) The Commission shall elect annually, from among its members, a Chairman, a Vice Chairman and a Treasurer. The Commission shall appoint an Executive Director who shall serve at its pleasure, and it shall fix his duties and compensation. The Executive Director shall be Secretary of the Commission. The Commission shall make provision for the bonding of such of its officers and employees as it may deem appropriate.

(g) Irrespective of the civil service, personnel or other merit system laws of any party State, the Executive Director shall appoint or discharge such personnel as may be necessary for the performance of the functions of the Commission and shall fix their duties and compensation. The Commission bylaws shall provide for personnel policies and programs.

(h) The Commission may borrow, accept or contract for the services of personnel from any State, the United States, or any other governmental entity.

(i) The Commission may accept for any of its purposes and functions any and all donations and grants of money, equipment, supplies, materials and services, conditional or otherwise, from any governmental entity, and may utilize and dispose of the same.

(j) The Commission may establish one or more offices for the transacting of its business.

(k) The Commission shall adopt bylaws for the conduct of its business. The Commission shall publish its bylaws in convenient form, and shall file a copy of the bylaws and any amendments thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party States.

(l) The Commission annually shall make to the Governor and legislature of each party State a report covering its activities for the preceding year. Any donation or grant accepted by the Commission or services borrowed shall be reported in the annual report of the Commission, and shall include the nature, amount and conditions, if any, of the donation, gift, grant or services borrowed and the identity of the donor or lender. The Commission may make additional reports as it may deem desirable.

Committees.

2. (a) To assist in the conduct of its business when the full Commission is not meeting, the Commission shall have an Executive Committee of seven members, including the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Treasurer and four other members elected annually by the Commission. The Executive Committee, subject to the provisions of this compact and consistent with the policies of the Commission, shall function as provided in the bylaws of the Commission.

(b) The Commission may establish advisory and technical committees, membership on which may include private persons and public officials, in furthering any of its activities. Such committees may consider any matter of concern to the Commission, including problems of special interest to any party State and problems dealing with particular types of taxes.

(c) The Commission may establish such additional committees as its bylaws may provide.

Powers.

3. In addition to powers conferred elsewhere in this compact, the Commission shall have power to:

(a) Study State and local tax systems and particular types of State and local taxes.

(b) Develop and recommend proposals for an increase in uniformity or compatibility of State and local tax laws with a view toward encouraging the simplification and improvement of State and local tax law and administration.

(c) Compile and publish information as in its judgment would assist the party States in implementation of the compact and taxpayers in complying with State and local tax laws.

(d) Do all things necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this compact.

Finance.

4. (a) The Commission shall submit to the Governor or designated officer or officers of each party State a budget of its estimated expenditures for such period as may be required by the laws of that State for presentation to the legislature thereof.

(b) Each of the Commission's budgets of estimated expenditures shall contain specific recommendations of the amounts to be appropriated by each of the party States. The total amount of appropriations requested under any such budget shall be apportioned among the party States as follows: one-tenth in equal shares; and the remainder in proportion to the amount of revenue collected by each party State and its subdivisions from income taxes, capital stock taxes, gross receipts taxes, sales and use taxes. In determining such amounts, the Commission shall employ such available public sources of information as, in its judgment, present the most equitable and accurate comparisons among the party States. Each of the Commission's budgets of estimated expenditures and requests for appropriations shall indicate the sources used in obtaining information employed in applying the formula contained in this paragraph.

(c) The Commission shall not pledge the credit of any party State. The Commission may meet any of its obligations in whole or in part with funds available to it under paragraph (1) (i) of this Article: provided that the Commission takes specific action setting aside such funds prior to incurring any obligation to be met in whole or in part in such manner. Except where the Commission makes use of funds available to it under paragraph 1(i), the Commission shall not incur any obligation prior to the allotment of funds by the party States adequate to meet the same.

(d) The Commission shall keep accurate accounts of all receipts and disbursements. The receipts and disbursements of the Commission shall be subject to the audit and accounting procedures established under its bylaws. All receipts and disbursements of funds handled by the Commission shall be audited yearly by a certified or licensed public accountant and the report of the audit shall be included in and become part of the annual report of the Commission.

(e) The accounts of the Commission shall be open at any reasonable time for inspection by duly constituted officers of the party States and by any persons authorized by the Commission.

(f) Nothing contained in this Article shall be construed to prevent Commission compliance with laws relating to audit or inspection of accounts by or on behalf of any government contributing to the support of the Commission.

ARTICLE VII. UNIFORM REGULATIONS AND FORMS.

1. Whenever any two or more party States, or subdivisions of party States, have uniform or similar provisions of law relating to an income tax, capital stock tax, gross receipts tax, sales or use tax, the Commission may adopt uniform regulations for any phase of the administration of such law, including assertion of jurisdiction to tax, or prescribing uniform tax forms. The Commission may also act with respect to the provisions of Article IV of this compact.

2. Prior to the adoption of any regulation, the Commission shall:

(a) As provided in its bylaws, hold at least one public hearing on due notice to all affected party States and subdivisions thereof and to all taxpayers and other persons who have made timely request of the Commission for advance notice of its regulation-making proceedings.

(b) Afford all affected party States and subdivisions and interested persons an opportunity to submit relevant written data and views, which shall be considered fully by the Commission.

3. The Commission shall submit any regulations adopted by it to the appropriate officials of all party States and subdivisions to which they might apply. Each such State and subdivision shall consider any such regulation for adoption in accordance with its own laws and procedures.

ARTICLE VIII. INTERSTATE AUDITS.

1. This Article shall be in force only in those party States that specifically provide therefor by statute.

2. Any party State or subdivision thereof desiring to make or participate in an audit of any accounts, books, papers, records or other documents may request the Commission to perform the audit on its behalf. In responding to the request, the Commission shall have access to and may examine, at any reasonable time, such accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents and any relevant property or stock of merchandise. The Commission may enter into agreements with party States or their subdivisions for assistance in performance of the audit. The Commission shall make charges, to be paid by the State or local government or governments for which it performs the service, for any audits performed by it in order to reimburse itself for the actual costs incurred in making the audit.

3. The Commission may require the attendance of any person within the State where it is conducting an audit or part thereof at a time and place fixed by it within such State for the purpose of giving testimony with respect to any account, book, paper, document, other record, property or stock of merchandise being examined in connection with the audit. If the person is not within the jurisdiction, he may be required to attend for such purpose at any time and place fixed by the Commission within the State of which he is a resident: provided that such State has adopted this Article.

4. The Commission may apply to any court having power to issue compulsory process for orders in aid of its powers and responsibilities pursuant to this Article and any and all such courts shall have jurisdiction to issue such orders. Failure of any person to obey any such order shall be punishable as contempt of the issuing court. If the party or subject matter on account of which the Commission seeks an order is within the jurisdiction of the court to which application is made, such application may be to a court in the State or subdivision on behalf of which the audit is being made or a court in the State in which the object of the order being sought is situated. The provisions of this paragraph apply only to courts in a State that has adopted this Article.

5. The Commission may decline to perform any audit requested if it finds that its available personnel or other resources are insufficient for the purpose or that, in the terms requested, the audit is impracticable of satisfactory performance. If the Commission, on the basis of its experience, has reason to believe that an audit of a particular taxpayer, either at a particular time or on a particular schedule, would be of interest to a number of party States or their subdivisions, it may offer to make the audit or audits, the offer to be contingent on sufficient participation therein as determined by the Commission.

6. Information obtained by any audit pursuant to this Article shall be confidential and available only for tax purposes to party States, their subdivisions or the United States. Availability of information shall be in accordance with the laws of the States or subdivisions on whose account the Commission performs the audit, and only through the appropriate agencies or officers of such States or subdivisions. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to require any taxpayer to keep records for any period not otherwise required by law.

7. Other arrangements made or authorized pursuant to law for cooperative audit by or on behalf of the party States or any of their subdivisions are not superseded or invalidated by this Article.

8. In no event shall the Commission make any charge against a taxpayer for an audit.

9. As used in this Article, "tax," in addition to the meaning ascribed to it in Article II, means any tax or license fee imposed in whole or in part for revenue purposes.

ARTICLE IX. ARBITRATION.

1. Whenever the Commission finds a need for settling disputes concerning apportionments and allocations by arbitration, it may adopt a regulation placing this Article in effect, notwithstanding the provisions of Article VII.

2. The Commission shall select and maintain an Arbitration Panel composed of officers and employees of State and local governments and private persons who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in matters of tax law and administration.

3. Whenever a taxpayer who has elected to employ Article IV, or whenever the laws of the party State or subdivision thereof are substantially identical with the relevant provisions of Article IV, the taxpayer, by written notice to the Commission and to each party State or subdivision thereof that would be affected, may secure arbitration of an apportionment or allocation, if he is dissatisfied with the final administrative determination of the tax agency of the State or subdivision with respect thereto on the ground that it would subject him to double or multiple taxation by two or more party States or subdivisions thereof. Each party State and subdivision thereof hereby consents to the arbitration as provided herein, and agrees to be bound thereby.

4. The Arbitration Board shall be composed of one person selected by the taxpayer, one by the agency or agencies involved, and one member of the Commission's Arbitration Panel. If the agencies involved are unable to agree on the person to be selected by them, such person shall be selected by lot from the total membership of the Arbitration Panel. The two persons selected for the Board in the manner provided by the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall jointly select the third member of the Board. If they are unable to agree on the selection, the third member shall be selected by lot from among the total membership of the Arbitration Panel. No member of a Board selected by lot shall be qualified to serve if he is an officer or employee or is otherwise affiliated with any party to the arbitration proceeding. Residence within the jurisdiction of a party to the arbitration proceeding shall not constitute affiliation within the meaning of this paragraph.

5. The Board may sit in any State or subdivision party to the proceeding, in the State of the taxpayer's incorporation, residence or domicile, in any State where the taxpayer does business, or in any place that it finds most appropriate for gaining access to evidence relevant to the matter before it.

6. The Board shall give due notice of the times and places of its hearings. The parties shall be entitled to be heard, to present evidence, and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The Board shall act by majority vote.

7. The Board shall have power to administer oaths, take testimony, subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of accounts, books, papers, records, and other documents, and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the Board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena, and upon application by the Board, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction of the State in which the Board is sitting or in which the person to whom the subpoena is directed may be found may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena, and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt. The provisions of this paragraph apply only in States that have adopted this Article.

8. Unless the parties otherwise agree the expenses and other costs of the arbitration shall be assessed and allocated among the parties by the Board in such manner as it may determine. The Commission shall fix a schedule of compensation for members of Arbitration Boards and of other allowable expenses and costs. No officer or employee of a State or local government who serves as a member of a Board shall be entitled to compensation therefor unless he is required on account of his service to forego the regular compensation attaching to his public employment, but any such Board member shall be entitled to expenses.

9. The Board shall determine the disputed apportionment or allocation and any matters necessary thereto. The determinations of the Board shall be final for purposes of making the apportionment or allocation, but for no other purpose.

10. The Board shall file with the Commission and with each tax agency represented in the proceeding: the determination of the Board; the Board's written statement of its reasons therefor; the record of the Board's proceedings; and any other documents required by the arbitration rules of the Commission to be filed.

11. The Commission shall publish the determinations of Boards together with the statements of the reasons therefor.

12. The Commission shall adopt and publish rules of procedure and practice and shall file a copy of such rules and of any amendment thereto with the appropriate agency or officer in each of the party States.

13. Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise of any matter or matters in dispute, if otherwise lawful, by the parties to the arbitration proceeding.

ARTICLE X. ENTRY INTO FORCE AND WITHDRAWAL.

1. This compact shall enter into force when enacted into law by any seven States. Thereafter, this compact shall become effective as to any other State upon its enactment thereof. The Commission shall arrange for notification of all party States whenever there is a new enactment of the compact.

2. Any party State may withdraw from this compact by enacting a statute repealing the same. No withdrawal shall affect any liability already incurred by or chargeable to a party State prior to the time of such withdrawal.

3. No proceeding commenced before an Arbitration Board prior to the withdrawal of a State and to which the withdrawing State or any subdivision thereof is a party shall be discontinued or terminated by the withdrawal, nor shall the Board thereby lose jurisdiction over any of the parties to the proceeding necessary to make a binding determination therein.

ARTICLE XI. EFFECT ON OTHER LAWS AND JURISDICTION.

Nothing in this compact shall be construed to:

(a) Affect the power of any State or subdivision thereof to fix rates of taxation, except that a party State shall be obligated to implement Article III 2 of this compact.

(b) Apply to any tax or fixed fee imposed for the registration of a motor vehicle or any tax on motor fuel, other than a sales tax; provided that the definition of "tax" in Article VIII 9 may apply for the purposes of that Article and the Commission's powers of study and recommendation pursuant to Article VI 3 may apply.

(c) Withdraw or limit the jurisdiction of any State or local court or administrative officer or body with respect to any person, corporation or other entity or subject matter, except to the extent that such jurisdiction is expressly conferred by or pursuant to this compact upon another agency or body.

(d) Supersede or limit the jurisdiction of any court of the United States.

ARTICLE XII. CONSTRUCTION AND SEVERABILITY.

This compact shall be liberally construed so as to effectuate the purposes thereof. The provisions of this compact shall be severable and if any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any State or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any State participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining party States and in full force and effect as to the State affected as to all severable matters.

Appointment of Commission Member

Sec. 2. (a) The governor shall appoint the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas to represent this state on the Multistate Tax Commission created by Article VI of the compact.

(b) The comptroller may designate one of his division chiefs as an alternate representative on the commission.

Local Government Council

Sec. 3. After consultation with representatives of local governments, the governor shall appoint three persons who are representative of political subdivisions affected or likely to be affected by the compact. The comptroller and his alternate shall consult regularly with these appointees in accordance with Article VI 1(b) of the compact.

Multistate Tax Compact Advisory Committee

Sec. 4. (a) The Multistate Tax Compact Advisory Committee is created. It consists of the comptroller and his alternate designated under Section 2(b) of this Act, the attorney general or his designee, two members of the Senate appointed by the President of the Senate, and two members of the House appointed by the Speaker of the House. The comptroller is chairman of the advisory committee.

(b) The committee shall meet at the call of its chairman, or at the request of a majority of its members, but in any event must meet at least three times a year. The committee may consider any matters relating to recommendations of the Multistate Tax Commission and the activities of the members representing this state on the commission.

Art. 1.03. Revenue Duties; Governor; Comptroller

The Governor may, whenever in his judgment the public service demands it, direct the Comptroller to investigate books and accounts of the assessing and collecting officers of this State, and all officers and persons disbursing, receiving or having in their possession public funds, and to make such other investigations and perform such other duties in the interest of the public revenues as the Governor may direct. Whenever any such investigation is ordered by the Governor, the Comptroller shall report to him in writing the results thereof, and point out the particulars, if any, wherein the revenue laws have been violated or their enforcement neglected, together with the names of those delinquent therein. Whereupon the Governor shall institute civil and criminal proceedings through the Attorney General in the name of the State against such delinquent parties who are reported by the Comptroller to be delinquent. The Comptroller shall have power at any time to examine and check up all and any expenditures of money appropriated for any of the state institutions or for any other purpose or for improvements made by the State on State property or

The Comptroller shall also have power and authority and it is hereby made his duty, to fully investigate any State institution when so directed by the Governor or required by information coming to his own knowledge. He shall investigate the manner of conducting the same and the policy pursued by those in charge thereof, and the conduct or efficiency of any person employed therein by the State. He shall examine into and report upon the character and manner as well as the amount of expenditures thereof, and investigate and ascertain all sums of money due the State from any source whatever, the ascertainment and collection of which does not devolve upon other officers of this State under existing law; and he shall report all such facts to the Governor. The Comptroller shall not make public or use said information derived in the course of said examination of said books, records and papers and/or officers or employees except for the purpose of a judicial proceeding for the collection of delinquent taxes in which the State of Texas is a party. "Sec. 2. Saving clause. The repeal of any law by this Act shall not affect or impair any act done or obligation, right, license, permit or penalty accrued or existing under the authority of the law repealed; and such law shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper action concerning any such obligation, right, license, permit or penalty. Taxes incurred under any law repealed by this Act are an obligation within the

"Sec. 2. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 3. (B) Notice. The notice may be served personally or by mail; if by mail, the notice shall be addressed to the taxpayer or other person at his address as it appears in the records of the Comptroller. Service by mail is complete at the time of deposit in the United States Post Office.

(C) Redetermination. Any person against whom a determination is made under Article 1.032, or any person directly interested, may petition for a redetermination within thirty (30) days after service upon the person of notice thereof. If a petition for redetermination is not filed within the thirty-day period, the determination becomes final at the expiration of the period.

(D) Oral Hearing. If a petition for redetermination is filed within the thirty-day period, the Comptroller shall reconsider the determination and, if the person has so requested in his petition, shall grant the person an oral hearing and shall give him twenty (20) days' notice of the time and place of the hearing.

(E) Finality of Order. The order or decision of the Comptroller upon a petition for redetermination becomes final thirty (30) days after service upon the petitioner of notice thereof.

See Note under article 14.00A.

Art. 1.033. Reports

Notwithstanding the provisions of any Article of this Title, the Comptroller may revise any report required by any Article of this Title so as to eliminate any specific information required by the provisions of any Article of this Title. The requirement for the information which is eliminated may be reinstated by the Comptroller at any time.

Art. 1.045. Limitation for Collection and Refunds

(A) Limitation. Except where a shorter period of time is provided in this Title, the Comptroller shall assess any tax imposed by this Title within seven (7) years from the date such tax is due and payable, and the Comptroller may bring an action in the courts of this State, or of any other state, or of the United States within seven (7) years from the date such tax is due and payable to collect the amount delinquent together with penalties and interest. No action may be commenced to collect taxes imposed by this Title after seven (7) years (or such other shorter period of time as may be provided in this Title) from the date such tax is due and payable, provided that:

(1) In the case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade the tax; or

(2) In the case of failure to file a return; or

(3) In the case of gross error in information reported in a return that would increase the amount of tax payable by twenty-five percent (25%) or more; the tax may be assessed and collected, or a proceeding in any court for the collection of such a tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

(B) Period for Sales and Use Tax. For the purpose of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax imposed by Chapter 20 of this Title, the period of time provided by this Article shall be four (4) years, and any provision of Chapter 20 to the contrary is hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

(C) Agreement to Extend Period. If, before the expiration of the period of time prescribed in this Article for the assessment and collection of any tax imposed by this Title, or before the expiration of any shorter period of time as may be otherwise provided in this Title, the Comptroller, or his representative, and the taxpayer have consented in writing to an assessment after such time, the tax may be assessed and collected, and an action may be commenced in any court to collect the amount delinquent, at any time prior to the expiration of the period agreed upon. The period so agreed upon may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing made before the expiration of the period previously agreed upon.

(D) Beginning of Period. The "date such tax is due and payable" as used in this Article, for purposes of any tax imposed by this Title, shall mean the day after the due date of the tax payment as prescribed by the Article of this Title imposing such tax, provided, however, that with respect to any tax, other than the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax, required to be paid by this Title prior to the effective date of this Article, such term shall mean September 1, 1965.

(E) Suspension of Time for Litigation or Redetermination. When, before the expiration of the period of time prescribed in this Article for the assessment and collection of any tax imposed by this Title, or before the expiration of any shorter period of time as may be otherwise provided for such assessment and collection by any Article of this Title, a tax payment is made under protest, a judicial proceeding is pending in a court of competent jurisdiction to determine the amount of tax due, or an administrative proceeding is pending before the Comptroller for redetermination of tax liability, the period of time prescribed in this Article or otherwise provided by any Article of this Title shall be suspended with respect to the amount of the tax in issue in the protest, court proceeding or administrative proceeding, until such matters are finally determined, whereupon the running of said period of time shall resume until finally expired.

(F) Extension of Time for Action by Regulatory Bodies.

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of any other Article of this Title, when any administrative proceeding before any local, state or federal regulatory agency or judicial proceeding arising therefrom, results in a final determination which affects the amount of tax liability imposed by any Article of this Title, such final determination shall be reported to the Comptroller within sixty (60) days after becoming final, with a statement of the reasons for the difference in tax liability, in such detail as the Comptroller may require.

(2) If, from such report or from investigation, it shall appear that the tax liability affected by such final determination has not been fully assessed, the Comptroller shall, within one year after the receipt of such report or within one year of discovery of such final determination, if unreported, assess the deficiency, with penalties and interest. The Comptroller may bring an action in the courts of this State, or of any other state, or of the United States within such one-year period to collect such deficiency together with penalties and interest. If no report of such final determination is filed within the prescribed sixty-day period, then the Comptroller shall have one year in which to assess any deficiency, penalties and interest, and bring an action to collect such deficiency, penalties and interest, from the date such final determination is reported to the Comptroller, or from the date the Comptroller discovers such final determination, whichever shall first occur.

(3) Should such report or investigation disclose an overpayment of such tax liability, the Comptroller shall issue a refund or credit for such overpayment within the aforementioned one-year period after receiving such report or discovering such final determination.

(4) No action may be commenced to collect any deficiency disclosed by such final determination after one year from the date the Comptroller receives such report or discovers such final determination unless the period prescribed for such an action by this Article or any other Article of this Title has not expired.

(G) Limitation for Refunds and Credits. Notwithstanding any provision of this Title, the period of time during which the Comptroller may refund any overpayment of tax or issue a credit for overpayment of any tax imposed by this Title shall not expire prior to the expiration of the period of time within which the Comptroller may assess a deficiency with respect to such tax. The Comptroller shall not issue any such refund or credit after the time for assessment of a deficiency has expired unless such tax was paid under protest and such refund or credit is made under court order.

Sections 2 and 3 of the act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 2. Severability. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable.

