Licensing of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Seed and Plant Producers

Sec. 4. (a) The board may establish, not inconsistent with federal law, procedures for and eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants for genetic purity and identity certification. The board may establish standards of genetic purity and identity, not inconsistent with federal law, for classes of certified seed and plants of various kinds or varieties for which the board determines that standards are desirable. The board shall report to the commissioner the standards promulgated for the certification eligibility of various kinds and varieties of seed and plants and shall report to the commissioner the various kinds and varieties eligible for certification. In establishing the standards, the board may consider all factors affecting the quality of seed and plants. This Paragraph (a) shall not go into effect until one year from the time of passage of this Act.

(b) A person who wants to produce a certified class of seed or plant for which the board has established standards of genetic purity and identity may apply to the board for licensing as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified producer of seed or plants. To be licensed as a producer, a person must satisfy the board that:

- (1) he is of good character and has a reputation for honesty;

(2) his facilities meet board requirements for producing and maintaining seed or plants for the certification generations desired; and

(3) he has met any other board requirements as to knowledge of the production or maintenance of seed or plants for the certification generations for which he applies to be licensed.

(c) The board may prescribe regulations governing the production and handling by licensed producers of certified classes of seed and plants to insure the maintenance of genetic purity and identity.

(d) A license to produce Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act. A person licensed as a producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants is eligible to produce certified seed or plants, as provided in his license, of the class for which he is licensed or of any lower class of certified seed or plants, as determined by the board.

Registration of Plant Breeders

Sec. 5. (a) A person engaging in the development, maintenance, or production of seed or plants for which standards of genetic purity and identity have been established by the board may apply to the board for registration as a plant breeder. Application for a certificate of registration shall be made on forms prescribed by the board, accompanied by a non-refundable registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the board. To be registered as a plant breeder, a person must satisfy the board that he is skilled in the science of plant breeding. The board may require skill to be shown by evidence of accomplishments in the field and may require an oral or written examination in the subject.

(b) A certificate of registration is not transferable and is permanent unless revoked as provided in this Act.

Protection of Foundation, Registered, and Certified Cotton Varieties

Sec. 6. (a) The board shall promulgate regulations governing the registration for certification eligibility of newly developed varieties of cotton. A person desiring to register a new variety of cotton shall apply for registration to the board on forms prescribed by the board. To obtain registration for a new variety of cotton, a person must satisfy the board that the cotton to be registered is a distinct new variety and must meet board requirements regulating control of production, maintenance, and handling of the cotton for genetic purity and identity.

(b) On issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, the board shall notify the commissioner of the eligibility for certification of seed of the variety.

(1) After issuance of a certificate of registration for a new cotton variety, no person may use the name given the new variety by the registrant in the sale of noncertified cottonseed for a period of 17 years from the date of issuance of the certificate of registration.

(2) Subdivision (1), Subsection (b) of this section does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, not specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(c) This section does not require registration of new varieties of cotton. On 10 days' notice to the board, a person may withdraw from the operation of this section a cotton variety previously registered to him.

(d) This section does not prohibit contracts between a registrant and seedmen or farmers for the production or sale of certified seed of the new cotton variety.

(e) This section does not prohibit one farmer from selling to another farmer cottonseed of a new variety grown on his own farm, as provided in Subsection (c), Section 5 of the Texas Seed Law, as amended (Article 93b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(f) At any time when the board determines that a critical situation exists because rain, hail, drouth, insects, or other natural elements beyond producers' control have reduced the supply of planting seed of a registered cotton variety, the board may hold a public hearing to determine the extent of the emergency. Notice of the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in at least three newspapers of general circulation in the state at least seven days before the hearing. At the hearing, if the board deems advisable after presentation of evidence from interested parties, the board may allow noncertified seed grown from certified seed of the variety in which a shortage exists to be sold by variety name for that crop year only. This subsection does not apply to a variety for which an application is pending for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed, nor to a variety for which a certificate has been issued for United States plant variety protection, specifying sale by variety name only as a class of certified seed.

(g) This section does not apply to seeds marketed or approved for certification eligibility before September 1, 1969.

Other Board Duties

Sec. 7. The board shall approve tests for certified classes of seed and plants and formats of labels for certified classes of seed and plants. The board shall prescribe qualifications for inspectors and shall nominate candidates for employment by the commissioner as certified seed and plant inspectors.

Certification of Seed and Plants

Sec. 8. (a) The state department of agriculture is the certifying agency in Texas for the certification of seed and plants. The commissioner shall appoint a sufficient number of inspectors nominated by the board to carry out the inspection provisions of this Act.

(b) A person licensed as a Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plant producer, registered as a plant breeder, or having a certificate of registration for a cotton variety is eligible to have seed or plants of an eligible class and variety certified by the commissioner. On request by a licensed producer, registered plant breeder, or registrant of a cotton variety to have his seed or plants certified, the commissioner shall cause inspections to be made of the producer's or registrant's fields, facilities, and seed or plants. Inspection may include tests approved by the board and carried out by inspectors under the authority of the commissioner. After inspection, if the commissioner determines that the production of seed or plants has met the standards and regulations prescribed by the board, he shall cause to be attached to each container of the product a label identifying the seed or plant and the certified class and including such other information as prescribed by statute or regulations of the board.

(c) However, as a condition to the granting of certification labels, the commissioner shall collect inspection fees in amounts determined by the commissioner to be necessary to cover the costs of inspection and labels.

Seed and Plants from Outside the State

Sec. 9. (a) The commissioner may promulgate regulations, tests, and standards which must be met before seed or plants represented to be of a certified class may be shipped into the state for distribution in the state. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall be designed to insure buyers in the state of having available certified seed and plants of known origin, genetic purity, and identity. Regulations, tests, and standards promulgated shall correspond to appropriate regulations, tests, and standards used in certifying seed and plants produced in Texas.

(b) The commissioner may require inspections of seed and plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state and may collect fees to cover costs of inspection, as determined by the commissioner. The commissioner may require inspection fee payment before distribution in the state.

(c) No person may distribute in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the person has first complied with any regulations, including testing requirements, promulgated by the commissioner for seed or plants shipped into the state.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants represented to be of a certified class and shipped into the state for distribution in the state, unless the seed or plants have been certified by an official certifying agency in the state, province, or country of origin or have been certified by the commissioner.

(e) Seed or plants shipped into the state for distribution in the state which are represented to be of a certified class and which are found by the commissioner after investigation to violate the requirements of this section are restricted from distribution. In addition, the commissioner may order the seed or plants in violation confiscated and retained under his general supervision. An owner or consignee of restricted or confiscated seed or plants may appeal the commissioner's order by filing an appeal within 10 days of the order. Appeal is in the county court of the county where the seed or plants are restricted or were confiscated. The appeal in county court is by trial de novo. If no appeal is filed as provided in this Act, or if after an appeal in county court, the commissioner's action is not reversed, the commissioner may cause confiscated seed or plants to be destroyed.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 10. (a) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state seed or plants with labeling or packaging accompanying the seed or plants using the terms "from officially inspected fields," "state inspected," "approved seed," "approved plants," "approved sods," "approved trees," "inspected fields," "foundation seed," "certified plants," or terms having the same meaning, unless the seed or plants have been certified as being Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants.

(b) No person may represent himself to be a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants unless he has been registered or licensed as provided in this Act.

(c) No person may sell or offer for sale in this state Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants not in compliance with this Act or with regulations authorized by this Act to be promulgated.

(d) No person may sell or offer for sale seed or plants represented to be certified in explicit oral or written statements or by misleading oral or written statements if the seed or plants have not been certified or have not been certified as being of the class of which they are represented.

Revocation of Registration, License, and Certification

Sec. 11. (a) If an inspector reports to the commissioner that a registered plant breeder or licensed producer of Foundation, Registered, or Certified seed or plants has made exaggerated claims for his products or has failed to observe any regulation governing the maintenance and production of a certified class of seed or plants which he is registered or licensed to produce or maintain, the commissioner may give written notice to the breeder or producer of the time and place of a revocation hearing to be held by the commissioner not less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) If at the hearing, the commissioner finds that the registered plant breeder or licensed producer has made exaggerated claims or has violated any regulation for the production and maintenance of the certified class of seed or plants involved, the commissioner may revoke the registration or license and order the cancellation and withdrawal of all appropriate certification labels previously issued for the seed or plants.

(c) A registered plant breeder or licensed producer whose registration or license has been revoked and whose certification labels have been cancelled and withdrawn may appeal the commissioner's action to the board by filing a notice of appeal with the commissioner within 30 days of the revocation. The commissioner shall report the notice of appeal to the board, which shall give written notice of the time and place for an appeal hearing to the appellant. The hearing on appeal may not be less than 10 nor more than 30 days after notice of appeal is filed with the commissioner. If the commissioner's action is reversed at the appeal hearing, the board shall direct the commissioner to reinstate the registration or license and reissue certification labels for seed or plants for which labels were previously cancelled and withdrawn.

Deposit of Fees

Sec. 12. All fees collected under the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in the State Treasury in a special account known as the special agricultural fund, to be used in the administration of this Act.

Penalties

Sec. 13. (a) A person who violates Subsection (b), Section 6 of this Act is guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction is punishable by a fine of not more than $1,000.

Duties and Authority of the Commissioner of Agriculture

Sec. 6. (a) The duty of enforcing this Act and carrying out its provisions and requirements shall be vested in the Commissioner of Agriculture. It shall be the duty of such officer, who may act through his authorized agents:

(1) To sample, inspect, make analysis of, and test agricultural and vegetable seed transported, sold, offered, or exposed for sale within this State for sowing purposes, at such time and place and to such extent as he may deem necessary to determine whether said agricultural or vegetable seed is in compliance with the provisions of this Act, and to notify promptly the person who transported, sold, offered, or exposed the seed for sale of any violation.

(b) Further, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner of Agriculture individually or through his authorized agents is authorized:

(1) To enter upon any public or private premises during regular business hours in order to have access to seeds and the records from personnel authorized by management connected therewith subject to the Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, and any truck or other conveyer by land, water, or air at any time when the conveyer is accessible, for the same purpose.

(2) To issue and enforce a written or printed "stop-sale" order to the owner or custodian of any lot of agricultural or vegetable seed which the Commissioner of Agriculture has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act which shall prohibit further sale of such seed until such officer has evidence that the law has been complied with. Provided, that in respect to seed which has been denied sale as provided in this paragraph, the owner or custodian of such seed shall have the right to appeal from such order to a court of competent jurisdiction where the seed is found, praying for a judgment as to the justification of said order and for the discharge of such seed from the order prohibiting the sale in accordance with the findings of the court; and provided further, that the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed as limiting the right of the enforcement officer to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(3) To establish and maintain or make provision for seed testing facilities, to employ qualified persons, and to incur such expenses as may be necessary to comply with these provisions.

(4) To make or provide for making purity and germination tests of seed for farmers and dealers on request; to prescribe rules and regulations governing such testing; and to fix and collect charges for the tests made.

(5) To cooperate with the United States Department of Agriculture in seed law enforcement.

Inspection Fee; Payment Procedure; Records; Reports; Rules and Regulations; Failure to Comply; Cancellation of Permit

Sec. 7. (a) For the purpose of administering the Texas Seed Act, any person who sells, offers for sale or otherwise distributes for sale any agricultural seed within this state for planting purposes shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee to be set by the Commissioner of Agriculture. Said inspection fee shall be deposited in the State Treasury by the Commissioner, and placed by the State Treasurer in the special Department of Agriculture Fund.

(b) The procedure for paying the inspection fee on agricultural seed shall be either by the use of the Texas Tested Seed Label or by means of the reporting system but shall not be by means of both such procedures, and shall in addition to such rules and regulations which the Commissioner of Agriculture is herewith authorized to issue, be in compliance with all the provisions of this Act.

(c) When the inspection fee is to be paid by use of the Texas Tested Seed Label the person who distributes, sells, offers for sale or exposes for sale agricultural seed for planting purposes shall purchase said Texas Tested Seed Label from the Commissioner of Agriculture and shall attach the label to each container of seed sold, offered for sale or otherwise distributed for sale for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is hereby empowered to promulgate rules and regulations prescribing the form of the labels and the manner of showing the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act.

(d) When the inspection fee is paid by means of the reporting system, the Commissioner of Agriculture shall, after application for a permit, issue a permit bearing an assigned number to any person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes for sale agricultural seed for planting purposes within this state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized at his discretion and under such rules and regulations as he may promulgate, to prescribe and furnish such forms and to require the filing of reports. The inspection fee shall be due on the total pounds sold or distributed. In addition to all other provisions of this Act, each person who is issued a permit to sell, offer for sale or otherwise distribute agricultural seed and pay the inspection fee in accordance with the reporting system shall:

(1) Maintain and furnish such records as the Commissioner of Agriculture may require to reflect accurately the total pounds of agricultural seed handled, sold, offered for sale or distributed for sale as planting seed. The Commissioner of Agriculture or his duly authorized agents shall have permission to examine the records of the permittee during normal working hours.

(2) File with the Commissioner of Agriculture within thirty days after the close of each quarter year ending the last day of November, February, May and August, sworn reports covering the total pounds of all sales of agricultural seed subject to an inspection fee sold during the preceding quarter. An inspection fee penalty of 10 percent of the amount due or $10, whichever is greater, is incurred if a report is not submitted when due and prior written approval for a delayed report has not been obtained.

(3) When located outside the State of Texas and when distributing agricultural seed in the State of Texas, shall maintain in the State of Texas the records and information required by Subsection (d), Section 7, of this Act or pay all costs incurred in the auditing of records at a location outside the state. The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized and directed to revoke the permit of any person who fails to comply with this requirement. Itemized statements of costs incurred in any such audits shall be furnished the permittee by the Commissioner promptly on completion of any such audit, and the permittee must pay the costs within thirty (30) days from the date of the statement.

(4) Affix to each container of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed and to the invoice of each lot of agricultural seed sold, offered for sale, or otherwise distributed in bulk, a plainly printed or written statement giving the information required in Section 3 of this Act.

Any failure of a permittee to observe these regulations, file required reports, or pay fees required shall be grounds for cancellation of the permit.

(e) The inspection fee must be paid during each germination period that said seed remains offered or exposed for sale. For any seed on which the germination test has expired, payment of the inspection fee is the responsibility of the custodian of said seed.

(f) Any person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes seed in bulk when inspection fee payment is by means other than the reporting system must furnish to the purchaser one

Texas Tested Seed Label printed with the analysis information required in Section 3 of this Act for each 100 pounds or fraction of 100 pounds sold.

(g) The Commissioner of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe, amend, adopt, and publish after public hearing following public notice, such rules and regulations as are necessary to carry out and make effective the provisions of this section.

Vegetable Seed License

Sec. 7A. (a) After September 1, 1975, no person may sell, offer or expose for sale, or otherwise distribute for sale in this state any vegetable seed for planting purposes unless the person has a valid current vegetable seed license issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture.

(b) After public notice and a public hearing, the Commissioner of Agriculture may determine from time to time the license fee required of an applicant for an original or renewal vegetable seed license. Application for a license must be made on forms prescribed by the Commissioner. A vegetable seed license expires on August 31 of each year.

(c) No license is required of a person who sells, offers or exposes for sale, or otherwise distributes for sale vegetable seed in containers bearing the name and address of a person licensed under this section.

Sec. 4. (a) All applications for license under this Act shall be accompanied by a tender of payment in full of the fee for such license required; on receipt of said application duly executed, together with required fee, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or his agents and/or employees thereunto duly authorized to immediately issue such license, provided that no license shall issue to any person when the application for license filed by such person shall indicate that such person is a suspended licensee within the State of Texas, or that such person's license to do business in Texas has been revoked until the Commissioner is furnished with satisfactory proof that the applicant is, on the date of the filing of such application, qualified to receive the license applied for; the issuance of license to persons who have suffered prior suspension or revocation of license in this State shall be discretionary with the Commissioner; in the exercise of such discretion, the Commissioner is authorized to take into consideration the facts and circumstances pertaining to the prior suspension and/or revocation; the financial condition of the applicant, as of the date of this application, and the obligations due and owing by the applicant to growers and producers of citrus fruits and/or perishable agricultural commodities; "obligation," as the term is used in this Section, shall be construed to mean any judgment of any court within this State outstanding against the applicant or certified claims as of the date of the application under consideration by the Commissioner; prior to refusal of license by the Commissioner, any applicant for license shall be entitled to an open hearing on the facts pertaining to such application, said hearing to be conducted by the Commissioner, or his agent thereunto duly authorized; if, after such hearing, the Commissioner, in the exercise of his discretion, refuses the license applied for, the applicant shall, within ten (10) days from and after the denial of such license by the Commissioner and not thereafter, file his appeal from the order of the Commissioner denying such license, in any court of competent jurisdiction within this State; if the Commissioner shall determine that the license applied for shall not be granted, the Commissioner shall deduct from the license fee tendered with such application the sum of Five Dollars ($5), said Five Dollars ($5) to be retained by the Commissioner to defray costs and expenses incident to the filing and examination of said application and shall return the balance of the license fee so tendered with such application to the applicant.

(b) The following fees are hereby prescribed and shall be paid by applicants for license under this Act, and the Commissioner, his agents and employees are hereby authorized to collect the same.

(1) For license as a "dealer" or "handler" of citrus fruit, the sum of Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(2) For license as a "commission merchant" and/or "contract dealer," as the term is in this Act defined, Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

(3) For a license as a "buying agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(4) For a license as a "transporting agent," the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(5) For a license as a "dealer" who sells any citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, the sum of One Dollar ($1).

(c) All "commission merchants" and/or "dealers" and "contract dealers," all retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,-

000) a year, and all retailers who employ buying agents who buy directly from producers, except persons applying only for licenses to sell citrus fruit from door to door or from temporary locations, shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200). All retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit are less than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) shall pay a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) in addition to the fee required in Subsection (b) of this Section. The fee shall be paid annually at the time application is made for licensing, and the Commissioner may not issue a license to a person who fails to pay the fee. No cooperative association organized pursuant to Chapter 8, Title 93 of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, that handles fruit only for its members shall be required to pay the fee required in this Subsection. Any such cooperative association dealing in citrus fruit other than for its producer members shall be required to pay the fee as any other dealer. It is hereby declared to be the policy of the Legislature to make these exemptions with reference to cooperative associations because of the fact that the producer members pool their fruit for sale rather than immediately selling it.

(d) A person with whom the "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" deals in purchasing, handling, selling, and accounting for sales of citrus fruit and who is aggrieved by an action of that merchant in violation of the terms or conditions of a contract made by that merchant or dealer may initiate a claim against the Produce Recovery Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The aggrieved party must file with the Commissioner a sworn complaint against the merchant or dealer and a Fifteen Dollar ($15) filing fee. The filing fee shall be refunded if the complainant is awarded recovery from the fund. The Commissioner shall conduct an investigation of the complaint and shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party. If the amount determined by the Commissioner is not disputed by the merchant or dealer or by the aggrieved party, the Commissioner shall pay the claim, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. If the amount is disputed, the Produce Recovery Fund Board shall conduct a hearing on the claim in the manner provided for contested cases under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). After a hearing on the disputed amount, the board shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party, and the Commissioner shall pay the aggrieved party that amount, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. A party not satisfied with the decision of the board may appeal that decision in the manner provided under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(e) In making payments from the Produce Recovery Fund, the Commissioner may not pay the aggrieved party more than sixty percent (60%) of any claim for more than One Hundred Dollars ($100). The total payment of all claims arising from the same transaction may not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). The total payment of claims against a single merchant or dealer may not exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in any one year.

(f) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a merchant or dealer, the Commissioner is subrogated to all rights of the aggrieved party against that merchant or dealer to the extent of the amount paid to the aggrieved party.

(g) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a merchant or dealer, the merchant or dealer must either reimburse the fund immediately or agree in writing to reimburse the fund on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. In addition, the merchant must either pay the aggrieved party immediately the amount due him or agree in writing to pay the aggrieved party on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. The payments made to the fund and the aggrieved party shall include interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) a year. If the merchant or dealer does not reimburse the fund or pay the aggrieved party, or does not agree in writing to do so, or defaults on a scheduled payment, the Commissioner shall cancel his license and may not issue a new license to that merchant or dealer for four years from the date of cancellation. If the merchant or dealer is a corporation, no officer or director of the corporation, and no person owning more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock in that corporation, may be licensed as a "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" during the four-year period in which the corporation is ineligible for licensing. An individual or corporation who is ineligible for licensing as a "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" under this Act is ineligible for licensing as a commission merchant under Chapter 218, Acts of the 58th Legislature, 1963, as amended (Article 1287-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), during the period of ineligibility.

(h) The Commissioner may not pay any claim against a "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" who was not licensed under this Act at the time of the transaction on which the claim is based and he may not pay any claim against a cash dealer.

Sec. 6. Any license issued under the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit: any person aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violation of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violation complained of; the complaint must be filed within twelve (12) months from the date of the act that injured the complaining party; the Commissioner, on receipt of said verified complaint, shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; Commissioner shall, by registered mail to the last known address, notify the person complained of and shall furnish such person with a copy of such complaint; the Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments of writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand; upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall, within a reasonable length of time after studying all evidence, make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of; any licensee, whose license is so cancelled by an order of the Commissioner, shall be notified in writing by registered mail of the cancellation of said license and it shall be unlawful and a violation of this Act for any licensee or buying or transporting agent to operate from and after said notification of cancellation, provided that said licensee or buying or transporting agent whose license has been so cancelled shall have the right of appeal from the order of the Commissioner canceling said license to any court of competent jurisdiction within this State, provided that such appeal shall be filed in said court within ten (10) days from and after receipt by licensee of notice of said cancellation, and provided further that the effect of said appeal by said licensee or licensee's agent shall not act to supersede the order of cancellation issued by the Commissioner, pursuant to final determination of the question of cancellation by said court.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7 and 8]

Sec. 8a. The Commissioner may publish as often as he considers necessary a list in pamphlet form of all persons licensed under this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 9 to 11]

Sec. 12. Any license issued hereunder will authorize the licensee, and none other, to engage in the business as a dealer for one year from date of issuance, at which time said license shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expires by its own terms, may be renewed upon completion of a renewal application and payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of "buying agent" and "transporting agent" identification cards may be issued and accredited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued:

(a) Such cards shall bear the name of the licensee, dealer, and the number of his license, also the name of the dealer's agent, and shall state thereon that said licensed dealer, as the principal, has authorized the agent named on the card, the holder thereof, to act for and on behalf of said principal, either as "buying agent" or as "transporting agent" as above defined. "Buying agent" identification cards shall be of a different color from "transporting agent" cards. Such identification cards shall be at all times carried upon the persons of such agents who shall, upon demand, display such cards to the Commissioner or his agents or representatives, or to any person with whom said agent may be transacting business under this Act.

(b) If and when the holder of any identification card ceases to be the agent of the dealer by whom he was employed, it shall be the duty of said agent to return immediately such agent's card to the Commissioner for cancellation and failure to do so shall constitute a violation of this Act.

Regulations as to Purchase

Sec. 13. It shall be unlawful for any dealer, packer, processor or warehouseman to purchase or receive or handle any citrus fruit without requiring the person from whom such citrus fruit is purchased or received, to furnish a statement in writing of (a) the owner of said citrus fruit, (b) the grower of said citrus fruit, together with the approximate location of the orchard where said fruit was grown, (c) the date said fruit was gathered and by whose authority same was gathered, and such records shall be kept in a permanent book or folder and shall be available to inspection by any interested party. The Commissioner or his authorized representatives may periodically investigate licensees or persons alleged to be selling citrus fruit in violation of this Act and, without notice, require evidence of purchase of any citrus fruit in their possession.

Sec. 14. (a) For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act, the Commissioner is hereby vested with full power and authority and it shall be his duty, either upon his own initiative or upon the receipt of a properly verified complaint, to investigate all alleged violations of this Act and for the purpose of making such investigation, he shall have, at all times, free and unimpeded access to all books, records, buildings, yards, warehouses, storage, and transportation and other facilities or places in which any citrus fruit is kept, stored, handled, processed or transported, and in furtherance of such investigation either the Commissioner in person or through his authorized representatives, may examine any portion of the ledger, books, accounts, memorandum, documents, scales, measures, and other matters, objects or persons pertinent to such alleged violation under investigation. The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearings as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the nearest city or town in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a Court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) If a person who has received at least 15 days' notice of an order of the Commissioner refuses to comply with that order, the Commissioner may seek temporary or permanent relief to require compliance. The district court has jurisdiction to grant this relief.

Sec. 21. From and after the effective date of this Act any person who shall:

(a) Act as a dealer and/or handler, as the terms "dealer" and/or "handler" are in this Act defined, without first obtaining a license to act as such dealer and/or handler, shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which any dealer or handler shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Act or assume to act as a transporting agent or buying agent as the terms are herein defined, without first obtaining from the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas a license or a buying agent's or a transporting agent's card as by the terms and provisions of this Act required, shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which any buying agent or transporting agent shall act or assume to act in violation of the requirements of this Act shall constitute a separate offense.

(c) Any buying or transporting agent who ceases to be employed by a dealer or handler or the agent of any dealer or handler to whom such buying agent's or transporting agent's card was issued and who fails and refuses on the termination of such employment to turn over to the Commissioner of Agriculture the buying or transporting agent's card issued to such person shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

(d) Any person who shall act or assume to act as a commission merchant and/or dealer or a contract dealer, as the terms "commission merchant" and/or "dealer" or "contract dealer" are used in this Act without first paying to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas the fee required in Subsection (c) of Section 4 of this Act and obtaining a license to act as such commission merchant and/or dealer or contract dealer shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), and each day upon which such person shall act or assume to act as such commission merchant and/or dealer or contract dealer shall constitute a separate offense.

(e) Any licensee or any transporting or buying agent of any licensee under this Act who shall violate any of the terms and provisions of this Act shall be fined not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500).

(f) Fifty percent (50%) of all fines collected under this Section shall be deposited in the Produce Recovery Fund. The clerk of the county court or county court-at-law and the custodian of county treasury funds shall keep separate records of all fines collected under this Section. On the first day of each January, April, July, and October, the custodian of the funds in the county treasury shall remit this portion of the fines collected to the comptroller of public accounts, and the comptroller shall deposit that amount in the Produce Recovery Fund.

Sec. 22. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to a retailer of citrus fruit, except a retailer whose annual sales of citrus fruit and vegetables comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of his total sales or who employs a buying agent who buys directly from producers, nor to any person shipping less than six (6) standard boxes of citrus fruit in any one separate shipment nor shall this Act apply to noncommercial shipments.

Sec. 23. Any citrus grower who handles and markets only citrus fruit grown by him, shall file an application for a license as a dealer in citrus fruit and upon so filing said application with the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Texas in the form prescribed, he shall be entitled to a license as a minimum dealer of citrus fruit; i. e., one handling not in excess of one thousand (1000) standard boxes, or the equivalent thereof, per twelve-month period and said license shall be issued to him without the payment of any fee and he shall thereupon be entitled to handle, market, sell, and dispose of his citrus fruit in accordance therewith subject to the pertinent provisions of this Act.

Sec. 25. (B) if applied without compensation other than trading of personal services between producers of agricultural commodities, on the property of another person.

(33) "Registered applicator" means a competent person working under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

(34) "Regulatory agency" means a state agency with responsibility for certifying applicators of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides, as provided in Section 16 of this Act.

(35) "Restricted-use pesticide" means any pesticide classified as a restricted-use pesticide by the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(36) "State-limited-use pesticide" means any pesticide which, when used as directed or in accordance with widespread and commonly recognized practice, the commissioner determines, after a hearing, requires additional restrictions to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment, including effects on man, land, crops, and animals other than pests.

(37) "Unreasonable adverse effects on the environment" means any unreasonable risk to man or the environment, taking into account the economic, social, and environmental costs and benefits of use of a pesticide.

(38) "Weed" means any plant that grows where not wanted.

Misbranded

Sec. 3. The term "misbranded" applies:

(1) to any pesticide or device subject to this Act:

(A) if its labeling bears any statement, design, or graphic representation relating to the pesticide, device, or the ingredients of either which is false or misleading in any particular;

(B) if it is an imitation of or is distributed under the name of another pesticide or device; or

(C) if any word, statement, or other information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act to appear on a label or labeling, is not prominently placed on a label or labeling with such conspicuousness, as compared with other material on the label or labeling, and in such terms as to render it likely to be read and understood by the ordinary individual under customary conditions of purchase and use;

(2) to any pesticide:

(A) if its labeling bears any reference to registration under the provisions of this Act unless the reference is required by regulations promulgated as provided in this Act;

(B) if the labeling does not contain a statement of the use classifications for which the product is registered;

(C) if the label does not bear:

(i) the name, brand, or trademark under which the pesticide is distributed;

(ii) an ingredient statement on that part of the immediate container which is presented or displayed under customary conditions of purchase, and on any outer container or wrapper of a retail package, if the ingredient statement on the immediate container cannot be clearly read without removing the outer wrapping;

(iii) directions for use which are necessary for effecting the purpose for which the product is intended, and if complied with, are adequate for the protection of health and the environment;

(iv) if the pesticide contains arsenic in any form, a statement of the percentages of total water-soluble arsenic, calculated as elementary arsenic;

(v) the name and address of the manufacturer, registrant, or person for whom the pesticide was manufactured; or

(vi) numbers or other symbols to identify the lot or batch of the manufacturer of the contents of the package;

(D) if the label does not clearly display appropriate warnings, symbols, and cautionary statements commensurate with the toxicity or use classification of the pesticide; or

(E) if the pesticide container does not bear a label or if the label does not contain all information required by this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

Pesticide Advisory Committee

Sec. 4. (a) The Pesticide Advisory Committee is a committee consisting of the deans of the departments of agriculture of Texas A & M University and Texas Tech University, the executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, the commissioner of the State Department of Health, and the commissioner of agriculture, or their designated representatives. Members of the committee serve as ex officio members and receive no compensation as committee members but are entitled to reimbursement from the funds of their respective departments or agencies for actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(b) The committee meets at least once a year and at such other times as determined by the commissioner, for the purpose of advising the commissioner on the best use of pesticides for the protection of the public health and welfare, animal life, and property. The committee shall receive requested assistance from state universities and state agencies, including assistance from consultants retained by state universities or state agencies, to aid the committee in its recommendations to the commissioner regarding any pesticide program or any other related matter submitted by the commissioner for committee recommendations.

Registration of Pesticides

Sec. 5. (a) Every pesticide which is distributed within this state or is delivered for transportation or transported in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside the state, must be registered with the commissioner by the manufacturer, or by any person whose name appears on the label of the pesticide, if not the manufacturer, before the pesticide may be distributed, delivered for transportation, or transported as provided in this subsection. However, registration is not required for the transportation of a pesticide from one plant or warehouse to another plant or warehouse operated by the same person and used solely at the second plant or warehouse as a constituent part of a pesticide registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) A person who applies for registration of a pesticide shall file with the commissioner a statement including:

(1) the name and address of the applicant and the name and address of the person whose name will appear on the pesticide label, if not the applicant's;

(2) the name of the pesticide;

(3) a complete copy of all labeling to accompany the pesticide and a statement of all claims to be made for it, including the directions for use;

(4) the use classification, whether for restricted or general use, as provided in the federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, as amended,¹ or in regulations promulgated as provided in the Act;

(5) the use classification proposed by the applicant, if the pesticide is not required by federal law to be registered under a use classification; and

(6) other information required by the commissioner for the determination of eligibility for registration.

(c) The commissioner may require the submission of the complete formula for a pesticide, including active and inert ingredients, as a prerequisite to registration. The commissioner may require a full description of the tests made and the results of the tests on which claims are based before approving registration of a pesticide not registered under federal law or a pesticide for which federal or state restrictions on use are being considered.

(d) A person located outside this state shall, as a condition to registration of a pesticide, file with the commissioner an instrument in writing designating a resident agent for service of process in actions taken in the administration or enforcement of this Act. In lieu of designating a resident agent, the person may designate in writing the secretary of state as the recipient of service of process for the person in this state.

(e) Registration expires annually on December 31. A person who applies for renewal of registration must include in his application only such information as is different from the information furnished at the time of the most recent registration or renewal of registration.

(f) As a condition to registration, an applicant shall pay to the commissioner an annual registration fee of $30 for each pesticide to be registered as provided in this Act.

(g) Any pesticide registration in effect on December 31 for which a renewal application has been filed and a renewal registration fee paid continues in effect until the commissioner notifies the applicant that the registration has been renewed or denied renewal.

(h) A person who fails to apply for renewal of pesticide registration before March 1 of any year shall, as a condition to the renewal of registration, pay a late registration fee of $5 for each brand to be renewed, to be added to the amount of the renewal registration fee.

(i) The commissioner may not approve an application for registration of a pesticide unless he finds that the composition of the pesticide warrants the proposed claims made for it and that the pesticide, its labeling, and other materials required to be submitted as provided in this Act comply with the requirements of this Act.

(j) The commissioner may register pesticides for additional uses and methods of application not covered by federal regulation but not inconsistent with federal law, for the purpose of meeting special local needs. Before approval of any registration for special local needs, the commissioner shall determine that the applicant meets other requirements of this section.

Denial or Cancellation of Registration

Sec. 6. (a)¹ If the commissioner has reason to believe that any use of a registered pesticide is in violation of the provisions of this Act or is dangerous or harmful, he may issue to the registrant of the pesticide written notice of a hearing on denial or cancellation of registration. The notice must contain a statement of the time and place of the hearing, which may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice. After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by interested parties, the commissioner may deny or cancel the registration of the pesticide if he finds that:

(1) use of the pesticide has demonstrated uncontrollable adverse environmental effects;

(2) use of the pesticide is a detriment to the environment which outweighs benefits received by its use;

(3) even when properly used, the pesticide is detrimental to vegetation, except weeds, or to domestic animals or the public health and safety;

(4) any false or misleading statement about the pesticide has been made or implied by the registrant or his agent, in writing, verbally, or through any form of advertising literature; or

(5) the registrant or the pesticide has not complied with a requirement of this Act or rule promulgated as provided in this Act.

Experimental Use Permit

Sec. 7. (a) Any person may apply to the commissioner for an experimental use permit for a pesticide. The commissioner may issue an experimental use permit if the commissioner determines that the applicant needs the permit in order to accumulate data necessary to register a pesticide under this Act. An application for an experimental use permit may be filed before or after an application for registration is filed.

(b) Use of a pesticide under an experimental use permit is under the supervision of the commissioner and is subject to such terms and conditions and be for such period of time as the commissioner may prescribe in the permit.

(c) The commissioner may revoke any experimental use permit at any time if he finds that its terms or conditions are being violated or that its terms and conditions are inadequate to avoid unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 8. (a) The commissioner may, after due notice and a public hearing, make appropriate regulations for carrying out the provisions of this Act, including but not limited to regulations providing for:

- (1) the collection, examination, and reporting of records, devices, and samples of pesticides;
- (2) the safe handling, transportation, storage, display, distribution, and disposal of pesticides and their containers; and
- (3) labeling requirements for all pesticides and devices required to be registered under the provisions of this Act.

(b) After due notice and a public hearing, the commissioner may adopt from time to time lists of state-limited-use pesticides for the entire state or for designated areas within the state. If the commissioner determines that a pesticide requires restrictions or additional restrictions on distribution or use to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment, he may include the pesticide on a list of state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner may regulate the time and conditions of use of a state-limited-use pesticide and may require that it be purchased or used only with permission of the commissioner, only under his direct supervision in certain areas under certain conditions, and only in specified quantities and concentrations. The commissioner may require persons authorized to distribute or use state-limited-use pesticides to maintain records of their distribution and use of all state-limited-use pesticides and may require that the records be kept separately from other business records.

Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 9. (a) No person may distribute in this state restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current pesticide dealer license issued by the commissioner for each location in the state which is used for distribution. Any person licensed as a dealer under Chapter 349, Acts of the 53rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1953, as amended (Article 135b-4, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) shall not be required to pay an additional fee for the license prescribed in this section.

(b) Application for a pesticide dealer license is on forms prescribed by the commissioner, accompanied by a nonrefundable annual registration fee of not more than $100, as determined by the commissioner. A pesticide dealer license expires on December 31 of each year.

(c) A person without a place of business in the state may obtain one pesticide dealer license for all of his out-of-state locations. As a condition to the issuance of a license, he shall file a statement as provided in Subsection (d), Section 5, of this Act.

(d) Each pesticide dealer license must be prominently displayed in the dealer's place of business. Failure to so display a license is a ground for revocation of the license.

(e) If an application for a renewal of a pesticide dealer license is not filed with the commissioner by March 1 of any year, a late license fee of $5 is due in addition to the annual license fee and must be paid before issuance of the renewal license.

(f) Licensed pesticide dealers shall maintain for a period of two years records of each restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticide sold. Information included in the records shall be as prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner may require submission of records to him. Failure to submit requested records is a ground for revocation of a license.

(g) This section does not apply to a licensed pesticide applicator who distributes restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides only as an integral part of his pesticide application business and who dispenses the pesticides only through equipment used in his pesticide application business. This section does not apply to any federal, state, county, or municipal agency which provides pesticides only for its own programs.

Denial or Revocation of Pesticide Dealer License

Sec. 10. (a) If the commissioner has reason to believe that an applicant has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, or if the commissioner has reason to believe that a licensee has failed to comply with requirements of Section 9 or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9, he may issue written notice to the applicant or licensee of the time and place of a hearing to be held by the commissioner on denial or revocation of license. The hearing may not be less than 10 days after issuance of notice.

(b) After opportunity at the hearing for presentation of evidence by the applicant or licensee, the commissioner may refuse to issue a pesticide dealer license or revoke a pesticide dealer license, if he finds that the applicant or licensee has failed to comply with applicable requirements of Section 9 of this Act or regulations promulgated as provided in Section 9.

Enforcement

Sec. 11. (a) The commissioner or his authorized agents may enter at reasonable hours any building or place owned, controlled, or operated by a regis-trant or dealer, where from probable cause it appears that the building or place contains pesticides, for the purpose of inspection, examination of records, and sampling. The commissioner or his authorized agents may take a sample for official analysis from any package or lot of pesticides found within the state.

(b) The commissioner may issue and enforce a written or printed stop-sale order to the owner or custodian of any pesticide which he has reason to believe is in violation of any of the provisions of this Act, prohibiting further sale of the pesticide until the commissioner determines that the pesticide is no longer in violation of the Act.

(c) The owner or custodian of a pesticide to which a stop-sale order applies may appeal from the order to a court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the pesticide is found. Appeal is by trial de novo. This section does not limit the right of the commissioner to proceed as authorized by other sections of this Act.

(d) The commissioner may institute an action in his own name to enjoin any violation of a provision of this Act. Venue is in the county where the alleged violation occurred or is occurring.

Other Powers and Duties of the Commissioner

Sec. 12. (a) The commissioner may contract with state colleges and universities, state agencies, or commercial laboratories for examination of pesticides. Contracts with commercial laboratories may be let only on the basis of competitive bidding.

(b) The commissioner shall make or provide for sample tests of pesticides on request, and he may charge and collect fees for the tests necessary to cover expenses incurred in making or providing for the tests.

Prohibited Acts

Sec. 13. (a) No person may distribute within the state, or deliver for transportation or transport in intrastate commerce or between points within this state through any point outside this state, any of the following:

- (1) any pesticide which has not been registered as provided in this Act;
- (2) any pesticide if any of the claims made for it or any of the directions for its use or other labeling differs from the representations made in connection with its registration;
- (3) any pesticide unless it is in the registrant's or the manufacturer's unbroken immediate container and there is affixed to the container, and to the outside container or wrapper of the retail package, if there is one through which the required information on the immediate container cannot be clearly read, a label bearing the information required in this Act and the regulations adopted under this Act; provided that an applicator may after acquiring such an unbroken container, open and transport the open container to and from application and storage sites as necessary;

(4) any pesticide which has not been colored or discolored as required by the provisions of this Act;

(5) any pesticide which is adulterated or misbranded or any device which is misbranded; or

(6) any pesticide in a container which is unsafe due to damage.

(b) No person may:

(1) detach, alter, deface, or destroy, wholly or in part, any label or labeling provided for in this Act or regulations adopted under this Act, or to add any substance to or take any substance from a pesticide in a manner that may defeat the purpose of this Act or the regulations adopted thereunder;

(2) use or cause to be used any pesticide contrary to its labeling or to regulations of the commissioner limiting use of the pesticide;

(3) handle, transport, store, display, or distribute a pesticide in a manner that violates the provisions of this Act or rules promulgated by the commissioner as provided in this Act; or

(4) dispose of, discard, or store any pesticide or pesticide container in a manner that is calculated to cause injury to humans, vegetation, crops, livestock, wildlife, pollinating insects or to pollute any water supply or waterway.

(c) No person, except the person to whom a pesticide is registered, may use for his advantage or reveal, other than to properly designated state or federal officials or their employees, or to physicians or in emergencies to pharmacists and other qualified persons for use in the preparation of antidotes, any information relating to pesticide formulae, trade secrets, or commercial or financial information acquired by authority of this Act and marked as privileged or confidential by the registrant.

Exemptions

Sec. 14. (a) The penalties provided for violations of Section 13 of this Act do not apply to:

(1) any carrier while lawfully engaged in transporting a pesticide or device within this state if the carrier on request permits the commissioner to copy all records showing the transactions in and movement of the pesticides or devices;

(2) public officials of this state and the federal government while engaged in the performance of their official duties in administering state or federal pesticide statutes or regulations or while engaged in pesticide research;

(3) the manufacturer or shipper of a pesticide for experimental use only by or under the supervision of an agency of this state or of the federal government authorized by law to conduct research in the field of pesticides, if the manufacturer or shipper holds a valid experimental use permit as provided in this Act; and

(4) a pesticide or device manufactured or formulated solely for export to a foreign country and prepared or packed according to the specifications or directions of the purchaser. If not so exported, the provisions of this Act apply.

(b) Chemical compounds being used only to develop plot data as to the possible pesticidal action of the chemicals are exempt from registration requirements of this Act.

Regulation of Pesticide Use and Application

Sec. 15. (a) The Texas Department of Agriculture is the lead agency and is responsible for coordinating activities of state agencies in the regulation of pesticide use and application and is responsible for submitting a state plan for the certification of pesticide applicators to the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency. This agency shall have the responsibility for coordinating, planning, and approving of training programs and shall utilize the resources of the state, both private and public, including but not limited to state universities, colleges, junior colleges, and community colleges as well as the Texas A & M Extension Service and Experiment Stations. The agency shall make all plans in this area on the basis of convenience to applicants, thoroughness of preparation and testing, and maximum economy in expenditures for this purpose. The agency may make full use of authorizations contained in Section 31 of this Act in carrying out these provisions.

(b) The commissioner shall certify pesticide applicators involved in agricultural pest control (except animal pest control), forest pest control, ornamental and turf pest control (except as provided in the Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b,¹ Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)), seed treatments, right-of-way pest control, regulatory pest control, and demonstration pest control.

(c) The Texas Animal Health Commission shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in animal pest control.

(d) The Texas Water Quality Board shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in aquatic pest control.

(e) The State Department of Health shall certify, as provided in this Act, pesticide applicators involved in health-related pest control.

(f) Definitions of the license use categories described in Subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) of this section are as provided by federal statutes or regulations.

(g) A person who wants to be certified as a pesticide applicator under license use categories regulated by more than one agency may do so by paying a single license fee to the agency regulating his primary business and by meeting certification requirements for each category for which he desires certification. He must pay testing fees required by each agency.

(h) The licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators is contingent on the availability of federal funds to pay costs of administering and enforcing the program. If federal funds and other funds made available for this program are not sufficient to pay all costs of administering and enforcing the program, the commissioner shall certify the fact and discontinue the licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators. The commissioner shall cause notice of discontinuance of the program to be published in the Texas Register, and the effective date of discontinuance shall be determined by the commissioner but may not be before the date of publication of notice in the register. If sufficient federal funds become available after discontinuance, the commissioner shall certify the availability of sufficient funds to pay all costs of administration and enforcement of the program and shall resume licensing of certified commercial and noncommercial applicators. The commissioner shall cause notice of resumption of the program to be published in the Texas Register, and the effective date of resumption shall be determined by the commissioner but may not be before the date of publication of notice in the register. During any period of discontinuance, no person is required to have a license as provided in this Act to use pesticides but a person may be prosecuted for acts committed or omitted when the program was in effect.

Regulations for Pesticide Application

Sec. 16. The head of each state agency with responsibility for certification of pesticide applicators, as provided in Section 15 of this Act, may, after due notice and a public hearing, promulgate regulations to carry out the provisions of this Act for which he is responsible. The regulations may prescribe methods to be used in the application of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides. Regulations may relate to the time, place, manner, methods, and amounts and concentrations of pesticide application and to the materials used in pesticide application, and may restrict or prohibit use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in designated areas during specified periods of time. Regulations shall be promulgated only after consideration of precautions or restrictions necessary to prevent unreasonable adverse effects on the environment.

Pesticide Use Without License or Certification

Sec. 17. No person, except an individual acting under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, or except a private applicator, may use or supervise the use of any restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticide, unless he is licensed as a certified commercial or noncommercial applicator and is authorized by his license to use restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories covering his proposed pesticide use. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit any property owner from using in his house or on his lawn or in his garden any pesticide labeled for such use except one that may be registered and classified for use only by certified applicators.

Classification of Commercial and Noncommercial Licenses

Sec. 18. The head of each regulatory agency may classify commercial and noncommercial licenses under subcategories of license use categories, according to the subject, method, or place of pesticide application. An agency head shall establish separate testing requirements for licensing in each license use category for which his agency is responsible, and may establish separate testing requirements for licensing in subcategories within a license use category. Each regulatory agency may charge a non-refundable testing fee of not more than $10 for testing in each license use category.

Commercial Applicator License

Sec. 19. (a) No person, except an individual working under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, may apply restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides to the land of another for hire or compensation at any time without having a valid current commercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency and shall be accompanied by an annual license fee of not more than $100, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. Each license application shall include such information as is prescribed by regulation of the head of the regulatory agency.

(c) Before issuance of an original commercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories or subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a commercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a business, the business must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a business commercial applicator license.

(d) A regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license until the license applicant files with the agency evidence of financial responsibility, consisting either of a bond executed by the applicant as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in Texas as surety or a liability insurance policy or certification of a policy, protecting persons who may suffer damages as a result of the operations of the applicant. The bond or liability insurance policy, however, need not apply to damages or injury to agricultural crops, plants, or land being worked upon by the applicant. The surety bond or insurance must be approved by the regulatory agency and conditioned on compliance with the requirements of this Act and any regulations promulgated as provided in this Act.

(e) The amount of the bond or liability insurance required may not be less than $5,000 nor more than $100,000 for property damage insurance and may not be less than $5,000 for bodily injury insurance. The head of the regulatory agency may, by regulation, require different amounts of bond or insurance coverage for different classifications of operations under this Act. The bond or liability insurance must be maintained at not less than the sum set by the agency head at all times during a period licensed. The head of the regulatory agency shall be notified by the party taking action at least 10 days prior to any reduction requested by a licensee or any cancellation of a bond or policy; otherwise, liability of the surety or insurer for all claims is limited to the face amount of the bond or liability insurance policy. The agency head may accept a liability insurance policy or bond in the proper sum which has a deductible clause in an amount of not more than $1,000 for the total amount of liability insurance or bond required by this section. However, if the applicant has not satisfied the requirement of the deductible amount in any prior legal claim, a policy or bond with a deductible clause may not be accepted by an agency head unless the applicant furnishes the agency with a surety bond which satisfies the amount of the deductible clause as to all claims that may arise as a result of his operation. Should the surety furnished become insufficient or otherwise unsatisfactory, a licensee shall, on notice of the insufficiency or other defect, immediately file a new bond or policy of insurance. Failure to file a bond or policy of insurance and failure to maintain the security in the required amounts are grounds for suspension or revocation of a commercial applicator license.

(f) The head of a regulatory agency may not issue a commercial applicator license if it has been determined that:

(1) the applicant has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude in the last five years;

(2) the applicant has had a previous license, authorized by this Act to be issued, revoked within the last two years;

(3) the applicant, or his representative if the applicant is a business, has been unable to satisfactorily fulfill certification requirements; or

(4) the applicant for any other reason cannot be expected to be able to fulfill the provisions of this Act applicable to the license use category for which application has been made.

Noncommercial Applicator License

Sec. 20. (a) A person not engaged in the pesticide application business who is not a private applicator, except a person acting under the direct supervision of a certified or private applicator, may not use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides without having a valid current noncommercial applicator license issued by a regulatory agency for the license use categories and subcategories, if any, in which the pesticide application is to be made.

(b) Application for an original or renewal license shall be on forms prescribed by the regulatory agency. A nongovernmental applicant shall accompany his application with an annual license fee of not more than $50, as determined by the head of the regulatory agency. No license fee may be charged a governmental entity applying for a license.

(c) Before issuance of an original noncommercial applicator license, an applicant must pass an examination demonstrating his competence and knowledge of the use and effects of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories or subcategories for which he has applied to be licensed. An individual to whom a noncommercial applicator license is issued is a certified applicator authorized to use and supervise the use of restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides in the license use categories and any subcategories in which he is licensed. If a license is issued in the name of a governmental entity, the entity must have a certified applicator employed at all times. Failure to have a certified applicator employed is a ground for revocation of a governmental entity noncommercial applicator license.

Private Applicator Exemption

Sec. 21. A private applicator is not required to have a license or to be certified to use restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides. The commissioner is authorized to establish a program to certify private applicators, on a voluntary basis, who wish to apply restricted use pesticides in compliance with federal law.

Reciprocal Agreements

Sec. 22. The head of a regulatory agency may waive part or all of any license examination requirements on a reciprocal basis with any other state or federal agency which has substantially the same examination standards.

License Renewal

Sec. 23. Each commercial applicator license and noncommercial applicator license expires on December 31 of the year in which it was issued. A person having a valid current license may renew the license for another year without retesting by paying to the regulatory agency an annual license fee, as provided in this Act, unless the head of the regulatory agency determines that additional knowledge is required in the license use categories or subcategories in which the licensee applies for license renewal, in which case the passing of a new examination is necessary for license renewal. However, if a certified applicator does not file with the regulatory agency by March 1 of any year his application for license renewal, accompanied by payment of the annual license fee, he must pass another examination before he may be recertified.

Maintenance of Records

Sec. 24. Each regulatory agency shall require its licensees except private applicators to maintain records of their use of pesticides. Information to be included in the records is as prescribed by regulation of the regulatory agency. A regulatory agency may require its licensees to keep records of their application of specific restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticides and may require the records to be kept separately from other business records. Records must be kept for a period of two years from the date of pesticide application. A licensee shall, on written request of the regulatory agency, furnish the agency a copy of any records requested pertaining to the application of pesticides.

Registration and Inspection of Equipment

Sec. 25. (a) Each regulatory agency shall provide for the registration and inspection of equipment used in the commercial application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides and may require repairs or alterations of equipment before further use. The head of a regulatory agency shall by regulation promulgate standards that must be met before registration of equipment.

(b) Each piece of registered equipment shall be identified by a license plate or decal furnished by a regulatory agency at no cost to the licensee and attached to the equipment in a manner and location as prescribed by the regulatory agency.

Suspension and Revocation of a Certified Applicator License

Sec. 26. (a) The head of a regulatory agency which licensed a certified applicator may suspend temporarily for not more than 10 days, after written notice of noncompliance, and, after opportunity for a hearing not less than 10 days after issuance of written notice to the licensee of the time, place, and nature of the hearing, may suspend, modify, or revoke any provision in the license of a certified applicator, if he finds that the licensee has committed any of the following acts, each of which is a violation of this Act:

(1) made a pesticide recommendation or application inconsistent with the labeling or with the restrictions of the use of the pesticide imposed by the federal Environmental Protection Agency or the state;

(2) operated in a faulty, careless, or negligent manner;

(3) refused or, after notice, failed to comply with any applicable provision of this Act, the rules and regulations adopted as provided in this Act, or any lawful order of the head of a regulatory agency by which he is licensed;

(4) refused or neglected to keep and maintain the records required by this Act or to make reports when and as required;

(5) failed to maintain a bond or policy of insurance as required by this Act;

(6) made false or fraudulent records, invoices, or reports;

(7) used fraud or misrepresentation in making an application for, or renewal of, a license; or

(8) aided or abetted a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, conspired with a licensed or an unlicensed person to evade the provisions of this Act, or allowed his license to be used by another person.

(b) In addition to revocation, modification, or suspension of a license, a licensee who violates Subsection (a) of this section is subject to the other penalty provisions of this Act. An unlicensed person who violates Subsection (a) of this section, to the extent that it is applicable to unlicensed persons, is subject to the penalty provisions of this Act.

Appeal

Sec. 27. (a) A person whose application for registration of a pesticide has been denied or whose registration for a pesticide has been cancelled may appeal the action of the commissioner by filing an appeal in the district court of Travis County within 30 days of the date of denial or cancellation by the commissioner. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the commissioner.

(b) A person whose application for experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been denied, or whose experimental use permit, pesticide dealer license, commercial applicator license, or noncommercial applicator license has been revoked, modified, or suspended for more than 10 days, may appeal the action of the commissioner or head of a regulatory agency by filing an appeal in the district court of the county of his residence or in the district court of Travis County, within 30 days of the date of denial, revocation, modification, or suspension. A copy of the notice of appeal shall be delivered to the person whose action has been appealed.

(c) Appeal is governed by the substantial evidence rule.

Reports of Pesticide Damage Claims

Sec. 28. (a) Any person claiming damages from a pesticide application may file with the regulatory agency which licensed the certified applicator whose action allegedly caused damage a written statement claiming that he has been damaged. To be eligible for consideration by the agency, the report must be filed within 30 days of the alleged occurrence, or if a growing crop is alleged to have been damaged, the report must be filed prior to the time that 25 percent of the crop has been harvested or within 30 days, whichever is less. The report must contain, but is not limited to, the name of the person allegedly responsible for the application of the pesticide, the name of the owner or lessee of the land on which the crop is grown and for which damage is alleged to have occurred. The regulatory agency shall prepare a form to be furnished to persons to be used in filing damage reports, and the form may contain such other information as is required by the head of the regulatory agency.

(b) The regulatory agency shall, on receipt of a report, notify the licensee and the owner or lessee of the land on which the alleged acts occurred, and any other person who may be charged with responsibility for the damages claimed. The regulatory agency shall furnish copies of the report to these people on request. The regulatory agency shall inspect damages whenever possible and shall report its findings to the person claiming damage and to the person alleged to have caused the damage.

(c) The failure to file a report is no bar to the maintenance of any criminal or civil action. However, if the person failing to file a report is the only person claiming injury from the particular use or application of a pesticide, the regulatory agency, when in the public interest, may refuse to hold a hearing for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license issued under this Act to a person alleged to have caused damage.

(d) If damage is alleged to have occurred, the claimant shall permit representatives of the regulatory agency and the licensee to observe within reasonable hours the land or nontarget organism alleged to have been damaged, in order that the damage may be assessed.

Storage and Disposal of Pesticides

Sec. 29. (a) The commissioner may promulgate regulations governing the storing and disposal of pesticides and pesticide containers for the purpose of preventing injury from storage or disposal to man, vegetation, crops, or animals, and preventing pollution of any waterway in a way harmful to man or wildlife.

(b) No person may store or dispose of any pesticide in violation of regulations promulgated by the commissioner as provided in this section.

Inspection by Regulatory Agency

Sec. 30. (a) The head of a regulatory agency or his authorized representatives may enter any public or private premises at reasonable times:

- (1) to inspect any equipment authorized or required to be inspected under this Act, and to inspect the premises on which the equipment is kept or stored;
- (2) to inspect or sample land exposed or reported to be exposed to pesticides;
- (3) to inspect areas where pesticides are disposed of or stored; or
- (4) to observe the use and application of restricted-use or state-limited-use pesticides.

(b) If the head of a regulatory agency or his authorized representatives are denied access to any land where access was sought at a reasonable time for any of the purposes described in Subsection (a) of this section, the head of the regulatory agency may apply to a magistrate for a warrant authorizing access to the land for any of the above described purposes. On a showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of any regulation relating to a purpose of inspection described in Subsection (a) of this section has occurred, the magistrate shall issue the search warrant for the purposes requested.

(c) A regulatory agency may bring suit to enjoin violations or threatened violations of provisions of this Act within its responsibility and may request the appropriate prosecuting attorney to prosecute violations of the penal provisions of this Act.

Cooperative Agreements

Sec. 31. Each regulatory agency may receive grants-in-aid from any federal agency and may enter into cooperative agreements with a federal agency, an agency of this state or a subdivision of this state, or an agency of another state for the purpose of obtaining assistance in the implementation of this Act.

Penalty

Sec. 32. A person who violates any provision of this Act is guilty of a Class C misdemeanor. Each violation is a separate offense.

Persons Regulated by the Texas Structural Pest Control Act

Sec. 33. Sections 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 30, and 31 of this Act do not apply to persons regulated by the Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Repealer

Sec. 34. The Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of Texas, as amended (Article 135b-5, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is repealed.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Definitions

Sec. 2. (a) For purposes of this Act a person shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of structural pest control if he engages in, offers to engage in, advertises for, solicits, or performs any of the following services for compensation:

(1) identifying infestations or making inspections for the purpose of identifying or attempting to identify infestations of:

(A) arthropods (insects, spiders, mites, ticks, and related pests), wood-infesting organisms, rodents, weeds, nuisance birds, and any other obnoxious or undesirable animals which may infest households, railroad cars, ships, docks, trucks, airplanes, or other structures, or the contents thereof, or

(B) pests or diseases of trees, shrubs, or other plantings in a park or adjacent to a residence, business establishment, industrial plant, institutional building, or street;

(2) making inspection reports, recommendations, estimates, or bids, whether oral or written, with respect to such infestations; or

(3) making contracts, or submitting bids for, or performing services designed to prevent, control, or eliminate such infestations by the use of insecticides, pesticides, rodenticides, fumigants, or allied chemicals or substances or mechanical devices.

(b) As used in this Act:

(1) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or other organization, or any combination thereof, or any type of business entity.

(2) "Restricted-use pesticide" means a pesticide classified for restricted or limited use by the administrator of the federal Environmental Protection Agency.

(3) "State-limited-use pesticide" means a pesticide classified for restricted or limited use by the state commissioner of agriculture.

(4) "Certified applicator" means an individual who has been licensed and determined by the board to be competent to use or supervise the use of any restricted-use and state-limited-use pesticide covered by his currently valid certified applicator license.

(5) "Direct supervision" means that, in the application of a pesticide, the application is made by an individual acting under the instructions and control of a certified applicator responsible for the actions of that individual and available if and when needed for consultation or assistance although the certified applicator need not be physically present at the time and place of the pesticide application.

(6) "Branch office" means any place of business other than the primary office that has at least one (1) employee during normal business hours who is capable of answering customers' normal questions, scheduling normal inspections or work, or performing structural pest control functions; provided, however, that a facility serving solely as a telephone answering service shall not be a branch office.

(7) "Structural Pest Control Business License" means that license issued to a person entitling that person and his employees to engage in the business of structural pest control under the direct supervision of a certified applicator.

(8) "Device" means an instrument or contrivance, except a firearm, that is designed for trapping, destroying, repelling, or mitigating the effects of a pest or another form of plant or animal life, other than human beings or bacteria, viruses, or other microorganisms that live on or in human beings or animals. The term does not include any equipment used for the application of pesticides if the equipment is sold separately from a device as defined in this subdivision.

(9) "Endorsement of license" means an individual who establishes residence in Texas and who has been determined by the board to meet the qualifications of a certified applicator by taking the appropriate examination in a state other than Texas.

Board; Members; Chairman; Bylaws; Expenses; Executive Director; Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 3. (a) The Texas Structural Pest Control Board is created. The board is composed of nine members, six of whom shall be appointed. Four of the appointed members must be persons who have been engaged in the business of structural pest control for at least five years. No two members shall be representatives of the same business entity. Two members must be representatives of the general public who are not licensed under this Act. These appointments to the board shall be made by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate for staggered terms of two years. Appointments to the board shall be made without regard to the race, creed, sex, religion, or national origin of the appointees. The failure of an appointed member of the board to attend at least one-half of the regularly scheduled meetings held by the board each year automatically removes the member from the board and creates a vacancy on the board. In addition to the appointed members, the board shall also consist of the Commissioner of Agriculture, the Commissioner of Health, and the chairman of the Department of Entomology at Texas A & M University, or their designated representatives.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3(b) and (c)]

(d) The board shall appoint an executive director who shall administer the provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations promulgated by the board. The executive director shall receive a salary as determined by the board which shall be paid from funds available to the board. A person who is required to register as a lobbyist under Chapter 422, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may not act as the general counsel to the board or serve as a member of the board.

(e) The Texas Structural Pest Control Board is subject to the Texas Sunset Act (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes); and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the board is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

(f) A member of the board or an employee of the board who carries out the functions of the board may not:

(1) be an executive officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the structural pest control industry;

(2) be related within the second degree by affinity or within the third degree by consanguinity to a person who is an officer, employee, or paid consultant of a trade association in the structural pest control industry; or

(3) communicate directly or indirectly with a party or the party's representative to a proceeding pending before the board unless notice and an opportunity to participate are given to all parties to the proceeding, if the member or employee is assigned to make a decision, a finding of fact, or a conclusion of law in the proceeding.

(g) A member of the board, except those members who are duly licensed structural pest control operators, may not have personally, nor be related to persons within the second degree by affinity or third degree by consanguinity who have, except as consumers, financial interests in structural pest control businesses as officers, directors, partners, owners, employees, attorneys, or paid consultants of the structural pest control business or otherwise.

(h) The board is subject to the open meetings law, Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Licensing Standards; Rules and Regulations; Coordination of Activities; Examinations; Complaints; Contracts of Licensee; Public Information Program

Sec. 4. (a) The board shall develop standards and criteria for licensing individuals engaged in the business of structural pest control. The board may require individuals to pass an examination demonstrating their competence in the field in order to qualify for a Certified Applicator's License. Not later than the 30th day after the day on which a person completes an examination administered by the board, the board shall send to the person his examination results. If requested in writing by a person who fails the examination, the board shall send to the person not later than the 30th day after the day on which the request is received by the board an analysis of the person's performance on the examination.

(b) The board shall develop standards and criteria for issuing Structural Pest Control Business Licenses to persons engaged in the business of structural pest control. Persons engaged in the business of structural pest control must possess a Structural Pest Control Business License for each place of said business, including each branch office. Each structural pest control business licensee shall have in his employment at all times a certified applicator.

(c) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations governing the methods and practices of structural pest control when it determines that the public's health and welfare necessitates such regulations in order to prevent adverse effects on human life and the environment. The rules and regulations relating to the use of economic poisons shall comply with applicable standards of the federal government and the state commissioner of agriculture governing the use of such substances.

(d) The board may waive all or part of any examination requirement on a reciprocal basis with any other state or federal agency which has substantially the same standards as those prescribed by the board.

(e) The board shall coordinate its computer, administrative, and licensing functions with the Department of Agriculture if the board determines that the coordination would result in the more practical and efficient performance of those functions.

(f) The board may not promulgate rules restricting advertising or competitive bidding by licensees except to prohibit false, deceptive, or misleading practices by the licensee.

(g) If a written complaint is filed with the board relating to a licensee under this Act, the board, at least as frequently as quarterly, shall notify the complainant of the status of the complaint until the complaint is finally resolved or until litigation has been initiated. All records of complaints shall be filed in the offices of the board.

(h) The board must within 31 days from the date of filing of the complaint determine whether a hearing shall be held on such complaint or whether such complaint shall be dismissed and shall notify both the person who filed the complaint and the person against whom the complaint has been filed of the board's decision.

(i) If the appropriate standing committees of both houses of the legislature acting under Subsection (g), Section 5, Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), transmit to the board statements opposing adoption of a rule under that section, the rule may not take effect, or if the rule has already taken effect, the rule is repealed effective on the date the board receives the committees' statements.

(j) In each written contract in which a licensee under this Act agrees to perform structural pest control services in this state, the licensee shall include the mailing address and telephone number of the board and a statement that the board has jurisdiction over individuals licensed under this Act.

(k) The board shall establish a public information program for the purpose of informing the public about the practice and regulation of structural pest control in this state. As part of the program, the board shall prescribe and distribute in a manner that it considers appropriate a standard complaint form and shall make available to the general public and other appropriate state agencies the information compiled as part of the program. The program shall inform prospective applicants for licensing under this Act about the qualifications and requirements for licensing.

Prohibited Acts; Work on Own or Employer's Premises

Sec. 5. (a) No person, except an individual under the direct supervision of a certified applicator, may engage in the business of structural pest control after the effective date of this Act unless he meets the standards set by the board and possesses a valid Structural Pest Control Business License issued by the board.

(b) A person without a license may, on his own premises or on the premises of an employer by whom he was hired primarily to perform other services, use insecticides, pesticides, rodenticides, fumigants, or allied chemicals or substances or mechanical devices designed to prevent, control, or eliminate pest infestations unless that use is prohibited by rule of the United States Environmental Protection Agency or unless the substance used is labeled as a restricted-use pesticide or a state-limited-use pesticide.

Application Forms; List of Study Materials and Seminars; Expiration and Renewal of Licenses; Nontransferability; Arrest and Conviction Records

Sec. 6. (a) All applications for licenses shall be made on forms prescribed and provided by the board, and each applicant shall furnish such information as the board may require for its determination of the applicant's qualifications. The board shall make public a list of study materials and educational seminars that are available to help applicants successfully complete any examination administered under this Act.

(b) All licenses issued by the board before 1981 shall expire on March 1 of each calendar year. Licenses issued by the board during or after 1981 expire on December 31 of each year or on various dates of the year as the board may determine as part of a staggered license renewal system. The board may issue a license for a period of less than one year if necessary to conform the license to a renewal system authorized by this subsection. If the board issues a license for a period of less than one year, the board shall prorate the fee for the license on a monthly basis. A person may renew a license by submitting an application to the board and paying the required renewal fees.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 6(c)]

(d) The Department of Public Safety shall, upon request, supply the board arrest and conviction records of individuals applying for or holding Structural Pest Control Business Licenses or Certified Applicator's Licenses.

Sec. 6A. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1374, ch. 614, § 10, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.

Fees, New Developments; Proof of Study

Sec. 7. (a) An applicant for an initial or renewal Structural Pest Control Endorsement of License,

Business License, or a Certified Applicator's License shall accompany his application with a fee of not more than $75 each, as determined by the board, and a fee of not more than $20, as determined by the board, for each employee of the applicant who is engaged in structural pest control services.

(b) A licensee whose license has been lost or destroyed or whose name has been changed shall be issued a replacement license after application therefor and the payment of a fee set by the board not to exceed $20.

(c) The board may retroactively grant a Structural Pest Control Business License or a Certified Applicator's License to the applicant for a renewal license if such applicant pays a late renewal fee of $25 and if his application is filed with the board not more than 30 days after the expiration of his license. If such application is received between 30 and 60 days after the expiration of the applicant's license, the board may retroactively grant the renewal license when said application is accompanied by a renewal fee of $50. An applicant who applies for a renewal license more than 60 days after the expiration of his license must be reexamined by the board to obtain a license.

(d) Each time an applicant takes a test for a license, he shall pay the board a testing fee of not more than $25, as determined by the board, for each test taken.

(e) If the board determines that new developments in pest control have occurred that are so significant that their proper knowledge is necessary to protect the public, the board may require proof of study either by attendance of approved training courses or by taking additional examinations on the new developments only.

Security Insurance

Sec. 7A. (a) The board may not issue or renew a Structural Pest Control Business License until the license applicant:

(1) files with the board a policy or contract of insurance, approved as sufficient by the board, in an amount of not less than $25,000 in bodily injury coverage and $5,000 in property damage coverage insuring him against liability for damages to persons or property occurring as a result of operations performed in the course of the business of structural pest control to premises or any other property under his care, custody, or control; or

(2) files with the board a certificate or other evidence from an insurance company, in the case of an applicant who has an unexpired and uncanceled insurance policy or contract on file with the board, stating that the policy or contract insures the applicant against liability for acts and damage as described in Subdivision (1) of this subsection and that the amount of insurance coverage is not less than $25,000 in bodily injury coverage and $5,000 in property damage coverage.

(b) The policy or contract shall be maintained at all times in an amount not less than $25,000 in bodily injury coverage and $5,000 in property damage coverage. Failure to renew the policy or contract or maintain it in the required amount is a ground for suspension or revocation of a Structural Pest Control Business License.

(c) The board by rule may require different amounts of insurance coverage for different classifications of operations under this Act.

Records by Licensee

Sec. 7B. The board may require each licensee to make records, as prescribed by the board, of his use of pesticides. Records required shall be maintained for at least two years on business premises of the licensee and shall be made available for inspection by the board and by its authorized agents during normal business hours.

Disposition of Fees; Report; Audit

Sec. 8. (a) The proceeds from the collection of the fees provided in this Act shall be deposited in a special fund in the State Treasury to be known as the Structural Pest Control Fund, and shall be used for the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this Act. Any balance in the special fund at the end of each State fiscal biennium in excess of appropriations out of that fund for the succeeding biennium shall be transferred to the general revenue fund.

(b) Before September 1 of each year, the board shall file a written report with the legislature and the governor in which the board accounts for all funds received and disbursed by the board during the preceding year.

(c) The state auditor shall audit the financial transactions of the board during each fiscal year.

License Suspension, Revocation and Refusal; Appeal

Sec. 9.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 9(a)]

(b) An applicant or licensee may appeal from an order or other action of the board by an action in the district court of Travis County. Notice of appeal must be filed within 30 days of issuance of the order by the board. The hearing in district court shall be governed by the substantial evidence rule.

Civil Penalties and Injunctive Relief

Sec. 10. (a) A person who violates any provision of this chapter or any rule, regulation, permit, or other order of the board is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation to be recovered as provided in this chapter. Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is threatening to violate any provision of this chapter, or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, then the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, may have a civil suit instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat of violation, or for the assessment and recovery of a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each act of violation and for each day of violation, or for both injunctive relief and civil penalty.

(b) Upon application for injunctive relief and a finding that a person is violating or threatening to violate any provision of this chapter or any rule, regulation, license, or other order of the board, the district court shall grant the injunctive relief the facts may warrant.

(c) At the request of the board, or the executive director when authorized by the board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the State of Texas for injunctive relief or to recover the civil penalty or for both injunctive relief and penalty, as authorized in Subsection (a) of this section.

Criminal Offenses

Sec. 10A. (a) A person commits an offense if he:

- (1) violates any section of this Act;
- (2) violates regulations adopted under Section 4 of this Act; or
- (3) intentionally makes a false statement in an application for a license or otherwise fraudulently obtains or attempts to obtain a license.

(b) Each day of violation is a separate offense.

(c) An offense under this section is a Class C misdemeanor unless the person has been convicted previously of an offense under this section, in which event the offense is a Class B misdemeanor.

Exceptions

Sec. 11. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to nor shall the following persons be deemed to be engaging in the business of structural pest control:

- (1) an officer or employee of a governmental or educational agency who performs pest control services as part of his duties of employment;
- (2) a person who performs pest control work upon property which he owns, leases, or rents as his dwelling;
- (3) a nurseryman, holding a certificate from the commissioner of agriculture pursuant to Articles 126 and 126a, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, when doing pest control work on growing plants, trees, shrubs, grass, or other horticultural plants; and

(4) a person or his employee who is engaged in the business of agriculture or aerial application or custom application of pesticides to agricultural lands.

Board as Sole Licensing Authority

Sec. 11A. The Texas Structural Pest Control Board is the sole authority in this state for licensing persons engaged in the business of structural pest control.

Continuation Under Federal Law

Sec. 11B. The Texas Structural Pest Control Act, as amended (Article 135b-6, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is to be continued in effect as improved and required under the United States Environmental Protection Agency Public Law # 92-516 (Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act of October 21, 1972, and subsequently amended).¹

CHAPTER SEVEN B. NOXIOUS WEEDS

Art. 135c. Districts for Control and Eradication of Noxious Weeds

Sec. 1. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 792, ch. 353, § 2, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.

Legislative Findings; Districts Authorized

Sec. 2. The Legislature hereby finds that noxious weeds are present in the state to such a degree as to constitute a menace to agriculture and to be deleterious to the proper utilization of the soil and other natural resources of the area; and reclamation of these lands from the damaging effects of noxious weeds is hereby recognized as a public right and duty in the interest of the conservation and development of the natural resources of the State, pursuant to Section 59 of Article XVI of the Constitution of Texas. Districts for the control and eradication of noxious weeds may be formed out of territory situated in one or more counties in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 3 to 10]

Ballots

Sec. 11. The ballots for such election shall have printed thereon the following propositions: "For creation of the district and uniform assessment of benefits not to exceed Six Cents (6¢) per acre" and "Against creation of the district."

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 12 and 13]

Maximum Uniform Assessment Rate; Election; District Embracing More than One County

Sec. 13a. (a) The Commissioners Court of jurisdiction in an existing Noxious Weed Control District may order an election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified property taxpaying voters residing in the district whether or not the maximum uniform assessment rate shall be increased to Six Cents (6¢) per acre. Notice of the election shall be given in accordance with Section 10 of this Act, and the election shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 12 of this Act.

(b) The ballots for the election shall be printed to read as follows: "For increasing the maximum uniform assessment rate to Six Cents (6¢)" and "Against increasing the maximum uniform assessment rate."

(c) Immediately after the election, the election officers shall make returns of the result to the Commissioners Court of jurisdiction, which shall canvass the vote and declare the results of the election. If the district embraces more than one county, the Commissioners shall declare the maximum uniform assessment rate increased to Six Cents (6¢) only in the territory included in each county in which the majority of the votes cast were in favor of the increase.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 14 to 18]

Levy of Uniform Assessments; Assessor-Collector; Bond; Report of Chairman of Board

Sec. 19. The Board of Directors may levy an annual uniform assessment against the land within the district, not to exceed Six Cents (6¢) per acre, for the purpose of paying the expenses of the district. The Board may appoint an assessor-collector to assess and collect the assessments and may allow him as compensation an amount not to exceed five per cent (5%) of all money collected by him. He may be required to give bond in an amount to be fixed by the Board. If the Board of Directors prefers, it may contract with the county tax assessor-collector to perform these services, and the county tax assessor-collector shall be entitled to retain five per cent (5%) of all money collected by him, which shall be accounted for as other fees of office; or the Board may appoint an assessor and contract with the county assessor-collector for collection of the tax, in which event the district assessor's compensation shall be fixed at an amount not to exceed two and one-half per cent (2½%) of the total assessments and the county assessor-collector may retain two and one-half per cent (2½%) of the amounts which he collects. The moneys collected shall be deposited in the district depository selected by the Board.

The chairman of the Board of Directors shall file an annual report with the county clerk of each county in which the district lies, before September 1 of each year, showing the total amount received and an itemized statement of the amounts expended during the preceding twelve (12) months ending June 30, together with the balance remaining on hand.

Annual Report as to Money Received Through Assessment; Disbursement

*Text of § 19a added by Acts 1977, 65th Leg.,
p. 1375, ch. 547, § 4.*

Sec. 19a. (a) Before September 1 of each year, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall file a report with the Commissioner of Agriculture, specifying the total amount of money received through the assessment during the preceding 12-month period ending June 30. The Commissioner of Agriculture shall certify that amount to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

(b) The Comptroller shall issue a warrant payable to each district in the amount certified by the Commissioner of Agriculture from funds appropriated by the Legislature for the control of noxious weeds. In the event that the funds appropriated are less than the total of all amounts certified by the Commissioner of Agriculture, each district is entitled to receive a share of the funds appropriated in proportion to the amount certified for that district.

Sec. 2. (a) If a county sheriff or an officer who has responsibility for animal control in an incorporated city or town has reason to believe that an animal has been or is being cruelly treated, he may apply to a justice court in the county where the animal is located for a warrant to seize the animal. On a showing of probable cause to believe that the animal has been or is being cruelly treated, the court shall issue the warrant and set a time within 10 days for a hearing in the court to determine whether the animal has been cruelly treated. The officer executing the warrant shall cause the animal to be impounded and shall give written notice to the owner of the animal of the time and place of the justice court hearing.

(b) If the owner of the animal is found guilty in county court of a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code, involving the animal, this finding is prima facie evidence at the hearing that the animal has been cruelly treated. Statements of an owner made at a hearing provided for in this Act are not admissible in a trial of the owner for a violation of Section 42.11, Penal Code. After all interested parties have been given an opportunity to present evidence at the hearing, if the court finds that the owner of an animal has cruelly treated the animal, the court shall order a public sale of the animal by auction. If the court does not find that the owner of the animal has cruelly treated the animal, the court shall order the animal returned to the owner.

Sec. 3. (a) Notice of an auction ordered as provided in this Act must be posted on a public bulletin board where other public notices are posted for the city, town, or county. At the auction, a bid by the former owner of the animal or his representative may not be accepted.

(b) Proceeds from the sale of the animal shall be applied first to the expenses incurred in caring for the animal during impoundment and in conducting the auction. The officer conducting the auction shall pay any excess proceeds to the justice court ordering the auction. The court shall cause the excess proceeds to be returned to the former owner of the animal.

(c) If the officer is unable to sell the animal at auction, he may cause the animal to be destroyed or may give the animal to a nonprofit animal shelter, pound, or society for the protection of animals.

Sec. 4. An owner of an animal ordered sold at public auction as provided in this Act may appeal the ruling by giving notice of appeal in justice court within 10 days of the hearing. Appeal is by means of a hearing in county court in the county where the animal was impounded. At the hearing in county court, the court may assess costs of the hearing. During the pendency of an appeal under this section the animal shall not be sold, destroyed, or given away as provided in Sections 2 and 3 of this Act. Assignment of Retired Regular, and Former Judges; Duty to Accept Assignment; Compensation

Sec. 5a. Retired district judges, as defined by Article 6228(b) of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, as amended, who have consented to be subject to assignment, all regular district judges in this state, and all former district judges who were elected at a general election or appointed by the governor; who have not been defeated for reelection; who have not been removed from office by impeachment, the Supreme Court, the governor upon address of the legislature, the State Judicial Qualifications Commission, or by the legislature's abolishment of the judge's court; who are not more than 70 years of age; and who certify to the presiding judge a willingness to serve and to comply with the same prohibitions relating to the practice of law that are imposed on a retired judge by Section 7, Article 6228(b) of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended or hereafter amended, may be assigned under the provisions of this Act by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district wherein such assigned judge resides, and while so assigned, shall have all the powers of a judge thereof. When such district judge is so assigned by the presiding judge of an administrative judicial district to a court in the same administrative district, or to a court in another administrative district upon call of the presiding judge of such other administrative district and then reassigned as provided for in Section 6 of this Act, as amended, it shall be the duty of such judge so assigned or reassigned to serve in such court or administrative district to which he may be assigned, or reassigned unless for good cause presented by him in writing to the presiding judge of his administrative district, he shall be relieved of such assignment by such presiding judge; provided, however, after the presentation of a written statement declining such duty for good cause by such district judge, if the presiding judge refuses to relieve the district judge from the assignment, the district judge may, within five days after such refusal, petition the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Texas to be relieved from such assignment for good cause, which said Chief Justice may at his discretion grant or refuse.

The compensation, salaries and expenses of such judges while so assigned or reassigned shall be paid in accordance with the laws of the state, except that the salary of such retired judges shall be paid out of moneys appropriated from the General Revenue Fund for such purpose in an amount representing the difference between all of the retirement benefits of such judge as a retired district judge and the salary and compensation from all sources of the judge of the court wherein he is assigned, and determined pro-rata for the period of time he actually sits as such assigned judge. On certification of the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district that a former district judge has rendered services under the provisions of this Act, the former district judge shall be paid, out of county funds and out of money appropriated by the legislature for such purpose, for services actually performed, the same amount of compensation, salary, and expenses that the regular judge is entitled to receive from the county and from the state for such service.

Assignment of Retired District Judges to Domestic Relations or Juvenile Courts

Sec. 5b. A retired district judge, as defined by Chapter 99, Acts of the 51st Legislature, Regular Session, 1949, as amended (Article 6228b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be assigned by the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district wherein the assigned judge resides to a domestic relations or juvenile court within the geographic limits of the respective administrative judicial district. A presiding judge may, with the consent of a retired district judge within his district, make an assignment outside of his judicial district with the specific authorization of the presiding judge of the district in which that assignment is made. The assignment shall be governed by all other provisions of this Act, except that the county wherein the domestic relations or juvenile court is located shall pay the salary stipulated in Section 5a of this Act.

Certification of State's Share of Compensation of Former Judges for Certain Services

Sec. 5c. It shall be the duty of the presiding judge of the administrative judicial district to certify the state's share to be paid former district judges for services authorized prior to, on, or after the effective date of this Act pursuant to Sections 5a and 5b of this article. The amount so certified shall be paid from an item in the Judiciary Section—Comptroller's Department—of the appropriations act providing for payment of salaries of district judges and criminal district judges.

Extended or Special Terms; Election Contests

Sec. 6. It shall be the duty of any district judge of any district within the Administrative District to diligently discharge the administrative responsibilities of office, to rule on a case within three months after that case has been taken under advisement, to extend the regular terms of his court, and to call special terms, when necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act and dispose of pending litigation. It shall also be the duty of a district judge in whose court an election contest or suit brought for the removal of a local official is filed to request the Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District to assign a judge of the Administrative District who is not a resident of the county to hold a special or regular term of court in that county in order to dispose of such suits. A district judge shall request the Presiding Judge to assign a judge of the Administrative District to hear any motions to recuse such district judge from a case pending in his court. If the term be extended as herein provided no other term of the court in such district shall fail because of said extension, but such other terms may be opened and held as usual. The Presiding Judge of one Administrative District may call upon the Presiding Judge of another Administrative District to furnish judges to aid in the disposition of litigation pending in any judicial district within the Administrative District in which such judge so making the request has been designated as the Presiding Judge. For the trial of cases and the entry of orders and the disposition of other business necessary, the judge of any district in this State, or any District Judge sent to any district in this State by the Presiding Judge of an Administrative District, shall have power, by entering an order on the minutes, to convene a special term of the court for the disposition of the business coming before the district court.

Administrative Assistant; Duties

Sec. 7. (a) The Presiding Judge may employ, directly or through a contract with another governmental entity, an administrative assistant, on a full- or part-time basis, to aid and assist the Presiding Judge in carrying out the judge's duties under this Act. The administrative assistant shall receive the compensation from the State provided by the General Appropriations Act.

(b) The administrative assistant must possess the qualifications established by rule of the Supreme Court.

(c) Each administrative assistant shall perform the duties that are required by the Presiding Judge and by rules of administration, and shall conduct the correspondence for the Presiding Judge of the Administrative District, keep a record of all its proceedings, and a complete and accurate record of all cases pending in the several courts of the Administrative District, the time of their filing, the style and purposes of the causes, and their final disposition, and such other matters as may be prescribed by the council of judges herein referred to. For such purposes he is authorized, with the approval of the Presiding Judge, to purchase the necessary office equipment, stamps, stationery and supplies, and to employ additional personnel as authorized by the council of judges. Such cost shall be divided pro rata among the counties and paid by the counties on the certificate of the Presiding Judge. The administrative assistant shall, under the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Administrative District, make an annual report on the activities of the district and such special reports as may be provided by the rules of administration to the Supreme Court of Texas in the manner directed by that court.

Sec. 9. All of the aforesaid salaries, compensation, and expenses, and all other expenses authorized and incurred herein for the purpose of administering this Law, other than those provided by state appropriations, shall be paid by the several counties composing the Administrative District out of the General Fund of said counties. Said salaries, compensations, expenses, and expenditures herein authorized are to be paid in proportion to the number of weeks provided by Law for holding District Court in the respective counties, on certificates of approval of the Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial District.

Each county comprising such Administrative Judicial District shall pay out of the officers salary fund or the general fund of the county the amount of salary apportioned to it as herein provided. The aforesaid salary, or compensation, and all other expenses incidental thereto, shall be paid annually by the said counties in such Administrative Judicial District to the Presiding Judge of such Administrative Judicial District, and by said judge placed in an Administrative Fund, from which fund said salary, and other expenses incidental thereto, shall be paid. Renewal may be effected by payment of the fee as prescribed and set by the board. Upon receipt of the required fee within the time and in the manner prescribed by the board, the designated officer or employee of the board shall issue to the licensed landscape architect a certificate of renewal of his registration certificate for the term of one year. Failure to renew a certificate of registration by the expiration date established by the board shall result in an increase of the renewal fee by $20. If failure to renew shall continue for more than 90 days after the date of expiration of the certificate of registration, the applicant must reapply for registration and must qualify under Section 5 of this Act. All renewal certificates shall carry the same registration number as the original certificate.

Expiration Dates of Certificates of Registration; Proration of Fee

Sec. 7A. The board by rule shall adopt a system under which certificates of registration expire on various dates during the year. The date for mailing notice of expiration and the period for renewal shall be adjusted if necessary. Upon receipt of such information the board, if it deems the information sufficient to support further action on its part, shall make an order setting the charges therein contained for hearing at a specified time and place, and the secretary of the board shall cause a copy of the board's order and of the information contained in the written charges to be served upon the accused at least 30 days before the date appointed in the order for the hearing. The accused may appear in person or by counsel or both, at the time and place named in the order and make his defense to the same. The board shall have the power, through its chairman or secretary, to administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses before it as in civil cases in the district court, by subpoena issued over the signature of the secretary and the seal of the board.