"Sec. 3. Effective date. This Act shall be effective July 1, 1967."

Art. 1.05. Payment of License or Privilege Taxes Under Protest

Protest

(1) Any person, firm, or corporation who may be required to pay to the head of any department of the State Government any occupation, gross receipts, franchise, license or other privilege tax or fee, and who believes or contends that the same is unlawful and that such public official is not lawfully entitled to demand or collect the same shall, nevertheless, be required to pay such amount as such public official charged with the collection thereof may deem to be due the State, and shall be entitled to accompany such payment with a written protest, setting out fully and in detail each and every ground or reason why it is contended that such demand is unlawful or unauthorized.

Suits for Recovery of Taxes or Fees

(2) Upon the payment of such taxes or fees, accompanied by such written protest, the taxpayer shall have ninety (90) days from said date within which to file suit for the recovery thereof in any court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, and none other. Such suit shall be brought against the public official charged with the duty of collecting such tax or fees, the State Treasurer and the Attorney General. The issues to be determined in such suit shall be only those arising out of the grounds or reasons set forth in such written protest as originally filed. The right of appeal shall exist as in other cases provided by law. Provided, however, where a class action is brought by any taxpayer all other taxpayers belonging to the class and represented in such class action who have properly protested as herein provided shall not be required to file separate suits but shall be entitled to and governed by the decision rendered in such class action. A class action shall include any suit filed by any two or more persons, firms, corporation or association of persons who have paid under protest such taxes or fees referred to in section (1) hereof.

Payment of Additional Taxes under Protest after Filing Suit; Amendment of Petition; Jurisdictional Amount

(3) After such suit is filed in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, and before such suit is tried by said court, said taxpayer pays additional taxes under protest, the grounds of protest being the same as in the original petition filed in said court, and the total of said taxes exceeds the jurisdiction of said court, then the taxpayer will be authorized to file suit within ninety (90) days after the payment of such additional taxes in a court in Travis County which has jurisdiction of the total amount of said taxes paid under protest, and when such suit is filed it shall be deemed to have been filed in conformity with provisions of this Chapter; provided further, that a taxpayer may amend his original petition setting up such additional taxes paid under protest, and such amendment, if filed within ninety (90) days after the date of payment of such additional taxes under protest, shall not be considered a new cause of action. Provided further, that if any appeal is taken from the final judgment rendered in such suit, the taxpayer will not be relieved of the duty of continuing paying said taxes under protest pending the appeal of said case; however, it will not be necessary for such taxpayer to file suit within ninety (90) days after the payment of such taxes, but the disposition of such taxes shall be governed by the outcome of the original suit. The provisions of this Article shall apply to all taxes paid under protest, and which taxes have not been finally determined to belong to the State.

Lists Remitted to State Treasurer

(4) It shall be the duty of such public official to transmit daily to the State Treasurer all money so received, with a detailed list of all those remitting same, and he shall inform the State Treasurer in writing that such money was paid under protest as hereinabove provided. A deposit receipt shall be issued by the Comptroller for the daily total of such remittances from each department; and the cashier of the Treasury Department shall keep a cash book to be called "Suspense Cash Book," in which to enter such deposit receipts. Upon the receipt of such money by the State Treasurer it shall be his duty and he is hereby required to immediately and forthwith place the same in State depositories bearing interest in the same manner as any other funds of the State required to be placed in such depositories at interest, and the State Treasurer shall further be required to allocate whatever interest is earned on such funds and to credit the amount thereof to such suspense account until the status of such money is finally determined as herein provided.

Refunds and Warrants

(5) If suit is not brought within the time and within the manner provided in this Article, or in the event it finally be determined in such suit that the sums of money so paid or any portion thereof, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon, belong to the State, then and in that event it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to transfer such money from the suspense account to the proper fund of the State by placing the portion thereof belonging to the State in such fund by the issuance of a deposit warrant. When such deposit warrant or warrants are issued, they shall be entered in the cash book, and the proper fund to which such money is so transferred shall be properly credited therewith. In the event, however, that suit is brought by such taxpayer within the time and within the manner provided in this Article, and it be finally determined that such money so paid by such taxpayer, or any part thereof, was unlawfully demanded by such public official and that the same belongs to such taxpayer, then and in that event it shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to refund such amount, together with the pro rata interest earned thereon, to such taxpayer by the issuance of a refund warrant, the same to be issued in separate series and to be used for making such refunds, to be styled and designated "Tax Refund Warrants" and such warrants shall be written and signed by the Comptroller and countersigned by the State Treasurer and charged against the suspense account, as hereinabove provided and shall then be returned to the Comptroller and delivered by him to the persons entitled to receive the same.

Art. 1.06. Injunctions Against Collection of Excise, Occupation, and Certain Other Taxes, Fees and Penalties

(1) Before any restraining order or injunction shall be granted in this State to restrain or enjoin the collection of any excise tax, occupation tax, sales tax, severance tax, gross receipts tax, license or permit tax, and registration or filing fee or any statutory penalties assessed for failure to pay any of such taxes and before any restraining order or injunction shall be granted against any state official or his authorized representatives in this State to restrain or enjoin the collection of any of the foregoing taxes, fees and penalties, the applicant therefor shall pay into the suspense account of the State Treasurer all taxes, fees and penalties then due by him to the State and the application for restraining order or injunction shall reflect said fact of payment under oath of the applicant, his agent or attorney.

(2) Provided, however, that unless otherwise provided by Statute, said applicant may, in lieu of paying such taxes, fees and penalties into the suspense account of the State Treasurer, file with said Treasurer a good and sufficient bond to guarantee the payment of such taxes, fees and penalties in an amount equal to twice the amount of all taxes, fees and penalties then due and which may reasonably be expected to become due during the pendency of said injunction. The amount of such bond and the sureties thereon shall be approved by and acceptable to the judge of the court granting said injunction and the Attorney General of this State and the application for said restraining order or injunction shall reflect under oath of the applicant, his agent or attorney, that said bond has been approved and filed as aforesaid. Whenever it appears to the Attorney General that any such bond has become insufficient to cover double the amount of the taxes, fees and penalties accruing subsequent to the granting of said injunction, the said Attorney General shall demand of said applicant that additional bond be filed.

(3) Provided, further, that said applicant shall keep during the pendency of the injunction and for a period of one (1) year thereafter open to the inspection at all times of the Attorney General of this State and all other State officials authorized to enforce the collection of such taxes, fees and penalties, a well bound book record of all taxes accruing during the pendency of such restraining order or injunction. Such book record shall include a record of purchases, receipts and sales or other disposition of all commodities, products, materials or articles upon which such taxes are levied or by which the amount of such taxes are measured.

(4) Provided further, that said applicant shall make and file with the state official authorized to enforce the collection of the tax involved, on Monday of each week, a report on a form or forms to be prescribed by said state official showing the weekly accruals of the tax involved together with total purchases, receipts, sales and other disposition of all commodities, products, materials, and articles on which the tax involved in such injunction is levied or by which such tax is measured. Such report shall also show the name and address of all persons from whom such commodities, products, materials and articles were purchased or received and the name and complete address of all persons to whom such commodities, products, materials and articles were sold or distributed. If payment of the tax involved is evidenced or measured by the sale or use of stamps or tickets, a complete record of all such stamps and tickets used, sold or handled shall be kept and shall be included in said report.

(5) Said application and temporary injunction or restraining order shall be immediately dismissed and dissolved after hearing, if said applicant fails, at any time before the case shall have been finally disposed of by the court of last resort to keep the records or make and file the reports required herein or to comply with the Attorney General's demand to file any additional bond necessary to cover double the amount of taxes, fees and penalties accruing subsequent to the granting of said injunction or in the absence of a bond, to pay, on Monday of each week, into the suspense account of the Treasurer of Texas all taxes, fees and penalties involved in said litigation and thereafter becoming due, and such payments shall be made before said taxes, fees and/or penalties become delinquent.

(6) Any proceedings to enjoin the collection of any of the foregoing taxes shall be in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas.

(7) The Attorney General or any state official authorized to enforce the collection of the tax involved may file in the court granting such injunction an affidavit that said applicant has failed to comply with the provisions of this Article or has violated the same. Upon the filing of said affidavit, the clerk of said court shall issue notice to the said applicant to appear before such court upon the date named therein, which shall be within five (5) days from service of such notice or as soon as the court can hear the same, to show cause why such injunction should not be dismissed, which notice shall be served by the sheriff of the county in which the applicant resides or any other peace officer in this State.

(8) In the event the injunction is finally dissolved or dismissed the Treasurer shall make demand upon the applicant and his sureties on any bond filed in lieu of the payment of any taxes, fees and penalties, for immediate payment of said taxes, fees and penalties which if not paid shall be recovered in a suit to be filed by the Attorney General in a court of competent jurisdiction in Travis County, Texas, or any court having jurisdiction.

(9) Provided further, that if said injunction is dissolved or dismissed all taxes, fees and penalties or other funds paid into the suspense account to the Treasurer under the provisions of this Article shall be paid to the funds to which said taxes, fees and penalties are allocated.

(10) If the final judgment maintains the right of the applicant to a permanent injunction to prevent the collection of such taxes, the funds so deposited shall be refunded by the Treasurer to said applicant together with any depository interest the Treasurer may have collected for the deposit of such funds. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Sections 9 and 10 of Acts 1937, 45th Leg., ch. 310, provided:

"Sec. 9. All taxes, penalties and interest accruing to the State of Texas by virtue of any of the repealed or amended provisions as set out in this Act before the effective date of this Act shall be and remain valid and binding obligations to the State of Texas for all taxes, penalties and interest accruing under the provisions of prior or pre-existing cigarette tax laws, and all such taxes, penalties and interest now or hereafter becoming delinquent to the State of Texas before the effective date of this Act are hereby expressly preserved and declared to be legal and valid obligations to the State.

"Sec. 10. The passage of this Act shall not affect offenses committed, or prosecutions begun, under any pre-existing law, but any such offenses or prosecutions may be conducted under the law as it existed at the time of the commission of the offense. Providing, that all other laws or parts of laws that conflict herewith are hereby in all things repealed."

Art. 1.07. Lien and Recording; Failure to Withhold Taxes; Penalties; Fines, etc., Cumulative

(1) (a) In Articles 1.07 and 1.07A, "person" means any individual, firm, copartnership, agency, joint venture, associations, social club, fraternal organization, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, assignee for the benefit of creditors, trustee, trustee in bankruptcy, syndicate, cooperative, assignee, any entity, or any other group or combination acting as a unit, and their successors, assigns, administrators, executors, and representatives.

(b) All taxes, fines, penalties and interest due by any person to the State of Texas by virtue of this Title shall be secured by a lien upon all property of the person owing the taxes subject to execution, owned at the time the lien attaches. As to the person liable for such taxes the lien shall attach to all of his property as of the date the tax is due and payable.

(c) No lien provided for by Title 122A shall be effective as against any bona fide mortgagee, holder of a deed of trust, purchaser or judgment creditor or any other person who for a bona fide consideration has acquired a lien, title or other right or interest in any real estate or personal property of the taxpayer prior to the filing, recording and indexing of such lien in the county where real estate is situated, and for personal property, in the county of the residence of the taxpayer at the time that said tax became due and payable or in the county in which said taxpayer filed his report.

(d) The liens provided for in Articles 1.07, 1.07A and 1.07B are cumulative and in addition to all other liens for taxes, fines, penalties and interests now provided by law.

(e) (i) The Comptroller shall prepare, issue and cause to be filed the notices herein provided for. The notice shall state the name and address of the taxpayer, the taxable periods of time for which the tax or taxes are claimed to be delinquent and the amount of tax only, exclusive of penalty, interest and any other charge, due for each period, and the nature of the tax or taxes, and such other relevant statements as the Comptroller may deem proper.

One notice shall be sufficient to cover all taxes of the same nature which may accrue subsequently to the filing of the notice.

(ii) The Comptroller or his authorized representative may execute, authenticate, certify or sign or cause to be executed, authenticated, certified or signed any notice of lien, release, and all other instruments authorized by this Act to be executed by him or under his direction with his facsimile signature and seal in lieu of his manual signature and his seal and acknowledgment.

(f) (i) The lien shall not be valid or effective as against a bona fide purchaser for value of goods, wares or merchandise daily exposed for sale in the regular course of business and which have been purchased and taken into possession, actual or constructive, prior to the time the goods; wares or merchandise have been taken into legal custody by virtue of a valid legal writ or other lawful process.

(ii) No bank or savings and loan institution shall be required to recognize the claim of the State to any deposit or withhold payment of any deposit to the depositor or to his order unless and until it is served by the Comptroller with notice of the State's claim. Notice shall be served by certified mail to the bank or institution or by written notice served personally upon its president, any vice-president, cashier or any assistant cashier.

(g) (i) Any transfer of property or an interest in property within six (6) months immediately preceding the filing of the notice of liens provided for by this Article (a) by any person who is delinquent in the payment of any tax provided for by this Title; or (b) by any person who is insolvent at the time of such transfer and has received, collected or withheld money as a tax under the provisions of this Title; shall be deemed a preferential transfer and voidable by the Comptroller if such transfer (1) is with intent to defraud the State and (2) is without adequate and sufficient consideration. The Comptroller shall have the right to recover by suit brought by the Attorney General in Travis County, Texas, the property so transferred or the value of such property. This section is cumulative and in addition to any rights accruing to the Comptroller as a creditor under the general laws of this State.

(ii) All property of such preferential transferee subject to execution shall be subject to a prior lien in favor of the State to secure recovery of the amount of the preferential transfer.

(h) (i) Any person may voluntarily pay to the Comptroller the tax, fines, penalties and interest due under any provision of this Title by any other person for any one or more periods of time for which they may be due, and any judgment for such taxes, and may receive from the Comptroller of Public Accounts an assignment of all of the rights, liens, judgments, and remedies of the State to secure and enforce payment thereof, and shall be fully subrogated to and succeed to all such rights, liens, judgments, and remedies of the State. At least 30 days before such assignment can be made, the delinquent taxpayer must be notified by certified mail addressed to the taxpayer at his last known address of the pending assignment as it appears in the Comptroller's records.

(ii) Venue for enforcement by any person other than the State of such an assigned claim and judgment shall be governed by the general law of venue rather than by the special venue provisions of this Title.

(iii) The rights, liens, remedies, and judgments originally assigned by the Comptroller may be re-assigned by any subsequent holder thereof, and each subsequent assignment, unless expressly limited in writing, shall pass to the assignee all of the original rights, liens, remedies, and judgments of the State to secure and enforce payment of such claim, if notice required above in (i) has been given or complied with.

(iv) All transfers and assignments heretofore made by the Comptroller of rights, liens, judgments, and remedies of the State to any person who may have paid any tax due by another under this Title are hereby fully validated and confirmed, and such transferees and their assignees are fully subrogated to and succeed to all rights of the State to enforce collection of the taxes paid, subject to the provisions of this Subdivision.

(v) Any person to whom an assignment of state tax lien has been made may have his assignment recorded in the State Tax Lien Record Book as above provided in paragraph (e), Section 1 in the Office of the County Clerk and indexed to show the name of the assignor and assignee and the date of such assignment.

(i) All sums due by any employing unit to the Texas Employment Commission under the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act shall become a lien on all the property both real and personal belonging to such employing unit or to any individual so indebted. The lien shall attach at the time any contributions, penalties, interest, or other charges become delinquent. The provisions of Articles 1.07, 1.07A, and 1.07B of this Chapter govern the enforcement of this lien. The Texas Employment Commission has all the duties imposed, and the power and authority in administering and enforcing the lien created by this Subdivision (i) that is conferred on the Comptroller for the enforcement of other liens under Articles 1.07, 1.07A, and 1.07B of this Chapter. This lien is cumulative of the lien provided in the Texas Unemployment Compensation Act and that lien is effective according to its terms.

(2) Any person purchasing any natural resources upon which a tax is levied by this Title who fails to deduct and withhold the proper amount of taxes which are due and unpaid under any provision of this Title, and any person who has received or collected any tax or any money represented to be a tax from another shall be liable to the State for the full amount of such taxes plus any accrued penalties and interest thereon.

(3) All penalties, fines, forfeitures or penal offenses provided in this Title as to the same offense, shall be cumulative of one another and of any other fines, penalties, forfeitures, or penal offenses provided by any other law of this State applicable to such offense. Should any such fines, penalties, forfeitures, or penal offenses be in conflict so that such could not be cumulative as above provided, then that law or part of the law containing the provision for the highest penalty in dollars shall be effective and apply as to each such offense, and that law or part of the law containing the provision for the highest fine in dollars (where a fine alone is provided for) shall be effective and apply to each such offense, and in case of forfeiture that law or part of the law containing a provision for the most onerous forfeiture shall be effective and apply to each such offense, and in case of penal offenses containing a provision providing for imprisonment, that law or part of the law containing the provision for the longest maximum imprisonment shall be effective and apply to each such offense; and in each such instance, the lesser fine, penalty, forfeiture, penal offense or punishment shall be suspended.

Acts 1950, 51st Leg., 1st C.S., p. 10, ch. 2, Art. XX §§ 3, 4, and 7, were savings provisions, section 5 was a severability clause, section 6 made allocations of tax revenues subject to appropriation, and section 9 related to reports, rules and regulations.

Section 4 of the amendatory Act of 1961 read as follows: "All laws and parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed; and, in case of such conflict, the provisions of this Act shall control and be effective. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State."

Sections 3 and 4 of the act of 1969 amended articles 1.07A and 1.07B respectively. Section 5 repealed Vernon's Ann.Civ.St. art. 7083b. Sections 6 to 8 provided:

"Sec. 6. All taxes, fines, penalties and interest which may have become delinquent and due under the provisions of Article XXI, Chapter 184, Acts of the 47th Legislature, Regular Session, 1941 (Article 7083b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), at the effective date of this Act shall be secured by and collected under its terms and all liens, rights, and remedies granted by Article XXI are hereby preserved as to such delinquent claims only.

"Sec. 7. This Act takes effect on January 1, 1970.

"Sec. 8. All laws or parts of laws in conflict with the provisions of this Act are hereby repealed; and, in case of such conflict, the provisions of this Act shall control and be effective. This Act shall have no application to litigation pending in any court of competent jurisdiction in this state."

Art. 1.07A. Recording State Tax Liens

(1) (a) Each county clerk shall, at the expense of the county, provide a suitable well-bound book, to be called "State Tax Liens" in which he shall record the notices of state tax liens filed with him by the Comptroller.

(b) Upon receipt of the notices he shall promptly note on each the date and hour of the filing thereof.

(c) He shall promptly index each notice in an alphabetical index provided for that purpose which shall show the name of each person liable for the tax and the book and page number of the notice.

(d) The notice filed by the Comptroller with the clerk shall be recorded in the "State Tax Liens" book, and constitutes the record thereof.

(e) The clerk shall furnish to the Comptroller on a form as prescribed by the Comptroller notice that such lien has been received noting that tax lien was filed and recorded, the time and the date thereof, the volume and page number of the record of each notice.

(2) (a) (i) Payment in whole or in part of any tax secured by a state tax lien may be evidenced by a receipt, acknowledgment, or release signed by an authorized representative of the state agency that filed the lien.

(ii) The release shall be filed in the Office of the County Clerk in the manner as other releases and the County Clerk shall receive the customary fee therefor, at no expense to the State of Texas. Whereupon the clerk shall release the lien filed with him in accordance with the rules and regulations of his office.

(iii) This payment to the clerk constitutes his full fee for the filing and indexing the release of the lien notice.

(iv) The Comptroller shall furnish to the State Highway Department release of any tax liens filed by him with that department.

(3) Release in whole or in part by any assignee of the State's claim for taxes and of its tax lien and of any judgment for such taxes secured by such lien may be filed and recorded with the county clerk for the same fee and in the same manner as releases by the Comptroller or other state agency which may file notice of its lien in the state tax liens records.

(4) The Comptroller upon approval of the Attorney General may release the state's tax lien upon any specific property upon payment to him of the reasonable cash market value of the property, whether real or personal. The value shall be ascertained in the manner prescribed by the Comptroller.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 201, ch. 104, § 2, eff. May 6, 1961; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., p. 2341, ch. 792, § 3, eff. Jan. 1, 1970.]

Sections 1 and 2 of the act of 1969 amended art. 1.07. Section 4 amended art. 1.07B. See, also, notes under art. 1.07.

Art. 1.07B. Status of Tax Liens

(1) The lien on both personal property and real estate shall continue until the taxes secured by it are paid.

(2) The lien shall be either perpetuated and foreclosed or nullified in the judgment in any action to determine its validity. If the lien is perpetuated and foreclosed no further action or notice relevant to the judgment is necessary and the notice or notices of state tax lien already on record continue. If the lien is nullified to any extent by the judgment, then a certified copy of the judgment may be filed with the recorder where the notice of lien is filed and be recorded in the same manner as a release by the Comptroller. Nothing herein shall be construed to require that the liens provided for by this Title must be foreclosed by a judgment of a court, but any authority for collection of any taxes due under this Title which may be provided by law is expressly recognized as a cumulative remedy.

(3) Execution, order of sale and other process for its enforcement may be issued on the judgment at any time.

(4) Judgments perpetuating and foreclosing tax liens may be transferred and assigned for the amount of the taxes covered. They may also be reassigned by any subsequent holder. The transfer shall be filed, recorded, and the judgment released in the same manner as liens before judgment. The assignee shall be fully subrogated to and succeed to all rights, liens, and remedies of the State, providing proper notice as above required in Section 1(1)(h)(i). [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 1.09. Levy by Cities and Counties

No city, county or other political subdivision may levy an occupation tax levied by this Act unless specifically permitted to do so by the Legislature of the State of Texas.

Art. 1.11. Tax Credits

(1) This Article applies to any occupation, excise, gross receipts, franchise, license or other privilege tax or fee collected or administered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. It does not apply to the state ad valorem tax.

(2) When the Comptroller determines that any person, firm or corporation has through mistake of law or fact overpaid the amount due the state on any tax collected or administered by the Comptroller, the Comptroller may with the consent of the taxpayer credit the person, firm or corporation overpaying the tax with the amount of such overpayment.

(a) Consent by a person, firm or corporation to accept a tax credit under this Article constitutes an irrevocable election and a waiver of any further claim or cause of action for the overpayment credited.

(b) Overpayments shall be credited only to liability for the same tax overpaid, and for penalties and interest due the state for late or insufficient payments of the same tax.

(c) Credits shall not include any interest on the amount overpaid nor shall credits bear any interest after issuance.

(d) Credits for overpayment issued by the Comptroller may be assigned in their entirety only and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller.

(e) Credits issued expire at the end of ten (10) years from the date of issuance by the Comptroller. At the end of this ten (10) years any outstanding balance credited but not set off against tax liability including any penalties or interest is automatically cancelled. Cancellation extinguishes the outstanding balance as an obligation of the state and no suit may be brought under this or any other law to collect the outstanding balance.

(f) The Comptroller shall keep a public record of credits issued. He may prescribe rules and regulations for the administration of this Article.

(3) This Article is cumulative of all other laws concerning the payment of taxes, and does not affect the provisions of Acts, 1933, 43rd Legislature, Chapter 214, as amended (codified as Article 1.05 of this Chapter) concerning the payment of taxes under protest.

It does not apply to the State ad valorem tax nor to refunds for nontaxable use of any motor fuel or special fuels.

(2) When the Comptroller determines that any person, firm or corporation has through mistake of law or fact overpaid the amount due the State on any tax collected or administered by the Comptroller, the Comptroller may refund such overpayment by warrant on the State Treasury from any funds appropriated for such purpose.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 1018, ch. 447, § 1, eff. July 1, 1967; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 61, ch. 1, art. 4, § 2, eff. Oct. 1, 1969.]

Sections 2 and 3 of the act of 1967 provided:

"Sec. 2. Severability. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, this invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable.

"Sec. 3. Effective date. This Act shall be effective July 1, 1967."

Art. 1.12. False Reports and Returns—Abolition of Oaths

Any person who willfully makes or subscribes any report, return or claim required or permitted to be filed with the Comptroller by the provisions of this Title 122A, knowing that such report, return or claim is false or untrue in any material fact; or who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels or advises the preparation or presentation of any such report, return or claim which is fraudulent, false or incorrect as to any material matter knowing same to be false; or who knowingly and willfully simulates or falsely or fraudulently executes or signs any such report, return or claim; or who knowingly and willfully procures the same to be falsely or fraudulently executed, or advises, aids in, or connives at such execution thereof shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not less than two (2) years nor more than five (5) years or by a fine of not more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Provided that if any penalties prescribed elsewhere in this Title overlap as to offenses which are also punishable under this Article, then the penalties prescribed by this Article shall apply and control all other penalties.

Provided further, that from and after the effective date of this Act no report, return, declaration, claim for refund or other document required or permitted to be filed with the Comptroller under this Title 122A, shall be required to be under oath, verification, acknowledgment or affirmation.

Art. 1.13. Timely Filing of Reports

(a) Any report, required by any provision of this Title to be filed or made on or before a specific date shall be deemed timely filed if said report, shall be placed in the United States Post Office or in the hands of a common or contract carrier properly addressed to the Comptroller of Public Accounts on or before the date required for such payment, report, annual report, return, declaration, statement, or document to be filed or made.

(b) The postmark or receipt mark (if received by a common or contract carrier) will be prima facie evidence of the date that such report was deposited with the post office or the carrier. The person making the report or the Comptroller may show by competent evidence that the actual date of posting was to the contrary.

(c) The person making the report shall be deemed to have substantially complied with the filing requirements as to timeliness if he exercised reasonable diligence to comply and through no fault of his own the reports were not timely filed.

(d) If the report is filed within ten (10) days after the due date and as originally filed shows the correct amount of taxes due, no assessment for penalties and interest will be made solely on the grounds of late filing after the lapse of ninety (90) days immediately following the date the report was required to be filed.

(e) If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the next business day thereafter will be considered to be the due date.

(f) The term "report" shall include any payment, report, annual report, return, declaration, statement or other document required by any provision of this Title to be filed with the Comptroller.

(g) The Comptroller is hereby authorized to refund or issue credits for penalties and interest paid solely as a result of returns timely mailed but post-marked after the required filing date; provided, however, that no refund or credit shall be allowed for such penalties incurred prior to September 1, 1961, the original effective date of this Article.

(b) Every person engaged in any business pursuant to which he or it may receive, collect or withhold any money which has been paid or withheld as a tax imposed by the provisions of this Title who shall fail to file the reports or to pay any such tax or taxes, as required by this Title, may be enjoined by a suit brought by the Attorney General from continuing in such business until such report or reports are filed and such tax or taxes are paid. Venue of any such suit or injunction is hereby fixed in Travis County, Texas.

(c) In all cases in which the Comptroller determines that any tax due under this Title is insecure he shall require of any taxpayer that is delinquent in one or more tax remittances a cash deposit, a good and sufficient surety bond or other security as a condition for said taxpayer to continue in business and/or obtain or retain any permit issued pursuant to any provisions of this Title. The security shall be in such amount and in such form as the Comptroller deems necessary, except that it shall not exceed double the amount of taxes which he estimates will be due by such taxpayer during the succeeding 12-month period. Failure to furnish such security within ten (10) days after demand therefor will authorize the Comptroller to bring suit in Travis County, Texas, to enjoin the taxpayer from continuing in business until such security is furnished to the Comptroller.

The existence, nonexistence, availability or unavailability of the original shall not affect the admissibility of the reproduction; provided that the original or other competent evidence is admissible in evidence to show the incorrectness of the reproduction or any information reflected thereon.

The tax shall be collected and accounted for by the tax collector each year and appropriated as herein required. The tax shall be paid at any time between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of January following, both dates inclusive, and shall be paid in the county in which the taxpayer resides at the time of payment; and the person, when he pays it, shall be entitled to his poll tax receipt, even if his other taxes are unpaid. No county shall levy a poll tax; but each county may levy a fee of not more than twenty-five cents for collecting the state poll tax, such fee to be paid to the tax collector at the time the poll tax is paid. Except as otherwise provided in Section 75 of the Election Code of Texas (Article 7.10, Vernon's Texas Election Code), the county fees shall be deposited in the county treasury for general revenue purposes of the county and shall not be deemed to be fees of office or be retained by the tax collector, regardless of whether the tax collector is compensated on a fee basis or on a salary basis.

Art. 3.01. Calculation of Tax

(1) There is hereby levied an occupation tax on the business or occupation of producing gas within this State, computed as follows:

A tax shall be paid by each producer on the amount of gas produced and saved within this State equivalent to seven and one-half per cent (7½%) of the market value thereof as and when produced.

Provided, however, that the amount of the tax on sweet and sour gas shall never be less than  $\frac{121}{1500}$  of one cent (1¢) per one thousand (1,000) cubic feet.

(2) In calculating the tax herein levied, there shall be excluded:

- (a) gas injected into the earth in this State, unless sold for such purpose;
- (b) gas produced from oil wells with oil and lawfully vented or flared;
- (c) gas used for lifting oil, unless sold for such purposes.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1969, 61st Leg., 2nd C.S., p. 61, ch. 1, eff. Oct. 1, 1969.]

Section 9 of the Acts 1931, 42nd Leg., ch. 73, read as follows: "The first tax required to be paid hereunder shall be due October 25, 1931, computed and estimated on gas produced during the quarter next preceding, to-wit: July, August and September."

Section 10 repealed in part Civil Statutes, art. 6060.

Section 16 makes the provisions separable and provides if any provision is held invalid, such decision shall not affect the remainder.

Art. 3.02. Market Value

(1) The market value of gas produced in this State shall be the value thereof at the mouth of the well; however, in case gas is sold for cash only, the tax shall be computed on the producer's gross cash receipts. Payments made by purchasers to producers for the purpose of reimbursing such producers for taxes due hereunder shall not be considered a part of the producer's gross cash receipts. In all cases where the whole or a part of the consideration for the sale of gas is a portion of the products extracted from the producer's gas or a portion of the residue gas, or both, the tax shall be computed on the gross value of all things of value received by the producer, including any bonus or premium; provided that notwithstanding any other provision herein to the contrary, where gas is processed for its liquid hydrocarbon content and the residue gas is returned by cycling methods, as distinguished from repressuring or pressure maintenance methods, to some gas producing formation, the taxable value of such gas shall be three-fifths ( $\frac{3}{5}$ ) of the gross value of all liquids extracted, separated and saved from such gas, such value to be determined upon separation and extraction and prior to absorption, refining or processing of such hydrocarbons and such value prior to refining shall be the value of the highest posted price of crude oil in the field where said gas is produced or in the nearest oil field in the event no oil is produced in said field and the quantity of the products shall be measured by the total yield of the processing plant from such gas.

(2) All condensate recovered from gas shall be taxed at the same rate as oil and shall be valued for the purpose of computing the tax due thereon at the prevailing market price for condensate in the general area where the same is recovered. The term "condensate" shall include all liquid hydrocarbons that are or can be recovered from gas by means of a separator but shall not include any liquid hydrocarbons which can only be recovered from gas by refrigeration or absorption and separated by a fractionating process.

Where additional liquid hydrocarbons other than condensate are recovered from gas the taxable value of such additional liquid hydrocarbons shall be determined by deducting from the total receipts of the producer for all liquid hydrocarbons recovered from his gas the taxable value assigned to the condensate and the applicable rate set forth in sub-section (1) of Article 3.01 shall be applied to the difference to determine the tax due hereunder on such additional liquid hydrocarbons.

Art. 3.03. Records and Payment

(1) The tax hereby levied shall be a liability of the producer of gas and it shall be the duty of each such producer to keep accurate records in Texas of all gas produced, making monthly reports as hereinafter provided.

(2) The purchaser of gas shall pay the tax on all gas purchased and deduct the tax so paid from the payment due the producer or other interest holders, making such payments so deducted to the Comptroller of Public Accounts by legal tender or cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer; such moneys so deducted from payments due producers for the payment of this tax shall be held by the purchaser in trust for the use and benefit of the State of Texas and shall not be commingled with any other funds held by said purchaser, and shall be remitted to the State Treasurer in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Act; and it shall be the duty of each such purchaser to keep accurate records in Texas of all such gas purchased.

(3) The tax herein levied shall be due and payable at the office of the Comptroller at Austin on the last day of the calendar month, based on the amount of gas produced and saved during the preceding calendar month, and on or before said date each such producer shall make and deliver to the Comptroller a report on forms prescribed by the Comptroller showing the gross amount of gas produced, less the exclusions and at the pressure base set out herein, upon which the tax herein levied accrues, together with details as to amounts of gas, from what leases said gas was produced, the correct name and address of the first purchaser of said gas, and such other information as the Comptroller may desire; such report to be accompanied by legal tender or cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer for the proper amount of taxes herein levied. In no event shall a producer be relieved of responsibility for the tax until same shall have been paid, and provided, in the event the amount of the tax herein levied shall be withheld by a purchaser from payments due a producer and said purchaser fails to make payment of the tax to the State as provided herein the producer may bring legal action against such a purchaser to recover the amount of tax so withheld, together with penalties and interest which may have accrued by failure to make such payment and shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and court costs incurred by legal action.

(4) Provided that unless such payment of tax on all gas produced during any month or fractional part thereof shall be made on or before the date due as hereinabove specified, such payment shall become delinquent and a penalty of five per cent (5%) of the amount of the tax shall be added, and after the first thirty (30) days shall be forfeited an additional five per cent (5%) of such tax; said penalty shall never be less than One Dollar ($1). Delinquent taxes shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum beginning sixty (60) days from the date due.

(5) The tax herein levied shall be borne ratably by all interested parties, including royalty interests; and producers and/or purchasers of gas are hereby authorized and required to withhold from any payment due interested parties, the proportionate tax due and remit the same to the Comptroller.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 71, ch. 24, art. VII, § 3, eff. Sept. 1, 1961.]

Art. 3.04. Definitions

(10) "Person" shall include any person, firm, concern, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, agent, institution, association, partnership, company, corporation, and persons acting under declarations of trust as well as the trustees acting under such declarations of trust.

(11) "Production" or "total gas produced" shall mean the total gross amount of gas produced including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this Article shall be measured or determined by meter readings showing one hundred per cent (100%) of the full volume expressed in cubic feet.

(12) For the purposes of this Chapter, the term "cubic foot of gas" or "standard cubic foot of gas" means the volume of gas (including natural and casinghead) contained in one cubic foot of space at a standard pressure base and at a standard temperature base. The standard pressure base shall be 14.65 pounds per square inch absolute, and the standard temperature base shall be 60 degrees Fahrenheit. Whenever the conditions of pressure and temperature differ from the above standard, conversion of the volume from these conditions to the standard conditions shall be made in accordance with the Ideal Gas Laws, corrected for deviation.

(13) "Royalty owners" shall mean and include all persons owning any mineral rights under any producing leasehold within this State, other than the working interest, which working interest is that of the person having the management and operation of the well.

(14) "Comptroller" shall mean Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Art. 3.05. Liability for Tax; Payment

(1) The tax herein imposed on the producing of gas shall be the primary liability of the producer as hereinabove defined, and every person purchasing gas from producer thereof and taking delivery thereof at or near the premises where produced shall collect said tax imposed by this Chapter from the producer. Every purchaser including the first purchaser and the subsequent purchaser, required to collect any tax under this Chapter, shall make such collection by deducting and withholding the amount of such tax from any payments made by such purchaser to the producer, and remit same as herein provided. This Section shall not affect any pending lawsuit in the State of Texas or any lease agreement or contract now or that hereafter may be in effect between the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof and/or the University of Texas and any gas producer.

(2) When it shall appear that a taxpayer to whom the provisions of this Chapter shall apply has erroneously paid more taxes than were due during any taxpaying period either on account of a mistake of fact or law, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to credit the total amount of taxes due by such taxpayer for the current period with the total amount of taxes so erroneously paid.

(3) The tax hereby levied shall be a liability upon the producer, the first purchaser, and/or subsequent purchaser or purchasers as herein provided.

(4) The tax hereby levied shall be paid by the first purchaser purchasing the same from the producer, who shall deduct the same from the amount paid producer, as aforesaid, provided, however, that the failure of first purchaser to pay said tax shall not relieve the producer from the payment of same, nor shall it relieve any subsequent purchaser from the payment of same, where the first purchaser does not account for and pay said tax, and it shall be the duty of every person purchasing gas produced in Texas to satisfy himself or itself that the tax on said gas has been or will be paid by the persons primarily liable therefor.

Art. 3.06. Verifying Reports; Investigations, Rules and Regulations

The Comptroller shall employ auditors and/or other technical assistants for the purpose of verifying reports and investigating the affairs of producers and/or purchasers to determine whether the tax is being properly reported and paid. He shall have the power to enter upon the premises of any taxpayer liable for a tax under this Chapter, and any other premises necessary in determining the correct tax liability, and to examine, or cause to be examined, any books, or records of any person, subject to a tax under this Chapter, and to secure any other information directly or indirectly concerned in the enforcement of this Chapter, and to promulgate and enforce, according to law, rules and regulations pertinent to the enforcement of this Chapter, which shall have the full force and effect of law. Before any division or allotment of the occupation tax collected under the provisions of this Chapter is made, one half (½) of one (1) per cent of the gross amount of said tax shall be set aside in the Treasury for the use of the Comptroller in the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter and so much of the said proceeds of one half (½) of one (1) per cent of the occupation tax paid monthly as may be needed in such administration and enforcement is hereby appropriated for such purpose, subject however to appropriation by the Legislature. At the close of each State fiscal year unspent appropriations for enforcement purposes shall revert to the funds to which the net proceeds of the tax levied herein are paid and in the same proportions.

Art. 3.07. Delinquent Taxes

In the event any person engaged in the business of producing any gas in this State shall become delinquent in the payment of the proper taxes herein imposed, or fails to file required reports with the Comptroller, the Attorney General by a suit in the name of the State of Texas shall have the right to enjoin such person from producing gas until the delinquent tax is paid or said reports filed, and the venue of any such suit for injunction is hereby fixed in Travis County.

Art. 3.08. Penalty for Violation; Lien; Suits

Any person, firm, association or corporation shall be subject to a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for failure or omission to keep the records required herein, or for the violation of any of the other provisions hereof, and each day's violation shall constitute a separate offense. The State shall have a prior lien for all delinquent taxes, penalties and interests on all property and equipment used by the producer of gas in his business of producing gas, and if any producer of gas shall fail to remit the proper taxes, penalties, and interest due, or any of them, the Comptroller may employ auditors or other persons to ascertain the correct amount due, and the producer of gas shall be liable, as additional penalty, for the reasonable expenses or the reasonable value of such services of representatives of the Comptroller, incurred in such investigation and audit; provided, that all funds collected for audits and examinations shall be placed in the General Revenue Fund of the State. The Attorney General shall file suit in the name of the State of Texas for all delinquent taxes, penalties, and other amounts due, and for the enforcement of all liens under this law; and the venue of any such suit is hereby fixed in Travis County.

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1961 provided: "Sec. 2. The Natural and Casinghead Gas Audit Fund, No. 73, is hereby abolished and all cash assets remaining in that Fund on the effective date of this Act shall be transferred to the General Revenue Fund of the State within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this Act."

Art. 3.09. Suit to Collect Tax; Report or Audit as Evidence, Report of Transfer

(1) If any producer or purchaser of natural and/or casinghead gas fails or refuses to pay any tax, penalty, or interest within the time and manner provided by this Chapter and it becomes necessary to bring suit or to intervene in any manner for the establishment or collection of said claim in any judicial proceedings, any report filed in the office of the Comptroller by such producer or purchaser or representative of said producer or purchaser or a certified copy thereof certified to by the Comptroller of Public Accounts showing the amount of gas produced on which tax, penalties or interest have not been paid, or any audit made by the Comptroller or his representative from the books of said producer or purchaser when filed and sworn to by such representative as being made from the records of said producer or purchaser, such report or audit shall be admissible in evidence in such proceedings and shall be prima facie evidence of the contents thereof; provided, however, that the incorrectness of said report or audit may be shown; provided, further, that such report or audit may be admitted in evidence only against the party by or from whom it was made.

(2) In the event the Attorney General shall file suit or claim for taxes, provided for in the foregoing, and attach or file as an exhibit any report or audit of said producer or purchaser, and an affidavit made by the Comptroller or his representative that the taxes shown to be due by said report or audit are past due and unpaid; that all payments and credits have been allowed, then, unless the party resisting the same shall file an answer in the same form and manner as required by Article 3736, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas of 1925, as amended by Chapter 239, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-second Legislature, said audit or report shall be taken as prima facie evidence thereof, and the proceedings of said Article are hereby made applicable to suits to collect taxes hereunder.

Art. 3.10. Removal of Gas; Report of Transfer

(1) On notice from the State Comptroller, it shall be unlawful for any person to produce or remove any natural and/or casinghead gas from any lease in this State whenever the owner or operator of said lease has failed to file reports as required under the provisions of this Chapter.

(2) Whenever any lease producing natural and/or casinghead gas changes hands, it shall be the duty of the owner or operator of said lease to note on his last report that said lease has been sold or transferred, showing the effective date of said change and the name and address of the individual, firm, association, joint stock company, syndicate, copartnership, corporation, agency, or receiver who will operate said lease and be responsible for the filing of reports provided for in this Chapter. It further shall be the duty of the new owner or operator of said lease to note on his first report that said lease has been acquired, showing the effective date of said change and the name and address of the individual, firm, association, joint stock company, syndicate, copartnership, corporation, agency, or receiver formerly owning and/or operating said lease.

Art. 3.11. Dedicated Reserve Tax

(1) Declaration of Policy.

It is the policy of this State to obtain, as near as may be consistent with a fair and equitable tax policy, a tax return to the State of not less than one cent (1¢) per MCF on each MCF of natural gas produced and saved from the earth and waters of this State. The same is deemed necessary:

I. to derive a reasonable State revenue from the trillions of cubic feet of gas removed from the earth and waters of the State each year, and

II. to tax equitably all of those persons integrally engaged in the occupation of removing such gas, so that one associated group of them will not derive a windfall by virtue of a very small tax burden on each thousand cubic feet of gas produced by such others.

It is further the policy of this State, in order to promote conservation and to distribute equitably the burden of natural resources taxation, to recognize and clarify fully by statute the relation between various persons engaged in the occupation of producing natural gas so that the taxpayer in each instance may be identified clearly, and so that all persons so engaged in the occupation of production will bear equitably the taxes imposed in connection with the severance of gas from Texas soil.

Pursuant to this policy it is recognized that contractual relations exist in such natural gas production occupation between several definable groups, all engaged integrally in such occupation of severance of natural gas from the soil and all having such a direct and beneficial interest in the production of gas that for the purpose of taxation they may be classified as producers of gas. It is the policy of the State of Texas to recognize that all such persons, integrally engaged in the occupation of severance of natural gas from the soil-producers, severance producers and dedicated reserve producers, have a taxable interest in production of gas in Texas.

(2) Definitions.

The definitions contained in Article 3.04, insofar as applicable, shall govern the meanings of the terms used in this Article. In addition, the following definitions are specifically applicable to this Article:

(a) "Severance producer" means any person owning, controlling, managing or leasing any gas well and/or any person who produces in any manner any gas by taking it from the earth or waters of this State, and shall include any person owning any royalty or other interest in gas or its value, whether produced by him, or by some other person in his behalf, either by lease or contract or otherwise, when such person producing gas is in contractual relation with the dedicated reserve producer (either directly, or, if a royalty or other holder of an interest in gas in place and thereby entitled to a fractional share of the value of such gas in place, indirectly through the producer).