Any person who may feel himself aggrieved by reason of the revocation of his certificate of registration of the board, as hereinabove authorized, shall have the right to file suit within 30 days of receiving notice of the board's order revoking his certificate or registration in the district court in the county of his residence or the county in which the alleged events relied upon, and grounds for revocation, took place, to annul or vacate the order of the board revoking the certificates of registration; said suit to be filed against the board as defendant, and service of process may be had upon its chairman or secretary. The only issues to be tried in such cause shall be whether such person has been guilty as originally found by the board, which issue shall be by trial de novo, as that term is commonly used in connection with an appeal from the justice of the peace court to the county court, and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply.

Restrictions on Advertising and Competitive Bidding

Sec. 8A. The board may not adopt rules restricting advertising or competitive bidding by licensees except to prohibit false, misleading, or deceptive practices by licensees.

As part of the program, the board shall prescribe and distribute in a manner that it considers appropriate a standard complaint form and shall make available to the general public and other appropriate state agencies the information compiled as part of the program. The program shall include information to inform prospective applicants for licensing under this Act about the qualifications and requirements for licensing.

Each day of such violation shall be a separate offense.

The attorney general or his assistants shall act as legal advisor of the board and shall render such legal assistance as may be necessary in enforcing and making effective the provisions of this Act, provided that this shall not relieve the local prosecuting officers of any of their duties under the law as such.

(a) Such Board, acting under instructions of the Supreme Court as hereinafter provided, shall pass upon the eligibility of all candidates for examination for license to practice law within this State, and examine such of these as may show themselves eligible therefor, as to their qualifications to practice law. Such Board shall not recommend any person for license to practice law unless such person shall show to the Board, in the manner to be prescribed by the Supreme Court, that he is of such moral character and of such capacity and attainment that it would be proper for him to be licensed.

(b) If requested in writing by any applicant for a license who takes and fails an examination administered by the Board, the Board shall furnish to the applicant an oral or written analysis of the applicant's performance on the examination. An oral analysis may be recorded by the applicant.

(a) The Board may conduct an investigation of the moral character and fitness of an applicant for a license.

(b) The Board may contract with public or private entities for investigative services relating to the moral character and fitness of applicants for licenses.

(c) The Board may not recommend the denial of a license and the Supreme Court may not deny a license to an applicant on the ground of a deficiency in the applicant's moral character or fitness unless:

(1) the Board finds a clear and rational connection between a character trait of the applicant and the likelihood that the applicant would injure a client or obstruct the administration of justice if the applicant is licensed to practice law; or

(2) the Board finds a clear and rational connection between the applicant's present mental or emotional condition and the likelihood that the applicant will not discharge properly the applicant's responsibilities to a client, a court, or the legal profession if the applicant is licensed to practice law.

(d) Each person intending to apply for admission to the bar of this state shall file with the secretary of the Board a Declaration of Intention to Study Law. The declaration shall be filed on a form provided by the Board. Forms provided by the Board for the filing of a Declaration of Intention to Study Law shall clearly identify those conditions of character and fitness provided in Subsection (e) of this article that may be investigated by the Board and that may result in the denial of the declarant's application to sit for the bar examination. Within 180 days after the filing of the declaration the Board shall notify the declarant whether or not it has determined he has acceptable character and fitness. If the Board determines he does not have acceptable character and fitness, the notice shall be accompanied by an analysis of the character investigation which specifies the results of that investigation in detail. (3) the applicant has not been charged with fraud in any legal proceeding; and

(4) the applicant has not been involved in civil litigation or bankruptcy proceedings that reasonably bear on the applicant's fitness to practice law.

(f) Based on the investigation of the preceding conditions of character and fitness performed after the filing of a Declaration of Intention to Study Law, the filing of an affidavit attesting to the preceding statements on application to take the bar exam, and its investigation into the accuracy of the statements in, or truth of statements omitted from the affidavit required by Subsection (e) of this section, the Board shall assess the applicant's fitness and moral character. If the Board determines the applicant does not possess the requisite good moral character and fitness, the Board shall furnish to the applicant an analysis of the character investigation that specifies the results of that investigation in detail within 150 days after the filing of the application.

(b) A district committee is composed of at least 15 members appointed by the Supreme Court.

(c) Three members of a district committee must be at the time of their appointments representatives of the general public who do not have, other than as consumers, financial interests in the practice of law, three members must be at the time of their appointments lawyers who are licensed to practice law in the state, and the remaining members must be similarly qualified representatives of the general public or lawyers. In a bar district in which a law school approved by the Supreme Court is located, three members of the committee must be at the time of their appointments law students who are enrolled in a law school in the bar district that is approved by the Supreme Court.

(d) Except for the initial appointees, members of a district committee hold office for two-year terms expiring on January 21 of each odd-numbered year. The initial appointees serve for terms expiring on January 31, 1983.

(e) The Supreme Court shall appoint the chairman of each district committee.

(f) Five members of a district committee constitute a quorum.

(g) The district committee shall aid the Board in investigating the moral character and fitness of a person filing a Declaration of Intent to Study Law.

(h) The Supreme Court shall adopt rules requiring that persons filing Declaration of Intent to Study Law be treated uniformly and impartially by the district committees.

Art. 306. Authority of Supreme Court

(a) The Supreme Court is hereby authorized to make such rules as in its judgment may be proper to govern eligibility for such examination and the manner of conducting the same, covering, among other points, proper guarantee to insure:

1. Good moral character on the part of each candidate for license;
2. Adequate pre-legal study and attainment;
3. Adequate study of the law for at least two years, covering the course of study prescribed by the Supreme Court, or the equivalent of such course;

6. Any other such matters consistent with this Act as shall be desirable in order to make the issuance of a license to practice law evidence of good character, and fair capacity and real attainment and proficiency in the knowledge of law.

The completion of prescribed study in an approved law school as herein defined shall satisfy the law study requirements for taking the aforesaid examination. An approved law school is hereby defined as one which is approved by the Supreme Court for the period of time designated by such Court, and as maintaining the additional standards prescribed by the Court. No license to practice law in this state shall be issued by any court or authority except by the Supreme Court of this state, under the provisions of this title. The power granted to the Supreme Court by this Act shall not be delegated.

(b) The Supreme Court shall adopt rules necessary to administer its functions and to govern the administration of the Board's functions relating to the licensing of lawyers.

practiced law for three years and has a license to practice law issued by another state or territory or by the District of Columbia, and the licensing standards of the other state or territory or the District of Columbia are equivalent to or exceed those of this state.

(b) If the licensing standards of the other state or territory or the District of Columbia are not equivalent to or do not exceed those of this state, the Board may require that the applicant take the examination for a license to practice law. All such immigrant attorneys shall be required to furnish satisfactory proof as to good moral character and fitness. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1253, ch. 594, § 1, eff. Sept. 1, 1979.]

Art. 310. Fees

(a) The fee for any examination given by the Board shall be fixed by the Supreme Court, not to exceed $75 for each candidate, which shall be paid to the clerk of said court at the time the application for examination is made. The money thus obtained shall be used to pay all legitimate expenses incurred in holding the examination; and as compensation to the members of the Board, under such regulations as shall be determined by the Supreme Court. (b) The fee for an investigation of the moral character and fitness of each candidate is set by the Supreme Court, not to exceed $75. The candidate must pay the investigation fee to the Board at the time it is requested by the Board. If the fees collected from individuals for the investigation of moral character and fitness are in excess of the cost to the Board of conducting the investigation, the fees shall be proportionately decreased to insure that excessive fees are not collected by the Board.

(c) Fees received by the clerk or the Board shall be deposited in a fund established by the Supreme Court and may be used only to administer the functions of the Supreme Court and the Board relating to the licensing of lawyers as directed by the Court.

(d) The financial transactions of the board shall be audited annually by the State Auditor.

For purposes of electing directors or for the fulfillment of any other duty imposed on the State Bar by this Act or the State Bar Rules, the board shall from time to time reapportion the state into bar districts as conditions require, taking into account the purposes of the State Bar as defined in Section 3 of this Act. The reapportionment shall be subject to the Supreme Court's approval.

If any director should, as determined by the board of directors, become incapacitated from performing his duties as director, or if any director should be absent from any two consecutive regular meetings of the board of directors or from a total of four meetings, without cause deemed adequate by the board of directors, he may be removed by the board of directors at any regular meeting by resolution declaring his position vacant.

No board member or employee of the board shall be an employee or paid consultant of a trade association in the field of board interest.

(b) The executive director of the State Bar shall be elected by a majority vote of the board of directors and shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. The executive director may be elected as many times as the board of directors may choose. The executive director shall be responsible for the execution of the policies and directives of the board with reference to all activities of the State Bar, except the activities that may be made the responsibility of the general counsel by this Act or by the board. The executive director shall perform all duties usually required of a corporate secretary, including other duties as may be assigned to him or her by the board of directors. The executive director shall also act as the treasurer of the State Bar and shall receive from the clerk of the Supreme Court funds of the State Bar as provided by this Act. In this regard, the executive director shall be audited annually as provided in Subsection (b) of Section 7 of this Act. The executive director shall maintain the membership files and supervise the administrative staff of the State Bar in preparing the annual budget. He or she shall be required to execute a corporate surety bond in such amount as the board may direct, conditioned on faithful performance of his or her duties, the premium for which shall be paid by the State Bar. The executive director shall have no vote on matters presented to the board of directors.

(c) The general counsel of the State Bar shall be elected by a majority vote of the board of directors and shall hold office during the pleasure of the board. The general counsel may be reelected as many times as the board may choose. He or she shall be a member of the State Bar.

The duties of the general counsel shall include all of those duties usually expected of and performed by a general counsel. It shall be the duty of the general counsel to standardize throughout all grievance districts the procedure, method, and practice for the processing of grievance complaints. It shall also be the duty of the general counsel to receive and maintain on behalf of the State Bar the files and records of the grievance committees that pertain to discipline. The general counsel shall expedite and coordinate the State Bar's grievance duties which are made mandatory by this Act. The general counsel on request of any grievance committee may investigate and prosecute grievance actions as provided in Section 12 of this Act. The general counsel on request of any unauthorized practice of law committee or by a grievance committee may investigate and prosecute suits to enjoin members, nonlicensees, and nonmembers of the State Bar from the practice of law. The general counsel's duties shall also include those matters delegated from time to time by the board of directors of the State Bar.

The general counsel may not be a lobbyist registered with the secretary of state.

(d) The executive director and the general counsel of the State Bar shall be subject to the Texas conflict of interest law, Chapter 421, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(e) The executive director of the State Bar shall confer with the clerk of the Supreme Court as to the maintenance of correct membership files and in preparing the annual budget for review as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 7 of this Act. All membership fees shall be collected by the clerk of the Supreme Court and held by him or her until distributed to the State Bar for expenditure under the direction of the Supreme Court for the purpose of administering this Act.

The clerk of the Supreme Court, with the permission of the court, may employ a deputy to assist in discharging the duties imposed on him or her by this Act and any rules promulgated to administer this Act. The salary of the deputy shall be fixed by the board of directors and paid from the funds of the State Bar.

(f) All records of the State Bar, except for records pertaining to grievances and records pertaining to the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, shall be subject to the Texas open records law, Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Membership; Fees

Sec. 10. (a) All persons who are enrolled as members of the State Bar on the effective date of this Act and any person who after the effective date of this Act shall be licensed to practice law in this state, shall constitute and be members of the State Bar, and shall be subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules adopted by the Supreme Court of Texas. All persons not members of the State Bar are prohibited from practicing law in this state except that the Supreme Court may promulgate rules and regulations prescribing the procedure for limited practice of law by attorneys licensed in another jurisdiction, bona fide law students, or nonlicensed graduate students who are attending or have attended a law school approved by the Supreme Court.

(b) Every person who after the effective date of this Act becomes licensed to practice law in this state shall enroll in the State Bar by registering his or her name with the clerk of the Supreme Court within 10 days of his or her admission to practice. Membership of the State Bar shall consist of four classes: active, inactive, emeritus, and associate.

Every licensed member of the State Bar is an active member until he or she requests to be enrolled as an inactive member.

The class of "inactive members" shall include those persons who are eligible for active membership but are not engaged in the practice of law in this state and have filed with the executive director and the clerk of the Supreme Court written notice requesting enrollment in the class of inactive members.

Inactive members are not entitled to hold office or vote in any election conducted by the State Bar or practice law. Those who are enrolled as inactive members at their request may on application and payment of fees required become active members.

The class of "emeritus members" shall include those persons who are either active or inactive members in good standing but who are at least 70 years of age and have filed a written notice requesting enrollment in the class of emeritus members. An emeritus member shall enjoy all the privileges of membership in the State Bar and shall not be required to pay membership dues for the years following the year in which he or she attains the age of 70.

The class of "associate members" may include those persons who are enrolled in law school in this state. Enrollment as an associate member shall be voluntary on the part of the enrollee. Associate members are not entitled to hold office or vote in any election conducted by the State Bar or practice law, except as provided by rule promulgated by the Supreme Court. Dues for associate members shall be set by the board of directors.

(c) The Supreme Court is empowered and it shall be its duty to prescribe fees for members of the State Bar to be paid to the clerk of the court until distributed to the executive director as provided in Subsection (e) of Section 9 of this Act and expended by the board of directors under the direction of the Supreme Court for the purposes of administering this Act. Fees, except those fixed by the board for associate members, shall be prescribed in accordance with Subsections (a) and (b) of Section 8 rulemaking provisions of this Act. The fees shall be used exclusively for administering the public purposes provided by this Act.

Exclusive Jurisdiction of Supreme Court

Sec. 11. Rules and regulations governing the admission to the practice of law shall be within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. The officers and directors of the State Bar of Texas have no authority to approve or disapprove of any rule or regulation which governs admissions to the practice of law nor to regulate or administer said admissions standards.

Discipline

Sec. 12. (a) Any attorney admitted to practice in this state and any attorney specially admitted by a court of this state for a particular proceeding is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Texas and its administrative agent, the State Bar of Texas.

(b) In furtherance of the court's powers to supervise the conduct of attorneys at law, the following grievance procedures are established. The Supreme Court shall, in accordance with Section 8 of this Act, prepare, propose, and adopt rules and regulations for disciplining, suspending, disbaring, and accepting resignations of attorneys as it considers necessary in addition to the minimum standards and procedures provided in this Act.

(c) Disciplinary jurisdiction shall be divided into grievance districts. Each bar district shall have one or more grievance committee districts. The board of directors, with the advice of the director of each bar district, shall determine whether the State Bar's grievance duties can be performed effectively by one committee for the entire bar district or whether the same should be divided into more than one grievance committee district. When a bar district contains more than one grievance committee, all the grievance committees within the district shall have concurrent jurisdiction of any complaint docketed by any of the committees within the district. The committee which originally docketed a complaint may, with the consent of another committee within the district, transfer a complaint to the other committee. The district director, in order to equalize the dockets, or for other good cause, may transfer complaints from one committee to another within the district.

(d) Each grievance committee shall consist of as many members as are deemed necessary by the board of directors for the expeditious transaction of its business.

(e) The president shall on recommendation of the director or directors for the district appoint the members of the grievance committee. Each member of the committee shall be a resident of the grievance committee district for which he or she is appointed. One-third of the total membership of each grievance committee shall be representative of the general public who are not licensed attorneys and who do not have, other than as consumers, a financial interest in the practice of law.

Annually the committee shall select its own chairperson.

Powers of Grievance Committees

Sec. 13. (a) The grievance committee shall exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred on it by this Act as well as any other powers and duties imposed by rules or regulations promulgated as provided herein by the Supreme Court.

The grievance committee shall consider and investigate any alleged ground for discipline or alleged incapacity of any attorney called to its attention or on its own motion and take action with respect thereto as shall be appropriate under the disciplinary rules in effect from time to time in this state.

(b) The committee shall maintain records of all matters processed and the disposition thereof. Committee records are confidential and are not subject to the open records law, Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973, as amended (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The final action of a committee resulting in a vote to publicly reprimand, suspend, or seek disbarment shall be made public; provided, however, that proceedings which result in a private reprimand shall remain confidential. Nothing shall prohibit the committee, with the consent of the accused attorney, from disclosing final action which clears the attorney of misconduct or which finds no jurisdiction or lack of probable cause to proceed. All records shall be forwarded to the general counsel and he shall maintain a permanent record of such actions, which will be public records for statistical purposes but which are subject to the provisions above concerning privacy.

(c) A "complaint" is defined as an allegation of attorney misconduct or attorney mental incompetency which, if established in fact, could subject the attorney to disciplinary action. Inquiries which do not allege an offense cognizable under the Code of Professional Responsibility or under this Act or which do not show probable cause of professional misconduct shall not be classified as complaints and are not within the disciplinary jurisdiction of the grievance committee.

(d) Every inquiry which the committee determines to be a complaint as defined in this Act shall be docketed by the grievance committee. When docketed, the committee shall notify the general counsel of the State Bar, the complainant, and the accused attorney that the complaint has been scheduled for action by the committee, and the committee shall report periodically to the general counsel its progress in the matter.

(e) Every complaint as defined in this Act shall be acted on expeditiously by the grievance committee and the action shall be reported to the general counsel, the complainant, and the accused attorney. If the committee fails to take action on a complaint within a reasonable time, the general counsel shall report the committee's inaction to the president of the State Bar and the director or directors for the bar district which encompasses the grievance committee.

When notified by the general counsel of a committee's inaction, the president of the State Bar, with the advice of the board director for the district concerned, may transfer the complaint to another grievance committee in the bar district if there is one. The president may discharge a committee and appoint new members, if after consulting the board director for the district concerned the president determines that the committee should be reconstituted to assure the expeditious transaction of disciplinary business. Failure to report grievance matters to the general counsel shall be grounds for the discharge of a committee.

Grievance Oversight Committee

Sec. 14. There shall be created a grievance oversight committee which shall be responsible for reviewing the structure, function, and effectiveness of the grievance procedures which are implemented pursuant to this Act. It shall be composed of nine members to be appointed by the Supreme Court, six of whom shall be licensed members of the State Bar and three of whom shall not be licensed members of the State Bar of Texas. Of the six licensed members of the State Bar, three shall be members or former members of grievance committees. This committee shall report its findings annually to the Supreme Court, including any recommendations concerning needed changes in grievance procedures or structures.

The members of this committee shall serve staggered terms of three years each and the initial terms of office of the committee shall be as follows: three members for a term of one year, three members for a term of two years, and three members for a term of three years. The Supreme Court shall designate a chairperson of the committee who shall serve as chairperson for a period of one year. A majority of the total membership shall constitute a quorum of the committee. All necessary and actual expenses of the committee shall be provided for and paid out of the budget of the State Bar.

Disbarment Proceedings

Sec. 15. (a) The Supreme Court of Texas shall not adopt or promulgate any rule or regulation abrogating the right of trial by jury to either party to a disbarment action in the county of the residence of the accused attorney.

(b) Disbarment proceedings shall be instituted against a resident attorney in a district court located in the county of the attorney's residence; provided, however, that the accused attorney may make application for change of venue pursuant to Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 257. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prohibit a grievance committee from investigating complaints of professional misconduct alleged to have occurred within the geographical area served by the committee, but any action must be filed in the county of that attorney's residence.

(c) All nonresident attorneys licensed by the Supreme Court are subject to the disciplinary rules and regulations governing resident members of the State Bar; provided, however, that venue in disbarment proceedings against nonresident members of the State Bar shall be in a district court located in Travis County, Texas, or in any county where the alleged misconduct occurred.

Disciplinary Proceedings

Sec. 16. (a) No attorney shall be suspended from practice, except by the attorney's concurrence under an order of suspension entered by the grievance committee, until such attorney has been convicted of the charge or charges for disbarment pending against him or her in a court of competent jurisdiction. Provided, however, that on proof of conviction of an attorney in any trial court of competent jurisdiction of any felony involving moral turpitude or of any misdemeanor involving the theft, embezzlement, or fraudulent misappropriation of money or other property, the district court of the county of the residence of the convicted attorney shall enter an order suspending the attorney from the practice of law during the pendency of any appeals from the conviction. An attorney who has been given probation after the conviction, whether adjudicated or unadjudicated, shall be suspended from the practice of law during the probation. On proof of final conviction of any felony involving moral turpitude or any misdemeanor involving theft, embezzlement, or fraudulent misappropriation of money or other property, the district court of the county of the residence of the convicted attorney shall enter a judgment disbaring him or her.

Either the grievance committee for the bar district or the general counsel shall have the authority to seek the enforcement of this section.

(b) In any action seeking to disbar an attorney for acts made the basis of a conviction for a felony involving moral turpitude or a misdemeanor involving theft, embezzlement, a fraudulent misappropriation of money or other property, the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence of the guilt of the attorney for the crime of which he or she was convicted.

(c) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent an attorney from being prosecuted in a disciplinary action after conviction for a criminal act based either on the weight of the conviction or on conduct by the attorney which led to his or her conviction.

Committees and Sections

Sec. 17. The board shall create from time to time committees and sections as it considers advisable and necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the appointment of nonlawyers to the State Bar committees.

Committee on Professional Ethics

Sec. 18. (a) A professional ethics committee consisting of nine members of the State Bar to be appointed by the Supreme Court for a term of three years each is established. The initial terms of office of the committee shall be as follows: three members for terms of one year, three members for terms of two years, and three members for terms of three years. The Supreme Court shall designate a chairperson of the committee who shall serve as chairperson for a period of one year. A majority of the total membership shall constitute a quorum of the committee. All necessary and actual expenses of the committee shall be provided for and paid out of the budget of the State Bar. Nothing in this Act shall prevent the court from appointing members of the judicial department to the professional ethics committee.

(b) The standing committee on professional ethics shall:

(1) by the concurrence of a quorum of its members, express its opinion on the propriety of professional conduct, either on its own initiative or when requested to do so by a member of the State Bar of Texas, except that an opinion may not be issued on a question that is pending before a court of this state;

(2) the foregoing provision notwithstanding, the committee may meet in three member panels to express its opinion on behalf of the whole committee; provided, however, if the inquirer is dissatisfied with the panel's opinion, he or she may appeal it to the full committee for review;

(3) periodically publish its issued opinions to the legal profession in summary or complete form and on request provide copies of the opinions to members of the bar or public;

(4) on request advise or otherwise assist State Bar committees or local bar associations relating to the Code of Professional Responsibility;

(5) recommend appropriate amendments or clarifications of the Code of Professional Responsibility, if it considers them advisable; and

(6) adopt such rules as it considers appropriate relating to the procedures to be used in expressing opinions, effective when approved by the Supreme Court. Insofar as it is possible to do so, the committee shall disclose the rationale for its opinion and shall indicate whether it is based on ethical considerations or upon the disciplinary rules.

Opinions of the committee shall not be binding on the Supreme Court.

Unauthorized Practice of Law

Sec. 19. (a) For purposes of this Act, the practice of law embraces the preparation of pleadings and other papers incident to actions of special proceedings and the management of the actions and proceedings on behalf of clients before judges in courts as well as services rendered out of court, including the giving of advice or the rendering of any service requiring the use of legal skill or knowledge, such as preparing a will, contract, or other instrument, the legal effect of which under the facts and conclusions involved must be carefully determined. This definition is not exclusive and does not deprive the judicial branch of the power and authority both under this Act and the adjudicated cases to determine whether other services and acts not enumerated in this Act may constitute the practice of law.

(b) The Supreme Court shall appoint an unauthorized practice of law committee for the State Bar to consist of nine members, three of whom shall be nonlawyers. Except as provided in this Act, members of the committee shall serve for a term of three years beginning with the effective date of this Act. All members of the committee shall be eligible for reappointment. The court shall designate each year which member shall act as chairperson. A majority of the committee shall constitute a quorum. All necessary and actual expenses of the committee should be provided for and paid out of the budget of the State Bar.

The court in making the first appointment shall appoint three members to serve an initial term of one year, three members to serve an initial term of two years, and three members to serve an initial term of three years. Thereafter, each appointed member shall serve a term of three years.

The unauthorized practice of law committee shall keep the court and the State Bar informed with respect to the unauthorized practice of law by lay persons and lay agencies and the participation of attorneys therein and concerning methods for the prevention thereof. The committee shall seek the elimination of the unauthorized practice by action and methods as may be appropriate for that purpose, including the filing of suits in the name of the committee. Nothing in this Act shall prohibit the establishment of local Unauthorized Practice of Law committees to aid and assist this committee in carrying out its purpose.

Carry-over Clause

Sec. 20. (a) All rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the Supreme Court relating to the State Bar which are in force on the effective date of this Act shall constitute the rules governing the State Bar of Texas until and unless amended pursuant to Section 8 of this Act.

The foregoing provision notwithstanding, any rules and regulations which are in force on the effective date of this Act and which are in conflict with the provisions of this Act are repealed to the extent of the conflict.

(b) The officers and directors of the State Bar who have been elected and are serving on the effective date of this Act shall continue in office for the balance of their term.

(c) All dues and fees assessed and in effect on the effective date of this Act shall remain in force and effect until and unless amended pursuant to Section 8 of this Act.

(d) All bonds, notes, debentures, evidences of indebtedness, mortgages, deeds of trust, assignments, pledges, contracts, leases, agreements, or other contractual obligations owed to or by the State Bar of Texas on the effective date of this Act shall remain in force and effect in accordance with the terms of the obligation.

Application of Sunset Act

Sec. 21. The State Bar is subject to the Texas Sunset Act,¹ and unless continued in existence as provided by that Act the State Bar is abolished, and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

SENATE BILL 287

ORDER

Effective June 11, 1979

On June 11, 1979, the Governor signed into law, effective immediately, Senate Bill 287 which had passed the Senate by a vote of thirty of its members to one, and had passed the House by a vote of one hundred nineteen of its members to twenty-two. This statute continued the State Bar of Texas "as a public corporation and an administrative agency of the Judicial Department of government." The Legislature in Section Two of the statute stated that:

"This legislation is in aid of the Judicial Department's powers under the Constitution to regulate the practice of law and not to the exclusion of those powers. The Supreme Court of Texas, on behalf of the Judicial Department, shall exercise administrative control over the State Bar under this Act."

The Legislature has thus recognized that this Court is the primary responsibility for the administration of justice in the constitutional separation of powers between the three governmental branches.

This Court recognizes the actions of the Legislative and Executive Departments in aid of this Court's responsibilities regarding the legal profession, in declining any attempt to place funds of the Judicial Branch under control of the Legislative or Executive Branch, and in enacting Senate Bill 287 of the 66th Texas Legislative Session. The Court agrees that a unified Bar is the best method of regulating the legal profession and in assisting this Court in the administration of justice.

It is, however, the duty of this Court in the exercise of its own inherent power to regulate and control the practice of law and to provide for the proper administration of justice. It is therefore ordered:

1. The State Bar Act, Acts 1979, 66th Leg. Reg. Sess., ch. 510, p. 1081, Article 320a-1 Vernon's Texas Statutes, as supplemented by this order and subsequent orders, and all prior orders of this Court not in conflict herewith, shall govern the State Bar of Texas;

2. All rules, regulations and supplemental orders of this Court relating thereto, including the Rules Governing the State Bar of Texas and the Code of Professional Responsibility, which on the effective date of this order are in force, and which are not in conflict with the State Bar Act, as amended, shall continue to be the rules, regulations and orders governing the State Bar;

3. All officers and directors of the State Bar of Texas who are serving on the effective date hereof shall continue in office for their terms of office and until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified in accordance with the rules and regulations governing the State Bar of Texas;

4. All committees, sections and organizations of the State Bar in existence on the effective date of this order shall continue as they presently exist, until reconstituted in accordance with provisions of the State Bar Act as amended;

5. All dues and fees assessed and in effect on the effective date of this order, shall remain in full force and effect and the budget heretofore adopted for the Bar's fiscal year 1979-80 shall remain in full force and effect;

6. All persons who are enrolled as members of the State Bar on the date hereof and any person who, after the date hereof, shall be licensed to practice law in this State shall be members of the State Bar and subject to the rules and orders of this Court;

7. All persons not members of the State Bar are prohibited from practicing law in this State except for limited practice of law by attorneys licensed in other jurisdictions, law students and nonlicensed graduates of approved law schools in accordance with rules heretofore promulgated by this Court;

8. All property and contractual rights, titles, interests and obligations heretofore existing in the name of the State Bar of Texas are hereby continued and are confirmed;

9. The State Bar of Texas as a unified or integrated Bar is hereby continued and confirmed as an administrative agency of this Court and as a public corporation;

10. All complaints being investigated, all formal complaints voted by district grievance committees, all prosecutions begun and all appeals pending involving attorney misconduct, mental incompetency or the unauthorized practice of law shall proceed and shall not be abated or dismissed on account of the promulgation of this order or the passage of the State Bar Act.

This order is effective as of June 11, 1979, until further order of the Court. IN CHAMBERS, on this the 19th day of June, 1979.

Compliance With The Code of Judicial Conduct.
Effective Date of Compliance.

A Judge Should Uphold the Integrity and Independence of the Judiciary

An independent and honorable judiciary is indispensable to justice in our society. A judge should participate in establishing, maintaining, and enforcing, and should himself observe, high standards of conduct so that the integrity and independence of the judiciary may be preserved. The provisions of this Code should be construed and applied to further that objective.

Canon 2

A Judge Should Avoid Impropriety and the Appearance of Impropriety in all his Activities

A. A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary.

B. A judge should not allow his family, social, or other relationships to influence his judicial conduct or judgment. He should not lend the prestige of his office to advance the private interests of others; nor should he convey or permit others to convey the impression that they are in a special position to influence him. He should not testify voluntarily in an adjudicative proceeding as a character witness.

Canon 3

A Judge Should Perform the Duties of his Office Impartially and Diligently

The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities. His judicial duties include all the duties of his office prescribed by law. In the performance of these duties, the following standards apply:

A. Adjudicative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. He should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

(2) A judge should maintain order and decorum in proceedings before him.

(3) A judge should be patient, dignified, and courteous to litigants, jurors, witnesses, lawyers, and others with whom he deals in his official capacity, and should require similar conduct of lawyers, and of his staff, court officials, and others subject to his direction and control.

(4) A judge should accord to every person who is legally interested in a proceeding, or his lawyer, full right to be heard according to law, and, except as authorized by law, neither initiate nor consider ex parte or other private communications concerning a pending or impending proceeding.

(5) A judge should dispose promptly of the business of the court.

(6) A judge should abstain from public comment about a pending or impending proceeding in any court, and should require similar abstention on the part of court personnel subject to his direction and control. This subsection does not prohibit judges from making public statements in the course of their official duties or from explaining for public information the procedures of the court.

(7) A judge should prohibit broadcasting, televising, recording, or taking photographs in the courtroom and areas adjacent thereto during sessions of court or recesses between sessions (Estes vs. Texas, 381 U.S. 532; Sheppard vs. Maxwell, 384 U.S. 333), except that a judge may authorize:

B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

(a) the use of electronic or photographic means for the presentation of evidence, for the perpetuation of a record, or for other purposes of judicial administration;

(b) the broadcasting, televising, recording, or photographing of investitive, or ceremonial proceedings;

(c) the photographic or electronic recording and reproduction of appropriate court proceedings under the following conditions:

(i) the means of recording will not distract participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings;

(ii) the parties have consented, and the consent to being depicted or recorded has been obtained from each witness appearing in the recording and reproduction;

(iii) the reproduction will not be exhibited until after the proceeding has been concluded and all direct appeals have been exhausted; and

(iv) the reproduction will be exhibited only for instructional purposes in educational institutions.

(d) Oral arguments by the parties in the appellate courts may be recorded by electronic means upon the prior consent obtained from the court, or the chief justice or presiding judge as the case may be, where the means of recording will not distract the participants or impair the dignity of the proceedings.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

B. Administrative Responsibilities.

(1) A judge should diligently discharge his administrative responsibilities, maintain professional competence in judicial administration, and facilitate the performance of the administrative responsibilities of other judges and court officials.

(2) A judge should require his staff and court officials subject to his direction and control to observe the standards of fidelity and diligence that apply to him.

(3) A judge should take or initiate appropriate disciplinary measures against a lawyer for unprofessional conduct of which the judge may become aware.

(4) A judge should not make unnecessary appointments. He should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

C. Disqualification. (Art. V, Sec. 11 Texas Constitution; Art. 15 V.A.T.S.; C.C.P. Art. 30.01).

(1) A judge should disqualify himself in a proceeding in which his impartiality might reasonably be questioned, including, but not limited to, instances where:

(a) he has a personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(b) he served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(c) he knows that he, individually or as a fiduciary, or his spouse or minor child residing in his household, has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;

(2) A judge should inform himself about his personal and fiduciary financial interests, and make a reasonable effort to inform himself about the personal financial interests of his spouse and minor children residing in his household.

(3) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "fiduciary" includes such relationships as executor, administrator, trustee, and guardian;

(b) "financial interest" means ownership of a legal or equitable interest, however small, or a relationship as director, advisor, or other active participant in the affairs of a party, except that:

(i) ownership in a mutual or common investment fund that holds securities is not a "financial interest" in such securities unless the judge participates in the management of the fund;

(ii) an office in an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization is not a "financial interest" in securities held by the organization;

(iii) the proprietary interest of a policy holder in a mutual insurance company, of a depositor in a mutual savings association, or a similar proprietary interest, is a "financial interest" in the organization only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the interest;

(iv) ownership of government securities is a "financial interest" in the issuer only if the outcome of the proceeding could substantially affect the value of the securities.

Canon 4A Judge May Engage in Activities to Improve the Law, the Legal System, and the Administration of Justice

A judge, subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, may engage in the following quasi-judicial activities, if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him:

A. He may speak, write, lecture, teach, and participate in other activities concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

B. He may appear at a public hearing before an executive or legislative body or official on matters concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice, and he may otherwise consult with an executive or legislative body or official, but only on matters concerning the administration of justice.

C. He may serve as a member, officer, or director of an organization or governmental agency devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. He may assist such an organization in raising funds and may participate in their management and investment, but should not personally participate in public fund raising activities. He may make recommendations to public and private fund-granting agencies on projects and programs concerning the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice.

Canon 5A Judge Should Regulate his Extra-Judicial Activities to Minimize the Risk of Conflict with his Judicial Duties

A. Avocational Activities. A judge may write, lecture, teach, and speak on non-legal subjects, and engage in the arts, sports, and other social and recreational activities, if such avocational activities do not detract from the dignity of his office or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties.

B. Civic and Charitable Activities. A judge may participate in civic and charitable activities that do not reflect adversely upon his impartiality or interfere with the performance of his judicial duties. A judge may serve as an officer, director, trustee, or non-legal advisor of an educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, or civic organization not conducted for the economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations:

(1) A judge should not serve if it is likely that the organization will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him or will be regularly engaged in adversary proceedings in any court.

(2) A judge should not solicit funds for any educational, religious, charitable, fraternal, political, or civic organization, or use or permit the use of the prestige of his office for that purpose, but he may be listed as an officer, director, delegate, or trustee of such an organization. He should not be a speaker or the guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events, but he may attend such events.

(3) A judge should not give investment advice to such an organization, but he may serve on its board of directors or trustees even though it has the responsibility for approving investment decisions.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

C. Financial Activities.

(1) A judge should refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on his impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties, exploit his judicial position, or involve him in frequent transactions with lawyers or persons likely to come before the court on which he serves.

(2) Subject to the requirement of subsection (1), a judge may hold and manage investments, including real estate, and engage in other remunerative activity including the operation of a business. A judge should not be an officer, director or manager of a publicly owned business. For purposes of this Canon, a "publicly owned business" is a business having more than ten owners.

(3) A judge should manage his investments and other financial interests to minimize the number of cases in which he is disqualified. As soon as he can do so without serious financial detriment, he should divest himself of investments and other financial interests that might require frequent disqualification.

(4) Neither a judge nor a member of his family residing in his household should accept a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from anyone except as follows:

(a) a judge may accept a gift incident to a public testimonial to him; books supplied by publishers on a complimentary basis for official use; or an invitation to the judge and his spouse to attend a bar-related function or activity devoted to the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice;

(b) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept ordinary social hospitality; a gift, bequest, favor, or loan from a relative; a wedding or engagement gift; a loan from a lending institution in its regular course of business on the same terms generally available to persons who are not judges; or a scholarship or fellowship awarded on the same terms applied to other applicants;

(c) a judge or a member of his family residing in his household may accept any other gift, bequest, favor, or loan only if the donor is not a party or other person whose interests have come or are likely to come before him, and, if its value exceeds $100, the judge reports it in the same manner as he reports compensation in Canon 6C.

(5) For the purposes of this section "member of his family residing in his household" means any relative of a judge by blood or marriage, or a person treated by a judge as a member of his family, who resides in his household.

(6) A judge is not required by this Code to disclose his income, debts, or investments, except as provided in this Canon and Canons 3 and 6.

(7) Information acquired by a judge in his judicial capacity should not be used or disclosed by him in financial dealings or for any other purpose not related to his judicial duties.

D. Fiduciary Activities. A judge should not serve as the executor, administrator, trustee, guardian, or other fiduciary, except for the estate, trust, or person of a member of his family; and then only if such service will not interfere with the proper performance of his judicial duties. "Member of his family" includes a spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, or other relative or person with whom the judge maintains a close familial relationship. As a family fiduciary a judge is subject to the following restrictions:

(1) He should not serve if it is likely that as a fiduciary he will be engaged in proceedings that would ordinarily come before him, or if the estate, trust, or ward becomes involved in adversary proceedings in the court on which he serves or one under its appellate jurisdiction.

(2) While acting as a fiduciary a judge is subject to the same restrictions on financial activities that apply to him in his personal capacity.

E. Arbitration. A judge should not act as an arbitrator or mediator.

F. Practice of Law. A judge should not practice law.

G. Extra-judicial Appointments. A judge should not accept appointment to a governmental committee, commission, or other position that is concerned with issues of fact or policy on matters other than the improvement of the law, the legal system, or the administration of justice. A judge, however, may represent his country, state, or locality on ceremonial occasions or in connection with historical, educational, and cultural activities.

A Judge Should Regularly File Reports of Compensation Received for Quasi-Judicial and Extra-Judicial Activities

A judge may receive compensation and reimbursement of expenses for the quasi-judicial and extra-judicial activities permitted by this Code, if the source of such payments does not give the appearance of influencing the judge in his judicial duties or otherwise give the appearance of impropriety, subject to the following restrictions:

A. Compensation. Compensation should not exceed a reasonable amount nor should it exceed what a person who is not a judge would receive for the same activity.

B. Expense Reimbursement. Expense reimbursement should be limited to the actual cost of travel, food, and lodging reasonably incurred by the judge and, where appropriate to the occasion, by his family. Any payment in excess of such an amount is compensation.

C. A judge shall file with the Judicial Qualifications Commission of this State on or before the last Friday of April of each year a financial report consisting of the following documents:

(a) A true copy of the most recent Federal income tax return filed by him.

(b) An affidavit which asserts compliance with Article 6252-9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, the financial disclosure law.

(c) A verified list of the names of the corporations, businesses or other financial undertakings in which he has an interest. If any of the above have no name, then a description of their nature shall be given.

(d) At the expiration of two years from the time a judge by reason of death, disability or other reason is no longer subject to recall to judicial service, the Commission shall destroy the documents filed by a judge in compliance with this Canon.

The copy of income tax return called for in subparagraph (a) above shall be transmitted in a sealed envelope, placed by the Commission in safekeeping, and shall be opened only during an investigation and pursuant to a majority vote of the full Commission duly assembled.

If the federal government has granted an extension of time for the filing of an income tax return, that fact shall be made known to the Judicial Qualifications Commission on or before the last Friday of April of the year in which the tax return is due. The judge shall in that case file the copy of his income tax return with the Judicial Qualifications Commission within ten days after he files his income tax return with the government.

The list of corporations and businesses in which the judge has a financial interest called for in subparagraph (c) above shall be transmitted in a separate sealed envelope, placed by the Commission in safekeeping, and shall not be opened or the contents thereof disclosed except in the manner hereinabove providing for the opening and examination of the documents called for in subparagraph (a) above, or as hereinafter provided.

At any time during or after the pendency of a cause, any party may request information as to whether the most recent list filed by the judge or judges before whom the cause is or was pending contains the name of any specific person or corporation or other business which is a party to the cause or which has a substantial, direct, or indirect financial interest in its outcome. Neither the making of the request nor the contents thereof shall be revealed by the Chairman to any judge or other person except at the instance of the individual making the request. If the request meets the requirements hereinabove set forth, the Chairman shall render a prompt answer thereto and thereupon return the report to safekeeping for retention in accordance with the provisions hereinabove stated. All such requests shall be verified and transmitted to the Chairman of the Commission on forms to be approved by it.

A Judge Should Refrain from Political Activity Inappropriate to his Judicial Office

A. Political Conduct in General. Any candidate for judicial office, including an incumbent judge, and others acting on his behalf, should refrain from all conduct which might tend to arouse reasonable belief that he is using the power or prestige of his judicial position to promote his own candidacy.

B. Campaign Conduct:

(1) A candidate, including an incumbent judge, for a judicial office that is filled by public election between competing candidates:

(a) should maintain the dignity appropriate to judicial office, and should encourage members of his family to adhere to the same standards of political conduct that apply to him;

(b) should prohibit others subject to his direction or control from doing for him what he is prohibited from doing under this Canon;

(c) should not make pledges or promises of conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office. Any statement of qualifications, record, or performance in office should be such as can withstand the closest scrutiny as to accuracy, candor and fairness.

Amended Nov. 9, 1976.

Compliance with the Code of Judicial Conduct

A. The following judges shall comply with this Code:

Those elected in a statewide election.

Justices of courts of civil appeals.

Commissioners of any appellate court.

District judges.

Judges of domestic relations courts.

Judges of juvenile courts.

Judges of county courts at law.

Provided, however, that Canon 6C(b) shall apply only to those judges who are subject to Article 6252-9b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes.

The Code shall not apply to county judges whether they are also judges of juvenile courts or not.

B. Part-time Judge. A part-time judge is a judge who serves on a continuing or periodic basis, but is permitted by law to devote time to some other profession or occupation and whose compensation for that reason is less than that of a full-time judge. A part-time judge:

(1) is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, G, and Canon 6C(a) and 6C(e).

(2) should not practice law in the court on which he serves or in any court subject to the appellate jurisdiction of the court on which he serves, or act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

C. Judge Pro Tempore. A judge pro tempore is a person who is appointed to act temporarily as a judge.

(1) While acting as such, a judge pro tempore is not required to comply with Canon 5C(2), (3), D, E, F, G, Canon 6C(a) and 6C(e).

(2) A person who has been a judge pro tempore should not act as a lawyer in a proceeding in which he has served as a judge or in any other proceeding related thereto.

D. Retired Judge. A retired judge who is eligible for recall to judicial service should comply with all the provisions of this Code except Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, G, and Canon 6C(a) and 6C(e), but he should refrain from judicial service during the period of an extra-judicial appointment not sanctioned by Canon 5G. A retired judge who is not subject to recall for judicial service or who by reason of disability does not perform such services, which facts are shown to the satisfaction of the Judicial Qualifications Commission is excused from compliance with Canon 5C(2), D, E, F, G, Canon 6C(a) and 6C(e).

Amended Sept. 24, 1974; Nov. 9, 1976.

B. CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCTEffective Date of Compliance

A person to whom this Code become applicable should arrange his affairs as soon as reasonably possible to comply with it. If, however, the demands on his time and the possibility of conflicts of interest are not substantial, a person who holds judicial office on the date this Code becomes effective may:

A. continue to act as an officer or director of a publicly owned business for a period not to exceed four (4) years from the effective date of this Code;

B. continue to act as an executor, administrator, trustee, or other fiduciary for the estate or person of one who is not a member of his family.

Sec. 3. Sec. 4. Nothing in this Act requires a county official or employee to accept the legal counsel provided for him in this Act.

Art. 332d. Prosecutors Coordinating CouncilPurpose of Act

Sec. 1. The Legislature of the State of Texas finds and declares that a uniform quality of prosecution will aid in improving the efficiency and effectiveness of the state's criminal justice system. The legislature recognizes that the prosecutor performs an executive function which has a significant effect on the judicial branch and on law enforcement. To this end, it is the purpose of this Act to provide a centralized agency capable of delivering technical assistance, educational services, and professional development training to the prosecutors of Texas and their assistants and to improve the administration of criminal justice through professionalization of the prosecuting attorney's office.

Creation

Sec. 2. There is hereby created the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council, hereinafter referred to as the "council."

Membership; "Prosecuting Attorney" Defined

Sec. 3. (a) The council shall be composed of nine members, selected as follows:

(2) the president of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association; and

(3) four incumbent, elected prosecuting attorneys to be selected by the membership of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association; at least one each of whom shall be a county attorney, a district attorney, and a criminal district attorney.

(b) For purposes of this Act, "prosecuting attorney" means the person who holds the office of county attorney, district attorney, or criminal district attorney, and represents the State of Texas in criminal cases. The duties of prosecuting attorneys who are members of the council shall be additional to those of their elected position, and membership on the council shall not constitute dual officeholding.

Sec. 4. Each member of the council, other than the president of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association, shall serve overlapping four-year terms. Initially, two of the citizens appointed by the governor and two of the prosecuting attorneys shall serve a two-year term. The terms of the members shall begin January 1 following the effective date of this Act, and each member shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed.

Vacancies

Sec. 5. Vacancies on the council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. A member appointed to fill a vacancy created other than by expiration of a term shall be appointed for the unexpired term of the member he is to succeed. Any member may be reappointed for additional terms. If a member who is a prosecuting attorney ceases to be a prosecuting attorney, a vacancy on the council shall exist.

Expenses

Sec. 6. Members of the council shall serve without compensation but may be entitled to their actual expenses in attending meetings and in the performance of their duties hereunder.

Meetings; Officers; Quorum; Executive Director

Sec. 7. (a) The council shall meet at least twice each year and shall hold such other meetings as may be necessary. The president of the Texas District and County Attorneys Association shall serve as chairman of the council, and the council shall designate from among its members a vice-chairman who shall serve a one-year term and who may be reelected. The chairman shall preside over the meetings, and in his absence the vice-chairman shall preside. The council shall establish its own procedures with respect to its meetings, and five members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. A majority vote of the members present and voting shall be required for approval of any action authorized by this Act.

(b) The council shall appoint an executive director who shall be an attorney licensed by the Supreme Court of Texas. The executive director shall perform the functions and duties assigned him by the council and shall represent the council in all cases in the courts of the state or of the United States in which the council is a party.

Duties

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the council to:

(1) develop and adopt minimum standards for the operation of prosecuting attorneys' offices;

(2) approve courses for in-service training and professional development of prosecuting attorneys, their assistants, and staff;

(3) cooperate and coordinate with the Texas Judicial Council to improve the maintenance and reporting of criminal justice statistics;

(5) receive and consider suggestions to improve the administration of criminal justice and to investigate and report upon such matters as may be referred to the council by the governor or the legislature;

(6) coordinate with the Texas District and County Attorneys Association to carry out the provisions and purposes of this Act;

(7) respond to requests for technical assistance from the various prosecuting attorneys; and

(8) report to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1 of each year as to all its proceedings, recommended changes in jurisdictions, needed funding for local offices, and other matters to improve local prosecution within the state.

Powers

Sec. 9. The council may:

(1) respond to the request of a judge for recommendations regarding the appointment of a special prosecutor in case of disqualification of the prosecuting attorney;

(2) enter into agreements with other public or private agencies or organizations to implement the intent and purpose of this Act;

(3) accept funds, grants, and gifts from any public or private source to implement this Act;

(4) employ such staff and clerical assistants as necessary to fulfill its duties and responsibilities; and

(5) take such other action as may be appropriate for the improvement and more efficient administration of criminal justice.

Reprimand, Disqualification, or Removal from Office

Sec. 10. (a) A prosecuting attorney may be reprimanded, disqualified, or removed from office as hereinafter provided.

(b) For purposes of this Act:

(1) "incompetency" means:

(A) gross ignorance or neglect of official duty;

(B) physical or mental defect which prohibits the prompt or proper discharge of official duties; or

(C) failure to maintain the qualifications required by law for election to the office.

(2) "misconduct" means:

(A) any unlawful behavior defined in Chapter 39 of the Penal Code;

(B) any act which is a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude; or

(C) willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of official duties.

(c) A prosecuting attorney is disqualified from performing the duties and functions or exercising the privileges of his office when a petition for removal from office has been filed against him as provided in this Act.

(d) A prosecuting attorney shall be suspended from office when:

(1) he has been disbarred or suspended from the practice of law in the State of Texas, whether through trial or upon agreement;

(2) he has been found guilty in a court of competent jurisdiction of any felony or any misdemeanor involving moral turpitude;

(3) a finding of incompetency or misconduct following a trial on the merits of a petition for removal.

(e) A prosecuting attorney shall be removed from office upon final adjudication or conviction for any cause of action which was the basis for his suspension.

(f)(1) During a period of disqualification, the prosecuting attorney shall be entitled to receive the compensation provided by law for such office but shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto.

(2) During a period of suspension, the prosecuting attorney shall not be entitled to any compensation provided by law for his office and shall be disqualified from the performance of any official duties imposed upon his office by law or exercising any privilege incident thereto. If the trial court judgment which causes a suspension is upon final determination overturned, then he shall be entitled to receive as compensation an amount equal to the total compensation he would have received during the period of such suspension.

(g)(1) After investigation of a complaint of prosecutor incompetency or misconduct, the council may, in its discretion, issue a private reprimand, order a hearing to be held before the council, or request the supreme court to appoint a master to hold a hearing.

(2) The supreme court shall by rule provide for the procedure before the council and masters in hearings relating to the investigation of complaints of prosecuting attorney incompetency or misconduct, consistent with this Act and due process of law.

(3) In the conduct of investigations or hearings, any member of the council or the master may administer oaths and issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and to compel testimony and the production of books, records, papers, accounts, and documents relevant to any investigation or hearing. Orders for attendance of witnesses, testimony, or production of evidence shall be enforceable by contempt proceedings in the district court.

(4) It shall be the duty of all law enforcement officers to serve process and execute all lawful orders of the council or master. Such process and orders may also be served by any other person designated by the master, the council, or their authorized representative.

(5) In any investigation or hearing, process shall extend to all parts of the state, and each witness, other than an officer or employee of the state or a political subdivision, shall receive the same fees and mileage as allowed witnesses in civil cases.

(6) In any investigation or hearing, the council or master may order the deposition of any person be taken in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure.

(h) Upon the appointment of a master, notice shall be given to the prosecuting attorney who is the subject of any complaint or investigation, specifying the matters under investigation and the complaint against him and setting a formal hearing for the first Monday next after the expiration of 10 days after the service thereof.

(i) After the conclusion of the hearing, the master shall file with the council a statement of his findings of fact, together with a complete transcript of all proceedings had in the cause. Such findings and transcripts shall be filed with the council not later than 30 days after the date set for the hearing to commence. For good cause shown, the council may, in its discretion, extend the time for filing such findings and transcripts.

(j) All proceedings and records before the council or a master shall be confidential and privileged until such time as they are introduced in evidence in any proceeding for removal.

(k) If, after examining the records and proceedings before it, the council finds by majority vote of the council membership good cause therefor, it shall cause to be filed in the district court of the county in which the prosecuting attorney resides a petition for removal. Such petition shall be filed in the name of the State of Texas and docketed on the civil docket of the court. Such petition shall allege incompetency or misconduct, together with the facts which form the basis of the allegations. The trial on a petition for removal shall proceed in accordance with the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and shall have priority on the docket of the court.

(l) When a petition for removal is filed pursuant to this section, the judge of the court in which it is filed shall request the appointment of a special judge who shall hear the case. Upon appointment, the special judge shall appoint an attorney to prosecute the case, such counsel to be selected from a list of not less than five qualified attorneys submitted by the council.

(m) Upon disqualification or suspension of a prosecuting attorney, the duties of his office shall be performed by a prosecuting attorney pro tem as otherwise provided by law.

Severability

Sec. 11. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end, the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Effect of Constitutional Amendment

Sec. 12. Should the voters of Texas approve a constitutional amendment giving the Judicial Qualifications Commission jurisdiction over prosecuting attorneys covered by this Act, then the powers, duties, and authority granted by this Act to the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council shall be vested in the Judicial Qualifications Commission to the extent that said powers, duties, and authority do not conflict with the powers, duties, and authorities of the commission established by law and the Texas Constitution. If such powers, duties, and authority are transferred from the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council to the Judicial Qualifications Commission, then the existence of the Texas Prosecutors Coordinating Council shall terminate.

4. PUBLIC DEFENDERS

Art. 341-2. Counties Having Four County and Four District Courts; Appointment and Compensation; Entitlement of Indigents

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) Recent federal and state court decisions have emphasized the constitutional obligation of the state to afford needy persons the effective assistance of counsel in criminal actions. In some counties, the bar has partially met this obligation through creation of a nonprofit organization, primarily financed by federal grants, which provides counsel; in others, volunteers from the bar donate their services to defend needy persons. And in still other counties, the courts concerned appoint counsel under Articles 26.04 and 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) The obligation to furnish competent counsel imposes a substantial burden on county financial resources. None of the alternative methods presently employed to furnish counsel has proved entirely satisfactory and the legislature finds that a county-wide public defender system, functioning either alone or in a combination with other methods, may better satisfy the constitutional and statutory obligations for providing counsel for the needy accused.

Appointment of Public Defender

Sec. 2. (a) The commissioners court of any county having four county courts and four district courts may appoint one or more attorneys to serve as a public defender to serve at its pleasure.

(b) To be eligible for appointment as a public defender, a person must:

- (1) be a member of the State Bar of Texas;
- (2) have practiced law at least three years; and
- (3) be experienced in the practice of criminal law.

Compensation

Sec. 3. (a) The public defenders shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the commissioners court and paid from the appropriate county fund.

(b) The provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding daily appearance fees shall not apply to public defenders; however, all other provisions of Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended, regarding fees and allowances shall apply to public defenders.

(c) A public defender may not engage in any criminal law practice other than that authorized in this Act and shall accept nothing of value, except as authorized in this Act, for any services rendered in connection with a criminal case.

(d) A violation of Subsection (c), Section 3 of this Act shall be cause for removal of the public defender by the judge who appointed him.

Entitlement to Representation

Sec. 4. (a) Any indigent person charged with a criminal offense or any indigent person who is a party in a juvenile delinquency proceeding shall be represented by a public defender in a county having at least four county courts and at least four district courts, if one has been appointed, or other practicing attorneys appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction. If an attorney, other than a public defender, is appointed, he shall be compensated as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

(b) A public defender may inquire into the financial condition of any person whom he is appointed to represent and shall report any findings of the investigation to the court appointing him. The court may hold a hearing into the financial condition of the defendant and shall make a determination as to his indigency and to his entitlement to representation by a public defender.

Substitute Defender

Sec. 5. At any stage, including appeal or other postconviction proceedings, the court concerned may assign a substitute attorney. The substitute attorney shall be entitled to compensation as provided in Article 26.05, Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, as amended.

Art. 342-208a. Examination of Nonbanking Affiliates

The Commissioner may examine the affiliates of a state bank to the extent it is necessary to safeguard the interest of depositors, creditors, and stockholders of the bank and to enforce the provisions of The Texas Banking Code of 1943. The Commissioner may conduct the examination in conjunction with any examination of the state bank or affiliate conducted by any other state or federal regulatory authority. For the purpose of this Article, "affiliate" means any bank holding company of which the state bank is a subsidiary and any nonbanking subsidiary of that bank holding company, as "subsidiary" is defined by Section 2 of the federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C., Sec. 1841(d), as amended).

The articles of association of a state bank shall be signed and acknowledged by each incorporator and shall contain:

1. The name of the corporation.
2. The city or town and the county of its domicile.
3. Such of the powers listed in Article 1 of this Chapter as it shall choose to exercise.
4. The capital and the denomination and number of shares.

Art. 342-305. Application for and Granting of Charters—Approval

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of A]

B. Applicants desiring to incorporate a State bank shall file with the Banking Commissioner an application for charter, the proposed Articles of Association, a list of shareholders, and a written list of information as may tend to establish the above conditions of incorporation, all upon official forms prepared and prescribed by the Commissioner. All persons subscribing to the capital stock of the proposed bank shall sign and verify under oath a statement of such stock subscribed, and which statement shall truly report the number of shares and the amount to be paid in consideration; the names, identity, title and address of any other persons who will be beneficial owners of such stock or otherwise share an interest or ownership in said stock, or who will pay any portion of the consideration; whether said stock is to be pledged as security for any loan; whether a loan has been committed or is intended for the subscription and purchase of said stock, and if so, the name and address of such person or corporation which is intended to loan funds for said purchase; the names of any cosigners, guarantors, partners or other persons liable for the repayment of any loan financing the purchase of such stock. Provided, however, that the verified statement of subscribers to stock shall be confidential and privileged from public disclosure prior to the final determination by the Board of the application for a charter, unless the Board shall find that public disclosure prior to public hearing and final determination of the charter application is necessary to a full development of the factual record. Subject to the above qualification, the list of incorporators and proposed officers and directors who support the application for a charter shall be available to public inspection.

C. The Commissioner shall require deposit of such charter fees as are required by law and shall proceed to conduct a thorough investigation of the application, the applicants and their personnel, and the charter conditions alleged. The actual expense of such investigation and report shall be paid by the applicants, and the Commissioner may require a deposit in an estimated amount, the balance to be paid in full prior to hearing of the application. A written report of the investigation shall be furnished to the State Banking Board and shall be made available to all interested parties at their request.

D. Upon filing of the application, the Commissioner shall promptly set the time and place for public hearing of the application for charter, giving the applicants and such other banks in the same trade area reasonable notice thereof. After full and public hearing the Board shall vote and determine whether the necessary conditions set out in Section A above have been established. Should the Board, or a majority of the Board, determine all of the said conditions affirmatively, then the application shall be approved; if not, then the application shall be denied. If approved, and when the Commissioner receives satisfactory evidence that the capital has been paid in full in cash, the Commissioner shall deliver to the incorporators a certified copy of the Articles of Association, and the bank shall come into corporate existence. Provided however, that the State Banking Board may make its approval of any application conditional, and in such event shall set out such condition in the resolution granting the charter, and the Commissioner shall not deliver the certified copy of the Articles of Association until such condition has been met, after which the Commissioner shall in writing inform the State Banking Board as to compliance with such condition and delivery of the Articles of Association.

E. The provisions of the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) governing contested cases do not apply to charter applications filed for the purpose of assuming the assets and liabilities of any bank deemed by the Commissioner to be in an unsafe condition.

Art. 342-312. Amendment of Articles of Association—Rights of Stockholders upon Increase in Capital—Stock Option Plans

Subject to the provisions of this Code, any state bank may amend its articles of association for any lawful purpose.

If the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, at any regular meeting of stockholders, or any special meeting called for that purpose, vote to amend the charter, the board of directors shall prepare, execute in the manner provided for the execution of articles of association, and file with the Commissioner an amendment to the articles of association. If the Commissioner finds that the amendment is not violative of law and does not prejudice the interest of depositors and creditors or the public, he shall approve such amendment and deliver to the bank a certified copy thereof, and said amendment shall thereupon become effective; provided, however, that if a state bank does not have the power to receive demand deposits, no amendments of its articles of association adopting any power provided under Subsections (a), (b), (c), (d), or (f) of Article 1 of this Chapter and no amendment changing the domicile of any state bank shall be effective until approved by the State Banking Board in the manner provided for the approval of an original application for charter. Any state bank may amend its articles of association to extend its corporate existence for a perpetual period or for any period of years.

Each stockholder of a state bank shall be entitled to his proportionate part of any increase of stock effected out of surplus funds or undivided profits, and shall be entitled to subscribe for his proportionate share of any capital increase to be paid in cash; provided, however, that each stockholder or his assignee, in event he elects to assign such rights of subscription, shall subscribe for and pay the amount of such subscription to the corporation within ten (10) days after the stockholders have adopted such amendment, otherwise the board of directors may allocate the unsubscribed or unpaid portion of the increase among the other stockholders or otherwise as they deem to the best interest of the bank.

With prior approval of the owners of record of two-thirds of the capital stock, shares of stock in a bank, which are created by a capital increase, may be allocated to and purchased by the bank out of its surplus which is not certified or out of its undivided profits to be held by the bank for fulfilling the requirements of an officer or employee stock option or bonus plan, whereby officers or employees, or both, of the bank are given options to purchase or a bonus of shares of the bank's capital stock at a specified price, subject to the following requirements and restrictions:

The number of shares so held shall not, at any time, exceed five percent (5%) of the total number of shares outstanding in the hands of other stockholders. Employee benefit plans, including employee stock option plans, stock bonus plans, restricted stock option or bonus plans, or any other plans, the sole purpose of which is to compensate employees of the bank for services rendered to the bank, authorized under this Article, may not extend beyond a period of ten years from the date of issuance. No officer or employee who owns or controls more than five percent (5%) of the bank's capital stock shall be eligible to participate or to continue participation in a stock option plan authorized by this Article. [Amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 624, ch. 289, § 1, eff. May 24, 1979.]

Art. 342-314. Change of Domicile

No state bank may change its domicile to a location outside the county where it is located. No state bank may change its domicile to another location in the same county without first having received approval for such change from the State Banking Board in the manner provided for the approval of an original application for a charter. Notwithstanding the above provisions, a bank which is domiciled in an incorporated or unincorporated city located in two or more counties may change its domicile to any place located within the county of its domicile or within the same city after receiving the approval of the State Banking Board as above provided.

[Amended by Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 25, ch. 10, § 1, eff. March 10, 1977.]

CHAPTER FOUR. STOCK, STOCKHOLDERS, BY-LAWS, DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES

Article

342-401a. Transfer of Stock—Review by Commissioner.

342-411a. Exemption from Securities Law.

Art. 342-401a. Transfer of Stock—Review by Commissioner

A. No person may acquire any voting security of a state bank or of any corporation or other entity owning voting securities of a state bank if, after the acquisition, the person would own or possess the power to vote twenty-five per cent (25%) or more of the voting securities of the bank unless an application is filed with the Commissioner for his review of the proposed transaction and for his action, if any, as provided in this Article.

B. The application shall be on a form prescribed by the Commissioner and shall be made under oath. The application shall, except to the extent expressly waived by the Commissioner, contain the following information:

(1) the identity, personal history, business background and experience, and financial condition of each person by whom or on whose behalf the acquisition is to be made, including a description of the managerial resources and future prospects of each acquiring party and a description of any material pending legal or administrative proceedings in which he is a party;

(2) the terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(3) the identity, source, and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition, a description of the transaction, the names of the parties, and arrangements, agreements, or understandings with such persons;

(4) any plans or proposals which any acquiring party making the acquisition may have to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets or merge it with any company, or to make any other major changes in its business or corporate structure or management;

(5) the terms and conditions of any offer, invitation, agreement, or arrangement under which any voting security will be acquired and any contract affecting such security or its financing after it is acquired; and

(6) such other information that the Commissioner by rule shall require to be furnished in an application as well as any information that the Commissioner orders to be included in the particular application being filed.

The applicant shall pay the appropriate filing fee when he files the application. A "person" proposing to acquire voting securities subject to the provisions of this Article includes an individual, two (2) or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination of the foregoing, and the information required by the Commissioner may be required of each member of the group, as directed by the Commissioner. Information obtained by the Commissioner under this Article is confidential and may not be disclosed by the Commissioner or any officer or employee of the Banking Department, except that the Commissioner may in his discretion, if he deems it necessary or proper to the enforcement of the laws of this state or the United States and to the best interest of the public, divulge such information to any department, agency, or instrumentality of the state or federal government, and provided that notice of the application, its date of filing, and the identity of all parties thereto shall be submitted to the Texas Register by the Commissioner upon receipt of the said application and shall be published in the next issue thereof following the date such information is received.

C. The Commissioner shall issue an order denying an application if he finds that:

(1) the acquisition would substantially lessen competition or would in any manner be in restraint of trade and would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of a combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the banking industry in any part of the State, unless he also finds that the anticompetitive effects of the proposed acquisition are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of acquisition in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served and that the proposed acquisition is not in violation of any law of this State or the United States;

(2) the poor financial condition of any acquiring party might jeopardize the financial stability of the bank being acquired;

(3) plans or proposals to liquidate or sell the bank or its assets are not in the best interest of the bank;

(4) the experience, ability, standing, competence, trustworthiness, or integrity of the applicant is such that the acquisition would not be in the best interest of the bank;

(5) the bank will not be solvent, have adequate capital structure, or be in compliance with the laws of this State after the acquisition;

(6) the applicant has failed to furnish all of the information pertinent to the application reasonably requested by the Commissioner; or

(7) the applicant is not acting in good faith.

D. If an application filed under this Article is not denied by the Commissioner within thirty (30) days after it is filed, the transaction may be consummated. The Commissioner may, before the expiration of the thirty-day period, give the applicant written notice that the application will not be denied, in which case the transaction may be consummated. Any agreement entered into by the applicants and the Commissioner as a condition that the application will not be denied is enforceable against the bank and is considered for all purposes an agreement under the provisions of this Code.

E. If the Commissioner issues an order denying an application, the applicant is entitled to a hearing if he requests one in writing no later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the day the application is filed or the fifteenth (15th) day after the day the application is denied, whichever date is later. After hearing the matter, the Commissioner shall, within thirty (30) days, enter a final order either affirming his denial or withdrawing his denial of the application. An applicant may not appeal the Commissioner's denial of an application or order affirming his denial until a final order is entered. Any applicant herein shall have the right to appeal such final order to the district court of Travis County, Texas, and not elsewhere, against the Banking Commissioner of Texas as defendant. Said action shall have precedence over all other causes on the docket of a different nature. The action shall not be limited to questions of law and the substantial evidence rule shall not apply, but such action shall be tried and determined upon a trial de novo to the same extent as now provided for in the case of an appeal from the justice court to the county court. Either party to said action may appeal to the appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said appeal shall be at once returnable to said appellate court having jurisdiction of said cause and said action so appealed shall have precedence in said appellate court over all causes of a different character therein pending.

The Commissioner shall not be required to give any appeal bond in any cause arising hereunder. The filing of an appeal pursuant to this Article shall not stay the order of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant.

F. This Article does not apply to:

(1) the acquisition of securities in connection with the exercise of a security interest or otherwise by way of foreclosure on default in the payment of a debt previously contracted for in good faith, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of such foreclosure to the Commissioner;

(2) transactions governed by Article 8, 9, or 10 of Chapter III of this Code;¹

(3) transactions requiring the prior approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C.A., Sec. 1841, et seq., and 26 U.S.C.A., Sec. 1101, et seq.);

(4) acquisitions by the owner of more than fifty per cent (50%) of the voting securities of the bank; or acquisitions of less than ten per cent (10%) of the voting securities of the bank in any one (1) year by the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more, but not more than fifty per cent (50%), of those voting securities, provided that such acquisition does not result in the owner of twenty-five per cent (25%) or more acquiring fifty per cent (50%) or more of the voting securities;

(5) acquisitions or transfers by operation of law or by will or intestate succession, provided that the person acquiring such securities does not vote the securities so acquired without having given written notice of acquisition to the Commissioner; or

(6) any transaction which the Commissioner by rule or order may exempt as not being contemplated by the purposes of this Article or the regulation of which is not necessary or appropriate to achieve the objectives of this Article.

No provision of this Section shall excuse or diminish the notice requirements provided elsewhere in this Code.

G. No provision of this Article shall be construed to prevent the Commissioner from investigating, commenting upon, or seeking to enjoin or set aside any transfer of voting securities, whether the transfer is included within this Article or not, if the Commissioner deems the transfer to be against the public interest.

H. If it appears to the Commissioner that any person has committed or is about to commit a violation of this Article or any rule or order of the Commissioner adopted under it, the Attorney General on behalf of the Commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the violation and for any other equitable relief as the nature of the case may require.

I. Any person who willfully and knowingly makes a materially false or misleading statement to the Commissioner with respect to the information required herein may be fined in an amount not exceeding Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000), or be confined in jail for a period not to exceed one (1) year, or both. This provision is cumulative of other remedies contained herein.

J. The Commissioner by rule shall adopt a schedule of fees for the filing of applications and the holding of hearings. The schedule may be graduated so that those applications and hearings that are more difficult to review or administer will require a larger fee. An application fee is not refundable on denial of the application, but the Commissioner may refund a portion of the fee if the application is withdrawn before he completes review of it. Fees collected under this Article shall be retained by the Department and may be used only for expenses of the Department.

Art. 342-402. Stockholders' Meetings—Quorum—Voting

The stockholders of each state bank shall hold one regular meeting each year at the time prescribed in its bylaws and such special meetings as may be deemed necessary after notice as prescribed in the bylaws. At all stockholders' meetings the owners of a majority of the capital stock, present in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum. In the absence of a quorum, a stockholders' meeting may be adjourned from time to time without notice to the stockholders. Each stockholder of record shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by such stockholder, which vote may be cast in person or by proxy duly authorized in writing filed among the records of the bank. Stock owned of record by an estate shall be voted by its personal representative, and stock held in a fiduciary capacity shall be voted by the fiduciary, provided, however, that in the election of directors, shares of its own stock held solely by a state bank in any such capacity, whether registered in its own name in such capacity or in the name of its nominee, shall not be voted by the bank unless under the terms of the will or trust, the manner in which such shares shall be voted may be determined by a donor or beneficiary of the will or trust and unless such donor or beneficiary actually directs how such shares shall be voted, and shares of its own stock held by state bank and one or more persons in any such capacities may be voted by such other person or persons in the same manner as if such person or persons were the sole personal representative or sole trustee. Whenever shares of stock cannot be voted by reason of being held by the bank as sole personal representative or sole trustee, such shares shall be excluded in determining whether matters voted upon by the shareholders were adopted by the requisite percentage of shares.

Section 2 of the 1977 Act provided as follows:

"Any provision or part of a provision in the Texas Banking Code of 1943, as amended (Article 342-101 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which is in conflict with the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed to the extent of the conflict only."

Art. 342-410. Directors, Officers and Employees—Liability—Reimbursement for Expenses

Except as otherwise provided by statute, directors and officers of state banks shall be liable for financial losses sustained by state banks to the extent that directors and officers of other corporations are now responsible for such losses in equity and common law. Any officer or director who does not approve of any act or omission of the board, and desires to relieve himself from any personal liability for such act or omission shall promptly announce his opposition to such act or omission and cause such opposition to be spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting. If for any reason such opposition is not spread upon the minutes of the directors' meeting, he shall promptly report the facts to the Commissioner.

Any person may be indemnified or reimbursed by a state bank, through action of its board, for reasonable expenses actually incurred by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he is a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of said bank. The board may authorize the purchase by the bank of insurance covering the indemnification of directors, officers or employees. If there is a compromise of such an action or threatened action, there shall be no indemnification or reimbursement for the amount paid to settle the claim or for reasonable expenses incurred in connection with such claim without the vote, or the written consent, of the owners of record of a majority of the stock of the bank. No such person shall be indemnified or reimbursed if he has been finally adjudged to have been guilty of, or liable for, willful misconduct, gross neglect of duty, or a criminal act. This article shall not bar any right or action to which such person would be entitled at common law or any other statute of this State.

Art. 342-411a. Exemption from Securities Law

A person who is an officer, director, or employee of a state bank or national bank domiciled in the state with less than five hundred (500) shareholders is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities issued by the bank of which that person is an officer, director, or employee. An officer, director, or employee may not be compensated for services provided under this Article.

Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 348, ch. 160, amending various provisions of The Securities Act (art. 581-1 et seq.), provided in § 10:

"This Act does not affect Section 11.01, Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or Article 11a, Chapter IV, The Texas Banking Code of 1943, as added (Article 342-411a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes)."

CHAPTER FIVE. LOANS AND INVESTMENTS

Article

342-512. Investment in a Bank.

Art. 342-507. Limit of Liability of Any One Borrower—Exceptions—Penalty

No state bank shall permit any person or any corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus. The phrase "indebted or in any other way liable" shall be construed to include liability as partner or otherwise. The above limitation shall not apply to the following classes of indebtedness or liability:

1. Liability as endorser or guarantor of commercial or business paper discounted by or assigned to the bank by the actual owner thereof who has acquired it in the ordinary course of business.
2. Indebtedness evidenced by bills of exchange or drafts drawn against actually existing values and secured by a lien upon goods in transit with shippers' order bills of lading or comparable instruments attached.
3. Indebtedness evidenced by notes or other paper secured by liens upon agricultural products, manufactured goods, or other chattels in storage in bonded warehouses or elevators with warehouse or elevator receipts attached, cotton yard tickets, signed by a bonded weigher, when the value of the security is not less than one hundred twenty-five per cent (125%) of the indebtedness, and the bank's interest therein is adequately insured against loss, with insurance policies or certificates of insurance attached.
4. Deposit in a reserve depository, or a Federal Reserve Bank.
5. Indebtedness of another state or national bank arising out of short-term loans when such loans are made out of the excess cash reserve funds of the lending bank and have settlement periods of less than one week.

6. Indebtedness arising out of the daily transaction of the business of any clearing house association in this State.

7. Bonds and other legally created general obligations of any State or of any county, city, municipality or political subdivision thereof and indebtedness of the United States of America, or any instrumentality or agency of the United States Government.

8. Any portion of any indebtedness which the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest.

9. Liability under an agreement by a third party to repurchase from the bank an indebtedness that the United States Government or any agency or instrumentality of the United States Government has unconditionally agreed to purchase or has unconditionally guaranteed as to payment of both principal and interest, to the extent that the agreed repurchase price does not exceed the purchase price agreed to or value guaranteed by the United States, its agency or instrumentality.

A state bank may permit any person, partnership, association or corporation to become indebted or in any other way liable to it in an amount equal to or less than fifteen per cent (15%) of its capital and certified surplus in addition to any indebtedness or liability of such person, partnership, association or corporation to the bank in an amount not in excess of twenty-five per cent (25%) of its capital and certified surplus, when such additional indebtedness or liability to the bank is secured by bonds or notes of the United States issued since April 24, 1917, certificates of indebtedness of the United States, Treasury bills of the United States, or obligations fully guaranteed both as to principal and interest by the United States, the market value of which security is at all times not less than one hundred twenty per cent (120%) of such indebtedness or liability to the bank.

Any officer, director or employee of a state bank who knowingly violates or participates in the violation of any provision of this Article shall upon conviction be fined not more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) or confined in the State penitentiary not more than five (5) years, or both.

Art. 342-508. Loan Fees Prohibited—Exception

No bank shall charge or collect any loan fee or any other charge, by whatever name called, for the granting of a loan unless authorized by law. Provided, however, a bank may require an applicant for a loan or discount to pay the cost of any abstract, attorney's opinion or title insurance policy, or other form of insurance, and filing or recording fees or appraisal fees. Expenses necessary or proper for the protection of the lender, and actually incurred in connection with the making of the loan may be charged. In all loan transactions in which the amount loaned is $100 or more and the loan period is one month or more, a bank may charge any borrower the reasonable value of services rendered in connection with the making of any loan, including the drawing of notes, the taking of acknowledgments and affidavits, the preparation of financial statements, and the investigation or analysis of the financial responsibility of the borrower or any endorser, surety or co-signer, in an amount agreed upon, but not to exceed $15 for each loan transaction, which shall be in lieu of all interest and other charges which could otherwise be collected in connection with the loan. No bank shall induce or permit any person, or husband and wife, to be obligated directly or indirectly under more than one loan contract under this article at the same time for the purpose, or with the effect, of obtaining a higher authorized charge than would otherwise be permitted. The charge authorized herein shall not apply to any renewal or extension of an obligation on which the charge has been previously imposed; provided, however, that such renewal or extension may bear interest at the rate that is otherwise provided by law. The charge shall not apply to a loan transaction wherein the borrower applies all or a portion of the loan proceeds to discharge a prior loan made by the same lender to the same borrower and in connection with which the above charge was imposed.

Art. 342-512. Investment in a Bank

A state bank may invest its capital and certified surplus in another bank, except that:

(1) the investing bank may not acquire or retain ownership, control, or power to vote more than five percent of any class of voting securities of the other bank; and

(2) the investing bank may not invest more than five percent of its capital and certified surplus in the other bank.

CHAPTER NINE. GENERAL PROVISIONSArticle

342-903a. Unmanned Teller Machines.

342-912. Acquisition of Bank or Holding Company under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Recommendations of Commissioners.

342-913. Acquisition of Nonbanking Institution under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Order and Appeal.

Art. 342-903. Branch Banking Prohibited

No State, national or private bank shall engage in business in more than one place, maintain any branch office, or cash checks or receive deposits except in its own banking house. For purposes of this article "banking house" means the building in whose offices the business of the bank is conducted and which is functionally one place of business, including (a) office facilities whose nearest wall is located within five hundred (500) feet of the nearest wall of the central building and is physically connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected office facility or by closed circuit television or pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device, and (b) in addition, if authorized in the manner hereinafter provided, not more than one (1) automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom and is connected to the central building by tunnel, passageway or hallway providing direct access between the central building and the connected automobile drive-in facility or by closed circuit television, pneumatic tube or other physically connected delivery device. The entire banking house shall for all purposes under the law be considered one integral banking house. The term "automobile drive-in facility" as herein used shall mean a facility offering banking services solely to persons who arrive at such facility in an automobile and remain therein during the transaction of business with the bank.

An automobile drive-in facility whose nearest boundary is located within two thousand (2,000) feet of the nearest wall of the central building but more than five hundred (500) feet therefrom shall be authorized only in the following manner: Written application for authority to operate the same shall be filed with the Commissioner by the bank proposing such facility, which application shall specify the location of the proposed facility. Promptly upon the filing of such written application the Commissioner shall, by registered United States mail, postage prepaid, notify each bank, if any, whose central building is situated within a one (1) mile radius of said proposed facility, hereinafter called the "Interested Banks," of the filing of such application, transmitting with such notice a true copy of said application.

If within thirty (30) days following the mailing of such notice no written protest to the operation of the said proposed facility has been filed with the Commissioner by an Interested Bank, or, if there are no Interested Banks, said proposed facility shall thereupon be fully authorized without the necessity of any further action by the applying bank or by the Commissioner. However, if a written protest to the operation of said proposed facility is filed with the Commissioner during said thirty (30) day period by one or more of the Interested Banks, said application shall be promptly considered by the State Banking Board at a public hearing duly called, noticed and held in the same manner as hearings to consider applications for the granting of bank charters, and authorization to operate said proposed facility shall be granted at such hearing unless the State Banking Board shall find that the operation thereof will substantially and adversely affect one or more of the Interested Banks, in which case authorization shall be denied. National banks and private banks doing business in this State shall voluntarily submit to the jurisdiction of the State Banking Board, and abide by the determination of the Board as to whether or not permission should be granted to establish and operate an additional drive-in facility authorized under this article, provided that any national bank which does not abide by the determination of the Board shall immediately forfeit all rights it may have under State law to act as reserve depository for any State chartered bank and to act as depository for the public funds of the State and any county, city, municipality, school district or any other political subdivision of the State, and such funds shall be immediately withdrawn by the depositor and shall not be deposited thereafter in said national bank unless and until the Commissioner certifies to the depositor that said national bank is conducting its business in compliance with the Board's determinations and orders. In addition the Attorney General shall seek an injunction against any violation of the Board's orders under this article by any national bank or private bank. Any bank adversely affected by a violation of this article may, and the Attorney General, upon request of the Commissioner, shall bring suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin a violation of this article. The party who prevails in such proceeding shall recover costs of suit and reasonable attorney's fees.

Art. 342-903a. Unmanned Teller Machines

Text of section conditioned on 1980 constitutional amendment

Sec. 1. Subject to the provisions of this article, a bank or group of banks, for the convenience of customers, may install, maintain, operate, or utilize one or more unmanned teller machines at locations separate and apart from the banking house within the county or the city of the bank's domicile.

Sec. 2. As used in this article, the following terms shall have these meanings, unless otherwise clearly indicated by the context in which they are used:

(a) "Unmanned teller machine" means a machine, other than a telephone, capable of being operated solely by a customer, by which a customer may communicate to the bank:

(1) a request to withdraw money directly from the customer's account or from the customer's account pursuant to a line of credit previously authorized by the bank for the customer;

(2) an instruction to deposit funds into the customer's account with the bank;

(3) an instruction to transfer funds between one or more accounts maintained by the customer with the bank but not as between the customer's account and an account maintained in the bank or in some other financial institution by some other customer;

(4) an instruction to apply funds against an indebtedness of the customer to the bank; or

(5) a request for information concerning the balance of the account of the customer with the bank.

(b) "Bank" means a state, national, or private bank domiciled in this state.

Sec. 3. Authorization under this article for a bank to install, maintain, operate, or utilize one or more unmanned teller machines within the county or city of the bank's domicile does not preclude the use of bank or other personnel for the following purposes:

(a) to attend an unmanned teller machine on a temporary basis to instruct customers in the use of the machines; or

(b) to collect deposits or other funds placed in the machine, to replenish money dispensed by the machine, or to otherwise service, repair, or attend to the needs of an unmanned teller machine at frequent intervals.

Sec. 4. Banks shall have the right to share, under a written agreement, in the use of any unmanned teller machine that is located within the county or the city of the bank's domicile on a reasonable, nondiscriminatory basis and on the following conditions:

(a) any bank utilizing one or more unmanned teller machines may be required to meet necessary and reasonable technical standards and to pay charges for the use of the machines. The standards or charges imposed shall be reasonable, fair, equitable, and nondiscriminatory among banks. Any charges imposed shall not exceed an equitable proportion of both the cost of establishing the unmanned teller machines, including provisions for amortization of development costs and capital expenditures over a reasonable period of time, and the cost of operation and maintenance of the machine, plus a reasonable return on those costs, and those charges shall be related to the services provided to the bank or its customers.

(b) where more than one bank utilizes an unmanned teller machine and any bank uses, allows the use, or is allowed to use visual or oral data identifying itself, each bank sharing the machine shall receive equal prominence in the visual and oral data available to the public at or adjacent to the machine, and no advertising with regard to the machine shall suggest, imply, or claim that any particular bank has exclusive control over the use of the machine.

Sec. 5. Where the city in which a bank is domiciled lies in more than one county, the bank may install, maintain, operate, utilize, or share one or more unmanned teller machines within the corporate limits of the city in addition to machines in the county of its domicile.

Sec. 6. On written complaint by a bank that is utilizing or that seeks to utilize on unmanned teller machine that it is being denied the use of the machine on a reasonable, nondiscriminatory basis and that the machine is, therefore, not being operated in the best interests of the public, the State Banking Board shall have jurisdiction to determine whether or not the bank has been denied the right to utilize the machine under this article. After a hearing conducted by the board in accordance with the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act, as amended (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), the board may enter an order directing compliance with this article and prescribing the manner and means of complying with this article.

Sec. 7. In the event that operation of an unmanned teller machine is to be discontinued, notice of intent to discontinue shall be given to the State Banking Board not less than 60 days before the date on which operation of the machine is to be discontinued, and a copy of that notice shall be sent to all institutions using the machine. The State Banking Board, on complaint by an affected bank or on its own motion, may delay discontinuance of an unmanned teller machine for a period of not more than 60 days past the proposed date of discontinuance if it finds that the banks sharing the unmanned teller machine would be unfairly prejudiced by discontinuance on the proposed date.

Sec. 8. Any person who violates this article or any order of the board issued pursuant to this article is subject to a civil penalty of not less than $50 nor more than $1,000 for each day of violation and for each act of violation. All civil penalties recovered under this article shall be paid to the Banking Department under Article 12, Chapter I of this code, as amended (Article 342-112, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), for the use of the State Banking Board in enforcing this article.

Sec. 9. Whenever it appears that a person has violated or is violating or is threatening to violate this article or any order of the State Banking Board issued pursuant to this article, the board may cause a civil suit to be instituted in a district court for injunctive relief to restrain the person from continuing the violation or threat or for the assessment and recovery of the civil penalty provided by this article, or for both injunctive relief, and civil penalty. At the request of the board, the attorney general shall institute and conduct a suit in the name of the state for injunctive relief or for the recovery and receipt of a civil penalty, or for both injunctive relief and penalty.

A suit for injunctive relief or for recovery of a civil penalty, or for both, may be brought either in the county where the defendant resides, or in the county where the violation or threat of violation occurs. In any suit to enjoin a violation or threat of violation of this article or of any order of the board, the court may grant the State Banking Board, without bond or other undertaking, any prohibitory or mandatory injunction as the facts may warrant, including temporary restraining orders after notice and hearing, temporary injunctions, and permanent injunctions.

Sec. 10. Banks, under a written agreement, may share unmanned teller machines with savings and loan associations or credit unions on the following conditions:

(1) only those functions permitted for banks under Section 2 of this article are available to the customers of any savings and loan association or credit union using the unmanned teller machine or machines; and

(2) the unmanned teller machine or machines may be utilized by a savings and loan association or credit union for the use of their customers only within the county and the city where the savings and loan association or credit union is domiciled and has its principal place of business.

Sec. 11. Nothing in this article abridges, modifies, affects, or expands any authority under existing law for any savings and loan association or credit union to operate unmanned teller machines separate and apart from their principal places of business.

Sec. 12. This article does not apply to:

- (1) an unmanned teller machine located at a bank's banking house; or
- (2) the use of an unmanned teller machine, wherever located, solely to withdraw cash.