(b) "Dedicated reserve producer" means any person holding a written contract for a designated term specified therein which confers upon such person the right to take title to gas from particular lands, leases and reservoirs in this State and imposes upon a severance producer the duty to supply all or a designated quantity or portion of gas produced by that severance producer (or by that severance producer in conjunction with other severance producers) to the dedicated reserve producer at a fixed or determinable price.

(c) "Severance beneficiary" has the following meaning:

I. In the case where there is in effect a dedicated reserve contract as to the gas in question, the term "severance beneficiary" refers to the dedicated reserve producer.

II. In the case where there is no dedicated reserve contract in effect as to the gas in question, the term "severance beneficiary" refers to the producer.

(d) "Dedicated reserve contract" means any written contract for a designated term specified therein which confers upon a dedicated reserve producer the right to take title to gas from particular lands, leases and reservoirs in this State, and imposes upon a severance producer the duty to supply all or a designated quantity or portion of gas produced by that severance producer (or by that severance producer in conjunction with others) to the dedicated reserve producer at a fixed or determinable price.

(e) I. Meaning of Residue Gas.

A. As to gas from which liquefiable hydrocarbons are removed, "residue gas" means that constituent part of the whole quantity of gas removed from the earth and waters of this State which eventually constitutes the residue. The tax is applicable under the terms of this Article to such constituent part of the whole quantity of gas at the time when it, along with the associated gasoline or other liquefiable hydrocarbons, is actually severed from the earth and waters of this State.

B. As to gas from which liquefiable hydrocarbons are not removed, "residue gas" means the entire quantity except that gas which is:

(i) injected into the earth, unless sold for such purpose;

(ii) produced from oil wells with oil and fully vented or flared; or

(iii) used for lifting oil, unless sold for such purpose.

II. How Measured. Such residue gas shall be measured by determining that portion of gas containing gasoline or other liquefiable hydrocarbons (that are to be removed or extracted at a plant by scrubbing, absorption, compression, or any other process) which is left after the application of such process and which flows through the outlet of such plant. In the event that such gas is processed in more than one such plant, the residue gas content shall be measured as that portion of the gas which flows through the outlet of the first plant.

As to that gas which passes through a separator and which is not processed in a plant to remove or extract the gasoline or other liquefiable hydrocarbons, the residue gas content shall be measured as that portion of the gas remaining after its passage through such separator. In the event that such gas passes through more than one separator, the residue gas content shall be measured as that gas remaining after the passage through the first separator.

As to that gas which passes through a drip or trap and which does not pass through a separator and which is not processed in a plant to remove or extract gasoline or other liquefiable hydrocarbons, the residue gas content shall be measured as that portion of the gas remaining after passage through such drip or trap. In the event that such gas passes through more than one drip or trap, then the residue gas content shall be measured as that portion of the gas remaining after its passage through the last drip or trap.

As to that gas which passes through a meter and which does not pass through a drip or trap and which does not pass through a separator and which is not processed in a plant to remove or extract the gasoline or other liquefiable hydrocarbons, the residue gas content shall be measured as that portion of the gas remaining after it passes through such meter. In the event that such gas passes through more than one meter, then the residue gas content shall be measured as that gas which passes through the first meter.

(f) "MCF" means thousand cubic feet.

(3) The Tax Herein Levied.

(a) There is hereby levied, in addition to all other occupation taxes on the occupation of producing gas in Texas, an occupation tax on the business or occupation of producing gas within this State as a severance beneficiary at the rate of one cent (1¢) per thousand cubic feet of residue gas produced, applicable at the time the said gas is severed from the earth or waters of this State, less the amount of tax paid per MCF under the provisions of Article 3.01 of this Chapter, computed in the following manner:

In the case of all gas subject to the tax imposed by Article 3.01 there shall be ascertained the amount of tax in cents and fractions of a cent per thousand cubic feet paid to the State with respect to each quantity of such gas by virtue of the seven per cent (7%) of value tax provided in that Article. If such amount is less than one cent (1¢) per MCF, then there shall be determined the difference between such amount and one cent (1¢) per MCF. Such amount multiplied by the quantity of the residue gas in question shall constitute the tax obligation of the severance beneficiary of such residue gas.

(b) The above is subject to the following exceptions:

(1) Without regard to any other provision of this Chapter, no producer producing natural gas from a newly discovered field shall be required to pay more than the seven per cent (7%) of the market value of gas therefrom produced until establishment of the first field rules for such field by the Railroad Commission or until the passage of six (6) months from the date of the first discovery of natural gas in such field, whichever time shall be the shorter.

(2) Without regard to any other provision of this Chapter, no producer or royalty owner of natural gas shall be required to pay more than the obligation provided under Article 3.01 of this Chapter unless he is also the severance beneficiary by virtue of selling such gas without a dedicated reserve contract.

(3) Without regard to any other provision of this Chapter no person or persons operating one or more gasoline plants, shall, in respect to the residue gas after processing in said plants, be liable for any tax hereunder.

(4) Collection of Tax.

(a) The tax hereby levied shall be a liability of the severance beneficiary. It shall be his duty to keep accurate records of all gas produced and all matters reasonably necessary or pertinent, as determined by the Comptroller, for the calculation and collection of the tax. The severance beneficiary shall remit the tax additionally levied by this Article. The tax levied herein shall be due and payable at the office of the Comptroller of Public Accounts at Austin on the last day of the calendar month based on the amount of gas produced during the preceding calendar month. Each person liable for the tax imposed herein shall make and deliver to the Comptroller a verified report on forms furnished by the Comptroller showing such information as the Comptroller may deem necessary for the administration and enforcement of this Article. Such report shall be accompanied by legal tender or cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer for the proper amount of taxes herein levied.

(b) The Comptroller shall employ auditors and/or other technical assistants for the purpose of verifying reports and investigating the affairs of producers, including severance producers and dedicated reserve producers, to determine whether the tax is being properly reported and paid. He or they shall have the power to enter on the premises of any taxpayer liable for a tax under this Act and any other premises necessary in determining the correct tax liability, and to examine any books or records and to secure any information directly or indirectly concerned, according to law, and to promulgate rules pertinent to the enforcement of this Article which rules shall have the effect of law. Before any division or allotment of the tax collected hereunder is made, five-tenths per cent

(.5%) of the gross amount of that tax shall be set aside in the State Treasury for the use of the Comptroller in the administration and enforcement of this Article; and so much of the said proceeds of a five-tenths per cent (.5%) of the occupation tax paid monthly as may be needed in such administration and enforcement is hereby set aside for such purposes, subject to appropriation by the Legislature.

(c) In the event that any taxpayer liable for a tax under this Act shall not file a report, the Attorney General shall have the right to enjoin such person until the delinquent tax is paid or said reports are filed, and venue is hereby fixed in Travis County.

(d) All persons having an obligation imposed by this Article shall be subject to a penalty of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for violation hereof, each day's violation constituting a separate offense. The State shall have a prior lien for all delinquent taxes, penalties and interest on all property used by them or in their business of producing or purchasing gas, and if any of them shall fail to remit the proper taxes, penalties and/or interest due, the Comptroller may employ personnel to ascertain the correct amount due, and the person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall be liable, as additional penalty, for the reasonable expenses or the reasonable value of such services of representatives of the Comptroller, incurred in such investigation and audit. The Attorney General shall file suit in the name of the State of Texas for all delinquent taxes, penalties, and other amounts due for the enforcement of all liens under this Article.

(e) The provisions of Article 3.09 of this Chapter shall also be applicable to the enforcement of the provisions of this Article, and where the terms "producer" or "purchaser" are used in that Article, they shall be construed to be broad enough to include "severance producer" and "dedicated reserve producer," as the case may be.

(5) Allocation of Revenue.

(a) The revenue derived under the provisions of this Article shall be allocated in the following manner:

I. Five-tenths percent (.5%) for administration and enforcement as hereinabove provided;

II. One-fourth ( $\frac{1}{4}$ ) of the net revenue shall be allocated to the Available School Fund;

III. The remaining three-fourths ( $\frac{3}{4}$ ) shall be deposited in the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund and shall be set aside for the purpose of transfer and allocation from the Omnibus Tax Clearance Fund to the Medical Assistance Fund as provided by Section 2 of Article XX of Chapter 184, Acts of the Forty-seventh Legislature, Regular Session, 1941, as amended, it being specifically provided that no portion of the revenues deposited to the Omnibus Clearance Fund by virtue of this Act shall be distributed or allocated to any other fund under the provisions governing the Omnibus Clearance Fund unless the needs of the Medical Assistance Fund have been met fully.

(b) "Revenue derived under the provisions of this Act" as used in this Section means such revenue as may be added by virtue of the provisions of this Article 3.11 to that revenue which would otherwise be obtained under other provisions of law.

(6) In case two (2) or more persons pay under protest challenging the constitutionality of any portion of this Article, the Attorney General shall, within thirty (30) days after the filing of the second protest, institute a suit for declaratory judgment in the District Court of Travis County, Texas. In order to expedite the decision in such case or cases, and also in suits filed by taxpayers under Article 1.05, Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, any such cases involving the constitutionality of any portion of this Act shall be advanced to the top of the docket of any District or Appellate Court in which the cases might be filed or appealed.

(7) The provisions of this Article are hereby declared to be nonseverable; and if this Article or any portion thereof is declared invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction as to any severance beneficiary, it shall be invalid from the beginning as to the producer and all other severance beneficiaries. The provisions of this Article shall prevail over the provisions of the general severability clause at the end of this Act.

[Acts 1961, 57th Leg., 1st C.S., p. 71, ch. 24, art. VI, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1961.]

Art. 3.12 False Entries; Destroying or Secreting Records

Whoever shall, as a producer or purchaser or as agent or representative of a producer or purchaser, knowingly make any false entries or fail to make any proper entries in the books required by this Article with intent to defraud the State; or whoever, as such, shall knowingly make a false or incomplete report as required by the provisions of this Article; or whoever, as such, shall knowingly fail or refuse to make the report required to be made; or whoever, as such, shall destroy, mutilate, or secrete any of the records required to be kept by the provisions of this Article; or whoever shall, as such, hide or secrete with intent to defraud, any of the property upon which a lien is created hereunder, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in a sum of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100), nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), or be confined in the county jail not more than twelve (12) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

In addition thereto, such producer or purchaser or agent thereof shall forfeit to the State of Texas, for any said offense or the violation of any of the provisions hereof, or any rule or regulation, a penalty of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) for each such offense to be recovered by the Attorney General in a civil suit in the name of the State of Texas; and the venue of such suit is hereby fixed in the county in which the offense occurs, and such suit may be brought separately or joined and made a part of any one civil suit provided for by this Article. The penalties prescribed in this Section, both Criminal and Civil, are in addition to any and all other penalties prescribed in this Article.

Art. 4.01. Definitions

(1) For the purpose of this Chapter "producer" shall mean any person owning, controlling, managing or leasing any oil well and/or any person who produces in any manner any oil by taking it from the earth or waters in this State, and shall include any person owning any royalty or other interest in any oil or its value whether produced by him, or by some other person on his behalf, either by lease, contract or otherwise.

(2) "First purchaser" shall mean any person purchasing crude oil from the producer.

(3) "Subsequent purchaser" shall mean any person operating any reclamation plant, topping plant, treating plant, refinery, and/or any kind or character of processing plant, or anyone who purchases oil for any purpose whatsoever, when said oil is purchased from any person other than the producer.

(4) "Carrier" shall mean the owner, operator, or manager of any means of transporting oil or any instrumentality that may now be used or come into use.

(5) "Oil" shall mean crude oil, or other oil taken from the earth, regardless of gravity of the oil.

(6) "Report" shall mean any report required to be furnished in this Chapter or that may be required by the Comptroller in the administration of this Chapter.

(7) "Person" shall include any person, firm, concern, receiver, trustee, executor, administrator, agent, institution, association, partnership, company, corporation, and persons acting under declarations of trust as well as the trustees acting under such declarations of trust.

(8) "Production" or "total oil produced" shall mean the total gross amount of oil produced including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this Article shall be measured or determined

(a) by tank tables compiled to show one hundred percent (100%) of the full capacity of the tanks without deductions for coverage or losses in handling or

(b) by meter or other measuring device which accurately determines the volume of "production" or "total oil produced."

Allowances for any reasonable and bona fide deduction for basic sediment and water, and for correction of temperature to sixty degrees (60°) Fahrenheit will be allowed. If the amount of oil produced has been measured or determined by tank table compiled to show less than one hundred percent (100%) of the full capacity of tanks, then such amount shall be raised to a basis of one hundred percent (100%) for the purpose of the tax imposed by this Chapter.

(9) "Royalty owners" shall mean and include all persons owning any mineral rights under any producing leasehold within this State, other than the working interest, which working interest, is that of the person having the management and operation of the well.

(10) "Comptroller" shall mean Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

(11) "Commission" shall mean the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Art. 4.02. Amount and Computation of Tax

(1) There is hereby levied an occupation tax on oil produced within this state of four and six-tenths cents (4.6¢) per barrel of forty-two (42) standard gallons. Said tax shall be based upon the total barrels of oil produced or salvaged from the earth or waters of this state without any deductions and shall be computed (a) by tank tables showing one hundred percent (100%) of production and exact measurements of contents or (b) by meter or by other measuring device which accurately determines the volume of "production" or "total oil produced." Provided, however, that the occupation tax herein levied on oil shall be four and six-tenths percent (4.6%) of the market value of said oil whenever the market value thereof is in excess of One Dollar ($1) per barrel of forty-two (42) standard gallons. The market value of oil, as that term is used herein, shall be the actual market value thereof plus any bonus or premiums for other things of value paid therefor or which such oil will reasonably bring if produced in accordance with the laws, rules, and regulations of the State of Texas.

Acts 1963, 58th Leg., p. 1136, ch. 441, which amended paragraph (8) of article 4.01 and this article, provided in section 3: "Nothing herein shall be construed to permit the use of metering devices for the measurement of oil as set forth above without the express permission of the operator of the well or wells on which such metering device or devices are to be installed."

Art. 4.03. Primary Liability; Mode of Payment; Refunds, Penalties

(1) The tax herein imposed on the producing of crude petroleum shall be the primary liability of the producer as hereinbefore defined, and every person purchasing crude petroleum from the producer thereof and taking delivery thereof at the premises where produced shall collect said tax imposed by this Chapter from the producer. Every purchaser including the first purchaser and the subsequent purchaser, required to collect any tax under this Chapter, shall make such collection by deducting and withholding the amount of such tax from any payments made by such purchaser to the producer, and remit same as herein provided. This Section shall not affect any pending law suit in the State of Texas, or any lease agreement or contract now or that hereafter may be in effect between the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof and/or The University of Texas and any oil producer.

(2) When it shall appear that a taxpayer to whom the provisions of this Chapter shall apply has erroneously paid more taxes than were due during any taxpaying period either on the account of a mistake of fact or law, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to credit the total amount of taxes due by such taxpayer for the current period with the total amount of taxes so erroneously paid.

(3) The tax hereby levied shall be a liability upon the producer, the first purchaser, and/or subsequent purchaser or purchasers as herein provided.

(4) The tax hereby levied shall be paid by the first purchaser purchasing the same from the producer, who shall deduct the same from the amount paid producer, as aforesaid, provided, however, that the failure of first purchaser to pay said tax shall not relieve the producer from the payment of same, nor shall it relieve any subsequent purchaser from the payment of same, where the first purchaser does not account for and pay said tax, and the State shall have a lien on all of the oil produced in Texas in the hands of the producer, the first purchaser and any subsequent purchaser to secure the payment of the tax, and it shall be the duty of every person purchasing oil produced in Texas to satisfy himself or itself that the tax on said oil has been or will be paid by the persons primarily liable therefor.

(5) If the oil produced by said producer is not sold during the month in which it is produced, then said producer shall pay the tax at the same rate and in the same manner as if said oil were sold during said

Provided, that if oil produced is not sold during the month in which produced, then said producer shall pay the tax at the same rate and in the manner as if said oil were sold.

(9) The tax levied herein shall be paid monthly on the twenty-fifth day of each month on all oil produced during the month next preceding by the purchaser or the producer as the case may be, but in no event shall a producer be relieved of responsibility for the tax until same shall have been paid, and provided, in event the amount of the tax herein levied shall be withheld by a purchaser from payments due a producer and said purchaser fails to make payment of the tax to the State as provided herein the producer may bring legal action against such purchaser to recover the amount of tax so withheld, together with penalties and interest which may have accrued by failure to make payments and shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys fees and court costs incurred by such legal action.

(10) Provided, that unless such payment of tax on all oil produced during any month or fractional part thereof shall be made on or before the twenty-fifth of the month immediately following, such payment shall become delinquent and a penalty of five per cent (5%) of the amount of the tax shall be added, and after the first thirty (30) days shall be forfeited an additional five per cent (5%) of such tax; said penalty shall never be less than One Dollar ($1). ### Art. 6.01. Imposition of Tax

(1) There is hereby levied a tax upon every retail sale of every motor vehicle sold in this State, such tax to be equal to four percent (4%) of the total consideration paid or to be paid for said motor vehicle. In the case of a motor vehicle purchased to be rented or held for rental, the tax is levied on the gross rental receipts of the renting of such motor vehicle at the same rate as that tax levied in Article 20.02 of this title. Provided, however, that where the period for rental is intended to be for more than 31 days, such rental is deemed to be a lease as defined in this Article and the purchaser-lessor must pay the tax on total consideration paid or to be paid for said motor vehicle. The tax on rental receipts shall be collected by the owner from the renter who has exclusive use of the motor vehicle for a period of time and has the right to direct the manner of use of the vehicle, whether exercised or not, for that period. It is unlawful and shall be a misdemeanor for the owner of the rented motor vehicle to advertise that the tax or any part thereof will be absorbed or assumed by the renter.

(2) There is hereby levied a use tax upon every motor vehicle purchased at retail sale outside this State and brought into this State for use upon the public highways by any person, firm or corporation who is a resident of this State or who is domiciled or doing business in this State. The tax imposed by this subsection shall be equal to four percent (4%) of the total consideration paid or to be paid for said vehicle at said retail sale. The tax shall be the obligation of and be paid by the person, firm or corporation operating said motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State.

(3) There is hereby levied a use tax in the sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15) upon any person making application for the initial certificate of title on a motor vehicle which was previously registered in his name in any other State or foreign country. It is the purpose of this subsection to impose a use tax upon motor vehicles brought into this State by new residents of this State.

(4) There is hereby levied a tax in the sum of Five Dollars ($5) upon any transaction involving the even exchange of two (2) motor vehicles which tax shall be paid by each party to the transaction.

(5) There is hereby levied a tax in the sum of Ten Dollars ($10) upon any person who makes a gift of a motor vehicle to another person which tax shall be paid by the donee.

(6) In the renting of motor vehicles, as that term is defined in this Article, and where the gross rental receipts are subjected to tax in lieu of a tax on the total consideration paid or to be paid for a motor vehicle, the purchaser shall furnish the County Assessor and Collector of Taxes with a resale certificate in accordance with the provisions of Article 6.04 of this Chapter, whereupon the Tax Collector shall accept the motor vehicle for registration or transfer.

(7) Motor vehicles purchased to be rented or to be held for renting must be purchased by an owner for use in a business where the renting of motor vehicles is an established business. Every motor vehicle used in a business which either rents or leases motor vehicles to others, as those terms are defined in this Article, and for consideration, must have paid the tax on total consideration at the time of purchase of those motor vehicles intended for leasing or must be collecting and paying the gross rentals receipts tax on renting those motor vehicles. Any motor vehicle leased in this State and owned by the original manufacturer must be registered in this State and taxed in accordance with the provisions of this Article. If a person engages in both renting and leasing of motor vehicles, he shall keep complete and adequate records, segregating or enabling the segregation of both types of transactions.

(8) When the owner of a motor vehicle changes the status of the motor vehicle from a rental unit to a lease unit, the owner shall so inform the State Comptroller of Public Accounts of such change on a form to be supplied by the Comptroller, and the owner shall then pay the tax on such motor vehicle based on the owner's book value and at the rate provided in this Article.

The taxes levied by or under this Chapter shall be in addition to any and all license fees and taxes levied by or under any other law of this State.

"Sec. 6. This Act shall be effective from and after July 1, 1963.

"Sec. 7. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are repealed to the extent of the conflict."

Taxes incurred under any law repealed by this Act are an obligation within the meaning of this Section. In addition, any permit or license obtained under any law repealed by this Act shall remain effective for the term and under the conditions prescribed by the repealed law under which the permit or license was granted or issued.

"In addition to the application of this Act with respect to transactions occurring on and after the effective date hereof, the definitions, exemptions and other provisions hereof are intended to clarify the prior law (Chapter 24, Acts 1961, Fifty-seventh Legislature, First Called Session) and shall not be considered in construing or applying the prior law in such a manner as to cause or result in the imposition of any tax thereunder which would not have been imposed under the prior law in the absence of this Act."

Art. 6.02. Duties of Comptroller of Public Accounts

The Comptroller of Public Accounts shall have general supervision over the collection of the taxes imposed by this Chapter. He may establish rules and regulations for the determination of taxable value of motor vehicles and for the efficient administration of this Chapter. The Comptroller is empowered to authorize licensed cigarette distributors to impress on or attach to each package of cigarettes, evidence of tax payments, by means of a stamp metering machine. The Comptroller shall adopt rules and regulations relating to the imprinting of such tax meter stamps as will result in payment of the proper taxes herein imposed. No distributor shall affix revenue tax stamps to original packages of cigarettes by imprinting tax meter stamps thereon unless such distributor has first obtained permission from the Comptroller to employ this method of affixation. The Comptroller shall regulate the use of tax meters and may, to assure the proper collection of the taxes imposed by this Chapter, revoke or suspend the privilege, there-before granted by the Comptroller to any distributor, without previous notice, to imprint tax meter stamps upon original packages of cigarettes; and provided that all distributors of cigarettes using meter stamping machines shall submit their request for settings on forms to be furnished by the Treasurer of the State of Texas. Distributors must forward their meters, at the expense of the distributor, direct to the State Treasurer, Austin, Texas, for setting, accompanied by proper remittance as required. The meter will then be set and returned, insurance and shipping cost collect upon delivery. The State Treasurer will retain the key to the meter and the seal on said meter may be broken or removed only by the State Treasurer. All requests for meter settings shall be in units of one hundred (100) and must not exceed ninety-nine thousand, nine hundred (99,900). [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 7.08. Authority of Comptroller

(1) The Comptroller shall design and have printed or manufactured new cigarette tax stamps of such size and denomination and in such quantities as may be determined by the Comptroller. The stamps shall be so manufactured as to render them easy to be securely attached to each individual package of cigarettes; provided that a different and separate serial number or combination letter and number may be assigned to and printed on the margin of each sheet of stamps, or other methods of identification be adopted as the Comptroller may decide. The printing or manufacturing of the stamps shall be awarded by competitive bid and the contract shall be awarded to the person submitting the lowest and best bid that will afford the greatest and best protection to the State in the enforcement of the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Comptroller, acting through the Treasurer, shall, upon receipt of the stamps hereinabove authorized to be printed or manufactured, designate the date of issue of the new design of stamps by issuing a proclamation as hereinafter provided. Provided that the stamps shall be affixed by the distributor on each individual package of cigarettes that will be handled, sold, distributed, or used; that said stamps shall be supplied by said Treasurer to all distributors holding a permit at a discount of 2 $\frac{3}{4}$  percent of the face value; provided, that no discount shall be allowed to out-of-state purchasers residing in the states that do not give discounts on cigarette tax stamps purchased from said states by Texas cigarette distributors; provided that if any distributor fails or refuses to comply with any provision of the cigarette tax law or violates the same, such distributor shall be required to pay the full face value for stamps purchased during the period of such offense and the Treasurer shall, upon receipt of an affidavit from the Comptroller setting forth such violation, refuse to supply stamps at the discount provided until such offending distributor has paid any unauthorized discounts received by him and has otherwise purged himself of all such violations; provided further, that every distributor shall cause to be affixed to every individual package of cigarettes on which a tax is due, stamps of an amount equaling the tax due thereon, before any such distributor sells, offers for sale, or consumes, or otherwise distributes or transports the same.

(3) The State Treasurer is hereby required to redeem at face value any unused cigarette tax stamps lawfully issued prior to such change in denomination and in the possession of any bona fide owner, by exchanging at face value cigarette tax stamps for cigarette tax stamps of the new denomination. After the effective date of this Chapter, every person having in his possession stamps of the old denomination shall send them to the Treasurer for exchange at face value for stamps of the new denomination. Such exchange shall be made within sixty (60) days after the effective date of this Act, and it shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any stamps of the old denomination after the expiration of sixty (60) days from the effective date of this Chapter. It shall further be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or possess for the purpose of sale, cigarettes to which stamps of the old denomination are affixed. After the expiration of sixty (60) days from the effective date of this Chapter, stamps of the old denomination shall be void, provided, that stamps removed from cigarettes determined by the Comptroller to be unsaleable may be redeemed under rules and regulations promulgated or hereafter promulgated by the Comptroller. Every retail dealer and wholesale dealer having cigarettes to which stamps of the old denomination are affixed in his stock in quantities of two thousand (2,000) or more on the effective date of this Chapter shall immediately inventory the same and file a report of such inventory to the Comptroller and attach to such inventory a cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer in a sum equal to the amount of additional tax due on such cigarettes computed at the new rate provided in this Chapter. Such retail dealer or wholesale dealer shall retain as a receipt to evidence payment of the tax a purchaser's copy of the cashier's check and shall retain a copy of the inventory reported to the Comptroller. Failure or refusal to render such inventory shall be deemed sufficient grounds for the cancellation of any permit issued under this Chapter, and in addition thereto, any retail or wholesale dealer failing or refusing to render such inventory shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

(4) The Comptroller is hereby authorized to change the design of the stamp as often as he may deem such change necessary to the best enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter, and the Treasurer is hereby required to redeem at face value any unused cigarette tax stamps lawfully issued, prior to such change in the design, which are in the possession of any bona fide owner, by exchanging at face value cigarette tax stamps of the new design. Provided, that whenever a change is made in the design of the stamps every person holding stamps of the old design shall be required to send them to the Treasurer for exchange at face value for stamps of the new design. Such exchange shall be made within sixty (60) days after the date of the issue of the new design of stamps and it shall be unlawful for any person to have in his possession any stamps of an old design after sixty (60) days from the date of issue of a new design; provided, it shall be unlawful for any person to sell, offer for sale, or possess for the purpose of sale cigarettes to which stamps of the old design are affixed after sixty (60) days from the date of issue of a new design; provided further, that after sixty (60) days from the date of issue of any new design of stamps the old design shall be void and cigarettes with stamps of the old design affixed to the individual package shall, for the purposes of the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter, be considered as cigarettes without stamps affixed thereto. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer upon receipt of any new design of stamps authorized to be printed by the Comptroller to designate the date of issue of such new design by the issuance of a proclamation and the date of such proclamation shall be the date of issue of the new design of stamps.

Any person who shall have in his possession any cigarette tax stamps of the old design after sixty (60) days from the date of issue of a new design of stamps shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished as set out in Article 7.37 of this Chapter.

(5) Provided that any cigarette tax stamps may be exchanged only when proof satisfactory to said Treasurer is furnished that any stamps offered to said Treasurer in exchange were properly purchased and paid for by the person offering to exchange such stamps; provided, further, that stamps which are effaced or mutilated in any manner may be refused for acceptance in exchange by said Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall keep a record of all stamps sold by him or under his direction, of all stamps exchanged by him and of all refunds made on any stamps purchased.

(6) Orders for cigarette tax stamps shall be sent direct to the Treasurer and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to invoice the stamps ordered to the purchaser upon a form invoice to be prescribed by the Treasurer, which invoice shall be issued in triplicate and numbered consecutively. The invoice shall show the date of sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the number of stamps and their serial numbers, the denomination and value of stamps so purchased. The invoice shall be signed by the Treasurer and the original sent with stamps to the purchaser; the duplicate of the invoice shall be sent to the Comptroller and the triplicate kept by the Treasurer; provided, further, that the purchaser of said stamps shall hold the said invoice for a period of two (2) years for inspection at all times by the Comptroller and the Attorney General. No stamp affixed to a package of cigarettes shall be cancelled by any letter, numeral or any other mark of identification or otherwise mutilated in any manner that will prevent or hinder the Comptroller in making an examination as to the genuineness of said stamps.

(7) Stamps in unbroken sheets of one hundred (100) stamps may be exchanged, with the Treasurer only, for stamps of a different denomination. Provided, further, that the Treasurer shall be authorized to make refunds on unused stamps in unbroken sheets of not less than one hundred (100) stamps each to the person who purchased said stamps only when proof satisfactory to said Treasurer is furnished that any stamps upon which a refund is requested were properly purchased from said Treasurer and paid for by the person requesting such refund. Such refund shall be made from revenue derived from this Act before such revenue is allocated as herein provided. The Comptroller shall have full power and authority over obsolete cigarette stamps, and the responsibility for burning said stamps is placed upon the Comptroller. Appropriations out of Cigarette Tax Enforcement Fund (No. 66) heretofore made to the State Board of Control for the purpose of paying the salary of the supervisor and for the purchase of cigarette stamps shall hereafter be made to the Comptroller of Public Accounts, Cigarette Tax Division.

(8) A distributor may order stamps shipped with draft attached to the bank with which said distributor regularly transacts business. The Treasurer is hereby authorized to ship stamps in compliance with such orders to any such bank authorized to do business in Texas under the laws of this State and the United States. Such stamps, together with the invoice required under Article 7.08, Subsection (6) of this Chapter, shall be attached to a form draft to be prescribed by the State Auditor, which draft shall show the date of shipment, the name and address of the bank, the name of the distributor and the amount of said draft. If said draft is not paid within twenty (20) days of the date thereon, it shall be returned together with the stamps attached to the Treasurer. Any distributor failing to take up such draft and stamps as ordered by him shall be notified at the end of such twenty-day period by the Treasurer to appear within five (5) days before the Treasurer to show cause why he should not be denied the privilege of ordering stamps as herein provided, and if such distributor shall fail to show good cause, the Treasurer is hereby authorized to discontinue the shipment of stamps with draft attached as herein provided.

(9) The State Treasurer shall require that payment in full for stamps or meter settings be made within fifteen (15) days from the date the stamps or the set meter are received by the distributor. In each fiscal year, payment for stamps and meters received in August of that year shall be paid in full on or before August 31 no matter when purchased or received by the distributor during that month. Upon receipt of an order for stamps or the setting of a meter, the State Treasurer shall ship such stamps or set such meter in compliance with the order and transmit with the stamps or the meter a certified statement showing the amount due for said stamps or meter setting, and the distributor shall forward a remittance as payment in full of the amount certified as due by the State Treasurer within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the stamps or the set meter and the certified statement, or for stamps and meters received in August of each fiscal year in full on or before August 31 no matter when purchased or received by the distributor during that month. However, in order to secure the payments of the tax as provided in this Section, a distributor must file with the State Treasurer a surety bond, approved by the State Treasurer and the Attorney General, with a corporate surety authorized to do business in this State, conditioned upon payment in full for the stamps or meter settings within the time specified in this Section. Payment by a company check or by personal check of a bonded distributor shall be treated as cash payment when received by the State Treasurer for payment of stamps or meter settings received by the bonded distributor. The State Treasurer shall fix the amount of the bond, in an amount equal to one and one-half times the credit in stamps and/or meter settings requested by the distributor and approved by the State Treasurer for the purchase of stamps and/or meter settings during the succeeding month. Any distributor who fails to forward the proper remittance by the due date shall be notified by the State Treasurer within five (5) days after the due date to appear within five (5) days before the Treasurer to show cause why he should not be denied the privilege of ordering stamps as herein provided, and if such distributor shall fail to show good cause, the Treasurer is hereby authorized to discontinue the shipment of stamps or the setting of meters as provided in this Section and to enforce payment of the bond.

Art. 7.09. Distributors, Wholesalers, Retail Dealers

(1) Every distributor, wholesale dealer and retail dealer in this State now engaged, or who desires to become engaged, in the sale or use of cigarettes upon which a tax is required to be paid, shall file with the Comptroller in accordance with the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth by this Article an application for a cigarette permit as a distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer, as the case may be, said application to be accompanied by a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) if for a distributor's permit, or a fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15) if for a wholesale dealer's permit, or a fee of Five Dollars ($5) if for a retail dealer's permit except that distributors, wholesalers, and retail dealers who hold valid permits at the effective date of this law may continue in business under such permits until the expiration thereof at which time renewal permits must be obtained under the terms and conditions set forth in this Article. No person subject to this Article, who is lawfully engaged in business as a distributor on the date of enactment of this law shall be denied the right to carry on such business pending reasonable opportunity to make application for permit and final action thereon. No other person shall engage in business as a distributor without first obtaining a permit to engage in such business.

(2) Every person, before commencing business as a distributor of tobacco products, and at such other time as the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent shall prescribe or direct, shall make application for the permit provided for in this Article. The application shall be in such form as the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent shall prescribe and shall set forth truthfully and accurately all of the information called for on and by the form. The Comptroller or his duly appointed agent may require upon or supplementary to such application all information pertaining to the applicant's financial standing, business experience, trade connections, previous business affiliation including prior employment, prior convictions for felonies and any and all other information, without regard to the rule of ejusdem generis, which he may deem necessary to determine whether the applicant is entitled to a permit provided that in the case of applicants which are corporations, associations, joint ventures, syndicates, partnerships, proprietorships or other similar entities all such information enumerated above may be required as to each officer, director, 10 per cent or more stockholder, partner, member, owner and managing employee or employees. Such application may be rejected and the permit denied if the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent after notice and opportunity for hearing finds that:

(a) The premises on which it is proposed to conduct the business are not adequate to protect the revenue; or

(b) The applicant or managing employee (including, in the case of a corporation, any officer, director, manager or any stockholder who holds directly or through family or partner relationship 10 per cent or more of the stock of such corporation and, in the case of a partnership, a partner or manager) is, by reason of his business experience, financial standing, trade connections, previous business affiliation, including prior employment, or prior conviction of a felony not likely to maintain operations in compliance with this Chapter, or has failed to disclose any material information required or made any material false statement in the application therefor.

(3) If the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent has reason to believe any person holding a permit has not in good faith complied with the provisions of this Article or rules and regulations or with any other provision of this Chapter involving intent to defraud, or has violated the conditions upon which such permit was issued, or has failed to maintain his premises in such manner as to protect the revenue or has failed to notify the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent of any change in the business affecting ownership, control or operation thereof, the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent shall issue an order stating the facts charged, citing such person to show cause why his permit should not be suspended or revoked.

(4) If after a hearing the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent finds that such person has not in good faith complied with this Article or rules and regulations or with any other provision of this Chapter involving intent to defraud, has violated the conditions of such permit, has failed to disclose any material information required or made any material false statement in application therefor, or has failed to maintain his premises in such manner as to protect the revenue, or has engaged in any activities which endanger the revenue, such permit shall be suspended for such period as the Comptroller or his duly appointed agent deems proper or shall be revoked.

(5) Applications for permits to conduct business as wholesalers or retail dealers shall be made on forms prescribed by the Comptroller, to be furnished upon written request, failure to furnish which shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said forms shall set forth:

(a) The manner in which such wholesale dealer or retail dealer transacts or intends to transact such business as wholesale dealer or retail dealer;

(b) The principal office, residence and place of business in Texas for which the permit is to apply;

(c) And, if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof not to exceed three (3) and their addresses.

The Comptroller may require any other information as he may desire in said applications.

(6) No distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer shall sell any cigarettes until such application has been filed and the fee prescribed paid for a permit and until such permit is obtained. Said permits shall expire on the last day of February of each year, but may be renewed upon like application and upon payment of another fee in the amount prescribed for the kind of permit desired. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer. Provided, however, that any distributor manufacturing, importing, or acquiring in any manner, cigarettes for his own personal use or consumption and not to be disposed of by sale, gift, or otherwise shall not be required to obtain a distributor's permit but shall be required to make the report required herein of a distributor and to comply with all other provisions of this Act affecting a distributor; provided, further, that the Treasurer shall be authorized to sell stamps to such distributors acquiring cigarettes for their own personal use or consumption and not for sale or other disposal, in lesser quantities than unbroken sheets of one hundred (100) stamps.

(7) Upon receipt of the application and fee herein provided for, and if the applicant has, in the judgment of the Comptroller or his designated agent, complied with all conditions of issuance as enumerated above and the Comptroller or his designated agent has determined that issuance of the permit will not jeopardize the revenue, then the Comptroller shall issue to every distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer for the place of business designated, a nonassignable consecutively numbered permit, designating the kind of permit and authorizing the sale of cigarettes in this State. Said permit shall provide that the same is revocable and shall be forfeited or suspended if the conditions of issuance as set forth above are not complied with, upon any violation of provisions of this Act or any reasonable rule or regulation adopted by the Comptroller. If such permit is revoked or suspended said distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer shall not sell any cigarettes from such place of business until a new permit is granted or the suspension of the old permit removed. Provided, that the Treasurer may refuse to sell stamps to any person who has not obtained a permit to engage in business as a distributor or to any distributor whose permit has been revoked or suspended until such permit has been reinstated or a new permit issued.

(8) The permit shall at all times be publicly displayed by the distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer at his place of business so as to be easily seen by the public and the persons authorized to inspect the same. Provided, that any distributor, wholesale dealer, or retail dealer who is the legal owner and holder and is operating under any unexpired permit which has been issued by the Comptroller as provided by Chapter 241, Acts of the Regular Session of the Forty-fourth Legislature, as amended, shall not be required to make application for and obtain from the Comptroller a permit as required herein prior to the expiration of the twelve (12) months for which such permit was issued. Provided, further, that any person who operates both as a distributor and wholesale dealer in the same place of business shall only be required to obtain a distributor's permit for the particular place of business where such operation of said business is conducted, but if any distributor or wholesale dealer sells cigarettes at both wholesale and retail, an additional permit as a retail dealer shall be required. Any unexpired permit may be returned to the Comptroller for credit on the unexpired portion only upon the purchase of a permit of a higher classification.

(9) If the application is for a permit to sell cigarettes from or by means of a cigarette vending machine, train, automobile or other vehicle, the serial number of said vending machine, the make and motor number and State Highway license number of said automobile or other vehicle and the name of the railway company and number of said train shall be shown on the application.

Art. 7.10. Possession of Unstamped Cigarettes

Every person, other than a distributing agent, bonded distributor, or common carrier, shall before receiving or accepting delivery of any cigarettes without stamps affixed to evidence the payment of the tax, obtain from the Treasurer the requisite amount or number of stamps necessary to stamp such cigarettes and the possession of any unstamped cigarettes without the possession of the requisite amount or number of stamps shall be prima facie evidence that said cigarettes are possessed for the purpose of making a "first sale" thereof without stamps and without payment of the tax levied herein.

Every distributor in this State shall cause all cigarettes received by him to have the requisite denominations and amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax as levied herein, within ninety-six (96) hours, excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays, after receiving delivery of them.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., p. 2046, ch. 755, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1967; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2348, ch. 712, § 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Provided, that such bond shall be approved by and acceptable to the Comptroller in an amount of not less than Two Hundred and Fifty ($250.00) Dollars and not more than double an amount necessary to stamp the largest quantity of cigarettes set aside at any time for the conduct of such business, and any quantity so set aside which is larger than that permitted in said bond shall be subject to the same requirements as cigarettes purchased or possessed for intrastate sale. Said interstate stock shall be kept in an entirely separate part of the building, separate and apart from stamped stock. The amount of the bond required of such distributor or other person shall be fixed by the Comptroller, and subject to the minimum limitation herein provided; additional bond or a new bond shall be required by the Comptroller at any time an existing bond becomes insufficient or the surety thereon becomes unsatisfactory, which additional bond or new bond shall be supplied within ten (10) days after demand. Provided, that said bond or bonds shall be payable to the State of Texas in Austin, Travis County, Texas, and conditioned for the full, complete and faithful performance of all the conditions and requirements of this Act affecting said distributor or other person on a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller, with the approval of the Attorney General. Should the distributor or other person fail or refuse to supply a new bond or additional bond within ten (10) days after demand, the Comptroller shall have the power and authority to cancel forthwith any existing bond made and executed by and for said distributor or other person. In the event said bond is cancelled, said distributor or other person shall within forty-eight (48) hours after said cancellation excluding Sundays and legal holidays, cause any and all cigarettes received prior to said cancellation to have the requisite denomination and amount of stamps affixed to represent the tax as herein provided. Cigarettes set aside for interstate business which are not kept entirely separate and apart from intrastate stock shall be considered as intrastate stock and subject to the same requirements as cigarettes possessed for the purpose of a "first sale."

Art. 7.12. Rules and Regulations

The Comptroller is hereby authorized to prescribe and promulgate rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Act for the purpose of regulating the sale of cigarettes for movement into States adjoining Texas when said cigarettes have the cigarette tax stamp of such adjoining State affixed thereto.

No new permit shall be issued for a period of one (1) year to anyone whose permit has been forfeited, except in the discretion of the Comptroller.

(2) If any person shall offer for sale or solicit any order in this State for the sale of cigarettes for shipment to a point within the State, without then and there having a valid solicitor's permit, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-

Art. 7.18. Suit for Tax, Evidence

No new permit shall be issued within a period of one (1) year to anyone whose permit or permits have been forfeited, except at the discretion of the Comptroller. Said form shall set forth the name under which such distributing agent transacts or intends to transact such business as a distributing agent, the principal office and place of business in Texas for which the permit is to apply, and if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof and their addresses. The Comptroller may require any other information he may desire in said application. No distributing agent shall engage in such business until such application has been filed and the fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100) paid for the permit and until the permit has been obtained. Said permit shall expire on the last day of February of each year but may be renewed upon like application and upon payment of another fee in the amount set out above. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributing agent.

Upon receipt of the application and permit fee herein provided for, the Comptroller shall issue to every distributing agent, for the place of business designated, a non-assignable, consecutively numbered permit, authorizing the storing and distribution of unstamped cigarettes within this State when such distribution is made upon interstate orders only. Notwithstanding anything in this Chapter which may provide to the contrary, the distribution or delivery of cigarettes by a distributing agent to a licensed distributor in Texas pursuant to instructions received from outside the State shall not constitute the "first sale" of such cigarettes.

(2) Repealed.

(3) Every distributing agent shall keep at each place of business in Texas, except as otherwise provided, for a period of two (2) years for the inspection at all times of the Comptroller and the Attorney General, a complete record of all cigarettes received by him, including all orders, invoices, bills of lading, way bills, freight bills, express receipts, and all other shipping records which are furnished to said distributing agent by the carrier and the shipper of said cigarettes, or copies thereof, and in addition thereto, a complete record of each and every distribution or delivery made by said distributing agent, such records of a distribution or delivery shall include all orders, invoices or copies thereof, and all other shipping records furnished by the carrier and the person ordering distribution or delivery of said cigarettes.