Sec. 13. The legislature finds that the Congress of the United States has amended the Consumer Protection Act, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1601 et seq.), through passage of the Electronic Fund Transfer Act¹ and that the Consumer Protection Act is sufficiently comprehensive to provide for the full and complete protection of the rights of consumers using unmanned teller machines in this state. The legislature further finds that it would not be in the best interest of the public of this state to have separate regulation of the consumer protection aspects of unmanned teller machines by both the state and federal governments. To ensure the continuing protection of consumers using the unmanned teller machines authorized by this article, the State Banking Board and the attorney general are directed to make a continuing study of the substantive and procedural provisions of the Consumer Protection Act of the regulations promulgated under that Act, and of the effectiveness of enforcement of that Act in this state and to report their findings and recommendations to the legislature on or before June 30, 1981, and on the same date every fourth year after 1981.

[Added by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1187, ch. 578, § 1, eff. upon adoption of S.J.R.No.35.]

Section 2 of the 1979 Act provided:

"This Act takes effect on the later of:

- (1) the 270th day after approval by the qualified voters of this state of an amendment to the Texas Constitution providing that the legislature may authorize banks to use unmanned teller machines within the county and the city of their domicile, on a shared basis, to serve the public convenience; or
- (2) December 31, 1980. If the constitutional amendment is not adopted, this Act has no effect."

Art. 342-910a. Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Alternative Legal Holidays for Banks or Trust Companies—Discrimination Prohibited

Sec. 1. Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Notwithstanding any existing provisions of law relative to negotiable or nonnegotiable instruments or commercial paper, but subject to the provisions of Section 2 of this article, only the following enumerated days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed: Saturdays, Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25.

When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following such Sunday shall also be a legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company in Texas shall remain closed.

All such legal holidays shall be neither business days nor banking days under the laws of this State or the United States, and any act authorized, required or permitted to be performed at or by any bank or trust company on such days may be performed on the next succeeding business day and no liability or loss of right of any kind shall result therefrom to any bank or trust company.

Sec. 2. Alternative Legal Holidays For Banks Or Trust Companies. Any bank or trust company may elect to designate days on which it may close for general banking purposes pursuant to the provisions of this section, instead of Section 1 of this article, provided that any bank or trust company which has elected to be governed by this section shall remain closed on the following enumerated days, which days are declared to be legal holidays for banking purposes: Sundays, January 1, the third Monday in February, the last Monday in May, July 4, the first Monday in September, the second Monday in October, the 11th day of November, the fourth Thursday in November, and December 25. When the dates July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Saturday, then the Friday immediately preceding such Saturday shall also be a legal holiday for all banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. When the dates January 1, July 4, November 11, or December 25 fall on Sunday, then the Monday next following each Sunday shall also be a mandatory legal holiday for banking purposes on which each bank or trust company shall remain closed. Except as herein provided, any bank or trust company doing business in this state may, at its option, elect to be governed by this section and close for general banking purposes either on Saturday or on any other weekday of any week in the year in addition to mandatory legal holidays, provided:

- (a) such day is designated at least 15 days in advance by adoption of a resolution concurred in by a majority of the board of directors thereof (or, if an unincorporated bank or trust company, by its owner or a majority of its owners, if there be more than one owner); and
- (b) notice of the day or days designated in such resolution is posted in a conspicuous place in such bank or trust company for at least 15 days in advance of the day or days designated; and

(c) a copy of such resolution certified by the president or cashier of such bank or trust company is filed with the Banking Department of Texas.

The filing of such copy of resolution as aforesaid with the Banking Department of Texas shall be deemed to be proof in all courts in this state that such bank or trust company has duly complied with the provisions of this section. Any such election to so close shall remain in effect until a subsequent resolution shall be adopted and notice thereof posted and a copy thereof filed in the manner above provided.

If any bank or trust company elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday as herein provided, it may, at its option, remain open on such day for the purpose of performing limited banking services. Notice of election to perform limited banking services shall be contained in the resolution and notices, above provided, with respect to closing for general banking purposes. Limited banking services may include such of the ordinary and usual services provided by the bank as the board of directors may determine, except the following: making loans, renewing or extending loans, certifying checks, and issuing cashier's checks.

Such day upon which such bank or trust company may elect to close for general banking purposes shall with respect to such institution be treated as a legal holiday for all purposes and not a business day; provided that if such bank shall elect to perform limited banking services on such day, the same shall not be deemed a legal holiday for the performance of limited banking services. Any bank or trust company which elects to close for general banking purposes on Saturday or any other weekday but which elects to perform limited banking services shall not be subjected to any liability or loss of rights for performing limited banking services or refusing to perform any other banking services on such day.

Art. 342-912. Acquisition of Bank or Holding Company under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Recommendations of Commissioner

Sec. 1. A state bank, a national bank in the state, or a bank holding company seeking to acquire a state bank or national bank within the state, that submits an application for approval to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842), shall transmit a copy of the application, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. If the application is made by a state bank or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a state bank, the commissioner, on receipt of the notice prescribed by Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)), shall respond in writing within the time limit prescribed by that subsection. The response shall set forth the views and recommendations of the commissioner concerning the application. If the commissioner disapproves the application, he shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing held pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)).

Sec. 3. If the application is made by a national bank in the state or involves the acquisition of the voting shares or assets of a national bank in the state, the commissioner shall advise the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System of any views and recommendations he may have concerning the application and other material before the board of governors in connection with the application. If the commissioner recommends to the board of governors that the application be denied, he shall request that a hearing pursuant to Subsection (b) of Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1842(b)) be held. If the board of governors should grant such request, the commissioner shall, with the assistance of the attorney general, present evidence at the hearing as hereinabove provided. If the board of governors should deny such request, the commissioner is authorized and directed to pursue the remedies available to him as an aggrieved party in accordance with the provisions of Section 9 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Section 1848).

Art. 342-913. Acquisition of Nonbanking Institution under Federal Law—Notice to Commissioner—Order and Appeal

Sec. 1. A bank holding company doing business in the state that submits an application or notice to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System concerning an acquisition or activity regulated by Section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1843), other than an application or notice concerning an activity initiated prior to the effective date of this article, shall transmit a copy of the application or notice, as and when finally accepted for filing by the board of governors, to the commissioner. The commissioner may on his own motion order a public hearing on the matter. The commissioner shall order a hearing if the holding company requests a hearing in writing at the time it transmits the application or notice to the commissioner.

Sec. 2. After the close of the hearing, if one is held, the commissioner shall disapprove the acquisition or activity unless he finds that it can reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience or increased competition, that outweigh possible adverse effects such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interest, or unsound banking practices.

Sec. 3. An acquisition or activity is approved if:

(1) the applicant does not request a hearing and the commissioner does not, within 30 days after the application or notice is filed, order that a hearing be held; or

(2) a hearing is held and the commissioner's final order approves the acquisition or activity.

Sec. 4. The Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act¹ governs proceedings under this article, except that the final order of the commissioner approving or disapproving the acquisition or activity shall be rendered within 30 days after the hearing is closed.

Sec. 5. If it appears to the commissioner that any person has engaged in or is about to engage in an acquisition or activity subject to this article without complying with the provisions of this article or in violation of an order of the commissioner entered pursuant to this article, the attorney general on behalf of the commissioner may apply to the district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the acquisition or activity and for any other equitable relief the nature of the case may require. A "person" subject to the provisions of this section shall include an individual, two or more individuals acting in concert, any type of partnership, corporation, association, syndicate, trust, or any other organization, or any combination thereof.

The commissioner may by order revoke or suspend the exemption under this clause (c) with respect to any security if he has reasonable cause to believe that

Provided, however, this exemption shall not be applicable to agents and salesmen of any farmers' cooperative association or farmers' cooperative society when the sale of such securities is made to non-members, or when the sale of

(8) At the time of such sale, the issuer of such securities shall be a going concern actually engaged in business and shall then be neither in an organization stage nor in receivership or bankruptcy; and

Any interested party aggrieved by any decision of the commissioner pursuant to such hearing may appeal to the district court of Travis County, Texas, in the manner provided by Section 27 of this Act. A judgment sustaining the commissioner in the action complained of shall not bar after one year an application by the plaintiff for approval of its manual or manuals hereunder, nor shall a judgment in favor of the plaintiff prevent the commissioner from thereafter revoking such recognition for any proper cause which may thereafter accrue or be discovered.

Such statement shall list all assets in detail and shall show how the value of such assets was determined, that is, whether the value set forth in said statement represents the actual cost in money of such assets, or whether such value represents their

Anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding,

A. If it appears to the commissioner at any time that the sale or proposed sale or method of sale of any securities, whether exempt or not, would not be in compliance with this Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, the commissioner may, after notice to the issuer, the registrant and the person on whose behalf such securities are being or are to be offered, by personal service or the sending of a confirmed telegraphic notice, and after opportunity for a hearing (at a time fixed by the commissioner) within 15 days after such notice by personal service or the sending of such telegraphic notice, if the commissioner shall determine at such hearing that such sale would not be in compliance with the Act or would tend to work a fraud on any purchaser thereof or would not be fair, just or equitable to any purchaser thereof, issue a written cease and desist order, prohibiting or suspending the sale of such securities or denying or revoking the registration of such securities. No dealer, agent or salesman shall thereafter knowingly sell or offer for sale any security named in such cease and desist order.

B. No person shall make an offer within this State after notice in writing has been given him by the commissioner that, in the commissioner's opinion, the same contains any statement that is false or misleading or otherwise likely to deceive a reader thereof.

C. The commissioner may, in the exercise of reasonable discretion hereunder, at any time, require a dealer to file with the commissioner a list of securities which he has offered for sale or has advertised for sale within this State during the preceding six months, or which he is at the time offering for sale or advertising, or any portion thereof.

For effect of the 1979 amendatory act on arts. 852a, § 11.01, and 342-411a, see note under art. 581-4.

Art. 581-25-1. Receiverships of Persons or Assets of Persons Acting as Dealers

A. Whenever it shall appear to the commissioner, either upon complaint or otherwise, that:

(1) any person or company, a substantial portion of whose business consists of acting as a dealer (as defined in Subsection C of Section 4 of this Act), whether or not duly registered by the commissioner as in this Act provided, shall have engaged in any act, transaction, practice, or course of business declared by Section 32 of this Act to be a fraudulent practice;

(2) such person or company shall have acted as a dealer in connection with such fraudulent practice; and

(3) the appointment of a receiver for such person or company, or the assets of such person or company, is necessary in order to conserve and protect the assets of such person or company for the benefit of customers, security holders, and other actual and potential claimants of such person or company the commissioner may request the attorney general to bring an action for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company.

B. Upon request by the commissioner pursuant to Subsection A of this Section 25-1, and if it appears to the attorney general that the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 exist with respect to any person or company, the attorney general may bring an action in the name and on behalf of the State of Texas for the appointment of a receiver for such person or company. The facts set forth in the petition for such relief shall be verified by the commissioner upon information and belief. Such action may be brought in a district court of any county wherein the fraudulent practice complained of has been committed in whole or part, or of any county wherein any defendant with respect to whom appointment of a receiver is sought has its principal place of business, and such district court shall have jurisdiction and venue of such action; this provision shall be superior to any other provision of law fixing jurisdiction or venue with regard to suits for receivership. In any such action the attorney general may apply for and on due showing be entitled to have issued the court's subpoena requiring the forthwith appearance of any defendant and his employees, salesmen, or agents and the production of documents, books, and records as may appear necessary for any hearing, to testify and give evidence concerning matters relevant to the appointment of a receiver.

C. In any action brought by the attorney general pursuant to Subsection B of this Section 25-1, the court, upon a proper showing by the attorney general of the existence of the facts enumerated in Paragraphs (1) through (3) of Subsection A of this Section 25-1 with respect to any person or company, may appoint a receiver for such person or company or the assets of such person or company. If such receiver is appointed without notice to and opportunity to be heard for such person or company, such person or company shall be entitled to apply in writing to the court for an order dissolving the receivership, and, if such application is made within 30 days after service upon such person or company of the court's order making such appointment, shall be entitled to a hearing thereon upon 10 days written notice to the attorney general.

D. No person shall be appointed a receiver pursuant to this Section 25-1 unless such person be found by the court, after hearing the views of the attorney general, the commissioner, and, if deemed by the court to be practicable, the person or company against whom such relief is sought, to be qualified to discharge the duties of receiver giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case. No bond for receivership shall be required of the commissioner or attorney general in any proceeding under this Section 25-1 but the court shall require a bond of any receiver appointed hereunder, conditioned upon faithful discharge of the receiver's duties, in an amount found by the court to be sufficient giving due consideration to the probable nature and magnitude of the duties of receiver in the particular case.

E. The remedy of receivership provided by this Section 25-1 shall be in addition to any and all other remedies afforded the commissioner or the attorney general by other provisions of statutory or decisional law of this state, including, without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, any such provision authorizing receiverships.

Art. 581-28. Subpoenas or Other Process in Investigations by Commissioner

The Commissioner may require, by subpoena or summons issued by the Commissioner, the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any books, accounts, records, papers and correspondence or other records or indices showing the names and addresses of the stockholders (except such books of account as are necessary to the continued conduct of the business, which books the Commissioner shall have the right to examine or cause to be examined at the office of the concern and to require copies of such portion thereof as may be deemed necessary touching the matter in question, which copies shall be verified by affidavit of an officer of such concern and shall be admissible in evidence as provided in Section 30 hereof), relating to any matter which the Commissioner has authority by this Act to consider or investigate, and for this purpose the Commissioner may sign subpoenas, administer oaths and affirmations, examine witnesses and receive evidence; provided, however, that all information of every kind and nature contained therein shall be treated as confidential by the Commissioner and shall not be disclosed to the public except under order of court; but nothing in this section shall be interpreted to prohibit or limit the publication of rulings or decisions of the Commissioner nor shall this limitation apply to hearings provided for in Sections 24 and 25 of this Act. In case of disobedience of any subpoena, or of the contumacy of any witness appearing before the Commissioner, the Commissioner may invoke the aid of the District Court within whose jurisdiction any witness may be found, and such court may thereupon issue an order requiring the person subpoenaed to obey the subpoena or give evidence, or produce books, accounts, records, papers, and correspondence touching the matter in question. Any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by such court as contempt thereof.

In the course of an investigation looking to the enforcement of this Act, or in connection with the application of a person or company for registration or to qualify securities, the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner shall have free access to all records of the Board of Insurance Commissioners, including company examination reports to the Board and reports of special investigations made by personnel of the Board, as well as records and reports of and to any other department or agency of the state government. In the event, however, that the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner should give out any information which the law makes confidential, the affected corporation, firm or person shall have a right of action on the official bond of the Commissioner or Deputy for his injuries, in a suit brought in the name of the state at the relation of the injured party.

The Commissioner may in any investigation cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or without the state to be taken in the manner prescribed for depositions in civil actions under the laws of Texas.

Each witness required to attend before the Commissioner shall receive, for each day's attendance, the sum of Two Dollars ($2.00), and shall receive in addition the sum of Ten Cents (10¢) for each mile traveled by such witness by the usual route going to and returning from the place where his presence is required. All disbursements made in the payment of such fees shall be included in and paid in the same manner as is provided for the payment of other expenses incident to the administration and enforcement of this Act as hereinafter provided.

The sheriff's or constable's fee for serving the subpoena shall be the same as those paid the sheriff or constable for similar services. The fees, expenses and costs incurred at or in connection with any hearing may be imposed by the Commissioner upon any party to the record, or may be divided between any and all parties to the record in such proportions as the Commissioner may determine.

Any subpoena, summons, or other process issued by the Commissioner may be served, at the Commissioner's discretion, by the Commissioner, his authorized agent, a sheriff, or a constable.

The Commissioner may, at his discretion, disclose any confidential information in his possession to any governmental authority approved by Board rule; or to any quasi-governmental authority charged with overseeing securities activities which is approved by Board rule. The disclosure does not violate any other provision of this Act or any provision of Chapter 424, Acts of the 63rd Legislature, Regular Session, 1973 (Article 6252-17a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Art. 581-28-1. Adoption of Rules and Regulations

A. For purposes of this Section 28-1, the term "rule and regulation" shall mean any statement by the board of general and future applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of the board. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule or regulation, but does not include statements concerning only the internal management of the board not affecting private rights or procedures or forms or orders adopted or made by the board or the commissioner pursuant to other provisions of this Act.

B. The board may, from time to time, in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, make or adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out and implement the provisions of this Act, including rules and regulations governing registration statements, applications, notices, and reports, and defining any terms, whether or not used in this Act, insofar as the definitions are not inconsistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act. For the purpose of adoption of rules and regulations, the board may classify securities, persons, and matters within its jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. The board may, in its discretion, waive any requirement of any rule or regulation in situations where, in its opinion, such requirement is not necessary in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

C. No rule or regulation may be made or adopted unless the board finds, after notice and opportunity for comment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 28-1, that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act.

D. The board may, by rule or regulation adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1, delegate to the commissioner or the deputy commissioner such of the authority granted to the board under this Section 28-1 to hold hearings for adoption of rules and regulations and to make or adopt rules and regulations, or to waive the requirements thereof, as it may, from time to time, deem appropriate. All rules and regulations made or adopted by the commissioner or the deputy commissioner pursuant to such delegated authority shall be made or adopted in accordance with this Section 28-1.

E. No provision of this Act imposing any liability or penalty applies to any act done or omitted in good faith in conformity with any rule or regulation of the board, notwithstanding that the rule or regulation may later be amended or rescinded or be determined by judicial or other authority to be invalid for any reason.

F. In exercising the power granted by this Section 28-1 to make or adopt rules and regulations, the board shall be bound by and shall follow the provisions of any administrative procedure act or other like act of general applicability to state boards, commissions, or departments having statewide jurisdiction, heretofore or hereafter adopted by the legislature of this state, with respect to procedures for adoption, filing, and taking effect, availability, and declaratory judgments on the validity or applicability of rules and regulations; provided, however, that, if there is no such act of general applicability, the board shall be bound by and shall follow the provisions of Subsections G through L of this Section 28-1 with respect to such matters.

G. A notice of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of any proposed rule or regulation or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of such proposed rule or regulation may be obtained, the date on which the board intends its action to be effective, the place or places to which any person may mail or at which any person may deposit written data, views or arguments relating to the proposed action and the final date by which such data, views or arguments must be received for consideration by the board, which date shall not be earlier than 30 days from the date on which notice was first published in accordance with this Section 28-1.

H. The board, at its discretion, may call a hearing to take public testimony concerning a proposed rule or regulation. If the board calls a hearing, a notice setting forth the time, place, and nature of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County at least 20 days prior to the hearing date. All hearings shall be public.

I. After consideration of all relevant matters presented to the board, the board may make any modifications to the proposed rule or regulation that it shall find necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this Act and the rule or regulation as originally promulgated. The board may then promulgate the rule or regulation, as modified, provided that it shall not be effective until at least 45 days after the date the notice of proposed action was first published pursuant to Subsection G of this Section 28-1. Notice of the adoption of any proposed rule or regulation shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County and shall set forth the full text of the rule or regulation, as adopted, or a summary thereof indicating the place where copies of the full text of the rule or regulation may be obtained.

J. At the time of publication of any notice published pursuant to Subsections G, H, or I of this Section 28-1, the board shall mail a copy of such notice to each person who has requested in writing that copies of such notices be mailed to him and who has paid to the board the fee, if any, prescribed by the board therefor. The failure of the board to mail a copy of any notice to any person or persons or the failure of any person or persons to receive any such copy shall not affect the validity of any rule or regulation adopted by the board pursuant to this Section 28-1 or of any proceedings in connection therewith or pursuant thereto.

K. The board shall maintain a copy of all rules and regulations in effect, for public inspection, at the principal office of the board.

L. The validity of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to the power granted by Subsection B of this Section 28-1 may be determined in any proceeding brought pursuant to any other section of this Act to which the board or the commissioner is a party; otherwise, the validity of any such rule or regulation may be determined only in an action for declaratory judgment in the District Court of Travis County, and not elsewhere, and then only if it is alleged that the rule or regulation, or its threatened application, interferes with or impairs or threatens to interfere with or impair the legal rights or privileges of the plaintiff. The board shall be made a party to any such declaratory judgment action. A declaratory judgment may be rendered whether or not the plaintiff has requested the board to pass upon the validity or applicability of the rule or regulation in question.

Art. 581-33. Civil Liabilities

A. Liability of Sellers.

(1) Registration and Related Violations. A person who offers or sells a security in violation of Section 7, 9 (or a requirement of the Commissioner thereunder), 12, 23B, or an order under 23A of this Act is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security.

(2) Untruth or Omission. A person who offers or sells a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act) by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, is liable to the person buying the security from him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission, or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security. However, a person is not liable if he sustains the burden of proof that either (a) the buyer knew of the untruth or omission or (b) he (the offeror or seller) did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the untruth or omission. The issuer of the security (other than a government issuer identified in Section 5M) is not entitled to the defense in clause (b) with respect to an untruth or omission (i) in a prospectus required in connection with a registration statement under Section 7A, 7B, or 7C, or (ii) in a writing prepared and delivered by the issuer in the sale of a security.

B. Liability of Buyers. A person who offers to buy or buys a security (whether or not the security or transaction is exempt under Section 5 or 6 of this Act) by means of an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, is liable to the person selling the security to him, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the security. However, a person is not liable if he sustains the burden of proof that either (a) the seller knew of the untruth or omission, or (b) he (the offeror or buyer) did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the untruth or omission.

C. Liability of Nonselling Issuers Which Register.

(1) This Section 33C applies only to an issuer which registers under Section 7A, 7B, or 7C of this Act, or under Section 6 of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933,¹ its outstanding securities for offer and sale by or for the owner of the securities.

(2) If the prospectus required in connection with the registration contains, as of its effective date, an untrue statement of a material fact or an omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, the issuer is liable to a person buying the registered security, who may sue either at law or in equity for rescission or for damages if the buyer no longer owns the securities. However, an issuer is not liable if it sustains the burden of proof that the buyer knew of the untruth or omission.

D. Rescission and Damages. For this Section 33:

(1) On rescission, a buyer shall recover (a) the consideration he paid for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment by him, less (b) the amount of any income he received on the security, upon tender of the security (or a security of the same class and series).

(2) On rescission, a seller shall recover the security (or a security of the same class and series) upon tender of (a) the consideration he received for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of receipt by him, less (b) the amount of any income the buyer received on the security.

(3) In damages, a buyer shall recover (a) the consideration he paid for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment by him, less (b) the value of the security at the time he disposed of it plus the amount of any income he received on the security.

(4) In damages, a seller shall recover (a) the value of the security at the time of sale plus the amount of any income the buyer received on the security, less

(b) the consideration paid the seller for the security plus interest thereon at the legal rate from the date of payment to the seller.

(5) For a buyer suing under Section 33C, the consideration he paid shall be deemed the lesser of (a) the price he paid and (b) the price at which the security was offered to the public.

(6) On rescission or as a part of damages, a buyer or a seller shall also recover costs.

(7) On rescission or as a part of damages, a buyer or a seller may also recover reasonable attorney's fees if the court finds that the recovery would be equitable in the circumstances.

E. Time of Tender. Any tender specified in Section 33D may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

F. Liability of Control Persons and Aiders.

(1) A person who directly or indirectly controls a seller, buyer, or issuer of a security is liable under Section 33A, 33B, or 33C jointly and severally with the seller, buyer, or issuer, and to the same extent as if he were the seller, buyer, or issuer, unless the controlling person sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist.

(2) A person who directly or indirectly with intent to deceive or defraud or with reckless disregard for the truth or the law materially aids a seller, buyer, or issuer of a security is liable under Section 33A, 33B, or 33C jointly and severally with the seller, buyer, or issuer, and to the same extent as if he were the seller, buyer, or issuer.

The commission shall maintain a bidders list and shall add or delete names from the list by the application and utilization of applicable standards set forth in Subsection (e) of this section. Bid invitations shall be sent only to those who have expressed a desire to bid on the particular types of items which are the subject of the bid invitation. Use of the bidders list shall not be confined to contract purchases but it may be used by the commission as it may find desirable in making any purchase.

(c) Bid Deposits. When deemed necessary bid deposits in amounts to be set by the commission shall be prescribed in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The commission shall establish and maintain records of bid deposits and their disposition with the cooperation of the state auditor, and upon the award of bids or rejection of all bids, bid deposits shall be returned to unsuccessful bidders making bid deposits. The commission may accept a bid deposit in the form of a blanket bond from any bidder.

(d) Bid Opening Procedure. Bids shall be submitted to the commission, sealed, and identified as bids on the envelope. Bids shall be opened at the time and place stated in the public notices and the invitation to bid. The state auditor or a member of his staff may be present at any bid opening. A tabulation of all bids received shall be available for public inspection under regulations to be established by the commission.

(e) Award of Contract. The commission shall award contracts to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications required. Complying with the specified time limit for submission of written data, samples, or models on or before bid opening time is essential to the materiality of a bid, provided, however, that the commission shall have the authority to waive this provision if the failure to comply is beyond control of the bidder. In determining who is the lowest and best bidder, in addition to price, the commission shall consider:

- (1) the quality, availability, and adaptability of the supplies, materials, equipment, or contractual services, to the particular use required;
- (2) the number and scope of conditions attached to the bid;
- (3) the ability, capacity, and skill of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service required;
- (4) whether the bidder can perform the contract or provide the service promptly, or within the time required, without delay or interference;
- (5) the character, responsibility, integrity, reputation, and experience of the bidder;
- (6) the quality of performance of previous contracts or services;

(7) the previous and existing compliance by the bidder with laws relating to the contract or service;

(8) any previous or existing noncompliance by the bidder with specification requirements relating to time of submission of specified data such as samples, models, drawings, certificates, or other information;

(9) the sufficiency of the financial resources and ability of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service; and

(10) the ability of the bidder to provide future maintenance, repair parts, and service for the use of the subject of the contract.

(f) Rejection of Bids. If a bid is submitted in which there is a material failure to comply with the specification requirements, such bid shall be rejected and the contract awarded to the bidder submitting the lowest and best bid conforming to the specifications, provided, however, the commission shall in any event have the authority to reject all bids or parts of bids when the interest of the state will be served thereby.

(g) Bid Record. When an award is made, a statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder and the factors considered in determining the lowest and best bid shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

(h) Tie Bids. In case of tie bids, quality and service being equal, the contract shall be awarded under rules and regulations to be adopted by the commission.

(i) Performance Bonds. The commission may require a performance bond before entering a contract in such amount as it finds reasonable and necessary to protect the interests of the state. Any bond required under this subsection shall be conditioned that the bidder will faithfully execute the terms of the contract into which he has entered. Any bond required shall be filed with the commission and recoveries may be had thereon until it is exhausted.

Open Market Purchase Procedure

Sec. 3.12. (a) When the commission determines that any purchases of supplies, materials, equipment, or services may be made most effectively in the open market, such purchases may be made without newspaper advertising.

(b) Minimum Number of Bids. All open market purchases shall, whenever possible, be based on at least three competitive bids, and shall be awarded to the lowest and best bidder in accordance with the standards set forth under this article.

(c) Notice Inviting Bids. The commission shall solicit bids by:

(1) direct mail request to prospective vendors; or

(2) telephone or telegraph.

(d) Recording. The commission shall keep a record of all open market orders and bids submitted thereon, and a tabulation of the bids shall, under rules and regulations to be established by the commission, be open to public inspection; provided, they shall always be open to inspection by the state auditor or his representatives.

(e) Agency Review. If a state agency requests that it be allowed to review the bids on a purchase request, the commission shall forward copies of the bids received or make the same available to the requesting agency along with the commission's recommended award. If, after review of the bids and evaluation of the quality of products offered in the bids, the state agency determines that the bid selected by the commission is not in its opinion the lowest and best bid, it may file with the commission a written recommendation, complete with justification, that the award be made to the bidder determined to be the lowest and best bid. The commission shall give consideration to, but is not bound by, the agency recommendation in making the award.

(f) Statement of Award. A statement of the basis for placing the order with the successful bidder and the factors considered in determining the lowest and best bid shall be prepared by the purchasing division and filed with other papers relating to the transaction.

Compliance with Antitrust Laws

Sec. 3.13. A bidder offering to sell supplies, materials, services, or equipment to the state shall certify on each bid submitted that neither the bidder nor the firm, corporation, partnership, or institution represented by the bidder, or anyone acting for such firm, corporation, or institution has violated the antitrust laws of this state codified in Section 15.01, et seq., Business & Commerce Code, or the federal antitrust laws, nor communicated directly or indirectly the bid made to any competitor or any other person engaged in such line of business. As soon as an invoice is received for services rendered to any state agency, the agency shall determine if such services correspond in every particular with those services contracted for and that the invoice is correct, and shall certify that such is true and transmit to the commission the original invoice and appropriate purchase voucher forms. The state agency shall complete the procedures for transmittal of the invoice and purchase voucher to the commission promptly after receipt of the supplies, materials, or equipment or performance of the services or receipt of the invoice for the supplies, materials, equipment, or services, whichever is later.

(b) If the commission finds such invoice and purchase voucher forms correct, it shall approve and transmit same to the state comptroller. The commission shall complete the procedures for transmittal of the invoice and purchase voucher to the state comptroller within eight days after receipt of the invoice and purchase voucher. The commission is not required to process vouchers in payment of telephone service within eight days but shall process them as expeditiously as possible.

Sec. 3.16. When an invoice and purchase voucher have been approved by the agency and the commission, and have been approved by the comptroller, the comptroller shall draw a warrant upon the state treasury for the amount due on the invoice or for so much thereof as has been allowed, and it shall be charged against the state agency. The commission may also establish and maintain a program of testing and inspecting to ensure that materials, supplies, services, and equipment meet specifications, and may make contracts for testing. If any state agency determines that any supplies, materials, services, or equipment received do not meet specifications, it shall promptly notify the commission in writing detailing the reasons why the supplies, materials, services, or equipment do not meet the specifications of the contract. The commission shall immediately determine whether or not the reported supplies, materials, services, or equipment meet specifications. The sole power to determine whether materials, supplies, services, and equipment meet specifications shall rest with the commission. When the commission finds that contract specifications or conditions have not been complied with, it shall take action, with the assistance of the attorney general, if necessary, against the defaulting contractor.

Usage Figures

Sec. 3.18. The commission shall maintain usage figures on the consumption and use of supplies, materials, services, and equipment purchased for state agencies, institutions, boards, and commissions, and shall furnish using agencies upon request usage and consumption figures maintained. (f) All of the general and criminal laws of the state are declared to be in full force and effect within the areas regulated by this section.

(g) The commission is authorized to employ security officers for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this section and may commission such security officers as it deems necessary as peace officers. When so commissioned, said officers are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges, and immunities of peace officers; provided, that each security officer shall take and file the oath required of peace officers and shall execute and file with the commission a good and sufficient bond in the sum of $1,000 payable to the governor of this state and his successors in office with two or more good and sufficient sureties conditioned that he will fairly and faithfully perform all of the duties as may be required of him by law, and that he will fairly and impartially enforce the law of this state and that he will pay over any and all money, or turn over any and all proper-

Said bond shall not be void for the first recovery but may be sued on from time to time in the name of any person injured until the whole amount thereof is recovered. It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this section for any person or persons to impersonate any of said officers.

(h) The powers and duties conferred on the commission by this section may, at the request of a state agency, be exercised on any property owned or leased by the state. The cost of any service performed by the commission under this subsection, for a requesting agency, when performed outside the areas described in Subsection (a) of this section, shall be reimbursed to the commission by that agency pursuant to a contract executed in accordance with The Interagency Cooperation Act (Article 4413(32), Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(i) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $200. The penalties for violation of any of the other criminal laws of the state shall be as now provided by law.

Upon the issuance of any such traffic ticket or summons the same procedures shall be followed as now prevail in connection with the use of parking and traffic violation tickets by the city of Austin and the Texas Highway Patrol. Nothing herein shall restrict the application and use of regular arrest warrants.

(k) The primary responsibility for enforcing the provisions of this section shall be with the commission, which shall have authority to promulgate rules and regulations not inconsistent with this section or other provisions of law as it may deem necessary to carry out the provisions of this section. Whenever the commission shall have promulgated such a rule or regulation and has posted signs in any of the regulated areas giving notice thereof, it shall be unlawful for any person to violate any of the provisions of such signs and shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable as provided in this section.

(l) The judge of the municipal court and/or any justice of the peace in Austin are each hereby separately vested with all jurisdiction necessary to hear, try, and determine criminal cases involving violations hereof where punishment does not exceed a fine of $200.

(m) Nothing herein contained shall be construed to abridge the authority of the commission to grant permission to use the capitol grounds and any grounds adjacent to any state building for such use as may be provided by preexisting law.

Pass Keys to Rooms in the Capitol

Sec. 4.13. Any person who shall make or have made or keep in his possession a pass or master key to the rooms and apartments in the state capitol, unless authorized to do so, shall be fined not exceeding $100.

(b) Any officer or employee of this state, or other person violating Subsection (a) of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000, or imprisoned in the county jail of Travis County for a period of time not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) Any officer of this state who is subject to removal from office by means of impeachment shall be subject to such removal for violation of Subsection (a) of this section and any other officer or any employee of the state who shall violate Subsection (a) of this section shall be dismissed immediately from any employment by the state.

Eminent Domain

Sec. 5.03. The commission shall have and may exercise the power of eminent domain under the general laws to obtain sites for buildings.

Title, Initial Occupants

Sec. 5.04. The commission shall obtain title for the state and retain control of the real property acquired for sites and of the buildings located thereon. The commission is further authorized to maintain and shall be responsible for the continuing maintenance of the monuments and memorials erected by the State of Texas to commemorate the Centenary of Texas Independence. Before erection of any new monument or memorial the commission shall obtain the approval of the Texas Historical Commission as to the form, dimensions, substance of, and inscriptions or illustrations upon such monuments or memorials.

Contracts with Historical Commission

Sec. 5.07. The commission is authorized to negotiate and contract with the Texas Historical Commission for the purpose of assisting and advising the commission with regard to the proper memorials and monuments to be erected, repaired, and removed to new locations, the selection of sites therefor, and the locating and marking of graves.

The right of eminent domain conferred above as relating to historical sites, buildings, and structures shall not be exercised except upon a proper showing that it is necessary to prevent destruction or deterioration of the historical site, building, or structure. The commission is authorized to request from the Texas Historical Commission a certification or authentication of the worthiness of preservation of the features listed above.

Sec. 5.09. The commission may, in its discretion, provide for the storage and display of the archives of Texas.

Construction in Other Cities

(b) The commission is further authorized and empowered to enter into lease agreements with departments, commissions, boards, agencies, and other instrumentalities of the State of Texas, political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and the federal government or its instrumentalities concerning the space in the office building which is the subject of this article. (b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the commission from undertaking a project excluded by this section under an interagency agreement originated by the appropriate using agency, and provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as exempting any agency or institution from the requirements of Section 5.31 of this article.

(c) In addition to the exclusions enumerated in this section, the commission may, by regulation, exclude repair and rehabilitation projects involving the use of contract labor, provided such projects do not require the advance preparation of working plans and drawings.

Additional Exclusions

Sec. 5.14. In addition to the projects excluded by Section 5.13 of this article, it is specifically provided that nothing in this article shall apply to:

(1) projects constructed by or under the supervision of any public authorities created by the laws of this state; or

Administration

Sec. 5.15. (a) The commission is designated as the administering agency and shall exercise the powers and duties conferred upon it by this article. The commission shall be the coordinating authority for the construction of any multiagency state office buildings which the legislature may authorize.

(b) The commission shall, subject to the provisions of the appropriations act and such general laws as may apply, employ professional, technical, and clerical personnel.

(c) The commission shall appoint a director of planning and construction who shall be a registered architect or a registered professional engineer and shall have proven administrative ability and experience in the fields of building design and construction. The director shall be the full-time executive and administrative officer of the commission which shall delegate to him such power, authority, and duties as it may deem necessary and proper.

(d) The commission may assign a qualified professional employee to any using agency where the volume of construction projects is such that the commission and the using agency agree that full-time coordination between the commission and the using agency is desirable. The commission and the using agency shall mutually agree upon the qualifications and duties of such assigned employees and the salary and related expenses of such assigned employees shall be charged against the projects of the using agency to which they are assigned. Such assignments shall be terminated whenever in the opinion of the commission they are no longer required.

(e) The commission may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to implement the powers, duties, and responsibilities imposed upon it by this article. The rules and regulations shall be binding on all state agencies upon being filed with the secretary of state. The commission shall prepare and publish a manual to assist using agencies in complying with the provisions of this article and the rules and regulations of the commission. Copies of the manual shall be distributed to all using agencies and shall be available to architects, engineers, contractors, and others who may need and request a copy of it.

(f) Legal representation of the commission shall be performed by the Attorney General of Texas. This provision shall not restrict the attorney general from employing special assistants to assist in the performance of duties arising by virtue of the provisions of this article in those instances where the attorney general deems such employment necessary.

(g) Venue of all suits for any breach of contract entered into pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be in Travis County, Texas.

(h) The commission may waive, suspend, or modify any provision of this article which shall be in conflict with any federal statute or any rule, regulation, or administrative procedure of any federal agency where such waiver, suspension, or modification shall be essential to the receipt of federal funds for any project. In the case of any project wholly financed from federal funds, any standards required by the enabling federal statute or required by the rules and regulations of the administering federal agency shall be controlling.

Project Analysis

Sec. 5.16. (a) Each using agency of the state which shall desire any project, other than those specifically excluded by Sections 5.13 and 5.14 of this article, shall prepare and submit to the commission a general description of the project. The commission shall cause all such projects to be studied and shall initiate the preparation of a project analysis for all new construction projects and for all other projects where, in the opinion of the commission, the cost of preparing a project analysis is justified.

(b) A project analysis may be prepared by a private architect/engineer employed by the commission or, at its discretion, by the commission's staff. A private architect/engineer employed for the purpose of preparing a project analysis shall be selected by the method set forth in Section 5.22 of this article and shall be paid from the State Building Construction Planning Fund established by Section 5.24 of this article. The contract to prepare a project analysis shall specify that the analysis shall become the property of the commission.

(c) A project analysis shall consist of (1) a complete description of the facility or project together with a justification of such facility or project prepared by the using agency, (2) a detailed estimate of the amount of space needed to meet the needs of the using agency and to allow for realistic future growth, (3) a description of the proposed facility prepared by an architect/engineer and including schematic plans and outline specifications describing the type of construction and probable materials to be used, sufficient to establish the general scope and quality of construction, (4) an estimate of the probable cost of construction, (5) a description of the proposed site of the project and an estimate of the cost of site preparation, and (6) an overall estimate of the cost of the project. All estimates involved in the preparation of a project analysis shall be carefully and fully documented and incorporated into the project analysis.

Throughout the preparation of the project analysis, the commission and any private architect/engineer employed by the commission shall work closely and cooperatively with the using agency to the end that the project analysis shall fully reflect the needs of the using agency.

The using agency shall use the cost of the project as determined by such project analysis as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this state.

(d) In the case of projects where, in the opinion of the commission, the cost of a project analysis is not justified or required, the commission shall, in cooperation with the using agency, develop a realistic estimate of the cost of the project. When necessary, the commission shall arrange for an on-site inspection and analysis of the proposed project by a member of its staff. The using agency shall be informed of the cost estimate so developed and shall use such estimate as the basis of its request to the budget offices of this state.

(e) On or before a date to be specified by the budget agencies of this state in each year immediately preceding a regular session of the legislature, the commission shall submit to the budget agencies a report listing all projects requested pursuant to this section. The list shall contain (1) a brief and specific justification of each project as prepared by the using agency, (2) a summary of the project analysis where one was made or a statement briefly describing the cost-estimating method used for projects for which a project analysis was not made, (3) a project cost estimate developed in accordance with the provisions of this section, with sufficient detail given to afford the budget agencies, the governor, and the legislature the widest possible latitude in developing policy in regard to each such project request, (4) an estimate, prepared by the commission with the cooperation of the using agency and with the cooperation of the private architect/engineer employed, of the annual cost of maintaining the completed project including the estimated cost of utility services, and (5) an estimate, prepared by the using agency, of the annual cost of staffing and operating the completed project exclusive of maintenance cost. Where appropriate, the commission, with the approval of the using agency, may indicate the feasibility of stage construction of a requested project and may indicate the degree to which funds would be required in the next biennium if the project were undertaken in stages.

(f) Whenever any using agency shall request three or more projects, it shall designate its priority rating for each project. The budget agencies shall, with the cooperation of the commission, develop detailed instructions to implement this priority system and the commission's report shall show the designated priority of each project to which a priority rating has been assigned.

Legislative Authorizations and Appropriations

Sec. 5.17. (a) The legislature shall authorize and appropriate for such projects as it may approve. Project appropriations shall be made directly to the using agency except in those instances where the project is to be constructed by the commission in which case the appropriation shall be made to the commission.

(b) The appropriation of funds by the legislature for the construction of a project shall be construed by the commission and the using agency as an expression of legislative intent that the project be completed within the limits of the funds actually appropriated. In the event that the funds appropriated are less than the amount originally requested or if, for any reason, the funds appropriated are less than the amount required for the project as originally submitted to the budget agencies, the commission and the using agency shall jointly confer on ways and means whereby the project cost can be brought within the bounds of the funds appropriated and shall, in such conferences, make every effort to comply with legislative intent with regard to modification of the project from the original request. In the event that it is impossible to modify the project to bring the cost within the amount appropriated, the commission shall notify the using agency that it considers such project as cancelled.

When authorized by the act appropriating funds for a project, the using agency may appeal the decision of the commission to the governor by submitting a request that the project be undertaken as stage construction or that the funds available for such project be supplemented by the transfer of funds appropriated to the same using agency for other projects of equal or lower priority or from the unused contingency reserves of any project of the same using agency. The governor shall, after obtaining the advice of the Legislative Budget Board, rule on such request and if the ruling shall favor the agency, the commission shall proceed with the project.

(c) The legislature may, by specific provision, provide for stage construction of a project and in such event the commission shall proceed with the project through the specifically authorized stage.

Fine Arts Projects

Sec. 5.18. (a) Any using agency which requests a project analysis by the commission, if the cost of the project is estimated to exceed $250,000, may stipulate that a percentage of the original project cost estimate not to exceed one percent shall be used for fine arts projects at or near the site of the building construction project, such as murals, fountains, mosaics, and other aesthetic improvements.

(b) If the expenditures for fine arts are authorized and appropriated by the legislature, the commission shall consult and cooperate with the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities for advice in determining how to utilize the portion of the appropriation to be used for fine arts projects.

(c) It is the intent of the legislature that emphasis be placed on works by living Texas artists whenever feasible. Consideration shall be given to artists of all ethnic origins.

(d) Nothing in this section is intended to limit, restrict, or otherwise prohibit the commission from including expenditures for fine arts in its original project cost estimate.

Fine Arts Projects Exempt Agencies

Sec. 5.19. (a) Any using agency exempt under Section 5.13 of this article and any county, city, or other political subdivision of this state undertaking a public construction project estimated to cost in excess of $250,000 may designate that a percentage not to exceed one percent of the cost of a public construction project shall be used for fine arts projects at or near the site of the construction project.

(b) The agency or the governing body of a political subdivision may consult and cooperate with the Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities for advice in determining how to utilize the portion of the cost set aside for fine arts purposes.

(c) The Texas Commission on the Arts and Humanities shall place emphasis on works by living Texas artists whenever feasible, and when consulting with the governing body of a political subdivision, shall place emphasis on works by artists who reside in or near the political subdivision. Consideration shall be given to artists of all ethnic origins.

Preliminary Plans, Working Plans; Specifications

Sec. 5.20. (a) Preliminary plans and outline specifications and working plans and specifications for all projects shall be prepared either by a private architect/engineer selected and appointed by the commission in accordance with Section 5.22 of this article, or by the professional staff of the commission, provided, however, that a private architect/engineer shall be appointed for any new construction project estimated to cost in excess of $100,000 and for any new construction project for which the using agency requests that a private architect/engineer be selected and appointed. In either case, plans and specifications shall be approved by the commission, and shall not be accepted or used by the using agency without such approval. The commission shall see that plans and specifications (1) are clear and complete; (2) permit execution of the project with appropriate economy and efficiency; and (3) conform with the requirements set forth in the project analysis previously prepared.

(b) The commission shall appoint a design advisory panel to advise the commission and the using agency on the design concept and aesthetic merits of plans submitted by an architect/engineer; provided, however, that the final decision on such matters shall rest with the commission. The design advisory panel shall consist of five persons, two of whom shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Architects, two of whom (one a structural engineer and the other a mechanical-electrical engineer) shall be selected from a list of nominees submitted by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers, and one of whom shall be neither an architect nor an engineer and who shall serve as chairman of the panel. Members of the panel shall serve for two years and shall be eligible for reappointment and the commission shall promulgate regulations to provide for an orderly rotation of membership which may specify a shorter term of office for the original appointees. The members of the panel shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses out of the appropriations to the commission. No member of the panel shall, during the period of his service, advise on any project in which he is employed, retained, or in any manner financially interested. The panel shall have no responsibility for reviewing the plans and specifications other than to the extent set forth in this subsection.

(c) Following final approval of the working plans and specifications and their acceptance by the using agency, the commission shall cause to be advertised in not less than two newspapers of general circulation for bids or proposals for performance of the construction and related work on the project. Subject to the applicable provisions of other law respecting the award of state contracts, the contract or contracts shall be awarded to the qualified bidder making the lowest and best bid; but no contract shall be awarded for a sum in excess of the amount which the comptroller shall certify to be available for such project. The commission shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

(d) Before a contract is awarded for the major repair or renovation of a state structure which has been designated by the Texas Historical Commission as a Recorded Texas Historic Landmark, the commission shall forward to the Texas Historical Commission a copy of the bids received and an evaluation of the qualifications of the bidders. The Texas Historical Commission shall review the bids and qualifications of the bidders and recommend to the commission the bidder to which the award should be made. Based on the recommendation of the Texas Historical Commission, the commission may award the contract to a bidder other than the lowest bidder.

(e) Upon notice and on itemized statements by the commission:

(1) the comptroller shall transfer from each project appropriation to the State Building Construction Planning Fund created by Section 5.24 of this article an amount certified by the commission as sufficient to reimburse the planning fund for prior expenditures on behalf of the project; and

(2) the comptroller shall reserve from each project appropriation an amount estimated by the commission to be sufficient to cover contingencies over and above all amounts obligated by contract or otherwise, for planning, engineering, and architectural work, site acquisition and development, and construction, equipment, and furnishings contracts. The amount so reserved shall be used only upon the following conditions:

(A) that the architect/engineer or the contractor recommend and justify the proposed contingency expenditures by submitting a change order request;

(B) that the proposed change order request be approved by the architect/engineer;

(C) that the proposed change order request be approved by the using agency which shall make formal request for the allocation of funds from the contingency reserve; and

(D) that the director of planning and construction shall investigate the nature of the change order and concur in the necessity of the proposed expenditure or refuse same within 15 days after receiving the request.

In the event the director shall refuse to concur in a proposed contingency expenditure, the using agency may appeal to the commission and the findings of the commission shall be final. The commission shall promulgate regulations setting forth the procedures for such appeals.

If an approved change order shall result in a reduction of construction cost, the contingency reserve shall be increased by the amount of such reduction.

(f) The comptroller of public accounts shall issue warrants in payment of progress payments as well as final payments on construction under this article upon the written approval of the commission.

(g) Any equipment and furnishings not constructed or installed under the construction contract or contracts shall be acquired through regular purchasing channels of the state.

Project Construction Inspection

Sec. 5.21. The commission shall be responsible for protecting the interests of the state during the actual construction of each project covered by the provisions of this article. Construction inspection shall fall into three categories: detailed inspection, general inspection, and professional inspection, as defined and provided for in this section.

(1) Detailed inspection shall mean the close, technical, on-site examination of the materials, structure, and equipment, and surveillance of the workmanship and methods used to insure reasonably that the project is accomplished in compliance with information given by the contract documents and good construction practices by one or more full-time personnel at the project site. The commission shall be the sole judge of when detailed inspection is required and shall base its decision on the size and complexity of the project.

The full cost of detailed inspection shall be a charge against the project.

Detailed inspection shall be exercised by a project construction inspector who shall be appointed by the architect/engineer with the approval of the commission.

The project construction inspector shall:

(A) become thoroughly conversant with the drawings, specifications, details, and general conditions for executing the work;

(B) keep such records of the work as the architect/engineer and the commission may specify and require and make such reports to the architect/engineer with copies to the commission and the using agency as the architect/engineer and the commission may specify and require and maintain copies of these records and reports at the site of construction together with the plans, specifications, shop drawings, change orders, and correspondence dealing with the project;

(C) endeavor to see that the requirements of the contract documents are being carried out by the contractor;

(D) endeavor to see that all authorized changes are properly incorporated in the work and that no changes are made unless properly authorized;

(E) notify the architect/engineer if conditions encountered at the project are at variance with the contract documents and comply with the directives of the architect/engineer in endeavoring to correct these conditions;

(F) review shop drawings in relation to their adaptability to job conditions and advise the architect/engineer in respect thereto;

(G) endeavor to see that materials and equipment furnished are in accordance with the specifications;

(H) see that records are kept, on construction plans, of the principal elements of mechanical and electrical systems;

(I) see that accurate records are kept of all underground utility installations (including existing installations uncovered in the process of construction) at the project site so that the information may be recorded on site plans or drawings which may be established and maintained by the commission and/or the using agency;

(J) keep a daily written log of all significant happenings on the job, the log to include the number of workers that worked that particular day and weather conditions that existed during the day;

(K) observe and give prompt written notice to the construction contractor's representative and the architect/engineer of any noncompliance on the part of the contractor's representative with any contract documents and notify the architect/engineer and the commission of any failure to take corrective measures promptly;

(L) initiate, attend, and participate in progress meetings and inspections with the contractor;

(M) review every contractor's invoice against the value of partially completed or completed work and the materials stored at the project site prior to its being forwarded to the architect/engineer and promptly notify the architect/engineer of any discrepancy between his review of the work and the invoice; and

(N) be responsible to the architect/engineer for the proper administration of the duties enumerated herein and comply with other instructions and assignments of the architect/engineer.

(2) General inspection shall mean the examination and inspection of the project at periodic intervals by employees of the commission. On projects where a project construction inspector is employed by an architect/engineer, the general inspector shall work with and through the project construction inspector and the architect/engineer. On all other projects, the general inspector shall work with and through the architect/engineer and shall exercise such detailed inspection functions as the commission may require. The cost of general inspection shall be a charge against the project.

(3) Professional inspection shall mean the periodic examination of all elements of the project to reasonably insure that these meet the performance and design features and the technical and functional requirements of the contract documents. Professional inspection shall be exercised by the architect/engineer or his authorized representative who shall:

(A) assist the commission in obtaining proposals from contractors and in awarding and preparing construction contracts, be responsible for the interpretation of the contract documents and any changes made thereto, and provide such interpretation of the plans and specifications as may be required during the construction phase;

(B) check and approve samples, schedules, shop drawings, and other submissions only for conformance with the design concept of the project and for compliance with the information given by contract documents;

(C) approve or disapprove all change order requests and, subject to the provisions of Section 5.20 of this article, prepare all change orders;

(D) assemble all written guarantees required of the contractors;

(E) make periodic visits to the site of the project to become generally familiar with the progress and quality of the work and to determine in general if the work is proceeding in accordance with the contract documents, the amount of time that such on-site inspections shall entail to be determined by dividing the total compensation for professional services, exclusive of payments for detailed inspection, by 100 with the result being expressed as the number of hours to be devoted to on-site inspections, project conferences with the contractor and others, and travel to and from such inspections and conferences;

(F) make a written inspection report after each visit to the project and send a copy of such report to the contractor and to the commission;

(G) keep the commission informed of the progress of the work and endeavor to guard against defects and deficiencies in the work of contractors;

(H) determine periodically the amount owing to the contractors and recommend payment of such amounts to the commission, the recommendation to constitute a representation to the commission that, based upon observations and other pertinent data, the work has progressed to the point indicated and also to constitute a representation to the commission on the part of the architect/engineer that, to the best of his knowledge, information and belief, the quality of the work is in accordance with the plans, specifications, and contract documents; and

(I) conduct inspections to determine the dates of substantial and final completion and notify the commission and the using agency of findings in this respect.

(4) In the event that the commission requires full-time detailed inspection of the construction of a project, the architect/engineer shall select, subject to the commission's approval, the project construction inspector and shall be responsible for the proper administration of the duties enumerated under Subdivision (1) of this section. He shall pay the salary of the project construction inspector and shall be reimbursed for all such salary costs plus expenses of overhead directly applicable to such salary.

(5) Nothing in Subdivision (3) shall be construed as requiring the architect/engineer to assume responsibility for or to guarantee the complete adherence of the contractor to the plans and specifications and contract documents nor shall anything in Subdivision (3) be construed as requiring that the architect/engineer shall be liable for defects in construction.

(6) It is the responsibility of the architect/engineer to furnish the professional inspection of a project and when a private architect/engineer is employed, the fee paid such architect/engineer shall be deemed to cover professional inspection, provided, however, that such fee shall not be deemed to cover the additional cost of detailed inspection over and above the administrative duties specifically encompassed by Subdivision (4) of this section. In projects where the commission's staff serves as architect/engineer, the commission shall be responsible for professional supervision and the cost of such supervision shall be a charge against the project.

Selection of Architects/Engineers

Sec. 5.22. (a) The commission shall establish and maintain a file of all qualified private architects/engineers who express an interest in state building construction projects. The file shall contain such information as the commission shall deem essential and desirable together with brochures and exhibits submitted by each private architect/engineer. Each private architect/engineer may submit additional brochures, exhibits, and information as he may deem necessary and that may be in accordance with his ethical practice in order that his file shall be current at all times. The files shall be open to the inspection of any using agency.

(b) Ultimate responsibility for the selection of a private architect/engineer employed for any project covered by the provisions of this article shall be vested in the commission. In recognition of the close working relationship which must exist between the architect/engineer and the using agency, the commission shall request the using agency to make recommendations regarding private architects/engineers and the using agency which desires to take advantage of such opportunity shall submit to the commission the names of three private architects/engineers designating its order of preference. The commission shall consider the using agency recommendations in order of preference and shall not reject such recommendations without good and sufficient reason set forth in writing to the using agency. In the event that the commission rejects all of the using agency recommendations, the using agency shall prepare and submit a new list.

(c) If the using agency does not choose to submit recommendations, it shall request the commission to proceed to select a private architect/engineer in accordance with the generally accepted standards for such selection and in conformity with the ethical standards of the professional societies of such architects/engineers.

Compensation of Architects/Engineers

Sec. 5.23. Private architects/engineers employed by the commission shall be compensated in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) the compensation for new projects and rehabilitation projects shall be established by the commission on the basis of studies of the compensation paid within the state by private clients for projects of comparable size and complexity, provided that such compensation shall not exceed the minimum recommended for similar projects by the Texas Society of Architects in instances where the private architect/engineer is an architect or the minimum recommended by the Texas Society of Professional Engineers in instances where the private architect/engineer is an engineer. The compensation established by the commission shall be deemed to cover all professional services to be rendered by the private architect/engineer including professional inspection as that term is defined in Section 5.21 of this article. On any project where the commission requires detailed inspection, as defined by Section 5.21 of this article, the compensation shall be increased by the actual cost of providing such detailed inspection;

(2) the compensation for preparation of a project analysis as required by Section 5.16 of this article shall not exceed one percent of the estimated cost of construction. In the event the project is approved by the legislature in substantially the form originally requested and the same private architect/engineer is employed for the subsequent phases of design, the compensation paid under this subdivision shall be deducted from the compensation paid under the provisions of Subdivision (1) of this section; and

(3) the state shall furnish detailed information on space requirements and relationships and the justification for, use of, and general requirements to be met by the project. The state shall furnish a complete site survey and soil analysis.

Planning Fund

Sec. 5.24. There is hereby created in the state treasury a special fund to be known as the State Building Construction Planning Fund which shall be used to make payments for engineering, architectural, and other planning expenses necessary to make a project analysis in accordance with the provisions of Section 5.16 of this article. The commission shall authorize all payments made from the planning fund. The payments shall be a first charge against the project for which they were drawn and the amount so paid shall be credited to and transferred to the planning fund at such time as the legislature may approve the project and appropriate funds for its construction.

Final Inspection

Sec. 5.25. (a) The commission shall be responsible for directing final payment for work done on each project. If upon final inspection of any project it shall be found that the plans, specifications, contract, or change orders for the project shall not have been fully complied with, the commission shall, until such compliance shall have been effected or adjustments satisfactory to it shall have been made, refuse to direct such payment.

(b) The final inspection shall consist of an on-site inspection by the architect/engineer, a representative of the commission, a representative of the using agency, and a representative or representatives of the contractor or contractors. The final inspection shall be scheduled by the commission upon notification by the architect/engineer within 10 days after the architect/engineer has notified the commission that the contract has been performed according to the plans and specifications.

(c) Upon completion of the project the commission shall release the same to the using agency. The commission shall be responsible for making an inspection of the project prior to the expiration of the guarantee period to observe any defects which may appear within one year after completion of the contract. The commission shall give prompt written notice to the contractor of defects which are due to faulty materials and workmanship. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring the contractor to assume responsibility for or guarantee any defects other than those due to faulty materials or workmanship or failure on his part to adhere to the contract documents.

Uniform General Conditions

Sec. 5.26. (a) The commission shall adopt and maintain a uniform set of general conditions to be incorporated into all building construction contracts executed by the State of Texas, including those pertaining to projects otherwise excluded from the provisions of this article by Section 5.13 but not including those excluded by Section 5.14 of this article.

(b) The commission shall cause the uniform general conditions of state building construction contracts to be reviewed whenever in its opinion such review is desirable, but in no event less frequently than once every five years. The review shall be made by a committee appointed by the commission consisting of the director of planning and construction who shall serve ex officio as chairman of the committee and who shall vote only in the event of a tie; two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Architects; two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the President of the Texas Society of Professional Engineers; and two persons appointed by the commission from a list of nominees submitted to it by the Chairman of the Executive Council of the Texas Associated General Contractors Chapters; and two persons appointed by the commission from the list of nominees submitted to it by the Executive Secretary of the Mechanical Contractors Associations of Texas, Incorporated. Members of any review committee appointed pursuant to this subsection shall serve without compensation but may be reimbursed for their necessary and actual expenses.

Energy Conservation Standards

Sec. 5.27. (a) In addition to the uniform set of general conditions provided for in Section 5.26 of this article, the commission shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards that all new state buildings, including buildings of state-supported institutions of higher education, are required to meet. These standards shall include both performance and procedural standards for maximum energy conservation allowed by the latest and most effective technology consistent with the requirements of public health and safety regulations and economic considerations.

(b) The standards shall be promulgated in terms of energy consumption allotments and shall take into consideration the various classes of building uses. Performance standards shall allow for design flexibility since only the total allotment of energy is prescribed.

(c) Procedural standards shall be directed toward specific design and building practices that produce good thermal resistance and low air leakage and toward requiring practices in the design of mechanical and electrical systems which conserve energy. The procedural standards shall address, when applicable, the following items:

- (1) insulation;
- (2) lighting, according to the lighting necessary for the tasks for which each area is intended to be used;
- (3) ventilation;
- (4) the potential use of new systems for saving energy in ventilation, climate control, and other areas; and
- (5) any other item which the commission deems appropriate.

Energy Conservation Standards by Other Entities

Sec. 5.28. (a) The boards of regents and boards or governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions exempted by Section 5.13 of this article shall adopt and publish energy conservation design standards as provided in Section 5.27 of this article for all new buildings under their authority. The standards shall be consistent with those promulgated by the commission for other state buildings and be prepared in cooperation and consultation with the commission and the Governor's Energy Advisory Council.

(b) The commission shall assist the boards and governing bodies of state agencies, commissions, and institutions subject to the provisions of Subsection (a) of this section with the preparation of energy conservation standards by providing technical assistance and advice.

Model Energy Conservation Codes

Sec. 5.29. The commission, after consultation with the Governor's Energy Advisory Council and the Texas Department of Community Affairs, shall prepare model energy conservation building codes and make them available for use by cities in enacting or amending their ordinances.

Energy Conservation Manual

Sec. 5.30. (a) The commission shall produce and publish an energy conservation manual for potential use by designers, builders, and contractors of residential and nonresidential buildings. The manual shall be furnished on request at a reasonable price sufficient to cover the costs of printing and help defray research costs in establishing design standards. The manual shall contain the following:

- (1) guidelines for energy conservation established by the commission;
- (2) forms, charts, tables, and other data to assist designers and builders in meeting the guidelines;
- (3) design suggestions for meeting or exceeding the guidelines; and
- (4) any other information which the commission finds will assist persons to become familiar with the latest technologies that they might use in meeting the guidelines.

(b) The manual shall be updated periodically as significant new energy conservation information becomes available.

Compilation of Construction and Maintenance Information

Sec. 5.31. (a) For the purpose of providing the governor, the legislature, and the budget offices of the state with current information on the status of state-owned buildings, and for the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on construction costs, the commission shall biennially obtain from all using agencies a list of all state-owned buildings showing the year of completion, the general type of construction, size, usage, and general condition of each. In addition the commission shall, for all buildings completed from and after the effective date of this Act, obtain from all using agencies data showing the total cost of the project and the cost of construction together with such data as may be necessary to enable a meaningful comparison to be made on the cost of buildings of like nature.

(b) For the purpose of obtaining up-to-date information on maintenance data, the commission shall obtain biennially from all using agencies information on the cost of heating, cooling, and maintaining all buildings owned by the state.

(c) The commission shall summarize its findings in a report to be made available to the governor, the legislature, and the budget offices of this state. All state agencies, departments, and institutions shall cooperate with the commission in providing the information necessary for said report.

ARTICLE 6. LEASE OF SPACE FOR STATE AGENCIES

Definitions

Sec. 6.01. In this article:

- (1) "Commission" means the State Purchasing and General Services Commission.
- (2) "State agency" means a board, a commission, a department, an office, or other agency of the state government.

Determinations and Standards

Sec. 6.02. (a) When a state agency needs space to carry on its functions, the head of the agency or his or her designee shall submit a written request for the space to the commission.

(b) After consulting the state agency regarding the amount and type of space requested, the commission shall determine whether a need for the space exists and, if so, the specifications to be used in obtaining the space.

(c) The commission shall adopt standards regarding the uses of and the needs for space by state agencies and the types of space needed by state agencies.

Sharing Space

Sec. 6.03. The commission may consolidate the requests for space of two or more state agencies with similar needs and obtain space and allocate space so that it can be shared by the agencies.

Preference for State-owned Space

Sec. 6.04. In filling a request for space, the commission shall give a preference to available state-owned space.

Leasing Space from Other Sources

Sec. 6.05. (a) When state-owned space is not available and a state agency has verified that it has sufficient funds available to cover a lease of space, the commission may lease space for the agency from another source according to the provisions of this section and the specifications submitted by the state agency.

(b) The space may be leased from another state agency through an interagency contract or from the federal government or a political subdivision, including a county, a municipality, a school district, a water or irrigation district, a hospital district, a council of government, or a regional planning council, through a negotiated contract.

(c) The space may be leased from a private source through competitive bidding whenever possible, but the commission, with the approval of the state agency, may negotiate for the space when competition is not available.

(d) When competitive bidding is used, the commission shall take into consideration moving costs, the cost of time lost in moving, and other factors in determining the lowest and best bid.

The commission shall forward copies of all bids received to the leasing agency along with the commission's recommended award. If, after review of the bids and evaluation of all factors involved, the leasing agency determines that the bid selected by the commission is not in its opinion the lowest and best bid, it may file with the commission a written recommendation, complete with justification and full explanation of all factors considered in arriving at the recommendation, that the award be made to a bidder other than the commission's recommended bidder.

The commission shall give full consideration to the agency recommendation and if it does not agree with the agency recommendation, it shall notify the agency in writing. The agency and the commission shall attempt to reach an agreement on the award.

If agreement is not reached within 30 days, all bids and pertinent documents shall be transmitted to the governor who shall designate the bidder to which the award shall be made.

(e) In any contract entered into by the commission for the lease of space under this article, the State of Texas, acting through the commission, is the lessee.

(f) The provisions of the lease contract shall reflect the provisions contained in the invitation for bids, the successful bid, and the award of the contract.

(g) The lease contract may provide for an original term not to exceed 10 years and may include options to renew for as many terms, not to exceed 10 years each, that the commission considers to be in the state's best interest, and when the contract contains no option to renew, the lease may be renewed once according to the same provisions that were in the original contract for a term not to exceed one year, on agreement of the parties.

(h) A lease contract is contingent on the availability of funds appropriated by the legislature to cover the provisions of the lease.

(i) The obligation of the lessor to provide lease space and of the commission to accept the space becomes binding on the award of the contract.

(j) In leasing space for the use of state agencies, the commission shall give first consideration to any structures that have been designated Recorded Texas Historic Landmarks as provided by Section 12, Chapter 500, Acts of the 55th Legislature, Regular Session, 1957, as amended (Article 6145, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or that have been listed in the National Register of Historic Places established by 16 U.S.C. Section 470a (1974), or that have been designated landmarks by the local governing authority, if the structure meets requirements and specifications and the cost is not substantially higher than other available structures that meet requirements and specifications.

Elimination of Barriers to Handicapped Persons in State Buildings

Sec. 6.06. The commission may not enter a lease contract under this article unless it complies with the provisions of Article 7 of this Act.

Remedial Action against Lessor

Sec. 6.07. When a state agency occupies lease space and is aware of circumstances concerning the space which require remedial action against the lessor, the agency shall notify the commission, and the commission may investigate the circumstances and the lessor's performance under the contract. When the commission requests the assistance of the attorney general in protecting the state's interest under a lease contract, the attorney general shall assist the commission.

Certification of Funds

Sec. 6.08. At least 60 days before the beginning of each fiscal biennium during the term of a lease contract entered into under this article, the state agency occupying the leased space shall certify to the commission that funds are available to cover the lease.

Option to Purchase

Sec. 6.09. When the commission considers it advisable, the commission may lease space for a state agency by a contract which contains an option for the commission to purchase the space subject to the legislature's appropriation of funds for the purchase. A lease contract containing the option shall show the amount that will be accumulated by the commission and credited toward the purchase at various periods during the term of the lease and the purchase price of the property at the beginning of each fiscal biennium during the term of the lease.

Records

Sec. 6.10. In order to efficiently maintain a space management system, the commission shall maintain records of the amount and cost of space under lease by the commission and may collect other information that it considers necessary. All state agencies shall cooperate with the commission in securing this information.

Exemptions

Sec. 6.11. The provisions of this article do not apply to the acquisition of district office space for members of either house of the legislature or space to be used by the Texas Employment Commission.

Rules

Sec. 6.12. The commission shall promulgate rules necessary to administer its functions under this article.

ARTICLE 7. ARCHITECTURAL BARRIERSPolicy

Sec. 7.01. The provisions of this article are to further the policy of the State of Texas to encourage and promote the rehabilitation of handicapped or disabled citizens and to eliminate, insofar as possible, unnecessary barriers encountered by aged, handicapped, or disabled persons, whose ability to engage in gainful occupations or to achieve maximum personal independence is needlessly restricted when such persons cannot readily use public buildings.

Application

Sec. 7.02. (a) The standards and specifications adopted under this article shall apply to all buildings and facilities used by the public which are constructed in whole or in part by the use of state, county, or municipal funds, or the funds of any political subdivision of the state. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the state's power of regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings and facilities constructed in this state through partial or total use of federal funds. All buildings and facilities constructed in this state, or substantially renovated, modified, or altered, after the effective date of this article from any one of these funds or any combination thereof shall conform to each of the standards and specifications adopted under this article except where the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned shall determine, after taking all circumstances into consideration, that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impracticable. Where it is determined that full compliance with any particular standard or specification is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practicable, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(b) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in those buildings and facilities under construction on the effective date of this article, unless the authority responsible for the construction shall determine that the construction has reached a state where compliance is impractical. This article shall apply to temporary or emergency construction as well as permanent buildings.

(c) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in all buildings leased or rented in whole or in part for use by the state under any lease or rental agreement entered into on or after January 1, 1972. To such extent as is not contraindicated by federal law or beyond the power of the state's regulation, these standards shall also apply to buildings or facilities leased or rented for use by the state through partial or total use of federal funds. Facilities which are the subject of lease or rental agreements on January 1, 1972, will not be required to meet standards and specifications for the term of the existing lease or rental agreement but must be brought into compliance before a lease or rental agreement is renewed. Where it is determined by the governmental department, agency, or unit concerned that full compliance with any particular standard is impractical, the reasons for such determination shall be set forth in written form by those making the determination and forwarded to the commission. If it is determined that full compliance is not practical, there shall be substantial compliance with the standard or specification to the maximum extent practical, and the written record of the determination that it is impractical to comply fully with a particular standard or specification shall also set forth the extent to which an attempt will be made to comply substantially with the standard or specification.

(d) These standards and specifications shall be adhered to in certain privately financed buildings, building elements, and improved areas which are open to public use for education, employment, transportation, or acquisition of goods and services, and which are constructed on or after January 1, 1978, in counties with a population of 50,000 or more. Such facilities include the following:

- (1) shopping centers which contain in excess of five separate mercantile establishments; compliance with accessibility standards and specifications relative to toilet rooms shall not apply unless the shopping center elects to have public toilet rooms;
- (2) transportation terminals;

Responsibilities for Enforcement

Sec. 7.05. (a) The responsibility for administration and enforcement of this article shall reside primarily in the commission, but the commission shall have the assistance of appropriate state rehabilitation agencies in carrying out its responsibilities under this article. State agencies involved in extending direct services to disabled or handicapped persons are authorized to enter into interagency contracts with the commission to provide such additional funding as might be required to insure that service objectives and responsibilities of such agencies are achieved through the administration of this article. In enforcing this article the commission shall also receive the assistance of all appropriate elective or appointive state officials. The commission shall from time to time inform professional organizations and others of this law and its application.

(b) The commission shall have all necessary powers to require compliance with its rules and regulations and modifications thereof and substitutions therefor, including powers to institute and prosecute proceedings in the district court to compel such compliance, and shall not be required to pay any entry or filing fee in connection with the institution of such proceedings. (c) The commission is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as might reasonably be required to implement and enforce this article. ARTICLE 8. PROPERTY ACCOUNTING

Property Accounting System

Sec. 8.01. (a) All real and personal property belonging to the state shall be accounted for by the head of the agency which has possession of the property.

(b) The commission shall administer the property accounting system. The state auditor shall administer the property responsibility system. The commission shall issue rules and regulations and a manual of instruction and prescribe such records, reports, and forms necessary to accomplish the objects of this article subject to the approval of the state auditor. The state auditor is directed to cooperate with the commission in the exercise of the commission's rule-making powers herein granted by giving technical assistance and advice.

(c) The commission shall maintain a complete and accurate set of centralized records of state property. Where the commission finds that an agency has demonstrated its ability and competence to maintain complete and accurate detailed records of the property it possesses without the detailed supervision by the commission, it may direct that the detailed records be kept at the principal office of such agency. Where the commission issues such order, it shall keep only summary records of the property of such agency and the agency shall keep such detailed records as the commission directs and furnish the commission with such reports at such times as directed by the commission.

(d) Each agency head shall cause each item of state property possessed by his agency to be marked so as to identify it. The agency head shall follow the instructions issued by the commission in marking state property.

Responsibility for Property Accounting

Sec. 8.02. (a) All state agencies shall comply with the provisions of this article and keep the property records required.

(b) All real property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency which possesses the property. The real property administered by the General Land Office shall be accounted for by that office and not by the system prescribed herein, and the real property administered by the permanent funds established by the legislature and people shall be accounted for by the agency now charged with its administration and not by the system prescribed herein.

(c) All personal property owned by the state shall be accounted for by the agency that possesses the property. The commission shall by regulation define what is meant by personal property for the purposes of this article, but such definition shall not include nonconsumable personal property having a value of $250 or less per unit. In promulgating such regulations, the commission shall take into account the value of the property, its expected useful life, and if the cost of record keeping bears a reasonable relationship to the cost of the property on which records are kept. The commission shall consult with the state auditor in making such regulations and the auditor shall cooperate with the commission in the exercise of this rulemaking power by giving technical assistance and advice.

(d) All medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies provided by the Texas Department of Health to local public health units, local public health laboratories, state institutions, and nonprofit institutions, contributing to the promotion and maintenance of public health by the usage of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies shall be accounted for by that department and not by the system prescribed in this article. The Texas Department of Health shall maintain at all times a complete record of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies provided and such records shall be verified by the state auditor and available to the federal auditors for the agency of the federal government making such grants for assistance in the purchase of such medical, surgical, and technical equipment and supplies.

Property Manager; Property Inventory

Sec. 8.03. (a) Each agency head is responsible for the proper custody, care, maintenance, and safekeeping of the state property possessed by his agency.

(b) Each agency head shall designate either himself or one of his employees as property manager. The commission shall be informed in writing by the agency head of the name of the property manager and shall be informed of any changes. Where the commission finds that convenience and efficiency will be served, it may permit more than one property manager to be appointed by the agency head.

(c) The property manager shall maintain the required records on all property possessed by the agency and shall be the custodian of all such property.

(d) No person shall entrust state property to any state official or employee or to anyone else to be used for other than state purposes.

(e) When an agency's property is entrusted to some person other than the property manager, the property manager shall require a written receipt for such property executed by the person receiving custody of the property. When the possession of property of one agency is entrusted to another agency on loan, such transfer shall be done only when authorized in writing by the agency head who is lending such property and the written receipt shall be executed by the agency head who is borrowing such property. The property manager is relieved of the responsibility for property which is the subject of such a receipt.

(f) Each agency shall make a complete physical inventory of all property in its possession once a year. The inventory shall be taken on the date prescribed for the agency by the commission.

(g) The agency head shall forward a signed statement describing the method by which the inventory was verified, along with a copy of such inventory, within 45 days after the inventory date for the agency.

(h) The commission shall supervise the property records of each agency so that the records accurately reflect the property currently possessed by the agency. The commission shall prescribe the methods whereby items of property are deleted from the property records of the agency. Property that has become surplus or obsolete and no longer serviceable and has been turned over to the commission for disposal under the laws relating thereto shall be deleted from the records of that agency upon the authorization of the commission. Property that is missing from the agency or property that is disposed of directly by the agency in a legal manner shall be deleted from the commission's records upon the authorization of the state auditor.

Change of Property Managers

Sec. 8.04. When there is a change in agency heads or property managers, the incoming agency head or property manager shall execute a receipt for all agency property accounted for to the outgoing agency head or property manager. A copy of such receipt shall be delivered to the commission, the state auditor, and the outgoing agency head or property manager. No further warrants in favor of the outgoing agency head or property manager shall be drawn or paid until the state auditor has certified that the agency property has been properly accounted for. The state auditor may make this certification without requiring that a physical inventory be taken.

Liability for Property Loss

Sec. 8.05. Where agency property disappears, whether through theft or other cause, as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care for its safekeeping, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. Where agency property deteriorates as a result of the failure of the agency head, property manager, or agency employee entrusted with the property in writing to exercise reasonable care to maintain and service the property, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. Where agency property is damaged or destroyed as a result of an intentional wrongful act or of a negligent act of any state official or employee, such person shall be pecuniarily liable to the state for the loss thus sustained by the state. The liability prescribed by this section may be found to attach to more than one person in a particular instance; in such cases, the liability shall be joint and several.

Reporting to State Auditor

Sec. 8.06. When any state property has been lost, destroyed, or damaged through the negligence or fault of any state official or employee, the agency head responsible for such property shall immediately report such loss, destruction, or damage to the state auditor. Upon learning in any manner of such property loss, destruction, or damage, the state auditor shall investigate the matter. If the investigation discloses that an injury has been sustained by the state through the fault of a state official or employee, the state auditor shall make written demand upon such state official or employee for reimbursement to the state for the loss so sustained.

Legal Action to Recover Monetary Loss of Property

Sec. 8.07. In case the demand made by the state auditor for reimbursement for property loss, destruction, or damage is refused or disregarded by the state official or employee upon whom such demand is made, the state auditor shall report the facts to the attorney general. If, after an investigation of the facts, the attorney general finds that legal liability may be adjudged against the state official or employee, he shall take such legal action to recover the monetary loss of the state property occasioned by the loss, damage, or destruction as in his opinion may be deemed necessary. Venue for all such suits instituted against a state official or employee shall lie in the courts of appropriate jurisdiction of Travis County.

Failure to Keep Records

Sec. 8.08. When any agency fails to keep the records required under the provisions of this article or fails to take the annual physical inventory, the commission shall so inform the comptroller and the comptroller may refuse to draw any warrants on behalf of such agency.

Transfer of Personal Property

Sec. 8.09. (a) Any state agency is authorized to transfer any personal property of the state under its control or jurisdiction to any other state agency with or without reimbursement between the agencies; provided, however, that the provisions of this article shall not apply to any real property.

(b) When any personal property under the control or jurisdiction of one state agency is transferred to the control or jurisdiction of any other state agency, such transfers shall be immediately and simultaneously reported to the commission by the transferor and the transferee on forms prescribed by the commission, and it shall adjust the inventory records of the agencies involved in making the transfer. Whenever any transfer is made with reimbursement from funds deposited in the state treasury, the transferee shall issue a voucher payable to the transferor, and the comptroller of public accounts shall issue warrants for reimbursement.

Distribution of This Article

Sec. 8.10. Each agency head shall distribute a copy of this article to each official and employee of his agency and shall give a copy to each new employee of the agency.

(4) "Surplus property" means any personal property which is in excess of the needs of any state agency and which is not required for its foreseeable needs. Surplus property may be used or new but possesses some usefulness for the purpose for which it was intended or for some other purpose.

Establishment of Procedures

Sec. 9.02. The commission shall establish and maintain procedures for the transfer, sale, or disposal of surplus and salvage property no longer needed by state agencies.

Sec. 9.03. The commission shall maintain a mailing list, renewable annually, of political subdivision purchasing agents or other officers performing similar functions who have asked for information on surplus or salvage equipment or material the state may have available.

Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.04. (a) All state agencies that determine they have surplus or salvage property shall inform the commission of the kind, number, location, condition, original cost or value, and date of acquisition of the property.

(b) When a state agency reports to the commission that it has surplus or salvage equipment or material, the commission shall inform other state agencies and political subdivisions of the existence, kind, number, location, and condition of the equipment or material.

(c) When notified of surplus or salvage property, a state agency may negotiate directly with the reporting state agency for an interagency transfer of the property at a mutually agreed upon value. If a transfer is made, the participating agencies shall report the transaction to the comptroller and the commission. The comptroller shall debit and credit the proper appropriations and the commission shall adjust the state inventory records if inventoried property is transferred.

(d) A political subdivision shall notify the commission within 30 days from the date of the notice if it desires to negotiate for surplus or salvage equipment or material.

(e) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice, and if the commission determines that the equipment or material will not satisfy a state need, the commission may authorize the sale or transfer of surplus or salvaged equipment or material to any political subdivision which has expressed a desire to negotiate.

(f) The commission shall adopt rules and regulations to govern occasions when more than one political subdivision expresses a desire to negotiate for the same surplus or salvage equipment or material. The commission may adopt other necessary rules and regulations to govern the sale or transfer of surplus or salvage equipment and material to political subdivisions.

(g) If no state agency negotiates an interagency transfer of the equipment or material within 30 days from the date of the notice and no political subdivision has expressed a desire to negotiate, or if one or more political subdivisions has expressed a desire to negotiate but is unable to negotiate a sale or transfer of the equipment or material within 40 days from the date of the notice, the commission may offer the equipment or material to the organization known as the Texas Partners of the Alliance, a registered agency with the Advisory Committee on Voluntary Foreign Aid with the approval of the Partners of the Alliance office of the Agency for International Development. The equipment or material shall be offered at its fair market value as determined by mutual agreement between the commission and the Texas Partners of the Alliance.

(h) If the Texas Partners of the Alliance do not accept the offer within 60 days, or if the commission and the Texas Partners of the Alliance cannot agree on the fair market value of the equipment or material, the commission shall sell or dispose of the equipment or material as otherwise provided by this article.

Alternative Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.05. (a) If surplus or salvage property is not disposed of under the provisions of Section 9.04 of this article, the commission shall sell the property by competitive bid or auction or delegate to the state agency having possession of the property the authority to sell the property on a competitive bid basis.

(b) If the value of any property or lot of property to be sold is estimated to be over $1,000, the sale shall be advertised at least one time in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the vicinity where the property is located by the commission or the state agency delegated authority to sell the property.

(c) When the commission sells any surplus or salvage property it shall report the item sold and the sale price to the agency that declared such property as surplus or salvage.

(d) All agencies for whom surplus or salvage property is sold or who sell surplus or salvage property under authorization of the commission shall report the sale together with the prices realized to the comptroller; and if the property is on the state inventory the commission shall remove it from the inventory.

(e) The proceeds from the sale of any surplus or salvage property less the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited to the credit of the item of appropriation to the agency for whom the sale was made. A portion of the proceeds from the sale of any surplus or salvage property equal to the cost of advertising the sale shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the item of appropriation to the commission from which such cost was expended.

Destruction of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.06. If the commission cannot sell or dispose of any property reported to it as surplus or salvage it may order the property destroyed as worthless salvage and report the destruction to the declaring agency. The destruction of salvage shall authorize the commission to remove reported property from the state inventory if on the state inventory. Authorization by the commission to delete salvage items not its own from the state inventory shall not be required. It is not the intention of this section to alter, enlarge, or amend the law providing for the deletion from inventory upon the authorization of the auditor of property that is missing from any agency.

Maximum Return from Disposition of Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.07. The commission shall at all times try to realize the maximum return to the state in the sale and disposal of surplus and salvage property. It shall maintain a list of prospective buyers of surplus and salvage property and it may in all cases reject any or all offers if it finds rejection to be in the best interests of the state. It shall cooperate with all state agencies in a continuing program of surplus and salvage property evaluation to minimize losses from accumulations and it shall cooperate at all times with the auditor in surplus and salvage property analysis.

Obtaining Good Title to Surplus or Salvage Property

Sec. 9.08. The provisions of this article do not apply to the disposition of surplus property by either house of the legislature pursuant to a system of disposition provided for in the rules and regulations of the administration committee of each house. If surplus property of either house is sold, proceeds of the sale shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the expense fund of that house.

Purchase of Legislative Chairs

Sec. 9.11. A legislator may purchase the executive chair used by the legislator on the floor of the legislature if:

- (1) the legislator has not been reelected; and
- (2) the legislator pays into the state treasury the commission's estimate of the fair market value of replacement equipment.

This section does not limit a legislator's right to purchase state-owned equipment in any other manner.

Property Used as Trade-in

Sec. 9.12. A state agency may offer surplus or salvage property as a trade-in on new property of the same general type when such exchange is in the best interests of the state.

Exemption

Sec. 9.13. For purposes of this article the terms "surplus" and "salvage" shall not apply to products and by-products of research, forestry, agricultural, livestock, and industrial enterprises in excess of that quantity required for consumption by the producing agency when such agencies have a continuing and adequate system of marketing research and sales, the efficiency of which shall be certified to the commission by the state auditor. A qualifying agency shall furnish the commission with a copy of the rules and regulations and latest revisions thereof promulgated by the policy-making body of each agency or institution for the guidance and administration of the programs enumerated herein. When requested by such agency or institution to do so, the commission shall dispose of the property as provided for in this article.

Authorization of Agencies to Dispose of Property

Sec. 9.14. The commission may authorize an agency to dispose of surplus or salvage property where the agency demonstrates to the commission its ability to make such disposition under the rules and regulations set up by the commission, as provided for herein. State eleemosynary institutions and institutions and agencies of higher learning shall be excepted from the terms of this article.

Disposition of Wastepaper

Sec. 9.15. The commission shall establish and maintain in each public building under its control facilities for collecting separately from all other wastes all the wastepaper disposed of in that building. The commission shall sell the wastepaper for recycling purposes to the highest bidder.

The commission, with the advice of the state auditor, shall maintain records relating to the consolidated telecommunications system as necessary to enable the commission to analyze the cost effectiveness of the system to the state agencies, and shall advise the legislature at each session as to the cost effectiveness of the system. If, in the opinion of the commission, the total cost of the system reaches a level which would justify total state ownership and operation of the system, the commission shall recommend to the legislature the implementation of such action.

Balancing Technological Advancements and Existing Facilities

Sec. 10.04. In the planning, design, implementation, and operation of the telecommunications systems and facilities, the commission shall maintain an appropriate balance between the adoption of technological advancements and the efficient utilization of existing facilities and services in order to avoid misapplication of state funds and degradation or loss of the integrity of existing systems and facilities.

Art. 695m. Pilot Multipurpose Service Centers for Displaced Homemakers

Text of article effective until August 31, 1981

Findings and Purpose

Sec. 1. (a) The legislature finds and declares that there is an increasing number of persons in this state who, having fulfilled a role as homemaker, find themselves "displaced" in their middle years through divorce, death of spouse, or other loss of family income. As a consequence, displaced homemakers are very often left with little or no income; they are ineligible for categorical welfare assistance; they are subject to the highest rate of unemployment of any sector of the work force; they face continuing discrimination in employment because of their age and lack of recent paid work experience; they are ineligible for unemployment insurance because they have been engaged in unpaid labor in the home; they are ineligible for social security benefits because they are too young, and many never qualify because they have been divorced from the family wage earner; they may have lost beneficiaries' rights under employers' pension and health plans through divorce or death of spouse; and they are often unacceptable to private health insurance plans because of their age. Homemakers are an unrecognized part of the work force who make an invaluable contribution to the strength, durability, and purpose of our state.