(4) Every distributing agent in Texas shall report to the Comptroller, on a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller and furnished by the distributing agent, each day excepting Sundays and holidays, all deliveries of cigarettes made by him on the preceding day or days. The report shall show the name of the person ordering the delivery, the date of delivery, the name and address of the person to whom delivered, the invoice number, the bill of lading or way bill number, the number and kind of cigarettes delivered, the means of delivery and/or the transportation agent and the designation of drop-shipment if a drop-shipment; provided, however, if the invoice furnished said distributing agent by the manufacturer or other person ordering such delivery, or the bill of lading prepared by said distributing agent to cover the shipment under said invoice, contains all the information required to be reported, it will be sufficient to send a copy of said invoice or invoices, or a copy of said bill of lading, or bills of lading, to the Comptroller daily.

(5) Permits required by Articles 7.09, 7.16 or 7.23 of this Chapter issued after the effective date of this Chapter shall expire the last day of February following issuance. From the effective date of this Chapter the Comptroller shall prorate the fees for new or renewal permits required by Articles 7.09 or 7.23 of this Chapter by allowing a discount computed by quarters of the licensing year. The licensing year shall be from and shall include the first day of March through the last day of February of each year.

(6) Each permit holder required to obtain a permit under Articles 7.09, 7.16 or 7.23 of this Chapter who fails to obtain a renewal permit prior to the beginning of the licensing year shall pay, in addition to the permit fee, a late application fee of One Dollar ($1.00), which shall be paid to the Comptroller at the time the permit fee is paid.

(7) When it is necessary for any authorized representative of the Comptroller to visit any permit holder to collect a permit fee due under this Chapter the permit holder shall pay a service fee of Five Dollars ($5.00) in addition to the permit fee.

(8) In cases where any permit expires within three (3) months from the date of issuance or renewal because of the end of the licensing year, the Comptroller may with the consent of the permit holder collect both the discounted permit fee or permit fee for a current permit plus a permit fee for the entire licensing year following, and issue a permit or permits for both periods.

(2) No person, other than a common carrier, shall transport within this State cigarettes, upon which a tax is required to be paid, without having stamps affixed to each individual package of said cigarettes or shall fail or refuse, upon demand of the Comptroller, to stop any vehicle transporting cigarettes for a full and complete inspection of the cargo carried.

(3) No person shall use, sell, offer for sale or possess for the purpose of use or sale, within this State, any previously used stamp or stamps or attach any such previously used stamp to an individual package of cigarettes.

(4) No person shall, except as otherwise provided, purchase stamps from any person other than the Treasurer or sell stamps purchased from said Treasurer or sell or distribute cigarettes in this State without stamps affixed to each individual package regardless of whether such sale or distribution constitutes a first sale or otherwise.

All such cigarettes, vehicles and property so seized as aforesaid, remaining in the possession or custody of the Comptroller, sheriff or other officer for forfeiture or other disposition as provided by law, shall be deemed to be in the custody of law and irrepleviable.

(2) The Comptroller, when making the seizure aforesaid, shall immediately make a written report thereof showing the name of the agent or representative making the seizure, the place and person where and from whom such property was seized and an inventory of same and appraisal thereof at the usual and ordinary retail price of the article seized, which report shall be prepared in duplicate, signed by the agent or representative so seizing, the original of which shall be given to the person from whom said property is taken, and a duplicate copy of which shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller and shall be open to public inspection.

(3) The Attorney General, or the district or county attorney of the county of seizure, shall, at the request of the Comptroller, file in the county and court aforesaid forfeiture proceeding in the name of the State of Texas as plaintiff, and in the name of the owner or person in possession as defendant, if known, and if unknown, then in the name of said property seized and sought to be forfeited. Upon the filing of said proceeding, the Clerk of said Court shall issue notice to the owner or person in possession of such property to appear before such Court upon the date named therein, which shall not be less than two (2) days from service of such notice, to show cause why the forfeiture aforesaid should not be declared, which notice shall be served by the sheriff of said county. In the event the defendant in said proceeding is a nonresident of the State or his residence is unknown, or in the event the name of such defendant is unknown, upon affidavit by the Comptroller to this effect, notice or process shall be served or published in the mode and manner provided by existing statutes for service of citation upon nonresidents or unknown defendants, provided, however, such proceeding may be heard at any time after ten (10) days from service of such process or the first publication of such notice. And in such cases, the Court shall appoint an attorney to represent such defendant, who shall have the rights, duties and compensation as provided by existing statutes in cases of attorneys appointed to represent nonresidents and unknown defendants.

In the event the district or county attorneys file and prosecute such cases, a fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15) shall be paid to such officers in addition to all other fees allowed by law under the Maximum Fee Bill, which fee shall be collected as Court costs out of the proceeds of such sale.

Art. 7.31. Sale by Comptroller

In lieu of the forfeiture proceeding aforesaid, the Comptroller may elect to sell the cigarettes and property seized by him in cases where such property appears by the report or receipt of the officer seizing same to be of the appraised value of Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or less, by the following summary proceedings:

(1) The Comptroller shall publish a notice in some newspaper of the County where the seizure was made, describing the property seized and stating the time, place and cause of their seizure, and requiring any person claiming such property, or any interest therein or thereto, to appear and make such claim within fifteen (15) days from the date of such publication of such notice.

(2) Any person claiming such property so seized or any interest therein or thereto, within the time specified in such notice, may file with the said Comptroller his claim, stating his interest in the property seized, and may execute a bond to the State of Texas in the penal sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250), with sureties to be approved by said Comptroller, conditioned that, in case of the establishment of forfeiture of the articles so seized, the obligors shall pay all the costs and expenses of the proceeding to obtain such forfeiture; and upon the delivery of such bond to the Comptroller he shall transmit the same with a certified copy of the report or receipt of the property seized, filed in his office, to the Attorney General or the County or District Attorney of the county of seizure, and forfeiture proceedings shall be instituted and prosecuted thereon in the Court of competent jurisdiction as provided by law.

(3) If no claim is interposed and no bond is given within the time above specified, the Comptroller shall give ten (10) days notice of a sale of the property under seizure by publication two (2) times in a newspaper of the county of seizure, and, at the time and place specified in such notice, shall sell the property so seized at public auction, and, after deducting expense of seizure, appraisal, custody and sale, he shall deposit the proceeds thereof in the State Treasury, which shall be allocated to the funds to which the Cigarette Tax levied hereunder is apportioned.

In the event the cigarettes seized hereunder and sought to be sold upon forfeiture, summary sale, or other process provided by law shall be unstamped, the officers selling the same shall, upon sale thereof, affix or cause to be affixed, the stamps so required and deduct the expense thereof from the proceeds of such sale.

Art. 7.32. Seizure or Sale no Defense

The seizure, forfeiture and sale of cigarettes and other property under the terms and conditions hereinabove set out, and whether with or without court action, shall not be or constitute any defense or exemption to the person owning or having control or possession of such property from criminal prosecution for any act or omission made or offense committed under this law or from liability to pay penalties provided by this law, with or without suit therefor.

Art. 7.33. Waiver Permitted; Penalty

Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Comptroller to waive any proceedings for the forfeiture of any of the property seized under the provisions of this Chapter, or any part thereof, provided that the offender shall first affix to each of the individual packages of cigarettes seized the amount and value of the stamps necessary to represent the tax, and in addition to the stamps required, pay into the State Treasury through the Comptroller a sum equal to the value of the stamps required to be affixed to such cigarettes. The said Comptroller may make a compromise with any claimant, before or after the claim is filed in court. A record of all such compromises and waivers of forfeiture shall be kept by the Comptroller and shall be open to public inspection.

If upon examination of invoices or other investigation the Comptroller finds that cigarettes have been sold without stamps affixed as required in this Chapter, he shall have the power to require of such person, to pay into the State Treasury through him a sum equal to twice the amount of the stamp tax due. If upon examination of invoices or other investigation, such person is unable to furnish evidence to the Comptroller of sufficient stamp purchases to cover unstamped cigarettes purchased by him, the prima facie presumption shall arise that such cigarettes were sold without the proper stamps affixed thereto. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 7.34. Disposition of Money

All moneys collected by the Comptroller under the provisions of Article 7.33 of this Chapter, after payment of all costs and commissions, shall be paid to the Treasury and credited as the taxes imposed hereunder are credited. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 7.35. Duties of Comptroller, Rules and Regulations

(1) It is hereby made the duty of the Comptroller to collect, supervise and enforce the collection of all taxes and penalties that may be due under the provisions of this Chapter and to that end the Comptroller is hereby vested with all of the power and authority conferred by this Chapter. Said Comptroller also shall have the power and authority to make and publish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this Chapter or the other laws or the Constitution of this State, or of the United States, for the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter and the collection of revenues hereunder.

(2) The Treasurer may promulgate rules and regulations hereunder providing for the refund on stamps which by reason of damage become unfit for sale or use.

(3) The Treasurer shall promulgate rules and regulations providing for the exchange, or replacement without cost, of new stamps for any stamps affixed to any package of cigarettes which cigarettes have become unfit for use or consumption, or unsalable, and which cigarettes have been destroyed or returned to the manufacturer, upon proof satisfactory to the Treasurer that such cigarettes have become unfit for use or consumption or unsalable and have been destroyed or returned to the manufacturer. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

(b) whoever shall sell, offer for sale, or present as a prize or gift any cigarettes without a stamp being then and there affixed to each individual package, or

(c) whoever shall sell cigarettes in any quantities less than individual package, or

(d) whoever shall knowingly consume, use or smoke any cigarettes upon which a tax is required to be paid without a stamp being affixed upon each individual package, or

Art. 8.06. Sale of Permits and Fees

(a) Every distributor, wholesale dealer and retail dealer in this State now engaged or who desires to become engaged, in the sale or use of tobacco products upon which a tax is required to be paid, shall, within thirty (30) days from the date this law becomes effective, file with the Comptroller an application for a permit as a distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer, as the case may be, said application to be accompanied by a fee of Twenty-five Dollars ($25) if for a distributor's permit, or a fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15) if for a wholesale dealer's permit, or a fee of Five Dollars ($5) if for a retail dealer's permit. Said applications shall be on forms prescribed by the Comptroller, to be furnished upon written request, the failure to furnish which shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said forms shall set forth:

(a) the manner under which such distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer transacts or intends to transact such business as distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer;

(b) the principal office, residence and place of business in Texas for which the permit is to apply;

(c) and if other than an individual, the principal officers or members thereof not to exceed three (3), and their addresses.

The Comptroller may require any other information as he may desire in said applications. No distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer shall sell any tobacco products until such application has been filed and the fee prescribed paid for a permit and until such permit is obtained. Said permits shall expire on the last day of February of each year, but may be renewed upon like application and upon payment of another fee in the amount prescribed for the kind of permit desired. An application shall be filed and a permit obtained for each place of business owned or operated by a distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer. Provided, however, that the Comptroller may issue a joint permit as a distributor, wholesale dealer, retail dealer, or distributing agent for both cigarettes and tobacco products, in which case only one permit fee shall be paid by the permit holder. Provided, further, that any distributor manufacturing, importing, or acquiring in any other manner, tobacco products for his own personal use or consumption and not to be disposed of by sale, gift, or otherwise shall not be required to obtain a distributor's permit but shall be required to make the report required herein of a distributor and to comply with all other provisions of this Act affecting a distributor, provided further, that the Comptroller shall be authorized to accept any tax from any distributor acquiring tobacco products for his own personal use or consumption and not for sale or other disposal.

(b) Upon receipt of the application and fee herein provided for, the Comptroller shall issue to every distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer for the place of business designated, a nonassignable consecutively numbered permit, designating the kind of permit and authorizing the sale of tobacco products in this State. Said permit shall provide that the same is revocable and shall be forfeited or suspended upon any violation of any provision of this Chapter or any reasonable rule or regulation adopted by the Comptroller. If such permit is revoked or suspended said distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer shall not sell any tobacco products from such place of business until a new permit is granted or the suspension of the old permit removed.

Application for permit should be accompanied by remittance in cash, postal or express money order, or Austin exchange for the required amount. Any permit issued in exchange for a "personal" check will be conditioned upon final payment of such "personal" check, and may be revoked and cancelled by the State Comptroller after five (5) days notice to the dealer that payment of his check has been refused by the bank upon which drawn. No dealer shall make any sale or distribution of tobacco products after such revocation. Upon receipt of the necessary funds to redeem such dishonored check the State Comptroller may remove the suspension of the permit at his discretion. The permit when revoked shall be subject to recall and seizure by the State Comptroller.

The permit shall at all times be publicly displayed by the distributor, wholesale dealer or retail dealer at his place of business so as to be easily seen by the public and the persons authorized to inspect the same. Provided, further, that any person who operates both as a distributor and wholesale dealer in the same place of business shall only be required to obtain a distributor's permit for the particular place of business where such operation of said business is conducted, but if any distributor or wholesale dealer sells tobacco products at both wholesale and retail, an additional permit as a retail dealer shall be required. Any unexpired permit may be returned to the Comptroller for credit on the unexpired portion thereof only upon the purchase of a permit of a higher classification.

If the application is for a permit to sell tobacco products from or by means of a tobacco products vending machine, train, automobile, airplane, boat or other vehicle, the serial number of said vending machine, the make, motor number and State Highway license number of said automobile or other vehicle and the name of the railway company and number of said train, the name of the airplane, the name of the boat, shall be shown on the application.

Such permits shall not be folded in a manner that will cover any of the information thereon. Permits assigned to trains shall be posted in the car where tobacco products are displayed or offered for sale. Permits assigned to automobiles or trucks shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the cab or driver's seat of such vehicle.

Art. 8.07. Solicitor's Permit and Fee

No individual shall offer for sale or solicit any order in this State for the sale of any tobacco products for shipment to points within this State, for his own account or for the account of any person, firm, association or corporation, unless and until such person or individual shall have first filed an application for and obtained from the State Comptroller a solicitor's permit. Such permit shall authorize the permit holder to solicit orders for the sale of tobacco products and shall set forth the name and address of the vendor and/or employers whom the solicitor represents, and such solicitor shall not represent any vendor, and/or employers whose name does not appear upon such permit. The fee for such permit shall be One Dollar ($1) per year or part thereof, and the permit shall expire on the last day of February, but may be renewed upon like application and upon payment of another fee in the amount prescribed. Such permit holder shall, on the fifth day of each month, file with the Comptroller, on proper forms to be supplied him by said official, copies of all orders solicited by him in the State during the preceding calendar month for tobacco products, said copies to show the quantity and kind of tobacco products ordered, by whom ordered, from what person, firm or corporation ordered, the full name and correct address of purchaser, the date said tobacco products were ordered and any other information which may be required by the Comptroller; and the failure of such permit holder to comply with the provisions hereof shall subject him to the forfeiture of his permit, after five (5) days notice and opportunity to be heard by the Comptroller of Public Accounts. No new permit shall be issued for a period of one year to anyone whose permit has been forfeited, except in the discretion of the Comptroller.

If any person shall offer for sale or solicit any order in this State for the sale of tobacco products for shipment to a point within the State, without then and there having a valid solicitor's permit, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200).

Art. 8.08. Bonds

(a) Every distributor who is authorized by permit or required by law to make remittances or payments directly to this State of taxes collected upon the first sale of cigars and tobacco products or of taxes incurred upon the use of cigars and tobacco products shall file with his application for permit a bond in an amount to be set by the Comptroller at not less than three (3) times the amount of taxes that will accrue or may be expected to accrue during any month of the calendar year, but which bond shall never be less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000). Every such bond shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this State, payable to the State of Texas, and shall remain in force from its effective date for a period of one year, unless released by the Comptroller as herein provided. Such bond shall be conditioned upon the full, complete, and faithful performance by the person for whom it is issued of all of the conditions and requirements imposed on said person by this Chapter or by rules and regulations promulgated by the Comptroller, and shall expressly guarantee the remittance or payment to the State of Texas within the time prescribed by law of all taxes, penalties, interest, and costs required herein to be remitted or paid to this State by said person. Any such bond which is continuous in form may be continued in effect for a succeeding year by a renewal certificate acceptable to the Comptroller which said renewal certificate, when and if issued, shall have all the force and effect of an original bond.

(b) If the amount of any existing bond becomes insufficient, or any surety on a bond becomes unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the Comptroller may require the filing of a new or an additional bond. The Comptroller shall also have authority to require the filing of reports and tax remittances at shorter intervals than one month if, in his opinion, an existing bond has become insufficient. If any distributor licensed hereunder shall fail or refuse to file a new or an additional bond within ten (10) days after demand or shall fail or refuse to file reports and remit or pay taxes at the intervals fixed by the Comptroller, his permit shall be revoked or suspended in the manner herein provided. The filing of a new bond, or the cancellation or suspension of a permit, or recoveries on any bond, shall not invalidate an existing bond, but any surety on a bond shall be released and discharged from any and all liability accruing under such bond after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date such surety has filed with the Comptroller at his office in Austin, Travis County, Texas, written request to be released and discharged. Such request shall not operate to release or discharge such surety from liabilities incurred prior to the expiration of said thirty (30) day period. The Comptroller shall, upon receipt of any such request, promptly notify the person in whose behalf such bond was filed, and unless said person shall file with the Comptroller a new bond in the amount and form herein provided with fifteen (15) days from the date of such notice, the Comptroller shall proceed to cancel the permit of said person.

(c) Any applicant for a permit may, in lieu of filing a surety bond, deposit cash in the amount of bond required in the Suspense Account of the State Treasury, or may deposit securities of a par value equal to the amount of bond required and of a class in which funds of The University of Texas may be legally invested. Such cash or securities shall be released within sixty (60) days after the cancellation or surrender of any permit held by the person in whose behalf they were deposited when said permit holder has been cleared of all tax liability by the Comptroller. The Comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to withdraw and use any such cash and to sell any such securities and use the proceeds therefrom to pay off and satisfy any judgment secured in any action by this State to recover any taxes, costs, penalties, and interest found to be due said State by any person in whose behalf such cash or such securities were deposited. Any such person may acknowledge in writing the correctness of the State's claim against him for taxes, costs, penalties and interest and may authorize the use of said cash or the proceeds from the sale of such securities to pay on or pay off the claim without having suit filed. Provided, suit may be filed against any surety or sureties on any bond furnished by a distributor, without resorting to or exhausting the assets of such distributor or without making said distributor, as principal obligor to said bond, a party to said suit. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 8.09. State to Have Preferred Lien

All taxes, penalties, and cost of auditing as hereinafter provided, due, or that might become due by any distributor to the State shall be and become a preferred lien, first and prior to any and all other existing liens, contract or statutory, legal or equitable, and regardless of the time such lien originated upon all the property of any distributor, devoted to or used in his business as a distributor, which property shall include manufacturing plants, storage plants, warehouses, office buildings and equipment, trucks, cars or other motor vehicles or any other equipment devoted to such use and each tract of land on which such manufacturing plant, storage plant, warehouse, office building or other property is located, and other tangible property which is used in carrying on such business and in addition thereto any and all tobacco products of said distributor. If any distributor shall fail to pay any taxes and penalties due the State in the proper manner provided for such payment the Comptroller may employ auditors or other persons to ascertain the correct amount due, and if such taxes have not been properly paid the distributor shall pay the reasonable expenses incurred in such investigation and audit as additional penalty. Provided, however, that all funds paid to the auditors of the Comptroller as expenses incurred in making audits, shall be placed in a special fund in the State Treasury, which shall be used until exhausted, for making other audits, and said sums are hereby appropriated for that purpose. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Comptroller, when said fund is exhausted, from using other funds available for that purpose.

Art. 8.10. Suit for Tax, Evidence

All tobacco products vending machine operators shall keep, at the place designated in the application to be the permanent place where records will be kept, a complete record of all tobacco products vending machines possessed, showing date each tobacco products vending machine was received from the seller, serial number of each tobacco products vending machine, present location of each tobacco products vending machine, date each tobacco products vending machine was placed on location, current permit number of each tobacco products vending machine, and date of expiration of each permit. If the tobacco products vending machine is sold or disposed of give name and address of the recipient of the tobacco products vending machine.

It will be necessary for this record to be shown in the requirements as described herein.

Art. 8.20. Unlawful Possession, Evidence

Except as herein provided, it shall be unlawful for any person other than a distributor to have in his possession for sale, distribution or use, or for any other purpose, tobacco products upon which a tax is required to be paid by this Chapter, without having the proper evidence showing tax to be paid, and the absence of such evidence shall be notice to all persons that the tax has not been paid and shall be prima facie evidence of the non-payment of said tax.

No person, other than a common carrier, shall transport within this State tobacco products upon which a tax is required to be paid, without having evidence of tax payment on said tobacco products or shall fail or refuse, upon demand of the Comptroller, to stop any vehicle transporting tobacco products for a full and complete inspection of the cargo carried.

No person shall knowingly use, consume or smoke, within this State, tobacco products upon which a tax is required to be paid without said tax having been paid.

No person shall use any artful device or deceptive practice to conceal any violation of this Chapter or mislead the Comptroller in the enforcement of this Chapter.

Art. 8.21. Seizure, Sale by Comptroller

All tobacco products on which taxes are imposed by this Chapter, which shall be found in the possession, or custody or within the control of any person, for the purpose of being sold or removed by him in fraud of the Tobacco Products Tax Law, and all tobacco products which are removed or are deposited or concealed in any place with intent to avoid payment of taxes levied thereon, and any automobile, truck, boat, conveyance or other vehicle whatsoever, used in the removal or transportation of such tobacco products for such purposes, and all equipment, paraphernalia, or other tangible personal property incident to and used for such purposes, found in the place, building or vehicle where such tobacco products are found, may be seized by the Comptroller, with or without process, and the same shall be from the time of such seizure forfeited to the State of Texas, and a proceeding in the nature of a proceeding in rem shall be filed in a Court of competent jurisdiction in the county of seizure to maintain such seizure and declare and perfect said forfeiture as hereinafter provided. All such tobacco products, vehicles and property so seized as aforesaid, remaining in the possession or custody of the Comptroller, sheriff or other officer for forfeiture or other disposition as provided by law, shall be deemed to be in the custody of law and irrepleviable.