(b) It is the intention of the legislature in enacting this legislation to provide the counseling, training, and service programs for displaced homemakers necessary to promote the health and welfare of this growing group of citizens and to enable them to enjoy independence and economic security.

Definitions

Sec. 2. In this Act:

(1) "Displaced homemaker" is an individual who:

(A) is 40 years of age or older and has worked without pay as a homemaker for his or her family;

(B) is not gainfully employed on a full-time basis or has had, or would have, difficulty in finding adequate employment; and

(C) has depended for support on the income of a family member and has lost that income or has depended on and received income support primarily from another source while working as a homemaker or parent and has lost that support.

(2) "Department" means the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

(3) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

Establishment of Centers

Sec. 3. (a) The commissioner shall establish two multipurpose service centers for displaced homemakers, one which shall be in a reasonably central location within the largest federal Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area, as determined by the U.S. Bureau of the Census, in the state. The second pilot service center shall be established in a county with a population of 100,000 or less.

(b) The commissioner shall contract with a non-profit organization or a unit of local government, or both, to operate each center. Payment for the operation of each center for the first month shall be made in advance, but payments for subsequent months of operation shall be made on a billing basis under the terms of the contract. To the greatest extent possible, the staff of each service center, including supervisory, technical, and administrative personnel, shall be filled by displaced homemakers. If necessary, the center may provide for on-the-job training of potential staff members by independent contractors or volunteer agencies.

Job-Counseling Program

Sec. 4. Each multipurpose service center shall provide a job-counseling program for displaced homemakers. Job counseling shall be specifically designed for the person entering the job market after a number of years as a homemaker. Counseling shall take into account and build upon the skills and experiences of a homemaker and shall emphasize job readiness as well as skill development.

Job-Training Program

Sec. 5. Each multipurpose service center shall provide a job-training program for displaced homemakers. The job-training program shall utilize existing skills and be directed toward meeting community needs and creating new jobs, as well as filling available positions, in both public and private employment. Each center shall work with agencies of local government, nonprofit organizations, and private employers in developing job-training cooperative agreements for various vocations. Each center shall provide stipends for job trainees within the limits of available funds. The Texas Employment Commission shall assist each center in finding permanent employment for persons who have completed the job-training program conducted through each center.

Service Programs

Sec. 6. (a) Each multipurpose service center shall operate a health information service to disseminate information about preventive health care and nutrition. The service shall emphasize the health problems, including menopause, of older persons. The clinic service shall provide information, which may include lectures, discussions, and informal courses, on alcohol and drug addiction and the causes of addiction in older persons. The service may, with the assistance of a county medical society or hospital staff, establish a referral service to direct displaced homemakers to physicians.

(b) Each service center shall provide information, which may include lectures, discussions, and informal courses, on money management, specifically including information about insurance, taxes, mortgages, loans and probate problems.

(c) Each service center may establish additional service programs designed to prepare the displaced homemaker to be a wage earner, to manage his or her own affairs, or to enable the displaced homemaker to provide for his or her physical or mental well-being and security.

Funding Sources

Sec. 7. In addition to legislative appropriation, the department shall explore all possible legal sources of funding for the pilot multipurpose service centers. The department may accept gifts, grants, and in-kind contributions from federal, local, and private sources and may use federal funds under Title 20, Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1397 et seq. (1975), if they become available. The department shall seek contributions of building space, equipment, and services.

Fees and Regulations

Sec. 8. The local director of each service center may establish a schedule of fees, based on ability to pay, for various counseling and service programs offered by the center. Fees shall be designed to help defray the costs of operation of the centers. Each local director may also establish guidelines for participation in the job-training program, taking into account the degree of need of the displaced homemaker, the extent of existing agreements with training employers, and the limits of available funds. Each local director shall establish a schedule of stipends, based on need and the extent of any compensation by the training employer, for job trainees.

Reports

Sec. 9. The department is responsible for monitoring the operation of each service center four times each year. The local director of each service center shall prepare an annual report to the department, accounting for all funds provided the centers and describing in detail the services performed at and through the center during the preceding 12-month period and shall make records of the operation of the centers available to the commissioner at his request. The department shall prepare an annual evaluation of the performance of each center in meeting the needs of displaced homemakers in the area. The evaluation shall consider the effectiveness of the programs offered by each center in terms of number of persons served, quality of services rendered, number of job placements, and degree of need for continuance of similar programs.

Expiration Date

Sec. 10. This Act expires on August 31, 1981.

Art. 695n. Employment Incentive Act

Employment Program

Sec. 3. The Texas Employment Commission, after consultation with the State Department of Public Welfare, shall establish an employment program designed to assist and encourage AFDC recipients in obtaining employment. Registration

Sec. 4. (a) Except as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, each AFDC recipient shall register with the commission in the employment program established under Section 3 of this Act.

(b) An AFDC recipient is not required to register if he is in the class of individuals that is exempt from registering for manpower services, training, and employment under Section 402, Title IV-A of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. Section 602) and rules adopted pursuant to that law.

Duty of Registrant

- (C) he is terminated from the employment due to circumstances beyond his control.

Review of Registrants; Notification of Welfare Department

Sec. 6. (a) The commission shall establish a system of periodic review to determine whether registrants comply with Section 5 of this Act. In each case reviewed, the commission shall determine whether the registrant without good cause failed to comply. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(b) In determining suitability of employment, the commission shall consider the facts and circumstances relative to the particular registrant, including but not limited to his health, his training and education, the degree of risk to his health and safety, his experience and prior earnings, his prospects of securing work in his customary occupation, and the commuting distance and expense.

(c) Employment is not suitable if the commission determines that:

- (1) the compensation, work hours, or other conditions of work are substantially less favorable to the registrant than those prevailing for similar work in the locality;
- (2) as a condition of employment the registrant is required to join, resign from, or refrain from joining a labor organization;

- (5) the registrant is physically or mentally unfit to perform the work;
- (6) the commuting distance is unreasonable; or
- (7) the employment fails to satisfy standards established under applicable federal law.

(d) If the final decision of the commission is that a registrant failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause, the commission promptly shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the decision. However, if the registrant appeals the decision, the commission shall delay notification pending the final outcome of the appeal.

Loss of AFDC Eligibility; Reinstatement

Sec. 7. (a) If a registrant has failed to comply with Section 5 of this Act without good cause as determined by the commission, the registrant is ineligible to receive AFDC payments. The ineligibility takes effect on the date the commission's decision on the matter becomes final.

(b) AFDC ineligibility resulting from the application of Subsection (a) of this section continues until the registrant's eligibility is reinstated by the commission.

(c) On application by a registrant for reinstatement of AFDC eligibility in the manner prescribed by rule of the commission, the commission shall determine whether to reinstate eligibility.

(d) The commission shall reinstate AFDC eligibility if it finds that the registrant, after having lost eligibility under Subsection (a) of this section, obtained employment of at least 30 hours a week. Before making its decision, the commission shall give the registrant an opportunity for an adjudicative hearing.

(e) On reinstatement of a registrant's AFDC eligibility, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the reinstatement.

Deduction for Unsuccessful Appeal

Sec. 8. (a) If the final outcome of a registrant's appeal of a decision made by the commission under Section 6 of this Act upholds the commission's decision, the department of public welfare shall deduct the amount of AFDC payments made to the registrant during the pendency of the appeal from any future AFDC payments made to the registrant.

(b) In each case in which a deduction is required under Subsection (a) of this section, the commission shall give the Commissioner of Public Welfare written notice of the time elapsed between the rendering of the commission's decision and the reviewing court's judgment.

Art. 695o. AFDC Education and Employment Act

Text of article effective until August 31, 1983

Short Title

Sec. 1. This Act may be cited as the AFDC Education and Employment Act.

Findings and Purposes

Sec. 2. The legislature finds and declares as follows:

(1) There are more than 90,000 households receiving assistance through the AFDC program. More than 9 of the 10 (96%) AFDC households are headed by women. The State of Texas spends more than substantial funds in providing approximately $3,600 annually in assistance and services, which include: financial grants, food stamps, day care, medical services, and administrative overhead. Past efforts directed at assisting AFDC heads of families to be economically self-sufficient have had limited effect in reducing the welfare rolls.

(2) AFDC caretakers have many handicaps when entering the job market. Lacking marketable skills, they are relegated to low-paying jobs. Thus, there is often an economic disincentive to go to work. The vast majority of AFDC caretakers are unable to earn enough income to offset child-care and transportation expenses. Because of sexual and racial discrimination, job availability is limited to a narrow range of career choices, many of which do not offer as much as the federally established minimum wage. A majority of AFDC caretakers have not attained an adequate education. Chances of effective employment are reduced.

(3) A viable solution is a Texas AFDC Employment and Education Pilot Project established by this Act. This pilot project will provide the necessary experience and basis to give new direction to Texas and national AFDC welfare policies. It is the intention of this legislation to provide assistance to AFDC recipients in obtaining employment experience and skills training from postsecondary vocational training institutions, community colleges, universities, C.E.T.A. (the federal Comprehensive Employment and Training Act), skills centers, industry, on-the-job training, and other related employment, education, and social service agencies.

AFDC Education and Employment Pilot Project

Sec. 3. (a) The AFDC Education and Employment Pilot Project is established. The pilot project is administered by the State Department of Public Welfare, and the department shall adopt the rules necessary for its implementation consistent with this Act.

(b) The purpose of the pilot project is to develop an effective means of assisting and encouraging persons who are receiving AFDC assistance to become self-sufficient members of society by providing them with vocational and general educational opportunities and with assistance in obtaining and retaining employment. In this Act, "AFDC" means aid to families with dependent children authorized under The Public Welfare Act of 1941, as amended (Article 695c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(c) The pilot project is financed with state money, to the extent provided by legislative appropriation, and with any federal money obtained for the purpose. The department may also accept private grants and donations for the pilot project.

(d) To qualify for participation in the pilot project, a person must be eligible to receive AFDC assistance from the department.

Education Component

Sec. 4. (a) As a component of the pilot project, the department shall develop an education program designed to provide occupational and general education for persons participating in the pilot project, using, to the extent practicable, community colleges, colleges, universities, and other educational institutions in this state that elect to participate in the education program. Participation of an educational institution in the education program is subject to the approval of the department. The department shall consult with participating educational institutions in developing curricula for the education program.

(b) The department may reimburse participating educational institutions for all or any part of the costs of providing educational services under the program established by this section.

(c) In developing the education program, the department shall emphasize training in skills or trades that offer the opportunity for earning power in excess of the federal minimum wage, as illustrated by, but not limited to, welding, carpentry, electronics, data processing, paraprofessional work, and machinist trades.

Employment Component

Sec. 5. (a) As a component of the pilot project, the department, after consultation with the Texas Employment Commission, shall develop an employment program designed to assist persons participating in the pilot project in obtaining and retaining employment and to provide them with on-the-job training.

(b) The department shall establish a number of pilot sites in both rural and urban areas of the state to administer the program on a local level. The department may contract with private nonprofit corporations to administer the site offices.

(c) The site offices may contract with employers, prospective employers, or labor unions to provide on-the-job training or apprenticeships for project participants. In placing project participants in positions in which they receive on-the-job training, the site offices shall emphasize training in the kind of skills and trades specified in Section 4(c) of this Act.

(d) The site offices may contract or enter into cooperative agreements with other publicly financed employment programs to provide job-placement services.

(e) In staffing the site offices, the department or nonprofit corporation shall employ, to the greatest extent practicable, persons who are eligible to receive AFDC assistance from the department and who have the knowledge and experience required for the positions.

(f) Each site office shall attempt to place each participant in employment commensurate with his ability, training, and experience.

Sec. 6. Within any limitations imposed under federal law, child care, health services, transportation, and other welfare services to which a person was entitled at the time he became a participant in the pilot project are continued after he obtains employment for the period of time and to the extent the department determines necessary to allow the person to adjust to the demands of a self-sufficient life. The department by rule shall establish standards for determining when and to what extent the services are discontinued.

Advisory Committee

Sec. 7. (a) The Commissioner of Public Welfare, with approval of the State Board of Public Welfare, shall appoint eight persons to serve as members of an advisory committee for the pilot project. Vacancies on the advisory committee are filled in the same manner.

(b) In making the appointments to the advisory committee, the commissioner shall give consideration to the ethnic and sexual makeup of the state in an effort to achieve fair representation and shall attempt to appoint at least one person from business, labor, local government, and the general public.

(c) Advisory committee members serve for the duration of the pilot project and receive no compensation.

(d) The advisory committee shall elect a chairman from among its members. The commissioner shall designate one member to serve as chairman until the committee elects a chairman. The committee meets at the call of the chairman at the place specified in the call.

(e) Each member of the advisory committee is entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling and lodging expenses incurred in attending meetings of the committee.

(f) The advisory committee shall monitor and evaluate the pilot project and report to the department in the manner prescribed by department rule. The committee may include recommendations in its report.

(g) The department shall provide technical and administrative assistance to the advisory committee.

Annual Report

Sec. 8. The department shall prepare an annual report evaluating the pilot project.

Expiration

Sec. 9. This Act expires August 31, 1983.
[Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1659, ch. 655, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Consultations

Sec. 8. In implementing this Act, the department shall consult with individuals and groups having knowledge of and experience in the problems of family violence.

Grants and Funds

Sec. 9. The department shall seek federal funds that may be available for the contracts authorized by this Act and may receive grants and donations to provide the necessary funds.

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Comptroller" means the comptroller of public accounts.

(2) "Fully registrable" means, with reference to the public securities, that the principal of and interest on such securities are payable only to the registered owner thereof, the principal thereof being payable upon presentation of the securities at the place of payment and the interest thereon being payable to the registered owner at the most recent address of said registered owner shown on the books of the registrar.

(3) "Issuer" means the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, authority, or any other political corporation of the State of Texas having the authority to issue public securities.

(4) "Public securities" means bonds, notes, certificates of obligation, certificates of indebtedness, or other obligations for the payment of money lawfully issued by an issuer.

(5) "Registered owner" means the payee named in a fully registrable public security, his legal representative or successor.

(6) "Registrar" means the comptroller of public accounts or a commercial bank meeting the requirements of this Act which is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing public securities.

Form of Public Securities; Denomination

Sec. 3. (a) Any issuer may provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities that such public securities may be in a form:

(1) having appertaining thereto coupons and being unregistrable;

(2) having appertaining thereto coupons and being registrable as to principal only; or

(3) being fully registrable. Such proceedings may provide that public securities of the same issue or series may be of one or more of such types and may be exchangeable in whole or in part for one or more of such types.

(b) Any issuer may also provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities that such public securities shall be in a form having initially appertaining thereto coupons and being permitted to become fully registrable in accordance with Section 5 of this Act.

(c) Public securities may be issued in any denomination or denominations, provided that if such public securities are authorized to be in a denomination or denominations in excess of $1,000, they shall be in a denomination or denominations that are multiples of $1,000.

Registrar of Securities; Rules and Regulations

Sec. 4. If the proceedings authorizing public securities provide that such securities can be fully registrable, the registrar therefor shall be the comptroller or a banking corporation or association at which the principal of such public securities shall be payable. They may be registered under such reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith as such proceedings may provide.

Comptroller as Registrar: Attachment or Removal of Coupons

Sec. 5. If the comptroller of public accounts is named the registrar in proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities, in accordance with such proceedings such public securities may be originally issued with coupons appertaining thereto and subsequently become fully registrable by the removal by the comptroller of the coupons appertaining thereto upon the presentation of the securities to the comptroller, and may be originally issued fully registrable and subsequently become public securities with coupons appertaining thereto by attachment of the coupons appertaining thereto by the comptroller upon presentation of such securities to the comptroller. Such attachment and removal may occur successively from time to time. No matured coupon will be attached or reattached by the comptroller.

Exchange or Change in Form of Securities

Sec. 6. (a) If the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities provide or have heretofore provided that such public securities having appertaining thereto coupons or being fully registrable may be exchanged or such public securities change form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with Section 5 hereof, and such public securities on initial issuance are approved by the attorney general in accordance with law and registered by the comptroller, upon exchange or their change in form by attachment or removal of coupons in accordance with this Act, it shall not be necessary for the attorney general to again approve and it shall not be necessary for the comptroller to again register such public securities, resulting from such exchange or change in form, but the public securities resulting from such exchange or change in form shall as a matter of law be considered as having been approved by the attorney general and registered by the comptroller.

(b) If such public securities are exchanged, the registrar shall cause to be placed on the public securities received in exchange an appropriate inscription manually signed verifying that the public securities received in exchange are in lieu of the public securities presented for exchange.

Change of Registered Owner or Address; Replacement for Damaged, Destroyed, Lost or Stolen Bonds: Form and Identity Changes

Sec. 7. (a) If the comptroller is named as registrar in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of public securities, upon the change on the registration books of the registrar of the registered owner or his address, the comptroller shall notify all places of payment with reference to such change or changes.

(b) In the event application is made to the comptroller for the replacement of damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen bonds, pursuant to Chapter 334, Acts of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965 (Article 715a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and any such bond or bonds as described in said application do not appear in the comptroller's records in the form and bear the identity as originally registered by the comptroller, the applicant for such replacement shall furnish the comptroller a chronology of the changes from the original, registered form and identity as to enable the comptroller, under regulations promulgated by him to effect such purpose, to trace the changes in form and identity by such chronology, of such bond or bonds into the original, registered form and identity.

Cost and Expenses for Registration and Exchange of Securities

Sec. 8. Where the proceedings authorizing public securities provide for public securities to be fully registrable whether initially or through exchange or conversion, such proceedings shall provide to the extent the issuer is to pay the cost and expenses in connection with the registration and exchange of such public securities including the fees of the registrar therein named. The comptroller shall adopt reasonable regulations for his performing the services provided for herein, and shall publish a schedule of fees for performing such services.

Cumulative Effect; Conflicting Provisions

Sec. 9. (a) The provisions of this Act shall be cumulative of all laws or parts of laws, general or special, and specifically are not intended to qualify the Texas Uniform Commercial Code or limit the negotiability of public securities as provided therein.

(b) In the event of conflict between the provisions of this Act and the provisions of any city charter the provisions of this Act shall prevail.

Severability

Sec. 10. If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person, political subdivision, or circumstances is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of this Act, which can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of the Act are declared to be severable. Alternate Procedures; Issuance and Sale of Refunding Bonds; Deposits in Connection with Payment or Redemption of Revenue Obligations

Sec. 7A. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act or any other law to the contrary, any issuer may, at its option, in lieu of making any deposit with the State Treasurer hereunder, deposit proceeds from the sale of refunding bonds issued hereunder, and/or any other available funds or resources, directly with any place of payment (paying agent) for any obligations payable from revenues (other than ad valorem tax revenues) which it wishes to refund, or to pay or redeem in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds, or with the trustee under any trust indenture, deed of trust, or similar instrument securing such revenue obligations, in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment and/or redemption of any such revenue obligations of the issuer, including assumed obligations, which are to be refunded, or to be paid or redeemed in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds; and such deposit, if made on or before such payment and/or redemption date, shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the revenue obligations being refunded, or being paid or redeemed in whole or in part without the issuance of refunding bonds; and any issuer is authorized to enter into an escrow or similar agreement with any such place of payment (paying agent) or trustee with respect to the safekeeping, investment, reinvestment, administration, and disposition of any such deposit, upon such terms and conditions as the parties may agree, provided that such deposits may be invested and reinvested only in direct obligations of the United States of America, including obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, and which may be in book entry form, and which shall mature and/or bear interest payable at such times and in such amounts as will be sufficient to provide for the scheduled payment and/or redemption of such revenue obligations, and further provided that if any such revenue obligations are scheduled to be paid and/or redeemed on a date later than the next succeeding scheduled interest payment date thereon, the issuer shall be required to enter into an appropriate escrow or similar agreement as described above. Notwithstanding any provisions of this Act or any other law to the contrary, refunding bonds may be issued under this Act to refund any revenue obligations which are scheduled to mature, or which are subject to redemption prior to maturity, not more than 20 years from the date of the refunding bonds, and refunding bonds issued under this Act may be sold at public or private sale, under such procedures, at any price (at a premium, at par, or at a discount), upon such terms, and bear interest at such rate or rates, and mature not more than 40 years after their date, all as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the issuer; provided that Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as now or hereafter amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), which pertains generally to the sale price and interest rates of all public securities, shall be applicable to said refunding bonds; and any issuer is further authorized to pledge to the payment of any refunding bonds issued hereunder (i) any surplus income to be available from the investment or reinvestment of any deposit made as authorized in this Section 7A and/or (ii) any other available revenues, income, or resources. The refunding bonds also may be issued in an additional amount sufficient to pay the costs and expenses of issuing said bonds and sufficient to fund any debt service reserve, contingency, or other similar fund deemed necessary or advisable by the issuer.

Art. 717k-2. Public Securities; Issuance by Public Agencies; Interest Rate

Sec. 1. As used in this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The term "public agency" shall mean and include the State of Texas, any department, board, agency, or instrumentality of the State of Texas, any municipal corporation, any political subdivision, any district, any body politic and corporate of the State of Texas, and solely for the purposes of this Act and not for any other purposes of law, any nonprofit corporation or other not-for-profit entity that has been determined to be an instrumentality of or is acting on behalf of any of the foregoing.

(b) The term "public securities" shall mean any bonds, notes, or other obligations payable from taxes, or revenues, or both, which any public agency is now or hereafter may be authorized to issue pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act.

(c) The term "net interest cost" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total of all interest to accrue and come due thereon through the final scheduled maturity date thereof, plus any discount or minus any premium included in the price paid therefor. The term "discount" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the principal amount (par value) of such issue or series plus any accrued interest to the date of delivery minus the total sum of money paid to the issuer. The term "premium" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the total sum of money paid to the issuer for such an issue or series minus the principal amount (par value) thereof, and also minus any accrued interest to the date of delivery. The term "bond years" with reference to each separate bond, note, or other obligation constituting part of an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the principal amount (par value) of each such bond, note, or other obligation by one-thousand (1000) and multiplying such quotient by the number of years from the date interest commences to accrue thereon to its scheduled maturity date. If any portion of an issue or series of public securities is subject to a mandatory redemption prior to scheduled maturity which at the time of delivery of such public securities is scheduled to occur on a date or dates certain, net interest cost and bond years shall be calculated as if the face amount of bonds, notes, or other obligations required to be redeemed on each such earlier date were scheduled to mature on such earlier date and net interest cost shall include any premium required to be paid on any such mandatory redemption date.

(d) The term "net effective interest rate" with reference to an issue or series of public securities shall mean the figure obtained by dividing the amount of the net interest cost of such issue or series by the aggregate total number of bond years of all bonds, notes, or other obligations constituting such issue or series, and then dividing such quotient by ten (10) and expressing the result as a rate of interest in per cent per annum.

Sec. 2. The maximum rate of interest for any issue or series of public securities shall be a net effective interest rate of ten per cent (10%), and any public agency is hereby authorized to issue and sell any issue or series of its public securities at any price or prices and bearing interest at any rate or rates (provided that the net effective interest rate does not exceed ten per cent (10%)), as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided. Any public securities heretofore authorized by an election may be issued, sold, and bear interest as provided in this Act, except that public securities heretofore authorized by an election required by the Constitution of Texas shall not be issued at an interest rate greater than authorized at such election unless a further election is held resulting favorably to the issuance of such previously voted public securities at a price and at a rate authorized by this Act. Elections for that purpose shall be called and held, and notice thereof given, in the same manner as provided by law applicable to the previous election authorizing such public securities.

Sec. 3. The provisions of this Act concerning sale price and the maximum rates of interest which public securities may bear shall apply to all public securities notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, but shall not apply to any public securities whose maximum rate of interest or maximum net effective interest rate is, at the time of issuance thereof, otherwise specifically fixed by the Constitution.

Sec. 4. If an issue or series of public securities is issued in exchange for property, labor, services, materials, or equipment pursuant to provisions of law other than this Act, such public securities may bear interest at any rate or rates, as shall be determined within the discretion of the governing body of the public agency, subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, provided that the maximum interest rate shall not exceed ten per cent (10%).

Art. 717k-5. Validation of Contracts, Warrants and Refunding Bonds Authorized by Counties, Cities or Towns

Sec. 1. In every instance where the commissioners court of a county or the governing board of a city, including home-rule cities, or town in this state has entered into contracts for, or has determined the advisability thereof by giving notice of intention to issue interest-bearing time warrants in payment therefor, the construction of public works or improvements, the purchase of land or interests in land, or for the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, and has heretofore adopted orders or ordinances to authorize the issuance of scrip or time warrants to pay or evidence the indebtedness of such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town for the cost of such public works or improvements, land, material, supplies, equipment, labor, supervision, wages, salaries, or professional or personal services, all such contracts, scrip and time warrants, and the proceedings adopted by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, relating thereto are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved. All scrip warrants and time warrants heretofore issued by the commissioners court or governing body, as the case may be, in payment of work done by such county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and paid for by the day as the work progressed, and for materials and supplies purchased in connection with such work and for professional or personal services rendered to the county, city, or town, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, confirmed, and approved and all such warrants shall be payable in accordance with their respective terms. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant executed or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any contract, scrip warrant, or time warrant, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof.

Sec. 2. All proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, and other instruments heretofore adopted or executed by a commissioners court or governing body of a city, including home-rule cities, or town, and of all officers and officials thereof authorizing the issuance of or pertaining to refunding bonds for the purpose of refunding scrip or time warrants issued by any county or city, including home-rule cities, or town and all such warrants and all refunding bonds, heretofore issued for such purpose, and each of these are hereby in all things validated, ratified, approved, and confirmed. Such refunding bonds now in process of being issued and authorized by proceedings, ordinances, and resolutions heretofore adopted may be issued, irrespective of the fact that the commissioners court or governing body in giving the notice of intention to issue refunding bonds may not have in all respects complied with statutory provisions. It is expressly provided, however, that this Act shall neither apply to nor validate, ratify, or confirm any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds executed, adopted, or issued by any county with a population in excess of 350,000, according to the last preceding federal census, or any proceedings, governmental acts, orders, ordinances, resolutions, or other instruments, or bonds, the validity of which is involved in litigation at the time this Act becomes effective if the question is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Sec. 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word in this Act or application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Act, and the legislature hereby declares it would have passed such remaining portions despite such invalidity.

Art. 717m. Repealed by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 881, ch. 400, § 14(a), eff. June 6, 1979

Section 14(b) of the 1979 repealing act provided:

"Subsection (a) of this section does not affect any proceeding under the repealed law pending on the effective date of this Act. Such a proceeding is covered by the law under which it was instituted, and the repealed law is continued in effect for that purpose."

Art. 717m-1. Declaratory Judgment Concerning Validity of Securities

Definitions

Sec. 1. The following words, as used in this Act, shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Public agency" means any board, authority, agency, department, commission, political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, public corporation, body politic, or instrumentality of the State of Texas including, without limitation, any county, home-rule charter city, general law city, town, or village, any state-supported educational institution of higher learning, any school, junior college, hospital, water, sewerage, waste disposal, pollution, road, navigation, levee, drainage, conservation, reclamation, or other district or authority, and any other type of political or governmental entity of the State of Texas.

(2) "Securities" means all interest-bearing obligations, including, without limitation, any bonds, notes, bond anticipation notes, warrants, certificates, or other evidences of indebtedness, whether general or special, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable in form, whether in bearer or registered form, whether in temporary or permanent form, whether with or without interest coupons, and regardless of the source of payment, whether from taxes, revenues, or both, or otherwise.

Declaratory Judgment

Sec. 2. Any public agency may, prior to or after the issuance and delivery of any securities, institute a proceeding in rem in district court by filing a petition as provided by this Act, for the purpose of obtaining a declaratory judgment as to the authority of the public agency to issue and deliver the securities and as to the legality and validity of all proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting any securities, including, in appropriate cases, the validity of the election, if any, at which the securities were authorized, and the organization or boundaries, if any, of the public agency, any assessments or taxes levied or to be levied, and the lien of the taxes, the validity of any contract or contracts executed or proposed to be executed with respect to the securities, the levy of rates, fees, charges, or tolls, and of proceedings or other remedies for the collection of such taxes, rates, fees, charges, or tolls, the legality and validity of the pledge of any taxes, revenues, receipts, or property, or encumbrance thereon to secure said securities, and as to the legality and validity of the securities and proceedings. The petition may be filed in any district court of Travis County, Texas, or, at the option of the public agency, in any district court of the county in which the public agency maintains its principal office, as a class action against the taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and/or all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities.

Content of Petition

Sec. 3. The petition for declaratory judgment shall briefly set out, by proper allegations, references, or exhibits, the public agency's authority for issuing the securities, the holding of an election and the results of the election where an election is required, copies of or pertinent excerpts from any proceedings, including any essential actions and expenditure of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with the securities, the amount or proposed maximum amount and purpose of the securities, the rate or rates of interest or proposed maximum rate of interest they are to bear, and, in case it is desired to adjudicate the organization or validity of the public agency, the authority for and proceedings had in the creation of the public agency, or in changing its boundaries, if any, or any other pertinent matters.

Notice to Taxpayers and Attorney General, etc.

Sec. 4. The judge of the district court where the petition is filed shall, on filing and presentation of the petition, immediately make and issue an order in general terms in the form of a notice directed to all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditure of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, requiring, in general terms and without naming them, all the persons and the Attorney General of Texas to appear for hearing and trial at 10 a. m. on the first Monday after the expiration of 20 days from the date of issue of the order, and show cause why the prayers of the petition should not be granted and the proceedings and the securities validated and confirmed as therein prayed. The notice shall give a general description of the nature of the petition but need not set forth the entire petition or the attached exhibits. A copy of the petition, together with any exhibits attached, and a copy of said order, shall be served on the attorney general at least 20 days before the time fixed in the order for hearing and trial as aforesaid; provided, that the attorney general may waive the service when he has been furnished a certified copy of the petition, order, and a transcript of all pertinent proceedings relating to the matters set forth in the petition. The attorney general shall carefully examine the petition, and if it appears or there is reason to believe that the petition is defective, insufficient, or untrue, or, if, in his opinion, the proceedings or the securities are or will be invalid or unauthorized, the defense shall be made thereto as he may deem proper. The records of the public agency pertaining to the proceedings or the securities shall be open to inspection at reasonable times to any party to the suit. Any officer, agent, or employee having charge, possession, custody, or control of any of the books, papers, or records of the public agency shall, on demand of the attorney general, exhibit for examination the books, papers, or records and shall, without cost, furnish duly authenticated copies which pertain to the proceedings or the securities, or which may affect the legality of the same, as may be demanded of him. It is specifically provided, however, that if the attorney general does not question the validity of the proceedings or the securities or the security or provisions for the payment thereof, the attorney general may so allege, and on a finding by the court to that effect, the attorney general may be dismissed as a party and the court shall proceed to a final determination of the cause. If the cause is filed in any court other than in Travis County, the public agency shall pay any mileage and travel expenses of the attorney general or his assistant in the same amount as is allowable by the state to officials for travel on other official business. The claim for the expenses shall be filed in duplicate with the clerk of the court in which the cause is pending and shall be taxed as costs against the public agency.

May Enjoin Other Proceedings

Sec. 5. On motion of the petitioner, whether before or after the date set for hearing as provided in Section 4 of this Act, the judge may enjoin the commencement, prosecution, or maintenance by any person or entity of any other action or proceeding contesting the validity of the organizational proceedings or boundary changes of the public agency, or the validity of the securities described in the petition or the validity of any proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, or the validity of the taxes, assessments, tolls, fees, rates, or other levies authorized to be imposed or made for the payment of the securities or the interest on the securities, or the validity of any pledge of any revenues, receipts, or property, or encumbrances thereon, to secure payment, and may order a joint hearing or trial before him of all issues then pending in any other action, cause, or proceedings in any court in the State of Texas, and may order all actions or proceedings consolidated with the suit for declaratory judgment pending before him as authorized by this Act, and may enter orders as are necessary or proper to effect the consolidation, and which will avoid unnecessary costs or delays or multiplicity of suits, and all interlocutory orders shall be final and not be appealable.

Published Notice

Sec. 6. Prior to the date set for hearing and trial as provided in Section 4 of this Act, the clerk of the court where the petition is filed shall give notice by causing a substantial copy of the order issued pursuant to Section 4 of this Act to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Travis County, and in a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the public agency maintains its principal office, and if any public agency, other than the State of Texas, has defined boundaries, in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which the public agency has territory. The notice shall be so published once in each of two consecutive calendar weeks, with the date of the first publication to be not less than 14 days prior to the date set for hearing and trial. On the giving of the notice and the publication of the order, all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any property or funds to be affected in any way by the securities, or the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities, shall be considered as and are thereby made parties defendant to the proceedings, and the court shall have jurisdiction of them to the same extent as if individually named as defendants in the petition and personally served with process in the cause.

Admission of Parties

Sec. 7. Any property owner, taxpayer, citizen, or person affected by or interested in the proceedings or the issuance of the securities may become a named party to the proceedings by pleading to the petition on or before the time set for hearing and trial as provided in Section 4 of this Act, or thereafter by intervention on leave of court. At or after the time and at the place designated in the order for hearing and trial, the judge shall proceed to hear and determine all questions of law and fact in the proceedings and may enter orders as to the proceedings, and as to any necessary adjournments as will enable him properly to try and determine the questions and to render a final judgment with the least possible delay. Any party to the proceedings shall be entitled to a jury trial on any issue of fact where required by the Texas Constitution. The proceedings, hearings, and trials shall take priority over all other cases, causes, or matters pending in the court, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the judge of the court assure the priority and act thereon and make the necessary orders and render final judgment with the least possible delay. Rule 254 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and Section 1, Chapter 7, Acts of the 41st Legislature, Regular Session, 1929, as amended (Article 2168a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), shall not apply to any proceedings or appeals authorized by this Act. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the applicable Texas Rules of Civil Procedure and all applicable statutes shall govern the proceedings and appeals held and conducted pursuant to this Act.

Bond

Sec. 8. At any time prior to entry of final judgment in the proceedings, the public agency may ask the court for an order that any opposing party or intervenor, except the attorney general, be dismissed unless the opposing party or intervenor shall post a bond with sufficient surety, approved by the court, payable to the public agency for the payment of all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the delay as will be occasioned by the continued participation of the opposing party or intervenor in the proceedings in the event that the public agency finally prevails and obtains substantially the judgment prayed for in its petition. The court shall then issue an order directed to the opposing party or intervenor, which order, together with a copy of the motion, shall be served on the opposing party or intervenor, or on his attorney of record, personally or by registered mail, requiring the opposing party or intervenor to appear at the time and place, not sooner than 5 nor later than 10 days after entry of the order, as the court may direct, and show cause why the motion should not be granted. Motions with respect to more than one opposing party or intervenor may be heard together if so directed by the court. Unless at the hearing on the motion the opposing party or intervenor establishes facts which, in the judgment of the court would entitle him to a temporary injunction against the issuance of the securities, the court shall grant the motion of the public agency and in its order the court shall fix the amount of the bond to be posted by the opposing party or intervenor in an amount found by the court to be sufficient to cover all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the delay as will be occasioned by the continued participation of the opposing party or intervenor in the proceedings in the event that the public agency finally prevails and obtains substantially the judgment prayed for in its petition. The court in its discretion may receive evidence at the hearing or any adjournment with respect to the amount of the damages and costs, which shall include but not be limited to anticipated increases in interest rates and in construction and financing costs. If more than one opposing party or intervenor is a participant in the proceedings, the court in its discretion may allocate the amount of the bond among the opposing parties or intervenors according to the extent or degree of their participation in the proceedings, but may fix the amount of the bond to be posted by a particular opposing party or intervenor only if a motion as described in this section was made and granted as to the opposing party or intervenor. In the event a bond with sufficient surety is not filed by the opposing party or intervenor within 10 days after entry of the order of the court fixing the amount of the bond, the opposing party or intervenor shall be dismissed by the court. The dismissal shall constitute a final judgment of the court, unless an appeal was taken as provided by this Act. No court shall have further jurisdiction of any action to the extent the action involves any issue which was or could have been raised in the proceedings, except to the extent that the issue may have been raised by an opposing party or intervenor as to whom no motion was made hereunder. An order of the court fixing the amount of the bond to be posted by an opposing party or intervenor or denying the motion of a public agency or dismissing a party for failure to file a bond may be appealed as provided in Section 9 of this Act. The court to which any appeal is taken may modify the order of the lower court and may enter the modified order as the final order. In the event no appeal is taken or if the appeal is taken and the order of the lower court is affirmed or affirmed as modified, and no bond is posted pursuant to this section within 10 days after entry of the appropriate order, no court shall have further jurisdiction of any action to the extent it shall involve any issue which was or could have been raised in the proceedings, except to the extent that the issue may have been raised in the proceedings by an opposing party or intervenor as to whom no motion was made hereunder. It is further provided that, on motion of the public agency, the court shall proceed without delay to hearing and trial on the merits of the public agency's petition, regardless of the pendency of an appeal from any order entered pursuant to this section.

Appeal

Sec. 9. Any party to the cause, whether the public agency, a defendant, intervenor, or otherwise, dissatisfied with any order entered paramount to Section 8 of this Act, or with the judgment in the declaratory judgment action, may appeal therefrom to the appropriate court of civil appeals after the entry of the order or judgment, or the order or judgment shall become final. The appeal shall take priority over all other cases, causes, or matters pending in the court of civil appeals, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the court of civil appeals assure the priority and act thereon and render its final order or judgment therein with the least possible delay. The Supreme Court shall have authority to review, by writ of error or other authorized procedure, all questions of law arising out of the orders and judgments of the courts of civil appeals in the cases, in the manner, time, and form applicable in other civil causes where a decision of the court of civil appeals is not final, but any such review shall take priority over all other cases, causes, or matters pending in the Supreme Court, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the Supreme Court assure the priority and review and act thereon and render its final order or judgment therein with the least possible delay. Also, Rule 499a, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, shall apply to proceedings in the district court, but any direct appeal thereunder shall take priority over all others cases, causes, and matters pending in the Supreme Court, except habeas corpus, and it shall be mandatory that the Supreme Court assure the priority and review and act thereon and render its final order or judgment with the least possible delay.

Effect of Judgment

Sec. 10. In the event the judgment of the district court determines that the public agency has or had authority to undertake the proceedings and/or to issue the securities upon the terms set forth in the petition for declaratory judgment hereunder, and adjudicates the legality of all proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or relating to the securities, and no appeal is taken within the time above prescribed, or if taken and the judgment of the district court is affirmed, the judgment shall, as to all matters adjudicated, or which could have been raised in the proceedings, be forever binding and conclusive against the public agency, the attorney general, the comptroller of public accounts, and all parties to the cause, whether mentioned in and served with the notice of the proceedings, or included in the description, "all taxpayers, property owners, and residents, if any, of the public agency, and all nonresidents, if any, owning property therein, and all others having or claiming any right, title, or interest in any properties or funds to be affected by the proceedings and/or the issuance of the securities, or interested or affected in any way thereby, or by the proceedings, including all actions and expenditures of funds, taken or made and/or proposed to be taken or made in connection with or affecting the securities," and shall constitute a permanent injunction against the institution by any person or entity of any action or proceedings contesting the validity of the proceedings and/or securities described in the petition, or the validity of provisions made for the payment of the same, or of interest thereon, or any matters adjudicated by the judgment, or which could have been raised in the proceedings.

Securities: Printed Statement

Sec. 11. Securities adjudged valid as provided by this Act may, at the option of the public agency, have stamped, printed, or written on the securities the following statement:

“This obligation was validated and confirmed by a judgment entered _____ (date when the judgment was entered and the court in which it was entered and the style and number of the cause in said court), which perpetually enjoins the institution of any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity of this obligation, or the provision made for the payment of the principal thereof and interest thereon.”

The certificate may be signed by the clerk, secretary, or other official of the public agency, and the signature may be by facsimile if authorized by the governing body of the public agency.

Costs

Sec. 12. The costs in each proceeding under this Act shall be paid by the public agency, except that in cases where a taxpayer, citizen, or other person or entity appears and contests the proceedings or intervenes therein, the court may tax the whole or any part of the costs against such party or parties as the court shall determine to be equitable and just; provided, that in no event shall any costs be taxed against the attorney general.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 13. The procedure prescribed in this Act is cumulative of all other methods permitted under law for declaratory judgments and for approval and validation of proceedings and/or securities and shall not have the effect of repealing any such laws; but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the acts and procedures authorized in this Act, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as specifically provided in this Act. To the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. The procedures authorized by this Act may be invoked only by a public agency, and when so invoked may be employed concurrently with, or after use of other means of declaratory judgment, approval, or validation, and may be invoked before or after the attorney general has approved the securities and/or before or after the securities are authorized or delivered and outstanding, and may be invoked regardless of the pendency of any other suit, action, cause, or proceeding in any court pertaining to the matters sought to be adjudicated. This Act shall not have the effect of repealing the existing right of a public agency to apply for, and of the Supreme Court to issue, writs of mandamus to the attorney general for the approval of bonds, in appropriate cases, and the Supreme Court is specifically authorized to consider and issue such writs when appropriate, and it is declared that the remedy is necessary and desirable in the public interest as a matter of public policy of the State of Texas.

Art. 717o. Local Government Sport Centers

Definitions

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Local government" means a county, an incorporated city or town, or an independent school district.

(2) "Ordinance," in the case of an independent school district, means "resolution," and in the case of a county means "order."

(3) "Sport center" means a facility used for sporting activities and events, including auxiliary facilities such as parking areas and restaurants.

Application of Act

Sec. 2. A local government may take advantage of this Act only if all or most of its territory is located in a county that has a population of more than 650,000, according to the last preceding federal census.

General Authority

Sec. 3. (a) A local government may construct, acquire, lease, improve, enlarge, and operate one or more sport centers under this Act.

(b) Two or more local governments acting jointly may do anything authorized by this Act to be done by a single local government. When two or more local governments act jointly, joint action by all local governments involved is necessary to perform any official act. Two or more local governments may act jointly under this subsection only if each of them is authorized individually to take advantage of this Act and all or most of the territory of each of them is located in the same county or in adjacent counties.

(c) A local government or combination of them acting under this Act may contract with any public or private entity including a coliseum advisory board or similar body, for the performance of any function authorized under this Act other than the performance of an official governmental act that is required to be done by the governing body of a local government.

Issuance of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 4. For any purpose authorized under Section 3 of this Act, the governing body of a local government may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more series to be payable from and secured by liens on all or part of the revenue derived from a facility authorized under this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 5. (a) The bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not to exceed 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for paying expenses of operation and maintenance of facilities authorized under this Act, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Rentals, Rates, and Charges

Sec. 6. The local government is authorized to fix and collect fees, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, or availability of all or any of its property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act in such amounts and in such manner as may be determined by the governing body of the local government.

Pledges

Sec. 7. (a) The local government may pledge all or any part of the revenues, income, or receipts from such fees, rentals, rates, and charges to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged fees, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the facilities authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the local government, and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body of the local government may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The local government may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

(d) No holder of any bond or bonds issued under this Act shall ever have the right to demand payment thereof out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Public Purpose

Sec. 8. The acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, equipment, operation, and maintenance of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities authorized under this Act are public purposes and proper functions of local governments.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 9. (a) Any bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) The refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded by them. In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds issued at any time by a local government under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 10. All bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason, and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

Authorized Investments and Security for Deposits

Sec. 11. All bonds issued under this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, trustees, and guardians, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic. The bonds also are eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of it, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic, to the extent of the market value of the bonds, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Cumulative Effect

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized by it without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided. When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A local government has the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied; granted by this Act.

BUILDING—SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS

CHAPTER FOUR. CORPORATE POWERS OF ASSOCIATES

Power to Act Under Federal Self-Employed Retirement Plans

Sec. 4.05. Any association and any Federal association (insofar as its charter and applicable Federal rules and regulations permit) may exercise all powers necessary to qualify as a trustee or custodian for retirement plans meeting the requirements of 26 U.S.C. sec. 401(d) or sec. 408 or any similar plans permitted or recognized by Federal law and may invest any funds held in such capacities in the savings accounts of the institution if the trust or custodial retirement plan does not prohibit such investment.

CHAPTER EIGHT. SUPERVISION AND REGULATION, BOOKS AND RECORDS, ACCOUNTING PRACTICES, STATEMENTS, REPORTS, AUDITS, EXAMINATIONS, VIOLATIONS, RECEIVERSHIP

8.01 to 8.12]*

Commissioner Shall Order Discontinuance of Violations

Sec. 8.13. If the Commissioner as a result of any examination or investigation of the affairs of an association finds that such association is violating or has violated or is about to violate any provision of its charter or bylaws or any law, or willfully violates any rule or regulation governing its operations to an extent which would tend to cause a substantial reduction in net worth or is engaging in, or has engaged in, or if the Commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that the association is about to engage in an unsafe and unsound practice or practices, he shall deliver a formal written order to the board of directors of the association in which the facts known to the Commissioner are set forth with an order to cease and desist from any such violation or practice. Such order may, by provisions which may be mandatory or otherwise, require the association, its directors, officers, employees, or agents to take affirmative action to correct the conditions resulting from any such violation or practice. Such order shall become final 10 days after the same has been delivered unless the association shall within such time request a hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, at which hearing any pertinent evidence relating to said order or the facts stated therein may be presented. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented and any matters of record in his office, shall thereupon either continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside. An unsafe and unsound practice with respect to an association is such action or inaction as is likely to cause insolvency or substantial dissipation of assets or earnings or to otherwise prejudice its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders.

Commissioner May Remove Directors and Officers Participating in Violations

Sec. 8.14. Whenever in the opinion of the Commissioner, any director or officer of an association has committed any violation of law, rule, or regulation, or refused to comply with a cease and desist order which has become final, or has engaged or participated in any unsafe or unsound practice or practices in connection with the association, or has committed or engaged in any act, omission, or practice which constitutes a breach of his fiduciary duty as such director or officer, and it appears that the association has suffered or probably will suffer substantial financial loss or other damage or that its ability to timely satisfy withdrawal requests of savings account holders could be seriously prejudiced thereby, the Commissioner may require that any such director or officer be removed from the office. Prior to entering an order of removal, the Commissioner shall deliver a full statement of the acts and conduct to which he objects to the board of directors of the association and the person or persons concerned and of his intention to enter a removal order. Such order shall become final within 10 days after such delivery unless within such time a hearing is requested. The Commissioner shall promptly hold a hearing if timely request is made at which any pertinent evidence relating to the matters set forth in such statement may be presented. After such hearing the Commissioner, on the basis of the evidence presented at such hearing, may proceed to enter an order for the immediate removal of the director or officer affected, a reprimand of the individuals and association concerned or a dismissal of the entire matter. If no hearing is requested within the time specified, the Commissioner may proceed to enter an order of removal on the basis of the facts set forth in his original statement.

Enforcement of Cease and Desist and Removal Orders

Sec. 8.15. In the case of violation or threatened violation of or failure or refusal to obey a final cease and desist order or a removal order, the Commissioner may apply to a district court of Travis County for an order enjoining the association, its directors, officers, employees, or agents from violating, failing or refusing to obey such order. The court shall grant such injunction upon a showing of substantial evidence to support the findings of fact in the Commissioner's order. No bond for injunction shall be required of the Commissioner.

Receivership

Sec. 8.16. If, in the judgment of the Commissioner, the public interest requires it, he may apply to a district court of the county in which the home office of the association is located for the appointment of a receiver for such association. Such court shall appoint a receiver as applied for if it finds substantial evidence to support any one or more of the following circumstances or conditions alleged to exist by the Commissioner in his application:

- (1) that the association is insolvent in that the cash value of its assets realizable in a reasonable time is less than the total of its obligations to its creditors and the amount of its savings liability;
- (2) that there has been a substantial dissipation of assets or earnings due to any violation or violations of applicable law, rules, or regulations, or to any unsafe or unsound practice or practices;
- (3) that the association is in an unsafe and unsound condition to transact business in that there has been a substantial reduction of its net worth over the preceding 36 months (for this purpose, net worth shall be computed after the establishment of such valuation reserves and other reserves against possible losses as have been required by any supervisory authority having jurisdiction over the association or would be required under generally accepted accounting principles applicable to savings and loan associations) and has failed to restore such net worth reduction as ordered by the Commissioner;
- (4) that the association and its directors and officers have violated any material conditions of its charter or bylaws, the terms of any final cease and desist order issued by the Commissioner, or any agreement between the association and the Commissioner;

(5) that the association, its directors, and officers have concealed or refused to permit examination of the books, papers, accounts, records, and affairs of the association by the Commissioner or other duly authorized personnel of the Savings and Loan Department.

All proceedings in regard to such applications shall be governed by the laws of this State applicable to receiverships generally. The Commissioner, or his deputy or a Savings and Loan Examiner shall be appointed by the court as a receiver. The receiver, upon appointment by the court, shall immediately take charge of the affairs of the association, subject to the direction of the court, and proceed to conduct the business of the association or to take such steps as may be necessary to conserve the assets and protect the rights of the creditors of the association and its members as may be ordered by the court. The official who is appointed receiver shall receive no additional compensation for such service. If the association is an institution insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, said corporation may be tendered appointment as receiver or co-receiver. If it accepts such appointment, it may, nevertheless, make loans on the security of or purchase at public or private sale any part or all of the assets of the association of which it is receiver or co-receiver, provided such loan or purchase is approved by such court. The directors, officers and attorneys of an association in office at the time of the initiation of any proceeding under this Section are expressly authorized to contest any such proceedings and shall be reimbursed for reasonable expenses and attorney's fees by the association or from its assets, the amount of which shall be fixed by the court.

Voluntary Supervisory Control

Sec. 8.18. If in connection with any cease and desist order the Commissioner requests the consent of the board of directors of the association to the placing of the association under supervisory control of the Commissioner, and a majority of such board affirmatively consents to such request, the Commissioner may appoint a supervisory agent to supervise and monitor the operations of the association during the period of supervision to which consent was given. During the period of supervision, the association, its directors, and officers shall act in accordance with such instructions and directions as may be given by the Commissioner through the supervisory agent and shall not act or fail to act except in compliance with such cease and desist order without the prior approval of the supervisor or the Commissioner. The cost incident to such supervision shall be fixed by the Commissioner and paid by the association.

CHAPTER TEN. CONVERSION, REORGANIZATION, MERGER AND CONSOLIDATION, VOLUNTARY LIQUIDATION

Reorganization, Merger, and Consolidation

Sec. 10.03. Pursuant to a plan adopted by the board of directors and approved by the Commissioner as equitable to the members of the association and as not impairing the usefulness and success of other properly conducted associations, an association shall have power to reorganize or to merge or consolidate with another association or Federal association; provided, that the plan of such reorganization, merger or consolidation shall be approved by a majority of the total vote the members are entitled to cast. Approval may be voted at either an annual meeting or at a special meeting called to consider such action. In all cases the corporate continuity of the resulting corporation shall possess the same incidents as that of an association which has converted in accordance with this Act. In the case of prior common ownership, the association in the proposed merger possessing the largest assets shall be designated as the home office. Any order of the Commissioner approving the reorganization, merger, or consolidation of any association with another association or Federal association shall become final 10 days after the same has been delivered unless an association within the vicinity of the reorganizing, merging, or consolidating associations shall within such time request a public hearing before the Commissioner in regard to such order, objecting to such order on the basis that the reorganization, merger, or consolidation would materially constrict the ability of the objecting association to compete in its vicinity. Such hearing shall be promptly held, and the Commissioner on the basis of the evidence presented shall thereupon either continue such order in effect, modify the same, or set it aside.

CHAPTER ELEVEN. MISCELLANEOUS

Exemption from Securities Laws

Sec. 11.01. Savings accounts, certificates, and other evidences of interests in the savings liability of associations subject to this Act and of Federal associations are not "securities" for any purpose under The Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1, et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Securities of these associations other than interests in the savings liability of the associations are not subject to the registration requirements of The Securities Act, as amended. Any person whose principal occupation is that of an officer of an association is exempt from the registration and licensing provisions of The Securities Act, as amended, with respect to that person's participation in a sale or other transaction involving securities of the association of which the person is an officer.

Disclosure of Examiners—Penalty

Sec. 11.18. The Commissioner and any examiner, inspector, deputy, assistant or clerk, appointed or acting under the provisions of this Act, failing to keep secret any facts or information regarding an association obtained in the course of an examination or by reason of his official position, except when the public duty of such officer required him to report upon or take official action regarding the affairs of the association so examined, or who wilfully makes a false official report as to the condition of such association, shall be removed from his position or office and shall be fined not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500), or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both. Reports of examinations made to the Commissioner shall be regarded as confidential and not for public record or inspection, except that for good reason same may be made public by the Commissioner, but copies thereof may, upon request of the association, be furnished to the Federal Home Loan Bank Board or to the Federal Home Loan Bank for the purpose of meeting the requirements of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act. Nothing herein shall prevent the proper exchange of information relating to associations and the business thereof with the representatives of savings and loan departments of other states, but in no case shall the private business or affairs of any individual association be disclosed. Any official violating any provision of this Section, in addition to the penalties herein provided, shall be liable, with his bondsmen, to the person or corporation injured by the disclosure of such secrets. The foregoing provisions shall not apply to any facts or information or to any reports of investigations obtained or made by the Commissioner or his staff in connection with any applications for a charter under this Act or in connection with any hearing held by the Commissioner under this Act, and any such facts, information or reports may be included in the record of the appropriate hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Commissioner shall report promptly to the Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission when either a cease and desist or removal order under Sections 8.13 and 8.14 of this article has been issued to an association. The Commissioner shall furnish such information about the association as the section members shall require in executive session.

Permanent Reserve Fund Stock to be Called Capital Stock

Sec. 11.19. The stock issued by an association under the authority of Section 2.02 shall hereafter be called "Capital" stock rather than "Permanent Reserve Fund" stock and the term "Permanent Reserve Fund" wherever such term appears in the Texas Savings and Loan Act, as amended (Article 852a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is hereby changed to "Capital."

Savings and Loan Section to Adopt Rules and Regulations for Reporting Change of Control of Associations

Sec. 11.20. The Savings and Loan Section of the Finance Commission shall adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as may be required to effectively cause the timely reporting to the Commissioner of any change in the control of an association occurring by reason of change in ownership of voting stock or holdings of voting rights in the association. Seasonal Agricultural License

Sec. 5b. (a) A person transporting eligible agricultural commodities in their natural state for compensation or hire is not required to obtain a certificate of convenience and necessity if he holds a seasonal agricultural license issued by the Commission. A person holding a seasonal agricultural license may transport eligible agricultural commodities only from the place where the commodities are produced and harvested to the first processor. A holder of a seasonal agricultural license may also transport cotton and cottonseed from a cotton gin to the next processor or point of storage. This transportation may not exceed a distance of seventy-five (75) miles, and must be in intrastate commerce. Agricultural commodities in their natural state include those commodities produced and harvested on a farm which must be transported to storage or a first processor, but do not include the manufactured products of agricultural commodities, nor do they include livestock, milk, wool, mohair, or timber in its natural state.

(b) The Commission may issue a seasonal agricultural license to a person who files an application meeting the requirements of this Act if the motor vehicles to be used in the transportation are not used for carrying any other property or passengers for compensation.

(c) The Commission may issue seasonal agricultural licenses without notice, hearing, or proof of public convenience and necessity. Each license is valid for one hundred twenty (120) days from the date of issuance unless a shorter period is requested by the applicant.

(d) An application for a seasonal agricultural license must include:

(1) the applicant's full name and address;

(2) a complete list of all motor vehicles proposed to be used, including the make, unit number, and identification number of each vehicle; and

(3) a sworn statement by the applicant that he will transport under the license only those agricultural commodities eligible to be transported under this section and will transport them only in intrastate commerce.

(e) A seasonal agricultural license may not be sold, assigned, inherited, or otherwise transferred.

(f) An application for a seasonal agricultural license must be accompanied by a Twenty-five Dollar ($25) filing fee, which shall be retained by the Commission whether or not the license is granted. This fee covers up to five (5) motor vehicles. If the license is to cover more than five (5) motor vehicles, the applicant shall pay at the time the license is issued an additional fee of Five Dollars ($5) for each motor vehicle in excess of five (5) to be operated under the license.

(g) The issuance of seasonal agricultural licenses is exempt from the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes) and from the requirements of Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(h) The Commission shall issue to each licensee an identification card for each motor vehicle covered by the license. The card must be displayed within the cab of the vehicle. The card shall include the license number and the name and address of the owner of the license. A person may not use an identification card after the license has expired. The Commission shall prescribe the form for the identification card and may include additional information on the card.

(i) This section does not apply to any person transporting in the person's own vehicle agricultural commodities in their natural state, which that person owns, to and from the area of production and to and from the market or place of storage thereof.

Identification Plate on Motor Vehicles

Sec. 18. It shall be unlawful for any motor carrier as hereinbefore defined to operate any motor vehicle within this State unless there shall be displayed and firmly fixed upon the front of such vehicle an identification plate to be furnished by the Commission. Each plate shall be designed so as to identify the vehicle on which the same is attached as being a vehicle authorized to operate under the terms of this law; said plate shall bear the number given to the vehicle by the Commission and such other marks of identification as may be necessary. The plate for common carrier vehicles and the plate for contract carrier vehicles shall be different in design. The identification plate provided for herein shall be in addition to the regular license plates required by law. It shall be the duty of the Commission to provide the plate and each motor vehicle operating in this State shall display such plate as soon as the same is received and such plate shall be issued annually thereafter and attached to each motor vehicle not later than September 1st of each year, or as soon thereafter as possible. The Commission shall be authorized to collect from the applicant a fee of one dollar ($1) for each plate so issued, and all fees for such plates shall be deposited in the State Treasury to the credit of the "Motor Carrier Fund."

Art. 912a-15. Establishment and Maintenance of Perpetual Care

Every cemetery association which has established and is now maintaining, operating or conducting a perpetual care cemetery and every association which shall hereafter establish, maintain, operate or conduct a perpetual care cemetery within this state, pursuant to this Act, shall establish with a trust company or a bank with trust powers, no two (2) of the directors of which shall be directors of the cemetery association for the benefit of which such fund is established, an endowment fund of which the income only can be used for the general perpetual care of its cemetery and to place its cemetery under perpetual care; provided, however, that if there is no such trust company or bank with trust powers, qualified and willing to accept such trust funds at the regular fees established by the Texas Trust Act,¹ located within the county within which such cemetery association is located, then and only then, such endowment fund may be established with a Board of Trustees composed of three (3) or more persons, no two (2) of the trustees of which shall be directors of such cemetery association. The principal of such fund for perpetual care shall never be voluntarily reduced, but shall remain inviolable and shall forever be maintained separate and distinct by the trustee or trustees from all other funds. Any such trustee or trustees and the perpetual care trust operated by them shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of the Texas Trust Act. The principal of such fund shall be invested, from time to time reinvested, and kept invested as required by law for the investment of such funds, and the net income arising therefrom shall be used solely for the general care and maintenance of the property entitled to perpetual care in the cemetery for which the fund is established, and shall be applied in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine to be for the best interest of the cemetery for which such fund is established, but shall never be used for improvement or embellishment of unsold property to be offered for sale. In the event the Board of Directors shall fail to generally care for and maintain that portion of the cemetery entitled to perpetual care, as hereinbefore provided, any five (5) or more lot owners in said cemetery whose lots are entitled to perpetual care shall have the right by suit for mandatory injunction or for a Receiver to take charge of and expend said net income, filed in the District Court of the county in which the cemetery is located, to compel the expenditure either by the Board of Directors or by such Receiver of the net income from the perpetual care fund for the purpose hereinabove set forth.

If a cemetery association is operating a cemetery without provision for perpetual care, and if it is authorized by law and wishes to operate said cemetery as a perpetual care cemetery, it shall so notify the Banking Commission of the State of Texas and shall, in accordance with the foregoing provisions hereof, establish a perpetual care fund equal to the amount which would have theretofore have been paid into such a fund, in accordance with provisions of this Act, if such cemetery had been operated as a perpetual care cemetery from and after the date of the first sale of burial space therein, or the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act,² whichever is the greater. If the amount of the perpetual care fund so established is the minimum amount provided in Section 29 of this Act, such cemetery association or corporation shall be entitled to a credit against amounts hereafter required by the provisions of this Act to be paid by it unto such perpetual care fund equal to the excess of the amount of such perpetual care fund, as originally established by it, over what would have been the amount thereof if its amount had been determined without regard to Section 29 of this Act.

In establishing its perpetual care trust fund the association may from time to time adopt plans for the general care, maintenance and embellishment of its cemetery.

A cemetery association which has established a perpetual care fund may also take, receive, and hold therefor and as a part thereof or as an incident thereto any property, real, personal or mixed, bequeathed, devised, granted, given or otherwise contributed to it therefor.

The perpetual care trust fund authorized by this Section and all sums paid therein or contributed thereto are, and each thereof is hereby, expressly permitted and shall be and be deemed to be for charitable and eleemosynary purposes. Such perpetual care shall be deemed to be a provision for the discharge of a duty due from the person or persons contributing thereto to the persons interred and to be interred in the cemetery and likewise a provision for the benefit and protection of the public by preserving and keeping cemeteries from becoming places of disorder, reproach, and desolation in the communities in which they are situated. No payment, gift, grant, bequest, or other contribution for such general perpetual care shall be or be deemed to be invalid by reason of any indefiniteness or uncertainty of the persons designated as beneficiaries in the instruments creating said trust, nor shall said fund or any contribution thereto be or be deemed to be invalid as violating any law against perpetuities or the suspension of the power of alienation of title to property.

Each perpetual care cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to such amount as may have been stipulated in any contract under which perpetual care property was sold prior to March 15, 1934, plus a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until such fund reaches a minimum of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00), after which each such cemetery shall deposit an amount equivalent to a minimum of ten cents (10¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after March 15, 1934, until September 3, 1945. Each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of twenty cents (20¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after September 3, 1945, until July 1, 1963. A minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property and a minimum of Five Dollars ($5.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between March 15, 1934, and July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. From and after July 1, 1963, until September 1, 1975, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of fifty cents (50¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property between said dates. A minimum of Forty Dollars ($40.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty Dollars ($20.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to July 1, 1963, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. Such minimum requirements shall apply to all property in which the exclusive right of sepulture has been sold and paid for, whether used for interment purposes or not.

After July 1, 1963, each agreement for the sale of burial space in a perpetual care cemetery shall set out separately the part of the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser which is to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. If the aggregate amount agreed to be paid by the purchaser is payable in installments, all amounts paid thereon shall be applied, first, to the part thereof not required to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund, to the extent thereof, and the remainder shall, when received by the seller, be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund. Any funds required to be deposited in its perpetual care trust fund by a seller of burial space shall be so deposited not later than ten (10) days after the end of the calendar month during which they are received. If the seller shall fail to so deposit such funds within the time required hereunder, it shall be liable for and the Banking Commissioner shall collect as a penalty the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) per day for the period of such failure, and, upon the relation of the Banking Commissioner of the refusal of the seller to pay to the Banking Commissioner such penalty, the Attorney General shall institute a suit to recover said penalty and for costs and such other relief by the state as in the judgment of the Attorney General is proper and necessary. No cemetery shall hereafter operate as a perpetual care, permanent maintenance, or free care cemetery until the provisions hereof are complied with.

The amount to be deposited in the perpetual care trust fund shall be separately shown on the original purchase agreement and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the purchaser. In the sale of burial space, no commission shall be paid a broker or salesman on the amount to be deposited in the fund.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the laws of the State of Texas or any provision in a trust agreement executed for the purpose of providing perpetual care for a cemetery, such trust agreement may, by agreement entered into between the cemetery association and the trustee or trustees acting under such trust agreement, be amended so as to include any provision which is not inconsistent with any provision in this Act.

From and after September 1, 1975, each such cemetery shall deposit in its perpetual care trust fund an amount equivalent to a minimum of seventy-five cents (75¢) per square foot of ground area sold or disposed of as perpetual care property after said date. A minimum of Fifty Dollars ($50.00) per each crypt interment right for mausoleum interment sold or disposed of as perpetual care property, except that on crypts accessible only through another crypt the minimum requirement shall be Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per each such crypt, and a minimum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00) per each niche interment right for columbarium interment sold or disposed of subsequent to September 1, 1975, shall also be placed in such perpetual care trust fund. The amount of money to be placed in the perpetual care trust fund for lawn crypts shall be the same as crypts in an aboveground mausoleum.

Art. 966i. Incorporation of Certain Areas Containing 8,000 or More Inhabitants and at Least 10,000 Acres

Sec. 1. Any unincorporated area having a population, according to the last preceding federal census, of 8,000 inhabitants or more, and located wholly within boundaries of a district created pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, which district furnishes water and sewer services to householders, contains at least 10,000 acres, and portions of which district are located within the corporate boundaries of two or more municipalities, may be incorporated as a city or town, with all of the powers, rights, immunities, and privileges mentioned and described in the provisions of this title relating to cities and towns, in the manner described in Article 966, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, for incorporating cities and towns, provided, however, that the application to become incorporated shall be signed by at least 500 resident electors.

Sec. 2. The application to become incorporated shall be filed in the office of the county judge of the county in which the unincorporated area is located. Within 10 days after receipt of a map or plat of the boundaries of the unincorporated area, verification by the county tax assessor and collector that the requisite number of resident electors have signed the application to become incorporated, and certification by a registered professional engineer that the area described in the application contains at least 8,000 inhabitants and is located wholly within the boundaries of a district created pursuant to Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, which district furnishes water and sewer services to householders, contains at least 10,000 acres, and portions of which district are located within the corporate boundaries of two or more municipalities, the county judge shall order that an election be held for the purpose of submitting the question of incorporation to a vote of the people, in the manner prescribed by Article 966, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding any provision of this Act or any other law to the contrary, the application for incorporation, the order calling the incorporation election, the conduct and canvassing of said election, and, in the event of the passage of the election, the entry by the county judge upon the records of the commissioners court that the inhabitants of the city or town are incorporated within the boundaries thereof, and all subsequent actions of the incorporated city or town shall be valid, binding, and enforceable notwithstanding the absence of compliance with any requirement or requirements of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not take effect until January 1, 1978. If, however, the unincorporated area described in Section 1 of this Act has been annexed by the principal city of the county wherein the unincorporated area lies or if annexation proceedings have been initiated by the principal city after January 1, 1977, then all provisions of this Act shall be held void.

Sec. 5. If any provision of this Act or its application to any person or circumstance is held to be invalid for any reason, the invalidity does not affect any other provision or application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

Sec. 2. The resolution shall specify that 60 days after giving notice of a declaration of intent to take possession and control, the city in which the cemetery is located will remove or repair any fences, walls, or improvements, and will straighten and reset any memorial stones or embellishments that are found to be a threat or danger to the health, safety, comfort, or welfare of the public and take proper steps to restore and maintain the premises in orderly and decent condition. Notice shall be given by mail to all persons shown by the records in the county clerk's office to have an interest in the cemetery and to all interested persons by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the city.

Sec. 3. Sixty days after giving notice, the city may remove or repair any fences, walls, or improvements, and will straighten and reset any memorial stones or embellishments that are found to be a threat or danger to the health, safety, comfort, or welfare of the public and restore the premises to decent condition. (a) No home rule or general law city may annex any area, whether publicly or privately owned, unless the width of such area at its narrowest point is at least 500 feet, except that a city having a population of twelve thousand (12,000) inhabitants or less may annex an area that is less than 500 feet in width if the corporate limits of the city are contiguous with the property on at least two sides; and except that adjacent cities may accomplish mutually agreeable adjustments in their boundaries of areas that are less than 500 feet in width.

Annexation of Municipal Reservoir

Sec. 7a. A. A general law city may annex a reservoir owned by the city and used to supply water to the city, any land adjoining the reservoir that is subject to an easement for flood control purposes in favor of the city, and the right-of-way of any public roads or highways connecting the reservoir to the city by the most direct route, even though part of the annexed area is outside the city's extraterritorial jurisdiction or is narrower than five hundred (500) feet, if:

- (1) none of the annexed territory is more than five (5) miles from the city's corporate limits;
- (2) no part of the annexed territory is in another city's extraterritorial jurisdiction; and
- (3) the annexed area, excluding road or highway right-of-way, is less than six hundred (600) acres.

B. The provisions of this Act limiting the amount of territory a city may annex in a calendar year do not apply to an annexation covered by this section. Territory may be annexed under this section without the consent of the owners or residents of the annexed area.

Annexation of Municipal Airport

Sec. 7b. (a) A city may annex an airport owned by the city and the right-of-way of any public roads or highways connecting the airport to the city by the most direct route, even though the annexed area is outside the city's extraterritorial jurisdiction and within another city's extraterritorial jurisdiction or is narrower than five hundred (500) feet, if:

- (2) the city within whose extraterritorial jurisdiction the airport to be annexed is located agrees to the annexation.

(b) The provisions of this Act limiting the amount of territory a city may annex in a calendar year do not apply to an annexation covered by this Section. Territory may be annexed under this Section without the consent of the owners or residents of the annexed area.

(c) The annexation of territory outside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the annexing city under this Section does not expand the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the annexing city.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8 to 10]

Annexation of Certain Political Subdivisions

Sec. 11. A. In this Section, "water or sewer district" means any district or authority created by authority of either Article III, Section 52, Subsection (b), Subdivisions (1) and (2), or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution, proposing to provide or actually providing water and sewer services or either of these services to household users as the principal function of the district, but does not include a district or authority if its primary function is the wholesale distribution of water.

B. A city may not annex territory within the boundaries of a water or sewer district unless it annexes the entire portion of the district that is outside the city's boundaries. This restriction does not apply to the annexation of territory in a water or sewer district if the water or sewer district is wholly or partly inside the extraterritorial jurisdiction of more than one city.

C. An annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is exempt from the provisions of this Act limiting annexation authority to territory within a city's extraterritorial jurisdiction if:

(1) immediately before the annexation, at least half the area of the water or sewer district is inside the city's boundaries or its area of extraterritorial jurisdiction; and

(2) the city does not, in the annexation proceeding, annex any territory outside its extraterritorial jurisdiction except the part of the water or sewer district that is outside its extraterritorial jurisdiction.

D. Territory annexed in an annexation subject to Subsection B of this Section is included in computing the amount of territory the city may annex in a calendar year under Subsections B and C, Section 7 of this Act. If the area to be annexed exceeds the amount of territory the city otherwise would be permitted to annex, the city may nevertheless make the annexation, but it may make no other annexations in the remainder of the calendar year except annexations subject to Subsection B of this Section and annexations of territory that are excluded in the computation of territory a city may annex in a calendar year under Subsection B, Section 7 of this Act.

Art. 974a. Platting and Recording Subdivisions or Additions

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for the County Clerk of any county in which such land lies to receive or record any such plan, plat or replat, unless and until the same shall have been approved by the City Planning Commission of any city affected by this Act, if said city has a City Planning Commission and if it has no City Planning Commission, unless and until the said plan, plat, or replat shall have been approved by the governing body of such city. If a city has a City Planning Commission, the governing body may, by ordinance, additionally require approval of said plan, plat, or replat by the governing body. If such land lies outside of and within five (5) miles of more than one (1) city affected by this Act, then the requisite approval shall be by the City Planning Commission or governing body, or both, as the case may be, of such of said cities having the largest population; provided, however, that the governing body of any city having the largest population may enter into an agreement with any other city or cities affected, or the governing body of the largest city may enter into an agreement with any other city within five (5) miles conferring the power of approval within stated portions of the area upon such other city; but any such agreement shall be revocable by either city at the end of twenty (20) years after the date of the agreement or at the end of such shorter period of time as may be agreed upon. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed with the County Clerk, and during the time the agreement continues in force he shall not receive or record any such plan, plat or replat unless it has been approved by the City Planning Commission or the governing body, or both, as the case may be, of the city or cities upon which the power of approval is conferred by the agreement. Any person desiring to have a plan, plat or replat approved as herein provided, shall apply therefor to and file a copy with the Commission, if there be one, or with the governing body if there is no Commission. The Commission, or governing body, as the case may be, shall act upon same within thirty (30) days from the filing date. If said plat be not disapproved within thirty (30) days from said filing date, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the Commission, or the governing body if there is no Commission. If a city with a Commission has required that approval be given by the governing body, then the governing body shall act upon the same within thirty (30) days after the approval by the Commission, or after the approval by reason of nonaction. If said plat be not disapproved by the governing body within said thirty (30) days, it shall be deemed to have been approved by the governing body. A certificate showing the filing dates hereunder and the failure to take actions thereon within the periods herein prescribed shall on demand be issued by the City Planning Commission or governing body, as the case may be, of such city, and said certificate shall be sufficient in lieu of the written endorsement or other evidence of approval herein required. If the plan, plat, or replat is approved, such Commission or governing body shall indicate such finding by certificate endorsed thereon, signed by the Chairman or presiding officer of said Commission or governing body and attested by its Secretary, or signed by a majority of the members of said Commission or of the Governing Body when appropriate under this Act. Such Commission or governing body shall keep a record of such applications and the action taken thereupon, and upon demand of the owners of any land affected, shall certify its reasons for the action taken in the matter.

Sec. 1. In each instance where an election has heretofore been held in each of two adjoining incorporated cities within the same county in this state on the question of the consolidation or merger of the two cities under one government, and a majority of the voters of each city who participated in the election voted in favor of the proposition submitted to them, and thereafter the officers of the smaller city turned over to the officers of the larger city the record books and assets of the smaller city and the officers of the larger city entered upon the performance of their duties as officers of the consolidated city, and the consolidated city is now functioning or attempting to function as a validly constituted municipality, the consolidation is hereby validated in all respects as of the date of the consolidation or attempted consolidation. All proceedings involved in the consolidation are hereby validated, and the consolidation shall not be held invalid by reason of the fact that the election proceedings in either or both of the elections may not have been in accordance with law in regard to the prerequisites for ordering the election, the time of holding the election, the wording of the ballot proposition, the registration of the results, or any other procedure.

Sec. 2. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing body and other officers of a consolidated city which is within the terms of this Act are hereby validated as of the date of the proceedings against any claim of invalidity because of any defect in the consolidation proceedings or because of any purported authorization for or utilization of advisory services of former officers of the smaller city during a period following the consolidation.

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any proceedings or actions the validity of which is involved in litigation on the effective date of this Act if such litigation is ultimately determined against the validity thereof; nor does it apply to any proceedings which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction before the effective date.

The incorporation

proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including any extensions by annexation before June 3, 1975, are validated in all respects, except that the incorporation in or extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings performed by the governing bodies of the cities and towns since their incorporation are validated in all respects as of the date of the proceedings.

Sec. 4. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning any of the acts or proceedings, other than incorporation proceedings or boundary extensions, hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

That each charter, and amendment to a charter adopted by any city of more than 5,000 inhabitants in this state, or where such city has amended or attempted to amend or adopt such charter, since the enactment of Chapter 147, Acts of the Regular Session of the 33rd Legislature of the State of Texas, 1913, and as thereafter amended, relating to home rule, and all of the amendments and proceedings had under same, and that all bonds issued under any amendment where said bonds issued under any amendment have been approved by the attorney general and registered with the comptroller of public accounts are hereby fully validated, ratified, and confirmed and are hereby declared to be in full force and effect as is adopted in strict compliance with all of the requirements of said Chapter 147, Acts of the 33rd Legislature, and as thereafter amended, and the general laws of Texas relating thereto.

The governing body of each such city is authorized to adopt all proceedings necessary or desirable to complete the issuance of such bonds. All of such proceedings relating to the authorization of bonds shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas, and when such bonds have been or are hereafter approved by the Attorney General of Texas and registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts, they shall be incontestable.

Sec. 6. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any city or town now involved in litigation questioning the legality of the incorporation or extension of boundaries or any of the acts or proceedings hereby validated if such litigation is ultimately determined against the legality thereof; nor shall this Act be construed as validating any proceeding which may have been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Applicability

Sec. 2. This Act applies to any city, town, or village that incorporated or attempted to incorporate under general law before January 1, 1975, and that has functioned or attempted to function as an incorporated municipality since the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation, including such a municipality that has adopted a home-rule charter.

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 3. The incorporation proceedings of each municipality covered by this Act are validated in all respects as of the date on which they occurred. The proceedings may not be held invalid because the election or other proceedings related to the incorporation were not in accordance with law.

Boundary Lines

Sec. 4. (a) The original boundary lines of each municipality covered by this Act and any extension of those boundaries adopted before January 1, 1975, are validated in all respects, even though the action adopting the original boundaries or an extension of them was not in accordance with law.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Subsection (a) of this section, it is expressly provided that an attempted annexation that occurred before January 1, 1975, may not be held invalid because it did not comply with the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), or any other applicable law, or because the territory the municipality attempted to annex was not contiguous or adjacent to the then existing boundaries of the municipality, or because the municipality was not petitioned for annexation by the owners or residents of the annexed territory.

Exceptions

Sec. 5. This Act does not apply to:

(1) any matter that on the effective date of this Act is involved in litigation if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) any matter that on the effective date of this Act has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 974d-29. Validation of Incorporation, Boundary Lines and Governmental Proceedings; Cities and Towns of 1,000 or Less

Validation of the Incorporation of Certain Cities and Towns

Sec. 1. If any city or town with a population of 1,000 or less, according to the most recent federal census, that previously incorporated or attempted to incorporate under general law with the aldermanic form of government is now functioning or attempting to function as an incorporated city or town within three or more counties, its incorporation or attempted incorporation is in all respects validated as of the date that it occurred. The incorporation may not be held invalid because the incorporation election or other incorporation proceedings were not in accordance with law or because of a failure to properly define the limits of the city or town.

Validation of Boundary Lines

Sec. 2. The areas and boundary lines of each city and town covered by this Act, including the boundary lines and any subsequent extension of them, are validated in all respects. The incorporation of the city or town or any subsequent extension of its corporate limits may not be held invalid because of the inclusion in the limits of more territory than is authorized by the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

Validation of Proceedings and Acts

Sec. 3. All governmental proceedings and acts performed since the incorporation or attempted incorporation by the governing bodies or other officers of the cities and towns covered by this Act are in all respects validated as of the date of each proceeding and act.

Quo Warranto Proceedings

Sec. 4. This Act does not apply to any city or town now involved in quo warranto proceedings questioning the legality of its incorporation or extension of boundaries or the legality of any of the acts or proceedings validated by this Act if the litigation is ultimately determined against the legality of the matter.

[Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1191, ch. 579, §§ 1 to 4, eff. June 13, 1979.]

Art. 974d-30. Validation of Incorporation and Boundary Lines; Exceptions

Incorporation Proceedings

Sec. 1. The incorporation proceedings of all cities and towns incorporated or attempted to be incorporated under the general laws before the effective date of this Act, which have functioned or attempted to function as incorporated cities or towns since their incorporation or attempted incorporation, are validated in all respects as of the date of the incorporation or attempted incorporation. The incorporation proceedings may not be held invalid because they were not performed in accordance with law.

Boundaries

Sec. 2. The boundary lines of the cities and towns, including any subsequent extensions of the boundaries by annexation, and the reduction or contraction of the boundaries by the discontinuation and disannexation of territory are validated in all respects, except that the extension of a boundary line by annexation into the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town or the incorporation of a city or town in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of another city or town without that city's or town's consent, in violation of the Municipal Annexation Act, as amended (Article 970a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), is not validated by this Act.

Pending and Completed Litigation

Sec. 3. This Act does not apply to any matter involved in litigation on the date this Act takes effect if the litigation ultimately results against the legality of the matter. This Act does not apply to any matter that has been nullified by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Art. 999d. Purchase of Liability Insurance for Certain Municipal Employees

A municipality may insure the officers and employees of the fire and police departments and other municipal employees who drive emergency vehicles against liability to third persons arising from and out of the use and operation of automobiles, motor trucks, and other motor vehicles used as municipal emergency medical, fire, or police vehicles in the line of duty by procuring policies for that purpose with insurance companies authorized to do business in this state. All insurance taken out by a municipality shall be on forms approved by the State Board of Insurance. No municipality may purchase liability insurance in excess of $20,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident, $100,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and $5,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

Art. 999e. Automobile Liability Coverage for Peace Officers and Fire Fighters

Sec. 1. (a) Every incorporated city or town shall provide for insuring peace officers and fire fighters in its employ against liability to third persons arising out of the operation, maintenance, or use of any motor vehicle owned or leased by such city or town.

(b) Any incorporated city or town may elect to reimburse the actual cost of extended automobile liability insurance endorsements obtained by its peace officers and fire fighters on the individually owned automobile liability insurance policies of such peace officers and fire fighters. Such extended endorsement shall be in amounts not less than those required under this Act and shall extend the coverage to include the operation and use of city vehicles by such peace officers or fire fighters in the scope of their employment. Provided, however, that any incorporated city or town which elects to use the reimbursement method authorized under this subsection may require that all peace officers and fire fighters who operate and use motor vehicles present proof that an extended coverage endorsement has been purchased and that such extended coverage is current.

Sec. 2. Liability coverage provided pursuant to the requirements of this Act shall be in amounts not less than the amounts required by the Texas Motor Vehicle Safety-Responsibility Act, as amended (Article 6701h, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), to provide proof of financial responsibility.

Sec. 3. "Motor vehicle" means any motor vehicle for which motor vehicle automobile insurance is written under the provisions of Subchapter A, Chapter 5, Insurance Code, as amended.

Art. 999f. Salary Continuation Payments to Municipal Employees; Subrogation

If an incorporated city, town, or village pays benefits to a municipal employee under a salary continuation program when the employee is injured, the municipality is subrogated to the employee's right of recovery for personal injuries caused by the tortious conduct of a third party other than another employee of the same municipality. The subrogation extends only to the extent of payments made by the municipality. That a municipal employee has a cause of action against a third party for personal injuries is not a ground for the municipality to deny benefits under a salary continuation program.

He shall render a full and correct statement of his receipts and payments to the city council, at their first regular meeting in every quarter and whensoever, at other times, he may be required by them so to do. He shall do and perform such other acts and duties as the city council may require. He shall receive such compensation as the city council shall fix.

Sec. 1. The city council of an incorporated city having a population of 1,200,000 or more, according to the last preceding or any future federal census, may set the salary and expenses to be paid elected city officials. Said ordinance shall not take effect until the succeeding term, and the salary of a state district court judge of the county in which the city is located shall be the comparative salary; provided that a councilman's salary shall not exceed 40 percent of the comparative salary; the comptroller's salary shall not exceed the comparative salary; and the mayor's salary shall not exceed 150 percent of the comparative salary.

Sec. 2. (a) The city council may not adopt an ordinance under this Act unless the procedures prescribed by this section are followed.

(b) Before adopting an ordinance the city council shall publish notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Notice must be published for two consecutive weeks immediately preceding the week in which the meeting is to be held and at which the proposed ordinance is to be considered. The notice must include a general description of the proposed ordinance, a statement that a public hearing will be held before the ordinance is adopted, a statement of the time and place of the hearing, and a statement that any interested person may appear and testify at the hearing.

(c) The city council must hold a public hearing before taking up an ordinance for consideration.

(d) An ordinance must be approved by a majority vote of the membership of the city council.

(e) A certified copy of an ordinance must be filed with the city secretary within 10 days after enactment, and it is effective on the first day of the succeeding term unless the ordinance prescribes a later effective date.

Sec. 3. (a) The city council may submit an ordinance adopted under this Act to the voters for their approval in the same fashion as charter amendments as provided in Article 1170, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) After an election held under this Act, a two-year period of time must elapse prior to the calling of another election on the same proposition.

In case, however, of a written protest against such change, signed by the owners of 20 per cent or more either of the area of the lots or land included in such proposed change, or of the lots or land immediately adjoining the same and extending 200 feet therefrom, such amendment shall not become effective except by the favorable vote of three-fourths of all members of the legislative body of such municipality. The legislative body of a municipality may also provide by ordinance that a vote of three-fourths of all its members is required to overrule a recommendation of the zoning commission that a proposed amendment, supplement, or change be denied.

(b) The provisions of the previous section relative to public hearing and official notice shall apply equally to all changes or amendments.

(c) In addition to the notice required by Subsection (b) of this section, a general law municipality without a Zoning Commission must provide notice of a proposed change to each property owner who would be entitled to notice under Section 6 of this Act if the municipality had a Zoning Commission. Notice must be given in the same manner as is required for notice to property owners under Section 6 of this Act. The legislative body may not adopt a change until after the 30th day after the day that notice required by this subsection is given.

Art. 1011f. Zoning Commission

(a) In order to avail itself of the powers conferred by this Act, the legislative body of a home-rule city shall, and the legislative body of a general law municipality may, appoint a commission, to be known as the Zoning Commission.

(b) If a Zoning Commission is appointed, it shall recommend the boundaries of the various original districts and appropriate regulations to be enforced therein. Such Commission shall make a preliminary report and hold public hearings thereon before submitting its final report, and such legislative body shall not hold its public hearings or take action until it has received the final report of such Commission; provided, however, that any city or town, by ordinance, may provide for the holding of any public hearing of the legislative body, after published notice required by Section 4 of this Act, jointly with any public hearing required to be held by the Zoning Commission, but such legislative body shall not take action until it has received the final report of such Zoning Commission. Where a City Plan Commission already exists, it may be appointed as the Zoning Commission. Written notice of all public hearings before the Zoning Commission on proposed changes in classification shall be sent to owners of real property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property on which the change in classification is proposed, such notice to be given, not less than ten (10) days before the date set for hearing, to all such owners who have rendered their said property for city taxes as the ownership appears on the last approved city tax roll. Such notice may be served by depositing the same, properly addressed and postage paid, in the city post office. Where property lying within two hundred (200) feet of the property proposed to be changed is located in territory which was annexed to the city after the final date for making the renditions which are included on the last approved city tax roll, notice to such owners shall be given by publication in the manner provided in Section 4 of this Act.

(c) Any other law that refers to a municipal Zoning Commission or Planning Commission shall be construed as referring to the legislative body in the case of a general law municipality that exercises zoning power without appointment of a Zoning Commission.

Tolls and Charges

Sec. 3. Any such city or town thus acquiring any such toll bridge shall have power, to be exercised by its Governing Body as expressed by Ordinance, to fix and to enforce and collect tolls and charges for the use thereof, and for the passage or transportation of persons or property, passengers, vehicles, freight and commodities, over and across such toll bridge. Such tolls and charges shall be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body of any such city or town, and collected under its direction, in accordance with the provisions and requirements of any permits or franchises granted or extended by any governmental authority in respect of or applicable thereto; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits or franchises, shall be just and reasonable and non-discriminatory, as determined by such Governing Body of any such city or town, and with no free service until the bonds herein provided to be issued to acquire such properties, together with the interest thereon, and all duties and obligations incident thereto or arising therefrom are first fully paid, met, and discharged; and, subject to the provisions and requirements of any such permits and franchises, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(a) to pay all expenses necessary to the maintenance and operation of such toll bridge, and to comply with the requirements and make all payments necessary under the provisions of any such permits and franchises therefor;

(b) to pay the interest on and the principal of all bonds and/or warrants issued under this Act when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(c) to pay all sinking fund and/or reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds and/or warrants, and payable out of such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(d) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds and/or warrants and/or with any person in their behalf;

(d-1) to recover a reasonable rate of return on invested capital;

(e) out of the revenues which may be received in excess of those required for the purposes specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), and (d-1) above, the Governing Body of any such city or town may in its discretion use such excess revenues for any or all of the following:

(1) to establish a reasonable depreciation and emergency fund;

(2) to retire by purchase and cancellation or redemption any outstanding bonds or outstanding warrants issued under the authority of this Act and amendments thereto;

(3) to provide needed budgetary support to local government for legitimate public purposes and for the general welfare;

(4) to apply the same to accomplish the purposes of this Act and amendments thereto.

(f) it is the intention of this Act that the tolls and charges herein provided for shall be those necessary to fulfill all obligations imposed by this Act and amendments thereto, and shall be sufficient to produce revenues to comply with the above subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (d-1), and (e). Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas or the United States of America, or other appropriate agencies having jurisdiction, of power to regulate and control tolls and charges to be collected for such purposes, or to provide for bridges over any such river to be used free of any tolls or charges, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds and/or warrants issued hereunder that the State will not limit or alter the power hereby vested in any such city or town or the Governing Body thereof to establish and collect such tolls and charges as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (d-1), and (e) of this Section 3 of this Act, or exercise its powers in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds and/or warrants, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds and/or warrants, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and/or warrant holders and all other obligations of any such city or town in connection with such bonds and/or warrants are fully met and discharged.

(g) this section shall apply to international toll bridges now in existence and owned by a city or that may be acquired or controlled by a city in the future.

Art. 1015g-5. Eligible City Operating International Toll Bridge over Rio Grande; Acquisition, Construction, Operation, and Financing

Applicability of Act

Sec. 1. This Act applies only to incorporated cities and towns whose corporate limits are at any point within 15 miles from the part of the Rio Grande that forms the border between Texas and the Republic of Mexico. In this Act, "eligible city" means a city to which this Act applies.

Acquisition of Toll Bridge, etc.; Contracts

Sec. 2. (a) Each eligible city is authorized for any public purpose to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, equip, operate, and maintain one or more toll bridges over the part of the Rio Grande that forms the border between Texas and the Republic of Mexico.

(b) In this Act, "toll bridge" includes:

(1) the physical properties constituting all or part of a toll bridge;

(2) the permits, grants, franchises, rights, and privileges of every kind granted or extended by the United States, the Republic of Mexico, or any state or political subdivision of those nations for or in regard to the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge or for the collection of tolls or other charges for use of the toll bridge;

(3) the lands, rights-of-way, easements, leaseholds, and contractual or other interests of any kind in lands in either of those nations held or used for or in any manner incident to the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge or approaches to a toll bridge or for the use or occupancy of any buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, roads, streets, railroads, parks, grounds, or conveniences or facilities of any kind related or in any manner incident to a toll bridge;

(4) the buildings, structures, appurtenances, appliances, equipment, conveniences, and facilities of any kind held or used for or in any manner incident to the construction, maintenance, and operation of a toll bridge and the leases and contracts of any kind for the use or occupancy of those lands, buildings, structures, conveniences, appliances, and facilities; and

(5) the rights and properties of any kind incident to or used for the construction, maintenance, or operation of a toll bridge.

(c) An eligible city may make and enter into, carry out, observe, and perform any and all contracts, agreements, and undertakings required by the United States or the Republic of Mexico or any departments, officers, governmental agencies, or public authorities of either nation for the purpose of engaging in the activities authorized by this Act.

Revenue Bonds Authorized; Interim Financing

Sec. 3. (a) For the purpose of providing funds to acquire, purchase, construct, improve, enlarge, or equip a toll bridge or a part of a toll bridge or related buildings, structures, or other facilities for any public purpose, the governing body of an eligible city may issue revenue bonds from time to time in one or more issues or series to be payable from and secured by liens on and pledges of all or any part of any of the revenues, income, or receipts derived by the eligible city from its ownership and operation of any portion of a toll bridge or bridges over the Rio Grande and from its ownership and operation of any other property, buildings, structures, activities, operations, or facilities.

(b) Pending the issuance of revenue bonds pursuant to this Act, an eligible city may use money that is not required by law to be used for other purposes for expenditures in connection with a toll bridge or bridges or may issue notes for those expenditures. If an eligible city uses its money for this purpose, the money may be repaid out of proceeds of the revenue bonds issued under this Act. If notes of the city are issued for this purpose, the notes shall have the characteristics deemed appropriate by the governing body of the city, may bear the rate or rates of interest, may be payable from sources available to pay, and may be secured in the same manner as revenue bonds issued under this Act or payable from the proceeds of refunding bonds issued under this Act or from both revenue bonds and refunding bonds.

Issuance of Bonds and Notes; Negotiability

Sec. 4. (a) The bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be issued to mature serially or otherwise not more than 50 years from the date of issue, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds or subordinate lien bonds under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds and notes and interest coupons appertaining to the bonds or notes are negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for the purposes provided by the Texas Uniform Commercial Code; however, the bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest. The bonds and notes shall be executed; may be made redeemable prior to maturity; may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner and under the terms, conditions, and details; may be sold in the manner, at the price, and under the terms; and shall bear interest at the rates provided by the ordinance authorizing issuance of the bonds or notes.

(c) If provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during the period of the acquisition or construction of any facilities to be provided through the issuance of bonds, paying expenses of operation and maintenance of any facilities, creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and creating any other funds and may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent and in the manner provided by the bond ordinance.

Tolls and Charges

Sec. 5. Each eligible city may fix and collect tolls, rentals, rates, and charges for the occupancy, use, and availability of all or any of its toll bridges in the amounts and in the manner as may be determined by the city's governing body.

Security for Bonds

Sec. 6. (a) An eligible city may pledge all or any part of its revenues, incomes, or receipts from tolls, rentals, rates, and charges, or other resources to the payment of bonds issued pursuant to this Act, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged tolls, rentals, rates, and charges shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds and to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing issuance of the bonds to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the toll bridge or bridges.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property owned by the eligible city and by chattel mortgages or liens on any personal property appurtenant to the real property. The governing body of the eligible city may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the debt.

(c) An eligible city may pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenue, or income received or to be received from the United States or any other public or private source whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Use of Property by Federal Government

Sec. 7. It is hereby found, determined, and declared that the acquisition, purchase, construction, improvement, enlargement, or equipping by an eligible city of any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities for lease to the United States government for use in performing federal governmental functions in the city or in performing federal governmental functions at or near and relating to its toll bridge, even though the toll bridge and the federal facilities relating to the toll bridge are not located in the city, is and constitutes a public purpose and a proper municipal function. Any property, buildings, structures, or other facilities acquired, purchased, constructed, improved, enlarged, or equipped in whole or in part with proceeds from the sale of bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be leased or rented by an eligible city to the United States under the terms and conditions and for the period agreed to by the parties.

Payment of Bonds and Notes; Taxability

Sec. 8. Bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act are payable solely from the revenues, income, receipts, or other resources of the issuing city, as provided in this Act, and the bonds and notes are not tax obligations of the eligible city.

Refinancing

Sec. 9. (a) Bonds or notes issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for the purpose and under the terms, conditions, and details prescribed by ordinance of the governing body of the eligible city. All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and they shall be issued in the manner provided for other bonds authorized under this Act. Refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts sufficient to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds and notes to be refunded at maturity or on any redemption date.

(b) Refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds and notes being refunded. If refunding bonds are issued under this subsection, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds or notes being refunded in accordance with the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. An exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) Bonds and notes issued at any time pursuant to this Act may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable law in addition to that provided by this section.

Approval and Registration

Sec. 10. All bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If he finds that the bonds and notes have been authorized in accordance with law, he shall approve them, and on approval the bonds and notes shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration, the bonds and notes are incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds and Notes as Lawful Investments and Deposit Security

Sec. 11. (a) Bonds and notes issued pursuant to this Act are legal and authorized investments for all banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies of all kinds and types, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for all interest and sinking funds and other public funds of the State of Texas and all agencies, subdivisions, and instrumentalities of the state, including all counties, cities, towns, villages, school districts, and all other kinds and types of districts, public agencies, and bodies politic.

(b) The bonds and notes when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant to them are eligible and lawful security to the extent of their market value for any deposits of public funds of the state or any agency, subdivision, or instrumentality of the state, including a county, city, town, village, school district or other type of district, public agency, or body politic.

Act Cumulative and Wholly Sufficient

Sec. 12. This Act is cumulative of all other law on the subject, and this Act is wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and notes and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby without reference to any other law or any restrictions or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and when any bonds or notes are being issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that any eligible city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Art. 1066c. Local Sales and Use Tax Act

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1]

Authority to Adopt Tax; Imposition and Rate; Election and Ballots; Canvass of Returns; Results of Election; City Boundaries; Tax Schedule and Bracket System Formula for Joint Collection of Taxes; Standards

Sec. 2.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2A]

B. The sales tax portion of any local sales and use tax adopted under this Section is hereby imposed at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within any city adopting such tax which items are subject to taxation by the State of Texas under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted, and as heretofore or hereafter amended, and at the rate of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail within the city of gas and electricity for residential use as defined by the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2C to 2K]

L. In each city in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed in the manner provided by this Act, every retailer selling gas or electricity for residential use shall add the tax imposed by this Act to his sales price and when added the tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The amount of the tax on the sale at retail of gas and electricity for residential use shall be calculated by multiplying the amount of the tax by the sales price. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) which is less than one-half of one cent ($.005) shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent ($.01) of tax equal to one-half of one cent ($.005) or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent ($.01) of tax. The Comptroller may publish a schedule based on the above formula for cities imposing a tax on the sale at retail of gas and electricity for residential use.

Excise Tax; Combined Rate of Excise Tax; Imposition, Rate and Collection of Tax

Sec. 4. A. Except as provided in Subsection D of this Section, in every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption within such city of tangible personal property purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption in such city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the property or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price. Except as provided in Subsection E of this Section, the local use tax is not owed to and may not be collected by, for, or in behalf of a city if no excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption of an item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the State under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended or if the tangible personal property is first stored, used, or consumed within a city or area that has not adopted the local sales or use tax.

B. Except as provided in Subsection D of this Section, in each city where the local sales and use tax has been imposed as provided in Section 2 of this Act, the excise tax imposed under the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act on the storage, use, or other consumption of tangible personal property and the excise tax imposed by this Section of this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the two taxes. The tax imposed by this Section of this Act shall be collected by the Comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such city. The bracket system formula prescribed in Subsection K of Section 2 of this Act shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this Section.

C. The provisions of Article 20.031, Title 122A, shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this Section, provided that the name of the city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the State where the words "this State" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed; and provided further that the effective date for commencing the collection of the sales tax portion of the tax imposed by this Act in any city shall be substituted for the phrase "the effective date of this Chapter."

D. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, there is imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use purchased, leased or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the local sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption within the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the gas and electricity for residential use, or in the case of leases or rentals, of the lease or rental price. In every city where the local sales and use tax has been adopted under this Act, the excise tax imposed by this Section shall be calculated as provided in Subsection L, Section 2 of this Act and shall be collected by the Comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of the city in the same manner as if the use, storage or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use were not exempt under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act.

E. If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the State but not within a city that has adopted the taxes imposed by this Act and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into a city that has adopted the taxes imposed by this Act, the tangible personal property is subject to the local use tax imposed by the city under Subsection A of this Section. The use is considered consummated at the location where the item is first stored, used, or otherwise consumed after the intra-state transit has ceased.

F. If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this State to a customer within this State, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Subsection A of this Section and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection B, Section 2 of this Act. The use is consummated at the first point in this State where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this State is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

Residential Gas and Electricity; Exemption and Reimposition of Tax

Sec. 4A. Effective October 1, 1979, there are exempted from the taxes imposed by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use within a city adopting the taxes imposed by this Act unless prior to May 1, 1979, the governing body of the city, by a majority vote of the membership of the governing body, votes to continue the taxes authorized by this Act on the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use. At any time before or after October 1, 1979, the governing body of a city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may, by a majority vote of the membership of the governing body, exempt from the taxes imposed by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption within the city of gas and electricity for residential use. The governing body of a city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act and provided for the exemption authorized or required by this section may, by a majority vote of the governing body, reimpose the taxes on the sale, production, distribution, lease or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption in the city of gas and electricity for residential use. If a majority of the governing body votes for the exemption authorized by this section or for the reimposition of the tax under this section, the results of the vote must be entered in the minutes of the city. Thereafter the city secretary shall forward to the comptroller by United States Registered or Certified Mail a copy of the ordinance. On actual receipt by the comptroller of the notification, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the exemption or reimposition becoming effective. The exemption or reimposition shall take effect beginning on the first day of the calendar quarter next succeeding the elapsed quarter. If the governing body of a city, by a majority vote of the governing body, votes to exempt from the taxes authorized by this Act the receipts from the sale, production, distribution, lease, or rental of, and the use, storage, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use and forwards to the comptroller by United States Registered or Certified Mail postmarked on or before September 10, 1978, a certified copy of the ordinance, the exemption is effective on October 1, 1978, except that the exemption does not apply to sales of gas and electricity for residential use made during a retailer's regular monthly billing period for a consumer if the regular monthly billing period for the consumer begins before October 1, 1978, but shall apply to each regular monthly billing period beginning on or after October 1, 1978.

Comptroller; Administration, Collection, Enforcement and Operation of Tax; Reports

Sec. 5. (a) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the Comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and the Comptroller shall collect, in addition to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax for the State of Texas, an additional tax under the authority of this Act of one percent (1%) on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of all taxable items within such city which property is subject to the State Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and an additional tax of one percent (1%) on the receipts on the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of gas and electricity for residential use within the city as provided in this Act unless exempted as provided in Section 4A of this Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be collected together, if both are imposed, and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such local sales and use tax in any city, the Comptroller shall comply therewith as provided in this Act.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 5(b) to 5(d)]

Provisions Governing Collection of Tax

Sec. 6. The following provisions shall govern the collection by the Comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

A. All applicable provisions contained in Chapters 1 and 20 of Title 122A shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

Text of paragraph (1) effective until August 31, 1981

(1) For the purposes of the local sales and use tax, "place of business of the retailer" means an established outlet, office, or location operated by the retailer, his agent, or employee for the purpose of receiving orders for taxable items. The term "place of business of the retailer" includes any location at which three or more orders are received by the retailer in a calendar year. A warehouse, storage yard, or manufacturing plant may not be considered a "place of business of the retailer" unless three or more orders are received by the retailer in a calendar year at such warehouse, storage yard, or manufacturing plant. Each "place of business of the retailer" must have a permit issued by the Comptroller in accordance with Article 20.021, Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended. For the purpose of determining the proper local sales tax imposed by this Act, a retail sale, lease, or rental is consummated as provided in Paragraphs (a), (b), (c), and (d) of this subdivision, regardless of where transfer of title or possession or segregation in contemplation of transfer of title or possession of the taxable item occurs unless the tangible personal property sold, leased, or rented is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination.

(a) If a retailer has only one place of business within this State, all retail sales, leases, and rentals of the retailer are consummated at that place of business, except as provided in Subdivision (d) of this Subsection.

(b) If a retailer has more than one place of business in this State, the retailer's place of business where the purchaser or lessee takes possession of and removes an item of tangible personal property is the place of business where the sale, lease, or rental of that item is consummated. If, however, the retailer ships or delivers the tangible personal property to a point designated by the purchaser or lessee, then the retailer's place of business from which the tangible personal property is shipped or delivered to the purchaser or lessee is the place of business where the sale, lease, or rental is consummated.

(c) If neither possession of tangible personal property is taken at nor shipment or delivery of the tangible personal property is made from the retailer's place of business within this State, the sale, lease, or rental is consummated at the retailer's place of business within the State where the order is received or if the order is not received at a place of business of the retailer, at the place of business from which the retailer's salesman who took the order operates.

(d) When transfer of possession of tangible personal property occurs at or shipment or delivery originates from a location within the State other than a place of business of the retailer, the sale, lease, or rental is consummated at the location within this State to which the tangible personal property is shipped or delivered or at which possession is taken by the customer when:

(i) the retailer is an itinerant vendor and has no place of business, or

(ii) the retailer's place of business where the purchase order is initially received or from which the retailer's salesman who took the order operates is outside the State, or

(iii) the purchaser places the order directly with the retailer's supplier and the property is shipped or delivered directly to the purchaser by the supplier.

(e) The sale of natural gas or electricity is consummated at the point of delivery to the consumer.

Text of paragraph (1) effective September 1, 1981

(1) For the purposes of the local sales tax imposed by this Act, all retail sales, leases, and rentals, except sales of natural gas or electricity, are consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold, leased, or rented is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination or the taxable service is to be performed at an out-of-state location. In the event the retailer has no permanent place of business in the state, the place or places at which the retail sales, leases, or rentals are consummated for the purposes of the tax imposed by this Act shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the comptroller. If the retailer has more than one place of business in the state, the place or places at which retail sales, leases, and rentals are consummated shall be the retailer's place or places where the purchaser or lessee takes possession and removes from the retailer's premises the articles of tangible personal property, or if the retailer delivers the tangible personal property to a point designated by the purchaser or lessee, then the sales, leases, or rentals are consummated at the retailer's place or places of business from which tangible personal property is delivered to the purchaser or lessee. The sale of natural gas or electricity is consummated at the point of delivery to the consumer.

(2) For the purpose of the excise tax imposed by this Act on any retailer holding tangible personal property purchased on a resale certificate and which property becomes subject to the excise tax by reason of use or other consumption of the property, the use or other consumption of the property is consummated at the place where the property is stored or kept at the time of or just prior to its use or consumption, unless the tangible personal property is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination.

(3) For the purpose of determining the proper local use tax imposed by this Act, a holder of a direct payment permit issued by the Comptroller under Section (K) of Article 20.05, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, who becomes liable for local use tax by reason of storage, use, or other consumption of taxable items purchased in this State under a direct payment exemption certificate, shall allocate the tax to the city in which the taxable item was first removed from the permit holder's storage, or if not stored, the place at which the items are first used or consumed by the permit holder after transportation. As used in this paragraph, storage, use, or other consumption may not include a temporary delay or interruption necessary and incident to the transportation or further fabrication, processing, or assembling of taxable items within this State for delivery to the permit holder. A charge for processing, fabrication, or further assembly in a city that has adopted the local use tax shall be subject to the local use tax. If a taxable item is first stored, used, or consumed within a city that has not adopted the tax imposed by this Act or outside of a city, no local use tax is due.

C. (1) All exemptions granted to agencies of government, organizations, persons, and to the sale, storage, use, and other consumption of certain articles and items taxable under the provisions of Article 20.04, Chapter 20, Title 122A, are hereby made applicable to the imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as specifically provided in Section (R) of Article 20.04, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

Delinquent Taxes; Collection Suits; Notice and Limitations; Parties; Seizure and Sale of Property

Sec. 12. A. In any city where the Local Sales and Use Tax has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Chapter 20, Title 122A. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the Comptroller shall notify the Tax Collector of the city to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States Registered Mail or Certified Mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the Attorney General. The city, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the Attorney General as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such city. The notice sent by the Comptroller to the tax collector of the city showing the delinquency of a taxpayer for the local sales and use tax constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of local sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

C. (1) A city that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Subsection A of this Section and are owed to the city under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the Comptroller, and the Attorney General and if neither the Comptroller nor the Attorney General disapproves the suit by written notice to the city.

(2) The Comptroller or Attorney General may disapprove the institution of tax suit by a city if:

(i) negotiations between the State and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the State and the city seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the State and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the State will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of State law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the State has an overriding interest.

(3) A notice of disapproval to a city must give the reason for the determination of the Comptroller or Attorney General. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. A city, after one (1) year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in paragraph (1) of Subsection C of this Section, even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the city has previously given notice and the Comptroller or Attorney General has previously disapproved the suit.

(4) In any suit under this Subsection for the collection of city tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by another city or the State unless the State is a party to the action.

(5) A copy of the final judgment in favor of a city in a case in which the State is not a party shall be abstracted by the city and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the Comptroller. The city shall collect the taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Article 20.09(G)(4), Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by a city on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the Comptroller. The Comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by cities.

Section 6 of art. 1 of the 1979 amendatory act provided:

"Paragraph (1), Subsection B, Section 6, Local Sales and Use Tax Act, as amended (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended by this article, expires August 31, 1981."

Art. 1066d. Rehabilitation and Development of Blighted Areas; Tax Incremental District; Bonds and Notes

Sec. 1. In this Act:

(1) "Blighted area" means:

(A) any area which by reason of the presence of a substantial number of substandard, slum, deteriorated, or deteriorating structures, predominance of defective or inadequate sidewalk or street layout, inadequate parking facilities, faulty lot layout in relation to size, adequacy, accessibility, or usefulness, insanitary or unsafe conditions, deterioration of site or other improvements, diversity of ownership, tax or special assessment delinquency exceeding the fair value of the land, defective or unusual conditions of title, or the existence of conditions which endanger life or property by fire and other cause, or any combination substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of a city, retards the provision of housing accommodations, or constitutes an economic or social liability and is a menace to the public health, safety, morals, or welfare in its present condition and use; or

(B) any area which is predominantly open and which because of obsolete platting, diversity of ownership, deterioration of structures or of site improvements, or otherwise substantially impairs or arrests the sound growth of the community.

(2) "City" means any incorporated city or town.

(3) "Project costs" means any expenditures made or estimated to be made or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred by the city which are listed in a project plan as costs of public works or improvements within a tax incremental district, plus any costs incidental thereto, diminished by any income, special assessments, or other revenues, other than tax increments, received or reasonably expected to be received by the city in connection with the implementation of the plan. Project costs include but are not limited to:

(A) capital costs, including the actual costs of the construction of public works or improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair, or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures, and fixtures; the acquisition of equipment; and the clearing and grading of land;

(B) financing costs, including all interest paid to holders of evidences of indebtedness issued to pay for project costs and any premium paid over the principal amount thereof because of the redemption of such obligations prior to maturity;

(C) real property assembly costs, meaning any deficit incurred resulting from the sale or lease as lessor by the city of property within a tax incremental district for consideration which is less than its cost to the city;

(D) professional service costs, including those costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering, and legal advice and services;

(E) imputed administrative costs, including reasonable charges for the time spent by city employees in connection with the implementation of a project plan;

(F) relocation costs;

(G) organizational costs, including the costs of conducting environmental impact and other studies and the costs of informing the public with respect to the creation of tax incremental districts and the implementation of project plans;

(H) the amount of any contributions made in connection with the implementation of the project plan; and

(I) payments made at the discretion of the city governing body which are found to be necessary or convenient to the creation of tax incremental districts or the implementation of project plans.

(4) "Project plan" means the properly approved plan for the development or redevelopment of a tax incremental district, including all properly approved amendments thereto.

(5) "Tax increment" means that amount obtained by multiplying the total ad valorem taxes levied by the city on property within a tax incremental district in any year by a fraction having a numerator equal to that year's assessed value of all property in the district on which the city levies taxes minus the tax incremental base of the city and a denominator equal to that year's assessed value of property in the district on which the city levies taxes. In any year, a tax increment is "positive" if the tax incremental base is less than the aggregate assessed value of taxable property and is "negative" if the base exceeds such value.

(6) "Tax incremental base" means the total assessed value of the property located within a tax incremental district on the date the district is created on which the city levies ad valorem taxes.

(7) "Tax incremental district" means a contiguous geographic area within a city defined and created by ordinance of the city governing body in accordance with this Act.

Powers of Cities

Sec. 2. In addition to any other powers conferred by law, a city may exercise any powers necessary and convenient to carry out the purposes of this Act, including the power to:

(1) create tax incremental districts and to define the boundaries of the districts;

(2) cause project plans to be prepared, to approve the plans, and to implement the provisions and effectuate the purposes of the plan;

(3) acquire real property by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise to implement a project plan;

(4) issue tax incremental bonds and notes;

(5) deposit money into the special fund of any tax incremental district; and

(6) enter into any contracts or agreements, including agreements with bondholders, determined by the city governing body to be necessary or convenient to implement the provisions and effectuate the purposes of project plans. The contracts or agreements may include conditions, restrictions, or covenants which either run with the land or otherwise regulate the use of land.

Creation of Tax Incremental Districts and Approval of Project Plans

Sec. 3. (a) In order to implement the provisions of this Act, the following steps and plans are required:

(1) holding of a public hearing by the governing body of the city at which interested parties are afforded a reasonable opportunity to express their views on the proposed creation of a tax incremental district and its proposed boundaries; notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper;

(2) adoption by the city governing body of an ordinance that:

(A) describes the boundaries of a tax incremental district with sufficient definiteness to identify with ordinary and reasonable certainty the territory included;

(B) provides for the establishment of a board of directors for the district as provided by Section 5 of this Act;

(C) creates the district on January 1 of the year following the year in which the ordinance becomes effective;

(D) assigns a name to the district for identification purposes; the first district created shall be known as "Tax Incremental District Number One, City of []"; each subsequently created district shall be assigned the next consecutive number; and

(E) contains findings that:

(i) not less than 25 percent by area of the real property within the district is a blighted area;

(ii) the improvement of the area is likely to enhance significantly the value of substantially all of the other real property in the district; it is not necessary to identify the specific parcels meeting the criteria; and

(iii) the aggregate assessed value of taxable property in the district according to the city's assessment plus all existing districts does not exceed 15 percent of the total assessed value of taxable property within the city according to the city's assessment roll;

(3) preparation and adoption by the board of directors of each tax incremental district of a project plan for the district and submission of the plan to the city governing body; the plan must include a statement listing the kind, number, and location of all proposed public works or improvements within the district; an economic feasibility study; a detailed list of estimated project costs; and a description of the methods of financing all estimated project costs and the time when related costs or monetary obligations are to be incurred; the plan must also include a map showing existing uses and conditions of real property in the district; a map showing proposed improvements and uses therein; proposed changes of zoning ordinances, master plan, map, building codes, and city ordinances; a list of estimated nonproject costs; and a statement of a proposed method for the relocation of persons to be displaced; and

(4) approval by the city governing body of a project plan; the approval must be by resolution which contains findings that the plan is feasible and in conformity with the master plan, if any, of the city.

(b) Not later than the 30th day after the adoption of an ordinance under Subsection (a) of this section, the governing body shall make the initial appointments of members of the board of directors of the proposed district.

(c) The board of directors of a district at any time may adopt an amendment to a project plan. The amendment is effective on approval by the governing body.

Residential Property

Sec. 4. (a) A tax incremental district may not be created if before redevelopment under this Act more than 10 percent of the real property in the district, excluding that dedicated to public use, is used for residential purposes.

(b) The boundaries of a district may not be changed to include within the district territory more than 10 percent of which, excluding property dedicated to public use, is used for residential purposes.

Board of Directors

Sec. 5. (a) The ordinance creating a tax incremental district must provide for the establishment of a board of directors for the district. The ordinance must specify the number of members of the board of directors, which may not be fewer than five nor more than 15.

(b) Members of the board of directors are appointed by the governing body. They serve terms of two years unless longer terms are provided pursuant to Article XI, Section 11, Texas Constitution. The ordinance may provide for staggering of terms so that all terms do not expire in the same year, and if the ordinance so provides, it may also provide for some of the initial appointees serving terms shorter than is otherwise provided in order to establish the staggering. Vacancies are filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the governing body.

(c) An individual is eligible for appointment to the board of directors of a district only if he or she:

- (1) is a qualified voter of the city; or
- (2) is at least 18 years old and owns real property in the district, without regard to whether he or she resides in the city.

(d) After the board of directors has been in existence for at least one year, the governing body by ordinance may abolish the board and assume the board's powers, duties, and functions. An ordinance under this subsection may be adopted only on the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the members of the governing body.

(e) Each year the governing body shall appoint one member of the board of directors to serve as chairman of the board for a one-year term that begins on January 1 of the following year. The board of directors may elect a vice-chairman to preside in the absence of the chairman or when there is a vacancy in the position of chairman and may elect other officers.

Powers and Duties of the Board

Sec. 6. The board of directors shall make recommendations to the governing body concerning administration of this Act in the district. In addition to the powers delegated to the board of directors under other provisions of this Act, the governing body by ordinance may delegate to the board any powers and duties with regard to the implementation of a project plan that the governing body considers advisable.

Determination of Tax Increment and Tax Incremental Base

Sec. 7. (a) On the creation of a tax incremental district or adoption of any amendment subject to Subsection (c) of this section, the tax incremental base for the city shall be determined forthwith.

(b) The tax assessor for the city shall determine the aggregate assessed value of the property in the district that appears on the city's assessment roll on the date the tax incremental district is created. The tax assessor shall certify that value to the governing body of the city and the board of directors of the district. That value is the tax incremental base of the taxing unit.

(c) If the governing body approves an amendment to the original project plan for any district which includes additional project costs for which tax increments may be used, the tax incremental base for the city shall be redetermined pursuant to Subsection (b) of this section as of January 1 following the effective date of the amendment, except that if the effective date of the amendment is January 1 of any year, the redetermination shall be made on that date. A tax incremental base as redetermined under this subsection is effective for the purposes of this Act only if it exceeds the corresponding original tax incremental base determined under Subsection (b) of this section.

(d) It is presumed that any property within a tax incremental district acquired or leased as lessee by the city within the year preceding the date of the creation of the district was acquired or leased in contemplation of the creation of the district. The presumption may be rebutted by the city with proof that the property was leased or acquired primarily for a purpose other than to reduce the tax incremental base. If the presumption is not rebutted, in determining the tax incremental base of the district but for no other purpose the taxable status of the property shall be determined as though such lease or acquisition had not occurred.

(e) The tax assessor for the city shall identify on the assessment roll of the city those parcels of property which are within each existing tax incremental district, specifying the name of each district.

Allocation of Positive Tax Increments

Sec. 8. (a) Positive tax increments of a tax incremental district are allocated to the applicable tax increment fund each year from the date when the district is created until the earlier of:

(1) that time, after the completion of all public improvements specified in the plan or amendments, when the city has received aggregate tax increments of the district in an amount equal to the aggregate of all expenditures previously made or monetary obligations previously incurred for project costs for the district; or

(2) 15 years after the last expenditure identified in the plan is made. No expenditure may be provided for in the plan more than five years after the district is created unless an amendment is adopted by the city governing body under Subsection (c) of Section 7 of this Act.

(b) All tax increments received in a tax incremental district shall be deposited in a special fund for the district. The city may deposit additional money into the fund pursuant to an appropriation by the city governing body. If bonds or notes issued under Section 11 of this Act are repayable in whole or in part from revenue produced by a facility acquired, improved, or constructed pursuant to a project, the city shall deposit the pledged revenues in the fund.

Money shall be paid out of the fund only to pay project costs of the district, to reimburse the city for the payments, or to satisfy claims of holders of tax incremental bonds or notes issued for the district. Subject to any agreement with bondholders, money in the fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other city funds. After all project costs and all tax incremental bonds and notes of the district have been paid or provided for, subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there remains in the fund any money, it shall be paid over to the general fund of the city.

Termination of Tax Incremental Districts

Sec. 9. The existence of a tax incremental district shall terminate when:

(1) positive tax increments are no longer allocable to a district under Subsection (a) of Section 8 of this Act; or

(2) the city governing body by resolution dissolves the district.

Financing of Project Costs

Sec. 10. Payment of project costs may be made by any of the following methods or combination thereof:

(1) payment by the city from the special fund of the tax incremental district;

(2) payment out of the city's general funds; or

(3) payment out of the proceeds of the sale of tax incremental bonds or notes issued by the city under Section 11 of this Act.

Tax Incremental Bonds and Notes

Sec. 11. (a) The city governing body may issue tax incremental bonds or notes payable out of positive tax increments or payable out of a combination of positive tax increments and all or part of the net revenue produced by a facility acquired, improved, or constructed pursuant to a project. Each bond or note and all interest coupons appurtenant thereto are declared to be negotiable instruments.

(b) Tax incremental bonds or notes may be authorized by resolution of the city governing body without the necessity of a referendum or any voter approval, but the governing body may submit the question of issuing bonds or notes to the voters for their approval as provided by Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.¹ The resolution must state the name of the tax incremental district, the amount of bonds or notes authorized, and the interest rate or rates to be borne by the bonds or notes. The resolution may prescribe the terms, form, and content of the bonds or notes and other matters the city governing body considers useful.

(c) Tax incremental bonds or notes may not be issued in an amount exceeding the aggregate project costs. The bonds or notes shall mature over a period not exceeding 20 years from the date thereof. The bonds or notes may contain a provision authorizing the redemption thereof in whole or in part at stipulated prices at the option of the city on any interest payment date and shall provide the method of selecting the bonds or notes to be redeemed. The principal and interest on the bonds and notes may be payable at any time and at any place. The bonds or notes may be payable to the bearer or may be registered as to the principal or principal and interest. The bonds or notes may be in any denominations. The bonds or notes may be sold at public or private sale. To the extent consistent with this section, the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, are applicable to bonds issued under this section.

(d) Tax incremental bonds or notes are payable only out of the special fund created under Subsection (b) of Section 8 of this Act. Each bond or note shall contain recitals necessary to show that it is only so payable and that it does not constitute an indebtedness of the city or a charge against its general taxing power. The city governing body shall irrevocably pledge all or a part of the special fund to the payment of the bonds or notes. The special fund or designated part of it may thereafter be used only for the payment of the bonds or notes and interest until they have been fully paid, and a holder of the bonds or notes or of any coupons appertaining thereto shall have a lien against the special fund for payment of the bonds or notes and interest and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce the lien.

(e) To increase the security and marketability of tax incremental bonds or notes, the city may:

(1) create a lien for the benefit of the bondholders on any public improvements or public works financed thereby or the revenues therefrom if the revenues are not otherwise pledged; or

(2) make covenants and do any and all acts necessary or convenient or desirable in order to additionally secure bonds or notes or tend to make the bonds or notes more marketable according to the best judgment of the city governing body.

Overlapping Tax Incremental Districts

Sec. 12. (a) Subject to any agreement with bondholders, a tax incremental district may be created, the boundaries of which overlap one or more existing districts, except that districts created on the same date may not have overlapping boundaries.

(b) If the boundaries of two or more tax incremental districts overlap, in determining how positive tax increments generated by that area which is within two or more districts are allocated among the districts but for no other purpose the property constituting the overlapping area is considered part of the more recently created tax incremental district.

Authorization

Sec. 1. Any city or town, whether operating under the General Law or under its special or home rule charter, is authorized to enter into a contract with a district organized under the authority of Article XVI, Section 59 of the Constitution of Texas or any corporation or corporations organized to be operated without profit, and any such district or corporation is authorized to enter into a contract with any such city or town, under the terms of which such district, corporation or corporations will acquire for the benefit of and convey to the city or town one or more water supply or treatment systems, water distribution systems, sanitary sewer collection or treatment systems or works or improvements necessary for the drainage of lands in the city, either singularly or together, and in connection with such acquisition make such improvements, en-

Art. 1110f. Sewage; Joint Collection, Transportation, Treatment, and Disposal; Public Utility Agencies

Purpose

Sec. 1. The purpose of this Act is to clarify the authority of public entities that are lawfully authorized to engage in the collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal of sewage, to join together as cotenants or coowners, or by concurrent resolution or ordinance, to create a public utility agency, to engage in the planning, financing, acquiring, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining of facilities so that each public entity will owe all of the duties, will have and be secure in all of the rights, powers, and liabilities, and shall be entitled to all of the privileges and exemptions attributable to its undivided interest as a cotenant or coowner should the entities elect not to create a public utility agency, as provided by law with respect to an entire interest in facilities planned, financed, acquired, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained by it alone. These alternatives are to serve as a means of achieving economies of scale by providing essential sewage systems to the public and promoting the orderly economic development of the state while providing environmentally sound protection of future wastewater needs of the state and its inhabitants. The provisions of this Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate these purposes but shall not be construed to otherwise enlarge, change, or modify in any way the rights, powers, or authority of any public or private entity under existing law. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to alter, change, abrogate, or otherwise affect the existing contracts in force at the time this Act takes effect.

Definitions

Sec. 2. As used in this Act:

(1) "Public entity" means any county, city, or other body politic or corporate of the state, including any district or authority created under Article III, Section 52, or Article XVI, Section 59, of the Texas Constitution.

(2) "Private entity" means any entity other than a public entity solely involved in financing, constructing, operating, and maintaining sewer facilities.

(3) "Facilities" means facilities necessary or incidental to the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage, including plant sites, rights-of-way, and real and personal property and equipment and rights of every kind useful in connection with collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage.

(4) "Public utility agency" or "agency" means any agency created under this Act by two or more public entities for the purpose of planning, financing, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining facilities for the purpose of achieving economies of scale in providing sewer services.

Public Utility Agency

Sec. 3. (a) To more readily accomplish the purposes of this Act, two or more public entities, by concurrent ordinances, may create an agency to be known as a public utility agency. The agency shall be without taxing power, and shall be a separate agency, a political subdivision of the state, and body politic and corporate exercising all of the powers that are conferred by Chapter 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ and this Act on a public entity. No agency is authorized to engage in any utility business other than the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage for the participating public entities that are joint owners with the agency of a facility located within the state. A public entity, at the time of the passage of the concurrent ordinance, must be one that has the authority to engage in the collection, transportation, treatment, or disposal of sewage, but the entity may subsequently dispose of its facilities. Before the passage of a concurrent ordinance to create a public utility agency, the governing body of each public entity shall have notice of its intention to adopt the ordinance published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the public entity is domiciled once a week for two consecutive weeks, the date of the first publication to be at least 14 days before the date set for the passage of the concurrent ordinance. The notice shall state the date, time, and place that the governing body proposes to pass the ordinance and that on the effective date of the concurrent ordinances the public entities adopting them shall have created a public utility agency. If, prior to the day set for the passage of a concurrent ordinance, 10 percent of the qualified electors of the particular public entity present a petition to the governing body requesting that a referendum election be called, the ordinance shall not become effective until a majority of the qualified electors of the entity voting in the election have approved the ordinance. The election shall be called and held in conformity with the Texas Election Code, as amended, Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,² and this Act. Except as provided in this Act, a concurrent ordinance shall not be subject to a referendum election.

(b) Public entities that establish a public utility agency may, by concurrent ordinances, provide for the re-creation of the agency by the addition or deletion or both of a public entity so long as there is no impairment of obligation of any existing obligation of the agency.

(c) Concurrent ordinances are ordinances or resolutions adopted by the governing bodies of more than one public entity that contain identical provisions with respect to the creation or re-creation of a public utility agency.

² Article 701 et seq.

Rights and Powers of Participating Public Entities

Sec. 4. (a) Each participating public entity may use its funds in planning, acquiring, constructing, owning, operating, and maintaining its undivided interest and may share in the facilities and may issue bonds and other securities to raise funds for these purposes in the same manner and to the same extent and subject to the same conditions that would apply if the undivided interest of the public entity were an entire interest in the facilities.

(b) Each participating public entity may acquire for the use and benefit of all participating public entities by purchase or through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, land, easements, and property for the purpose of jointly owned facilities and may transfer or convey the land, easements, and property, or interests in it, or may otherwise have the land, easements, and property, or interests in it, become vested in other participating public entities to the extent and in the manner agreed between those entities. In all cases in which a participating public entity exercises the power of eminent domain conferred by this Act, the public entity shall be controlled by the law governing the condemnation of property by incorporated cities and towns in this state, and the power of eminent domain conferred by this Act shall include the power to take the fee title in land condemned, excluding mineral interests, except that no participating public entity has the right or power to take by the exercise of the power of eminent domain any facilities or interest in any facilities belonging to any other public or private entity.

(c) Each participating public entity is entitled to the same constitutional and statutory exemption from ad valorem taxes and other taxes, including but not limited to excise, sales, and use taxes, attributable to the participating public entity's interest in the ownership of the jointly owned facilities and the purchase, sale, lease, or use of properties or services in connection with the construction, maintenance, repair, or operation of the jointly owned facilities to the extent that the public entity would have been exempt from the tax of its undivided interest were an entire interest in the facilities and in property and services used or acquired in connection therewith. Each exempt public entity shall be entitled to exemption certificates and other certificates and statements as provided by law to evidence or make effective the exemption.

(d) Public entities that create a public utility agency or provide for re-creation by addition or deletion of a public entity shall by concurrent ordinances:

(1) define the boundaries of the agency to include the territory within the jurisdictional limits of the public entities as changed from time to time;

(2) designate the name of the agency;

(3) designate the number of directors that will constitute the board of directors of the agency and their initial term; and

(4) specify the manner in which the directors shall be appointed, provided that each public entity is entitled to appoint at least one director.

(e) Directors shall serve by places, and the concurrent ordinances shall specify the director for each place and his successors that the governing body of the particular public entity may appoint and the method of each appointment. Directors shall serve without compensation but are entitled to $50 a day for each day spent in attending meetings of the board and a like amount per diem when authorized by resolution of the board, plus actual expenses incurred in attending the meetings. An employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity may serve as a director of the agency, but directors, officers, and employees may have no personal interest, other than may exist as an employee, officer, or member of the governing body of a public entity, in any contract executed by the agency.

(f) The agency may make contracts, leases, and agreements with and accept grants and loans from the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in the agency. Each agency may contract with those public entities creating the agency for the collection, transportation, treatment, and disposal of sewage, and the authority to contract for these services shall also extend to private entities under terms and conditions the agency's board of directors may consider appropriate. The agency may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any right, interest, or property that is, in its judgment, not needed for the efficient operation and maintenance of its facilities. The responsibility of the management, operation, and control of the properties belonging to the agency shall be vested in the board of directors.

(g) The agency, in contracting with any public or private entity for wastewater collection, transmission, treatment, or disposal services, must charge rates sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses of operation and maintenance;

(2) to pay all interest and principal due on bonds issued as they become due and payable;

(3) to pay the principal of and interest on any legal debt of the agency;

(4) to pay all sinking and reserve fund payments as they become due and payable; and

(5) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of any bonds.

The agency may also establish a reasonable depreciation and emergency fund. Payments made pursuant to contracts with the agencies are to constitute an operating expense of the public or private entity served as a result of the contracts unless otherwise prohibited by a previously outstanding obligation of the purchasing entity.

(h) The State of Texas reserves its power to regulate and control the rates and charges by the agency, but pledges and agrees with the purchasers and successive holders of the obligations issued under this Act that the state will not limit or alter the powers vested in the agency to establish and collect rates and charges that will produce revenues sufficient to pay for those items set forth in Subsection (g) of this section, as well as any other obligations of the agency in connection therewith, until they are fully met and discharged.

(i) To the payment of obligations issued by it, the agency may pledge the revenues of all or part of its facilities, including or not including those facilities later acquired, as the agency may determine, but the expense of operation and maintenance, including salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service, of the facilities whose revenues are encumbered and pledged shall be a first lien on and charge against the revenues.

(j) The agency may issue revenue bonds or notes, also referred to as obligations in this Act, from time to time, for the accomplishment of its purposes within the interest rate limitations of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(k) From the proceeds of the sale of obligations of the agency, the agency may set aside amounts for payments into the interest and sinking fund and reserve funds, and for interest and operating expenses during construction and development, as may be specified in the authorizing proceedings. Bond proceeds may be invested, pending their use for the purpose for which issued, in securities or interest-bearing certificates or in time deposits specified in the authorizing proceedings.

(l) Prior to delivery, obligations authorized to be issued under this Act and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act and that they will be binding special obligations of the agency issuing them, he shall approve them, and they shall be registered by the state comptroller. After their approval, registration, sale, and delivery to the purchaser, the bonds are incontestable.

(m) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purpose and in the manner provided by general law, including without limitation Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as amended.

(n) All obligations issued by an agency pursuant to this Act shall be and are declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies and shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and the obligations shall be lawful and sufficient security for those deposits to the extent of the principal amount of the obligations or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

(o) The agency may adopt and from time to time amend rules to govern the operation of the agency, its employees, facilities, and service, but contracts for the construction of improvements that involve the expenditure of more than $20,000 shall be awarded by the agency only after notice of intent to receive competitive bids has been published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the agency is domiciled. The date of the first publication shall be at least 14 days before the date set for the receipt of bids.

(p) The bonds or notes shall be signed by the presiding officer or the assistant presiding officer of the agency, shall be attested by its secretary, and shall bear the seal of the agency. The signatures may be printed or lithographed on the bonds and notes if authorized by the agency, and the seal may be impressed on the bonds or notes or may be printed or lithographed on the bonds or notes. The agency may adopt or use for any purpose the signature of any person who has been an officer, notwithstanding the fact that he may have ceased to be an officer at the time that bonds or notes are delivered to a purchaser or purchasers. The bonds or notes shall mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 40 years from their respective dates of issuance and may be sold, within interest rate limitations provided in this Act, at a public or private sale at a price or under terms determined by the agency to be the most advantageous reasonably obtainable, within the discretion of the agency. The bonds may be made callable prior to maturity at times and prices approved by the agency and may be in coupon form with or without provisions for registration as to principal or may be registrable as to both principal and interest.

(q) Bonds and notes issued under the provisions of this Act and coupons, if any, representing interest on bonds and notes shall, when delivered, be deemed and construed to be a security within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, Uniform Commercial Code.

(r) The provisions of this section do not limit the general scope and application of Section 3 of this Act.

Interpretation and Construction of Act

Sec. 5. (a) This Act shall be liberally construed to carry out its purposes and shall be the full and complete authority for the creation and operation of public utility agencies and the performance of the public duties imposed on them. Insofar as this Act is inconsistent with any other laws, including Chapter 10, Title 28, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or other laws regulating the affairs of municipal corporations, or with any home-rule charter provisions, this Act shall control.

(b) This Act shall be liberally construed to effectuate its purposes, but nothing in this Act shall have the effect of or be construed as altering, amending, or repealing the statutory purposes provided by any statute enacted by the Texas Legislature pertaining to the creation, establishment, or operation or regulation under the Water Code, as amended, or other applicable law, of a public entity that may become a coowner of a public utility agency under the provisions of this Act.

1. to pay interest on bonds, the proceeds of which are for the construction of the facilities, to the first interest payment date following the date the new electric utility facilities are estimated to become operational; and

Art. 1118n-11. Refunding Certain Outstanding Interest Bearing Obligations

Issuer Defined

Sec. 1. The term "issuer," as used in this Act shall mean and include any city in the State of Texas which owns the water, sewer and electric utility systems serving such city and which operates all such utilities as a combined system and has issued and has outstanding revenue bonds payable from the revenues of such combined system.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 2]

Bonds Payable from Water, Sewer, and Electric Utility Revenues

Sec. 2A. (a) This section applies only to refunding bonds payable solely from the net revenues of the issuer's combined water, sewer, and electric utility systems.

(b) The requirements of Section 2 of this Act that the obligations to be refunded must have stated maturity dates or be callable prior to maturity not more than 10 years from the date of delivery of the refunding bonds and that the refunding must enable the issuer to issue additional obligations it could not otherwise have issued do not apply to the issuance of refunding bonds covered by this section.

(c) The requirement in Section 4 of this Act that the refunding bonds be sold for not less than par value is not applicable to refunding bonds covered by this section.

(d) As to refunding bonds covered by this section, if obligations to be refunded are not callable at the time of refunding but will be subject to redemption before maturity, the issuer may provide in the refunding proceedings for redeeming those obligations before maturity, and if it does so, the issuer need deposit with the State Treasurer under this Act no more than is necessary to provide for payment of the principal and interest on those obligations as they are redeemed.

The 1977 Act provides in § 2 as follows:

"If any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is declared invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application of the Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared severable."

Art. 1118n-12. Refunding Certain Bonds and Other Obligations of Cities, Towns, and Villages

Definitions

Sec. 1. (a) The term "Issuer," as used in this Act, shall mean each city, town, and village in the state which at any time has outstanding bonds or other obligations which are secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of its electric light and power system.

(b) The term "Board," as used in this Act, shall mean the city council, city commission, board of commissioners, board of aldermen, or other group which is the governing body of an issuer.

Authority to Issue Refunding Bonds; Security; New Bonds; Maturity; Negotiability; Conversion; Election not Required

Sec. 2. The board of any issuer is authorized to issue refunding bonds to refund all or any part of any outstanding bonds or other interest bearing obligations secured solely by a pledge of the net revenues of the issuer's electric light and power system, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto. One or more outstanding issues and any part of one or more outstanding issues of bonds or other interest bearing obligations, and any interest coupons appertaining thereto, may be refunded under this Act; provided that when part of one or more of these issues is being refunded, the board must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the attorney general, prior to his approval of the bonds as required in this Act, that adequate pledged resources are estimated to be available, based on then current conditions, to provide for the payment, when due, of the unrefunded part of the issue or issues. The refunding bonds, and the interest and redemption premium, if any, may be secured by first or subordinate liens on and pledges of, and made payable from, the same source as the obligations being refunded and may be secured by first or subordinate liens on, and pledges of, and made payable from, any other revenues, income, or property, and other, different, or additional source or resources, of the board or the issuer, or any combination of those sources or resources, except any taxes, all within the sole discretion of and in the manner provided by the board; and the refunding bonds additionally may be secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, trust agreements, or other instruments evidencing liens on any real, personal, or mixed property; and the refunding bonds may be issued in combination with new bonds, and with provision for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under the terms or conditions and with the security, set forth in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds, all as determined within the discretion of the board; provided, however, that no bonds shall be issued contrary to the provisions of the Texas Constitution. If and when the board desires to issue refunding bonds in combination with new bonds for any purpose or purposes for which the issuer is then authorized by any law or home rule charter provision to issue revenue bonds or other interest bearing obligations, the new bonds may be issued for any purpose or purposes under the provisions of, and be secured and payable as provided in, this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall be fully applicable thereto without regard to any other requirements, in the manner provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued to mature serially or otherwise in not to exceed 50 years from their date, and may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates, all within the discretion of the board. The bonds and any interest coupons appurtenant thereto, are negotiable instruments within the meaning of the Uniform Commercial Code, except that the bonds and the interest thereon may be made payable to a named payee or made registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and may be payable at any place or places, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, may provide for capitalized interest during construction and thereafter, capitalized operating and maintenance expenses, and capitalized reserve and contingency funds, and may be issued in the form, denominations, and manner, and under the terms, conditions, and details, and may be executed, as provided by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of lost, stolen, destroyed, or mutilated bonds or interest coupons in the manner prescribed by the board in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, or upon a place of payment (paying agent) for the bonds, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be re-approved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 3 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 3 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the bonds. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act may be issued without any election or referendum in connection with their issuance or the creation of any encumbrance in connection with their issuance.

Approval by Attorney General; Registration; Incontestability

Sec. 3. All bonds permitted to be issued under the provisions of this Act, and the appropriate and applicable proceedings authorizing the issuance, shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, he shall approve them, and then they shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts; and after the approval and registration, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court, or other forum, for any reason, and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

Bonds as Legal and Authorized Investments

Sec. 4. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are investment securities governed by Chapter 8, Uniform Commercial Code, and are legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, insurance companies, fiduciaries, and trustees, and for the sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, school districts, and other political subdivisions or public agencies of the state. The bonds also are eligible to secure deposits of any public funds of the state or any political subdivision or public agency of the state, and are lawful and sufficient security for the deposits to the extent of their market value, when accompanied by any unmaturing coupons attached to the bonds.

Exchanges

Sec. 5. The refunding bonds authorized by this Act may be issued in exchange for, and upon surrender and cancellation of, any obligations being refunded, and in that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the obligations being refunded, in accordance with the provisions of the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds, and any exchange may be made in one or in several installment deliveries. However, instead of issuing the refunding bonds to be exchanged for any obligations being refunded, the board shall be authorized, in its discretion, to issue refunding bonds to be sold for cash in principal amounts necessary to provide all or any part of the money required to pay the principal of and interest on any obligations being refunded, as they mature and come due, and to provide all or any part of the money required to redeem any obligations being refunded, prior to maturity, on any future date or dates upon which the obligations have been called for such redemption, within the discretion of the board, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an amount sufficient to pay all expenses related to the issuance of the bonds and the expenses of paying the obligations being refunded under this Act; and also to provide any amounts deemed necessary or required by the board to fund or provide for deposits into any debt service reserve funds, interest and sinking funds, or other funds created in the proceedings authorizing the bonds, and to provide amounts to pay interest on all bonds issued under the provisions of this Act for the period prescribed by the board, and to provide any other amounts deemed required by the board. All bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, excepting any exchange refunding bonds, may be sold for cash in the manner, under the procedures, at public or private sale, and at the price or prices, as shall be determined solely within the discretion of the board. If any of the obligations being refunded through the sale of refunding bonds under this Act are subject to redemption prior to maturity, they may, at the option and within the discretion of the board, be called for redemption on any future date or dates upon which they are redeemable, within the discretion of the board, and the proceedings pertaining to the call shall be submitted to the attorney general along with the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds. When the board has authorized any of the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds to be sold for cash under the provisions of this Act, the refunding bonds and any new bonds in combination with the refunding bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts after they are approved by the attorney general, without any surrender, exchange, or cancellation of any obligations being refunded.

Deposit of Proceeds with State Treasurer; Duties

Sec. 6. When any refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this Act are sold and delivered to the purchaser, the board immediately shall have deposited with the state treasurer, from the proceeds of the sale, and any other funds available for that purpose, the amount which will be required to pay the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded as they mature and come due, and the amount which will be required to redeem prior to maturity any obligations being refunded, on the date or dates upon which these obligations have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on those obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with an additional amount to pay the state treasurer for his services and to reimburse him for his expenses in performing his duties under this Act, equal to one-twentieth of one percent of the principal or par amount of the obligations being refunded, and one-eighth of one percent of the interest to accrue thereon, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 in connection with each issue of refunding bonds issued under this Act, plus an additional amount of money sufficient to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The state treasurer may rely on a certificate or other instrument or document which shall be filed with him by the issuer showing clearly the date or dates upon which the principal matures and interest comes due on the obligations being refunded, and the amounts thereof, and the date or dates, if any, on which the obligations have been called for redemption prior to maturity, together with the redemption price, and the place or places of payment of the obligations being refunded, and the charges to be made by the place or places of payment for paying and redeeming the obligations. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to make the appropriate required part of the deposits available at the place or places of payment, in current and immediately available funds, on or before, but not later than, each maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, in order to pay the required amounts on each date, plus the service charges of the place or places of payment.

Investment of Proceeds

Sec. 7. It is provided, however, that instead of depositing money with the state treasurer as required by Section 6 of this Act, except for the money to be paid to him for his services and expenses, which in all events shall be deposited in cash, the board may, at its option, unless the board determines, in its sole discretion, that money is required to be deposited, immediately invest all or any part of the proceeds from the sale of the refunding bonds, and any other necessary available funds, in direct obligations of the United States of America, or in obligations the payment of the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or in obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, which investments will mature, and bear interest payable, at such times and in such amounts as will provide, without any reinvestment, not less than the amount of money, in addition to any money initially deposited for that purpose, required for the payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations being refunded, as they mature and come due, and for the payment of the redemption price of any obligations being refunded and redeemed prior to maturity, on the date or dates on which the obligations being refunded have been called for redemption, including principal, any required redemption premium, and the interest to accrue on the obligations to the redemption date or dates, together with the additional amount required to pay the service charges of the place or places of payment of the obligations for paying and redeeming them. The board shall deposit all of the investments immediately with the state treasurer. In calculating the amount of the investments required to be so deposited, the issuer and the state treasurer shall rely on receiving both the principal and interest, if any, scheduled to mature and accrue or come due on the investments, to the extent that the principal and interest are scheduled to mature and accrue or come due prior to the date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of the obligations being refunded; and the amount which otherwise would be required to be deposited, if no interest or increase were scheduled to accrue or come due, may, at the option of the board, be reduced accordingly. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to accept the deposits of investments and to collect promptly, when due and payable, all principal of and interest on the investments, but he shall not reinvest them. It is further provided that the aforesaid investments shall be made in a manner that the proceeds from them, without any reinvestment, will be available for deposit, and shall be deposited, by the state treasurer, in the place or places of payment, in current and immediately available funds, in the required amounts, on or before, and not later than, each maturity date, due date, or redemption date, respectively, of the obligations being refunded.

Duties of Treasurer as to Handling and Safekeeping of Proceeds

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the state treasurer, ex officio, in his official capacity of public office, to accept and keep safely all deposits of money and investments made under this Act, and all proceeds from said investments; but no part of such deposits of money and investments, or proceeds therefrom, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, shall constitute a part of the state treasury, or be used by or for the state or for the benefit of any creditor of the state, and shall not be commingled with the general revenue fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts held by the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall keep and maintain each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, excepting the amount paid to him for his services and expenses, separate and apart from all other deposits, money, funds, accounts, and investments, and each such deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them, shall be kept and held in escrow and in trust by the state treasurer, for and on behalf of, and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of, the holders of the obligations to be paid the deposits, and the deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them, shall be used only for the purposes provided in this Act. Each deposit of money and investments, and proceeds from them shall be public funds, and legal title shall be in the state treasurer, in his official capacity as trustee, until paid out as provided in this Act, but equitable title shall be in the issuer, until paid out. The writ of mandamus and all other legal and equitable remedies shall be available to any bondholder, the issuer, or any other party at interest to require the state treasurer to perform his functions and duties under this Act. The surety bond or bonds given by the state treasurer in connection with the proper performance of his duties of office, excepting any special bonds given to protect funds of the United States shall protect and be construed as protecting all the deposits of money and investments, and proceeds from them. The state treasurer shall not in any way invest or reinvest any money deposited with him or received by him from investments deposited with him under this Act. In the event that any surplus funds should be on hand with the state treasurer in connection with any deposit of money or investments, or proceeds from them, the surplus shall be returned to the issuer.

Place of Payment

Sec. 9. If there is more than one place of payment for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the state treasurer shall make all deposits required under this Act at the place of payment located in the state, if there is one, or if there is more than one place of payment located in the state, or if no place of payment is located in the state, then at the one of the places of payment having the largest capital and surplus. It shall be the statutory duty of the place of payment, and the state treasurer shall instruct it, to make the appropriate financial arrangements so that the necessary required current funds will be available, to the extent necessary, at the other places of payment, to pay or redeem the obligations when due; provided that this section shall not apply in the event the board proceeds under Section 10 of this Act.

Alternative Place of Deposit

Sec. 10. It is further provided, however, that in the alternative to making the deposit of money or investments with the state treasurer in connection with refunding bonds issued and sold under this Act, and notwithstanding any provisions of this Act to the contrary, the board shall have the option of making the deposit of money or investments with any place of payment (paying agent), wherever located, for the obligations being refunded, or, at the option of the board, with any trustee under any trust indenture, trust agreement, deed of trust, or other instrument, securing the obligations being refunded. In that case the place of payment or trustee shall, to the extent practicable, substantially perform the applicable and pertinent functions and duties provided in this Act for the state treasurer, to the extent appropriate and practical, and the place of payment or trustee shall be substituted for the state treasurer under this Act to the extent appropriate and practical, except as otherwise provided by this section. Such deposits of money and investments shall be held for safekeeping, in escrow, in trust for, and charged with an irrevocable first lien and pledge in favor of, and for the benefit of, the holders of the obligations being refunded, and the issuer and the place of payment or trustee, may execute an appropriate trust or escrow agreement on the terms and conditions, and for the consideration agreeable to the parties to the agreement. The agreement may provide that any deposits of money may be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, or obligations the payment of principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America, or obligations which, in the opinion of the Attorney General of the United States of America, are general obligations of the United States of America and backed by its full faith and credit, or may be placed in interest bearing time deposits secured at all times by an equal amount in market value of any of the federal obligations named above. The agreement further shall provide for deposits with the place or places of payment (paying agent or agents) to pay or redeem the obligations being refunded when due, and may provide that at any time the amount of money and investments held in escrow exceeds the amount required for purposes of this Act, the excess shall be transferred and delivered to the issuer, or as directed by the board, to be used for any lawful purpose, including the payment of revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act or otherwise, all at the option of the board.

Rights of Holders of Obligations

Sec. 11. The holder or holders of any obligations being refunded by any refunding bonds sold pursuant to this Act shall never have the right to demand or receive payment of them prior to the scheduled date or dates of the maturities, due dates, or redemption date or dates, respectively, of the obligations being refunded, and the holder or holders shall not be paid for them prior to the date or dates, unless the board specifically and affirmatively provided for and authorized the earlier payment of the obligations in the proceedings authorizing the refunding bonds.

Discharge and Final Payment or Redemption of Obligations; Subordination to Refunded Obligations

Sec. 12. When the initial deposit of money or investments is made with the state treasurer or with a place of payment (paying agent) or trustee in accordance with this Act for any obligations being refunded under this Act, the deposit shall constitute the making of firm banking and financial arrangements for the discharge and final payment or redemption of the obligations being refunded, and although the obligations being refunded continue to be obligations of the issuer, automatically they become obligations of the issuer secured solely by and payable solely from the deposit and the proceeds from them; and on making the deposit, all previous encumbrances, including all liens, pledges, mortgages, deeds of trust, trust indentures, or trust agreements, existing in connection with the obligations being refunded, whether in connection with revenues, real, personal, and mixed property, or any other source of security or payment, automatically terminate and are finally discharged and released, as a matter of law, and the encumbrances shall be of no further force or effect; and although the obligations being refunded will remain outstanding, they shall be regarded as being outstanding only for the purpose of receiving the funds provided by the issuer for their payment or redemption under this Act, and they shall not be regarded as being outstanding in ascertaining the power of the issuer to issue bonds, or in calculating any limitations in connection therewith, or for any other purpose. It is further provided, however, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, that the board may, in the alternative to the foregoing provisions of this section, provide in the proceedings authorizing the issuance of the refunding bonds that the refunding bonds are subordinate to the obligations being refunded, but only in the manner and to the extent provided in the authorizing proceedings; and, except for any specific provisions to the contrary in the authorizing proceedings, the foregoing provisions of this section are fully applicable.

Cumulative and Prevailing Effects of Act; Use of Other Laws

Sec. 13. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws on the subject, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws, or home rule charter provisions, or any restrictions or limitations contained therein; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provision of this Act and any provision of any other law, including any law passed at the current session of the legislature, or any home rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws or home rule charter provisions not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act. This Act shall be liberally construed so as to permit the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1632, ch. 642, §§ 1 to 13, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 1 to 10]

Management; Lease of System

Sec. 11. During the time any such system is encumbered either as to its revenues or as to both its physical properties and revenues, or whether or not such system is encumbered during any period established by ordinance of the governing body of such city, the management and control of such system may by the terms of the instrument evidencing such encumbrance or by the terms of such ordinance, be placed with the governing body of such city, or may be placed with a board of trustees to be named in such instrument or such ordinance, consisting of not less than three (3) nor more than nine (9) members, one (1) of whom shall be the mayor of such city. The compensation of such trustees shall be fixed by such instrument or such ordinance, but shall never exceed two per cent (2%) of the gross receipts of such system in any one (1) year. The terms of office of such board of trustees, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising same, the election of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties may be specified in such instrument or such ordinance. In all matters where such instrument or such ordinance is silent, the laws and rules controlling the governing body, of such city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable. The governing body of any such city or any board of trustees in whose management and control any such system may be placed, with the approval of the governing body of such city, evidenced by adoption of a resolution, in lieu of operating any such system, shall have power and authority to enter into any lease or other contractual arrangement for the operation of same by any privately owned and operated corporation in consideration of such rentals either guaranteed or contingent, based on revenues or gross profits or net profits, or any other basis of compensation, which may be determined to be reasonable by such governing body or such board as the case may be; providing however, that any such lease or contractual arrangement between such city and private corporation, shall be preceded by a public notice and request for the submission of bids in the manner required by law for the taking of bids for public construction contracts, and said city shall accept the best bid submitted, taking into consideration the rental to be paid, the experience and financial responsibility of the corporations submitting such bids.

Art. 1118x. Metropolitan Rapid Transit Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(a) A dominant part of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas which generally cross the boundary lines of local jurisdictions and often extend into two or more counties;

(b) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles which are generally powered by internal combustion engines that emit pollutants into the air, which emissions result in increasing dangers to the public health and welfare, including damage to and deterioration of property as well as harm to persons, and hazards to air and ground transportation;

(c) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizens and the economic life of the areas;

(d) The proliferation of the use of motor vehicles for passenger transportation in such areas is caused in substantial part by the absence or inefficiency and high cost of mass transit services available to the citizens of such areas, and it is in the public interest to encourage and provide for efficient and economical local mass rapid transit systems in such areas for the benefit and convenience of the people and for the purpose of improving the quality of the ambient air therein and reducing vehicular traffic congestion; and

(e) The inalienable right of all natural persons to use the air for natural purposes does not vest in any person the right to pollute the air by artificial means, but such artificial use is subject to regulation and control by the state.

Definitions

Sec. 2. The following words and terms, wherever used and referred to in this Act, have the following respective meanings, unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(a) "Metropolitan area" means any area within the State of Texas having a population density of not less than 250 persons per square mile and containing not less than 51 percent of the incorporated territory comprising a city having a population of not less than 600,000 inhabitants according to the last preceding or any future federal census, and in which there may be situated other incorporated cities, towns and villages and the suburban areas and environs thereof; provided, however, that bi-county metropolitan areas as subsequently defined herein, are not included or in any way affected by this Act.

Creation of Rapid Transit Authority

Sec. 3. (a) The governing body of a principal city in a metropolitan area may, on its own motion, shall, as provided in Subsection (b) of this section, and shall, upon being presented with a petition so requesting signed by not less than 5,000 qualified voters residing within such metropolitan area, institute proceedings to create a rapid transit authority in the manner prescribed in this section.

(b) Such governing body shall by ordinance or resolution fix a time before December 1, 1977, and a place for holding a public hearing on the question of creating an authority. The governing body also shall by ordinance or resolution, after receipt of a petition as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, and may, on its own motion, fix a time and place for holding a public hearing on a proposal to create an authority. The ordinance or resolution shall define the boundaries of the area proposed to be included in such authority. The initial territory included in an authority shall be all the territory included in the county in which the major portion of the principal city is situated plus any additional territory that is an adjacent county and is included in the ordinance or resolution.

(c) Notice of the time and place of such public hearing, including a description of the area proposed to be included in such authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in such metropolitan area, the first publication to be not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for such hearing. The governing body of any principal city shall furnish to the Texas Mass Transportation Commission or any successor thereof, a copy of the notice described herein.

(d) The governing body of the principal city shall conduct said hearing at the time and place specified in such notice, and may continue such hearing from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence for or against the creation of the proposed authority, and may present evidence as to whether or not the creation of such proposed authority and the construction and operation of a mass transit system in such metropolitan area

(1) would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority,

(2) would be of public utility, and

(3) would be in the public interest, as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of such an authority and the construction and operation of such system.

(e) If, after hearing the evidence adduced at such hearing, the governing body of the principal city finds that the creation of such an authority, and the operation of such a system, would be of benefit to persons and property situated within the boundaries of the proposed authority, would be of public utility, and would be in the public interest, such governing body shall adopt an ordinance creating the authority and prescribing the territory to be included, but the actual territory included in the authority is subject to the results of the election provided for in this Act. The authority shall bear a name to be designated in the ordinance creating the authority and when so created and confirmed at an election held for that purpose, shall have and may exercise the powers authorized by this Act.

(f) After such hearing by the governing body of the principal city, it shall submit the proposed plan to the governor's interagency transportation council for their review and comment.

Transit Authority Board

Sec. 4. (a)(1) Until such time as the composition of the board is changed in accordance with other provisions of this Act, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of five members, who shall be appointed by the governing body of the principal city and shall serve for a term of two years.

(2) In metropolitan areas where the principal city's population exceeds 1,200,000 according to the last preceding federal census or any federal census hereafter, the management, control, and operation of an authority and its properties shall be vested in a board composed of seven members, five of whom shall be appointed by the mayor of the principal city subject to confirmation by the governing body of the principal city, one of whom shall be appointed by the commissioners court of the county of the principal city, and one of whom shall be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities within the county of the principal city except the principal city. Each member shall serve a term of two years. Upon confirmation, the board's composition shall remain the same except to the extent that it conflicts with the requirements of Section 6B of this Act. Until a confirmation and tax election are held, the principal city shall fund the board for purposes of research and planning:

(b) All vacancies on the board, whether by death or resignation shall be filled for the remainder of the term in the manner provided for the original appointment. On expiration of the terms of office of the members of the board, all or any may be reappointed or another person may be appointed to replace a member for the succeeding term.

(c) Each member of the board shall be entitled to the sum of $50 for each meeting of the board which he attends, not to exceed five meetings in any calendar month; and shall be reimbursed for his necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of his duties. The principal city shall pay, from taxes or other funds, the sums for attendance at meetings held before the authority has received any revenues, and shall reimburse members for necessary and reasonable expenses incurred by the members or the board prior to receipt of revenues by the authority, but the authority, after receiving revenues, shall reimburse the principal city of all payments and reimbursements made as provided in this subsection.

(d) The members of the board, who shall be resident citizens and qualified voters of the authority, shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary, except that if the board is constituted in the manner provided in Subsection (c) of Section 6B of this Act, the chairman shall be selected as specified in that subsection. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretaries shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of the board or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefitted, directly or indirectly, in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(e)(1) Any member of the board may be removed from office by a majority vote of the remaining members of the board for inefficiency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office; provided, however, that the board shall furnish to such member a statement in writing of the nature of the charges as grounds for such removal, and the member, before the 11th day after receipt of the statement may request a hearing before the board and opportunity to be heard in person or through counsel. After any such hearing, if the board by a majority vote finds that the charges are true, it shall confirm its decision to remove the member.

(2) In addition to the method of removal of board members provided by Subsection (e)(1) of this section, board members of an authority whose principal city has a population of more than 1,200,000, according to the most recent federal census, are subject to removal by the recall procedure provided by subsection (e)(2).

(i) The qualified voters of the authority by petition may require that an election be held to determine whether a member of the board is to be removed from office. A petition is valid if it states that it is intended to require an election in the authority on the question of removing an identified board member, if it is signed by qualified voters equal in number to at least 10 percent of the number of registered voters of the authority according to the most recent official list of registered voters, if the signatures are collected within a period of 90 days prior to the date on which the petition is presented to the board, and if it is submitted to the board before the first day of the final six months of the term of the member whose removal is sought.

(ii) After receiving a petition, the board shall submit it to the secretary of state, who, not later than the 10th day after the day he or she receives the petition, shall determine whether or not the petition is valid and shall notify the board of the finding. If the secretary of state fails to act within the time allowed, the petition is treated as if it had been found valid.

(iii) If the board receives notice from the secretary of state that the petition is valid or if the secretary of state has failed to act within the time allowed, the board shall order that an election be held in the authority on a date not fewer than 25 nor more than 35 days after the last day on which the petition could have been approved or disapproved. A state law requiring local elections to be held on a specified date does not apply to the election unless a specified date falls within the time permitted by this section. At the election, the ballots shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The removal of (name of officer) from the rapid transit authority board by recall."

(iv) If a majority of the qualified voters voting on the question in the election favor the proposition, the member is removed, and the office immediately becomes vacant. The appointing authority that appointed the member removed by recall shall fill the vacancy not later than the 30th day after the day of removal.

(v) A member removed by recall is not eligible for reappointment to fill the vacancy and is not eligible for appointment to any other position on the board for a length of time after the day of removal equal to the length of a normal term of a member of the board.

(f) The board shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman or the general manager may call special meetings as may be necessary. The board, when organized, shall by resolution spread upon the minutes, set the time, place and day of the regular meetings, and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the board members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(g) The board shall notice and hold its meetings pursuant to Chapter 271, Acts of the 60th Legislature, Regular Session, 1967, as amended (Article 6252-17, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), except that the board shall have notices of its meetings posted on a bulletin board located at a place convenient to the public at its administrative offices and a bulletin board located at a place convenient to the public at the county courthouse of the most populous county in which the principal city is located.

Confirmation and Tax Election

Sec. 5. (a) After the original board is organized, at such time as it deems implementation of the authority to be feasible, it shall call a confirmation and tax election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Before ordering an election the board shall by order entered in its minutes determine the nature and rate of any tax that it desires to levy.

(c) Before ordering an election, the board shall notify the commissioners court of each county included in whole or part within the initial territory of the authority of its intention to do so. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, each commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated election areas in the unincorporated portion of the appropriate county. Each designated election area's outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, shall coincide with a boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas. The total area of all designated election areas shall include all of the unincorporated area within the initial territory of the authority.

(d) When the board orders a confirmation and tax election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(e) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held under the provisions of this Act shall be furnished to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and to the comptroller of public accounts.

(f) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed and that the result is declared in separate units of election within the authority, as follows:

(1) the portion of the principal city inside the initial limits of the authority plus any incorporated cities or towns which are wholly located within the perimeter of the outer boundary of the principal city constitutes a unit of election;

(2) each designated election area created by a commissioners court constitutes a unit of election;

(3) every other incorporated city or town wholly located within the initial limits of the authority shall constitute a unit of election.

(g) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the board, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist and be comprised of those units. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is against the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall cease to exist. Unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, the authority shall cease to exist in its entirety. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist, the board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor, and with the comptroller of public accounts, and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located. The order shall include the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each election unit, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit in which it was approved and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(h) If the votes cast at the confirmation and tax election are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the board shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and with the comptroller of public accounts, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(i) The cost of the confirmation and tax election shall be paid by the principal city.

(j) If the election results in the confirmation of an authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the board may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits.

(k) If the continued existence of an authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the ordinance creating the authority, the authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

Election Contest

Sec. 5A. (a) If the validity of any election held under authority of this Act or the result of the election based on the returns thereof shall be contested, the election contest shall be filed and tried as provided in the Election Code of the State of Texas; provided that the contestant shall notify the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail within 10 days after filing the contest by mailing a copy of such notice of contest to the comptroller showing the style of the contest, the date filed, the case number, and the court in which the same is pending; and provided further that no such contest shall be heard unless the comptroller is timely notified as provided in this subsection.

(b) Upon receipt of a notice of contest, the date upon which such local sales and use tax shall become effective in any authority as a result of the election shall be suspended. When a final judgment shall be entered in the election contest, the presiding officer of the board shall so notify the comptroller by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall enclose a certified copy of the final judgment. If the judgment sustains the validity of the election or the result of the election so that the local sales and use tax status under this Act of the authority is changed, the comptroller shall place in effect the tax in the authority, substituting the notice of final judgment and the date on which it is received for the notice of the result of the election. This section applies only to elections held and election contests filed after the effective date of this Act.

Effective Date—Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 5B. Upon actual receipt by the comptroller of public accounts of notification of adoption of a local sales and use tax containing the information required by Subsection (g) of Section 5, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the adoption of a local sales and use tax becoming effective. Thereafter, the adoption shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 6. (a) The authority, when created and confirmed, shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including, but not limited to, the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

(d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise, and may hold, use, sell, lease or dispose of, real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever, and licenses, patents, rights and interests necessary, convenient or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act. Before an authority acquires an interest in real property for more than $20,000, the board of the authority shall cause the property to be appraised by two appraisers working independently of each other.

(e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, own, operate and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries, and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns and villages and political subdivisions, and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of, any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance and operation of the system, or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies or political subdivisions or of owners rendering public services, or which shall disrupt such services being provided by others, or to otherwise inconvenience the owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces, or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such owners providing for the necessary relocations, changes or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.

(f) In the event the authority, in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act, makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway, overpass, underpass, or road, any railroad track, bridge or other facilities or properties, any electric lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any telephone or telegraph lines, conduits or other facilities or properties, any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any water, sanitary sewer or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains or other facilities or properties, any cable television lines, cables, conduits or other facilities or properties, or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto; any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof; provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended,¹ insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the board of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be conclusive evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use. At least 30 days before adopting a resolution under this subsection, however, a board shall hold a public hearing on the question of acquisition of the property or interest for which eminent domain proceedings are being considered. The board shall hold the hearing at a place convenient to residents of the area in which the property is located. The board shall cause notice of the hearing to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the property is located at least once each week for two weeks before the date of the hearing.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties of whatever kind and character within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares or transfer of passengers.

(j) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which, together with receipts from taxes collected by the authority, shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(3) to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(4) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation, provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3) and (4), Subsection (j) of this subsection, or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds, or of any person in their behalf, until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds, are fully met and discharged.

(l) The authority may make contracts, leases and agreements with, and accept grants and loans from, the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons, and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests or properties which are not needed for, or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with, the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of, at any time, any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable by the authority.

(o) The authority shall have power to lease the system or any part thereof to, or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by, any operator; provided, however, that a lease of the entire system shall be subject to the written consent and approval of the governing body of the principal city.

(p) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority, are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

Sec. 6A. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of any incorporated city or town located in whole or in part within a county in which the authority is situated may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(c) The commissioners court of a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part or that is adjacent to a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part may hold an election in any one or more of the designated election areas, formed for the election by order of the commissioners court, on the question of whether the area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. The boundaries of a designated election area shall coincide, to the extent practicable, with a boundary of a county voting precinct, so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the area shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(e)(1) At the time territory is added to an authority under the provisions of this section, any tax other than a local sales and use tax which the board of the authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

(2) If an authority in which a local sales and use tax has been imposed changes or alters its boundaries, the presiding officer of the board shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the order adding territory to the authority or of the order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election. The order shall reflect the effective date of the tax and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the territory added or detached. Upon receipt of the order and map, the tax imposed by Section 11B of this Act shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter. However, if the comptroller notifies the presiding officer of the board in writing within 10 days after receipt of the order and map that he requires more time, the comptroller shall be entitled to delay implementation one whole calendar quarter. Thereafter, the tax shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed quarter.

(f) Territory in which an election is held as provided in Subsections (b) or (c) of this section becomes a part of the authority on the 31st day after the election, if the voters approve the addition as provided in Subsections (b) or (c), and unless the board of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing before that date that the addition, because it is not contiguous to the existing authority, would create a fiscal hardship on the authority.

Composition of the Board

Sec. 6B. (a) If less than 50 percent of that part of the population of the county (the county in which not less than 51 percent of the incorporated area of the principal city is situated) which is outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority shall consist of the original five members or their successors plus one additional member to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city within the authority as confirmed, and one other additional member to be appointed by the commissioners court of the county described in this subsection.

(b) If more than 50 percent but less than 75 percent of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board of the authority consists of the original five members or their successors, plus two additional members to be appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities, except the principal city, located within the authority, and two other members appointed by the commissioners court of the county. Population figures shall be computed on the basis of the last preceding United States census.

(c) If 75 percent or more of the population of the county described in Subsection (a) of this section outside the corporate limits of the principal city resides within the limits of the authority, the board consists of 11 members, including the original five members or their successors, two additional members appointed jointly by the mayors of all incorporated municipalities except the principal city located within the authority, three other additional members appointed by the commissioners court of the county, and one member, who serves as chairman, who is appointed by the other ten members.

(d) When this Act requires that the mayors of municipalities except the principal city appoint a member of the board, the mayor of the municipality of greatest population among the municipalities shall serve as chairman of an appointment board composed of the mayors of all appropriate municipalities and shall, by notice in writing to all members, call meetings of the appointment board as necessary to make the appointments. Appointments shall be made within 60 days after a position comes into existence or becomes vacant. If the boundaries of the authority at any time include unincorporated areas of a county other than the county described in Subsection (a) of this section, the county judge of the appropriate county is entitled to serve on the appointment board, with powers equal to the other members of the board, as if the unincorporated area of the county were a municipality and the county judge of that county were the mayor of the municipality.

(e) The terms of office of any members of the board appointed after the confirmation and tax election and after the effective date of this Act are four years, except that in order to provide staggered terms, the terms of office of one-half of the first members appointed by an appointing agency after the effective date of this Act, if an even number is to be appointed by an agency, and a bare majority of the first members appointed by the agency, if an odd number greater than one is to be appointed by an agency, are two years. In addition, the appointing agency may shorten the initial terms to make the expiration dates coincide with those of the previously existing positions. To be eligible for appointment to the board, a person must be a qualified voter residing within the boundaries of the authority. No member of the board may serve more than two consecutive four-year terms.

(f) Vacancies on the board are filled by appointment by the same agency that made the original appointments for the vacant positions. Each member of the board whose term expires shall continue to serve until his successor has been appointed.

(g) In the event the membership of the board must be increased under the provisions of this section, the board as previously constituted may continue to act as the governing board of the authority until the additional members have been appointed and seated.

Station or Terminal Complexes

Sec. 6C. (a) The acquisition of any land or any interest in land pursuant to this Act; the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities; and the exercise of any other powers granted an authority, including without limitation the rights, powers, and authority relating to station or terminal complexes as provided in this section, are declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity for public use and public benefit.

(b) The authority shall have the right, power, and authority to acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain proceedings and to own lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including, without limitation, easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space or any combination thereof, adjacent or accessible to stations and other mass transit facilities, developed or to be developed by the authority, that may be required for or in aid of the development of one or more station or terminal complexes, as part of its mass transit system and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the same, or any part thereof, to individuals, corporations, or governmental entities, subject to the restrictions provided in this section.

(c) Any lands or interests in land acquired for a station or terminal complex must be part of or contained within a station or terminal complex designated as part of the system within a comprehensive transit plan approved by resolution of the board. Before a station or terminal complex may be included in the system, the board must find and determine that the proposed station or terminal complex will encourage and provide for efficient and economical mass transit service, will facilitate access to mass transit service and provide other mass transit purposes, will reduce vehicular congestion and air pollution in the metropolitan area, and is reasonably essential to the successful operation of the system. The board may amend its comprehensive transit plan to include other station or terminal complexes upon making these findings.

(d) Any station or terminal complex shall include adequate provisions for the transfer of passengers between the various modes of transportation available to the complex. A complex may include provisions for commercial, residential, recreational, institutional, and industrial facilities, except that no land or interests in land that is more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex or that has not been included in a master plan of development adopted by the board may be acquired for the facilities. Land or an interest in land more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex may not be acquired by eminent domain proceedings, and the board shall designate the center point prior to the commencement of eminent domain proceedings. If a proposed station or terminal complex is to be located within the city limits or extra-territorial jurisdiction of a city or town, the governing body of the city or town must approve the location of the complex as to conformity with the comprehensive or general plan of the city or town by motion, resolution, or ordinance duly adopted.

(e) The authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer lands or interests in land acquired within a station or terminal complex, and may enter into contracts with respect to it, in accordance with the comprehensive transit plan approved by the board, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land and obligations to commence construction within a specified time, as the board may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, all of which shall be incorporated into the instrument transferring or conveying title or right of use. Any lease, sale, or transfer shall be at fair value, taking into account the use designated for the land in the comprehensive transit plan for the system and the restrictions on, and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by, the purchaser, lessee, or transferee. However, if the authority offers the property for sale, the original owner from whom the property was acquired by eminent domain proceedings or through threat of eminent domain proceedings has the first right to repurchase at the price at which it is offered to the public.

(f) No station or mass transit facility may be considered a "station or terminal complex" governed by this section unless it has been designated as such in the comprehensive transit plan pursuant to the specific authority granted by this section.

Withdrawal From an Authority

Sec. 6D. (a) The governing body of an incorporated city or town that is included within the territory of an authority and that has a population more than 90 percent of which resides outside the county in which the majority of the population of the principal city resides may on any date from April 1, 1980, to September 1, 1980, hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall withdraw from the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town voting on the question votes to withdraw from the authority, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the board of the authority, and the city or town shall withdraw from the authority.