The Comptroller, when making the seizure aforesaid, shall immediately make a written report thereof showing the name of the agent or representative making the seizure, the place and person where and from whom such property was seized and an inventory of same and appraisal thereof at the usual and ordinary retail price of the article seized, which report shall be prepared in duplicate, signed by the agent or representative so seizing, the original of which shall be given to the person from whom said property is taken, and a duplicate copy of which shall be filed in the office of the Comptroller and shall be open to public inspection.

The Attorney General, or the district or county attorney of the county of seizure, shall, at the request of the Comptroller, file in the county and Court aforesaid forfeiture proceeding in the name of the State of Texas as plaintiff, and in the name of the owner or person in possession as defendant, if known, and if unknown, then in the name of said property seized and sought to be forfeited. Upon the filing of said proceeding, the Clerk of said Court shall issue notice to the owner or person in possession of such property to appear before such Court upon the date named therein, which shall not be less than two (2) days from service of such notice, to show cause why the forfeiture aforesaid should not be declared, which notice shall be served by the sheriff of said county. In the event the defendant in said proceeding is a non-resident of the State or his residence is unknown, or in the event the name of such defendant is unknown, upon affidavit by the Comptroller to this effect, notice or process shall be served or published in the mode and manner provided by existing Statutes for service of citation upon nonresidents or unknown defendants, provided, however, such proceeding may be heard at any time after ten (10) days from service of such process or the first publication of such notice. And in such cases, the Court shall appoint an attorney to represent such defendant, who shall have the rights, duties and compensation as provided by existing Statutes in cases of attorneys appointed to represent nonresidents and unknown defendants.

In the event final judgment is rendered in the forfeiture proceeding aforesaid, maintaining the seizure, and declaring and perfecting the forfeiture of said seized property, the Court shall order and decree the sale thereof to the highest bidder by the sheriff at public auction in the county of seizure, after ten (10) days notice by advertisement at least twice in any legal publication of such county, and the proceeds of such sale, less expenses of seizure and Court costs, shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be allocated as the tobacco products tax is herein allocated. In the event the district or county attorneys file and prosecute such cases, a fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15) shall be paid to such officers in addition to all other fees allowed by law under the maximum fee bill, which fee shall be collected as Court costs out of the proceeds of such sale.

In lieu of the forfeiture proceeding aforesaid, the Comptroller may elect to sell the tobacco products and property seized by him in cases where such property appears by the report or receipt of the officer seizing same to be of the appraised value of Five Hundred Dollars ($500) or less by the following summary proceedings:

(1) The Comptroller shall publish a notice in some newspaper of the county where the seizure was made, describing the property seized and stating the time, place and cause of their seizure, and requiring any person claiming such property, or any interest therein or thereto, to appear and make such claim within fifteen (15) days from the date of such publication of such notice.

(2) Any person claiming such property so seized or any interest therein or thereto, within the time specified in such notice, may file with the said Comptroller his claim, stating his interest in the property seized, and may execute a bond to the State of Texas in the penal sum of Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250), with sureties to be approved by said Comptroller, conditioned that, in case of the establishment of forfeiture of the articles so seized, the obligors shall pay all the costs and expenses of the proceeding to obtain such forfeiture; and upon the delivery of such bond to Comptroller, he shall transmit the same with a certified copy of the report or receipt of the property seized, filed in his office, to the Attorney General or the county or district attorney of the county of seizure, and forfeiture proceedings shall be instituted and prosecuted thereon in the court of competent jurisdiction as provided by law.

(3) If no claim is interposed and no bond is given within the time above specified, the Comptroller shall give ten (10) days notice of a sale of the property under seizure by publication two (2) times in a newspaper of the county of seizure, and, at the time and place specified in such notice, shall sell the property so seized at public auction, and after deducting expense of seizure, appraisement, custody and sale, he shall deposit the proceeds thereof in the State Treasury, which shall be allocated to the funds to which the Tobacco Products Tax levied hereunder is apportioned.

In the event the tobacco products seized hereunder and sought to be sold upon forfeiture, summary sale, or other process provided by law shall be non-tax paid, the officers selling the same shall, upon sale thereof, cause to be paid, the required tax and deduct the expense thereof from the proceeds of such sale.

Art. 8.22. Seizure or Sale No Defense

The seizure, forfeiture and sale of tobacco products and other property under the terms and conditions hereinabove set out, and whether with or without court action, shall not be or constitute any defense or exemption to the person owning or having control or possession of such property from criminal prosecution for any act or omission made or offense committed under this Chapter or from liability to pay penalties provided by this Chapter, with or without suit therefor.

Art. 8.23. Waiver Permitted; Penalty

Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the Comptroller to waive any proceedings for the forfeiture of any of the property seized under the provisions of this Chapter, or any part thereof, provided that the offender shall first pay the tax due on tobacco products seized, the amount and value of the tax necessary to represent the tax, and in addition to the tax required, pay into the State Treasury through the Comptroller a sum equal to the value of the tax required to be paid on such tobacco products. The said Comptroller may make a compromise with any claimant, before or after the claim is filed in court. A record of all such compromises and waivers of forfeiture shall be kept by the Comptroller and shall be open to public inspection. If upon examination of invoices or other investigation the Comptroller finds the tobacco products to be sold without having been tax paid as required in this Chapter, he shall have the power to require of such person, to pay into the State Treasury through him a sum equal to twice the amount of the tax due. If upon examination of invoices or other investigation, such person is unable to furnish evidence to the Comptroller of a report showing tax payment to cover non-tax paid tobacco products purchased by him, the prima facie presumption shall arise that such tobacco products were sold without reporting and remitting tax due. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 8.24. Disposition of Money

All moneys collected by the Comptroller under the provisions of Article 8.23 of this Chapter, after payment of all cost and commissions, shall be paid to the Treasury and credited as the taxes imposed hereunder are credited.

(a) It is hereby made the duty of the Comptroller to collect, supervise and enforce the collection of all taxes and penalties that may be due under the provisions of this Chapter and to that end the Comptroller is hereby vested with all of the power and authority conferred by this Chapter. Said Comptroller also shall have the power and authority to make and publish rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this Chapter or the other laws or the Constitution of this State, or of the United States, for the enforcement of the provisions of this Chapter and the collection of revenues hereunder.

(b) The Comptroller shall promulgate rules and regulations providing for the allowance for credit of taxes paid on tobacco products where such tobacco products have become unfit for use or consumption, or unsaleable, and which tobacco products have been destroyed or returned to the manufacturer, upon proof satisfactory to the Comptroller that such tobacco products have become unfit for use or consumption or unsaleable and have been destroyed or returned to the manufacturer.

(i) shall refuse to permit the Comptroller or the Attorney General to inspect, examine and audit any books and records required herein to be kept, or any other records incident to the conduct of the tobacco products business that may be kept, or

(j) shall knowingly make any false entry or fail to make entries in the books and records required by the provisions of this Chapter to be kept by a distributor, wholesale dealer, retail dealer or distributing agent, or

(k) shall fail to keep for a period of two (2) years in Texas any books and records required herein to be kept by a distributor, wholesale dealer, retail dealer or distributing agent, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished, by confinement in the State Penitentiary for not more than two (2) years or by confinement in the County Jail for not less than one (1) month nor more than six (6) months, or by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Provided that if any penalties prescribed elsewhere in this Chapter overlap as to offenses which are also punishable under Article 8.27 of this Chapter, then the penalties prescribed by this Article 8.27 shall apply and control all other penalties.

Art. 8.29. Fees for New Permits Prorated

Permits required by Articles 8.06, 8.08 and 8.16 of this Chapter issued after the effective date of this Chapter shall expire the last day of February following issuance. From the effective date of this Chapter the Comptroller shall prorate the fees for new permits required by Articles 8.06 and 8.16 of this Chapter by allowing a discount computed by quarters of the licensing year. The permit year shall be from the first day of March through the last day of February.

Each permit holder required to obtain a permit under Articles 8.06, 8.08 and 8.16 of this Chapter who fails to obtain a renewal permit prior to the beginning of the licensing year shall pay in addition to the permit fee a late application fee of One Dollar ($1), which shall be paid to the Comptroller at the time the permit fee is paid.

When it is necessary for any authorized representative of the Comptroller to visit any permit holder to collect a permit fee due under this Chapter the permit holder shall pay a service fee of Five Dollars ($5) in addition to the permit fee.

Every person having possession of any tobacco products taxable under this Chapter for the purpose of sale on the effective date of this Chapter shall immediately inventory the same and file a report of such inventory with the Comptroller of Public Accounts and attach to such inventory a cashier's check payable to the State Treasurer in a sum equal to the tax due on such tobacco products computed at the rates provided in this Chapter. Such person shall retain as a receipt to evidence payment of the tax a purchaser's copy of the cashier's check and shall retain a copy of the inventory reported to the Comptroller.

Failure or refusal to render such inventory shall be deemed sufficient grounds for refusal by the Comptroller to issue a permit required by this Chapter, and in addition thereto, any person failing or refusing to render such inventory shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000).

(a) all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasoline including natural, absorption, casinghead and drip gasolines, regardless of their classification or uses; and

(b) any liquid prepared, advertised, offered for sale or sold for use as or commonly and commercially used as a fuel in propelling motor vehicles, which when subjected to distillation in accordance with the standard method of test for distillation of gasoline, naphtha, kerosene, and similar petroleum products (American Society for Testing Materials Designation D-86) shows not less than ten per centum (10%) distilled (recovered) below three hundred forty-seven degrees (347°) Fahrenheit and not less than ninety-five per centum (95%) distilled (recovered) below four hundred sixty-four degrees (464°) Fahrenheit; provided, however, the term "motor fuel" shall not include liquefied gases which would not exist as liquids at a temperature of sixty degrees (60°) Fahrenheit and at a pressure of fourteen and seven-tenths (14.7) pounds per square inch absolute; and provided further, that the term "motor fuel" shall not include commercial solvents or naphthas which have a distillation range of one hundred fifty degrees (150°) Fahrenheit or less, or raw petroleum products or petro-chemical intermediates, when used as or sold for use in production or manufacture of plastics, detergents, synthetic rubber, herbicides, insecticides, or other chemicals or products which are not prepared, advertised, offered for sale or sold for use as fuel for generating power in internal combustion engines.

(2) "Motor vehicle" means every self-propelled vehicle designed for operation or required to be licensed for operation upon the public highway. Tractors, combines, and other vehicles not required to be so licensed shall be deemed to be motor vehicles to the extent they are operated upon the public highway with motor fuel on which the tax is required to be paid.

(3) "Vehicle tanks" shall mean an assembly used for the transportation, hauling, or delivery of liquids, comprising a tank, which may be one compartment or may be subdivided into two (2) or more compartments, mounted upon a wagon, automobile, truck, or trailer, together with its accessory piping, valves, meter, etc. The term "compartment" shall be construed to mean the entire tank whenever this is not subdivided; otherwise, it shall mean any one of those subdivided portions of the tank which is designed to hold liquid.

(4) "Distributor" shall mean and include every person who refines, distills, manufactures, produces, or compounds motor fuel or blending materials in this State, or imports or causes to be imported motor fuel or blending materials into this State, or in any other manner acquires or possesses said products, for the purpose of making a first sale, distribution or use of said products in this State; and said term shall also mean and include any wholesale dealer or jobber of motor fuel who desires to purchase motor fuel without paying the tax to the distributor selling said products when the motor fuel is purchased for taxable resale, distribution, or use thereof by said wholesale dealer or jobber in this State. The said term shall also include any person who produces or is responsible for the production of the product commonly known as "drip gasoline" unless said drip gasoline is totally destroyed, burned, or otherwise rendered incapable of use as motor fuel or blending material.

(5) "Distribution" shall mean and include any transaction, other than a sale, in which ownership or title to motor fuel, or any derivative of crude oil or natural gas, passes from one person to another.

(6) "Person" shall mean and include every individual, firm, association, joint stock company, syndicate, copartnership, corporation (public, private, or municipal), trustee, agency, or receiver.

(7) "Dealer" shall mean and include any person who as the operator of a service station or other retail outlet delivers motor fuel into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, boats or aircraft owned or operated by others.

(8) "Public highway" shall mean and include every way or place of whatever nature open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of vehicular travel, and notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, maintenance, or repair.

(9) "Comptroller" shall mean Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

(10) "First sale" shall mean, except as otherwise provided herein, the first sale or distribution in this State of motor fuel, produced, refined, compounded, imported into, or otherwise acquired in said State; provided that when motor fuel has been purchased tax free under the terms of this Chapter, the first resale or distribution of said motor fuel for any purpose other than a tax free sale duly authorized as such by the Comptroller shall, for the purposes of this Chapter, mean and constitute a "first sale."

(11) "Refund Motor Fuel" shall mean motor fuel used, sold, or disposed of for any purpose for which a refund of the tax paid thereon is authorized by law. And any motor fuel so used or disposed of shall be construed to have been used or disposed of for "refund purposes."

(12) "Refund Dealer" shall mean any dealer, distributor, or other person who engages in the selling of refund motor fuel, or who appropriates for his own use and consumption motor fuel on which a refund of the tax paid on such motor fuel is authorized by this Chapter.

(13) The term "tax-free," as applied to the sale or purchase of motor fuel, shall mean the sale or purchase of said motor fuel on authority granted by the Comptroller under the terms of this Chapter without collecting or paying the tax on said sale or purchase.

(14) "Wholesaler" or "Jobber" shall mean and include any distributor as defined or other person who purchases tax paid motor fuel at wholesale from a duly licensed distributor for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers, or for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers and bulk users.

(15) "Bulk User" shall mean and include any person who purchases tax paid motor fuel for delivery in quantities of twenty-five hundred (2500) gallons or more per delivery into storage facilities maintained by him primarily for delivery of such motor fuel into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., pp. 1800, 1801, ch. 689, §§ 1, 1a, eff. Sept. 1, 1967; Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 2031, ch. 626, §§ 1, 2, eff. Aug. 30, 1971.]

Sections 1 to 6 of the 1971 Act amended this article, arts. 9.02, 9.07 and 9.13. Sections 7 to 9 thereof provided:

"Sec. 7. Saving Clause. All taxes, penalties and interest incurred and all liens created and bonds executed to secure their payment under any laws repealed or amended by this Act prior to its effective date, are hereby declared to be legal and valid obligations to this State; and any offense committed or any fines or penalties incurred under any laws repealed or amended by this Act prior to its effective date, shall not be affected by the repeal or amendment of any such laws but the punishment of such offenses and recovery of such fines, penalties and interest shall take place as if the laws repealed or amended had remained in force.

"Sec. 8. Severability. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

"Sec. 9. Repealer. All laws or parts of laws in conflict herewith are, so far as such confliction exists, hereby repealed and this Act shall prevail over any conflicting provisions of law."

Art. 9.02. Rate of Tax; Allowances for Handling and Evaporation

(1) There shall be and is hereby levied and imposed (except as hereinafter provided) upon the first sale, distribution, or use of motor fuel in this State an excise tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon or fractional part thereof so sold, distributed, or used in this State. Every distributor who makes a first sale or distribution of motor fuel in this State for any purpose whatsoever shall, at the time of such sale or distribution, collect the said tax from the purchaser or recipient of said motor fuel, in addition to his selling price, and shall report and pay to the State of Texas the taxes collected at the time and in the manner as hereinafter provided. Every such distributor shall also be liable to the State of Texas for the said tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon on each gallon of motor fuel or fractional part thereof used or consumed by him, and shall report and pay said tax as hereinafter provided. In each subsequent sale or distribution of motor fuel upon which the tax of five cents (5¢) per gallon has been collected, the said tax shall be added to the selling price, so that such tax is paid ultimately by the person using or consuming said motor fuel for the purpose of generating power for the propulsion of any motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State.

It is the intent and purpose of this Article to collect the tax levied herein at the source of said motor fuel in Texas or as soon thereafter as the same may be subject to being taxed. No person, however, shall be required to pay a tax on motor fuel brought into this State in a quantity of thirty (30) gallons or less in a fuel tank, with a capacity of not more than thirty (30) gallons, when said fuel is connected with and feeds the carburetor of said motor vehicle and the motor fuel contained therein is used in the operation of said motor vehicle and not otherwise.

(2) The tax on two percent (2%) of the taxable gallons of motor fuel sold or distributed in this State shall be allocated to the persons selling, distributing or handling motor fuel in this State which allocation or allowance shall be deducted by the distributors in the payment to the State of Texas of the taxes herein levied and shall be apportioned among the persons selling, distributing and handling motor fuel in this State as follows:

I. One percent (1%) to the distributor making the first taxable sale or distribution of such motor fuel and paying the tax levied hereunder to the State of Texas for the expense of collecting, accounting for, reporting and remitting the taxes so collected and for keeping records.

II. One-half of one percent ( $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%) to wholesalers or jobbers who pay taxes to a distributor on motor fuel purchased for resale or distribution at wholesale to dealers or bulk users to cover losses by evaporation, temperature changes in the motor fuel and ordinary handling from the time the motor fuel is acquired tax paid by said wholesalers or jobbers until its sale or distribution and delivery to purchasers.

III. One-half of one percent ( $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%) to dealers, or bulk users to cover losses by evapora-ration, temperature changes in motor fuel or other handling losses from the time the motor fuel is delivered to the storage facilities of said dealers or bulk users until it is sold or delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles. If title to motor fuel consigned to a dealer or bulk user remains in the consignor until it is delivered into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the consignor shall be entitled to such allowance or allocation.

In the sale and distribution of motor fuel in this State, if any person performs more than one (1) of the functions or activities of distributor, wholesaler or jobber, dealer or bulk user, he shall be entitled to the apportionment or allowance for each such function or activity, but provided the aggregate allowance shall never exceed the total amount of two percent (2%) authorized herein.

The intent and purpose of the above allowance or allocation to wholesalers or jobbers or dealers and the extension herein of such allowance or allocation to include bulk users, is to fully reimburse persons acting in such capacities for losses sustained by them from evaporation, temperature changes and ordinary handling of motor fuel, and to facilitate the payment of tax refunds without volume adjustments of motor fuel purchased tax paid and thereafter used in other states by distributor-users; and it is expressly provided that the tax shall be computed and paid or collected and paid over to the State on the gross or volumetric gallons of taxable motor fuel sold or distributed to such wholesalers or jobbers, dealers or bulk users, as shown by the Comptroller's measurement certificate issued for the vehicle tank making such deliveries, or as shown by any other measuring device approved by the Comptroller.

Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting volume correction of motor fuel under accepted practices when sold or distributed to or between licensed motor fuel distributors.

Pursuant to rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Comptroller, the allocation or allowance hereinabove provided shall be distributed to the persons entitled thereto as follows:

(1) Every distributor who makes a first sale or distribution of motor fuel to a wholesaler or jobber, or other distributor, upon which said first sale or distribution the tax is required to be collected and paid over to this State shall, after setting out the tax separately on the manifest as required by this Chapter, deduct one percent (1%) from the amount of such tax and the balance shall be the amount such distributor shall be entitled to collect from such purchaser; and

(2) every wholesaler, jobber or distributor who makes a sale, resale, or distribution of motor fuel upon which the tax is required to be collected, to a dealer, consignor, or bulk user of said motor fuel shall, after setting out the tax separately on the manifest as required by this

Chapter, deduct one-half of one percent ( $\frac{1}{2}$  of 1%) from the amount of such tax and the balance shall be the amount such wholesaler or jobber or distributor shall be entitled to collect from such purchaser.

(3) The tax herein imposed shall be posted separately from the price of the motor fuel, wherever sold in this State.

(4) No tax shall be imposed upon the sale, use, or distribution of any motor fuel, the imposing of which would constitute an unlawful burden on interstate commerce, and no tax shall be imposed upon the sale of any motor fuel for export from the State of Texas (including both sales in interstate and foreign commerce) where the motor fuel is delivered to a common carrier, ocean-going vessel (including ship, tanker or boat), or a barge, and is moved forthwith outside of this State. Provided, however, that the Comptroller may require satisfactory evidence of any such sale, use, distribution or delivery. In the event this Article is in conflict with the Constitution of the United States or any Federal law, with respect to the tax levied upon the first sale, distribution, or use of motor fuel in this State, then it is hereby declared to be the intention of this Article to impose the tax levied herein upon the first subsequent sale, distribution, or use of said motor fuel which may be subject to being taxed.

(5) Provided, that the tax imposed herein shall be in lieu of any other excise or occupational tax imposed by the State or any political subdivision thereof on the sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel.

(6) When a distributor imports motor fuel into or exports motor fuel from the State of Texas in the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles having an aggregate capacity of more than thirty (30) gallons per vehicle, the amount of motor fuel consumed by him within this State shall be deemed to be such proportion of the total amount of such motor fuel consumed in his entire operations within and without this State as the total number of miles traveled on the public highways within this State bears to the total number of miles traveled within and without this State.

(7) In the absence of records showing the number of miles actually operated per gallon of motor fuel consumed, it shall be prima facie presumed that not less than one (1) gallon of motor fuel was consumed for every four (4) miles traveled. Provided, however, that if a distributor furnishes evidence sufficient and satisfactory to the Comptroller that records cannot be acquired from all of his vehicle operators in time to file reports within the time prescribed by law accounting for the amount of motor fuel consumed and the miles traveled in his operations as provided in (6) above, the Comptroller may agree to accept reports with the tax computed on a fixed mileage basis by which the miles traveled within the State will be divided by the mileage factor acceptable to the Comptroller to determine the amount of motor fuel consumed in his operations upon the highways of this State. It is expressly provided, however, that whenever an audit made by the Comptroller from the records of any such distributor shows that a greater amount of fuel was consumed than was reported by the distributor for tax purposes, said distributor will be liable for the tax on any additional amount shown, and any penalties and interest due thereon.