(b) The board shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring the withdrawal of the city or town. A certified copy of the order shall be filed with the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and the comptroller of public accounts and in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located. The order shall reflect the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each election unit, the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(c) Upon actual receipt of the comptroller of public accounts of notification of the withdrawal of a city or town, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the withdrawal becoming effective. Thereafter, the withdrawal shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 7.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(a) and (b)]

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy, and all or any part of the revenues of its rapid transit system or systems, and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof, and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage or conditional sale, including, but not limited to, transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting any such authority from encumbering any one or more rapid transit systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing or reconstructing, another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal and mixed, in connection therewith.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(d) to (g)]

(h) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the board, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes, may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

(i) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7, the authority, acting by board order or resolution, has the power to issue short-term bonds or notes secured by revenues or taxes for any purpose; provided that the repayment of the bonds or notes must be satisfied out of revenues or taxes received during the period from the date of issuance to the last day of the fiscal year in which the bonds or notes are issued. Any such short-term bonds or notes need not be approved by the Attorney General of Texas nor registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Motor Vehicle Emission Taxes

Sec. 8. (a) Subject to approval at an election, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy and cause to be collected motor vehicle emission taxes as herein provided. No increase in taxes as originally authorized may be levied unless the increase is approved at an election. Such taxes shall be collected by the county tax assessor-collector of each county, situated in whole or in part within the authority from each motor vehicle owner whose residence is within such county and within the authority. Not later than November 1 of each year, the board shall certify to the county tax assessor-collector of each county situated in whole or in part within the authority's boundaries the rate of tax prescribed for each class of motor vehicles for the ensuing tax year. At the time the owner of a motor vehicle applies each year to the State Highway Department through the county tax assessor-collector of the county in which he resides for the registration of each such vehicle owned or controlled by him for the ensuing or current motor vehicle registration year or unexpired portion thereof, such owner shall pay to the county tax assessor-collector the motor vehicle emission taxes due or to become due to such authority on such motor vehicle for the ensuing or current tax year at the applicable rate prescribed by the board. The county tax assessor-collector shall refuse to issue a registration license for a motor vehicle until the emission tax thereon for the period covered by such registration license has been paid.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8(b) to 11]

General Powers of Taxation

Sec. 11A. (a) In addition to or in lieu of the motor vehicle emission taxes provided for in this Act, the board of an authority may levy and collect any kind of tax, other than an ad valorem tax on property, which is not prohibited by the Texas Constitution.

(b) No tax of any kind may be levied and collected by the board until a proposition proposing the tax has first been submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified electors of an authority voting at an election held by the board for that purpose. A separate proposition must be submitted for each kind of tax proposed, and propositions may be submitted in the alternative with provision for the method of determining the results of the election. Each proposition must include a brief statement of the nature of the proposed tax. The notice of the election must include a statement or description of the basis of or rate at which the tax is proposed to be levied. Any subsequent increase in a tax must also be approved at an election.

(c) Prior to an election to authorize a tax other than motor vehicle emission taxes or a sales and use tax, the board shall adopt a complete tax code and rules and regulations providing for the nature and amount of any tax with provisions for complete administration and enforcement, including the time and manner of payment, exemptions, liens, interest, penalties, discounts for advance payment, refunds for erroneous payment, fees for collection, collection procedures, manner of enforcement, required returns, registration and reports of taxpayers, the duties and responsibilities of tax officers and taxpayers, the delegation to tax officers to make additional rules and regulations and determinations and to obtain records as may be appropriate, and every other provision which may be determined to be desirable, including incorporation of any tax laws and remedies for the administration and enforcement that are available to the state or any political entities under general law.

(d) A tax code and rules and regulations may be amended by the board from time to time after an election approving a tax, but no amendment may increase the amount of a tax unless the increase is approved at an election.

(e) The board of an authority by order may decrease the local sales and use tax rate or may call an election to increase or decrease the local sales and use tax rate. In addition, the qualified voters of an authority by petition may require that an election be held on the question of increasing the tax rate. A petition is valid if it is by qualified voters of the authority equal in number to at least 10 percent of the number of registered voters of the authority according to the most recent official list of registered voters.

(f) After receiving a petition, the board shall submit the petition to the secretary of state for validation. The secretary of state shall rule on the validity of the petition not later than the 30th day after the day he or she receives the petition and shall notify the board of the ruling. If the secretary of state finds the petition valid or fails to act within the time allowed, the board shall call an election. The authority shall pay the costs of determining the validity of a petition, if any, and of the election.

(g) At the election, the ballots shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the following proposition: "The increase (decrease) of the local sales and use tax rate to (percentage)." The increase or decrease in the tax rate shall be effective if it is approved by a majority of the votes cast by voters residing within the boundaries of the territory of the authority at the date of the election. A notice of the election and a certified copy of the order canvassing the election results shall be sent to the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation or its successor and the comptroller of public accounts and shall be filed in the deed records of each county in which the authority is located in the same manner as provided for a confirmation and tax election by Section 5 of this Act.

(h) If there is an increase or decrease in the rate of a local sales and use tax already levied, the new rate takes effect on the first day of the next calendar quarter after actual notification to the comptroller of public accounts. However, if the comptroller notifies the presiding officer of the board in writing within 10 days after receipt of the order that he or she requires more time to implement collection and reporting procedures, the comptroller may delay implementation for one whole calendar quarter. Thereafter, the new tax rate takes effect on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed quarter.

Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 11B. (A) Subject to approval at a tax election in accordance with this Act, the board of an authority shall be authorized to levy, collect and impose a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the authority, the sales tax portion of which shall not exceed one percent on receipts from the sale of all taxable items within the authority area which are subject to taxation under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act,¹ as enacted and as heretofore or hereafter amended. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the levy, imposition and collection of such tax. The permissible rates for a local sales and use tax levied under this Act are:

- (1) one-quarter of one percent;
- (2) one-half of one percent;
- (3) three-quarters of one percent; and
- (4) one percent.

(B)(a) The following words and terms shall have the following respective meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

- (1) "Authority area" means the geographical limits of the authority.
- (2) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas.
- (3) "Local Sales and Use Tax" means any sales and use tax imposed by a city within the authority area under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(b) Every retailer within the authority area shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax and the tax imposed under the authority of this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined taxes on the transaction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the sale by the total of the combined applicable tax rates. Any fraction of one cent which is less than one-half of one cent of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent of tax equal to one-half of one cent or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent of tax. Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the comptroller that 50 percent or more of his receipts from the sale of taxable items arise from individual transactions where the total sales price when multiplied by the combined rates of the taxes imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and this section equals an amount that is less than one-half of one cent may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller. The comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax, and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax.

(c)(1) In every authority area where the tax authorized by this Act has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use or other consumption within such authority area of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the sales and use tax for storage, use or other consumption in such authority area at the same rate as the sales tax levied under this Act of the sales price of the taxable item or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price. Except as provided in Subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, the use tax imposed by this section is not owed to and may not be collected by, for, or in behalf of an authority if no excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption of an item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, Chapter 20, Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or if the tangible personal property is first stored, used, or consumed within an authority or area that has not adopted the sales and use tax imposed by this section.

(2) In each authority where the tax authorized by this Act has been imposed as provided in this Act, the excise tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable excise tax under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act on the storage, use or other consumption of taxable items and the excise tax imposed by this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the applicable taxes. The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by the comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such authority. The formula prescribed in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this section.

(3) The provisions of Article 20.031, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this paragraph (c), provided that the name of the authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the state where the words "this state" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed; and provided further that the effective date for commencing the collection of the sales tax portion of the tax imposed by this Act in any authority area shall be substituted for the phrase "the effective date of this chapter."

(4) If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the state but not within an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by the authority under Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. The use is considered consummated at the location where the item is first stored, used, or otherwise consumed after the intrastate transit has ceased.

(5) If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this state to a customer within this state, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and not the sales tax imposed by Subsection (A) of this section. The use is consummated at the first point in this state where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this state is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

(d)(1) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement and operation of the tax, and the comptroller shall collect, in addition to the taxes imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, an additional tax under the authority of this Act specified by the authority, but not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use or other consumption of all taxable items within such authority area, which items are subject to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and

Use Tax Act and any applicable Local Sales and Use Tax shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such Local Sales and Use Tax in any authority area, the comptroller shall comply therewith.

(2) The comptroller shall make to the authority substantially the same reports as to taxes within the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c) and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

Text of subdivision (e) as amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 99, ch. 59, § 7

(e) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(1) All applicable provisions contained in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(2) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act except as modified herein.

(3) The penalties provided in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(4) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(e) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(1) All applicable provisions contained in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act or in Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(2) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition and collection of the tax imposed by this Act except as modified herein.

(3) The penalties provided in the Limited Sales, Excise, and Use Tax Act for violations of that Act and the penalties provided in Title 122A, Taxation-General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, for violation of that title, are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(4) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(f) Each authority's share of all sales and use tax collected under this Act by the comptroller shall be transmitted to the treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such authority by the comptroller payable to the authority periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each state fiscal year. Before transmitting such funds, the comptroller shall deduct two percent of the sum collected from each such authority during such period as a charge by the state for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted shall be deposited by the comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state. The comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of any authority a portion of the authority's share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent of the amount remitted to the authority. The comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of any authority for overpayments made to such accounts and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the suspense account of such authority. When any authority shall abolish such tax, the comptroller may retain in the suspense account of such authority for a period of one year five percent of the final remittance to each such authority at the time of termination of collection of such tax in such authority to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in such authority, the comptroller shall remit the balance in such accounts to the authority and close the account.

(g) The comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

(h)(1) In any authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the comptroller shall notify the authority to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the attorney general. The authority, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the attorney general as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such authority. The notice sent by the comptroller to the authority showing the delinquency of a taxpayer constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

(2) Where property is seized by the comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due any authority under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, then all sums due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due such authority.

(3) An authority that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph and are owed to the authority under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit, written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the comptroller, and the attorney general and if neither the comptroller nor the attorney general disapproves the suit by written notice to the authority.

(4) The comptroller or attorney general may disapprove the institution of tax suit by an authority if:

(i) negotiations between the state and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the state and the authority seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the state and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the state will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of state law or a provision of the Texas or United States Constitution in which the state has an overriding interest.

(5) A notice of disapproval to an authority must give the reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority, after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

(6) In any suit under this paragraph for the collection of the authority tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by a city or the state unless the state is a party to the action.

(7) A copy of the final judgment in favor of an authority in a case in which the state is not a party shall be abstracted by the authority and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the comptroller. The authority shall collect taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Subsection (4) of Section (G), Article 20.09, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by an authority on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the comptroller. The comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by authorities.

Annual Budget

Sec. 12A. Prior to the commencement of a fiscal year, the board shall adopt an annual operating budget which specifies major expenditures by type and amount. Before the board adopts its annual operating budget, it shall conduct a public hearing and shall make the proposed annual operating budget available to the public at least 14 days prior to the hearing. An annual operating budget must be adopted before the authority conducts business in a fiscal year. The authority may not make operating expenditures in excess of the total budgeted operating expenditures for a fiscal year unless the board amends the operating budget by order after public notice and hearing.

Contracts for Construction, Goods, or Services

Sec. 14. (a) Contracts for more than $5,000 for the construction of improvements or the purchase of material, machinery, equipment supplies and all other property except real property, shall be let on competitive bids after notice published once a week for two consecutive weeks, the first publication to be at least 15 days before the date fixed for receiving bids, in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the authority is located. The board may adopt rules governing the taking of bids and the awarding of such contracts and providing for the waiver of this requirement in the event of emergency. This subsection does not apply to personal and professional services or to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

(b) The board of an authority may not let a contract (1) that is not subject to competitive bidding requirements, (2) that is for more than $10,000 and (3) that is for the purchase of real property or for consulting or professional services, unless an announcement that a contract is being considered is posted in a prominent place in the principal office of the authority for at least two weeks before the contract is awarded. This subsection does not apply to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

County Authority to Contract with Authority

Sec. 15A. A commissioners court may contract with an authority for the authority to provide public transportation services to any unincorporated area outside the boundaries of the authority for a term and on those conditions as are determined to be desirable by the commissioners court and the board. The county may levy and collect taxes or pledge and encumber other receipts or revenues as may be required to make any payments to the authority under the provisions of the contract.

Elections

Sec. 15B. (a) This section governs all elections ordered by the board except elections held under the provisions of Section 5 of this Act.

(b) Notice of an election ordered by the board shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication in a newspaper with general circulation in the authority at least 21 days before the election.

(c) A resolution calling an election and the notice of the election are sufficient if the date and hours of the election, the voting places within voting precincts for the election, and the propositions to be voted on are specified. The board may define and declare voting precincts, determine the manner of absentee voting, and prescribe the election officers.

(d) As soon as practicable after an election, the board shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(e) Where not otherwise provided in this section, the general election laws apply.

Eligibility of Excepted Areas for Federal Funds

Sec. 17A. Ratification by referendum of a regional authority under the terms of this Act by less than all incorporated cities within the metropolitan area as defined herein shall not affect in any way the eligibility of such excepted incorporated cities to receive federal transit grants under the National Mass Transportation Assistance Act of 1974,¹ or any subsequent federal statutes.

Art. 1118y. Regional Transportation Authorities

Findings

Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) An increasing proportion of the state's population is located in its rapidly expanding metropolitan areas;

(2) The concentration of population in such areas is accompanied by a corresponding concentration of motor vehicles that emit pollutants into the air and consume great quantities of limited energy resources;

(3) Such concentration of motor vehicles places an undue burden on existing streets, freeways, and other traffic ways, resulting in serious vehicular traffic congestion that retards mobility of persons and property and adversely affects the health and welfare of the citizenry; and

(4) Mobility for all citizens, which must include alternatives to the private passenger motor vehicle, is essential to the continued growth and maintenance of economic vitality of these metropolitan areas.

Creation of a Regional Transportation Authority

Sec. 3. A regional transportation authority to provide public transportation and general transportation services may be created in a metropolitan area. The process for creating an authority must be initiated by one of the following methods:

(1) The governing body of a principal city and/or county of the principal city from each subregion may agree to initiate the process to create an authority on their own motions. The principal city and/or the county of the principal city in each subregion may become the creating entity. If the creating entity in one subregion initiates the process and a creating entity in the other subregion does not initiate the process within 60 days, the first subregion may proceed on its own.

(2) If a petition requesting creation of an authority signed by at least five percent of the registered voters of the creating entity is presented, the creating entity or entities receiving the petitions shall initiate the process for creating the authority. If the creating entity in one subregion initiates the process and a creating entity in the other subregion does not initiate the process within 60 days, the first subregion may proceed on its own. The entity to which a petition is presented has the primary responsibility for initiating the authority within a subregion. The principal city and county of the principal city of either subregion, however, may by mutual agreement share the responsibility or shift it to the other entity.

Initiating Procedure

Sec. 4. (a) The process shall be initiated by a resolution or order of each creating entity containing the following provisions:

(1) a description of the boundaries of the territory proposed to be included in the subregion(s) of the authority;

(2) designation of the time(s) and place(s) agreed upon by the creating entity or entities for holding public hearings on the proposal to create the authority;

(3) authorization for establishment of the interim subregional boards and interim executive committee.

(b) The boundaries of the proposed authority shall include all territory in the county or counties of the principal city or cities and any additional territory in adjacent counties having more than 52,000 population that is included in the resolution(s) or order(s). A unit of election that has the majority of its population in a county of a principal city shall be included in the subregion of that principal city for the purposes of the initiating procedure.

(c) Notice of the time and place of the public hearings, including a description of the area proposed to be included in the authority, shall be published once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in each of the county or counties of the principal city or cities, the first publication to be not less than 30 days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. The creating entities shall submit to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts a copy of this notice.

(d) The creating entity or entities and the interim executive committee shall conduct the hearings at the time and place specified in the notice and may continue the hearings from day to day and from time to time until completed. Any interested person may appear and offer evidence concerning the boundaries and creation of the authority, operation of a regional transportation system, and whether creation of an authority would be of public utility and in the public interest as well as any other facts bearing upon the creation of an authority.

(e) After hearing the evidence presented at the hearings, the creating entity or entities shall each adopt the resolution or order designating the name of the authority, prescribing the territory to be included in the authority, and declaring that the actual territory included in the authority is subject to the results of the confirmation election. If one creating entity fails to adopt this resolution or order within 60 days of the action of the other creating entity, the first creating entity may proceed on its own.

(f) After the hearing, the results of the hearing and the boundaries set by the creating entities shall be submitted to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts.

Regional Transportation Authority Executive Committee

Sec. 5. (a) The control and operation of a regional transportation authority and its property shall be vested in an executive committee comprised of 11 members selected as follows:

(1) seven members from the membership of the subregional board in the subregion containing a principal city having a population greater than 800,000; and

(2) four members from the membership of the subregional board in the subregion containing a principal city having a population of less than 800,000.

(b) Before the confirmation election, the subregional boards shall select their representatives to the executive committee from their membership by a vote of the members. After the confirmation election, the subregional boards shall select their representatives in the same manner and those representatives shall serve at the pleasure of the subregional boards with the confirmation of the appointments made each September 1. To remain on the executive committee a person must maintain membership on a subregional board. A vacancy on the executive committee shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(c) Following the confirmation election each member of the subregional board shall be entitled to the sum of $50 for each meeting of the executive committee or subregional board attended and shall be reimbursed for necessary and reasonable expenses incurred in the discharge of duties.

(d) The members of the executive committee shall elect from among their number a chairman, vice-chairman, and a secretary. The executive committee may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or non-members of the executive committee, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary or secretaries shall in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the authority perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the executive committee. No member of the executive committee or officer of the authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(e) The executive committee shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the authority. Upon written notice, the chairman may call special meetings as may be necessary. The executive committee when organized shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall adopt rules, regulations, and bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. Eight members shall constitute a quorum of the executive committee for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers, and action may be taken by the authority upon a vote of a majority of the executive committee members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(f) The executive committee shall receive recommendations for the annual budget from each of the subregional boards and shall obtain approval from each subregional board of the final annual budget as it pertains to that board's subregion.

Subregional Board in a Subregion Having a Principal City With Population in Excess of 800,000

Sec. 6. (a) The subregional board in a subregion having a principal city with population in excess of 800,000 shall be organized in accordance with this section.

(b) The commissioners court of the county of the principal city shall appoint one member. The member shall represent only the communities and unincorporated areas in the county not directly represented on the board and shall reside in such an area.

(c) The remaining members of the subregional board shall be apportioned according to the ratio which the population of each incorporated city bears to the total population of the territory included within the subregion. Any combination of cities aggregating a total population of 60,000 shall be entitled to one member on the interim subregional board. Following the confirmation election, any combination of cities who have voted confirmation of the authority may aggregate a population of at least 60,000 for the purpose of appointing one member to the initial subregional board. In establishing the interim subregional board, if the results of the 1980 federal census are unavailable, the most recent population estimates of the appropriate metropolitan planning organization will be used.

(d) No city will be entitled to appoint more than 65 percent of the board members. If it would be so entitled pursuant to Subsection (c) of this section, it will be limited to 65 percent and the remaining members will be apportioned among the other cities in the subregion according to the provisions of Subsection (c) of this section.

(e) Prior to 60 days following the date for establishment of the board or restructuring of the board pursuant to Subsection (f) of this section, any two or more cities lacking a specifically designated board member may combine to be treated as a single city for purposes of Subsection (c) of this section, but no combination will be entitled to appoint more than one member of the board.

(f) Every five years as of the first day of September following the date the census data or population estimates become available, the board shall be restructured pursuant to Subsections (c) and (h) of this section, if warranted by population changes or changes in combinations established pursuant to Subsection (e) of this section.

(g) The members of the board shall serve at the pleasure of the governing body of each appointing governmental entity. The governing body shall confirm its board appointment to begin terms on the first day of September each year.

(h) The total number of members comprising the board shall be governed by the total population of the territory included in the subregion. Specifically, the board size shall be determined by the following formula:

Total Population in Subregion	Total Members on Subregional Board
Less than 1,000,000	15
1,400,000 plus	25

(i) Should a city be entitled to more than one board member, the governing body may appoint a number of members less than those allocated, who will be entitled to the same number of votes as the number of members allocated, but a member so appointed shall not cast divided votes.

(j) Sixty-five percent of the members constitutes a quorum for the purpose of conducting business and actions may be taken upon a majority vote of the members present so long as there is a quorum.

Subregional Board in a Subregion Having a Principal City with Population Less than 800,000

Sec. 7. (a) The subregional board in a subregion having a principal city with population less than 800,000 shall be organized in accordance with this section.

(b) The interim subregional board shall be comprised of nine members appointed as follows:

- (1) four members appointed by the governing body of the principal city;
- (2) four members appointed by the commissioners court of the county of the principal city; and
- (3) one member appointed by the governing body of a city having a population in excess of 100,000.

(c) The permanent subregional board shall be comprised of nine members appointed as follows:

(1) If the entire county of the principal city is confirmed as all or part of the authority, the permanent subregional board shall be appointed in the same manner as the interim subregional board.

(2) If less than the entire county of the principal city is confirmed as all or part of the authority the permanent subregional board shall be appointed as follows:

(A) The commissioners court of the county of the principal city shall appoint at least one member to represent the unincorporated areas and incorporated cities of the county which are not otherwise represented on the subregional board.

(B) The remaining members shall be apportioned to the incorporated cities confirmed as all or part of the subregion according to the ratio which the population of each unit of election bears to the total population of the area confirmed as the subregion. Units of election which fail to receive at least one member shall be aggregated with the county to determine population represented by the county, and appropriate additional members, if any, shall be so apportioned to the county. Units of election which are entitled to one or more members shall have the number of members rounded to the nearest whole number to determine actual apportionment.

(d) Six members of the subregional board shall constitute a quorum of the board for the purpose of conducting business and action may be taken by a majority vote of the members present so long as there is a quorum.

Membership, Terms, Meetings, and Responsibilities of Subregional Boards

Sec. 8. (a) Members of subregional boards must be registered voters residing within the boundaries of the authority. They shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing local governing bodies. Reaffirmation of the appointments will be required each September 1. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments.

(b) A subregional board shall elect from among its membership a chairman, vice-chairman, and secretary. The board may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the board, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary or secretaries shall in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the board perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the board. No member of a subregional board shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(c) A subregional board when organized shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall likewise adopt rules and regulations and such bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings and special meetings called by written notice of the chairman or vice-chairman.

(d) The subregional boards shall:

(1) develop, recommend, and approve the annual budget for the appropriate subregion and shall make recommendations for the overall budget; and

(2) make recommendations to the executive committee for operation of services provided by the authority.

Confirmation Election

Sec. 9. (a) After the interim executive committee has organized, developed a service plan, and determined the rate of tax that it desires to levy, it shall call a confirmation election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(b) Before ordering an election, the executive committee shall notify the commissioners court of each county included in whole or part within the initial territory of the authority of its intention to do so. Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, each commissioners court by order shall create not more than five designated units of election in the unincorporated portion of the appropriate county. Each designated unit of election shall have outer boundaries, to the extent practicable, that coincide with a boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided between two different designated election areas. The total area of all designated election areas shall include all of the unincorporated area within the initial territory of the authority.

(c) When the executive committee orders a confirmation election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the authority the following proposition:

Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held pursuant to this Act shall be furnished to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts.

(e) The election shall be conducted so that votes are separately tabulated and canvassed in each unit of election within the authority.

(f) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct shall return the results to the executive committee, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results separately with respect to each unit of election. In those units of election where a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the confirmation of the creation of the authority and the levy of the proposed tax, the authority shall continue to exist; except that unless the vote is favorable in the unit of election which includes the principal city, the authority shall cease to exist in that subregion. If the votes cast are such that the authority will continue to exist in either or both subregions, the executive committee shall enter the results on its minutes and adopt an order declaring that the creation of the authority is confirmed and describing the territory which comprises the authority. All units of election approving the authority and proposed tax shall be included in the authority if their subregion is included, unless the executive committee of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing that it is excepted from the authority and proposed tax because it is not contiguous to the existing authority and would create a fiscal hardship on the authority. A certified copy of the order adopted by the executive committee shall be filed with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts. The order shall reflect the date of the election, the proposition voted on, the total number of votes cast for and against the proposition in each unit of election, and the number of votes by which the proposition was approved in each election unit and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the authority.

(g) If the votes cast are such that the authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the executive committee shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission and the comptroller of public accounts, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(h) The cost of the confirmation election shall be paid by the creating entity or entities.

(i) If the election results in the confirmation of an authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the executive committee may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits. In no event shall the tax authorized under this Act be levied in any unit of election which has failed to confirm the authority.

(j) If the continued existence of an authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the resolution(s) or order(s) initiating the process to create the authority, the authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

(k) For a period of one year following a confirmation election, the governing body of any unit of election may on its own volition or shall upon receipt of a petition containing signatures of at least 20 percent of the registered voters within that unit of election call an election and offer the following proposition: "Shall the (name of authority) be dissolved in (unit of election)?" Should the majority of voters voting in the election vote to dissolve the authority within the unit of election, the authority shall cease to exist within the unit of election as of 12:00 midnight on the date of the canvass of the election and all financial obligations of that unit of election will cease to accrue at that time. The financial obligation shall be computed on a per capita basis for the entire year and taxes will continue to be collected until such time as all financial obligations of the unit of election are paid, at which time the taxes collected to support the authority shall cease within that unit of election.

(l) Should the governing body within a unit of election call an election on its own volition or upon petition as provided in Subsection (k) of this section for the purpose of dissolving the authority within the unit of election more than 12 months after the confirmation election, at least 12 months' notice of intent to hold the election must be provided to the executive committee, the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation and the comptroller of public accounts.

Powers of the Authority

Sec. 10. (a) The authority when created and confirmed shall constitute a public body corporate and politic, exercising public and essential governmental functions, having all the powers necessary or convenient to carry out and effectuate the purposes and provisions of this Act, including but not limited to the following powers granted in this section.

(b) The authority shall have perpetual succession.

(c) The authority may sue and be sued in all courts of competent jurisdiction and may institute and prosecute suits without giving security for costs and may appeal from a judgment or judgments without giving supersedeas or cost bond.

(d) The authority may acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or otherwise and may hold, use, sell, lease, or dispose of real and personal property of every kind and nature whatsoever and licenses, patents, rights, and interests necessary, convenient, or useful for the full exercise of any of its powers pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(e) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, plan, own, operate, and maintain a system or systems within its boundaries and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns, and villages and political subdivisions and for such purposes shall have the right to use the streets, alleys, roads, highways, and other public ways and to relocate, raise, reroute, change the grade of, and alter the construction of any street, alley, highway, road, railroad, electric lines and facilities, telegraph and telephone properties and facilities, cable television lines and facilities, pipelines and facilities, conduits and facilities, and other properties, whether publicly or privately owned, as necessary or useful in the construction, reconstruction, repair, maintenance, and operation of the system or to cause each and all of said things to be done at the authority's sole expense. The authority shall not proceed with any action to change, alter, or damage the property or facilities of the state, its municipal corporations, agencies, or political subdivisions or of owners of such property or facilities, without having first obtained the written consent of such owners or unless the authority shall have first obtained the right to take such action under its power of eminent domain as herein specified. In the event the owners of such property or facilities desire to handle any such relocation, raising, change in the grade of, or alteration in the construction of such property or facilities with their own forces or to cause the same to be done by contractors of their own choosing, the authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with such owners providing for the necessary relocations, changes, or alterations of such property or facilities by the owners and/or such contractors and the reimbursement by the authority to such owners of the costs incurred by such owners in making such relocations, changes, or alterations and/or in causing the same to be accomplished by such contractors.

(f) In the event the authority in exercising any of the powers conferred by this Act makes necessary the relocation, adjustment, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing the grade of or altering the construction of any street, alley, highway, or road; any railroad track, bridge, or other facilities or properties; any electric lines, conduits, or other facilities or properties; any gas transmission or distribution pipes, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any water, sanitary sewer, or storm sewer pipes, pipelines, mains, or other facilities or properties; any telegraph and telephone lines or other facilities or properties; any cable television lines, cables, conduits, or other facilities or properties; or any other pipelines and any facilities or properties relating thereto, any and all such relocations, adjustments, raising, lowering, rerouting, or changing of grade or altering of construction shall be accomplished at the sole cost and expense of the authority, and all damages which may be suffered by the owners of such property or facilities shall be borne by the authority.

(g) The authority shall have the right of eminent domain to acquire lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including without limitation easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space, or any combination thereof; provided that such right shall not be exercised in a manner which would unduly impair the then existing neighborhood character of property surrounding or adjacent to the property sought to be condemned or unduly interfere with interstate commerce or which would authorize the authority to run its vehicles on railroad tracks which are used to transport property.

(h) Eminent domain proceedings brought by the authority shall be governed by the provisions of Title 52, Eminent Domain, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as they now exist or hereafter may be amended,¹ insofar as such provisions are not inconsistent with this Act. Proceedings for the exercise of the power of eminent domain shall be commenced by the adoption by the executive committee of a resolution declaring the public necessity for the acquisition by the authority of the property or interest therein described in the resolution, and that such acquisition is necessary and proper for the construction, extension, improvement, or development of the system and is in the public interest. The resolution of the authority shall be evidence of the public necessity of such proposed acquisition and that such real or personal property or interest therein is necessary for public use.

(i) The authority shall have the power to enter into agreements with any other public utility, private utility, communication system, common carrier, or transportation system for the joint use of their respective facilities, installations and properties within the authority and to establish through routes, joint fares, or transfer of passengers.

(j) The authority shall establish and maintain rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, or other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system acquired, constructed, operated, or maintained by the authority which shall be reasonable and nondiscriminatory and which together with grants and receipts from taxes collected by the authority shall be sufficient to produce revenues adequate:

(1) to pay all expenses necessary to the operation and maintenance of the properties and facilities of the authority;

(2) to pay the interest on and principal of all bonds issued by the authority under this Act which are payable in whole or in part from such revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable;

(3) to pay all sinking fund and reserve fund payments agreed to be made in respect of any such bonds, and payable out of such taxes and revenues, when and as the same shall become due and payable; and

(4) to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of such bonds or with any person in their behalf.

(k) It is the intention of this Act that taxes levied and the rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation for the use of the facilities of the system shall not be in excess of what may be necessary to fulfill the obligations imposed upon the authority by this Act. Nothing herein shall be construed as depriving the State of Texas of its power to regulate and control such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation; provided that the State of Texas does hereby pledge to and agree with the purchasers and successive holders of the bonds issued hereunder that the state will not limit or alter the powers hereby vested in the authority to establish and collect such taxes, rates, fares, tolls, charges, rents, and other compensation as will produce revenues sufficient to pay the items specified in Subdivisions (1), (2), (3), and (4), Subsection (j) of this section or in any way to impair the rights or remedies of the holders of the bonds or of any person in their behalf until the bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of the bondholders and all other obligations of the authority in connection with such bonds are fully met and discharged.

(l) The authority may make contracts, leases, and agreements with and accept grants and loans from the United States of America, its departments and agencies, the State of Texas, its agencies, counties, municipalities, and political subdivisions, and public or private corporations and persons and may generally perform all acts necessary for the full exercise of the powers vested in it. The authority may acquire rolling stock or other property under conditional sales contracts, leases, equipment trust certificates, or any other form of contract or trust agreement. Any revenue bond indenture may provide limitations upon the exercise of the powers stated in this section and such limitations shall apply so long as any of the revenue bonds issued pursuant to such indenture are outstanding and unpaid.

(m) The authority may sell, lease, convey, or otherwise dispose of any of its rights, interests, or properties which are not needed for or, in the case of leases, which are not inconsistent with the efficient operation and maintenance of the system. It may sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of at any time any surplus materials or personal or real property not needed for its requirements or for the purpose of carrying out its power under this Act.

(n) The authority shall by resolution make all rules and regulations governing the use, operation, and maintenance of the system and shall determine all routings and change the same whenever it is deemed advisable. The authority shall encourage to the maximum extent feasible the participation of private enterprise.

(o) The authority shall have the power to lease the system or any part thereof to or contract for the use or operation of the system or any part thereof by any operator.

(p) The acquisition of any land or interest therein pursuant to this Act, the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities, and the exercise of any other powers herein granted an authority are hereby declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity.

(q) The authority may contract with any city, county, or other political subdivision for the authority to provide public transportation services to any area outside the boundaries of the authority on such terms and conditions as may be agreed to by the parties.

(r) The authority shall have the power to acquire, construct, complete, develop, plan, own, operate, and maintain a public transportation system and general transportation services within its boundaries and both within and without the boundaries of incorporated cities, towns, and villages and political subdivisions. The powers of the authority may be approved all or in part by referenda proposed by the executive committee. These powers as they relate to a public transportation system and general transportation services are identical to those outlined in other subsections of this section.

(s) The executive committee of the authority may establish a security force and provide for the employment of security personnel. The executive committee may commission any employee of the security force established under this Act as a peace officer if he is certified as qualified to be a peace officer by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education. Any person commissioned as a peace officer under this Act shall give an oath and such bond for the faithful performance of his duties as the executive committee may require. The bond shall be approved by the executive committee and made payable to the authority. It shall be filed with the executive committee. Any peace officer commissioned under this Act shall be vested with all the rights, privileges, obligations, and duties of any other peace officer in this state while he is on the property under the control of the authority or in the actual course and scope of his employment.

(t) Any and all law enforcement police powers granted pursuant to this section shall be subordinate to the law enforcement police power of an incorporated city wherein the power is attempted to be exercised.

Sec. 11. (a) Territory may be added to an authority only according to the provisions of this section.

(b) The governing body of an incorporated city or town located in whole or in part within a county in which the authority is situated, other than a principal city as defined by this Act, may hold an election on the question of whether the city or town shall be annexed to the authority. If a majority of the qualified voters in the city or town votes for annexation, the governing body shall certify the results of the election to the executive committee of the authority, and the city or town shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section. Should a principal city or subregion as defined by this Act choose to consider becoming a member of the authority, the procedures outlined in Sections 3 and 4 of this Act shall apply. Following the conduct of an election as directed by Section 9 of this Act, a subregional board will be established according to either Section 6 or Section 7 of this Act. The executive committee existing before the additional subregional board is created will be modified to conform with Section 5 of this Act.

(c) A city of 90,000 to 100,000 according to the last preceding decennial census located in a county with a principal city having a population of less than 800,000 according to the last preceding decennial census may join a separate authority upon otherwise complying with the terms of this Act. In such event thereafter, should a separate authority be established in a county with a principal city of less than 800,000 population according to the last preceding decennial census, any city within such county which has voted to participate with any authority created pursuant to this Act shall have the following options at that time: to remain a part of the earlier created authority, to join the new authority in the county in which the city is located, or to participate with both authorities. Provided that any such city wherein capital improvements have been previously made at its request by an authority must upon its transfer to a different authority or participation with more than one authority continue to honor reimbursement obligations resulting from such improvements.

(d) The commissioners court of a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part or that is adjacent to a county in which the authority is situated in whole or in part may hold an election for unincorporated areas in any one or more of the designated election areas formed for the election by order of the commissioners court on the question of whether the unincorporated area in which the election is held shall be annexed to the authority. The boundaries of a designated election area shall coincide to the extent practicable with the boundary of a county voting precinct so that insofar as practicable no county voting precinct is divided. If a majority of the qualified voters in any area where such an election is held votes in favor of annexation, the commissioners court shall certify the results of the election to the executive committee of the authority, and the unincorporated area shall become a part of the authority, except as provided in Subsection (f) of this section.

(e) If a city or town which is a part of an authority lawfully annexes additional territory which is not a part of the authority, the annexed territory becomes a part of the authority.

(f)(1) If an authority adds territory or alters its boundaries, the presiding officer of the executive committee shall forward to the comptroller of public accounts by United States registered mail or certified mail a certified copy of the order adding territory to the authority or of the order canvassing the returns and declaring the result of the election. The order shall reflect the effective date of the tax and shall be accompanied by a map of the authority clearly showing the territory added or detached.

(2) Upon receipt of the order and map, the tax imposed and authorized to be collected under Section 16 of this Act shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding quarter. However, if the comptroller notifies the presiding officer of the executive committee in writing within 10 days after receipt of the order and map that he requires more time, the comptroller shall be entitled to delay implementation one whole calendar quarter. Thereafter the tax shall be effective in the added territory on the first day of the next succeeding calendar quarter following the elapsed quarter.

(g) Territory in which an election is held as provided in Subsection (b) or (d) of this section becomes a part of the authority on the 31st day after the election, if the voters approve the addition as provided in Subsection (b) or (d) of this section, and unless the executive committee of the authority notifies the appropriate governing body in writing before that date that the addition, because it is not contiguous to the existing authority, would create a fiscal hardship on the authority.

(h) Separate subregional authorities created pursuant to this Act may voluntarily merge upon a subsequent agreement between them.

Separate Subregional Authority

Sec. 12. In the event one subregion should establish a regional transportation authority, the remaining subregion may establish a separate regional transportation authority pursuant to this Act. In a separate subregion with a principal city of less than 800,000, the tax rate shall be approved by the commissioners court before confirmation election as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

Composition of the Executive Committee

Sec. 13. If the existence of the authority is confirmed in both subregions, then the executive committee shall be organized as provided in Section 5 of this Act. If a creating entity in only one subregion initiates the process or if the existence of the authority is confirmed in only one subregion or separate subregion, then the board for that subregion shall become the executive committee and governing body of the authority, and members of the executive committee shall be selected in the manner prescribed for selection of the members of the board for the subregion that comprises the authority.

Station or Terminal Complexes

Sec. 14. (a) The acquisition of any land or any interest in land pursuant to this Act; the planning, acquisition, establishment, development, construction, improvement, maintenance, equipment, operation, regulation, protection, and policing of the authority's system and facilities; and the exercise of any other powers granted an authority, including without limitation the rights, powers, and authority relating to station or terminal complexes as provided in this section, are declared to be public and governmental functions, exercised for a public purpose, and matters of public necessity for public use and public benefit.

(b) The authority shall have the right, power, and authority to acquire by grant, purchase, gift, devise, lease, or eminent domain proceedings and to own lands in fee simple and any interest less than fee simple in, on, under, and above lands, including without limitation easements, rights-of-way, rights of use of air space or subsurface space or any combination thereof adjacent or accessible to stations and other public or general transportation facilities developed or to be developed by the authority that may be required for or in aid of the development of one or more station or terminal complexes, as part of its transportation system and may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer the same or any part thereof to individuals, corporations, or governmental entities, subject to the restrictions provided in this section.

(c) Any lands or interests in land acquired for a station or terminal complex must be part of or contained within a station or terminal complex designated as part of the system within a comprehensive service plan approved by resolution of the executive committee. Before a station or terminal complex may be included in the system, the executive committee must find and determine that the proposed station or terminal complex will encourage and provide for efficient and economical public transportation service, will facilitate access to public transportation service and provide other public transportation purposes, will reduce vehicular congestion and air pollution in the metropolitan area, and is reasonably essential to the successful operation of the system. The executive committee may amend its comprehensive service plan to include other station or terminal complexes upon making these findings.

(d) Any station or terminal complex shall include adequate provisions for the transfer of passengers between the various modes of transportation available to the complex. A complex may include provisions for commercial, residential, recreational, institutional, and industrial facilities, except that no lands or interests in land more than 1,500 feet in distance from the center point of the complex may be acquired for the facilities by eminent domain proceedings, and the executive committee shall designate the center point prior to the commencement of eminent domain proceedings. If a proposed station or terminal complex is to be located within the city limits or extraterritorial jurisdiction of a city or town, the governing body of the city or town must approve the location of the complex as to conform with the comprehensive or general plan of the city or town by motion, resolution, or ordinance duly adopted.

(e) The authority may sell, lease, or otherwise transfer lands or interests in land acquired within a station or terminal complex and may enter into contracts with respect to it in accordance with the comprehensive service plan approved by the executive committee, subject to such covenants, conditions, and restrictions, including covenants running with the land and obligations to commence construction within a specified time, as the executive committee may deem to be in the public interest or necessary to carry out the purposes of this section, all of which shall be incorporated into the instrument transferring or conveying title or right of use. Any lease, sale, or transfer shall be at fair value taking into account the use designated for the land in the comprehensive service plan for the system and the restrictions on and the covenants, conditions, and obligations assumed by the purchaser, lessee, or transferee. However, if the authority offers the property for sale, the original owner from whom the property was acquired by eminent domain proceedings or through threat of eminent domain proceedings has the first right to repurchase at the price at which it is offered to the public.

(f) No station or public transportation facility may be considered a "station or terminal complex" governed by this section unless it has been designated as such in the comprehensive service plan pursuant to the specific authority granted by this section.

Bonds and Notes

Sec. 15. (a) The authority shall have no power to assess, levy, or collect ad valorem taxes on property, nor to issue any bonds or notes secured by ad valorem tax revenues. The authority, however, shall have the full power to issue bonds and notes from time to time and in such amounts as it shall consider necessary or appropriate for the acquisition, purchase, construction, reconstruction, repair, equipping, improvement, or extension of the transportation system and all properties thereof whether real, personal, or mixed. All such bonds and notes shall be fully negotiable and may be made redeemable before maturity at the option of the issuing authority at such price or prices and under such terms and conditions as may be fixed by the issuing authority in the resolution authorizing such bonds or notes and may be sold at public or private sale whichever the executive committee may deem more advantageous.

(b) Prior to delivery, all bonds and notes authorized to be issued hereunder and the records relating to their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of Texas for examination, and if he finds that they have been issued in accordance with the constitution and this Act and that they will be binding obligations of the authority, he shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and after such approval and registration and the sale and delivery of the bonds to the purchaser, they shall be incontestable.

(c) In order to secure the payment of such bonds or notes, such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber and pledge all or any part of the revenue realized from any tax which the authority is authorized to levy and all or any part of the revenues of its transportation system and to mortgage and encumber all or any part of the properties thereof and everything pertaining thereto acquired or to be acquired and to prescribe the terms and provisions of such bonds and notes in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. If not prohibited by the resolution or indenture relating to outstanding bonds or notes, any such authority shall have full power and authority to encumber separately any item or items of real estate or personalty, including motorbuses, transit cars and other vehicles, machinery, and other equipment of any nature, and to acquire, use, hold, or contract for any such property under any lease arrangement, chattel mortgage, or conditional sale, including but not limited to transactions commonly known as equipment trust transactions. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting an authority from encumbering any one or more transportation systems for the purpose of purchasing, building, constructing, enlarging, extending, repairing, or reconstructing another one or more of said systems and purchasing necessary property, both real, personal, and mixed, in connection therewith.

(d) Refunding bonds or notes may be issued for the purposes and in the manner provided by general law, including without limitation Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended (Article 717k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Article 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), as presently enacted or hereafter amended.

(e) Whenever the revenues of any public transportation system or general transportation services shall be encumbered under this Act, the expense of operation and maintenance, including all salaries, labor, materials, and repairs necessary to render efficient service and every proper item of expense, shall always be a first lien and charge against such revenues. The fares charged for transportation of passengers by any system may be based upon a zone system of determining fares or other fare classification determined by such authority to be reasonable.

(f) All such bonds and notes shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for banks, savings banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, and insurance companies. Such bonds and notes shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, or other political subdivisions of the State of Texas, and such bonds and notes shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits to the extent of the principal amount thereof or their value on the market, whichever is the lesser, when accompanied by all unmatured coupons appurtenant thereto.

(g) If revenue bonds are to be issued by an authority to acquire any existing transportation system or any part thereof and the owner thereof is willing to accept said revenue bonds in lieu of cash, then in that event the revenue bonds may be exchanged for the property or for the stock of a corporation owning the property to be dissolved simultaneously.

(h) Bonds payable solely from revenues may be issued by resolution of the executive committee, but no bonds, except refunding bonds, payable wholly or partially from taxes may be issued until authorized by a majority vote of the qualified voters of the authority voting in an election called and held for that purpose.

Local Sales and Use Tax

Sec. 16. (a) Subject to approval at a confirmation election in accordance with this Act, the executive committee is authorized to levy, collect, and impose a local sales and use tax for the benefit of the authority, the sales tax portion of which shall not exceed one percent of receipts from the sale at retail of all taxable items within the authority area which are subject to taxation under the provisions of the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, as enacted and as heretofore or hereafter amended.¹ The tax rate may be levied or collected only as a quarter of one percent, a half of one percent, three-quarters of one percent, or one percent. The provisions of this section shall be applicable to the levy, imposition, and collection of the tax.

(b) The following words and terms shall have the following respective meanings unless a different meaning clearly appears from the context:

(1) "Authority area" means the geographical limits of the authority.

(2) "Comptroller" means the Comptroller of Public Accounts of Texas.

(3) "Local sales and use tax" means any sales and use tax imposed by a city within the authority area under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act (Article 1066c, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(c) The executive committee by filing a certified copy of the order with the comptroller may authorize and direct the comptroller to collect a rate of tax that is lower than the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election.

(d) The executive committee shall not increase the tax rate above the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election without first receiving a majority vote in favor of the increase at an authority-wide election.

(e) Upon actual receipt by the comptroller of notification of adoption, increase, or decrease of a local sales and use tax containing the information required by Subsection (f) of Section 9 of this Act, there shall elapse one whole calendar quarter prior to the adoption, increase, or decrease of a local sales and use tax becoming effective. Thereafter the adoption, increase, or decrease shall be effective beginning on the first day of the next calendar quarter following the elapsed calendar quarter.

(f)(1) Every retailer within the authority area shall add the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable local sales and use tax, and the tax imposed under the authority of this Act to his sale price, and when added, the combined tax shall constitute a part of the price, shall be a debt of the purchaser to the retailer until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as the purchase price. The combined taxes on the transaction shall be determined by multiplying the amount of the sale by the total of the combined applicable tax rates. Any fraction of one cent which is less than one-half of one cent of tax shall not be collected. Any fraction of one cent of tax equal to one-half of one cent or more shall be collected by the retailer as a whole cent of tax. Provided, however, that any retailer who can establish to the satisfaction of the comptroller that 50 percent or more of his receipts from the sale of taxable items arise from individual transactions where the total sales price when multiplied by the combined rates of the taxes imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, any applicable local sales and use tax, and this section equals an amount that is less than one-half of one cent may exclude the receipts from such sales when reporting and paying the tax imposed under this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax. No retailer shall avail himself of this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller. The comptroller shall grant such approval when he is satisfied that the retailer qualifies on the basis set forth in this section and when the retailer has submitted satisfactory evidence that he can and will maintain records adequate to substantiate the exclusion herein authorized. Any attempt on the part of any retailer to exercise this provision without prior written approval of the comptroller shall be deemed to be a failure and refusal to pay the taxes imposed by this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax, and the retailer shall be subject to assessment for both taxes, penalties and interest as provided for in this Act, the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, and any applicable local sales and use tax.

(2)(A) In every authority area where the tax authorized by this Act has been adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act, there is hereby imposed an excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption within such authority area of taxable items purchased, leased, or rented from any retailer on or after the effective date for collection of the sales tax portion of the sales and use tax for storage, use, or other consumption in such authority area at the same rate as the sales tax levied under this Act of the sales price of the taxable item or, in the case of leases or rentals, of said lease or rental price. Except as provided in Paragraph (D) of this subdivision, the use tax imposed by this section is not owed to and may not be collected by, for, or in behalf of an authority if no excise tax on the storage, use, or other consumption of an item of tangible personal property is owed to or collected by the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act or if the tangible personal property is first stored, used, or consumed within an authority or area that has not adopted the sales and use tax imposed by this section.

(B) In each authority where the tax authorized by this Act has been imposed as provided in this Act, the excise tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable excise tax under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act on the storage, use, or other consumption of taxable items and the excise tax imposed by this Act shall be added together to form a combined rate of excise tax which is equal to the sum of the applicable taxes. The tax imposed by this section shall be collected by the comptroller on behalf of and for the benefit of such authority. The formula prescribed in Subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be applicable to the collection of the excise tax imposed under this section.

(C) The provisions of Article 20.031, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act shall be applicable to the collection of the tax imposed by this Subdivision (2), provided that the name of the authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been adopted shall be substituted for that of the state where the words "this state" are used to designate the taxing authority or to delimit the tax imposed; and provided further that the effective date for commencing the collection of the sales tax portion of the tax imposed by this Act in any authority area shall be substituted for the phrase "the effective date of this chapter."

(D) If a sale of tangible personal property is consummated within the state but not within an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section and the tangible personal property is shipped directly into or brought by the purchaser or lessee directly into an authority that has adopted the taxes imposed by this section, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by the authority under Paragraph (A) of this subdivision. The use is considered consummated at the location where the item is first stored, used, or otherwise consumed after the intrastate transit has ceased.

(E) If the tangible personal property is shipped from outside this state to a customer within this state, the tangible personal property is subject to the use tax imposed by Paragraph (A) of this subdivision and not the sales tax imposed by Subdivision (1) of this subsection. The use is consummated at the first point in this state where the property is stored, used, or otherwise consumed after interstate transit has ceased. Tangible personal property delivered to a point in this state is presumed to be for storage, use, or other consumption at that point until the contrary is established.

(3)(A) On and after the effective date of any tax imposed under the provisions of this Act, the comptroller shall perform all functions incident to the administration, collection, enforcement, and operation of the tax, and the comptroller shall collect, in addition to the taxes imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act, an additional tax under the authority of this Act specified by the authority, but not to exceed one percent on the receipts from the sale at retail or on the sale price or lease or rental price on the storage, use, or other consumption of all taxable items within such authority area, which items are subject to the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. The tax imposed hereunder and the tax imposed under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and any applicable local sales and use tax shall be collected together and reported upon such forms and under such administrative rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the comptroller not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. On and after the effective date of any proposition to abolish such local sales and use tax in any authority area, the comptroller shall comply therewith.

(B) The comptroller shall make to the authority substantially the same reports as to taxes within the authority area as are made to cities under Subsections 5(b), (c), and (d) of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(4) The following provisions shall govern the collection by the comptroller of the tax imposed by this Act:

(A) All applicable provisions contained in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified in this Act.

(B) The provisions contained in Section 6 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act shall apply to the levy, imposition, and collection of the tax imposed by this Act, except as modified herein.

(C) The penalties provided in the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and Title 122A, Taxation—General, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, for violations of that Act are hereby made applicable to violations of this Act.

(D) The sales and use tax collected by the comptroller under this Act shall be deposited, held, accounted for, and transmitted for the authority as provided in Section 7 of the Local Sales and Use Tax Act.

(5) The authority's share of all sales and use tax collected under this Act by the comptroller shall be transmitted to the treasurer or the officer performing the functions of such office of such authority by the comptroller payable to the authority periodically as promptly as feasible. Transmittals required under this Act shall be made at least twice in each state fiscal year. Before transmitting such funds, the comptroller shall deduct two percent of the sum collected from the authority during such period as a charge by the state for its services specified in this Act, and the amounts so deducted shall be deposited by the comptroller in the State Treasury to the credit of the General Revenue Fund of the state. The comptroller is authorized to retain in the suspense account of an authority a portion of the authority's share of the tax collected under this Act. Such balance so retained in the suspense account shall not exceed five percent of the amount remitted to the authority. The comptroller is authorized to make refunds from the suspense account of an authority for overpayments made to such accounts and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of the suspense account of the authority. When an authority shall abolish such tax, the comptroller may retain in the suspense account of the authority for a period of one year five percent of the final remittance to the authority at the time of termination of collection of such tax in the authority to cover possible refunds for overpayment of the tax and to redeem dishonored checks and drafts deposited to the credit of such accounts. After one year has elapsed after the effective date of abolition of such tax in the authority, the comptroller shall remit the balance in such accounts to the authority and close the account.

(6) The comptroller may promulgate reasonable rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, to implement the enforcement, administration, and collection of the taxes authorized herein.

(7)(A) In an authority where the sales and use tax authorized by this Act has been imposed, if any person is delinquent in the payment of the amount required to be paid by him under this Act or in the event a determination has been made against him for taxes and penalty under this Act, the limitation for bringing suit for the collection of such delinquent tax and penalty shall be the same as that provided in Article 20.09, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act. Where any person is delinquent in payment of taxes under this Act, the comptroller shall notify the authority to which delinquent taxes are due under this Act by United States registered mail or certified mail and shall send a copy of the notice to the attorney general. The authority, acting through its attorney, may join in any suit brought by the attorney general as a party plaintiff to seek a judgment for the delinquent taxes and penalty due such authority. The notice sent by the comptroller to the authority showing the delinquency of a taxpayer constitutes a certification of the amount owed and is prima facie evidence of the determination of the tax and of the delinquency of the amounts of sales and use tax set forth in the notice.

(B) Where property is seized by the comptroller under the provisions of any law authorizing seizure of the property of a taxpayer who is delinquent in payment of the tax imposed by the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and where such taxpayer is also delinquent in payment of any tax imposed by this Act, the comptroller shall sell sufficient property to pay the delinquent taxes and penalty due an authority under this Act in addition to that required to pay any amount due the state under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act. The proceeds from such sale shall first be applied to all sums due the state, then all sums due any city under the Local Sales and Use Tax Act, and the remainder, if any, shall be applied to all sums due the authority.

(C) An authority that has adopted the tax authorized by this Act may bring suit for the collection of sales, excise, or use taxes imposed by this Act which have been certified as provided in Paragraph (A) of this subdivision and are owed to the authority under this Act if at least 60 days before the filing of the suit written notice by certified mail of the tax delinquency and of the intention to file suit is given to the taxpayer, the comptroller, and the attorney general and if neither the comptroller nor the attorney general disapproves the suit by written notice to the authority.

(D) The comptroller or attorney general may disapprove the institution of tax suit by an authority if:

(i) negotiations between the state and the taxpayer are being conducted for the purpose of the collection of delinquent taxes owed to the state and the authority seeking to bring suit;

(ii) the taxpayer owes substantial taxes to the state and there is a reasonable possibility that the taxpayer may be unable to pay the total amount owed in full;

(iii) the state will bring suit against the taxpayer for the collection of all sales, excise, and use taxes due under the Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and this Act; or

(iv) the suit involves a critical legal question relating to the interpretation of state law or a provision of the Texas Constitution or the United States Constitution in which the state has an overriding interest.

(E) A notice of disapproval to an authority must give reason for the determination of the comptroller or attorney general. A disapproval is final and not subject to review. An authority, after one year from the date of the disapproval, may proceed again as provided in Paragraph (C) of this subdivision even though the liability of the taxpayer includes taxes for which the authority has previously given notice and the comptroller or attorney general has previously disapproved the suit.

(F) In any suit under this subdivision for the collection of the authority tax, a judgment for or against the taxpayer does not affect any claim against the taxpayer by a city or the state unless the state is a party to the action.

(G) A copy of the final judgment in favor of an authority in a case in which the state is not a party shall be abstracted by the authority and a copy of the judgment together with a copy of the abstract shall be sent to the comptroller. The authority shall collect taxes awarded to it under the judgment as provided by Subsection (4) of Section (G), Article 20.09, Limited Sales, Excise and Use Tax Act and is responsible for the renewal of the judgment before the expiration of the 10-year period. If a collection is made by an authority on a judgment, notice of the amount collected shall be sent by certified mail to the comptroller. The comptroller may prescribe a form for the notice to be used by an authority.

Differential Tax Rates

Sec. 17. The executive committee by filing a certified copy of the order and a map of the authority clearly showing the boundaries of the subregions with the comptroller may authorize and direct the comptroller to collect a different rate of tax in each subregion as long as neither rate is greater than the rate approved by the voters at the confirmation election. In a subregion with a principal city of less than 800,000, the tax rate shall be approved by the commissioners court before the confirmation election as provided in Section 9 of this Act.

Management

Sec. 18. (a) The responsibility for the operation and control of the properties belonging to an authority shall be vested in its executive committee. The executive committee may:

(1) appoint and prescribe compensation for a general manager who shall employ persons, firms, partnerships, or corporations deemed necessary by the executive committee for the conduct of the affairs of the authority, including but not limited to bookkeepers, engineers, financial advisers, and operating or management companies and in accordance with executive committee policy, prescribe the duties, tenure, and compensation of each; all employees may be removed by the general manager;

(2) appoint auditors and attorneys and prescribe the duties, tenure, and compensation of each;

(3) become a subscriber under the Texas Workers' Compensation Act with any old-line legal-reserve insurance company authorized to write policies in the State of Texas;

(4) adopt a seal for the authority;

(5) invest funds of the authority in direct or indirect obligations of the United States, the state, or any county, city, school district, or other political subdivision of the state; funds of the authority may be placed in certificates of deposit of state or national banks or savings and loan associations within the state provided that they are secured in the manner provided for the security of the funds of counties of the State of Texas; the executive committee by resolution may provide that an authorized representative of the authority may invest and reinvest the funds of the authority and provide for money to be withdrawn from the appropriate accounts of the authority for the investments on such terms as the executive committee considers advisable;

(6) fix the fiscal year for the authority;

(7) establish a complete system of accounts for the authority and each year shall have prepared an audit of its affairs by an independent certified public accountant or a firm of independent certified public accountants which shall be open to public inspection; and

(8) designate one or more banks to serve as the depository for the funds of the authority.

(b) All funds of the authority shall be deposited in the depository bank or banks unless otherwise required by orders or resolutions authorizing the issuance of the authority's bonds or notes.

(c) To the extent that funds in the depository bank or banks are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, they shall be secured in the manner provided by law for the security of funds of counties of the State of Texas.

(d) The executive committee by resolution may authorize a designated representative to supervise the substitution of securities pledged to secure the authority's funds.

Rules and Regulations

Sec. 19. (a) The executive committee may adopt and enforce reasonable rules and regulations:

(1) to secure and maintain safety and efficiency in the operation and maintenance of its facilities;

(2) governing the use of the authority's facilities and services by the public and the payment of fares, tolls, and charges; and

(3) regulating privileges on any land, easement, right-of-way, rolling stock, or other property owned or controlled by the authority.

(b) A condensed substantive statement of the rules and regulations shall be published after adoption once a week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper with general circulation in the area in which the authority is located which notice shall advise that the full text of the rules and regulations is on file in the principal office of the authority where it may be read by any interested person. Such rules and regulations shall become effective 10 days after the second publication.

Competitive Bids

Sec. 20. Contracts for more than $2,000 for the construction of improvements or the purchase of material, machinery, equipment, supplies, and all other property, except real property, shall be let on competitive bids after notice published once at least 15 days before the date fixed for receiving bids in a newspaper of general circulation in the area in which the authority is located. The executive committee may adopt rules governing the taking of bids and the awarding of such contracts. This section shall not apply to personal and professional services or to the acquisition of existing transit systems.

County Authority to Contract with Authority

Sec. 21. A commissioners court may contract with an authority for the authority to provide public transportation services to any unincorporated area outside the boundaries of the authority for a term and on those conditions as are determined to be desirable by the commissioners court and the executive committee. The county may levy and collect taxes or pledge and encumber other receipts or revenues as may be required to make any payments to the authority under the provisions of the contract.

Elections

Sec. 22. (a) This section governs all elections ordered by the executive committee except elections held under the provisions of Section 9 of this Act.

(b) Notice of an election ordered by the executive committee shall be given by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication in a newspaper with general circulation in the authority at least 21 days before the election.

(c) A resolution calling an election and the notice of the election are sufficient if the date and hours of the election, the voting places within voting precincts for the election, and the propositions to be voted on are specified. The executive committee may define and declare voting precincts, determine the manner of absentee voting, and prescribe the election officers.

(d) As soon as practicable after an election, the executive committee shall canvass the returns of the election and declare the results.

(e) Where not otherwise provided in this section, the general election laws apply.

Exemptions from Taxes

Sec. 23. The property, revenues, and income of the authority and the interest bonds and notes issued by the authority shall be exempt from all taxes levied or to be levied by the State of Texas, its political subdivisions, counties, or municipal corporations.

Incorporated City May Provide Services

Sec. 23A. Nothing contained in this Act shall preclude an incorporated city from providing general transportation services or public transportation services.

Subregional Transportation Authorities in Contiguous Cities

Sec. 24. (a) Nothing contained in this Act shall require any city with boundaries contiguous to a principal city and with boundaries extending into two or more adjacent counties, two of which counties include a principal city, to be a part of or participate in the regional transportation authority provided herein. Such cities shall be called "contiguous cities."

(b) Nothing contained in this Act shall prohibit any such contiguous city from establishing a subregional transportation authority.

(c)(1) Within 60 days after initiation of the process provided in Section 3 of this Act by a principal city or a county of the principal city or within 60 days after a confirmation election or any election to dissolve the authority, in which a majority of the votes cast in such contiguous city either fail to confirm the creation of the authority or approve the dissolving of the authority, any such contiguous city may elect by resolution of its governing body not to participate in the regional transportation authority established by a principal city or county of a principal city.

(2) In the event such contiguous city shall elect not to participate in the regional transportation authority provided in this Act, its boundaries shall be excluded from the regional transportation authority proposed or created by the principal city or county of the principal city and shall not be included in the initiating process of said principal city or county of the said principal city as provided in Section 4 of this Act and the confirmation procedure of Section 9 of this Act.

(d) Any such contiguous city may create a subregional transportation authority by one of the following methods:

(1) The governing body of a contiguous city may initiate the process to create a subregional transportation authority on its own motion.

(2) If a petition requesting creation of a subregional transportation authority signed by at least five percent of the registered voters of the contiguous city is presented, the governing body of the contiguous city shall initiate the process for creating the subregional transportation authority.

(e) The subregional transportation authorities created in any two or more contiguous cities may establish a joint subregional transportation authority by contract. A subregional transportation authority or joint subregional transportation authorities may enter into contracts with a regional transportation authority.

(f) Except as it may conflict with the intent of this Section 24, the initiating procedure for a subregional transportation authority shall be the same as that provided in Section 4 of this Act. Where the word "principal city" is used therein, it shall mean contiguous city and where the word "authority" is used therein, it shall mean the subregional transportation authority.

(g)(1) The management, control, and operation of a subregional transportation authority and its property shall be vested in an executive committee comprised of five members selected by the governing body of the contiguous city.

(2) The members of the executive committee shall elect from among their number a chairman, a vice-chairman, and a secretary. The executive committee may appoint such assistant secretaries, either members or nonmembers of the executive committee, as it deems necessary. The secretary and assistant secretary shall, in addition to keeping the permanent records of all proceedings and transactions of the subregional transportation authority, perform such other duties as may be assigned to them by the executive committee. No member of the executive committee or officer of the subregional transportation authority shall be pecuniarily interested or benefited directly or indirectly in any contract or agreement to which the authority is a party.

(3) The executive committee shall hold at least one regular meeting during each month for the purpose of transacting the business of the subregional transportation authority. Upon written notice, the chairman may call special meetings as may be necessary. The executive committee, when organized, shall by resolution set the time, place, and day of the regular meetings and shall adopt rules, regulations, and bylaws as it may deem necessary for the conduct of its official meetings. Four members shall constitute a quorum of the executive committee for the purpose of conducting its business and exercising its powers, and action may be taken by the subregional transportation authority upon a vote of a majority of the executive committee members present unless the bylaws require a larger number for a particular action.

(4) The executive committee shall receive recommendations for the annual budget from the governing body of the contiguous city and shall obtain approval of the final annual budget from said contiguous city.

(h)(1) After the interim executive committee has organized, developed a service plan, and determined the rate of tax that it desires to levy, it shall call a confirmation election in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Where the executive committee orders a confirmation election, it shall submit to the qualified voters within the subregional transportation authority the following proposition:

"Shall the creation of (name of authority) be confirmed and shall the levy of the proposed tax be authorized?"

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, notice of the election shall be given in accordance with the general election laws. The notice of the election shall include a description of the nature and rate of the proposed tax. A copy of the notice of the election and any other election held pursuant to this Act shall be furnished to the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission.

(4) Immediately after the election, the presiding judge of each election precinct within the contiguous city shall return the results to the executive committee, which shall canvass the returns and declare the results of the election and adopt an order declaring the creation of the subregional transportation authority.

(5) If the votes cast are such that the subregional transportation authority ceases to exist in its entirety, the executive committee shall enter an order so declaring and file a certified copy of the order with the State Highways and Public Transportation Commission, and the authority shall be dissolved.

(6) The cost of the confirmation election shall be paid by the creating entity.

(7) If the election results in the confirmation of a subregional transportation authority, the authority shall, within the limits confirmed, be authorized to function in accordance with the terms of this Act, and the executive committee may levy and collect the proposed tax within those limits.

(8) If the continued existence of a subregional transportation authority is not confirmed by election within three years after the effective date of the resolution(s) or order(s) initiating the process to create the subregional transportation authority, the subregional transportation authority ceases to exist on the expiration of the three years.

(9) For a period of one year following a confirmation election, the governing body of any contiguous city may on its own volition or shall, upon receipt of a petition containing signatures of at least 20 percent of the registered voters within the contiguous city call an election and offer the following proposition: "Shall the (name of authority) be dissolved in city?" Should the majority of voters voting in the election vote to dissolve the subregional transportation authority within the contiguous city, the subregional transportation authority shall cease to exist within the city as of 12 midnight on the date of the canvass of the election and all financial obligations of that unit of election will cease to accrue at that time. The financial obligation shall be computed on a per capita basis for the entire year and taxes will continue to be collected until such time as all financial obligations of the contiguous city are paid, at which time the taxes collected to support the subregional transportation authority shall cease within the contiguous city.

(i) The following sections of this Act shall not apply to subregional transportation authorities:

Sections 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 11, and 12.

(j) Sections 10, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23 shall be applicable to the subregional transportation authorities. Whenever the term "authority" is used, it shall mean subregional transportation authority.

(k)(1) If a city or town which is a part of an authority lawfully annexes additional territory which is not a part of the subregional transportation authority, the annexed territory becomes a part of the subregional transportation authority.

(2) At the time territory is added to a subregional transportation authority under the provisions of this section, any tax which the board of the subregional transportation authority has already been authorized to levy applies to the added territory.

Eligibility of Excepted Areas for Federal Funds

Sec. 25. Ratification by referendum of an authority under the terms of this Act by less than all incorporated cities within the metropolitan area as defined herein shall not affect in any way the eligibility of such excepted incorporated cities to receive federal transit grants under the Surface Transportation Assistance Act of 1978 or any subsequent federal statutes.

Severability Clause

Sec. 26. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act shall nevertheless be valid, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, or provision. It is provided, however, that the provisions of Subsection (b) of Section 4 of this Act are not severable in whole or in part.

Art. 1182c-5. Cities Which Have Annexed Territory Within Water Control and Improvement, Fresh Water Supply or Municipal Utility Districts

Application of Act; Succession to Powers, Duties, Assets and Obligations of Districts

Sec. 1. (a) This Act shall apply to all incorporated cities and towns, including Home Rule Cities and those operating under General Laws or special charters (hereinafter called "city" or "cities"), which now or hereafter contain within their city or corporate limits (by virtue of annexation of territory or original incorporation, either or both) any part of the territory within one (1) or more water control and improvement districts, freshwater supply districts or municipal utility districts (hereinafter called "district" or "districts"), which districts were organized for the primary purpose of providing such municipal functions as the supply of fresh water for domestic or commercial uses, or the furnishing of sanitary sewer service, any or all, when the balance of the territory comprising such district or districts lies in another city or cities so that the entire district lies wholly within two (2) or more cities. Such cities shall succeed to the powers, duties, assets and obligations of such district or districts in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided. Nothing herein shall prohibit any city from continuing to operate utility facilities within any such district in which such facilities are, or were, owned and operated by such city at the time that the part of the territory of the district became, or becomes, a part of or included within the boundaries of such city.

(b) This Act shall also apply when the balance of the territory comprising a district or districts, other than a district created by a special act of the Legislature, lies in another city or cities and in unincorporated territory so that the entire district lies wholly within two (2) or more cities and in unincorporated territory. In this latter case dissolution of the district may be effected by the procedure in Section 2 hereof. This subsection shall not apply to a district created by a special act of the Legislature.

Abolition of Districts; Distribution of Assets; Assumption of Obligations

Sec. 2. (a) Such district may be abolished by mutual agreement between the district and the cities wherein such district lies. Subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, such agreement shall provide for the distribution among such cities of all the properties and assets of the district and for the pro rata assumption by such cities of all the debts, liabilities and obligations of the district, said distribution and assumption to be predicated or based upon the pro rata value of the properties and assets of the district going to such cities, respectively, to the entire value of such properties and assets. The determination of the value of such properties and assets may be on an original cost basis, a reproduction cost basis, or a fair market value basis or by any other valuation method agreed upon by the parties which reasonably reflects the value of the properties, assets, debts, liabilities, and obligations of the district. Such agreement shall designate the date upon which the district shall be abolished, and the agreement shall be approved by ordinance adopted by the governing body of each of the cities and by order or resolution adopted by the governing board of the district, and the same shall be so approved prior to the date designated in the agreement for such abolition, distribution, and assumption.

(b) In the event a district, other than a district created by a special act of the Legislature, lies wholly within two (2) or more cities and in unincorporated territory, said district may be abolished by mutual agreement between the district and all of the cities wherein portions of the district lie. Subject to the provisions of Section 4 of this Act, the agreement of dissolution shall provide for the distribution of assets and liabilities as stated in Subsection (a) hereof. In this connection, the city providing service to customers in unincorporated areas is specifically authorized to charge its usual and customary fees and assessments to such customers and to new customers outside its incorporated limits. The agreement shall be approved by ordinance adopted by the governing body of each city and by order or resolution adopted by the governing board of the district, and the agreement shall have this approval before the date designated in the agreement for abolition, distribution, and assumption.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN. CITIES ON NAVIGABLE WATERS

Article

1187g. City of Port Arthur; Lake Sabine; Regulation.

Art. 1187f. Harbor and Port Facilities; Cities and Towns Over 5,000 on Gulf or Connecting Waters; Bonds

Application of Act; Authority of City

Sec. 1. This Act apply to every incorporated city or town (including Home Rule Cities) located on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico, or any channel, canal, bay or inlet connected therewith, having a population of more than five thousand (5,000) inhabitants according to the Federal Census last preceding the taking of any action by such city under the provisions of this Act. Every such city or town owning and operating port facilities (referred to hereinafter as "city") is hereby empowered and authorized to build, construct, purchase, acquire, lease as lessee, improve, enlarge, extend, repair, maintain, replace, develop, operate, lease, or cause to be built, constructed, improved, enlarged, extended, repaired, maintained, developed, or operated, any and all improvements and facilities which the governing body thereof deems to be necessary or convenient for the proper operation of the ports or harbors of such city. Without in any way limiting the generalization of the foregoing, it is expressly provided that such improvements and facilities mentioned above shall include lands, interests in lands, properties, wharves, piers, docks, roadways, belt railways, warehouses, grain elevators, transport facilities, handling facilities, storage facilities, ship repair facilities, dumping facilities, bunkering facilities, floating plans and facilities, lightering facilities, towing facilities, any other facilities which a navigation district is or may be authorized to provide by general law or specific act, any and all equipment and supplies, and all other structures, buildings, and facilities which the governing body deems to be necessary or convenient for the proper operation of the ports or harbors of such city. The improvements and facilities mentioned in this Section 1 are hereinafter referred to as the "improvements and facilities." Any city may construct improvements and facilities on land acquired by purchase, lease, or otherwise and may convey such land, or interest therein, or such improvements and facilities by lease as lessor, sublease as sublessor or sale by installment or otherwise upon terms and conditions as the city may determine to be advantageous.

Tax Bonds and Revenue Bonds; Election

Sec. 2. For the purpose of providing funds for any of the improvements and facilities provided in Section 1 hereof, the governing body of the city shall have the power and authority to issue from time to time tax bonds or revenue bonds of said city, either or both; provided, however, that no bonds payable from ad valorem taxes, except refunding bonds, shall be issued unless and until they have been authorized at an election at which a majority of the persons qualified to vote and voting at said election have voted in favor thereof, said election to be called and held under the provisions of and in accordance with Chapter 1 of Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as the same is now or may hereafter be amended.¹ Notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary, no election shall be required to authorize the issuance under this Act of bonds payable solely from revenues if such bonds do not constitute a debt of the city or a pledge of its faith and credit and if the owner or holder of any such bond shall never have the right to demand payment out of any funds raised or to be raised by taxation.

Pledge of Revenues; Collection of Fees and Charges; Payment of Interest and Principal; Sale of Revenue Bonds

Sec. 3. Revenue bonds may be issued secured solely by a pledge of and payable from the net revenues derived from the operation of all or any designated part or parts of the improvements and facilities then in existence or to be improved, constructed, or otherwise acquired, with the duty of the city to charge and collect fees, tolls, and charges, so long as any of the revenue bonds or interest thereon are outstanding and unpaid, sufficient to pay all maintenance and operation expenses of the improvements and facilities (the net revenues of which are pledged), the interest on such bonds as it accrues, the principal of such bonds as it matures, and to make any and all other payments as may be prescribed in the bond ordinance and other proceedings authorizing and relating to the issuance of such bonds. If a city ordinance adopted under Section 7 of this Act places management and control of the improvements, facilities, and properties under a board of trustees while revenue bonds and the interest on them remain outstanding or unpaid, the board of trustees, if authorized by Home Rule Charter, may fix charges, authorize expenditures, prepare budgets, and otherwise manage and control the pledged revenues. "Net revenues" as used herein shall mean the gross revenues derived from the operation of those improvements and facilities the net revenues of which are pledged to the payment of the bonds less (a) the reasonable expenses of maintaining and operating said improvements and facilities, and said maintenance and operation expenses shall include, among other things, necessary repair, upkeep, and insurance of said improvements and facilities, and (b) if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter, any annual payment of the city as may be set out in said Charter. Revenue bonds issued hereunder may be sold at public or private sale, notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or Charter to the contrary.

Revenue Bonds; Public or Private Sale; Security; Sale of Improvements and Facilities

Sec. 3A. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 3 or 7, revenue bonds may be issued secured solely by a pledge of all or any part of the revenue from any leases, subleases, sales or contracts of sale entered into by city with respect to the improvements and facilities to be financed with such revenue bonds and such revenue bonds may be additionally secured by a trust indenture and by a mortgage or deed of trust lien or security interest upon such improvements and facilities. In connection with the issuance of such revenue bonds, the city may lease as lessor, sublease as sublessor or sell to any person, firm, corporation, partnership, political subdivision of the State of Texas, or agency of the United States of America, all or any part of any improvements and facilities to be constructed or acquired with the proceeds of such revenue bonds, said lease, sublease, sale or contract of sale to contain such terms and provisions (including in the case of a lease, but not by way of limitation, provisions to sell the improvements and facilities at the termination of said lease and provisions relating to management and operation of the improvements and facilities by the lessee thereof) as the city may determine to be advantageous to the city. The terms of said lease or contract of sale may provide that the lessee or purchaser of the improvements and facilities is contractually unconditionally obligated to make payments to the city for use or purchase of the facilities or improvements in amounts adequate to timely pay principal, interest, and premium on the revenue bonds of the city issued to finance the construction or acquisition of said facilities and improvements. Revenue bonds issued hereunder may be sold at public or private sale, notwithstanding the provisions or restrictions of any general or special law or charter to the contrary.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 4 to 6]

Outstanding Bonds; Unpaid Interest

Sec. 7. While any revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act or any interest thereon remain outstanding and unpaid, the management and control of such improvements and facilities (and the physical properties comprising the same) and of the income and revenue from them, including the authority to fix charges, prepare budgets, and authorize expenditures, by the terms of the ordinance authorizing the issuance of such bonds may be placed in the hands of the governing body of the city or may be placed in the hands of a board of trustees to be named in such ordinance, consisting of not more than seven (7) members, one (1) of whom shall be a member of the governing body of such city; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter and said Charter contains provisions requiring that the improvements and facilities be managed or controlled by a board of trustees, then the provisions of such Charter shall be followed. The compensation of the members of the board of trustees, the terms of office of such members, their powers and duties, the manner of exercising the same, the election or appointment of their successors, and all matters pertaining to their organization and duties shall be specified in said ordinance; provided, if the city is operating under a Home Rule Charter as mentioned above and the Charter contains provisions relating to any of the foregoing matters mentioned in this sentence, it is expressly provided that the provisions of such ordinance relating to such matters shall be in accordance with and governed by the Charter provisions. In all matters where such ordinance or Charter are silent, the laws and rules governing the governing body of the city shall govern said board of trustees so far as applicable.

Refunding Bonds; Approval and Registration

Sec. 8.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8(a) and (b)]

(c) Refunding bonds (both tax refunding bonds and revenue refunding bonds) shall be authorized by ordinance of the governing body of the city, and shall be executed and mature as is provided in this Act for original bonds. They shall be approved by the Attorney General of the State of Texas as in the case of original bonds, and shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas upon surrender and cancellation of the bonds to be refunded; but in lieu thereof, the ordinance authorizing their issuance may provide that they shall be sold at public sale if they are tax refunding bonds and at public or private sale if they are revenue refunding bonds and the proceeds thereof deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, or with the State Treasurer, in which case the refunding bonds may be issued in an amount sufficient, not only to pay the principal of the underlying bonds, but also to pay the interest on the underlying bonds to their option or maturity dates, and the Comptroller of Public Accounts shall register them without the surrender and cancellation of the underlying bonds. In those situations where the proceeds of revenue refunding bonds are deposited in the place or places where the underlying bonds are payable, or with the State Treasurer, they shall be so deposited under an escrow agreement so that such proceeds and, at the option of such city, any interest earned from the investment of such proceeds as hereinafter provided, will be available for the payment of the interest on and principal of said underlying bonds as such interest and principal respectively become due; and such escrow agreement may provide that such proceeds may, until such time as the same are needed to pay interest and principal as the same become due, be invested in direct obligations of the United States of America, in which instances the interest earned on such investments may be pledged to the payment of the principal of and interest on the underlying bonds, the refunding bonds or shall be considered as revenues of the improvements and facilities.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8(d) and (e)]

Applicability of Statutes; Mortgage of Properties

Sec. 9. Insofar as the same may be applicable, the provisions of Articles 1111 to 1118, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, together with all amendments thereof and additions thereto, shall apply to revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and any city covered by this Act shall have, with respect to revenue bonds issued hereunder, all the powers granted by said Statutes. However, where the provisions of said Statutes are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the provisions of this Act shall govern and prevail. Further, it is expressly provided that the city shall have no power or authority to mortgage or encumber the physical properties of the improvements and facilities being financed in whole or in part by bonds payable from ad valorem taxes, unless authorized at the election required by Section 2 of this Act.

The authority of the governing body of the city of Midland to create a municipal court of record in the city of Midland includes the authority to establish, in the manner set forth in this section, more than one municipal court of record if the governing body determines that it is necessary in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city. He need not be a resident of the city at the time of his appointment, but he shall maintain his residence in the city during his tenure of office. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not engage in the private practice of law while in office. He shall be appointed by the governing body of the city. He shall be paid a salary to be determined by the governing body of the city. The salary shall not be based on or in any way contingent on the fines, fees, or costs collected by the municipal court.

If more than one municipal court is created by the governing body of the city, a judge shall be appointed for each court and the governing body of the city shall designate a judge to be the presiding judge.

Court Clerk

Sec. 4. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and such deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel, including at least one bailiff for each court, as are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Midland County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Sec. 8. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court solely on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after it is filed. The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, he shall be committed to jail unless he posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a less sum than $100. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant shall make his personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instanter, if the court is in session, and if the court is not in session, then at its next session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court that shall always include the following:

(2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or

(3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within fifteen days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his briefs with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal; Review or Error

Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a ca-pias for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals; Record

Sec. 22. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant shall have the right to appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the municipal court judge.

The qualifications of the court reporter shall be determined by the judge, or if there is more than one judge, by the presiding judge.

The record of proceedings may be preserved by the court reporter by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of them. The court reporter is not required to take testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Ordinances; Judicial Notice

Sec. 6. The municipal court shall take judicial notice of the ordinances of the city.

Appeal; Appellate Courts

Sec. 7. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment of conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The County Court of Nolan County has jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal court.

Sec. 8. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo.

Sec. 9. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on

The motion for new trial shall be presented to the court within 10 days after the filing of the original or amended motion, and shall be determined by the court within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant. For purposes of appeal, a point of error not distinctly set forth in the motion for new trial shall be considered as waived.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 10. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his motion for new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court upon the overruling of the motion for new trial; otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 11. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. Record on Appeal

Sec. 12. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of a transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts. If the court finds, after hearing in response to affidavit by defendant that he is unable to pay or give security for the record on appeal, the court will order the reporter to make such transcription without charge to the defendant.

Contents of Transcript

Sec. 13. (a) The municipal court clerk, upon written request from the defendant, shall prepare under his hand and seal of the court for transmission

Statements of Facts; Agreed Statement; Designated Items and Payment

Sec. 15. (a) A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

- (2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney; or
- (3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial.

(b) The court reporter shall transcribe any portion of his notes of the court proceedings in the case at the request of the defendant. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The cost to the defendant for the transcription shall not exceed the fees or charges normally being made by court reporters in the county for similar transcriptions. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions.

Filing of Transcript and Statement of Facts; Time Limits; Completion and Approval of Record; Transfer of Record to Clerk of Appellate Court

Sec. 16. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

- (3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward it to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Brief on Appeal: Contents and Filing

Sec. 17. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals, except that the points of error on appeal shall be confined to those points of error set forth in the defendant's motion for new trial.

(b) The defendant shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files his briefs with the clerk. Each party, on filing his brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of his brief to be delivered to the opposing party.

Procedure on Appeal; Review or Error

Sec. 18. The appellate court shall hear and determine appeals from the municipal court at the earliest practical time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice, and no affirmance or reversal of a case shall be determined on mere technicalities or on technical errors in the preparation and filing of the record on appeal. Oral arguments before the appellate court shall be under the rules which the appellate court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral arguments.

Disposition on Appeal; Presumptions; Decision

Sec. 19. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume (1) that the venue was proven in the court below; (2) that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn; (3) that the defendant was arraigned and that he pleaded to the complaint; and (4) that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury; unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Filing of Record; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 20. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, he shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a causas for the defendant, or issue an execution against his property.

New Trial

Sec. 21. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

The repealed article, relating to municipal courts of record in Fort Worth, was derived from Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1798, ch. 725, §§ 1 to 41. See, now, art. 1200ff-1.

Art. 1200ff-1. Fort Worth

Creation; Formation by Ordinance; Additional Courts

Sec. 1. There are created municipal courts of record in the city of Fort Worth to be held in that city if the governing body of the city, by legally adopted ordinance, finds and determines that the conditions of the dockets of the other courts of the county are such as to require the formation of such municipal courts in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city. The governing body of the city may by ordinance determine the number of municipal courts that are required in order to dispose of the cases arising in the city, in which case the governing body of the city may establish as many municipal courts as it considers necessary, and the ordinance establishing the municipal courts shall designate the municipal courts as Municipal Court No. 1, Municipal Court No. 2, and as each municipal court is established, it shall be designated with the next succeeding number. Municipal courts of record shall not exist concurrently with municipal courts that are not courts of record in the city of Fort Worth.

Jurisdiction; Writs; Terms; Exchange of Benches

Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts created under the provisions of this Act shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is situated in criminal cases arising within such territorial limits under the criminal laws of this state in which punishment is only by fine not exceeding $200. Municipal courts shall also have jurisdiction over cases arising outside the territorial limits of the city under the ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) The judge of a municipal court may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and all other writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(c) Municipal courts shall hold no terms and may sit at any time for the transaction of the business of the courts.

(d) The judges of the municipal courts may, at any time, exchange benches and may, at any time, sit and act for and with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts, and any acts thus performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding on all parties to such cases, matters, and proceedings.

Jurisdiction Conformed

Sec. 3. The jurisdiction of all courts exercising criminal jurisdiction is conformed to the terms and provisions of this Act.

Judges; Qualifications; Election; Compensation; Vacancies; Bond and Oath

Sec. 4. (a) Each municipal court shall be presided over by a judge, who shall be known as the "municipal judge," who shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in this state and in the county in which the municipal court is located and a citizen of the United States and of this state. The judge shall be a resident of the city at the time of the election and shall maintain his or her residence within the city during the judge's tenure of office. Each municipal judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years, unless the city by charter amendment provides for a four-year term as provided by Article XI, Section 11, of the Texas Constitution. The governing body of the city may, by the procedure provided by Subsection (c) of this section, designate a qualified person to serve as judge of each municipal court of record created by it until the next regular municipal election.

(b) Municipal judges shall receive a salary, to be set by the governing body of the city, which may not be diminished during their terms of office. A municipal judge may not be removed from office during the term for which the judge was elected except for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts may be removed from office.

(c) A vacancy in the office of municipal judge by death, resignation, creation of a new court, or otherwise shall be filled by appointment by a majority of the governing body, and the person appointed shall serve only until the next regular municipal election, at which time his or her successor shall be elected. An appointee may succeed himself or herself, if elected, as may judges regularly elected.

(d) A majority of the governing body of the city may appoint any number of qualified persons to act in the place of any municipal judge absent because of illness, family death or illness, continuing legal or judicial education programs, or otherwise. In the absence of a judge, the chief judge or his or her designate shall call on one of those persons to serve, and while serving the selectee shall have all the powers and discharge all the duties of the office and shall receive the same compensation that is payable to the regular municipal judge.

(e) Municipal judges shall execute a bond and take the oath of office as required by law relating to county judges.

(f) The chief judge of the municipal courts shall be the senior municipal judge in length of continuous service as judge.