Section 2 of the amendatory act of 1963 provided: "All laws or parts of laws that conflict herewith are, insofar as such confliction exists, hereby repealed and this Act shall prevail over any conflicting provision of law. However, all taxes, penalties and interest, accruing to the State of Texas and all allocations made therefrom before the effective date of this Act shall be and remain valid obligations."

Acts 1971, 62nd Leg., p. 1208, ch. 293, which, by section 1 amended subsec. (1), provided in sections 7 and 8:

"Sec. 7. This Act takes effect on July 1, 1971, on the condition that it is passed by a vote of at least two-thirds of all members elected to each House as required by Section 39, Article III, Constitution of the State of Texas. Otherwise, this Act takes effect on September 1, 1971.

"Sec. 8. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable."

Art. 9.03. Reports

(1) Every distributor who shall be required to collect the tax levied by this Chapter upon the first sale or distribution of motor fuel in this State, or who shall be required to pay the tax levied herein upon motor fuel used by said distributor, shall upon or before the 25th day of each calendar month remit or pay over to the State of Texas at the office of the Comptroller at Austin, Travis County, Texas, the amount of such tax required to be collected during the calendar month next preceding and the amount of such tax required to be paid upon motor fuel used by said distributor during said preceding calendar month, and at the same time, such distributor shall make and deliver to the Comptroller at his office in Austin, Travis County, Texas, a report properly sworn to and executed by such distributor, or his representative in charge, which shall show the date said report was executed, the name and address of said distributor, and the month which the report covers, and which report shall show separately by gallons the motor fuel on hand at the beginning and at the end of the month, and complete information of all motor fuel handled during the month, including motor fuel purchased or received in interstate commerce, motor fuel purchased or received in intrastate commerce, reflecting separately the quantity received with the tax paid and the quantity received without the tax having been paid, motor fuel refined, motor fuel acquired by blending, motor fuel sold in interstate commerce, motor fuel sold in intrastate commerce, motor fuel sold and exported, motor fuel sold to the United States Government, motor fuel sold to a distributor for further refining, processing, blending, or for exportation upon which no tax was collected, motor fuel lost by fire or other accident, motor fuel lost by refinery shrinkage, evaporation, or other losses, and motor fuel used and consumed by the distributor and his representatives. The said report shall also show complete information by gallons of all blending materials purchased, acquired, sold, used, and lost by fire or otherwise, during the month the report covers, and the beginning and ending inventories of such blending materials. Said report shall also show a complete record of the number of barrels of crude oil refined and the number of cubic feet of gas processed. Provided that where a qualified distributor has not sold, used, or distributed any motor fuel during any month or part thereof, he shall nevertheless file with the Comptroller the report required herein setting forth such fact or information. Provided further, that the Comptroller may prepare and furnish a form prescribing the order in which the information required herein shall be set up on said monthly report, but the failure of any distributor to obtain such form from said Comptroller shall be no excuse for the failure to file a report containing all the information required to be reported herein. Every distributor, at the time of making said report, shall attach legal tender thereto or make proper form of money order or exchange payable to the State Treasurer in the amount of tax for the period covered by the report.

(2) Provided further, that every person selling motor fuel in export or interstate commerce only, and every person selling motor fuel upon which no tax is required to be paid under the provisions of this Chapter, shall nevertheless be required to keep the same records and make the same reports to the Comptroller, accounting for the motor fuel so sold, that the provisions of this Chapter require a distributor to keep and make.

(3) If any distributor shall fail to remit proper taxes collected upon the first sale or distribution of motor fuel, or taxes due upon the use of motor fuel in Texas, the Comptroller may employ auditors or other persons to ascertain the correct amount due, and if such taxes have not been properly remitted and paid to the State of Texas, the distributor shall pay as additional penalty any reasonable expenses included by the Comptroller in such audit. Provided, however, that all funds paid to the Comptroller as expenses incurred in making audits shall be placed in the General Revenue Fund of the State.

(4) When it shall appear that a distributor to whom the provisions of this Chapter shall apply has erroneously reported and remitted or paid more taxes than were due the State of Texas upon any motor fuel during any taxpaying period, either on account of a mistake of fact or law, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to credit the total amount of taxes due by such distributor for the current period with the total amount of taxes so erroneously paid, or said distributor may file claim for refund of the taxes erroneously paid. Such credit shall be allowed or the tax refund claim paid before any penalties and interest shall be applicable.

(5) Reports. Every distributor selling motor fuel in this state for use in aircraft, or for resale for such purpose, shall attach to each monthly report required by law to be filed with the Comptroller by each distributor a schedule which shall become a part of such report and shall show complete information of all sales of motor fuel marketed by such distributor as aviation or aircraft motor fuel in such form as the Comptroller may require. The Comptroller is hereby authorized to prescribe records to be kept and reports to be made by distributors and refund dealers in whatever manner and form he deems necessary to determine the amount of motor fuel, used or sold for use in aircraft on which claim for refund of the tax is not made, and the failure or refusal to keep any such records or to make any such reports shall constitute cause for the cancellation of the permit or refund of dealer's license of those who fail or refuse to comply therewith.

(6) Every distributor who imports into this State motor fuel in motor vehicle fuel supply tanks having an aggregate capacity of more than thirty (30) gallons per vehicle shall file, as a part of the monthly report required of distributors, schedules as the Comptroller by regulation may require, showing the mileage traveled and fuel purchased and consumed in motor vehicles operated into and from the State of Texas.

[Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 254, ch. 130, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1961; Acts 1961, 57th Leg., p. 817, ch. 371, § 1, eff. Aug. 28, 1961; Acts 1967, 60th Leg., pp. 1801, 1802, ch. 689, §§ 3, 4, eff. Sept. 1, 1967.]

Art. 9.04. Penalties

(1) All taxes collected hereunder by any distributor, or by any director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or by any person, shall be for the use and benefit of the State of Texas, and shall be paid to the State of Texas as provided in this Chapter.

(2) If any such distributor or any director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or any person, shall wilfully fail or refuse to pay to the State of Texas any such tax funds collected under the provisions of this Chapter, on or before the date such payment is due as provided by this Chapter, such distributor or such director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or such person, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not more than ten (10) years, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than one (1) month nor more than (1) year, or by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500) nor more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), or by both such fine and jail imprisonment.

(3) If any director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of any distributor, or any person, shall fraudulently misapply or convert to his own use any tax fund collected for the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter by such distributor, or any director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or by such person, which said money has come into the possession of or that is in the care of or under the control of such director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or of such person, and which said money is required to be paid to the State of Texas under the provisions of this Chapter, such director, officer, agent, employee, trustee, receiver of such distributor, or such person shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction, shall be punished by confinement in the state penitentiary for not more than ten (10) years, or by confinement in the county jail for not less than one (1) month nor more than one (1) year, or by a fine of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), nor more than Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), or by both such fine and jail imprisonment. [Acts 1969, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 9.05. Tax-Free Sales

(1) The Comptroller may authorize and permit any person producing natural gasoline, casinghead gasoline or drip gasoline, or any derivative or condensate of crude oil or natural gas, in their natural and unrefined state, or any nonoperating interest owner in a gasoline plant, or any person operating a pipeline as a common carrier, or any licensed distributor of motor fuel in this State to make a sale, resale, or distribution of such products or of motor fuel, without collecting the tax levied herein, to any distributor holding a valid permit under the terms of this Chapter, when such distributor purchasing the same has, in the opinion of the Comptroller, a satisfactory and sufficient bond, and when the product is sold and purchased for the purpose of exportation, further refining, further processing, further treating, blending or compounding with other products to produce motor fuel, or non-motor fuel products, or for resale to the Federal Government for the exclusive use of said Federal Government, or for resale for some one (1) or more of such purposes and not otherwise.

(2) The Comptroller may also authorize and permit any licensed distributor to make sales or distributions of motor fuel without collecting the tax to any other licensed distributor purchasing said motor fuel for resale or distribution of said product at wholesale when said other licensed distributor holds a valid distributor's permit and has, in the opinion of the Comptroller, a satisfactory and sufficient bond to justify such tax-free purchases.

Every such distributor who shall be authorized and permitted to purchase motor fuel without paying the tax thereon for the purpose of resale or distribution of said products at wholesale, shall collect and pay over to the State of Texas at the time and in the manner provided in this Chapter, a tax at the rate of five cents (5¢) per gallon upon the first sale or distribution of said motor fuel made thereafter for any purpose other than a tax-free sale authorized by the Comptroller, and shall pay said tax at the rate aforesaid upon each gallon of motor fuel used or unaccounted for by said distributor during the calendar month next preceding the month said tax payment is required to be made, it being the intent hereof that said distributor shall on or before the 25th day of each calendar month report and pay to the State of Texas all taxes due on motor fuel purchased tax-free and thereafter sold, resold, distributed, used or unaccounted for during the calendar month next preceding. Any motor fuel purchased tax-free which is unaccounted for at the end of each calendar month shall be prima facie presumed to have been sold or used for taxable purposes.

The Comptroller may, upon request from any distributor, issue a certificate of authority to make sales of motor fuel without collecting the tax, under the terms and conditions provided in this Chapter, which certificate shall show the date issued, the names of the seller and purchaser of said motor fuel, the quantities authorized, and the period of time and the conditions under which said motor fuel may be sold and distributed tax-free to the purchaser thereof, and any distributor who shall make sales of motor fuel in Texas without holding a valid certificate of authority or who shall make sales of motor fuel in excess of the quantities authorized shall be liable for the tax imposed upon the first sale or distribution of said motor fuel. The certificate of authority to make tax-free sales of motor fuel shall be subject to revocation for failure or refusal by the seller or purchaser of said motor fuel to comply with any provisions of this Article or any rule and regulation duly promulgated by the Comptroller, or for the violation of the same, and said certificate of authority shall be revoked forthwith upon the failure of any distributor to report and pay all taxes due and owing the State of Texas within the time prescribed by this Article, or at the time fixed by the Comptroller for making periodical reports and tax payments, and no further tax-free sales shall be made to a distributor named in any certificate of authority after said certificate has been revoked until such certificate has been reinstated or a new certificate of authority has been issued.

(3) Provided further, that any producer, pipeline operator, or licensed distributor who shall make any sale or distribution of motor fuel as provided herein, shall be required to make and keep all the records and manifests required of a distributor in Article 9.09, and shall be required to make and file with the Comptroller the return or report required by Article 9.03, showing all the information set out therein. When motor fuel is sold or distributed tax-free under authority issued by the Comptroller, the manifest required to be issued shall bear the notation that said product is sold for the purpose of resale to the Federal Government, exportation, further refining, blending, or resale at wholesale, whichever the case may be. Provided, further, that every producer and every pipeline operator shall qualify as a licensed distributor before selling the products named herein to any person other than a licensed distributor. All sales and distributions made without collecting the tax levied herein shall be made subject to any rules and regulations promulgated by the Comptroller.

(4) All taxes collected under the provisions of this Chapter shall be for the use and benefit of the State of Texas and shall not be appropriated or diverted to any other use. Said taxes shall be paid over to the State at the time and in the manner provided in this Chapter.

(5) It is the intent of this Article that when a certificate of authority has been issued to a licensed distributor to make tax-free sales to another licensed distributor, said sales shall be tax-free within the limitations set out in said certificate of authority. [Acts 1959, 56th Leg., 3rd C.S., p. 187, ch. 1.]

Art. 9.06. Application for Distributor's Permit

(1) From and after the effective date of this Chapter, all distributors of motor fuel in this State now engaged, or who desire to become engaged, in the sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel upon which the tax levied herein is required to be paid, shall file a duly acknowledged application for motor fuel distributor's permit with the Comptroller on a form prescribed by him, to be furnished upon written request, the failure to furnish which shall be no excuse for the failure to file the same unless an absolute refusal is shown. Said form shall set forth the name under which such distributor transacts or intends to transact such business as distributor, the principal office, residence, or place of business in Texas, and if other than an individual, the principal officers of a corporation or the members of a partnership or association and their office, street, or post office addresses. The Comptroller may require in said application such other information as he may desire. Except as authorized in Article 9.05 of this Chapter no distributor shall make a first sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel until such application has been filed and a permit has been obtained.

(2) Upon receipt of the application and the bond hereinafter provided for, the Comptroller shall issue to every distributor a nonassignable, numbered permit authorizing the first sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel, or its substitute, in this State to be effective from the date of the issuance of said permit, until its expiration or cancellation. Every permit so issued, except permits classified and referred to in Section (3) of this Article as distributor-user's permits, shall be permanent and remain in full force and effect so long as the holder thereof has in force a bond, as required by Article 9.07 of this Chapter, or until such permit is cancelled or suspended. In the case of permits classified and referred to as distributor-user's permits, such permits shall remain in effect from the date of issuance of said permit until and including the following December 31st; however, the Comptroller may, if in his opinion any such distributor-user has fully performed all the conditions and requirements imposed upon him by this Chapter, including the payment to this State of all taxes due and accruing upon the use of motor fuel by said distributor-user, waive the requirement for filing the application for permit and automatically issue to said distributor-user a permit for the ensuing calendar year. Every permit shall provide that the same is revocable and shall be cancelled upon violation of any provisions of this Chapter, or any rule or regulation adopted by the Comptroller. If such permit is cancelled or suspended, said distributor shall not sell, use, or distribute motor fuel upon which a tax is required to be paid until a new permit is granted or the original permit is reinstated. Provided, however, that no permit shall be issued or reinstated where it appears from a duly verified audit made as herein provided by an authorized representative of the Comptroller that the applicant is delinquent in the remittance or payment of any motor fuel tax, penalty, or interest under the provisions of this Chapter.

(3) Before importing motor fuel into this State in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles having an aggregate capacity of more than thirty (30) gallons per vehicle, the importer shall reproduce the distributor's permit he is required herein to obtain from the Comptroller authorizing the first sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel in this State, and shall carry a photocopy of said permit with each such motor vehicle as it is being operated into or from the State of Texas by him. If an applicant for a distributor's permit to import motor fuel in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles for taxable use upon the public highways of Texas does not intend to sell or distribute motor fuel to other persons within the State of Texas, the distributor's permit so issued to him may be classified and referred to as a distributor-user's permit.

The Comptroller by regulations may exempt from the permit and reporting requirements of this Chapter highway users who maintain records in Texas, and all or substantially all of whose fuel uses are purchased within the State of Texas with the tax paid thereon, and require in such instances an annual affidavit attesting to the intrastate or substantially intrastate fuel purchases; provided that the enforcement of this Act is not adversely affected thereby and that the Comptroller is satisfied that an equitable amount of motor fuel is purchased with the tax paid thereon in this State.

(4) Any carrier operating motor vehicles into or from this State for commercial purposes with fuel supply tanks exceeding thirty (30) gallons per vehicle, may obtain a trip-permit which shall be good for a period of not more than twenty (20) consecutive days beginning and ending on the dates specified on the face of the permit. A fee for each trip-permit shall be collected from the applicant therefor which shall be in an amount equivalent to the tax payable on the quantity of motor fuel that could be imported in the fuel supply tanks of such motor vehicles, but never less than Five Dollars ($5). Such fees shall be in lieu of the use tax otherwise assessable against said permit holder for motor fuel imported and consumed in motor vehicles operating on the public highways of this State, and no reports shall be required with respect to such vehicles. All fees collected by the Comptroller shall be allocated to the same funds to which the motor fuel taxes collected hereunder are allocated.

The above trip-permits may be issued in lieu of annual distributor-user permits if the applicant therefor does not operate motor vehicles into and from the State of Texas more than three times during any calendar year.

(5) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, every distributor shall be liable for the tax on motor fuel imported into this State in fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles leased to him and used on the public highways of Texas to the same extent and in the same manner as motor fuel imported in motor vehicles owned or operated by such distributor and used on the public highways of Texas.

(b) Provided, however, a lessor who is engaged regularly in the business of leasing for compensation motor vehicles and equipment he owns without drivers to carriers or other lessees for interstate operation, may be deemed to be a distributor-user when he supplies or pays for the motor fuel consumed in such vehicles, and such lessor may be issued a permit as a distributor when application and bond have been properly filed with the Comptroller for such permit.

(c) Every such lessor shall file with his application for a bonded distributor's permit a copy of the form lease agreement or service contract he usually enters into with his lessees. When the distributor's permit has been received by him such lessor shall make and assign to each motor vehicle he leases for interstate operation a photocopy thereof to be carried in the cab compartment of said motor vehicle, and on which shall be typed or printed on the back the unit or motor number of the motor vehicle to which it is assigned, and the name of the lessee. Such lessor shall be responsible for the proper use of each photocopy of said permit issued and its return to him with the motor vehicle to which it is assigned.

Art. 9.07. Bond

(1) Before any permit shall be issued and before engaging in the first sale, use, or distribution of motor fuel upon which a tax is required to be paid in Texas, every distributor shall execute and file with the Comptroller a good and sufficient surety bond. Said bond shall be a continuing instrument and shall constitute a new and separate obligation, in the penal sum named therein, for each calendar year or portion thereof while such bond is in force; and provided further, said bond shall remain in effect until the surety on said bond is released and discharged as herein provided in this Article. The said bond shall be signed by said distributor and a good and sufficient surety company or companies authorized to do business in this State, to be approved by the Comptroller, and except as hereinafter provided, in an amount not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) nor more than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,-

000) payable to the State of Texas, and conditioned upon the full, complete, and faithful performance by the distributor of all the conditions and requirements imposed upon him by this Chapter, or the rules and regulations of the Comptroller promulgated hereunder, on a form to be prescribed by the Comptroller with the approval of the Attorney General, expressly providing for the performance of said obligations and the remittance and/or payment at Austin, Travis County, Texas, of all taxes collected and required to be collected for the use and benefit of the State, and all other taxes due and accruing upon the use of motor fuel by said distributor, and all costs, penalties, and interest provided in this Chapter, provided, however, that in any event the total of all recoveries under such bond for any and all breaches of its conditions occurring at any time while it remains in force to support a permit, shall not for any calendar year exceed the penal sum named therein. The amount of any bond required of any distributor shall be fixed by the Comptroller, and subject to the limitations herein provided, additional bond may be required by the Comptroller at any time an existing bond becomes insufficient, unsatisfactory, or unacceptable. However, the distributor may demand a reduction of his bond after six (6) months from the effective date thereof to a sum to be not more than two (2) times the highest tax said distributor has collected and paid to the State for any month during the preceding six (6) months, or two (2) times the highest tax that could accrue on motor fuel purchased tax free or otherwise held in inventory during any said month, whichever is higher.

Provided, that when a distributor or other person produces, manufactures, refines, or acquires in any other manner any product of petroleum or natural gas for his own use and consumption as motor fuel and not to be sold or distributed, the Comptroller may accept a minimum bond in an amount of not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500); said bond to be in the form and substance and conditioned as hereinabove provided.

(2) The Comptroller shall have the right, if, in his opinion, the amount of any existing bond shall become insufficient or any surety on a bond shall become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, to require the filing of a new or an additional bond. When said new bond has been furnished, the Comptroller shall cancel the bond for which said new bond is substituted. No recoveries on any bond or execution of any new bond or renewal of a permit shall invalidate any bond. A new bond may be demanded when any new permit is issued or revived, but no revocation or revival shall affect the validity of any bond. Provided further, that the Comptroller shall have the authority to require any distributor to make reports and remit to the State for taxes collected by him, or taxes accruing on motor fuel used by him, at shorter intervals than one (1) month at any time any maximum bond shall, in the opinion of said Comptroller, become insufficient. Should any distributor fail or refuse to supply a new or additional bond within ten (10) days after demand, or shall fail or refuse to file reports and remit or pay the said tax at the intervals fixed by the Comptroller, said distributor's permit shall be cancelled by the Comptroller as herein provided.

(3) Any surety on any bond furnished by any distributor as above provided shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the State of Texas accruing on such bond after the expiration of thirty (30) days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the Comptroller written request to be released and discharged. Provided, however, that such request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge such surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue before the expiration of said thirty-day period. The Comptroller shall promptly on receipt of notice of such request notify the distributor who furnished such bond, and unless such distributor shall within fifteen (15) days from the date of said notice, file with the Comptroller a new bond with a surety company duly authorized to do business under the laws of the State, in the amount and form hereinbefore in this Article provided, the Comptroller shall proceed to cancel the permit of said distributor in the manner herein provided. If such new bond shall be furnished by said distributor as above provided, the Comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond for which such new bond is substituted.

(4) That in lieu of giving a bond, any distributor may deposit in the Suspense Account of the State Treasury money in the amount of the bond that may be required, which shall never be released until securities are substituted for the same, or a bond executed in lieu thereof, or until the Comptroller has made a complete and thorough investigation and authorized the same to be released; and, provided, in lieu of cash, or bond required by this Article, such distributor may deposit securities with the Comptroller that shall be acceptable to him. Said securities shall be placed in the State Treasury as other securities, and shall be of the same class as the Funds of The University of Texas may be legally invested in; or a distributor in lieu of furnishing a bond as otherwise required may with the written approval of the Comptroller supply an assignment, given either by himself or by others in his behalf, of a Certificate of Deposit, in a Texas bank or savings and loan association or institution, whose accounts necessarily are insured by an agency of the Federal Government, for an amount which is equal to or greater than the amount of bond required for which said deposit or account is being substituted.

When a distributor has filed with the Comptroller a bond in an amount of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) together with a current financial statement which said bond and financial statement, when reviewed by the Comptroller are, in his opinion, inadequate to cover certificates of authority to purchase motor fuel tax free in the quantities desired, such distributor may, with the Comptroller's