Clerk; Duties

Sec. 7. The clerk of the municipal courts shall be appointed by the city manager with the consent of the governing body of the city and shall perform all duties in accordance with state statutes, the city charter, and city ordinances. It shall be the duty of the clerk or the clerk's deputies to keep the records of proceedings of the courts and to issue all processes and generally to do and perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of county courts exercising criminal jurisdiction insofar as the same may be applicable.

Court Reporter; Evidence Inadmissible in Civil Proceeding

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in all cases tried before the municipal courts, the judge of each court shall appoint an official court reporter, who shall be well-skilled in the profession and have the qualifications required of a court reporter in the courts as provided by the general laws of Texas. The reporter shall be a sworn officer of the court and shall hold the office at the pleasure of the judge at a salary to be fixed by the governing body of the city. The judge or judges of the courts may appoint the deputy official court reporters that are deemed necessary to promptly and efficiently dispose of the business of the courts. The court reporter shall perform duties under the direction and control of the municipal judge or judges. The court reporter shall take testimony in any case when a party or the judge requests it and no testimony shall be taken unless it is requested by a party or the judge.

(b) The testimony, exhibits, or evidence given by a witness in the course of a proceeding in the municipal courts shall be solely for the purpose of such proceeding or appeal therefrom, and in any other civil proceeding, evidence relating to such testimony, exhibits, evidence, or reproductions thereof shall be privileged and not admissible for any purpose.

Court Costs

Sec. 9. No court costs shall be assessed or collected by any municipal court in any case tried in the courts, except warrant fees, capias fees, and other fees authorized for municipal courts.

Sec. 10. All processes issuing out of municipal courts may be served by a policeman or warrant officer of the city or by any peace officer under the same rules as are provided for service by sheriffs and constables of process issuing out of a county court so far as applicable.

Sec. 12. Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint filed by the city attorney, or his or her assistants, which shall begin: "In the name and by authority of the State of Texas" and shall conclude "against the peace and dignity of the state." All complaints shall be prepared under the direction of the city attorney or his or her assistants and may be signed by any credible person on information and belief, sworn to before a notary public, the city attorney, an assistant city attorney, the clerk of the court, or any deputy clerk, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer the oath. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

- (1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe him or her as accurately as practicable;
- (2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;
- (3) facts showing that the place where the offense is charged to have been committed is within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and
- (4) facts showing, from the date of the offense stated therein, that the offense is not barred by limitations. All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of such courts.

Jury Trial; Selection of Jurors

Sec. 13. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense shall be entitled to be tried by a lawful jury of six persons. The municipal judge may set certain days of each week or month for the trial of jury cases. Juries for the court shall be selected by the following procedure. On the implementation of this Act by the governing body of the city and between the 1st and 15th days of August of each year thereafter, the tax assessor and collector of the city, or one of his or her deputies, and the city secretary, or one of his or her assistants, shall meet together and select, from the list of qualified jurors in the city, the jurors for service in the municipal courts for the ensuing year. The list of jurors shall be taken from the voters registration list of the city. The officers shall place on separate cards of uniform size and color the names of all persons who are known to be qualified jurors under the law residing in the city, placing also on the cards, whenever possible, the post office address of each juror so selected. The cards containing the names shall be deposited in a jury wheel to be provided for that purpose by the governing body of the city. The wheel shall be constructed of any durable material, shall be so constructed as to revolve freely on its axle, and may be equipped with a motor to revolve the wheel so as to thoroughly mix the cards. The wheel shall be locked at all times, except when in use as hereinafter provided, by the use of two separate locks so arranged that the key to one will not open the other lock. The wheel and the clasps into which the locks are fitted shall be arranged so that the wheel cannot be opened unless both of the locks are unlocked. The keys to the locks shall be kept, one by the city secretary and the other by the clerk of the municipal courts. The city secretary and the clerk of the municipal courts shall not open the wheel or permit it to be opened by any person except at the time and in the manner and by the persons herein specified. The city secretary and clerk shall keep the wheel when not in use in a safe and secure place where it cannot be tampered with.

(b) Not less than 10 days before January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 of each year, the clerk of the municipal courts, or one of the clerk's deputies, and the city secretary, or one of the secretary's assistants, in the presence and under the direction of one of the municipal judges shall draw from the wheel containing the names of jurors, after the wheel has been turned and the cards thoroughly mixed, one by one the names of jurors to provide the number directed by the judges for each week of the three months next ensuing for which a jury may be required, and shall record the names as they are drawn on a separate sheet of paper for each week for which jurors may be required. At the drawing, no persons other than those above named shall be permitted to be present. The officers attending the drawing shall not divulge to any person the name of any person that may be drawn as a juror. If at any time during the next three months and prior to the next drawing date it appears that the list already drawn will be exhausted before the expiration of three months, additional lists for as many additional weeks as the judges may direct will be drawn in the same manner. The several lists of names so drawn shall be certified under the hand of the clerk of the municipal courts, or the deputy doing the drawing, and the municipal judge in whose presence the names were drawn, to be the lists drawn by him or her for that quarter and shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "List no. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the ____ day of _____, 19____, for the Municipal Courts of _____." The clerk doing the drawing shall write his or her name across the seals of the envelopes and deliver them to the judge, who shall inspect the envelopes to see that they are properly endorsed and shall then deliver them to the clerk or the clerk's deputy, and the clerk shall then immediately file them away in some safe and secure place in his or her office under lock and key. When the names are drawn for jury service, the cards containing the names shall be sealed in separate envelopes endorsed "Cards containing the names of jurors list no. _____ of the petit jurors drawn on the ____ day of _____, 19____, for the Municipal Courts of _____." Each envelope shall be retained unopened by the clerk until after the jury selected from the corresponding list has been impaneled. After the jurors so impaneled have served four or more days, the envelope containing the cards bearing the names of the jurors on that list shall then be opened by the clerk or the clerk's deputy. Those cards bearing the names of persons who have not been impaneled and who have not served as many as four days shall be immediately returned to the wheel by the clerk or the deputy, and the cards bearing the names of the persons serving as many as four days shall be put in a box provided for that purpose for the use of the officers who shall next select the jurors from the wheel. If any of the lists drawn are not used, the clerk or the deputy shall open the envelopes containing the cards bearing the names of the unused lists immediately after the expiration of the three-month period and return the cards to the wheel. A juror serving on a jury in the court shall receive not less than $10 for each day and for each fraction of a day the juror attends the court as a juror, and in no event less than that paid in county courts.

(c) In lieu of the preceding method of jury selection, a majority of the judges of the municipal courts of the city may adopt a plan binding on all such judges for the selection of persons for jury service with the aid of mechanical or electronic means. If such a plan is adopted, the foregoing provisions of this section dealing with the selection of petit juries by jury wheel shall not apply. A plan so adopted shall include the following requirements:

(1) the names taken for jury purposes shall be names of registered voters in the city;

(2) provision of a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury service;

(3) designation of the clerk of the court as the official to be in charge of the jury selection process and providing the duties of the clerk in that process; and

(4) specification that a true and complete written list showing the names and addresses of the persons summoned to begin jury service on a particular date shall be filed with the clerk of the court at least 10 days prior to the date the persons are to begin jury service.

(d) In lieu of either of the foregoing methods of petit jury selection, a majority of the judges of the municipal courts of the city may adopt a plan binding on all the judges for the selection of persons for jury panels from a central jury pool maintained by the county in which the city is located to provide petit juries for the district courts, county courts, county courts at law, and justice courts of the county, if any such pool exists. If such a plan is adopted, the provisions of this section dealing with the selection of petit juries by jury wheel or mechanical or electronic means do not apply. A plan so adopted shall include the following requirements:

(1) the persons taken from the central jury pool shall be registered voters in the city;

(2) provision of a fair, impartial, and objective method of selecting persons for jury panels from the pool;

(3) designation of the clerk of the municipal courts as the official to be in charge of the selection process from such pool, except that the clerk may, with permission from such county employee, appoint the county employee in charge of the central jury pool as the clerk's deputy for this purpose; and

(4) provision for compensation to the county for juror fees paid by the county to jury panel members selected from the central jury pool for municipal court jury panels, if the fees are paid to the selectees by the county rather than by the city.

The fee must be paid within 10 days after the order overruling the motion for a new trial is rendered. An appeal may not be taken until the required bail bond has been given and approved by the court. The bail bond must be filed with the court within 10 days after the order of the court refusing a new trial has been rendered and not afterwards.

Bail on Appeal

Sec. 24. In appeals from the judgments and sentence of a municipal court, the defendant shall, if the defendant is in custody, be committed to jail unless the defendant gives bail, to be approved by the judge of the municipal court in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against him or her, payable to the State of Texas for the use and benefit of the city. Bail shall not in any case be for a sum less than $100. The court reporter shall immediately notify all parties in writing that the request has been made. Copies of the statement of facts shall be provided all parties by the reporter and one copy shall be filed by the reporter with the clerk of the municipal courts to be forwarded immediately to the clerk of the appellate court. The transcription shall be in narrative form unless written notice of objection to narrative form is made by a party within five days of receiving notice that the transcription was requested.

(b) All matters not essential to the decision or the questions presented in the motion for new trial shall be omitted from a statement of facts. Formal parts of all exhibits and more than one copy of any document appearing in the transcript or the statement of facts may be excluded. All documents may be abridged by omitting or abbreviating a formal portion thereof.

(c) It shall be unnecessary for the statement of facts to be approved by the trial court or judge thereof when agreed to by the defendant, or the defendant's attorney, and the city attorney, or assistant city attorney.

(d) The cost of preparation of the statement of facts shall be paid by the requesting party, unless the requesting party is the State of Texas or the city. The cost, if paid by the defendant, is recovered by the defendant if the case is overturned or dismissed on appeal.

Agreed Statement of Case

Sec. 32. The defendant, or the defendant's attorney, and the city attorney, or assistant city attorney, may agree on a brief statement of the case and on the facts proven as will enable the appellate court to determine where there is error in the judgment of the trial court. Such statements shall be copied into the transcript in lieu of the proceedings themselves.

Date for Filing Record

Sec. 33. The transcript and statement of facts shall be filed with the clerk of the municipal courts within 60 days from the date of the payment of the $10 fee for preparation of the transcript and shall be promptly forwarded by the clerk of the municipal courts to the clerk of the court to which the appeal is taken.

Hearing Appeals; Oral Arguments

Sec. 36. The court to which the appeal is taken shall hear and determine appeals from municipal courts at the earliest time it may be done, with due regard to the rights of parties and proper administration of justice. Oral arguments before the court shall be under such rules as the court may determine, and the parties may submit the case on the records and briefs without oral argument.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 37. A county court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require. Unless such matters were made an issue in the municipal court, or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts, the court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and that he or she pleaded to the complaint, and that the court's charge was certified by the judge and filed by the clerk before it was read to the jury. In each case decided by the court having jurisdiction of appeals, the court shall deliver a written opinion either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the court shall set forth the reasons for such decision. Copies of the decision of the court shall be mailed by the clerk of the court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as rendered by the court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings; Enforcement of Judgment

Sec. 38. When the judgment of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts becomes final, the clerk of the court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and mail the certificate to the clerk of the municipal courts from which the appeal was taken. When the record is received by the clerk of the municipal courts, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket of the municipal court. Where the judgment has been affirmed, no proceedings need be had after filing the record in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except forfeiture of the bond of the defendant, issuance of a capias for the defendant, or an execution against the defendant's property.

Award of New Trial

Sec. 39. Where the appeal court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as it would have stood if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to Court of Criminal Appeals

Sec. 40. Appeals to the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas from the decision of the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts, when permitted by law, shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965, except that when an appeal is permitted by law, the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts filed in the court having jurisdiction of appeals from municipal courts shall constitute the transcript, briefs, and statement of facts before the Court of Criminal Appeals of Texas or as the rules of the Court of Criminal Appeals may provide in such cases.

Facilities of Court; Salaries

Sec. 41. (a) The municipal courts shall be held in the city at a place or places within the corporate limits of the city as may be designated by the governing body of the city.

(b) The governing body of the city shall provide suitable quarters for the courts, and all costs of providing courtrooms and office space for the courts, the clerk, and court reporters shall be paid for by the governing body of the city. All salaries paid to the judges, the clerk, court reporters, and employees of the municipal courts shall be paid by the governing body of the city.

Disposition of Fines, Fees, Costs, and Bonds

Sec. 42. All fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds in municipal courts shall be paid to the clerk of the municipal courts. The clerk of the municipal courts shall deposit all fines, fees, costs, and cash bonds directly into the general fund of the city.

Classification of Personnel

Sec. 43. The judges of municipal courts, the clerk and deputy clerks of the courts, and the court reporters of the municipal courts shall not be considered to be classified employees under civil service, charter, or ordinance provisions. However, the governing body of the city may provide by ordinance that all other employees of the municipal courts may be hired and paid as classified employees under the city civil service, charter, or ordinance provisions. The judges, clerk, deputy clerks, and court reporters may be authorized or required by the governing body of the city to participate in the retirement program of the city. The judges, clerk, deputy clerks, and court reporters of municipal courts shall receive the same vacation, sick leave, and other benefits as are provided for other nonclassified employees of the city under such regulations as may be provided by the governing body.

Vacation of Unnecessary Court

Sec. 44. After the establishment of municipal courts, if the governing body of the city shall, by legally adopted ordinance, find and determine that the condition of the dockets of the other courts of the county is such as not to require the existence of one or more municipal courts in order to properly dispose of the cases arising in the city, then the offices of municipal judge, clerk of the municipal courts, court reporters, and other employees of the courts may be declared vacated as of the end of the term for which the municipal court judges were last elected or appointed. In that event, any case pending in the municipal courts shall be transferred to the proper court having jurisdiction of the offense. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 811, ch. 369, §§ 1 to 44, eff. Aug. 27, 1979.]

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his or her term of office.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of municipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for the position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy. Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter with the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters, whose compensation shall be determined by the chief administrative officer of the city on the recommendation of the presiding municipal judge.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of these methods. The court reporter is not required to take or record testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. Sec. 2. (a) Municipal courts created under the provisions of this Act shall have jurisdiction within the territorial limits of the city in all criminal cases arising under the ordinances of the city and shall also have concurrent jurisdiction with any justice of the peace in any precinct in which the city is situated in criminal cases arising within such territorial limits under the criminal laws of this state in which punishment is only by fine not exceeding $200. Municipal courts shall also have jurisdiction over cases arising outside the territorial limits of the city under the ordinances authorized by Subdivision 19, Article 1175, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended.

(b) The municipal court of record shall take judicial notice of all ordinances of the city.

(c) The judge of a municipal court may grant writs of mandamus, injunction, attachment, and all other necessary writs necessary to the enforcement of the jurisdiction of the court, and may issue writs of habeas corpus in cases where the offense charged is within the jurisdiction of the court.

(d) The general laws of the state regarding municipal courts and regarding justice courts on matters where there is no law for municipal courts, and the valid charter provisions and ordinances of the city of San Antonio relating to the municipal court apply to the municipal court authorized in this Act, unless the laws, charter provisions, and ordinances are in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of this Act.

Judges

Sec. 3. (a) Each municipal court shall be presided over by one or more judges to be known as "municipal judges."

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of the charter or an ordinance of the city, each municipal judge shall be elected by the qualified voters of the city for a term of two years. The governing body of the city may appoint a person or persons, with the qualifications required for a judge, to serve as the judge or judges authorized for each newly created municipal court of record until the next regular city election.

(c) The judges or substitute judges of the municipal courts may at any time exchange benches and may at any time sit and act for or with each other in any case, matter, or proceeding pending in their courts. An act performed by any of the judges shall be valid and binding on all parties to the cases, matters, and proceedings.

(d) If there is more than one municipal judge in the city, the municipal judges shall determine which of them shall serve as presiding judge of the city. In the event the judges are unable to determine which of them shall serve as presiding judge, after notification of such impasse, the governing body of the city shall appoint one of the judges to be the presiding municipal judge of the city. If the city has a municipal judge who is either its only municipal judge or its only municipal judge who is not serving in a temporary or part-time capacity, that judge shall be the presiding municipal judge for all purposes of this Act.

(e) The presiding judge shall:

(1) maintain a central docket for all cases filed in the geographical limits of the city over which the municipal courts of the city have jurisdiction;

(2) provide for the distribution of cases from the central docket to the individual municipal judges in order that the business of the courts will be continually equalized and distributed among them;

(3) request the jurors needed for cases that are set for trial by jury in the municipal courts of record, which, as provided by Section 11(b) of this Act, shall be transferred to and serve in the municipal court as if summoned for the municipal court to which they are transferred;

(5) cause all dockets, books, papers, and other records of the municipal courts to be permanently kept and permit these records to be available for inspection at all reasonable times by any interested parties;

(6) cause to be maintained as part of the records of the municipal courts an index of municipal court judgments such as county clerks are required by law to prepare for criminal cases arising in county courts; and

(7) where necessary for the proper functioning of the municipal courts, provide for the preservation by microfilm of the records of the courts, subject to the same requirements provided by law for the preservation by microfilm of records under the custody of county clerks.

(f) A judge of a municipal court created under the provisions of this Act shall be a licensed attorney in good standing with two or more years of experience in the practice of law in the state and a citizen of the United States and of this state. No person may serve in the office of municipal judge while he or she holds any other office or employment in the government of the city, and the holding of the other office or employment by a person serving in the office of municipal judge shall create an immediate vacancy in the judicial office.

Salary

Sec. 4. A municipal judge is entitled to compensation by the city on a salary basis. The amount of the salary shall be determined by the governing body of the city and may not be diminished during the judge's term of office. The salary may not be based, directly or indirectly, on fines, fees, or costs that the municipal judge is required by law to collect during his or her term of office.

Vacancies; Temporary Replacements; Removal

Sec. 5. (a) When a vacancy in the office of municipal judge occurs, the governing body of the city shall appoint a person meeting the qualifications required by law for the position to fill the office of municipal judge for the unexpired term of the judge serving in that office prior to the vacancy. If a judge is temporarily unable to act for any reason, the governing body may appoint a person meeting the qualifications for the position to serve during the absence of the judge with all the powers and duties of the office and shall provide for the person's compensation.

(b) A municipal judge may be removed from office for cause to the same extent and under the same rules that judges of the county courts may be removed from office. A municipal judge is answerable to the governing body of the city only on budgetary matters.

Court Facilities

Sec. 6. The governing body of the city shall provide the courtrooms, jury rooms, offices and office furniture, libraries, legal books and materials, and other supplies and facilities that the governing body determines are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts.

Court Clerk

Sec. 7. The governing body of the city shall provide a clerk of the municipal courts, and the deputy clerks, warrant officers, and other municipal court personnel that are necessary for the proper operation of the municipal courts. It is the duty of the clerk to keep the records of proceedings of the municipal courts and to issue all processes and generally to perform the duties now prescribed by law for clerks of the county courts at law exercising criminal jurisdiction, insofar as the same may be applicable. The clerk of the municipal courts and all other personnel shall perform the duties of the office under the direction and control of the presiding municipal judge.

Court Reporter

Sec. 8. (a) For the purpose of preserving a record in cases tried before the municipal court, the city shall provide a court reporter with the qualifications provided by law for official court reporters, whose compensation shall be determined by the chief administrative officer of the city on the recommendation of the presiding municipal judge.

(b) The record of proceedings may be preserved by written notes, transcribing equipment, recording equipment, or any combination of these methods. The court reporter is not required to take or record testimony in cases where neither the defendant, the prosecutor, nor the judge demands it.

Prosecutions by City Attorney

Sec. 9. All prosecutions in municipal courts shall be conducted by the city attorney of the city, or his or her assistant or deputy.

Complaint

Sec. 10. (a) Proceedings in municipal courts shall be commenced by complaint, which shall begin: "In the name and by the authority of the State of Texas"; and shall conclude: "Against the peace and dignity of the State"; and if the offense is only covered by an ordinance, it may also conclude: "Contrary to the said ordinance." The municipal judge shall charge the jury in accordance with Section 11(a) of this Act. Complaints before the court may be sworn to before any officer authorized to administer oaths or before the municipal judge, clerk of the court, city secretary, or city attorney or his or her assistant or deputy, each of whom, for that purpose, shall have power to administer oaths. The complaint shall be in writing and shall state:

(1) the name of the accused, if known, and if unknown, shall describe the accused as accurately as practicable;

(2) the offense with which the accused is charged in plain and intelligible words;

(3) the place where the offense is charged to have been committed, which must appear to be within the jurisdiction of the municipal court; and

(4) the date of the offense which, as stated, must show that the offense is not barred by limitations.

(b) All pleadings in the municipal courts shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the courts.

Right to Jury

Sec. 11. (a) Every person brought before the municipal courts and charged with an offense is entitled to be tried by a jury of six persons, unless waived according to law. The jury shall decide all questions of fact or credibility of witnesses. The court shall determine all matters of law and shall charge the jury on the law.

(b) Each juror in the municipal courts shall be a resident of the city of San Antonio.

Appeals; Appellate Courts

Sec. 12. (a) In this Act, "appellate courts" means the county courts at law in Bexar County.

(b) A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment or conviction in the municipal court under the rules prescribed in this Act. The appellate courts have jurisdiction over the appeals from the municipal courts, and all appeals from convictions in the municipal court shall be prosecuted in the appellate court by the city attorney or his or her assistants or deputies.

No De Novo Appeals

Sec. 13. Each appeal from a conviction in the municipal court shall be determined by the appellate court on the basis of errors pointed out in the defendant's motion for new trial and presented in the transcript and statement of facts prepared from the municipal court proceedings leading to the conviction. No appeal from the municipal court may be by trial de novo in the county court.

Motion for New Trial

Sec. 14. In order to perfect an appeal, a written motion for a new trial must be filed by the defendant no later than the 10th day after the rendition of the judgment of conviction, and may be amended by leave of court at any time before it is acted on within 20 days after the filing of the original or amended motion. For good cause shown, the time for filing or amending may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days. An original or amended motion shall be deemed overruled by operation of law at the expiration of the 20 days allowed for determination of the motion, if it is not acted on by the court within that time. The motion shall set forth the points of error complained of by the defendant.

Notice of Appeal

Sec. 15. In order to perfect an appeal, the defendant shall give timely notice of appeal. In the event the defendant requests a hearing on his or her motion for a new trial, the notice of appeal may be given orally in open court on the overruling of the motion for new trial. Otherwise, the notice of appeal shall be in writing and filed with the municipal court no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial is overruled. For good cause shown, the time for giving notice of appeal may be extended by the court, not to exceed 90 days.

Appeal Bond

Sec. 16. If the defendant is not in custody, an appeal may not be taken until the required appeal bond has been filed with and approved by the municipal court. The appeal bond must be filed no later than the 10th day after the motion for new trial has been overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless he or she posts the required appeal bond. The appeal bond shall be in an amount not less than double the amount of fine and costs adjudged against the defendant. However, the bond may not in any case be for a sum less than $50. The bond shall recite that in the cause the defendant was convicted and has appealed and be conditioned that the defendant shall make his or her personal appearance before the court to which the appeal is taken instant, if the court is in session, and there remain from day to day and answer in the cause.

Record on Appeal

Sec. 17. The record on appeal in a case appealed from the municipal court consists of the transcript and, where necessary to the appeal, a statement of facts, which shall be prepared by a court reporter of the court from the reporter's record of the proceedings, mechanical recordings of the proceedings, or from videotape recordings of the proceedings. The defendant shall pay for the transcription. The municipal court shall order the court reporter to make the transcriptions without charge to the defendant if the court finds, after hearing in the response to affidavit by the defendant, that he is too poor to pay or give security for the transcriptions. If the case is reversed on appeal, the cost shall be refunded to the defendant.

Contents of Transcripts

Sec. 18. (a) The municipal court clerk, on written request from the defendant or the defendant's attorney, shall prepare under the clerk's hand and seal of the court for transmission to the appellate court a true transcript of the proceedings in the municipal court and shall include the following:

(b) The municipal court clerk may include in the transcript additional portions of the proceedings in the municipal court prepared by mechanical recordings or videotape recordings of the proceedings.

Sec. 19. Either party may include bills of exception in the transcript on appeal, subject to complying with the applicable provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure governing the preparation of bills of exception and their inclusion in the record on appeal to the court of criminal appeals, except that the bills of exception shall be filed with the municipal court clerk within 60 days after the giving or filing of the notice of appeal.

Statement of Facts

Sec. 20. A statement of facts, when included in the record on appeal, shall consist of:

- (1) a transcription of all or any part of the municipal court proceedings in the case, as provided in this Act, that are shown by the notes of the court reporter to have occurred before, during, or after the trial, if such a transcription is requested of the court reporter by the defendant;
- (2) a brief statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial, as agreed to by the defendant and the prosecuting attorney;
- (3) a partial transcription and the agreed statement of the facts of the case proven at the trial; or

Fee for Preparation of Transcript

Sec. 21. The defendant shall pay a fee of $50 to the clerk of the municipal court for the preparation of the transcript at the time of the request for the transcript, subject to the provisions of Section 17 of this Act. If the case is reversed on appeal, the $50 fee shall be refunded to the defendant.

Completion, Approval, and Transfer of Record

Sec. 22. (a) Within 60 days of the giving or filing of the notice of appeal, the parties shall file with the municipal court clerk:

- (1) the statement of facts;
- (2) a written designation of all matter that is to be included in the transcript in addition to matter required to be in the transcript by Section 18 of this Act; and
- (3) any matter designated to be included in the transcript that is not then in the custody of the municipal court clerk.

(b) On completing the record as designated by the parties in Subdivision (2), Subsection (a) of this section, the municipal court judge shall approve the record in the manner provided by law for record completion notification and approval in appeals to the court of criminal appeals.

(c) On the municipal court judge's approval of the record, the municipal court clerk shall promptly forward the record to be filed with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

New Trials

Sec. 23. It is the duty of the trial court to decide from the briefs of the parties whether the defendant should be permitted to withdraw his or her notice of appeal and be granted a new trial by the court. The court may grant a new trial at any time prior to the record being filed with the appellate court clerk.

Brief on Appeal

Sec. 24. (a) A brief on appeal from the municipal court shall present points of error in the same manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of criminal appeals.

(b) The defendant shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days from the date of the filing of the transcript and statement of facts with the appellate court clerk, who shall notify the prosecuting attorney of the filing. The prosecuting attorney shall file his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court within 15 days after the defendant files the defendant's brief with the clerk. Each party, on filing his or her brief with the clerk of the appellate court, shall cause a true copy of the brief to be delivered to the opposing party and to the municipal court judge.

Court Rules

Sec. 25. (a) Except as modified by this Act, the trial of cases before municipal courts shall be governed by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1965.

(b) The municipal courts may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the trial of cases in the courts.

(c) The county courts at law of Bexar County may make and enforce all necessary rules of practice and procedure for appeals from municipal courts, not inconsistent with the law, so as to expedite the dispatch of appeals from the municipal courts.

Disposition on Appeal

Sec. 26. (a) The appellate court may affirm the judgment of the municipal court, or may reverse or remand for a new trial, or may reverse and dismiss the case, or may reform or correct the judgment, as the law and the nature of the case may require.

(b) The appellate court shall presume that the venue was proven in the court below, that the jury was properly impaneled and sworn, that the defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint, and that the court's charge was certified by the municipal court judge before it was read to the jury, unless such matters were made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the transcript or statement of facts.

(c) In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. If an assignment of error is overruled, no reason need be given by the appellate court, but cases relied on by the court may be cited. If an assignment of error is sustained, the appellate court shall set forth the reasons for the decision. Copies of the decision of the appellate court shall be mailed by the clerk of the appellate court to the parties and the judge of the municipal court as soon as the decision is rendered by the appellate court.

Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

Sec. 27. When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of the appellate court shall make out a proper certificate of the proceedings had and the judgment rendered and shall mail the certificates to the clerk of the municipal court. When the certificate is received by the clerk of the municipal court, the clerk shall file it with the papers in the case and note it on the docket. If the judgment has been affirmed, no proceeding need be had after filing the certificate in the municipal court to enforce the judgment of the court, except to forfeit the bond of the defendant, to issue a caipias for the defendant, or issue an execution against the defendant's property.

Order of New Trial by Appellate Court

Sec. 28. If the appellate court awards a new trial to the defendant, the cause shall stand as if a new trial had been granted by the municipal court.

Appeal to the Court of Criminal Appeals

Sec. 29. When a judgment is affirmed by the appellate court, the defendant has the right to appeal to the court of criminal appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant in the municipal court exceeded $100. The appeal to the court of criminal appeals shall be governed by provisions in the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from county and district courts to the court of criminal appeals except that:

(1) the record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court shall constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of criminal appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and

(2) the record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of criminal appeals.

Seal

Sec. 30. The governing body of the city shall provide each municipal court with a seal with a star of five points in the center and the words "Municipal Court of San Antonio, Texas." The impress of the seal shall be attached to all papers, except subpoenas, issued out of the court and shall be used by each municipal judge or the clerk to authenticate all official acts of the clerk and the municipal judge.

Sec. 31. [Amends § 2 of Code of Criminal Procedure, art. 42.13]

Severability

Sec. 32. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance shall be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, the remainder of the Act in all its particulars and as to all other persons and circumstances shall be valid and of full force and effect, and the legislature hereby declares that this Act would have been enacted without such invalid or unconstitutional word, phrase, clause, paragraph, sentence, part, portion, or provision, and to this end the provisions of this Act are declared to be severable.

The governing body may levy and collect special assessments on property in the area, based on the benefit conferred by the improvement project, to pay all or part of its cost.

(b) A public improvement project may include:

(1) landscaping; the erection of distinctive lighting and signs; the improvement, widening, narrowing, closing, or rerouting of streets or sidewalks; the construction or improvement of pedestrian malls; the establishment or improvement of parks; the erection of fountains; the acquisition and installation of articles of sculpture; and the acquisition, construction, or improvement of off-street parking facilities;

(2) other improvements similar to those described in Subdivision (1) of this subsection; and

(3) the acquisition of real property in connection with an authorized improvement.

Act is Alternative

Sec. 3. This Act is a complete alternative to other methods by which a city may finance public improvements by assessing property owners.

Financing Combined Improvements

Sec. 4. An improvement project on two or more streets or two or more types of improvements in, on, or adjacent to the same street or streets may be included in one proceeding and financed as one improvement.

Petition for Improvement

Sec. 5. (a) A petition for any improvement authorized to be financed under this Act may be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary. The petition must state:

- (1) the general nature of the proposed improvement;
- (2) the estimated cost of the improvement;
- (3) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;
- (4) the proposed method of assessment;
- (5) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole; and
- (6) that the persons signing the petition request the making of the improvement.

(b) The petition is sufficient if signed by:

- (1) at least two-thirds of the owners of record of property liable for assessment under the proposal; or
- (2) the record owners of property composing at least two-thirds of the area liable for assessment under the proposal.

(c) When a petition which meets the requirements of this section is filed, the governing body of the city may make findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement, the estimated cost, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

Feasibility Report, Etc.

Sec. 6. (a) Before holding a hearing on the advisability of a proposed improvement, the governing body of a city may require that a feasibility report be made to assist in determining whether an improvement should be made as proposed or otherwise or whether it should be made in combination with other improvements authorized by this Act. The governing body may also require that a preliminary estimate of the cost of the improvement or combination of improvements be made. The governing body may use the services of employees of the city to make the report or estimate, or it may employ consultants.

(b) The governing body may also take other preliminary steps prior to the hearing or before ordering an improvement or letting a contract that will be of assistance in determining the feasibility and desirability of an improvement.

Hearing as to Advisability

Sec. 7. (a) No contract may be let or work ordered or authorized for an improvement financed under this Act unless the governing body of the city first by resolution orders that a public hearing be held on the advisability of the improvement and gives notice of the hearing as required by this section.

(b) Notice of the hearing shall be given by not less than four publications in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. The four publications must be at least a week apart and the final publication must be at least three days before the date of the hearing. The notice shall include the following information:

- (1) the time and place of the hearing;
- (2) the general nature of the proposed improvement;
- (3) the estimated cost of the improvement;
- (4) the boundaries of the proposed assessment district;
- (5) the proposed method of assessment; and
- (6) the proposed apportionment of cost between the improvement district and the city as a whole.

(c) The hearing may be adjourned from time to time until the governing body makes findings by resolution as to the advisability of the improvement, the nature of the improvement, the estimated cost, the boundaries of the improvement district, the method of assessment, and the apportionment of cost between the district and the city as a whole.

(d) The area of the improvement district to be assessed according to the findings of the governing body may be less than the area proposed in the notice of the hearing, but it may not include any property not within the original proposed boundaries unless there is an additional hearing, preceded by the required notice.

May Order Improvements

Sec. 8. (a) At any time within six months after the final adjournment of the hearing on the advisability of an improvement, the governing body of the city by a majority vote of all members may adopt a resolution authorizing the improvement in accordance with its finding as to the advisability of the improvement. The authorization takes effect when it has been published one time in a newspaper of general circulation in the city. Actual construction of the improvement may not begin until 20 days after the authorization takes effect.

(b) An improvement may not be commenced if, within 20 days after the authorization takes effect, written protests signed by at least two-thirds of the owners of record of property within the improvement district or the owners of record of at least two-thirds of the total area of the district are filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary.

(c) Any person may withdraw his name from a protest at any time before the governing body convenes its meeting to determine the sufficiency of the protest.

Assessment Plan

Sec. 9. (a) The portion of the cost of an improvement to be assessed against the property in the improvement district shall be apportioned by the governing body of the city based on the special benefits accruing to the property because of the improvement.

(b) The cost may be assessed equally per front foot or per square foot against all property within the district; it may be assessed against property according to the value of the property as determined by the governing body of the city, with or without regard to structures or other improvements on the property; or it may be assessed on the basis of any other reasonable assessment plan that results in imposing equal shares of the cost on property similarly benefitted.

(c) The governing body may establish by ordinance reasonable classifications and formulas for the apportionment of the cost between the city and the area to be assessed and the methods of assessing the special benefits for various classes of improvements.

Apportionment of Costs

Sec. 10. (a) An assessment plan must provide that at least 20 percent of the cost of an improvement be paid by special assessments against property in the improvement district.

(b) If any property in the improvement district is exempt from the payment of the special assessment, the assessment that would otherwise be levied against that property shall be paid by the city as a whole. Assessments paid by the city as a whole under this subsection are counted as having been paid by special assessment for the purpose of Subsection (a) of this section.

Preparing Assessment Roll; Notice; Etc.

Sec. 11. (a) When the total cost of an improvement is determined, the governing body shall cause the assessments against each parcel of land within the benefit district to be determined in accordance with the manner of assessment set forth in the resolution as to the advisability of the improvement. The governing body shall also cause a proposed assessment roll to be prepared.

(b) The proposed assessment roll shall be filed with the city secretary or other officer who performs the function of city secretary and be open for public inspection. The governing body shall direct the secretary to publish notice that the governing body will meet to consider the proposed assessments at a public hearing. The notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city at least 10 days before the hearing and shall state the date, time, and place of the hearing, the general nature of the improvement, the cost of the improvement, the boundaries of the assessment district, and that written or oral objections will be considered at the hearing.

(c) At the time the assessment roll is filed with the city secretary or other officer, the city secretary or other officer shall also mail to the owners of property liable for assessment, at their last known address, a notice of the hearing which contains all the information required of the notice published in a newspaper. The failure of a property owner to receive the notice does not invalidate the proceedings.

Assessments: Hearing, Levy, Payment

Sec. 12. (a) At the hearing on proposed assessments or at any adjournment of the hearing, the governing body shall hear and pass on all objections to each proposed assessment. The governing body may amend the proposed assessments as to any parcel. When all objections have been heard and action has been taken with regard to them, the governing body by ordinance shall levy the assessments as special assessments on the property. The governing body by ordinance shall specify the method of payment of the assessments and may provide that they be payable in not more than 20 equal annual installments.

(b) All assessments bear interest at a rate specified by the governing body, which may not exceed six percent per annum. Interest on the assessment between the effective date of the ordinance levying the assessment and the date the first installment is payable shall be added to the first installment. The interest for one year on all unpaid installments shall be added to each subsequent installment until paid. An assessment or any reassessment is a lien against the property until it is paid. The owner of any property assessed may pay the entire assessment against any lot or parcel with accrued interest to the date of the payment at any time.

Supplemental Assessments

Sec. 13. After notice and hearing in the manner required for original assessments, the governing body may make supplemental assessments to correct omissions or mistakes in the assessment relating to the total cost of the improvement.

Reassessments and New Assessments

Sec. 14. If an assessment against a parcel of land is set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, found excessive by the governing body, or determined to be invalid by the governing body on the written advice of counsel, the governing body may make a reassessment or new assessment as to the parcel.

Separate Improvement Funds

Sec. 15. A separate improvement fund shall be created in the city treasury for each improvement or combination of improvements. The proceeds from the sale of bonds, temporary notes and time warrants, and any other sums appropriated to the fund by the governing body shall be credited to the fund. The fund may be used solely to pay the costs incurred in the making of the improvement. When the improvement is completed, the balance shall be transferred to the fund established for the retirement of the bonds.

Special Improvement Fund

Sec. 16. (a) A city proposing to make an improvement to be financed under the authority of this Act may establish by ordinance a special improvement fund in the city treasury. The city may levy annually a tax of not to exceed 10 cents on each $100 valuation of the assessed taxable property of the city for the purpose of the fund.

(b) The fund may be used to pay the costs of planning any improvement authorized by this Act and for preparing preliminary plans, studies, and engineering reports preparatory to the consideration of the feasibility of an improvement and to pay the initial cost of the improvement when ordered by the governing body until temporary notes, time warrants, or improvement bonds have been issued and sold.

(c) The fund shall be reimbursed from the proceeds of the issuance of improvement bonds and shall never exceed one percent of the total assessed property valuation of the city for the preceding year or $200,000, which ever is less.

(d) The fund need not be budgeted for expenditure during any year, but the amount of the fund shall be stated in the city's annual budget. All grants-in-aid or contributions made to the city for planning and preparation of plans for improvements which are authorized under this Act may be credited to the special improvement fund, and the amount of the aid or contribution shall not be considered in calculating the limitation on the fund imposed by Subsection (c) of this section.

Payment of Costs

Sec. 17. (a) The cost of any improvement made under the authority of this Act shall be paid in accordance with this section.

(b) All costs payable by the city as a whole may be paid from general funds available for the purpose or from other available general improvement funds.

(c) Costs payable by special assessments which have been paid in full shall be paid from those assessments.

(d) Costs payable by special assessments to be paid in installments and costs made payable by the city as a whole but not payable from available general funds or other available general improvement funds shall be paid by the issuance and sale of revenue or general obligation bonds.

(e) During the progress of an improvement the governing body may issue temporary notes or time warrants of the city to pay costs of the improvements and on the completion of the work issue revenue or general obligation bonds.

(f) The costs of more than one improvement may be paid from a single issue and sale of bonds without other consolidation proceedings prior to the bond issue.

General Obligation Bonds

Sec. 18. A city may issue general obligation bonds under the provisions of Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended,¹ to pay all or part of the costs covered by Section 17(d) of this Act.

Terms and Conditions of Bonds

Sec. 20. (a) Revenue bonds may be issued to mature serially or otherwise within not more than 40 years from their date, and provision may be made for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds or subordinate lien bonds under any terms or conditions that may be set forth in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(b) The bonds and any interest coupons appertaining thereto are negotiable instruments within the meaning and for all purposes of the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. The bonds may be issued registrable as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest, and shall be executed, and may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms, and said bonds shall bear interest at such rates, all as shall be determined and provided in the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(c) If so provided in the bond ordinance, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds may be used for paying interest on the bonds during and after the period of the acquisition or construction of any improvement to be provided through the issuance of the bonds, for creating a reserve fund for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, and for creating any other funds. The proceeds of the bonds may be placed on time deposit or invested, until needed, all to the extent, and in the manner provided, in the bond ordinance.

Pledges

Sec. 21. (a) The governing body may pledge all or any part of the income from improvements financed under this Act, including the installment payments described in Section 17(d) of this Act, to the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest, and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds. The pledged income shall be fixed and collected in amounts that will be at least sufficient, together with any other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest, and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds, and, to the extent required by the ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds, and for the payment of operation, maintenance, and other expenses in connection with the improvements authorized under this Act.

(b) The bonds may be additionally secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on any real property relating to the facilities authorized under this Act owned or to be acquired by the city and by chattel mortgages, liens, or security interests on any personal property appurtenant to that real property. The governing body may authorize the execution of trust indentures, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other forms of encumbrances to evidence the indebtedness.

(c) The governing body may also pledge to the payment of the bonds all or any part of any grant, donation, revenues, or income received or to be received from the United States government or any other public or private source, whether pursuant to an agreement or otherwise.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 22. (a) Any revenue bonds issued pursuant to this Act may be refunded or otherwise refinanced by the issuance of refunding bonds for that purpose, under any terms or conditions, as are determined by ordinance of the governing body of the local government. All appropriate provisions of this Act are applicable to refunding bonds, and the refunding bonds shall be issued in the manner provided in this Act for other bonds. The refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts necessary to pay the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date.

In that case, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver them to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded in accordance with the provisions of the ordinance authorizing the refunding bonds. The exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(c) General obligation bonds issued under this Act also may be refunded in the manner provided by law.

Approval and Registration of Bonds

Sec. 23. (a) All revenue bonds issued under this Act and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the attorney general for examination. If the bonds recite that they are secured by a pledge of revenues or rentals from a contract or lease, a copy of the contract or lease and the proceedings relating to it shall be submitted to the attorney general also. If he finds that the bonds have been authorized and any contract or lease has been made in accordance with law, he shall approve the bonds and the contract or lease, and thereupon the bonds shall be registered by the comptroller of public accounts. After approval and registration the bonds and any contract or lease relating to them are incontestable in any court or other form for any reason and are valid and binding obligations for all purposes in accordance with their terms.

(b) General obligation bonds issued under this Act shall be approved and registered as provided by law.

When any bonds are issued under this Act, then to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provision of any law or home-rule charter provision, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control. A city shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws, not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

(bb) "Tax Assessor-Collector" means the tax assessor-collector of the municipality.

(cc) "Taxing Entity" means any governmental unit, including the State and its political subdivisions, but not including municipalities, authorized by law to levy taxes on property located within an urban renewal project area.

(dd) "Tax Increment" means that amount of property taxes levied and collected each year on property within an urban renewal project area in excess of the amount levied and collected on such property during the year prior to the date of adoption of the urban renewal project plan. A tax increment is calculated by multiplying the total in property taxes levied and collected by the municipality and all other taxing entities on the taxable property within an urban renewal project area in any year by a fraction having a numerator equal to that year's market value of all taxable property in such area minus the tax incremental base and a denominator equal to that year's market value of all taxable property in such area.

(ee) "Tax Incremental Base" means the aggregate market value of all taxable property within an urban renewal project area on the date of approval of the urban renewal project plan in accordance with the requirements of this Act.

(ff) "Tax Increment Fund" means a fund into which all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within an urban renewal project area are paid, and from which moneys are disbursed to pay costs with respect to such project or to satisfy claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued with respect to such project.

Finding of Necessity; Powers of Counties

Sec. 5. (a) No city shall exercise any of the powers conferred upon cities by this Act until after the City Council shall have adopted a resolution, after giving notice and ordering an election on the question of whether the City Council shall adopt such resolution, finding that: (1) one or more slum or blighted areas exist in such city; and (2) the rehabilitation, conservation, or slum clearance and redevelopment, or a combination thereof, of such area or areas is necessary in the interest of public health, safety, morals or welfare of the residents of such city. Such notice shall be published at least twice in the newspaper officially designated by the City Council and shall state that on a date certain, which date shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than sixty (60) days after the publication of the first of such notices, the City Council will consider the question of whether or not it will order an election to determine if it should adopt such a resolution. On the date specified in the notice to consider such question the City Council may, on its own motion, call an election to determine whether it shall adopt such a resolution and shall, in any event, call such election if there has been presented to it during such period a petition that such election be held, signed by at least five per cent (5%) of the legally qualified voters residing in such city and owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, duly rendered for taxation. If it be determined to call such an election, at least thirty (30) day's notice thereof shall be given. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, no powers granted by this Act shall be exercised by any city until an election shall have been held as herein provided with a majority of the votes cast at such election being cast in favor of the exercise of such powers by such city. Only qualified voters residing in said city, owning taxable property within the boundaries thereof, who have duly rendered the same for taxation, shall be entitled to vote at such election. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote in favor of the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall then be authorized to adopt it. If a majority of those voting at such election shall vote against the adoption of such resolution, the City Council shall not adopt it and such resolution shall not again be proposed within the period of one (1) year.

(b) Any county that has a population of more than 700,000, according to the last preceding federal census, may exercise all powers provided for cities under this Act. Those powers may be exercised only with respect to areas of the county not inside the corporate limits of a city or town. The county may not exercise any power under this Act unless the commissioners court adopts a resolution as provided in Subsection (a) of this section, the adoption of which has been first approved at an election. The election shall be held throughout the county in the same way an election is held in a city under Subsection (a) of this section. The adoption of a resolution is not approved unless a majority of the voters voting on the question in the entire county as well as in each incorporated city and town in the county approves adoption. In cities only partly in the county, only voters residing in the county may vote.

Approval of Tax Increment Financing

Sec. 5b. A city may not use the tax increment method of financing prescribed by Sections 22a, 22b, 22c, and 22d of this Act unless a majority of the qualified voters of the city voting on the question, who own taxable property within the city that is duly rendered for taxation, approve that method of financing in an election held by the city. At an election held under this section, the ballots shall provide for voting for or against the proposition: "Use of tax increment financing for urban renewal purposes." An election under this section may be held in conjunction with an election held under Section 5 or 5a of this Act. This referendum shall not be necessary if the constitutional amendment on tax increment financing is approved by the voters.

Preparation and Approval of Urban Renewal Plan

Sec. 7.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 7(a) to 7(h)]

(i) Upon approval of an urban renewal plan by the city and approval of the tax increment method of financing as required under Section 5b of this Act, a fund, to be known as the "Tax-increment Fund" shall be established by the adoption of a resolution by the City Council.

(g) To borrow money and to apply for and accept advances, loans, grants, contributions and any other form of financial assistance from the Federal Government, the State, County or other public body or from any sources, public or private, for the purposes of this Act, and to give such security as may be required and to enter into and carry out contracts in connection therewith. (k) Within its area of operation to organize, coordinate and direct the administration of the provisions of this Act as they apply to such city in order that the objective of remedying slum and blighted areas and preventing the causes thereof within such city may be most effectively promoted and achieved, and to establish such new office or offices of the city or to reorganize existing offices in order to carry out such purpose most effectively.

(l) To issue tax increment bonds.

(m) To exercise all or any part or combination of powers herein granted.

Computation of Tax Increments

Sec. 22a. (a) For purposes of this Act, the market value of property located within an urban renewal project area shall be determined by the tax assessor-collector, and only the tax assessor-collector, during the time such project exists. Provided, however, that such determination shall require the concurrence of the comptroller; and provided, further, that any property owner aggrieved by a determination of the tax assessor-collector shall have the same right of appeal provided by law to owners of property not affected by this Act.

(b) At the time an urban renewal project is designated by the governing body, the tax assessor-collector shall, with the concurrence of the comptroller, certify to the governing body the market value of property within the boundaries of such district. Property taxable at the time the urban renewal project is designated shall be included at its most recently determined market value; property exempt from taxation at the time the redevelopment district was designated shall be included at zero.

(c) The tax assessor-collector shall, within one year of the time an urban renewal project is designated, and annually thereafter, certify to the governing body the amount of the captured market value of property within the boundaries of the district and the amount of tax increments produced from such captured market value.

(d) For any years in which taxes are to be paid into the tax increment fund required under Subsection (i), Section 7 of this Act, any captured market value with respect to an urban renewal project shall not be considered by any taxing entity in computing any debt limitation or for any other purpose except in determining the amount to be paid into the tax increment fund.

Allocation of Tax Collections and Tax Increments

Sec. 22b. (a) For purposes of this Act, the tax assessor-collector shall have the sole authority and the duty to collect the taxes levied by the city and all other taxing entities on property located within an urban renewal project and for allocating taxing and tax increments in the manner required by this Act.

(b) Commencing with the first payment of taxes levied by the city or other taxing entities subsequent to the time an urban renewal project is designated, receipts from such taxes shall be allocated and paid over as follows:

(1) There shall first be allocated and paid over in such amounts as belong to each respectively, to the city and to each other taxing entity, all of the property taxes collected which are produced from the tax incremental base.

(2) There shall next be deposited into the tax increment fund established for such project all tax increments produced from the captured market value of property located within the project.

Tax Increment Bonds

Sec. 22c. (a) A city shall, in addition to any other powers vested in it, have the power to issue tax increment bonds, the proceeds of which may be used to pay redevelopment costs with respect to the urban renewal project on behalf of which the bonds were issued or to satisfy claims of holders of such bonds.

Upon approval of two-thirds of the resident property taxpayers who are qualified electors of the city, such city shall also have the power to issue refunding bonds for the payment or retirement of tax increment bonds previously issued by it. Such tax increment bonds shall be made payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from tax increments allocated to and paid into the tax increment fund established by the city in accordance with this Act, or from any private sources, or contributions or other financial assistance from the State or United States Government, or by any combination of these methods.

(b) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act, together with interest thereon and income therefrom, shall be exempt from all taxes. The period of maturity of tax increment bonds is limited to a maximum of 20 years from the date of issuance. Bonds issued under this Act shall be authorized by resolution or ordinance of the governing body and may be issued in one or more series, and shall bear such date or dates, be payable upon demand or mature at such time or times, bear interest at such rate or rates, be in such denomination or denominations, be in such form either coupon or registered, carry such conversion or registration privileges, have such rank or priority, be executed in such manner, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption (with or without premium), be secured in such manner, and have such other characteristics, as may be provided by such resolution or trust indenture or mortgage issued pursuant thereto. Such bonds may be sold at not less than par at public sales held after notice published prior to such sale in a newspaper having a general circulation in the city and in such other medium of publication as the governing body may determine or may be exchanged for other bonds on the basis of par. Any provision of any law to the contrary notwithstanding, any bonds issued pursuant to this Act shall be fully negotiable. In any suit, action or proceeding involving the validity or enforceability of any bond issued under this Act or the security therefor, any such bond reciting in substance that it has been issued by the city in connection with an urban renewal project, as herein defined, shall be conclusively deemed to have been issued for such purposes and the urban renewal project shall be conclusively deemed to have been planned, located and carried out in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(c) All banks, trust companies, bankers, savings banks and institutions, buildings and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies and other persons carrying on a banking or investment business; all insurance companies, insurance associations, and other persons carrying on an insurance business; and all executors, administrators, curators, trustees, and other fiduciaries, may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in any tax increment bonds issued by a city pursuant to this Act. Such bonds shall be authorized security for all public deposits. Any persons, political subdivisions and officers, public or private, are authorized to use any funds owned or controlled by them for the purchase of any such bonds. Nothing in this Act with regard to legal investments shall be construed as relieving any person of any duty of exercising reasonable care in selecting securities.

(d) Tax increment bonds shall be payable only out of the tax increment fund created pursuant to Subsection (i), Section 7 of this Act. The City Council may irrevocably pledge all or a part of such fund to the payment of such bonds or notes. Such fund or the designated part thereof may thereafter be used only for the payment of such bonds and interest thereon until the same have been fully paid; and a holder of such bonds or of any coupons appertaining thereto shall have a lien against such fund for payment of such bonds or notes and interest thereon and may either at law or in equity protect and enforce such lien.

(e) To increase the security and marketability of tax increment bonds, the city may create a lien for the benefit of the bondholders upon any public improvements or public works financed thereby or the revenues therefrom, or make such covenants and do any and all such acts as may be necessary or convenient or desirable in order to additionally secure such bonds or tend to make the bonds more marketable according to the best judgment of the City Council.

(f) Moneys shall be disbursed from the tax increment fund only to satisfy the claims of holders of tax increment bonds issued in aid of the urban renewal project with respect to which the fund was established, or to pay project costs. "Project costs" means any expenditure made or estimated to be made or monetary obligations incurred or estimated to be incurred by the city which are listed in an urban renewal project, plus any costs incidental thereto, diminished by any income or revenues other than tax increments, received or reasonably expected to be received by the city in connection with the implementation of such plan. Such project costs include, but are not limited to:

(1) capital costs, including, but not limited to, the actual costs of the construction of public works or improvements, new buildings, structures, and fixtures; the demolition, alteration, remodeling, repair or reconstruction of existing buildings, structures and fixtures; the acquisition of equipment; and the clearing and grading of land;

(2) financing costs, including, but not limited to, all interest paid to holders of tax increment bonds issued to pay for project costs and any premium paid over the principal amount thereof because of the redemption of such obligations prior to maturity;

(3) professional service costs, including, but not limited to, costs incurred for architectural, planning, engineering or legal services;

(4) imputed administrative costs, including, but not limited to, reasonable charges for the time spent by employees of the city in connection with the implementation of an urban renewal plan; or

(5) organizational costs, including, but not limited to, the cost of conducting studies and the cost of informing the public with respect to the creation of urban renewal projects and the implementation of project plans.

(g) Subject to any agreement with the holders of tax increment bonds, moneys in a tax increment fund may be temporarily invested in the same manner as other municipal funds.

(h) After all project costs and all tax increment bonds issued with respect to an urban renewal project have been paid or the payment thereof provided for, and subject to any agreement with bondholders, if there remain in such fund any moneys, they shall be paid over to the city and other taxing entities levying taxes on property within such project in such amounts as belong to each respectively.

(i) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be general obligations of the city, nor in any event shall they give rise to a charge against its general credit or taxing powers, or be payable other than as provided by this Act; and any tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall so state on their face.

(j) Tax increment bonds issued under this Act shall not be included in any computation of the debt of the issuing city.

(k) Tax increment bonds may not be issued in an amount exceeding the aggregate costs of implementing the urban renewal plan for the project in aid of which they were issued, and such bonds shall mature over a period not exceeding twenty (20) years from the date thereof.

Annual Report

Sec. 22d. (a) On or before July 1 each year, the City Council shall submit to the chief executive officer of every taxing entity a report on the status of such district. The report shall include the following information:

(1) the amount and source of revenue in the tax increment fund established in accordance with the requirements of this Act;

(2) the amount and purpose of expenditures from the fund;

(3) the amount of principal and interest due on any outstanding bonded indebtedness;

(4) the tax incremental base and the current captured market value retained by the project; and

(5) the captured market value shared by the city and other taxing entities, the total in tax increments received, and any additional information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the tax increment financing plan adopted by the City Council.

(b) On or before July 1 of each year, the City Council shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the city a statement showing:

(1) the tax increment received and expended during the previous year;

(2) the original market value and captured market value of all property located within the urban renewal project;

(3) the amount in outstanding indebtedness incurred in aid of the urban renewal project; and

(4) any additional information the City Council deems necessary.

In order to exercise such powers, the municipality must have adopted the provisions of the Texas Urban Renewal Law in the manner prescribed by such Act.

Art. 12691-5. Housing Rehabilitation Act

Short Title

Section 1. This Act may be cited as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Act.

Legislative Findings

Sec. 2. The legislature finds that:

(1) a substantial amount of housing in the State of Texas is deteriorating and does not conform to accepted minimum standards applicable to structures for human habitation;

(2) deteriorating housing contributes to the decline of residential areas in urban and rural communities throughout this state, and such housing causes reductions in the taxable values of cities, counties, and other units of local government;

(3) declining residential areas require large-scale public investment to mitigate the effect of slums, health and safety problems, and retard the development of socially and economically disruptive conditions within affected communities;

(4) many owners of deteriorating housing cannot afford to make needed repairs and improvements without expending more than a reasonable portion of their incomes for housing, and some homeowners are financially unable to afford to spend any amount whatsoever to upgrade the quality of their dwellings;

(5) existing programs sponsored by public and private agencies to facilitate the rehabilitation of housing owned by persons of low and moderate income are inadequate to meet current and future needs, and a cooperative state-local government housing rehabilitation program therefore is clearly warranted; and

(6) unless the problem of deteriorating housing and other problems associated with the decline of residential areas are affirmatively addressed by the legislature, the health, safety, and welfare of the residents of such areas, as well as the citizens of the State of Texas generally, will be detrimentally affected.

Policy; Purpose

Sec. 3. It is the policy of the state and the purpose of this Act to provide a means by which the further deterioration of housing and the decline of residential areas in urban and rural communities throughout the State of Texas can be arrested and prevented. The legislature therefore declares that all of the purposes of this Act are public purposes and uses for which public money may be borrowed, expended, and loaned.

Definitions

Sec. 4. In this Act:

(1) "Borrower" means a household whose loan application is approved by a local government.

(2) "Department" means the Texas Department of Community Affairs.

(3) "Direct housing rehabilitation cost" means the amount contracted for between borrowers and contractors in a contract approved by a local government.

(4) "Fund" means the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund.

(5) "Household" means a person or persons owning housing in an area designated under this Act.

(6) "Housing" means a structure which is situated on a permanent foundation and which consists of from one to four family units used exclusively for residential purposes.

(7) "Local agency" means a nonprofit organization whose principal purpose is to improve housing conditions or a local housing authority, urban renewal agency, or other public entity.

(8) "Local government" means a county, city, town, or village.

(9) "Rehabilitation" means the repair, renovation, or other improvement of housing with the object of making such housing decent, safe, sanitary, and more habitable.

Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund

Sec. 5. (a) Funds for the implementation and administration of this Act shall be provided by the General Appropriations Act. A special account in the state treasury, to be known as the Texas Housing Rehabilitation Loan Fund is hereby created. Funds appropriated by the legislature for housing rehabilitation loans, together with any funds received from other sources for the purpose of making loans under this Act, must be placed in the fund. All repayments received from borrowers for loans made from the fund, income from the transfer of interests in property acquired in connection with rehabilitation loans made from the fund, and interest earned on deposits and investments of the fund shall be credited to the fund. It is the intent of this Act that the housing rehabilitation loan fund operate as a revolving fund whereby all appropriations and payments made thereto may be applied and reapplied to the purposes of this Act.

(b) The state treasurer shall invest and disburse money from the fund upon the written authorization of the executive director of the department. The department shall administer the fund as a revolving loan fund for carrying out the purposes of this Act and may designate separate accounts in the fund and the purposes for which the accounts are to be used.

(c) Money in the fund may be used only for:

(1) financing loans made pursuant to this Act, including the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act; and

(2) paying expenses incurred by the department in connection with the acquisition or disposal of real property under this Act.

Area Rehabilitation Plan

Sec. 6. (a) In order to qualify households within its boundaries for rehabilitation loans under this Act, a local government must designate a specific area, or areas, in conformity with standards established by the department, and must prepare an area rehabilitation plan for each designated area in the form prescribed by the department.

(b) An area rehabilitation plan must provide relevant information concerning the area and must include the following elements:

(1) a description of the physical, social, and economic characteristics of the area(s);

(2) a description of housing conditions in the area(s);

(3) an assessment of the need for housing rehabilitation loans in the area(s), such assessment to be expressed in terms of numbers and characteristics of households and average and total loan amounts;

(4) a description of methods by which the local government will determine whether the rehabilitation of housing in the area(s) is economically feasible;

(5) a description of methods by which rehabilitation work will be supervised and methods by which compliance with departmental regulations governing materials, fixtures, and rehabilitation contracts will be ensured;

(6) a description of methods and procedures that will be used to enforce local housing, building, fire, and related codes, or if such codes have not been enacted, a description of methods and procedures for enforcing the standards promulgated by the department;

(7) an assessment of the need for additional public improvements and public services in the area(s), together with a description of the specific means by which these improvements and services will be provided; and

(8) a description of methods by which private investment to improve conditions in the area(s) will be encouraged.

(c) An area rehabilitation plan must be approved by resolution or order of the governing body of the local government and submitted to the department for review. The department shall determine whether the designated area meets the standards established by the department and whether the plan contains all the prescribed elements. If so, the department must accept the plan. Upon acceptance of the plan, households in the designated area are qualified to apply for housing rehabilitation loans. If an area does not meet the department's standards or a plan does not contain all the prescribed elements, the department shall return the plan to the local government with a list of deficiencies. No loans may be made within a designated area unless the deficiencies are corrected and the plan is resubmitted and accepted by the department.

Authority of the Department

Sec. 7. The department has all the powers necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of this Act. The department may:

(1) acquire interests in property necessary to and in connection with the making of rehabilitation loans under this Act as set forth in Section 8 of this Act;

(2) make contracts and agreements with the federal government, other agencies of the state, any other public agency, or any other person, association, corporation, local government, or other entity in exercising its powers and performing its duties under this Act;

(3) make regulations governing the disposition or further encumbrance by the borrower of property subject to a lien in connection with a rehabilitation loan;

(4) expend funds appropriated by the legislature to employ staff and for travel, supplies, materials, and equipment or to contract for services necessary to carry out its powers and duties under this Act;

(5) provide technical assistance to local governments; and

(6) seek and accept funding from any public or private source.

Interests in Property; Disposition

Sec. 8. (a) The department may not construct residential housing, nor may the department acquire residential housing except in connection with the enforcement of a lien under this Act, and then only by a foreclosure of a mortgage, a sale under a deed of trust, or by a voluntary conveyance from a borrower in full or partial settlement of a rehabilitation loan.

(b) If the department acquires residential housing in the enforcement of a lien, it must, within six months of such acquisition, offer the housing for public sale or auction. Notice of the public sale or auction must be provided by the department by publication once each week for three consecutive weeks prior to the day of the sale or auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the housing is located. The notice must contain a description of the property and must specify procedures for submitting competitive bids and the time and location of the public sale or auction. The department may reject any or all bids.

(c) If a sale cannot be effected by public sale or auction, the department may enter negotiations with any party for the expeditious sale of the housing. First priority must be given to selling the housing to a purchaser that will be required to pay ad valorem taxes on the property. If it is not practicable to sell it to such a purchaser, the department shall attempt to sell it to a purchaser that is exempt from ad valorem taxes but will make payments in lieu of taxes on the property. If neither type of purchaser is available, the department may sell it to any purchaser.

Regulations and Standards

Sec. 9. (a) The department shall adopt regulations for making and servicing housing rehabilitation loans, and for the foreclosure of defaulted loans. The regulations must require that each loan be evidenced by a promissory note payable to the state and secured by a valid lien on real property in this state.

(b) The department shall establish:

(1) standards by which households within the boundaries of a local government may qualify for loans;

(2) standards and procedures for the administration of this Act by local governments and local agencies;

(3) standards for the selection of contractors and for contracts between borrowers and contractors performing rehabilitation work under this Act; and

(4) standards for materials and fixtures used in performing rehabilitation work under this Act.

(c) The department shall set minimum and maximum interest rates for loans made under this Act.

(d) The department shall adopt minimum housing, building, fire, and related code standards for application in designated areas for which a rehabilitation plan has been accepted and no such local government standards are in effect.

Administration by Department

Sec. 10. (a) The department shall audit the local administration of rehabilitation loans under this Act to determine if good faith efforts are being made to comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan and the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department.

(b) If in any fiscal year anticipated rehabilitation loans exceed estimated available funds, the department shall allocate the estimated available funds for that fiscal year among the local governments that have filed area rehabilitation plans, taking into account the probable amount of rehabilitation loans to be made by each local government.

(c) Upon receipt of notification of approval of a loan application by a local government, the director shall authorize the state treasurer to disburse the approved amount from the fund to the local government unless:

(1) the department has found that the local government is currently not making good faith efforts to substantially comply with the applicable area rehabilitation plan or the regulations, standards, and guidelines adopted by the department; or

(2) the remaining portion of the fund allocated to the local government under Subsection (b) of this section is insufficient to allow payment of the approved amount.

Loan Eligibility

Sec. 11. (a) The department shall establish eligibility guidelines for local governments to use in determining whether households qualify for housing rehabilitation loans under this Act. In establishing these guidelines, the department shall take into account:

(1) household gross income;

(2) household income available for housing needs;

(3) household size;

(4) the value and condition of the housing to be rehabilitated; and

(5) the ability of households to compete successfully in the private housing market and to pay the amounts at which private enterprise is providing sanitary, decent, and safe housing.

(b) The department shall not approve any loan unless it finds that the benefit to an area designated pursuant to the requirements of Section 6 of this Act will exceed the financial commitment of the department and that the approval of the particular loan will be of benefit to the state and its taxpayers.

General Powers and Duties of Local Governments

Sec. 12. (a) A local government may approve or disapprove loan applications from households according to the eligibility guidelines and regulations of the department. Upon approval of a loan application, the local government shall notify the department of the amount of the approved loan.

(b) A local government shall fix the interest rate for each loan within the minimum and maximum rates established by the department and shall fix the term of each loan and any other necessary conditions pertaining to the repayment of the loan pursuant to this Act and the regulations of the department.

(c) A local government may impose an administrative charge of not more than three percent of the direct housing rehabilitation cost and may deduct the charge from the amount loaned to borrowers.

(d) A local government may contract with any public or private entity for servicing rehabilitation loans.

(e) The governing body of a local government may designate a local agency or agencies to carry out any of the powers and duties of the local government under this Act. Any power or duty that a governing body delegates to a local agency may be withdrawn by the governing body at any time.

(f) A local government engaged in housing rehabilitation under this Act shall carry on a program of general education designed to inform residents in designated areas of methods for maintaining their housing and of the availability of housing rehabilitation loans.

Loan Conditions

Sec. 13. (a) Rehabilitation loans must be used primarily to make housing comply with state, county, or municipal building, housing maintenance, fire, health, or similar codes and standards applicable to housing.

(b) No loan made under this Act may exceed an amount which, when added to all other existing indebtedness secured by the property, would exceed the market value of the rehabilitated property as determined by the local government. No loan may exceed the total of the approved direct housing rehabilitation cost together with the administrative charge provided for in Subsection (c) of Section 12 of this Act.

(c) The term of a loan made under this Act may not exceed 20 years. It must be repaid by installments and must be secured as required by this Act and the regulations of the department. The local government may allow deferment of payments or adjust the interest rate or term of the note if the borrower is unable to make the required payments.

(d) A borrower must agree that if he voluntarily destroys, moves, or relinquishes ownership of the rehabilitated housing within one year after completion of the rehabilitation, the loan is immediately due and payable, together with an interest surcharge sufficient to make the total interest paid equivalent to an amount determined by prevailing interest rates for rehabilitation loans from private sources at the time of the sale. If the local government finds that the borrower must sell due to financial hardship or similar circumstances, the interest surcharge may be waived by the local government with the consent of the department.

(e) The department may take title by foreclosure to any project where such acquisition is necessary to protect any loan previously made therefor by the department and to pay all costs arising out of such foreclosure.

Rehabilitation Contracts

Sec. 14. (a) A borrower and contractor may not enter into a contract for rehabilitation work to be financed under this Act unless the proposed contract has first been approved by the local government in accordance with standards established by the department. The local government shall supervise all work performed under the contract. The contractor is not entitled to payment until the work has been approved by the local government, and the borrower is not liable to the contractor for any work not approved by the local government.

(b) Any contract involving the expenditure of more than $3,000 for housing rehabilitation construction or other work financed by means of loan funds applied by the department may be made only after advertising in the manner provided by Chapter 163, General Laws, Acts of the 42nd Legislature, Regular Session, 1931, as amended (Article 2368a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). The provisions of Article 5160, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, relating to performance and payment bonds, shall apply to construction contracts.

Pledge of State Credit Prohibited

Sec. 15. The department shall have no power at any time to borrow money, incur pecuniary obligations, or in any manner to pledge the credit or taxing power of the State of Texas or any of its political subdivisions.

Transfer of Encumbered Property

Sec. 16. Upon sale or gift of the encumbered property, or upon the death of the borrower, the local government may, subject to approval of the department, declare all or part of any deferred payments due and payable, declare the balance of the loan due and payable, or allow the buyer, donee, or other successor in title of the borrower to assume the loan if the buyer, donor, or successor qualifies under the provisions of Section 11 of this Act. [Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 2020, ch. 808, §§ 1 to 16, eff. Aug. 29, 1977.]

Creation of the Agency

Sec. 3. (a) There is hereby created and established a public and official governmental agency of the state, to be known as the Texas Housing Agency, and the state shall act by and through the agency in carrying out all powers and duties conferred by this Act. The exercise by the agency of all powers and duties conferred by this Act shall constitute and be deemed and held to be an essential public and official governmental function and purpose of the state, acting by and through the agency, in promoting the general welfare and prosperity of the state and all of its citizens.

(b) The agency is subject to the Texas Sunset Act, as amended (Article 5429k, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). Unless continued in existence as provided by that Act, the agency is abolished and this Act expires effective September 1, 1991.

Primary Purpose of the Agency: Declaration of Policy

Sec. 4. It is hereby declared:

(a) that there exists within both rural and urban areas of this state a shortage of sanitary and safe residential housing at prices or rentals which persons and families of low income and families of moderate income can afford; that this shortage has contributed to and will contribute to the creation and persistence of substandard living conditions and is inimical to the health, welfare, and prosperity of the residents and communities of this state;

(b) that it is imperative that the supply of residential housing for such persons and families and for persons and families displaced by public actions or natural disaster be increased;

(c) that private enterprise and investment are unable, without financial assistance, to provide in sufficient quantities the needed construction or rehabilitation of sanitary and safe residential housing at prices or rentals which persons and families of low income and families of moderate income can afford and to provide sufficient long-term mortgage financing for residential housing for occupancy by such persons and families;

(d) that private enterprise and investment be encouraged to develop land and to build and to rehabilitate residential housing for such persons and families, and that private financing be supplemented by financing as provided in this Act in order to help prevent the creation and recurrence of substandard living conditions and to assist in their permanent elimination throughout this state. It is further declared that in order to provide a fully adequate supply of sanitary and safe dwelling accommodations at rents, prices, or other costs which such persons or families can afford, the legislature finds that it is necessary to create and establish a housing finance agency for the purpose of encouraging the investment of private capital and stimulating the acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of residential housing to meet the needs of such persons and families through the use of public financing, to provide construction and mortgage loans, and to make provision for the purchase of mortgage loans and otherwise. It is hereby further declared to be necessary and in the public interest that such housing finance agency provide for predevelopment costs, temporary financing, incidental land development expenses, and residential housing acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation by housing sponsors for sale or rental to persons and families of low income and families of moderate income; and further, to provide mortgage financing, including, without limitation, long-term federally insured mortgages to eligible housing sponsors; and further, to increase the acquisition, construction, and rehabilitation of low income housing through the purchase from mortgage lenders authorized to transact business within the state of first mortgage loans for residential housing for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in this state; and further, to provide technical, consultative, and project assistance services to private sponsors, to assist in coordinating federal, state, regional, and local public and private efforts and resources, to guarantee to the extent provided herein the repayment of certain loans secured by residential mortgages, and to preserve the quality of life in this state. It is hereby further declared that all of the foregoing are public purposes and uses for which public money may be borrowed, expended, advanced, loaned, granted, or appropriated, and that such activities serve a public purpose in improving or otherwise benefitting the people of this state; that the necessity of enacting the provisions of this Act is in the public interest and is hereby so declared as a matter of express legislative determination.

Appointment and Removal of Directors

Sec. 5. (a) The board of directors of the agency which is and constitutes a "board" of the state, within the meaning of Article XVI, Section 30a, of the Texas Constitution and which shall have such powers and duties as are prescribed in this Act shall consist of nine members, entitled directors. If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor may make the appointment subject to confirmation by the senate when convened.

(g) To be eligible for appointment as a director, a person must be a qualified voter of the state and not hold any other public office. The governor shall make appointments so that the places on the board are occupied by persons having the following experience:

(6) to sell, assign, lease, encumber, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of any real, personal, or mixed property, or any interest therein, or any deed of trust or mortgage lien interest owned by it or under its control, custody, or in its possession, and release or relinquish any right, title, claim, lien, interest, easement, or demand however acquired, including any equity or right of redemption in property foreclosed by it, and to do any of the foregoing by public or private sale, with or without public bidding, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law; and to lease or rent any dwellings, houses, accommodations, lands, buildings, structures, or facilities from private parties to effectuate the purposes of this Act;

(7) to request and accept any appropriations, grants, allocations, subsidies, rent supplements, guaranties, aid, contributions, services, labor, materials, gifts, or donations from the federal government, the state, any public agency, or any other sources;

(8) to maintain an office or offices throughout the state and appoint and determine the duties, tenure, qualifications, and compensation of its officers, employees, agents, professional advisors, and counselors, including, without limitation, financial consultants, accountants, attorneys, architects, engineers, real estate consultants, appraisers, housing construction and financing experts, as are determined necessary or advisable; it is the intention of this Act that the programs of the agency be coordinated with the programs of the Texas Department of Community Affairs with respect to their design and implementation in order to avoid duplication of governmental housing programs;

(9) to make, enter into, and enforce contracts and agreements with the federal government, the state, any public agency, or any person, firm, corporation, or other entity in performing its duties and exercising its powers under this Act; to make and enter into all contracts, agreements, and other arrangements with mortgage lenders; to designate mortgage lenders to act for and in behalf of the agency, with respect to originating, servicing, and processing mortgage loans of the agency, under the terms and conditions agreed on between the parties; and to provide, contract, or arrange for consolidated processing of any aspect of a housing development in order to avoid duplication;

(10) to issue its bonds, to provide for and secure the payment of the bonds, and to provide for the rights of the holders of the bonds, in the manner and to the extent permitted by this Act and the Texas Constitution; and to purchase, hold, cancel, or resell or otherwise dispose of any of its bonds, subject to any restrictions in any resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds;

(11) to fix, charge, and collect fees and charges in connection with loans made or other services provided by the agency pursuant to this Act;

(12) to do anything authorized by this Act, through its directors, officers, or employees, or by contracts with the federal government, the state, any public agency, or any person, firm, corporation, or other entity;

(13) to invest its money in any bonds, obligations, or other securities or place such money in demand or time deposits, whether or not evidenced by certificates of deposit unless otherwise provided by this Act or a resolution authorizing the issuance of its bonds;

(14) to do all things necessary, convenient, or desirable to carry out the powers expressly granted or necessarily implied by this Act;

(15) to conduct hearings and to take testimony and proof, under oath or affirmation, at public hearings, on any matter necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act;

(16) to procure and pay premiums on insurance of any type whatsoever, in amounts and from insurers as the board deems necessary or advisable;

(17) to encourage individual or cooperative home ownership among persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in this state; and

(18) to investigate housing conditions and the means for improving those conditions and determine where slum or blighted areas exist.

Powers Relative to Making Mortgage Loans and Construction Loans to Housing Sponsors

Sec. 9. In addition to all other powers, the agency shall have the following specific powers:

(a) The agency may make, undertake commitments to make, and participate in the making of mortgage loans, including, without limitation, federally insured mortgage loans, and/or make temporary loans and advances in anticipation of permanent mortgage loans to housing sponsors to finance the purchase, construction, remodeling, improvement, or rehabilitation of housing developments for residential housing designed and planned for persons and families of low income and/or families of moderate income, upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Act.

(b) The agency may make and publish rules respecting making mortgage loans pursuant to this Act, the regulations of borrowers, the construction of ancillary commercial facilities, and resale and disposition of any real property, or any interest therein, financed by the agency.

(c) The agency may enter into agreements and contracts with housing sponsors and mortgage lenders under the provisions of this Act with respect to making or participating in making mortgage loans for residential housing for persons and families of low income and/or families of moderate income.

(d) The agency may institute any action or proceeding against any housing sponsor receiving a loan under the provisions hereof, or owning any housing development hereunder in any court of competent jurisdiction in order to enforce the provisions of this Act, the terms and provisions of any agreement or contract between the agency and such recipients of loans under the provisions hereof, including, without limitation, provisions as to rental or carrying charges and income limits as applied to tenants or occupants, or to foreclose its mortgage, or to protect the public interest, persons and families of low income or families of moderate income, stockholders, or creditors of the sponsor. In connection with any such action or proceeding the agency may apply for the appointment of a trustee or receiver to take over, manage, operate, and maintain the affairs of a housing sponsor. The agency through such agent as it shall designate is hereby authorized to accept appointment as trustee or receiver of any such sponsor when so appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Loan Terms and Conditions

Sec. 10. Loans made by the agency under the preceding section shall be subject to the following terms and conditions:

(a) The agency shall not process an application for a loan for a housing development unless the applicant is a housing sponsor and the application is submitted and recommended by a mortgage lender.

(b) The ratio of loan to total housing development cost and the amortization period of loans made under this Act which are insured or guaranteed by the federal government are governed by the federal government mortgage insurance commitment or federal guarantee for each housing development, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(c) A mortgage loan not insured by the federal government may not exceed 95 percent of the total housing development cost as determined by the agency. The amortization period of the loan shall be determined in accordance with regulations formulated and published by the agency, except the amortization period may not exceed 40 years.

(d) A mortgage loan made under this Act may be prepaid to maturity after the period of years and under the terms and conditions decided upon by the board.

(e) The agency may set the interest rates at which it makes loans and commitments therefor. The interest rates shall be established by the board in its sole discretion so as to produce at least the amounts required, together with other available funds, to pay for the agency's costs of operation and to meet its covenants with and responsibilities to the holders of its bonds. In addition to such interest charges the agency shall make and collect such fees and charges, including but not limited to reimbursement of the agency's financing costs, service charges, insurance premiums, and mortgage insurance premiums, as the agency determines to be reasonable.

(f) In considering an application for a loan, the agency shall give first priority to applications for well-planned and well-designed housing developments. The agency shall also give consideration to:

(1) the comparative need for housing for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income in the area to be served by the proposed housing development;

(2) the ability of the applicant to carry out, operate, manage, and maintain the proposed housing development;

(3) the existence of zoning, protective covenants, or regulations that adequately protect the proposed housing development against detrimental future uses that could cause undue depreciation in the value of the housing development; and

(4) the availability in urban areas of adequate parks, recreational areas, utilities, schools, transportation, and parking.

(g) Each mortgage loan shall be evidenced by a mortgage or deed of trust note or bond and by a mortgage or deed of trust that constitutes a first lien on the housing development and on all the real property constituting the site of or relating to the housing development, and that contains provisions and is in a form required by the agency. The note or bond and mortgage or deed of trust may contain exculpatory provisions relieving the borrower or its principal from personal liability if agreed upon by the agency.

(h) Each mortgage loan is subject to an agreement between the agency and the housing sponsor that subjects the sponsor and its principals or stockholders to limitations established by the agency as to rentals and other charges, builders' and developers' profits and fees, and the disposition of its property and on all of the real property constituting the site of or relating to the housing development.

(i) As a condition of each loan, the agency may at any time during the construction, rehabilitation, or operation of a housing development:

(1) enter upon and inspect the housing development, including all parts thereof, for the purpose of investigating the physical and financial condition thereof, and its construction, rehabilitation, operation, management, and maintenance and to examine all books and records with respect to capitalization, income, and other matters relating thereto and to make such charges as may be required to cover the cost of such inspections and examinations;

(2) order alterations, changes, or repairs necessary to protect the security of the agency's investment in a housing development or the health, safety, and welfare of the occupants; and

(3) order any managing agent, housing development manager, or owner of a housing development to do whatever is necessary to comply with the provisions of applicable laws, ordinances, or rules of the agency or the terms of any agreement concerning the housing development or to refrain from doing any acts in violation thereof and in this regard the agency shall be a proper party to file a complaint and to prosecute thereon for any violations of laws or ordinances as set forth herein.

(j) A housing sponsor may not make distributions in any one year with respect to a housing development financed by the agency in excess of that which shall be prescribed by rules of the agency of the housing sponsor's equity in the development. The principals or stockholders of a housing sponsor may not at any time earn, accept, or receive a return greater than that which shall be prescribed by rules of the agency per annum of their investment in a housing development financed by the agency. A housing sponsor's equity in a housing development consists of the difference between the mortgage loan and the total housing development cost. The agency shall establish the sponsor's equity at the time of the making of the final mortgage advance and, for the purposes of this subsection, that figure remains constant during the life of the agency's mortgage or deed of trust on the development, except for additional equity investment made by the sponsor with the agency's approval or at its order.

Purchase and Sale of Mortgage Loans

Sec. 11. (a) The agency may purchase and take assignments from mortgage lenders or the federal government of notes and mortgages evidencing loans for the construction, remodeling, improvement, or rehabilitation, purchase, leasing, or refinancing of housing developments for persons and families of low income and families of moderate income.

(b) The agency may sell, at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, a mortgage or other obligation held by the agency.

Terms of the Purchase and Sale of Mortgage Loans

Sec. 12. (a) No mortgage loan purchased from a mortgage lender is eligible for purchase by the agency unless the mortgage lender certifies that:

(1) the mortgage loans transferred to the agency are for housing developments for persons or families of low income or for families of moderate income; or

(2) the proceeds of the sale or the equivalent have been or will be invested in mortgage loans that benefit persons and families of low income and families of moderate income or invested in short-term obligations pending the making of such mortgage loans.

(b) When the agency purchases a mortgage loan from a mortgage lender, it shall pay a purchase price equal to the outstanding principal balance, except that discount from the principal balance or the payment of a premium may be employed to effect a fair rate of return consistent with the obligations of the agency and the purposes of this Act. In addition to payment of the outstanding principal balance, the agency shall pay the accrued interest due to the date on which the mortgage loan is delivered against payment.

(c) Mortgage loans purchased or sold under this section may include mortgage loans that are insured, guaranteed, or assisted by the federal government, or for which there is commitment by the federal government to insure, guarantee, or assist the mortgage loan.

(d) The agency shall adopt rules governing the purchase and sale of mortgage loans and the application of the proceeds thereof, including rules governing:

(1) procedures for submitting requests or inviting proposals for the purchase and sale of mortgage loans;

(2) restrictions as to the number of family units, location, or other qualifications of residences to be financed by residential mortgage loans, and income limits of persons and families of low income or families of moderate income occupying the residence;

(3) restrictions as to the interest rates on mortgage loans or the return realized by mortgage lenders;

(4) requirements for commitments by mortgage lenders with respect to mortgage loans;

(5) schedules of fees and charges necessary for expenses and reserves of the agency;

(6) resale of the housing development; and

(7) any other matters related to the powers of the agency to purchase and sell mortgage loans.

(e) The agency shall review each mortgage loan purchased by the agency to determine if the loan meets the conditions of this Act, the rules of the agency, and any commitment made with the mortgage lender to purchase mortgage loans. The agency may require the substitution of another mortgage loan when it determines that a loan does not comply with this Act, its rules, or a commitment made with the mortgage lender. Subsections (b), (c), (d), (e), and (g) of Section 10 of this Act apply to the purchase of mortgage loans.

(f) The agency may not purchase an obligation that is more than two years old.

Supervising Housing Sponsors

Sec. 13. The agency shall have the power to supervise housing sponsors of housing developments that are rented or leased to tenants, including limited profit housing sponsors, and their real and personal property, in the following respects:

(a) The agency may prescribe uniform systems of accounts and records for housing sponsors and may require housing sponsors to make reports and certifications of their expenditures and to answer specific questions on forms and at such times as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(b) The agency, through its agents or employees, may enter upon and inspect the land, buildings, and equipment of a housing sponsor, including all parts thereof, and may examine all records showing the capital structure, income, expenditures, and other payments of a housing sponsor.

(c) The agency may supervise the operation and maintenance of a housing development and may order repairs as necessary to protect the public interest or the health, welfare, or safety of the housing development occupants.

(d) The agency shall approve and may alter from time to time a schedule of rents and charges for a housing development.

(e) The agency shall determine standards for and shall control tenant and management selection by a housing sponsor.

(f) The agency may require a housing sponsor to pay the agency fees and charges for the costs of regulating the housing sponsor, including, without limitation, the costs of examination, inspection, supervision, and auditing the housing sponsor.

(g) The agency may order a housing sponsor to do or to refrain from doing what is necessary to comply with the provision of law, the rules of the agency, and the terms of a contract or agreement to which the housing sponsor is a party.

(h) The agency shall regulate the retirement of any capital investment or the redemption of stock of a limited profit housing sponsor if the retirement or redemption, when added to any dividend or other distribution, exceeds in any one fiscal year the permitted percentage, as shall be prescribed by rules of the agency, of the original face amount of the limited profit housing sponsor's investment or equity in any housing development.

(i) The agency shall make rules specifying the categories of cost allowable in the construction, reconstruction, remodelling, improvement, or rehabilitation of a housing development. The agency shall require a housing sponsor to certify the actual housing development costs on completion of the housing development, subject to audit and determination by the agency, except that the agency may accept, in lieu of certification of housing development costs, other assurances of the housing development costs, in any form or manner whatsoever, that will enable the agency to determine with reasonable accuracy the amount of the housing development costs.

(j) This section does not apply to any housing development for which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income receive a mortgage loan hereunder and which initially is intended for occupancy by such persons or families.

Admission to Housing Developments

Sec. 14. (a) Admission to housing developments that are rented or leased to tenants financed under this Act is limited to persons or families of low income and families of moderate income.

(b) The agency shall periodically examine the income of any person or family who are tenants residing in a housing development. The agency or, with the approval of the agency, the housing sponsor of a housing development may terminate the tenancy or interest of any person or family whose gross income exceeds the income level prescribed for admission by more than 25 percent for a period of six months or more. No tenancy or interest of any person or family in any housing development may be terminated except on reasonable notice and opportunity to obtain suitable alternate housing in accordance with rules of the agency. A person or family whose gross income would not otherwise permit continued occupancy of a dwelling unit may, with the approval of the agency, continue to occupy a dwelling unit on payment of a surcharge to the housing sponsor in accordance with a schedule of surcharges fixed by the agency.

(c) If a person or family who resides in a cooperative housing development must move from the housing development because of excessive income, the person or family must be discharged from liability of any note, bond, or other evidence of indebtedness and reimbursed, in accordance with the rules of the agency, for all sums paid to the housing sponsor on account of the purchase of stock or debentures as a condition of occupancy or on account of the acquisition of title for that purpose.

(d) This section does not apply to any housing development for which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income receive a mortgage loan hereunder and which initially is intended for occupancy by such persons or families.

Procedure Prior to Financing of Housing Developments Undertaken by Housing Sponsors

Sec. 15. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, the agency is not empowered to finance any housing development undertaken by a housing sponsor unless, prior to the financing of any housing development hereunder, the agency finds that:

(1) the housing development is necessary to provide needed decent, safe, and sanitary housing at rentals or prices which persons or families of low income or families of moderate income can afford;

(2) the housing sponsor or sponsors undertaking the proposed housing development in this state will supply well-planned and well-designed housing for persons or families of low income or families of moderate income and that such sponsors are financially responsible;

(3) the financing of the housing development pursuant to the provisions of this Act will constitute a public purpose and will provide a public benefit; and

(4) the housing development will be undertaken within the authority conferred by this Act upon the agency and the housing sponsor or sponsors.

Exemption from Taxation

Sec. 16. The property of the agency, its income, and operations are exempt from all taxes and assessments imposed by the state and all public agencies on property acquired or used by the agency under the provisions of this Act. The agency may, under its terms, conditions, and rules, make payments to public agencies in lieu of ad valorem taxes on any property which the agency has acquired through foreclosure or sale under a deed of trust. It shall be the policy of the agency to make these payments in lieu of taxes whenever practicable with any money lawfully available for this purpose, subject to the provisions, requirements, and restrictions of any bond resolution.

Fiscal Year; Annual Report; Audit

Sec. 17. The agency shall operate on a fiscal year beginning September 1 and ending August 31. The agency shall have an audit of its books and accounts for each fiscal year by the state auditor or by a certified public accountant. The cost of the audit is an expense of the agency. A copy of the audit shall be filed with the governor and the legislature on or before January 1 of each year, except if the audit is being made by the state auditor and is not available by January 1, it shall be filed as soon as it is available. Also, on or before January 1 of each year, the agency shall prepare a report of its activities for the preceding fiscal year for the governor and the legislature. The report shall set forth a complete operating and financial statement.

Annual Budget

Sec. 18. (a) On or before August 1 of each year, the administrator shall file with the board a proposed annual budget for the succeeding fiscal year. The budget shall set forth the general categories of expected expenditures out of revenues and income of the agency, and the amount on account of each, and may include a provision or reserve for contingencies or over expenditures. On or before September 1 in each year, the board shall consider the proposed annual budget and shall approve it or change it as the board determines necessary or advisable. Copies of the annual budget certified by the chairman of the board shall be filed promptly with the governor and the legislature. The annual budget is not effective until it is filed.

(b) If for any reason the agency does not adopt the annual budget before September 2, the budget for the preceding year shall remain in effect until a new budget is adopted.

(c) The agency may adopt an amended annual budget for the current fiscal year, but the amended annual budget may not supersede a prior budget until it is filed with the governor and the legislature.

(d) All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the Act shall be payable solely from revenues or funds provided or to be provided pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and nothing in this Act shall be construed to authorize the agency to incur any indebtedness or liability on behalf of or payable by the State of Texas, except as provided in this Act, or as otherwise provided by law.

Selection of Depository

Sec. 19. (a) The agency shall choose a depository for its revenues and funds, other than appropriated funds, after inviting bids for favorable interest rates. The agency shall publish notice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the state at least 14 days before the last day set for the receipt of the bids. The notice shall state the types of deposits planned, the last day on which bids will be received, and the time and place for opening bids.

(b) Sealed bids that are identified as bids on the envelope must be submitted to the agency before the deadline for receiving bids. The state auditor or a member of the auditor's staff must be present at the bid opening. The agency shall provide a tabulation of all submitted bids for public inspection.

(c) The agency shall choose the depository submitting the bid with the most favorable interest rate.

(d) If covenants related to the agency's bonds specify one or more depositories or set out a method of selecting depositories different from the method prescribed by this section, the covenants prevail with respect to the funds to which they apply.

Agency Records

Sec. 20. (a) The agency shall keep complete records and accounts of its business transactions according to generally accepted methods of accounting.

(b) The agency shall keep complete minutes of its meetings. The agency accounts, minutes, and other records shall be kept at its principal office.

Issue of Housing Finance Agency Bonds

Sec. 21. (a) The board of directors of the agency by resolution from time to time may provide for the issuance of negotiable bonds as authorized by the Texas Constitution. The bonds shall be on a parity and shall be called Texas Housing Bonds. The board may issue them in one or several installments and shall date the bonds of each issue.

(b) In addition to the authority to issue general obligation bonds as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act, the agency may issue its revenue bonds for the purpose of providing money with which to carry out, achieve, or effectuate any purpose, power, or duty of the agency under this Act. The agency's bonds may be issued from time to time in one or more series or issues, payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from and secured by a first lien or a subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the revenues, income, or other resources of the agency including, without limitation, the repayments of mortgage loans, the earnings from investment or deposit of the reserve fund and other funds of the agency, the fees, charges, and any other amounts or payments received pursuant to this Act, and any appropriations, grants, allocations, subsidies, rent supplements, guaranties, aid, contribution, or donations from the federal government.

(c) Also, the agency may issue its bonds, which may be designated as "bond anticipation notes," which may be made payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, solely from the proceeds from the sale of the agency's definitive refunding bonds if or when issued and delivered for the purpose of refunding such bond anticipation notes or payable as to principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, from such definitive refunding bonds and any other revenues, income, or resources of the agency, and the agency may covenant that it will issue, sell, and deliver such definitive refunding bonds in such manner as will provide the money necessary to pay any required part of the principal of and interest and redemption premium, if any, on the bond anticipation notes when due; provided that such bond anticipation notes may be refunded in any other manner permitted by the Act.

(d) The payment of the principal of and the interest and redemption premium, if any, on the agency's bonds additionally may be secured by a first lien or a subordinate lien on and pledge of all or any part of the assets and real, personal, or mixed property of the agency (including mortgages and obligations securing same, and investments), and the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency.

(e) All bonds issued by the agency shall be authorized by resolution of the board and may be secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on property, and/or by trust agreements or trust indentures administered by one or more corporate trustees, in such manner as may be prescribed by the board; and the substantial form of any such mortgage, deed of trust, trust agreement, or trust indenture shall be set forth in and constitute a part of the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds of the agency may provide that part of the proceeds from the sale thereof may be used for paying the costs and expenses of issuing the bonds, for paying interest on the bonds during such period as may be prescribed by the board, and for paying or repaying operation and maintenance expenses of the agency to the extent and for the period of time specified in said resolution, and also for the funding, increasing, or restoring any depletions of the reserve fund or other reserves or funds for any purposes.

(f) The agency may provide for the subsequent issuance of additional parity bonds, or subordinate lien bonds, under such terms or conditions as may be set forth in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

(g) The agency also may issue its bonds for the specific purpose of providing all or any part of the money required for funding or increasing the reserve fund or other reserves or funds of the agency.

Interest on Bonds

Sec. 22. The agency's bonds may be issued to bear interest at any rate or rates as shall be determined by the board.

Form; Denomination; Place of Payment

Sec. 23. (a) The agency's bonds may be issued as serial bonds, or as term bonds, or any combination of each as shall be determined by the board.

(b) The agency's bonds may be issued in coupon form payable to bearer, or in fully registered form, or as coupon bonds payable to bearer but registrable as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest, or in any other form.

(c) The agency's bonds may be payable at any place or places, may be made redeemable prior to maturity, and may be issued in such form, denominations, and manner, and under such terms, conditions, and details, and shall be executed, all as provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds.

(d) The agency's bonds may be sold in such manner, at such price, and under such terms and conditions, as shall be determined by the board.

Maturity of Bonds

Sec. 24. The agency's bonds may mature within any period as shall be determined by the board.

Redemption Before Maturity; Conversion

Sec. 25. (a) The board may provide and covenant for the conversion of any form of bond into any other form or forms of bond, and for reconversion of bonds into any other form.

(b) If the duty of replacement, conversion, or reconversion of bonds is imposed upon a place of payment (paying agent) of any bonds, or upon a corporate trustee under a trust agreement or trust indenture, the replacement, converted, or reconverted bond need not be reapproved by the attorney general or reregistered by the comptroller of public accounts as provided in Section 27 of this Act. Otherwise, all replacement, converted, or reconverted bonds must be so approved and registered as provided in Section 27 of this Act, in accordance with the procedures established in the resolution authorizing the bonds.

Agency's Bonds not Obligations of the State

Sec. 26. (a) The agency's bonds are solely obligations of the agency and are payable solely from funds of the agency, and this Act and the agency's bonds are not and do not create or constitute in any way an obligation, a debt, or a liability of the state, or create or constitute a pledge, giving, or lending of the faith or credit or taxing power of the state except bonds authorized by the Texas Constitution and as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act.

(b) Each bond of the agency not authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall contain on its face a statement to the effect that the state is not obligated to pay the principal thereof or interest thereon; and that neither the faith or credit nor the taxing power of the state is pledged, given, or loaned to such payment.

(c) However, the state hereby pledges to and agrees with the holders of any bonds issued under this Act that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the agency to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the said holder thereof or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders until such bonds, together with the interest thereon, with interest on any unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully met and discharged. The agency is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any agreement with the holders of such bonds.

Approval of Bonds; Registration

Sec. 27. All bonds issued by the agency and the appropriate proceedings authorizing their issuance shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas for examination. If the attorney general finds that such bonds have been authorized in accordance with this Act, the attorney general shall approve them, and thereupon they shall be registered by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas.

Execution of Bonds

Sec. 28. The bonds authorized by Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act shall be executed on behalf of the board as general obligations of the state in the following manner: the chairman of the board shall sign the bonds; the board shall impress its seal on the bonds; the governor shall sign the bonds; and the secretary of state shall attest the bonds and impress on them the state seal.

Facsimile Signatures and Seals

Sec. 29. The resolution authorizing the issuance of an installment or series of bonds may prescribe the extent to which the board in executing the bonds and appurtenant coupons may use facsimile signatures and facsimile seals instead of manual signatures and manually impressed seals. Interest coupons may be signed by the facsimile signatures of the chairman of the board of the agency.

Signature of Former Officer

Sec. 30. If an officer whose manual or facsimile signature appears on a bond or whose facsimile signature appears on any coupon ceases to be an officer before the bond is delivered, the signature is valid and sufficient for all purposes as if the officer had remained in office until the delivery had been made.

Bonds Incontestable

Sec. 31. (a) After approval by the attorney general and registration by the comptroller of public accounts, the bonds shall be incontestable in any court or other forum for any reason and shall be valid and binding obligations in accordance with their terms for all purposes.

(b) In addition, general obligation bonds issued as provided in Subsection (a) of Section 21 of this Act and after approval and registration as provided in this Act shall constitute general obligations of the state.

Reserve Fund

Sec. 32. (a) There may be created and established by the agency, with the State Treasurer of the State of Texas, a separate and special fund to be entitled the Texas Housing Agency Reserve Fund. The reserve fund may be used for the purpose of paying principal of and interest, and redemption premium, if any, on any of the agency's bonds secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, in order to prevent or cure a default, if, when, and to the extent the revenues, income, and receipts of the agency are insufficient for such payment, and for such other purposes as are provided in any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds. The agency may establish separate accounts within the reserve fund to secure and be applicable only to the agency's bonds for which they are established.

(b) It shall be an additional duty of the State Treasurer, in the State Treasurer's official capacity, ex officio, to accept the reserve fund, as custodian thereof, in accordance with the provisions of this section; but the reserve fund shall not be commingled with the General Revenue Fund of the state or any other special funds or accounts in the State Treasury, and the reserve fund shall not constitute or be a part of the State Treasury. The reserve fund and any account therein shall be kept and maintained separate and apart from all other money, funds, deposits, and accounts and shall be kept and held in escrow and in trust by the State Treasurer, for and on behalf of, and charged with an irrevocable lien and pledge in favor of, the holders of the agency's bonds secured thereby; and the reserve fund shall be used only as provided in this Act. Legal title to the reserve fund shall be in the agency unless or until paid out as herein provided, but the State Treasurer, as custodian, shall administer the reserve fund strictly and solely as provided in this Act and the agency's bond resolutions, and the State Treasurer shall take no action with respect to the reserve fund other than that specified in this Act and in said bond resolutions.

(c) Out of proceeds from the sale and delivery of its first series or issue of bonds which are secured by the reserve fund, or from any other source available to it, the agency may provide for depositing into the reserve fund, or an account therein, such amount as is specified in the bond resolution, and thereafter the reserve fund, or such accounts therein, shall be increased to, when necessary, and maintained at, said amount with respect to all bonds at any time outstanding which are secured by the reserve fund, or such account therein. The board is authorized to establish the procedures for funding, increasing, and maintaining the reserve fund, or any account therein, and the operation and use of, and the priorities of bondholders in connection with, the reserve fund, or any account therein, in the resolutions authorizing the issuance of its bonds. The State Treasurer shall be furnished certified copies of said bond resolutions, and the State Treasurer shall comply therewith.

(d) Amounts in the reserve fund, or any account therein, at any time in excess of the amount then required to be on hand therein, whether by reason of investment or deposit earnings or otherwise, shall be paid by the State Treasurer directly to, or upon the order of, the agency, upon written request by the agency, or disposed of and disbursed by the State Treasurer as provided in any bond resolution of the agency.

(e) The State Treasurer shall place the money in the reserve fund, or any account therein, in demand or time deposits, or invest said money in any direct obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal of and interest on which are guaranteed by, the federal government, and such deposits and/or investments shall be made by the State Treasurer at the places and in the amounts and manner as provided in written instructions from the agency as to the procedures and details thereof, or as provided in any bond resolution of the agency. If said money is placed in demand or time deposits, such deposits shall be secured at all times by the same type of obligations as those in which the reserve fund may be invested. Earnings from such deposits and investments shall be credited to the reserve fund, or the account therein from which the money was deposited or invested, or disposed of as provided in any bond resolution. Said investments shall be sold promptly by the State Treasurer if and when necessary to prevent or cure any default in connection with the agency's bonds, as provided in this Act and the resolutions authorizing such bonds.

(g) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the agency may or may not, at its option, create or fund the reserve fund and may issue its bonds which are not secured by the reserve fund, or any account therein, but which may be secured by any other or separate reserve fund or account to be kept at any place, or secured in any other manner provided in the agency's bond resolutions.

Refunding Bonds

Sec. 34. (a) Any bonds issued by the agency may be refunded, or otherwise refinanced, by the issuance by the agency of refunding bonds for such purpose, under such terms, conditions, and details as shall be determined by the board.

(b) All pertinent and appropriate provisions of this Act shall be applicable to such refunding bonds, and they may be issued in the manner provided herein for other bonds authorized under this Act; provided that such refunding bonds may be sold and delivered in amounts sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal, interest, and redemption premium, if any, of any bonds to be refunded, at maturity or on any redemption date, in accordance with such procedures as shall be determined by the board, and the comptroller of public accounts shall register such refunding bonds without the necessity of cancelling the bonds being refunded.

(c) Also, such refunding bonds may be issued to be exchanged for the bonds being refunded thereby. In any case where refunding bonds are to be exchanged, the comptroller of public accounts shall register the refunding bonds and deliver the same to the holder or holders of the bonds being refunded thereby, in accordance with the provisions of the resolution authorizing the refunding bonds; and any such exchange may be made in one delivery or in several installment deliveries.

(d) Bonds issued by the agency also may be refunded in the manner provided by any other applicable statute, including Chapter 503, Acts of the 54th Legislature, Regular Session, 1955, as amended, and Chapter 784, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969 (Articles 717k and 717k-3, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

In any resolution authorizing the issuance of the agency's bonds the board may prescribe systems, methods, routines, and procedures under which the agency shall function, consistent with this Act.

Validity of Liens and Pledges

Sec. 37. Each lien on or pledge of revenues, income, or other resources of the agency, or on the assets of the agency, or on the reserve fund, or other reserves or funds of the agency, as authorized by this Act, shall be valid and binding from the time of payment for and delivery of the bonds authorized by the resolution of the board creating or confirming any such lien or pledge. All such liens and pledges shall be fully effective as to items then on hand or thereafter received, and said items shall be subject to such liens or pledges without any physical delivery thereof or further act. All such liens and pledges shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the agency or other party, irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds of the agency nor any other instrument by which any such lien or pledge is created or confirmed need be filed or recorded except in the records of the agency, and except that each bond resolution of the agency shall be submitted to the Attorney General of the State of Texas as required by Section 27 of this Act.

Sec. 40. All bonds also shall be eligible and lawful security for all deposits of public funds of the state and all public agencies, to the extent of the par or market value of said bonds, whichever is greater, when accompanied by any unmatured interest coupons appurtenant thereto.

Mutilated, Lost, Stolen, Destroyed Bonds

Sec. 41. The board may provide procedures for the replacement of any mutilated, lost, stolen, or destroyed bond or interest coupon.

Sec. 44. This Act shall be construed liberally to effectuate the legislative intent and the purposes of this Act, and all powers herein granted shall be broadly interpreted to effectuate such intent and purposes and not as a limitation of powers.

Cumulative Effect of the Act; Conflicting Laws

Sec. 45. This Act shall be cumulative of all other laws, but this Act shall be wholly sufficient authority within itself for the issuance of the bonds and the performance of the other acts and procedures authorized hereby, without reference to any other laws or any restrictions, approvals, or limitations contained therein, except as herein specifically provided; and to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency between any provisions of this Act and any provisions of any other law, the provisions of this Act shall prevail and control; provided, however, that the board shall have the right to use the provisions of any other laws not in conflict with the provisions hereof to the extent convenient or necessary to carry out any power or authority, express or implied, granted by this Act.

Severability Clause

Sec. 46. In case any one or more of the sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any situation or circumstance shall for any reason be held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not affect any other sections, provisions, clauses, or words of this Act or the application of such sections, provisions, clauses, or words to any other situation or circumstance, and it is intended that this Act shall be severable and shall be construed and applied as if any such invalid or unconstitutional section, provision, clause, or word had not been included herein.

Appropriation

Sec. 47. If the General Appropriation Act for the fiscal biennium ending on August 31, 1981, contains an appropriation for the administration of this Act, the validity of the appropriation is not affected by the fact that it refers to the Texas Housing Agency as the Texas Housing Finance Authority.

Authority to Issue General Obligation Bonds Contingent

Application to Governing Body of Local Governmental Unit

Sec. 4. Whenever any number of individuals, not less than three, each of whom shall be a citizen of the State of Texas, of the age of 18 years or more and residents of the local governmental unit, shall file with the governing body of the local governmental unit an application in writing seeking the incorporation of a housing finance corporation under the provisions of this Act, the governing body shall proceed to consider such application. If the governing body shall by appropriate resolution duly adopted find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the corporation be formed and shall approve the form of articles of incorporation proposed to be used in organizing the corporation, then articles of incorporation for the corporation may be filed as hereinafter provided. No corporation may be formed unless such application shall have first been filed with the governing body of the local governmental unit and the governing body shall have adopted a resolution as provided in this section. The approval of the articles of incorporation of one corporation shall not preclude the approval by the governing body of the local governmental unit of the articles of incorporation of other corporations with names or designations sufficient to distinguish them from any corporation theretofore incorporated; provided that the governing body of the local governmental unit shall not permit the existence of more than one corporation created on its behalf which has the power to make or acquire home mortgages, or make loans to lending institutions.

B. It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this Act; provided, however, that the articles of incorporation may prohibit the exercise by the corporation of any power or powers enumerated in this Act.

C. Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the bylaws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a bylaw, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling.

Incorporators

Upon the issuance of the certificate of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and such certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the local governmental unit and the incorporators have been complied with, and that the corporation has been duly incorporated under this Act. The corporation shall constitute a public instrumentality and nonprofit corporation under the name set out in the articles of incorporation. The corporation does not and will not constitute a county, city, or other political corporation or subdivision of the state, but the corporation is authorized to issue bonds and to carry out the public purposes for which it is incorporated on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the governmental unit, and the state.

Amendment of Articles of Incorporation—Articles of Amendment

Sec. 8. A. The articles of incorporation may at any time and from time to time be amended so as to make any changes therein and add any provisions thereto which might have been included in the articles of incorporation in the first instance. Any such amendment shall be effected in either of the following manners: (i) the members of the board of directors of the corporation shall file with the governing body of the local governmental unit an application in writing seeking permission to amend the articles of incorporation, specifying in such application the amendment proposed to be made, such governing body shall consider such application and, if it shall by appropriate resolution duly find and determine that it is wise, expedient, necessary, or advisable that the proposed amendment be made and shall authorize the same to be made, and shall approve the form of the proposed amendment, then the board of directors of the corporation may amend the articles of incorporation by adopting such amendment at a meeting of the board of directors and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state, or (ii) the governing body of the local governmental unit may, at its sole discretion, and at any time, alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the corporation (including the power to terminate the corporation) subject to any limitation on the impairment of contracts entered into by the corporation, by adopting an amendment to the articles of incorporation of the corporation at a meeting of the governing body of the local governmental unit and delivering articles of amendment to the secretary of state.

B. The articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by its president or by a vice-president and by its secretary or an assistant secretary, or by the local governmental unit by its presiding officer and secretary or clerk, shall be verified by one of the officers signing such articles, and shall set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) if the amendment alters any provision of the original or amended articles of incorporation, an identification by reference or description of the altered provision and a statement of its text as it is amended to read. If the amendment is an addition to the original or amended articles of incorporation, a statement of that fact and the full text of each provision added;

(3) the date of the meeting of the board of directors, or of the governing body of the local governmental unit, at which the amendment was adopted, and a statement of the fact that such amendment received the vote of a majority of the directors, or of the members of the governing body of the local governmental unit, in office.

Filing of Articles of Amendment—Effect of Certificate of Amendment

Sec. 9. A. Duplicate originals of the articles of amendment shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the articles of amendment conform to law, he shall, when a fee of $25 has been paid:

Board of Directors

Sec. 10. The corporation shall have a board of directors in which all powers of the corporation shall be vested and which shall consist of any number of directors all of whom shall be residents of the local governmental unit. A director may be a member of the governing body, an officer, or an employee of the local governmental unit. The initial board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation approved by the local governmental unit and shall hold office for such period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation. Thereafter, directors shall be appointed by the governing body of the local governmental unit in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified. A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws. (27) whether included in the foregoing or not, to have and exercise all powers necessary or appropriate to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Bonds of Corporation

Sec. 14. The exercise of any or all powers granted by this Act may be authorized and the bonds may be authorized to be issued under this Act for the purposes set forth in this Act, by resolution of the board of directors of the corporation, which shall take effect immediately upon adoption. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the provisions of Chapter 3, Acts of the 61st Legislature, Regular Session, 1969, as amended (Article 717k-2, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), may be payable at such times, may be in one or more series, may bear such date or dates, may mature at such time or times, may be payable in such medium of payment at such place or places, may carry such registration privileges, may be subject to such terms of redemption at such premiums, may be executed in such manner, may contain such terms, covenants, and conditions, and may be in such form, either coupon or registered, as such resolution may provide. The bonds may be sold at public or private sale in such manner and upon such terms as may be provided in such resolution. Pending the preparation of definitive bonds, interim receipts, or certificates in such form and with such provisions as may be provided in such resolution, may be issued to the purchaser or purchasers of bonds sold pursuant to this Act.

Covenants in Bonds

Sec. 15. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may contain covenants as to (a) the use and disposition of the proceeds of the bonds and the revenues and receipts from any residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are to be issued, including the creation and maintenance of reserves; (b) the issuance of other or additional bonds relating to any residential development or any rehabilitation, improvements, renovations, enlargements, or additions thereto; (c) the maintenance and repair of such residential development or any homes; (d) the insurance to be carried on any residential development, home, home mortgage, or bonds and the use and disposition of insurance moneys; (e) the appointment of one or more banks or trust companies within or outside the State of Texas, having the necessary trust powers, as trustee and/or custodian for the benefit of the bondholders, paying agent, or bond registrar; (f) the appointment of one or more mortgage bankers to provide requisite administrative and mortgage servicing functions to assure the proper administration, for the benefit of the bondholders, of the corporation's portfolio of home mortgage loans; (g) the investment of any funds held by such trustee or custodian; (h) the maximum interest rate payable on any home mortgage; and (i) the terms and conditions upon which the holders of the bonds or any portion thereof or any trustees therefor, are entitled to the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction, and said terms and conditions may provide that the receiver may enter and take possession of the residential development or home mortgages, or any part thereto, and maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of such development or mortgages, prescribe rentals or other payments, and collect, receive, and apply all income and revenues thereafter arising therefrom. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds under this Act may provide that the principal of and interest on any bonds issued under this Act shall be secured by a mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust covering such residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued and may include any improvements or extensions thereafter made. Such mortgage, pledge, security interest, insurance agreement, or indenture of trust may contain such covenants and agreements to properly safeguard the bonds as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing such bonds and shall be executed in the manner as may be provided for in the resolution. The provisions of this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall constitute a contract with the holder or holders of the bonds and continue in effect until the principal of, the interest on, and the redemption premiums, if any, on the bonds so issued have been fully paid or provision made therefor, and the duties of the corporation and its corporate authorities and officers under this Act and any such resolution and any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust shall be enforceable as provided therein by any bondholder by mandamus, foreclosure of any such mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust or other appropriate suit, action, or proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction; provided the resolution or any mortgage, pledge, security interest, or indenture of trust under which the bonds are issued may provide that all such remedies and rights to enforcement may be vested in a trustee (with full power of appointment) for the benefit of all the bondholders, which trustee shall be subject to the control of such number of holders or owners of any outstanding bonds as provided therein.

Signature of Officers on Bonds—Validity of Bonds

Sec. 16. The bonds shall bear the manual or facsimile signatures of such officers of the corporation as may be designated in the resolution authorizing such bonds, and such signatures shall be the valid and binding signatures of the officer of the corporation, notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor any or all of the persons whose signatures appear thereon have ceased to be officers of the corporation issuing such bonds. The validity of the bonds is not dependent on nor affected by the validity or regularity of any proceedings relating to the residential development or home mortgages for which the bonds are issued. The resolution authorizing the bonds may provide that the bonds shall contain a recital that they are issued pursuant to this Act, which recital shall be conclusive evidence of their validity and of the regularity of their issuance.

Lien of Bonds

Sec. 17. Bonds issued under this Act may be secured by a pledge of or lien upon all or any part of the revenues, receipts, or resources of the corporation, including the revenues and receipts derived from the residential development or home mortgages or from any notes or other obligations of lending institutions with respect to which the bonds have been issued, and the board of directors may provide in the resolution authorizing such bonds for the issuance of additional bonds to be equally and ratably secured by a lien upon such revenues and receipts or may provide that the lien upon such revenues and receipts is subordinate. Subordinate lien bonds also may be issued unless prohibited in any bond resolution.

Liability for Bonds

Sec. 18. All bonds issued under and pursuant to this Act shall be limited obligations of the corporation payable solely out of the revenues, receipts, and resources pledged to their payment. No holder of any bonds issued under this Act has the right to compel the local governmental unit to pay the bonds, the interest or redemption premium, if any, thereon, and the bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision, nor shall the bonds be construed to create any moral obligation on the part of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, with respect to the payment of such bonds, and all such entities are hereby prohibited from making any payments with respect to said bonds. It shall be plainly stated on the face of each bond that it has been issued under the provisions of this Act and that it does not constitute an indebtedness or obligation of the local governmental unit or any other county, city, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of the state or of the state, or a loan of credit of any of them, within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provisions.

Investment of Funds

Sec. 19. The corporation, or any trustee or custodian on behalf of the corporation, may invest any funds held by it as provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds.

Exception from Construction and Bidding Requirements for Public Buildings

Sec. 20. The acquisition, construction, or rehabilitation of a private residential development or a home shall not be subject to any requirements relating to public buildings, structures, grounds, works, or improvements imposed by the laws of the State of Texas or any other similar requirements, and any requirement of competitive bidding or restriction imposed on the procedure for award of contracts for such purpose or the lease, sale, or other disposition of property of the local governmental unit is not applicable to any action taken under authority of this Act.

Exemption from Taxation

Sec. 21. It is hereby determined that the creation of the corporation is in all respects for the benefit of the people of the state, for the improvement of their health and welfare, and for the promotion of the economy, and that said purposes are public purposes and the corporation, being a public instrumentality and nonprofit corporation, will be performing an essential governmental function on behalf of and for the benefit of the general public, the local governmental unit, and the state. Accordingly, the corporation and all properties at any time owned by it and the income therefrom and all bonds issued by it, and their transfer, and the income therefrom shall be exempt from the franchise tax, license and recording fees, and all other taxes imposed by the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof as public property used for public purposes.

Bonds and Coupons are Securities

Sec. 22. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act, and coupons, if any, representing interest thereon, shall when delivered be deemed and construed to be a "security" within the meaning of Chapter 8, Investment Securities, of the Uniform Commercial Code, as amended (Chapter 8, Title 1, Business & Commerce Code), and shall be exempt securities under the Texas Securities Act, as amended (Article 581-1 et seq., Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). No contract under this Act shall be a security within the meaning of the Texas Securities Act.

Bonds are Legal and Authorized Investments and Security

Sec. 23. Bonds issued under the provisions of this Act shall be and are hereby declared to be legal and authorized investments for any banks; savings banks; trust companies; building and loan associations; insurance companies; fiduciaries; trustees and guardians; and sinking funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas. Such bonds shall be eligible to secure the deposit of any and all public funds of the State of Texas and any and all public funds of cities, towns, villages, counties, school districts, and other political corporations or subdivisions of the State of Texas, and they shall be lawful and sufficient security for said deposits at their face value when accompanied by all unmatured coupons, if any, appurtenant thereto.

Nonliability of Local Governmental Unit and the State

Sec. 24. The local governmental unit and the state shall not in any event be liable in any manner for or with respect to the bonds of the corporation, and none of the corporation's agreements or obligations shall be construed to constitute an agreement, obligation, or indebtedness of the local governmental unit or the state within the meaning of any constitutional or statutory provision whatsoever.

Nonprofit Corporation—Disposition of Earnings

Sec. 25. The corporation shall be a public nonprofit corporation. No dividends shall ever be paid, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation shall be distributed to, or enure to the benefit of, its directors or officers, or other private person, association, or corporation, except in reasonable amounts for services rendered, and except that in the event the board of directors of the corporation shall determine that sufficient provision has been made for the full payment of the expenses, bonds, and other obligations of the corporation, then any net earnings of the corporation thereafter accruing shall be paid to the local governmental unit on behalf of which the corporation was organized; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the board of directors from transferring all or any part of its properties in accordance with the terms of any contract or agreement entered into by the corporation.

Books and Records

Sec. 26. The corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of proceedings of its board of directors.

Completion of Corporate Purpose—Dissolution

Sec. 27. Whenever the board of directors of the corporation shall by resolution determine that the purposes for which the corporation was formed have been substantially complied with and all bonds theretofore issued and all obligations theretofore incurred by the corporation have been fully paid, then the directors of the corporation shall thereupon execute and file for record in the office of the secretary of state a certificate of dissolution reciting such facts and declaring the corporation to be dissolved. Such certificate of dissolution shall be executed under the corporate seal of the corporation. Upon the filing of such certificate of dissolution the corporation shall stand dissolved, the title to all funds and properties owned by it at the time of such dissolution shall vest in the local governmental unit, and possession of such funds and properties shall forthwith be delivered to such local governmental unit.

Powers not Restricted—Law Complete in Itself

Sec. 28. Neither this Act nor anything herein contained shall be construed as a restriction or limitation upon any powers which the corporation might otherwise have under any laws of this state, but shall be construed as cumulative of any such powers. No proceedings, notice, or approval shall be required for the organization of the corporation or the issuance of any bonds or any instrument as security therefor, except as herein provided, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to deprive the state and its governmental subdivisions of their respective police powers over properties of the corporation, or to impair any power thereover of any official or agency of the state and its governmental subdivisions which may be otherwise provided by law.

Residential Development Sites

Sec. 29. Any local governmental unit may transfer any residential development site to a corporation by sale or lease. Such transfer may be authorized by a resolution of the governing body of the local governmental unit without submission of the question to the voters, and without regard to the requirements, restrictions, limitations, or other provisions contained in any other general, special, or local law. Such project site may be within or without the local governmental unit or partially within and partially without the local governmental unit.

Powers Additional to Those Granted by Other Laws—Severability

Sec. 30. The powers conferred by this Act shall be in addition and supplementary to, and the limitations by this Act shall not affect the powers conferred by any other general, special, or local law. If any one or more sections or provisions of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, shall ever be held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the remaining provisions of this Act and the application thereof to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held to be invalid, shall not be affected thereby, it being the intention of this legislature to enact the remaining provisions of this Act notwithstanding such invalidity.

Sec. 8. The Commission shall provide for the classification of all firemen and policemen. Such classification shall be provided by ordinance of the City Council, or legislative body. Said City Council, or legislative body, shall prescribe by ordinance the number of positions of each classification.

No classification now in existence, or that may be hereafter created in such cities, shall ever be filled except by examination held in accordance with the provisions of this law. All persons in each classification shall be paid the same salary and in addition thereto be paid any of the following types of pay that they may be entitled to: (1) longevity pay; (2) seniority pay; (3) educational incentive pay; or (4) assignment pay. This shall not prevent the Head of such Department from designating some person from the next lower classification to fill a position in a higher classification temporarily, but any such person so designated by the Head of the Department shall be paid the base salary of such higher position plus his own longevity pay during the time he performs the duties thereof. The temporary performance of the duties of any such position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall never be construed to promote such person. All vacancies shall be filled by permanent appointment from eligibility lists furnished by the Commission within ninety (90) days after such vacancy occurs.

Firemen and policemen shall be classified as above provided, and shall be under civil service protection except the Chief or Head of such Fire Department or Police Department, by whatever name he may be known.

Said Chiefs or Department Heads shall be appointed by the Chief Executive, and confirmed by the City Council or legislative body except in cities where the Department Heads are elected. In those cities having elective Fire and Police Commissioners the appointments for Chiefs and Heads of those Departments shall be made by the respective Fire or Police Commissioners in whose Department the va-

Said City Council or legislative body may authorize educational incentive pay in addition to regular pay for policemen and firemen within each classification, who have successfully completed courses in an accredited college or university, provided that such courses are applicable toward a degree in law enforcement-police science and include the core curriculum in law enforcement or are applicable toward a degree in fire science. An accredited college or university, as that term is used herein, shall mean any college or university accredited by the nationally recognized accrediting agency and the state board of education in the state wherein said college or university is located and approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education as teaching the core curriculum or its equivalent or, in the case of fire science degree courses, approved or certified by the Texas Commission on Fire Protection, Personnel Standards, and Education. Core curriculum in law enforcement, as used herein, shall mean those courses in law enforcement education as approved by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System and the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

This shall not prevent the Head of such Department from designating some person from the next lower classification to fill a position in a higher classification temporarily, but any such person so designated by the Head of the Department shall be paid the base salary of such higher position plus his own longevity pay during the time he performs the duties thereof. The temporary performance of the duties of any such position by a person who has not been promoted in accordance with the provisions of this Act shall never be construed to promote such person. In those cities having elective Fire and Police Commissioners the appointments for Chiefs and Heads of those Departments shall be made by the respective Fire or Police Commissioners in whose Department the vacancy exists, and such appointments shall be confirmed by the City Council or legislative body.

The City Council or legislative body of a city may authorize educational incentive pay in addition to regular pay for a fireman or policeman who has successfully completed courses at an accredited college or university if the criteria for the educational incentive pay is clearly established, is in writing, and is applied equally to all firemen or policemen meeting the criteria. If all firemen or policemen are afforded an opportunity to qualify themselves for certification, certification pay may be authorized by the City Council or legislative body of the city in addition to regular pay for those firemen meeting the requirements for certification set by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education or policemen meeting the requirements for certification set by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education.

The chief of the police department is not eligible for the assignment pay authorized by this section.

Examination for Eligibility Lists

Sec. 9. The Commission shall make provisions for open, competitive and free examinations for persons making proper application and meeting the requirements as herein prescribed. All eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire and Police Departments shall be created only as a result of such examinations, and no appointments shall ever be made for any position in such Departments except as a result of such examination, which shall be based on the applicant's knowledge of and qualifications for fire fighting and work in the Fire Department, or for police work and work in the Police Department, as shown by competitive examinations in the presence of all applicants for such position, and shall provide for thorough inquiry into the applicant's general education and mental ability. Fire Department entrance examinations may be given at different locations if all applicants are given the same examination and examined in the presence of other applicants. An applicant may not take the examination more than once for each eligibility list. An applicant may not take an examination unless at least one (1) other applicant being tested is present.

An applicant who has served in the armed forces of the United States and who received an honorable discharge shall receive five (5) points in addition to his competitive grades.

The Commission shall keep all eligibility lists for applicants for original positions in the Fire Department or Police Department in effect for not less than six (6) months nor more than twelve (12) months unless the names of all applicants have been referred to the appropriate Department. The Commission shall give a new examination at the end of the twelve (12) month period or sooner, if applicable, or if all names on the list have been referred to the appropriate Department. The Commission shall determine how long each eligibility list shall remain in effect within the six (6) to twelve (12) month period and shall include this information on the eligibility announcement.

Appropriate physical examinations shall be required of all applicants for beginning or promotional positions, and the examinations shall be given by a physician appointed by the Commission and paid by such city; and in the event of rejection by such physician, the applicant may call for further examination by a board of three (3) physicians appointed by the Commission, but at the expense of the applicant, whose findings shall be final. The age and physical requirements shall be set by the Commission in accordance with provisions of this law and shall be the same for all applicants.

No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Fire Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his thirty-sixth birthday unless the applicant has at least five (5) years prior experience as a peace officer. No person shall be certified as eligible for a beginning position with a Police Department who has reached his forty-fifth birthday.

All police officers and firemen coming under this Act must be able to intelligently read and write the English language.

When a question arises as to whether a fireman or policeman is sufficiently physically fit to continue his duties, the employee shall submit a report from his personal physician to the Commission. If the Commission, the head of the Department, or the employee questions the report, the Commission shall appoint a physician to examine the employee and to submit a report to the Commission, to the head of the Department, and to the employee. If the appointed physician's report disagrees with the report of the employee's personal physician, the Commission shall appoint a board of three (3) physicians to examine the employee. Their findings as to the employee's fitness for duty shall determine the issue. The cost of the services of the employee's personal physician shall be paid by the employee. All other costs shall be paid by the city.

A fireman or policeman who has been certified by a physician selected by a firemen's or policemen's relief or retirement fund as having recovered from a disability for which he has been receiving a monthly disability pension shall, with the approval of the Commission and if otherwise qualified, be eligible for reappointment to the classified position that he held as of the date that he qualified for a monthly disability pension.

Sec. 12. A person who has received appointment to the Fire Department or Police Department hereunder, shall serve a probationary period of one (1) year from date of employment with the Department as a Fireman, Policeman, or trainee in an academy. During such probationary period, it shall be the duty of the Fire Chief or head of the Fire Department or Police Chief or head of the Police Department to discharge all Firemen or Policemen whose appointments were not regular, or not made in compliance with the provisions of this Act, or of the rules or regulations of the Commission, and to eliminate from the payrolls any such probationary employee. When Firemen or Policemen, however, have served the full probationary period, having been appointed in substantial compliance with Sections 9, 10, and 11 of this Act and not otherwise, they shall automatically become full-fledged civil service employees and shall have full civil service protection. All positions in the Fire Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, and in the Police Department, except that of Chief or head of the Department, shall be classified by the Commission and the positions filled from the eligibility lists as provided herein.

All offices and positions in the Fire Department or Police Department shall be established by ordinance of the City Council or governing body, provided however that the failure of a City Council or governing body to establish a position by ordinance shall not result in the loss of Civil Service benefits under this Act by any person appointed to such position in substantial compliance with the provisions of Sections 9, 10 and 11 of this Act, or entitled to Civil Service Status under Section 24 of this Act.

Employee Organization Membership Requirements Prohibited

Sec. 12A. An employee who is on probation may not be prohibited from joining or required to join an employee organization. Joining or not joining an employee organization is not a ground for retention or nonretention of an employee who is serving a probationary period.

Notice of Examinations

Sec. 13. At least ten (10) days in advance of any entrance examination and at least thirty (30) days in advance of any examination for promotion, the Commission shall cause to be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall, and the office of the Commission, and in plain view, a notice of such examination, and said notice shall show the position to be filled or for which examination is to be held, with date, time, and place thereof, and in case of examination for promotion, copies of such notice shall be furnished in quantities sufficient for posting in the various stations or subdepartments in which position is to be filled. No one under eighteen (18) years of age shall take any entrance examination, and appointees to the Police and Fire Department shall not have reached their thirty-sixth birthday for entrance into the Fire Department or Police Department. The results of each examination for promotion shall be posted on a bulletin board located in the main lobby of the city hall by the Commission within twenty-four (24) hours after such examination.

Promotions; Filling Vacancies

Sec. 14. The Commission shall make rules and regulations governing promotions and shall hold promotional examinations to provide eligibility lists for each classification in the Police and Fire Departments, which examinations shall be held substantially under the following requirements:

Text of subsection A as amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 544, ch. 258, § 1

A. (1) All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a policeman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

(2) All promotional examinations shall be open to all firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below in salary of that classification for which the examination is to be held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. This section shall be construed so as to allow the lateral crossover between classes. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

A. (1) All promotional examinations shall be open to all policemen who have held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is to be held. In police departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a policeman who has held a continuous position for two (2) years or more immediately prior to the examination at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the classification for which the promotional examination is being offered. When there is not a sufficient number of members in the next lower position with two (2) years' service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission shall open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years' service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held.

(2) All promotional examinations shall be open to all firemen who have ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more in the classification immediately below, in salary, that classification for which the examination is being held. In fire departments that have adopted a classification plan that classifies positions on the basis of similarity in duties and responsibilities, all promotional examinations shall be open to a fireman who has ever held a continuous position for two (2) years or more at the next lower paygrade, if it exists, in the class for which the promotional examination is being offered. This section may not be construed to prohibit lateral crossover between classes. If there are not enough members in the next lower position with two (2) years' service in that position to provide an adequate number of persons to take the examination, the Commission may open the examination to members in that position with less than two (2) years' service. If there is still an insufficient number, the Commission may extend the examination to the members in the second lower position in salary to that for which the examination is to be held with two (2) years' service in that position.

B. Each fireman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points. Each policeman shall be given one (1) point for each year of seniority as a classified police officer in his Department, but never to exceed ten (10) points.

C. The Commission may formulate proper procedure and rules for semi-annual efficiency reports and grade of each member of the Police or Fire Departments. If the Commission compiles efficiency reports for members of the Police or Fire Department, the Commission shall provide a copy of a member's efficiency report to the member. Any fireman or policeman may, within ten (10) days after receiving his efficiency report, make a statement in writing about the efficiency report. The statement shall be placed in his personnel file with the efficiency report.

D. (1)(a) All applicants shall be given an identical examination in the presence of each other, which promotional examination shall be entirely in writing and no part of which shall be by oral interview, and all of the questions asked therein shall be prepared and composed in such a manner that the grading of the examination papers can be promptly completed immediately after the holding of the examination and shall be prepared so as to test the knowledge of the applicants concerning information and facts, and all of said questions shall be based upon material which is a reasonably current publication and has been made reasonably available to all members of the Fire or Police Department involved and shall be based upon the duties of the position sought and upon any study courses given by such Departmental Schools of Instruction. All promotional examination questions must be taken from sources that are listed in a notice that is posted by the Commission at least thirty (30) days before the date of the examination. Firemen or policemen may suggest source materials for promotional examinations. The notice required by Section 13 of this Act may include the name of each source used and the number of questions taken from each source. The Commission may include the chapter of each source. When one of the applicants taking an examination for promotion has completed his answers, the grading of such examination shall begin, and all of the examination papers shall be graded as they are completed, at the place where the examination is given and in the presence of any applicants who wish to remain during the grading.

(b) The Director is responsible for the preparation and security of all promotional examinations. The fairness of the competitive promotional examinations is the responsibility of the Commission, the Director, and any municipal employee involved in the preparation or administration of the examination. A person who knowingly or intentionally reveals any part of a promotional examination to an unauthorized person or a person who knowingly or intentionally receives from an unauthorized person any part of a promotional examination commits a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned for not more than one (1) year in the county jail or both.

(2) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each policeman applicant shall be computed by adding such policeman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on such written examination. Grades on such written examinations shall be based upon a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each applicant's answers to such questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(3) The grade which shall be placed on the eligibility list for each fireman applicant shall be computed by adding the fireman applicant's points for seniority to his grade on the written examination. Grades on the written examination shall be based on a maximum grade of one hundred (100) points and shall be determined entirely by the correctness of each fireman applicant's answers to the questions. The minimum passing score for the written examination is seventy (70) points.

(4) Each applicant shall have the opportunity to examine the source materials, his examination, and his answers thereto together with the grading thereof and if dissatisfied shall, within five (5) working days, appeal the same to the Commission for review in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(5) No fireman shall be eligible for promotion unless he has served in such Department for at least two (2) years at any time prior to the day of such promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years' actual service in such Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. No policeman shall be eligible for promotion unless the policeman has served in the Department for at least two (2) years immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination in the next lower position or other positions specified by the Commission, and no person with less than four (4) years' actual service in the Department shall be eligible for promotion to the rank of captain or its equivalent. Provided, however, that the requirement of two (2) years' service in the Fire Department at any time prior to the day of promotional examination shall not be applicable to those persons recalled on active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. The Police Department's requirement of two (2) years' service immediately preceding the date of the promotional examination does not apply to persons recalled to active military duty for a period not to exceed twenty-four (24) months. Such persons shall be entitled to have time spent on active military duty considered as duty in the Department concerned. However, any person whose absence for active military duty exceeds twelve (12) months, shall be required to serve ninety (90) days upon returning to the Department before he shall become eligible to participate in a promotional examination, such period of time to be considered essential for bringing him up to date on equipment and techniques.

(6) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Fire Department of any city coming under the provisions of this Act who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Fire Protection Personnel Standards and Education at the intermediate level or its equivalent as determined by that Commission and who has not served at least five (5) years as a fully paid fireman. No person may be eligible for appointment as Chief or Head of the Police Department who is not eligible for certification by the Commission on Law Enforcement Officer Standards and Education at the intermediate level or its equivalent as determined by that Commission and who has not served as a bona fide law enforcement officer for five (5) years.

E. (1) Upon written request by the Heads of the Departments for a person to fill a vacancy in any classification, the Commission shall certify to the Head of the Department the three (3) names having the highest grades on such eligibility list for such classification for the vacancy requested to be filled. If fewer than three (3) names remain on the eligibility list, all the names must be submitted to the Head of the Department, and the Head of such Department shall appoint the person having the highest grade, except where such Head of the Department shall have a valid reason for not appointing such highest name, and in such cases he shall, before such appointment, file his reasons in writing, for rejection of the higher name or names, with the Commission, which reasons shall be valid and subject to review by the Commission upon the application of such rejected person.

(2) The name of each person on the eligibility lists shall be submitted to the Head of the Department three (3) times; and if passed over three (3) times with written reasons filed thereafter and not set aside by the Commission, he shall thereafter be dropped from the eligibility list. All promotional eligibility lists shall remain in existence for one (1) year unless exhausted, and at the expiration of one (1) year they shall expire and new examinations may be given.

F. The Commission shall proceed to hold examinations to create eligibility lists within ninety (90) days after a vacancy in any classification occurs, or new positions are created, unless an eligibility list is in existence. If an eligibility list exists, the Commission shall certify within ten (10) days after notification of the vacancy to the Head of the Department the names of persons eligible to fill all promotional positions. The certified names must come from the eligibility list which exists on the date the vacancy occurs.

G. In the event any new classification is established either by name or by increase of salary, the same shall be filled by competitive examination in accordance with this law.

Crossover Promotions

Sec. 14A. (a) In any city in this state having a population of 1,200,000 or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, all members of the police department, who shall be employed by such department with duties in a specialized technical area, to wit: (1) technical class, which includes but is not limited to criminal laboratory analysis and interpretations, and the technical criminal aspects of identification and photography, or (2) communications class, which includes but is not limited to the technical operations of police radio communications, shall be eligible for promotions within their respective classes.

(b) In no event shall the members of the technical class, communications class, or uniformed and detective class be eligible for promotion to a position outside of their respective class. This section shall be construed so as to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the technical and communications classes into the uniformed and detective class of the department; also to preclude the lateral crossover by promotion of members of the uniformed and detective class into the technical and communications classes of the department. In the event a member of one class desires to change classes, such may be accomplished upon qualification and only by entry into the new class at the lowest entry level of that class.

(c) This section shall not operate so as to prevent the chief of police, assistant chiefs of police, and deputy chiefs of police or their equivalent, by whatever name or title they may be called, from exercising the full sanctions, powers, duties, and authority of their respective offices in the supervision, management, and control over the uniformed and detective class, technical class, and communications class.

(d) All provisions of this article regarding eligibility lists, examinations, appointments, and promotions shall apply to members of the technical class and communications class, uniform class and detective class. However, said provisions shall apply only to the appointment and promotion of a member of a particular class to a new position within such class.

Purpose of Law; Hearings

Sec. 16a. It is hereby declared that the purpose of the Firemen and Policemen's Civil Service Law is to secure to the cities affected thereby efficient Police and Fire Departments, composed of capable personnel, free from political influence, and with permanent tenure of employment as public servants. The members of the Civil Service Commissions are hereby directed to administer the civil service law in accordance with this purpose; and when sitting as a board of appeals for a suspended or aggrieved employee who has invoked any review procedures under the provisions of this Act, they are to conduct such hearing fairly and impartially under the provisions of this law and are to render a fair and just decision, considering only the evidence presented before them in such hearing.

Procedure before Commission

Sec. 17. In order for a Fireman or Policeman to appeal to the Commission from any action for which an appeal or review is provided under the terms of this Act, it shall only be necessary for him to file within ten (10) days with the Commission an appeal setting forth the basis of his appeal. The appeal shall include a statement denying the truth of the charge as made, a statement taking exception to the legal sufficiency of such charges, a statement alleging that the recommended action does not fit the offense or alleged offense, or any combination of the statements, and in addition, a request for a hearing by the Commission. In all hearings, appeals, and reviews of every kind and character, wherein the Commission is performing an adjudicatory function, the employee shall have the right to be represented by council or any person of his choice. The employee may request the Commission to subpoena any books, records, documents, papers, accounts, or witnesses that the employee considers pertinent to his case. The request to have materials subpoenaed must be made at least ten (10) days before the date of the hearing. If the Commission does not subpoena the requested material, at least three (3) days prior to the hearing date, it shall make a written report to the employee stating the reason it will not subpoena the requested material, and this report shall be read into the public records of the Commission hearing. The witnesses may be placed under the rule. All such proceedings shall be public. The Commission shall consider only evidence submitted at the hearing. The Commission shall have the authority to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and for the production of documentary material. The Commission shall maintain a permanent public record of all proceedings with copies available at cost.

Appeal to District Court

Sec. 18. In the event any Fireman or Policeman is dissatisfied with any decision of the Commission, he may, within ten (10) days after the rendition of such final decision, file a petition in the District Court, asking that the decision be set aside, and such case shall be tried de novo. Such cases shall be advanced on the docket of the District Court, and shall be given a preference setting over all other cases. The court in such actions may grant such legal or equitable relief as may be appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this Act, including reinstatement or promotion with back pay where an order of suspension, dismissal, or demotion is set aside. The court may award reasonable attorney's fees to the prevailing party and assess court costs against the nonprevailing party. If the court finds for the fireman or policeman, the court shall order the city to pay lost wages to the fireman or policeman.

Disciplinary Suspensions

Sec. 20. The head of either the Fire or Police Department shall have the power to suspend any officer or employee under his jurisdiction or supervision for disciplinary purposes, for reasonable periods, not to exceed fifteen (15) days; provided, that in every such case, the department head shall file with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, a written statement of action, and the Commission shall, upon appeal from the suspended officer or employee, hold a public hearing under Section 17 of this Act. The Commission shall determine whether just cause exists therefor. In the event the department head fails to file said statement with the Commission within one hundred and twenty (120) hours, the suspension shall be void and the employee shall be entitled to his full salary. The Commission shall have the power to reverse the decision of the department head and to instruct him immediately to restore such employee to his position and to repay the employee for any lost wages. If the Commission finds that the period of disciplinary suspension should be reduced, it may order a reduction in the period of suspension. In the event such department head refuses to obey the order of the Commission, then the provisions with reference to salaries of the employees and to the discharge of the department head as well as the other provisions of Section 16, pertaining to such refusal of the department head, shall apply.

Military Leave of Absence

Sec. 22a. The Civil Service Commission on written application of a member of the fire or police department shall grant military leave of absence without pay to such member to enable him to enter military service of the United States in any of its branches. Such leave of absence may not exceed the compulsory military service or the basic minimum enlistment period for that branch of service. The Commission shall grant a leave of absence to a member of the fire or police department for initial training or annual duty in military reserves or the national guard. The Civil Service Commission shall grant such leave retroactively back to the commencement of the Korean War. Any such member receiving military leave of absence hereunder shall be entitled to be returned to the position in the department held by him at the time the leave of absence is granted, upon the termination of his active military service, provided he receives an Honorable Discharge and remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of that position; and further provided he makes application for reinstatement within ninety (90) days after his discharge. Upon being returned to said position, such member shall receive full seniority credit for the time spent in the military service. During the absence from the department of any such member to whom military leave of absence shall have been granted by the Civil Service Commission the position in the department held by such member shall be filled in accordance with the other provisions of the Firemen's and Policemen's Civil Service Act subject to the person filling such position being replaced by the member to whom military leave of absence has been granted upon his return to active duty with the department. Any person so replaced and remaining with the department and by reason of such replacement being returned to a position lower in grade or compensation shall have a preferential right for subsequent appointment or promotion to the same or similar position of that from which he has been replaced over any eligibility list for such position, provided he remains physically and mentally fit to discharge the duties of such position.

Penalties

Sec. 25a. Any chief executive of a city who knowingly or intentionally fails or refuses to appoint the Civil Service Commissioners provided by Section 3 of this Act within sixty (60) days after the city has adopted this Act commits a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200). Each day after the 60-day deadline that the chief executive fails or refuses to make an appointment constitutes a separate offense. A chief executive or any city official who knowingly or intentionally refuses to implement this Act or attempts to obstruct the enforcement of this Act commits a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Two Hundred Dollars ($200) for each offense.

Sick and Injury Leaves of Absence

Sec. 26. Permanent and temporary employees in the classified service shall be allowed a total of sick leave with full pay computed upon a basis of one and one-fourth (1-1/4) full working days allowed for each full month employed in a calendar year, so as to total fifteen (15) working days to an employee's credit each twelve (12) months.

Employees shall be allowed to accumulate fifteen (15) working days of sick leave with pay in one (1) calendar year.

Sick leave with pay may be accumulated without limit and may be used while an employee is unable to work because of any bona fide illness. In the event that the said employee can conclusively prove that the illness was incurred while in performance of his duties, an extension of sick leave in case of exhaustion of time shall be granted.

In the event that a Fireman or Policeman for any reason leaves the classified service, he shall receive, in a lump sum payment, the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave, provided that if the Fireman or Policeman has more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave, the employer may limit the payment to that sum equal to the sum that the employee would have been paid had he been allowed to use the ninety (90) days of accumulated sick leave during the last six (6) months of employment. Provided, however, that such payments shall not be based upon more than ninety (90) working days of accumulated sick leave. The lump-sum payment provided in this section is calculated as follows: the employee is compensated for the accumulated time at the highest permanent classification of pay for which the employee was eligible during the last six (6) months of employment. The employee is paid for the same period of time the employee would have been paid if the sick leave had been taken but excluding additional holidays and any sick leave or vacation time which the employee might have accrued during the ninety (90) working days.

If an active Fireman or Policeman dies as a result of a line of duty injury or line of duty illness, the entire amount of his accumulated sick leave shall be paid as provided in this section. Provided, that in order to facilitate the settlement of the accounts of deceased employees of the Fire or Police Departments, all unpaid compensation due such employee at the time of his death shall be paid to the person or persons surviving at the date of death, in the following order or precedence and such payments shall be a bar to recovery by any other person of amounts so paid.

First, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries designated by the employee in writing to receive such compensation filed with the Civil Service Commission prior to the employee's death;

Second, if there be no such beneficiary, to the widow or widower of such employee;

Third, if there be no such beneficiary or surviving spouse, to the child or children of such employee, and descendants of deceased children, by representation;

Fourth, if none of the above, to the parents of such employee, or the survivor of them;

Fifth, if there be none of the above, to the duly appointed legal representative of the estate of the deceased employee, or if there be none, to the person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws of descent and distribution of the State of Texas.

Provided that all such cities coming under the provisions of this Act shall provide injury leaves of absence and line of duty illness leaves of absence for Firemen and Policemen with full pay for periods of time commensurate with the nature of the line of duty illness or injuries for at least one (1) year. At the expiration of said one-year period, the City Council or governing body may extend such line of duty illness or injury leave, at full or reduced pay, provided that in cities that have a Firemen's or Policemen's Pension Fund, that if said injured employee's salary should be reduced below sixty per cent (60%) of his regular monthly salary, said employee shall have the option of being retired on pension until able to return to duty.

If there are no pension benefits available to an employee who is temporarily disabled by a line of duty injury or illness and the year at full pay and any extensions which may have been granted by the employer have expired, the employee may use accumulated sick leave, vacation time, and other accrued benefits before being temporarily placed on leave.

If an employee is temporarily disabled by an injury or illness not related to the employee's line of duty, the employee may use all sick leave, vacation time, and any other time the employee may have accumulated before being placed on temporary leave.

After recovery from a temporary disability, a Fireman or Policeman shall be reinstated at the same rank and with the same seniority the person had before going on temporary leave. Another Fireman or Policeman may voluntarily do the work of an injured or ill Fireman or Policeman until the Fireman or Policeman returns to duty.

Termination of Service, Lump Sum Payments: Cities of 1,200,000 or More, Accumulated Sick Leave; Cities of 650,000 or More, Accumulated Vacation Leave

Sec. 26(b). (a) In any city in this State having a population of one million, two hundred thousand (1,200,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason or the beneficiaries of any fireman or policeman who loses his life as a result of a line of duty injury or illness shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated sick leave. Sick leave shall be accumulated without limit.

(b) In any city in this State having a population of six hundred and fifty thousand (650,000) or more inhabitants, according to the last preceding federal census, a fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service for any reason shall receive in a lump sum payment the full amount of his salary for the period of his accumulated vacation leave, provided that such payment shall be based upon not more than sixty (60) working days of accumulated vacation leave. Any fireman or policeman who leaves the classified service or loses his life as the result of a line of duty injury or illness or the beneficiaries of such fireman or policeman shall be paid the full amount of his salary for the total number of his working days of accumulated vacation leave.

Adoption of Act by Vote or Otherwise

Sec. 27(a). Provided, however, that the provisions of this Act as amended by this House Bill No. 79, passed at the Fifty-fifth Regular Session of the Legislature, shall not apply to any city unless such city has already adopted and has in effect the provisions of this Act before the effective date of this amending Act, or unless first determined at an election at which the adoption or rejection of this Act shall be submitted. Upon receiving a petition signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than ten per cent (10%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election, the governing body of said city shall call and hold an election within sixty (60) days after said petition has been filed with governing body. If at said election a majority of the votes cast shall favor the adoption of this Act, said governing body shall put such Act into effect within thirty (30) days after the beginning of the first fiscal year of said city after said election. The question shall be submitted for the vote of the qualified electors as follows:

FOR the adoption of the Firemen's and Police-men's Civil Service Act.

AGAINST the adoption of the Firemen's and Po-licemen's Civil Service Act.

When any election has been held in a city, at which election the adoption or rejection of Chapter 325, Acts of the Fiftieth Legislature, 1947, (Vernon's Annotated Civil Statutes, Article 1269m) has been submitted, whether such election has been held prior to the effective date of this amending Act or subse-quent thereto, a petition for another such election shall not be filed for at least one (1) year subsequent to the election so held; and said petition for any such election after the first election shall be signed by qualified voters in said city in number not less than twenty per cent (20%) of the total number voting in the last preceding municipal election; and any such election after the first election shall be held at the next general municipal election to be held in such city after the filing of such petition.

This Act may be adopted to apply only to a Fire Department or a Police Department. If the Act, as adopted, is to be limited to one or the other depart-ment, the ballot question shall be printed to reflect which department will be covered by this Act.

Cities Over 10,000; Overtime.

Text of section as amended by Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 1045, ch. 475, § 1

Sec. 6A. It shall be unlawful for any city having more than ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants, accord- ing to the last preceding Federal Census, to require or permit any policeman to work more hours during any calendar week than the number of hours in the normal work week of the majority of the employees of said city other than firemen and policemen.

Produce Recovery Fund and Board

Sec. 6. (a) There is established a special fund with the State Treasurer to be known as the Produce Recovery Fund and to be administered by the Commissioner, without appropriation, for the payment of claims against commission merchants and dealers and for administration of the claims process under both this Act and Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). No more than ten percent (10%) of the fund may be expended during any one year for administration of the claims process.

(b) There is established the Produce Recovery Fund Board. The board consists of three members appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. One member appointed shall be a producer, one shall be a commission merchant licensed under this Act or Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), and one shall be a member of the general public. Each member must reside in a different state senatorial district. In making the initial appointments, the Governor shall designate that the term of one member expires in 1979, that one expires in 1981, and that one expires in 1983. Thereafter, members serve for staggered terms of six years. The terms of office for members expire January 31 of odd-numbered years. Members of the board are entitled to per diem and reimbursement for actual expenses incurred while carrying out their duties.

(c) The Produce Recovery Fund Board shall:

(1) advise the Commissioner on all matters pertaining to the Produce Recovery Fund, including the fund's budget and the revenues necessary to accomplish the purposes of the fund;

(2) advise the Commissioner in the promulgation of rules relating to the payment of claims from the fund and to the administration of the fund; and

(3) conduct adjudicative hearings, with a quorum of the board members present, on disputed claims presented for payment from the fund.

(d) All commission merchants, retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit exceed Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) a year, and retailers who employ buying agents who buy directly from producers shall, in addition to the license fee herein prescribed, deliver to the Commissioner, together with their application for license, a fee of Two Hundred Dollars ($200). All retailers whose annual sales of vegetables and citrus fruit comprise seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the retailer's total sales and whose annual purchases of vegetables and citrus fruit are less than Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000) shall pay a fee of Fifty Dollars ($50) in addition to the license fee required in Section 5 of this Act. The fee must be paid annually at the time application is made for licensing, and the Commissioner may not issue a license to a person who fails to pay the fee. All fees collected under this Section shall be paid into the Produce Recovery Fund.

(e) A person with whom a commission merchant deals in purchasing, handling, selling, and accounting for sales of vegetables and who is aggrieved by an action of that commission merchant as the result of a violation of terms or conditions of a contract made by that commission merchant may initiate a claim against the Produce Recovery Fund in accordance with the provisions of this Section. The aggrieved party must file with the Commissioner a sworn complaint against the commission merchant and a filing fee of Fifteen Dollars ($15). The filing fee shall be refunded if the aggrieved party is awarded recovery from the fund. The Commissioner shall conduct an investigation of the complaint and shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party. If the amount determined by the Commissioner is not disputed by the merchant or by the aggrieved party, the Commissioner shall pay the claim, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. If the amount is disputed, the Produce Recovery Fund Board shall conduct a hearing on the claim in the manner provided for contested cases under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes). After a hearing on the disputed amount, the board shall determine the amount due the aggrieved party and the Commissioner shall pay the aggrieved party that amount, within the limits prescribed in this Section, from the Produce Recovery Fund. A party not satisfied with the decision of the board may appeal that decision in the manner provided under the Administrative Procedure and Texas Register Act (Article 6252-13a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes).

(f) In making payments from the Produce Recovery Fund, the Commissioner may not pay the aggrieved party more than sixty percent (60%) of any claim for more than One Hundred Dollars ($100). The total payment of all claims arising from the same transaction may not exceed Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000). The total payment of claims against a single commission merchant may not exceed Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000) in any one year.

(g) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a commission merchant, the Commissioner is subrogated to all rights of the aggrieved party against that merchant to the extent of the amount paid to the aggrieved party.

(h) If the Commissioner pays a claim against a commission merchant, the merchant must either reimburse the fund immediately or agree in writing to reimburse the fund on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. In addition, the commission merchant must either pay the aggrieved party immediately the amount due him or agree in writing to pay the aggrieved party on a schedule to be determined by rule of the Commissioner. The payments made to the fund and to the aggrieved party shall include interest at the rate of eight percent (8%) a year. If the commission merchant does not reimburse the fund or pay the aggrieved party, or does not agree in writing to do so, or defaults on a scheduled payment, the Commissioner shall cancel his license and may not issue a new license to that commission merchant for four years from the date of cancellation. If the merchant is a corporation, no officer or director, and no person owning more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the stock in that corporation, may be licensed as a commission merchant under this Act during the four-year period in which the corporation is ineligible for licensing. An individual or corporation who is ineligible for licensing under this Act is ineligible for licensing as a commission merchant, dealer, or contract dealer under Chapter 236, Acts of the 45th Legislature, Regular Session, 1937, as amended (Article 118b, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), during the period of ineligibility.

(i) The Commissioner may not pay any claim against a commission merchant who was not licensed at the time of the transaction on which the claim is based and he may not pay any claim against a cash dealer.

(j) Payments from the Produce Recovery Fund during a fiscal year may not exceed the amount of payments into the fund during that fiscal year, except that surplus funds remaining at the end of each fiscal year may be credited to the funds available for the payment of claims during any succeeding year.

(k) With the advice of the Produce Recovery Fund Board, the Commissioner shall promulgate rules, consistent with this Act, for the payment of claims from the Produce Recovery Fund.

Cancellation of License; Complaint; Hearing and Determination

Sec. 7. Any license issued under the provisions of this Act shall remain in full force and effect for a period of twelve (12) months from and after the date of issuance thereof unless said permit shall be cancelled in the manner hereinafter provided and pursuant to the proceedings hereinafter required, to wit: (a) any party aggrieved, injured or damaged by virtue of any violations of the terms and provisions of this Act by any licensee or by the transporting or buying agent of any licensee hereunder, may file with the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent or employee a verified complaint, setting out the specific violations complained of. The complaint must be filed within twelve (12) months from the date of the act that injured the complaining party.

(b) The Commissioner shall set a date not more than ten (10) days from the receipt of such complaint for the hearing thereof; and notify the person complained of, furnishing him with a copy of such complaint, by registered mail to the last known address of such person.

(c) The Commissioner may, at his discretion, recess the hearing provided for in this Section from day to day if in his discretion the ends of justice demand such continuance; for the purpose of said hearings the Commissioner shall have the authority to summon witnesses; to inquire into matters of fact; to administer oaths, and to issue the subpoena duces tecum, for the purpose of obtaining any books, records, instruments, or writing, and other papers pertinent to the investigation at hand.

(d) Upon the conclusion of said hearing and the introduction of all evidence by the respective parties thereto, the Commissioner shall make his decision on the basis of the evidence introduced therein, and shall, if the evidence warrants, issue his order canceling the license of the person complained of.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 8 and 9]

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 10 and 11]

Sec. 12. (a) Any license issued hereunder will authorize the licensee and none other, to engage in the business as a dealer for one year from date of issuance, at which time said license shall expire and become null and void. Any license issued to applicant under the provisions of this Act, which expired by its own terms, may be renewed upon completion of a renewal application and payment to the Commissioner of Agriculture of the proper license fee as provided for the original issuance thereof. Said license and the identification cards hereinafter provided shall not be assignable and any attempt to assign same shall void such license or identification card. Upon application to the Commissioner by any licensed dealer, a reasonable number of "buying agent" and "transporting agent" identification cards may be issued and credited to such dealer, under such rules and regulations as said Commissioner may prescribe, and said Commissioner is hereby empowered to charge a fee not to exceed One Dollar ($1) for each card so issued.

[See Compact Edition, Volume 3 for text of 12(b) to 13]

The Commissioner shall take such action and hold such public hearing as in his judgment are shown to be necessary after such investigations, and shall take the proper action with reference to the cancellation or suspension of the license of any dealer hereunder shown to have been guilty of a violation of the terms of this Act. Such hearings shall be held in the county where violations are alleged to have occurred. Any order made by the Commissioner with reference to the revocation or cancellation of any license granted under the provisions of this Act, shall be subject to review by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) If a person who has received at least 15 days' notice of an order of the Commissioner refuses to comply with that order, the Commissioner may seek temporary or permanent relief to require compliance. The district court has jurisdiction to grant this relief.

Funds Covered by Act

Sec. 2. (a) This Act applies to any funds in the custody or control of a county or precinct officer, including a court, that a person is entitled to receive on demand. That a court must enter an order directing that the funds be paid or that an officer must perform a ministerial act for them to be paid does not remove the funds from the coverage of this Act.

(b) This Act does not apply to funds if a controversy exists about who is entitled to receive them, nor does it apply to a claim, the validity of which is unquestioned, if there is a controversy regarding the amount of funds a person is entitled to receive.

Notice

Sec. 3. (a) If a county or precinct officer has custody or control of funds covered by this Act and the person entitled to receive them does not claim them within a reasonable time after becoming entitled to them, the officer shall give the person a written notice stating:

- (1) that the officer holds funds belonging to the person;
- (2) the amount of the funds; and
- (3) that the funds will become the property of the county if the person does not claim them within the time prescribed by law.

(b) Except as provided by Subsection (d) of this section, the officer shall send the notice to the person at the person's last known address by certified mail, delivery restricted to addressee. If no address is available or if the letter is returned undelivered, the officer shall publish the notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for at least two consecutive weeks.

(c) The cost of postage, if notice is given by mail, and the cost of newspaper publication, if notice by publication is required, shall be deducted from the funds to which the notice applies. If notice by publication is given for more than one item of funds in a single advertisement, an equal share of the cost of the advertisement shall be paid from each item of funds.

(d) If the cost that would be assessable for giving notice equals or exceeds the funds to which the notice applies, notice shall be given by posting it at the courthouse at or near the place where notices of meetings of public bodies are posted. The notice must remain posted for at least 14 consecutive days.

Unclaimed Funds

Sec. 4. If funds are not claimed within four years after notice is given, they become the property of the county. The officer shall give them to the county treasurer, who shall deposit them in the county general fund.

Funds Held on Effective Date of Act

Sec. 5. (a) If on the effective date of this Act a county or precinct officer holds funds covered by this Act, the officer shall give the notice required by this Act within 90 days after the effective date of this Act.

(b) If the funds are not claimed on or before the 180th day after the date notice is given or the fourth anniversary of the date on which the person entitled to receive them became so entitled, whichever date is later, the funds become the property of the county and shall be given to the county treasurer. The treasurer shall deposit them in the county general fund.

(c) If the person entitled to receive the funds is a successor in interest of the person originally entitled to receive them, the four-year period prescribed by Subsection (b) of this section runs from the date on which the person originally entitled to receive the funds became so entitled.

Article

1605a-5. Auxiliary Courthouses and Facilities.

Art. 1605. Location of Offices

(a) The County Judge, Sheriff, Clerks of the District and of the County Courts, County Treasurer, Assessor and Collector of Taxes, County Surveyor and County Attorney of the several counties of this State, shall keep their offices at the county seats of their respective counties; provided, however, that in all counties having a city or cities, other than the county seats, within their boundaries, having a population of five thousand (5,000) and over, and in counties of over three hundred fifty thousand (350,000), according to the last Federal Census, the Assessor and Collector of Taxes when authorized by order of the Commissioners Court may maintain a branch office in said city or cities, and may appoint one or more Deputies for said offices, and the salaries to be paid said Deputies together with the office rent and other expenses incidental to maintaining said offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes and shall be paid in the manner now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes; and provided further that in all counties having a population of more than seventy thousand (70,000), according to the last Federal Census, and containing one or more cities or towns, other than the county seat, which has in excess of one thousand (1,000) inhabitants, according to the last Federal Census, said Tax Assessor and Collector with the consent and approval of the Commissioners Court may maintain a branch office and may appoint a Deputy Tax Collector in each such town or city, who shall have the right to collect taxes from all persons who desire to pay their taxes to him, and to issue a valid receipt therefor. Such Deputy shall enter into such bond, payable to the County Judge of the County, as the Tax Assessor and Collector and Commissioners Court of the county may require. The period of time such branch offices shall be maintained, and the salary of such Deputy Collector and the period of time he shall hold such office shall be fixed by the Commissioners Court and such Deputy Collector shall be subject to all of the terms and provisions of the law relating to Deputy Tax Collectors. The Tax Collector shall remain liable on his bonds for all taxes collected by such Deputy, and nothing herein shall be construed as a limitation on the liability of the bonds of either the Tax Collector or such Deputy. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as making it mandatory upon the Assessor and Collector of Taxes and the Commissioners Courts of such counties to maintain such branch offices and appoint such Deputies, but the establishment of such branch offices and the appointment shall wholly be within the discretion of the Commissioners Courts of such counties. When such branch office or offices are established and a Deputy or Deputies are appointed hereunder, the salary or salaries to be paid and expense necessary to maintain said office or offices shall be considered as a part of the necessary expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes, and shall be paid as now provided by law for the payment of the expenses of the Assessor and Collector of Taxes.

(b) If any branch office is established under this Article or under any other law permitting the establishing of subcourthouses, office buildings, or branch offices and if the Assessor and Collector of Taxes maintains at least one (1) full-time, permanent employee at the subcourthouse, office building, or branch office, boat certificates of number and boat and outboard motor certificates of title shall be issued or the applications for those certificates shall be accepted as provided by Subchapters B and B-1, Chapter 31, Parks and Wildlife Code, as amended,¹ at the subcourthouse, office building, or branch office.

The Commissioners Court shall have the care and custody of such buildings and may place such limitations as it may see fit on the authorization and maintenance of branch offices.

Sec. 2. Said office building and/or jail may be provided for, maintained and repaired by the issuance of bonds as is provided by Chapters 1 and 2, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925, and all amendments thereto,¹ or to provide, maintain, the repair the same through the issuance of evidences of indebtedness in the same manner as courthouses and jails at the county seats, and the taxes may be levied therefor in the same manner and subject to the same limitations as for courthouses and jails at the county seat; provided, however, that the cost of any such office building and/or jail shall not exceed more than two percent of the taxable values of the county for the last preceding year.

Sec. 3. All acts heretofore taken and proceedings heretofore adopted by the Commissioners Court in any county providing for the purchasing of a site and erecting and equipping an office building for county officers in any city other than the county seat of such county, all evidences of indebtedness heretofore authorized to finance the same, and all tax levies heretofore made in behalf of such evidences of indebtedness are in all things confirmed, approved and validated; provided, however, nothing in this Act shall validate any evidence of indebtedness the validity of which is in question in a court of competent jurisdiction on the effective date of this Act if the ultimate decision of the court is against the validity thereof.

Sec. 2. (a) Any district, county, or other court required by law to hold its terms at the county seat may hold its terms at a court facility provided under this Act, even though the facility is located in a part of the municipality designated as the county seat that was added to the municipality after it became the county seat.

Offices

Sec. 3. Any district, county, or precinct officer who is required by law to maintain an office at the county seat may maintain an office and keep official records at a facility provided under this Act, but the officer must continue to maintain an office at the county seat.

Auxiliary Courts within the County

Sec. 4. In addition to auxiliary courthouses and facilities within a municipality designated as the county seat, the commissioners court of a county may authorize specific geographic locations within the county and outside the limits of a municipality designated as the county seat as auxiliary courts for purposes of conducting nonjury proceedings and may designate those locations as auxiliary county seats for such purposes.

Previous Actions Validated

Sec. 5. If before the effective date of this Act the commissioners court of a county undertook to provide a facility covered by this Act or to acquire land for a facility covered by this Act, and the location of the proposed facility or the land was in a part of the city, town, or village designated as the county seat that was not a part of the municipality when it was designated as the county seat, all governmental acts and proceedings of the commissioners court relating to that undertaking, including any evidences of indebtedness authorized and any tax levies made for the evidences of indebtedness, are validated. This section does not apply to any matter that, on the effective date of this Act:

- (1) is involved in litigation, if the litigation ultimately results in the matter being held invalid by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction; or
- (2) has been held invalid by a final judgment of a court of jurisdiction.

Effect on Other Laws

Sec. 6. (a) This Act does not limit authority of a commissioners court under any other law with regard to providing facilities of the type covered by this Act.

(b) To the extent this Act conflicts with Article 1602 or 1605, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, as amended, or any other statute, this Act prevails. [Acts 1979, 66th Leg., p. 382, ch. 174, §§ 1 to 6, eff. May 15, 1979.]

Acts 1977, 65th Leg., p. 1278, ch. 500, classified as art. 1666b, and providing for a budget officer in certain counties over 1,200,000, provides in § 12 that to the extent that any provisions of the Act conflict with provisions in this article, such provisions in this article are repealed to the extent of the conflict.

Art. 1666b. Budget Officer in Certain Counties Over 1,200,000

Authorization to Appoint

Sec. 1. In the preparation of the county budget, the commissioners court in counties having a population in excess of 1,200,000, but excluding any county with a city with more than 1,000,000 in population as shown by the last preceding United States Census may appoint a budget officer to prepare a county budget for the current fiscal and calendar year.

Abolition of Office

Sec. 2. A county which has established an office of county budget officer may abolish such office only by formal action of the commissioners court taken after February 1 and before June 1, at which time the county auditor shall assume all lawful responsibilities as the chief budget officer of the county.

Preparation of Budget

Sec. 3. Such budget shall be carefully itemized so as to make possible as clear a comparison as practicable between expenditures included in the proposed budget and actual expenditures for the same or similar purposes for the preceding year. The budget shall be so prepared as to show with reasonable accuracy each of the various projects for which appropriations are set up in the budget and the estimated amount of money carried in the budget for each of such projects.

Contents of Budget

Sec. 4. The county budget officer shall obtain from the county auditor the necessary information so that the budget will contain a complete financial statement of the county showing all outstanding obligations of the county, the cash on hand to the credit of every and each fund of the county government, the funds received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the previous year, the funds and revenue estimated by the auditor to be received from all sources during the ensuing year, together with a statement of all accounts and contracts on which sums are due to or by the county as of December 31 of the year preceding, except taxes and court costs.

Limitation on Payments; Budget Available for Public Inspection

Sec. 5. Until a budget has been adopted by the commissioners court, no payments shall be made during the current year except for emergencies and for obligations legally incurred prior to January 1 of such year for salaries, utilities, materials, and supplies. A copy of the budget shall be filed with the clerk of the county court and the county auditor, and it shall be available for inspection to the public.

Public Hearings; Changes in Budget

Sec. 6. The commissioners court in each county shall provide for a public hearing on the county budget, which hearing shall take place on some date to be named by the commissioners court within seven calendar days after the filing of the budget and prior to January 31 of the current year. Public notice shall be given that on the date of said hearing the budget as prepared by the county budget officer will be considered by the commissioners court. Said notice shall name the hour, the date, and the place the hearing shall be conducted and shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation in said county. Any taxpayer of such county shall have the right to be present and participate in said hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the budget as prepared by the county budget officer shall be acted upon by the commissioners court. The court shall have authority to make such changes in the budget as in its judgment the facts and the law warrant and the interest of the taxpayers demand, provided the amounts budgeted for current expenditures from the various funds of the county shall not exceed the balances in said funds as of January 1, plus the anticipated revenue for the current year for which the budget is made as estimated by the county auditor.

Filing of Budget Upon Final Approval

Sec. 7. Upon final approval of the budget by the commissioners court, a copy of such budget as approved shall be filed with the county auditor, the clerk of the court, and the state auditor, and no expenditures of the funds of the county shall thereafter be made except in strict compliance with said budget. Said court may upon proper application transfer an existing budget surplus during the year to a budget of like kind and fund, but no such transfer shall increase the total of the budget.

Obtaining Necessary Information

Sec. 8. In the preparation of the budget, the county budget officer shall have authority to require of any district, county, or precinct officer of the county such information as may be necessary to properly prepare the budget.

Assistance to Commissioners Court

Sec. 9. The county budget officer may also assist the commissioners court in the performance of their duties with regard to the efficiency and effectiveness of county operations.

Employment of Personnel

Sec. 10. The commissioners court of counties covered by this Act are hereby authorized to appoint and employ such other persons they deem necessary to assist the county budget officer in the performance of his duties.

Conflicting Provisions Repealed

Sec. 12. To the extent that any provisions of this Act conflict with provisions in Chapter 1, page 144, General Laws, Acts of the 46th Legislature, 1939, as amended (Article 1666a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes), concerning the preparation of the county budget, such provisions in Article 1666a, Vernon's Texas Civil Statutes, are repealed to the extent of the conflict.

CHAPTER FOUR A. FAMILY DISTRICT COURTS

Art. 1926a. Family District Court Act

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Short Title

Sec. 1.01. This Act may be cited as the Family District Court Act.

Purpose

Sec. 1.02. (a) This Act substitutes district courts of general jurisdiction, to be called family district courts, for the existing domestic relations courts and special juvenile courts. It also restructures existing juvenile boards in certain counties and provides for the future creation and organization of juvenile boards in other counties. Subchapter A contains general provisions applicable to all family district courts, now or later created, and Subchapter B creates the new family district courts. Subchapter C contains temporary provisions.

(b) This Act is designed so that future legislatures may create new family district courts by adding a section to Subchapter B without repeating the general provisions of Subchapter A relating to jurisdiction, terms, personnel, facilities, and administration of all family district courts.

Jurisdiction

Sec. 1.03. (a) A family district court has the jurisdiction and power provided for district courts by the constitution and laws of this state. Its jurisdiction is concurrent with that of other district courts in the county in which it is located.

(b) A family district court shall have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. These matters include but are not limited to:

- (1) adoptions;
- (2) birth records;
- (3) divorce and marriage annulment;
- (4) child welfare, custody, support and reciprocal support, dependency, neglect, and delinquency;
- (5) parent and child; and
- (6) husband and wife.

(c) This Act does not limit the jurisdiction of other district courts nor relieve them of responsibility for handling cases involving family law matters.

Terms of Court

Sec. 1.04. The terms of a family district court begin on the first Monday in January and the first Monday in July of each year. Each term of court continues until the next succeeding term begins.

Judge

Sec. 1.05. (a) A family district court judge's qualifications and term of office are the same as those prescribed by the constitution and laws of this state for district judges. A family district court judge is elected in the same manner as a district judge.

(b) A family district court judge is entitled to the same compensation and allowances provided by the state and county for the other district judges in his county.

Court Officials, Personnel, and Facilities

Sec. 1.06. (a) Each family district court judge may appoint an official court reporter. The reporter must have the qualifications prescribed by law for that office and is entitled to the same compensation, fees, and allowances provided by law for other official court reporters in the county.

(b) The district attorney, criminal district attorney, or county attorney, and the sheriff and district clerk shall serve each family district court in his county in the same manner he serves the district court or courts of his county.

(c) The commissioners court of the county in which a family district court is located shall provide the physical facilities and the deputy clerks, bailiffs, and other personnel necessary to operate the family district court.

County Juvenile Board

Sec. 1.07. (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a family district court is created in a county, that county's juvenile board is composed of the county judge, the family district court judge or judges, the district judge or judges whose jurisdiction includes the county, and the judges of all other courts in the county having jurisdiction over juvenile matters. The juvenile board has the powers and duties prescribed by law.

(b) The juvenile board shall appoint a chief juvenile probation officer who shall serve as the chief administrative officer of the family district court at the pleasure of the juvenile board. Subject to approval of the juvenile board, the chief juvenile probation officer shall select as many assistant probation officers and other personnel as are necessary to perform the duties assigned him by the juvenile board.

(a) This section applies to each person serving as judge of a domestic relations court or a special juvenile court on the date on which the court was abolished by this Act and replaced with a family district court and to each person serving as judge of a district court or appellate court on the effective date of this Act but who formerly served as judge of a domestic relations court or special juvenile court abolished by this Act.

(b) Each judge, at his option, may pay into the State Treasury no less than six percent plus interest of that salary that would have been paid to him had he been paid by the state for his full tenure on any court of domestic relations or special juvenile court. Upon such payment and the compliance with the transfer herein provided the judge will be given full credit for such tenure toward state judicial retirement.

In addition, for such full credit to apply, any judge of the family district court, district court, or appellate court who elects to secure credit in the judicial retirement system pursuant to this section shall forfeit all rights to any county and district retirement system other than the reserves for the additional funds, if any, paid by the county to such judge over and above the amount of state salary paid to district judges by the state, for the tenure for which credit is sought. Such county and district retirement systems shall transfer to the judicial retirement system all sums credited to the account of such judge except the amount paid in for such additional salary, if any, whether paid by the judge or by the employer, plus accumulated interest thereon, in such county and district retirement system.
